The United States resumed nuclear testing in the atmosphere yesterday. An intermediate yield device, with resulting fallout less than that from any single blast in last year's Soviet series, was dropped from a high-flying plane and exploded in the vicinity of Christmas Island in the Pacific. This is the first in a full-scale program of U. S. tests, announced by President Kennedy over seven weeks ago.

At the time the tests were ordered, Kennedy stated that America stood ready to cancel her test series at any time, providing Russia would agree to a test-ban treaty with compulsory international inspection of suspected violations. The Soviet Union has, up to now, refused consent to such a treaty, charging that "international controls" is merely another name for Western "espionage."

Russia proposes that the "national inspection" system be continued, with each side detecting the other's atmospheric tests as they do now. This system is unsatisfactory, from the United States' viewpoint—especially as underground explosions are almost impossible to monitor from a distance, appearing on a far-off seismograph indistinguishable from earthquakes.

Russia immediately protested American test resumption, warning that the Christmas Island explosion has sounded the bell in a new round of the nuclear arms race, and anti-bomb demonstrations were organized throughout the world, the biggest in Tokyo and in London.

THE FIRST INTERNATIONAL SATELLITE was launched successfully yesterday, an American-built spacecraft carrying British instruments, the 132-pound paddle-wheeled satellite is the first in a series of international space exploration experiments. Plans call for launching a similar satellite, manufactured in the United States but equipped with Canadian instruments, later in the year, and a second U.S.-British experiment is scheduled for next year.

Another experimental launching with far-reaching international implications took place on Wallops Island, Va., the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's small test center, where a "Nike-Cajun" sounding rocket was used to boost a Japanese instrument designed to study the composition of the earth's ionosphere a few hundred miles into space. This U.S.-Japanese venture is the first of three such planned cooperative flights, and could lead eventually to a U.S.-Japanese satellite, uniting two former World War II enemies in the current scientific "space race."

The United States is presently cooperating with France, Norway, Pakistan, Sweden, New Zealand, Australia and Italy, as well as Japan, in scientific payload launches, and joint satellite projects could easily arise from these cooperative experiments. American scientists are already discussing a possible cooperative satellite project with France.

PRESIDENT KENNEDY met with British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan today in Washington. The two Western chiefs of state agreed on the desirability of keeping open channels of communication, on all diplomatic levels, with the Soviet Union, but decided against seeking an early conference with Premier Khrushchev. Neither Kennedy nor Macmillan sees much chance of a successful summit meeting at this time.

This was the first in a series of informal talks scheduled for the President and the Prime Minister. They conferred alone for about an hour, then were joined by several aides for a 45-minute discussion on disarmament. The Berlin question was also touched upon briefly before the meeting broke up for lunch. A second session of talks began at 3:30 p. m.

Big Antique Show to Aid Memorial

Forty Percent of Rotary Club's Proceeds from Annual Event to Go For Center Gift

Grosse Pointe Rotary will present its seventh annual antique show from May 8 through May 11 from 1-10 p.m. each day, at the War Memorial. All members of the club have been busy planning for this annual show under general chairman Al Thomas.

A roster of exhibitors from all parts of the country is being gathered by Sam Yeagly, manager. All antiques on exhibit will be for sale.

This year, to commemorate the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Grosse Pointe Rotary Club 40 percent of the proceeds from the show will be used to purchase a suitable gift for the new addition to the War Memorial. The remainder will be used for student scholarships and loans.

Rotary Ann's, under the chairmanship of Mrs. James Kearney, assisted by Mrs. Julius Tapert, will staff the popular Calico Kitchen which serves refreshments each day during the show.

Tickets will be sold by members of Rotary throughout the community from now until show time. Admission price is one dollar.

High School Boys' Clubs Helping in Clean-Up Drive

Boys in the service clubs at Grosse Pointe High School are doing a tremendous job in the Clean-Up campaign this week sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Garden Clubs Council.

Ten Classes Available with Limit of Two Classes Per Entry; "Butch" Monro, Show's Oldest Veteran, Will Be Missed

The deadline for registering for the 6th annual GROSSE POINTE NEWS Mutt Show is drawing near. Friday, May 11, is the last day local youngsters, 14 and under, may enter their dogs in this sixth annual spring event.

Policemen End Boy's Test Run

Park police arrested a 16-year-old Park boy Monday evening, April 30, and held him for investigation of car theft.

The teenager was arrested by Patrolmen Henry Wilson and Richard Conover, who were cruising on Jefferson when they spotted the boy in the car, driving a little too fast.

Taken to the station, the boy confessed that he had taken the car from the Simms-Dawson Motor Sales lot, Jefferson and Nottingham.

The boy gave the officers the excuse that he had taken the automobile because it had a stick-shift and he wanted to see if he knew how to drive a car with such a device. The officers were not impressed.

The boy was released to his parents, and a charge of car theft was filed against him with Juvenile authorities.

CAR DAMAGED

Harold W. Froebel, 52, of 1489 Bays Drive, complained to Woods police on Saturday, April 28, that while his car was parked around the corner of his house, at Charlevoix, a hit-and-run driver damaged the side of the vehicle.

Charles Toepel and Scott Sturton.

Sore Spot coupons filled in by residents and sent to the Garden Clubs Council are turned over to these boys and the properties complained about are cleaned up.

Twenty-two schools in the Grosse Pointe communities have received letters telling them that their school grounds will be judged this Saturday, May 5, and prizes awarded for the cleanest playground by the Grosse Pointe Garden Clubs Council.

Mrs. B. F. Martin, chairman of the playground cleanup campaign, has asked T. A. De Maire, president of the Men's Garden Club, to form a committee from his organization to be the judges. Three Viburnum Tom-

There are 10 fun classes from which to choose, with a maximum limit of two classes per entry. Listed are the largest and smallest dogs, poodles, best-groomed, dog most resembling his master, dog with the most doubtful ancestry, cutest puppy, (between 3-8 months), oldest dog, most-originally-named dog, and the trick class. No more than two tricks may be shown, per entry, in this last class.

On High School Field

The show will be held on the Grosse Pointe High School football field, which the Grosse Pointe Board of Education has generously loaned for the 3rd consecutive year. They will also provide bleachers for spectators, and 100 chairs for the entrants. Judging will begin at 9 a.m. and is expected to take about two-and-a-half hours in all.

As in the past, Roland Gray, of Gray's Raquet and Sport Shop, and an originator of the Mutt Show some 15 years ago, has donated gift certificates for free dog collars for three lucky show entrants. The judges will pick three numbers and those that correspond to the registration numbers will receive the collar certificates.

Another generous worker and contributor to past shows, Mrs. Lee Meyer of the "This 'n That" for Pets Shop, has again offered to give handsomely engraved first place trophies for every class. This is the third-consecutive year she has repeated this generous gesture.

"Butch" Will Be Missed

It is with regret that the announcement must be made that "Butch" Monro will not be among the contestants this year. "Butch" was an entry and prize winner in the very first Mutt Show 15 years ago. He has appeared in every one of these events and last year was awarded a special prize as the oldest veteran. "Butch" has passed on to dog Heaven since the last show. He was 18.

Upon registering, the participants are asked to pick up their "Official Mutt Show Entry" ribbons. These are available at the News office, 99 Kercheval, On-the-Hill, alongside the registration form.

All questions regarding the show should be directed to Mrs. John R. Gordon, TU 6-2817.

House Painter Does Damage Set at $1,384

Fear of Consequences for Ruined Floor Leads to Acts to Avoid Blame

Ronald J. Thomas, 32, of 1946 Damman, Harper Woods, a painter, spilled a can of paint in a house he was painting and tried to make it appear that vandals were responsible for the ensuing $1,384 in damage. His efforts failed to fool a Park policeman.

Thomas was arraigned before Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger on Wednesday, April 25, and pled guilty to a charge of malicious destruction of property and waived examination. The judge released Thomas on $3,000 bond, pending the next term of the Wayne County Circuit Court.

Malicious destruction of property in any amount above $100 constitutes a felony according to State law, it was disclosed by Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers.

LaPratt Breaks Case

The officer who broke the case was James LaPratt, who is with the plainclothes detail in the Detective Bureau.

LaPratt was skeptical about the story told by Thomas, who on March 19, was painting the interior of a house owned by

Police Seeking Trio of Teeners

Three 16-year-old boys, one from the Farms and two from the City, left town over a week ago in the Farms boy's car.

The juveniles' parents reported their sons missing Monday evening, April 23, the last day of public school vacation. One of the boys had received a traffic ticket in the City of Detroit, and had mentioned that he was afraid to tell his father, but Grosse Pointe City police consider the offense scarcely justified one boy's running away, let alone all three.

The youngsters had been heard talking about Florida, New York, and Northern Michigan. All three possibilities are being explored, but so far the boys have escaped detection.

They had only approximately $45 between them when they disappeared, and, with gasoline and food to buy, must now be almost penniless. Chances of a 16-year-old's finding a job without working papers are almost nil.

Police are conducting a full-time investigation, and expect to apprehend the run-aways momentarily.

10-Month Crime Spree Nets Drug Addict $11,192

Confesses to 20 Supermarket Thefts in Detroit Area Including One in Woods from Which He Took $3,385 After Three Visits

Chris Rakos, 36, no known address, who was arrested by Livonia police last January, confessed on Tuesday, April 24, that he had taken thousands of dollars from supermarkets in the Detroit area, including a store in the Woods.

Woods Det. Sgt. Walter O'Dell and Det. Leroy Tobian disclosed on Monday, April 30, that they had received information from Det. Sgt. Paul Sass and Det. William Rugh of Detroit's Holdup Bureau, that Rakos confessed to being responsible for stealing $3,385 from Wrigley's Supermarket, Mack and Moross, in February and April of 1961.

The Woods officers said that according to information received from the Detroit detectives, Rakos admitted committing four burglaries and was responsible for the disappearance of money from 20 supermarkets, including the one in the Woods, from January 3, 1961 to October 9, 1961. The 10-month crime spree netted Rakos a total of $11,192.23, it was said.

Spent It on Dope

Det. Lt. William Matson of the Holdup Bureau said that Rakos, a drug addict who has been in and out of prison over a long period of time, confessed to using most of the money to purchase dope.

The lieutenant said that Rakos never broke into safes, but only money boxes. He would force the locks, take whatever he could grab, relock the box and leave undetected. In all cases, except in the burglaries, Rakos would wait in a store until there was no one in the manager's office, walk in, expertly spring the lock, take the money and leave.

Managers of the stores were at a loss as to how the money was taken, and reported the mysterious disappearances of the cash to their respective police departments.

Seen Leaving Office

Rakos' crime spree came to an end last January when he was seen leaving the manager's office of a Wrigley's store in Livonia. He was arrested by Livonia police before he could get away.

O'Dell and Tobian said that the disappearance of the money from the Woods supermarket was reported by David DeVore, manager of the store.

Rakos paid two visits to the Woods store on February 7, 1961; the first time stealing $1,080, and the second time, $1,270. The third visit was on April 23, 1961, when Rakos got $1,035.

Rakos entered the manager's office during the times the store was open for business, and when no one was in the office, the detectives said.

INJURED IN FALL

William K. Fleck, 58, of 372 Ridgmont, fell from a ladder while working on the second floor of his house on Saturday, April 28. He was transported to St. John Hospital by Farms firemen, for x-rays and treatment. The extent of injuries were not given.

Center Drive Gifts Total $38,500 at Half-Way Mark

A total of $38,500 had been given to the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center's 1962 annual campaign for funds by the end of April, which marked the half way point in the drive.

While the Center is greatly pleased to announce that this is the largest amount ever received by the half-way point in a campaign, the directors wish to point out that the necessary goal of $60,000 to operate in the next fiscal year is the largest amount ever needed by the Memorial. The increased funds are needed due to the expanding of the plant to include the magnificent Fries Auditorium and banquet ballroom which, however, will not be finished and ready to bring in revenue until November.

While gifts have in general been more generous this year, the number of families who have made their contributions is lagging somewhat behind the pace of the two previous years. Thomas Munson, chairman of the 1962 campaign, is very hopeful that now at the first part of the month, which is check writing time in so many families, many more Grosse Pointe families will be sending in their contributions. The Center has recently mailed follow-up letters and postage-free remittance envelopes to all who have not yet been heard from and these brown and white envelopes should be on many Pointers' desks.

Next week additional follow-up effort will be made by volunteer telephone crews. Then if necessary "in person" solicitation will take place.

Subdividers Joining in Big Program

Surveys Being Made of Pavement, Walks, Curbs; Total Cost Estimated At $350,000

The Woods and subdivision developers will undertake a $350,000 street paving and resurfacing and repair program this summer, according to information released by City Administrator Chester Peterson on Monday, April 30.

The city administrator said that the improvement program will also include repair of curbing and sidewalks throughout the city.

He said that the new paving in the subdivisions presently under development will be done by subdivision owners, and the resurfacing and repairing of present public streets will be done by the city.

Conducting Surveys

Peterson said that the Department of Public Works is conducting a survey of the streets needing repairs and resurfacing, and is also surveying curbing, gutters and sidewalks, after which plans and specifications will be prepared for bids.

Developers are working on plans to pave sections of Blair-moor court, Edmonton drive, Canterbury road and sections of Morningside drive, Peterson said.

The city will prepare plans to repair and resurface Marter road, River road and pave new connecting roads south of the site of the Public Works garage, it was disclosed.

Checking Curbs, Walks

The committee has ordered a complete block by block survey of curbing, gutters and sidewalks throughout the entire city to check those that may need repair.

Peterson said that when the survey of streets, sidewalks and curbs is completed, the committee will make a study, and areas that are in most need of repairs will be taken care of first, and those least in need will be done last.

The city administrator said that the entire program should be completed by the end of summer or early fall.

Subdivision developers have already taken bids for their projects, but the city will not be able to ask for bids until the survey is finished, Peterson said.

Expecting 200 At MEA Banquet

More than 200 teachers and administrators are expected to attend the annual banquet of the Grosse Pointe Education Association, a district of the Michigan Education Association, to be held in the First English Evangelical Lutheran Church, May 8, at 6:45 p. m.

Keynote speaker will be John Starie, field service coordinator for the National Education Association, who will discuss the topic, "Unfinished Business."

Binding greetings to the group will be Ray MacLoughlin, teacher, Trenton High School, MEA president for 1962-63.

Featured at the session will be the introduction of the district's newly elected officers for the coming school year.

Displayed at the banquet will be the exhibit which was entered for the Grosse Pointe News in the MEA's annual School Bell Award Presentation. One of the 1962 School Bell Award winners, the Grosse Pointe News was cited for distinguished and comprehensive coverage of education at the MEA's Representative Assembly held in Lansing, April 6.

Presiding at the meeting will be Jack Darvill, Defer Elementary School, Grosse Pointe, president of the Grosse Pointe Education Association.

Other district officers are: Florence Miller, Pierce Junior High School, president-elect; Thelma Grandia, Poupard Elementary School, secretary; and David Thomas, Mason Elementary School, treasurer.

Also attending the meeting will be members of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education and MEA field representatives Daniel Manthe and John Carlson.

Men's Chorus Giving Concert

The Grosse Pointe Men's Chorus will hold its Annual Spring Concert at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Friday evening, May 4, at 8 o'clock.

Under the direction of John Finch, the chorus will present a full evening of fine group singing highlighted by vocal solos by Ralph Morrison and Howard Lewis and piano solos by Thomas Pettit.

The Men's Chorus has had a full season of service to the community. It has sung at such widely diversified places as Men's Night in The Village, Parent Teachers Associations and for the older residents at Carmel Hall and the Salvation Army Home.

Mr. Finch is especially proud of his chorus this year. He feels that the 25-voice group has achieved a better balance than in any previous year of their long history which dates back to the beginning of World War II.

Following the concert guests will meet the singers over refreshments. Tickets for the affair are $1 to help support chorus activities throughout the year.

TO SHOW WIGS

Bon Secours Hospital Guild will meet Tuesday, May 8, at 1 p.m. Leon's of Grosse Pointe will show his collection of masterpiece wigs to the Guild members.

Mix Beer, Speed In Antique Car

Two young men, stopped for speeding in a 1929 Hupmobile on Kercheval avenue last Friday evening, April 27, have been charged with illegal possession of beer and wine, and issued notices to appear in Grosse Pointe City Justice Court.

Patrolman Edward H. Behrend apprehended 20-year-old Theodore T. Licovoli, 1154 Balfour, and his 18-year-old companion, John B. Hendricks, 1173 Nottingham, shortly after 9:30 p.m.

The boys had an open, partly-consumed bottle of beer in their car, and a half-empty bottle of wine. Licovoli, the driver, was ticketed for speeding 35 mph in a residential zone.

Licovoli also received a ticket for improper license plates. The plates on the Hupmobile were found to have come from another car owned by his family. Both boys were released pending their Justice Court appearances, and their car held at the rear of the station until the proper plates had been secured.

House Painter

James W. Bresser of 2419 West Grand boulevard, Detroit, preparatory to the latter moving into the house.

The policeman, when assigned to the case, went to the house to find floors, walls, windows and even a mural on a wall in one of the rooms ruined with paint. Cans of paint were dumped on the floors.

It hardly seemed possible to LaPratt that children would do such a terrific amount of damage, and when he questioned Thomas, the painter's story somehow did not ring true.

LaPratt stuck to the case, and at least once a week, questioned Thomas. After each interrogation, the policeman became more convinced than ever that the painter was not telling the truth.

GPMS Musicians Get High Rating

Both the Grosse Pointe High School concert band and orchestra qualified for the state competitions festivals by obtaining a first division "superior" rating at the district festival in March.

On Saturday, April 28, both groups again obtained first division ratings at the state festival held in Lansing and East Lansing.

Adjudicators judged both the band and orchestra and all eight gave the Grosse Pointe groups a first or "superior" rating. This included a half-hour concert plus a sight reading event.

The high school band was the only "AA" band to receive first division ratings from all judges in the event that ran from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Evades Test Answers

On Tuesday, April 24, LaPratt suggested that Thomas submit to a lie detector test, to which the painter agreed. The test was given at the State Police Centerline Post, where Thomas gave evasive answers to the questions put to him.

On the return trip back to the Park station, Thomas broke down and confessed that the vandalism was his doing. He told LaPratt that while he was carrying a can of paint, the handle broke and paint spilled on the floor.

Thomas said that he became frightened of the consequence that might result from the accident, and hit on the idea of the vandalism in hopes that it might be blamed on prankish children.

Chief Louwers and Det. Lt. Arnold Hough lauded LaPratt for his excellent police work.

Burglar Robs Woods Eatery

A burglar used a hammer to break a plate glass window of the LaCoppola Family Restaurant, 20515 Mack avenue, to enter the place and take money from the cash register.

The burglary was discovered by Joseph Coppola, Sr., co-owner of the establishment, on Saturday, April 28, who arrived at 6:25 a.m. to clean up the place. He told Woods Patrolmen Adrian Meehan and Thomas Kerving that the breaking apparently occurred between 4:45 a.m., when the place was closed, and the time he opened up.

The officers checked the premises and found a ball peen hammer in the top drawer of a display counter, which Coppola said did not belong to him. The hammer was tagged as evidence.

Joseph Coppola, Jr., called to the restaurant, checked the cash register and told the policemen that the thief took $75 that was in it.

The case is being investigated by Det. Sgt. Walter O'Dell and Det. Leroy Tobjan.

Blood Counting Brain to Be Displayed

MISS AUDREY SCHNEIDER, chemical technologist at Bon Secours Hospital demonstrates an electronic brain which can compute the amount of sugar in a sample of blood. The "brain" is so versatile, it also measures the amount of nitrogen, total proteins and cholesterol in the blood. With attachments it measures all other blood chemistries.

Automation has caught up to the medical laboratory in the form of an electronic brain. For instance, in making a count of the number of blood cells floating around in the human body, as is done routinely on all hospital admissions and in the study of most disease states, it formerly was necessary for a laboratory technician to draw an accurate amount of blood into a calibrated pipette containing a fixed amount of mixed solution.

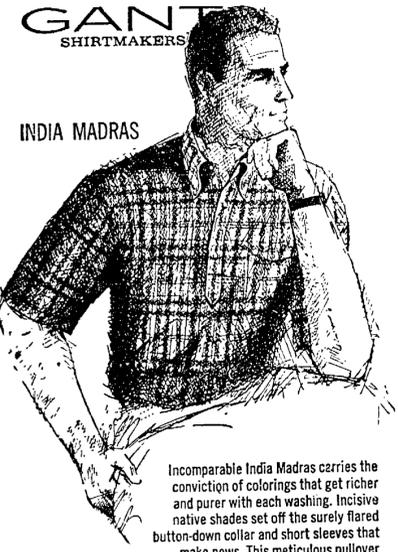

The technician then shook the pipette by hand until she thought the cells were thoroughly mixed and transferred a portion of the solution into a counting chamber under a microscope where a representative "square" was sought and the number of cells tabulated on a finger counter.

Today a solution of blood is introduced into an electronic "brain" called a Coulter Counter. Flashes of electric waves appear on a screen, each flash representing one cell passing by in single formation, an automatic counter registers each flash, and the blood count appears in a window at the end of the electronic machine.

The same is true in a blood sugar determination. Instead of filtering the blood into a test tube, adding a chemical, boiling, settling, and then comparing with a complicated colorimeter, the blood sample is fed into one end of an electronic computer called "Auto Analyzer," passes through a series of acrobatic units and the answer appears on a scale at the other end of the machine.

You can read it yourself. As a part of National Hospital Week, these electronic machines will be demonstrated in Jacobson's window between 2 and 4 p.m. on Friday, May 11, and if you offer a small amount of your own blood during the demonstration and watch the window at the end of the screen you will know your red blood cell count and your blood sugar level.

National Merit Scholarship Won By Michael Simson

The National Merit Scholarship Corporation has announced the selection of Michael Simson, Grosse Pointe High School senior, as a scholarship winner for 1962. He, thus, has emerged as one of the relatively few award winners from a field of 576,435 students in 15,461 high schools entering the contest a year ago last March.

Grosse Pointe High School placed a total of seven students in the finals of this nation-wide contest. Approximately 10,000 finalists were selected in all. All of these were considered of superior enough ability to qualify for scholarships but insufficient funds prevent more than about a tenth of them receiving awards in this program. Most will receive favorable consideration for other scholarships, however. All receive a Certificate of Merit from NMSC.

Michael has been honored further, in that Harvard University has designated him for a scholarship. These are special awards, only 50 such being given, one per state. Michael's represents the one provided a top scholar in Michigan. He is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Clyde Simson of Lakepointe avenue.

Last month Michael achieved distinction in the 5th Annual Michigan Mathematics Prize Competition by heading the delegation of 18 Grosse Pointe students who placed in the contest. Grosse Pointe captured 4 per cent of the first 450 places, a fine performance considering the fact that students from most of the high schools in the state, 600 schools in all, competed.

National Merit Scholars are chosen without regard to preferential criteria of any kind, officials state. In making their judgements, committee members evaluate test scores, high school grades, creative achievement outside the classroom, qualities of leadership, school and community citizenship, extra-curricular activities, high school officials' endorsements, and similar data. Financial need is determined after the committee has made its selections.

The competition to decide award winners takes more than a year to complete. Preliminary qualifying tests determine semi-finalists near the end of their junior year. As indicated above, more than a half million contestants start the contest and are reduced in this first round to about 10,000 semi-finalists.

A second test is administered the following December. Experience has demonstrated that about 97 percent of the semi-finalists will repeat the fine showing they made on the first test and will confirm their eligibility to become finalists. Final selection for awards then are made with those selected having relatively small margins of ability or superiority in the many traits assessed. Awards carry stipends of from $100 to $1,500.

If students are eligible for and decide to accept other scholarships which preclude accepting Merit monetary assistance, a request may be made to designate them as Honorary Merit Scholars. As such the student receives no financial aid from NMSC and the college receives no educational supplement. Colleges accepting regular Merit Scholars receive a gift of up to $500 a year depending on the tuition of the college involved to help them help the award winners.

TOES AMPUTATED
Farms police took James Grant, 42, of 933 Crescent lane, to Cottage Hospital on Sunday, April 29, where he was treated for amputation of the toes of his right foot. According to a police report, the toes were severed when Grant's foot got caught in a power lawn mower.

Ambulance Pride of Shores

The Shores recently accepted delivery of a $7,500 fully-equipped Siebert ambulance, powered with a 300-horsepower police interceptor motor. It is bigger than the Ford ambuwagon which it replaces, and much better equipped. Village officials and police personnel are of the general opinion that the new vehicle is "the best in the vicinity". Shown inspecting the "pride" of the Shores are POLICE CHIEF FRED DUEMLING (left), and JAMES NJAIM, News staff writer. The old ambulance is being used by police crews patrolling Lake Shore road.

Police Arrest Reckless Driver

A Detroit motorist was issued a ticket for reckless driving by a Detroit police officer on Thursday, April 26, on complaint of two Farms patrolmen who arrested the driver.

Arrested was Kenneth Miller of 5817 Marcellis, who tried to avoid arrest by parking his car behind a Farms business place and crouching down to escape detection.

The arresting officers, Patrolmen Francois Belanger and Ronald Wooten, said they were checking doors of business places on Mack avenue about 11:45 p.m., when they saw a procession of five or more cars traveling at a high rate of speed on the Detroit side.

The cars made a right turn onto Anatole from Warren avenue, blowing horns and squealing tires, ran a stop sign, going west on Mack, and disappeared.

A few minutes later, the cars reappeared, traveling east on Mack. They made a right turn onto Opal, another right turn onto Warren, then a right turn onto Anatole, horns blowing and tires squealing.

Belanger and Wooten said that the cars again ran a stop sign on Mack, and were interfering with west bound traffic on Mack.

The policemen gave chase and apprehended Miller behind 18330 Mack, on the Farms side. The other cars scattered and disappeared when they saw the Farms police car, the officers said.

Detroit police were called from the Farms station, and Detroit Patrolman Leo Coultier issued Miller a reckless driving ticket on complaint of the Farms officers.

Democrats Set For Big Dinner

Democrats confidently predict that the Party's top annual social and fund-raising event, the Jefferson-Jackson Day Dinner, May 5, at the Light Guard Armory in Detroit, will surpass all previous events of its kind in Michigan.

"The combined attractions of Michigan's Governor John B. Swainson and Wisconsin's Governor Gaylord Nelson, coupled with the congressional candidacy of Neil Staebler, jur national committee member, have pushed advance ticket sales to their best ever," said William A. Burgett, event chairman.

"We know we'll be seating over 2,800 persons, perhaps 3,000," he said.

Tickets for the event are priced $25 single, $35 couple.

A full day of festivities is planned for the Light Guard Armory, 4400 E. 8 Mile Rd., Saturday, climaxed with consecutive major addresses by Governor Swainson and Governor Nelson.

Virtually every major Democratic official in Michigan will be attending the gala event, including members of the State Administrative Board, Other State, county, township and city officials will be present.

Attorney General Frank J. Kelley, appointed to that post by Governor Swainson, will be master of ceremonies at the dinner.

Jefferson-Jackson Day festivities are scheduled to begin at 11 a.m., Saturday. Three films will be shown continuously until 5 p.m. These are "The Michigan Story," produced by Michigan Consolidated Gas Company; "The Wind is Rising," a documentary on mental health produced by WJRT, Flint; and, "Pursuit of Happiness," a history of the Democratic Party narrated by President Kennedy.

Democratic State Chairman Joe Collins will preside over a noon luncheon honoring Jeff-Jack workers and ticket-sellers.

During the afternoon, two concurrent panel discussions will begin at 2:30 p.m. Governor Swainson and Senator Philip A. Hart will be the panelists on a consumer protection discussion moderated by Vice Chairman Mrs. Harriett Phillips, Senator Patrick V. McNamara and Charles O'Dell, chairman of the Commission on Aging, will serve as panelists discussing senior citizens and problems of the aging. Auditor General Billie S. Farnum will moderate.

A reception begins at 4:45 p.m., with dinner scheduled to begin at 6:30 p.m.

Governor Nelson, 46, expected to be the Democratic senatorial candidate against Alexander Wylie in the Fall elections, is one of only two Democrats to serve as governor of Wisconsin in this century and the only Democratic governor to win two terms.

He upset Republican governor Vernon Thompson in 1958 and won a second term in 1960.

Nelson's considerable abilities as a public speaker have made him much in demand nationally. He is well-remembered as the narrator of the film depicting Democratic philosophies at the national convention in 1960.

A veteran of World War II, Nelson was a captain of infantry on Okinawa where he met his wife, Carrie Lee, who was then a nurse. They have three children.

Returning to his native Wisconsin after the war, Nelson practiced law in Madison. He became State senator in 1945, serving until his election as governor in '58.

Governor Nelson rates as his most important achievements while chief executive in Wisconsin the first comprehensive tax revision in 50 years, $5-million student loan program, and a 10 year, $50-million program for outdoor resources development.

Cinema League Meets May 10

The "Top of the Ten Best" will be shown at the next meeting of the Grosse Pointe Cinema League on Thursday evening, May 10, at 8 o'clock, in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center.

Seven of the 10 amateur movies which received top awards in the 1961 annual international competition held by the Photographic Society of America will be shown.

Among the films to be shown is "Nature's Nursery" which takes the audience on an absorbing and intimate visit with birds filmed in New Zealand.

"Pie a la Mugs" provides many laughs as it shows the efforts of a chimpanzee to make and bake a pizza pie.

"Massachusetts Revisited" has a humorous approach for a visit to New England. Each sequence is preceded by a title quotation from a famous writer.

"70 North," filmed by two English photographers, takes the audience on an exciting deep sea fishing trip to Arctic fishing grounds.

This program provides an unusual opportunity to see the excellent results which can be obtained by amateur photographers.

School Leaders Meet at Dinner

Nearly 100 members of the Wayne County School Board Association gathered in Parcels Junior High School last week for a dinner, business meeting and to hear a report from the Constitutional Convention. The chairman of the Education Committee, former congressman Alvin Bentley of Owasco, and Richard Austin of the Finance and Taxation Committee addressed the group.

Welcoming the school board trustees to Grosse Pointe were a number of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education headed by vice-president C. Henry Haberkorn. Trustee Ruth Goebel headed the local arrangements committee. Trustee Edward Pongraz and Superintendent James W. Bushong aided in welcoming the guests.

Con-Con delegates Bentley and Downs gave excellent descriptions of the work the convention had been accomplishing, particularly with reference to provisions for public education. Some discussion of the 15 mill limitation imposed on property taxes, the earmarking of funds for schools, local units of government and roads, as well as reapportionment considerations were discussed.

Thermometer Shows Center Drive Progress

Painting up the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Family Participation Campaign Thermometer is young STEVEN POTTER. Looking on with interest are his baby brother BRIAN and sister KATHLEEN, his parents MR. and MRS. T. L. POTTER of Grosse Pointe Farms and his grandparents MR. and MRS. EDWARD GEHRIG of Grosse Pointe Park. Mr. Gehrig is president of the Senior Men's Club meeting at the Center; Mrs. Gehrig is active in the League of Women Voters and A.A.U.W. which meet there. The Potters are always on deck for Center-sponsored family functions and Kathleen studies ballet there. The Center's drive for funds lasts through May with over $20,000 still needed to meet the budget needs of the present Center and the new building being constructed.

Cases Dismissed In City Court

Only two persons appeared before Judge Joseph P. Uvick in Grosse Pointe City Justice Court Tuesday, April 24, and the cases against both were dismissed.

Reginald George Harris, 432 McKinley, and Frances Jane David, 680 North Oxford, both charged with reckless driving, were exonerated when the complainants refused to sign complaints against them.

Trinity College President Speaks in Christ Church

Trinity College President, Dr. Albert C. Jacobs, told a National Christian College Day congregation at Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, on Saturday, April 28, that "the highest aim of education must always be to develop men, not merely to turn human raw material into thinking machines."

Dr. Jacobs said that we must add to the laboratories, libraries and lectures an ingredient that will develop "character, conviction and faith which will produce a Winston Churchill rather than an Adolph Hitler."

composed of individuals whose strength is in the Lord." Dr. Jacobs was speaking at one of three services conducted by Hobart, Kenyon and Trinity Colleges in observance of National Christian College Day which is annually set aside to consider the importance of "Christian college for a free America."

"To define this missing ingredient is not easy," the speaker continued. "It is something the student absorbs . . . something he catches from the atmosphere of his college. It is something the Christian college seeks to provide, and is uniquely qualified to provide."

Dr. Jacobs went on to cite examples of men who possessed "character, conviction and faith" and who clung to these virtues despite all adversity. He said two of these men were Abraham Lincoln and Col. John Glenn.

Col. John Glenn was also cited as an example of a man of faith. "If millions of Americans, now impressed by Colonel Glenn's heroic feat, could only share his faith, they might also share some of his amazing courage to face the challenging problems of their own daily lives," Dr. Jacobs remarked.

Dr. Jacobs concluded, "Now, as perhaps never before, the fate of our world depends upon a rededication to 'the faith of our fathers. A nation is as strong as the individuals who compose it. The nation which endures is

G. K. Phillips Given Naval Commission

NEWPORT, R. I. (FHTNC)—Ensign G. K. Phillips, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Phillips, of 656 Lincoln road, Grosse Pointe, Mich., was graduated, April 13, from Naval Officer Candidate School at the Naval Base, Newport, R. I. The officer candidates, college graduates and outstanding personnel from the fleet, receive instruction in naval sciences during the 16-week intensive training period comprising the officer candidate course. Upon graduation they are qualified to meet not only the technical problems facing a junior officer in today's Navy, but also the special leadership problems posed by our fleet's world-wide commitments. Following graduation, the new officers report to a wide variety of assignments in addition to shipboard duty. Some go to special programs as underwater demolition, salvage, naval intelligence and explosive ordnance disposal, while others report to engineering and staff corps duties.

Safety Contest Draws Students

The Fifth Annual Safety Contest sponsored by the Woods Lions Club and participated in by the art students of Parcels Junior High School, has attracted more art students this year, according to Woods Police Sgt. Jack Mast, co-ordinator of the program. Students from the art class of Miss Esther Meldrum are showing more enthusiasm this year than ever before, the sergeant said. He said that when the program was first instigated by the Woods Lions Club five years ago, only 46 posters were submitted. In succeeding years, the number of posters entered increased. Mast disclosed that this year 358 posters have been entered for judging in the contest. Winners will be picked tomorrow, May 4, and their names will be announced later. There will be six prizes in all awarded to the students presenting the best safety posters, Mast said. The first prize will be a trophy, and the other awards will be secondary prizes, all to be presented by the Woods organization. The judges of the contest will be Woods Director of Public Safety Vern Bailey, Capt. Donald Coats, Lt. Henry Marchand, Sgt. Mast, and Jack Connelly, president of the Woods Lions Club. The Club first sponsored a Safety Poster Contest in 1957, as a means to induce school children to become more safety-minded, and to eliminate jay-walking which seemed prevalent among the children, the sergeant said. The program has become such a success that jay-walking, and other traffic dangers, have been virtually eliminated and the children have become more safety-conscious, the officer added. "Ulcers aren't caused by what you eat, but by what's eating you." — Jack Hester, Charlestown (Ind.) Courier.

The 1962 Manor is Jacobsen's finest trimmer type reel mower. Remarkably easy to handle, the Manor features an "out front" cutting unit that cuts the grass before the drive wheels can lay it down—producing a carpet-smooth even lawn. Front caster wheels permit easy turns for trimming around trees, along flower beds. Powered by the famous Jacobsen Hi-Torque engine, the Manor is built for years of efficient service.

Final Event Gives Track Win to GPUS Over Maumee

The Knights of Grosse Pointe University School, in a fine show of team effort, squeezed past a strong Maumee Valley squad and trounced a badly out-classed Detroit Country Day team in a triangular track meet on the Grosse Pointe field last Saturday, April 28. The final score was: Grosse Pointe —58 3/4, Maumee —57 1/4, and Country Day—21. It was the Knights' third victory in a row.

The Knights' real strength proved once again to be the diversity of talent on the squad. Although Maumee took firsts in seven of 13 events while the Grosse Pointers picked up only four, the Mohawks were shut out in several events while the Knights placed at least two men in all but one event. In all 19 of the 23 of Coach Donald Robert's athletes earned points.

Particularly outstanding for the home team was Bob Davis who garnered 12 1/2 points with a first in the high hurdles, seconds in the low hurdles, and the broad jump, and a leg in the sprint relay. Others who factored in the win were Dave Rein, winner of the 880; Ted Fleming and Jeff Seyler, co-winners of the pole vault; and Ken Perry, who finished second to Davis in the high hurdles.

By far the outstanding athlete of the meet was Nick Brown of Maumee with 17 1/2 points. He

Ruth Leaguers Start Practice

By Al Bruce

Warm sunny skies greeted the players on the 12 teams as practice sessions began last Saturday in the Grosse Pointe Woods-Shores Babe Ruth League. From 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. the fields at Mason School and Parcels resounded with the cracks of bats and the constant chatter of the players. Playing as single units for the first time, the result was encouraging to the Managers and Coaches.

Among the fathers present at the practice were the Messers Cabill, Koch, Hess, Phillips, Buegel, Caillard, Schmitt, Williams, Kefgen, Matujec, Moen and Rini. The interest of some of these men was so great that they grabbed a bat and helped out by hitting balls to the infielders and outfielders.

Since the makeup of the teams in both sections has now been completed, the roster of one section appears here and the other will appear next week.

Every year, one of the outstanding events at the opening day ceremonies is the presentation of Miss Babe Ruth of the Woods-Shores League. This young lady is the personification of what the League stands for. She may be 13, 14 or 15 years old but, above all, she is that girl who will be the representative of the players over whom she will rule. As in past years, the players of each team will elect their own Queen, and these girls will appear before the Board of Governors on the night of May 11, at 7:30 to be interviewed. At this time the Queen will be chosen. Thereafter "Her Majesty" will rule for the ensuing year.

The Board of Governors are still awaiting action on their request for a hard ball diamond, which they placed before City Council on April 16. They have received information that their request has received considerable attention from the members of the Council and their Recreation Committee.

The Board is pleased that Council, knowing their problem, is doing everything possible to help them.

GPUS Star Way Out in Front

Bob Davis, ace hurdler for Grosse Pointe University School, was a key man in his school's close victory over Maumee Valley last Saturday, April 28. The final score was 58 3/4 to 57 1/4. Ken Perry finished second behind Davis.

GPUS News Notes

The children in Mrs. Perry's group will be the actors for the latest Nursery School film "Play Is Our Business" at Grosse Pointe University School. Mrs. Donna Dunlap, who has given a great deal of time, effort and film for this project, will finish the photography by focusing on the fours in the next few weeks. In the script Mrs. Werneken hopes to emphasize that children do a great deal of learning through play, whereas adults consider play entertainment or something to do when they are not working.

The G.P.U.S. Nursery School will serve as a visiting center for the teachers and directors who come to the Midwestern Association for Nursery Education Conference Thursday, May 3. These educators will come out to visit during the morning from 9 till 12, have luncheon in the Nursery School, and then have a discussion period in the afternoon. The Conference will take place at the Statler-Hilton Hotel from Thursday, May 3, through Saturday, May 5. Dr. Helen and Fritz Redl will address the group Thursday, May 3, from 8 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. on "Russian Children" as seen on a two-month trip through the U.S.S.R. The talk will be part of a reception held at Merrill-Palmer Institute for all those people attending the conference. Mrs. Jane Werneken will be giving a Dance Workshop at the Statler-Hilton for the teachers.

G.P.U.S. Beats Pontiac Nine

By Al Blikt

Friday, April 27, saw the Grosse Pointe University School baseball team down Emmanuel Christian of Pontiac, 4-1, on the Knight's diamond. Dave Hughes, fireballing right-hander, went the distance to pick up his second victory while giving up his first earned run in 21 innings.

Hughes gave up only three hits and one walk while striking out 14.

The lone Pontiac run came in the first inning on a double by Chuck Martin and a single by Bill Crawford. Dave then struck out the next two men to end the inning and any further threat.

The Knights tied it up in the bottom of the second on a crashing single by shortstop Alan Hartwick and put the game on ice with three more in the bottom of the fourth as Hartwick connected again along with George Perrin, the Knights' first baseman.

Perrin suffered a gash on his right knee but finished the game. The injury later became infected and will keep the 6-3 sophomore sidelined for an indefinite period. The Knights were aided by several walks off hurler Jerry Lawson as well as some heads-up base running.

The Grosse Pointers, now sporting a 2-2 record, come up against some tough competition meeting Grosse Pointe St. Paul on Thursday, May 3, and Capac on the following Saturday.

Parade to Open League Season

City officials of Grosse Pointe Woods will lead the annual Parade of the Woods-Shores Little League Baseball teams next Sunday, May 6. The opening day celebration will honor all of the past presidents of Woods-Shores Little League.

Woods City officials leading the parade will include: Mayor Kenneth McLeod, Donald Hallman, Department of Recreation; Verne Bailey, Director of Safety; and City Administrator Peterson.

The parade will assemble at the Manufacturers National Bank on Mack Avenue at 12 noon, Sunday, May 6. A steam calliope from the Detroit Edison Co. will give the parade a festive atmosphere as the officials' cars and teams move down Mack avenue at 12:30 p.m.

Proceeding to Ghesquere Park, opening day ceremonies will honor all of the past presidents of Woods-Shores Little League Baseball. President Bill Meyers will present special plaques recognizing the service of past presidents: Marv Boutin, 1954; Larz Anderson, 1955 and 1956; George Heidisch, 1957; Al Siegmund, 1958; Robert Ketgen, 1959; Paul Sexauer, 1960; Robert McKenna, 1961; and Dr. Robert Griffin, 1961.

Sponsors of the various teams will be introduced and recognized for their valuable contribution to the Woods-Shores Little League Baseball season.

Mayor Kenneth McLeod will throw out the first ball to officially open the Little League Baseball Season in the Woods and Shores. A major league game will follow at Ghesquere Park.

Police Arrest Bicycle Thief

A 15-year-old Detroit boy is awaiting a hearing in the Wayne County Juvenile Court for stealing a bicycle after a Park police officer saw the boy pedaling the bike on Vernor and Balfour and decided to investigate.

On Tuesday, April 24, Patrolman Rodney Wedding was patrolling Vernor when he noticed the boy riding what appeared to be a new bicycle. The boy was stopped and questioned.

The teenager at first gave the officer evasive answers, then admitted stealing the bike from the bicycle rack at Pierce Junior High School. The boy was taken to the Juvenile Detention Home to await the hearing.

Chief Arthur Louwers said that the boy has a record of robbery unarm.

The stolen bike was returned to the owner, William Blakeslee of 661 Middlesex, who was in school at the time and did not know the bike had been taken.

Let's Prepare the Stage

If the residents are as thoughtful as Mother Nature, success should crown the annual Clean-Up Campaign which is being conducted in the Pointe this week. Monday afternoon and early evening, while much of the Midwest sweated out a weather alert, and tornados took vicious bites at many spots, and winds of hurricane force were whipping many other sections including some in Detroit, the Pointe was being blessed with what amounted to a much-needed soaking shower.

Lightning took a few wicked jabs at the community, one of which toppled a large tree on the Chester F. Carpenter property at 546 Lakeland avenue, and some of the gusts administered a mild pruning of weak branches, but any damage was far overshadowed by the much-needed application of moisture to the earth's parched pores.

Spring seemed to have passed us by this year. From cold, raw weather with late snow we were suddenly plunged into summer heat which caused the impatient vegetation to explode. The usual rains did not come and all growing things were crying with thirst, shriveling from the lack of water, needed to bring them to full beauty. Monday's storm supplied the restorative and produced the color brilliance which the grass, trees and flowers can best display only in spring.

Nature has done her part; now it is up to us to do the other things which are required to maintain the reputation of the Pointe as one of the loveliest communities anywhere. Every resident can join the contest to make his property the best-groomed and most attractive in the neighborhood. The results will bring immense satisfaction to the property owners, to those who live nearby, and to all who pass by. Unsightly vacant property should be reported to the Garden Club Council whose headquarters are in the War Memorial Center, TUxedo 1-4594. A large corps of boys, many of them from the service clubs at Grosse Pointe High School, have volunteered to help clean up these sore spots.

And while we are engaged in this annual drive to beautify our outdoors, let us not forget the pleas of our fire officials to tie in the campaign with a safety program inside our homes. Spring cleaning time also provides the very best opportunity to get rid of all the fire hazards that accumulate. Get rid of them now.

When the weekend is over, we hope the Pointe will be spotless and magnificent, the stage setting perfect for the lovely living displays of lawns, trees and blooms for which the community is so famous. Then let's keep the show on the road all year around, giving Mother Nature every chance to strut her stuff under the best possible conditions.

Letters to the Editor

April 27, 1962 Dear Editor:

You made a mistake on the poem, A Rose and Me. It was not by Laura Connolly. It was by John Navarro. Besides that, it is Teddy Sweeney, not Terry Sweeney.

Thank you, Laura Connolly and John Navarro.

Editor's Note: Our profuse apologies to Laura and John, and also to Peter Hess, whose contribution seemed to have strayed, (like his cat), from the rest of the offerings contained in the collection of children's poetry published in last week's issue. Peter's work turned up on a galley of overset proof and we are happy to print it here.

My Kitten By Peter Hess, Grade 2—Maire

I had a kitten who was three months old. He liked to roam they say. His eyes were blue, His coat was black, I hope he comes back some day.

April 30, 1962 Dear Sirs:

We would like to take this means of expressing our gratitude for the time and interest that have gone into the efforts of the Council of the City of Grosse Pointe, to arrive at an equitable solution of the Bon Secours Hospital parking and parking lot screening problem.

We feel that the immediate neighborhood, the community as a whole, and the hospital have been benefited by the attractive and suitable screening. Sincerely, The Citizens Committee for the Study of Grosse Pointe Community Needs, George Triplett, chairman, 1009 Cadieux road.

April 28, 1962 Dear Mr. Editor:

As an old and regular reader of your "Grosse Pointe News," I read with interest your announcement of the visit of Dr. A. J. J. Rourke to our community. It is my belief that for completeness of news worthy an item that the source of the invitation and perhaps even the finances should have been included.

Awaiting your next edition for this information with further interest I remain

Sincerely yours, W. R. Lenz, M.D. 418 Moran Road

Editor's note: Mr. Lenz refers to a news item carried on the front page of last week's NEWS, announcing Dr. Rourke's proposed visit to Grosse Pointe to study the need for expansion of hospital facilities in this area. Dr. Jacob F. Wenzel, source of the news item, when contacted refused to divulge any additional information. Dr. Wenzel is speaking next Thursday at a Bon Secours Symposium Series discussion on sudden childhood catastrophes.)

BOATING ADVICE

Here are some boating and water safety ideas, passed along by James M. Hare, Secretary of State and Chairman of the Michigan Safety Commission. "With spring here," said Hare, "most of the estimated 600,000 boat owners in Michigan are taking advantage of the warmer and sunnier days to get their boats out to enjoy our Water Wonderland."

"As the leading boating state in the nation," he continued, "we should also make every effort to lead the nation in boating safety. Most boating accidents can be avoided by simple precautions."

What Goes On at Your Library

by Jean Taylor

"Man's interest in other worlds has existed from the earliest days. Stars in the sky excited the imagination of all primitive peoples," says Lester G. Wells, Librarian Rare Book Room, Syracuse University. Mr. Wells has written a fascinating little booklet, "FICTIONAL ACCOUNTS OF TRIPS TO THE MOON," describing such travels in space through the year 1900.

His tales begin with A.D. 1660 when Lucian wrote what has been termed the first science-fiction story called "VERA HISTORIA." This told of a visit to the moon which was pure fantasy, with no scientific undertones. Its author asked his readers to give it no serious thought, but to read it for amusement. Lucian wrote a second book in similar vein, "ICAROMENIPPUS" in which he pictures divine displeasure over the invasion of space.

In 1516 Lodovico Ariosto wrote an epic poem "ORLANDO FURIOSO" in which Orlando, crossed in love, loses his wits. These are taken from him and deposited in an urn on the moon, where all lost things, forgotten promises, prayers, vows, etc. seem to find their way. Eventually Orlando's wits are retrieved, returned to earth, and their owner to sanity.

Fifty years before Newton made known his principle of gravitation, Bishop Francis Godwin wrote "THE MAN IN THE MOON." This was in 1638, and was the first account in English of a voyage to the moon. The hero, Domingo Gonsales, was carried to the lunar world by large birds supposedly trained to make the flight. More than 400 years ago Godwin wrote "You shall see men to file from place to place in the ayre; you shall be able to send messages in an instant many miles off and receive answer againe immediately . . . you shall have notice of a new world."

In the same year John Wilkins, influenced by Bishop Godwin's book, wrote "THE DISCOVERY OF A WORLD IN THE MOON OR A DISCOURSE TENDING TO PROVE THAT 'TIS PROBABLE THERE MAY BE ANOTHER HABITABLE WORLD IN THAT PLANET." (Who says 1962 has a corner on long titles!) This was not an actual trip to the moon, but the author contributed a scientific philosophy which might well influence science-fiction writers of today. Cyrano de Bergerac in 1650 described many comical and absurd ways of reaching the moon in his "HISTORIAE COMIQUE DES ESTATS ET EMPIRES DE LA LUNE." He is the first character in literature, according to Mr. Wells, to reach the moon by rocket ship. Edmond Rostand's comedy, "CYRANO DE BERGERAC," has mention of this.

In 1705 Daniel Defoe wrote of space travel in "THE CONSOLIDATOR; OR MEMOIRS OF SUNDRY TRANSACTIONS FROM THE WORLD IN THE MOON TRANSLATED FROM THE LUNAR LANGUAGE." Unlike the earlier modes of travel, his machine is an aircraft driven by liquid fuel. While en route to the moon, how does the traveler overlook the unpleasant parts of the trip? By taking a "tranquilizer" no less! Of course the effects wear off just as he is about to land on the moon!

Joseph Atterley (George Tucker, pseudonym) describes a trip to the moon in 1827 in "A VOYAGE TO THE MOON: WITH SOME ACCOUNT OF THE MANNERS AND CUSTOMS, SCIENCE AND PHILOSOPHY OF THE PEOPLE OF MORSOFIA AND OTHER LUNARIANS." The travelers aboard the copper ship discussed the various countries over which they pass. "They fear that if Burma should ever shake off the yoke of England, it would tempt the ambition of Russia."

It was in 1835 that Edgar Allan Poe wrote "THE UNPARALLELED ADVENTURE OF ONE HANS PFAAL" in which the hero traveled to the moon in a balloon.

In the same year Sir William Herschel and his son, Sir John, wrote a supposedly true account of "DISCOVERIES IN THE MOON LATELY MADE AT THE CAPE OF GOOD HOPE," which was greeted with as much excitement as Orson Welles broadcast, "The Invasion from Mars." About twenty-five years later, this was published as "The Moon Hoax."

It is almost a century ago since Jules Verne wrote his classic tale "FROM THE EARTH TO THE MOON" with scientific ideas which today's space scientists have considered worth while exploring.

The turn of the century brought another classic space tale, H.G. Wells' "THE FIRST MEN IN THE MOON." This is still regarded by specialists in the field, among the best of its kind.

Woods Boosting Rubbish Pickups Maire Pupils Give Concert

Woods residents will be given improved rubbish and grass clipping pickups from now through November 1, at no extra cost to the taxpayers, it was disclosed by City Administrator Chester E. Petersen.

A new notice to residents, a new schedule of weekly rubbish, garden and grass clipping collections was outlined by the city administrator.

Beginning April 23, rubbish will be picked up weekly, instead of every two weeks, on the residents' regularly scheduled day. Garden and grass clippings will also be picked up weekly, along with rubbish, also on the residents' regularly scheduled day.

Branches will still be picked up by the city each Monday and Tuesday, according to the schedule now in effect, Petersen said.

He said that the improved service has been worked out with the firm contracted with by the Woods for the pickups, without additional cost to the city.

Maire Pupils Give Concert

The sixth grade at Maire School presented its spring choral concert to the Parent Teachers Association on Monday, April 30.

The chorus was directed by the instructor in music at Maire, Mrs. Anibel Lucatsky, who is completing her sixth year in Grosse Pointe.

After graduating from MacPhail College of Music in Minneapolis, Mrs. Lucatsky taught choral and instrumental music in several different states before coming here from McComb, Ill.

Four new executive council members were elected during the business meeting which followed the singing: Clyde Vadnor, George Henry, Mrs. Allan Pearsall and Mrs. Robert Williams. The instrumental music program will be held June 6.

"Who takes all those pills?"

By FRED KOPP, R.Ph.

This is often the question when a customer sees the shelves in our pharmacy. Row on row on row of bottles, boxes, canisters, tubes, vials, jars . . . about 2,000 items in all. Good question. Who are they for? The answer, of course, is you. Say you go to a physician and he writes a prescription which you bring to us to be filled. We can't tell what the ailment will be — there are thousands, and we don't know what medication the doctor will prescribe. To provide prompt pharmaceutical service we have to be ready for just about anything, which we are.

This is the 970th of a series of editorial advertisements appearing in this paper each week.

What's New on THE HILL...

By Roberta

THEY ALWAYS SAY June is bustin' out all over . . . but the weather this year makes us think that the grass turn greener this week . . . the forsythia at its best . . . blooming tulips . . . hyacinths. All this leads us to the idea, which isn't original, that we should climb out of the rut . . . get up . . . stretch the gams . . . and come where shopping can be the most wonderful sport in the world . . . Kercheval On The Hill.

And, As the Sun plays back on Lake St. Clair we would like to nudge you to consider Super-Sunnies. They are clever eye coverings fashioned of shades of plastic to protect eyes from the harmful sun rays. These will also protect eyes under ultra violet rays. For a song . . . one dollar . . . at Trail Apothecary Shop.

Almost As Good as the trade winds . . . the delightfully air-cooled shops on the Hill in summer.

How Elated they are at Anthony's. Monday has proved to be an exciting day. They are now open Mondays and his new "perfect ten" has made many new friends. The "perfect ten" is the perm with trim and set . . . so quick . . . so lasting . . . for ten dollars. IT is making so many new friends!

Sign of the Mermaid For a real wing ding . . . roll out the barrel for beer or any of your favorite cool, cool drinks. These well-constructed barrels roll on rubber wheels. Galvanized inside they hold the ice and the bottles . . . brass trimmed . . . three sizes are available. One is a wheel-less model . . . and just as attractive. To go with this . . . choose beer mugs . . . fashioned of pewter . . . copper . . . pottery (these decorated with colorful game birds) . . . OR, there's more . . . monogrammed crystal mugs. Swish, we think.

On Wall Street or Fifth Avenue you always can recognize labels of quality. Ditto On The Hill!

If She Takes Pills like tranquilizers and aspirin she'll love the rectangular shaped pill boxes with the leather look outside . . . and the plastic cylinder-like containers inside for three dollars at the League Shop . . . where each gift is artfully gift wrapped free of charge.

As Pretty As their names . . . pale hyacinth . . . golden iris . . . pearl . . . apricot mousse . . . amethyst . . . carmel . . . tourmaline . . . moonstone . . . et cetera . . . are the new lipsticks by Michele at Trail Apothecary Shop. The new season clothes and colors really demand these new season lipsticks.

On a Shoe String or a splurge you can always find that "perfect" something at the League Shop. This week it could be (looking ahead to graduation) memo pads and matching clip boards all deevinely covered in attractive prints. Memo pads are two dollars . . . and two dollars and fifty cents . . . clip boards, six dollars and fifty cents.

Now on Thursday nights . . . for your convenience . . . many of the stores on the Hill are open!

Church Holding Coiffure Show

"Le Portrait d'une Femme" is the intriguing title of the Fashion-Bridge-Luncheon being given by the women of St. James Lutheran Church next week.

The Grosse Pointe Yacht Club will form the background for this "portrait presentation" on Wednesday, May 9, beginning at 12:30 p.m.

The French touch for high fashions and the American flair for casual chic join to paint this portrait of the fashion-conscious woman of today.

Creations from a designer's sketch pad and colors from an artist's palette will highlight this unusual collection of striking clothes, accessories, and wigs from Leon's.

Coiffures a la wigs will be one of the fascinating focal points of the afternoon's modeling. Make-up, perhaps a brush stroke or two in the current Cleopatra style, will add the final touch to the portrait.

Fashion commentator will be Marion Kurte of Leon's. The following women of St. James Church will model: Mrs. Daniel Foster, Mrs. Ralph Thomas, Jr.,
Mrs. Frank Watts, Mrs. Ray Napp, Mrs. Fred Hillger, and Mrs. Irving Bopp.

the Tahiti islands, so this spring they went back for a longer look at India and Japan.

The Goebels flew from Philadelphia to Paris then on to Rome, Athens, Luxor and Cairo before boarding their ship, "The Flying Enterprise II" at Alexandria. Through the Suez Canal to Karachi then to New Delhi and Agra to Bombay, their travel plan was leisurely with time to really explore India.

Then on to Hongkong and from that popular international city to Formosa where they heard the guns of the Chinese Nationalist defenders against the Red jet planes. "No-one seemed unduly alarmed on the island," said Mrs. G., who was also impressed with the American Navy in almost every port on their itinerary. From Formosa they went on to Korea, then Japan, and Honolulu. On the flight home they stopped off to visit the World's Fair in Seattle.

The Goebels are already planning another world tour, this time to darkest Africa. But very shortly they will be off on a still more thrilling visit, to see their new granddaughter, Sarah Jane, born two days after their round the world trek began in February. The proud parents are Mr. and Mrs. James W. Goebel (Sharon Taylor), of Springfield, Pa.

For Rolls Royce Owners

Mrs. Henry deSegur Lauve writes from Washington, where she and her husband have been enjoying the cherry blossoms and the 90 degree weather, that there will be a meeting of the Rolls Royce Owners of America in Dearborn in August.

The Lauves will enter their 1939 model and other Pointers who own these vintage treasures will show their Rolls. Harold Raymond Boyer and Thomas Petzold are both owners of these elegant motor cars. The Lauves also stopped in New York to visit the International Auto Show

Nine Pointe Gardens On Tour

Nine of Grosse Pointe's most magnificent gardens will be open to the public May 26-27 when the Detroit Garden Center sponsors the annual pilgrimages from 1 until 6 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Powers, of Whittier road, have a garden on three levels and a large walled terrace which reveals a view of the lake. A small Japanese garden is also of interest.

Tall cedars and sculpture in a garden of unusual shape is the attraction at the Handy lane home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Heaton.

Old flowering catalpa trees, dwarf almond trees and primroses should be at their best in the Merriweather road gardens of the William Kerbers.

The John C. Potters' Cloverly road gardens feature a charming terraced garden with a greenhouse. There is a greenhouse and a "memory garden" as well as a rock garden for viewers at the Kerby road home of the Frederick A. Kammers.

For practical gardeners there is an asparagus bed edged with daffodils and an orchard of apple trees at Mrs. Sidney T. Miller's in Irvine lane. At the Allan Sheldens III in Provençal road tea will be served on the terrace overlooking a spacious vista of lawn and giant elms. The Sheldens are the owners of an old fashioned gazebo.

Seclusion is the keynote of the garden in the Sheldon road home of the Ross Roys which also has an unusual fish pond. The final gardens on the tour are the traditional formal gardens on the Lakeshore road estate of Mrs. Joseph B. Schlotman where tour patrons may see a choice collection of santolina, festuca, veronicas and boxwood as well as an European beech tree 30 feet high.

CONVERTS SEA WATER—A couple of Virgin Islands youngsters find there's plenty of fun in a big fresh water supply if you have hose connections. The supply comes from that new 275,000-gallon-a-day salt water conversion plant in St.
 Thomas, a job put up by Aqua-Chem, Inc., Waukesha, Wis.
 Business men there say the water supply will trigger new growth in the islands' economy.

IN DALY CITY, CALIF., Larry Delfino, 21, and (right) brother Barry, 20, are in handcuffs over the rumble on a beach which resulted in the shotgun slaying of William (Angel) Lopez, 25. Their younger brother Richard, 15, was picked up by police at home. They gave up on advice of an attorney.

'AMERICA SECOND' — Commerce Secretary Luther H.
 Hodges looks angry in New York as he tells reporters that the steel price increase decision was made by a "handful of men who said in effect that United States Steel comes first, the United States of America second."

SCHOOL BARS BOOTS—Kimberly Pape, 6, looks pensive-ly at his cowboy boots, which he wore to kindergarten in Cleveland and was barred, the teacher deciding such footwear unsuitable.
 His mother, Mrs. Miriam Pape, wouldn't let him go back under such a ban.

ALL AROUND DRINKS—Authorities in Carlisle, Pa., hardly got the "Dick Loves Nan" message removed from the new water tower, when the "He Still Does" appeared. That Dick is a determined swain.

MOBILE ATOM BOMB BASE—Here is the setup, four Sky-bolt missiles attached (under wings near fuselage) to a B52 bomber, launch-tested successfully high over Cape Canaveral, Fla. The "marriage" is expected to become a perfect one in a couple of years, to give the U.S. the most mobile nuclear punch in existence. Skybolt is a solid fuel rocket.

ALERT ISSUED—British authorities issued an alert to pick up turncoat former diplomats Guy Burgess (upper) and Donald MacLean, who were believed to have either left the Soviet boundaries or were planning to leave. However, Burgess, 51, was reported on a holiday somewhere, and reporters found MacLean, 49, in Moscow.

IT'S A 'PARAGLIDER' or something, a flex-wing aircraft supported by a wing of flexible, plastic-coated material attached to a keel and leading edge members so as to form a kind of kite. It can operate under its own power with that small engine on rear of the keel, or be towed by a helicopter. The Army Transportation Corps is taking a look at it.

EXCOMMUNICATED—Jackson G. Ricau, one of the three Roman Catholics excommunicated in New Orleans, La., over disagreement with Archbishop Joseph Francis Rummel on integration of Catholic schools, holds a local paper headlining the action. The others, also segregationists, are Leander H. Perez Sr. and Mrs. B. J. Gallot.

CLEOPATRA STYLE—The legendary hair wash used by Cleopatra, milk, comes into its own again (How's that?) with Miss Ia, popular New York hair stylist, as she pours a "shampoo" over head of Barbara Foster. Claudette Ackrish, next, watches.

GRIEF—Tony Veral, 3, clenches his hands and weeps unconsolably in Baldwin, N.Y., as his pet Frisky lies unconscious after being struck by a car driven by a woman hit-run driver. Tony's father is trying to tell him that Frisky is given a chance to pull through.

U.S.-BRITISH—A Thor-Delta missile roars straight up from Cape Canaveral, Fla., carrying a satellite for orbit at 200-500 miles for iono-sphere study. It is a joint U.S.-British project, the first international space satellite.

MR. BIG OF LITTLE BIG STEEL—Joseph Block, who heads Inland Steel and was the steel executive who made the tide-turning decision not to go along with a steel price rise, gives a report of first quarter earnings in Chicago more than double the figure of the 1961 first quarter. He explained that Inland's decision against raising prices was based on considered judgment that a price rise would not be in the national interest nor recognize competitive factors.

IN DES MOINES, Iowa U. student Aloysius Gmoser, 19, is in handcuffs on charge of the brutal killing of two tot-age boys. Their bodies were found on the second floor of the Army at Iowa City, theft of a furniture warehouse. Police investigation shows they were smothered.

IN TORONTO, Ont., Gary McCorkell, 19, admitted striking his mother with a rock during an argument, dragging her body into her home, and trying to set the home on fire. Holl is an organist in a church.

IN READING, Pa., Barry Holl, 25, admitted striking his mother with a rock during an argument, dragging her body into her home, and trying to set the home on fire. Holl is an organist in a church.

ANNUAL NEW CLOTHES FOR FAMILY—The Thomas Brennan family stands at the Seven Seas Panorama in Chicago's Brookfield Zoo, resplendent in the new Easter clothes made by their father, as he has done annually for the past 16 years. Mr. and Mrs. Brennan are at left. Daughters, wearing mint green wool with purses, hats, gloves and shoes to match, range in age from 19 to 22. Sons range from 9 to 16.

SOVIET ROCKET—Somewhere in Russia, says the Soviet caption with this photo, a Soviet rocket is towed tail first through wooded terrain. Ahead of it (right) is a truck hauling its fuel tank. The photo was made during Red army spring maneuvers.

WINDOW DISPLAY—Not having a better place, parents of Mary Ng, 14 months old, used their laundry window as a play pen for her in Ravenna, O., and it's really a traffic stopper. It's the only Oriental-operated laundry in town.

'SURVEYOR' AT WORK—This is a drawing of NASA's Surveyor spacecraft in an imaginary landing on the Moon. It is a nuclear powered automatic laboratory the U.S. plans to land gently on the Moon to perform chemical analysis of the lunar surface and subsurface and relay TV pictures of what it finds to Earth. Drum-shaped device in center is the SNAP-II power pack, a 30-pound thermoelectric device which will provide a minimum of 18.6 Watts continuously for three months. This landing is to precede man's.

POLARIS IN ITS SLEEVE—A Polaris missile is in that fiber glass sleeve, being loaded into a submarine at Cape Canaveral for the current underwater firings off the Florida coast.
 Missile tracking ship Observatocia Island is in background.

When the POINTE was growing up...

By Pat Talbot

Broad fields of corn and waving grain, barns and farms and the splendid buildings of the Blue Ribbon race track... this is the Windmill Pointe that General Friend Palmer recalls in his "Early Days in Detroit".

His memory of Windmill Pointe included the days when it was a vast swamp, "covered with a most luxuriant growth of marsh grass and bull rushes, the home of the muskrat and all kinds of horrid snakes."

He traveled down the lake road often in his electric car and was always struck by the windmill itself, in 1904 "with its roofless stone tower slowly falling into decay. The Point, as now, was quite a high piece of ground, and had the same stunted orchard. Why the mill was abandoned, I never knew, nor who was the builder of it."

"Along in the thirties (1830), our hired man and myself used every fall to make excursions in a two-horse wagon to Grosse Pointe and Milk River points, exchanging Jackson ware that my uncle turned out in his pottery, where is now West park, for apples, cider, potatoes, and other farm products. These trips usually occupied two or three days time."

"I knew George Moran very well and who did not know George Moran? His place on the bank of Lake St. Clair, a mile or so above Fisher's, was a welcome spot to all journeying in that direction. He married a daughter of the adopted son of Commodore Grant, who commanded the British government vessels on the lakes before the surrender of the country to the United States in 1796 under the Jay treaty, and he once owned the farm where George lived."

"Fox Run, where the Grosse Pointe road crosses, about five miles from the city, was the turning point in the supremacy of some of the Indian tribes. Great numbers were slain in the battle, and it is believed the vast number of human bones found in the fields of George Moran, are the remains of some who fell in the fight... Mr. Moran has quite a collection of these relics, also rusty knives and tomahawks, as well as quite a number of small tomahawks measuring about four inches, wrought out of native copper. They give quite conclusive evidence that the Indians had a knowledge of the copper deposits in the Lake Superior regions, and the skill to mine the mineral."

The author was the contemporary and friend of Alexander Campau, General Luther Trowbridge, Don M. Dickinson and William Livingstone, all of whom were honorary pallbearers at his funeral. He is buried in Elmwood Cemetery.

who, where and whatnot

by whoozit

At the first whiff of spring, and a very warm one it has been, Mrs. Charles McFeely, began dreaming of preparing her swimming pool for the summer influx. Before calling the pool repairmen she glanced out the window of her Lakeshore road home and spied near the pool a large male mallard duck who was guarding an egg. There seems to be no matron duck in the McFeelys yard and Mrs. M. began to worry about the egg. As a last resort she called farmer Michaux on Vernier road hoping he had a hen who might adopt the wild duck egg. No luck. The egg remains on the McFeely lawn and the swimming pool men have been warned not to disturb it, but if the mother doesn't return it seems very unlikely there will be a junior mallard.

From the southland scads of vacationing scholars have been returning with those prized golden tans, to the chagrin of their stay-at-home school mates. Sixth graders Cathy Champion and Megan Gregory decided they would try for a home grown mahogany hue all in one day. They fell asleep under the sun lamp and they are now two very badly burned little girls who have learned to their sorrow that the strong rays of the ultra violet are no substitute for the sun.

Last week-end the Junior Goodwill gave a spirited performance of Clair Booth Luce's classic, "The Women" at the Players. Mrs. John Denler, playing the former Ilka Chase role, enacted her part with striking realism. During the second act hairpulling and scratching match on opening night she was so persuasive that she ended up with a black eye, shoulder bruise and a long scratch. No need for stand-ins here! Mrs. D. incidentally looked very striking, in spite of the injuries, in the third act in a luscious cream colored sequin banded ball gown. Congratulations to Mrs. Milton Voelkens, who played the faithful wife, to perfection, and added a new French twist hair-do just for her starring role.

PILFERINGS

They call it the sea of matrimony because he and she are always ready to sail into each other... Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.

A young lady who had been going out with a young man for more than a year was asked by her parents what she thought his intentions were. "I'm not quite sure," she replied. "He's keeping me pretty much in the dark."

Yogi Berra got into a hassle with an umpire, as is his wont, and threatened to bite his head off. "Son," said the arbiter grimly, "If you do that you'll have more brains in your stomach than you have in your head."

YWCA to Hold Benefit Tea

The YWCA of Metropolitan Detroit, a Torch Drive Agency, will sponsor a benefit tea and card party in the auditorium of the J. L. Hudson Co.'s downtown store on Tuesday, May 22, beginning at 1 p.m. The party is planned to raise funds for new equipment to be used at Camp Cavell. High on the priority list of Camp Cavell "needs" is an aluminum canoe, to be used for five-day trips on the Au Sable River this summer as part of the YWCA's program for teen-age campers. Tickets for the tea and card party may be obtained at any YWCA branch or at the Camp Cavell office at Central Branch YW, 2230 Witherell street. Loretta G. Sanders of Stephens road and Gertrude Schwarz of North Renaud road are serving as members of the arrangements committee.

Pointer of Interest

MRS. WILLIAM J. CHAMPION, JR., OF EDMERE ROAD

By Patricia Talbot

Mrs. William J. Champion, Jr., can play rounds of miniature golf with her children, cook a dinner for eight and refinish a pine desk and still look as if she stepped from the pages of Vogue.

With seven children to keep her busy and a full time job, she has time for her exacting hobby, restoring antiques. She will be on hand early May 8 when the Grosse-Pointe Rotary Antique Show opens for three days at the War Memorial. Just last fall she picked up two battered metal figurines at a show and they are now graceful lamps in her red and white colonial living room in Edgemere.

Mrs. Champion and her brood moved into the new colonial last November, from the house on Moross road which was quite an antique itself. She lived in the stone mansion which once was half of Lake Terrace, the Newberry-McMillan twin estate on the lakeshore. The house was moved and remodeled several times, including some additions of paneling from an English manor house. Now the Moross road property has been sold and subdivided although the house still stands, belongs to the James Earls.

Cape Cod Portraits

With her late husband Mrs. Champion has always been an antique collector. Several years ago at an auction on Cape Cod they bought two Victorian portraits, for the rare frames. Today she has become so fond of the pictures, of a sea captain and his wife, they hang in her dining room. Her husband was a good judge of woods, which is necessary to find real bargains as often a rare Early American dry sink or dough

Libri Elects New Officers

The Libri Club's new officers and committee chairmen will be honored this Friday at a luncheon in the Oxford road home of Mrs. Philip C. Baker, the incoming president.

Other officers for this 52nd year of Libri include Mrs. Herman D. Scarney, of Orchard Lake; Mrs. Hooper Truettner, Mrs. Charles L. Wilson, of Bloomfield Hills; Mrs. Charles MacMahon and Mrs. Richard T. Purdy.

Committee chairmen include Mrs. Bruce Kirk, Mrs. Truettner, Mrs. David L. Gamble and Mrs. Carroll M. Boutell.

Park Garden Club to Meet

The Grosse Pointe Park Garden Club will meet Monday, May 13 at 12:30 o'clock for luncheon in the Harvard road home of Mrs. Emil Leidlick.

At this annual meeting reports of officers and committee chairmen will be delivered and there will be election of officers.

too much of this togetherness as it is," she insists.

While juggling all these responsibilities Mrs. Champion, who wears clothes with a flare and has a bouffant hair-do that looks as though she had just stepped from under the dryer, still manages volunteer work. While Grosse Pointe Memorial Church was preparing to open the new annex she spent a great deal of time washing kindergarten chairs and windows in the great new addition. She belongs to an evening church circle which is studying the Bible and in the summer manages to swim frequently at the Hunt Club.

Antiques Mean Work She encourages antique hunters to stop by the Rotary show where values from a Limoges cup and saucer to a magnificent Sheraton table may be bought. She believes in country sales and auctions but warns that these pieces usually need a lot of work. For one year she restored a pine dough table, kept it in the garage on one of her children's wagons and rolled it back and forth while she scraped off layers of orange paint, sanded, refinished and rubbed with wax. Antiques demand patience and care but the reward is in the eye of the owner, who cherishes furniture with an exciting past.

The three other Champions will remain at home. Rick, 23, married and the father of small Christopher, is stationed at Ft. Benning, Ga.; Rob, 19, is with the Navy at camp in North Carolina; and Jamie, three, is too young for the exertions of travel.

Large Family A Heritage The supervision of this brood doesn't seem to disturb Mrs. C.'s serenity. She comes from a family of six herself, all of whom are still Grosse Pointers. "Mother has 33 grandchildren," she says proudly. Her brother, Bob Wood, designed the house she recently built with such special attractions as book cases in the front hall because there was no spare space in the other rooms. Her red and white wallpaper and bright red carpeting is a perfect foil for the Early American furniture she has collected through the years. Gay plates of pewter and brass line the fireplace of her rumpus room off the kitchen. "I refuse to call it a family room. There's
