I Worry About The Missing Men. Thoroughbred racing in Detroit draws approximately 2,000,000 Fans annually. That is a point of pride with me.

It puzzles me, however, that many sports fans in the metropolitan area never have visited the Detroit Race Course. I think they are missing some of the greatest thrills and excitement the Sports World offers. I would like The Missing Men (and Women, too) to be my guests during GOOD NEIGHBOR WEEK, which we will celebrate August 8 through August 13. Clip your FREE TICKETS. Pay us a visit. Join the growing number of Fans who have helped make Thoroughbred Racing

America's most popular spectator sport. GOOD NEIGHBOR Week originally was our way of saluting the people of Livonia, where our track is located However, with the amazing growth of racing in Michigan and its increased popularity, we have moved beyond such community limitations.

Now, GOOD NEIGHBOR Week is our way of greeting Fans throughout the metropolitan area.

If you are one of the MISSING MEN (or Women), let me tell you a little about the Detroit Race Course.

We race daily, except Sunday, through November 5. Post parade on weekdays is 3:20 p.m. On Saturdays and Holidays it is 2 p.m. There are nine races Monday through Friday and 10 races each Saturday.

We have a magnificent new $3,000,000 Clubhouse. It provides the ultimate in convenience, comfort and beauty for the Fan.

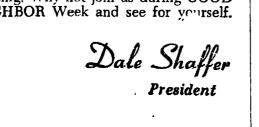

We have two superlative Dining Terraces, offering the finest in food and beverages. From your table you can see the thrilling action every step of the way around the track.

The YE OLDE TIRED HORSE PUB is an authentic Old English tavern, with all the charm of a by-gone day. It is a great spot for a leisurely sandwich or a cocktail. There is NEVER a cover or a minimum charge.

We have close-in parking facilities for 12.000 cars. There are three Easy-In entrances to the track. They are off Middlebelt, Schoolcraft and Inkster Roads.

Between races you can enjoy a leisurely stroll about the Clubhouse and view the 30 outstanding Thoroughbred paintings by Fay Moore. It is one of the world's finest collections of Sports art.

Two things make these names worth remembering: Mustang GT 350; and Cobra. These men sell them. More important, they're practically the only men in Michigan who do. You'll find them at Stark Hickey Ford, Inc. on Woodward north of 11 Mile. Give them a ring at JC 4-6832 or LI 1-1680. Better yet, drop by the showroom and see the GT 350 and the only available new Cobra in Michigan.

Later, though, he contacted Eddie Hayes, former sports editor of The Detroit Times. Hayes suggested the purchase of a franchise in Buffalo; his reasoning being that the Lions had drawn fairly well in that city during several exhibition appearances.

Traveling to Buffalo, Wilson eally did not know what to expect. He was immediately greeted by the sports editor of the Buffalo Evening News, who convinced Wilson that the city of Buffalo could and would support a professional footbal!

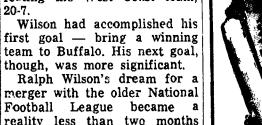

Wilson then made a deal with the Buffalo paper. "If they would guarantee the city a football team for three years." An enthusiastic sports editor and a proud sports owner shook hands.

Last week an animal story, poignant yet with a happy ending, was given considerable space in a number of publications, including this paper. It concerned the so-called "wild dog", a beautiful collie who roamed the grounds of the Country Club and Hunt Club for a year, avoiding the proff-red kindness of all who tried to befriend her, but obviously seeking constantly for the owner from whom she had been separated.

After she was "captured", (with the help of tranquilizers placed in food left to entice her), and her picture appeared in the Detroit News, her mistress came forward to claim her and there was a happy reunion. Frightened by firecrackers a year ago, she had fled in panic and made the long, long trip to the Pointe, where tate as his Memorial. she set up a new headquarters. Free from the thoughtless "people" she could no longer trust, she was unable of saws felling the largest of to resist the urge to continue the search for the human love she had known.

This week, one of the ugliest and most revolting stories in our experience, again concerning an animal, has made the headlines. We refer to the maniacal motorcyclist who invaded private property for the purpose of killing a toy poodle, sitting in the driveway of his master. According to three witnesses, Frankie was complacently surveying his own world, from his own throne, when this lunatic on motorized wheels drove by. Seeing the dog. he deliberately made a U-turn, rode into the driveway and into the poodle, knocking it out in the street. Following up this unbelievable act of cruelty, he made a second U-turn and crashed into Frankie once again, killing him.

Frankie's owner, Constable Charles Stewart of Novi, Village) went beyond the eighth Mich., has posted a $200 reward for information leading to the arrest of this murderous imbecile. A good description has been furnished by the witnesses of the incredible cruelty. It is to be devoutly wished that he will be apprehended quickly and that the severest punishment legally allowed will be meted out. Hanging by the thumbs for a few weeks would be far better than he deserves.

There is a nursing station on each floor of Georgian East and it is always staffed by registered nurses. There are often practical nurses, nurses' aides and other members of the Georgian East staff on hand too.

The nursing station is the nerve center of the meticulous nursing service that Georgia East provides 24 hours every day, seven days a week.

Located at the heart of the building, it is the center of communications of every sort-patients' calls, conversations between staff people on different floors, a paging system that provides instantaneous communications.

The central nursing station is a command post. Needs are reported here, decisions made. Patients' records are kept here, doctors' orders are on file for immediate reference.

The central nursing station is another of the service facilities that make Georgian East exceptional . . . That enable us to provide convalescent and geriatric care that meets only one standard-the best.

We welcome visitors. Please phone or just stop by when you are in the naighborhood.

The man in the seat next to ours on the international fught into Kennedy last week had a suggestion.

"Just go to the American counter, hold up your Northwest ticket, and whimper," he advised.

It seemed, at the time, as constructive an idea as any we'd come up with. "Is that what you're going to do?" we asked politely.

The man grinned. "I," he said (unconsciously adopting that patronizing tone of voice New York area residents use when speaking to anyone from out-back America), "live in Englewood, New Jersey . . .

"What," asked the pleasant young lady at the Advance Ticketing counter, "ARE you doing?

"Whimpering," we replied, happy, after 20 minutes or so of making soft mewling noises far back in our throat, to have been noticed.

"That," she said, raising her eyebrows, "is a new one . . ."

"All right, you're ticketed out on Flight 892Y at 6:45 p.m. . . .

We thanked her, and got up off our knees. "Now that wasn't so bad at ALL," we thought, clutching our validated ticket to our bosom. "Only an 81/2 hour wait, and in Kennedy . . . There's plenty to do in Kennedy . . ."

The porter stoed guard over our bags, outside the terminal. "Everything's fino," we burbled, smiling up at him. "I'm ticketed out on Flight 892Y at 6:45 ends tomorrow but the youngest member of the band p.m. . . . "

Three hours later, fat and drunk, the text of our second pocketbook of the day swimming before our eyes. we decided it was time to start telephoning. We began with relatives:
