THE UNITED AUTO WORKERS and Ford Motor Co. ended 93 days of bargaining Wednesday by announcing a new three-year contract. At 4:05 p.m. the company and union jointly announced:

"A sound and equitable agreement has been reached on a new three-year contract between Ford Motor Co. and the UAW, which is fair to the workers, the company and the American public."

The union officially ended the strike by wiring its locals that all of them with no unsettled issues were to return to work Thursday. The agreement contained unexpectedly generous improvements in Supplemental Unemployment Benefits and pensions.

Friday, September 19

THE UNITED AUTO WORKERS International Executive Board will meet at 1 p.m. today, Friday, to decide whether to set another strike deadline. It was uncertain whether the UAW's second target would be Chrysler Corp. or General Motors Corp.

Feeling was strong, however, at the close of Thursday's negotiations, that Chrysler rather than GM would be hit.

Meanwhile, Ford Motor Co. production was still crippled by the national strike which swept through its 86 plants at 10 a.m. Wednesday, despite the contract settlement. Reasons for delay were laid to local problems and the need for time to get plants back in operation.

Saturday, September 20

A SEPT. 30 DEADLINE for settlement of the General Motors contract was announced Friday night by the UAW's executive board. The announcement came from the union's president, Walter P. Reuther, after an eight-hour meeting of the board.

A strike against Chrysler Corp. to force settlement of a contract there was also authorized by the board but no target date was chosen.

Sunday, September 21

BARGAINING TEAMS at Chrysler and General Motors recessed talks Saturday to let the union study three-year contract packages modeled after the Ford Motor Co. settlement.

The offers were made Saturday afternoon, with negotiations in both companies to resume Monday morning. The talks ended on an optimistic note, according to UAW president Walter P. Reuther.

Monday, September 22

REBEL UNITS OF UAW Local 600 decided Sunday to stay out of Ford's Rouge Plant, at least through Monday. The skilled maintenance unit and the coke and blast furnace unit voted at separate meetings to continue their strike until the issues are settled or the union's International Executive Board orders them back to work.

The tool and die unit was to meet at 10 a.m. today, Monday, to make its decision about strike action. Votes of the units meant that the Ford strike, theoretically settled when a contract agreement was reached Wednesday, will go into the fifth day.

Tuesday, September 23

SHERMAN ADAMS, President Eisenhower's right-hand man and Bernard Goldfine's long-time friend, resigned under fire Monday night. "I have done no wrong," he said in a dramatic TV-radio broadcast across the nation. But he added, "I must give full consideration to the effect of my continuing presence on the public scene."

Wednesday, September 24

NIGHT BARGAINING sessions at Chrysler Corp. and General Motors Corp. Monday heightened the new optimism in the auto industry. At 10 p.m., when the Chrysler sessions ended, hopeful statements came from UAW President Walter P. Reuther and John D. Leary, Chrysler vice-president of personnel.

Little Gridders Turn Salesmen to Buy Equipment

The Pointe has been swarming with young football players in green and white uniforms who have been conducting a big candy sale to raise money to buy uniforms and other equipment to outfit 250 players in the Park and City program this fall. It cost $70 per boy. Left to right:—Mrs. Ann Condon, John McCandless, Terry Mullen and Larry Fisk. That's "Cindy" jumping with joy over the sale just consummated. The sale will end with a big push this weekend, September 27 and 28.

School Heads Air Problems At Meeting

Leaders of Parent Groups Sit Down with Board to Discuss General Picture

About 50 leaders of parent organizations of the Grosse Pointe Public Schools met with members of the Board of Education and school officials Monday night at the Central Public Library. P-TA Council President Charles Zentgraf and Board President Franklin D. Dougherty called the group together for a joint look at some of the matters confronting the Grosse Pointe Public School System.

Dougherty pointed out some of the long range and immediate problems needing consideration. Foremost among these was the fact that approximately half of the school system's operational millage is due to expire this school year. He indicated that the Board would soon have to make a decision as to what action should be taken in bringing the matter to the voters. The

New School Set For Open House

Our readers are reminded that the Samuel Miller Brownell Junior High School, 260 Chalfonte will hold an Open House Sunday, September 28 from 2 to 5 p.m. The public is invited to attend.

Police Want His License Following 22nd Violation

A young motorist, who has a traffic violation record dating back to 1953, added another violation on Thursday, September 18.

Woods police issued Terry L. Key, 23, of 20519 Avalon, St. Clair Shores, his twenty-second ticket, following a three-car smash-up on Mack, between Oxford and Renaud, in which two persons received minor injuries.

An accident report disclosed that Key was driving north on Mack, when he ran into the rear of a car driven by William W. Wilcox, 33, of 461 Colonial, who in turn smashed into one driven by Frank Scandarito, 62, of 22020 Moross road, Detroit. Scandarito, police said, was stopped and was waiting for

Merchants in 'The Village' Backing Plan for Parking Lots Operated by Attendants

Customer Tickets Being Validated for Various Periods by Many of the Stores in City Shopping Area

Some merchants of "The Village" are backing the hotly-contested Rosenfeld Parking Proposal, recently passed by the Grosse Pointe City Council. The approved measure will convert parking lots No. 3, and No. 4, like No. 5, into attendant-operated lots, thus affording the public additional space for all-day parking.

The plan is being adopted piecemeal, just as fast as the City can physically co-operate. Lot number three, located north of Himelhoch's and Jacobson's Home Decorating Shop, is the first to be converted.

Meters Being Moved

City maintenance crews are in the process of removing the out-voted meters from the area. They have already given it a first coat of stone and slag, which will be covered shortly with hardtop. Work is expected to be completed by the first of October, at which time the new plan will go into effect, in that lot.

City officials are working now to set up the rates, which are anticipated to run about 25c for all-day parking in the three specified lots. Lot no. 3, with the acquisition of more property by the City of Grosse Pointe, will be increased considerably from its present 85 parking spaces to 133 slots.

At the outset, about half of this new number will be designated for employee parking, and half for customer-parking. As lot no. 4 nears readiness—and it is expected to be finished before Thanksgiving—this number will decrease for employee parking, and increase in the number reserved for shoppers. However, the total volume of parking area for employees will be increased with the addition of lot no. 4.

Merchants Have Choice

At a recent meeting of The Village merchants local businessmen were given the option of personally, (per store), validating their customers' parking tickets. The plan, as proposed, would permit all co-operating concerns to stamp a shopper's parking ticket which would, in turn, pay the rate for a specified time, depending upon individual store-agreement. In all cases a purchase, with no dollar restrictions would be required for validation.

A number of the merchants have agreed to back the plan, some of whom will validate on a two-hour basis, others on a one-hour clause, and one concern will back the plan for half-an-hour.

Clerk Puts Tag On Check Artist

A suspicious clerk at the Grosse Pointe Poultry Shop, 17646 Mack avenue, who was wise enough to confirm said suspicions with a quick phone call, aided in the arrest of a bad-check passer last Friday, September 19.

Grosse Pointe City police nabbed Stanley J. Muha, 39, father of eight youngsters, at his home in St. Clair Shores shortly after a call from the store keeper. According to the latter's report, Muha came into his establishment and asked to cash a check for $100. Upon refusal, he bought $17.32 worth of produce, for which the clerk cashed the check.

After his customer left the store the proprietor phoned the bank in question and confirmed his doubts about the authenticity of the check. The police followed up with an arrest and Judge Douglas L. Paterson folded the matter up with a $35 fine, or the alternative sentence of 10 days in the Wayne County Jail. Muha paid the fine.

Woods Police Locate Bank Robbers' Car

Vehicle Found in Theater Parking Lot Where Bandits "Ditched" It

Woods police recovered a car used in a Detroit bank holdup on Thursday, September 18, within a short time after the bandits "ditched" it in the Woods Theater parking lot after committing their crime.

Patrolman Stephen Petrik was patrolling Mack avenue, when a police broadcast told of the holdup of the Detroit Bank and Trust company branch at 18845 Mack, from where three gunmen took $8,754.

A description of the robbers and their car was sent to all points by police teletype and radio.

Hours Saved

While searching the area, Patrolman Petrik drove into the theater lot, and within a few minutes spotted the gunmen's car. The finding of the vehicle possibly saved hours of search for the get-away vehicle.

Woods Det. Sgt. Walter O'Dell and Det. Tobian accompanied FBI agents in a wide search of the area for the holdup men, but the gunmen had made good their escape.

The manager of the branch is Raymond T. Huetteman, 55, of 340 Ridgmont.

The bandit trio is believed to be the same one which held up three other Detroit area banks.

Thursday's robbery took place with split-second timing. The gunmen entered the bank at 1:20 p.m., and while two of the bandits cowed 20 employees and eight customers, the third vaulted the counter and began to scoop money into a large canvas bag. Cash drawers in two teller cages were rifled.

Thefts Reported At Healy Store

Robert Peterson, manager of D. J. Healy's store, in "The Village," phoned City police last Saturday, September 20, to report a theft from the shop's premises. A day's-end inventory disclosed some missing items.

Reported stolen were a light green cashmere coat, valued at $135; a green dress, priced at $35; and a charcoal gray coat, valued at $45. The clothes were stolen sometime between 9 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. that day.

Park Will Convert Army Camp Site Into Picnic Area

Council Adopts Recommendation of Planning Commission; Will Spend Up to $4,000 To Beautify Vacated Land

The Park will expend a sum not to exceed $4,000 to clean up and grade the former Army camp site at Three Mile drive and Essex, as the first stage in making the site into a "passive occupancy park".

An authorization permitting City Manager Robert Slone to start the project this fall, was granted by the Park council on Monday, September 22.

Harold Ellington, chairman of 1058 Audubon, chairman of the Park Planning Commission, addressed the council at Monday night's meeting, and presented the commission's findings on how the city can best utilize the property.

Place to Relax

Backed by Melville Collinson of 704 Westchester, member of the Planning Commission, Ellington disclosed that his organization thought the city would benefit, if the former Army camp site was made into a "passive occupancy park", that is, develop the area so that the people of the community will have a place to go to relax and to hold family picnics.

He explained the "passive occupancy" phrase as meaning that team games should be prohibited in the park.

He said that an "unpublicized" public hearing was held by the commission in which residents in the area of the proposed park, attended to express their views. He said about 40 persons were present, and that a majority were opposed to making the property into a park, and that they favored subdividing it for homes.

Will Benefit Citizens

After hearing the comments of the people, Ellington said, the commission agreed that the development of the site into a park would be of more benefit to the citizens.

He said that there is little enough space in the Park for recreational facilities, therefore, the commission felt there was a need for a park and a need to preserve that property for that purpose.

He said that sewer and water facilities are available on the property, installed by the Federal Government when the Army was located there, and left untouched when the Army moved out.

Ellington proposed that the property be at least cleaned up and graded this fall, which was concurred with by Collinson and City Manager Slone.

Has $1,200 on Hand

The city manager said that there was $1,200 on hand that could be used immediately for the clean up and grading, and the council authorized an additional $2,800, to be used, if needed.

The council also approved landscaping the property, the planting of trees, shrubbery, grass and plants to make the site a beautiful park, for a future date, possibly in the spring.

Mayor Kenneth Cunningham, thanked Ellington and his group for their efforts in studying the project and for the recommendation.

Memorial Center Holding Annual Meeting on Monday

The Annual Meeting of the members of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association will be held at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center, 32 Lake Shore road, Monday evening, September 29 at 8:30 o'clock.

Everyone who has contributed funds to the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association is a member of the Association and will be entitled to vote at the meeting.

The meeting will be conducted by Charles W. Elliott, president of the Center's board of directors, who will review the activities and affairs of the Center for the 1957-1958 fiscal year. Charles A. Parcellis, Jr., treasurer of the association, will give a summary of the Center's finances.

Junior Highs Selected for Headquarters

Program Starts Tuesday, September 30, at Pierce; Two Other Dates Scheduled

The Wayne County Health Department will open several clinics in the Grosse Pointe Health District, to administer Salk vaccine in the fight against the polio epidemic threatening the Metropolitan area, it was disclosed by Dr. Thomas Davies, Pointe Health Commissioner.

The clinics, sponsored by the Wayne County Medical Society, will be held from 6 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. on Tuesday, September 30, at the Pierce Junior High School; on Thursday, October 2, at Brownell Junior High; and on Wednesday, October 15, at Parcels Junior High.

Dr. Davies said that clinics will be held in Harper Woods, part of the health district, from 6 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. on Tuesday, September 30, at Harper Woods Junior High, 20225 Beaconsfield, near Eight Mile road; all day Saturday, October 4, 11 a.m. to 8:30 p.m., at the Eastland Center Concourse Auditorium; and from 6 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. on Tuesday, October 14, at the Tyrone School, 19525 Tyrone, just beyond Moross.

All Ages Welcome

At the clinics, the vaccine will be administered to those who have never had any shots, those who must yet get their second and third shots, and those who might want booster shots. The latter is for those who received the last of three shots a year or more ago.

The vaccine will be given to any one, from three months old up to any age, Dr. Davies said. A fee of $1 will be charged for each shot, but special consideration will be given those not able to pay this fee. Those obtaining their first shot may get the second after 30 days, and final shots after six months, at the clinics.

There is plenty of vaccine on hand to take care of the public, and shots are not restricted to just residents in the Pointe and Harper Woods, but to anyone living in Wayne County.

At a press conference held by the Wayne County Medical Society on September 11, Dr. Joseph G. Molner, City-County Health Commissioner, reported the worst epidemic of poliomyelitis that has ever been experienced in this area in recent years was ravaging the entire county.

To meet this emergency and to prevent a recurrence during 1959, the Medical Society, and official and non-official agencies, have developed a program to cope with the situation.

Society Backs Program
The Public Health Committee of the society has endorsed this program as has the Council of the Wayne County Medical Society, which is the governing body of this organization.

Dr. Clarence I. Owen, president of the Medical Society, points out that the inoculation program cannot succeed without the fullest cooperation of everyone in the community. This means doctors and other persons associated with the curative arts, as well as official and non-official health agencies and community groups.

Cooperation of the press, radio and television is of the utmost importance, Dr. Owen said. He pledged the full support of the medical profession.

No new cases of polio had been reported in the Pointe-Harper Woods district since last week, Dr. Davies announced. The total for the season in the district now number six, as compared to seven for all of last season.

WINDOWS BROKEN
Chet Jankowski of 830 S. Oxford, complained to Farms police on Monday, September 15, that someone had broken 14 windows of a new home he is building in Stephens road.

Crook Goes Into Wringer Via Washers

Caught Attempting to Cash in on Phony Roll of Quarters; Faces Big Sentence

Trying to cash a phony roll of quarters in a Woods bank on Friday, September 19, proved the undoing of Robert Horn, 29, of 22441 Colony, St. Clair Shores.

Woods authorities had received a tip about a man who was cashing phony rolls at various banks. Police warned the banks in the Woods against such a man, and asked that if he should attempt to pass any rolls in their places, to notify them promptly.

Bank Sends Call

Late in the afternoon of Friday, a call came from the Detroit and Northern Savings, 19307 Mack, stating a man was trying to get rid of a roll of "quarters" there.

Police hurried to the bank, but by the time they got there, the suspect was gone. A search of the neighborhood failed to turn up the man.

At the corner of Mack and Bournemouth, officers stopped a bus just as it was about to pull away from the curb, and took Horn off, since he announced that he had a roll of "quarters" there.

Speed Reduced In School Zone

Park police have been ordered to enforce a 15-mile-an-hour speed limit on Kercheval, between Nottingham and Balfour, for the safety of the children attending Pierce Junior High and Defer Schools, it was announced by Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers.

The new speed limit went into effect on Tuesday, September 23. Signs indicating the new limit will be posted, and "Stop Here for Signal" signs will be posted at the stop bars approaching the signal lights located over head between Nottingham and Balfour.

Chief Louwers said that this zone will be a safety haven for the children and other pedestrians crossing the street in this district.

He said that a survey will be conducted at this crossing, and if the reduction in speed and other factors prove successful, the same policy will be established in other Park areas where there are school crossings.

Student Leaders to Meet at U-M

High school student leaders from throughout the state of Michigan will meet at the University of Michigan next Monday and Tuesday, September 29 and 30.

Well over 1,000 student government presidents and faculty advisors are expected to attend. The students will lead their own discussion groups, following lecture programs, on such topics as boosting school morale, conducting student elections, and improving student council meetings.

Into Wringer

Had Previous Success Police said that Horn had already cashed rolls in other banks, and when the information came to them that he was operating in the area, a warning was given to the local banks.

Authorities said that Horn obtained a number of wrappers for quarters, and placed 38 steel washers with real quarters at each end in these wrappers.

Police returned to the scene after Horn was taken to the station to wait for the bus on which Horn was a passenger.

When the bus returned to Mack and Bournmouth, the bus driver, Elwood Cook of 17141 Fleming, Detroit, gave the police a bag containing three rolls of "quarters" and loose steel washers found by one of the passengers, Jack McCullough of 734 Lincoln road.

Found Under Seat McCullough said that the bag was found under the seat where Horn had been sitting. The bag was taken to the Woods police station as evidence, and later turned over to Federal agents, with Horn, who is charged with defrauding Federal institutions.

Woods Director of Public Safety Vern C. Bailey said that Horn faces nine counts of fraud, since he passed rolls in that many banks. Each count carries up to one and a half years in prison, the director added, if the charges are proved in court.

Bank Robbers

Announced At Delay At the third cage, staffed by Cashier Howard Cutting, 30, of 18681 Albion, Detroit, the bag-carrying bandit found the drawer locked.

One of the other bandits threatened to shoot the cashier, but he got the drawer open, and the third robber scooped the contents into the bag, and leaped back over the counter.

The trio then jumped into a car, a two-tone Buick, and fled, later abandoning it in the Woods Theater lot.

The vehicle was found to be one that was stolen from a parking lot at Woodward and Adelaide the day before.

Besides Cutting's, the two other cages robbed were staffed by Mrs. Frances Stevens, 27, of 1385 Dulong, Madison Heights; and Mrs. Katherine Kuenzig, 25, of 19220 Longholm, Detroit.

Ignore Seven Cages Working within a limited time schedule, the gunmen ignored seven other cashiers' cages.

A bank guard, who is usually stationed at the basement safe deposit vaults, came upstairs when he heard the noise, but could not shoot for fear of hitting innocent people.

Introducing Pointe's Newest Teachers

Many new teachers have been engaged this year by the Grosse Pointe Public School System. The NEWS is presenting them in a series of pictures and biographical sketches. This is the group from the John R. Barnes Elementary School. Left to right:—Donald Schrom, Mrs. Virginia Morosi, Mrs. Ann Fitzpatrick, Mrs. Vera Koepke and Principal Florence Cummings. Their background and the classes in which they are teaching are included in the sketches below.

School Needs

(Continued from Page 1) advice and counsel of community leaders would be most valuable in reaching that decision, he said.

Future Needs Cited

The discussion included a review of current and future needs as well as of the budget for operating expenses. Members of the Board of Education indicated that they were inclined to believe that an early winter election should be held in which the public would be asked to renew the expiring nine mills for operation. It was pointed out that an early election would enable school planning in terms of personnel needs and scope of program to be carried on with confidence and in good season. Considerable discussion ensued over whether the Board should ask for additional millage with which to build additional rooms on several elementary schools where crowded conditions loomed. The position of school officials was that the tax should not be levied until the schools were unable to house the children actually on hand. Mr. Zentgraf reported unanimous approval and support of the Board's proposal after polling the group.

Course Offered On Constitution

A course of interest to all voters who will vote on the issue of constitutional revision in November will be offered on three consecutive Wednesday evenings from 8 to 10 p.m. starting October 1. The course, "The Dynamics of Michigan State Government," will be conducted in the High School Annex by Dr. Louis L. Friedland of Wayne State University.

Because a need has been felt for informed voters on this question the following non-partisan community organizations are co-sponsoring the course: Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Public School System, American Association of University Women of Grosse Pointe, Junior Chamber of Commerce of Grosse Pointe, Junior League of Grosse Pointe, and the League of Women Voters of Grosse Pointe. It is hoped that civic organizations and church groups will sponsor representatives to this course.

Dr. Friedland, professor and nationally known authority on political science, is an expert in the field of the state constitution. He was project director of the "Little Hoover" commission for Michigan and first director of the Fair Employment Practices Commission. He is also consultant to the Citizens Research Council which recently issued a report on the merger of the three Grosse Pointe cities.

Dr. Friedland's lectures will describe the structure and function of Michigan state government under the present constitution. He will discuss the possible reorganization of the state government of Michigan drawing upon the experiences of other states whose constitutions have been revised. He will consider problems and issues of a constitutional convention and alternative ways of updating the constitution.

CHILDRENS BOOK FAIR

Detroit Children's Book Fair will open November 1 and run through the 16th at Detroit's Historical Museum, from Fairyland to Outer Woodward at Kirby. New books of all kinds—Space—will be exhibited. The theme of the fair is "Let's Explore With Books". There will also be a permanent exhibit of the best-loved classics.

Fee for the course will be $4 per person or $6 per couple. Registration is being handled at the Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Public School System, TU 5-3808.

Runs Red Light; Causes Accident

A September 23 court appearance is in order for John

Dennis Sheehy, 519 Townsend, in Detroit, as a result of his causing an accident last Monday, September 15.

Sheehy ran a red light at the corner of Kercheval and Notre Dame and smashed into a car headed south on Notre Dame, driven by Patricia Field, 745 Loraine road.

Both cars were badly damaged. Sheehy's requiring a tow truck to clear it from the scene of the collision. He was ticketed for not having his car under control.

Adult Education Classes Starting

The month of October signals the beginning of another year of opportunity for adults in the field of continuing education. The Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Public School System has this year added many new subjects to its wide selections of offerings for the pursuit and pleasure of the residents in this area.

During the last year's program, 6,163 enrollments were serviced. The steadily increasing enrollments in adult education are an indication of public acceptance and appreciation of the opportunities for self-improvement, development of hobbies, further study in the arts, and worthwhile use of leisure time.

The following list offers many varieties of subjects from which the interested adult may choose:

Banquet Honors Retiring Firemen

Two veteran Park firemen, both of whom will retire within a few weeks, were honored at a banquet held in the Park Fire department Headquarters Wednesday evening, September 17.

Top Park and Detroit officials, municipal employees and a host of friends were on hand to hear speakers praise the retiring firemen and to witness the presentation of watches, gifts of fire-fighting colleagues and other city employees, to the two men.

Honored were Firemen Alfred (Cooky) Martin, 60, and Edward Racicot, 60. They will officially retire on November 2 and November 4, respectively, the former after serving the community for 30 years, and the latter, after 29 years.

Martin began with the department on June 1, 1958, and has always been considered a top-notch fireman, and for 20 years, "the best dog gone cook" to his colleagues.

For many years, he has lived with his wife, Mary, and three children, at 1260 Beaconsfield. All the children are now married. There are four grandchildren.

The older Martins plan to maintain their Park home during the winter months, and one at Pointe Pelee, Ont., during the summer months.

Racicot, was hired on June 1, 1929, and for many years lived with his wife, Marion, and three children, at 566 Barrington, before moving to their present home at 22913 Jefferson, St. Clair Shores. The children are married. There are two grandchildren.

The Racicots are planning to live in Hollywood, Fla., where they are building a new home, during the winter time, and on Harsens Island, in St. Clair Flats, during the summer.

He was always considered a great firefighter, and at one time was known for his prowess as a professional football player with the old Detroit Tigers, fore-runners of the present Detroit Lions.

Glen Thom, administrative assistant to the Chief of the Detroit Fire Department, was the master of ceremonies at the banquet. He praised the retiring firemen for being good fellows and good firemen and talked of the old days when the three used to attend the Fire Fighters Conventions together.

Retirement badges were given to Martin and Racicot by William Hiner, president of the International Association of Firefighters, Local 533.

Park Fire Lt. Henry DeClark, gave the two men a brand new dollar bill, each framed, because of a lost wager. He bet Martin and Racicot that they would not retire, when the time came. On the back of each frame was inscribed, "I did not think you would do it."

Summer School Program Benefits Entire Community

The entire community benefited more from the Grosse Pointe Public School summer session this past summer than at any other time in our history. Superintendent James W. Bushong reported to the September meeting of the Board of Education.

In the academic courses offered during the summer at the Grosse Pointe High School 198 students representing more than 20 schools other than those in the Grosse Pointe Public School System were in attendance. Fifty-three of these pupils were from St. Paul's, 50 from Austin High School, 17 from the Grosse Pointe University School, 8 from the Convent of the Sacred Heart, 6 from St. Ambrose, 28 from 14 other schools in the Grosse Pointe area and 36 from schools outside of Grosse Pointe.

The elementary school sessions at Maire and Mason schools enrolled a total of 318 pupils. Courses in arithmetic, offered at both buildings for grades 3 through 6. Instrumental music instruction was also offered, an opportunity grasped by many young musicians.

In the driver training program, 230 of the 512 enrolling in the course last summer were students from other than Grosse Pointe Public Schools and represented 25 different institutions.

The total enrolled in the summer session was the largest ever with 847 students in all taking high school courses, 318 at Mason and Maire schools taking elementary driver education. The total grade work, and 512 taking enrolled last year in all phases of work, was 1190. This year's total 1677 represents a 41 per cent increase over a year ago.

The summer school program in the Grosse Pointe Public School System has been growing steadily for a good many years. Ten years ago, in the summer of 1948, 509 students were registered in the program. Five years later, it had increased to 635 and then last year, with advent of a driver training course, it jumped to 1190.

"To provide this service to the community", Dr. Bushong stated, "Thirty-three teachers gave 32 courses including four teachers for driver training."

These summer school courses are supplemented by an extensive summer recreational program in which another 500, or more, boys and girls participated this past summer. Each of the 10 elementary schools was used for this purpose from June 16 to August 8. Twenty-one instructors were on the summer playground staff.

"Our summer educational activities", Franklin D. Dougherty, president of the Board of Education stated, "comprise an important part of the over-all educational program provided by the Grosse Pointe Public School System. This year we have 10,376 pupils in all our schools, up 411 from last year. We shall be having approximately 6,000 in our adult education program this winter.

"At always our classrooms, gymnasiums, auditoriums and swimming pools will be used by a large number of non-public school community groups."

Police Arrest Robber Suspect

An armed robbery suspect, wanted by St. Clair Shores authorities, was arrested by Farms police on Monday, September 15, at Lake Shore and Tonnancour.

Arrested and turned over to St. Clair Shores police for investigation of robbery, was Larry F. Cazier, 20, of 27159 Belanger, Roseville.

Cazier was driving a car that answered the description put over the air relayed from St. Clair Shores by Shores police.

Det. Sgt. George Van Tiem, who was in the station at the time the broadcast came over the air, took a scout car on Lake Shore road. Just as he came to Lake Shore, he spotted Cazier's car and tailed it. The officer checked the license number of the vehicle, and when it tallied with the one received over the police radio, he called for assistance.

Sgt. Ignatius Backman and Patrolman Earl Field waited in their car at Tonnancour, at which point Sgt. Van Tiem used his siren as he pulled alongside Cazier, and then aimed a shotgun at the driver, ordering him to stop and put his hands in the air.

A search of the driver and his car did not reveal anything, but Cazier was taken to the station and held until St. Clair Shores police took him into custody.

Monteith PTA To Hear Judge

At their first P.T.A. meeting of the year, parents of Monteith School children will get an authoritative explanation of the work of Wayne County's Juvenile Court when its head, Judge Nathan J. Kaufman, speaks at the school, Monday, September 29, at 8 p.m.

Judge Kaufman's career has been a distinguished one. In the 1956 election, he received the largest majority of any Judge of Probate in Wayne County history. A poll of lawyers prior to the election gave him an overwhelming majority of votes endorsing him as the candidate most qualified for his position.

Convinced that parents are largely responsible for the juvenile problems he encounters every day, Judge Kaufman is nationally renowned for his "School for Parents."

A veteran of 27 years in the practice of law, he was successively an assistant prosecutor handling civil rights and labor cases, a member of the War Labor Board and a Judge of the Common Pleas Court before he was promoted by Governor Williams to Judge of Probate in charge of Juvenile Court four years ago.

Among the improvements he has helped bring about in the handling of juvenile cases are the providing of permanent homes for an increased number of neglected children through expansion of the Foster Home Department of the Court, and voters' approval of a bond issue to build a new $3,000,000 Detention Home, now under construction and scheduled for completion in 1960.

The Monteith School P.T.A.'s second meeting of the year on Tuesday, November 18, will feature classroom visitation.

Pointe Chorus Has Openings for New Members

The Grosse Pointe Community Chorus, having completed the first two of its three registration rehearsals, announces there are still openings for new members, particularly in the male sections, but also in the women's sections. The only requirements for membership in this choral group is that you be above high school age and have a desire to sing and enjoy participating in the production of good music.

The chorus rehearses each Tuesday evening from 8 o'clock to 10 o'clock in the vocal music room at Parcels Junior High School, Vernier and Mack. The forthcoming final registration will begin at 7:30. There is a membership fee of $4.50.

Directing the chorus for his second year is Donald W. Simmons who is also vocal music teacher at Parcels and director of youth choirs at the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church. Milton Setzer, who is on the staff at Wayne State University, is accompanist for the group.

Preparations for the sixth annual Christmas concert have begun and will occupy the singers throughout the fall until Sunday afternoon, December 7, when the music will be presented to the public in the Parcels auditorium. Included in the program will be some oratorio selections, folk carols, traditional carols, modern novelty songs and the Alfred Burt carols, first presented by the chorus three years ago and repeated by request.

For further information regarding membership, call TU 4-5964.

Protection Devices Warning Issued by Fire Department

The Farms Fire Department does not approve of any particular manufactured electrical protection devices, and recommends that residents insist on proof that any such items offered to them for sale bear labels from either the Underwriters Laboratories, or the Factory Mutual Laboratories, for their own protection.

Fire Chief M. William Mason said the items should be labeled UL or FM, which fire chiefs and top fire protection engineers demand as assurance that the equipment offered for sale will function properly.

The Farms Fire Department does not authorize the use of its name, Chief Mason said, to any individual or company selling fire detection equipment or extinguishers. Residents receiving such should notify the fire department, TU 5-1000.

Also, the chief said, firemen employed by the city are not permitted to sell these items, and if any are found doing so, they should be reported immediately.

The National Fire Protection Association or the National Board of Fire Underwriters, do not allow individuals to use their names for the purpose of making home inspections, or to sell fire alarms or extinguishing devices.

These types of solicitors should be reported to the police department, since they are required to have authorization from the city to sell within the city limits. The police number is TU 5-2100.

Pointe Business Notes

L. M. Leisinger of 336 McKinley avenue, was honored by Shell Oil Company recently on the completion of 20 years of service. Leisinger, who is operations manager of Shell's Michigan Division, was presented with a ruby studded Shell service emblem in ceremonies in the company's offices.

When he first came with the company in 1938, Leisinger was employed as an engineer in Brooklyn, New York. Since then he has held various operations positions in New York and Baltimore before transferring to Detroit in 1950 as assistant operations manager. He was made operations manager for Michigan in January, 1953.

Marvin E. Houchin, 767 Harcourt road, Grosse Pointe Park, becomes the new resale sales manager in the Detroit division of Socony Mobil Oil Company. Prior to his present assignment, he held the position of automotive sales manager in Detroit. Mr. Houchin joined the company in 1939.

Fred Simonsen, of Audubon road, was honored at a dinner party on September 10, at which time he was presented with a diamond pin for his long years of service with the National Restaurant Association of which he is a past president. Mr. Simonsen founded the Greenfield Restaurants and is now head of all Top restaurants in Detroit.

Alec E. Hewlett of 899 Rivard boulevard, has been appointed Detroit District Sales Manager for automotive equipment of the Johns-Manville Friction Materials Sales Department.

Mr. Hewlett is a graduate of the Harris School of Technology in England. He obtained his early automotive manufacturing experiences at Leland Motors and later held the post of Assistant Chief Engineer at Ribble Motors, the second largest bus operators in England. He came to the United States during World War II as a British Liaison Officer for wheeled vehicles.

Mr. Hewlett began his career with Johns-Manville in 1948 as a sales representative at Detroit. He has since served J-M dealers, jobbers and distributors in the friction materials field in the Michigan territory and in 1953 was appointed senior sales representative to the J-M Automotive Equipment District in Detroit.

A 46-year career in which he participated in the growth of a small Detroit area chemical company to one of the leading chemical manufacturing organizations in the nation comes to a close when Ford Ballantyne, vice-president and treasurer of Wyandotte Chemicals Corporation, retires from active participation in management and limits his future activity to membership on the Wyandotte board of directors.

Mr. Ballantyne, 66, began work in 1912 as an hourly employe in the North Works of Michigan Alkali Company, which was founded 69 years ago by his great grandfather, Captain John Baptiste Ford, co-founder of Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company. Shortly after starting with Michigan Alkali, which merged with another family-owned company, J. B. Ford Company, in 1942 to become Wyandotte Chemicals Corporation, Mr. Ballantyne became assistant purchasing agent and in 1949, he was elected assistant secretary and assistant treasurer.

This promotion was followed quickly by another when he was elected to the board and secretary of the corporation. In 1943, he was elected treasurer in addition to his other duties and in 1949 became vice-president.

A resident of Grosse Pointe, Mr. Ballantyne also has a farm at Oxford, Michigan. In retirement, he and Mrs. Ballantyne plan to spend more time at Oxford and motoring throughout the United States. Their only son, Ford Ballantyne, Jr., is a vice-president of Wyandotte and general manager of the company's J. B. Ford Division.

John V. Cammarata of Chandier Park drive has been named manager of the new Harry Sufferin Men's store which will open soon on Mack avenue between Kerby and Moross roads. He has been with the firm since 1940.

Edmund J. Haclas, who has been with Harry Sufferin for a quarter of a century, will be assistant manager. Other staff members selected to date include James E. Shaffer, another long-time employe.

The Sufferin Company is Detroit's largest men's clothing store.

Fred Vogt, of King's Flowers will go to Miami in October to attend the 45th Annual Convention of the Florists' Telegraph Delivery Association, October 5-9.

They will attend florist design schools and clinics, where commentators will present up-to-date methods in designing and arrangements.

Richard T. Sanner, assistant manager of professional relations for Parke, Davis & Company since 1951, has been appointed manager of convention exhibits for the worldwide pharmaceutical firm.

Graydon L. Walker, vice president and director of U.S. sales and promotion, said Sanner would be responsible for the design, procurement and distribution of all company exhibits as well as displays of Parke-Davis products in pharmacy and medical schools. He will work under the direction of W. L. Griffith, director of product advertising and promotion.

Sanner, a native of Pittsburgh and a 1924 University of Maryland graduate, has been a member of the firm's sales department since joining the company 20 years ago. Prior to that, he was a manager and an owner of retail drug store for 13 years.

He lives at 488 Neff road.

Hubert P. Young of 327 Kerby road, has been appointed resale sales manager for the Albany division of Socony Mobil Oil Company, Inc. Prior to his new appointment, he held the position of district manager in Detroit.

Mr. Young's promotion results from a reorganization in Socony Mobil's marketing organization which created three new positions in each marketing division.

Appointment of Ernest C. Moser of 466 McKinley avenue as purchasing agent for Chevrolet Motor Division's new Aluminum Foundry at Massena, N.Y., was recently announced.

Moser joined Chevrolet in 1943 as a clerk at the division's Gear and Axle plant in Detroit. The following year he became a junior statistician and in 1946 a rate analyst.

After service with the U.S. Army, Moser became an assistant buyer at the Gear and Axle plant in 1947. Eight years later he was named purchasing agent for Chevrolet's Truck Assembly Plant at Willow Run, Mich.

Thief Gets $95 In Loot on Boat

The thief who broke into a boat at the Park waterfront park took a total of $95 in loot, according to Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers.

On Sunday, September 21, Alfred Evers of 1285 Grayton, discovered several items missing from his boat and notified authorities.

Reported missing were two life preservers, worth $15; a hand fire extinguisher, valued at $50; and a $30 prescription ground pair of sun glasses.

Michigan ranks 35th among the 48 states in the ratio of private physicians to total population.

Residents Quick To Report Crash

Phone calls from five different residents informed the City police and fire departments, with no room for doubt, that there had been an accident at the corner Neff and Charlevoix last Thursday, September 19.

The collision occurred at 6:10 p.m. Dwight M. Teague, Jr., of 262 Lothrop road, went through the traffic light at that intersection, headed east on Charlevoix, as did Eva L. Patterson, of 5948 Lannoo, Detroit. Mrs. Patterson was driving north on Neff.

Both drivers claimed to have the green signal and both were given tickets for lack of control—the issue to be settled in traffic court.

The fire department was summoned to wash the spilled gasoline from the pavement.

More than 3,300 persons are employed at the University of Michigan Medical Center.

Police Arrest Hit-Run Driver

A hit and run driver was arrested by Park police, who trailed him to his home and found him trying to hide on the back porch, following an accident at Wayburn and Vernor on Sunday, September 21.

Arrested and charged with leaving the scene of an accident was Harry J. Lewandowski, 50, of 14915 E. Warren, Detroit. He is accused of running through a stop street on Wayburn and hitting a car driven by Andrew G. Schiappacasse, 30, of 1408 Lakepointe.

Police said that Lewandowski was going north on Wayburn, and Schiappacasse was traveling west on Vernor, when the first driver hit the other on the right side with such force, the second car spun around and slammed into a standard bearing a school crossing sign and damaging it.

Lewandowski, police said, backed up after the collision and continued north on Wayburn.

Schiappacasse got into a car with an unknown driver and trailed Lewandowski, and later, police followed a trail of water from Lewandowski's car radiator.

When police and Schiappacasse arrived at 14915 E. Warren, they found Lewandowski's car in the driveway of his house, but Lewandowski was not in it.

The officers, Patrolmen Don Dean and Arthur Conlan, rang the door bell of the house, but received no answer. They went to the rear of the house and found Lewandowski trying to hide on the porch. They arrested him and took him to the station.

Lewandowski said he did not know why he left the scene. He will appear in court on October 22.

The old man who walked five or six miles to school, many years ago, has grandchildren who need an automobile to travel a few blocks.

Students Facing Loitering Charge

Tough talk to a City police officer, combined with a complaint from Farms Market was sufficient grounds for a mass issuance of loitering tickets last Thursday, September 18.

Linda Champine, 135 Muir road, Sally Plum, 360 Belanger; Pam Clarke, 699 Rivard boulevard; Shirley Hanna, 472 Cloverly road; Carol Klokke, 1112 Kensington road; and Larry Fisher, 20417 Hunt Club drive were all arrested by City police.

Another of their group, Michael J. Bloink, was taken to the Dean of Boys office at the High School.

Hare-Brained Motorists

Attention has been called to a few stupid drivers who are giving our Safety Patrol boys a hard time at school crossings. This is an inexcusable offense.

These youngsters have earned the gratitude of police and parents for the important role they play in safeguarding youngsters going to and from school. Appointment to their posts is considered a high honor and they perform their duties proudly and conscientiously.

The other afternoon traffic was pretty congested at McKinley and Kercheval, as Richard School was letting out for the day. There was a steady flow of traffic on Kercheval and the youngster with the white Sam Brown belt was stalwartly attempting to hold back on-coming cars on McKinley, so the children could cross that street while the situation was easing up on the wider thoroughfare. Several thoughtless motorists, among them a mother with her own children safely tucked in her car, paid no attention to the outstretched arms of the Patrol boy and drove right around him, blocking the crosswalk on McKinley.

As the youngster put it: "Gee, my arms were tired from holding them out so long, but it didn't seem to do much good. I couldn't let the kids cross either in front of or behind the cars, because one of them might have backed up and hurt somebody."

Other similar isolated incidents have been reported to us as occurring in the neighborhood of other Pointe schools. They are to be deplored. These youngsters deserve all the respect and cooperation we can give them. They have been entrusted by the school authorities and the police to do very important work. It must be most discouraging to have brainless motorists ignore their signals and endanger the lives of their friends. Let's make every effort to pay strict attention to these youngest guardians of safety and pay them the respect they deserve while they discharge a duty that is a tremendous service to us all.

Praise from An Expert

Praise for the efficiency of the Grosse Pointe Farms police and fire departments comes from an expert. Charles C. Crendon, former fire commissioner for Detroit, telephoned the NEWS Monday to commend the officers for their performance in an emergency.

The Crendons were guests at a dinner party last Friday night in the William S. Burton home at 90 Stanton Lane. Among the other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Merrill. As they were leaving to go home, Mr. Merrill suffered a heart attack. The Farms police were called immediately.

As Mr. Crendon put it: "I have had a great deal of experience with this sort of thing in my years with the fire department in Detroit. I have seen real experts at work, but I never saw greater efficiency than the Farms officers displayed. Both police and firemen, with a scout car and ambulance were on the scene in less than two minutes. Each man knew exactly what to do and performed his assignment perfectly. I was greatly impressed."

Mr. Merrill was taken to Bon Secours Hospital, where he died some hours later. He had suffered previous attacks, the first some years ago.

Horror Teaches Safety

The Grosse Pointe Fraternal Order of Police, Lodge No. 102, has made available to all Pointe police departments, pamphlets showing the horror of broken and mangled bodies of motorists, and passengers, in some of the many thousands of traffic accidents on the highways throughout the country.

The pamphlets were donated to the police fraternity through the courtesy of Gerald Lewis of 506 Lakepointe, a Pointe business man.

The pamphlet, entitled "Death on the Highway" was compiled and written by Dean H. Robinson.

Words are useless in describing the contents and pictures in this little book. It must be seen and read, before a clear message of what can happen on the highways—perhaps to you—if the rules and laws of the road are not obeyed.

These pamphlets should be in the possession of all motorists, including teenagers taking driver training, those who have completed this training and all other young motorists.

For one of these books, stop at your local police station, or if they are out of them, ask where they might be obtained. It could save your life, or the life of someone else.

Farms Submits Building Report

Miscellaneous building permits issued in the Farms since the beginning of the year, far outnumbered those for residential and business construction combined. It was disclosed in an August report submitted by Farms City Engineer Murray M. Smith.

Since January 1, 67 miscellaneous permits were given out, as compared to 17 for residential and one for business.

So far this year, no non-assessable permits have been approved.

Included in the 17 issued for residences, is one given out during August, for a house valued at $75,000, making a grand total of $742,000, for the first eight months.

The one business permit is for a property valued at $210,000, and the six miscellaneous for August come to $17,500, making the total value for construction covered by this type of permit for the year, $310,250.

The total value of the seven permits issued last month is $92,500; bringing the number of all types of permits approved to 85, worth $1,262,250.

The August residential permit is for the construction of a home at 179 Stephens road,

Brides

In a small gathering recently, we made the remark that brides sure had to take a beating to sit down and write endless thank-you notes for gifts received. All most people want to know is that the gift WAS received, so we are all for the printed card, announcing same. The young go through MURDER before the wedding . . . then comes the period of readjusting without Mama and Papa . . . and before they can catch a breath, HUNDREDS of letters to write.

One woman spoke up in defense of the "gift-givers" whom she thinks are entitled to not only notes but LONG letters of appreciation. She pointed out that since the friends of the bride's family practically furnish their homes for them, they deserve a lot of attention. Oh, well. She then went on to expound the theory that in HER day, when you were asked to a wedding it was because they wanted YOU as a friend. Now she sez, people known only slightly are often invited to a wedding because of the gift that will invariably accompany the acceptance. She added that the lists left at different shops of gifts of the bride's choosing, has put a "commercial" touch to the whole thing. We told her, (and repeat it here), that the list bit makes it a lot easier on the buyer than having to galumph around the shops hunting for something she probably will get six of. And this brings us to a note we received from a recent bride that will go into our scrap book too sweet. It read, in it's entirety:

"Dear A. Pryor, We are just thrilled with the lovely wrought iron hurricane lamp. It is most attractive and we have had such pleasure using it!" That ended the note. Now THERE is a mixed-up bride! Ours was probably number 400 on her list and the poor kid was out on her feet as well as her pen. No signature . . . no nothing . . . and we didn't even send a wrought iron hurricane lamp in the first place. BUT we don't know who to write to to SAY that we didn't send a wrought iron hurricane lamp!

Headaches

We LOVE this story and will beat the tar out of anyone who does not agree that it is funny. A woman fraught with horrible migraine headaches, decides to see if a psychiatrist can cure her. After a few visits, the Doctor gives her the following advice. . . "Each night before retiring, go into your bathroom, look into the mirror, place a finger on either side of your head and say: 'I have no headache. . . I have no headache. . . etc. etc. etc.'" Madame followed instructions to the letter and found that BY gum, her headaches DID disappear.

Since her husband had for years seemed preoccupied and distressed and disinterested in things in general . . . she decided to have Him go to the same Doctor to see if he could be helped as she had been. He was impressed enough with HER cure, to try it . . . after she explained to him how her process worked "I have no headache" and BOOM it was gone. He didn't report to her what the Doctor had told him . . . so one night when he retired to the bathroom for his "exercises" . . . she peered through the keyhole. There stood the master of the house . . . in front of the mirror . . . with fingers on his head . . . chanting "I have no wife . . . I have no wife . . . I have no wife. . . etc."

Bad Checks

A local woman who is rather vague about a number of checks . . . really pulled a dooze the other day. She has been known to sign her maiden name to a check (after having been married for fifteen years) or a check which will be hard at work at her desk in January . . . and if she is interrupted in the middle of writing them out by a call from her friend "June" . . . she is apt to date the check June.

Last week, our heroine took herself to a super market that was new to her. The first thing that greeted her eye was a large sign reading something to the effect that CHECKS written out to the store were NOT to be POST-DATED. (It seems there are people who date them a few days ahead!!!) Anyways, our gal Sunday noted the sign . . . went about her business . . . made out her check . . . and took off.

The next day, her husband got a phone call at his office. In effect, the call amounted to the question as to whether or not his wife was right in the head. She had carefully put down the exact MONTH and exact DAY . . . but the year was 1985! Well, it wasn't MUCH post-dated.

Autumn Started September 23

The official start of autumn, the season when night becomes longer than day, took place at 8:10 a.m. Tuesday, September 23, says a University of Michigan astronomer.

Associate Prof. Hazel M. Losh says that the Sun's apparent arrival at the autumnal equinox marks the opening of the fall season. The equinox is the time of year when the Sun's center crosses the equator. At this time, day and night everywhere are of nearly equal length.

Since June 21, the Sun has been steadily moving southward. On the day of the equinox it will cross the equator, giving the northern hemisphere the beginning of fall, and the southern hemisphere the start of spring, Professor Losh explains.

On September 23 the Sun both rose and set exactly at the east and west points. The day and night are said to be of equal length. "This is not strictly true," she says, "because of the effect of refraction by the Earth's atmosphere. This lifts the Sun into view for a few minutes before it actually reaches the horizon on rising and after it has gone below the horizon on setting." Consequently, the day is lengthened at sunrise and sunset. Thus, the day of the equinox actually is a little longer than the night, Professor Losh says.

Days will continue to be a little longer than nights until about September 26. Professor Losh notes. At that time the day will be shortened by the amount of the refraction and the interval from the first appearance of the Sun over the east horizon until its final disappearance in the west will be exactly 12 hours.

"As the Sun will continue its long trek south, the days will become increasingly shorter at the expense of the night until the winter solstice is reached in December. This is the point at which the Sun is farthest from the equator, north or south."

What Goes On at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

We have had several calls recently from newcomers to Grosse Pointe, asking about the services of the Public Library. At the risk of appearing repetitious to our Library users of long standing, we mention a few facts about the Grosse Pointe Public Library which will be of special interest to those who have lived in this community a relatively short time.

The Public Library is an integral part of the Grosse Pointe Public School System, and a library card, free of charge, is available to everyone who lives, works, owns property or goes to school in Grosse Pointe. This may be used at any or all of the three libraries: The Central Library, 10 Kercheval; the Wood's Branch, 20600 Mack Avenue; the Park Branch, 15430 Kercheval.

With this card you may borrow:

... BOOKS, from a collection of between 80 and 90 thousand.

... MAGAZINES, from some 135 periodicals to which the library subscribes.

... PAMPHLETS, from a sizeable collection on current subjects.

... RECORDS, for adults and children, from a collection at each library.

... TOOLS, from a unique collection at the Central Library. A gift of the Grosse Pointe Rotary Club, these circulate free of charge.

... FRAMED PRINTS. Many pleasing reproductions may be seen hanging in the Meeting Room at Central. These rent for $1.50 a month, with the privilege of renewing for thirty days.

... FILMS. 16mm Sound Films from a permanent collection at Central, and others on short-term loan.

The library has also much to offer that cannot be charged out on a library card. During the Fall and Winter months, there are activities for every age.

... FAMILY NIGHT. This is held at Central, the first Friday of every month, 7:30 p.m., October through May. Children are welcomed if accompanied by an adult.

... FRIENDS FILM FORUM. This is held the third Friday of every month (excluding December), 8 p.m., at the Central Library, and is open to all adults in the community.

... COLOR TV. This gift of the Friends includes Channel 36, and is located in the Meeting Room at Central. It may be viewed at any time when no meeting is in progress.

... MEETING ROOM. This is available as is the "Friends Room" at the Central Library to local groups of a cultural or educational nature. A small meeting room at the Woods Branch may also be used in this way.

... COMMUNITY CALENDAR. This serves as a clearing house for important dates of organization doings, making for fewer conflicts. Call Miss Mischler at Central if the calendar can help your program planning.

... GREAT BOOKS DISCUSSION GROUPS. Second and Third Year groups have been organized, and will meet twice a month at the Central Library.

... BOOK TALKS. The Library will provide, upon request, a member of our professional staff to talk on current books at club and organization meetings. There is no charge for this service. If interested, write our Director, Mr. Robert M. Orr, and include the name of organization, the number expected at the meeting, the date, the time and the place. The aim of these book talks, according to Mrs. Donald Seifert, our book reviewer for the present year, is to arouse a desire among her listeners to read the books. She believes this is best accomplished by mentioning just enough about the book and author to whet the reader's interest. In this way a brief resume of a variety of current books may be given at one time.

... PROGRAMS FOR CHILDREN. These include programs for pre-school age, story hours for school age children, class visits from the school, occasional film showings and other special programs throughout the year. Call your library for further information.

Drivers Discover Reckless Driving Can Be Expensive

Shores Judge John Gillis imposed a severe penalty against a motorist who was arraigned before him for a second serious traffic offense in four months, on Monday, September 8.

Wayne U. Wiita of 27750 O'Neil, Roseville, was given three days in jail and a $100 fine, plus being placed on probation for a two-year period during which he is not to drink any alcoholic beverages. He was also forbidden to drive for 90 days.

Wiita was found guilty of driving while drunk on Lake Shore road, and was brought to trial the same day.

The errant motorist was arraigned the first time on May 31, on a charge of drunk driving, which Judge Gillis reduced to a lesser charge of reckless driving. Wiita paid a fine and court costs of $107.50, after being found guilty of drunk driving on Lake Shore and was put on one-year probation, no drinking.

Herbert T. Fenton of 8100 E. Jefferson, Detroit, was found guilty of speeding on Lake Shore and paid a fine of $25.

Raymond B. Nowicki of 10992 Worden, Detroit, paid a fine of $25, rather than spend 30 days in the Wayne County Jail, for speeding on Lake Shore.

Frank H. Young of 291 East Forest, Detroit, was found guilty of speeding on Lake Shore and paid a fine of $25.

Plan Dedication Of Organ Sunday

Ernest White, well known organist and authority on pipe organ tone, will play the dedication recital on the new three manual organ at The First English Ev. Lutheran Church, Vernier road at Wedgewood drive, next Sunday, September 28, at 4 p.m.

Mr. White is well-known throughout this country, Canada and Europe for his extensive research in the field of organ tone and through his recordings made on the organ at the Church of Saint Mary the Virgin in New York City where he served as musical director for 25 years. He now devotes his entire time to organ building and recital work.

The new instrument located in the rear-gallery choir loft of the new church contains 36 ranks with a total of over 2,100 pipes. Seven hundred of these pipes are disposed in open artistic design across the rear wall of the choir loft, making this one of the finest installations in this part of the country, both visually and acoustically.

As the Memorial Organ it will be dedicated to the glory of God and in memory of Henry F. Horn and Robert Schram as well as all departed members of the congregation. Mr. Horn, a prominent Lutheran Layman in Detroit, served in the senior choir of First English and also directed at times as a part of his broad interest in music. Mr. Schram was also a faithful member in whose memory the console at the previous church was dedicated.

Dedication of the organ will be held at the 11 a.m. service on September 28, with the organist of the church, James Hunt, at the console. The public is invited to these services. On Monday, September 29, at 8 p.m. the Detroit Chapter of The American Guild of Organists will be guests of the church in a recital-lecture by Mr. White.

Fr. A. L. Melvin Leaves St. Paul

The Rev. Fr. Albert L. Melvin has resigned as pastor of St. Paul on-the-Lake Shore, after 20 years as spiritual leader of the parish.

Fr. Melvin's resignation was announced by Edward Cardinal Mooney, Archbishop of Detroit, who disclosed the appointment of Msgr. Francis J. McPhillip as the new pastor of St. Paul on Thursday, September 18.

In submitting his resignation, Fr. Melvin brings to a close 42 years of priestly ministry in the Archdiocese.

He was born in Detroit on April 28, 1888, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael H. Melvin. He attended St. Aloysius grade school, University of Detroit High School, St. Joseph's Commercial and Assumption College, Windsor.

After theological studies in St. Paul Seminary, St. Paul, Minn., he was ordained a priest on June 16, 1916, by Bishop Edward D. Kelly.

He served as assistant pastor at Holy Rosary, Detroit; Holy Cross, Marine City, and Immaculate Conception, LaPeer. In 1922, he was named pastor of St. Elizabeth.

After serving pastorates at Our Lady of Lake Huron, Harbor Beach, and St. John, Monroe, he was transferred in 1938 to St. Paul.

Schools Offering Adult Courses

The Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Public School System is offering classes in Bridge and Dancing which are ready to begin within the next week. Hundreds of persons have attended these classes in the past few years.

Seven classes a week are being offered in Bridge taught Goren method, with Mrs. Carrie A. Kiley as instructor. These classes will be given on three levels: beginning, refresher and player.

Mrs. Kiley is a member of the Michigan Bridge Association and holds Master points acquired in bridge tournaments in Detroit and Grosse Pointe for many years both in class work and private lessons.

In the beginners class, the foundation of the game, based on Goren rules, will be taught. The refresher course will stress the play of the hand, leads and defense, safety plays, echoes, cue bids and signals. Players will be coached on advanced card combinations, end plays, dummy reversals, cue bid review, percentage plays, and other fine points of the game. These classes are scheduled to begin the week of October 6, with afternoon and evening groups available.

Introduction to the Dance schedule for this fall season will be a complimentary "Trial Square Dance" to be given on Wednesday, October 1 at 8:00 p.m. at Monteth School, Chalfonte and Cook Road. The invitation is extended to all interested adult couples in this area as an opportunity to discover whether or not they are interested in attending the classes which will be given in Square Dance to begin on October 8. These classes will be held at Monteth School meeting at 8 p.m.

Two Square Dance groups, Beginning and Advanced, will be offered on the fall program. The Beginning class will be conducted by Wes and Julie Rea, who will guide their pupils through the fundamentals. The Reas are widely known in Square Dance circles, and particularly well-known in Grosse Pointe, where they have taught for many years.

The Advanced Square Dance class will have Mildred Brennan as instructor. Students will be given the latest square dance patterns including the "current breaks". A limited number of the newer round dance patterns will be included in this class. Mrs. Brennan has been recognized as the leading instructor for groups wishing to learn the more complicated "breaks and patterns". This class will start Wednesday, October 15, 8 p.m. at Barnes School.

Two nights will be offered for Basic Ballroom instruction. One class will meet at Ferry School starting October 8, and the second at Kerby School on October 9. Meeting time for both will be 8:15 p.m. The fundamentals of the foxtrot, waltz and swing will be presented with an emphasis on styling. Elsa and Art Erwin will be the instructors. Mr. and Mrs. Erwin long have been considered outstanding teachers of ballroom dancing, attending summer workshops in ballroom, round and square dancing so they may bring the newest and best dancing instruction to their students. In addition to these classes, the following offerings will start on the following dates:

Reading Improvement — A University of Michigan extension course with John Schlieman as instructor, being offered for adults for the tenth consecutive semester. This class will meet on Wednesday, October 1 at 7:30 p.m. Advance registration is necessary.

Investment Procedures—This course will begin on Wednesday, October 8 at 7:30 p.m. with Peter Logan as instructor. Mr. Logan is an active partner in a Detroit investment firm, and a present staff member of Wayne University

The Grosse Pointe Real Estate Women Councilors will hold their first luncheon meeting of the season on Friday, September 26, at the War Memorial Center at 12 noon. Wallace Colwell, guest speaker, will present a film and talk on "Title Evidence." The women realtors will hold their meetings on the last Friday of each month in the Memorial Center. Enid Osgood is president, Eleanor Spring, secretary; Geraldine Steiner, treasurer; Minnie Hindelang, publicity chairman; and Rachel Baumann, chairman of education and entertainment.

Opener Lost By Park Lions

The Grosse Pointe Lions, Little League freshman team from the Park, lost a hard-fought game to the Royal Oak Rebels on Saturday, by a score of 30 to 7. The game was played at the Neighborhood Club Field. The Rebels scored their three touchdowns on fine end runs of 45, 30 and 80 yards; Steven Albertson and Dale Barry were scorers. The Lions' lone touchdown came from a pass play by Tom De Schuyver to Rick Conlan, who ran 70 yards to score. Line play by both teams was good. Coaches and expert spectators praised a fine game by boys who until two weeks ago had never engaged in real competition.

Pedestrian Hit As Foot Slips

A phone call from the Emergency Ward at Bon Secours Hospital last Friday afternoon, September 19, informed City police of a pedestrian accident that had taken place within their precinct. Officers reported to the hospital where they took a firsthand report of the story from Albert D. Swanson, 22557 Kipling, in St. Clair Shores. Swanson told police he was making a left-hand turn onto Mack, from Cadieux road, when his foot slipped from the brake pedal and his car pitched into a pedestrian who was crossing Mack, from north to south. The victim, Barbara Cianfarani, 23, of 4356 Drexel, in Detroit, was knocked to the pavement by the vehicle, injuring her head and spinal column. Swanson drove her to the hospital where she was released after X-rays failed to disclose any serious harm. Swanson was ticketed for not having his car under control, and hitting a pedestrian. He was ordered to appear in court on October 14.

Farms Grants Church Relief

The appeal of the Grosse Pointe Methodist Church from the denial of the inspector to issue a Certificate of Compliance and Occupancy was granted a one-year relief, Monday, September 15, at the Farms Board of Appeals. The grounds for the denial had been that the church did not comply with a zoning ordinance which requires a hard surface and a protective barrier along the side of the parking area adjoining a residential district. The church claimed that its members were still paying for last year's building drive, and that they couldn't afford any extra expenses. Councilman Henry E. Bodman, II, of 211 McMillan road, voted against the relief on the grounds that the hardship which the church claimed was self-induced. He said that such action by the board may set an unworthy example. Business firms conduct more than 7,000 individual interviews with University of Michigan engineering students each year.

Blue Devil Eleven Looks Very Good in First Game

The Grosse Pointe Blue Devils struck for three quick touchdowns in the second quarter and went on to drub a good Mount Clemens team, 34-0, last Friday, September 19, under the lights on the Bathers home gridiron.

It was the non-league opener for both teams and the Devils were ready for it. The blocking was crisp for a game so early in the season and as head coach Ed Wernet said "This was the best blocking we have ever had in an opening game."

The Devils unleashed a classy set of backs in veterans John Hoyer, Bill Hooth, Tom Andris, John Nicholson and swivel-hipped Ronnie Harper, who made his debut in a varsity uniform. All but Hooth scored. But Hooth was by far the outstanding defensive back on the field that night. Twice he nipped Bather runners when they seemed all but away for a score. His tackling was hard and sure. Time after time he came up from his linebacker position to plug holes the hard charging Mount Clemens forward will open in the Devils' determined line.

Line Play Outstanding
The line play of the Pointers was outstanding, particularly in the third quarter when the Devil "groundhogs" dug in to stop the Bathers on the one yard line as the period ended. Line coach Buk Kurvink said "my kids are determined to equal the fabulous defensive record of the 1957 team, which gave up only one touchdown all season. And they proved, at least, in that game, they have the stuff to do it." He continued "Of course we don't expect to keep our goal line uncrushed, but wouldn't it be nice if this bunch could do it?"

To pick up any one boy as a standout in the line would be impossible as this victory was a team win. They all showed a determined will-to-win and played as though the championship hung in the balance on every play. It wasn't until late in the game, after the Devils had it all locked up, that the Bathers made any appreciable gains on the ground. The Devils used the first quarter to find themselves and play saw-acted back and forth with play centering between the forty yard lines. In the last minute of the first period the Devils began a sustained drive that was highlighted by a beautiful pass from quarterback Nicholson to halfback Hoyer who took it on the Bather 25 and when to the 20 before being thrown out end.

Hoye Scores First
On the first play of the second quarter Hoye broke over his own left tackle and rambled 20 yards for the first score of the game six seconds after the period started. End Chuck Hanneman split the up-gives the Devils a 7-0 lead.

Three minutes and 37 seconds later the Devils had another touchdown when halfback Ron Harper skirted his own right end and went 15 yards to score. This touchdown was set up by the hard charging Devil line which broke through on fourth down and nailed the Mount Clemens halfback Dave Mial as he attempted to run from his own 28 after a bad pass from center made it impossible for him to get his kick away. Guard Mike Carrier and Harper swarmed over him on the Bather 28 where the Devils took over. Nicholson set up Harper's touchdown scamper when he hit end Larry Bruzesse with an eight yard pass and Bruzesse went to the 15.

Hanneman's conversion was good but the Devils were penalized 15 yards for holding and Nicholson was smothered as he tried to get his pass away for the extra point.

Three minutes and forty eight seconds later the Devils had their third touchdown which came on a 54-yard drive highlighted by Harper's 12-yard run to the Bather 38; a 13-yard pass from Nicholson to Bruzesse, who took the ball on the Mount Clemens 25 and immediately lateraled to Harper who went to the Bather 15 before being thrown out of bounds. Hoye cracked the line for eight-yards and Tom Andris bulled his way the remaining seven yards for the score. Hanneman converted.

All three touchdowns came within a seven minute and 31 second span of time.

Score on Long Drive
The Devils didn't hit pay dirt again until 8:32 of the third quarter. This one came on a sustained drive of 14-yards that saw Ronnie Harper's beautiful 57 yard run called back because of a holding penalty against the Pointers, which put the ball back on the Devil's 26. Andris started the drive all over again with a 35 yard run to the Bather 39 where he was tackled from behind by Jacobs. Hoye then skirted his own right end, took advantage of a beautiful key block thrown by Harper, and went the remaining 39 yards for the fourth Pointer score. Hanneman's kick was good to give the Devils a commanding 27-0 lead.

Heading the Mount Clemens fans boing loudly, the Bathers began to show some stuff and drove to the Devil 5 where Chuck Hanneman saved a touchdown by nailing Dave Mial from behind on fourth down.

At this point Ron Schram took over the quarterback duties for the Devils and pulled a daring pitch-out to halfback Bill Porter, who got to the Devil 10. But an offside penalty put the ball on the one yard line and John Nicholson raked back into the game. Nicholson sneaked out to the 10 on the next play but the following play resulted in a fumble which was recovered by the Bathers on the 10. It was here the Pointer line displayed great defensive strength by forcing the Bathers to relinquish the ball on the one yard line as the third period ended.

Line Holds Again
To open the fourth quarter Nicholson got off a booming kick that was downed on the Mount Clemens 32 by Bruzesse. The Bathers drove to the Devils' 18 and again the Pointers forward wall held firm and took over.

Bill Hooth cracked the line and rambled to the Mount Clemens 37 where he was caught from behind by end Bob Lamb after a 44-yard run. Harper electrified the crowd as he picked his way around right end to the Bather 15 after Hoye broke him lose with a key block. Andris cracked for 2 and Hoye made it a first down on the 5 from where Nicholson charged over for the final score of the game with six minutes and five seconds remaining. Hanneman scored the extra point and that was the ball game as far as the Bather fans were concerned. They began filing out of the park long before their team left the field.

To Meet Flint Northern
The Devils will tackle Flint Northern in the second non-league game of the season. The Devils are still smarting from the lone blot on their 1957 record which was administered by the visitors from the thumb district. It is reported that Flint Northern lost heavily through graduation but Coach Wernet said "Those guys always seem to have a wealth of material to step in to fill the graduation losses. They will be tough and our kids will have to go all out to keep the record clean."

Game time is scheduled for 2:30 p.m. at Grosse Pointe's home field.

St. Ambrose '11' Beats St. Florian
St. Ambrose High School's football team got off to a good start at Mack Park last Saturday night by defeating St. Florian, 25-6.

Manuel Lampridies scored the first of St. Ambrose's touchdowns on a three-yard plunge. Jim Laskowski went over the goal line for the extra point.

Ten plays later Laskowski broke loose over tackle and romped 57 yards for the second tally. Then Co-Captain Dave Broza went over from

Boat Banter

The Detroit Raven Fleet will lock up the 1958 season with the fifteenth annual Ice Berg series to be held off Grosse Pointe Yacht Club on the two weeks of September 27-28. Two races will be sailed on Saturday and one on Sunday. According to Bob "Chum" Kerr at least five out-of-towners will enhance the entry which with the local nine boat fleet will see 14 starters at the line.

The visitors will be Ira Ross from Buffalo; Bill Olsen and Pete Fagan from Cleveland; John Russell of Sandusky and Lowell Frost from Columbus, Ohio.

Al Bortolotti, of the Detroit fleet, is the defending champion and has been feasting his eyes on the beautiful silver trophies Carter Sales has acquired and will present to the first, second and third place winners of the series. Also small silver bowls will be awarded to the winners of each race.

Carter, second place winner last year, and Boyd Benkert, third place, also have visions of putting their lunch hooks on one of the prizes. Of course there will be guys like Bill Nagel, Gordon McCabe, who is the race chairman, Jim Mason, Tom Jeffers, Stu Japinga, Chum Kerr, Roy Barbier plus the visitors who probably will have a little bit to say about who wins what.

It was just a year ago that the Detroit Raven fleet was host to the Raven Nationals at the Grosse Pointe Y.C. and in that event you can be sure the Ice Berg series will be well run.

Actually, this is the tenth Ice Berg series as far as the Raven class is concerned. The series was originally started by the Detroit Eight Meter fleet back in 1944. But when the Eighties bowed out of the local competition two of the owners, Charley Beck and Chum Kerr bought Ravens and have carried on the series in these sailing bombs since 1949. And each year it gets bigger and better.

Pat Clancy is still the wizard of the "one stringers." He proved that last Saturday, September 20, in the annual DRYA Catboat Championships held off Crescent Sail Yacht Club.

Pat, an old Star boater from way back and perennial club champion at Edison Boat Club, squeezed out the title when he scored a second place two-foot victory in the final race of the three race round robin series to annex one point more than Jerry Jordan of the Detroit Yacht Club and two more than Swede Lauritsen of the Detroit Boat Club. Pat's final score was 7 1/2 points as compared to Jordan with 6 1/4 and Lauritsen's 5 1/4. The final standings could not be determined until after the final race. Clancy had a slim lead going into the final race and needed a second place to win. But Pat had the boat that had finished last in the two preceding races and the prospects didn't look too good. However, Pat called on all the cunning and experience he has gained over many years of competitive sailing and just managed to squeeze over the line in second place by two feet. Had he missed and taken third the series would have been deadlocked among the three skippers.

Mary Hesse, representing the Detroit Yacht Club, won the Women's Catboat title with a two race victory over Jane Warrick of the Detroit Boat Club. This series was sailed in conjunction with the Men's race.

Bobby Ford took delivery on his new yacht last Friday, September 19, but it came in too late for Bob to get it ready for the final race of the season which was the following day.

John Detwiler took delivery on his new Bounty II class sloop and is in a sweet trying to figure out whether or not to rig it mast-head or leave it the way it was designed. He figures he has all winter to make up his mind. Wife Phyllis isn't bothering her pretty blond head about rigging; she just wants to get at the yacht and make it pretty. It is an all fiber glass hull and it is a bit eerie to go below and be able to see the sea right through the transparent hull.

The annual Gismo party at the Little Club was saved at the last moment when Norbert Taylor, veteran crew member in Toot Gmeiner's New York 32 sloop Apache, exploded a local bombshell with the announcement he had bought Pat Collins' 32 sloop "Vitesse II". This came as a total surprise because this reporter surmised with Norbert in conjunction with the announcement that Norbert was sailing the Apache in the Bluenose race last Saturday and the furthest thought from Norbert's mind was to become a boat owner. It was that day that Pat and Jack Boyle started for Buffalo on the first leg of the trip to Fort Lauderdale, Florida. Four phone calls to Pat in Buffalo consummated the deal. You can imagine Jack Boyle's surprise when he learned of the sale for when he left the yacht at Buffalo no sale was even thought of.

With "Vitesse" staying here under her new order Auntie Ruth Gmeiner's Gismo Party has been saved. There will be three races, two on Saturday and one on Sunday, between "Apache", "Falcon" and "Jacobs".

When "Vitesse" left all weekend plans for that racing were canceled. The Gismo annual has locked up the racing competition between the New York 32's and as long as there are still three here the Gismo will continue.

Bluenose Regatta Decides Many Sail Racing Titles

Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's twentieth annual Blue-nose regatta last Saturday, September 20, drew 79 starters in 10 classes and at least five season champions were crowned in the various classes.

Clarence "Moon" Baker and Jerry Clements' "Last Straw" locked up the Cruising A title and Henry Burkard's "Meteor III" completed an undefeated season to win the Cruising B crown. Tommy Hanson's "Dauntless II" took the Cruising C laurels and Bob Nesley's "Malabar VI" won the Schooner-Ketch title.

The new Cruising D (Performance Handicap) class has a champion but all the final figures haven't been tabulated officially.

Chuck Haug Winner
In the smaller classes like the Privateer, L's, Crescent and Folkboat classes the season champions will not be known until after the North Channel race on October 4. It is known, however, that in the Privateer class Chuck Haug's "Niadi" won the Detroit River championship, and that Bob Roadstrum's "Cotton Top" is the winner of the summer series and Oscar Carlson's "Spindrift" was tops for the Fall (Windto trophy) series.

The Bluenose regatta was anything but a BLUENOSE. The weather was like midsummer and gave the sailors a last chance to peel off their shirts and soak up the sun after it came out from behind the threatening clouds that were conspicuous at the start of the race.

Cherakaw crew aboard "Apache" made shambles of the Cruising A class winning by more than twelve minutes over second place "Last Straw" and Nubs Sarns' "Revelry". "Apache" was the first to fly the 38.8 nautical mile course to the Thames River lighted buoy and back. "Cochise" Gmeiner found the happy hunting grounds along the Canadian shore and moved from a weak third place up into a commanding lead over his closest competitors. The victory put the WJR perpetual trophy on the Gmeiner mantle for the next 12 months.

Burkard Wins Again
Although "Apache" made fast time over the course, it wasn't quite fast enough to keep Henry Burkard from winning overall honors on corrected time and the Commodore John R. Sutton perpetual trophy and the other WJR trophy. The victory completed one of the most amazing victory streaks posted by a modern day yacht on Lake St. Clair. The only race "Meteor III" didn't win was the BIG ONE, the Bayview-Mackinac race.

Trying to stop Burkard's winning streak was Bill Hanson, who just purchased the "Fleetwood" from Bobby Ford a week before the race. Bill was only one minute and seven seconds behind on corrected time.

Tommy Hanson's "Dauntless II" repeated as Cruising C champion with a twenty-five minute and 22 seconds corrected time win. Here again Hugh Fuller's "Diane" over Hugh Fuller's skipper who won more than his share of races in his class this year BUT the BIG ONE got away.

Dan Holka's "Seeker" came back for the second week in succession to top the Cruising D class on corrected time. Because this is the first year for this class no provisions were made for a perpetual trophy for this race. But that didn't bother Danny a bit—his boat's on a winning streak with straight. He won the Bayview Long Distance Night Race the week before.

Fraises Junior Crew
Arnold Fuchs had nothing but praise for his all Junior crew from Bayview when he topped the L Class course to win the Manfred Burleigh trophy.

Chuck Haug took the Axel Wickman trophy, and if memory serves, it is the second year in a row. Bob Wood's "Smutsig-Fagen" captured the redemitted-Timken Bowl for his win in the Folkboat class.

This being the last full blown regatta of the 1958 season it is time to give credit where credit is due and that is to the DRYA judges who give so unselfishly of their time to conduct these regattas on Lake St. Clair. Not once during the season did the judges make a mistake. There was less grumbling heard from the sailors than in any time this reporter can recall. To name all the judges would be foolhardy on our part because just as sure as there will always be yacht racing we would know someone. These men know who they are and from this corner let us offer heartfelt congratulations to all the sailors who competed in DRYA weekly inter-club regattas for this year. If it weren't for you gentlemen there would be no yacht racing here.

Little League Calls Meeting
A Woods Little League Baseball general association meeting will be held at Parcels Junior High School, Tuesday, September 30, at 7:30 p.m. in room 213.

All parents of boys intending to play Little League baseball next season along with contributing members are cordially invited to attend.

League officials are hoping that more mothers will take a more active part in Little League affairs and the ladies will be eligible for the board of governors.

Women names of nominate or women wish to nominate can be placed by calling Robert Keagen at TU 1-4314. All who are nominated are expected to be present at this important meeting.

Estimated Fire Losses
Estimated fire losses in the United States during August amounted to $75,491,000, the National Board of Fire Underwriters has reported. This represents a decrease of 3.7 percent from losses of $78,364,000 reported for August, 1957, and a decrease of 6.5 percent from losses of $80,782,000 for last July (1958). Losses for the first eight months of 1958 now total $737,508,000, an increase of 4.4 percent over the first eight months of 1957, when they amounted to $706,333,000.

Austin Beats Salesian 32-0

By BOB BEATTIE
Austin Catholic High School started its 1958 football season Sunday afternoon by defeating Salesian, 32-0.

Austin's kickoff by Dick Carona was returned by the Salesian 37-yard line by Tom Ostrowski. Salesian carried the ball to the Austin 30 on the next play but gained only nine yards in the next four.

Co-captain Ken Scherer then went through the center for two and around end to the Salesian 44. Halfback Scherer then took a lateral by Dan LaVerdiere to the 31. Fullback Tom Smith then went around guard for one. Ken carried to the 11, but was called back on a clipping foul.

Dave Miller caught a pass on the one foot line and was downed. Ken Scherer went over the center for a touchdown. Quarterback Frank Romety was brought down on the goal line. No extra point.

Dick Corona kicked to Salesian's Tom Ostrowski and tackled him on the Salesian 25-yard line.

When they failed to get a first down, Ken Scherer took the punt to the Austin 44. Salesian recovered a fumble, but George (Jumbo) Blake threw them for a sixteen-yard loss.

The punt which soon followed went out of bounds on the Austin 44. Halfback Gerry Finazzo carried the ball around end to the Salesian 39. A touchdown by Ken Scherer was called back for holding.

A pass interception and a run by Salesian put them on the Austin 31 at the end of the first quarter. Salesian gained its way to the 47-yard line, but the kick was caught on the 50. As Austin failed to gain yardage, a kick by Paul Zozel was returned to the Salesian forty-five yard line. After three incompletes passed, their kick was taken to the Austin 24. Dan LaVerdiere went around left end to the Austin 49. The Friars then lost the ball after two incompletes thrown, but Salesian was thrown for a loss and had to kick.

It was Austin's ball on her own 38. Ken Scherer ran all the way, but an off-side penalty nullified the touchdown. Dan LaVerdiere passed to Terry Drouillard on the Salesian 39. This was the end of the first half.

The kickoff by Salesian having been into the end zone, Junior halfback Gerry Finazzo began the second half for the Friars by running 80 yards for a touchdown. Ken Scherer capitalized to make it 13-0.

The kick by Carona was downed on the Salesian 28. Dave Miller intercepted and went all the way. The extra point attempt failed.

On the second play after regaining the ball, Dan LaVerdiere went for the third Friar touchdown and the attempt again failed.

The kick was taken to the Austin 40, but the Friars soon had it again on the Salesian 45. LaVerdiere gained a first down on the one-yard line. Two off-sides penalties and two incompletes passes made it second down and 11. A pass did get through to the 3, but not across.

It was Salesian's ball on the Salesian 3, and Junior Tom Gallagher recovered a Salesian fumble. Ken Scherer took it over and Frank Romety passed to Dave Sopocinski for the point.

A strong Friar defense held for a scoreless final 4 minutes. The Friars meet the Fighting Irish of Notre Dame, defending champions of the Central Division, Friday, September 26, at 8:30 at DeLaSalle field.

COURSE DRAWS POINTERS
"Psychology Takes a New Direction", a course being offered at the Rackham Building by Harry and Bonaro Overstreet, is attracting a number of start residents. The course starts on Tuesday night, September 30, at 7:30 p.m. and will run for six successive weeks. Enrollments are still being taken.

St. Paul Gridders Tripped By Servite in Opener, 21-0

The St. Paul Lakers got a rough going over in their debut in the First Division Catholic League football race last Sunday, September 21, when a powerful Servite team chalked up a 21-0 victory at Mack Inter-Parish Field.

Servite, led by quarterback Bill Kemp, took charge near the end of the first quarter when he bootlegged around left end and raced 64 yards for a touchdown. The try for extra point was good and the Panthers were off to a 7-0 lead.

A minute later Servite Wright's pass, intended for end Tim Hutton, and ran it back to the Lakers' 25-yard line. St. Paul dug in and stopped a determined Servite drive on the 10.

Penalty Stops Drive
Late in the second quarter Servite drove to the Laker 20 but a penalty stalled the drive and a field goal from the 25-yard stripe fell short.

St. Paul covered a lot of yardage in the first half but the inability to put together a sustained drive kept the Lakers from pay dirt.

A bad St. Paul kickoff to start the third period put the Lakers on the ropes. Servite took possession on its own 45. Quarterback Kemp climaxed the drive with an end run. The conversion was good and the Lakers trailed 14-0.

Maple Lane keglers scored three points last Thursday, September 18, and moved into first place in the Grosse Pointe Businessmen's Bowling League. Cy Van Fleterman paced the Maple team with a season record 247 game as Cox and Baker fell victim to the new leaders, who set a high three game score of 2707.

Kennelly was the only four points winner of the night and moved into a three-way tie for fourth place.

Harold Nierath paced the Goebel II team with the season individual high three game series of 567 as his team took three points from Wigle.

Other three point winners were: Mack Prestwick over G. P. Pharmacy; Atwell over Goebel I and Barrett over Beaconsfield. Belding and Larry's split four points.

Two hundred plus keglers were: Coy Van Fleterman; John Cornick 25; Don Sarvis 219; Harold Nierath 213; Jack Baker 208; Sam Kunath 207 and 204; John Hotia 205; Dwight Spengler 204; Ange De George 202; Ken King 202 and John Zamiska 201.

KIWANIS Kids Day
The 13th annual exhibition for Michigan Artist-Craftsmen will open Tuesday evening, September 30, with a reception from 8:30 to 11 o'clock at the Detroit Institute of Arts. Thirteen prizes totaling well over one thousand dollars will be announced in a ceremony in the Rivera Court, reopened after extensive alterations. Of the 248 objects chosen from 1,165 entries, 152 are ceramics, 61 are metalwork, 25 are textiles and 10 are classified miscellaneous. One hundred and fifteen artists are represented in the show.

Late in the third quarter the Lakers appeared to be on their way to a touchdown but a fumble was recovered by Servite on its own 45 to halt the march. Servite then drove 55 yards for its third and final score of the day.

To Meet St. Ambrose
It was natural for the Laker players and coaches to be disappointed with the final outcome as they had hoped to get off to a flying start in their debut in the new league.

Home schedules will open their powerful St. Ambrose team on the Grosse Pointe High School gridiron, which is the site of all Laker home games, on Sunday, September 28, at 2:30 p.m.

St. Paul suffered a damaging blow when quarterback Pat Wright suffered a possible dislocated knee in the Servite game. Without Wright's signal calling experience the Lakers' chances against St. Ambrose and in future games appear to be dim. This was proven in the opening game as Wright's replacement appeared to be too inexperienced to bring the team up for sustained drives.

Farms to Open New Sket Field
Henry M. Campbell, III, president of the Farms Tripping Club, announces that the new Sket field in the Farms Pier Park will be completed and open for shooters on Saturday, September 27 at 1 p.m.

The club plans to have Sket shooting every Saturday and Sunday afternoon through the middle of May between 9 p.m. and 4:30 p.m. Walter F. Collins of Moross road will be in charge of the new field.

The construction of a Sket field on the Farms Pier Park to be operated during the off season months was authorized by the Farms City Council on March 17, 1958. The construction was carried out under the supervision of the City officials with the Club contributing $1,000 toward the cost. The club expects to be able to reimburse the City for the balance of the cost within the next few years.

Membership in the club is open to all residents of the City of Grosse Pointe Farms upon the payment of nominal dues.

The cost per round is $3.00 which includes the shotgun shells that are furnished at the field.

The club members have been shooting Trap in the winter months since January, 1955. A total of over 400 residents of the Farms, have shot since then. The trapping facilities are being retained and combined with the Sket field to afford shooters the choice of either sport.

The Sket field is provided with the most up to date and efficient equipment available which will provide the residents of the Farms with shooting facilities as fine as any in the area. The unique setting overlooking the lake together with the convenient location makes use of the Pier Park area during the off season months in a way unmatched by any other nearby municipality.

Officers of the club are: Henry M. Campbell, III, president; Nels D. Nyman, vice-president; Theodore A. McGraw, secretary-treasurer; Edward C. Roney, Jr., Dr. J. Harvey Maxwell, Thomas R. Squier and Jules Vincent, directors.

Explorer Scouts Plan Sport Night

An aggressive group of teen age youths will try their hand at conducting a full-scale business by way of a "Father and Sons Sport Night" in the Parcels School auditorium, Tuesday, September 30, at 7:30 o'clock.

The entire show is being produced and directed by the Explorer Scouts, No. 479, Boy Scouts of America. The young men, 14 to 19 years of age, are being exposed to an invaluable lesson in business administration completely independent of adult assistance. They have selected their own treasurer from the group, appointed a crew to handle the lighting detail, assigned committee tasks to others to the myriad tasks necessarily entailed in promoting a project of this sort.

In addition the Explorers, with the cooperation of the Boy Scouts from their troop will demonstrate a program on conservation and exhibit their many interesting hobbies.

They have lined up a spectacular cast of international sports figures who will demonstrate their respective skills.

Fred Bear's Champion Archers will be starred plus pistol shooting champion, Dennis Haver, Juli Bistan, star of the Michigan State fencing team, will be featured as will Jim Barto, present Michigan State casting champion and former National champion in this field, in addition to tennis star, Joe Kristufek. These are just a few of the many outstanding athletes who will perform.

Tickets are $1 and the public is invited.

Mason P.T.A. Meets Monday

The Parent-Teachers Association of Mason School will hold its first meeting Monday evening, September 29. The business meeting will be held in the gymnasium at 7:30 o'clock. At this time the parents will meet the new principal, John W. Brubacher, the new teachers, and members of the Executive Board.

After the meeting the parents are invited to the pupils' class rooms, where the teachers will outline the work they are doing with the children. This will also be an opportunity for the parents to meet the room mothers and become acquainted with the parents of the other children in the room. An informal social hour with refreshments will follow the meetings in the classrooms.

Roy Jenkins Active In MD Organization

At a recent meeting of the Wayne County Chapter of the Muscular Dystrophy Association of America, Inc., the local executive committee appointed its officers to serve for a one year period.

Among the members of the committee is Roy C. Jenkins of 743 Berkshire, who as a member, will work on various committees within the organization to help further the program of the association. One of the aims is to provide treatment and appliances for all victims of muscular dystrophy in the community.

Mrs. Norma G. Silver, newly elected president, urges anyone who has the disease in their family, or knows of a friend or neighbor, to contact the association so that these people can be made aware of the benefits.

Funds for these services are made available each year through the annual Muscular Dystrophy campaign, which is conducted in late November, highlighted by the annual March for Muscular Dystrophy.

Success consists of a lot of hard work and some luck—ask any successful man.

Ike Sent Wire By Federalists

Watson Ford, president of the Grosse Pointe chapter of United World Federalists, announced today that their organization had telegraphed a proposal to President Eisenhower to submit the Formosa Dispute to the International Court of Justice.

While the danger of global war is great, this proper alternative is available. It was urged that the U.S. announce its willingness to support the Court's decision, as such action would not only lessen the hazard of major war, but might well strengthen the World Court and the development of world law.

While there is a lack of precedence for this action and the political difficulties are great, UWF believes that a sincere effort by the U. S. to have the case submitted to the Court would gain the support of all peace-loving nations.

The next Executive Council meeting of the Grosse Pointe chapter of UWF will meet at 8 p.m. on October 1 at the home of Dr. A. H. Whittaker, 17000 E. Jefferson avenue. All Council members are urged to attend.

New State Laws Help Motorists

The Michigan Legislature recently enacted several more laws that became effective on Saturday, September 13, and which will be of convenience for state motorists.

Of special interest to the motoring public is the statute which enables drivers to renew their operator's licenses in any community in Michigan. Previously, renewals could only be obtained in the city of residence.

The new law makes it clear, however, that the original driver's license must be applied for in the city in which one resides.

After February 13, any one selling his car keeps the license plates, since it is registered in his name and is good until new license-plate time February 28, the following year.

The seller retains the registration certificate to the car sold, placing the name and address of the person the car had been sold to, on the back of the certificate. The seller then signs his own name below that of the name of the purchaser, and when the next car is bought, the seller takes the title or registration certificate of the old car to the Secretary of State's Office, or branch, for assignment of a new title which will permit the use of the license plates.

If the car purchased is a new one, the registration certificate can be given to the dealer, and he will submit an application for a new title to the vehicle.

AUTHORITATIVE

A young business man returned home tired from a hard day at the office to find his two children rushing madly about the house. He gave both a scolding and sent them off to bed as soon as they had eaten their supper.

The next morning he found this note pinned to his bedroom door: "Be good to your children, and they will be good to you. Yours truly, God."

Pastor to Talk On Education

The traditional annual service of the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church devotes to Education will be held this coming Sunday, September 28, at 11 o'clock.

Once a year, Reverend Hammond speaks on some facet of Education, or the educational system. This year he will discuss the subject "American Ideals and the Public Schools." Under this title, he will review the success or failure of the schools in inculcating and supporting those ideals that are peculiarly associated with the American tradition. This in turn, will lead into the question of the vitality of these traditional beliefs and ideals among the people.

The strong demand for educational emphasis on science and mathematics that resulted from the advent of the Sputnik Age, and the handling of some other recent school problems will be considered, to determine whether we are departing too far from the traditional American belief in the value of a liberal education as such.

Educators, teachers, and all others who are interested in the educational system are cordially invited to attend this discussion.

G.P.U.S. News Notes

Varsity football had its official opening sessions last week, with two-a-day practices beginning promptly at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. Monday, September 8. In his letter to candidates, Coach Richard Trim stressed the difficult schedule that confronts the team this year and the importance of conditioning for the squad. He went on to say, "I should like to extend a special invitation to the boys who are new to the school this year. Although many of you will be ineligible for most Varsity contest because of the transfer rule, there are two Varsity games and all of the Junior Varsity games that are open to all boys."

The Varsity schedule is as follows:
 Sept. 26—Lamphere —Home
 Oct. 3—L'Anse Creuse —Home
 Oct. 10—Maumee Valley Away
 Oct. 17—Open
 Oct. 24—Detroit Country
 Day .....Away
 Oct. 31—Oak Park .....Home
 Nov. 7—Lutheran East Away
 Nov. 14—Harper Woods Home

Spectators attending home games will notice a very handsome new scoreboard, just installed last week! The scoreboard was a gift to the school from last year's senior class.

There should be a fair amount of foreign flavor around G.P.U.S. this fall, what with a number of the faculty returning from abroad and the addition to the school family of one American Field Service student from France and another from Turkey.

Miss Perkins has traveled widely in Europe; Mr. O'Connell spent the summer in Austria; Mrs. Welbach was in England and France; and Mrs. Lynch studied in French Canada.

Miss Osborne was in Alaska when it was voted in as our 49th state, and Mr. McCann spent the summer in what will surely be the 50th, Hawaii. Jane Peirce, of this year's senior class, has also just returned from France, where she spent the summer as an American Field Service student, living with a French family.

Grosse Pointe University School has just distributed to parents and faculty its new and comprehensive catalogue and handbook. This should prove to be a very useful manual for all involved in the life of the school.

Season Starting For Tuxis Club

The Tuxis Club of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church will begin a new season of activity next Sunday night, September 28, at 7:30 o'clock in the Church House.

All young people of senior high age are invited to attend. Registration for new members will take place from 7:00 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. in the Men's Lounge. All old members are asked to register and check the activity sheet.

The speaker for the opening meeting will be the Rev. Ben L. Tallman, associate minister in charge of Christian Education. Following the meeting refreshments will be served.

The Tuxis Club is a service organization for boys and girls in the 10th, 11th and 12th grades. The name of the club is derived from its motto, "You and I training for service with Christ." There are various week-day and social activities in addition to the Sunday evening program meetings.

The officers for 1958-59 are: Remington Puddy, Jr., president; Nancy Ruby, vice-president; Virginia Pear, secretary; John Doyle, treasurer. Cabinet members include: Pete Mitchell, Jim Carne, Bob Winter, Steve Whittlesey, Edie Morris, Stevie Gregory, Sue Williams, Sue Hykes, Nancy Drennan, Karen Warmbold, Karen Kuivinen.

Willson to Lead 1,076 Trombones

Tenth Annual Band Day at The University of Michigan Saturday, Sept. 27, will be another record-breaker, with 195 bands and 12,500 participants on hand to provide an added attraction for the football opener with Southern California.

But the record-breaking number of participants will not be the only highlight of the day since Michigan Band Director W. D. Revelli has come up with a real headliner—Meredith Willson, noted band conductor and composer who wrote the book, music lyrics for the current Broadway hit, "The Music Man."

"Seventy Six Trombones" is one of the hits from that show and Meredith will be directing not just 76 trombones, but 1,076 trombones when the massed bands perform this selection under his direction at half-time.

The Red Cross Council has had its first meeting. The PeriScope, the school newspaper, has put out its first issue. The Pericon, the school yearbook, is taking the first steps in the long process that culminates in spring publication; the Periscript, the school literary magazine, is doing the same thing.

Elected as co-captains of the Varsity football squad for 1958 are Glynn Conley and Dick Johnson. The team's first game was last Friday against Lamphere, a home game on the Cook road field.

The Parents Association held its first session Wednesday evening, with the association's representatives conferring with homeroom and grade teachers to begin organization of the year's program.

The Service Club, a group of volunteer student helpers from all classes, has begun its many activities. The movie schedule which the teachers will use to supplement their classroom instruction has been issued. The college representatives are beginning to arrive, each one singing the praises of his own institution, of course, but all of them giving the seniors and often interested juniors, too, much on which to reflect.

Mr. Beeler's classes in industrial arts and Mrs. Comiskey's in typing have now all been

Michigan Club Elects Officers, Plans Activities

At a meeting held last week by the new members of the Board of Governors of the Grosse Pointe University of Michigan Alumni Club, new officers were elected for the coming year.

Dr. James H. Teetzel, of Buckingham road, will be the club's new president and serving with him as vice-president will be William H. Granse, of Washington road. Joan Beeman, of Beaconsfield road, will be the group's secretary and Daniel Hodgeman, who lives in Oxford road, will serve as treasurer.

The new administration announces that plans have been completed for the annual Club Dinner honoring a prominent executive of the University. This year guests of honor will be Dr. and Mrs. James A. Lewis. He is vice-president of the University in Charge of Student Affairs.

The dinner and reception will again be held at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center. Wednesday, October 15, has been chosen for the affair, with the reception beginning at 6 p.m., following which dinner will be served.

Tickets will sell for $3 and can be obtained from any member of the board of governors of the newly elected club officers.

Get Ready for Sale at Woods Church

Household Goods and art items in wide variety are being prepared by women of the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, Mack Avenue and Torrey road, for their seventeenth annual rummage sale, to be held Friday and Saturday, October 3 and 4. In charge of the sale are, from left, MRS. CHARLES MAREMA, chairman; and her co-chairmen, MRS. CECIL STEPHEN, MRS. GEORGE MILES and MRS. ELMER GABRIEL.

Dr. Dickinson Claims Bride in Connecticut

Jeanne Delano Richmond Wears Silk Taffeta and Brussels Lace for Rites Saturday in St. Matthews Church, Wilton, Conn.; Pair to Live in New York.

Dr. Selden Jerome Dickinson, son of the Selden S. Dickinsons, of Cloverly road, claimed Jeanne Delano Richmond as his bride Saturday in St. Matthews Church, Wilton, Conn.

For her marriage the bride, daughter of the Robert Minot Richmonds, of Ridgefield, Conn., formerly of Baltimore, Md., wore white silk taffeta designed along princess lines with a square neckline, and long sleeves.

Her heirloom Brussels lace veil was caught by a cluster of orange blossoms and she carried white orchids and lilies of the valley.

Carey Bell Richmond was her sister's attendant. Robert S. Erskine, Jr., was best man and the ushers were Kingsley Ervin, Jr., Robert Bennett, Jr., Robert A. DuBois, Jr., and Peter S. Heller.

A small reception in the bride's home followed the ceremony. The couple will live in New York.

The new Mrs. Dickinson is a graduate of Eryn Mawr School and Bryn Mawr College. She has done graduate work at the Columbia-Presbyterian Medical Center and is a radiological physicist at the Roosevelt Hospital, New York. She is a member of the Junior League of New York.

Dr. Dickinson is a graduate of St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., and Harvard, where he was a member of The Fly and The Hasty Pudding—Institute of 1770. He also graduated from the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Columbia University. Dr. Dickinson served in the Medical Corps of The United States Navy, and is at present an assistant resident in surgery at The Presbyterian Hospital. He is a member of The Harvard Club of New York.

Tell Betrothal Of Elsa Barr

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew W. Barr, of Merriweather road, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Elsa Wilson, to Howard Hunter Williams III. He is the son of former Pointers, Mr. and Mrs. H. Hunter Williams, now of Rye, New York.

Elsa is a graduate of Milton Academy in Milton, Mass. and received her degree from McGill University in Montreal, following her transfer from Smith College. She has a graduate degree in Political Science from the University of Michigan and is currently working in Boston.

"Terry," as the bridegroom-elect is called by his friends, graduated from The Hotchkiss School and Yale University. He is in his final year at the Harvard Business School.

They plan to be married December 27 in Christ Church, Grosse Pointe.

From Another Pointe of View

By Patricia Talbot

The rent in the Iron Curtain is widening and here on the local scene we have been entertaining the Russians. The visitors have been a delegation of steel executives, returning a similar trip made by Americans last spring.

Last week the Russians were treated to some typical US festivity on the Great Lakes. They cruised from the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club docks in "Dee Gee," to glimpse our lovely shore line.

The Russians, with Aleksandr Filippovich Borisov as chairman, arrived here in mid September to visit Detroit area steelmaking facilities and enjoy some "decadent capitalist" fun in their leisure hours.

President of Great Lakes Steel, Wilfred D. MacDonnell, was host at the stag dinner at the GPYC which began with cocktails and then moved to the Venetian Room where the men dined at a U-shaped table decorated with red, white and blue flowers.

Among the guests were James C. Phelps, vice president of industrial relations at Great Lakes Steel; Ross Wilkins, Paul Carnahan, of Grosse Ile and Francis Stevens, of the State Department, who is escorting the Russians on their trip across the country.

Hands Across the Ocean

Exchanges between professional men and executives across the oceans are becoming an everyday occurrence and a good thing, too.

Dr. Harper K. Hellems left last week-end with Mrs. Hellems, of Moross road, for Brussels where he will present a paper before the International Congress of Cardiology.

While they are abroad the pair will visit Copenhagen, Paris and London. The doctor will attend cardiac clinics and Mrs. H. will sightsee and shop.

Fashion Shows Planned

Fashion shows are paramount on most social calendars these bright fall days. With the chemise gone, midlady is cheered by the new styles and ready to don the newest empire creations.

On October 9 Irving's and Young Clothes will exhibit the latest modes at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club under the auspices of the Altar Society of Our Lady Star of the Sea.

Proceeds from the luncheon and show will go toward the payment of a new classroom in the new school. Mrs. Edmund Major is chairman with Mrs. C. M. Verbiest, co-chairman. Mrs. Alexander Wrigley will be the commentator.

Members of the Altar Society who will model include Mrs. Robert Sullivan, Mrs. Alvin Sherman, Jr., and Mrs. Burke Fossee.

A whole group of youngsters will model the children's styles. On the runway will be Gayle and Gerard Schmid, Tommy Babcock, Richard Evtatz, Suzanne Sherman, Debbie McDonald, Patricia Pazgrat, Mendy Miller, Dorothy Spoor, Margaret Mary Mazzara, Mary Wells and Linda O'Berski.

Short and to the Pointe

A brief holiday in New York City is planned by MR. and MRS. LESTER ELLIOTT of Touraine road, after driving their daughters to Wellesley College, Wellesley, Mass. CAROLYN will be a senior this fall and ELIZABETH a freshman. A stop at Ligonier, Pointers, MR. and MRS. BENNETT BURGOON, Jr., is scheduled for the coming weekend.

MRS. THOMAS A. BLESSING, of Lewiston road, is chairman of the Mercy College League Fair which will be held on the campus, W. Outer drive at Southfield October 23.

MARGERY R. GODDARD, daughter of the WENDELL C. GODDARDS, of Provençal road, has entered Pembroke College in Brown University as a freshman.

Sailing from Los Angeles, Calif., on Wednesday for Hawaii were MR. and MRS. HERBERT B. DUNCAN, of Fairway drive.

Returning to Governor Dummer Academy, South Byfield, Mass., this week was E. CHRISTOPHER PREWITT, son of the THAN C. PREWITTs, of Moran road.

MR. and MRS. GERALD BAKER, of Trombley road, are enjoying a visit from their daughter, MRS. DAVID WALTERS, and grandson, MITCHELL. The Bakers will entertain them at their summer residence on Lake Bellaire, Michigan, for the next 10 days before they must return to their home in Marianna, Florida.

SAMUEL E. ARMSTRONG, of Lincoln road, was one of 40 Union College alumni from the eastern half of the nation who attended a special three-day admissions school held on Union's Schenectady campus during the weekend of September 12-14.

Bride-elect ELSA BARR, daughter of the ANDREW BARRS of Merriweather road, will come from Boston this week end to be in the Worcester-Hastings wedding.

MRS. GEORGE M. SLOCUM, of Roslyn road, has returned from a Baltic cruise which included stops at Leningrad and Moscow.

MR. and MRS. JOHN B. FORD II, of Vendome road,

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Godin, of Lakeshore drive, announce the engagement of their daughter, MARY MARJORIE, to Dr. Anthony Vassallo, of New York.

Miss Godin is an alumna of the Convent of the Sacred Heart, Grosse Pointe, and is a senior at Maryville College, St. Louis, Mo.

Dr. Vassallo was graduated from the University of Notre Dame and St. Louis University School of Dentistry. He is a member of Delta Sigma Delta. The wedding will take place next April.

have bought the JOHN ANDERSON home in Lakeshore road and will be moving before Christmas.

The CHARLES N. GILMOURS, JR., of Balfour road, entertained at cocktails Friday evening.

The ALBERT WALLS and their daughter, MRS. WILLIAM P. CLARK, all of Devonshire road, will leave October 12 to attend the annual fall horse sale at Keeneland Race Track, Lexington, Ky., and also spend some time at the Walls' home near there.

MRS. GEORGE A. BIGELY, of Merriweather road, and MRS. GEORGE HAGGARTY, of Renaud road, left Sunday to fly to London, then go on to Brussels and Paris.

Course Offers Women Advice

Beginning Tuesday evening, September 30, at 7:30 o'clock, a new Dorothy Carnegie course exclusively for women will be offered at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center. It is a ten week course in personal development and self discovery taught by certified instructors. It is not a charm course nor is it a lecture course. It is an action course where one "learns by doing."

It is a fact that women control 76 per cent of our nation's wealth. It is also true that there are 3,000,000 more qualified women voters than men. American women have more opportunities than any other women in the world. It is only common sense for women to learn to make the most of themselves in order to realize these opportunities. Through the Dorothy Carnegie course they can accomplish just that.

Among the many things which will be taught and practiced in the Dorothy Carnegie Course are techniques of remembering names and faces, tips on enhancing personal appearance, hints on how to handle group situations successfully, principles of getting along with people, meeting people with poise and confidence, how to make the most of your income, how to better manage your time, how to express yourself cleverly and convincingly, and how to get along with men.

This is not a course to change or remake anyone but rather to bring out the qualities needing expression. It aims to give the lie to such popular misconceptions about women as—they can't make decisions, are easily swayed, can't see both sides of a question, and are losing their femininity.

To learn more about this course go to the Center Tuesday evening, September 30 at 7:30. Attendance at this meeting in no way obligates you to enroll.

Donald E. Rusts, Jr., of Kensington road, and Lynn Eskridge, daughter of the J. W. Eskridges, of Merriweather road, have returned to Elmira College in New York.

Donna Garber, daughter of the JOHN T. GARBERS, of Bishop road, will be a sophomore at Park College, Parkville, Mo., this fall.

Entering the freshman class of Briarcliff College, New York, this week are MARY ELISE BUHL, daughter of the ARTHUR H. BUHLs, Jr., of Provençal road, and MARY JANE BLACK, daughter of the GEORGE M. BLACKS, Jr., of Touraine road.

Vacationing at the Grand Hotel, Mackinac Island last week were the JOHN W. BUDAS, of Pemberton road; the WILLIAM SCHERVISHES, of Fisher road; the DONALD H. SIZERS, of Roslyn road; and LOUIS A. CERRE, of Nottingham road.

Entering Kalamazoo College this week were GORDON F. STRAYER, JR., son of the Pair Speak Vows Saturday in St. Paul's on the Lakeshore; after Garden Reception in Bride's Home Leave for New York; Will Live in Virginia

Mr. and Mrs. George Forest Drummey, Jr., left for a wedding trip to New York after their marriage Saturday in St. Paul's on the lakeshore and the garden reception in the bride's home.

The bride, Lynne Sharon Scanes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest William Scanes, of McKinley avenue wore a gown of white peau de soie accented with heirloom lace. An orange blossom crown held her fingertip veil of illusion and she carried white mums and stephanotis centered with an orchid.

Mareta Tucker, of White Plains, N.Y., was maid of honor in autumn green with a bouquet of yellow Fugi mums. The bridesmaids, dressed like Miss Tucker, were Jane Politt, of Fairlawn, N.J.; Rosemary Schultz, Donna Feucht, and Mary Catherine Drummey, the bridegroom's sister.

Mr. Drummey, son of the senior Drummeyes, of South Bend, Ind., asked Thomas Egan, of Washington, D.C., to be best man.

Seating the guests were Thomas Driscoll, Jack Dempsey, of Washington, D.C., and Lee Howard, of Park Ridge, Illinois.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Scanes chose a purple silk gown. Mrs. Drummey was in sapphire blue.

When the newlyweds left on their wedding trip the bride was wearing a teal blue silk suit and fuschia hat.

They will live in Arlington, Va., while Mr. Drummey completes his last year of law at Georgetown University.

For the afternoon rites the bride wore a short sleeved, heirloom lace gown with a sabrina neckline and bouffant skirt. A cap of lace and seed pearls held her fingertip veil and she carried stephanotis and orchids.

Judith Lee Hey was her sister's maid of honor in jadeite taffeta. She carried bronze chrysanthemums. Terrance McNeal came from

GPYC Keglers Open Season

Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's men and women keglers had a real fun fete last Thursday, Sept. 18, at the pre-bowling party staged as a prelude to serious league bowling. The league season got under way this past Monday, the 22nd.

Couples came early for cocktails, dinner and dancing in the Fo'Castle adjoining GPYC's bowling alley section. Dinner was dispatched quickly by a goodly number—open kegling was the evening's highlight, and they wanted to try out their form as soon as possible.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest R. Old (he's bowling chairman) were the center of groups during the cocktail hour — everyone wanted a chat with the head man. With them was Mrs. Old's mother, Mrs. John McNeil Burns.

It was a jolly, informal party. Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Parkin were among the first arrivals, she in a long-sleeved, dark-hued jacket dress. Noted too were the John Mutschalls, the John W. Bennetts, Mr. and Mrs. James T. Barnes, the James N. Mutschalls, the Henry A. Irwins.

The Arthur Bartholomews, Jr. and Bill O. Brinks came together, Mrs. Bartholomew most attractive in a geranium red dress, the color setting off her dark hair with its silver strands at the front.

Vice Como, Robert F. Weber and Mrs. Weber and the Paul Morelands were greeted at every side—but then, everyone greeted everyone else in that high good humor of a new season starting.

The Stark Hickeys were among the dancers—the Art Quatro band played throughout the party and among others who took time out for dancing were the Richard J. Martins, the LeRoy Paynes, the Peter J. Gallettes (the Gallettes had just returned from the Greenbrier at White Sulphur).

Dr. Clarence J. Williams got to the bowling alleys as soon as dinner was over—this inveterate kegler made strike after strike, while Mrs. Williams was visiting with the Cletus Wellings, Edward Schoenherr, Howard Shaws, and James Degaans — Mrs. Degan so smart in charcoal-hued fine wool suit with hipbone, back swing jacket and highcollared white blouse.

Haford Kerbawy and James Quello were others who seemed to make strikes each time they bowled—Mrs. Quello was divided between strikes and spares, while Mrs. Kerbawy took time out from the alleys to visit with friends.

Among others at the fun party were the A. J. Daltons, the Paul Ackermans, Mr. and Mrs. Leo M. Biggs, the Glenn Walkers, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin F. Sanders, the Frank R. Dimonds, the E. E. Lundbergs, Dr. and Mrs. Harold E. Cross, the Earl Frasers, the Maurice Germans, the John Botts, Dr. and Mrs. Fred O. Lepley, the R. R. Postels, the E. M. Gregor, Jr., and Mrs. George Williamson, Mr. Williamson being on an out-of-town business trip.

Catholic Women Sponsor Benefit for October 2

The East Central Deanery of the Detroit Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women will give a card party in Holy Name Parish School Hall on October 2.

Mrs. Guy Lauzzana and Mrs. Harry Theisen are organizing the benefit which raises funds for the Deanery Catholic Action work.

Mrs. Ralph Clark Nelson

At a recent ceremony in St. Michael's Church, ELIZABETH JEAN HEY, daughter of the Henry C. Heys, of McKinley avenue, was married to Mr. Nelson, son of the Harry Nelsons, of South Haven, Mich.

Dressell-Clancy Vows Spoken

Janet Elaine Dressell, daughter of the Albert H. Dressells, of Detroit, spoke her marriage vows recently to Lee E. Clancy, Jr. in Martha Mary Chapel, Dearborn.

The bride wore a period gown of white tissue taffeta and Chantilly lace. A matching cap of seed pearls held her fingertip veil of illusion and she carried white sweetheart roses, stephanotis and ivy.

Gail Dressell was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Beverly Castleberry, Barbara Sadowski, Kay Edwards, of Buffalo, N.Y., and Alice Rose. They wore royal blue taffeta frocks and carried white baby mums.

Keith Dressell was best man for the bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee E. Clancy, of Mt. Vernon road. Ushering were James Liddle, of Rochester; Lawrence Sherman, of Lincoln Park; John Momborg, of Royal Oak, and Bruce Grinager, of Farmington.

After a reception at Lovett Hall the couple left on a short wedding trip. They will live in Missouri where the bridegroom is on duty with the Army.

New advanced degree programs in technical programs were started in Flint, Midland, Grand Rapids, and Jackson by the University of Michigan Extension Service this year.

From Another Pointe of View

Family Reunions

Dutiful daughters are returning to the Pointe to visit their parents and also reunion with old friends who are grateful for the excuse for a party.

Mrs. George Birkett, of Nobleboro, Me., has been here this week with her mother, Mrs. Thaddeus Walker, of Harcourt road, and enjoying get-togethers with girlhood friends.

Expected this weekend for the same type of visit is Mrs. Kirke Neal, of Boston, who will be staying with her father, Dr. Sigurd Becker, of Devonshire road.

Drama Report

The drama addicts are beginning their season, too, with rehearsals going on all over town.

On October 3 Mrs. Henry Klein has invited the theater committee from Ixex to meet in her Touraine road home to plan the club's big February production.

In rehearsal right now for November 14 curtain is "Gigi." The popular musical will be produced by Theatre Arts and that drama group is anticipating a big season opening tea next month.

The Women's Auxiliary of Detroit Memorial Hospital have sent black tie invitations to the midwest premiere of "Cinerama-South Seas Adventure," at the Music Hall. Money raised from this unusual theater treat will help toward equipping a new psychiatric unit in the hospital.

Hunt Club Dancing Class

Out at the Hunt Club there will be something different this fall. The Bill Wilsons will be directing a new dancing group, husbands and wives, to meet weekly. Mrs. Walter Cavanaugh is helping to organize this club activity.

The Wednesday Musical rides at the Hunt Club are beginning this week too.

Sale to Be Held By Methodists

A rummage sale will be held next Thursday, October 2, at the Grosse Pointe Methodist Church in Moross road near Kercheval from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Heading the committee in charge are Mrs. Walter Kann, chairman; Mrs. Raymond Crockford, co-chairman; and Mrs. Francis Shaw, assistant chairman.

The sale will be organized into the following departments:—Children's wear, Mrs. F. Shaw; White Elephant, Mrs. P. Hart; Electrical appliances, Mrs. W. Grace; Household accessories, Mrs. D. McGraw; Women's dresses, Mrs. J. Wright; Men and boys' dept., Mrs. F. Steiner; Women's accessories, Mrs. C. Cordier; Hats and shoes, Mrs. H. Chumbley; Furniture, Mrs. A. Smith; Cashier, Mrs. H. Delfs.

Contributions for all departments will be handled by Mrs. Walter Kann at 830 Lincoln road, TU, 5-7435 or Mrs. Raymond Crockford at TU, 4-1123.

Museum Plans Old Time Fair

The public is invited to "Come to the Fair" on Saturday, October 4th at the Detroit Historical Museum. Members of the Detroit Historical Society Guild are putting on the Fair, with proceeds to benefit the Historical Museum.

Mrs. Robert McIntosh, of Bedford Road has been working since last spring with her committee, making articles for the Handmade Booth. Mrs. Harms of Ford Court is in charge of the Fish Bowl and Bean Bag contests; Miss Jean Perrett of Kensington has been collecting articles for the Cracker Barrel and Attic Shop; and Mrs. Robert Artner of Yorkshire is Chairman of the Food Committee. Mrs. A. E. Trubey of Stephens Road will be one of the photographers.

It is an "old time" fair, with lots of fun for young and old alike. Visitors will enjoy the barbershop quartet singing in the streets of Detroit, see spinning, weaving, candle making and glass blowing demonstrations, have their pictures taken in costume in an old fashioned setting. And outside, ride the fire engine and pony carts. There will be model trains in operation all day, a marine exhibit, and a fortune teller. Besides the General Store, there will be a variety of shops with interesting items for sale.

The Fair will open at 9 o'clock Saturday morning and close at 6 that evening. There is no charge for admission.

Purdue Univ. Women To Hear About Alaska

Under the leadership of its new president, Mrs. W. J. Mackle, Women of the Purdue University Club will hold its first meeting of the fall on Thursday, October 2, at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. T. J. Hughel, in Royal Oak.

Highlighting the evening's program will be a talk on a most timely subject by Mr. R. A. Smith. Mr. Smith recently traveled to Alaska and took many films. His talk will be entitled, "Alaska, our Newest State."

The Purdue Women seek to promote friendship and foster interest in the University. In addition, they raise funds to benefit needy women's cooperative houses on the campus at Lafayette, Indiana.

Any Alumnae, wives and mothers of Purdue Alumni or students are eligible for membership and are urged to become participants in the organization. Dues are two dollars annually and there are seven meetings during the club year.

Other officers for the coming year are: Mrs. K. L. Kimmel, vice-president; Mrs. R. W. EK, secretary, and Mrs. C. Pellman, treasurer. The program arrangements are under the chairmanship of Mrs. C. Langworthy.

Mistakes, recognized and analyzed, pay the highest dividends in the world.

Most every man has his price—but in most cases the denominations of the currency differ.

Lochmoor Decorates For President's Ball

Lochmoor Club's 41st annual President's Ball will be held Saturday, September 27th honoring club president Gordon D. Skinner and Mrs. Skinner.

'All that glitters will be gold' at the formal ball as the committee in charge has themed the party to a gold and white decor. Mr. and Mrs. Louis DeHayes, Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Woodbridge and Dr. and Mrs. R. Sidney Sinclair are chairmen on arrangements.

Mr. and Mrs. Skinner will be hosts to 200 guests at a cocktail party in their Elm Court home before departing for the club to begin the gala evening.

To welcome the arriving guests a white carpet will be rolled out at the main entrance to the club house between stanchions connected with gold roping which will lead up the steps to the front door.

In the foyer Mr. and Mrs. Skinner and the club's directors and their wives will form a receiving line against a mirrored wall which will reflect two enormous floral arrangements in gold and white placed on standards at either side.

The 40 foot hors d'oeuvre table, for guests who will gather for the 7 o'clock club cocktail party in the main lounge, will present a fabulous picture in white and gold satin. Shimmering ice carvings flanking a lavish centerpiece of gold and white fall flowers interspersed with glittered leaves will decorate the table.

At 9 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Skinner will be escorted to the ballroom to signal the serving of dinner. The table of honor will be distinguished by a massive floral arrangement with miniature gilded gavels tied with satin ribbons tucked in here and there among the blossoms. Seated at the head table will be Mr. and Mrs.

Harold Diegel; Mr. and Mrs. Lance Skinner; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brinker; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Kane and their guests the Gordon Olivers; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gallagher and Mr. and Mrs. William Edwards.

For this momentous occasion the lovely Mrs. Skinner has selected for her ball gown an imported Chantilly lace in sombre tones of gray over pure white silk satin.

Directly after dinner and before dancing begins to the music of Jack Qualey and Max Pitt. Mrs. Skinner will be presented with a traditional bouquet of American Beauty roses and Mr. Skinner will receive a memento of his evening from the immediate past-president Murray MacDonald.

A long list of reservations has already been turned in among whom are Mr. and Mrs. William Siebert who will have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wainman and the James Quellos. They will share a table with Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Reichle; Mr. and Mrs. David Lowe; Murray MacDonald; Mr. and Mrs. Brent Smith; Mr. and Mrs. W. Hurst Montee; Mr. and Mrs. Warren Weiler and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Eskridge.

Others are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Newton; Mr. and Mrs. James Dodge; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Birbauer; Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Carpenter; Mr. and Mrs. Philip O'Connell; Mr. and Mrs. Kent Zimmerman; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Decker; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. McCormick; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sullivan; Mr. and Mrs. Clark W. Pearson; Mr. and Mrs. William Trader; Mr. and Mrs. Willis Bullard; Mr. and Mrs. George Root and Mr. and Mrs. Emil Wulz.

To Fete Prexy At Lakepointe

Saturday night, September 27, will be the big night of the year for members of Lakepointe Country Club.

The traditional President's Day dinner dance, which has always marked the end of the summer's golfing activities and the beginning of the winter social season, has been expanded to include the club's tenth anniversary and the celebration of the annual trophy awarding.

This triple activities program will be chairmaned by Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Friesema (he's chairman of the board of directors), and Mr. and Mrs. William Bickel, the club's social chairman.

Cocktails will be served at 7 o'clock and the cocktail hour will honor the club's president, Mr. and Mrs. Louis G. Palmer. The board of directors will be the honorary hosts and hostesses for the evening. They include Mr. and Mrs. Earl Boonstra, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Friesema, Mr. and Mrs. James Quello, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Taube and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Woodard.

The club's chef is preparing a towering ten-layer cake around which the birthday celebration will center. Each layer will be inscribed with the names of the club champions for that particular year. Following the cake-cutting ceremony, the two golf chairmen, Herbert Epstein and Mrs. George Bell will present the trophies and awards to the season's successful golfers. The entertainment chairman, Mr.

and Mrs. Gene Charles, have arranged a spectacular floor show to complete the evening. Early reservations have been made by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Keil, Dr. and Mrs. Donald Van Hoek, Mr. John LaFata, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Fewless and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Davis.

Cooperative Nursery Play Group Opens Oct. 7

The new cooperative Grosse Pointe Woods Nursery Play Group will hold its first session on October 7 at the Grosse Pointe Woods Community Center.

Thirty children, ages three to five, will meet from 9 a. m. to 11 a. m. each Tuesday under the direction of Patricia Raus, of 1325 Aline, and her assistant, Jean Wahlig. The classes have been filled since early September.

Pair Speak Vows in Grosse Pointe Congregational Church with Reception Following at the Whittier; Will Live in Utica

The Grosse Pointe Congregational Church was the setting for the Saturday wedding of Julie Ella Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Evans of Madison avenue and Allen J. Billups, son of Mrs. Doyle Billups of Hawthorne road, in an evening ceremony performed by Rev. Marcus Johnson.

The bride chose a gown of full length lace with tiny seed pearls at the neckline. A crown of pearls held her fingertip veil of illusion and she carried white carnations fashioned in a cascade.

Mrs. James Schroeder, Carolyn Sutton and Joy Tesch were attendants and wore yellow, aqua and orchid under white lace. They carried matching carnation bouquets.

James Billups was his brother's best man and the ushers were Henry Eberwein and Donald Schwan.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Evans wore a beige lace sheath dress with three quarter length sleeves and matching accessories. Mrs. Billups was in a light blue silk dress with matching hat.

A reception at the Whittier Hotel followed the ceremony. The couple will reside in Utica, Michigan.

Church Forms Study Groups

The Women's Association of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church will sponsor two study groups this fall under the direction of Mrs. Ben Tallman. Japan will be the subject, and the book, "Cross and Crisis in Japan," by Charles W. Ingelhart, will be reviewed and discussed.

The Wednesday Study Group met September 24 at the home of Mrs. Tallman, in McKinley avenue. Two more meetings are scheduled for October 22 and November 19. Discussion leaders for this group are Mrs. John A. Lang, Mrs. Fred Adams and Mrs. William T. Krebs.

The Monday Study Group will have its first meeting at the home of Mrs. Tallman on October 6 at 1 p.m. Subsequent meetings of the group will be on November 3 and December 1. The study leaders for this group will be Mrs. Ebert Warren, Mrs. John V. Quivinen, and Mrs. Glen W. Fortinberry.

All church women and women of the parish are cordially invited to attend and may register now by calling TU 2-5396.

Center Resumes Ballet Classes

Enrollment for the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's perennially popular ballet classes under the direction of Mary Ellen Cooper is scheduled for Friday, September 26 from 3 to 6 p. m. and on Saturday, September 27, from 9:30 to 3 p. m.

Mothers with children desiring to take lessons are urged to come and see Miss Cooper during those hours so as to be enrolled in the proper groups. It is especially necessary for those taking ballet for the first time from Miss Cooper to be interviewed by her.

Ballet classes are held at the Center week days after school, Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays and all day Saturdays. Enrollment is open to girls of five years of age on up. The cost is $21.00 for 12 lessons ages 5 to 10 and $25 for 12 lessons ages 10 and over.

Wednesday evenings Miss Cooper teaches a special Adult Class for women and is currently taking enrollments for this group also. The cost is $24 for 12 lessons.

Miss Cooper is a graduate of the Royal Conservatory of Ballet in Toronto and is an exponent of the Cecchetti or traditional Italian method of Ballet Instruction. A member of one of Detroit's outstanding musical families, Miss Cooper came to the Center as Olga Fricker's assistant in 1950. She has been in complete charge of the school since 1953 when Miss Fricker moved to California. Mrs. Cooper plays accompaniment for her daughter's classes.

Bride-Elect

Mr. and Mrs. William J. McEntee, of University place, announce the engagement of their daughter, JULIANNE, to Thomas A. O'Gara, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. O'Gara, of Kansas City, Mo.

Earl Meyer Family Has Busy Schedule

The Earl G. Meyer family, of Touraine road, have returned from their diverse summer vacation spots, taken a quick breather at home, and headed on their various geographical routes once again.

Daughter Marilyn, recently returned from a European tour with her two aunts, has left for her junior year at DePauw University. Her father drove her back to school, in Greencastle, Ind.

Mrs. Meyer has just returned from Glen Arbor, Mich., where she left son Dick, at the Leelenau School. And younger sister, Cheri, having spent the summer at Chippawa Ranch, has returned to her studies in the favorable atmosphere of the new Brownell Jr. High School.

Mrs. Meyer's mother, Mrs. A. W. Johnston, has returned to the family homestead after a summer in New York State.

Pointers Leave For Bradford

The following local girls will enter Bradford Junior College, Bradford, Mass., this fall: Judith Baldwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter D. Baldwin of Oxford road; Linda Denton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leet M. Denton of Oxford road; Stephanie Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Hall of Harbor hill; Frances Merkel, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles C. Merkel of East Jefferson avenue; Mary Muirhead, daughter of Mrs. Stanley N. Muirhead of Kenwood road; and Louise Symington of Provincial road.

Freshman orientation week is the first event when the college opens for its 156th year on September 23. Miss Baldwin and Miss Symington are graduates of Foxcroft School, Middlebury, Va.; Miss Denton, Miss Merkel and Mrs. Hall are graduates of Miss Porter's School, Farmington, Conn.; and Miss Muirhead is a graduate of Chatham Hall, Chatham, Va.

Club at Center Holding Dance

The Center Club of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, 32 Lake Shore road, will be holding its first affair of the season at the Memorial on Friday evening, October 3, at 9 o'clock. The group has already held a pre-dance get-together which over 80 attended so that the first dance should be a congenial and pleasant occasion for all.

All young single adults in the five Grosse Pointes in their twenties and thirties are cordially invited. Particularly welcome are the teachers of the schools in Grosse Pointe to whom the Center Club offers an opportunity to meet other young business and professional people in the community.

The entire main floor of Alger House will be reserved for the party with Bill Knicy's orchestra providing the music. Candelit refreshment tables will be placed in the main dining room and loggia and the lakeside terrace and formal garden will be floodlit for strolling.

It is not necessary to have a date for this party. Everyone will be warmly welcomed and introduced to the group. It is a good idea to attend this opening mixer so that you will be on deck for the many pleasant affairs which follow throughout the year such as group attendance at football games, theater parties, skating parties, ski trips, picnics, potluck suppers and a host of other pleasant events.

Harvest Moon Due Sept. 27

Since rockets and artificial satellites continually are drawing more attention to our moon, perhaps September's Harvest Moon will turn out to be a special feature this year, says Hazel M. Losh, University of Michigan astronomer.

The full moon of Sept. 27 will be the Harvest Moon because it is the full moon nearest the date of the autumnal equinox, when the days and nights are nearly equal, Professor Losh explains.

The peculiarity of this full moon as distinguished from those of other months is that there is less difference in the time of its rise each night, she says. "On the average the moon rises nearly an hour later each night, but this delay varies considerably during the year, due to the angle that the moon's path makes with the eastern horizon."

In the autumn this retardation is the shortest of the whole year, and is around 20 minutes in contrast to more than an hour in the spring, she continues. "Consequently the Harvest Moon will rise at approximately the same hour for several nights in succession, and bright moonlight will prevail the whole night through."

The Harvest Moon is likely to appear larger than usual and take on quite a reddish appearance near the horizon, Professor Losh explains. "This is due to the condition of the earth's atmosphere and not to the moon itself. The molecules of the air and the dust particles suspended in it scatter the light, with blue rays scattered more than red ones."

In addition, at this time of the year a greater dustiness prevails in the air. The object consequently takes on a reddish appearance.

"The apparently larger size of the full moon near the horizon is an optical illusion, and has nothing to do with the Harvest Moon itself, but is due to the comparison of it with nearby terrestrial objects," she adds.

Pillar Auxiliary to Give Card Party and Sale

Pillar Ladies Auxiliary will have a fall card party October 1 with luncheon beginning at 12:30 o'clock at the Pillar Temple in Kercheval avenue.

The Auxiliary is also sponsoring a Rummage Sale on October 17 in the Temple beginning at 10 o'clock.

Corned Beef Dinner Oct. 9

Every boy deserves a chance!

Widespread support for this proposition explains the success of the annual CYO Corned Beef and Cabbage Dinner which will be held at the Masonic Temple Thursday evening, October 9.

Tickets for the dinner, to which all friends of homeless youth are cordially invited, are $10 each. All proceeds are used to meet the annual operating deficit of the CYO Home for Boys, where more than 1,700 neglected youngsters have found shelter since 1939.

Ticket sales and donations are the only means the CYO has of raising funds to sustain the Home. The fact that the Home is still in operation is evidence of the warm generosity of men and women of all religions and walks of life who have supported the dinner over two decades.

CYO officials estimate that approximately $25,000 will be needed to meet the deficit for the next 12 months. Even if the dining room is filled to capacity Oct. 9, the dinner itself will not raise more than half that amount. The CYO depends upon donations for the remainder—and it hasn't been disappointed yet.

The CYO Home is open to all boys in need, regardless of their race or religion. Often these boys have literally no place else to go. They are in deep need, the innocent victims of homes shattered by death, desertion or divorce. One hundred and fifty boys found a haven at the Home in the past year. The demand will likely be greater in the next 12 months.

At the Home the boys get food, shelter and clothing. What is vastly more important, they receive understanding and firm guidance from the staff of Xaverian brothers under the direction of Bro. Ivan, C.F.X. They get what they want most—an honest chance to make something fine out of their lives.

Jack Lavelle, chief scout for the New York Giants professional football team and a most forthright story teller, will be the guest speaker. James B. Wagstaff, general manager of the DeSoto Division of Chrysler Corporation, will be the toastmaster.

Tickets may be obtained now from any member of the CYO board of directors or from the CYO office, 305 Michigan Ave., WO 3-1175. Plan now to come to the dinner with the family, or with a party of friends.

Carol Ann Henry Weds Mr. Whitman

A reception at the Country Club followed the Saturday wedding of Carol Ann Henry, daughter of the T. Jack Henrys, of Sunningdale drive, and Peter Depew Whitman.

For the rites the bride chose a duchess satin gown veiled with silk illusion and trimmed with imported French lace. A Juliet cap of heirloom rosepointe lace veiled her full length illusion veil and she carried white orchids, star ivy and stephanotis.

Mrs. John Jacob Carle II, matron of honor, wore a sapphire ribbed silk frock designed on empire lines and a matching velvet headband. She carried white butterfly roses and blue delphinium.

The bridesmaids, dressed like the honor attendant, were Martha Adam, Cherry Powers, Susan Mulford, Lollie Ecclestone, Ann Foster and Julie Cudlip.

Oscar L. Buhrs, of Lakeland avenue, asked John Standish to be his best man. Ushering were Thomas Jack Henry, Jr., the bride's brother; Henry H. Hubbard III, Robert Lambrecht, Charles Walton, George Hefferan, Jr., and Thomas White, of Acme, Mich.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Henry wore brown re-embroidered Alencon lace and chiffon and carried lime green cymbidium orchids. Mrs. Buhr was in blue peau de soie appliqued with lace and a matching hat. Her flowers were Juliana orchids.

Present at the ceremony were the bridal pair's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth S. MacKinnon, of Toronto, and C. N. Henry, of Windsor.

Society to Hold Winter Carnival

Freezers are filling up with tea accompaniments, an endless variety of handmade gifts is accumulating in attics and closets, models practice their pivots, and there's a flurry of conferences at every hand as members of the Christ Child Society go into the last weeks of seven months of preparation for their annual Winter Carnival.

President Mrs. T. J. McCarthy, Jr., and Carnival general chairman Mrs. Hugh E. Ruthven announce this seventh annual event will take place at the Latin Quarter, Friday, November 7.

The bazaar, fashion show and tea will be from 1 to 5 o'clock, and the cabaret party from 9 to 1:30 o'clock.

All the membership is characteristically pitching in to make it their biggest and best for the sake of the brand new Christ Child House just opened this last spring.

Pointers Help In YMCA Drive

Five Grosse Pointers participated in the annual Fishers of Men campaign for the Hannan Memorial Branch YMCA. During the citywide campaign from September 12 to September 24, qualified men and women were sought for volunteer work in the YMCA Youth program.

Norman Matthews of Rivard boulevard, chairman of the Hannan campaign, Mrs. Dorothy Myers of Bedford road, Warren Boden of Hollywood road, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Storm of Beaconsfield avenue attended the enthusiastic kick-off dinner at Hannan Y.M.C.A. September 12.

Following the invocation by the Reverend Robert L. Selberg of St. Mark's Methodist Church and a delicious dinner served by the Hannan Mothers' Club, chairman Norman Matthews and John E. Miller, Jr., Hannan Youth Work Secretary, gave a humorous demonstration of right and wrong methods of recruiting volunteers and explained the jobs for which volunteer workers are needed.

Leonard Proctor, chairman of the citywide Fishers of Men campaign, explained the importance of the campaign and described the training session for volunteer workers to be held October 4 at the South

Oakland Y.M.C.A. Mr. Proctor congratulated the Hannan group for having "one of the best organized, enthusiastic groups to participate this year."

Directing the Hannan Fishers of Men campaign are Norman Matthews, chairman; John E. Miller, Jr., Hannan Youth Work secretary; and Eugene C. Howard, chairman of the Hannan Youth Work Committee. Campaign workers include Mrs. Hazel Sovich, Mrs. Arda Kord, Mrs. Dorothy Myers, Mrs. Geneva Evans, Mrs. Winnie Anderson, Mrs. Dorothy Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Len Krauss, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Storm, Reverend Robert Selberg, Dennis Foutz, Jack Cleland, Warren Boden and Leslie Pohlman.

Volunteers are needed for craft shop assistants, stamp leader, chess and checker club leader, poster maker, office helpers, photographer, publicity editor, Youth Work committee, Camp committee, Mothers' Club and Y's Men's Club. Volunteers should contact Norman Matthews, VA. 5-0262, or John Miller, VA. 2-7200.

When we speak of the best time of our lives we usually refer to those in the past or future.

Barrett-Cameron Rites Solemnized

West Indies Cruise Follows Saturday Ceremony In Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church; Newlyweds to Live In North Carolina

In white mist silk taffeta Jeanette Dee Cameron, daughter of the Gordon Nelson Camerons, of Hampton road, spoke her marriage vows Saturday to Lt. Robert Todd Barrett in Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church.

Her wedding gown was designed with a fitted bodice and portrait neckline of Alencon lace. Appliques of re-embroidered Alencon lace held the side fullness of the skirt which deepened into a chapel train. A cap of matching heirloom lace held her illusion veil and she carried Eucharist lilies, stephanotis and ivy.

Mrs. William Henry Moeller was matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Suzanne Janetzke, of Flint; Julia Smith, Selma Sadi and the flower girl was the bride's cousin, Cynthia Roberts.

The attendants were gowned in topaz satin with daisy chrysanthemums in fall shades.

Mr. Barrett, son of the Robert Wilson Barretts, of Mt. Lebanon, Pa., asked his brother, Donald C. Barrett to be best man.

Ushering were Paul A. Bowler, Jr. and David L. Jones, both of Mt. Lebanon.

St. Clare Club To Hold Dance

The St. Clare Young Adult Club (Jolis Coeurs) has planned another of its famous Holiday dances for Friday, September 26, this time the theme being that of Paris, the city of enchantment and excitement.

The church auditorium, Mack and Whittier will be set in a scene similar to the famous out-door cafes and there'll be lots of fun for all.

Johnny Lambert will begin playing at 9 and there'll be refreshments. All young adults between the ages of 18 and 30 are urged to attend. The donation is $1.00.

Girl Scout News

The first meeting of Leaders' Association of Girl Scouts of the Grosse Pointe District was on Wednesday, September 10, at the Congregational Church.

This was a workshop with instruction and information for new and established leaders of troops.

The morning session was a sample troop meeting with games, songs, flag ceremonies, crafts and working patrols. In the afternoon, the program planning calendar for troops was discussed. Several district activities for all Girl Scouts is planned for the year.

The instructors for the workshop were Mrs. John Gajewski, First Year Brownie; Mrs. Kenneth Eckert, Second Year Brownie; Mrs. Simon Morath, Third Year Brownie; Mrs. Arnold G. Fredricksen, First Year Intermediate; Mrs. H. A. Carsen, Second Year Intermediate; Mrs. Harold Nofzt, Junior High; Mrs. Edward H. Kay, Senior High.

The officers for Leaders' Association are; Chairman, Mrs. Kenneth Eckert; Program Chairman, Mrs. Guenther Buerger; Secretary, Mrs. Fredrick Bohl; Nominating Chairman, Mrs. R. O. Artner.

Absly assisting in the planning of this meeting were Mrs. Edward H. Kay, District Program Chairman and Mrs. Earl Wade, former Program Chairman for Leaders' Association.

The next meeting of Leaders' Association will be a "Handicraft Holiday" on October 8.

ALL STEAMED UP

Smoke rising from her dishwashing machine prompted Mrs. D. R. Simmons, of 478 Lincoln road, to call the City fire department last Tuesday. The firefighters, upon arriving at the house, rushed into the kitchen armed with their pump, et al—discovered that it was steam from the hot water that was the cause of Mrs. Simmon's undue anxiety!

Principia School Grads Holding Auction and Fair

Alumnae of Principia School in St. Louis, Mo., will give an old fashioned country fair and auction October 4 in a country setting near Rochester.

Sponsor of the auction is the Principia Patrons Committee of Southeastern Michigan, alumnae of the school for Christian Scientists. The site of the fair is 1911 Crooks road.

Grosse Pointers active in the committee are Mrs. Fred Fox, Mrs. Dean Joki, Mrs. Clinton Wood, Mrs. Dewey Petersen, Mrs. Robert Erwin and Mrs. John Nash.

GPHS Band to Play In Huge Spectacle

The Grosse Pointe High School Marching Band will travel to Ann Arbor on Saturday, September 27, to take part in the University of Michigan's Band Day. This has become an annual affair for the band as they along with thousands of other high school bandmen from all over the state take part in the huge spectacle.

The appointment was made last spring before the High School's local football schedule was finalized. When it became apparent that a conflict existed and that the Blue Devils would play their home-opener on that day the bandmen had to choose between the two commitments. Inasmuch as special music had been ordered and received and considerable work already put into preparing for Band Day, they voted to go to Ann Arbor as promised.

but, to date, none have been received. Miss Trilck believes they are all at the Gorham Engineering firm of the owners, at 25874 Wyoming.

The NEWS office has been swamped with calls from the irate customers, asking for action on the matter. Many of these women have gone to the Better Business Bureau with, it would seem, legitimate complaints.

An optimist hopes for the best and makes the most of what he gets.

Everyone Knows Meaning, But No One Knows Origin

In the patois of the press, —30— is the end.

But where the tight little symbol came from is not only clouded in mystery; its origin is downright controversial.

Half the newsmen in America tag their stories with —30— But you could put the names of those who know its origin in a hat.

And from each there'd be a different explanation—and an argument to back it.

No newspaper term is perhaps as well known to the public as —30—.

Along press row, some of the more popular versions of the birth of —30 go like this:

In a wire service office in Los Angeles a Western Union telegrapher recalls hearing that the —30— symbol started with a WU operator, back in the bicycle days of Morse code.

The old WU operator's name was "T-H-U-R-T-Y". As he clicked off his daily file of stories, Thirty would sign each one: THURTY. The sign-off became a byword along the Morse line.

Other telegraphers picked it up and made it "Thirty." Then, at last, —30—. Then there's the yarn told in the composing room of a Chicago daily by a grizzled printer with hands like mercury.

He remembers hearing that —30— originated during the pre-typewriter era of journalism. In those days, all news copy was written in longhand by reporters. To indicate clearly the end of their stories, they adapted a numerical symbol. Which, as legend has it, was —30—.

But why was the symbol —30—, and not —40— or —50—? A headline writer on the rim of a Philadelphia paper has one answer.

He claims that —30— stemmed from the fact that 30 words was just the right fit in a stick of type—in the days when newspaper body type was also set by hand.

The editor of a Midwestern weekly disputes all of these stories. His claim is that —30— began with a columnist, who saw to it that each of his columns contained thirty items. And when this was done, he simply ended it with —30—, which gave notice to the composing room that that was the end of the piece.

Finally, in upstate New York a cub reporter has this contribution. He maintains that the end mark in the early days of newspapering was "#". The mark is still used widely.

However, when typewriters came along, reporters found that it was quicker to hit the "#" key without going to upper case. What came out was "3". To tie it up more neatly, they just added an "O". And —30— was born.

If all the —30— marks used by the nation's newsmen were laid end to end they'd probably circle the earth. But where did the thing really begin?

Nearly 80,000 specimens were added to the permanent collection of the University of Michigan Museum of Zoology last year.

When the POINTE was growing up...

By PAT TALBOT

Just around the bend from Sunset lane on the lake-shore about 1875 lived D. Bethune Duffield, whose antecedents and descendants have been as prominent as any in Detroit or Grosse Pointe history. There are Duffields today carrying on the family tradition in the Pointe, Pontiac, Rochester, Birmingham and Detroit areas and they all stem from the famous Presbyterian minister, the Rev. George Duffield, originally of Pennsylvania.

The prominent pastor came to Detroit in 1837, the year Michigan became a state, to serve as head of the First Presbyterian Church. His second son, D. Bethune, was the brother who settled in the Pointe when the first summer colonists arrived here after the Civil War. Before building his vacation cottage Mr. Duffield had become a lawyer of note in that city, entering partnership with another famous early Pointer, George Van Ness Lothrop. He was a member of the Detroit Board of Education in 1847, the board that helped establish the first public high school and library. Another of his causes was the Detroit Ribbon Society. In pre-civil war days this was a memorable temperance crusade.

He was a hard worker for the Republican party, an avowed abolitionist and a great speaker for recruiting during the war. His brother Henry was to carry the Duffield name to the battlements.

Henry enlisted as a private with the Ninth Michigan Volunteers and became a general in the Army of the Cumberland under Union General George Thomas. Henry married Frances Merrill Pitts during the war and this couple had seven sons. Henry also fought again in the Spanish-American war, was first president of the Michigan State Bar Association and served his country as umpire in the German-Venezuelan arbitration in 1903. He was the Duffield who pushed General Russell Alger's candidacy for president.

Henry and D. Bethune Duffield had an only sister, Isabella Graham, who married Dr. Morse Stewart, one of Detroit's most popular doctors. The Stewarts built a modest frame home near St. Paul's Church on the lake-shore and enjoyed many summers at Rest Cottage.

As the years went on the spring safari to the Pointe became too much for D. Bethune Duffield and he sold his home in 1885, (just before the old Country Club was built), to Martin S. Smith, a member of Alger Smith and Company, lumber merchants, keeping the property in the close knit group of business and professional titans who were the Pointe's first suburban colony.

who, where and whatnot

by whoozit

Garden wedding receptions are always in vogue and none was more charming than the Eunice Hefferan-Harry Jewett gala held on the lawns of the George B. Hefferans' home in Merriweather road. Flaming swords lighted the gardens and black iron urns filled with yellow blooms carried out the color scheme of the bridesmaids' dresses and the huge striped canopy.

Incidentally one of the dearly prized wedding gifts was an antique wig stand, used nowadays as a planter and very fetching too.

Bride-elect Mary Kate Worcester, who will wed Jack Hastings this Saturday, has been attending the pre-nuptial parties which are her due in some gorgeous frocks. One was a Kelly green satin brocade with a bloomed, paneled bodice and a gored skirt.

Trying to be a good Christian threw Bob Lubeck more than knee deep into trouble a few Sundays past. Christ Church has been undergoing some re-modeling and there are some treacherous holes dug by the workmen which make the driveway perilous to negotiate for the worshippers. Mr. L. gallantly offered to escort a little old lady across the entrance which was studded with pitfalls. He conveyed her safely across and was returning to his car when he fell shoulder deep in a hole, getting his Sunday go-to-meeting toes a bit disheveled. He went on to the service after a quick brush off.

Mother Nature can get confused as to the season, too. In the backyard of the Joseph H. Weber home in Mt. Vernon road a proud Easter lily is blooming in great grandeur these nippy days.

PILFERINGS

From the Northridge, Calif., "Northridger": "Girl Scout leader's hat—leader worn out—hat like new."

When an assistant told the head librarian of the Louisville Public Library that certain books were never read because the subject matter was so difficult, the head librarian brought all these books together in an attractive display in the front of the library under a sign: "Warning—These Books Are Difficult to Read and Require Advanced Knowledge."

Every book on the shelf went into immediate circulation.

You never get indigestion from swallowing your pride.

We can't break the Ten Commandments; we can only break ourselves against them... Cecil B. Demille.

St. Columba Auxiliary Meeting on October 1

The Woman's Auxiliary of St. Columba Church will hold its monthly meeting on Wednesday, October 1. The usual schedule for the day will be: choral communion, 10:30 a.m.; Bible study, 11:15 a.m.; luncheon, 12:30 p.m.; program, 1:15 p.m.; business meeting, 2 p.m. The guest speaker of the day will be a member of the board from William's House, the Episcopal home for girls. She will explain more fully the work the home does for juvenile girls and how the church can aid in that work. Reservations for luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. John Werdein, VA. 4-0840, president of St. Margaret's Guild, the hostess for the October luncheon.

Pointer of Interest

LADY JAMES EASTON, OF LAKELAND AVENUE

by Patricia Talbot

You can't imagine Lady James Easton, who appears to the manner born, standing in a fish queue with charwomen and munitions workers, but this is what she had to do during World War II. The wife of Great Britain's new consul to Detroit, Lady Easton is a Canadian by birth and met her husband when he was lent by the British government to the Canadian Royal Air Force in Ottawa.

Unlike many consular families, the Eastons have come to Detroit from 13 uninterupted years in London. Sir James Easton was an Air Commodore in the Battle of Britain and went into the Foreign Service after the victory. The Eastons were bombed out of three houses during the war so accept new household effects as a usual occurrence. Presently the ministry has decided to do over the consul's home in Lakeland avenue and all the fabrics are being done up in England.

Arrived in May

The Eastons assumed their post in May just in time to be hosts at the Queen's birthday party in June, a garden reception, and the most important consular party on their calendar. They left their Victorian home in South Kensington to a Swiss housekeeper. Before moving they had a complete apartment made over for their two children, Janet, 15 and David, 17, who go to school in England.

The children have just returned to England, flying from Montreal, after spending six weeks in the Pointe being feted at a round of parties. Before leaving the two gave a dinner party before a Little Club dance.

British Teen Ager

Janet, a dark haired beauty, envies American girls their freedom. At St. Margaret's School, where she is a boarder, discipline is much stricter. Her brother David, who is finishing at Stowe this year, and sitting for Oxford next fall, believes American parents treat their teen agers too much like children, don't give them enough responsibility or independence.

Lady Easton has been thrilled by the welcome she and her family have received from Grosse Pointe residents. The biggest surprise to her was the local supermarkets. The display of food was overwhelming and she couldn't get used to searching for the items on her market list. Until recently food rationing has been quite a problem in Britain and the American grocery, with every conceivable eatable spread out before the housewife, is still quite an eye-opener to this shopper who has been accustomed to trooping through several stores to complete her market list.

More Formal Entertaining Buffet dinners, which Lady Easton finds charming in their informality here, are not the usual mode of entertaining in London. But then there is more household help. The Eastons brought their English maid with them.

Their chief job here, as representatives of Her Majesty's government, is to serve as public relations envoys. They do a great deal of entertaining. In the past few weeks they have had as house guests, the Consul General from Washington, their son's school matron, the information officer from the Embassy, Sir Easton's sister, and a friend of Janet's from Philadelphia. The pace will pick up now that summer is over and the children back in school.

Perhaps because this past summer was one of the Pointe's best, the Eastons are charmed by the weather. London had one of the worst seasons in many years.

On Tuesday the Eastons were honored at a party given by the Daughters of the British Empire. This group and all citizens and descendants of Great Britain are delighted to have the Eastons here to represent the best of their country.

During the winter, after the decorators have finished, Lady Easton hopes to return to her girlhood hobby, oil painting. Like most English people the Eastons are dedicated gardeners and have great plans for the large lawns behind their house.

Excellent representatives of Her Majesty's government are the new consul and his lady. He is the dapper, gallant and suave Englishman Americans have come to expect as typical of the British gentleman, and his lady is a poised, soft spoken, well-mannered counterpart. They hope to remain here for three years at least, making friends for themselves as well as her Majesty's government.

Soak in salt water 24 hours. Boil salt water boiled, and so salty an egg will float. After 24 hours drain and add dressing.

Dressing

3/4 cup flour
6 Tb. mustard
1 Tb. celery seed
2 quarts of vinegar
2 cups sugar
1 Tb. tumeric
Let sauce and pickles come to a boil. Makes nine pints.

Elections Held By Pointe SCF

At the first fall meeting of the Grosse Pointe Unit of the Save the Children's Federation, held last Thursday, officers for the coming year were elected.

President for the 1958-59 term will be Mrs. Harry Watson. Serving as vice-president will be Mrs. William Meecham, and secretary, Mrs. Elmer Ehlentfeld. Mrs. Sidney Roskilly is the newly-elected treasurer. Mesdames Joseph C. Brown and John Rowe will be the group's chairman of the flower fund and sewing chairman, respectively.

New members were made welcome and are still being accepted by the organization. For further information, call Mrs. Verne Feller, TU 4-4802.

Uneasy lies the head that tries to make a living without working for it.

Good News... and good fashion too... for the youthful half-size figure. The Paula Dean Fall-Winter Showing of her collection will be modeled at Jacobson's on September twenty-fifth in the Dress Salon from ten till four... refreshments will be served.

ABC's mean black board time to some... vitamin time to mother's! Trail Pharmacy knows both play an important part in fall planning and remind us of some fine products, such as... Abdec by Parke Davis... Unicaps by Upjohn... Multicobrin by Lilly. These are the regular one a day variety. For the therapeutic kind, which contain vitamins AND minerals there is Theregran-M by Squibb and Myadec, a Parke Davis product. When shopping for back to school items... don't forget the most important thing... Your child's health.

"Always true to you darling in their fashion"... the youthful half-sizes: you'll find at D. J. Healy... (many were modeled at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club fashion show.) Slim, ladylike casual daytime wear... costume pieces and ensembles... not to forget beautiful cocktail dresses. The delightful half-size fashions at Healy's prove that style is not a size or an age, but a design.

Tweed rewards the man who wears it... by its subtle coloring... its interesting texture and its luxurious resiliency. The handsome tweed suits just in at Proper's are a fine tribute to masculine good taste. I'm delighted to report something new has been added... a good looking foulard printed silk lining... an effective change for an old stand-by!

Hurry... hurry... hurry and STOP at The Dant's... to choose your Christmas cards before October first while a very attractive ten per cent discount lasts. Whatever your thoughts... you'll find a Yuletide card to express them... at The Dant's Card Room.

"Summer Romances come to an end"... if you've already fallen out of love with a room in your home... take another look! WANAMAKER'S Studio can replace or redesign custom furniture for you. They'll also clean, change, dramatize and coordinate old settings to add the new attractiveness that courts renewed interest... TUxedo 1-2100.

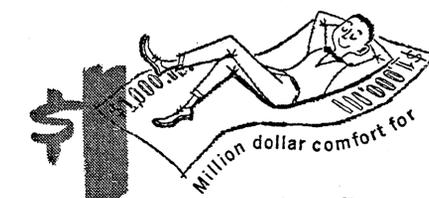

Armful of charms... from Dragsted of Copenhagen! A lovely hand made sterling silver bracelet of Hans Christian Andersen characters. Brand new copper belts are just the thing for fall fashions... while Monet's treasures in gold lead many lives... bestowing a golden touch everywhere... find them all in Jacobson's Jewelry Department.

GOP Women To Meet Oct. 3

The first fall meeting of the East Side Women's Republican Club will be held on Friday, Oct. 3, at the 14th District Republican Headquarters, 15316 E. Warren. Stanley Bakwir, the 14th District Chairman, will be the speaker. His subject will be "The Need for Women's Cooperation in Promoting Good Government." The America of tomorrow, in large measure, will be as you create it today. Take a real interest in politics at the local and state levels—not just once in four years when we elect a President. There will be a board meeting at 11, luncheon at noon, and meeting at 1 o'clock.
