HEADLINES of the WEEK As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, April 25
EGYPT REVEALED its long awaited plans on the operation of the Suez Canal, in which it made clear it is determined to maintain complete control. It is also stressed it will still continue to bar Israeli shipping. The plan was disclosed by Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser, even as the United States prepared to bring up the Suez question before the United Nations. Under the present terms, ships of every nation, except Israel, are using the waterway under Egypt's terms. The first American vessel since the waterway was closed last November steamed through the canal yesterday. The first British ship went through last week. The Egyptian plan made no mention of the six principles laid down by the UN Council last October to insure the waterway was "insulated" from politics.

A TEST MISSILE the Lockheed X-17, launched at the Patrick Air Force Base, Fla., reached a record speed of 9,240 miles an hour, or 14 times the speed of sound, sources in Washington said. The previous record of a fired missile was 8,000 miles an hour, recorded by a five-stage research rocket fired from the Wallops Island (Va.) facility of the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics.

The X-17, the sources said, also is reported to have reached the height of 600 miles, about the same as that of a Jupiter-C test missile fired from the Air Force base recently.

THE STATE SENATE gave tentative approval to a bill that will revive the Michigan Turnpike Plan by earmarking approximately $3,000,000 from the gas tax funds to pay for bonds. Backer of the plan was Senator Haskell Nichols, Jackson Republican, whose plea advanced the bill to its third reading and a final vote.

He said the Senate could show its support for ex-Senator George N. Higgins, now chairman of the inactive Turnpike Authority, by voting for the measure. Nichols said if the Senate backed the measure for the toll road bonds, then the bonds could be sold and the turnpike constructed.

Friday, April 26
THE UNITED STATES ordered the Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean Sea to Jordan, the trouble spot of the Middle East. The move was regarded as a possible prelude to the first test of the Eisenhower Doctrine which calls for aid to any Middle East nation beset by Communism. However, the State Department said that King Hussein of Jordan had not requested any aid from the United States, but the fleet is being sent just in case.

In a series of dramatic moves, Hussein imposed military law throughout his realm, named a new government, placed a curfew on the nation's main cities and abolished the country's 10 political parties. Britain and the United States invited the King to request help, but Hussein said it is not needed.

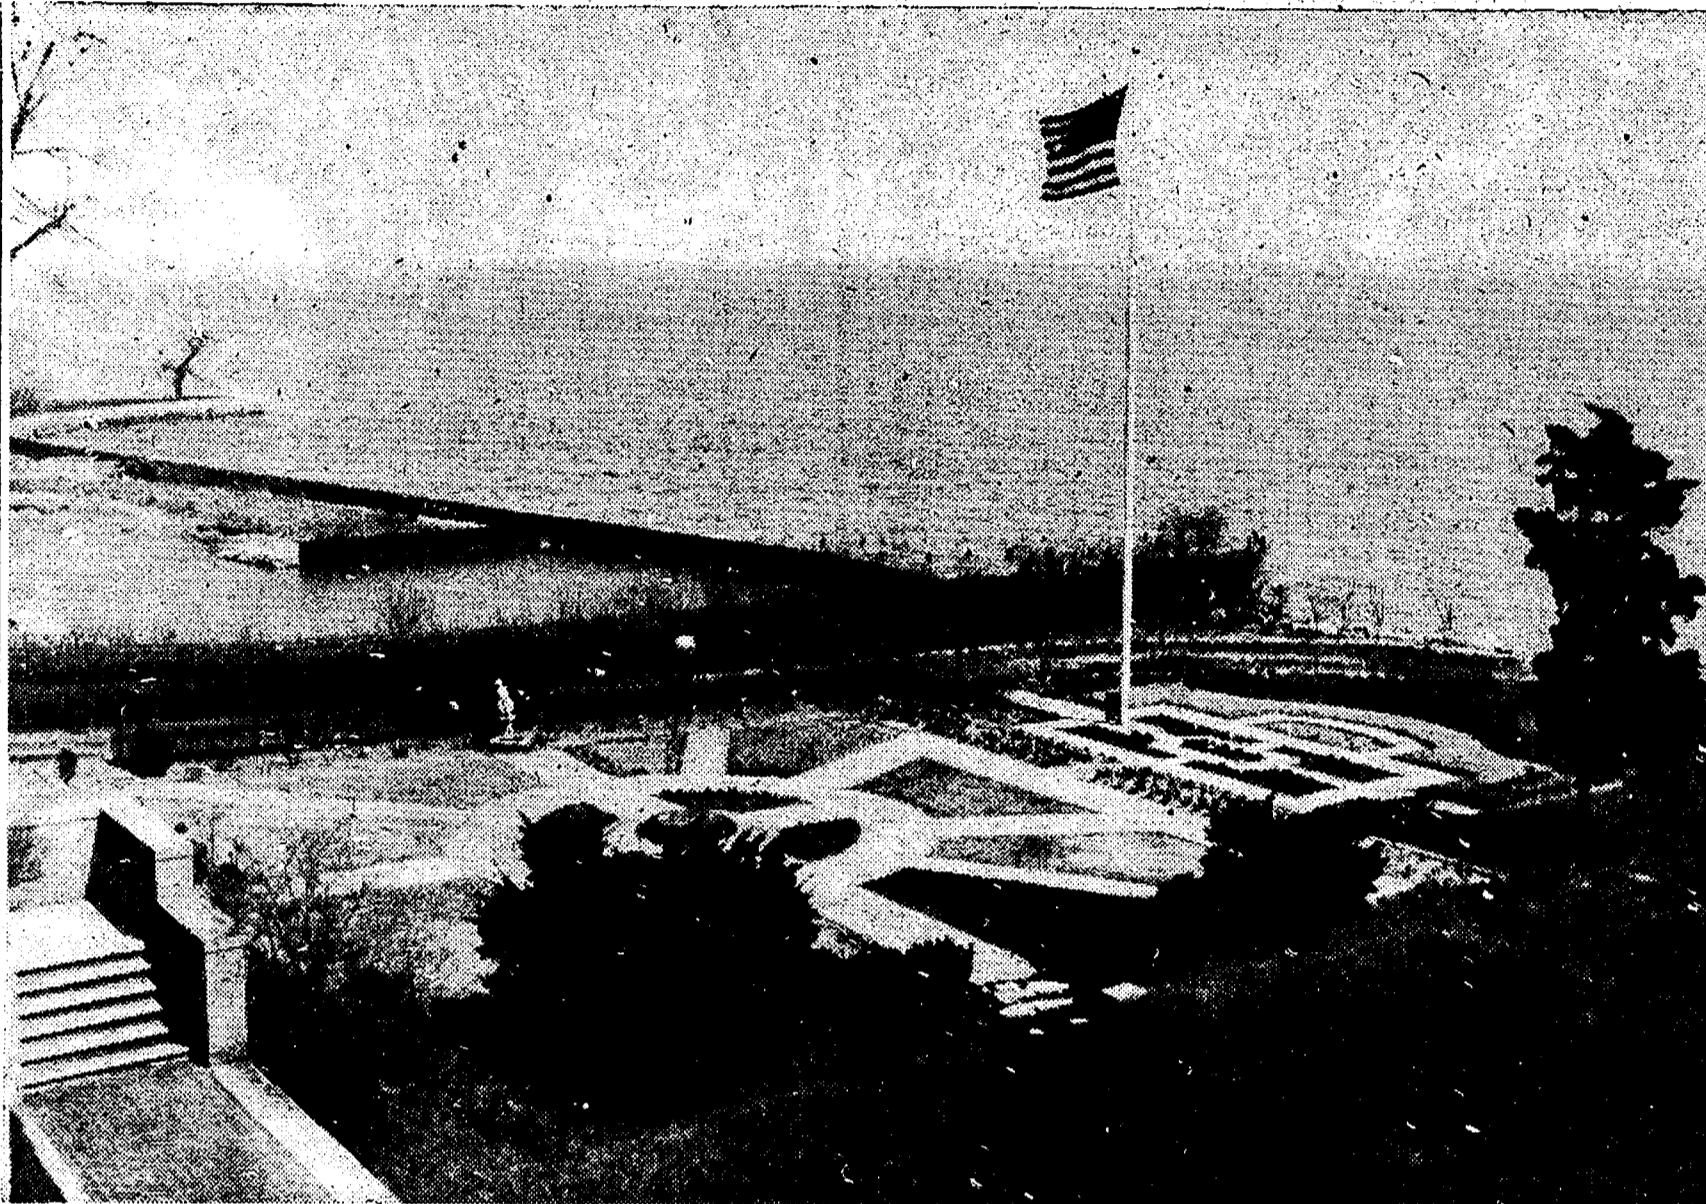

SOURCES DISCLOSED that the Nicaraguan National Guard troops have invaded Honduras near the Caribbean Coast. It was said Nicaraguan units advanced to the left bank of the Cruta River, a few miles north of the Coco River. The border dispute began between the two countries ever since Honduras created the Department of Gracias a Dios, including the area bordering Nicaragua.

The Nicaraguan Government protested that the new department claimed territory belonging to Nicaragua. Honduras claimed the land belonged to it under a grant issued by King Alfonso XIII of Spain in 1906, a claim rejected by Nicaragua. Early last month the United States appealed to the two nations to settle the dispute peacefully.

THE PARENTS of a 4-year-old bride-to-be became suspicious of her intended, Warren Yemm, 47, and asked Chicago police to run a check on him, which they did. He was arrested.

Men to Sing At Concert In Center

Annual Spring Event to Be Given This Friday Evening At 8:15 O'clock

The Grosse Pointe Men's Chorus of the War Memorial Center is giving its annual "Spring Concert" this Friday evening, May 3, at 8:15 p.m. instead of 8:45 p.m. as announced through error last week.

Everyone is cordially invited to enjoy a program whose keynote is variety. The song groupings include patriotic numbers and sacred works as well as the so-called standard selections. Miss Rosaleen Malow, the chorus accompanist, will be featured in a piano solo.

A light touch and change of pace will be added by Douglas Feben, an expert magician who will entertain at intermission time.

John Finch, the chorus director, is well known to nearly everyone in Grosse Pointe. For the past 25 years he has been instilling a love of music into successive waves of Pointers at Grosse Pointe High School where he is Director of Vocal Music. He is proud of the Men's Chorus.

The chorus is making a small 75c charge for this concert to buy music so they can continue to offer their services to community groups free of charge as featured entertainment.

PLAN PUBLIC HEARING
The Park council, on Monday, April 29, set a public hearing date for Monday, May 27, pertaining to important changes in its Municipal Code.

Teeners Land in Hospital After Chase in Stolen Car

Four teenagers ended up in Cottage Hospital Tuesday night, April 23, as the result of an auto collision which happened when they attempted to outdistance a police car in the car the driver had stolen.

The chase began at 11:30 p.m. on Mack avenue near Warren. City police officers William Waldecker and George Brackx were cruising on Mack when they saw a brand new Chevrolet streak past going east. The squad car took off in pursuit and the driver of the Chevy poured on the gas in an attempt to get away.

At Touraine he turned left, then doubled back toward Cloverly. As he turned onto Cloverly he lost control of the car and rammed into a tree in front

War Memorial Drive Lags After Getting Good Start; Only 1,350 Families Donate

Hope to Hear From Many More to Reach $35,000 Quota By End of Campaign Scheduled For Memorial Day

During the past week only about $5,000 has been received by the Grosse Pointe War Memorial in its Annual Family Participation Campaign compared to the $15,000 received in the first ten days of the drive.

Only 1,350 of the Pointe's 15,000 families have been heard from so far. It is hoped that first of the month check-writing will bring the solicitation letter to the attention of many citizens.

To Send Out Letters
The first of next week, follow-up letters will be mailed to Pointers who still have not been heard from, as well as special letters which will go to non-contributing members of groups who regularly use the Center. Every effort is being made to wind up the campaign and achieve the needed goal of $35,000 by May 30, Memorial Day.

A War Memorial Week is being planned to close the campaign. One can see a painting exhibit by the Grosse Pointe Artists Association Sunday, May 26, or a Hot Rod Show on the same day. The Grosse Pointe Community Theatre will present an outdoor performance of Agatha Christie's three-act mystery "Ten Little Indians," Wednesday evening, May 29.

Memorial Day Services will be held at 11 a.m., Thursday, May 30, and on Sunday afternoon, June 2 the Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra will give a 5:30 p.m. concert on the Center's lakeside terrace. The following are the families who contributed to the Memorial Campaign during the past week:—

April 21
Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Parker, Jr., James R. Pink, Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Prevo, Ernest C. Putnam, Anne Carolena Schrage, Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Rinefort, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Howard F. Young Car Thief Rams Into Tree

A woman living in University place, phoned the City police station, at 3:30 Monday afternoon, April 22, and reported that a boy "smashed" a car against a tree in front of her home, and then ran away.

A squad car was dispatched to the scene and took the following report from the woman: She looked up to see a car round the corner at the Goethe intersection at a high rate of speed. The driver couldn't keep the car on the street, and it went over the curb coming to rest against a tree between the sidewalk and the curb.

A boy 15 or 16 years old, jumped from the car and ran between two houses and disappeared. He was wearing a yellow and black checked shirt and blue jeans.

Police scoured the neighborhood but couldn't locate the youth. A check with headquarters disclosed that a stolen car report had just been phoned from Lloyd Lubig, a steel worker who had been on a job building the new store in the Village between Kroger's and York Jewellers.

The car involved in the accident proved to belong to Lubig. It had to be towed away for repairs.

City police detectives questioned some youths who had been picked up by Woods police for stealing a car. They could not be connected with the City's case.

Park Scene Of Another Traffic Death

Mrs. Ella Romanchek Is Second Victim Within Less Than Four Months

Mrs. Ella Romanchek, 57, of 3085 Cadillac, Detroit, became the Park's second traffic fatality within less than four months, when she died of head injuries received a few minutes after midnight, Thursday, April 25.

Charged as the fatal driver was Chan A. Callihan, 21, of 1395 East Grand boulevard, who is accused of leaving the scene of a fatal accident.

$3,000 Bond Set
Callihan, arraigned before Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger Thursday evening, stood mute and demanded an examination. The court entered a plea of not guilty for him and set the date of examination for yesterday, May 1.

A bond of $3,000 was set, which the accused could not meet, and he was remanded to the custody of the Wayne County Sheriff until his examination.

Mrs. Romanchek, who was a cook at London East, 123 Kercheval, was driving west on Charlevoix, according to a police report, when her car was struck by that driven by Callihan, who was going north on Balfour, with such force she went through the windshield.

Ignored Stop Sign
Callihan, who police said had ignored a stop street sign, got out of his car, looked at the woman lying on the ground and then fled the scene on foot.

Arriving at the scene at 12:07 a. m., two minutes after Mrs. Gladys Creeger of 1416 Balfour called in the accident, were Det. Lt. Stanley Enders, Sgt. Gerard Kesteloot, Cpl. Charles French and Patrolmen Henry Coonce, Charles Slusser, George Blair and John Brosnan.

The officers found Mrs. Romanchek on the ground between the west Balfour curb and sidewalk, 37 feet north of Charlevoix.

Sgt. Kesteloot and Patrolman Blair took Mrs. Romanchek to Bon Secours Hospital, where she was pronounced dead on arrival.

Following the impact, the woman's car came to a stop over the west curb on Balfour, 22 feet north of Charlevoix, facing east and approximately 28 feet from the point of collision; Callihan's car came to rest between the west Balfour curb and sidewalk, facing west, and approximately 69 feet from the point of impact.

Mrs. Creeger said she saw a

100-Voice Group to Be Heard in Parcels School Auditorium at 3:30 p. m.; Varied Program to Be Given

The Grosse Pointe Community Chorus will present its fifth annual Spring concert on Sunday, May 5. Included in the program will be selections ranging from oratorio chorales and folk music to Broadway musical comedy. The concert will be held in the auditorium of the Parcels Junior High School at Vernier and Mack avenue. Curtain time is 3:30.

Members of the 100-voice chorus have been rehearsing since late January for one of their most outstanding programs. The opening sacred group will include the Hallelujah Chorus from Beethoven's Mount of Olives, "There is a Balm in Gilead," a spiritual arranged by Dawson and featuring Barbara Bailey as soprano soloist, and "The Omnipotence" by Schubert, featuring Ellen Jones, soprano.

Mrs. Bailey has soloed with the chorus before, having been a member for some time. She has also appeared in concert with the Madrigal Club.

Was Church Soloist
Mrs. Jones was for 16 years soprano soloist at the "Grosse Pointe Memorial Church and was a member of the Ford Sunday Evening Hour chorus. Her husband, Robert Jones, is head of the music department at Cody High School in Detroit.

Among the folk songs to be presented are: "Yonder, Yonder," a Russian song with Harry Friesema, tenor; "I Know Where I'm Goin'," an Irish number; "The Railroad Song," "Gandy Dancers' Ball," and "Michigan Morn'" from the folk opera, "Michigan Dream" by O. A. Reed, professor of music at Michigan State University, featuring Eugene Kuhnle, harpist, and Charlotte Stammer, soprano.

Mr. Friesema has been tenor soloist at the Jefferson Avenue Presbyterian Church for 18 years and was formerly president of the Orphans Club, with which he has sung for several years. He has done some radio work and has appeared in Michigan and Canada as soloist in oratorio performances.

Player With Symphony
Mrs. Kuhnle was formerly first harpist to the Detroit Symphony. Due to recent motherhood, she is now second harpist and teaches privately in addition to her public appearances.

Mrs. Stammer has sung with the chorus and appears for the first time as a soloist. Her husband, Gilbert, teaches music at Mason Elementary School and directs the Detroit S.P.E.B.S.-Q.S.A.

The featured soloist for the concert is Milton Setzer, pianist. For his section of the program, Mr. Setzer will play the "Rhapsody in B Minor, Opus 79" No. 1, by Brahms, "Reflections in the Water," Debussy, and "Etude in A Minor, Winter Wind," by Chopin.

Mr. Setzer has appeared in concert with the Wayne State University Orchestra, the Grosse Pointe Symphony and the Detroit Symphony, both as soloist and accompanist. He attended Grosse Pointe High School and Wayne State University and has studied with

Kenneth W. Cunningham Named New Park Mayor

The Park council elected a mayor and mayor pro tem at a meeting held Monday, April 29. The new mayor is Kenneth W. Cunningham of 936 Berkshire, and mayor pro tem is William C. Oddy of 806 Three Mile drive.

Mr. Cunningham modestly stated he did not feel he was the man for the job, but if the council wanted him, he was willing to serve.

He succeeds the late Homer C. Fritsch, who died on Monday, April 8, while in Montreal, Quebec, where he had gone on company business. He was executive vice-president of Parke, Davis and company and was re-elected mayor of the Park for the fourth time on April 1. He was to have taken his oath of office on April 15.

On the April 15 date, at a regular meeting, the council elected Mr. Cunningham mayor pro tem, and Monday, mayor, a post he will fill until April 1959, the time his term as a councilman expires.

The new mayor first served the citizens of the Park on June 22, 1942, when he was appointed to fill a vacancy created by the resignation of Councilman Clarence Pfeffer. He held this post until April 1945. When the term expired he did not seek re-election.

On February 8, 1954, he was again appointed to fill a council seat vacated by William DeBaeke, who resigned when he moved his residence to the

Plan Parade For Kickoff Of Campaign

Jaycees & Garden Council Among Organizations Taking Lead

A campaign for the general beautification and clean-up, paint-up of the five Grosse Pointe areas, sponsored by the Garden Council and Grosse Pointe Junior Chamber of Commerce, is having its kick-off parade on Saturday, May 4. The campaign will last through May 11 although the Jaycees are handling as their special project, clean-up, paint-up, for the entire year.

Participating and co-operating in the campaign with the Jaycees will be the managers of the five Grosse Pointe municipal offices, the Grosse Pointe Garden Council, the Jaycees' Auxiliary, the Grosse Pointe Business Men's Association and many Pointe merchants.

Get a Litter Bag

High point of this year's campaign will be the availability of litter bags for automobiles which will be sold in the Pointe under the sponsorship of the Grosse Pointe Garden Council and garden clubs, headed by Mrs. Julius C. Peter.

They will be sold in booths at Jacobson's, the Wrigley Market "On the Hill," and the Farms Market on Fisher Road. They will be on sale, Friday and Saturday, May 3 and 4, and Friday and Saturday, May 12 and 13, from 9 to 5 p.m. each day.

The bags, made by members of the League for the Handicapped, will sell for 50c. They are made of heavy washable blue denim. Half of the cost of the bag goes to the league and the other 25c will revert to charitable projects of the Garden Council.

Jaycee member Bob Beaupre, chairman heading the campaign, urges citizens of the Pointes to get a litter bag in every car and refrain from throwing refuse in the streets, which he pointed out, is against local laws and carries a fine of $100.

"We have only to see all the debris blowing around on windy days," said Mr. Beaupre, "to realize how fast careless, throwing of trash can make the landscaping around fences and on parkways look unsightly."

Parade Route Revealed

The parade is scheduled to group at 10 a.m. on Saturday at Hueftemans street, north of Vernier road near St. Joan of Arc Church. It will tour on Mack Avenue to Moross road and turn down Moross to Kercheval avenue, ending at Alter road about 12 noon.

The parade cavalcade of motor vehicles which will include special cars in which the city managers and officials will ride, will also include fire-trucks, police cars and refuse pick-up trucks. Also in the parade will be many merchant's cars. Posters depicting paint-up and clean-up will be on many of the cars in the parade. Any merchants wishing to participate in the parade displaying similar posters may join the cavalcade.

Among the many members in the community who are participating in the campaign are Mrs. Bert Lindzey, who is assisting with overall planning; Mrs. H. G. Higbie, advisor, representing the Michigan State Garden Council; Mrs. James McMillan, responsible for the suggestion of litter bags; Vern Woit, who will act as co-ordinator between the city managers, and Ron Parkin, publicity chairman for Jaycees.

Service Clubs To Hear Bushong

Dr. James W. Bushong, superintendent of public schools in Grosse Pointe, will speak at a joint meeting of the Kiwanis, Rotary, Optimist and Exchange Clubs on Tuesday evening, May 7.

His talk will be about community service performed by service clubs. The meeting will be held in the recreation room of the War Memorial Center.

lone man running from the scene and Charlevoix. Two witnesses, Mike Palka of 19206 Waltham, driver of a car behind Callihan, and Florence Lipczynski of 8081 Olympia, a passenger in Palka's car, both of Detroit, told police that Callihan failed to stop for the stop street prior to the accident. They said they drove a little way to a home in the 1400 block in Balfour, to phone police, and when they returned, Callihan was gone. Papers in the fatal driver's car revealed that he worked at a gas station at Mack and Rivard and a call to City police brought back the information that Callihan had another car there.

Staked Out Station
Acting on the assumption that Callihan might return for this other car, Lt. Enders ordered Cpl. French and Patrolman Brosnan to stake out the gas station.

At about 3 a. m., Callihan arrived in the company of John A. Romore of 21714 Bon Huer, St. Clair Shores, and Romore's wife, Norma, in the Romores' car. All three were taken into custody.

At the station, the Romores asserted they had not been informed by Callihan that he was involved in an accident. When this was verified, they were released.

After two hours of questioning, Callihan finally broke down and admitted he was the driver of the fatal car. He said he had been drinking, and when he got out of his car following the accident and saw the woman on the ground, he became frightened and thought people might think he was drunk, and so he fled the scene.

Driver Makes Statement
Thursday morning Callihan made a statement before Asst. Pros. William Bledsoe, and then was arraigned in the evening.

The Park's first traffic death of the year occurred on January 14, when Mrs. Susie Bloksion, 45, of 4545 Harding, Detroit, was struck and killed while crossing Mack avenue, between Somerset and Balfour, about one block from where Mrs. Romancheck was killed.

Mrs. Bloksion was on her way to work when she met death. The driver in this case was exonerated of blame.

leashed to police custody after the gash in his lower lip was stitched closed. Joann Maloric was kept overnight in the hospital. She suffered severe cuts of the face. Melvin Spomer was also interned. He had a broken arm, cut tendons, and lost a lot of blood. Miss Hanna was released when doctors could find no injuries.

Seventeen-year-old Berger told police that he stole the car about 10 a. m. Tuesday, from in front of the Frontier Building Company, 19322 James Couzens. The car was owned by the company. He picked up Spomer that afternoon and told him the car was stolen. This made Spomer an accessory to the crime after a fact.

The girls were not held because they claimed they didn't know the car was stolen.

Both boys were on parole from a Boys Vocational School. They have been bound over to Detroit police.

Damage to the car was estimated at about $400.

Woods. On April 4, 1955, Mr. Cunningham was elected to the council in his own right.

Mr. Oddy first saw service on the Park council on October 21, 1952, when he was appointed to take the place of John Bloodworth, who resigned.

When the new mayor pro tem sought re-election in 1953, he was defeated, but in June 22 of the same year, he was re-appointed to fill the unexpired term of Peter Koenig, when that councilman resigned.

In April 1955, Mr. Oddy was elected councilman for a four-year term in his own right.

The council will have to fill the vacancy on the council, created by the elevation of Mr. Cunningham to the Park's top office.

Mickey Quatro Plays On Welk's TV Show

Mickey Quatro, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Quatro of Torrey road was guest soloist on the Lawrence Welk TV show on Monday evening, April 29. He played the piano composition, "The Butterfly," by Lavell. Mickey is an 8th grade student in the Parcels Junior High School.

Mickey's appearance on the show was a rather sudden event in his life. He was on a vacation with his parents and their four other children in Los Angeles, Calif., visiting Mr. Quatro's sister, Mrs. Maurice Worthington. On learning that Mr. Welk was holding an audition in neighboring Ocean Park, Mickey played a selection for him and was asked to play on the following show.

Mickey has been playing the piano for 6 years and has exhibited unusual talent. He is at present studying with Mischa Kottler of the Detroit Symphony. Mickey's talents have been encouraged by his father who is a band leader at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club and who plays for many Club society events.

GLEE CLUB TO SING
Wayne State University's 62-voice Men's Glee Club will present its annual Spring Concert at 8:20 p. m. on Friday, May 10 in the large auditorium of the Detroit Institute of Arts.

The people who invest in watered stocks have little reason to complain if they get soaked.

Police Warn of Dangers In Riding Motor Scooters

With the advent of spring everyone wants to get outdoors. Convertible tops come down and kids roll out their winter-stored bicycles and motor scooters.

The police are in favor of the kids having their fun in the fresh air, but they want the youngsters to know the dangers of cycling on the Pointe's streets, or any other streets. Police accident reports last week should serve ample warning to our two-wheel wayfarers.

A boy was seriously injured Monday afternoon, April 29, when the motor bike on which he hitched a ride hit a bump, throwing him to the pavement. Patrick Hinsky of 1887 Broadstone, was riding with William A. Beers of 455 Maison, on Grosse Pointe boulevard east of Kerby road.

Fourteen-year-old Beers was piloting the bike when it hit a bump. Hinsky flew off, landing on his head. He was rushed to Cottage Hospital in a semi-conscious condition. Authorities reported that he suffered a brain concussion. The motor bike was equipped to carry only one person.

Another motor scooter operator received a fractured leg and a skinned nose after colliding with a panel truck on Wednesday, April 24.

Robert L. Reid, 16, of 16526 Stanbury, Detroit, while traveling south on Harcourt, ran into the rear of a truck driven by Gilbert Thrasher, 26, of 4430 St. Clair, Detroit, who was driving in the same direction.

A Park police report said the youth swerved as the truck neared him and then collided with the heavier vehicle in front of 827 Harcourt, falling to the pavement.

Reid was taken to Bon Secours Hospital by police ambulance, where he was treated for his injuries. He was issued a juvenile ticket for not having his scooter under control and causing an accident.

Thomas G. Reeves of 360 McMillan, had his motor bike impounded April 25, because he was operating the bike without a license, and Tom had never acquired the restricted license needed to operate a motor bike.

Largest single medical grant of $25,000 came from the U.S. Public Health Service for training in neurology under direction of Dean Gordon H. Scott.

rowed the bike from a friend and had also taken his wallet and operator's permit. Both the bike and wallet were impounded until the rightful owner came to the station to claim them. The law does not permit more than one person to ride on a scooter or motor bike unless an extra seat is permanently secured to the vehicle.

Nine-year-old David Christman of 893 Rivard boulevard, was lucky to be only scratched when he rode his bike into the path of a car driven by George N. Grivas, April 27.

David had been riding on the sidewalk then cut down a driveway and crossed the street in front of the car.

One way to keep the family in hot water—and enjoy every minute of it.

Plenty of hot water with DETROIT EDISON'S NEW ELECTRIC WATER-HEATING SERVICE

New, more efficient water heaters—built to Edison's specifications. New water-heating plan from Edison. Together they make the finest hot water service ever offered in Southeastern Michigan!

Completely new, completely different, the electric water heaters for 1957 are not only the safest kind you can buy—they're the most practical, too. Built to Detroit Edison's own rigid specifications, dollar for dollar these new electric water heaters last longer than any other heater you can buy.

higher wattage heating units that operate completely automatically. As your hot water supply goes down, one unit automatically goes on—quickly heating up more water for you to use when you need it. No waiting, no worries. There's always plenty of hot water on tap. And because of this unique new design, you can get more hot water than ever before from the same size heater. Then, too, since it's built to Edison's own specifications, you know you can rely on the quality and depend on it to operate better, last longer.

For still greater economy—Edison's new Super-Supply Plan. To make the new electric water heaters even more economical, Detroit Edison has introduced its Super-Supply Plan. This simply means that now, for a surprisingly low flat monthly rate, you can get much more hot water than ever before for just pennies per day.

Safe . . . no flame, no fume. There's automatic safety always built into an electric water heater. No flame, no fume. It's even safe enough, and good-looking enough, to go right in your kitchen or utility room. Because of its excellent insulation, it's cool to the touch—top to bottom. And only electric water heaters are so clean, noiseless and odorless.

Here is new proof that you always live better, electrically.

Ridley Kilowatt invites you to inspect these tremendous advantages of ELECTRIC water heating before you buy.

Antique Week Proclaimed in Pointe

The heads of the five Pointe municipalities have proclaimed May 5 through 11 as Grosse Pointe Antique Week. This official action wasn't taken in honor of any local graybeards, but to honor the work which is done every year by the Grosse Pointe Rotary Club. The service organization will hold its second annual Antique Show at the War Memorial Center during this period. The funds raised will be used for the many projects supported by the Rotarians. On hand for the official proclaiming ceremonies on April 22 were, left to right:—KENNETH F. BERGMANN, City of Grosse Pointe councilman; JACK WILLIAMS, president of the Shores; DAVID E. McCARRON, Rotary president; KENNETH CUNNINGHAM, mayor of the Park; RICHARD L. MAXON, mayor pro tem of the Farms.

Six Juveniles in Trouble
After Breaking into Home

Six juveniles, one 13 and the others 14 years old, all boys, were arrested by Woods police on Thursday, April 25, for breaking and entering and unlawfully driving away an automobile.

The six, said Det. Sgt. Walter O'Dell and Det. Leroy Tobian, were implicated in the theft of a car belonging to Clarence L. Phillips of 1821 Oxford, which they took from his garage after breaking into his home on Monday, April 22.

According to the two officers, three of the boys, including the 13-year-old, were observed by one of Phillips' neighbors as they were taking the car out of the garage. The neighbor called police.

In their investigation, O'Dell and Tobian found no one at home at the Phillips residence and called the car owner at his place of business. Phillip said he had not authorized anyone to use the car.

On April 25, the officers picked up the 13-year-old for questioning and the lad admitted that he and two of the boys took the car.

One of the 14-year-olds ran away from home when notified the police were looking for him, but later in the day he returned. He was ordered to report to the Woods Police Station by Lt. Don Coats, and when he did, he then went to the second floor and began to look through the bedroom drawers and then ransacked the first floor and the basement.

They said they took a bottle of gin, 79 cents in change, two packages of cigarettes and a number of keys. They tried the keys in the ignition switch of the car, and when they found one that fit, three of them drove it away, and returned it later when they finished their ride.

They said they sold the gin to two other boys for $1. O'Dell and Tobian said charges have been filed against all six with juvenile authorities.

The man who expects to reform tomorrow runs short of tomorrows.

To Give Plays
At Pierce High

Pierce Junior High School is buzzing these days in preparation for the spring dramatic program being given Thursday, May 9, at 8 p.m. Sets are being built, costumes made, and properties are being brought in and stored for use that eventful night.

The seventh grade dramatics classes under the direction of Miss Virginia Hoelzle are putting on "Wilbur's Honey Bee" with Bob Moore as the incorrigible Wilbur, who runs into romantic troubles. Other members of the cast are Barbie Young, Judy Schiller, Michele Verdonck, Ann Hock, David Jennings and Bob Craig. Helping with the production are Chris Ostergren, Karen Oldani and Bill Taylor.

The eighth grade dramatics group, under the direction of Mrs. Gerry Meyer and assisted by Mrs. Sally White, has been busy rehearsing the play, "The Tantrum." Pieter Van Leuven plays a young scamp named Timmie, who tries to get rid of an unwelcome guest, much to Joy Chandler's dismay, who plays his sister. Other members of the cast are Winnie Thomas, Pam Koepplin, Dave Gnaou, Fred Rueger, Mary Short, Ann Hadley, Sue Bartholomew, Bill Lang and Bill Damon. Helping with the play are Bob Hunter, Ann David, Jan Conway, Vickie Zuan, Anne Wunsch, Julie Strayer and Joe Wilson.

Between the two plays there are three groups working on some lively entertainment—two record pantomimes and a short "melodrama." The pantomime "Tele-vee-shuh," directed by Mr. Harry McCaffery, includes Pam Madill, Linda Rueter, Lynne Browning, Ann Adams, Nancy Miller, Nancy Peterson, John Snyder, Kent Knudtson, Susan Brown, Kay Stieger and Dennis Fraser.

The "melodrama," entitled "He Ain't Done Right by Little Nell," is being directed by Miss Hoelzle and Mrs. Meyer and has as its characters Bill Nelson,

Good Literature
Group Protests

The Grosse Pointe Council of Better Literature for Youth, arrayed its membership last week and registered strong protest to state bill (HB441) with the Senate Committee.

It is the opinion of the Council that this bill would reap a harvest for the publishers and havoc for "We the people"—while questionable literature is being proven acceptable or not in lengthy court cases.

At the suggestion of The Detroit Police Censor Bureau, a representative from Grosse Pointe, went to Lansing to voice protest at the hearing Tuesday, April 30 and ask for a substitute bill with no legal pitfalls and weapons in it to clean up the newsstands.

Pam Bankerd, Sheri McMinn, John Randall, Greg Kemp, Barbara Crooks and Mimi McKenzie.

The last between acts skit is "The Banana Boat Song," directed by Mr. Jack Mason. The

Hits Light Pole
On Lake Shore

A moment of day dreaming was all that was needed for John M. Maher, of 258 Manistique, to lose control of his car and drive it into a light pole, on April 27.

Maher was proceeding west on Lake Shore road early Saturday afternoon, when he took his eyes from the road near 217 Lake Shore. The car jumped the curb doing about $200 damage to its front end when it struck the pole.

Miss Lorraine A. Saad, a passenger, was taken to Bon Secours Hospital with a lacerated lip. Maher was not hurt.

Donovan, Auxiliary Bishop, and Chancellor of the Archdiocese of Detroit, will conduct the ceremonies. The school has about 24 classrooms with 347 girls in the freshman class. The enrollment is expected to double next year, and a grade will be added each year until all four high school classes are completed. Eleven Sisters are now living in a wing of the school, and eventually the staff will be increased to 50 Sisters teaching at Regina. The girls are sponsoring a Dedication Dance on May 4, at 8:30 p. m. to be held in the DeLaSalle High School gym.

Play Producing Proves Big Job

Learning lines and rehearsing action is only a small part of the work involved in staging a three-act play, as many members of the Grosse Pointe Community Theater well know. A large and energetic group of area residents is busily engaged in putting together the show "Ten Little Indians" by Agatha Christie, which will be given at the Grosse Pointe High School on May 10 and 11. Glenna Kratzet of St. Clair avenue is in over-all charge of the production, getting together the various committees and seeing to it that they function properly. The director, William Shearer selects the cast and then directs the stage movement and performances. His assistant is the stage manager, Betty Cook of Lorraine road. The set for "Ten Little Indians" was designed by Dean Erskine, and helped him with the set construction are John Buterfield, Ken Smith, Tom Stein, Lorine Reed, and Betty Potthoff. Lighting technicians for the show are Mark Reeve, Al Meyer, and Bud Adelsperger. Sewing drapes, gathering furniture, pictures, figurines, carpeting, and all the other necessary pieces of stage dressing are the problems of Mickey Nicholai, Gertrude and Evelyn Shwartz and Pat Potthoff. Marcia Songe and Sophia Culescu are taking care of the costumes, which entails selecting wardrobes for the eleven-member cast and keeping them in good condition. Writing newspaper releases, painting posters, and contacting radio and television people are the publicity committee: Jean Schradler, Marie McHenry, Janice White and Chuck Carson. Other members are involved with ticket promotion, programs, refreshments for show nights, gathering of props, sound or special effects, and make-up. All in all, a lot of people putting in their time to produce one show for two nights only. Curtain time for the mystery play is 8:30 p. m.

Teener Accused In Hit-Run Case

A teenage driver who outraced a Farms police car but was apprehended by another scout car a few minutes later, was arrested early Friday morning, April 26, and ticketed for reckless driving at a high rate of speed. Farms officers Peter LaPonsa and Earl Field chased a 1955 Ford, south on Hall place to Grosse Pointe boulevard. By the time the police car reached the intersection, the Ford had disappeared. The officers had been parked on Kercheval Hill at 12:30 a. m. Friday, waiting for an alarm guard to make a store check. A 1955 Volkswagen pulled up next to the scout car, and its driver, Frank K. Girardin, of 570 Lincoln road, said his car was just involved in a hit-and-run accident. Girardin told the officers his Volkswagen was sidwiped at the corner of Fisher road and Jefferson and he followed the offending car to Kercheval and McMillan. When they lost the car at the Boulevard an alarm was broadcast to all police units in the area. Ten minutes later another Farms scout car manned by officers Marvin Krebs and Eugene Thomas stopped the suspected car at Edgemere and Grosse Pointe Boulevard.

Louis Gardella Awaits Sentence

Louis Gardella, 29, of 1386 Kensington, entered a plea of guilty to contributing to the delinquency of a minor during a trial held before Circuit Judge Thomas J. Murphy on Monday, April 22.

Gardella was accused of gross indecency in connection with a 13-year-old boy, while in Gardella's home, and was arrested on January 16, by Park police when the case came to light while authorities were investigating a similar incident.

Judge Murphy referred the case to the Wayne County Probation Department before setting the date for sentencing.

Gardella's crime was uncovered by Park Det. Lt. Stanley Enders and Cpl. Charles French, who at the time was a patrolman working in plain clothes. Their investigations in another case, not involving Gardella, brought about Gardella's arrest when a young complainant accused the man of taking liberties last September.

Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers said a thorough investigation was carried out before Gardella was taken into custody.

A denial of the charge by Gardella led to a lie detector test which indicated that he had lied, and he finally admitted the offense.

A warrant was issued by the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office, after a review of the case. Gardella was arraigned before Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger on January 18, and entered a plea of not guilty, and was put under a $2,000 bond until circuit court trial date. Judge Murphy continued the bond pending a report from the Probation Department.

Liquor Stolen From Park Bar

Park police are investigating a $500 liquor theft from a Kercheval avenue bar, sometime during the night of Sunday, April 28.

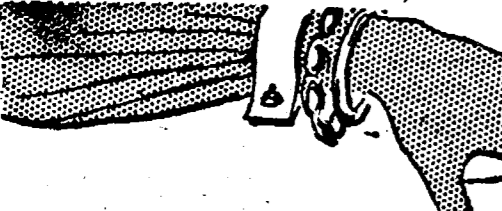

Broken into was the Rustie Cabins Bar, 15209 Kercheval. The crime was discovered by an employee who called authorities.

Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers said they entered the building by using a jimmy bar to force the rear door. The liquor taken was in cases, he said.

HOW TO PROFIT THROUGH TAX EXEMPTION

With today's high tax levels, investors in medium and high tax brackets are turning to tax-free Municipal Bonds for income that they can keep.

If you have a taxable income of $10,000 or more, you may be well repaid by investigating the advantages of tax-exempt State and Municipal Bonds. For instance, if you file a single return on a taxable income of $14,000, you would have to receive a dividend return of 7.45% on a taxable security in order to equal the yield from a 3.50% tax-free Bond. It's something to think about!

Our New Booklet, "How to Profit Through Tax Exemption" explains in plain language your need for tax exemption, tells how much these high-grade investments can be worth to you. There's no obligation. Send for copy today, or phone

New Home of Frolund's Complete Garden Shop

All of Michigan's iron ore and copper come from the Upper Peninsula, five of the counties producing iron ore and three, copper. The state ranks second in the nation in iron ore production with a value of $69,228,417 in 1954. Copper production amounted to $13,298,994 in 1954. The area also produces crushed limestone and dolomite, lime, sand and gravel in quantity.

Good advice may sometimes help a man, but a good scare is usually much more effective.

Thunder Roars As Fate Smiles

A motorist was lucky that all he got was a cell in which to simmer down, and a drunk motor law violation ticket.

When Thomas signaled Turnbull to stop, he drove his car around the officer and over the curb. He was finally stopped Saturday afternoon, April 27. The police officer was, doing traffic duty at Mores and Kercheval after lightning brought down some high tension wires.

Expert Advice Part of Service

Nelson Frolund who has been serving Grosse Pointers with landscape, nursery and garden needs for the past 20 years, is now located in his new and greater store and shop at 19185 Mack avenue, at Huntington in Grosse Pointe Woods. The new quarters are the largest devoted exclusively to lawn and garden supplies on Detroit's east side.

Power mowers as well as other power driven items have become a big part of the Frolund store today. One whole room at the rear end of the building is devoted strictly to servicing and repairing of power equipment, where several trained mechanics work year round.

However, the personal touch of Mr. Frolund is best seen in the garden shop, where fertilizers, seeds, sprays and soil conditioners, as well as all the latest lawn-help equipment are sought after by his countless customers.

His advice on planting, pruning and general care of everything from a violet to shrubs and trees is part and parcel of his services and he has sufficient patience to see that the needs of every last customer are properly taken care of.

A large drive-in parking lot at the side of the store is provided for customers' use.

We Can All Be Artists

The Westmore boys are pikers compared to a continuing group of Grosse Pointe's younger and more civic-minded residents.

For the benefit of those who don't read the movie slicks, the Westmores are touted as the top make-up artists in Hollywood's pet industry. They can make the male heart skip a beat by putting an extra curl in Liz Taylor's hair-do, or draw ecstatic sighs from the weaker sex by making Marlon Brando look sexier.

Our local youngsters can't be bothered with such small pickings. They take on a whole neighborhood and give it a face-lifting that affords an aesthetic surge to all who may pass by.

We refer, of course, to the high school organizations and the Scouts and sundry groups which every year devote their time and efforts to making the Pointe a more beautiful place in which to live. They volunteer to tackle the blemishes on the landscape which are evidenced in neglected vacant lots. They pitch in to clear up the rubbish and mow down the weeds and unbridled grass, and their enthusiasm turns an eyesore into an artistic attribute that blends into the overall picture.

There is a lesson here that should be learned by all of us. Clean-Up Week is starting. It is a concerted effort to make the Pointe as beautiful as we all like to describe it when we get to bragging while we are visiting in other parts of the country.

Clean-Up Week has many connotations. It can include everything from raking last fall's leaves off the lawn to painting the weather-beaten woodwork on the home exterior. Shrubbery pruning, grass grooming, flower bed manuring, the planting of new conversation species, the disappearance of rubbish, the shining of brasses and the sweeping of walks are all part of the deal.

Litter Bags are all-impotant. Let's all have one hanging on the car dashboard, as insurance that the empty cigaret package doesn't end up in an otherwise clean street. It's a wonderful depository for gum wrappers, burned matches, cleaning tissues and the thousand other items that too often fly out the window.

But the important thing to remember is that we are all artists at a time like this. We are all working together on the creation of a masterpiece. Each and every piece of property is an integral part of the completed landscape which we are trying to make wholly beautiful.

The youngsters who years ago undertook the task of bringing order out of chaos in the vacant lots, recognized this. If we neglect our own properties, each but a tiny segment in the whole picture, we shall be as guilty as the make-up artist who would let Hedy Lamarr face the camera without her lipstick . . . or the wardrobe mistress who would allow Ingrid Bergman on stage with her slip showing.

Pointe Business Notes

Loan Association today joined the select group of savings and loan associations with assets of more than $100,000,000.

President Walter J. L. Ray said, "While our objective is to be the best—not the largest association in the savings and loan field—we are, naturally, pleased to join the small group of 30 associations in the United States having assets above the $100,000,000 mark.

"Having confidence of more than 50,000 savers who have accounts totaling more than $90,000,000 is an important responsibility and one that reflects the quality of operation during the past 84 years."

John C. Kennedy of 20043 West Ballantyne court, Grosse Pointe Woods, was one of five Detroit Edison men to win their company's 1956 Alex Dow Award for outstanding achievement.

A staff assistant to the treasurer, Kennedy was cited for his work in establishing new and accurate standards for the evaluation of specific clerical jobs throughout the company. He received the award from Detroit Edison President Walker L. Cisler at a banquet Tuesday, April 23.

William J. Croul was recently elected president of the National Furniture Warehousemen's Association at its annual meeting in Palm Beach, Fla. He succeeds J. C. Aspinwall, Jr., of Norfolk, Va.

Croul is president of the Riverside Storage and Cartage Co., which is celebrating its 75th anniversary this year.

Our state is first in the manufacture of gray iron, cutting tools, woodworking machinery and cereal preparations.

Expert on Summer Camps To Give Advice at Jacobson's

Kenneth W. Smith, director-owner of Camp Charlevoix, Mich., will be in Jacobson's boys' department Thursday and Friday, May 2-3, from 2 to 4 p.m. and Saturday, May 4, 1 to 4 p.m. He will be pleased to help you select a camp for your child and help with your camp problems for boys and girls.

Mr. Smith has written the following article to help parents decide on the right camp for children.

At this time of the year, a parent is usually greatly confused as to which camp to choose for his child, and the more camp catalogues that litter the living room table or the desk, the more confused one becomes.

There are many things to look for in a good camp, and as much care should be taken to choose the right camp as is taken in selecting the correct school. Camps come in assorted kinds or groups, YMCA camps, YWCA camps, Church camps, Scout camps, (both boy and girl), organization camps, and Private Camps. There are about 400 camps in Michigan, which rates fourth nationally in the number of camps but near the top in good, nationally-known camps.

In choosing a camp, it is possible to choose exactly the type of camp to suit your own child. Even before considering equipment, be sure to check on the director, his training, background, and experience. Next, the kind of staff at the camp is important. Is it a mature, well-trained group of counselors, or are they too young and immature to be ideal leaders for the child?

Next consider the physical plant. Is the camp located far enough away from a town or resort to give it the isolation a group of children need? Are there good swimming facilities, are the living quarters adequate, and is there enough land so as not to be crowded. The ideal camp has an acre per child.

Safety precautions should be examined. What are the safety features at the waterfront, at the riding stables, on trips, in cabins? Is there a nurse in camp, how far is it to the nearest hospital, are their electric lights, is there a telephone in camp? All these are most important as safety features.

Program is the last feature

there any free time for the camper to loaf and relax and read or just sit and think? Is there an air of happiness in the camp, a feeling of freedom? To what extent is the camp set up to meet individual needs? Is the camp program - centered or camp-centered?

To be a member of the American Camping Association a camp must pass an appraisal in four areas, program, administration, health and safety, and personnel. Failure in any one area will stop a camp from being an approved camp. The Michigan Camping Association pioneered this appraisal about ten years ago, and it has been so successful in this state that it has been adopted nationally. The Oregon Section and the Wisconsin sections of ACA were also among the early pioneers in this field.

All these random thoughts may help the parent who is trying to choose the correct camp for his child. Chances are that with proper investigation, no matter what camp you choose, your child will have a wholesome and profitable camping experience, and profit all through life from it.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

Last month 36,502 books were borrowed from the Grosse Pointe Public Libraries. What goes out most or should come back, which means that there are over 36,000 books to be replaced in their correct location each month.

To see that every volume finds its right home on the shelves is one of the several duties of our library pages. These young people are the unsung but not unhonored members of our staff. As well as keeping the shelves ship-shape, their duties including preparing magazines for circulation, pasting pockets, book mending and many other jobs which make for the efficient functioning of the library.

Margaret De Winter has the longest record of service. She has been a page at the Park Branch for more than three years. She is a senior and a top honor student at St. Ambrose School, and a member of the National Honor Society.

An M.D. is Margaret's goal. She is enrolled at Siena Heights College in Adrian, where she will take a pre-medical course beginning next September.

Also at the Park Branch are Leslie Roe and Mary Sajan. They are twins in their accomplishments. Both have been pages at the Park since last September, both are sophomores at St. Ambrose, both are on the honor roll and candidates for the National Honor Society.

At the Central Library, Mary Bratton has the longest record of service, coming to us about three years ago. Although doctors and nurses abound on practically every branch of Mary's family tree, Mary has other ideas. She has an avid interest in the theatre, and would like to choose a profession related in some way to this. Perhaps she will teach dramatics. She will attend the University of Michigan next Fall.

Camilla Kock has been at Central almost a year. A junior at St. Paul, she followed in the footsteps of her sister Regina, formerly a page at Central, and now in training for a nurse. Looking to the future, Camilla favors a career in either business or home economics.

Mary and Camilla are longtime library users. We remember them both as very small patrons at the old City Branch.

Virginia McCandless, a junior at Grosse Pointe High School, has been at Central a little less than a year. Virginia formerly worked in the High School Library, and tells us she is not yet sure which path she will choose when she is graduated. She has her eye on an Eastern School, and hopes to choose a career in which she may make good use of one or both of her majors, mathematics and psychology.

Patricia Babbage, a senior at Grosse Pointe High, has been a page at the Woods Branch almost a year and a half. Art is her first love. She recently won a gold key in a regional art contest of Southeastern Michigan, sponsored by the Scholastic Magazine. The winning entries will be sent to Pittsburgh for a National award, to be announced early in May.

Katherine Karle has been employed at the Woods Branch about a year. A junior at St. Paul, she is planning on a nursing career. She is already accumulating experience in this field, giving two days a week of volunteer work at St. Johns' Hospital.

Linda Zoland has worked at the Woods Branch only a month. She will be graduated from Grosse Pointe High next January, and plans to enter Michigan State to become a teacher.

Her burning enthusiasm is travel. She has covered a great deal of this country and Canada, and next year hopes to see Europe.

Fine young people—all of our nine pages! We applaud the good work they are doing, and wish them well in their chosen careers.

HONORED BY ROTARY

Rotarian Anthony Mandaro was presented a century pin during a luncheon-meeting of the Grosse Pointe Rotary Club at the War Memorial Center on Monday, April 29. The pin was presented by Membership Chairman Jim Alexis, for Mandaro's perfect 100th consecutive Rotary meeting attendance.

Optimistic And Realistic

By Fred Kopp, R.P.H.

To be optimistic is a rewarding attribute, to be realistic is no less a virtue. A happy combination of the two is a well adjusted personality willing and able to face all situations squarely.

Being too optimistic about your health is to trust much to the future and neglect that which should be done now. It accounts for much of the illness in the World today.

Consult your doctor for advice regularly. Rely on a pharmacist alert to your pharmacy needs.

Friday Family Film Night To Feature Disney Movies

Two Walt Disney film shorts will head the program tomorrow night, May 3, on Family Film Night at the Grosse Pointe Public Library. They are "Seal Island" and "A World Is Born." In addition to these two films, "Majestic Norway" will also be shown on the program which starts at 7:30 p.m. in the second floor Meeting Room at the Central Library. All three films are in color, and have been selected to appeal to both children's and adults' tastes.

"Majestic Norway" shows both rural and urban areas of Norway, with a native musical background. The travelogue includes mountain scenes, Lapland, Norway's transportation system, scenic grandeur, and the recreation of the people.

"A World Is Born" is a film "biography" of the first two billion years of our planet, Earth. The narrative interpretation of the "Rite of Spring" sequence from Walt Disney's "Fantasia," with Leopold Stokowski conducting the Philadelphia Orchestra, reveals the vast pageant of the birth of the earth and the first living creatures to inhabit it.

"Seal Island" is an authentic camera report of the life cycle of the magnificent Alaskan seal. This is the first in the series of great true life adventures, nature classics which have included such favorites as "Nature's Half Acre," "Water Birds," "The African Lion," and many others. In "Seal Island," a fascinating story of drama and humor is played against the rugged background of the Pribilof Islands of the Bering Sea.

With the showing of these color films tomorrow night, the 1956-57 season of Family Films will be ended. The series will be resumed in October. It has been one of the most popular programs sponsored by the Library this year.

Get New Target For Park Police

Park police have a man-size silhouette target to fire at during shooting practice, it is announced by Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers.

This type of target has been installed in the recently improved pistol range in the Park municipal building and is for the exclusive use of the city's police officers.

Chief Louwers said that a new program to improve the shooting eyes of the department personnel was begun during the month of April and is designed for the better protection of the officers.

In the past, he said, his men have been practicing slow and fast fire from a standing position, with the shooters sighting down the barrel of their guns and firing at regular targets.

Along with this, Park police henceforth will include silhouette shooting in their required monthly shooting practice, the chief said.

He said the man-size target is set at the end of the shooting range, and the officer shooting approaches to within 20 feet of the silhouette, stops, drops into a half-crouch, draws and fires, emptying his gun into the target as fast as possible without aiming.

Chief Louwers said he instituted this program for his men, against the day they might meet with a trigger-happy gunman or armed robber who might shoot it out rather than surrender.

Church Youth Plan Program

A special program is planned by the Grosse Pointe Methodist Senior Hi Youth Fellowship on Sunday, May 5, at 7:30 p.m. It will be held in the Rose Room of the church.

Heath Boyer is in charge of the program which is open to all member of the Grosse Pointe Methodist Church and their friends.

AUXILIARY TO MEET

The regular monthly meeting of the Christian Brothers' Auxiliary will be held May 8 at St. Joseph High School with luncheon to be served at 1 o'clock and a business meeting to follow.

Plans Changed By 'Cold Feet'

Two 15-year-old boys got keys away on VanAntwerp, and tossed three others of the set in a Mack avenue restaurant parking lot.

Disposition of their case is still pending.

Hooker Electrochemical, duPont, and Union Carbide are several of the companies which have located in Michigan in recent years because of the states' large supplies of salt and brine. Iron, copper, limestone, and timber are several others of the state's most plentiful natural resources.

The boys took a set of keys from the ignition of a new Plymouth and left, the informant said, planning to return when the dealer closed between 9:30 and 10 p.m.

O'Dell and Tobian planted themselves in a driveway on Oxford road where they could get a good view of the lot and waited for more than three hours for the would-be thieves.

The officers spotted five youths as they approached the car from which the keys had been removed, and closed in.

Three of the youths said they did not know the others had keys to the car, and after questioning were released.

The two who had intended to do the stealing, said they changed their minds and while walking home, threw one of the

Grosse Pointe News

From Another Pointe of View

By Patricia Talbot

One hundred years ago destitute children appeared at the door of 26 Monroe avenue in Detroit needing food, clothing warmth, education and understanding. Detroit's first settlement house was born and Pointers were a part of it.

The present Neighborhood House is at Fourth and Porter streets in Corktown and Mrs. Neil Bentley and Mrs. Arthur Griswold are third and fourth generation members of the board who have served Neighborhood House.

Now a member of the United Community Services, in 1955 the settlement house joined with Tau Beta Community House and Highland Park Community House to form a new social agency called the Neighborhood Services Organization. Each house continues its old functions but an enlarged program works with the Jeffries Housing Project, several schools and the "near delinquent" in many areas.

100th Birthday

A birthday dinner for all board members and husbands will be given in the Neighborhood House Games Room on Friday, May 17 and a week later a large reception and open house will mark the founding anniversary. Entertainment at the May 24 party will be offered by Mexicans, Maltese and six other nationalities living in the area.

Grosse Pointers who have served as president of the board include Mrs. Donald C. Stevenson, Mrs. W. Bruce Howard, Mrs. William M. Mertz, Mrs. Carl B. Grawn, Mrs. George E. Klein, Mrs. Ezra W. Lockwood, Mrs. Gage W. Cooper, Mrs. Louis B. Hyde, Mrs. J. Crawford Frost and the present head, Mrs. Carleton Healy.

Mrs. Frost and Mrs. Healy are co-chairmen of the celebration and other committee heads are Mrs. Bentley, Mrs. Frank N. Isbey, Mrs. Lockwood, Mrs. L. Robert Lilley, Mrs. George Trumbull, Mrs. Charles L. Taylor and Mrs. Charles B. Gorey, Jr.

Miss Bieke To Wed May 18

Bride-elect Nancy Ann Bieke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alois J. Bieke, Jr. of Three Mile drive, is being honored at a series of parties before her May 18 marriage to William M. Neat.

The pair will speak their vows in St. Clare of Montefalco Church. Mr. Neat is the son of Mrs. B. Carleton Neat, of Louisville, Ky. The engaged pair will travel to Kentucky this weekend to visit his mother and to see the Derby.

Mary Lou Bieke has already entertained for her sister with a buffet at their Three Mile drive home. Mrs. Paul Greening, Mrs. William Young and Mrs. John Brinkel were also hostesses at a luncheon at the Village Manor.

Judy Krome and Toni Novak gave a cocktail party for the engaged pair at Miss Krome's Lexington road home recently.

Mrs. Clarence Schultz was also a hostess at a dinner party. On Saturday, Mike Lewis, Richard Finch and Dr. Robert Skau gave a bar shower for the couple in their home on Grosse Pointe boulevard.

Nancy was also honored on Saturday by Mrs. Swede Laursten and Mrs. Verne Pattison with a luncheon at the Boat Club.

Sunday the bride-elect's aunts, Mrs. Al Wertham, Marie and Leona Bieke, gave a shower in Mrs. Wertman's Kilbourne avenue home.

Michigan has 11,037 inland lakes 36,350 miles of streams and 3,122 miles of Great Lakes shorelines — four times as much water-covered area as any other state.

High School Mothers Plan Bridge Tea

Oriental will be the theme of the decorations used at the Grosse Pointe High School Mother's Club annual Scholarship Bridge Tea on May 10 at Grosse Pointe High. The decorations committee, from left to right, MRS. ROBERT SPRECKSELL, MRS. LARRY TISDALE, MRS. RUSSELL HAGLAND and MRS. EDWARD KENNEDY, JR., check over some of the props to be used.

Fortnighters Plan Frolic

Young adults of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church will present their annual Fortnighters' Frolic this Friday at 8:30 o'clock in the church gymnasium.

Part of the entertainment will be two bridge skits. In the feminine cast will be Grace Bennett, Sally Barnes, Anne Hinchman and Jane Gullett.

In the all-male skit, "If Men Played Bridge the Way Women Do," are Jim Schroth Don Sommers, Carl Koelsch and Sterling Berry. Both plays are being directed by Dallas Chapin, of the Players.

Also on the program will be the noted male chorus, the Grunions. Dessert and coffee will follow the entertainment.

Proceeds from the Frolic will be used to send underprivileged children from Dodge Community House and Delray Christian Neighborhood House to Camp Grinaley this summer.

Tickets are $1.00 and may be purchased at the door or by calling the church office. Chairman Jim Schroth welcomes everyone to attend.

Michigan's Upper Peninsula contains 30 per cent of the state's land area and 24.8 per cent of the state's population.

Bride-Elect

The Rev. and Mrs. Irwin C. Johnson, of Moran road, announce the engagement of their daughter, ELEANOR KAY, to Roger S. Tuttle, son of the Hugh A. Tuttle, of Devonshire road.

The bride-elect was graduated from Liggett School and the University of Michigan where she was affiliated with Gamma Phi Beta and Zeta Phi Eta.

Mr. Tuttle was also graduated from the University of Michigan and his fraternity is Chi Phi. They will be married in October.

Church to Hold Annual Banquet

A spring garden will form the decorative theme for the annual Mother and Daughter Banquet at the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, Friday, May 10, at 6:30 p.m.

More than 200 are expected to attend the dinner, which will be served by the men of the church.

Entertainment will include a magician and a trained bird act. Mrs. Leo Vaught will be toastmistress.

Reservations are being accepted by Mrs. Roy Deltmer, ticket chairman, at 1760 Hampton, TU. 4-2211, through May 5.

Extra mothers or daughters may team up by calling Mrs. Malcolm Jolliff, general chairman, at TU. 2-7073.

Other chairmen for the dinner are Mrs. Donald Knaepple and Mrs. Robert J. McNutt, entertainment; Mrs. Robert Betzling, decorations; and Mrs. Frederick Kroenig, favors.

The women's groups sponsoring the dinner and their leaders are Mrs. Wainwright Taylor, Martha; Mrs. Victor Craig, Miriam; Mrs. Donald Doherty, Deborah; and Mrs. Murray MacDonald, Elizabeth.

Michigan ranks first in the nation in percentage of income derived from manufacturing.

Memorial Church Women Plan Tea

Mrs. Paul Moser to Be Speaker At Annual Event on May 14 at 2:30 p. m.; Fair Preview to Be Held at Same Time

Mrs. Paul Moser, former chairman of the National Council of Presbyterian Women's Organizations, and currently the only woman member (vice-president) of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church, U.S.A., will be the guest speaker at the annual May Tea, to be given by the Women's Association of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church on Tuesday, May 14, at 2:30 p.m.

An added feature of the program this year will be a special "Fair Preview" in the church house, beginning at 11 o'clock in the morning and continuing through the tea hour until 5:00 p.m. All booths will be closed for an hour so that the guests and the workers will have an opportunity to hear Mrs. Moser.

Her topic will be "Our Christian World Situation," based on her findings during an extended trip through the Far East, and her recent visit during March and April to Japan, Korea, and the Philippines. Born in Kansas, Mrs. Moser now lives in New York City, but because of her devotion to the ecumenical mission of the church, especially in its relation to women's work in churches overseas, she is seldom in this country for any length of time. During World War II she was vice-president of the Restoration Fund Campaign and the War-Time Service Commission. When the war ended, she circled the globe as a member of a deputation team sent by the Board of Foreign Missions to study post-war conditions in Southeast Asia.

In 1948 Mrs. Moser attended the World Council of Churches' meeting in Amsterdam, and from there went on to visit churches in Hungary and Czechoslovakia. After that, in 1952, she took part in an administrative survey of Presbyterian work in the French Cameroun, West Africa. In recognition of her interest in Christian education, Wilson College and College of Emporia have conferred doctors' degrees upon Mrs. Moser. She is now serving as chairman of the Women's Executive Committee of the University Foundation of the International Christian University in Japan, perhaps her most important project at the present time.

Assisting Mrs. Orison S. White, dining room chairman, will be Mrs. James E. Gibson, Mrs. Marjorie U. Scott, Mrs. Herbert Schumann, Mrs. Alexander Blain, Mrs. Robert Eckert, Mrs. Thomas Archer, Mrs. Eugene G. O'Brien, Jr., Mrs. Arnold Malow, Mrs. Harold Love and Mrs. Clarence E. Maguire.

Because of the widespread interest among church women in Mrs. Moser's work, an invitation to attend the program has been extended by Mrs. Arthur Hillegas, program chairman, to all women in the Grosse Pointe area. Tea reservations may be made by calling the church office, TU. 5-3773.

Preceding Mrs. Moser's talk, there will be a musical program arranged by Mrs. Harry H. Whittingham, and presented by Malcolm M. Johns, organist, Mrs. D. Everett Kinsey, violin-

Bowlers' Jamboree Ends GPYC Season

Howard Simon Wins Harlow Stahl Trophy at Big Kegling Party Saturday Night; Mrs. Leonard G. Hooper, Women's Champion

Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's league bowlers put "finis" to their '56-'57 season last Saturday. Their big Jamboree celebration was a matter of substituting dancing footgear for bowling shoes and forgetting all about scores.

The main dining room was a bee-hive. Toasts were raised and congratulations floated freely under ribbon streamers and high-flying balloon clusters. Everyone took time to inspect the handsome trophies set out for the soon-to-come distribution ceremony.

Bowling chairman Fred A. Hood, Jr., and chief aide Jack W. Hooper made the awards between the cocktail hour and the dinner-dance at 8:30.

Howard Simon's outstanding prowess again brought him the men's championship. For that he received the Harlow Stahl perpetual trophy. In addition he took the prize as top man in the Monday stag league.

Mrs. Leonard G. Hooper again won the women's championship and was awarded the Commodore A. P. Teetzel perpetual trophy. Her superb kegling brought her two other prizes—that in the Tuesday ladies' league, and the woman's award in the Wednesday mixed league, where the man's trophy went to Walter S. Clark.

Mrs. William A. Ternes received the Wednesday ladies' league prize. Other mixed league prize-winners were: In the Tuesday group, Mrs. Edgar M. Gregory and Carl G. Anderson; Thursday league, Mrs. Gerald C. Schroeder and Arthur G. Hermann; in the Friday group, Mrs. Irene Sorensen and Forrest R. Old.

GPYC's league championship went to the Wednesday night league, the winning bowlers including Mrs. James M. Northrup, Mrs. J. Earl Fraser, Mrs.

Walter S. Clark, Richard Martin, Edward Schoenherr and Fred A. Hood, Jr.

Prizes bestowed, the assemblage thronged to league tables in the ballroom-lounge—and never a lighter step at bowling alleys than the lively twinkling occasioned by the Art Quatro orchestra music.

The Robert Smiths brought their week-end house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Squires, of London, Ont., their eightiesome, also including the Chester F. Malys, of Berkeley, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hellers.

Mrs. Fred Hood, Jr., and Mrs. Jack Hooper attended with their chairmen husbands. Mrs. Ver-linden Pez, Mrs. John H. Mueller and Mrs. William N. Hinds were with a group, and the L. Gaylord Hulberts were hosts to Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hood.

Dr. Clarence Maguire and Richard K. Degener joined friends—Mrs. Degener was visiting her parents, the Robert Bowmans, in Lauderdale, and Mrs. Maguire also was sojourning in the South.

Among others at the jolly Jamboree were the Paul I. Morelands, the Hans Gehrkes, Jr., the Paul L. Barkers, the Robert F. Webers, the Peter J. Gallettes, the John G. Bennis-ters.

Still more: the Arthur M. Stringaris, the Edward D. Barretts, the Charles F. Hammonds, Jr., the LeRoy Paynes, the Edward W. Johnsons, and Mr. and Mrs. Morley E. Keyes.

Figures may not lie, but some get snarled up in statistics.

After spending Easter in Evanston, Ill. DR. and MRS. LYNDLE R. MARTIN, of Mid-dlesex boulevard, traveled to St. Louis, Mo., to attend the National Industrial Medical Association meeting. Before returning home they will visit in Indiana.

Among those reported on the Dean's List for Hilldale College are JOHN J. ASMUS, son of the FRED ASMUSES, of Beaupre road; TERRY H. SNOWDAY, JR., son of the TERRY H. SNOWDAYS, of Kenwood court, and ROBERT H. VAN STEELANT, son of the HARRY E. VAN STEELANTS, JR., of Beaconsfield road.

MRS. J. DEANE RUCKER, of Lakeshore road, has returned from a winter spent in Palm Beach. She entertained at cocktails last week for her cousin, MRS. GEORGE WHITE-LAW, of Santa Barbara, Calif.

MR. and MRS. BERRIEN C. EATON, JR., of St. Paul avenue, will entertain Saturday evening in the Bishop road home of the senior Eatons to mark MRS. EATON'S birthday. MR. and MRS. HOWARD F. SMITH, JR., of Dyar lane, will entertain the birthday guests at a cocktail party before the group dines at the Little Club and goes on to the Eatons.

PETER STROH, of Edgemont park, left last week to crew in the Bermuda international dinghy races.

For her wedding the bride, a former member of the Grosse Pointe News staff, chose a white Chantilly lace over slipper satin sheath. A small cap-caught her short tulle veil and she carried white roses and lilies of the valley. Mr. Connolly is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Connolly, Jr., of Moran road. The couple will make their home in Jacksonville while he is on duty with the Marine Corps there.

Calif., where they were guests of former Pointers, MR. and MRS. MERL GREGG, now of Laurel Canyon.

MR. and MRS. OWEN C. CRE-TEAU of Pierson avenue, Detroit, announce the birth of a son, WILLIAM GEORGE, on April 20. Mrs. Creteau was the former PAT KRONNER of Grosse Pointe.

BARBARA COOMBE, of McKinley avenue, has been named to the Dean's List at Ohio Wesleyan University in recognition of outstanding scholastic achievement during the first semester, 1956-57. Sophomores, juniors and seniors who achieve a cumulative grade point average of 3.3 (B plus) or better are eligible for the Dean's List. These students are "released" from the usual requirements of class attendance so that they may have additional freedom to plan their work in the most advantageous manner and to engage in independent work approved by the instructor.

Maypoles to Deck Lochmoor for Party

Members Will Model for Club's Fashion Show Which Will Be Followed by Luncheon and Bridge May 8; Mrs. Bill O. Rink and Mrs. Douglas Adair Co-Hostesses

Selecting the theme of Lochmoor Club's ladies bridge luncheon on May 8, presented no problem whatsoever, for hostesses Mrs. Bill O. Rink and Mrs. Douglas Adair. They agreed that a party in May simply would not be complete without the traditional Maypole; and Maypoles there will be, not one but many.

A very, very tall one, reaching to the ceiling in the club's foyer, will attract the guests' eyes as they arrive at the Wednesday luncheon. Tiny mannequins, holding yellow and white streamers, will be posed around the base, ready, by a stretch of the imagination, to begin entwining the colored strips around the giant pole.

The Maypole will be duplicated in miniatures as centerpieces for the luncheon tables, enhancing the lovely May party theme.

A fashion show by Margaret Rice will feature some of the beautiful casual clothes for which she is so well known in this area.

A bevy of Lochmoor beauties will lend their charms to the showing of the lovely ensembles. The models include: Mrs. Wm. Curtis; Mrs. John Brink; Mrs. Henry Klein; Mrs. Philip O'Connell; Mrs. Jack Cowan; Mrs. Robert Bokram and Mrs. Harry Rife.

Reservations have been placed in advance by Mrs. Jess Lobdell; Mrs. J. W. Smith; Mrs. Sidney Harvey; Mrs. John Dumser; Mrs. Alex Szmiel; Mrs. Murray MacDonald; Mrs. H. G. Smith; Mrs. Leo Luke; Mrs. Robert Kemp; Mrs. Charles Masenich and Mrs. Virgil Walling.

Mrs. Tom ZurSchmiede, Sr.; Mrs. Clark Pearson; Mrs. Fred Hood, Jr.; Mrs. Fred Neuman; Mrs. Maurice DeKeyser; Mrs. T. J. Newton; Mrs. Archie La-Pointe; Mrs. Garnet Kramer and Mrs. Don Galvin are others.

Mrs. Harold Trombly; Mrs. Arthur Spring; Mrs. Frank Goodrich; Mrs. Clarence Bauer; Mrs. Marvin Blaess; Mrs. Wm. Fricker; Mrs. Ernest Mann; Mrs. F. Clayton Miles; Mrs. William Oddy; Mrs. Edw. Biederman and Mrs. Walter Horn also will be there.

Are you serving your family enough milk? A pint a day for most adults, a quart a day for children is what the nutrition experts say we should have. If you're using less than that, you may be short-changing yourself and your family in health. And there is no food that can be used more times a day in more different ways than milk.

Miss Gonczow Weds J. Robert Carmen

Bride Wears Imported Pointe de Venice Veil Brought By Parents From Italy For Rites Saturday Morning In St. Clare of Montefalco Church

Patricia Carol Gonczow, daughter of the Joseph J. Gonczows, of Neff road, was married Saturday morning to James Robert Carmen, son of the Robert S. Kings, of Lakeland avenue, in St. Clare of Montefalco Church.

For her wedding she chose a gown of ivory peau de faulle fashioned with long pointed sleeves, and lattice-work neckline and long sweeping train.

Her cathedral length pointe de Venice veil and headpiece was made from lace brought by her parents from Italy. She carried a string of calla lilies. Her single train of pearls were borrowed from the bridegroom's mother.

Lorry Gonczow was her sister's maid of honor and the attendants were Judy Gonczow, Nora Hutton, Joan Gorman, of Boston, Mass.; Mary Clare Turner, of Aquasco, Md., and Louise Summers of Chevy Chase, Md.

They were gowned in white cotton lace over blue taffeta made sheath-style with back detail and a flying panel of silk organza. Their small rippling brim hats of matching lace were trimmed with blue taffeta and French lilacs. They carried baskets of French lilacs and sweetheart roses.

Nancy Gallagher, of Oak Park, Ill. the bride's cousin, was flower girl in white embroidered polished cotton over blue taffeta. She wore a band of pink sweetheart roses in her hair and carried a basket of the same roses.

John L. Brodhead was best man and the ushers were Richard A. Carmen, brother of the bridegroom; Robert H. Kimber, Dr. Robert Danforth, Frank B. Ware, Jr., and George B. West, Jr. The ring bearer was the bridegroom's nephew, Keith Carmen.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception which followed at Lochmoor Mrs. Gonczow chose a pale yellow embroidered gown and a large leghorn hat. She pinned yellow cymbidium orchids to her bag.

Mrs. King was in powder blue chiffon and a small pink hat. Her flowers were pink camelias.

When the couple left on a wedding trip to Mexico the new Mrs. Carmen was wearing a light grey tailored suit, with patent accessories, a white straw hat and a mink stole.

Coming from out of town for the wedding were Mrs. Herbert Rionne, of Oak Park, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Carey, of Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gallagher, of Oak Park, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson, of Miami, O.; Miss Charlotte Lederer, of San Francisco, Calif., and Miss Colleen Cotter, of Chicago.

To Give Ball For Symphony

The Country Squires' Ball, with rusticity in a grand manner its keynote, will be the Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra's annual party offering of the Spring season. The major event is scheduled Saturday, May 11, at 9 o'clock, in the spacious Bloomfield Hills home of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood P. Engel.

The party plans were announced as invitations were placed in the mail by Mrs. Richard W. Tucker, association president, and Mrs. Stanley R. Day, ball chairman, of Park lane. This year's affair promises to be one of the most colorful social events the Junior's have ever staged and will benefit the Maintenance Fund of Detroit's fine orchestra.

The agenda for the evening calls for continuous dancing with music from two orchestras and an elaborate midnight buffet supper served by candlelight. The decorations committee, headed by Mrs. Cornelius N. Ray III, will turn the main hall of the baronial Engel home into a hunter's lodge.

The ball theme will be carried out with hunting horns, stuffed stags, foxes, pheasants and forests of flowering branches. The famous North Country Beagle Pack of Metamora is patiently modelling for the dozens of table favors guests will find at this place.

Grosse Pointers assisting Mrs. Day are Mesdames Thomas E. Armstrong, Donald Blain, Donald E. Brown, Joseph E. Cavanaugh, Louis J. Curl Jr., William P. Curtiss and Alfred Cytacki. Drivers 'See' Warning Horns

A new safety device to let drivers "see" the warning-horn blast of a car approaching from the rear has been developed by Ford Motor Company.

It picks up the sound of an approaching horn and flashes a small amber light on the instrument panel to warn that a car wishes to pass.

Ford's electrical engineering department at the Research and Engineering Center, Dearborn, made the device because unusual road noises sometimes make it difficult for a motorist to hear horn signals from the rear.

Simple and very compact, the warning signal consists of only three parts—a tiny microphone just above the rear bumper, a midsize amplifier and a button-type warning light on the inside of the car.

The microphone picks up only horn signals because it is enclosed in a tube that resonates only at the sound-wave frequencies of horns, and the instrument light flashes on and off only when a horn blows.

"Horns are loud enough to warn pedestrians, but sometimes a driver traveling 60 miles an hour with his car windows closed may not hear the horn of an approaching car until it is only a few feet away," explained Charles W. Thomas, manager of Ford's electronic and acoustical department.

"In addition to road and wind noises, radio playing and conversation within cars also have been found to be sources of interference," Thomas said. "The device will aid any older motorists who are hard of hearing."

Thomas said the device has been under development at Ford for two years.

The District wishes to thank the community for the wholehearted support of this fund-raising project. On the local level the funds will make possible many individual troop outings and camping trips, will finance Summer Day Camp Campership for needy Girl Scouts, trips to Senior Girls' Council and other conferences, the swimming program, training of leaders and many other operations of the District.

And to the hundreds of Girl Scouts and leaders who worked on cookie sales, the district wishes to thank them for a job well done.

"Something for nothing" is the strongest appeal you can make to some people.

Miss Moxley Weds Ensign Edw. Sculley

At a morning ceremony Saturday in St. Paul's on the lakeshore Lou Ann Moxley, daughter of the Roy Anthony Moxleys, of Radnor circle, became the bride of Ensign Edward Francis Sculley.

The bride's brother, Thomas, and cousin, John Kolly, served the nuptial mass. A breakfast reception at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial followed the double ring ceremony.

The bride chose a beau de soie and French Chantilly lace princess gown made with a high empire waist and long sleeves. Hand embroidered seed pearls accented the delicate lace motifs forming the portrait neckline. The bodice and sweeping chapel train were of lace.

Her finger tip silk illusion veil was caught by a small crown and she carried a cascade of white roses with her prayer book.

The bride's sister, Mary Anita, came from the University of Michigan to be her maid of honor. The attendants were two more sisters of the bride, Judith Ellen and Katherine Marie Moxley.

They were gowned alike in ballerina length gowns of French blue shadow silk and carried bouquets of spring flowers.

Joseph Sculley was his brother's best man. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Clare Joseph Sculley, of Lannette avenue. Ushering were William Lucas and James Griesmer, of Princeton, N. J., the bridegroom's brother-in-law.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Moxley chose a gown of beige beau de soie with mocha accessories. Mrs. Sculley was in hyacinth blue shantung with patent accessories. Both mothers wore white orchids.

The couple will make their home at the Great Lakes Naval Base in Illinois where Ensign Sculley is at present stationed.

White Elephants Needed

Members of the Planned Parenthood board have discovered they are short of funds for the upcoming season and to remedy this situation have scheduled a Rummage Sale for May 24.

Two old hands at organizing rummage sales are co-managing this one. Mrs. William C. Tost and Mrs. Theodore R. Buttrick, Jr. This is the fifth such venture they have worked on together.

The sale will be held at the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church and well wishers wanting to donate materials (white elephants are particularly wanted) may call Mrs. Tost or Mrs. Buttrick.

Mrs. Joseph L. Hudson III and Mrs. Charles S. Davis, Jr., are also on the collection committee. Mrs. John B. Warren is in charge of volunteers for the day of the sale.

On May 27 Planned Parenthood will hold its annual meeting and luncheon at the Veterans War Memorial downtown and Dr. Pauline Park Wilson Knapp, director of Merrill-Palmer School will be the speaker.

Sell Out at Players

Tickets are at a premium, as usual, for the Players annual week of drama. This season a series of one act plays will be produced this Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings and again next weekend.

Planning on attending the opening night are the Harold O. Loves, the Colburn Standishes, the Theodore Osuses, the Gordan McCabes and the William Granses.

The Loves, who have just returned from a flying visit to New York, will have a few guests at their Lochmoor boulevard home for cocktails and then go on to the Country Club for dinner before making the opening night curtain.

Past Player president J. Leslie Berry and Mrs. Berry will also give a dinner party before one of the performances. Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Whittaker, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Powers, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Nagel, and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Van Dusen will be on hand for one of the dramatic evenings.

The group is now engaged in making aprons for the volunteer workers of the School.

The auxiliary is also planning a card party to be held May 15 at 8 p.m. at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. The party is planned for both men and women and there will be prizes and refreshments.

For ticket information call Mrs. Herb Kenz, TU 4-8478 or Mrs. Don Kelly, TU 4-8736. The proceeds of the party are to go to the Grosse Pointe Foundation for Exceptional Children.

First Federal Has Birthday

On its first anniversary this week, the Grosse Pointe office of First Federal Savings of Detroit reports 3,700 savings customers, and total savings accounts of more than $5,000,000, according to Harold G. Phelps, branch manager.

The office, in its first year, has kept pace with the steady growth of First Federal, which is Michigan's largest savings association, with assets in excess of $200,000,000, representing the savings of over 100,000 customers.

Phelps points out that the office, at 17150 Kercheval, between St. Clair and Neff, is located in the important Kercheval-St. Clair shopping center, with the center's main parking area just to the rear of the building. A drive-in window, a night depository that allows customers to add to savings from the sidewalk at any hour of the day or night, and a post-paid save-by-mail plan also help to make saving easy and convenient for customers, he reports.

Most of us agree that economy is where you find it and sometimes you find it in unexpected places, such as in a package of table-ready potatoes. Quickie mashed potatoes aren't just mashed potatoes; they are potato soup, potato patties and topping for casseroles—all from a single package. If your family likes "hashed brown potatoes, you needn't wait for left over potatoes—use diced frozen potatoes or frozen patties—happy results!

Divorce Bill Passes Senate

The bill on divorce, introduced by Senator Harold M. Ryan, prohibiting the filing of a bill of complaint for divorce and separate maintenance until after the expiration of 60 days from the day summons is served, was approved by the Michigan Senate.

The intent and purpose of the bill is to provide for a "cooling off" period prior to the filing of charges by one spouse against the other. During the 60-day "cooling off" period, the judge may set the judicial processes in action to explore the possibilities for reconciliation before provocative "grounds" are made public and before the family becomes embittered against each other.

Senator Ryan pointed out that there were over 18,000 divorces granted last year in Michigan, and the ratio of marriages to divorces is now 3-1. Over 9,000 divorce cases involved children under 18 years of age. Approximately 27,000 children are affected each year by divorce of the parents. It is expected that this law will save 15 to 20 per cent of the suits for divorce filed in any one year.

The bill has been sent to the House of Representatives for further action.

THE STARS

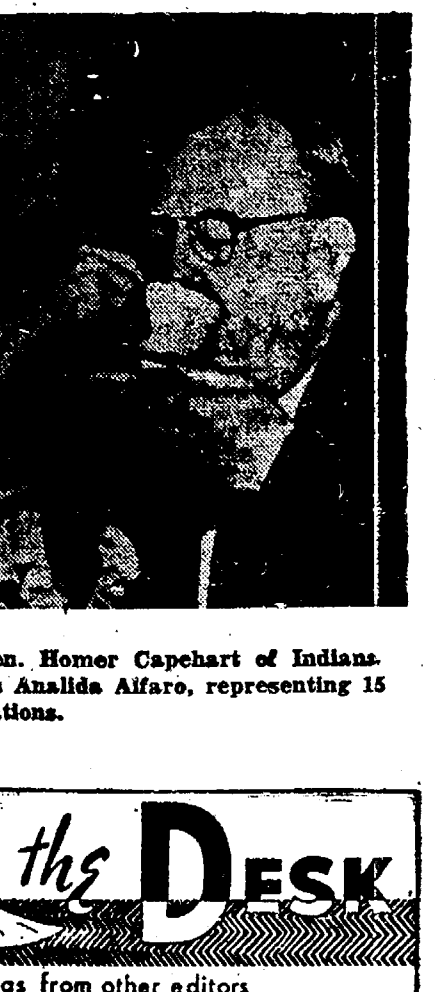

By LYNN CONNELLY
TWO of the brightest branches on the Mutual Network's family tree are the names of "Bob and Ray" whose mad, look-no-hands type of humor (Monday thru Friday) answers those people who thought radio comedy, snowfalls and old gray mares aren't what they used to be . . . To go formal, Mr. Elliot and Mr. Goulding have the literate, civilized approach of the late Fred Allen and Henry Morgan . . . Their delivery is "sincere."
It is cream-tongued Bob and Ray, sounding like the announcer-next-door, who advises us "The United States Mint, Makers of Money" and "Chocolate-Cookies, with White Stuff in the Middle," present "The Sixty-Four Cent Question" and "Mary Backstage, Noble Wife" . . . It is "benevolent" Bob and Ray that sell us their overstocked warehouse in bulging with second-hand, first aid kits, although "some of the bandages have been used and will have to be rinsed" . . . It is public service-minded Bob and Ray who inform us when "Be-Sick-A-Hat-Week" comes around and when the next meeting for the Preservation of the Dutch Elm convenes.
Like the Cabots, Bob and Ray gained their fame in Boston, but "they were practically unknown until they became popular" . . . Massachusetts-born, both also attended dramatic schools in New York and served radio apprenticeships as pages . . . The two comedians were in the army, "performing glorious errands" in World War II . . . In 1946 at Boston, Bob was a disc jockey while Ray handled the announcing chores . . . Their dead-pan asides to each other had the local Boston fans in hysterics with the result that the "Bob and Ray Show" was born . . . The soap operettas, giveaway shows and interview sessions haven't been safe since.

SCANNING THE NEWS

PASSAGE by the Indiana legislature a few weeks ago of a "right to work" law has brought the big national Labor Unions up with a jolt. True, 17 states already had passed such laws, but Indiana was the first big industrial state to do so. Most of the other states were in the South and West where unions were not strong anyway.
This rising tide of sentiment against the unions, has been brought to a head by disclosures in the Senate investigation of improper activities of both Unions and Management, and the alleged misuse of Union funds by some of the Union leaders as brought out in the case of Dave Beck, President of the International Union of Teamsters.
The Taft-Hartley Law outlawed the so-called "closed shop." The closed shop deal required all employees covered by the Act be members of unions. However the Taft-Hartley Act preserved the Union Shop, and although not requiring employees to be members of unions when hired, does require them to join unions soon after starting to work.
The so-called "state-right-to-work" laws profess to protect the individual employee in his right to work whether he belongs to a Union or not. But under this guise of protection, it wrecks the entire union movement, by banning the union shop and the entire collective bargaining system now in effect.
Some management is backing this move to wreck the labor union movement, because of the prevalence of Union security agreements in collective bargaining contracts.

Union leaders declare union members want these security agreements. Right-to-work advocates claim that the workers are forced to accept them.
There can be no question, but that under the collective bargaining system, the Unions have increased the standard of living of the working people of the country, both for union and non-union employees. For wages of non-union workers follow closely behind those of union members.
The right-to-work movement, according to its advocates is based on the traditional right of every individual to independence, freedom . . . therefore he should have the right to work whether or not he join a union. However if the union shop is banned, and collective bargaining weakened, then every worker is on his own to bargain for his wages and hire . . . and takes him back 25 or 30 years.
In these days of multiple corporate interests, what effect or power would one of a dozen men have in bargaining for hours and wages and conditions of work have on management, as compared to the bargaining power of 3,000 to 10,000 men in a union as represented by his elected officials. These states have right to work laws today:
Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Iowa, Mississippi, Nebraska, Nevada, North Carolina, North Dakota, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah and Virginia. In Idaho a law failed to pass by four votes. In Wyoming and Colorado, the legislatures rejected right-to-work riders on civil rights legislation.

ACROSS THE DESK

From The Independent, Fuquay Springs, N. C.: Recently the paperback editions of books by several well known authors were banned from the newsstands in some cities. Those responsible for the bans maintained that such action is necessary to protect the morals of the young. Whatever the right or the wrong of this position, it is at best a negative approach and one which may defeat its own end.
A book that is banned receives publicity. The very fact that it is banned receives publicity. The very fact that it is removed from shelves is an inducement to some youngsters to read. Those who do read it for that reason are likely to seek out only the sensational passages.
If the same efforts expended in behalf of getting books banned were directed to promoting books that are considered wholesome for young readers, more lasting good would be accomplished. Readers can be convinced that worthwhile books are more entertaining than shockers. If this were not the case, good books would not survive so long while bad books fade from popularity so quickly.
Surely a society such as ours, which has perfected techniques of advertising and merchandising, is capable of presenting good reading material to impressionable young minds, in such a fashion that it will not only be accepted but welcomed. Young readers who become acquainted with good writing will soon be able to make intelligent judgments of what is good and what is bad. Then the bad will be rejected—not because it is banned or criticized, but because to read the good is more entertaining and satisfying.
From the South Pasadena Review, So. Pasadena, Calif.: We've got to get angry. We've got to get indignant. We've got to feel more keenly the crime-wrought suffering of others. We've got to realize that crime can happen to us and to those we love.
And in a less dramatic sense, we've got to realize the tremendously demoralizing influence today's phenomenal crime rate is exerting on our nation. How long can a great nation withstand such a wearing-away of its moral fiber and still remain great? How long can our traditional American sense of fair play and respect for the rights of others survive the growing inclination to hoodlumism that afflicts our younger generation, the coming generations whose responsibility it will be to keep this nation on course when we relinquish the helm?

Out of 329 daily newspapers in Turkey, 69 have the word "democrat" in their name. You will also find "democrat" in almost every town where there are "democratic" coffee houses, "democratic" restaurants and even "democratic" laundries.

WASHINGTON

Q—Can you tell me when Arlington Cemetery was established, who runs it and how many persons are buried there?
A—It was established June 15, 1864 on some 420 acres of land overlooking the Potomac river, originally belonging to George Washington Parke Custis, grandson of Martha Washington, and later to Robert E. Lee. The cemetery is administered by the Department of the Army. As of January 1956, there were 88,086 military, naval and civilian persons buried there of whom 4,720 are unidentified. On a high hill overlooking the river and looking down on Washington's beautiful memorial bridge, is the Lee-Curtis home-stand, with its white fluted columns in Doric style architecture. Another feature is the tomb of the Unknown Soldier, with its marble amphitheatre, built in 1920. The tomb bears the famous inscription "Here rests in Honored Glory an American Soldier known but to God." Other memorials include the "Temple of Fame"; The U. S. N. Maine Memorial; and the famous Iwo Jima Bronze statue of the raising of the U. S. Flag on Iwo Jima, donated in 1954 by the U. S. Marine Corps at a cost of $350,000.

Q—What and where is the so-called "Census Clock" I have heard about?
A—This Census Clock is in the Lobby of the Department of Commerce Building, known as the population clock. Its mechanism averages population growth in the U. S. A. One set of lights flashes every 8 seconds to indicate the number of births, which run over 4 million a year; another indicator shows average increase in population is one person every 12 seconds; that an immigrant enters the U. S. every 2 minutes and an emigrant leaves every 24 minutes. The total is adjusted at intervals by the Census Bureau to allow for variations of actual population changes from the averages built into the clock.

Q—Is the Hoover Dam the largest in the world?
A—It is the highest-completed dam in the world at 726 feet. Mauvoisin dam in Switzerland, still under construction, is said to be 780 feet high.

LETTER FROM A RIVAL

By F. L. Rowley

IT isn't easy for a fellow to tell his wife that he's just been fired. Luckily for me Alice wasn't at home when I crawled up the front stairs. I knew she was out because a letter was sticking out of the mail-box.
I opened the letter and let out another groan. My former rival, George Wilson, was inviting himself to our place for a couple of weeks. We'd have to put up with his crowing about how well he managed the Sure-Fire chain of stores. And me out of work!
"Don't take it so hard, John."
I looked up to see my friend Charlie Bates shuffling down the front walk.
"I heard about old man McDuff giving you the pink slip this morning. What's up?"
"He claims I got too many radical ideas for a small business. But if you think losing my job is tough luck, look at this!" I held George's crumpled letter under his nose.
Charlie frowned at it. "Isn't he the guy who beat you to that job with the Sure-Fire Company a few years ago?" he asked, studying the signature. "He's got crust-writing to you."
"And I think I know why. Remember how thick he and Alice used to be? He got my job; now he wants to steal my wife."
"You're nuts!" laughed Charlie. "Maybe. Look at it from where Alice stands: George Wilson is a financial success. I'm a failure—not even a job."
"Alice doesn't know about that yet."
"She'll find out soon enough. A secret doesn't keep long in a small town like Hillcrest. It doesn't take long to learn about it. Besides, Alice always did like George Wilson."
"You got a one track mind," groaned Charlie. "But I got an idea that'll keep her in the dark about your job—and George Wilson. She's been after you all summer to go on a trip, hasn't she? Why not spend a couple of weeks at my summer cottage?"
"Charlie, you're a real pelt!" I shouted.
"When this George Wilson shows up I'll tell him you're in South America. I'll even mail you the daily papers so you can look over the 'help wanted' column."
It started out fine. Alice and I enjoyed some of the best fishing we'd seen in years. I even spotted a job in the Shelby paper that might bear looking into. Each evening I went to bed chuckling over how clever we were—Charlie and I. Good old Charlie! Down deep, however, I was uneasy.
Not without reason. One morning Charlie Bates' station wagon turned into the winding drive. The chubby little figure that hopped out of the car looked suspiciously familiar.
"I would have darted into the woods only Alice blocked the doorway. 'George Wilson!' she cried rapturously. 'Of all people! George, you look wonderful! Doesn't he, John?'"
He looked like a Henry-eyed toad to me, but I said: "Sure. You look great, George."
I was looking around for a suitable weapon when Alice caught my sleeve: "Did you hear that, John? George is married now."
"Did you see that axe-handle that—what? Married? And by golly George you look great—just great! Doesn't he, Charlie?"
Charlie loosened his collar.
George Wilson got to the point at once. "Sure-Fire is opening a branch store in Hillcrest. John. I made this trip down here to ask a favor of you: will you manage the store for us? You know the business as well as I do. Didn't you get my letter?"
I was gulping for the third time when Charlie cried: "Oh my goodness! The letter! I forgot to give it to him, Mr. Wilson."
Alice nodded agreement. I put my hand out to steady myself and George grabbed it at once. "Want to shake on it, eh? Good."

Boat Banter

By Fred Rannels

The boat law merry-go-round is spinning once again in Lansing, Michigan. It happens every spring as lawmakers suddenly realize something must be done to control reckless boat operation on the state's inland lakes and Great Lakes communities. Silly proposals, all of them, and this year we have a bumper crop, none of which would serve the purpose.

We get a king size chuckle when we read them. A simple analysis proves they were dreamed up by someone who knows little or nothing about boats, their operation or water recreation.

Take for example the proposal that would require a motorboat operator to paint his name and address on each side of his boat that would be legible at a distance so law enforcement officers could identify the boat in case it became involved in an accident or was guilty of "buzzing."

Can't you imagine an owner whose name might be Stanislaus Kickapoozitz and who lives at 1500 North Massachusetts avenue painting all of that on the side of a 14-foot boat. The craft would look like a floating billboard. All that information wouldn't make the owner a more capable operator, would it?

Then another lawmaker had nothing but money on his mind when he proposed that all boat owners be required to pay a two dollar registration fee which would dump approximately $700,000 into the state coffers. Out of this amount it was suggested that law enforcement officers be employed to patrol the inland lakes and the waters of Great Lakes communities. The cost of this operation was pegged at $300,000. Nothing was said about what would happen to the other $400,000. Possibly it would find its place alongside the gasoline tax money boatmen pay each year, of which three quarters goes to the Michigan State Highway department.

Lawmakers have failed miserably to come up with the necessary laws to control the waterways. Why have they failed? They don't know what is the cause of the dangers that exist on our lakes and rivers today.

These men are like the man that "couldn't see the woods for the trees." The State of Michigan has a perfectly good set of motor vehicle laws that could very easily be adopted for boat operation and they would work.

For example, anyone can buy an automobile but he can't drive it on our streets and highways until he has passed a driver's test proving his ability and his knowledge of the driving rules.

Not so it the case of boat owners. Anyone can buy a boat and without a bit of instruction, except maybe learning how to start the motor, can go buzzing off across the water in reckless abandon.

Automobile drivers must carry drivers' licenses with them whenever they drive. Boat owners need not be bothered. As a matter of fact even a child, regardless of age, is permitted to operate a boat. However, this same child must be 16 years of age before he can apply for a driver's license and in most cases must have passed a Student Driver training course before his driver's license is issued. Today the state is making it tough on reckless drivers. Those who receive three moving violations within one year can have their licenses revoked. Why can't this law apply to boat owners?

Each year car owners are required to buy a license for their vehicle regardless of its size or shape. Currently, boat owners are required to pay a boat tax and must attach a set of license plates to their boats. Why not make ALL boat owners buy license plates each year. In this way ALL boats would be registered with the state. This could be handled through the Secretary of State's office the same as automobile licenses.

Boat drivers' licenses could be handled through local police stations just as they do for drivers of motor vehicles.

Local Power Squadrons of the United States Power Squadron have been holding instructional classes on the safe operation of water craft. Usually these classes are held during the winter months. Classes have been filled to capacity by boat owners and non-boat owners alike. At the end of each term the pupils are required to take an examination and if passed they are given a certificate. Possibly these classes could serve the same purpose as the Student Driver Training classes throughout the state. A certificate from a Power Squadron class would entitle a boat operator to a driver's license.

All the mechanics are available, so why don't the lawmakers make use of them and make water recreation in "Water Wonderland" safe for all who seek the pleasure of boating?

The first sailing instruction class ever to be offered by the Grosse Pointe Public School System Community Service got underway Wednesday, May 1. The classes are under the able direction of Pete Kremlick and Pete Goebel. It isn't too late to register for this class. Applications are still being taken and the novice sailor may enter the class by calling the Department of Community Services at TU 5-3808 or TU 5-0271.

The 1957 racing season got underway at Edison Boat Club last Saturday, April 27, despite the ominous storm clouds that hovered all around the river. Light southwesterly breezes prevailed that made for slow going for the 28-foot Club Sloops carrying crews of five.

Cass Gorski won the first race and race chairman Bob Greening captured the second. Ed Trebilcock took the third, vice chairman Eaton Kelly was best in the fourth and Mike Demchak won the final.

This was the first of an eight-day series which will determine the E.B.C. Club Sloop champion this season. The Club Sloops will race the third and fourth of the series next Saturday, May 4, with numbers 5, 6, 7, and 8 to be sailed in September.

The E. B. C. catboats will swing into action on May 18 which will commence a 12-race series throughout the summer. Following Saturday's races nearly 300 members and guests enjoyed a steak roast and dance in the evening.

Pointer's Fish Prize Winner in Big Contest

Frank Forster of Whittier road, took a weekly prize for the largest sailfish caught in the Ft. Lauderdale Festival, and until that time was the men's leader for the largest one caught in the tournament, which ended April 30.

The fish was caught from a private boat, "Nika," out of Bahia Mar, Ft. Lauderdale. It weighed 83 1/2 pounds and was five inches under eight feet long.

Austin High Nine Expects Good Season

By Tom LoCicero
Austin Catholic High

Favored to win the Central division baseball title for the second year in a row, Austin Catholic is not giving its fans much chance to recuperate from the recent basketball season which saw the Friars' quintet reach the state finals.

Since only one player was lost through graduation from last year's squad which went to the Catholic City Finals at Briggs Stadium, the outlook for the 1957 edition of the Austin "nine" is indeed bright.

Under their new coach, Tom Fitzgerald, the Friars have been working diligently, taking nothing for granted, since they know everyone in the league will be aiming to knock them off.

Weather In Handicap
Because of the inclement weather, the team has been able to go outside on only a few occasions. However, Fitzgerald was confident his squad would be ready when the bell rang for the league opener against St. Joseph on April 30. St. Joe's who was chief threat to the Friars' title hopes last season should be the main contender again this year.

Although as stated, Austin has only one uncertain position, that position happens to be catcher, one of the most important on the field. At present three boys are battling for the starting berth. Senior George Steil has the inside track, but two juniors, Howie Crane and Rod McKnight have also shown up well.

Strong Pitching Staff
The Friars boast one of the strongest pitching staffs in the area. Righthander Dave DeBuschere and Mike Cockburn and southpaws Gary Mettie and Dick De Lamielleure who is the regular first baseman, should provide Austin with an abundance of top-flight hurling.

Seniors George Schmantowski, John Brecht and Bob Decker at second base, shortstop and third, respectively, round out a hard-hitting, smooth-fielding and experienced infield.

Beat Lakeview Early
The Friars tuned up for league play on Tuesday, April 23, with an easy 9 to 0 whitewash of Lakeview. Sports Enter Shore Relays

Grosse Pointe High School's Devil track team will pit itself against 17 other schools in the next Saturday May 4, in the first round of the Dick Waters Relays. It is believed to be the most important track meet for Michigan prep athletes. The meet was named for school's athletic director, Dick Waters who guided the track and field force for 30 years before he retired to become athletic director at the Monroe High School. Waters guided the team to four state titles which included the Class B championship in 1930 and Class A in 1935 and '37.

teams also annexed 37 titles including 11 in the Cities League in which Grosse Pointe is still a member. There will be six individual events including shot put, jump, high jump and pole vault and sprint events in the 100 yard dash and 120 high jump.

and taken to the station, where he was confronted by two wives. Whereupon, he recited the names of four more women he had married, without benefit of divorce, in Indianapolis, Monroe, La., Bloomington, Ill., and Chicago. He asked the police to let him sit in a cell for a while. "Maybe some more names will come to me," he added. "It seems to me there were a few others."

Britain wrote fins to a chapter in the history of the Royal Navy. The Government announced plans for a nuclear navy, and will scrap its heavy battleships and cruisers for small, fast ships. Bound for the scrap heap are four famous battleships - The King George V, the Duke of York, the Anson and the Howe, and a number of traditional cruisers, all of which spearheaded Britain's fighting fleet in two world wars. In their place will be fast fleet escort vessels carrying guided missiles.

King Hussein ordered Jordan placed under a military governor and declared open war on the Communists in his country. The Arab Legion, fiercely loyal to the king, began a roundup of Reds, left-wing leaders and extreme nationalists, in an effort to stamp out the Red influence which has kept the realm seething against the regime.

Storm-battered Texas continued to be ripped by tornadoes and floods for the eighth day. At least 12 tornadoes, most of them in East Texas, wrecked homes, schools and a church. Three new twisters were spotted in Central Texas. At Tyler, 25 homes were destroyed and 300 damaged by one twister. High waters in Dallas and Fort Worth forced thousands of persons to flee their homes.

Monday, April 29

Fresh downpours continued to plague storm-battered Texas. Floods and 60 tornadoes hit the state during April, creating the state's greatest disaster situation, according to the American Red Cross. Rivers were on a rampage and cities planned to be evacuated. Hundreds of families fled to higher ground all the way from Grapeland, 100 miles west of Dallas, to the Gulf of Mexico, 400 miles away. Yesterday, two persons were struck by lightning at Laredo, and two were reported drowned at Dallas.

Jordan's King Hussein flew to Saudi Arabia to confer with King Saud, his ally in the struggle against leftist forces threatening the Jordanian throne. First reports said Hussein was making a flying tour of loyal military units in Jordan and then would return to Amman. Later, it was announced he was flying to Arabia for urgent conferences with Saud, who has pledged the Jordan king full support in ridding his country of left-wing elements.

Honduran troops moved up to the border of Nicaragua for a showdown in a territorial dispute. It was reported that a border town, Mocoron, in the New Gracias A Dios Province of Honduras, has been retaken from a handful of Nicaraguan invaders. Gen. Roque J. Rodriguez, a member of the Honduran military junta in Honduras, said that a state of war exists between the two countries.

Honduran soldiers are planning a drive on Cruta, which is still in Nicaraguan hands. The general said 5,000 troops have been deployed on the frontier and that 20,000 reserves have been ordered mobilized.

Sunday, April 28

Military courts in Jordan have been empowered to try foes of King Hussein. The Jordan Radio said that the king had issued a number of decrees under the martial laws now in force, establishing three military courts to try persons accused of threatening the security of the nation. The decrees also established and confirmed the appointment of anti-Communist Defense Minister Sulaiman Tuklan, as military governor of the nation whose orders cannot be appealed.

Travelers arriving in Beirut, Lebanon, disclosed that Syria began withdrawing its troops from Jordanian territory. The troops, about 3,000 men strong, have been considered a menace to the pro-West Hussein. Saudi Arabia's King Saud, also friendly to the West and a backer of the Jordan king, is expected to visit Hussein soon to discuss the Jordanian national crisis.

Soviet Russia warned West Germany that if she obtained nuclear weapons or permitted them based on her soil, she would be Russia's first target in any possible war between the Communist and free world. Chancery Konrad Adenauer of West Germany, charged Russia is taking the "fateful responsibility" of re-arming his country, and an East-West war will bring Russia's atomic might down on Germany, which would mean a unimaginable devastation for that nation. A Soviet note indicated that Russia will give atomic weapons to East Germany, if West Germany accepts such type weapons from the United States. The Russians said they are willing to conclude an agreement to bar atomic bases in either East or West Germany, but if West Germany refuses to go along, Russia will never allow the unification of the country.

Investigators of the special Senate committee probing into rackets in the labor unions, said four key witnesses who have vital information about Teamster Boss Dave Beck, cannot be found. Senator McClellan (D-Ark) chairman of the committee, said an extensive five-week search failed to turn up the labor czar's son, Dave Beck, Jr., his auditor, Fred Verschuere, and two relatives of Mrs. Beck. The four, it was said can shed light on Beck's personal financial operations.

The Teamster boss invoked the Fifth Amendment last month, when asked if he used $22,000 from union funds. Beck is expected to be summoned before the committee again sometime in May.

Tuesday, April 30

THE UNITED STATES ignored a warning from Soviet Russia against interfering in the internal affair of Jordan, and offered that Arab country 10 million dollars in economic aid. Jordan indicated it would accept the loan at once, provided it does not have to comply with the Eisenhower Doctrine. Moscow Radio called the United States the main "culprit" in the Jordanian crisis and said the situation could lead to "grave consequences." The aid offer was made to Jordan through the U.S. Embassy outside the framework of the doctrine which provides military as well as economic support to any Middle East nation requesting help to combat the Communist menace.

Wednesday, May 1

WILBER BRUCKER, secretary of the Army, said that President Eisenhower definitely plans to send troops to Jordan if that nation is attacked by Syria and Egypt. The Secretary said he believed that Congress will back up the President in his stand. Brucker also stated that the United States will use nuclear weapons in any war, big or small, and that there were enough transports to send troops to the Middle East. Officials in the United States expect King Hussein of Jordan to make an appeal within a few days for the restoration of his kingdom to the Pan-Arab alliance with Egypt, Syria and Saudi Arabia, to solidify popular support behind him and win firm control over his country.

Pierce School Scene of Fire

A blaze at Pierce Junior High School was extinguished within a few minutes after the alarm was given on Thursday, April 25, it was disclosed by Park Fire Chief George DeCausin.

The chief said the fire originated in a classroom above the library and was caused by spontaneous combustion of oily rags left in a pile by painters.

A police report said that Patrolmen John LaPraie and John Carroll noticed the flames at the northwest side of the school building and turned in the alarm. Responding firemen had the flames out and were back in the station house within a matter of about 20 minutes Chief DeCausin said.

He said only seven desks were destroyed, along with four chairs. Three classroom cupboards doors were scorched and there was some smoke damage, he added.

Institute Holds Big Exhibition

Detroit opened the most comprehensive exhibition of American art ever held in the midwest with a public reception on Tuesday evening, April 23 at 8:30 o'clock. Hostesses for the preview of "Painting in America—The Story of 450 Years" were members of the Women's Committee of the Detroit Institute of Arts Founders Society.

The exhibition is illustrating the development of painting in America from Columbus' discovery to the present, and at the same time traces the evolution of American history and artistic tastes.

It is based on the book of the same name by Art Institute Director Edgar P. Richardson and will include more than 100 of the pictures reproduced in the volume, with a number of additional paintings not illustrated there.

All of the paintings will be among the most important of their kind and many have not been lent for a long time. Not in the main gallery because of their size will be "The Court of Death" by Rembrandt Peale, the monumental work 11x23 feet in size which is one of the few extant examples of the paintings which were taken on tour as road shows in the first half of the 19th century; and "Belshazzar's Feast" over which Washington Allston labored during his last 26 years but never finished. Both are in the Detroit Institute's collection and will be displayed in the mezzanine lobby of the Institute's auditorium.

Instead of a complete catalogue of the exhibition which would duplicate Dr. Richardson's book, a well illustrated brochure and check-list is being prepared.

The exhibition will continue through June 9.

Detroit Police Ask Cooperation
A new Detroit Police Department policy requesting drivers involved in minor traffic accidents to come to precinct stations to report the accidents rather than call police cars to the scene of the accidents is now in operation in all precincts and is paying desired results, according to Senior Inspector Louis J. Berg.
Under this policy, minor traffic accidents are defined as those which, 1) do not involve personal injuries, 2) where the cars can be driven away and, 3) where property damage to any of the vehicles involved is less than $100.
Senior Inspector Berg reported to the Traffic Co-ordinating Committee that citizens were co-operating with police by visiting precinct stations to make reports of such accidents. The report can be made at any precinct station, he explained.
"This has enabled us to keep our scout cars and our accident cars in service, rather than tying them up taking reports at the scene," he said. "I think the citizens realize the cars are performing a more useful function by patrolling to keep accidents at a minimum or by fulfilling other police duties. Certainly our department feels this way."
Senior Inspector Berg emphasized that police cars should still be called to the scene of a personal injury accident or where damage is great and cars can not be driven away. Citizens must call police in such cases, he said, and officers will make an on-the-scene investigation.

who, where and whatnot

by whoozit

The ladies who produced the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church's "Recipes to Remember" cookbook are caught in a typical journalist's dilemma, typographical errors in their gourmet listings. The Never Fail rolls are failing, the Beef Stroganoff is not Stroganoffing and the pumpkin pie is not chiffoing.

To assist the cooks here are the corrections; on page 43 there is but 1/2 cup boiling water instead of 2 1/2 cups for the rolls... on page 116 there should be 1 Tb. gelatin dissolved in 1/4 cup cold water, not 1/4 cup gelatin for the pumpkin chiffon pie... and on page 12, one pint of sour cream, not a quart, will make the beef Stroganoff delectable. All these mistakes are being corrected by hand in the cookbooks now on sale.

Anyone who happens to have an elephant in their back-yard should call Mrs. Ivan C. Dunlap, not the zoo or the Humane Society. She is searching for one unemployed pachyderm to publicize Saturday's Junior League Puppet Show, "The Prince With the Elephant Spell" which will be given at 10:30 and 2:30 o'clock at GPUS.

If no elephants turn up she'll settle for two co-operative actors to serve as front and back of the animal. The cast of the show have been having the usual problems trying to combine their thespians' roles and their mommies' duties. Every member has had a child down with flu, measles, chicken pox or virus during rehearsals.

Gardeners take note... one of the loveliest ideas yet was gleaned from Mrs. Bruce Krag who has grown a Friendship Garden in her Merriweather road home... every time a pal gives her a plant for a great occasion such as a birthday, birth of a baby or anniversary she plants it lovingly in her yard and can now take the friends on a grand tour and point out their blooming gift.

Home from a very unusual trip around the world are Dr. and Mrs. A. F. Lecklider. None of the usual tourist haunts for them. They traveled to Tibet, Ceylon, Nepal, Thailand, Bali and the Himalayan Mountain regions where Americans are still an oddity.

Home movies are coming back into their own. Lots of merriment the other evening when reels of the early days on Doremus drive were shown. There were the cinder block houses, open sewers, bull dozers and all the other rugged paraphernalia of pioneer life... All the young couples who began their married life there have now moved on to grander abodes in the Pointe and include... the Charles B. Johnsons, Jr., the James Tracys, the Henry S. Reynolds, Jr., the Frederick W. Peares, Jr., the George William Duffields, the Sydney Terrys, the Robert Bacons, the John Worcesterers, the Edwin Clarkes and the Jack Sturtevant.

PILFERINGS

You know in Hollywood the movie colony does everything on a grand scale. One night after a big dinner instead of being served finger bowls, we all took showers.

Two movie producers were seated in Nedick's discussing all the current topics of interest in Hollywood. "I hear Mickey Rooney is going to play Paul Muni in 'The Life of Paul Muni'..." one said. "But Paul is such a good actor," replied the second. "Why doesn't he play it?" "Too tall," commented the first.

Dr. Stichem was trying very hard to convince Percy that he should give up drinking. "Ever notice a cactus plant?" he asked the boozier. "If you pour water around its roots it thrives, turns greener and grows bigger. Take the same cactus plant. Pour vile liquor on it and what happens? It shrivels, it shrinks, it dies. Doesn't this teach you anything?" "Yes," said Percy. "If you want a cactus growing in your stomach drink water."

Watson B. Sperry knew a Supreme Court Judge who had relinquished a lucrative practice to go on the bench. One evening at dinner, a wealthy friend said to the judge: "It puzzles me how you can pass up your practice for the low salary of a Supreme Court judge. It costs me twice that to live."

The judge smiled caustically. "I wouldn't pay it, Harry. It isn't worth it."

When the POINTE was growing up...

BY PAT TALBOT

Even in 1819 residents felt the need to get away from the hectic high-pressured life of the growing "Dynamic Detroit."

In that year a merchant, Pierre Provencal bought forest land which had to be cleared in order for his white frame farmhouse to be built. The road running up from lakeshore bounding the Country Club today still bears his name.

He and his wife managed one of the largest ribbon farms in the area, long narrow strips of land running back from the lake to Gratiot. The fir trees which stand at the lake and Provencal road lined the doorway of the original farm house.

The Provencals for many years had no children and adopted about two dozen orphans, many of whose parents were victims of the terrible cholera plagues of 1832, 1834 and 1859 in Detroit. They built a separate home for these strays behind their farmhouse and when the children were ready to make their start in the world presented them each with a good sum of money. Rumor has it that none of the 24 failed to make his mark in the nineteenth century.

There were no churches in the area then and the Provencals had the first altar and confessional box in their home, which traveling priests visited to hold services. Two of the buildings on the old Provencal property still stand in the Pointe, one home in Kercheval and another in Cook road, layers of plaster and paint covering the old beams and worm eaten lintels.

After many years a daughter, Catherine, was born to the Provencals on Christmas Day. There was great feasting and rejoicing, for the family was much loved and respected. They often supplied the whole neighborhood with food and seed when crops failed.

Catherine grew up to marry Judge James D. Weir of Detroit and her family's property became known as the old Weir farm. There was one daughter of this marriage, Isabelle, who died in 1903. The first interurban railway had a switch station where the gates of Provencal at Kercheval stand today. In 1912 the Country Club bought the land and in 1925 after a dreadful fire, finally completed the magnificent Tudor clubhouse which so many Pointers enjoy today.

Pointer of Interest

MARY JANE HOESCH, OF WASHINGTON ROAD

By Patricia Talbot

Working for the government is the most practical and exciting way for a girl to see the world and study foreign cultures on the spot, so says this week's Pointer.

It's a lot of fun, too, to be one of the three American women on an Oriental island with thousands of GIs. Miss Hoesch has just returned from an eighteen month stint as librarian on Okinawa and is waiting at home for re-assignment to Germany.

While she was studying for her master's degree at Western Reserve College in Cleveland she was interviewed by a government administrator and was soon after winging her way to Okinawa.

On the island she worked in a modern building, housing 13,000 volumes with four Okinawan assistants. Many GIs and civilians on the island found the library a real refuge. Soldiers read for courses offered by the University of Maryland and studied in fields they hope to resume when they take up civilian life again after their Army tour of duty.

Island Paradise

Social life on the island was gay; lots of sandy beaches, blue water reflected against coral, picturesque mountains make Okinawa a vacationer's paradise. All clubs are open to women working for the government and there is no lack of escorts for dances and picnics.

This travelogue poster life has some sour spots, Okinawans are backward people clinging to their Shinto and Buddhist shrines, looking constantly to Japan, emerging from their primitive life slowly. Communists are active on the island.

Volunteers Seek Home Discards

Housewives in the Detroit Metropolitan Area are offered the assistance of the Volunteers of America in the pick-up of household discards during Clean-Up, Paint-Up, Fix-Up Week, May 6-12.

Col. W. G. Boswell, commander of the Detroit Post of the Volunteers, urged people with discards of furniture, clothing, electrical appliances, scrap metal and paper to call the Volunteers at WOODWARD 2-8810. A truck will then stop at the home at the time designated.

Home discards are used to support the entire charitable program of the Volunteers in Wayne County, Col. Boswell said. He pointed out that many thousands of such items are given to needy people every year by the Volunteers at the request of public agencies.

Nevertheless Miss Hoesch loved her two day stay on the island. Cameras were confiscated and security was tight but she values her trip for the beauties of the cherry blossoms along Sun Moon Lake, her chats with the aborigines in their thatched roof villages, and her visit to a fabulous Shinto shrine.

Cashmere in Hong Kong She also stopped in Hong Kong, where the most memorable part of her stay was having a lovely red cashmere suit made for $25. From Bangkok, Singapore and Tokyo she has brought home silks, silver, prints, lacquer work and jewelry which completely fills the recreation room of her family's home.

The three main industries on Okinawa are buttons, glass blowing and pottery manufacture. From all these three factories she brought home exquisite samples of the artisans' work. Although the American food on the island was plentiful and delicious, she says the natives live almost entirely on sweet potatoes, rice and bananas, their staple crops.

Since her arrival home and while waiting for re-assignment she took a short jaunt to Washington as chaperon for a group of ninth and tenth grade girls on the Chet Sampson tour. Now all these young ladies want to become librarians and sign up for a glamorous life of travel and opportunity with the government picking up the tab. Miss Hoesch encourages them!

Shuri University is growing in size and advantages on Okinawa and now ambitious citizens no longer have to go to Japan for their college educations.

Miss Hoesch is packing up her Air Force blue librarian's uniform and those lovely silks and shantings she bought in the Orient. Now it's just the nod from Uncle Sam and she will be off for the orientation courses in Nuremberg, Germany.

Germany Next The European assignment will not be the novelty to her that her far Eastern experience was. On graduation from Grosse Pointe High School she made a student tour of the Continent and is looking forward to renewing her visit. She will sign a two year contract for her librarian's duties abroad. Her contract for Okinawan duty was for a year and a half.

Before she flew home in March she stopped over in Formosa, which like Okinawa is over-populated, but with a Nationalist Chinese. The government discourages citizens from traveling to Formosa, which is in a constant state of tension, a tinder-box liable to go off at any moment.

Water supply now ranks with labor and transportation as a key factor in determining plant location. One third of the nation's total plant spending for new construction in the past five years has been concentrated in the Great Lakes area.

Cass Tech Plans Birthday Party

Cass Tech, Detroit's only technical high school, prepares youth for employment at the technical level as well as for ready acceptance to college. Since Cass was founded in 1907 over a quarter of a million people have attended either day or evening classes. The school's graduates number 40,000.

Now, after 50 years of service to the community of Detroit, Cass celebrates a "Golden Jubilee" and pauses to thank those who have fostered its success. A 50th Anniversary Banquet is planned as part of the celebration festivities for Tuesday, May 7, 8:30 p.m., at the Rackham Memorial Building. The banquet is intended for teachers, alumni, honored guests, and friends of Cass Tech in labor, industry, business and education.

Reservations for the banquet are $4.00 per person. An alumni reunion designed to enable former "Cassites" to get together, talk over old times and visit former teachers and friends, is to be held at Cass Tech on Monday, May 13, from 7 to 10 p.m.—A "Who's Who and What They Do" is being compiled in connection with this reunion.

To enable Detroiters to become familiar with the wonderfully unique opportunities at Cass, an educational open house, called "Technically Yours" is planned for Tuesday, May 14, at Cass Tech (on Second Blvd. and Vernor) from 7 to 10 p.m.

The general public is invited to see Cass in action and visit the shops and classrooms in full operation.

Golden Echoes a historic, musical pageant, portrays the beginning and development of technical education in Detroit through the establishment of Cass Technical High School. The pageant was written by a Cass speech teacher, Mrs. Frances Hamburger, and most of the lyrics and music were written by Cass students and faculty. The dances, the prizing of programs, the lighting, the stage settings and many costumes have been designed and created by the student body. Acting as narrator will be A.W.J.'s Bob Maxwell, a former Cass student.

The pageant is to be presented Thursday and Friday, May 16 and 17, at 8:30 p.m. in the Cass Tech auditorium with an admission fee of $.75.

For any questions concerning this celebration, reservations, or tickets write or call: Cass Tech, 2421 Second, Detroit 1, Michigan, WOODWARD 2-3484.
