

CITY SEEKS TO IMPROVE PARK

Where Proposed Improvements Would Be In City Park

This picture is for the benefit of the residents of the City of Grosse Pointe who will be asked to approve a $165,000 bond issue at the polls on November 8 for the development of the lakefront recreation site owned by the municipality for the use of all of its citizens.

The location of the new filtered swimming pool and an additional 100 boat wells are shown here. The bath house facilities would also be greatly improved and the parking lot resurfaced.

Expect Thousands To Attend Pointe Halloween Parties

All Teenagers of Public, Private and Parochial Schools Invited to Attend Affairs Being Held at Four School Buildings

There will be three parties in Grosse Pointe next Monday—Republican, Democrat and Halloween. For this one day, the political parties will be eclipsed as thousands of Grosse Pointe junior and senior high school students celebrate Halloween.

The parties—sponsored for the 21st year by the Halloween Committee—will be held for all private, parochial and public school teenagers at the Grosse Pointe High School (7:30 p.m. to 12 p.m.) and at Parcels, Pierce and Brownell Junior High Schools (7:30 to 11 p.m.) Thousands attend these annual affairs.

Talent and entertainment for the Halloween parties was announced by Forrest Geary, chairman.

"We'll have everything," said Geary. "Four bands, three disc jockies, a jazz trio, two quartets and more than a dozen other acts. As Ed Sullivan says, 'It will be a big show.'"

Warney Ruhl and his band will provide dance music at the High School. The Bill Gail Band will play at Parcels, the Earl Perkins Band at Parcels and the Jerry-Fenby Five at Brownell.

For the first time disc jockies will alternate with the bands at the junior high parties. The three disc jockies are Joe Van at Pierce; Clark Reed at Brownell; and Marty McNeely at Parcels.

Intermission entertainment at the High School party will be the Noble Wilson Caribbean Calypso.

Professional acts for the evening's entertainment will include: The Tall Gaule Ramblers; Le Roy Raquomores, a jazz trio; The Arbors, a University of Michigan quartet; The Next Loken Trampoline Act, from the University of Michigan; Kerrell Fox, a magician; The Cowans, a high ladder act; Gogory and Cheri, a novelty musical act; Miller Boys, drums and guitar; Neal Hale, a pantomime act; The Royal Jokers, a quartet; The Harmonica Dons; and Peg Leg Moffatt, a dancer.

Feature-length movies will also be shown at the four schools along with popular foods at popular prices.

Last year, 3,859 students attended the community Halloween parties.

A large task force of volunteer workers is engaged in staging the celebration. Check rooms at the High School will be manned by members of the American Legion Auxiliary, Grosse Pointe Unit No. 303. They include Mrs. Raymond Allor, chairman; Mrs. Dora Tansley, Mrs. Guido Del Barba, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sharpe, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brazell, and Mrs. Stanley Weaver.

Check rooms at Pierce will be maintained by volunteers from the Alger Auxiliary, 995. VFW. They include Mrs. Oscar Keller, chairman; Mrs. Laura Ryan, Mrs. Frank Clark, Mrs. Elizabeth Manning, and Mrs. Harriet Budd.

Tickets for the parties can be purchased at all public, private and parochial schools for 25 cents. Tickets purchased at the door will be 50 cents.

Park Resolves Agreement On McMillan Land Purchase

The Park council on Monday, October 24, approved two resolutions, one to approve a contract for the purchase of the McMillan estate and the other to revert the land to the family if the city fails to live up to its agreement.

City Attorney Pierre Hefler informed the council that the Park can purchase the submerged land in front of the McMillan property for $6,800 from the State Conservation Department. This price, he said, is less than expected. The original purchase figure was estimated at about $8,000.

Included in the second resolution was an agreement that the city gives its consent, as adjoining property owner, to

Asks Support For Proposal From Voters

Officials Tell Why They Think Residents Should Approve Program for Lakefront

Responding to a request from this paper, officials of the City of Grosse Pointe have prepared a statement called "Factual Information on Proposed City Park Improvements and Plans for Financing and Special Election for Bond Issue, November 8, 1960.

Because it tells the whole story of the program which the City Council hopes the voters will approve at the polls, from the administrative and official viewpoint, the statement is printed in full. Other comment may be found in the editorial columns of this issue and in the Letters to the Editor department. The statement follows:

Planned Improvements

If the vote in the Special Election is favorable, the following improvements will be constructed in the Grosse Pointe City Park:

1. A swimming pool 75x100 feet. The pool will be complete with filter, pumps, underwater lights and vacuum cleaning equipment. It will be entirely fenced in and a paved area will be provided adjacent to the pool proper to provide sunbathing opportunities.

2. A shower building complete and additions and alterations to the present bath house.

3. Parking lot surface. A two-course bituminous concrete surface will be constructed throughout the entire parking lot. Existing drainage structures and appurtenances are adequate.

4. Additional boat mooring spaces. One hundred boat mooring spaces will be made available in the inner well.

Need for Improvements

The largest phase of the contemplated park improvement program is the swimming pool. At the present time, the Park's swimming program consists of bathers using Lake St. Clair at the outer pier. A small area is roped off with floats to keep swimmers contained in a specified area and exclude boats. Some time ago, provisions were made for an on-shore adult swimming area off the inner seawall with only deep water diving contemplated at the outer pier. However, recent Great Lakes Water levels have destroyed the area at the inner seawall as a swimming site and the only swimming area remaining is the deep water in the Lake proper at the outer pier.

Swimming at this site is very difficult to control and to provide adequate protection and life guard facilities. In addition, swimming in this area subjects the swimmer to the hazards of weather and health hazards that cannot be controlled. Considerable risks exist in swimming in water that cannot be treated and that is subject to contamination from an increasing number of polluting agencies. A heavy incidence of "swimmers' itch" or a similar problem could require that the Park be closed to swimming for an entire season.

Better Guarded
A swimming pool would confine swimming to a specific area under the close scrutiny of competent life guards. Safety techniques, such as periodically clearing the pool, would be possible that are not now possible. Sun bathing adjacent to the swimming area would be provided and because the pool would have both deep and shallow water ends, family swim-

Car Hits Truck At Intersection

A car driven by Mary L. Teegof, 788 Rivard, ran into a pick-up truck at the intersection of Charlevoix and Rivard on October 21.

Police said Miss Teegof was driving southward on Rivard and entered the intersection without due caution, causing an accident.

She received a ticket and her car was towed to Van Collision.

William J. Thompson, 680 Burlingame, Detroit, was driver of the truck. He was uninjured.

HEADLINES of the WEEK

As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, October 19
THE UNITED STATES government has banned all exports to Cuba except food and drugs. It was learned yesterday. The action is the stiffest the U. S. has taken against the Castro regime since last summer's shutdown on U. S. sugar purchases from Cuba, and is expected to have greater repercussions.

Friday, October 21
NO DATE HAS BEEN SET for U. S.-Cuban Ambassador Philip W. Bonsal's return to Havana following his recall to Washington for "extended consultation." However, officials say that the U. S. does not intend to break off diplomatic relations with the Castro regime, which have already reached a new low. Castro has not sent a representative to Washington since last December.

Saturday, October 22
THE TWO PRESIDENTIAL candidates continued to slug it out, though in a milder manner than anticipated, in the fourth of television's "Great Debates" last night. For the most part, Vice President Richard Nixon and Senator John Kennedy reiterated stands taken previously on United States prestige abroad and the Chinese offshore islands of Quemoy and Matsu.

Sunday, October 23
A CROWD OF 186,867 people swarmed into Cobo Hall today to increase the total attendance for the ten-day National Automobile Show to 1,403,873, smashing all records.

Monday, October 24
A FERRYBOAT carrying 200 passengers across New York Bay was jarred yesterday by a mysterious bomb explosion. It was the third bomb to go off in New York in three weeks. All the explosions occurred late on a Sunday afternoon.

Tuesday, October 25
WITH THE TWO PRESIDENTIAL candidates loudly debating the status of American prestige abroad, house investigators ordered a "full speed ahead" investigation to determine whether or not the United States Information Agency, acting on orders from the White House, is withholding recent studies of American prestige abroad for "political reasons."

Wednesday, October 26
IN RETALIATION for the U. S. embargo on most exports to Cuba, Fidel Castro has confiscated the most valuable of the American-owned firms in Cuba. These firms have been under government-operation for some time, but the latest order puts them under outright ownership of the Cuban government.

City Council Tells Bond Issue Action

Citizen's Committee, Girl Scouts and Jacobson's All Lend Help in Project

Though not specifically urging the passage of the proposed bond issue for improvements in Norbert P. Neff Memorial Park, the Grosse Pointe City Council unanimously passed a resolution October 25 outlining their previous action on these proposals.

On July 18, 1960, the Council unanimously determined that it is necessary for the welfare of the citizens of the City to provide additional and improved facilities at the Norbert P. Neff Memorial Park, and that such improved facilities should include a swimming pool, bath house, better boat mooring, and launching facilities, and a better automobile parking area.

At the same time, the City Council unanimously agreed that it is to the best interests of the City to finance these public improvements through a bond issue in an amount not to exceed $165,000.

Several other organizations in the city have shown interest in the proposed bond issue. A group of eight men, headed by V. H. Condon, 701 Lincoln road, have formed a citizens' committee to support the proposed improvements. Members of the Girl Scouts donated their time to stuffing envelopes with brochures published by the City explaining the proposal. The brochures were distributed voluntarily by a group of boys.

Jacobson's, on Kercheval, has devoted a display window to pictorial explanation of the bond issue and suggested improvements.

Kaminsky Pointe Visitor After Ordeal in Russia

The terrors of a seven year prison sentence in Soviet Russia have faded for Mark Kaminsky, of Edwardsburg, Mich., now a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kuhn, and their daughter, Airielle, 28 McKinley place. Kaminsky, 32, was tried and convicted of espionage and given a suspended sentence. He had been traveling and studying in Russia through the summer with Harvey Bennett, 34, of Math, Me., who was held as a witness.

Suspended Shores Officer To Be Given Hearing Nov. 1; Public Welcome to Attend

Leon Ratcliffe to Represent Village in Absence of Attorney Joseph Vance; Williams Promises Fair and Impartial Trial

The hearing on suspended Shores Officer John F. Lietke has been definitely set for Tuesday, November 1, at 8 p.m., at the Village Hall, Lake Shore and Vernier, after three postponements. Lietke was suspended from the force on July 1, for allegedly being abusive and using profane language when issuing a ticket to a motorist for improper lane usage on Lake Shore road. This incident was said to have taken place on June 11.

The officer was ordered suspended by Chief Fred Duemling, following a letter from Jean F. Mesritz of 222 Lothrop, the motorist, who complained of the patrolman's alleged misconduct.

Ratcliffe Given Case
The opposing attorneys in the case are Samuel J. Prete of 1205 Three Mile drive, representing Lietke; and Leon D. Ratcliffe of 1080 N. Oxford, who will handle the case for the Village, in the absence of Joseph A. Vance, Jr., of 56 Deepplands, Village Attorney, who is in Europe and is not expected to return home until November 10.

The hearing has had three postponements. August 9, August 23, and again on September 13, almost at the last minute. Lietke, through his attorney, Prete, charged that Village officials were "scrapping the bottom of the barrel" when on August 21, eight weeks after the initial charge, two other charges were lodged against him.

Additional Charges
The additional charges accuse Lietke of failing to report damage to a police car on October 19, 1959, while on patrol duty with another officer; and falling asleep in a scout car while on duty the evening prior to the date of his suspension.

Chief Duemling stated that the latter charge was the act which finally brought about Lietke's suspension. Village President Jack Williams, who according to the Shores Village Charter, will be the presiding official at the hearing, states previously that Lietke will be given a "very fair and impartial hearing." He reiterated this statement. He also said the hearing will be an open one, and not closed, as rumored.

However, Williams said, if Lietke is found guilty of all or any one of the charges, he could be discharged from the force, thereby losing his pension rights. The officer has been with the department for almost 24 years.

Refuses to Comment
On Monday, October 23, Ratcliffe was contacted by phone for an official statement regarding the November 1 hearing date, but refused any comment.

Prete said he contacted Ratcliffe regarding proposed testimony to be given by police officers of the Shores Department, in which the policeman would be permitted to talk freely without fear of reprisals. Lietke's attorney said that Ratcliffe informed him that all the officers of the department have received notification that they can testify for or against Lietke at the hearing without fear of reprisal.

Prete said that he made a spot check in that he contacted several of the men, and was informed that they did not receive such a notice, nor has any such statement been posted on

Find Pointer Dead After Cars Crash

K. Haver Found in Wreckage of Car; Believed Victim of Heart Attack

A medical examiner's hearing was held on Tuesday, October 25, to determine the cause of death of Kirk A. Haver, 42, of 271 Kenwood court, who was found dead in the wreckage of his car the previous evening. The examiner's report was not known when the NEWS went to press.

Detroit police found Haver, son of Dr. and Mrs. Howard Haver of the Kenwood court address, in his car after a rear-end collision at Mack and East Outer drive, just over the Park-Detroit city limits line.

Authorities say he may have suffered a heart attack before the collision.

Haver, a Henry Ford Hospital orderly, was traveling about 30 miles an hour, and ploughed into the rear of a car driven by James Palmer, 35, of 493 St. Clair, Detroit, who in turn was forced into the rear of an auto driven by Miss Artie E. Krause, 18, of 14716 Evanston, Detroit.

Both Palmer's and Miss Krause's cars were stopped for a traffic light at the intersection. Their vehicles were badly damaged.

Miss Krause escaped being hurt, but Palmer was taken to St. John Hospital with head injuries.

Church Holding Special Service

A special Halloween service will be held at Christ Episcopal Church, 61 Grosse Pointe boulevard, Monday, October 31, from 7:30 to 8 p. m.

All Grosse Pointe children and their parents are invited to come and children are asked to wear their Halloween costumes. The Reverend Richard S. Knight will speak on the topic "Saints Alive."

GOLF CLUBS STOLEN

Henry Maddax of 2218 N. LaSalle Gardens, Detroit, an employee of the Country Club of Detroit, complained to Farms police on Saturday, October 22, that an unknown person stole a set of golf clubs, valued at $120, from his car in the club parking lot. He said the set was in a red plaid golf bag.

POOCH NIPS CHILD

A nine-year-old girl was bitten on the left leg on October 22 by a shaggy brown and white dog in the Mair School yard. Mary Louise Gills, 1238 Kensington, was taken to her family physician who found that the bite had not broken the skin.

Suspension Case Date Set

(Continued from Page 1) the bulletin board in the station. He said that all the officers he contacted have expressed fears that if they testify, they would lose their jobs.

Chief Denies Charges
The attorney said that some of the men, he did not mention names, stated that they have been individually interviewed by Chief Duemling as to what they will testify to, and this caused them to back down from their previous willingness to talk at the hearing.

Prete's statement was denied by Chief Duemling, when he was asked if this was true. The chief said he did not talk to any of the men, and if any member of his department wished to testify, for or against Lietke, he is free to do so.

"We are anxious to get this matter out in the open," the chief said. "There is no intimidation, and any officer is free to talk at the hearing, if he chooses, whether it be on behalf of Lietke, or against him. We want the truth to be known to everyone, and we are not trying to hide anything."

Prete said that he sent a letter to Ratcliffe regarding the notification that was said to have been sent to the policemen, and the results of his spot check.

The lawyer said he will fight any further postponements of the hearing.

Folder Gives Facts On College Education

What is a college education worth to your child? How much will it cost? What must you save from now until your children reach college age?

Harold G. Phelps, Assistant vice-president and branch manager of First Federal's office at 17150 Kercheval near St. Clair, Grosse Pointe has some answers to these and many other questions about college in a new folder, "Your Child's College Education", which is available free to all who request it.

In a poll of candidates for Mrs. America of 1960 it was learned that eight out of ten had saved through United States Savings Bonds to buy their homes.

City Seeks To Improve Park

(Continued from Page 1) would be accommodated. Water in the pool would be constantly filtered and cleaned and would be treated to conform to high health standards. The swimming pool will also help to separate these users from the fishermen, boaters and others who use the pier.

The addition of 100 small boat mooring spaces will fill a need already existing as well as assist the community in keeping pace with the increasing future demands.

More Room for Boats
With a swimming pool in the Park, it will no longer be necessary to use the inner pier space as a swimming area. (This area is now inadequate for swimming.) By building boat wells in this area, the Park can better serve the boating needs of the community. At the present time several resident boat owners have not been able to secure mooring space because of space inadequacies. In addition to this, the phenomenal growth of the boating industry based upon the estimates of experts, is likely to continue for sometime so that this problem will become increasingly acute. Charges are made for these spaces based upon current practice to help defray the expenses for maintaining and operating the pier facilities.

The paved parking lot area will provide a more orderly parking layout and will consequently accommodate a greater number of vehicles. The area itself can be used in all types of weather and will provide a smooth walking surface to park users, many of whom are barefooted. An improved maintenance personnel in keeping the park area more tidy.

History of Park
The City Park was acquired in 1910 by purchase from the original owners for a total price of $37,500, original funds being a part of an initial bond issue of $50,000 voted for the purchase and improvement of the site. It is interesting to note that the land had for many years been the site of one of the old shore-front houses, famous for its frog, fish and chicken dinners prior to 1908. The first pier was erected about 1917 as a boat landing extending out 100 feet from the open shore line. In 1922, however, the voters approved a bond issue of $10,750 for the construction of a timber structure with enclosed harbor and rather limited facilities extending approximately 500 feet out into the lake and containing moorings for craft of various sizes aggregating about 100 in number.

Subsequent additions were made to this pier, enlarging its capacity and facilities. One such project included the deepening of the water to a depth of six feet approaching the park from the lake.

Dock Totally Wrecked
This timber and stone-filled dock served its purpose very well until the rising waters of Lake St. Clair had reached a level of approximately 577 feet or more than two feet above what is called average lake level. The high water, together with a fresh on-shore wind which occurred March 21 and 22, 1952, made a complete wreck of the dock which had by this time become very difficult to maintain in proper shape and at very considerable expense.

Prior to 1953, a wading pool with concrete walls and sand area were constructed. The bath house, pavillion and comfort station facilities were modernized. Some playground equipment was also installed.

In 1953 voters of the City approved a bond issue in the amount of $235,000 which provided for the construction of the pier as we now know it and included, an additional parcel of lake frontage and a parcel of land along Jefferson avenue. The bathing platform at the shoreline was also constructed at this time.

Since this time the park has experienced no major additions or improvements.

Costs
The following is a summary of the costs of the contemplated improvements prepared by the City's Consulting Engineer, Mason L. Brown and Son:

1. Swimming Pool, shower room and enlargement to bath house	$135,000
2. Resurfacing Parking Lot	12,000
3. Creating 100 additional boat mooring spaces	6,000
4. Engineering and contingency	12,000
Total not to exceed	$165,000

A Detroit man, driving eastward on Mack avenue, October 14, failed to make a slight curve at Cadieux, and his car jumped the curb, running into a sign warning drivers to "Keep right."

HITS WARNING SIGN
Both the sign and the front of the car were damaged. The driver, Piero Angelo Omage, 13527 East Seven Mile road received a ticket for not having his car under control.

SHAVER MISSING
Dr. Arthur T. Watson of 7 Radnor, complained to Farms police on Saturday, October 15, that an electric shaver, valued at $25, was lost or stolen from his house.

First of a thousand happy hours!

Forgive him if he takes the family home. For the temptation is great when the day is fine—and the car is Cadillac—and the name on the title is yours.

The first thing he senses, as he glides out onto the boulevard, is comfort. The car is so generous in its interior dimensions that he can really stretch out and relax.

And what a wonderful outlook he has on the world about him! Wherever he looks, he finds himself surrounded by vision. Then, as the miles float by, the car's true brilliance in motion begins to unfold.

Cadillac's improved power steering, he finds, has taken the last degree of effort out of handling. Its great new engine is a veritable symphony of controlled power and precision. And its new ride is smooth and quiet almost beyond belief.

So it goes—until he turns at last into that familiar driveway.

And the wonder of it is that, if he is like most owners, he'll spend more than a thousand such delightful hours in the driver's seat before a single year has passed.

In fact, it is doubtful that, in all the world of possessions, there is another that provides such lasting pleasure—in such constant measure—as a new Cadillac car.

Have you thought of adding a Cadillac to your happiness?

This is the perfect season to make the move—and an early order will assure you a full year with the current model.

Reason enough, we'd say, to visit your Cadillac dealer tomorrow.

U-D Memorial Dedicated To Charles T. Fisher, Jr.

The Charles T. Fisher, Jr. Memorial Foundation was dedicated at the University of Detroit last Friday.

The fountain, which bears the inscription "A Fountain of Water Springing up into Life Eternal", has established a new social center on the campus, as well as providing an artistic focus for the quadrangle formed by the Student Union, Library and Engineering buildings.

The widow of the late Charles T. Fisher, Jr., the Very Rev. Celestin J. Steiner, S.J., U. of D. president, and the U. of D. Band and chorus participated in the program.

Said Father Steiner after the blessing of the fountain: "To some a fountain may be merely a means of beautifying the campus of the University of Detroit; while to others it may represent an area of tranquility wherein faculty members and students may find a moment of rest in the midst of a busy day; or wherein, as evening shadows lengthen across the campus, they may pause to say a silent prayer for themselves and for the man whose memory is kept fresh in our minds by the gentle rise and fall of this 'water springing up into life everlasting.'

"To me, though, this fountain, above all else, symbolizes goodness — the goodness of the man memorialized and the goodness of those who made this fountain a reality. Let me explain. With reason, a major concern of the universities today is the development of highly competent scholars and scientists.

"Even more urgently needed than scholars and scientists, however, are good men and women, men and women of complete honesty and integrity, men and women who are sensitive to goodness, truth and duty, of God and His creation, men and women, finally, whose lives are daily motivated not just by principles and purposes, but right principles and good purposes.

Police Seeking Confidence Man

Moses Joseph of 1392 Fairholme road, proprietor of Joseph's Friendly Service gas station, 15200 Kercheval, took a telephone caller at his word, and it cost him $132.

The station owner told Park police on Tuesday, October 18, that at 4:30 p.m., he received a call from a "Mr. Martin," and that he was in an established business. He asked if Joseph sold new tires at his station. When given an affirmative answer, the caller said he would send his car with an employee, Edward Farrah, for a set of new tires.

Farrah, no address, arrived at the gas station, and four new tires were put on the car he was driving. The man ordered the gas tank filled, and a quart of motor oil. After he was serviced, Farrah requested the bill be sent to his "employer," and drove away.

Police Chief Arthur Louwers said that Det. Lt. Arnold Hough, who was assigned to the case, checked out Martin (full name withheld) as a bona fide business man, and that Farrah, who had been working for him for about three years, was recently discharged. Farrah's confidence game came to light when Martin refused to honor the bill sent by Joseph.

Martin told Lt. Hough that he had been plagued by Farrah's dealings on several occasions. Farrah would purchase goods and charge it to Martin.

Chief Louwers said his department wants Farrah for investigation of larceny by trick. Farrah is also wanted by Detroit authorities who have a warrant against him on a similar charge.

Joseph said that the cost of the four tires and the gas and oil totaled $132.51.

Land Purchase Terms Reached

Council that representatives of the state agreed to sell the property excluding the submerged land for $64,300. The total now is $71,100 since the State agreed on the off-shore land price.

A stipulation in the agreement with McMillan representatives is that although the Park will hold title to the entire estate, Mrs. James McMillan will be permitted to remain on the property until her death, the city not to take possession until 30 days after that time.

Also, it has been agreed, the entire property will remain on the tax rolls and that Mrs. McMillan will continue to pay taxes on the land, and maintain the estate, during her life time.

Hefter stated that the purchase agreement calls for the Park to make a 10 percent down payment on the property, and pay 10 percent each year, including interest for the next 10 years.

The property involved comprises about seven and a half acres, and is from the lakeshore to Essex boulevard and includes 127 feet at the side fronting on Bedford road.

The land will be added to the Three Mile drive site, which the Park is developing into a passive recreation park.

On Monday, the council approved payment of $3,875 to the Charles F. Irish company, on completion of the firm's contract to grade, fertilize and seed the new park site.

TWO CARS TANGLE

Pontiac announces the Trophy V-8 Engine

NEW PRECISION AND ECONOMY IN THE ENGINE ROOM OF THE '61 PONTIAC!

A completely new fuel induction system gives this new free-breathing V-8 more air... to save you gas. Closer calibration of this big 389-cubic-inch engine gives you maximum thrust at half-throttle without over-carbureting.

We made the engine lighter; mounted it lower for better balance. An oil refill now takes only 4 quarts. Tailor your Pontiac power plant to your needs. There are 11 versions to choose from. Horsepowers range from 215 to 348. (For best economy, specify the Trophy Economy V-8. Its lower compression lets you use regular gas.)

If this sounds a bit technical, just try a new Trophy engine soon. It's in all four Pontiac series. In one block, it will become clear why we've called this '61... all Pontiac!

THE ONLY WIDE-TRACK CAR!

Introducing Pointe's Newest Teachers

PRINCIPAL JOHN BRUBACHER familiarizes teachers new to Mason School with a vision testing unit. Pictured above are MRS. NANCY MENZEL, MR. BRUBACHER, MILTON RIGGS, MRS. MARILYN RALPH, MRS. NANCY WILSON, and MRS. JEANNETTE SKUES.

Mason principal John Brubacher is high in his praise for the newcomers to the professional staff. Each has quickly evidenced the scholarship, skill and understanding which are so essential to good teaching. "Our new teachers definitely add strength to our program and their fine preparation and enthusiasm for teaching will have an excellent impact on the boys and girls at Mason," observes the Mason principal. Beginning her 5th year in the profession is Mrs. Nancy Menzel. Having taught previously in California Mrs. Menzel has accepted an assignment as a teacher of grade 3 at Mason. She is a graduate of Wayne State University. Her hobbies include numismatics and philately.

Milton Riggs, sixth grade teacher, is also a Wayne University graduate. His previous teaching experience was accumulated in St. Clair Shores and his main outside interest is flying jet fighter planes. Not so unusual perhaps, when you consider the fact that Mr. Riggs served in the U.S.A.F. for 4½ years and is presently in the Michigan Air National Guard. The Riggses have three children.

Oldest of the new teachers in terms of experience at Mason School, is Mrs. Marilyn Ralph. Mrs. Ralph joined the staff during the second semester of last year and thus was not included in the News' new teacher series of 1959. After graduation from Grosse Pointe High School Mrs. Ralph attended Kalamazoo College and received her B.A. in Education from Wayne State University. She is teaching a 5th grade class.

Mrs. Nancy Wilson, born in Crosswell, Michigan and graduated from Michigan State University has assumed the duties of a Mason Kindergarten teacher. She previously taught in Battle Creek and Ann Arbor. The Wilson family interests are currently divided between Nancy's teaching career and her husband's future in medicine. Mr. Wilson is now attending Wayne State University Medical School.

In charge of the class for exceptional children is Mrs. Jeannette Skues. A Pennsylvania native Mrs. Skues attended Pennsylvania State Teachers College at Slippery Rock, and the University of Pittsburgh. She received her B.S. in Education from Wayne State. Her teaching experience includes assignments in the Pennsylvania communities of Butler and Cordopolis and in Roseville and Birmingham, Michigan. Mrs. Skues has served actively in many phases of the profession. She has held many offices, both local and national, in such groups as the P.T.A., the Michigan Education Association, the N.E.A., Junior Red Cross, etc. Mrs. Skues takes much deserved pride in her three fine children and four grandchildren.

Four Pointers Taken Off Road

The Secretary of State's Office in Lansing disclosed the names of four Pointe motorists whose driving privileges were temporarily suspended, during the week of October 2, date of the latest report.

One motorist has since had his operator's license restored, and another had his returned today, October 27.

Back on the road are Donald E. Delozier, Jr., of 1160 Torrey road, whose license was suspended from September 19 to October 18; and Charles H. Weiler of 702 University place, license suspended from September 27 to October 27. Both had unsatisfactory driving records.

Still denied the privileges of the road are Thomas H. Conway III of 307 Roosevelt place, whose unsatisfactory driving record caused his license to be taken away from September 19 to March 18, 1961; and John A. Michalak of 15230 Windmill Pointe drive, who was denied the right to drive from September 31 to November 30, because of an unsatisfactory driving record.

In his October 2 report, James M. Hare, Secretary of State, and chairman of the Michigan Safety Commission, revealed that the driver's licenses of 457 State motorists were suspended and those of 140 were revoked during the week.

Lutheran Choir To Give Cantata

The Senior Choir of St. Paul Ev. Lutheran Church, Chalfonte and Lothrop, will present the cantata, "Una Sancta," by Paul Christiansen at the 11 o'clock service next Sunday morning as a feature of the Reformation observance.

Originally composed for the constituting convention of The American Lutheran Church in Minneapolis last April, this choral work will receive its premiere performance in this area at St. Paul Lutheran.

The composer is musical director at Concordia Lutheran College, Moorhead, Minnesota. He led over 600 young people from Lutheran college choirs in the original presentation before an audience of 10,000 in the Minneapolis auditorium last spring. The theme, expressed in its title, "Una Sancta," is developed by the parts, "One

God," "One Church," and "One Mission."

A suggestion of the Norwegian, German and Danish backgrounds of the three merging bodies is given by three chorals which the congregation joins in singing.

In addition to the choral sections, solo parts will be sung by Donald Hoemke, Leonard Schim and Adolph Beckman. The Pastor, Charles W. Sandrock, will do the narrative parts.

Ground Broken For New Bank Branch Office

Mrs. Helen L. Fox, city treasurer of Grosse Pointe Woods, turned over the first spadeful of ground last Thursday morning as Manufacturers National Bank began construction of a new banking office on Mack avenue, across the street from its present location at Mack and Lochmoor.

Bank president Arthur J. Fushman and Norman A. Kopperschmidt, manager of the office, stated that the new colonial style quarters will be equipped with three drive-in windows, eight tellers' cages, and extensive safe deposit facilities. The building, with an adjacent ample parking area, is being constructed, according to Mr. Fushman, because of the wonderful reception the community has given the bank and because of the bank's desire to further serve the Grosse Pointe area.

Architects for the new office are the renowned Giffels and Rossetti, designers of two recent major achievements in downtown Detroit, Cobo Hall and the new post office. In a brief commentary following the ground-breaking, Louis Rossetti, partner in the firm, remarked that the colonial architecture was chosen to follow the tradition established in the area. He emphasized that authenticity will be the keynote. Only "true colonial shapes, forms, and details will be employed." The sole compromises to modernity will exist in the actual banking facilities, air conditioning, and lighting. Flush ceiling fixtures will augment the illumination from colonial lamps.

"We are seeking," said Mr. Rossetti, "an artistic, decorative treatment of the lengthy wall behind the battery of tellers' cages and we would appreciate suggestions from the community."

General contractor F. W. Markward expects completion of the new quarters within 160 days.

M. C. Patterson Asks Retirement

E. C. Row, first vice-president of Chrysler Corporation has announced that B. J. Nichols, Chrysler Corporation vice-president, has succeeded M. C. Patterson, of Devonshire road, who requested retirement effective November 1, as general manager of Dodge Division and as a corporate vice-president after completing nearly 40 years' service with Dodge.

Mr. Patterson, who has headed Dodge Division since July, 1956, was elected a vice-president of Chrysler Corporation January 8, 1957. His career at Dodge began as a tool and die expert in the drop forge and die sinking department and eventually included manufacturing responsibility for the entire Dodge Division, with his appointment as divisional vice president in charge of manufacturing in February, 1955.

He became divisional president of Dodge in July, 1956 and in May, 1958, when sales and manufacturing responsibilities in the company's divisions were separated. Mr. Patterson was named General Manager of Dodge Division, with responsibility for the division's sales activities.

Born in Scotland May 30, 1900, Mr. Patterson visited Detroit in 1921 and took a temporary job at Dodge. With the exception of a few months' work that year with an outside pattern making shop, his entire American employment has been with Dodge.

Don't blame any man for his start in life—it's the finish that he's responsible for.

Pointer Taking Reins at U-D

The Rev. Laurence V. Britt, S. J., son of Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Britt of 938 Bedford road, Grosse Pointe Park, the new president of the University of Detroit, will assume his office in ceremonies in the University of Detroit Memorial Building beginning at 3 p.m. Sunday, October 30.

The principal address of the afternoon will be delivered by Ray R. Eppert, president of the Burroughs Corp. and a member of the U. of D. Board of Lay Trustees.

"Education for Tomorrow's World" will be his topic. Mr. Eppert will discuss the importance of higher education today, and the role of the University of Detroit in the context of higher education in metropolitan Detroit.

The new president, present dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, will deliver his first presidential message to students, faculty, alumni and friends of the University following Mr. Eppert's address.

The Very Rev. Celestian J. Steiner, S. J., U. of D. president for the past 11 years, will open the program with the retiring president's remarks.

The complete ceremonies will be heard on a delayed broadcast over radio station WJBK at 10:05 p.m. the same evening. Filmed highlights will be seen on "U. of D. News Magazine" Monday evening at 5:45 p.m. on WTWS, channel 56, Detroit's educational television station.

Fr. Steiner, 62, a U. of D. alumnus, came to Detroit as president in 1949 following an assignment in the same capacity at Xavier University, Cincinnati. Fr. Steiner remains at U. of D. as chancellor with responsibility for the University's total development program.

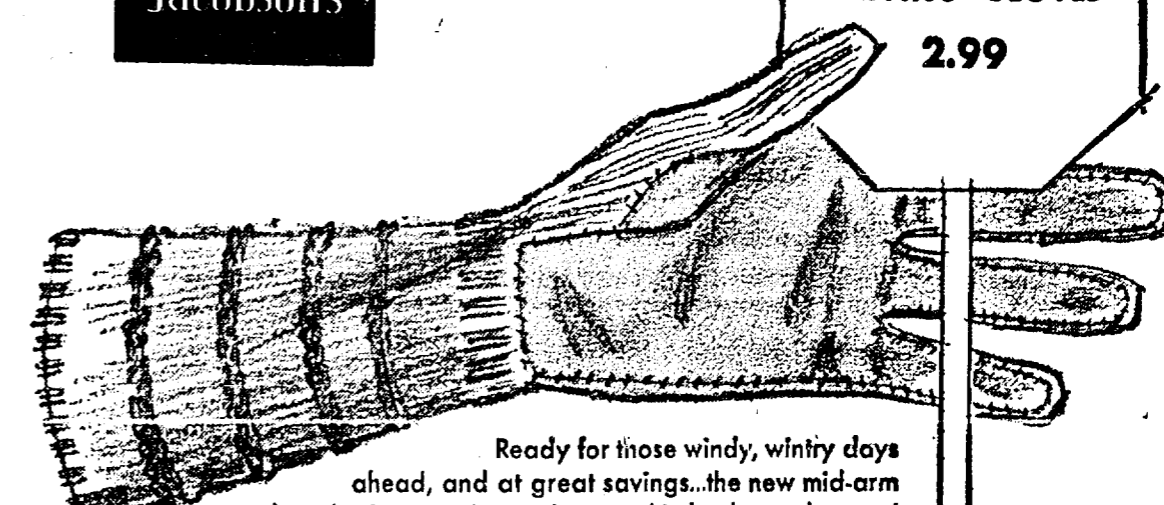

Fr. Britt, 48, has been dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at U. of D. since 1956. For the previous decade he had been assigned to the faculty of Loyola University, Chicago, as instructor, freshman dean, assistant professor of education, and finally dean of the College of Arts and Sciences.

The University of Detroit band and chorus will be heard during the presidential reception program Sunday, which will be followed by a social reception in the Student Union ballroom.

Two Promoted By Auto Club

Two Pointe residents have been appointed to new management positions at Automobile Club of Michigan, E. S. Matheson, Club general manager, has announced.

Daniel R. Webb, of 377 Lincoln road, former manager of Auto Club's Downriver division in Southgate, has been named to the post of assistant sales manager in the organization's main offices in Detroit.

Succeeding Webb as Downriver manager is John R. Piana, of 1324 Fairholme.

Webb, 44, joined the Auto Club in 1937 as a membership counselor in the Detroit area. He served as assistant district manager in the Club's Grosse Pointe division and district manager for Highland Park before his appointment as manager of the Downriver branch.

Piana, 42, came to Auto Club as a membership representative in 1940. In 1954 he was promoted to district manager in the Detroit area, a position he held until his appointment as head of the Downriver division.

Home Protection Stressed By Civil Defense Expert

Mrs. John F. Warren, Regional Civil Defense Co-ordinator for Southeastern Michigan Welfare Service, and Co-ordinator for Oakland County, spoke Wednesday night, October 19, to a large audience on Shelter and Provision at the War Memorial Center.

She showed slides of atom bomb explosions and the radiation damage to people exposed to fall-out. She also showed a movie of a mass evacuation exercise of children and teachers from one school to another, taken in Pontiac in November, 1959.

Mrs. Warren started out by saying that there was nothing in the world more selfish than Civil Defense. In any emergency, she said, people could not help but think of themselves first, if only to realize, "I am alive and unhurt." After that they think of children and family, then of their friends and the community, and later of their city and nation. The instincts for survival and self-protection are just about the strongest humans have.

Civil Defense helps the chance of survival by its training. Civil Defense purely and simply means Government in emergency. It is mutual assistance, accomplished by training civilians to help the existing branches of government, such as the Fire Department, the Police Department, the Welfare Department, the School Staffs, the Medical Profession, etc. Many of these trained public servants would not survive.

Who would survive? There are 185 million people in the United States. In a nuclear war one-half of the people would live. Ninety million people would survive. But the whole country might be under a radioactive cloud. Radiation affects people in different degrees, just as cold germ does, or a shot of Penicillin. Those least affected by radiation would survive at first, but further life and health would depend on knowledge and planning in advance. The Atomic Energy Commission says that the Fall-out Shelter provides the only answer. People should not shudder at the idea of going underground for a time. Many pioneers in Nebraska and Kansas lived underground in sod covered houses for years.

Planned underground shelters, equipped with the proper food, sanitation, First Aid supplies, and recreation facilities, can shield civilians from the dangers of fall-out. Radiation is measured in units, or Roentgens. Four hundred and fifty Roentgens kills man. Think of money in the amount of $450 in a bank. If you spend $200 you will have $250 left. Of those people exposed to 200 Roentgens half will die and half will survive. The survivors might recover enough in time to allow exposure to more than 250 Roentgens—or the amount left in the bank account. But it would have to be over a long period of time at a very slow rate, as radiation is cumulative.

Fall-out and atom bombs affect some people in a strange way. They say, "I don't want to survive. If a bomb falls, that's it." But what if they lived in spite of everything. It would be better to survive a healthy person than a very sick one. Therefore, Civil Defense training and planning are just common sense.

In the first place, every man, woman, and child, should be trained to recognize the Alert Signal, 3 to 5 minutes of a steady siren, and the Take Cover signal of a wavy siren. Also, if regular radio stations go off the air, this is a warning, and we should tune our radios to Conelrad, 640 or 1240. These emergency stations would give instructions and would report the extent of the radioactivity through their monitoring system.

Radiological monitoring should be taught to many people in every locality. Geiger counters can now be bought for as little as $20, such as the Bendix with its own charger. Any High School physics teacher could train classes in using a Geiger counter or a monitoring device.

Training and more training is the key to Civil Defense. It is like life insurance. You certainly hope you will live a long time, but you buy life insurance. Once you have the training, and the emergency shelter, you will always have them. Classes are available in medical aid, emergency lodging, clothing, registration at emergency centers, welfare, and mass feeding, to name some. Leaflets on many of these subjects were given out at the end of the meeting.

Before the class disbanded there was a discussion between Mrs. Warren and George Elworthy, Pointe OCD director, about evacuation plans. There was, also, a discussion about building Fall-out Shelters and about two scale model shelters of two different types which had been brought to the workshop by the contractor, Gerald Simon DeMontfort, who built Mrs. John W. Carson's shelter.

Mrs. Warren has a good combination of genuine enthusiasm for the Civil Defense Program, without a trace of morbidity. She says people in this country are so used to the fact that no war has been fought on our soil for 150 years, that they refuse to face facts and fiction about the Atomic Age.

She thinks we need a revival of the pioneer spirit of mutual help in emergency. Her final remarks had to do with a letter written by one of the school children who had taken part in the mass evacuation exercise. The child was anything but frightened by the drill, and said she enjoyed the chocolate milk and cookie, the games, and the ride, but the bomb had not dropped on her own school as planned.

Center Offers Skiers' Class

For all novice skiers in Grosse Pointe and skiers who want to get in condition there will be a "Snow Bunny Ski School" at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center under the direction of Norm Archer and his crew of instructors.

Ski School starts at the Center Wednesday evening, November 2, at 8 o'clock. Four weeks of indoor training at the Memorial will be followed by two weeks practice on the snow slopes of Mt. Grampian. Class sessions will be held weekly from 8-9:30 p.m. on Wednesday evening with the exception of November 18, which is a Friday; a special graduation party will be held at Mt. Grampian Wednesday, December 7, when those who have successfully passed the course will be presented with graduation pins and will be feted by the more advanced skiers.

Included in the Ski School: mental, ski exercises, selection of clothing and equipment and its care, ski positions, ski techniques, ski safety, use of tows and down hill practice. All will be shown how by instructors, movies, etc. and all will learn by doing after they are knowledgeable and in condition.

Ignores Sign; Causes Crash

Emmy C. Grasser, 1214 Whittier, failed to observe a stop sign on October 20 and her car rammed the side of a car driven by William R. Post Jr., 27 McKinley.

The accident occurred at the corner of St. Clair and St. Paul. Miss Grasser received a ticket for failure to obey the stop law and causing an accident.

To Hold Hearing On Pornography

The battle against pornography moves before a fact-finding hearing at Lansing on November 3, when a special legislative committee investigating obscene literature and similar material is to hear testimony.

Representative Harry A. DeMaso (Battle Creek Township) chairman of the committee is inviting postmasters and police chiefs of all major cities in Michigan to testify. Witnesses are expected from Detroit, Flint, Grand Rapids, Lansing, Pontiac, Battle Creek, Kalamazoo, Jackson, Saginaw, Ann Arbor, Benton Harbor and St. Joseph.

Citizens groups working to combat indecent literature have also been invited and a delegation from the Grosse Pointe Council for Better Literature for Youth will attend. Mrs. Jacob F. Wenzel, members of this group, recently received a personal letter from Mr. DeMaso commending her for her excellent work in this campaign and inviting her to speak before the committee on November 3.

Others who expect to attend from the Grosse Pointe area are: Mrs. Robert E. Curtis, Mrs. Richard E. Jones, Mrs. Robert Hannah, Mrs. Riford Johnson, Mrs. D. L. Canady, Mrs. Charles R. Reinoski and Mrs. Reginald T. Murphy.

The committee hearing will begin at 10 a.m. in the House Chamber in Lansing on Thursday, November 3 and anyone interested in accompanying the delegation is invited to get in touch with any of the above persons.

The bi-partisan committee will seek answers to these questions — How big is the problem in Michigan and what is being done specifically in the various communities to curb the distribution of such material among Michigan's youth? How much is such material costing Michigan citizens as part of the $500,000,000 nation-wide traffic in pornography?

How can the ordinary citizen assist most in shutting off the flow to young people? Mr. DeMaso declared "I hope that all parents in Michigan will get aroused over this threat to their children!" He noted that recent Federal law made it possible to prosecute obscene literature purveyors in states where the material is received as well as where it is mailed.

HUBCAPS STOLEN
Paul Newton of 443 Madison road, reported theft of four hubcaps from his daughter's, Suzanne, car, during the night of Tuesday, October 18. He told Farms police the car was parked in the driveway alongside his house.

Jr. Red Cross Leaders Meet

Delegates from junior and senior high schools which participate in the Detroit Chapter's Junior Red Cross Program recently completed a week-end leadership training workshop at Greenfield Village, with Jerry Warner, 22721 Law, Dearborn high school senior who is the president of the Wayne County Junior Red Cross Council, served as advisor, and Paulette Kordos, 15880 Edmore, High School of Commerce, general chairman of the project.

Betsy Wunsch, 31 McKinley, secretary of Grosse Pointe High School Junior Red Cross, who attended a JRC training center for delegates from 18 midwestern states in June and served on the planning committee for the Greenfield Village workshop, was elected secretary of the County-wide JRC Council. Other GPHS students attending the workshop were Lenny Conforti, 20616 Beaufait; Judy Hammond, 1175 Grayton; Nancy Rector, 1829 Allard, Miss Rachel Fundingsland is teacher-sponsor.

Grosse Pointe University School was represented by Renee Bowdy, 21919 Shady lane, co-president of her school's JRC council, member of the workshop student planning committee and chairman of the day on Saturday; Carol Johnson, 180 Moran road, John Conley is GPUS teacher-sponsor.

Three Grosse Pointe junior high schools sent delegates: Brownell, Leslie Schwartz, 253 Mt. Vernon and Mary Trigg, 77 Moross; Parcels, Carol Dempsey, 2127 Lancaster and Sandy Riemer, 709 Hidden lane; Pierce, William Keller, 1452 Beaconsfield and Barbara Warmbold, 830 Whittier, who is the school JRC Council president.

Grosse Pointe junior high schools teacher-sponsors are: Miss Marlon Hendee, Parcels; Mrs. Evelyn Toll, Brownell; Miss Sofia Boan, Pierce.

"This arrangement was really 'deluxe' after the camping system we have used in previous years," Jerry said. "Perhaps we also took our work more seriously because of the surroundings. Anyhow, many of us hope we can go to the Village for subsequent training centers. From Friday evening until Sunday afternoon we engaged in a round of discussion groups, visual and oral presentations of information about Red Cross services and the part youth plays and can play in them. We planned the school year's overall JRC programs for our Council, and together worked out various ways of accomplishing these programs in our individual schools. We had four teacher-sponsors with us, to help in planning, and we know that in each school a volunteer teacher will stand by to assist at all times." Each member school elects its

The Voters Will Decide

The Letters to the Editor column this week contains one which we ordinarily wouldn't dignify by printing. We reserve a special contempt for those who haven't the courage to sign their names to the utterances they pen.

We sincerely doubt that there is any such organization as the Women's Civic Park Committee. We are certain that the signer isn't a civic woman, and we might be talked into a wager as to whether she is a woman at all. Be that as it may.

Taking the other side of the road, we enthusiastically support the program as outlined by the officials of the City of Grosse Pointe. Lest our motives be misunderstood... we do not own a boat...

The anonymous writer of this letter talks about the voters being bombarded with "rigged" propaganda, half truths, biased and slanted. This character appears to be a past master at this sort of thing.

The facts are that the Friends of the Library have merely approached the Board of Education with a hope they will be able to get larger auditorium facilities at the library. Permission would have to be granted by the Board for any such project.

The voters will make the final decision on the City's park improvement proposals at the polls on November 8. Arguments in favor of the development are carefully detailed in the lead story in this issue.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

A small minority pressure group in the City of Grosse Pointe, many of whom own boats, have succeeded in having placed on the November 8 ballot a proposition to borrow $165,000.00 to be used for the construction of 100 new boat moorings.

Their comforting propaganda would have you believe that all these improvements can be accomplished "without any additional charge to the taxpayers."

In this connection it might be well to explain that your City tax bill, which is now the highest of all Grosse Pointe municipalities, can be substantially reduced if all of the money in question, which becomes available next year, is earmarked as revenue for the General Fund.

There are enough of these elaborate pools just recently constructed in the Grosse Pointe Public Schools, and you are paying for them in your tax bill for many years to come.

For the past several months you have been reading about the new City Hall. As you probably know plans and specifications are now being prepared to convert the present Fire Engine House into a larger building housing both the City offices and fire equipment.

Moreover, the first week in December you will receive your School tax bill. This will reflect the increased millage voted on October 26, 1959 and will really be expensive.

of a $200,000 bond issue the Friends of the Public Library have already approved and submitted to the School Board for action by the voters in the form of another bond issue. This is to build an auditorium on the second floor of the main Grosse Pointe Public Library.

Under the circumstances, it would seem that the whole thing appears to be a scheme engineered by a minority pressure group attempting to serve their own interests, and ram the proposal down the throats of the voters.

Unfortunately, they intend to bombard you between now and election day with the usual "rigged" propaganda, much of which will be loaded with half-truths, biased, slanted, and tailored to fit their cause.

Common sense calls for a NO vote on this bond issue.

Women's Civic Park Committee

To the Editor: The best of luck to the Michigan Committee for the Protection of Property Rights which is the sponsor of a property rights amendment to the Constitution of Michigan.

The attempted invasion of private property rights would appear to go much further than do civil rights measures involved in public housing, employment, voting, or education. It seems obvious that under the 14th amendment, home owners' rights should be considered more sacred than those of the house buyer to whom some politicians apparently wish to transfer these freedoms.

The home owners so far have not been properly organized, but the propaganda from the organized pressure groups seems to have been built up to grand proportions and has not

by Jean Taylor

Halloween is a fun night, eagerly anticipated by youngsters of all ages. Its approach was formerly regarded with less enthusiasm by the elders in the family. However, this seasonal celebration has now become a community social event through the efforts of local groups who work to make it a night of fun instead of a night of terror.

Providing costumes for all the children in the household is no small project, but you need not be a Dior to turn out a suitable masquerade outfit. There are books at your library to furnish you with ideas and patterns, and for your Halloween antics, there are numerous books which suggest games and stunts just right for this time of year.

Another source of holiday material not to be overlooked is the pamphlet file, as well as some excellent articles on this subject to be found in magazines. Consult the Readers Guide to Periodical Literature, and you'll find help in plenty. The library has magazines dating back several years.

Among the pamphlets available are "Easy-to-Make Colorful Costumes" which may be made from crepe paper, and "Inexpensive Costumes for Plays, Festivals and Pageants," published by the National Recreation Association.

But if your taste is for ghosts at Halloween, here is a book for them, borrowed from Vincent Staret, that has proved itself along the years: "For one ordinary ghost, with been distinguished for its honesty. This propaganda has apparently been given a boost by many who are served by the publicity.

For example, take the ABC television program on September 27th under the heading, "Let Him Cast the First Stone." In this program the rights of the property owner, his freedom to sell to whom he chooses, his freedom to protect his neighbors' real estate values were completely disregarded throughout. No one spoke for the home owners. That this was planned this way by ABC is evidenced by the fact that when the program was locally filmed last July, William R. Luedders, President of the Detroit Real Estate Board spoke before the ABC camera in opposition to Rule 9. He was speaking for the home owners. His appearance was deliberately deleted from the program.

Some politicians seem to be wooing the votes of the minority groups, but members of these groups are also property owners whose rights as such the politicians might do well to remember.

I hope the Michigan Committee for the Protection of Property Rights will raise a voice for the home owners which can be heard above the din, at least loudly enough to convey to the politicians that the home owners will vote to preserve their rights at the polls.

Mrs. A. Gerard Leone 1220 Whittier Grosse Pointe Park, Michigan

To the Editor:

A mimeographed, unsigned letter given wide circulation recently in the community contains a number of statements about CON-CON (Constitutional Convention which may lead to misunderstanding on the part of many voters about basic issues involved.

The letter declares that three urban counties or "organized labor" would control the convention. Until January 1963, our Constitution directs us to continue using the 1950 census as a base for determining delegate representation. Wayne county will have 45, Oakland 7, and Macomb 4 delegates, which is 39% of the total; thus three urban counties could not control the convention.

The letter also says that the method of calling a Constitution Convention by a majority of those voting on the question is objectionable because a small minority could call a convention at its convenience. The League of Women Voters feels that all voters have the privilege of voting on issues. The league has always worked diligently to present the facts to all people. We, too, are concerned about those who ignore the issues, but feel that since the volume of information is so great, and the interest so keen, the vote will be large.

Other states with recently revised Constitutions have found them to be definite improvements. Able delegates have been elected, have met and reviewed the Constitution as a whole in deliberate fashion, have been helped in research by experts in law, government and political science, have been guided by citizens and citizen groups in public hearings and have produced documents much more suitable than their old Constitutions for meeting present-day needs. We have every reason to believe that a Michigan Constitutional Convention will follow this pattern.

It's Book Fair time again. This is the seventh year of this annual display of books for young people, at the Detroit Historical Museum, October 29 through November 13, 1960: It provides an opportunity for the whole family to see the colorful new books and to hear some of the interesting people who have created these tales of wonder and magic, including writers in the sports and science fields.

Leaders of scouts, campfire troops et al, as well as teachers, are encouraged to bring their groups to a program suitable to their age interest. Appearances may be made by calling TEmple 3-5410.

The Book Fair Hours are 9 a.m. to noon, 1 p.m. to 10 p.m. Tuesday through Friday; Saturday and Sunday 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. The museum will be closed all day, October 31 and November 7.

Sincerely, Mrs. Leonard Slowin, President, League of Women Voters of Grosse Pointe

To the Editor: It is indeed gratifying to know that in days such as these when taxes are comparatively high, we as Grosse Pointe residents should be appreciative that we have such an alert Police Force which is continually on the job.

Being a fairly new resident of Grosse Pointe Woods, I have observed that Police cars patrol regularly day and night and this to me is most comforting.

Much to my amazement a little over a week ago my three-year-old boy wandered off and didn't know his way home. The next thing I knew was that a police car was in my driveway and the officer was asking if this three-year-old wasn't mine.

This is just one example of what I consider to be an alert police force and my hat is off to you and all that you stand for.

Most appreciatively yours, Mrs. Elizabeth S. Ruyschaert 565 Hampton Road

Dear Sir:

Might I be permitted to respond to a sentence in the second letter appearing in your issue of last week? Reference was made to the September 17 TV program on which the sermon by the Rev. Arnold Johnson was recalled.

"Mr. Johnson's mention of Jesus Christ was irrelevant to the issue under discussion and appeared to be a highly misleading presentation," was the reaction of your writer in last week's Letters to the Editor.

Might it not be suggested that Mr. Johnson comes nearer to the heart of the subject than most of us find comfort in considering? Was it not Jesus Christ who said, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

Sincerely, JAMES D. NIXON 64 Moross Road

To the Editor: Your "Retort Magnificent" printed in the October 5 issue of the Grosse Pointe News is hardly humorous! You are obviously closing your eyes to the people waiting in the breadlines on nearby Mt. Elliott, and living in the plush, overfed, and sheltered coziness of Grosse Pointe where lack of social consciousness abounds!

How about a little more "reasoned argument" on the political scene.

Yours Sincerely Vivian H. Davis (Mrs. Loyd Davis)

A highlight of the "Great Masterpieces" series currently being given at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial under the auspices of the Detroit Institute of Arts occurs next Wednesday night, November 2, when William A. McGonagle, head of the Museum's Extension Services, brings colored slides and tells his listeners all about the masterpieces to be found in New York's Metropolitan Museum of Art, the New York Museum of Modern Art, the Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum and the Frick Collection.

It is not necessary to have subscribed to the series to be admitted to this illustrated lecture or any of the remaining evenings on the series which will be presented by Miss Ann Haggarty and Mr. McGonagle.

End Sam Williams of the Detroit Lions is in his second season of NFL play at the age of 29, while guard Harley Sewell is playing season No. 8 at the same age.

COLOR AND LIGHT

The color of the living room walls is important in planning the lighting of the room. Home economists at Michigan State University note that dark colored walls can be lighted satisfactorily, but it may be easier and more economical if walls, ceiling and floors are done in light colors.

How to swallow a bitter pill

By FRED KOPP, R. Ph.

First, find a bitter pill. There are so few nowadays. It all started because children, bless 'em, are so good at resisting bad-tasting medicine. You can medicate their chins or hair, but getting the stuff in them is beyond the ken of science. Kids can spit a country mile. So pharmacists began sugar-coating pills, putting medication in capsules, or mixing with sweet syrup. And we soon found that adults, too, like medicine the easy way. So now, most of our prescriptions are quite pleasant to take. If you should run into one of the few bitter ones, believe us, there are good medical reasons for it.

Back in Lakeland avenue after a long three month leave in England are Sir James and Lady Easton, with daughter, Janet.

The Eastons spent their leave in a romantic sixteenth century cottage near Epsom Downs, leased from British actress, Betty Stockfield.

Janet Easton will be here until January when she will return to London to enter St. James College. She is taking courses in dressmaking and knitting, looking about for another class in French literature. Her brother, David, has gone up to Oxford, and will not visit his family until next summer.

The Eastons, and most of Detroit, are anticipating the January appearance of the Royal Ballet here with star Dame Margot Fonteyn.

This Friday Lady Easton and Janet will attend the Theater Arts performance at the Players with Mrs. John Benfield and Mrs. John Denler. The Denlers are just back from a week in New York.

Season for Hunters

Bird season opened last week and the hunters took to the woods for the brief few weeks it is legal to shoot pheasant. For members of the Cock and Bull Shooting Club in Metomora the season is much longer.

This private shooting preserve was initiated by the James S. Phelans, Jr., who have had a home in Metomora for many years.

Last week-end their son-in-law and daughter, the David M. Hamiltons and a group of friends were at the club for shooting and a vacation in the lovely fall countryside.

No Elk in Wyoming

Home from an unsuccessful hunting trip to the elk country in Wyoming is Victor Calcaterra of Sunningdale drive. He was gone a week and didn't sight an elk, but he's not discouraged. This trip is a yearly pilgrimage.

On November 1, he will be up in Georgian Bay for the opening of the Canadian deer season.

Another hunter, who takes off almost every week-end, is Hugh Harness, who is dividing his week-end equally between pheasant shooting around Ann Arbor and duck hunting in the Canadian marshes. He will also take a week off for the deer season.

Stock Market Experts

There is no doubt about the housewife becoming very interested in the stock market, so many belong to investment clubs and are well up in what's happening to stocks and bonds.

At the High School on Wednesday night a group is taking the course on Investment Procedures. They include Mrs. Miles M. O'Brien, Jr., Mrs. Stephen W. Smith, Mrs. Frederick Bloy, Mrs. Clune Walsh and Mrs. Eric Stroh.

On that same evening Mrs. Richard P. Joy, Jr., is taking a Civil Defense workshop course and Julie Cudlip is studying Italian.

'Pinocchio' to Help AAUW Aid Program

Proceeds from Presentation of Children's Classic by New York Cast on November 5, to Go to Fellowship Grants

With the enormous interest throughout the free world in helping the uncommitted countries to educate and train potential leaders, the American Association of University Women is eager to step up its fellowship grants program.

In Grosse Pointe the local branch is making a strong appeal, not only to its members but to the community at large, to help raise fellowship funds by becoming patrons of the Children's Theater presentation of "Pinocchio." Two performances will be given Saturday, Nov. 5 at Pierce Junior High School.

For a $5 contribution, a patron will receive three tickets for her use, or they may be turned over to the group as gift admissions to children from the Protestant Children's Home.

Checks made out to Grosse Pointe AAUW Children's Theater should be mailed before Nov. 3 to Miss Virginia Becker, 444 Moran road, Grosse Pointe Farms, 36.

"If you don't wish to become a patron, please support the fellowship fund with ticket purchases," urges Mrs. Edward Hanpeter, chairman.

Higher costs of education and living have made it necessary to increase grants so that they now range from $2,000 to $4,000 a year. These grants go to outstanding women scholars anywhere in the world who are Ph.D. candidates or who have fulfilled all requirements for the degree except the dissertation.

"Last year, 116 foreign scholars applied, but only 32 awards could be made," said Mrs. James Graves, fellowship chairman.

Only 43 awards could be made to 180 American women applicants.

Fellowship grants are promoting better dental health in Finland, better library service and home economics teaching in Ceylon, more adequate social work in Greece, Egypt, India and Pakistan, improved medical services in Norway, Thailand, India, Philippines, Australia, Belgium and Brazil, to mention only samples of what is being done in almost every part of the world.

For its first November meeting, the AAUW Recent Graduates Group continues its study of architecture Tuesday evening, November 1. An outstanding Bloomfield Hills architect, Glen Paulson, will talk on

Welchli-Maynard Vows Exchanged

Rev. Erville Maynard Officiates at Daughter, Ann's Wedding Saturday in Christ Church; After a Trip To Williamsburg Pair Will Live in Jackson

The bride's father, the Rev. Erville Maynard, officiated at the Saturday wedding in Christ Church when Ann David Maynard became the bride of John Russell Welchli.

She wore a princess gown of ivory satin fashioned with a portrait neckline and bracelet length sleeves edged with Alencon lace. The bell shaped skirt with back fullness fell into a cathedral train.

Her illusion veil edged with Alencon lace was worn mantilla style and extended to the length of the train. She carried Eucharist lilies and stephanotis.

Mrs. John M. Penberthy was matron of honor and Alice Smith was maid of honor. They wore courtly blue velvet gowns designed with scooped necklines, bracelet length sleeves and full gathered skirts. They carried sweetheart roses.

Robert D. Welchli was best man for his brother. They are the sons of the Russell K. Welchlis, of Provencal road.

The ushers were Henry C. Barksdale, James F. McKelvey, Charles W. Morris, Mr. Penberthy, David Robb and Robert G. Smith.

Following a reception at the rectory in Christ Church lane at which the Rev. and Mrs. Erville Maynard were hosts, the newlyweds left for Williamsburg, Va.

For traveling the bride wore a navy blue wool jacket dress, the skirt banded in silk faille. The couple will live in Jackson.

Pointers Bid To Y Dinner

For her 14 years' service as a Y-Teen club adviser, Miss Alice Goodenow, assistant principal at Mackenzie High School, was given special recognition at a dinner given by the YWCA honoring school officials and teachers Monday evening, October 24, at Central Branch YW.

Cited for her work with hundreds of Y-Teens through the years, Miss Goodenow received an honorary Y-Teen pin from Colleen Neill, 1621 Newcastle, Grosse Pointe Woods, president of the Metropolitan Y-Teen Council.

Miss Goodenow first became interested in the YWCA when she herself was a teen-ager and a member of the Girl Reserves (which later became the Y-Teens). As a teen-ager, she attended the YW's Camp Cavell, and in recent years has been a member of the Central Branch YWCA Board of Management.

Mrs. Boyd I. Miller, of Indianapolis, Ind., member and former vice president of the National Board YWCA, was the dinner speaker. She discussed "What Y-Teens Can Mean to You."

A member of the National Board since 1946, Mrs. Miller is now chairman of the YWCA central region which covers 12 states and embraces 219 different YWCA's.

Among those attending from Grosse Pointe High School were—Mrs. Fred Adams, Mrs. William Adams, Mrs. Rachael Bellinger, Miss Jean Campbell, Miss Margaret Casteel, Mrs. Eugene Corriveau, Mrs. R. J. Cronenweth, Mrs. Sheldon Drennan, Mr. Jerry Gerich.

Mrs. Loren Houtman, Mr. Robert Kuhn, Mrs. Eleanore Lasca, Mrs. Patricia Lipski, Miss Laura Mackeben, Mrs. O. B. Marx, Jr., Mrs. Howard Poppen, Miss Kathryn Sheedy, Miss Dorothy Selinger, Mrs. Michael Pastor, Mr. Donald Campbell, Mrs. Frances Black, Mrs. Ruth Flom.

Congregational Fair Nov. 17

A Christmas fair in the making is an exciting thing to watch. At the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church, the activity literally makes the church vibrate as nearly the whole congregation prepares for the "Mistletoe Mart," November 17.

Mrs. Stanley C. Smith, general chairman, reports that cooperation is the keynote, and the groups involved range in age from teen-agers to oldsters.

The Rev. Arnold Johnson, associate minister of Grosse Pointe Congregational, directs a group of wide awake junior high schoolers known as the "Congo Club." They are eagerly preparing for their role as hosts at a "Fish Pond" at the Mart, complete with fishing rods. Each child fishing receives a prize.

Their older high school brothers and sisters, known as the "Pilgrim Fellowship," a group under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Emerson, are busy packaging an endless assortment of candies for "Hansel and Gretel" do-it-yourself candy house kits.

Last year this same group made several edible candy houses as gifts to local children's wards in hospitals. They proved to be such a success that the group decided to duplicate both the houses and add the kits this year.

Proving that a senior age is no barrier to creative activity, the women of the "Senior 16's," led by co-chairmen, Mrs. Robert Hannah and Mrs. George Mensing, have put their nimble fingers to work on many projects for the fair. A golden sleigh will display a collection of knitted kangaroos, complete with "joey" in the pouch. Many are in local college colors.

This group has also made "tote" basket bags, styrofoam toothpick Christmas tree centerpieces, terrycloth bed socks, and decorated collapsible drinking cups for travelling.

The "Mistletoe Mart," an invitation to Christmas, will be open to the public from 9:30 a.m. until 9 p.m. on November 17.

City Club to See Films of Africa

In one hour's time James T. Fitzpatrick of Hidden lane will take members of the Women's City Club and their guests on a movie safari across Africa, from the east to west coast approximately at the Equator, during his program on Family Night, this Thursday, at 7:45 p.m. in the auditorium.

Mr. Fitzpatrick's colored movies include Kenya, Tanganyika, Uganda and the Belgian Congo—all hot spots in the news and all difficult to visit right now. This will be Mr. Fitzpatrick's fourth appearance at the Club with travel films.

When George W. Walker, vice-president of Ford Motor Company and director of styling, addressed members of the Women's City Club at the luncheon they gave Oct. 19 to honor wives of presidents of five motor corporations as a salute to the Automobile Show, 300 members and guests heard his talk on "Fashions on Four Wheels" in the auditorium and 310 more members and guests heard it on the P.A. system as they had luncheon in other dining rooms throughout the Club. Chartered busses took both groups to the Show.

After pointing out the influence women have in styling and their recognized purchasing power, Mr. Walker said: "If Mother doesn't like it, there's a good chance that Father won't buy it. It's as simple as that." He listed eight answers to what makes women buy anything:

1. Her husband says she can't have it.
2. It makes her look thinner.
3. It comes from Paris.
4. Her neighbors can't afford one.
5. Nobody's got one.
6. Everybody's got one.
7. It's different.
8. She has decided to buy.

Mrs. Charles E. Gunn, president of the City Club, entertained Mr. Walker during pre-luncheon cocktails in the lounge, with honored guests: Mrs. George W. Romney, wife of the president of American Motors—who took a later plane than her husband and met him for dinner in California so she could be at the party; and Mrs. Lester L. Colbert, wife of the president of Chrysler Corporation and president of the Automobile Manufacturers Association that put on the Auto Show; Mrs. Harold E. Churchill, wife of the president of Studebaker-Packard Corporation who came up from South Bend for the luncheon; Mrs. Henry Whiting Jr., daughter of Mrs. John F. Gordon, wife of the president of General Motors, who was ill that day; and Mrs. Charles Jacobson, honorary hostess chairman, wife of the vice-president of Chrysler Corporation who was general chairman of the Auto Show. Mr. Walker brought Mrs. Henry Ford II's greeting from Europe.

For forty years the City Club has supported cultural, civic and educational interests in downtown Detroit with more than 6000 members who live in all the surrounding suburbs—approximately a sixth of them from the Pointes.

Their salute to the Auto Show was a smash hit, from every viewpoint—good company, good looking clothes, good service, smooth planning and a good look at what makes Detroit tick at Cobo Hall!

GPYC Party Stars Fashions

Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's "Guys and Dolls" dinner dance last Friday, was a pretty, pretty party featuring, as it did, a fashion show. Not just a straight-away style parade, mind you, but a Dancing Fashions presentation in the mood of a superbly-staged floor show.

Costumes comprised glamorous evening wear—shimmering velvets, jeweled satins and chiffons, peau de soie and brocades, from short, short and evening dresses to long ballgowns. The beautiful models wearing them were met at the bandstand steps in a flood of light by a dancing partner, the pair then doing a dreamy waltz or spirited cha-cha, swing or samba.

It was a colorful scenic display even beyond the expectations of the party chairman, Mrs. Russell D. VanHouten, and GPYC's chairman of women's activities, Mrs. Glenn Walker.

Autumn's yellow, orange and bittersweet hues decked the ballroom for the smart fete, and party-goers were in black tie array.

Chairman Mrs. VanHouten arrived in a cherry red moire silk coat covering her short evening dress combining white satin skirt and black velvet bodice with low round neck and elbow-length sleeves. Mr. and Mrs. VanHouten and their guests, the Edward T. Bedford and Charles P. Noonans, were at a table with the Charles LaFonds, the Rex Regans and the John Griffins.

A special salute by the Arthur Quatro orchestra was in honor of Mr. and Mrs. John F. McNamara's wedding anniversary —the McNamaras were guests of the Glenn Walkers.

Dr. and Mrs. Christopher E. Smith entertained the George Jays, the Edwin Bowers, the Clement Pennells, the David Lowes, the Karl Crawford and the A. C. Munderloh.

The Bryan Chaplows and Barton F. Trails chatted merrily at their table; Como, and Mrs. Paul Moreland's guests were the Clarence Horns; Dr. and Mrs. Clifford Loranger and Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Evans were a foursome;

Mrs. Earl Fraser was stunning in black taffeta with deep square neckline and modified bubble skirt—accent was a rose-tinged evening bag. The Frasers were in a group with the Jack Hoopers (she was in peacock green satin), the Arthur Stringaris, Haford Kerbawys, Wayne Longs, Jack Craigs, Herbert J. Smiths and the Fred Hood's Jr.

The Stark Hickeys, Leo Fitzpatrick and Howard Shaws were together, and the Lee Radkes and Donald Radkes were a foursome. Mrs. Thomas Hatcher was pretty as a picture in silver brocaded white satin —with Mr. and Mrs. Hatcher were the Jack Gehlerts, the John Brinks, and the Donald Woods. Noted the Emmett McNamaras and the Arthur Hermanns, the petite Mrs. McNamara in cell blue satin with tiny sequins scattered over the bodice and short circular skirt; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bott, the latter a charmer in black with lace covered white medallions set in the full skirt; the Robert Woods dancing; the Hans Gehlerts, the William Carrolls, Bud Seylers, J. J. Gormans Jr., and Jack Danahers at a table together.

To purchase Savings Bonds, Peter Piper picked the painless partial payment payroll savings in the place where he works picking peppers to put in pickles.

Holiday Beggars For UNICEF

UNICEF, The United Nations Children's Fund, is a program which belongs to the youth of America. It was started by them. They make Halloween a day of SHARING instead of SCARING. The only TRICK is to TREAT the hungry and sick children of the world.

A UNICEF Halloween is traditional with spooks, witches and goblins; it retains all of the fun of ringing doorbells, parties, and the collection of treats. The difference is that UNICEF spooks are really angels in disguise.

The "treats" they collect are pennies, nickels and dimes, which through UNICEF become life saving penicillin, protective vaccine for children who are ill or malnourished.

On Halloween night youngsters of St. Joan of Arc School will carry cartons along with their begging baskets. The cartons are for your contribution to The United Nations Children Fund.

The children know the purpose of their collection. Most of them realize that one penny provides five glasses of milk, as well as the vaccine to inoculate one child against TB.

It is a pleasure to see them performing a charitable work which they can understand and enjoy at an early age. We are confident that the adults of our community, knowing the importance of their endeavors will respond wholeheartedly.

Homemakers Get Four Special Courses

Four courses for the hostess and homemaker, in foods and entertaining, are being offered by the Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Public School System. Two of these, "Party Cookery", and "Food Decorating" will begin on November 1, and November 7, respectively. "Let's Have a Party" and "Cooking for Two" have not as yet been assigned definite starting dates.

"Party Cookery" will begin on Tuesday, November 1, for a six-weeks course. The instructor, Julie W. Greene, who has been with the Detroit Edison Company as a Home Service Advisor, will give hints on preparation and short cuts for simple and successful preparation of foods for entertaining. Party menus and "quickie" foods will be included in her course.

"Food Decorating" will have a beginning date of Tuesday, November 7, with Geraldine Coleman as instructor. Mrs. Coleman's course covers the techniques of decorating canapes, tea sandwiches and small cakes, as well as large cakes for special occasions. She is a graduate of the Snyder School of Cake Decorating, and has conducted classes for Community Services for four years, as well as adult classes in other adult programs in this area.

"Let's Have a Party" is a hospitality course with an overall view of party planning. Included will be suitable foods for various occasions, table settings and decorations, favors and flower arrangements. The course is centered around showing the hostess how she may plan her party with the least worry and expense involved, and still enjoy her own party when her guests arrive. Elsa Sheridan is instructor for this course. Mrs. Sheridan is an authority on Japanese Flower Arranging, having spent this summer in Japan for her second course in this art.

"Cooking for Two" is a course especially designed to help the bride become familiar with the preparation of basic foods and also give assistance to the homemaker who has found that with the "shrinking" of her family circle, she has lost touch with the knack of preparing tasty dinners for two. Marjorie Atkinson will instruct this course for the third year. Mrs. Atkinson's major interest is Home Economics in all its phases, and is currently instructing a class in sewing for the Grosse Pointe Adult Education program.

Austin Fiesta Set for Nov. 45

"Fiesta" is the magic word to the mothers, dads and boys at the Austin Catholic High School. Everyone is busy working to make this year's Friars Fall Fiesta the biggest ever!

Chairman of the Dad's Division, Francis Parker, Mother's chairman, Mrs. William Bickel, and all of the committees, had the whole family in mind when they planned this affair for November 4 and 5.

Mothers are delighted with the prospect of taking the whole family to the fish dinner on Friday evening beginning at 5 o'clock. Entertainment galore—T.V. and sport celebrities, will win the favor of the Dads and Teenagers. They will also enjoy the games of skill.

The very young may play games and fish for a prize

Girl Scouts to Celebrate 100th Birthday of Founder

Girl Scout activities are underway for the '60-'61 school year in the Grosse Pointe District with an expected registration of more than last year's 130 troops, according to Mrs. L. H. Leisinger, district chairman.

Plans are being made now for celebration on October 31st of the 100th birthday anniversary of Juliette Low, founder of Girl Scouts in America, by all troops from Brownies through Senior Scouts.

Attracting much interest this year are Grosse Pointe's two Mounted Patrol Senior troops—the only such troops organized in Southern Michigan. In addition to regular Girl Scout work, these girls are concentrating on horsemanship riding and went on their first troop ride of the season on Saturday, October 15, at Belle Isle.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Earl Wade, the Mounted troops have a membership of 48 girls drawn from Brownell, Pierce, Parcels, and Harper Woods Junior Highs; and Grosse Pointe, St. Paul's, Regina, Dominican and Lutheran Peace High Schools.

The Mounteds were organized last year as one smaller troop which spent a week during the summer at Lost Sky Ranch near Mio, camping and riding. Plans are now being formulated for the newer troop to go back to Lost Sky Ranch next summer, while the older girls are planning a trip to a ranch in the west.

Grosse Pointe Scouts who spent part of the past summer camping and taking trips, will be on call to tell intermediates and other troops about their experiences. Many troops took short trips to Williamsburg and/or Washington, while one Senior Troop, No. 377, went on a 23 day trip to Mexico.

They camped from here to Laredo, U.S.A., and then spent 13 days travelling through Mexico where they cooked their own meals but did not camp. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schafer and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nofz accompanied the troop.

Approximately 50 women are now taking the Girl Scout Leadership training course, being offered one day a week for five weeks at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. At the conclusion of the training period they will become leaders of Brownie and Girl Scout troops through the Grosse Pointe District, which includes all five Grosse Pointes and Harper Woods.

In addition, more than 150 Scout Leaders and co-leaders are expected to attend a "Craft Day Program" October 20, at the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church, to learn of new craft ideas suitable for Scouts of all ages.

the house where you live

By Patricia Talbot

Mrs. Mary A. Roy has succeeded in giving her Italian styled house in Cloverly road a real Continental flair with French antiques, Italian paintings, English china and muted colors of blue, green and pink.

There are two entrances to the white stucco house, and from both the side drive and the more formal center entrance patrons of the Garden Center House Tours on October 29 and 30 will walk into a black and white tiled two winged hall. The wallpaper is an interesting white scrolled with black and aqua leaf design, an attempt to bring the outdoors inside.

This formal entrance hall is a background for Hepplewhite chairs covered in Hongkong silk, a rare Swiss gilt clock, an English commode, some Italian chairs, Sevres candlesticks and a French mirror.

The library, with aqua walls, is English in tone with some amusing rare prints, mahogany coffee tables, a cream velvet couch and two striking Wedgwood magpies.

Pink, Mrs. Roy's favorite color, has been used in the wallpaper of the powder room with accents of platinum. And more pink is used in the imposing living room, as accent notes in Opaline glass and Lowestoft china. The room is carpeted in white and the brocaded chairs and couches are done in lemon-lime and silver blue. A smoky mirror backs the black marble fireplace. Two gray Louis XVI antique consoles, topped with gray marble hold rare china lamps. Two large footstools of the Napoleonic period are covered in pink. Mrs. Roy admits she found these pieces in an old barn, and she discovered the crystal sconces flanking the fireplace behind a furnace at an old Canadian house. Canada is the treasure trove for most of her discoveries. There is also a fine Louis Philippe table, a French mirror topped with a painting, some Waterford crystal candelabra and a large Chelsea statue. The gray blue brocaded draperies blend with the walls.

In the imposing dining room deep emerald green silk accented at intervals with a white flowered design lines the walls. The large table, buffet and sideboard are Georgian with French white and gold toile on the chairs. Two small bronze and white marble tables hold Meissen candelabra. By the window is a small table for two chairs covered in tufted white material for more intimate dinners. On the wall are three gold framed china plaques and there is a fine display of English silver.

Among the most striking features in the house are the two gold leaf columns in the upstairs hall, topped with white marble and holding gold and crystal French candelabra. The carpeting is a soft green and there is a corner for a Chippendale chest and a French console.

All the white bedroom doors have been etched in a marble black to heighten the effect of the wallpaper. Two of the bedrooms are Early American, one with a red and white French print on the walls and used in the draperies and bedspreads.

In Mrs. Roy's bedroom pink again plays a dominant role. The spread and chair covers have been done in a rich pink and white brocade which blends with the Dresden printed wallpaper. One wall is covered in pink silk and pink glass curtains are framed with blue overdrapes. There is an unusual flowered framed Meissen mirror and a miniature painted French desk. Above the bed is a framed French fan, spread out to show its intricate design.

Another bedroom is done in soft pink with a shocking pink velvet chaise and an intricate flower basket ceiling fixture. From this room there is a small screened morning porch with glass topped tables and bright chintz covered furniture for leisurely summer breakfasts.

Leaf To Talk At Town Hall

Author-illustrator Munro Leaf will discuss "The Secret World of Munro Leaf" when he speaks before Detroit Town Hall on Wednesday, November 2.

Leaf is the author of the delightful children's classic, "Ferdinand the Bull," the story of the little bull who preferred flowers to bull-fighting. He is the author-illustrator of the Watchbird Series in Ladies' Home Journal, and the Fun books, which deal with Numbers, Arithmetic, Geography, and other subjects.

He will bring charcoal and easel with him to his Town Hall talk, scheduled for 11 a.m. in Ford Auditorium. He will also be present at the speakers luncheon held later at the Detroit Boat Club.

Some of the questions he will answer: Do parents and educators communicate with children any more? By the way, what- ever BECAME of parents? Can a child be raised on frozen food and TV alone? Leaf, a student of behavior at all ages, delightfully details the lighter aspects of adult delinquency and shows how children became human beings, after all.

Tickets may be obtained at Grinnell's, WO 2-1124, or at Ford Auditorium November 2.

Voters League Tackles Project

Mrs. Miles McKee of 860 Pemberton and Mrs. Edward D. Cox of 1314 Bedford have been named by the Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters to represent the local league at area meetings fostering better understanding of the role of the United Nations through economic development.

As local representatives the two women will participate in a new educational undertaking by the Carrie Chapman Catt Fund.

The Carrie Chapman Catt Memorial Fund is a research and educational fund created by the League of Women Voters of the United States.

This fund, with a grant received from the Institute for International Order, has initiated and will be developing a project to build understanding of the role of the United Nations in promoting peace through economic development.

Pianist Claude Frank To Open Morning Musicales

Claude Frank will open the season of the Grosse Pointe Morning Musicales Thursday, November 3, at the Country Club and will be the guest of Mrs. Everett Kinsey, one of the board members who arrange this invitational concert series during his stay in the Pointe.

Mr. Frank is the artist whom the great pianist Rudolf Serkin has characterized in a dramatic statement:

"I consider Claude Frank one of the finest and most brilliant musicians of his generation. His pianism is outstanding, and his deep and sensitive musicianship is absolutely unique!"

The musicale started years ago during the war when it was difficult to have enough gasoline to drive into the city. Now they are continuing to bring superb artists who appear in a more intimate setting in the Great Hall at the Club and members who take the series usually remain for luncheon to meet the guest star.

Acceptances and reservations have been filling the mailbox of Mrs. Kinsey, for several weeks. "This is a reminder to the few tardy ones—this season's musicales are really the most outstanding yet offered."

Rudolph Serkin's statement about Claude Frank, and the sort of unqualified praise accorded him not only in Washington, but in New York, London, Brussels, Amsterdam, Montreal, and other international music capitals, are all the more striking in light of the fact that Frank began to concert himself primarily a concert artist only a very short time ago.

To be sure, he has played the piano since early childhood, and "never thought of being anything else but a musician." He was one of the last pupils of Artur Schnabel, with whom he studied for ten years. He had made his New York orchestral debut with Toscanini's NBC Symphony, and had played throughout North America and Europe as recitalist, soloist with do good, but too many of them put it off until tomorrow. orchestra, in chamber music, an don radio and television. But he always had been too interested in too many different facets of music to devote himself entirely to being a concert performer.

In a way, it was Frank's participation as an artist-teacher in Rudolf Serkin's annual summer Marlboro Music Festival that marked the turning point in his musical career.

But his playing, rather than being "full of promise," time and time again is greeted as the profound and moving communication of a mature and magnificent artist.

IN THE WORLD OF FINE HOTELS: Paris

Sophisticated world travelers to Paris can take their choice among some of Europe's finest hotels: Plaza-Athenae, off Champs Elysees, is the center of social activity; at The Maurice, the rooms face the ever-charming Tuilleries; the famed Ritz is a traveler's landmark on the Place Vendome.

Here is all the service, the comfort, the luxury to satisfy a perfectionist.

But Paris has its drawbacks: the traffic, the crowds, the noise. Palm Beach, on the other hand, enjoys island solitude and a soft, quiet climate of sunshine and ocean breezes.

And the cost-careless, comfort-conscious traveler finds the equivalent of Paris' elegant, polished life at Palm Beach's most distinguished address...

Eight-Year-Old's Vacation Diary Wins Teacher's Praise

A bulletin board display depicting vacation activities for some of the springboard for several outstanding reports and discussions by a Kerby School third grade recently. Each child had an opportunity to tell about his or her interesting experiences during the past summer and some took the opportunity to present written reports.

One of the more outstanding reports uncovered by Mrs. Theone Psihas, teacher of the group, was a day-by-day diary kept by Sarah Moran during her summer vacation. Sarah reported that she not only made the daily notations in anticipation of such a report to her classmates but that she used a typewriter as well. The result was a well written, well prepared composition which in the opinion of Mrs. Psihas deserved wider recognition than just from fellow third graders. The diary follows:

Diary of a Summer Vacation

The Morans without Daddy have just come to Petoskey to stay two weeks at Crandina Switzer's house. The reason Daddy couldn't come up was that he has to work in Detroit.

My Aunt Carolyn is an artist and she is staying the whole summer in Petoskey. Yesterday she took us to see the glass blower who is in Petoskey for the summer, but he was out to lunch we think.

Today it's sort of a cloudy day, and if we can't go to the beach we'll go up to Mackinaw City and see the fort they have just restored there.

Last night Jeffrey and I put locks in Carl Care's bed and spaghetti on her sheet. But the spaghetti didn't work.

Petoskey is a town on Little Traverse Bay and the bay runs into Lake Michigan.

Bobby Greenway is one of Jeffrey's friends and the boys were just in the house. Jeff is my brother.

Last night all of us went over to Uncle Basil's to drop off some birthday presents for Aunt Mary Lou.

It's clearing up now and I think we are going to the beach.

Today it's a nice day and we can go to the beach. Tomorrow I'm going to summer school with my friend Joannie.

When Grandma bought a skirt for Aunt Mary Lou, Mama liked it so much that she bought a skirt like it. Petoskey is a small town, but it has a lot of interesting stores such as The General Store with the Mole Hole, and so forth.

Aunt Carolyn gave me some library cards, colored paper, and some typewriting paper.

Yesterday we went to Fort Michilmackinaw and it was great. When we went to Mackinaw we saw the bridge and it was beautiful. Jeffrey and his friend Bobby went with us, and as you know the boys loved it.

Jeff and the boys are out-dorms frolicking around while I'm inside typing away at this story. The reason I'm writing this story is that when I return home my friends won't ask so many questions.

When we saw the fort we saw how they punished people in the olden days.

Spotty is Grandma's cat and she is fourteen years old. Aunt Carolyn is taking Spotty to the Petoskey Humane Society. In other words, it's a place to keep animals when their masters or mistresses don't want them any more.

Today is an opposite of a nice day because it's raining. I went to summer school and we made candy animals. I made a candy horse. Mama made some cookies and they were delicious.

Bobby, Jeff, and I had a play. We had 18 cents from it.

We had cherry pie for dessert and it was delicious.

Daddy sent us a dime.

Today Aunt Carolyn has a

Church Group To Hear Author

An opportunity to meet an author, lecturer, and founder of the famed "Institute for Advanced Pastoral Studies" will be open to Grosse Pointers when Reuel Lanphier Howe speaks on the "Doctrines Pertaining to God and Man" Tuesday, November 1, at Christ Episcopal Church. This is the second in the series of talks planned in conjunction with the monthly morning meeting of the Churchwomen.

The "Institute for Advanced Pastoral Studies," located in Bloomfield Hills, is a training center for ministers of different denominations who have been in the ministry for at least three years, and is directed by Dr. Howe.

Dr. Howe is particularly interested in the aspect of how theology ties in with the social and medical sciences. As guest lecturer of the Philadelphia Psychoanalytic Association, a member of the Board of Directors of the Washington School of Psychiatry and of the Washington Seminar in Religion and Psychiatry, his insight has contributed greatly to correlation in these fields.

Dr. Howe is a former member of the Technical Committee of the Mid-Century White House Conference on Children and Youth. During 1954 Dr. Howe as a Visiting Fellow represented the Episcopal Church at St. Augustine's College, Canterbury, England. He is also prominent in the educational program of other Protestant denominations, and served as a member of the Department of Pastoral Services of the National Council of Churches of Christ and the Department of the Ministry.

During his 18 years of teaching, Dr. Howe has been counselor to many people besides students, especially in the area of family relations. His book "Man's Need and God's Action" has sold over 50,000 copies to both laity and clergy, and "The Creative Years" published in 1959 is being used extensively by most Protestant denominations. He was also a contributor to the books "Sex and Dance music will be continuous throughout the evening and special entertainment and refreshments will be featured at intermission time.

Penalties Hurt As Devils Bow Out Of League Race

Grosse Pointe was knocked out of the Border Cities League title race last Saturday, October 22, when unbeaten Fordson capitalized on penalties and breaks to win 13-7 before a huge Dad's Day crowd on the Devil gridiron.

It was a bruising, hard fought battle which was for "keeps" in the gruelling BCL race and one that caused Tractor coach Mike Megarian to complain bitterly and accuse the Devils of "dirty play."

Officials were non-committal after the game. One did say that it was the hardest fought game he had worked all season.

Both Teams Keyed Up Coach Ed Wernet said, "What can you expect when all the chips are on the line? Both teams were keyed to fever pitch and both were giving everything they had to win and I am certain that any infraction wasn't intentional."

Fordson scored both its touchdowns in the hectic third period and Grosse Pointe notched its lone tally late in the fourth quarter.

Both teams had breaks but Fordson's seemed to come at crucial points that turned the tide. Fumbles and interceptions were the rule of the day but none figured in the scoring as much as the penalties inflicted by the officials.

Devi's Get Break Grosse Pointe got the first break of the game on the opening kickoff when Dave Veenendaal's kickoff was fumbled by Dean Dickey and recovered by halfback Ray Tankersley on the Fordson 37. The Devils failed to capitalize.

Fordson threatened late in the first quarter when it drove from its own 25 to the Devil 7, where halfback Tankersley recovered fullback Jerry Dienieck's fumble. The Tractor drive was aided when the Devils were penalized 15 yards for roughing end Gino Scofano when he punted on fourth down from his own 21. The penalty moved the ball to the Fordson 36 and kept the drive alive.

Gets Personal Foul Fordson threatened again early in the second quarter when it drove from its own 45 to the Devil 10, where the Pointers dug in and held and took over on downs. Unable to keep a sustained drive going Veenendaal punted to halfback Jerry Chandler on the Fordson 36.

On the first play tackle Jim Foster racked Chandler for a 5-yard loss but the officials felt he did it too strenuously and inflicted a 15-yard personal foul penalty which gave Fordson an automatic first down on the Devil 49. Quarterback Ed Condon's pass was intercepted by end Edward Bunn on the Devil 28 who ran it back to the Pointe 32.

Two plays later quarterback Randy Allardcy saw his pass sail into the arms of Chandler on the Fordson 36 where he was dropped in his tracks. Whistle Ends Threat Fordson drove to the Devil 22, with the aid of another 15-yard roughing the kicker penalty, and Ed Bunn turned the tables on the Tractors when he intercepted another Condon aerial and ran it back to the Pointe 19 as the half ended.

The Tractors broke the scoreless deadlock the first time they got their hands on the ball in the third quarter when they drove from their own 45 after Veenendaal had booted a beautiful kick into the strong southwest wind that prevailed. Actually the biggest break of the game came during this series of downs. In three plays Fordson had gained 8 yards to the Devil 41 and was faced with a choice of kicking or gambling.

They chose the latter and guard Dave Davenport racked up Condon for a 2-yard loss with a bone crunching tackle. Once again the officials thought there was too much gusto in the tackle and inflicted another 15-yard penalty which gave the Tractors new life and an automatic first down on the Devil 26. Dienieck cracked the line for 5 and Dickey made it a first down on the Devil 15. Condon was nailed for a 5-yard loss by Dave Miles but halfback Gary Haverly raced around his own left end to the Devil 3 where Bunn put the stopper on him. Dickey cracked over his own left tackle for the first touchdown of the game and then booted the extra point to give Fordson a 7-0 lead with 6:36 left in the period.

Wind Stalls Kick The Devils were unable to move the ball after the kickoff and Veenendaal got off another beautiful spiral kick but the wind held it up and it fell dead on the Fordson 45.

Fordson stayed on the ground and six plays later Condon crashed over his own right tackle to score after Dave Miles stepped Jerry Chandler on the 6 while lying on his back. Dickey's kick was wide and Fordson held what looked to be a comfortable 13-0 lead with 1:42 left in the third quarter.

Trailing and faced with being eliminated from the BCL title race Grosse Pointe came roaring back with a sustained drive from its own 26, after the kickoff, to the Tractor 12. The drive was featured by a fake fourth down kick gamble on which Lew Ewald cracked up the middle for 11 yards. Allardcy hit Ewald with a 5-yard pass and Lew raced to the Fordson 12. On the very next play Allardcy fumbled and Dienieck recovered on the Tractor 13.

Another Penalty Hurts A stonewall Devil defense forced Fordson to kick and it sailed out of bounds on the Pointe 43. Three plays netted negligible yardage and Veenendaal booted out of bounds on the Fordson 21. But Grosse Pointe became the recipient of (Continued on Page 23)

Lakers Need Victory In Finale For Crown

Austin Nears League Title

If Friars are supposed to be docile, meek and humble you wouldn't recognize the group at Austin High these days. And why are those Friars so different—well, they are just a game away from winning their first football championship in the school's history.

The Austin Friars are proud, not boastful; confident, but not overly so and they won't take a back seat to anyone since they tripped St. Joseph 15-6 last Sunday, October 23, on De La Salle gridiron to stay at the top of the Parochial White Division grid race.

Coach Joe Flood's winning charges will tackle De La Salle on its own field under the lights next Sunday, October 30, and the Pilots are all that stand in their way to the door of the throne room and a chance to play in the annual Soup Bowl game. The winner of the Soup Bowl will earn the right to meet the Detroit Metropolitan champions in the annual Goodfellow game in Briggs—oops—Tiger Stadium.

One Game at Time Emphasizing the "one game at a time theory" the Austin Friars concentrated on underdog St. Joseph and did a workmanlike job on the Bluejays scoring once in the first quarter, once in the second period plus a safety to win 15-6 after the Bluejays knotted the count 6-6 in the first period.

On the second play from scrimmage, after they had gotten their hands on the ball for the first time in the game, quarterback Bob Plumpe flipped a 10 yard pass to halfback Craig Thomas who raced to the Bluejay 10. Larry Smith counted on the next play with an end run. Fullback Phil Stewart's conversion kick was blocked.

Late in the second quarter the Bluejays blocked Tom Eder's punt which rolled dead on the Friar one. Fullback Arch Oleziwski cracked over the middle. The extra point was missed and the score was deadlocked at the halftime intermission.

Score On Bad Pass Austin bolted back into the lead in the most unexpected way. The Bluejays were deep in their own territory and faced with a fourth down kicking situation. A bad pass from center sailed high over the kickers' head and rolled out of the end zone giving the Friars a safety and two points for an 8-6 lead.

To take the lucky angle out of the game Austin proceeded to chalk up another touchdown so it couldn't be said they "lucked" this one out over a weak team. Behind the running of John Stanley and Larry Smith, two key performers all season, and the whip-like arm of Bob Plumpe, and the tenacious fingers of Mike Whyte, the Friars moved in for the final score.

The drive featured a key 20 yard pass play from Plumpe to Whyte which placed the ball on the Bluejay 7 from where Plumpe hit Craig Thomas with a pass in the end zone. Plumpe added the extra point on a roll out around end.

GPUS Black Knights Beat Christian Lancers, 28-0

The GPUS Black Knights hit early and often, behind the high powered running of Sandy "the Horse" Coe, to wallop Christian Emmanuel 28-0 on the Cook Road gridiron last Friday, October 21.

The Black Knights chalked up touchdowns in each quarter with Coe notching three on runs of 16 and 76 yards and a 63-yard pass play. Halfback John Van De Graaf added the other touchdown on a four-yard plunge and four extra points on identical plunges over his own left guard.

GPUS chalked up the first score within three minutes after the game got underway when Coe bulled his way around his own left end to score standing up.

The Knights missed another touchdown minutes later. Alan Hartwick recovered a Christian fumble on the Lancer 37 on the first play after GPUS had kicked off. John Adair reeled to the 24, Coe banged to the 13 and Adair added a yard but the Knights were penalized back to the 18. Coe cracked to the one foot line but again the Knights were penalized and this time for 15 yards back to the 19. The clipping penalty was walked off from the point of the foul on the Lancer four.

Pass Intercepted Another five-yard penalty on the next play placed the ball on the 24 and Adair took to the air and had his fourth down pass intercepted by Bruce Yuille who ran it out to the Lancer 28 to halt the GPUS threat.

On the first play Christian fumbled and Noel Savignac recovered on the Lancer 28. Coe carried on three of the next four plays for gains of nine, eight and eight for his second touchdown which was called back when the Knights were penalized five yards back to the 14. John Adair cracked the Lancer line for 10 from where Van De Graaf slipped over for the second GPUS touchdown.

He also added the extra point to give the Knights a 14-0 lead which held up to half time. GPUS played ball control throughout the first half and allowed Christian to have the ball for only one play in the first quarter and seven plays in the second period.

The Knights should have scored two more touchdowns in the first half but penalties at crucial points in sustained drives stopped the threat. Also the Knights made the mistake of not staying with its ground attack, which ate up the yardage until they elected to take to the air. The GPUS quarterbacks repeatedly missed their tagrets with men in the open.

Runs 76 Yards to Score Coe kicked off to Yuille on the Christian 23 and he brought it back to the 45 to open the third period. Four plays later end Tom Sutton hooted the ball dead on the GPUS 25. On the first play Van De Graaf made 12 but the Knights were penalized 15 yards for clipping, which put the ball back on the GPUS 24 and set the stage for Coe's brilliant 76-yard dash for his second touchdown of the day. Van De Graaf again plunged for the extra point to give GPUS a comfortable 21-0 lead.

Late in the third period Christian threatened and drove from its own 25 to the GPUS 14 where Alan Hartwick recovered a fumble to kill the drive. Christian's longest drive of the day was aided by a fourth down gamble on its own 39, which failed but paid off when GPUS was caught holding for a 15-yard penalty which put the ball on the GPUS 48 and kept the drive alive.

Finally Hits Coe After Hartwick recovered the Christin fumble the Knights drove out to the Christian 46. A

Spartans Lose To Farmington

The Grosse Pointe Woods Spartans Varsity lost 2-0 and the Junior Varsity lost 13-12 to the Farmington Rockets in the final Jack Lowther Little Football League game at Farmington Saturday.

The Varsity game was ruled a forfeit by the referee after two minutes of the second quarter because of a disputed call on a clipping penalty. An unprecedented decision, without any warning, by the referee came after Jack Conley romped 60 yards for a touchdown on a beautiful trap play which was called back to the Rocket's 40 yard line.

Farmington took an early 14-6 lead in the game on a first quarter 11 yard end run and an extra point by Ron Martini. Grosse Pointe came right back to score on a 68 yard kickoff return by Jack Conley. Don Vormelker's attempt for the extra point was no good.

The Rockets second touchdown drive started after Bill Manasco intercepted Vormelker's pass on the Rockets 40 yard line. Farmington marched down to Grosse Pointe's 5 yard line where Manasco drove off tackle for the TD. Ron Martini picked up the extra point.

Junior Varsity The Junior Varsity grabbed a 12-0 lead with touchdowns in hte second and third quarters but failed to contain the Rockets in the final period.

Grosse Pointe's first touchdown came on a 70 yard left end run by Tom Morey. Kim Langlois threw a key block on the 50 yard line to spring Morey loose. Robert Juratovac failed on the extra point attempt. The Spartan second score came on a 75 yard punt return by Tom Morey. Greg Jarboe lead Morey down to the 40 and blocked the last Rocket player in the way of the touchdown sprint.

Farmington's Chip Terry returned a Spartan punt for 30 yards to set up the Rocket's first score late in the third quarter. Don Shires extra point try was no good.

In the final quarter, the Rockets tied the score on a 33 yard reverse hand off from Terry Goyt to Paul Misch. Chip Terry drove through tackle to clinch the game with the extra point.

Lakers Forced To Settle For Tie At Homecoming

The twice-beaten St. Benedictine Ravens didn't ruin St. Paul's homecoming game, but it dented it pretty well with a surprising 13-13 tie last Sunday, October 23, on the Grosse Pointe High gridiron.

The tie dropped unbeaten St. Paul into second place behind unbeaten Sacred Heart, which scored its sixth straight win that day by turning back St. Florian 26-20.

The Ravens will meet Sacred Heart in what could be the title game of the Parochial Blue Division race next Sunday, October 30. A victory for the Lakers would mean the title.

Lakers Shocked Benedictine shocked the Lakers when it scored twice in the second period and forced the Lakers to battle back in the last half to salvage the tie and remain in the race for the crown.

The Ravens first touchdown came with lightning like rapidity when it appeared the Lakers had the bigger Benedictine ball carriers pretty well contained. On the first play of the second quarter quarterback Fred Fritz lofted a 29 yard pass to end Joe Pavelich on the St. Paul 34 and he went all the way without a hand being laid on him. Guard Joe Bonnano failed on the kick for the extra point.

St. Benedictine padded its lead midway in the same period when the Lakers were forced to punt after three plays failed to produce the necessary yardage for a first down after the kickoff. Gary Schick booted out to tackle Ron Rotile on the Laker 40 and he carried to the St. Paul 34.

On third down and nine to go Fred Fritz hurried a 22 yard pass to end Cass Rassachaki on the Laker 12. Four line plays pushed the Ravens to the Laker 2 and Fullback Barry Schonfeld cracked over from the six inch line on the second play. Joe Bonnano's kick for the extra point was good and the Lakers were way down the "well" and facing elimination from the unbeaten ranks and the Blue Division title chase. The Lakers continued to be something less than balls of fire for the first 9 minutes of the third quarter. But as time began to run out quarterback Mike Cantwell discovered a weak spot in the Raven line between right guard and tackle.

Directing his attack at the weak spot he jammed Pete Phillips into it with line bucks and sent Frank Wachter on end runs to loosen up the Raven defense.

Then he sent Frank Wachter over the Raven left tackle and picked up 33 yards down to the Benedictine one yard line. Cantwell sneaked over for the first Laker score. Chick Heiner was stopped in his tracks after taking a pitchout from Cantwell on the try for the extra point.

The first minute of play produced the second Laker touchdown the first time they got their hands on the ball in the period. Taking a Benedictine punt, which rolled dead on the Laker 33, Cantwell engineered a 77 yard sustained drive.

Pete Phillips made it a first down on plunges of 4 and 14 yards on the Raven 49. Steve Handlos burst up the middle for 37 yards to the Raven 12 and Wachter carried to the 8 from where Heiner took a pitchout and raced around end for the score. Wachter added the equalizer on an end run.

Get Another Chance St. Paul had one more chance when Gary Schick intercepted Fritz's pass on the Laker 39. A flat pass from Cantwell to Peters on the Laker 40 was good and Peters raced to the Raven 35 for a first down with 10 seconds left in the game. Heiner tried left end for 4 yards and with two seconds left Cantwell was nailed by Bonnano and Joe Poma for a nine yard loss as the game ended.

Devils Out of Loop Race

A 15-yard roughing the kicker penalty which put the ball on the Tractor 31.
Allardyce took to the air and missed a short pass to Andrews and then rifled an 11-yard bullet-like strike to Ewald on the Tractor 20. Ewald, trapped, later-erally to fullback Jim Kolp who raced down the sideline to the 2. Ewald cracked over for the Devils' lone touchdown.

Center Dan Cook and quarterback Bill Raven broke through and blocked Gino Scofano's kick and the ball bounded back to the Fordson 21. Tackle Paul Boesun was hot in pursuit and tried twice to pick up the elusive pigskin and failed. The third try he made it but the officials ruled his knee had touched the ground and ruled the ball dead on the 21 with 10 seconds left.

With time for just one more play, Allardyce attempted to pass but was rushed badly and was forced to dodge three on-rushing Fordson linemen. He succeeded in eluding them but got off a wobbly pass that fell harmlessly to the ground as the game ended and so did Grosse Pointe's hopes of repeating as BCL champion for the fourth consecutive year.

When the POINTE was growing up...

By Pat Talbot

Such families as the Rabauts, the Palms, the Posseluses, the Verheydens and the Ghesquieres have made important contributions to the Pointe's civic and cultural life since they first arrived in America in the early 19th century.

They all came originally from Belgium, whose Prince Albert and Princess Paola recently appeared here to open the Flemish art exhibit at the Detroit Institute of Arts. A great many of them settled in the East Side, particularly in the area around Gratiot and the city limits.

They were farmers like the Vanderbushes, inn keepers like the Verheydens, real estate operators like the Palms, merchants like the Posseluses. Their contribution has been a big one.

Clever road house operators like Joseph Verheyden, who sailed from Belgium in the early 1800's knew how to bring the carriage trade to his saloon on the foot of Cook road. He raffled off tickets on a horse for 25c could mix a potent hot sling, a combination of whiskey, sugar and water for ice boat racers.

Alphonse Posselius came to Detroit in 1857 and his father started a furniture store on Gratiot avenue near Russell street in a small log building. By 1913 this business was the Posselius Furniture Co. Adolph Posselius was an ardent member of the Democratic Party, helped his fellow Belgians become citizens. In 1884, 25 of them marched to City Hall and in less than an hour the formalities were over, followed by a big meal at the saloon of Remi Bourgeois.

Charles Rabaut, grandfather of the present Congressman, operated a sash, door and blind factory on Grand River, then opened an exclusive merchandise store which specialized in Belgian imports, French laces and German dolls. Louis Rabaut the congressman's father married an Irish colleen, operated a toy store on East Jefferson avenue. When his wife died he married Mary Humphrey and the couple have nine children.

There was a large Belgian colony along the Gratiot toll road by 1900. They were excellent farmers and supplied the Eastern market and downtown hotels from their gardens. There were many brickyards in the vicinity and many Belgians worked in these and the adjoining saw mills.

Adolph Daman was another prominent Belgian who came here about 1890 to ship out with the Great Lakes vessels. He married the daughter of Charles Goddeeris, another well known Belgian pioneer, and began a hardware store which has many branches throughout the city. His father-in-law, an expert cabinet maker, helped build the first Belgian Church, became building commissioner for Grosse Pointe Park.

Jules Charles Cornillie, who also married a Goddeeris, began his trucking business with a wagon and three horses, after serving as a hostler for a brewing company. His descendants are living in the Pointe.

There are many other Belgian families whose descendants are living and working in our town, who are noted for their devotion to such old country pleasures as pigeon racing, accordion playing, krulbowling, card playing and archery. They have organized such civic groups as the Belgian American Business Men's Association; the Flemish American League; Belgian Benevolent Society; St. Vincent de Paul Society and the St. Charles Beneficial Society.

Suburbia Club To Meet Nov. 1

Mrs. Bruce Grubb, of Audubon road, will open her home on Tuesday, November 1 for a luncheon meeting of the Suburbia Garden Club.

The program will be a demonstration of holiday ideas by member, Mrs. Robert A. Vander Jyl, Jr., of Birmingham.

Suburbia was among the garden clubs participating in the flower show and table arrangement displays at the Charles Warren Co., last week.

Woman's Club To Make Dolls

Members of the Grosse Pointe Women's Club gathered Thursday, October 20, at 1 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Arthur Baylis, of McKinley avenue, to make dolls for children in local hospitals.

The organizations will continue this project at regular meetings the first and third Thursday of each month at the home of Mrs. Baylis. Mrs. John Carter, who began this work last year, urges all club members to attend.

CURTAINS CAN BREAK

Sheer Fiberglas curtains may drape in neat folds, but don't let the soft look fool you. The fibers are brittle and need gentle handling when the curtains are washed. Home economists at Michigan State University suggest folding the fabric loosely and patting it gently in soapy water.

CARBURETOR STOLEN

Richard Van Steelant of 14008 Alma, Detroit, lost his car's carburetor to a thief on Wednesday, October 5. He told Woods police that he discovered the theft when he went to his car parked in the Woods Theater parking lot. The loss is valued at $17.

Pointer of Interest

MRS. LAWRENCE GOTFREDSON, JR., OF WASHINGTON ROAD

Picture by Fred Runnells

by Patricia Talbot

"When people say to me, we're being fair to death," says Mrs. Lawrence Godefredson, Jr., chairman of this year's Christ Church Fair, November 10, "I tell them about how I found a career at the Fair."

Two years ago petite Mrs. G. worked for the flower arranging booth. Now she does arrangements professionally. The Fair teaches many women new crafts—decoupage, needlepoint, china painting—are just a few.

There are many church fairs and charity bazaars in the Pointe at this season of the year. But few of them do the business, (profit between $30,000-$40,000) of Christ Church and Memorial Church. These two alternate fair years and this fall it is Christ Church's turn.

A year ago the Women's Association began work on the Fair. They sew once a week, do decoupage on trays, waste baskets and baskets, paint, arrange flowers, needlepoint and do all the crafts, which Mrs. Godefredson feels would become lost art were it not for this work.

Helps Episcopal Work

The funds which are collected from the giant one day bazaar go to a variety of Episcopal needs. This year some of the money will be given to inter-city churches; to establish a chaplaincy in a downtown hospital; to domestic and foreign missions; for college work; to the altar guild; to help establish an Episcopal home for the aged and many other causes.

Many of the Fair workers, and there are hundreds, learn new skills to do at home as Mrs. Godefredson did. This season she has not been able to fill her professional orders due to her work for the Fair. As general chairman she keeps an eye on all the booths, is a clearing house for arrangements, and volunteer problems. After the first of the year she will return to her flower arranging.

Well Trained Volunteer

Mrs. Godefredson is well trained in heading committees, organizing volunteer talent. For many years she worked hard for the Detroit Orthopedic Clinic, the Junior League and the GPUS Carnival. She became interested in church work when Rev. Kolb, a close personal friend, was the rector at Christ Church. She teaches Sunday School at the church.

The chairman is able to appreciate the long hours and talent which contribute to the unusual handicraft sold at the Fair. She majored in art at Sarah Lawrence, paints herself. Even with her Fair responsibilities she is working on decoupage and flower arranging for these booths. She gives over 20 hours a week to Fair doings, working for the booths that most need her help.

Plays Paddle Tennis

Last winter she drove her son, Chris, skiing, sat in the car and did decoupage while he traveled the slopes. Although she is not a skier she is an avid paddle tennis player at the Country Club during the winter. In the summer she sails with her husband at the Little Club. They can share their various artistic interests. Mr. Godefredson makes model boats which requires the same type of patience and skill demanded of decoupage.

This year there will be no selling the day before the Fair to the worker, as has been the practise in the past. Patrons had the opportunity to order merchandise last spring and again a few weeks ago when the workers held a workshop, took orders, and even showed their customers how to "do-it-yourself."

The decor for the Fair will be very unusual, featuring some of the elegant trees and gold trimmings used at Charlotte Ford's debut last Christmas. Patrons will be able to buy luncheon and their children will enjoy the Wonderland which will be set up in the new annex.

When the Fair is over chairman Mrs. Godefredson will be able to give some thought to her own family Christmas for Chris, 12, and Lance, 16 (who is away at school). Until November 11 she is on hand for every Fair detail from basket work to clean-up.
