PRESIDENT KENNEDY PREDICTED yesterday that the United States will win the race to the moon. Addressing some 50,000 Texans in Houston's Rice University football stadium, the U.S. Chief Executive stated that America's space supremacy is an essential prerequisite to peace. The U.S. must win the moon race, Kennedy believes, in order to preserve the universe from a "hostile flag of conquest." The President, without mentioning names, lashed out at former President Dwight D. Eisenhower and other officials who favor a more cautious, less costly space policy.

"I regard the decision last year to shift our efforts in space from low to high gear as among the most important decisions I expect to make in the office of President," Kennedy stated. "The eyes of the world and its restless millions now look up and out to space, to the moon and the planets beyond. And we have vowed that they shall not see it governed by a hostile flag of conquest but by a banner of peace. We have vowed that they shall not see space filled with weapons of mass destruction but with instruments of knowledge and understanding.

"Yet the vows of this nation can only be fulfilled if we in this nation are first—and therefore we intend to be first." In conclusion, Kennedy observed that "our leadership in science and industry, our hopes for peace and security, our obligations as a first-class country, all require us to make this effort, to solve these mysteries, to solve them for the good of all men, and to become the world's leading space-faring nation."

IF THE UNITED STATES WERE FORCED into "military action against Communism in Cuba," the sum total of Fidel Castro's Red-supplied weapons would in no way alter the result or extend the time needed to defeat him. This is the gist of President Kennedy's latest remarks on the Cuban situation.

The U.S. Chief Executive, at his news conference yesterday, spelled out in detail the conditions that would prompt American military action against Castro's regime: "If at any time the Communist buildup in Cuba were to endanger or interfere with our security in any way, including our base at Guantanamo, our passage to the Panama Canal, our missile and space activities at Cape Canaveral, or the lives of American citizens in this country, or if Cuba should ever attempt to export its aggressive purposes by force or the threat of force against any nation in this Hemisphere, or become an offensive military base of significant capacity for the Soviet Union, then this country will do whatever must be done to protect its own security and that of its allies."

Kennedy, stating that "we shall neither initiate nor commit aggression," pledged, nevertheless, to work with Cuban exile leaders "who are dedicated as we are to that nation's future return to freedom." He warned Americans against "loose talk" about invading Cuba and said that the entire Caribbean area will be kept under "increased surveillance."

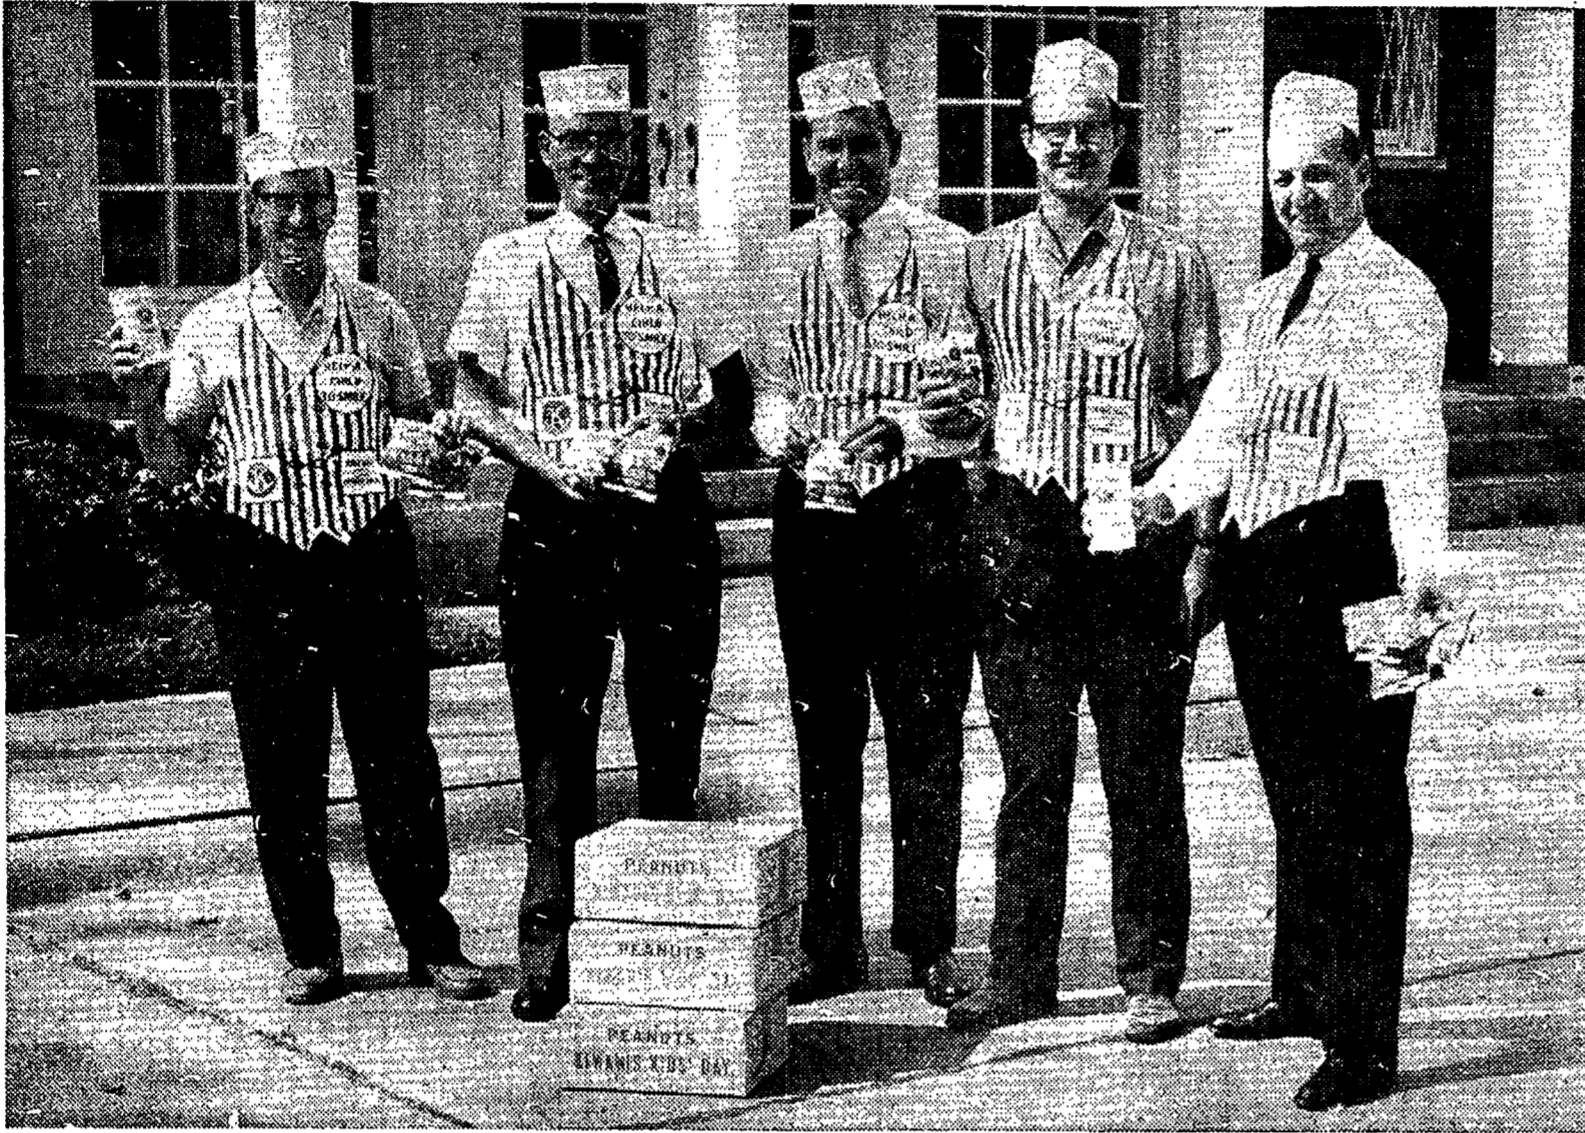

"Unilateral military intervention on the part of the United States cannot currently be either required or justified," stated the President, "and it is regrettable that loose talk about such action in this country might serve to give a thin color of legitimacy to the Communist pretense that such a threat exists."

MISSISSIPPI has begun its battle with the United States of America. Officials of the Southern state met secretly yesterday, in a strategy planning session aimed at discovering ways and means of implementing Governor Ross Barnett's defiant refusal to admit a Negro to the University of Mississippi. The Negro, James M. Meredith, 29, an Air Force veteran, has full Federal backing. Sidney Mize, 74-year-old

Kiwanis Club Ready for Peanut Sale

Members of the Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club have all plans completed for their annual fund-raising project. They will all be out Friday and Saturday, Sept. 21 and 22, to sell peanuts to raise money to carry on their extensive program for underprivileged children.

Kiwanis Club To Sell Nuts To Aid Kids

Annual Fund-Raising Sale to Support Program to Help Underprivileged Children

The Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club will be out in full force tomorrow and Saturday, September 21 and 22, to sell peanuts to raise funds for underprivileged children. According to Warren De Cook and Harry Lyle, sales co-chairmen, club members will be located on the main business corners in the Woods on both days, from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m.

The sales are conducted by local Kiwanis members selling peanuts on street corners; it is not a house to house campaign.

Woods Mayor Kenneth R. McLeod, at the council meeting held on Monday, September 17, issued a proclamation designating Saturday, September 22, as "National Kids' Day" in the Woods. This is the day observed by Kiwanis International nationwide.

Many business and professional men in the Woods have contributed toward the cost of the peanuts. All monies received from the sale will go directly into the club's Youth Fund, and will be used to assist underprivileged children.

Residents buying from their Kiwanian salesman are urged to be generous with their donations. Receipts from the sales are to be used for heart operations, purchase of eye glasses,

Center's Annual Dinner Set for Monday Evening

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association's Annual Dinner Meeting scheduled for Monday evening, September 24, at 7 o'clock will feature musical entertainment by two of Grosse Pointe's most accomplished artists.

They are Naomi Donaldson and Dr. Aaron Farberman who are the co-founders of the new Grosse Pointe Chamber Music Players, which group is to be sponsored by the Memorial Association.

Mrs. Donaldson and Dr. Farberman will play a violin and piano duet, Schubert's "Sonatina in D Major." Many Pointers are familiar with Mrs. Donaldson's musical ability through her teaching at the University

Farms Has Revised Plans For City Hall; New Costs Estimated at $249,000

Council Authorizes Taking of Second Bids Since First Were Too High; Affected Savings Set at $104,133

Plans and specifications for a second bid for the additions and alterations to the Farms Municipal Building were authorized by the Farms council on Monday, September 17. The first bid was rejected in July as being too high.

On August 1, the council directed Jack Brown of the firm of Begrow and Brown, architects, to prepare revised floor plans, elevations and estimates of costs for the additions and alterations.

Earlier this year, the approved 1962-63 city budget included $258,000 as the amount set aside for the city hall project. This figure was the estimated cost for the work.

In July, bids were opened and found to be too high, the lowest submitted was $353,133, which was turned down. The council then ordered a revision of plans to keep the cost within the budgeted figure.

Brown, who had worked closely with Farms City Engineer Murray M. Smith, presented the revised plans to the council at Monday night's meeting. The new plans and estimated costs will affect a savings of $104,133, as deducted from the total costs of the July bids.

The city engineer told the council that the new estimated cost of the city hall project is $249,000, according to the revised plans.

The new plans include a cancellation of the remodeling of the municipal garages at the rear of the city hall, except construction of a small garage to house the fire-ambulance, relocating a small office from the proposed addition to the rear of the fire department, so as to have space for rest rooms; and the reduction of the proposed connecting link from the new addition to the old building.

The fire department personnel and equipment will remain in their present quarters when alterations are begun, but the police department will be moved to temporary quarters in the Old Kerby School, adjacent to the city hall until the modernization program is completed.

The two-floor addition, which will conform to the architecture of the old city hall building, will be constructed directly in front of Old Kerby. The front yard property was recently deeded to the Farms by the Grosse Pointe Board of Education.

Costs Broken Down
Smith broke down the new estimated cost, as called for in the revised plans, as follows:
Construction, $212,000; Architectural fees, $9,000; Sewer, $7,000; Moving police-fire emergency radio, $1,000; and Contingencies, $20,000.

He said that bids should be received and opened within two weeks. If the bids are accepted, work should be started in about two months.

Work on the additions and alterations should be completed in about nine months from the starting date, Smith added.

SURVEY APPROVED

The Farms council approved an appropriation of $400 on Monday, September 17, for a survey to determine areas that need replacing of trees cut down because of the Dutch Elm blight, and new subdivision areas that need trees to beautify and shade the sections. The replacing and planting will be made possible through the Master Tree Planting Program.

School System Employing 716

This fall, the total number of persons employed regularly by the Grosse Pointe Public School System as of September 1, 1962, stands at 716. Administrative and Supervisory personnel account for 35. Elementary School Teachers number 223, and Secondary School Teachers are 247.

There are 14 Public Librarians, 19 in the Other Professional Staff category, 76 office workers, 95 plant personnel, a cafeteria manager, a high school bookstore manager, and five nurses.

New professional employees number 75, hired after an extensive recruiting and screening process in which contact was established with more than 1,000 applicants. Seventy classroom teachers, a curriculum coordinator, a public librarian, two speech correctionists and an elementary school principal have been employed so far this fall.

Fifty-two of the total teaching group are women, 23 are men. They are an outstanding group, with a cumulative total of 243 years teaching experience. The individual average stands at 3 1/2 years.

All of the new employees hold college degrees. Eighteen have advanced degrees while four have training equivalent to Grosse Pointe's six-year level. The average salary being paid is $5,576.99.

Colleges attended by these teachers cover a wide area with, in all, 16 states being represented. Michigan, naturally, leads the way in numbers contributed with seven state institutions having granted one or more degrees.

Six of the group are returning home to teach. Grosse Pointe High School graduates, they have now completed the cycle, exchanging their role as student for that of teacher.

Pointe Hard Hit By Storms, High Winds Last Week

Three Cities Report Sections Without Lights; Power Cut-off Drops Pressure at Farms Water Filtration Plant

The thunderstorms and high winds that struck the Detroit area Thursday, September 13, swept through the Pointe, causing considerable damage in four of the Pointe communities. The Shores escaped virtually unscathed.

Following the storm, the Pointe police departments received calls from residents reporting fallen trees, and downed and broken telephone and electric wires. There were no reports of flooded basements.

The rainfall recorded in the Park and the Farms varied. In the Park, gauges recorded a downpour of 1.4 inches, whereas in the Farms, records showed .86 of an inch.

Sections of the Park, Farms and City were without electricity for several hours following the storm.

Water Plant Blacked Out
Power failure hit the Farms Water Filtration Plant when the southern half of the city was, blacked out, and for about 20 minutes water pressure in the Farms and City dropped far below normal, it was disclosed by Farms Manager Sidney DeBoer.

Least hit by the storm and high winds was the Shores, according to Police Chief Fred Duemling, who stated that his department received only about three calls.

One call pertained to a large limb that snapped from a tree at the rear of 73 Hawthorne and was hanging on an electric power line. Electric and telephone wires were reported down at the rear of 102 Lake Shore road.

Long Power Failure
Herbert Heger, superintendent of the Park Public Service Department, disclosed that the Trombley-Essex area was without electricity or telephone service from 6 p.m., when the storm first struck, to approximately 6 a.m. the following morning when lightning hit a power transformer.

Also hit by power failure was the 1000 block of Audubon and the 1100 block of Bishop. Service was restored in three hours. Six trees, damaged by the winds, had to be moved as a safety measure he said. They were located at 1137 Balfour, 1130 Three Mile drive, 900 Bishop, the 1200 block of

Store Employee Robbed of Purse

Mrs. George Thompson, 2202 Hollywood, an employee at Jacobson's Home Decorating Shop in The Village placed her beige leather and cloth purse under a store counter at approximately 3:30 p.m. on Friday, September 14.

When she went to pick up the purse at 5:30 p.m., it was gone.

Mrs. Thompson immediately informed City police, and gave a detailed report of the purse's contents: $89 in cash, check and savings account books, charge plates, a cigarette lighter, a beige cigarette case and the keys to her car. An investigation is pending.

Bathrobe-Clad Policeman Car Strippers' Nemesis

A Park police officer didn't stop to think how he was dressed when he saw car strippers wheeling a tire down the street—he made an arrest while clad in his bathrobe.

The officer, George Blair of 905 Beaconsfield, was watching a late show on television at about 1:45 a.m. Saturday, September 15, when he happened to glance out the window. He saw what appeared to be suspicious activities at Beaconsfield and Fairfax.

He saw two boys get out of a car and disappear, to return a few minutes later, rolling a tire and wheel. Grabbing his service revolver, the patrolman, in his bathrobe, ran out the door and confronted the boys, both 15-years old, and identified himself as an officer.

Foundation's Permit Plea Aired Again

City Council Listens to Two and a Half Hour Public Discussion; No Action Taken

The pros and cons of locating a building for the Grosse Pointe Exceptional Children Foundation on Neighborhood Club property, at the east side of St. Clair avenue between Charlevoix and Waterloo, were discussed at length at a public hearing Monday evening, September 17, held in the Neighborhood Club gymnasium.

The Grosse Pointe City Council spent two and one-half hours listening to arguments for and against the proposed location, at the southwest corner of the club property, directly behind the Thrift Shop. The Council must determine whether or not to issue a building permit, allowing construction on the Foundation building to proceed.

The public hearing was called specifically for the purpose of allowing all interested parties to speak, so that Council might be fully aware of the feelings of the community on this issue before making a definite decision on the building permit. Council took no action on the matter at this time.

Wright Gives Resume
The hearing opened with a recapitulation by City Attorney Charles Wright, III, who gave a brief resume of the history of the issue, as it affects the City Council.

Wright stated that the first communication the City Offices received regarding the proposed building was in the fall of 1961. At that time, the City Offices received a letter asking whether or not Neighborhood Club property could be used for school purposes under present zoning laws.

Wright informed the writer that there were no prohibitions against such a use.

In November, 1961, at the conclusion of the regular council meeting, there was some informal discussion on the prospect of the Foundation erecting a new building on Neighborhood Club property.

From then until Monday's meeting, according to Wright, there has been only one Council session at which some aspect of the problem has not come up for discussion.

Not Owned by City
Wright reiterated the fact that

Four Banks Broken Into By Burglar

Anthony Amato of Radnor, Detroit, Solves 16 Robberies Committed in Woods

A 22-year-old Jackson Prison parolee, who was arrested by Detroit police on Thursday, September 6, confessed to committing 170 burglaries in the Detroit area, including 16 in the Woods.

Arrested was Anthony Amato of 5277 Radnor, Detroit, who is being held on a charge of breaking and entering a business place in the nighttime.

Police arrested Amato at the rear of 5093 Courville, Detroit, when a woman witness, who saw the man leaving the Manufacturers National Bank, 16301 East Warren, carrying a stamp machine. The woman pointed out Amato to the police officers.

Visited Four Banks

The parolee confessed to breaking into four banks, one in the Woods, two in Detroit's Fifteenth Precinct, Conner Station area, and one on Detroit's west side. He took nothing but stamp machines.

Amato was arrested just as he broke open the stamp machine he had taken from the Warren avenue bank.

He told police that he was responsible for burglaries in the Woods, Detroit, Harper Woods, St. Clair Shores, Fraser, Roseville, East Detroit, and other surrounding communities.

The burglar was released from Jackson Prison last December 7, after serving two years of a 2-5-year sentence for burglary. He renewed his crime career immediately after his release he told police.

Taken To Woods

Woods Det. Sgt. Walter O'Dell and Det. Leroy Tobian, when notified of Amato's arrest, and that he had confessed to committing burglaries in the Woods, went to the Fifteenth Precinct to question the man.

On Monday, September 10, the detectives picked up Amato from the Detroit station and took him to the Woods station, where, under extensive questioning, Amato confessed to 16 burglaries in the Woods, from April 14 to August 27 of this year, all business places.

O'Dell and Tobian said that Amato's method of operation was always to wait until a police car drove by, then give it time to reach a distance of three blocks, then he would smash in the front window of the place, enter and take what loot he could find.

The detectives said that Amato confessed to breaking into two Woods business establishments three times each, and once in each of the other places burglarized.

List Places Entered

The places, dates and the amount of loot taken from the establishments, according to Amato's confession, are:

Woods Barber Shop, 19471 Mack, April 14—nothing taken; La Coppola's Restaurant, 20515 Mack, April 28—$75, May 15—$50, and August 5—nothing; Jonny's Meat Market, 19521 Mack, May 10—$55; Newcastle Party

Window Broken In Parked Car

Patrolman George Brackx and Sgt. Foster Mauck of the City police were making a routine check of the Cadeux road area early Sunday morning, September 16, when they observed a '62 Oldsmobile parked in front of 534 Cadeux, its left rear side window smashed and an empty beer bottle lying inside.

The officers reported the damaged vehicle at 4:05 a.m., and a check revealed that the car was registered to Leon A. Sweet, 1029 Cadeux.

Later in the morning, at 9:45 a.m., City police contacted Sweet, who stated that he had no knowledge of the damage, and that the car was not insured.

Patrolman Donald F. Fritz picked up the bottle, to check it for possible prints. The incident is being investigated.

The Farms police received reports of trees down at 409 Calvin, Fisher and Beaupre; branches and limbs torn from trees at 70 Cambridge, 353 Ridgemont, 59 Lake Shore, Fisher and Chalfonts, Mason and Mack, 33 Fairacres, Kerby, between Lake Shore and Grosse Pointe boulevard, Kercheval and Country Club drive, and Grosse Pointe boulevard and Touraine.

Other Trees Down

Trees were reported blown down at the rear of the following private properties: Memorial Church at 16 Lake Shore; 58 Radnor and 246 Kerby; telephone wires were down at Lake Shore and Ridge, and at Fisher and Hall places.

Detroit Edison crews restored electrical power to the southern half of the Farms that was blacked out by 9:15 p.m. The electricity failed at 7:45 p.m. The Woods Public Safety Department was kept busy during the entire storm, and as did the other Pointe communities, called out auxiliary police and firemen to assist in standing watch until Edison and Michigan Bell crews repaired wires and restored services.

JINGLE! JANGLE! JINGLE!... That's the what this year's multi-million-dollar Michigan Bell payroll does to cash registers all over the state. We are the state's fourth largest employer (excepting government), and our employees spend most of their earnings right here at home. They buy all sorts of things vital to Michigan's economy: cars, food, homes, appliances, clothing—to mention just a few. Michigan Bell jobs help keep cash registers jingling all over the state, adding extra vigor to Michigan's growing economy.

The Woods bank and the three Detroit banks entered by Amato, are insured by a Federal Government agency and therefore the burglaries of these places come under the jurisdiction of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

FBI officials said that Amato may be tried in Federal Court for the bank breaks.

TAX REPORT MING

Farms City Clerk Dawson Nancy informed the city council on Monday, September 17, that he had been advised by the Wayne County Bureau of Taxation, that the re-valuation of real property in the Farms will be completed on or about October 1, and that figures will be available shortly thereafter.

Pleas Guilty

On Tuesday, September 11, Amato was arraigned before Detroit Recorder's Court Judge Arthur Kasinski. Amato pleaded guilty to burglary in the night time.

Judge Kasinski set bond at $2,000 and referred Amato's case to the State Parole Department. Officials of the department placed a hold on Amato, thereby preventing his release on the bond, because of his violation of parole.

The Detroit detectives whose investigation and extensive questioning of Amato cleared the burglaries, are William Draheim and Bernard Walker.

CARS IN MINOR CRASH
Damage was minor, and no tickets were issued following a two-car collision in the Kercheval avenue alley at the rear of Fromm's Hardware on Monday afternoon, September 10.

Mrs. Phyllis J. Addy, 1317 Kensington, had parked her '62 Dodge at the above location. Her car was struck in the left rear fender by a '60 Chrysler driven by Mrs. Bessie Pearce, 1000 Lincoln.

Schools Send Textbooks Abroad

A copy of each textbook used in The Grosse Pointe Public School System, about 150 in all, was sent abroad recently for display in European and Near East countries under the auspices of the United States Information Agency. This project is part of an East-West Exhibitions Exchange wherein information and exhibits concerning other countries are interchanged as part of an over-all effort to improve world understanding. Grosse Pointe was chosen to represent the U.S.A. with respect to what a good American school system is like and what books the children enrolled in such a system use. All of the textbooks, a number of photographs of local school situations and other information will make up the exhibit. Shown packing the books purchased by USIA for shipment abroad are Stores Clerk JOHN PARRISH and Purchasing Agent EDWARD SNELL of the local school system.

2 Cases Heard In City Court

Two persons appeared before Judge Douglas L. Paterson in Grosse Pointe City Justice Court on Wednesday, September 12.

Fines of $10 and $50 respectively were levied against Walter J. Dossin II, 1015 Kensington, and Harold Schaldenbrand, 5210 Haverhill, Detroit. Dossin was also placed on six months' probation with no driving. Both he and Schaldenbrand had been charged with reckless driving.

W. Michael Keenan U-D Assistant Dean

W. Michael Keenan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Keenan of 1443 Harvard, has been named assistant dean of men at the University of Detroit.

Keenan, 23, who holds a Ph.B. and a M.A. in English from U. of D., was previously the assistant director of resident students and the assistant to the dean of men for fraternity affairs at U. of D.

A graduate of Austin High School, he was active in the University Players, student dramatic group, while an undergraduate. Keenan won three varsity letters as a member of the U. of D. Fencing team, serving as team captain during his senior year.

Car Jumps Curb In Making Turn

A ticket for car not under control and causing an accident was issued to Nathaling Valentine, 2182 Eastlawn, at 7:10 p.m. on Sunday, September 16.

Mrs. Valentine had been traveling west on Jefferson, and was in the process of making a right turn into Washington road when she lost control. The car went over the curb at the corner, hitting a street and stop sign. Mrs. Valentine was not injured, but the car had to be towed away.

Talent is a necessity, but a little patience is worth much more.

Shot-Punctuated Chase Ends in Crash; Two Hurt

Two young persons were injured Monday night, September 17, when their sports car crashed into a tree at Helen and Vernier roads, following a 70-mile an hour chase in which police fired four warning shots which were ignored by the driver.

The driver of the car, a 1950 Jaguar, was John R. Price, 20, of 2197 Ridgemont, who suffered a fractured hip and possible other injuries. His passenger, Catherine Villeme, 20, of 25164 Firwood, Warren, who was thrown from the car by the force of the impact, suffered minor injuries. Both were taken to St. John Hospital for treatment.

According to Woods Patrolmen Bruce Cross and Norman Handley Price was spotted driving at Mack and Anita at about 65 miles an hour. The officers said they gave chase.

Price drove south on Mack, turned off Mack west on Vernier to Canton in Harper Woods, turned south on Canton to Fleetwood, east on Fleetwood to Helen, turned north on Helen, and crossed Vernier, ignoring all stop signs.

The officers said that Price ran a stop sign at Brys and Helen, went west on Brys to the Eight Mile road junction, where the road changed from pavement to gravel, at which point Price lost control of his car and crashed into a tree.

Cross and Handley said that the chase started at 10:30 p.m., and prior to the crackup, the speed had reached 70 miles an hour. Handley fired the four warning shots, ignored by Price, the officers said. Cross was driving.

At the hospital, neither Price nor Miss Villeme gave any explanation for trying to elude them, the officers said, nor did the driver and his companion give any reason for speeding.

Price was given a ticket for reckless driving, and a court date will be scheduled when he is well enough to appear at a hearing.

Monteith PTA Meets Sept. 27

The Monteith School Parent-Teacher Association will hold its first meeting of the school year on Thursday evening, September 27, at 8 o'clock. Classrooms will be open for visitation between 7:30 and 8:

A short business meeting will be conducted by president Clifford W. Ashton. Guest speaker for the evening will be Dr. Emanuel Tanay, director of the In-Patient Department of Psychiatry at Receiving Hospital who will speak on "What Psychiatry Can Do." Dr. Tanay who lives at 380 Fisher road, received his medical degree from the University of Munich and did post graduate work at the University of Michigan. He is also an Assistant Professor at Wayne.

School Launched By Candlelight

In spite of a severe storm which made candlelight a necessity, Memorial Nursery, Inc., began its sixth year at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, Thursday evening, September 13, with almost 100 percent participating parent attendance.

President Mrs. H. R. Fruehauf, Jr., carried out the entire meeting by candlelight including an extensive orientation demonstration by teachers Mrs. Norbert Tesch and Mrs. Roger Oetting in the new classrooms. Much new equipment has been added this year for the enjoyment and development of the 3 and 4 year olds registered.

The board of directors for 1962-63 consists of: Mrs. H. R. Fruehauf, Jr., president; Mrs. Gerald E. Warren, vice president; Mrs. William Race, recording secretary; Mrs. D. Valley Stutt, treasurer; Mrs. Joseph L. Cobane, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Daniel Johnson, admissions director; Mrs. Malcolm Sutherland, health director; Mrs. Ralph Burton, programming and special events; and scheduling directors Mrs. R. P. Lyman, III, and Mrs. Charles Taylor.

Maintenance and equipment chairman is Mrs. John Controls and the special chairmen are: Mrs. Clement Pollina, refreshments; Mrs. Cyril Edwards, photography; Mrs. Richard Miller, publicity; Mrs. Robert Tobin, hostess; Mrs. George Magnieise, telephone; and Mrs. Richard P. Lyman, III, newsletter editor.

Information regarding enrollment may be obtained by calling Mrs. Daniel Johnson, Admissions Director, at TU 1-0855.

Course Offered On Great Books

A First Year Great Books Discussion Group will be starting this fall at the Grosse Pointe Public Library. At the meetings, which will be held on the second and fourth Thursdays of each month, the participants will discuss the authors' meanings as well as giving their own interpretations. Great Books are those in which the thoughts expressed are as true today as when they were written.

Some of the authors to be discussed are Plato, Shakespeare, Marx, Aristotle and Thoreau. Selections for each meeting average approximately 50 pages.

The first meeting will be held on September 27 at 8 p.m., at which time the Declaration of Independence will be read and discussed.

No advance registration is required; come if you are interested.

Today the one thing most vitally needed is faith in the future.

Classes and Study Groups Starting at War Memorial

A large number of significant and interesting classes and study groups are beginning at this time at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center, 32 Lake Shore road. Those in the Grosse Pointe area who wish to avail themselves of the opportunities presented and described in the following paragraphs are urged to call the War Memorial (TU 1-7511) to enroll at this time.

Popular Organ Lessons, Mrs. Jane Poucher instructor, are offered Tuesday nights through November 20. It is still not too late to enroll. Classes are semi-private and 45 minutes long. Both chord and note method are taught and applicable to all home organs. Practice time may be scheduled on the organ at the Center for those not yet owning an instrument.

Beginning French Conversation for Children, Mme. Helen Coull instructing, are offered Tuesdays and Thursdays after regular school from 4:45-5:15, through November 27 for boys and girls ages 6-9. A few places remain open.

Oil Painting Instruction with Professor Robert Wilbert begins this Friday, September 21. The 8:00-11:30 a.m. class is for advanced students the 12:30 and 3:00 o'clock afternoon classes are for intermediates and beginners. Classes are held weekly on Fridays through December 14.

Flower Arranging, taught by Mrs. Richard T. Gerathy, also begins this Friday, September 21. The morning class is full but one or two openings remain in the 1:00-3:30 group.

Ballet School under Mary Elen Cooper holds interviews for new students this Friday, September 21, 3:30-5:30 and Saturday, September 22, 9:30-3:30. Ages 5 to adult will be enrolled. Classes begin Monday, September 24 and are held Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays after school and all day Saturdays. Students are enrolled in small classes of ten or less according to age and ability. There is a special Adult Troupe which meets this Friday, September 21, 8:00-9:00 p.m.

Children's Art Classes, with Mrs. Stirling Loud will begin this Saturday morning, September 22, instead of being held on Wednesdays and Thursdays as announced on the Center's Activity Card. The class for younger children is from 9:30 to 11 a.m. The older group is scheduled from 11:15-12:45. Both are filled unless there are cancellations.

The Puppetry Group directed by Robert Rathbun opens Saturday, September 22, 3:30 to 5:00 p.m. for ages 8-14. Members learn to make, manipulate, characterize and write script for puppets. They give performances too. It's a creative activity which is a lot of fun.

Reading Development Class will begin Tuesday, September 25, and will be held 7:00-9:30 o'clock Tuesday and Thursday evenings through October 25. It is guaranteed to more than double one's reading rate and comprehension of fiction, texts and technical materials alike.

Conversational French for Adults, Professor John L. LaRue instructing, will begin Wednesday morning, September 26, 9:30-11, and will continue for 16 weeks. It is planned for those who have had some introduction to the French language but who need assistance with vocabulary and structure and practice in conversation.

Communism vs. The Western World, Dr. Theodore B. Fleming, Jr., instructing, begins Wednesday evening, September 26 at 8 o'clock. Lectures and discussions continue Wednesday evenings through November 14. Ideologies and practices of the two major competing political systems will be compared and contrasted. This is a fascinating, vital study of urgent importance to every thinking citizen.

Introduction to Contemporary Drama and the Novel with Dr. Edward M. Shaffter begins Wednesday evening, September 26 at 8:00 o'clock and continues weekly through December 19. Group members will read and discuss works which they select from such authors and playwrights as Tennessee Williams, Arthur Miller, William Faulkner, Ernest Hemingway and Albee.

A Workshop in Creative Writing with Esther Broner begins Thursday morning, September 27, 9:30 to 11:30 a.m., continuing Thursdays through December 20. Esther Broner is a member of the Wayne State faculty who has won three Tompkins Awards and a scholarship to the New York City Writers Conference. She will inspect and give helpful criticism on the forms and techniques of narrative fiction and the planning, organizing and writing of short stories, poetry or the novel.

Dale Carnegie Leadership Training begins its sixteenth consecutive class at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Monday evening, October 1, 7:00-11 o'clock. Attendance at the first meeting which is largely in the nature of a demonstration obligates no one to take the course. It is a fifteen week international recognized and proven course in leadership, public speaking, salesmanship and human relations.

Men's Garden Club to Meet

John Van der Meer of Pontiac will narrate a motion picture film produced in Europe, "The Holland Bulb Industry," when Men's Garden Club of Grosse Pointe holds its regular meeting Thursday, September 20, at 8 p.m., in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center.

Van der Meer is a native of Lisse, South Holland, Netherlands, the center of the Holland bulb industry. He originally sold bulbs for a Holland firm, traveling through England, Germany and the United States. When World War II made it temporarily impossible for him to return home, he entered the pulp importation business in the United States.

He is presently engaged in the sale of seeds and agricultural supplies at wholesale in the Pontiac area.

Appearing with Van der Meer on the same program will be his employer, Andrew C. Maier of Birmingham, who will speak and show slides on Merion Blue Grass. Maier has been in the agricultural supply business for nearly 50 years. He sells at wholesale grass seeds produced in Denmark, as well as the States of Kentucky, Idaho, Washington, Oregon and California.

All male gardeners in the area are invited to attend.

Computers are used to solve class problems in more than 60 University of Michigan engineering courses.

Dog Obedience Classes to Start

The Department of Community services of the Grosse Pointe Public School System has scheduled the fall classes of Dog Obedience Training with the owner's meeting to be held in the Grosse Pointe High School Auditorium on Tuesday, October 2, at 7:30 p.m.

Owners are not to bring their dogs on the first night. These training classes have been held for the past 12 years, being offered in the fall and spring, and taught by a group of volunteer instructors from the Southern Obedience Training Club.

Head instructor will be Charles Bush, a licensed American Kennel Club obedience judge. He will be assisted by a staff of trainers adept in the exercises used, and which are based on the A. K. C. requirements for a novice obedience title. This will include: heeling, coming when called, staying (in sit and down position), and standing for examination.

Chamber Music Group

At their first regular meeting of the season on September 9, the members of the recently organized Chamber of Music Players of Grosse Pointe voted unanimously in favor of affiliation with the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

This action establishes in the Pointe an organization which uniquely reflects the community's growing interest in fine music composed especially for performance by small ensembles. The War Memorial is the kind of setting in which the composers of chamber music intended that their works should be played.

It will now be graced with concerts of chamber music on the first Sunday afternoon of each month through May.

Many of the area's fine musicians, both professional and amateur, are planning to participate in programs to be presented this season. Performing ensembles will be made up, for the most part, by members of the Chamber Music Players of Grosse Pointe. In some instances, guests of members will be included. Both established groups and new blendings of musical talents will be heard.

Young musicians and others relatively unknown to War Memorial audiences will also contribute to this exciting venture. A fine contribution to the development of musical talent is promised by the decision of the membership that there should

Dog Obedience Training Classes to Start Oct. 2

The Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Public School System has scheduled the fall classes of Dog Obedience Training with the owner's meeting to be held in the Grosse Pointe High School Auditorium on Tuesday, October 2, at 7:30 p.m.

Owners are not to bring their dogs on the first night.

These training classes have been held for the past 12 years, being offered in the fall and spring, and taught by a group of volunteer instructors from the Southern Obedience Training Club.

Head instructor will be Charles Bush, a licensed American Kennel Club obedience judge. He will be assisted by a staff of trainers adept in the exercises used, and which are based on the A. K. C. requirements for a novice obedience title. This will include: heeling, coming when called, staying (in sit and down position), and standing for examination.

Purpose of the training is to develop the dog into an easily controlled companion. Only persons willing to follow instructions and practice at least 15 minutes every day should enroll in the class.

Conditions of acceptance in the class are: (1) The dog must be at least six months of age; (2) The class is primarily for adults — however, boys and girls, 12 years or older, may be accepted; (3) Parents of junior handlers must take an active interest in their efforts, and should accompany them; (4) All class members must be residents of the Grosse Pointe School District; (5) The head instructor reserves the right to decide whether a student is capable of handling his dog.

Application for enrollment may be made by calling the Department of Community Services at TU 5-3808 or TU 5-0271. Owners will be assigned to classes in the order in which their applications have been received.

Introducing Pointe's Newest Teachers

Shown inspecting some of the new materials available in the Parcels Junior High School library are four newcomers to the teaching staff there this fall. Principal VINCENT J. PETERSON, (left) joined with them as they examined a number of the new books the 864 pupils and 46 teachers at Parcels will have access to this year. Reading right from Mr. Peterson are SUSAN BOYNTON, ANN MURRAY, PATRICIA COOK (all teachers of English) and TOM RYAN (Social Studies).

Ann Murray was born in Minneapolis and finished high school in Akron, Ohio. She earned her degree at St. Mary of the Springs in Columbus, a B.A. in English. While there she was elected to Kappa Gamma Pi, a Catholic Women's Honorary. A year's teaching experience was gained in the Willoughby, Ohio high school before joining the Parcels' staff this fall. She lives in Cadieux road.

Susan Boynton is a native of Michigan, born in Pontiac and a graduate of Birmingham High School. Her B.A. in English was awarded by the University of Michigan. Miss Boynton graduated with distinction. In college she was twice awarded her sorority's scholarship bracelet for having the semester's highest average and was active in rushing and homecoming affairs, chairing several committees as well as being vice-chairman of the Women's Senate. She did her practice teaching at Ann Arbor High. Parcels is her first full-time teaching assignment. Her residence is in East Detroit.

Patricia Cook, born in Detroit, completed her high school training at Birmingham High School and earned her B.A. in English at the University of Michigan. Special interests include swimming, skiing and golf. She makes her home in the Eastland Village Apartments. Tom Ryan comes to Grosse Pointe to teach social studies at Parcels this fall. A native of Chicago, he graduated from

Parents, Pupils To Pull Switch

"Turn about is fair play" — so on Monday evening, September 24, parents of Brownell Junior High School students will switch places with their offspring and attend "School-On-Schedule."

After a brief PTA meeting beginning at 7:30, parents will follow their children's daily schedule and sit in each class for 15 minutes. There the general course of study, class routines, kinds of homework, and bases for evaluation of pupil progress will be explained by each teacher for that particular class.

To refresh the visitors, coffee will be served in the study hall for those scheduled there for any period, as well as for a general pick-up at the completion of the evening's program.

Junior High School is Mrs. Patricia Cook. Born in Detroit she completed her high school training at Birmingham High School and earned her B.A. in English at the University of Michigan. Special interests include swimming, skiing and golf. She makes her home in the Eastland Village Apartments.

Tom Ryan comes to Grosse Pointe to teach social studies at Parcels this fall. A native of Chicago, he graduated from

Adult Education Classes Added

Four new classes in Adult Education are being offered by the Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Public School System.

Advanced Oil Painting is scheduled to begin on Wednesday, October 17, from 1 to 4 p.m., for an eight-week period. J. A. C. Barton will instruct the group which will be limited to 10 students. Mr. Barton received his education in Holland and studied art in France, Germany, Belgium and Canada, and has just returned from two years' study in Europe.

Silk Screening is being offered to begin on Thursday, October 4, at 7:30 p.m., for an eight-week period. Robert Rathbun will be the instructor. Mr. Rathbun is in the art department of the Grosse Pointe Schools.

Reading and Applique Design, to be applied to sweaters, dresses, bags, etc., is offered on Wednesday evening, October 10, at 7:30 o'clock for an eight-week course. Mrs. Marie Vinci will instruct this class, giving her students an unusual opportunity to create many custom made accessories.

A course in Clothing Alterations will give the students tips on restyling and adjusting dresses and suits which otherwise might be unseizable. This will be a day class, meeting on Friday at 1:15 p.m. to start October 19, for an eight-week period. Mrs. Ruth Burris, who has had many years association in exclusive women's shops, will instruct this class.

All the above classes will be limited in enrollment, and class reservation may be made by calling the Department of Community Services at TU 5-3808 or TU 5-0271.

Chamber Music Group Affiliates

At their first regular meeting of the season on September 9, the members of the recently organized Chamber of Music Players of Grosse Pointe voted unanimously in favor of affiliation with the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

This action establishes in the Pointe an organization which uniquely reflects the community's growing interest in fine music composed especially for performance by small ensembles. The War Memorial is the kind of setting in which the composers of chamber music intended that their works should be played.

It will now be graced with concerts of chamber music on the first Sunday afternoon of each month through May.

Many of the area's fine musicians, both professional and amateur, are planning to participate in programs to be presented this season. Performing ensembles will be made up, for the most part, by members of the Chamber Music Players of Grosse Pointe. In some instances, guests of members will be included. Both established groups and new blendings of musical talents will be heard.

Young musicians and others relatively unknown to War Memorial audiences will also contribute to this exciting venture. A fine contribution to the development of musical talent is promised by the decision of the membership that there should be no restriction on the ability of the performers except that their offerings should be within the limits of their ability and as well prepared as possible.

The literature of chamber music players ranges from sixteenth century madrigals through instrumental sonatas and suites by modern composers Bernhard Heiden and Leonard Bernstein. Through the centuries between, composers of great stature—Vivaldi, J. S. Bach, Josef Haydn, Beethoven, Dvorak, Debussy, and many others—have written some of their finest works in chamber music forms.

Under the co-chairmanship of Dr. Aaron Farbman and Mrs. Wayne Donaldson the group was organized in May with a charter membership of 39. It has now grown to include more than 50 residents of the Pointe and neighboring communities. Instrumentalists of the area who are interested in ensemble playing are invited to contact the corresponding secretary, Mrs. Wade Fuller, TU 4-1476.

Kiwanis Sale

The Pointe Kiwanis Club announced that it will issue special recognition certificates to the many business and professional men in the Woods who have underwritten the cost of the peanuts.

Interest and enthusiasm are being stimulated by offering a trophy to the Kiwanis member who collects the greatest amount.

In May of this year, the Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club presented a new 50-passenger bus to the city of Grosse Pointe Woods to transport children of the community to the Woods' Lakefront Park. The $5,000 cost was financed primarily by the proceeds of the Kiwanis annual 4th of July Fireworks Display.

GPUS News Notes

Headmaster John Chandler, Jr., greeted new and returning students on Wednesday morning, September 12, at Grosse Pointe University School opened its 64th year. Mr. Chandler introduced these seven new teachers:

Upper School
Miss Jean A. Diekoff, a 1951 graduate of the University School, returns to Grosse Pointe to teach Latin, assist with the Glee Club and complete in the course of the year her Master's thesis in Music for Cornell University. Miss Diekoff is a graduate of Wellesley College and has taught at the Northampton (Mass.) School for Girls.
Mrs. Mary P. Grasse joins the faculty as teacher of Speech and Dramatics. A graduate of Northwestern University, Mrs. Grasse has long been active in dramatics in both Detroit and Grosse Pointe and for the past two years has been teaching in the Detroit Public Schools.

Miss Virginia Robb, another alumna, Class of 1949, joins the Mathematics department after six years as a member of the faculty at Kingswood School. Miss Robb earned her B.A. degree at Sweet Briar College and received her M.A. from the University of Michigan.

Miss Ann M. Vaitiekaitis will teach English and Geography in the 7th grade and be adviser to the 7th grade girls. Miss Vaitiekaitis came to the United States in 1950 from Lithuania via West Berlin. She completed her education in Worcester, Mass., receiving her B.A. degree from Clark University. She has taught in the public schools on Nantucket Island and at Duxbury, Mass., and this summer was a member of our summer school faculty.

Darrel C. Watson, B.S. Eastern Michigan University, M.A. University of Michigan, will teach Physics and Chemistry replacing Mr. Long. Mr. Watson moves to Grosse Pointe with his wife and two children from Berkley, Michigan, where he taught Physics for seven years at the Berkley High School. He has spent several summers studying under grants from the National Science Foundation, and this year was at the University of Minnesota.

Lower School
Miss Mary Jean McNevin received her B.A. degree from the University of Western Ontario and a diploma in Child Study from the University of Toronto. She has taught in Ontario, at the Convent of the Sacred Heart, and in the Detroit and St. Clair Shores public schools. Miss McNevin joins Mrs. Schwenk in the Kindergarten, replacing Mrs. Eriksen, who will be in charge of the Pre-Kindergarten.

Mrs. Edith S. Orr studied at Western Michigan University before taking her B.E. degree at the National College of Education in Illinois. Specializing in Early Elementary Education, she went on to teach in the Grosse Pointe Public Schools before taking a position as Director of the Grosse Pointe Shores Cooperative Nursery School, which she has held for the past six years. Mrs. Orr joins the Pre-Kindergarten faculty and will assist Mrs. Eriksen with programming.

It may be of interest to include here the listing by Mr. Chandler of a number of characteristics which have seemed to apply to the school's most successful students over the years. He has urged parents to review them with their children as the school year begins.

The successful student, then, is the one:

"Who regards school as an opportunity and believes that his performance at school is important to him and his future."

"Who assumes responsibility for his record—whether good or poor."

"Who has a definite daily schedule for doing his homework and a quiet, orderly, and well-lighted desk at which to work."

"Who shares with the family responsibility for his home by having some regular job or chore to perform."

"Whose social life is not permitted to get in the way of his school work."

"Who takes pride in a personal standard of conduct which features respect for adults and consideration for the rights and feelings of others."

Friday Book Review To Hear About Near East

The Friday Book Review Group of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church will hold its first meeting of the fall season this Friday.

Mrs. Watson Ford will talk and show slides of her recent trip to Iran and Iraq. Tea will be served at 1 o'clock. All women of the church are invited to attend.

Reading Ability Course Offered

A very fine opportunity to improve one's reading ability is being offered this fall at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center, 32 Lake Shore road.

The class will meet Tuesday and Thursday evenings beginning September 25 from 7-9:30 and continue through October 25. The class will purposely be limited to a very small number so that each student will have individual attention directed upon his reading difficulties.

Both an increase in speed and comprehension will be the goal of this course to be taught by Steven Devlantis, a specialist in this field. The vertical reading techniques learned will be equally effective, whether applied to fiction, texts, or technical material. Improve reading speed and comprehension is necessary to every one in this time of accelerated schedules. It is often necessary to school achievement or job advancement.

Any individual with even a high school education can master the reading improvement lessons and increase their reading ability many times. To enroll call the Center (TU 1-7511).

Invite Singers To Join Chorus

Grosse Pointe Community Chorus, a 110-voice chorus group now in its tenth year, holds its next-to-last registration of members next Tuesday, September 25, at 7:30 p.m., at Parcels Junior High School, Mack at Vernier.

Rehearsal of numbers for the Christmas concert will follow registration at 8 p.m.

No auditions are required for members—just the desire to sing and ability to attend weekly rehearsals. Only the solos are assigned by Don Simmons, conductor, after private auditions. Detailed information on the chorus may be obtained by phoning TU 4-5964. Singers are cordially invited to join.

Officers of the Chorus for the 1962 Christmas concert season are Bill Lorenz, president; Earl Nelson, vice-president and concert chairman; Nancy Williams, secretary; Harold Sidey, treasurer; directors, Leonard Bartos, Ethelyn Buerger, Ed Rowady, Carolyn DeGaetano and Bernadette Schmidt.

Chairmen of committees are Avis Watson, membership; Rachel Dreyer, librarian; and Ralph Kimble, publicity.

School Leaders Meet Sept. 27

Participating in the opening meeting of the school year of the Wayne County Association of School Boards will be Ruth Goebel, of 193 McKinley, Grosse Pointe, and C. Henry Haberkorn 3rd, of 16641 E. Jefferson, Grosse Pointe Park. They are members of the Grosse Pointe Public Schools Board of Education.

The meeting will be held at 6:30 p.m. Thursday, September 27, in the Oscar A. Carlson Junior High School, Gibraltar. Speaker will be Peter Ellis, field secretary of the Michigan School Board Association. His topic will be "Helps and Reminders for School Board Members."

Both Haberkorn and Mrs. Goebel are members of the executive board of the association for the 1962-63 year.

Haberkorn, past vice-president of the Grosse Pointe board, is also the new chairman of the association's public relations committee. He is administrative co-ordinator for O'Dell, Hewlett & Luckenbach, architects of Birmingham.

Mrs. Goebel, who has served on the Grosse Pointe board for six years, is starting her fifth year as secretary of that body. She is a housewife.

THE GRIND
Most people are merely pressed by high prices—only a few are taken to the cleaners completely.

Can't Remember Causing Accident

Farms Police took Fannie Mai Workman, 22917 Doremus, St. Clair Shores, to Bon Secours Hospital for a check-up following a two-car collision at Jefferson and Fisher shortly after midnight on Tuesday, September 11.

She had been stopped, in her '59 Plymouth, at the intersection, waiting for the eastbound red light to change, when a '59 Daimler slammed into the rear of her car.

The Daimler's driver, George Christensen, 66 Oxford, told City police officers George Brackx and Duncan MacEachern that he could not remember hitting the Plymouth. Christensen said he had been drinking during the evening. He was ticketed for reckless driving and causing an accident, and is to appear in court September 25.

Both cars sustained considerable damages. The Daimler was towed to the rear of the City police station, from which it was picked up the following morning.

The Plymouth, its rear end dented and battered, was drivable. Fannie Mai Workman was released from the hospital after doctors determined she had no serious injuries.

DAY DREAMS

One of life's pleasantest pastimes is making plans to spend the money you'll probably never have.

Camp Fire Girls Expand Program

Command Performance, September 18 at Ford Auditorium and Project Wohelo, September 20 at Rackham Memorial Building, will mark the official launching of the "New Directions" in the Camp Fire Girls Program. These two city-wide events will introduce revisions and enrichments of an expanded today's program for today's girls to Camp Fire adult volunteers, leaders, educators and other interested citizens.

For the initial presentation of these program advances an attendance of 1800 adults is expected at the Ford Auditorium on September 18 from 8 to 9:30 p.m. Titled Command Performance, the program will highlight the forward strides taken by this National organization to keep abreast of the times. Dean Elsbeth Melville, Dean of Women, Boston University and Past National President, Camp Fire Girls, Inc. will give the keynote address. Her topic will be "Camp Fire Girls—The Second Fifty Years." Richard F. Heugli, managing director of United Community Services, will speak on "The Importance of Camp Fire Girls."

The chairman for this event is Fran Harris of WWJ and George Kendall of WJR will serve as interlocutor. Under the direction of Miss Toni Begin, summer camp counselor, a chorus comprised of the older girls' unit from Camp Wathana will sing a number of songs.

On September 20 from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m., a one day program refresher training institute called Project Wohelo will be held in the Rackham Building for Camp Fire leaders, guardians, advisers, committee members and other adult volunteers. Workshop sessions will include the four levels of program—Blue Bird, Camp Fire Girls, Junior Hi Camp Fire Girls and Horizon Club. Luncheon reservation may be secured by calling: Mrs. Mary Avery, LA 7-5329. The price of the luncheon is $2.60.

Camp Fire Girls Inc. founded in 1910 is the oldest national nonsectarian interlocal organization for girls in the United States. The updating of this character building program for girls from 7 through 17 years of age is the result of four years intensive study and action research conducted in ten Camp Fire Council's representing a cross section of the country. In addition to the Blue Bird, Camp Fire Girls and Horizon Club programs there is now a program covering the eleven years of girlhood from the second grade through High School. The traditional basic values of leading girls to happy womanhood and responsible citizenship through the creative program of Camp Fire Girls remains unchanged.

Camp Fire Girls Detroit Area Council has nine Districts throughout the metropolitan area and is a United Foundation agency with headquarters at 51 W. Warren, Detroit 1, 833-2670.

Two Car-Bicycle Crashes Report'd

Two car-bicycle collisions in Grosse Pointe City on Tuesday, September 4, resulted in frayed nerves, minor damage, and a few scratches and bruises on various parts of the bicycle riders' anatomies.

The first, occurring shortly before noon, involved a Volkswagen panel truck and a bike. The truck was stopped in the driveway at 375 Fisher when the driver, Daniel McCarron, 487 Touraine, spied a youngster coming toward it on his bicycle.

McCarron yelled at the boy, who apparently did not hear him and continued to pedal forward, slamming into the side of the truck. Neither the bicycle nor the truck was damaged, and the child, William Newnan, 7, 437 Washington, suffered only a bruised knee.

McCarron took him home to his mother, and then stopped in at the City police station to report the incident. No violations were issued.

At approximately 5 p.m. the second car-bicycle collision occurred, this time at the Kercheval-University intersection.

Oren Scollen Emmons, 14, 8 Radnor circle, was peddling west on Kercheval at approximately 25 miles an hour when Jacquelin Jenks McCake, 499 University, pulled her Chevrolet station wagon into the intersection, intending to cross Kercheval and continue south on University.

Emmons' bike struck the car. No one was seriously injured, Emmons suffering only a small scratch on his right leg. His bicycle was damaged, but the Chevrolet came through the incident without a scratch.

Both parties involved stopped in at the City police station at 5:30 p.m. They gave a full report of the accident.

the property in question (the Neighborhood Club) does not belong to and is not controlled by the City. The City is concerned legally only insofar as it has the power to accept or reject the Foundation's application for a building permit.

Grosse Pointe City as a whole is vitally concerned, however, as the Neighborhood Club is located in the City and serves the City by providing recreational facilities for City residents. Little League baseball and football games are played on the Neighborhood Club fields, and many residents feel that it would be unwise to use any property needed for recreational purposes for a school building. The City Council is presently engaged in preparing a long-range study of present recreational facilities in relation to future recreational needs.

the property in question (the Neighborhood Club) does not belong to and is not controlled by the City. The City is concerned legally only insofar as it has the power to accept or reject the Foundation's application for a building permit.

Grosse Pointe City as a whole is vitally concerned, however, as the Neighborhood Club is located in the City and serves the City by providing recreational facilities for City residents. The City Council is presently engaged in preparing a long-range study of present recreational facilities in relation to future recreational needs.

Resolution Submitted A resolution by the Mutual Aid and Neighborhood Club was read aloud at Monday's public hearing:

"Whereas, the Mutual Aid and Neighborhood Club, a Michigan non-profit corporation, hereinafter called the Neighborhood Club, is and for many years has been providing for the needs of families of the Grosse Pointe community and its vicinity in the fields of health, education, welfare and recreation; and

Whereas, the City of Grosse Pointe has advised the Neighborhood Club that, in reliance upon the facilities furnished for its residents by the Neighborhood Club, especially those providing outdoor recreational area, including tennis courts, baseball diamonds, football fields, etc., it has not duplicated such facilities for the exclusive use of its residents; and

Whereas, the City of Grosse Pointe has advised the Neighborhood Club that it now becomes desirable, in order to enable the City to consider its long range planning for City development, to know what the plans of the Neighborhood Club may be with respect to future use of such outdoor recreational facilities;

IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED AS FOLLOWS:

1) The Neighborhood Club, after consideration and study, has through its Board of Trustees determined that it is in the present interests of the Neighborhood Club program to continue and maintain all of the present tennis court area and all of the area lying northerly of the northern tennis court line extended westerly to St. Clair Avenue for outdoor recreational facilities available for use, among others, by residents of the City of Grosse Pointe;

2) Should the Neighborhood Club in the future consider it to be in its best interests to make a change in use of any of such outdoor recreational area from the recreational uses described above, the Neighborhood Club hereby assures the City of Grosse Pointe that before any commitment as to such use change or before any such change is approved, it will first so notify the City of Grosse Pointe in writing, and will give the City of Grosse Pointe an opportunity for a period of 90 days from the date of such notice to study the proposal for change, and will if requested meet with the City of Grosse Pointe for joint consideration of such proposal.

3) These resolutions may be rescinded or amended at any time by the Neighborhood Club upon not less than six months prior written notice to the City, in which event the Club agrees to meet with the City, upon its request, during the six months' period, to discuss such rescission or amendment.

4) The Secretary of the Board of Trustees of the Neighborhood Club is hereby directed to certify a copy of this resolution to the City of Grosse Pointe, with the understanding that the City of Grosse Pointe will rely thereon in making its long range plans and in advising its residents thereof."

Hold Public Discussion The meeting was then thrown open to public discussion. John L. King of the Farms, a practicing attorney and for the past three years, member of the Board of Directors of the Foundation for Exceptional Children, Inc., gave a brief resume of the aims and purposes of the Foundation, with slides showing the proposed location and the children in the present school.

King stated that the building, if erected, would occupy approximately one-twentieth of present Neighborhood Club property. Residents speaking against the proposed location argued that the City needs all presently used open recreational area, that Grosse Pointe City is subsidizing the other Pointes by creating a "public service corridor" of tax-exempt land, and that there are many other locations at which such a school could be erected.

Not Against Foundation Time and again, those arguing against the proposed location emphasized that they were not against the Foundation itself, only against the school building being erected on Neighborhood Club property, land presently used by the City for recreational purposes.

Those arguing for the building permit stated that they had spent considerable time searching for land on which to build, and that the Neighborhood Club property, with its present zoning restrictions and low rental, was the only feasible location. They emphasized that no expansion of facilities is anticipated once the building is up, as statistics indicate only about 50 children in the Pointe will need the services of the Foundation at any one time.

Men's Chorus Being Formed

The Grosse Pointe Men's Chorus is organizing and taking new members for its 1962-1963 season at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, 32 Lake Shore Road.

The first meeting was to take place Monday evening, September 17, at 8:30 in the Recreation Room on the lower floor. All men regardless of age who are interested in group singing are cordially invited to attend. No previous training or experience is needed and no one will be put through the embarrassment of an audition. The Chorus will be under the direction of John Finch, head of Vocal Music at Grosse Pointe High School.

Welsh Raps Romney on Durant Tilt

of an open letter attacking the Michigan Republican gubernatorial candidate and defending the 14th District "conservative" boss.

Romney, asked to comment on Welch's charges that Durant denounced publicly because he "did not change his beliefs overnight to coincide with those of George Romney," dismissed the Birch bulletin with a disdainful, "I haven't read it."

A campaign spokesman who had read it gave a concise statement of Romney and the Michigan GOP's present policy: "Our position is that the John Birch-Durant episode ended with the end of the Michigan Republican Convention."

Welch, in an open letter to Romney circulated to all Birch members, accused Romney of attaching more importance to damaging the Society than being elected governor of Michigan.

"Our members (in Michigan), especially in the 14th District, have long been respected—and still are—as both the core and the leadership of the conservative Republican strength in your state," the Society founder wrote.

"You have chosen to be recognized as a liberal Republican. Yet they were willing to support you, with work and money and experience.

"Mr. Durant, Republican leader of the 14th District, and a loyal and valuable member of the Republican Party for all his adult life, even resigned from the society in order to meet you more than halfway.

"It was not enough. Your requirement was that he change his beliefs overnight to have them coincide with those of George Romney.

"You insisted not only on 'unequivocally repudiating' Birch support, but on the equivalent of thought control. To what end, Mr. Romney, and to please what backers?"

Welch Issues Warning Welch warned Romney that "it is going to take a great deal more than the kind of political salvation you preach to keep our children from living under a Communist tyranny," adding that "Communist influences within our government and press" are doing their best to destroy the Birch Society.

"For goodness' sake, Mr. Romney, why help them?" Welch concluded by asking, "Instead, why not join tens of thousands of other patriotic Americans in helping us to spread the alarm?"

Welch's open letter to Romney made up the first two pages of a four-page Birch "flyer," sent to all Society members. The remaining pages were devoted to Congressional Record reprints of "Beliefs and Principles of the John Birch Society," a document distributed by Durant after his "resignation" from the Society.

College Alumnae Heads Invited to Gathering

Presidents of college sorority and alumnae groups and their delegates to College Women's Volunteer Service have been invited to a dessert social at the home of Mrs. Arthur E. Bersey, 14362 Harbor Island, on Thursday, September 20, from 1-3 p.m.

Guests will have the opportunity to exchange ideas with the new president of CWVS, Mrs. Lloyd W. Mosher, as well as gain information through "inoble conversation pieces."

Assisting Mrs. Bersey will be the following board members from CWVS: Mrs. R. F. Hoyer, St. Clair Shores; Mrs. Maurice L. Strong, Beaconsfield avenue; Mrs. Eugene W. Sunderman, Eastburn; Mrs. Philip N. Buckminster, McKinley avenue; and Mrs. Boyd Horne, McKinley avenue.

Chairman of the affair will be Mrs. H. Lee Townsend. College Women's Volunteer Service sponsors six community service projects and membership is open to any college group as well as to individuals with one year or more of college.

Old Violation Trips Mot

James H. Jenkins, 37, of 3200 West Philadelphia, Detroit, might have gotten away with just a warning from a Shores police officer on Friday, September 7, if he had not opened his wallet.

Patrolman Chester Painter was patrolling Lake Shore road when he noticed Jenkin's panel truck going south on the road. The back bumper was partially concealing the rear license plate.

The officer stopped Jenkin and informed him of the violation and required him to produce his license.

Jenkins took a look of his pocket, opened it for the license, and looked for the license. He was turned over to the police.

Traffic Violators Fined in Shores

Ernest L. Rathill of 11491 East Vernor Highway, Detroit, chose to spend 30 days in the Detroit House of Correction rather than pay a fine of $100 imposed by Shores Judge John Gillis on Monday, September 10.

Rathill, arrested while driving on Lake Shore road, was found guilty of operating a motor vehicle while his operator's license was revoked.

Roy Broadnax of 15915 Princeton, Detroit, was found guilty of not having his car under control and causing an accident at Lake Shore and Lochmoor. He was fined $50.

Anthony J. Simonette of 12233 Glenfield, Detroit, paid a fine of $10 after being found guilty of speeding 45 miles an hour on Lake Shore, a 35-mile an hour zone.

Oscar Davis of 873 Navahoe, Detroit, accused of not having a valid Michigan driver's license on his person, was found guilty and paid $20. He was arrested while driving on Lake Shore.

Robert F. Smith of 20212 Gaultier, St. Clair Shores, charged with speeding 45 miles an hour on Lake Shore and not having a car registration on his person, was found guilty. The violations cost him $20.

Allen J. Colombo of 19708 Rosedale, St. Clair Shores, was found guilty of improperly displaying the license plates on his commercial vehicle and was assessed court costs of $7.50.

Robert Connors of 1957 East Grand boulevard, Detroit, was fined $10, when found guilty of speeding 45 miles an hour on Lake Shore.

St. Anne Guild will meet with Mrs. Edgar H. Yeoman of Lennon avenue.

Mrs. Earl Seielstad of Fairholme drive will entertain the women of St. Catherine Guild, assisted by Mrs. Harry T. Davenport and Mrs. Leonard Roche.

Mrs. Robert Jones of Willison road will open her home in Willison road to the women of St. Cecelia Guild. Her co-hostess will be Mrs. Rae Dehncke.

St. Margaret Guild will be meeting at the home of Mrs. Herbert Shanks, in Cook road. Mrs. Shanks will be assisted by Mrs. Leslie Borthwick.

Members of St. Mary Guild will go to the home of Mrs. Brown McGregor of River road for their September meeting. Co-hostesses here will be Mrs. John Cushman and Mrs. Roy Ellis.

The evening guilds will meet Monday night, September 24, at 8:30. Mrs. Richard Noyes of Hawthorne road will entertain St. Agnes Guild. She will be assisted by Mrs. Silvia Fisk.

St. Hilda Guild will meet at the home of Mrs. Ernest Harmon in Fairholme road. Mrs. Edward Knoll will be her co-hostess.

Members of St. Martha Guild will meet with Mrs. Robert Kennedy of Trombley road. Mrs. Robert Murphy will assist her.

DOUSES CAR FIRE

Woods Patrolman Richard Prietz of 1974 Hampton, discovered the inside rear of his car afire on Thursday, September 13, and put out the blaze with a garden hose. The car was parked in the drive alongside his house. The rear seat and back rest were badly damaged, he said.

Cars Pile Up In Rush Hour

A three-car collision in front of 17153 East Jefferson during the morning rush hour Friday, September 14, sent Mrs. Peter Buccellato, 19287 Eastbourne, Harper Woods, to Bon Secours Hospital with a whiplash injury.

Mrs. Buccellato was a passenger in a 1959 Chevrolet driven by her husband. The couple were traveling west on Jefferson shortly before 8 a.m. when Mr. Buccellato was forced to stop in a traffic lane due to traffic congestion in the road ahead.

The car directly behind him, a '62 Mercedes driven by Gerhard Boost, 23354 Middlesex, could not stop in time, and plowed into the Chevrolet's rear end. The car behind the Mercedes, in turn, could not stop. Continuing forward, it struck Boost's vehicle in the rear.

The driver of the third car, Michael Mackey, 971 South Oxford, was not injured. Boost and Buccellato also escaped without injury, and Mrs. Buccellato was released from Bon Secours after receiving emergency first aid.

All three cars were damaged, but only the Mercedes had to be towed away. The other two vehicles were driven from the scene.

No tickets were issued, as none of the parties involved would sign a complaint.

Thief Steals Girl's Purse

Farms detectives are investigating the theft of a purse belonging to a 14-year-old Farms girl, who was shopping in a store in the Hill District on Friday, September 7.

Sharon Burke of 168 Hillcrest, told Det. Sgts. George Van Diem and Jack Paisley, that the purse, a wicker-basket type with sea shells, contained $100.

She told the officers that the purse was left in the front of the Village Shop, 88 Kercheval, as she was shopping at the rear of the store. The purse was on top of an envelope belonging to her, she said.

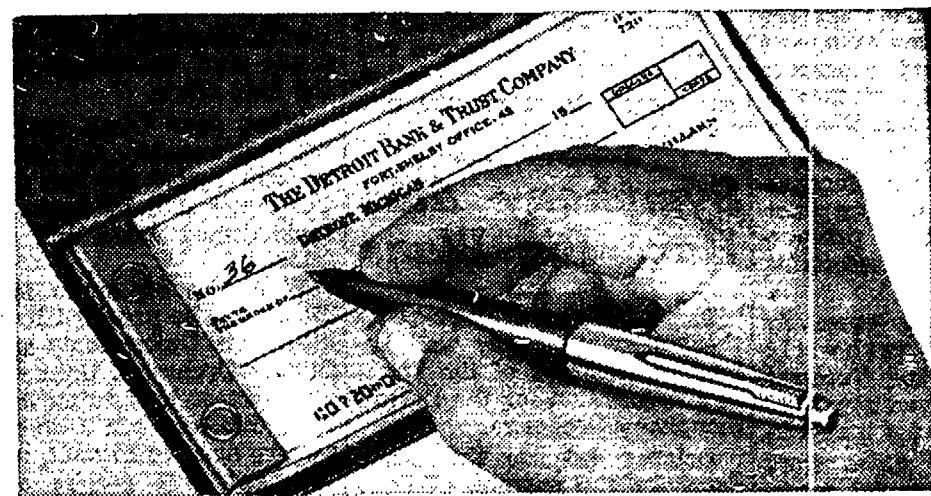

A clerk in the shop told the detectives that an unknown woman gave her the envelope, but not the purse. There were a number of customers in the store, but she did not see anyone take the bag she said.

People passing the shop could easily see the purse from the sidewalk, the clerk said.

Put a ruler to your present double bed mattress and you'll discover that your half is only 27 inches wide. That's the same width you once enjoyed as a baby on a crib mattress. That's why for an uncrowded, undisturbed sleep you need a King-Size Beautyrest with its 105 square inches of extra sleeping area.

Beautyrest means extra comfort too, made possible by its individual coil construction, independently acting springs that provide firm, buoyant support to every part of your body, that last three times longer than ordinary connected coil mattresses. So switch to King-Size Beautyrest today.

Here's the hammock type sleep you get from ordinary mattresses. Press down on one spring, others sag down with it because they are tied together.

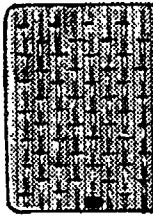

And here's how the independent action of Beautyrest coils provide individual comfort. The heaviest husband can't disturb his wife's rest.

Red Cross Sets Training Dates

Volunteers in the Detroit Red Cross Chapter have issued an invitation for women interested in joining their ranks to enroll during the week of September 24 for the fall orientation and training classes which start on October 9. The classes will be held in Chapter Headquarters, Elizabeth at John R., and interested women may enroll by calling WO 1-3900 or one of the Regional Offices listed in the telephone book.

Mrs. E. K. Wilson, vice chairman, Office of Volunteers, is in charge of recruitment and training of the new volunteers. Mrs. Wilson says the special needs at this time are for women who are interested in becoming active in the Blood Program, Canteen, Gray Lady Social Welfare and Staff Aide Services. When they have completed their training the volunteers choose the day of the week and hours of the day it is convenient for them to serve.

Canteen workers are trained to serve the snacks for blood donors, lunch in the Chapter's Canteen where other volunteers and staff lunch, and to prepare and serve meals for victims of disaster and rescue workers.

Blood Program Aides work in the blood center or at bloodmobiles in Wayne County communities, registering prospective donors and performing other services.

Gray Ladies are especially needed in Lynn, Northville State, and receiving and Veterans Hospitals. They perform non-medical services for patients.

Social Welfare Aides work with professional social workers in the Chapter's Home Service to assist servicemen or veterans and their families solve problems which arise because of a man's military service.

Staff Aides serve at information desks and work in the Chapter offices.

Mrs. Wilson points out that volunteers are needed in Chapter Headquarters and the Regional Offices in Dearborn, Livonia and Southgate.

Officers Attend FBI Conference

Captain Andrew C. Teetart of the Grosse Pointe City Police, and Chief Allen Miglio of Harper Woods attended the 10th re-training conference of the FBI National Academy Associates of Michigan, September 11 through 13, in Milford, Mich.

This year's conference dealt primarily with the rules of evidence, the technical rules that govern search and seizure, the reluctance of courts to accept complaints unless the complainant is an eye witness, the inadmissibility of evidence gained by a possible trespass and other technical rules.

Speakers included D. S. Hostetter, Special Agent in Charge, FBI, Detroit; John R. Starks, Professor, Law School, University of Detroit; Edmond F. Devine, Professor, Law School, University of Michigan; Robert E. Childs, Professor, Law School, Wayne State University; and Abraham J. Thomas, Professor, Law School, Detroit College of Law.

Chief Arthur E. Louwers of Grosse Pointe Park, second vice president of the organization, was unable to attend the conference.

Symphony Aids Have Big Plans

Fastest filling datebooks these busy days may well belong to members of the Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

October 4-6 are the magic dates for the opening of their fall season in Ford Auditorium and members are in the thick of it taking last minute season reservations.

Before that, on September 27, the association honors the beautiful wife of conductor Paul Paray at the first formal meeting of the season in the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club. The Parays, aboard the "United States" at the moment, will arrive in Detroit this week-end. They've spent a busy summer putting finishing touches on their exciting new home in Switzerland.

Then, on October 10-11, the Women's Association stages its first major fund raising project of the year, the "See Sharp Mart," in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. Under the direction of Mrs. Lyndle R. Martin this second of the association's "World Treasures" sale promises to top them all.

Committee heads met Tuesday for luncheon in the Memorial to finalize plans. Mrs. D. Alfred Ingram's "Talent Table" may prove to be the real hit of the show. And Symphony originals, whimsies designed by Mesdames Richard W. Tucker, John Harrington, Marshall A. Hess and Ivan W. Gamble, will be premiered to fit every mood.

Don't spend so much time learning the tricks of the trade that you neglect learning the trade.

Zsa Zsa Gabor To Attend Ball

The Cinderella Ball, Detroit's oldest, and for many years only, big charity ball, is out to recapture some of the glamour—and financial success—it has shared in recent years with several of the newer charity balls that have cropped up on the social horizon.

And Mrs. Oscar L. Olson, this year's Cinderella Ball chairman, is leaving no stone unturned to make the 1962 affair an unforgettable event on the fall social calendar.

This week, hundreds of fortunate couples in Detroit and suburban areas are receiving invitations in the mail for the glamorous event which will be held on Saturday, October 6, in the grand ballroom of the Sheraton-Cadillac.

As before, tickets are $100 per couple, but to assure a gay and comfortable evening, Jean Olson and her committee have decided to limit the ball to 400 guests.

Most exciting news in the invitation to the Cinderella Ball, which is sponsored by the Women's Committee of the TB and Health Society, is that of the music and entertainment for the 1962 affair.

When Jean Olson took over the chairmanship, she promised to help revive interest in the Cinderella Ball by bringing in sophisticated music and entertainment.

Well, the big news is out. Music will be provided by none other than Lester Lanin and his Society Orchestra. Unlike some appearances by Lanin's orchestras, this one will feature the famous maestro himself, in person, and will consist of his original group of musicians flown in from the East. The Lanin music will flow uninterrupted throughout the evening for continuous dancing.

Long a favorite for debut parties and other big society events in the East, Lanin also is the favored dance orchestra at the White House now that President and Mrs. Kennedy have taken over. In fact, the very evening before he comes to Detroit for the Cinderella Ball, he is playing for dancing at the White House.

Seeking a sophisticated entertainer to add to the glamour of the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Olson made up a list which included such stars as Robert Goulet, Maurice Chevalier, Louis Jourdan, Yves Montand, opera singer Joan Sutherland, Marlene Dietrich, and others.

Chevalier, Jourdan and Montand were contacted by trans-Atlantic telephone but proved to be tied up by picture-making or theatrical engagements for the date of the Cinderella Ball. Goulet, Sutherland and Dietrich all had previous engagements. But in their search for talent, Jean and Ozzie learned that beautiful and exciting Zsa Zsa Gabor could get out of a previous engagement and appear at the Ball.

So Zsa Zsa will be here to add her charm and beauty and humor to the occasion, much to the pleasure of the Women's Committee for the TB and Health Society.

In fact, the lovely young Cinderella, pert, pretty 18-year-old Joyce Honganan, will be crowned by Zsa Zsa. Added to all this will be a fashion show.

The Sidney Coleman string ensemble will provide music for the cocktail hour preceding the Ball and quite a few other surprises are promised for what surely should be one of the most exciting Cinderella Balls since the first event was held in 1947 under the chairmanship of Mrs. Sam Keller, with Mrs. Sidney Allen as her main supporter.

ACCEPTS APPOINTMENT

Farms City Engineer Murray M. Smith accepted the post of part-time administrator for the Clinton-Pointes Refuse Disposal Authority, offered by the officials of the Authority. On Monday, September 17, the Farms council gave its consent to the city engineer. Smith will be paid by the Authority.

IAFC to Hold Annual Meeting

Four Pointe fire officials disclosed that they will attend the 89th Annual Conference of the International Association of Fire Chiefs to be held in Toronto, Ont., September 24-27.

Planning to attend are Farms Chief M. William Mason, Shores Chief Fred Duemling, Park Chief George DeCausin, and Woods Captain Donald Coats.

City Captain George Poupard said that he will be unable to participate in the conference this year.

IAFC represents the leadership of the Fire Service in the United States, Canada, and 28 countries abroad. The conference, the largest gathering in the world of fire chiefs and fire protection authorities, is the clearing house for the exchange of ideas and experiences.

It features down-to-earth work sessions, panel discussions, general meetings with outstanding speakers, and the annual dinner.

Chief Edward F. Deignan, Director of Fire, Elizabeth, N. J., IAFC's president, said the conference will be structured to show that today's fire department is a complex organization of men and equipment, of rigorous training, home inspections, and careful planning. Fire-fighting is only one of its many responsibilities.

About 3,000 fire officials are expected to attend.

CAR KEYS STOLEN

Mrs. Nancy Tisdale, 507 Rivard, informed City police on Tuesday afternoon, September 11, that someone had stolen the keys from her 57 Corvette, left parked in the driveway of 355 Washington for several hours the night before. An investigation is pending.

Americans give more than $17 billion annually to churches, charity and the needy. The University of Michigan Survey Research Center estimates.

SWEATER STOLEN

Mrs. Edward Taube of 575 Hidden Lane, informed Woods police on Friday, August 31, that while she was at the Lochmoor Country Club, someone took her black Cashmere, mink-collared sweater, valued at $296. The item is insured, she said.

BACKS INTO PARKED CAR

A minor accident occurred Tuesday, August 28, when George Sharbo, 21030 Nunnely, Mt. Clemens, backed into a parked car, owned by Andrew C. Stoddard, 1368 Wayburn, in front of 1349 Maryland, Sharbo was ticketed.

Pointe Painters To Hold Show

The Pointe Painters will have their first artists showing of the season, to be held at the Light Guard Armory on East 8 Mile road, running from September 21 through September 25.

The Club chairman, Mrs. Earl Salomon of Lochmoor reports that the club members are looking forward with anticipation to exhibiting their varied works at the show, which will open at 7 o'clock tomorrow evening. The Club boasts both impressionist and realist artists and both styles will be exhibited in the forms of seascapes, portraits, landscapes and still life.

While this is the group's first showing in the Armory, they are old hands at displaying their talents. Lucy Wetzel, president, leads the group in an annual spring showing, the proceeds of which go to the Exceptional Children's Fund.

Tomorrow's exhibition will be held in conjunction with the Detroit Antique Show, whose manager, E. A. Steiner, Jr. of Touraine road, donated one section of his show to the Pointe Painters; because as he puts it, "The fine work I have seen turned out by this group can only enhance the beauty of the antiques which will surround their paintings."

Mrs. Salomon says that while the group appreciates Mr. Steiner's kind offer, they are looking for a small building to call their own and would appreciate hearing from anyone who might be able to help them. In the meantime, Mrs. Salomon urges all the Pointe Painters' friends and neighbors to come and see them tomorrow from 7 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. and Saturday through Tuesday from 1 p.m. to 10 p.m., daily.

Navy League Council To Plan Nov. 14 Show

The Detroit Women's Council of the Navy League will hold its regular meeting Thursday, September 20, at Broadhead Naval Armory, 7600 East Jefferson, Detroit.

Following a 12:30 p.m. subscription luncheon, Commander James M. Hannan, USN (Ret.) will speak on activities and future plans of Sea Cadet Unit, USS Franklin D. Roosevelt. Members will also discuss and finalize plans for the Council's November 14 Fashion Show Luncheon.

Eastside Nursery

There are openings available for three year olds at the Eastside Co-operative Nursery which meets at Mt. Hope Methodist Church in Seven Mile road. Mrs. Richard Zaccarelli, of Strasburg avenue, LA 1-6394, is in charge of enrollment.

Memorial Evening Group To See Film on Africa

The Evening Group of the Women's Association of the Grosse Pointe Memorial church will open their fall activities with a dinner meeting on Tuesday, September 25, at 6:30 o'clock.

Following an invocation given by the minister, Mrs. Kins Collins will present her film, "A Tour of Africa." Hostesses for the dinner include Mrs. Curt Patterson, chairman, Mrs. Fred Buerstetta, Mrs. Robert J. Conway, Mrs. John Finch, Mrs. A. F. Nerlinger and Mrs. G. P. Rush.

Freeways are the most efficient roads engineers can build. They can carry much heavier traffic loads with greater safety and driving convenience than any other type of road.

Pointers Get MSU Degrees

A number of Grosse Pointers were graduated from Michigan State University at the end of the summer quarter. Among the 1,242 students, largest summer graduating class in the East Lansing institution's history, were Raymond J. Bieszki, 1786 Allard, and Lucy A. Birdseye, 1037 Bedford road.

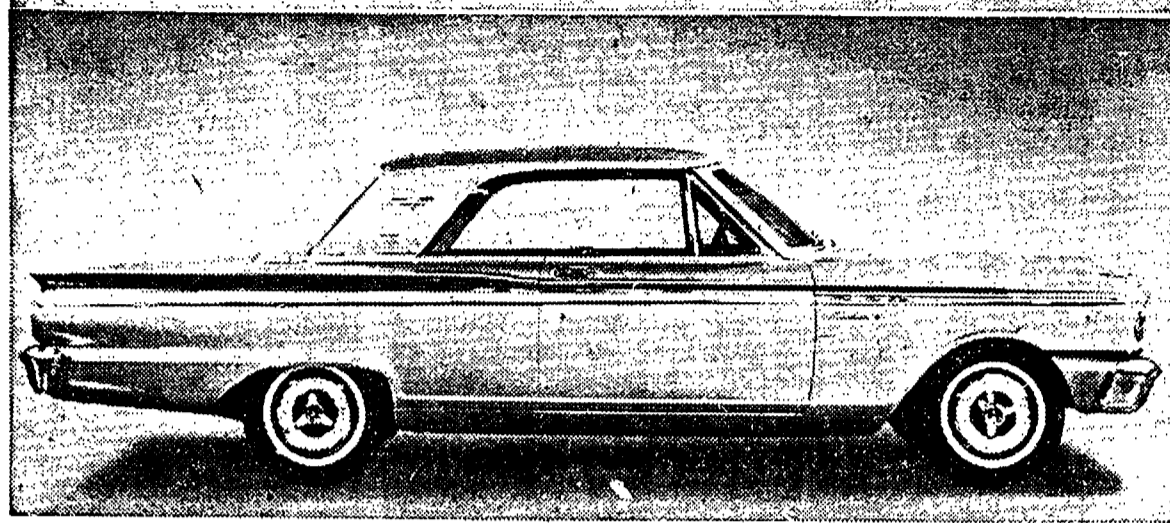

Mr. Bieszki received his M.A. in School Administration, and Miss Birdseye was granted a B.A. in Sociology-Anthropology.

Other area graduates are William M. Cuzenza, 1836 Stanhope, B.S., Packaging; Frank J. Erbecker, 405 Whittier, B.A., Production Administration; Fredrick B. Lutz, Jr., 694 Hidden Lane, B.S., Agricultural Economy; Rose M. Meyer, 882 Hidden Lane, B.A., Elementary Education; and Elaine L. Ross, 180 Beaufort road, B.S., Retailing Merchandising.

Still others are Carol L. Smaaga, 1334 Whittier, B.A., Elementary Education; James Thomas, 411 Madison, B.A., Economics; and Edward D. Tillitson, 255 Ridgemont road, B.A., Humanities.

This summer, 602 MSU students received baccalaureate degrees, while 568 master's and 72 doctoral degrees were awarded. The summer term, which began June 18, ended August 31.

New Fords to Be Displayed Soon

Among the many new Ford models for 1963 which may soon be seen at Sims-Dawson agency, E. Jefferson at Nottingham, are the two shown above. The four-door Futura sedan is a new addition to the Falcon line with deluxe interior and exterior. It has a Thunderbird-type roof. The Fairlane 500 sports coupe below is one of two completely new hardtops and three new station wagons added to the Fairlane series.

League Continues Study Of Exceptional Children

Exceptional children and facilities for their care and education in the Grosse Pointe area will be the subject for discussion at a unit meeting of the League of Women Voters on September 24 at 9:30 a.m., at the home of Mrs. W. Jensen, 852 Whittier.

Previous unit meetings were held on September 17 and 18 at the homes of Mrs. R. Kimble and Mrs. D. Robertson.

These discussion meetings are a continuation of a study of exceptional children started within the League in 1961. Included in the study are the gifted, retarded, emotionally disturbed, the underachiever, and children with sight, hearing or orthopedic defects. Tax supported services in this field and relevant laws have also been examined by the group.

At the unit meetings, the study group is presenting its recommendations for further League action and for general principles which the League might support. These are being discussed by the membership as a whole so that consensus may be reached among the larger group as to the future course of the League in this area.

Donors Aplenty For Art Auction

Because generous donors have given more art objects than can be offered in the American Institute of Interior Designers' Archives of American Art Auction next week, a special two-day public sale has been arranged for Friday and Saturday, September 28 and 29. Plans for the sale were announced Monday night at the Champagne Preview in the Detroit Institute of Arts to 500 guests by F. H. Heaton, AID Chairman.

To date, more than 1,000 pieces of choice art objects and home decorative items have been received by the AID-Archives Auction Committee. In the time allotted for next Tuesday evening's and Wednesday afternoon's auction sessions at the Detroit Institute of Arts, only about 250 objects can be handled, Heaton explained in his announcement.

The special sale will be held in the Institute's lower galleries during the regular museum hours of 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. There will be no admission charge for this event, and all proceeds will go to the support of the Archives program.

Among the objects to be offered for sale are paintings, etchings, engravings, drawings, ceramics, porcelain, items in brass, pewter, copper, crystal, silver, furniture, lamps, fixtures, mirrors, linens and rugs.

Warning Issued By Dr. Molner

Business men in the out-Wayne county area who are approached by persons soliciting advertising funds in the name of Wayne County Health Department publications have been warned to refuse all such requests.

Dr. Joseph G. Molner, Wayne County health director, said that over the past few months his office has received a number of complaints from restaurant and other food establishment owners concerning persons representing themselves as health department employees selling ads in department publications.

"The health department never solicits funds. We are a tax supported institution and issue no official publications bearing advertising," Dr. Molner said.

Wellesley Club To Have Tea

Detroit Wellesley club members will open their fall program with a membership tea on Thursday, September 27, at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Wilbur Brucker, Jr., of Merriweather road.

In charge of reservations and other arrangements for the party, which will honor Wellesley alumnae who have recently moved in the Detroit area, is Mrs. William T. Tilly, of Yorkshire road.

On her committee are Mrs. Richard S. Knight, of University place, Mrs. Keith Leibbrand, Fisher road, and Mrs. Edward G. Specht, of Mt. Vernon road.

Mrs. Samuel Hess, newly-elected president of the alumnae club will welcome the new members and present the plans and projects arranged by the club's board members for 1962-63.

Among board members this year are Mrs. Frederick R. Keydel, program chairman; Mrs. Robert A. Patterson, ways and means chairman; Mrs. George L. Kalb, and Mrs. Paul J. Witzel, co-chairmen of the local Development Fund for the college, all of whom will have special reports for the meeting.

Mrs. Patterson will display samples of the club's traditional fund-raiser — Christmas wrappings, ribbons, and tags — as well as college calendar books and a new item, the "Elegant But Easy Cookbook" prepared by two Wellesley graduates, Marian Burros and Lois Levine, as an aid to hostesses.

Discourtesy Doesn't Help

Golden Summer bows out through the wings and Flaming Autumn comes flamboyantly on stage. Through the ever-increasing crispness of the fall air is sounded the signal for individuals and organizations to shake off the lethargy of the summer vacation season.

An incident of a rather unpleasant nature which was experienced in the NEWS office Tuesday morning indicates that it might be a propitious time to advise our readers of some of the changes that take place in a newspaper office when this seasonal shift sets in.

During the lazy summer the majority of organizations, associations, church groups, etc. call off their programs and meetings. Many residents leave town on vacation, with the result that many news sources dry up.

The personnel of a weekly newspaper is naturally quite limited, and it takes quite a bit of doing to process all the material that comes in. That is why we try to educate both news and advertising sources to the importance of obtaining early copy.

The News is again somewhat handicapped by the fact that it is delivered by mail, which we believe is the most satisfactory method of getting our product into the hands of our readers.

It is a quite natural thing that not much thought is given to getting copy into our office before Monday, when we carry a Thursday dateline.

Tuesday morning a short-tempered gentleman (?) telephoned in to say he had a lengthy report on a future PTA meeting which he wanted to dictate.

The gentleman (?) was most abusive in his remonstrance, upset the young lady considerably and was such a coward he wouldn't even give his name.

We are deeply appreciative of the very great cooperation we get from the very large majority of our readers and advertisers. We could not exist without this.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Sirs, at the Magazine Suburban Today,

I am 10 1/2 years old and in the 6 grade. I read your last story about how to train dogs in the Suburban Today. I would like you to publish my story, What Do You Know About Tortoises and Turtles in Suburban Today or the Grosse Pointe News.

winter sometimes. Do not give too much sun to your turtle. Your turtle is probably the famous red ear. Your tortoise is something like a turtle. It eats the same thing. There are also tricks you can teach your turtle, like climbing a piece of wood which can easily be made of a small branch and your turtle will climb it.

Dear Sirs: Will you please put this in your letterbox, or somewhere in the paper, so different ones will read it? I am sure others will agree with me as to this.

There should be something done about it, so there will not be an accident. Several people have had narrow calls, just because they cannot see the traffic light in the proper view. It should be at eye-level view, and not have the person have to turn around to see the light turn.

When a brand-new drug is introduced, its price is usually high. That's because initial sales may be low, and the price must cover production costs—which are generally as high for small quantities as for big quantities.

What Goes On at Your Library

by Jean Taylor

It is exactly 13 years ago—September 6, 1949, to be exact—since I wrote my first library column for the GROSSE POINTE NEWS, and, with occasional help from other staff members, I have been hammering out "What Goes On at Your Library" ever since.

At the end of this month, with regret, I am leaving the Grosse Pointe Public Library. This, then, will be my last column, and one of the most difficult I have ever had to write.

My association with the library has been a wonderful experience. In Roget's "THESAURUS," work and drudgery are synonyms. We disagree. There has been plenty of work—and some of it under pressure, but none of it drudgery.

Before I was introduced to the delightful office in the Central Library which I have enjoyed for 10 years, my small bailiwick was the City Branch Library. This was moved twice, from Waterloo to St. Clair, and then to Notre Dame, after which it was reduced to ashes.

During a few of my years at this branch, I was the staff—with occasional help from the Main Library (now the Park Branch) for dinner hours or free days. Although I had specialized in library work with children, I now served old and young—across the desk, charging books in and out on the floor, discussing books with patrons; in the children's room, telling stories or talking about books to classes from nearby schools; and, in our first building, believe it or not, stoking a small stove which stood not far from the charging desk!

Since we moved into our Central Library in January, 1953, my time has been devoted largely to promoting library service to children, a rewarding job. It has been especially gratifying to have the youngsters who frequented the City Branch years ago, introduce their children, in turn, to the public library today.

I have been fortunate too in having three excellent children's librarians to share this responsibility. In attempting to have the children of this community know the adventure, the stimulation and compensation that books and libraries can give them, I have found my job enormously satisfying and challenging. As a library we have grown and grown, and I am sure, in the capable hands of my successor, Miss Harriet Helms, the work with children will flourish.

During my 33 years in this community, the kindnesses shown me by library users have reached a figure far beyond count. It is not events of major importance, significant though they were in their day, that stand out in my memory.

I can recall so many favors, which no doubt have long since been forgotten by those who gave them: a piping hot dinner brought me during a blizzard, (no restaurants in Grosse Pointe in those days); a chauffeur sent to drive me home because no buses and few cars were running; a huge electric fan sent us during a heat wave, (before the days of air conditioning); forsythia forced each year from the same garden to cheer us when it seemed spring would never come; a nine year old's first batch of cookies—the recipe from a library cookbook; and, on the day of the big push from the City branch to the new building, the army of small boys who turned up, armed with fruit baskets, because they wanted to help carry the books from the City Branch to that nice big new library.

I cannot conclude my final column without a salute to Robert Edgar, Editor of the Grosse Pointe News, for his patience and understanding, week in and week out, for 13 long years. I am grateful to him for giving me a free rein, and a coveted spot in his paper for our library publicity.

Best wishes to all our readers! Michigan will have more than 1,000 miles of freeway open to traffic by the end of this year. The Michigan Highway Needs Study reports the state will need more than 3,000 miles of freeway by 1980.

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Patricia Talbot

Mrs. Lynn McNaughton will open her lovely Kenwood road home on September 28 from 3 to 5 o'clock for the annual Donation Tea sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary to Cottage Hospital.

Guests will glimpse the interesting French scenic paper in the main hall which dates from the 18th century and then go on to tea in the dining room. Treasured portraits of Mrs. McNaughton's grandparents hang here and flanking the fireplace are wall cupboards containing a collection of old china. A favorite silver epergne and candelabra will be used on the tea table.

An inspiring view of the contemporary swimming pool and natural wild garden, designed to attract birds, may be seen from the living room and open terrace. Mrs. McNaughton recently has returned to her Kenwood road home which was the home of her son-in-law and daughter, the Benson Fords, before they moved to the former Emory Clark estate in Lakeshore road.

The Donation Tea is part of the fund raising program of the ways and means committee of the Hospital Auxiliary headed by Mrs. Emmet C. Gentleman. Tea chairman is Mrs. William M. Browne. Proceeds will be used to purchase additional equipment for the hospital.

Wives of doctors serving at the hospital who have been asked to pour include Mrs. D. H. Barker, Mrs. C. J. Williams, Mrs. G. E. Rogers and Mrs. E. G. Kreig.

GPUS Alumni to Dance

Members of the Grosse Pointe University School Alumni Association are planning the second dance to finance new equipment for the school's science program.

Al Navarro will play for the evening, September 29, at the Little Club. Alumni, parents and trustees with faculty and friends of GPUS may attend a subscription dinner at the club before the 9 o'clock dance.

Mrs. William D. Dahling and Mrs. James Standish III are co-chairmen of the committee which includes Otis U. Walker, Mrs. Alfred R. Reuther, Jr., Charles V. Hicks and Mrs. Muir B. Snow III. Mrs. William Y. Gard, Association president, is advising the committee. Dinner and dance reservations may be made with Mrs. Snow.

Dodges Welcome Grandson

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Dodge, of Washington road, returned Saturday from New York after a visit of several days with their son, Joseph J. Dodge and grandson, Joseph M. Dodge II.

Their grandson had just arrived from a three months European tour and returns to Boston this week for his senior year at Harvard. His father came to New York from Jacksonville, Fla., where he recently became director of the new Cummer Gallery of Art, after living at Glen Falls, N.Y.

Glancy-Roby Rites Solemnized Sept. 15

Reception at Detroit Golf Club Follows Evening Wedding in St. Paul's Cathedral; Newlyweds Leave for Hawaii, Will Live in Grosse Pointe

At an evening ceremony Saturday in St. Paul's Cathedral Alfred Robinson Glancy III claimed Ruth Mary Roby as his bride.

The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Ferguson Roby, of Ypsilanti, were hosts at a reception following the wedding at the Detroit Golf Club.

The bride's gown, made in Rome, was fashioned of delustered antique satin with slim cathedral sleeves, a high bateau neckline and a calla lily shaped skirt which deepened into a cathedral train, clustered in Fra Angelico pleats, which swept five yards beyond the hemline.

Her cap, a pointed cone of Italian tapestry, was crusted with seed pearls and beads and caught a long veil of shadow illusion. A ruffle of heirloom lace surrounded a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Asa E. Wilson, Jr., of Birmingham, was her sister's matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Melinda Bryan, Mrs. Thomas Creed, Krystin Glancy, Carol Ponn, Julia Quirk, of Ypsilanti; Mrs. Douglas F. Roby, Jr., and Mrs. Robert Ferrier, of Erie, Pa.

They wore cardinal red velvet gowns inspired by a Botticelli painting, with draped skirts which dipped into small trains. With them they wore the bride's gift of antique gold Renaissance medallions set with semi precious stones. Their headdresses were Botticelli wreaths of currants, scarlet flowers and geranium wreaths. They carried bouquets of pink bachelor buttons, firefly roses and ivy.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred R. Glancy, Jr., of Lakeshore road, asked his father to be his best man. Seating the guests were Ralph G. Fletcher, Jr., Douglas F. Roby, Jr., George G. Jerome, John H. Hemmeter, John S. Scherer, Terrance and Michael Glancy, and Robert S. O'Hara, Jr., of Englewood, N.J.

Denise Wilson, in a high necked red velvet frock was her aunt's junior bridesmaid, and the ring bearers were Glenn T. Wilson and David Roby.

Mrs. Roby chose a gown of pale pink and rose gold Italian brocade for her daughter's wedding. With it she wore a mantle of brocade and a matching cap. Mrs. Glancy's Dior gown was a copper brown crocheted English wool sheath with an overblouse of iridescent gold and copper bugle beads and a brown suede tie belt.

After a three week trip to Hawaii the newlyweds will make their home in Grosse Pointe.

man Oaks, Calif., will be MRS. EUGENE McCLOSKEY and her small son, DAVID, to visit Mrs. McCloskey's parents, MR. and MRS. DAVID R. CRANDALL, of Harcourt road. Mrs. McCloskey will be matron of honor in GENEVIEVE BUTZ' wedding on October 6.

RALPH L. RECOR, of Mt. Vernon road, has been named secretary of the Michigan Chapter of the Society of former Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

GERALD BAUER, son of the EVERETT J. BAUERS, of Lakeshore avenue has returned to Columbus, O., where he will enter the Lutheran Theological Seminary. An alumnus of Capital University, he has been commissioned a second lieutenant in the USAR.

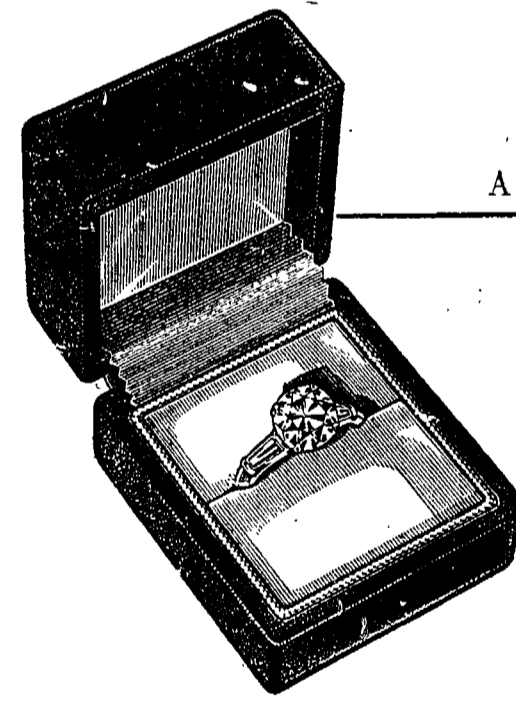

DR. CLARENCE S. LIVINGOOD, of University place, delivered the featured address at the 12th International Congress of Dermatology banquet held last week in the Shoreham Hotel, Washington, D. C. Accompanying Dr. Livingood to the capital for the conclave was his wife.

A feature of the conclave was the showing of a television broadcast from England, bounced off Telesat and projected on a huge screen. Dr. Livingood did the commentary on this medical program.

MAUREEN VIRGINIA CROWLEY, daughter of MR. and MRS. PATRICK J. B. CROWLEY of Stephens road, left last week to spend a few days with her grandmother, MRS. WILLIAM F. MURRAY of Edgewood, R. I., and to attend the America Cup Races off Newport, before returning for her senior year at the College of Saint Elizabeth, Convent Station, N. J. Maureen is an English major, on the staff of the college newspaper, "The Pelican."

Monday the REV. and MRS. LAWRENCE WILLIAMS, of Palm Beach, Fla., arrived to spend six days with MR. and MRS. A. D. WILKINSON, of Lakeshore road. He is rector of Bethesda-by-the-Sea Church which the Wilkinsons attend when at their winter home in the Florida resort. On Tuesday SIR JAMES and LADY EASTON, of Lakeland avenue, entertained at dinner for the visitors.

Former Pointer Joan Kennedy Parker, daughter of the James P. Parkers, of Centerville, Ind., was married Saturday in Reid Memorial Church, Richmond, Ind., to William Albert Harms, son of Dr. and Mrs. Herman Paul Harms, of Holland, Mich.

The bride wore a white peau de soie gown fashioned with a yoke of Alencon lace and an unpressed pleated bell skirt. A Mary Stuart cap caught her bouffant illusion veil and she carried white roses.

Mrs. Charles E. Books, of Rockford, Ill., was matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Susan Browne, of Grosse Pointe; Karen Eckhardt, of Oak Park, Ill.; Susan Hajek, of Riverside, Ill., and Mrs. James P. Parker, Jr.

They were gowned in moss green silk brocade with matching hats and carried yellow Fugi mums and green grapes.

best man and the ushers were James Boyd, of Holland; Frederick Piet, of Detroit; Thomas Schade, of Pearl River, N. Y.; Thomas Klomprens, of Wayland, Mich., and James P. Parker, Jr., of Greenfield, Ind., and Frederick Parker, of Centerville, Ind., both brothers of the bride.

After a reception at the bride's home the couple left on a trip to Northern Michigan. They will live in East Lansing where they are students at Michigan State University.

The bride's family lived until recently in Grayton road. She is the niece of Frederick W. Parker of Washington road, former mayor and present councilman of the City of Grosse Pointe. He and Mrs. Parker attended the wedding.

Bushongs Paid Tribute at Tea

All employees of the Grosse Pointe Public School System joined Sunday in a tea honoring the departing superintendent of schools, Dr. James W. Bushong, and Mrs. Bushong. Trustees of the Board of Education and P.T.A. leaders joined with the staff in feting the couple who are soon to depart for a new assignment in Hawaii.

The staff presented Dr. and Mrs. Bushong with a silver tea service as an expression of their appreciation and friendship. Dr. Bushong has served as superintendent of schools here for more than 11 years, the longest period of service since its organization in 1922. He has been an extremely well-liked school head as the large turnout of employees showed.

Dr. Bushong will terminate his duties here October 15. His successor, Dr. Charles H. Wilson of Highland Park, Ill., will assume responsibility for the school system on that date. Dr. Bushong will become head of a private institution, The Kamehameha Schools, in Honolulu.

Presentation of the tea service to the Bushongs was made by Dr. H. Leroy Selmeier, Assistant Superintendent - Instruction for the school system. Leaders of the staff organization in charge of arrangements were: William Prosser, teacher association president; Mrs. Lucy Kenn, head of the school office workers group; James Claycombe, president of the plant personnel association; and Mrs. Margaret Wiedyke, leader of the cafeteria workers.

Rummage Sale To Help Church

A treasure hunt with bargain basement overtones is the 21st annual Rummage Sale of the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church Women's Association. It will be held in the church October 5 from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. and October 6 from 9 a. m. until noon.

This is the major fund raising event of the year for the church women. Every effort is made to make each year's event bigger and better than the previous.

Already the "treasure" on hand indicates that this year's rummage sale will hit a new high in value and variety.

Among the items to be offered as top bargains at bottom prices are: old trunks, antique school desk, china, housewares, clothing for all shapes, sizes and ages, furniture, jewelry, toys, linens, books, electrical appliances, hats, bags and many more.

A unique offering of better things will be found in the Quality Shop.

Contributions of rummage may be taken directly to the home of the sale chairman, Mrs. Victor Craig, 417 Moross road, or to the Kenneth Smith garage, 1922 Beaufait. For pickups, call Mrs. Craig, TU 4-2987 or her co-chairmen, Mrs. Elton Turner, TU 1-4472 and Mrs. William Frederick, TU 2-6863.

MRS. JOHN H. MACK has returned to Belleair, Fla., after a month's visit with the GEORGE PRIMEAUS of Handy road.

Fall Color Tour Ch

There's no guesswork involved in planning a fall color tour in Michigan, according to the state tourist council.

For the eighth consecutive year, the council is conducting its personalized reporting system to let prospective travelers know when the state's autumn colors are best for viewing.

This unique service alerts travelers to the first showing of color as the autumn display moves into upper peninsula forests, and then journeys down the lower peninsula.

At an evening ceremony in Mariner's Church, Detroit, Friday, September 7, Elizabeth Ann Blair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Blair of Beaconsfield road, was married to Robert Edward Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Turner of Detroit.

The bride wore a street-length white brocade sheath, with a tunic top. A beaded crown caught her shoulder-length illusion veil, and she carried yellow baby roses with white mums.

Melissa Parks was the only attendant and maid of honor, in a gown of pale blue brocade and short pale blue veil. She carried pink rosebuds.

Hal Bate served as best man, and ushering were George Blair III, 16-year-old brother of the bride, and James Turner, also 16, the bridegroom's brother.

For the wedding and reception at St. Columba Parish Hall, Mrs. Blair chose a dress of blue and green brocade. Mrs. Turner was in beige. Both mothers wore white baby orchids.

Following a short trip to St. Clair Inn, the couple returned to Detroit, where they will make their home.

Mrs. Robert E. Turner

In Mariner's Church September 7, ELIZABETH ANN BLAIR, daughter of the George B. Blairs, of Beaconsfield road, was married to Mr. Turner, son of the Robert Turners, of Detroit.

Mrs. Thomas B. O'Brien

In St. Paul's on the lakeshore Saturday, BARBARA JOYCE FEELY, daughter of the Frederick James Feelys, of Fair Acres drive, was married to Mr. O'Brien, son of the Franklin O'Briens, of Salem, Mass.

O'Brien-Feely Vows Solemnized Here

Garden Reception in Bride's Fair Acres Drive Home Follows Rites in St. Paul's on the Lakeshore; Couple to Live in Newark Valley, N. Y.

A garden reception in the Fair Acres drive home of her parents, the Frederick James Feelys, followed the Saturday wedding of Barbara Joyce Feely and Thomas Barry O'Brien in St. Paul's on the lakeshore.

The bride wore an ivory peau de soie gown featuring a sabrina neckline edged in imported Alencon lace. Motifs of the lace accented the bouffant skirt which fell into a cathedral train.

Her shoulder length mantilla veil was edged with heirloom rose point lace and she carried butterfly orchids, stephanotis and ivy.

Mrs. Richard Justin Conklin, the bride's twin sister, was matron of honor, and the attendants were Antoinette Dauch, Barbara Berry, Joan Fehrath and Mrs. Anthony Ruggirello.

They wore fiesta pink satin frocks with jackets accented in rouge red velvet and head bands of rouge red. Their bouquets were of ruby sweetheart roses and ivy.

Bruce O'Brien, of New York, the bridegroom's brother, was best man. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin O'Brien, of Salem, Mass.

Ushering were Allen Kelly, of Beverly, Mass.; Richard Justin Conklin, Frank Hargrove, of Boston and Myle Nesson, of Boston.

Following a trip to Northern Michigan the newlyweds will make their home in Newark Valley, N. Y.

Fall Color Tour Charts Available

There's no guesswork involved in planning a fall color tour in Michigan, according to the state tourist council.

For the eighth consecutive year, the council is conducting its personalized reporting system to let prospective travelers know when the state's autumn colors are best for viewing.

This unique service alerts travelers to the first showing of color as the autumn display moves into upper peninsula forests, and then journeys down the lower peninsula.

Anyone wishing to be posted on fall color conditions in Michigan can get the free service by sending his name and address to: Fall Color Service, Michigan Tourist Council, Lansing 26.

CAR FIRE DOUSED

Farms firemen doused a small car fire for Mrs. Alonzo Backman, 217 Lakeview, on Friday, August 24. The fire which started in the carburetor, damaged the hood and front fenders.

Church Women Plan Luncheon

The Women's Association of the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church will have a luncheon-meeting at the Church at 12:30 p.m. on Tuesday, September 25.

The program entitled, "The Door of Sharing" is under the direction of Mrs. Donald Neill, World Service Chairman.

Mrs. John Visser, wife of the pastor of the Westminster Church will be the guest speaker. She will relate and share experiences of her recent trip around the world, at which time she and her husband visited many Presbyterian missions.

The Summer Medical Offering will be dedicated at this meeting. Mrs. Yeatman Vestal will lead the group in a dedication devotional. There will be a display of the mission sewing quota which the Circles have completed this year.

The Finance Committee will present its proposed budget for 1963.

The tickets for the luncheon are $1.25. Reservations can be made by calling Mrs. F. C. Tew at TU 4-8810. The nursery will be open on that day.

Keane-Canniff Rites Read at St. Lucy's

Bride Wears Gown of White Satin and Velvet for Ceremony Saturday; After Trip to Europe Pair Will Live in Lafayette Plaisance

En route to Europe for three weeks after their Saturday wedding in St. Lucy's Church and breakfast in the bride's home are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Peter Keane.

The bride is the former Anne Adele Canniff, daughter of the John Timothy Canniffs, of Lakeshore road, and her husband is the son of Mrs. William Edward Keane, of Harvard road, and the late Dr. Keane.

She wore a gown of satin and velvet featuring a high bateau neckline with appliques accenting the empire bodice and controlled sheath skirt. Two white roses caught her bouffant illusion veil and she carried white roses, stephanotis and ivy.

Claire Canniff was her sister's maid of honor in a gold satin taffeta frock with a matching velvet headress. She carried bronze and yellow chrysanthemums.

The bridesmaids, carrying bronze chrysanthemums, and dressed like the honor maid were Carol Hennecke and Christine Covey, of New York.

Henry J. Keane was best man and the ushers were William E. Keane, Jr., Noloy D'Haene, Jr. and Henry D'Haene.

Mrs. Canniff chose a dubonet silk brocade gown with beige accessories for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Keane was in royal blue matelasse. Both mothers chose white cymbidium orchids.

The newlyweds will live in Lafayette Plaisance.

Engaged

Announcement is made of the engagement of HELEN FRANCES GAY, daughter of George W. Gay, of Hawthorne road, and the late Mrs. Gay, to Robert Richard Reed. The bride-elect attended the Carnegie Institute of Nursing. Her fiancé, son of the Melvin A. Reeds, of Tecumseh, Mich., attended Miami University of Ohio where he was affiliated with Delta Tau Delta.

Walton-Pierce Holds Preview

Since 1925, Mrs. William Rust Pierce has presented her Custom Collection. This year the made-to-order designs by Clara Ray re-states the idea that the eternal feminine is a lady. The collection has charm and allure. It also is in perfect taste.

The lady's figure is never lost, but it is covered with beautiful fabric and line. Suits were in lapis lazuli, carmelian and turquoise. Many had removable scarves. Coats were ensembled with dresses and worn with coif hats of mink.

"Pearls of India" was the most opulent of the cocktail suits. Made of black boucle wool, encrusted at the neckline with tiny pearls. Dusk brown and brilliant red combined to make "Firefly" and "Wild Rose" outstanding print afternoon dresses. Moire came into the collection by way of a Como green small waisted dinner dress and was seen again in a sea foam green evening dress.

Sweeps of coral, absinthe and yellow brought more color to the evening scene. "Moonlight Sonata" was a beautiful harmony of a full length black coat over a dramatic, slender, full length wool jersey that was pleated.

Mrs. Pierce and Mrs. Ray's travels in Europe this summer in search of fabrics and inspiration is apparent in the 1962 Fall collection.

Pointe Couples Wed 30 Years

Thrift Shop Ready For Fashion Parade

Annual Show to Be Presented by Walter Irving for 26th Year; Proceeds Used for Neighborhood Club Programs

The Neighborhood Thrift Shop originated from a rummage sale that was conducted in the gymnasium of the Neighborhood Club for the purpose of financing the deficit of the original cost of furnishing the present Club.

The sale was so successful that it was determined to conduct the rummage sale, at a permanent shop, which ultimately was established at the corner of St. Clair and Waterloo in Grosse Pointe.

Credit should be given to Walter Irving of Irving, Inc. for his tremendous interest and most gracious generosity in presenting the Fashion Parade. This is the twenty-sixth Annual Fashion Show presented by Irving, Inc. It will be at 3 o'clock at the Neighborhood Club, on Tuesday, September 25.

It is requested that a bundle of cast off clothing or house furnishings or bric-a-brac be given as an entrance fee. The Neighborhood Thrift Shop not only gives a monthly appropriation to the Neighborhood Club but also holds sales to raise funds to subsidize the very popular Summer Day Camp program at the Neighborhood Club.

These are the ladies who are the backbone of the Neighborhood Thrift Shop, and who through the years have volunteered their services regularly. They are the board of directors.

Honorary chairman, Mrs. Russell Alger; chairman, Mrs. Charles F. Dodenhoff; Mrs. Allen Lomax, Mrs. Sidney Hall, Mrs. G. Carol Rowbottom Weds Mr. Graham

Pair Speak Vows Saturday in St. Ambrose Church with Reception Following at War Memorial; Newlyweds Travel to Florida and Nassau

In St. Ambrose Church Saturday morning Carol Anne Rowbottom, daughter of the Edwin Pemberton Rowbottoms, of Nottingham road, was married to John Nelson Graham, son of Mrs. Earl Graham, of Stratford avenue, and the late Mr. Graham.

The bride wore a gown of French hand clipped Chantilly lace designed with a sabrina neckline accented with pearls and sequins and a scalloped hemline. A double crown of lace pearls and crystals caught her English styled illusion veil and she carried orchids, button mums and ivy.

Shirley Rowbottom was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Suzanne Green and Dolores Koschella. Nancy Anne Walker was flower girl.

The attendants wore gowns of white nylon chiffon over satin, sashed in blue with blue pill box hats. They carried white button mums and ivy.

Dan Tallericio was best man and the ushers were Clyde Taylor and Bill Wilhelm.

For her daughter's wedding and reception at the War Memorial Mrs. Rowbottom wore a blue lace gown trimmed with blue organza. Mrs. Graham was in blue organza. Both mothers wore pale pink sweetheart roses. The couple left on a trip to Florida and Nassau.

Real Estate Counsellors Meeting September 28

The Grosse Pointe Real Estate Counsellors will hold their first monthly meeting of the 1962-63 season Friday, September 28 at 12 noon at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

This group was organized four years ago bringing together women actively selling real estate in Grosse Pointe for the purpose of study and discussion of problems and techniques in this field.

The officers for the coming year are: president, Winnifred Weyhing; vice-president Rita Dodge; treasurer, Geneva McCullough; secretary, Dorothy Boyd.

Membership is open to all real estate women in this area. Meetings are held the last Friday of the month at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. Interested women are urged to contact an officer or just "drop in" at the meeting.

Last Friday night the Grosse Pointe Blue Devils lost their season opener to nonconference foe Ann Arbor, 32-0 at Holloway Field.

The Devils kicked off and the Pioneers launched a scoring drive. The drive was featured by strong line smashes and long end runs. Mike Thomas finally punted over at 8:57 of the first period. The conversion was blocked and the Pioneers led 6-0.

The Pioneers took the ensuing kickoff and began a sharp offensive march. John Reynolds made fine runs to supplement this infiltration against the Pioneers. However, the Purple team dug in on defense and Grosse Pointe had to give up the ball on the 15-yard line of Ann Arbor.

Ann Arbor quickly pushed over another score using plain power plays at the middle or around the ends. Pat Koeller got the touchdown just as the first period ended. The kick was blocked and Grosse Pointe now trailed 12-0.

Pointe Fumbles Costly The Pioneers kicked off to start the second quarter and Grosse Pointe fumbled and lost the ball on their own 20 yard line. The Purple team then scored on a smash by Chuck Menefee at 7:43 of the second quarter and made the extra point to take a 19-0 lead.

After the kickoff the Devils fumbled again and the Pioneers recovered on the Devils' 47 yard line. After a series of hard

GPUS Gridders Looking Good

The outlook is bright for the 1962 football season at Grosse Pointe University School. Head Coach Richard Trim has an excellent group of returning lettermen and had a surprisingly spirited turnout for early practice. Over one-third of the upper school showed their interest by coming out.

Coach Trim has experienced veterans at almost every position. In the backfield are: junior quarterback George Perrin, veteran fullback Curt Slotkin, and experienced halfbacks senior Ken Perry, junior Marsh Moser, and sophomore Tim Martin. Newcomer Chuck McFeeley has looked good in early practice and should see a lot of action.

G.P.U.S. has one of its largest lines in recent years. Nels Olsen, a standout at end last year is back again. Senior Jeff Seyler is doing a good job at the other end.

Bob Thorpe, Dick Green, and Al Blixt will be up on the tackle position, while three-year veteran John Gojanty and junior Stan Bryant will be at guard. Senior Bob Portenga is at center. The defense ought to be at its best with 230 pound sophomore Mike Turnbull filling the center of the line. Senior Dave Hughes will help the Knights with his fine kicking.

This year G.P.U.S. has been able to schedule teams its own size and looks forward to its best season since the undefeated team of 1958. The Knights open the 1962 season Friday night against Ypsilanti St. John on the opponents' field.

Grosse Pointe plays another nonconference tilt Saturday against Port Huron.

Sails and Skis

NEWPORT, R. I., September 17—Horse racing may well be the sport of kings, but sometimes we wonder if yacht racing isn't, in reality, the king of sports. It is not at all uncommon to find true devotees transplanted thousands of miles from home, incurring an incredible amount of expense in pursuit of a sport that has no rival in its manifestation of pure sportsmanship.

Yachting fans in blue blazers with binoculars and cameras are to be found everywhere. With weather reports for Tuesday's resumption of racing calling for winds NW 15-25 MPH, local drug stores are all out of motion-sickness remedies.

A fleet of spectator boats estimated to number over 2,000, turned out for the first race on Saturday. It consisted of every type and size of boat from outboards to 190-ft. yachts, excursion steamers, Coast Guard cutters and an armada of Navy destroyers.

The sea, churned up by the wake from the spectator fleet, was so tremendous, that the race committee was forced to call an hour's postponement while the Coast Guard attempted to clear the course.

The Australian challenger "Gretel" was forced to sail through some of the spectator fleet that would not stay in line. This, plus the sea created by the wake, was a definite handicap.

An added attraction to racing here is the presence of President and Mrs. Kennedy. They viewed the first race Saturday from aboard the destroyer "Joseph P. Kennedy, Jr." During the postponement on Monday the presidential party went sailing aboard "Manitou," a boat very familiar to Grosse Pointers. "Manitou" was owned at one time by James Grove, who moored her at the Grosse Pointe Club. It was our experience to sail both our first "Mackinac" and Bermuda races aboard this boat. She is presently the property of the U. S. Coast Guard Academy.

Grosse Pointers here for the races include the Frederick S. Ford's, Jr. with Ricky and Susan. They are aboard their yawl "Trim-Five." Guests of the Fords are the Howard Bostons.

Moored nearby at the Wickford Rhode Island shippers is "Fancy Free" the Horace C. Ford's new heavy cruiser. Viewing races with the Fords are the Bruce Davenport's, Harvey C. Fruehauf's Jr., Frank McBride's, Harry Campbell and Harry Campbell Jr., and the James L. Collins, from Greenwich, Conn.

Other Grosse Pointers on hand are the Henry Joy's aboard

Brownell PTA Meets Monday

Parents of Brownell Junior High School students are going back to school.

They will meet at the school at 7:30 p.m. Monday. Each set of parents will meet their youngster's teachers in their own individual classrooms according to their student's daily schedule.

Each teacher will outline the course, describe homework requirements and answer questions as the parents move from one class room to the next. This "School on Schedule" program is the first of the year for the Brownell P.T.A. It will give parents an opportunity to meet their children's teachers, to visit class rooms, and to experience in capsulized form, their children's typical school day.

Their yacht "Spray," moored at Point Judith, Carter Sales, Ivan Ficus, J. Alfred Crow, Dick Wosniak, The Lester MacIntoshes are here visiting former residents, the Ray St. Johns.

Following this series in Newport, the F. S. Ford's Jr. yawl "Trim-Five" will head for Miami, H. C. Ford's "Fancy Free" for Grosse Pointe and the Henry Joy's "Spray" will depart for Southern waters.

After the winner has been crowned, yachting will conclude an experience for those on hand which has been witnessed only 17 times in the past 111 years.

Austin Pulls One from Fire

By Bob Moore

With less than two minutes left in the game, Austin Prep's football team marched 78 yards for a touchdown to beat St. Joseph, 12-6, last Saturday night.

The contest opened the 1962 football season; and if every game this year is going to be as tense as this one, it will be tough on Austin fans.

The winning touchdown came in the fourth quarter when fullback Bob Cannon charged through the line to break a 6-6 tie.

Fumble Provides Chance Cannon's run climaxed a late drive that started on the Austin 22 yard line when the Friars picked up a St. Joe's fumble. First, quarterback Bob Phillips lofted a pass which end Bob Sanford snatched down and carried all the way to St. Joe's 38 yard line. Then the backfield of Cannon, Gary Evtz, and Nino Cimini pushed to the 8 to set up Cannon's touchdown.

But even that score didn't stop the excitement. A long desperation pass put the Blue Jays on the Austin 35, and they pushed up to the 27 yard line. With the pressure on, the Friar line toughened up and hit the runner hard enough to send the ball bouncing to the ground where Austin recovered it. Seconds later, the game ended.

Evtz Scores First The Friars had scored their first touchdown when Evtz ran six yards around right end to grab a 6-0 lead. The lead was erased in the third quarter when St. Joe's Ted Cimafranca sneaked through the line and scampered 53 yards for a score.

Austin, however, outplayed St. Joseph. Only twice besides that long run, did the Blue Jays defensively, the Blue Jays get within the 30 yard line. And couldn't contain Austin's explosive running attack.

Austin coach Joe Flood said the victory was a team effort. The backfield of Cannon, Evtz and Cimini, with plenty of help from the offensive linemen, did a good job of carrying the ball. Bob Phillips, the quarterback, handled the ball well. Junior Jim Andearly showed himself to be a fine prospect for the future with his passing and defensive work. Al Defever, a big lineman, looked good on defense, as did the two ends, Doug Kozel and Bob Sanford.

Learn to get along with others, and you'll help others get along.

Indian Guides Plan Season

"The Indian father raises his son. He teaches his son to hunt, to fish, to track, to walk silently in the woods, the meaning and purpose of life and all that he must know, while the white man allows squaws to raise his son."

This statement, made by an Ojibway Indian Guide, was made to a Y.M.C.A. Secretary in 1921 and was the spark that started what is now known from Coast to Coast as the "Indian Guides." The official purpose of the Indian Guides is to "Foster the companionship of father and son." The method of accomplishing this rather high-sounding resolve is not only painless, but is a lot of fun.

Indian Guides are primarily designed for boys in the 6 to 9 age group. At the present time, there are 18 tribes in the Grosse Pointe area, each with 7 or 8 fathers and sons. The tribes hold their meetings every other week for exactly one hour, with Indian Lore as the central theme. A typical meeting starts with an opening ceremony, roll call, a short project, (such as making a birch bark canoe), refreshments and a closing ceremony.

In addition to the regular meetings, there are 3 or 4 overnight campouts each year which are usually quite well attended. In order to give interested fathers additional information on the program there will be two meetings. The first is for the fathers living on the Detroit side of Moross. It will be held at 8 p.m., Tuesday, September 18. The other meeting will be held in the Community Room of Parcels School at 8 p.m., Wednesday, September 19. This meeting is for the fathers living on the Mt. Clemens side of Moross.

If you cannot attend either of the two meetings or you would like any additional help or information, please call any of the following men: Jay Deeds, Chief, 851 Pemberton, VA 2-5796; Bill Brownell, Asst. Chief, 836 Lincoln, TU 2-1980; Tom Hallock, Asst. Chief, 355 Mt. Vernon, TU 2-6443; Tom Roach, Asst. Chief, 1312 Balfour, TU 6-0497.

It's enthusiasm that takes the drudgery out of your chosen work.

Liggett's Progress

Mrs. Frederick S. Ford is opening her Lakeshore road home on October 2 for a giant committee meeting of the Liggett Tomorrow drive. Mrs. John Kenower will be on hand to direct a progress report of the fund drive to move the 84 year old independent school from Indian Village to a new 10-acre plot in Grosse Pointe Woods.

Gourmets at GPYC

Persian melon with lime, breast of chicken Cordon Bleu, Maurice salad and fresh peach parfait is the delectable menu the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club will serve for the season's first bridge luncheon and fashion show, Wednesday, September 25.

Mrs. Herbert W. Hart, head of the women's entertainment committee, has appointed Mrs. Arthur M. Stringari chairman of the "Winter Scene" party with Mrs. J. Earl Fraser and Mrs. Haford Kerbawy as her assistants.

Also on the committee are Mrs. Arthur P. Bartholomew, Jr., Mrs. Joseph E. Bejin, Jr., Mrs. Clarence F. Bleicher, Mrs. Charles J. Burke, Mrs. Donald R. Ford, Mrs. George R. Granger, Mrs. Stark Hickey, Mrs. John J. Jennings, Jr., Mrs. Frank P. McBride, Jr., Mrs. Paul I. Moreland, Mrs. John Paynter, Mrs. Clement A. Pennell, Mrs. Joseph A. Schoenith, Mrs. V. M. Verbiest, Mrs. W. Weber, Mrs. C. J. Williams and Mrs. John R. Wilt.

Belgian Visitors

Dr. and Mrs. Wayne Henry Jens of Balfour Road will entertain Sunday afternoon (September 23rd) at a reception and buffet supper in honor of M. and Mme. Arnold de Stordeur of Bruxelles, Belgium.

The de Stordeurs will be renewing many friendships made during their four year residency in Detroit when Mr. de Stordeur was assigned to the Atomic Power Development Associates, designers of Detroit Edison's Enrico Fermi atomic reactor.

Presently Chief of Fast Reactors for EURATOM, Mr. de Stordeur is leading a group of EURATOM nuclear engineers on a tour of reactor facilities in the United States.

Among the guests happy to welcome their return will be the Walker L. Cislers of Devonshire road, the Alton P. Donnels of Balfour road, the John G. Yevicks of Hunt Club drive, the John J. Morabitos formerly of Somerset road, now residents of Troy Township, and the Robert W. Hartwells of Grosse Ile.

Basement Blaze Traced to Radio

City firemen raced to the Winthrop H. Connor residence, 600 Lincoln, at 4:06 a.m. Tuesday morning, September 11, following a telephoned report from Mrs. Connor, who stated that her house was full of smoke.

Both units of the City fire department and Car 23, with police officers George Brackx and Duncan MacEachern, were on call. They arrived to find the house, as Mrs. Connor stated, smoke-filled, and located the source of the fire in the basement.

A radio had short-circuited and was ablaze, with flames shooting toward the ceiling which was, luckily, plaster and therefore had not caught fire.

Firemen extinguished the blaze with water, ventilated the house, and all units were back in service at 4:54 a.m. The Farms, responding to a Mutual Aid call, stood by to take any City calls during the emergency.

Portions of the basement were charred, and smoke damage throughout the house was considerable. There were no injuries.

Drama, Novels Class Offered

In conjunction with the University Center for Adult Education (representing Wayne State, the U. of M. and Eastern Michigan) the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association is presenting a stimulating study of modern drama and novels.

The group will meet at the Center on Wednesday evenings from 8 until 10 o'clock for a period of 12 weeks. The course will be under the direction of Dr. Edward M. Shafter, Jr.

At the first meeting, students will have a voice, in selecting the plays and novels they particularly wish to read, study and discuss. They will probably be selected from such authors as Tennessee Williams, Arthur Miller, William Faulkner, Ernest Hemingway and Albert Camus.

Enrollment for this study group is currently being taken at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center (TU 1-7511). Advance enrollment is appreciated to avoid paper work delay on the evening of the first class.

Camera Clubs Having Contest

The Grosse Pointe Camera Club will be host to the Greater Detroit Camera Club Council Interclub Monochrome Competition on Tuesday, September 25, at 8 p.m. The meeting will be held at the Neighborhood Club, 17145 Waterloo.

The Council is made up of many camera clubs in the Metropolitan area. Interclub competitions are held each month, alternating monochrome and color. Camera clubs belonging to the Council take turns as host to the monthly competitions.

This is an informative session, giving local club members an idea how judging is done of all the prints submitted by the various clubs affiliated with the Council.

There will be a social hour, and guests and new members are cordially invited.

As a rule reform is more unpopular where it is most needed.

George M. Black, Jr. Dies Following Heart Attack

Advertising executive George M. Black, Jr., 58, of 286 Touraine road, died Friday, September 14, following a heart attack. Mr. Black was stricken while driving from his home to his downtown office.

He managed to bring his car to the curb at Jefferson and Ellair place, but was pronounced dead on arrival at Bon Secours Hospital. He had had two prior heart attacks.

Mr. Black, vice-president of Denman & Baker, Inc., was a native of Detroit and a 1927 graduate of the University of Michigan. He began in business with the old Equitable Trust Co., leaving his position as secretary there in the 1930's to join the advertising firm of Grace & Bement. He held subsequent positions with MacManus, John & Adams and Young & Rubicam in Detroit and Chicago.

Following World War II service with the Office of War Information in Washington, he returned to Young & Rubicam. In 1950 he joined Denman & Baker as a vice-president.

While at the University of Michigan, Mr. Black became associated with Alpha Delta Phi fraternity. He was a member of the University Club, the Country Club of Detroit, the Detroit Club, the University Club of Chicago, the Grosse Pointe Club, the Osego Ski Club and the Biltmore Forest (N.C.) Country Club.

One of his major interests was Leader Dogs for the Blind, Inc. Only two days before his death, on Wednesday, September 12, Mr. Black was elected president of that Rochester, Mich., foundation. He had served previously as trustee and had been a member of the executive committee for many years.

His family requests that, in lieu of flowers, memorial contributions be sent to the Leader Dog organization.

Mr. Black is survived by his wife, Virginia, a daughter, Mary Jane; and a son, George M. Black III.

OBITUARIES

DAVID S. McQUEEN

Mr. McQueen, 87, died Monday, September 17, at the home of his son, George, 1438 Hollywood avenue, where he had been living for several years.

Among the survivors are two daughters, Mrs. W. B. Mitchner and Mrs. Lillian Birmingham; two sons, George and David S. McQueen, Jr.; 11 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

Services were Wednesday, September 19, at the J. A. De Santis Funeral Home and St. Joan of Arc Church. Burial was in Mt. Olivet cemetery.

ELIZABETH N. CADWELL
A native of Illinois, Elizabeth Nicol Cadwell, of 436 Washington road, died Sunday, September 16, at Jennings Memorial Hospital. She was 68.

Survivors include her husband, Sidney Marsh Cadwell; two daughters, Mrs. Lewis A. Dibble, Jr., of Naugatuck, Conn., and Mrs. William Henry Dancer; and 10 grandchildren.

Services were Tuesday, September 18, at the Barbour Memorial Chapel of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. Interment was in White Chapel.

JOSEPHINE C. MARKLEY
Josephine C. Markley, 77, wife of former Detroit John A. Markley, died Tuesday, September 11, at St. Petersburg, Fla.

Survivors include, besides her husband, two sons, Herbert and Edward Schollenberger, both of Grosse Pointe, and four grandchildren.

Services and interment were Thursday, September 13, in St. Petersburg.

LILLIAN I. LUDEKE
A native of Detroit, Mrs. Ludeke, 46, of 902 St. Clair, died Wednesday, September 12, in Bon Secours Hospital.

Among the survivors are four sons, Charles Ludeke, Jr., Walter, Thomas and John; three daughters, Joan, Susan and Sally; three sisters, Mrs. Ernest Monroe, Mrs. Charlotte Otto and Mrs. Joseph Quisness; her mother, Mrs. Nina Ludeke; and seven grandchildren.

Services were Saturday, September 15, at the Verheyden Funeral Home and St. Philomena Church. Burial was in Mt. Olivet cemetery.

JOSEPH W. KARSAL
Mr. Karsal, of 1185 Audubon, died Friday, September 14, in his home. He was 52.

A native of Austria, Mr. Karsal lived in the Detroit area for 36 years. He was graduated from the University of Detroit in 1935, and subsequently was employed as an engineer by the U. S. Rubber Co. At the time of his death, he had been with the rubber company for 26 years.

Surviving are his mother, Mrs. Esther Chomich, and a daughter, Catherine.

Services were Monday, September 17, at the Verheyden Funeral Home. Burial was in Mt. Olivet cemetery.

GROVER C. BEAR
Grover Cleveland Bear, 77, of 15805 Windmill Pointe drive, died Wednesday, September 12, at the Chandler Nursing Home.

A native of Ohio, he had been a Detroit area resident for 40 years. He was president of a wholesale bakery supply firm, G. C. Bear and Co., and a member of Detroit Commandery No. 1, Knights Templar, Detroit Rotary, Noontide Club and the Detroit Athletic Club.

Surviving are his wife, Gladys; two sons, Grover C., Jr., and William; two brothers, Elmer and Minor E. Bear, both of California; a sister, Mrs. Frederick Garlick of Chicago; and seven grandchildren.

Services were Saturday, September 15, at the Verheyden

When the POINTE was growing up...

By Pat Talbot

Although the American colonies nominally won their freedom at Yorktown on the frontier the British were not so willing to surrender their trading rights and treaty settlement dragged on for 13 years. In Detroit this made life easier for the British settlers, who were unwilling to take an oath of allegiance to the new United States government, yet were reluctant to surrender their lucrative posts.

There was much commerce between the Canadian river towns and Detroit and eventually many of the British traders moved to Sandwich, Windsor, Amherstberg and Chatham. The traders had been a thorn in the side of the Americans all during the struggle, for their close friendship with the Indians enabled them to use the tribes as allies in constant skirmishes.

John Askin and Gregor McGregor, both of whom had Point interests, were among those to finally settle on the Canadian side. Probably the most prominent of the Indian traders, certainly the most notorious and most feared by Detroiters, was Simon Girty. One of four brothers, he ranked with Alexander McKee and Matthew Elliott as a leader of the Indians.

Girty roamed from Wheeling, W. Va., to Detroit during the frontier wars and his hatred of the Americans caused much trouble until General Mad Anthony Wayne defeated the British with Tecumseh and the Indians at Fallen Timbers. Girty was born in Pennsylvania and when 15 years old was captured by the Senecas and lived with them for 3 years. He afterwards acted as an interpreter for the British and in 1778 came from Pittsburgh to Detroit with Elliott and McKee. He married in 1784 a descendant of a French pioneer family, Catherine Malott, who had herself been a Delaware captive, and established a home in Amherstberg where he died in 1818.

McKee, also a Pennsylvanian, was appointed captain of the British Indian Department and then superintendent of Indian affairs at Detroit. Wayne destroyed his trading post on the Maumee after the Battle of Fallen Timbers and McKee moved to the Canadian side of the river after the American occupation, dying there in 1799.

Both these men were acquainted with the Pointe's Commodore Alexander Grant, who remained a British citizen in his castle on Moran road until his death in 1813. Their influence with the Indians was remarkable but Girty, in particular, was brutal to his American opponents. He watched unmoved when prisoners were burnt at the stake and seemed to enjoy seeing captives tortured. After the Battle of Fallen Timbers he rode to a point on the river above Detroit on the Canadian shore and shook his fist in desperation at the freed Americans.

Girty, more than McKee and Elliott, has suffered at history's hands and there is some doubt as to the accuracy of his evil reputation. There is no doubt that these three men had a great deal to do with the settlement of Detroit and the surrounding area.

A visit to the small churchyard in Sandwich across the river will make the present Pointer aware of the close ties between the two towns. Many Frenchmen and Englishmen, who pioneered on this side of the water, were forced to surrender their lands and citizenship on the day when the Stars and Stripes rose above the Detroit fort, but their contribution to the area's development is not to be denied.

who, where and whatnot

by whoozit

Several summers ago Bob Bloink, skin diver extraordinary, spent several weeks probing the ocean floor off Cape Hatteras searching for the wreck of the Civil War ironclad, the Monitor. He had little luck but reports there are at least 1,000 ships wrecked off the Carolina coast and the salvage possibilities are exciting.

This week-end he was diving in Lake St. Clair and discovered an old barge, probable cargo, limestone, from which he and a companion dredged a 300 pound anchor. They first sighted the wreck from the air and also spied some of the submerged docks which stretched from the shore into the lake in the days of the summer resorters. In spite of the attractions of Lake St. Clair Bob is still dreaming about Cape Hatteras, now has plans to dive for a German submarine which may have a valuable cargo of mercury. Skin diving can be a lucrative business, he says.

A recent traveler to Chicago was amused to note a broad avenue near the airport named for our fair suburb. But the Chicago street drops both the "e's" from Grosse Pointe.

Bill Wright, of Bishop road, was a huge success with his orchestra at the Harbor Inn in Harbor Springs this past summer, and now the talented musician has entered the U. of M. where he will play with the marching band.

The Bon Secours Hospital Guild which is transforming the Hillcrest Country Club into an "Evening by the Nile" for a September 29 benefit party has imported a life size camel from California to augment the startling Egyptian decor.

Across from the St. Paul's Cemetery on Moross road in the garden of Albert Socia is a laundry tree. Instead of relegating this utilitarian object to the back yard Mr. Socia has painted the tree white and hung it with red flower pots filled with seasonal blooms, which makes an attractive display.

This is the month during which Sunday drivers can delight in the lavish dahlia display in the Sunningdale drive gardens of the Norman Boehms. Mrs. B. grows over 150 varieties in her garden and they may be glimpsed in all their glory as the gardens, unfenced may be seen by all those driving to the foot of Holiday road.

PILFERINGS

Two middle aged women rented a summer cottage in an isolated spot near Ashville, N.C., and were dismayed by the lonely site. After a few days they paid an old man who did odd jobs to sleep in a shed near their door every night. The next summer they took the cottage again and went to look up the old man. At his home they found a sign posted: "Wood supplied, odd jobs done. Nervous wimmen slept with."

Pointers of Interest

MISS JEAN TAYLOR and MRS. HELEN F. FINSTER, of the Grosse Pointe Public Library

By Patricia Talbot

This Sunday well wishers will throng the Central Library to say a fond goodbye to Miss Jean Taylor and Mrs. Helen F. Finster who have been serving Grosse Pointe readers for 33 years.

Both librarians reported to work in the small Pointe branches the Tuesday after Labor Day in 1929 and have seen the library grow from a cottage with 3,000 books, most of them loaned from Detroit, to a modern three branch plant which has 107,000 volumes in circulation.

Mrs. Finster began her career here in the Park Municipal basement. She is now Chief of Processing and First Assistant working in the Central Branch. In the library's first days she chauffeured books from the Park, which was then the headquarters, to a small candy store in the Woods, a newly opened branch, borrowed books from Detroit, checked books in and out and advised readers on their selections. She remembers her early days with some nostalgia. Almost her first day on the job she had to drive across Milk River, then being reclaimed, for a book delivery and she recalls she knew little about driving and less about Pointe addresses. Mrs. Finster came from Port Huron, via the University of Wisconsin, to the Pointe. Her first library job was in Racine, in those days the Pointe system was under Wayne County which supplied our libraries with personnel as well as books. Mrs. Finster moved with the library to new quarters in Pierce Junior High School in 1939 and then to the Central branch when it opened in 1953.

Behind the Scenes Card cataloging and book ordering keep her busy as chief of processing and she has a competent staff under her direction behind the scenes of the circulation desk. In her office she rarely meets the public anymore, which she regrets, but welcomes the hours when the regular staff needs her services and she must leave her giant filing system to greet the public behind the main desk.

Her warm hearted interest in the young reader inspired many young Pointers, including this reporter, and introduced them into the wonderful world of books. In 33 years she has seen many changes in children's books.

Her retirement plans include visits to relatives in Northern Michigan and a post-Christmas trip to Arizona. Then she will settle down in her St. Paul avenue home to bridge, volunteer work with the Traveler's Aid and of course reading. Miss Taylor does not share her co-workers' belief that good books have been set aside by the influx of paperbacks, comics and television. As Chief Children's librarian she is still thrilled by the young reader's unaffected delight. Space tales may have replaced fairy stories in popularity but children's books still hold wonder.

Educated in Toronto University and a special library school in New York, Miss Taylor stopped off in Detroit to visit her sister enroute from Florida and remained to join the Pointe Library system. For many years she worked in the small city branch, checking books, telling stories to the school children, even stoking the stove on cold winter days.

More Readers Today

"More parents are urging their children to read and use the library than ever before". She insists that even bad books and comics have their use, because any reading will lead children to read more and eventually better material.

"Children today read more non-fiction. There is a better choice of material, both good and bad." She promotes "Charlotte's Web" as the current long time best seller in children's favorites and is angered by the watering-down of classics, which still have a wide appeal.

With her sister, a retired nurse, Miss Taylor shares an apartment in the River Terrace, and a lovely summer home in the Georgian Bay area. After October 1 she will enjoy the autumn colors in her Canadian retreat and then prepare for a long trip to the Orient in the New Year. Her retirement plans include, lots of reading, (she prefers biographies), and more theater, which she adores.

From Cottage to Office She will miss her daily contact with the children, some of whom are sons and daughters of her first library patrons. She too recalls with Mrs. Finster, her early days when she told stories, chose books, gave book talks and helped the general public. From the first library she moved to the two white houses on Kercheval in the Village and then to Notre Dame before coming to her bright blue and white glassed office on the second floor of the library.

For 13 years Miss Taylor has been the contributor of "What Goes on at Your Library" in the Grosse Pointe News. She will miss her column and hopes modestly to do some free lance writing in her retirement. Her last column appears in this issue with some poignant reminiscences of her years in three Pointe libraries.

Their co-workers, the public which they served, the whole community will miss these two dedicated women who have given 33 years of their warm, vital lives to the Grosse Pointe Library System. The honor which will be paid them this Sunday is just a small measure of the esteem, gratitude and friendship felt by all those, known and unknown, whom they have served through the years.

- 1 cup water
- 1 cup unsifted flour
- 1/2 tsp. baking powder
- 7 Tb. Spry
- 1 Tb. sugar
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 1/4 cup milk

Use deep pan of casserole type that five apples will just fit into nicely. Put in this pan the two types of sugar with 1 cup water. Cook until sugar dissolves. Let cool. For dumplings mix dry ingredients. Blend in Spry. Add milk. Divide the dough into equal parts. Roll out singly into circles large enough to encase completely 1 apple. Pull the dough together over the top. Put down into pan of warm syrup, with folded edges of dough at top. Spoon syrup over top of each dumpling. The dumplings can just barely touch in the pan, but should not be crowded, as they raise a little in baking. Bake 10 minutes at 450 degrees. Reduce heat to 350 and bake about 30 minutes or until apples are tender, depending on the type of apple used.

Your New Ensemble... deserves a hat from Walton-Pierce. We admired the rounds of fur, worn well back on the head... the opulent little spheres perched on evening coifs and the shapes of velvets in rich new colors. For the casual outfit there are scarf-hats. Be sure to investigate the possibilities of their versatile custom veil-hoods to be worn with a hat or alone over a hair-do.

Meet The Ladies... Mrs. Hardee Bethea, Mrs. Charles Johnson Jr. and Mrs. James Grace are doing such a wonderful job with The Fine Art Studio in the back section of Jacobson's Home Decorating Shop. It is a delightful place to find works of contemporary artists or water colors, oils, reproductions and framing. Many exhibits are planned and are well worth seeing.

Better Than Ever... weary wigs can get a brand new look at Leon's, 17883 Mack Avenue, where wig repairing is carried out by a European trained expert. The mesh is checked, new hair is implanted and other such adjustments made. They also have a new process for streaking wigs that does not damage the hair. If you do not have a wig be sure to see the beautiful, natural ones at Leon's. You can rest assured that it will be the best and have the very best of care.

Expect The Best... and you'll get it from Mutschler Kitchens. From the very beginning they plan your kitchen to accommodate your needs and to fit the available space. They use only the finest materials and equipment. You get beautiful results. You can select Williamsburg, Early American, Paul McCobb Contemporary or French. See the models at 20489 Mack Avenue.

A Friendly Hand... is a skilled one at The Notre Dame Pharmacy. The four pharmacists on the staff are always efficient and prompt in filling prescriptions. And as long as we can remember a friendly atmosphere has always prevailed at the Village's first pharmacy.

So Many Nice Words... for Mrs. Fran Garafalo and Mrs. Roz Fredricks about the decorating of Robelle Beauty Salon. The salon, is located at 19027 Mack Avenue. New and old customers are enjoying the new relaxing surroundings and the time-saving jet dryers.

School of Government To Hear Gen. Lester Bork

The School of Government will hold its first meeting of the season at the Veterans Memorial Building at 1:30 on Wednesday, September 26. The speaker that day will be General Lester S. Bork, retired Army General. His subject will be "Communism in the Far East."

General Bork is considered an authority on Communism as he has served time in the Far East. He has just recently been named President of the Economic Club of Detroit to succeed Mr. Allen B. Crow.

Michigan has more than 800 miles of scenic shoreline highways and hundreds of miles of other inland scenic routes.
