HEADLINES

of the WEEK

As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, January 10

GOVERNOR George Romney wants a "short, action-packed session" of the State Legislature, to be followed by a special post-Labor Day session concentrating on tax reform. In his first "state-of-the-State" message, delivered today, Michigan's new Chief Executive revealed his plans for "orderly and reasoned immediate attack" on Michigan's pressing political, economic and social problems. These problems are so many and varied, the Governor said, that "solutions . . . cannot be accomplished in a single legislative session or a single year."

Romney again stressed his belief that Michigan voters should adopt the proposed new Constitution at the April 1 election. The special post-Labor Day Legislative session could then concentrate on the new laws necessitated by the new Constitution.

Friday, January 11

SHOUTING STUDENTS surrounded James H. Meredith in the University of Mississippi cafeteria last night. As Meredith, accompanied by United States Justice Department official John Martin, sat sipping coffee, a group of over 20 students entered the cafeteria and stationed themselves some 10 feet from his table. They belted the "Ole Miss football yell and shouted the University's new "campus slogan"—"Ignore the nigger with vigor."

Saturday, January 12

GOVERNOR George Romney indicated Friday that he would not veto an amendment to the state law which prohibits liquor sales between 2 a.m. and midnight Sundays. Asked about the possibility of such an amendment, the Governor paused for a moment, then told Detroit Convention Bureau leaders, "I would not veto it." This does not mean, however, that Romney, a non-drinking, non-smoking Mormon would favor revision of the present law. "I haven't gone into it far enough to say categorically," the Governor told his hosts, members of the City's "sales and service agency for conventions."

Sunday, January 13

A SMALL PLANE crashed into the back yard of a Warren, Mich., home yesterday, then exploded into bits, scattering pieces of disintegrated bodies over yards and roofs of two houses. The blue and red twin-engine aircraft fell straight into the yard of the Jack Barton residence, 8684 Jewett, near Van Dyke and Nine Mile. The plane's three occupants, pilot Cecil Simms, of Fayetteville, N.Y., owner of the Simms Matchplate Corp., and two passengers, were killed instantly, but 10 other persons in the immediate area escaped injury.

Monday, January 14

SYLVANUS OLYMPIO, president of Togo, was assassinated yesterday, shot to death shortly before dawn in the street outside Togo's United States Embassy building, where he was apparently seeking sanctuary. Military insurgents then seized most of Olympio's ministers and brought off a successful coup d'etat in the tiny West African Slave Coast nation, sandwiched between Ghana and Dahomey off the Gulf of Guinea. American Ambassador Leon B. Pottolada revealed that Olympio's bullet-ridden body was found crumpled only a few feet from the Embassy's unlocked entrance.

Tuesday, January 15

PRESIDENT KENNEDY, in his annual State of the Union message delivered yesterday to a joint session of Congress, requested an unprecedented $13.5 billion tax cut, to be spread over a period of three years. The Federal revenue reduction would be partially offset by a $3.5 billion gain, resulting from proposed revisions in present tax laws, and a $1.5 billion national revenue increase via quicker corporation tax payments.

'The Boys' Bring 372 Years to Reunion

Five brothers got together last Saturday for the first time in 30 years, to celebrate the 80th birthday of the eldest, ERNEST, of 600 Notre Dame avenue. Left to right: ADOLPH, 69; CLEMENT, 71; WALTER, 77; ERNIE and LUCAS PRIEMER, 75. The surprise party was held at the home of Helen Kerwin of 760 University place, with 50 relatives and close friends present.

372 Years Represented At Reunion

Five Brothers, Youngest 69, Get Together to Fete 80th Birthday

Ernest Priemer of 600 Notre Dame avenue, a retired employe of the City of Grosse Pointe, celebrated his 80th birthday on Saturday, January 12, at a surprise family reunion at the home of Helen Kerwin, 760 University place.

Ernest is the oldest of the family of five brothers—all living—and enjoying "Rocking Chair Money."

Walter, 77, is a retired Detroit Street Railway employe, having served on the Woodward line for 39 years. Lucas, 75, is a retired farmer from the homestead farm at Ruth, Mich., now living in Helena, Mich., close to the site of the family farm which his son, Joseph Priemer, now operates.

Clement, 71, once retired, now does landscape gardening for several families in the Grosse Pointe area. Adolph, 69, is a retired farmer from Gladwin, Mich., now living in the City of Gladwin, and enjoys helping his friends and neighbors with construction work.

Fifty relatives and close friends were present and enjoyed reminiscing with "the boys" about their combined "372 years of living"—and working in Michigan.

Although the brothers have all remained in the state, it was the first time they had all been together for 30 years. All have seen each other individually or in smaller groups frequently.

Fire Damages Historical Home in Kercheval Ave.

Three pieces of firefighting apparatus and 20 firemen from the Farms and City battled a fire in a Pointe historical landmark for more than three hours in freezing weather on Monday, January 14. One fireman was injured.

The fire damaged the old Trowbridge home, 376 Kercheval, which was being remodeled. The house was vacant.

Farms Fire Chief M. William Mason said that Fireman Harold Campbell of his department, fell on the ice while fighting the fire, and injured his hip. He will have to be hospitalized, it was said.

Another Farms fireman, Sam Candela, fell from the icy roof to the ground, but miraculously appeared to be uninjured, the chief said. The fireman returned to his post almost immediately, the chief added.

Important Events of 1962 Culled From Files of News For Edification of Readers

Items of Past Year Recall Memories of Occurrences Pertaining to the Pointe and to Present and Former Residents

The years seem to pass rapidly for some people, and to others they seem to go by slowly, but they still leave memories that are recalled, and 1962 is no exception. The NEWS has compiled the most important story from each of its issues of the past year. Remember:

September 20—Dr. Charles H. Wilson accepted the invitation from the Grosse Pointe Board of Education to become the new superintendent of schools, succeeding Dr. James W. Bushong, who has accepted a position in Hawaii after serving as superintendent since 1951. The appointment of his successor was approved by Dr. Bushong, who congratulated the Board of Education on their choice for the new head of the school system. Dr. Wilson came from Highland Park, Ill., where he was superintendent of schools for 12 years.

October 11—Grosse Pointe City moved its municipal administrative offices to new quarters behind the police-fire building.

September 27—St. Paul High School's 1962 yearbook, the "Pauille," won two of the top national awards given by national critical services—the A-Plus, Special Excellence Award, and the All-Catholic Award. The former is the highest honor given by the National School Yearbook Association, and the latter, came from the Catholic Press Association. A-Plus, Special Excellence designation, is a rare and highly coveted honor, won, last year, by only two books in the entire State.

October 4—Principal Jerry J. Gerich of Grosse Pointe High School announced that 24 of the school's students have been named Semifinalists in the 1962-63 Merit Scholarship competition, the largest group in the school's history. These students became Semi-finalists through their outstanding performance on the National Merit Scholarship Qualification Tests, the first step in the eighth annual Merit Program. Last year, only seven students qualified in the program. The previous high was fifteen in 1958; 11 qualified in 1959; and 14 in 1960.

October 11—Grosse Pointe City moved its municipal administrative offices to new quarters behind the police-fire building.

Franklin D. Rennells, 28, whose home is in South Carolina, was sentenced to three days in the Park jail, in lieu of a $25 fine, on Monday, January 14, by Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger, who found the man guilty of vagrancy.

Rennells was arrested at 1:25 a.m., on the Monday date, by Patrolmen Walter Paton and Henry Wilson, who observed him walking in the middle of Harcourt road, with his shoes untied and his clothing disarranged.

The man was heading toward Lake St. Clair and when stopped by the officers and questioned, he stated that he was on his way back to South Carolina.

When he could not produce a draft card, or other identification, Rennells was taken to the station and locked up on a charge of vagrancy.

Symphony's 2nd Concert This Sunday

Maria Roumell Will Be Featured Soloist on Program to Be Given in Parcels School

The Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra will be performing its second concert of the season on Sunday afternoon featuring Maria Roumell, soprano, as solo artist. The concert will take place at 3:30 o'clock in the Parcels School Auditorium.

The present 1962-1963 season of the Grosse Pointe Symphony Society marks its 10th year of dedication to offer symphonic music at its best to the Grosse Pointe Communities. This Sunday Felix Resnick is conducting.

The orchestra will offer a rich and varied concert program including: The Overture to "Porgy and Bess"; Mendelssohn; Symphony No. 8 in F Major by Beethoven; Two Hungarian Dances by Brahms and Espana Rhapsody by Chabrier.

Concert soloist Maria Roumell will sing familiar arias from three operas: The Jewel Song from "Faust" by Gounod; Pace, Pace, Mio Dio from "La Forza del Destino" by Verdi; and Dupuis le Jour from "Louise" by Charpentier.

Maria Roumell, a resident of Grosse Pointe, has been featured soloist with leading symphony orchestras, and well known opera companies in New York and Detroit. Recently she

Burglar Visits Home in Woods

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Venettis, 1705 Severn road, was burglarized on Monday, January 7. Woods police found six shoe prints on the ground outside the building and on a bathroom fixture.

Police said that the size of the prints indicated that the thief was either a small man, or a boy.

Entry into the house was made by forcing the bathroom window and breaking the window latch.

Mrs. Venettis told police that at about 5:30 a.m., she heard dogs barking, and several hours later, discovered the bathroom window had been forced and a window curtain torn loose.

All that could be found missing, Mrs. Venettis said, was seven dollars in cash from a cabinet on the kitchen shelf. A thief broke into the house last August and took a cedar box containing $17, also from the kitchen shelf, according to police records.

UAW's Woodcock $240,000 Library for High School To Deliver Third Lecture at Center

Capacity Audience Packing Inaugural Series in Fries Auditorium; Bishop Emrich and Mayor Cavanagh First Two Speakers

UAW Vice President Leonard Woodcock will mount the podium at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's new William Hayes Fries Auditorium next Tuesday evening, to deliver the third lecture in the War Memorial's outstanding Inaugural Series, "The Community, The Corporation and The National Purpose."

Woodcock will speak on "The Obligation of Responsible Labor in a Democratic Society." Profiled as this week's "Painter of Interest," he is a nationally-known figure in the field of labor-management relations, a member of the Executive Committee, Greater Detroit Area Council; the American Public Health Association; the American Civil Liberties Union; the NAACP; the Board of Directors Southeastern Michigan Community Research Corporation; and the Incorporators' Committee, Communications Satellite Corporation.

Begin at 8:15 p.m.

Lectures begin promptly at 8:15 p.m., with an invocation given by one of the area's clergymen. The Rev. James Nixon, pastor of the Grosse Pointe Methodist Church, is scheduled to give the invocation preceding Mr. Woodcock's address.

George R. McMullen, organizer and expeditor of the ambitious Inaugural Lecture series, will introduce Mr. Woodcock.

All lectures in the series are brief, running slightly less than half an hour, and are followed by a stimulating question-and-answer period at which the audience is invited to bring specific problems and issues to the attention of the speaker. A coffee hour follows the formal program.

Draw Capacity Crowds

Capacity crowds heard the two previous speakers, the Rt. Rev. Richard S. Emrich, Presiding Bishop, Episcopal Diocese of Michigan, and the Hon. Jerome P. Cavanagh, Mayor of the City of Detroit, discuss "Business Morals" and "Problems of the Metropolitan Area" on successive Tuesday evenings.

Still more people heard the lectures via radio broadcasts on stations WJR and WWJ. The programs are taped, broadcast by WJR at 9:30 p.m. immediately following the actual lecture, and by WWJ the following Friday. A complete tape of the entire series will be preserved at the Grosse Pointe Central Library, where it will be available to community groups and interested citizens.

Others on Program

Speakers scheduled to appear include, on January 29, Detroit Edison president Walker L. Cislner, who will discuss "National Purpose"; on February 5, Ford Motor Company chairman Henry Ford II, whose topic will be "The Responsibility of the Individual Citizen"; and the Hon. George Romney, Governor of Michigan, who will deliver the final lecture, "Michigan and the American Revolution . . . A Commentary on Previous Talks in This Series," on February 12.

Tickets for the Series have been completely sold out.

Thief Empties Parked Truck

Michael Peters of 3331 East Edsel Ford, Detroit, left his panel truck at a gas station at Mack and McKinley during the night of Monday, January 7, and a thief stole its contents.

Peters told Farms police that the robber took two cylinder heads; two new lifters, 14 used valve lifters; 16 new push rods; eight new valve springs and a 12-volt generator. The value of the items was not given.

The case was assigned to Det. Sgts. George Van Tiem and Jack Paisley.

Car Used in Flint Robbery 'Borrowed' Five Months Ago

Leonard Blum, 42, whose last known address was given as 8660 Beachwood, Detroit, is being sought by both Park and Flint police.

Park police want Blum on warrants, obtained on Monday, January 7, for larceny by conversion and unlawfully using and taking an automobile; Flint authorities want him on a charge of larceny from a building.

$240,000 Library for High School

Addition at Maire Nearer Realization; Addition at Ferry Hits Snag

The Grosse Pointe Board of Education authorized further development of plans and specifications for additions to three of the public school facilities at its regular monthly meeting on Monday. These projects are part of the 4-year construction and rehabilitation program approved by the voters of the school district three years ago.

Detailed plans and specifications were ordered drawn by the board's architect, Earl Meyers, for the proposed High School library. This structure is currently planned as a separate building, octagonal in shape, midway between the main building and the annex or former Country Day School. Preliminary estimates place the cost in the vicinity of $240,000, spokesmen state.

An addition to Maire School was brought a step nearer to realization with the directive to the architect to prepare preliminary drawings for this unit. The authorization instructed school officials and architect to combine their knowledge of educational needs and structural know-how in developing a proposal that will provide Maire School with sufficient standard class-rooms to house its enrollment. Adequate music and library facilities are still other needs to be considered. A two-room addition and some remodeling of existing space has been suggested as approximately the magnitude of the need.

Need Ferry Addition

The most urgently needed facility of all being considered is a 6-8 room addition to Ferry School. However, a snag has developed in the planning of this addition, school officials reported. The floor plan tentatively approved by the board last month has not met the approval of state authorities. Representatives of the State Fire Marshal have raised some objections to the design and alternate ideas are in the process of being checked with that department.

"In light of the fact that the rapid rate of home building in the Ferry District threatens to seriously overload that school by the time it opens next September," Supt. Charles H. Wilson said, "we must move quickly to meet the need. As soon as a plan is approved by the Fire Marshal and the Board of Education we will develop the working drawings and details so that we may advertise for bids immediately. Hopefully, bids will be in for the board's consideration and letting in the March meeting. Construction should begin soon thereafter."

Enrollment Booms

The enrollment at Ferry School presently is about 660 pupils. Last year at this time, less than 550 pupils were enrolled. Continued building suggests that as many as 750 can be expected next year. A recently opened six-room addition cannot possibly accommodate such increases, school administrators pointed out.

Glowing terms were used by a nationally renowned library consultant to describe the proposed high school library. Charles M. Mohrhardt, Associate Director of the Detroit Public Library, met with board and staff representatives last month to view the plans and make recommendations.

Mr. Mohrhardt described the plan for the GPHS library as ideally located, adequate in size and capacity and possessing a maximum of flexibility. He stated that provisions for control were good and efficiently placed. Suggestions for improvement included providing more work space for the library staff and more outlets for earphones to facilitate students' use of phonograph and tape recordings.

May Serve As Model

"In general I feel that this library will present an attractive and appealing appearance which should encourage the student body to a more intensive use of its fine library services," Mr. Mohrhardt stated,

"Ballet Balance" Space Heating Control Systems Will Give You More Comfort For Far Less Fuel!

Fuel saved at Selfridge Air Force Base was an average 672 gallons of fuel oil per home per year. Fuel saved at Blackstone Manor was 24.5%.

We strongly recommend that you have a "Ballet Balance" space heating control system installed in your home.

Here's how "Ballet Balance" space heating control systems work on forced air heating systems, either oil or gas fired:

"BALLET BALANCE" controls

When the room thermostat is satisfied, your "BALLET BALANCE" control system will turn off the burner and blower simultaneously.

Next time the room thermostat calls for heat, your "BALLET BALANCE" control system will turn on the blower immediately in order to deliver the residual furnace heat that was saved from the previous cycle.

OLD FASHIONED controls

When the room thermostat is satisfied and turns off the burner, the delivery of heat to your home does not stop until the furnace gets cool enough so that the bonnet thermostat will turn off the blower and thus stop delivering heat.

Next time the room thermostat calls for heat and turns on the burner, your home will not get any heat until the burner heats the furnace up so that the bonnet thermostat will turn on the blower.

Fire Damages Landmark

After many years, the Provencals had a daughter, born to them on Christmas Day. They named her Catherine. The daughter grew up to marry Judge James D. Weir of Detroit, and her family property became known as the old Weir Farm.

In 1912, the Country Club bought the land, one house was moved to the Kercheval site, and later acquired by the Trowbridge family.

Car Theft

The car owner gave his permission, but told Blum to have the car back by September 1. When several weeks went by and Blum failed to return, Woolfel said, he turned the matter over to his attorney and thought he had notified police.

Woolfel said that when Blum did not return his car, he sent a registered letter to Blum's address, but the house was vacant.

Det. Lt. Stanley Enders obtained two warrants charging Blum with larceny by conversion and unlawfully using and taking an automobile. The warrants were approved by the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office.

Flint police were requested to hold Blum for Park police if, and when, he should be apprehended.

Blum is a former resident of Flint.

School Plans

Previously, Mr. Mohrhardt had served the U. S. State Department as a consultant on a new library in West Berlin and two other libraries constructed in South America. Presently, he is serving the City of San Francisco and Weymouth, Mass., in a like capacity.

LOSES FAMILY WATCH Mrs. Muir Hotchkiss of 177 Earl court, reported the loss of a multi-diamond chip wrist watch on Friday, January 11. She told Farms police that the timepiece was lost in the vicinity of Christ Church. The watch, a family heirloom, is inscribed on the back with the initials MLM to WKM—January. The value of the piece is not known.

Symphony Concert Sunday

(Continued from Page 1) A very important factor for the Symphony's success has been its growing membership and enthusiastic community support. Membership in the Society is subscription and includes four regular concerts per season.

Those wishing to support the orchestra may still obtain memberships from Mrs. Bogdan Baynert, membership chairman, or Mrs. Raymond B. Baer, membership secretary, on the afternoon of the concert. Single tickets (Adults $2.00 and Student $1.00) may be purchased at the Box Office or by calling Mrs. Arnold W. Lungershausen at VA 1-6922.

Bonds Called

(Continued from Page 1) MacArthur stated, "This levy is one we will continue to assess until the 1956 bond issue is redeemed. Initially the debt was $3,475,000, the greater part of which is represented by Brownell Junior High School."

"This places the districts indebtedness at 1.21% of the assessed valuation," Superintendent Charles H. Wilson pointed out. "To my knowledge this is one of the lowest suburban school debts in the nation and represents an admirable state of affairs. The district obviously has been extremely well managed as it grew to its present, nearly maximum size."

Operating Costs Up

Reductions in debt levies have been offset in several instances by increases in operating levies needed to meet rising costs and improvements to the educational program, Dr. Wilson said. All-in-all, however, the record shows that total levies for all school purposes are currently 2.07 mills lower than they were at their peak in 1960-61.

70 Cents Stolen By Sneak Thief

Mrs. Alida Huvaere of 1259 Maryland, did not know a sneak thief had entered her house on Monday, January 7, until a neighbor returned her purse, found in the neighbor's back-yard.
Mrs. Huvaere told Park police that the thief must have entered her home through an unlocked side door, facing Ver-nor Highway.

The purse was returned by Mrs. James Duncan of 1272 Wayburn, who found the purse in her back yard, with its contents of personal papers and car keys scattered about.
Mrs. Huvaere said the thief took 70 cents, the only money in the purse.

Noted Catholic Editor Pays Pointe Visit

Dorothy Day, editor of the Catholic Worker newspaper, visited Detroit January 8 to "open the eyes and minds" of area youth. Miss Day edits one of Catholicism's most controversial tabloids, The New York Catholic Worker.
Miss Day was a Socialist before being converted to Catholicism. She is now concerned with providing food and lodging for the needy throughout the country. She does this through the Catholic Worker Movement which she founded with the late Peter Maurin.
This movement operates Hospitality Houses in major cities across the U. S. These houses are maintained by men and women leading lives of voluntary poverty — living only on what is given to them.
Students became acquainted with the Movement here in Detroit through the work of Lou Murphy, who operates two hospitality houses in Detroit—St. Francis home of Men located at 1429 Bagley and St. Martha Home for women located at 1818 Leverette.

Dorothy Day spoke Tuesday afternoon at St. Paul High School to an audience of 350 students from 11 different schools. She emphasized the necessity for generosity toward the underprivileged.
She told the students to acquire all the knowledge they can at present so that they will be intelligent, generous citizens of the future.

Spending $4,304 For Tree Work

The Park will spend $4,304 to trim approximately 620 city-owned trees and for other tree work.
On Monday, January 14, the Park council awarded the work contract to Shock Brothers Tree Service Company, which submitted the lowest bid for the project.
The trees to be trimmed will be predominantly elms and maples, according to the agreement, all between the curb and sidewalk.
The firm will trim 44 trees on Harvard, between Maumee and Kercheval; 14 trees on Bishop, between Kercheval and Vernor, excluding three trees on east side north of Kercheval; 53 trees on Three Mile drive, between Jefferson and St. Paul; 188 trees on Lakepointe, between Jefferson and Mack.
Forty trees on Berkshire, between Vernor and Mack and first line inside sidewalk; 60 trees on Whittier, between Jefferson and Lake St. Clair, and first line inside of sidewalk; 30 trees on Grand Marais, between Essex and the lake, and first line inside sidewalk; 42 trees on Three Mile drive, between Jefferson and Essex; and 60 trees on St. Paul, between Cadieux and Buckingham.

Also, the company agreed to trim a tree in front of 1072 Devonshire, to compensate root removal for a sidewalk replacement; remove two trees at 752 Trombley, in front of vacant lot; remove a tree limb overhanging a house at 805 Beaconsfield, and another at 1080 Balfour, and remove a tree at 1405 Cadieux, this being on the Charlevoix side, fourth tree west of Cadieux.
Further, the firm will remove a 24-inch elm from in front of 15701 Windmill Pointe drive; a four-inch maple from in front of 1345 Maryland. All stumps to be removed eight inches below grade.
The contract also stipulates that the company will repair a tree split by a bar and cable in front of 1358 Berkshire.
Work on the trees has already begun and will be completed by March 30.

Lecture Series At St. James

The Board of Christian Education of St. James Lutheran Church, McMillan at Kercheval, will host a Sunday evening series of four Lecture-Discussions of "The Family Forum in Christian Living." They will be held from 8 to 9:30 p.m. in the Green Room of the Church.
Dr. Armin Grams, of the faculty of the Merrill-Palmer Institute of Human Development and Family Life and a member of St. James, will lead the Lecture-Discussions.
The first program will be presented January 20 on the "Development of Personality." Others to follow will be the "Roll of Parent in Religious Development of Child" on January 27, "Discipline" on February 3, and "Understanding the Adolescent" on February 10.

GM PRODUCTION REPORT
Retail sales of new General Motors passenger cars in the United States during the last three months of 1962 reached an all-time high for the fourth quarter. During the fourth quarter of the year, General Motors dealers sold 1,051,260 new cars, as compared to 850,771 sold during the final quarter of 1961, the previous record.

Center Offers Travel Films

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association invites Pointers to view colored slides of the most picturesque and romantic parts of Europe in the Fries Auditorium Monday evening, January 25, at 8 o'clock, when Ernest Lamb will show and comment on his fine pictures of Southern France, Spain and Majorca. (This will be the January attraction for the Center's "Meet the Travellers" program. The Lambs covered some 3,500 miles by automobile taking these pictures. Beginning in Paris the slides will show views of the celebrated chateaux to the South—Chambord, Chenonceaux, Amboise and Blois. Then the pictures move on to Biarritz with its fabulous seashore and to San Sebastian, the summer capital of Spain on the Bay of Biscay.

In Spain the audience will see Burgos and its Cathedral, Segovia and its ancient Roman aqueduct and the monument in the Valley of the Fallen erected by Franco in memory of those who fell on both sides in the civil war. In Madrid there will be beautiful original paintings of El Greco, Goya, Murillo and Velasquez in the Prado Museum.

In the south of Spain viewers will see the mosque at Cordoba, the Giralda Tower in Sevilla, then move on through Cadiz and Granada to Gibraltar. Highlight of this journey will of course be the Alhambra at Granada and the Generalife Palace of its architect nearby.

After a stop at the resort town of Benidorm on the Costa Blanca, Mr. Lamb will take the crowd to Valencia and the Church of the Holy Grail. Then there will be a side trip to Majorca, the loveliest island in the Mediterranean, then back to Barcelona and the Costa Brava before turning inland to the Province of Andorra in the Pyrenees.

The pictures will conclude with scenes of the Toulouse Lautrec country at Albi in Southern France.

Elect Vestrymen At St. Michael's

St. Michael's Episcopal Church held its annual parish meeting on Sunday evening, January 13, preceded by a buffet supper.

Various annual reports were read, after which the following men were elected to serve on the Vestry, the governing body of the parish, for the next three years: Mr. John W. Bennett, 633 Lochmoor boulevard; Mr. William E. Hanson, 1580 Lochmoor boulevard; Mr. Ernest Harmon, 1660 Fairholme; Mr. M. Richard Marr, 52 Hawthorne road; Mr. John B. Renick, 2135 Lennon avenue.

In accordance with the policy adopted by the first vestry of the parish, fifteen years ago, the following men retired from that body after completing a three year term: Messrs. Robert Bodycombe, Frank Butcher, John W. Mathews (Senior Warden), Harry C. Smith, and Robert A. Waters (Secretary).

At the close of the annual meeting, the new Vestry met briefly, and elected the following officers for 1963: Senior Warden, Mr. George N. Bashara, Jr.; Junior Warden, Mr. Donald R. Ford; Secretary, Mr. Richard E. Noyes; Treasurer, Mr. Edwin W. Petersen.

Council-Manager Rule Is Popular

The council-manager form of local government, used in all the Grosse Pointes, continued its rapid growth in 1962. Last year, 93 additional communities in the United States and Canada adopted the plan, most popular form of local government in cities of 25,000 to 250,000 population.

More than half the cities in this population group are council-manager cities, according to the "1963 Directory of Council Manager Cities" soon to be published by the International City Managers' Association.

Leading the states with communities adopting the plan in 1962 was Pennsylvania with 11, followed by North Carolina with 10. California, Michigan, and Texas each reported seven new council-manager plan adoptions. Fourteen new council-manager cities were reported from Canada.

Mecklenburg County, North Carolina, with a population of 272,111, was the largest of eight counties that adopted the plan. Among the larger cities which will be added to the 1963 Directory are Reading, Pa., (98,177), Chesapeake, Va., (73,600), and St. John, New Brunswick, Canada (52,491).

Since 1950 the number of cities using the council-manager plan has increased an average of 70 per year. Sixteen of the 51 cities with population in excess of a quarter-million are council-manager cities. Four of these have populations in excess of a half-million: San Antonio and Dallas, Texas; San Diego, California; and Cincinnati, Ohio. The largest local government with the council-manager plan is Dade County (Miami), Florida, which has a population of 935,047.

The council-manager form of government is 55 years old. It started in 1908 when the council of Staunton, Virginia, appointed a manager. Four years later, Sumter, South Carolina, became the first city in which the plan was adopted by a vote of the people. Under the system, a manager is appointed by the council to serve as administrative head of the city or county government under the general direction of an elected council.

A survey reported in the directory indicates that most of the men appointed as managers during 1962 had previous public administrative experience, usually as a manager in another city, an assistant manager, or a department head. Most of the new appointees were under 40 years of age at the time of their appointment. In addition to the 1,891 council-manager places in North America, listed in the Directory, there are 1,732 cities and counties in Finland, West Germany, Ireland, Norway and Sweden.

ON DETROIT EDISON'S 60th BIRTHDAY . . . A SALUTE TO THE SOUTHEASTERN MICHIGAN COMMUNITY

BACK IN 1903 . . .

... in the first year of Detroit Edison's corporate life... our company employed 200 people, had 22,000 customers, 135 shareowners, and was able to meet a maximum demand of 5,000 kilowatts of electric power.

NOW . . . 60 years later . . .

... Edison people number 9,500, serving 1,293,000 customers, with an electrical system capability of more than 4,000,000 kilowatts. And our company is owned by 106,000 investors, most of whom live right here in Michigan.

In a very large measure, Detroit Edison owes its success to the environment in which the company was born—and to all the people who through the years have made up the great and growing community of Detroit and Southeastern Michigan.

On this 60th Anniversary, we offer our sincerest thanks to all these people—the doctors, ministers, teachers, all the professions—the engineers and inventors, the skilled craftsmen of our industries—the builders, the merchants and the farmers—the men and women who have invested their savings to make our enterprise productive and successful.

To the citizens of Southeastern Michigan, we give special recognition for their part in enabling our company to grow and thus contribute to the growth and prosperity of our state. Through these people—all our customers—we look forward with confidence to another . . .

MICHIGAN BELL
Telephone Lines

IF YOUR CLUB, SCHOOL, church or civic group is planning a program, the new Bell System motion picture, "TELSTAR," could be just what your Program Chairman is looking for. This 27-minute film, in color, is a dramatic on-the-scene story of the development, launching, and history-making performance of the world's first active communications satellite. Narrated by Alexander Scourby, the film is available on loan, without charge, from our business office.

WE "THINK SMALL." The Telstar satellite, only 34 1/4 inches in diameter, contains 15,000 components. Size was certainly important in designing it. When it comes to our regular telephone equipment, we look for ways to make parts and components smaller, too. It takes a lot of equipment to make your telephone work... a single call can involve thousands of electrical switches. Since buildings are needed to house this equipment, savings in space mean savings in money. Making equipment smaller requires less material, and that saves money too. This "miniaturization" is just one of the many ways we strive to do things better and more efficiently, so you get more for your telephone dollar.

WHEN AN ILL WIND BLOWS the smart woman goes—shopping by phone! Sensible? Couldn't be more so! Shopping by phone is the cozy, quick way to run all over town—right from your easy chair. So don't let blustery winds blow away your shopping plans. Settle back and shop by phone. Just check your newspaper or the Yellow Pages for what you want or where to buy it. Give the dial a few flicks... and it's yours! Shopping by phone is fast... easy... fun. Why not try it soon?

Pointe Theater to Give Comedy on Feb. 1, 2, 8, 9

Offering some king-sized chuckles about hypochondria and suburbia, the Grosse Pointe Community Theater's forthcom- ing production of "Send Me No Flowers" is to be presented at the Fries Auditorium on Feb- ruary 1, 2, 8 and 9.

Written by Norman Barasch and Carroll Moore, a couple of longtime gag writers for tele- vision, "Send Me No Flowers" is a modern re-telling of the 300 year old Moliere farce, "The Imaginary Invalid."

In it Don White, (George Kimball), and Jo Ann Moran, (Judy Kimball), are introduced as a couple contentedly married for 15 years, with a nice sub- urban mortgage and enough life insurance to comfort a po- tential widow. Their only trou- ble is the husband's decision that he's in frail health, when he's actually as strong as a horse.

When the family doctor is summoned on one of his un- necessary calls, the husband misinterprets a phone call of the doctor to be played by Jack Donachie, (Dr. Morrissey), and becomes convinced that the physician's talk about another patient, with a fatal cardiograph- reading, is really about his own situation and that the doctor is hiding from him his own im- minent passing.

He confides the knowledge of his doom only to a next-door neighbor, to be played by Nor- man Miller, (Arnold), who is so grief-stricken that he stays drunk three days, mows his stricken pal's lawn and painfull- y writes a eulogy for the up- coming memorial service. Mo- rossely the brave husband also decides to assure his widow-to- be's future by arranging for

Crash Victims Out of Danger

George H. Weekes, 70, and his wife, Beatrice K., 63, were reported recovering from in- juries incurred in a traffic ac- cident on January 1. They live at 4438 Yorkshire, Detroit.

Both suffered fractured skulls when they were thrown out of their car when hit by another driven by Robert McCullum, 34, of 518 Montclair. McCullum suffered a minor wrist injury.

Mr. Weekes, a retired Wayne County probation officer, was released from Bon Secours Hospital on Monday, Janu- ary 7, and is recovering at home. His wife, who was listed as in critical condition, suffered a depressed skull fracture which necessitated an operation.

The operation was performed on Wednesday, January 9, and was successful. Doctors said that the depression did not cause any brain damage. Mrs. Weekes is still under care at the hospital.

With the expected recovery of Mrs. Weekes, Park Police

GPHS Parents To Hear Wilson

Dr. Charles Wilson, new Superintendent of Schools, will speak on the subject, "The Spirited Years of Youth," at the Grosse Pointe High School Annual Parent Program Night on January 21, in the New Gym at 8 p.m.

"For reasons difficult to un- derstand, adults are seldom able to cross the bridge separating them from the teen-ager. In one breath we extol the activi- ties and wisdom of our own growing-up years, and in the next, we condemn the activities and lack of wisdom in our own children."

Dr. Wilson intends to explore this paradox in human nature, in an attempt to reaffirm faith in this wonderful generation of young people.

Mrs. Robert Jessup, program chairman, will introduce the speaker, and Mrs. Albert D. Law, president of the Mothers' Club, will preside.

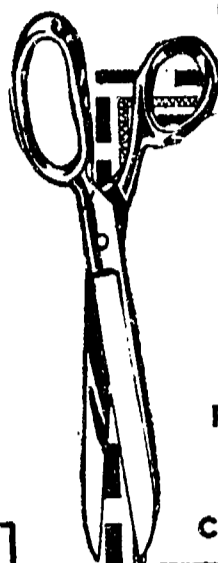

During the social hour which follows the program, all will have the opportunity to meet Dr. and Mrs. Wilson, and to welcome them to the com- munity.

All fathers, mothers, and in- terested citizens are invited.

Brownell Plans Concert Jan. 18

When Brownell Junior High School Instrumental music In- structor Dewey Kalember steps to the podium and taps for attention at 8 o'clock Friday evening, January 18, the two largest instrumental groups in the brief history of the school will be facing him.

The seventh grade band, consisting of 60 students playing together in public performance for the first time, will begin the evening's musical program.

They will be followed by the experienced Concert Band, which is made up of 80 eighth and ninth graders.

Selections on which these students have been practicing for months are of various types—classical, swing, and novelty. Featured as clarinet soloist in one number will be George Noite, with Seth Bidwell as accompanist.

Ushers include Denise Car- michael, Sally Hicks, Linda

Neuman, Karen Ulmer, and Judy Via.

Tickets, which have been on sale by all members of the bands, will also be available at the door of the school's auditorium-gym.

Chicken Dinners New at Original Pancake House

Delicious chicken dinners, complete with mashed potatoes, giblet gravy, cole slaw, biscuits and honey is a new innovation at "The Original Pancake House," 20273 Mack Avenue.

Here, where Gourmet eating is available at reasonable prices, plans are underway to feature carry-out chicken dinners.

The recipes they use are typical of the authentic recipes and quality used in everything on the menu. They are noted for their collection of fine recipes. The best from each country or area of origin make their food real taste thrills.

The Original Pancake House was founded in Portland, Oregon. It has won wide acclaim and was chosen by James Beard, as one of the ten best restaurants in America.

it also won the McCall citation in 1956 for Excellence in the Preparation and Presentation of food. The sour dough barrel is the same as that used by the prospectors of the Old West, who were famous for sour dough flap-jacks.

Variety is the big news here. Order, among many others, a Swedish pancake, a potato pancake, or an Hawaiian one. Order old-fashioned American fries, golden french toast, or a side order of Canadian bacon, real smoked butter ball ham, a thick slice of bacon, or farm style sausage. An omelette lovers' delight are those light and fluffy as a cloud omelettes served plain or with ham, cheese, or strawberries.

Never compromising with quality, you can be assured that the quality of food is always maintained. They use pure whipping cream (36%) used in batters and coffee. Only 93 score butter is used in cooking. Blending their own coffee, assures the drinker a full-bodied winey, true coffee flavor. Orange juice is squeezed fresh daily, and only farm-fresh extra large white eggs are used.

Small parties and business meetings are encouraged by reservation. Parking facilities are excellent here where you can enjoy eating from 7 a.m. until midnight everyday, and Fridays and Saturdays until 2 a.m.

Messrs. J. Gernon, H. Hamilton, and A. Volz run this smoothly operated restaurant. Mr. John Tom is manager.

Pointe Chorus Invites Singers

The Grosse Pointe Community Chorus, a mixed choral group of more than 100 men and women, opens its tenth anniversary year with a registration rehearsal on Tuesday, January 22, at 7:30 p.m. at Parcels Junior High School, Mack at Eight Mile.

Singers over high school age are invited. No auditions are necessary. Registration fee for the 1963 Spring Concert season is $4.50 per person, or $7.50 per couple.

The spring concert this year will be a gala affair, including highlights of the first 10 years. It will be presented Sunday, April 28.

The Chorus, co-sponsored by the Department of Community Services, Grosse Pointe Board of Education, and the Chorus board of directors is entirely a non-profit organization.

It was founded in the spring of 1953 by Malcolm McLean Johns, Professor of Music at Wayne State University and organist at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, and for the past several years has been under the direction of Don Simmons. Membership is not restricted to residents of the Pointes.

A special invitation to membership is made to all former members of the chorus, and Mr. Johns will be invited to conduct the finale of the spring concert. Further information may be had from Don Simmons, TUxedo 4-5964.

District GOP For Constitution

Fourteenth District Republicans, at the regular meeting of their District Committee on Thursday, January 10, took official and enthusiastic action in favor of the new Constitution.

Calling the product of Con-Con "a tremendous improvement" for good government in Michigan's future, the District Committee unanimously went on record urging that citizens interested in progress vote for the Constitution on April 1.

"Some members of the committee opposed the calling of the Con-Con last year," said a spokesman for the District. "But everyone was unanimous last night in favoring the adoption on April 1 of the product of the Con-Con."

The 14th District is expected to provide a strong campaign for the passage of the Constitution. It was the only Republican Congressional District in Wayne County to show an improvement over 1960 for the Party vote in last year's election.

7 Cases Heard In City Court

Seven persons appeared before Judge Douglas L. Paterson in Grosse Pointe City Justice Court last week. Cases against two were dismissed, one was found not guilty on a charge of interfering with traffic and causing an accident, and the other four, adjudged guilty, paid fines ranging from $5 to $25.

Dismissed when the complainant refused to sign a complaint were cases against Myrtle Lowrie, 719 Washington, and James L. Rauch, 486 Kercheval. The former had been charged with car-not-under-control and causing an accident, the latter with reckless driving and causing an accident.

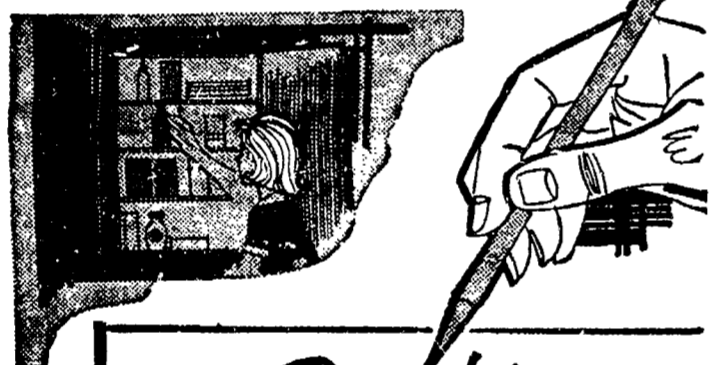

Judge Paterson found Karl Henry Andersen, 4189 Woodhall, Detroit, not guilty of interfering with traffic and causing an accident. Esther Geneva Veit, 243 Chalfonte, who stood mute when charged with reckless driving and causing an accident, was found guilty of failing to stop for a stop sign and directed to pay a $5 fine.

RUNS RED SIGNAL

We can take a hint. When people are as happy with something as Pontiac owners are with Wide-Track, we're willing—nay, eager—to let everybody else in on it. That's why Tempest has a Wide-Track of its own this year. It's why you get to choose between a lively 4 and a 326-cu. in. V-8, too. ### MONEY MANAGEMENT

For people who want to make a budget work

Some tell us they have budget trouble because it's so hard to remember every budget item. Others say it's because they never know how they're doing from month to month.

You'll find that you can overcome these obstacles with our "Money Management Guide & Workbook" — now available at any of our 72 offices for $1.25.

This book tells you how to plan for a budget and how to prepare one—although it allows for the fact that no two people could—or should—manage their money exactly alike. It shows you if you're keeping within your budget—and what to do about it if you're not.

Of course, there are the day-by-day record sheets you find in any budget book. But there are many extras, too: charts that keep track of tax data, insurance and your net worth. Unlike most budget books, it's looseleaf so you can insert new pages.

With the "Money Management Guide & Workbook," instead of asking where your money went, you could be telling it where to go. It's another part of our continuing program to help you with family money management.

Victory Over Royal Oak Tenth for Devil Cagers

By Bill Hagman

Last Friday night the Grosse Pointe High School Blue Devil cagers won their tenth straight game of the season and fourth straight in the BCL by downing the Acorns 59-39.

The Devils are rated number two in the state by both the Detroit News and Detroit Free Press. Benton Harbor holds down the number one spot.

Against the Acorns the Pointers started slowly. The small gym was partly responsible for the poor start.

Bob Lonesk had 16 points to lead the Devils. Gary Spade added 14 and Bob Hadley had eight.

The second quarter was all Grosse Pointe needed as they outscored Dondero 22-11 to take a 34-16 halftime lead.

The Devils put the game completely out of reach in the third quarter when they outscored the Acorns 20-11 to take a 54-27 lead into the last period of play.

The Devil reserves didn't stay with the home team in the last quarter as they were outpointed 12-5 but by then it was too late for the Acorns to catch the high flying Pointers.

Fordson and Highland Park both stayed close to the Devils by winning their BCL games.

Each of them has a three win and one loss record compared to the Devils' perfect four wins no loss record.

The Royal Oak game was the Devils' lowest scoring game of the season. However their defensive efforts equaled their previous record when they downed Southfield 69-39.

Marc Lonesk had 16 points to lead the Devils. Gary Spade added 14 and Bob Hadley had eight.

Austin Tankers Break Records

Austin Prep's swimming team smashed four pool records and one school mark last Thursday when they defeated Warren-Lincoln High, 68-37, in a non-league contest.

Outstanding was the performance of the 200-yard medley relay team which broke the pool record at Warren Lincoln and the Austin record in place sixth in the state in its winning time of 1:38.1.

The medley relay team of John Schable, Jim Cleary, Ron Brodowicz, and Pete Wayne also broke a pool record with a 1:56.4 performance.

Trill Most of Way U-D led the Friars most of the way on the road to their win Friday.

Ski Club Plans Mid-Week Trip

The Center's Grosse Pointe Ski Club is picking up all activity of previous seasons and is offering to its members and other interested Grosse Pointe skiers a mid-week evening ski trip to Alpine on Wednesday, January 30, from 5:30 to 12 o'clock.

The group will gather at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, 32 Lake Shore road, where cars may be parked and equipment left in the morning on the way to the Center at midnight.

Jim Kushman placed first in the 100 yard Breaststroke when Olzmann was disqualified. The time was 1:10.3.

John Barlow splashed to victory in the 400 yard Freestyle while John Clark captured third. The time was 4:38.7.

Lozelle won the 160 yard Individual Medley with a time of 1:53.2. Butch Tompkins was third.

The Acorns' only win came in the 40 yard Freestyle. Aronson was second and Potts third. The time was 18.1 seconds.

This last win over Royal Oak was the Pointers' fourth against two setbacks this season in dual meet competition.

They were Birmingham Seaholm and Ann Arbor. Grosse Pointe placed third in the annual Royal Oak Kimball Relays held earlier this season.

The Grosse Pointe swimmers are hosts to Fordson Friday for another BCL dual meet.

Austin High Cagers Lose Important Contest to U-D

Austin Prep's basketball team slipped for a night against underdog U-D and lost its hold on the top rung of the Central League when U-D's sky-high Cubs battered the Friars to a 61-53 decision.

The previous Tuesday, the Friars had prefigured their fall to U-D with an unimpressive 63-43 win over Detroit Cathedral.

The loss thoroughly scrambled the Central League race. Austin, U-D, and Catholic Central are all tied for first place with 6-1 marks.

Probably the Friars will have to beat CC and Notre Dame and CC will have to beat U-D for the Friars to take the championship.

U-D led the Friars most of the way on the road to their win Friday. After trailing the Cubs by three at the first quarter mark, 15-12, Austin rallied to a tie when Doug Winkworth sank a free throw with four seconds left in the second half, 31-30, but then got cold and let the Cubs score seven straight points.

The Cubs led, 41-36, at the beginning of the final stanza and opened that lead to 47-38 with six minutes left. But big Rick Pine sank 3 clutch points and Tom Taras scored four more to pull the Friars to 54-50 with 1:15 left.

John Hoag had smashed in a blistering twenty foot slap shot on a pass from Matt Devine in the first for the Wolves to give them an early lead, but a Wolves' defensive lapse in the second period gave alert Bruin Doug Campbell the puck in front of the cage and his relay to Jim Praught set up the Bruins' first goal and set the stage for Sides' winning effort.

Keith and Charley Edwards also played well for the Bruins, while for the Wolves, goalie Max Gardner and wings Bob Nutter and Reece McDonnell impressed.

Saturday's games match the Stars and Wolves while the improving Wings and Bruins will test strength in a second feature.

The tight second contest between the Bruins and Wolves went to the Bruins 2 to 1 as Saint Sides brought a brilliant shot from the right wing in the Peewee Division.

In the first match between the Stars and Wings, the Stars came out with a rush and jumped off to a three goal lead in the first stanza to two unassisted goals by John Walsh and another by Bill Wilson.

The game was shaping up as a rout but the Stars' lack of bench strength showed up in the late going as Wings rookie Bud Grog put on a solo late in the period and Steve Spitzley took a pass from Jim Grace to score in the second frame.

Grace then bounced in a third period effort to earn the Wings a three all tie.

New player Kevin Bolton of the Wings put on a strong two-effort while John Walsh's fine shots were a constant threat for the Stars.

GPUS Knights Win 4 in Row

Despite several handicaps the Grosse Pointe University School Knights rolled to an easy 58-29 victory over Detroit Country Day last Saturday, January 12.

It was the fourth victory in a row for the squad.

Deprived of the services of senior guard John Golanty, due to illness, the Grosse Pointers jumped to a 16-4 first period lead. Fouls during this period changed the complexion of the game completely.

The regulars played only a quarter as they jumped to a quick 10 to 1 lead in the first three minutes of play.

St. Paul Lakers Conquer Two More Foes on Court

The Saint Paul Lakers basketball team capped an exciting week of play by emerging victoriously in two hard-fought contests in their drive toward the league title.

The squad showed depth as well as skill as it eased to a 54-28 victory over lowly St. Catherine's Wednesday night in the losers' gym.

Devil Tankers Keep Record Clean in League Contests

Last Friday night the Grosse Pointe High School Blue Devil swimmers won their fourth straight BCL victory by downing the Acorns, 75-28.

Jack Tectaert broke the varsity record in the 100-yard backstroke. His time of 58.2 seconds broke the old record of 58.9 set by Les Cutler back in 1958.

The Pointers took first and second place in four events and won both medleys and the diving to turn the contest into a rout.

Mike Irvine placed first and Don DeMeulemeester second in the 100 yard Freestyle. Mike's time was 53.4.

Tectaert took first with Fred Cutler second in the record-breaking event. The winning time in the 100 yard backstroke was 58.2.

The 200 yard Freestyle saw Irvine take first and DeMeulemeester second. The winning time was 2:03.0.

The Pointe team captured the Medley Relay in a time of 1:23.0. Members were Cutler, Tectaert, Kurt Olzmann and Jim Lozelle.

The 160 yard Medley Freestyle Relay saw Grosse Pointe win in a time of 1:15.3. Members were Cutler, Tectaert, Kurt Olzmann and Jim Lozelle.

Hockey Players In Close Games

In two close Grosse Pointe Hockey League games played Saturday, January 12, at Ice Flair the Bruins and Wings picked up points on their rivals in the Peewee Division.

In the first match between the Stars and Wings, the Stars came out with a rush and jumped off to a three goal lead in the first stanza to two unassisted goals by John Walsh and another by Bill Wilson.

The game was shaping up as a rout but the Stars' lack of bench strength showed up in the late going as Wings rookie Bud Grog put on a solo late in the period and Steve Spitzley took a pass from Jim Grace to score in the second frame.

Lakers Conquer Bruins on Court

Lakers basketball team capped an evening by emerging victoriously in two games as they drove toward the league...

In the first half the score remained close until the Lakers ran up nine straight points in the closing minutes to hold a 27-10 edge as the buzzer sounded.

In the third quarter the Lakers played contral ball as they held St. Paul to a mere seven points. The final quarter saw the Lakers retaining their lead with Barry Trombly pouring in five points to prove the offensive spark. Jim Bigham was high for St. Paul with 15 followed by Gary Ghesquiere with 13. Bob Martin, rugged 6-5 center, teamed with Brian Schiek to control the defensive and offensive boards.

St. Paul encounters a tough St. David squad at 8:15 Friday night at the Grosse Pointe High School Gym.

Ask Schools To Give Help To Retarded

League of Women Voters Reaches Consensus After Long Study of Subject

After intensive study of the problem of exceptional children and the tax-supported facilities serving them in the Grosse Pointes, the League of Women Voters of Grosse Pointe has reached consensus and stated its position regarding the role of the Grosse Pointe public schools in this field.

The following statement has been issued by the Board of the League of Women Voters:

1. Continue and improve efforts to count atypical children.
2. Expand and extend 'slow-to-learn' classes.
3. Begin classes for trainable retarded.
4. Begin classes for emotionally handicapped and/or neurologically impaired.
5. Expand the 'visiting teacher' program.

Writer Superintendent
In a letter to Dr. Charles Wilson, Superintendent of the Grosse Pointe schools, Mrs. Leonard Slowin, president of the League, explains the five points in greater detail. She also states, "In its traditional way the League spent considerable time studying this subject before consensus was taken and positions adopted. The points listed deal primarily with the needs of emotionally-disturbed and mentally-retarded children."

Sees Need for Clinic
The League has also taken consensus on the need for a publicly supported child guidance clinic on the East Side, not connected with the public schools. Pursuant to this, the League is planning an open meeting, in cooperation with other concerned organizations, to be held on February 7, at 8 p.m., in the War Memorial, to discuss the functions of such a clinic and explore various courses of action.

League policy does not allow the organization to participate in the actual establishment or administration of a child guidance clinic. However, the organization may participate in activities stimulating community interest in the problem and members of the League may serve as individuals in any capacity desired.

Boyd to Lecture At St. Columba

St. Columba Episcopal Church will present the Third Annual Berkeley Memorial Lecture on Friday, January 25, at 8 p.m. The Reverend Malcolm Boyd will talk on "Changing Ethics in American Society."

Mr. Boyd has crowded a full lifetime of experience into his 39 years. He has worked in the advertising field; has held important executive positions in the motion picture, radio and television industries; is the author of several books and a contributor to numerous theological and secular publications; and has travelled extensively in Europe. In 1962 he was named by Life Magazine as one of the hundred outstanding young men in the country.

All persons interested in this vital and timely talk on Christian ethics are urged to attend. There will be no charge. A coffee reception in the Parish House will follow the lecture.

Aldridge Aids In YMCA Drive

The Boost in Mail Rates

The following information has been compiled by the Magazine Publishers Association, in connection with the demise of the four-cent first class letter and the beginning of the nickel minimum. It was so interesting to us that we thought we'd pass it along to our readers.

After January 7 the lightest, thinnest, first class letter in a sealed envelope will cost five cents to send for the second time in American history. Perhaps this is a happy augury; the earlier nickel letter gave way to lower postage because the Postal Service lowered its costs per letter. That was in 1851.

How high are postal costs? This year total appropriations for the postal establishment are 4.5 billion dollars. How much is that? Well, the whole Government of the United States, including national debt service and veterans' benefits, was run on only a little more than that amount in 1932-33 — approximately 5 billion dollars.

People were cursing about high taxes even then, of course, but the point is that this upward sweep has taken place in such a short span of time. Just since the end of World War II, postal costs have about quadrupled. With only one slight interruption, they have risen from $1.1 billion in 1945 to an estimated $4.5 billion for fiscal 1963.

If that postal cost experience were to continue and postal technology remain largely unchanged, budget requirements in the next 17 years would reach an appalling level. The Postmaster General himself is the source of that view.

Can the Postal Service cut its costs per unit? Experts say it certainly can, and they point to what has been done by at least one major communication service, and by some of the outstanding distribution businesses of the country.

A long-distance telephone call from coast to coast can be made today for $2.25 cost $16.50 in the nineteen twenties, just before the telephone company began to automate its service, gradually, progressively, a stage at a time until now from almost any phone in the country you can dial direct to almost any other.

In this time, by the way, telephone employment has multiplied 2 1/2 times to 730,000 men and women. The A.T.&T. could not have tackled it all at once; it could not have done it all unless the changes had been made a step at a time.

The Postal Service, by contrast, having also obtained its first mechanizing equipment in the twenties, has not spent any important amount in improving basic processes of sorting, handling and distributing mail. The Post Office reported to Congress in 1962 that from 1951 through 1962, a period of 12 years, it has spent only $41.9 million on research and development and only $80 million on major mechanization, or a total of $122 million. The department said it had 183 machines in 85 offices.

Contrast these figures: Of every $100 in appropriations, the Post Office spends only 33 cents for research, development and mechanization. Private industry, on the other hand, spends an average of $3 out of every $100 for research alone.

And these: The Post Office has told Congress that its investment in mechanical equipment per employee is $700. For all U.S. industry, the average is $2,000 per employee.

DISTRIBUTION A different story of handling distribution costs is found in the food chain business. One example: The A&P had 15,709 stores in 39 states in the 1930s and found the numerous small locations eating up profit opportunities. By 1962 it had consolidated to 4,409 supermarkets in the same 39 states. In doing so it multiplied its floor space, the volume of business done and the number of customers served. Employment tripled in the same period.

By contrast, the Postal Service in this motor age maintains 35,000 distribution points. In Westchester County, famous as the "bedroom community" for commuting New Yorkers—overwhelmingly the two-car family type—there is on the average one post office for each 4,040 residents. The county has 59 post offices and 150 branches where mail is handled almost precisely as it was in 1890.

What's more, these 200 postal service stations are less than 2 1/2 miles apart.

With such a history, why should we expect anything different in the future?

Three factors are present: 1. For many users costs are reaching the point of diminishing returns. There are other ways to communicate than by mail, and other ways to distribute papers, magazines, packages and information. Another rate hike or two will greatly increase the attraction of alternate means.

2. Even the banks can now sort and distribute checks, coast to coast, despite the infinity of illegible signatures, on a virtual "no hands" basis. The advance of electronics makes possible adoption — on a step-by-step, progressive basis — of means which will lift the load from people's backs, which will relieve them of visual and manual sorting—and slash costs.

3. Congress itself has shown a vigorous interest, and the President of the United States has asked that every Government establishment step up its productivity. In Congress, the Senate's standing committee responsible for postal affairs — led by Senators Johnston and Carlson — has declared Congress has to study and stay with this subject. If it seeks money and authority to investigate, as is expected, pressure for action will be on. In the past, Congressmen have not been unfriendly, naturally, to more postal buildings and employees in their home districts, but when costs get as high as they are now, something has to happen.

Can people in general help do anything about it? Yes, indeed. They can help their offices get most of the mail out early in the day, and spread their own personal mail, payments of bills, etc., throughout the month. They can be more accurate in the use of zone numbers and more careful to address mail legibly.

People can support the many mail user groups that are encouraging the post office to modernize.

Of course, they can also have something to say when they talk to their Congressmen, and they can support their Senators in the coming studies.

TIP TO MOTORISTS Don't try to crowd too many miles into too few hours on your holiday trip—take it easy and live.

NO SOLUTIONS Political keynote speeches prove just how much easier it is to condemn than to construct.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

Just 100 years ago this past December, a little girl named Alice Liddell received a unique, and ultimately famous, Christmas gift from the Reverend Charles L. Dodgson—the first copy of a book entitled: "ALICE'S ADVENTURES UNDER GROUND," written out and illustrated by the author. When finally published, this was changed to "ALICE'S ADVENTURES IN WONDERLAND" with illustrations by Sir John Tenniel, and the author had taken the pseudonym of Lewis Carroll.

It is doubtful that either little Alice or the shy Oxford don, who had finally been persuaded to put his summer story on paper, would have ever dreamed that this tale would become one of the juvenile best sellers of all time, with more than 20 different editions of the books available in this country alone. And just what do we know about the original Alice? Born in 1852 in London, Alice Pleasance Liddell was one of eight children, her father being Dean of Christ Church College. It was there, in 1856, that she met Dodgson, when he was at the deanery photographing the Cathedral. He liked the Liddell girls — quiet, well-bred, polite and good looking — in short, admirable subjects for photography and a good audience for his stories. Alice, later in life, was to recall that much of "THROUGH THE LOOKING GLASS" was made up of his earlier stories, especially the ones dealing with chessmen, as the girls were learning to play chess at this time.

As Alice Liddell grew older, she saw Dodgson less and less. The last picture of her taken by the author-photographer mathematician was when she was about 22. The last time she saw him was probably in 1891 when she was in Oxford visiting her mother.

In 1880 Alice married Reginald Hargreaves, a wealthy sportsman. They had three sons, two of whom were killed in the first World War. In 1928, two years after her husband's death, Alice Hargreaves decided to sell her original manuscript of ALICE. It was sold to A. S. W. Rosenbach for $75,000, at that time the highest price ever realized for an English book.

In 1932, at the time of the Lewis Carroll centenary, Alice opened a vast Carroll exhibition in London, and in the spring of that year, she came to the United States with her son, Caryl, and sister, Rhoda, where Columbia University had a Carroll celebration and gave her an honorary Litt.D. In 1934 she died of a stroke, having outlived the other two sisters who had attended the famous picnic that momentous July 4th when the story of Alice was first conceived.

The Grosse Pointe Central Library is currently displaying a sampling of its Lewis Carroll Collection. Here you may see a copy of ALICE'S ADVENTURES UNDER GROUND, Grandville's VIE PRIVEE ET PUBLIQUE DES ANIMAUX (which served as an inspiration for both Carroll and Tenniel), a Christmas and New Year's greeting (1871) from Lewis Carroll, several original letters of this author, a copy of ALICE autographed by Alice Hargreaves, and copies of ALICE IN WONDERLAND in French, German, Italian, Swahili (!)—and even Gregg shorthand!

The most recent acquisitions to this Lewis Carroll Collection are a set of records of ALICE'S ADVENTURES IN WONDERLAND, related and sung by Cyril Ritchard, a copy of NONSENSE SONGS from ALICE, autographed by Liza Lehmann and THE ANNOTATED SNARK, containing the full text of Carroll's THE HUNTING OF THE SNARK, with the original illustrations by Henry Holiday. The first two are gifts of Mrs. Helen Landrum, the donor of practically our entire Lewis Carroll Collection.

We cordially invite you in to see our display case; if it whets your appetite further, we would be most happy to show you other material from this Collection. Reminiscing and browsing among Carrolliana can be fun!

GP Park Buys 6 New Vehicles

The Park Council on Monday, January 14, approved the purchase of six new vehicles for the city's Fire Department and Public Works Department, at a cost of $14,954, including trade-ins.

The vehicles were purchased from low bidders, with the Park taking advantage of a combination of bids offered by sales firms.

A station wagon for the PW Department was purchased for the sum of $1,813.36 from the Karl Hosten Motor Sales; a sedan delivery vehicle for the Fire Department for $1,841, from Al Long, Inc.; and one for the PW Department for $1,637.53, from Alfred F. Steiner company.

Also purchased for the PW Department were a two-ton stake truck from Simms-Dawson Ford, Inc., for $4,254.15; a two-ton dump truck from Jefferson Chevrolet company, for $3,900; and three-quarter ton pickup truck from Al Long, Inc., for $1,508.

RESOLUTION

Turn over a new leaf for the new year—try to get even with the people who have helped you.

"You know a good doctor for this?"

By FRED KOPP, R.Ph.

It's a question we answer all the time. Sometimes it's some one new in the neighborhood. Sometimes it's an old friend who just doesn't happen to have a family physician. The boy sprains an ankle... the baby runs a temperature... Grandma has a bad cough. Troubled people often turn to us for help, and rightly so. We work closely with physicians, providing the medicines they prescribe and use in their offices. We know who they are, their specialties, their office hours. In an emergency we're good people to ask. And we're always happy to be of service to our friends and patrons.

What's New on THE HILL...

By Roberta

They pack a terrible wallop... the March of Dimes... YMCA... and the United Cerebral Palsy Foundation... the Hill, this week salutes these worthy organizations and reminds everyone in the community that their contributions are really investments... they pay off tomorrow.

Gray's Racquet and Sport Shop announces they will be closed on Thursday evenings.

Mary Chess is a big name in creams. Her regular five dollar bottle of cream body massage is on special at Trail Apothecary Shop this week for three dollars. Excellent value.

For buffet serving there is nothing quite like the thermostatic controlled buffet tray fashioned of walnut and stainless steel at the League Shop. There is no glass to break... thirty-five dollars.

"Betty, I'll bet Johnny becomes a pharmacist some day," said Martha proudly. "He's always playing 'pharmacy' and concocting 'medicines'!" It takes over 5 years preparation, Johnny, but as a pharmacist you'll be a professional specialist... and important partner on the health team! And remember, at Trail Apothecary Shop, there are only prescription specialists.

If you are tired of polishing silver take a look at the selection of stainless steel, double gauge patterns available at The League Shop. They satisfy both contemporary and traditional tastes. Matching serving pieces are elegant.

'63... good year for CAPITAL GAINS?

Statisticians and analysts across the nation appear optimistic about market growth in 1963. BUT... the purchase of growth issues for capital gains will require selective judgement. 1963 will be a year of more careful buying and selling... a year requiring professional portfolio development.

Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, with several other Presbyterian Churches about the country, sponsors a medical center in Miraj, India. In the last few months three of Memorial's members, all doctors, have volunteered their services to teach young Indian doctors at the center which is run by Dr. James Donaldson.

Dr. John W. Ditzler, of Rivard boulevard, spent five weeks under the auspices of Memorial, at the Miraj center before Christmas. In mid-February Dr. Campbell White, of Kerby road, will teach at the center, on leave from Ford Hospital. Dr. White was to accompany his colleague in November but decided to wait for the birth of his new baby next month.

On January 31 Dr. Jan Nyboer, professor at Wayne and cardiologist at Harper Hospital, will leave for Miraj. The church is providing Dr. Nyboer's transportation, but he will take Mrs. Nyboer and his two sons, Peter and Lee, with him.

The Nyboers' eldest son, Jan, who was Memorial's first carillonist, is now studying at Hope College, where he is also an organist. Their daughter, Gretchen, is studying in Europe, living in Southern France.

Lee Nyboer will follow in his brother's footsteps and next year, when Dennis Jones leaves for college, he will play the bells at church. This year Lee and Peter are much more interested in elephant hunting in India. The Nyboers will spend two months at the center and then take a month of the doctor's vacation for exploring the Near East. They hope to be in Jerusalem for Easter.

On Friday, January 25 Mrs. Ernest Lamb will give a farewell tea for Mrs. Nyboer before she leaves for India.

An Orchid to the President

This Monday Mrs. Gilbert Whelden will be given an orchid and a big vote of thanks from members of the board of Neighborhood House Settlement, now in its 106th year.

Mrs. Whelden has piloted the board of Neighborhood House for three years, directed it through its re-organization into Neighborhood Service Organization, now that the need for the house on Porter street has gone. She will be succeeded as president by Mrs. Perry TeWalt.

The new board members and Mrs. Whelden will be honored Monday at a luncheon in the Fair Acres drive home of Mrs. J. Crawford Frost, who will be the new recording secretary.

Other new board members include Mrs. Glenn M. Coulter, Mrs. Ezra Lockwood, Mrs. Fred A. Hughes, Mrs. Ralph Thomas, Mrs. L. Robert Lilley, Mrs. C. Bayard Johnson and Mrs. Neil Bentley.

Cocktails for College

On January 25 Mrs. Edward C. Roney, Jr., of Stephens road, will open her home for a cocktail party for the Manhattanville College Club of Detroit.

Last week members met at the Pemberton road home of Mrs. Stanley Beattie to plan for the benefit cocktail soiree which will raise funds for the college in Purchase, N.Y.

Taking ticket reservations for the party are Mrs. Laurence D. Buhl, Jr., Mrs. John Donnelly and Mrs. David Tindall.

Williams-Reeder Rites Revealed

At a candlelight ceremony in Traverse City's First Congregational Church Saturday evening, December 29, Kathryn Ann Reeder was married to John Leigh Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leigh Williams, of Cook road.

The bride wore a gown of candlelight peau de soie and Alencon lace, with a fitted bodice, bateau neckline, and long sleeves of peau de soie featuring lace inserts. Her full skirt fell from a pleated cummerbund and ended in a chapel train.

A Queen Ann headpiece of Alencon lace caught her ballerina-length illusion veil, and she wore a diamond lavalier, gift of the bridegroom, and carried staphanotis centered with a golden-throated white orchid.

She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Anthony Wilhelm, of Traverse City, with whom she made her home before her marriage.

Maid of honor Mary Richter, of Traverse City, and bridesmaids Elaine Garrett, of Pontiac, Sherry Zollars, of Toledo, O., Mrs. Thomas Davis, of Traverse City, all sorority sisters of the bride, and Jill Clarke, of Plymouth, were gowned alike in two-tone brocaded ballerina-length dresses of green and silver. They wore semi-pillbox hats in matching green, with small, circular face veils, and carried shower bouquets of frenched red carnations.

Mr. Williams asked his fraternity brother, Phillip Carl, of Chambersburg, Pa., to serve as best man. Ushering were James Lyne, of Chicago, Jon Rise, of Pontiac, William Dunn, of Detroit, and Thomas Davis, of Traverse City.

The bridegroom's parents gave the rehearsal dinner the evening before the ceremony, and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Weiszer and Dr. and Mrs. J. Kent Wright hosted the reception at the Traverse City Golf and Country Club, for which Mrs. Wilhelm chose a moss green cashmere and chiffon sheath with a matching jacket and accessories. Her flowers were pink sweetheart roses.

Mrs. Williams was in beige embroidered satin, with a corsage of miniature red roses.

For her wedding trip to Detroit, the bride chose a brown dress, beige hat and coat, and matching accessories. The couple will make their home in Detroit, where both plan to attend Wayne State University. Mr. Williams is studying for his Masters' degree, and Mrs. Williams will pursue undergraduate studies.

Sororities Give Dance Friday

The Detroit Panhellenic Association will sponsor its first dance since pre-war years in the Sheraton-Cadillac Grand Ballroom on Friday evening, January 18, from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m. with the music of Dave Martin.

Glittering Greek letters will form the orchestra backdrop as 500 couples of "Glittering Greeks" and their guests whirl the evening away. Proceeds of the philanthropic affair are to be distributed among the twenty-three member sororities for use in their various altruistic works.

Mrs. N. J. Young, Alpha Phi, is chairman of the event and assisting her are: Mrs. Michael Rogula, Pi Beta Phi and president of Detroit Panhellenic; Mrs. Robert Winter; Mrs. Enrique Beeman; Mrs. R. E. McCarthy, Jr., and Mrs. Robert Kinyoun.

from a cruise to the West Indies with former Pointer, MRS. HELEN JOY LEE, now of Westerly, R.I.

Biecker-Kelley Vows Exchanged Saturday

Bride Wears Oyster White Peau de Soie and Alencon Lace for Rites in Our Lady Queen of Peace Church; Newlyweds to Live in Warren

Annette Kelley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Alger Kelley, of Bournemouth road, and Vincent Biecker, son of Mrs. John Biecker, of Sheridan avenue, and the late Mr. Biecker, were married Saturday morning in Our Lady Queen of Peace Church, Harper Woods.

The ceremony was performed by the bridegroom's brother, Fr. Thomas Biecker, S.J., of John Carroll University.

The bride wore a gown of oyster white peau de soie silk with a peacock back of Alencon lace. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a cap of tiny velvet leaves, and she carried a bouquet of Fuji mums and gold leaves.

Maid of honor was Ann Mitchell, who wore emerald green satin and carried white carnations shaped into snowballs. Another brother of the bridegroom, Jerome Biecker, was the best man. Serving as ushers were Raymond Biecker, also a brother of the groom, and Stephen Medvik.

A breakfast reception was held at the Golden Lion. Following a brief honeymoon the couple will reside in Warren.

Youth Council Dance Saturday

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial Youth Council is staging a record hop at the Center for all Grosse Pointe teens in grades 9-12 of the Pointe's public, private and parochial schools on Saturday, January 19, from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. This will be a sweater hop with couples being asked to wear matching sweaters if possible.

Alger House will be the setting for this party with dancing both in the reception room and library.

This will be a "Sloppy Joe and Coke" party. Admission of $1 per person will also entitle everyone to a bun with the delicious mixture and the beverage.

This school clothes informal dance will be under the chairmanship of Sally Boesen. Joan Warmbold will head the decorations committee. Chris Van Kampen will head the publicity effort with representatives spreading the word not only at the High School but at G.P.U.S., St. Paul's, Brownell, Pierce, Parcels, Our Lady Star of the Sea, and Austin as well.

Records will be from the young people's collections and will include twists, the new bossa nova and dreamy Johnny Matnis tunes.

Flower Fixing Course Offered

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial is offering a course in Flower Arranging under the tutelage of Mrs. Richard Gerathy, one of the most outstanding teachers in this field in this part of the country.

Classes will be held on Friday mornings and will begin January 18 lasting through March 1. The group will meet in the Center's sunny Terrace Room overlooking Lake St. Clair. The class is limited to 15 members and for that reason advance enrollment at $15 per person is asked.

Mrs. Gerathy is not only highly original and artistic in her teaching, she is very practical and utilizes whatever materials the season affords. Under her instruction the homemaker is able to keep her house freshly decorated with new arrangements each week for only two or three dollars.

Home in Huntsville

Leaving next week for her home in Huntsville, Ont., will be Elizabeth Herdegen, who has been here for six weeks visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Herdegen, of Irvine lane.

Miss Herdegen lives in the great north woods, in a get away from it all lodge which she shares with two poodles and two cats, both of which accompanied her to the Pointe.

Review League Service

The Junior League of Detroit is constantly evaluating the needs of the community it serves and this Tuesday will review the situation again at the general membership meeting at the Country Club.

Mrs. R. Jamison, former director of Region IV of the League, will lead a discussion by the project planning committee and there will be talks by members on the health and welfare committee, climaxed by a resume of volunteer services.

After luncheon a special bridge party will be held.

Pointe Garden Club

Mrs. Taylor Seeber, of Merriweather road, will entertain the Pointe Garden Club this Monday for luncheon at 12:30 o'clock. Assisting her will be Mrs. Raymond C. Walk and Mrs. J. C. Hurley.

Harry Whang will speak to the group on "The Symbolism of the Oriental Garden."

DAC Introduces New Floor Show

Marilyn Niska, Lyric Soprano and Don Alan, Magician, Headline New Act for Diners January 29; Dads and Sons Party and Stag Directors Party Also on Week's Calendar

Detroit Athletic Club's dinner-dance floor show and the DAC Bowlers' annual Party for the ladies, at which the keggers honor their wives, will be the culminating highlights of a series of activities between January 22 and February 2.

The first events are stag and include DAC's annual election and meeting on January 22; the past and present directors' annual formal dinner party on the 25th, and the stag Fathers and Sons Party on the afternoon of January 26.

After those affairs, the distaff side will share the tremendous fun of the Bowlers' festivity on the night of January 26, and the five-evening floor show gala of January 29-February 2.

The incoming artists for the January show are Marilyn Niska, noted lyric soprano, and Don Alan, a wizard of legerdemain. Their first appearances at the DAC will be at the directors' formal stag fete and at the Father-Son "do."

The dad-lad fete will follow its traditional pattern of an aquatic exhibition and races for the boys in the DAC swimming pool; luncheon in the gymnasium and Georgian Room, and a stage show.

Then the DAC scene will shift from 650 little and big stag party-goers to the Bowlers' formal party that night, when pretty women and their gallant men to the number of 650 or so practically take over the clubhouse.

Starting time is 6 o'clock and it will be a complete evening with a cocktail hour in the gymnasium, dinner in the second floor dining rooms, dancing in the Pontchartrain Room to music of the Artie Fields Orchestra, strolling musicians, 10 o'clock entertainment alternating in the dining rooms, souvenir gifts for the distaff side.

Highspot at this party always is 11 o'clock bowling in party attire and it's the only time in the entire year when women are permitted to invade the sacro sanct bowling premises at the DAC.

Bowling chairman Frank J. Gossinger is in charge, aided by sub-chairmen Kenneth Townsend, Russell M. Richardson, John B. Hollister and Joseph A. Martin and their committees.

The merry floor show week opening the 29th will start each evening with 7 o'clock dinner and dancing to music of Dick Wilson and his band. Dancing resumes after the 9:30 o'clock show is over.

In charge are entertainment chairman Frederick A. Kaiser and committee members Harold Lightbody, Thomas Bolton, Clyde Craine, W. A. Prew and C. W. VanLopik.

Style and Poise Class Expanded

Due to the popularity and increasing demand for the Style and Poise class offered last semester in the Adult Activity program, the Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Public School System announces an expansion of this series of classes for the coming winter term.

Four classes will be offered for women this semester: Beginning Style and Poise will be given in two sections—the first, on Thursday, January 17, at 10 a.m., and the second section, on the same date at 7:30 in the evening. A continuing class in Style and Poise for women will also be offered in two sections: the first, on Wednesday, January 16, at 10 a.m., and the second section, on the same date at 7:30 in the evening.

In addition to the above classes for women, a new class, designed for the business man, and titled "Social-Business Etiquette for men," will be taught by the same instructor. This class should be of special interest to young executives and business men, and should be advantageous to them in terms of their work or profession, as well as socially.

Miss Rosemary Taylor, past director of John Robert Powers School, Detroit, will instruct these classes. In this field of instruction, Miss Taylor has groomed people of all ages toward success both in their personal lives and in their business careers. In addition to instructing classes for adults and in industry, Miss Taylor has done extensive work as director, promoter and fashion coordinator for various fashion and hair shows in Michigan. She was appointed technical advisor of Miss Michigan Universe in June, 1960, and for Michigan Junior Miss. Her courses are designed to help her students in wardrobe, hair styling, make-up, manners, social graces, business etiquette, job success and communication with the public.

Additional information may be obtained by calling the Department of Community Services, TU 5-3808 or TU 5-0271.

Scandinavian Concert Jan. 19

The Scandinavian Symphony Orchestra will give its second concert of this season on Saturday, January 19, at 8:30. This concert will be the Orchestra's 33rd anniversary concert, and it will be held in the Scottish Rite Cathedral of the Masonic Temple.

The soloist for this concert will be the renowned coloratura soprano, Marjorie Gordon. Miss Gordon is an American-born and American-trained artist. The natural beauty of her voice and the virtuosity of her technique have received praise from Dimitri Mitropoulos, the late Olin Downes and Paul Paray.

Miss Gordon's debut was with the New York Philharmonic Orchestra at Carnegie Hall—an honor that comes to few. She has appeared with many of the major orchestras of the country, including the Detroit Symphony. Miss Gordon has also sung on radio and television on all the major networks.

Tickets are available at Grinnells or at the box office at the night of the concert. Admission—$1.25 to $2.25.

The National Foundation-March of Dimes, marking its 25th anniversary of service to the American people this January, now finances research and patient aid programs in the areas of birth defects, arthritis and polio.

JOAN ANNE MARIE CYR, daughter of the Leo Cyr, of Beaconsfield road, was married Saturday, December 29 in St. Ambrose Church to Mr. Cueter, of Lakewood avenue, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cueter.

Pancake Supper Set for Feb. 1

By Sue Foster

All the pancakes you can eat! That is the slogan of the Pilgrim Fellowship Pancake Supper to be given Friday, February 1.

Pilgrim Fellowship is the youth group at the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church. Its parent-sponsors are Mr. and Mrs. Sumner G. Whittier, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Simmons, and Mr. and Mrs. William Reid.

For the occasion, the group has hired a professional pancake-flipper.

Jaye Whittier is general chairman of the supper. Ruth Edelen is in charge of getting waitresses and Ray Kreichelt is recruiting boys to serve as waiters. Telephoning all members of the church is the job of John Blackburn and Scotty Gibson. Joan Markley is in charge of publicity.

Fortnighters To Hold Party

Start the new year right and banish the mid-winter blues with Fortnighters. Meet new people and renew acquaintances at a party at the home of Dick Williams, 813 Bishop, Grosse Pointe Park on Friday, January 18 at 9 p.m. Fortnighters extend an invitation to all single young adults in their 20's and 30's.

The program for 1963 begins with this party and is followed by a speaker on Tuesday, January 29, at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, a swim party on Friday, February 15, and a dance in March at the Windmill Pointe Yacht Club. For further information on any of these events, call Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

During the past 25 years, The National Foundation-March of Dimes has spent $385,500,000 for a medical care program to assist patients afflicted with birth defects, arthritis and polio. Join the 1963 March of Dimes.

Church Guilds Slate Sessions

The day guilds of the Episcopal Churchwomen of St. Michael's Church will hold their meetings at 12:30 on Tuesday, January 22.

St. Anne Guild will meet with Mrs. Arthur Shaw, of Roslyn road. Mrs. Edward J. Watson will be co-hostess. Mrs. Alex McCoy, of Notre Dame avenue, will entertain the women of St. Catherine Guild, assisted by Mrs. George W. Beaver and Mrs. Donald B. Van Hook.

Mrs. John W. Bennett will open her home in Lochmoor boulevard to the women of St. Cecilia Guild. Her co-hostess will be Mrs. Edwin Petersen.

St. Margaret Guild will be meeting at the home of Mrs. Bruce M. Regan in Moorland drive. Mrs. Regan will be assisted by Mrs. Elsie Underhill.

Members of St. Mary Guild will go to the home of Mrs. Rupert Benson in North Oxford road for their January meeting. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Robert Hinrich and Mrs. Leonard Jensen.

The evening guilds will meet Monday night, January 28, at 8:30 o'clock. Mrs. Charles W. Steiger, of Lee court, St. Clair Shores, will entertain St. Agnes Guild. She will be assisted by Mrs. William Davenport.

St. Hilda Guild will meet at the home of Mrs. Robert Jenkins of Edmore road. Mrs. John Renick will be co-hostess. Members of St. Martha Guild will meet with Mrs. Leon Ruyschaert, of Hampton road. Mrs. Beeler D. Higbee will assist Mrs. Ruyschaert.

Unitarians Hear Report on Easter Seal Project

George Bosse, executive director of the Detroit Society for Crippled Children, spoke last Tuesday at a luncheon meeting of the Women's Alliance at the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church.

Mr. Bosse detailed the services and program of the Easter Seal Society and stressed the need for volunteer leadership to aid the Easter Seal Drive.

In charge of the luncheon was Mrs. Richard Sowden, assisted by Mrs. Arthur Webster, Mrs. Fred Schumann and Mrs. Haig Tarplinian.

Question: What was one thing which Franklin D. Roosevelt, Harry S. Truman, Dwight D. Eisenhower and John F. Kennedy agreed upon? Answer: The March of Dimes. All four Presidents met March of Dimes children and praised The National Foundation for its accomplishments.

Cueter-Cyr Rites Read at St. Ambrose

Couple Speak Vows December 29; Bride Wears White Velvet for Morning Ceremony; After Dinner Reception Newlyweds Travel to Chicago

Joan Anne Marie Cyr, daughter of the Leo Cyr, of Beaconsfield road, was married December 29 in St. Ambrose Church to John Cueter, of Lakewood avenue, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cueter.

The bride wore a gown of white velveteen (designed on classic lines with a high bateau neckline. A velveteen circle caught her short bouffant veil and she carried white carnations and orchids with her white fur muff.

Noreen Haas was the bride's only attendant in a light blue peau de soie gown with a matching veiled hat. She carried baby pink roses on a white muff.

Dr. Angelo Pugliesi was best man.

Mrs. Cyr chose a candlelight brocade two piece dress for her daughter's wedding and the dinner reception at Eddie Pawl's.

Following a trip to Chicago the newlyweds will live in the Morang Garden apartments.

Hospital Aides Slate Election

The next annual meeting of the Women's Auxiliary to Cottage Hospital will be held Thursday, January 31, at 10:30 o'clock at the Nurses home at 158 Ridge road.

Mrs. Adam Cook, president, will officiate at the meeting and an election of officers will be held. Guild chairmen and officers will give their yearly report after which Mrs. Cook will summarize the 1962 activities.

Pins will be presented to volunteers in compliance with work requirements of the Policy Sheet.

Mrs. Edward L. Weber, second vice president, has charge of the program and has arranged to have C. D. Honkanen, assistant administrator to Cottage Hospital, speak about present day hospital costs.

Mrs. Vernon Landry, hostess chairman, has announced the following committee to serve the luncheon at the adjournment of the meeting: Mesdames Paul Moreland, Stanley Smith, J. Paul Kennedy, Frank Wade and Peter Peterson.

Luncheon reservations accompanied by a check for $1.75 must be mailed to Mrs. Thomas A. Eggleston by January 29.

The man with a sense of humor has found the fountain of youth.

South Pacific Night at Center

This month, the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association's international night is this Friday, January 18. A few places still remain open for "An Evening in the South Pacific" which will begin at 7 o'clock with an exotic South Sea Island seafood dinner in the banquet ballroom of the Memorial's William Fries Auditorium.

Following the dinner, guests will be invited into the theater below the ballroom where they will be entertained by Princess Arlene's authentic Tahitian dancers in native costume dancing to the irresistible beat of island rhythms.

Clarence Day, Jr., head of Glynn Travel, will then take over the program presenting two beautiful color films "Tahiti" and "Manureva," the story of a lovely young island girl. "Bud," as he is known to most Grosse Pointers, originated these popular international evenings at the Center two years ago.

Krag and Henry deSegur Laue.

Others with tickets are Mesdames Robert Lynch, Wilbur H. Mack, Robert E. McKeane, C. Allison Monroe, Henry L. Petri, James Smith, Gari M. Stroh Jr., William A. Ternes, Harold B. Tyree, Joseph A. Vance Jr., Hugh C. Daly, John M. Murphy, Thomas K. Fisher and Mathew Hudson.

Dance Classes Offered Adults

Welcomed back for their second series of dance classes, Ricky Dove and Art Carly will again instruct Latin American and Ballroom Dance for the Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Public School System, beginning this month.

Mr. Dove, internationally known dance instructor and a native of London, England, with his wife, Barbara, will instruct Beginning, Intermediate and Advanced groups in Latin American Dance. Since coming to this country in 1951, Mr. Dove has specialized in the training of teachers; he held his first classes for adults in this area last fall, and they were so enthusiastically received that an advanced class has been added for the coming term.

Three Latin American classes are now offered: Beginning will start on Thursday, January 17; Intermediate started on Monday, January 14; and Advanced, on Wednesday, January 16.

Art Carly is well known in Detroit, having taught many classes in private clubs in the metropolitan area. He will instruct the Beginning Ballroom class which met for the first time on Tuesday, January 15.

All of the above dance classes begin at 8 p.m. and will continue for a period of eight weeks. For the class of your choice, call the Department of Community Services at TU 5-3808 or TU 5-0271.

Wedding Bells to Follow Assignment by Pentagon

JUDITH KAREN DELANEY

Judith Karen Delaney will trade cherry blossoms for orange blossoms next February 2, but the former will always be her favorite flower.

Judith, daughter of the Gilbert Delaneys, of Aillard avenue, plans to wed Robert Davies, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Davies, of Dodge City, Kansas, in St. Paul Evangelical Lutheran Church early next month.

The pair met when Judith, as Michigan's 1961 Cherry Blossom Princess, needed an escort for Cherry Blossom Week in Washington, D. C. The Pentagon assigned Davies, then a lieutenant, j.g., in the Navy, to accompany her during the festivities. The lieutenant and the princess met, and the "assignment" became permanent.

Judith was a recent graduate of the University of Michigan. She had gone to Washington to work for Rep. Martha Griffiths (D., Detroit), and, at Rep. Griffiths' urging, entered the State Cherry Blossom Princess contest.

Contest winner is chosen by a spin of the wheel of fortune, and Judith held Michigan's lucky number for 1961. Each of the 50 states (there were then only 49) is entitled to one Princess representative at Washington's Cherry Blossom Festival.

The young women, escorted by representatives of the four branches of the U. S. military service, participate in a parade and formal ball, plus many other parties and receptions. One of them is chosen "queen" of Washington's Cherry Blossom Festival.

Judith was quite satisfied with being a mere "princess" however. She laughingly wrote her parents, a few days before the festivities began, that she "didn't expect lightning to strike twice."

Apparently, her timing was a bit off. Lightning hadn't struck at all—yet.

Former Lt. Davies, (he left the Navy soon after his "official" stint as Judith's escort), is now a banker, associated with New York's Chase Manhattan Bank.

Judith has resigned her position with Rep. Griffiths, and is back in Grosse Pointe, preparing for her wedding.

FINDS LOST CASE

Mrs. E. T. Ives, Jr., 228 Merriweather, brought a gold card case she had found on Kercheval avenue into the City police station Saturday morning, January 12. The case contained credit cards, miscellaneous papers, and a driver's license identifying the owner as Mrs. Albert DeClerq, 20692 Wedgewood drive. Mrs. DeClerq picked up her property the following day.

Ferry School Having Dinner

Ferry School is planning its third annual P.T.A. Family Dinner to be held at the school gymnasium Wednesday, January 23 from 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

This very popular event is featuring a spaghetti supper this year with movies for the youngsters in the new addition to the school. Fathers and men teachers will do the actual serving and volunteer work assisted by the two Ferry School Girl Scout troops under the supervision of Troop Leader Mrs. Robert Ambrose.

Ferry School father and teacher volunteers are: Louis Alcora, Richard Beadle, Thomas Candler, Donald E. Cochell, James Cooper, Thomas DeVries, Lee L. Elsed, John R. Erwin, Robert Everett, Max K. Fogt, Randolph Hancock, Robert Hornebeck, Ted Jacobs.

Also Fred Jean, Richard H. Johnson, Carl Joyner, William H. Klingbell, Henry M. Kuhlman, Otto C. Leu, Allan Neef, Arthur Rauss, Jack M. Schmid, Robert Shannon, Charles E. Swenson, Gens Tharp, Eric Weber.

The dinner is being planned by the Ways and Means Committee chairmen Mr. and Mrs. William D. Dahling, ably assisted by Mr. and Mrs. James T. Wright and Mr. and Mrs. H. Robertson Brinker.

Noted Baroness At Town Hall

Baroness Maria von Trapp, whose life story inspired the hit musical, "The Sound of Music," will be the guest speaker at Detroit Town Hall in the Fisher Wednesday, (Jan. 23)

The talk, "Headhunters, Cannibals and Music," will be held at 11 a.m., followed by luncheon at the Rathskeller.

The Baroness recently undertook a unique reconnaissance trip through the South Sea Islands to investigate the possibilities for training natives in the ways of combating the spread of Communism.

Her exciting trip by canoe and jeep is another highlight in a life of adventure; the step-mother of seven children, fleeing with her husband from Australia during the Nazi invasion, emigrating to America and forming one of the most famous music groups of all time—the Trapp Family Choir.

Tickets are available through the Detroit Town Hall office, Wo. 3-5617, or at the theatre the day of the program.

The first lesson will be a free tryout dance. Those interested are asked to contact Community Service Director Forrest Geary, TU 5-3803, for further information.

Panel to Talk On Met Season

A public "Overture to Opera," a free admission program of excerpts from the opera "Boris Godunov" and a panel discussion of the 1963 Metropolitan Opera season in Detroit, will be offered Wednesday, January 23, at 8 p.m. at the Rackham Memorial building.

The program will be presented by the Education Committee of the Detroit Grand Opera Association, sponsors of the Metropolitan season, with the assistance of the University Center for Adult Education (W.S.U.-U. of M.-E.M.U.), and the Detroit Public Library. Members of the Celeste Cole Opera Workshop will present the highlights from Moussorgsky's opera, one of the seven operas which will be offered during the 1963 season in Detroit in May.

Roy T. Will, chairman, Department of Music, Wayne State University, will moderate the panel discussion with Mrs. Theodore C. Yntema, general chairman of the 1963 Metropolitan Opera Season, Celeste Cole, director of the workshop bearing her name, and Kurt Myers, chief of the Music and Performing Arts Department of the Detroit Public Library, serving as panelists.

The program will resemble one first presented in Detroit under similar auspices April 12, 1962, but will differ in that a single opera will be highlighted and discussed in 1963. The 1962 program dealt with the entire season.

Future programs of the same type will be presented in Ferndale, Birmingham, Grosse Pointe and Dearborn approximately a month apart. Each program will be directed toward presentation of a different opera which will be included in the 1963 season.

Inside The Mothers' Club

The enthusiastic and complete report of the Yule Tea chairman, Mrs. Charles Moore, was a delight to the Executive Board of Mothers' Club at the High School, on Monday, January 6. Not only the outstanding decorations, the beautiful music, the precision with which the committees worked, the delicious food donated by 10th grade mothers, but the statistics were a surprise.

Over 1,088 parents and friends were served at a total cost of $147. This total included the cost of printing the special invitations. A thank-you is in order to Mrs. Charles Moore, and her faithful committee workers.

President, Mrs. Albert D. Law, presented the new flags to the school at the assembly of 2,600 students on December 21. The nylon flags on brass standards were donated to the school by the Mothers' Club.

The Scholarship checks for the second semester have been given. Each student was interviewed by first vice-president, Mrs. Robert Clarke, regarding his grades for the first semester.

Many letters have been received from parents of foreign students in appreciation of the assistance with the American Field Service Program.

Memberships in Mothers' Club number 1,347, and they are still coming in, as reported by Mrs. Earl Meyer, chairman.

Mrs. Hunter Comly noted that the receipts for the benefit performance of "Our Town" were the highest in years. Over $1,600 was collected. This is allocated to the scholarship fund.

Fine co-operation and conduct of students has been noted at the basketball games.

"Grosse Pointe High School can be proud of the commendable conduct of our students visiting out of town schools."

says Mrs. Robert Christian, chairman of bus chaperones.

Several neighborhood groups are expected to turn in dues. Mrs. Frederick Lang said that 34 out of a possible 65 groups had reported.

Service chairman, Mrs. Gerald Schroeder, announced that the decorations for the Annual Christmas Vocal Concert in December are provided by two members of the Mothers' Club.

The names of the nominating committee were given by Mrs. Albert Law. They are as follows: Mrs. Monte Edelen, chairman; Mrs. Malcolm Sturten, Mrs. Arthur Sherman, Mrs. Ben Jeffries and Mrs. Joseph Black.

The offices to be filled in 1963 are president, 2nd vice-president and corresponding secretary. Mrs. Law strongly urged the board members to suggest possible candidates for these offices. Letters should be sent to Mrs. Monte Edelen, 1170 Balfour, Grosse Pointe 30, Michigan. All Mothers' Club members are urged to share their responsibility.

Mrs. Law read a list of clubs and recreational activities for High School students.

The announcement of the coming Annual Educational Program sponsored by the program was followed by an enthusiastic discussion. Dr. Charles Wilson, Superintendent of Grosse Pointe Schools, will speak on "The Spirited Years of Youth" in the new gym at 8 o'clock, on January 21. Everyone is invited.

Baritone Stars With Symphony

Baritone Gerard Souzay will be the Detroit Symphony Orchestra's soloist next Thursday, Jan. 24, at 8:30 p.m. in Ford Auditorium. Werner Torkanowsky will conduct.

Souzay, one of the most versatile artists before the public today, will sing Chausson's "Poeme de l'amour et de la mer." The orchestral portions of the program will include Respighi's "Ancient Airs and Dances" Suite No. 2, Stravinsky's Symphonie Poem "Le Chant du Rossignol" and Strauss' Suite from "Der Rosenkavalier."

Saturday morning at 11, and again at 2 p.m., the orchestra will present its third Young People's Concert of the season under Valter Poole's direction.

The star of the day will be the famed television idol of children, Captain Kangaroo. The Captain (in real life Bob Keeshan) has entitled his program "Fun with Music" and scheduled works by Verdi, Kodaly, Tchaikovsky, Beethoven and Leroy Anderson to prove his point.

The Young People's Concert series is sponsored by the Junior League of Birmingham and Detroit, the Women's Association and Junior Women's Association for the Symphony.

Next Sunday, January 27, at 3:30 p.m., Torkanowsky will conduct the orchestra's annual invitational concert for contributors only. The soloist will be pianist Agustin Anievas playing the Prokofiev Concerto No. 3 in C major.

The orchestra's "thank you" concert for its contributors will also offer Beethoven's Overture to "Egmont" and Brahms' Symphony No. 4 in E minor.

Bantam Hockey League Active

By Harold W. Nell

The lead changed hands in Grosse Pointe's Bantam Division Hockey League last week as the Warriors pulled a big upset by blanking the high flying Detroit Cardinals Saturday at Gordie Howe Hockeyland, 1-0.

The game was close and very exciting, with Dave "Gordie" Anderson getting the winning goal in the second period on a neat solo effort. The Warriors were well up for this game and Coach Joe Berline had them really hustling. The loss dropped the Detroit Cardinals into second place after setting the pace for the division during the first seven weeks.

By blanking the tail end Longhorns 6 to 0, the Chiefs vaulted into the top spot with the aid of the Warrior victory over the Cardinals. The Chief-Longhorn game featured the hat trick artistry of Chief Ron Nomura, who proved last week's three-goal spree was no fluke by duplicating that feat with another hat trick (three goals). Nomura leads the Chiefs in scoring.

Keith Foucher chipped in by bagging numbers two and three of the season, and Rob Zink got his third of the year.

Friends to Hear Aerospace Talk

Edwin G. Pipp, aerospace writer for the Detroit News, will speak before the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library on Wednesday, January 23 at 8:15 in the evening. The meeting will be held at the Central Library, 10 Kercheval avenue. Mr. Pipp's subject is "Space and the Future."

Winner of the Robert S. Ball Award for the best space writing in 1962, Pipp has covered all of the manned orbital shots at Cape Canaveral and many other space rocket firings at other launching sites. He was given the Ball award for his coverage of the John Glenn flight.

Pipp served five years in the Army Air Corps during World War II and flew 10 combat missions over Europe. He was held as a prisoner of war for two years. Currently he is a major in the Michigan Air National Guard and is qualified as a photo reconnaissance pilot in RF-84F jets.

The meeting, which will be followed by a reception for Pipp, is open without charge to the public.

YOU NEVER HAD IT SO DRY!

Hostess for the 8 p.m. meeting will be Mrs. David Leach, of Kensington road. Mrs. Harold C. Meier will be co-hostess. Assisting will be Mrs. Robert R. Adams, Mrs. James W. Bell and Judy Woods.

Couples Club To Hear Klute

Scientific, engineering and industrial prospects for the next few decades will be the topic at the Friday, January 18, meeting of the Couples' Club at Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church.

Edward W. Klute of Detroit Edison's sales staff will be the speaker. His talk—entitled "Prophecies of the Future"—will be a color slide presentation based on comprehensive forecasts by leaders of science and industry. He will tell what transportation, homes, food and medicine will be like in the 1970's and 1980's.

The meeting will be held at the Church and will begin with Pot Luck Supper at 7:30 p.m. Call Mrs. C. Zech, 886-1806 for details and reservations. There will be a $1.00 charge per couple plus pot luck dish.

Cherish your freedom—a private opinion in some countries is considered a public offense.

Monteith PTA To Hear Bailey

Vern C. Bailey, well known Director of Public Safety in Grosse Pointe Woods, will talk on a very timely subject at the next Monteith P. T. A. meeting which will be held Tuesday, January 22, at 8 p.m.

Mr. Bailey's topic will be "Juvenile Delinquency" a subject which should be of vital interest to all parents in view of all of the incidents which have recently occurred in the Grosse Pointe Area.

Classroom visitation will be held from 7:30 to 8 and refreshments will be served following the program.

Playmates and Funsters

Every Saturday afternoon, the Neighborhood Club offers two fun-filled classes for boys and girls. The small fry have their day as the Playmates meet from 1 to 2:30. This educational and entertaining class for ages four through six includes gym activities, handicraft and games, all of which combine to teach the youngsters coordination, cooperation and the art of making new friends. The Funsters Club for ages seven thru twelve, meets next from 2:30 to 4:00. The boys and girls enjoy games, handicraft projects, hikes and special events all planned to assure them an afternoon of fun.

For information on these groups, or to register your child, call the Neighborhood Club, TUxedo 5-4600.

Retired Men's Club

The "Oldtimers Club", which meets every Friday afternoon from 12:30 to 5:00, has decided to start the new year with a new name with which they hope to encourage new members. They are now known as the "Neighborhood Retired Men's Club". The group meets at the "Neighborhood Retired Men's Waterloo, Grosse Pointe City, and their activities include cards, billiards, use of the newly installed shuffle board courts and a refreshment period.

Should you be interested, come to the Club any Friday or call TU 5-4600 for further information.

Citation Won By Hunt Club

Announcement of the fact that the June 1962 Grosse Pointe Hunt Club Horse Show has been awarded a citation of Highest Acclaim by the governing body of the American Horse Show Association, was received in Los Angeles last week by Ernest C. Putnam, chairman of the event, and Edwin N. Peabody, co-chairman, when they attended the annual meeting in that city.

The "Honor Show" designation bestowed on the Grosse Pointe club's activity is not easily won nor promiscuously given by the governing body. To be worthy of consideration, every phase from the preparation and distribution of the prize list in early January, the conduct of the show itself with all its ramifications, and even through the mailing out of the prize money checks and delivery of trophies must be done flawlessly in accordance with the rules of the AHSA.

It is understood that less than 40 of all the sanctioned horse shows held last year in the United States (and some 400

Just like the Morgans and the Vanderbilts who moved English castles stone by stone, the Frederick S. Fords moved their first Grosse Pointe home.

Although the distance was not as great, the Fords' mansion in Windmill Pointe was erected piece by piece exactly as the house had stood in downtown East Jefferson when Mr. Ford's father, John B. Ford, grandson of the fabulous Wyandotte Chemical and plate glass founder, built the home. Today the house still stands in Windmill Pointe drive, owned by Rex Jacobs, father of Mrs. Alfred J. Fisher, Jr.

Mrs. Frederick S. Ford, nee Esther Caulkins, remembers those days of the great move well. Over 35 years ago the Fords joined the Books, the Harrises and the Hai Smiths on the drive when the surrounding land was still country.

Esther Caulkins was one of the seven children of Horace James Caulkins, president of a company that manufactured china kilns, enamel furnaces and dental supplies. He was also the founder of Pewabic Potteries which still exists on the original site opposite Waterworks Park on East Jefferson.

Horace Caulkins was born in 1850 in Oshawa, Ont. His father, William, came to Michigan when he was still a boy. His mother was Elizabeth Burns, from Lands End, England. Horace began his career in the dry goods business in Niagara Falls before founding the dental supply factory in Detroit. His grandson, John Caulkins, has followed his father, George Peck Caulkins in the family business which still is in existence.

Horace Caulkins was married twice. His first wife, mother of Edward Burns Caulkins, was Frances Leadbeater. After her death Horace married Minnie Peck, whose father was the first president of Detroit Edison. Minnie was in the third graduating class of Liggett School where her daughter, Mrs. Ford also studied. Minnie and Horace had six children. George the eldest, now president of his father's dental supply company, married Alma Fauser, and they have lived for many years in Rivard boulevard. Another son, Horace, died at 36 leaving two children. Henry Caulkins, another son married Ruth Stone, and they live in Lewiston road. There were three sisters, Sarah, who married Charles E. Johnson; Elizabeth who became the wife of the late George P. MacMahon, and Esther who married Frederick S. Ford.

Mrs. Ford has many memories of her large family's happy life on Edmund place, where the Caulkins children all grew up. With them lived their step brother Ned, and his three boys, and their grandmother Leadbeater. She recalls her father coming home on the first hot summer day and saying abruptly, "tomorrow we leave." The next morning a bus would come to transport the large family, trunks and paraphernalia to the docks where they would board a boat for the Victorian cottage at Point aux Pines on Bob-lo island. The Henry Caulkins still own and use this old family summer home.

The Caulkins' grandchildren now all live in Grosse Pointe and are related through marriage to many of the city's oldest families. But the founder was Horace, the young man who manufactured dental supplies but fulfilled his artistic talents with ceramics.

Over a hundred miles is not too far to go for a GOOD party and last Saturday a score of Pointers did just that. They hired a bus to drive them to Toledo to attend a dinner given by former Pointers, Mr. and Mrs. William W. Boeschstein, who now make their home in that city and miss their former friends and neighbors. The bus delivered the dinner guests home in the small chilly hours of the morning.

Last Sunday 5,600 visitors turned up at the Detroit Institute of Art to view the Van Gogh exhibit. Museum heads were delighted but worried as only about 5,000 can be accommodated. This Thursday the Founders Society of the Museum, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Harry Jewett III, will give a coffee hour for prospective Founders, who will also be given a tour of the Van Gogh works. The fabulous exhibit, which has broken all attendance records, will be closed January 27.

Ibex members have turned to with a will to provide the elegant set demanded by the Noel Coward play, "Present Laughter", which they will give January 24 and 25 at the Fries Auditorium. Currently, under the direction of William Heaton, the members are painting huge black and white squares to simulate a marble floor which will cover the new stage.

When the French Line's new ship made its first foray into the Caribbean the captain discovered that someone was needed to direct Protestant services the Sunday the SS France sailed into Port au Prince, and he called for volunteers. Kenneth Lander, of Van Antwerp road, aboard the cruise ship, responded to the captain's call and conducted the Sunday services.

Televisions' late late shows have a certain morbid attraction which definitely holds a hangover. Mrs. Charles La Fond and several of her friends, all of whom have sons, in their early teens confess they have been lured into watching the very late Friday night horror shows with their offspring. The boys seem very gay the morning after but their mothers confess to being very bleary eyed after three hours of ghouls, vampires and blood chilling antics on the idiot box.

Pointer of Interest

Leonard Woodcock, of Pemberton road

By Patricia Talbot

No longer is the union leader a begrimed, tough talking, blue-shirted, lunchpail-carrying assembly line worker. He is more apt to be a suave well educated gray flannel executive; in fact a man like Leonard Woodcock, vice-president of the UAW-CIO.

Mr. Woodcock will be the third speaker in the Lecture Series at the new Fries Auditorium on January 22 when he will discuss "The Obligation of Responsible Labor in a Democratic Society."

Although he resembles a college professor, Leonard Woodcock has a background of union membership as strong as any factory worker. His father was a tool and die man, an Englishman who ran a factory in Germany and then in England where the present UAW leader was educated in the British labor tradition although his formal schooling was in a "public school," similar to our independent institutions.

Father Blackballed
The Woodcocks came to America in the early twenties and the senior Mr. Woodcock became an early UAW member, was strong in his adherence although he was blackballed for two years for his union activity. The son attended Detroit City College and worked on the factory line in Detroit and Muskegon. He joined the UAW when it was affiliated with the AFL in 1933, at the height of the organizational activity. During the bitter years of depression and sit down strikes he was hospitalized with tuberculosis and missed much of the violent side of organizing in which his chief, Walter Reuther, was involved.

Becomes Organizer
He worked in the western part of Michigan when that part of the state, which lagged behind Flint and Detroit, was largely unorganized, and came here in 1946 when Reuther was elected president of the UAW, as his administrative assistant. Then he stood out strongly against the Communist elements which threatened to split the UAW wide open and returned to Muskegon as regional director. He assumed his present position as vice president of the 1,100,000-member UAW in 1955. A responsible union leader, deeply troubled by the distorted public image labor unions are acquiring through the antics of racketeers and such men as Jimmy Hoffa, Leonard Woodcock believes the union "like any human institution has to guard against excesses of power."

Any member of the UAW may take a complaint to a public review board, which consists of union men as well as civic leaders. This is a practice not followed in the teamsters union or in most other unions. It guards against corruption and malpractice from within.
Accepts Federal Mediation
Mr. Woodcock accepts government interference in union disputes with management as inevitable where the union is involved with defense contracts. But he believes that in some cases the much-publicized Taft-Hartley Act has been directed entirely against the union.
Union leadership in the UAW has become more sophisticated since the war years. There are experts in the fields of law, public relations and education on the UAW staff in the imposing Solidarity House in East Jefferson avenue. The UAW has become a big business in a state where its membership has dwindled from 60 per cent to 40 per cent in the post war years.
"The major labor disputes in this state have been national in character and the labor record in Michigan is superior to that in most other states," the UAW vice-president insists.
On State's Labor Situation
When asked about the concern of management and other citizens about the move of factories to other states of a happier labor-management climate, he offers the rebuttal that the moves have "been exploited politically but are economic not political in character." He cites the move of a plant from a Republican state with no personal or corporate income tax to a state which is Democratic and has both taxes, because management felt the market demanded the move. Automotive factories have become national in scope to fit the market, not centered in Michigan. He believes this is because of economic conditions, not political.
As the rank and file union member's standard of living has improved so have labor-management relations. Mr. Woodcock admits that most management is co-operative. He himself does not think of them as tyrants or Victorian bogeyman capitalists

Alumni of Yale To Hear Kiphuth

Delaney Kiphuth, director of athletics at Yale University, and son of Yale's famous swimming coach, "Bob" Kiphuth, will address members and guests of the Yale Alumni Association of Michigan on Thursday, January 17. The meeting will be held at the University Club at noon. Mr. Kiphuth, who is also director of the Payne Whitney Gymnasium and a former Yale football player, will discuss current trends in physical education at Yale.
Alvan Macauley, Jr., president of the Yale Alumni group, announced the meeting and encouraged all members to attend.

but as men who have come to see that labor and management have more in common than they do apart.

Civic Responsibility
The chief concern of both unions and management these days should be the unemployment situation, increased by automation and other economic factors, says the UAW leader.
Unions are learning to accept civic responsibility as management has been forced to do in the past years. Mr. Woodcock himself is on an impressive list of civic and cultural boards including the NAACP and the board of governors for Wayne State University.
Having worked closely within the union and without with the NAACP, he is well aware of integration problems in industry. He believes that the UAW has taken a leading role in trying to solve some of these problems. He is also strong in his approval of recent church leadership in our community, which is also his own, for "open occupancy."

A reserved, rather aloof man with dogged conviction which he defends with quiet fervor Leonard Woodcock is not a man who respects or uses violent methods. Conciliatory but strong, he has pleasant relations even with company presidents, such as Donald Douglas of Douglas Aircraft, which his union strikes.

Constant Traveler
He is constantly on the go from the nation's capital, to Detroit and to the West Coast. He believes that President Kennedy should have many avenues open to him in dealing with such crippling tie-ups as the New York dock strikes. He has always personally supported Kennedy, in the days when he was a young Senator. He introduced Kennedy when he served as a delegate to the California convention in 1960 which nominated Kennedy for President.

Leonard Woodcock hasn't had a vacation in two years, regrets that his job keeps him away from his family, daughters Leslie and Janet, and son John. His job, also like many corporation heads, leaves him little time for hobbies. He does a great deal of reading and likes to garden.
An articulate and logical spokesman for his union, Leonard Woodcock believes "Every group activity will ultimately organize itself." What this organization means to the community he will explain to Pointers who attend his lecture on January 22 at the new Fries Auditorium.
