

SCHOOL VOTE SET FOR MONDAY

HEADLINES of the WEEK As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, October 17
IN A BID to obtain ownership of the Detroit Lions, William Clay Ford offered the huge sum of $6,000,000. In a meeting of the board of directors at the Detroit Club, Ford, who is president of the Detroit Lions, asked that his offer be acted on by October 29. It is almost certain that Ford will obtain at least a 51 percent, or controlling interest, in the club.

MEXICO CITY seems to be the leading contender for winning the Olympic games. Detroit is currently the second choice with Lyons running a very close third. Buenos Aires is trailing. Its 45 minute presentation Friday, October 16, will probably be the deciding factor and Detroit's last hope to regain the lead. Fred Matthaei, champion of the Olympics for Detroit for years, is worried at the way things are going.

A TAX BREAK of nearly one-half million dollars a year will be shared by ten of the wealthiest persons in Michigan according to Governor Romney's proposed fiscal reform. The savings would come from proposed repeal of the State tax on intangibles and adoption of a lower-rate personal income tax. Romney, who was flying to Baden-Baden, Germany, to attend the Olympic group, was unavailable for comment.

Friday, October 18, 1963
THE NEXT PRIME MINISTER of Britain will be Foreign Secretary Lord Home. The ailing Prime Minister Harold MacMillan retired today and advised Queen Elizabeth that Lord Home is his choice for the top post, bypassing Deputy Prime Minister Richard A. Suttler. The move brought threats of a Cabinet revolt.

PRESIDENT TITO of Yugoslavia received a cordial but reserved welcome from President Kennedy at the White House. The Yugoslav leader was pleased but the Democrats felt they were protecting themselves at the same time. Tito was taken through the entire routine, from a 21-gun salute to champagne toasts over luncheon.

TWO BRITONS and an Australian who made new discoveries on how nerve cells work won the 1963 Nobel Prize for medicine. Sharing $51,158 are Allan Lloyd Hodgkin, 49, and Andrew Fielding Huxley, 45, of Cambridge University, England. Representing Australia was Sir John C. Eccles, 60, of the Australian National University, Canberra.

Saturday, October 19
ANTI-AMERICAN SENTIMENT on the part of the members of the International Olympics Committee is probably the reason Detroit came in second instead of winning the bid for the 1968 games. Mexico City was awarded the games on the first ballot, having received the necessary 30 votes. Detroit polled only 14. Douglas Roby, one of the three U.S. members on the I.O.C. said, "They think the United States has everything. This is a 'have' nation. This is the era of the 'have-nots.'"

THE AMERICAN PRESS CLUB in Washington broke one of its sacred rules which barred women from the premises when they allowed Madame Ngo Dinh Nhu to speak at a luncheon. Outside 26 pickets waved signs reading such things as "Pheu on Nhu!" while down the street American Nazi party pickets set up a counter-demonstration. During her speech, she accused the Kennedy administration of having committed treason by cutting off $12 million in commercial aid to her land thus hampering the war against Communist guerrillas.

ON A STRENUOUS trans-continental tour of the United States, President Tito of Yugoslavia was forced to cancel future plans when he was stricken with flu in Williamsburg, Va. Tito and his wife

Torch Drive Workers Thanked by Leader

These are some of the men who carried on the canvass of Pointe business establishments in this year's United Foundation campaign. At a meeting in the Central Library they were thanked for their efforts by Joseph L. Hudson, Jr., of Washington road, one of the top leaders and organizers for the drive being carried on in the whole Detroit Metropolitan area.

Eight City Candidates To Be Heard

League of Women Voters Schedules Forum to Be Held at War Memorial On October 28

A Candidates Forum for Grosse Pointe City Election will be held Monday, October 28, at 8 o'clock in the Library of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center. This forum is co-sponsored by the G. P. League of Women Voters and the G.P. Memorial Center.

The eight candidates for the six vacancies have been notified of the forum and will be on hand. Officers to be elected are as follows: one candidate (unopposed) for mayor; four candidates (incumbent, three to be elected) for council; three candidates (two incumbents) for Justice of Peace (two to be elected).

The forum will be moderated by Mrs. Leonard Slown (former LWV president). Mrs. Thomas R. Mason will be time-keeper.

Four hostesses will be Mrs. William H. Kessler, Mrs. William E. Tily, Mrs. Willard Lenz, and Mrs. Alfred Morar, who is chairman of LWV Voters Services.

INJURED AT PLAY

Farms firemen took Jay Schmidt, 13, of 571 Lakeland, to Bon Secours Hospital on Wednesday, October 16, for treatment of a broken left ankle. The injury was incurred when the boy was playing football at the Brownell Junior High School playground.

New Park Traffic Lights Eliminate Traffic Jams

New traffic lights have been installed and are in operation on Jefferson avenue between Wayburn and Beaconsfield. Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers reported on Thursday, October 17, they will eliminate traffic jams during the heavy traffic hours.

Approved by the Park Council last spring at a cost of approximately $15,000, the lights were installed by the Wayne County Road Commission. Half of the cost was paid by the Park.

According to Chief Louwers, the signals were synchronized with the Detroit system last week. This, he said, will eliminate the rush hour traffic jams which have been a constant source of irritation to motorists.

The old lights, now completely removed, were the old-

Pointe and Harper Woods Detectives Pool Talents To Keep Crime Rate Down

Monthly Meetings Held by Personnel of All Six Departments; Exchange of Information Invaluable in Suppressing Criminals.

The Pointe-Harper Woods Inter-City Detective Information meetings, held once a month, are the offspring of the Mutual Police Aid agreement, and have proved of immeasurable value in the apprehension of criminals, according to information released by Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers.

The meetings were instituted almost immediately after the five Pointes and Harper Woods signed a mutual aid pact in 1960. The pact provides that the six communities will dispatch police officers to assist in any emergencies within the limits of the Pointe and Harper Woods, if assistance is asked for.

Prior to the signing of the agreement, the police departments assisted each other in emergencies, but this was in an unofficial capacity, Chief Louwers said.

Are Now Protected
He said that before the Aid Pact, if an officer, or officers of one city went to the aid of officers of any of the other five cities, it was at their own risk. The responding policemen's families could receive no financial assistance if the officer was injured or killed.

Under the Mutual Police Aid Pact, all Pointe and Harper Woods policemen are covered by insurance if they are dispatched to any of the mutual aid cities in emergencies.

The detective information meetings idea was conceived by Chief Louwers, and endorsed by the police chiefs of the other departments, shortly after the signing of the pact in 1960. The detectives of the six departments meet once a month, each time at a different department, and the sleuths discuss types of crimes, such as burglaries and robberies committed within the corporate limits of their communities.

Compare Methods
By talking over the types of crimes and the methods of operation used by the criminals, the detectives can just about tell what burglary, or robbery,

Woman Injured By Backing Car

A Park woman, reading a road map while standing in front of a car in front of her home, suffered a severely bruised leg when a car backing out of a driveway pinned the leg against the parked vehicle's bumper. The incident happened on Friday, October 18.

Injured was Mrs. Virginia Hoyt, 39, of 1209 Nottingham, who was taken to Bon Secours Hospital by Park police for treatment.

Driver of the car that backed out of the driveway was Mrs. Theresa Marchand, 58, of 3901 Neff, Detroit, who was given a violation ticket for backing up a motor vehicle without due care and caution and hitting a pedestrian. Court date is scheduled for November 27.

Witnesses told police that Mrs. Hoyt and a group of women were looking over a map, with Mrs. Hoyt standing in front of a parked car, when Mrs. Marchand backed out of the driveway, and swung out into the street.

The bumper of Mrs. Marchand's auto struck Mrs. Hoyt's leg and pinned it against the bumper of the parked car.

The witnesses also stated that Mrs. Marchand got out of her automobile to inquire if Mrs. Hoyt was injured, then stated that she was sorry, got into her car and drove away.

The woman driver was traced to her home by the license plate number of her car, reported by the witnesses, and given a violation ticket.

Bon Secours Doctors Rap Bagby Report

Physicians Call Statements of Planners "Erroneous and Unqualified"

Medical opinions included in city planner Scott Bagby's report on the Bon Secours Hospital expansion plan were challenged by physicians attending the quarterly meeting of the hospital's medical staff Friday night.

Dr. Robert G. Swanson, president of the staff, characterized as "erroneous and unqualified" the principal medical statements contained in the Bagby report.

The Bagby report was included on the medical staff agenda for debate and discussion after copies were circulated in the City of Grosse Pointe by opponents of the proposal to expand Bon Secours Hospital. Voters will be asked to indicate whether they favor or oppose expansion of the hospital in an advisory ballot on Tuesday, November 5.

Allegations Disputed

Four basic allegations in the Bagby report having medical implications were vigorously disputed by the doctors at the staff meeting. Dr. Swanson reported. After discussion, the staff voted unanimously to make public its findings on the four points as well as its complete endorsement of the overall plan to increase the size of the hospital by 160 beds.

"The Bagby report implies that suitable community service can be maintained without expansion of Bon Secours Hospital," the doctors said in their public statement. "This is impossible in view of the urgent—and demonstrated—need for more beds and for more modern hospital equipment. The hospital at present is not in position to provide beds for all patients who would prefer hospitalization there so as to be near their homes.

Deny Center Ambitions
The second point dealt with by the doctors was the suggestion that Bon Secours has ambitions to become a medical center.

"This is absolutely erroneous," they said. "Bon Secours Hospital intends only to offer general community service and seeks only to expand sufficiently to meet community demands."

As its third point of dispute with the Bagby report, "the medical staff ridiculed the statement that interns are

Halloween Parties To Pull Thousands To Schools Oct. 31

Traditional Annual Celebrations For All Youngsters Thursday Night at Junior and Senior High School Buildings

Dancing, food, movies and entertainment will attract thousands of Grosse Pointe junior and senior high school students to the annual Halloween parties on Thursday, October 31.

The four parties are scheduled to begin at 7:30 p.m. The Brownell, Pierce and Parcels parties will end at 11 p.m. and the High School party will extend to midnight.

Tickets are available at all public, private and parochial schools for 25 cents. Ticket price at the door will be 50 cents.

Supervisors at the four parties are Minard Mumaw at the High School; Walter Schmitt at Brownell; Carl Leibord at Parcels; and Police Chief Arthur Louwers at Pierce.

Many hundreds of volunteers will be needed the night of the parties. Anyone wishing to assist can call Forrest Geary, chairman at TU 5-3808.

Mrs. S. G. Thorne, food chairman, announced the menu for the evening: sloppy joes, hot dogs, doughnuts, ice cream bars, potato chips, milk, soft drinks, and cider—all at five cents each.

Plans for the food operation are being carried out by Mrs. Thorne and committee members: Mrs. P. Lester Spitzley and Mrs. J. C. Danforth, High School; Mrs. David Teague, Parcels; Mrs. Kirby Pierce; and Mrs. James Blackburn, Brownell.

Mrs. Karsotis—of the High School cafeteria—is helping to coordinate food arrangements for the party.

Burglar Steals Television Set

The Charles Salters of 532 Robert John, returned home on Sunday afternoon, October 20, after a two-day absence, and discovered they had been robbed by a burglar.

They told Woods police that they left home at about 2:30 p.m. Friday, October 18, and returned about 1 p.m. Sunday, to find their home had been entered.

The Salters said that all that is known to be missing was a 21-inch console television set from the living room. Nothing else appeared to have been taken.

Police said that entry into the house by the thief was by smashing the glass door at the rear of the house.

The case is under investigation by Det. Sgt. Walter O'Dell and Det. Leroy Tobian.

DRIVER GUILTY

David Maxwell, 20, of 2620 Fairview, arraigned before Park Judge C. Joseph Beinger on Wednesday, October 16, on a charge of driving without an operator's license, was found guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of $50, or serve 10 days in the Wayne County Jail. The fine was paid. Maxwell was ticketed for the offense on October 12.

Farms Approves Changes To Police, Fire Stations

The Farms council on Monday, October 21, authorized extra features in the remodeling of the police and fire departments' quarters, which would add a total of $1,471.90 to the $375,000 cost of alterations and additions to the Municipal Building, 90 Kerby road.

At a regular meeting held Monday night, Jack Brown, of Begrow and Brown, architects, asked the council for approval of the features, which were recommended by City Manager Sidney DeBoer.

The city manager said that his recommendation was at the request of Police Chief James Furton and Fire Chief M. William Mason.

Also at the meeting, William Kreighoff of 264 Kenwood court, general contractor, whose firm is undertaking the project, told the council that construction is about two weeks behind schedule.

Residents Will Ballot On Millage

Civic Leaders Support Board of Education Plea To Keep Pointe System Among Best

Grosse Pointe voters will be asked on Monday to give an important vote of confidence to their public schools. The facts of the millage referendum, which have been stated and restated many times in the past weeks throughout the district by the community's representatives elected to the Board of Education may be summarized as follows:

The entire voted millage, which amounts to more than 45 percent of the operating income of the Grosse Pointe schools, runs out this year. Citizens are being called upon to renew existing millage and to provide additional amounts to cover costs of increased enrollments, higher costs of services and supplies, and improved teachers' salaries.

The total of 14 mills is proposed to run for a 6 year period. The 14 mills, plus 8.9 mills allocated by the county allocation board, plus millage previously voted for building purposes, will bring the total school tax rate to a maximum of 23.71 mills—06 of a mill lower than the tax rate for 1960.

The proposed increase in millage over the rate currently in effect.

Civic leaders, PTA officials, and community residents are backing the Board of Education in the referendum.

Judge George E. Bowles has said, "I support the proposed levy as a sound investment for the well being of our community, for the training of our future leaders and as a preventive measure in effective law enforcement."

Owned by Taxpayers

G. Sheldon Veil, president of the Baruch PTA states, "The Grosse Pointe School system belongs to and one-half is paid for by the Grosse Pointe taxpayer. We cannot draw on a large industrial company for tax support such as other communities have. All must continue to react accordingly to our responsibilities."

Dr. and Mrs. E. B. McCollum say, "We are grateful for the schools and educational facilities in Grosse Pointe. The 14 mill assessments is a rewarding and sound investment."

Dr. and Mrs. Albert Law have said, "Our fine Grosse Pointe schools are one of our best community assets."

William F. Connolly, Jr., Mayor of Grosse Pointe Farms, recently has said, "Our school system is the finest and we as citizens should keep it on TOP."

Mrs. Stirling Loud asserts, "The future of our democratic way of life depends on well educated and enlightened leaders of tomorrow."

Youth Needs Help

Clifford Ashton of the Month PTA says, "Our youth of today needs your support at the polls on the 28th."

T. K. Fisher avers, "The Future lays in the hands of our youth. Let us see that they are prepared for the challenge."

"If you have ever seen the joy of discovery on the face of a child who is taking his first books from one of the public libraries you will want to provide more—whatever is needed to keep them to their present high standards. Everyone uses our libraries—both public and private school pupils and school taxes pay for them," says Mrs. Sterling S. Sanford.

City Electors Given Reminder

Residents of Grosse Pointe City are reminded to vote at Maire School instead of the Neighborhood Club for the General election to be held November 5. This applies, however, only to the city election.

For the school election October 28, citizens will vote as usual at their designated schools.

City officials are hoping for a good turnout at both elections. Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

knowing how and when this cure will come about, "therefore, it appears that the present State recommendations of sanitation and spray continue to be the best tools available to control the blight."

The recommendation control program, DeFoe said, consists of trimming and removing dead wood, spraying at least once a year, and a system of surveying and sampling of suspected diseased trees.

The assistant city engineer said that the next Dutch Elm Disease conference will be held in December, and that he is planning to attend, to determine if any new information is available that may help in planning the Farms' spray program next year.

After accepting his report, the Farms council agreed that the city retain its dormant spraying only, in view of the fact that elm losses have lessened since last year.

was committed by the same person.

"By getting together at the meetings on a once a month basis," Chief Louwers said, "the policemen can get a clearer picture of how many crimes are committed by the same person."

"A burglar, for instance, breaks into a home or business place in a certain way. He finds that what he has done has worked successfully, and he repeats this at another place."

"The burglar's success causes him to continue his method of operation, which is almost like a trade mark, and police officers can establish that in case of a number of break-ins, which was committed by what burglar."

Helps Solve Crimes

The chief said that the informative meetings held by the detectives have been highly successful since their inception, and on several occasions have resulted in the clearance of many burglaries in the Pointe-Harper Woods area, when the person responsible is apprehended.

Chief Louwers said that occasionally, when a chief of a department asks for assistance in a stake-out at a location where a crime is suspected of being committed, officers are sent from other departments.

In most cases, the crime is nipped in the bud, the criminal or criminals are arrested without the knowledge of the public. Everything is done so quietly, the public is never alarmed, the chief said.

He said that the Mutual Police Aid Pact has created a fine, smoothly operating combination of law enforcement bodies, and nowhere in the United States is there another group that can equal this.

Chief Louwers said that the Pointe-Harper Woods mutual aid has proved so successful, that several communities in Macomb County are making a study of it, with the purpose of creating their own police aid pact.

HUBCAPS STOLEN

William Groves of 31423 Kelly road, Fraser, complained to Farms police on Wednesday, October 16, that while his 1963 Corvette was parked in a lot at the rear of Manor Lounge in Mack avenue, someone stole the four hubcaps, valued at $40. He said he discovered the theft after he arrived home.

Provide a 16-foot thick masonry wall below present garage door opening for basement wall, $638; omit a partition in the firemen's rest room and increase size of mirror and shelf, $49.30.

Conect push button in control center for traffic light control at Kerby and Kercheval, from the police station, $35; furnish conduit to junction boxes in detectives' room, for future microphone, to monitor conversation and for emergency pertaining to prisoners for jail cells, $110; and install a fluorescent fixture over sink in the fire station kitchen, $20.

Elimination of three items under the original contractor's schedule plan, costing a total of $961.30, for the police and fire stations, was deducted, with the savings resulting in the $1,471.90 figure.

Work on the city hall began the latter part of September, after the Farms council rejected a $63,000 Federal grant in July.

The loss of the Federal Funds was made up by appropriation of money from the Public Reserve Fund.

By special agreement with the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, the Police Department is being quartered in the old Kerby School, adjacent to the city hall, until the police station modernization is finished. The police telephone number is the same: TU 5-2100.

Firemen and city officials are still occupying their present facilities.

The two-floor addition, being constructed in front of the school building, will conform to the architecture of the present building. The front yard property was deeded to the Farms by the Board of Education last year.

Police Holding Lost Watch

Shores police have a lady's Omega wrist watch found in the George Ostus Park on Monday, October 14.

The watch has a black band. On the back of the piece is an inscription, known to the owner. Anyone claiming the watch, must satisfy Shores authorities that the timepiece is hers, merely by quoting the inscription.

The watch was found by Leon Sehoan of 51 Colonial road, and turned over to police.

attracted to the hospital because of its "prestige" location. "Prestige" communities throughout the country are suffering for lack of sufficient interns because of a lack of first class teaching programs which attract the type of house officers so needed to provide patients with adequate, 24-hour professional care," they said.

"At Bon Secours Hospital, the attending staff maintains an outstanding bedside teaching program without remuneration."

Make Final Point

As their final point, the physicians branded as "unfounded" the allegation that expanded care of mental illnesses is contemplated in the future Bon Secours program.

"The inference to be drawn from this is that Bon Secours is going to become a nuisance to the community because of an increased emphasis on the care of mental patients. This is not so. Like every modern general hospital, Bon Secours has been giving short-term treatment to patients with mild psychiatric or psychoneurotic disorders since it opened in 1944. It will continue to do so, but it has neither plans nor facilities for treatment of chronic, long term mental patients."

The medical staff of Bon Secours Hospital consists of more than 100 physicians, all of them in private practice in this area.

Don't worry about the lies people tell about you—just be thankful they don't tell the truth.

Report on Pool Heard by Farms

It would take almost a year of preparation and planning before a bond issue proposal can be submitted to Farms taxpayers for a filtered water swimming pool, and/or some other expanded facility, such as additional harbor area in the municipal park, the Farms council was informed on Monday, October 21.

The information was submitted by the Mayor's Advisory Planning Committee, which felt that the council should be advised that even with a special bond issue election, it would be impossible, because of the time schedule, to have a swimming pool, and/or harbor, by the summer of 1964.

The committee, authorized by the city council, held two meetings to study the Farms recreational facilities, and in a meeting held with City Manager Sidney DeBoer, City Engineer Murray Smith and Assistant City Engineer John DeFoe, held on October 14, discussed existing facilities.

The planning committee requested to study the bond issue proposal, after a recent council meeting, in which a group of citizens petitioned for the construction of a swimming pool in the Pier-Park.

A time schedule prepared by City Attorney George McKean, showed it would take approximately 11½ months, from the time of preparation of preliminary plans and cost estimates, to the complete construction of a pool or other facility.

The committee informed the council in its report, that it felt a more representative vote

VOTE YES OCT. 28

"X" marks the spot on the ballot where Grosse Pointe voters can show how much they appreciate their fine school system. Monday, October 28 is the day. All registered voters may vote, whether or not they own property.

If you are a voting parent, you already know that the education of your child is at stake. Half of the school budget will come from the millage on which we're voting. Your YES vote does more, of course. It will help retain and attract the good teachers that a top-quality system must have to do the kind of job you want. It will also help meet other rising costs that all educational systems face.

Even though you may not have children in school you gain because a good school system is a community asset. It keeps property values high and continues to make Grosse Pointe one of the most admired, most desirable places to live.

Basically, the school millage proposal is a renewal of the amount you now support, plus a modest increase*. The questions and answers at the right will show you why a YES vote is in your own best personal interest. So . . . on the alert, Grosse Pointers! Vote Monday, October 28. Vote YES to maintain your excellent school system. Vote YES to maintain your property values. Vote YES to keep Grosse Pointe a better place to live!

*Net increase sought is two mills. Voted tax rate expiring is 12 mills (11.25 for operation, 0.75 mill for capital improvement). Letter fractional mill renewal not being requested. The 14 mills sought will, therefore, provide an additional 2.75 mills for operation.

Q. Why is the millage increase necessary?

A. Three reasons. First, our present rate cannot support current expenses beyond this year. An increase is needed just to maintain present salary schedules and meet our other rising costs. Second, growing enrollments point to a need for additional teachers if our present standards are to be maintained. Third, our salary schedules are not fully competitive and must be improved if we are to attract and retain the outstanding teachers a quality school system must have.

Q. What does the increase mean in dollar cost?

A. It amounts to two dollars for each thousand dollars of state-equalized valuation on property. Example: A home with a market value of $15,000 will usually be assessed at about $6,000, or about 40% of real value. On this home, the increase would be $12, or one dollar per month.

Q. How long will the voted millage be in effect?

A. The Board of Education is asking your approval for a six-year period, 1964 to 1969 inclusive.

Q. Where do we go to cast our votes?

A. Vote at the elementary school in your neighborhood. Polls will be open 7:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m., Monday, Oct. 28.

Q. What does the millage mean to Grosse Pointe schools?

A. Right now, over 45% of your school budget is supplied by voted millage. Under the proposed 14-mill program, slightly over 50% of the total operating budget will be provided. Thoughtful citizens can appreciate the importance of the coming referendum.

HERE'S WHAT MORE OF YOUR FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS ARE SAYING . . .

Don Perrie
I believe the education of our children today—and therefore the future condition of our country—is the wisest investment we can make (a father of 4).

Jack Williams, Pres. G.P. Shores
It is imperative to our future that we pass this 14 mill levy by a BIG margin.

Thomas L. and Barbara Munson
Good schools are essential to the quality community.

H. R. Kreider
Sale value of a given piece of property is closely allied to the efficacy of the educational system and the taxes used for schools. One of the best ways of maintaining property values is to maintain or improve educational facilities.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Butler
We support the mill levy and plan to vote for it.

Thomas A. Roach
The best possible education for all children in our community is a prudent investment for a free America and a free world tomorrow.

Mrs. John A. Herrman, Pres. Bd. of Trustees of G.P. Unitarian Church
The quality of a community can only be measured by the education which it provides—with adequate facilities, good salaries and excellent teachers. We can't afford not to vote for the millage increase.

Mrs. Betty Sherban, Jack & Jill Nursery School
Our children's future is dependent on the kind of education they receive today. Our schools need and deserve all the support we can give.

Marvin R. Boutin
After careful scrutiny of the facts and figures presented, I give my wholehearted support for the proposed school tax increase of 2 mills deemed necessary to maintain the high standard of education established by the Grosse Pointe School Board.

Roland H. Gray
In my opinion, we, through our school board, present and past, have done and are doing, an outstanding job in the education of our children; let us continue.

Remington Purdy
In order to maintain the present high standards of education in the G.P. School System, I urge the passage of the 14 mill levy.

Benjamin S. Warren, Jr.
Our schools should have Teachers second to none.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bockstanz
Passage of this millage proposal is essential if the high standards of our school system are to continue.

Raymond F. Jenzen, Poupard School PTA
This millage election typifies the sound decisions made and progressive actions proposed by our School Board in the past and therefore deserves our full support.

C. E. Swenson
As the education our children receive today will prepare them to be our citizens of tomorrow, I strongly recommend the approval and passage of our proposed school mill levy.

Jack Cudlip
You cannot foster superior future American citizens on half-day sessions. It is imperative to vote YES on the 14 mills for the next 6 years for operating purposes.

Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne R. Bissell
The slight increase in millage seems an astoundingly small price to pay toward insuring the proper education of our children.

Wesley M. Rea
The future of our community and of our nation depends upon the quality of the education we provide for our future citizens.

W. Pierce Smith, M.D.
The present stature of G.P. schools has resulted from the good judgment exercised in the past. I feel that the least I can do is support what the School Board considers is necessary to carry out its mandate.

Mrs. Paul Reberry
For me, a $1.00 per month increase is a small price to pay to educate the future leaders of the country.

Dr. William Rush
No one, thinking of the future, can deny this proposition.

Robert E. Waldron
As a proud alumnus of Grosse Pointe's public schools, I'm anxious to maintain their excellence. I believe a "yes" vote is necessary.

Claire Wolf
Minister of Redeemer Methodist Church
The 14 mill levy for Grosse Pointe Schools is a minimal "Must" if our children are to meet the mushrooming demands of our rapidly expanding technological society.

E. Joseph Zaccardelli
Wayne State University Admissions Office
The quality of our school plant and faculty must continue to improve in order to meet the educational needs of the future.

Dr. E. F. Lang
The solution of the World's problems of peace, minorities, space, conquest, will be in the hands of the educated youth of today.

Dr. Frederick A. Louppe
We cannot let our School System deteriorate.

Donald H. Lescohier
I strongly support the 2 mill increase, as essential to an adequate educational system.

Dr. Albert P. McKay
If we are at all interested in the future of our community we must have the best possible school system!

Mr. and Mrs. Roy McRae
We are supporting the proposed 14 mill levy of October 28, '63 because we believe that the public school is democracy's greatest gift to civilization. Without well equipped schools, fully staffed with good teachers, we are then denying our children the right to grow into well-educated, responsible young Americans.

Dr. Raymond C. Mellinger, Pres. Pierce PTA
Our school taxes represent our most worthwhile investment, an investment we must protect by voting approval of the millage.

Charles A. Parcells, Jr.
I am convinced that our Board of Education is asking for the lowest possible tax rate consistent with the maintenance of the excellent school system we have had in the past.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. McDonald
We shall urge our friends to support this excellent and necessary measure.

EVERYBODY WINS WHEN YOU VOTE YES

Scholarships, Fellowships Awarded Many Teachers

Within the last year or so, a number of the teachers on the staff of The Grosse Pointe Public School System have been awarded a variety of scholarships and fellowships for summer study and in-service workshops in their own fields of specialization.

Maintaining a staff of highly competent professionals who may be classed as continuing learners is in keeping with the philosophy of the schools in encouraging their teachers to keep abreast of the latest trends in order to provide top quality education for 11,000 boys and girls.

A survey of the incomplete sampling indicates a system-wide attention to the matter of increasing and maintaining competence.

The science department at Brownell Junior High School, for example, has a number of scholarship winners to its credit. Coordinator Thomas Given has received several grants, as have Robert McDonald and Margaret Shea.

On the Parcels Junior High staff, the summer of 1962 found Bill Arbaugh pursuing an interest in astronomy and geology and Robert LaVaque, in 8th grade science, has had both in-service and summer institute grants from the National Science Foundation.

Ernest Hurd, social studies department head, was awarded the opportunity to attend a workshop in economic education at Olivet College this past summer.

A year ago Mrs. Sallie Luedtke of the foreign language department, attended an institute in French under the National Defense Education Act.

Among those at Pierce who have been recipients of a variety of fellowships and scholarships are math teacher Harold Haddas, who has been awarded three National Science Foundation awards.

Robert Hafer of the same department had a fellowship for the 1961-62 school year as well as for summer institutes for the past three years.

Art department chairman, Charles Jorgensen, had a John Hay fellowship in the humanities for study at Bennington College.

Mrs. Florence Miller, chairman of the English department, had an award of a fellowship by the Commission on English of the College Entrance Board to participate in workshops the summers of 1962 and 1963 at the University of Michigan.

At the elementary level, fifth grade Kerby teacher Edward Knuth received a grant from the National Science Foundation for study at Eastern Michigan University.

At Ferry, Mrs. Dora Wross had a scholarship to attend the conservation school at Higgins Lake, and Mrs. Marilyn Howard of Poupard, received an award from the National Science Foundation.

At the High School, Mary Bushala of the foreign language department, has had two awards for summer study. The second, for an advanced institute held in Mexico, helped her immeasurably to expand her knowledge of Spanish.

Francis Granger, a French teacher, spent the past summer in Tours, France, in a program of study organized by the University of Oregon and subsidized by a grant through the National Defense Education Act.

Leona Weier, head of the department of social studies, attended a session in Colorado this past summer on a John Hay Fellowship. And Dean Balciak was awarded a grant from the State Board of Alcoholism to attend the Midwest Institute on Alcohol Studies at Western Michigan University in 1963.

Chemistry department head Kenneth Cook has had a number of National Science Foundation scholarships in the past few years. He attended the University of Denver in 1959, Kenyon College in 1960, Colorado State in 1961, and Bowdoin in 1962.

Dan Morehead of the mathematics department is another collector of scholarships. He had a National Science Foundation fellowship to the Illinois Institute of Technology the summer of 1961 and to Bowling Green State University the summers of 1962 and 1963.

Two members of the history department, James Curlett and Jack Ford have had fellowships awarded by the Coe Foundation. The former received his in 1961, the latter this past summer. Ford was also the recipient of an AAA scholarship to the driver education institute at the University of Michigan.

Mrs. Gladys Lechtreck who teaches biology attended a microbiology workshop at Michigan State University and a year-long in-service institute at Wayne State University.

Another science teacher, John Schwan, is in attendance at a National Science Foundation course during the current year at Wayne State. And Mrs. Dorothy Eldred has several recent awards in science to her credit.

Even a partial summary such as the preceding would seem to indicate that the public schools have more than their share of scholarship and fellowship recipients at both the elementary and secondary levels.

Federal Agents Arrest Cavataio

Peter V. Cavataio, 33, of 765 Middlesex, a bakery executive, was arrested by FBI agents on Thursday, October 17, and charged with extortion under the 1934 Hobbs Anti-Racketeering Act.

The accused man was placed under $25,000 bond by Federal Judge Ralph M. Freeman to wait examination on charges he violated the law which bars interference with interstate commerce by robbery or extortion. The Federal law has been rarely used.

Cavataio was accused of attempting to force grocers in the Detroit area to stock and sell his line of baked products instead of those of Richard T. Champine of 34511 Sansburn, Wayne, a competitor.

The FBI said that both men distributed bread baked in Windsor at cut-rate prices to Detroit grocers.

According to Detective Inspector William Ellenburg, head of the Detroit Police Special Investigation Bureau, Cavataio was suspected of being behind the breaking of glass windows of a number of Detroit area supermarkets in August.

Bernard C. Brown, special agent-in-charge of the Detroit FBI office, disclosed that more than 100 windows, valued at $30,000, were broken by heavy hexagonal nuts, weighed with lead.

Assistant United States Prosecutor Paul G. Komives said Cavataio was being charged under the Hobbs Act because a "crime of violence" was involved.

Bond for Cavataio, identified by Detroit Police Commissioner George Edwards as a Mafia lieutenant, was posted by the Goldfarb Bonding Agency.

Detroit police said that Cavataio has been arrested six times since 1948, but has no record of convictions.

The FBI said Cavataio operates the Holiday Bread company, 111 East Forest, Detroit, and is a vice president of City Wide Cleaners, said to be headed by his father, Dominic Cavataio, 54, of 1011 South Renard.

Both father and son were named as "Mafia lieutenants" by Commissioner Edwards in recent testimony before a Senate Investigation Subcommittee in Washington, D.C., probing organized crime.

The FBI said Peter Cavataio was believed to have resorted to window breaking because he recently lost his Windsor supply of cut-rate bread, whereas, Champine, his competitor, was still able to get bread and sell at lower prices.

The Hobbs Act, under which Cavataio was arrested, has been used in prior years only against labor racketeers, according to Federal authorities in Detroit. They could not recall the last time it was used in the arrest of someone outside the labor organization.

PROVIDE LATEST EQUIPMENT

Modern expensive equipment can be made available only in a larger hospital providing sufficient room and trained personnel.

MAINTAIN TWENTY-FOUR HOUR QUALITY SERVICES

Only a well equipped and well staffed hospital can provide an educational program that will attract Internes and Residents and Technical Personnel who will give patients the quality of medical service they desire and deserve.

DIRECTIONS:

If you desire to have the best medical care available to your community, VOTE YES for the Bon Secours Hospital Expansion Program, at the polls, Tuesday, Nov. 5.

Donors Needed For Piano Drive

The campaign to buy a fine concert grand piano for the War Memorial has passed the half-way mark, the committee of the Chamber Music Prayers group announced this week. Nearly $2,000 has now been pledged toward the purchase of a piano which will find many uses at the Center.

The campaign to purchase the piano was started recently by the Chamber Music Prayers group which meets monthly through the winter at the Center, and the Summer Music Festival Committee. The new piano will be especially useful, members of these groups say, in combination with the grand piano already in the Fries auditorium for duo-piano concerts, and for accompaniments for choir concerts and musical shows.

The Grosse Pointe Community Chorus and the Children's Theater have joined in the campaign to help raise the fund and now a number of local music teachers are lending their support. They look forward to the use of the two pianos for recitals of their students.

The newest group of donors includes: Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Graham, Mr. Carleton Healy, Miss Ann Vaitiekaitis, Mrs. William Fries, Miss Jane R. Milligan, Miss Jean Diehoff, Dr. and Mrs. R. J. Crossen, Ellen M. Heller, Donald Simmons, the Grosse Pointe Community Choir, Ralph Kimble, Mrs. Portia Penoyer, Mrs. Sally Spencer, Mrs. Ruth Ann Justice, and Mrs. Charly H. Sulek.

Enthusiasm for the project has spread to a group of youngsters, too. Pledges have been received from Kay Thompson, Lynn Thompson, Betsy Parcels, Camille Borawicz, and Christine McPharlin, who, range in age from nine to 14 years.

With the need to complete the campaign becoming increasingly important, everyone interested in the activities at the War Memorial that would benefit by this proposed gift to the center is urged to send a pledge, or a check to the Secretary of the Chamber Music Prayers, Mrs. Wade Fuller, 1817 Anita, Grosse Pointe Woods. Checks should be payable to the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. The gifts are tax deductible.

Don't take your worries seriously — most of them never happen.

International Banquet Held

"The World Is Our Classroom" was the theme of an International Night presented by James N. Bowen's fifth grade at the Ferry Elementary School.

Each of the 28 students and families attended, bringing a dish of food prepared from a foreign recipe. After supper, the students presented a program of 20 lively folk songs from around the world.

Students also prepared reports about the United Nations and themes on the subject, "The World Is Our Classroom." Some of these were presented to the parents. Special reports were given by Donald Ducastel, Laurie King, Mary Fogt, Ken Vorhees, Bill MacDonald, Liz Ankeny, Dean Robertson, Greg Swenson, Nancy LeRoy, Richard Darling, Renee Bedard, Richard Alcorta and Lynn Davis.

Parents decorated the tables with an international accent. Wall decorations included drawings of foreign scenes and 100 large flags from UN countries, prepared by the class.

Each person had a name tag gaily decorated with a small silk flag to further express the international theme.

Dr. and Mrs. Louis Alcorta, room parents for the fifth grade class, were in charge of food and table arrangements. They were assisted by Mrs. Gordon Robertson and Mrs. Walter Prowalny. "The students are learning so much from International Night, that no one minds putting in time to help out," remarked Mrs. Alcorta.

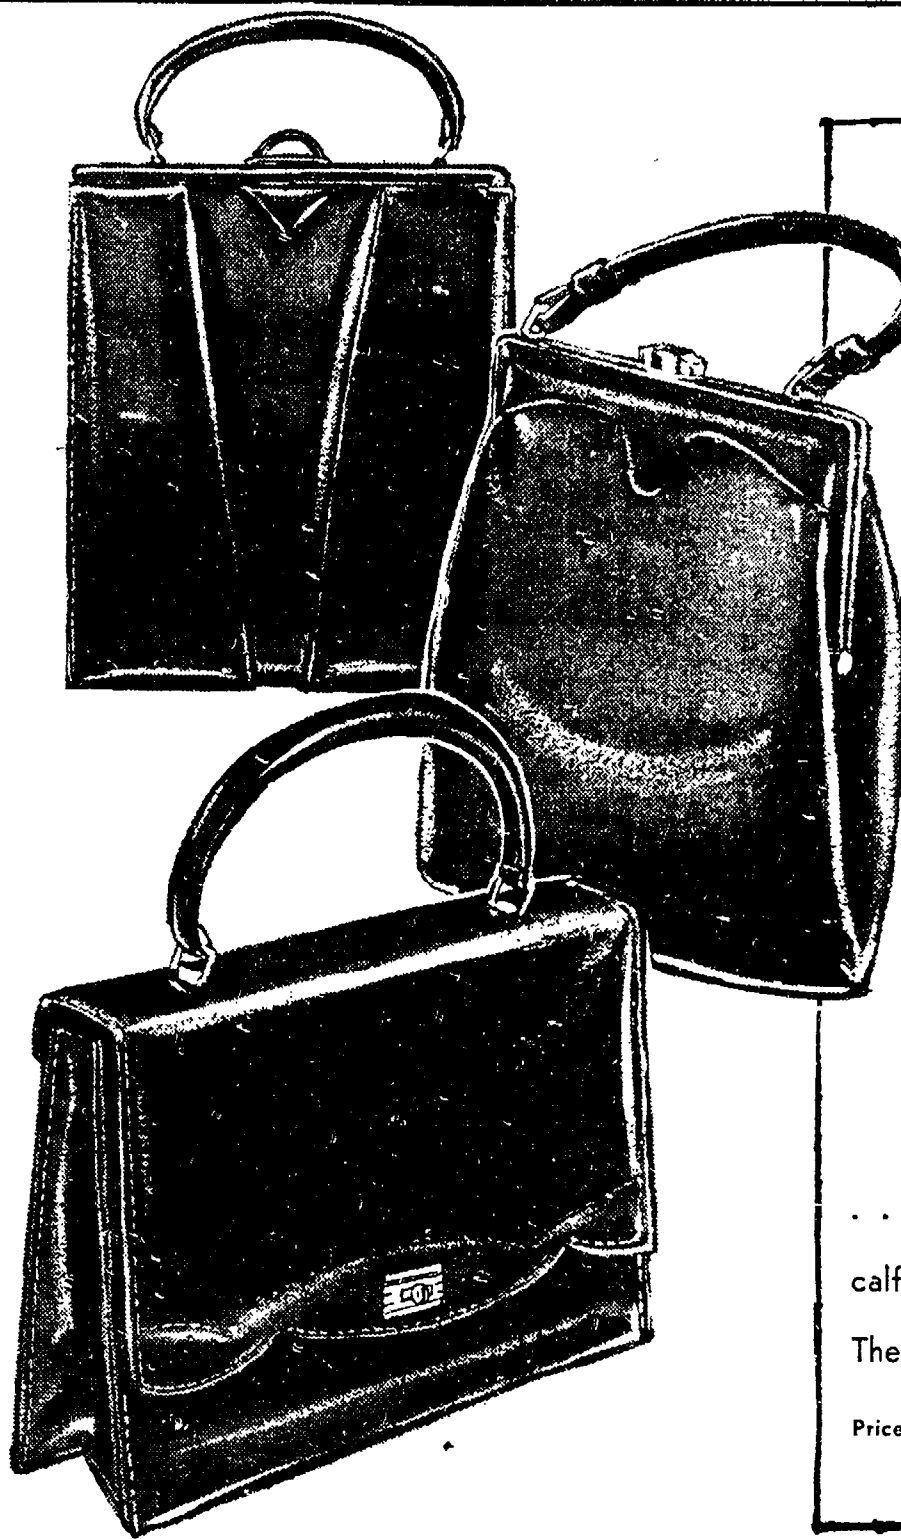

Ferry Elementary School Principal, Edwin A. Wendt, shared the class' enthusiasm. "Projects of this sort provide excellent motivation for the student of other lands and people," he explained. "International understanding becomes increasingly important in a world which grows ever smaller."

Mr. Bowen's fifth grade first became interested in an international banquet when they established an affiliation with an elementary school in Wellington, New Zealand, through the People-to-People project.

"We believed," explained Mr. Bowen, "that a banquet would be the perfect way to share our excitement about our New Zealand affiliation. Parents and students worked hard to assure that International Night would be a high spot in the school year."

Dr. Selmeier to Appear on Television Show

At the request of Mrs. George Romney, Dr. H. Leroy Selmeier, Assistant Superintendent — Instruction of the Grosse Pointe Public School System, will appear as a guest on her television program on Sunday, October 27.

Dr. Selmeier has been requested to discuss the background of the schools' publication, "Teaching American Ideals and About Communism," which appeared late in 1962. The local educator will also summarize the many ways in which the Grosse Pointe schools teach American idealism as a part of the instructional program in grades K-12.

The program which Mrs. Romney conducts with Martha Dickson, "Views and Visions," is slated for viewing over Channel 6, WJIM, Lansing, 5:00 to 5:30 p.m. Sunday. It is one of a series scheduled to run for 12 weeks.

The governor's wife first learned of the Grosse Pointe manual through Robert F. Weber, trustee and long-time member of the Board of Education. Mrs. Romney is reported to have been inspired by the scope of the Grosse Pointe book in its comprehensiveness and organization as a background for teaching American ideals.

Michigan's First Lady has in the past expressed her concern over the fact that the American image overseas is often not as citizens of this country intend it to be. She feels that although we export money to assist the world, we often fail to export the feeling of idealism and brotherhood which is our true motivation for helping others.

GP Park to Add Facilities At Three Mile Drive Park

Attendance at the Three Mile Drive Park appears to be increasing as improvements to recreational facilities are carried out. Park officials disclosed.

Additional trees will be planted this fall, and two new tennis courts and playfield equipment will be constructed in the early spring of 1964. The total cost of this project is estimated at $12,828.

At a recent meeting, the Park council approved appropriation of the funds to carry out this program, following recommendation of the Three Mile Park Committee. The committee is comprised of Councilman Charles Ives, chairman, Councilman John Doelle and City Manager Robert Slone.

During the 1963 season, the city installed the following facilities and equipment: shuffleboard court; horseshoe pitching pit; a combination of playground devices, including seesaws, swings and trapeze bars; planting of trees in the park and along the easterly boundary of property on the Grand Marais side.

Also, establishment of a nursery of 160 small trees for future park and street planting; a golf putting area that is being improved for next season's use; and the providing of play equipment for badminton, irons for putting and croquet set.

The park committee presented a schedule of attendance, showing that during the 1963 season, more persons were attracted to the Three Mile Park than in 1962. They stated that the reason was believed due to the new equipment and facilities, which created more interest.

Substantiating this, the committee disclosed that during Memorial Day through Labor Day of this year, a total of 13,938 persons attended the park, as compared to 9,032 during the 1962 season.

To carry on the gradual improvements at the park, the committee recommended the construction of an additional shuffleboard to cost $315; planting of 15 trees, five of which are to replace those that died under guarantee, cost, $213; and construction of two tennis courts, $12,000.

It was also recommended that two pieces of additional equipment and two heavy-duty spring type toys be added, along with climbing equipment, such as a "Jungle Gym," cost, $300.

In its report, the committee stated that it considered the possibility of lights for the tennis court, but felt that it should not be provided at this time, and that the park should only be operated during daylight hours.

Relocation of the ice skating rink and the construction of shelter and facilities building was also discussed at this time. By the committee, it was felt that the city was providing adequate warming room and facilities at the Waterfront Park, at least for now.

Ives, Doelle and Slone stated that the recommended improvements are in keeping with the city council's policy of encouraging only quiet and passive activities at the Three Mile Drive Park.

Y-Teen Heads To Be Honored

Principal Jerry Herich and Dean of Women Mrs. Fred Plom of Grosse Pointe High School will be among the more than 500 school officials and Y-Teen advisers who will be honored October 28 by the teen-age program committees of the YWCA of Metropolitan Detroit.

Dr. Samuel H. Brownell, Detroit superintendent of schools, heads the guest list.

The event will be the triennial dinner paying tribute to those school people whose cooperation and interest make possible the work of Y-Teen clubs in senior and junior high schools, Miss Dolores Potts, YWCA teen-age director, said.

Each Y-Teen club is organized in a senior or junior high school and has a teacher as an adult adviser, she explained. Membership in the clubs is open to all girls attending the school.

"Through activities which they themselves plan, the 300 Y-Teens in metropolitan Detroit grow into healthier and happier adults," she said.

"Teen-age clubs in the YWCA are noted for their interest in services to others," she pointed out. "Senior high clubs, for instance, raise funds to support overseas orphans, visit the aged, do recreational work with handicapped and retarded children."

"Girls in junior high Y-Teen clubs usher at school plays, make tray favors or stuffed animals for hospital patients. And girls from all the clubs pack kits for the Torch Fund drive."

Speaker at the 6 p.m. dinner October 28 at the Downtown Branch YWCA will be Dr. Earl H. Furgeson, professor at Wesley Theological Seminary, Washington, D.C.

Wyandotte Eleven Crushes Blue Devils by 27-0 Score

By Jim Blackburn

Wyandotte's Ken Gulyas threw two touchdown passes and scored one himself to lead the Wyandotte Bears to a crushing 27-0 victory over the Grosse Pointe Blue Devils Friday night in Wyandotte.

The Bears scored in the second quarter when Dave Renfer, a high-stepping halfback, raced 63 yards to the Devil end zone, then added the extra point himself. After this first score the Bears were never really headed. They scored one more touchdown in the second quarter on a pass from Gulyas to Jim Cecil.

Between the two touchdowns the Devils had a 48-yard touchdown pass from Lou Curl to John Reynolds called back because of a penalty, and from there the Devils went steadily downhill.

The second half was a repetition of the first. Gulyas returned the kickoff to the Devil 45-yard line and a penalty moved the ball to the 30. Six plays later Gulyas threw his second touchdown pass to Jeff Garrison and Renfer added his third straight extra point. The scoring ended in the fourth quarter when Gulyas scored on a four-yard run. An attempted pass for the extra point was incomplete, and thus the final score was 27-0.

Wyandotte, in winning, took over first place by virtue of Monroe's 19-0 loss at the hands of Fordson. Next week the Bears and Trojans will battle for the championship while Fordson faces Royal Oak Don-

Pingel Stars As GPUS Loses

By Nels O'Gon

Saginaw Lutheran's football team defeated Grosse Pointe University School, 19-14, last Friday.

Grosse Pointe scored on their first drive when Roy Pingel skirted left end for a 25 yard touchdown.

Pingel scored again on a 31 yard play later in the second quarter. Saginaw scored twice more on a one yard run and a nine yard pass. Kerry Pike, Grosse Pointe's end, recovered a Saginaw fumble on his own ten yard line, with two minutes remaining in the game. George Perrin, Grosse Pointe's quarterback, passed his team down to Saginaw's 15 yard line, but the clock ran out.

Roy Pingel, a sophomore playing his first year on the varsity and in his first starting assignment, ran up 74 yards rushing in addition to his two touchdowns. Dick Green, Grosse Pointe's middle line-backer, has 105 tackles in the first five games, breaking his last year's season record of 90. GPUS' next game is Friday, October 25, at home, against Whitmore Lake.

Project Weekend For Tuxis Club

The Tuxis Club of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church is planning a "project weekend" this Saturday. The group will meet at the church at 8:30 on Saturday morning and go, by car, to three centers where they will help clean up, indoors and out, and take care of other odd jobs.

The three places to which the group is going are the Hannan YMCA, Presbyterian Village, and Franklin Settlement House. Judging from last year's experience at the same places, a good time should be had by all as well as a productive, meaningful experience. Jack Galewski, chairman of the project, has done an excellent job of organizing, and those involved are looking for a great success.

Highway Wins Scenic Award

America's most scenic new highway is a 22.5-mile section of Interstate 75 in Northern Michigan. It was the unanimous choice of five independent, expert judges who selected it from more than 300 entries to receive the Parade Magazine Scenic Highway Award for 1964. The judges declared the road—part of the 385-mile Ohio-to-Soo Freeway—as "the year's best example of a 'motorist's highway,' a joy to see as well as to drive."

Engineer at the time the highway was planned, will receive a scroll honoring him as the design engineer of the prize-winning highway. This marks the third time the northern half of the Ohio-Soo Freeway has been among the finalists in the Scenic Highway Contest. In 1961, a 22-mile section from the Mackinac Bridge to Indian River, was a runner-up. Last year, a 90-mile section of the freeway between Clare and Gaylord also was a runner-up.

Parade Prize Won by Float

The efforts of a handful of Grosse Pointers helped bring recognition to retarded children and honors to the Michigan Association for Retarded Children during Detroit's observance of Columbus Day. A small but tasteful float depicting the world of the retarded, captured the judges' favor and won first prize of $100 and a trophy for entry in the Columbus Day parade.

The float was built by the Bay County Association for Retarded Children, and finishing touches and added sparkle were applied in Grosse Pointe under the direction of Mrs. Cass Piernoe of GPARC and Mrs. Ted Ostrowski, president of SPUR, Walled Lake Unit, all MARC affiliated chapters. Other GPARC members assisting in preparing the float were Mrs. Grace Hill, Mrs. Richard J. Lane, and Mrs. Jack B. Still. Miss Bea Whalley, WSU student from Grosse Pointe Park, and Tuxis members Judy Lane, Susan Lane, Nan Still, and Roger Frye also were instrumental in producing the prize-winning entry.

Thrilling A

"Adventure In Africa," thrilling color movie by Muir and Mildred Deusing with Muir commenting personally will be shown at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Fries Auditorium Thursday evening, October 24 at 8 o'clock.

The program is under the auspices of the Center's Grosse Pointe Cinema League and has been made free of charge to Grosse Pointers and their guests through the generosity of a donor who prefers to remain anonymous.

We begin the first reel with a visit to famous Kruger Park. We see regal sable antelope with the majestic kudu. We watch lions as they use the automobiles of visitors to help them stalk their prey, and see an actual kill made right in front of our car. During our visit great brush fires rage through the park and we see how animals manage to avoid the flames, how park personnel go about fighting the great fires, and how animals accommodate themselves to the burned over areas. Burned over areas forced great concentrations of big game around favored water holes, and we witness the rare sight of large numbers of animals coming down to drink at the same time—hudu, impala, zebra, baboons, wart hogs, and the great giraffe who must take an awkward position to take a drink.

Next we visit the new Queen Elizabeth Park in Uganda where

Thrilling African Movies Offered at Center Tonight

"Adventure in Africa," a thrilling color movie by Muri and Mildred Deusing with Muri and Mildred Deusing personally will be shown at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Fries Auditorium, Thursday evening, October 24, at 8 o'clock.

The program is under the auspices of the Center's Grosse Pointe Cinema League and has been made free of charge to Grosse Pointers and their guests through the generosity of a donor who prefers to remain anonymous.

We begin the first reel with a visit to famous Kruger Park. We see regal sable antelope with the majestic kudu. We watch lions as they use the automobiles of visitors to help them stalk their prey, and see an actual kill made right in front of our car. During our visit great brush fires rage through the park and we see how animals manage to avoid the flames, how park personnel go about fighting the great fires, and how animals accommodate themselves to the burned over areas. Burned over areas forced great concentrations of big game around favored water holes, and we witness the rare sight of large numbers of animals coming down to drink at the same time—hudu, impala, zebra, baboons, wart hogs, and the great giraffe who must take an awkward position to take a drink.

Next we visit the new Queen Elizabeth Park in Uganda where we find an amazing sight—many hippos wallowing neck deep in giant mud-holes. At Amboseli Game Reserve in Kenya Colony we make extreme closeup pictures of elephants as they tear branches out of trees while feeding, and we watch them blowing dust with their trunks. We encounter many black rhinos, including a magnificent specimen with a fifty-four inch horn, a world's record. For contrast we go to the Hluhluwe Reserve in South Africa to see the rare white rhino in extreme closeup.

We stop at the Port Elizabeth Snake Park where we see men handling the deadly puff adder. We watch a secretary bird in action as it strikes with lightning speed to kill a snake. We examine the process of extracting venom from the poisonous snakes, and follow the steps in the manufacture of antivenom. We also see a spitting cobra in action.

A short distance away from Port Elizabeth at Addo, we are lucky enough to photograph the lost herd of elephants seldom seen in day light hours. Separated by a thousand miles from other elephants, reduced by hunting to a tiny remnant and backed into the heavy Addo bush by encroaching civilization, the elephants of the small herd have become deadly enemies of men. They are now confined to Addo National Park, surrounded by an elephant proof fence which we have ample opportunity to test when one of the bulls charges our party.

We end the first reel at Oudshoorn near the southern tip of South Africa, at the famous Hygate Ostrich Farm. Thousands of ostriches are raised like cattle, and we witness the weird display of the male ostrich in courtship performance, and watch him in fighting mood as he protects a nesting site. Females are on nests with eggs and in the fields leading their broods of young. The visit ends with a hilarious ride sequence as both Marlin Perkins and Jim Hurlbut mount the giant birds and attempt to stay on the bucking bipeds.

We begin the second reel with a journey to Epulu in the Belgian Congo to visit the famous elephant training school and watch African elephants at work. We also see the rare okapi, nearest relative of the giraffe, which are captured on the plains of Serengeti. We participate in a thrilling chase following the famous animal catcher, Willie De Beer, as he pursues a herd of giraffe, expertly cuts out a young one and ropes it from a fast moving car.

Next we enter the Serengeti Plains to witness the magnificent story of the migration of the wildebeeste. We see waterholes drying up one by one, forcing the wildebeeste to move westward to the "green hills of Africa." We witness the great spectacle of thousands of animals on the move—topi, Grant's gazelle, Thomson's gazelle, and zebra, as well as smaller animals—wart hogs, mongoose, and troops of baboons with young riding on their mother's backs like so many cowboys.

We see birds moving with the migration—flocks of ostriches, groups of bustards, guinea fowl, and ground hornbills. And there are predators too, with lions, wild hogs and hyenas joining the great migration. Along every mile of the way the great wildebeeste bulls fight for possession of the herds—slamming heads and horns together with great force.

On the western edge of Serengeti we sight outcroppings of rock where we see the strange little hyrax, relative of the elephant, as well as the tiny klippspringer and dikdik, smallest of the antelope. As the herds move into the hills we come upon herds of giraffe and watch them feeding. We also closely examine the tickbirds that feed on the parasites found on the giraffe. Animals congregate around the waterholes, and we see a baby baboon accidentally fall into the water to be rescued by its mother.

New birds are found around these water holes—storks, finches, the ibis, and the beautiful crowned crane performing fantastic dances in courtship. New antelope are seen, too—the reedbuck, waterbuck, and impala who make extraordinary leaps through the air upon the sudden appearance of leopard. We see the leopard up in a tree feeding upon an impala, and we met the dangerous Cape buffalo face to face.

Finally, for two weeks we watch a pride of 11 lions—three male, five females and three cubs. We see how the pride teams up to make a kill. Quickly the various types of vultures appear and the jackals come running. A jackal steals a piece of meat from the lions and then must protect it from the thieving vultures. Eventually the quarrelsome hyenas come to the kill. You will see the strange sight of a lion that climbs trees and two lions fiercely fight for a small piece of meat. Great suspense is built up when a lioness protects her cub from a large and poisonous mamba snake. You will see how cubs are given special privileges when feeding on the kill, but at the same time the big males will not allow the females to feed until all males have finished.

Parcells PTA Meets Friday

An unusual and important P.T.A. meeting open to all voters and to all parents will be held on Friday evening, October 25, at 8 o'clock, in the Parcells Junior High School auditorium.

The first half hour of the meeting will be devoted to an explanation of the school election issues, presented by Franklin Dougherty, vice-president of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education. Mr. Dougherty, a Grosse Pointe Woods resident who has served on the Board of Education for 16 years, and has sent two daughters through the public schools, will have slides, charts, statistics, and facts to explain to voters the need for the millage to be requested at the school election on October 28.

Following his brief talk there will be time for questions. This phase of the discussion Harold Husband, Assistant Superintendent of Schools, and Lawrence Kennedy, Director of Professional Personnel, will assist as consultants. It is hoped that any interested voters will find this brief discussion helpful in guiding their decision for the upcoming election.

At 8:30 all teachers will be in their classrooms ready to hold individual conferences with parents of Parcells students. Parents concerned about the progress, the report card grades, or the type of work assigned their children may consult with teachers at this time. Room parents will serve as monitors, to keep the conference time a reasonable length and to assist the teacher in other ways for the evening. Since report cards will have been sent home just prior to this P.T.A. meeting, many parents may have a special interest in the conference time.

At the conclusion of the double purpose evening refreshments will be served in the girls gymnasium, with the eight grade room parents acting as hosts and hostesses for the occasion. These parents are: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tipton, Mr. and Mrs. David Teague, Mr. and Mrs. George Rinaldi, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mahoney, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Symons, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Galante, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Johns, Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Seibert, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lapea, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Penton, Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Stekete, Mr. and Mrs. Sigfried Franz, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Godfrey, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cochell, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Scott, Mr. and Mrs. John Oster, Mr. and Mrs. John Ellis.

The Grosse Pointe Crisis Club will present the University of Detroit Chorus of 95 voices in a concert of "Vocal Varieties," on Monday evening, November 11 at 8:30 in the Parcells School Auditorium.

This will be the first appearance of the 1963-1964 season of these young artists and will be their first presentation in Grosse Pointe.

The University of Detroit Chorus differs from other college or university singing groups inasmuch as it is made up of featured soloists, both male and female, barbershop quartets both male and female, folk singers and variety and pop singers.

The ticket donation is $2 each, tax exempt. Tickets may be purchased through the Ketcher Cadillac Company, 15554 East Warren, phone 881-6600, or the University of Detroit, Dean of Men's Office, phone 342-1000.

Woods Denied Traffic Light

A request by Grosse Pointe Woods for a traffic signal at the Woods lakefront park entrance, Jefferson avenue at Marter road, was refused by the State Highway Department, it was revealed at the Woods council meeting Monday night, October 21.

Councilman Marvin Boutin recommended that the council meet as soon as possible with representatives from the Highway Department and St. Clair Shores, where the intersection is located, to come to an understanding.

The councilmen are concerned with the volume of pedestrian traffic which occurs there during the summer. The Woods even offered to finance the installation of the signal when the request was made to the Highway Department.

The state agency gave as reasons for the refusal the low count of traffic accidents taken over a 19-month period, plus the fact that there is heavy pedestrian traffic only on Sunday.

Cast Your Vote Proudly

There are so many reasons why the Grosse Pointe Public School System's Operating Millage Proposition should be approved at the polls on Monday, October 28, that it almost seems silly to make a plea to the voters. The Parent-Teacher Association Council has done a beautiful job of summing up many of these reasons in a 15-page brochure, but it is our understanding that circulation of this booklet has been largely limited to the parents of those who have children in school. It is a pity they were not made available to every voting resident of the district, and it is strongly recommended to anyone who has any doubts about the necessity for passage of the proposal, that they make it a point to get a copy.

Activities of the various divisions of the system are highlighted under sections covering the High School, Junior Highs and Elementary Schools, Finances, Salary Comparisons, Professional Staff, Community and Special Services, Present and Projected Enrollments and the Public Libraries. The statistics compiled should make every resident mighty proud.

Our public schools are not only providing a nationally acclaimed type of education for the approximately 11,000 young pupils it serves, but the Adult Education Program last year had 6,992 registrations in 121 day and evening courses taught by a faculty of 115. The summer playground program and the community swimming program provide recreation and instruction for all ages and for thousands not enrolled in the public schools. The swimming teams from St. Paul, Austin and Our Lady Star of the Sea use the pools in the public schools, and other teams from institutions and organizations not in the public system can always find facilities, indoors and out, for staging athletic events.

One of the chief reasons why it is imperative that the requested millage be granted the Public Schools, is that competition is becoming increasingly rough when it comes to obtaining the best teachers possible. This year the local system lost the services of a number of top educators simply because other systems offered more money. A comparison of average earning power of a teacher in 25 schools systems across the nation show the Pointe in 20th place this year. There are 20 systems in the Metropolitan Detroit area which pay their teachers more than does the Pointe. We in this highly favored community should certainly be able to afford to successfully meet such competition. We cannot afford to let our educational standards deteriorate.

Undergraduates and graduates of our system have given us much reason to be proud of the facilities with which we have provided them. They are strong in scholastic achievement at all levels. The High School has had a high proportion of National Merit Scholarship winners and semifinalists and its students have done remarkably well in a variety of other competitions such as the Scholastic Writing Awards, Science Fairs and Mathematics Prize Contests. In June, 51 of the High School's graduates won college and university scholarships. About 80 percent of the graduates are accepted by colleges and universities and another six percent go on to special schools such as nursing, drama, art, and business. A lot of these youngsters make outstanding records in some of the toughest institutions of higher learning in the country, proving that the preparation given them here is of the highest calibre.

No one likes taxes, but it is we, the taxpayers who own this school system. Let's not make the mistake Detroit did, repudiating one of the most valuable assets a community can have. The proposed levy of 23.71 mills is a lower rate than the 1960 total of 23.77. The 14-mill proposal on the ballot includes a renewal of 1 1/4 mills levied for operating presently in effect. Let every qualified voter go to the polls next Monday and proudly proclaim continued support of one of the nation's finest educational systems. VOTE YES!

Letters to the Editor

To The Editor: Last week's edition of the NEW carried a letter from a citizen which contained many distortions and inaccuracies concerning the school millage election to be held next Monday, October 28. I believe the residents of the community deserve an opportunity to read the facts as they exist. Many may recall that similar misrepresentations were attempted at a number of public meetings by this same critic. Mr. Fisher speaks of a blank check of $3,500,000 per year for six years and intimates the Board of Education will spend such monies indiscriminately and irresponsibly. After 20 years or so of attendance at Board of Education meetings where he has made this charge, Mr. Fisher should have learned by now how a school system operates. Earmarking of general operational funds are a fact each and every year. Commitments to specific salary schedules, maintenance programs and curriculum offerings, dictate how each and every dollar of such funds must be expended. To suggest that the Board is seeking $21 million to spend willfully and extravagantly over a six-year period is a gross distortion of fact. Mr. Fisher can't really expect fellow citizens to believe this. The fact is that most of what is being voted on is in existence and is merely being renewed. I hope Grosse Pointers will recognize this fact and be aware that although the ballot speaks of a 14-mill increase, a total of 12 mills is already in effect for operation and building and site purposes and renewal of these is necessary at this time. In other words we are proposing a tax rate for 1964 to 1969 two mills higher than it presently is. The amounts Mr. Fisher uses in connection with the four-year building program we are now completing are, by and large, accurate. We have been able to do more on this program than was originally thought but only as a result of good management of funds. By using reserves we accumulated for capital purposes and approved for expenditure by the voters in June, plus earnings from an excellent investment program involving idle funds we have managed to do several more projects than planned. For instance, the present addition to Ferry School of eight classrooms has been possible without coming back to the voters for tax authority to raise more funds. Heavy enrollment at a faster than expected rate created the need for this addition far ahead of what was thought possible in 1958 and 1959 when sewer bans and other impediments appeared certain to delay the building of new homes in the Woods and Shores for some time.

One rather unfair comparison is made by Mr. Fisher regarding Maire School construction. He uses a figure of $76,500 as the original estimate and $131,467 as the amount of the bids finally accepted. Both figures are accurate but fail to point out that the nature of the work planned for $76,500 and that to be accomplished for $131,467 is quite different. A two classroom addition and a remodeled office were planned initially but dictates of the State Fire Marshall and the emergence of other needs caused the original estimates to be revised upward to $125,000. Thus, the bids received for the now greatly enlarged project were about $6,000 higher than estimated, not $54,967 as Mr. Fisher says.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

"There's a noise of galloping over the hill, And the huntsman's horn rings merry and shrill. See, here they come with a 'Yie halloo!' Hounds and horses and huntsmen too, Galloping, galloping, galloping, galloping... by."

So says the song "Tally-Ho" (available in our choral music collection). The hunting season is here, we know. For the trigger-happy Nimrods who are busily oiling their rifles and practicing their bird calls, we offer the following, available in our Libraries.

One of the most comprehensive and authoritative recent books about hunting is Clyde Ormond's COMPLETE BOOK OF HUNTING. Here one can find practical advice on every aspect of hunting game animals, waterfowl, and upland birds. The information ranges from planning the hunting trip to equipment needed, rifles, techniques for tracking game, and dressing and skinning animals.

W. Randolph's THE WORLD OF WOOD, FIELD, AND STREAM is a selection, by R. A. Wolters, of the late columnist's articles on fishing and hunting. These chronicles relate primarily the author's own personal experiences.

GOOD SHOOTING, by J. W. MacKay provides a program for the establishment and operation of a private shooting preserve, information on how to train a dog for shooting, and how to hold the release birds.

THE DEER HUNTER'S BIBLE, by George Laycock, is a fact-crammed book ranging from animal lore to the tracking, from bow and bullet to the butchering of the animal. It is conversational and anecdotal in tone and style.

The art of good hunting means, certainly, the art of good marksmanship. OUTHUNTER'S BOOK, by J. W. MacKay, gives us THE STORY OF AMERICAN HUNTING AND FIREARMS, which is a survey of weapons used in the pursuit of game in America over the past 400 years.

In Charles Askins' THE SHOTGUNNER'S BOOK, the would-be hunter will find an exhaustive and authoritative work, covering such topics as parts of the shotgun, various United States and foreign models, the beginner's gun, aiming, etc.

A book on the method of marksmanship, as taught by Lucky McDaniel, is INSTINCT

SHOOTING, by Mike Jennings. In the Juvenile collection the young sportsman will want to read A BEGINNER'S BOOK OF SPORTING GUNS AND HUNTING, by M. J. Shapiro. Here, after a brief summary of the history of firearms, the editor of GUNSPORT magazine advises on gun selection and gun care, stresses safety precautions, differentiates between shotguns and rifles, and explains in detail the techniques of shotgun and rifle shooting.

If the hunting season is calling you, and you plan a limited safari, the problem of camping will surely enter the picture. W. K. Merrill's ALL ABOUT CAMPING would be a good book to read for this purpose; it is for both the beginner and the experienced outdoorsman.

Another, COMPLETE BOOK OF CAMPING by Leonard Miracle, is a manual on camping lore, covering preparation and equipment, travel by every means, including auto camping and living in the wilderness.

Another recent book, giving directory-type information, is CAMPGROUND GUIDE FOR TENT AND TRAILER TOURISTS.

William Riviere's THE CAMPER'S BIBLE gives both general and specific information on tents, campsites and campfires, packing, map-reading, cooking and sleeping.

To round out this topic, let us include OUTDOOR LIFE'S GALLERY OF NORTH AMERICAN GAME, which is a brilliant collection of paintings by Francis Lee Jacques, and will be especially appealing to sports buffs and nature lovers. It is an illustrated (both in black-and-white and color) and authoritative book on game animals and birds of this continent. The game biographies are prepared by writers who are also sportsmen.

And finally, to hit a literary note, there is P. H. Bonner's AGED IN THE WOODS — a collection of shooting and fishing stories and sketches, with greatest appeal to those who carry the rod and gun.

So yorks and away! Happy hunting!

How to swallow a bitter pill

By FRED KOPP, R. PH.

First, find a bitter pill. There are so few nowadays. It all started because children bless 'em, are so good at resisting bad-tasting medicine. You can medicate their chins or hair, but getting the stuff in them is beyond the ken of science. Kids can spit a country mile. So pharmacists began sugar-coating pills, putting medication in capsules, or mixing with sweet syrup. And we soon found that adults, too, like medicine the easy way. So now, most of our prescriptions are quite pleasant to take. If you should run into one of the few bitter ones, believe us, there are good medical reasons for it.

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

Mrs. Lynn McNaughton, national finance chairman of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association, will return from New York to give the invocation at the Fall Council Meeting of National Farm and Garden's Michigan Division.

Between three and four hundred women from 95 branches are expected to gather in the Fries Memorial Building next Wednesday, October 30, at 9:30 o'clock, to discuss gardening and hear speakers Hendrika Van Iersson, from the Netherlands, and Mrs. William J. Ullenbruch, Frysinger International Fellowship and Exchange recipients.

Mrs. Benjamin Young is general chairman, with Mrs. Ivor D. Harris serving as chairman of the day.

Mrs. Young asked members of her Grosse Pointe branch to help decorate the more than 35 luncheon tables, and Mrs. Edward Wishropp and Mrs. Ellis Merry served as chairmen of a group which met in Mrs. Jesse Vincent's lovely recreation room to put together many gay arrangements of gourds and dried flowers.

The Fries Building has a special meaning for all Farm and Garden members. The late William H. Fries was an interested neighbor of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, and his wife, the late Ernestine Fries, was president of Farm and Garden's Grosse Pointe Branch in 1947 and past editor of the National Farm and Garden magazine.

Mrs. Elmore Wollering, responsible for the 12:30 o'clock luncheon, is chairman of hospitality for next Wednesday's meeting. Mrs. Earl J. Failor heads the reservations committee.

Plan Hayride For Club Teens

No sooner had the two clubs, Lochmoor and the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, wound up their last very successful inter-club teen dance, when brain power again was used to keep the young people and their friends entertained in all of the five Pointes.

Committee members have come up with an idea they think is a real "first" as far as the "what's there to do?" teenager is concerned.

Boys and girls will gather in the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club parking lot on Saturday, November 2, at 4:15 o'clock. A chartered bus will take them to Plymouth for a two-hour hayride, then back to the Yacht Club where, after suitable ablutions have been performed, a buffet style spaghetti dinner is on the agenda.

After dinner, the teens may

Christmas Mart Opens Tuesday

The John Kenowers, of Village lane, are back from two weeks in New York. While there Mrs. Kenower spent many hours working for the two projects dear to her heart — the Planned Parenthood League's Christmas Mart and Liggett School.

She visited all the shops which will be coming from Manhattan for the Mart and brought back news of all the exciting new wares which shop owners are packing to bring to Detroit (ALL of the shops declare this is their favorite out of town Mart) October 29, 30 and 31 at Veterans Memorial.

Don Marshall, famed as the originator of the coif hat and designer of little furs, is bringing ostrich feather boleros in all colors, mink babushkas, leopard vests, lace Mantillas (very "in" for evening) and the very newest thing in furs—a mink coat that converts into a jacket, Mrs. Kenower reported.

Mrs. Donald Van Hove

In St. Joan of Arc Church Saturday morning, BARBARA ANN BILLNER, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Billner, of Brys drive, was married to Mr. Van Hove, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Van Hove, of Hidden lane.

Italian King To Visit City

The former King of Italy, Umberto II, who was the last of the Italian monarchs, will visit Detroit for three days, October 28-30, in behalf of the American Committee on Italian Migration, a charitable organization which for the past 11 years has devoted its attention to the re-unification of Italian families separated by immigration barriers.

His visit to Detroit is sponsored by a Citizens' Civic Committee composed of Walker L. Cislis, Anthony DeLorenzo, Frank W. Donovan, Alfred R. Glancy and Ernest Kanzler, supported by the local chapter of the National Committee.

Climax of the visit, which will include tours of Detroit's points of interest, will be a benefit dinner honoring the former king, to be given at the Sheraton Cadillac Hotel on the evening of Tuesday, October 29. Proceeds of the dinner will go toward the family re-unification fund.

With Umberto II on tour will be the Reverend Fr. Caesar Donatoni, National Executive Secretary, Marchese Lucifero and Count Oliviero. The American Committee on Italian Immigration is a member of the National Catholic Resettlement Council.

King Umberto voluntarily left his throne in 1946 when the Italian people voted to make Italy a republic. He was due to arrive in New York on October 14 to attend the Alfred E. Smith Memorial Dinner as a guest of Cardinal Spellman.

He will be in the United States for one month and will visit several cultural and economic areas in which he is interested.

Detroit Chapter officers of the American Committee organization include Amerigo Pellegrini, chairman; Marion Macioce, past chairman and member of the National Board of Directors; Eugene Fattore, Mrs. Marie Lalli and Frank Valenti, vice chairmen; and Mrs. Carolyn Sinelli Byrnes, secretary and treasurer. Honorary committee members are former Mayor Louis C. Miriani, Judge John A. Ricca, Dr. Nicola Gigante and Anthony Maullo.

Barbara Billner Weds Mr. Van Hove

Reception at Kolping Hall Follows Saturday Ceremony In St. Joan of Arc Church; Bride Wears White Peau de Soie With Lace and Crystal Accents

In a floor length gown of white peau de soie, accented with appliqued Alencon lace on the bodice and skirt, Barbara Ann Billner became the bride of Donald Henry Van Hove Saturday in St. Joan of Arc Church.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Billner, of Brys drive. Her husband's parents are the Henry L. Van Hoves, of Hidden lane.

A beaded pillbox caught the bride's short illusion veil and each applique on her wedding gown was accented with a small crystal and pearl. She carried white butterfly roses, ivy stephanotis and amazon lillies.

Mrs. Frank W. Billner, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor in a floor length dress of sapphire blue peau de soie, designed with an empire waist and velveteen bodice.

The two bridesmaids, Alwynne Resse and Judy Thomas, the bride's cousin, wore identical gowns. Their hats were sapphire blue velveteen pillboxes, and they carried arm bouquets of red roses.

Mrs. Billner greeted guests at the evening reception at Kolping Hall in a dress of teal blue crepe with a green embossed scroll design. Her accessories were green, and she chose green-tinted cymbidium orchids.

Mrs. Van Hove was in a light blue gown with dark blue accents and a corsage of pink cymbidium orchids.

The new Mrs. Van Hove wore a gold suit with brown accessories when the couple left on a short wedding trip. They will live in St. Clair Shores.

DYC Schedules Four Parties

The Detroit Yacht Club's gala doings for October include four annual parties.

Festivities began with the Sea Gulls "New Members Party" October 22 at 12 noon. President Mrs. Clement Carter and Mrs. William Melcher, the party chairman, welcomed newcomers.

The program following the luncheon included entertainment, prizes and favors for the guests. Among those with reservations were the Mesdames Kenneth Koppitz, Carl Haber, John Leverenz, Thomas Pearsall, C. Dale Barrett, Dell Chalmers, Severance Hill, W. H. Uruhart and C. Joseph Belanger.

The Sailorettes will celebrate their 1963 sailing season with a "Trophy Awards Luncheon" and card party on October 26 in the Sweepstakes Room at 12:30 o'clock.

Past Commodore Cletus J. Welling will present the new "Commodore Cletus J. Welling Flying Scot Trophy" to first place winner, Mrs. Robert J. Hesse.

Carl A. Jones, chairman of the Flying Scot committee and Nelson Bell Jr., DRYA official, will present sailing awards to Mrs. Wray Bailey, Marilyn Perry and Germaine Dorr, Sailorette chairman.

Miss Dorr is in charge of arrangements, and her aides are Mrs. Charles Huber and Mrs. Howard Donaldson.

In the evening, DYC will stage its Halloween party in the Grill at 8 p.m.

"Harvest of Fun" is the theme. Edward Dahmer, entertainment chairman, and his committee members have chosen the traditional background decor of cornstalks, pumpkins

Party Planned By Foundation

The Foundation for Exceptional Children is sponsoring its fifth social evening for handicapped teenagers and young adults at a Halloween Party, Friday, October 25, from 7 to 9 p.m. at Miller Hall, 61 Grosse Pointe boulevard.

Any teenager or young adult, physically handicapped or mentally retarded, in the community is welcome. Please wear costumes if possible. For information call TU 5-2536 or TU 1-8444.

The last two socials have honored two guests by helping them celebrate their birthdays with birthday cakes and all the trimmings. Both the teen-agers and their parents have been most appreciative of these fun nights.

Don't try to atone for a mis-spent past by giving others advice.

Christ Child Carnival Nears

Carnival Americana, Christ
Child Society's annual pre-Christmas fund-raising festivity,
takes place next Wednesday,
October 30, at Cobo Hall, from 11 until 6 o'clock.

All Christ Child members in the Metropolitan area have worked for many months to make this Carnival unique and appealing.

The Christmas Booth, always an attraction, has outdone itself in originality and fine workmanship. Other booths are the Country Store with home baked items, candies and our famous fruit cake. The Toy Booth boasts of miniature furniture to become a collectors item in future years, a vast array of dolls and their wardrobes, and many hand crafted original toys.

The Jewelry Box contributes bangles and beads chosen from the finest sources available. For several years Christ Child Hats have been a passport to fashion and the Les Chapeaux Booth continues to uphold this reputation with a wide variety of new, original styles.

No Carnival would be complete without a booth of Yesterday's Treasures. Members have been collecting many choice items through the spring and summer months.

All these booths will be set amid the country store atmosphere of turn of the century Americana. Red, white and blue bunting will be adorned with golden eagles. Jacobson's of Birmingham will present models wearing fashions direct from New York in a charming country store setting.

Christ Child's black tie ball will follow the same weekend of November 2 at the Detroit Golf Club and carry the same decorating theme of early Americana. Music will be by Al
Navarro's orchestra.

Celebrating Top Drawer's First Birthday

Observing the first anniversary of Top Drawer, Christ Child Society's Boutique Shop in "The Village," are,
co-chairman, MRS. JOHN SCHAFFER, volunteer chairman, and MRS. JAMES LEMHAGEN, chairman of the shop.

PEA Workshop Hears Counselor

"Women today seem to doubt their own validity as people and attempt to gain their principle
satisfactions through the lives of their husbands and children,"
Dr. John W. Hudson, psychotherapist and marriage counselor with the Merrill-Palmer Institute, yesterday told more than 100 women attending the Eastern Regional Workshop of Parent Education Associates
meeting at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

"It is not surprising then," he continued, "that so many of these women feel trapped, suffer from 'cabin fever' because it is not possible to achieve real personal fulfillment by living someone else's life. Women are trapped by our culture's definition of 'what a good girl is.'"

"While recognizing how our culture affects our self-image," he went on, "women need to understand that, in a sense, this is a monster of their own creation. The trapped mother still trains her daughters to view themselves as second-class citizens, and teaches her husband and sons to think in this way,
as well.

"Today's woman must develop a more rational philosophy of life," Dr. Hudson emphasized,
"which will place her center
of gravity within herself and will acknowledge without guilt
her own personal needs for fulfillment.

"One corrective influence,"
he added, "would be less talk about alleged male superiority and the tendency to equate what is really important in life with those things that men do, ideas which are oriented in our materialistic culture and the necessity to get ahead. In considering the male and female roles," he pointed out, "it is not a question of better or worse
but the fact that each is complementary to the other.

"Advances in our society have been made not so much through competition as through cooperation. Women must learn to think of themselves as individuals alongside of men, who feel free to accept the challenge of dedicating themselves to whatever personal goals their inner needs most truly dictate."

Parent Education Associates
is an organization sponsored by the Education Section of the Michigan Department of Mental Health and under the leadership of Miss Esther L. Middlewood, Section Chief. It offers a three-year program in lay leadership training in the areas of child growth and development, family relationships, and the positive aspects of mental health.

Those trained hope to serve their communities, not as professionals, but as persons knowledgeable in program presentation and discussion techniques who are available to meet with parents in small groups and gypsy violinist composer of yesteryear, Janos Bihari.

Ballets Bihari brings together a sextet of spirited dancers and an ensemble of fiery gypsy instrumentalist playing violin, clarinet, cimbalom, bass and harmonium, all in costume, and all prepared to regale their audiences with a program of Hungarian folk and classical ballet numbers, with original choreographies by Karoly Barta

Miss Risdon Says Vows to Mr. Korte

Bride Wears White Peau de Soie Trimmed With Seed Pearls and Chantilly Lace For Saturday Morning Ceremony in Sacred Heart Church, Dearborn

In Sacred Heart Church, Dearborn, Saturday morning, Nancy Jane Risdon, daughter of Mrs. James F. Daly, of Dearborn, and Charles R. Risdon, Jr., of Park lane, spoke her marriage vows to Michael Bernard Korte. The bride chose a gown of white peau de soie and a flared skirt and a chapel train, its bodice trimmed in seed pearls and chantilly lace. A tiny lace crown caught her illusion veil, and she carried Eucharis lilies with a detachable orchid corsage.

Maid of honor Gale Jackson and bridesmaids Christine Palombi and La Fray Taylor were gowned alike in gold satin with floor-length overskirts. They carried bouquets of pom poms in varying shades of bronze, cascading in Hogarth curves.

Mr. Korte, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael A. Korte, Jr., of Inkster, asked Ronald A. Korte to serve as his best man. Usher-ing were Charles R. Risdon, III, and Russell W. Risdon.

Mr. McElroy Weds In West

Beverly Sue Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Jones, of Colorado Springs, Colo., was married to William R. McElroy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence McElroy, of Birch lane, on September 7, at First Methodist Church, Colorado Springs. Dr. Ben F. Lehmsberg performed the double ring ceremony.

Baskets of white gladioli and blue carnations and candelabra formed the setting for the ceremony. The center aisle pews were marked with satin bows and foliage.

The bride wore a gown of silk peau de soie appliqued with re-embroidered Alencon lace. The sleeves were long and pointed over the wrists and the skirt was made with a flat front applique with Alencon lace.

The full back flowed into a chapel train, and her elbow length veil of silk illusion was held by a crown of Alencon lace in leaf design. She carried white roses and stephanotis centered with Bi-fovia corsage.

Marilyn Jones was maid of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Patricia Hannon, Peggy Hunton, Dorothe Pipkin, all of Denver, and Miss LaVada Van Wey, of Canon City.

The maid of honor wore a sheath of Lucerne blue satin with full-back overskirt and the bridesmaids wore identical dresses in royal blue. Each carried a colonial bouquet of blue carnations.

May Gibson, of Denver, the flower girl, wore a frock of blue nylon over taffeta, with matching taffeta cummerbund, and carried a white basket of petals. Master Bobby Hunton, of Denver, was ring bearer.

Larry McElroy attended his brother as best man. Ushers were John McElroy and Frank Costanza of Gunnison, Colorado.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Jones chose a waltz-blue satin sheath and a pillbox of matching net. Mrs. McElroy wore a sheath of turquoise silk with white accessories.

The newlyweds spent their honeymoon at Glenwood Springs and Aspen in the Colorado mountains and will live in Gunnison, Colorado, where Mr. McElroy is a student at Western State College.

Attending the wedding from Grosse Pointe were Jack Reynolds, Tom Schultz and Doug Blatt.

League Offers UN Leaflets

The Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters urges you to inquire about the United Nations. There is a series of six 4-page leaflets on this subject available to the public at the Grosse Pointe Public Library (Kercheval at Fisher road).

The series titles follow: (1) The United Nations — The Changing Scene; (2) Who Cares for Peace; (3) Dollar Doldrums of the U.N.; (4) The Search for Disarmament; (5) Passport to Progress — Development Decade; and (6) A Tale of Two Communities.

The leaflets are published by the National LWV which has supported the United Nations system from its beginning. . . . Out of the 1945 summer conference of world leaders held in San Francisco grew the United Nations of which the raison d'etre is "keeping the Peace."

This job of maintaining world peace was viewed in the beginning as threefold: "To lessen the causes of conflict; to provide alternative methods of settling conflict; and to prevent conflict from escalating to war."

Spicer-Bodor Betrothal Told

At a cocktail party in their Birmingham road home Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Laszlo Bodor announced the engagement of their daughter, Lisa, to Nicholas Goodenough Spicer, son of Mr. and Mrs. William John Spicer, of Farmington.

Miss Bodor is the granddaughter of Mrs. Monica Weadcock Porter, of Ridge road, and the late J. Henry Porter. Her paternal grandparents are the late Baron and Baroness Sugen Bodor, of Sebes, Transylvania.

She received her bachelor of arts degree in education from the University of Chicago last June, and is currently teaching at the Riverside School in Monroe, Mich. While attending the University, she was a member for three years of the Esoteric Club, and for three years did volunteer nursing at Bobo Roberts Children's Clinic at Billings Hospital.

Mr. Spicer is the grandson of Mrs. Lumen Webster Goodenough and the late Mr. Goodenough, and of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Spicer. He was graduated from Bowdoin College and took his law degree from the University of Michigan last June.

A member of the law fraternity Phi Delta Phi, he is associated with the law firm of Emery, Parsons, Bahr, Tennent and Hogan of Birmingham and Detroit.

The engagement links four Detroit legal families. Miss Bodor is the great granddaughter of T. A. E. Weadcock, a United States congressman from the Cleveland area and later justice of the Michigan Supreme Court, and the great granddaughter of George Flagg Porter, one of the founders of the law firm Joy and Porter, well-known in Detroit in the 1830's, 40's and 50's.

Mr. Spicer's maternal grandfather, Lumen Webster Goodenough, was an outstanding Detroit attorney for many years, and his paternal grandfather, Charles P. Spicer, founded and served as vice president of the Detroit Trust Company.

The couple plan a June wedding.

Letters to the Editor

 "benefit school revenue" are other attempts to suggest delay. I am certain the voters of Grosse Pointe recognize that either or both of these possibilities are unrealistic or too nebulous upon which to operate a school system. Moreover, the assertion that the "proposed" new tax program in Michigan provides a 1 per cent income tax for the schools is plainly false.

If and when school revenue becomes available from other sources which will make it possible for the school board to levy less real estate taxes, the record is already well-established that modifications of locally authorized rates have and will be made. This year, for instance, we are levying one mill less than has been authorized simply because reassessments of property values would produce more revenue than the Board required to meet its budget. We will do the same again IF and WHEN the situation permits. Meanwhile, we need the wholehearted support of the community in authorizing the 14 mills being sought in next Monday's election.

Sincerely,
ROBERT K. WHITELEY,
 Grosse Pointe Board of Education

To the Editor:

It seems rather out of keeping with News policy to endorse a project before the facts have been fully developed. However, since you have supported the Bon Secours Hospital expansion, I think you should give all the facts. The first step should be a full printing of Dr. Bourke's original report.

The hospital has been a good neighbor and I have been a contributor to it in a small way in recent years. The controversy over expansion has been a painful experience for me. If the hospital expands, I suppose I would benefit from lower taxes immediately and suffer only if I sold my house. However, the Grosse Pointes are all in the same school district and school taxes are more than half my total real estate taxes.

One of the conflicts in my mind is whether the expansion would contribute to the deterioration of Grosse Pointe City and, because of its central location, all the Grosse Pointes.

The answer to this question probably rests with the full development of the project. The principal reason for my opposition in 1960 was that the hospital's public relations would not divulge their full plans. They might have been harmless; or they might have wrecked the community. No one will ever know. The case was badly handled.

The presentation recently sent to the community at first reading seemed to answer the principal objections. Careful reading however, indicates that many of the objectionable aspects are still possible.

The issue of full disclosure of plans stands at the same place as it did in 1961, the nicely prepared presentation notwithstanding.

If there has been full disclosure of plans to the Grosse Pointe News and the methods of being sure they are final revealed, it is the duty of the newspaper to make them public. I am sure some members of the advisory board, if not all, would favor the principle of full disclosure.

I am hoping the hospital's relations will see fit to follow a full disclosure policy this time—make the facts available to the Grosse Pointe News and to all the Grosse Pointes.

Does it not seem reasonable that full disclosure would settle a situation none of us like?

Very truly yours,
 Geo. A. Nicholson Jr.
 1017 Cadieux Road

To the Editor:

In all public hearings pertaining to the proposed plan of expansion of Bon Secours Hospital, little has been heard officially from the Medical Staff of the Hospital. As President of the Medical Staff, I should therefore like to take this opportunity to provide information which I trust may help the residents of the City of Grosse Pointe in deliberating the issue of November 5.

The voters of Grosse Pointe City have been requested by their Council to express an opinion on an action that will of certainty affect the future of Bon Secours Hospital and their community. That your Councilmen have sought opinion from its constituents is commendable. It is in every sense a democratic action worthy of your support.

As a point of information, I should like to point out that the Medical Staff of Bon Secours Hospital was organized in November, 1944. It is a self-governing body, organized to conform with established by-laws, rules and regulations. THE PURPOSE OF ORGANIZATION as set forth in its by-laws is:

1. "To insure that all patients admitted to the Hospital or treated in the Out-Patient Department receive the best possible care."

2. "To provide a means whereby problems of medico-administrative nature may be discussed by the Medical Staff with the Governing Board and the Administration."

 3. "To initiate and maintain self-government."
 4. "To provide education and maintain educational standards."

Thus, the pattern was established nineteen years ago that this Hospital in the interest of better patient care should "provide education and maintain educational standards."

Following a trend of decentralization that affected many segments of American life in the post war era, there came an increasing demand from the public for the services of this Hospital. This sudden growth too created a need for 24 hour professional care of patients by intern physicians, if the quality of service was to be maintained at a high level. To fulfill our PURPOSE therefore, the Medical Staff embarked on an Educational Program that has had remarkable success. I should emphasize that this program is in every sense a voluntary effort, performed unselfishly without remuneration and perpetuated by your own physicians dedicated to the principle of improved medical care. In 1945 Bon Secours Hospital had no approved Internship. Because of our excellent teaching program it currently enjoys a full quota of Interns and Resident Physicians in approved surgical and medical training programs. The Medical Staff of this Hospital believes that failure to support expansion plans of the Hospital will seriously impair this program.

It should be a sense of pride to our communities that graduates of our own State Medical Schools, the Universities of Nebraska and Ottawa, Canada, have seen fit to select our program. This is no idle boast for currently a large percentage of approved Internships in the United States are not being filled.

Finally, I should like to remind you of the progress and ever changing patterns in the practice of Medicine. The indications for hospital admission and the scope of diagnostic procedures have expanded considerably in the last decade. This is Medical Progress that the Public rightfully demands and to which it is entitled. These conditions have already overtaken the available beds and laboratory facilities of the Hospital.

THE MEDICAL STAFF URGES YOU TO VOTE YES ON YOUR BALLOT NOVEMBER 5th.

Robert G. Swanson, M.D.
 President of the Staff of Bon Secours Hospital

To the Editor:

I hope someone will kindly explain to me the difference these days between a native-born citizen and a natural-born American citizen. I thought I understood and knew the difference between "native-born and natural-born," but it seems I am as confused on this issue as are so many citizens.

Governor Romney's name is constantly in the news as a possible Presidential candidate. The Constitution of the United States in the days that I studied Constitutional Government, stated, "The President must be a native-born citizen," the only office in the Country of which this was a qualification in the original Constitution. In the twelfth Amendment the requirements for the lesser office was distinctly stated.

Some few years back, when my daughter was studying "American Government," I recall she too studied, "The constitution provides that the Chief executive must be a native-born citizen of the United States—at least thirty-five years of age, and a resident of the United States for at least fourteen years."

Native-born, as I understand the word means, "One born in a place or country. One whose parents have their domicile in a place."

Natural-born—according to the Oxford Universal Dictionary states, "Having a specified position or character by birth." There is a great difference in the true meaning of the above terms.

The original Constitution made sure this qualification was understood and there was a time when the word "native-born" meant exactly what it said.

I recall hearing said some years ago that Mr. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., could not run for the high office of the President of the United States because he could not meet the qualifications. The reason given was that Mr. F. D. Roosevelt, Jr., was born outside of the United States. I believe he was born in Canada.

Mr. Romney as we all know was born in Mexico. His parents or grandparents came under the Edmund-Tucker Act—1887—At that time many Mormons went to Mexico to live. In Utah, some of the Mormons could not act as jurors. In Idaho, some could not be citizens of the state, and I believe the election machinery was taken away from them all. This was back in 1887.

It is now 1963. I would like to know if the Constitution of the United States has been changed as to the office of President. If Mr. Romney's parents and grandparents were American citizens in good standing while in Mexico at the time of his birth, and if it is true that Mr. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., because of the place of his birth, is not eligible to the high office of President. If the above is true, and I have heard this said quite often over the years, why does it not apply to Mr. Romney also? Both of these gentlemen were born outside of the United States in other countries.

I hope someone will clear this up for me. So many find this question confusing. Thank you.

Prison Parolee In New Trouble

Jerry A. Moore, 27, of 1468 Wayburn, accused of assault and battery, was found guilty by Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger, at a court hearing held Tuesday evening, October 15.

The judge ordered Moore to pay a fine of $25, or serve five days in the Wayne County Jail. The fine was paid.

Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers said that Moore, a Jackson Prison parolee, was convicted of assaulting Mrs. Sue Wilson of 1468 Wayburn, whose house faces Wayburn. Moore's home is at the rear of the property.

Mrs. Wilson charged that Moore, during a quarrel with his wife, pulled a telephone off the wall of his home, and hit her (Mrs. Wilson) on the foot with it, when she sought to intervene.

When she ran from Moore's home, to the rear of her own, Mrs. Wilson said, she sought to block Moore's entry into her house, where he chased Mrs. Moore.

Mrs. Wilson charged that Moore pushed her down and injured her back and right shoulder, and tore some of her clothing.

Patrolman George McDowell who was dispatched to the Wayburn address, arrested Moore when he tried to escape. Chief Louwers said that Moore, who was on parole from a robbery armed sentence, has been referred to his parole officer, because of possible violation of his parole.

Service Station Visited by Thief

A Park gas station was burglarized during the night of Sunday, October 20, by a thief who apparently knew just where to look for the day's receipts.

James Hagen of 22978 Rose-dale, St. Clair Shores, proprietor of Hagen's Service Station, Barrington and Jefferson, called Park police when he discovered the break-in and theft, after opening for the day.

Det. Lt. Arnold Hough said that entry into the gas station was accomplished by breaking the glass of an overhead door, tripping the lock and raising the door.

The lieutenant said that the robber took $162 hidden in the coke machine and approximately $67.50 from a cash register. The building before being forced open and emptied.

Investigating officers said they recovered the register in the rear yard of 975 Barrington, where it was left by the burglar.

Hagen told police that he had hidden the money in the pop machine because he thought it was a safe place. The money in the cash register was the start of Sunday's business, he said.

Hough said that a suspect, who had been involved in the burglary of the station several weeks before, is the most logical suspect.

The man, who has a prison record, was questioned and released, but ordered to return for further questioning.

Car Hits Pole; Driver Ticketed

Kenneth M. Piper, 27, of 194 Moran, was given a violation ticket on Tuesday, October 15, after his car ran into an Edison light pole in front of 256 Moran.

Farms Patrolmen Guy Lyford and Joseph Belanger said that when they arrived at the scene, it appeared that Piper was unconscious, and they radioed for the Fire Department emergency ambulance. However, the officers said, when firemen arrived, the motorist had recovered.

The officers said that they believed Piper had fallen asleep at the wheel, while driving south on Moran. They took Piper home, where they gave him a violation ticket for not having his car under control.

Damage to Piper's car was estimated at about $75. Damage to pole was not disclosed.

who, where and whatnot

by whoozit

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Ethridge, of Washington road, have just completed a divine family room in their basement. Acoustical ceiling, vinyl tile and grasscloth wallpaper with accents of beige and tangerine make a perfect backdrop for black framed family pictures and rows of books. The two did the whole thing themselves—including wiring for overhead lights—starting from an open concrete cellar. It was a two-year job... Mark claims he never saw the Pointe's summer or fall, relaxed from his do-it-yourself work by reading Ian Fleming.

Mrs. Robert Rigger, a magnificent cook, delights luncheon guests with an unusual lobster salad which is soaked liberally in GIN.

"Fifteen miles on the Erie Canal!"... so the song goes, but Jim Gagne and the crew of Imperial IV made considerably more mileage. With a complement of three, including Pointer Paul Moreland, past commodore of the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, Skipper Gagne set off in early October to take the family's 55-foot constellation south for the winter. Earl Fraser, GPYC's current commodore, flew down to Buffalo, where he joined the motley company in mid-voyage—making Imperial IV possibly the only ship in history to number two commodores as crew members. Actual boating time to Norfolk, Va., was eight days; the crew dispersed after a day's vacation in New York City; Jim returned to the Pointe, flew back last week-end to pilot Imperial IV farther south, came home again for a week's work, and flies south today to take the boat into final harbor at Pompano. Mrs. Gagne, who waited out the first stages of the fall odyssey in North Deaplends road, plans to be aboard when Imperial IV docks in Florida... would like to sign on as "cook" for the return voyage, possibly via the Mississippi.

For the third year Boy Scout Troop 74, Richard School, is sponsoring a door-to-door pumpkin sale just prior to Halloween. On Saturday, October 26, scouts will peddle their edible wares throughout the Pointe area. This year, the boys received exceptionally reasonable pre-sale instructions: "Three tons of pumpkin is too much for any pie. Just come back with them sold for Halloween. You will enjoy the campouts they provide much MUCH more!"

Among the many exquisite arrangements noted at the Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan annual exhibit, held in the Charles W. Warren and Company galleries last week: The Hunt Board, created by Mrs. E. W. Frank, of Fisher road, using as centerpiece a Royal Worcester Foxhunter by famed sculptor Doris Lindner, its colors picked up in an arrangement of birch bark, sumac, white pine and love apples. Mrs. Frank is not the only flower-lover in the Frank family—her husband, an avid gardener, is president of the Rose Society.

Billy's mother was angry. "Didn't I tell you not to play over there in the dump?" she demanded. "Don't you know it's full of germs that could make you sick?" "But mother," Billy protested indignantly, "I don't play with GERMS!"

Canteen Conversation

By Rick Mills

(Editor Note: This is the first in a series of columns by Pointe teenager Rick Mills, conversations at the non-denominational Teen Canteen sponsored by Grosse Pointe Memorial Church and the Neighborhood Club. Ideas, opinions, fads and fancies—anything of interest to young Grosse Pointers—will be discussed and dissected here weekly. Parents also take note: The first column concerns you. Teens with items or notices to submit to the column can contact Rick at TU 2-6400)

Parents are people to lean on when you're in trouble. They will laugh with you when you are happy, answer questions when you don't understand. We "yell" at them when we're angry, we cry with them when we're unhappy. They're always there when we need them and sometimes they're there when we think we don't need them. But most of all, parents are to love and be loved. They try, in many ways, to teach their children to become useful, helpful adults of future generations. In this article are suggested ideas from teenagers about how parents should go about molding their children into happy, useful adults.

How strict should parents be about homework? Carol Cerutti says: "I definitely think that parents should know whether or not the teen is doing his work and if he isn't, then the parents should make him start studying. They shouldn't make him slave over his work and harp at him to do it but if he is just watching TV or wasting time, then they should make him study."

Bob Simon answers: "If the boy has shown he can do his work without being supervised then he should be left on his own to do it. But if not, then his parents should step in and restrict his activities until he gets his work done."

Should parents give a weekly allowance? How much? Bob says: "Parents should give a teenager some amount of money a week so he will learn to have a sense of values. If he needs a loan once in a while, all right, but this shouldn't happen too often."

Jane Peebles thinks: "The parent and the teen should sit down and try to decide how much money the teen will need a week according to his needs and the financial situation of the family."

Should parents have anything to do with whom you date? Carol replies: "If my parents are so strongly for or against a person I am dating, then I think they are a better judge of character than I, at this point, and I usually take their advice."

Jane says: "Unless a person wants to go out with someone with a really bad reputation, parents should leave it up to the teenager."

How about the family car? Bob says: "Parents should judge whether or not to let their son use the car according to how much responsibility he has shown on and off the road."

Do you take your problems to your parents and do they realize these problems mean a lot to you? Mike Cooper answers: "I don't take my problems to my parents. I used to seek their advice but I didn't like it, so now I try to solve my problems myself." Carol says: "I think parents realize that kids do have big problems of their own. After all, they were kids once themselves."

As long as communication lines are open between teenagers and parents, there are few problems that cannot be solved.

Detroit Sorosis to Meet With Mrs. Harold Davis

"The European Common Market" will be discussed at the next meeting of Detroit Sorosis, on Tuesday, November 5, at the Harcourt road home of Mrs. Harold S. Davis.

Speaker will be Mrs. Cella G. Tuorell, who was graduated from Eastern High School, received A.B. and A.M. degrees from the University of Michigan, and taught History at Eastern High for 20 years. The new president, Mrs. J. Mills, will preside.

By Janet Mueller

The Hungarian Revolution is seven years old this week. On October 23, 1956, fighting broke out in Budapest; less than three months later the guns were silent. The people—those who remained—went quietly about their daily business.

But 200,000 Hungarians, one-fifth of the country's population, did not remain. Among those who crossed the border into Austria one bleak December night was Dr. Laszlo Boehm. His wife, Magda, her first husband, and their son, John Knapp, comprised a family group of refugees.

Dr. Boehm is Music Director for Wayne State University Radio and Television. Magda works and studies at Wayne (her husband says she is an A-plus student). John, 13, a typical "apple-pie" American—except that he is fluent in two languages, English and Hungarian, studies two others, French at school, Latin at home with his mother—attends Pierce Junior High.

Career Is Accident
All were born in Hungary. The Professor's ancestry includes a flute player in Haydn's Orchestra and the inventor of the E-flat Clarinet, but he terms his choice of a musical career "pure accident."

As a child, he went with his father to the Coronation Church of the Royal Castle of Buda, one of three cathedrals in the capital city that supports a full-time chorus and orchestra dedicated to the performance of Concert masses by major composers. He was fascinated by the organ, asked the music director for permission to sit with the chorus, and attended performances from then on, sitting in the choirloft every Sunday until he was 22.

Completing his Matura Examination (comparable to our B.A. Degree), Dr. Boehm attended the National Conservatory of Budapest for five years, majoring in organ, composition and conducting.

Was Chief Producer
He spent 10 years as chief producer and program manager for Hungarian Radio. Then, while completing his Ph.D. in art history at the University of Budapest, he was invited to spend two months in London in 1947 as a guest of the BBC.

Returning to Hungary, he turned down a request to join the Communist Party—and found himself out of a job. "Everything is wrong about communism," Dr. Boehm states. "As long as the artist conforms to the 'socialist theory' (a vast, vague concept defying definition; even people who judge by it don't seem to know what it is), his life is assured." Dr. Boehm points out that the state pays artists a regular salary and that, under communism, hundreds more books were published in Hungary than in pre-socialist times.

At Hungarian Radio, he received a salary plus royalties for special shows. Even after his dismissal, he was able to live quite well through freelance work, accepting commissions from the Hungarian Music Publishing Company.

Interviewed Bartok
He did the last radio interview with Bela Bartok before that composer left Hungary, and edited Bartok's work after his death; he worked with Kodaly; he wrote, conducted several orchestras, directed a music school.

Yet on December 7, 1956,

Magda's story parallels that of her husband. Dr. and Mrs. Boehm knew each other in Budapest, where she worked in music publishing and was an avid "listener." They met again in Vienna.

But Dr. Boehm received a U.S. entry permit, while Magda emigrated to Canada. They corresponded, determined to marry, and discovered that the Austro-Hungarian border is easier to cross than the U.S.-Canadian.

As newly-arrived resident aliens, neither could leave the adopted country. Finally, Dr. Boehm received permission to travel back and forth. He married Magda in Vancouver, brought her to Windsor, and regularly visited her across the river for a year, until the necessary U.S. entry permits were obtained.

Like Pointe Schools
Dr. and Mrs. Boehm and John are all United States residents now. John, a product of Grosse Pointe Public Schools, attended Troyly before Pierce. His parents express themselves as "extremely satisfied" with the Pointe System, say it compares favorably to any educational system on this continent, but term European education "more serious and more disciplined."

They like Detroit, but long for "a few mountains... even hills"—although Mrs. Boehm says, "Detroit is delightful, and even beautiful after you've seen New York!"

This summer, on a return

Eventually, Professor Donahay, full professor of piano and composition at Florida State University, welcomed Dr. Boehm to Tallahassee. There were language difficulties, cultural difficulties, even difficulties adjusting to the food.

Dr. Boehm spent one semester at Florida State as an auditive student, observing the first Americans teach. His first official appointment was as "Secretary and Typist," a strictly honorary title used to get him on the payroll.

He was invited by phone to become Music Director of Wayne State's WDET in 1958, accepted, and left the 10-watt university station in Florida for Wayne's 79,000-watt operation.

200 Hours Per Month
Currently, with one assistant, Dr. Boehm programs over 200 hours of music a month. He still writes; among his publications is the "Contemporary Musical Notation," published in this country, and many works in print in Hungary—with the author's name carefully omitted.

In 1949 we charged $2.75 for a shampoo and hair style... personalized Hair Cuts $2.00 and $3.00... Custom Permanents from $15.00. In a period of great inflation our prices for service by my expert staff have remained unchanged... my own prices are slightly higher.

Have you ever asked yourself if a permanent, or a hair cut at a certain time, or on a certain day is a good value if you don't really need it... that it might be wiser to have fewer perms of better quality. I doubt that any woman would dash out and have a tooth extracted... or have surgery she did not need merely to take advantage of a "special offer" for a limited time only. Beautiful hair is part of you, a priceless possession... treat it kindly!

pinch of pepper
1 teaspoon soy sauce
Cook sliced mushrooms slowly in skillet with butter, stirring until browned. Add washed bean sprouts, salt and pepper. Mix carefully. Cover and cook 15 minutes over low heat, turning every 5 minutes. Add soy sauce and serve. Makes six servings.

visit to Europe, the professor and his wife found out exactly how happy they are in the United States. Prior to departure, they had to produce 60 photographs, 12 for a French visa alone, and Dr. Boehm can hardly wait until next May when he becomes eligible for citizenship and its concomitant benefit: freedom of travel without reams of paperwork beforehand.

Renew Old Friendships
Abroad, they renewed old friendships, visited the Kieslinger-Sleyter family, met several people who had left Hungary at the same time as themselves, but elected to stay in Europe.

They describe Hungarians in European countries as vaguely unhappy—largely because they feel themselves exiled from their new country as well as their old. America, the Boehms find, accepts people better, absorbs them.

If there were a change in regime, Dr. and Mrs. Boehm would not return to Hungary. "The country changed and grew without us," Mrs. Boehm says. Hungary is no longer their home. They are Americans.

The Sportive Look... at Leon's Boutique, 17888 Mack Avenue, features the season's favorite turtle-neck and jacket-sweaters. They top slender pants in fabulous colors and fabrics. Lots of good looking ensembles and casual dresses... a few long versions of country elegance in the collection. Also... hi-fashion furs... in the newest pull-over and coat-dress styles at buyable prices!

Sugar And Spice... and everything nice is the charming fabric sculpture set in two slender frames. We admired it at The Top Drawer, 17007 Kercheval in the Village, one flight up. Other fabric sculpture included Forget-Me-Not and Aster arranged in frames on a green velvet ribbon.

Gallery Gazing... among the twenty-five paintings by James Plesh on view at Les Galleries de Renee, 14944 East Jefferson, there is such a wide variety of subject matter... Seaport, White Roses, City, Man Around The Corner. We know you'll enjoy the show that runs through November fifteenth.

Right Before Your Eyes... you see your new Mutschler Kitchen take shape. From blue prints to a specially prepared decorating brochure, everything is graphically prepared. Mutschler provides you with custom coordinated wall color, counter top, floor covering, drapery fabric... everything to make the picture complete. See the models at 30489 Mack Avenue.

This 'N' That For Pets... 19443 Mack Avenue shows off their puppies for sale in a Pupples Palace... where little Poodles and Schnauzers are treated royally while waiting for a home. No wonder they like to return for grooming and to pick out a toy once in a while.

Landmark... The Notre Dame Pharmacy is the oldest pharmacy in the Village with one of the finest reputations for fast, friendly service. Prescriptions are filled expertly and delivered promptly.
