He said that in one garage, he took a wallet and car keys from a car parked there.

Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers said that the garage and car belong to Mrs. Willema Greenlee of 764 Pemberton. The wallet was still in Jezierski's possession when he was searched.

The chief said that a warrant will be sought charging Jezierski with breaking and entering in the night time.

LOSES $100 BRACELET

Mrs. W. C. Hunter of 1103 Balfour road, told Park police on Wednesday, March 9, that while she was attending a carnival at Defer School, she lost a gold bracelet, valued at $100.

Explosion

the dental building when they heard the explosion and saw the skylight blown into the air, to land on another building 40 feet away.

Doctor Taken Outside

Benthuyts and Martin stopped immediately and went through the front window, stepping over shattered glass. They found the wall of the laboratory and the utility room on fire, and while Martin put out the fire in the utility room, Benthuyts wrapped his coat around the doctor and assisted him outside.

The fire in the laboratory was out of control, and Martin could do nothing but wait for Woods firemen. The Woods has an integrated police-fire department.

When Woods firemen arrived, Dr. Totte was in Benthuyts' car, and as the fire was being fought, the officers offered to take Dr. Totte to St. John Hospital in a Woods scout car. Permission to do this was granted by Lt. Coats.

Helps Woods Police

Martin remained at the scene and assisted Woods police in directing vehicular traffic.

Det. Sgt. Walter O'Dell and Det. Leroy Tobian tried to question the doctor at the hospital. They said that Dr. Totte told them he had gone to his office to take care of a patient, as a special favor to the patient, since it was Sunday.

After the patient was taken care of and had gone, the doctor said, he went into the laboratory to do some lab work, and thought he lit a match, and the explosion happened. Then the doctor, dazed and in pain, told the detectives, he was not sure what actually happened.

Lt. Coats said that an estimate of damage to the building is not known, but its condition is such it might have to be torn down.

saturation of water vapor in the air, which condenses on the air molecules which the rays and particles ionize. Thus it is possible to see the trails which these particles and rays take. Each side of the cloud chamber can be charged with electricity, making it possible to distinguish between the different particles.

These exhibits, and nearly 500 as interesting, will be displayed at the fair.

Blue ribbons will be given for the best projects, chosen by a team of science and art teachers. Judging will be based on ingenuity and originality.

THIEF TAKES JACKET

Raymond Dallman of 256 Lewiston road, complained to Farms police on Wednesday, March 9, that someone broke into his locker in Grosse Pointe High School and took his jacket. It has blue and tan leather sleeves, he said.

Grosse Pointe students were winners in this fair.

Postcards, available from any science teacher or principal in the Detroit area, should be sent to the Metropolitan Fair by

Discussion on Safety

MICHIGAN STATE CO-EDS discuss with GORDON SHEEHE, director of the university's Highway Traffic Safety Center (second from right) two new 1960 station wagons which will be used in the driver education classes. In rear is MARTIN W. CHAMBERLAIN, Dodge executive, who presented the cars. Chamberlain resides at 1386 Roslyn road.

Merit Scholarship Tests

cerned with the future of America. The brilliant record of the Merit Scholars of other years speaks for itself. The far-sighted donors who have sponsored Merit Scholarships in other years have made an incalculable investment which will benefit everyone. We urge others to join them in this important crusade for excellence.

The selection of the Finalists who will be awarded Merit Scholarships in 1960 is performed by the Merit Scholar Selection Committee, a panel of experts in academic selection, and by special judging teams convened by various donors of Merit Scholarships. High school grades, leadership, citizenship, and extra-curricular activities are considered as well as test scores.

Are Four Year Awards Merit Scholarships are four-year awards, and carry stipends that range from $100 a year to $1500 a year. Each stipend is individually determined on the basis of need. The amount is based upon family resources, summer earnings, and college costs, all of which vary for each winner.

No Merit Scholar may accept other major scholarship assistance in addition to his Merit Scholarship stipend, a rule followed by most private scholarship donors. The aim is to distribute available funds to as many outstanding students as possible. Most Merit Scholarships also carry grants to the colleges. Each student chooses his college and course of study. Gaining admission to college is the responsibility of the student, but in 1960, the National Merit Scholarship Corporation gave additional assistance to the 37,000 top scorers in the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test, by sending, without charge, test scores to their first and second choice colleges.

Was Given $20.5 Million
The National Merit Scholarship Corporation was established in 1955 with grants of $20.5 million from the Ford Foundation and the Carnegie Corporation of New York. The current program is the fifth that has been conducted. Over one and one half million students have participated. Of the more than 3000 Merit Scholars selected in the first four programs, twenty-six have already graduated having completed their studies in three years or less, and all had distinguished records.

The sixth program was to begin on March 8, (alternate date March 19), with the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test to be given in an estimated 15,000 high schools.

Library Offering Schweitzer Film

The Friends of The Grosse Pointe Public Library and the Grosse Pointe Public Library will present the film biography "Albert Schweitzer" this Friday evening at 9:15 o'clock. The place is the Central Library reading room, at Kercheval and Fisher road.

The film, produced for the most part in Africa by Erica Anderson, is a beautifully photographed and thoroughly interesting biography of a gifted, practical humanitarian. Dr. Schweitzer has written the commentary for the film.

Although still in his twenties, Dr. Schweitzer became a world figure as an organist, philosopher, theologian, and at 30 plunged himself into medicine to help alleviate suffering and has spent his long life as a missionary in French Equatorial Africa, as he explains "Man Belongs to Man" and "One who escapes misfortune should render thanks by doing something to relieve suffering."

Much of the picture shows how this great figure still is helping the natives to achieve good health conditions and to use modern techniques and drugs.

The public is cordially invited to attend and join the members of the Friends' association in this program. The last film on the present series will be shown of April 8 and it will be "In the Year of Our Lord," a prize film on the Holy Land Today.

LOSES WALLET

Mrs. Daniel Johnson of 77 Moran road informed Farms police on Wednesday, March 9, that she lost her wallet which contained her driver's license and personal papers, $50 in cash and $90 worth of trading stamps. She said she last saw the wallet in Dants, 98 Kercheval.

Wild Driver Rams Tree

that they were picked up by Hoffmeyer at about 7:10 p.m., at Nine Mile road and Jefferson, as they were hitchhiking to Detroit.

Goodman and Srigley said Hoffmeyer was driving at a fast clip. When he saw the police car, he slowed down momentarily, but when Yacks took after him, Hoffmeyer stepped on the gas.

Ignored Their Pleas
At this point, the teenagers said, Hoffmeyer stated, "I'll show you how to ditch the police," then made his effort to escape. Both Goodman and Srigley said they begged Hoff-meyer to let them out of the car, but the motorist refused to listen.

As Hoffmeyer neared the curve, the boys said, the car swerved from curb to curb, then as it hit the right curb, Hoffmeyer lost control and smashed into the tree.

Goodman said he was not sure whether Hoffmeyer had been drinking, but "he sure acted strange".

Shores Police Chief Fred Duemling said he will ask Wayne County Asst. Pros. Dale Devlin for a warrant charging Hoffmeyer with felonious driving.

Rotarians Plan Biggest Antiques Show

MICHIGAN'S FINEST ANTIQUES SHOW will be held at the War Memorial Center on May 10-13, sponsored for the fifth straight year by Grosse Pointe Rotary Club. Shown above is the publicity committee working on 1960 plans: (l. to r.) WILLIAM "DOC" STRAWBRIDGE chairman for the show; BOB WILCOX; ED HICKEY; ERNIE WHITNEY, publicity committee chairman; JOHN HAMEL; ED BUNN and BOB ORR.

With the fifth annual antiques show still two months away, Grosse Pointe Rotary Club already is busy with plans to make the 1960 show the best one yet.

The Memorial Center will be the setting for well known antique dealers from all over the United States to display their distinctive wares.

Unlike previous years, there will be no mass mailing of tickets to each family in the Grosse Pointe Communities. The kets are available now from any Grosse Pointe Rotarian.

Working with the 98 members of the Grosse Pointe Rotary Club will be the Rotary Anns, wives of the members who play an important role in the success of the show each year.

Neighboring Rotary and women's clubs, radio, television and the press will be asked to assist in publicizing the show.

The Grosse Pointe Rotary Club sponsors this event each year to raise funds for its many community services.

Money gained from the sale of tickets, concessions and sponsors is put in trust with the Grosse Pointe Rotary Foundation, whose directors allocate these funds to deserving humanitarian projects.

While all exhibits will be for sale by the various exhibitors, the Rotary Club receives no proceeds from this source.

Drain Project

About June or July of 1957, the State Supreme Court ruled the Acts constitutional and the Drain project went ahead with the sale of the bonds.

In a report of the progress of the drain construction, Fate and Hrn, Inc., city engineers, made on Monday, March 7, to the Woods council, the firm disclosed that some of the subcontractors have completed their work, with the exception of general cleanup, and others have from 85 per cent to 98 per cent of their work finished.

Top Photographs Being Displayed

Ivan Dmitri, New York artist and photographer known most recently for his direction of the exhibition, "Photography and the Fine Arts," will give a lecture at the Henry Ford Museum theater on Friday, March 18, at 8:30 p.m.

This photographic project is among those traveling exhibitions currently on display at the Ford Museum. The others are "The World of Edward Weston," circulated by the Smithsonian Institution; and "Sequence 13—Return to the Bud," featuring the work of Minor White and sponsored by the George Eastman house of Photography, Rochester, N.Y. All three are in the midwest for the first time.

Altogether, nearly 350 photographs, many in color, may be seen at the show.

Now recognized as one of the country's outstanding color photographers, Dmitri or Levon West as he was then known, grew up in a small North Dakota farm town, the son of a minister. A 1923 graduate of the University of Minnesota, he won attention in his undergraduate days as a cartoonist. Later he took up etching and in 1927, won renown for his sketch of Charles A. Lindbergh's plane, "The Spirit of St. Louis" in its New York-to-Paris flight.

He adopted the pseudonym Dmitri in 1937 upon his entrance into color photography, then a pioneer field. He soon won acclaim for his magazine covers, and a national periodical photography editor said later of his work: "He combines picture interest with superb technique."

The idea for the project, "Photography and the Fine Arts," was developed by Dmitri after he expressed a conviction that more museums should collect and display great photographs as art.

The 30 color and 46 black and white photographs in the show were chosen by a panel of blue-ribbon experts from 438 nominations. Of the original field, 197 were in color.

Dmitri said of the photographs selected:

"Each had evoked or communicated an idea, a word, or an emotion, each had been created with artistic integrity and had an aesthetic appeal—in the opinion, of course, of those who had chosen them."

The Ford Museum show will continue through Sunday, March 27, with special hours 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Thursday and 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. on Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Spring Early At Jacobson's

To hasten and to complement the coming of spring, Jacobson's has turned windows and the store interior into an atmosphere of beauty, song and flowers.

Using the theme of "Fountain of Easter Fashions," the display department has created garden spots throughout the store centered around water fountains backed by grass, shrubs and flowers.

Easter fashions for the whole family are highlighted around each display, and to carry out the true feeling of spring, canary birds have been placed so that their songs can be heard in all departments.

All are invited to see these special windows and interiors.

To Give Plays At Pierce High

The Pierce Junior High School Auditorium will be transformed into legitimate theater on Friday evening, March 25. Promptly at 8 o'clock Dr. Thomas Moore will raise his baton to conduct the Pierce Orchestra in setting the mood for the evening of dramatic productions. They will play Handel's "Processional Prelude" and Brahms' "Theme from First Symphony."

The personnel of the orchestra playing violins is composed of Mary Auble, Esther Frederickson, Elaine Harrison, Irene Mertens, Karen Savory, Diane Stewart, Janet Updegraff, Anne Williamson, Patricia Desparmet, Elizabeth Frederickson, Susan Kennedy, Catherine Mertens, Greta Miller, Edith Parsons, Sydney Raymond, and Peggy West. The cellists are John Comly and Alexandra Streich while the viola players are Maurice Connelly and Martha Court. Wayne Butterfield and Warren Finke play the bass fiddles. The accompanist at the piano is Barbara Kerber.

"The Life of the Party" by Donald Payton has been selected for the production to be given by the seventh grade dramatics group. We understand that the play is filled with numerous surprises to delight the audience. Debbly Alcott, Gail Squiers, Barbara Warmbold, Cleo Lonesk, Linda Damman, Sally Harrison, Mike Jaglois, John Montgomery, Mike Cooper, Peter Parker, Brian Logan, Robert Baldwin, and Neal Westmacott are assuming the various characterizations portrayed in this play. Mr. Robert Hafer is the faculty producer.

John Mason is faculty director of the ninth grade production, "The Pampered Darling." A promising cast of 11 is hard at work to portray the story of a younger brother's attempts to throw a well-aimed monkey-wrench into his sister's weekend party plans; but, thanks to the help of the sister's college boy friends, the monkey-wrench becomes a boomerang.

Victor Gibbons played by Rodney Luzi gets his own monkey wrench. His sisters, Connie and Janet Gibbons are ably portrayed by Sue O'Connell and Lydia Leacock. The part of Dr. Rudolf Von Hapsburger is assumed by Bart Elmer and Lynn Bergmann is Mrs. Perkins. The remaining family friends are Norman Evans by Kim Anderson; Dudley Field by Steve Landers; Floyd David by Tom Ingram; Jessica Baron by Sherry Boyd; Joy Gaylord by Barbara Surbrook, and Annabelle Green by Lynda Bell.

The two dramatics activity groups composed of seventh, eighth and ninth graders are also planning to give dramatic skits between the two plays. Tickets are being sold at the school this next week and will also be on sale at the box-office before the plays on Friday, March 25.

The members will assemble in the main floor office to witness the workings of a modern brokerage office. Smith, Hague & Co. located on Mack at Oxford road has a Trans-Lux ticker tape, a direct brokerage business and financial news wire, a direct wire to other branches and a complete reference library.

Luncheon will be served in the meeting room by a local restaurant. Following the regular business meeting a New York Stock Exchange movie will be shown and a short question and answer period will follow.

Mr. Offer will be happy to make arrangements for other groups wishing to acquaint themselves with the facilities of a brokerage office.

Public School Student Art To Be Displayed at Center

All parents, children and art lovers are encouraged to visit the display of art work being staged by the Grosse Pointe Public School students from kindergarten through Senior High School at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center, March 25 through April 10.

The Center is always open 9 a.m. through 9 p.m. week-days and 12-5 p.m. on Sundays. When visiting the exhibit week-days, however, it is advisable to call the Center, TU. 1-7511, to be sure all display rooms are open as they are sometimes used for meetings.

Miss Marilyn Krueger, of the faculty of Brownell Junior High School, is in charge of the exhibit assisted by Allen Ebert, also of Brownell, Allen Hayes and Mrs. Esther Meldrum of Parcels Junior High School faculty, Miss Julie Miegahn and Robert Rathbun of Pierce Junior High School faculty, Miss Marion Lampman, Art Director, Grosse Pointe High School, and Donald Schrom, Art Supervisor of the Grosse Elementary Schools.

The exhibit is divided into two main categories—crafts and paintings. Included in craft products will be jewelry, weaving, wood and soap sculpture, ceramics (both bowls and animals), mobiles, papier mache figures and hand puppets, many with costumes of foreign lands. The paintings will include work in all media. A very interesting group will be done in crayon resist. This is a system where a crayon sketch is covered with water color which the crayon resists yielding a lovely and unusual effect. There will be many examples of tempera, (work done with poster paints). A great many line and figure studies of action poses will be hung. Water colors, pen and ink sketches, block printing and silk screen work will all be included.

The exhibit will represent the typical work produced throughout the year covering the whole school system. There was no contest involved and no prizes awarded. It is a chance for the young people to show what they can do and a wonderful opportunity for the entire community to become aware of the youthful talent in Grosse Pointe and how it is being directed.

Posters calling attention to event will be placed in many establishments throughout the community. There will be also an auxiliary display of certain items in the Central library.

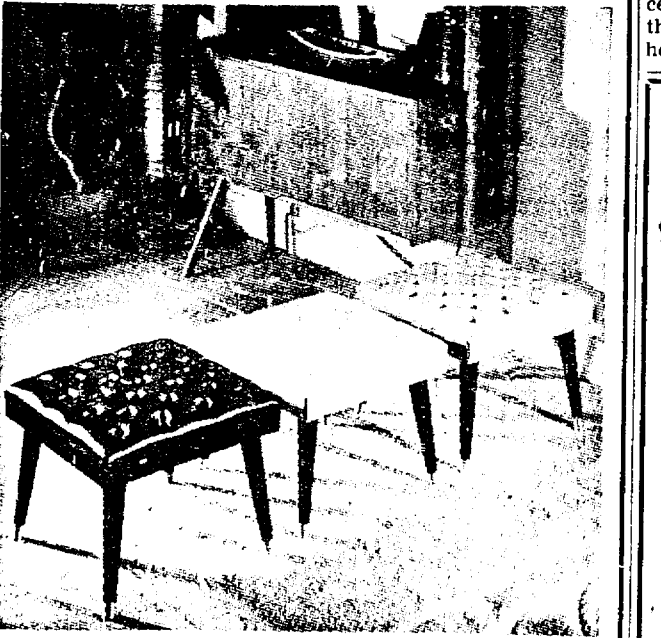

STITCHED BY HAND
"Hand-tailored" can mean a good quality—or not. It all depends on the quality of the hand stitching. Eleanor Mulikin, clothing instructor at Michigan State University, says good machine stitching looks and wears better than poor quality hand sewing. In well-made suits, however, good hand-tailoring construction cannot be duplicated by machine.

It's a strange old world—the wee small hours often develop some mighty big times.

Adult Education Classes Starting

Looking for something to get you out of the winter doldrums and give you that fresh, new outlook for spring? Then you will be interested in knowing that the Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Public School System is ready to start the spring classes for Adult Education.

Bridge (Goren rules) will begin a new term the week of March 21 for an eight-week term. Taught by Mrs. Carrie Kiley, the course will feature all Goren's newest revisions, and be offered on three levels: beginner, refresher and player.

In the beginner class, the foundation of the game is taught: Point Count Bidding, responses, leads, signals, etc. The Refresher course will stress play of the hand, a review of rules, defense bids and plays, safety plays, slams, etc., and elementary card combinations. Players will be coached on advanced card combinations, special bids, cue bids, end plays, percentage plays, dummy reversal, squeeze plays, etc.

What golfer is waiting "patiently" these days for the first good weather, to start out with his clubs? While he waits—the golfer, and the novice, will have an opportunity to improve his game under the expert instruction of two well-known professionals.

Instructing the classes will be, Danny Bianco, who has been assistant pro at the Detroit Country Club and Lochmoor Club; and Ben Lula, former assistant at Tam O'Shanter, and head pro at Monroe Golf and Country Club. The classes are scheduled for Monday, March 21, and Wednesday, March 23, for a six-week period. It is necessary to make advance reservation for these classes.

For the person who would like his spring avocation to follow a more serious bent: Investment Procedures on a beginning level, is being offered with Peter Logan as instructor. Mr. Logan is a graduate of the School of Business Administration of the University of Michigan, and a present member of the staff of Wayne State University. He is an active investment broker, and partner in a Detroit investment firm; bringing to his class the most current possible counsel. This is an eight-week course, meeting on Monday, March 28.

Openings are also available in the following subjects for the Spring term: Art: Oil Painting and Drawing; Textile Painting; Ceramics; Copper-Enamel; Silver Jewelry; Flower Arranging; Sewing; Dressmaking; Tailoring; Millinery (evening); Knitting; Cooking for Two; Food Decorating; Homemakers Work Simplification; Blue Print Reading; Vocabulary and Grammar; Business English; Upholstery (day and evening); French, Spanish and Italian (for beginners); Shorthand (three levels); Typing; Rhythmic Exercise for Women; Square Dance II.

Three persons were injured in this accident, Saturday, March 12, the driver and two young hitchhikers. The driver, Russell Hoffmeyer, 26, of 22512 Norcrest, was speeding between 70 and 80 miles an hour trying to get away from Shores police. The boys he picked up asked to be let out of the car, but were refused by Hoffmeyer, who told them, "I'll show you how to ditch the police". At 1100 Lake Shore road, Hoffmeyer lost control of the car which jumped an island curb, glanced off one tree and smashed into the tree shown above. The driver and one of the youths were seriously injured. The other youth suffered lacerations of the head.

Explosion Wrecks Dental Building

This edifice at 19338 Mack avenue, owned by Dr. Clarence Totte, 58, of 53 Hampton road, was ruined on Sunday, March 13, by a blast believed caused by leaking gas. The explosion caused extensive damage to the interior and exterior of the building, with fire adding to the havoc in the laboratory, where the blast originated.

Dr. Totte suffered first and second degree burns about the face and throat and arms. He was taken to St. John Hospital by police, where his condition is reported as satisfactory. The force of the explosion blew the skylight two buildings away, Woods firemen said.

Science Fair, Hobby Show Great Success at G.P.U.S.

The Science Fair provided a news item of major interest at Grosse Pointe University School last week. While the Lower School children were directing their attention to the Hobby Show being held at the same time, 91 students mostly from the Upper School exhibited projects that represented obvious care in preparation and development.

The whole new Edsel Ford Gymnasium was filled with exhibits in three categories—the biological sciences (zoology, botany, anthropology), the physical sciences (physics, chemistry, engineering) and earth sciences (astronomy, weather, geology).

William P. Hindie, science instructor, was faculty director of the Science Fair, assisted by Miss Ethel Osborn, Andries Cole, and Samuel Beeler. Mr. Hindie commented that the students showed exceptional imaginative and organizational skill in helping to make the fair a success and that girls, often popularly thought to be non-scientists, made an impressive contribution to the exhibition.

Likewise contributions were not, by any means, exclusively from science classes. The Lower School, he also added, will have more extensive contributions next year, and the role of the fields of mathematics and engineering will be larger than, too.

Judging of the projects this year took place on the Thursday night before the fair was open to the public, and as Headmaster John Chandler, Jr. announced at the Friday morning assembly, the judges stayed at school until 12:30 a.m. to ponder over their choice and to be sure that they had decided correctly. On the committee were Mrs. Bruce Renaud, Dr. John Ehrlich, and E. Edward Wilson. Their stipulation was that "only work done by the student, not the value of accessory equipment either borrowed or purchased, would be judged."

Judging, likewise, was based on "creative ability and clarity (40 points), scientific thought (30 points), and skill and appearance (30 points)."

The following were the winners:

Earth Science: 1st, David Lord; 2nd, Stephanie Fischer; 3rd, Cecily Smith; 4th, Nat Semple.

Physical Science: 1st, Rickey Peterson; 2nd, Clare Morrison; 3rd, John Ehrlich; 4th, Peter Armstrong; 4th, Harry Gariand.

Biology: 1st, Bill Semple; 2nd, Penny Court; 3rd, Otis McKinley; 4th, Ralph Pressel.

Winner of the grand award was 8th grader Rickey Peterson, whose extraordinarily complicated robot called "Machina Sapiens" or "Thinking Machine" stirred great attention from the large numbers of students and parents who attended the fair on Friday afternoon and evening. The machine "thinks" and solves problems and will show reflex action and conditioning and has the ability to make its way through various obstacles to arrive at a conclusion.

Student co-chairmen for the event were Bob Love and Robyn Redfield. Grade representatives were the following: 11th Jody Jennings and Alice Ledyard; 10th Paul Sheridan and Rosalie Morrison; 9th Djek Cross and Margaret VanDeGraaf; 8th Bob Evans and Mary Bicknell; and 7th John Perkin and Constance Nank. Leslie Rein designed the cover for the Science Fair program.

Next year's student co-chairmen will be Jody Jennings and Alice Ledyard, whom Mr. Hindie particularly commended for outstanding leadership in this school project.

The 26th annual student Hobby Show also took place last Friday at G.P.U.S. Judges for the event were Mrs. Marie Granger, for many years the faculty sponsor of the show and now retired, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl I. Heenan, Jr.

Winners for creative hobbies, Grades 4-6, were these students: 1. Ayers Morrison: Soldiers. 2. Lisa Hill: Painting, Drawing, Dolls. 3. Judy Garland: Creative Art.

For collective hobbies in Grades 4-6: 1. Rip Odell: Shells. 2. Penny Chapin: All About Dogs. 3. Chick Gorey: Coins.

For creative hobbies in Grades 7-12: 1. Olin Jennings: A Shakespearean theater and a replica of a fort. 2. Roger Gass: Woodwork. 3. Wayne Pressel: Indian Craft.

For collective hobbies in Grades 7-12: 1. Duncan Laurie: Indian Lore. 2. Sally Weaver: Dogs. 3. Bill Volkens and Charles Gillis: Fish.

The judges considered the following points in their decision: 1) The educational value of the hobby. 2) The intelligence of the exhibitor in discussing the hobby. 3) The arrangement of the hobby. 4) The arrangement of the hobby itself.

The Hobby Show was under the general direction of Edward F. Arnold, Jr., and the student committee was composed of these grade representatives.

The Hobby Show program was drawn by a Hobby Show winner, Lisa Hill, of the 6th grade.

GPCT to Act For Defer PTA

Elementary school and church groups who have enjoyed the talents of the Grosse Pointe Community Theatre in the past may do so again at Defer School, at Kercheval and Nottingham.

On March 21 at 8 p.m. the P.T.A. will present this group in a play entitled "Scattered Showers." A mental health story, it is directed by Mrs. John McCabe and discussion of the theme will be led by Miss Jane Finger, visiting teacher at Defer.

Room visitation for parents to meet with the teachers will open at 7:30 and will be followed by the business portion of the meeting conducted by President Robert Maynard. At this time reports of the recent Carnival will be given, as well as other interesting items of current business.

Mrs. Jeanne Stedman, Social Chairman, and her committee including co-chairman Mrs. Lucille Peat and hostesses for the evening, Mrs. Armbruster, Mrs. Beebe, Mr. Buffa, Mrs. Hawkins, Mrs. Kennedy, Mrs. Martens, Mrs. Mortier, Mrs. Munkholm, Mrs. Wanke, and Mrs. Wellertter, will serve refreshments at the conclusion of the program.

REPORTS CAR BREAKIN

Farms police took a statement from Bruce Kirchner of 458 Touraine road, in which he said that someone broke into his car in front of his home, after smashing the wing-window on the passenger side. Nothing was reported missing.

A brilliant new concept in make-up

Helena Rubinstein creates THE ILLUMINATED COMPLEXION

As a final glory for her Tree Of Life skin treatment that has made such an exciting, youthful reputation for itself, Helena Rubinstein creates Illuminated cosmetics. More a way of shedding light on the skin than of overlaying color, here at last is shadowproofed make-up that illuminates your skin romantically, whether the electricity glares or glows.

The makings: ILLUMINATION® FOUNDATION, a pouring cream so featherweight you scarcely sense it on the skin. It floats on easily, evenly, and brightens like candleshine—lights out weary hollows and distracting lines. 5.00. ILLUMINATION POWDER, light as a puff of air. It is sieved to a smoothness that gives the most un-powdery, incandescent mat finish imaginable. 5.00.

TREE OF LIFE® LIPSTICK, a delicious diet of cream that makes glowing softness of even the driest lips—holds a precise lip-line. In exquisite convertible case. 7.50; refills 2.50. Feast of colors.

HS Mothers' Club Reveals Aid Plan

Scholarship Committee, Headed by Mrs. Holmes Brown, Sends Letters to GPHS Parents Announcing Recognition of Graduating Seniors

Within this week all parents of students attending Grosse Pointe High School will receive a letter over the signature of Mrs. Holmes Brown, first vice-president of the Mothers' Club and chairman of its Scholarship committee.

Accompanying the letter is information outlining the two-fold plan by which this organization annually makes recognition of graduating seniors.

The plan consists of two types of awards. The first, based entirely on academic achievement, is the presentation of a leather bound dictionary with the student's name imprinted in gold to each graduate whose academic standing ranks in the top 5 per cent of the class.

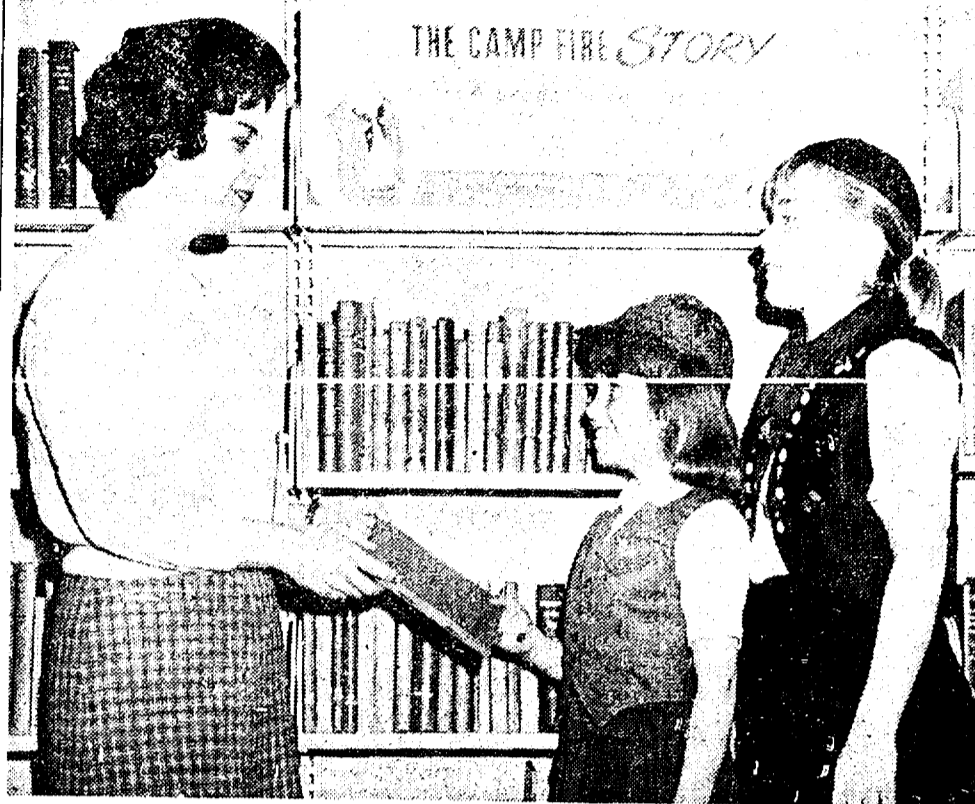

The second is the awarding of financial grants of varying amount to enable graduates of ability and promise to continue their education in an accredited Michigan college or university of his choice.

All graduates of the current school year are eligible to apply for these grants and, under special circumstances, graduates of previous years may be considered. The names of the recipients of these grants are not revealed at any time.

Selection is made on the basis of need for financial assistance, a scholastic record of 2.0 or better, extra curricular record, character, and the promise of college success and future civic usefulness. Allocations are made

Camp Fire Girls Holding Round-Up

Preparing for the Camp Fire Girls Round-Up, to be held Friday evening, March 25, at 7:30 o'clock in the Grosse Pointe Central Library, are MARGARET ODELL (center) Blue Bird and BARBARA FEIKENS (right) Camp Fire Girl. They are showing a copy of a new book on CONSERVATION to JACQUELINE HOSKING, children's librarian at the Central Library branch. A copy of the book will be presented to the children's departments of each of the Pointe Public Libraries.

by a Scholarship committee consisting of the first vice-president of the Mothers' Club, the organization's treasurer, and the Dean of Girls.

The Principal of the High School, Assistant Principal, Dean of Boys, Guidance Coordinator and president of the Mothers' Club serve as ex-officio members.

Applications for these funds are already being received and must be made before May first by letter to the chairman of the committee, and a form which the student may obtain from his counselor must be completed by this same date. It is of interest to note that since the introduction of this award program 149 dictionaries have been presented to top ranking seniors and 174 graduates have been assisted to furthering their education with grants totaling $43,000.

Members of the Mothers' Club take this opportunity to thank all parents and those of the public who have warmly supported their sponsorship of the opening performances of the Pointe Players' productions, the Neighborhood Group donations and the annual Spring Bridge Tea from which the funds for this program are derived.

TIP TO MOTORISTS
The seconds a motorist saves by speeding may give him his first glimpse into eternity.

A special invitation is being extended to all women and girls of the Grosse Pointe area, who are interested in the program of the Camp Fire Girls organization, to attend the Camp Fire Girls Round-up, Friday evening, March 25, in the Grosse Pointe Central Library, Kercheval at Fisher.

Fifty local Camp Fire Girls will take part in the Round-up program. Colored slides will be shown, depicting Camp Fire today. A special part of the program will be the presentation of copies of a book on Conservation for each of the Grosse Pointe Public Libraries children's departments.

Hostesses for the evening are: Mrs. George Chieger, Mrs. John Feikens, Mrs. William Giovan, Mrs. William P. Kalb, Mrs. James G. McMahon, Mrs. James Matujec, Mrs. James M. Odell and Mrs. Ernest Whitney.

The Camp Fire Girls were organized in 1910 by Dr. Luther H. Gulick, who recognized that

ROSEMARY ADDS SWEET NOTE

Rosemary is the name of a girl and the name of an herb. Both are sweet and delicate. Home economists at Michigan State University suggest you try the herb Rosemary to add distinctive flavor to chicken soup or fricassee, to meat stew or to scrambled eggs.

the members would have time for any other activity. . . .

But they do and will turn out March 22 at the Country Club for luncheon and a lecture by former radio commentator, Elizabeth Wayne, who will speak about music based on her five trips to Europe.

Ibex is sold out for the Saturday performance of "The Reluctant Debutante" but there are still tickets available at the Camera Shop for the Friday night performance.

The George William Duffields will have a dinner before the Saturday night performance and so will the Albert C. Dicksons, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. David Jansen and Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Ewald, Jr., are also having a dinner before the play.

For the last there will be an after the curtain party at the Joseph Lacker in Chalfonte road.

Director's Mother Coming

Mrs. William Yeager, who is directing both this week-end's Fine Arts Society production of "Guys and Dolls" and "The Reluctant Debutant" is bringing her mother here for a visit to see both shows.

Mrs. Gurdon Wolfe, of Lyme, N. H., will arrive this week-end and on March 24 will be honored by Mrs. Harold H. Emmons, Jr., of Radnor circle, at a tea.

Mrs. Henry Klein, who is starring in "Guys and Dolls", will recuperate from her arduous singing and dancing role, with a trip to New York. This is an annual Easter visit for the Kleins who will stay at the Pierre with daughters, Bonnie, Gretchen and Heidi.

Tickets for Europe

There is a long list of Pointers with reservations to tour Europe in the spring. The James Robinsons and the Robert Cudlips will make the trip together.

The Kenneth Cunninghams have tickets for a trip to the Continent as do the Louis Dahlings, the R. T. Johnstones, Dr. and Mrs. Edward Wishropp and the Ben Dicksons.

Mrs. Donald Woodruff will escort her debutante daughter, Donna, about Europe's historical sites and watering spas this summer.

Dictionaries give from 45 to 90 meanings for the word "run."

Van Wormer-Herron Betrothal Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie A. Van Wormer of St. Clair Shores, announce the engagement of their daughter, Carol Ann, to Oliver Donald Herron Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Herron of Ithaca, Mich.

Mr. Herron graduated from Western Michigan University. No date has been set for the wedding.
