

TWO MAJOR FIRES HIT FARMS

HEADLINES of the WEEK As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, January 4
AMERICAN MOTORS Corporation president George Romney stated Wednesday in Lansing that AMC directors have "made it very clear" that they do not want him to run for the Michigan governorship in 1962. Romney said the board expressed its opinions on his possible candidacy at a December 18 meeting in New York, a meeting called by Romney in order to bring the directors up to date on "the competitive situation and other developments."

The AMC president, chairman of the Citizens for Michigan and a Constitutional Convention vice president, remains undecided as to whether or not he will enter the race but is considered a strong contender for the Republican nomination if he does decide to run. He has promised a final decision on his candidacy by February 10.

MOVING TO increase Detroit's convention business, Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh today asked the Detroit Convention and Tourist Bureau to launch a huge membership drive and urged that the bureau's budget be boosted from $116,000 to $170,000. The new Mayor, who took office last Tuesday, suggested that first results of his recommended drive be devoted to the promotion of Cobo Hall's outstanding convention and exhibit facilities, and predicted that results will be amazing.

He also recommended that the Convention and Tourist Bureau, the Detroit Hotel Association and the Southeastern Michigan Tourist and Publicity Association get together in administration-provided quarters in Cobo Hall, a move which should facilitate their closer cooperation.

PRESIDENT KENNEDY announced yesterday that he has ordered the activation of two new permanent army divisions, and that two National Guard units recalled to active duty during the Berlin crisis will be released later in the year. Washington army sources stated that over half of the 31,712 men in the new divisions would be draftees with eight or more weeks training at replacement centers, the remainder to be drawn from existing Army units. Establishment of the new units, while increasing the number of regular army divisions from 14 to 16, will have no effect on draft calls.

Friday, January 5
FORMER DRIVERS for the Intertown Suburban Lines, Inc., Thursday requested a Circuit Court injunction to keep the DSR out of Dearborn, as 13 other Western Wayne County communities appealed to Mayor Cavanagh for DSR service in their areas. The Detroit Mayor is personally handling an offer from D-C Transit, a private Washington (D.C.) transportation company, to buy the DSR. D-C Transit first vice president Morris Fox offered to buy Detroit's municipally owned bus company Wednesday, as he boarded a plane for Washington to call Cavanagh. The Mayor told Fox that "it would be far more appropriate to convey the offer in writing," and Fox drafted a formal letter to Cavanagh requesting the opportunity to "talk over" the possible sale of the DSR with Detroit officials.

Fire Destroys Pointe's Swankiest Restaurant

Just nine months after its plush opening last April 3, flames engulfed Al Green's On The Hill last Thursday night. Starting early in the evening when the restaurant was catering to more than 100 diners, the blaze was probably one of the best attended in Pointe history. Crowds watched a host of firemen with all kinds of equipment battle the fire until after midnight. This is the frightful mess after the fire was extinguished.

Symphony Concert Set For Jan. 21

Pointe's Own Top Musical Organization to Give Second Offering of Current Season

The Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra will welcome the new year with the presentation of the second in this season's series of Sunday afternoon concerts on January 21 in the Parcels High School auditorium. The concert, scheduled for 3:30 p.m. will be followed by a reception and coffee hour, hosted by members of the Grosse Pointe Symphony Society. Social chairman, Mrs. Robert Armstrong is handling arrangements for the reception.

Guest Artists: Guest artists for the second concert include Faye Turner, soprano, and the Grant Williams Choral, a newly organized group, which made its debut in the Detroit cultural scene last fall. The group, composed of 30 professional singers from the Detroit metropolitan area, has been described by critics as "professional in the excellence of its standards, but amateur in spirit." During the Christmas holidays they appeared in concert with the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra. Conductor Grant Williams, a young man in his early thirties, has an impressive musical background which includes opera, concert and recording successes. He is presently a soloist with the Robert Shaw Choral, recording with the Choral for RCA. His first love is choral conducting however and he has studied choral technique with Robert Shaw and Margaret Hillis in New York City and (Continued on Page 2)

Contract for Bathhouse At City's Beach Awarded

The Grosse Pointe City Council, at a special meeting on Wednesday, January 3, awarded the contract for construction of a bathhouse in Neff Memorial Park to Palombit Construction Company, 19874 Mack, Grosse Pointe Woods. Palombit Construction Co. was the low bidder, with a total price of $38,500. In all, 17 companies presented bids to the Council, and City Engineer W. B. Edwards, after thoroughly checking the references and Dun and Bradstreet credit ratings of the three low bidders, recommended awarding the contract to the lowest bidder. Edwards stated that each of the three low bidders appeared

Liggett School Alumnae Launch Campaign to Raise Funds for New Building

Need $1,633,000 to Re-locate Institution on Property Acquired in Grosse Pointe Woods; Mrs. Casgrain Heads Committee

Nearly 60 Grosse Pointe women took part in launching the Liggett School's General Gifts Campaign at meetings January 3 and 4, according to General Gifts chairman Mrs. Charles W. Casgrain, 119 Merriweather road. Grosse Pointers assuming leadership roles at the meetings—in addition to Mrs. Casgrain—included two associate chairmen, five division leaders and 18 team captains. The meetings, at the Liggett School's Burns avenue location, were addressed by Mrs. H. Bradford Aarons, 3428 Havenhill, General Campaign chairman; by Mrs. Frederick S. Ford, co-chairman; and by Mrs. Casgrain. Meetings are also scheduled at the school on Tuesdays, January 9, 16 and 23, at 10 a.m., to be attended by more than 70 additional campaigners. To Build New School Objective of the campaign is to raise $1,633,000 to construct the proposed new Liggett School on property east of Vernier road and north of Lake Shore drive in Grosse Pointe Woods. It is hoped that the new facility will be ready for occupancy at the beginning of the fall semester in 1963. At the meetings Mrs. Aarons stressed that "...the consistently high quality of private education, and the training in manners and conservative traditions are among the many sound reasons that independent schools, such as Liggett, deserve support from many families, even if they may not have children who will go to the school."

Owners of Dogs Receive Warning

Park dog owners who have not yet purchased 1962 tags for their pets are in violation of the Park City Ordinance, it was disclosed by Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers, on Monday, January 8. According to the ordinance, the chief said, owners must get the tags on January 1 of each year. The tags expire December 31 of the same year. In order to purchase the tags for their animals, owners must present a valid vaccination slip from a veterinarian. The cost of a tag for female canines is $2.10; males and spayed females, $1.10. They may be purchased in the Violations Bureau, on the second floor of the Park Municipal Building, 15115 East Jefferson.

to be well qualified to perform the required work, and that his choice of Palombit Construction Co. was based on cost alone. All bids were found to be in order and all bidders omitted the gas service cost, as figures on this item were not available from the Michigan Consolidated Gas Company. This work, installed by the Gas Company, and billed to the contractor, will have to be added to the contract price of the job as extra work. Work on the swimming pool shell is almost finished and both swimming pool and bathhouse are scheduled for completion by May 15.

Boy Admits Wholesale Car Looting

Report of Gas Syphoning Leads to Arrest of 15-Year-Old and Solution to Other Thefts

Farms police filed charges with Juvenile Court authorities against a 15-year-old Detroit boy who was apprehended on Tuesday, January 2, for syphoning gas from a car parked in a lot at the rear of the Pointe Bar, 18666 Mack avenue. The boy confessed to stealing automobile parts. An older companion was released with a warning when the owner of the car refused to sign a complaint against him. The youth's name was withheld because he had no previous record. On complaint of the manager of the bar, Patrolmen Marvin Krebs, Arnold Parsons and Earl Field were dispatched to the area. When they arrived, there was no one in the lot. Evidence Still There However, the car from which gas was being stolen was pointed out to the officers, and they found that their arrival apparently frightened away the culprits. A five-gallon gasoline can was on the ground next to the car, and an eight-inch hose was still in the gas tank opening. Krebs and Parson observed an 18-year-old youth walking across Mack avenue toward a restaurant and took him in custody. The youth admitted his part in trying to steal the gas, after the officers established that his shoes matched a set of footprints in the snow next to the car. Hiding in Car Field checked a dark blue automobile in the lot and found the 15-year-old lying flat on the front seat in an effort to hide from the law. The boy was ordered out of the car. Both boys were taken to the station, where the older one told Police Sgt. Ignatius Backman that this was the first time he had been in trouble. Det. Sgt. George Van Tiem questioned the lads, and the younger boy broke down and confessed that he had taken a tachometer from another car and put it in his. He also admitted taking two blouses and a pair of slacks from boxes that were in a car parked in the Woods Theater lot last month. Van Tiem said that a battery in the 15-year-old's car, a license plate and two 1961 license tabs, with different numbers, were removed from the boy's car. The boy confessed (Continued on Page 2)

Three Car Crash Blamed on Ice

Icey roads caused a three-car collision on Maumee, just west of Roosevelt, early Friday morning, January 5, when Irene Helen Munk, 1327 Somerset, skidded on the slippery pavement and hit a parked car. Mrs. Stella Kerby, who was driving her '55 Dodge sedan directly behind Mrs. Monk's '57 Ford, also skidded and slid directly into the rear of the Ford. All three cars were damaged, the Ford on both its front end and left rear, the Dodge on its left front, and the parked car, a '55 Oldsmobile sedan owned by Roy T. Will, 17431 Maumee, on its rear end. Mrs. Kerby's car had to be towed away. Her 3½-year-old son, William Kerby, Jr., was taken by City police to Bon Secours Hospital, where he was treated for a bump on his head. No violations were issued.

School Superintendent's Report Heard by Board

Total enrollment in Grosse Pointe Public Schools for the end of December was 10,591, according to the report of the Superintendent of Schools, delivered at the regular meeting of the Board of Education on Monday, January 8. This marks a gain of 20 pupils over November's total of 10,571, and a gain of 107 pupils over last December's 10,484. Elementary schools registered 14 new students in the past month, and six newcomers enrolled in Junior High. High school enrollment remained constant during this period. Grosse Pointe now has 5,764 pupils in public elementary schools, 51 less than last year; 2,532 pupils in Junior High, 87 more than last year; and 2,295 pupils in Senior High, 71 more than last year. Quarterly Report Made to Residents By Woods Council

Much Information on Various City Departments Submitted; Invitation Issued to All to Attend Open House on January 21

Grosse Pointe Woods' quarterly report to residents, covering the months of October, November and December, 1961, contains information on the various City departments and an invitation to all City residents to attend an Open House at the Municipal Building on Sunday, January 21, from 1 to 3 p.m.

The Open House will give residents an opportunity to meet the new City officials, Administrator Chester Petersen, Comptroller Russell, Manney and Assessor Warren DeCook, who took office on November 1. The mayor, councilmen and department heads will also be present to greet their constituents.

431 Homes Inspected The Grosse Pointe Woods Public Safety Department conducted 431 courtesy home fire inspections in conjunction with National Fire Prevention Week, unearthing many violations of the rules of fire safety. Some of the more common violations included improper size electrical fuses, debris on top of furnaces and leaking oil tanks and oil lines. The Department also conducted a fire prevention inspection in all schools.

A new 2500-watt portable generator, which can be used to supply auxiliary power for the Public Safety Building in case of power failure, has been purchased. During this three-month period, equipment from the Woods Public Safety Department responded to 31 fire alarms and 57 ambulance calls.

New Recreation Program The winter recreation program of the Department of Parks and Recreation went into effect on October 1. Rinks for pleasure skating are located at Lake Front, Park, Chene Trombley, Memorial Park, Sweeney Park and Ghesquiere Park, where day and evening skating is available in the lighted Magic Square rink. The hockey rink may also be lighted before the season ends. Gym programs are in high gear, with basketball the most (Continued on Page 2)

Store Loses Merchandise Worth $1,500

Walton's - Pierce Reports Theft of 10 Expensive Suits and Dresses During Shopping Hours

Merchandise worth over $1,500 was stolen from Walton Pierce Co., 17100 Kercheval, some time during the afternoon of Saturday, December 30. The thief or thieves entered the building, crowded with last-minute New Year's shoppers, and removed 10 complete outfits just unpacked from New York. The theft was discovered by Mary Hart, 18827 Maure, Detroit, a merchandise marker, at Walton Pierce. Miss Hart had removed the costumes from their shipping cartons, hung them up, and marked the price tags.

Only Gone Five Minutes She left the brand-new dresses unattended for approximately five minutes while she had a cup of coffee in the employee's lunchroom. When she returned, the hangers were bare. Included among the missing articles were a size 20 navy lace over green satin cocktail dress valued at $189.95, a black silk two-piece costume valued at $290.00, a bonbon mint and aqua two-piece suit valued at $159.95, and an aqua blue wool knit day dress valued at $125.00.

Other Costumes Listed Also missing are two $225.00 two-piece day dresses, one in brown wool and one in navy blue, a gray wool day dress valued at $169.00, a $95.00 lime lined sheath, a three-piece (Continued on Page 2)

Sponsor Rally Of Candidates

The League of Women Voters and the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center will co-sponsor a Candidates Rally, Friday, January 19, at 8 p.m., for the 14th District Congressional race. The Detroit League of Women Voters in this district will co-operate in presenting the Rally. All candidates have been sent questionnaires, the answers to which will be published prior to the rally.

Thieves Visit Printing Shop

Park police are investigating the disappearance of approximately $4,000 worth of printing equipment reported missing by Richard Remark of 15118 Kercheval, on Monday, January 8. Det. Lt. Arnold Hough said that Remark, who lives in an apartment above his printing establishment, told him that he discovered the loss, after noticing that a desk lamp was gone from his office desk. Remark said that he decided to look for the missing lamp, and found that two other lamps, flexible arm type commonly used on draft boards, were also missing. He then took inventory of his stock and found the printing equipment gone. The items were apparently taken between Thursday, January 4, and Sunday, January 7, Remark said. Also taken from his garage were an old electric stove and a power mower. Taken from the shop, it was said, besides the lamps, were 35 Vartypex plates, valued at about $48 each, 11 typewriter units, valued at a total of about $615, and several assorted paper staplers. Lt. Hough said there was no evidence of forced entry, which might mean that someone could have a key to the place.

Al Green's Restaurant Destroyed

Fashionable Eating Place on Hill, Hardware Store and Valet Shop Scene of Blazes

Thirteen pieces of fire fighting equipment and approximately 100 firemen fought two multi-alarm fires Thursday evening, January 4, that totally destroyed a restaurant and two stores in the Farms. The combined damage to the properties was estimated at more than $500,000.

The fires destroyed Al Green's On The Hill, 123 Kercheval; Beaupre Hardware, 366 Kercheval; and Sidney Cleaners, 368 Kercheval. A restaurant employe and four firemen were overcome by smoke and another fireman suffered burns. The fire scenes were a mile apart, and the fires occurred within 30 minutes of each other, the first time in Farms history that two major conflagrations happened almost simultaneously.

Policemen Spot Blaze The fire at the hardware store and cleaners was discovered by Farms Patrolmen Earl Field and Arnold Parsons, who were making routine checks of doors of business places in the city. They turned in the alarm. This was at 7:57 p.m.

At 8:38 p.m., the alarm came in for the restaurant fire, which was started by a grease blaze in the kitchen. The hardware store and cleaners fire was started by defective wiring in the cleaning shop.

By the time Farms firemen arrived, the fire in the valet shop had spread to the hardware store, which had two gas pumps in front. At 8:08 p.m., unable to control the dual-shop fire, the City was called to help on the second alarm. The third alarm was given at 8:35 p.m. and the Shores and Harper Woods Fire Departments responded.

Second Blaze Starts Then at 8:38 p.m., the fire broke out at Al Green's. The first alarm brought the Park Fire Department to the scene, since the Farms-City-Shores-Harper Woods firefighters were at the other fire.

At 8:50 p.m., the second alarm was sounded for the restaurant fire, and Park Fire Chief George deCausin radioed the Park police station to call the Farms police to relay a message to Farms Fire Chief M. William Mason, that more help was needed.

This message was intercepted by Farms Fire Capt. Raymond Sney who notified his chief of the message. Chief M. William Mason authorized a request for help from Detroit, with which (Continued on Page 4) popular indoors activity. Boys and girls basketball teams have been carefully organized according to age and ability, and games are scheduled throughout the season.

Younger boys may participate in team-play games nightly at Parcels, Perry, Mason and for girls, both elementary school Mason and Monteth schools. Similar programs are available for both elementary school and teenage girls. A weekly gym program at Monteth school accommodates the men, with basketball highlighting the evening.

Club Offers Classes
Ball classes are held four times weekly at the Woods Community Club, and the weekly weight-lifting club is expanding its facilities. Other Community Club activities include arts and crafts classes for 4th through 6th grade boys and girls and a Junior Canteen program for Junior High students.

An F-80 Jet Plane, used in photographic missions during the Korean War, has been installed on the lawn directly in front of the bath house in Lake Front Park.

The Department of Public Works has also been busy. During the months of October, November and December the Water Service Dept. installed 40 new water meters in new homes, repaired 4 hydrants, had 8 water main breaks, repaired 69 parking meters, and performed many other services.

Prospects in progress include curb, gutter and paving of Marter road, negotiation for purchase of additional land for future expansion of the Department of Public Works and the Municipal Garage, and construction of the Vernier road relief sewer.

DPW employees have taken down and stored all playground equipment for the winter and painted all school crossings. Snow plows are painted and ready for service, salt trucks are on call, and catch basins throughout the City have been cleaned for winter.

Twenty-five dwelling building permits, totalling $545,340, were issued from October 1 through November 28, and 19 permits for alterations, additions and garages came to a total of $46,150 during the same period.

An expansion program to provide 75 additional parking spaces in the lots adjacent to the Municipal Building is progressing on schedule.

Cadillac

When is a man too young to own one?

The people who drive Cadillac cars are, taking them by and large, men of genuine personal achievement. And achievement customarily awaits the passing of a man's years.

Yet recent times have seen a growing number of a younger generation in the driver's seat of the "car of cars."

And we believe that there is good reason why this should be so.

Men are now going into business and the professions well advanced in their training—and the new technologies have enabled many to make an early mark in their chosen field.

Then, too, today's Cadillac has a spirit and an excitement about it that make it a great temptation to all motorists.

It is remarkably vital and clean of line.

And in action, it is simply without equal—quick and agile in traffic... smooth, quiet and powerful on the open road.

Well, we'd say that his years are not really a factor at all.

If he feels his achievements entitle him to motordom's richest rewards—and if he has reached that point where he can no longer be content with second best—then Cadillac is the logical and inevitable choice.

Your dealer will happily give you the facts about Cadillac—and accompany you on motordom's most revealing ride.

Young in fact or young at heart—you ought to drive a new Cadillac soon.

And when is a man too young to own one?

Two Major Fires Break Out in Farms at Same Time

More Help Needed

At 9:01 p.m., a pumper was dispatched from Detroit's Fire Station at Coplin and Jefferson. At 9:19 p.m., it became apparent that more help was needed, and Detroit sent an aerial truck from the Coplin station, and two more pumps, one from Manistique and Warren and another from St. Jean and Mack.

Chief deCausin said that when the City dispatched its men and equipment to help the Farms, the Park, according to a Mutual Fire Aid Pact between the Pointes and Harper Woods, sent a fire truck to the City Station to give a measure of fire protection to the Park and City. However, enroute to the City, the Al Green alarm came in, and all Park men and equipment were dispatched to that fire.

Since the Park and City were now without fire protection, the Woods Public Safety Department sent a fire truck to the City Station, to cover the Park, City and Farms. One truck remained at the Woods station to help cover the Woods and Shores, the chief said. Harper Woods had one piece of equipment in its own station, also, he added.

Hampered by Cold

At both fires, firemen were hampered by the cold weather that froze the water on the sidewalks and streets, making the fire-fighting extra hazardous.

At the hardware and valet shops fire, firemen were also hampered by a broken gas line in the building, which could not be shut off. A repair crew was sent to the scene by the Michigan Consolidated Gas Company. A leaking fuel oil tank added to the blaze.

The gas repairmen were forced to use an air drill to dig the frozen ground to reach a valve to shut off the gas. This enabled the firefighters to bring the fire under control. At one point, about 10:46 p.m., because of the tremendous amount of water being used at both fires, the water pressure dropped dangerously low, and a call was sent to the Farms Water Filtration Plant, Moross and Lake Shore, to increase the pumpage to boost the pressure.

Firemen Change Clothes

When the fire was out at the hardware and cleaners stores, the Farms firemen returned to the station to change their firefighting equipment in order again to go to the fire at Al Green's. All the City firemen and equipment returned to their station for standby service, and the Woods truck and personnel returned to their own station.

Harper Woods dispatched its second truck and men to the restaurant fire and the first truck with its wet and weary men returned to their station. At the restaurant fire, Park Firemen Andrew Benoit, David Taylor, Don Ryde and James Koerber were overcome by smoke, and were taken to Cottage Hospital for treatment.

Farms Fireman Robert Sharp suffered badly burned ears, and his hair was singed. He was treated at Bon Secours Hospital.

It was later disclosed that Sharp contacted a touch of pneumonia. He is at home recuperating from the burns and the illness.

Also overcome by the smoke was the bartender of the restaurant, Marios Vayiar, 48, of 2550 Park, Detroit. He was treated at Cottage Hospital.

When the fire broke out on the stove from the grease, it was extinguished by one of the kitchen employes, but the flame had already shot up to and into the false ceiling. It was originally thought that there was no danger.

A few minutes later, Henry Frank of 16728 Archdale, Detroit, head chef, looked up and saw the ceiling flames red.

Farms authorities said that the flames from the broiler grease apparently spread through the false ceiling from an exhaust fan in the ceiling.

No One Panicked

There were more than 100 employes and guests in the restaurant, when the fire started, but no one panicked. They all filed safely from the building, and then lined the curb with thousands of other people to watch the firemen battle the flames.

Many Visiting Firemen

Five firemen from Harrison Township, Macomb County, who were at the restaurant fire as spectators, volunteered to help fight the blaze. Their aid was accepted.

Also at the scene, besides Chiefs Mason and deCausin, were Shores Chief Fred Duemling, Woods Lt. Donald Coats, Harper Woods Chief Russell Teets, Detroit Fire Chief Lawrence Daly, Earl Smith, chief of Apparatus of the Detroit Fire Department, and Detroit Fire Commissioner William Burr. Also present was Charles Creedon, former Detroit Fire Commissioner. Now traveling secretary for the Detroit Tigers, Creedon is a former Pointe resident.

There were many other fire officials, including several from Dearborn Township and Garden City, at the scene, but they were there merely as spectators.

Eight Hour Battle

The firefighters fought both blazes for a total of eight hours, before all equipment and men returned to their respective stations.

While the firemen fought the restaurant fire, William LaPlay, manager of the Grosse Pointe Little Club, opened the kitchen of the club and made gallons of coffee, which he brought to the fire scene and served to the cold and weary firemen.

The Salvation Army also sent a truck and personnel to the scene and served coffee and donuts to the firefighters. People from neighboring homes, too, made coffee and brought it to the firemen.

Burned Out Before

The Thursday evening fire was the second large fire at the night spot.

A $150,000 blaze swept the establishment on August 17, 1959, when it was known as the London East.

After the building was restored and remodeled, the ownership was assumed by Al Green last April. He also owns a restaurant at Jefferson and Beaconsfield in the Park.

Very few of the furnishings were saved in Thursday's fire. Among them was a priceless bronze door panel. Also saved were several marble tables at the piano bar, and a quantity of liquor and some other equipment.

The bronze door panel was from the John Anderson estate and was set in the wall of the lobby of the restaurant at the

Movie on Europe Being Offered

"Family Holiday in Europe" will be shown by Col. John Craig for the Grosse Pointe Branch of the World Adventure Series at 7:45 p.m., next Wednesday, January 17, at Parcells Junior High School, 8 Mile and Mack.

The color film shows the humorous and exciting experiences of a TV producer-narrator and his family when they rent a car and drive 7,500 miles in three months, visiting over 20 major cities in seven countries of Europe. They attend the Trooping of the Colour, Edinburgh Music Festival, bask on the sunny Riviera, ride gondolas in Venice, and sail in a luxury passenger steamship down the storied Rhine.

Col. Craig, author of "Danger Is My Business" and network television star, with his family visits London, Paris, Madrid, Nice, Monte Carlo, Florence, Rome, Naples, Interlochen, Frankfurt, Cologne and many other famed spots. This is a happy family holiday—the kind the average parent might plan for next summer. It is packed with travel tips and information about costs.

For reserved seats, call the World Adventure Series office, Temple 2-7676 any afternoon but Monday from 1 to 5, or call Community Services, TU 5-3808.

entrance to the building. It was originally believed that the paneling was destroyed in the fire.

Gas Co. Center Has Art Exhibit

Water color artist R. H. Heimbach will exhibit 22 paintings this month at Michigan Consolidated Gas Company's Hospitality Center, 16906 Kercheval.

Appraisers of his paintings may ask if he is influenced by his famous Dutch countryman Vermeer or Franz Hals. Or do they bear the lively dramatic touch of modern painters American artist Rockwell Kent and French impressionist Vlaminck?

Of Dutch parents, Heimbach has been an admirer of the old Dutch masters since his boyhood when he first applied his artistic talents to decorating his schoolbooks in a small Pennsylvania schoolhouse. But it was during the last 16 years that his talent for fine art in water colors has developed.

His work has since been accepted in many important shows including the Annual Michigan Artists Exhibition, Michigan Water Color Society, Scarab Club Water Color Exhibit and the Annual Gold Medal Show. His Hospitality Center exhibition marks his third one man show, having previously exhibited locally at the Scarab Club last year.

"Some critics say I'm somewhat prolific," Heimbach said, "but I can't quite agree. I do enjoy painting, however, and work at it continually when a beautiful seascape of landscape possibility attracts my eye. Maybe some would call that prolific."

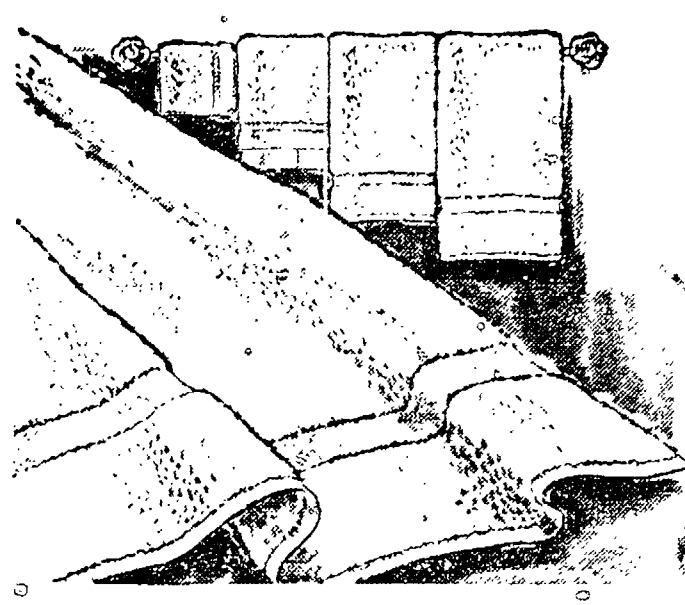

Decorators are fond of his work for its color tones and dramatic quality, while his fellow artists consider him a modest perfectionist who vastly underestimates himself. Maybe he does.

Artist Heimbach will be in attendance at his one man show at the Hospitality Center January 12, 16, 26 and 30

Friends of Library Busy On Important Projects

Members of the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library are urged to participate in the preparation of a definitive history of the Grosse Pointe area.

Dr. Alfred E. Whittaker, a student of Grosse Pointe history, will speak at the February 28 meeting of the Friends, and the session will be devoted to a discussion of little known aspects of the Pointes' history.

Dr. Whittaker also reported on a December meeting of the Special Collections Committee of the Friends, at which there was a discussion of the Friends' cooperation with public and parochial schools in Grosse Pointe.

Heads of history and English departments of the schools met with Robert M. Orr, library director, to work out methods whereby the unique possessions of the library's rare book room can be made available to students.

"The object is to add an element of interest to the school courses by introducing the student to manuscript material, first editions of books, and books that are associated with their classroom work," said Dr. Whittaker.

Particular emphasis is being placed on the collection of Shakespearean material and on other collections relating to English history and literature. The library owns one of the "fourth folios" of Shakespearean works, a valuable gift of Mrs. C. E. Delbos of Grosse Pointe.

Also of great interest is an extensive collection of the writings of Lewis Carroll which has been given to the Library by Mrs. Helen Landrum. "Mrs. Landrum has shown a continuing interest in the Grosse Pointe Public Library," said Orr, "and we are most grateful to her for her donations."

"The Lewis Carroll material includes some first editions, letters and magnificent examples of fore-edge paintings, that is, paintings on the front edge of the book's pages, visible when the book is closed." Dr. Whittaker reported the special collection is weak in the field of American writers, and he said the library is particularly anxious to secure gifts in this area.

Orr said he would welcome an opportunity to show visitors the special collection.

Wins Marksman's Award

Receiving the highest rank of the National Rifle Association, Junior Division, from CAPTAIN ANDREW C. TEETAERT, City of Grosse Pointe Police, Club vice-president, is DONALD S. OWENS of the Grosse Pointe Junior Rifle Club. Don was awarded the Distinguished Rifleman rating at a Grosse Pointe Rifle and Pistol Club ceremony on Tuesday, December 19. He is the first boy in the Club to gain this distinction, and one of the few in the Detroit area.

Learn to forgive and forget—many a man's downfall can be traced to his desire to get even. Don't bet on the fellow who spends his time telling what he is going to do tomorrow.

PTA at Mason To Hear Bushong

Dr. James W. Bushong, Superintendent of Schools, will speak to the Mason School PTA at 8 p.m. Monday, January 15.

Dr. Bushong has just returned from a lengthy tour of the Soviet Union and will present a report of the educational system he observed in operation there. His speech will be supplemented by color slides taken in Russian classrooms during his visit.

A. Lawrence Gagnon, Principal of Mason, will show color slides contrasting Mason with the typical Russian elementary school and will present information about Mason's operation which is pertinent to comparing the two systems of education.

Members will have an opportunity to question Dr. Bushong and Mr. Gagnon. All members of the community are invited to attend this special program. A business meeting will precede the speakers and the membership will vote on two constitutional questions which have been previously placed before them.

Refreshments will be served by Room Mothers under the supervision of their chairman, Mrs. Leonard Constantine of Country Club drive.

FIRE RUINS CAR
Park firemen put out a fire in a car belonging to Harry Elkins of 916 Westchester, on Friday, January 5. The car, a Renault, parked in the side drive alongside the house, was completely destroyed. The fire was discovered by Patrolmen Charles Slusser and John Trombley, who spotted dense smoke coming from the area of Nottingham and Fairfax, and investigated. They turned in the alarm. Cause of the fire is unknown.

Club Rental
 The Neighborhood Club offers facilities for meetings, parties and other social functions. Information can be obtained by calling the Club—TUxedo 5-4600.

Ice Skating
 Because there is no ice skating at the City Park due to the improvement program now going on, an ice skating rink has been prepared directly in back of the Neighborhood Club, by the City of Grosse Pointe. The Club is providing an area in the basement for warmth as well as changing skates. Hours for use of the rink are daily to 10 p.m. Everyone is invited to try out the new rink.

Memberships
 With the arrival of the New Year, memberships to the Neighborhood Club are now available to the people of the community and surrounding areas.

Membership entitles individuals to participate in any of the scheduled activities and use of facilities of the Club including: Games room activities, kitchen facilities, billiard room, showers, gymnasium, club room, tennis courts and playground equipment in season.

Billiard Room
 Boys ages 16 and over and adult members are now enjoying the use of the pool tables on the second floor of the Club. The two tables have been reconitioned right down to the slate top—with new felt covers, new cushions and pockets. Cues are available at the Club—however if you have your own—bring it along. Come over and try your skill. Competition will be set up later in the season.

Pointe Theater Tackles Big Set

The new year promises to be one of innovations for the Grosse Pointe Community Theater. Installed for the first time in its history will be a turntable for the set of the forthcoming production of Ketti Fring's "Look Homeward, Angel."

A real Broadway style, interior-exterior set was always before thought too complicated and difficult for the stage at the Grosse Pointe High School, but Roger Shepard and his Stagers' class took exception to this idea and are now tackling the problem in the scene shop at the War Memorial garage.

Playing one of the lead roles is John O. Peters, active member and past-president of the Players and one of the first members of the GPCT. Mr. Peters acted in the Grosse Pointe Community Theater's first production, "Clarence," way back in 1949 and also played in their Eastland production of "Third Best Sport" in the summer of 1960.

Ketti Fring's adaptation of Thomas Wolfe's novel was one of Broadway's biggest successes, winning both the Pulitzer Prize and the New York Critics' Award in the same year, 1958. With the departure from standard amateur theater sets, authentic costumes of the period of 1917, fabulous marble statuary and the fine direction of Dean Erskine (four time winner of the GPCT Best Director Award) "Look Homeward, Angel" should give the Grosse Pointe area patrons a true flavor of big time theater in their own backyard the evenings of Friday, February 2, and Saturday, February 3.

Pointe Hockey League Results

The following are the scores and standings of the Grosse Pointe Hockey League at the week ending January 6.

 Wolverines 15—Ravens 0.

STANDINGS

	W	L	T	P
Chiefs	8	0	0	16
Cardinals	5	3	0	10
Wolverines	3	5	0	6
Ravens	0	8	0	0

The Chiefs extended their lead on first place to six points Saturday as they set back the Cardinals 5 to 2. The Cardinals looked as though they were on their way to handing the Chiefs their first loss of the season as the first period ended with the Chiefs on the short end of a 1 to 0 score. However, a stalwart defense and good goal tending by Bill Noecker led the Chiefs into a 2 to 1 second period. In the third period the Cardinals began to alter as the Chiefs came back strong. Zink played his usual strong game of hard skating, and forechecking. He has an amazing ability to finish a goal. Zink cornered two goals for the Chiefs as teammates Neil, Praught, and Griffin each obtained one.

The Wolverines kept pace with the high-flying Chiefs by trouncing the hapless Ravens 15 to 0.

BANTAMS

Scores: Rebels 4—Eagles 1.

STANDINGS

	W	L	T	P
Rebels	7	0	1	15
Eagles	2	3	2	6
Belltemps	2	4	0	4
Hawks	0	4	1	1

The only game in the Bantam Division this past week end was between the Rebels and the Eagles. Pat Reid had been nursing his players along and pointing them for the game this week since his disappointing tie with the Hawks last week. After a quick opening goal within the first few minutes of the first period, it appeared as though the Rebels would go down to their first defeat of the year. A strong defense and good back checking by the Rebels forwards kept the score down as the first period ended in a 1 to 0 score with the Eagles on top.

In the first period the Rebels managed only three shots on goal and had difficulty clearing the puck out of their zone. The second period saw the Rebels score two goals early in the period, and as the period wore on the Rebels seemed to become stronger.

The Eagles were checking the Rebels forwards very closely but overlooked Tom DeShriver, the rushing defenseman of the Rebels, as DeShriver scored his first hat trick of the season (three goals in a game). The other Rebels' goal was scored by Dick Keller. The lone Eagle goal was scored by Blako, assisted by Vivers, with the final score Rebels 4—Eagles 1.

The Belltemps and Hawks were unable to play this week, but will make up their game at a later date. A win for the Belltemps would give them a tie for second place.

MIDGETS

Scores:
 Woods Theatre 9—Rangers 1.
 Royals 6—Flyers 0.

STANDINGS

	W	L	T	P
Royals	6	1	1	13
Woods Thtr.	4	2	2	10
Flyers	2	5	1	5

Leonard Winter's Woods Theatre team smarting from their loss last week to the league leading Royals bounced back Saturday trimming the Rangers 9 to 1. Reid paced the Woods with the hat trick as Cooper scored two goals and Martin, Bertrand, and Watter each scored 1 goal. The lone goal getter for the Rangers was Bockstanz.

The Royals took the measure of the Flyers and shut them out 6 to 0, outskating them and dominating all the play in every period.

The goal getters for the Royals were Reid, Bartholomew with two each, and Mertz, and Miller with one apiece.

Sails and Skis

By Frank McBride

The Grosse Pointe Ski Club is sponsoring its second week-end trip of the season next week. On Friday, January 19, a chartered Greyhound will leave the War Memorial at 5:00 p.m. with a load of skiers bound for "This Ole House" in Conway.

"This Ole House" long a popular summer resort was purchased by a young energetic group two years ago who have made it into a year around lodge.

The group will ski one day at Nub's Nob and the other at Boyne Mountain. The charge for members is $41.00 and guests $44.00. Anyone interested in the trip should contact the Center, TU 1-7511 at their earliest convenience to insure a reservation.

The trip to northern Michigan ski areas has been made a real delight recently with the opening of another stretch of the limited access road, Interstate 75 which will eventually stretch from the Ohio border to Sault Ste. Marie.

It is now possible to travel from Brighton, or as we prefer to get on at Grand Blanc, to Waters which is just south of Gaylord now stop. Except for a short distance between Clare and Midland where the two way traffic is routed over one side of the dual highway it is super highway all the way. For those going farther north you can get back on the super highway at Indian River and go approximately 15 miles north of the Mackinac Bridge.

When traveling on the new road there are two signs to keep in mind. Going north the first is the exit indicating Midland to the left. This is just south of Waukawlin and the other is beyond Midland which indicates to Clare. You do not actually go through these cities, but must bear off in that direction.

The country side looks so different on the new road. It is a real pleasure to see nature in her fullest instead of hundreds of signs advertising everything from sea shells to snakes.

An important experience to avoid on the new highway is that of running out of gas. There is not a single stop on this road. You want to make sure that you have topped off your fuel tank just before entering the road-way. The long periods of sustained high speed driving plus the often encountered strong head winds will find you using more gas than normal. From Grosse Pointe to Gaylord now takes about four hours with good driving conditions. Remember, don't expect that around the next curve you will find a gas station, because it just isn't there.

Fishing Derby At Metro Beach
 The Ninth Annual Ice Fishing Derby will be held at Metropolitan Beach along Lake St. Clair near Mt. Clemens on Saturday, January 13, from 7 a.m. to 1 p.m. with prizes awarded to the top perch catches of the day in several classifications.

Entries are open to men, women and children and entry forms are available at Metropolitan Beach. Long a favorite spot with fishermen, perch are found in the canals, boat basin, marina area, Black Creek and Lake St. Clair at the 550-acre park.

James J. Pompo, beach manager, stated that the event is sponsored by the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority, a five-county regional park agency serving Livingston, Macomb, Oakland, Washtenaw and Wayne. Metropolitan Beach is one of several recreational sites of the Authority.

There are no entry fees, no parking charges or other charges except for food and bait. The Bait and Tackle Shop where spud bars, pails and scoops may be rented and bait is available, will be open as well as the heated Food Bar, restrooms, 6,000-car parking lot and two natural ice rinks.

For details persons may contact Metropolitan Beach by phoning WO 3-3022 or HO 3-4581 (Mt. Clemens).

Austin JV Takes 20th League Win

by Bob Moore

Austin High's Junior Varsity basketball team won its 20th straight game in league play with a 60-35 decision over St. Joe's last Friday. An Austin JV team hasn't lost a league game since January 8, 1960, over two years ago.

The taller Austin squad sped to an 18-5 first quarter lead, and had a 25-5 margin midway in the second quarter when Coach Blondin put in his second string. After a 33-16 halftime score, Austin scored 14 straight points and ended the 3rd quarter with a 50-25 lead. In the fourth quarter St. Joe's played on equal terms with the Friars, both teams scoring 10 points.

Austin's Bill Connolly led both teams with 14 points. Bill is the younger brother of Walt Connolly, Austin's all-Catholic guard in 1960. Jack Sweeney hit for 9, and Ted Peters scored 7 for the Friars. The only St. Joe's player in double figures was Wieneck with 10 points.

Good judgment comes from experience—the lessons we learn from using poor judgment.

Two more mid-week trips are planned in January. On Wednesday evening the 24th at 6 o'clock the club will go to Alpine and on the 31st to Mt. Holy. In each case the charge and arrangements will be the same as for Mt. Christie, $3.50 for members including hot supper and chartered round trip deluxe bus transportation and $1 more for guests.

On February 9, the Grosse Pointe Ski Club is sponsoring a week-end trip to the new Crystal Mountain area for the first time. The group will stay right at the slopes in the brand new lodge and chalets with their adjacent heated swimming pool.

The first 24 members who make paid reservations will be accommodated in the chalets at $39 for the entire week-end including meals, lodging, round trip bus transportation, all lift charges and pool privileges. Other members and guests will be accommodated in the main lodge under the same trip package at $4 more for members, $7 more for guests.

Austin Wallops St. Joe Cagers

By Bob Moore

Austin High's cagers rebounded from last month's one point loss to U-D with a 71-38 victory over St. Joseph's Friday night. The win raised the Friars' league record to 21 and leaving them tied for second place in the Central League. In all games, their record is 4-2.

As usual, the Friars started out slowly, leading at the end of the first quarter 14-8. Doug Winkworth's eight points in the second quarter carried Austin to a 31-20 halftime lead. In the second half the Friars came alive, outscoring the Bluejays 20-6 and 20-12.

Austin looked particularly strong in rebounding. The front line of Rick Pine, Bob Hitt, and Sam McKnight dominated both boards. The Friar's shooting did not look impressive. St. Joe's showed some fine outside shooting in the first half.

Game scoring honors went to St. Joe's forward Stempion who had 15 points. His teammates, 6-6 center Straebien and guard Martilletti hit for seven each. Center Bob Hitt scored 14 points for the Friars. Rick Pine netted 13, Doug Winkworth 12, and Dan Steffes, eight.

Tuesday Austin played De La Salle, but the game was played too late to make this issue. Friday Austin will host Salestian.

Ski Club Plans Full Schedule

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Grosse Pointe Ski Club following their showing of Jim Farnsworth's personally narrated ski movie "This Thing Called Skiing" tonight Wednesday, January 10, at 8 p.m. at the Center, is launching a full schedule of Ski Trips.

On Wednesday evening, January 17, at 6 o'clock a group will leave by chartered deluxe bus for Mt. Christie. Hot bus suppers will be served aboard and everyone will get in three good hours of skiing before returning to the Center at midnight. The charge including supper and round trip bus transportation is $3.50 for ski club members; $1 more for guests. A special group rate tow charge has been arranged at the area. Paid reservations should be arranged at once at the Center, 32 Lake Shore, TU 1-7511.

On Friday evening, January 19, at 5 o'clock sharp the Grosse Pointe Ski Club will leave in a chartered Greyhound for a week-end's skiing at both Boyne Mt. and Nub's Nob. They will stay at "This Ole House" in Conway, Michigan returning Sunday night, January 21, at midnight. Included in the trip package will be meals, lodging, ski charges at both Nub's and Boyne, round trip Greyhound transportation and shuttle service to and from the slopes. The fee for Grosse Pointe Ski Club members is $41; the cost to other interested skiers is $3 more. Paid reservations should be sent in to the Center at once. Only 35 persons may be accommodated.

Free Throws Important
 The determining factor in the game was St. Paul's accuracy from the free throw line. The Lakers hit 24 of 28 tries against 10 of 15 for St. Lad's, while St. Lad's made 18 buckets and St. Paul 15.

Jack Wachter not only took game scoring honors, but connected for 13 straight free throws as he scored 19 points.

The members of the undefeated St. Paul Basketball squad are beginning to believe that the foul play can be very important in winning ball games.

The Lakers used the play in two very different ways as they posted victories over highly rated St. Ladislaus and Servite, 54-46 and 56-30 respectively.

In their home debut against St. Ladislaus, the Lakers first to overcome a one point first quarter deficit then play a season second quarter to take a 20-19 half time lead.

The third quarter, however, proved to be the deciding session as St. Paul outscored the opposition 16-9 and took a 36-28 lead.

Eleven St. Paul players played eight of these scoring as St. Paul took the 26 point victory. Gary Schick poured in a total of 23 points, nine field goals, and five free throws, as he took a game maverick. Steve Handlos was second with 12.

St. Paul's next opponent will be once defeated St. Anthony, who will be attempting to snap St. Paul's winning streak to 14.

Early Aviation Lecture Subject

Eighty rare pictures, collected from many countries, will illustrate a lecture on historical aviation to be given at War Memorial Center, on Friday, January 12 at 8 p.m. by Grosse Pointe Leslie S. Gillette, R.A.F. pilot of World War I. The public is invited and admission is free.

Entitled "Early Wings of Man - Part I" Mr. Gillette's 50 minute presentation traces the conquest of the air from the inventions of Leonardo Di Vinci up to the scout planes at outbreak of World War I in 1914.

Even though actual photographs taken 50-60 years ago are used to depict milestones of aviation accomplishments, Mr. Gillette's talk is not technical. His lecture is within the reach of anyone who is slightly air-minded.

High spots of his photographic slide collection include first man to fly 1783... hot air balloons... steam-powered planes... first aircraft in combat 1860... earliest gliders... original flights of Wright Brothers... first European planes... original U.S. Army airships and planes... rotary engines... original landings on battlefields... mass passenger carriers... first armed planes... first cabin plane... record making planes of Curtiss, Bleriot, Farman, etc.

Mr. Gillette has spent over 20 years assembling his illustrations and data. His research on foreign development has taken him into archieves of France, Germany and England.

This highly educational program is a hobby of his and he has almost completed Part II "War Birds of 1914-1918" to be presented later.

As this former war pilot was personally familiar with many of the aircraft to be shown on the screen, he is prepared to answer any technical questions after the lecture. So, if you want to know the gyroscopic effect of rotary engines on left hand turns, here's your chance to get first hand information.

Scholarships Sought by 30

Thirty Grosse Pointe High School students have applied for Regents-Alumni Scholarships to the University of Michigan. Such scholarships provide between $50 and $560 in financial aid, depending upon need.

Last year, nine Grosse Pointe High School students, selected on the basis of character, citizenship, academic achievement and potential, and financial need, received this award.

This year's thirty applicants completed their final step in applying for Regents-Alumni Scholarships on Tuesday, December 12, when they were interviewed by six University of Michigan representatives at Grosse Pointe High School.

The interviews, aimed at getting more information about the applicants before making any final decisions, lasted from 7:30 until 10:30 o'clock.

The interviewers, all members of the Grosse Pointe University

Slippery Streets Produce Crashes

A rash of minor accidents kept City police busy all day Saturday, January 6, as freezing rain made it easier to skate down Grosse Pointe's streets than drive over them.

The first accident was reported at 10:03 a. m., when Norman Lee Jackson, 26, 2227 Baldwin, Detroit, drove his '60 Buick over an icy patch in the street in front of 824 Notre Dame and slid into an Edison pole. The pole was undamaged, but the car had to be towed away.

Then Georgiana O'Connor, 68 Muskoka, tried to brake her '59 Renault in front of 416 Lake-land and slid sideways into the front of a parked car owned by Charlotte Brachen, 15433 Mack, Detroit. The towers collected the Renault.

At 11:27 a. m., James J. Bocca, 388 Lincoln, attempted to get his '60 Corvette up the driveway of his home; he failed and slipped backwards into a car driven by Mrs. Barbara Coates, 516 Sheldon. Adena M. Wright, 360 Neff, who tried to get into her driveway at 12:43 p. m., suffered the same fate as Bocca; her car was hit by a '56 Oldsmobile driven by Eugene E. Grew, 23, 780 Neff, who went over the curb in a vain attempt to avoid a collision.

Another ice victim was Ernest B. Kelly, Jr., 615 University, whose '61 Chevrolet slid into a parked '56 Ford owned by Stephen Henkel in front of Henkel's home, 768 Loraine.

Apparently the ice in front of 323 Rivard was particularly treacherous. Two accidents happened there, the first involving Washburne D. Wright of Glyn-oh, Mich., whose '62 Chevrolet skidded into parked cars owned by Bernard Stempleton, 323 Rivard, and George Beyer, 333 Rivard; the second a minor collision involving Andrew McSkimming, 17440 Jefferson, and Ralph W. Simonds, 324 Beaupre.

One or two other minor accidents were also reported, despite the fact that City officials ordered salting on all the side streets. Normally, only intersections and especially hazardous spots are salted, as the salt tends to kill lawns, but in this case it was decided that public safety demanded a more thorough salting.

No tickets were issued Saturday, and no motorists were injured, but quite a few cars were undergoing repairs Monday morning.

of Michigan Club, conferred on final recommendations until 1 o'clock in the morning. Mr. David Tennent, head of the interviewers, divided his men into three teams of two each; each applicant was allotted approximately 15 minutes before one of these committees, in which to answer questions ranging from financial plans to participation in community activities.

Applicants will know whether or not they have been awarded a scholarship on or shortly after April 10.

Vandals Invade Pierce School

Unknown persons, believed to be teenagers, broke into the Pierce Junior High School sometime Saturday night, January 6, but did not take anything.

Park Det. Lt. Arnold Hough said that entrance into the school was made through an unlocked window of a classroom at the rear of the building. The break-in was discovered on Sunday, January 7, by police making a routine check of property. The person, or persons, ripped a phone off a wall in the school and used the receiver to smash door windows of an office and the school library, that were entered. Lt. Hough said that nothing appeared to be missing from the school.

DRIVER FINED $25

John Elden Jay, 831 Lincoln, was fined $25 on January 5 by City Judge Douglas L. Paterson. Jay, charged with reckless driving and causing an accident, stood mute, and was found guilty of not stopping within an assured clear distance.

Motor Trend Magazine makes it official: 1962 car of the year!

From the very first we knew we had a winner. Happy owners, car enthusiasts raved about the 1962 Buick Special with the history-making Fireball V-6 engine. Now the editors of Motor Trend—one of the country's top car magazines—have made it official. After road-testing and evaluating all U.S. cars, they've named the V-6 Special "Car of the Year!" Here's how they put it:

"Motor Trend's CAR OF THE YEAR AWARD to the 1962 Buick for pure progress in design, original engineering excellence, and the power concept for the future expressed in America's only V-6 automobile engine!"

Why are the car experts so hot on this exclusive Buick engine? Only a V-6 can combine the extra vigor and smoothness of V-design with the gas savings of a straight six. This 135 H.P. V-6 weighs up to 140 pounds less than other sizes of comparable power. It sips regular gas ever so sparingly.

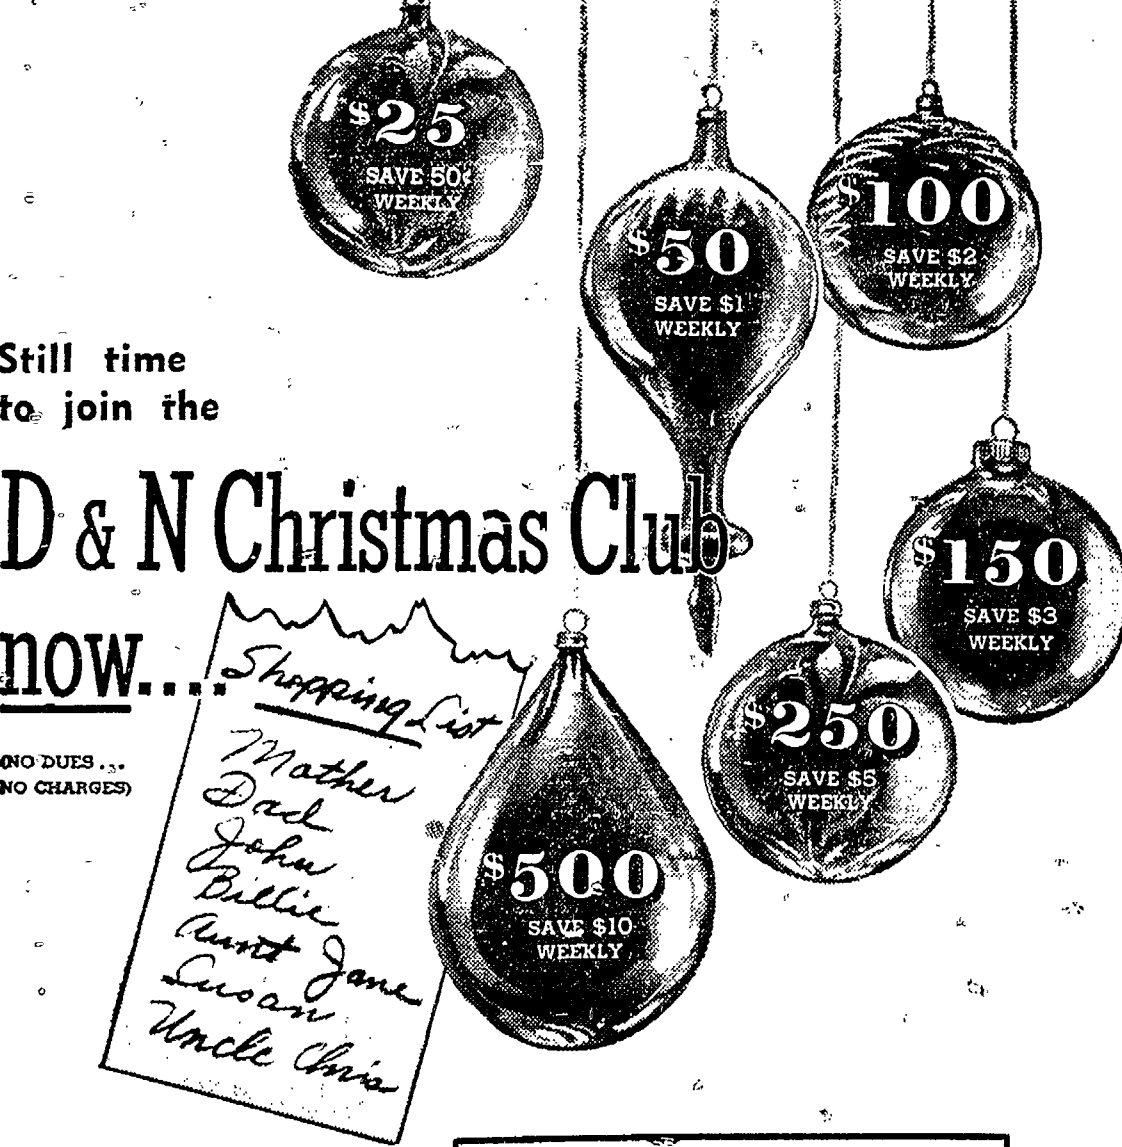

But why go on? Ask your Buick dealer to let you drive a V-6 Buick Special. There are five beautiful models, including a fabulous new convertible. Drop in soon and see how easy it is to make the "Car of the Year" your very own.

Speed Reading Class at Center

Evelyn Wood Reading Dynamics, a unique and proven process which permits persons to increase their reading speed from four to ten times, has come to the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. Enrollment for the winter term beginning Wednesday, January 17, from 7 to 9:30 p.m. is being accepted at the Center, TU 1-7511, now.

The operating principal of Evelyn Wood Reading Dynamics is direct triggering of the mind by the eye. Reading rapidly down the page the common habits of saying, hearing or thinking of words are eliminated.

As a result, the average person who reads from 250 to 350 words per minute can expect to increase his reading speed to from 1,000 to 2,500 words per minute following the course. Through continued application, this speed can be increased to 5,000 to 6,000 words per minute.

Reading Dynamics can be applied to any reading material—light reading, study reading and technical materials. While the reading speed between a novel with obvious continuity and a highly technical writing will vary, all types of material should be read from four to 10 times the person's beginning rate following completion of the course.

A person's comprehension and retention through Evelyn Wood Reading Dynamics remain at least at the same level. No claims of increased comprehension or retention are made, but students find that the ability to read more at one, uninterrupted sitting allows greater continuity.

The classes are offered to anyone Junior High School age and above. The most important factors for success in the course are average reading ability and diligent daily practice.

MRS. ETHEL M. KEEN
Mrs. Keen, 80, of 33 Westwind lane, died Saturday, January 6, in Bon Secours Hospital after a short illness.

Born in Cincinnati, where her father, Robert M. Morgan, founded the United States Playing Card Co., she moved to Detroit about 60 years ago. Her husband, the late Albert S. Keen, was owner of the Detroit Oak Belting Co.

Mrs. Keen was a member of the Detroit Club, the Country Club of Detroit, Women's City Club and Christ Church, Grosse Pointe.

There are no immediate survivors.

Services were Tuesday, January 9, at the William R. Hamilton Co. chapel, and burial was in Elmwood cemetery.

WALTER L. DANIELS
Mr. Daniels, of Eau Gallie, Fla., formerly of Grosse Pointe Woods, died Saturday, December 30, in Melbourne, Fla. He was 52.

Survivors include his wife, Marie H.; a daughter, Mrs. Arlene Grethel; two brothers; a sister; and three grandchildren.

Services were Thursday, January 4, at the A. H. Peters Funeral Home, Mack and Vernier, and St. Anthony Church, where Mr. Daniels was a member of the Holy Name Society. Burial was in Mt. Olivet cemetery.

Business and professional persons and students compose the majority of the students. Developed by Mrs. Evelyn N. Wood, an assistant professor at the University of Delaware, Reading Dynamics has proved its worth in numerous cities across the United States. The sessions involve 12 weeks, with two and one-half hour classes once weekly. The course involves 30 hours of classroom instruction with special help and tutoring if needed. Extra counseling and services of the Institute are available beyond the 12 weeks period.

Will Face Court On Two Charges

Mrs. Floy E. Reisener, 53, of 16730 Chandler Park drive, Detroit, posted a bond of $100, pending a court appearance before Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger on January 24. Mrs. Reisener was arrested by Park police on Saturday, December 30, and charged with driving without due care and caution and causing an accident. Police said she was involved in an accident at Fairfax and Nottingham. She struck a parked car, pushing it into another parked vehicle and then hitting the second car. Following this, her vehicle jumped the curb and struck a fire hydrant. Mrs. Reisener was going east on Fairfax, police said, when she collided with a car at the curb belonging to a rental firm and leased by Elizabeth Zenn of 245 Dean lane, pushing this car into a car belonging to Fred Weissel of 881 Nottingham. Mrs. Reisener's car then swerved and struck the right side of Weissel's car. The woman was taken to the station where she was given two tickets, and was held until her bond was posted.

Noted Preacher Pointe Visitor

Dr. George A. Buttrick, one of America's greatest preachers and scholars, will preach at both services (9:30 and 11:15) on Sunday, January 14, in the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. Dr. Buttrick after 28 years as minister of the famous Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church of New York City became in 1950 preacher to Harvard University. He is the author of several books on "Prayer" and on the "Parables of Jesus" and was "editor-in-chief" of the 12-volume "Interpreter's Bible" which is considered by many the most useful work on the Bible published in our generation. Dr. Buttrick will spend three days at Memorial Church meeting with small groups, and will address the Women's Association at their monthly meeting on Tuesday morning, and will speak to the Men of the Church Tuesday night at the War Memorial at dinner. Sunday night he will speak to the Tuxis Youth Group, and Monday night to the Couples' Club and Fortnighters. Dr. Buttrick will also meet with small groups to discuss practical helps in prayer. Registrations for the small groups and discussions can be made through the Church Office. All women of the community are invited to hear Dr. Buttrick at the meeting on Tuesday morning at 10, and all men are invited to dinner at the War Memorial by making reservations through the church office.

Fire Damages Home in Park

A fire in the home of R. H. Tate, 1372 Kensington, ruined an upstairs bedroom and caused smoke damage throughout the house. Park Fire Chief George de-Caussin said that the origin of the fire is unknown. He said that on Friday, January 5, an alarm was sounded at 7:03 p.m., and all equipment was dispatched to the house. The firefighters put out the fire in 15 minutes. All the bedroom furnishings were destroyed, the chief said. The quick work of the personnel of his department prevented the fire from spreading to other parts of the house, valued at $35,000, the chief added. The total amount of damage is not known, since this will have to be checked by insurance adjusters.

INJURES FOOT IN FALL

Carol Kuntzler, 18, of 1235 Roslyn road, slipped and fell on the icy sidewalk in front of her home on Friday, January 5, while on her way to school and injured her right foot. She was taken to the office of Dr. Clarence Candler, Woods City Physician, who treated the injury.

Woods Council Accepts Bids for Projects

At its regular meeting on Monday, January 8, the Grosse Pointe Woods City Council voted to accept the low bid of $1866.86 submitted by Taylor's on Van Dyke, Inc. for a standard transmission, 8-cylinder 1/2-ton minimum panel type delivery truck. This truck will be used as a dog wagon and for general hauling uses. Council also awarded the contract for hockey rink lighting in Ghesquiere Park. Low bidder was Hydron Brand Company, which was awarded the contract.

For both hockey rink and tennis court lighting, in the sum of $9650. The City attorney informed the Council that he had secured an option to sell a parcel of property on Marter road from the present owners, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Daniels. Acquisition of this property is necessary for the dedication of Marter road and erection of the new DPW garage. Council authorized purchase of this property on behalf of the City.

GPUS News Notes

The Grosse Pointe University School Annual Christmas Program was presented on December 20. Marking the final school event before the holidays, it was attended by students in grades seven through twelve. Upper School faculty, and a number of parents.

The musical director was Mr. David M. Arner. In charge of dramatics was Mrs. Carol Head. Mr. Robert Vaillancourt, art instructor, painted the representation of a Gothic window for the auditorium wall. Miss Mary Stephens, of the 8th grade, designed the cover for the program, which was printed by Mrs. Ruth Crouchman. The lighting, which was very effectively arranged, was in the hands of three 11th grade students, Curt Stokitt, Bill Rembacki and Jeff Seyler.

The program began with the G.P.U.S. Band's rendition of Handel's Aria and Fugue followed by "Three Songs for Christmas" by Clare Grundman. Then came a reading of "The Christmas Tree," by Francis X. Weiser, given by Jean Worley and Dan Piggins. The faculty ensemble next sang Praetorius' "Lo, How a Rose E'g Blooming," and the traditional carol "Ding-Dong, Merrily on High." Ensemble members are Anne Fenech, Irene Rosenfeld, Elizabeth Ferguson, Cecily Bay, John Chandler, Anastas Pavezic, Richard Trim, Earl Kimber, and Robert Vaillancourt.

Miss Worley and Mr. Piggins read "The Adoration of the Shepherds," from Luke, II, 1-16. The G.P.U.S. Glee Club sang "The Green Cathedral" and "Happy Flocks in Safety Wander," the latter with a flute accompaniment by Hilda Jongkind and Lynn Rosenfeld, of the 11th and 12th grades respectively. The assembly ended with carol singing by audience and glee club.

In the summer of 1962 there will be another group of young ladies taking a study travel tour to France and Switzerland. Conducting the tour will be Mrs. Edward Lynch, head of the French Department. In addition to formal French instruction by Mrs. Lynch, as the trip proceeds, there will be chances to hear lectures by native instructors in various parts of France. The group will also avail themselves of the services of French-speaking guides.

This is the week that G.P.U.S. students will be submitting manuscripts to the annual Southeastern Michigan Scholastic Writing Awards competition sponsored by The Detroit News. Its purpose is to stimulate interest in effective creative writing. Winners are announced in March after a series of intensive judging sessions by teachers from the metropolitan area. In charge of the contest at G.P.U.S. is Mrs. Katherine Welchenbach.

Guest speaker at the winter assembly of the G.P.U.S. Cum Laude Society was Dr. Donald Sweeney, '33, one of the school's very few summa cum laude graduates. A physician of the highest reputation, Dr. Sweeney was introduced by his own high school Latin teacher, Mr. Francis J. ("Coach") McCann, who lauded his former pupil's achievements both as student and athlete. Dr. Sweeney's topic was "Knowledge and Action—Essentials of Americanism."

The society's student president, Harrop Miller, '62, welcomed the following twelfth-grade students into membership: Justine Trubej, Rosalie Morrison, Anne Wood, Brooke Janis, and Lynn Rosenfeld. To be accepted, one must have attained grades of distinction during one's high school career. Members already in the society are Harrop Miller, president, John VanDeGraaf, Patricia Birmingham, and Philip Angell. Faculty members are Miss Elizabeth Ferguson, secretary, Mr. Francis J. McCann, treasurer, Mr. Earl Kimber, Mr.

Police Ticket Drunk Driver

Clarence L. Edmunds, 48, of 683 Fairford, was arrested by Woods police on Wednesday, January 3, and charged with driving while under the influence of alcohol.

According to Patrolman Harold Lanstra, Edmunds was observed turning right onto Mack avenue from Beaufait, then driving south on Mack at speeds in excess of the posted limit, and weaving from side to side in his lane. He narrowly missed hitting other cars, the officer said.

Edmunds turned left at Fairholme at a high rate of speed and was stopped by Lanstra before traveling too far. Edmunds had been drinking, and when ordered out of his car, he staggered and his speech appeared slurred, the policeman said.

The motorist was taken to the station, where Lansra gave him a ticket for violating the State Drunk Law. Edmunds admitted having been at a bar and was on his way to visit friends when arrested.

Edmunds posted a bond of $75 pending an appearance before Woods Judge Don Grogan on Saturday, January 13.

Youth to Face Robbery Charge

A 14-year-old Detroit boy has been arrested by City police and is charged with breaking and entering Miller's Standard Service, 16821 Kercheval at Cadieux, some time between 1 and 2 a.m. on the morning of Sunday, December 31.

The boy, implicated in several similar Detroit-area robberies, drove to the gas station in a stolen car. He entered by breaking a window and over-head door, pried open a cigarette machine, from which he collected $8, and stole $6 from the cash register.

The juvenile also stole a flashlight and the keys to a truck generally left parked at the station.

Police recovered the flashlight and the keys. The boy had already spent the money. He will be tried in Juvenile Court later in the month.

Traffic Safety Group Reports

Nine persons died in Grosse Pointe-Harper Woods traffic since the beginning of the year, according to a monthly report submitted by the Grosse Pointe Safety and Traffic Committee.

The report disclosed that during November, the Shores had the only fatality of the month. Since January 1, 1961, the Shores recorded three fatal accidents, Harper Woods had four, and the Farms had two.

During November, the six communities reported a total of 34 non-fatal traffic accidents (accidents resulting in injuries). The Farms and Harper Woods disclosed nine each; the City reported eight; the Shores, four; the Park, three; and the Woods, one.

The total number of non-fatal accidents during the past 11 months is 201; Park, 62; Harper Woods, 58; Farms, 48; City, 34; Woods, 32; and the Shores, 17.

The total number of property damage accidents since January is 881, with the Harper Woods leading with 239; followed by the Farms with 209; Park, 170; City, 138; Woods, 112; and the Shores, 43.

Last month, the property damage was: Harper Woods, 26; Farms, 19; Woods, 13; Park, 10; City, eight; and Shores, four.

Ministers Meet On January 17

On the third Wednesday of each month, the Grosse Pointe Ministerial Association meets for breakfast at one of the member churches.

At its meeting on January 17, the association will have the privilege of hearing from a distinguished member of the Academy of Certified Social Workers, Edwin Holmberg.

Mr. Holmberg is presently a visiting teacher in the Grosse Pointe School System and his subject for this meeting will be "The Relationship of the Church to the Public School System."

The group of ministers, under the leadership of the Rev. Mr. George Kurz, will assemble at 8 a.m. at the Grosse Pointe Methodist Church. The group will begin the meeting with devotions led by the Rev. Mr. James D. Nixon of the host church. Breakfast will follow, at which time Mr. Holmberg will make his presentation.

Police Arrest Teen Imbiber

An off-duty Woods patrolman, attending a movie at the Woods Theater on Friday, January 5, arrested a teenager in possession of three bottles of wine.

Officer Everett Plumb was in the theater, enjoying a movie, when he noticed a 16-year-old Detroit boy, sitting in a seat holding a bottle of wine. When the officer approached him, the boy attempted to hide the bottle under his jacket.

Plumb identified himself as a police officer and confiscated the wine. He also confiscated two more bottles found in the boy's overcoat pockets.

The patrolman called the Woods station and a scout car was dispatched to pick up the boy and Plumb. At the station, the boy stated that he purchased the wines from stores in Detroit.

The teenager said that he would call a store and order a bottle of wine, informing the proprietor that there will be no one at home and that he will leave the money in the milk chute. He named the stores from whom he got the wines.

He also told police that he never called while his parents were home, but would wait until they had gone to work.

Detroit police were called and the boy was released to them along with the wine as evidence.

GOPs to Make Annual Awards

The 14th Congressional Republican Committee will present its Delegate of the Year Awards on January 11. This year, $25 Savings Bonds will go to Mrs. Elizabeth Williams, 5695 Harding, and Donald Barnes, 2225 Burns.

These delegates had the greatest Republican increase among the precincts in the District. The awards will be presented at 8 p.m. at Republican Headquarters, 15316 East Warren. All are very welcome.

Due to the immense size of the 14th Congressional District, the Republican Committee in the 14th District will open an auxiliary office at 8223 Gratiot near Van Dyke, to supplement its main Headquarters in Warren avenue. Open House will be held on January 12, at 8 p.m. Coffee and donuts a la politique will be served to all who would like to come.

Offers Evening Painting Class

An evening painting class open to both beginners and more advanced students interested in portraiture and life painting is being offered at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center on Monday evenings beginning January 15 from 7:30 to 10:30 o'clock.

The instructor will be Steve Davis, one of the few really great portrait artists in this area who is, however, equally adept at landscape and still life.

Mr. Davis starts beginners learning form, light and shadow with charcoal and pencil drawings. Then they move on to pastels. Most think of pastel work as something delicate, but Mr. Davis uses them boldly and with force.

Ten three-hour class sessions are offered for $27. To enroll call the Center, TU 1-7511.

A New Concept in Living For years, it has been quite common to be a "two-car" family. For the remainder of mankind it will be extremely wise to be a "two-home" family, our regular home and our "emergency home." WHY? The consensus is a deliberately planned nuclear war may be quite unlikely. Simply because the mutual deterrent of nuclear terror is very great. BUT! CONVENTIONAL WAR is and will always be a certainty. In the past, all world conflicts were fought on foreign soil. In the present Missile age, it will also be fought on home soil. This type of war would mean the loss of many lives, perhaps as many as 10% of our population. However, it would mean that living would still be worth while and we could recover as have most nations in the past. It would mean that even with an all-out conventional attack our children would survive in their schools, our husbands at work and out of town and all could gather in their "emergency home" as a family after the attack. You should therefore be thankful that you still have the opportunity to see the plans for this "emergency home." It is a Conventional Bomb Shelter, built underground of steel and concrete, designed by structural engineers and built by outstanding builders who have had the actual experience of building this "emergency home" which has been described by local and national experts as the best. And one which exceeds, by far, every Civil Defense specification. We have completed "homes" in the area for your inspection. As it should be, the emergency home is equipped with the finest Diesel generator to provide the same vital necessities of our regular home, such as: • HEAT • LIGHT • COOKING • REFRIGERATION • AUTOMATIC AIR SUPPLY • CONSTANT WATER SUPPLY • FINEST SANITATION • ADEQUATE LIVING SPACE This "emergency home" would be vitally important in the event of other calamities such as tornado, fire, breakdown of present utilities, etc. As experts agree, a nuclear war could happen—thru an error—miscalculation—a third nation—a madman—vengeance, etc. In such an event your "emergency home" would also solve the problem of "fallout" and a very high degree of the blast itself. IN CONCLUSION A shelter program is neither an individual nor a national act of fear. It IS an individual and national act of prudence. Possibly a shelter will never have to be used, but in the words of Nicholas Rosa, associate editor of Science World, "It is better to have these things and not need them than to need them and not have them." If you prefer not to think about this vital problem, disregard this article—on the other hand if you are willing to face reality and to invest in the future, call us and we will be glad to discuss this further. Time to Take Stock

Fires always engender sympathy for the victims and the two blazes which wiped out three business establishments last Thursday night had a special impact on a great many residents. The owners of Sidney's Valet Service, Beaupre Hardware and Al Green's on the Hill have all been widely known to Pointers for years; their friendships are legion and the services they have rendered have been great.

Fortunately no serious injuries attended either of the fires. We hope the proprietors of the several establishments have ample insurance protection and that they will all be back in business as quickly as possible.

Perhaps it is time once again to review the fire protection situation in the community of the Five Points. For years this has been a much-debated question. The Park and the City took the leadership in trying to set up a consolidated department, something which this paper has always advocated, along with a merger which would bring the four cities and one village into a single municipality. The best experts available have made surveys and recommendations for such a consolidation but the advice has gone unheeded.

The Mutual Aid Fire Protection Pact was signed after years of meetings and arguments and the officials of the various municipalities involved seemed satisfied that this would answer the question. But without pretending to be an expert, it seems to us that last Thursday's experience clearly indicates that something is lacking in the present system.

The Farms has been so unfortunate as to be the locale of the majority of the fires which have produced criticism. It was a particularly bad break to have two major conflagrations start almost simultaneously, as they did last Thursday night, again in the Farms. With the equipment of that city tied up at the valet and hardware stores' blaze, there was an understandable delay in getting fire fighters from neighboring municipalities on the scene at the restaurant. The Park trucks were the first to arrive.

There is definitely something wrong with a system that dictates the procedure which was followed after the Park firemen found that additional help was needed. Because the restaurant fire was also in the Farms, it was necessary for the Park Chief to obtain permission from the Farms Chief to ask for more outside help. The message was relayed to Chief Mason at the hardware store fire and he had to send back his permission before assistance could be asked from Detroit. And according to some of the Detroit fire officials, when they did get to the blaze there was lack of direction, which is so important in a critical situation like this.

A similar occurrence of two big fires starting at the same time in the same city may never happen again, but it could. It would seem the proper time to take stock of the system now in use, and make any changes deemed necessary.

Letters To The Editor

To the Editor: May the writer publicly express his enthusiasm for the recently announced proposed curriculum to teach American ideals and the unpleasant truths of Communism. Yours for a better Grosse Pointe and a greater America, Sincerely, WILMER A. What Goes On at Your Library

by Jean Taylor

If you belong to that ubiquitous fraternity of collectors, whether your special concern be stamps, limericks, guns or epitaphs, you will find your interest shared by others in all corners of the globe.

Hobbyists with unusual collections are continually coming to light. We know of a woman who collects church spires. This collection, she will tell you, may be had at no cost, poses no storage problem, and needs no insurance. It is indelibly etched on a remarkable memory.

Barnaby Conrad and Clifton Fadiman are two enthusiastic collectors of "curtain lines." Mr. Conrad has compiled a collection of these terminal utterances in a recent book, FAMOUS LAST WORDS. It is alphabetically arranged and covers everybody from Archimedes and Aristotle to Rommel and Roosevelt. These final bon mots in most cases reveal grace, courage and sometimes wry humor.

Anna Pavlova, famous for the dance from The Death of the Swan, saw her own dying in terms of the art to which she had dedicated her life. "Get my swan costume ready." Shakespeare immortalized Julius Caesar's last words, "Et tu Brute!" Those of Thoreau are also well known. Asked whether he had made his peace with God, Thoreau replied calmly that he was not aware that they had ever quarreled.

When questioned about the fast-approaching hereafter he remarked "One world at a time." "His last words have a great interest is being shown in Dr. James Bushong's coming talk on education in Russia. His speech will be given at the High School gymnasium-auditorium on Thursday, January 18, at 8 o'clock.

Bushong to Give Talk on Russia

The program has been arranged by the Mothers' Club. Mrs. Albert Law, president, urges all Grosse Pointe High parents, friends and interested citizens to attend. Mrs. Louis Carbone, program chairman, knows that Dr. Bushong's stimulating talk will give rise to many questions so she has arranged a question and answer period. Refreshments will be served. Mrs. Robert B. Herdegen and her co-chairman, Mrs. Harry Carson will be assisted by the following in serving tea, coffee and cookies: Mrs. Charles McDonald, Mrs. Edwin Evenden, Mrs. Ben Hubbard, Mrs. Ernest Collins, Mrs. Joseph Reed, Mrs. H. Thomas Ceppeleman and Mrs. Frank Riegler.

Cottage Hospital Holds Election

Officers elected by the medical staff and department heads were E. G. Krieg, M. D., chief of surgery; W. F. Kujawski, M. D., chief of the division of medicine; G. E. B. Rogers, M. D., chief of the division of obstetrics, and H. E. Cross, M. D., who served four terms as chief of the general practice section.

What's New on THE HILL...

By Roberta

HOW TO GET to The Hill poses no problem... but what to get after you get here takes definite plotting. After all, the most lasting bonus of shopping is what you get out of it after you are happily home. To augment your knowledge of what's new on the hill... here we are with ideas for you to make home and just plain ordinary living pleasanter.

The new faces in fabrics, for example, are sensible... rampant with color... or subtle understatement... all new, of course. At any rate, you can achieve what you want in any room of the house, by the yard, at the Wm. Denler and Co. Prices are from little to big when you choose crapes... curtains... upholstery... slipcovers... or bedspreads. What will you have, madame?

A whirl of resort spots take little thought... because it's all planned for you. But what you wear calls for definite planning. That is why we are nudging you in the direction of Margaret Rice's... 76 Kercheval. Her gayest... her greatest resort collections are in... enchanting!

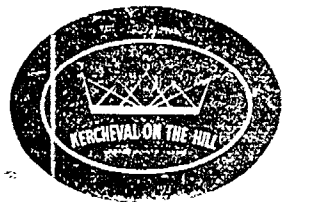

The old rooster in the window of The League Shop dates back to a round 1800... it is part of what was the American Carose. We liked the Mexican mache Lion... ditto the Wilson Bird Print... 1828... and pre-dominantly owls. These prints are tagged forty-five dollars each. Take a look when you're on the Hill.

What is it? An important service. The service of repairing fine watches. Years and years of experience by Grosse Pointe's oldest jewelry store means fine precision work. By all means stake your fine jewelry to Pongracz Jewelers, 91 Kercheval.

The biggest sale event of the year is now in progress at Margaret Rice's. The fact that this is her annual store-wide clearance means that there are exceptional savings in ALL departments.

Tapestry and White Lilac AND Carnation are the delightful scents of the Mary Chess body massage cream at the Trail Apothecary Shop. On special row they sell for one dollar and fifty cents and three dollars per bottle, depending on the size.

We are glad to hear that Al Green will be back on the Hill.

Farms Submits Building Report

The value of property constructed in the Farms during 1961 amount to almost two and a half million dollars, according to a report released by City Engineer Murray M. Smith. The report disclosed that from January 1 through December 31, the Building Department authorized 114 construction permits of all types, for property valued at $2,376,250. Miscellaneous type permits took the lead, numbering 95, with a total valuation of $335,250. There were 13 home construction permits, valued at $573,000; three permits for business, $155,000; and three permits for nonresidential property, valued at $1,313,000. During the entire month of December only five permits were granted, two for residential development, valued at a total of $61,000, and three for miscellaneous building, valued at a total of $14,000. There were no permits requested for business or nonresidential property during the month. Permits were given for construction of a $28,000 home at 167 Moran; and for a $33,000 home at 179 Earl court. One permit was issued for a $7,000 fire repair at 261 McKinley avenue. SET EXAMPLE Before a man sets out to reform the world he should see that his own children have been switched onto the right track.

Marcella Churchill will be instructing her last class at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center on Tuesday evenings beginning January 16, from 8 to 10 o'clock.

Immediately after the 10-week series, she will pack her case and return to her favorite part of the world—the Aegean Sea to capture the sun washed Greek Isles on canvas.

Mrs. Churchill's works currently hang in the Detroit Artists Market featuring Israel and Turkey in her favorite Middle East as well as the cool grandeur of Switzerland.

Mrs. Churchill teaches her students to use full freedom of expression as they work with their opaque water colors on flat surfaces. Often she gives them, abstract forms cut from paper which they are encouraged to arrange to express feelings through position and color.

All Mrs. Churchill's students are taught basic technique. No previous experience is necessary. The student will learn to mix paints, the correct use of brushes, how to apply paint and color dynamics.

Many of the works of Mrs. Churchill's students this fall won critical acclaim. While there will be some class members repeating there are several openings. To enroll, call the Center, TU 1-7511.

100 Liggett Alumnae Feted at Cocktails

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. White Were Hosts Last Sunday; the Frank Donovans Will Greet Alumnae This Sunday at Parties for Discussion of School's Move

Nearly one hundred alumnae of Liggett School, between 1930 and 1935, with their husbands are getting together this week and next to discuss plans for their alma mater's proposed new school in Grosse Pointe Woods.

Hosts at a cocktail party last Sunday, from 5 until 7 o'clock, were Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. White, of Provenal road. Mrs. White, a member of the Liggett Alumnae Board, greeted many acquaintances from her own class of 1935 as well as the 1931 and 1933 graduates.

Among those invited were the Lloyd Marantettes, the John P. Hodgeses, the George Primeaus, the John Stearnes, the Joseph Farleys, the Henry Kohrings, the David Gillises.

Last Sunday and this Sunday Mrs. Frederick S. Ford, campaign co-chairman, and Mrs. H. Bradford Aarons, chairman, with their husbands joined the cocktail groups to discuss progress.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Donovan will perform the honors Sunday, January 14, for friends in the classes of 1930, 1932 and 1934. Mrs. Donovan, who will open her home at 17160 East Jefferson, is a member of Liggett's class of 1934.

Among those attending the Donovan party will be Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adams, Theodore Buttrick, Edward Wunsch, William C. Tost, Martin Butzel, George Parker, Jr., and Donald Flinterman.

"These informative gatherings are 'no' for purposes of fund raising," according to Mrs. Aarons. "As the pace of the Liggett Tomorrow campaign quickens, so does the need to up-date alumnae, parents and numerous other friends of the school, with the plans to relocate Liggett." For the fourth time in its history, Liggett must move to better serve the families of present and future students.

Parties Honor Patty Johnston

June bride-elect Patty Johnston, daughter of the George J. Johnstons of Lakeland avenue was feted at a luncheon and kitchen shower on December 23 by Mrs. Louis Carbone and daughters Lois and Carol, also of Lakeland avenue, and at a dinner and linen shower on December 28 at the home of Miss Jeanne Giroux on Lothrop road.

DAC to Present New Floor Show

Club Bowlers to Be Honored at Dinner Dance, January 27; Annual Election of Officers and International Night on January 31 Also on Agenda

Detroit Athletic Club's January dinner-floor show opening on the 20th, the DAC Bowlers' big dinner-dance function honoring their wives on the 27th, and the club's "International Night" on the 31st are the mixed group events that will keep excitement at high pitch right to the month's end.

Setting the last half of the month in motion at the DAC, both businesswise and socially from the stage side, will be the club's annual election of directors and annual meeting on January 16, all sparked with a wonderfully substantial buffet during the noon-to-8 p.m. hours the polls are open; the past and present directors' formal dinner on the 19th, and the annual Fathers and Sons Party the following afternoon, January 20.

Headlining the floor show (it's to be previewed at both the directors' party and the Father-Son fete) will be the Castie Sisters, a singing trio who really are sisters and who are comparatively new to the supper club scene. Needless to say, Josie, Audrey and Joan Castle are reputed to put over a song with sparkling verve.

In contrast will be the fast magic feats of The Great DeLage and his assistant, Margaret. The five-night floor show gala, continuing through the 26th, excluding Sunday and Monday, will be in the pattern of dinner beginning at 7 p.m., dancing to Ted Huston's orchestra, and the show at 9:30 o'clock.

Voters' League Units to Meet

The Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters Unit meetings for January will be devoted to the timely subject, Foreign Trade, National Study Item for this year. This item is important now because of the U. S. Brownell Plans Square Dance

An introductory Square Dance, open to the public free of charge, is to be held Monday night, January 22, at 8 o'clock in Brownell Junior High School gymnasium.

The dance is specifically for those couples interested in taking up square dancing and will be called at a level to which they can actually get on the floor and dance.

Six of the Grosse Pointe area square dance clubs are sponsoring the dance to excite interest in square dancing for area residents. The clubs are Balance and Swing, Fun Stop Squares, Promenaders, Star-makers, Sels-in-Order, and Silver Spurs, their Chairman, John Matthews, 694 Birch Lane, announces.

Square dancing has become a nationally popular past-time as evidenced by the large number from all over the country who attended the Annual Square Dance Convention in Detroit last summer. It has proved to be a wonderful way for couples to become acquainted in their own community and makes many friendships.

Couples are encouraged to come to the dance and try their hand at square dancing. It will be called by Wes Rea, 914 Hampton, prominently known square dance caller.

The clubs are also sponsoring a series of beginner's square dance lessons starting Monday at 8:15 p.m., January 29, at Mason School gymnasium. This course will be followed by an intermediate and refresher course of lessons. Couples completing these lessons would be dancing at a level that would allow membership into one or more of the square dance clubs. Square dance clubs generally restrict their membership to only those who know how to square dance at the required level.

Ball Sponsored By Boat Club

Saturday night, which definitely was not an evening to consider boating, (other than ice-boating) did not dampen the spirit of the Grosse Pointe Woods Boat Club members, who held their second annual Commodore's Ball, at the Hof-Brau.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Williams headed up the dance committee, and did a wonderful job. Besides the Grand March led by Commodore and Mrs. Steve Gawura, followed by Vice-Commodore and Secretary George and Nancy Young, several special events were held.

Several months ago Mayor Kenneth Koppin donated a compass to the Boat Club, which was incorporated into a permanent trophy to be awarded each year to a Club member for outstanding contribution of time and effort in the interests of the Club.

Mayor Koppin presented the trophy on behalf of the Boat Club to past Commodore Walter Dushane, witnessed by Councilmen Marvin Boutin and David Fairless, and Parks and Recreation Director Don Hallmann.

Gene Schmidt was publicly thanked for his Christmas activities, particularly playing Santa for the last few years to many children of the Boat Club members.

The party was so successful that plans for next year's event were being discussed the same evening by the three hundred members and guests.

Tells of Work As Missionary

The Episcopal Churchwomen of St. Michael's Church had Miss Bernice Jensen as their speaker Monday, January 8, in the Parish Hall.

Miss Jensen also spoke to the women of Christ Episcopal Church on January 9, and to the members of St. Philip and St. Stephen Episcopal Church auxiliary on January 11.

Miss Jensen is a missionary of the Episcopal Church. She began her career in Japan. At the outbreak of World War II she found it necessary to return to the United States. She had to travel westward through the Orient, and enroute a ship she was on was sunk.

She spent the time during the war here in Michigan. Supported by money largely furnished by the United Thank Offering Fund of the Episcopal Churchwomen, she undertook to help migrant workers in western Michigan.

At the end of World War II she stopped in the Philippine Islands on her way back to Japan. She was persuaded to remain in Manila, and now she teaches mornings at a Chinese girls' high school, and is also on the faculty of the University of Manila.

Some people fret because they can't meet expenses, but pity those who meet them on every hand.

In the Cathedral Church of St. Paul on Saturday, ANNA CATHERINE WILLEMS, of Country Club drive, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Willems, of Detroit, was married to Elmer A. Schmidt, Jr., son of the senior Schmidts, of Devonshire road.
The bride wore a short white satin gown and veil and carried white roses. Pauline Schmidt, her only attendant, chose blue velvet with a matching veiled hat. Her flowers were pink carnations.
Robert Schmidt was best man. After the ceremony there was a small reception in the bridegroom's home.
Jr., of Oldbrook lane, was married to Francis Taylor Carlin, of Montreal.
The Lester Ruwes gave a fabulous Russian Easter party with icons and Ukrainian eggs decorating their Touraine road home.
Seven Pointe hostesses opened their homes for teas honoring the Torch drive leaders including Mesdames A. D. Wilkinson, Hugh Daly, Allan Sheldon III, Alfred R. Glancy, Jr., Joseph Schlotman, William M. Day and Charles T. Fisher, Jr.
Mary McKean became the bride of Douglas Roby, Jr., of Ann Arbor.

May
May was of course opera month in Detroit with Mrs. Henry Ford II again doing her outstanding job to promote the seven performances of the New York Metropolitan. It was a glittering first night and week of music at the Masonic Temple.
The Women's Auxiliary to Cottage Hospital produced its perennially popular Kitchen Togs with seven Pointers opening their culinary departments to aid the hospital.
IbeX marked 39 years of club activity with an exhibit of members' handiwork at the War Memorial.
GPYC toasted May with three parties, a mother-daughter luncheon, a bridge fashion show and a dance.
The Little Club again invited neighboring clubs to the invitational spring tennis matches and there were a host of out of town guests for the week end exhibition.
Mitzie Thurber became the bride of Douglas N. Archibald and Lorna Candler wed William B. Hostenstein.

June
The month of weddings and debutantes opened with the Junior Goodwill Four Seasons Mart which was held in Bloomfield this year. The Grosse Pointe Garden Center staged a magnificent show at the War Memorial.
Dr. William Menninger, famed psychiatrist, was the speaker for the Seven Eastern Colleges annual fund raising activity at the Ford Auditorium.
Jane Pratt opened the debut season with a buffet dinner in her Windmill Pointe drive home and Phyllis Ledyard and Pamela Macpherson bowed at a dance at the Little Club. Julia Ferry and Jacklyn Booth were presented at a dance at the Little Club and Judith Skae's party was a reception at home. Denny Tracy's ball at the Country Club delighted the young set.
Of course the debut of the month, which even deluging rains failed to spoil in all its French magnificence, was the ball given by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ford II for their daughter, Anne, in their Lakeshore road home.
Here for the party was Mayer Davis' orchestra and singer Ella Fitzgerald and among the guests were film star Merle Oberon, Mrs. Gary Cooper, Lord Dickon Lumley, the Nicholas Duponts, the Harvey Firestones' and the Igor Cassinis.

Bride of a month full of brides was Florence Phelan who wed Peter John Connolly in heirloom satin and duchess lace in St. Paul's on the lakeshore.
August

The bridal parade continued with Mary Stansell Bush's wedding to James Duncan, Jr.; Virginia McMillan's to Robert Lambrecht; Susan Mary Gmeiner's to Ensign Kenneth J. Warren; Deborah Fitzgerald's to Michael Bourke and Pixie Goodenough's to Murray Dodge.
Tobey Hansen's 200 friends turned out to honor the popular Country Club tennis pro on his 60th birthday.
A large contingent of Pointers traveled to St. Paul, Minn. to witness the rites of Laura Delano Ridder and Edward S. Evans III.

SHE'S A COTTON PICKIN' MODEL—Penne Percy, 18, Waco, Tex., this year's "Maid of Cotton," is being fitted out for her tour to make all of us cotton pickin' clothing buyers. Fitter in New York is Giovanna Spencer. The glad rag Penne is putting on is a king size Chesterfield, all cotton denim in Americana colors, by Ann Klein.

THE WINNER, AND STILL CHAMPION—For the second straight year, Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy has been named the Best Dressed Woman in the World, for 1961, by 2,000 fashion experts who voted in New York Couture Group's annual poll.

SUPPORTING ROLES—Actor Brod Crawford, 49, and actress Joan Tabor, 28, cut their wedding cake after ceremony in Las Vegas, Nev. They return to Hollywood after a short stay.

BING'S RECOVERING NICELY—Mrs. Bing (Kathy) Crosby, wife of the crooner, talks with Dr. D. A. Roman at St. John's Hospital in Santa Monica, Calif., where Crosby is "recovering nicely" following surgery. Two stones were removed from the singer's kidney.

PAUL BUNYAN might find this chair a fitting resting place, but it's far too roomy for Ann Snyder, who had to use a ladder just to get into it. People at the Chicago Furniture Mart, where it is on display, say it is the largest chair in the world.

HELLO, MATEY—Agneta Hansson, 17, Sweden's first woman sailor, holds her duffel bag as she boards the freighter M. S. Thebeland at Stockholm for her first voyage. She was graduated from the sailors school in Kalmar a few weeks ago as deckhand.

HAIR APPARENT—Five Miami, Fla., models, blonde, brunette, redhead, brownette and strawberry blonde, display a new hairstyle for spring. They are wearing a close-cropped coiffure that features snug cover for the ears, showing just the tip of the lobe, and modified bouffance at the crown. Wisps of hair can be drawn over the brow for individuality.

MAY BLOW WHISTLE—Gerald Covelli, 41, a reputed crime syndicate triggerman serving a federal prison term for auto theft, reportedly is ready to blow the whistle on his ex-colleagues in a whisky hijacking trial scheduled to open in Chicago January 8. Federal officers said he also has agreed to testify in a jury-fixing prosecution of another syndicate figure.

CHECKS BOUNCE—Modeled in New York, a carefree, two-piece suit with big, bold and bouncy checks by Darlene will strike a kooky note on resort beaches next summer. The velvety looped nylon fabric is Darnille.

KATANGA 'FRONT'—Michel Struelens, the Belgian who heads the Katanga Information Service in New York, looks a bit nonplussed in his Fifth Avenue office as the U. S. State Department says he is "involved in an attempt to purchase recognition of Katanga as a sovereign nation." It is reported that he offered Costa Rica $1 million to recognize the breakaway Elisabethville government.

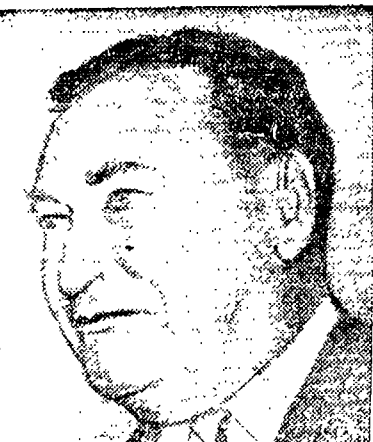

THE WORLD'S BEST DRESSED WOMAN, says the New York Couture Group's annual poll of 2,000 fashion experts, is Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy, wife of the President. Running second, Mrs. Loel Guinness of Britain, the former Gloria Rubio of Mexico City, a glamorous grandmother.

NUMBER ONE GIRL—Night club entertainer Julie Gibson has been chosen the "Number One Best Undressed Girl in America" by the Average American Man Club, Washington chapter.

DEPUTY—Mrs. Ernestine Whitlock of Charleston, W. Va., is a Kanawha County sheriff's deputy, and she has a scar to prove it. A drunken woman punched her in the nose last year and inflicted a nasty cut.

'MR. STEEL' DEAD—Benjamin Fairless (above), who rose from a Pigeon Run, O., newsboy to chairman of the board of U. S. Steel, is dead in Esigonier, Pa., at 71.

ROBOT TRAIN—Motorman Joseph A. Elender takes it easy in the New York Transit Authority's new "crewless" subway train, automated for the Grand Central-Times Square crosstown shuttle. Note the empty motorman's cab (left, photo right) as it pulls into Times Square. There will be a motorman and technician aboard for six months—testing.

$500,000 MISSING—Kimble Berry, 24, ponders his situation in Lynn, Mass., as authorities check his story that he was given a 10-day "furlough" from a Mississippi prison, a big car, a loaded gun and $20 expense money to drive to Arkansas to pick up $500,000 robbery loot in a bank safety deposit vault. He said he saw armed men in front of the bank, so drove to Lynn, where he told authorities his story.

HOME? COMING—Charles Chaplin and wife Oona arrive at London airport with two of their seven children, Victoria (middle) and Josephine (right). Chaplin, 72, and the 38-year-old daughter of the late playwright Eugene O'Neill expect their eighth child next summer. They live in Switzerland, although Chaplin is a British subject.

market, and breakdown of regulatory and disciplinary controls over them are a part of a complex pattern of interlocking causes and effects," the report stated. The SEC emphasized, however, that its report was concerned solely with abuses of most of the companies whose securities are traded on the exchange is beyond doubt.

THE COMMITTEE on Declaration of Rights, Suffrage and Elections submitted a revised bill of rights to the Michigan Constitutional Convention Thursday. The proposal includes three major changes, specifically: Deletion of the controversial 1950 subversion amendment; deletion of the dangerous weapon and narcotic drug exemptions from guarantee against unreasonable search and seizure; and grant of appeal as a matter of right in all criminal convictions.

DETROIT MAYOR CAVANAGH announced Friday that emergency DSR bus service will be extended to two more West ern Wayne County communities. Some 30,000 commuters in Garden City and Lincoln Park, stranded since Intertown Suburban Lines went out of business, will again have public transportation, beginning Monday.

Saturday, January 6 FEDERAL INVESTIGATORS yesterday charged the American Stock Exchange with allowing "manipulative and prolonged abuses" of laws and rules created to protect the investing public. In a 127-page report, result of a seven-month investigation, the Securities and Exchange Commission contended that the nation's largest stock exchange has been dominated by four men, including president pro tem Joseph F. Reilly.

A TORNADO RIPPED through the Florida town of Crestview Friday, damaging more than 300 homes and 50 house trailers, and leaving an estimated 1,500 persons homeless. A baby was crushed to death, and at least 30 other persons injured, ten seriously, in the six-minute storm.

the Florida Panhandle town of Paxton. Sunday, January 7 ALGIERS SUPERIOR Court vice president Charles Causse, 41, was assassinated by Moslem terrorists yesterday only 100 yards from the Algiers court building. The prominent French born jurist, father of five children, was one of two Europeans and three Moslems killed Saturday as violence continued to mount throughout Algeria. In Paris, an estimated 1,000 communists, defying a police ban, marched through main boulevards near the opera, protesting against terror tactics of the far-right "Secret Army Organization" and chanting "OAS-assassins."

Monday, January 8 UNITED DAIRY WORKERS Local 83, whose 1500 drivers and creamery workers supply over half of the Metropolitan Detroit area with milk, went on strike at midnight Sunday against the Detroit Milk Dealers, Inc. Their action is expected to bring immediate curtailment of dairy supplies in the Detroit area, cutting the city's usual deliveries over 50 percent by Tuesday. A total of 11 dairies are represented by Local 83, including Borden, Scaltest, Foremost, Risdon and United, which supply most of the area supermarkets with milk. The strike, announced Sunday in a joint statement by Local 83 secretary-treasurer George McLean and dealers association secretary Carl F. Burger, was called when contract negotiations bogged down on fringe benefits.

THE EASTERN and Midwestern sections of the United States were buried under snow and ice yesterday, as one of the worst winter weekends in recent history blew to a frosty close. In Boston, at least three persons died in a freezing rain and sleet storm. Power lines snapped in Bay City, Mich., and air traffic throughout the state was cut off for a few sporadic flights as icy runways and blowing snow made take-offs and landings almost impossible. Transportation, snarled throughout the affected area, is just beginning to get back to normal, but the weather bureau promises more snow and even lower temperatures all the way from the plains states to New York.

FOUR DETROIT-AREA athletes, members of a deaf-mute basketball team, died Saturday when their car collided with a tractor-trailer on the Detroit-Toledo Expressway in Toledo. Two others were injured, but the truck driver escaped unhurt. The six young men, scheduled to play a basketball game in Toledo, had just entered the north end of town when their car skidded on the ice-slicked highway, ran through a 20-foot grass divider strip, and hit the northbound tractor-trailer. Firemen, using torches and power saws, worked for an hour before freeing the last body from the wreckage.

PRESIDENT KENNEDY last night told a group of Democrats in Columbus, O., that he will push programs "that will serve our people" in the next Congress. Kennedy predicted that the Congress which convenes next week will pass a Social Security-tied medical care for the aged program, but said nothing about the future of civil rights legislation and aid to education. Declaring that "the last 18 months has been the beginning of the fragmentation of the communist empire," the President stated that Western unity has increased as the Communist Bloc has begun to disintegrate, and called for support of his administration's program to make 1962 ent USSR representative with the International Atomic Energy Agency. The old Bolshevik left Moscow by train over the weekend to resume his job in the atoms-for-peace organization. Molotov, publicly condemned in October by the Communist Party Congress and recalled to Moscow in disgrace, seemed destined for oblivion if not death; foreign diplomats firmly believed he would never again hold a public post even if he survived the party attack. But the wily foreign minister of Stalin's ear is today headed back to his Vienna assignment, and apparently remains a member of the communist party in good standing.

A DUTCH EXPRESS TRAIN slammed into the side of a slow commuter train in dense fog near W o r d e n, Netherlands, yesterday. At least 87 persons were reported killed in the disaster, worst in Netherlands railway history, and Red Cross officials estimate a possible 12 more victims may still be buried in the wreckage. Telescoped coaches reared in the air before toppling down into splinters, and one express coach hurtled over a 13-foot embankment to demolish a transformer station at the foot of a dike, sending shower of sparks over the accident scene. Railway officials estimate 250 persons were on each of the trains, mostly weekenders returning to their northern provinces, and say the crash was caused by poor visibility. It is thought that one of the trains ran through a signal, unnoticed in the fog. Wednesday, January 10 GEORGE ROMNEY Monday night demanded a ruling on whether he can continue as a Michigan Constitutional Convention delegate and also run for governor. Appearing before the Convention's rules committee, Romney requested "positive action" on a Democratic plan to force his resignation as delegate if he enters the governorship race. Stating that he would allow nothing to interfere with his duties as delegate, Romney promised not to campaign for office "as long as the Convention is in session." The Democratic resolution remains tabled indefinitely, an action synonymous with committee rejection. Tuesday, January 16: 10 a.m.

December

The Detroit Institute of Art stole the spotlight with its 8th Moderne sponsored by the Friends of Modern Art to pay for the Futurist Exhibit. Gorgeous ball gowns were inspired by the exhibit and the ball decor and menu were magnificent. Louis Armstrong played and the whole affair was broadcast over the "Today" TV show and commented on by Cleveland Armory.

That same evening the Commodore's Ball at the G.P.C. feted Paul I. Moreland and his lady and the Hunt Club was the scene of a gala 50th anniversary dance.

The Junior Women's Symphony Association sponsored the Christmas Walk, a peek into six gayly decked parlors. St. John Hospital gained new equipment from the annual White Christmas Ball given by the Fontbonne Auxiliary at the G.P.C.

The Princeton Triangle Show, the Yale Glee Club concert and Polly Kammer's debut all on the same evening made the weekend before Christmas exciting. Then there was the Junior Assembly for the teen agers at the Little Club and the Yale dance.

Two noted Detroit charitable institutions made announcements. The Junior League set October, 1963 as the termination of its financial sponsorship of the Senior Center and the Detroit League for the Handicapped closed its last shop.

A bevy of Painters traveled to New York for Christmas shopping and there were scenes of Yule open houses and cocktail parties. The C. Hasall

Bliss-Lowrey Kammer dance at the Little Club was a gay pink and white success. The debutants numbered but eight this holiday but included Alice Ledyard, Lisa Holley, Hedy Whitehead and Alice Wardwell.

The Ralph C. Wilsons black tie dinner dance was a memory making party and there were the traditional New Year's Eve gatherings in such homes as the F. Rankin Wisgerbers, but the club's for the most part did not celebrate as the first night of 1961 fell on a Sunday.

An old fashioned capitalist in the McKinley tradition was Col. Frank J. Hecker, one of Detroit's early railroad entrepreneurs and founder of the family which still makes Detroit and the Pointe its home.

The colonel enlisted in the Forty First Missouri Infantry at 16 years of age—just before the end of the Civil War. He was born in Michigan but his family moved to St. Louis when he was a small boy. After his war service he went to work helping to build the Union Pacific Railroad and was the road's first agent in Cheyenne, Wyo.

In 1880 after various railroad posts, he came to Detroit, bringing with him an old railroad comrade, Charles L. Freer, a New Yorker, and the two prevailed upon Gen. Russell Alger to join them in forming the Peninsular Car Company.

Hecker served as a member of the Detroit Board of Police Commissioners, was chief of marine and railway transportation during the Spanish-American War. President Theodore Roosevelt then appointed him a member of the Panama Canal Commission. His palatial residence, in the French chateau style, stood on the site of the present Detroit Institute of Arts, and his friend Freer, built an equally spacious mansion nearby.

Col. Hecker, who died in 1927, had married Anna Williamson, of Missouri, and the couple had two children, Christian H. Hecker, and Mrs. Theodore G. Fletcher. One of Freer's brothers married a Hecker girl.

Col. Hecker seems to have been a capitalist in the grand old manner. One of his contemporaries, John C. Lodge, leaves a fairly harsh picture of the Civil War veteran.

"I knew Colonel Hecker very well. Oh, but he was a tough fellow to talk to. He had very little money when he came here, but he made it fast in the car business... Colonel Hecker was not very well educated but he was very proud and very fond of himself. I rather like him for his direct way of talking. But he was a good advertisement for the modern labor union. When Mr. Pingree was mayor, Hecker came in to tell him he wanted to run for Congress. Pingree's reply was to ask how he could expect people to vote for him when he paid his workers ninety cents a day. He never had any public career."

His co-capitalist, Freer, devoted his leisure hours to art. He was an ardent collector of Whistler's work and of Oriental art. In 1906 he gave his entire collection, with a sum of money, for the establishment of the Freer Art Gallery in Washington, D. C.

Grosse Pointe IS a neighborly town. A few weeks before Christmas Mr. and Mrs. John Davis, of Kansas City, moved into a new home in Grand Marais boulevard. An acquaintance of a few days past, Mrs. Walter Auch, was on their doorstep with a casserole dinner the night of the move. Mrs. Auch herself moved to Greenwich Conn., on Sunday but despite her own packing and Christmas plans had time to think of the newcomers. Let's hope she was as warmly welcomed in Greenwich.

Dr. and Mrs. Clarence Totte have a magnificent apple tree blooming outside their breakfast room window on Hampton road. Twelve big red apples still cling to the branches these blustery January days. But last week even more surprising than the late blooming apples was the healthy robin red breast, a stay at home from the southland, making his breakfast from the Tottes' fruit.

Alice Aagesen, who became the bride of Robert Balfrey on the last Saturday in December, is a very dedicated scholar. She came home from a three day honeymoon in Chicago just to take her final exams at the University of Michigan.

At a church meeting last week Mrs. Richard Woelfel congratulated Mrs. Edward Bunn on her stunning alone necklace, admitted she only recognized the unusual jewelry because she has been assisting her daughter with a report on fossils for the upcoming Science Fair.

You have to be a lawyer to go but members of the State Bar of Michigan can visit Moscow, and possibly Khrushchev, this summer. The lawyers are offered a 25 day trip to Europe with Russia on the itinerary as well as Copenhagen, Warsaw, Vienna, Berlin, Munich, Lucerne and Paris. Quite a journey!

PILFERINGS

A little girl suddenly announced that she didn't want to eat in the school lunchroom any more. When asked why she said, "Oh, because there's always a teacher in there yelling her head off."

"Why would she be doing that?" asked her mother. "Oh," said the little girl, "I suppose that's so we won't miss our mothers?"

A diner had been waiting a long time for his order. Finally his waiter approached and said, "Your fish will be coming in a minute or two now, sir."

The man looked interested. "Tell me," he said, "what bait are you using?"

MRS. DWIGHT D. STRUTHERS, OF LOCHMOOR BOULEVARD

Dolly Madison placed a footman behind every guest at her state dinners in the White House and Mrs. Ruth Crawford B. Hayes was called "Lemonade Lucy" for the only beverage served at her receptions. These intimate glimpses of the Presidents' wives are revealed twice a week during the winter lecture season by Mrs. Dwight D. Struthers.

Mrs. Struthers was a history major at the Lindenwood College for Women, St. Charles, Mo., but her interest in the White House and its occupants first became an abiding passion about five years ago.

She was asked to give a book report to her PEO chapter and happened across a White House history. Such a compelling lecturer did Mrs. S. turn out to be that she is in great demand by women's clubs throughout the city. During the season from September through May she talks about the First Ladies to groups from Pontiac to Mt. Clemens.

Dolly Madison Favorite

Mrs. Struthers has her favorites, the hostess with the mostest, Dolly Madison, leading the parade. It was Dolly who had the servant for every guest in the days when the nightly wage was 25 cents and she called the President "my darling little husband." Madison being of small stature, to Mrs. James Monroe goes the credit for the first discriminating furnishing of the White House. The Monroes sold the government about $9,000 worth of their beautiful French furniture and had trouble collecting. Mrs. Kennedy's restoration of the Georgian background of her new home has included finding many of the lost Monroe pieces, including the silver, pearl handled knives, and the Hannibal and Minerva clocks in the Blue and Green rooms. She has had quite a search for some of these originals as the Chester Arthurs sold 27 van loads of White House treasures from the White House at public auction.

A Van Buren Beauty

Of course Mrs. Struthers is pleased with Jacqueline Kennedy's job in restoring the Presidents' home to past grandeur, reminds us that this is the first time this national shrine has even had a curator. But Jackie does not lead her list of favorite presidents' wives. Mrs. Struthers believes that Angela Singleton Van Buren, the president's daughter-in-law and official hostess was equally as beautiful. Louisa Adams, London-born wife of John Quincy, was a "lady of fashion" in a day when there were no "best-dressed" lists.

A firm supporter of Mary Lincoln, "that much maligned first lady," Mrs. Struthers believes Mrs. Lincoln and Mrs. Franklin Delano Roosevelt were two of the White House's most interesting if not the most happy of the first ladies.

"What Mary Lincoln needed was a good press agent and a good psychiatrist. The Northerners hated her because they thought she was a spy and the Southerners despised her because they thought she was a traitor." These are Mrs. Struthers' surprising views on the controversial Kentucky-born Mary Todd, who died after a stay in an asylum. But in her days as a White House chatelaine Mrs. Lincoln was a good hostess, and devoted herself to visiting wounded soldiers in the hospital, a fact noticed by few Washingtonians of her day.

Met Mrs. Coolidge

The only President's wife Mrs. Struthers ever met personally on her many visits there was Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, a striking brown-eyed brunette, who incurred her taciturn husband's reproof when she took her first riding lesson, "You can't do anything new," he told her after the papers recorded her ride. Mrs. F.D.R., on the other hand never did anything traditional, attended her press conferences in riding togs, rode over Boulder Dam in a barrel and served hot dogs to the King and Queen of England.

Because intensive research has added to her score of anecdotes about the First Ladies Mrs. Struthers has now divided her talks into four historical periods, but will discuss any
