A CUBAN EXILE GROUP, calling itself Alpha 66, claimed yesterday it had killed 20 Cubans and Russians in an early Monday raid on the north coast of Castro's island kingdom. According to reports, the exile organization sent seaborne commandos into the port town of Isabella de Sagua, 150 miles east of Havana, their principal objective a well-protected camp containing both Cuban and Russian militiamen. The official Alpha 66 "war communique" states that the raid lasted less than two hours, from 12:30 until 2:12 a.m., and that the raiders were successful, dynamiting a railway switchyard, military arsenal and commissary, "and four other strategic points."

Russian arms and flags were seized, taken from the installation's main office building, and carried back to Alpha 66 headquarters in Puerto Rico. They will be on display Saturday, at a mass rally in San Juan's stadium. Whether or not the Alpha 66 raid will have an appreciable effect on the current, touchy negotiations for release of last year's invasion prisoners is uncertain at this time. Yesterday's meeting between negotiator James R. Donovan and Prime Minister Fidel Castro was expected to be the last in a series leading to the release of the 1,113 prisoners, but the Cuban government announced later in the day that two or three more meetings have been scheduled to revise details.

Alpha 66, organized last February by 66 exiles, businessmen, professionals and academic leaders, staged its first raid September 10. An organization spokesman has revealed that the group plans another raid on another strategic Cuban target in the near future, and hopes eventually to start guerrilla action on the island.

THE COMBINED POSTAL RATE INCREASE— Federal pay boost bill was signed yesterday by President Kennedy. New postage rates, scheduled to begin January 7, are expected to bring in an estimated $600 million per year by 1966. Most of this additional income, some $495 million, will come directly from a one-cent increase in first class and air mail stamps, with the cost of mailing a letter rising from four cents to five cents for surface mail, from seven to eight cents for air mail, and from three to four cents for post cards. Second and third-class rate increases are slated to go into effect gradually, over a three-year period.

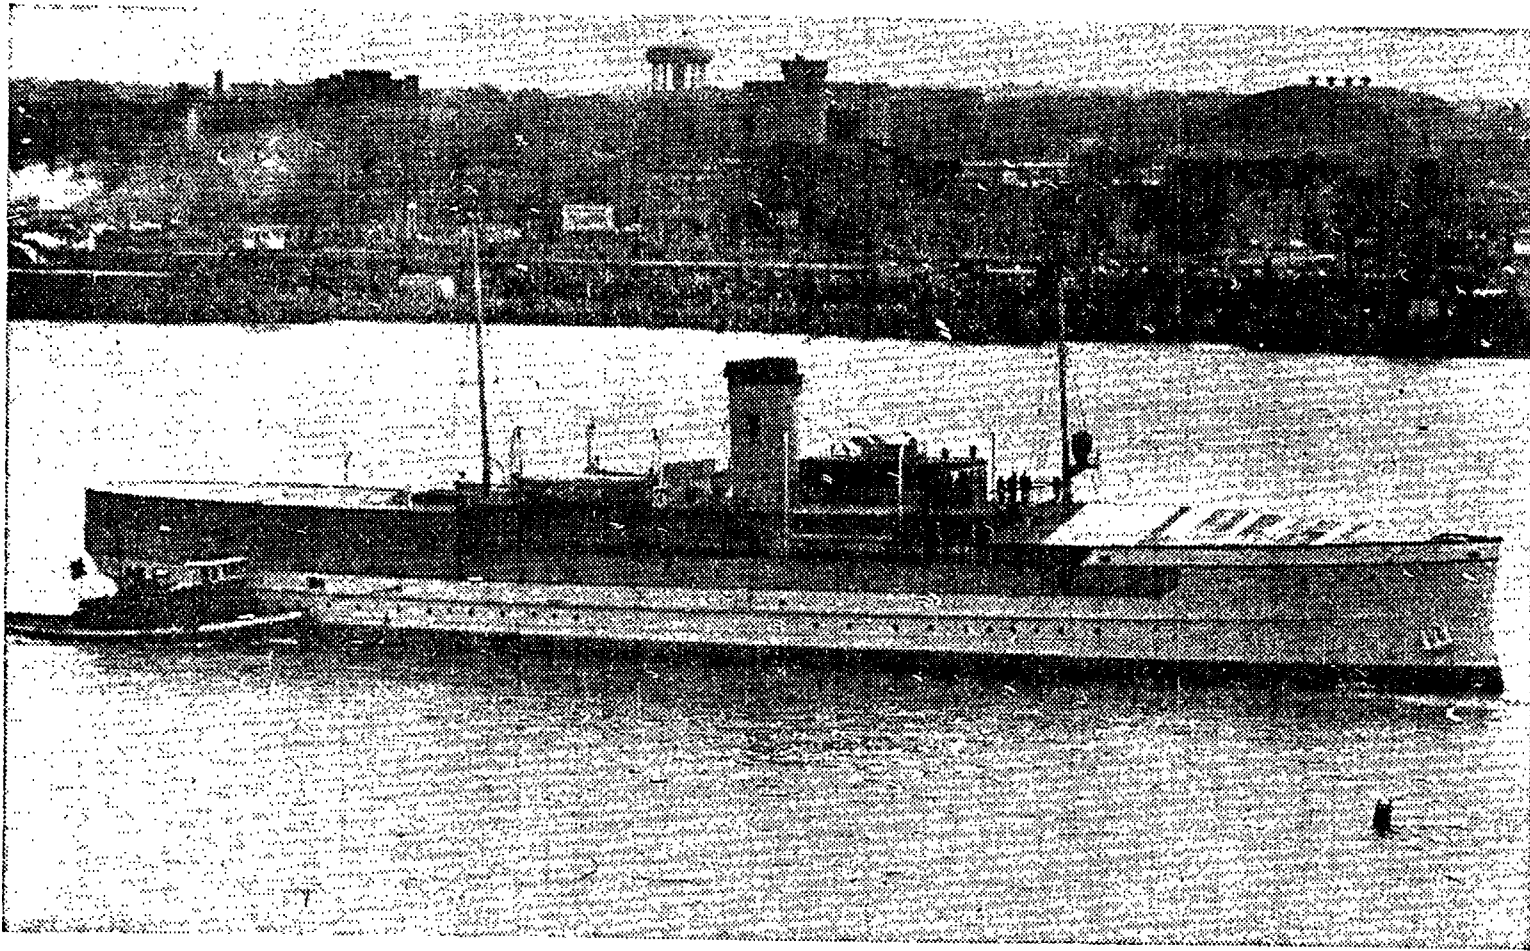

Newspapers and magazines must pay an extra four percent annually, for three years, on editorial matter, and an extra 10 percent on advertising matter, while bulk mail (advertising circulars, etc.) will pay one-eighth cent more each year in the next three years, raising their ultimate piece cost from 2½ to 2⅞ cents. Money from the postal rate increase will be used to finance a pay boost for Federal workers, adding 9.6 percent to the wages of one million white-collar workers, and increasing salaries of 600,000 postal workers 11.2 percent. Mr. Kennedy, terming these salary increases "the most comprehensive and significant in nearly 40 years," demanded higher efficiency from Federal workers in return for the elimination of unnecessary jobs. In a memorandum issued shortly after he signed the bill, the President urged department and agency heads "to hold new requests for personnel to bedrock levels, to abolish marginal jobs, and to increase employment productivity."

Sunday, October 14

THE 87th CONGRESS, its business completed, adjourned yesterday, the House formally closing its session at 4:46 p.m. after receiving official notification of the Senate's earlier adjournment. Unless President Kennedy decides on recall, this second session of the Democratic controlled Federal legislature will be its last. Members of the 88th Congress, to be elected next November, will convene in Washington on January 3, 1963.

FARMS GIVES $100
The Farms council approved an appropriation of $100 on Monday, October 15, to be contributed to the Grosse Pointe Halloween Committee to help defray the costs of the 23rd Annual Halloween Party scheduled for later this month.

Proud Lady Heads for the Primping Parlors

—Detroit Free Press Picture by Bud Johnson

The once-lovely yacht "Delphine," whose beauty has been as carefully guarded as possible while she lay at her dock for seven years, has heard the call to rejuvenation. The magnificent ship owned by Mrs. Horace Dodge was towed from her moorings on the lake adjacent to the Grosse Pointe Club last Friday. She is to be fitted out once again, at a boatyard down river and then at New London, Conn. Once more she will be vibrant as "she feels the breath of life along her keel."

City Offices Moved Into New Building

Phone Numbers Remain Same at New Address. Connected to Police-Fire Headquarters

The Grosse Pointe City offices have been successfully moved across Maumee, and all municipal administrative officials are happily "at home" in new headquarters at the rear of the City Police-Fire Department building.

The City's new address is 17147 Maumee, but phone numbers remain the same. TUxedo 5-5800, 5-5801 and 5-5802.

City Manager Lawrence C. Savage reports that work on the parking court and two driveways, one on either side of the present Police-Fire structure, is to begin this week. Each driveway will be a one-way street, providing an entrance and an exit into the new parking area.

The parking court and access ways will be completed in approximately three weeks, at a total cost of $15,000—including all underground services to the proposed DPW building, scheduled for construction next spring.

Until the parking area is finished, residents who have business to conduct at the City offices are asked either to park on Maumee, or in the old lot across the street.

There will be an Open House at the offices as soon as parking facilities are complete, with all City residents invited to park in the new lot, under Colonial hooded lights, and tour their municipality's spacious new headquarters.

Woman's Screams Scare Prowler in Woods Home

A 72-year-old woman's screams frightened away an intruder who entered her second floor bedroom at about 1 a.m. on Monday, October 8, according to a Woods police report.

The woman, Mrs. Sue Thomas, mother of Mrs. Louis Chaney of 1513 Brys drive, was awakened by a hand over her mouth and saw a tall man at her bedside. She struggled with the intruder and pulled away his hand and screamed.

Her screams awakened her son-in-law and daughter, sleeping on the first floor, but the man escaped before Mr. Chaney could catch him.

Telephone Keeps Ringing As Mrs. Mead Says 'No' To State Tax on Service

Stages One-Woman Revolt Against Four Percent Levy on Her Phone Bill; Raps Swainson for Failure to Hold Special Election

By Janet Mueller

They tell us that America has become a nation of conformists, that the Spirit of '76 is dead. They say we are afraid to lift our voices in a good cause—unless it has been previously certified as a good cause by the House Un-American Activities Committee. They should talk to Mrs. Gloria J. Mead.

Mrs. Mead, 1036 Bishop, believes that "taxation without representation is tyranny"—and she is willing to fight for her belief.

The Grosse Pointe housewife, mother of four, refuses to pay a four percent telephone tax, part of the $71 million new tax package imposed July 1 on cigars, liquor, beer and corporation franchise fees.

Mrs. Mead doesn't believe the telephone is a luxury. And she definitely doesn't believe a tax passed by a State Legislature in which she was not represented is legal.

Wanted Special Election. She says that the State Constitution specifically states the Governor shall call a special election to fill any vacancy in the State's Senatorial District representation.

When Governor Swainson appointed Detroit lawyer Harold M. Ryan to succeed the late Louis Rabaut as Federal Representative from the 14th District, he (the Governor) failed to call a special election to fill Ryan's place as representative from Michigan's First Senatorial District.

The phone use tax was passed with Ryan's place in the State Legislature still vacant, and the people of the First Senatorial District were not represented in Lansing.

Mrs. Mead, who describes her-neighborhood, but found no one in the area.

The officers said the culprit entered the house through the rear bedroom door and fled through the same door, which leads into the back yard.

Mrs. Thomas suffered several scratches about the face as a result of her struggle with the intruder.

The Chaney's told the officers that the back door was closed but not locked.

WINDSHIELD SMASHED
Guy Raymond, 912 Rivard, telephoned City police Saturday afternoon, October 13, to report that sometime between 1 and 10 that morning, someone had broken the windshield of his '58 Ford, left parked outside of his house overnight. Officer Richard G. Elworthy, investigating the area, found a child's agate near the car. Police believe the agate may have been hurled at Raymond's vehicle with a sling shot.

'Delphine' Being Fitted For Sea Trip

Mrs. Horace Dodge's Luxurious Yacht Leaves Dock for First Time Since 1955

The "Delphine," largest private vessel on the Great Lakes, is being fitted out for sailing. Two tugs and a yacht accompanied the sumptuous Dodge pleasure craft Friday, from its dock near Grosse Pointe Memorial Church downriver to the Nicholson Terminal & Dock Co. in Ecorse, where the vessel will reportedly be prepared for an ocean voyage.

The "Delphine," owned by Mrs. Anna Thompson Dodge, widow of auto maker Horace E. Dodge, has not sailed since 1955. Her captain will be William H. Knight, commander of the ship for 20 years, who lives near New London, Conn., where the vessel will undergo final preparations for sailing.

Capt. Knight has been in the Detroit area for several weeks, recruiting the 44-man crew needed, in addition to maids, waiters and porters, at sea.

Cost $3,000 Per Day
The "Delphine" was launched at River Rouge in 1921. Her estimated cost at building was $2 million, with an operating cost of $3,000 per day, even at dock.

She sank twice, in 1926, after burning in the Hudson River, and again in 1940 off Lake Huron's Manitowish Island.

Man Assaulted, Robbed in Park

A Detroit resident, employed by the Lake Shore Coach Lines, stopped his car in front of 15001 Kercheval at 2 a.m. Thursday, October 11, to investigate a noise, and was strong-armed and robbed.

Edmund J. Stone, 55, of 14617 Young, a bus driver, told Park Police that he had parked his car on Kercheval while on his way home. When he returned, and was driving away from the curb, he heard a peculiar noise at the rear of the vehicle and stopped to check.

He said that he discovered that a piece of tail pipe had been tied to the rear license plate, and as he was loosening the string from the plate, he was attacked by two men.

Stone said his assailants roughed him up and took $15 from his pocket. They then got into a nearby automobile driven by another man and escaped, he said.

Stone was unable to give police a description of the robbers.

Defer School Head Resigning to Take Hawaiian Position

Principal Jack Darvill Will Be Assistant to Former Superintendent Who Left Post to Head Private School in Islands

Principal Jack Darvill of Defer School has announced his resignation from The Grosse Pointe Public School System effective November 1. He leaves to take a new post, Assistant to the President of The Kamehameha Schools in Hawaii.

Mr. Darvill has taught and administered in the Grosse Pointe schools since 1953. His initial assignment was at Kerby School as a music teacher. Later he taught the upper grades at Monteth and became assistant principal there before being elected principal of Defer in 1961.

In Hawaii, Mr. Darvill will join former Superintendent James W. Bushong, Dr. Bushong assumed the office of president of the private Hawaiian school earlier this month after having served in Grosse Pointe for more than 11 years.

Dr. Darvill is married and has resided in La Fontaine street in Detroit. His wife and two children will accompany him to his new post.

An interim replacement has been made to head Defer School until a permanent successor to Mr. Darvill can be elected. Curriculum Co-ordinator Joe Spagnoli of the Department of Instruction will supervise the school until a new principal is found. Mr. Spagnoli came to the school system recently as an Assistant to Dr. Leroy Selmeier, Assistant Superintendent of Instruction.

Police Arrest Bloody Battlers

Two Pointe teenage boys were arrested by Woods police on Sunday, October 14, and charged with being disorderly persons after they engaged in a bloody fight.

Patrolman Harold Lanstra, the arresting officer, said that the youths sought to escape as he approached in a scout car, but he located their hiding places and took the boys to the station, where he issued each a ticket for being disorderly.

The policemen said that both boys had blood on their faces and shirts.

Arrested and charged were Leonard Castiglione, 17, of 590 Shoreham; and Vincent Macri, 18, of 951 Hawthorne. Both were released on $50 cash bond pending an appearance before Judge Don Goodrow, scheduled for November 17.

Lanstra said he was dispatched to the rear of 20187-201-95 Mack, on a disturbance call, and arrived to find a group of boys surrounding the young fighters.

On sighting the police car, the group broke up and scattered, and the two belligerents separated and ran separate ways. Castiglione was found behind bushes at Mack and Oxford, and Macri was picked up on Kenmore, between Mack and Jackson.

Lanstra said the boys stated that the fight was started over a remark one boy made against the other's girl friend. Who made the remark that touched off the fight was not disclosed.

GP Woods Forms Citizens Traffic Safety Commission

Five members of a Citizens Traffic Safety Commission, formed under a new ordinance adopted by the Woods council on August 20, were administered their oaths of office Tuesday evening, October 16. The members were sworn-in by City Clerk Leona Liddle at a ceremony held in the Council-Courtroom chamber of the City Hall, 20025 Mack avenue.

Council members, and other city officials and citizens witnessed the swearing in rites of Dr. Marshall Jameson of 2008 Lancaster; Donald C. Bangs of 2004 Hollywood; George F. Lasher of 1629 Newcastle; Bayard A. Clark of 1969 Van Antwerp; and Martin W. Chamberlain of 1386 Roslyn.

Jameson will serve until January 1, 1963; Bangs and

New Facility At Center to Open Dec. 2

Costs of William H. Fries Memorial Near $800,000 Strikes Delayed Construction

The William Hayes Fries Auditorium, under construction at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, is almost completed, with formal dedication ceremonies scheduled for Sunday afternoon, December 2, at 2:30 o'clock.

Originally slated to open November 1, work on the addition was halted this spring, due to a series of strikes by structural steel workers, roofers, waterproofer and plasterers' tenders. By June, however, all disputes were settled, and construction has been proceeding at a stepped-up pace throughout the summer and early fall.

Costs Go Up
Ground-breaking ceremonies for the new Fries Auditorium were held more than a year ago, on September 25, 1961. At that time, estimated total cost of the building was approximately $625,000, but additions and modifications to the original plans have raised that figure considerably. Total cost now stands at around $800,000.

Much of this additional outlay is being absorbed by private gifts. Rotary donated $3,000 for dividing doors in the ballroom, and the Grosse Pointe Garden Center presented the War Memorial with a check for $2,000, to be used for planting and landscaping around the new building.

Fully Equipped Stage
The Center decided to include a fully equipped stage as part of the Auditorium's facilities, an expense not anticipated in the original estimate.

It was also decided to enlarge parking facilities, and to build a $20,000 covered colonnade from the parking lot to the auditorium, so that visitors to the Center could arrive, wigs unruined, in all kinds of weather.

A major unforeseen expense was incurred when workers, putting in the Auditorium foundations, ran into the old Alder boat well. This boat well had to be blasted out before foundations could be put down, and a new type of foundation had to be used, replacing the original, less expensive type.

Joy Estate Gives $20,000
A donation of $20,000 from the Joy Estate provided the entire building with a cooling unit, and many other groups, who plan to use the new facility, made many other specific donations.

The William H. Fries Estate donated money for construction, and the War Memorial has allocated some $50,000 from its own operating fund for furnishings.

The new building is two stories tall, the auditorium on the ground floor and a banquet hall, overlooking the lake, on the second level. It is classic in design, the entire upper structure made chiefly of glass walls interspersed with Doric column supports, and is intended, in its simplicity, to resemble a Greek temple.

Center Director John Lake plans an "Open House" as part of the dedication ceremonies, with all Grosse Pointers cordially invited to tour their new facility.

Farms Pushing Planting Project

The Farms council on Monday, October 15, appointed one of its members to meet with the Wayne County Road Commission to petition for tree and shrub planting in the islands on Lake Shore road and Mack avenue.

Picked as a "committee-of-one" was Councilman Henry Bodman II. He will seek Commission approval for the planting of flowering shrubs and trees in both thoroughfares. The planting program is to be a county project, and done at county expense.

At its September 17 meeting, the Farms council sent a letter to the Road Commission requesting the Commission to plant additional trees and shrubs in the islands.

Both Lake Shore and Mack are county roads,

Sleeping Driver Injured in Crash

A ticket for reckless driving and causing an accident was issued to Nancey Sue Hall, 18, 1126 Lakepointe, who fell asleep at the wheel of her car early Wednesday morning, October 10.

City police officers Blair A. Martin and Edmond Benthuys came upon Miss Hall, in her '62 Pontiac Tempest. She had been travelling west on Jefferson before falling asleep.

The car swerved, crossed over the center line, and hit a tree some 200 feet west of Washington road.

The young woman, shaken up and bleeding when the officers found her, was rushed, via police ambulance, to Bon Secours Hospital. She was released after receiving emergency first aid treatment for laceration of the left knee.

Bashful Neophyte Signs Up for Exciting Winter

By Janet Mueller

It's that time of year. You're happily walking down the street, the leaves are falling, there's a brisk new nip in the air, and all of a sudden it hits you. The Poster. In a travel agency window, dress shop display, on a magazine cover.

"Chamonix!" it says, in big, bold black letters. Or "Aspen!" or "Stowe" or "Gay Gstaad!"

And underneath, the Picture—glorious, blown-up, technical color blue sky, white snow, jagged peaks, quaint chalets, people—healthy, happy, beautiful people, frolicking in the sub-zero temperatures, having the time of their lives...

You hate them.

You can't help yourself. It's not their fault, really, or yours. You know they'd love to have you join them, welcome you with open arms. You know they'd like you to be one of a group shushing off into the sunset.

It's not their fault you're a "chicken" with two left feet, who puts on extra-heavy sweaters when the temperature falls below 75° fahrenheit.

It's not your fault either.

Or is it? They say you can learn to like anything...

And so you find yourself walking into the Grosse Pointe War Memorial on Thursday evening, October 11, for an "organizational" meeting of the Grosse Pointe Ski Club.

You're not going to spend this winter with all the other cowards, hiding out in the local movie theater!

A lot of people are already there, and a lot of people are still coming. Most of them look healthier than you do, and the ones that look weak look eager.

You think maybe you'll go home.

Unfortunately, you've already been spotted; somebody says "Hello," somebody propels you to a table, somebody hands you a sheet of paper and tells you "sign here," somebody asks you for three dollars, somebody says "thank you," somebody gives you a membership card.

You have just joined the Grosse Pointe Ski Club.

You have never been on skis in your life, and you're still not sure you want to try, but somebody or other you've obligated yourself...

It's movie night. You see movies of last year's ski trips, shots of the bus driver and some poor girl with a cast on her leg, laughing.

You see movies of skiing in South America. You can think of better things to do in South America than ski (like lying on the beach at Rio, for instance), but you watch anyway.

You see ski fashions, and you wonder if you're really the type for stretch pants and bunny-fur pixie hats.

As a qualified member, you vote for officers and a charter amendment; then you get a run-down on this year's schedule.

You realize that, for a moderate cash outlay and a minimum amount of effort, you can spend just about every weekend this winter on skis—AND take a three-week ski tour of Europe, early next spring.

It's a sobering thought.

After the business meeting, you have coffee with your fellow members. They all seem to wish it would begin to snow right now.

You don't. You're counting on the free-to-members Ski School, four Thursday lessons in the basement of the War Memorial, starting October 25.

And you have to buy some warm clothes before you go on your first trip. It might be a good idea to get some skis, too.

They say you can learn to like anything...

Both times she was raised and refitted.

Commandeered by the Navy in 1942, she was renamed the "USS Dauntless," and turned into a gunboat, flagship of Admiral Ernest J. King, chief of Naval operations. Her stack still bears Navy "hashmarks" denoting months of military service.

The 257-foot steamer was returned to Mrs. Dodge after the war.

Commission

to the ways and means of improving traffic conditions and the administration and enforcement of traffic regulations.

"The Woods has always been rated very high in its traffic safety activities," said Director of Public Safety Vern C. Bailey, "and has won many awards from the National Safety Council."

"I believe that with the fine assistance of this five-member commission, the citizens of Grosse Pointe Woods will have a finer and safer city. Our department will render every cooperation."

Under the ordinance, members of the CTSC shall be residents of the Woods, and no employee, or elected or appointed official of the city shall be eligible to serve on the Commission.

The commission is bound to hold at least one meeting a month, with all meetings open to the public.

Mrs. Leona Liddle, city clerk, is authorized by the new law to call the first meeting of the Commission, date not yet set, for the purpose of organization and will act as temporary chairman, until the group elects its own officers. Thereafter, the Commission will hold an annual election each January.

SAMARITAN HURT

Farms Patrolman Earl Field suffered a cut in his right index finger on Friday, October 12, when he attempted to open a window of a car owned by Mrs. Jacqueline Hernden of 12242 Champaign, Warren. The woman, who was attending a teachers convention at Grosse Pointe High School, locked her keys in the car, parked in the school lot, and called police for assistance. Field was treated at Cottage Hospital where six stitches were needed to close the wound.

Teachers' Group Holding Parley

The Grosse Pointe Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, honorary fraternity of women educators, will host approximately 200 members of the two Windsor chapters and the 16 chapters of southeastern Michigan on Saturday, October 20. The fraternity members are key women in education.

Virginia Johnston of Poupard School is chairman of the conference. Laura Mackeben, Grosse Pointe High School, the chapter president, will preside at the general session and at the luncheon where she will introduce the speaker, Dr. Ola Hiller, Director of Instructional Services, Flint Board of Education.

Hostesses of the day are Miss Warren Rhodes, Pierce Junior High School, Mrs. Virginia Hoffhies, Brownell Junior High School, and Mrs. Emily Harding Moellering, Barnes School.

Mrs. Frieda Lipkey of Grosse Pointe Woods and Mrs. Gladys Gies, Richard School prepared the art work for the Conference.

Big As Small Freighter

Her dimensions are comparable to those of small European freighters often seen in Detroit waters. She displaces 1,700 tons and, when loaded with 325,000 gallons of fuel oil and 200,000 gallons of water, draws 16½ feet.

Planned by Horace Dodge himself, who died shortly before her launching, she was designed by the famous New York naval architect H. J. Gielow, who has built into her such luxuries as smoking and music rooms in addition to elaborate radio and navigational facilities.

Until the visit of Queen Elizabeth's "Britannia," she was the largest yacht ever to sail the Great Lakes.

Methodists to Observe 'Quiet Day' October 31

Members of the Grosse Pointe Methodist Church will observe a week of Prayer and Self-Denial October 25 through October 31. "Quiet Day" is Wednesday, October 31, from 9:15 until 11 a.m. in the Church Sanctuary. Organ music will be presented by Mrs. Robert Shover, and Grosse Pointe area residents are invited to participate.

All chairmen are urged to attend the W.S.C.S. Executive Committee meeting Thursday, November 1.

REPORTS VANDALISM

Nicholas Billardello of 22412 Norcrest drive, St. Clair Shores, informed Farms police on Monday, October 8, that while his automobile was parked in the lot at the rear of Sears, Mack and Moross, an unknown person smashed the windshield and dented the right rear door and fender. ficers Virgil G. Beaupre and Thomas McLaughlin, Jr., questioned Charles, who stated that a colored man in a uniform, possibly a gas station attendant, got out of the car, checked to make sure he (Charles) was all right, then drove off.

Police checked all gas stations in the area, but were unable to locate a likely suspect. Charles could not elaborate on his description of the man, and was unable to name the make or color of the car.

The incident is still under investigation.

City Moves to New Offices

LAWRENCE C. SAVAGE, Grosse Pointe City Manager, helps transfer files from the old to the new City offices. The move was completed on schedule though a hitch in timing forced a last-minute switch in moving companies. The company which originally contracted for the 1 o'clock job a month ago telephoned at a quarter to 1 last Friday, moving day, to report that its truck would be several hours late. Another local company was contacted, responded immediately, and shortly after 2 p.m., the movers arrived. By Friday evening change-over had been completed, and City officials were ensconced in their new offices at 17147 Maumee, directly behind the Police-Fire Building.

Compiles List Of Scholarships

Congressman Harold M. Ryan, Democrat of the 14th Congressional District of Michigan, announces that he has compiled an extensive list of corporations, companies, foundations and organizations which provide scholarships to students who wish to continue their higher education.

"The compilation of this extensive information will be of great aid to all high school seniors who wish to pursue a higher education, because it will give each student a source to which he can apply for a scholarship," said Congressman Ryan.

Congressman Ryan further stated, "I am in the process of sending out this information to all the high school seniors of my Congressional District, whose names have been submitted to me by their high schools. It is my hope that many of the students will strive to obtain a scholarship in order to continue their education."

"We are now living in a world of rapid technological developments and our nation should not suffer in any way because of the lack of incentives in educating and training ourselves and our youngsters to meet this challenge. These scholarships will greatly assist in meeting the demands of present day necessities of education," said Congressman Ryan.

Ryan also stated, "We should encourage many able and qualified prospective students to go on to greater educational fields to provide the necessary qualified personnel to contend with the advancing concepts of present day society. The high cost of education bars many of our youth from becoming future technicians, scientists, mathematicians and other professional people."

METRO-CALLING SERVICE can help you get more things done faster and easier—by telephone. This optional, new telephone service offers you unlimited dialed calling throughout 80 communities in Detroit and the surrounding metropolitan area from 6 p.m. to 9 a.m. weekdays and all day Sunday, Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's. And you get a private line, and unlimited calling in your local calling area any time. The cost? Just $10.95 a month, plus tax. Why not call our Business Office and find out more about the many ways METRO-CALLING SERVICE can help you?

STORMY WEATHER'S ON THE WAY. And more than ever on those bitter cold days ahead, shopping by phone is the convenient thing to do. What could be faster, easier, and just plain cozier than ordering whatever you need by a few flicks of the telephone dial? So if the weather's the give-you-the-sniffles variety, or you just can't get away from the house, let your telephone do your running around for you. The Shop-by-Phone habit saves you time, saves you steps, saves YOU.

WE'RE PROUD TO SALUTE the men and women in the newspaper industry this week. National Newspaper Week, October 14-20, serves to remind us of their dedicated work in the endless job of keeping us a nation of well-informed citizens. And Michigan Bell is also proud of its own role in helping the newspapers in our state get the news to you quickly . . . for modern telephone equipment and facilities are an essential part of the newspapers' job of gathering and publishing the news.

Farms Submits Building Report

A monthly building report submitted by Farms City Engineer Murray M. Smith disclosed that 10 construction permits were issued during September, worth an assessed valuation of $39,000.

One permit was for a residential building valued at $26,000; and nine permits were for miscellaneous construction, worth $13,000.

Since January 1, according to Smith's report, a total of 90 building permits, valued at $1,186,200, were issued by his department. Of these, 19 were for residential construction valued at a total of $771,000; 68 were for miscellaneous building, worth $232,200; one was for a business building, valued at $33,000; and two permits were for nonassessable buildings, valued at $150,000.

The one permit for residential construction last month was for a home at 217 Muir road.

Cinema League To See Movie

The Grosse Pointe Cinema League will present "Fabulous Mexico" by William Kennedy, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, next Thursday evening, October 25, at 8 o'clock.

The color movie will feature many stops off the beaten path. Mr. Kennedy drove his own car and was able to get movies of many places that conducted tours do not cover.

The movie will take you down the Pan-American highway through Laredo, Texas to Mexico City. All of the sights in Mexico City, Taxco, and Acapulco are covered in beautiful color.

Cuernavaca is the town where Mexicans say there are more pretty girls than any other place in Mexico. Cuernavaca is also the site of Cortez's palace with the famous wall murals by Diego Rivera. Diego Rivera was commissioned to do the murals by the one time United States Consul Dwight Morrow.

In the town of Tuluco you will see shots of people engaged in marketing and street vendors selling straw dolls, baskets and beautiful handmade pottery.

Lake Patzcuaco is seldom seen by the average tourist. The city of Guanajuato is the same today as in colonial times. Its charm and picturesqueness are wonderful to behold.

Preceding the main program will be a brief 10 minute informative talk on "Three Types of Reflex Viewers for Movie Cameras".

This meeting of the Cinema League is open to the Grosse Pointe public free of charge. You may join the Cinema League without being a photographer. Some members are beginners and other members are advanced photographers. Still other members are non-photographers who just like to watch travel movies.

Former Officer Earns Thanks

A resolution of appreciation was adopted on Monday, October 15, by the Farms council and directed to be given to retired Patrolman Peter LaPonsa who left the force on September 17, after more than 33 years of service.

The officer left the department on August 20, but because of accumulative vacation and leave time, his retirement did not become official until the September date.

LaPonsa, 60, who lives at 314 Stephens road, is a native of New Baltimore, Mich. He joined the Farms Police Department June 4, 1929.

He is married to the former Sarah Catherine O'Connor of Orillia, Ont. They have a daughter, Mrs. John Louis (Sarah Ann) Bowles, who lives in Chatham, Ont. Mrs. Bowles is a graduate of the Pointe's Sacred Heart Convent.

LaPonsa's replacement on the Farms Force is James Bliss, 22, son of city Fireman and Mrs. Evelyn Bliss of 884 St. Clair.

Bliss's grandfather, the late Edward Brys, retired from the Woods Department of Public Safety in 1950.

The new Farms recruit is a 1956 graduate of Grosse Pointe High School. Shortly after his graduation in January, he joined the United States Navy and was honorably discharged in March 1961, with the rating of third-class machinist mate.

He is single and lives with his parents. He is a native Pointer.

Car Hits Pole; Two Injured

Katherine M. Lemker of 4849 Springle, Detroit, was ticketed by Farms police on Saturday, October 13, following an accident at Moross and Lake Shore, in which she and a passenger in her car were injured.

Miss Lemker, 19, was charged with not having her car under control and causing an accident. She had lost control and crashed into an Edison pole.

Police said that the girl was making a right turn onto Moross from Lake Shore and scraped the left fender of a car driven by Arno F. Newmaier of 5590 Lakeview, Detroit.

Miss Lemker swerved and lost control of the car, owned by her passenger, Robert F. Vaughn of 118 Monterey, Highland Park. The vehicle jumped the curb and slammed into the pole.

Farms firemen conveyed the girl and Vaughn to Cottage Hospital, Miss Lemker, for treatment of an injured nose, and Vaughn for treatment of a lacerated right elbow and head injuries.

Police estimated damage to Vaughn's car at $500; to the utility pole, $50; and to Newmaier's vehicle, $2. The latter's car only had a single scratch on the fender.

Miss Lemker is scheduled to appear in Farms court on November 7.

Teaches Plans For Retirement

Planning for a retirement career is an important phase of each individual's life, and experts have suggested that the age of fifty is not too soon to begin formulating your own personal blueprint for the future.

The Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Public School System is happy to present "Preparation for Retirement," a ten-week seminar, which will begin on Thursday, October 25 at 7:30 in the evening.

Seminar Leader will be Wilbur E. Landis, Administrator, Pre-Retirement Counseling of Chrysler Corporation. Mr. Landis is a veteran of thirty-four years' experience in the personnel field, and for the past two years has been conducting retirement counseling programs for key management and technical personnel at the Chrysler Corporation.

"Planning your retirement career," explains Mr. Landis, "will help you to anticipate and to prepare for what can be many enjoyable years of retirement. The seminar sessions, open to both husband and wife, will be conducted on an informal, problem-solving basis. Lectures, discussions, cases, guest resource persons, and appropriate films with handout materials will be used to help individuals acquire the kind of information they need to make realistic plans for retirement careers. Please bear in mind that the earlier plans are made, the better. It might be suggested that age 50 is certainly not too early to begin work on this very important part of life."

The seminar outline will cover: I. — "Looking Ahead to Living"; II. — "Food Guides for Better Health in Later Years"; III. — "Improving Physical and Mental Health"; IV & V. — "Economic Security in Retirement"; VI. — "Social Security Benefits"; VII. — "Replacing Work Values in Retirement"; VIII. — "Family Life and Use of Leisure Time"; IX. — "Living Arrangements in Retirement"; and X. — General Summary and Review.

Will yours be a successful retirement? It should be, and it can be. For your reservation in this course it is IMPORTANT that you call the Department of Community Services, 43 Grosse Pointe boulevard, at TU 5-3808 or TU 5-0271, as enrollment is limited in this course.

Theology Expert To Speak Here

The opportunity to hear one of the country's outstanding men in the theological teaching field will be welcomed by Grosse Pointers seeking the answer to the question, "How to Read the Bible."

A. Denis Baly, chairman of the Department of Religion at Kenyon College, lecturer, author and authority on the Middle East, will speak at 8 p.m. Monday, October 22, and at 10:45 a.m. Tuesday, October 23, in the undercroft of Christ Episcopal Church.

In his Tuesday morning lecture he will discuss, "What is the Gospel?" Lunch (price 75 cents) will follow Mr. Baly's talk at 12:15. An open coffee hour is planned for Monday evening with Mr. Baly as the guest of honor.

Mr. Baly was born in Liverpool, England, and upon graduation from the University of Liverpool, he taught in France and in various schools in the Middle East, ending as Headmaster of St. George's Episcopal Church in New York. He has been on the Kenyon College faculty since 1956, lecturing in Old Testament, Bexley Hall, and in Political Science, in addition to his other responsibilities.

His published works have been acclaimed by laymen as well as the clergy. Among his best known works are "Chosen People," "Multitudes in the Valley," a book on the Middle Eastern situation, "Besieged City," dealing with the role of the Christian Church in the entire world, and "Academic Illusion." He is now working on a "Geographical Companion to the Bible," and will take a leave of absence from Kenyon to continue with his geographical research in Iran and in the Syrian-Lebanese area.

After his arrival in this country he served as visiting lecturer in World Christianity in

Club to Hear Rescue Expert

Rescue breathing—a method of artificial respiration so simple that it can be used successfully by children as well as adults—will be demonstrated at the Tuesday, October 23, meeting of the Grosse Pointe Exchange Club.

Donald Caird of Detroit Edison's employe relations department will give instructions in mouth-to-mouth resuscitation and discuss emergency situations in which the method can be used.

The audience also will view a training film on the subject and have an opportunity to practice rescue breathing on a specially designed manikin.

The meeting will be held at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial and is scheduled to begin with dinner at 6:30 p.m.

Legion Ladies To Hold Dance

The Grosse Pointe American Legion Auxiliary No. 308, 20016 Mack avenue, is sponsoring a costume dance on October 27.

St. Paul Ev. Lutheran Church of Grosse Pointe Farms will observe Youth Sunday on October 21.

Vicar Jerald Borgie will preach the sermon at both the 8:30 and the 11 a.m. worship services. Young people of the church will also have a part in the service. They will serve as greeters and ushers and a twenty voice High School Girls' choir will sing, accompanied by Miss Margene Scyler at the organ.

Miss Janice Bamberger will give a brief address on the youth program of St. Paul Church; Bill Horvath will read the lessons and Dave Matuschek will lead the congregation in closing prayer.

In the afternoon at 4 o'clock the young people will witness a 72 minute film entitled "The Unfinished Task." The entire community is invited to the Youth Sunday services and all youth are also cordially invited to the evening meeting.

St. Paul Yearbook Wins Top Award

The Paulite, publication of St. Paul's High School has been judged the best of winners in five categories in an annual competition, described in detail below. Pictured are: SISTER JAMES MATHILDA, O.P., St. Paul; LORRAINE SUPRUNOWICZ of Modern Yearbook, producer of the Paulite; KEN MELDRUM, the Editor of the 1963 Paulite; REV. JAMES MAGMER, S.J., Founder and Director of the Detroit Student Press Association and also head of the University of Detroit Journalism Department; and SISTER MARY JEREMIAS, O.P., of St. Paul. Sisters James Mathilda and Mary Jeremias were the advisers of the 1962 Paulite.

Life, personality; 2. complete coverage; 3. dignity; 4. carefully edited, and 5. interest for people who have no connection with school. Various quotations are taken directly from judge's comments: "The Paulite far exceeded my expectations; it is not just good, it is truly superior. You do a fine job of imparting that 'That's just the way it was' feeling — and the reader is convinced that the way it was was pretty wonderful!"

One book is chosen, in each of five classes based upon number of student enrollment, out of those books which have been placed in First Place Award category by the judges who have analyzed all the books in the competition. The one book in each class that is chosen as top in that classification wins a Commander Award. This year the commander awards went to the following:

Class 1—Largest size enrollment: Juggler, Notre Dame High School, Harper Woods.
 Class 2—Saldet, Salesian High School, Detroit.
 Class 3—Paulite, Grosse Pointe Farms, St. Paul High School.
 Class 4—St. Alphonsus High School, Dearborn, Mich.
 Class 5—Sacred Heart Academy, Cleveland, Ohio.

Of these Commanders, the 1962 Paulite was selected as the best and awarded the Michael Award at the fourth annual convention of the Detroit Student Press Association at the University of Detroit.
 Judges gave the following reasons for choice of Paulite: 1. TIP TO MOTORISTS The motorist who thinks doesn't drink because a drinking driver doesn't think.
 NARROW-MINDED None are so blind as those people who allow their prejudices to render them sightless.

Donald Schrom Holding Show

A one man show by Pointe artist Donald Schrom is being held at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center, October 14, to October 28.

The exhibit rooms which are on the second floor are open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. and from 12-5 p.m. on Sundays. It is wise, however, to telephone before coming to view as the rooms are sometimes occupied by meetings.

Donald Schrom is a graduate of the Art Institute in Chicago and Bowling Green State University. He currently serves as Grosse Pointe Elementary Schools Art Supervisor.

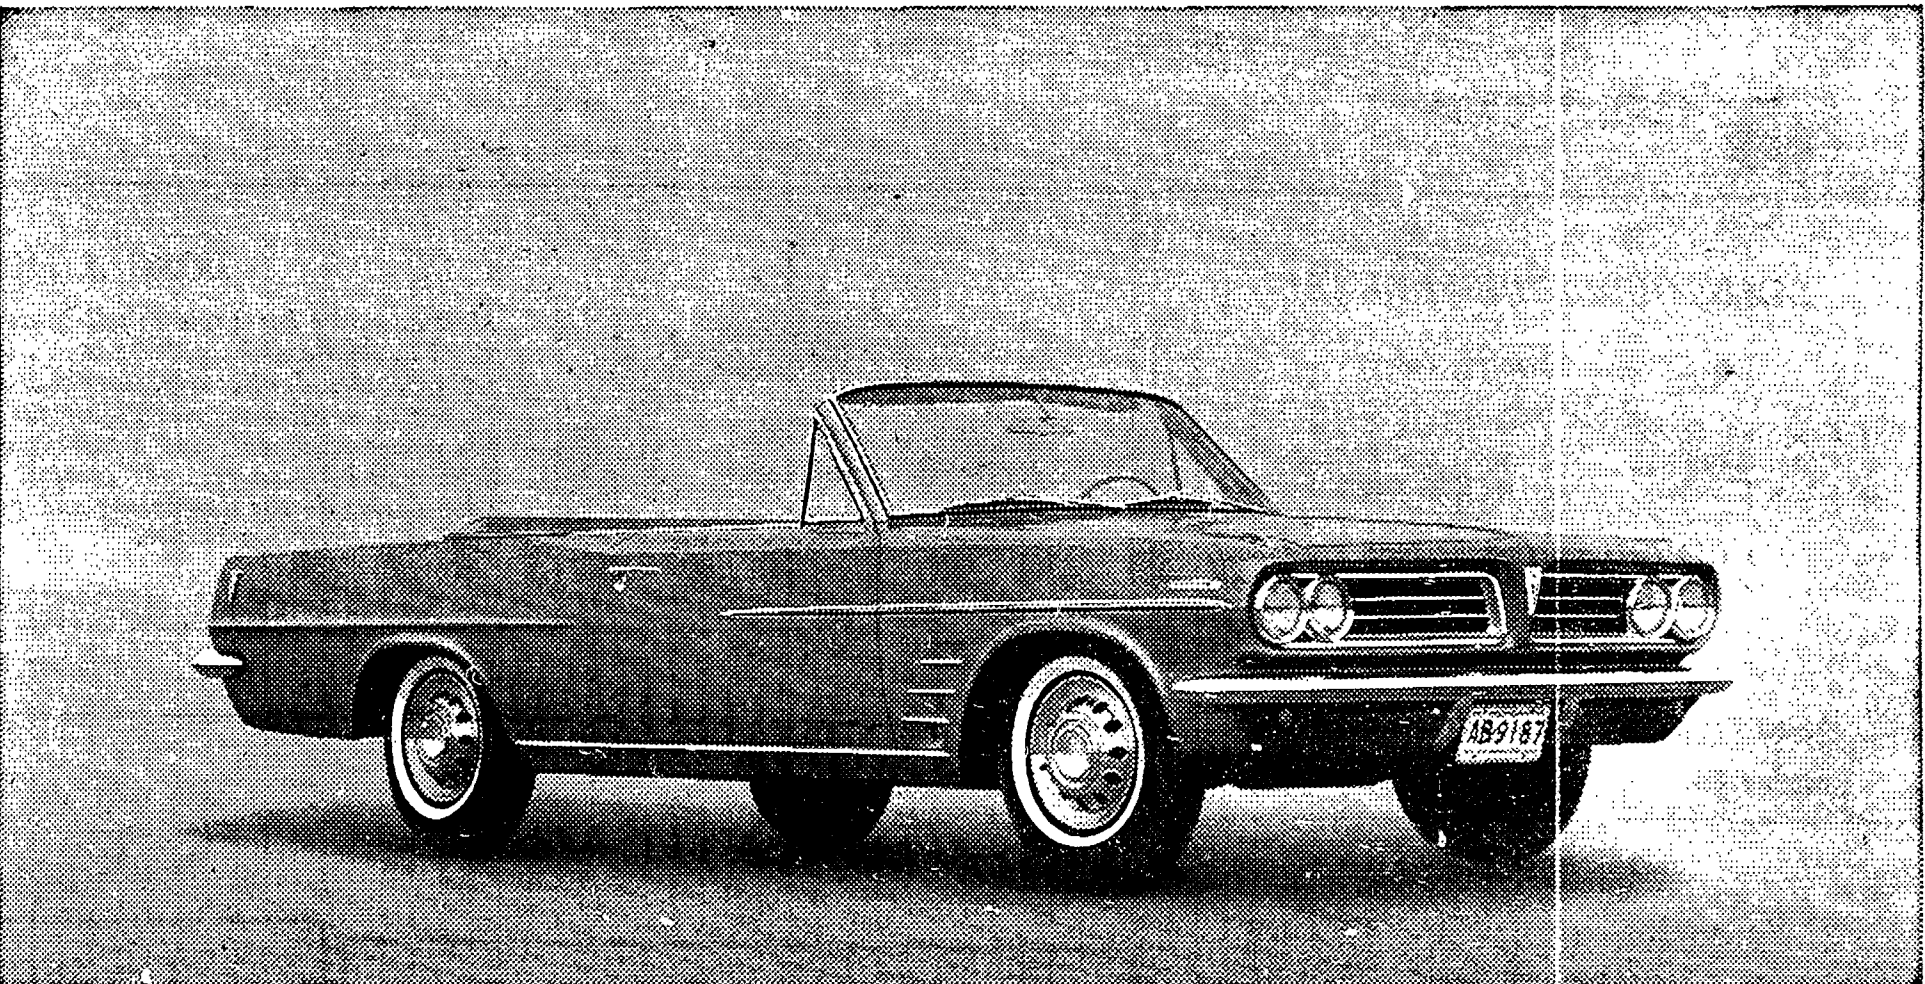

Mr. Schrom's works have been seen before in this area only at The Detroit Artists Market and at Bowling Green State University. His works are essentially realistic but with very original interpretations of color.

He is exhibiting ten oils, twenty-five watercolors and several works of mixed media involving wax crayon, india ink, and waterbase paint. Subjects of these pictures are still lifes or rural scenes.

Parcells PTA Meets Oct. 24

The first meeting of the Parcells Junior High School Parent-Teacher Association, entitled "A Day in the Classroom," will be held on Wednesday evening, October 24, at 7:30 p.m.

Every student at Parcells has sent his parents an invitation to this evening of classes, and a copy of his regular Wednesday class schedule. When the bell rings at 7:30, all parents should be seated in the first period classes of their children.

In each class meeting of 15 minutes, teachers will explain to parents the purpose of the course, the daily routines, methods and materials used, typical assignments and tests, and ways of evaluating each student's progress. It is hoped that as the parents follow the schedule of the children, they will come to a better understanding of each subject and of the total demands made on a child in a school day.

There will be five minutes allowed between each class period, and monitors will be on duty to help fathers and mothers to find the assigned rooms. All Wednesday classes will be explained, including the academic subjects, physical education, junior homemaking, guidance, art, music, industrial arts and conversational French.

If a study hall or service period is part of a student's Wednesday schedule, parents are invited to enjoy a coffee break or to explore the building. All display cases will have informative exhibits; bulletin boards will feature student work, and the special equipment for science and language laboratories will be available for inspection.

Parents are urged to visit the school library which now contains more than 6000 volumes for pleasure reading and reference use. Many new books will be on display to help parents become familiar with the wide range of material available to interest and inform the modern student.

Throughout the evening coffee will be served in the Girls'

Kercheval-on-the-Hill Played Host

The Ladies of the American Urological Association Convention visited the Hill last week to shop and view the Artist's Street Market. General chairman of the convention was MRS. HARRY E. LICHTWARDT and MRS.

GUY W. SEWELL was entertainment chairman. Others serving the committee were MRS. DAVID SIEGEL, Mrs. Harry M. Domzalski, Mrs. David S. Randall, Mrs. J. J. Dudek, Mrs. Sherwin Lutz, and Mrs. Julius Stern.

Lt. John Weed Makes 300th Jet Landing

Lt. John W. Weed, whose parents Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Weed live at 534-Cadieux Rd., made his 300th carrier landing when his A4D-2 Skyhawk jet bomber landed on the flight deck of the Seventh Fleet attack carrier USS Midway (CVA-41) September 15.

The 62,000-ton carrier was operating in Far Eastern waters when Lieutenant Weed's supersonic jet caught one of the Midway's arresting cables, making the 32-year-old lieutenant the ship's fourth triple centurian pilot.

Lieutenant Weed, of Attack Squadron 23, has made all of his landings on the Midway.

FARMS TO BUY OIL

After the landing, Weed was called to the Flag Bridge where he was congratulated by Seventh Fleet Commander Vice Admiral William A. Schoech, who was aboard Midway to observe flight operations, and the Commander of Carrier Division Three, Rear Admiral Daniel F. Smith, Jr., who flies his flag on the Midway.

FARMS TO BUY OIL

On Monday, October 15, the Farms council accepted a low bid from the Shores Oil company to sell fuel oil to the city, for the Pier Park and the Water Filtration Plant, for a total cost of $2,586.30, for 21,300 gallons of oil. The bid was the lowest of five submitted.

Dual-Licensed Driver Ticketed

Thomas G. Quinlan, 19, of 6303 Radnor, Detroit, is scheduled to appear before Woods Judge Don Goodrow on November 17, for having an illegal operator's license and for running a red light.

Quinlan was arrested by Patrolmen Robert Setchell and Bernard Kelly on Monday, October 1, when the officers observed the youth commit the traffic violation, at 2:40 a.m., going north on Mack avenue. He ignored the light at Cook road.

After stopping the youth, the officers asked him for his driver's license, and the youth produced a card case with several forms of identification, including a license.

Gym, and at the close of the sixth period parents and teachers will gather there for a social hour. All of the Homeroom Mothers will be serving as the hospitality committee, under the direction of Mrs. Bernard Martin, mother vice-president of the Parcells P.T.A.

Thieves Rob Woods Visitor

An out-of-town visitor in the Woods was a victim of thieves who broke into his car during the night of Friday, October 12, and stole some of his clothing.

The victim, Charles W. Siefert, 38, of 4210 Ferry street, Grandville, Mich., told police that he was visiting at 1953 Norwood and his car was parked in front of the house. At daybreak, he discovered that his automobile had been forcibly entered and the items gone.

Taken, according to his report to authorities, were a man's black suit, valued at $75, a dark blue raincoat, valued at $25, and a brown briefcase, bearing the initials "WHS," worth $10.

The matter was referred to Det. Sgt. Walter O'Dell and Det. Leroy Tobian for investigation.

Good Literature Week Proclaimed To Open School

By special proclamation, the week of October 15-22, has been declared "Better Literature for Youth Week" by Michigan Governor John B. Swainson and Detroit Mayor Jerome Cavanagh. Similar proclamations have been issued by Grosse Pointe community mayors and officials of 22 metropolitan Detroit suburbs which have Better Literature Councils, with special programs, newspaper features, library displays and other activities which will highlight the role of the Better Literature Council within the community.

Special literature designed as a salute to the public library will be available at all Grosse Pointe Library branches and bookstores will feature fine books for the young reader and will display copies of the official "Better Literature for Youth" proclamations by the Governor and Detroit's Mayor.

As an additional feature of the week, a delightful entertainment for children (from one to ninety) called "A Fantasy in Puppetland" will be held at the Neighborhood Club on Saturday, October 20. Two complete performances will be given at 9:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. The admission is a donation of 25 cents and all the children of the community and their friends are cordially invited to attend.

The program includes two favorite fairy tales by Hans Christian Andersen—"Thumbelina" and "The Little Mermaid"—plus four original plays—"The Greedy Witch," "Tiger Stadium," "Did you ever see a dream walking?" and "The Little Candle Girl."

Barbara Wenzel of Cloverly road, who designed and made most of the Puppets and wrote the script, is in charge of the production. The ushers who will wear attractive "pixie" costumes are Mary Ann Donath, Mary Beth Stone, Carol Sue Jones, Nancy Falzone, Darlene Green and Deborah Hoben.

Sometimes the fellow who is bent on going to the dogs goes broke playing the ponies.

Nab Shoplifter In Woods Store

William H. Rouse, 21, of 20919 Van Antwerp, Harper Woods, was charged with shoplifting by Woods police on Tuesday, October 9.

According to police, Rouse entered the J. C. Penney store at 19251 Mack avenue and looked over some sport coats, took one from a rack and went into a fitting room to try it on.

Clarence Ebersole, assistant store manager, told police that Rouse emerged from the room, but appeared not to have the coat with him.

A salesman approached Rouse, and the youth purchased a pair of slacks. When the salesman asked Rouse if he was interested in opening a charge account, Rouse asked for an application which he filled with false information.

Rouse left the store to go to a nearby restaurant and was followed by Ebersole who spoke to the youth and took him back to the store, where Rouse produced the coat which he had hidden under his shirt and sweater.

Police were called and took Rouse into custody and drove him to the station for further questioning. After his statement to the authorities, the hood was set and Rouse's father was called. The parent posted the bond.

Emory M. Ford Olivet Trustee

Emory M. Ford, a prominent Detroit businessman, has recently been elected as member of the Olivet College Board of Trustees, Olivet, Michigan. Ford is Chairman of the Wyandotte Chemicals Corporation's Board of Directors. He is also a Director of the following firms: Manufacturer's National Bank of Detroit; Consolidation Coal Company; Difco Laboratories, Inc.; Portland Cement Association; and the Cutler-Magner Company of which he is a Vice-President.

Born in Detroit, Michigan, on April 19, 1906, Mr. Ford completed his high school work at St. Paul's School, Concord, New Hampshire, in 1924. He is a graduate of Princeton University, class of 1928. Ford is an active alumnus of the University. At the present time, he is a member of the Board of Directors of the Princeton Club of Michigan. His services include membership on the Alumni Council as a representative of the Michigan chapter.

PURSE, CASH GONE

Mrs. Rockwell T. Gust, Jr., of 55 Muskoka, reported to Farms police that her purse was either stolen or lost from a basket at Kroger Supermarket, 18870 Mack avenue, on Tuesday, October 2. She said the purse contained $155 in cash and personal papers.

Bishop to Preach At St. Michael's

On Sunday, October 21, St. Michael's Episcopal Church will celebrate the Fifteenth Anniversary of its founding.

The Rector, the Reverend Edgar H. Yeoman, announces that in honor of this event the Right Reverend Russell Sturgis Hubbard, D.D., Bishop of Spokane, will preach at both the 9:30 and 11:15 services.

Bishop Hubbard, formerly Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese of Michigan, was present for the laying of the cornerstone and for the dedication of the Church, the first unit of the new complete St. Michael's buildings.

The public is cordially invited to attend either of the above services.

The Third Factor in Drinking Water

All drinking water should be good to taste—and safe. In Mountain Valley Water you have a third factor. Its regular use is beneficial for your health.

Mountain Valley Water helps to expel systemic waste rapidly. It aids in neutralizing excess acidity. It is virtually salt-free.

This is the same Mountain Valley Water often advised to aid in treatment of arthritis and kidney symptoms. When so used, your doctor will advise the correct daily intake. Usually, 6 to 8 glasses daily for 8 or more weeks offer a fair trial.

Thomas Cavanaugh, 18, of 189 Earl court, convicted of being a disorderly person by Shores Judge John Gillis on Monday, October 1, will have to work two full days to repay a fine of $20, it was disclosed by his parents.

Cavanaugh was arrested on Saturday, September 29, when he became involved in a fight with a party crasher at 30 Hawthorne road, blackening his opponent's eye.

The youth was invited to a party at the Hawthorne address, given by a 16-year-old girl for a few Grosse Pointe High School seniors.

When a large group of invited teenagers arrived, police were called to send them away. The first dispersal was orderly.

A second and much larger group of boys and girls came, and Cavanaugh was asked to inform the newcomers that the party was a private one.

A complaining neighbor in Hawthorne road, called police, stating that the boys and girls were making a spectacle of themselves, and that several youths were sick from too much drinking, and beer bottles and cans and liquor bottles were strewn over lawns.

Shores Patrolmen Joseph Vitale and Donald Jacob, dispatched to the scene by Lt. George LaForest, arrived a second time to witness approximately 80 youths in front of the house, all party crashers, and a number of them intoxicated.

As Vitale and Jacob were breaking up the crowd, Vitale saw Cavanaugh punch a youth in a car driven by Kerry Wildey, 18, of 21717 Rausch, East Detroit.

Wildey pulled away from the curb, and careened down Hawthorne and almost ran down Officer Jacob, who tried to flag Wildey to a stop. The youth was arrested by Woods police who were called to assist the Shores policemen.

Farms Youth Works Off Fine

Thomas Cavanaugh, 18, of 189 Earl court, convicted of being a disorderly person by Shores Judge John Gillis on Monday, October 1, will have to work two full days to repay a fine of $20, it was disclosed by his parents.

Cavanaugh was arrested on Saturday, September 29, when he became involved in a fight with a party crasher at 30 Hawthorne road, blackening his opponent's eye.

The youth was invited to a party at the Hawthorne address, given by a 16-year-old girl for a few Grosse Pointe High School seniors.

When a large group of uninvited teenagers arrived, police were called to send them away. The first dispersal was orderly.

A second and much larger group of boys and girls came, and Cavanaugh was asked to inform the newcomers that the party was a private one.

A complaining neighbor in Hawthorne road, called police, stating that the boys and girls were making a spectacle of themselves, and that several youths were sick from too much drinking, and beer bottles and cans and liquor bottles were strewn over lawns.

Shores Patrolmen Joseph Vitale and Donald Jacob, dispatched to the scene by Lt. George LaForest, arrived a second time to witness approximately 80 youths in front of the house, all party crashers, and a number of them intoxicated.

As Vitale and Jacob were breaking up the crowd, Vitale saw Cavanaugh punch a youth in a car driven by Kersch, East 18, of 21717 Rausch, West Detroit.

Wildy pulled away from the curb, and careened down Hawthorne and almost ran down Officer Jacob, who tried to flag Wildy to a stop. The youth was arrested by Wood's police who were called to assist the Shores policemen.

Cavanaugh was arrested on complaint of Frank C. Jacques, 18, of 21809 David, East Detroit, who later rescinded his charges and failed to sign a formal complaint.

Vitale and Jacob said that Cavanaugh told them that he struck Jacques in the eye, when Jacques, Wildy and another boy in the car threatened to make trouble, when they were asked to leave.

The officers said that Cavanaugh was very cooperative and his "refreshing honesty" was a factor in the light fine imposed by Judge Gillis, who also commended the youth for his gentlemanly appearance and behavior.

The Shores policemen said that when Jacques failed to press charges, they had no alternative but to file a disorderly person charge against Cavanaugh since they had witnessed his striking the other youth. The officers said Cavanaugh had not been drinking.

Judge Gillis imposed the $20 fine to impress upon Cavanaugh the danger of taking the law into his own hands, stating that Cavanaugh should have kept his head and called police.

Wildy was fined $75 for reckless driving on the same date the hearing was held on Cavanaugh.

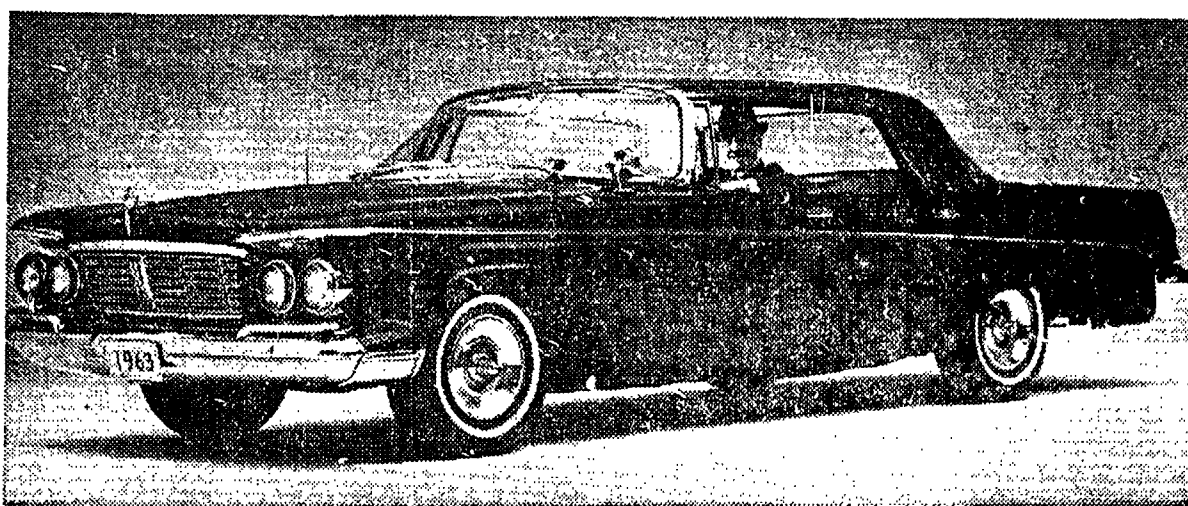

Over a period of several hours, prior to midnight September 29, more than 200 teenagers, all party crashers, made a mess of the neighborhood, forcing a Hawthorne resident to complain to police.

The resident, a woman whose name is withheld, said that the incident of the party crashing was the worst 'donnybrook' with teenagers on her street that could be imagined.

NAB YOUNG IMBIBERS

City police arrested three 16-year-olds at the foot of Stratford for illegal possession of beer on Friday evening, October 12. The teenagers were released to their parents pending a Juvenile Court appearance.

GPHS Students Win Top Honors

Four Grosse Pointe High School June graduates received a rating of "five," highest possible score, on Advanced Placement examinations, and 14 other students were given a "four" rating, equivalent to a "with honors" designation.

The four "fivers" include Wolfgang Baer, intermediate German; Cynthia Gilliat, English; Mike Simson, Latin; and Mary Steele, American History.

Those scoring "four" are Robert Bray and Mike Simson, both class of '62, who earned the "with honors" designation on the math test; Jennifer Clarke, Don Owens and Mary Staufer, all '62s, and Jenny Longe and Leslie Woodcock, '63s, given "fours" in American History; Anne Garner and Linda Ruester, both '62, who scored "four" in English; and Cynthia Gilliat and Sharon Pastor, also '62s, who earned "fours" in Latin.

A score of "four" on the intermediate German test was awarded John Schonenberg, '62, and 46 other students received a "three" or "good" rating. Of these 46, 14 were adjudged as "three" calibre in English, ten in American History, eight in math, and four in intermediate German.

An additional 22 students scored "two" on the tests, and six students rated a "one." High School Guidance Coordinator Dr. Robert J. Hanson is waiting for reports on how much college credit these students have been granted on the basis of their test scores.

Center Offers Yoga Courses

Classes in Yoga will be offered at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center, 32 Lake Shore road, on Tuesday evenings beginning October 30, at 8 o'clock.

The instructor will be George O. Johnston, Jr., who received his training through the Self-Realization Fellowship following graduation from Yale where he was a philosophy major.

Yoga as presented at the War Memorial will have two primary aims — relaxation to relieve nervous tension and better physical fitness. Exercise will be taught that relaxes different parts of the body and calms the mind. At the same time, these exercises strengthen the muscles, improve the circulation and contribute to a slimmer waistline. Controlled breathing and concentration increase the benefits.

George Johnston became interested in Yoga as a result of his philosophy studies at Yale. Following graduation, he was introduced to Indra Devi's book "Yoga For Americans." This work interprets and adapts the Hindu philosophy-science and way of life into terms compatible with and adaptable to life in the United States. Mr. Johnston subsequently became affiliated with the Yoga Self-Realization Fellowship which meets at the Detroit Art Institute. He now is extending their exercises and techniques to the group forming at the center.

All who are interested in participating in this new Yoga class are urged to call the War Memorial, TU 1-7511, to enroll. The class will meet ten successive weeks. There is a small fee of $10.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

Through the generosity of the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library, each spring, for the past number of years, we have received a sum of money to purchase books of a luxury nature—books which we would not feel we could afford to buy with public funds. The volumes purchased this year are now cataloged and will be on display in the three Grosse Pointe Public Libraries from October 14-27. To what your interest, we are listing below a few of the titles purchased. Unless otherwise specified, they are all available in each agency.

Jordan, R. F. WORLD OF GREAT ARCHITECTURE. This book contains beautiful, full-color photographs to illustrate this account of the development of European architecture during the last 2,500 years. The text appears on grey antique paper.

Lloyd, Christopher. SHIPS AND SEAMEN. A unified collection of photographs, cartoons, reproductions and diagrams on the history of the sea. It includes exploits of the sea captains, pirates and adventurers, historic battles, and should appeal to the naval enthusiast as well as the superficial browser.

Niles, J. J. BALLAD BOOK. More than 100 songs collected by the author in the Appalachian Mountains. It is a fine collection complemented by handsome black and white illustrations. This is a major collection.

Wagner, Ray. AMERICAN COMBAT PLANES. This book shows the development of Army, Navy and Air Force combat planes from the first World War to the present. Truly a handsome volume.

Bertin, Leon. LAROUSSE ENCYCLOPEDIA OF THE EARTH. This is an account of the physical characteristics and history of our planet, with black and white illustrations as well as colored. A fine, up-to-date survey of earth science.

LAROUSSE ENCYCLOPEDIA OF GEOGRAPHY: EUROPE. Another Larousse production, superbly written, meticulously edited and richly illustrated. Each country is described with attention to characteristics of the land, climate, people, language, agriculture, industry, commerce and transportation.

Sanderson, I. T. THE CONTINENT WE LIVE ON. A zoologist, writer and lecturer travelled 50,000 miles over our continent to produce this entertainingly written and richly illustrated volume. This is a good example of fine craftsmanship on the part of the

Letter Rouses Opposition

To the Editor:

We note with interest a letter from William Scott Burke, printed in the Grosse Pointe News editorial column, September 27 last. We cannot agree with the Editor of the paper that Mr. Burke presents an "unimpaired and impartial view" of the issues involved in the use of the Neighborhood Club property by the Foundation for Exceptional Children. May we in turn make these comments:

1. We do agree that those in favor of the site have based their case upon an emotional plea. That, however, is their prerogative.

2. Mr. Burke accuses those on the other side of repeating fallacious assumptions, but fails to mention what these fallacious assumptions might be.

3. We agree that the Neighborhood Club is privately owned and maintained for recreation. We do not agree that its use is confined to residents of the five Grosse Pointe communities. The fact is that it is used by residents of Detroit, St. Clair Shores and other cities.

4. The residents of the City of Grosse Pointe do not refer to the Neighborhood Club as "their" recreational facility, intending that the other communities in Grosse Pointe should be excluded. The truth remains, however, that it is the only area in the City, except for the Park, which is available for recreation. The same situation does not generally exist in the other Grosse Points.

5. Mr. Burke suggests the residents of the City petition the Council to purchase the Neighborhood Club for the exclusive use of the City. In the first instance, no one to our knowledge has ever contended it should be for our exclusive use. As we have noted, the Club is and has been used by residents of Detroit, St. Clair Shores, and, we understand, it has been used also by residents of East Detroit, Roseville and other communities, including far-away Dearborn. We have no objection to the present program, but note well, Gentlemen, that the present facilities are already taxed to their capacity. In addition, we understand that the City has not sufficient money at this time to purchase any further recreational area, because the Park has just been completed.

6. Mr. Burke makes several statements concerning the legal aspects of the situation. It seems obvious that the legal problems are not so easily resolved as he assumes. The present controversy would not have arisen if he were correct in his suppositions.

7. The writer of the letter contended that the residents of Grosse Pointe have not been supporting the Neighborhood Club, and thus the Club had to seek United Foundation financial aid in the past. What makes him think the residents have not supported the Club? His statement is not supported by any facts submitted by him.

8. Mr. Burke refers to a higher echelon of government assuming our responsibilities as well as our crying about big spending and welfare spending. It is a new issue, one raised for the first time by him alone. Let us confine our discussion to pertinent points.

In substance, the letter begs the basic issues, supplies no new information, and is simply argument unsupported by any factual data whatsoever. The problem still remains that recreational facilities are already too limited. The solution is not easy and not as simple as Mr. Burke would have you believe. We know that you will give this matter every consideration and every study.

Thank you for your attention.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

On September 17, 1962, the Grosse Pointe City Council held a public hearing regarding the locating of the Foundation for Exceptional Children on the property of the Neighborhood Club. The people at this meeting were basically concerned with the fact that they did not want their children to be associated with retarded or handicapped children.

This is why they do not want the school located on this property. Not one of them has ever stopped to think that if it were their children they would want the best possible facilities, which they do not have now but would have had, had they the building on the site stated above.

I have volunteered at the school for three years and I know how cramped they are for space. In order for these children to be able to learn fully, they need more room.

Citizens of Grosse Pointe, please let these children have a chance to learn like any normal child and under the same conditions. Please let the school build on this property.

Thanking you for your consideration to my letter, I remain,

Sincerely yours,
 Jean Barron,
 1741 Hollywood.

How to swallow a bitter pill

By FRED KOPP, R. Ph.

First, find a bitter pill. There are so few nowadays. It all started because children, bless 'em, are so good at resisting bad-tasting medicine. You can medicate their chins or hair, but getting the stuff in them is beyond the ken of science. Kids can spit a country mile. So pharmacists began sugar-coating pills, putting medication in capsules, or mixing with sweet syrup. And we soon found that adults, too, like medicine the easy way. So now, most of our prescriptions are quite pleasant to take. If you should run into one of the few bitter ones believe us, there are good medical reasons for it.

This is the 93rd of a series of Editorial advertisements appearing in this paper each week.

What's New on THE HILL...

By Roberta

CRACKER BARRELS and chairs near the stove... it WAS an era. The American retailer has evolved into a unique civic institution faced with the reality that much of what is offered, or will be offered, to the community will be taken for granted. But realistically interprets that as a compliment to his stature in the community. A community's assumption, that the retailer is always going to meet the challenge, that he is going to produce, that he will meet a legitimate civic need, is after all, a distinct mark of respect. This is true here. Every store on the Hill believes that it is an institution whose main purpose is "making life better" for individuals and for the community as a whole.

Civic Minded
 Grosse Pointer's who planned an afternoon of shopping on the Hill had fun last Thursday. The buses unloaded in the parking lot while the ladies visited the stores and took in the Artist's Street Market.

One Gal
 you know achieves glamour by combing her hair in an unusual way... another by the way she speaks... another by the way she walks. Regardless of the tricks... they have one thing in common... good grooming. That is why she'll dote on Elizabeth's Arden Body Cream... so delicate... so creamy... so relaxing... at Trail Apothecary Shop.

When You Turn
 the pages of the Grosse Pointe News this week look carefully at page 8. You'll find news about suit fashions... a miniature light... good things from Bookbinder's, the very old-restaurant... new robes... silver pieces... Irish Coffees... monogramming of practically every kind of gift... clever new lamps... cruises, and more.

Before coming home the Waldbotts will visit their son-in-law and daughter, Baron and Baroness Anders Ramsay, of Stockholm.

Home from a family visit and a brief vacation are Mrs. Stephen Ashmore and young Stephen. Mrs. A. returned to her birthplace, Newcastle on the Tyne, England and then escorted Stephen to Switzerland and Italy.

Off on a combined business and pleasure trip to Germany and England on November 2 will be the Carlton M. Higbys, Jr., who will be away about two weeks.

Gardens of the Past

Mrs. Joseph B. Schlotman will open her Lakeshore road home this Tuesday at 3 o'clock for the monthly meeting of the Garden Club of Michigan.

Members are asked to bring arrangements on the theme of pioneer Detroit or turn of the century Victorian bouquets. The competition will be in tune with the subject of the day, "A Century of Grosse Pointe Gardens," a talk which will be given by this writer.

Austin Fiesta

What could run the gamut of international trade more surely than a Russian broadtail jacket and a 1963 model of Detroit's most celebrated product, automobiles.

These will be offered at the Austin High School Fiesta, October 27, with Mrs. Robert Whitty and James Conroy arranging the international fair to aid the school.

Mrs. Thomas McCarthy and Mrs. Lloyd Martz have garnered hand knit sweaters for the gala and others working on the all day affair are Mrs. Clayton Alandt, Mrs. Kenneth Zozel, Mrs. Michael Scherrer, Mrs. Thomas DeCorte and Mrs. Wilbur Kay.

Hospital Aides To Hold Sale

Women who are looking for bargains in jewelry, clothes and accessories will find a wide selection at the annual "Thrift Sale," sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary of Detroit Memorial Hospital.

The sale, which is open to the public, will be held at the hospital, 1420 St. Antoine, on Friday, October 19, from 10 a. to 2 p.m. The money will be donated to the hospital to be used for the improvement of patient facilities.

In addition to the used clothing, there will be a selection of new items donated from local retail stores. There will be a variety of casual, afternoon, and evening dresses, suits, and sportswear which will include blouses, skirts and Bermudas. Shoes, hats and handbags will be featured, along with a fine selection of jewelry and lingerie.

Co-chairmen for the sale are Mrs. Francis T. Day, of Kensington road, and Mrs. Frank B. Walker, of Nottingham road.

Memorial Evening Group To Hear Mr. Stookey

The Evening Group of the Women's Association of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church will have Mr. Lyman Stookey, associate minister, as guest speaker next Tuesday, October 23. Mr. Stookey's subject will be "A World in the Need of Ministry."

Devotions will be given by Mrs. F. S. Robinson, Mrs. Wallace A. Temple, hostess chairman, has asked Mesdames Fred Adams, Leo J. Engel, Glenn Lockwood and Miss Alta Gray to assist her in conducting the meeting.

Few people make soft soap today, but everyone uses some of it.

Church to Hold Family Night

The Grosse Pointe Memorial Church will hold a Family Night for the members and children of the Church next Wednesday, October 24. The Family Night supper will be served by the Women's Association of the Church. Reservations can be made through the Church office—TU 5-3773. A special program will be held for younger children.

Members of the Church Choirs and their families have a special invitation because the speaker of the evening will be Reverend George Litch Knight, President of the Hymn Society of America.

Mr. Knight was one of the editors of the new Presbyterian Hymnal, and is the editor of "The Hymn" the quarterly periodical published by the Hymn Society of America.

He has also served as editor of the American Guild of Organists Quarterly Magazine. Mr. Knight has a fund of stories on hymn writers and is able to speak in an exciting manner about hymns, ancient and modern.

The program is under the direction of the Special Activities Committee of Christian Education. Edward G. Acomb acting as chairman. Adults $1.00 and children under 12—$.75.

Sorority Plans Yule Candle Tea

East Side alumnae of Kappa Delta sorority will hold their fourth annual Christmas Candle Tea on Wednesday, October 24, from 2-4 p.m. and from 7-9 p.m. in the Windmill Pointe drive home of Mrs. Harold Mistle.

Kappa Deltas and their guests are urged to come for tea and view the candle displays. There will be a colorful variety of candles, candle arrangements, candle holders and other decorative accessories.

Guests may order any of the candles and other items through the alumnae group and proceeds will be used for philanthropic purposes.

Last year the group purchased equipment for the Grosse Pointe Foundation for Exceptional Children, sent two crippled children to summer camp and made financial contributions to the Crippled Children's Hospital in Richmond, Va., the philanthropic project of national Kappa Delta.

Tea chairman is Mrs. Henry Szymanski and assisting her are Mesdames Ward Sussex, Robert Callaway, Fred Lewis, Arthur Fetters, and Marvin Atkins.

Mrs. E. R. Bunn is in charge of refreshments and pouring tea will be Mesdames Daniel Rankin, Stanley Kushman, Kenneth Hollidge, Leonard Jensen and George Hubbard.

Archives Group Off to Spain

As they were about to board their chartered jet Thursday night, October 11, all members of the Archives of American Art Airlift to Spain and Portugal received an exciting flash. The good news was that the entire party, including 39 members from Michigan, would be entertained at a luncheon on the terrace of the magnificent Gulbenkian Palace near Lisbon. The Gulbenkian Palace was the home of the late Mr. Gulbenkian, the incredibly rich international oil magnate who was one of the world's great art collectors during his lifetime.

Those from Michigan who will be lunching include: Mrs. Gage W. Cooper, Mrs. David Rust, Dr. and Mrs. Irving F. Burton, Mrs. Robert L. Graham, Jr., Dr. and Mrs. Frank Scott Perkin, Mrs. Hooper Truettner, Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Pollack, Mrs. Henry C. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence A. Fleischman, (Mr. Fleischman is President of the Archives), Dr. and Mrs. Alfred Honigman, Dr. and Mrs. Charles J. McKenna, Mr. and Mrs. James Rice, Mrs. William A. Richards, and Mrs. David Martin (the latter four all from Flint).

The E. H. Heaton of Detroit, who are visiting Denmark first, will join the Archives Airlift in Lisbon.

The purpose of the airlift is to see and study the culture of Spain and Portugal as exemplified by their art.

There's always talk of inflation, but nobody seems to care what happens to our currency just as long as it remains current.

Karon Jacques Wed To Stephen Heide

Wedding Trip to California Follows Saturday Rites in St. Paul's on the Lakeshore; Newlyweds Will Live in Warren

DAC Opens Fall Season with Show

George Frischkorns Entertained at Dinner Before the Show Starring Sue Carson, Comedienne, and Rodriguez and Sims, Dance Duo, Friday

A capacity crowd filled Detroit Athletic Club's main dining room last Friday for the dinner-floor show gala opening the club's fall season. The show, which continues through this coming Saturday, is sparked by dinner dancing and dancing after the entertainment.

Many Grosse Pointers went into town for the opener, which was a gay time of visiting and reunions. Inaugurating the fete were early cocktail gatherings in the lounge before dinner.

Sue Carson, a very funny comedienne and a smooth singer, was welcomed back to the DAC where she has made two previous appearances. Delightful were the "elegance in dancing" routines of the dance duo, Rodriguez and Sims. Seymour Hoffman and his orchestra played for dancing and the show.

The George Frischkorns entertained that evening, their guests being the Karl Behrs, the Joseph Hesters, Mrs. Robert P. Scherer and Col. John H. Mothersill of Windsor. With the I. J. Pattens were the Ron W. Maxwells of Southfield and the

St. James Opens Youth Library

Over 200 children's books with a religious theme are displayed in the new library which opened last Sunday in St. James Lutheran Church, McMillan road. Parents and children were invited to a reception to see the variety of volumes in the new room which was decked with crepe paper streamers and book posters for the party. From left to right SCOTT NIXON, STEPHANIE ZURSTADT, MRS. HERBERT ZURSTADT, MRS. FLOYD NIXON and MRS. FRED HERTTEL investigate the new volumes which were selected and arranged by the Dorcas Circle of the Women of St. James under Mrs. Zurstadt's chairmanship.

Scandinavian Symphony To Benefit from Fair

Members of the Scandinavian Symphony Women's Organization are busy planning and arranging for their annual Christmas Fair and Luncheon to be held in the Hall of Nations at the International Institute, Kirby at John R, on Wednesday, October 24, from 11 to 4 o'clock.

The fair is a benefit for the Scandinavian Symphony Orchestra. A complete hot luncheon will be served beginning at 11:30 a.m.

Imports from Denmark, Finland, Norway and Sweden will be for sale in the nationality booths. Many of the members will be dressed in Scandinavian costumes adding a festive air to the occasion.

Plans include handmade gifts and decorations as well as a bake sale including Scandinavian breads, cakes and cookies. An innovation this year will be an Attic Treasure Booth and a Scandinavian Food Shoppe stocked with jams, jellies, pickles and smorgasbord specialties.

Mrs. Harold Albinson is the general chairman, assisted by Mrs. Kenneth Strang and Mrs. Chas. Helin, chairmen from this area.

Emma Willard Grads To Meet October 24

Alumnae and mothers of alumnae of Emma Willard School, Troy, N.Y., will gather at the Little Club next Wednesday, October 24, for a luncheon celebrating Emma Willard Day. The school commemorated its 150th anniversary in 1954, and plans to mark this occasion will be discussed at Wednesday's meeting.

Chairman of the luncheon is Mrs. Bruce Chalmers, with Mrs. Donald Waite as co-chairman, and among those expected to attend are the Mesdames Stanley Tucker, Edward Lambrecht, Joel Bremer, Joseph Standart Allison Monroe, William E. McDermoth, Jr.

Others are Mrs. George Schemm, Mrs. Webster Buell, Mrs. Frederick Rothman, Mrs. Marshall Fredericks, Mrs. Henry Whiting, Mrs. Clement A. Pearose, and Miss Beverly Chalmers and Robin Lepard.

Alliance Hears Talk on Theater

The "Three Penny Opera" and theatrical lore were discussed by Charles Gilbert at the year's first meeting of the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church Women's Alliance on Tuesday, October 9.

"The Three Penny Opera" is not sugar candy, it is good red meat," said Mr. Gilbert, who plays the part of Mr. Peachum in the Vanguard's current production of the play. He also appeared in the same roll in the Off-Broadway production.

The Unitarian Church is planning a theater evening at Vanguard on Sunday, October 21.

The Women's Alliance of the church meets the second Tuesday of each month, starting with a luncheon at 12:15. In charge of this month's luncheon was Mrs. W.C. McLaughlin, assisted by Mrs. Russell Peebles, Mrs. Warren Gauerke, Mrs. Dwight Hendricks, Mrs. A. DeValenzuela. Mrs. John Gulevich was in charge of the program.

Fortnighters To Hold Dance

Swing your partner-Do Si Do. Join the fun when Fortnighters of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church hold their annual Square Dance, Saturday, October 20.

Whether you are a beginner or an experienced dancer, come along. Bob Mondt will do the calling and will include some instruction and round dancing.

Cider, donuts, and a harvest moon will complete the evening which begins at 9 o'clock in the Memorial Church social hall.

Fortnighters welcome all single young adults. For further information, call Grosse Pointe Memorial Church - TU 5-3773.

Wayne Women Meet Oct. 22

Grosse Pointe area alumnae members of Women of Wayne will attend their first fall meeting on Monday, October 22, at 8 p.m. to hear the glamorous Fashion Feature Editor of CKLW-TV, Miss Mary Morgan, comment on "Fall Openings at the Fashion Houses."

Miss Morgan will also present slides of fashions by American Couture Designers Triggere, Monte-Sano, Cell Chapman, Bill Blass for Maurice Rentner, and others equally well-known.

The meeting will be held at the Michigan Consolidated Gas Company's Hospitality Center, 16906 Kercheval.

Program chairman is Mrs. Alexander J. Wescott, of Devonshire road. All women of Wayne alumnae are invited to attend.

Alpha Gamma Deltas To Meet This Evening

GPHS Defeats Wyandotte In Homecoming Tilt, 32-14

By Bill Hagman

Last Saturday the Grosse Pointe Blue Devils made sure that homecoming would be a happy affair when they outclassed Wyandotte 32-14.

The game saw Grosse Pointe throw up a stout defense and a potent offense to halt the Bears, who didn't have the ability to move the ball against the fired up Devils.

Wyandotte kicked off to start the game. The Pointers didn't move the ball so they had to punt. Larry Link's punt was downed on the 23 yard line of Wyandotte. On the Bears' second play a back was hit hard causing a fumble which was recovered by Marc Lonesk on the 27 yard line of the visitors. Tom Thompson and John Reynolds powered the Devils to the one before Reynolds plunged over for the score. The conversion attempt was wide so at 6:35 of the first quarter Grosse Pointe led 6-0.

The Devils kicked off and Wyandotte ran it back to their own 40 where the Bears were forced to punt. The Pointers started to march with Thompson's three first downs and Carl Vertret's beautiful pass reception even though he was interfered with by an over zealous Dotte defender. This sustained drive reached the Bear 27 yard line where Thompson went over for the second Devil score. Lonesk kicked the extra point so with the second quarter three seconds old Grosse Pointe had a 13-0 lead.

Joe Reed kicked off for the Devils and the visitors were held in check until the yard penalty gave them a first down. Ron Laurin rushed for a Bear first down before Wyandotte had to punt. Link fielded the punt but was swarmed under by a host of Bear linemen and was jarred loose from the ball. The Dottes recovered the fumble and quickly moved in for a score. A 10 yard pass to Jeff Garrison put the ball on the six of Grosse Pointe. Two plays later the Bears scored on a two-yard smash. The visitors got the extra point on a run, so with 2:23 remaining in the half Grosse Pointe led 13-7.

The Dottes kicked off and the Bears ran it back to their 20. A line smash gained four yards then Andersen pitched out to Thompson who fired a pass to Vertret for a thrilling touchdown play which covered 74 yards. The kick was wide so with seconds left the Pointers led 19-7. The half ended just after the kickoff.

Queen Is Crowned

During the halftime festivities pretty Mary Steiner was crowned homecoming queen of 1962.

The Devils kicked off to start the second half. Neither team was able to score in the third quarter.

The start of the fourth quarter found Wyandotte punting. The Devils started a drive after receiving the punt. Thompson and Reynolds did most of the work in this drive. Thompson finished off the march with a six yard run. The conversion hit the crossbar so with six seconds remaining the Pointers led 22-7.

After the kickoff, Wyandotte took to the air, Bob Kutscher intercepted a pass and raced 61 yards for the last Devil score. The kick was perfect and with 4:33 remaining the Pointers led 22-7.

Wyandotte lost the ball on a fumble after the kick but the home team ran out of downs on the Bear 10 yard line. Wyandotte threw a desperation pass which clicked for an exciting 68 yard touchdown play. The extra point was made on a run so with 57 seconds remaining in the game the Devils had a lead of 32-14, which turned out to be the final as time ran out just after Grosse Pointe received the kickoff.

Austin-Salesian Tilt Ends in Tie

By Bob Moore

Austin Catholic came from behind Sunday with favored Salesian to forge an unsatisfying 12-12 tie.

Trailing 12-6 with three minutes left in the game, the spirited Austin football team marched 60 yards in seven plays to tie it up.

But the try for the extra point that could have won the game was unsuccessful, and the score remained deadlocked.

Salesian had scored in the first quarter after less than three minutes of play. After a long pass, the Knights' halfback, Wicktor, carried the ball for four yards and the game's first touchdown.

Salesian widened the gap midway in the second quarter after a hardy disputed pass play moved the ball to the two-yard line. The referees ruled the pass complete, and on the next play, Salesian's Hutchison passed for another tally to make the score 12-0.

Here, Austin began its first long march. The Friars drove from their own 36 into the Knights' end zone in eight plays. Time was running out in the half, as Bob Phillips and Bill Zemlin sparked the drive. With 1:15 left in the half, Zemlin streaked free yards to cut the deficit to 12-6.

Neither team could get anywhere in the third quarter. For nine minutes of the final period, the same frustration remained.

Then, with three minutes left in the game, Austin got the ball on its own 40. Two long passes fell short, but Zemlin scampered 30 yards around right end to keep Austin's hopes alive. After another long aerial just missed, reserve quarterback Jack Sweeney lofted a pass to Bob Sanford on the 22. Two plays later, quarterback Bob Phillips spotted Marty Gulewicz in the end zone. He let loose a long pass, and Gulewicz pulled it down to tie the ball game up.

Needless to say, bedlam resulted on the Friar bench and in the stands.

But then in the try for that big extra point, the ball got loose and rolled to the ground.

The tie confused the whole Central league race. Austin now holds third place, with a 3-1-1 record. Notre Dame (5-0) and Salesian (4-0-1) are ranked above the Friars.

Tomorrow, the Friars will play the leaders, Notre Dame, who are also Austin's neighborhood arch-rivals.

Tickets which are unsold by Thursday evening before each game will be made available for sale to other Grosse Pointe residents who may be interested.

PROGRAM WINS AWARD

Michigan's high school driver education program has been singled out as the model for the nation. For the second successive year Michigan has received the Award of Excellence in the annual National High School Driver Education Award program, sponsored by the Insurance Institute for Highway Safety. Moreover Michigan is the only state that has ever won this award in the program's 14-year history.

Two Spartan Elevens Win

The Spartans of Grosse Pointe gained a double victory over the North Redford Rangers on Saturday at Redford.

The Spartan Varsity ground out an impressive ground attack to achieve a 7-6 victory. In the first quarter, the Spartans started an attack from their own 80 yards in 12 plays to score, only to have the TD nullified by a penalty.

On the next series of downs the Spartans recovered a Redford fumble on the Ranger 17 yard line and in four plays went in for the TD on Dick Rini's 2 yard plunge. The extra point attempt was good and the Spartans led 7-0.

The Rangers stiffened in the second half, and the Spartans were unable to move the ball. With only 5 minutes to play, the Redford eleven took over on their own 30 and in 6 plays went in for the score, the drive culminating in a 57 yard pass play. On the extra point attempt the Ranger fullback went into the end zone, but the play was called back because of a Redford off-side, and on the ensuing attempt the Spartan defense, led by Rick Burns, stopped Redford short, thus achieving a 7-6 victory.

Hats off to Bob Turzak and his two assistant coaches Jim Burns and W. Leuckhoff for their fine coaching of the Spartans Jr. Varsity team. Their hard work and many hours with the boys resulted in a 14-0 shut-out of the Redford Raiders.

In the opening quarter, Terry Buda, with the assistance of some fine blocking, ran for 40 yards for a touchdown. This play was called back because of a Spartan penalty. However, a beautiful pass play from Mike Pastor to Jim Montemorency for 75 yards gave the Spartans their first 6 points. Terry Buda went into the end zone for the extra point.

The offensive team, led by Tom Tribe, did some fine blocking with the help of Joe Doyle, Todd Hahn, Richard Scheele and Ron Denewith.

In the third quarter the Spartans scored their second touchdown as "Speedy" Gonzales went in from a five yard line. Extra point came on a pass play from Pastor to Montemorency.

The defensive team did another fine job by holding the Raiders scoreless. Some of the outstanding defensive plays were made by Greg Paige, John Perlein, Ed Black, Chris Warner, Doug Perry and Dennis Kahle.

The next game will be played on Sunday, October 21, at 1 p.m. at Harper Woods High School field.

Hockey Tryouts Set for Oct. 20

With the Red Wings starting their home season last Sunday, all boys 14 years of age and under interested in playing hockey on a team basis are invited to meet at Ice Flair, 15001 Charlevoix, Saturday, October 20, to sign up and try out for the various teams. Marty Pavelich will be on hand to welcome one and all!

Try-outs will be scheduled as follows:

Pee-Wees, boys between 10 and 12 years of age, 9 a.m.

Bantams: Boys between 12 and 14 years of age, 10:30 a.m.

Squirts: Boys 9 years of age and under, 11:30 a.m.

Bring your skates, your hockey sticks, and if you have a uniform or additional personal hockey equipment wear it.

All boys in the Grosse Pointe area, or attending the Grosse Pointe School System, under 14 years of age, are eligible to enter the league. Games will start in 2 weeks on a regular schedule each Saturday morning, into February. Questions may be answered by telephoning: Valley 4-9848.

Make this a father-son participation... bring your dads with you Saturday!

BETTER LITERATURE WEEK

Introducing Pointe's Newest Teachers

DR. CUSTER HOMEIER, (seated right), principal of Kerby School, called his new teachers together for a conference recently to check on their adjustment to Grosse Pointe school procedures and routines. MISS RITA FLAHERTY, Grade 6; MRS. ARDIS REED, Kindergarten; MRS. HILDA

BOKOS, Grade 5, MISS CAROL DOMONEY, Grade 3, and JOHN ALLAN, Grade 5 are shown reviewing the situation with Dr. Homeier. All are teaching there for the first time this fall, although most have had teaching experiences elsewhere.

Rita Flaherty is teaching a sixth grade group at Kerby School this year. Born in Chester, Penn., she finished high school there and earned her degree at West Chester State. Graduate work has been accomplished at the University of Delaware. Previous teaching experience was had in the Newark (Delaware) Schools where she also was active in professional organization activities. She held offices in the Newark and Delaware education associations and in the Newark Business and Professional Women's Club. Her hobbies include writing and travel, touring the USA being an especial favorite.

Mrs. Ardis Reed has lived in the Grosse Pointe area for some time and has taught in the St. Clair Shores schools and the Grosse Pointe Co-op Nursery School. She also counts a year's experience at Grand Ledge High as well as 5 years teaching Sunday School at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church as part of her preparation for her kindergarten assignment at Kerby School. She was born in Detroit, graduated from Southeastern High School, and earned her degree from MSU. She is currently doing post-graduate study at Wayne. Her family includes three youngsters, the eldest of whom is enrolled at Montclair while the others are in G. P. Co-op Nursery. Music and sewing are primary hobbies while drama and children are other interests.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., gave us John F. Allan, who is teaching a fifth grade class at Kerby School. He finished high school there and attended Concordia Teachers College in River Forest, Ill., to earn his degree. Currently, he attends the UM part time to continue his professional training. Last year he taught history and geography at Lutheran High School East in Harper Woods. He served for 3 1/2 years in the Marine Corps, emerging with the rank of first lieutenant. Married, he lives with wife and year and a half old son in St. Clair Shores.

Mrs. Hilda Bokos is another Southeastern High graduate to join the Kerby staff this year. She, also, teaches a fifth grade class. Born in Detroit, she took her B.A. at Wayne State University last January and began teaching at Kerby in February. She won second place in the Knights of Pythias' Extemporaneous Speech Contest in Michigan as an undergraduate and earned a speech activity award from Wayne. Sketching, particularly facial features, is a prime interest. She resides in Bedford road in Detroit.

Carol Domoney is teaching third grade at Kerby. She grew up in Saginaw, graduating from Saginaw High, and then attended Michigan State to earn her degree. While an undergraduate, she was elected to the Frosh-Soph Council. She has been teaching in the Saginaw area prior to coming to Grosse Pointe this year. School and community choral groups have commanded much of her attention and energy as programs and concerts have been planned and produced. Other interests are sports and reading.

The Hammond Building, which rose across from the old City Hall in 1886, was not only Detroit's first skyscraper, but the cradle of the legal profession.

Among the many legal lights, whose descendants are Pointers, who had the Hammond Building for their address were Robert and Allan H. Frazer, whose son John became the great Pointe realtor; Judge Charles T. Wilkins, whose family tradition dated from the days of the Northwest Territory, and Judge Philip T. Van Zile.

Francis J. McMath practiced from the Hammond building and Francis P. Dwyer and Charles Casgrain, who was married to a Hammond daughter, were others. Thomas A. E. Weadock, dean of the city's legal lights until his death at 90, had his office in the red brick skyscraper.

For many years the Hammond building remained a landmark, visitors from up state climbing to the top story to look over the city. The family refused all offers for the building for many years for it was a memorial to George Hammond, who founded his fortune on beef and pork packing with James D. Standish.

In the early days of the Hammond building some of the lawyers were hard pressed to find their rent money. But they could economize on luncheon when the budget failed to stretch to the lavish menus of the Russell House. Nearby was a restaurant which served a delectable combination of pork chops and spaghetti for a quarter and was very accommodating about sending out a pot of this entree for lunching lawyers.

The Hammond building was in the very center of the town's social life as well as the legal and financial center. On the west side of Woodward were three of the town's most elite stores, McMillans, O'Briens and Wallace's, where the carriage trade did business every morning. Nearby, too was Fred Sanders' new store where the ice cream soda was invented.

Mr. Sanders' soda was rumored to be an invention designed to relieve the effects of a friend's hangover. The distressed gentleman demanded some soda water but felt he couldn't drink it warm so Mr. Sanders added vanilla ice cream to cool it and the soda was born.

The City Hall in those days was so surrounded by trees that lawyers attending the circuit court sessions were apt to feel they were marching through a forest to attend to their duties. The tenants of the last three floors of the Hammond building had other problems. The grand stairway extended only to the seventh floor and elevators were not installed at first so lawyers like S. S. Babcock had to climb the last floors by ladder.

In the line of duty policemen take on all sorts of chores. Last Tuesday Patrolman William Waldecker, Jr., answered an S.O.S. from Mrs. C. A. Wines, of Fisher road. Mrs. W. had bought some walnuts and left them in her car. A canny squirrel, with an eye to winter, scurried in the window and removed the nuts to his storage cache. When the officer arrived the walnuts were gone but the squirrel was still there. The valiant patrolman removed the animal at Mrs. Wines' request.

A suggestion for some future House Tour is Mrs. David Gamble's French Colonial in Renaud road. The living room is an unusual blend of lime green with cream accents, the hallway has a striking Grecian mural wallpaper, and the dining room is a formal but elegantly bright gold and cream. The Gambles have recently remodeled a porch as a captain's room with paneled bar and several nests of wicker stools. From the dining room window is a tremendous view of graceful spreading apple tree, which must date from the days of the French settlers and the Renaud farm. Never before has the tree born fruit but this season Mrs. G. proudly informs guests there are four apples.

Twenty-two year old Frannie Merkel celebrated her birthday at a luncheon with her mother, Mrs. Charles Merkel, in New York's glamorous cafe, 21. She was wearing one of her presents, a fetching black wig, which completely transformed her in the best Fifth avenue tradition.

Mrs. Robert Vens spent days in arranging for the shower she was giving for 118 guests in honor of her bride-elect sister, Maryanne DeMeulenaere, who will marry James Frederick Blondell, November 3. When the guests arrived at the Lothrop road home of the girls' mother, Mrs. Floris A. DeMeulenaere, the guest of honor and her mother had to make Mrs. Vens' excuses. Just before the first chime of the doorbell the hostess rushed off to Bon Secours and gave birth to John Patrick Vens.

John Sweeney, who will conduct the Michigan Opera Theater's production of "Tosca" on October 25 and 27 at the Detroit Institute of Arts won't need baby sitters or have to leave his wife at home during rehearsals. The Sweeneys have made a family affair of the Puccini classic. Mrs. Sweeney plays cello in her husband's orchestra and the three children, Randy, Lynn and Chris, are all members of the cast.

Private eye junior grade is Tom Vandeveld. On Saturday Tom's pal, Mike Monahan, of Fisher road, had his bicycle appropriated while he was viewing the matinee at the Woods Theater. On Sunday Tom, who had heard this sad story from Mike, noticed a boy riding his 10-year-old friend's bike down his street. Tom gave chase for two blocks, forcing the borrower to abandon the bike, and was able to deliver the bike to Mike that same afternoon.

President Woodrow Wilson: "By the time anything gets to me it's a problem."

It was just about a century ago, during much the same kind of critical election year, that Abraham Lincoln made his earthy comment on responsibility at the polls. "It's the people's business. The election is in their hands. If they turn their backs to the fire and get scorched in the rear, they'll find they have got to sit on the blister."

Pointer of Interest

MRS. W. A. RIDDELL, of Trombley road

By Patricia Talbot

After a day baking bread in her modern antique white kitchen petite lilt Roma Riddell kisses her doctor husband and two children goodbye and drives to Vanguard theatre where her professional life begins.

A feature player in the highly successful run of the repertory's "Three Penny Opera" the role is her first with a stage company although she had major successes with opera and symphony.

Mrs. Riddell who looks very much like British star Vivien Leigh, was brought up in Newfoundland and educated at the University of Toronto. It was there she met her husband who was studying at the General Hospital across the street from the Conservatory.

"I have the dream life for all actresses, a husband who foots the bill while I fulfill my artistic dreams" admits the charming soprano. Her husband has built an intricate tape recording machine in their library and between professional engagements she studies and sings while he records her efforts. He is amazingly interested in her career although it conflicts with his own hospital schedule.

Likes Domestic Chores Mrs. Riddell usually awakes in time to cook her family's breakfast and wave elfin blond five year old Kathy off to school. A full time maid watches over two year old Jeffrey but the singer confesses to a passion for house-keeping and cooking.

Her professional experience is impressive for she appeared on a coast to coast Canadian musical program, sang with the Toronto Symphony and with a resident opera company before coming to Detroit in 1958 with her husband. She has done television and radio work in San Francisco and Chicago as well as in Canada. Last season she sang with the Grosse Pointe Symphony and next month will be a soloist with the Pontiac Symphony.

Box Office Hit at Last She is fascinated with Detroit, thinks it is an exciting city for an artist, praises the painstaking work and stubborn sacrifice which has enabled Vanguard to keep going as a repertory theater through some very lean box office days. "Three Penny Opera" is such a success that the run has been extended through November 17. The New York and London hit has Robert Rounseville and Marie Powers as stars, both of whom appeared in Vanguard productions last season.

Although this is her first appearance with Vanguard she hopes it won't be her last, plans plays. She will sing "Susanna" with the Detroit Opera Theater this spring but has free periods before this engagement.

She auditioned for Vanguard last spring but "Three Penny Opera" was the first production with a part for the aspiring soprano. When the show closes she will undoubtedly return to Toronto for a few more lessons with her coach and she flies back and forth frequently to fulfill musical engagements.

Began With Piano Roma Riddell had no thought of a musical career as a girl in Newfoundland, where her father was a businessman and her mother sang shyly around the house. She studied piano but by her high school years decided that she should take some voice, too. Her clear soprano proved so exciting she almost abandoned the piano, although she still plays well enough to accompany herself.

She regrets that her children haven't inherited her talent for pretty Kathy can't sing "Ring Around the Rosy."

Both the Riddells spend their leisure time with other artists, think Detroit has a splendid artistic future, have never regretted moving here from Canada although they still have nostalgic thoughts for Toronto. At first, with few professional contacts, the dark haired soprano found it difficult to find enough scope for her considerable talents. Vanguard has changed this and audiences have hailed her performance.

Modest and domestically inclined Roma Riddell has managed to combine an exciting career in the theater with a successful and well adjusted family life. Her life behind the footlights holds enchantment but so do her hours as a mother and doctor's wife.

MANY NAME STEW

- 1/2 lb. salt pork
2 lbs. stewing beef
1 Tb. flour
1 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. pepper
1 1/2 cloves garlic, chopped
1 large onion, chopped
1 bouillon cube
1 cup hot water
8 oz. can tomato sauce
12 peppercorns
3 whole cloves
1/4 cup parsley, chopped
1/2 bay leaf
1/2 cup sherry

Cut salt pork into small pieces; cut beef into one inch cubes. Sauté pork in large skillet over low heat; brown beef in drippings over high heat and sprinkle with flour, salt and pepper. Combine garlic, onion, bouillon cube, hot water, tomato sauce, peppercorns, cloves, parsley and bay leaf; pour over meat. Cover and simmer about three hours. Cook separately until nearly tender six medium potatoes, peeled and quartered, and one stalk of celery, chopped. Add these vegetables and wine during the last 15 minutes of cooking. You can either add string beans or carrots to the meat mixture.
