A $40,000 FORTUNE was discovered yesterday in the trash left in a room of the apartment occupied by Anthony and Agatha Ketko. The couple, in their sixties, was evicted a few days ago by the owner who wished to make some repairs following a fire in the apartment. The Ketkos were taken to Receiving Hospital and treated for malnutrition. There, Ketko mentioned that he thought he might have "about $1,000" tucked away at the apartment. That set off the search that resulted in the discovery of the hoard of money, secreted in paper bundles in a room full of trash, apparently saved over the years, by Mrs. Ketko.

THE BUG IS BACK, according to Dr. Joseph G. Molner, City and County health commissioner, the bug being Asian flu. Though the number of cases has by no means reached the epidemic proportions of two years ago, quite a few cases have reported. Three have died from the virus, it is thought.

During the 1957-58 epidemic, some 420,000 cases were reported in Detroit, and 39 deaths were blamed on the virus. The current bug is said to have hit the Detroit area just before Christmas.

MILTON EISENHOWER, brother of the Chief Executive, tried to remove his name from the New Hampshire presidential primary, yesterday. He said that he was not a candidate for the Republican nomination. His name, however, can be removed only by the man who entered it, former Federal Judge Albert Levitt. The New Hampshire primary is the first in the nation.

THE CRASH of the National Airlines plane over North Carolina, January 6, is now being blamed on a "bomb of some sort," said Senator A. S. (Mike) Monroney, D. Okla., yesterday. Monroney is the chairman of the Senate subcommittee investigating the mysterious crash that killed 34 persons. It is thought that one passenger, Julian Andrew Frank of New York may have committed suicide. Prior to the flight, he had taken out nearly $900,000 in insurance. Frank's financial affairs are now being investigated. "The evidence is very strong it was a case of suicide by bombing," said Monroney.

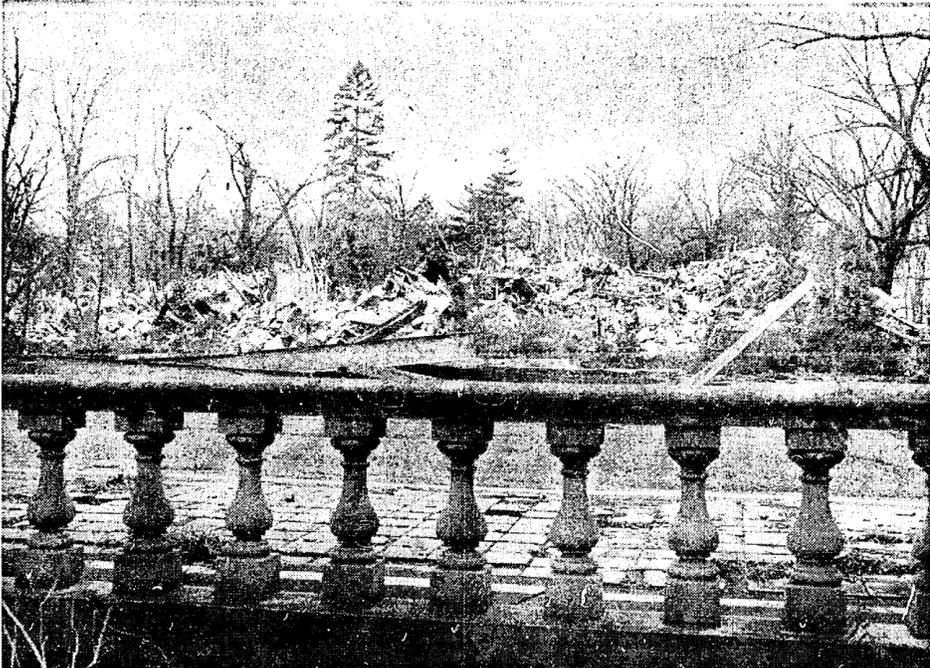

THE DEAN of the Louisiana State University graduate school, Dr. George H. Mickey, has been charged with the murder of Margaret Rosamond McMillan, 38, a biology professor at LSU. She was bludgeoned to death on a lonely road near the Mississippi river, Saturday night, January 9. Dr. Mickey, who is an internationally known biologist, had known Miss McMillan at Northwestern University when he directed her in writing her doctor's thesis in 1955. The case is scheduled to be presented to the grand jury on Feb. 16.

A PLOT, on the part of former Nazi officers headquartered in Malmoe, Sweden, has been said to be the cause of the recent outbreak of anti-Semitism in Western Europe. This opinion is based on the observations of three Swiss investigators. Nazi swastikas have been appearing on Jewish synagogues, monuments and shops throughout Europe, the last few weeks.

TWENTY-ONE-YEAR-OLD John Wallace, of New York City, told authorities that he was insane and drunk when he formed the "National American Socialist Renaissance Party" or neo-Nazis. He and two of his cohorts were charged with treason in Queens Court, Friday, after police raided his house Thursday night and found Hitler's speeches and anti-Jewish literature. Wallace and his friends face the death penalty if convicted of treason against the United States.

Plans for the Lenten Series of lectures to be held in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial were furthered at a meeting held in the Grosse Pointe Club on Friday, January 8.

George McMullen of St. Paul avenue, creator of the idea behind the series, was host at luncheon to ministers of the various churches which are participating. The War Memorial Association is sponsoring the project.

76-Year-Old Cyclist Hurt By 78-Year-Old Hit-Runner

A 78-year-old driver struck down a 76-year-old cyclist at the Jefferson and Bedford intersection in the Park on Wednesday, January 13, injuring the cyclist, and then left the scene. Lucien H. Koterski of 1243 Ashland, Detroit, was arrested by Farms police on Lake Shore road, in front of St. Paul Church, minutes after Park authorities gave a description of the hit-and-run car and license number, in a general police broadcast.

The aged cyclist, Jayne Welsh of 911 Alter street, Detroit, suffered cuts over the left eye, a possibly fractured left leg, and internal injuries, and was taken to Bon Secours Hospital by Patrolmen Robert McAllister and Arthur Conlan, who answered the accident call.

School Board Given Review Of Job Evaluation System Used to Classify Employees

Plan Enables Determination of Salary Relationships
Among All Those Included in the More Than 80 Classifications

The Grosse Pointe Board of Education was given a review of the origins and developments of the Job Evaluation techniques used in the local school system at its January meeting last week.

Job Evaluation was identified as the practice of differentiating between the many job classifications current in the school system for the purpose of determining appropriate salary relationships among all employees. More than eighty different job classifications have been established, as essential in the process of educating the more than 10,000 pupils now enrolled. Some 670 teachers, administrators, custodians, clerks, and se-

Policeman's Job Sometimes Dirty

A policeman is called on to do many things, including pulling children out of the mud and right out of their shoes.

On Thursday, January 14, Farms Patrolman Otto Glanert was cruising east on Chalfonte when he was stopped by George Van, 11, of 450 Moran road, who told the officer that his brother, Berry, 6, was stuck fast in the mud in the Brownell Junior High School playground.

Glanert went to the assistance of the six-year-old, who was in the gooey stuff up to his ankles and could not move. The patrolman put his arms around the boy and heaved up. The lad came loose from his shoes.

Berry was carried to firmer ground, and Glanert returned and retrieved Berry's shoes, then took both boys home.

Koterski was arrested by Farms Patrolmen Joseph Miller and Russell Roland, who intercepted the motorist going east on Lake Shore, then surrendered the motorist to Park police.

Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers said that at the Park police station, a bump and dried blood, was noticed on Koterski's head, and he was taken to Bon Secours for treatment. The motorist said he did not remember where or when he suffered the injury.

Koterski said that he recalled hitting Welsh, but after that he remembered nothing. Arresting officers said Koterski seemed unable to operate his car.

Badly Hurt As His Car Crashes Bus

Joseph Skues, of St. Clair Board of Education, Undergoes Operation

A car-bus collision at the corner of East Jefferson avenue and Neff road, early Monday morning, January 18, resulted in serious injury to the driver of the car, Joseph Charles Skues of 21819 Maple in St. Clair Shores.

Mr. Skues, 54, was driving west on Jefferson when the bus traveling in front of him, stopped to pick up a passenger at the curb. Mr. Skues' car smashed into the rear of the bus.

Operation Performed
He was taken to Bon Secours Hospital with a possible skull fracture and crushed ribs. He was operated on that afternoon and it was found that the injuries were not quite as serious as it was thought earlier. Mr. Skues was still in critical condition late Monday afternoon after the operation, however.

The car which he was driving had to be towed to City police headquarters with a damaged front end. There was no damage reported on the bus, nor was anyone else injured, apparently, according to City police officers.

The accident occurred at 7:05 a.m. "We still don't know what happened to Mr. Skues," said Capt. Andrew Teetaert, "though it was still dark, the street lights were on and the street, though slippery, was salted and not particularly slick." A ticket was issued to Skues for not having his car under control and causing an accident.

On School Board
He was thought to be on his way to the Detroit Edison Co. for whom he worked. Mr. Skues is a long time member and secretary of the Lakeview Schools Board of Education in St. Clair Shores. He is also chairman of the Macomb County Board of Education Association this year, and has been very active with Boy Scout work in the area for some time.

The driver of the bus involved in the accident was Joseph Thomas Aldridge of 2923 Fairview in Detroit.

REPORTS LARCENY
Francis Homan of 16735 Gilchrist, Detroit, complained to Woods police on Wednesday, January 13, that he parked his car in the lot of the Manufacturers National Bank parking lot on Mack avenue, and a thief broke into the unlocked trunk and stole the spare tire and wheel, worth $32.

Church Expansion Plans Dealt Blow By City Council

Unitarians' Hopes to Build New Structure Dashed as Officials Rescind Action Granting
Exception to Zoning Laws

The Council of the City of Grosse Pointe has voted 5 to 1 to rescind its action of June 22 when it granted an exception to the zoning ordinance that would allow the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church to erect a new church.

The vote was taken during the regular Council meeting Monday evening, January 18. Six of the seven council members were present and the five for and one opposed was better than the two thirds majority needed to pass on the motion.

Wright Reviews Case
Prior to the vote, City Attorney Charles Wright III gave a brief review of the proceedings taken in the matter of the Unitarian Church. On May 26, 1959, the Council received a letter of petition from the Church asking that it be granted relief under the existing ordinances so that it might expand the church facilities. The Church presently occupies the old David Carter home at 17440 East Jefferson avenue.

A public hearing on the matter was scheduled for June 22, which was attended by the representatives of the church and some of the residents of Rathbone place which runs along one side of the church property. The church officials explained their needs for expansion; their desire to purchase the adjoining property at 17500 East Jefferson avenue on which they hoped to erect a new church building; and the architectural plans for this building, including parking facilities that were to occupy the site of the Carter home.

Residents Give Views
The Rathbone place residents were also heard at the public hearing. The objections raised centered around the fact that their homes were already somewhat surrounded by parking lots (the City park and the National Bank of Detroit across East Jefferson) and that a third parking lot which would face most of their front doors, was not agreeable.

However, after both sides were heard, it seemed that all were in accord that some kind of general agreement could be worked out if a little time were spent on it. With this in mind, the Council voted to grant an exception to the zoning ordinance that would permit the Unitarian Church to build, if the problems could be ironed out.

The zoning ordinance of the City of Grosse Pointe states that there may be no new or expanded use of property south of Kercheval avenue, by institutions such as a church or a school.

Far From Settled
The matter was far from settled. It was brought up again at the July 20 meeting after the Council received petitions from the residents asking that the Council rescind the decision of June 22.

The legality of the public hearing was questioned as all of the property owners within 300 feet of the Church did not receive notice of the meeting (Continued on Page 4)

Committee Starts Study On Memorial Auditorium

A special committee, appointed to formulate plans for the William H. Fries Auditorium on the grounds of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center, held its first meeting Monday evening in the Provençal road home of Alger Sheldon, committee chairman and former president of the War Memorial Association.

Committee members include: Mrs. Russell Aiger, Mrs. C. A. Dean, Jr., Mrs. William Fries, (honorary), Henry B. Joy, Jr., Chet Ogden, H. L. Pierson, Ralph Simonds, Donald Turber, Renville Wheat, Charles Parcells, vice-chairman; Mrs. John S. Hering, Herbert Woodall, John Paynter, president of the War Memorial Association; and Robert Tanahill.

Plans to utilize the bequest left by the late Mr. Fries and designated to be used for a memorial auditorium, have been delayed because of the arguments over enlarging the parking space on the Center property. Neighbors objected to increasing the parking spaces in the same location where the lot is now located and the Farms City Council upheld their objections.

There is a possibility that some of the property immediately on the lake shore may have to be used to provide enough parking space.

Mr. Sheldon said that many architects have contacted the War Memorial Association in connection with the building of the auditorium. The committee (Continued on Page 2)

Mobile Unit Coming Here On Friday

Response of Contributors
At Memorial Center Hits
New Low Mark

The annual Community Collection of Blood at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center is scheduled for tomorrow, Friday, January 22, from 2:30 to 8:30 p.m. Never before has the advance response been so slight.

At no time during the afternoon or evening are appointments full. Many walk-in donors are needed to make the Red Cross Bloodmobile's visit a success. The unit needs 150 to 200 pints to warrant its coming, which ties up many doctors and nurses.

Need Is Urgent

Not only the Red Cross' blood supplies, but nearly all local Grosse Pointe Blood Banks are very low. The Grosse Pointe Community Blood Bank maintained by the War Memorial for free use by Pointe citizens in case of emergency has only six pints left, which just one appeal at the time of accident or illness would wipe out.

Mrs. Oscar B. Marx, Jr., Mrs. Perry TeWalt and Mrs. William Gibson, who are in charge of the Center's Community Blood Bank are most concerned and issue an urgent appeal.

All Grosse Pointe churches, veterans' organizations, the post offices, civic offices and departments in the area, the Junior Red Cross and many of the commercial establishments are behind this blood drive. Blood donations can be designated for any group blood bank or individual.

Oldsters Need Blood

The Junior League of Detroit's Blood Chairman, Mrs. John N. Stewart, is urging her members and their husbands to come out particularly because of the needs for blood arising at the Senior Center which the League maintains on East Grand boulevard.

Anyone needing transportation to the Center to donate may get it by calling TU-7511. Anyone with young children may bring them when they come to donate as baby sitters will be on hand at the Memorial.

Donating to a blood bank is one of the greatest humanitarian services one can make. It only takes an hour, is painless, and absolutely harmless to a healthy person.

Police Seeking Dog Murderer

Somewhere in the Pointe area there is an individual who has qualified himself as a candidate for the title of the meanest person.

On Sunday, January 17, James Mason, 52, of 1862 Severn, personally stopped in the Woods police station to notify police that his Great Dane dog was poisoned and killed. The animal was valued at $500.

Mason told authorities that the dog was let out into the fenced back yard of his home at about 4 p.m. Friday afternoon. By 4:30 p.m., the animal became sick.

When he returned from work, Mason said, he took his pet to Harvey Memorial Animal Hospital, 18479 Mack, where Dr. M. P. Lipson, veterinarian, worked on the dog until 3 a.m., but the Great Dane died.

In an autopsy, the doctor examined the dog's stomach and found a quarter-pound of meat apparently containing a very powerful poison, the name of which is not yet known. The doctor said the lethal dose shredded the lining of the stomach.

Mason said that some unknown person must have put the meat in the yard, since his pet was not permitted to leave the confines of the yard.

Mason said he lost another Great Dane about five years ago, the same way. He knows of no one who would want to kill the dogs, as they were never allowed to run loose and didn't bother anyone.

Mr. Sheldon said a committee of five is being appointed to pick out three possibilities among the architects, after interviewing many. This committee will make recommendations to the War Memorial Association board of directors, which will have the final say in the selection.

The architect selected can then go ahead with ground plans and simple elevations. Plans will be discussed with the Farms city council and the neighbors as the project progresses.

School Board Given Review Of Job Evaluation System

responsibility or skill involved in the rating.

After the original study had evaluated and ranked the various jobs with respect to each other, provisions for keeping the ratings up-to-date were made. A Job Review Committee composed of eight employees representing each major category of employe was established.

This Committee meets annually under the non-voting chairmanship of one of the superintendent's staff to consider appeals for re-classification of existing jobs or to establish the rank of newly created ones. Committeemen serve only one year to insure that fresh, objective viewpoints are constantly operative.

Appeals Vary
The number of appeals for re-classification will vary from year to year. As many as 17 or 18 appeals have been considered on occasion but this year's committee had only five with which to deal.

A person believing the nature of his job has been modified sufficiently to warrant upgrading is asked to submit a request to the Job Review Committee in November. These appeals are given a preliminary screening by the committee. Persons submitting appeals meriting further study are then asked to prepare detailed job descriptions to bring out the significant aspects of the new situations.

Early in January the Job Review Committee assembled to carefully study the job descriptions and to apply the 27 evaluative criteria to them. The committee's conclusion represented by the sum of the weights deemed appropriate for each situation, is placed on the job scale to see if a higher rank is justified. Some are and some are not.

Taken To Superintendent
The Committee then makes its recommendations to the superintendent of schools regarding job placement. He, in turn, considers all of the implications inherent in the situation and advises the Board of Education for their final disposition.

The aircraft carrier USS Forrestal's air conditioning system is powerful enough to completely air condition two buildings the size of the Empire State Building.

President Robert F. Weber of the Board of Education indicated the importance of the Board attached to this Committee's work. He cited the enviable record of job satisfaction on the part of employes as good evidence of the worth of the job evaluation and review procedures.

600 Still Need Service
He said that based on the Public Works Department figures, approximately 600 homes still have their garbage picked up each week. Of this figure, a very small number require pick ups twice a week.

Although the ordinance calls for grinders or disposals, which city officials prefer be used, incinerators are not frowned upon, unless they are not on the approved list, it was said at the meeting. And, again, it was stressed that permits must be obtained before owners can install either units on their property.

The Tuxis Club of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church heard a panel of American Field Service students at the meeting Sunday.

Mrs. William Adams, AFS chapter president, explained that AFS was founded by a group of high school students in 1946. There were then four foreign exchange students in America. Today there are 1,500 such students.

The Adams were the first Grosse Pointe family to have a student live in their home.

Bonnie Young of Denby High School was the first panelist to speak. She noted that an exchange student from America to Norway, she had to fill several years of a foreign language and requirements. Perfect health, and an outgoing personality were among these requirements.

Ruth Lindgren, also of Denby, said "We people of Sweden can not judge America from movies. If we did, we would think cowboys and gangsters popped from every corner."

Malou Hesseleman, exchange student from Sweden to Grosse Pointe High School, commented that the teacher pupil relationship is much different here than in Sweden. "Here, the teacher's interest in the pupil is far more personal," said Malou.

Eduardo Middleton, also of Grosse Pointe High, revealed an interesting fact about his native Chile. "You will be surprised to know," he said, "that Chile is as long as the distance between San Francisco and New York and only 100 miles wide."

Cathy Tan, exchange student from Singapore to Grosse Pointe University School, talked about the British influence in Singapore. "We have 4 o'clock tea, the boys play cricket and the girls wear British style uniforms to school," she said.

Karen Jensen of Grosse Pointe High was an exchange student to Finland last summer. She and Bernd Gaus, exchange student from Germany to GPUS, agreed that the most memorable part of their respective trips are the people. "Especially the teen agers," said Karen. "They were so wonderful to me."

Birthday Trips Errant Driver

Ernest D. Polley, 33, of 3432 St. Clair, Detroit, was arrested and paid $25 in Shores Traffic Court on his birthday, Thursday, January 14.

Polley, who is employed in Warren, Mich., was arrested by police of that city when he applied at the local police station for a renewal of his driver's license. The application was made under the new State law which permits persons to renew driver's licenses at any police station in Michigan.

Warren authorities checked their files and found that Polley was wanted by Shores police who have a warrant against him charging him with running a red traffic light.

On the evening of the Thursday date, Polley appeared before Shores Judge John Gillis, who imposed a bond of $25, which was forfeited after the man was found guilty as charged. This left Polley free to get a new license.

minister of the church, and Stanley W. Smith, church president.

"We are shocked to learn of the action of the City Council of the City of Grosse Pointe tonight in attempting to revoke the zoning relief granted to The Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church on June 22, 1959. We appreciate that the Council has studied the matter long and carefully. It is difficult, however, to understand its turnabout after the church has expended many thousands of dollars to acquire property and prepare plans, relying in good faith upon Council action taken after a public hearing.

"To abandon the church's expansion program at this late date not only would result in serious financial loss but might also delay for months, perhaps years, the construction of facilities urgently needed for an overcrowded church.

"We seriously question both the moral and the legal right of the Council to make its latest decision. We are advised by our attorneys that the Council's action is a violation of the constitutional rights of due process and freedom of religion. The proper procedure to protect these rights is being carefully studied."

It was also brought out at the July meeting that the church had taken an option on the property at 17500 East Jefferson and that the option was up the end of the month. The church wished to know whether or not to go ahead and purchase the property.

Church Buys Land

Nothing could be done by the Council at the July meeting, however, for it was not a public hearing. The church, on July 31, bought the land adjoining the present site for $55,000. The protests from residents continued to come.

The Council decided that the best procedure then was to have an open meeting at which time any interested person might speak his mind. That meeting was held on September 15 in the Neighborhood Club gym.

Nearly 100 people attended and there were numerous spokesmen for each side. Many were residents of nearby streets. The same arguments were once again aired, plus some new ones. Many people pointed out that, being strictly practical about the matter, it was up to the Council to protect private property. The erection of a church building in this type residential section would have effects on the real estate values of all surrounding property. Also that the property was too small to provide adequate parking for the number of people the new building would seat.

Following the open meeting, the Council gave the matter considerable time for further exploration and thought.

Hold Informal Meeting

The subject was not brought up again until December 14, when an informal meeting was held, attended by the Council, the interested property owners and the church officials.

Then, on Tuesday, January 11, the Council met, agreed that it was well informed on the matter and decided that they were now ready to take a vote on the matter. That was to be done on January 18.

When Mr. Wright finished his review, Mayor Kenneth Bergmann asked if either the Council or anyone in the room had anything new to add. No one did, so Mayor Bergmann recognized Councilman David Burgess, who had drafted a resolution on the matter. Mr. Burgess prefaced his resolution with the fact that the course he was about to propose, though not one he would take were he thinking emotionally, was the only course to take, logically.

Cites Reasons

He asked that the decision of June 22 to grant relief to the Unitarian Church under the existing zoning ordinances of the City of Grosse Pointe, be rescinded. He went on to say that this move was necessary whereas: notification by mail was not given all residents within 300 feet of the property in question; the Council was, at that time, not apprised of some of the restriction agreements between the church and the residents of Rathbone place that were arrived at when the church first moved into their present building back in the 1940's; in view of the residents' petition asking for full enforcement of the zoning ordinance; and that the Council, because of lack of information when the permission was first granted, was not fully informed of the situation at the time when the first exception was allowed.

Mr. Burgess then put his resolution in the form of a motion and Councilman E. Liwyd Ecclestone seconded. The vote was then taken with Mr. Parker, Mr. Ecclestone, Mr. Marentette, Mr. Burgess and Mr. Bergmann voting aye. Mr. Lusk voted no. Mr. Allen was not present.

On Tuesday morning, the following statement was issued by Rev. William D. Hammond,

Mothers Ready For Polio March

Mothers of Wayne County are joining two million women across the nation in a march for facts and funds for the New March of Dimes.

"The Mothers' March will take place in Wayne County and throughout Michigan on Thursday evening, January 28, according to Mrs. Anne Campbell Stark, Mothers' March chairman.

"Marching Mothers will ask for a contribution and information," Mrs. Stark said. "Both are needed for the National Foundation's fight against birth defects, arthritis and polio—three crippling ailments that affect one of every four American families."

In addition to collecting New March of Dimes contributions, Mrs. Stark explained, the mothers will present each household with a copy of "Door Count," a concise fact-finding folder in which a family may indicate if any of its members has a birth defect, arthritis or polio and how many have had three or more Salk vaccine shots. Each family record will be confidential. These will be turned over to the Medical Advisory Committee of the chapter.

"We hope the Mothers' March door count will focus family and community attention on the majority of Americans still without Salk shot protection against polio," Mrs. Stark said. "We have found that neighbor calling on neighbor is one of the best ways to remind the unvaccinated to start their Salk shots. This information will also give our health authorities valuable information. They will know the areas where families have not had Salk polio shots. These are known as 'soft spots.' They are the danger spots where epidemics may begin."

"Although the house-to-house poll is in no way planned as a statistically valid survey," Mrs. Stark said, "the sum of information taken in the door count will help provide a working estimate in our county of the number of persons suffering from arthritis; the number born with birth defects and the number who have been victims of paralytic polio. This tabulation will prove an invaluable 000,000 Americans suffer from arthritis and the rheumatic disease."

Mrs. Stark said that the New March of Dimes is combating birth defects and arthritis with the same effective weapons used to conquer paralytic polio: medical scientific research to find causes, cures, preventives; patient aid for medical care; and training for medical workers needed to treat the sick and disabled.

"When your neighbor on The Mothers' March calls, we hope you will welcome her and give her a contribution. Then either check off the information on the card and give it to the Marching Mother or mail it in the next day. This is the most important March our good volunteers have ever made."

When some people admit they are wrong they are pretty sure others are about to come up with the proof.

Skin Divers Earn Reward For Finding Navy Torpedo

It seems open season on torpedoes is now in session off the coast of Florida and three skin divers who call Grosse Pointe home took advantage of this call to aqua lungs.

In Fort Lauderdale for the holidays, Jim DeKorse, 20, of Bedford road and Dan, 21, and Neil Bauer, 15, of Blossom lane, were pursuing their favorite hobby of skin diving. All three boys are divers of many years experience.

While swimming off the coast, Jim and Neil spear fishing and Dan doing underwater photography, they came upon a torpedo. It was at a depth of 40 feet and partially buried by sand and coral. Though they were interested in their unusual find and took pictures of it, the boys did not report the sunken missile until, a few days later, they came upon a second torpedo. This one was in 70 feet of water and its nose cone was missing.

So, the three youths reported their find to Fort Lauderdale authorities, who informed them that the discovery was worth $100 to them. The Navy was notified and the boys agreed to lead them to the spot where the torpedo was buried. They had tried to mark this one by tying a rope to the torpedo propeller and floating a bottle at the other end of the rope.

After seeing the missile, Navy Capt. William Spittler said that the 12 footer might be explosive. He said it might be the type of torpedo used in World War II, by Navy pilots in training sessions. There was also some speculation that it might have come from a German submarine.

On Wednesday, January 13, the Navy brought up the torpedo and it was found to be alive. And it also turned out to be a World War II German missile.

Using a magnet and cables, it took the Navy four hours to bring up the 12 foot prize. Mr. Jake DeKorse, Jim's father was invited to go on the ship when the Navy brought it up. The first torpedo discovered by the boys (for which they did not claim reward money) has now been located by the Navy. They are trying to bring it up alive, also.

Teachers Attend Math Conference

Two Grosse Pointe teachers took part in the 10th Annual Mathematics-Education Conference sponsored by the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor Saturday, January 16.

Humphrey C. Jackson, counselor and mathematics teacher at Parcels Junior High School, led a discussion on "Whole Numbers". He was assisted by Robert Shover, Co-ordinator of Mathematics and teacher at Pierce Junior High School and Mrs. Roberta Phelps of the Jackson Public Schools.

The purpose of the conference was to acquaint Michigan teachers with the aims and contents of the new mathematics programs now well under way. The latest developments in the field were reported upon and discussions followed to clear up areas about which participants were uncertain.

Seventh grade materials were the prime consideration of the section headed by Messrs. Jackson and Shover. They directed the group's attention to the teaching of the natural numbers, or "counting numbers," and the fundamental laws involved.

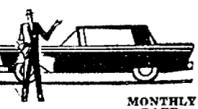

The National Science Foundation began a program to improve the teaching of science and mathematics in 1953. Two institutes were held last year. Increasing numbers of institutes have been held each year since. Plans for 1960 now include 381 institutes which will accommodate over 18,000 teachers of science and mathematics.

Leaders in the field of mathematics have always recognized the need to revise and update mathematic offerings. However, the tremendous technological advances of the 20th Century have made the need for curriculum revision more pressing than ever. As a result 12 centers for the study of school mathematics are now functioning throughout the country. Ann Arbor is one of these.

The aims of the School Mathematics Study Groups center around the following: (1) Mathematics must be viewed as a unified subject; (2) Emphasis must be placed on basic concepts; (3) The processes of deductive reasoning should be extended; and (4) obsolete topics should be replaced with modern concepts.

Some of these principals are currently being applied in the Grosse Pointe mathematics program. In September 1958 certain sections of students adjudged exceptionally capable in the field of mathematics were formed and have been moving through the regular program of study at an accelerated rate. As a result many of these students will find it possible to study added courses of mathematics prior to graduation from high school. Some, perhaps, will be qualified for advanced placement when they enroll in college.

Unbelievable Cruelty

A magnificent Great Dane died a horrible death last Friday because an inhuman maniac fed it poisoned meat. The news story which is carried in this issue made our blood boil. It took us back to a nightmare we went through when we were very young, when someone fed strychnine to our setter. We sat up all night, numb with fear, holding the head of the poor, suffering animal in our lap as the veterinary struggled to keep life in the shuddering frame.

He was successful, and Old Pete lived for many years, but the agony that that vigil bred in us a hatred for dog poisoners that will never grow dim.

We talked with James Mason, owner of the Great Dane, during the weekend. He is deeply shocked and greatly baffled by the cruelty of the deed. He says the dog, a female, was never allowed loose. His back yard is completely fenced in, and whenever the animal was taken off the property it was confined in a car or kept on a leash. He can think of no reason why anyone would want to destroy the beautiful, fawn-colored pet which meant so much to him and his family.

Mrs. Mason had let the dog out in the back yard just a few minutes before Mr. Mason arrived home. He brought her back in the house and she became ill almost immediately. He called the veterinary and then rushed the stricken animal there in his car. From shortly after 5 o'clock in the afternoon to 3 in the morning, Dr. M. P. Lipson worked over the Dane until she died, a ghastly, wracking, creeping death. An autopsy was performed and a small amount of hamburger found in the dog's stomach. The Masons had not fed her recently, so the surmise was that someone had tossed the poison-laden morsel over the fence in those brief minutes when she was in the yard. Dr. Lipson said there must have been enough poison to kill an elephant. The Dane's entire stomach was burned out.

We wonder what goes on in the mind of a person who would do a thing like this. To those of us who love animals, any fiend who would commit such an act is completely capable of murdering a human being. He is far too dangerous to be allowed loose. There are ways of solving the problem of dogs which are nuisances. The police will follow up complaints and make owners comply with the law. Apparently there was no nuisance in this particular case.

No one has the right to take such matters into his own hands, especially in such a despicably cowardly and cruel manner. We hope the police keep hot on this one until they have found the mentally twisted killer. Any punishment which could be meted out would be far too good. If anyone has any clues in this case, Mr. Mason and the police would appreciate help.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

When reading today's issue of the News I noticed it did not include the familiar "Boat Banter" column. This is a good idea, perhaps you should do it again!

It's a good idea, first because it made me realize how much I enjoy reading this column and that I had never expressed my opinion. Second, its absence might remind other Grosse Pointe sailors that we get more and better sailing news in our weekly paper than in the big Detroit daily papers.

So, why don't you leave the "Boat Banter" column out of the News occasionally. Don't do it too often though—just once a year, between Christmas and New Year's!

JOHN C. PURCELL,
816 Barrington road

Dear Mr. Editor:

The annual "Toys for Tots" campaign, conducted by the 5th Infantry Battalion, United States Marine Corps Reserve, in the Greater Detroit Area was again successful. This gratifying statement is made possible by the warm hearted cooperation extended by you and your staff to our campaign. Many people were alerted to this worthy campaign through your newspaper and gave generously to it.

We of the 5th Infantry Battalion wish to thank you and your staff and the many readers of your newspaper who display such public spirit in making thousands of less fortunate children happy during the Yuletide.

For the 5th Infantry Battalion, I extend our best wishes for the coming year to you and to your staff and to the readers of your fine community.

Sincerely,
R. M. Paquette,
Lieutenant Colonel,
U. S. Marine Corps

What Goes On at Your Library

by Jean Taylor

Wanted! Leaders for the Great Books Program!

The Great Books Foundation, a non-profit organization founded in 1947, sponsors the nation's largest adult liberal education program. It has trained leaders and helped to organize over 1900 discussion groups throughout the United States and in foreign countries.

Two Great Books Discussion courses, co-sponsored by The Friends of the Library, are now being held at the Central Library under competent and enthusiastic leaders. Walter Gibbs leads the discussion of the third year group; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Frey, of the fourth year.

There is increasing interest in these programs, and the library has received many requests for the organization of first and second year groups. To operate effectively, however, these groups require expert leadership.

A course in discussion leadership of the Great Books program, to be given this spring, will provide a stimulating and rewarding experience for would-be leaders. The Friends of the Library are paying a $25 honorarium to anyone wishing to take this course. Please call the Director's office at the library, if interested. TU 4-1477.

These days, what book to read does not seem a major problem with most of us but rather, where to find the time to read. We pass along these suggestions originally published in the Boston Globe.

1. Talk less.
2. Carry a book in your bag.
3. Put a book under your pillow at night; if you can't sleep, read.
4. Wake up fifteen minutes earlier each morning and read.
5. Keep a book handy to pick up in the kitchen, dressing, on the telephone.
6. Have a book ready when meeting unpunctual people.
7. Take along your own book when going to the dentist, doctor, hairdresser—why read their old magazines?
8. Keep an unread book in your car in case of traffic jams or a wait for repairs.
9. Never go on a journey without a book—you might not like your seat mate.
10. Remember that a book in the hand is worth two in the bookcase.

Story Hours when the old folks tales come to life, are being held again at the three libraries each week after school. At the Central Library and the Woods Branch the program is on Friday at 4 p.m., at the Park Branch on Thursday at 4 p.m. Children of school age are invited.

That ominous date, the 15th of April, creeps up with startling speed. If you like to have your returns shipshape well in advance, there are aids to help you figure your tax correctly.

Several copies of the 1960 edition of the booklet, "Your Federal Income Tax" are now available at your library. Written in nontechnical language, this contains many examples to illustrate the application of the tax laws to practical situations.

Woods Police Nab Speeder

Gordon A. Hennecke, 34, of 2163 Evergreen, St. Clair Shores, was driving double the speed limit permitted on Mack avenue, and was arrested by Woods police.

The motorist was arrested by Woods Patrolmen Kenneth Metcalf and Bernard Kelly, and taken to the station where he was given a ticket for reckless driving. The officers said Hennecke had been drinking.

The officers said that Hennecke was driving south on Mack at a high rate of speed, when they spotted him and gave chase, starting at the Beaufait intersection.

The driver caught up with traffic at Lochmoor, and at Kenmore, passed a group of automobiles at a high rate of speed, the policemen said. From Kenmore to Littlestone, Hennecke was paced at 60 miles an hour, passing three more cars.

Hennecke was forced to the curb at Littlestone, Metcalf and Kelly said, and placed under arrest.

Before he was released, Hennecke posted a bond of $100. He will appear before Woods Judge Don Goodrow on February 27 for a hearing.

Camera Club Meets Tuesday

The Grosse Pointe Camera Club will meet Tuesday, January 26, at 8 p.m. at the Neighborhood Club, 17145 Waterloo avenue.

The program for the evening will be a film, "Arabic Dancers," narrated by Edwin S. Smyd, D.D.S. This is an historical film, filmed in Damascus, and also shows the unusual dances of the Middle East, as seen especially in Cairo, Egypt, Beirut, Lebanon, and India. Dr. Smyd is well known for his films of countries behind the Iron Curtain, also. Guests and new members are cordially invited.

Following the showing, the annual election and business meeting of the club will be held.

About That Boulder In Your Eye

By Fred Kopp, R. Ph.

"Got something in my eye," the customer said. "Feels like a boulder. How about taking it out?" He was hurting and wanted help then and there. The pharmacist remembered hearing about another man whose "something" turned out to be a steel splinter embedded in his eyeball. He advised him to see his physician. Prompt surgery saved his sight. So, we're careful. And if we seem overly cautious sometimes, remember — we're pharmacists, not physicians. We work with doctors, dispensing the drugs and medications they prescribe. But we don't practice medicine.

John Sweeney To Conduct Here

The Detroit Symphony Orchestra will say "thank you" to its contributors this Sunday afternoon at 3:30 in Ford Auditorium with a special invitation concert. The event will signal the kick-off of the annual campaign for new funds for the support of the orchestra headed by Robert Wardrop, John B. Ford III, David L. Gamble and Henry L. Newnan Jr.

Paul Paray has selected two young artists in whom he has the greatest of confidence to appear on the program. John S. Sweeney III, who returns to his home city from his studies in Europe will guest-conduct the second half of the concert and young Hollander, phenomenal violin pianist, will appear as soloist under Paray, playing the Saint-Saens' Concerto No. 5 in F major.

Paul Paray will also present the Introduction and Processional from Rimsky-Korsakov's "Le Coq d'Or" and excerpts from Falla's "El Amor Brujo." Sweeney will conduct Rossini's Overture to "L'Italiana in Algeri," "Butterworth's "A Shropshire Lad" and Copland's Ballet Suite "Billy the Kid." Thursday at 8:30 o'clock Paray will present an all Beethoven concert featuring Mischa Kottler, pianist, and Mischa Mischakoff, violinist, as soloists. Kottler will play the Concerto No. 5 ("Emperor") in E flat major and Mischakoff will play the Violin Concerto in D major. The Overture to "Fidelio" is also programmed.

Cronin to Talk To Senior Club

When the Senior Men's Club of Grosse Pointe journeys from the Grosse Pointe War Memorial to the General Motors Technical Center for a "go-see" trip Tuesday, January 26, the members will be greeted and addressed at luncheon by General Motors Vice-President John J. Cronin, the executive in charge of its manufacturing staff.

Mr. Cronin is a native Detroit and a graduate of the University of Detroit where he was a star basketball player. Following World War I service Mr. Cronin joined Fisher Body Division where he became Supervisor of production standards and in 1934 was appointed assistant general factory manager in charge of assembly plants. In 1941, he became general factory manager and also director of industrial relations. In 1945, he was named general manufacturing manager and was elected vice-president of General Motors. He was named general manager of Fisher Body in 1948. He took over his present duties in 1952.

Malcolm Frager To Play Here

The Detroit Symphony Orchestra will present Malcolm Frager, pianist, as soloist this Thursday at 8:30 o'clock and again next Friday at 2 o'clock in Ford Auditorium. Valter Poole will conduct. Frager, 1959 winner of the Edgar M. Loxentrieff Award, will play the Prokofiev Concerto No. 2 in G minor, the same work he played in the contest finals at Carnegie Hall last fall before a jury of distinguished musicians and an excited audience.

The program will include Tchaikovsky's Symphony No. 2 in C minor ("The Little Russian") and Stravinsky's Suite from "The Firebird." Frager, who last appeared with the Detroit Symphony as a summer concert July 1, 1958, has three times been a finalist for the Leventritt auditions. As first prize a winner this year he will receive a $1,000 cash prize and engagements with the New York Philharmonic, the Buffalo, Cleveland, Denver and Pittsburgh orchestras in addition to his performances this week with the Detroit Symphony.

Beau Qualifies For Polar Club

By Sarah Evans

If dogs could only talk, Beau, a big ten year old Collie belonging to Dr. Jan Nyboer and family of 570 Cadieux road, might clear up some of the mystery that shrouds his adventures of last Sunday.

A series of events, unexplained by anyone, led to Beau taking an unintended and definitely unwanted swim in the frigid waters of Lake St. Clair, Sunday afternoon.

While the Nyboer family was in church Sunday morning, Beau escaped from the back yard. How he did it is a mystery because both gates were shut and there were no holes in the fence.

Now it seems that Beau has gotten out before, as will most dogs, but he has never gone any further away from home than around the block. And he has never ever gone in the direction of the lake! "Of course," said Mrs. Nyboer, "he loved kids. He could have met some and been led astray."

Whatever or whoever it was, Beau roamed all the way to the foot of Lakeland avenue where he ventured onto the ice and fell in. Luckily, Dr. Robert K. Whitely of 216 Lakeland, saw him fall and called the police for help. Earlier in the afternoon, both the doctor and the police had warned some young skaters that the ice there was not safe.

Anyway, City police officers Robert Van Tiem and James Cronin arrived in time to pull a damp, cold, shivering and very disconsolate Beau out of Lake St. Clair. Since the Nyboers were still not home, Beau had to be taken to the veterinarian and impounded. It was warm and dry there, but it certainly wasn't home.

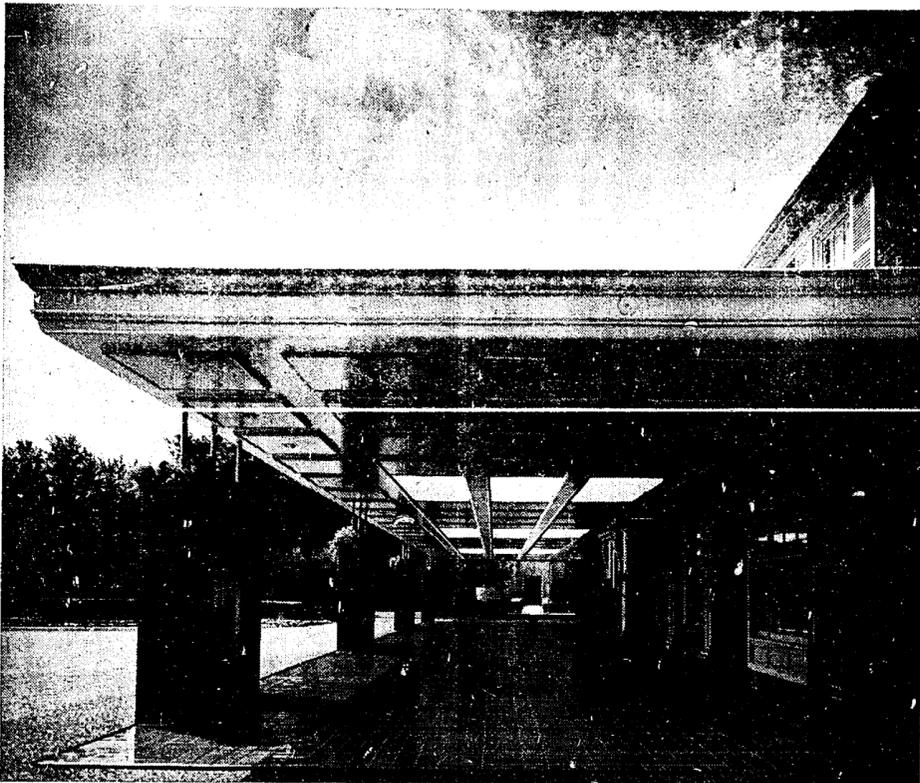

Now, however, Beau is safe and sound within the confines of 570 Cadieux road and "pretty glad to be home," says Mrs. Nyboer. "He's never been this adventurous before. I just wish we knew what happened, particularly how he got on the ice."

It's doubtful that this Collie will venture too near the foot of Lakeland avenue for a long time, anyway.

Two Pointers Taken off Road

The driving privileges of two Pointers were suspended for one month, according to a January 8 report, the latest released by the Secretary of State's Office in Lansing.

Charles R. White, of 260 Provenal road, was deprived of his operator's license from December 22 to January 22; and Guy L. Carl of 24297 Hickory drive, from December 30 to January 30. In both cases the suspensions were the result of unsatisfactory driving records.

Each week the Michigan Department of State receives more than 15,000 court abstracts and violation records which go into individual driver files to form the documentary basis for suspensions under the 12 point system.

According to James M. Hare, Secretary of State, visitors from other States and foreign countries are continually coming to Michigan to see the way this flow of essential information comes into Lansing, not only from other points in Michigan, but from Canadian provinces and other states as well.

In tallying up the totals of the activities of his Department for the week of January 3, Hare released lists of names of 321 Michigan drivers whose licenses were suspended and those of 21 who had theirs revoked.

There is a wonderful, secret thrill of some impending ecstasy on a frozen winter's night.

Farms Approves Planting Rebate

The merchants in the Kercheval-on-the-Hill business district will receive a rebate of their share in the planting costs of 10 Maple trees in the district, part of a beautification program.

The Farms council authorized the return of $1,019.75 to the merchants, who paid proportionate shares to meet half of the costs of the plantings and the construction of brick-paved sidewalk openings in the district.

City Engineer Murray Smith said that the contractor, William Reinhold, completed the project for $6,385.50, and recommended he be paid $5,746.75.

with the balance of $638.55, withheld till fall, as a guarantee of the work performed. The total cost of the project was less than anticipated. The city and merchants agreed to an equal share of the cost of the plantings from Fisher to Muir roads.

The Farms will pay $3,230.25, and the merchants a like amount. The businessmen deposited $4,250 with the city at the start of the program.

Devils Continue .500 Pace By Splitting Two Cage Tilts

The "on-again, off-again" Grosse Pointe Blue Devil basketball team, which has been sputtering along at a .500 pace all season, sputtered again last week in splitting a pair of contests.

On Tuesday, January 12, the Pointers dropped a 51-43 decision to non-league Ferndale on the Rallsplitters' home court but came back three nights later to win a game that counted, in downing the Wyandotte Bears on the local court 61-55.

Faced by Dave Veenendaal, who notched runner-up scoring honors with 18 points behind Ferndale's Denny Stinson with 19, the Devils held a 22-15 half-time lead and appeared to be on the victory trail. But the Pointers ran into a cold streak in the final 16 minutes and Ferndale raced to victory.

Against Wyandotte it was again Veenendaal who paced the Devils' scoring parade with 20 points to turn back the Bears and move into a four-way tie for second place with Wyandotte, Fordson and Royal Oak. Highland Park turned back Royal Oak for its fourth straight win, which gives it a two game bulge over the teams locked in a four-way tie.

Against Wyandotte the Devils held a narrow margin from the outset and held a 16-15 first period lead, a 36-33 margin at halftime, a 43-41 third quarter lead before Veenendaal and Jon Rice pumped in 11 points to clinch the game.

It was a real spectators game. The officials refrained from excessive whistle tooting and only 33 fouls were called, 16 for Grosse Pointe and 17 against Wyandotte. Both teams took advantage of their free throw attempts. The Devils cashed in on 17 of 23 tries and the Bears collected 15 in 20 attempts. Ron Schram of the Devils and Lynn Barr of the Bears were best in this department turning in perfect nights from the charity line. Schram notched 7 for 7 and Barr made 5 for 5.

Face Tough Parkers
The Devils will travel to Highland Park on Friday, January 22, in an attempt to derail Coach Eidon Rouse's Highland Park title bound express. If the Devils are successful it would set the stage for a wild and woolly second half season which could see no less than five of the six teams in the league sharing the title. This nearly happened last fall in the football race for the crown.

Servite's Victory Blasts Lakers' Hopes for Title

The St. Paul Lakers fell by the wayside in the race for the East Side Division title in the Parochial League last Friday, January 15, when it lost to league-leading Servite, 61-53, on Servite's home court.

That was the "key" game for both teams. St. Paul needed the victory to move into a two-way tie for first place and Servite needed it to virtually clinch the crown.

Servite roared off to an early lead and held a 20-12 first period lead and a narrow four point 31-27 margin at halftime.

Then They Went Cold
Paced by Glenn Cross, the Lakers roared into the lead in the third quarter by outscoring Servite 17 to 6 and moved into a 44-37 lead with eight minutes remaining. Just when it appeared the Lakers had found the range they went cold and were outscored 24 to 9 in the last period to go down to their second league defeat.

The loss practically eliminates the Lakers, as they only play Servite once during the season. St. Paul's only hope that remains is in St. Florian who will meet the league leaders once more. Florian is one game off the pace and also has a return game with St. Paul. If Florian can beat the leaders, (and it seems remote as it lost its first game with Servite and must play the next game on the latter's court), Florian will create a two-way first place tie and leave the Lakers one game off the pace. Should this happen Coach Eddie Lauer's quintet would then be forced to complete the season without further losses and hope the leaders would hit a snag. This would create a three-way tie and force a playoff for the title.

Coach Not Optimistic
Laker fans are hoping but as Coach Lauer puts it—"It's a remote possibility and you can't win championships hoping someone else knocks off the leaders if you don't. You have to win the "key" game or games to become champions and this we didn't do."

The Lakers received a blow just prior to the game when captain Bob Bigham cut his finger on a locker. The digit refused to stop bleeding throughout the game and this affected his scoring ability. Normally Bigham hits in the double figures but in this game he could only collect 9 points.

Captain Bob Belcourt paced Servite with 16 points on four field goals and 8 for 8 foul shots to annex high point honors. Tom Moxley and Glenn Cross paced the Lakers with 14 points each for runner-up honors.

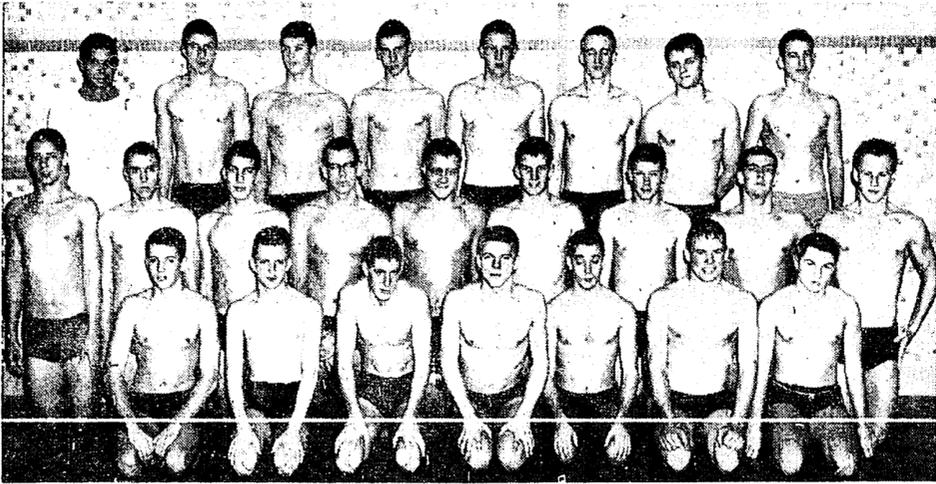

St. Paul will tackle two league opponents next week in St. Ladislaus on Friday, January 22, on the Grosse Pointe High court and St. Ambrose on the Cavalier's home court on Tuesday, January 26.

St. Paul, currently, is tied for third place with St. Ladislaus.

Ross; 1st/Lt. Carl M. Brendel; Secretary Vaughn C. Reid; Treasurer William C. Bertram and Executive Committee members Austin Bender, Irving Bennet, John D. Young and Kenneth Woodruff.

The United States Power Squadrons are dedicated to the free public education for safer recreational boating. The Detroit Power Squadron, along with the other 17 squadrons in District 9, will conduct free 13-week piloting classes for the general public. The Detroit Squadron's classes will start Monday and Tuesday, January 18 and 19. The January 18 class will be held at Hudson's Eastland Center, East 8 Mile road, in the center's auditorium, and will start at 7:30 p.m. The January 19 class will be held at the Highland Park High School, Glandale and Second avenue, in Highland Park, Michigan. It, too, will start at 7:30 p.m.

The Detroit Squadron will receive honors when past commander William P. Ternes, JN, will become the Commander of District 9 this spring.

The highest honor a member of the Detroit Power Squadron has ever attained will be realized when Richard S. Weber becomes the Chief Commander of the United States Power Squadron at the annual national convention in the Astor Hotel in New York, January 14, 15 and 16.

The North Star Sail Club elected its Flag Officers for 1960 who will be installed at the annual Commodore's Ball Saturday, February 13, George Smith is the new commodore, Richard Purdy became vice commodore, William Sporer is the new rear commodore and John Prokopow became secretary.

Bayview Yacht Club became the last of the DRYA member clubs to elect its flag officers for 1960 at its annual meeting, Wednesday, January 13. Vice Commodore J. Ivan Fiskus and Rear Commodore Joseph "Mike" Tapert were unanimously elected to Commodore and vice commodore respectively and J. "Skip" Grow was the successful candidate for rear commodore. Al Bortolotti, 1959 National Raven class champion, and G. Bruce Conlon, 1959 race chairman, were successful in their bids for the board of governor seats vacated by Howard N. Girardin and William Calder after their two-year terms had expired.

Commodore William J. A. Nagel, chairman of the Detroit River Yachting Association's tax committee, has taken the first steps to ally the DRYA with other yachting associations in the nation to seek an amendment to the Federal Excise levied against boat owners who keep their yachts at private clubs.

It was back in 1954 that the government enacted the tax

High Flying Austin Moves Closer to Another Title

Coach Chuck Hollosy's high flying Austin basketball team continued its surge to the Central Division throne room last Friday, January 15, when it tripped De La Salle 59-41 for its sixth straight, and forty-fourth consecutive victory in league competition. The Friars haven't lost a league game since joining the league five years ago, and during that time have won four division crowns.

With the majority of the remaining games slated to be played on the Friars' home court it would be safe to assume Austin will wrap up its fifth straight title. Of the remaining games only Catholic Central is given an outside chance to terminate the Friars' winning streak, but only because CC will be playing on its home court.

Austin easily turned back CC in the first meeting. Notre Dame and U of D are the other strong teams in the league but only Notre Dame scared the Friars in the first trip around the league. Both these contests will be played on the Friars' home court which figures to be a 10-point advantage for the home team.

Walt Connolly, the boy who Coach Hollosy said prior to the start of the season would hold the key to success for the Friars this year if he came through, came through in grand style against De La Salle with a 17-point scoring spree for individual honors. Teammate Hodgman and De La Salle's Stek shared runner-up honors with 11 points each.

quaired to pay the tax as they are not using a facility provided by their clubs.

In this locale every boat owner using facilities provided by his club is nicked for twenty percent tax on the amount of his summer storage and on his winter storage. If the boat is stored on club property.

DYRA Commodore Arthur Rautenburg hopes that the formation of the DRYA tax committee will unite all boatmen affected into a solid group which will join with other yachting associations in making the protest against the tax loud enough and persistent enough to be recognized in Washington.

Commodore Nagel's committee will complete its plans which will be brought to light at the annual DRYA "Gripe meeting" late this month.

The Grosse Pointe Park City Council will take the first step in completing the boat harbor at the Park Municipal Park when it will open bids for 86 new boat wells on January 22. On January 25 the Council will act on the bids. If they are acceptable, construction will start this spring. It will mark the beginning of the proposed 313 boat wells which will be completed in the future.

Pointe Mermen Take Lead In Border Cities League

Coach Paul Wheeler's Grosse Pointe Blue Devil swimming team soared to the top of the Border Cities League standings all alone last Friday, January 15, when it smacked down Wyandotte in the Bears' pool, 59-33.

The victory gave the Devils sole possession of first place with a record of 4-0 and the favorites' role for the championship as the league swings into the final meets of the first round of home and home meets on Friday, January 22. The Devils will entertain twice-beaten Highland Park this day.

The manner in which the Devils have turned back their league rivals both at home and away makes it almost a lead pipe cinch the Devils will wear the champion's robes after the final meet on February 26.

Knocked Off Contenders
The victory knocked the Bears out of a two-way first place tie with the Devils and dropped them into a two-way second place tie with the Monroe Trojans with a 3-1 mark. Both suffered their only dunking at the hands of the Devils.

Grosse Pointe slammed three of the eight individual events and they came early in the meet to give the Devils a comfortable 29-7 lead which allowed them to coast the rest of the way.

John LeBlond and Mike Tarsney garnered the greatest number of points in the diving so far this season when they finished second and third. Normally the Devils have been forced to settle for third place points in this event which admittedly is the weakest department in an otherwise strong dual meet team.

Grosse Pointe's 160-yard freestyle relay team posted a new pool record with a 1:15.0 time which was three seconds faster than Wyandotte's quartet.

From Another Point of View

By Patricia Talbot

Bundled up in ski clothes every Friday are the ladies who play paddle tennis at the Country Club and Little Club alternately.

This has become quite a tournament with a large group signing up for this spirited game which is played on the club's outdoor courts. One of the players always has luncheon following the sets.

Among the paddle tennis addicts are Mrs. C. B. Johnson, Jr., Mrs. Edwin Fisher, Mrs. William McKay, Mrs. Lawrence Gotfredson, Mrs. William McMillan, Mrs. Carleton M. Higbie, Jr., Mrs. Charles Wright III, Mrs. Reuben Waterman, Mrs. Ford Ballantyne and Mrs. Gordon Wood.

Now that the snow has really arrived, the skiers are departing for the slopes in droves. Last week-end the Dan Johnsons, the William Delbridges, the William McMillans and the William McKays drove off to Otsego with Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Delbridge staying on through the week.

The Warren Craumers and the David Jansens are organizing a ski week-end at Boyne for early in February.

Cruising South

Packing for a long South American cruise are the Eugene P. Hoelzles, of University place. They will sail from New York on February 4 and follow the coast of South America down and around finally docking in New Orleans. All in all they will be gone two-months.

Enjoying the warm breezes in the Caribbean will be the Henry G. Gildners, of Lincoln road, who will be cruising in those waters for about three weeks. Their daughters, Connie and Gretchen, (she incidentally is studying for her master's at the U. of M.), will be vacationing in Florida while their parents are away.

Krys Glancy Coming Home

Krys Glancy, who returned to her studies at Mt. Vernon college in the nation's capital, after her glamorous pink and orange debut ball during the holidays, will be home next week for mid-semester vacation.

The debutante will spend a great deal of her time exercising her horses at the Hunt Club. During spring vacation she will be home again to work out with the horses since she expects to ride again this summer in the horse show circuit.

Her brother, Alfred R. Glancy III, is arriving home next week from Princeton and will be here for about three weeks. He will be spending most of his time working on his senior thesis since he didn't get much accomplished during the gay holiday season.

During spring recess at Grosse Pointe University, about mid-March, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred R. Glancy, Jr., will take Peter, Mike and Terry, to Naples, Fla., to soak up some sunshine.

USLC Planning Benefit Ball

"Dance So Others May Walk" is the permanent slogan of the United Syrian and Lebanese Clubs of Detroit, used each year in a fund raising effort to help combat the dread disease polio.

The affiliated clubs will sponsor their annual Polio Benefit Ball at the Harmonie Club, Grand River at Madison, on Saturday, January 23, starting at 8 p.m.

Music will be by Carl Lawrence and his band. Admission is $2 a person, and dress is optional; couple and stags invited.

Members of the USLC have a two-fold purpose in presenting the affair—so that the more fortunate can have a good time; and so those afflicted by the disease may have another chance to walk again.

The entire proceeds from the dance will go to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, which still needs help in conquering the disease, and making possible for the stricken to be cured.

Co-chairmen of the dance are Faye Eid and Barbara Hakim.

Detroit UCS Volunteers To Celebrate 25th Year

Over 4,000 metropolitan Detroit volunteer women will be celebrating the 25th birthday of the Women's Committee of the United Community Services February 1 through 14.

The Women's Committee, organized in the years immediately following the depression, is the only one of its kind in the country and by its activities has set an example for service organizations across the nation. The theme of the silver anniversary celebration is "Women... Heart of Our Community."

The purpose of the United Community Services is to aid in the strengthening of the social welfare services of metropolitan Detroit. Its primary functions are the allocating and budgeting of United Foundation funds for some 125 local services and conducting health and welfare planning for the total metropolitan Detroit community.

The Women's Committee seeks to carry out the aims of education and interpretation of the public by coordinating the activities of women in community services and encouraging metropolitan Detroit women to accept full responsibility in community service. Committee members include women volunteers—housewives, society matrons, business and professional women.

During the Committee's birthday celebration, the first two weeks of February, three important events are scheduled.

A film premiere of "Act III," a new approach to planning for later years, will be presented at the annual luncheon February 1 at Masonic Temple. In dealing with the retirement problem, the film is aimed at the younger adult group and what it must consider in planning for old age.

Teeners Enjoy Charm Course

by Patricia B. Farkas

Before Christmas, 15 teen age girls finished an exciting ten week course at the Neighborhood Club. Some Wednesday evenings were spent in evaluating their own faces and figures as well as their good and bad points! (Cheryl Robinson and Virginia Day were convinced there was no hope for them).

One evening, cosmetologist Miss Isabel of Trail Pharmacy, visited us with all kinds of make-up and ideas to improve our skins. We set up our own mirror and practiced with many types of cosmetics. (Paula Roth and Audrey Hepburn-like Ann Noecker decided their eye-brows needed training).

Still another evening, all came dressed appropriately for specified occasions and as each girl came forward to show her choice of clothes, (from her own wardrobe), we discussed and approved or disapproved the outfit. (Beverly Bliss and Pat Flynn were decked out for a holiday prom).

Following that meeting we had a small fashion show with our own members modeling. (Heather McGregor and Sharon Mehl were two of the models). This "fashion show" was held in Jacobson's tea room. We put on right and wrong clothes from their stock of separates and sports-wear... a real ball!! (Debbie Flynn, Mary Ross and Suzy Schaff made most of the comments from the audience).

Our last field trip was in the Beauty Salon at Jacobson's, (after hours), where Mrs. May Jane Condon gave us the word on hair care and styling for each of us. (Red-haired Peggy Lowrey knows as a result of this trip that her face is a perfect oval; Carol Quinn has the "Lady of the Cameo" look and Karen Sue Wiles has it "made").

Our final meeting consisted of individual appointments of twenty minutes each where I discussed with each girl her "individual" problems and presented her with a black board to hang in her room noting the points she should observe to be a real "charmer." (Mary Kilborne had so much to say that I was behind schedule for the next appointment).

The next class for all 'Would-Be-Charmers' starts Wednesday, January 27, at the Neighborhood Club. Do come and be a part of the group where we prove—there are no ugly girls, only lazy ones! Classes start at 7:30 p.m.

Prejudice is never easy unless it can pass itself off for reason. William Hazlitt

Wilhelm Gosiniak To Take Training

HEADQUARTERS SIXTH U.S. ARMY CORPS, FORT BENJAMIN HARRISON, Indiana—A Grosse Pointe Army Reservist, whose civilian occupation has been classified by his Selective Board as a critical skill vital to national defense, reported to Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri, on January 10, for three months active duty training.

Major General George E. Bush, Commanding General, VI U.S. Army Corps, has announced that Wilhelm K. Gosiniak, 1395 Roslyn road, Grosse Pointe Woods, has gone to the Missouri post.

The Michigan reservist is one of a group of 80 from VI Corps who will fulfill a portion of his military obligation by being sent on the short duty tour. Mothers' March Helpers Needed

An urgent appeal has been issued for additional volunteers to participate in the Mothers' March against crippling birth defects, arthritis and polio.

The traditional house-to-house solicitation, which climaxes the appeal of the New March of Dimes for 1960, will be held in Wayne County January 28 starting at 7 p.m.

Women who wish to join the Mothers' March are asked to call the Mothers' March at New March of Dimes headquarters at WO 1-4153.

"The number of women who thus far have volunteered for the Mothers' March is truly heartwarming, but we still need more marchers," said Mrs. Anne Campbell Stark, chairman of the Mothers' March.

"The job of the New March of Dimes is so big and the need is so pressing that every family in the county must be reached," she said. "It is important to bear in mind that one family in four is affected by the National Foundation's expanded program to prevent crippling diseases. Unfortunately, most people don't realize what vicious crippling birth defects and arthritis can be."

Funds raised through the Mothers' March will support a vigorous attack on these two diseases, as well as support the continuing work of the National Foundation in checking paralytic polio, according to the Mothers' March chairman.

"Through a pioneering health program combining medical research, financial assistance to patients and the training of medical professionals, the National Foundation plans to bring hope and help to millions of Americans afflicted by crippling diseases," the chairman said.

Headlines of the Week previous December," the Labor Department announced Friday. U. S. unemployment figures dropped to 93,000 when the steel strike ended. According to the Labor Department, unemployment usually rises in December. Other than a decrease in unemployment, the settlement of the steel strike produced other effects on the workers in the nation. There was more overtime therefore bigger pay checks as the industries worked longer hours in order to make up for lost time.

NEW YORK ATTORNEY Julian Frank, 32, of Westport, Conn., who died in the crash of the National Airlines plane in North Carolina on January 6, has been linked with scandals and other financial troubles. It was reported that Frank lost $500,000 last year in stock transactions and financial deals. He is suspected of blowing up the airliner with a suicide bomb.

Sunday, January 17 DETROIT AUTOMOBILE DEALERS are looking forward to a continuation of good sales in 1960. "The market is dandy, just what we were counting on," the majority of them say. Some think it is even better than anticipated. When the 60 models came out, the automotive industry predicted new car sales would reach seven million. Some dealers seem to think that the figure is a bit high. "We'll never make up for the steel strike," said one dealer. The 60 models are selling quite well, in fact better than counted on. For the first 10 days of January, an average of 16,900 cars were sold per day.

THE ALIBI of LSU graduate school Dean, Dr. George H. Mickey, accused of the murder of a colleague, has been called a lie by investigators. Mickey is in jail now, with the slaying of Dr. Margaret Rosamond McMillan, assistant biology professor at LSU and research expert in the Government space program. She was found, blood-gunned to death, beside her car on a country road near Baton Rouge early Sunday morning, January 10.

Mickey gave an alibi for the hours when the slaying occurred, but his story did not stand up under investigation. Blood, the type of the dead woman, was found on the outside of Mickey's car.

THE CRASH of a National Airlines plane in the Gulf of Mexico last November 16 may be attributed to a bomb explosion. The possibility was raised Saturday at a Civil Aeronautics Board meeting in Washington. Another National Airlines crash, just two weeks ago in North Carolina, has been attributed to a suicide bombing.

Listed as a passenger aboard the November 16 flight was Dr. Robert Spears of Dallas, who once threatened to blow up a hospital.

Monday, JANUARY 18 PRESIDENT EISENHOWER will tour Russia in June soon after the conclusion of the East-West Summit meeting in Paris, it was announced yesterday.

The ten day visit will begin on June 10. Whether or not Mamie or the Eisenhower's four grandchildren will accompany the Chief Executive, Khrushchev invited the four children when he visited the United States in September. Moscow will be first on his itinerary, followed by other Russian cities to be announced later.

RADAR THAT CAN SEE over the horizon and detect missiles as they are launched from submarines is the latest development announced by the Naval Research Laboratory. The beam can bend over the horizon and detect moving targets as far off as 2,600 miles. Up until this new innovation, called Project Madre, radar vision was limited to the line of sight from the transmitting antenna. It will greatly aid in filling the "gaps" in the missile bomber detection network around the United States.

Robert James Mandeville, 19, of 11561 Nottingham, Detroit, was ticketed by City police officers for not having his car under control and causing an accident, Friday, January 15.

Mandeville, turning left from East Jefferson avenue onto Fisher road on a green light, turned too short and struck the car driven by Chevin Spratt, 42, of 8361 Ravenwood, Smith Creek, Michigan. Neither man was injured, but Spratt's car had to be towed in for repairs to the front end.

He lives with his wife, Faye, and son Martin in Visalia. He is a member of the Elks Lodge and the Visalia 20-30 Club.

FROZEN APPLE SAUCE Something for dessert—or even a relish—is frozen apple sauce. Home economists at Michigan State University give the ingredients as one quart of apple sauce, one cup of crushed pineapple and two tablespoons of finely-cut, candied ginger. Mix ingredients together thoroughly and freeze in the refrigerator tray.

DALLAS and MINNEAPOLIS will be added to the National Football League within a week, it was thought yesterday following a meeting of nine NFL club owners in Miami. Also, Miami may be added in 1961. An executive committee meeting of the club owners was called last night, and three clubs were not represented, San Francisco, the Chicago Cardinals and the Washington Redskins. The 49ers are believed to be in favor of the expansion. However, Washington owner, George Preston Marshall, is against it. Cardinal owner Walter Wolfner has not committed himself as yet.

Tuesday, January 19 A CAPITAL AIRLINES VISCOUNT plane crashed in Virginia, last night, less than two weeks after the North Carolina supposed suicide-bomb crash which killed 34 people. Last night's crash took 48 lives, 44 passengers and four crew members. The plane was enroute from Chicago to Norfolk by way of Washington. The crash occurred at about the point the plane would normally begin its descent in preparation for landing. The aircraft, therefore, was on course at the time of the crash. The area was enclosed in fog, and the plane was flying on instruments. No distress signal was received. The plane went down about 30 miles southeast to Richmond, about 11 p.m.

Wednesday, January 20 PRESIDENT EISENHOWER'S 79.8 billion dollar budget is before Congress now for approval, and the chances of its being approved are not very promising. The Democrats in Congress stand ready to "kick the props" from beneath many of the President's proposals for cutting expenses.

when the POINTE was growing up...

By Pat Talbot

As a week-end refuge Grosse Pointe had gained the attention of Detroit's hard working industrialists by the early 1900's. In 1911 Jere Hutchins, famed as head of Detroit United Railways, bought land on Provençal road on which he built a white gabled house and began farming in a gentlemanly way.

Well known as he was in the street railway industry, Mr. Hutchins was equally prominent in society circles through marriage to one of the well established Russel clan. Born on one of the fabled plantations of the Old South, Mr. Hutchins grew up during the Civil War on another plantation in Missouri.

As his family were Confederates his boyhood and early manhood brought real hardship when the war ended. Finally at 15 he ran away from home. He worked driving mules, on a wheat farm and collecting bills before returning home.

Railroad building reached its apex in the 80's and Jere Hutchins made his mark in Texas, where he also married his first wife, Anna Brooks. The young couple moved to Louisiana where he was assistant superintendent of a railway.

He finally accepted an offer to come to Detroit where street railways, an outgrowth of the old horse cars, were to provide political and economic problems for years, engaging the attention of such controversial figures as Hazen Pingree and Frank Couzens before the railways were bought by the city.

Jere Hutchins was able to remain at the helm of Detroit United Railways through all the controversy, never suffering personal unpopularity although his railways were always in the news.

In 1903, two years after the death of his wife, he married Sarah Russel, daughter of Dr. George Russel and Anna Davenport. By 1918 he was ready to retire from the DUR, having turned down an offer from railroad czar Harriman to run a line in New York.

The farm in Grosse Pointe had been run by tenant farmers, the Hutchinses spending most of their week-ends playing golf. Links had been built on the site of the present Country Club greens, although the Country Club itself was down on East Jefferson.

The Hutchinses were among the first to play on the present golf links, often inviting friends back to their spacious farmhouse. The farm itself was well equipped, the land running back on Provençal to where GPUS stands today. On the present site of the Symington and Goddard homes, (Mrs. Goddard was Kitty Russel), sheep roamed. There were pigs, horses, cows, chickens and turkeys, too.

Finally the farm was abandoned as Provençal grew more residential and neighbors seemed annoyed when turkeys drank from their elegant bird baths. All that were left of the barnyard pets were two dogs, Yon and Tega, named for Mr. Hutchins' favorite club, the Yondetega. When Mr. Hutchins died in 1943 the land was divided into residential plots. The present owners of the remodeled farmhouse and barn are the Walter Cavanaugh's, (he's president of the neighboring Hunt Club).

The Russel family was prolific; beside Mrs. Goddard, descendants include members of the Dykema, Wheat, Nutter, Wardwell, McMillan, Rumney, Werneken and Edwards families. So abundant were the Russel connections, and so popular was the family, that a famous general receiving guests at the Detroit Club after meeting six Russel ladies in a row answered Mrs. Wallace Radcliffe next in line who had said; "General, I am not a Russel", "Ah, Madam, you look charming enough to be one."

Editorial note: Much of the above information was taken from a book written by Jere Hutchins and printed privately. We are grateful to Mrs. Wendell C. Goddard for loaning us her autographed copy.

who, where and whatnot

by whoozit

The Pointe artists Agnes Lindemann and Bernice Carmichael have been asked to exhibit their work in a very prominent Parisian gallery... are arranging details right now for a spring show.

Here at home in our own art gallery, Joseph de Grimme's on Kercheval, recently there was another first; a gallery luncheon in which Mrs. deGrimme, Mrs. David Rust, Mrs. John D. Cannon and Mrs. William Day discussed what is new in the cultural world over chicken tetrazzini, rum torte and two kinds of wine.

We hope you haven't thrown away your Christmas tree... Mrs. John Denler informs us that no-one in Scotland throws away a tree. With typical thrift they are burned in the fireplace, not just to save firewood but to insure luck for the coming year. If you let your tree be taken away from the house you are throwing away good fortune.

In the Walter Cavanaugh's remodeled white farmhouse in Provençal road there is nothing rustic about the decor... surprising to find gold silk and cut velvet wallpaper in the drawing room, turquoise silk scenic paper in the dining room... the Cavanaugh's seven children do all their entertaining in an asphalt tiled family room off the kitchen.

Lovely, brunette debutante Alice Aagesen, studying at the University of Michigan, has her heart set on a difficult career, at least for a woman. She wants to be an architect.

Mrs. Stewart McFadden remembers not so long ago... she kept a pony in the backyard of her family's home, used to ride it every day. Her grandfather was Fred T. Moran and he still had his farm on Moross road and the lakeshore running back to where Cambridge and Muskoka are today with plenty of pasture for horses.

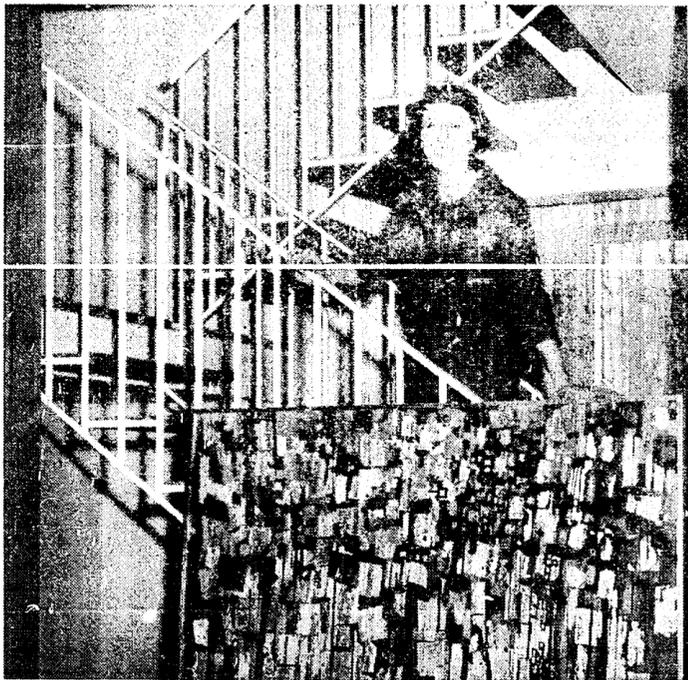

PILFERINGS

With a woman friend, a Hollywood producer attended the opening performance of an Arthur Miller play. When it was over he asked what she thought of it. "If you like a great play", she replied, "it's all right."

At the conclusion of the Sunday School session, the teacher was conducting a short review. "Who" she asked, "went into the lion's den and came out alive?"

There was a moment's pause before one small voice piped up: "The lion?"

LOUISE JANSSON NOBILLI, OF EAST JEFFERSON AVENUE

By Patricia Talbot

The brilliant, colorful water colors and oils of Louise Jansson Nobili hang in the homes of Mrs. Edsel Ford, Robert Tannahill, Mrs. Ralph Harmon Booth and the Alvan Macauleys. This modern artist has had seven one man shows and exhibited from Cape Cod to South Bend, Ind.

One of Detroit's art critics calls Mrs. Nobili, "the best modern artist we have locally." Since Thanksgiving the artist has become a Pointer we can claim with pride. With her architect-artist husband she is living in a very modern mocha brick and glass home on the Frank W. Donovan estate.

The house designed by Marco Nobili with its clean lines, white walls and beamed studio is the perfect foil for the Nobilis' collection of paintings, and an inducement to more masterpieces.

Violinist Too

Louise Nobili claimed Grosse Pointe as her home during school days. As a ninth grader she was an enthusiastic violinist in the GPHS orchestra. She still occasionally plays the violin while her husband strums a guitar. She had begun her painting as a girl with her sister, who did go on to be a violinist, and another sister, who Mrs. Nobili says has quantities of artistic ability, but is now a devoted wife and mother. As a sixth grader Mrs. Nobili won an art scholarship in Flint, wrote a term paper on her career as an artist.

After graduating from Cooley High School she went on to Wayne State University to a bachelor's and master's degree in art. She now teaches three days a week at Wayne, where she is a full professor, spends the other two catching up on administrative work, household chores and crams in some

Elsie Scherer Top Scholar

Elsie Scherer, daughter of the J. Otto Scherers of Berkshire road, was graduated last Saturday from the University of Michigan with top honors for academic achievement and student activities.

During her undergraduate career, she was elected to seven honorary societies; Phi Beta Kappa, Mortarboard, Alpha Lambda Delta, Circle, Wyvern, Phi Kappa Phi and Pi Lambda Theta. She also served on the board of the Assembly Association for three years and is currently treasurer of the group.

For an all A scholarship record in two consecutive semesters, she was designated as a James B. Angell Scholar.

A graduate of Grosse Pointe High School, Miss Scherer is presently working for her Masters degree in Geography.

Awards for Work

Her awards are numerous including the John Newberry Purchase Award in 1945 and the Detroit Museum of Art Founders Society Prize in 1956, both of which she speaks with special affection.

Mrs. Nobili is modern, not only in her painting techniques but in her attitudes toward her chosen work. Variety is her keynote and her fascinating range of material is always brought to life in vibrant color. She paints largely from preliminary sketches and memory.

"The many cities and villages of the world, their specific patterns and the life of the people as it relates to their peculiar surroundings will always hold for me a keen interest and urge to paint because of the ever-changing relationship which challenge new attitudes in ways of painting."

Republican Club To Hear Patton

The annual meeting of the Women's Republican Club of Grosse Pointe will be held at the Country Club of Detroit on Friday, January 22, at noon. Professor William A. Patton of the University of Michigan will be the guest speaker. His subject will be "When Everyone is Somebody, Than No One's Anybody."

Professor Patton who grew up on a farm in the midwest, was graduated from the University of Michigan in 1915 and received a Ph.D. in 1917. With the exception of a year in Washington with the War Trade Board and special appointments at the University of California, Chicago and Minnesota, Dr. Patton has taught continuously at Michigan, and has been professor of economics since 1921.

He joined the American Economic Association in 1917, is a past president of the American Accounting Association and has long been active in the work of the American Institute of Accountants. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Kappa Phi, and other scholastic societies and a fellow of American Academy of Arts and Sciences. In 1940 Dr. Patton was Dickinson lecturer at the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration, and in 1944 he received the honorary degree of Litt. D. from Lehigh University.

Well known, well beloved by his students both at the University of Michigan and the University of Chicago, to which he commutes every Tuesday, Dr. Patton is also called upon to act as consultant before Committees of Congress. He is also author of numerous textbooks widely used throughout the country and the well known economics primer "Shirtsleeve Economics."

He believes that today's high taxes and reckless inflation are a direct result of the average American's ignorance of the economic "facts of life." He presents the fundamentals of economics with such vigor and clarity that any fair-minded reader can understand the issues that control his daily conduct and determine his standard of living.

Mrs. Stuart Baits, former Regent of the University of Michigan, will introduce Professor Patton. For luncheon reservations, call Mrs. L. W. Garrett at TU 4-6573 or Mrs. O. P. Ashurst at VA 1-1206.

Securities can't be selected like groceries...

When you buy groceries, you normally start with a shopping list and fill your cart with the items listed, as you move from one shelf section to another. Selection is based upon pleasing the family appetites, and tastes, and providing a healthful diet.

Selection of securities is an entirely different matter. Thoughtful consideration must be given to the requirements of the Individual Investor... not merely to his appetite and tastes. Whether he needs assured income now, or security in the future... whether he desires to speculate (and can afford to)... and many other factors must be considered.
