

SCHOOL BOARD ELECTION MONDAY

HEADLINES

of the WEEK

As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, May 30

THE HOUSE SLASHED two billion dollars from President Eisenhower's defense bill, scaling appropriations down to $33,563,725,000. This was a major defeat for the President and GOP attempts to give the armed forces more money.

Approval for the cut came after the House beat down a Republican amendment to restore 313 million of the funds cut made by the House Appropriations Committee. Thirty-nine Republicans and 203 Democrats joined to kill the amendment and 140 Republicans and 11 Dems voted for it. The bill will be sent to the Senate where it is said the President stands a good chance of having some of the funds restored.

GEORGE M. HUMPHREY, secretary of the treasury, resigned his post after four and half years of service. President Eisenhower accepted the resignation with "profound regret" and immediately nominated Robert E. Anderson, former deputy secretary of defense as Humphrey's successor.

It was not announced when Humphrey's resignation will take effect, but he asked to be relieved "no later than the close of the current congressional session." When he does quit, Humphrey is expected to become board chairman of National Steel, a company he helped found 30 years ago.

HAROLD E. STASSON, President Eisenhower's disarmament advisor, won preliminary Atlantic Alliance support on disarmament plans to present to the Soviet. He promised the NATO allies that he would consult with them on all new disarmament developments.

Diplomats were optimistic following a day-long Paris Conference in which Stassen outlined still secret U. S. proposals before representatives of the NATO Council. Every member is said to have lined up with the proposals.

Friday, May 31

NIKITA KHRUSHCHEV, Communist Party boss, told Polish newsmen that Russia has an H-bomb so big, it dared not use it. He claimed that the bomb could "melt the Arctic icecap and send oceans spilling all over the world." The only account of his statement was published in Polish newspapers by the semi-official publicity-information agency.

Informants said Khrushchev told the newspaper men that "this bomb is so big we cannot test it even inside the vast area of the Soviet Union." Scientists said that if the polar icecap thawed, ocean levels would rise 70 feet, and low lying cities such as London and New York would be inundated.

THE UNITED STATES charged Britain with violating the free world's "security" interests, when she ordered the lifting of the strict embargo against trade with Red China. Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd told Parliament that Red China will get the same kind of goods allowed Russia and her Eastern Europe satellites. However, arms will still be banned.

England's move provoked the sharpest split between London and Washington since the Egyptian invasion. It opened similar action for trade by the other British nations. Britain expects Western machinery and vehicles will find a market in Red China.

RIOTING LEBANESE were dispersed after four hours of demonstration, by Lebanese Army tanks and armored cars. Eight rioters were killed and 770 injured during a pre-election demonstration between Christians and Moslems. More than 200 persons were arrested.

The violence was the first in the campaign for parliamentary elections beginning June 9, and are expected to test the strength of pro-Western and pro-Egyptian factors. Lebanese who believe their tiny country's future is tied in with Syria and Egypt, have been bombarding their nation with propaganda.

Cambridge Road To Be Improved

A low bid of $3526.79 for opening and widening the pavement at the end of Cambridge road, was awarded by action of the Farms Council on Monday evening, June 3.

The last 275 feet of the road is now paved only half the width of the street. Contractors will open the remaining half to make the entire road 20 feet wide.

Residents Assist Police In Capturing Car Thief

A 16-year-old East Detroit boy, arrested on Thursday, May 30, led Woods and Shores police and a number of Woods residents a merry chase before he was captured. The arrest cleared up several burglaries and car thefts in the Woods, Detroit and East Detroit.

The youth was first observed in a car, parked without lights at "P" street and Roslyn at 10 p.m. by Woods Police Sgt. Wilbert Le Duke and Patrolman Steve Petrik, who were cruising near Brys drive.

A high total of 168 recommended Grosse Pointe High School graduates earned above-average marks as first-semester freshmen at college this year.

The 168 graduates who entered college in 1956 enrolled in 43 different colleges.

Their first-semester honor point average was 1.56. Only twice in the history of Grosse Pointe High School has a record as high as this been achieved—1.60 in 1953 and 1.59 in 1946.

More than half of their marks were A's and B's (53 percent). Less than 2 percent were failure.

These people left high school with an average in all subjects

Hurt in Fall At Woods Park

Margaret Lynch, 44, of 1713 Parker, Detroit, suffered a severe cut on the left leg and internal injuries when she fell from a swing at the Woods Lake-front park on Thursday, May 30.

Probe Death Of Salesman After Fight

Former Woods Policeman's Body Found Floating in Lake; Quizz Herdegen

Macomb County authorities are investigating the death of Robert J. Hyde, 32, of 188 Moross, a former Woods policeman turned salesman, whose nude body was found floating in Lake St. Clair Sunday morning, June 2.

Held for investigation on Tuesday was John Herdegen, 30, of 19296 Edgefield, Harper Woods, father of two children, who Macomb County Prosecutor Cecil Byers said was the last person to see Hyde alive.

Herdegen was arrested Sunday midnight as he was leaving the home of Nathan Goodnow, 75 Handy, an attorney.

Found by Fisherman
Hyde's bruised and beaten body was found by a fisherman at a breakwater at Michigan Harbor and Boats, 24600 E. Jefferson, St. Clair Shores.

An autopsy at St. Joseph Hospital, Mt. Clemens, disclosed that Hyde's left collarbone was dislocated, there was a large bruise on the left cheek, and that he was conscious or semi-conscious when he entered the water.

In a state of shock and highly nervous, Herdegen underwent four hours of questioning Monday morning by Byers and Chief Asst. Pros. Roy W. Roggenhusen, during which Herdegen gave only his name and the name of his attorney.

Attorney James C. Daner of Mt. Clemens said that he and James C. Haggerty of Detroit will handle the case.

Met At VFW Post
Daner said that Herdegen told him that he met Hyde for the first time in the Fred Alger VFW Post, St. Clair and St. Paul, Friday night, May 31.

Byers said that Herdegen told him that he and Hyde drank "eight or nine beers" in two hours, then carrying six more beers, headed for the boat dock at the Miller Marina, 24770 Jefferson, St. Clair Shores.

Police said Hyde had a key to a boat belonging to William M. Berno, 48, of 868 Hawthorne, who with Hyde, had arranged to take a group of Hyde's clients boating Saturday morning.

Berno said Hyde did not have permission to use the boat without him.

Byers said Herdegen, when first arrested, told police that Hyde had made improper ad-

One of the biggest undertakings of Grosse Pointe High School's construction program this summer will be the installation of two new boilers to replace the outmoded ones now in use.

Preliminary work has already begun. Since the boilers will service all the school buildings, pipes have been laid on the Annex, which has been on a separate heating system. At present, pipe laying is going on in the field room and was just completed between the High School and the Industrial Arts Building.

When the time comes this summer, the boiler room roof will be removed so that the old machines (both old and new machines are about the size of a 10x11 foot room), can be lifted out with a derrick and the new ones put in.

The combination gas and oil boilers are more efficient and economical, as they allow the school to buy either type of fuel.

Other construction work is being done on expanding the office space in the High School. Also by summer's end, the Annex will have a new 100 seat study hall.

Woods Approves Rubbish Contract

The Woods council on Monday, June 3, accepted a low bid of $48,000 from a Detroit firm for the collection of rubbish and grass clippings and garbage from the city's homes and business places.

The bid, lowest of three received, was awarded to the Commercial Removal company. In a breakdown of the bid, the company agrees to collect rubbish once a week from residences for $40,000, for a period beginning July 1 of this year and ending June 30, 1958.

For the same period of time, the collection of rubbish from business places, twice a week, will cost $4,000.

Grass clippings collections from July 1, 1957 through October 15, 1957, and April 15, 1958 through June 30, 1958, will cost another $4,000.

In addition, the firm agreed to collect garbage from residences which do not have disposal grinders or incinerators, twice a week, during July 1 through December 31 of this year, for the sum of $30 for each home, and for the same period, and the same number of collections, from business places, for $80 each.

According to figures released by City Administrator William Lange, there are 14 homes and four business places in the Woods which do not have grinders or incinerators.

The Woods' initiated a program more than two years ago, in which homes and businesses were ordered to install disposal units or burners.

Students Make Fine Marks

 percent) were A's and B's. No one failed a course in an Eastern college.

The high school honor point average for these 18 students was a strong B plus (2.33). Eighty-nine students who entered the University of Michigan, Michigan State University and Wayne State University had met the Board of Education's requirements for recommendation to college.

At the University of Michigan 59 recommended graduates made an honor point average of 1.48. This is almost exactly midway between B and C, the equivalent of two B's and two C's for each of the 59. Nearly 50 percent of the grades were failure.

Faculty Is Pleased
 "Naturally, we are exceedingly pleased by the fine record made by so large a group, a group which represents 12 percent of our 1956 graduating classes. A much higher percent of our graduates go to the University of Michigan now, than 15, 20 and 25 years ago," said Mr. Clemenson.

"In fact the number of recommended graduates entering the University of Michigan for the past five years represents a higher percent of our graduates than in any period in the history of Grosse Pointe High School. Thirteen percent of our recommended graduates for the past five years have entered the University of Michigan whereas the average for the years 1932, 1935, 1940 and 1945 was only 7 percent."

Record at M.S.U.
 At Michigan State University 20 recommended graduates made an honor point average of 1.56, slightly better than midway between B and C. Fifty-six percent of their grades were A's and B's. There was 6 percent failure.

The ten recommended graduates at Wayne State University made a 1.59 honor point average, almost identical with the grades at Michigan State University. Sixty-four percent of the grades were A's and B's, 7 percent failures.

"I repeat—the achievement of the recommended graduates of Grosse Pointe High School at Eastern colleges, the University of Michigan, and all other colleges is exceptionally high for those who entered last year and for the last several years; the achievement for this period is higher than that of any other period in the history of Grosse Pointe High School," said Mr. Clemenson.

The tabulation of this information was done by Mr. D. R. Campbell, field counselor and dean of boys.

The ten recommended graduates at Wayne State University made a 1.59 honor point average, almost identical with the grades at Michigan State University. Sixty-four percent of the grades were A's and B's, 7 percent failures.

Greatness Is Never Achieved Suddenly!

It has long been true, in the affairs of men, that only time can confirm the gift of greatness.

Artist, writer, craftsman—each must await the years for the maturity of his talent and for the verdict of his judges.

And as it is in the affairs of men, so it is in the world of commerce. Nothing great was ever created suddenly—whether the product be that of an individual or of an organization.

Here, most certainly, is the very genesis of Cadillac's unique position in the hearts and minds of the world's motorists.

Since the first Cadillac car made its appearance more than fifty-five years ago, it has always been created to a single objective: to make it as fine a motor car as it is possible to produce.

And, without question, the mission and the accomplishment have been one and the same.

The goodness of Cadillac has, in fact, been so apparent over that lengthy span that the Cadillac name stands today as an accepted synonym for quality wherever highways exist.

The pretenders have come—and they have gone. For time is an exacting taskmaster—and only the principles that have created the great Cadillac car and only the devotion that has given it being have been equal to the challenge.

Never has this fact been more deeply etched in the public consciousness than it is during the present automotive year.

The magnificent motor car that now represents Cadillac on the highways of the world has advanced the Cadillac tradition to an extraordinary degree.

If you have yet to discover this fact for yourself, you should hesitate no longer to visit your authorized Cadillac dealer.

Waiting for you in his showroom is proof beyond doubt that Cadillac is—in fact as in reputation—the Standard of the World!

Cars Crash

by George Gilbert, 67, of Mack. Bert told police he did not know where the car was until it was too late. He was issued a ticket for leaving his car under construction.

Residents Help Police Grab Thief

away car, but not before it knocked down a "no parking" sign.

A call for aid was sent to the Woods and Shores police stations. Responding were Woods Patrolmen Thomas Kervin and Kenneth Metcalf and Shores Patrolmen William Marshall, Frank Mustazza and Edmond Benthuis.

Screaming sirens and the excitement of the chase attracted a large number of residents from Vernier circle, "W" and Maple lane, many of whom assisted the officers in searching for the boy.

The lad escaped by running between the houses on Vernier circle and across the property of the Grosse Pointe Nursery School and hid in the garage of R. E. Barbier, 20632 Maple lane. Barbier saw the boy enter the garage and ran into the house to call police.

While the police continued their search for the youth, residents formed a cordon around the area, sealing off the boy's avenue of escape.

His flight cut off, the boy sought refuge among some bushes, where he was found and arrested by Woods police and taken to the station, where he was initially questioned by Patrolman Al Abend until the arrival of Woods Det. Sgt. Walter O'Dell and Det. Leroy Tobian.

The boy told the detectives that he had stolen the car from in front of 857 Roslyn road. The vehicle was the property of Jim Kelly, of that address, a Roseville used car dealer.

The teenager also admitted breaking into the Lochmoor Golf Club caddy shack, after stealing the car, where he said he took a large amount of candy and pies and $12 in cash, a first aid kit and a number of pencils, O'Dell and Tobian said. The loot was recovered.

The detectives said that after further questioning the boy told them that he had stolen two cars from the Lochmoor Club, two from Detroit and four from East Detroit, over a period of three months.

The detectives said the boy also admitted breaking into the Kentner and Oakwood Schools in East Detroit and a business place in Detroit, and another establishment, but could not remember where, from which he took some obscene literature.

O'Dell and Tobian said that charges have been filed against the boy with Macomb County Juvenile authorities, because of the greater number of crimes committed there.

Preliminary hearings were heard in Macomb Juvenile Court on Monday, June 3, and a court date was set for Monday, June 10, the detectives said.

Woods Director of Public Safety Vern C. Bailey and the members of his department expressed their appreciation for the help rendered by the residents.

New Pointe Church Raises Lofty Arches

MILLIONS BACK GOODWILL

Did you know that over 4,000,000 homes contributed clothing and household articles to Goodwill Industries throughout the country to be reconditioned by handicapped men and women? Because of this remarkable community backing, handicapped people were able to pay nearly $2,000,000 in income and Social Security taxes, which is a direct saving to the public at large. These workers, because of Goodwill both the goodwill of the public and Goodwill organization, have become tax-paying citizens instead of tax-consuming citizens.

If some folks were half as smart as they think they are it would blight the good opinion they have of themselves.

WHEELBARROW STRIPPED Lakeland. In addition, he said, City police took a complaint from Robert Jeffrey of 19809 California, St. Clair Shores, on Tuesday, May 28, in which he stated someone had stolen a wheel, tire and axle from a wheelbarrow at the site of a home he is constructing at 856 $15 in damage was done to the house.

City Judge Joseph Uvick reduced a charge of reckless driving against Sally Ann Reynolds of 1250 Grayton, to not having her car under control and fined her $25, while hearing violation cases on Wednesday, May 29.

Graham C. Edwards of 351 Belanger, who appeared before the judge on a speeding charge, was found guilty and ordered to pay a fine of $35.

James J. Simmons of 4000 Berkshire, Detroit, accused of not having his car under control and causing an accident, was found guilty and paid a fine of $25.

Henry Munroe of 4698 Harding, Detroit, paid a fine of $5, after being found guilty of interfering with moving traffic.

An expired parking meter charge brought a fine of $1 against Peter H. Lindberg of 482 Drexel, Detroit.

George H. Weeks of 4438 Yorkshire, Detroit, was found not guilty of not having his car under control and his case was dismissed.

Cecil Irene Hudson of 586 Notre Dame, received a suspended sentence after being found guilty of interfering with moving traffic.

Larry J. Brady of 1360 Balfour, charged with reckless driving, was found guilty and placed on three months probation.

Not having his car under control brought a $5 fine against Robert D. Mudloff of 23108 Lingfeman, St. Clair Shores.

A $5 fine for speeding was levied against Robert F. McCullough of 810 Washington road.

Thomas C. Cooper, Jr., of 325 Chalfonte, was found guilty of speeding and paid a fine of $15.

Woods and Shores To Hold Meeting on Water Costs

The Woods council postponed approval of a contract with the Detroit Water Board until certain details have been ironed out with the Shores regarding the cost of maintenance of feeder mains to the Shores.

On Monday, June 3, the Woods council took the view that as long as the Shores is tapped in on mains in the Woods, from which it receives its supply of water from Detroit, the Shores should help bear the cost of maintaining, or any future improvements, of these mains.

No date has been set, but a meeting was proposed between officials of the Woods and Shores in the near future, so that the matter can be discussed before the Woods okays its contract with Detroit.

Under the old contract, Detroit, by virtue of supplying the Woods with water, has title to the mains under the Woods streets; under the new one, the Woods can acquire title if it asks for it.

The Shores is tapped in on mains along Fairford and Vernier roads, and eventually will have an additional water supply from a new 16-inch main to be installed in the northeast section of the Woods as part of the Woods' water main master plan. The Shores will be asked to share in the cost of the installation and the maintenance of this main. It is estimated that this line will cost about $14 a foot.

To be discussed between the Woods and the Shores is a 75-25 pro-rated cost of maintenance, which the Woods council believes is a fair share. The Woods will bear 75 percent of cost and the Shores 25 percent.

Adopted during the Monday night meeting, was an ordinance for a water rate adjustment.

By adopting this measure, the city passes on to its local consumers, a water rate increase which the Detroit Water Board will levy against the Woods and other customer suburbs beginning about June 1.

Detroit has upped the rate from 65 cents to 90 cents per 1,000 cubic feet of water used, and ultimately will raise this to $1 and 1,000 cubic feet.

The increase will take care of water storage facilities, especially for peak summer loads, which Detroit will furnish.

The Woods will pass on the increase to its users beginning with its July billing.

It was suggested that the rate be adjusted to the $1 rate immediately, but City Administrator William Lange said he did not deem it fair that the city's users should be burdened with this before Detroit imposed the added increase, so the 90-cent rate prevailed.

Another ordinance adopted pertains to a property-lien which the Woods will impose on water users too far delinquent in paying their water bills. The liens will remain in force until the bills are paid, and is much the same as liens placed against property in tax delinquent cases.

MICHIGAN FIRE LOSSES

Michigan fires during 1956 took 203 lives and caused damage of $35,249,942. Deaths increased seven over 196 in 1955, and the fire loss was $1,233,384 greater than the total of $34,116,558 the previous year.

The annual summary was issued by the fire marshal division of the Michigan State Police and is based upon reports received from all fire departments.

The loss of life included 67 minors and 136 adults, but no firemen.

GETS 10 DAYS IN JAIL

David Lee of 22515 Blackburn, St. Clair Shores, was given a 10-day sentence to the Wayne County Jail on Friday, May 31, by Shores Judge John Gillis. Lee was arrested on a warrant charging him with never acquiring a Michigan driver's license. He failed to heed a court summons.

Some public movements could be classified as lost motion.

Woods Refuses To Change Name

The Woods turned down a request from St. Clair Shores in which was suggested that the two communities jointly issue a proclamation to change the name of a portion of Eight Mile road, which borders the two cities.

A St. Clair Shores proclamation calling for the changing of the name of the road, from Mack to Marter, to Chapel lane, was read at a Woods council meeting on Monday, June 3, and rejected by that body.

The Woods council acted in accordance with a recommendation made by the city's Planning Commission which recommended that "pending further information, the Planning Commission is not in favor of changing the name of a portion of Eight Mile road (Base Line road) which will ultimately constitute over half of the north city limits of Grosse Pointe Woods."

The Planning Commission listed a number of reasons why it did not favor the name change, including that in its opinion "a 120-foot divided highway seemingly did not fit the description of a 'lane'."

In the course of business, the council approved a 30-day trial period granted to the Lake Shore Coach Lines, to extend its passenger carrying service down Vernier road to the new business section on Gratiot avenue in Detroit. The service will begin on July 25.

The added route is expected to benefit residents of Harper Woods and St. Clair Shores and all the Pointe Communities.

Cooling Law Violations Cases Reviewed in Farms

The Farms Council sat down with the city attorney and city engineer Monday evening, and reviewed all cases where businesses and private homes are using air conditioning and refrigeration equipment in violation of the ordinance.

Pror to Monday's council meeting, attorney Thomas Tolley and city engineer Murray Smith, prepared a list of the 54 buildings where air conditioning equipment over three tons capacity were in use. The ordinance requires buildings operating equipment over the three-ton limit to erect water conservation towers whereby water used by the apparatus may be recirculated.

The ordinance, established a year ago, provided a deadline of May 1, 1957 when all air conditioning equipment over three tons had to be converted to use water conservation. An amendment to the ordinance gave relief to those tenants with less than two years remaining on their leases and hardship cases where immediate installation of the towers would be impossible.

The purpose of Monday's meeting was to review each application for an extension, and establish definite dates when the conservation equipment must be operating.

Twelve businesses have already complied with the ordinance, and 16 more have notified the council that they are in the process of installing water towers. The dozen cases were all given a two-month extension.

Four tenants reported they have less than two years remaining on their leases. Under the amendment of the ordinance they will receive a one year extension, which may be extended for one more year.

St. Paul Church claimed a hardship and was granted a one-year grace during which it will not have to comply with the ordinance.

Thirteen miscellaneous hardship cases were given from two months to one year for extensions.

Three businessmen said they would not use their equipment.

The Farms attorney has sent registered letters to the four persons who failed to report what action they would take to comply with the ordinance. Violators of the ordinance are subject to a fine of not more than $100, or a jail sentence not to exceed 90 days, or both.

Temporary nonconforming permits will be issued to those who have been granted extensions. Users will have to pay a rate of $7.50 per ton of capacity with a minimum service charge per installation of $50. This charge will be in addition to license fees or deposits under the ordinance, and to regular water rates charged for water consumption. The charge will apply during the summer months of June, July August, and September.

FENDER SKIRTS STOLEN

Woods police took a report from Nina Caezzo of 21818 Woodbridge, St. Clair Shores, on Sunday, June 2, in which she complained that someone had stolen two fender skirts from her car parked in the Woods Theater parking lot.

Center Symphony Concert Attracts Capacity Crowd

The Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra played to a capacity crowd on Sunday, June 2 when the final concert of the current season was presented under the sponsorship of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Center on the lake-side terrace.

Henri Nosco conducted the orchestra in a delightful program of light classical numbers particularly appropriate for the occasion and for the informal setting of the outdoor theatre.

The weather, although a trifle cool and breezy, was pleasant and the warm and enthusiastic reception which greeted each number helped to counteract to some degree any discomfort due to weather conditions. The usual competition from airplanes and boat whistles was also noticeably absent.

The opening selection, Overture to "Orpheus" by Offenbach was particularly outstanding and the violin solo, so beautifully executed by concert master John Cataldo, was a joy to listen to. His violin, a Grancino, 1885, has a particularly mellow, singing tone which he uses to the best advantage.

The well known and loved "Andalucia" by Lecuona was followed by two numbers by Anderson, the ever-popular "Jazz Pizzicato" and a very clever novelty number, "The Typewriter" featuring Mrs. Robert Jochmans on that unique instrument, much to the amusement and delight of the crowd.

Some real country music by Copland - "Hoedown" from "Rodeo" and selections from the "King and I" were featured in the second half of the program, which ended to the stirring strains of Tschaiakowsky's "Marche Slav".

Brown University Grads Honor Pointer

Phelan Heading Harvard Drive

James J. Phelan, Jr., of Moros road, is chairman of the Eastern Michigan Committee of a program for Harvard College. President Nathan M. Pusey of Harvard University announced Mr. Phelan's appointment.

Mr. Phelan becomes one of 26 key Harvard alumni in all parts of the country selected to work with Philip Theopold, of Boston, the National Alumni Chairman. Their aim is to get the support of the 45,000 alumni of Harvard College for a $82,500,000 fund. The purpose is to strengthen undergraduate education at Harvard.

In announcing Mr. Phelan's appointment, President Pusey said:

"Every college and university in this country that is alive is in need. The needs of Harvard are symbolic of a national problem, and we hope this intensive effort will dramatize that problem for all.

"America has grown at an amazing rate during the past 25 years. Each American now produces about 100 percent more than he did a generation ago. But our expenditures on higher education have lagged far behind the expanding economy.

"The results are evident everywhere, especially in relatively low professional salaries, outmoded facilities and inadequate funds for scholarships. Our efforts for Harvard, therefore, is only part of a much larger effort that is being made and must be made if the resources and revenues of higher education are to be equal to its task. The task is to supply an adequate number of professionally trained citizens, but above all, informed, reasonable and responsible men and women."

A major goal for Harvard College is endowment for new professorships, and for raising faculty salaries. Faculty salaries at Harvard, and at other colleges, have lost ground during the past generation as compared with salaries in other occupations.

In addition, A Program for Harvard College calls for new student and faculty housing to create "a community of learning" in Cambridge, new buildings for astronomy, chemistry and the behavioral sciences, additional faculty studies, a student theater, visual arts center and a new health center. It also will provide endowment for financial aid to students, for Harvard's great library and for the athletics-for-all program.

Mr. Phelan who will lead the effort among Eastern Michigan alumni, is a former President of the Children's Hospital of Michigan.

Mr. Phelan received the degree of S. B. from Harvard College in 1924.

Thespians Admit New Members

By Robert Giles, G.P.U.S. Journalism Student

The National Thespian Honor Society admitted 15 new members into its Grosse Pointe High School Troupe at a formal initiation last Friday afternoon. The induction extended the high school's membership to 35 members.

The ceremony was highlighted by a recitation of the history of the seven Elements of the Dramatic Arts, including Dance, Music, Speech, Literature, Theatre, Art, and a skit. of Thespis, for whom the society is named. For each of the seven recitations a candle was lighted, symbolizing the development of the arts.

The pledge of membership was administered by Mr. Frederick B. Nelson, sponsor.

The society includes over 1,100 troupes in high schools in the United States, its territories, and foreign lands.

Creating an active and intelligent interest in dramatic arts at high school level is the society's chief aim. It hopes to raise the standard of the arts and to develop an appreciation for them.

National Thespians was organized in 1929 and has increased steadily in high school membership.

Their motto is significant of the Society's "Act well your part; there all the honor lies." *New members include Mary Jane Smothers, Pat Dembsey, Errol Foss, Martha Miller, Gary Theuerkorn, Bob Giles, Vance Ryerson, Molly Hunter, Cliff Kuhl, Dick Kirsten, Bonnie Bohn, Pat Price, Janet Brumer, Linda Nolting, and Don Stephens.

Advanced Education Gets More Important Each Day

By Jane Horn, 12B GPUS Journalism Student

The importance of education is increasing every day. In fact, a high school education is the minimum which can be accepted in many types of business and industry and in many places a college education is a necessary qualification.

In spite of the importance of better education, it is unfortunate that almost 40 percent of the boys and girls enrolled in high school (only 10 percent in Grosse Pointe) drop out before graduation. All students in high school should take the long view ahead to the future to finish their high school training.

A good education has many values to the individual. First, statistics from a "Stay in School" pamphlet by President Eisenhower, prove that the high school graduate will be in a very short time be earning more than the non-graduate. Secondly, a good education has certain social advantages as it develops appreciation for good citizenship.

Statistics also show that in criminal and other undesirable elements of our society, lack of education is often a contributing factor.

The advantages in pursuing our higher educational facilities are becoming more prominent every day. In fact, this is so important that our federal government has just released a pamphlet under the signature of President Eisenhower urging our high school students to continue their education as far as possible. Statistics used in this paper are taken from that publication.

We are moving into an age when professional and scientific skills are more important than ever. New developments in automation, electronics and atomic powered machinery will create more jobs for the skilled and educated. Lower wages or unemployment face the uneducated in the economy of tomorrow.

Neither business nor industry is anxious to hire workers 18 years of age or under. It is obvious that young people of that age have inadequate education and training, so only unskilled jobs are available. Young people quite often lack mature habits and attitudes so necessary in good employes.

As our population increases and our economy expands it is estimated that by 1965 we will need 45,000 more doctors, 75,000 more trained nurses, 485,000 more grade and high school teachers, 12,000 more college teachers, 80,000 more natural scientists and 100,000 more engineers.

In addition to those needed for replacements, over 900,000 more young people will have to be trained for these five professions. There will be many similar opportunities in other related fields and only high school graduates are accepted for professional training.

So the high school student today should not be misled by temporary advantages which would mean the sacrifice of a high school diploma. Continuation of his or her education will mean so many more advantages in the future.

Community Club Reveals Program

The Grosse Pointe Woods Community Club will conclude the winter and spring program this week.

The various children's groups have been holding parties. Mrs. Margaret Dumaux's kindergarten group invited parents to their party and put on a small skit, using costumes made by the children. The first and second grade boys' groups held cook-outs under the leadership of Joseph Cadariu and Jerry Bambalough. Mrs. Robert Barker took her two girls' groups to the Woods Park for parties. Other groups held similar parties.

The Community Club is now planning its summer program. There will be a program at the Club consisting of playground supervised activities, arts and crafts, game room, and clubs. These will be held in cooperation with the Grosse Pointe Woods Parks and Recreation Department. Further information on the summer program at the Community Club can be obtained by visiting the Club or by telephoning TUxedo 4-2050.

The Community Club is a member of the United Community services, supported by the United Foundation.

Garden Club To Have Tour

On display will be the grounds of the estates of Mrs. Richard Webber, Mrs. Standish Backus and Mrs. Benjamin S. Warren.

The tour will begin at 2:30 o'clock with tea served at Mrs. Warren's at 4 o'clock. Special permission from the police will allow guests to park along the Lakeshore road.

Hostesses for the afternoon with Mrs. Warren will be Mrs. E. E. Hutchinson and Mrs. Henry P. Williams.

Even watered stocks sometimes take a drop too much.

Jaycee Road-e-os Making Teenagers Good Drivers

What's the best thing to do when you start falling asleep at the wheel?

What's the most likely (and dangerous) stunt an emotionally immature driver is apt to pull?

What should you do when your car wheels slip off the edge of the pavement?

What temperature does a car engine work best at?

These are a few of the many things teen-age drivers have to know in order to just qualify for the Jaycee Safe Driving Teen Age Road-e-o. To win, of course, they must demonstrate behind the wheel in grueling trials that they do, indeed, know what they're talking about on paper.

Detroit's four city winners — those who'll go on to participating in the state, and possibly the national — will be announced by the Junior Chamber of Commerce here this week.

From these local contests, some 100 winners throughout Michigan will compete in the state Road-e-o finals at the Veterans Memorial and Detroit Edison parking lot in Detroit on June 15.

The youngster representing Michigan in the national contest will be competing for $4,500 in scholarships. The three high-scoring contestants will receive $2,000, $1,500 and $1,000 scholarships and corresponding trophies.

In the Michigan run-off here June 16, the winner will get a scholarship plus his four-day expense-paid trip to Washington, D.C., and runners-up will be awarded savings bonds.

The four Detroit champions will receive $100 savings bonds.

Runners up will get $25. bonds. Last year, some 300,000 took local Jaycee written exams and driving tests.

The several thousand Detroit-area teen-agers taking preliminary exams quickly set the pace at 92 per cent to place.

Any teen-ager convicted of a moving violation, of course, is ineligible.

Detroit Police traffic education officers judge the local driving skill contests state finals will be supervised by the Michigan State Police and Detroit Police.

Here's a bird's eye view of the testing:

National Road-e-o: A written test on common-sense driving knowledge; a performance test in four obstacle-type exercises; a road check for in-traffic performance; a driving attitude scale; a psycho-physical, a personal interview.

State Road-e-o: Written test, performance, obstacle exercise; road check for in-traffic performance.

Detroit Road-e-o: Written test, performance test in four obstacle-type exercises. From a regional safety conference of Jaycee leaders in St. Paul, Minnesota in 1952 came the Road-e-o. Within five years, nearly a million young drivers had entered the Road-e-o.

Like all Jaycee projects, the Jaycee Safe Driving Teen-Age Road-e-o is for the community. It is designed to give the nation's young motorists an opportunity to prove and improve their driving habits and attitudes and to stimulate community activities in bigger and better high school driver education programs.

It's one more positive contribution to the nation's traffic safety efforts.

Enthusiastic law enforcement officers will tell you it's paying off.

Jaycees, cognizant of the general public alarm over the traffic situation and particularly concerned over the extreme public criticism directed at the young driver, feel that this Road-e-o has become a positive safety program, counteracting negative approaches to the teenage driving problem.

Teen-Age Road-e-o would not be successful today without the interest and cooperation of teen-agers, parents, educators, traffic authorities and community leaders. Each year, state, national and regional organizations and firms, vitally interested in traffic safety, contribute money, time and effort to make every Teen-Age Road-e-o a success.

Cooperating with Jaycees in the community Road-e-o are law enforcement personnel, safety engineers, driver training instructors, insurance personnel and a wide variety of businessmen. In five years, the program has grown to be a major project among the 3,100 Jaycee chapters across the nation and in Hawaii.

Woods to Carry on Planned Street Repairing Program

The Woods will carry on its proposed street maintenance program for 1957 as previously planned, it was brought out at a council meeting on Monday, June 3.

At a meeting on Monday, May 20, a group of citizens in Roslyn and Hampton roads, and in Anita, petitioned the council to forego an outlined program for the year as proposed by City Administrator William Lange, and give their streets first consideration. They said their roads were in need of repair and have been in bad condition for a number of years.

After hearing all arguments, Mayor Kenneth Koppin appointed a committee composed of himself, City Administrator Lange, Councilman Harry Pratt, and the following citizens:

Rodger A. Graef, Harold F. Keyes, Arthur R. Shaw, Latham

To Hold Clinic on Communism

"Clinic on Communism" will be presented in the form of four lectures conducted by Fred C. Schwarz, M. D., surgeon and psychiatrist from Sydney, Australia. The programs will all be presented at the Women's City Club at 8 p. m. beginning June 13.

Dr. Schwarz is now on his sixth world lecture tour, having recently returned from India. As former professor of mathematics and science, and successful surgeon and psychiatrist, he has for 18 years probed the communist mind to find out what it believes and thinks instead of what the commies say and do.

The doctor's dramatic and startling lectures have been enthusiastically received by the National War College, members of Congress, state legislatures, business and civic groups, universities and high schools.

The June 13 lecture will discuss the minds, morals and motives of communism. On June 18, communism in economics, industry and government will be the subject. The communist party, its fronts and captive organizations will be the topic of the June 25 lecture. The last program will be on July 2, when Dr. Schwarz will discuss the international communist conspiracy.

Donation for the series is $5, or $1.50 per lecture. Tickets may be obtained at 15316 E. Warren or by calling TU 4-6410.

Listen to the voice of conscience now—sooner or later it will have its say.

Financial Aid Available To Deserving GPHS Grads

By JANET COLLINSON GPHS Journalism Student

Since 1931, outstanding seniors at Grosse Pointe High School have been able to obtain financial aid to continue with their formal education.

This year, 4000 in grants will be appropriated to be given to students who have scholastic ability, but need financial aid in college.

The number of winners of these grants has varied through the years from five to eight students. As the costs of a college education have risen, the amount of the grants has been increased proportionately.

Students with a 2.0-honor point average are eligible. In some cases, special consideration of students with a 1.5 to 2.0 honor point average is made. The grants are awarded each June, and the winners may include members of the preceding January class.

In addition to the financial grants, each June the top 5 per cent of the graduating class is presented with the Mothers' Club dictionary award. These awards (both the financial grants and the dictionaries) are described by Mrs. Frederick Adams, first vice president of the Mothers' Club, as "a very important part of the Mothers' Club program."

She added, "They are our one big project." In 1952, another scholarship was made available to deserving Grosse Pointe School seniors. This scholarship was donated by Chet Sampson, member of the Board of Education. Mr. Sampson has since donated $9,000 in the form of nine scholarships. The award is made annually in June, and both members of the January and the June classes are eligible. This scholarship is expected to continue at a rate of $2,000 a year.

Others (both individuals and organizations) have contributed scholarships from year to year. This spring, Kenneth M. Lander, a Grosse Pointe resident, donated $1,200 for a scholarship, to be awarded to an outstanding boy or girl of the senior class. The winner must plan to attend an accredited college.

Also to be given this June are the following contributions by various community groups: The Rotary Club $800; The Kiwanis Club, $500; The Lions Club, $1,000; the Grosse Pointe Women's Club, $300.

Libri Club to Visit Cranbrook Institute

Libri Club members will gather in Pontiac Monday at 12:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. H. D. Searney.

She will be assisted by Mrs. Milton Coulson, Mrs. Milton Coulson, Jr., Mrs. Walter Truetner and Mrs. E. E. Hammonds. The program for the meeting includes a visit to the Cranbrook Institute of Science.

Two Get Tickets In 3-Car Crash

Two motorists were issued tickets by Woods police on Wednesday, May 29, following a three-car collision on Mack avenue, in which one of the drivers received treatment for shock and a passenger was treated for minor leg injuries.

A police report disclosed that Ray O'Keefe, of 2581 Lenox, Detroit, was pulling into the driveway of a Mack avenue supermarket, when a car driven by Mrs. Bertha Page of 6110 Bishop road, Detroit, veered around O'Keefe's vehicle in trying to pass him.

In pulling around, the woman's car hit one driven by Russell Trombley of 27319 Pine-wood, Roseville, in the left rear. Trombley was unable to stop in time to avoid a collision.

Mrs. Page was taken home for treatment of shock by her family physician, and O'Keefe's wife, Opal, a passenger in her husband's car, was taken to Dr. Clarence Candler, Mack and Fair court, where she was given treatment for a bruised leg.

Trombley was issued a ticket for not having his car under control, and Mrs. Page was given one for interfering with moving traffic.

Army Has Offer For H.S. Grads

Young men between the ages of 17 and 18 1/2 graduating from high school this month are being sought to fill vacancies in the Military Intelligence Service Organization of the U. S. Army Reserves at Fort Wayne.

Capt. George A. Coury, of 805 Pemberton, Grosse Pointe, reserve intelligence commander at Fort Wayne, said qualified young men would be assigned to language (foreign speaking), editorial, photographic, administrative and order of battle intelligence teams at Fort Wayne.

Young men enlisting under the new reserve program will serve six months of active duty training and the remainder of their military obligation in the ready reserve by attending weekly meetings at Fort Wayne, said Coury.

Reserve enlistments are being taken every Thursday, 7:30 to 9:30 p. m. at Fort Wayne, Bldg. 90, 6301 W. Jefferson, by Capt. Hubert Toupin.

The man who lives for himself alone is usually a mighty poor judge of human nature.

G.P.U.S. Grads To Hear Knight

The speaker at the commencement program of the Grosse Pointe University School next Wednesday, June 12, will be Douglas Maitland Knight, president of Lawrence College, Appleton, Wisconsin. The commencement exercises will be at Christ Church at 8:30 p.m.

Before becoming president of Lawrence College in March, 1954, Dr. Knight was assistant professor of English at Yale University, his alma mater. He also had several significant administrative positions including those of secretary of the Yale President's Committee on General Education and of interviewer for the Faculty Study Fellowship program of the Ford Fund for the Advancement of Education.

A graduate of Yale in 1942, Dr. Knight was a classmate of GPUS Headmaster, John Chandler, Jr. His immediate predecessors as presidents at Lawrence College were Dr. Henry M. Wriston, president-emeritus of Brown University, and Dr. Nathan Pusey, president of Harvard University.

G.P.U.S. News Notes

Dr. Lois Murphy, a staff member of Menninger Clinic, sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Area Nursery, Schools of the P. R. School Association of Metropolitan Detroit, spoke at Grosse Pointe University School Auditorium, Thursday, May 2.

"Labeling Children" was her topic, a subject which she formerly discussed in an article "Two To Four World," Parents Magazine. We were fortunate in hearing her speak, for she stayed only a day and a half with her daughter, Mrs. Midge Small of Lakeshore Cooperative Nursery School. Dr. Murphy was on her way to a speaking engagement in the East. At the present-time, she is engaged in research at Southard School within the Menninger Foundation. Her topic is "How Normal Children Cope With Daily Problems."

Dr. Murphy taught for 24 years at Sarah Lawrence College, acting as advisor to their nursery school. She has written "Personality In Young Children" and "Emotional Factors In Learning."

Mrs. Jane Bacon, director of the Grosse Pointe University Nursery School, attended the Mid-Western Association for Nursery Education Convention in Cleveland, May 3 and 4. She took down a handbook of creative activities, "Swap - It," and the pamphlet, "Kindergarten, Nursery School, Step Toward a Common Goal!" to sell at the conference publicity table. Dr. Benjamin Spock was one of the Conference Speakers.

Mrs. Alfred Glancy called the nursery school this week to invite the children to watch the seeding of their garden. Since the children have just purchased seed and flats, shoveled the dirt for the flats and planted beans, radishes, zinnas and marigolds, they were interested in watching at the Glancys. They enjoyed measuring the length of the asparagus and picking some rhubarb. As a follow-up the teachers are planning to prepare and cook rhubarb for lunch some day.

After exploring the garden and seeing the huge tulip bed in the front lawn, the children thoroughly enjoyed running and leaping over the back lawn.

Some forty members of the Grosse Pointe University School faculty journeyed by chartered bus on Saturday, May 4, to Maumee Valley Country Day School, Maumee, Ohio. The occasion was the annual spring meeting of the Independent Schools of Detroit and vicinity.

Speakers at the luncheon meeting were Miss Marion Goodale, Kingswood School; James Henderson, Jr., Headmaster at Maumee; and Allen Saunders, President Emeritus, Board of Trustees, Maumee Valley Country Day School.

Mr. Saunders is author of three of the most popular nationally syndicated comic strips, Mary Worth, Steve Roper, and Kerry Drake. A former professor at Wabash College and one-time drama teacher, Saunders is convinced that the often mislabeled "comic" strip is an authentic narrative art form.

Maumee Valley seniors served as waiters and waitresses at the luncheon and as student guides for those who strolled around the wooded and scenic grounds that make up the school's campus.

Dartmouth College has informed Headmaster John Chandler, Jr., that alumnus David Wark, now in his junior year at the New Hampshire college, has recently been elected treasurer of his fraternity, Sigma Nu. Mr. Wark is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Wark, who now live in Grand Rapids.

Spring instruction is being offered to interested students in the use of the school's varied audio-visual equipment. Groups generally meet in the 20-minute help period, which is available for special events in the time after lunch each day.

A class is being offered too, in the use and management of the lightboard in the school's auditorium. The efficient use of the lightboard is important for plays, chapel programs, and all sorts of assembly gatherings.

Among those who have signed up for this class are Susan Stair, Carolyn Jacobson, Janet Old, Suzy Ryan, Jane Pierce, Jane Rueger, Susan Shepherd, Lynne Randall, Andrew Court, Peter Dendenhoff, George Boller, Henry Carpenter, David Ireland, Bruce Gillis, Howard Keys, Jere Krieger, John Lafer, Skip Leonard, George Lott, Don MacFarlane, Jeff Miro, Chip Munger, Bruce Pharis, Wally Roberts, Irving Smoker, Peter Van Riper and Bob Wood.

Last week provided an interesting and well-timed coincidence for the faculty and students of Grosse Pointe University School. With reports that southeastern Michigan might be frequently in the tornado zone this spring, the faculty decided on a program of tornado drills. Instructions were given to all students and teachers as to where and how to proceed, should a tornado warning or (more serious) alerts be issued. After the first morning drill last Wednesday, a genuine warning was issued in the late afternoon. The upper school students thus had not practiced in vain!

These are the days when the students of G. P. U. S. are electing next year's officers for the Red Cross Council and the Student Council. Results will be announced on class day.

Bertram P. Shover, Director of the Lower School at Grosse Pointe University School, has been informed that a speech he made last fall before the annual meeting of the Educational Records Bureau is to be published in the annals of the American Council on Education. Mr. Shover's remarks dealt with testing as seen from the point of view of an independent school.

The Art Appreciation class, attended by the 11th grade girls, took an afternoon trip to the Detroit Institute of Arts on Friday, May 24.

On Tuesday, May 21, two young representatives of the General Electric company presented an hour-long show to an Upper School assembly. They called their presentation the "General Electric House of Magic." In it they indicated the need and importance of young people in the field of science and technology. At the same time they staged an amusing and lively entertainment in which all kinds of electric tricks were displayed.

The annual Oral Reading Contests were held at GPUS last week—on separate days, one for Grades 7, 8, 9, the other for Grades 10, 11, 12. Four winners in all will be named, a boy and girl from each division, on Class Day. Those participating were chosen by their classmates and teachers. They were Carol Johnson, Polly Kammer, Julie Wellings, Donald Owens, David Cowles, Reuben. Waterman—from Grades 7, 8, 9, and Jane

Distributing Parks Booklets

Distribution of Automobile Club of Michigan's 1957 Michigan State Parks booklet begins this week, Harry N. Rogan, travel services director announced.

The 34-page booklet includes the specific location of each of the 61 state parks and recreation areas, as well as describing the facilities offered for tourists, campers and fishermen. Also listed are state forest camp and picnic grounds, Huron-Clinton Metropolitan parks and Wayne County parks.

Rogan said that one important change regarding fees and charges is not noted in the booklet. Since publication, the State Conservation Commission raised camping fees from 50 to 75 cents a day, and increased daily charges for electricity from 20 to 25 cents.

Pearce, Margaret Hakken, Julie Pearce, David Olen, Richard Strother, Robert Kraus—all from Grades 10, 11, 12. Dr. Hugh Stalker, former school physician, is the sponsor of the contest and contributes the book awards. Judges are members of the Parents Association.

Rogan added that state park admission fee legislation has been passed by the State Legislature and is currently before the Governor.

With favorable weather, Michigan parks and recreation areas should set new attendance records this year, Rogan predicted. In 1956, more than 15 million persons visited them while 90,000 campers used the state-owned facilities.

As a public service, the booklet is available to all Detroit-area motorists through any Auto Club office.

They Deserve Your Votes

Interested qualified electors will be going to the polls next Monday to cast their ballots for candidates seeking to be elected to the office of trustee of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education. There are two vacancies and three candidates.

Robert F. Weber, present president of the board, and Chet Sampson, secretary, are incumbents seeking reelection. They will be opposed by Reyer Van Zanen, who was an unsuccessful candidate in the last school election.

We hope the incumbents will be put back in office. We think the present board has done a whale of a job. In fact we think they undertook a complete reversal in policy and attitude some years back after one group was beaten on a bond proposition to provide new buildings. This defeat came purely because the trustees of that era took the stand that the public had no business prying into its affairs and had no right to question policy nor expenditures.

Of course this was a pretty silly attitude. Anyone who is helping pay the bills has a right to know where his tax money is going. Stung by the knockout handed them at the polls, those trustees were quick to realize their error. Ever since that day, the boards have bent over backward to let all interested citizens have full access to all business pertaining to the school system. The change in policy has paid off, as all propositions since have carried by a healthy majority.

There has been sporadic criticism of the present Board of Education, naturally. If its every move was approved without a murmur, it would indicate an unhealthy complacency on the part of the voters. But it has been interesting to note that the critics, almost without exception, have backed down and finally offered their support after all the facts were explained to them, usually personally and painstakingly.

About the only squawks we have heard prior to this election are a few weak ones about the swimming pools and buildings under construction costing more than the original estimates. Anyone who has built anything in recent years, from a lean-to garage to a residence, has encountered this same experience.

The architects and engineers tell us the structure is going to cost so much. When the bids are in, we are rocked backed on our heels by the differential, which is definitely not in our favor. These school board trustees are no different than the rest of us. They aren't architects or engineers and they are trusting and optimistic souls, even as you and I. It can scarcely be blamed on them if the estimates of so-called experts turn out to be sour. None of us thinks a member of the Board of Education is personally gaining by such errors. On the other hand, he is subjected to additional headaches and hours of labor through the necessity of having to review the whole situation, cut the plans here and there, and ask for new bids.

We are perhaps inordinately proud of our public school system. This pride is based on the tangible and intangible results it has produced. We feel this community can well afford the best of schools, and we feel the investment we make in them brings a heap of satisfaction.

We feel very fortunate in having men of such high calibre willing to serve on the Board of Education. We feel that a man possessing such a sense of civic responsibility and willingness to serve in so many capacities as Robert Weber, is interested only in maintaining and improving the Grosse Pointe public school system. We feel sure he is just as acutely aware as the rest of us to the importance of seeing that his and our tax dollars are well spent.

If anyone doubts the sincerity of Chet Sampson in his feelings towards the students of this school system of ours, it might be well to note that Chet has turned over his salary as a school trustee, plus a pretty penny out of his own pocket, ever since the day he was first elected, to a scholarship fund to help needy kids get the higher education which he feels so important. These two deserve your votes.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor: Since you allowed a letter written by Gerald C. Schroeder which reads like a political advertisement, perhaps you will allow me a little comment. Henry Adams was correct when he said: "Practical politics consists in ignoring facts." For if there is presently any controversy about our public school system, it all stems from the proposal of January, 1956, where our School Board presented a package deal, instead of allowing our people a free choice in typical American fashion.

Before that election our Board spoke of looking forward to a LOWER school tax in the near future. They also spoke about equality of opportunity. When confronted with a gross error in estimated cost of construction, they decided—NOT to postpone the construction of the swimming pools, but to leave out the necessary equipment as well as the Auditorium. They made this decision without asking publicly for tax payers reaction or opinion. One year later, pushing aside the promised lower school tax, they asked for and got a HIGHER tax. Where are we now? How is our budget affected by the fact that State sales tax did NOT reach estimated figures? I believe that our Board by its conduct has left itself wide open for criticism, and that some new approach to the problems might best be obtained by making a change in the Board's composition on June 10th. Be sure you vote. Sincerely, Mrs. James D. Connolly 1179 Brys Drive Grosse Pte. 36, Mich.

My attention has just been called to the unfortunate references to Jews and to Israel, quoted in your issue of May 23 as having been addressed by an Israeli spokesman to the Grosse Pointe Rotarians. "Oh, there are moments in man's immortal years When for an instant that which long has lain Beyond our reach is on a sudden found In things of smallest compass, and we hold The unbounded vast in one small minute's space, And worlds within the hollow of our hand, A world of music in one word of love, A world of love in one quick wordless look, A world of thought in one translucent phrase, A world of memory in one mournful chord, A world of sorrow in one little song." (Henry B. Carpenter)

We have just returned from Japan... well, that's a "shocker" as a start anyway! But all kiddin' aside, we have been talking or rather listening at great length to a gent who HAS just returned after spending five years in Japan, working for our government. In case any of you are thinking of spending your vacation there this summer... old Pryor will give you the salient points.

In the first place, if you are on a budget, this is your spot. This here now pal of ours has a nice "flat" there for which he pays $8.50 a MONTH rent! (This of course is in American dollars, which are scarce over there.) He has a house boy who gets paid $1.00 a week... and he can get the biggest steak dinner with all the trimmings for $1.25... and no tips are allowed anywhere in Japan. A taxi trip from as far as the Pointe to downtown Detroit costs 78 cents and a haircut is 28 cents.

The country is clean and beautiful and the climate is very like that of California. The Japanese seem to hold no ill will against us and have adjusted themselves beautifully. The women have been brought up to "take care of the man" and that they do! It is not easy for a Japanese woman to get a job over there... but the few girls who are employed at the Officer's Club, get paid the magnificent sum of 75 cents a week. There are loads of movie theaters and the favorite American movies (with dubbed-in Japanese dialogue) seem to be Westerns. There are no chain stores, but hundreds of little old corner grocery stores.

Unlike China, where begging on the streets is considered a legal profession, it is not allowed at all in Japan. And no TIPPING yet! Well, are you packed and ready to leave???

Waiting on our desk was a letter from a woman asking why Nuba, our beloved poodle, was given a bright red fire hydrant for her birthday. The lady asks: "WHY, since she is a SHE, would anyone give her a hydrant? What does she do with it?" Well, since the News received that barrage of letters because we dared to print the "facts, Mam" about Poodles... we shall skip answering that question... except to say that the hydrant makes a nice spot of color in the pansy bed... and we don't want any more letters about THAT crack!

Now that everyone seems to be taking "Tranquizer" pills... we feel it fitting and proper to pass this on. One Tranquizer pill sez to another: "Gee, everyone is getting benefit from me but I'm nervous as a tic. Everyone is coming pill suggests: "Why don't you take a Perry Como?"

For the first time in our lives we were asked to dine last week with a real honest to goodness "Gourmet". The hero of the evening is a bachelor who has prided himself for YEARS on knowing all the fine points of food and drink. He used to be a meat and potatoes man until he struck oil... now he makes with a smattering of restaurant French and sounds important as all get out. Five of us sat down at the table in a SMOTT Cafe... and allowed the Gourmet to do all the ordering. While we waited for our dinner, he regaled us with the details of how he has to struggle to keep his weight down. Since he ordered everything in FRENCH... we still don't know what we ate when it finally arrived. We had the feeling that the first course was meat disguised to look like something else. But by the time our host tasted and tested each sauce that was to go ON the meat... he must have gained five pounds while we just sat and wished we could have it and the sauces be damned.

When he finally arrived at what he thought was THE SAUCE MITT wine... our meat was cold and we didn't give a hang. The same routine was followed with the tossed salad, tossed up in the air at the table. Dear host sampled a bit of the dressing... no good... so back the waiter to fetch a fresh group of bottles for another try at the dressing.

Came the dessert... a flaming thing that scared the life out of us... but by this time we cared not a whit for anything except getting out of the joint and flying to the nearest Hamburger diner... where meat is meat and looks like it... and apple pie is apple pie and the coffee isn't laced with anything except good old coffee beans from Brazil.

We note that after dinner, our host swallowed a whole pack of Tums is one fell swoop... but he is still a Gourmet of the type that is sure the right wine comes up with the fish... when the fish comes up.

And so, we wish you happy eating until next week... when we shall contribute a fancy recipe from Japan.

that may have been left by the Iraqi student. It is, of course, tragic that an Arab refugee problem should have been created. But it must not be overlooked that it is a result of a war, of belligerent action that was instituted by seven Arab nations that had set out, the day after Israel was established, in an effort to destroy that reconstituted state, with threats that Jews would be driven into the sea. Instead, Israel emerged victorious, and about a half million Arabs—whose numbers now are exaggerated into a million—fled from their homes.

Israel pleaded with these people to stay on. The Israel Declaration of Independence of May 14, 1948, addressed itself as follows to the Arab peoples: "We extend our hand in peace and neighborliness to all the neighboring states and their peoples, and invite them to cooperate with the independent Jewish nation for the common good of all." It was an appeal Jews had taken their homeland made in vain!

Now, we are told, the the from the Arabs. Anyone who has studied history, those who know that Jews had never left the Holy Land, students of the Bible who are acquainted with prophecy—that "Zion shall be redeemed with justice" (Isaiah)—that "I will turn the captivity of my people Israel and they shall build the waste places and inhabit them" (Amos), know better than to fall for misleading propaganda. If there is a genuine wish to understand the legitimacy of Israel's existence, all one needs do is refer back to the decisions of the United Nations of Nov. 29, 1947, when Israel became the first state in world history to be summoned into existence by the community of nations. Can anyone point to any other similar creation of statehood prior to that time? It is unjust, therefore, to speak of the displacement of Arabs, or the taking away of a homeland from Arabs. There should be a better understanding of the existing conditions, in order that the American principal of fair play may be put into operation when discussing the Middle East situation. Israel is a very small country—one of the smallest in the world. It has a territory of 8,000 square miles. But there are 12 sovereign Arab nations, all of whom gained their independence since World War I. These states have 4,000,000 square miles of territory. Israel has a population of 1,900,000, the 12 Arab states have a total population of 50,000,000. Since its declaration of independence, Israel has welcomed 800,000 homeless from all parts of the globe, 400,000 of them—nearly as many people as had originally left Israel during the flight of the Arabs—from Moslem countries. These 400,000 had to run for their lives, their properties were confiscated, but they were fortunate in that their kinsmen welcomed them. The Arabs' kinsmen refuse to re-settle them. When Israel offered to take in 100,000 of them as a first token of good will, they refused to co-operate because they wanted to retain the Arabs and refugees as pawns in a battle for Israel's destruction. Imagine: if the Arabs, 50,000,000 of them, were to act as promptly in a humanitarian di-

What Goes On at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

Guest Columnist: W. J. Kimbrough One of the most popular services of the Grosse Pointe Public Library is the Summer Film Program for Boys and Girls. Last summer's series brought record crowds to the Central Library and both branch libraries to attend the films which had been carefully selected from thousands of likely candidates. We feel that this summer's program will be every bit as good, if not better than last year's. The film series will last for eleven weeks beginning on Thursday, June 20. Each program will be shown three times in the following schedule: Thursdays at 10 a.m. at the Park Branch, located at 15430 Kercheval avenue in Grosse Pointe Park; Fridays at 10 a.m. at the Woods Branch, located at 20600 Mack avenue in Grosse Pointe Woods; and Fridays at 2 p.m. at the Central Library, 10 Kercheval avenue in Grosse Pointe Farms. The programs, in the order of their showing, are as follows:

Thursday and Friday, June 20 and 21: BROKEN ARROW, a feature length film running 10 minutes. The film is in color. Thursday and Friday, June 27 and 28: SONG OF THE PRAIRIE (19 minutes) and MIKE MULLIGAN (11 min.). Both films are in color. Wednesday and Friday, July 3 and 5: THE SECRET TUNNEL, a 46-minute black and white film. Thursday and Friday, July 11 and 12: JOHNNY APPLESEED (14 minutes), THE UGLY DUCKLING (10 minutes), and THE RED CARPET (11 minutes). All three films are in color. Thursday and Friday, July 18 and 19: ELEPHANT BOY, an 80-minute film in black and white. Thursday and Friday, July 25 and 26: THE BLACK PATCH (18 minutes, black and white) and HERCULES (11 minutes, color).

Thursday and Friday, August 1 and 2: LITTLE BALLERINA, 46 minutes, black and white. Thursday and Friday, August 8 and 9: LITTLE GRAY NECK (18 minutes, color), THE LEGEND OF THE PIED PIPER (10 minutes, color), and ALL ALONE IN THE WORLD (20 minutes, black and white). Thursday and Friday, August 15 and 16: CHEAPER BY THE DOZEN, 90 minutes, black and white. Thursday and Friday, August 22 and 23: THE STORY OF PETER AND THE POTTER (21 minutes) and THE TOWN MUSICIANS (9 minutes), both in color.

Thursday and Friday, August 29 and 30: SMOKY, 90 minutes, in color. Many of the films on the above list have been adapted from children's classics, such as Rudyard Kipling's ELEPHANT BOY, Hans Christian Andersen's UGLY DUCKLING, Will James's SMOKEY, THE LEGEND OF THE PIED PIPER, and THE TOWN MUSICIANS. MIKE MULLIGAN, THE RED CARPET, and HERCULES were adapted from newer, but no less deserving and popular children's books. BROKEN ARROW, adapted from the novel, "Blood Brother," and CHEAPER BY THE DOZEN, taken from the biography of the same title by Ernestine and Frank Gilbreth, have established themselves as movie classics, favorites with adults as well as children.

It may also be noted from the above list that beginning the second week of the series, and on alternate weeks thereafter, the films will have a special appeal for the youngest children, while the others will be enjoyed to a greater extent by "olders" up through the Junior high school age.

The film showings will be under the supervision of the Children's Librarian in each Library. Patrons seeking further information concerning the Summer Film Program should call the Children's Librarian in the Library or branch library nearest them.

Official Opening

The City Municipal Park on E. Jefferson at University place, will officially open Saturday, June 8. Life guards and attendants were on duty Memorial Day when over 1000 residents flocked to the park. Estimates reported 200 swimmers braved the still chilly waters of Lake St. Clair. An extensive swimming program is on the planning boards for the summer months. Work has been started to dredge a 10 to 12-foot-deep diving area. Two diving boards will be installed on the pier facing the Canadian shore.

The park boat mooring facilities have been in use since May 15, when a night attendant went on duty.

Are the days you feel really well rare occasions? Do you feel fatigued, listless most of the time? This is a condition from which many persons suffer, yet feel there is little they can do about it. On the contrary, your doctor can help restore your energy and of course improve your zest for work and play. The average person would be amazed at the number of carefully developed drug products that are available to counter-act mineral deficiencies in the body. Let your doctor determine your needs by a physical examination. Buy pure fresh drugs from a trusted pharmacist. ### Elections Held At High School

In recently-held elections at Grosse Pointe High School, the four Student Association officers and the eleventh and twelfth grade senators were chosen for next fall.

Dave Cook, 11A student and varsity letterman, is the new president. In expressing his reaction to the outcome of the election, Dave said, "I am deeply honored and grateful. I am going to count on the support of all those who voted for me."

Dave then went on to explain that the main objective of next semester's administration would be to give credit and publicity to students and school organizations performing worthwhile services in the community.

Assisting Dave in his administrative duties will be the newly-elected vice-president, Tony Herrmann, 12B. Tony's main job will be taking over when Dave is absent.

Taking minutes at next year's Senate meetings will be the new secretary, Frannie Cousino, 11A. She will also handle all correspondence of the student government. When Frannie heard of her election she "simply didn't believe it, so I went and checked for myself."

Rounding out the docket of officers is Keith Hellems, who will have charge of all money matters of the Student Association next semester. The 11A student was chosen treasurer by fellow students.

Because of a recent amendment to the Student Association constitution, there are now two senators representing each full school grade. Chosen by the tenth grade to represent it next year were Nancy Spindle and Kingsley Roney, 10A's.

Both of the two new twelfth grade senators, Mary Messel and Gary Theenkorn, had the same comment to make about their election, "I'm so happy—that's all I can say."

If some people get out of life what they put into it they are bound to get out of it quick.

KNOW YOUR HOSEERY

What gauge and denier of hosiery do you ask for when you shop? Gauge is the number of crosswise stitches per one and one-half inches of stocking fabric. The higher the gauge, the closer the knit. Most common gauges are 45, 51, 60 and 66.

Denier means the size of the thread in the stocking. The lower the denier number, the finer the yarn. Popular deniers are 30, 40, 50 and 60.

Gauge and denier numbers are usually given in combination such as 51 gauge-15 denier, explain Michigan State University clothing specialists. Yarn thickness and closeness of stitches work in combination to determine sheerness, weight and serviceability of hosiery. The proper balance of gauge and denier is important in wear. For example, a stocking made of fine yarn in a high gauge is more resistant to snagging and gives greater service than a stocking loosely knit of the same size yarn.

Dear Mr. Edgart:

For the past eleven years I have been closely allied to our school system through local PTA work and as President of the PTA Council. In conjunction with these duties, I have had many contacts with the Board of Education.

Since Mr. Robert Weber has been on the Board he has made many suggestions to improve its efficiency and to better our school system. One of these has been to change the accounting practices, which has resulted in a savings of several thousands of dollars annually. He has approached all questions with an open mind and then acted according to his best judgment. Therefore I feel he is deserving and should be re-elected to the Grosse Pointe Board of Education on June 10.

Sincerely,

From Another Pointe of View

By Patricia Talbot

Bells will be ringing almost every one of these bonny June days for the brides' month is here and they yield the social spotlight to nobody.

One of the marrying month's most attractive brides-to-be, Marianne Trombley, has already begun to enjoy a bride's due, a whirl of parties. She will be married on June 22 to Charles Endicott in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

Marianne is the daughter of Mrs. Bryan Trombley, of Fairholme road, and her fiance's parents are Mr. and Mrs. George Endicott, of Merriweather road.

Mrs. Leonard Winter, Marianne's sister, will be her honor attendant and the bridesmaids will be Ann Candler, Marion Buhler, Mrs. Thomas Brandt, Sally Fearney and Elaine Cabot. Charles' sister, Elizabeth Endicott, will be the junior maid.

Mr. Endicott will be his son's best man and the usher list includes Mr. Winter, Thomas Waterfall, Gerald Webster, Milton Monahan, Edward May, Howard Stoddard, of Marshall; Stanford Stoddard, of Birmingham; Dudley Meek, of East Greenwich, R. I. and Eugene Lefevre, of Norwood, Mass.

Bride's Bounty

The bride-elect already has mementoes of her friends' party giving. Mrs. Gilbert Whelden was the first hostess at a shower in her Park lane home. Mrs. Hugh Fletcher also hosted a shower in her Ann Arbor home. The Ralph Nettings gave a cocktail party for the pair in their Lincoln road home.

This afternoon Marianne is unwrapping gifts at the Lochmoor boulevard home of Mrs. August Quandt who is giving the party with Mrs. Thomas Brandt, one of the bridesmaids.

On Friday evening the Howard Stoddards will give a party at the Detroit Club and Saturday evening's hosts will be the Ralph Kellers and Mrs. Walter Zimmer at a dinner at the DAC.

On Sunday the William Roneys will give a cocktail party in their Kercheval avenue home before the dinner party planned by the Charles Freibergers at the Country Club.

Mr. and Mrs. John Benfield, who have just moved to St. Paul avenue from Birmingham, will give a cocktail party on June 14. Two days later Mrs. Herbert Buhler and Mrs. Russell Candler will give a paper shower at the Detroit Boat Club.

There will also be a dinner by the Thorton Waterfalls of Lincoln road and a spinster get-together by the bride-elect's sister, Mrs. Winter, in her Lennon road home.

The evening before the wedding the Endicotts will give the rehearsal dinner at the DAC.

Celebrity Footnotes

June jollity means little to the ladies of the Bon Secours Hospital Assistance League. Their thoughts are all of fall when they will again bring a brilliant list of lecturers to the Grosse Pointe Celebrity Series.

Some of the luminaries will be Don Whitehead, author of the best-selling "The FBI Story," who will open the series in October, columnist Sydney Harris, Jean Dalrymple, the Harry Overstreets, Prince Constantine of Bavaria, and the delight of TV viewers, urbane Alistair Cook.

Tickets for the season are already going like the proverbial hot cakes and patrons may call Mrs. Herbert Heno-

HOUSEHOLD HINT

The secret of a good cottage cheese sandwich is to use bread with lots of "character." Rye, pumpernickel, Boston brown bread or a fruit and nut bread make delicious sandwiches. Just combine the cheese with any kind of jam or marmalade or with chopped chive or water-cress or with chopped nuts or olives.

GPYC to Be Host To Club Teenagers

Juniors of Three Pointe Clubs to Gather This Friday for Get-Acquainted "Splash 'n' Drip" Party; Refreshments to be Served in Fo'castle

An Inter-Club Teen Party this coming Friday evening, June 7, at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club will open the summer series of these fetes for boys and girls of the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club, Lochmoor Club and Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

As previously, the three different clubs will take turns as the locales for the season's succeeding teen-fun festivities.

Friday's "do" will be a get-acquainted "Splash-n-Drip" party for the 14 to 18 year group. Time and place will be 8 o'clock to midnight, at GPYC's outdoor pool and dance floor, with refreshments in the Fo'castle.

There'll be swimming and dancing to an orchestra's music all evening, weather permitting. If it rains, the party will go inside the clubhouse.

One of the nice things is that the party-goers do not have to come in couples. Each boy or girl member may bring as many as three guests, and that means a little nucleus of friends right at the start. In addition, there are the old friends met at last season's fiestas, and the fun of meeting new acquaintances.

Senior members from each club comprise committees collaborating on arrangements, and they also act as chaperones at the Inter-Club parties.

Teen-agers are asked to let their respective clubs know they will be at the fete so adequate arrangements can be made. The nominal cost is one dollar per person.

The planning committee seniors from Grosse Pointe Yacht Club for Friday's party include Mr. and Mrs. William A. Ternes, the Eugene A. Casarolls, the Howard Shaws, the Robert F. Webers, the Russell D. VanHoutens and the Paul I. Morelands.

Those from Lochmoor Club are Mr. and Mrs. David Hill, the Clarence Besserts, Dr. and Mrs. Henry T. E. Munson, the David Turners and the Erwin M. Sattelmeyers, and from Grosse Pointe Hunt Club are the William J. Champions, the Donald Martins and the Navarre G. Bennetts.

It makes little difference to people whether the earth is round or flat as long as they can make both ends meet.

Officers Named By Woods Club

At a recent meeting of the board of directors of the Grosse Pointe Woods Community Club, Edwin Wendt of Hampton road was elected president of the board for the coming year.

Serving with him will be John Hammel of Hunt Club as first vice-president; Mrs. E. A.
Benzin Lochmoor boulevard as 2nd vice-president; Donald Strnad, Lancaster, treasurer; and S. J. Schaafsma, Anita, as assistant treasurer.

Mr. Wendt announced that Mrs. Hugh W. MacTavish of Hampton road will represent the board of the club in the Group Work and Recreation Federation of the Metropolitan Community Services of Metropolitan Detroit. Mrs. Benzin will serve as a representative to the Detroit Federation of Settlements and Neighborhood Centers.

Newly elected members of the board of directors include Jack Eberst, youth officer of the Grosse Pointe Woods Police department; Mrs. George Hart-mayer, Hawthorne road, Robert H. Knap of Hampton road, Edward Snell of Anita, and Mrs.
Thomas Whittingham, Oxford road.

Re-elected following a year's interval was Leon Ratcliffe of North Oxford who had served two previous terms as a member of the board. Continuing to serve will be Mrs. T. K. Jefferis, retiring president of the board who was elected to fill a one-year vacancy.

Honored by the Club recently by a resolution read at the annual meeting were Mrs.
George Klein of Devonshire and Mrs. Harry Watson of Roslyn
road.

Mrs. Klein and Mrs. Watson completed their second three-year terms this spring. In addition, each had served the interests of the club prior to this term of office. Mrs. Watson served as secretary of the board almost continuously throughout her tenure as a board member.

The board of directors will hold the final meeting for the year on Tuesday evening, June 11, at 8 o'clock at the club.

UCS Re-elects Elisabeth Cady

The re-election of Elisabeth W. Cady as vice-chairman of the Administrative Committee of United Community Services Central Volunteer Bureau was announced at the organization's annual meeting on May 15 at International Institute.

Miss Cady who lives at 32
Lake Shore road, will help lead the team of citizens in guiding metropolitan Detroit's center for recruitment and placement of volunteer workers in the community.

Sharing official duties with Miss Cady for a second year will be: Mrs. Jack Pickering, chairman, and Mrs. William A. Reed, secretary.

Attending the once-a-year luncheon were many of the devoted men and women who donate vast amounts of their time and talent to the community as well as representatives from health and social agencies.

Veteran Sailors Take Top Honors in DYC's Regatta

For the most part it was the "old hands" that picked up the prizes in the Detroit Yacht Club's annual Memorial Day Regatta. Their victories enabled them to take an early lead for the DRYA championships in their respective classes and also the first leg on the fabulous Milt Cross Memorial trophy which will be awarded to the yacht scoring the greatest number of points in five designated DRYA regattas this season.

Picking up right where he left off last season was Nubby Sarns with his beautiful 44-foot sloop "Revelry", which liked the light easterly zephyrs and "clobbered" the Cruising A class as she made her bid for her third consecutive DRYA season championship.

Racing across the finish line under a full blown spinnaker
"Revelry" was nearly a mile ahead of second place "East Straw" making her debut under her new owner "Moonbeam".
Baker out of the DYC. Clare Jacobs' New York 32 sloop "Falcon" gave Bayview Y.C. first and third in this class.

Fine Two-Boat Race
Since the announced purchase of Nick Geib's 39-foot yawl "Fleetwood" by Horace
"Bobby" Ford and the rating change that placed Hank Bernard's 40-foot cutter "Meteor II" in cruising B, local tars have been waiting and speculating on the outcome of the meeting.

Hank and Bobby didn't waste any time giving the boys a show.
It was a nip and tuck battle all the way with Bobby's "Fleetwood" getting the nod by 20 seconds in one of the best two-boat scraps seen on the lake in many a moon. John Miller's "Valiant" of DYC took third.
Ford races under the colors of Grosse Pointe (Little) Club and Burkhard for Bayview.

Cruising C class produced a surprise winner in Walt Kunow's double-ended "Tempress" which took second place behind Jimmy Carlin's Pilot sloop
"Glory Bea II" out of Bayview.
Tommy Hanson, starting his second year in the class, came up with third place to give Bayview one-three places. Kunow sails for DYC.

Benkert Scores Big Win
In the Raven class Boy Winkenert had a double prize at stake, the Memorial Day regatta and first place in the Raven Spring series, and he won the whole ball of wax. The DYC regatta took the place of the canceled third race of the spring series, and he held a week early off of the Grosse Pointe Y.C. Carter Sales placed second and also took second place in the series but not until Al Bortolotti had given him a battle. Al needed a second place in the DYC regatta to take second place in the series but missed by an eyelash.
Benkert and Bortolotti fly BYC colors and Sales represents Grosse Pointe Y.C.

Alee Chapman must have put his "Nite Wind" back together just like he had her last year when he won overall honors in the North Channel race, for he chopped up the L class fleet to give North Star Sail Club its only winner of the day. Guy McNaron's "Sally K" and George McCormick's "Gael", both out of the DYC, placed second and third.

Marsh Another Winner
Reportedly a heavy weather boat "Indian Drum," out of Bayview Y.C. and under the guiding hand of her owner Sid Marsh, scored a smashing victory over the Privateer class. It was a two boat race a half hour after the start between "Indian Drum" and Oscar Carlson's "Spindrift" with the ol' privateer sailor
Jimmy Trudell at the helm.
Trudell kept "Spindrift" out in front around the first two marks but "Indian Drum" took over the lead going down the spin-maker run to win by a couple hundred yards. Bobby Roadstrum's "Cotton Top" was a distant third. All three yachts represent Bayview, 1956 champion

Future Nurses Adopt Projects

By NANCY NAGELKIRK
GPHS Journalism Student
The Future Nurses Club of Grosse Pointe High School has undertaken four service projects this semester.

Each Sunday morning, three or four girls work as volunteers at Cottage Hospital. They fill ice pitchers, water flowers, distribute mail, run errands, and carry lunch trays. They may also take a patient to be x-rayed. Washing baby bottles and distributing bay pictures are other jobs done by the girls.

Often the girls can help a patient who wants his bed raised or lowered, saving the nurse's time so that she is able to do work which requires advanced training.

This work gives the girls a view of hospital work that they would not otherwise receive.

At Easter-time, they blew out eggs to help the Women's Auxiliary of Cottage Hospital with the decorations for their charity
tea. As a more important service, they collected food to fill two bushel baskets and gave them to a needy family suggested by the Salvation Army.

The club is under the guidance of Miss Viola Elson, the school nurse. Leading the officers, Gladys Steel 11A, has served as president.

Review Club Meets June 13

The Detroit Review Club will hold its annual June luncheon, Thursday, June 13 at 12:30 p.m. at the Lochmoor Club. Mrs.
William Oddy of Three Mile drive will act as hostess for the day. Mrs. Aaron E. Wilcox, of Loraine is the club's new 1957-58 president.

Jeanne Abele Duran, fiction writer and currently a teacher of creative writing at the Women's City Club, will present
"The Creative Mind and How it Works."

Mrs. Duran will then introduce Detroit's newest celebrity
"Detroit's Writer of the Year" Vera Henry. Mrs. Henry has been published in most of the national women's magazines and has just had her first book published.

The book "A Lucky Number" is of particular interest to the Detroit area reader, as it deals delightfully and humorously with a Canadian-American relation at the Detroit border. (The same editor who purchased the "Egg and I" — also bought Mrs.
Henry's manuscript.)
Mrs. Arthur Schoeder of the Detroit Story Tellers League will dramatize one of the most hilarious portions of the book.

worthwhile after working at the hospital. The nurse can do work requiring all her training instead of filling ice pitchers which we can do just as well."

Tickertape, the paper for Future Nurses Clubs throughout the area, the club collected old glasses. These were sent to New Eyes for the Needy, Inc., a non-profit organization which provides glasses for lepers whose eyes have been weakened by the disease. Some glasses are given to people who cannot afford them.

The Club gave a tea for girls from Pierce and Parcels who showed interest in joining the club when they will be attending the high school next fall.
Miss Edna M. Hildebrand, instructor in nursing at Wayne State University, talked to the girls about the different types of training programs available for future nurses.

On May 14, the club took a field trip to St. Joseph's Retreat, a private mental hospital in Dearborn. They saw the hydrotherapy room, occupational therapy rooms where patients were weaving rugs and making ceramics, and one of the less active floors.

A staff psychiatrist, Dr. Gerald Dupler, talked to the girls about mental health and answered their questions. Sisters Rita and Pierre gave the girls an explanation of some patients' behaviors.

During the summer, the girls will continue to work at Cottage Hospital. Their work is even more important then because many adult volunteers are on vacation with their families.
As one girl said, "You really feel that you've done something

Grosse Pointe High Tennis Team Wins League Crown

With the Border Cities League championship all locked up, the Grosse Pointe Blue Devil tennis team had little to shoot for in its final two games of the season. With the pressure off, the Devils tackled the Royal Oak Acorns on Tuesday, May 28, on the local courts and won 5-2 to run their consecutive dual meet winning streak to 24 over two seasons.

Number 25 was added to the string when the Wyandotte Bears defaulted 7-0 on the following day. This was supposed to be the return match which had been rained out earlier in the season. Actually nothing was at stake as far as the final standings were concerned and the Bears figured they might just as well save the time and gasoline as they lost their first meeting with the Devils 7-0.

Acorns Were Threat
Royal Oak posed the biggest threat to the Devils' undefeated string, as they scared the Pointers in the first meeting as they lost a squeaker 4-3.

Dropping the number two and singles the Devils had their work cut out for them and came back in championship style to win the number one and four singles and all three doubles matches.

Rick Champion took the number one singles when he dropped Vern Osterland 6-2; 8-6. Tom Davies was forced to go three sets before winning the number four singles from O. Penz 5-7; 6-1; 6-3. John Nicholson and John Sparks made easy work of disposing of McKercher and Haas in the number one doubles 6-4; 6-2. Dick Granse and Tom Harrett tumbled Hayden and Melick 6-0; 6-1 and Tom Elliott and Ron Refior beat Childs and T. McKercher 6-0; 6-4.

Lost Two Singles
The only two matches lost by the Pointers came when Ron Linclau lost to John Davies 6-4; 6-2 and Pierre St. Amour lost to H. Goddard 6-4; 7-5.

Eleven boys won letters for their championship efforts which gave the Blue Devils the title for the third year in succession. The Pointers shared the title with Monroe in 1956.

Letter winners are: Rick Champion, Ron Linclau, Pierre St. Amour, Russ Everett, Tom Davies, John Nicholson, John Sparks, Dick Granse, Tom Harrett, Tom Elliott and Ron Refior.

Austin Nine Wins Crown In Division

By Tom LoCicero

Austin Catholic captured two more victories this past week and became the first team in the Catholic league to clinch its divisional championship.

Closing out the regular season with their tenth and eleventh straight wins, nine in league play, the Friars gained the Central division crown and a berth in the semi-final round play-off game for the City title for the second year in a row.

Beat Bluejays
On Monday, May 27, Austin engaged the Bluejays from St. Joseph at Belle Isle. After spotting St. Joe's 3 runs in the first inning, the Friars stormed back to make the game a complete rout. They scored 15 runs on 13 hits while pitcher Dave DeBusscher settled down to shut out the Bluejays the rest of the way and chalk up his fifth win against his fifth team.

St. Joe's three runs were the first scored against DeBusscher this year, but since all of them were unearned, he still sports a 0.00 earned run average for the season. Dave allowed only three singles, struck out eight and walked five. He also collected two hits himself to up his batting average to .461.

Austin's Bob Decker (.432) and Dick DeLamelleure (.472) each banged out three hits. A single and the game's only home run were delivered by John Brecht to knock in three runs. The Friars' big innings were the fourth and sixth, scoring four and seven runs respectively.

Almost Perfect Game
On the following day, Tuesday, against De La Salle, Friar lefthander Gary Mettie pitched a perfect game except for one pitch. Outside of La Salle's Bill Henneghan, who got on in the second inning on a scratch infield first base, Austin seemed to have left most of their runs at Belle Isle, but managed to push across two markers which turned out to be enough. In blanking the Pilots for his fourth win, Mettie struck out 11 and, of course, didn't walk anybody.

Both games, Reds vs. Phillies, at the High School, and Indians vs. Yankees at Kerby Field were fairly typical opening day games — free hitting and loose fielding predominating.

Frank Kotcher pitched for the Reds, and although he struck out thirteen of his opponents, a streak of wildness was his downfall. The Phillies winning the game 8 to 7 — Matt Rumora was the winning pitcher for the Phillies.

The last of the fabulous Stanleys pitched for the Indians at Kerby Field and was lucky to win against the Yankees when his teammates' fielding fell apart in the sixth inning. The

LITTLE LEAGUE

Some startling and unexpected results came to light in the first week of play in the City Little League. The biggest surprise came when the 1956 champion Braves dropped both of their games.

The season got underway with single games on Tuesday and Wednesday, May 28-29, with the Dodgers downing the Cardinals 5-3 on the stellar pitching performance of D. Rowlette who mowed down 10 cards with his knuckle ball and quick change of pace. Greg Piche, playing his first major league game came through like a veteran to pace the winning Dodgers with three hits and handling the catching chores admirably.

Losing pitcher J. Schmatz struck out 8 Dodgers but gave up 10 hits.

The 1956 champion Braves bumped into a tight pitcher's duel and lost 3-1 to the Cubs when Dhooge belted a sixth-inning double to drive in T. Mullin and Dave Sachs with what proved to be the winning margin. Dhooge was by far the star of this game getting two doubles and a single. He was robbed of another sure hit when Buzzy Bartholomew made a sensation at catch. Dhooge struck out 12 Braves in his winning effort. Losing pitcher Haller struck out Cubs.

Opening Day ceremonies on Memorial Day were highlighted by the presence of all the City Little League officials who along with the big crowd were on hand to watch Councilman Kenneth Bergmann toss a perfect strike to Public Safety Commissioner John Mazer to officially open the 1957 season. Superintendent Tom Trombly called the opening pitch.

In the first game of the double header the Dodgers handed the Braves their second loss in as many starts in a squeaker, 3-2. Except for some careless base running the Braves might have changed the final score. Rowlette, who plays first base when not on the mound, drove in the winning Dodger run in the sixth. It was his second hit of the game. Burns started for the Dodgers but had to be relieved in the first inning when the Braves nicked him for both their runs. Morrison finished the game and got credit for the victory.

In the second game the Cubs spotted the Cards five runs in the first inning but came back strong with a fifth-inning rally to win 8-7. DeLaura contributed the "key" single in the fifth that scored the two big runs in the fifth that produced the victory. Dhooge was the big powerhitter for the Cubs with three doubles. Mullin and Sachs added two singles apiece to give the Cubs their seven hits.

Standings as of May 30

Cubs	2	0
Dodgers	2	0
Braves	0	2

FARMS

The opening day ceremonies for the Farms Little League are held at Kerby Field on alternate years. On each of these years the league was organized the weather man has failed to cooperate. This year was no exception. The first games of the double bills at each field were completed when the clouds opened up and ended festivities for the day.

Boat Banter

By Fred Rumrells

The Detroit Yacht Club Memorial Day regatta being the first of the season, not only provided a test of sailing skill but also presented navigational problems for the fleet as it traversed the new DRYA triangular courses. The new courses are laid in their entirety on the Canadian side of the busy ship channel.

None of the skippers could find fault with the courses like they did last year when some of the marks drifted off their designated positions. Every mark of the five triangles was exactly where it was supposed to be and this is a tribute to Gil Pingree who charted the new courses and directed the anchoring of the marks.

However, all skippers were not happy over the new location. Primarily the small boat skippers had a legitimate gripe when they said the new starting line (approximately 2 miles farther out in the lake) is too far for little boats to get to unless they can wangle a tow from the bigger boats.

Usually it's not too hard to get a tow but if a little boat skipper tows up behind a big cruising boat he arrives at the starting line as much as an hour and a half before his assigned starting time. It certainly gets to be a long day when one must spend approximately seven hours in a little boat with nothing but warm beer and no "head" (toilet for you landlubbers).

The little boat guys have a good case. One suggested the DRYA officials might split up and have two judges' boats—one for the big boat courses and one for a little boat course which could be located closer to shore on the Canadian side of the lake.

Not only would a course closer in enable the little boats to get to it on their own but it would cut down the travel time to and from the race, which under the worst conditions (light air), takes only a couple of hours to sail.

Also a course closer to shore would have a safety factor. Currently, yacht clubs do not provide enough course patrol boats to watch over the little boat fleet. And certainly the Canadian Mounties, who have jurisdiction over the Canadian side of the lake, do not have the man power or the equipment to take on this chore.

We like the idea of a separate small boat course. So what if it does take more judges? Usually the committee boat is overcrowded and if half of them could be placed in charge of the small boat race on another boat then everyone would have room to work instead of stumbling over one another.

It still isn't too late in the season to make a change that would be to the benefit of all the sailors. Wasn't the new course laid out for the benefit for the big boats to get them out in deep water and away from the ship channel and the shallow dumping ground?

Let's consider the small boat skipper and his problem.

Next on the spindle for local sailors is the St. Clair Y. C. tenth annual regatta, Saturday, June 8. This regatta will follow the usual start program of regular weekly inter-club regattas. However, instead of the big boats like schooners, ketches and Cruising "A," "B" and "C" classes sailing the usual 21 mile DRYA triangular course, they will traverse the 43-mile course to the Thames River Light, back around RED NUN buoy number 30 and back to the finish line in front of the host club down river. The handicap time winner of this race will be awarded the Dr. Albert Wallaert trophy at the trophy presentations at the club at 8:30 p.m.

Warning gun is scheduled for 9:30 a.m. with Cruising A taking its start at 9:40 a.m. All other classes will follow at five minute intervals. Past Commodore Dick Brand warns that all skippers, especially of small boats, should keep a sharp eye posted for any course signal changes, as, if the weather is right, the race committee will extend the courses.

The regatta is open to all sail yacht enrolled in yacht clubs holding membership in the DRYA. Also to all members affiliated with the DRYA as well as through invitations by the Race Committee, providing entries are on file with DRYA secretary William P. Connolly, 16738 E. Warren, Detroit 24, Michigan.

Commodore Robert Drea is regatta chairman and is being assisted by Com. George Brewer, Com. Bram, Fleet Captain J. S. Barnes, George Skirtech, William Shea and Alger Rice.

Blue Devil Nine Defeated In Three Straight Games

Playing three games in as many days, the Grosse Pointe High School baseball team had a chance to finish third in the BCL race. But the Pointers lost all three to compile their worst record in five years under Coach Ed Wernet and got a fourth place finish.

However, fourth place was good enough to enable the school on Fisher road to capture the coveted All-Sports trophy by 5 points.

One of the last three games played an important part in the final standings for the trophy. That was the game against Royal Oak on Tuesday, May 28. A Grosse Pointe victory would have forced the Acorns into second place and given Fordson, Grosse Pointe's leading contender for the trophy, first place and the necessary 5 points to tie for the award.

Were Out to Win
The Royal Oak game was not one of those give away games. The Devils were out to win this one as it would have given them a higher finish in the race. To say the Pointers let the Acorns win is a figment of the imagination as the score proves. The Devils dropped this game 2-1 and up until the last inning had a chance to pull it out of the fire.

Royal Oak jumped on starting pitcher Dick Dumas for both of their runs and then held on to choke off a Blue Devil seventh inning rally to win. Dumas opened the rally with a single and Harper flied out. Price Watts was safe on a fielder's choice as Dumas was being forced at second. Gil Cox then doubled scoring Watts from second with the first Blue Devil run. Wortman screamed a long fly ball over the left fielder's head but it landed foul by six feet. He then fouled out to end the game.

Lose to Wyandotte
The following day, Wednesday, May 29, Wyandotte squeezed past the Devils 6-5 on a four run rally in the seventh inning. Grosse Pointe moved into the lead with a run in the first inning and stretched its lead to 5-2 with three runs in the third inning and another in the fifth. Wyandotte took advantage of two costly Blue Devil errors to score four runs in the last inning on four hits, two walks and two errors.

Both errors were avoidable. A simple pop fly behind the shortstop dropped to the ground behind him and filled the bases.

Grosse Pointe scored both

Highland Park tied up the game the second inning and its

d. Grosse Pointe contributed error to the Parkers cause, ch was bolstered by 6 hits.
Why the Devils finished so only this season can be pin pointed to some of the seniors to failed to live up to expecta tions and the loss of Bob Mar eau who was sidelined with contitis in his pitching arm.

Started Out Brilliantly Marcereau started out the season brilliantly with a no-her against Highland Park.
t in his second assignment was driven from the box ver to appear on the mound n this season. Last year reureau was the belling the Devils as they shared a three-way tie for the ECL own. Had he been able to form up to his potential this ar the Devils would have at least shared the crown again.
Actually it is the seniors to should shoulder the blame.
reureau's accident was an fortunate blow and he can-be blamed for the team's ure to do better.

GPUS Captures Tennis Title
Grosse Pointe University School captured the state C-D class tennis crown last Saturday, June 1, on the strength of a couple of sophomores and a junior.
Sophomores Bob Wood and George Haggarty gave GPUS its biggest boost towards its fourth state crown when they defeated Andy and Keith Johnson of Cedar Springs High School in the finals of the doubles—2-6; 6-3; 6-2. Down one set, Wood and Haggarty roared back to smother the Johnson brothers in convincing style.
Junior William Lewis, Jr., lost out in the semi-finals of the singles but it was his point that enabled GPUS to take the crown with 5 1/2 points to defeat Ypsilanti Roosevelt High School
by one point for the title.
Following in order was Cedar Springs 3; Muskegon Christian 2; Augusta 1 1/2. The four other schools in the tournament failed to score a point. They were:
Honor, East Jordan, Lansing
Everett and Standish.
In 1956 GPUS shared the title with Plainwell High School and in 1954 and 1946 were the toast

Game Highlights
In the game played between Toledo and Louisville at Lakefront Park on Tuesday, although Toledo lost by a one run margin, they came from behind after the third inning, to within one run of tying it up, under some very fine leadership and brilliant catching by a youngster named Dobbie.
Denver and Minneapolis matched run for run at Vernier and had to settle for an 11 all tie due to darkness.
Hergenrother, pitcher for Fredericks Charleston Reds, had 5 strike-outs and no bases on balls. Losing pitcher, Paul, struck out 12 and walked 1.

BABE RUTH LEAGUE

Dodgers. Parisi of the Giants was the winning pitcher. In a thrilling "pitchers' battle" the Giants edged the Braves 3-1.
Winning pitcher Alan Lang allowed two hits while Paul Bol-sen threw a one-hitter for the losers.
The Red Legs also emerged successful from the week's battles. They downed the Cards 7-4 and then trampled the Phillies 17-2. Larry Englehart and Joseph Briguglio were the winning pitchers for the Reds.
The Braves helped avenge their loss to the Giants by nosing out the Cards 4-3. Dale Anderson was the winning pitcher.
Houston moved out in front
in the Texas League as Phillip Greco turned in his second victory. Greco allowed five hits as Houston beat San Antonio 7-4.
Beaumont won their first game of the season against one loss by slugging out a 10-9 decision over Dallas. Curt Hartog was the winning pitcher giving out five hits.
MINORS
With little pomp and ceremony the Babe Ruth Minor League opened its 1957 season with a single game between the Pittsburgh Pirates and the Washington Senators with the Pirates squeaking out a 7-5 decision on Memorial Day.
Leading 5-4 going into the sixth inning, the 1956 champion Washington team appeared to be on its way to victory in the initial game of the season. In the sixth the Pirates managed to get men on second and third before Ronald Bolden hit a smashing line drive to centerfield to put hit team ahead. Paul VanHut followed with a single to score Bolden with an insurance run. The winning pitcher was Paul Blackburn.
Over the weekend, June 1-2, the rest of the teams swung in to action. On Saturday, Baltimore edged Cincinnati 9-7 in eight innings and Chicago trounced Kansas City 10-7 over the regulation seven innings.
Pittsburgh trounced Baltimore 16-9 in the first game of a double header on Sunday and Washington nipped Chicago 8-7 in the night cap.

St. Paul and Louisville

formances on Thursday at Parcells Keller going for St. Paul end of a 3 to 2 ballgame that was a pitching duel all the way, each pitcher being charged with only one earned run.

Tamblyn's Mighty Middlets, as seem to be the team to beat, having won their two first fine leadership from behind the Tamblyn seem reason enough.

Headlines of the Week

Saturday, June 1

ALGERIAN REBELS entered the village of LaMelouza, Algeria, and massacred 302 men and boys. Barefoot Moslem women staggered from the mountains and told French Army authorities how vengeful nationalist rebels killed their menfolk, sparing only males under 17 years of age. French officials termed the killings the worst incident of its kind in modern day Algeria.

French and Algerian press reported, unofficially, that the number of males killed might be 500. The French also disclosed that 35 others were mutilated and killed in Moslem-against-Moslem violence in other parts of Algeria. Some say the massacre might constitute another bloody chapter in the rivalry between the Algerian Nationalist Movement and the National Liberation Front.

GREAT BRITAIN exploded its second and biggest bomb, said to be powerful enough to be in the H-bomb class. British Air Vice Marshall W. E. Oulton, said the bomb was within the megaton range, or had the force of a million tons of TNT. A jet bomber dropped the bomb from a high altitude at the Christmas Island testing area, and was witnessed by a six-ship task force from about 35 miles away.

The British exploded their first bomb on May 15 in the same area. One more test explosion is expected.

British scientists hope to create a bomb so small it can be fitted as a warhead on an international missile. The last explosion elevated Britain to a rank with the United States and Russia in the development of nuclear weapons.

BROWN UNIVERSITY, Providence, R. I., was taking an assessment of the lives and fortunes of its silver anniversary class of 1932. Questionnaires were sent to all of the living members of that year's graduating class. One questionnaire came back with the information that the sender had become a millionaire - he married a girl with a million dollars.

Sunday, June 2

ELEVEN INCHES or rain hit already flood-ravaged Texas, with tornadoes adding to the havoc. The rain, which fell within a three-hour period, drenched the southwest cities of Uvalde and Lapyror, and a deluge came down on Lubbock, Plainview and Sherman. Tornadoes rolled across the state at Big Springs and Decatur, north of Fort Worth. No damage or casualties were reported as the result of the tornadoes, but the floods added to the devastation which has been mounting for the past two months. Today's downpours were triggered by a giant squall line moving eastward across Central Texas.

CONGRESS HAS BEEN INFORMED that a huge naval base at Long Beach, Calif., is sinking into the sea. It was also told that millions of dollars have been spent and many millions more will be needed to save the vital base. The draining of oil, gas and water from the lands in the Long Beach harbor is blamed for the sinking. Congressmen were told that while oil drillers have reaped untold millions in petroleum from under the area, the Federal Government, local government and private industry have poured millions into the project to prevent floodings.

Private oil companies were accused by Clyde Doyle (D, Calif), chairman of a Congressional subcommittee investigating the matter, of failing to cooperate in solving the critical problem.

THE UNITED STATES, after consulting with Britain, France and Canada, is preparing a net set of disarmament plans to present to Russia. Authorities predicted that under President Eisenhower's broad decisions, the American plan will concentrate on getting Soviet agreement to a phase of aerial inspection, cutting present armed forces, and starting controls on hydrogen and other atomic weapons.

Some officials are hoping an agreement can be reached with Russia within a year's time. They said the program could be well advanced by 1960. In any case, the Administration in Washington is determined to get a disarmament plan in operation by 1960.

Monday, June 3

FRENCH TROOPS killed 169 Algerian rebels and seized 30 Moslems for questioning as a retaliatory measure in the worst massacre of the 31-month-old rebellion. The captured Moslems disclaimed any connection with the slaughter of 303 persons, every male over 17, in the Village of LaMelouza, 84 miles south of Algiers. The Algerian National Liberation Front blamed the French for the massacre and cabled its protests to President Eisenhower, Pope Pius XII, Premier Jawaharlal Nehru of India and President Kliment E. Vorshilov of Russia, and also with the United Nations.

A French Government spokesman denounced the rebel charge as "odious." No French losses were reported in a 48-hour series of attacks made in various parts of Algeria by French troops.

MILLIONS OF AMERICANS viewed Soviet Communist Party Boss Nikita S. Khrushchev on their TV sets yesterday, as the pudgy, balding official sat at his desk in the Kremlin. He was interviewed for a full hour by American news correspondents on film by the Columbia Broadcasting System and was on the system's program, "Face the Nation." It was the first special TV broadcast he had ever made.

Khrushchev said the Russians will pull their troops out of East Germany, Poland and Hungary, to prove that the Red regime in Hungary could stand on its own feet without Moscow's help. In return he wants the U. S. to pull out of West Germany and France.

A BOMBING CAMPAIGN to wipe out rebel resistance is being mapped by the Cuban Government. In a ground attack by Federal troops in East-north rebels were killed and a young woman nurse was captured. The first phase of the campaign was carried out in the province of Pico Turquino, the island nation's highest mountain.

Captured was Elia Sanchez, American-educated girl in her twenties, who is believed to be the only woman with the rebel chief Fidel Castro and his band. The rebels seek the overthrow of Dictator-President Fulgencio Batista.

Tuesday, June 4

IN WASHINGTON, a high-ranking official said that the Administration is eyeing the possibility of asking for equal time on Soviet television, radio and newsreels in return for the interview granted to Communist Party Boss Nikita Khrushchev on the CBS program, "Face the Nation." Because of Soviet television limitations, emphasis will be placed on radio and newsreels. Authorities on life in Russia said that if President Eisenhower is granted the time, he would draw a tremendous audience in the Soviet Union. Among those consulted on the proposed move was Lewellyn Thompson, newly designated ambassador to the Soviet Union.

FIFTEEN RECRUITS of the West German Army were drowned in a "death march" across the raging Elbe River near Kempen, Germany. The non-commissioned officer who ordered the men into the torrent was placed under arrest, as was a section commander who vainly sought to warn the detachment back to the shore. Eighteen other recruits, with full packs and heavy equipment, made it safely to land. The incident recalled the death march of six U.S. Marine Corps recruits in a tidal stream at Parais Island, S.C., on April 8, 1956.

Wednesday, June 5

THE UNITED STATES handed over Sp. 3/C Willard S. Girard of La Salle, Ill., to Japanese civil authorities to be tried on charges of manslaughter. He is accused in the death of a Japanese woman who was hit by a blank mortar shell fired by Girard on orders of a superior officer, to clear Japanese civilians from a target range on January 30. The decision to surrender the GI was made jointly by Secretary of State Dulles and Secretary of Defense Wilson, after two weeks of intensive review into the matter, although a joint statement said Girard was acting in "the performance of his duty."

THE DU PONT COMPANY, one of the world's mightiest industrial empires, was ruled in violation of the Clayton Antitrust Act by the United States Supreme Court. The court, in a 4-2 decision, said Du Pont controls 23 percent of GM stock, thereby entrenching its self as the primary supplier of GM's requirement for automotive finishes and fabrics. The Federal District Court in Chicago will decide how much of the stock Du Pont must sell. The firm's interest in General Motors is estimated at $2,743,300,619.

He rode here on horseback from Massachusetts, driving a score of sheep for his brother-in-law. He was one of the Pointe's foremost founding fathers, George Van Ness Lothrop, statesman, famed lawyer and community leader.

Mr. Lothrop joined the law offices of James F. Joy and later went into partnership with D. Bethune Duffield. On his marriage in 1847 to Almira Strong he built one of the Pointe's first lakeshore mansions.

The huge white frame house had a broad veranda, two tall square bay windows and exquisite Chinese wallpaper. On the rolling grounds were the first tennis courts in the area. Neighbors of the Lothrop's on the shore were the Brushes, Newberrys and McMillans.

The Lothrop estate, "Summerside" stretched back to Mack avenue and on the property were groves of fir trees. The area as late as 1936 was a picnic ground where the Farms firemen held their annual outings and was always known as Lothrop's Pines.

In the spacious home the Lothrop's reared four boys and two girls. Mr. Lothrop's public career was outstanding. In those days it was more popular around here to be a Democrat. Mr. Lothrop was the first attorney general of the state and a delegate to the constitutional convention.

In 1860 he attended the Democratic convention in Charleston and spoke strongly against secession from the Union and in support of his presidential candidate, Stephen T. Douglas.

As a reward for his services to the party and his country President Cleveland appointed Mr. Lothrop Minister to Russia in 1880. Excerpts from his letters home in those days prove he felt Russia never could be invaded. His daughter, Anne, married a baron in the Chevalier Gardes, the Czarina's regiment.

His impressive home was remodeled and covered with gray stucco, even moved back 150 feet by his son Cyrus Lothrop, but 215 Lakeshore road remained a landmark until 1949 when the property was bought by Edward Skae and the house torn down.

Cyrus Lothrop's son was another attorney, George Van Ness Lothrop. His widow lives on Provincial road. Mrs. Lothrop and the street which bears this proud name keep the tradition alive today.

Preparations, and gigantic they are, for GPUS Carnival Saturday, are in the last frantic final stages with all the parents pitching into insure a tremendous take for the scholarship fund.

The white elephant booth will be crammed with rare finds but one particularly elegant lamp will be missing. The matron who donated it had to dash out to the Glancys last week and retrieve it because it was a gift from her mother-in-law, who she believed to be safely many miles away. A telegram notified her that the donor would unexpectedly be able to get away and she will be visiting over the week-end, so of course the lamp must be re-installed in its place of honor.

A corps of valiant ladies have been ticketing the cars which arrive to deposit and pick up GPUS students in the past week. That is how the red stickers advertising the Carnival were pasted on all the autos seen about the Pointe. Among the sticker stabbers were Mrs. Charles B. Johnson, Jr., Mrs. Allan Edwards, Mrs. John C. Holley, Mrs. Charles White, Mrs. William P. Harris, Mrs. William C. McMillan and Mrs. Leslie P. McDougal, Jr.

A last minute bulletin from the white elephant booth advertises a kitchen sink, a set of golf clubs, refurbished electrical appliances by the courtesy of the seventh grade boys, a suite of dining room furniture, dozens of lampshades and bird cages.

Since the Riviera Theater has opened its doors for the latest offerings from Broadway the local miladys have begun to dress to the nines for the first nights. At Judy Garland's debut on Memorial Day evening the blonde and lovely Mrs. Roger C. Hubbard was an eye-stopper in the vast lobby.

Very tan, she was wearing a severe black sheath accented dramatically with a white organdy halter tied in a sweeping bow. Her coiffure was extreme, too, with one side of her blonde bob swept back classically.

All the more to be wondered at was her stylish first night appearance as a few scant hours before she was sunning in the briefest of sky blue shorts at the Boat Club.

The post deb set is still murmuring about Ann Sherer's unusual Shakespearean party some nights back. Mrs. Joseph S. Sherer had recently had their Ridge road home redecorated, so before returning the furniture Ann decided to toss a buffet and dance. The house was decorated with scores of Roman shields and huge swathes of material with centurion flags another focal point.

A five piece band played for the guests, who all were dressed as their favorite character from the works of the Bard. Mrs. Richard Joy III, Mrs. Lawrence D. Buhl, Jr., and Eunice Hefferan made an effective entrance as the three witches from "Macbeth"; Ben Chapman was Julius Caesar in a toga and laurel wreath and Bob Cudlip donned Marine camouflage greens decked with twigs to star as Dunstan Woods.

Hostess Annie was in dramatic brown grease paint and red chiffon as a slave girl and there were scores of Roman soldiers.

PILFERINGS

Back in our day the board of education was a shingle.

Offentimes it's the mink in the closet that is responsible for the wolf at the door.

When you argue with a fool, be sure he isn't similarly engaged.

Sunday School teacher: "Why was Solomon the wisest man in the world?"
Pupil: "Because he had so many wives to advise him."

A gentleman visiting in Washington wanted to phone someone in Baltimore. It proved annoying when the operator said: "Deposit twenty five cents, please."
"What?" he cried, "twenty five cents, to call Baltimore?"
Why at home we can phone to Hades and back for a nickel.

"Oh, yes," she replied, "but that's a local call."

Pointer of Interest

EDGAR YAEGER, OF LAKEWOOD AVENUE

His oils and watercolors adorn the homes of the Fords, Buhls and Seyburns. His recent one-man show at the Artists Market drew raves. His students tout his talents because he is too modest. Much of the Pointe's artistic life has revolved about him for the past ten years. His name is Edgar Yaeger.

Mr. Yaeger is descended from an old Detroit family and he doesn't feel that the metropolis of motors is stifling to the development of the artistic soul. He is proud of his city and has contributed much of his work to it. One of his most famous murals lines the walls of Receiving Hospital. Another delights the officers in the mess at the Naval Armory. Some of his landscapes hang in the Detroit Institute of Arts beside Rembrandts and Renoirs.

Helped Found Group Here
A long time member of the Grosse Pointe Artists he was one of the original founders of the group with John Vogt ten years ago in the Neighborhood Club. Last year he spent traveling in Spain and Southern France and many of his landscapes painted in those countries were on sale at the Artists Market garden show Tuesday at Mrs. Benjamin S. Warren's home.

A shy and reticent man, Mr. Yaeger, even in his artist's smock, is far from the dramatic painter pictured by novelists and Hollywood. He is a sincere, dedicated and diligent worker, doing what he loves best.

An excellent teacher, for many years he has classes at the War Memorial. Today in his basement studio in East Jefferson avenue many Pointe matrons still seek his skillful help with their painting efforts. He also meets with a progressive art class at the Waterworks Park and he is president of the Ecclesiastical Arts Guild.

Remembers Shelley Winters
For many years he was active with the Wayne University Theater Workshop and did their scenery. He remembers Shelley Winters when she was with the group. They rode the streetcar home together.

Some of his work which can be seen in the Pointe is the Medieval mural on the walls of the Grosse Pointe High School Library. There is a stunning Italian mural, commissioned by Alexander Girard, in the B. E. Hutchinson home on Lakeland avenue. He did fabulous paintings for the still more fabulous parties given by Mrs. Lydia

Buhl in her East Jefferson home.

Mr. Yaeger lives with his brother, George Wellington Yaeger, in an apartment on Lakewood avenue. His favorite relaxation after hours at the easel is walking. He has walked from his home to the downtown city hall many times. Extremely versatile, he makes and carves his own picture frames, does ornamental ceramic, and designs lithographs on his own press.

Scholarship to Europe
He received most of his formal education here in Detroit. He studied at the old Wicker Art School in the city and during the depression won a Whitcomb scholarship to pursue his work in Europe. He spent two years then bicycling on the Continent and painting everything. He is best known for his still lifes and landscapes which some of the most prominent art collectors in the Pointe are proud to own.

Aids New Museum
At present he is engrossed in his teaching and helping to organize the new museum for Detroit Artists work in the old City Hall. This is officially titled the Detroit and Michigan Artists Memorial. He has also taken up photography recently.

Mr. Yaeger is proud that machine-minded Detroit can produce artistic talent. He is proud to be a citizen of this city and help promote love for good painting and understanding of the world's art in his fellow citizens. His quiet leadership in Detroit's art circles has done much to remove the stigma of lack of culture from our town.

Josiah Harmor Chapter Holds Election Officers
The General Josiah Harmor Grosse Pointe Chapter, Daughters of American Revolution, has elected Mrs. John Ottinger as regent for the coming year; Mrs. Paul Cowan, first vice regent; Miss Dorothy Tryon, second regent; Mrs. Hubert E. Northrup, chaplain; Miss Mary Hale, recording secretary; Mrs. Pearl Nixon, corresponding secretary; Miss Sarah Davis, Treasurer; Miss Dorothy Lewis, registrar; Miss Helen Hale, historian; Mrs. Robert Stewart, Librarian.

Directors are: Miss Mildred R. Skaglin, Miss Elizabeth Fotte and Mrs. Warren Mills.

For the June meeting Mrs. Hubert E. Northrup and Miss Eunice Lamb of Grosse Pointe Farms, will entertain the chapter in their home with a luncheon. Co-hostesses are Mrs. Pearl Nixon and Miss Elizabeth Fotte.

The chapter is very proud as six new members have been added to its membership during the year. As June is Flag month, the regent will present from the chapter, eight flags to the Cleveland School on Flag Day. This will end the chapter's meetings and programs until fall.

Honors Given By Girl Scouts

The Grosse Pointe Yacht Club was the scene of the Grosse Pointe District Girl Scouts' annual spring luncheon on June 4. The event marked the wind-up of the season's activities for leaders, troop committee members, district officers, and other adult Girl Scouts. Approximately 150 guests gathered to enjoy luncheon, a short program and the presentation of awards.

Mrs. L. Wayne Donaldson conducted group singing, after which Parcells' Girl Scout Troop 377 and their leader, Mrs. Harold Nofz, entertained with a selection of songs.

District Chairman, Mrs. E. G. Evenden introduced the guests of honor, who in turn spoke briefly. They were Mrs. Robert Dinwiddie, Jr., president of the Metropolitan Girl Scouts of Detroit; Miss Courtney Bell and Miss Helen Wolner, Field Representative from the Metropolitan Office; and Mrs. Mark Edgar, who was awarded a pin denoting 40 years of membership in Scouting.

Miss Muriel Reamore, the district's troop camp chairman, was awarded her 30 year pin as well as a "thanks" badge for her outstanding contribution to Girl Scouts.

Other awards made by Mrs. Albert Ghesquier, district awards chairman, were 15 year pins to Mrs. Harry Finlay and Mrs. T. H. Stahl, and 10 year pins to Mrs. Adam Cook and Mrs. Gordon Rogelin, all district officers. In addition 12 five year pins and 45 two year pins were presented.

The speed bug doesn't seem to affect the people who are traveling to the top.
