HEADLINES of the WEEK As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, December 12
THE PENTAGON will close 35 military installations by October, 1966, cutting about 75,000 out of a job. Deputy Secretary of Defense, Roswell Gilpatric, revealed the plans to members of the New York congressional delegation. It is expected that Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara will make an official announcement in a day or so. Seven of the installations are in New York state, but aides of Michigan Congressmen reported that there was no indication at this time that any Michigan installations will be involved.

Friday, December 13
MRS. JOHN F. KENNEDY, widow of the late President, revealed that she plans to observe a full year of mourning. Her press secretary, Pamela Turner, said, that she will accept no public engagements during that period. Mrs. Kennedy further disclosed to President Johnson that she will take no part in the 1964 Presidential election. She is planning to spend Christmas in Palm Beach with the Kennedy family, as usual. She will go to Palm Beach with her two children about December 18, accepting the offer of Col. C. Michael Paul to use his home for the duration of her visit in the Florida resort.

Saturday, December 14
UNMANNED EXPLORATION of the moon has been curtailed by the Space Agency, by cancelling five of the nine Ranger spacecraft flight plans. This means that the day the United States lands its first instruments on lunar surfaces will be delayed, as will the manned spacecraft planned for later in the 1960's.

Sunday, December 15
A LOS ANGELES DAM burst Saturday, sending a flood of water over a residential area and killing at least six persons. The full extent of the damage was impossible to determine. A steadily quickening leak gave police time to be aware of the impending flood and evacuate most residents in the area. Approximately 200 homes were destroyed and swept from their foundations by the rushing mass of water, and another 1,500 to 2,000 homes and apartments were damaged. Parked and moving cars were inundated and carried away like toys. One woman who was trapped in her car drowned. Another man died of a heart attack in his car. Within an hour, the area was designated as a disaster area.

Monday, December 16
MICHIGAN DEMOCRATS were approached by an aide to President Johnson about former Governor G. Mennen Williams running against Governor Romney in the 1964 gubernatorial election. The idea would be to avoid a split in the Democratic ranks. Clifford Carver who has been associated with the President's staff, talked with Mayor Cavanagh, former governor John B. Swainson, and David Leibenow, Wayne County Democratic chairman. Williams, now serving as an assistant secretary of state for African affairs, was governor of Michigan for six terms. President Johnson did not have the support of the Northern Democrats in his unsuccessful bid for the nomination against the late president John F. Kennedy, and he is anxious for the support of liberal Michigan Democrats and the United Auto Workers.

Tuesday, December 17
A TEN MILE ROAD ROUTE for the new Interstate 696 Freeway through the suburbs of southern Oakland county was chosen Monday by the State Highway Department. The decision was made by Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie. It will cut down 1,176 homes, 75 businesses, four factories and nine public buildings. The cost will be $114,458,000 and the project will be under way in 1967. The section will pass through ten cities and Royal Oak Township.

Service Girls Find Many Ways to Serve

All Six Speakers Re-confirm Their Acceptances; State Party Heads to be Followed by National Figures and Editors

The lecture series planned for early January at the Fries Auditorium of the War Memorial Center is scheduled to go ahead as originally arranged. All the speakers who agreed to speak have confirmed their engagements.

The series, "Politics... 1964," will begin Tuesday evening, January 7, with successive lectures every Tuesday night through February 11.

The first speaker will be Zoltan A. Ferency, Democratic State Chairman. He will discuss candidates and issues as related to Michigan. The Rev. Bertram deHeus Atwood, minister of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, will give the invocation that evening.

Other speakers will be Arthur B. Elliott, Jr., Republican State Chairman who will also discuss state candidates and issues. The Rev. James D. Nixon, pastor of the Grosse Pointe Methodist Church, will give the invocation that night, January 14.

Fast Driving Ends Pair's Crime Career

Nabbed After 80-Mile Chase; Belanger Sets $20,000 Bond

A traffic violation arrest Wednesday morning, December 11, following an 80-mile an hour chase through Grosse Pointe Park streets, ended the criminal careers of two Detroit men, both of whom confessed to numerous burglaries and armed robberies, according to information released by Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers.

Arrested and held for investigation were Donald Asher, 22, of 4103 Cicotte, and Joseph L. Harvath, 24, of 8694 Carlin, in whose car police found a telephone that had been ripped from the wall of a construction shack on the grounds of St. Clare de Montefalco School, Charlevoix and Audubon, where a new school addition is being built.

The pair were arraigned before Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger on the date of their arrest. They stood mute and waived examination. The judge found sufficient cause for a trial and ordered Asher and Harvath placed under $20,000 bond each.

The accused men were remanded to the Wayne County Jail in default of bond, to await a trial date in the Wayne County Circuit Court.

Officers Spot Car

At 1:14 a.m. on Wednesday, Patrolmen Gustave Boone and Bobby McAllister, while on patrol duty on Charlevoix, saw a car with two men in it, doing 40 miles an hour on the avenue, and gave chase.

The driver of the car, on observing the police cruiser, made a fast turn onto Bedford, still going 40 miles an hour.

Boone and McAllister said that in the effort to escape, the driver of the other car increased his speed from 40 to 80 miles an hour, dodging through several streets and avenues, trying to lose them.

The officers said that they made several attempts to force the driver to stop, but were unsuccessful. However, during the chase, Boone and McAllister radioed their position from time to time, enabling other scout car units to converge in the area.

Woods Group Exceeds Quota of $2,000 for First Time; Other Pointes Give $5,079

The Pointe responded generously during the Goodfellow Newspaper Sales on Monday, December 16, it was disclosed by the chairman of the Grosse Pointe Lions and Grosse Pointe Woods Lions Clubs.

Collections exceeded those of last year, with the Woods Club exceeding its quota of $2,000.

The Grosse Pointe Lions Goodfellow salesmen turned in a total of $5,079.25 on Monday, as compared to $4,851.95 collected in the 1962 sales. The goal this year, as was that of last year, was $10,000.

Ralph Martin, who served as chairman of the Grosse Pointe Lions drive for the past five years, expressed his thanks to the police and fire personnel of the Park, City, Farms and Shores, for the tremendous help they rendered in selling papers.

COMPANIES CONTRIBUTE

He also expressed his thanks for himself and on behalf of his organization to the Pfeiffer Brewery company, Jacobi. Since 1904, and Verdonck Bakery, for their contributions of refreshments during and after the sales, especially at the party given for the Goodfellows, which was held at Al Green's, Jefferson and Beaconsfield.

Martin said that his organization has a big job to do this year, and the coming year, and is in hopes that people will be generous with their contributions through the mail, checks, money orders, or money can be mailed to him at 15439 Mack avenue, Detroit, Mich. 48214.

DRIVE HELPS MANY

He said all funds collected in the sales drive and those received in the mail, will be used for the blind, for needy Pointe families, and other civic activities to which his organization is pledged.

Theodore Jones, chairman of the Woods Lions Club, disclosed that his group went over its quota of $2,000, and collected $2,171.09, the highest amount received since his club began selling papers five years ago. Last year, the club collected $1,848.50.

He expressed his thanks to the personnel of the Woods Public Safety Department, including Capt. Don Coats, whose aid in selling newspapers helped put the drive over the top.

8 Cases Heard In City Court

Eight cases were heard in Justice Court December 10 by Judge Douglas A. Peterson.

Douglas Wiley Harmon, 346 Belanger, was found guilty of speeding and fined $25.

Richard W. Cardtz, 315 Rivard, was found not guilty of the charge of not having his car under control. The case was dismissed.

George Wilfred Hope, 21232 Evergreen court, St. Clair Shores, pled guilty to the charge of being a disorderly person and was fined $100 and put on one year's probation.

George Maropoulos, of 658 Neff road, was fined $25 for allowing his dog to run at large, leading to a dog bite. He was put on three months' probation.

David Cecil Fleck, of 973 Balfour, pled guilty to reckless driving leading to an accident. He was found guilty of driving without due care and caution and fined $10.

D. K. Hume of 461 University place was found guilty of harboring a nuisance leading to a dog bite and fined $10.

James David Totz of 952 Washington road was found guilty of speeding and fined $75. He was put on six months probation and barred from pleasure driving.

Gary Leroy Clements of 1435 Lochmoor boulevard was found guilty of being a disorderly person and fined $15. He was put on probation for one year and may not drive for 30 days.

Will Light Center Tree This Sunday

Community Ceremony Starts at Fries Auditorium at 2:30; All Residents Invited

The annual Tree Lighting ceremony will be held at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center Sunday, December 22. A family Christmas program will be held in the afternoon in conjunction with the event.

The program will begin in Fries Auditorium at 2:30 instead of the usual 3:30 in order not to conflict with Church services.

A special performance of the Grosse Pointe's Children's Theater will be the Christmas play "The Cradle." The Center's young people's ballet troupe will also entertain that afternoon. They will present an Icyde Ballet, do a Santa's helper routine and act out the parts of golliwogs and dolls.

The movie, "The Christmas Carol," narrated by Vincent Price, will also be shown. In addition, carols will be sung by the Grosse Pointe Men's Chorus, after which everyone will be welcome in the Crystal Ballroom to meet Santa Claus, who will, with the assistance of his helpers, be passing out favors to the children.

'Cat Burglar' Scare Brings Inquiries on Home Burglar Alarms; Police Offer Advice

Interested Residents Urged to Contact Local Authorities, or BBB Before Device Installations

A number of residents who have expressed a desire to install home burglar alarms, as a result of the activities of the "cat burglar," have been calling their police departments for advice, it was revealed by the five Pointe police chiefs on Tuesday, December 17.

However, not all residents have sought advice in the matter, the chiefs stated. Some people have ordered home alarms installed without checking to first determine if the companies hired to put in the alarms are reputable firms.

The chiefs hastened to point out that there are many trustworthy firms engaged in this field, but they said, there are some unscrupulous people who take advantage of a "scare" situation and charge a fee in excess of what is reasonable.

Debris in Street Blows Two Tires

Everett L. Ball of 20751 Coleman, Mt. Clemens, notified City Police December 10 at 4 p.m. of an accident at East Jefferson and Washington road.

Mr. Ball was traveling east on Jefferson, following another car and moved into the other lane in order to pass it.

He did not see a cement object in the road and hit it, blowing both tires and damaging both rims. The object may have fallen from a truck working on the wrecking of the nearby mansion owned by William Ford, the former Frederick M. Alger residence.

The foreman of the Monarch Wrecking Company was contacted and he agreed to get in touch with the complainant.

Trio Bilk Park Woman; Police Warning Issued

Warrants charging three "John Does" with larceny by trick, were approved by the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office, according to information released by Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers on Monday, December 16. The trio are accused of taking $180 from a Park woman for work that was not done.

The warrants were obtained on complaint of the woman, name withheld, who told police that the men came to her house on Wednesday, December 11, and told her that her chimney was defective and that they could repair it for a price.

The woman refused to discuss the matter, according to Chief Louwers, but the trio "badgered and badgered" her until she consented to having the work done.

The victim told police that about half an hour later, the

Tree Planting Program Set Up in Woods

Hope to Replace 500 Elms Lost to Dutch Disease; To Be Spring Project

A tree planting program in Grosse Pointe Woods, using four species of trees, will be undertaken in the early spring, with the expected cooperation of Woods property owners, it was disclosed by City Administrator Chester Petersen on Thursday, December 12. The program was recently approved by the Woods council.

If the citizens cooperate with the proposed replacement program, the city administrator said, at least 500 trees will be planted to replace elms lost to the Dutch Elm disease.

In recent years, he said, the Woods has lost innumerable elms located on the street right-of-way (between the sidewalk and curb), primarily because of the dread blight.

To Use Four Species

Four species of trees, Crimston King Norway Maple, Cleveland Norway Maple, Moraine Ash and Sunburst Honeylocust, and their planting will be offered to the property owners as a package unit and at a very nominal fee. These trees will be one and a half-inch to one and three quarter-inch in diameter and of a height of between eight and ten feet, possibly more, Petersen said.

The responsibility for the original planting and/or replacement of street trees has been left to the prerogative of the individual property owner.

In recent years, a large number of street trees have been lost because of the Dutch Elm Disease, or other reasons. Very few of these trees have been replaced by property owners, it was said.

Petersen said that he is of the opinion that trees are valuable assets to the community as well as to the property owners.

City Has Ordinance

A City Ordinance restricts the type and spacing of trees and the present subdivision regulations require the developer to plant trees between the sidewalk and curb, along the right-of-way, in any new subdivision. However, no requirements are made on either the property owner, or the city, for the replacement of any tree removed from the street right-of-way, he pointed out.

The property owners will pay a nominal cost for the purchase

Purse Snatching Occurs in City

Mrs. Mina Moffat of 904 Clair avenue reported December 11 at 6 p.m. that she was walking south on Neff road and saw a boy standing at the Charlevoix intersection.

She thought he was waiting for a bus, but as she approached him, he grabbed her purse, and in the ensuing struggle, knocked her to the ground breaking her glasses.

The boy was reported to be about 17 or 18 years old. The purse was black plastic and contained $4 or $5 in change, her Hudson charge plate, plus other identification cards and sundries.

Cornerstone for Liggett School Laid at Ceremony

It is rather rare that a graduating class should donate a cornerstone to its alma mater, but the 1963 graduating class of Liggett School did just that.

And on December 18, Miss Constance Wineman, President of the class, officiated at the cornerstone laying for the new Liggett School in Grosse Pointe Woods, using, by coincidence, the same silver trowel that was used 50 years ago at the cornerstone laying of the old Liggett School on Burns Avenue, in 1913.

Ceremonies were at 3:30 p.m. at the new Liggett School construction site, Wedgewood and Briarcliff Drive. William D. Gilbride, president of the board of trustees of Liggett School, was master of ceremonies. Special guests at the ceremonies were Dr. Katherine Ogden, who retires at the end of this school

Fast Driving Ends Pair's Crime Career

Asher and Harvath were taken into custody and driven to the station, where their car was searched and police found the telephone on the floor in the rear. It was determined that the phone was taken from the construction shack at St. Clare School.

Det. Lt. Stanley Enders and Det. James LaPratt began an immediate investigation of both men. They questioned Asher Harvath, who admitted taking the phone from the shack.

Confess Other Crimes
The detectives said that under questioning, the pair also confessed to burglaries and armed robberies in Detroit, Dearborn, Dearborn Township and Ferndale.

The pair also confessed to burglaries involving drug stores, dentists and doctor's offices, and a burglary in which they broke into a church and robbed the safe. Besides this, they said, they were responsible for "many, many" breakins of construction shacks from where they took telephones, ripped out the coin boxes, took the money and discarded the phones at other locations.

Asher and Harvath told Enders and LaPratt that the largest "haul" they made was in a street holdup in which they took $2,400 from a victim, and the second largest, was $1,000, taken from an unlocked safe in the church they broke into.

The confessed criminals said that they were involved in other crimes that netted them hundreds of dollars. They said they did not know the exact amount.

Chief Louwers said that authorities of Detroit, Dearborn, Dearborn Township, Ferndale and other communities in which armed robberies had occurred, had been notified of the arrest of Asher and Harvath.

The police of interested communities will place the two men in lineups for possible identification by holdup victims, especially those held up in gas stations, the chief said.

'Cat Burglar' Bilk Woman

Another result of this type of alarm, the chiefs said, is that some people, from time to time, may want to check to make sure the alarm is working, and police may make "false runs".

Should Be Private Job
The police heads were unanimous in a statement that the telephone-type alarm, which when set off, trips an automatic recording giving the address of the place possibly being burglarized, is best in the hands of companies dealing with protection of private properties.

These companies have elaborate switchboards that can handle multi-alarms at one time. If an alarm comes in, the switchboard operator can notify the local police department having jurisdiction in the community in which the home is located. Within a matter of a few brief moments, police can be notified and scout cars dispatched.

The chiefs reiterated that people should check with their local police departments, or the Better Business Bureau, before having burglar alarms installed. The police can recommend the best type of alarm to have installed, and the BBB can disclose the reputation of the firms hired to install them.

Last week, in a spot check of hardware and other stores dealing in hardware, it was found that the "cat burglar" scare has brought about a big increase in the sale of burglar proof locks, chain door guards, sliding door bolts and other safety devices. Proprietors of locksmith shops and hardware stores disclosed that they have received many orders to change door locks of a number of residences in the Pointe area.

will be served by the Center's Youth Council.

The large tree in the circle in front of the Alger House will be lighted at 5 o'clock with an appropriate ceremony given by the Youth Council officers. Prayers by clergymen of various faiths will be offered at that time.

All Pointe families are cordially invited, especially those with small children. The War Memorial is at 32 Lakeshore road. The entire program is being presented by the War Memorial Association in the Spirit of the Season.

REPORTS SHOPLIFTER

Mrs. JoAnne Vestal, an employee at Best and Company, in the Village, reported December 12 at 8 p.m. that a woman approximately 60 years of age walked out of the store with a woman's wool suit, red, size 10-12, and valued at $90, without paying for the merchandise.

The matter caused the chief to repeat a warning that he has made on several occasions, and that is that door-to-door soliciting is prohibited by a city ordinance. No one is allowed to seek work of any type in the Park by solicitation.

Any resident who is approached at his home for a job, or who is approached by any salesman, is urged to request to call police.

"I repeat, as I have done many times before," Chief Louwers said, "that when residents are approached by any type of solicitor, regardless of what is offered to be done, or what is offered for sale, call your police department immediately."

"Your policemen will be glad to investigate the solicitor and check him out at the scene. Just remember, door-to-door soliciting is prohibited by city ordinance. Please bear that in mind," the chief urged.

William T. Kriehoff company completed architectural work on the municipal building additions and alterations in the amount of $101,432.30, and was paid $33,055.25, as partial payment of the work. The firm will have received a total of $91,289.

Alban G. Brinkman company completed the mechanical work on the additions and alterations, in the amount of $46,117.77, and was paid $11,122 as partial payment, which makes the total paid to date of the firm $41,506.

The Maryland Electric company completed the electrical work on the building, amounting to $11,998.73, and received partial payment of $4,133, which makes the total paid to date on the work $10,798.91.

Begrow and Brown, architectural firm, which drew the plans for the alterations and additions, was paid the sum of $3,208.38.

The firm of Hubbell, Roth and Clark, Farms city engineers, certified that Brencal Contractors, Incorporated, had completed work on the addition to the Water Filtration Plant, Lake Shore and Moross, in the amount of $8,775, and was paid a partial payment of $7,897.50, making the total already received $8,775.

City Engineer Murray M. Smith certified that the firm of M. L. DeMeulenaere had completed the replacing of timbers and the re-setting of parking meters in the Kercheval avenue and Mack avenue parking lots, and recommended the company be paid $753.50 in full for the job.

Harry W. Moss and Sons submitted a bid of $3,000, the lowest of three offered, as the cost to the Farms for a jeep and a rotary broom attachment. City Manager Sidney DeBoer recommended the purchases at that price.

Skids Into Crash On Neff Road

The report of an accident in front of 825 Neff road, was taken by City Police Officers Edmund Benthuis and Gerard De Boever December 11 at 8:05 p.m.

A car driven by Thomas A. Muer, of 2051 Oxford road, was traveling south on Neff. He tried to stop to avoid hitting a car traveling north on Neff, driven by Eugene Wallace of 1091 Oxford road.

The Muer car slid toward the right and in an attempt not to hit a parked car, pulled to the left and hit the Wallace car. Mr. Muer was issued a ticket.

DRIVE BREAKS RECORD

A generous Detroit community has just chalked up a record-breaking 153 tons of discarded wearable clothing and shoes in the Public Schools Clothing Drive in November held under the auspices of the Detroit Public Schools Social Service, Inc., in cooperation with the Volunteers of America.

The city council is considering putting a large tree nursery on the grounds near the Department of Public Works garage at Marter road and Parkway drive. This could help cut down on the costs at some future right-of-way planting, Petersen said.

of, and planting of the trees. No guarantee of the plantings will be made, Petersen said.

Will Give Details

Details pertaining to the program, will be outlined in a future quarterly report to Woods citizens, for the benefit of those who may wish to participate in the project.

He said that he is optimistic that the program for the spring will see 500 trees planted.

He said that the city council, with an eye to the future, recently authorized the establishment of a small tree nursery at the lakefront park. Trees will be grown to replace those lost in the park and other public areas, he pointed out.

Caught Stealing Christmas Trees

A resident of St. Clair avenue called City Police December 14 at 12:57 a.m. and reported that three people in a 1963 Plymouth had stolen some Christmas trees from a lot west of 17320 Mack avenue and went south on St. Clair without lights. The car was apprehended at St. Paul and Cadieux and the driver and occupants were brought to the station. They were Roger Lawrence Houthoofd, 410 Newport, Detroit; James Dominic Lopiccolo, 14121 Averhill, Detroit; and a young woman. Further investigation revealed that the occupants had beer in the car and were consuming it. All the parties were held until $50 cash bond was posted.

Her Story To Be Published

A Saint Paul High School student has received word that her short story will be published in the "Catholic Digest" early in 1964. The student is Penny Morris of 89 Handy road. She submitted her short story to her senior English teacher, Sister Marie Timothy, O.P., as a class assignment.

The short story, "The Intruder," deals with the conflict in the mind of one teenager when the race question moves from far-away Alabama right into her backyard. In the final test, the teenager, caught up in the safety of conformity, fails to look upon her colored neighbor as an equal. She turns away from her and with that gesture, admits failure. All her high-flown rhetoric about "equality for all, equal opportunity, etc." has become sterile and meaningless.

Penny is the co-editor of the Saint Paul student newspaper, The Paulights. She plans to continue her writing career after high school by taking a liberal arts course, majoring in English. Other college courses may include a minor in art, another of her interests. Recently, Penny received word that she has been awarded a certificate of merit for her outstanding work in the National Merit Award examination.

Farms Submits Building Report

Permits for building in the Farms have totaled 121 since the beginning of the year, and were for construction valued at $2,875,350, including three permits for nonassessable buildings valued at $717,000, according to a monthly report received from City Engineer Murray M. Smith.

The figures released are for a period beginning January 1 through November 30 of this year. During the same period in 1962, a total of 111 permits, for buildings valued at $1,442,600, were issued, including two permits for nonassessable buildings valued at $150,000.

Smith disclosed that last month the Building Department approved five permits, one for a $90,000 home at 489 Lake Shore road; and four miscellaneous permits for buildings valued at a total of $16,000.

In November 1962, a permit for a residence valued at $80,000 was issued; and eight permits for miscellaneous constructions, worth a total of $17,500.

Since the beginning of this year, Smith's report showed, 30 permits for residential constructions worth $1,947,000 have been granted, as well as one for a commercial construction worth $11,000; and 88 miscellaneous construction permits for property valued at a total of $200,350.

By comparison, from January 1 through November 30, 1962, the Building Department granted 22 permits for homes valued at a total of $982,000; one for a business place valued at $33,000; and 85 permits for miscellaneous work valued at $277,600.

Maire Students Visit Capital

The Fifth grade at Lewis E. Maire School recently spent a busy, educational day at the state capital and Michigan State University.

Leaving the school at 7:30 a.m. in chartered buses, the group of 84 students, teachers, and parents began their tour of Michigan State University at the experimental agricultural barns, observing with much interest the cows whose stomach is covered with a plastic cover for easy viewing.

With student guides aboard the buses announcing various points of interest, the boys and girls caught a glimpse of campus life before they gathered at the Union Cafeteria for lunch.

The Museum fascinated all with its panorama of Michigan history, both geological and anthropological, and the display of the Egyptian Mummy.

After lunch the buses drove to Lansing for a visit to the Capitol, where a guide took everyone into the Senate and House chambers, explaining what transpired in each place and a bit of the history behind various parts of the rooms.

Although it was impossible for the Governor to greet the students that day, (the tax reform bill was under consideration), he very graciously wrote a letter expressing his regrets, to the boys and girls at Maire.

The day's touring was concluded with a trip through the East Lansing Post of the Michigan State Police. The friendly and understanding state policemen explained the many guns that are used in their work, allowed the students to inspect a patrol car, told them of what the training program for recruits consisted, and took them through the building where the daily business of the state police is conducted.

The teacher who made this day possible, Mrs. Leone Bennett, feels that in no better way than a trip of this kind, can young people learn about their state, its institutions of learning, its government, and its law enforcement agencies.

Chorale Gives Fine Concert

The Kenneth Jewell Chorale presented an extremely beautiful concert at the annual Christmas program and tea given by the Women's Association of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church last Tuesday.

Mrs. Arnold Lungershausen arranged the appearance of this new 30-voice ensemble which sings with professional finish under the expert direction of Kenneth Jewell.

Mr. Jewell is known throughout Michigan as a highly-gifted choral conductor. He serves on the faculty at the National Music Camp, Interlochen, and for many years he has been director of music for the Mt. Zion Evangelical Lutheran Church in Detroit. Mr. Jewell also heads the Fine Arts department at Detroit's Osborn High School and has prepared the Rackham Choir for their performances with the Detroit Symphony.

The first half of Tuesday afternoon's program was composed of works from the Chorale's standard repertory. Following the stirring "Te Deum" by Gustave Holst, we were privileged to hear several of the Chorale's gifted singers in solo lines of the hauntingly beautiful Vaughan Williams' "Serenade to Music." The soloists included Nancy Jaynes, Ruth Killeen, Russell Smith, June Benton and Carole Grimes. Miss Grimes' singing of the "Agnus Dei" from the Poulenc "Mass" was sheer vocal perfection. The lyric clarity in Miss Grimes' voice in the final cadence left one suspended in quiet exhalation.

The Chorale closed the first half of the program with the 18th century composer, Heinrich Graun's "Surely, He Hath Borne Our Griefs," Mr. Jewell and the choir gave this sacred motet its full beauty through their flexible dynamics, choral balance and complete immersion in its meaning. The second half was primarily devoted to Christmas carols and the thrilling finale was the difficult and joyous Brahms' motet "O Saviour, Throw the Heavens Wide."

Blaze Damages 'Hill' Building

Seventeen firemen and four pieces of equipment from the Farms and City responded to a two-alarm fire On-the-Hill Friday morning, December 13.

The alarm was called in by Bruce Tappan, realtor and proprietor of the real estate firm bearing his name at 88 Kercheval, who discovered the fire in his office when he opened for business at 8:37 a.m.

He occupied the building with The Village Store, same address. Extensive damage was reported throughout the false ceiling of both establishments. A partition separates the floor space used by both businesses.

Farms Fire Chief M. William Mason said that the fire originated from a furnace in the basement, which failed to shut off. Flames shot up through a duct between the walls and out a vent, igniting the rafters between the dropped ceiling, he said.

The City dispatched seven men and two pieces of fire fighting apparatus immediately after the two-alarm came into their station. They responded under the Mutual Fire Aid Pact.

Chief Mason said that considerable clothing was burned in the furnace room, where it was stored by the proprietor of the Village Store, preparatory to being displayed for Christmas sales. There was smoke damage to clothing on the racks in the store, it was said.

The chief disclosed that when firemen arrived at the scene of the fire, they were forced to break down the back door of the Village Shop to enter. The fire appeared to have had a good start, and was spreading rapidly.

However, the firefighters had the blaze under control and out within 40 minutes, Chief Mason said. When the fire was out, Farms firemen remained to make sure that it would not start again, and the City personnel returned to their station.

The amount of damage is not known. This will have to be determined by insurance adjusters.

Students at Maire Send Yule Gifts to Hospitals

Christmas has a more lasting meaning when we give something to someone who really needs the gift or the attention that the gift symbolizes.

The children in Mrs. Parent's room at Marie School have expressed a desire to bring presents, gaily wrapped in Christmas ribbon and paper, for the patients in hospitals. They will bring beautifully wrapped packages containing lovely gifts for the lonely and aged men and women who are sick on Christmas Day. The Hospital Corps at the Harbor Light Center will deliver these gifts to the patients at Receiving and Wayne County General Hospitals and Eventide Residence for the aging.

During the past few hours children throughout Marie have become so enthusiastic over this worthy project that boys and girls from kindergarten through the sixth grade have joined in bringing presents. They delivered 278 packages to the hospitals last year.

Mrs. Robert Sullivan and Mrs. Russell Peebles from the Receiving Hospital Service League, a trained volunteer group who work with the sick, visited the second grade to speak with the children about patients and to thank the students for their contributions of last year.

They hope to continue this spirit of Christmas enthusiasm

P-TA Council Holds Meeting

With approximately 30 persons in attendance, a meeting of The Grosse Pointe P-TA Council was held at the Central Library on Wednesday evening, December 11. Originally scheduled for November 25, the session was postponed because of the death of President Kennedy.

The featured item on the agenda was a presentation by Dr. Paul Mawhinney and Dr. Elsie Jinks of the Grosse Pointe Public School System entitled "Counting the Special Children." Dr. Mawhinney is the schools' Director of Pupil Personnel and Dr. Jinks, a psychologist.

Detailing the care with which his experienced census takers assist him in the preparation of nity to broaden and deepen their knowledge of the field of special education.

The business meeting preceding the discussion was chaired by Council President Arthur G. Sherman, Jr. Items brought before the assemblage included a report by Treasurer Charles Parcell and several short reports by Mr. Sherman. He gave a brief review of the activities of the Council in connection with the fall's millage referendum, he reported on his attendance at a series of meetings in Lincoln Park with P-TA officials from Wayne County, and he called to the attention of the group a number of future workshops and a state-level meeting slated for the spring.

A motion to establish a building needs committee in the school district was supported by the delegates. Each of the 14 buildings will name a representative to the body. Mr. Sherman indicated that he had offered the services of such a system-wide advisory committee to the Board of Education in its future deliberations on the long-range building needs of the school system.

President Sherman announced the next meeting of the P-TA Council for 8 p.m. Monday, January 27, in the second floor meeting room of the Central Library.

Warning on Blank Pistols Issued by Police

Any person, adult or teenager, found to be in illegal possession of blank cartridge pistols, will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law, it was jointly stated by the Pointe police chiefs.

Unauthorized possession of such pistols is a violation of the State Firearms Law and city ordinances, the police officials said.

Gun shop owners have notified police that many teenagers sought to purchase the so-called blank pistols, but were refused. Some of the shop owners said that not a day passes without at least one youngster trying to make a purchase. Each time the teenagers were told it was illegal to own one, and their requests were denied.

The State Law, Act 54, of the Public Acts of 1957, which became effective on September 27, 1957, as amended, prohibits the possession, transportation, or sale, or use of a blank cartridge pistol, except for theatrical purposes, or the training and exhibiting of dogs, or for signal purposes in athletic sports, or by railroads for signal purposes, or for the use by the militia, or any organization of war veterans.

This means, the police chiefs said, that any one in unauthorized possession of these pistols will be prosecuted.

Having possession of, and shooting off blanks in such type of pistols, the chiefs said, constitutes a dual violation, that is, violation of the State Law, and violation of local ordinances governing fireworks, which permits only the firing of caps or traces of gunpowder, in cap pistols.

The chiefs said that blank cartridges are in excess of this amount, running from 1½ to 2.7 grains of gunpowder.

Adults arrested for illegal possession of blank pistols, or shooting blanks will be tried in municipal courts; persons under 17 years of age will have to appear in Juvenile Court the chiefs said.

Violation of the State Law, or city ordinances, which are misdemeanors, on conviction, carries a fine of $100 or 90 days in jail, or both, the police heads pointed out.

Child Guidance Clinic Elects

The Northeastern Wayne Child Guidance Clinic moved a major step toward reality with the election of officers and adoption of by-laws which establish the Clinic as a branch of the Children's Center of Wayne County. Directors at the Clinic's organization meeting held December 12 in the Grosse Pointe Public Library, elected Mrs. Alfred R. Glancy, Jr., president; Mrs. Donald A. Blomquist, Dr. Callier H. Worrell and Dr. Charles E. Brake, vice presidents; Ervin A. Steiner, Jr., treasurer; Mrs. John B. Colletti, recording secretary; and Mrs. Gordon A. Weller, corresponding secretary.

Medical and legal advisors to the clinic are Dr. Thomas A. Petty, director of the McGregor Center, and George E. Bushnell, Jr. In accordance with its charter application to the Michigan Department of Mental Health, the Northeastern Child Guidance Clinic will provide psychiatric, psychological and social work services for children under 18 years of age in Harper Woods, a section of Northeast Detroit and Grosse Pointe.

"The Clinic," as announced by Mrs. Glancy, "will also work toward the prevention of maladjustments in children by offering consultant and educational services to courts, schools and other agencies whose primary concern is the welfare of children."

Stressing the need for the clinic, Mrs. Glancy reported: "All existing public facilities engaged in working with emotionally disturbed children are greatly overburdened. At Children's Center and its two branches in the Downriver and

$8,000 Damage Caused by Fire

A fire that at first glance did not appear to have caused much damage to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Klockenbrink, 1245 Grayton, on December 7, caused thousands of dollars worth, according to insurance adjusters. It was disclosed on Monday, December 16, that fire and smoke damage repair will cost approximately $8,000.

Klockenbrink, 30, and his wife, Katherine, said that they did not realize the extent of the damage until the smoke had cleared and they got a better view of the house interior in the daylight. They are the owners of the house.

Klockenbrink, a director of the Financial System and Analysis Department at Burroughs Corporation, said that his wife, and children, Richard, five, and Susan, 18 months old, became ill from smoke inhalation. They also caught bad colds when they were forced to leave their warm house and stand outside in the freezing weather. The children have since recovered, but Mrs. Klockenbrink is still being treated by the family doctor.

The family has taken up residence at the Whittier Hotel in Jefferson avenue, in Detroit, until repairs have been completed to their home. The fire started at about 7 p.m., while Klockenbrink was

Favored Monroe Beaten By Blue Devil Cagers

Led by senior Rod Luzi, the Blue Devils came back from a 7-1 deficit to go ahead late in the first quarter and go on to upset the favored Monroe Trojans 63-54 last Friday night on the home court.

This Friday night the Devils' host East Detroit in a non-league contest.

After falling behind at the outset, the Devils stormed back to edge into the lead 11-10. After the two teams exchanged baskets into the second quarter, Brian Davis sank a jump shot to put the Devils ahead to stay, 21-20.

At the end of the first quarter the Devils led 13-12. Of these, Luzi had 9, mostly on jump shots. Rod finished the night with 22 points. Monroe's Mark Drinkhahn led the scoring with 34 points. After being behind 20-19 in the second quarter the Devils ripped off 8 straight points on Davis' jump shot, two free throws, and lay-ups by Mike Bielawski and Jeff Von Schwarz. This put the Devils on top 27-20 and the Devils controlled the game from that point on.

The Devils led 41-25 at half-time, after jump shots by Greg Martin and Luzi, more than doubling the Trojans' second quarter score of 28-12.

Bob Miller hooked the second half with a open shot and a free throw and Luzi followed with another jump shot before the Trojans were able to score when Drinkhahn sank a lay-up. The Devils then got five more quick points, three by Luzi and two by Davis, and the lead was raised to 24 points, 51-27. The Trojans then reeled off nine straight points to close the gap, but the Devils came right back with six on two foul throws by Luzi, one by Jim Nevegold, a lay-up by John Reynolds, and Greg Martin's jump shot to go into the final quarter with a 21 point lead, 57-36.

Besides Luzi's 22 points, Jeff Von Schwarz added 11. These were the only two Devils in double figures, as the home team presented a balanced attack. Von Schwarz scored all of his points in the first half and all but one during the Devils' second quarter surge. He also collected four personal fouls in the first half and consequently sat out much of the second half.

The Devils' next league opponent will be the Wyandotte Bears on January 3. The Bears defeated the Acorns of Royal Oak Dondero 55-46 and tied Fordson for the league lead. The Tractors lost a non-league contest to Detroit Pershing 76-59. Both leaders have one victory without a loss while Grosse Pointe and Monroe each have one win and one loss. Dondero has lost both their league contests.

Grosse Pointe scoring:

Luzi	8	6	22
VonSchwarz	2	7	11
Bielawski	3	2	8
Miller	3	1	7
Davis	2	1	5
Martin	2	0	4
Bruce	2	0	4
Reynolds	1	0	2
Total	22	19	63

The Detroit Lions and the Chicago Bears played two games in 1962 and neither team scored a touchdown, the Lions winning 11-3 in Detroit on three field goals and a safety, while the Bears won 3-0 in Chicago.

Six rookies earned spots on the 1963 Detroit Lions team, offensive tackles Daryl Sanders and Lucien Reeborg, halfback Larry Ferguson, linebackers Dennis Gaubatz and Ernie Clark, and defensive end Jim Simon.

Neighborhood Club Offers Judo Lessons

Demonstrating judo techniques is FRANK AUL, holder of "The Black Belt," and instructor at the Saturday Judo classes at Brownell Junior High. That's THOMAS LEONE playing "The Victim." Classes for boys and girls, age 7 to 12, will be starting again January 11, beginners or advanced. Teens and adults will have separate classes on Wednesday evenings at Brownell, starting January 15. Ten lessons for $10, plus a Neighborhood Club membership and a dash of enthusiasm are all that are required. Neighborhood Club activities are becoming more numerous with the beginning of 1964. Memberships may be renewed or started January 2 through January 10 at the club office, 710 Notre Dame. Registrations for the various classes should be made at that time.

St. Paul Cagers Get Good Start

November 29 marked the opening of the 1963-64 basketball season for St. Paul High and also the opening of their new gymnasium.

They are again showing promise for a successful season. As State Champs in 1962 and City Champs in 1963, the Lakers showed unending planing ability.

They won their first game against St. Catherine, overthrowing them 94-26. A brother combination, Jim and Bill Bigham, Bob Martin, Barry Trombly, and Dave Letscher were the starters. Don Amez, sophomore, and Mike Barry, along with Rick Cantewell, comprised a strong part of the bench followed by other skillful players who helped raise the score.

The Lakers racked up another victory on Friday, December 6, as St. Paul breezed by St. Ladislaus 73-57. Jim Bigham scored 27 points and Bob Martin 21.

Pointe Dog Wins National Crown

The seventeenth annual National Championship stake for English Springer Spaniels was won December 8 in Weldon Springs, Mo., by Waveaway's Wilderness Maeve, owned by William E. Lane, of Hall place.

The dog gained the top honor in the Springer field trials by beating a field of 45 dogs which had qualified by placing in trials during the year.

Maeve was a strong, driving worker at Weldon Spring. She had running birds to handle in almost every series and responded to her handler competently. The five-year-old was handled by Charles Wingate of Toledo. As is customary in spaniel trials the events were on pheasants.

Sam Williams, Detroit Lions defensive end from Michigan State, was drafted into the NFL by the Los Angeles Rams before he ever played a minute of varsity football, his class having graduated while Williams was in the Navy.

Devil Tankers' 44-Meet Victory String Snapped

By Jim Blackburn
Friday night the Grosse Pointe High School swimming team will journey to Birmingham for a meet with the state champion Seaholm squad which is still strong after two years of either tying or winning the state Class "A" title.

Last Friday night the Blue Devils travelled to Monroe and were defeated by the Trojans 62-43. Muslin, Kurtz, and Carlton of Monroe led the attack with two victories each. The Devils entered the oddly shaped Trojan pool with hopes of winning their 44th straight Border Cities League meet. But the Trojans ended the string.

For February the Devils will have a chance for revenge when the Trojans come to the Grosse Pointe pool. The Devils' next league tilt will take place Friday, January 3, at home against Wyandotte.

March of Dimes Honors Leaders

John D. Hayden Star at Amherst

The Amherst College football team has won 21 out of the last 24 games played earning two titles.

A big reason for this success has been due to the excellent play of John Dods Hayden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin S. Hayden of Merriweather road, according to word from the college.

A 1960 graduate of Cranbrook School, Hayden has been Amherst's starting right end for the past two seasons, and has distinguished himself both on offense and defense.

An Honor's candidate in the Economics Department, Hayden has also been a star on Amherst's champion rugby team, and a member of the Lord Jeff varsity basketball team. He is a member of Alpha Delta Phi fraternity.

A Vote of Confidence

In the midst of all the attempted character assassination of Al Green that has been going on for the last week, we claim the privilege of injecting a kind word. We have known the target of this attack for more than 30 years and have always deemed it an honor to be counted among his friends.

As we understand it, (and it certainly hasn't been easy for those attempting to wade through the inept handling of the story by the dailies), the shortages at Cobo Hall were uncovered by Al's own auditors, at his own instigation. They occurred at a time when he was concerned about his health and was largely dependent upon hired help for the conduct of his business.

Despite Al's wide-spread interests he has been a Grosse Pointe institution since the days of The Pines back in the early 1930's. He and Mrs. Green, "Torch", earned the friendship and confidence of thousands of Pointe families. The restaurants they have operated here have always been the most popular and best run in the community.

Congratulations to Robert B. Evans, a member of the Civic Center Commission, who had the courage to stand alone against the other members and speak out in defense of Al. We concur in his opinion that Al has done everything in his power to be honorable and fair to Cobo Hall, and that the case has been tried by the daily newspapers, which have influenced the commission and some members of the Detroit Council.

We feel there is much more to the story than has been printed. Perhaps it will come out when Mr. Green meets with the Council on Friday. Maybe some of the Christmas spirit which has been sadly lacking to date in the handling of the case, will be evidenced. We would have to know a lot more to change our opinion that this has been an unwarranted and most cruel attack on a man whose integrity has been one of his proudest possessions.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor: On December 2, a snowy miserable night, our pet, a black cocker spaniel, ran away. After a long fruitless search, we could only hope that he would return by himself.

A very wonderful young couple found him running along Lakeshore drive and realized Lucky was lost. They were kind enough to take the time to go two or three miles to the Grosse Pointe Woods Police Station and obtain our address through the license. They then drove another mile to our address. I was so excited to have our pet returned, I did not find out their names. If they should read this, I would like to say thanks so very, very much. I would appreciate talking to them again, if only over the phone. Mrs. Stephen David 1170 Fairholme road Grosse Pointe Woods, 36 December 10

Service to the Community

By FRED KOPP, R. Ph. A colleague of ours tells this one. On Saturdays he sells dimes (10c each). Seems the neighborhood movie is next door. The kids stop in before the show for dimes - for the vending machines in the theatre. A lot of our business is like this - service to the community. Glad to do it. Because we're conveniently located and open long hours, we're a handy place to pick up change or a bottle of aspirin. But a pharmacist's true service to his community is to be a quick, reliable source of the drugs and medications your physical prescribes. That's the real reason we're here. And we are always pleased to serve you.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

Christmas in a library. Oh come now, who has time for reading at this festive time of year, when planning, shopping, wrapping, mailing and baking seem to fill our days to overflowing! You say you'll be back to see us early in 1964? Just a minute, friend, before you cross us temporarily off your list. Let's just enumerate a few reasons why you should continue to darken our doors.

Do you need some advice on Christmas lighting or decorating? We have books on this subject. Would you like to know more about Yuletide customs, both here and throughout the world - or something about the Christmas tree? If you look under CHRISTMAS in our card catalog, you will find material on these topics. Would you like to make some gifts yourself? We not only have books to fill the bill, but it might be that some item from our tool collection would come in handy as well.

There are so many aspects of this celebration. There is the religious side, first and foremost, so perhaps you want Nativity stories. Christmas exists in literature and art - we can supply you with interesting information in these media also. In a weak moment, have you agreed to put on a Christmas play, read a story, or select some carols? Our catalog again lists a variety of volumes to choose from. Are you throwing a gala party? Why not get some new ideas from our Libraries? If you feel a yen to reread some of the old favorites, such as Dickens' CHRISTMAS CAROL, or THE NIGHT BEFORE CHRISTMAS, and you've mislaid your well-thumbed copy, we'd be glad to lend you ours.

What about those Christmas cookies? In our 641 Cookery section, we can supply you with recipes. Completely aside from books, we have a number of holiday tapes, choral music records (including Children's records) and suitable films for Yuletide consumption. True, these latter are usually booked far ahead of time, but it is a form of entertainment to think of for future years.

If you are considering giving a book to some friend or relative for Christmas, you might want to come in and browse around for ideas. Librarians are always glad to help you in making a selection we also have a list especially compiled for this purpose in the adult field. It is indeed the unusual child who is not made happy by this type of present under the Christmas tree!

Perhaps you are just plain weary, and would like to drop in for a while to rest and muse. We are festively decorated, we try to exude a peaceful, restful atmosphere, and if your home is as hectic as most homes are at this time in December, you might find our Libraries a welcome change. Also, if you've spent all your holiday money, your charge accounts are groaning, and you wish Santa Claus had never been invented, we are unique in that we have nothing to sell you. Come in and read our periodicals, handle some of our books, either in special displays or in our regular collection. You might even find a book or two to take out (you can't always tell when you might accidentally have a spare moment at home). And as we celebrate the birth of Christ, you might well find it rewarding to examine some of our religious books.

I think we've made our point. You do need us as much as we need you! There are many facets of Christmas in any library, and we hope you'll find a need for one or more of them. You won't find us deserted by any means. You will find students working on term papers or other over-the-holidays assignments, children making use of their vacation time to enjoy our Juvenile collection, adults who feel the need of our services. Come and join the group!

And so a MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR to all of you!

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

Most Grosse Pointers have bought their Christmas trees already—many have them up and decorated. The wreaths are on the doors, the colored lights twinkle in the snow.

Inside the holiday houses, families are welcoming relatives, sons, daughters and grandchildren who live and work in other States, (sometimes in other countries), but head for home at the holly and mistletoe season.

Coming from Santa Monica, Cal., for a White Christmas are the Charies Wilmots, with Kimberly Ann, three, and Kelley, just eight weeks old.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmot plan to divide their time here between two sets of parents, the Judson Wilmots, of Bishop road, and the George Fosters, of Broadstone road. (Mrs. Wilmot is the former Susan Foster).

From Japan, via Europe and New York, comes Sally Whittingham, daughter of the Manfred Whittinghams, of Kenwood court.

Sally, one of the first girls to hold office as president of Grosse Pointe High School's senior class, was graduated from Smith College in 1962, went to San Francisco to work, then to Tokyo for a six months' teaching assignment.

Early this fall, she met her parents in Japan. The entire family vacationed in the Orient, then Mr. Whittingham returned home while Sally and her mother continued around the world.

They arrived in New York a few days before Thanksgiving, but Sally elected to remain in the East for several weeks before flying to the Pointe.

The Whittinghams' son, David, is coming from California to spend Christmas with his parents, so the entire clan will be gathered around one tree this year.

Headed West

The Walter E. Pattees, of Kensington road, are "on the road," traveling toward California, where they will spend Christmas week with their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bohoslav, Jr., and their two small sons, who live in Claremont.

Mr. and Mrs. Pattee, with sons Bill and Jim, left the Pointe by car last Thursday. They plan to drop off Christmas presents for relatives in Arkansas and Texas on their way west.

While on the California coast, they will visit their son, Walter E. Pattee, Jr., who lives in Pomona, and will see the Rose Parade and Rose Bowl Game before returning home in time for the two younger boys to resume classes, Bill at Wayne State University, Jim at Grosse Pointe High School.

Junior League Helps Schools

After a summer of planning, the Junior League of Detroit put into effect in early October a new demonstration project. The School Enrichment Program, chosen by the League membership in June, was initiated in the Cooper Elementary School, 6836 Georgia.

The project, which has the enthusiastic support of Dr. Samuel Miller Brownell, Superintendent, and Dr. Carl Marburger, director of the Great Cities Project for the Detroit Public Schools, is now in full swing. Dr. Marburger is the director of the project although there is no connection with the current Great Cities Project.

A committee of League members worked closely with the administrative staff of the Cooper School to plan a program that is geared to provide teaching assistance to any of the school faculty who desire it. There are at present 14 Junior League volunteers who are each giving two hours of service a week.

Some of the areas in which they are working to provide tutoring for individuals, drilling for small groups, or clerical assistance for the teachers are remedial reading, reading readiness, fifth and sixth grade arithmetic, and second grade science.

It is the aim of these particular volunteers to be, in a manner of speaking, an extra pair of hands, so the teachers can better cope with the problem of overcrowded classrooms. Some of them are certified, experienced teachers and therefore well qualified to tutor children who need time-consuming individual attention.

The others attended a training session provided by the school, and will receive further training, as needed, by the teachers with whom they are working.

In the brief period that the School Enrichment Program has been operational, the results have been very encouraging. The teachers who undertook to work with a volunteer are enthusiastic about the arrangement; the children are responding to a stranger now made more familiar by regular weekly exposure; the volunteers are encouraged to find they can couple their talents with newly-acquired teaching techniques and put them to such good use.

The Junior League plans to use more of its members to conduct or accompany field trips, and to bring their own talents or community resources into the classroom to supplement various areas of the school curriculum. These plans are all subject to the desires and needs of the schools faculty and administration.

It must be emphasized that this is a demonstration project, subject to evaluation later in the school year. Hopefully, the results of the evaluation will be favorable to all the participants with an eye toward expansion to other schools in Detroit.

Mrs. McNally traveled south with her daughter and son-in-law, MR. and MRS. JOSEPH F. LABBANCE, of Okemos, just outside of Lansing. Mr. Labbance caught a record 42 dolphin in one day's fishing dur-

Gayl Robinson Wed In Home Ceremony

Becomes Bride of Philip Joseph Meagher, Jr.; Reception Follows at Russell Stebbins Collins Residence in South Deeplands Road

Gayl Robinson and Philip Joseph Meagher, Jr. were married late Saturday afternoon in a private ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Stebbins Collins of South Deeplands road.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. late Franklin Charles Robinson and the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Granger Vernor, and the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Robinson.

Her attendants, Anee Maycock of Grosse Pointe and New York City and Mrs. William MacMartin of Lansing, were attired in short, full-skirted gowns of American Beauty peau de soie. Mr. Jerry Booth of Rochester, Michigan was the groom's best man.

Mr. Meagher is the son of the Philip Joseph Meaghers of Albany and Garden City, Long Island.

Mrs. Collins wore a bottle-green crepe gown with an overblow of matching lace.

Miss Robinson wore a short white satin gown with an overlay of net appliqued with lace and a simple crown of lace and satin. She carried white camellias.

A champagne reception and buffet supper for the family and close friends followed the ceremony. Following a Florida trip the couple will make their home in Grosse Pointe.

Youth Council Holding Dance

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Youth Council is returning to the main floor rooms of Alger House for the setting of its Holiday Hop scheduled for Saturday night, December 28.

Couples attending will find the rooms handsomely decorated with Christmas trees, poinsettias, and greens. There will be branches of mistletoe strategically hung from doorways and chandeliers.

This will be a very casual dance to offer a change from all the dressy affairs filling the holidays. Slacks will be worn and the records will be selected from the collections of Youth Council members.

Refreshments will be served in the breakfast room and paneled Josephine Gregory room. This is included in the price of admission which is $1.50 per couple.

Dinners to Precede Dance for Liggett

Saturday Night Gala at Country Club Spawns Many Private Gatherings Beforehand; Henry Marchand Music Donated by Mrs. Emory Ford

To make a holiday evening longer and gayer, dozens of dinner parties are springing up in homes and clubs before the Liggett Tomorrow Dance Saturday night at the Country Club. This benefit party was made possible through the generosity of Mrs. Emory Ford who, upon cancellation of her daughter's debut, donated the music of Harry Marchand's Boston orchestra to the Liggett Tomorrow Fund.

Most ambitious of the subscription dinners is the party for over 60 organized by Mrs. Lansing Pittman and Mrs. Charles M. White. Cocktails in the Provencal home of the Whites will precede dinner at the Little Club. Both hostesses will wear floor length ball gowns for the occasion.

Mrs. Hugo Higbie is taking this opportunity to honor her brother Jack Chapin, back from Washington for the week-end, with a cocktail party in her Provencal road home, dinner at the Little Club, with the Liggett dance as a finale for the evening.

Mrs. Theodore Buttrick has also chosen the Little Club for a subscription dinner organized with the assistance of Mrs. John Bayne. Guests will meet in the Buttrick home in University place for cocktails before going on to the dinner.

Adding to the festive mood, a three-piece orchestra will play for these three dinner parties during dinner and until 11 o'clock.

Another gala affair at the Little Club will be the dinner party given by Mrs. Gari M.

Stroh of Edgemont Park for 22 of her friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester F. Ruwe are hosting a dinner at the Country Club for the young set in honor of their granddaughter Anne Scripps, of Loudenville, N. Y., and Susan Ford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick S. Ford, Jr., and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick S. Ford who are serving as co-chairmen of the Liggett Tomorrow Dance. Mrs. Ruwe will wear a floor-length pink silk sari.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Gehrke, members of the central dance committee, are entertaining at a small dinner at the Country Club before the dance, as are Mr. and Mrs. John T. Huntington. Mr. and Mrs. B. Courtney Rankin, assistant ticket chairmen, are having an early dinner in their Ridge road home for friends and co-workers. Colonel and Mrs. William Drennen, (the former Mary Louise Goodson), are using this occasion for a dinner reunion in their Merriweather road home for Liggett School classmates of the year '39.

For the dance co-chairman Mrs. Ford will wear a short length green corded silk evening dress with a matching coat. The Fords will have a "quick dinner" at the home of Mrs. Wick Henry before rushing on to the dance. Mrs. Charles Adams, co-chairman with Mrs. Ford, will greet guests in a floor length garnet and pink velvet gown with a floating back panel. She will be accompanied by her husband, Dr. Adams, and daughter, Susan, a deb of last June, and her date.

Club Observes 50th Birthday

Fifty years ago Miss Helen Shell, teacher at St. Charles School in Baldwin avenue, Detroit, organized a group of her pupils in a club, "The Daughters of Culture."

On Tuesday, December 10, the girls who formed the grade school organization met for their annual Christmas Party at the home of Mrs. May Shannon in Bishop road.

Through the years, "The Daughters of Culture" have maintained close ties. They gather once a month at a member's home to reminisce and enjoy a social get-together.

Sixteen members were present at Mrs. Shannon's party, where a buffet lunch was served, gifts were exchanged, and a few card games were played in a holiday atmosphere.

Pianist to Star With Symphony

The exciting young Korean pianist, Tong Il Han, will be soloist with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra Thursday and Saturday, Dec. 26-28, at 8:30 p.m. in Ford Auditorium.

Sixteen Ehrling will conduct the concert, the last in his current series. Ehrling will return for programs February 6-8 and will then finish out the season as the orchestra's permanent conductor.

Han will play the Rachmaninoff Concerto No. 3 in D minor on a program which will include Schubert's Overture to "Rosamunde" and Walton's Symphony No. 1.

Among his many honors, Tong Il Han is the recipient of a special scholarship to Juilliard, a prize given by Mrs. S. Pinkney Tuck, of Country Club drive, in memory of her daughter, Martha.

The young artist was discovered in Korea during the conflict there and brought to this country at age eleven under the sponsorship of the Fifth Air Force. He has appeared as soloist with the Symphony on two previous occasions, in 1960 for a concert sponsored by the Girl Scouts of Metropolitan Detroit, and for the opening of the orchestra's summer season at the Fairgrounds in 1961.

The orchestra under Ehrling's direction will appear Sunday night at 8:15 o'clock in Cleary Auditorium, Windsor, on the Christian Culture Series of Assumption University.

The program will include Brahms' "Academic Festival" Overture, Beethoven's Symphony No. 4, Mendelssohn's Symphony No. 4 ("Italian"), Weinberger's Prelude and Fugue from "Schwanda" and a group of Christmas carols.

Girl Scouts Have Holiday Projects

From Cookie Baking to Carolling, Pointe Girl Scouts Are Engaged in Christmas Service Activities in the Community

Many girls learn to think of others through Girl Scouting. Most of the Girl Scouts in the Grosse Pointe District do some kind of service at Christmas time. The troops like to remember orphans, the sick, old folks in homes, and needy people.

Growing a plant, baking cookies, wrapping a small gift, visiting an old folks home, and singing carols are some of the activities the Girl Scouts do at Christmas time.

Some examples of the service done by our Girl Scouts this Christmas season are the following.

Brownie Scouts Debbie Bowman, of Buckingham road, and Tracy Prittle of Nottingham road, are from 201. Because Brownies like to do things close to home, they are making Christmas corsages for their mothers.

Brownie Scout Nancy Homfeld, of McKinley avenue is from Troop 539. Her troop is growing seedlings in pots and they are planning to take them to the United States Health Service Hospital.

Cadet Scout Cathy Krieger, of Lothrop road is from Troop 324. Her Troop has decorated coffee cans and they are planning to fill them with cookies that they plan to bake in their mother's kitchens. They plan to take their gifts to the Grosse Pointe Nursing Home. While visiting the home they will sing Christmas Carols.

Senior Scout Linda Vorhees, of Hampton road, is from Troop 821. Her Troop has sent two boxes of clothing and other items to Jum, a Korean Orphan. Besides Christmas service projects the Girl Scouts do service in many ways the year around. On Saturday, April 18, at the High School auditorium the Scouts are planning a "Girl Scout Adventure In Service" day. They wish to show their families, sponsors and friends the part that service plays in the life of a Girl Scout.

Vanguard Joined By Leni Landry

"Twill be the DAY AFTER Christmas that Vanguard Theater of Detroit presents its holiday package to Detroit theatergoers. On December 26 Vanguard will unwrap a merry Christmas comedy, "You'll Never Know," adapted by P. G. Wodehouse and decorated with the music of Cole Porter.

"You'll Never Know" introduces coloratura Leni Landry as the Baroness in her first Detroit appearance. Miss Landry co-starred with Peter Glenville in the British film "Heaven is Around the Corner," and for two seasons has been featured at the Royal Opera House, Covent Garden. In this country, her reputation encompasses all entertainment media: "Babes In Arms" and "The Women" for M.G.M., the female title role in "P. T. Barnum Presents: Jenny Lind," for the CBS-TV series "You are There"; supper club engagements at the Latin Quarter, Desert Inn (Las Vegas), and most recently, the Persian Room at New York's Hotel Plaza.

The comic story line of "You'll Never Know" is a popular one which first came before theatre audiences through the pen of German playwright Siegfried Geyer as "By Candlelight." P. G. Wodehouse adapted it for English-speaking audiences in 1929 under the title "Candlelight," and its American premiere had Leslie Howard, Reginald Owen, and the unforgettable Gertrude Lawrence in the stellar role. In 1938 Cole Porter added his inimitable melodies to the story and presented it to New Yorkers with a cast headed by Clifton Webb, Libby Holman, and Lupe Velez.

The Vanguard resident company features Dolores Viola, John Gregory, and William Feaster, under the direction of William A. Gregory, with set design by Tom Aston, costumes by Heien B. King, and lighting by Jere Greenwood. The production will run Tuesday through Sunday nights from December 26 through January 25, with two gala New Year's Eve performances at 7 and 9:30 p.m., at the Vanguard, 58 E. Columbia. Phone reservations accepted at WO 3-3863.

LOSES TO THIEF

Timothy J. Cavanaugh, 23, of 5327 Bedford, Detroit, informed Woods police on Saturday, December 14, that while his car was parked in the Woods Theater lot, someone broke the left front window to enter and steal his tachometer and an air guide vacuum gauge. Value of the items was not given.

Stay awake during the day and you can afford to sleep at night.

'Cardinal' Premiere Slated This Evening

Leprosy Relief Society Announces Benefit Performance of New Film; Curtain Time Is 8 O'Clock; Champagne Afterglow to Follow

Pointers in a party mood will gather tonight at the Madison Theater, where the Leprosy Relief Society has scheduled a benefit performance of Otto Preminger's new film, "The Cardinal."

Curtain time is 8 o'clock, and Silver Circle patron ticket holders have been invited by chairman Mrs. Louis C. Miriani and her co-chairman, Mrs. Eugene A. Casaroli, to attend a Champagne Afterglow immediately following the film.

Among ladies who have worked to make the benefit successful are Mesdames Carl Weideman, Cletus Welling, Victor Wertz, William A. Ternes, Anthony J. Shemansky, Jean T. Sheafor, Thomas F. Morrow, Thomas V. LoCicero, Carl Johnson, C. A. Greiner, Eugene Gargo and Thomas K. Fisher.

Peters-McDonald Betrothal Told

The engagement of Helen Anne McDonald, daughter of Mrs. John McDonald, of Courtville avenue, Detroit, and C. Martin Peters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earle A. Peters, of St. Clair avenue, has been announced.

Miss McDonald is attending the University of Detroit. Her fiancé was graduated from General Motors Institute, where he was a member of Beta Alpha Epsilon and Alpha Tau Iota fraternities. A June wedding is planned.

Others are Mrs. Chilton Drysdale, Mrs. Henry De Segur Lauve, Mrs. Charles Dawood, Mrs. Hugh C. Daly, Mrs. Walker Cislser, Mrs. Thomas F. Burns, Mrs. J. Addison Bartush and Mrs. F. M. Barrett.

Proceeds will aid the Leprosy Relief Society to provide care and treatment for leprosy sufferers, and to erase public misconceptions of leprosy which have lingered unjustly through the centuries.

The Society was founded in 1961, when Father Nicholas Maestrini read a letter from Father Cesar Colombo, of Kengtung, Burma, at a regular meeting of young volunteer workers for the PIME Missionaries.

Father Colombo described conditions in his 1200-bed leprosarium as bad, and getting worse. He told of leprosy sufferers who fled from Red China to Kengtung, where housing, clothing and even food had become inadequate for so large a group, and asked if there were any persons in the States who might be interested in his patients and their problems.

The Kengtung leprosarium now houses over 2,000 patients. There is a new hospital with an operating room, surgical instruments and clean, comfortable beds, but more help is needed.

In a recent letter to the Leprosy Relief Society, Father Colombo noted that 90 per cent of those who die from leprosy could be saved "if I had sufficient medicine and food to give them."

Currently, the Society supports leprosaria in India and East Pakistan as well as Burma, and will shortly give aid to additional colonies around the globe. The non-salaried group of volunteers, headquartered in Detroit, is dedicated to care and treatment of all leprosy sufferers, regardless of race, creed or color.

These Brotherhood Dinner plans were announced this week by Alfred A. May, Detroit Round Table president, and Robert M. Frehse, executive director.

Mr. Townsend will receive the Michigan Brotherhood Award of the NCCJ for his contribution to community progress and improved human relations through his executive leadership at Chrysler, Detroit's No. 1 employer, and his commitment to the principles of equal opportunity for all citizens regardless of race, creed or color, according to the announcement.

Art Institute Has Good Year

The past year's achievements at the Detroit Institute of Arts are accomplishments that every member of the Founders Society can take great personal pride in," stated William M. Day, President of the Society.

Re-elected to office at the annual meeting of the Founder Society Detroit Institute of Art were: William M. Day, President, Mrs. Henry Ford II, Ralph T. McElveny, Alan Macauley, Jr., and Edward E. Rothman, Vice-Presidents, John W. Shenefield, Treasurer, Willis F. Woods, Executive Director, and Carl Tiedeman, Executive Secretary.

In addition, the following trustees were re-elected to office: Mrs. Roy D. Chapin, Jr., William M. Day, W. Hawkins Ferry, Joseph L. Hudson, Jr., Alan W. Joslyn, Mrs. Allan Sheldon, and Robert H. Tannahill.

John S. Newberry, formerly a trustee, was elected an honorary trustee due to his outstanding contributions to the Founders Society over the years.

Six new trustees were appointed to the board: William H. Baldwin, John L. Booth, Peter B. Clark, Stanford C. Stoddard, Mrs. Stanley J. Winkelman, and Mrs. Theodore O. Yntema.

The Founders Society, a volunteer organization composed of 6,576 members is engaged in working with the City of Detroit in the making of the Institute one of the finest in the world. During the period from July 1, 1962 through June 30, 1963, the Society contributed 285 Works of Art valued at $503,519; cash disbursements of $415,555 for exhibitions, extension services, free film projects, administrative and promotion, making a total of $919,074.

Early in 1963, a $4 Million Building and Endowment Campaign was started to raise funds for a proposed new south wing and to enlarge the present inadequate funds. $1,850,000 was to be allocated for building with the balance of $2,150,000 for endowment.

In June, Mrs. Edsel Ford, an Arts Commissioner, generously pledged $1,000,000 for both building and endowment, payable over five years.

Mr. Day said: "Payment by the Founders Society has now been made to the City of Detroit of $1,850,000 which has enabled the City to receive a matching Federal Grant of $1,850,000 for the construction of the new south wing. Construction of the four-story building will increase exhibition space by 87 per cent when the 100,000 square foot addition is completed. Ground has been broken and it is estimated that the new building will be completed in the fall of 1965."

"The endowment goal of $2,150,000 is seriously lagging," Day stated, "and we urgently need the support of every citizen and business in the community if we are to continue to maintain the high standards set by the Museum since its founding."

Jumpers Vie At Hunt Club

Another championship ribbon was added to the long and glorious string at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club last Saturday evening when the "Fox Heads," pro-am jumping team, emerged victorious after three strenuous rounds over eight obstacles 3' 6" in height and "against the clock."

The occasion was the initial competition of the 1963-64 Olympic Jumping Meets involving adult teams from Greater Detroit, Southeastern Michigan and Northern Ohio.

Team Captain Mrs. Edward Henkel, Jr., piloted "Badger" (incidentally owned by Pointer Mrs. Ivan C. Dunlap) through a flawless performance and this was duplicated by Mrs. Harry Fruehauf, Jr., with "New Moon" and Mrs. Jan Shaffer on "Painted Doll."

The fourth member, Carl M. Filtz riding his "Frisco Bay," finished with one of the finest rounds of the day to insure victory.

Despite near zero weather at Bloomfield for January 12, conditioned a capacity crowd jammed the ring lounge and viewing area all day and evening as the pace quickened, and were kept in suspense until the last jump was cleared, so close was the score between the teams representing Bloomfield Open Hunt, Union Lake, Ortonville, Toledo, Northville, Rochester, Ann Arbor and Flint.

Miss Peggy Flinn chairmanned the arrangements for the meet and James Sample and his son, Robert, from Bloomfield Township were the official scorers for the day.

Grosse Pointe Junior riders also scored to the extent of capturing second place in the Class "B" group behind Duffield's "Headless Horsemen" from Rochester.

The G.P.H.C. "Fox Tails" aggregation was led by Kathy Maschmeyer and she was teamed with Cathy Lilly and Marilyn Clark.

The next meet is scheduled at Bloomfield for January 12.

Service Girls Set Example In How to Serve Others

"A good Service Girl is an example to other girls and boys. She is a big sister to all younger children." This seems to be the philosophy underlying the operation of Girls' Service Squad, a prominent feature of the internal pupil organization in each elementary building in The Grosse Pointe Public School System. It is in many ways the feminine counterpart of the Safety Patrol. As boys in the upper grades train to serve in positions of responsibility, the girls are also provided an opportunity to exercise and develop their talents in leadership.

The basic duties of the boys' and girls' organizations are similar to provide a safe environment for learning. High level performance on the part of the young ladies in the ten elementary buildings is no accident. For in addition to the regular weekly or monthly meetings, the children are often provided handbooks listing duties of the members and officers (captain, first and second lieutenant).

Arriving a few minutes before the other children, the Service Girl may have any one of a variety of duties: on the stairs, in a classroom, in the halls, at the doors, at the lost and found locker, or assisting with noon activities.

At Mason, for example, the written rules covering the stair duty post include this advice: "If you are on stair duty stand straight and tall. Face down the stairs. Do not chew gum. It is your duty to keep traffic moving single file up the right side of the stairs and down. Remind children to walk. Do not allow boys and girls to skip stairs." The sponsor at Mason School is Mrs. Marilyn Ralph.

Girls on duty are designated by badges and arm bands. An informational manual states: "Badges have the girl's name typed on the center and are worn on a green ribbon for members, yellow for the lieutenants, and white for the captain. Brown ribbons signify the Service Girl of the Month. Badges are worn on duty and at meetings. Armbands are worn by the Juniors during a two week trial period before becoming regular members."

The Service Squad Pledge at Mason School includes these among the seven basic points: "To use every effort to create an attitude of interest in all safety problems in the school, at home and everywhere." (2) "To practice the Golden Rule of Safety: Safety means the constant care of oneself and the continued interest in the welfare of others."

At Ferry, there are approximately 75 girls from grades 5 and 6 who participate, says Miss Julie Juracek, sponsor. She reports that her girls give safety talks in the classrooms and serve as kindergarten helpers.

The Monteith squad numbers 48. "This organization contributes to the smooth running of our school," says Miss Jean Palazzolo, advisor.

Mrs. Hilda Bokos, sponsor at Kerby School, says "The girls volunteer for membership and may participate as long as their academic work is up to class standards."

Mrs. Jean Snell numbers between 55 and 60 in her group at Maire. The organization there is composed primarily of sixth graders.

The spirit of teamwork and cooperation elicited for duty time often extends to other school activities. Miss Margaret Long, Defer sponsor, mentions that her group makes "Pandora boxes for the hospitals, holds a Red Cross bake sale, and a tea for parents in May."

The Poupard organization numbers 35, reports sponsor Miss Thelma Grandia. She adds that its activities correspond to those of the boys' group.

At Barnes School Mrs. Emily Moellering numbers 50 fifth and sixth graders in her club. She states: "Upon successfully answering a written test, and with parent approval, a pupil becomes a Service Girl."

Richard sponsor, Miss Lillian Koby, lists among her girls' assignments the selling of milk tickets and the dispensing of milk during lunch time. Here, as in many buildings, the girls may work in the library and in answering the telephone during part of the noon hour.

The girls at Trombly are on hand duty to assist with the orderly and human flow of corridor traffic in keeping with established policies of good citizenship. Mrs. Mae Fuller has charge of the 34 girls.

Sponsors of the Girls' Service Squads in the schools emphasize that the main reward to the girls lies in the satisfaction of doing a good job in an important building and may include a weekly fun night, an afternoon at the circus, a trip to Bob-Lo, a swimming party or an after-school square dance. Members of the P-TA often assist in providing the outing.

The young ladies take their duties seriously in assisting to provide a safe atmosphere for learning in the elementary buildings.

Jefferson Yacht Club First Mates Model Wigs

A meeting was held December 9, by the First Mates of the Jefferson Yacht Club. Plans were discussed for a card party to be held in April.

Following the meeting was a hair style and wig show, put on by the Elmira Beauty Salon and its staff. Several First Mates modeled hair styles accenting the Holiday Moods. Adding to the glamour was Mrs. Robert Miller, chairman of the show, along with Mrs. Jock DeGriek, Mrs. Frank Piku, Mrs. Dee Posey, Mrs. James Riehl and Mrs. Fred Shulwitz.

Refreshments were served with a Christmas theme, by Mrs. Kenneth Banfield, Mrs. Richard Vore, Mrs. Dee Posey, Mrs. Harry Knuff, Mrs. Fred Shulwitz and Mrs. Sid Holstein.

Mrs. Valentine Showered With Christmas Presents

Christmas came early for Mrs. Harry Valentine, of Hidden lane, grand prize winner on a New York-based television giveaway program.

Mrs. Valentine, one of many local ladies who regularly send in their post cards giving an estimated price of prize items displayed on the show, was notified she had won earlier this month.

She flew to New York to pick up her prizes and appear on TV, where her cost - appraising proved so accurate she remained an active contestant for several days, amassing a variety of gifts including two automobiles and a dining room set.

Winter Starts December 22

Winter will officially begin three days before Christmas, reminds University of Michigan astronomer Hazel M. Losh.

The sun will arrive at the winter solstice at 9:02 a.m. Sunday, December 22. It will then swing its shortest daily arc across the southern sky and we will have our shortest day of about nine hours and longest night, about 15 hours.

Professor Losh also points out that the eastern horizon in December is host to some of the most beautiful and colorful of stars.

"Auriga, the large five-sided figure, ruled by the bright yellow star, Capella, rises in the northeast soon after sunset.

"The Pleiades, followed by the rest of the constellation Taurus, rises at about the same time as Capella. Taurus is symbolized by the great letter 'V' with its orange star, Aldebaran, at the end of the lower prong.

"The winter constellations center mostly around Orion with his two Hunting Dogs and the Hare below him. Those who devised the constellations evidently intended to depict a hunting scene with the Dogs pursuing the Hare, and it in turn crouching low close to Orion seeking his protection.

"Sirius in the figure of the Greater Dog (Canis Major) is the brightest of all stars. It is easily identified by extending a line downward through the three belt stars of Orion. From time immemorial, Sirius has been watched, admired, and revered, rising as it does in the early evenings around Christmas time.

Plan Services On Xmas Eve

The family service at 7:30 will feature the Luther and Wesley Chords, which will sing the anthem, "The Stars Shone Bright" by Williams. Twelve-year-old Gary Hollidge will sing the solo, "The Virgin's Slumber Song," by Max Reger.

Holy Communion will be celebrated at 11:15, with the Asbury and Chancel Chords participating. The anthem will be "Berthold Tours" "Sing, O Heavens."

Mrs. Robert W. Sutton, director of the choral and organist, will play "Wachet Auf" and "In Duel Jubilo" by J. S. Bach, and "Improvisation on Silent Night" by Kreckel.

Yule Seal Sale Short of Goal

The 1963 Christmas Seal campaign in Wayne County reached two-thirds of its $300,000 goal on Tuesday December 17, Campaign Chairman Gerald Wiebecki announced.

Miss Wiebecki, 19-year-old Cinderella who was a TB patient in Herman Kiefer Hospital at this time last year, said:

"If people in Detroit and Wayne County who received Christmas Seals continue to send in their contribution at the present rate, we should reach our goal this year."

The Wayne County Christmas Seal campaign has fallen short of its goal during the past four years while the task of the TB and Health Society has increased with the all out effort to eradicate TB and alleviate other respiratory diseases.

Miss Wiebecki said the $200,000 was received from 85,000 persons for an average contribution of $2.35 per contributor.

"One reason we are confident we will reach our goal this time is that 5,000 persons who have never contributed before have made contributions this year ($1.6, average per contributor) while 7,000 new residents in the county have contributed an average of $2.05 each.

Miss Wiebecki said the murder of President John F. Kennedy slowed the campaign across the nation.

"People couldn't think of anything else at the time," she said. "It was like when I first learned I had TB. But, then, you learn to accept the things you cannot change and you get on with the business of getting well."

Sunday School Having Program

The children of the Beginner, Primary and Junior Departments of St. Paul Ev. Lutheran Sunday School, Chalfonte and Lothrop, will present their Christmas program on Sunday evening at 6:30.

In charge are Vicar Bruce Bergquist, Fred Thompson, Mrs. Gertrude Becklein, Miss Ruth Ritscher, Mrs. Joanne Graham, Tom Cooper and Mrs. Marion Kraus.

Two worship services will be conducted on Christmas Eve at 6:30 and 11:30 o'clock. The 6:30 service, planned for families, will include a Christmas film strip with record commentary. The Junior and Chapel Chords will sing. The Senior Choir will sing at the Festival service at 11:30.

Patrol to Help Freeway Drivers

The State Highway Department, in an effort to help motorists in distress on freeways, plans to start a special patrol of the high-speed limited access roads by the new year.

State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie said the patrol will go into operation by January 1 on I-96 between Detroit and Muskegon. He said he hopes to have it operating on all state freeways by next July.

Mackie said the handling of breakdowns and other emergency situations on freeways "is a pressing and important matter."

"From the standpoint of safety alone, emergency assistance can be important in reducing the danger to the stranded motorist," he said.

Mackie said that special Highway Department cars marked with yellow flashers and equipped with radios will patrol the 170-mile Detroit-Muskegon freeway from 4 p.m. until 8 a.m. daily and on a 24-hour basis on weekends and holidays.

They will carry cans of gasoline for motorists whose tanks run dry and the patrolmen will assist with changing tires if the person is unable to make the change himself.

They will be equipped with flares, first aid kits and tow chains. With their radios, patrolmen will be able to call for help of any other kind when it is needed.

The new patrol will not enforce speed laws or take action against other traffic violations, Mackie stressed.

"This will be just a service patrol," he said.

He said the Highway Department will use cars it already owns and that about 20 men—all trained in first aid—will be used on the I-96 patrol.

He estimated that eventually 100 men will be needed to patrol Michigan's 1,100 miles of freeways.

Hopefully, Mackie said, patrol cars will be able to pass all points in their approximately 25-mile long route at least once an hour, usually every 30 minutes.

No patrols will be scheduled between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m., because, Mackie said, the work can be done adequately by regular highway department cars using the roads.

There will be no charge for services and no tipping will be allowed, Mackie said.

Film Available On Buick Open

U.S. Open Champion Julius Boros stars with the steady, superb golf which won him the Professional Golf Association's 1963 Player-of-the-Year Award in a brand new film released for free showings by Michigan golf and country clubs, ski areas, outdoor sportsmen, schools, fraternal groups and service clubs.

The film is "The 1963 Buick Open" and pictures Boros at his best in setting new course records at Warwick Hills Golf and Country Club, to win the PGA-sponsored sixth annual $52,000 1963 Buick Open.

It is a 28-minute, 16-mm. sound film in color. Cameras are mostly on Boros in telling dramatically the story of the whole 1963 Open, the full four days of suspenseful build-up to the climax.

The film presents Boros in instructional passages and contains the only motion pictures ever made of a hole-in-one from clubhead to cup in PGA competition. It's Pro Jerry Barber's Buick Open hole-in-one.

"The 1962 Buick Open" film was the most widely shown sports film circulated in the United States during the past year. With "The 1961 Buick Open" film, it has been seen by more than 35 million people.

The 1963 film is immediately available, free for group showings, from Modern Talking Picture Service, Inc., 4754 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Michigan 48201.

The 1962 film stars Pro Bill Collins, presents instructional film featuring him, and also contains Barber's sensational hole-in-one. The 1961 film stars Pro Jack Burke, Jr. and presents him in instructional passages. Both films are similarly available free for showings.

Two Dog Bites Reported in City

Two reports of dog bites were reported to City Police last week. Officer James Cronin took a report December 9 at 3:30 p.m. that Robert Clyde Kubn, 18933 Roscommon, Harper Woods, the custodian at Maize School, was bitten on the left leg by a dog tied to a fence at the rear entrance of the school.

The dog, owned by Mrs. W. C. McLaughlin, 1031 Bishop road, is a male golden retriever. The owner was instructed to keep the dog impounded for ten days and the Board of Health was notified.

Jerry Stotzer, 1949 Littlestone, a driver for the S. F. Delivery Company, reported that while he was making a delivery at 304 Rivard boulevard December 10 he was bitten on the right hand by a black male pointer.

Mrs. Frank Ware, owner of the dog, was ordered to keep the animal in the house for ten days.

Choir Tapes Yule Concert

The Grosse Pointe High School Choir's 36th annual Christmas concert has been taped for broadcast Christmas Eve, from 6:30 to 8 o'clock, over radio station WQRS.

Seniors Mike Scoville and Evan David supervised the program, which includes an interview with Choir director John Finch, accompanist Cheri Burns and Joan Gray, president of the Choraleers.

The concert opens with a traditional Christmas Eve song, "The Candles Glowing in the Windows" and concludes with the incomparable "Silent Night." Actual singing was taped during one recording session; the interviews were made after choir members had departed.

The entire program will be broadcast next Tuesday, December 24, over WQRS, 105.1 on the FM dial.

Safety Patrol Does Big Job

Typical of the boys who serve on the Safety Patrol at each of the 10 buildings of the Grosse Pointe Public School System are these lads at Monteith School. Scheduled to perform a variety of duties in and around the buildings, their main responsibility rests in helping children cross streets as they go to and from school. Boys pictured are (left to right) RICHARD KOLB, BILL HIDER, FRED GERSDORFF, and FORREST WILLIAMS, lieutenant. Patrol sponsor at Monteith is Earl Penno, sixth grade teacher.

Familiar to every resident of the Grosse Pointes are the white-belted boys who stand at street crossings to assist elementary children as they go to and from school. Upper grade boys in each of the ten elementary buildings of The Grosse Pointe Public School System are members of a student organization that helps to make the safe and smooth functioning of the elementary program a reality. One of the men teachers in each building has the responsibility for the group, the size of which is determined by the nature of the neighborhood.

Guido Sabella, sponsor at Maize, states that his boys number 85 in grades four through six. He feels that membership in the Safety Patrol helps to develop leadership, reliability, loyalty, and punctuality. "Boys are provided opportunities for recognition and to develop social inter-relations with peers. Community service and sacrifice of personal interests developed in children may be instrumental in fostering community good will and a willingness to serve one's city and country in adulthood," he adds. At Monteith, sponsor Earl Penno, reports that boys assist at the bicycle racks and in the bus loading areas in addition to other duties. "The corps these numbers 64.

Patrol advisor James Lewis reports 46 members of his organization at Defer. Teachers' recommendations are needed to secure the honored duty among the upper elementary grade boys.

A manual of instruction at Mason School outlines the boys' duties. Leaving little to chance, one section is entitled, "What to Do When On Your Post." It includes these points: "1. Extend arms when children approach. This is your signal for them to stop until you are sure it is safe for them to cross. Stand facing the street. "2. Look left, right, behind, and in front. "3. Step to one side, not forward, and then, still watching traffic, drop arms and motion the children to cross. Have them cross in groups as much as possible. "4. Return to position at post and watch for approaching children."

Mr. Milton Riggs is sponsor at Mason. The Safety Patrol at Barnes, the responsibility of Ronald Ferguson, has in addition to its regular duties, care of some playground equipment. Grades 3 and 6 provide 59 boys for

Hole-In-One Puts Pointer in Contest

Another Grosse Pointe golfer is keeping his fingers crossed in hopes of doing his golfing in Scotland next year... free, of course. By scoring a hole-in-one at the Essex Golf and Country Club, Henry Gajewozk of 470 Lexington road, became eligible to win a round trip to Scotland for two and $1,000. The linksman may find himself golfing on Scotland's world-famous St. Andrews Golf Course next season by virtue of his having entered the Old Smuggler Hole-In-One Sweepstakes. The winner will be announced in January.

Police Accuse Drunk Driver

Thomas A. Martin of 8696 Dumbarton, Detroit, was ticketed by Shores police on Sunday, December 8, and charged with driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of liquor.

Martin was arrested by Patrolman Melvin Yaeks, who saw Martin driving north on Lake Shore drive in a car that had obviously been involved in a traffic accident. The car was creating extensive heat and smoke, the officer said, and was being driven erratically. When he stopped the car, Yaeks said, Martin ran up a curb before bringing the vehicle to a halt. The policeman said that when Martin was ordered out of the car, he staggered noticeably and that there was a strong odor of alcohol on his breath.

At the station, Martin was locked in a jail cell. A check with Detroit police disclosed that Martin's car had been involved in an accident at Conner and Jefferson, a short time before his arrest in the Shores. Detroit authorities said that at the time the car was driven by Ruthie Mae Belvens of 15519 Idaho, Detroit, who was a passenger in Martin's car when it was stopped by Yaeks. Martin was released from the cell after he sobered up, and was released on bond of $100. Court date is set for December 18.

Dethmers Picked By Republicans

The Fourteenth District Young Republican Club tonight elected David Dethmers Chairman for the coming year. In winning this post, Dethmers follows the tradition of his father, John Dethmers, who is a justice of the Michigan Supreme Court, and his brother Robert, who is State Chairman of the Michigan Young Republican Federation.

David Dethmers, a graduate of the University of Michigan Law School and an attorney for Parke, Davis, was also chosen as a Fourteenth District delegate to the Young Republican State Board of Control. Other officers who will take the reins of the Fourteenth District club at their January 16 meeting are: Vice Chairmen, Howard Lutz, who is also a member of the State Board of Control; recording secretary, Carol Dennis; corresponding secretary, Pam Goodrich; and treasurer, John Schroeder, who is also secretary of the "Republican Citizens—Fourteenth District" organization.

Continue Study of Elm Disease

The selection of resistant varieties offers the ultimate hope for control of the deadly Dutch elm disease, according to a University of Wisconsin researcher. More than 380 introductions of seed from various members of the elm family from many parts of the world are now being treated to find a good resistant variety, said Eugene B. Smalley of the U-W Department of Plant Pathology.

Plants are inoculated with the fungus causing Dutch elm disease during the fourth year of growth, and the resistant individuals selected for further evaluation as to hardiness, form and disease resistance, he told a Michigan State University conference Dec. 6. Another method being studied for possible aid in the practical control of the disease is the use of TCPA, a chemical which showed up well in early tests, Smalley noted.

TCPA is a plant growth regulator, which converts the normally susceptible host to one which is resistant, the speaker said. Injected into nursery seedlings, the chemical gave high levels of protection in separate trials over several years without apparent toxicity to the trees, he continued. The chemical has no fungicidal activity and is not toxic to animals, he added.

Six-year-old Lindsey Beardslee, arriving home from school the day after her grandmother, Mrs. Robert P. Scherer, had been visited by the "cat," overheard scraps of conversation relative to the burglary. Her mother, Mrs. William C. Beardslee, was surprised later in the afternoon by a phone call from Lindsey's teacher, who reported the child had matter-of-factly told her classmates, "The cat burglar was in my grandmother's house, but he didn't get anything 'cause she hasn't got a cat!"

Among the pretty hostesses stationed in Pointe homes for the annual Christmas Walk, sponsored by the Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, was Mrs. Robert M. Hoffer, of Colonial road. Blond Martha Hoffer, wearing a gay red-and-white checked wool dress, stationed herself in the brick-walled breakfast nook of the Robert W. Scripps' new house in Lakeshore road, slipping open sliding glass doors to let Walkers out after their tour of the exquisitely designed, exquisitely situated Colonial home.

Mrs. John V. Sheoris, of Grayton road, has started a one-woman crusade against televised toy advertising. Determining to "condition" her small daughter, Dee Dee, against the blandishments of the Idiot Box, she began telling the child "We don't buy ANYTHING we see on television!" early in the season, and has succeeded so well that Dee Dee now reminds her mother, tempted to stretch a point for some particularly fascinating toys, "We don't buy ANYTHING we see on television!"

Vanguard Theater patrons, bemused and bewitched by the current offering, "Too Many Thumbs," (a sort of avant-garde production), may apply to the younger set for enlightenment. Eight Grosse Pointe High School seniors—Bob Hoberling, Harry Schaffauser, Bob Adams, Mary Valentine, Nancy Brown, Judy Altman, Sandy Schopbach and Kris Anderson—regularly usher at Vanguard on Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings. The teenagers are permitted to see the play free of charge when the audience has been seated, and after several weeks of performances it may be presumed that they have a fairly good idea of what it is all about.

Christmas shopping presents no problem to Mrs. Arthur Murphy, of Somerset road. This talented lady simply sets up her loom and starts to weave, fashioning exquisite fabrics in the comfort of her own home while her less artistically inclined friends fight the holiday crowds. This season, she has designed several luscious cocktail aprons in glowing pastels, the waistbands and pocket trimmings shot with silver or gold thread. Weaving, Mrs. Murphy reports, is a satisfying hobby and fairly easy to learn . . . once you have managed to prepare your loom, the work becomes almost automatic.

Canteen Conversation

By Rick Mills

Christmas . . . a word, a thought, or a hope? What is it? It is a time of year when people are rushing to send cards, buy presents, and make holiday plans. People who sometimes see or hear from one another only once a year try to get together. It's a happy, frantic, loud, friendly time of year. What makes Christmas all these things and more? Why do people have a "good" feeling at Christmas time? Why do kids laugh with joy and adults smile with pleasure? What does Christmas mean to you? Here are some answers from teens to this question.

Bruce Fox: "When I hear the word Christmas, I think of trees, gifts, good food, cold snowy weather, family get-togethers, and good cheer."

Bruce Huegli: "Christmas brings to mind the birth of Christ. It is a time to give as well as receive. The hustle and bustle of people in the streets, and the joy of most people are all a part of Christmas. Above all, it is the celebration of Christ's birth."

Bill Choje: "I think of vacations, meeting friends, fun, and presents on Christmas day."

Charles Russel: "I try to think of Christmas as the birth of Christ, but the influence of society has added so much more that sometimes it is difficult to see through to the real meaning of this occasion."

John McMillin: "I think of the good spirit at Christmas time that should be continued all through the year."

Terry Phlaumer: "I am reminded of a universal happy spirit. There is too much merchandising connected with Christmas. Fortunately, however, most people realize and observe the real meaning of this day."

One thousand nine hundred sixty three years ago, Jesus Christ was born. Since then, in remembrance of His birth, people have been celebrating Christmas. Many new customs and feelings have been added and sometimes we forget that all caused by one basic event; the gift that God gave the world.

Pointers of Interest

MR. and MRS. GARI W. KERSTEN, KIMBERLY ANN and KAREN MARIE, of McKINLEY AVENUE

By Janet Mueller

This will be the Kersten twins' first "real" Christmas, but their parents have determined not to make it a major production.

"At 14 months, they are really not aware of Christmas," their mother maintains. "And we thought we'd keep it that way until they are about 14 years," adds their father—only joking, of course, but that particular joke is such to strike a responsive chord in the shopped-out brains of many Pointe parents.

Not that the Kerstens, Scrooge-like, intend a "Bah, humbug!" boycott of all holiday paraphernalia . . . there will be a tree, and presents, and the usual Christmas morning fun, but Karen and Kimberly's big gifts will go in their bank savings accounts.

Their mother and father, the is an assistant trust officer at the Detroit Bank and Trust Co., feel that Christmases and birthdays should be celebrations rather than hand-out days. What Kimberly and Karen think on the subject remains to be seen; they still have a little difficulty discussing abstract ideas.

Was Half-Surprise

The Kersten twins' arrival was a half-surprise. "We'd talked and joked about two babies, but until they were actually born we weren't sure we'd have twins," says Rosemarie Kersten. Her husband did not immediately run out and buy a second layette. They had prepared for a single child—and for their FIRST child—and, really, we had enough for five babies!"

The one thing they did need was an extra crib; Gari managed to pick up a matching one, the last in the store, and the Kerstens were ready for business. While her husband was out getting the crib, Rosemarie was thinking.

Somewhere, she reasoned, there must be an organization that concerned itself specifically with the problems and delights of suddenly becoming double, or triple, or even quadruple parents.

The Hospital helped. She was given a book, "And Then There Were Two," written by 100 mothers of twins. She even discovered that a Mothers of Twins Club existed in the Detroit area—on the other side of town.

Started Pointe Branch Rosemarie determined to open a Grosse Pointe branch of the club.

Eleven women formed the Pointe multiple-birth club nucleus; membership now numbers 20. The mothers meet once a month, (miss three meetings, and you're out!), exchange ideas and equipment, (things like double strollers are expensive and hard to come by), invite speakers whose topics range from cancer prevention and control to quick and easy ways for a busy housewife to do her hair at home.

Triplet, quadruplet and even quintuplet mothers are welcome, and the group plans to extend an invitation to women who have adopted two children very close in age.

The Pointe Club is affiliated with the national Mothers of Twins organization, headquartered in Toledo, which maintains a library and research department, serves as an interstate equipment and idea clearing house, and corresponds with multiple-birth mothers all over the world.

Problems All Alike

Not too surprisingly, twins in Timbuktu, Singapore and Grosse Pointe all present the same problems to their parents . . . and the parents are heartened to discover other mothers and fathers have survived days when the question was not WHETHER to pick up a crying baby, but WHICH crying baby to pick up first!

Luc killy, bright-eyed, blond

Kimberly and Karen Kersten have sunny dispositions.

Gari and Rosemarie agree that the first weeks at home are the roughest, with 16 bottles of formula to prepare at a time and the omnipresent shadow of the 2 o'clock feeding. With twins, you begin warming the bottles at 1:30 and are finished around 3:30—leaving roughly two hours of sleep before it's time to begin 6 o'clock feeding preparations. The Kersten babies went off the 2 o'clock snack at 10 weeks.

Rosemarie, "believing you have to start some time," refused offers of help from family and friends . . . and had her pre-birth figure back in less than a month.

All Systems "Go"

During the week, she struggled out of bed at 1:30 in the morning. Gari took over the "night detail" on weekends, and days saw all systems in the Kersten household, sterilizer, washing machine, dryer, going at once. "If there'd ever been an electrical failure, we would have died!"

The big advantages of twins come later. Now, Kimberly and Karen entertain and teach each other. Their mother and father find they don't need, and often don't particularly want, a parent's constant supervision. They have learned to wait their turn, and are perhaps less selfish than single-birth babies. Identical twins, they are generally dressed alike, but Mrs. Kersten says she will never insist on identical dresses if the girls themselves object.

"We want to make them appreciate, but not depend on each other," adds Mr. Kersten. "On the other hand, we don't want to jerk them apart."

The Kersten home is a warm place, with Early American and "good" Victorian furniture highlighted by browns, reds, golds and fine-grained woods.

Like to Browse

Gari and Rosemarie both like to browse through antique shops and homes, describing themselves as "pick-it-up" rather than "do-it" yourselfers.

A high-backed Hall Chair, with inset mirror and pegs for hats and coats, relic of the pre-built-in closet days, is one of their favorite pieces, and there are several marble-top tables, one with unusual tear-drop pulls, scattered throughout the house.

Mr. Kersten is especially fond of a carved square bed, c. 1875, with high head and footboards and a removable panel. He likes the grain and richness of oak, currently an "unfashionable" wood, and among his oak pieces is a wonderful roll top desk—the kind sheriffs are always seated at in television westerns.

One of the Kerstens' newest antiques is a seven-inch TV set, pre-dating Sony by several years; one of their prettiest and most useful is a laundry stove; originally used to warm starch and water, Gari Kersten found it in Muir road, slapped a coat of black paint on it, and came up with a perfect coffee table for his back porch.

Stroller Project Halted

Still in the "un-renovated" stage is an elaborate Victorian stroller with a frilled canopy. The Kerstens had planned to do it over in plush and velvet for their first baby; then they had twins. The stroller remains in the basement, among pending projects.

Currently, Gari Kersten owns three cars, a fire engine and a velocipede.

The car he drives to work looks rather like everyone else's, but his sports model, a 1911 Ford "Torpedo" roadster with convertible top, is quite a traffic stopper. On more formal occasions, the family travels via a 1921 Model T—the Center Door model, with a cut glass vase for flowers, oval rear window and original upholstery.

In case of fire, the 1921 engine stands ready to go . . . and up to five years ago, when Gari Kersten bought it, the engine DID go as the only fire truck in a small Ontario town.

The velocipede, difficult to mount and almost impossible to ride, has caused more than one Pointe bus driver to do a quick double-take.

Stands By for Fall

Mr. Kersten confines his velocipede riding to the immediate neighborhood, where children are fascinated by "Mr. Gari" and his amazing machine, and "Mrs. Gari" is near at hand to pick up the pieces, if necessary. So far, there have been no disasters, but a velocipede seat is rather a high perch from which to fall.

The Kerstens like to attend model car meets and picnics together. Their family life is hectic, but not hurried; they take each day as it comes, enjoy life and are delighted with their twins.

Kimberly and Karen's debut may have been a bit of a shock, but it was a very pleasant shock. And this Christmas, waiting to see two little girls' eyes light up at their first glimpse of a glittering tree, Gari and Rosemarie Kersten think there's nothing like being the parents of twins.

SKIDS INTO PARKED CAR

John Snell, Jr., of 782 Loraine, gave an accident report to City police December 14 at 6:15 p.m. His car skidded into a parked car in front of his home. The parked car was owned by John T. Griffin, 799 Loraine. Mr. Snell agreed to pay the damages.

JAMBOLAYA LA FITTE

Contributed by Mrs. Gilbert H. Wheldou

- 1/2 pound raw smoked ham
1 tablespoon bacon fat or 2 slices, cut fine
1/2 cup tomatoes
1 pound raw shrimp
1/2 pound raw breakfast sausage
1/2 cup chopped onion
1 clove garlic, mashed
1 pod red pepper or 1/4 teaspoon hot red pepper
1 dozen oysters
1 tablespoon flour
2 cups beef stock
3/4 cup raw brown rice
1 tablespoon chopped parsley
1/2 teaspoon chopped thyme salt and pepper

Heat bacon fat (or cook bacon bits if latter is used) in a bean pot, add chopped onion. Brown slightly, dredge in flour and brown more. Add ham—cut into 1 inch pieces, and sausage which has been skinned. Have shrimp carefully backed and shelled. Add to other ingredients with tomatoes. Simmer in covered pot 1 1/2 hour. Add garlic, stock, finely chopped red pepper, parsley, thyme, well washed rice and salt. Cook with cover on until rice is done, but not gummy. Add oysters, cleaned and wiped, and cook 2 minutes longer. With a light green salad, this makes a complete luncheon or Sunday night supper.

Marie Bird's Beauty By Line

Let's talk about time . . . life's most precious gift . . . a gift that money cannot buy.

Do we spend our time wisely . . . making the most of every day . . . doing the things we know should be done . . . and curbing our impulses that would lead us to do things we might regret?

Surely Christmas time is more than the frantic shopping for gifts . . . addressing cards and dashing to keep beauty salon appointments.

As we approach this Holy Season I believe that deep within our hearts we seek and find the spiritual strength and renewal that makes life and time worthwhile.

Today my staff joins me in wishing you a Happy Holiday as we pause and take time to recall the miracle of that first Christmas . . . and give thanks for the Light that has given hope to mankind for almost two thousand years.
