HEADLINES

of the
WEEK

As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, March 13
WALTER P. REUTHER said Wednesday that if other anti-recession measures fail, the Government should halt tax withholding from workers' pay for 90 days.
Reuther said the withholding tax could be suspended for a period of less than 90 days, if desired. In any event, he said, the forgiven tax should not have to be made up later.
Reuther outlined his idea to 1,000 AFL-CIO leaders in Washington from all over the country, to press Congress for anti-recession moves.

AN AIR FORCE disaster team found only twisted bits of metal and a trace of harmless radioactivity Wednesday around the crater dug Tuesday in a country garden by a wayward, but "unarmed," atomic bomb.

The main part of the bomb, containing uranium, apparently had been blown to bits—but without nuclear fission—along with the rest of the device.

An Air Force spokesman said that "everything" dropped accidentally from a B-47 jet bomber was destroyed when the A-bomb trigger exploded on impact. Seven buildings were damaged and six persons were injured.

A GOVERNMENT DECREE suspended civil rights throughout revolt-torn Cuba again Wednesday and set off a cabinet crisis. President Batista rode out the storm but saw his "peace cabinet" walk out en masse.

Batista immediately named a new cabinet. The premier went to Gonzalo Gueill, former Minister of State. Most of the other ministers were reappointed.

Friday, March 14
THE SENATE Thursday night rejected a proposal to cut personal income and Federal excise taxes by about $5-200,000,000. The vote was 71 to 14.

The sponsor of the bill, Senator Douglas (D., Ill.), had proposed to give each individual income taxpayer a $50 reduction for one year. He would have done this by lowering from 20 to 15 percent the rate on the first $1,000 of taxable income.

Also included in the proposal was a halving of the 10 percent excise on passenger cars, which would amount to 500 million. He included this only after the big car companies and the dealers assured him they would pass it along to car buyers.

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER and Britain's Prime Minister Harold Macmillan will meet in Washington June 9-10 for general discussions which may include the possibility of a summit conference.

Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said Macmillan will come to Washington after visiting DePauw University (Greencastle, Ind.) where he will give the commencement address June 8.

Mr. Eisenhower and Macmillan last met in Paris in December at the time of the NATO conference there.

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER again talked over the economic situation with his advisers Thursday after new pressure developed for tax cuts and heavier spending. This pressure was brought by AFL-CIO leaders who told Mr. Eisenhower the recession is growing worse, and to wait for improvement is not the cure.

In a major anti-recession announcement, the Defense Department promised to raise to 10 billion dollars the amount of job-providing contracts it will place in the first six months of the year.

Saturday, March 15
A SOCIALLY PROMINENT Detroit attorney was accused Friday of embezzling nearly $15,000 from the Michigan Chapter of the Nephros Foundation. William O. Kroner, Jr., has confessed using

Scouts Practice Disaster Mobilization

The first Boy Scout emergency disaster practice mobilization was a success Saturday morning when the great majority of Troop 147 at Defer School turned out on the lawn of the Park Municipal Building. It was assumed that a tornado, striking the area, had wiped out all normal communications and the scouts were called to act as emergency messengers. Scoutmaster EARL HOYTE with his assistant KELSEY McDAID and troop committee chairman MELVIN NYLUND organized the boys from a tent pitched on the Park City Hall lawn. By 10:30 o'clock the practice was judged a success and the leaders took the boys to the Park pier for a cookout.

LA Letter Lauds Park Police Work

Cites Fine Job Done in the Apprehension of Criminals
Last January

A letter from Los Angeles Police Chief W. H. Parker to Park Police Chief Louwers expressed appreciation for the fine work done in the apprehension of two men last January 31, whose arrests cleared up a series of crimes.

Chief Parker said that the two men, John Cutler, 18, and William J. Ogg, 19, both of Los Angeles, have been successfully prosecuted and are presently serving long terms in prison for crimes committed in that city.

The letter, dated March 4, stated that the thorough report made by Chief Louwers, which was submitted to the LA authorities helped clear up 21 burglaries and thefts cases, including two robberies, committed by Cutler and Ogg, and a third man, and in the recovery of $1,200 in loot.

Still in Jail
The third member of the gang, Samuel A. Scalfani, 26, of 939 St. Johns, Lincoln Park, Mich., was arrested with Cutler, but will be prosecuted in Wayne County on charges of passing several hundreds of

Over 10,000 Use Fine Facilities at Schools After Classes Every Month

Over a Hundred Different Organizations Meet in 14
Grosse Pointe Schools Regularly Announces Bert
Wicking, President of Board of Education

Every month more than ten thousand Grosse Pointe citizens use the facilities of the Grosse Pointe Public Schools of school hours, Bert Wicking, President of the Board of Education announced today.

"These are in addition to those who use the pools, or any of our athletic facilities, and those enrolled in the Adult Education Program," Wicking stated.

"Over 100 different organizations meet regularly in one of our 14 buildings," he said, "and many others meet intermittently. They include town meetings, Boy and Girl Scout activities, church gatherings, square dance club affairs and many others. Schools are also often used as polling places for municipal and school elections."

"There are many demands for the fine, large auditoriums of the secondary schools. Community organizations such as the Symphony and Community Chorus practice and present their programs in the Junior High School auditoriums which seat 900. The Tuxis variety show recently filled Parcels auditorium on three consecutive nights.

"Organizations such as the Optimist's Club will fill the Pierce Auditorium for several performances of their annual minstrel show. St. Ambrose High School also uses it on different occasions during the year and overflow crowds at

Free Marine Vet of Murder

John Herdegen, 30, of 19298 Edgfield, Harper Woods, an Iwa Jima Marine veteran, was found innocent on Wednesday, March 12, in the drowning of Robert Hyde, 32, of 188 Moross, a former Woods policeman.

A Macomb County Circuit Court jury of eight men and four women, deliberated five hours before finding Herdegen not guilty of a charge of second degree murder. He had been accused of throwing Hyde into Lake St. Clair on the night of June 1, 1957.

The former Marine pleaded self-defense. He testified he threw Hyde into the lake during a struggle aboard a borrowed cabin cruiser. He said he became panicky after circling the body, went to shore and then home.

Hyde's body was found floating near a breakwater off Jefferson Beach Marine in St. Clair Shores.

Herdegen was picked up for questioning because he was the last person to have seen the former policeman alive. Under questioning by Macomb County authorities, Herdegen told of the struggle and the subsequent drowning.

APPROVE EMPLOYEES

Firemen Donald Herbert and Thomas Chappell and Patrolman John J. Farley were approved as regular employees by the Farms council on Monday, March 17. Their permanent employment was recommended by their respective departments which, who said the three had completed their probationary periods satisfactorily.

Burglars Loot Store In Woods

Steal $618 Worth of Equipment;
Thieves Scared Off
Before They Finished

Burglars who broke into the Pointe Electronics store, 19755 Mack avenue, on Saturday, March 15, made off with only half the loot they had expected to take, according to Woods police.

Stolen were radios, tape recorders and other equipment valued at a total of $618.50. Approximately $600 worth of similar type of equipment, was found near the door through which entrance was gained.

Det. Sgt. Walter O'Dell and Det. Leroy Tobian said that the thieves were apparently frightened off before they could complete their looting.

The officers said that Donald Van Dame, owner of the store, closed his place about 9:30 p.m., on March 14, and when he opened again the following day, discovered the theft.

Break Window

The detectives revealed that the burglars broke a 14 by 20-inch window pane of the garage door at the rear of the place. One of the thieves stood outside and received the goods from the other person, who, it appeared, was small enough to squeeze through the opening.

The loot was gathered and placed near the door, of the

Approve Mack Lane in Park

The center left-turn lane on Mack avenue will be extended from Alter road to Somerset as soon as the lane painting season starts, it was announced by Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers.

The chief said that he was informed by the Wayne County Road Commission that his petition to further the control lane has been approved and necessary plans have been prepared. Chief Louwers said that this area has been responsible for a majority of the traffic fatalities that have occurred in the Park over the years. The lane will help eliminate traffic hazards, he added.

Mrs. Henry B. Joy Leaves $32,000 To Pointe Groups

City Mourns Gracious and Benevolent Leader
Of Society who Died Last Week
In Her Lakeshore Road Home

Grosse Pointe church and civic groups that benefit from the $180,000 left in her will by the late Mrs. Henry B. Joy for philanthropic purposes include the War Memorial Church and Cottage Hospital.

Under the terms of Mrs. Joy's will, the hospital, which she helped found, will receive $25,000; the church, $5,000 and the War Memorial, $2,000.

The tiny, white-haired patrician left an estate estimated at $5,000,000 following her death of a heart attack on the evening of March 13 at "Fair Acres," her home at 299 Lake Shore road.

The bulk of the estate has been left in trust for her four grandchildren. They are Joy Lee Peteria, of Stonington, Conn.; Marian Lee Mikesell, of Tucson, Ariz.; Eunice Lee Fuller, of Winter Haven, Fla., and Henry B. Joy III, of 274 Provencal road. Ten great-grandchildren are to receive $10,000 each.

Mrs. Joy's daughter, Mrs. Helen Joy Lee, of Stonington, and son, Henry B. Joy, Jr., of Grosse Pointe Farms, have each been left $100,000, the will noting that both were amply provided for at the time of the senior Mr. Joy's death in 1936.

$175,000 to Individuals
Other relatives, friends and employees will receive a total of $175,000.

With Mrs. Joy's passing, a truly great and gracious lady has been lost to a world much in need of the wisdom and wit, the benevolence and remarkable strength of character which were hers in such abundance.

Reams have already been written about Mrs. Joy's childhood in the big Victorian mansion of her parents, John S. and Helen Handy Newberry, on East Jefferson avenue; her education in Detroit and Washington, D.C.; her marriage at 23 to the late Henry Bourne Joy in 1892, son of a socially and industrially prominent family and later president of the Packard Motor Car

Daughter Hurt In Car Collision

Failure to respect a stop-sign resulted in a ticket, two damaged automobiles and injury to a passenger Sunday, March 16.

Mrs. Delores E. Banish, of 5071 Woodhall, in Detroit was ticketed for reckless driving after smacking into a car driven by Albert A. Bolden, 325 Rivard boulevard, at the corner of Lincoln and Chalfonte.

She was headed South on Lincoln and Bolden was going west on Chalfonte at the time of the impact. Mrs. Banish's daughter, Joyce, 15, was treated at Bon Secours hospital for a cut on her forehead, and both cars were towed to the City police station.

Awning on Fire

As close as could be determined, the fire was started by a cigarette which had been tossed on the awning.

A thorough investigation is currently underway at the High School for the offenders in this matter, Chief Trombley has spoken to the students again over the P. A. system and is offering a reward for any information leading to the apprehension of the guilty party—or parties.

GP Rotary Show Funds Carry on Area Services

The Grosse Pointe Rotary Club's four-day Antique Show, to be held from May 6 through the 9, this year, at the War Memorial Center, is for the purpose of raising funds for the Pointe Rotary Foundation which helps maintain the organization's many community service projects.

Annually, for the past two years, the Pointe Rotary Club has presented an outstanding antiques show, composed of exhibits from approximately 20 well-known antique dealers from all over the country. The quality of these exhibits is guaranteed by Mr. Sam Yeagley, manager, who directs many of the best shows throughout the United States. All of the wares shown by the dealers will be for sale

County Road Commission Okays Job

Project Set to Start Early
This Summer and Will Cost About $600,000

The Wayne County Road Commission will widen and improve Moross road (Seven Mile road) from Kelly road in Detroit, to almost near Chalfonte avenue in the Farms, the Farms council was informed at a meeting on Monday, March 17.

George Lang of 465 Kerby road, a former councilman of the city, and currently representing the Farms on the Wayne County Board of Supervisors, outlined the proposed project in detail.

It was primarily through his efforts that the Road Commission authorized the program, which is expected to cost about $600,000, and will take in about two and a half miles of the road.

Lang said that survey of the project was started last August and was completed in October, and that plans have been drawn up and approved.

The improvement will tend to expedite traffic and will eliminate the traffic jams which constantly occur at Mack and Moross, he said. New traffic lights, with turn blinkers, will be installed at this intersection, which will help end the jams, he added.

Begin This Summer

Construction of the road will definitely start in early summer, Lang said, and will take about a year to complete. This will be excellent, he said, because of the fact that the expressway along Harper will reach Moross about 1960. Moross road, he pointed out, will be an interchange for the expressway.

In his explanation to the council, Lang illustrated his talk with a road sketch of the plan.

He said the construction will start at Kelly road to about a 1,000 feet east of Mack on Moross.

New Curbs and Sewer

From Kelly to Chandler Park drive, a concrete curbing and a sewer system will be installed, and from Kelly to this point, the road will be about 38 feet wide, with three traffic lanes on each side of the road.

From Chandler, the road will widen to 48 feet on each side of an 18-foot island. The existing center island on Mack south of Moross will be lopped off about 10 feet, and the island north of Mack will lose about four feet.

East of Mack, the road will be widened to a width of 38 feet on each side of the island,

Woods Police Warn Drivers

Woods Director of Public Safety Vern C. Bailey issued a warning to drivers who wantonly drive over lawns, stressing that violators will be dealt with severely.

The director said a majority of the complaints of residents blame young drivers.

"Violating drivers will be locked up," Director Bailey said, "and I assure you, the court will not go easy with these people."

He said that his department has received numerous complaints over the last two months. The cooperation of citizens is needed, in that they should take the license plate number of the erring driver, when possible, and report them to the police.

He said that the driving over lawns is not accidental, but very deliberate. Residents spend considerable sums in maintaining beautiful lawns, and then some motorist drives over the lawns, creating ugly ruts.

Director Bailey pointed out that this violation constitutes malicious destruction of property, and is a high misdemeanor under State law, and is punishable by a year in jail, a $500 fine, or both.

Parents of youthful violators will be brought into the case, the director added.

EXCHANGITES TO MEET

The Grosse Pointe Exchange Club will host the Metropolitan Council of Exchange Clubs on Tuesday, March 25, at the War Memorial Center, at 6:30 p.m.

Skating in Pointe Parks Draw Record Crowds

Winter sports enthusiasts by the thousands took advantage of the cold weather that provided extra skating time at the various Pointe municipal parks this winter.

Although the number of days in which skating was permitted varied in each of the parks, recreation officials agreed that this winter, more skaters made use of skating facilities than ever before.

Skating was provided for on regular skating rinks, wading pools and on the lake, when the water receded and the ice rested solidly on the lake bed, near the shore.

The number of persons using the parks were given in rough estimates; the number of skating days are fairly accurate. They are:

Park—42 days, with 40,000 persons using the pool, lake and a rink on the city-owned parking lot on Alter road.

City—55 days for the wading pool, and 44 days on the lake, with an average of about 70 persons a day using both. An area for beginners was walled in near the swimming area near the breakwall; lake ice skating was unrestricted, weather providing.

Farms—47 days, with 25,000 people taking part in the sport. Skating was provided in two big rinks, one inside the harbor and one on the parking lot near the bathhouse, and on the lake.

Woods—65 days, and 32,000 persons skating in the large rink just outside the bathhouse, and on the lake.

Shores—60 days, with about 18,000 skaters. Rinks in the park and a walled in area on the lake was opened for both daytime and nighttime skating.

It was pointed out that in other years, skating days averaged about 35 each winter. This season, it was said, was perhaps the best on record.

Pointer Directs Michigan Week

Foster Winter, vice president of the J. L. Hudson company in charge of real estate and civic affairs, will direct the 1958 Michigan Week celebration in Wayne County.

His appointment as head of the Michigan Week committee in state's largest county, was announced today by Paul R. Carnahan, president of the Great Lakes Steel corporation and Michigan Week regional chairman for southeastern Michigan.

With water resources and education being highlighted in this year's observance, scheduled for the week of May 4, the celebration is expected to reach a new peak in this area due to its position on the St. Lawrence Seaway and the growing importance of its educational institutions in the advancing scientific age.

Mr. Winter is selecting a committee to cover every phase of the seven-day program and plans a general planning session in the near future. Chairman will be named and organizations set up in each community of the county.

After receiving his high school education in Detroit, Mr. Winter graduated from the Detroit College of Law in 1955. He started with the J. L. Hudson company as an assistant to the secretary-treasurer and in 1948 was named treasurer and elected to the board.

Active in civic affairs he is a trustee of the Urban Land Institute, a director and member of the executive committee of the Great Lakes St. Lawrence Seaway association, chairman of the board of the Central Business District association, president of the Municipal Parking Authority, a member of the executive committee of the Citizens' Redevelopment corporation and the Mayor's Detroit Tomorrow committee.

He is also a director of the Traffic Safety association, a trustee of the Y. M. C. A. and an advisory member of the Michigan Economic Development Commission. Mr. Winter, his wife, son and daughter reside in Berkshire road.

College Profs Teach at GPH

Continuing the program inaugurated a year ago, whereby certain members of the University of Michigan faculty taught senior English classes at Grosse Pointe High School for two days, and selected members of the High School staff observed freshmen English classes at Michigan State University, members of the Physics and Chemistry departments of MSU taught the advanced science classes at GPHS on Monday and Tuesday, February 24 and 25.

Every class in Physics and Chemistry was taught by either Professor Robert Hammer or Professor Richard Schlegel during this period. The material taught in each class was according to the plan of study in Grosse Pointe, but the techniques were those of the college campus.

Most classes had a college lecture on the science topic of the day, plus a 15-minute recitation period, concluded by approximately five minutes of questions and answers on college procedures and expectations.

Many and varied were the experiences from group to group. In some cases students felt reassured in their ability to follow such a research worker and teacher. In other cases, they were impressed with the degree to which the college man expected them to go into the subjects at hand.

Measles Cases on the Increase

Measles is definitely on the increase and 243 cases were reported last week, Dr. Joseph G. Molner, commissioner of health, states. There have been no deaths from measles this year.

In 1957, 1,150 cases and one death were reported compared with 13,711 cases and 10 deaths in 1956 — the last measles year. Of the 10 deaths, five were one year olds. Dr. Molner says this indicates the desirability of preventing or modifying measles in very little children.

Measles is a serious disease in young children. The symptoms are a cold in the head, cough and fever followed in three or four days by an eruption of small red spots which appear first on the forehead and face. This eruption spreads rapidly over the body and after several days it fades gradually.

Symptoms begin about eight to 12 days after exposure. One attack usually protects a person from further attacks.

By modifying measles, the little child will have a light case which will protect him against this disease in the future. Measles can be prevented, but when it is the protection lasts for a much shorter time. The protection or modification the family physician can provide by giving gamma globulin into the muscle.

He can obtain the gamma globulin without cost from the Detroit Department of Health for children between three months and three years old. It is available only for little children under three years old who are exposed to measles, but have no symptoms. When symptoms appear, it is too late for the treatment to be helpful. It must be given not later than five to eight days after the little child is exposed.

Gamma globulin is recommended and available, too, for older children exposed to measles who have certain serious diseases, such as rheumatic fever. Measles is reported in Detroit more often than any of the other catching diseases of childhood. It is also one of the most catching and can be given to others even before any symptoms are seen or felt. One of the greatest dangers lies in the complications which may follow. These include ear infection, kidney infection and pneumonia.

Over 10,000 Use Schools

4,000 Teachers Meet "The High School auditorium-gymnasium is used to capacity on many occasions other than when basketball teams are playing. Twice, 4,000 teachers have held their full conference there. St. Paul High School's basketball team practices and plays all of its home games there.

"The old auditorium in the High School is used frequently by community groups such as the Grosse Pointe Children's Theater. Students from Wayne State University, the University of Michigan, and Michigan State visit Grosse Pointe every year to present plays of interest to the children of the community. These players are normally sponsored by a local group such as the American Association of University Women.

Community Clubs "The League of Women Voters, the Junior League, the Kiwanis, the Grosse Pointe Woods Community Club, the Grosse Pointe Men's, Women's and Garden Clubs are more or less regular users. And, of course, the Parent-Teacher organizations which meet frequently during the school year account for thousands of our total.

"Possibly more than 100,000 persons used the various school facilities last year for a total of nearly 11,000 hours. This averages out to over four hours per day per building for each school day. Some buildings receive more use than others, however, and you can find activity in them every day of the week from 4 p.m., when school lets out, to 10:30 or 11 p.m. On one evening in February over 1,600 persons used the Parcels Junior High School at one time.

"Another important use of the public schools by the community has been that of religious groups. At present only the Christian Science congregation is actually using a school building for church services. This group meets in the Kerby School.

"In recent years at least eight other denominations have held their services in one or another of the public school buildings. Our Lady-Star of the Sea used Parcels until August, 1955. The Grosse Pointe Methodist started their church with services in the old Kerby School over 12 years ago. The Congregationalists used Maire and Richard until their church was ready for use.

"Similarly the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian used Mason School and St. James Lutheran used Richard. Christ Church has found the High School annex convenient for their Sunday School classes. Ferry School was used by the First English Lutherans until they opened their new church in 1957.

"Square dance organizations identified by intriguing names such as 'Rounds and Squares,' 'Promenaders,' 'Four Square Rounders,' 'Silver A-rounds,' 'Sets in Order,' 'Swing Spurs,' and 'Balance and Swing' are regular users. Many of them meet every two weeks for an evening of fun in one of the gymnasiums.

"Recitals are staged by several dance studios in one of the school auditoriums or gyms. The Ravenal School of Dance, the Bill Wilson Dance Studio, and the Eastland Community Center are among them.

servatory are a few of these. Many hundreds of parents and friends attend the performances."

The directors and officials of many Grosse Pointe area athletic organizations hold their planning meetings in school classrooms throughout the winter. Little League Baseball, Little League and Jack Lowther Football, and Babe Ruth Baseball are some of these. Schedules are worked out, key committees established, and all preparations for the coming season of play made.

Cadillac It's an Easy Step from Dreaming to Driving! Here he is at last—just a few miles out on his maiden journey—with his hands on the wheel and his head in the clouds. It's his! And yet, truth to tell, he does have one regret. For he knows that he needn't have waited this long, had he but realized what an easy step it is from dreaming of a Cadillac to driving in a Cadillac. Like a great many motorists, for instance, he was not aware that a Cadillac—in view of its obvious virtues—could be so modest in price. Nor did he appreciate, until the facts were presented, how economical a Cadillac is to maintain or how wonderfully it holds its value over the years. And little did he suspect how accommodating his dealer would be in welcoming him to membership in the great and distinguished family of Cadillac owners. So, if you have your heart set on a Cadillac, you should hesitate no longer to investigate this happy set of circumstances. In fact, why not visit your dealer today? He will be happy to help you select your favorite Cadillac model with your favorite Fleetwood interior—be it the luxurious Sixty-Two Coupe or the magnificent Eldorado Brougham. ### Pierce Rehearses Plays For March 28 Curtain

By MARY SHORT On Friday, March 28, Pierce Junior High School will present an Evening of Plays. There will be a Seventh Grade play entitled "The Third Act," directed by Miss Virginia Hoelzle. This play concerns the third act of the Annual Senior Play at Springtown High. "The Third Act" stars Bart Elmer, Elaine Harrison, Debby Dearborn, Linda Schaitberger, Dick Kirsten, Dick Allison, Jo Carol McDonald, Helen Plopa, and Del Hurd.

The Eighth and Ninth grade play is called "Glamorous Gloria," directed by Mrs. Gerry Meyer and Student Director Mary Short. The Halls, a very harried family as you'll see, are at their summer cottage, when their annual free-loading guests, the Glovers, move in. What the Young Halls do to Gloria Glover is something worth seeing.

The cast includes: Jan Hall-Jan Conway, Stan Hall-Stan Kurtz, Florence Hall-Joanne Kordas, Mrs. Hall-Libby Herndon, Bill Crosby-John Randall, Gloria Glover-Darlyn Russell, Walter Glover-Rick Brydges, Mrs. Glover-Rhea Jane, Linda Dawson-Anne Adams, and Neil Dawson-Carl Haller.

The Between Act Skits offer a wide variety of entertainment. First there is "Trouble in the Cellar," directed by Miss Schmidt. This cast includes: Father—Janelle Hunt, Mother—Elaine Kravjenke, Daughter—Diane Sagel, Robert—Jean Wieland, and the Plumber—Betty Casey.

Naturally, there must be a chorus line and ours does the "Birth of the Blues." Dancers are Anne Adams, Sue Brown, Barb Young, Joanne Kordas, Pam Isley, Sally McCullough, Pam Bankard, Jeannette Hackman, Mary Steele, Nan Gould, Kay Stiegler and Yvonne Colliard.

In the "Schoolroom," also directed by Mrs. Meyer, the teacher is Cathy Coe and the students are Robin David, Lynn Chappas, Bill McCandless, Molly Hunter, Dick Kirsten, Sharon Johnston, Dean Malchie, Bill Walsh, Linda Rathbun, and Kathy Maun.

Last, there's the pantomime, "Wunderful, Wonderful," directed by Mr. Jack Mason, Our Lawrence Welk is Jack Thomas. The Lemon Sisters are Robin Michael, Karen Henke, and Ruth Edelen. Larry Loper—Bill Reading, Stoney Spooner—Nancy Bregi and Alice Lean is Paula Wertz. The orchestra includes Gail Gutow, Maureen Clifton, Cindy Smith, Johnny Campbell, Kathy DeWolfe, Lee Malcolm, and Sherwood Hamilton. We hope to see you in the audience at 8 o'clock on March 28.

Drama Night At Parcels

Big banners in the corridors proclaim that an evening of dramatic productions will be given at Parcels Junior High School, Friday, March 21, in the auditorium, at eight o'clock. Members of the dramatics classes have been working diligently to prepare for these performances.

The seventh grade class will present "The Ghost Wore White," under the direction of Mrs. Frances Roach. In this play the Conwell family discovers their new home is already occupied — by a ghost. How they set a trap to catch the troublesome spirit makes a play full of fun and mystery.

The cast includes: Albert Blixt, Patti Mack, Cherry Caughey, Deedra Keller, Lynn Freeland, Elizabeth Dalrymple, Kay Vivian, and Judy Ellis. The prompters are Laura Zolad, Gaylene Maples, and Carolyn Lintner. Working on properties are Nancy McGill and Linda Schuman.

Other seventh graders will present a skit, "Long, Long Ago," directed by Miss Joan Steiner. This is a wild tale of tears and terror, narrated by Linda Calhoun. Others in the cast are Christine Cameron, Sherry Kleinschmidt, Marlene Blair, Greg Reynolds, and James Mayl.

Eighth and ninth graders, working together, will produce "The Pest Guest," which is a comedy. The chief character is Randolph Stoddard, an author who is coming to lecture at the Pineville Pen-Woman's Club. Complications

Rotary Show

A few of these projects are: support of Little Leagues and Babe Ruth Leagues in baseball and football; community fishing rodeo and annual Hall-oween party; Boy and Girl Scout troops for camping and equipment expenses; college scholarship grants for deserving Grosse Pointe graduates; maintenance of radio and television equipment for hospital patients; school safety patrol awards; support of foreign exchange students attending Grosse Pointe schools; maintenance of our Central Library's Tool Library.

Sending students to Wolverine Boys' and Girls' State meetings; purchasing equipment for the Grosse Pointe School for Exceptional Children; annual awards for outstanding students; furnishings for the Neighborhood Club game room; distribution of magazines to hospitals and schools in this area; special assistance to underprivileged and delinquent children.

No case is ever submitted to the club which does not receive careful study and action if it comes within the scope of the club.

This year, 90 Rotarians and their wives are working hard to make this antiquies show the most successful to date, in order to sustain these activities which mean so much to the Grosse Pointe area. Everyone is cordially invited to visit this unusual event at the beautiful War Memorial Center.

arise with the arrival of Pomoa Potts, the gawky maid. The actors and actresses are: Sharon Derita, Penny Peterson, Nancy Collins, Pat Fleming, Jim Meech, Gary Utz, Dale Anderson, and Diane Neuroth. The prompters are Nancy Clay and Claudia Laupmanis. Miss Shirley Lewis is the director.

As a pantomime skit the eighth and ninth grade class will present "St. George and the Dragonet." The cast, directed by Miss Ann Michael, includes: Bob Mazzola, Duane Strobl, Jay Gorden, Sue Marsh, Diane Dabich, and Mary Ann Ballard. The dragon, a royal and vivid fellow of green with orange polka dots and purple feet, will be Gail Schulze, Linda Vineyard, Sue Chandler, Cheri Elrod, and Sandy Morris.

This should be an entertaining evening for the entire family. Tickets will be available at the box office.

Laud Park Police Work

Ogg was arrested on the January date, by Dearborn police when he attempted to pick up a date in Dearborn. He was carrying a loaded gun when apprehended.

A letter was also sent to Dearborn, Detroit and Wayne County law enforcement authorities, for the part they played in the case.

Other Officers Praised Also lauded for the work they did were Park officers, Det. Lt. Stanley Enders, Cpl. Charles French and Patrolman James LaPratt.

In his letter, Chief Parker stated that "it is indeed rare to obtain copies, for reference, of reports so thorough in describing the entire events from inception to conclusion." This referred to copies sent L.A. by Chief Louwers, of the confessions of the trio, and of the reports of the trio's activities enroute from Los Angeles to the Detroit area, and in the area.

Both Cutler and Ogg waived extradition on February 8, and were returned to Los Angeles. The two were arrested at the home of J. L. Hutchens, 1101 Lakepointe, following a two-day police stake out.

They obtained the family's permission to store several bundles in the house. The Hutchens did not know the bundles contained loot. A tip to Patrolman LaPratt about the bundles, which contained guns and other items, resulted in the stake out.

Harvard Band To Play Here

The Harvard University Band will make one of their rare concert appearances in Detroit March 31. C. Henry Haberkorn, III, president of the Harvard Club of Eastern Michigan revealed today.

The Harvard Band, under the direction of G. Wright Briggs is one of the nation's foremost band organizations. The program will consist of music ranging from Richard Rodgers to Richard Wagner.

The concert will be held at 8:30 p.m. in the auditorium of Parcels Junior High School, Mack and Vernier, Grosse Pointe Woods.

General admission tickets are $2.50 per person and $1.00 for students and children and can be obtained from the Doubleday Book Stores in Grosse Pointe and Birmingham or Grinnell Brothers' downtown store.

Proceeds from the concert will go to the scholarship fund of the Harvard Club of Eastern Michigan, Haberkorn said.

Burglars Loot

(Continued from Page 1) ficers said, then the inside thief, standing on a 17-inch portable television set, handed out all equipment small enough to go through the opening. The set stood on was badly damaged, it was said.

The items taken, and their value, are: a tape recorder, $254; a transoceanic portable radio, $135; a smaller tape recorder, $179.50; and a transistor radio, $50.

It is not known what had frightened the burglars away.

Widen Moross

Alistair Cooke Captivates Celebrity Series Audience

"Should anyone be suffering from the delusion that I am the man featured on the billboard outside—this is to say that I am NOT John Wayne!"

Thus Alistair Cooke introduced himself, and his winsome wit, to his audience at the Esquire Theater last Thursday morning, in the last of this year's lectures under the auspices of the Grosse Pointe Celebrity Series.

While his subject was formally entitled "The Lighter Side of a Correspondent's Life," it might better have been billed "A Cooke's Tour of Everything in General and Nothing in Particular."

This is not to say the man wasn't thoroughly entertaining, nor the audience any the less enthralled. On the contrary, this listener, and from all appearances everyone else in the audience, was completely charmed by "Mr. Omnibus."

The translated Englishman, an American citizen for 17 years, first came to the United States in 1932, for graduate work at Harvard and Yale. He has lived here almost continuously ever since—though his travels are endless, and extensive.

Though exteriorly he seems of mild-mannered mien, the man must have boundless energies. How else could he produce over a thousand words for his daily "Dispatch" (his peers from upon "column" in the AMERICAN sense of the word) to the Manchester Guardian, (for which he is chief American correspondent)

Judge Uvick Hears 5 Cases

Judge Joseph P. Uvick held forth at Justice Court last Tuesday, March 11, and heard a total of five cases—involving four defendants.

Mary Cornelius, of 16316 Eastburn in Detroit, was charged with two violations, and found guilty on both accounts. She was charged with illegal parking, for which she was fined $3, and a similar fine was imposed for a meter violation.

Alfonso Giordano, 3370 Bluehill in Detroit, was dealt a heavy $45 fine when found guilty of simple larceny. He was also placed on one year's probation in Wayne County.

Reckless driving charges were brought against John Joseph Rich, 3460 Marquette drive in Trenton, and Roger G. Hostetter, 29140 Riverbank drive, in Harrison Township. Both were found guilty and Rich was fined $15 while Hostetter payed out $20.

Pointe Mourns Mrs. Joy

Co.; the unflagging interest she maintained in the arts, in civic service and in campaigning for the less fortunate; her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren to whom she was ever devoted, and to the numerous honors accorded her. We bow, however, to biography:

Always a Humanitarian
From early girlhood, the onetime Helen Hall Newberry manifested the wonderful humanitarianism and tremendous vitality that were to carry her through a life rich with quiet achievement, unselfed motives and boundless compassion.
Born in 1869 in the great house which is now, through her generosity, the headquarters of the Louisa St. Clair Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, she was sister to two illustrious brothers, now deceased, Truman and John S. Newberry. There she made her bow to society at a reception and a ball and became a bride.

The young Joys lived first on East Jefferson avenue where their daughter, Helen, was born. Later, they built "Fair Acres," the birthplace of Henry B. Joy, Jr., and the scene of countless entertainments for the great and the humble for decades.

The huge home, looking out over Lake St. Clair, sits high on the rolling green that extends back a full block and on which stand servants' quarters, a garage and a greenhouse.

Active Member
Member of scores of civic, philanthropic, musical and amateur theatrical groups and patriotic organizations, Mrs. Joy was apparently indefatigable in her efforts to promote them and to lend them her presence and approval. She was not one to "just be listed"; she was "THERE" whenever possible.

(The writer recalls a trip she made a year-or-more ago when she dashed from an evening at the Detroit Symphony to a train which bore her to Louisville, Ky., and, next morning, to an all-day meeting with the Frontier Nursing Services, of which she was vice-chairman of the executive committee. Boarding the train that same evening, she arrived in town the following morning and was home only long enough to change into some thing appropriate for an important luncheon.)

Her interest in repeal of the Prohibition Law, after a switch in opinion; her work as vice-president of Woman's Hospital; her outstanding assistance in aiding to found the Michigan Chapter of the American Red Cross; her efforts on behalf of Grace Hospital and United Community Services, all were evidence of her dedication to the humanities.

Watch Hill Vacations
When time permitted, "Treasure Hill," the Joy summer home at Watch Hill, R. I., was the ocean front retreat for which she headed. There, on land said to contain a treasure buried by Captain Kidd ("We never did find anything," Mrs. Joy would admit with a hearty laugh), she spent part of her summers, returning to her numerous pursuits refreshed and ready for the long months of activity ahead.

"There's nothing like a dip in the sea to make you feel fine again," she frequently prescribed.
With the death of Mr. Joy,

Scouts Train For Disaster

Boy Scouts of Troop 147, sponsored by the Defer School PTA, really live up to the Scout motto "Be Prepared."

At 9:10 o'clock Saturday morning, in the first action of its kind the Grosse Pointe Park community has seen, troop leaders set in motion the emergency mobilization machinery of the troop to test its effectiveness.

It was assumed a tornado had struck the area wiping out all normal communication channels, and the Scouts were needed by the police department to act as emergency messengers.

By 10:30 o'clock, 21 of the troop's 29 active members had assembled on the Jefferson avenue lawn of the city hall.

After a talk by Police Chief Art Louwers on the wisdom of safety precautions during an emergency, the Scouts tested their knowledge of the community by delivering 62 messages to cooperating business and professional people.

At noon Scoutmaster Earle Hoyt, Assistant Scoutmaster Kelsey McDavid, and Troop Committee Chairman Melvin Nylund proclaimed the test a success.

of her brothers and their wives and the scattering of their families, Mrs. Joy's multiple interests only increased. Control of correspondence and the associated endless details were possible only with the invaluable assistance of her long-time secretary, Mrs. Kitty Hale, a highly personable woman who understood her unique employer perfectly.

Mrs. Joy, who "never cared particularly" for hats, liked gossamer veils and, late in life, made fragile, brilliant-sprinkled hairnets a sort of signature, wearing them to day and evening functions, alike—even to the theater where many a star of the stage gave her a beaming smile from across the footlights.

Despite her rigorous program, Mrs. Joy was never too rushed to stop to chat a bit, to pay calls on those confined at home, to acknowledge, in her fine handwriting, the notes of inquiry and tribute that came her way.

A remarkable woman has left her imprint, deep and lasting into future generations.

High School Students Offered Merit Tests

By NANCY REIF
GPHS Journalism Student

Two major changes have been announced by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

The first is that the qualifying examination will be given this year in April instead of October.

The second is that students will be notified of the scores they achieve on the examination.

On Tuesday morning, April 29, 1958, 11A and 12B students of every high school in the United States and its possessions will have a chance to compete in the qualifying exam.

This qualifying examination is a means of screening students of unusual talents. Top scorers are eligible for college financial aid from a fund of over $5,000,000.

A few students in Grosse Pointe High School may take the exam free of charge. Others desiring to do so may take the test for the fee of $1.00.

Students not qualifying for a scholarship award find other values in taking the examination. Since they are notified of their results, they are able to understand their academic strengths and weaknesses.

It will also help them to plan their senior year of high school, select a college, and choose the field of study in which they are best qualified.

The students earning the highest scores on the qualifying exam go on to take the college board examinations in the fall. According to the scores of these tests, the winners of the scholarships are chosen.

"All 11A's and 12B's are urged to take the test even though they are not interested in a scholarship. The scores on the test can be of great value to counselors in helping to plan the senior year," said Mrs. Ruth Flom, scholarship chairman.

Students are asked to see their counselors by March 14, to register for this test.

Lansing Pittman Reports On Red Cross Relief Acts

Lansing M. Pittman, of Renaud road, general chairman of Detroit Red Cross chapter's Disaster Preparedness Committee, today released a summary of recent American National Red Cross disaster relief operations. Pittman said the years since June 1955 were the most costly in Red Cross history.

Last year's 284 disasters, affecting 88,000 families, brought the organization's 2 1/2 year cost to $56,000,000 for emergency relief and rehabilitation.

Pittman said: "This represents a large percent . . . 17.6 last year . . . of the national budget raised in these years plus use of reserve funds which are now depleted. Each of the 3700 Red Cross chapters has its own disaster preparedness plan, ready to put into action immediately if a disaster should strike within its area. In many chapters rehearsals have been conducted recently to give the volunteers an opportunity to see how the part assigned to them fits into the whole picture."

"The emergency which even a small disaster creates is dramatic and inevitably produces confusion. In the past 2 months over 800 Detroit Red Cross volunteers have completed a course of instruction which will make them invaluable in case of disaster in our area."

Pittman said emergency Red Cross services to disaster victims include shelter, food and clothing until temporary family living can be established, and then rehabilitation services which continue to supplement what the family can do for itself through insurance and other resources, until it has been returned to a pre-disaster level of living. "All of this is an outright gift of the American people through their Red Cross with no repayment expected or asked," Pittman said.

Pittman said that nearly everyone associates the women Red Cross volunteers, such as canteens, motor service drivers, with disaster relief, but emphasized that the chapter has several teams of men who because of previous training or experience, have been assigned to disaster survey teams.

He also said that in recent months Wayne county Junior Red Cross members have been assigned and trained for disaster relief responsibilities. "This gives reality to the traditional Junior Red Cross disaster relief projects," he concluded.

Dr. Paul T. Rankin, chairman of the chapter's Junior Red Cross, reported 400,000 Junior Red Cross members packed 3,038 individual gift boxes and 4 school chests for distribution through American Red Cross to youthful victims of disaster.

Among relief items supplied by the Children's Fund of the national Junior Red Cross (money contributed by the young people themselves), were: boxes containing 45 books for each of 250 small rural schools, toys and gift boxes for youthful disaster victims in the Southern States floods, the area devastated by Hurricane Diane, and many tornado areas. They spent more than $1,039,300 for this service.

Dr. Rankin says Wayne county Junior Red Cross is telling of its service through exhibits and assembly programs and enrolling members in many schools during the month. "Junior Red Crossers 'get the habit' of concern for others, they learn to assume and discharge responsibilities and to work with other youth and adults, thus strengthening Red Cross, our immediate community and the world," Dr. Rankin said.

The Detroit Red Cross chapter, which includes all of Wayne county, is recruiting volunteers for all of its Service Groups during March. Prospective volunteers are invited to call the chapter headquarters, WO 1-3900, and talk with a Service Chairman.

Garagemen Set Service Record

Michigan garagemen set a new record for answering road service calls in 1957 but another new high will probably be reached this year, according to Automobile Club of Michigan.

Figures compiled by Robert C. Nisbet, Auto Club road service manager, based on calls to Auto Club, show that state motorists called for emergency service 3,556,000 times during the year.

"The 289,000 increase over 1956 can be traced to heavy snows and cold weather in January, the only real bad month, when some 750,000 motorists ran into trouble," Nisbet said. "This January, the figure was down to 330,000 but February will show a big increase. On February 17 alone, we estimate that service trucks in the state handled 110,000 calls."

"Can't start" was the chief complaint heard throughout the state in 1957. Nisbet estimated that 1,914,000 motorists had to call for help to get started at some time during the year because of dead batteries, locked starters, fuel system trouble or wet ignition systems.

Tire trouble ranked second with an estimated 833,000 calls while another 405,000 drivers got stuck in snow and mud and required wrecker service.

Towing, including cars with transmission trouble, motor breakdowns and broken axles, were responsible for 193,000 calls while empty gas tanks halted 88,000 drivers. Motorists needing help to unlock car doors brought 68,000 calls and wrecks another 55,900.

The measure of a man's real character is what he would do if he knew he would never be found out.

Store Owner Faces Jail

Theodore Wichman, 58, of 1423 Berkshire, is scheduled to appear before Woods Judge Don Goodrow on Saturday, March 22, for violating probation terms.

Wichman, proprietor of the Empire Gift and Camera Shop, 20952 Mack avenue, was arrested on August 2, 1956, for possession of pornography, at the time a misdemeanor.

Judge Goodrow found Wichman guilty of the charge, and ordered him to pay a fine and court costs of $200, and placed him on two years probation, during which he was admonished not to violate any state or local laws. A 90-day jail term was the alternative.

Last November 22, Woods police found a suitcase full of obscene movie films and materials in Wichman's car, and charged him with possession.

He appeared before Circuit Court Judge Frank Fitzgerald on January 29, because since Wichman's last arrest, the State Legislature made possession of pornography a high misdemeanor, for which an offender can receive one year in prison, or fined $1,000, or both.

Following Wichman's plea of guilty, Judge Fitzgerald referred the case to the Wayne County Probation Department for a pre-sentence study.

By virtue of the guilty plea, Wichman became guilty of violating the probation imposed by Judge Goodrow, who issued a show cause order against Wichman, on why his order of probation should not be terminated.

Wichman could still be sentenced up to 90 days in jail on the first charge, Judge Goodrow said, because his probation is still in force.

Bill Introduced By Louis Rabaut

Congressman Louis C. Rabaut of the 14th District has introduced a bill in the House of Representatives designed to check the growth of unemployment by providing Federal assistance to States and local governments in the construction of needed public improvements.

The bill, The Federal Public Works Act of 1958, calls for a billion dollars to be allocated by the Federal government to assist State and local governments in the construction of needed public works and improvements and thus to provide employment for persons who are unemployed. Such funds would be allocated in the ratio of $75 of Federal assistance for every $25 of State or local funds made available for such projects.

An all around man doesn't continue going in circles, but progresses toward some given point.

Alger Scorns District Protest

The national political strife-ridden scene added a touch of local color this past week-end when a round-robin letter from the Fourteenth District Republicans was circulated.

A declaration against President Eisenhower's "modern Republicanism," the letter said in part: "In our district we believe very definitely that modern Republicanism has done nothing except make socialism respectable."

The document was signed by Stanley J. Baldwin, 14th District chairman who lives at 3674 Lakepointe, and Richard Durant, vice-chairman, of 425 Lincoln road.

It was circulated through the top echelon of the party on official district stationery. That stationery carried Fred M. Alger Jr.'s name at the head of the organization's executive committee. Mr. Alger, former ambassador to Belgium, lives at 294 Lincoln.

Cinema League Features Iberia

The national political strife-ridden scene added a touch of local color this past week-end when a round-robin letter from the Fourteenth District Republicans was circulated.

The letter is highly critical of the party's state leadership and State Republican Chairman Lawrence B. Lindemer. The tone of the letter coincided with that of a Grosse Pointe Women's Republican Club meeting last Thursday. The locals cheered Milton M. Lory, Iowa conservative businessman, when he ripped into the President's policies in a 90-minute club talk.

State Rep. Robert E. Waldron, of 532 University place, is the salaried manager of the 14th District. Other officers are Mrs. John D. Malin of 9925 East Jefferson avenue, secretary; and C. Grant Barnes, 1028 Harvard road, treasurer.

Cinema League Features Iberia

"Holiday Iberia" a color film of Spain and Portugal featuring bull fights and fiestas will be shown at the Grosse Pointe Cinema League meeting next Thursday evening, March 27, at 8 o'clock at the War Memorial Center.

The movie was taken by Rip Zwickey, League member, during a trip through Spain and Portugal last summer. Mr. Zwickey who has taken movies in many parts of the world, concentrated in this film on scenes of rural life and fishing villages in both Portugal and Spain. He also has included a very interesting sequence of the colorful and seldom photographed Portuguese Bull Fight.

Mr. Zwickey will give the commentary on his film, filling the audience in on background information and movie techniques he used.

This program is open to the public without charge. For further information please call the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center.

Adult Education Courses Open

Openings in Adult Education classes for the Spring term are available in three subjects which have proven so popular they have become "regulars" on the schedule of the Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Public School System.

Investment Procedures will begin the week of March 24th, with Peter Logan the instructor. Logan is a graduate of the University of Michigan School of Business Administration, and a present member of the faculty of Wayne University School of Business Administration. Because Mr. Logan is an active investment broker, and a partner in a Detroit investment firm, his approach to this subject brings the most current possible counsel to his class work.

Reading Improvement is being offered for the 10th semester. This is an University of Michigan extension course instructed by John Valusek. Designed to increase the reading speed and comprehension of the student, this class has without exception accomplished its purpose. The course is particularly beneficial for those adults whose reading demands are high and whose time is limited. Scheduled date for this class is Wednesday, March 26th at 7:30 p.m. Basic Photography and 35 Mm. Color Slides: These classes will be instructed by William F. Hoover. Hoover has had 14 years of varied photographic experience, including newspaper work, and has written many articles on the subject. U. S. Camera, a national photographic magazine, recently published "Re-discovering the C-3" written by Mr. Hoover.

Doctor Island Hops in Plane

Something new and different — and challenging — constituted the recent vacation of Dr. Stanley L. Smith, of Sunningdale drive. He returned last week from the Virgin Islands, having flown his single engine Piper Tripacor to San Juan by way of Key West, Cuba, Haiti, the Dominican Republic and Puerto Rico.

His brother, Lloyd Smith of Miami, Florida, accompanied him on the trip. The only cause for concern came when they encountered an unreported storm off the west coast of Puerto Rico, which allowed only a 200-foot ceiling and one mile visibility.

This necessitated an emergency landing at Ramey Air Base, and after showing proper identification, they were cordially received—and grateful to be once again on American soil.

They were advised not to return by way of Cuba, in view of the existing turbulent conditions in the eastern portion, so they rerouted through the Bahama chain of islands, to Nassau, and across 186 miles of water to Florida. The trip through the islands took about two weeks.

Having taken up flying as an avocation just two years ago, the trip, which involved 1,500 miles of ocean flying, was indeed an exhilarating experience for Dr. Smith.

Records Fall in State Swim Meet Held Saturday

Records, State and National, took a beating in the Class A High School swimming championships held in the beautiful new swimming pool at the University of Michigan last Saturday, March 15.

Grosse Pointe High's Blue Devils scored 23 points which was good for fifth place. The points were earned on Les "Clutch" Cutler's second place in the 100 yard backstroke; the second place scored by Cutler, Dick Law, Jim Carne and Charles Babcock in the 200 yard medley relay and the third place in the 200 yard freestyle relay by Mike Grow, Mark Gregory, Mike Kroeyr and John Nicholson.

Battle Creek Central defeated Ann Arbor 58-46 in the meet that saw one National and five State records erased.

Birmingham Third
Birmingham finished third with 34½ points followed by Saginaw Arthur Hill with 28 and Grosse Pointe with 23.

Peter Sintz of Birmingham cracked the National High School 100-yard freestyle record with :50.4, bettering his own mark of :50.7 set the week before. Sintz also tied the State record in the 50-yard freestyle with :22.9.

Owen Kleinschmidt of Ann Arbor set a state mark in the 20-yard freestyle, going the distance in 1:57.8. The old mark was 2:02.0.

A record of 58.5 in the 100-yard backstroke was set by Ron Gage of Saginaw Arthur Hill. The old mark was :58.8.

Battle Creek swimmers topped the 200-yard freestyle relay record with 1:34.6, bettering the previous mark of 1:36.3 set last year. The team was made up of Brent Cobb, Clayton Hedd, Don Diget and Dan Convis.

Battle Creek also won the 200-yard medley relay with a time of 1:48.5 and the 100-yard butterfly with Terry LaBerdie going the distance in :58.4.

Judo Club Elects Officers

Three Grosse Pointers were elected officers in the Detroit Judo Club at its annual election recently. Don Pohl became the executive secretary, Mark Pohl is the new treasurer and Ted Norcutt was elected public relations officer. Other officers are Harry Bogan, president and Emile Dur-rocher, vice-president.

The club was formed in 1952 and currently has 360 members many of whom are Grosse Pointers. Since its formation over 5,000 have received Judo instruction from club instructors.

In June the Detroit organization will sponsor the sixth annual Invitational Judo tournament at the U of Detroit Memorial Building.

Park Sets Baseball Date

President Ed Scallen of the Grosse Pointe Park Little League has set Monday, March 24, at 8:00 p.m. as the date for the fifth annual general meeting to be held at Trombly school.

At the meeting Mr. Scallen will present the 1958 Board of Directors and announce the opening date of the 1958 schedule. Also at this meeting will be registration to play in the league. All parents who have boys eligible to participate in Little League baseball are urged to attend.

Two Lose, Austin Wins Cage Title

State cage wars came to an abrupt climax last week for the Grosse Pointe Blue Devils and the St. Paul's Lakers when they lost in their respective Regional tournaments. Austin, however, came through with flying colors, winning the East Detroit Regional title by defeating Grosse Pointe 76-52 to qualify for the quarterfinals and become a favorite in the State tourney which will reach its climax at East Lansing, Saturday, March 22. In this montage are shown some of the highlights of tournament play engaged in by Grosse Pointe's three teams. From left to right, top photos: DAVE DeBUSSCHERE racks up two of his 38 points which paced the Friars to their victory over the Blue Devils in the championship game, Austin team poses

St. Paul Lakers Collapse In Regional Cage Tourney

St. Paul's players and fans received the shock of their lives last Thursday, March 13, when little known Richmond Blue Devils tumbled the highly favored Lakers from the State basketball tournament 38-31 in the second game of the Birmingham Regionals.

The defeat was only the second in 21 games suffered by the Lakers who previously had captured their second consecutive East Side Second Division Parochial League title; the Harper Woods District crown; placed second in the Catholic City tournament and third in the Metropolitan City championships.

It was on this record that the Lakers gained the number one spot in the Class C State ratings and were highly favored to become the first Grosse Pointe team in history to capture a State cage title.

Actually it wasn't the outstanding play of the Richmond Blue Devils that defeated St. Paul's but the Lakers complete collapse on offense.

It is almost impossible to understand how a team that has averaged between 50 and 60 points per game all season could be held to a mere 31 points especially by a team like Richmond that had compiled an unimpressive 7-7 league record during the regular season.

All season long the Lakers had displayed one of the best balanced scoring attacks in prep circles. It was not uncommon for the Lakers' five regulars to hit in double figures in every game. Their defensive record was as equally outstanding. In past games the Lakers had shooting average at or above the 40 percent mark but against Richmond it dipped to a meager 22 percent with the Lakers connecting on 12 of 52 shots. From the foul line, they were able to cash in only 3 of 8 attempts, another new low in Laker ability.

Hoped for Break
The game itself was exciting because Laker fans sincerely believed that at any moment their team would break loose with a high scoring spurt that would clinch the game. St. Paul fans had become accustomed to these tactics as the Lakers all season had been notoriously slow starters but came on in the final two periods to pull games from the brink of defeat.

After the score had been tied twice and changed hands three times in the first period and the teams deadlocked at 8-all going into the second stanza, Richmond pulled out to a four point lead. This didn't seem to bother anyone of the small St. Paul crowd and it didn't bother them when the Lakers trailed 15-14 at half-time.

The Lakers grabbed a five point lead shortly after the start of the third quarter and Lakers fans figured their team was on its way to its twentieth win of the season. But Richmond, spurred on by its larger cheering section, pulled to within one point of a tie, 25-24, at the end of the third period.

Lakers Tie
Still taking advantage of the Lakers' inability to find the scoring range Richmond took the lead as the final quarter got underway. St. Paul's center Gary Anderson tied the count at 26-26 with a tip in range. Richmond's Louis Schwartz put the Devils out in front with two free throws and Bobby Brown added a field goal to give Richmond a 30-26 lead which it never relinquished.

With a little bit more than four minutes to go the Devils began to stall out the clock. As the seconds ticked away the Lakers became desperate. Dave Ayrault pumped in a long shot but this was equalized by Lou Schwartz who sneaked under the basket unnoticed by the pressing Lakers. Tom Dittman sealed the Lakers' doom when he calmly dropped in a pair of free throws with less than two minutes remaining to give the Devils a 34-31 lead. The Devils last two baskets were more or less gifts when the Lakers pressed the Devil stall in an attempt to get the ball and left a man open under the basket on two occasions.

At the final buzzer Richmond fans went wild as St. Paul fans sat stunned and surprised at what they had just witnessed.

Lauer Calls It Best Team
Coach Eddie Lauer was bitterly disappointed. He had said repeatedly "This is the best team I have had in my 19 years at St. Paul." He was almost sure his Lakers would at least win the Regional title and get to East Lansing for the finals. Lauer wasn't alone in his thinking. Almost every daily sports writer, including this one, shared his views. The defeat was a bitter pill to swallow.

To blame the players wouldn't be fair. Every good team has an off night now and then and this was one of those nights that the Lakers couldn't buy a basket. They took 52 shots and only 14 found the hoop. Easy layups rimmed the hoop and popped out with frighteningly regularity.

Just two nights before the Lakers overcame a first period 9-2 deficit and raced to a 65-

DeBusschere Leads Friars To Win Over Blue Devils

There's no doubt about it. Grosse Pointe and Austin High are natural neighborhood rivals. Four thousand fans who were lucky enough to jam their way into the East Detroit High gymnasium last Friday, March 7, can attest to that.

There were hundreds more, who dawdled over a second cup of coffee at supper time, turned away and failed to see the titanic struggle for the East Detroit Regional championship which was won by Austin 76-52.

The turn away crowd set an attendance record for that beautiful new gym that was just opened two months ago. Actually 3500 can be seated but this night they were hanging from the rafters.

The final score doesn't tell the true picture of the thrilling struggle which not only was for the Regional crown but for the UNOFFICIAL Grosse Pointe championship which here-to-fore had always been the source of heated discussion between the students from Austin, Grosse Pointe and St. Paul. Austin settled the argument, at least for one year, by beating St. Paul in the Catholic City tourney earlier and then the Blue Devils.

Star Scores 38 Points
Dave DeBusschere, Austin's great All State center, turned in one of the most sparkling performances of his career as he paced the Friars to victory with a 38 point production of his own. His best effort was 39 points made against St. Joseph in a league game which is an all-time individual Austin record.

Where Dave gained the lions share of the spotlight Grosse Pointe fans had something of a surprise package of their own in "Torrid" Tommy Woodruff, recently selected to the All Suburban and All State first team.

Woody was no slouch in the scoring column posting 20 points in the final tabulation to lead the Devils' valiant effort to stop the "unstoppable" DeBusschere who was the difference between victory and defeat for the Devils.

The win was the twentieth in a row for the Friars and only the third loss in 19 starts for the Pointers. Both teams are champions of their respective leagues, Grosse Pointe in the Border Cities League and Austin in the Central Division of the Catholic League. The Friars also have the Catholic City and Metropolitan City championship trophies in their possession.

The first 16 minutes of the game there wasn't a silent moment as the bipartisan crowd screamed after every basket and there was plenty of reason to yell.

Devils Jump Off to Lead
The Devils jumped off to a four point lead and managed to hold a one point 14-13 lead at the end of the first quarter with the brilliant performance of center Rem Purdy who was playing with a heavily taped left leg. He injured the leg in a collision under the basket two nights earlier in the Port Huron game and was a doubtful starter against Austin.

In that first period the Friars were thankful they had DeBusschere as he poured in 10 of the 13 Austin points.

The Friars moved out in front shortly after the start

Pointe Team Wins Title

The Grosse Pointe Vikings, sponsored by Jack McNamara, captured the Detroit Basketball Recreation "D" division title by defeating the Sons of Solomon team 28-26 and 40-25 in the final best-of-three playoff tournament.

The Vikings captured six consecutive pre-tournament games and were led by Walter Collins who was the league's leading scorer with 123 points.

The Pointers also earned the right to represent Detroit in the Inter-City tournament which commenced Monday, March 17. Champion teams from Ypsilanti, Pontiac, Highland Park, Dearborn, Berkley and Hamtramck are entered.

What's a Viginthillionth?*

TRYING TO PICTURE a viginthillionth of anything is beyond the comprehension of most of us.

Almost as inconceivable for many is what life in America would be like without the motor truck.

Mass production and sub-assembly operations—the very heart of our technological economy—would be utterly impossible without the round-the-clock delivery of materials and parts trucks now provide.

And certainly there would be a tremendous "change" in our eating habits if trucks were removed from the picture because everything that comes from the farm—including meat on the hoof and dairy products—depends on truck transport for distribution to retailer and consumer.

Roads, buildings, public services, national defense—all these as we now know and rely on them—reflect the indispensability of the motor truck, and we could go on and on.

So, next time you see a truck on the street or highway remember—it's there because it has a job to do for you and 165 million other Americans!

GPUS Nine Heads South

This year Spring vacation takes on additional significance for the members of the GPUS varsity baseball team. The squad will leave for Tampa, Florida, March 24, for a ten day combination vacation and pre-season training session.

The group, which includes 14 players and two coaches, will set up headquarters at the Billy Virdon (Pittsburgh Pirates) Florida Baseball School, in Tampa, the Spring home of the Chicago White Sox and the Cincinnati Reds. The school is staffed by competent major and minor league coaches and players under the direction of Lou Haneles, formerly with the Braves and Giants.

The school has been in operation since 1946, working with boys from 15-22 years of age. Over this span of years many boys have been recommended for college baseball scholarships and professional contracts. Two graduates of the school, Danny O'Connell and Ramon Montanz, received major league contracts.

Daily workouts for the GPUS team will run from 9 to 11 p.m. and will include individual and group instruction, followed by a game against competition from amongst the 75 boys who will be in camp at the same time.

The team will be housed within a half mile mile of Al Lopez Stadium, where they will have a chance to see most of the major league teams in action, including the Detroit Tigers.

Local Athletes Win in College

TOM STUMB, former Austin High athlete, recently completed his first season of basketball at the University of Detroit and was the fourth highest scorer on the freshman squad with a total of 85 points in seven games. He made 31 field goals and 23 free throws. His best game came against Bowling Green with 11 points.

DAN REAUME, former Blue Devil swimmer, captured the first place gold medal in the backstroke event in the N.A.I.A. meet held at Muncie, Indiana on March 15. His time was 2:17.5. Twelve colleges participated. Dan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Reaume of Maison Rd.

GEORGE BLACK, son of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Black, of Lewiston Rd., sophomore nator at Trinity College received a special gold award for establishing a new 100 yard freestyle record of 1:02.6.

NELSON HOLLAND, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Holland, of Cambridge Rd., Trinity College junior, was named the College's Most Improved Squash Player.

SANDY WIENER, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Wiener, of Woodland Place, received his freshman squash numerals at the Trinity College Sports banquet.

ED NICHOLSON, brother of Johnny Nicholson who is a star Blue Devil swimmer and quarterback of the Devils' BCL champion football team, had a big weekend for himself when he helped Brown University's swimming team tie Williams for the New England swimming championship last week at Amherst. Nicholson placed second in both the 50 and 100 yard freestyle events and was a member of the 440 yard freestyle team that placed second.

MAURICE B. LANDERS was awarded his Junior Varsity letter in basketball at Princeton University.

Senior Division Champs in Church League

Boat Banter

By Fred Rummels

Remember last week in this column we told you about the new registration fee every boat owner will have to pay this year? Well, it seems there is more to it than just paying your two bucks and getting a number for your boat. Oh yes, there is much more. As a matter of fact you may not only be subjected to this tax but also a new set of rules of the road and different set of navigational lights that conflict with Federal requirements.

There are at least a couple of guys herabouts that are on top of the shenanigans going on in Lansing these days and they are attempting to do something about it. John Chandler went to a closed meeting at Lansing on Tuesday, March 18, as a representative of Bayview Yacht Club to get a clear picture of the situation and see what can be done to gain a bit of time so that all boat owners may know the full intent of the new boating laws which have passed the House and are now pending in the State Senate.

Bert Robb of the DRYA legislative committee said the whole thing was started by a bunch of farmers in the Grand Rapids and Saginaw area and they attempted to SNEAK the new laws through before those who use the Great Lakes for water recreation discovered what was going on.

Thanks to John Chandler news of the double dealing got out and already 14 Power Squads in Michigan have requested a public hearing on the bills pertaining to boating.

Everyone of them smack the boat owner. First it was the Boat Tax license, now its registration fee and where it goes from here is anybody's guess. These law makers have been gradually chipping away — a little law here, a little law there and for the most part they have done it in an extremely quiet way so they would have no opposition. And that's exactly what they hope to do this time if YOU don't chip in and help. Write to Senator Carlton Morris, State Senate, Lansing 1, Michigan, demanding the bills be held up until a public hearing can be held and explain these new boating laws to everyone concerned. Your letters, telegrams or even phone calls (preferably late at night) to your law makers will get the point across to them that YOU are vitally interested in what is taking place. Tell them you demand an explanation.

To give you a better picture of the situation that exists we present the following news release received Monday, March 17. It is printed in full and is as follows:

Commodore Pottle of Bayview Yacht Club revealed today that future Mackinac races may finish in Canada or Wisconsin. John F. Chandler, 418 Belanger, Grosse Pointe, speaking for Commodore Pottle, explained that a new course might be considered because of the proposed new boating laws which passed the House and are now pending in the State Senate.

"The Chicago sailors are going to be hopping mad when the sheriff comes around to collect the registration tax as they dock in Mackinac," said Chandler. "Because there are so many outstate and Canadian boats that would be taxed for touching a Michigan port, it may even be desirable to gather in Sarnia rather than Port Huron for pre-race festivities."

Commodore Pottle is also concerned about other "bad" features of the proposed laws. "They are trying to extend inland lake laws that just won't fit on the Great Lakes. They are probably alright for outboarding problems in small lakes measured in acres but not for seas covering thousands of square miles."

"The Bayview Mackinac races have been run for 33 years," says Pottle, "about 60 or 70 boats now compete in each race. Counting families that wait for sailors at the finish line and an average of ten crew members per boat, each of the two annual races probably draws 2,000 people to Mackinac Island with perhaps some non-connected tourists who go at race time to see the spectacle and enjoy the good times."

He estimates these people spend in the neighborhood of $150,000 for entertainment, hotel rooms, meals, provisions and "Mackinac Island Fudge" for friends back home. There wouldn't be as much money lost to Port Huron because most of the boats are there for only a day or so.

REPORTS LARCENY

Congregational Cagers Win Church League Title

by JUDY RENKE

Grosse Pointe Congregational walked away with the Senior Division title when they defeated Christ Church, 39 to 31, last Saturday.

At the half the two teams were deadlocked at 15 points apiece. Congregational secured a one point lead in the third quarter, which broadened to eight points by the end of the fourth.

Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian tied for third place with St. Pauls when they trounced St. Michaels, 72 to 21. The 72 points proved to be highest scoring in one game for the whole season.

Grosse Pointe Memorial was forced to forfeit to St. Pauls when only three boys showed up at game time.

Volleyball Begins At Club Tonight

With the Basketball season a thing of the past—the senior girls of the Neighborhood Club are looking forward to their Spring Volleyball program which will start this Thursday evening, March 20th.

After a few weeks of practice a Volleyball League will be sponsored by the Club. All girls interested in playing are invited to attend the practice sessions starting at 7:30 Thursday nights.

Neighborhood Club Trophies Set

As the time draws nearer for the presentation of trophies to the outstanding members of the Club, competition and excitement are running rampant at the Neighborhood Club.

This program for Juniors is set up so that members earn points for participation, service, and membership. Leading the field in the girls division with 265 points is Mikkee Martin; second with 238 points Shari Strachan; and third Susan Alfei with 172 points.

Leading the boys with 105 points is Steve Miller; second with 74 points is Gary Burkemo and Steven Downs is third with 73 points.

Trophies to the three top members in both the boys and girls divisions will be presented on Friday night May 9th at the Spring Finales.

Don't use stairways as a storage place for items that are to be carried up or down.

Cellar Dwellers Help Leaders

Last place Belding belted second place Wigle for four points in their match last Friday, March 14, to help league leading Goebel maintain a three point lead in the Grosse Pointe Businessmen's Bowling League. Goebel managed to grab three points from Cox and Baker.

Grosse Pointe Recreation scored a four point sweep over Cramer to stay in a two-way fourth place tie with Revere who also grabbed three points from Adam Simms.

Larry's edged Woods Lounge for three points.

The two hundred-plus keglers were led by John Blough's 220. He was followed by Ernie Borg 215; Bob Valade 214, Norm Boardman 212; Harvey Reid 210; Swede Janson and Art Neate 205's; Jim De Yonker and Ted Kurk 210's.

Pointe Athlete Wins Trophy

Safety Rules For Cyclists

Today's bicycle riders are the drivers of tomorrow. Whether they become good or bad drivers depends to a considerable extent upon how well they learn the laws of highway survival now.

This observation comes from the Institute for Safer Living of the American Mutual Liability Insurance Company, which states that youthful bicyclists, properly trained, learn at an impressionable age to develop respect both for traffic safety rules and for their fellow travelers. Bicycle riders learn they must compete with far heavier vehicles for use of streets and highways—vehicles which may crush them in an instant if safety rules are forgotten.

In studying the development of cyclists into teen-age drivers, the Institute believes that a boy or girl who passes through the bicycle age without accident is more than twice as well qualified to face the hazards of driving a car when the time comes.

These young people grow up with a first-hand knowledge of the value of traffic safety rules. Moreover, the safety habits vital to bike riding are later applied subconsciously to driving.

The most important safety rules for bike riders who "can hardly wait" until they become old enough to drive are these:

- (1) Keep the bicycle in safe mechanical condition at all times, with special attention to brakes, lights and horn.
  - (2) Use proper hand signals when riding on the street.
  - (3) Always travel on the right side of the street and keep well to the side.
  - (4) Obey the same "Stop," "Go," "Caution" and other traffic signs that autos must observe.
  - (5) Slow down, use caution when approaching intersections; look both left and right before crossing.
  - (6) Make sure that the street is clear in both directions before making left turns, then be sure to use the proper hand signal.
  - (7) Be courteous and considerate toward pedestrians at all times. It's good safety practice to ride in the street, not upon the sidewalk.
- Parents can help their children to develop proper traffic safety habits by setting good driving examples themselves: Do not drive above posted speed limits; never pass on hills, curves, or when it is otherwise unsafe to do so; obey all traffic signs and signals; be courteous; keep your car in good mechanical condition.

New Boat Laws Go Into Effect

Starting Saturday, March 1, Michigan's sportsmen using boats or watercraft of any nature over 16 feet in length, and all motor propelled craft (inboard or outboard) regardless of length, are required to register their craft with the Michigan Department of State.

Richard O. Cook, assistant executive vice-president of the Michigan Retailers Association, in speaking for the Michigan Sporting Goods & Marine Dealers Division of MRA, stated that the new law is designed to help curb theft, and the reckless operation of boats. Registration of the boat, with the requirement that the boat's registration number must be placed in 3 inch high letters (painted or otherwise) on both sides of the bow of the craft, should materially assist law enforcement officers in tracking down stolen boats for return to their owners; and should also aid officers in identifying violators of boating regulations and marine laws. The new law provides that it shall be unlawful for any person to operate watercraft under the influence of intoxicating liquor or narcotics; or for any person to operate a watercraft in a manner such as to endanger the life and property of any person.

The registration will be applied for on a special application form prepared by the Secretary of State and available through the designated Branch offices of the Secretary of State, local marine dealers, and local marine dealers. The registration fee is $2 and upon the receipt of the registration application and fee, the Department will process the form, return the registration certificate and assign a registration number.

Provisions are also made in the new law for the proper procedure to be followed in the case of watercraft accidents and states that the owner of any boat or craft operated upon any of the waterways of Michigan shall be personally responsible for any damage resulting from a wake created by negligent operation.

The new law also makes clear that no watercraft shall have in tow, a person on water skis, water sled, surfboard, or other similar contrivance after dark—that time being during the period one hour after sunset to one hour prior to sunrise. In addition, any person who permits himself to be towed on any of the before-mentioned shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Included in the new law, is a provision stating that watercraft actually competing on a marked racing course in a race or regatta sanctioned by the Michigan State Waterways Commission shall be allowed to attempt to attain high speeds for the race.

Violations of any of the provisions of the new law will be deemed a misdemeanor. Persons convicted of reckless operation of a watercraft while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or narcotic drugs may also be refused the right of operating watercraft in Michigan for a period up to two years. If any operator of a boat or craft shall cause the death of another individual by the careless, reckless or negligent operation of his craft, he will be guilty of negligent homicide.

Revenues received for registrations under the new law will be credited to the State Watercraft Law Enforcement Fund, and may subsequently be spent for enforcement of the new law.

The registration of all covered watercraft under the new law is to be considered the direct and personal responsibility of the owner.

There are still a few problems, such as the handling of out-of-state vacationists registrations, that will have to be worked out, Cook said.

Sportsmen in Bowling Lead

Despite a two-point setback last Friday, March 7, the league leading Sportsmen team clung to a two-point lead in the Grosse Pointers Bowling League. Piche nailed the Sportsman team for two points while third place Hi Dee grabbed two points from second place Beaupre. The victory enabled Hi Dee to move up to second place two points off the leaders pace.

Two hundred-plus scores were posted by: Joe Huper's 208 which was followed by Fred De Busscher's 205; Tim Baicalupo and Joe Ventimiglia 201's and Walt Beveridge, Aaron Cook and Ken Bonkowski 200's.

To A Great Lady

One evening last week while we were watching television, putting the kiddies to bed, washing the dinner dishes or doing any of the small homely tasks usual to those past twilight hours a great lady left us.

Mrs. Henry B. Joy gave her time, her money and her abundant joyful interest to our hospitals, our churches, our War Memorial. In times of civic need, after many resources had been exhausted, an appeal to this generous lady never went unanswered.

As a girl she grew up during the gracious sunny summers of the late nineteenth century. Her father, John Newberry, with his friend, James McMillan, built one of the first crenelated frame summer castles which marked the Pointe as a popular rustic resort for the industrialists from the city.

Her virtues were the old fashioned ones a more modern age must respect. Her work was skillful, fruitful and dedicated.

In her lovely home on the lakeshore Mrs. Henry B. Joy led society, remembering quieter days when life was lived within clearly defined Victorian rules.

Musings Of An Old Man

(Editorial note: This is the third in a series of feature articles by one of our senior citizens.)

I sat one evening in a small cafe on our eastside, a clean, homey place, where people from the neighborhood often come to exchange greetings and to sip the drink of their tastings.

I sat there a long time contemplating the faces and costumes of the men and women as they sat at the neat little tables laughing and chatting.

There were lovely women in quaint dresses, some in plain attire with some marks of care on their faces and older, bespectacled women who studied their menu for a time before pointing to the food of their choice.

There were older men whose hair was tinged with gray, who seemed nonchalant of the chatter around them, whose minds seem to be wandering in a world of business or profession, men whose eyes wandered about the room scanning the faces about them.

There were men with ruddy faces in garbs of outdoor, men who talked of building and construction, whose conversation at times seemed critical of the trend of the occupation they were in, who commented on the state of government.

It was interesting and amusing to look at those faces, trying to decipher their thoughts, trying to form some conjecture in my mind of what they did. The plans and designs in those minds intrigued me.

What were their hopes and ambitions; from whence did they come and what was their destiny? Someone once said that "coming events cast their shadows before them."

It seems lamentable that the mind of man is not endowed with that gift to pierce farther into the future. We meditate on our lack of foresight, we dwell on the things that could have been, we find flaws in the vicissitudes of early life that now reverberate our errors of judgment. However let us not become heedless of the shadows of coming events or affinity to the carefree environments about us.

Here in this homey little tavern I saw profiles of men of influence who perhaps had read the forecasts on the horizon of the future; there were common men who still trudged in the humbler channels of life; men whose visions have been obscured in the shadows of passing events.

But it seemed fitting that these men and women should come here momentarily from the narrower circles of their homes and commune with their friends and enjoy some of the fruit of their endeavors.

Young Teens Need Your Help

Young adolescents need help from their parents and friends in learning to control their tempers, and in overcoming shyness and bashfulness. They want to be considered and appreciative of others and they are beginning to realize the importance of being helpful, cooperative and always pleasant.

The "betweeners" have many problems in learning how to make and keep friends and in getting along with their families—especially their brothers and sisters. Dating becomes a new experience, complete with problems.

As young people between the ages of 11 and 14 begin to "cut the apron strings" they also begin to have worries about the inevitable conflicts which arise with parents. They still do enjoy doing things with their families, especially picnics and family celebrations such as birthdays and holidays.

These young adolescents need help and understanding. They need to have the opportunity to talk over "why" if parents say "no." They have questions that should be answered.

How to ask for and accept dates, what to do for fun without spending much money, and how to carry on a conversation—these are some of the questions that need answers. "Betweeners" need someone older to help with their problems and in gaining an understanding of why people behave as they do.

Grosse Exaggerations A. PRYOR

"Long since I knew to treat my foe like one Whom I might hereafter as a friend might love If he deserved it, and to love my friend As if he still might some day be my foe! For little is the trust we can repose In human friendships."

Ye Young Editor of this paper, who is sunning himself in the deep South, was in Cuba last week, where he met the great Irene Castle and her present husband. He sez she is delightful and interesting and they talked at length about her "Orphans of the Storm" home in Illinois where she houses thousands of unwanted dogs and cats and tries to find them good homes.

She is also a bird fancier and told him what she thinks is one of the dearest stories as well as being unique. It seems that her late mother was crazy about all birds they capture birds in order to sell them. (Lovely thought!) So La Castle makes the trek to this spot every year, buys all the birds they have... then takes all the little cages with her in a station wagon... drives to a large park in Havana and releases the birds near a bamboo grove. THERE is a woman!

Since we are fraught with cats as well as a madoodle... dear Editor sent us a clipping from a Cuban newspaper that he thought we might pass along to our readers. It is as follows: The Editor, The Antigua "Star".

Dear Sir, I am asking you for a small amount of space to make an appeal, which I hope will meet with immediate success.

I am appealing to any loyal citizen for a couple of efficient cats to present to the government for use in the Parcel Post section of the General Post Office. Their service is urgently required to get rid of the rats that get at the contents of parcels belonging to individuals.

Just this morning I went to the premises to receive a parcel that was large for me. As soon as it was handed to me, I noticed a large gaping hole in one of the corners that exposed part of the contents. On closer examination, I saw that part of a garment was in shreds, the work of rats.

On opening of the package, I found that a good, serviceable shirt was badly gnarred, as well as another bit of material. This was a loss to me, as the parcel was not insured.

Hence this appeal. I hope it will be responded to at once. People cannot afford to have their valuable stuff destroyed by these selfish and heartless rodents.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for space. I am, faithfully yours, S. A. HENRY."

As we write this, everyone on radio and television (as we always have BOTH on so we don't miss anything) are begorra-ing and spalpeen-ing all over the place in honor of dear St. Patrick, who was born in England! Never have we heard more queer accents... Americans, Chinese, Italians, Frenchmen, Englishmen, Scots, Poles are all speaking with an Irish brogue today.

One of our spies who now and again picks things up in his travels by plane... told us he overheard the following during a recent air trip. It was on a Friday, and the plane menu consisted of two kinds of fish as well as steak. One of the passengers on the plane was our local Bob Semple. As he sat minding his own business and reading a magazine... he, as well as the rest of the group could hear a fellow passenger who was three sheets to you-know-what... carrying on in loud tones about nothing at all.

The same informant ALSO on a trip to Cuba last month, said he stood in line with a local gent (who shall remain nameless), while the customs men went through bags and passengers filled out papers, etc. This here now guy, who was very much worse for wear, when asked what he did for a living, answered that he was retired. The official then asked what he did BEFORE he retired and the little man said "Nothing." Not that easily stumped, the customs guard then asked, "Well, what did your wife do?" To which our local boy replied: "She married ME!" Har, har, har. By this time the official got tired of the whole game, and passed the wag through without further questions. That's an idea!

Contractor Gets Office Space

A public hearing was held Monday night, March 17, at 7:30 in the offices of the City of Grosse Pointe to air opinions on the proposal of Richard M. Kimbrough, contractor, to move his business office into the building which his firm is currently remodeling at the corner of Fisher and Maumee.

The City Ordinance specified that the building should be restricted to professional rather than business offices but Mr. Kimbrough pleaded, on the basis of hardship, that the back suite of offices was unsuitable for such because of the space allotment and backdoor entrance. Of the four available offices, he has reserved three for rental to a dentist, doctor, and psychiatrist.

Neighbors from the area, and representatives from the Grosse Pointe Nursing Home, were present to assert that they had no objections to Mr. Kimbrough occupying the space. The City Council questioned the potential problem of adequate parking space, but Mr. Kimbrough convinced them that there was, more than enough.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

GUEST COLUMNIST: MRS. VIRGINIA LEONARD As this column goes to press, we are in the midst of National Library Week (March 18-22), with all its attendant publicity, open houses, and various other forms of celebration. It would be well nigh impossible for me to add to or improve upon what has already been said about our nation's libraries. They have grown to be such a necessary factor in our daily lives that I call upon all of you to consider with me, for a moment, what our lives would be if they did not exist.

In the first place, our reading consumption would be drastically reduced. Most of our budgets include the purchase of a very limited number of books, and even taking into consideration various book exchanges with friends, certainly intellectual hunger would go unrelieved. Sans library, there would no longer be skilled help in the matter of book selection. Our many questions would go virtually unvoiced as reference books are expensive, and everything cannot be answered by the World Almanac Business men rely heavily on our specialized departments to supply vital information - what of them? Even our periodical reading would be curtailed; many of us subscribe to several magazines and do read them, but think how much we supplement this reading with library periodicals.

And then there are the children. Even if we buy many books for our youngsters, and perhaps own a good set of encyclopedias, there are still additional reading books we cannot afford, and supplementary material for homework assignments which must be obtained through our public library. These children would also be deprived of the group experience and beneficial effects of story telling if there were no story hours.

And what of the other features of a public library? Without our own Grosse Pointe Public Library, our patrons would no longer have access to records, films, pictures and tools from our unique tool collection. Local organizations would no longer have the privilege of hearing book reviews by various staff members. Finally, there would be losses, in the absence of a public library, that are hard to evaluate. Who can say he has never come to a library just to browse - to cogitate - to solve a problem? We all appreciate a quiet atmosphere, a tasteful and efficient arrangement of books. It is good to get away from mundane, picayun problems and get a new perspective when surrounded by man's intellectual outpouring of the centuries. While wandering from shelf to shelf, we rediscover old friends, find new authors, pursue additional subjects, and learn a multitude of heretofore undiscovered things. Where could these precious experiences be duplicated in a world without a library? So, during this week dedicated to our libraries, let us not take too much for granted these many privileges and opportunities we have to be educated, instructed, inspired and aided. Long live the libraries!

No Hit-or-Miss RXs for You

By FRED M. KOPP, R. PH.

The prescription of years ago was largely a hit-or-miss affair. If one drug didn't work, the doctor tried another... then another. Often none of the drugs did much good. But the day of the hit-or-miss prescription is no more. Now, the doctor knows exactly what each drug can do. The first one he prescribes is usually the right one—the one drug that does a perfect job of curing. That's why.

Today's Prescription Is the Biggest Bargain in History. This is the 693rd of a series of Editorial advertisements appearing in this paper each week.

From Another Pointe of View

By Jack Oliver

While most of her contemporaries have a wonderful time frittering away their Easter vacations, post-deb Virginia Schneck will have a wonderful time Applying Herself.

This daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Robert J. Schneck, of Voltaire place, is taking off Friday by plane from New York along with a score or more of her classmates at Sarah Lawrence bound for Puerto Rico.

There, in the cool green hills of the island, they'll pursue a three-week anthropological field trip with occasional go's at San Juan just to even things up a shade.

Before she returns to school, Virginia and a few of her friends will make for St. Thomas in the Virgin Islands where the gifted girl may indulge her passion for the sketching which has beguiled her from kindergarten days.

Meanwhile, the Schnecks' younger daughter, Julie, continues her visit in Los Alamos, N. M., where she's been since being graduated from GPUS.

Looking to the North

They're not all tropical types, though: Such hardy ones as the Peter Finks, Bob and Mary Lee Scherer, Carla Higbie and Bill Howenstein are skiing at Aspen, Colo.

And bride-elect Claire Lenz is enduring the rigors peculiar to the senior at the University of Michigan.

At nearby University Hospital studies her prospective husband, Dr. Jeremiah G. Turcotte.

Miss Lenz, daughter of Mrs. Joseph Lenz, of Moselle place and the late Mr. Lenz, was roundly feted by her future mother-in-law, Mrs. Vincent J. Turcotte, at a tea which that lady recently gave to present the young woman to her friends.

"If memory serves," a phrase we seem to be using increasingly in the autumn of our charm, Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Stalker were among the first to honor the be-

The couple will make their home in New York.

Museum Shows Pointer's Work

Fashion drawings made by Miss Marie Louise Anderson, of Bedford road, are currently on exhibit in Collector's Corner at the Detroit Historical Museum.

Miss Anderson, a descendant of Michigan's first governor, Stevens Thomson Mason, and long a member of the Detroit Historical Society, has graciously loaned the Museum many original costume sketches she made as a young girl in Chicago.

The drawings, some in color and some in black and white, are faithful and well executed depictions of the mode of the day. Such famous courtiers as Worth and the Calot Soeurs are represented—as their creations were exhibition in a major Chicago shop. Miss Anderson made copies of them and with meticulous attention to detail has indicated the various fabrics, laces and other ornaments used.

Supplementing the fashion drawings are accessories of the period and several pieces from Miss Anderson's collection of antique lace.

In addition fabrics such as those used in the original costumes, including cloth-of-gold, Liberty satin and panne velvet are shown. These materials have all but disappeared from the textile world.

The exhibit will continue at the Museum through May 4.

The Junior League of Detroit will have as its guest speaker on the evening of Tuesday, April 1, at the Country Club of Detroit Mrs. Joseph W. Mann. Her topic will be "Civil Defense, Home Protection and the Woman's Place in Civil Defense."

For 20 years, Mrs. Mann has been active in volunteer service on national, state, county and local levels and it is through this work with women's groups that she realizes the significance of women volunteers.

Under sponsorship of the Michigan Office of Civil Defense, Mrs. Mann covers the entire state fulfilling speaking engagements and encouraging civil defense and Ground Ob-

Mothercraft Series Begins

Cottage Hospital is announcing a new series of mothercraft classes for expectant mothers. These classes, in a series of six, will be held every Wednesday afternoon from 2 until 3:30 o'clock starting April 2 at the hospital.

Those attending classes will not be obliged to go to Cottage Hospital as patients, neither is it required that their physicians be on the medical staff at Cottage Hospital. There is no fee.

The last class of the series will be repeated in the evening from 7:30 to 9 o'clock for the benefit of husbands.

Jacobson's in the Pointe will furnish a layette for demonstration purposes.

Miss Jerry Lou Davidson, R.N., on the staff of the hospital, will be in charge of the mothercraft classes.

Reservation is not necessary. For further information, call Cottage Hospital — TUxedo 5-4500.

St. Michael's Guilds to Meet

From their new winter home in Phoenix, Ariz., The Highlands, the Lloyd Garrison Hookers of Vendome road, have announced the engagement of their daughter, ALICE JANE, and DAVID BARROWS STACKPOLE, of Providence, R. I., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tabor Stackpole, of Johnson, Vt.

The bride-elect was educated at Grosse Pointe Country Day School, at the Masters School, Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., and Northwestern University. Her future husband attended Peoples Academy in Vermont and Dartmouth College.

The wedding will take place June 21 in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

AAUW to Hear Local Novelist

The General meeting of the AAUW for the month will be held today, March 20. The business meeting will be held at 11 a.m., at the Detroit Boat Club.

Luncheon will be served at 12:30, to be followed by the program at 1:30. Local author Mrs. E. Haldeman Finnie (Isabela Holt) will be featured. She has written eight novels, the last three of which "My Son and Heir," "Rampole Place," and "Midpoint" were all book club selections.

The Contemporary Literature Group of the AAUW will meet Tuesday, March 25, at the home of Mrs. Edgar A. Hahn, 1221 Three Mile drive. Mrs. Arthur B. Hillegas will be the co-hostess. The program, a review of "Face to Face," written by a blind Indian boy, will be presented by Mrs. R. L. Shepard.

Mrs. Edward F. Gehrig will greet members of the Legislative Group in her home, 1230 Balfour road, Thursday, March 27, at 10 a.m. Mrs. Edgar A. Hahn will lead the discussion on "How Congress Makes Up Its Mind".

Mrs. Dykstra Heads Calls

Mrs. Richard Dykstra, of Balfour road, has been named chairman of home calls and registration for the Tuberculosis Case-finding Survey in the downtown Detroit area beginning Tues., April 15.

Mrs. Dykstra is chairman of church social relations for the United Church Women of Detroit.

Under Mrs. Dykstra's direction hundreds of women will call on neighbors throughout the area west of Woodward avenue within Grand Blvd. Home callers will give information on tuberculosis and its dangers and give locations where free chest X-rays may be obtained at one of the seven Mobile Chest X-ray Clinics.

Registration of the thousands of people who will make use of the X-ray service is also under Mrs. Dykstra's direction. Volunteer registrars will be recruited by civic groups, social organizations and clubs.

Chest X-rays are a sure device for detecting any disease of the lung and chest area. Tuberculosis, heart disease and lung tumors and cancers are spotted in the X-ray picture. With the incidence of these diseases still high in the Detroit community everyone owes it to himself and his family to have a chest X-ray at least once a year.

More than 2,000 cases of tuberculosis were found in Detroit last year. The disease is no respecter of address, age or sex. Anyone can get TB, often without realizing it. Early TB has no symptoms and can be detected only with the X-ray. Early detection of the disease guarantees that treatment will be short and effective.

The Survey is sponsored by the TB and Health Society, the Detroit Dept. of Health, the Detroit TB Sanatorium, and the Southeastern Michigan TB Detection Project.

Hospital Plans Annual Benefit

The St. Joseph's Mercy Auxiliary will have luncheon this Thursday, at 12:15 o'clock at the Caucus Club to complete plans for their annual luncheon-bridge.

This year's benefit is to be given Tuesday, April 22nd at 12:30 p.m. at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club. Mrs. Albert Vossler is chairman of the party.

She will be assisted by Mesdames Henry Hoffman, Henry Weitenberner, Arthur Gannan, Paul Rick, Leo Saraf, Fred Strickroot, George Troester, Orville Hastings, Arthur Schultz, Charles McKenna, Andrew Fulgenzi, Harold Donnelly, Wesley Harrison, Francis Wantland, Robert Wantland, Robert Crossen, Irving Levitt, and Louis Gregory.

A "Spring Flight" theme using flowered invitations and decorations will be carried out.

Mrs. Bert Greiner is in charge of tickets. The proceeds of the luncheon will be used to buy diagnostic equipment for the Internal Medicine Department of St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital.

SPRING HATS

The man approached me in a rather furtive manner, peering shyly-eyed from under a battered felt hat. Oh, oh! here's the big touch, I thought.

But, no. It was a banker of considerable means who wanted to ask where a certain address was. I had almost started scurrying away under threat of a pan-handler's approach. If I had, and the banker chap had never located that address, he could put the whole blame on himself and his old hat.

I relate all this in a friendly way, of course, to show how things happen in life. Now, that banker had no business wearing a hat that gave him a seedy first-look appearance.

Hats are the crowning glory to men's outward appearance. And today's spring sky-pieces artfully improve a man's appearance; they give him a head-to-toe completeness in his dress.

The new narrower-brim hats have been designed to fit in with the natural-shoulder suits and coats as an important part of the general picture of neatness that marks the men's wear scene today.

Certain men have balked at the idea of going from a wide-brim hat into a narrower brim; but by gradual steps they have arrived at the present point where narrow-brim neatness is smart. Can it be done, even by big men? Hat I have an ex-wrestler friend who weighs a hefty 240 pounds, and he has made the big switch. Handsomely, too. So much so that you don't even notice his cauliflower ears. Well . . . not very much.

Each girl must be accompanied by one of her parents for the registration interview, Miss Kitchell said.

Any girl between the ages of 9 and 16 is eligible to attend Cavell. An eight-year-old girl is accepted if her ninth birthday comes before Sept. 1, and a 16-year-old is accepted if she is not 17 before Sept. 1.

Camp Cavell opens its 1958 season on June 28 for four periods: June 28-July 11; July 12-25; July 26-Aug. 8; and Aug. 9-22.

Advanced registration of former campers indicate that Camp Cavell will soon be filled, Miss Kitchell said. At present there are vacancies in all four camping periods.

Indian Guides Plan Dinner

The Grosse Pointe Indian Guides have planned a father and son dinner for the induction of new tribe members at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center on Friday.

One hundred and fifty fathers and sons will be on hand to watch Sam Ellis and Bill Schaffer of the Quick Draw Club entertain the boys with their fascinating display of gun draws and marksmanship.

Dr. William Bedwell, head of the Grosse Pointe Long House, and John Miller Jr. of the Hannan Y.M.C.A. will induct the new tribe members into the Grosse Pointe Guides. Following their induction the little braves will be shown authentic movies of Indian history and customs.

This brings the Indian Guides busy year to a near end for the season. Last month the boys and their fathers spent the week-end at Greenfield Village and they are now planning their State Longhouse Camp Out at Camp Ohlivesa, Holly, Michigan.

Suburban Violet Club Invites Guests to Meet

The East Suburban African Violet Club will meet Wednesday at the Teen Center, 16600 Stephens Drive, East Detroit, at 8 o'clock.

Each member will bring an arrangement of African violets. A discussion will follow explaining how each was made. Guests are invited.

Concert Set at Christ Church

Sunday evening, March 30, at 7:30 o'clock, all Grosse Pointers are cordially invited to a concert of religious music presented by Washington University's 72 voice mixed choir at Christ Church, 61 Grosse Pointe Blvd.

Joining the Canterbury Club of Christ Church in playing host to the choir are The Tuxis Club of Memorial Church and the Youth Council of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center. All other church young people's organizations have been invited and they and everyone in attendance, both adults and young people, are invited to a reception and refreshments in the undercroft following the concert.

Washington University's Choir has recently sung and broadcast nationally at the National Council of Churches. Also, they have sung with the St. Louis Symphony in much the same capacity as the Rackham Choir joins the Detroit Symphony. Their current tour this spring takes them to Chicago, Detroit and Cleveland.

Featured on the program at Christ Church will be selected works from Arthur Honegger's monumental "King David" which the choir on occasion does in its entirety. Richard Roeckelein, Christ Church's own fine organist will accompany the King David selections.

In keeping with Palm Sunday, Donald Weiss, the choir's director has eliminated secular music. Bach's "Now Shall The Grace," Vaughan William's "Lord, Thou Hast Our Refuge," de Victoria's "O Vos Omnes" and "O Magnum Mysterium," Francis Poulenc's "Tenebrae Factae Sunt" and "Exultate Deo" and Schuman's "Te Deum" will be included on the program which will be lightened by some of the beautiful and traditional spirituals.

Lutherans Plan Show

The Abigail Division of the Women's Guild will present a Bridge, Fashion Show and Tea Thursday, March 20. The event will be held at 1:00 p.m. in the Green Room of St. James Lutheran Church.

A metropolitan skyline, flower boxes and a sparkling foundation will decorate the sidewalk—the setting for the gala affair.

Modeling spring millinery will be Mrs. Edward Bauman and her daughters, Mrs. Ernest Baker, Jr. and Mrs. Frank Watts.

More local talent will include Mesdames Daniel Foster, Warren Jollymore, George Kurz, Fred Martin, Julius Meier, Charles Ohlsson, Robert Paustian, Richard Rosenbusch, and Robert Schultz.

ENGINEERS WIVES MEET

The Society of Engineers' Wives will hold a sewing meeting at the home of Mrs. Malcolm Stirton, of Lothrop Road, on Thursday, March 27, at 10:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Francis Towsley will serve as luncheon chairman.

To Be Wed

At a cocktail party in their Broadstone road home, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Schneider recently made known the engagement of their daughter, PENNY, and DANIEL F. WEBB, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Webb, of Northfield, Ill.

The bride-elect is a senior at Michigan State University where she is affiliated with Pi Beta Phi sorority. Her fiance is also a senior at M.S.U. and a member of Sigma Chi.

An August 9 wedding date has been set.

Joan Dasef Wins Contest

The Michigan Intercollegiate Oratorical Contest for Women, held recently in Ypsilanti was won by Joan Dasef, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Thomas Dasef, of Bedford road.

Joan, who was graduated from Grosse Pointe High School in 1955, is now in her third year at Alma College. She had won the local contest in February and will compete in the regionals at Lansing on April 25.

The subject of her oration was "The Measure of A Man." She was coached by Prof. M. Harold Mickle, of the Alma College staff, and by her father who also won the Alma College oratory contest when he was a student there.

Roses Topic At Garden Meet

The Garden Group of the Grosse Pointe Woman's Club will meet at one o'clock on Wednesday, March 26 at the Library on Kercheval at Fisher.

Mrs. Edward V. Luss, using "Roses" as her topic will talk on the selection, care and arranging of a most popular flower.

A discussion with members sharing their experiences, will follow. All members of the club are urged to attend.

EMPIRE SOCIETY TO MEET

Vincent Massey Chapter, Daughters of the British Empire, will meet this Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. C. W. Todd, 178 Newport.

Shamrocks Shine At GPYC Festival

Mrs. Howard Shaw Marks Birthday at Club's St. Pat Gala; Huge Crowd Turn Out for Gay Irish Party

Nice to remember: the gay, gay scene at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's St. Patrick's Party last Saturday. Nice to remember Mrs. Howard Shaw's birthday cake aglow with tapers (she was born on St. Pat's Day, March 17). Nice to remember that huge lacy shamrock mounted on green-striped white at the far end of the ballroom.

Other highlights: Decor as beautiful as newly-arrived springtime, green and white streamered canopy and clustered balloons; lighted candles like rows of stars on tables; snappy music of the Fenby-Carr Orchestra and Belinda Blanchard's singing; the variety of Irish hat and bonnet favors.

Impersonator Nip Nelson and Tap Dancer Estelle Sloan drew such ovations on the 11 o'clock show they finally had to beg off.

Past Commodore Stark Hickey's green and white necktie was shamrock-embroidered; he and Mrs. Hickey staged the birthday fete for their daughter, Mrs. Shaw, others in the group being Mr. Shaw, the Edward J. Schoenherr, the Raymond Whitfields and the Russell D. VanHoutens.

The McNierneys were guests

Chairman George L. Cassidy was distinguished by his tie of solid green. He and committee members, with the help of Manager Fred Gebstadt, had devised a dinner menu with the "Erin Go Bragh" note wherever possible. While the chairman was busy with his duties, Mrs. Cassidy presided at their table of guests.

Vice Commodore and Mrs. Robert F. Weber and Rear Commodore and Mrs. William A. Termes with other members of GPYC's Tuesday Bowling League, including the A. P. Bartholomews, Jr., the Robert J. Nixons, the Rex Brophys, the George Giffellens, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. George M. Brooks and the Joseph Caskeys. The Caskeys had entertained at an early cocktail hour in their Stanton lane home.

Some of the Friday bowlers had a table together, too. They were Mr. and Mrs. Morley of the LeRoy Paynes who had joined with the John D. Kennellys and their guests to celebrate St. Patrick's. Mr. and Mrs. Bott were in a foursome with the William M. Schmidts.

Mrs. Irwin Kunerth's champagne-hued silk brocade dress was a contrast to the green peau de soie frocks of Mrs. Hamilton Kotcher and Mrs. Wilfred Whyte. The Kotchers, Whytes and Kunerths were in a party with Mrs. William E. Besancon, Miss Josephine Spey and Karl Kuenzel.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Rickel were a family foursome with their attractive, dark-haired teen-age daughter and son, Alice and John. Dr. and Mrs.

Cyril R. Defever and the Haford Kerbawys were together.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Bowes entertained the Winston Hampers, the Ches B. Larsens and the Northmore W. Hamills, Mrs. Bowes wearing black crepe sparkled at the high waist with a red rose.

The Harold W. Lightbodys and the Harold W. Burtons had a table handy to the dance floor and were among the enthusiastic dancers. Nearby were the Arthur Wrocks and the Thomas Coupers, thoroughly enjoying the fete and another foursome the William A. Kellers and their guests, the James Houghs, of Romeo.

Mrs. Hamilton F. Kotcher is president of the Parent Association.

Susan Hood Has Birthday

Susan Hood's important twelfth birthday celebration, which took place last Saturday, March 15, was a merry event in two sections. It began at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club with a bowling and dinner party and then moved on to her home on N. Deeplands road.

Susan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Hood, Jr., were in attendance to see to the group's transportation and arrange the dinner table in the club's Fo-Castle with St. Patrick's decorations. Special were green carnation corsages for the girls and shamrock boutonnieres mounted with tiny clay pipes for the esquire side.

At 7:30 o'clock there was the hurried take-off for activities at the Hood residence—watching colored television programs and dancing.

Engaged

—Picture by Paul Gach

At a family dinner recently in their Oxford road home Mr. and Mrs. Leet Mars Denton announced the engagement of their daughter, DENNIE ANN, to EUGENE FERGUSON WAMBOLD, Jr., son of the Eugene F. Wambolds, of Whittier road. The bride-elect was graduated from Grosse Pointe Country Day School and Bradford Junior College. She made her debut at a dance at the Country Club in June, 1955. She is a member of Sigma Gamma. Her fiancé was graduated from Ohio Wesleyan and received his master's degree in business administration from the University of Michigan. He is affiliated with Sigma Alpha Epsilon. The pair have set a September wedding date.

Troth Told

—Picture by Paul Gach

At a cocktail party given by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stolp Sherer at their home on Ridge road, Saturday, a surprise announcement revealed the engagement of the hosts' daughter, ANN NOBLE, and BENJAMIN HENRY PADDOCK III, son of the Benjamin H. Paddock, also of Ridge road.

Miss Sherer, who made her debut at a ball at the Country Club in 1954, was graduated from the Ethel Walker School in Simsbury, Conn., and, after attending Sweet Briar for a year, was graduated from the Katharine Gibbs School in New York. She belongs to Tau Beta and to the Junior League.

Her fiancé was graduated from St. Paul's School in Concord, N.H., from Trinity College and from the University of Michigan's School of Business Administration. His affiliation is with St. Anthony's Hall.

Theirs will be a summer wedding.

DARs to Hear Dr. Russell Kirk

The regular meeting of the Fort Pontchartrain Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will be held on Friday, March 28, at 12:00 o'clock at the Women's City Club.

Following luncheon, members will assemble in the Executive Suite where Mrs. William M. Perrett, Regent, will preside at the meeting.

"What is Education for Citizenship" is the National Defense theme to be presented by Dr. Russell Kirk, recipient of degrees from Michigan State University and Duke University. Dr. Kirk has also received a Doctor of Letters degree from St. Andrews University (Scotland) and honorary Doctor of Letters degrees from Boston College and St. John's University.

He is the only American to hold the highest arts degree of the senior Scottish University. He is an author of several well-known books, and at present, is research professor of Political Science at Long Island University.

Reports of the Delegates to the State Conference will be read.

Rebecca Patterson To Wed March 29

Will Speak Marriage Vows to Ensign Gerhardt Hein (USNR) in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church; Showers and Parties Already on Calendar

Rebecca Ann Patterson has completed plans for her wedding, March 29 at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, to Ensign Gerhardt Hein (USNR).

The bride-elect, daughter of Mrs. Frank Patterson, of Yorkshire road, and the late Mr. Patterson, has asked Mrs. Kenneth McCoy, sister of the prospective bridegroom, to be her matron of honor.

Tara Fowler, of Hinsdale, and Barbara Keenan, of Hudson, O., will be bridesmaids with four-year-old Rebecca McCoy as her aunt's flower girl.

Ensign Hein has asked Joseph Sofhauser, of New York, to be his best man and Kenneth McCoy, Richard DeBolt, Wilmer Bradbury, of Philadelphia, and Christopher Braunchli, of Mt. Clemens, to seat the guests.

Mrs. Clinton Hardy and her daughter, Emily, have entertained at a dinner and linen shower at the Women's City Club where Mrs. Roy Gartung also gave a luncheon and miscellaneous shower.

Sara Leudders and Joan Leslie gave a bar shower for the couple and Carol Benschlag was hostess at a kitchen gadget shower this past Monday.

The Kenneth McCoy's will give the rehearsal dinner on the eve of the wedding at their home on Merriweather road.

Albion Pledges Four Pointers

Four residents of Grosse Pointe have just been pledged to fraternities and sororities at Albion College, according to a statement from the administration office.

Pledged to Alpha Tau Omega are Thomas R. Allmand, son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Allmand of Neff road; and Duane A. Ashley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Ashley of Oxford road.

The Sigma Chi fraternity pledged William N. Winfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Winfield of University place.

The Kappa Delta sorority has just pledged Gail L. Burns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Burns of Huntington road.

Allmand, Ashley, and Winfield are all freshmen; Miss Burns is a sophomore.

Women Dems Plan Session

How is a bill transferred into law in the Michigan Legislature?

Democratic Women from the 14th Congressional District will see for themselves during the mock legislative session that will highlight the semi-annual Democratic Women's Day in Lansing on Saturday, March 22. Chairman of the Women's Day program is Mrs. Sanford A. Brown, wife of the State Treasurer.

Representing the 14th District will be: Estelle Wegert, Helen M. Wirth, Lee Murphy, Carmella Bommarito, Marilyn Bartholomew, Catherine Wagenlander, Ruby Jenkins, Esteline Witten, Olga Tighe, Margaret O'Brien, Lillian Szemanski, Stephanie Masis, Mary Favors, Margaret Marsh, Therese McGovern and Jeanne Wolff.

The 14th District delegation will be among the more than 500 women from all over the State planning to attend the Democratic Women's Day program in the Lansing Civic Center.

After a coffee and doughnuts registration hour, the Democratic Women will take part in the 10 a.m. "This Is Your Legislature" program.

All State Democratic Legislators have been invited to participate in the mock session which will demonstrate the progress of a bill, from introduction through debate and vote in both houses and finally to signature by the Governor. Some Democratic Legislators will portray their Republican counterparts to add realism to the session.

George Brooks Return From Florida Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. George Brooks, of Touraine road, have returned after a 10-day stay in Lauderdale-by-the-Sea, Fla., with their sons, Gary, Todd, Mark and Craig.

They visited the Senior Brooks and helped another Grandma, Mrs. A. D. Blackwood, celebrate her birthday. They plan to head south again during the Easter vacation with the boys for a three-week visit.

Gov. G. Mennen Williams and Dr. Persia Campbell of New York State's Consumers Council, will speak at the noon luncheon at the Civic Center.

Democratic women from this area who wish to make reservations for the program and noon luncheon or to participate in car pools for the trip to Lansing, may obtain additional information by calling Mrs. Estelle Wegert, chairman, at VA. 4-7831, or Mrs. Helen Wirth, VA. 2-1744.

The short supply of fresh vegetables on the market will probably continue until sometime in April, according to food specialists at Michigan State University.

Easter Morning Sunrise Service

The third annual Easter Sunrise Service for the community will be held at the Eastside Drive-in Theatre, 19440 Harper near Moross Road, at 6:30 on Easter morning, April 6.

This beautiful worship service, fast becoming a community tradition, is sponsored by the Salem Memorial Lutheran Church in cooperation with the Harper Woods Kiwanis Club and the management of the theater.

Men of the church and the Kiwanis Club will again construct a special worship center for the Sunrise Service. Special music will feature the Salem Memorial Handbell Ringers, directed by Mrs. Olive Walker, and the Chancel Choir of the church, directed by Miss Carolyn A. Hill. The Rev. Reginald H. Holle, Pastor of Salem Memorial, will deliver the festival message to the worshippers in their cars.

Free use of the in-car heaters will be available to all those who attend the service. Past years have demonstrated that entire families enjoy this opportunity of worshipping together early on Easter morning.

Many handicapped and semi-shut-ins have also availed themselves of this chance to take part in Easter worship. Any such handicapped persons who may need transportation are asked to call the church office, TU 1-9210, between the hours of 9 and 4 Monday through Friday. Transportation arrangements will be made by members of the Harper Woods Kiwanis Club.

The entire community is invited to share in this Sunrise Service at 6:30 on Easter morning.

Center Lists Bridge Winners

The Grosse Pointe Memorial Club announces the past week's winners.

March 12, North and South—Earl Gurnack Sr. and Jr.; Ruth Arbury and Dorothy Coolidge. East and West—Jackie Wilcox and Edna Bruce; Glennie Baker and Robert Emke.

March 14, North and South—Alex Callam and Robert Ruhl; Rona Rose and Geri Fasbender. East and West—Marc Barach and James Miller; Glennie Baker and Dr. M. W. Haisten.

Even the young people who graduate from a finishing school have a lot to learn.

Blue Devil Regional Fashion Of The Day

JADE MILLER, center, models the fashion of the day when the Grosse Pointe Blue Devils and Austin Friars met for the championship in the East Detroit Basketball Regional tournament, Friday, March 14. Helping Jade with her unusual fashion is LINDA WEITZMAN left, and GABRIELE HESSE. Jade said, "I'll cut off my blonde pony tail if the Devils lose." The Devils lost 76-52.

New Citizens On Local Scene

Baby Bulletin:

March 4—Born to Mr. and Mrs. William Webster (Patricia Baumgarten), of Wilmette, Ill., a daughter, Anne Norwood.

The little girl's maternal grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Baumgarten, of Lochmoor boulevard, have just returned from a Mediterranean Cruise.

March 9—Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Palmer Frazer, . . . (Serie Elizabeth Wigton), of Hawthorne road, a son, John Palmer III.

(The very young man's maternal grandparents are the Oliver Lucas Wigttons, of Lochmoor boulevard; his paternal, the John Palmer Frazers, of Washington road.)

March 15—Born to Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Jackson (Bettina Stroh), of Cleveland, a daughter, Elizabeth Laird.

(The infant's maternal grandmother, Mrs. John William Stroh, of Lewiston road, was on hand for his arrival.)

Institute Offers Nursery Course

Several Detroit business establishments, in the interest of furthering the services of the Detroit Institute of Art to suburban areas, have made possible the pre-school art workshop which is currently being taught in Grosse Pointe.

The program, which is under the auspices of the Founder's Society of the Institute, is held every Friday morning, from 9:30 to 11:00 a.m. at the Community Services Building, on Grosse Pointe boulevard. Begun in October, it is in its second series of 8 weekly sessions. Mrs. Carl Komp, the instructor, teaches the children—and their mothers, who are an integral part of the program—how to work with various materials: plastics, play, paint, pastels, charcoal, etc.

The purpose of the program is to bring the objects d'art out of the museum atmosphere and to the public, thereby inspiring a fuller and greater appreciation of the various arts. This particular program, which is being sponsored in ten communities other than Grosse Pointe, also includes emphasis on literature and music.

Classes are limited to 20 pupils. Pointers in the present series are Mrs. Douglas Campbell and young Doug; Mrs.

John E. Caulkins and Billy; Mrs. Frank Couzens, and Carol; Mrs. G. E. Miller and James; Mrs. Walter Neeb with Suzanne and Arlene; Mrs. John H. Posselius and Jay; Mrs. Edward Roney and Patrick, and Mrs. Edward Sprechi with John and Bob.

This summer the Extension Services department of the Detroit Institute of Art plans a summer program similar to this, their winter plan. It will be open to children from the first through the sixth grades and, tentatively, will run for six weeks.

For further information call William A. McGonagle, supervisor of Extension Services, TEmple 1-0360.

Organic Garden Club To Meet March 26

The next monthly meeting of the Motor City Organic Farm and Garden Club will be held at the Cannon Memorial Recreation Center, Cadeux and Warren, Detroit, on March 26th, at 7:30 p.m.

Final plans will be made for the area's organic clubs' booth at the Spring Flower Show, Helen Nedzwick, D.C., will also speak on "Chiropractic, Food and Health." All interested are cordially invited.

Lochmoor to Reopen With Florida Party

This Gala for Stay at Home Members will Begin with Cocktails in the Tropic Decked Clubhouse on March 22; Louis DeHayes, Jr., Chairman of the Fiesta

"Lochmoor-By-The-Sea", emblazoned on a banner flying over the entrance of the clubhouse, will herald the re-opening of Lochmoor Club and give a clue to the theme of the Florida Weepers Party set for March 22.

(The 'Weepers' affair is being planned to soothe the winter-weary members who, this year, have had to forgo their annual sojourns to warmer, sunnier climes.)

Upon stepping over the threshold of the clubhouse, members and their guests will envision themselves at the vacation Mecca of their choice and the icy blasts, snow and cold familiar to this locale will be forgotten . . . at least for one delightful evening.

During the cocktail period, which begins at 7 o'clock, new club members will be introduced. Dinner is slated for 8:30 and dancing to Dave Farley's orchestra will follow. Guests are invited to don their most casual southern wear.

Entertainment chairman Louis DeHayes, Jr., and Mrs. DeHayes and their committee, Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Woodbridge and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bowles, are leaving no stone unturned to provide, in the decor, the proper setting to depict the favorite vacation haunts of the Weepers.

A simulated blue sky in the ballroom, studded with twinkling stars will highlight a huge "Miami moon". Guests will be seated in reserved sections designated by colorful posters duly labeled Miami Beach, Ft. Lauderdale, Palm Beach and other popular play-time sites.

Palm trees and coconuts will line the walls of the ballroom and authentic menu jackets from such fun spots as The Elbow Room, Valentines and The Pink Pony are being sent in from Florida to be used as souvenirs for the tables. As centerpieces, there will be giant bowls of citrus fruits which are arriving by air from the southern groves just the day before the party.

A long list of reservations include Lochmoor President Gordon D. Skinner and Mrs. Skinner who will share a table with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Diegel, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Misch and Dr. and Mrs. R. Sidney Sinclair. Robert Wells has reserved a table for eight and the George

Yachtswomen To See Styles

The Yachtswomen are having a spring fashion show and luncheon, April 12, at Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Their purpose is to raise funds to send several prospective cadets to the Coast Guard Academy at New London, Conn., for Academy Week.

During that "Week," the boys live the way regular cadets do, following the same routine, learning to drill, as well as all the other activities.

This is a help to them in making their decision to try to pass the rigid tests necessary for appointment to the Academy.

Roots will host a table for ten.

Among others will be Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. William Trader, Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Weber and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vlasic.

The Weepers' party is a prelude to many social activities for the adults and children scheduled by the entertainment committee. On April 6, the annual Easter Egg Hunt will be held at the club for the youngsters.

The following week, rehearsals will begin for the Minstrel Show slated for May 9 and 10. April 22 is the date of the first in a series of monthly bridge luncheons and a kick-off brunch is scheduled for the last week in April which will officially launch the golf season at Lochmoor.

Church Group To Serve Salad

The Women's Association of the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church will have a potluck salad luncheon at their monthly meeting at 12:30 o'clock on Tuesday, March 25.

Mrs. Dwight Struthers, president of the Association will preside at the meeting.

Mrs. Robert W. Betzing, program chairman, has arranged a program entitled "Journey Into Understanding". Mrs. John Reuter and Mrs. Malcolm Jolliff are assisting with the program. The Dedication of the Day will be given by Mrs. Lathrop Morse.

The hostess group for the day will be the Martha Group, Mrs. Donald Neill, leader.

Carmelite Guild to Hold Day of Recollection

The annual day of Recollection for the St. Joseph's Carmelite Guild will begin with the 9:30 o'clock Mass, the morning of March 25, at the Home, 4800 Cadeux.

The Rev. Fr. Justin Gross, S. C. J., will conduct the retreat.

Mrs. S. Sullivan is chairman for the day assisted by Mrs. Arthur J. Ferland.

Reservations may be made by calling TU. 2-3800, TU. 1-8993 or LA. 7-0509.

Domestic SS Reports Due

Social security reports on domestic workers for the January-March quarter are due in April, Francis L. Pendergast, manager of the Detroit-East social security office announced today.

Under the present law, most domestic employees, such as gardeners, cooks, maids, and housekeepers, are covered under social security.

Employers of these and other household workers must report the cash wages paid and remit the social security tax of 4 1/2 percent of the employee's wages. In cases where the domestic employee has been paid less than $50 cash in the quarter, the employer does not have to make any report.

Mr. Pendergast stressed the point that these wage reports are extremely important to the domestic employee, since old-age, survivors, and disability insurance benefits under social security are figured on the basis of the amount of earnings credited to a person's account.

The form used in making the return on household employees requires only a few minutes to complete and may be obtained from the nearest office of the District Director of Internal Revenue in Detroit. The completed form, with remittance enclosed, should be mailed to the District Director of Internal Revenue, 511 Federal Building, Detroit 26, Michigan.

Accountants to Hear Gerald C. Schroeder

The president of the Michigan Association of Credited Public Accountants, Gerald C. Schroeder, CPA, will be the guest speaker at the meeting of the American Society of Woman Accountants at 7 o'clock, Tuesday, March 25, at the Women's City Club.

Mr. Schroeder's topic will be "Financial Reporting in a Changing World."

Men Gardeners Sell Mums

This year, for the first time ever, you can get some of the fabulous hybrid chrysanthemums developed by Vince DePetris for your own garden. Anyone who has seen these beautiful mums knows that these are among the largest and healthiest of all garden mums.

Until now these have only been available to commercial growers. Now you, too, can grow mums as large and as beautiful as you can get from a florist. Not only that, but these plants will continue to produce an outstanding display year after year.

The Men's Garden Club of Grosse Pointe is making this exceptional offer in order to finance the building of a Botanical Garden on the grounds of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center. All proceeds of the sale will go for this purpose.

We are offering for sale POTTED plants — not the usual rooted cuttings — in a complete range of mum colors. Each plant will be named and cultural directions will be included with each order. The price will be 85 cents a plant, or six plants for $5.00.

This, in itself, is an unusual bargain since potted plants of this quality would sell for at least $1.50, if purchased through the usual sources. The plants are to be picked up at Nelson Frolund's, 19815 Mack Avenue, Grosse Pointe, Michigan on Saturday or Sunday, May 24th and 25th.

Heart Attack Advice Offered

How can you help someone who seems to be having a heart attack if you are the only other person on hand?

The most important thing you can do, says the Michigan Heart Association, is to call a doctor at once. You should not attempt to move or lift the patient, nor should you give him anything to drink. You may, however, help the patient take the position in which he finds it easier to breathe, loosen any tight clothing such as belts or shirt collars, and see that he doesn't become chilled. It is also important to reassure the patient that things are being handled well and promptly.

The Heart Association's advice is given in a poster entitled "How to Help in Case of a Heart Attack," which is being distributed widely throughout the State. The poster measures 8 1/2" by 11" and is suitable for posting on bulletin boards in offices, factories, stores, etc. It is a companion piece to a leaflet en-available by writing to Heart, in care of your local post office.

The usual symptoms of a heart attack, says the leaflet, are a severe painful feeling of pressure under the breastbone (which in mild cases may be mistaken for acute indigestion), sudden intense shortness of breath, sweating, and, occasionally, loss of consciousness. As the leaflet explains, a heart attack usually means a coronary thrombosis, the acute condition that develops when one of the coronary arteries supplying the heart muscle with blood is suddenly blocked by a clot.

The poster is published as a public service, in response to many requests received by the Association following the release of the "Heart Attack" leaflet.

In Michigan, the Heart Association raises its funds for research, education and community service projects through "United" fund-raising campaigns (Torch Drive in Detroit) in many Michigan communities.

Powell in Germany On Army Maneuvers

SEVENTH ARMY, Germany (AHTNC) — PFC Larry R. Powell, 19, son of Charles Powell, of Huntington road, Mich., recently participated in "Sabre Hawk", a Seventh Army maneuver which involved more than 100,000 troops in Germany.

Powell, a truck driver with the 520th Quartermaster Company in Mannheim, entered the Army in 1955 and arrived in Europe in October 1956.

Selection of Good Seed Is Key to Better Lawns

Although it's too early to begin working in flower beds, the blustery, chilly March and early April days when there's just a hint of spring around the corner are ideal for starting to improve your lawn. Seed sown now will "wait for weather" and take advantage of the first warm days and the early spring moisture when it comes.

The first step is the selection of a good seed. Experts recommend Kentucky bluegrass seed, or a mixture containing at least 40% Kentucky bluegrass. You can be sure of a quality grass seed by carefully reading the analysis which most states require to be printed on the label or tag of the container. Beware of the mixtures that contain high percentages of "hay" grasses such as rye, timothy, orchard grass and the Alta fescue grasses. Don't be fooled by low prices.

Remember that Kentucky bluegrass contains more than two million seeds to the pound. Rye grass, on the other hand, has only a quarter of a million. In grass seed, as in everything else, you get what you pay for. Plan to use one pound of Kentucky bluegrass seed for each 1,000 square feet of lawn surface. Spread the seed on your lawn while there is still frost action. The seeds will lodge in the frost cracks in the ground and nature will do your cultivating for you.

Under ideal weather conditions, Kentucky bluegrass will sprout in about 2 weeks, but don't be disturbed if your early

Harmonie Honors St. Patrick's Day

Many Pointers Attend Irish Party at 109 Year Old Club; Danced Reels and Had Community Sing

Grosse Pointe was very well represented at The Harmonie's St. Patrick's gala. Despite the fact that the 109-year-old organization was originally a German singing society, a goodly number of the club's members had forborne from the Emerald Isle.

Following dinner, guests moved up to the third floor ballroom, where dance numbers included jigs, step dances and reels in variety, to the lively music of an Earl Perkins orchestra.

Between dances there was much singing of Irish songs, in which everybody joined. Favors were clay pipes, and perky hats which proved becoming to everybody.

Grosse Pointer Julius C. Rapp, of Bedford road, was chairman of the party. Mr. and Mrs. Philip F. Greco, of Morland place, entertained a party of six. Dr. and Mrs. George M. O'Brien, of Oxford road, were hosts to Dr. and Mrs. M. E. Auble and Dr. and Mrs. James Rieden.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Feiten, of Holiday road, invited a large group which included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williams and the Edward Ratiecks, all of Shoreham road.

Among the guests of the Louis E. Muellers, of Lincoln road, were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rowe, of Balfour road, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Barthel, of Moorland, Mr. and Mrs. Rome De Tomasi, of Audubon road, Dr. and Mrs. James Boccia, Charles R. Mueller and Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Mueller—all of Lincoln road.

Austin Mothers to Meet Wednesday in Chapel

The Austin Catholic Mothers Club will hold their March meeting on Wednesday, March 26th at 8 o'clock.

The Austin Mothers will meet in the school chapel to hear a Lenten Sermon delivered by Rev. Father Burke of Austin Catholic High.

After the sermon, there will be a short business meeting in the school cafeteria.

The Board meeting will be held on Monday, March 24th at 7:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

U of M Club To Have Party

The annual bridge and card party sponsored by the University of Michigan Club of Grosse Pointe will be held this Friday evening at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, according to Dr. James H. Teetzel, chairman of the committee on arrangements.

The party is open to members of the alumni club and their friends. The price is $3.00 per couple.

Since the number of tickets is limited and there is already considerable demand for those, reservations should be made immediately through Mrs. Robert B. Clarke, 885 University, Grosse Pointe 30, whose telephone number is TUxedo 1-7318, or A. D. Rueggeger, president of the Club, 1055 Balfour road, Grosse Pointe 30, phone Valley 2-4994.

Arrangements have been made so that any players who desire may play duplicate bridge or any other card game, in fact, Dr. Teetzel said.

At a Board of Governors meeting of the Club held a week ago, tickets were distributed and the Governors are now personally contacting the entire membership. With this complete coverage and the interest being shown, it appears as though this will be one of the most successful events of the year.

Pointers Receive Degrees From Hillsdale This Week

HILLSDALE—Two students from the Grosse Pointe area have completed their academic work on the Hillsdale campus and have received their AB or BS degrees.

Gerald Marvin Lorenz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lorenz, of Hampton Rd., has been awarded his BS degree in Economics. Gerald, a graduate of Grosse Pointe High School, was a member of Delta Tau Delta social fraternity on campus and also a member of the H-club, varsity letter-winners' organization.

Carol Jean Vossler, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Aubert E. Vossler, of Moran Rd., a graduate of Liggett School, received an AB in Art. Unaffiliated, she served as secretary and vice-president of East Hall, women's resident dorm at Hillsdale.

Remember freedom is not free—it must be kept alive by truth.

TV Star

Vital Trivia: Watch for Mrs. Bert Wicking to appear on CKLW-TV's "Myrt and Doris" program at 12:30 o'clock this Friday.

Look out for the new and devastating bar glasses aimed to suit your personality ("all in fun," it says here, of course) via which dauntless hostesses may deal out drinks to such parlor types as masochist, schizophrenic, paranoic, sadist, etc.—

Be prepared to bid adieu to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bruna Powers and their very pretty daughter, Cheryl, along about April 1: they're quitting the Pointe in favor of a whirl in Jamaica.

World Fair Item

Former Pointers Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Cashin, who once made their home on University place, are aglow with pride at the distinction recently awarded their daughter, Gloria: she's made the Dean's List at the University of Miami.

The Cashins, who now live at Coral Ridge near Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., were also elated to know the school band which their darling adores has been given the nod it's fine enough to be dispatched to the World's Fair in Brussels.

Fly-in-the-ointment is the rapid calculation by school brass that it'd take a cool $60,000 to send Miss Cashin's cohorts to Europe.

An Angel, at this point, would be the ticket.

Firs: A Party, Then Europe

Honoring Ann, daughter of the Rev. Erville B. Maynard and Mrs. Maynard, of Christ Church lane, Mrs. C. Stewart Baxter and her daughter, Mimi, will give a cocktail party, this Saturday, at their home on Neff road. Following the pour, there'll be a subscription dinner at the Detroit Boat Club for Miss M. who's about to take off for Europe.

April 1 will find her flying to the Continent where she'll see friends in Germany, relatives in France and have a fine time for a delightfully indefinite period.

Color Easter Eggs at Center

Sunday afternoon, March 23, at 2:00 p.m. and at 3:30 p.m. the Ukrainian art of Easter-egg Decorating will again be taught both to children and adults without charge at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, 32 Lake Shore Road. Beeswax and styluses and good white eggs which are necessary materials may be purchased at the Center at a very nominal cost.

As in the past, the decorating instructions will be given by Mrs. Michael Wichorek and Miss Johanna Von Draginda, members of the Ukrainian Youth League of North America, who will be dressed in native costume.

In Ukraine, men and boys, as well as women and girls, decorate eggs. In olden days each Ukrainian district had its own design and favorite color combinations. Families in the Carpathian Mountains used geometric patterns—those in the lowlands used flowers and animals.

Certain traditional symbols have evolved.

A triangle represents the Holy Trinity, a fish—Christ, a fir tree—health, a horse—wealth, a reindeer—prosperity, curlicues—eternity. Pysanky contests are held all over Ukraine and fine Pysanky are collected and preserved as antiques.

In addition to learning to decorate eggs—those coming to the Center, March 23, will be able to view some fine examples of the-art on display.

It may be true that time is money, but not to the man who spends dollars worth of time trying to save a penny.

Gardener Feted On Retirement

A dinner was held in honor of William Crichton, by the Grosse Pointe and Eastern Michigan Horticultural Society recently. Mr. Crichton, one of the Society's oldest members is retiring and plans to reside in California.

He has been the gardener at the Whitcomb Estate in Grosse

Pointe Farms for the past 32 years, and grew many of the orchids and other plants which were given to the Belle Isle Conservatory by the late Anna Scripps Whitcomb. Many will also remember the beautiful exhibits presented by the Whitcombs at the Michigan Flower Shows.

Seeking Safety On Expressways

An intensive program to improve the driving of motorists using Detroit's expressways was begun last week.

In cooperation with the Detroit Traffic Coordinating Committee, the Yellow Pages Division of the Michigan Bell Telephone Company has produced 750,000 official Detroit area expressway maps and presented in cartoons and printed word the six most important expressway driving tips. The latter were selected by Detroit police, the Department of Streets and Traffic and the Traffic Safety Association, three of the four agencies that comprise the Co-ordinating Committee.

William M. Day, president of the Michigan Bell Telephone Company, recently presented copies of the maps to Mayor Louis C. Miriani, who had originally directed that a campaign be developed to ease congestion and reduce accidents on the expressways.

Detroit police also handed out approximately 55,000 of the maps to drivers at the first signal light after they left the expressways. They were distributed at 40 locations and in the rush-hour periods from 7 to 9 a.m. and from 4 to 6 p.m.

The maps may be obtained at any Detroit police station and at the Operators License Bureau in Police Headquarters, 1300 Beaubien. Expressway patrols of both the police department and the Wayne County Road Commission also have the maps available to furnish to motorists. They may also be picked up at any Michigan Bell Telephone business office, as well as many gasoline service stations in the metropolitan area.

Alger F. Malo, director of the Department of Streets and Traffic, who supervised the Co-ordinating Committee's work with Michigan Bell, paid tribute to the "substantial contribution the telephone company is making to improve driving on the expressways."

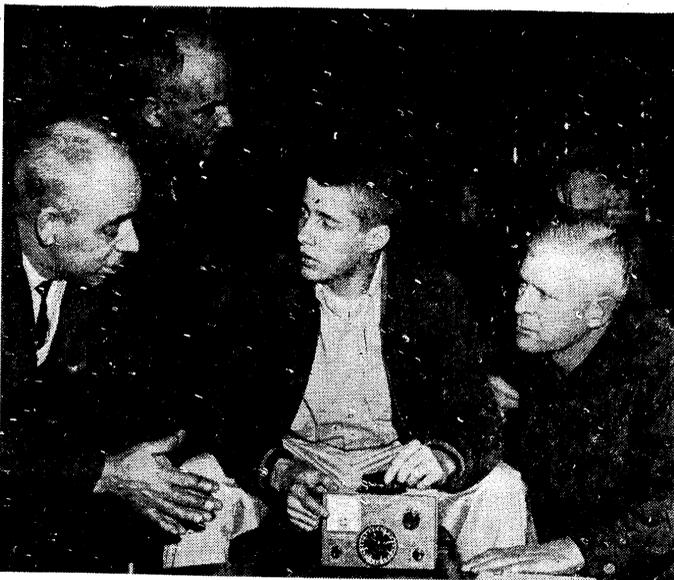

Thomas H. Killen, Streets and Traffic director of public information, and Fred E. Smykla, of the Yellow Pages Division, supervised the actual production of the map and the cartoon tips.

The six expressway tips, with cartoon and explanatory text are:

1. Plan Well Ahead for Expressway Driving.
2. Be "Car-Conditioned" and "Speed-Wise."
3. Gauge Speed to Merge Smoothly.
4. Keep Your Distance . . . and Make Expressway Driving a Full Time Job.
5. Drive Defensively . . . Not Offensively.
6. Observe and Signal To Change Lanes.

The bill was passed Friday night, 61 to 19, with most of the debate centered not on it, but on general tax reductions.

THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC'S streamliner Cascade plunged off the tracks at Kottan in Southern Oregon's wild, snow-covered mountains Saturday morning, injuring 16 passengers seriously and causing minor injuries to about 20 others.

The derailment scattered 12 cars of the 13-car passenger train along about 1,800 feet of track. Railroad officials said the train, bound for Portland, was traveling about 60 miles an hour through the rugged Cascade Mountain divide 100 miles north of Klamath Falls, when it apparently hit a broken track.

Doctors and ambulances were sped over icy roads to Crescent Lake, six miles from the scene of the wreck, and the nearest point reachable by automobile.

A combined rescue effort of teen-agers and Macomb County deputies got the men safely ashore in less than an hour. Two boys in a fragile boat plucked 24 men from the ice in a fast-moving ferrying operation.

The rescue fleet included the two 14-foot boats of the Macomb County Sheriff's Department and four other small craft—including a canoe belonging to shoreline residents in the vicinity.

Goodwill Industries Plead For More Contributions

A practical lesson in economics added to the humane aspects of giving handicapped persons a chance for a full life, is contained in the annual report of Detroit Goodwill Industries.

In 1957 over a million dollars was paid in wages to workers who in turn accounted for nearly 150 thousand dollars paid in income and social security taxes.

If there had been no Goodwill Industries, most of the 698 persons who received work, training and job tolerance at Goodwill would have had to rely on public welfare or charity funds.

In addition every dollar earned by these handicapped persons flows into the general commercial channels giving an added lift to the community's economy.

It is evident that giving discards to Goodwill Industries is a sound investment.

Best of all the contributor does not have to donate money to accomplish the purpose. Goodwill's workers take materials which would be discarded anyway. They repair and recondition them and sell them in Goodwill's retail stores.

Here, too, the public can help Goodwill and at the same time help themselves. Through purchases at these stores, Goodwill is able to pay salaries.

As impressive as Goodwill's 1957 record is, it must be remembered that 1958 is another year. Usable discards are needed badly to keep these workers employed.

Don't wait until spring cleaning time to send in your discards. Call Goodwill today. This is the time of the year when they need material the most. You will give yourself a spiritual uplift.

You will be very glad that you helped.

Broken and cluttered stairways cause many deaths and serious accidents each year, according to U. S. Department of Agriculture safety specialists. Clear stairways will eliminate a major safety hazard.

How to Profit Through Tax Exemption

With today's high tax levels, investors in medium and high tax brackets are turning to tax-free Municipal Bonds for income that they can keep.

If you have a taxable income of $10,000 or more, you may be well repaid by investigating the advantages of tax-exempt State and Municipal Bonds. For instance, if you file a single return on a taxable income of $14,000, you would have to receive a dividend return of 7.45% on a taxable security in order to equal the yield from a 3.50% tax-free Bond. It's something to think about!

Our New Booklet, "How To Profit Through Tax-Exemption" explains in plain language your need for tax exemption, tells how much these high-grade investments can be worth to you. There's no obligation. Send for copy today, or phone

Smaller, More Powerful Police Radios Due

With the invention of the tiny transistor, new police radios in all five Pointes and Harper Woods will be more compact and more powerful when the change over is made by Radio technician WARREN CARSON, shown with a 15-watt power speaker and transistor. The radio tubes before him show the advancement made in electronics in recent years. The large tube was used prior to 1949, middle tube to 1952, and at left, the one currently being used.

Headlines of the Week

Monday, March 17

OFFICIALS of the Nephrosis Foundation charged Sunday that the Wayne County Prosecutor's office "stalled and double-talked" in handling a $15,000 embezzlement from charity.

Target of the charges is Arthur J. Koscinski, chief assistant prosecutor who investigated the embezzlement, who refused to prosecute William J. Kronner, Jr., a socially prominent Detroit attorney who admitted to taking the money from the Michigan chapter of the nephrosis fund.

Koscinski also advised against any publicity release on the case, although the foundation was eager to clarify rumors which spread last week about the embezzlement.

TROOPS in North Sumatra turned on the Jakarta Government Sunday and seized the big military center of Medan in seven hours of heavy fighting, rebel broadcasters said.

If confirmed, this may mean the swing of all North Sumatra to the rebels in Centray Sumatra, as the revolutionary regime has been predicting.

South Sumatra is an even more important oil area than Centray Sumatra. The U. S. Stanvac and the British-Dutch Shell oil interests have huge refineries at Palembang.

ARMY SECRETARY Wilber M. Brucker said Sunday the U. S. has definite plans to launch a satellite at the moon "right soon". The secretary said he also expects this country to put a camera-carrying satellite in orbit around the earth "within a year".

Tuesday, March 18

THE NAVY'S VANGUARD rocket shot a second American satellite into orbit around the earth Monday and may have propelled it farther into space than any other man-made object has ever gone.

The tiny Vanguard I is hurtling along in an egg-shaped orbit that swings it as far as 2,500 miles from the earth. That is almost 1,000 miles beyond the range of any other satellite.

The Vanguard, performing beautifully after two embarrassing failures, hurled its tiny, radio-equipped aluminum "moon" into an orbit so ideal that it may travel in space five to 10 years.

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER Monday invited nine governors to meet with him Wednesday to discuss his plan for stretching out the period of payments to jobless workers.

The telegrams went to the Governors of Illinois, North Dakota, Arkansas, North Carolina, Vermont, California, Maine, Washington and South Carolina—all members of the Executive Committee of the Governor's Conference.

The telegrams went out on a day that produced a report from the Federal Reserve Board saying that in February "industrial production, employment, incomes and retail sales again declined."

IN A COURTROOM crackling with tension, William R. Monty Monday accused his former Ecorse friends face-to-face of taking bribes from gamblers. By the day's end Monty had told a jury and Circuit Judge Thomas J. Murphy that all 13 defendants had accepted bribe money—and he told just how much.

Monty, former chairman of the Ecorse Police and Fire Commission, admitted that he himself had been paid off heavily.

Wednesday, March 19

A MASS SHIFTING of Chrysler Corp.'s body building, assembly and engine building operations within the Detroit area involving three of its four automobile producing divisions was announced by the corporation Tuesday.

The changes, which will mean transfers from one plant to another for thousands of Detroiters, will become effective with the start of production on 1959 model cars, probably in September.

Variety Casserole Meals Make Tempting Eating

CASSEROLE DISHES are the economy-minded home-maker's best friends! They can be inexpensive and be prepared ahead of time when it is more convenient to get the major part of the meal preparations out of the way early. And, in addition, they are filling and can add variety and flavor to the menu.

It can be a challenge to stretch leftovers through casserole dishes into tasty triumphs in their own right. Low-cost meats such as ground beef, tuna fish, salmon and chicken may be added to other economical foods — to rice, noodles, frozen and canned vegetables — to stretch the food dollar and perk up the family appetites!

ENCORE CASSEROLE

1/2 tablespoons butter or margarine 2 cups hot, cooked rice 1/2 pound sharp cheese, grated

1 cup evaporated milk 1/2 teaspoon salt 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce 1 1/2 cups cooked meat, diced 1 cup green peas, drained 1 can (4 ounce) mushrooms, drained 1 cup buttered crumbs

Combine butter and rice. Stir with a fork until well blended. Combine cheese, milk, salt and Worcestershire sauce and heat slowly. When cheese has melted, remove from heat. Make alternate layers in a 2 quart casserole of the buttered rice and meat, peas and mushrooms. Pour the cheese mixture over the top with the buttered crumbs. Bake in a moderate oven, 350° F., about 45 minutes. Remove from oven and allow to stand about 10 minutes before serving. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Editorial Note: Material for this article was gathered from "A Beautiful Life" a privately printed volume concerning the life of Harriet Barnes Newberry 1864-1943 (Mrs. Truman Newberry).

Harriet Violet Barnes was married to Truman Newberry at a fashionable ceremony in the First Presbyterian Church in Brooklyn, N. Y., in February, 1888, her gown a traditional blend of white satin and antique lace, molding her hour glass figure and complementing her chestnut pompadour-piled hair.

The newlyweds went to Montreal for a brief trip but soon were called to the family homestead in East Jefferson (now the DAR headquarters). Truman's father, John S. Newberry and the founder of the clan had died in January the year previous and the young couple felt they could not embark on a European tour without Mrs. Newberry. So the bride and bridegroom set forth with Mrs. Newberry, Truman's sister Helen (Mrs. Henry B. Joy), then 16, a Mrs. Thayer, of Boston, Amy McMillan and a maid. With this all-female entourage Truman visited the capitals of the Continent.

All their married lives this dependence and enjoyment of close family ties was characteristic of the Truman Newberrys who lived on East Jefferson until 1914 when they moved to the stately Georgian mansion, "Drybrook" they built in Grosse Pointe on land purchased from the Alfred Brush estate (where Newberry place stands today).

Six years prior to their permanent Grosse Pointe move Truman Newberry had been named Secretary of the Navy by Theodore Roosevelt. He had served with distinction in the Spanish-American War and was always interested in maritime activities.

The gracious Mrs. N. (known to her intimates as Violet) cut quite a swath in social Washington as a popular hostess. An intimate of the president's wife said of her:

"Her charming spontaneous kindness won her many friends, and their house became a delightful center where official and unofficial society met, in an easy and congenial atmosphere. She was one of those women who could always be depended upon to do her share as a guest, and a hostess could be sure of her help in making a party a success."

For the wealthy and privileged in those days life was usually a matter of duty and responsibility cheerfully assumed. Mrs. Newberry wrote in her diary of life in the 1890's naming her close friends, Mrs. Sidney T. Miller, Mrs. Cyrus Lothrop, Mrs. Henry D. Sheldon and Mrs. Herman Dey, and her observations, "Life was quiet and yet full of interest. People really did things in those days that were character making."

Pilferings

Samuel Gompers, the great labor leader, was once asked what American Labor wanted, and his response may well be the most eloquent speech he ever made. "More," he said.

Life was so much simpler a few months ago when all we had to worry about was whether Johnny could read, not whether he understood nuclear physics.

Finding it necessary to take a later plane home, a friend wrote a telegram to his wife explaining the change in schedule, carefully keeping within the 15-word limit. The telegraph operator, a woman, looked it over and asked him, "Are you married to this lady?"

Startled, he answered that he was. "Then you'd better add 'love,'" she suggested. "It costs just a nickel more and it's a lot of value for the money."

Though poets long have told us brightly
That spring on dancing feet comes lightly,
It seems to us she really sloshes
Along in roomy old galoshes.

A harassed housewife washed her kitchen floor and pleaded with her two-year-old not to walk on it while it was still wet. A few minutes later the child was padding across the damp linoleum.

"It's OK, mama, I put my rubbers on."

The Half Moon Hotel in Jamaica where so many Pointers stay is built on the site of Rose Hall, the famed 18th Century plantation in which lived Annie Palmer, "the white witch..."

Joseph M. Dodge is a member of the Union Club, Tokyo, Japan.

In her salad days, Mrs. Lewis Fisher Brown (Dotty Kraus) was always a featured dancer in the annual May Parties of the late Annie Ward Foster.

Mrs. Henry deSegur Lauve's latest and most effective chapeau, a decided departure in coloring with its bright orange touches, was selected by Mr. Lauve. Her lady friends are wondering if maybe they can persuade him to set their millinery modes, too.

They're crack shots:
Mrs. Sidney T. Miller, Jr., Mrs. Edward P. Hammond, Sammy Chapin, Addison E. Holton, Lester F. Ruwe and Ernest Kanzler.

Pointer of Interest

Mrs. Francis McGinty, of the War Memorial
By JACK OLIVER

If any guest at the wedding of Anne Franklin and her soldier sweetheart had prophesied the pair would live in a war memorial, he'd doubtless have been thanked to keep a civil tongue in his head.

But there they are, Mr. and Mrs. Francis McGinty, she as catering manager and he as head of maintenance at No. 32 Lake Shore road and in love with the place.

Mrs. McGinty actually began training for her post at Grosse Pointe War Memorial when she met her future husband, with thorough grounding as a waitress and later as a hostess in English and Welsh hotels.

Wed in Liverpool

Following their marriage in Liverpool in 1918 and Mr. McGinty's discharge from the British Army, the couple settled down to wedded bliss and the ultimate appearance of Nora and little Anne.

In 1923, McGinty came to the U. S. and his wife returned to her work in a "cute little place" in Liverpool.

After a three-year interval, Anne and the children came across the sea to Windsor where they waited to be admitted to this country, Father being employed at Detroit Steel products. Meanwhile, Anne had further training at the Hotel Prince Edward as a hostess.

Once united on this side of the river, the years ahead unfolded to find the pretty, blond English girl in a series of posts which included the old Colony Club (when it occupied that handsome building on Park avenue), a long and very special promotion job with Bedell's, the Women's City Club, the Savoyard Club and then she had a whirl at a partnership.

Too Far in the Country
This venture was a little enterprise near Newberry, Mich., where 70 acres and five guests cottages were the attraction. It went very well but Mrs. McGinty found the off-hours "so lonesome" that she headed back to city life.

Then it was as manager of the now-defunct Chimes Cafeteria and FINALLY to the G. P. W. M. in '49.

Ensnared in a most attractive apartment (a tidy arrangement of living room, dining room, kitchen, two bedrooms and bath), the McGintys joined the then board of directors in viewing the entrance into the Field of Food with caution.

It was a BIG day, for example, when a 50-cup coffee urn was installed. They chuckle about the hesitation of that, now, with a 500-cupper going strong.

Nursery Elects New Officers

At their monthly meeting, held last week, members of the Lake Shore Cooperative Nursery School elected new officers for the '58-'59 term.

Mrs. Marjorie Nixon was elected to succeed Mrs. Helen Aylsworth as president. Mrs. Joan Noyes was elected to serve with her as vice president and programing chairman.

Mrs. Rosemary Jackson is the new recording secretary; Mrs. Harriet Brubaker, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Helen Kehoe, treasurer; and Mrs. Frances Lavery, membership chairman.

The Nursery School, which is held at the First Bethany Church on Harmon in St. Clair Shores, is a non-profit, non-sectarian group. Their main purpose is to unite the mothers of the community, and to increase the recreational, social and educational development of their children.

The three year old tots attend on Tuesday and Thursday mornings from 9:15 to 11:15, and the four-year-olds are there on Mondays and Wednesdays at the same hours. Each mother works at the Nursery, to assist the teacher, one or two mornings a month.

The mothers welcome a chance to meet and work with each other, and it also gives them an objective view of their own child and other children under a teacher's supervision.

All the mothers are required to attend a few orientation classes to acquaint themselves with the particular problems of working in a Nursery School.

Registration is now being taken for the fall term, which will begin in September. If you are interested in joining together with this active group of young mothers, or wish more information about the Nursery School, call Mrs. Lavery at PR 6-1026.

Enchanting as Springtime... the hand sketched cards you'll find at Trail Pharmacy. They have a DIFFERENT look about them and a one of a kind quality... the achievement of a knowing touch... you'll agree! Easter, birthday, anniversary greetings are available along with other pleasantries to express your thoughts.

Spring unfolds... in elegant fashion with furs from the NEW "Little Salon" at Jacobson's. Hand picked from the very best... are styles for the tall and short woman. Each piece is delightfully style conscious. Featured are long dramatic mink stoles, short Spencer jackets... for a picture of haute-mode see the broadtail jackets... cut with clarity... some are trimmed with cerulean mink. Evening thoughts bring us to luxurious shrugs of white fox and white mink. Scarves of mink, sable and stone marlen are featured. All skins are let out... with prices ranging from about eighty... to twelve hundred dollars.

Spring fever... has many cures! One can be found at home... by way of a bit of sprucing up... Here's an excellent opportunity! Wanamaker's Studio offers many services... from carpet cleaning to complete redecorating plans. By the way, there's a sale going on right now... with everything on the floor marked to save you money.

Gabardine with IT... The dress that answers the question... "Where are you going?" with a very positive... "Everywhere"! Here's a very special offer from Margaret Rice... your monogram is complementary. The dress is of fine Charmeen gabardine... flat collared... short sleeved... softly mannered and perfectly tailored. The dress AND monogram... lightly tariffed... at sixty-nine ninety-five... for a limited time!

Suited for Spring... the black and white miniature men's wear check suit... just in at D. J. Healy. A self starting dynamo with a smart well bred tailoring that carries through its promise to out-perform all others in style, mileage and value. Unexpected pleasure... the belt detail on the new perky jacket! Also available in blue and white check. Other handsome suits in junior and misses sizes... from fifty to ninety dollars.

"Spring, full of sweet days and roses"... the poet G. Herbert holds a verbal promise. BUT why wait, when Charvat the florist has this suggestion for an earlier start? Begin indoors with a bright forecast... for instance tulip plants to bloom now... Azalea and Hydrangea... also help to set the calendar ahead. All three will take to yard duty, beautifully, when transplanted later.

All the world is young in Spring! If you don't look and feel that way... Ann-Louise has two methods of helping you to a better figure. You have your choice of hand massage AND Figurama table. Both are excellent for hip-nipping, figure smoothing or relaxation. A fine staff featuring Adelaide Crocker and Mary Henshell are just part of the beauty picture. Call TUxedo 2-7511... for the entire story.

"When the bounds of Spring are on winter's traces"... (to borrow a poetic treasure) is the time to look homeward... and then to Jacobson's Home Decorative Shop for charming, creative ideas in bedroom ensembles... bath accessories... window treatments, buffet service and fine linens.
