GOVERNOR ROMNEY'S new Aid for Dependent Children of Unemployed Parents program has been turned down by the Federal Department of Health, Education and Welfare. Anthony J. Celebrezze, U.S. Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, informed Romney via telegram that the ADC-U program adopted by the State Legislature last Tuesday "does not conform" to the Federal Social Security Act and "thus is not approvable for Federal matching funds." The Governor's bill provides ADC-U payments only to persons who have received or been eligible for unemployment compensation since January 1, 1958.

Friday, March 22
PRESIDENT KENNEDY approves U.S. Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara's decision to award a Federal contract for the TFX fighter plane to General Dynamics Corp. The President, at his press conference yesterday, called McNamara "courageous." The Defense Secretary had appeared before a Senate Investigations sub-committee earlier in the day to defend his controversial $6.5-billion contract award to General Dynamics. Kennedy praised McNamara, saying the country was lucky to have such a good, effective secretary, and noted that it took a man of courage to turn down contract pleas from various members of Congress, including some "from my own party—and others even closer to me (an apparent reference to his brother, U.S. Senator Edward M. Kennedy)."

Saturday, March 23
GOVERNOR ROMNEY'S open-occupancy bill was passed yesterday by the State Senate, voting 21 to 4 in favor of the housing bias curb, with many senators abstaining. The measure to prohibit real estate brokers from "suggesting, recommending or otherwise encouraging discrimination against any prospective customer because of his race, religion, color or national origin" now goes to the House. The Senate approved Romney's original bill with only one amendment, a change in the section that barred brokers from refusing to attempt to show properties listed with them because of a prospective buyer or lessee's race, religion, color or national origin. The amended bill states that an agent can refuse to show a listing, but not on his own initiative.

Sunday, March 24
GENERAL LUCIUS D. CLAYS special Citizens Committee told President Kennedy yesterday that the United States $3.9-billion foreign aid program is too high. The committee voted 9 to 1 in favor of a half-billion dollar reduction in foreign aid, saying that the long-term program essential to American security would be more effective if administered on a tighter and smaller scale. Lone dissenter George Meany, president of the AFL-CIO, demanded an expanded program. The President, who personally appointed the committee of 10 prominent citizens to study United States foreign aid policy, recently asked for a $1-billion increase in the foreign aid budget.

Monday, March 25
FRENCH UNION LEADERS and government negotiators failed again Sunday, in day-long sessions, to reach agreement ending the 24-day strike in state-owned coal mines. "It can be said that the negotiations are almost broken off," a union spokesman reported. "No new meeting has been arranged." Failure to reach a settlement may result in a walkout by France's two million state employees.

Tuesday, March 26
UNITED STATES and Soviet scientists have agreed to install a direct communication link between Moscow and Washington. The undersea cable and radio link, hooking weather bureaus between the two capital cities, will be used for exchange of weather information from American and Soviet meteorological satellites.

High School Visited by Russian Tourists

Five members of a party of 13 Russian engineers, writers and educators paid a visit to Grosse Pointe High School recently. VALENTI A. PROKOFEV, an art instructor at Moscow State University, standing, addressed a group including students who are studying Russian. RALPH N. DEAL, teacher of Russian at the High School, is seated on the right.

City Adopts Compensation Plan, Budget

Grosse Pointe City Council has unanimously approved a proposed City Budget and Compensation Plan for the year 1963-64. The plan, adopted at a special council meeting Monday evening, March 25, establishes the 1963-64 Tax Levy for City purposes at the same rate as that of the current year, and provides payment of hospitalization benefits for employees up to $15 per month.

Estimated revenue for 1963-64 is $741,525. Estimated expenditures include: Administrative, $63,215; Police $129,575; Fire, $101,275; Public Works, $112,060; Signal and Pumping, $20,000; Parks and Recreation, $34,325; General Public Expense, $126,030; Debt Service, $48,200; Public Improvement, $99,840; and Contingency, $6,105. These expenditures total $741,525, the same as estimated revenue.

Estimated Revenues
Revenue from the Water Supply and Sewage Disposal Fund is expected to total $91,350. Estimated expenditures for this fund are $81,699, leaving a net operating income of $9,681. System requirements for rdabt, capital equipment, etc., total $33,210.

St. Clare Parish Seeks Closing of Audubon; Cites Need for More Classrooms

The Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Detroit petitioned the Park council to vacate Audubon road, between Charlevoix and Mack, for a proposed addition of an eight-classroom structure to St. Clare of Montefalco School. The proposed new structure would also contain a gymnasium.

A letter asking for the proposed vacation of the road was read to the council on Monday, March 25, from the Most Rev. John F. Dearden, Archbishop of Detroit, by City Clerk Charles Heisse.

Representing the Archdiocese and St. Clare of Montefalco Parish, was the Rev. Father Edward Sweeney, assistant pastor; and Fred Potvin of 1012 Bedford, an attorney.

Pastor of the parish, which is bounded by Lake St. Clair, Waveney (in Detroit), Balfour and Cadieux, is the Rev. Father Philip L. Colgan.

Action Deferred
The council took no immediate action in the matter. A further study of the situation must be made, and a public hearing called before a decision can be reached, the petitioners were informed.

The effects of rerouted traffic on adjacent streets might have a bearing on the decision, it was disclosed by City Manager Robert Stone.

At the suggestion of Councilman Matthew Patterson, the traffic count will include East Outer drive, south of Mack in Detroit, since vehicular traffic from the drive enters Audubon and Three Mile drive. Traffic cannot enter Whittier because it is one-way going north.

Father Sweeney told the council the church petitioned for the vacation of a little used alley behind the Verbrugge Hardware Store in Mack avenue, between Audubon and Three Mile drive, after purchasing the store, building. The petition was granted last May.

Need More Classrooms
At the time, the priest said, it was the intention of the pastor to build a school gym, but (Continued on Page 4)

Home Plans Available at City Offices

Grosse Pointe City property owners will find a message from the City Manager included in their next tax bills. The enclosure lists three items City Manager Lawrence C. Savage feels should be brought to the property owners' special attention.

Between 1,800 and 2,000 home construction plans are stored, at present, in the old City offices, due to be torn down in the near future. These plans, submitted at the time individual building permits were issued, have no value as far as the City is concerned.

Owners Can Have Them
Homeowners are invited to pick up their plans before the City discards them. Call the City Offices, TU 5-5800, and leave your address. The files will be searched and you will be notified if your plans are available. All plans must be picked up by April 19, 1963.

The City Manager's second "item of interest" concerns tax payments. Savage reminds all City property owners that a three percent penalty will be invoked against any resident who fails to pay his first tax installment by the specified date, May 10, 1963.

The final item was suggested by Frank Lister, 861 Loraine, who proposed the City save money by using cancelled checks as tax bill receipts.

To Save on Mailing
The City mails out two copies of each tax bill to each property owner. Previously, the property owner was directed to return both copies with his check, and one of the copies, marked "paid," was returned to the taxpayer by mail.

Property owners have now been directed to return only one copy with their checks. The City expects considerable savings through the elimination of return mailing, particularly with advanced postage rates.

PHONE RECEIVER STOLEN
A telephone receiver was taken from the phone booth at Notre Dame and Kercheval some time before 11 p.m. Tuesday evening, March 19. City Patrolman Thomas McLaughlin, Jr., discovered the theft. The Bell Telephone Co., notified, repaired the booth the following morning.

New Headmaster Picked By GP University School

Dr. Hugh Compton Riddleberger has been appointed as Grosse Pointe University School's next headmaster to succeed John Chandler, Jr., who leaves the school in June to become President of the National Association of Independent Schools.

Dr. Riddleberger comes to Grosse Pointe University School from the headmastership of the Trinity School in New York City. Trinity, an Episcopal day school enrolling 435 boys in grades one through 12, was founded in 1709.

Hugh Compton Riddleberger was born in 1916 in Woodstock, Virginia, the son of Ralph H. Riddleberger and Frances Waddy. His paternal grandfather, H. H. Riddleberger was a United States Senator from Virginia. His father, a lawyer, was a former U.S. District At-

Heavy Beams Rip Car Top

Two heavy wooden beams on a flat-bed truck peeled back the top of a car driven by Mrs. Peggy Elizabeth Pruitt, of 32001 Jefferson, St. Clair Shores, on Monday, March 18. She was not injured, but police gave her a ticket for not having her operator's license on her person.

According to Farms Patrolmen Earl Field and William Fowler, who witnessed the accident, the truck, driven by Jack I. Clark, 33, of 21301 Telegraph road, was turning into Berkshire place, from Lake Shore road, and Mrs. Pruitt veered to another lane.

The officers said that Clark gave a turn signal, and the woman, driving east on the road and behind the truck, changed to the left lane to pass the truck. However, the truck was still in motion and the car struck two projecting beams.

Field and Fowler, who were on a funeral detail at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, said they saw the woman's car hit the beams. The force of impact was so great, the policemen said, the beams took out the front windshield and rear window, and peeled back the hardtop roof of the car.

No injuries were reported, but Mrs. Pruitt was not able to produce a driver's license and was ticketed for not having one on her person.

Mrs. Pruitt accepted the responsibility for the accident and said her insurance company will take care of all damages. Damage to the beams was very slight, it was said. The woman was not ticketed for the accident.

Memorial Center Starts Campaign To Raise $60,000

Annual Family Participation Drive's Goal Same as Last Year; Hope to Surpass Mark of 4,000 Gifts Totalling $61,568

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association, planning to double its activities in the coming year, has launched its annual Family Participation Campaign.

Thomas L. Munson, president of the Center's board of directors, said that letters requesting contributions will be mailed shortly to 17,000 Grosse Pointe families and others interested in the Center's activities.

Mr. Munson's letter pointed out that the goal for this year's drive was $60,000 and that, despite the doubling of the Center's facilities and activities, the goal is the same as last year's.

4,000 Gave Last Year
Some 4,000 persons contributed to the Center in last year's campaign, donating a record total of $61,568.

Chairman of the 1963 campaign is Gerald C. Schroeder, a member of the Center's Board of Directors.

Mr. Munson said that the Center's Alger House and Fries Auditorium "comprise a center for educational, cultural and social activity at the community level not equaled anywhere."

"Last year the War Memorial had one of its most active years, with more than 100,000 men and women, boys and girls, using the facilities. This year, with the Fries Auditorium in full use, the program of the Center will reach an even larger portion of the population of the Grosse Pointes."

Cites Lecture Series
Earlier, Mr. Munson cited the Inaugural Lecture Series as an example of the use being made of the Fries Auditorium. The lecture series presented The Rt. Rev. Richard S. Emrich, Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh, Leonard Woodcock, Walker L. Cisler, Henry Ford II and Governor George Romney in a discussion of "The Community, the Corporation and the National Purpose."

Mr. Munson pointed out that the Center does not receive United Foundation funds or tax support. He also emphasized that all contributions to the Center are fully deductible.

His letter reminded Grosse Pointers that the Center serves as a meeting place for many Pointe organizations, and that it operates a free hospital equipment loan service and a free blood bank.

Organized in 1949, the Center is a memorial to Grosse Pointe men and women who died in World War II and in the Korean War.

State, County, Local Offices To Be Filled

Voters to Also Decide Fate of New Constitution; All Urged to Vote

Pointe voters are expected to go to the polls on Monday, April 1, in heavy numbers to cast ballots in the biennial spring and city elections. To be elected are state, county and local officials.

Also to be decided is the fate of the new State Constitution. The Woods, which buys its water from Detroit, is the only one of that city's three Pointe customers that will seek an advisory vote on whether the city council should, or should not voice an objection to the proposed fluoridation of water supplied by Detroit.

The Park and Shores buy Detroit water; the Farms filters and purifies its own water for local consumption, and sells to the City.

Two years ago the Park and Shores notified Detroit that they objected to the use of the chemical in the water. At recent council meetings of both communities, the objections were reiterated and sent to the Detroit Board of Water Commissioners.

Candidates Listed
State candidates and the offices they seek, are: Regents of the University of Michigan—Eugene Power and Donald M. D. Thurber (Democrats), William B. Cudlip and Ink White (Republicans), and W. Clifford Bentley and John Zywicki (Socialist Labor Party).

Superintendent of Public Instruction—Lynn M. Bartlett (D), Raymond M. Hatch (R), and Ralph W. Muncy (SLP); State Board of Education—Gerald Tuckow (D), James F. O'Neil (R), and James C. Horvath (SLP).

Board of Governors of Wayne State University—Michael Ference, Jr., and Leonard Woodcock (D), Marshall V. Noecker and Alfred H. Whittaker (R), and Charles Fraser and James Sims (SLP).

Wayne County Auditor—Jacob P. Sumeracki (D), and Robert G. Adams (R).

Three Unopposed
In the Woods councilman race, three unopposed candidates are sure of being elected. They are Marvin R. Boutin and Frederick M. Maddock, incumbents, and Lathrop P. Morse, newcomer, who will replace Councilman David Fairless, who is not seeking reelection because of business reasons. The office is for two years.

Seven hopefuls are seeking council seats in the Farms. Councilman Edward C. Roney, Jr., is not asking to be returned for personal reasons. The candidates are Henry E. Bodman II, William G. Butler and William G. Kirby, incumbents; and George S. Lang, John T. Short, Ervin A. Steiner, Jr., and Benjamin S. Warren, Jr.

The three candidates receiving the highest number of votes are elected to four-year terms, and the trailing fourth serves for two years.

At the first council meeting following an election, council members elect a mayor from their ranks for a one-year term.

Cunningham Unopposed
In the Park, Mayor Kenneth Cunningham is unopposed for reelection, as are the three persons seeking council seats. Councilman Victor Wehmeier is not running for reasons of health.

Assured of election to four-year terms are William Oddy and Matthew Patterson, incumbents; and William Luedders, newcomer. The office of mayor is for two years.

Police Sift Shores Jewel Theft Clues

Three Law Enforcement Agencies Coordinating Efforts to Recover Gems

Three law enforcement agencies are sifting clues in the $56,650 jewelry burglary of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Glancy, Jr., 735 Lake Shore road, it was disclosed by Shores Police Chief Fred Duemling.

The chief said that he has assigned the case to Police Lt. George LaForest, who will be assisted by State Police Det. John Olepa.

The Detroit office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation is also taking a hand in the investigation. The Bureau becomes interested in any jewelry robbery involving more than $5,000 worth of gems because of the possibility that the jewels might be transported over state lines, Chief Duemling said.

May Give Lie Tests
If the clues fail to bring out anything, the chief said, then lie detector tests will be taken of all persons under investigation, the chief said.

The jewels were missed by Mrs. Glancy on Friday, March 22. She told police that they were taken from a black jewelry box on a vanity in a second floor bedroom. She said she last wore the jewels on Monday, March 18.

The investigating officers said that there was no evidence of forcible entry into the house.

Missing Pieces Listed
Reported missing by Mrs. Glancy were a double string of graduated pearls with a diamond clasp in a platinum setting, valued at $4,000; a diamond necklace in a platinum setting (can be converted to a bracelet), value $22,500; a seven-carat pear-shaped diamond ring, in platinum setting, value $24,700; a ruby and diamond ring in platinum setting, value $3,000.

Also, a double pearl ring, value $150; a flawed sea-green emerald ring in a setting of gold leaves, value $1,000; a narrow sapphire necklace in white metal setting, value $1,000; a little finger cluster-ruby ring, value $250; and a gold ring with small diamonds, value $50.

Hill Merchants Hold Meeting

Members of the Kercheval-on-the-Hill Association held a luncheon meeting in the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club Tuesday, to discuss plans for future promotions of the business district and hear reports from the officers. A representative and enthusiastic proportion of the membership was on hand.

Woods Elm Spray Law Becomes Effective Today

To help combat the heavy loss of elm trees in the city because of the dread Dutch Elm Disease, the Woods council enacted an ordinance making it compulsory for private owners to spray their trees under penalty of the law, it was disclosed by City Administrator Chester E. Petersen.

The ordinance was adopted on Monday, March 18, and becomes effective today, March 28, according to a provision in the law.

Any violation of the ordinance will constitute a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of $500, or 90 days imprisonment, or both, which will not be construed as a waiver of the city's right to collect the costs of removing diseased trees from private property.

Petersen said that last year the Woods lost a total of 222 elms to the disease, of which 171 were on private property and 51 on public property. Last November, the city completed a dormant spray of all public-owned trees in an attempt to reduce losses.

There are 7,434 elms in the city, 2,043 on public property, and 5,442 on private.

However, he said, most alarming are the continued large losses of trees on private property, and the apparent failure to replace these losses with new tree varieties on either public or private property.

The new law provides that every person, firm or corporation which owns or has under its control any elm tree located within the city limits is required to have the trees sprayed each year. The type of spray to be used must be approved by (Continued on Page 2)

The city will provide a spray contractor to do the job, and will make this service available to private owners, who if they wish to avail themselves of this service, shall notify the city. However, if these owners wish to use their own contractors, it will be their duty to see that the work is done within 20 days, during which the number and location of the trees sprayed must be filed with the city.

Trees of all species and varieties of elm, zelkova and planera, affected with the fungus Ceratostomella ulmi, as determined by laboratory analysis, shall be removed and burned within 10 days, following notification of the discovery of the infection.

Under the "sanitation clause" of the ordinance, all infected trees, dead limbs, etc., shall be removed and burned under the direction of the city administrator or his agent. All tree stumps of infected trees shall be removed and chipped so that what is left shall be not less than six inches under the ground.

Petersen also disclosed that the council enacted an ordinance regulating the cutting and destruction of noxious weeds and other weeds, brush and grass on properties in the Woods.

Property owners and residents must destroy noxious weeds before the weeds reach the seed bearing stage.

The city administrator is charged with notifying property owners and residents, by certified mail, when noxious weeds are found on properties. Within 10 days after receiving the notice, the weeds must be destroyed. Failure to receive such a notice does not waive any penalty, according to the ordinance.

All owners, possessors or occupiers of property in the Woods shall have the duty to see that no weeds, brush or grass shall grow more than six inches in height. On serving of notice, these must be cut within 10 days.

Failure to comply will cause the city to do the work and the cost will constitute a lien against the property.

Failure to comply with the ordinance will be punishable by a fine of $100, or 90 days imprisonment in the city or county jail, or both a fine and imprisonment.

Petersen said that the adoption of the ordinances was in order to retain the present and future beauty of the Woods.

Candidates for township offices are unopposed. They are: Harry Garland, supervisor; Glenn Barr, treasurer; Thomas Loughlin, clerk; Ethel Loughlin, justice of the peace; Jay Smith, trustee; John Caniff, Board of Review; Charles Sperrick and Eleanor Sperrick, constables.

The terms of all offices are for four years.

City Budget

tures at $34,294, leaving a net operating income of $37,706. Requirements for debt and other obligations total $37,706.

Acting on the recommendation of City Manager Lawrence C. Savage, the Council voted to award Grosse Pointe City's 1963-64 insurance requirements for general liability, workmen's compensation, fire, boiler and machinery, money and securities, and fidelity and faithful performance bonds to the insurance firm of Johnson and Higgins at a net savings of $1,901.15 per year.

All Policies Studied
All of the City's insurance policies were studied as to coverage and analyzed as to cost when the 1963-64 preliminary budget was being prepared. The City found several areas in the insurance program that could be improved, and solicited quotations from three different companies including Marsh & McLennan, the City's 1962-63 agent, Johnson and Higgins, and Employer's Mutual of Wasau, a company noted for its competitiveness in the General Liability field.

Employer's Mutual of Wasau, primarily a carrier of liability insurance, did not furnish quotations on personal bonds. Johnson and Higgins' bid of $9,207.10 was $1,901.15 less than Marsh and McLennan's bid of $11,108.25.

GETS SWIM LETTER

Bill Haynor was one of 12 initial lettermen on Denison University's first swimming team in 30 years who were presented their awards at the winter sports dinner in Granville, Ohio. Haynor set the Denison record for the 200-yard individual medley, with a 2:33.8. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Haynor, of 710 Washington road, and a senior.

Senator Curtis To Speak Here

Fourteenth District Republicans announced that U. S. Senator Carl T. Curtis, of Nebraska, will be coming to Detroit's East Side on Saturday, March 30, for a speaking engagement at the Denby High School Auditorium, 12800 Kelly road, at 8 p.m.

Since he is one of the ranking Republican members of the Senate Finance Committee, which deals with taxes, it was rumored that Senator Curtis would speak on the 1963 tax reduction program.

Asked specifically whether this was true, Republican Chairman Richard Durant said he did not know. "I understand from the Senator's office that his subject will be either tax reduction, or the Administration's sell-out in Cuba," Durant said.

Senator Curtis, the dean of the Nebraska delegation to Congress, began his service on the "Hill" in 1939. After eight consecutive terms in the House, he was elected to the Senate in 1954 and re-elected in 1960.

Police Recover Doorman's Car

George Adams, 30, of 4012 West Buena Vista, Detroit, employed as a doorman at Al Green's, 15301 Jefferson avenue, was on duty at 10:30 p.m. on Wednesday, March 20, and saw his car being stolen from the lot at the rear of the restaurant.

Adams' shout was ignored by the driver, who appeared to be in his teens, so Adams jumped into another car and gave chase. Both cars sped through the Park streets.

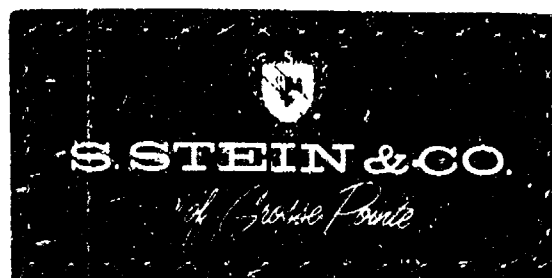

Park Patrolmen William Crandall and William Furtaw, unaware of the circumstances involved, saw Adams driving in excess of the speed limit and stopped him, but when Adams explained, the officers took off after the stolen car.

Crandall and Furtaw lost sight of the stolen car in traffic and radioed their station. A teletype was sent to all departments.

A short while later, Farms police recovered the vehicle, abandoned in front of 131 Lake Shore drive by the thief, and returned the auto to the owner.

St. Clare Parish Seeks Closing of Audubon Road

The store building has been torn down, but it was found that the proposed addition to the present school structure will cover 20,088 square feet, which will take away a good section of the parking lot, Father Sweeney said.

If the vacation of Audubon is granted, this would allow 25,900 square feet for the building and parking lot, he said. Audubon is 60 feet wide and approximately 400 feet long from Charlevoix to Mack.

Father Sweeney said that if the vacation is granted, it will not set a precedent, since Defer Elementary School and Pierce Junior High School were built over a public right-of-way.

Council Has Power Potvin pointed out to the council that the power to vacate a public right-of-way is vested in the council, although the city holds no title to streets, since these are easements for the general public.

City Attorney Richard Rohr said that the council can make a resolution to vacate Audubon, but cannot adopt such a resolution until a public hearing is held, and the matter studied.

When asked about the possibility of adding a third story to the present school building, Father Sweeney said that this was an impossibility because of the building foundation, and because the church was against a three-story school building.

Has 1,184 Pupils

He said that the present building contains 24 classrooms, and has an enrollment of 1,184 pupils. Each classroom has between 50 and 52 students, which makes a very crowded condition.

If the proposed school addition is not approved, it may necessitate sending some of the parish children to public schools, which would be an added burden to taxpayers, the priest said. Enrollments increase each year, he said.

St. Clare School, located at 16231 Charlevoix, is an elementary grade school.

The traffic count is being undertaken by the Park Police Department and results will be presented to the council at its next meeting with other studied data, after which the council will decide on holding a public hearing.

LOSES GOLD BRACELET

Mrs. William McKay of 110 Cloverly, personally reported at the Farms police station on Saturday, March 23, that she lost a two-inch wide gold bracelet, with gold coins, last seen in her home in September 1962. The item is worth $400, she said.

Great Decisions Meeting Tonight

Great Decisions 1963 meets for the last time tonight, March 28, at 7:30 o'clock in the Friends Room of the Main Library, Kercheval at Fisher road. Topic for the concluding session in this year's eight-week program is: "Peace—What Problems and Prospects?"

For almost a decade the non-partisan educational Foreign Policy Association has sponsored local Great Decisions groups, preparing Fact Sheet Kits at nominal cost and encouraging members to express their own opinions on international problems. Organized in 1918, the FPA has been endorsed by every U.S. President since Woodrow Wilson.

Its purpose is primarily the dissemination of information, aimed at helping the people of the United States toward a greater understanding of problems facing the world and the nation. The Great Decisions programs, patterned along the lines of Early American town meetings, were designed to promote individual thinking.

Local groups are urged to take no political action as a whole. The entire study program has been prepared to stimulate relevant, timely discussion among an alert and informed citizenry.

Specific topics in the 1963 series included The European Common Market, Red China, Spain, India, Laos and Vietnam, Algeria and The Alliance for Progress.

In tonight's final session, the Division of the Question."

Library group will attempt an overall view of the world situation, with special emphasis on Berlin, Cuba and the "Disarmament Deadlock." Members will seek to define "peaceful coexistence" — U.S. style vs. Soviet style — and to determine whether any permanent, peaceful accommodation between the Communist world and the free world is possible.

All interested Grosse Pointers are invited to attend tonight's meeting. There is no charge.

The Library Great Decisions group will join other area groups, including those meeting at Grosse Pointe Memorial and Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Churches, in a general seminar to be held at Wayne State University next month. Resource leaders at this seminar will be U.S. Senator Philip Hart, a Michigan member of Congress, and a member of the State Department.

Law Club

The regular meeting of the Detroit Parliamentary Law Club will be held at the Federation of Women's Clubs of Metropolitan Detroit, in the small auditorium, 4811 Second avenue, from 10 a.m. to 12 noon Wednesday, April 3. Mrs. Charles S. Edwards will present a lesson on "Incidental Motions: Raising a Point of Order Appeal. Withdrawal of a Motion, Inaction of the Question."

Attend Parley To Aid Retarded

Delegates from the newly formed Grosse Pointe Association for Retarded Children attending the North Central Conference on Mental Retardation in Detroit last week were urged to stop criticism of state governments and to assume leadership in offering state and local officials practical, constructive solutions to "this growing nation-wide problem."

Dr. Gunnar Dybwad, New York, executive director of the National Association for Retarded Children told more than 200 attending the conference that "Mental retardation has recently become a respectable handicap. One citizen in every 12 has direct contact with a mentally retarded person through his family." The national executive said that the question is no longer "if" taxpayers will support programs for equitable treatment of the retarded, but "what programs" and "when" they will be established.

Those representing the Grosse Pointe Association for Retarded Children at the conference were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lyle, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Still, Mrs. D. James Hill, Mrs. Charles Lytle and Mrs. Carl Lanz.

Contentment may be a virtue, but certain death to enterprise.

'Y' Conducting Drive for Funds

A sweeping program of renovation, repair, and improvement at Hannan Branch YMCA will result from "the United YMCA Capital Campaign this Spring, according to John T. Short, Chairman of the Hannan Board of Management. Minimum needs at the branch will total $161,800, he pointed out, in announcing that volunteers are now being recruited to work on the Hannan Branch phase of the campaign.

John F. Langs, President, and Chairman of the Executive Committee of the YMCA of Metropolitan Detroit, announced the United YMCA Capital Campaign recently, noting that the total over-all needs of the 13 branches, two camps, and other operations totaled $7,223,262.

Mr. Langs pointed out that this will be the first time in 38 years that the YMCA has independently asked for capital funds from the public. The last fund-raising effort was in 1925, and resulted in contributions of more than $5,500,000 for rehabilitation and expansion of the YMCA's physical plant as it then existed.

"Since then," he said, "The YMCA has received $2,054,000 from the 1955 Metropolitan Detroit Building Fund. At that time our needs were several times the amount we received, because of the 30-year lapse between the campaigns of 1925 and 1955."

Mr. Short outlined the improvements planned for the Hannan Branch under the United YMCA Capital Campaign program as follows:

1. Renovate and up-date program areas, general administration and service desk area, including replacement of worn-out equipment.
2. Installation of acoustical tile in pool, renovation of electrical system and plumbing. Addition of physical fitness unit.
3. New exterior signs, painting, caulking, tuck pointing, and roof repairs.
4. Installation of elevator.

The over-all needs of the Metropolitan Y are broken down under three classifications: Urban Branches, Suburban Branches, and Metropolitan. A total of $1,499,850 is needed for the first, $4,528,645 for the second, and $1,194,767 for the third classification, according to Mr. Short.

Included among the Metropolitan needs are the requirements of two YMCA camps, Nissokone and Ohlyesa, Robinson Athletic Field, and the Metropolitan building.

The most common mistake is to mistake ambition for ability.

Students Polled On Future Plans

Grosse Pointe High School students are more concerned with finding "interesting work" than with "job security."

Sixty students, 30 boys and 30 girls picked at random, participated in a recent survey sponsored by Scholastic Magazines. Purpose of the poll was to determine what plans today's high school students have for their future careers.

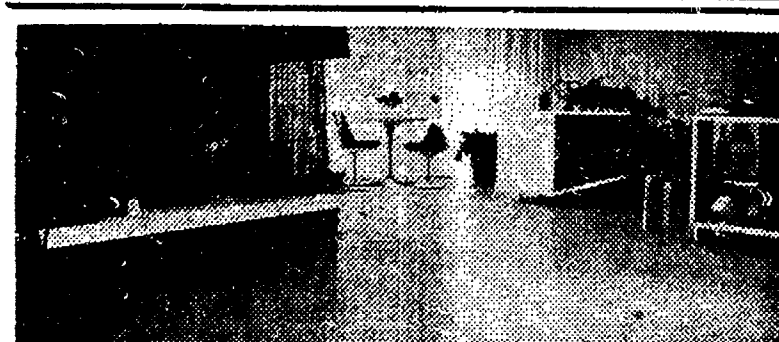

The Grosse Pointers' preferred profession is teaching, followed by business, engineering, medicine and the arts. These five career fields were picked by over half of the students, and over half said they would look for "interesting" work when the time came to choose their first full-time jobs.

Less than 10 per cent consider future security the most important factor in selecting a career. The students ranked "opportunity for advancement" third on the list of things they would consider when seeking their first full-time position.

Twenty-one of those polled believe personality and intelligence will have the greatest effect in determining success, while 18 consider hard work the most important success-determining factor.

Approximately one-fourth of the students have no idea how much money they will be earning 10 years after high school graduation, but over one-third expect to earn between $100 and $300 or more per week. Only five of the 60 students polled do not think they will attend college. Fifty-two of the 55 college-bound boys and girls want to attend schools away from home.

Library Offers Night at Opera

Grosse Pointers will have their own night at the opera at 8:30 Thursday evening, April 4, when Dr. John Bryden, chairman of Wayne State University's Department of Humanities, will talk on "Opera in Contrast" at the Central Library.

The Friends of the Library arranged to have this extra April meeting when the Grosse Pointe Women's Committee for the Detroit Grand Opera Association consulted Robert Orr, Library Director, and W. Howard T. Snyder, president of the Friends group, about promoting the Metropolitan Opera season's seven May performances at the Masonic Temple Auditorium.

This year's opera repertory will be Verdi's "Otello" and "La Traviata," Rossini's "The Barber of Seville," Wagner's "Die Meistersinger von Nuernberg," Mussorgsky's "Boris Godunov," Mascagni's "Caval-eria Rusticana," Leoncavallo's "Pagliacci" and Puccini's "Tosca." Records and tapes of all the operas are available at the Library.

Opera ticket holders and those who are only wishful will have the opportunity to heighten their knowledge and enjoyment of the music through Dr. Bryden's interpretive analysis while he plays recordings. He has taught opera courses and owns an outstanding collection of opera scores which he has gathered all over Western Europe and the Near East.

Dr. Bryden recently purchased a home in Grosse Pointe Farms, where he is also Director of Music for St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church. He earned his Doctorate in Musicology at the University of Michigan after earlier graduate study at Harvard and at the famous Fontainebleau Conservatory in France.

The meeting, which is open to the public, will be followed by a social hour and tea in the main reading room.

FARMS COUNCIL

During the past few weeks I have called in person at the homes of over 2,500 Farms residents. Many hundreds from all sections of the Farms have indicated their willingness to endorse me publicly. At the same time many expressed some of their concerns about community needs. Instead of a list of endorsers, I have decided to devote the following space to a few of these citizen-expressed recommendations:

1. A very active reforestation program to replace elms which are being and will be destroyed by Dutch Elm disease.
2. A vigorous eradication of rats in sections where necessary.
3. Further afternoon traffic control on residential streets, particularly Fisher, McMillan, and Chalfonte where some mothers are keeping pre-school children in the house between 3:30 and 4:00.
4. A system of communication, possibly an annual or semi-annual publication to inform residents of Council operations and plans.

Though some problems were highly individualistic, all expressions demonstrated a consistent concern about the community. Obviously there is a need for the Council to communicate with and to inform the citizens of its plans and programs.

With my election to the Council will go a continued and energetic effort to relate myself to the needs of all sections of our fine community.

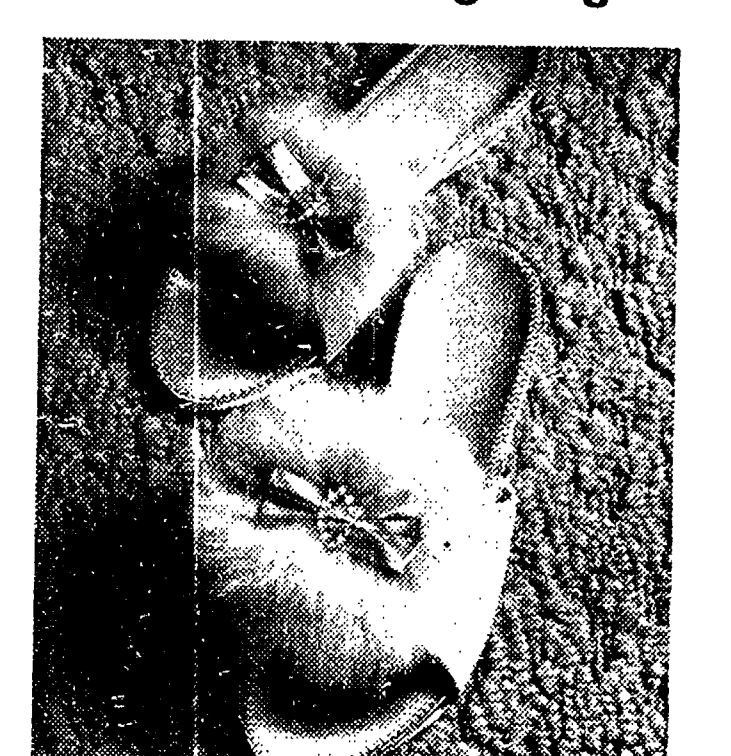

Cordially,
JOHN T. SHORT

Seventy major changes were made in Michigan's proposed new constitution. Fifty-one of these changes received near unanimous support of the 144 delegates.

Mrs. T. O. Wedel To Speak Here

Mrs. Theodore O. Wedel will speak in the Undercroft of Christ Church on Monday, April 1 at 8 p.m. on the work of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A.

Mrs. Wedel has been very active in ecumenical affairs. She was a vice-president of the National Council of Churches from 1957-1960. She also served as national chairman of the United Church Women. She has been active in committees of the World Council of Churches.

In her own church, Mrs. Wedel was formerly president of the Episcopal women in the Diocese of Washington, and served for six years on the National Board of Episcopal Churchwomen. From 1955-1961 she was one of the four women members of the National Council of the Episcopal Church and was one of the 11 delegates of the Episcopal Church to the Third Assembly of the World Council of Churches, held in New Delhi, India in 1961.

Mrs. Wedel has been active in civic affairs in Washington, serving on many boards and committees, including 12 years on the Public Welfare Advisory Council. She is a consultant to the National Office of Volunteers of the American Red Cross and a member of the National Board of the Girl Scouts. In December, 1961, she was appointed by President Kennedy to a newly formed Commission on the Status of Women.

Feminine voters of Michigan for the first time will have an opportunity to voice their opinion on the passage of a new state constitution on April 1. No woman in the state was qualified in 1908 to vote on the present document, which was written at Michigan's last constitutional convention, held in 1907.

Discuss Crime Photography

WOODS PATROLMAN AL ABEND, who attended a Police Photography School in Rochester, N. Y., sponsored by the Eastman Kodak company, is shown discussing the fine points of camera equipment with HARRIS B. TUTTLE, school coordinator. Police officers from counties all over the world participated in the program to learn all phases of advanced crime detection through the use of the camera, including micrography and macrography. The school was from March 10 through March 16.

Soroptimists Select Winner

For her essay on "My Responsibility as a Citizen—in the Family, in the Community and in the World" Miss Joan Ludeke of 902 St. Clair avenue, has been chosen by the Soroptimist Club of Grosse Pointe as a winner in the Soroptimist Foundation Citizenship Award Contest.

Having qualified for the preliminary award given by the Grosse Pointe Club, the essayist may win a Soroptimist District Award; a regional award; and then vie with candidates chosen by other Soroptimist regions throughout the nine nations comprising the Soroptimist Federation of the Americas, Inc., for the grand prize of $2,500. The Soroptimist Citizenship Award is given in recognition of outstanding service in the home, in the school and in the community.

Joan is the third child and oldest girl in a family of six children whose parents are deceased. The mother died within the year after a prolonged illness during which Joan assumed home responsibilities which limited her extra-curricular activities at St. Ambrose High School where she is a senior.

Following her mother's death Joan assumed the role of "little mother" and with some help from her grandmother has maintained a home for the family as well as continuing to maintain a high scholastic standing in school, which gave

Students Hold Exchange Day

Four Grosse Pointe High School students participated in a "Detroit-area Exchange Program" Monday, March 11, trading places for the day with four students from Fordson High School on Detroit's west side.

The Grosse Pointers, Bart Elmer, Kathy Groehn and Barb Kerber, all members of the senior class, and junior Don Law, were excited and impressed by the inter-city student exchange. Their Fordson counterparts, Bessie Scaraninto, a senior; Melanie Clark and Dan Simon, juniors, and sophomore Janice Wozniak, agreed that the experiment was extremely worthwhile.

Both groups are anxious to have more exchanges with other schools.

It's surprising how many men are saved by the hard work that they think is killing them.

the many Pointe families who enjoy the Center

This year, as in years past, the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center needs your help. We appeal to your pride in your community and we appeal to your generosity for assistance in meeting a portion of the operating costs of the War Memorial. Last year the War Memorial had one of its most active years, with more than 100,000 men and women, boys and girls, using its facilities. This year, with the Fries Auditorium in full use, the program of the Center will reach an even larger portion of the population of the Grosse Pointes. The Grosse Pointe War Memorial belongs to all of us. All of us share in its benefits to our area. The Center receives no United Foundation money. Contributions to it are deductible for tax purposes. All of us have an obligation to protect and to further this fine asset.

Be Sure to Vote Monday

Monday, April 1, is Election Day and all qualified voters are urged to go to the polls and cast their ballots for the candidates of their choice.

We have urged adoption of the new document and repeat the plea for its acceptance. The public has been literally deluged with information on the subject for many months.

As a final pitch in favor of adoption we feel we can best serve our readers by printing the final article in a series of 42 prepared by Constitutional Convention.

"Michigan needs the new constitution. It holds the promise of the future. It is the state's escape from the shackles of the past and our means of reversing the trend towards dependence upon Federal government for answers to purely state and local problems."

So said Gov. George Romney this week, just before next Monday's election when Michigan voters will go to the polls to pass judgment on the proposed new state constitution.

Bipartisan support for the new document has become increasingly evident as Election Day approaches. Not only have more than a score of nonpartisan organizations in the state endorsed the proposal, but in recent weeks leaders in both political parties have been outspoken in their support.

Early this month Prentiss M. Brown, Democratic elder statesman and former U. S. Senator, announced his intention to vote for the new constitution.

William Palmer, a Democratic appointee to Michigan's original Civil Service Commission, has also announced his approval of the new Constitution.

At least 70 major changes from the 1908 state constitution are incorporated in the proposed document and 75 per cent of them received the unanimous or near-unanimous vote of the 144 delegates to the Constitutional Convention.

Among the significant improvements over the 1908 constitution are:

- 1. Abolition of Spring elections, saving an estimated $1 million each two years. 2. Four-year terms for elected state administrative officials, permitting the time needed to establish a program. 3. Reorganization of Michigan's hodge-podge of 126 boards, bureaus and commissions into not more than 20 departments.

No significant changes are made in people's right to amend the new document. The process will be substantially the same as in the present constitution.

The question to be submitted to the voters at Monday's election is a simple one—"Shall the revised Constitution be adopted?"

If the proposal receives a favorable majority, the new document would become effective on January 1, 1964. The first election for four-year terms under the new constitution would be in November of 1966.

Art Classes Being Offered

A variety of art classes will be offered at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial beginning in April under the instruction of Steve Davis, humanist painter and former pupil of Picasso.

On Monday afternoons, beginning April 1, from 1 to 4 o'clock, there will be a portrait and figure painting class using a model.

On Tuesday afternoons there will be a Basic Drawing and Painting Class to which beginning as well as intermediate students will be welcomed. This class will place emphasis on sketching of the human figure and beginning portraiture as well as the principles of design and color.

All these classes are offered in a series of 12 weekly lessons which are given in the Center's delightful terrace room given out upon the bowling green and Lake St. Clair. The classes are limited in number to 12 to 15 students each. Those wishing to enroll should call the Center's office, TU 1-7511.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

What do you use for book-marks? From our library experience, it would appear that patrons are quite resourceful in providing a wide variety of materials for this purpose, and they leave many of these interesting objects in their books when they return them.

Last month, one of our young male borrowers hit the jack-pot, while leafing through some books on the shelves, he came upon a dollar bill. The boy brought the money to the desk, where he was told he could have it if it wasn't claimed. However, our young patron decided, at that point, that he would like to donate said sum to our Library.

It is interesting to note that J. F. Powers' MORTE D'URBAN has won the fiction award in the National Book Awards, announced this month. This is the engrossing story of a Catholic priest who was social and worldly - a Babbitt-type businessman who was also quietly appealing as a religious figure.

Two other 1963 literary awards should also be mentioned. First, the Newbery Medal, which goes this year to Madeleine L'Engle's A WRINKLE IN TIME, a story dealing with two children who are accompanied by an older boy on a search for their missing scientist-father. This becomes a dangerous search which takes them through space by means of a "tesseract," or a wrinkle in time, to the dark planet Camazotz. The characterization is good and the episodes are imaginative. Secondly, the Caldecott Medal, going to E. J. Keats' THE SNOWY DAY, is a picture book about a little boy's pleasure on a snowy day. He crunches in the snow, makes a snowman, angels, and snowballs. The story is merely a simple narration of the little boy's joyous doings, and is charmingly illustrated. The latter book is now on order at our Library and will soon be available to patrons.

The Newberry Medal has been awarded every year since 1922, and was originated in 1921 by Frederic G. Melcher as a proposed incentive toward better quality of children's books. The award is given to the author of the most distinguished contribution to American literature published during the preceding year. The Caldecott Medal has been given annually since 1938, again by Mr. Melcher (who is now Chairman of the Board of the R. R. Bowker Company), to the artist of the most distinguished American picture book for children published in the United States during the preceding year. It is named for Randolph Caldecott, the famous English illustrator of books for children. The horseman on the medal is taken from one of his illustrations for JOHN GILPIN. Both awards are given by the Children's Services Division of the American Library Association.

One brief last word. If you are a parent concerned with teen-age problems you may be interested in a new book on the subject by Fred and Grace Hechinger entitled: TEEN-AGE TYRANNY - "A lively and important examination of America's teen-age society... why and how it is tyrannizing the world of adults." The Hechingers are not as worried about the greater freedom of today's youth as they are about the abdication of the rights and privileges of adults for the convenience of these immature adolescents. Their final conclusion - "The mission of the adult world is to help teen-agers become adults by raising their standards and values to maturity rather than by lowering adulthood to their insecure immaturity." This book should be a "must" for many parents.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Mr. Edgar: On Wednesday night, March 13, at U. of D. Memorial Stadium I watched a team of real champions. Admittedly the final score was not as I would have liked, based primarily on a judgment call in the last few seconds. But this takes nothing away from the performance of our "Blue Devils". This is the 5th game I've seen during the year. The other four varied from lop-sided wins to last minute cliff-hangers. But, in my judgment, Wednesday night was "their finest hour". I saw a team which was outweighed and outreached come back from a 12 point deficit in the first half on sheer grit and determination; and come within inches of winning the game when they were trailing by 6 points with only seconds remaining. I saw young men who were physically exhausted, and in some cases partially disabled, giving more than 100 percent of themselves. Hats off to Coach Chuck Hollosy who can develop this kind of desire and determination in our young men. And to the team itself, our community can only be extremely proud of such representation.

Sound Advice

By Fred Kopp, R.Ph. Never kill a fly with a shotgun, and never use drugs left over from a serious illness for self-treatment of a similar ailment. In the first case, you'll blow your kitchen ceiling to smithereens along with the fly. In the second case-you get the point. You see, modern drugs are highly potent-that's why we dispense them only when your physician prescribes. If you doze yourself with leftovers, you may do serious damage. It's a good idea to pour the remains of old prescriptions down the drain and destroy the bottles. This is the 1006th of a series of Editorial advertisements appearing in this paper each week.

What's New on THE HILL

By Roberto

ONCE A WELL-KNOWN author said "Anyone can do anything." We can't quite agree because we know it takes a lot of solid experience to do a thing well. It takes specialization. Ah... and when you see Spring shining thru the windows on the Hill you will understand where specialization enters the picture... it's the difference between the ordinary and the unusual.

Easter cards are in profusion right now at The Dants... any... sentiment... and hundreds to choose from... we found several at the preview... you will, too. Come see.

Easter is a toy and they know it at Young Clothes, Inc... we found fuzzy ducks... soft lambs... bunnies... and so many musical toys... everything that the Easter bunny could conjure up is here.

Unique

is the small scale 18th century mahogany curio cabinet, on legs, at The League Shop. It boasts the original glass and is contrived with an unexpected wee door on the side and other surprises. $350. Distinctly a find! Another most unusual offering is a pair of antique 3 drawer low mahogany chests, also of English origin.

The difference between a hum-drum room and one that glows may be a bold stroke... a painting hung in an unexpected spot... a color repeated again and again... impudent accessories. Vivid proof of what imagination can do for your home is found at the Wm. C. Denler and Co. A window... a room... or a whole house, what will it be?

Doctors rarely

tell you where to have your prescription filled. They know you'll choose a qualified professional pharmacist. As your neighborhood pharmacist, Trail Apothecary Shop, is a convenient source of medication. They work closely with your physician. No matter where or who he is, they can fill his prescriptions. On refills they can clear with him... all they need is the number on the bottle. It's a comfort to know that your source of medication is nearby, isn't it? So handy... just dial TU 1-5688 for fast, efficient, service.

Staccato touches

for the Easter parade could be your new setting for an old ring... having your beads restrung... or your watch repaired. We're suggesting too, that stop watches you'll be using in the season ahead should be repaired now at Pongrazc Jeweler and Silversmith where workmanship is fine... 91 Kercheval.

Met Reports Ticket Sales

Public mail sale of tickets for the 1963 visit of the Metropolitan Opera to Detroit in May began Monday, March 25. It was announced by Henry Ledyard, vice president and general manager of the Detroit Grand Opera Association, Inc., sponsors of the annual Metropolitan appearance in Detroit.

In announcing the sale for the seven performances in six days, Ledyard stated that only certain priced seats would be available for all performances, except the Saturday, May 25 matinee of "La Traviata," which has tickets in all price categories.

While Ledyard admitted that it might appear inequitable to the public that seats at certain prices had already been exhausted for some performances, he did point out that advance mail, which had accounted for the seats already sold, had included notice to all persons who had previously purchased tickets by mail, whether they were members of the Grand Opera Association and its various committees, or not.

"I recognize that there will be many persons who may have to revise their ticket requests for the coming season," said Ledyard. "However, it would be equally misleading to ask persons to mail in orders which could not be honored.

Gourmet Class Closes Monday

Demonstration of the preparation of pastries, torts, petit fours, and crepes on next Monday evening, April 1, at 8 o'clock will wind up the Center's "Haute Cuisine" series for this season.

Mme. Charity Sucek, who has been in charge of the course, feels that the subject of baking should be divided into several parts. For the purpose of her demonstration Monday she will deal with yeast doughs, pastes, and gateaux grand and petit.

Mme. Sucek feels that yeast baking is the easiest and most satisfactory for the average cook and the resulting brioche and croissants delicious.

For the more venturesome, puff pastes are fun. Mme. Sucek emphasizes three important points in making puff paste. Ingredients must be cold, a minimum of water should be used and the mixture should be handled very lightly.

Torts and cakes, made mostly with flour should according to Viennese taste be very rich with butter cream fillings and fancy icings. To sample them at their superb best a visit to a Viennese Conditorei and a sampling of Secher Torte is suggested.

Concluding her lecture demonstration Mme. Sucek will dwell on crepes which should be light delicate fine grained pancakes which with varying fillings can be used in many ways—not only as dessert but as hors d'oeuvres, entre and soup garnishes.

The flaming crepes will climax this series at the testing tables. Single night admissions to this evening may be obtained at the Center office in advance or at the door.

Schools Form Bridge Classes

The Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Public School System announces the spring schedule for Bridge Classes, to be starting soon. Because of their increasing popularity, seven bridge classes will be offered, ranging from beginners' through the most advanced players' group.

Taught by Mrs. Carrie A. Kiley, all classes are based on the Goren method, and all recent revisions to this method will be covered. Each class will include eight weeks of instruction, as well as supervised play.

Following is the class schedule and a brief review of what each class will cover:

Beginners: Three sections, beginning Monday, April 1, 8:00 p.m.; Tuesday, April 2, 1:00 p.m.; and Wednesday, April 3, 8:00 p.m. Point count bidding, responses, rebids, defensive bidding, and loads and signals will be covered in these beginning classes.

Refresher: Two sections, beginning Wednesday, April 3, 1:00 p.m.; and Thursday, March 28, 8 p.m. Primarily for those who have played bridge before, this class will refresh all rules; defense and play of the hand, card combinations, and slams will be especially stressed.

Players: Two sections, beginning Monday, April 1, 1:00 p.m. and Tuesday, April 2, 8 p.m. These classes, for the most advanced, will cover specialized bids, including cue bids, end plays, dummy reversal, and upper cuts.

For reservations or further information regarding these classes, please call the Department of Community Services, TU 5-3808 or TU 5-0271.

Open House Planned At Nursery School

An open house tea at the Hansel and Gretel Nursery School was held in the Grace United Church of Christ Annex (no religious affiliation), located on Kercheval at Lakepointe.

The school is being opened on April 1, by Mrs. Betty Sherban, herself a mother of six year old twins.

Mrs. Margaret Cox is to be teacher-program director of the school. Mrs. Cox has a degree in Early Elem. Ed. from Wayne State University and has done extensive work with young children. She is a former kindergarten teacher from the Roseville Public Schools.

The school offers a wide range of activities for creative play encompassing Art, Music, Literature, Science and the social studies for 3-5 year olds.

To begin with, only morning sessions will be offered—from 9 thru 11:30. As the need arises an afternoon session will be added.

For further information call Mrs. Betty Sherban at ED 1-1106.

Auxiliary Sale

The Grosse Pointe Unit 303, Auxiliary to the American Legion, is planning a rummage sale April 5 from 10 until 5 o'clock at the Grosse Pointe Woods Post Home, 20916 Mack avenue.

Mrs. Patrick McCormick

In Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Saturday, BEVERLY ANNE RECORD, daughter of the Charles J. Records, of Whittier road, was married to Mr. McCormick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Ellis, of Saginaw.

Legion Ladies Laud Education

"Stay in school!" This is the message which the American Legion Auxiliary is endeavoring to convey forcefully to the boys and girls of the United States in a nation-wide campaign against drop-outs, according to Mrs. Mary Thompson, president of the Grosse Pointe Unit No. 303 Auxiliary.

"Finish high school! Go to college if you possibly can!" Auxiliary units throughout the country are telling the young people of their communities. The Auxiliary is endeavoring to point out that better jobs with higher earnings are for those with better education, and staying in school is the road to success and happiness.

"Realizing that the future of the nation as well as the individual depends upon education of the nation's youth, we want every young person to have education adequate for the needs of the years ahead.

In cases where economic conditions threaten to force school drop-out, we endeavor to help solve the economic problems. We offer many scholarships to aid needy students, and help obtain educational aid from other sources.

"The American Legion Auxiliary worked with the American Legion to secure enactment of educational aid laws, such as the Junior G.I. Bill for children of the war dead. At present we are seeking amendment of the Social Security Act so that benefits may be extended to age 21 for young people who remain in school beyond the age 18, when benefits now terminate.

"We are told that knowledge and skills of high order will be essential to success in the future, and we are trying to impress upon students and parents that the key to the future is education."

Youth Council Holding Dance

Hard on the heels of their movie and album dance this week-end, the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Youth Council is planning a girls' invitational Sadie Hawkins Hag Dance on Saturday evening, April 6, from 8:30 to 11:30.

This will be a record hop with professional disc jockey, live entertainment and free gift records. Guests are asked to come in Sadie Hawkins dress and the couple dressed most like Little Abner and Daisy Mae will receive as a prize a live "Hammus Alabamus."

The chaperones will be the judges and their decision will be final.

Chairman for this annual hag dance at the Center will be Diane Brink. Pat Grelling will be chairman of publicity and Anne Blakeslee will be inviting the chaperones. Chris Anderson is in charge of decorations.

This is a chance for all girls to treat the young men who have been attentive to them all winter and perhaps pave the way for bids to the various proms which come later in the season. Members of the Elizabeth Cass Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will view slides and hear a progress report on two of the schools which are supported by the National Society, DAR, on April 1, at the Women's City Club.

Heart-Breaker Sees State Champs Eliminate Devils

By Bill Hagman

Last Wednesday night at the University of Detroit Fieldhouse, the Grosse Pointe Blue Devils lost their first game in 22 starts to Ferndale by the score of 56-55. The loss in the quarterfinals eliminated the Devils from the State Basketball Tournament. The Ferndale team went on to win the State Class A Title.

The Pointers entered the game with a record of 21-0 while the Eagles had a record of 19-0. Grosse Pointe was a slight favorite.

The game started with Ferndale holding slim leads. However, the Eagles found their shooting eyes late in the quarter and raced to a 21-11 lead at the end of the first quarter.

The second period was all Grosse Pointe as they outscored the Eagles 20-6. Gary Spade sparked the Pointers as he pumped in long jump shots and fed Devil players with perfect passes which enabled them to score easy shots. At one point in the second quarter the Devils outscored Ferndale 16-2. The score at the half was 31-27 for Grosse Pointe.

Ferndale came out strongly in the third quarter as they caught up to the Pointers and finally went ahead. The Eagles had a 47-43 lead entering the last stanza.

Much to the dismay of Grosse Pointe fans, the Eagles elected to stall in the last quarter. The stall was very effective and with about two minutes remaining the Eagles held a 56-50 lead.

The Drama Starts
Then the drama began which will probably be questioned for quite a while. Spade drove in

Swimming Outlook Gloomy For GPHS in Coming Season

By Bill Hagman

Coming in second at the State Swimming Meet on March 16, the Grosse Pointe Blue Devils concluded their first season under Coach Robert Kinnear. The Pointers won 12 dual meets while lasting defeat twice. They placed third in the Kimball Relays and won the BCL in addition to finishing second in the State Meet.

Mr. Kinnear says that next year will be very difficult for the Devils. Each of the other BCL schools will graduate only about four seniors this year while Grosse Pointe loses 10 seniors. Coach Kinnear will have to count on help from the junior highs and improvement from this year's Juniors and sophomores if Grosse Pointe is to come somewhere close to this year's fine record.

Weather Helps Little Leaguers

By Bill Stuck

Last Saturday and Sunday the weatherman all got into the "tryouts". The one for positions on teams and the other just to see if spring and summer might finally come. Both were a huge success.

President Erv Steiner, Jr. announced that this was one of the biggest and best opening weekends yet. There is still plenty of room for more boys. All boys who register will play on a team. This is in accordance with National Little League Rules and in accordance with the Farms and other LL groups in all areas. The prime object of Little League is to give every boy who wishes a chance to play regular "hardball" with other boys in his age and capability group.

If you still have a boy interested—or your boy is interested and would like to register—call Jerry DuCharme, TU 5-0636 or Clint Scharff, TU 2-3636.

Steiner also announced the completion of the official board of directors for the Farms LL: Minard Mumaw, vice-president and players agent; Ed Stamman, treasurer; Dick Hudson, secretary; Jerry DuCharme and Clint Scharff, chairman registration and sponsors; Bob Maddox, Class C director; George Hendrie, equipment Minors and Class C; Joe Cardwell, assistant players agent; Mark Oldani, AAA director; Minor League scoring and publicity; Dr. Joe Perry, Major League scoring and publicity; Mike Tusa, field maintenance; Bill Boyd, Majors equipment; Tony Delsener, Opening Day chairman; and Fred Kolowich, assistant AAA director.

Your writer has attended a Board meeting and believe me these people have been working over the past months to make this season in the Farms Little League one of the best.

Little League Try-Outs Slated

Tryouts for the City of Grosse Pointe Little League will be held at the Neighborhood Club on Saturdays, March 30, April 6 and April 13. If bad weather or field conditions require cancellation on any of these days, tryouts will be held on the following Sunday.

The schedule for Saturday is 8:30 a.m. to 10 a.m. for 11 and 12-year-olds; 10 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. for 10-year-olds; 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. for 8 and 9-year-olds. If Sundays are necessary, 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. for all boys.

All boys who are not permanently assigned to one of last year's teams must try out. Major League managers will select boys to be added to their teams. Boys who do not qualify for a Major League team are eligible to play on a Minor League team.

Boys are expected to bring their own gloves.

Little League Setting Records

By Mel Snyder
The Woods-Shores Little League had a record registration at the Parcels Junior High School.

President Bill Meyers stated this week that inasmuch as there has been such keen interest in joining the league by both parents and boys alike that we are going to keep the registration open for the boys and especially for the newest and youngest members to play ball in the Collegiate League.

These are the eight-year-old boys or those who will be eight by August 1, 1963. For further details call Bill Meyers at Tuxedo, 1-4805 or Don Wood at Tuxedo 4-4435. It was announced at the last Board of Governors meeting that a new system has been instituted with players agents representing all teams and players on each side of the league.

The American League players agent is Bob Griffin and the National League players agent is Chuck Swenson. The Collegiate League will be represented by Bruce Bockstanz. Each of the Major League agents have assistants to oversee the minor league teams and players in their respective leagues.

Bill Richardson, Will Henderson and Jeff Welscher, co-chairmen of the Sponsors Committee are still looking for team sponsors. In order to defray the heavy cost of operating the 42 teams, they are extending a special invitation to all parents to become a "Parent Sponsor" by making a contribution of $1.00 (one dollar) or more.

Call Jeff Welscher at TU. 1-7937 for sponsor information. The dates for try-outs are as follows:—all boys, April 6; 12-year-olds, April 8; 11-year-olds, April 9; 10-year-olds, April 10; 9-year-olds, April 11; with final try-outs April 13 for all boys.

All boys registered with the National League will try out at Ferry School. All boys assigned to the American League will try out at Ghesquiere Park.

Bill Meyers, league president, will attend the National Little League Congress to be held in New York City at the Waldorf Astoria, April 8-11th. Meyers, also a district administrator, will be working on rules and regulation changes for the betterment of Little League everywhere.

Flying Scots Sail Saturday
The Detroit Yacht Club sailors of the Flying Scots, will open the 1963 sailing season on Saturday, March 30, at 12 noon. Kevin O'Reilly will defend his 1962 Club championship honors.

The Yacht Club skippers have been the first on the river for several years and if weather and ice conditions are favorable this will be the third time they will have opened in the month of March.

Punch Offering Six Operettas

Exciting news for lovers of great musical entertainment is the announcement by the Punch and Judy Theater of the presentation of a series of six of the world's greatest operettas, starting Tuesday, March 26.

The parade of six M-G-M Golden Operettas is veritably a line-up of the all-time world's greatest musical entertainments.

The series begins with "The Chocolate Soldier," Oscar Strauss' brilliant operetta, the deliciously daring musical story of a married stage couple who were a triumph in the theater but were domestically complicated by the flirtatious wife and the jealous husband.

On Tuesday, April 2, Rudolf Friml's "Rose Marie," the story of a wild young beauty of the woods tamed by a handsome Canadian Mountie. Rich with songs it features a spectacular Indian ballet and was filmed amidst the beauty of the Canadian Rockies.

This will be followed on April 9 by "The Merry Widow," the celebrated Franz Lehár achievement with its bold story of gaily and flirtation in romantic Paris.

April 16 will bring the magnificent production of Sigmund Romberg's "Girl of the Golden West," the story of a beautiful girl who finds romance with a bandit of the Old West.

April 23 will bring a rare treat, Johann Strauss' "The Great Waltz," the heart-stabbing love story of Old Vienna, told in spectacle and with wondrous delights.

On April 30, the Punch and Judy will present Victor Herbert's beloved operetta "Sweethearts," with its story of a New York stage romance and famed title song.

Sailorettes at NYC Plan Bridge and Mart

The Sailorettes of the Detroit Yacht Club are launching the '63 social season with a "Desert-Bridge-Flea Market" on Saturday, March 30, at Hudson's Eastland Anchor Room, at 1 o'clock.

Mrs. Charles M. Huber of Lakepointe avenue, social chairman of the Sailorettes, is also chairman of the party.

This bridge party is something extra, the Flea Market, according to Mrs. Huber will be an entertaining way of obtaining "just what you've been looking for." The Sailorettes' sea chest of treasures will be put up for "blind auction."

Reservations should be phoned to Mrs. Huber at 822-6110, by March 22.

FALSE FRONT

It's extravagant people who miss the freedom train—they live beyond their station in life.

Ellington Plays Here March 28

One good ideal leads to another, and Thomas Schippers, who will share honors with Duke Ellington and his band for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra's novel Pension Fund concert March 28, at 8:30 p.m., in Ford Auditorium, has come up with his own delightful novelty for the program.

Schippers will serve both as soloist and conductor of Poulenc's exciting Organ Concerto in G, a work of complexity in either role. He will conduct from the console of the great Kandler organ and later present the Richard Strauss Tone Poem "Don Juan."

The Duke, in Europe on a concert tour, has not decided on the works he will offer with his band alone. Assured is his composition "Night Creature" in which he will appear as piano soloist with his orchestra and the Detroit Symphony under Valter Poole's direction.

The Duke said recently, "There's no longer music and no jazz music. There's just fine music." The Detroit Symphony's Pension Fund concert will give proof to the premise. The concert is being offered at popular prices.

Ellington is no newcomer to the world of formal music. In January, 1945, he played his first concert in New York's Carnegie Hall. At that time he introduced the ambitious work "Black, Brown and Beige."

Woods-Shores Babe Ruth News

By Dave Marstiller

"Our registration day program was quite a success as we had a turnout of about 150 parents and boys. The movies were shown and everyone seemed to enjoy them, but most important the boys are eager to get down to readying themselves for their season's play. The managers are picking up their equipment and looking for a dry spot to hold practice sessions.

We did notice that there were quite a few boys who didn't register at the meeting and we want to remind all of the boys that did not register at the meeting that they may still register until April 6 by taking their forms to Art Delmege at 1072 S. Brys or to Carl Nolte at 84 Clairview. If there are any questions regarding the registration we ask that you call Mr. Delymege at TU 4-3105. We still want all boys interested in playing baseball in the 13-15 age bracket to sign up. They will all have complete uniforms and a chance to play in well organized baseball program so let's get them out.

When the POINTE was growing up...

By Pat Talbot

Traveling to the Pointe by horse and carriage 100 years ago was an all day journey but brightened by stops at the hospitable farms along the road.

In 1906 General Friend Palmer, cousin of Senator Thomas W. Palmer, brought out a book of his memories of Detroit since he had come here in 1824.

Among his memories are frequent rides to the Pointe as a lad to collect produce and particularly to gather apples during the harvest.

Coming along the river road toward Parent's Creek, (the Bloody Run where Pontiac attacked British forces) he would stop at the farm owned by Judge Leib, formerly of Philadelphia. He remembers that the Leib homestead was floated down the river from Grosse Pointe on a raft and with much difficulty was placed on its foundations.

He used to meet the jolly, rotund Judge driving down the river road in his one horse shay. The Judge had a son who was American consul to Tangier and subsequently died there. The Leib farm, after the Judge and his wife died, was moved again to the corner of Jefferson and Mt. Elliott avenues where it was a road house.

The Peter Van Avery homestead was a landmark for buggy riders coming to the Pointe. On the site of the present Waterworks Park, the farmhouse was a long, low frame structure painted yellow with white trimming. There was an apple orchard to the rear, fronting the river and a row of fine French pear trees along the front road. Col. Van Avery also owned a grist mill on Connor's Creek above his farm. As a boy he had fought with the militia when General William Hull surrendered Detroit to the British in 1812. He was captured and sent as a prisoner of war to Montreal. He soon after escaped and walked the 200 miles to Albany and freedom.

"Somewhere between Connor's Creek and Hudson's (Fisher road) lived the McQueens. The orchard was located in front of the house, between it and the road." General Palmer remembers spending the night at McQueens, hoping to gather in apples the next day, and awaking to an early snowfall. "It is the gathering of those apples I can never forget, nor the McQueens." A McQueen daughter became the first wife of the fabulous ship owner and industrialist, millionaire Capt. Eber B. Ward.

"The Grand Marais, (Windmill Pointe), what a garden it has become! A few years yet, and it will be hard to realize that the present broad fields of corn and waving grain, and the splendid grounds and buildings of the Blue Ribbon race track were in the early days one vast swamp or quagmire, covered with a most luxuriant growth of marsh grass and bullrushes, the home of the muskrat and all kinds of horrid snakes."

"I knew George Moran well, and who did not know George Moran? His place on the bank of Lake St. Clair a mile or so above Fishers was a welcome spot to all journeying in that direction. He was full of reminiscences of the early days, and took special delight in relating them. He had married a daughter of the adopted son of Commodore Grant."

who, where and whatnot

by whoozit

The passage between Invercargill, New Zealand and Grosse Pointe has been a busy one for the past two years. Jim Cruickshank, who began the saga, was an AFS exchange student living with Dr. and Mrs. G. B. Orbell in New Zealand, during the winter of 1960. Jim, who is now a sophomore at the U of M, will study at the University of Otago just 100 miles away from Invercargill. He has just arrived there after a month of island hopping from Tahiti, Samoa and Fiji.

Now in New Zealand, Jim has been able to see his sister, Carol, who left December 26 to spend the winter with the Orbells. Sherry Bockstanz, now a student at American University, spent eight months with the Orbells in 1962 and last summer the Orbells visited Grosse Pointe where they met both the John Bockstanzes and the W. J. Cruickshanks, parents of the visiting students.

Grown ups do play with dolls but on a very sophisticated level. Mrs. Frank Bols has been constructing a doll house in the French period tradition which is her own favorite decor for her charming home in Lakecrest lane. Down to the tiniest detail of brocade and wallpaper she is creating a real masterpiece... Mrs. Fred Leisen, of Moross road, has been working on her reproduction of an early Salem, Mass., house for two years, is taking a leave from her hobby to design shadow boxes for the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church's November Fair.

Twelve of the best voices of Holy Cross College Glee Club have formed a vocal group, Paks, and have recorded an album now in its second edition. Joseph Thibodeau, a Pointer and senior at the college, has been singing with the Glee Club for four years and is a member of the successful Paks.

Mrs. Henry T. Bodman is wearing a softly printed pale yellow and pink chiffon turban and matching scarf with the ubiquitous black frock to cocktail parties and very chic the costume is.

PILFERINGS

An adult western on TV is one in which the hero kills just as many men as in a kids' western, but he doesn't enjoy it.

She's a girl with a heart of gold and a mind of pure meringue.

Wife to husband, as he watches opening baseball game on TV: "I thought they dropped that show last fall."

A student struggling with an exam in religion and social ethics finally gave up on one question. "This," he wrote, "is one of those problems that I am content to leave with my elders until I am old enough to turn it over to my children."

Pointer of Interest

JOHN FORTNEY, of Fairholme road

By Patricia Talbot

Grosse Pointe High School tenth grader John Fortney speaks French like a Parisian after three years in a SHAPE school converted from a chateau. But his dearest memories of France seem to be bound up in fried potatoes, which simply cannot be duplicated in his mother's American kitchen

John came to Grosse Pointe last August with his father, a colonel in the army stationed here in the old Chrysler Missile Plant, and his mother, two brothers and a sister. Although he rarely writes to his former French classmates he is waiting for the time when he can return to France for further study and a renewal of his friendships.

When John left the states three years ago he couldn't speak a word of French. Now he is an expert and is taking an honors course in that language. He finds most of his high school courses easier than those he took in the SHAPE school.

School was a Chateau The school John attended outside Poissy, about 15 miles from Paris, was housed in a Renaissance chateau which once belonged to a chemist. The castle was used as headquarters by the Germans in World War II. A network of tunnels running under the castle and the playground, which was once mined, are evidences of their occupation.

Among the 500 students who roamed the castle with its marble stairways, huge mirrors and impressive chandeliers were representatives of Denmark, England, Germany, Italy, Switzerland, Turkey, Greece and the United States. French students not connected with SHAPE also attended. John remembers that the French and Germans were quite friendly and many exchange visits were arranged. The British students were separated from others and John reports that the real antagonism seem to be between the former Allies, French and British. Because of conflicting political backgrounds the school policy was a ban on all discussions involving politics.

Missed Baseball During vacations John and his family toured Europe. He spent one summer at a French boys camp on the Riviera where he enjoyed swimming in the Mediterranean. But he missed hockey and baseball, for the French are not athletically minded. Two hours a week only were devoted to physical education. In the hours after school French students bicycle and walk in the woods. John and his French friends played a game called "billes" with three metal balls but John is happy to be back in a school where he can play baseball.

Mrs. Sweeney's Pupils To Be Heard in Recital The cello pupils of Ann Taylor Sweeney (Mrs. John S. Sweeney III) will be featured in a recital Sunday, March 31, at 3 p.m., in Mr. Sweeney's studio, 20276 Mack avenue. Participating pupils are Margaret Homfeld and Jody Stevenson, of Grosse Pointe; Amanda Duffy, Bonnie Freeman and John Trembath, of Mt. Clemens; and Michael Pressly, of Utica.

This is the first in a series of three recitals to be presented by both piano and cello pupils.

No man under 75 years of age was old enough to vote in 1908, the last time the question "Do you approve of a new state constitution?" was asked.

G & J Electric Co. Jim Kraumann, Owner Electrical Wiring and Repairing TU 4-2738 Grosse Pointe & East Side

At one time abroad he made a list of all the amenities of American life he missed. The sports and good sanitary conditions were high on that list. Now in the states he misses French bread and fried potatoes and exploring castles and Roman ruins. Unlike many American teen agers he has a real appreciation of Europe's historical heritage and found tramping about ancient and stately homes a real thrill.

No dates for Teenagers Younger French children, like his brother, Peter, attended school in a uniform of gray or blue which resembled a painter's smock. French parents are far more strict than their American counterparts and until teen agers are 18 there is no dating.

John hopes to finish his high school education here but he is resigned to moving about. He was born in Germany and has moved about 32 of the states and 21 countries abroad. His travels have left him with an unusual poise, splendid education and delightful manners.

Although he has yet to decide what he wants to be after college graduation he is very firm in his decision to return to France for some of his education. Adaptable, personable and intelligent, John is a fine ambassador for America abroad and an appreciator of life across the ocean which he interprets to his stay-at-home classmates.

Marie Bird's Beauty By Line How much... do you really know about Permanent Waving? Do you know what a Custom Permanent can do for your hair... as well as what an ordinary Permanent does to the hair... the precautions that must be taken if the hair is tinted or bleached? In 1954 Dr. Linus Pauling received the Nobel Prize in Chemistry... his research proved that human hair consisted almost entirely of Protein (97%) and not calcium as was previously supposed. Further research by Bio-chemist, Dr. Jheri Redding, based on Dr. Pauling's discovery has brought forth a new concept of revitalizing the hair during the actual curling and coloring process. Are you receiving the benefits of the Miracles of Modern Science... or are you just "limping" along (i.e. with limp life-less hair) horse and buggy fashion? Visit our salon at 117 Kercheval or call TUxedo 1-6833 and from this day forward make your Crowning Glory worthy of its name!
