THE SENATE PASSED and sent to the White House Wednesday a bill authorizing Federal advances to the states to finance a temporary extension of unemployment benefits.

The vote was 80-0 on passage, after various counter proposals were turned down. The legislation, somewhat modified by the House from the form requested by President Eisenhower, nevertheless had Administration backing as a way of easing the recession's impact.

It permits the Federal Government to advance funds to the states to extend by as much as one-half the number of weeks in which workers eligible for unemployment insurance may draw benefits.

GEN. CHARLES DE GAULLE and the leaders of Parliament met in secret early Thursday at the direction of President Rene Coty to try to put de Gaulle in power.

Their meeting broke up without announced results. Parliament, where de Gaulle has little strength, is the legal stumbling block.

Thousands of demonstrators in milling crowds shouted anti-de Gaulle slogans and emphasize his mass unpopularity. President Coty is convinced the country's choice is de Gaulle or chaos.

INFORMED SOURCES said Wednesday, the Navy may never learn what happened to its latest Vanguard satellite. It was generally believed that the 21½-pound sphere plummeted back to earth and disintegrated, but there was a remote possibility that it sailed into an erratic orbit somewhere in space.

The rocket blasted into space Tuesday night on what appeared to be a perfect launching, but five hours of uncertainty passed before the announcement that the Navy's first Vanguard satellite launching vehicle had failed to orbit.

IN AN UNPRECEDENTED move, General Motors Corp. scuttled its 20-year-long contract with the UAW at the stroke of midnight Thursday. The giant automobile corporation stood fast in its toughest bargaining stand with the huge automobile union and refused to extend the contract beyond its deadline.

The union made a final effort to head off termination by proposing a 30-day extension so that GM workers could vote secretly on the company offer to keep the present contract in force two years. There would be no bargaining during the 30-day period.

A FEDERAL GRAND JURY Thursday indicted 20 oil companies, including the nation's largest, on charges of conspiring to violate the anti-trust laws by fixing prices on gasoline and crude oil.

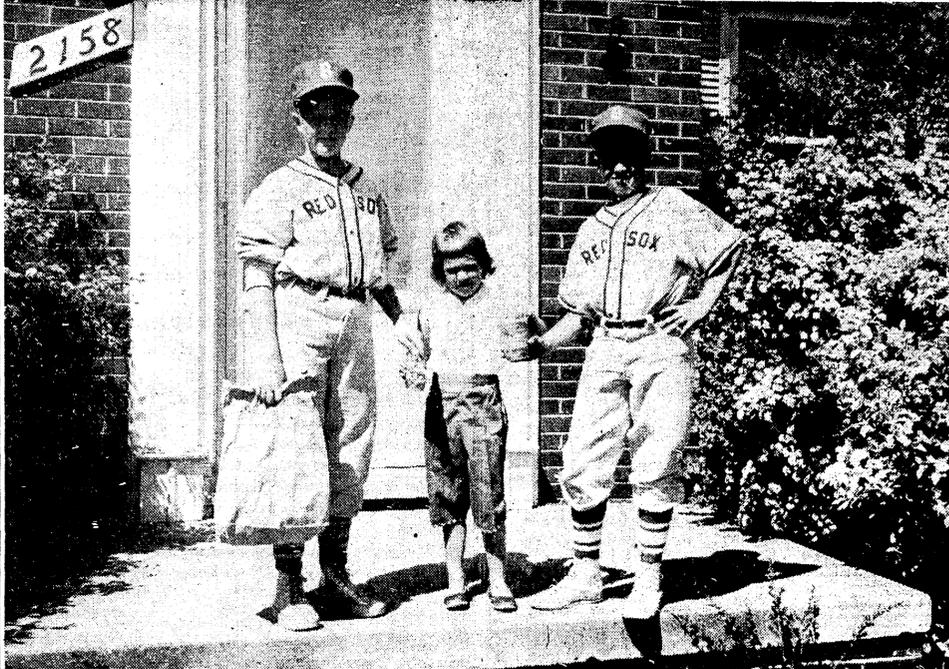

The indictment climaxed an investigation which the Grand Jury started on March 4, 1957 at the start of the Suez Canal crisis. The inquiry was ordered after the oil companies put into effect an almost uniform price rise throughout the country.

Companies named in the indictment included Standard Oil of Indiana, New Jersey and Ohio; the Texas Co.; Sacoay Mobil, Phillips, Sinclair, Sun, Skelly, Tidewater, and Monsanto Chemical Co.

GEN. CHARLES DE GAULLE Thursday night accepted a call to form a new French Government. But he insisted he must have powers which approach a dictatorship to head off civil war.

President Rene Coty summoned the towering general to the premiership with a grave warning to Parliament and all Frenchmen that their choice was narrowed down to de Gaulle or civil war. Unless the National Assembly chose

Recognition Comes Early

Most adults know that nothing will kick a sale over quicker than a little feminine pulchritude, but these lads have learned the lesson at a tender age. When the peanut sale to raise funds for the Grosse Pointe Woods-Shores Little League was launched, JACK STUDER, left and JIM CHANDLER were no fools. To clinch the deal they enlisted the services of LOUANN BOLLING.

50-Car Autorama Display of Rods and Roadsters Set for Sunday

This Sunday, June 8, from until 5 p.m., the tree shaded lawns of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center, 32 Lake Shore road will be occupied by a galaxy of cars which are the proud and expensive possessions of private owners whose hobby they are.

The show is being staged by the Grosse Pointe Tappet Tickers in cooperation with the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association.

Police Seek Residents' Help to Curb Burglaries

In the light of the fact that a number of burglaries have taken place in the Pointe in recent weeks, the police chiefs of the five Pointes urge citizens to report any suspicious persons or activities.

The chiefs are aware that residents are sometimes reluctant to call authorities on the mistaken grounds that what they see or hear might be too trivial and therefore does not warrant police attention.

The heads of the departments ask citizens to call police any time their suspicions are aroused. This is imperative, they said, and could possibly nip a burglary before it takes place, or result in an early apprehension of burglars following their crimes.

Memorial Center Drive Quota Reached as 2,816 Donors Contribute $36,674

Pledges Not Yet Received Will More Than Make Up Balance to Attain Goal of $37,500; Hope for Additional Gifts

The Board of Directors of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center is very pleased and grateful to announce the success of its 1958 Family Participation Campaign. The Board and staff of the Center wish to thank the many Grosse Pointe families who have continued to be such loyal supporters of the Memorial and wish to gratefully welcome and acknowledge a host of new givers this year.

Memorial week-end, this 1958, found nearly 250 more families making contributions than in 1957 and over $600 more received. $36,674.34 has been received from 2,816 families. Though actual receipts deposited are $820.69 short of the necessary goal needed to operate, this amount has been more than pledged and promised as a result of a last week telephone campaign conducted by board members, Junior League volunteers and Memorial volunteer workers. Last year nearly $4,000 was received following Memorial Day.

All Gifts Welcomed

The Center wishes to emphasize that while the Annual Family Participation Campaign is confined to a two month spring drive, contributions are gratefully received the year round to carry on the Center's work. The Memorial also wishes to call attention to its "Book of Remembrance" which lies between the urns under the handsome bronze plaque in the foyer. Here gifts given in "memory of someone" are recorded and flowers or greens kept arranged the year round as a tribute. Any Grosse Pointers who wish to make a lasting tribute to a friend or relative are encouraged to give memorial donations which will be recorded in this "Book of Remembrance."

The Memorial is especially grateful that funds have come in at this time so that it may proceed to take care of its number one problem, parking. Plans are already being developed to expand the existing parking lot. Extra cars that have had to find asylum on distant side streets off Lake Shore, a nearly daily occurrence due to the Center's greatly increased usage, will soon be able to be accommodated.

The Program Committee can now plan next year's programs and activities and the Building and House Committees take stock and refurbish and re-equip the Center so that it can continue to service the hundreds of community groups which use its facilities to the limit.

The Memorial's Board wishes to thank the following

$15,000 Fire Hits Annex At GPHS

100 Students Routed from Classes When Blaze Starts in Upholstery Room

A fire of undetermined origin routed approximately 100 students and teachers from the Grosse Pointe High School Annex on Wednesday, May 28.

The fire caused damage estimated at between $15,000 and $20,000, according to Farms Fire Chief M. William Mason. The damage includes complete destruction of an Annex basement classroom, and that caused by smoke and heat throughout the rest of the building, he said.

Quickly Controlled

The chief said the alarm came in at 11:52 a.m., and when the firemen and equipment arrived at the scene, flames were spouting from the basement windows and licking at window frames on the first floor. The fire was brought under control in about 10 minutes, he said.

A woman working in the upholstery room, where adult classes are held to teach this art, told the chief that she left the room about 11:30 a.m., and there was no smoke, odor or anything amiss at the time.

Chief Mason said he was a little puzzled because the fire appeared to have had a good start, and smoke was billowing from the basement across Grosse Pointe boulevard, and it went unnoticed for some time before the alarm was given. The students were right on top of the fire and heat and were not aware of it, he added.

Still Seeking Cause

He said the cause of the fire is still being investigated. Classes in the Annex were resumed Thursday, May 29.

Hit-Run Driver Damages Car

A hit and run driver caused extensive damage to a car parked in front of 280 Fisher road on Friday, May 30, according to a Farms police report.

The car hit is owned by Mabel M. Laurants of 26730 Leher, Roseville. No one saw the mishap, or saw the driver of the other car.

Police said the unknown driver drove over the curb on the left side of the street and sped away north on Fisher.

The woman's car, struck in the left rear, was damaged to the extent of $300, police said.

GPHS Graduation Exercises to Be Held on June 12

Largest Class in School's History Scheduled to Receive Diplomas with a total of 380 Candidates Listed

By Joyce Andrews
G. P. H. S. Journalism Student

Commencement exercises for the Class of June '58 of Grosse Pointe High School will be held in the auditorium-gymnasium Thursday evening, June 12, at 8:15 o'clock.

The graduating class is the largest in the high school's history. There are 380 candidates for diplomas.

This will be the first Grosse Pointe graduation for the high school's new principal, Jerry J. Gerich.

Speakers Selected
Class speakers will be David Roll, Janis Bushong, and Martha Miller. Their general topic will be "To Everything There Is a Season." Mr. Roll will discuss "A Time to Plant, and a Time to Pluck Up That Which Is Planted." Miss Bushong will speak on "A Time to Weep, and a Time to Laugh." Miss Miller's topic will be "A Time to Keep, and a Time to Cast Away."

Dr. James W. Bushong, superintendent of schools, will award the diplomas to the graduates. Mr. Donald Campbell, assistant principal, will assist him.

Mr. Gerich will announce the class honors, including scholarships, Mothers' Club awards, financial grants, the Bausch and Lomb award, and academic and citizenship honors.

The invocation and benediction will be offered by Verne Istock, class president.

Reception to Follow

A reception for the seniors and their friends and relatives will be held in the cafeteria. Following that, a smorgasbord supper will be served for seniors at the War Memorial. Both of these are under the auspices of the Mothers' Club.

Some 12B girls will act as ushers at commencement. The concert band will play the music at the exercises. The band will be under the direction of Dewey Kalember, who will transfer to Brownell Junior High School after 21 years at the high school.

Plaque Honors Julius Deraedt

A final, and fitting, tribute was paid the late Sergeant Julius Deraedt at the May 28 meeting of the Grosse Pointe Safety and Traffic Committee.

Members of the Committee voted to present a memorial citation to the widow of the late City policeman, who passed away the 5th of April, a copy of which will hang in the Police Department of the City of Grosse Pointe.

The memorial plaque reads as follows: "Citation Awarded to Julius Deraedt for his outstanding contributions to the youth of the Grosse Pointe area. His keen interest, leadership and work with the schools in the field of traffic safety education has benefited the total community. The Grosse Pointe Safety and Traffic Committee awards this certificate recognizing this extraordinary devotion to duty as a fine example of real service. Presented this 28th day of May, 1958."

Sgt. Deraedt was known throughout the Pointe communities for his work with young people. He was Traffic Officer for the City Police Department until his death, when that position was taken over by Douglas Allor.

Party Crashers Warned To Behave or Go to Jail

Judge Joseph P. Uvick of the City of Grosse Pointe heard a total of nine cases when he held Justice Court on Tuesday, May 27. First on the docket was Henry J. Kerkman, of 3434 Haverhill in Detroit. He was charged with driving under a revoked license, found guilty, and fined $25.

Norman Latorree, of 18913 Woodside in Harper Woods, was tried on a charge of not having his car under control. The Judge found him guilty and assessed him $20.

A plea of not guilty to a charge of "car not under control" gave Mary Wood Davis, of 847 Harcourt, a case dismissal.

Five youths, all 17 and 18 years old, were tried separately on identical charges of breaking the "Preservation of Public Peace" ordinance. The boys were Jack F. Krause, 1576

Pick Seven To Serve as Advisors

Council Will Have Last Word on Any Suggestions Of Newly-Formed Body

For the first time in its history, the Farms has a form of planning commission. On Monday, June 2, the Farms council approved the appointment of seven members to the Advisory Planning Commission, which was created by the council last February 3.

The creation of such a body was first broached by the Grosse Pointe Property Owners Association last July, and the following month the matter was discussed by the council.

The Association, through its president, Robert J. Brynes, and its secretary and executive director, Paul R. O. Marden, sent letters to the council urging the formation of a planning commission which would relieve the council of the burden of assuming the duties of such a body.

Formed by Resolution

On February 3, the council adopted a resolution that brought the commission into existence. It was felt that the commission should be created through a resolution, rather than by ordinance, to first determine if such a body will be feasible. However, even at this stage, it is believed that this is a step in the right direction, and that eventually an ordinance will be adopted making the commission a permanent part of the city government.

As it stands now, the commission will only act in an advisory capacity, with the council having the final say on any action.

Members Appointed

Each member of the commission expressed his willingness to serve the city, and they are: Mies M. O'Brien of 41 Hendrie lane; T. Raymond Jeffers of 344 McKinley road; George L. Schaeffer of 251 McMillan road; Clarence E. Bessert of 420 Chalfonte avenue; James H. Dingeman of 4 Radnor circle; Wallace M. Jensen of 282 Hillcrest road; and Lewis Leisinger of 336 McKinley avenue.

The commission will meet with the council at a future date, to get acquainted with each other, and with the council members and to learn their duties.

The Property Owners Association will begin working on the City, the only remaining Pointe that does not have some sort of planning commission, according to Marden.

Phoney Check Victim Reneges

Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger dismissed an uttering and publishing charge against Leon Wilson, 37, of 1039 Hendrie, Detroit, when a complaining witness refused to testify at a hearing on Wednesday, May 28.

The witness, Nicholas Telegadas of 5766 Haverhill, Detroit, proprietor of a grocery store at Beaconsfield and Fairfax, told Park authorities that Wilson had passed a $25 phoney check in his store last January. Wilson was identified through a police mug shot.

Telegadas signed the complaint against Wilson on Wednesday, May 21, before Judge Belanger, and the warrant was approved.

Wilson was picked up from the Livingston County Jail in Howell, Mich., by Park policemen, after he had been arrested on a similar charge. He was released there when a bad check victim failed to identify him, but held for the Park and was picked up on Friday, May 23.

After all the trouble the police went through, Telegadas refused to give testimony, and the judge was forced to dismiss the charge against Wilson.

REPORTS THEFT

Fred Weiss of 1114 Beaconsfield reported the theft of three rosebushes from his back yard. He made the complaint to Park police on Friday, May 30.

Mute at Arraignment

(Continued from Page 1) crime, was arraigned before Judge Belanger on Thursday, May 22, and examination date was set for Wednesday, May 29. He stood mute, and a bond of $3,000 was set.

At his examination, Klimal again stood mute, and a plea of not guilty was entered for him. His bond was continued. He rendered the bond and was released pending a trial date.

Got $740 in Cash

The two are accused of breaking and entering the Park bar and stealing $740 in cash and $402 worth of liquor, on Sunday, May 18. They were seen by the bar owner, Maurice Verdonck of 1491 Beaconsfield, who gave chase on foot when the accused men pulled away in their car. Verdonck obtained the license number of the car and gave it to police.

Klimal was arrested at his home by Detroit police, when the license number was traced to his car; Dunningan, gave up voluntarily, to Park authorities on advice of his lawyer.

When questioned by Park officers, Det. Lt. Stanley Enders and Cpl. Charles French, Klimal admitted breaking into the bar, and also 24 other bars and one furniture store in the Detroit area since January, netting $18,300 in cash and other loot.

The two policemen said that Klimal implicated Dunningan as his partner-in-crime, in the Park bar burglary and the other thefts.

Shores Traffic Violators Pay

Shores Judge John Gillis signed a warrant for the arrest of Michael A. Brennan of 28930 Thirteen Mile road, Farmington, when Brennan failed to come to court on Monday, May 26, to answer for three counts of traffic violation.

Brennan is accused of driving along Lake Shore without any car lights, driving with an expired driver's license and failing to change his residential address on the license.

A warrant was also issued for the arrest of John C. Cook of 5546 Fairview, Detroit, who did not show up for driving on Lake Shore with only one headlight.

Leonard J. Elder of 8926 Dale, Detroit, accused of speeding on Vernier road, was found guilty and paid a fine and court costs of $19.50.

Phillip G. Halsey of 9151 Greensboro, Detroit was found guilty of speeding on Lake Shore and driving with a defaced driver's license and paid a fine and costs of $26.50.

Failure to appear in court for speeding on Lake Shore caused warrants to be issued against Herbert R. Schott of 30101 Greater Mack, St. Clair Shores; and Arthur D. Baird of 610 Blaine, Detroit. Each was charged in separate cases.

Emil G. Knop of 874 N. Brys drive, paid court costs of $7.50, after he was found guilty of failing to report a personal injury accident that took place on Roslyn road.

Rennie R. Eves of 22491 Pointe drive, St. Clair Shores, forfeited a bond of $50 when he did not show up for driving while his license was revoked. He was arrested on Lake Shore.

James F. Alter of 3568 Audubon, Detroit, charged with improper traffic lane usage and driving without a car registration on his person, was found not guilty, but this finding was given provided he wrote in full, the law pertaining to car registration.

John M. Roche of 20072 Ballantyne court, was found not guilty of speeding on South Deaplans road, and his case was dismissed. James D. Andrasko of 15095 Parkgrove, Detroit, paid a fine and costs of $17.50, after being found guilty of speeding on Lake Shore and for violating his driver's license restrictions.

Daniel Cunningham of 650 Newport, Detroit, was found guilty of speeding on Lake Shore and paid costs of $7.50.

Helen Slocum of 1140 N. Oxford, paid a fine of $10 when she was found guilty of speeding on Lake Shore.

Melbin T. Penneck of 18761 Elkhardt, Harper Woods, was found guilty of reckless driving on Lake Shore and was fined $50.

Reckless driving on Lake Shore cost Harold F. Edwards of 7030 Jackson, Warren, $100.

Daniel Novakovich of 8961 Holcomb, Detroit, was found guilty of driving his truck on Robert John road, in violation of an ordinance which forbids commercial vehicles from traveling on restricted roads. He paid a fine and costs of $41.

Vacation Bible School is starting at St. James Lutheran Church for all children and their friends from ages three through twelve years old.

Beginning June 16, from 9:30 a. m. until 12 noon, the school terminates June 27. The theme of this school, "Bible Sea Adventures", is expected to provide fun and adventure for the pupils while directing them toward Christ.

For all the children interested, the church will take enrollments after Sunday school on June 8, at 10:30-11 on the lawn in back of the Church. This early enrollment will enable the leaders to have enough material for the children on the first day. Enrollments will also be taken on June 16.

There will be no initial charge for these two weeks filled with knowledge and fun. However, there will be the usual daily free-will offering.

Spectators Watch School Fire

Farms firemen battled a fire at the Grosse Pointe High School Annex on Wednesday, May 28, that caused between $15,000 and $20,000 in damages. More than 400 persons witnessed the blaze, which was brought under control in about 10 minutes. The cause of the fire is undetermined, but it started in the upholstery room in the basement of the building. Smoke and heat caused damage throughout the rest of the Annex. More than 100 students and teachers were routed from class rooms. Studies were resumed the following day.

Experienced Cast Readies Pointe Theatre Play

Currently rehearsing for their opening performance Friday, June 20, at 8:30 p.m. on the Terrace at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, 32 Lake Shore drive, the cast of "The Philadelphia Story" is aware of the high standards it will have to meet.

When the "gay and satirical comedy" by Philip Barry that has since been the source of two movies, first opened in 1939 for a two-year run on Broadway, its cast featured such relative "unknowns" as Katherine Hepburn, Shirley Booth, Joseph Cotton and Van Heflin.

Although stellar names will be absent when the three-act glimpse into high society is presented by the Grosse Pointe Community Theatre in co-operation with the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center on two successive Friday and Saturday evenings, the cast will include a number of seasoned, local performers—some with professional acting experience.

Starring in the role played on Broadway and in the first movie by Miss Hepburn is Joan Lennon, 15289 Troester, Detroit, who plays Tracy Lord. Miss Lennon appeared in the GPCT's production of "Thieves Carnival" two years ago and spent two seasons with the Grosse Pointe Simians, playing Mary in their presentation of "Mary of Scotland."

Miss Lennon has appeared professionally with World Stage for one year, in the Will-O-Way production of "January Thaw," and has played with the Wayne University Theatre. Bill Loud, 953 Trombley, has been cast in the role of Tracy Lord's first husband, played on Broadway by Joseph Cotton. A member of The Players, Mr. Loud has previously enacted the role of Bert Jefferson in "The Man Who Came To Dinner," presented earlier this season by the GPCT.

The role of Macaulay (Mike) Connor, the magazine writer played on Broadway by Van Heflin, will be played by William Mehegan, 9479 Beaconsfield, Detroit, an English teacher at Grosse Pointe High School. Winner of the GPCT's "Clarence Award" last year for Story" is Mrs. Gerry Meyer, 1234 Beaconsfield, an English teacher at Pierce Junior High School.

Tickets for the production, which will be presented on Friday and Saturday evenings, June 20, 21, 27 and 28, at 8:30 p.m. on the Terrace at the War Memorial, may be obtained at the War Memorial office, from members of GPCT.

Handling the Shirley Booth role of Elizabeth Imbrie, camera woman for a gossip magazine, is Eileen McCabe, 28727 Hollywood, Roseville. Before her marriage, Mrs. McCabe sang in night clubs and light opera, appeared in two New York plays and toured with the road companies of "Oklahoma" and "Brigadoon."

Since joining the GPCT in January, she has appeared in a Workshop presentation of "The Women."

Harry Kranz, 898 Lakepointe, an administrative assistant to UAW President Walter P. Reuther, is playing the role of George Kittredge, the up-from-the-mines coal executive who is about to marry Tracy Lord when the play opens. Mr. Kranz appeared as Jim Murphy in the GPCT presentation of "The Front Page" earlier this year and was active in little theater groups in New Jersey before coming to Michigan last year.

Al Bertiel, 45 Radnor circle, president of the GPCT, will be "Uncle Willie" in "The Philadelphia Story." Last seen as the sheriff in "The Front Page," Mr. Bertiel has appeared in previous GPCT roles as a thief, butler, attorney, doctor, convict and assorted other "character" parts.

Easy to remember is the name of Margaret Doren, 18107 Schoenherr, Detroit. Margaret is playing the part of Margaret, Tracy Lord's mother. Last June, in the GPCT production of "Sabrina Fair," she played another Margaret, the maid.

Rounding out the Lord family in "The Philadelphia Story" are Henry Haberkorn, 16841 E. Jefferson, who is cast as the father; Chuck Carson, 550 Parkview Drive, Detroit, who plays Tracy's brother, and Mollie Hunter, 88 Handy, who enacts Tracy's younger sister.

Directing the GPCT production of "The Philadelphia Story" is Mrs. Gerry Meyer, 1234 Beaconsfield, an English teacher at Pierce Junior High School.

For instance, if you file a single return on a taxable income of $14,000, you would have to receive a dividend return of 7.45% on a taxable security in order to equal the yield from a 3.50% tax-free Bond.
Our New Booklet, "How To Profit Through Tax-Exemption" explains in plain language your need for tax exemption, tells how much these high-grade investments can be worth to you. There's no obligation. Send for copy today, or phone

Offer Classes On Catholicism

St. Joan of Arc Parish announced the opening of its annual summer series of classes on the teachings of the Catholic Church.

This is the second in a series of summer classes conducted by Fathers James A. Maloney and Thomas F. Hinsberg at the Catholic parish located at Mack and Overlake in St. Clair Shores.

The classes, which will be held in the school, will begin on Monday, June 1 at 8 p.m.

The lectures are open to Non-Catholics. They are informative classes designed to serve the many needs and motives of those who are interested in knowing more about the teachings of the oldest Christian church.

In the past, participants in the class have listed as their motives for attendance such comments as "merely to investigate," "to prepare for a mixed marriage," "to review my religion," "to become a Catholic."

There is no charge for attendance and no obligations are incurred. The classes will be held each Monday and Thursday from 8:00 to 9:00 p.m. for a period of twelve weeks. Further information can be obtained by calling PRescott 7-1172.

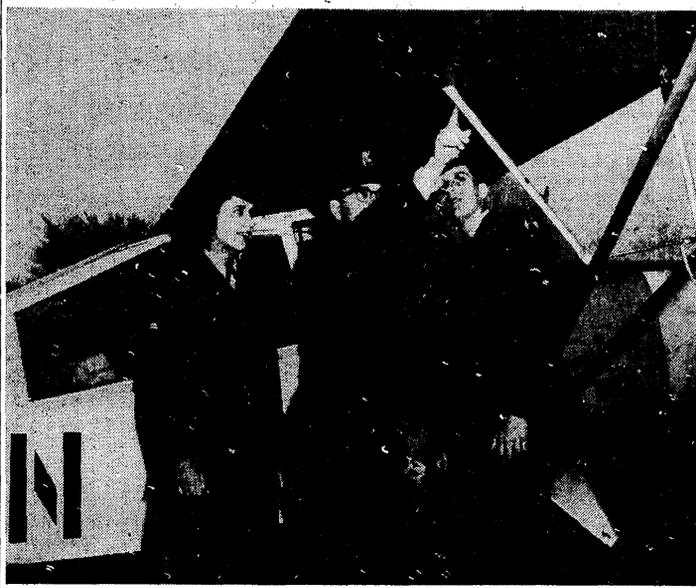

Neighborhood Club Is Busy

Now that the regular schedule of indoor spring activities at the Neighborhood Club has been concluded an in-between spring and summer program will be conducted on the playground after school and in the evenings from 6:30 until dark.

Activities will include croquet, bowling on the green, newcomb, volleyball, softball, and various other games.

The swings, teeter-totters, slide and sandbox are all in condition for use—and then, of course, there are always good ball games to watch with the Little Baseball and Babe Ruth Leagues in full swing.

Your Car Needs Spring Care

Although Spring maintenance of the house and garden may be considered a full-time job by many home owners, an automotive service expert urges car owners not to shirk an equally important responsibility.

For safe as well as economical warm weather driving, Walter M. Spencer, Dodge service director, recommends thorough Spring checkups for automobiles. Here are his suggestions:

1. To get rid of winter engine sludge, replace filter, drain oil from the crankcase and refill with summer oil, as specified in the Car Owner's Manual.
2. Transmission, rear axle, steering unit and joints should be thoroughly lubricated to remove winter road grime.
3. When the danger of freezing weather has passed, drain anti-freeze from the cooling system; flush; refill with fresh water, and add rust inhibitor. (Cars equipped with air conditioning may require that the cooling system be protected with fresh permanent anti-freeze during summer months. Check Owner's Manual.)
4. An engine tuneup will assure maximum fuel mileage and car performance during the summer months.
5. Check the operation and adjustment of headlights. The battery and generator charging rate should also be inspected for continued safe night driving and turn signal operation.

The priceless value of American citizenship will be sharply impressed upon eight Grosse Pointe High School boys by the program at Wolverine Boys' State this year.

Dave Gillis, Bill Gleason, Bill Love, Robert Brown, Bob Hunt, Pete Mitchelson, Heath Boyer and Ernest Dossin will spend the week of June 19 on the Michigan State University campus, joining boys from all over the state in the organization of a state government.

The Grosse Pointe Rotary Club, the American Legion

Frederick Alger Post 86, and the American Legion Grosse Pointe Post 303 will be the sponsoring organizations this year. Dr. William Quinlan, Robert Wadron, and John Jonas, respectively, represented these organizations in procuring boys for the Boys' State program.

Application blanks for the allotted number of boys along with a list of requirements for those boys desiring to participate in this program were sent to Howard Case, dean of boys at Grosse Pointe High School. Mr. Case asked for recommendations from teachers. The boys with the highest number of recommendations were invited to attend Boys' State by Mr. Case.

The teachers based their recommendations on the following qualifications: a high sense of duty and morality, honesty and industriousness, mental alertness and intellectual curiosity, cooperative attitude and amiability, and personality and sportsmanship.

Upon arrival at Boys' State each boy will be assigned to a mythical city. They will live in this "city" for their entire stay at Boys' State. They will also be assigned to one of the two political parties, and will work with and support their party until after the elections when the program will be conducted on a non-partisan basis.

On the first day of their stay they will attend a city convention and aid in selecting nominees for city offices. On the following morning the city elections will be held.

State conventions will take place the third day. Campaigns will run for the remainder of Saturday in preparation for Sunday's election. Elections will be as nearly as possible duplicates of Michigan elections.

Inauguration will be Sunday night. The Governor of Boys' State will be sworn into office by a prominent state official.

The boy governor with the approval of the Michigan State Senate will designate various others boys to fill the appointive positions.

The whole program will function under Michigan's basic state laws and constitution. The relationships between offices will correspond as closely as possible to that of the actual offices.

For journalistic minded boys, a daily newspaper, the Whirligig, will be published. For those musically inclined a band and glee club will be organized.

Troop 709 Holds Court of Honor

A Court of Honor was conducted June 2 for Boy Scout Troop 709 at St. Michael's Episcopal Church. Advancement awards were presented by Scoutmaster Robert LaRouche and Assistant Scoutmaster Chuck Dawson to the following 18 boys, each of whom advanced from Tenderfoot to Second Class Scout:

Also, the following boys received Merit Badge awards for swimming proficiency: Mike Hedge, Richie Winslow, Carter Wilkerson and Dave Ingram.

The official charter from the Boy Scout organization was presented by Mr. John Lapish, Scout Neighborhood Commissioner, to Mr. John Cushman, Institutional Representative of the church.

The guest speaker at the ceremony was Mr. Paul Kolvoord, Boy County Community Commissioner, who outlined the objectives and principles of the Boy Scouts of America. He also congratulated the troop for its 100 per cent record for the year.

Stop Polio Week Starts Monday

Because of the imminence of the polio season, members of the Wayne County Medical Society are sponsoring another "Stop Polio Week"—June 9 through 13.

"I can't understand," says Dr. Clarence I. Owen, president of the WCMC, "how anyone would want to take the risk of crippling or death from polio when we have a vaccine that is 85 to 90 per cent effective in preventing paralytic polio. There is still time to get two inoculations before the polio 'season' begins. Those who have had two inoculations should have the third which will provide high immunity."

Dr. Owen said it has been suggested to members of the society that a maximum fee of $3 per injection, which includes cost of the vaccine, be charged and special consideration given where several members of a family need the vaccine.

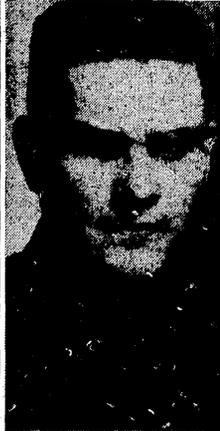

A survey made recently by the Detroit Department of Health disclosed that almost one third of all school children, and 75 per cent of adults in Wayne County have had NO Salk vaccine.

Dr. Joseph G. Molner, health commissioner, and the Wayne County doctors decided to have a crash program for polio protection. To alert parents, more than 600,000 copies of a leaflet, printed by the March of Dimes, were delivered to schools by the health department and given to every school child in Wayne County to take home.

"Take advantage of this bargain in health," Doctors Owen and Molner urge all residents of Wayne County who have not received injections of Salk vaccine. "It cost $28 million and 17 years to develop. Call your family physician today and arrange an appointment. Those who have no family physician may call the Medical Service Bureau of the Wayne County Medical Society, TE 1-3500."

In June 1854 the first formal graduation ceremonies were held at the Naval Academy at Annapolis. Although classes had been graduating for eight years, this marked the first formal ceremony to be held.

WEST POINT, N.Y. (AHTNC)—WILLIAM J. McCAFFREY, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton F. McCaffrey, who live in Roslyn road, Grosse Pointe, Mich., was graduated June 4 from the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, N.Y.

McCaffrey was commissioned a second lieutenant in the Infantry branch and received a bachelor of science degree. At West Point he was active in the oratorical club and dialectic society.

Appointed to the academy by Representative Charles W. Vorse (R.) of the Twenty-third Congressional District, Illinois, McCaffrey was a cadet sergeant during his senior year.

McCaffrey was graduated in 1953 from Bullis Preparatory School.

Honors Assembly Held At Parcels Junior High

Beauty and brains are compatible and it is possible for a quiz-kid to be a 300 hitter in baseball, Vincent L. Peterson, Parcels Junior High School principal, told his assembled student body Wednesday.

The occasion was the first "Honors Assembly" held by the Junior High School when some thirty five students were honored for outstanding academic achievement.

Nine students received "Scholastic Awards" because they had maintained a grade average of A minus throughout their junior high career. Twenty-six others received "Honorable Mention" certificates for maintaining a B or B plus average.

"It is our plan to make the honors assembly an annual affair," Mr. Peterson said, "We feel that we should pay as much, or more, homage to brains as we do to other forms of achievement. Sometimes it appears that our society neglects scholarly accomplishments in favor of others and we'd like to help correct this imbalance."

"Many adults will be surprised to learn that the stereotype they envision when they think of a 'smart' student doesn't look like that at all," he stated. "One has only to look at this group to see that. There are no weaklings or social misfits in this group, and a look at their extra-curricular record will bear me out. The leaders of the student body in almost every activity are right here on this platform before you. I think they deserve our highest praise."

The students receiving the Scholastic Awards, and their honor point averages (A—3.0 B—2.0 C—1.0) were Julia Ayres, 2.9; Larry Englehardt, 2.9; Frances Martin, 2.8; Marilyn Chasteen, 2.8; Dale Anderson, 2.8; Karen Peltier, 2.6; Nancy Forsythe, 2.6; Randall Allardyce, 2.5; and Donald Reed, 2.5.

These nine students took a total of 319 courses during their junior high school career, the average per student being about 35. They received A's in 243 or 77 per cent of these courses; B's in 69 or 21 per cent and C's in only 6 courses or 2 per cent. Each of the top five scholars had 26 or more A grades on their record for an average of about 85 per cent A's in their group.

The students achieving "Honorable Mention" and their honor point averages were: James Eckel, 2.4; William Vandenberg, 2.4; Helen Rowe, 2.4; Sharon Bertschinger, 2.4; George Russell, 2.4; William Duell, 2.4; Eliot Jones, 2.3; Karen VanVoorhees, 2.3; James Bierbusse, 2.3; Edward Chielens, 2.3; Margaret Thomas, 2.3; Diane McDonald, 2.3; Susan Darling, 2.2; Julia Smith, 2.2; Joann Bazzo, 2.2; Carl Heibar, 2.2; David Church, 2.1; Rosalind Weber, 2.1; Susan Katlenbach, 2.1; Lee Jeffers, 2.1; Susan Pomeroy, 2.0; Diane Podly, 2.0; Judith Malmburg, 2.0; Crosson Hays, 2.0; Kathryn Newak, 2.0; and Peter Whitton, 2.0.

Lake Sand Bar Maroons Trio

Two Pointers and a former Pointer were marooned on a sandbar for six hours in Lake St. Clair on Sunday, June 1, when their boat developed motor trouble during the heavy storm.

The three were rescued by the Belle Isle Coast Guard, when their plight was reported by a St. Clair Shores citizen, who witnessed their trouble from the shore.

Rescued were Robert Nagel, 21, of 1523 S. Renaud; Wayne Wunderlich, 21 of 1835 Lochmoor; and Richard Pellegrino, 22, a former neighbor of Wunderlich's, and now living in St. Clair Shores.

Saturday night, at about 8 p.m., the three decided to go to Belle River, Canada, aboard a 27-foot Chris Craft motor launch piloted by Pellegrino, and return. It was just an hour's ride, round trip.

On the return trip, the boat developed motor trouble, while only half way across. The boat drifted with the current. The trio had no way to communicate their difficulties.

Shortly after midnight Sunday, the boat struck a sandbar and could not budge, and remained there until released by the Coast Guard at 8:30 a.m., who then towed the three to the Belle Isle station.

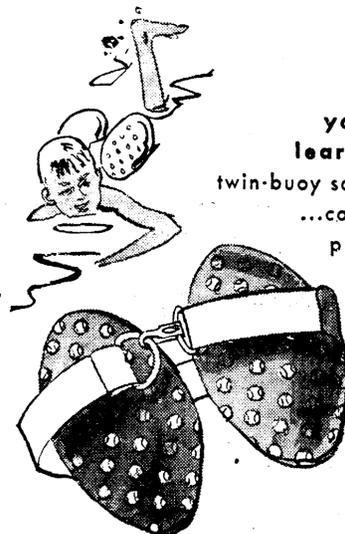

The three boaters were wet and miserable, but otherwise suffered no complications from their adventure.

In June 1944 the U.S. Navy captured an enemy warship for the first time in 130 years. Having crippled the German submarine U-505 and forced it to surface, American sailors boarded the enemy ship and declared her a prize of war.

Cinema League Holds Election

Miss Ester Porter, language instructor at Grosse Pointe High school, was elected president of the Grosse Pointe Cinema League for the coming year at the League's recent annual meeting held in the War Memorial Center. The League is Grosse Pointe's only organization for amateur movie photographers and is sponsored by the War Memorial Center.

Miss Porter, who films outstanding 8 mm travel movies, has been a member of the League since its inception. Retiring president is Mrs. Pierre Palmantier.

Other new officers named are Jack A. Doerr, Jr., vice-president; Mrs. C. R. Pollard, secretary; Floyd Dargell, treasurer; M. D. Dimitriovich, custodian; and members of the board at large, Charles Duncan and George Cottingham, Jr.

Prints are showing up in summer shoes. Now you can buy a print dress and shoes to match, points out Margaret Werner, retailing instructor at Michigan State University.

ALEXIS TREMBLAY, HABITANT (38 minutes, color) An account of a French-Canadian farmer's year. In a village on the St. Lawrence River, Alexis Tremblay, French-Canadian habitant, cultivates his 300 year old farm as his ancestors did before him. Through the changing seasons, Alexis and his family perform their traditional tasks - soap-making, harvesting, weaving, hauling wood in winter - and take part in a lively party at the New Year.

THE GREAT PLAINS (24 minutes, color) The story of the Canadian prairies and the people from Eastern Canada, The United States, and Europe who settled there. Covers Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta.

INTRODUCING CANADA (20 minutes) One of the series of new films entitled "The Atlantic Community," this valuable study emphasizes Canada's historical developments and achievements; her geographical features; her people, children, and families; her economic life and the occupations of the people; her social life and customs; and the role of Canada in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

A MUSICAL RIDE (18 minutes, color) All the spectacle and color of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police are captured in this film. On a field before hundreds of spectators, thirty-two "Mounties" in their bright red uniforms put their horses through a series of precision movements that are thrilling to watch. The horses are stopped only once for a breather while their riders go through a mounted lance drill. The entire "musical ride," as the drill is called, is accompanied by an R.C.M.P. band which plays many familiar marching melodies.

ANGRY BOY (32 minutes) Dramatizes the story of Tommy Randall, who has been caught stealing at school, and who is sent to a child guidance clinic rather than being treated as a criminal. The psychiatrists soon discover that Tommy's behavior is a result of an emotional problem. Traces the disturbance through a portrayal of his family life to its source. Shows how Tommy's mother learns to understand him and how Tommy himself becomes adjusted through the work of the clinicians.

HORSEMEN OF THE PAMPAS (21 minutes) Pictures the life and work of Argentine gauchos on a range in the pampas. Except for the soft, musical Spanish language you hear among the gauchos or perhaps the sight of their strange, baggy trousers, you have the impression that you are on a great Texas ranch. Throughout the film there is the impression of the vastness of this level, stoneless and nearly treeless plain. There is an inescapable picture of the Great Plain's influence upon its people and its impact upon an entire nation.

MONARCH BUTTERFLY STORY (11 minutes, color) Presents the complete life cycle of the monarch butterfly in closeup and time-lapse photography. Pictures the four distinct stages of development and the marks that distinguish the male from the female. Then shows the range of the monarch, a female laying a single egg on a milkweed leaf, the larva hatching, feeding, and moulting, the caterpillar spinning its cocoon, the complete metamorphosis during the pupa stage, and finally the adult butterfly bursting out of the chrysalis and drying its wings in the sun.

SKI HOLIDAY (11 minutes, color) Snowtime is ski-time, and where better than the National Parks in the Canadian Rockies? Scenes of skiers taking time out for lunch 8,200 feet above sea level, or of snow pluming from their heels on a down-hill run, are only a small part of a film with the beauty and spirit of skiing in the great mountains.

Lucky Youngster Has Close Call

"A wfully lucky" is the way Mr. and Mrs. John R. Emery, of 564 Lakeland avenue, feel about their son's accident which occurred last Thursday, May 29. Young John, aged 7, was hit by a car while riding his bike in the early evening hours.

It all happened after a pretty full day for Johnny. He'd been to a Little League game at the Neighborhood Club, and then had followed the fire trucks on a call.

As he was coming back, headed west on Charlevoix, he was struck by a car driven by Ida May Morehouse, of 882 Rivard boulevard. Mrs. Morehouse was going north on Rivard and had stopped for the stop sign at the corner of Charlevoix. In the early evening dusk she failed to see the boy and struck his bike.

John was taken to Bon Secours Hospital where a thorough checkup revealed he was little more than shaken up and bruised. Mrs. Morehouse was ticketed for not having her car under control.

Kiwanis Gives Bus to Woods

At ceremonies held in front of the War Memorial Center on Tuesday, June 3, the Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club turned over a set of keys to Woods Mayor Kenneth Koppin, for a bus that will be used to transport children to the Woods' lakefront park.

The bus is larger than the one presented to the Woods several years ago by the club, and was purchased for the sum of $1,000. An additional $100 was paid to paint the bus with the official colors of the organization, blue and gold, and to paint the letter "K" to identify the gift as being from the group.

The keys were turned over to Mayor Koppin by the local club's president, Benjamin Pinkos.

Chairman of the purchasing committee, Vern C. Bailey, and his committee members, Conrad Nagel and Cornelius Huysken, bought the bus after searching the Detroit area for a good buy.

Funds for the purchase of the bus were raised through the sale of tickets for the annual Fourth of July fireworks display which is held each year at the Parcels Junior High School grounds.

Bailey said that the larger bus will be used, and the smaller bus held in reserve, for peak hours, in the transportation of Woods children to the park. Transportation is free, he said, to and from the park.

The first pick-up will be at 10 a.m., and the last at 5 p.m., while the park is open for the season. The bus will run on pick-up schedule, every hour and a half.

Top Honors Go To Lt. Fildeu

First Lieutenant John Fildeu was graduated with honors at the graduation exercises held for the 28th Special Class on May 23, at the Judge Advocate General's School, U.S. Army, Charlottesville, Virginia.

He was awarded the American Bar Association Award for Professional Merit and the Lawyers Co-Operative Publishing Company book prize for having attained the highest over-all standing upon graduation.

Lieutenant Fildeu is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley L. Fildeu, 1105 Harvard road. He was graduated from the University of Michigan in 1957 with a B.A. and a J.D. degree as a member of Phi Beta Kappa and the Order of the Coif.

While a law student he served on the Michigan Law Review.

Model of Clipper Ship Presented to Museum

A hand model of the famous clipper "Flying Cloud," described as a "Rembrandt" of ship models, has been presented to the Detroit Historical Society's Marine Museum by Michigan Consolidated Gas Company.

Presently on display at the Mariners Church, the model will be moved to the new Dossin Great Lakes Museum which will be built next year on the former site of the schooner J. T. Wing on Belle Isle.

Fred A. Kaiser, of Grosse Pointe Farms, vice-president and general sales manager of Michigan Consolidated, presented the model to Captain Joseph E. Johnston, curator of the museum. Robert L. Rule, director and past president of the Great Lakes Model Ship Builders Guild who now has temporary custody of the model, called it a "Rembrandt" of ship models.

The model is detailed down to the hundreds of halyards, belaying pins, cleats and pulleys and is valued at more than $1,000.

Grand Marais Garden Club To Honor Husbands

The Grand Marais Garden Club members have invited their husbands to a cocktail party to be held at the home of Mrs. Elton MacDonald, in Windmill Pointe drive, on Sunday, June 8.

AAUW Picks New Officers

Officers of the Grosse Pointe branch of the AAUW were recently elected. Mrs. Edgar A. Hahn is the new president; Mrs. Eugene Klaver, first vice-president; Mrs. E. H. Bahn, second vice-president; Mrs. Albert D. Conkey, recording secretary; and Mrs. Kenneth Cook, corresponding secretary.

All of the offices are two-year terms, except that of the first vice-president who serves just one year.

The June Art party will be held at the home of Mrs. Robert B. Clarke, 385 University place, on Sunday, June 8, at 5:30 p.m. All Grosse Pointe AAUW branch members, and their husbands and friends, are cordially invited.

A portion of the party-time will be devoted to the production of the play "None of Them Are Perfect," with Mrs. Donald Worley, chairman of the Drama Group, directing. These plays include Mesdames Urban Borech, Arthur T. Bersey, Albert D. Conkey, Edward F. Gehrig, Edgar A. Hahn, E. H. Lang, and Edward F. Suits.

Music will be provided by the AAUW's Music Group, Mrs. John P. Thomas, chairman. For reservations contact any of the following co-hostesses: Mrs. Arthur T. Bersey, Mrs. James Graves, Mrs. R. W. Cunningham, Mrs. Edward F. Suits, or Mrs. John P. Thomas.

Center Holding Party for Kids

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Annual Kiddies Party which is given free for children in grades 1-6, will be presented this year on Wednesday afternoon, June 18, from 2:30 to 4:30 o'clock on the lakeside terrace and back lawn of the Center.

It has purposely been scheduled after all schools have been closed so as not to interfere with any other activities. In case of rain the party will go off as scheduled but will be held indoors.

As usual there will be plenty of colorful balloons for all the children and ice cream and pop will be available at cost. On the terrace the youngsters will be entertained by Bob Burger and his menagerie which appears on television—large dogs and small mice will go through their paces accompanied by prompting from one of the loudest voiced Myna birds in captivity.

Of course there will be a clown and pantomime act, a ventriloquist and dancers. Indoors colored cartoons will be shown continuously.

Jr. Goodwill To Give Tea

The great outdoors calls in June so it was only natural that the Jr. Group of Goodwill Industries should hold its first meeting "al fresco."

A geranium bordered stone walk served as the "welcome mat" when Mrs. Richard Wagner of Birmingham opened her contemporary modern home to the group assembled to honor twelve new members. The guests were served from the patio which overlooked a spring garden set against a background of rich woodlands.

The new members who will manage to eke out a little more time from their already tight schedules to serve Goodwill Industries are Mesdames Richard Allman, Neil Kitchen, Richard P. Balch, William LaRue, Hugh Barber, Harry Mackay, Vern Donnelly, Thomas J. Murphy, Kenneth Garrett, J. A. Pearson, Charles D. Gilbert and C. Donald Wing. The initiates were appointed to the hospitality committee which is the traditional first assignment because the work serves to bring new members into immediate and close contact with the membership-at-large.

FASHION HINT
Handbags are softer, rounder and slimmer this year. They may be large, but they are "oh-so-flat," says Margaret Werner, retailing instructor at Michigan State University. Some are of the flower garden variety, trimmed with massive bunches of flowers. Others are trimmed with fruit, braids or laces. Look for straw—crunchy straw cloth, rough straw or the new satin straw.

Rehearse for Classic

BILL LOUD of Trombley road, playing the part of C. K. Dexter Haven, offers his arm to MOLLY HUNTER of Handy road, who has the role of young Dinah Lord in "The Philadelphia Story", Philip Barry's popular hit of stage and screen. The Grosse Pointe Community Theater will present the show at four performances on the Memorial Center's terrace, at 8:30 p.m. on June 20, 21, 27 and 28.

Brownie Troop Has Luncheon

Brownie Troop 875 from Kerby School had a Mothers' and Daughters' luncheon at the Village Manor Restaurant followed by their Brownie Fly-Up ceremony and investiture into the Girl Scouts, on Saturday, May 24.

Brownies who were taken into the Girl Scouts that day were: Marjorie Blackburn, Eve Cotter, Carroll Goodheart, Leigh Graham, Carolyn Gundlach, Joy Hagan, Judith Hooper, Mary Lou Jennings, Elizabeth Lang, Nini Lee, Teri Markley, Lucy McKean, Judy McKee, Marde Nold, Nancy Petrosky, Christine Ramsay, Susan Semmler, Elizabeth Smith, Christine Thomas, Valerie Veit, Diane Van Zile and Carol Worbois.

We suggested a testamentary trust to the father and his attorney years ago—one for his wife and each of his children. This kept the inheritance of each child intact at National Bank of Detroit, growing for its eventual turnover at pre-determined ages. Meanwhile, each youngster gets his schooling, and a business or marriage start from the estate income alone.

We'll be glad to talk with you and your attorney about these and the many other advantages of a trust relationship with National Bank of Detroit.

To Hold Tea at Carmel Hall

Gaily hued umbrellas, pastel flowers and decorative white wooden trelliswork, interspersed with greens, will embellish the formal garden scheme at Carmel Hall, 2560 Woodward Avenue, this Friday, when the Carmelite Auxiliary opens the garden to the public for a garden tea from 2 until 5 o'clock.

Mrs. Thomas K. Fisher, general chairman of the affair has extended a blanket invitation to all of the women of the Detroit area communities to be present.

Mrs. Louis Fisher and Mrs. Peter Koenig have announced the list of women who will preside at the three distinctively arranged tea tables.

Pouring at half hour intervals will be Mesdames Louis C. Miriani, Edward S. Piggins, Blount Slade, Etor Gargaro, William R. Hamilton II, Gordon Johnstone, Michael McManus, Stephen Bartush, Lawrence J. Kroha, Timothy J. McCarthy, Angus Goetz, Duane Beam, William J. Fisher, James K. Campbell, John Bugas, Alfred J. Fisher, Frederick Ward, and Don E. Ahrens.

Others will be Mesdames George J. Fredericks, Harry Ryan, Clyde P. Craine, Sr., J. S. Leszynski, Jerry T. Flanagan, J. A. Bresnahan, Arthur Kirchner, David Burnett, Thomas McCarthy, Philip Skillman, David T. Marantette, Thomas Keating, Frank Nair, William C. Roney, Clune Walsh and the Honorable Blanche Parent Wise.

Heading the reception committee is Mrs. Anthony Maillo. Her assistant hostesses are Mesdames F. A. Alter, B. P. Costello, J. C. Leahy, Louis A. Braun, Laura Pringle, Harry A. Lombard, J. Terrance Bangan, George L. Cassidy, J. Fred Selman, Donald J. Ternes, J. C. Murphy, J. E. Bejin, J. Clarence Grix, Hubert Bohls and N. M. Brittrick.

Music by Paul Skillman will be featured throughout the afternoon for the enjoyment of tea time guests, many of whom will be seeing Carmel Hall, the largest home for the aged and retired, for the first time.

Ballet Students To Give Show

Between 100 and 150 of Mary Ellen Cooper's Ballet students at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial will present their annual Evening of Ballet at Parcels School Auditorium, Tuesday evening June 17, at 8:15 o'clock.

The theme this year is the "Four Seasons" based on the music of the Glazov ballet suite "The Seasons" supplemented by the music of Mendelssohn's "Piano Concerto in D Minor." Mrs. Charles F. Cooper will play the accompaniments.

The cycle of the seasons will be presented in its entirety beginning and ending with winter. The Snow Ballet consists of the Production Group which is a new group of students interested in advanced ballet.

Members of this group are Dawn Williams, Marcia Howell, Nancy Hodges, Anna Lee Harrison, Carol Wood, Diane Brink, Lee Laurie, Ann Boynton, Barbara Zastrow, Pat Agden, Sylvia Hunter and Anne Howe.

As the seasons progress groups representing rain, wind and appropriate flowers succeed each other. There are birds too, such as the bluebird group composed of Anne Howe, Barbara Zastrow and Sylvia Hunter.

Three solos will be danced by Judy Moore as a lily, Diane Agdan as head of the poppies and Miss Cooper herself as the poinsettia.

The costuming this year is unusually lovely. It is a finished and enjoyable spectacle. The public is invited at an admission of $1.00 for adults. This year due to many requests children between the ages of 5 and 12 will be admitted for 50 cents.

League Plans Birthday Party on June 12

The Michigan League for Crippled Children, Inc., will hold its 35th Anniversary Party on June 12 at Lochmoor Club. A board meeting will precede the luncheon at 12:30 o'clock, but in celebration of the 35th Year of the League no general meeting is scheduled.

Instead, an afternoon of relaxation is planned for the membership and their guests. The Junior Auxiliary of the Michigan League for Crippled Children, Inc., will join in the celebration.

It was 35 years ago, in 1923, that seven dedicated women incorporated the league and its membership has grown every year. Over 500 active members continue to carry on the operation and maintenance of Grace Bentley Camp, made possible by the bequest of the late Miss Grace Bentley and devoted to orthopedic and cardiac children.

Grace Bentley Camp is located at 8250 Lake Shore Road, Jeddo, Michigan. For eight weeks each summer handicapped children enjoy the three and one-half acres of play area and the beach and water of Lake Huron. All activities are geared to the children's abilities. A recreation hall, lounge, library and hobby shop staffed with experienced counselors keep the boys and girls busy and happy under the direct supervision of Mr. James Tatlock. A dietitian assures well balanced, wholesome and appetizing meals and a registered nurse is on duty at all times.

Mrs. Charles Brooks, of Lakepointe avenue, is sure that through the hard work of the members as well as donations from service clubs, social clubs, lodges and business organizations the League will forge ahead.

Reservations for the 35th Anniversary Party may be made by calling Mrs. Harry C. Smith, TUxedo 2-8777 or Mrs. A. Wilson, TUxedo 5-7287.

It Pays to Be Smart

We have been watching with tremendous interest, for a long time, a television show carrying the very simple title of "21". Coming on Monday nights at 9 o'clock, it very often interferes with our work of getting the paper comfortably near the "wrapping up" stage which must be accomplished by Tuesday afternoon, but we never fail to feel rewarded after the stimulating experience each new viewing produces.

Here is one of television's most potent answers to the critics who hold that the hours spent looking at TV are largely wasted, a claim with which we are inclined to agree. But it must be acknowledged that among the vast hodgepodge of programs of doubtful entertainment value and offering nothing in the line of instruction, there are these standouts.

When a person with the charm of an Elfrida von Nardroff reveals herself as a veritable fountain of knowledge, and demonstrates that she can capitalize on this knowledge to the tune of hundreds of thousands of dollars, there is more than entertainment involved. Of the millions who view the program each week, there must be many, especially among the young, who are inspired to make a greater effort towards obtaining a broad education.

The performances of Elfrida, Charles Van Doren and others also point up the value of an old institution that is lamentably fast passing from the American scene. We refer to the custom of indulging in intellectual conversation, especially within the family circle and about the dining table. Both Elfrida and Charles have testified that a great deal of their vast stores of knowledge were acquired in this manner. When they didn't know the answer to a question they were required to find it, and thus became familiar with the use of source books and learned how to use a library intelligently. Their curiosity was stimulated and their memories exercised. They learned to catalog facts mentally and to store away the information they found between the covers of books.

A pat on the back to programs of this type. They provide the viewers the equivalent of a session with the encyclopedia, history books, poetry, newspapers and magazines, but in a far more interesting manner. And we find these repeated revelations of amazingly broad knowledge far more spine-tingling than the continual whine of bullets in a badly done Western.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Mr. Edgar: The editorial in your paper of May 29 entitled A Wise Decision by the P.T.A. was perhaps not such a wise decision after all. Wisdom denotes knowledge, prudence, and good judgment. There is a difference of opinion among people that the P.T.A. Council's decision to refuse backing to the Grosse Pointe Council for Better Literature for Youth contained these elements of wisdom.

do just that. With this in mind I cannot feel that the decision of the P.T.A. Council was wise, nor that it reflects the opinion of the Parents of Grosse Pointe. There's Johnny and Susy's Parents next door, and there's Freddy and Jean's folks across the street—they don't want their children confronted with obscenity on every magazine rack. And if the removal of this cancer is done as you say with a "negative approach," what matter?

In spite of the fact that the editorial classified the methods of this group as "rather fanatical," and dubbed this group as "an organization to be avoided," Grosse Pointe has been a better place to live, and Grosse Pointe children are getting a better chance at life because of the literature group. The main attack on the Grosse Pointe Council for Better Literature for Youth seems to be your claim, and we assume the P.T.A. Council's claim that the work of this group infringes on our freedoms. Nothing could be farther from the truth. The Grosse Pointe Council for Better Literature for Youth believes in freedom, especially that freedom needed by a child to grow up in a wholesome community where obscene magazines are not accepted stock in trade. This is a freedom owed to every child, and we must do all in our power to assure him of that freedom.

You speak of the danger to freedom found in the control of thought. What about that freedom we possess which gives us choice either to permit or deny our children inoculation against disease? We don't have to give the kids their shots; there is no law demanding that we do so. But just you or I try letting our children enter society without this precautionary service. Your doctor is after you, your neighbors are against you, and your school will do all in its power to have your kids inoculated. But mind you—this is your freedom being trampled on by all these people. Does it not seem reasonable that the freedom of choice of that negligent parent needed to be pressured or controlled? It was not heresy for the doctor, the neighbor, or the school, to do everything in their power to influence the thinking of that parent.

But children are children, they are born into a family and have Parents. Because of their immaturity, children must depend on their parents to make many decisions for them. You raised the question of who has the right to say what is trash for my youngster to read. The answer is simple. I, as a parent, have that right and duty to make that decision, or any group of interested parents banded together for that purpose have that right. Parents are not "hiding a child behind a protective veil" when they check on his reading material. They are simply doing a job assigned to them as parents and as teachers working to instill good and honorable traits in their children. Parents may not always find time to check this reading material, so they should welcome into their community a group such as the Literature Council whose work it is to Freedom and control are interchangeable. America was built on freedom under control, not on license. I can walk down the street swinging my arms, and no one dare stop me. But that freedom of mine, in swinging my arms, ends where my neighbor's nose begins. I firmly believe that the Parents of Grosse Pointe who, as you put it, are a sound lot might take heed. They might re-examine that decision of their P.T.A. Council. Was it wise to refuse their backing to the work of the Grosse Pointe Council for Better Literature for Youth? Children are their parents' priceless possessions, their jewels. A good parent will say no to their children when no is the answer. A good parent will deny a child something that will harm him, and in so doing that parent need never worry about violating a freedom.

MRS. JOHN A. SCHAIBLE.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

Guest Columnist: VIRGINIA LEONARD

"... Murder, of all crimes, seems to possess to a greater degree than any other that that draws people helplessly into its outspreading net." So states Mr. Voelker in the prologue of his "Anatomy of a Murder," a book dealing with a murder in the Upper Peninsula, and the trial of the murderer. More than that, it is an absorbing account of what a brilliant criminal lawyer thought and did from the actual murder to the final verdict.

Thoughts of criminal lawyers lead us to instinctively recall the famous Clarence Darrow, who figured so prominently in the famous Leopold case of the 1920s. He comes alive again in the character of Jonathan Wilk in Meyer Levin's "Compulsion," a compelling, fictionalized retelling of the famous murder, the second part of the book being given over to the courtroom machinations.

The personality of Clarence Darrow shows forth again in his "Attorney for the Damned," published in 1957. This is an authentic record of his oratory, and comprises 13 of his major speeches, together with brief annotations telling the background story of each speech, widening this collection into a reportage of past events. Aficionados of Clarence Darrow will enjoy his eloquence, erudition and sincerity.

Also published in 1957 is Nathan Leopold's own story: "Life Plus 99 Years," a personal record of his 33 years in prison, more gripping than the fictional account because of its tense reality.

Life in prison has been dealt with recently by other writers, drawing from their own personal experiences. Caryl Chessman's name figures prominently with three books to his credit: "Cell 2455 Death Row," "Trial by Ordeal," and "Face of Justice" - all dealing with his six years in death cells at San Quentin. His moods range from the cynical and bragging (and these predominate) to the more beloved and philosophical, but all of his works contribute to autobiographical crime literature.

"Seven Years Solitary" by Edith Bone is prison life again, but under entirely different circumstances. Hungarian by birth, but long a resident of Great Britain, Dr. Bone worked for the Communist Party until 1949. At that time she was charged by the Secret Police of the Hungarian Communist regime of being a British spy and put in prison, where she was held in solitary confinement until 1956.

This is an inspiring tale of a great individual who maintained dignity, integrity and individuality against the inhumanity of the cell and the inquisitor.

Yes indeed, crime does NOT pay! And we rejoice that this one unjustly accused from this group survived her ordeal.

Increase Your "Good Days"

By Fred Kopp, R. Ph.

Are the days you feel really well rare occasions? Do you feel fatigued, listless most of the time? This is a condition from which many persons suffer, yet feel there is little they can do about it.

On the contrary, your doctor can help restore your energy and of course improve your zest for work and play.

The average person would be amazed at the number of carefully developed drug products that are available to counter-act mineral deficiencies in the body. Let your doctor determine your needs by a physical examination.

Planting Day Held At Trial Gardens

Turnout of 60 Gardeners Helps Plant Dozens of Flats Of Unusual Flowers at Unique Experimental Site at War Memorial

Monday, May 26 was planting day for the Trial Gardens at the Grosse Pointe Garden Center. Representatives from 14 Grosse Pointe garden clubs arrived at 9 o'clock, dressed in practical, yet most attractive gardening attire, to plant the 14 plots with the dozens of flats of annuals that had been delivered at the garden on Saturday.

It was an inspiring sight to all those who are garden minded to see this group of about 60 gardeners working so willingly and happily on this unique community garden project. There is not another like it in the country.

The theme of the 1958 Trial Garden is "Accent on Color" and is being developed in shades and tints of prismatic colors. This year's garden was designed and is being supervised by the general chairman Mrs. Hansel D. Wilson, assisted by the committee's secretary Mrs. Herbert Schmitz.

Only exceptional or new varieties of plants are used in the gardens. Some of this year's All American Prize Winning varieties planted Monday are: Petunias, "Blue Lustre," "Maytime" (Light Pink) bronze medal winner; "White Magic" silver medal; Zinnias, "Royal Purple"; Verbena, "Lavender Glory" silver medal; Snapdragons, "Rosalia" silver medal, "White Rock"; Marigolds, Dwarf "Sunny" Award of Merit Royal Horticulture Society of Great Britain, "Nearest to White" bronze medal.

The plot numbers are drawn from a box at the first meeting of the Trial Garden Committee by the garden club representatives to decide which plot the clubs will plant and care for during the season. The Hillside and the Herb plots are special assignments. Mrs. Charles Crouse and Mrs. Howard F. Smith do the Hillside and Mrs. Wood Williams takes care of the permanent planting this year. Mrs. Ben W. Beyer cares for the Herb garden.

Mrs. C. R. Pollard is the official photographer and takes colored slides of the gardens as each variety of plant comes into full bloom. These slides are shown at garden club meetings as well as at the Garden Center.

Mrs. Howard Poppen is in charge of all labels and signs, keeping them freshly painted and in the correct place. There is a bulletin board in the gardens, posted with timely information about the planting and general gardening.

Three prizes will be given at the end of the season to the three garden clubs for the best three plots in the gardens. Judging will be done at three periods during the spring and summer.

Lavender, Old Lace Theme of Club Party

Lochmoor has Invited Ladies to Final Luncheon and Fashion Show of the Season on June 11; Decor to Have Turn of the Century Flavor

Lavender-scented invitations have been received by the ladies of Lochmoor Club bidding them to the Wednesday, June 11th luncheon and fashion show at the club. Tucked inside the envelopes were the clues of the party motif, frilly, lace-edged sachets, each one made by the hostesses Mrs. J. Charles Markley, Jr. and Mrs. John M. Dumser.

"Lavender and Old Lace" is the party theme and every detail has been carefully and cleverly arranged to augment the old-fashioned air. Parked at the club house entrance will be an antique automobile, and perched high up on the leather cushioned seats live models dressed in dusters, veils and goggles once necessities of happy motoring.

Stepping into the club foyer one will seemingly cross the threshold of a turn of the century dressmaker's shop. A tandem bicycle will be standing outside the shop door and a peek through the doorway will disclose the shop scene. In one corner a shuttle type sewing machine, a hanging wall telephone and mannequins poised apparently ready to begin cutting and stitching on milady's garments.

The luncheon table centerpieces were especially selected to further enhance the party theme. They will be milk glass reproductions of the almost forgotten kerosene lamp, but now completely modernized and used instead to burn fragrant cologne.

The fashion show, somewhat of an innovation at private club parties, will feature only "attic treasures"; styles dating back to the Civil War when the bustle was in mode, the hobble skirt of the early 1900's and other gowns depicting every fashion change

Congregationlists Plan Fair Preview

Church Women to Give Sneak Look at Articles To Be at November Event, Prior to Annual Spring Tea on June 10.

You may think those distantly tinkling bells you hear come from the ice cream man's truck, but actually it's the jingle bells on the Christmas (yes, Christmas!) decorations being readied for sale by the Women's Association of the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church, 240 Chalfonte.

For this is the year for the church's "Mistletoe Mart", a Christmas fair to be held on Thursday, November 20.

Mrs. Verle Ryon, chairman of Group 2 of the Women's Association of the church, announces that at the annual spring tea, Tuesday, June 10, from 2 to 4 o'clock, there will be a special preview showing at 1 p.m. of the many captivating items that will be sold at the "Mistletoe Mart".

Mrs. Edward Stanley, general chairman of the fair, would like to suggest that you drop over to the church and see the original Christmas decorations being made by Mrs. Stanley Smith and her committee.

Mrs. Donald Carson and her "knit-wits" are busy producing sweaters, mittens, slippers, and many Christmas-y items of warm apparel to show.

Mrs. Sam Toepel, chairman of the apron booth, will show the attractive hand-made aprons, and a tour of the "gadget" department may help solve your Fathers' Day gift problem!

Orders will be taken for any of the items on display, and these items themselves will be sold during the tea.

And if the warm weather makes you steer clear of your baking chores, drop by the baked goods counter where Mrs. Joseph Schwartz' committee will have an array of good things to eat.

June 10 is the day, and may we be the first to remind you that there are only 170 shopping days until Christmas!

147 Skippers Answer Gun In Memorial Day Regatta

One hundred and forty seven skippers and their crews answered the opening starting gun of the local regatta season which was fired by race chairman Sidney Warner in the Detroit Yacht Clubs Memorial Day regatta.

And what a regatta it was—a dandy west southwest moderate breeze prevailed at the start and sent the big fleet around the new Detroit River Yachting Association triangular courses on Lake St. Clair, which danced in the brilliant sun.

Probably the most exciting race of the day came in the Cruising A class which saw Nubby Sarn's defending 1957 season champion "Revelry" squeeze out first place by one second over Toot Gmeiner's "Apache" on corrected time.

Also in Cruising A came a surprise when Wilfred McGuire's big yawl "Merry Maiden" slipped over the line first to lead all classes home for the first time since starting her fresh water career last season.

Corrected time dropped the "Maiden" down to third place but Mac was delighted with the performance of his beautiful ship and hoped this was the start of better things to come in future regattas.

Hank Burkard's cutter "Meteor III", last year's Cruising B season champion, "pulled chestnuts out of the fire" when she turned in a tremendous job on the lead to overcome a big lead held by Skip Grow's and Carter Ford's "Quierda".

Sid Warner, Detroit Yacht Club race chairman, and his Detroit River Yachting Association helpers should get a rousing round of applause for the way they conducted the DYC Memorial Day Regatta.

It really was a smooth affair. Everything went according to schedule and the yachtsmen were gentlemen—no protests—at least none we have heard of.

There was only one thing that didn't set too well with the Raven class skippers. They didn't like being pushed down to number seven start behind the new Cruising D and the A Universal classes. Said they were too slow and interfered with the fast Raven sloop at the first mark of the course and down the second leg. But being the first regatta of the season it just wouldn't be natural if everything was perfect.

Skip Forcier, Grosse Pointe's top outboard driver, still found Lady Luck evading him at the Detroit Times-Belle Isle Outboard Club 50-Mile marathon last Saturday, May 31. Six times Skip, now a marine store proprietor, has tried to win this event and each time something has happened.

Once he was leading the fleet by a wide margin at the turning point downriver near Trenton and he missed the buoy and was headed for Lake Erie before he saw his rivals making the turn behind him and heading back upstream to the finish line. A couple of other times he was flipped from his boat while in a contending position.

It was the same this year. Skip was leading the pack in the DU class as it neared the finish line. He hit the wake of a cruiser and flipped. As a matter of fact Skip was so sure he had the race won that he was considering whether or not to smile or look tired as he finished. What an actor this big, goodlooking blond is.

Just received the Raven News letter from editor William J. A. (Nevermore) Nagel and it informs us that the class will be given a start in the Race Week at Quincy Bay, August 2-6, if any show up. Also the Raven Nationals will be held at Noroton, Conn., August 26-28.

The June issue of Yachting magazine has a wonderful story by Jo and Eddie Wunsch, a couple of Pointe tars of long standing, on the Bayview Yacht Club-Mackinac Island Race history. Tells how it was started and by whom, has pictures of most of the famous yachts that won different races and everything is letter perfect—except for one thing and that one thing gravels the very cunning notion of Bayview sailors. The title of the story is "Port Huron to Mackinac Race." The real name of the race is the "Bayview Yacht Club-Mackinac Island Race from Port Huron."

The salty club on the banks of the Detroit River that has spawned some of the greatest sailors in the world has carried the financial load of the race for 23 years and is the sole sponsor. Port Huron contributes only the rendezvous for the fleet the night before the race. It is in the Black River that the fleet moors awaiting the starting gun out on Lake Huron off Gratiot Beach, which is approximately eight miles from Port Huron. In recent years Sam Sullivan and his Port Huron Power Squadron cronies have contributed invaluable service to the race committee of Bayview but the city uses the spectacle of upwards of sixty yachts, (there were 70 last year), moored in the Black River the night before the race as a highlight for its annual Blue Water Carnival.

Once upon a time, way back when Trent and Neil McMath and some of their buddies who have since either sailed off to the sailors Valhalla or taken to the rockin' chair, the fleet moored at the city of St. Clair.

But it's a great story of a great fresh water classic you will enjoy reading whether you are a sailor or not.

What small boat skipper fell overboard at the first mark of the course in the Detroit Yacht Club Memorial Day regatta and dragged his yacht from first place to last place before climbing back aboard?

In June 1784 Joshua Humphreys, noted construction expert, was appointed America's first naval constructor with an annual salary of $2,000.

WOODS-SHORES
Plenty of action was witnessed in the Woods-Shores Little League last week with 28 games being played in the four divisions.

One of the most thrilling games was between Omaha and Indianapolis which was won by Omaha 12-11 on Skipper Evatz's home run in the last half of the seventh inning with two mates on base and two out. The fielding gem was turned in by Bob Henshen. The winning pitcher was Dale Dietrich.

Bobby Wilkie was the outstanding player in the game that saw Columbus defeat Montreal 10-9. Wilkie weighs about 50 pounds including his cap and cleats and is the sparkplug of the Columbus second base combination which includes shortstop Jimmy Allen.

Columbus came back the very next day to defeat Toronto 12-11 in a nip and tuck battle that kept the fans glued to their seats until pitcher Phil Hodgeman struck out the final batter with the tying run on first base.

Braves pitcher Gary Dlouhy came within an eyelash of collecting a no-hitter when the Dodgers' Dennis Neuman collected the only hit off Gary's offerings as the Braves whipped the Dodgers 8-1.

CITY
The Cubs rose up in the last half of a Memorial Day double header to knock off the previously unbeaten Braves and throw the Grosse Pointe City Little League pennant race into a three-way scramble.

Led by the league's leading batter, Dave Sachs (750), the Cubs won two games in a row bringing them within one game of the Braves and Cardinals, who are tied for first. Only the Dodgers were winless in the league following last week's action.

Most brilliant individual performance in the Memorial Day twin bill was by Johnny Schmatz of the Cardinals who blasted two homers to lead the Cards to a 9-8 victory over the Dodgers. Schmatz has three home runs to date, to lead the league in that department. Dave Sachs also homered last week, his first of the season. Barry Trombly, the Braves' big gun at the bat, has two home runs for the season.

Dave Sachs' Memorial Day two-hitter against the Braves stands out as the finest pitching performance of the week. He struck out 10 and walked four in registering his first win of the young season.

One of the pleasant surprise packages of the Grosse Pointe City Little League this year is Andy Kimmel, Dodger catcher. Not only is Andy doing well behind the plate, but he is hitting at a .555 clip and has a home run to his credit.

PARK
High scoring games marked the second full week of play in Grosse Pointe Park Little League baseball as all teams except the Giants, were removed from the unbeaten class.

The Giants, with 5-0 record, took over undisputed leadership of the National League. The Athletics retained the top spot in the American League, winning one and losing one for a 4-1 record.

The only low scoring game of the 15 played in the week ended June 1 saw the unbeaten Athletics, who had scored 60 runs in their first four victories, defeated in an extra inning contest by the twice-beaten White Sox.

A home run in the seventh inning by Mike Renaud, of the White Sox, provided Danny Engel, a relief pitcher, with a 2 to 1 win, and moved the White Sox into second place in the tight American League race.

The only other four-base wallop in the eight American League games played came off the bat of Art Mossner, of the Senators, which gave the Senators a 15-11 win over the Yankees.

Another standout performance in the same league was five-inning stint of Sammy Thompson, Athletics relief hurler, who held the Indians to a one hit 14-5 victory.

The feature game in the National League was between the Giants and the Braves, which was won by the Giants, 8 to 2. Both were undefeated. Mike Verdonck and Tom Conway paced the Giant's nine-hit attack with home runs. Giant Pitcher Dave Hall received credit for this key victory.

The top National League pitching performance for the week, was chalked up by the Pirates Ricky Miller who held the Cardinals to one hit while his mates were outscoring the opposition 12 to 3.

Other National Leagueurs who contributed home runs to their teams' efforts were: Bill Welleritter, of the Reds, the league's leading batter with an 800 average; Dick Sims, of the Dodgers; Steve Spellman, of the Cardinals; Jeff Thomas and Mike Bielawski, both of the Pirates.

Besides Welleritter, the leading hitters of each team in this circuit are Greg Smith, of the Giants, 538; Ricky Fedoruk, of the Pirates, 533; Dick Sims, of the Dodgers, 500; Rusty Wilson, of the Braves, 500; and Steve Spellman, of the Cardinals, 411.

Top batters for each of the American League teams are Tommy Thompson, of the Athletics, 875; Rodney Luzi, of the Indians, 637; Art Mossner, of the Senators, 538; Mike Murray, of the Orioles, 500; Lloyd Jacobs, of the White Sox, 500; and Kenny Lambrecht, of the Yankees, 470.

In the two collegiate leagues, all four of the previously unbeaten teams suffered single defeats in the week's play.

Fordham and Harvard continued at the top of the Northern Conference, and Alabama, Carolina and Baylor remained in the Southern Conference lead. All five teams have 2 and 1 records.

Commodore's Corner

By Com. Charles Tompkins Detroit Yacht Club

Junior Sailing in the Detroit area should take a great step forward and come into its own with the addition of the Junior class to the DRYA weekly regatta program.

Starting with the Detroit Yacht Club Memorial Day regatta the Juniors will sail the club-owned 18-foot fiberglass interlake sloops over the new three-mile Junior course on Lake St. Clair, weather permitting.

There is no better way to develop an expert than to start him very early in life. Sports of all kinds like bowling, baseball and football are far ahead of sailing in getting youngsters started early.

The Detroit Yacht Club will have a minimum of four contesting boats in this class and, of course, we hope to make a good showing. This is our third year with these boats and we are very proud of our progress to date. Our club is considered a truly family club with a great deal of activity in all things for young people.

Perry Deakin, my Youth Activities Chairman, has done a truly remarkable job with our youth program. Every Sunday afternoon you will find Perry and his committee supervising the games room at the club. A lot of parents have told me they are forced to come to the club because their kids want to play billiards, shoot the pinball machines or go swimming.

Our Jr. Bowling League takes up nearly all of Whittier Recreation on Saturday mornings during the season. The Junior League includes four teams of Bantams starting at age 8. There are several heavy bowlers among the 17 and 16 year olds averaging around the 170 mark.

Being the father of five children with a television set I've discovered why the appeal is to kids. I've felt the same appeal existed in a great club such as ours. Cater to the kids and the parents find their way over more often. Cater to the young folks and they wind up being members. Add to all this the fact most of us want to be with our families and you have a club buzzing with excitement.

Our kids will be spending four days a week at the club most of the summer learning sailing, swimming, boat care, knot tying, etc. It's a real summer vacation for both parent and child, it saves going to a cottage and allows more time for everyone at the club. There are car pools formed so parents need only drive one day a week if they want and the cost is only $50 for the works.

In looking over applications for new members I can see a lot of people joining our club for family activities in which their children can participate. Fortunately we have a large club with many and varied facilities. We constantly have vacancies because of deaths, people moving away, etc. These vacancies invariably are filled by people who like the warm friendly atmosphere of a family club.

Because of the Detroit Yacht Club's large membership the cost of operation per member naturally is quite small. Out of 3,200 members of all classifications as many as 2,100 use their accounts each month.

It can't be said one could shoot a cannon through the halls of the Detroit Yacht Club and not hit anyone. The club has constant activity among young and old and shooting a cannon through the halls would be disastrous.

Little League Offering Clinic

A Little League Leadership Clinic will be conducted at Grosse Pointe High School old auditorium, Friday, June 6, at 8:15 p.m. Mickey McConnell, director of training for the international Little League organization and regional director for the Northern Region, will conduct the clinic.

The clinic will include demonstrations of fundamentals of play, and methods of teaching them, discussion about psychology of working with young players and physical conditioning, and how to build and use training aids.

Every adult interested in Little League is welcome at the clinic.

McConnell has a broad background in baseball and youth activities. He served as director of scouting for the Brooklyn Dodgers for 11 years during the regimes of Branch Rickey and Larry McPhail and also handled promotion and public relations and was secretary of the far flung farm system during much of that time.

Before joining the Dodgers, McConnell was executive secretary of the National Baseball Congress and had earlier experience as a sports editor and announcer. His major interest as a student at Nebraska State College was in physical education and he organized and managed amateur and semi-pro teams in addition to setting up a number of leagues. He also served as athletic director in the Army for nearly four years during World War II.

When Branch Rickey left Brooklyn in 1950, McConnell became director of youth activities for United States Rubber Company and began to organize training sessions for Little League in addition to writing training bulletins, supervising the filming of sports movies, and collaborating with several colleges in research projects in this area of activity. He also developed Little Leagues on Long Island and in several midwestern communities before becoming a full time executive of Little League in 1954.

McConnell has written four books on baseball and has done baseball broadcasting for American Broadcasting Company. He is a consultant on recreation for the National Council of Churches and active in YMCA programs.

Joe Belfore, Jr. Golf Medalist

Joe Belfore, Jr., was the only bright spot for the Grosse Pointe Blue Devil golf team which finished tenth in the State Class A golf tournament held Saturday, May 24, at the Battle Creek Country Club.

Joe fired a 71 for medalist honors. It marked the second time the Devils have produced a medalist in State competition. The last Devil to turn the trick was the late Bobby Olson, who lost his life in a jet trainer crash several years ago.

Birmingham captured the State championship by a single stroke over Flint Central, which had an aggregate team total of 315.

Final team scores are as follows: Birmingham 314, Flint Central 315, Ann Arbor 316, Grand Rapids Union 319, Dearborn 326, Plymouth 334, Niles 339, Jackson 342, Mount Clemens 347, Grosse Pointe 349, Southfield 351, Detroit Redford Union 353, Detroit Notre Dame 355, Saginaw 358, Catholic Central 359 and Muskegon 379.

Devil golf coach Paul Wheeler felt his lads did a wonderful job this spring in view of the fact the team had no home course on which to hold regular practices.

The Pointers played home and home matches with Monroe and Royal Oak, winning one of four matches. They beat Monroe in the first match of the season. The Pointers finished seventh in the Regional tournament and produced the top class A golfer in Joe Belfore in the State.

AS YOUNG AS HIS MUSIC — Though he is 81 years old, cellist Pablo Casals is still young at heart. The master musician and his 21-year-old bride Martita, also a cellist, practice together in their oceanside home in San Juan, Puerto Rico. They are preparing for the second annual Casals Festival to be held in San Juan from April 22 to May 8.

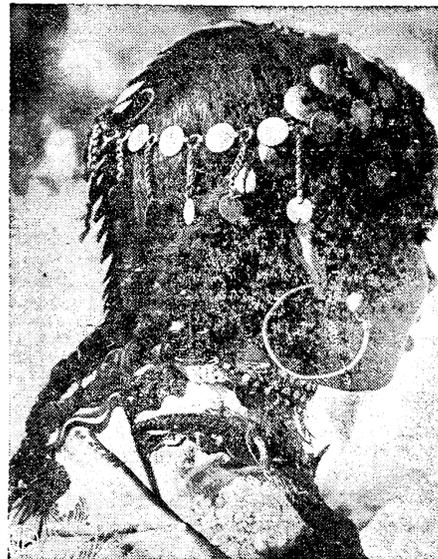

SACK OF DIOR — A sack-tied-in-the-middle wears a glamorous air as interpreted by Yves St. Laurent of the House of Dior. The black and white silk surah, built over a stiff lining, swings wide in every direction except at the front of the waist where it is caught by a big self-bow. A dramatic picture hat of the same fabric completes the ensemble by the young successor to the late Christian Dior.

COOKED ALIVE — Cooking his chickens before they've hatched pays off for Jim Emmons of Pauline, Kan., near Topeka. He's lifting the lid on two freshly hatched chicks and some far-from-fresh eggs inside an electric skillet. Emmons made a bet that eight bantam eggs could be hatched by placing them inside the skillet and setting the thermostat at 100 degrees. After turning the eggs from time to time and adding moisture to the pan, Emmons won when the first egg hatched after 21 days.

CHIPS OFF THE OLD CHAPLIN — Doing a take-off on pop, Eugene Chaplin outfits himself with the suitcase shoes, derby and cane that were the trademark of his father, Charlie Chaplin. The junior comic's sister, Josephine, almost manages to keep a straight face during the homestay in Geneva, Switzerland.

SILVER NOGIN — Moroccan belles don't wait until time turns their hair to silver. This desert girl, who comes from the Ziz Valley, models a traditional hair style, with silver ornaments trimming her braided tresses, and a giant hoop earring through her pierced ear.

TWO FOR THE MONEY — Producer-playwright John Osborne, who has two hits currently running in New York, relaxes at the Half Moon Hotel in Montego Bay, British West Indies. While in Jamaica, he is working on a new opus he hopes to produce in England later this year.

VET MEETS JET — A World War I pilot, 61-year-old Joseph Logan stands before the T-33 jet trainer in which he took a 45-minute ride at the Schenectady, N. Y., Air National Guard base. Logan, who became a stunt pilot after the Armistice, says the sleek 500-mile-an-hour jet was quite a change after the old crates he used to fly. He's now a restaurant owner, and the flight he took was the first for him since 1936 when he lost his flying license.

HORNS OF PLENTY — Apparently ready to start puffing on what look like king-size peace pipes, these two make-believe Indians are really would-be music makers. The "pipes" are actually Swiss-style alphorns. Joe Gwzlates, 70, is teaching five-year-old Chris Keller how to handle the elongated instrument. Gwzlates, who has only one hand, has been making the instruments ever since he was a boy in Lithuania. Known to him as "trubas," the Lithuanian horns were used to frighten away wolves that preyed on cattle. Since coming to live in Monroe, Wis., a Swiss settlement, Gwzlates has slightly altered the shape of the horns and turned them into traditional Swiss alphorns.

MAMA'S BOY — Little Jon Provost, 8, doesn't need Mother's Day to remind him of his affection for mom, as he greets Mrs. Bion Provost with a hug and a kiss at home in Pomona, Calif. The lad plays Timmy in the "Lassie" series seen on CBS television. Mother's Day is May 11.

MRS. NORTH CAROLINA — Mrs. Elizabeth Stroupe, Jr., 34, of Mount Holly, N. C., is representing her state in the 20th annual Mrs. America Pageant in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. Wife of grocerman Connor B. Stroupe Jr., and mother of two sons, she is competing in a series of homemaking contests against the nation's outstanding housewives.

STOP STREET — It looks as though the greediest auto thieves anywhere have struck this street in Rochdale, Lancashire, England. Actually, these car bodies are lined up outside a small manufacturing plant, waiting for the assembly process to be completed.

OASIS OF PEACE — Once an ugly lot, this Garden of Prayer beside the Roman Catholic Church of St. Charles Borromeo in St. Louis, Mo., draws a worshiper standing before a statue of the Virgin Mary. A contractor and horticulturist volunteered their services to transform the cinder-covered plot of land into a beautiful setting for the donated works of sculpture. The quiet retreat attracts daily lunch-hour crowds from nearby factories.

SHORT STORY — Taking to the slopes in shorts, these sun-kissed skiers get themselves a tan while enjoying the balmy weather at Mt. Sunapee State Park in Newbury, N. H. Left to right are: Cindy King of Providence, R. I.; Amy Godfrey of Warwick, R. I.; and Richard Kulp of Rookville Centre, N. Y.

NOTHING'S SACRED THESE DAYS — For 10 years baker Pete Casino made donuts, round ones. Just like thousands of other bakers from time immemorial. But Pete is no square, and one day he rebelled. After all, it gets awfully dull making the same old round donuts day in and day out. So one day Pete amazed the local donut connoisseurs in Denver, Colo., by turning out square donuts. They even have square holes, which will probably make all the people who saved the round holes for fish nets unhappy. Pete has started a revolution in the baking business, but he says his customers love the squared circles and his sales have doubled since the innovation.

de Gaulle, Coty said, he would resign as president.

Saturday, May 31

'SUDDEN DEATH' marred the running of the 500-mile speed classic in Indianapolis, Ind. Friday, won by national driving champion Jimmy Bryan. Less than 60 seconds after the fastest field in the history of the event roared into the first lap, veteran Pat O'Connor was dead in a 12-car pile-up in the No. 3 corner of the sprawling track.

The fatal crash was perhaps the result of one of the most horrendous starts in the history of the race. It took four laps of jockeying before the cars could get lined up for the start.

A VIOLENT demonstration against Gen. Charles de Gaulle erupted in the heart of Paris Friday night, shortly before he arrived in the tense French capital. A number of persons were injured.

De Gaulle returned to Paris from his country home as France's political struggle swept closer to a final showdown.

FORD AND UAW bargaining teams adjourned a full-day holiday session, still without likelihood of agreement by the Sunday midnight deadline.

Despite the near expiration of contracts, neither UAW President Reuther nor John Bugas, top Ford negotiator, attended the holiday meeting.

Time ran out on the UAW-GM talks and left GM workers on the job without a contract at 11:59 p.m. Thursday for the first time in 21 years. No talks were scheduled at GM until Monday.

Sunday, June 1
GEN. CHARLES DE GAULLE, triumphant after weeks of powder keg maneuvering in France and Algeria, agreed Saturday night to become premier and bring a soldier's discipline to the paralyzed government.

De Gaulle will address the National Assembly in person at 3 p.m. Sunday (9 a.m. Detroit time) to proclaim his program and his cabinet. The Parliament then will vote on whether to confirm him, which appears to be only a formality.

It is expected that de Gaulle will ask extraordinary powers, especially for the ministers of finance and economy; and that he will go to Algeria, Tunisia, and Morocco and try to end the nationalist rebellion by creating a French North African co-operative group.

THE UAW bargained vainly for concessions from Ford Motor Co. and Chrysler Corp. Saturday as its 165,000 members at the two firms faced the almost-certain prospect of working without contracts after midnight Sunday.

Barring an unexpected retreat by one of the three parties, the script already written by the UAW and General Motors Corp. will be replayed in the next 30 hours.

Both firms have offered two-year extensions which would provide a 16-cent wage boost over the next two years — the same offer rejected finally by the union at GM deadline time.

AUTHORITIES had only slight hope Saturday that Michigan could stay under the estimated holiday traffic toll, while across the nation drivers piled up fatal accidents at an alarming rate.

A rash of multiple-death crashes sent casualty figures soaring across the nation. At the two-third point of the three-day holiday the traffic death rate was running ahead of the like period in 1955.

Monday, June 2
THE UAW'S CONTRACTS in the last two of the Big Three's automotive plants ended at midnight Sunday. Last-minute negotiations, which began pessimistically at Ford Motor Co. and Chrysler Corp. Sunday afternoon, ended with reports of "no progress."

Ford was offered a temporary extension of the present contract but rejected it. UAW members in General Motors Corp. plants have been without contracts since midnight Thursday. Only American Motors and Studebaker-Packard contracts still are valid.

THE FRENCH PARLIAMENT turned over to Charles de Gaulle Sunday the fate of France with powers to remake its Fourth Republic. The National Assembly voted, 329 to 224, to accept the leader of the wartime French liberation movement as premier.

Approved at the same time was a 15-member cabinet including three former premiers, representatives of seven parties (right, left, and center wings), and five nonpolitical technicians.

Minutes from the Pointe Park Council meetings back in 1917 prove that determined residents were going to have their municipal building in spite of a World War. The Park was incorporated as a village in 1907 and immediately began agitating for a government hall. Ten years later the council was ready to accept bids for land and a building. The land at Maryland and Kercheval was bought from then on bond issues and contracts were the first order of business.

But World War I intruded. The minutes reveal that, as typical of today as yesterday, the first bond was not enough. After securing $80,000 the council had to ask for more. The land known as Charles Fresh Piece cost $2,700 but war brought construction prices up.

While waiting for their own facilities the Park made deals with Detroit to collect garbage at $2.00 a box and to fight fires at $25 an hour.

The doughboys were leaving for Camp Custer and $25 was appointed to buy them tobacco and candy. E. D. Hawley, on the trustees board, had to resign because no official of the U. S. Railroad could be on a political body.

Chief clerk Waldo J. Berns resigned to go into the Army and the pinch of war began to be felt. A resolution was passed to accept Liberty Bonds in lieu of taxes.

There was strict enforcement regarding chickens and livestock damaging war gardens. To conserve fuel no business place could remain open longer than nine consecutive hours. Theaters were closed on Monday. The Council spent $1,000 of their precious building fund money for War Bonds.

In November 1918 the Park complied with Governor Albert E. Sleeper's ordinance closing all churches, theaters etc., because of the flu epidemic.

Jefferson was widened at the request of Major Frank D. Lackland to permit an easier flow of military traffic to Selfridge Field.

But through it all the town was building and by May 7, 1919 the council could hold their first meeting in its new municipal quarters, no longer forced to the humiliation of sitting in the pupils' seats in Trombley School. It had taken ten years but the Park now had a real government, ruling from a building raised by funds of the residents. The Grosse Pointe Park had arrived.

Mrs. Thomas Morrison has been cleaning out the attic of one of the Pointe's stately homes, that of her late mother, Mrs. Louis Mendelssohn on Lakeshore road. In evidence of fashion's historical foibles she discovered her debut dress, a luscious gray chiffon chemise, as chic today as it was in 1924 when as Lydia Mendelssohn she bowed to Detroit society. She also discovered some fabulous Irish linen and lace frocks which she promises to take to Hattie Carnegie to see what that famous couturiere can do with the gowns to date them 1958.

Last week's famous visitor to the Pointe, His Excellency Sir Harold Caccia, British Ambassador, just had to have his quota of tennis sets while he was here. Country Club tennis pro Tobey Hansen scurried about arranging games for Her Majesty's minister with some of our best players.

Mrs. Arthur Peacock has delighted all her friends with her hobby which is sewing sequins and brilliants on everything in sight... not only beautiful sweaters, but ash trays, millinery, earrings and any stationery object which can be dazzled. Her Florida room, done in gentle shades of pink, is a glitter too, and she looks most chic done up in her favorite shade with fashion accents jeweled by her own hand. She's happy to share her skill and talent with those who have a penchant for sequin art, too.

Mrs. Glendon Roberts, among our most fashion aware matrons, was an eye catcher at a local drama production in a white background print with huge blue bows at the hemline... at the same party Mrs. Raymond J. Duffy proved she could wear the new trapeze line in a daring burnt orange chiffon.

The Memorial Day crowd at the Boat Club again owes thanks to Jack Osgood who mcees the holiday lawn and swimming races. Mr. O. has become quite an expert at the mike giving Tiger Ballgame scores and menu hints along with race results. He's been at this taxing job for some seasons past.

LAMENT OF THE WIFE OF A MOTIVATIONIST

(Author Unknown)

I never get mad—I get hostile;
I never feel sad, I'm depressed;
If I sew or I knit and enjoy it a bit,
I'm not handy—I'm merely obsessed.

I never regret—I feel guilty'
And if I should vacuum the hall,
Wash the woodwork and scrub and not mind it too much,
Am I tidy—compulsive is all!

If I can't choose a hat I have conflicts
With ambivalent feelings toward net.
I never get worried or nervous or hurried —
Anxiety—that's what I get.

If I'm happy I must be euphoric,
If I go to the Stork Club or Ritz
And have a good time making puns or a rhyme
I'm a manic or maybe a schiz.

If I tell you you're right, I'm submissive,
Repressing aggressiveness, too.
And when I disagree, I'm defensive, you see,
And projecting my symptoms on you.

I love you but that's just transference
With Oedipus rearing his head;
My breathing asthmatic is psychomatic,
A fear of exclaiming "Drop dead!"

I'm not lonely, I'm simply dependent;
My dog has no fleas, just a tic;
So if I seem a cad, never mind—just be glad.
That I'm not a stinker—I'm sick!

JOSEPH I. MORAN, OF MOROSS ROAD

By Patricia Talbot

On land that has been in his family since the Indians marked their trails on the shores of Lake St. Clair, Joseph I. Moran is building a house with his own hands in the tradition of his pioneer ancestors.

Mr. Moran was born not far from the site of his new home and is living now with his mother, Mrs. Raymond V. Moran, right next door, which makes the construction job that much more convenient.

From outside the casual visitor could never tell that his dream house has unique characteristics. The style is farm colonial, red brick with white frame trim. It's the interior that makes it unusual.

For three or four years Mr. and Mrs. Moran saved pictures from home decorating magazines, filling them carefully in a notebook. The lot was purchased some time back and Mr. Moran, who describes himself as a master tinker, began work on the house a year ago May 2.

Master Mechanic

Although he was a mechanic with the Air Force during the war Mr. Moran has never actually had any building experience. He has been a car dealer and a mechanic, working for a contractor building small rental units. He gave up his business when he began the house to devote his full time to it. He drew the plans and has done all the work, but some of the masonry, himself with an assist from his wife and their two children, Raymond, 4, and Kathie, 5. The tots have roamed at will through the house since it was a hole in the ground, climbing the scaffolding and now getting into the paint buckets.

A TV Gimmick

In the master bedroom is a square hole from which TV can be raised or lowered to viewing height electrically. The bathroom has a door which shuts and automatically closes its opposite door. The garage floor opens so that Mr. Moran's tools may be dumped into the basement. There is an indoor barbecue and a host of built-ins.

Mrs. Moran, working beside her husband in an old shirt and paint-dabbed blue jeans, has a picture of the rooms as they will be completely furnished. The beige and brown living room will be furnished in early American and she has the chairs and tables already chosen from a catalogue. As fast as the paint goes on the bedroom walls she runs up swatches of material for bright curtains. They hang lovingly in the unfinished closets.

The Morans have always loved the land, Grosse Pointe land, and this master-do-it-yourselfer is following in his ancestors' footsteps.

Ancestral Home

His grandfather, James B. Moran, built a gray shingle house on the corner of Lakeshore and Moross where the waterworks is today. Joseph's father was born in that house which is still standing on Lakeview avenue, over the garden wall from the house he is building.

As a lad, walking to St. Paul's, he passed the cattle grazing on the Moross land owned by his cousin, Fred T. Moran, one of the Farms' earliest and most popular settlers. He remembers his grandfather riding about in a horse and carriage inspecting his farmlands looking for all the

by Jerome C. Ducharme

Mr. Ducharme will preside over the barbecue pit at The Grosse Pointe University School Carnival on June 6 and 7. He is sharing some of his chef's secrets with our readers for his skill at the grill is well known to all the DuCharmes' guests.

A favorite at their West Wind lane home is broiled Cornish game hen. The birds are split and basted lavishly with lemon butter. The real trick is in the fire.

Three quarters of an hour before the birds are grilled Mr. DuCharme starts the fire so it will be slow and low when the birds are placed on it. He dons his apron and brushes the hens with the sauce, turning every five minutes. A long handled brush and a squirter to keep the fire under control are essential. The birds must be carefully watched and turned.

With these he serves a tossed salad, broiled tomatoes stuffed with spinach and French bread. Other grilled gourmet fare includes, brook trout, salmon steaks and ham slices.

Secondly, they must be chosen not only for their own good looks, but for the kind and amount of light they shed on the entire room. The beautiful Stiffel Lamps found in Jacobson's Home Decorative Shop fulfill all the obligations for good lighting and good taste. Moderately priced, they are available in traditional period styles and modern advanced treatments . . . such as the "lamp pole" arrangement . . . to serve the lighting needs of today and tomorrow.

Gardens Need Deep Soakings

If you need to irrigate your home garden, it's best to do it well or not at all, advises Fred Widmoyer, extension horticulture specialist at Michigan State University.

A shallow watering will cause the roots of the plants to grow near the surface and be subject to drought damage. On the other hand, a long soaking that goes down into the ground several inches promotes deep growth of roots, making the plants more resistant to drought.
