PRESIDENT Kennedy yesterday demanded that the $1,124,-000,000 cut in foreign aid spending, voted by the House Appropriations Committee, be restored. Calling the committee's "irresponsible action" a threat to the security of the free world, Kennedy asked House members to forget party lines and join forces in a concerted effort to defeat the group's recommendations. In telephone conversation' with Secretary of State Dean Rusk, the President discussed Rusk's earlier letter to John W. McCormack, House Speaker, and Minority Leader Charles A. Halleck. In it, Rusk stated that United States foreign policy objectives would be "greatly endangered" if the House failed to approve the full $4,752,000,000 requested by

Presenting: the Crisp, New, Custom Look of

Raise your eyes and take another long look at this beautiful '63 Chrysler.

How would you describe it? America's most prominent fashion leaders, stylesetters, and designers said this about the '63 Chryslers: "A stunning concept in restrained elegance!" "Has the custom look of a town car!" "Beautiful simplicity in line and form!"

Inside you'll find a style revolution in the making: gorgeous patterns; loop-pile carpeting that would grace any living room: wide, comfortable deep-cushioned seats.

Again in '63 you'll find no small-size Chryslers, no jr. editions, to undercut your big-car investment, penalize your pride or reduce your resale value.

All '63 Chryslers are big, beautiful and V-8 powered. All are pleasant price surprises, too. Take a good look at the customlooking '63 Chrysler . . . then take a big, beautiful step ahead in style.

Now! 5-year/50,000-mile warranty! Another First for Chrysler! The very highest standards of engineering leader. ship have resulted in an extended warranty* on the power-train of 1963 Chryslers.

Center Offers Carnegie Class

Dale Carnegie Leadership Training classes will be offered again this fall at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center. The opening meeting set for Monday evening, October 1. from 7 to 11 o'clock will be in the hands of Dale Madden, director for Dale Carnegie in Detroit. It will be a demonstration meeting to which all who are interested are cordially invited without obligation.

Dale Carnegie Training has proven itself with millions of students the world over. Many leading business concerns insist that it be included as part of the training for all their executives and supervisory personnel. Dale Carnegie is not only effective in teaching one to think and speak well, it gives the key to the whole vast complex of human relations. Faculty for the Dale Carnegie course at the Center is made up of business executives and professional men who have all been specially trained in the methods devised by Dale Carnegie to make each individual's personality more effective and persuasive. Each teacher was at one time a stu-Many women as well as men

To Strengthen Government

Did you know that the phrase "let George do it" was coined over 450 years ago by King Louis XII

The king had a prime minister, named George D'Amboise, who was so able that he delegated an increasing number of vexing problems to this trusted assistant. The monarch thus left himself free to attend to the other royal duties.

Down through the centuries countless persons have taken the "let George do it" attitude about their family, religious, civic and other obligations - although they have little or no idea who "George" might be.

The tendency, for instance, to leave it to others to provide good government has led to the weakening - and even disappearance - of free institutions everywhere.

Those, however, who specialize in graft, corruption or subversion never "let George do it" They do it themselves.

Despite these human weaknesses, there is always hope so long as one person after another makes a personal, conscientious and constructive attempt to guarantee responsible government on

The following tips may serve as reminders on how to strengthen your government.

#1 START WITH YOURSELF

When one man accused of exerting undue influence over lawmakers was asked how this abuse could be prevented, he gave this frank reply: "There is one way." The people must take more interest in the men they elect."

Such reminders as these may help you to see that good government starts with you as much as

- Bad politicians are elected by good people
- "The punishment of wise men who refuse to take part in the affairs of government is to live under the government of unwise men." (Plato)
- "Let men be good and the government cannot be bad. If government is ill, good men will cure it." (William Penn)
- "Governments, like clocks, go for the motion men give them, and governments are made and moved by men, so by them they are ruled also. Therefore, governments depend upon men rather than men upon governments." (William Penn)
- "We have staked the whole future of America, not on the power of government, but on the capacity of mankind for self-government." (James Madison, fourth President of the United States)
- Either you run government, or government

#2 APPRECIATE WHAT SELF-GOVERNMENT MEANS

Few people are aware that the word "govern" comes from the Latin term "guberno" meaning "to steer a ship."

This thought was graphically illustrated by one man who said that "a dictatorship is like a highpowered ocean liner. It can go straight ahead at a fast clip. The danger is that it may hit an iceberg. "Democracy." he added, "is like a log raft, You can't guide the thing very well; you wallow all over the place; your feet are always wet. "But you can never sink a log raft," he concluded, "and if you keep on trying you eventually get there. That's what we've go to do, keep trying." Point out that despite the often exasperating bassador to the United States.

"Take sides! Freedom is precious-defend it! It is not cheap, nor easy, nor neutral. It is dear, and hard, and real. Take sides for freedom-or you will lose it."

When even one person fails to champion the principles of true liberty, everyone's freedom is weakened and endangered just that much.

Those who seek to destroy the lawful process of freedom are never neutral.

Rather than take a "hands off" attitude or resort to sterile fault-finding, make your voice heard in a constructive manner for policies, candidates and issues that ensure sound government, "He who is not with Me is against Me." (Matthew

#4 MAKE IT YOUR BUSINESS

Enroute to Washington to take his oath of office as president, Abraham Lincoln gave an important speech in Indianapolis on February 11, 1861. In it he stressed this point:

"I wish you to remember, now and forever." Lincoln said, "that it is your business, and not mine; that if the union of these States and the liberties of these people shall be lost, it is but little to any one man of fifty-two years of age, but a great deal to the thirty millions of people who inhabit these United States, and to their posterity in all coming time.

"It is your business to rise up and preserve the Union and liberty for yourselves, and not for me. I appeal to you again to constantly bear in mind that not with politicians, not with Presidents, not with office-seekers, but with you, is the question: Shall the Union and shall the liberties of this country be preserved to the latest generations?"

Do you honestly think and act with the conviction that government is your business?

#5 FIND WAYS OF YOUR OWN

One energetic housewife, finally convinced of her own responsibility as a citizen, devised a way to get voters out to the polls.

On her own initiative, she contacted a dozen other housewives and suggested that each of them in turn telephone 15 or 20 friends, neighbors or acquaintances-especially those who do not ordinarily voteand impress upon them the importance of the ballot. The telephone campaign met with immediate success.

She uses this method not only before each major election, but also in getting people to register and to vote at primaries, at school elections and on various local issues.

#6 STIR UP YOUNG PEOPLE'S INTEREST

The facts show that Americans between the ages of 21 and 29 have the poorest voting record.

Much of this anathy could be prevented by the proper training of young people-by imbuing them with a healthy respect for the principles of good

Thoughtless ridiculing and belittling by parents of those in public office can do much to make children indifferent or even cynical towards their own government for life.

#7 LEND A HAND

A Chicago taxi driver spends all election day giving free rides in his own cab to anyone needing transportation to the polls.

Volunteer your services to the party or candidate of your choice. Become a precinct worker, not only at election time, but throughout the year.

Ring doorbells, persuade people to register and vote at primaries, be a good listener, distribute literature, give talks and be a participant in every possible way, not merely a spectator.

It is a never-ending task to keep renewing and re-enforcing the political system that makes your freedom possible.

#8 KNOW YOUR GOVERNMENT

One man who was forever talking about the Bill of Rights so impressed a friend that he finally asked him what they were.

To the embarrassment of the first man, it dawned on him that he didn't know them. But to cover up his ignorance, he added: "Just the same, I'd die for the Bill of Rights."

Try asking your friends about the Bill of Rights-and such fundamentals as the checks and balances built into your government.

- How it all began-When the oFunding Fathers met in 1789 to draw up a new Constitution, they sought to establish an enduring federal union that would get things done while protecting citizens against despotism.
- The results-Their deliberations evolved a system of government with three separate but interdependent branches-legislative, executive and judicial, in that order.
- Checks and balances-Each branch was designed to perform an essential function while preventing any one branch from exercising too much power at the other's expense.
- The legislative power, which makes the laws, is vested in the Senate and House of Representatives. Their legislation is subjected to a Presidential veto and judicial review by the Supreme Court.
- The executive power is entrusted to the President. Among his duties are those of submitting a legislative program and carrying out the laws. A Presidential veto can be overridden by a two-thirds vote of both houses. His actions may be reviewed by the Supreme
- The judicial power is vested in the Supreme Court. It is empowered to pass judgment on laws and executive actions referred to it, and to safeguard citizens' rights against encroachment by government.

Encourage individuals, families, schools and organizations to study the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution and the Bill of Rights. Too many dangers face our country for anyone to remain ignorant.

#9 KEEP THIS A NATION UNDER GOD

In 1751, twenty-five years before the signing of the Declaration of Independence, the Founding Fathers sent 'an order to England for the now-famous Liberty Bell. They specified that this passage from the Holy Bible be inscribed on it:

"Proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof." (Leviticus 25:10)

Keep in the forefront of American life the sublime concept on which our freedom depends that we derive our right from God, not from the State, and that the purpose of government is to protect the God-given rights of each person.

As the Declaration of Independence states explicitly: "All men are created equal and endowed by their creator with certain unalienable rights."

Do your part to keep your country, in Abraham Lincoln's reverent phrase, "this nation under Recall the Hebrew Prophet's warning: "Unless the Lord guard the city, in vain does the guard keep vigil." (Psalm 126:1)

#10 BECOME A WELL-INFORMED VOTER Most voters have at least a passable knowledge of presidential candidates, as well as those in their own election district.

Where they fall short is in the wide middle group-the dozen or more offices between the top and bottom of the voting list.

One post-election poll, for example, revealed that less than a third of the voters in one state could name the Congressional candidate they had supported a short time before.

Another poll asked a cross-section of citizens if they could name the two men running for the Senate. Only 27 per cent could identify the man who had been representing them for the past sixyear term, and only 7 per cent knew who his oppo-

Laborious as it is to make a reasonably thorough investigation of candidates, there is no surer way to exercise your freedom of choice in a responsible

#11 RECOGNIZE THAT IT'S YOUR COUNTRY

Public property is seldom damaged when citizens realize that they, after all, are the public.

This fact was emphasized in a two-year survey of high school students. It said: "When they have a sense of belonging to the school and when they feel the school belongs to them, morale tends to be high and damage low."

By popularizing this "sense of belonging," you can gradually help people change their attitude toward government from negative to positive, from tearing down to building up, and from indiscriminate criticism to a willingness to give credit where credit

A resourceful Paris housewife helped bring out a record-breaking vote by coining the slogan, "You are the State. Prove it!"

#12 STUDY THE ISSUES

One lawmaker made this disturbing comment about the average citizen:

"If you asked the man in front of the drugstore to name six of the important bills now before Congress, it's doubtful he could name two."

It is not easy to become adequately informed, but the very survival of free, orderly government depends on the intelligent interest persons like you show in the conduct of public affairs.

If you won't set aside a little time to study the pros and cons of vexing problems that confront our nation and the world, who will?

Do what you can to apply divine values and practical solutions to such human problems as . . . economic growth and stability . . . housing . . . social welfare . . . educational requirements . . . states rights and responsibilities . . . urban renewal ... farm subsidies ... foreign aid ... racial issues ... unemployment ... court reform ... fair voting standards . . . outer space . . . atomic warfare . . . federal communications . . . armed services . . . veterans administration . . . and numerous other questions that call for sound solutions.

#13 ENCOURAGE, DON'T DISCOURAGE

After one candidate was defeated at the polls, he ran this notice in a local newspaper: "I wish to thank all those who voted for me in the recent election. My wife wishes to thank all those who voted against me."

It is a natural tendency to shield those we love from the misunderstanding, ingratitude and even betrayal, so often the lot of devoted public servants. But you would do far better if you:

• Give your moral support and practical backing to every competent person who is generous enough to assume the burdens of public office.

• Don't take it on your conscience to discourage those imbued with the principles of morality, efficiency and economy. Failure to back them up may mean opening the way for the incompetent to staff your government.

#14 WATCH GOVERNMENT COSTS

The average wage-earner devotes over a quarter of his paycheck to government. Yet few taxpayers are aware of how much they pay through income, real estate, corporate, sales taxes, and dozens of hidden

It now costs 162 billion dollars a year (nearly 14 billion a month) to run all government in the USA-local, state and federal, Divided equally, that would mean a bill of over $868 each year for every man, woman and child in the country - or $4,340 for a family of five.

On top of all this, a national debt of nearly 300 billion dollars breaks down to a debt of about $1600 for every person in the country.

Are government costs too high? Increasing too rapidly? Handled inefficiently? Too little in certain vital areas? It's your responsibility to find out. Every dollar spent comes out of your pocket-or the pocket of others like you.

So it's up to citizens like you to see that your representatives in government get a dollar's worth of value out of every dollar spent.

#15 CULTIVATE A RESPECT FOR AUTHORITY

When Caesar Augustus sent forth a decree that a census of the Roman Empire be taken and that every man enroll in his own city, he could not have foreseen its far-reaching results.

For it was obedience to this edict that led to the fulfillment of the Old Testament prophecy that the Messiah would be born in Bethlehem, the City of David. (Micheas 5:2)

Joseph, accompanied by Mary, his wife, was therefore carrying out a civic responsibility in making the 90-mile trek from Nazareth to Bethlehem, where our Savior was born, (Luke 2:1-7) Respect for legitimate authority goes hand-inhand with the knowledge that rulers derive their true power ultimately from God, even though delegated to them through the citizenry. For this reason also: 1) all office-holders are bound in conscience to exercise their authority with fairness and restraint; and 2) citizens should be obedient to just laws and see to it that worthy public servants are chosen.

St. Paul left no doubt about the divine origin of true authority when he said: "There exists no authority not ordained by God." (Romans 13:1)

DECIDE FOR YOURSELF

A chief aim of the Christopher movement is to encourage you to show personal responsibility in applying moral principles to the running of all phases of government.

But what political party you join; which candidate or issue you favor: and how you vote must be your personal choice. It is between you and your own conscience—between you and God.

While anyone is free to distribute these News Notes, this should not be construed as endersement by the Christophers of any candidate, party or issue.

THE AIM OF THE CHRISTOPHERS is to encourage millions of individuals to show personal responsibility in changing the world for the better. Each one is encouraged to use his God-given ability-in ways of his chocsing -to raise the satudards of such vital spheres of influence as: 1) government, 2) education, 3) labor relations, 4) literature, and 5) entertainment.

The Christopher motto is: "Better to light one candle than to curse the darkness." A positive constructive approach to the solving of today's towering problems is far more productive of good than mere complaining or criticizing. . . . "Be not overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good," (Romans 12:21)

Christopher programs are scheduled regularly on more than 2900 radio and television stations. Christopher News Notes are mailed E times a year, free of charge to 11/4

Since its beginning in 1945, the Christopher movement has maintained a policy of no branches, no meetings, no memberships and no dues. Its headquarters are at 16 East 48th St., New York 17, N. Y. Father James Keller, M.M.,

For all expenses the Christopher movement depends entirely on voluntary contributions. It has no solicitors or fund-raising drives. All gifts are tax deductible.

ome see money that "talks" ... in foreign tongues, of ancient temples, to people who can "hear" the mysterious messages of rare old coins.

From Thursday, September 27, through Tuesday, October 9, three displays from our Main Office Money Museum will be shown right here in our Mack-Moross Road office at 460 Moross Road. You can come in and see coins used in the markets of the Holy Land when Christ was on earth. You'll see, too, ancient coins of the mysterious East, unearthed after a sleep of centuries among the ruins of forgotten temples and lost cities. Or you can let your imagination roam the modern world through the collection of foreign coins and paper money. Come in any time during banking hours, 9:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Monday through Thursday or until 7:30 p.m. on Friday.

How to swallow a bitter pill

By FRED KOPP, R. Ph.

First, find a bitter pill. There are so few nowadays. It all started because children, bless 'em, are so good at resisting bad-tasting medicine. You can medicate their. chins or hair, but getting the stuff in them is beyond the ken of science. Kids can spit a country mile. So pharmacists began sugar-coating pills, putting medication in capsules, or mixing with sweet syrup. And we soon found that adults ,too, like medicine the easy way. So now, most of our prescriptions are quite pleasant to take. If you should run into one of the few bitter ones, believe us, there are good medical reasons for it.

It's fun to be young and play with toys again—at least for these workers preparing for the twenty-first annual rummage sale at the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church. Shown here are MRS. ELTON TURNER, left, co-chairman, and MRS. VICTOR CRAIG, chairman, of the sale, which will be held at the church at Mack Avenue and Torrey Road on Friday and Saturday, October 5 and 6. Contributions may still be taken to the Kenneth W. Smith garage, 1922 Beaufait, or to the Victor Craig garage at 417 Moross. The week of October 1 all items may be taken directly to the church. Large items will be picked up. Call TU 4-2987 or TU 1-4472.

The Rockets launched an attack which culminated in a 29 yard touchdown run for the first score of the game. The extra point was no good and Farmington led 6-0.

Just before the 3rd period ended, the Rockets took possession on their 43 and the first play from scrimmage saw the halfback scamper 57 yards to pay dirt. Again the point attempt was no good and Farmington led 12-0.

After several exchanges, Farmington took over on their 38 and on 4th down the same hole opened off tackle and the back went 64 yards for a touchdown. This made the score 19-0.

With time running out, the Spartans took over on their own 45. The old Statue of Liberty play netted 21 yards as Steve Kahle took the ball from Davis. Dick Rini smashed for 3 more, and then Davis skirted end for 11 more and Kahle went to the 7, from where Mark Davis circled end for the Spartan touch-

After an opening game defeat, Port Huron began to move as at Ann Arbor, the Blue Devils the third quarter ended. Larry bounced back to defeat Port Butler and Mike Shoulders

The Pointers kicked off and forced Port Huron to punt. After the punt, the Devils went to work with vigor. Tom Thompson ripped off two first downs. Quarterback Gary Andersen spotted Terry Raven alone deep in Port Huron territory and hit him with a 30 yard pass. That made it first and ten on the Big Reds' 12.

It took Grosse Pointe two plays to score with John Reynolds running for the final seven yards. Jim Large was wide the home team led 6-0. Marc Lonesk kicked off for the Devils and again Port Huron had to punt. The Devils took the punt and, after John Reynolds rushed for a first down, Andersen hit Thompson with a short swing pass. Tom raced 45 yards for the second Pointe score. Jim Large struck the goal post with his extra point attempt. Grosse Pointe now led 12-0.

Races 65 Yards

After Lonesk's kick the Big Reds finally broke into the scoring column when Larry Butler raced 65 yards on an end sweep to pay dirt. Larry also converted and Port Huron now trailed 12-7.

The visitors kicked off just as the quarter ended. Grosse Pointe found the going tough and had to punt. Port Huron got nowhere and punted also. Tom Thompson took the punt at mid-Oct. 4, 5, 6, 7, 12-10:30 field, carrying it back to the 17 yard line for the Big Reds. However the Devil attack stalled and the visitors took over on

On the second play by the Reds, Terry Raven picked off an errant pass and ran it back to the 17 yard line of Port Huron.

The Pointers drove toward a score but lost the ball on a fumble and the visitors recovered on their own eight yard line. The visitors punted and again Thompson made a great run back bringing the ball to the Port Huron 25.

After John Reynolds had rushed for a first down, Thompson sprinted for his the extra point and Grosse Pointe led 19-7. The half ended as Carl Vertregt intercepted a Big Red pass.

Reed Recovers Fumble The visitors kicked off to start the second half. The Huronites picked off an Andersen pass and ran it back to the Devils' 43 yard line. The Reds fumbled and big (216 pounds) Joe Reed recovered on the 40 of Grosse Pointe. On a fumble, Port Huron got the ball on the Pointe 35 yard line.

The Big Reds gambled on a fourth down play but lost the ball on downs. The home team then launched an attack featuring the runs of Thompson and Reynolds. The drive died on the 12 yard line of Port Huron and

Austin Routs De La Salle

Austin Prep's football team routed De La Salle, 34-13, with display of offensive power that produced a four year high in scoring.

Starring for Austin was Paul Tryloff, a junior, who came off the injury list to outrun the Pilots and score four touchdowns on runs of 17, 88, 5, and 50-yards.

For the first quarter, though, t looked like there would be a repeat of last year's 46-0 defeat to LaSalle. After a flurry of penalties nullified early Austin gains, the Pilots took over and scored on Mike Wnetrask's 20yard run. That 7-0 La Salle lead renained throughout the first quarter. But in the second stanza, Tryloff scampered 17yards to knot the score. Minutes later, the 160-pound halfback brought the crowd to its feet when he sped around left end and traveled 88 yards

Among the many British on the frontier during the American Revolution who inspired in the settlers fear and hatred Henry Hamilton, virtual commandant of Detroit, was a leader.

"Hair Buyer" Hamilton, the soubriquet earned for his habit of paying Indians for settlers' scalps, came to Detroit in 1775 after a brilliant record fighting with Lord Jeffrey Amherst and General Thomas Wolfe at Quebec.

Detroit became the base of Indian warfare as Hamilton organized the Ottowa, Chippewa, Wyandotte, Shawnee, Seneca, Delaware, Cherokee and Pottawattomi tribes as allies. It is said that he urged the Indians to bring scalps rather than prisoners and in one report to his superiors mentions having received in one day, 125 scalps and in another, 85.

Hamilton took a census in 1778 which revealed that Detroit had a population of 2,144 which included 127 slaves. He also listed the officers in the Indian department and they included Alexander McKee, Charles Reaume, Isidore Chene, Claude Labadie, Frontenay Dequindre, Simon Girty, Medard Gamelin and Pierre Drouillard, who served mainly as interpreters.

Many of these were also militia officers. But a roll of the militia for that year includes men, who were also Pointe property owners such as Gregor McGregor, an at Bon Secours Hospital they were accustomed to Ameri-Indian trader and major in the army whose farmlands stretched along lakeshore near the Grant property; Charles Gouin, whose descendants are still here; Jean Baptiste Chapoton, Jean Baptiste Campau, Charles Moran, and Jean Baptiste Beaubien.

The Indians needed their allies' help and were not at all anxious for the Americans to emerge the victors. The whole theory of British occupation was to keep the Indians in their proper places as hunters and to preserve here. Neither of the young doc-medical language. They both the continent for furs. Guests at the reception to honor Miss Jean Taylor and Mrs. Finster at the Central Library Sunday were pleasantly surprised by the entertainment. In the Adult Room staff members Tom Tripp and Gerda Bielitz played the harpsicord and the recorder. They were joined by cellist Frederick Battershell who built the very modern harpsicord.

Conversation piece in the foyer of Mrs. Charles T. Fisher's Lake court home is a glass case containing a biretta once owned by Pope Pius XII.

Mrs. Carlton M. Higbie, Jr., looked very chic in a rice, and joined their Amerileaf green Chanel type basket weave suit last week. The jacket was faced with leopard which also trimmed her brief pillbox hat.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Bailey (Helene Judith Schneider) returned to a new home in the Pointe Sunday after three weeks in Nantucket and the East Coast. The Baileys have moved into a carriage house in Lincoln road, previously occupied by a series of newlyweds including the E. Llwyd Ecclestones, Jr.

Since a newspaper office is often an information service we were disappointed last week to fail in an answer to a worried antique collector. The Dearborn housewife who called had inherited some lovely cut glass blocks from her European relatives, but she had no idea what they were used for in Old Country households. A call to the International Institute solved her problem and she discovered that the glass blocks were used for very elegant dinners, usually when crowned heads were entertained. The blocks were placed to the left of the place setting and used as a support for the prongs of a gold tipped fork.

A final cruise in the Detroit river was a little too damp for Cathy Crowther. With Tom and Jerry Schoenith, Mike White, Bob Fagan and Frank Gryzanka the teen ager was spurting back and forth aboard the Roostertail I. A passing cruiser churned up so much rough water that Cathy fell overboard into the very swift current. But all ended happily as gallant Tom Schoenith jumped to the rescue.

Pilferings

As one gets older one discovers everything's going to be exactly the same—with different hats on . . . Noel Coward.

Sinclair Lewis once received a letter from a frisky young lady who said she would like to become his secretary. She said she could type, file and anything else, and added, "When I say anything, I mean anything!"

Lewis turned the letter over to his wife, Dorothy Thompson, who wrote a gracious reply to the effect that Mr. Lewis already had an excellent secretary who could type and file. "I do everything else," she added, "And when I say everything, I mean everything!"

The effect of John Glenn's flight goes on. A woman whose husband occassionally goes pub crawling called a bar in Beverly Hills asking if he was there. He wasn't "Okay," she said, "I'il check the other tracking stations."
