police department's activities
shows that policemen answered 251 calls from its residents or other departments during the month of July.

A total of $936 was collected by the violations bureau.

Twenty-three traffic accidents resulted in losses of $2,385 and two personal injuries. The only auto stolen was recovered in Grosse Pointe City.

Two breakings and enterings netted thieves $350. Two grand larcenies are listed at $408 in losses. Ten cases of simple lar-to the victims.

Policemen making their even-

These were secured and the proprietors notified.

issued to 20 persons, and 239
more came in for license renewals. Bike licenses were banded on 39 bicycles.

Five men were arrested for being drunk. Four teenage boys

ing windows with BB guns and swimming in private pools.

PASSING THE BUCK

Instead of borrowing trouble
a great many people, insist on loaning it to their friends.

"Hey, Mom! Pack my Pab-lum and an extra pair of pants—
I'm off to the pre-school playgroup program at the Grosse Pointe Woods Community Club."

Maybe it won't happen just like this, but youngsters of the four-year-old set and mothers, too, will be happy to know that once again the pre-school play program will get underway
shortly.

As past experience has proved, this program is a great boon to kids as well as to mothers. Its popularity has grown with every year until the demand for places nearly always exceeds the supply of room.

There's fun and development
to be had in this outstanding program. But more and more it's available only to those who act fast once the word gets out that reservations are open. And that word was issued this week
by those in charge of the program.

Mothers of pre-school children who are four years old or who will be four on or before December 31 are urged to note the opening of the regular pre-school play-group program registration early in September.

One of the outstanding services offered by the Grosse Pointe Woods Community Club,
the pre-school play groups have proved extremely popular. Each year in the past, by the time the program has got under way,
there have been more requests for enrollment than can be accommodated.

Consequently mothers are urged to act promptly in contacting play-group representatives so as to insure enrollment.
To get more information about the program or to reserve a space for your child, interested parents are asked to call between 12 noon and 3 p.m. either
Mrs. Raymond D'Hondt, TU
1-9965 or Mrs. George Hart-mayer, TU 4-1713.

Play groups will be held one day a week beginning in early October. The program is designed to help pre-school children prepare for kindergarten experience. To this end children are provided an opportunity to learn the give and take of group experiences and to gain the basic understandings of sharing activities with

Club Offers Group Program

The short period away once a week from the home and from mother also helps to prepare the child for kindergarten.

Pre-school activities are conducted under the guidance of the Pre-School Advisory Committee of the Grosse Pointe Woods Community Club. Under the organized program, children are enrolled in groups of 15 to 18 each. They take part in creative free play, games,
songs, simple craft, and listen to stories.

A volunteer trained and supervised by a professional staff leads each group. The volunteer is assisted by mothers who serve as assistant leaders on a rotating basis, contributing about one morning each month.

Payment of the fee, which is $3 per term, will be accepted in the 3rd and 4th weeks of September during the two evening training sessions which are required of parents whose children are enrolled. All parents will be required to present at

Preparing Props for Art Festival

—Picture by Fred Runnells
 The Grosse Pointe Artists' Association and the War Memorial are co-sponsoring a big art exhibition to be held on the beautiful Center grounds this Saturday, September 14, from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. All details are told in a story in this issue. Shown getting ready for the events are, left to right: MRS. WILLIAM J. MODRACK, MRS. ROSS TAYLOR and JOHN LAKE, director of the Center.

Center Offers Art Festival

The place to be this Saturday, September 14, between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. is the grounds and gardens of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial where the Grosse Pointe Artists' Association is staging what promises to be one of the most colorful events of the season, an Art Festival featuring the works of some of the best Grosse Pointe and Detroit artists.

There is no charge to view this display. The lawn and Memorial Gardens will be dotted with colorful paintings attended by blue, smocked artists. Pennants and flags will fly in the breeze.

On the pergola overlooking the lake sandwiches and coffee will be sold.

By the formal garden pool, artists will be on hand to make quick portraits of those who wish them.

Prizes which have been donated for an afternoon drawing include a John Carroll lithograph, an Edgar Yaeger sketch, an Agnes Lindeman oil painting and a Corinne Dolega water color.

All the paintings on display will also be offered for sale.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Douglas Smart, president of the Grosse Pointe Artists' Association, a large and enthusiastic committee has been preparing all summer to make this a memorable and festive occasion for the community.

Just a few of the many who have donated their time and energies are: Mrs. Donald Newell in charge of exhibits, Mrs. Frank Peslar arranging publicity, Mr. Edgar Yaeger contributing posters and outlining the staging, Mrs. Thomas Jeffries in charge of refreshments, Mrs. Curtis Carmichael securing easels and painting banners.

Stamp Collectors Plan Big Show

The philatelists will have a field day in Detroit, Michigan, on September 28-29, when they will display their hobby at the Tuller Hotel for the benefit of the 75,000 stamp collectors in Greater Detroit.

Over a million dollars worth of stamps will be displayed at this exhibition and bourse.

The National Philatelic Museum of Philadelphia, The Philatelic Foundation of New York, and the Smithsonian Institute, Washington, D. C., the three greatest philatelic institutions in the United States, will have over 60 frames of outstanding philatelic items on display, never shown in Detroit before.

The Detroit Historical Museum has established a permanent philatelic section at the Museum. The opening of the first show was July 22, Detroit's 256th birthday. The first exhibit used for this show, which runs for two months, is a collection of Detroit's 250th birthday, collected and donated to the museum by Heinz Hoffmann.

Dr. James J. Matejka's Grand Award, Newfoundland collection from the C.P.S. Exhibition, Toronto, Ontario, Canada will show the non-stamp collecting public the many interesting and educational features this avocation contains.

Allen Lichtig, a well-known Detroit Philatelist, will answer questions at the Great Lakes Stamp Show pertaining to philately and stamp collecting.

Postmaster E. L. Baker will have a substation at the show. The station will have for sale to the public all stamps now available at the Philatelic Agency in Washington, D.C.

The Boy Scouts examination for a philatelic merit badge is another feature of the exhibition. A sheet of the new 4c flag stamps, signed by Postmaster General Summerfield, is going to be presented by Postmaster E. L. Baker to the Boy Scout with the highest points.

The design of the souvenir cachet for the Great Lakes Stamp Show is similar to the 1955 Soo Locks stamp issue. Covers will receive at the Tuller Hotel substation a special cancellation issued for this occasion by the Post Office, recording on a fine souvenir cover another Detroit historical event in stamp collecting.

These attractive artist designed cachet envelopes can be had for 10c each or three for 25c. Send orders to Ward H. Akema, 1151 Wayburn Avenue, Grosse Pointe 30, Michigan.

One good turn deserves another, but don't expect it to act as a boomerang.

The Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra has resumed rehearsals on Wednesday evenings in the Pierce Auditorium from 7:30 to 10 and a cordial invitation is extended to any musician capable of playing an orchestral instrument and who would like to be a member of the orchestra, to attend a rehearsal, and talk to the conductor Henri Nosco.

A brief coffee hour usually follows each rehearsal, giving the players an opportunity to get acquainted with one another and relax after playing. If it is impossible to attend a rehearsal in the near future, a postcard may be sent to Thomas V. Locicero, 1105 Three Miles drive, Grosse Pointe 30, giving the name, telephone number and instrument, and the person will be contacted.

The 1957-58 season begins the fifth year of symphonic music in Grosse Pointe, a self-supporting community project that has become most successful and with Mr. Nosco as conductor for the coming season, it promises to be a most outstanding one in every respect.

The orchestra of 60-70 members is made up of musicians who love to play symphonic music together. There are doctors, lawyers, engineers, housewives, students and others from various walks of life who have a tremendous appreciation of this opportunity of creating good music and of sharing that music with others.

Four concerts have been planned for the coming season and in order to assure the orchestra of an appreciative audience to enjoy them, an extensive membership campaign is now under way under the direction of A. Russel Werneken.

A membership card in the Symphony Society which entitles the owner to attend all the regular concerts during the season is $5 for adults and $3 for students. All those interested in joining are urged to send in their subscription as soon as possible to Grosse Pointe Park 30, Michigan, or phone Mrs. Robert P. Armstrong, TU 5-2452; Mrs. Winfield S. Jewell, Jr., TU 5-8861; Mrs. Thomas V. Locicero, TU 5-6693; or A. Russel Werneken, TU 5-9264. Miss Camilla Ayres, membership secretary, will mail your season ticket upon receipt of your application and check.

Book Discussion Group Forming

A first year Great Books Discussion group will again be sponsored by the Friends of the Library. The first meeting of the season will be held on September 18 at 8 p.m. at the Central Library, Kercheval and Fisher.

This group is being formed in response to the requests of the people of the community.

This makes two such groups for Grosse Pointe this year—a second year discussion group that began under the Friends' sponsorship will continue its activities, under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. John Connelly.

The program is a means of continuing liberal education for adults. There are no course credits, no examinations, no graduation. There are no formal requirements.

For two hours, twice a month, the persons who comprise a Great Books Discussion Group gather around a table. Their reading preparation during the previous two weeks has been taken about five hours. The books in the first year readings, starting with the Declaration of Independence, cover a wide range of time and thought, from Plato to Tolstoy. The books themselves are the teachers, as are the participants. Two discussion leaders, by asking questions, encourage around the table conversation, encourage it and keep it interested.

Interested persons may still sign up for the first year group by calling the Central Library, TUxedo 4-2200.

Kids' Theater Now Enrolling

The Grosse Pointe Children's Theater announces that enrollment for this year's classes will be held Saturday, September 14, from 10 to 3, at the War Memorial Center.

The course will last 15 weeks, meeting every Saturday at the Center. It will be divided into two sections, according to age level, and is open to children from the ages of 7-15. The younger group will meet from 10 to 2 and the older ones from 2 to 3. Anyone wishing further information is advised to call the Director, Mrs. Syd Reynolds, TU 5-6219.

It took 7,667,941 lbs. of fresh and frozen vegetables to serve the bluejackets at the world's largest Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill., during the past year.

Burglar Invades Hickey's Home

A burglar broke into the home of the Stark Hickeys, 115 Lake Shore road on Monday, September 2, but did not take anything, Farms police said.

Mr. and Mrs. Hickey arrived home Monday, after a long weekend out of town to find that their home had been broken into.

They told police they left town on Friday, August 30. Their maid left the house the following day, at about 2 p.m.

The Hickeys said they returned home to find a screen door lock on the terrace of the house broken, and a large side door jammed. A basement door had also been broken open and a large metal liquor cabinet door was forced, and a jewelry case broken into.

Police said that as far as could be determined, nothing was taken.

MSU to Offer Reading Course

In response to local requests, Michigan State University will offer one extension course this fall term in Grosse Pointe.

The course, to begin September 19, is entitled "Diagnosis of Reading Difficulties."

Interested residents of the Detroit Metropolitan area may register at the first session of the class, according to the announcement from the East Lansing campus. The course will carry three term hours of graduate or undergraduate credit.

The class will meet Thursdays from 4 to 7 p.m. at the Central Public Library.

This course is coming to Grosse Pointe as part of the continuing education program of the M.S.U. College of Education.

This course is to train public school teachers in techniques and procedures for diagnosing retarded reading cases. Emphasis is on laboratory experience in the use of standardized diagnostic reading test and construction of informal diagnostic instruments.

M.S.U. is expanding its off-campus courses throughout the state to provide additional educational services to the residents. Both credit and noncredit courses are scheduled in response to requests for such subjects.

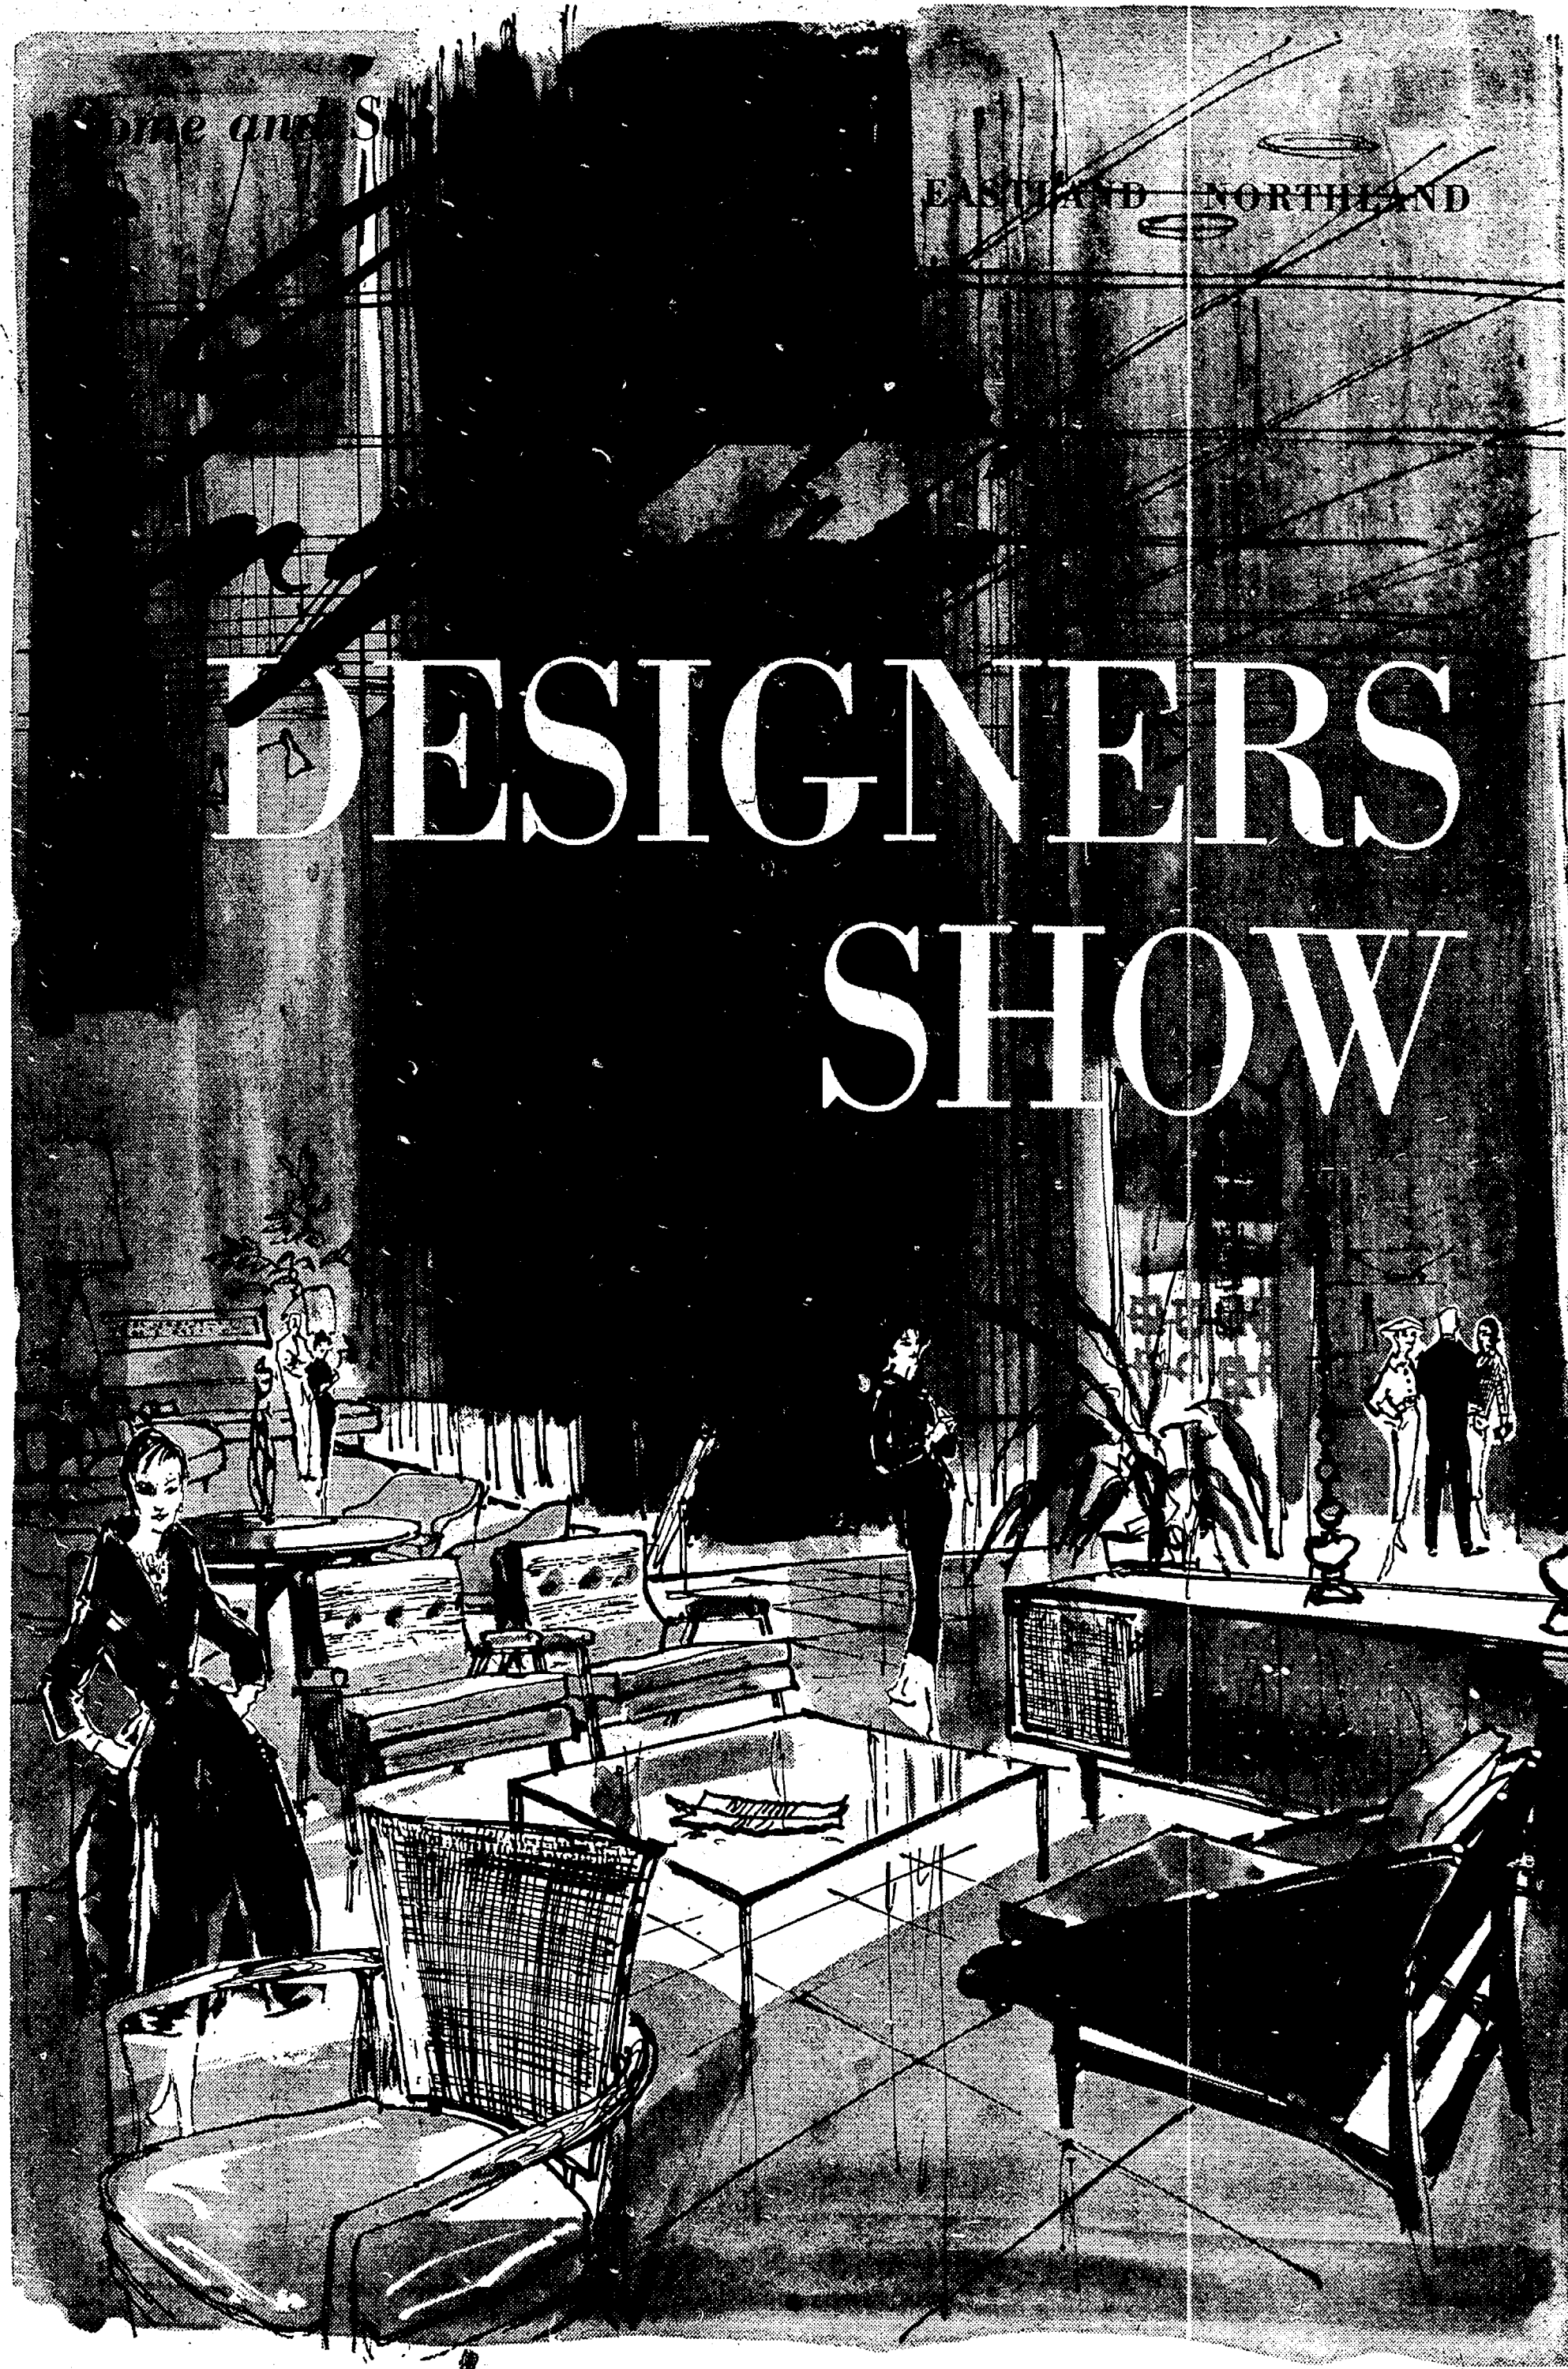

Interested residents may obtain further information about this course by contacting local school officials or by writing to the Continuing Education Service at Michigan State University, East Lansing.

Clothes Line Ten Years Old

Ten years ago, Miss Sarah Hendrie's decorating business was bought by Mrs. Charles Symington, to be converted into The Clothes Line, Inc., which is celebrating its tenth anniversary this week as one of Grosse Pointe's most exclusive dress shops.

The attractive building on Fisher road, readily distinguished by its charming little garden, acquired an addition five years ago which includes a conveniently located, much-needed, parking lot.

When you are contemplating revenge, it is well to remember that every other line of work pays better.

Program Plans Announced By Woods Community Club

Fall and winter program plans have been announced by the Grosse Pointe Woods Community Club.
There will be activities for all age groups open to all residents of the Grosse Pointe School District.
The morning program will be for four and five-year-old children on a group basis in which children under adult leadership will engage in songs, games, stories, crafts, and free play suitable to the pre-school age child.

Children learn to play with other children, to experience a short break from the home, learn new skills, and have an opportunity to relate to an adult other than the parent.
Grade school age children each have one afternoon of activities per week and they are engaged in games, sports, crafts, hikes, and woodworking with children of like ages and sex.

Each activity is supervised and conducted by class students, adults in the community and Community Club staff. Junior Hi and Senior Hi students have activities in the evening hours and activities include co-ed groups, sports, and crafts.
Group activities at the Community Club provide children and youths with the opportunity to meet new friends, engage in recreational activities, improve old skills, and learn new ones, enjoy the fun of participating with others and to learn skill in the give and take of group and life, and the responsibility inherent to group activities. Fees are charged for this program.
Registration for these groups is planned to begin the week of September 16th. The groups should start meeting the week of September 23rd. Enquiries into the Club program may be made by calling TUxedo 4-2050, or by stopping in the Club which is located at 20883 Mack. The Community Club is a Torch Fund agency of the United Community Services.

HIGH ESTIMATE
The policy of taking people for what they think they are worth keeps a lot of bill collectors busy.

Choir Director

When the Youth Choirs of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church meet for the first time in September, they will have as their new director MARIAN JOHNS. Mrs. Johns will replace Marie Joy Curtis, who directed the choir for the past eleven years and who has resigned to permit more time for graduate study and writing.

Mrs. Johns is a graduate of Salem College, Winston-Salem, North Carolina. While majoring in music education there, she conducted church choirs in her native Moravian Church, was student director of the Salem College Choral Ensemble, and founded and conducted an orchestra. Prior to her marriage, she taught vocal and instrumental music in Forest Park School, Winston-Salem.

As a student at the Christenson Choral School in Chambersburg, Pennsylvania, Mrs. Johns met her husband, Malcolm, organist and choirmaster at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. In 1953, this family team organized the Grosse Pointe Community Chorus, and Mrs. Johns acted as assistant director until this spring.

The Junior Choir will rehearse on Thursday afternoons from 4:15 until 5:30. They will sing for the first time on Sunday, September 29, at the 9:30 church service, and will appear thereafter on alternate Sundays.

Membership in the Senior Choir is open to young people of high school age. Auditions and robe assignments for this group will be held on September 11 and 12 from 3:30 to 5:30 in the Men's Lounge of the church. Rehearsals are scheduled for Saturday mornings from 10:30 until 12. The group will make its first appearance on World Wide Communion Sunday, October 6, at the 11:00 church service, and thereafter on alternate Sundays.

Chairman of the choir mothers for this year will be Mrs. William Krebs and Mrs. Kenneth McMillin.

For further information concerning the Youth Choir program, please call Mrs. Johns at TU 1-4957.

REPORTS LOST RING

Guy W. Gunn of 1161 Torrey road, reported to Farms police on Sunday, August 25, that while he was working around a new building at 18546 Mack, he lost a man's gold-diamond ring valued at between $500 and $600.

Law Breakers Pay in Woods

Nineteen adults and juveniles were arraigned before Woods Judge Don Goodrow on Saturday, August 24, for traffic violations and other charges.
Seven juveniles, all boys, were brought before the judge in three different groups, and were found guilty of possession of alcoholic beverages in their cars. They were assessed court costs totaling $100.

Walter Bertschinger of 3495 Berkshire, Detroit, was found guilty of reckless driving and was fined $50.

Possession of fireworks brought a fine of $10 against James W. Burns of 1098 N. Brys drive.

Owner-Dog Training Class Offered at High School

These well-behaved canine citizens are the product of a recent Owner-Dog Training Class in the old gym at the Grosse Pointe High School. Fall classes offered by the Department of Community Services, will begin on Tuesday, October 1, at 7:30 p.m.

People who wish to enter the course are to report to this first meeting of the class without their dogs. There will be a brief explanation of the work, a demonstration by former students and then enrollment by those who are seriously interested and have made an advance reservation at the Office of the Department of Community Services.

Instruction is provided by the Southern Michigan Obedience Training Club, a club whose members serve in the capacity of instructors without pay. These people have all had the experience of training their own dogs, and make a hobby of instructing others in their proven techniques.

This program was established nine years ago as a service to the residents of the Grosse Pointe School District, and was the first of its kind to be offered as an adult education course. Since that time similar classes have been initiated in Pontiac, Berkley, East Detroit, Ferndale, Redford and Bloomfield Hills.

Head instructor will be Donald M. Carson, who has served in this capacity for some years. Mr. Carson will have five assistant instructors, all local, representing S.M.O.T.C.

The course is based on exercises approved by the American Kennel Club, and the degree of success attained in the training of a dog depends entirely on the handler's interest and willingness to follow instructions and practice faithfully. With this in mind, only those people who are seriously interested in following through with 10 weeks of required daily practice and class work should apply.

During the course of instruction, students will learn how to teach their dogs to walk quietly beside them in the "heel" position under any condition, to stay in one place on command and to come when called.

Hundreds of owners, and their dogs, too, can testify that an obedience trained dog is not only a happier and more satisfied pet, but also a better canine citizen of the community.

Registration may be made for any dog six months or older, regardless of pedigree or ancestry. While this course is primarily for adults, children 12 years of age or over, may enroll if their parents will assist in their guidance.

All classes are limited in enrollment, and advance registration is required. Class reservation and further information may be obtained by calling the Department of Community Services at TU 5-3808 or TU 5-0271.

Cider, distilled white and tarragon vinegars are made for certain purposes. Cider vinegar is an all-purpose vinegar, but is a favorite for salads and salad dressings. Distilled white is absolutely pure and best for pickling and preserving. Tarragon vinegar is seasoned with herbs and is used sparingly, because its flavor is prominent and distinctive.

Murray-Bishop Vows Spoken at St. Paul's

In Her Great-Grandmother's Satin Wedding Gown
Blanche Emmalyn Bishop Wed Saturday Noon
To John Charles Murray

In the heavy cream satin gown worn by her great-grandmother, grandmother and mother Blanche Emmalyn Bishop was married Saturday noon in St. Paul's on the Lakeshore to John Charles Murray.

The gown has a square neckline filled with duchess lace and a heavily embroidered panel extending to the hemline. More of the embroidery accents the court train which sweeps from the shoulders.

Her pointe rose veil, also an heirloom, was worn mantilla fashion and she carried Amazon lilies, stephanotis and greens.

In a Dior blue satin sheath with a matching tulle over skirt, wide satin belt and shallow scoop neckline was maid of honor, Bernadette Thibodeau. Her small veiled matching cap was velvet accented with seed pearls. She carried mums and cornflowers.

The attendants, gowned like the honor maid and carrying white mums, were Mary Margaret Murphy, Patricia Kennedy, of River Forest, Ill.; Lynn McQuinn, of Chicago and Sally Snowday.

Sally Margaret Blake and Mary Letitia Kotcher were junior bridesmaids in blue satin sheaths, their caps without veils. They carried small colonial bouquets of mums and cornflowers.

Mr. Murray asked his brother, Thomas, to be his best man. They are the sons of the John D. Murrays, of Fischer road.

Another brother, Richard Murray, and the bride's cousin, F. X. Kotcher, Jr., were altar boys for the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of the Charles W. Bishops, of St. Paul avenue.

Seating the guests were Terence Kilbride, Raymond DesRosters, John Cook, Thomas Robinson, Bishop, Allan Cosgrove, Michael Thompson and Robert Knapp.

For her daughter's wedding and the breakfast which followed at the University Club Mrs. Bishop chose a toast lace gown with satin panels and a corsage of green cymbidium orchids.

Mrs. Murray was in champagne lace and peau de soie with brown cymbidium orchids.

Following a wedding trip to Florida the newlyweds will make their home on Seven Mile road.
