Thursday, March 21 PRESIDENT EISENHOWER and Prime Minister Harold Macmillan of Great Britain expressed hope that their four-day conference in Bermuda would strengthen the friendship of the United States, Britain and the Free World. The two leaders jointly expressed the public hope in a colorful ceremony marking their arrival on this British island colony.

Macmillan arrived at the island first and was on hand to greet the President at the dock in Hamilton. The President got three 21-gun salutes as he reached Bermuda. The two heads of government were joined in the conference by their foreign secretaries, John Foster Dulles for the United States and Selwyn Lloyd for Britain.

Let's assume you've known them for some length of time.

And now you see them for the first time in the company of a Cadillac car. There's just no question about it . . .

something wonderful happens! For the presence of a Cadillac dramatically underscores so many of the things

Incidentally, you may have noticed, of

"Dad" trained (KID) Lavigne, Foster Stresses Highway Needs

A new area in highway construction has arrived in Michigan, according to George M. Foster, Republican Candidate for State Highway Commissioner. Last August unprecedented sums of money, both for state and federal construction, became available, Foster says, and In 1931 "Dad" was selected by these monies, together with bond provisions, make an immediate, vast highway construction program of modern highways for our state not only choice as track coach and trainer | financially possible, but obliga-

Improved highway facilities must be provided of the three individuals to be to accommodate anticipated traffic volume increases which will result with the opening of the Straits of Mackinac Bridge. This means considerable road improvements, both in the Upper Peninsula and the northern part of the Lower Peninsula. We must also work for the speedy completion of the expressway systems in heavily in-

In 1951 our construction program was only $43 million dollars. In 1955 it jumped to $72 million, the highest ever reached at that time. The 1956 program ran considerably over $150 million dollars. And the program for 1957 will run at least $185 million. "Self styled critics of the State Highway Department are either totally unaware of scope with Charley Gehringer, base- of Michigan's highway construction program, or are de-

Church to Dedicate New Building

Dedicatory services of the Parish Education Building and Church Annex for Peace Lutheran Church, East Warren and Balfour, Detroit, will be held on Sunday, March 31. The Rev. Edwin C. Weber of Fraser, Michigan will be the guest speaker at the three services at 8 a.m., 9:30 a.m. and 11 a.m.

Open house will be held in the afternoon. The public is invited to inspect the new building at this time and be the guests of the Ladies' Aid who will serve refreshments. Realizing the need for greater facilities for church and Sunday School, Bible Classes, Confirmation and Adult Classes, offices, choir, nursery and general parish activities, plans were made for the new Parish Education Building and Church Annex. Work has begun on April Patterson, President of Square 2, 1956, and now the building is ready for dedication.

Merritt and Cole, Detroit Architects, designed the building. The general contractor was the Cooper Construction Company. Galvin and Lane served as the mechanical contractors, while Weber Electric Company were the electrical contractors. The total cost of the building together with the furnishings will amount to $278,000.00.

Peace Lutheran Church was organized as a mission congregation in a store building in the fall of 1927. The first frame chapel was dedicated by Christmas of that year. In 1929 the building became too small and an addition was added. This building served for Church and Sunday School on Sundays and Christian Day School on week days. On February 16, 1941, the present church edifice was dedicated to the glory of God. The membership at present numbers 1,422 communicants. The school was dedicated January 21, 1951, and at present has a faculty of In 1944 he joined Electric ight, teaching 305 pupils. The Sunday School has an enroll- Co. as treasurer. #### Honor Students Being Selected

By Margie Reins GPHS Journalism Student

It's too late! It's too-late now for 12A's at Grosse Pointe High School to do anything more that will influence whether or not they will Honor Society.

One of the highest honors that when he graduates is election to National Honor Society. This is a society composed of students who proved outstanding not only in academic record but whose personalities and extra-curricular interests have been taken into consideration.

The names of those eligible have already been distributed to faculty members for rating. Every 12A with a B average or better was on the list.

All teachers rated the students they knew according to three catagories: character, leadership, and service.

Character includes the attitudes of the student toward responsibility, honesty, and reliability; his cheerfulness, friendliness, and compliance with school rules. Leadership is based upon his ability to direct others in conduct and achievement. Service is measured by the student's willingness to do service for the school teachers, visitors other students, and the Teachers do not consider scholastic ability in their decisions, since scholarship is required for the student getting on the list in the first place. No one or two teachers can disqualify a candidate if all others rate him high.

When all have been rated, the results will be tabulated and ranked from the highest student to the lowest. Fifteen per cent of the class will be elected. In the case of the class of June '57 the 56 highest on the list will be selected.

Results will be published soon after Easter vacation.

YOU HAVE A RIGHT TO BE HEARD!

For the past several years it has become increasingly apparent that the Grosse Pointe Farms Council has been controlled by a small group of the councilmen who have indicated little interest in the real needs of the community. These men have resisted many ideas for community improvement presented to them by the residents of the Farms.

This situation MUST BE CORRECTED if the Farms is to have effective, intelligent planning and management. To help accomplish this, the COMMITTEE FOR BETTER GOVERN-MENT in Grosse Pointe Farms has been formed. This Committee has adopted the following objectives:

- Give Grosse Pointe Farms residents the opportunity to be heard in the government of their community.
- 2. LEADERSHIP for the benefit of all Farms residents. Be governed by a UNIFIED council that believes in giving community
- Safeguard the ENTIRE Farms as a top-quality residential area.
- 4. Improve and protect ALL playgrounds and recreational areas.
- 5. Give the Farms a SOUND program that will provide safe traffic conditions.

The COMMITTEE FOR BETTER GOVERNMENT has carefully screened all candidates for election to the G.P. Farms council. The Committee has determined from this screening that there are THREE MEN WHO ARE FULLY QUALIFIED TO SUPPORT THESE OBJEC-TIVES AND GIVE THE GROSSE POINTE FARMS COUNCIL THE STRENGTH THAT IS NECESSARY TO ACCOMPLISH THESE OBJECTIVES.

Voting Is a Privilege

Monday is Election Day in all five of the Pointe municipalities and the Township. There are local issues at enemies as we are of our friends. My remarks re Grosse stake in but three, but all will be privileged to cast ballots. Pte social climbers still goes; I read the society page for a for state and county officers. Council members and other local officials will be elected in the Woods, Farms and there are many self sacrificing people in the Pointes giving Park.

We shall not attempt to get into personalities here. The mere fact that there are all of these municipal entities In what is truly but a single community, produces such a mass of candidates that it is impossible to know all of them well enough to evaluate their true abilities. This is particularly true of the new aspirants who have not been in column. At the same time, you too mispelled a word—see action in council meetings. The League of Women Voters has prepared a compilation of all these candidates. It is available in pamphlet form, as explained in a news story in this issue, to all who are interested. To have printed the complete report in this paper would have required several pages of solid type which doubtless would have been read by few.

It is the duty of every good citizen to acquaint himself with civic affairs and to know the men and women who community type (not the kind of social flibberty-jibbet that are in charge of their administration. In case you

It is true that in the past there have been governing bodies which have run their municipalities much in the manner of private clubs, and have refused to give proper attention to the individuals or groups who have tried to be heard. We believe this practice has largely been cured, and we like to think that this paper has had more than a little do with the correction of this situation.

The councils welcome the attendance at all meetings of Interested citizens who seek information or want to offer her. While driving along behind it . . . she saw one of the sound advice. Naturally, they have little patience with those who came to heckle or make unreasonable demands.

It is hoped that there will be a large turnout at the polls Monday. The right of franchise is one of our greatest | pull over to the curb please?" privileges. Those who fail to exercise it have no right to criticize after the ballots have been cast.

Guess we'll have to apologize to Mr. Hunter for questioning his right to use that name. Looks like the real McCoy all right . . . but he had better make himself known to the local constabulary ... just in case he ever needs them. THEY'VE never heard of him not even drivers-license-wise. Anyway, following is what Mr. H. refers to as his LAST message. Say not so, dear sir, say not so. You have caused such a furor in Grosse Pointe you would be sorely missed in Grosse Exaggerations. Here 'tis:

NO. Oxford Rd. Grosse Pte, 3-22-57

"A. Pryor Grosse Pointe News. Grosse Pointe, Mich. "Dear Mrs. Pryor;

Your rebuttal which we have just finished reading gave all of us cause for merriment; I think we found the "chink in your armor" despite your struggles to wiggle out. However must admit was surprised to learn you are of the opposite sex (Boy can they be opposite) You do not have the facilities to base a decision on whether I reside on North Oxford Road as there is no telephone listed in my name—to set your mind at ease I am a retired bachelor, and as you may have surmised from my previous epistle. I have time on my hands to needle some of those people who are wide open for criticism. I do not think my friends would call me cynical or choleric—some of course resent well deserved criticism—but any one with any self respect worthy of the name does have enemies and we should be as proud of our good laugh at the "rat race" of such people—and admit of their time, talents and money for many worthy causes my remarks were directed at the little people who constantly are striving to get in the inner social swim—such little people. My teen-age niece is helping out the Girl Scouts to-day so have to do my own typing so pardon any typing mistakes such as "carcks" you stressed in your last

Again I dare you to publish this, my last message to you. It has been fun and maybe it has done some good in he right places."

Sincerely, George B. Hunter

A veddy rich and social gent in the Pointe, (not Hunter's type), is known for letting his hair grow to the carrya-violin stage before having it snipped off. The Scotch courage in Mac came to the fore. He strode up to the woman and said: "I will take that hat. I know who it belongs to." And he took it, forthwith. As he later told Madame Dean . . . 'I' just KNEW that hat had to belong to you . . . so I took a chance that you'd been in there and had forgotten it." It turned out that this particular chapeau had been a

Creation of better products from the Museum's own collectends to increase the earning tion: a replica of the Charles and spending power of the American people, "and we must man works," he said.

As an example, he pointed out that 2,000 Americans can make as much synthetic rubber in a well equipped factory, as 80,000 Malayans can produce working, not eight-hour shifts, but from dawn to dusk in the heat of the jungle. The Malay-an works with only a few dollars worth of tools; the American with millions of dollars worth, and consequently, is more productive.

De Vore pointed out that 100 years ago, 90 percent of the output of American industry came from the power of muscles in horses, men, women and children, whereas today, 95 percent of industrial production comes from the power of machines. "That is why we have been able to abolish child labor and were the first nation in the world to make the 40-hour week standard in industry," he said. He illustrated the difference of the present day manufactur-ing of automobiles and that of the method in 1910. If we use the 1910 method, and pay today's wages, he said, cars today vould cost about $65,000 each.

The security of the nation depends upon the strength of its industry and agriculture and the "moral fiber of its people," he added. "May we never forget that the free processes which made us strong never have been duplicated anywhere else in the world. May we never lose faith in our way and in our Providence. For if we fail to maintain the strongest moral and economic force on earth, the world may never know the peace for which it longs," said

How to Profit THROUGH

With today's high tax levels, investors in medium and high tax brackets are turning to tax-free Municipal Bonds for income that

If you have a taxable income of $10,000 or more, you may be well repaid by investigating the advantages of tax-exempt State and Municipal Bonds. For instance, if you file a single return on a taxable income of $14,000, you would have to receive a divi dend return of 7.45% on a taxable security in order to equal the yield from a 3.50% tax-free Bond. It's something to think about?

Our New Booklet, 'How To Profit Through Tax-Exemption" explains in plain language your need for tax exemption, tells how much these high-grade investments can be worth to you. There's no obligation. Send for copy today,

City of Grosse Pointe Notice of Ordinance Adoption

ORDINANCE No. 96 Zoning Ordinance

An Ordinance amending and codifying City of Grosse Pointe Ordinance No. 12 entitled Zoning Ordinance, being an Ordinance adopted and approved October 28, 1927 and thereafter from time to time amended, and establishing districts within which the use of land and structures and the height, the area, the size and location of buildings are regulated and within which districts regulations are established for the light and ventilation of such buildings, and within which districts the density of population is regulated by ordinance and providing for the administration of this ordinance and for amendments, supplements or changes thereto and providing for conflict with the State Housing Code and other Acts, ordinances and regulations and providing for penalties for the violation of the terms of this Ordinance and for giving immediate effect thereto.

CITY OF GROSSE POINTE ORDAINS

ARTICLE I Definitions

For the purpose of this ordinance certain terms used are herewith defined:

Section 1.1 STREET—A Street is a public thoroughfare or way thirty feet or more in width.

Section 1.2 ALLEY—An Alley is a public thoroughfare or way less than thirty feet in width.

Section 1.3 LOT—A piece or parcel of land occupied or to be occupied by a building and its accessory buildings and including the open spaces required under this ordinance. A lot existing and of record is a lot the dimensions of which are shown on a document or map on file with the register of deeds or in common use by county or City officers, and which actually exists as so shown, or any part of such lot held in ownership of record separate from the remainder

The term "lot" as used here does not necessarily refer to a lot shown on a subdivision plat or held in a single ownership and described in a deed. It means the parcel of ground necessary for the conduct of a given activity in accordance with the yard and court requirements of the zoning ordinance. Thus, a group of five or six building lots as shown on the City map might be acquired as the site for a terrace dwelling, with allowance for the building itself and the yards required about it, and when so used or intended to be so used, it is a single lot in the meaning of the zoning ordinance. Or a man owning a large lot might build two or three houses on it to rent, but they would have to be so placed that each had about it the full street frontage and yards required in this ordinance independent of the yards belonging to any of the others, and each parcel of land containing a house and its required yards would be considered a lot, whether in separate ownership or not, and would be required to meet independently all zoning require-

Again a man owning sixty feet of frontage in a Residence A District might build a single family two-story house thirty feet wide in the middle of it. He could sell strips from the side of his lot without changing its status under the zoning law so long as the required side yard remained on each side of his house, but if he should sell off part of the required side yard on one side of his house to give a neighbor a larger building site, that neighbor could not use any part of the seller's required side yard in figuring the size of his own lot when applying for a building permit. (This is covered in Section 3.4.) In other words, the strip of land required adjoining a building is considered to be a part of the lot on which that building stands even though it may have been transferred in whole or in part to a different owner.

Section 1.5 CORNER LOT-A corner lot is a lot with at least two adjacent sides abutting for their full length upon a street, provided that such two sides intersect at an angle of not more than 135°. A lot abutting upon a curved street or streets shall be considered a corner lot for the purpose of this ordinance if the tangents to the curve at its points of beginning within the lot or at the points of intersection of the side lot lines with the street line intersect at an angle of not over 135°. In the case of a corner lot with a curved street line the corner shall be considered to be that point on the street line nearest to the point of intersection of the tangents herein described.

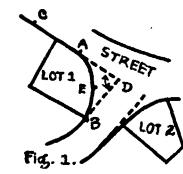

Figure 1. Lot No. 1 is a corner lot with a curved street line A.B. A is the point of beginning of the curve within the lot. The straight line C-A produced, is the tangent to the curve at A. The curve is already started at the edge of the lot at point B, so the tangent is taken where the side lot line intersects the street line. The two tangents meet at D, forming an angle of less than 135°. E is the point on the street line nearest to D and so is the "corner." Lot No. 2 is not a corner lot because the angle between the tangents is greater than 135°.

Section 1.6 INTERIOR LOT—A lot other than a corner lot

Section 1.7 FRONT LOT LINE—In the case of a lot abutting upon only one street, the front lot line is the line separating such lot from such street. In the case of any other lot one such line shall be elected to be the front lot line for the purposes of this ordinance provided it is so designated on the building plans filed for approval with the Building Inspector, and provided that where a corner lot, with or without additional property adjoining, is used as the site of a terrace or multiple dwelling, such terrace or multiple dwelling must front upon both such streets, and no garage or accessory building of such terrace or multiple dwelling shall be constructed upon such lot or lots excepting in the rear of the same.

Section 1.8 REAR LOT LINE—The rear lot line is that boundary which is opposite and most distant from the front lot line. In the case of a lot pointed at the rear the rear lot line shall be that line parallel to the front lot line, not less than ten feet long lying farthest from the front lot line and wholly within the lot.

Section 1.9 SIDE LOT LINE—A side lot line is any lot boundary line not a front lot line or a rear lot line. A side lot line separating a lot from a street is a side street lot line. A side lot line separating a lot from another lot or lots is an interior side lot line.

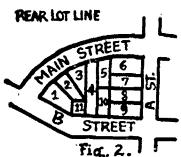

Figure No. 2 shows an irregularly lotted block. Lot 6 would normally face A Street, but if the owner wishes to take advantage of the Main Street frontage, he may do so by calling that side the "front lot line" at the time of filing his building plans.

The side on A Street automatically becomes a side lot line, and the line running back from A Street is the rear lot line. On lot 4 if the Main Street frontage is designated the front lot line, the

B Street frontage automatically becomes the rear lot line. Lot No. 3 is a three-sided lot, the sides of which intersect at a point. The rear lot line is therefore, according to the definition, an imaginary line ten feet long parallel to the front lot line and placed as far back on the lot as possible. Section 1.10 FRONT YARDS—A front yard is an open space extending the full width of a lot and of a uniform depth measured horizontally at right angles to the front lot line, unoccupied from the ground upward except as hereinafter

Section 1.11 REAR YARD—A rear yard is an open space extending the full width of a lot and of a uniform depth measured horizontally at right angles to the rear lot line. and unoccupied from the ground upward except as hereinafter specified. Section 1.12 SIDE YARD-A side yard is an open space extending from the front yard to the rear yard and of a uniform width measured horizontally at right angles to the side lot line, and unoccupied from the ground upward except as hereinafter specified. Section 1.13. COURTS—A court is an open unoccupied space, other than a yard. A court not extending to the street or front or rear yard is an inner court. A court-extending to the street or front yard or rear yard is an outer court.

OUTER COURTS Figure 3. The yards and courts are the open spaces required to give light and air about the buildings on a lot. The width of side yards and courts and the depth of front and rear yards required for different kinds of buildings BUILDABLE are given in the ordinance. These dimensions are uniform for the full length of the yard except where additional width is required for the rear portions of side yards beside extra deep buildings. After the yards required for a contemplated type of building have been laid off on the lot, any part of the area remaining, or all of it if desired, can be used for the principal building. Porches, garages and other projections and accessory buildings may occupy portions of the required yards to the extent prescribed in the ordinance.

If a semi-detached dwelling is permitted on two adjoining lots outer courts may be substituted for the intervening side yards as prescribed in the ordinance, the buildable area being found as before.

Section 1.14 HEIGHT OF BUILDING—The height of a building is the vertical distance from the established sidewalk grade at the center of the front of the building to the highest point of the roof surface if a flat roof, to the deck line for mansard roofs, and to the mean height level between eaves and ridge for gabled, hip and gambrel roofs. For buildings set back from the street line the height of the building may be measured from the average elevation of the finished grade along the front of the building, provided such average elevation shall not exceed the established sidewalk grade at the center of the front of the building by more than one inch for each foot that the building sets back from the front lot line.

Section 1.15 HALF STORY-A half story is a story which is situated in a sloping roof, the usable floor area of which does not exceed one-half of the floor area of the story immediately below it. A half-story shall not be counted as a story for the purpose of determining yard dimensions.

Section 1.16 DWELLING-A dwelling is any house or building or portion thereof which is occupied wholly as the home, residence or sleeping place of one or more human beings, either permanently or transiently. In cases of mixed occupancy, where a building is occupied in part as a dwelling, the part so occupied shall be deemed a dwelling for the purposes of this ordinance and shall comply with the provisions thereof relative to dwellings.

Section 1.17—CLASSES OF DWELLINGS—For the purposes of this ordinance, dwellings are divided into the following classes: (a) "Private dwellings"; (b) "Terrace dwellings"; (c) "Two family dwellings"; and (d) "Multiple Dwellings." (a) A "Private dwelling" is a dwelling containing but one housekeeping unit and occupied by but one family alone. (b) A "terrace dwelling" is a series of attached private dwellings separated from one another by common or party walls of fireproof construction, and composed of three (3) to twelve (12) attached one family dwellings, not more than two and one-half stories in height, nor more than two (2) rooms deep facing upon a street, except as otherwise provided in Section VII hereof. (c) A "two family dwelling" is a dwelling containing but two housekeeping units occupied by but two families alone.

(d) A "multiple dwelling" is a dwelling occupied otherwise than as a private or two family dwelling.

Section 1.18 CLASSES OF MULTIPLE DWELLINGS—All multiple dwellings are dwellings and for the purposes of this ordinance, as the same may be amended from time to time, are divided into two classes, viz.: Class A and Class B. Class A. Multiple dwellings of Class A are dwellings containing three or more independent housekeeping units and which are occupied more or less permanently for residence purposes by several families. This class includes apartment houses, bachelor apartments, studio apartments, kitchenette apartments, and all other dwellings similarly occupied whether specifically enumerated herein or not. Class B. Multiple dwellings of Class B are dwellings which are occupied, as a rule, transiently, as the more or less temporary abiding place of individuals who are lodged, with or without meals, and in which as a rule the rooms are occupied singly. This class includes lodging houses, boarding houses, furnished room houses, club houses, convents, asylums, hospitals, jails and other dwellings similarly occupied, whether specifically enumerated herein or not.
Section 1.19 HOTEL—A hotel is a multiple dwelling of Class B in which persons are lodged for hire and in which there are more than fifty sleeping rooms, a public dining room for the accommodation of at least fifty guests, and a The definition of dwellings and classes are taken from the State Housing Code, with such modifications as fit them for use in this ordinance.

Section 1.20 GARAGE, PRIVATE—A private garage is a space or structure with not over eight hundred square feet of ground floor area, for private use, for storage only, having no public shop or service in connection therewith, and housing not more than four automobiles of which not more than one may be a Commercial automobile.

Section 1.21 GARAGE, COMMUNITY—A series of private garages located jointly on a parcel of land under a single

Section 1.22 GARAGE, PUBLIC-A space or structure, other than a private or a community garage, for the storage, care, repair or refinishing of motor vehicles, except that a structure or room used solely for the display and sale of such vehicles, in which they are not operated under their own power, and in connection with which there is no repair; maintenance or refinishing service or storage of vehicles other than those displayed, shall not be considered a public garage for the purpose of this ordinance.

ARTICLE II Districts

Section 2.1 For the purpose of this ordinance, the City of Grosse Pointe is hereby divided into the following districts:

Residence A districts Residence A-1 districts Residence B districts Residence C districts Local Business districts Open Public Parking districts

> ARTICLE III General Provisions

Section 3.1 Except as hereinafter provided, no building or premises or part thereof shall be used, altered, constructed or reconstructed except in conformity with the provisions of this ordinance which apply to the district in which it is located. However, any lawful non-conforming use existing at the time of passage of this ordinance may be continued provided that the building or premises involved shall neither be structurally altered or enlarged unless such altered or enlarged part and the use thereof shall conform to the provisions of this ordinance for the district in which it is located. No non-conforming use if discontinued for more than one year or changed to a use permitted in the district in which it is located shall be resumed or changed back to a non-conforming use.

Section 3.2 Nothing in this ordinance shall prevent the restoration of a building destroyed less than fifty per cent of its value, exclusive of the foundations, by fire, explosion, act of God, or act of the public enemy, subsequent to the passage of this ordinance; or shall prevent the continuance of the use of such building or part thereof as such use existed at the time of such impairment of such building or part

Section 3.3 Nothing in this ordinance shall require any change in the plans, construction or intended use of a building for which a building permit has been issued prior to the time of passage of this ordinance and the construction of which shall have been diligently prosecuted within six months of the date of such permit, and the ground story framework of which, including the second tier of beams, shall have been completed within such six months, and which entire building shall be completed according to such plans as filed wtihin two years from the date of the adoption of this ordinance. Nothing herein contained shall prevent the ultimate erection to its full height as originally planned of a building constructed to a less height prior to the adoption of this ordinance, but with its foundation and structural members designed to carry the higher building. Nothing herein contained shall prevent the strengthening or restoration of any building or wall declared unsafe by the Building Inspector.

Section 3.4 No yard, court or other open space provided about any building for the purpose of complying with the provisions of these regulations shall again be used as a yard, court or other open space for another building existing or intended to exist at the same time.

This provision prevents the erection of buildings closer together than is intended by the ordinance through the device of selling off a strip of land already used as a yard in procuring the building permit for one building so that the same strip can be shown as the yard required for an adjoining building.

Section 3.5 No dwelling shall be built, moved or converted upon a lot having a frontage of less than twenty feet upon a public street, or upon a private street or other permanent easement giving access to a public street, such private street or easement to have a width throughout of not less than ten feet for each lot fronting upon it, but this shall not require a width for such private street or easement of more than forty feet where less than ten lots front upon it or of more than sixty feet in any case.

Section 3.6 No building permit shall be issued for any construction located on any lot or parcel of land in the City of Grosse Pointe that does not abut on a public street or highway or upon a private street fully improved according to Section 8, entitled Minimum Improvements, of Ordinance No. 67 adopted August 25, 1953, relating to new Subdivisions, Provided that this ordinance shall not be the basis for preventing the issuance of a building permit for ordinary repair or maintenance of any building that is already erected on the date of the adoption of this ordinance upon a lot or parcel of land that does not so abut on such a street or highway. For the purposes of this ordinance no parcel of land shall be construed to abut on such a street or highway unless it includes title to a minimum frontage of 20 feet on such street or highway and title to land providing access not less than 20 feet in width from such street or highway to the proposed construction.

Section 3.7 Wherever there is a public alley at the rear of a lot upon which the lot abuts for its full width, measurement of the depth of any abutting rear yard required under this ordinance may be made to the center line of such alley.

Section 3.8 Along any boundary line between two different kinds of districts any side yard, rear yard or lot line court required in the less restricted district, shall be increased in minimum width and depth to the average of the required minimum widths and depths for such yards and courts in the two kinds of districts.

Section 3.9 Where the height of a building in feet is greater than fifteen times the number of stories, such building shall be considered to be divided into stories fifteen feet in height for the purpose of determining yard requirements under Section 3.10 Outside stairways, fire-escapes, fire-towers, porches, platforms, balconies, boiler flues and other projections shall be considered as part of the building and not as a part of the yards or courts or unoccupied spaces. Here is another story to add to the growing legend of endearing and distinguished Mrs. Henry B. Joy. When she is escorted to her pew in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church each Sunday she is always carrying a cardboard box. It seems she brings home-baked cookies to the choir to bolster their energies between the 9:30 and 11 o'clock services.

Another culinary note comes from the Wallace Hoggsons and several other Pointe pairs who have discovered a gourmet's heaven in Marathon in the Keys off Florida's coast. There they found a small, picturesque restaurant, which served just 30 guests. Elsie and John Masterton, the proprietors, were sophisticated New Yorkers who turned a Vermont farm, Blueberry Hill, into a famous ski resort, and are now trying their luck in the Keys.

Delectable fare such as sour cream biscuits, turtle and chicken soup spiked with cinnamon, roast pheasant with artichokes and divers types of blueberries draw far more patrons than the tiny restaurant can serve.

Pointers are already planning farewell parties for the popular Antonio Carlonis, who have been here for the past three years representing the Italian Government. In August they will depart for their next post, Brussels.

Foreign cars have been creating a stir in the Pointe for some seasons past but the Wilfred Gmeiners are the most enthusiastic fans yet with three of the beauties in There is a white Mercedes SL 300, one of those with tricky gadgets to make the top come down when the door is opened. Then there is a green convertible Mercedes and for the Gmeiner scion a popular German Volkswagen. The Howard Girardins have a Cunningham, the British manufacturer's own personal car, dead white and looking slightly like a beetle. Ann Sherer's new turquoise Jaguar is the envy of the young set as is Joe Muer's black topped green convertible Triumph. The Dan Simmonses own a brand new golden Volkswagen and swimming star Harry Huffaker sports an MG.

A sad fate awaited Mrs. Henry De Segur Lauve's silver hued Fiat when she parked it on a visit to Deeplands road. Its brand new Ghia body was dented by a careening auto, no doubt not a sports car because most of these owners guard their precious imports passionately.

Lovely floral tribute from daughter to mother was the gift idea of Mrs. Theodore Osius who showered her mother with orchids and antheriums flown direct from Hawaii for Mrs. Frank W. Lindemann's 75th birthday tea last Friday. Mrs. Osius has just returned from that tropic isle and delighted her mother and her family with the unusual blooms.

PILFERINGS:

The boss was dictating to the new, pretty and sophistieated stenographer. Suddenly he stopped.

"Am I too fast for you?" he asked anxiously. She considered him and then replied:

"Oh, no, indeed, but you're a trifle old."

Coroner:-"Was this man you found dead on the railroad track a total stranger?"

Witness (who had been told to be careful in his statements):-"No, sir. His leg was gone entirely. He was a partial stranger, sir."

Success demands sacrifice. Two men set out to achieve same. One succeeded. The other lived.

The loss of a sense of humor is sometimes one of the punishments of success.

Success is counted sweetest By those who ne'er succeed. . . . Emily Dickinson.

A Sunday school teacher had been enlightening her class upon what constituted wickedness, and at the close of the lesson she addressed one of the scholars: "Rosie, do you know what wickedness it?"

"Yes, teacher," replied Rosie, "though I didn't until I came to Sunday School."

You don't learn to hold your own in the world by standing on guard, but by attacking, and getting well hammered yourself. . . . George Bernard Shaw.

MRS. B. C. KINDL, OF LAKEPOINTE AVENUE By Patricia Talbot

If you want to learn about art, science, history, literature, craftmanship and human nature being collecting snuff boxes. Such is Mrs. Kindl's advice and she has been working at her unusual hobby for over 15 years and has over

For some time she had been collecting paper weights and pitchers in her Bethlehem, Pa., home and they beautifully complimented the charming antiques she possess. But these would never fit into the cabinet and in a local antique shop she found her first box.

This was a famous Battersea, an enamel on copper plate, which was given as a love token in the early nineteenth century. On this unique Valentine is enscribed in delicate English script, "I am a Venus, If aright I scan. Thou must be mine, Or I'm no more a man."

Varied Collection

Our Pointer has snuff boxes from all over Europe, most of which she tracked down herself. Kindl's father has been trapped like the silver one inset with miniatures of Napolean and Josephine, or the delicate Viennese Clark Women's Club enamel box with the grotesque dwarf holding a fiddle.
