Thursday, December 22
MICHIGAN'S GOVERNOR-ELECT John B. Swainson has leased a $100,000 "dream home" in a seven-year-old Lansing subdivision for two years. The 12-room home built by a disabled Navy veteran with eight children, has many luxury features including five bedrooms, a well-equipped office with a separate entrance, and an air-conditioned shuffleboard court. Spacious living and family rooms are suitable for entertaining.

Swainson said he plans to keep his three-bedroom home in Plymouth so that he will have a home when he leaves the governor's office, Michigan, unlike most states, does not provide an official residence for the governor.

WINTER officially arrived yesterday, along with Detroit's first major snowfall of the season and temperatures which slid to a low of four degrees. Hardest hit city in Michigan was Port Huron with a 15-inch snow fall, its second in ten days. Declaring that the city was in a serious situation, the City manager said attendance in the schools had dropped off 80 per cent.

A 503 FOOT TANKER, the Pine Ridge, broke in two yesterday during a storm off treacherous Cape Hatteras near Norfolk, Va. High waves prevented rescuers from reaching the 37 to 40 crewmen thrown into the water or trapped on the tossing hulks. Survivors aboard the stern section of the stricken vessel reported that they were in good condition. The bow section of the Pine Ridge capsized when it split, but remained afloat and crewmembers were reported clinging to it and other debris in the water.

A FORMER $30,000 A YEAR bookkeeper at the architectural firm of Giffels and Valet, Inc. was found guilty of embezzling $48,513 from her employers, Mrs. Mary M. Averill, 59, was convicted by a Recorder's Court jury after a nine-week trial. The wife of a retired detective sergeant in the Detroit police department, Mrs. Averill had worked with the firm for thirty years.

ONE SAILOR remained aboard the hulk of the ill-fated American tanker, Pine Ridge, to guard against salvagers. Twenty-eight other crewmen were rescued from the ship by Navy helicopters. The vessel's upper section was holed by a howling gale off Cape Hatteras, near Norfolk, Va. The man who volunteered to remain aboard the thrashing stern section was Chief Engineer John Richard of Wilmington, Del., who has sailed aboard ships for 16 years. The Coast Guard reported the man was resting comfortably aboard the drifting hulk, had plenty of electricity and food, but was short on water.

THE VICE MAYOR of Flint, Thomas C. Smith, was arraigned before Flint Municipal Judge Raymond C. French, on charges that he accepted a bribe from a tavern owner seeking a liquor license. Genesee County Prosecutor Jerome O'Rourke said Smith, 35, accepted $200 from George Townsend, 32, owner of a tavern on Flint's south side. The vice mayor demanded an examination and was freed on $1,000 bond. He refused to comment on the charges.

THE FIRE that swept the aircraft carrier Constellation on Monday, was a serious blow to the national defense, it was stated by Adm. Arleigh A. Burke, chief of Naval Operations, who came from Washington to inspect the damage to the $275 million-dollar ship. He attended memorial services for 49 civilian workers killed in the fire. Burke said the fire was a serious blow, but not a fatal one to the defense effort. Although the carrier was badly damaged, it was not as bad as he had feared, he said.

Driver Rams Seven Cars; Flees Scene

Arrested by Farms Police He is Immediately Arraigned for a Hearing

Anthony Redden, 54, of Sunnyside, St. Clair Shores, was arrested by Farms police Sunday night, December 25, as a hit-and-run driver, when he left the scene of an accident in which he slammed into seven automobiles.

The cars Redden damaged were parked in front of St. Paul's Church on the Lake Shore, while the owners were attending midnight Christmas mass.

Three automobiles, including Redden's, received extensive damage.

A witness to the accident called Shores authorities, who in turn relayed the information to Farms police.

Had No Identification

The arresting officers, who apprehended Redden at Merriweather and Grosse Pointe boulevard, said that the motorist had no identification on his person. They said that Redden had been drinking.

Redden was charged with reckless driving and leaving the scene of an accident, and was immediately arraigned before Farms Judge Grant E. Armstrong, who imposed a bond of $200, and set court date for January 4. Redden was released after posting the bond.

Police said that the witness informed them that Redden crashed into the seven cars, one (Continued on Page 2)

Pointe Citizens Requested To Cooperate With Police In Battle Against Crime

Park Police Chief Louwers Offers List of Rules to be Followed by Residents to Help Enforcement Agencies Reduce Cases

Pointe police are seeking the cooperation of citizens in lessening the number of breakings and enterings into homes in the absence of residents.

Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers, who said he is speaking for his department, as well as on behalf of the other Pointe police departments, asks Pointe residents for help.

"Police officers are not psychic, and therefore do not know everything that is going on in their respective communities," he said. "We need the cooperation of the people in trying to keep wrong-doing at a minimum, or the possible apprehension of burglars or other criminals."

Is Duty of Citizens

"Fighting crime is not only the job of the police, but also the duty of law-abiding citizens. Tips and information furnished by citizens have resulted in the solving of many crimes, and the prevention of others, and in a good many cases, brought about the arrest of the persons who commit crimes," the chief stated.

People should never attempt to try to take matters into their own hands in the event their homes are burglarized, for instance, but should leave this for police officers, who are trained in law enforcement and the solving of crimes.

Chief Louwers pointed out that citizens are quick to report a traffic accident, and quick too, to report if their own home has been burglarized. So, why not be just as fast in reporting suspicious noises, or suspicious persons. The police are very glad to check and find nothing amiss, rather than not receive a call and allow a crime to be committed.

Follow Simple Rules

The chief said that citizens can help keep burglaries at a minimum, if they follow a few simple rules.

If you go out in the evening and return home and find window glass littering the floor, or a hall light on, when it was out, or any other evidence that might lead you to believe someone is in your house, the smart thing to do is not to touch anything. If you can go to a neighbor's house to call police.

Leave your own telephone, and everything else in your house, untouched because by so doing, you are helping police by keeping intact evidence the housebreaker may have left.

If you are going out in the evening, and will leave the house unattended, do the following: 1. Leave a light burning in the house—open upstairs, too; 2. Leave window shades up; 3. Take your keys with you, do not leave them under the mat, or in the mail box; 4. Make sure all windows and doors are securely locked. Open doors and windows are invitations for break-ins; 5. Close garage doors. Open, they are a flagrant notice of your absence; and 6. Tell your neighbors how long you will be gone, and ask them to keep a periodic lookout on your house, (Continued on Page 2)

'No Parking' Signs Taken Off Hillcrest

Farms Police Chief Furton Wan's Council to Establish Policy; Experts Favor One-Side Regulation

The "No Parking" signs recently installed on the west side of Hillcrest road, between Ridge and Chalfonte, have since been removed by order of Farms Police Chief James Furton.

In a memorandum to City Manager Sidney DeBoer, the chief said that he had made a study of his actions in placing the signs, and now felt that it was not fair to the residents concerned, in changing the policy of installing the signs on the hydrant side of the street. He said that at the time, there seemed sufficient reason to do so.

The chief told the city manager that if the signs are installed again, they will be placed on the hydrant side of the street.

Residents Objected

At a council meeting held on November 21, a group of Hillcrest residents attended the session to protest the installation of the signs, which the chief defended as being necessary for the passage of emergency police and fire vehicles.

The residents complained that the parking on one side was inconvenient to them and to those who visit them at their homes.

Chief Furton stated that he will not install any more "No Parking" signs on one side of any street in the Farms, until the city council establishes a policy. He said that he did not want to continuously ask the council for permission to put up such signs, every time this is to be done.

He said that he has taken this attitude, although the City Charter points out that the police chief shall have the authority to install signs controlling parking on the city streets, without resorting to the council for approval. The council is studying the matter and will establish a policy within a few weeks, the chief added.

Has Talked to Experts

Chief Furton said that he has talked to various police chiefs and traffic experts on the subject of parking on one side of the street. The following are some of the statements given by these officials:

Pointe Headlines Of 1960 Reviewed For News Readers

Local Events of Most Interest to Residents Covers Wide Range of Activities and Accomplishments During Year

This year 1960 is drawing to a close and will become a part of our memories, to be recalled whenever we think of the past. The digest of this year's most important events, culled from the NEWS files, is presented to our readers, so that in our mind, at least, they reoccur.

February 18 — The City council unanimously adopted a resolution to name its municipal park the Norbert P. Neff Memorial Park in honor and recognition of the man who unselfishly served his community for the last 39 years. The resolution called for a plaque to be installed at the entrance to the park so that all residents of the City will be reminded of the indebtedness to Mr. Neff. A parchment scroll of the resolution and signatures, was made and presented to Mr. Neff.

February 25 — The Grosse Pointe University School gymnasium was dedicated to the memory of Edsel B. Ford, trustee of the school from 1927-36, and president of the board, 1936-43. The ceremony was held in the presence of Mrs. Edsel Ford and other members of the Ford family. Mr. Ford was chairman of the School Board at the time of his death in 1943.

March 3 — Grosse Pointe High School musicians made an outstanding record for themselves at the Eastern Michigan Solo and Ensemble Festival, held on Ypsilanti's Eastern Michigan University campus. High school instrumentalists, competing with some 2,000 other high school instrumentalists, won many of the honors, which ranged from first to fifth division. Judges included some of the nation's finest musicians.

March 10 — The State Water Resources Commission in Lansing ordered the Park to end its pollution of Fox Creek. The Commission stated that evidence showed that the Park was discharging sewage and surface water runoff into the creek, and ordered the city to take steps to eliminate this. The initial complaint was made by Detroit residents living alongside the creek, who said that condition of the water was injurious to health, and that it affected the conducting of the use of the waters for recreational purposes.

March 17 — The Grosse Pointe Blue Devil swimming team captured the State title by overcoming Birmingham in the University of Michigan swimming pool. Blue Devil fans turned out in force to cheer the Pointers all day. It was that tenth of a second that set the stage for Blue Devil co-captain Lauren Bowler to beat Birmingham's anchorman in the final 200-yard freestyle relay event and win the title.

March 24 — Norb Neff, who served the City of Grosse Pointe for 41 years, first as Village Clerk and then as City Clerk, retired at the age of 65 years. In 1919, he became acting Village clerk and in 1921 he ran for the office and was elected, and easily won every election (Continued on Page 2)

Farms Names Committee To Study City Hall Needs

Farms Mayor William Conolly has appointed a committee of three from the city council to meet with City Manager Sidney DeBoer and City Engineer Murray M. Smith to screen architects for a possible remodeling of the present city hall, or construction of a new building.

Picked to meet with DeBoer and Smith were Councilmen William Kirby, Henry E. Bodman II and Richard Maxon. The date for the meeting has not yet been set, although it was stated it will be in the near future.

The five men will screen approximately 12 architectural firms, all of which expressed interest in presenting plans for the remodeling or construction, from which one or more firms will send representatives who

Glass Doors Smashed At Farms Store

Four Cities Send Police to Scene of Robbery But Burglars Had Vanished

A men's clothing store in the Farms was broken into by burglars during the early morning hours of Saturday, December 24, and a number of suits and a leather jacket, values undetermined, were stolen.

Entered was the Harry Sufirin-Hughes and Hatcher Store, 18920 Mack avenue, where 70 to 80 men's suits and a black leather jacket were discovered missing by the store manager, Edmund Haclas of 19643 Spencer.

Woods Police Waiting

Farms police answered an alarm from the store at 3:26 a.m., and arrived at the scene to find a Woods police car waiting in front of the establishment. The Woods police crew were in the vicinity when the broadcast came over the air and drove to the store to give possible assistance. They said they saw no one when they arrived.

A call to the City and Park Police Departments brought a scout car crew from each, and the officers surrounded the building.

Police found the outside and inside glass door broken, and all the policemen entered the building and made a complete search, but could not find anything missing. Haclas was then called.

Takes Quick Inventory

The store manager took a quick inventory and almost immediately discovered that the suits and the leather jacket were missing. He said that the prices of the suits range from $58 to $135 each, but could not determine the value of the jacket at the moment. The store stock is still being investigated to find out if anything else had been taken.

Farms Det. Sgt. George Van Tiem is conducting the investigation.

Driver Skids; Crashes Pole

Farms police charged Frank P. Navarro of 3927 Three Mile drive, Detroit, with not having his car under control and crashing into a traffic light control box pole at Mack and Moross.

Police said that Navarro, who was driving on a temporary permit, was going south on Moross on Tuesday, December 20, at a high rate of speed, and when he attempted to stop for a red light at the Mack intersection, he lost control of his vehicle.

The car skidded 150 feet across the intersection, and struck a pole on the center island, hitting and damaging the traffic light control box. A church sign was also knocked down, it was said.

Damage to Navarro's automobile was estimated at about $300. Other damages are not known.

Navarro was given a ticket for not having his car under control and causing a property damage accident. He is scheduled for a court hearing on January 4.

Police said Navarro, a Marine, is on leave from a Marine Base in Jacksonville, Fla.

City Police Tag Two in Accident

City police ticketed two drivers involved in a traffic accident in front of 685 St. Clair, on Friday, December 23.

Police said that Dorothy M. Kuhns of 22301 Englehardt, St. Clair Shores, made a left turn from the center of the street to enter a parking lot, and was hit by Paul Ruggierillo of 16821 Eight Mile road, who was passing on the right.

Both drivers were charged with not having their cars under control and causing an accident.

WINDSHIELD DAMAGED

Harold Meinke of 4701 Three Mile drive, Detroit, informed Farms police on Thursday, December 22, that while his car was parked in front of 22 Sunset lane during the night, someone fired 10 BB holes through the windshield.

LOSES GOLD BRACELET
Mrs. Harry C. Ryan of 151 Grosse Pointe boulevard, lost a gold, flexible bracelet, valued at $150, on Monday, December 19. She told Farms authorities that she had no identification on the item, which she said she lost either in the Kercheval business district, or in the area of St. Paul Church, Lake Shore road.

after that. In 1934, the Village became a city, and Mr. Neff remained the city clerk.

March 31 — The Park council became the first city body to receive a proposed Police Reciprocal Aid Agreement between the Pointe and Harper Woods, for study and approval. The agreement was signed by all the police chiefs and needs only the approval of the governing city bodies. The six communities already have a Mutual Fire Aid Agreement. The police aid pact, said Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers, would bring about better law enforcement, through a greater flexibility of operation, in the six cities.

April 7 — Robert F. Weber of 992 Lake Shore road, was elected to his ninth consecutive term as president of Goodwill Industries, at an annual Board meeting. He is a veteran of World War II, and president of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education. Since he became president of Goodwill Industries in 1951, wages and number of services by the disabled more than doubled. The entire Goodwill program broadened under his tenure in office.

April 14 — Grosse Pointe was exceptionally represented in the winners circle of the Metropolitan Detroit Science Fair, with students from public, private and parochial schools contributing and gaining honors. The top three places went to Pointe students. Ricky Peterson of Grosse Pointe University School took top honors with his project "Machine Sapiens". Second place went to Robert Chope of Pierce Junior High School for his exhibit "Effect of Radiation Biology on Seeds — A Two-Year Study".

Clare Morrison of GPUS won third place with her entry "Experiment in Color Vision". April 21 — Pointe police in cooperation with Harper Woods police, apprehended a teenage gang, and cleared more than 65 burglaries in the Detroit area, including four in the Woods. After a series of break-ins and enterings occurred in Harper Woods over a period of time, police of the city requested and received aid from the Woods, Farms and Shores Departments. Nine teenagers were rounded up and all confessed their part in the burglaries.

April 28 — The Woods Medical Clinic, 20250 Mack avenue, was broken into by burglars for the third time within 14 months. Every office in the building was visited by the thieves and thoroughly ransacked of approximately $1,570 worth of antibiotics, gold nuggets, used in dental work, cash and other items. The building, owned by Dr. W. J. Watkins of 1162 Buckingham, was first broken into on February 10, 1959, and again on April 13, the same year. Each time the offices in the edifice were completely gone through.

May 5 — Miss Diane M. Churley, daughter of the Frank Churleys of 1740 Manchester, has been designated the winner of a 1960 Merit Scholarship by the National Scholarship Corporation. A Grosse Pointe High School senior, she survived a competition beginning more than a year ago, in which approximately 50,000 top high school students in the country took part. The odds on winning a scholarship are estimated to exceed 600 to 1. She succeeds last year's Merit Scholar, Michael Brady, as one of Grosse Pointe's outstanding young scholars.

Baked apples for dinner are a good idea this time of year. Home economists at Michigan State University note that Jonathan, Stayman Winesap and Wolf River apples rate as "excellent" for baking. They add that McIntosh, Cortland and Northern Spy apples are "good" for baking.

but not to tell anyone how long you will be away.

If you plan to be gone for an extended period of time, then for the protection of your home and property, take the following precautions:

1. Stop milk and paper deliveries; 2. Have neighbors take in your mail and advertising and other materials left at the door. Such things serve notice that the house is empty; 3. Don't publish notices of your departure in newspapers; 4. Let your police department know that your house will be unattended, so that they can possibly make frequent checks of the area; 5. Let police know where you can be reached in case of emergency.

6. Put jewelry, money and other valuables in a safe place, out of the house. Don't hope that hiding them in cupboards, under mattresses or rugs is safe. Any thief breaking in knows these to be likely hiding places; and 7. Make doubly sure all windows and doors are locked.

Hillcrest Signs Removed

(Continued from Page 1) made between streets with parking on both sides and streets with one-side parking, child accidents have been much higher with parking on both sides. Most of our streets are 24 and 26 feet, but we have some as wide as 34 feet and still use one-side parking."

Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers: "An ideal situation would be to have both flow of traffic and lessens the possibility of accidents for both driver and pedestrians. Safety should be our number one concern, and one-side parking makes for more safety."

Woods Director of Public Safety Vern C. Bailey: "We have one-side parking throughout our city on every street. New streets are immediately limited to one-side parking. With one-side parking, visibility is greatly improved for drivers and pedestrians, making the street safer."

City Against Doubling
Capt. Andrew Teetaert, speaking for Superintendent of Public Safety Thomas V. Trombly, who was ill, stated that the superintendent was in complete agreement that one-side parking made for much safer streets and traffic flows and that he felt any street under 26 feet should be one-side parking.

Shores Police Chief Fred Duemling: "I am in full agreement that one-side parking makes for a safer street. We have an ordinance prohibiting parking during certain night-time hours, for snow removal, etc."

Harper Woods Police Chief Allen M. Miglio: "Most streets in Harper Woods are 28 feet wide. New streets are being made 31 feet wide and are all made one-side parking. Most objections to one-side parking come from people who have more than one car and are thinking of their own personal convenience. All streets in Harper Woods are one-side parking."

Parked Car Hazard

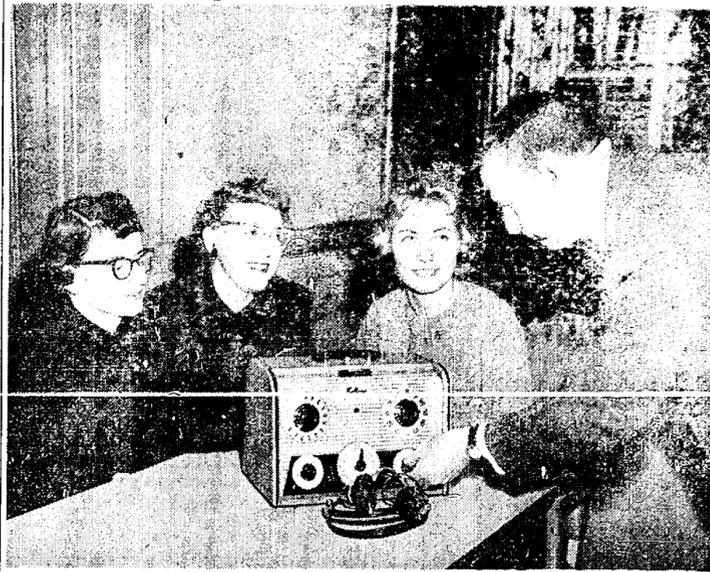

Russell E. Harrison of the Wayne County Road Commission: "Three out of four children injured in traffic came from between parked cars. The ideal situation would be no parking on the streets at all. From the viewpoint of safety, there is no argument to be made against one-side parking on any streets the widths of Grosse Pointe Farms streets. The parked car creates the greatest hazard on the streets—much greater than speeds."

Chief Furton said that Ernest P. Davis, director of the Safety and Traffic Division of the Automobile Club of Michigan, called his attention to a section of the "Model Traffic Ordinance for Municipalities" of the National Committee on Uniform Traffic Laws and Ordinances, which reads as follows:

Sec. 14-7 Parking Prohibited on Narrow Streets. (a) The city traffic engineer is hereby authorized to erect signs indicating No Parking upon any street when the width of the roadway does not exceed 20 feet, or upon one side of a street as indicated by such signs when the width of the roadway does not exceed 30 feet.

This is the concluding article in the News' Introducing New Teachers series. In all, some 50 new professional staff members have been presented. The large majority of these well-qualified newcomers are replacing staff members who for various reasons are no longer teaching in Grosse Pointe.

The News wishes each new teacher a long and rewarding career and feels certain that each of them will contribute to the maintenance and improvement of the high educational standards for which the Grosse Pointe Public School System is noted.

Freeway and Other Arterial Highways in Michigan

Ann Arbor by-pass is typical of Michigan's modern freeways

Again Michigan leads the Nation! 500 miles of freeways now open to traffic in Michigan!

A record-breaking 500 miles of modern freeways—easier driving and four times as safe as conventional highways—are now in use by millions of Michigan motorists and thousands of vacation travelers. One highway alone—Interstate 94—runs 203 continuous miles from downtown Detroit to St. Joseph. It's the longest stretch of toll-free, limited access highway in the United States!

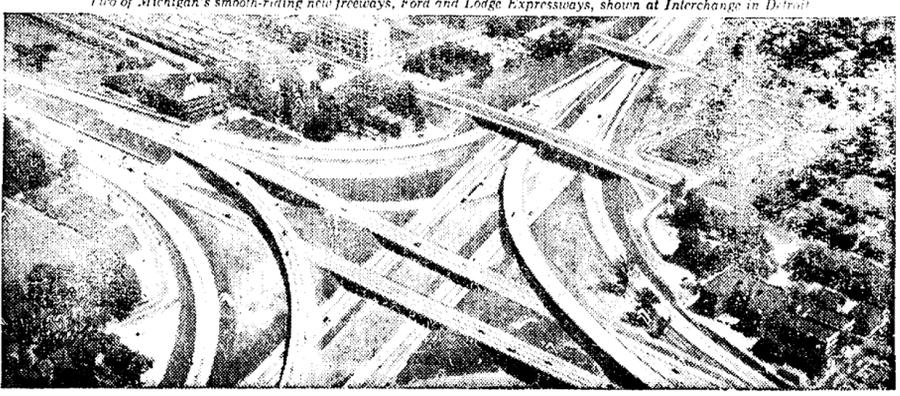

Today, Michigan holds 1st place in Interstate System construction—up from 35th place just 3 years ago. Since 1957, Michigan's freeway mileage has increased 5 times! You can thank your capable state highway engineers, backed by efficient contractors and crews.

You can be glad, too, that more than 99% of these beautiful new freeways are paved with concrete. Its lower cost and proven performance save tax money. Concrete highways and streets outlast asphalt almost 2 to 1 and cost up to 60% less to maintain. Add greater safety. Concrete gives more skid resistance, wet or dry, and better nighttime visibility.

In front-running Michigan and other progressive states, highway engineers choose concrete to save money and provide motorists with the safest, smoothest-riding, longest-lasting highways.

Pointe Ski Club Plans Two Trips

The Grosse Pointe Ski Club of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial is planning two mid-week trips plus a long week-end trip during the month of January.

The first mid-week trip is Wednesday, January 1, from 6 to 12 p.m. at Mount Christie with hot supper, round trip bus transportation from the Center and tow charges being offered members for $5.50. Guests may come at an extra dollar, though through the year it is worth taking out a $3.00 membership to get the lower member rates on trips and functions.

The second mid-week trip is to Dryden and is the same package as offered for Mt. Christie. The date of this trip has been moved up from January 25 to Wednesday, January 18, 6 to 12 p.m., so as not to infringe upon the week-end trip at the end of the month.

Friday, January 27, from 5 o'clock to Sunday, January 29, at midnight the Grosse Pointe Ski Club will enjoy a weekend at Nubs Nob at Harbor Springs. Bus transportation from Grosse Pointe and return, lodging at the main chalet at Nubs, meals, and lift charges are offered members for $42, guests $45. All interested skiers should make paid reservations for any of these trips in advance at the Center. 35 persons is the limit on the Nubs Nob Trip.

It's the fact that life is a grind that sharpens a man's wits.

Eagle Scouts Paid Tribute

The annual indoor Court of Honor of Boy Scout Troop 19 was held in Maire School gym on December 21. A great number of parents and friends with representatives of Boy Scout Headquarters witnessed the annual presentation of Scouting Awards.

After the opening remarks of Zoltan B. Dios, Troop Chairman, the Scoutmaster of Troop 19, Jim Schwartz, reviewed the scout activities since the outdoor Court of Honor held in the Bald Mountain area last May. The troop is now the owner of a school bus, used for transportation for outings. With it's International Friendship Scrapbook and it's display at the annual Scouting Exhibit at the State Fairgrounds, Troop 19 received Special Scout Citation.

A fall rummage sale and a winter Christmas wreath sale helped to replenish the coffers. A local family, victim of a recent fire, was visited by Scouts of this troop with gifts and food baskets.

Presentation of awards began with Ken Kurtz, Assistant Scoutmaster, giving recognition to Tenderfoot Scouts. Joe Kiley, former Scoutmaster and Commissioner, now Chairman of Troop Advancement, presented the first class scouts with their new ranks. Jim Humphreys and Bill McLaughlin, former troop chairman, awarded the Star and Life Scout badges to Boy Scouts Jack Gajewski and John Welch. Don Walker, Neighborhood Commissioner, introduced the scouts receiving merit badges for their assiduous effort in scouting.

The highlight of the evening was the ceremony for the two new Eagle Scouts, Jay Humphreys and Ted Pratt. Ben Kushner, Scout Executive and holder of the silver beaver,

Looks to Retirement

Aside from busying himself with the business at hand, that of seeing that the thousands upon thousands of Christmas cards and parcels are delivered properly and in time to the residents of the Grosse Pointe community, LELAND F. LINDOW, superintendent of the Grosse Pointe Branch Post Office, is attending his duties, with an extra and perhaps far away gleam in his eyes; and all with a very good reason.

After 40 years in the service of the United States Postal Service, Mr. Lindow is retiring from his duties, effective December 31. He entered the Postal Service in January, 1921, and was assigned to the old Maxwell Station P.O. in April of the same year, then, appointed a special clerk in 1928, and transferred to the Roosevelt Park Annex, where he advanced to the claim adjuster position for the Claims and Inquiry Division. In December of 1943, a branch post office was opened in growing Grosse Pointe in Maumee avenue, and there,

Mr. Lindow was appointed to the post of superintendent. The ever-growing community necessitated an enlarged new postal installation, and when the facility was a reality and located at the present site, Mack at Warren avenues, Mr. Lindow was appointed superintendent there and has continued in this position up to the present date and will until his retirement. The employees and friends of the Grosse Pointe Branch Post Office will honor Mr. Lindow at a retirement testimonial dinner at a January date to be announced later this month.

Lynn Bartlett Appoints Canja

Dr. Lynn M. Bartlett, state superintendent of public instruction, has announced the appointment of Alex Canja, administrative assistant, to the position of Deputy Superintendent for Administration.

The appointment becomes effective immediately.

Canja, 39, has been with Dr. Bartlett since 1957. Prior to coming to Lansing he taught English and Speech at Grosse Pointe High School and coached the swimming team.

A World War II veteran and former All-American diver, he received his A.B. and M.A. degrees from the University of Michigan and has completed additional course work towards a doctoral degree.

Before entering the teaching field in 1952, Canja did newspaper and public relations work in Chicago for the Coca-Cola Company and Marshall Field and Company.

He lives in Lansing at 1251 Weber Drive. He is married and has two youngsters, Debby age 6, and Jeff age 4.

Many a golden opportunity is lost because a man lacks the initiative to throw the switch.

Maire Students Spread Cheer

The children in Mrs. Parent's first grade at Maire School expressed a desire to bring presents, gaily wrapped in Christmas ribbon and paper, for the patients in hospitals.

They brought 54 beautifully wrapped packages containing lovely gifts for men who were sick on Christmas Day.

The Salvation Army Hospital Corps, at the Harbor Light Center delivered these gifts to the patients at Eloise Receiving, and Wayne County General Hospitals.

The Grosse Pointe boys and girls in the first grade at Maire like Santa Claus and sleigh bells and Christmas trees too. But they truly enjoyed preparing these Yuletide treasures. Each child accompanied his gift with a well written "Get Well Note" in the hope that someone would be made happy.

Cinema League To See Films

Three members of the Grosse Pointe Cinema League will present films at the meeting on Thursday evening, January 12, at 8 o'clock, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center.

"Billion Dollar Story" a 16 mm color film on the St. Lawrence Seaway, from Montreal to Chicago, will be shown by Humberto Pucheu. This film had its first public showing last October at the P.S.A. Convention in Houston. Mr. Pucheu is a good amateur photographer and a student of the motion picture.

"Alaska, the Inside Passage" is an 8 mm color movie filmed last summer by Miss Ester Porter on a cruise on the SS Prince George, from Vancouver to Skagway. The film includes scenes in Ketchikan, Juneau, and Carcross, as well as pictures of Neugendahl Glacier. "Austria," an 8 mm film in color made last summer, will be shown by Mrs. Irene Polard. Among the highlights of this movie are scenes at Schonbrunn Palace and Kartnerstrasse in Vienna at night. Any Grosse Pointe resident interested in photography is welcome to be a guest at this meeting.

Let's Lift the Rug

With both the Farms and the City of Grosse Pointe studying plans to provide additional space for their various departments, this would seem like a pretty good time to revive the old issue of consolidation, which has been kicked around for many a year.

The Farms, City and Park have talked, on and off, mostly off, for a long time about the feasibility of combining. Discussions reached a point where the Citizens' Research Council of Michigan was asked to make a survey and submit a report. This report was received by the three municipalities back in July 1958. It pointed out many advantages that could be gained by such a consolidation, but not enough of the councilmen could be convinced.

One provision of the report stated: "The indications are that savings in salaries in the general administration of government that could be realized would approach $50,000. It should also be noted here that in the event of a consolidation there would be need for but one city hall rather than the present three. This would mean a resulting saving in building operation and maintenance. Also, two of the existing city halls could be disposed of, thus realizing some immediate revenue as well as adding these properties to the tax rolls and thus increasing the tax base. The present city hall in the Park seems to be the logical building for the new consolidated operation. It has adequate office space, and a large council and court room. The one drawback is its location. Being situated at the extreme southwestern edge of the three-city area, it would be relatively remote from the residents in the Farms and City. If this fact is deemed of significant importance to the people, a new city hall could be constructed in a more central location... perhaps in the City on the site of the present city hall there, which would not be adequate for a larger city. The sale of the two city halls would recover much of the revenue for such a project."

Before the residents are asked to foot the bill for expensive additions to the present municipal buildings, or the construction of new ones, they are entitled to some concrete arguments as to why consolidation is not greatly to be desired. The Pointes have found it expedient to combine many of their individual services already, and when experts who have been hired to make a survey, recommend consolidation, we shouldn't be satisfied to have the whole matter pushed under the rug.

Perhaps 1961 is the year to lift the rug, pull out the sweepings and give some serious thought to this project which should benefit the whole community.

Farms Needs Help to Keep Streets Plowed, Rats Down

The removal of snow, following winter storms, can become a problem, unless cooperation is received from citizens. It was made known by Farms City Engineer Murray M. Smith.

"We still have some time before the end of the winter season," Smith said, "and we can look forward to possible heavy snowfalls. During these periods, we need the cooperation of our residents in keeping their cars off the streets, especially at night, when snow plows will be in operation. By keeping their vehicles parked at the curb, residents make the work of the plow operators more difficult." The city engineer asks that people either put their vehicles in their garages, or park them in side drives, so that snow removal operations can be done properly. He also asks the help of residents who put out feed for birds. He said that some of those who put out seeds and other kinds of food for the feathery creatures, are prone to scatter them on the ground. This attracts rats and mice, which will eat what the birds do not touch.

To discourage attracting the rodents, Smith said, it is suggested that food for birds be put on something well above the ground, where the rats and mice cannot reach them. The possibility of heavy snowfalls also brought a recommendation from Farms Fire Chief M. William Mason, who asks residents, that when shoveling snow from sidewalks in front of their homes, to please not pile the snow around fire hydrants, it would make work more difficult in emergencies. Shovel snow away from the hydrants, and keep them clear, he said. This advice should be considered by residents of every community, he added.

Guys and Dolls Dance At Club This Friday

Due to the Christmas holiday, there was no Guys and Dolls Dance on Friday, December 23. The Guys and Dolls will have their "Holiday Hop" on Friday, December 30.

This will be a "dress up" dance with girls wearing their good party dresses and boys in suits and white shirts. All Junior members of the Neighborhood Club, aged 7-12 are invited to attend the "Holiday Hop." The dance will begin 7:30 and end promptly at 9 p.m.

People who have the least to spare often give the most advice.

License Tab Sales Boom

Automobile license tab sales are running more than 10 percent above those last year.

A report issued by Secretary of State James M. Hare showed 142,686 tabs sold in November, 1960, compared to 128,395 issued in November, 1959.

"Many factors seem to be responsible for this increase," Hare said. "For one thing, we've had good weather and people are finding that it pays to get their tabs early, even if they don't always take time to mount them."

Hare also pointed out that the unusually large inventories of 1960 new cars still available as 1961 automobiles were introduced lead to bargain prices and increased sales.

"As long as new car buyers must transfer their old plates from one car to another anyhow," Hare said, "they may as well put their black-on-aluminum 1961 tabs on too."

State Police Submit Report

Michigan traffic deaths and 222 were injured. Drownings totaled 325 last year in 457 mishaps.

State Police marksmen scored major triumphs in the Michigan police shoot, the Indiana and Illinois State Police matches, and the Camp Perry, Ohio, and Michigan Revolver Association meets. Tpr. Robert E. Steinhurst, East Lansing, set a state police record with 195 in 45 caliber slow fire.

State and local officers cooperated in providing data for the first annual "Michigan Law Enforcement Officials Report on Crime," which will provide a yearly detailed and localized picture of the crime problem in the state.

The department mustered in its first police dog, "Jocko," in an experiment for tracking criminals and lost persons. The dog and his handler, Tpr. Richard H. Abbott, Erie, received training at the St. Louis, Mo., police department police dog school.

Department enlisted strength was 1,098 as the year began and 1,098 at its close. A recruit school begins in January. Promotions numbered 72 and retirements 16. Three officers, two retired and one active, and a department chaplain died. Six awards for bravery and 31 citations for meritorious service were granted during the year.

What Goes On at Your Library

by Jean Taylor

Guest Columnist: Robert M. Orr, Director of Public Libraries

Once again, it is my pleasure to write Miss Taylor's New Year's column.

1960 was a good year for the Public Library in most every respect. As we prepare to meet another new year, it seems worthwhile to look back over the past twelve months.

The Grosse Pointe Public Library faces an opportunity and a challenge that is almost unique, serving a community which has been termed by experts as the most ideal library-use community in America; receiving solid support from the Grosse Pointe Public School System, as one of its divisions; having a Friends of the Library group which is looked upon as one of the finest, probably the biggest, such organization in the entire country; physical facilities in the three Public Libraries which are equal to those of any comparable community and an excellent book collection exceeding 100,000 as well as a well-trained, dedicated staff.

As Director, it is my responsibility to see to it that every possible effort is made to translate these blessings into a high quality of library service. I am confident that our staff is working very hard to reach this ideal.

Statistics cannot be used to measure the quality of library service, but only as an indication of the extent of library use. It is impossible to overestimate the profound influence a single book may have, and this is never lost sight of by the professional staff who work with our library patrons.

Briefly, the past year again saw all library use records broken. 456,000 library materials were circulated, almost 30,000 more than for 1959. Broken down, 451,000 books were circulated, 2,100 records,

1,100 films, 1,600 tools and 38 framed art prints. Of this number, it is indeed noteworthy that 40 per cent of this circulation was to adults, 40 per cent to children and only 20 per cent to high school students whose use of the Library is primarily of reference and research materials.

As of December 1, there were 24,506 registered users, an increase of 608 over a year ago. This constitutes 39 per cent of all residents, an unusually high figure.

The most important contribution of the professional staff is in reference and readers' advisory use by patrons. This is difficult to determine, since one question may be answered in three minutes and another will require three hours. However, more than 76,000 reference, readers' advisory and research questions were answered by the professional staff during the twelve months. Of these, almost 12,000 were telephone calls for information received by the three Libraries.

Excellent community use continues to be made of the meeting room facilities at the Central Library. More than 65 organizations met regularly at the Library and 591 meetings were held during the past year, attended by more than 10,500 residents.

As a suburban Public Library, it is impracticable to build a huge research collection. However, every effort is made to obtain books not available in the local collection from other libraries, 243 such books were obtained during the past year. And as a special service to our users, 5,278 books were reserved.

The above indicates to some extent the use being made of the three Public Libraries, and of the kind of service given. No effort has been made to list the weekly summer film programs for children, the special holiday children's programs, the monthly Friends Film Forum, the monthly Family Film Nights, the Friends-sponsored Programs, etc. which constitute additional services of the Public Library.

On the whole, it seems that the Grosse Pointe Public Libraries are doing a reasonably good job in meeting the demands made upon them. Certainly, every effort is being made to maintain and improve the quality of service. Suggestions from patrons are always welcome.

In closing, I am deeply grateful for all that Grosse Pointers have done to enable the Public Library to maintain fine library service. A very special note of thanks to the Board of Education, our official Board, to the Friends Board of Directors, our Advisory Board, and the 1,100 members; to Dr. James W. Bushong, Superintendent of Schools; to Robert B. Edger, Editor and General Manager of the GROSSE POINTE NEWS; and to the many residents whose interest in and support of the Public Library has meant so much. Here's wishing for all of you a New Year full of happiness and progress!

Methodists Plan Lunch Jan. 3

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Grosse Pointe Methodist Church will have a post-holiday luncheon on Tuesday, January 3, at 12:30 p.m. at the church. The theme of the luncheon is "Horizons and Reflections."

Mrs. Frederick Steiner, President, will welcome the members and guests. Devotions will be given by Mrs. Sam Harlan. Mrs. John Lee Thompson, vice-president and program chairman, will introduce the speaker of the day.

Mrs. James Laird, the wife of the Reverend James Laird, minister of the Central Methodist Church, will be the speaker. She will discuss her experiences last summer in an English parish as part of the English-American Church Exchange. Rev. Laird exchanged pulpits with the minister of the Methodist Church of Coventry, England.

Mrs. Laird is the incoming Secretary of the Michigan Council of Churches, and is also on the executive boards of the Metropolitan YWCA and of the WSCS of the Central Methodist Church. She is active in the Women's Division of the Detroit Women's Tabernacle and in the Women's International League.

This is expected to be a most interesting and outstanding program, and members and friends of the WSCS are urged to attend. Reservations may be made by calling TU 2-0365 or TU 2-9328.

Service to the community

By FRED KOPP, R. Ph.

A colleague of ours tells this one. On Saturdays he sells dimes (10c each). Seems the neighborhood movie is next door. The kids stop in before the show for dimes—for the vending machines in the theatre. A lot of our business is like this—service to the community. Glad to do it. Because we're conveniently located and open long hours, we're a handy place to pick up change or a bottle of aspirin. But a pharmacist's true service to his community is to be a quick, reliable source of the drugs and medications your physician prescribes. That's the real reason we're here. And we are always pleased to serve you.

Three Debutantes Honored Thursday

Alice Gage and Bonnie Blain Both Feted at Dinners Before the Ball for Kitty Scripps Given by Her Grandmother, Mrs. Albert L. LeGro

Two dinner parties were given for Christmas debutantes, Bonnie Blain and Alice Gage, Thursday before the Parisian Ball which honored Kitty Scripps, given by her grandmother, Mrs. Albert L. LeGro.

Mr. and Mrs. Claudius Gage, the deb's parents, were hosts at a dinner at the Little Club for Alice, a brunet Vassar College English major.

Each of the tables for eight was centered with four golden goblets holding red tapers and decked with greens.

The debutante wore an ankle length ivory lace over satin gown and carried red roses and ivy. Mrs. Gage was in gold and white brocade and gardenias.

A Frederick Kammer III was the deb's escort and here for the party was her roommate, Bonnie Ellis, of Grand Rapids.

Helen Bowen, "Bonnie," Blain, who was presented at a tea Wednesday at the Little Club with Kitty Scripps was feted at a dinner by Dr. and Mrs. Laurie C. Dickson, Jr., in the Lothrop road home of Mrs. Dickson's parents, the Raymond K. Dykemas.

For the dinner the bud wore a short royal blue satin gown. Her mother, Mrs. Alexander Blain III was in pale blue satin and Mrs. Dickson chose gold and white brocade.

From the two dinners guests went on to the ball given by Mrs. Albert LeGro at the Country Club for her granddaughter, Kitty Scripps.

The great hall of the club was transformed into a Paris street scene with red, white and blue awnings and cafe tables under awning arches.

Buddy Morrow and Mack Pitt's orchestras played under a red and white canopy behind the hedge of greenery and white stone garden figures. At the other end of the ballroom was a French flower market scene.

Mrs. LeGro and Kitty's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert V. Scripps, received with the deb in the grill in front of a screen of gardenias, the bud's favorite flower.

Mrs. LeGro wore a deep gun metal satin gown and white orchids. Mrs. Scripps was in hollyherry red chiffon and white orchids. Kitty wore a white peau de sole gown with tiny sleeves and a bustle back skirt. She carried red carnations.

The breakfast buffet tables held French market baskets of flowers and vegetables and the smaller tables were centered with white cloths, covered with baskets lined in red and white and filled with varieties of French bread.

Grubb-Miller Vous Exchanged

Hollis Grubb, son of the Edwin Trinkleins, of Fairholme road, claimed Sylvia Miller as his bride Friday in St. James Lutheran Church.

The bride, daughter of the Walter W. Millers, of Pipestone, Minn., wore an ivory brocade gown designed with a rounded neckline and full skirt with a chapel train. A pearl and crystal half crown caught her fingertip veil in illusion and she carried stephanotis and a camellia with her prayerbook.

Marlene Birkholz, of Tonawanda, N.Y., was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Ruth Vrudny, of St. Clair Shores; Lois Mogen, of Red Wing, Minn., and Carol Hilpert, of Detroit.

They wore bouffant frocks of green silk organza over taffeta with matching headbands. Their bouquets were of red carnations and holly leaves.

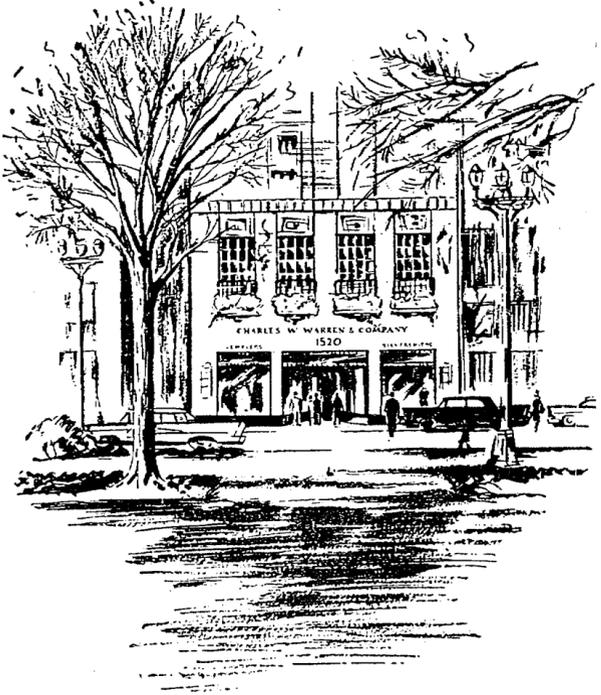

Donald Hilpert was best man for the bridegroom and the ushers were Allen Carlson, of Indianapolis, Ind.; Duane Miller, of Pipestone; John Griffiths, of Dallas, Tex.; Fred Nordseik and Rollin Duensing.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception in the church parlors Mrs. Miller wore a beige gown with brown accessories. Mrs. Trinklein was in pink brown with matching accessories.

After a trip to Aspen, Colo., the couple will visit Pipestone where there will be a reception for them on December 30 at Pipestone Country Club.

For traveling the bride wore a green wool and cashmere suit with black accessories.

Miss Thimm Marries Lt. Judson Monday

Couple Speak Vows in St. Paul's on the Lakeshore; After Trip to Mexico Newlyweds Will Make Their Home in San Francisco

West Point classmates of Lt. Arthur Edward Judson formed an arch with their swords, in the traditional Military Academy fashion, when the officer claimed Gwendolyn Mary Thimm as his bride Monday in St. Paul's on the lakeshore.

The bride, daughter of the Joseph Thimms, of Kerby road, wore a silk bombazine gown fashioned with a tucked bodice accented with Alencon lace and a full tucked skirt which deepened into a chapel train. A crown caught her illusion veil and she carried pink and red roses.

Vickie Van Lokeren was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Barbara Simpson, of St. Louis, Mo.; Sally Thorn and Virginia McCandless.

They wore green satin gowns with belled skirts and velvet whimsies in their hair. They carried white muffs with a sprig of holly.

Dennis Judson was his brother's best man. They are the sons of Mrs. Helen Judson, of Detroit, and Lt. Col. William Judson, of Germany.

The ushers were Joseph Thimm, Jr., William Walker and Michael Van Lokeren. Forming the arch with their swords were former West Point classmates of Lt. Judson, Grant Schaefer, Michael Batcher, Harold Brownfield and John Gabrysiak.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Thimm wore a white lace over beige dress. The bridegroom's mother was in beige Italian knit.

Following a trip to Mexico the couple will live in San Francisco.

Debut Tea Held At Little Club

A departure from the reds and greens of Christmas to the pale yellow and green of spring was the color choice of Bonnie Blain and Kattie Scripps for the debutante tea Wednesday at the Little Club.

The girls were presented by their mothers, Mrs. Alexander Blain III and Mrs. Robert W. Scripps. Bonnie's great aunt, Mrs. Ernest Stanton, of Grosse Ile, was also a hostess.

A great yellow bow tied the Yule wreath on the door of the club. The debutantes, their mothers and Mrs. Stanton, received before the fireplace which was banked with pale yellow spiraea. Yellow carnations filled a wine cooler in the club hall.

Tea was served from a table covered with an Italian lace cloth and centered with a silver centerpiece filled with yellow roses. Two pairs of candleabra held yellow tapers.

Bonnie, a student at Bradford Junior College, received in a pale green short silk frock with a belled skirt and sashed in dark green velvet. Kattie, who attends classes at the National Cathedral School in Washington, wore a pale yellow silk short dress with a shawl collar and bouffant skirt. Both girls carried green and yellow orchids and ivy.

Mrs. Blain wore a green and gold brocade dress and Mrs. Scripps was in a brown and gold brocade jacket dress. Mrs. Stanton's choice was a deep sapphire silk.

Kattie and Bonnie will be honored at a dinner given by Dr. and Mrs. Laurie C. Dickson at the Raymond Dykemas' Lothrop road home this Thursday before the dance for Kattie being given by her grandmother, Mrs. Albert LeGro at the Country Club.

Ballet Classes Starting Jan. 4

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Ballet School under the direction of Mary Ellen Cooper will begin its second semester Wednesday, January 4. Those wishing to enroll may do so Wednesday or Thursday after school or through the day on Saturday during the first week of January.

Miss Cooper, a graduate of the Royal Conservatory of Toronto, has conducted classes at the Memorial for the past several years. The classes are accompanied by her mother, a former concert pianist. Miss Cooper comes from a family who literally live music. Both her father and uncle have been members of the Detroit Symphony for many years.

Miss Cooper teaches ballet in the traditional Italian style. She divides her teaching between Detroit and the West Coast.

Miss Cooper accepts girls as students beginning at age five and has classes for various age levels and abilities through the teens. Classes are purposely kept small to insure individual attention.

Miss Cooper teaches rhythm grace, poise balance as well as dances.

There is a special class Wednesday evenings for adult women which has proved very popular.

Miss Cooper likes to interview prospective students at the time of enrollment so as to place them properly. Tuition for a 12 weeks course is $21.00 for 5 to 10 and $24.00 for ages 10 and over. Classes are scheduled Mondays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays after school and all day on Saturdays.

A man's body is extremely sensitive—pat him on the back and his head swells up.

Choir to Sing With Symphony

The Detroit Symphony Orchestra will present Carl Orff's "Carmina Burana" this Thursday at 8:30 p.m. in Ford Auditorium. Paul Paray will conduct.

Appearing as soloists in the distinguished work will be Virginia Babikian, soprano, John Alexander, tenor, and McHenry Boatwright, baritone. The 300-voice Rackham Symphony Choir trained by Maynard Klein will also be featured.

The program will include Schumann's Overture to "Manfred," and Rimsky-Korsakov's Suite from "Le Coq d'Or."

"Carmina Burana" (Songs of Beuren) is the first part of a trilogy completed in 1951 by Orff which includes the "Cantata Carmina" and the "Triumph of Aphrodite." "Carmina" consists of 25 secular songs in praise of love and wine, dating from the Thirteenth Century. The manuscripts were discovered in the monastery of Benediktbeuren in the Bavarian Alps and published in 1847.

Center Plans New Year Ball

For more than a decade the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association has sponsored a truly Gala Ball and Midnight Supper on New Year's Eve for the college and young adult set. This year is no exception and the event is scheduled for Saturday night, December 31st, between the hours of 9:30 and 2.

Frank Chrystem's orchestra will play until the wee hours on this one occasion when the Memorial is open past midnight.

There will be fancy hats and noisemakers for everyone to properly welcome the New Year in this most beautiful of Lake Shore mansions which will be festively decorated for the occasion. Traditionally also, there is trouble with the lights for a few seconds just at midnight when the orchestra begins to play "Auld Lang Syne."

Immediately following the welcoming of the New Year an elegant ham and turkey buffet complete with all the trimmings is served to every guest, after which dancing continues in a less hectic atmosphere.

The entire great house is opened for this occasion with dancing and dining on two floors.

Hard working committees of Wayne and University of Detroit students have been addressing cards to all collegians in the Pointes to invite and remind them of this event. Everyone is urged to watch for their card in the Christmas mail though it is not necessary to receive a card to attend the dance.

Paid reservations at $5.00 per couple covering both supper and dance are requested in advance. There is a 250 couple limit so all are advised to pick up their tickets at the Center early. Guests of Grosse Pointers if accompanied by them are welcome.

Dress for the ball is semi-formal. Dark suits as well as tuxedos are perfectly acceptable for the men. Corsages are neither necessary or encouraged.

To Ring Old Year Out at DAC Party

Emery Deutsch to play in a setting of gala balloons and streamers; premier of "The World of Suzie Wong" drew crowds to dinner at the club

Detroit Athletic Club members now look forward to a gala New Year's Eve celebration at the club Saturday night, even as they reminisce about the DAC's theater party last Thursday, December 22, with its special dinner at 6 o'clock in the clubhouse, and attendance at the new Grand Circus Theater to preview "The World of Suzie Wong."

The night was cold, cold, cold, but 750 came to dinner and took the short walk to the nearby theater, where they met another 600 DAC'ers. The club had taken over the beautiful Grand Circus (capacity 1,400). Formerly the Broadway Capitol, the theater has been completely revamped (and most attractively decorated) so every seat has a desirable view of the screen.

Dress was black tie and short evening frocks (and warmest fur coats and head scarfs). In the clubhouse, beautiful Christmas trees glowed in main lobby, reception room and second floor corridor at the head of the grand staircase.

At the theater, the audience, ensconced in wonderfully comfortable, capacious seats, were absorbed in Paramount's technicolor motion picture, for the scenes in Hong Kong (Suzie Wong's World) on the wide screen; the breath-taking color; and the stars, William Holden, Nancy Kwan in the title role.

It was a real Christmas party.

and Michael Wilding. The picture had its Detroit premiere for the public on the next night, December 23.

At the DAC's dinner-theater party were the club president, L. L. (Tex) Colbert and Mrs. Colbert, their house guest, Miss Ghieri Pecol, of Turino, Italy, and family members, Lester L. Jr. and Nichols Colbert and Mr. and Mrs. A. Grant Noble Jr., of Battle Creek.

Among Grosse Pointe DAC'ers there were Mr. and Mrs. Leigh B. Middleditch and their guests, the Gilbert Wheldens and Bayard Johnsons; the Ralph C. Wilsons Sr. and the Charles Freiburghs; the Henry C. Weidlers and their guests, Dr. and Mrs. Richard D. Goldner of Saginaw.

With the Arnold D. Freydlis were Mr. and Mrs. G. Arthur Brown; the Charles M. Endicotts were hosts to the Thomas Henslers; with Dr. and Mrs. Benjamin Stockwell were Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Callaghan; the John H. Rickels entertained the Henry L. Newnans Jr., of Bloomfield Hills, the John Blanes of Ann Arbor, the hosts' son John and daughter Alice Rickel and their respective dates, Carol Deagan and Christopher Kimball.

Mrs. Lynn McNaughton had a reservation for 12; noted were the Richard H. Campbells, and among the many, many others were the Dwight M. Nelsons Jr.; the Richard J. Martins in a six some with the Rex Regans and E. D. Barretts; the Ray Whytes with a party of friends.

New Year's Eve will be gay as gay at the DAC, according to plans. The party will take place in all the second floor dining rooms with a decor of balloons and streamers. Dancing is to be in the Pontchartrain Room to the music of Emery Deutsch and his orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. Bartholomew A. Seymour will be there with a family party including their sons-in-law and daughters, the John R. Lillys and the William J. Froelichs Jr., their other daughters, Isabel Seymour with her fiancé, Jack Fitzer, and Dorothy Seymour; their son, Bartholomew Jr., and Mr and Mrs. Richard Lilly.

Among others from Grosse Pointe with reservations are the G. W. Kleins and Mrs. C. E. Bleicher; the James R. Lemens Jr. and their guests,

RUG THE SPOT AWAY

Water spills sometimes make spots on clothing. Bernetta Kahabka, clothing specialist at Michigan State University, says some water spots can be removed by first allowing the water to dry, then rubbing it lightly with another part of the same fabric.

Miss Mitchell Bows Friday

White roses formed the background at the reception Friday when Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Mitchell introduced their daughter, Suzanne, at the Little Club.

The club's entrance hall was filled with bowls of white roses and large urns contained rhododendron trees twinkling with lights.

Classic columns topped with urns filled with green leaves and Italian lights and more vases or roses were in the dining room and drawing room where the reception line formed.

Suzanne wore a short white peau de sole dress with an inverted pleated skirt and a self bow at the waistline. She carried white camellias. Mrs. Mitchell was in blue satin brocade with white orchids.

STILL SEARCHING FOR BODIES—A shower of sparks gushes from one opening in the side of the aircraft carrier Constellation at the Brooklyn Navy Yard as firemen use acetylene torches to burn their way through the vessel's thick armor plating in a continuing search for more victims. Nearly three score persons perished when a terrifying, smoky fire roared through the ship, which was nearing completion.

CARRIER FIRE CAUSE?—Here is the fork lift (right) which is believed to have sheared off a 500-gallon fuel tank (left), causing the fire which killed 49 persons on the nearly finished aircraft carrier Constellation in Brooklyn Navy Yard. The spilling fuel is believed to have been ignited by a welder's torch. However, Lt. Vito Milano testified before a Navy Board of Inquiry that there was no evidence the valve had been sheared off.

A DIFFERENT STORY is told by this photo from San Diego, Calif., than the one most of the nation is hearing about the weather. First days of winter find Pat Grube, 21, cavorting in the surf with the temperature in the 70s.

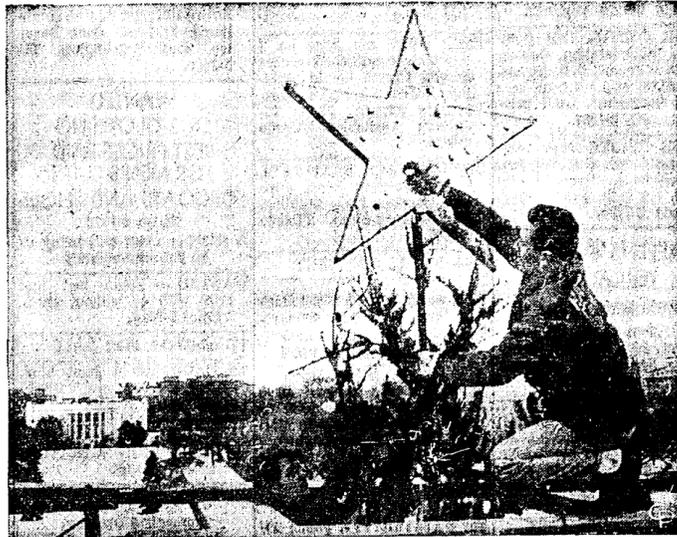

THE ACTUAL ELECTION—Electoral College voting in the 50 state capitols brings these scenes. Upper: In Annapolis, Maryland's nine votes go to Kennedy as Gov. Millard Tawes (middle) watches George R. Long sign the record book. Underneath that book is another record book which the electors also sign, as they all have since 1789 when six votes were cast for George Washington. At right is Thomas P. Finnan, secretary of state. Lower: In Montgomery, Alabama's 11 electors have a somber look with the state's vote split, five for Kennedy and six for Sen. Harry Byrd. It was the second "revolt" against the Democratic Party in history. In 1948 they went all 11 for J. Strom Thurmond. The six bolters voted for him for vice president this time. Their chairman is Frank Mizell (holding statement) an attorney.

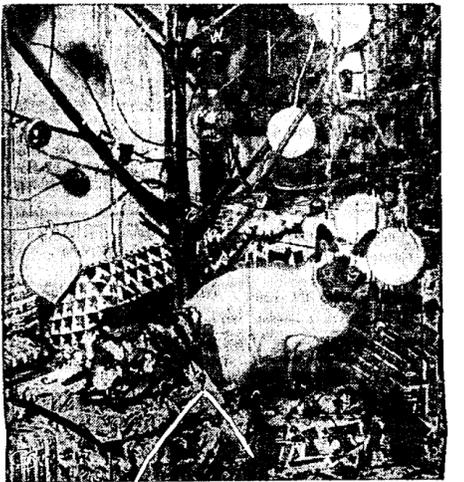

LISTING—The big carrier Constellation lists to starboard at Brooklyn Navy Yard pier more than 12 hours after the holocaust. The fire was under control by this time, but more than two score lives had been lost. Brooklyn lights at right.

$500,000 READY—Ellen Steinberg, 41, St. Louis, Mo., heiress, displays in New York a telegram she received from the New Orleans, La., School Board acknowledging her offer of $500,000 to keep the schools open during the integration crisis. She said she would lend the money interest-free, or just give it.

'STAR OF WONDER, STAR OF LIGHT'— comes to mind as Pat Barran (right) and Gene Honaker put the lights to rights on the big star atop the National Community Christmas Tree towering over the ellipse behind the White House (beyond) in Washington. The Douglas fir is decorated with 6,000 multi-colored bulbs for the annual Pageant of Peace.

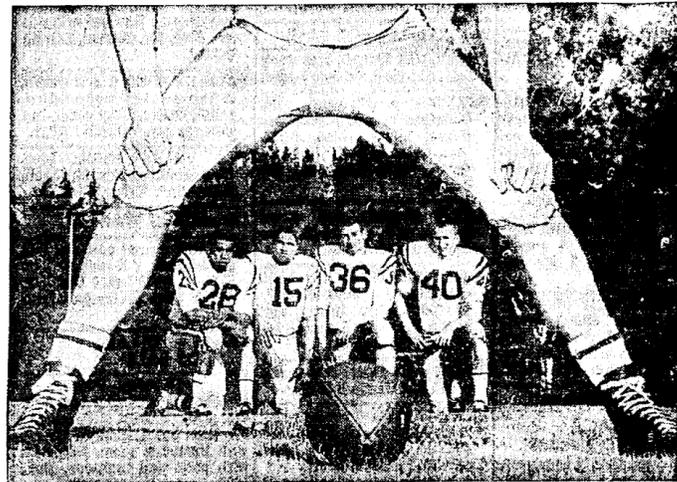

CAT FEASTS ON CHRISTMAS TREE NEEDLES—Because he has a most unusual Siamese cat, Lawrence Roy of Greenville, Mich., has a most unusual Christmas tree. The family cat, Pat, doesn't care very much for milk or horsemeat. He has an over-powering desire for pine tree needles. Roy learned this the hard way. He set up the Christmas tree and decorated it carefully. The cat literally ate down the tree, needle by needle, leaving only the ornaments and tinsel hanging grotesquely on bare branches.

HOW THE Kennedy Cabinet TOUCHES YOU

ABRAHAM RIBICOFF, as secretary of Health, Education and Welfare in the new Kennedy Cabinet, takes over administration of the billion-dollar Social Security program. Along with that, the Public Health Service under the surgeon general, the Food and Drug Administration, education and Vocational Rehabilitation. Ribicoff leaves the governor's chair in Connecticut for the national administration post.

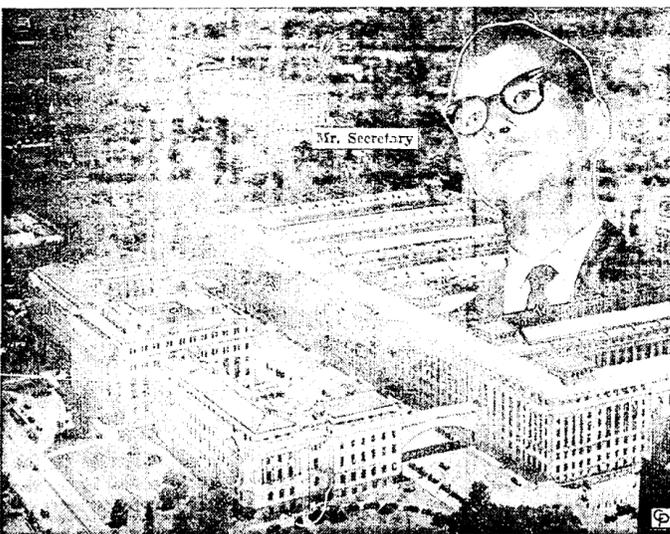

ARCH OF TRIUMPH?—The legs of Minnesota's center and team captain, Greg Larson, form an arch (of triumph?) for the Golden Gopher backfield stars training in Los Angeles for that Jan. 2 Rose Bowl contest. Backfield (from left) is Bill Munsey, half; Sanford Stevens, quarter; Roger Hagberg, full; Dave Mulholland, half.

ASTRONAUT FLIGHT IN FOUR MONTHS?—The Marine helicopter crew that plucked an unmanned man-in-space capsule from the Atlantic after it rocketed 135 miles high on a 235-mile trip examines the capsule at Cape Canaveral, Fla. The "unqualified success" of the flight possibly heralds a similar flight by an American astronaut within four months. All seven men training to be the first American in space witnessed the launching.

HOW THE Kennedy Cabinet TOUCHES YOU

ORVILLE L. FREEMAN, as Agriculture secretary, probably has the most frustrating and vote-sensitive post of all in the new Kennedy Cabinet. Since most "farm" states went Republican (at least for Nixon), the election does not seem to be a mandate to discard Benson policies, it can be argued. Freeman, 42, is outgoing governor of Minnesota. He will have authority over a far-flung list of government farm activities, including the Commodity Credit Corporation, federal crop insurance, federal Extension Service, Forest Service, Rural Electrification Administration, Soil Conservation Service, and what to do about the plaguing and costly crop surplus and price support programs.

OFF ON THEIR ANNUAL—Jerry Colonna and Bob Hope got their arms full (of Janis Paige) as they board a U.S. Navy plane in Los Angeles for the troupe's ninth annual Yuletide tour of American bases abroad.

MR. SPEAKER—House Speaker Sam Rayburn looks ready for business as reporters crowd up to him at Palm Beach, Fla., airport. He went to Palm Beach for a legislative talk with President-elect Lyndon Johnson, and Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, likely to be the new majority leader.

FATAL DC-8 AIRLINER OFF COURSE—Federal Aviation Administrator Eiwood Quesada demonstrates in Washington the "holding" flight courses of the United Air Lines DC-8 jet and the TWA Super Constellation as he announces that the DC-8 was 11 miles off course when it and the Constellation collided over Brooklyn, N.Y. The death toll was 134.

ant secretary of defense for international affairs and said that he has given Nitzze special instructions to develop new disarmament plans and proposals. Nitzze, who has been described as "the fellow who always knew the answers" has long been on the Washington scene and reportedly had been groomed for the same job in early years of the Eisenhower administration. He is a former New York investment banker.

Monday, December 26
IN PALM BEACH, Florida, President-elect John F. Kennedy called a space conference with Vice-President-elect Lyndon B. Johnson and Senator Robert S. Kerr. Plans were made to discuss the roles of the National Aeronautics and Space Agency and the Pentagon in future space programs. Johnson was named last week as formal head of the advisory body. Kerr, by virtue of his seniority, is expected to succeed Johnson as chairman of the special Senate committee on Aeronautical and Space sciences.

ANDREI GROMYKO, Soviet foreign minister, in a conciliatory speech before the Supreme Soviet (parliament), said that the Soviet Union would be willing to thaw out the cold war after President-elect John F. Kennedy is inaugurated. He said that the Soviet Government desires that the Soviet-American relations should revert to the state they were in the time of Franklin D. Roosevelt. The statement was the most conciliatory since the breaking up of the Paris summit conference last May and was seen by officials of the West as a sign of desire to begin afresh in dealing with the United States.

THIRTY THOUSAND workers in Italy staged a demonstration for wage increases yesterday in front of the Duomo Cathedral in Milan in what was believed to be the country's first labor demonstration on Christmas day. The electro-mechanical workers had been pressing their demands for three weeks. They were not joined in the demonstration by Catholic unions because of objections to the place and timing.

A SMALL TUG, its crew fighting choppy seas and darkness, took the valuable stern section of the tanker, Pine Ridge, in tow. The professional salvagers of the tug, Curb, out of New York, were aided in their work by a lone seaman who remained aboard the creaking hulk to guard against outsiders. Under maritime law, the wreckage could have been claimed as a derelict if abandoned. John Richard, a veteran seaman, had stayed aboard the stern section to help in the salvage effort. Officials said it would probably take the tug 48 hours to reach Newport News, Va., with its tow.

PRESIDENT-ELECT John F. Kennedy is one of an impressive list of authors who contributed to the 64 page program for the Presidential inauguration. Kennedy submitted excerpts from his book and an article on the Presidency based on a speech at the National Press Club. Other contributors include Robert Frost, Carl Sandberg, James Michener, and William S. White.

Sunday, December 25
WHILE DETROITERS enjoyed their White Christmas, Christians in other parts of the world joined to celebrate the birth of Christ in their own ways. In Washington President and Mrs. Dwight Eisenhower made their eighth and last Christmas in the White House a "quiet, private family affair." Thousands of Pilgrims from many countries journeyed to Bethlehem to worship at the hallowed place where Christ was born and re-enact the birth in the manger 19 centuries ago. In Moscow, gaily-decorated fir trees glittered in stores and the faithful prepared to celebrate Christmas on January 8, according to the pre-revolutionary calendar.

DETROIT'S 60 municipal departments submitted budget requests totaling $380 million for the 1961-62 fiscal year which begins July 1. The new figure is an increase of more than $46 million over that granted this fiscal year. Since both Mayor Miriani and the Common Council have said that they were opposed to any tax hike, the new budget will face considerable chopping before approval. No proposals to increase pay rates for the City's 26,000 employees were submitted.

Girl Scout News

Members of Girl Scout Troop 255 added a new twist to Christmas singing recently by having their traditional caroling around a campfire while on a winter-weekend campout at Metacora.

Accompanying the girls, all of whom are from Richard School, on the winter camping were Mrs. Eldon Jay, Mrs. Jay Sarge, Mrs. William Bradley, and Mrs. William LaPla. They slept for two nights in the troop house and cooked both in and out of doors. For the past few years the Metamora Girl Scout camp has been open both winter and summer for troop camping trips.

Service to others in the community is an important facet of Girl Scout training and this year as usual Scouts and Brownies throughout the Grosse Pointe District have put a great deal of time on such projects.

At Queen of Peace School in Harper Woods, Mrs. Joseph Oldani's Brownie Troop No. 826, and Intermediate Scout Troop, 857, headed by Mrs. Thomas Dolsen, prepared Christmas baskets for needy families.

Fifth grade Scout Troop 156 from Richard School went caroling last week at the Fisher nursing home in Fisher road. Their leaders are Mrs. Fred Lewis, Mrs. Leonard Jensen and Mrs. John Barlow.

Another fifth grade troop, No. 940, from the same school, have started individual plants for patients at the Martha T. Berry Home for Old People in Macomb county. Leaders of 940 are Mrs. Robert Lake and Mrs. Perry TeWalt.

Instead of exchanging Christmas gifts among themselves, members of Troop 1276 at St. Clare School, brought presents for children at the Guardian Angel Home for Girls. Leaders of this troop are Mrs. Wayne Blow and Mrs. S. M. Vermilion.

Three troops of Junior High school girls from Parcels schools combined forces and took favors and sang carols for patients at the Convalescent Home at Jefferson and Alter road.

mended to President-elect John F. Kennedy in a report by James M. Landis, former dean of the Harvard Law School. The report criticized what it called lack of executive concern during the past decade over the actions of major agencies and suggested administrative, legislative, and executive action to expedite handling of important problems. The report, one of Kennedy's first "rush" assignments, was highly critical of the work of the Civil Aeronautics Board and the Federal Communications Commission.

285 Kerby Road
Sunday—10:30 a.m.—The effectiveness of reliance on God's power will be illustrated in Christian Science services this Sunday.

David's trust in God alone in his victory over Goliath is featured in one of the Scriptural accounts to be read. The Lesson-Sermon entitled "God" includes this passage from I Samuel (17:45): "Then said David to the Philistine, Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a shield; but I come to thee in the name of the Lord of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom thou hast defied."

This citation will be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy. "There is no power apart from God. Omnipotence has all-power, and to acknowledge any other power is to dishonor God" (228:25-27).

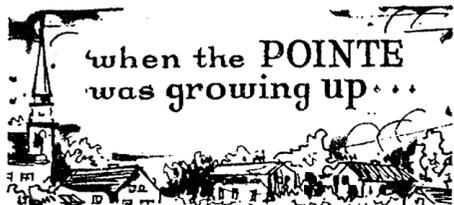

The Golden Text is from Deuteronomy (6:4): "Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is one Lord."

Far removed from the centers of tobacco production, Detroit never-the-less became one of the largest centers of its manufacture in the nineteenth century. One of Michigan's most famous governors and a prominent Pointe family had fortunes based on tobacco.

The governor was John J. Bagley. His daughter, Mrs. Frances Bagley Wallace, lives in Neff road today. The other tobacco tycoon was Daniel Scotten, whose descendants live in Bermuda and the Pointe, and who parlayed a tobacco store into a $7,000,000 estate, mostly in property.

John Judson Bagley was born in New York state and came to Detroit with his parents soon after the state entered the Union. They lived outside of Detroit in Owosso, where young John obtained some education in country schools and worked in the general store. At 14 he came to the big city to seek his fortune and began in a humble way at the tobacco store and factory of Isaac Miller, who had been in business but a few years.

At 21, Bagley was ready to go into business for himself and began producing a fine cut of chewing tobacco termed "Mayflower", which became one of Detroit's staple products for 50 years. However repugnant the tobacco chewing habit is to modern citizens the custom was engrained, especially among farmers, of the Victorian era.

Bagley prospered from chewing tobacco and piled up a great fortune. He was alderman when Detroit was suffering from a big crime wave in Civil War days. Also a power in the Republican party he induced the legislature to pass a law for the establishment of a police commission to be appointed by the Governor under the authority of the state rather than the city's mayor and common council. Jacob S. Farrand, Bagley and Alexander Lewis all served as police commissioners and served well.

With George Van Ness Lothrop and four other Bagley served also as a park commissioner. They tried to get land for a park three miles out of Detroit on East Jefferson on the way to the Pointe, but this plan fell through and Lothrop resigned in disgust. Instead Belle Isle was purchased for the colossal sum of $200,000 in 1879 and the money had to be raised by a bond issue.

Bagley continued to rise in the ranks of the GOP. In 1872 he was elected governor and re-elected in 1874 in spite of a great Democratic landslide. In 1880 he missed election to the US Senate by only one vote.

Another Miller apprentice, Daniel Scotten was also quietly making money in tobacco. In partnership with Hiram Granger and a Mr. Lovett he became Bagley's rival in producing chewing tobacco; his brand was called Hiawatha. Mr. Scotten was also the builder of the Hotel Cadillac and director of several companies. Both Bagley and Scotten had begun with Isaac Miller as apprentices and slept at night under the small factory counters to save room rent.

The Scotten business store was located on Cadillac Square in 1862 and the founder knew he could make a killing during the war in tobacco. He filled a huge warehouse on Broadway and cleared an immense profit before the end of the war. When he died in 1899 his fortune, largely invested in property in Detroit and Sandwich, Ont., was immense.

who, where and whatnot

With all those new pairs of ice skates under the Christmas tree, and the new McMillan field open for skating there are bound to be a few casualties... the first was Roxiana Conrad, 12, daughter of the Robert Conrads, of McMillan road, who broke her arm ice skating last week... just in time to have an interesting cast for holiday autographs—Mrs. John Gordon broke her ankle, wore a fetching red toe warmer on the tip of the walking cast and bustled about Christmas Eve at her traditional open house.

Footnotes from the holiday week... Mrs. William Dance looking very fetching in a bouffant square necked emerald green cocktail frock and telling all who would listen about the charms of her brand new daughter... Mrs. William Stanley Edwards in the Pointe for a Yule party talking about the bitter weather in her Bloomfield home... she even brought the dogs inside to sleep... Mr. and Mrs. John Hastings, home for the holidays from Indianapolis and brightening the Christmas of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip I. Worcester... Mrs. John Denier glowing in her Christmas present, a smart black broadtail jacket with tailored revers... Mrs. Joseph Hudson topping her black cocktail frock with a blond otter jacket trimmed in mink and wearing for the season a necklace of chunky red, green and silver beads... the John Bockstanzes cheering the season with their pleasant custom of inviting all the neighbors in the wassail spirit, spontaneously, on Christmas Eve... mother of the Christmas bride, Janet Ann Turner, Mrs. T. rushing to the store in the last minute hours to buy hair pins for the bridal veil, "just in case"... the family of the Rev. Elmer Usher opening all their presents Christmas Eve so that father could take a very early service at Old Mariners' Church... The two tots who were rushed to very early church by their parents before gift opening and not seeing all the goodies piled beneath the tree because the canny mother and dad dashed them downstairs and out to the waiting car with pillow slips over their heads.

Most embarrassed guest at Mrs. Edsel Ford's reception for her debutante granddaughter, Anne, was the matron who had sent her regrets from Florida. She mentioned how sad she was to miss the party that she heard everyone had enjoyed so much. She returned home and discovered she had the wrong date, was able to make the reception after all. Mrs. Ford winsomely asked her about all the guests who had had such a good time at the party which hadn't happened yet.

JACK THORPE, OF HIDDEN LANE

By Patricia Talbot

The cup that cheers, the brimming bowl, these are harbingers of the holiday and the New Year, and Jack Thorpe is an expert at preparing the seasonal toast.

For many years he has been collecting rum, which he says is a much misunderstood drink. He now has 60 different rare varieties and about $600 tied up in the collection which he keeps in his Hawaiian styled recreation room bar.

For the holidays he prepares a special Tom and Jerry with dark rum. Light and dark refer to the body, not the color says this expert. He also has a popular original punch which he serves to holiday guests.

You will need a blender for this recipe. Put in two pieces of pineapple and blend until pulp. Add 1 ounce of fresh lime juice, 2 ounces of Puerto Rico Silver Label Rum, 1/2 ounce of Passion fruit juice (or papaya) and throw in two cups of shaved ice. For a large crowd the amounts may be multiplied.

Fresh Fruit, Lots of Ice
Fresh fruit and lots of ice are necessary for good rum drinks, says Mr. Thorpe, who claims most professional bartenders don't use enough of either and that's why customers stick with the more mundane martinis and manhattans.

Mr. and Mrs. Thorpe, naturally, always drink rum, usually daiquiris, Mrs. Thorpe is an expert at preparing Hawaiian type menus to complement the rum drinks. She can bake Polynesian spareribs, curried chicken, saffron rice, plum sauce and Chinese shrimp.

The Thorpes have spent some time in Honolulu adding to their menu and drink recipes, talking to experts like the owners of Trader Vic's, the famous purveyor of rum drinks such as mystery gardenias and zambies.

Collects Glasses Too
Mr. Thorpe also collects glasses to serve his concoctions in. He has coconut shells, statuettes, shotgun glasses and all types of goblets, mugs and wine glasses. He is a manufacturer's agent for electrical products, even has glasses encribed with electrical symbols.

This master drink mixer has many other interests. He has been a radio "Ham" since 1933. His call letters, W 8JDG, have been active on the radio beams for years. He is also a telegraph operator and an avid sports car fan. He belongs to the Sports Car Club of America.

Scout Master
The Thorpes' son, Robert, 15, a student at GPUS, was responsible for his father's early interest in the Scouting movement. Now Mr. Thorpe is chairman of Boy Scout Troop 479 at Parcels, next season will start an explorer scout post.

During the holidays the Thorpes go all out in preparing their specialties. Mrs. Thorpe's sunny paneled kitchen looks out over the front of the house and here she bakes cookies, cakes and candies, prepares all the holiday goodies. On a buffet table in the living room stands the punch bowl full of Tom and Jerry or one of Mr. Thorpe's famous punches.

The Thorpes are very particular about their menus and cocktails. Mr. T. says good cooks always measure carefully, so should good bartenders. He is not appreciative of the in-temperate drinker. His preparations take a lot of patience and skill and should be sipped not gulped. Although he keeps standard whiskey in his bar, his guests always ask for one of his rum drinks and he always has some special cocktail to prepare.

Which Rum Is Best?
Many of his recipes call for rare ingredients beside the rum and fruit juices. He stocks up on Passion fruit when he is in Chicago, where it is imported from Australia. Most American rum is imported from Puerto Rico but he has bottles from all the islands in the Caribbean and as far afield as Scotland. Rum has many more varieties than whiskey. For most rum cocktails he uses a silver label rum, light bodied, from Puerto Rico. His collector's items are never opened, some of them are priceless.

Mr. Thorpe isn't pushing rum, but he believes it is a drink which has never been fully appreciated in this country. He is always looking for a new recipe for his favorite drink and always willing to shake up a special bacardi or daiquiri for the novice.

If he ever gives up his present job he could always shake cocktails in a fine restaurant. The Thorpes' own Hawaiian room offers the best in food and drink to appreciative guests during the holidays and all year long.

MAKE A SWITCH
Take those coats and suits off wire hangers when they come from the dry cleaners. Home economists at Michigan State University suggest coats and suits be put on shoulder-shaped wooden hangers which will support the weight and hold the shape of these garments.

DYC Pelicans Mark Founding

On Friday noon, December 3, 1957, according to the records, there was a meeting of 101 Detroit Yacht Club members, gathered to form a noon-day luncheon club to be known as the Pelican Club. Today, 3 years later, the club boasts of over 200 members and is one of the most active Yacht Club organizations.

The first to sign a card indicating an interest in such an organization was Dr. L. T. Henderson who oddly enough became the first president. Arthur W. Rieck became vice president, E. D. Boltz, treasurer, and C. H. Rickenback, secretary.

While there is no record of the exact moment the idea of a noonday luncheon club was born, the original story in the Pelican book reads as follows: "The thought of a noon-day luncheon club had long been in the mind of Commodore Tompkins and on a night in the fall of 1957 during one of the bowling sessions he put his thoughts into words by asking Al Douglas and Art Peacock if they thought the DYC members would be interested in forming a group similar to the well-known luncheon clubs.

The seeds of his thought found fertile ground in the minds of his companions and shortly thereafter a poll was taken among the members as to their feelings on the matter. There was ready acceptance of the idea and many men expressed their willingness not only to join but to be active in its organization."

On Friday noon, December 30, three years later there will be another meeting of many of the original 101 charter members along with new members, Yacht Club members and friends gathered to celebrate the birthday and to honor its founder, Commodore C. S. (Tommy) Tompkins, the man who helped to start the club and the charter members. This day is to be known as Founders Day.

Founders Day will be President Rieck's last meeting and new officers will take over in January. The new president, Clarence Wormuth and vice president, Kurt Kremlick have worked as a team this past year — both are extremely dedicated to the job of making the Pelican Club the finest ever. They hope to better their record of 275 people attending a meeting in 1960.

The officers extend a cordial invitation to all Detroit Yacht Club members and their friends to Founders Day and to all Pelican meetings.
