JOHN H. GLENN, JR.'s orbital flight has been delayed for the tenth time. The astronaut is now set to go into space next Tuesday, weather permitting. When asked if Glenn, who is reported to be taking the repeated delays in stride, sometimes uses strong language to express his disappointment, astronaut spokesman John A. Powers replied: "He's a pretty warm-blooded specimen and inclined occasionally to use, uh, slang."

Hulon Stogner, assistant military attaché at the American Embassy in Leopoldville, Stogner, 39, was lying in bed Wednesday night when a single shot fired through the outside window killed him instantly. AFTER SPENDING more than seven years helping to develop South Viet Nam's civil administration, Michigan State University's research and advisory team has been asked to leave the Southeast Asian country. "The government no longer wants us here," explained College of Business and Public Service Dean Dr. Alfred I. Seelye, after spending several fruitless days in Saigon attempting to come to terms with President Ngo Dinh Diem's government. Critical articles written by MSU professors who served in South Viet Nam upon their return to the States are believed responsible for the research and advisory team's dismissal.

MRS. NINA KHRUSHCHEV, in a Sunday night shortwave broadcast to the women of the United States, appealed for "general and complete disarmament" and a world-wide united female movement for peace. The Soviet Premier's wife made four nine-minute broadcasts in English from Moscow, sticking close to the official Soviet line and blaming the West for "forcing" the Soviets to resume atmospheric nuclear testing.

GOVERNOR SWAINSON has given his approval to a proposed multi-million dollar construction program at the 164-acre Michigan State Fairgrounds. The project, which includes an approximately $9.5 million, 80,000-seat stadium, would give the area year-round use. According to Swainson, a bill to implement the State Fairgrounds Development Commission's recommendations, providing an Authority within the Commission with the power to issue revenue bonds after leases have been signed to pay off the bonds, will be introduced at this session of the State Legislature.

Wednesday, February 21

PRESIDENT KENNEDY Monday requested standby powers, allowing him to divert up to two billion dollars into public works whenever a recession seems imminent. The U. S. chief of state, who gave first details of his anti-recession plan in last month's State-of-the-Union message, informed Congress of his specific intentions yesterday in a letter and a draft of the proposed bill sent to both Senate and House. Predictably, Democrats in Congress lauded the President's proposals, while Republicans denounced them as a White House power grab.

Devil Swimmers Shatter National Record

Grosse Pointe High School's natators won their 25th victory in a row last Friday night when they beat Royal Oak Dondoro, '69-36, and the 160-yard medley relay team lowered the national scholastic mark when they posted a 1:21, caught by three timers. The old

Alumni Put GPUS Drive Over the Top

Number of Contributors and Amount Given Both Increased in Annual Campaign

The Grosse Pointe University School alumni are smashing records in their response to the 1961-62 Scholarship Fund campaign. Contributions are already nearly three times as much as in the preceding year, William Gage, Jr., president of the Alumni Association, reported to its board of governors last week.

He also reported that not only has the number of contributors doubled, but there are over 70 new contributors.

The University School's Alumni Association supports six full-time scholarships through the gifts of its members and through a share in the sale of Carnival tickets.

Many Interesting Items On Public Schools Listed In Superintendent's Report

Slight Increase in Enrollment Noted; Central Library's Popularity Exceeds All Expectations; Staff Members Commended

The Grosse Pointe Board of Education received the monthly report of the Superintendent of Schools at its regular session on Monday, February 12.

It was disclosed that the 1962-63 budget, which is being prepared under a new account system recently adopted by the State Department of Public Instruction, will have 15 major accounts instead of the previous eight accounts. First draft of the new budget is expected to be available for study by the Administrative Budget Council early in March.

Total enrollment in the entire school system as of February 1, 1962, stands at 10,602. There are 5,799 pupils enrolled in elementary schools, 2,528 in Junior High, and 2,275 in Senior High.

1.31 Percent Gain

These figures show a gain of 137 students, or 1.31 percent, over last year, when 10,465 students were reported registered in all schools of the Grosse Pointe system—5,796 in elementary schools, 2,445 in Junior High, and 2,224 in Senior High.

Grosse Pointe High School principal Jerry Gerich reports that 490 out of 700 High School seniors have already applied to colleges.

Of these 490 applicants, 264 have been notified of their acceptance at one or more colleges. Another 67 June '62 graduates plan to apply for college admission very soon.

Mary Patterson, '58, is one of many Grosse Pointe High School graduates honored for intellectual achievements. Mary was recently placed on the Dean's List at Smith College in recognition of her high academic standing.

171 Take Aptitude Tests
A total of 171 youngsters, approximately one-half from Grosse Pointe High, the rest from other area schools, participated in the Scholastic Aptitude Test of the College Entrance Examination Board at GPHS on Saturday morning, January 23.

Grosse Pointe's public schools were recently visited by Mr. Kazunori Oshima, a secondary teacher of English in Kyoto, Japan. Mr. Oshima spent most of his time in High School English classes, and was very interested in the foreign language laboratories. During his stay in Grosse Pointe, Mr. Oshima, whose visit to the United States was sponsored by the International Teacher Development Program, was a guest of Senior High School English Department Head Dr. Stanley Cook.

Staff Members Praised
Several public school system staff members were commended.

Woman Driver Hits Police Car

Margaret M. Noble of 3466 Chatsworth, Detroit, blamed another woman motorist for causing her to crash into the rear of a Park police cruiser at Mack and Neff, on Monday, February 12.

The woman was given a ticket for reckless driving by City police, since the accident occurred in their community.

Park Patrolman William Furtaw was assigned to traffic enforcement at Whittier and Mack, when he observed a motorist going through a red light at the intersection. He gave chase.

The errant driver was stopped on Mack at Neff, and Furtaw was in the process of giving the driver a ticket, when Mrs. Noble crashed into the rear of the police car.

The woman said she was nearing Neff, going east on Mack, when this other woman began to edge away from the curb. Mrs. Noble said she applied her brakes, but her car began to skid, and she crashed into the policeman's car.

The front end of the woman's car, and the trunk and bumper of the cruiser were damaged. There were no injuries reported.

Tuxis Show Set to Open Here Tonight

Cast of 200 to be Seen in 14th Annual Production; Three Performances at Parcels

"Dial University 8-8947", the 14th annual Tuxis Show, opens tonight, climaxing many months of work by a cast of 200 who hope to make this year's performance the most enjoyable, most profitable undertaking in Tuxis Club history.

The show will run three nights, Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, February 22 through 24, at Parcels Junior High School auditorium, corner of Mack avenue and Vernier road. Curtain time is 8:15 p.m.

Tickets are still available at the Village Store on the Hill and the Campus Shop in the Village, Friday from 3:30 to 5 o'clock and Saturday from 3 until 5. They may also be purchased at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church office and from members of the cast but, as Saturday night is traditionally "student night," a sell-out is anticipated, and there will be few if any tickets available at the box office for that performance.

College Background

The show, directed by Miss Sue Tolkenitt, is based on college life, and concerns a year-long talkathon between the boys' and girls' dormitories at State U. Scenes range from the college campus to a beatnik joint to the student union to the girls' dorm.

Featured in the cast are Bruce McConachie, who plays an exchange teacher from England, and Sue Hanna and Sue Feikens, who portray a gym teacher and an English teacher, rivals for Bruce's affections.

Proceeds from tonight's performance will go to the Grosse Pointe Home for Exceptional Children, and Friday and Saturday night earnings will be sent to UNICEF and Save the Children Federation. Tuxis supports a Pima Indian boy from New Mexico through the Federation.

Ready to Receive Bids on Enlarging Library at GPHS

Hope to Get Construction Started on Estimated $220,000 Addition by End of March; Will Preserve Building's Beauty

The Grosse Pointe Board of Education will accept bids for enlarging the library of Grosse Pointe High School at its next meeting on Monday, March 12.

Estimated cost of the project will be in the neighborhood of $220,000, and construction should be underway by the end of March. Bids beyond the Board of Education estimates are the only thing which could conceivably cause a delay in the beginning of construction.

The $220,000 estimate, presented at a special meeting of the Board of Education on Monday, February 12, would include extending the High School library by 60 feet and reconstructing the pillar structure in front of the library.

It would also provide for construction of a central "guidance center" in space presently occupied by rooms 111, 113 and 114, bringing together all the counselors and guidance personnel in a close working unit. The "guidance center" is designed to eliminate problems caused by having counselors scattered throughout the buildings.

A further improvement would be the creation of an audiovisual center in what is now the Men Teachers' Workroom on the second floor.

The Board members stressed the fact that all changes will be in keeping with the present design of the front of the school.

Blondell Resigns As CD Treasurer

City Treasurer Neil Blondell has resigned as treasurer of the Grosse Pointe Civil Defense and Disaster Control. Mr. Blondell was one of an original nucleus of representatives from each of the Grosse Pointes who, immediately after the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, banded together to found Grosse Pointe's Office of Civil Defense.

In 1950, the existing Office of Civil Defense was reorganized, and Disaster Control functions added. At present, the organization can call upon a trained group of men in the event of natural disaster or attack, men qualified to maintain order and control emergencies.

In the 12 years since its reorganization, the Grosse Pointe Civil Defense and Disaster Control has spent a total of $33,685.70, or approximately $2,800 per year for operating costs. During this same period, revenue totaled $36,371.42, leaving a balance of $2,685.72 in unspent funds on deposit at the present time.

Mr. Blondell served for 20 years as treasurer of Civil Defense. Like most Grosse Pointe Civil Defense officials, he received no recompense for his services. Lawrence C. Savage, Grosse Pointe City Manager, will replace Mr. Blondell.

The Winner

DEMOCRAT HAROLD M. RYAN won by a nose Tuesday, February 13, taking the 14th Congressional District's special election with a scant 767 votes, less than one percent of the more than 60,000 ballots cast.

His rival, Republican Robert E. Waldron, at first considered demanding a recount, but by Thursday, with the official canvass complete, Waldron was "almost certain" that he would not ask for a re-tabulation of the ballots.

"I know of no real irregularities, and the figures appear to be accurate," the defeated State representative observed. Ryan, 51, polled 30,367 votes to Waldron's 29,600. Charles Fraser, the Socialist Labor candidate, received 178, and John Birch, who happens to be dead

Car Seat Fire Doused Twice

Ted Karpen of 2136 Allard, stopped at the Woods fire station twice to have a fire in the front seat of his car put out.

On Thursday, February 15, at 4:20 a.m., Karpen pulled into the driveway of the fire station and informed public safety officers that the seat was on fire. The blaze was doused with a hand extinguisher.

At 1:55 p.m., the same day, Karpen returned with the vehicle for the same reason. The fire was again put out with a hand extinguisher, but this time the firemen pulled out the batting of the front seat to make sure the fire would not recur.

The Public Safety Department report in the matter simply stated—fire out when Karpen left.

City Refuses To Intervene In Argument

Petitioning Residents and Little League Told Decision is Strictly Up to Club

The Grosse Pointe City Council has no jurisdiction over the Neighborhood Club, an independent corporation, and has, therefore, no say in whether or not the Neighborhood Club should be allowed to permit the Foundation for Exceptional Children to build a school on land leased from the Club.

This, in essence, is the position in which the Council finds itself with respect to the building plans of the Foundation for Exceptional Children, as explained by City Attorney Charles Wright, III, to Little League representatives and disgruntled residents at the regular Grosse Pointe City Council meeting on Monday evening, February 19.

Grosse Pointe Little League spokesman Ernest Kelly and Edward Devine appeared before the Council to explain their position and urge the Council to use its "influence," even though it has no legal power in the matter, to persuade the Neighborhood Club to reconsider leasing property to the Foundation.

Protests "Secrecy"
Devine protested the "secrecy" with which the Foundation pursued its building plans.

At the last Council meeting, Devine said, he was told that the Council had no jurisdiction in the matter, and had advised him to contact the Board of Directors of the Neighborhood Club.

He immediately wrote a letter to Mrs. Henry T. Bodman and Mrs. Hal Smith, Jr., Mrs. Smith replied, advising him to contact the Neighborhood Club attorney, Benjamin H. Long. Devine met with Long, who stated that he had been out of town and was not entirely familiar with the Foundation's plans or the Neighborhood Club's position in regard to them. Long promised, however, to arrange a meeting between Little League representatives and members of the Board.

Heard Nothing Since
Devine has heard nothing since. His only information on the progress of the Foundation's plans to build a school on Neighborhood Club property has come from the statement issued by the Club trustees on Monday, January 29, and printed in the following Thursday's NEWS, in which the Club declared itself fully behind the Foundation.

Devine said that his appeal to the Council Monday night was in the nature of a "last resort." He reiterated Little League's position that recreational facilities in the City of Grosse Pointe are sorely limited as things stand, and that to take any land which could be used or is now being used for recreational purposes would be disastrous.

"Each year our facilities grow more crowded," Devine said, adding that "We cannot in our own back yards play football, or

Nab Teenagers In Stolen Car

Three 16-year-old Detroit boys were arrested by Park police on Friday, February 16, when they were seen riding in a stolen car.

The arresting officers, Patrolmen Bobby McAlister and Colin LaLonde said they saw the boys in a car driving east on Vernor at 10:05 p.m., and checked the license plates with their stolen car list.

The license number of the boys' vehicle corresponded with that of a car reported stolen from a bowling alley lot at Blue Hill and Warren in Detroit.

The officers forced the car to the curb at Buckingham, and placed the three boys under arrest and took them to the station.

Later, the teenagers were turned over to the Detroit Police Youth Bureau, and the car was returned to the owner.

Pointe 1961 Fire Loss Set At $145,724; One Death

The 1961 fire reports submitted by the Pointe fire chiefs, disclosed one fatality and the loss of property valued at a total of $145,724.

The fatality was recorded by the Woods when Mrs. Christine MacAskill, 72, of 2133 Ridgemoor, died in St. John Hospital of second and third degree burns received when her clothing ignited while she was preparing breakfast last June 22. She died six days later. The burns covered 80 percent of her body.

Woods Director of Public Safety Vern C. Bailey also disclosed that the total fire loss in his community amounted to $50,404.97.

The report was broken down as follows: loss of dwellings, $24,975.98; loss of buildings other than dwellings (garages, etc.), $324.95; loss of dwelling contents, $20,925.98; contents other than in dwellings, $1,629.95.

The Department of Public Safety answered a total of 133 alarms: 68 dwellings; car fires, 12; grass fires, 16; all other fires, 34; and three false alarms.

The Farms fire loss according to a report compiled by Fire Captain Raymond Smy and released by Chief M. William Mason, amounted to $55,273.

The report revealed that fire caused a total of $22,413 in damage to dwellings; $2,500 to buildings other than dwellings; $21,885 in damage to dwelling contents; and $7,500 to contents in other than dwellings; and

The chief stated that his department answered 290 alarms last year, and listed them as: residences, 87; residential garages, four; mercantile buildings, six; refrigerator gas, four; grass and rubbish, 20; automobiles, 17; false alarms, two; non-fire calls, 61; resuscitator calls, 60; rescues, seven and miscellaneous, 22.

Shores Chief Fred Duemling's report revealed that the total loss in the Shores was only $5,120.73. There are no business establishments in the Shores. It is strictly a residential community.

The chief stated that the fire loss to buildings amounted to $4,403.06, loss of contents, $150; and other losses, such as cars, etc., $575.67.

His department answered alarms for 23 house fires, seven grass fires, and six car fires.

The fire loss in the City, according to information released by Fire Capt. George Poupard, totaled $9,957.77.

His 1961 report was not completed, but he disclosed that fire damage to dwellings totaled $4,934.90; to dwelling contents, $4,708.51; and cars $314.36.

He also stated that his department answered 142 alarms last year, of which eight were false.

Says Hands Are Tied
After listening to Devine's arguments, the Council expressed sympathy but emphasized that its hands were tied. In the words of Councilman David E. Burgess, "The property in question is owned by the Neighborhood Club, not the City of Grosse Pointe."

So long as the proposed school building conforms with the existing zoning ordinance which permits schools, churches, community buildings and two-family houses north of Kercheval avenue, so long as it meets the building code, the Council cannot legally prevent its construction.

The Council added that the new building would not take over any present baseball area, and noted that the City was fortunate to have the Neighborhood Club within its boundaries, its excellent facilities more accessible to City residents than residents of the other Grosse Pointes.

Petitions Submitted
Petitions, signed by approximately 175 City residents, opposing the establishment of the Foundation for Exceptional Children school on Neighborhood Club property because the City's recreational facilities are already too limited, were received by the Council.

Again it was emphasized that no one objects to the Foundation site, only to its location.

On Tuesday morning, February 20, the Citizens' Committee for Study and Planning of Grosse Pointe Community Needs released a statement regarding the projected School for Exceptional Children on Neighborhood Club Grounds which also touched on the larger problems of planning within the City:

Committee's Report
"Once again, the possibility of change of use of land within the City of Grosse Pointe is being considered. The decision as to whether an area used for recreational facilities for children, shall instead, be used for an equally important facility, a school for exceptional children, is now before the Council of the City, as well as the residents within the community.

"It is becoming increasingly clear that the City of Grosse Pointe, with its smallness of area and density of population is at a crucial stage of either being upgraded or downgraded.

"What facilities for all of the Pointes, the City should provide; what recreational facilities the City has and controls; what is the most economic use of land; what shall be done with sub-standard housing; whether to protect or not protect the residential character of the area (that which is not already commercial); traffic control; beautification.—these are some

Gives Lecture On Hinduism

Approximately 75 people were in attendance at the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church Forum on Sunday, February 18, to hear Professor Kantilal Kalani, visiting Professor at Wayne State University, speak on "An Outline of Hinduism."

Professor Kalani is a native of Ohmedabad, India, where he taught literature and philosophy at Gujarat University. He has been in the United States for 18 months lecturing at Wayne State on "The Philosophies of the East" and "The Culture of India."

Professor Kalani is himself a Hindu, having been born to the Brahmin Caste. He discussed some historical aspects of Hinduism, beginning with the origin, some 5,000 or 6,000 years ago, of the basic writings upon which the religion was founded. These writings came mostly from the sayings and teachings of the early saints and philosophers.

Dr. Kalani also discussed the phase of Priestly Hinduism, in evidence some 3,000 years ago. It was during this period that the Caste system emerged as a result of the exploitation on the part of the priests. From this grew Philosophical Hinduism leading to the "golden age of Hinduism"—1000-600 B.C.

A question period followed the formal presentation. Dr. Kalani will return next Sunday evening, February 25, at 8 p.m. to discuss "The Six Major Sects of Hinduism." All interested would be most welcome.

Library Very Popular
Robert Orr reports that the Grosse Pointe Central Library celebrated the ninth anniversary of its opening on January 26, and has far exceeded all expectations as to use.

Prior to the opening of the Central Library in 1953, all Public Library branches had a total of 13,000 registered users and circulated 205,000 books. During 1961, Central Library's 12,175 registered users alone circulated 223,500 books.

The building was donated in its entirety by the late D. M. Ferry, Jr., its furnishings and equipment given in large part by Murray V. Sales, and each year the Friends of the Public Library contribute something of great value to help make Grosse Pointe's Central Li-

Lunch Time... business as usual

The continuing fast pace of the business world today makes it difficult for many businessmen to call their brokers during normal business hours, so they frequently must wait until the lunch hour to call. We at Manley, Bennett are aware of this fact, and that's why we always have a staff of competent personnel on duty during the normal luncheon period.

As you know, the exchanges continue to operate during the lunch hour, and often important news develops during this period. It has always been our goal to give all investors the most up-to-date information and most convenient personal service... so at Manley, Bennett the lunch hour means business as usual.

Report of Superintendent

 ed. in the Superintendent's Report, for special accomplishments.

Mrs. Agnes Weitzel, Grade 2 teacher at Poupard, received and has accepted an invitation to speak at a reading instruction workshop at Ferris Institute this summer.

Grosse Pointe High mathematics teacher, Loren H. Houtman, Jaycee of the month for September, 1961, has been elected to the Board of Directors of the Detroit Junior Chamber of Commerce.

An article by Driver Education Coordinator N. Ray Watling, "The Grosse Pointe Driver Education Story," appeared in the December, 1961, edition of the nationally-distributed Ford Motor Co. "Driver Education News"; and Dr. Clarence J. Messner, a Commissioner of the Michigan Department of Conservation and Principal of Richard School, delivered an address on "Current and Critical Issues in Conservation" at the 58th Annual Meeting of the Michigan Audubon Society.

Library Very Popular
 Robert Orr reports that the Grosse Pointe Central Library celebrated the ninth anniversary of its opening on January 26, and has far exceeded all expectations as to use.

Prior to the opening of the Central Library in 1953, all Public Library branches had a total of 13,000 registered users and circulated 205,000 books. During 1961, Central Library's 12,175 registered users alone circulated 223,500 books.

The building was donated in its entirety by the late D. M. Ferry, Jr., its furnishings and equipment given in large part by Murray W. Sales, and each year the Friends of the Public Library contribute something of great value to help make Grosse Pointe's Central Library one of the most outstanding in the country.

Try Team-Teaching
 A portion of Ferry School Principal Wendt's latest report on team-teaching in Grade 5 during the current semester was brought to the attention of the Board of Education. Team-teaching, a relatively new concept in education, involves the cooperation of several teachers sharing responsibility for a single class.

The new system appears to be working well in Grade 5, but Principal Wendt does not envision its spread throughout the school.

Team-teaching involves a high degree of concerted preparation, and Principal Wendt believes that a teacher who "does a good job in her own way and who prefers to continue in that way, may lose something in being forced into a new way which she does not want or understand."

125 Called Talented
 A study of Grosse Pointe High School's 700 seniors reveals that 125 fall into the category of the academically talented. Of these 125 academically talented enrollments 43, or 34.4 percent, will graduate with three years of a foreign language; 96, or 78.4 percent, will have chemistry credit; and 88, or 72.8 percent, will graduate with at least three years of math.

These figures indicate that a good percentage of the academically talented students are taking full advantage of the opportunities offered them at Grosse Pointe High.

Great Decisions Program Tonight

"Great Decisions—1962" discussion groups meet for the third time tonight, February 22, at 8 p.m. in the Friend's Room of the Main Library, Kercheval and Fisher, and Room 108, Parcels Junior High School.

Topic for tonight's meeting is "Brazil—Which Way Half A Continent?" Participants in the study program, sponsored by the Foreign Policy Association—World Affairs Center, will discuss United States foreign policy with respect to its effectiveness in Brazil. They will debate Brazil's importance to the U.S., consider the Alliance for Progress, and discuss the chief obstacles to political progress and stability in South America.

Anyone is eligible to visit or join one of the Great Decisions groups, whose purpose is to stimulate a responsive and informed electorate. The program, endorsed by both the Republican and Democratic parties in Michigan, is strictly non-partisan and informal.

Future meetings will be concerned with United States policy problems in such diverse areas as Nigeria, Iran and Berlin.

Ryan Wins Congress Seat

but has a very active spirit, came in fourth, with two write-in nominations.
Claim Moral Victory
Claiming a great moral victory, Republicans were quick to point out that the late Rep. Louis C. Rabaut normally out-poll his GOP rival in the 14th by about two to one. Political observers had expected Ryan to be the victor by several thousand votes.
The closeness of the contest, which attracted national attention, is certain to encourage Republicans, particularly the conservative faction.
Ryan, a State Senator since 1948, based his campaign on total support of President Kennedy's programs. Waldron identified himself with conservatism, as exemplified in the philosophy of Arizona Senator Barry Goldwater. Both candidates repudiated the John Birch Society.

Took Big Early Lead
Early returns from Detroit precincts gave Ryan a big lead, but as Grosse Pointe results started to pour in, the Democrat's victory margin grew smaller and smaller. Approximately 250,000 voters are registered in the 14th District, which includes the Grosse Pointes, Harper Woods and three large East Detroit wards. Only 20.5 percent of the Detroiters bothered to vote. The Grosse Pointes and Harper Woods managed a turnout of some 40 percent, bringing the total percentage of registered 14th District electors who went to the polls on election day to a modest 24.
Both candidates blamed the weather, Waldron for his defeat, Ryan for the closeness of his victory.
"It was freezing rain that started in the afternoon that made it so close," Ryan observed. "The working man never got out to vote."
Waldron was equally disgruntled. "If it hadn't been for the weather, I think we would have won," he stated.
GOP Organization Praised
Waldron's political organization is generally conceded to have given the Democrats one of their hardest 14th District fights in years. The late Congressman Louis C. Rabaut, first elected in 1934, usually took the District by a comfortable 60 to 70 percent of the vote.
"It is unfortunate that a handful of 14th District Republicans were 'too busy' to go to the polls or figured 'what difference does my vote make?'" the GOP candidate remarked.
Ryan, who began his political career in the 1930s while still in the University of Detroit Law School, expressed, in his victory statement, his deep gratitude "for the confidence of the voters of the 14th District Party, the Democratic Administration and me by electing me their Congressman."

The new 14th District representative has served continuously in the State Senate since 1948, when he was first elected at the same time as then-underdog candidate for governor G. Mennen Williams. He introduced a great number of bills in Lansing, many of them on behalf of the Williams Administration.
Had Political Foresight
A large portion of the 14th Congressional District is also Ryan's State Senate District and, with political foresight, Ryan built support for himself throughout the area, joining more than 30 organizations in the process.
He was responsible for legislation requiring Louis C. Rabaut, Jr., the late representative's son, to add the words "Not the Present Incumbent" underneath his name on the primary ballot.
Labor endorsement has been a feature of all his campaigns. Ryan, his wife and five children, live at 3610 Bedford, Detroit.

Blue Hi-Y Club Holds Election

William Self, Grosse Pointe High School senior, was elected president of the Blue Hi-Y Club recently, according to Irvin Richter, advisor.

Self, of 1067 Berkshire road, has been a member of Blue Hi-Y for three years. Other club officers elected were: vice president, Bill Cooper of 87 Merriweather road; secretary, Ron Burns of 16620 Maumee; treasurer, William Bailey of 255 Moross; and chaplain, Cort Johns of 419 Rivard boulevard. Burns and Johns were hold-overs from the previous 1961 slate.

The Blue Hi-Y is a high school service club of approximately 35 members, sponsored by the Hannan Y.M.C.A. Throughout the school year 14 club members have given outstanding assistance as volunteer leaders in the Hannan Branch Y.M.C.A. youth gym and swim classes.

Other outstanding club activities have been participation in the United Nations Fall trip to New York, sending seven delegates to the Hi-Y Youth and Government Model Legislature in Lansing in December and four representatives to the Michigan State Hi-Y Officer Training Camp in August, at the State "Y" Camp Hay-O-Wen-Ta.

The retiring Blue Hi-Y Club officers were given high praises for their outstanding leadership.

Park Court Fines, Costs, Penalties Produce $32,662

The total revenue collected in fines, penalties and costs by the Park Municipal Court and Violation Bureau during 1962 was $32,662.30, according to an annual report released by Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger.

The judge heard 935 cases last year, imposing fines and costs amounting to $11,344.30 on those found guilty of specific charges; 6,839 traffic violators paid a total of $21,164.50 in the Violation Bureau; and $50 State cases tried by Judge Belanger brought in fines and costs of $128.85, which added to $24.65 in fees received on cases heard in 1960, made a total of $153.50.

Under the City Charter, fees covering State cases are not retained by the municipal judge, but are and have been paid to the Park City Treasurer. Unpaid fees of some of the cases heard last year will be received in 1962 and will be included in the 1962 annual report, the judge stated.

Of the 935 cases actually tried in the Park Court last year, traffic matter dispositions were as follows: 413 persons were fined, nine received fines and probation, 19 were fined and had licenses suspended, three were fined and jailed, 35 were sentenced to jail, 17 were given suspended sentences, four appeals were heard, one person was ordered to attend traffic school, four persons were given probation, 139 forfeited bonds. There was no disposition in one case, 644 persons were found guilty, 580 paid fines, and 180 notifications were sent to the Secretary of State's Office in Lansing.

Of the total number of cases tried, 41 involved violations under City Ordinances involving loitering, minors in possession of alcohol, drunk and disorderly, disorderly conduct, dog ordinances and others.

Five defendants were found not guilty, sentence was suspended in two cases, probation of six months given in one case, fines were imposed in 14 cases, and jail sentences were handed out in seven cases.

In his report, Judge Belanger disclosed that he actually restricted driving privileges for varying terms in many cases, but in the majority of the cases justifying recommendation of restriction of driving privileges, these matters were referred to the Secretary of State. Under the point driving rules, the greater part of these matters were handled by cooperation with that office.

The Court received and issued all necessary criminal complaints during the past year, including all warrants, and held all arraignments and examinations when demanded and undertook and discharged such other proceedings as were necessary respecting defendants in felony and/or high misdemeanor matters.

The judge stated that these included the binding and remanding of certain defendants to the Wayne County Circuit Court for further proceedings and/or trial, since his court does not have jurisdiction over final disposition of these matters.

Judge Belanger lauded Police Chief Arthur E. Louwers for his intelligent supervision of the Police Department, as well as the members of that department.

He also expressed his gratitude for the active and intelligent services rendered by Mrs. Grace McCracken, court clerk, as well as that of Mrs. Bettyann Calvin and Mrs. Veronica Fodell, personnel of the violation Bureau.

City Manager Robert Stone was also lauded for his continuous cooperation accorded Judge Belanger during 1962.

Devils and Highland Park Tied for Cage Loop Lead

By Dan Hall

Grosse Pointe's Blue Devil cagers won their eighth straight victory last Friday, easily beating Royal Oak Dondero 59-32. Grosse Pointe, now tied for first place with a 7-1 mark in the BCL, has an 11-2 overall record.

In other BCL action co-leader Highland Park walloped Monroe 64-48. Wyandotte outscored Fordson by 10 points in the third period to grab a 64-49 victory.

Royal Oak scored the first basket against the Devils, but Marc Lonesk tied it up just seconds later and Grosse Pointe was never behind again.

Many Stars Noted
Guards Vic Dhooge, Gary Spade, and Jerry Brennan deserve much of the credit for the easy victory, stealing the ball several times during the second and third quarters. Jim Seder and Lonesk did not give the Acorns second chances on missed shots. They dominated the backboards through most of the game. Lonesk was high scorer with 25 points.

The Devils have two games remaining, at Fordson this Friday and at home against Monroe next week.

Although Fordson has lost two of three games since losing star Joe Hammond at mid-term graduation, the Tractors will have an advantage in playing on their home court. They will be out for revenge of the 57-37 loss they suffered at the hands of the Devils in the first half of the season. Last year the Tractors kept Grosse Pointe from a share of the title with a 10-point upset victory. The Devils should win, however, unless they suffer a severe let down.

Highland Park will face Wyandotte and then Fordson in its closing games. There seems to be little chance of either team upsetting the Parkers.

Babe Ruth Loop Mails Contracts

Over 200 Boys who will play in the Woods-Shores Babe Ruth League this season have received player contracts. They were mailed this week to graduates of Little League and hold-over players from last year.

All Woods-Shores boys, 13 to 15 years of age, are eligible, and contracts can be obtained from registration chairman Art Delmege, 1072 Brys drive, south, Grosse Pointe Woods. Contracts must be returned by March 21.

The Board of Governors is preparing for a banner season, and urges all parents to assist by preparing their sons for play. Such things as checking equipment and seeing that the boys are in good physical condition will be of great help to the managers and coaches. The parents should also talk to their neighbors and bring them to the games. All this makes for a better community.

The Board of Governors, consisting of Messrs. Hancock, president; Nolte, vice-president; Morrison, secretary; Frederick, treasurer; and Conley, Doyle, Noble, Foster, Blohm, Delmege, Siemour, Marsteller and Bruce, seek the cooperation of all in helping to make the coming season the best of all.

GPUS Knights Beat Maumee

by Al Blist

The Grosse Pointe University School Knights surprised everyone, including themselves, last Friday, February 16, by beating a tough Maumee Valley Country Day team 63-37 before a packed house in the Cook road gym.

The game had been expected to be a nip and tuck battle all the way. In their last meeting, on January 20, the two teams had battled to a 48-all tie at the end of regulation time and the Knights just pulled out a 55-51 overtime victory.

The Mohawks, coached by Les Grace who was prevented by illness from attending this game, were expected to return with a vengeance. However the Grosse Pointers were just a little more hungry and simply out-hustled them.

The game started off as expected. Both teams played cautious defensive ball. The teams seemed evenly matched and by the end of the first quarter the Knights owned a scant three point lead 12-9.

The second half was a different story. The G.P.U.S. squad threw up a zone defense that was impregnable. John Golanty, whose defensive play was superb, set the pace with his spectacular snuff of Chip Condon, a 6-3 senior. Golanty, who dumped in 14 points for the winners, was the real spark-plug on the floor. His play, more than any other's, was the reason the Knights won.

There were others who sparkled too. Brooke Harrington repeatedly stole the ball and fed captain Alan Hartwick who dumped in three straight lay ups which proved to be the turning point in the game. From then on the Knights seemed to take control.

In the second quarter the Knights outscored the Maumee team 16-7. The score at half time was Grosse Pointe—28; Maumee—16.

The Grosse Pointers picked up right where they had left off when the second half started. Maumee's big guns were held in check by a very aggressive defense that wouldn't give an inch. Maltbie Brown, who had scored 24 points in the previous game, was held to only seven by 6-3 sophomore George Perrin. Perrin shared scoring honors with captain Alan Hartwick as each got seventeen.

The fourth quarter was the big quarter point-wise for the G.P.U.S. squad. They garnered 20 points. George Perrin swished in four straight buckets at one time. John Golanty added six. Maumee too had their biggest quarter in sinking eleven points.

The win was the seventh in a row for the hard-charging Knights and because of it they are now first seeded in the upcoming tournament to be held in Maumee, Ohio. Also participating will be Maumee, Detroit Country Day, and Park School of Indianapolis, Indiana, the basketball state.

St. Paul Girl Tankers Win

The Saint Paul Mermaids, in the most impressive showing of the season, splashed to their sixth victory as they downed Our Lady of Mercy, 54 to 32 last Thursday, February 15, at Grosse Pointe High School pool.

The pace of the meet was set in the first event, the 40-yd. freestyle, where Elaine O'Leary and freshman Myke Farnam battled for a tied first place.

By the time this article appears the Grosse Pointers will have completed their regular season after a very tough game with class "B" Cherry Hill High on Tuesday.

Backstrokers Ann Brecht and Liz Crother slammed the 40-yd. backstroke. Rookie Betty Porter tied another school record taking second place in the 20-yd. butterfly with Mary Beth Dean .2 of a second behind. Topping the whole meet with a final, impressive win, the freestyle relay team of Myke Farnam, Elaine O'Leary, Annette Wibelman and Jane Thorn setting a new record.

Steffes Stars As Friars Win

Dan Steffes, senior co-captain of the Friars, scored 36 points to spark Austin to a 91-65 victory over St. Thomas in a non-league contest on February 15.

The 36-point total came within three points of All-American Dave Debusschere's 1958 school record.

The effort came in a relatively easy win over a strong St. Thomas team. Despite a slow start, during which Austin barely pulled out a 16-15 first quarter lead, the Friars led at the half 44-35.

The third quarter was the one in which Steffes scored most of his points. He scored 20 points, all on field goals as the Friars took a 68-57 lead. In the fourth quarter, the 5-10 guard was taken out to a standing ovation, and the third string put in.

In scoring, Dennis Bankey, St. Thomas' high-scoring forward, with 31, was just behind Steffes. Austin center Bob Hitt, who looked strong on rebounding and tip-ins, tallied sixteen. Austin forwards Sam McKnight and Rick Pine each had eight.

The Friars were originally scheduled to play Holy Redeemer last Friday, but the contest was postponed to Thursday, February 22.

Pointe Ski Club Sets Final Trips

Three final midweek ski trips are planned by the Grosse Pointe Ski Club this season. They will be to areas not yet visited by the club this winter.

On Wednesday evening, February 21, the club plans to go to Mt. Holly, longest established ski resort in southeastern Michigan. February 28, the group is scheduling a visit to Summit and the last of the midweek trips is set for the Dryden ski area on March 7.

These mid-week trips leave the Grosse Pointe War Memorial at 6 o'clock on the Wednesday evenings indicated. Hot box suppers will be served to all and the skiers will be transported to the slopes in chartered de luxe buses which return to the Center at midnight.

Charge for the evening to Grosse Pointe Ski Club members is $3.50; $1. more for guests. All get the advantage of a reduced tow charge at the areas. Paid reservations for these last midweek trips must be in to the Center, 32 Lake Shore (TU 1-7511), as soon as possible and at the latest by the Monday prior to the trip.

The grand wind-up for the Ski Club season is a week-end trip to Boyne and Nubs Nob staying at the post Village Inn at Walloon Lake March 9-11. Round trip chartered Greyhound transportation plus shuttle service to and from slopes, de luxe lodging, meals, a Saturday night dance with orchestra and all chair lift charges for two days skiing is included for a charge of $42. for Grosse Pointe Ski Club members; $5. more for guests.

There is only room for 39, so those interested are urged to get their paid reservations in to the Center as soon as possible.

National Record Shattered As GPHS Tankers Win Again

By Lynn Freeland

Four of the happiest people in the whole country were in Grosse Pointe Friday night. They were Fred Cutler, Bob Schellig, John Woods, and Mark Marsh.

They had just set a national scholastic record for the 160-yard medley relay with a time of 1:21.0.

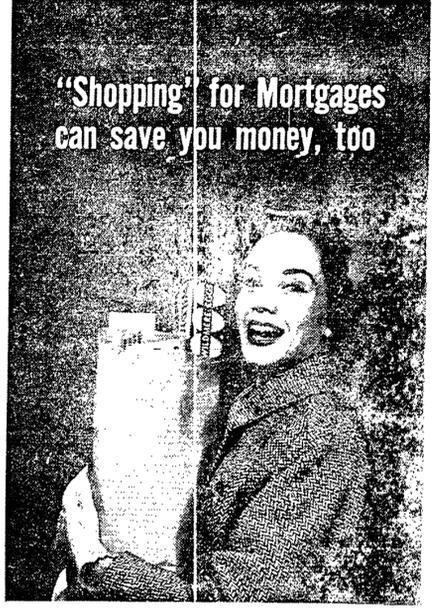

The previous record, 1:21.4, was set last year by a school in Columbus, Indiana.

Win 25th Straight
The record came toward the close of a meet with Royal Oak Dondero. The Acorns became the 25th consecutive victim to fall to the Blue Devils in dual meets. The score was 69-36.

Royal Oak, never even a threat, won only two of the 11 events. The wins came when Bruce Rose edged out Norb Olmann to win the 100-yard breaststroke and when Bob Coffman took the diving.

Devil backers had a few anxious moments when Barry Brink injured his shoulder by slamming into the wall in making the final relay.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

Recently some people have become concerned about the teaching of more patriotism in the schools. This is a fine idea considering the tremendous tasks that need doing to make this great nation of ours an even greater one. Our children should become aware of the responsibilities that will one day be theirs. They should be impressed with their duty to their fellowman—both at home and abroad. They should be encouraged to develop a sense of pride in our great wilderness and natural resources, to become careful custodians of our natural wealth.

These children of ours should know their country's history and its constitution, including the amendments. They should be able to thrill to the knowledge that we have a "land of the free"—freedom to worship as we please—freedom of speech and press—freedom to lift our eyes to the flag as it sweeps heavenward at dawn and think: This is the greatest country on earth. Here a man can think, and laugh. He can eat when he is hungry. Here, he can roam at will to its four corners and revel in its beauty.

Yes—let us teach more patriotism!

P.S. This is what we teach, and much, much more.

A Teacher

sons who delivered material to my home and were not identified, and to the editor and staff of the Grosse Pointe News, we extend our sincere and grateful thanks for the wonderful assistance given us.

I cannot help but include a reminder that the need for cancer pads is dire and unending; any material made available to us at a future date will be equally appreciated.

Again, many thanks for the fine cooperation.

February 13, 1962
To the Editor:

Our heartfelt thanks for the generous support and coverage you and your media again gave the March of Dimes during the recent successful 1962 campaign.

That 40,000 Wayne County Marching Mothers would brave near zero weather, joining in with the million Marching Mothers across the country in the nation's largest voluntary health event, (along with the thousands of other volunteers including teens, etc.), certainly could only be accomplished through the help of media such as yours in making the people aware of the mission to be accomplished by the volunteers effort, effectively stated by our slogan "Your Dimes Will Do It Again."

On behalf of all the volunteers, those who are being helped now and will be helped in the future, we of the March of Dimes, say thanks.

Gratefully,
Charles L. Gehring

Gentlemen:

It may interest you to know what a wide circulation your excellent paper has. Bro. Gerald McCormick also a native Grosse Pointe, teaching in Holy Cross High School, River Grove, Ill., receives your paper and when he is finished with it, sends it on to me. Not only do we both enjoy it but it is passed around our house to the other Brothers from the Grosse Pointe area. Hometown news is always good news—keep up your fine work.

As ever,

Center to Show Girl Scout Art

The several Girl Scout troops in the Grosse Pointe District will be displaying their art work in the second floor exhibit rooms of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial from Saturday, March 3, through Sunday, March 11.

This will include a preview of items which they will enter in the contest at the Girl Scout's Golden Panorama to be given later in the spring at the State Fair Grounds. Actually nine pictures from the War Memorial will be chosen to go to the Fair Grounds on May 19 and 20. From there, the very best pictures from the Detroit area will be sent to the national round-up exhibit at Button Bay, Vermont scheduled for July.

This is a chance for every Girl Scout to share with others the things that make her town unique since all the subject matter for the art work is drawn from the girl's immediate local surroundings.

Many troops have participated in this art effort at the different schools. All have received adult guidance.

Included in the show are troops from the following schools directed by the consultants indicated: Our Lady Star of the Sea—Mrs. Edward Baron; Defer, Pierce and Trombley—Mrs. C. J. Deeds; Beacon and Harper Woods—Mrs. Robert Chappel; Our Lady Queen of Peace—Mrs. Earl Lang; Poupard—Mrs. F. Schrader; St. Peter's—Mrs. R. Knoll; Grosse Pointe High School, Richard and the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church—Mrs. Samuel Thorne; Ferry—Mrs. Guenther Buerger and Mrs. Thomas Gallagher; Brownell—Mrs. Robert Pickup; Kerby—Mrs. F. Galda; Monteith—Mrs. B. Ladendorff; Maire—Mrs. Robert Patterson; and St. Claire deMontefalco—Mrs. Carl Rinaldi.

The exhibit may be seen weekdays 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. and Sundays from noon to 5 p.m. It is wise, however, to call before coming to view as the rooms are sometimes occupied by meetings.

HC Glee Club Here Tonight

What Goes On at Your Library

by Jean Taylor

The date on which this paper reaches you, Friday, February 22, to all good Americans means one thing, George Washington's Birthday. Down through the years, however, many historical happenings and events of human interest have fallen on this date. WHEN DID IT HAPPEN, a reference book by Stanford Mirkin, turns up some interesting facts.

ON FEBRUARY 22 1630—Colonists of the Massachusetts Bay Colony were introduced to "popped corn" as friendly red men shared their first Thanksgiving dinner. Their story is told in many books on colonial times.

. 1732—George Washington was born on a plantation near Fredericksburg, Virginia. There are on the library shelves some thirty or more books about "the Father of our Country."

. 1810—Frederic Francois Chopin was born in Warsaw. Four full length biographies of this Polish composer and pianist are in constant circulation.

. 1819—Florida was ceded to the United States in a treaty with Spain. Thirteen books about this popular state are listed in the catalog. HOW TO RETIRE TO FLORIDA by George and Jane Dusenbury, and FLORIDA, A WAY OF LIFE by Mike Smith, are the two most recent.

. 1819—James Russell Lowell, American poet, diplomat, critic and editor, was born. The library has the complete poetical works of this poet, as well as a study of his early literary career, VICTORIAN KNIGHT ERRANT, by Leon Howard.

. 1847—General Zachary Taylor won a brilliant victory over Lopez de Santa Anna and his Mexican forces at the Battle of Buena Vista. When immediate surrender was demanded, Thomas Crittenden, one of Taylor's aides replied, "General Taylor never surrenders." This became a popular slogan during the political campaign which preceded Zachary Taylor's tenure as president. There are no full length biographies of this military hero available at the library, but his story with others is told in such books as James Morgan's OUR PRESIDENTS. It is his contribution as a soldier that most of the history books stress, since his term in the White House was a brief sixteen months.

. 1879—The first "five cent store," forerunner of the modern "five-and-ten" was opened in Utica, New York, by Frank W. Woolworth. The response was at first disappointing, with sales running as low as $2.50 a day. A few months later the store was moved to Lancaster, Pennsylvania, where it proved a success. The man and his business were inseparable, as John Kennedy Winkler shows in his biography "THE FIVE AND TEN, the fabulous life of F. W. Woolworth," which is in fact as much a history of the famous business as the story of its founder. Nina Baker has written the life story of Woolworth NICKLES AND DIMES for the junior high age.

. 1892—The American poet, Edna St. Vincent Millay was born. In the library's collection are fourteen books of her poetry and plays, and also her LETTERS, edited by A. R. MacDougal.

. 1931—A "Carrie Nation Brigade" was organized in Miami, Florida to make war on speakeasies, bootleggers and gamblers. In his book LUNATIC FRINGE, Gerald W. Johnson tells the story of this militant woman, as well as those of many controversial figures whose eccentricities have been eroded by time.

. 1943—An American commercial airliner plunged into the Tagus River in Portugal. It was carrying a number of American entertainers, scheduled to perform at military installations. Twenty-four were drowned. Among the survivors was the radio and TV singer, Jane Froman. Donald B. Robinson's THE FACE OF DISASTER is a study of the psychology of disaster written with a lively sense of drama. This book does not include the Portugal tragedy, but reviews some of the catastrophes that have struck in various parts of the world.

- 6:30 p.m.—Soprionist International of Grosse Pointe—Dinner and Meeting.
- *7 p.m. to 9:30 p.m.—Reading Dynamics—Class.
- 7 p.m.—Grosse Pointe Toastmaster Club—Meeting.
- *7:30 p.m.—Memorial Bridge Club—Duplicate Bridge—Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Walrond—Directors.
- *8 p.m. to 10 p.m.—U.S. Foreign Policy—Class—Russell Barnes—Instructor.
- *8 p.m.—Grosse Pointe War Memorial Gourmet Series No. 3—Demonstration and tasting.

Maybe you've been in our pharmacy and noticed all the ways there are to lose weight Pills, tablets, capsules — all kinds. Most are designed to reduce your appetite — and thus, you. All well and good, but if you have a serious weight problem, there is only one sensible thing to do. See your physician. What's New on THE HILL...

By Roberta

ASTRONAUT, John Glenn has just passed over the Indian Ocean station in his flight around the world at 17,500 miles an hour. And we are as happy and thrilled as all good Americans. However, we can't look at TV all day. We will come from cloud nine, and offer you this week, as usual, all that's good from your favorite shopping center . . . the Hill.

There's Julie and Hebert

for example. They've really HAD it. Life hasn't been easy for them. They are viewing the world with wide-eyed stares in the attractive windows of The Dants this week. Can you guess their origin?

Plans are in progress, by a committee, to beautify the Hill even more. It won't be a big job as the planting of the stately maple trees that line the avenue. But it will be purty.

And Mr. Kleen

the guy who picks up the gum and candy wrappers, etc., on the Hill has been busy oiling the wheels of his white cart. We expect a new coat of white paint on it, too, come Spring.

There will be the Spring influx of goodies always attendant here after the gift showings in Chicago and New York. Most of the buyers have been away and are already back.

John Glenn

is in a capsule. That reminds us of another kind of smaller capsule. The single capsule you sometimes hold in your hand. It represents the success of years of effort by the pharmaceutical industry . . . and at a staggering cost. Penicillin, sulfanilamide, Insulin . . . these and many other familiar medicines now protect your health because the medical and pharmaceutical professions constantly seek new and better therapeutic agents. Trail Apothecary Shop is proud to be a part of this dedicated effort to preserve your health.

Tarpon outfits are those essential three piece outfits for toddlers and sizes three to six featured at Young Clothes. They are designed by Gale and Lord of fine cotton plaid (navy, white, and red). The cap . . . slack . . . and red flannel lined jackets . . . speak of Spring . . . and fun for the children outside. Tags read twelve dollars and ninety-eight cents.

The gasp

you take when you view the new Oriental type table settings and accessories they are expecting in the League Shop won't be your last one. You'll recover and agree with us that they are so well adapted to modern living. See your current issues of House and Garden or House Beautiful magazines for a preview.

The Austrian Armoire

in the window of the Dants dates back to 1748. Take a peek under the cover . . . newspapers line the inside . . . with news articles about Disraeli! The charm and elegance of antiques is portrayed here.

Camera Club Meets Feb. 27

The Grosse Pointe Camera Club will meet Tuesday, February 27, at 8 p.m. at the Neighborhood Club, 17145 Waterloo. The program for this meeting will be a slide show—"The Best of Anscochrome for 1962." Anscochrome has announced its 2nd Annual contest for camera clubs, and if clubs participate in this contest, special awards are made to the club.

AAUW to Sponsor New York Players

Will Give Performances of "The Emperor's New Clothes" at Pierce Junior High School on March 3; Mrs. Edward Hanpeter, Chairman of Project

The children of Grosse Pointe will be given the opportunity to see an Oriental version of Hans Christian Andersen's world-renowned fairy tale, "The Emperor's New Clothes" at Pierce Junior High School Auditorium on Saturday, March 3.

The play, "The Emperor's New Clothes," will be performed by the Professional Traveling Playhouse of New York City, which has been brought to our community by the Grosse Pointe Branch of the American Association of University Women.

The play takes place in the Chinese Orient when two rogues, Gung and Ho, enter strangers and manage to reveal the knavery of the wicked Prime Minister Ching as well as the foolishness of the glib Emperor. The Princesses, Lotus Flower and Cherry Blossom, assist them in their plotting. Song and dance are liberally used throughout the play to enhance its beauty.

Mrs. Edward Hanpeter, (TU 2-6361), Children's Theater Chairman of AAUW, has announced that there will be two performances—1 and 3 o'clock and that the price of admission is $7.50.

Group seats will be reserved for twelve or more children if Mrs. Hanpeter is notified before February 28th. Tickets are on sale through AAUW members in all the area schools as well as at the following locations: Peter Pan, Inc.; Doubleday's; Punch and Judy Toyland; Harkness Pharmacy and Arnold Drugs in St. Clair Shores.

Mrs. Donald Jennings (TU 2-5633), AAUW Fellowship chairman, has patrons tickets available for a $5 contribution.

Park Garden Club to Meet

The Grosse Pointe Park Garden Club will celebrate the founding of the first Garden Club in America at Athens, Ga., in 1891 with a dinner for club members and their husbands in the Devonshire road home of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Schumann, at 6:30 p.m. on Saturday evening, February 24.

Hostesses will be Mrs. Frederick Schumann and Mrs. Edgar Cooper, who have planned a Gay Nineties Party, with costumes, songs, records, and games of the period plus the showing of an appropriate film.

As a patroness you will receive three tickets to the show. These tickets may be used in one of two ways: use the tickets yourself or designate that the tickets be used by the Children's Theater Committee for children at the Methodist Child Home, and St. Mary's Episcopal Home, who will be brought to the performance.

The Grosse Pointe High Alpha Y Teens will usher at both performances. Students from the Pointe Players will help behind the stage with scenery and costumes.

Mrs. Jennings explains that the benefits of the theater program are two-fold: to help raise funds for the AAUW Fellowship Fund, which gives financial assistance to American and foreign women for post graduate study and research, and to give the children of the community an opportunity to view a live professional theater production.

Local AAUW members responsible for bringing the "Emperor's New Clothes" to the children of the Grosse Pointe Communities on Saturday, March 3, are: Mrs. Edward Hanpeter, chairman; Miss Virginia Becker, Mrs. Kenneth Cook, Mrs. E. Dawson Fisher, Mrs. Donald Jennings, Mrs. Jesse Lowther, Mrs. James Mast, Mrs. Allan Neef, Mrs. Donal Ohmart, Mrs. Louis Rinehart, Mrs. Robert Snyder and Mrs. William Waugaman.

Builders' Show Plans Contest

An open contest in flower arranging for amateurs will be staged at the Builder's Home, Furniture and Flower Show, to be held February 23 through March 4 in Cobo Hall.

This will mark the second time in the history of major flower shows in the Midwest that such a competition has been offered. The first occurred at last year's Builder's Show.

Winner of the challenge class competition will be given a trip to London, England, in May to attend the Chelsea Flower Show, will be invited to make a guest arrangement at that show and will be a fellow of the Royal Horticultural Society.

Sponsors of the competition are the Michigan Horticultural Society and Allied Florists Association.

"Considerable interest was shown when this contest was offered last year for the first time," said Gordon Spoor, show chairman. "We expect even more interest this year in the event, which is only one of the many features which will highlight the 'Garden Path' section of the show."

Last year's winner of the challenge class was Mrs. Hansel Wilson of Grosse Pointe, who is ineligible for this year's event but who is serving on the committee.

Contestants will be selected on a "first come, first chosen" basis. The first 100 entries submitted and 25 alternates will be selected to participate in the contest.

On each of four consecutive days beginning February 26, a group of contestants will prepare their arrangements in an open workshop area so no visitors may watch artistic creations being made, between 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. each day. Judging is scheduled between 1 and 2 p.m. daily.

Materials and containers will be furnished by the two sponsoring organizations. Contestants must supply their own work tools. To encourage individual interpretation, contestants will use identical flowers and containers.

Chairman of the competition is Mrs. William H. Burlingame of Birmingham who introduced the program here last year after attending a similar open contest in Amsterdam.

Paul DePatis of Detroit is chairman of the Judges' committee and Robert Windler is in charge of the stock committee.

when the POINTE was growing up

By Pat Talbot

One of the Pointe's most impressive and influential families, to whom every resident who enjoys the War Memorial owes a debt of gratitude, began with a controversial general and lumber baron.

Much has been written about General Russell Alger, some of it bitter, some of it praiseworthy. At the University of Michigan are the general's own papers which reveal that he may have been grossly misjudged by historians. As President William McKinley's Secretary of War during the misguided Spanish-American War he has been forced to assume the responsibility for unhappy aspects of the war which were not entirely his.

Born in an Ohio log cabin of pioneer parents, the General came to Michigan in 1859, was among the first to enlist in the Union Army when war came. He was a captain by 1861 and a colonel when he led the Fifth Michigan Cavalry charge at Gettysburg. His companion at arms was George Custer, to whom history has also been harsh. Alger rode under Philip Sheridan's command in the campaigns of the Shenandoah Valley. After the war he returned to Michigan to amass his huge fortune by selling the virgin pine of the state's undeveloped north.

He ran successfully for governor in 1885. A firm admirer of McKinley and a conservative Republican, the general, a man of great personal integrity, honest, sincere, forthright, was perhaps politically inept, unable to get along with the more routine political figures.

In 1888 he went to the GOP convention with a good chance for the nomination. But the party hacks were afraid of Alger. Previous to the hours in the smoke filled rooms a whispering campaign had been started about the war record of which he was justly proud. Reports were circulated that Custer had recommended that Alger be disciplined and Sheridan had endorsed it. Alger just a few years previously had given Sheridan $10,000 to buy an insurance policy. The Alger papers show that his war record was unblemished; that he had been ill in a Washington hospital at the time Custer recommended the discipline. He lost the nomination to Harrison after 100 votes on the first ballot, but worse political troubles were in store.

McKinley, grateful for Alger's contribution, named him Secretary of War a few years later, just before the Spanish-American War broke out. The department was in a state of bad confusion, totally unprepared for war. A recent biographer of McKinley, Margaret Leach, has furthered the story of Alger's responsibility for the scandals in the War Department. Alger was unable to get along with the major general commanding the Army, Nelson A. Miles, a husband of one of Gen. Sheridan's nieces, and deep in the political intrigues of the day. When events proved disastrous for the American forces in Cuba, Miles was quick to criticize Alger. Miss Leach says, "Each was obsessed by a desire to thwart and discomfort the other . . . The honors of spite, in the long run, went to Miles."

There were accusations that Alger had, if not consented, at least overlooked the deplorable rations sent to the fighting men. Cartoons of Alger serving "embalmed beef" to the soldiers were prevalent in the press. Miles fostered the public indignation over Alger's appointment of a Michigan general to head the Santiago campaign. The Dodge Commission was formed to investigate.

Nothing was proved against the Secretary of War but he had to shoulder the blame of public opinion. A proud, reserved man, he would not resign and McKinley was reluctant to ask him. In the meantime Senator James McMillan, (a Pointer), was thought about to take a diplomatic post and Governor Hazen Pingree was rumored to be thinking of Alger for Senator. McMillan did not take the post and decided to run for re-election. McKinley was offended by the Pingree alliance and pressure was brought on him from no less than Theodore Roosevelt, the Rough Riders' leader-hero of the War. Some believed he was miffed because Alger had not given him the Congressional Medal of Honor. Finally Alger submitted his resignation and McKinley accepted it.

Gov. Pingree denounced the President and Sen. McMillan expressed regrets for his friend's retirement. Alger was given a hero's welcome in Detroit and after McMillan's death in 1902 had no difficulty being elected Senator in his own right.

He returned to his mansion in Fort street, continued to work for the Republican party and the City of Detroit. He bought land in the Pointe but he never lived here, leaving the mansion building to his sons in later years. He died in 1907 leaving three children, Russell A. Alger, Jr. (who built the War Memorial); Frederick M., and Caroline, who married Henry D. Sheldon.

Alger was a victim of political expediency, but through it all he maintained his own integrity, hurt that his services were not appreciated, his problems not understood, his friendships betrayed. He deserves better than the judgment history has accorded him.

MRS. GEORGE M. RYERSON, OF BALFOUR ROAD

By Patricia Talbot

If you are a dedicated silversmith in the Paul Revere tradition, 50 hours spent buffing one bowl is not too much and Mrs. George M. Ryerson has spent hours more on perfecting her pieces for exhibit.

Handcrafted silver is an old art and one that many artistically minded Pointe matrons have adopted for a hobby. Mrs. Ryerson began her silver work after training in the other arts. When she was still a student at Liggett she did a provocative copy of a Rembrandt portrait in the difficult medium of red chalk, and the painting hangs today in the Ryersons' library. She studied art at Wellesley and after her marriage she studied enameling and silver work at the Grosse Pointe High School's adult education course and at Cranbrook. For 10 years she has exhibited at the Michigan Artist-Craftsmen Show, currently on at the Art Institute.

Kiln in Basement An accomplished designer she spends hours on her drawings before the enamel or silver-work is fired. In her basement workshop and attend classes at a studio on Nottingham, where she goes once a week. Silver demands patience and time as well as talent, and the hobby is far from inexpensive. A six inch disc, from which a bowl may be made, costs $11.

Mrs. Ryerson does some professional work for decorators, will design an enamel piece to match a drapery fabric, or to blend with a certain decor. In silver she prefers the Danish style, for her own home has some unusual candelabra and silver dishes. She refuses to sell any of her exhibit work but does take orders for special customers, is busy months before Christmas turning out silver and enamel work.

Much Volunteer Work Since becoming a silversmith Mrs. Ryerson has little time for her music, but her husband plays the organ. She does devote many volunteer hours to her church and hospital and for years was active in the Cub Scout activities. The Ryersons have a son, Vance, 21, who is studying at Michigan State, and a daughter, 15, Kingsley, at the Grosse Pointe High School.

Although silver and enamel work demands hours of work before the finished product meets with the designer's approval there is real satisfaction in producing such handicraft.

New Technique Today when so much art work is produced commercially there is a real thrill in creating a special design. Mrs. Ryerson who has done such exquisite silver and enamel work, designed patterns for quilts, painted in oils and played concert music has added a new dimension to her artistic life. She is now working in a new technique, pique a jour, which combines silver and color in jewelry for a stained glass window effect and takes even more hours of patient work and creative ability.

There are scores of artistic women in the Pointe who, when they abandon dishes, ironing and marketing, have the inspiration and the talent to create works of beauty and skill. Mrs. Ryerson is one of the many who finds her creative outlet in silver and enamel work. There are many who share her talent and some of their work is this week on display at the Art Institute.

Following Chef Lupion will be Hugo Schiavi, proprietor of the new eastside restaurant on Eight Mile Road which bears his name. This house will offer a very interesting preparation of veal scaloppini followed by one of the most delicious of desserts, Zabaglione. Final session of the gourmet series will be Wednesday evening, March 7, when proprietor Diamond Phillips of Grosse Pointe brings his fine staff again from Little Harry's Restaurant to wind up this year's production. Appearing on this same final program will be Miss Frances Rossier of the Detroit Edison Foods Department. It is through the courtesy of the Edison Company that the demonstration kitchen in the Center's library has been made possible.

Tickets in limited numbers to the remaining sessions of the gourmet series are available at the Center (TUxedo 1-7511).

12 Years of Quality Work in Grosse Pointe ment is a powerful kiln to fire the copper enamel, some of the pieces needing 10 or 20 firings before the colors are set. She keeps a collection of modern designs in scrapbooks for inspiration. Several years ago she won an honorable mention at the Artist-Craftsmen show for a startling modern enamel plaque.

When she designs a piece she begins with a pencil or water-color drawing. Then the copper disc must be fired, dipped in nitric acid, burnished with steel wool before the colors are applied separately. For this work she wears a painter's smock and asbestos gloves in her basement workshop.

She is now working in a new technique, pique a jour, which combines silver and color in jewelry for a stained glass window effect and takes even more hours of patient work and creative ability.

There are scores of artistic women in the Pointe who, when they abandon dishes, ironing and marketing, have the inspiration and the talent to create works of beauty and skill. Mrs. Ryerson is one of the many who finds her creative outlet in silver and enamel work. There are many who share her talent and some of their work is this week on display at the Art Institute.

Heard the word? We were third in sales in '61. Third!

It's nice to be loved.

Like we've said: "When people like a car they show it." All you have to do is put together a car that's sharper looking, smoother running and a bigger value. That's why Pontiac and Tempest stormed into third place. * Why don't you see your Pontiac dealer (a very happy man these days) and go with a winner?
