THE LIBERAL PARTY has offered Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr. the opportunity to run for governor of New York. In accepting, Roosevelt said he was attempting to "take politics out of the back rooms of both parties and let the people decide." This is the first time in its 22-year history that the Liberal Party has not endorsed the candidate of the Democratic Party for governor.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON launched an all out attack on inflation and interest rates by proposing a 16-month suspension of two tax incentives for business investment in new plants and equipment. These suspensions would be retroactive to September 1 and would end on January 1, 1968. Economists blame just such spending for the present inflationary squeeze.

COMMUNIST CHINA has threatened to move into North Vietnam if Hanoi makes any gesture of conciliation with the U. S.

Through Peking radio, it was reported that China has ordered its army "to heighten alertness and make all preparations for waging a war." Peking has dispelled any doubts about its feeling on a negotiated settlement.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON signed into law the auto safety bill. He promised that Dr. Williams Haddon Jr., administrator of the new Traffic Safety Agency would cooperate by developing "reasonable yet realistic safety standards" for new cars. He asked auto makers not to raise new car prices because of this bill.

THE POLICY of the Post Office Department's renting of space from private landlords, fell under heavy criticism from Senator John J. Williams of Delaware. He used Detroit as a "glaring" example of political profiteering. The Detroit building was built by the Philadelphia Construction firm owned by Matthew H. McCloskey, former treasurer of the Democratic National Committee.

AMERICAN MOTORS CORP. is optimistic about 1967 since the federal government announced its intention to classify AMC as a "small business." This will enable them to vie for a larger share of government contracts. The reclassification will make AMC the largest business with a "small business" classification.

DESPITE VIETCONG terrorism and Bhuddist efforts to get the voters to stay home, the South Vietnamese voted in large numbers today. 83.2 percent of the eligible voters cast their ballots. Chief of State Thieu called this election "the greatest political victory ever recorded by the free Vietnamese."

The voters chose a national assembly and charged them with writing a constitution. The size of the vote was considered the most significant feature of the election.

ASTRONAUTS Charles (Pete) Conrad and Richard F. Gordon overtook and docked with an Agena capsule on their first orbit. This captures another world space record for the United States. The astronauts overhauled the target satellite and hooked onto it an hour and a half after their 9:42 a.m. (Cape time) blastoff from Cape Kennedy. Conrad and Gordon gave an account of this historic achievement for millions of television viewers.

Three Councilmen to Meet with Architects Bidding for Improvements at Two Sites

The Park council at a regular meeting held on Monday, September 12, approved the appointment of three of its members as a committee to interview representatives of firms interested in submitting architectural and engineering proposals for proposed improvements at both the Three Mile Drive and Waterfront Parks.

Picked by Mayor Matthew Patterson to talk to agents of seven companies bidding to become the planners for the parks, were Councilmen George Verdont, William Luedders and Robert Hutton.

The three were instructed to conduct the interviews this week, and to submit their recommendations to the council at its next regular session on Monday, September 26.

The architectural firm selected by the council will prepare plans for the development of the parks, including a proposed swimming pool in each park, in time to present the plans to the public, before a referendum on November 8.

The voters will be asked to approve a $1,000,000 bond issue to raise funds for this project.

Favored by Residents

A recent study made by the Park Plan Commission, and submitted to the council following a July public hearing on the '65 Park and Recreation Program, disclosed that residents in general favored a program of improvements at the parks.

Accused on two counts, breaking and entering and larceny from a building, are George L. Francis, 25, of 1215 Bruce Lincoln, Madison Heights. They were captured within 11 minutes after they left the Davis residence, from where they took a safe containing an undetermined amount of jewelry, and two fur pieces valued at a total of $1,000.

Pointe's Lakefront Parks Nearing Close of Another Season of Great Activity

Balmy September Weather Keeps Pools Open Later Than Usual; Many Improvements Made At Beach Recreation Areas

Despite the balmy temperatures, activity has dropped off at all Pointe waterfront parks. The Woods will shut down its pool "by ear," as will the Farms, letting the demand determine the closing date. The Shores will cut off swimming on September 18; and the City and Park planned to close their pools last Sunday, September 11.

Rain and/or cold temperatures cut attendance figures at the parks over the Labor Day week-end. Although the Woods had a record 9,000 patrons on Saturday, 82 on Sunday, and 200 on Labor Day, said John Thursty, acting park director. Highest attendance during the summer was around 1,250 in a single day.

E. L. Brenner, assistant Farms park administrator, said 193,000 residents came to the park from Memorial Day to Labor Day, with the single day's high 5,195 on July 23. September 3 records show 2,747; September 4, 1,991; and September 5, 1,579.

No Record Broken

Tom Gauerke, City park director, was hoping to break last year's attendance record of 116,353 but said the drop in temperatures of the week following Labor Day discouraged many residents. Only 273 came on the Saturday before Labor Day, 707 on Sunday, and 615 on September 5.

Park waterfront park recording to Farms Det. Sgt. George Van Tiem and Det. Joseph Miller, were Harper Woods Patrolmen Edward R. Smith and Warren Newton, and St. Clair Shores Patrolmen Thomas Hannon and James Ellenburg.

Van Tiem and Miller said that a perpetual motion clock in the Davis home, was tipped slightly and left at an angle by the accused pair while they were searching the house. This caused the clock to stop at 2:44 a.m. At 2:55 a.m., Francis and Grissom were in custody in St. Clair Shores.

The burglary was discovered by the Davises' son, James, who immediately called police, who almost as quickly broadcast a message over the police radio for the apprehension of suspicious persons in the area.

Need to Hike School Taxes Diminished

Election Raises Operating Millage Postponed by Adjusted State Aid, Local Tax Base

With the public hearing on the proposed 1966-1967 budget of the Grosse Pointe Public School System held last Monday night, school financing and its attendant problems loom large in the minds of the local school administrators, Board members, and interested citizens.

In light of the uncertain future faced by many school districts in the Detroit metropolitan area as school opens, the Grosse Pointe News has sought the answers to a number of pertinent questions on the financing of the local public schools.

School officials have revealed that 74.6 percent of the funds needed to operate The Grosse Pointe Public School System are raised locally, with 21.4 percent coming from state aid and 4 percent from other sources.

They said that their long-range plans are affected by many factors over which the local school authorities have no control. For example, two pieces of legislation passed in Lansing during the 1965-1966 fiscal year had profound effects upon the budgets of school districts throughout the state.

Right To Bargain

The first of these, Public Act 379, provided public employees with the right to bargain collectively with their employers. In an election held in the local public schools on November 18, the Grosse Pointe Education Association became the sole bargaining for the system's 530 professionals.

Following months of discussion, the Master Contract was signed by the representatives of the Association and the Board on April 5, providing for increases in wages for the 1966-1967 year. The cost of the total package, including salary improvements and fringe benefits, is approximately $375,000.

When the school administration and the Board of Education agreed to the contract, the teachers were informed that the school district had the funds to pay for the increased economic benefits by tapping its escrow for future budget. But the teachers were told that to maintain the salary schedule beyond the 1966-1967 year, the taxpayers of the school district would be required to authorize additional operating millage.

No Vote Necessary

However, according to current estimates, there have been sufficient adjustments in State School Aid and in the local property tax base (State Equal-

Park to Purchase Submerged Lands At Lakefront Sites

Council Approves Expenditure of $26,570 to Add Over 10 Acres to Recreational Areas At Three Mile and Alter Road

The Park is ready to expend a total of $26,570 for slightly more than 10 acres of submerged land, including the area recently acquired from Detroit and a section of the presently developed water front park at the foot of Alter road.

At its regular meeting held on Monday, September 12, the Park council was informed by City Attorney Richard Rohr that the way has been cleared by the Michigan Department of Conservation, and the State Water Resources Commission for the immediate purchase of 4.56 acres of bottom land along the Three Mile Drive Park, for seven and one-half cents a square foot, or a total of $14,850.

The city attorney disclosed that all that need be done in this matter is to send the Conservation Department a check covering the payment, since the survey has been completed and the purchase agreement approved.

Still under discussion, but not creating too great a problem, Rohr said, is a survey of the 7.4 acres of the Waterfront Park at the foot of Alter road, to determine the original shoreline, before bottom land was filled to expand the park.

The location of the original waterline is a little hazy, Rohr said, with the State claiming that part of the line was at one time, up to what today is Windmill Pointe drive. The Park disputes this claim.

Rohr said that the entire Waterfront park was not developed on submerged land, and the city is seeking a deed to approximately 5.5 acres, including two acres of land along Fox Creek, acquired from Detroit about two years ago to augment the park area.

Because of the haziness involving the shoreline history, and since the Park is using presently developed land, and will use the submerged land for public use, there is a possibility that the State will set a purchase price of four and one-half cents a square foot, and the approximately 5.5 acres of land involved, for a total price of $11,720. This includes the two acres deeded to the Park by Detroit, it was said.

Deal Nears Close

Rohr told the council that all that need be done to complete the Three Mile Drive Park submerged land deal is to send a check for the total purchase amount to the State Conservation Department, and the city will receive a so-called restricted deed, provided the land is for public use, which of course is the City's purpose.

Acquisition of the submerged land at the waterfront park, the city attorney said, will have to await a final survey, but no difficulty is anticipated Rohr said.

The Park council approved expenditure of funds set aside for the cost of the bottom lands at both parks, the immediate purchase of the Three Mile Drive Park bottom lands, and to pay for the Waterfront Park land, when the purchase is approved.

Acting Superintendent Harold Husband Makes Presentation Before Board Approves

Highlight of Monday evening's meeting of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education was a presentation on the proposed 1966-1967 budget for The Grosse Pointe Public School System. J. Harold Husband, Acting Superintendent of Schools used a variety of visual aids during his half-hour discussion. By means of overhead transparencies and colored slides he discussed the system's proposed budget of $9,923,919.

Mr. Husband went through the various categories of the proposed budget and commented upon the growth of the school system and the expansion of its services to the community over the years. His pictures, charts and commentary focused upon the instructional program, special services, driver education, increase in enrollment proved teaching aids and instructional materials, and increased maintenance costs. Estimated per-pupil cost of educating a child during 1966-1967 is reported at $686. The Acting Superintendent said that it costs $3.84 per day, or 64 cents an hour, to educate a student in the Grosse Pointe public schools.

The proposed recommended budget was passed unanimously by the school trustees. Monday's public hearing on the budget climaxed months of study and discussion by the trustees and administrators and represented economies and revision to the extent of $300,000 over initial plans.

Enrollment Is 12,123

Mr. Husband reported to the Board of Education that the enrollment of the schools on Thursday, September 8, the first day of the 1966-1967 year was 12,123. It rose an additional 25 on September 9 and on Monday, the total enrollment of the local public schools stood at 12,238.

A breakdown of the figures shows a total of 6332 children from kindergarten through grade 5, in the system's 10 elementary buildings, an increase of 138 over the same time a year ago. The three junior high schools contain 2969 students, an increase of 101 over September of 1965.

The enrollment at Grosse Pointe High School stands at 2987, an increase of 175 over a year ago at this time. All in all, at the outset of the 1966-1967 year, The Grosse Pointe Public School System has the responsibility for educating 414 children more than it did one year ago.

With approval received from the Municipal Finance Commission for the sale of 1966 tax anticipation notes for general operation in the amount of $3,225,000.00 the Board of Education opened bids at 8 p.m. on Monday. The trustees accepted the bid of 3.25 per cent of the National Bank of Detroit, with a maturity date of June 1, 1967.

Mails Bid Rejected

In their discussion, the trustees rejected as too-high a bid for the first phase of a landscaping program at Maire Elementary School. Estimated to cost $15,000, the single bidder submitted a bid of $22,900.

Because of current high interest rates, a committee of school trustees will meet later this week to discuss the possibility of postponing until a more favorable time the sale of the supplemental bond issue authorized in May for the completion of Grosse Pointe High School North.

The Board of Education passed upon a variety of routine personnel appointments, heard a report from attorney Thomas Coulter, and approved the minutes of a special meeting held August 22.

Met in Library

Monday's session of the Board of Education, the regular September meeting, was moved from the Board Room in the school's administration building at 389 St. Clair avenue to the Exhibition Room of the Central Library because a program of renovation and remodeling is currently in progress. It is expected to be completed by November.

Laketront Park Near Season's End

On view at the City's Neff Park was one of the girl life guards — a statuesque blonde — which may have been what brought the 'copters down so low.
A five-year-old named Mark was climbing the steel supports of the Farms gatehouse with no visible means of support except two bare hands and two bare feet. He was calling high when a park attendant caught him at it and ordered him sternly down.

The handsome ceramic tile mosaics at the Ceramics Park might have attracted the attention of the flying entourage, or the luxuriant flower beds — or color seems to be everywhere at the smallest of the Pointe's waterfront facilities.

At the largest park, the Woods, the pool must have looked like a small lake lined with azure concrete and two bare feet. He was calling high when a park attendant caught him at it and ordered him sternly down.

Congresswomen in the group might have noticed the Tarzan-like physique of more than one of the Woods guards, all Woods residents and an exceptionally fine group of swimmers and teachers, according to Supervisor Hallman.

"Improvements this summer at the Woods included black-top on the roads running along Milk River and the boat launching ramp," said Hallman. "A new 150-foot square patio for sunbathing is contemplated near the pool, as well as concrete walls in the swimming lanes in place of the existing wooden ones."

Shuffleboard Popular
"The nine shuffleboard courts got a tremendous play; also, use of the tennis courts has increased this year."

"But the boaters are one of the most active groups we have." What do they do when the weather is bad? "—sail! We have 43 sails, 230 boats; there are races for the sailors every Sunday, rain or shine, wind or not."

"The Shores has more of a 'family' pool," according to Acting Supervisor Thurstby who replaced Robert Kurvink, director of the park for 13 years, when he left early in July.

"Everyone sits around the pool talking; they all know each other," said Thurstby who is also a guidance counselor at Grose Pointe High School. He was being approached continuously by youngsters asking questions or favors such as "Would you keep my watch and glasses for me while I swim?" "They'll be in the top drawer at the desk," said Thurstby amiably, "just pick them up on your way out."

He also grouped a suspicious "dry" group of young boys to take a shower before entering the pool. "A hot shower—with soap," he called after them as they disappeared into the locker room.

"Some of the residents who have always done their swimming in the lake, won't use the pool," he said. "We don't station a guard at the roped off area of the dock, but anyone can request the service."

Three New Courts
The new tennis courts are in the planning stage, according to Thurstby, badly needed because the present two were built so that one player must face the sun; two shuffleboard courts were installed, but in time to be surfaced this year.

Shuffleboard courts are moderately popular at the Farms which has a badminton and volleyball court, popular tetherball and basketball areas. "One elderly couple had their own equipment which they brought down with them," said Assistant Administrator Brenner, "but I haven't seen them this year."

There will be more racks built to accommodate sailfish, in answer to popular demand. According to Brenner, the new harbor dock and boat facilities construction is scheduled for completion next April 15. Built to the left of the old dock, and crossing back in front of it like the upper part of a square-off "G," it should provide bigger and better fishing in deeper waters, although to one fisherman, comfortably settled on the end of the existing facility, "It's going to be a long walk."

Under the watchful eye of Director Gauerke of the City's Neff Park, where swimming, boating, fishing and picnicking are the only activities space permits, nothing of any consequence has happened since the park made news when a gauge was left partially open and 220 times the normal amount of chlorine dripped into the water one night. Of course it was on the fourth of July week-end in the middle of the hot spell—

"Uneventful is the way I look at it," he said. "Maybe soon they will stop bringing the subject up wherever I go."

Fed From Lake
At the Park's waterfront park the chlorine bubbles up in a series of small fountains in the only facility in the Pointes that is fed by lake water. One of the life guards admitted using the jet action of the sprays to help heal an injured ankle.

Another feature of this park which will probably go when Park voters indicate by ballot this fall whether they will build one new pool or two is the slip near the refreshment concession that is bounded by the retaining wall of the pool on one side and boat wells on the other. Because of the park's narrowness to the channel, and especially when a large freighter is headed downstream, water is sucked out of the slip until the sandy bottom is exposed before it refills slowly; the amount of water displaced depends on many factors.

"About twice a year a Japanese freighter goes up and down the river, said Fred Paxton, Head Lifeguard. "He's always going like a bat out of hell. He draws the water out until almost one fourth of the bottom is showing, and when the water flows back in, you really know it!"

Attracts Wild Ducks
"The proximity of the slip to the refreshment stand probably has something to do with the liking wild ducks have for bringing the broods there. "By the end of the summer we might have 30 grown ducks swimming around," said Tom Crowley, acting director.

Tennis courts, which are lighted during the evenings, are popular, according to Crowley. Enrollment in the swimming classes was doubled this year. A fitting place to end this gram to upgrade the parks. It appears, the Plan Commission stated, that the financing of the program by a bond issue, spreading the cost over a period of active use, met with general approval.

The general support of the plan was emphasized by an almost universal desire to have such a program placed before the people for a vote at the earliest possible date, it was said. The date has been set for the general election on Tuesday, November 8.

The biggest controversy is the matter of having two pools, one at the Waterfront Park and one at the Three Mile Drive Park. Petitions have been received from residents, for and against the proposed two-pool concept.

Afraid of Traffic
The strongest opposition to the two-pool proposition was received from a majority of residents living in Three Mile Drive, who believe that this will be an inconvenience to them, primarily because of the anticipated additional traffic problems and noise.

The Plan Commission said that all letters and petitions, tour of the Pointe parks is the least developed, least well known area, the Park's Three Mile Drive area.

Tim Crowley, brother to Tom at the waterfront park, was gateman Saturday afternoon, records. "Finally any attendance records. "Usually the park is used by very young or old residents," he said.

Although it offers miniature golf, shuffleboard, volleyball, tennis, horseshoes, baseball, football and badminton, the area made one feel somehow removed from the sound or movements of others. There is no swimming.

Isolated, but attractively planted, it is the only area which still retains a feeling of privacy.

Reckless Driver, Friend Nabbed After Foot Chase

Dorain P. Griffin, 17, of 490 Bournemouthe, was arrested by City policemen, assisted by Farms officers, following a foot chase on Thursday, September 3. He was charged with reckless driving and with driving while his license was suspended.

A passenger in Griffin's automobile, Jonathan C. MacKinsey, 18, of 535 Lakepointe, who jumped out of his companion's car, and fled the scene, was arrested and charged with being a disorderly person.

Griffin and MacKinsey were released on $100 bond each, pending an appearance in the City Municipal Court.

According to a police report, City Patrolman Donald Dudlow, while on school crossing duty at Kercheval and Fisher, saw a red car traveling north on Fisher, from Maumee, squealing tires and approaching at a high rate of speed. At St. Paul avenue, the driver, Griffin, jammed his brakes several times, causing the tires to squeal, the officer said. At this point, Dudlow stated in his report, Griffin saw him standing at the corner, and made a turn onto the Grosse Pointe High School parking lot. The officer broadcast a be-on-the-lookout message over the police radio.

City Patrolman Richard Lanski spotted the wanted car on Lincoln road, between Jefferson and Maumee. Griffin and MacKinsey had gotten out and were running on foot. The policeman made a right turn onto Washington road, and saw the pair emerging from between two houses west of Lincoln. The youths separated, Griffin going east and MacKinsey west on the road.

Griffin, the policeman said, ran into the yard of 251 Lincoln, took off his green sweater and dropped near a tree. He was apprehended at Lincoln and Jefferson, by Farms Patrolman William Fowler, who released the teenager to City authorities.

MacKinsey was arrested by Ludlow and Lanski at Lakeland and Jefferson. The pair were taken to the City station where they were formally charged and finally released on bond. Other Farms policemen who participated in the search for the youths were Sgt. Marvin Krebs and Patrolman James Vitale.

City Police Chief Andrew Teetaert expressed his appreciation for the assistance given by the officers from the Farms lauding the cooperation between the various departments.

The chief angrily denounced careless and reckless motorists who appear to have a total disregard for the safety of school children, pedestrians and other motorists.

"I want to make it clearly known, now, that any motorist, whether young or old, who drives his vehicle in a careless or reckless manner, especially in the school areas, will be given a traffic violation ticket. I have instructed the personnel of my department to make no exceptions. "The kind of driving done by this young driver who was apprehended by our officers, and on the first day of school opening, if you please, will not be tolerated, during school days or otherwise. My men have specific instructions to be on the alert against traffic violators," Chief Teetaert said, "and those who are the most serious offenders, can be sure they will be taken to court."

store he entered on August 30, where two girls were inside, and was informed that this was the store in question.

Strat said that he entered the store, then went outside and sat in his car for several minutes, with his wife, and then decided to holdup the depot. He said he walked into the store and motioned to the clerk to come to the front, to the counter.

Miller said that Strat told him that he reached behind the counter and pulled out a paper bag and handed it to the clerk, ordering her to put all the money from the cash register in it. When the girl hesitated, Strat said, he lifted up his jacket and exposed a .32 caliber revolver in his belt.

Got $40 to $50

Strat claimed that the holdup netted him between $40 and $50, Miller said.

Can Tem and Miller said that they will combine their complaint with that of Royal Oak police, who have obtained a warrant against Strat for the holdup of the gas station.

Strat, it was disclosed, is wanted by Detroit police who have a warrant against him for armed robbery. He is also wanted by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, for violation of a federal parole for car theft; by the Michigan State Police, for uttering and publishing in St. Joseph, Mich., and by East Detroit and St. Clair Shores police, for armed robberies in their communities.

The gunman who robbed the Farms store on September 4, is still at large, at the last report.

proved by the Water Resources Commission.

It was pointed out by Rohr that the State Conservation Department administers all bottom lands, which are under public domain, and the Commission approves all sales, whether it is to municipalities, or to private property owners, under the Michigan Submerged Land Act.

City Manager Robert Slone told the council that funds for the purchases of acreage at both parks are already in the 1966-67 fiscal budget. He said $15,000 has been set aside for the Three Mile Drive Park, and $12,000 for the Waterfront Park.

Library to Hold Braille Classes

Classes in Braille transcriptions will be held at Grosse Pointe Public Library, Kercheval avenue at Fisher road, beginning Thursday, September 22. They will be held every Thursday, from 10-11 a.m. for the next eight or nine months.

If you are interested in learning how to transcribe books into Braille for the blind, call Mrs. Gerald Fitzgerald at TU 1-1810.

CAR PLUNDERED

Mattie Levy, 2163 Garland, Detroit, a waitress at Howard Johnson's restaurant on Mack avenue, reported to Woods police Thursday afternoon, August 11, that she was unable to start her '65 Chrysler and a wrecker at the scene said a coil and an unknown amount of gas was missing.

The mark of excellence

This is the General Motors mark of excellence. Within a short time, it will appear on all General Motors products—from automobiles to refrigerators, from trucks to aircraft engines.

We will use it in the same spirit with which craftsmen, through the centuries, have used a personal mark to identify the products of their skills: We are proud of the things we make, and we want our customers to be able to identify them easily and to know that we stand behind them.

Whenever you see this mark of excellence, you can be certain that it represents our very finest in design and engineering...that it has been built with care and dedication...and that it offers all the quality, reliability, safety and value that you have come to expect from General Motors.

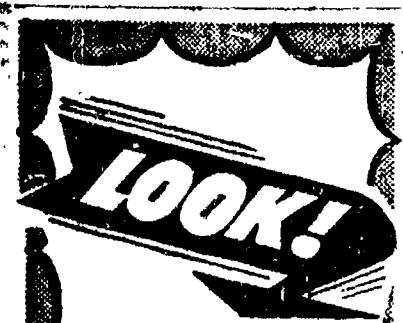

We hope you will get to know this mark—that you will learn to look for it—and that you will come to recognize it as a symbol you can trust.

It is the mark of General Motors, and it is our way of promising you our very best.

Smith and Newton were patrolling on Harper avenue, when they saw two light colored cars going east on Eight Mile road, and crossing the avenue. They saw the car turn off Harper and park behind an apartment building at Eight Mile and Palisade, in St. Clair Shores. They radioed their station to call for assistance from St. Clair Shores authorities.

Hannon and Ellenburg arrived, and the four policemen watched as the drivers got out, then both got into one of the vehicles, and prepared to drive away. They were stopped before they could get started.

Francis and Grissom were taken to the St. Clair Shores station, where Hannon and Ellenburg, while searching the car, found a set of burglar tools. They asked the pair for a key to the trunk, and were told there was no key available. The policemen noticed what appeared to be a piece of fur sticking out from the trunk of the auto, and forced open the trunk lid.

In the trunk, Hannon and Ellenburg found the fur coat and scarf, and the unopened 22-by-22-inch safe taken from the Davis residence a few minutes earlier.

Vern Tiem and Miller said that Francis and Grissom were booked at the St. Clair Shores station, and a warrant was obtained charging them with possession of burglar tools. They were arraigned before Municipal Judge Herman Brys, and released on $1,000 bond each. A date will be set for the pair's examination, the first date of which was postponed.

The Farms detectives said that their warrant will be held in abeyance, pending the outcome in St. Clair Shores.

The fur pieces and the safe have been returned to the Davises, the officers said.

Library Holding Exhibit of Flags

Replicas of all the flags that were developed, used and flown over Young America, from the first Colony to Independence, will be on display at the Grosse Pointe Main Public Library from September 17 through September 23.

The Elizabeth Cass Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, Grosse Pointe Farms, has arranged for this exhibit of the 21 historical flags in observance of the 179th Anniversary of the adoption of the Constitution of the United States. Mrs. Lowell Orebaugh, of Traverse City, formerly of Grosse Pointe Farms, developed the project and loaned it to the Elizabeth Cass DAR Chapter of which she is a past Regent. Mrs. Orebaugh is a former State DAR Flag Chairman and at present is National vice-chairman of the DAR Flag committee for this area.

The public, as well as school children, are invited to view and study the exhibit.

ized Valuation) to enable the Board of Education to meet its general operating requirements for the next year and one-half without a vote by the electorate. Therefore, it appears unlikely that an election to raise operating millage will be scheduled before the 1967-1968 year, with the levy scheduled to take effect in December of 1969.

The passage of Public Act 343 by the legislature required public schools throughout Michigan to provide non-public institutions with a variety of special services. During 1965-1966 and again in 1966-1967, The Grosse Pointe Public School System will furnish teachers in remedial reading and speech correction as well as psychologists, visiting teachers and nurses to the non-public schools in the school district that request them.

A third variable affecting long-range school financing is the growth of new programs and services. With the explosion of knowledge, increased pressures are seen on all aspects of the curriculum. Throughout the land innovation is the order of the day.

All Costs Increased Another all-important factor is the national problem of inflation and the rising cost of living. Goods and services desired by the schools cost more than in the past and it is impossible to forecast where the rise will end.

Finally, there is the problem of making enrollment projections on which to base budget needs. In an attempt to improve their method of forecasting enrollment projection, school officials went to the School of Business Administration at the University of Michigan for assistance on techniques.

One authority, Dr. Allen Spivey, told Dr. H. Leroy Selmeier, Assistant Superintendent-Instruction, that the method used in Grosse Pointe at the present time is as good as, or better than those used in industry. "You'll never get a projection with a smaller percentage of error than you have had here in the last six years," he commented. Anticipated enrollments for the 1966-1967 year are over 12,000, with increases of varying size slated for each year thereafter.

Tax Totals 25.66 Mills Local school tax budget rates for the school district for the 1966-1967 fiscal year are 22.90 mills for operation, 2.76 for debt retirement, making a total of 25.66 per thousand of State Equalized Valuation, as assessed.

Figures prepared by the Schools' Department of Business and Finance show that the proposed operating budget for 1966-1967 is $9,102,763. Debt retirement accounts for $821,156.00, making a total budget of $9,923,919.

The State Equalized Valuation of the school district for the 1966-1967 year stands at $310,269,242.

State Aid to the local public schools is based on $280.50 per pupil with 5.03 deductible.

Adult Program

Other popular classes are investment procedures, reading improvement, and creative writing.

Special interest activities include bridge, photography, or handwriting analysis, to name a few. Those interested in sports or exercise may find a class in badminton or golf, tennis or swimming. Both ballroom and Latin American dance are offered.

Mr. Kay said that in home-making education such courses as chair caning, cooking for two, flower arranging and knitting are scheduled. Offerings in arts and crafts include lapidary, woodshop and mechanical drawing.

Mr. Kay directs the attention of those interested in the complete program of activities, which includes the World Adventure Travel Series, to the brochure available from his office at 43 Grosse Pointe boulevard or to the advertisement that appears elsewhere in this paper.

Curriculum Innovations Slated for High Schools

A number of innovations in curriculum and program for the 1966-1967 year at Grosse Pointe High School were announced by Jerry J. Gerich, Principal.

Several teachers in the foreign language department will be involved in a state-wide curriculum planning program under Title III of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965. Francis Granger and Guido Regalbrugge will work on the development of a humanities, team teaching and area studies program for advanced French students.

Principal Gerich added that three pilot programs will be in operation in the business education department. One will explore the possibility of earlier exposure of boys and girls to the cooperative work experiences. Currently a feature of the senior year, teachers and others will explore the possibility of doing this in the junior year.

A course organized on the large-block-of-time concept will give selected students experience and exposure to the use of a large variety of business machines.

In a third program, an intern jointly sponsored by Michigan State University and the United States Office of Education, will work in the program of cooperative work experiences.

In addition, the business education department plans to continue closed circuit TV teaching of typewriting, successful experiment begun three years ago.

In another innovative program, Gary Souter of the industrial arts department and Mrs. Julia Meighan of the art department will share a classroom at the same time. The two-teacher station will provide for the cooperative development of learning experiences in fine arts and graphics.

A new program in humanities English developed by Miss Suzanne Boivin and Mrs. Jane Wayne will be begun. Cooperating in making additions in the fields of social studies and art will be Gerald Thorpe and Mrs. Julia Meighan.

This marks the second year of a venture in cooperative English IV teaching by Mrs. Patricia Lipski and John Fox. Miss Boivin and Charles Stephens will do a similar project in cooperative teaching. Another course, English 3-G, a concentrated pilot program designed to assist students in skill-building will be offered.

The new look is also evident in world history where two teachers will be assisted by a resource teacher who will work in the library in assisting both students and teachers in research. A similar project will also be conducted in United States history.

Miss Leona Weier has returned from a sabbatical leave to coordinate a program of independent study in history. With her headquarters in the Wickling Library, she will serve in a liaison capacity between teachers and students.

Principal Gerich has indicated that the physics department begins the year with a new approach and completely new personnel. A completely laboratory-oriented program will be put into operation.

Police Ticket Ohio Speedster

A Youngstown, O., motorist was arrested by Farms police on Tuesday, September 6, and charged with reckless driving, after he was apprehended for driving well above the legal speed limit on Mack avenue, and city streets.

Patrolmen John Kraiza and Robert Conn said they were parting the avenue when they observed a car, driven by Herbert B. Wollison, 22, of 112 Fairway drive, traveling east at high speed at about 2:15 a.m. and gave chase. The officers said they paced Wollison at 70 miles an hour.

The policemen said the chase started at McKinley, to south on Calvin, to north on Touraine, and came to an end when they forced Wollison to the curb at Webster.

Wollison was taken to the station where he was issued a violation ticket for reckless driving. He posted bond of $25 pending a court appearance date.

The motorist, who is visiting in the Pointe, had been drinking, the arresting officers said.

Reckless Driver Given 3 Tickets

A Pointe motorist, who was involved in an accident in the Farms Friday morning, September 9, then went home to get another car, was arrested by City Police Chief Andrew Teetaert following a chase through City and Park streets.

At 6:13 a.m., Michael S. Kennedy, 24, of 30 Beverly, while driving west on Grosse Pointe boulevard, lost control of his car and crashed into an Edison pole in front of 335 Grosse Pointe boulevard, causing approximately $1,000 damage to the vehicle, according to Farms police.

Kennedy, who claimed that another automobile had forced him into the pole, was given a traffic violation ticket for driving without due care and caution and causing an accident. He had been drinking, police said.

At 8:40 a.m., Kennedy was seen in another car, at Neff and Maumee, by the City police chief, driving in an erratic manner, and the chief gave chase.

The chief said he attempted to stop the motorist, but was ignored by Kennedy, who sped up his speed.

Chief Teetaert said he chased Kennedy through City and Park streets, and called for assistance. The chase led through Grayton and Bishop roads, and ended on Audubon.

City Cpl. Duncan MacEachern and City Patrolman Richard Tanski were dispatched to aid in the apprehension of Kennedy. Park Patrolman Ralph Moore was radioed to help by his station.

Kennedy was finally stopped on Audubon and taken to the City station where he was issued a ticket for reckless driving, and released to Moore, after posting bond of $100, pending a date set for court.

Moore took Kennedy to the Park station, where he issued the motorist a violation ticket for reckless driving (drinking). Kennedy was released from Park police custody after posting a bond of $50. He will appear in Park municipal court on October 5.

Club To Meet

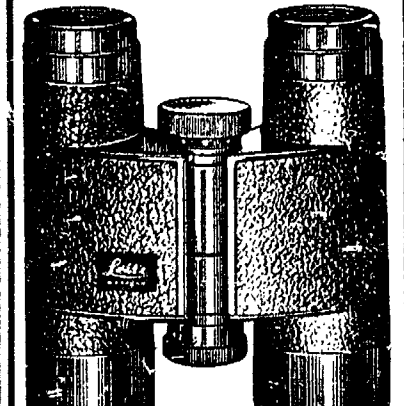

Mrs. Edgar Hahn will review "The Source" by James A. Mitchner at the Monday, September 19, meeting of the Pointe Book Club, to be held at the Middlesex boulevard home of Mrs. Earl Kreig.

Co-hostesses will be Mrs. John Demorest and Mrs. Marvin Anderson. Mrs. Sumner Gurney is chairman of the Club.

Luncheon will precede the review.

LEITZ TRINOVID BINOCULARS

Creators of the world-famous Leica camera have perfected a new prism system that dramatically reduces binocular size and weight. It's the first truly significant binocular advancement in fifty years. The Trinovid 6x24 panoramic 636-foot-wide viewing field at 1000 yards is an amazing 40% larger than conventional models. The 7x35, 8x32 and even the 10x40 are more compact than conventional glasses of much lower power. And all Trinovid models have fast-action central focusing, are hermetically sealed, dustproof and weatherproof.

Unitarians Plan Lecture Series

Victor Reuther, Rev. Charles A. Curran, Dr. Alan Guttmacher and five other nationally prominent men involved with the direction of human development will be featured in a lecture series sponsored by the Adult Education Committee of the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church.

The eight-part series will begin with Father Curran, October 5, at 8 p. m. Subsequent programs in the series will be held once a month through May, 1967. All programs will take place at the Unitarian Church at 17150 Maumee.

Father Curran has been Professor of Psychology in the Graduate School of Loyola University, Chicago, and is a noted author of books and articles on psychology. He served as a Peritus to Vatican Council II. Father Curran will discuss "Meanings and Values in the Human Personality."

Mr. Reuther, Director of the International Affairs Department of the United Auto Workers, will speak on November 16. His topic will be "Moral Challenge of America's World Responsibilities."

On January 4, 1967, Dr. Alan F. Guttmacher, President of Planned Parenthood, will discuss how we can improve the quality of human life and avoid famine and poverty in the future.

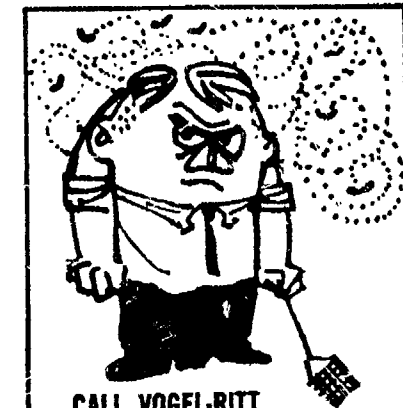

Other speakers in the series will be Dr. Henry F. Lande, IBM, who will discuss the computer's impact on the individual. Dr. Peter Putnam, Unitarian-Universalist Association, will examine how man has fulfilled material needs to such an extent: he has ignored his equally important emotional wants.

Dr. Kenneth E. Boulding, Department of Economics at the University of Michigan, will talk about the power of love as a creative force in social, political and international situations.

Dr. Graham B. Blaine, Chief of Psychiatry at Harvard University Health Service, will discuss the emphasis in psychiatry of allowing an individual to release his human potential and develop moral responsibility and self-discipline.

The final program will be conducted by Samuel H. Miller, Dean of the Harvard Divinity School. Dr. Miller will attempt to answer the question, how can we practice religion intelligently in the new age?

Tickets for the series are $10 each. Tickets for individual programs will be available at the door, if space allows, for $1.50 each. Individuals desiring to purchase tickets for the series may send their check to the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church, 17150 Maumee avenue, Grosse Pointe, Michigan.

Funeral services for Ensign McGill, 25, were held Friday, September 9, at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church and Verheyden Funeral Home. He died Monday in an automobile accident in Brunswick, Ga.

Ensign McGill lived at 879 Sunningdale. He was a management trainee for Kroger Co. before joining the Navy in October, 1965. He was a 1964 graduate of Michigan State University and a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity.

He is survived by his father and stepmother, Mr. and Mrs. Howard C. McGill, and a sister, Nancy.

Interment was in Roselawn Cemetery.

LELAND J. ENGEL
Funeral services for Mr. Engel, 66, were held Tuesday, September 13, in the Verheyden Funeral Home. He died on Saturday, September 11, in Harper Hospital.

Mr. Engel lived at 1338 Balfour road. Until his retirement in 1965, he was Regional Manager of Beechnut Life Saver Company. He was a member of the Hamilton Lodge F and A.M. of New York, and a life member of the Detroit Grocers Manufacturing Association.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Leland Engel; two daughters, Mrs. William A. Hoose, Mrs. Ralph A. Arandt, three grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Interment was in Fort Plain, N.Y.

The DRC Story

THE MICHIGAN MILE IS A ROAD LEADING TO RACING GLORY

THE MICHIGAN MILE AND MEMORIES!
We take a long and proud step Saturday with the 18th running of The Michigan Mile at the Detroit Race Course. The purse has been increased to $100,000-added, which puts it among the Nation's top classics.

I long have looked upon The Mile as The Showcase of Michigan racing. Its place as the State's premier Thoroughbred event is unchallenged. Its value is more than double that of any other race offered by a Michigan track.

I regard The Mile as more than a great race. I regard it as a means of expressing my sincere thanks to Racing Fans for their loyal support. It is my way of demonstrating our constant effort to offer the finest possible racing at the Detroit Race Course.

The caliber of horses The Mile attracts attests to its high standing among the Nation's leading owners and trainers. A year ago, the horses which finished first and second in The Mile, Old Hat and Roman Brother, subsequently were voted "Mare-of-the-Year" and "The Horse-of-the-Year" in nationwide polls.

Old Hat and Roman Brother joined such other outstanding stars as Crimson Satan, Decidedly, Greek Money, Going Abroad, Tibaldo, Beau Prince, American Comet, Total Traffic, Nearctic, Spur On, Second Avenue, Bully Boy and Oil Capitol as Michigan Mile competitors.

Again Saturday, we will have a field of the finest Handicap performers in The Mile. The probable field will include Bold Bidder, the winner of three $100,000 stakes already this season at Santa Anita, Monmouth and Arlington Park; Tom Rolfe, winner of the 1965 Preakness, second in the Belmont Stakes and third in the Kentucky Derby; Old Hat, bidding for an unprecedented second victory in The Mile; Victorian Era, the finest Handicap performer in Canada; Jolly Jet, Selari, Brave and Bold Amberoid, Tronado, Swift Ruler and Royal Gunner.

I mentioned Memories in connection with The Mile. I wonder how many Fans recall that the first running of The Mile in 1949 at the old State Fairgrounds track was raced on the turf? That's correct. In those days, there was a grass course at the Fairgrounds, and Sir Sprite, from the stable of Sportsman O. F. Woodward was the winner. The Mile purse then was $7,500.

I have special memories, too, in connection with the 1952 Mile. It was won by Bully Boy, a great colt bred at the Coldstream Stud and which raced in my colors. H. H. (Pete) Battle, who now is one of our Stewards, trained Bully Boy.

The Michigan Mile was just that... an event raced at a flat mile... through the 1958 renewal. Then, at the request of horsemen, the distance was changed to a mile and one-sixteenth and we raced it that way through 1964. Again, conditions warranted a revision, and The Mile became a mile and one-eighth race. That will be the distance Saturday.

We are proud of The Mile. We believe it is a symbol of Racing at its Best. To offer the finest in Racing in a setting which provides the Fans beauty, convenience and comfort is our constant aim.

The Mile, with its $100,000-added purse, will make Michigan racing history Saturday. I hope you will plan to see it. I think it will be an experience in Racing pleasure you will cherish.

Many Teachers Receive Scholarships and Grants

Members of the professional staff of The Grosse Pointe Public School System were recipients of a variety of scholarships and special grants for additional study during the summer of 1966.

For example, Carl Lord of the social studies department of Parcels Junior High School received a National Defense Education Act scholarship to attend Wayne State University. His program was a detailed study of international relations. "Simply outstanding," was his evaluation of the experience.

Four members of the teaching staff of Pierce Junior High School received scholarships for study during the summer of 1966.

Mrs. Florence Miller, assistant principal and former junior high school English department head, attended Syracuse University. The two-week workshop "Newspaper in the Classroom," was sponsored by the Detroit News. Mrs. Miller and the other participants studied ways of teaching effective reading of the daily newspaper and ways to incorporate the study of the newspaper into the curriculum.

Mrs. Patricia Popely embarked upon a special program in French on a scholarship at Oakland University funded by the National Defense Education Act. Required to speak French for the entire eight weeks, she describes the program of studies as "intensive."

Mrs. Frances Gillis attended Michigan State University on a Detroit Business and Industry scholarship. A member of the counseling staff, she found it beneficial to study the vocational opportunities available in specific industries and businesses in the Detroit area.

Mrs. Ruth Teague, Brownell math teacher, received a scholarship from the Grosse Pointe Farm and Garden Club to attend the conservation school at Higgins Lake under the auspices of Central Michigan University. During the intensive one-week course she learned something of the problems involved in conserving the state's natural resources.

Daniel Evola, also of Brownell, received a scholarship from the American Lutheran Church to attend St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minn. The Choir School Institute included two weeks of advanced choral techniques for junior and senior choirs.

Miss Joanne L. Burkart of Brownell attended an NDEA Reading Institute at Southern Connecticut State College to learn about the organization and operation of reading centers.

Mrs. Norma Farent of Defert participated in a workshop sponsored by the Desegregation Advisory Project of the Wayne County Intermediate School District.

GPHS Teachers Get Scholarships

An informal survey of the professional staff of Grosse Pointe High School reveals that teachers from several departments were recipients of scholarships for special study during the summer of 1966.

Richard Amberg of the English department received a scholarship to participate in a National Defense Education Act Institute for advanced composition held at Michigan State University. He studied modern theories of teaching composition.

Science teacher Frank Banovetz made an intensive study of chemical equilibrium under a grant from the National Science Foundation at Juniata College in Pennsylvania.

George Holman received a scholarship from the National Science Foundation to participate in the Science Supervisor's Conference at the University of Colorado in Boulder, a survey of the new curricula in science K-12.

Gordan Morlan, also of the science department, received a grant from the National Science Foundation to attend a summer institute at the University of New Hampshire. He studied radiochemistry and advanced inorganic chemistry.

Gerald L. Thorpe of the social studies department was the recipient of a grant under the National Defense Education Act to study at Wayne State University. He was a member of the Institute for Advanced Study in International Affairs.

Motorcyclist, Car Driver Ticketed

While cruising on Fisher road, at Grosse Pointe boulevard, on Tuesday, September 6, two Farms policemen stopped a motorcyclist for not having rear lights on his cycle. The owner of the two-wheeler, driving ahead of the offending cyclist, was also stopped, and both were given traffic violation tickets.

Patrolmen William Fowler and James Vitale said they stopped Michael A. Schneider, 19, of 1620 Broadstone, and found that he was operating the motorcycle without an operator's license, which they said, had been revoked by the Secretary of State's Office in Lansing.

It turned out the two-wheeler is owned by Robert R. Stanny of 17040 East Jefferson, who was driving ahead of Schneider in a car.

The officers said they gave Schneider a ticket for driving while his license was revoked, and another for having no lights on the cycle. Stanny received a ticket for allowing an unlicensed driver to drive.

Why wait for a 1967 5-year/50,000-mile warranty?

You can get a 5-year/50,000-mile warranty now on a 1966 Plymouth, Dodge, Chrysler, Imperial.

Take advantage of big end-of-model-year savings.

There's still a great selection of 1966 Chrysler Corporation-built cars waiting for you at your dealer's. A wide choice of colors and models and options. At big end-of-year savings.

And they're equipped with a 5-year or 50,000-mile power train warranty. Right now! The repairs or replacements this warranty covers are made without charge—parts and labor. And because it's transferable from owner to owner, it can mean more money for you when you trade.

Since the fall of 1962 Chrysler Corporation-built cars have carried a 5/50 warranty. There are nearly 5 million of these cars on the road today, proving with every mile that Chrysler Corporation really knows how to stand behind a warranty.

How could Chrysler pioneer the 5/50 warranty so many years before any other American car manufacturer? Because the quality built into every Chrysler Corporation car didn't just happen. Engineering leadership was the basis for the first 5/50 warranty . . . and continues to be the basis for the greatness of every Plymouth, Dodge, Chrysler and Imperial. See your dealer . . . and see his 1966 selection. You'll save money now and for years to come.

Plymouth • Dodge • Chrysler • Imperial

*Here's how Chrysler Corporation's 5-year/50,000-mile engine and drive train warranty protects you: Chrysler Corporation warrants for 5 years or 50,000 miles, whichever comes first, against defects in materials and workmanship and will replace or repair at a Chrysler Motors Corporation Authorized Dealer's place of business, without charge for required parts and labor, the engine block, head and internal parts, intake manifold, water pump, transmission case and internal parts (excluding manual clutch), torque converter, drive shaft, universal joints, rear axle and differential, and rear wheel bearings of its 1966 automobiles, provided the owner has the engine oil changed every 3 months or 4,000 miles, whichever comes first, the oil filter replaced every second oil change and the carburetor air filter cleaned every 6 months and replaced every 2 years, and every 6 months furnishes to such a dealer evidence of performance of the required service, and requests the dealer to certify (1) receipt of such evidence and (2) the car's then current mileage.

Get New Vicar At St. James

Frederick Klein was installed as Vicar in St. James Lutheran Church, McMillan at Kercheval, on Sunday, September 11. He succeeds Vicar Roger Coetz, who has returned to Concordia Seminary, Springfield, Ill., for his final year of theological training.

Vicar Klein attended Concordia Preparatory School and Concordia Junior College in Bronxville, N. Y.; Concordia Senior College, Fort Wayne, Ind., and has completed his Junior year at Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, Mo.

While at Bronxville, Vicar Klein served as the executive chairman of the Travelling Committee (Bronxville's recruitment program). In connection with this work he did some general public relations work for Concordia Junior College of that city. He also served on the Recruitment Committee at the Senior College in Fort Wayne, and has served on Vestry and Acolyte committees in all of the Synodical schools he attended, beginning with the preparatory schools in Bronxville and including the Seminary at St. Louis.

Vicar Klein spent a year in the Seminary's field work program at All Nations Lutheran Church in the Negro inner-city of St. Louis, and this past year was a field worker at Concordia Lutheran Church, Kirkwood, Mo. During the summer of 1965 Vicar Klein worked with the youth groups of St. John the Baptist Lutheran Church of Hoboken, N. J., which is an Anglo-Saxon-Spanish inner-city parish.

Vicar Klein is 25 years old and married. Mrs. Klein is a native of Harrington Park, N. J., and a graduate of Concordia Teachers College, River Forest, Ill. Mrs. Klein will be teaching at Defer School for the school year 1966-67.

During this year of internship, Vicar Klein will assist the Reverend George E. Kurz, pastor at St. James.

Following the installation service, the Women's Guild will hold a coffee hour in the Green Room in honor of Vicar and Mrs. Klein.

Cinema League Meets Sept. 22

The Grosse Pointe Cinema League will open its 1966-67 season at the Fries Auditorium of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial September 22, at 8 o'clock.

A favorite of Grosse Pointe audiences, Dr. Edwin Smyd will present his movie and talk on "Outer Mongolia."

The film was photographed two years ago when Dr. Smyd traveled through Siberia and Outer Mongolia. He was told by customs authorities when leaving the country that this was the only color documentary movie ever made of Outer Mongolia. The film records rural, village and city life in contemporary Mongolia.

For American travelers, Outer Mongolia is remote and difficult of access. Half way around the earth, completely land-locked by dedicated communist giants, (the U.S.S.R. and Red China), it has no diplomatic representation in the United States.

Although the U. S. State Department places no restriction on American travel to Outer Mongolia, travel formalities must be arranged through a foreign office of one of the few countries which does maintain diplomatic relations with Mongolia.

Usually India or one of the communist lands will provide visas and travel clearance. Today, entrance into Mongolia for American travelers is perforce through Siberia.

A very large country, Mongolia has one of the sparsest populations on the face of the earth, yet it lies adjacent to Red China, one of the most densely populated countries. For half a millennium, Mongolia was a province and vassal of China.

It owes its independence to the U.S.S.R. — so Mongolia cannot help being a Russian thorn in the side of Red China. It has vast grazing lands, some agricultural soil, but most importantly, like Siberia, its mountains contain rich deposits of gold, silver, uranium, copper, iron, ferrous alloys, coal and oil — all the ingredients needed for a first-rate industrial power except manpower.

Dr. Smyd will give a short orientation talk before the showing of the film covering the geography, history, ethnography and other data on this

Worker Accused Of Robbing Boss

Gerald P. Devine, 26, of 763 Newport, Detroit, stood mute at his appearance before Park Municipal Judge C. Joseph Belanger Thursday evening, September 8, on a charge of breaking and entering a business place in the nighttime. A plea of innocent was entered for Devine.

Judge Belanger set examination for yesterday, September 14, and released the accused man on $2,000 bond.

Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers said that a companion of Devine's, Billy Joe Brown, 27, no known address, is being sought on a warrant, charging Brown with the same offense.

Both Devine and Brown are accused of breaking into the Grady Roofing company building, 15135 Charlevoix, where Devine was employed, on Saturday, September 3, and removing an adding machine, a typewriter and a case of beer. They also took $15 from the main office. The pair, the chief said, did not have an opportunity to escape with the tangible loot because they were frightened away by approaching police officers.

Investigation of the burglary was conducted by Det. Lts. Stanley Enders and Arnold Hough and Det. James LaPratt, who found a palm print at the point of forced entry, that matched that of Devine's.

Hough and LaPratt, while staking out the area in an investigation of another reported crime, saw to men coming from behind a parking lot, carrying a case of beer, and decided to check.

Because of the early hour of the morning, the detectives surmised that the pair was up to no good.

In checking the grounds of the roofing firm, Hough and LaPratt found the typewriter and adding machine, a short distance away, apparently placed at the spot by the burglars who intended to return for them, the policemen said.

part of the world, to make the film especially meaningful in the light of present conflicting political ideologies.

Grosse Pointe residents are cordially invited to attend programs of the Cinema League. President for the current year, Dr. Elizabeth Downie, especially invites persons interested in movie making to become members of the Cinema League.

Patrolman Robert Cory, checking the doors of the business places in Charlevoix, discovered the rear door of the Grady Roofing company open, and notified the detectives.

The police officers compared notes and checked the firm's employe records and came up with the conclusion that the burglary was undoubtedly an "inside job." All doubt was removed when the palm print at the scene matched that of Devine, it was said.

Separate warrants were obtained accusing Devine and Brown, who was implicated, [custody at work, Brown is still and Devine was taken into being sought.

Visitor from Netherlands Likes Teen Life in Pointe

"People aren't much different anywhere." That is how Mieke Gronheie, exchange student from Delft, Netherlands, summed up her understanding of human relationships. In that terse statement the attractive 17-year-old student revealed the wisdom her fluency in four languages, (French, German, Dutch, and English), plus her interest in meeting and understanding people, had helped her to achieve. Arrived just two short weeks ago as part of the "Youth for Understanding" program originating in Washington, D.C., Miss Gronheie has managed to cram into them enough living to make any teen envious. She has taken a fling at water skiing and managed to get up on the skis on her second try. Sports come easy to Mieke; she has already climbed mountains, become an excellent swimmer, and captained a winning field hockey team in her native Netherlands.

"Teen dances and music are the same here as in the Netherlands, except that you move your feet more," commented Mieke after an evening at Undercraft in Christ's Church basement.

Mieke has also managed to soak up her share of American TV. In the Netherlands, she explained in her excellent English, television programs appear only between 8 and 11 p.m. and there are no commercials. At this point in the interview, her companion, Mary Zens (daughter of the Harvey Zens of 438 Lincoln road, at whose home Mieke is visiting, remarked: "We were watching TV one evening, and when Mieke started singing 'Flipper' in Dutch, the family almost cracked up."

Mieke also enjoys American foods. In particular, she likes American ice cream and root beer. A barbecue supper in the Zens' back yard was a pleasant surprise for her also.

Above all, however, Mieke likes the American style of dress. It's casual and comfortable, she explained.

Asked if there were anything she disliked about Americans, the only thing Mieke could think of was their tendency to ask her if she had trouble packing her wooden shoes. She is prepared, however, to resist the temptation to answer with a question about where the redskins are hiding, and meekly to explain that wooden shoes aren't "in" anymore in the Netherlands.

Mieke isn't the only one enjoying the Grosse Pointe visit. Her constant companion is her hostess, blond Mary Zens, vice-president of St. Paul High School's Student Council and page editor of the school newspaper, The Paulists.

Both girls are enrolled at St. Paul High School for the winter term. Mieke has already graduated from high school in Delft after completing six years of elementary school and five years of high school in a Catholic school staffed by lay faculty; but she wants the experience of spending an entire year at St. Paul High School—complete with banquet, prom, class picture, ring blessing, graduation.

So the family at home (Mieke is one of four children: Julie, 24; Tom, 15; Jerome, 12; and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Gronheie of Nieuwe Plantage 48 in Delft) will be getting exciting letters from their daughter Mieke who wants to learn more about people in order to understand them better.

Warning Issued On Bad Checks

All local banks have been alerted by Pointe police to be on the lookout for bad check passers, and the NEWS has been asked to impart this message to business and store owners and their employees.

Woods Det. Sgt. Jack Mast said that information was received from Detroit authorities regarding a concerted effort by organized teams trying to pass American Express money orders in the area.

The detective said that Detroit police received confidential information that the money orders and checks were to be passed everywhere.

The information disclosed that the following names will be signed to these money orders and checks: David Leitnerman, Cleon Irwin, Jackie Weaver, Ronald Mooney, Conrad Albert, Kenneth Gabouri, Joseph Scanlon, John Edwards, "Fish" Rutherford, Marcel Dozis, and Wiffie Knight.

Mast said that the check passers were to have been operating several days ago, but might have been discouraged by the alert from Detroit. However, it will pay store owners and businessmen to remain on guard, just in case, he added.

Serves Hospital For 37 Years

After 37 years of rising at 4:30 every morning, Miss Elizabeth Milligan of 1372 Vernier road, has become Cottage Hospital's longest working retiree.

She arrived from Liverpool, England in 1929, was "situated" at Cottage by the YWCA, planning to work at the hospital only two weeks.

Miss Milligan spent her entire hospital working career in the cafeteria, having decided to stay at the hospital permanently because "Cottage was a friendly place."

Her father had been a sheet metal worker for one of the shipping firms in Liverpool, where she was born. She has two brothers still in England, and one in the States with whom she has lived.

Miss Milligan plans to return to Liverpool for a visit this fall, but she will return to the United States because she likes the American way of life. She also prefers the weather here. Her last trip to England was in 1955.

Doctors Taking Hospital Course

More than fifty physicians have filed advance registration for a Course in Continuing Medical Education at Bon Secours Hospital starting Thursday, September 15, at 7 a. m. The subject of the Course is "Recent Advances in Cardio-pulmonary Diseases." The physicians who have signed up live in or have offices in the Grosse Pointe area.

The faculty for the Course consists of members of the Staff of Bon Secours Hospital and guest speakers from Wayne State University School of Medicine.

The scientific sessions will last for one and one-half hours and will be held each Thursday until December 15. Breakfast will be served.

The Courses in Continuing Medical Education at Bon Secours Hospital are supported financially by the James and Lynelle Holden Foundation.

How some men who don't kid easily ... kid themselves

Some men create an estate, make a will, and believe their job is done.

They kid themselves.

Ask any lawyer. Or ask one of our trust officers. They'll tell you tax laws change. The needs of your family change. An estate needs constant supervision.

Give your estate the supervision it needs to keep up with change. Give your family and yourself up-to-date security.

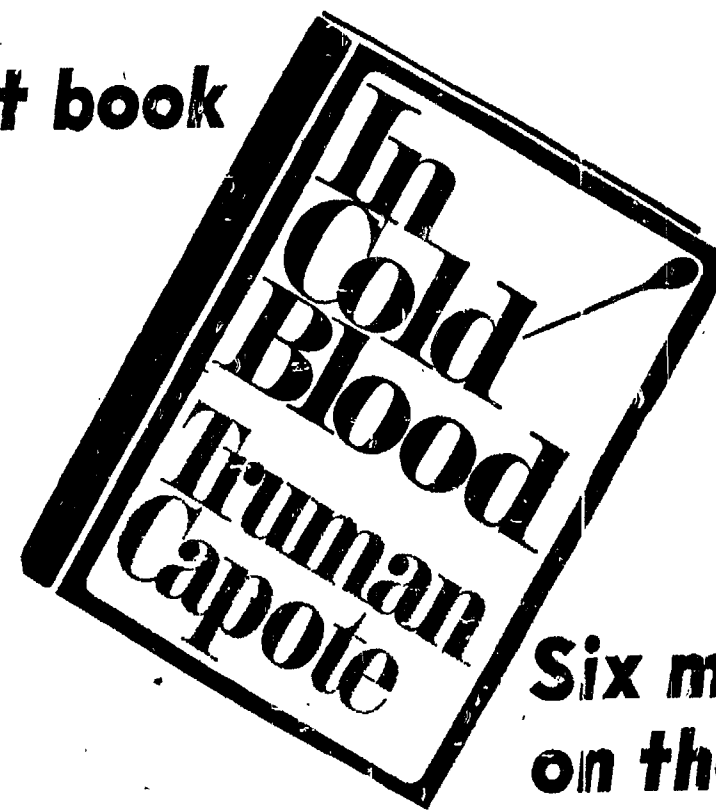

Have your lawyer contact our Trust Department as soon as possible. Or call us yourself at 965-1900, Penobscot Building, Detroit.

This year's most talked-about book

Six months on the best-seller list

Starting Sunday in the Free Press

IN COLD BLOOD is a terrifying but true story of mass murder. It starts with the shotgun slaying of an entire family in Kansas in 1959 and ends with the execution of the two murderers in 1965. Truman Capote's detailed account of the lives and deaths of these people is even more significant in view of the recent multiple murders in Chicago and Dallas.

IN COLD BLOOD has been a best seller ever since it was published earlier this year. Now you can read it exclusively in the Free Press — in 18 installments starting this Sunday.

100-Mile Trip by Bicycle Accomplished by Scouts

"It seems to me that people should know about the constructive things that some of our young people are doing," said the voice on the telephone. It was Mrs. William Horsch, of 19234 Linville road, calling the News to say that three young neighbors had just completed a 100-mile round trip to the Island Lake Recreation Area by bicycle. The two 14-year-olds, Steven Housley and Larry Dunn, and 11-year-old Jamie Greer all members of Monteth School Boy Scout Troop 85, took the trip as part of the requirements for a Cycling Merit Badge, carrying sleeping bags and gear, food for one night plus a tent and poles on the trip which took 24 hours of cycling time. "When we reached Jamie's home, we went in with him, and pushed his head under the cold water faucet because it looked like he was having a heat stroke," Larry remembered. Jamie admits that he began to feel better as soon as he lay down. All slept for at least 12 hours. By now they have hopefully gained back the more than ten pounds that was lost between them. Counselor for the Cycling Merit Badge is John McCartney, of 946 Washington road, who is also counselor in the Lakeshore District, Detroit Area Council, for Aviation, Railroad, Mechanical Drawing, Metallurgy, and has just added Atomic Energy to his repertoire. "The Cycling Merit Badge is not very popular in these affluent times that have popularized the automobile and motorcycle," McCartney states. A year ago a 14-year-old aspired to the cycling badge, but never finished the requirements. Larry and Jamie have made all the trips, pending the reports of their trips, an onerous duty that they have postponed like so many writers. Steve has to log his trips and counselor's approval, lack only dismount his bike before he is finished. Although no break-down occurred on the long trip, Larry's bike developed a flat tire on the first 25-mile effort to Belle Isle. It wasn't all bad, because patching a flat is part of the badge, but the trio learned a lesson they are happy to pass on: always carry a tire pump with you. Lacking the pump, the boys had started on a long trek to a gas station pushing every 45 minutes, they ran into many pessimistic predictions on the success of their venture, all of which they happily refuted on the trip back. Dehydrated spaghetti, which they had intended to cook in their regulation mess kits, was the menu for the evening meal. The careful of parents, plus scout's ingenuity came up with a spare hub cap as the best cooking utensil for the feast. The original plans of the trio whose project had been in the "talking stage" since last summer, had been to camp at the Scout Camp near Howell, which they had attended a few weeks before; however, camp authorities felt unable to assume responsibility for three Scouts traveling without a leader, and so the boys went on to the state park. "Some of the counselors we know came over to visit us later on," Larry said. "We had told them of our plans while we were still at the Scout Camp, but I guess they didn't believe we could actually do it." Steve, Larry and Jamie camped three nights at the park; "tired blood" may have had something to do with the postponement of their return. It wasn't until the third night that they got around to going swimming—with "improvised bathing suits." They had traveled light, and swimming had not been part of the agenda. Park authorities apparently took the feat in their stride. "The ranger seemed a little surprised when he heard how we had come," said Steve. "When my mother asked him if it was O.K. for us to stay three nights, he told her that he didn't think we were going to get into any trouble." But the camping wasn't that easy; groceries had to be brought in by bike from Brighton three miles away. "Sometimes we just ate in town," they admitted. The return the following Saturday did not start so bright and early. The campers slept late; the cigar fluid for starting the fire had given out (scouting has changed!) so they backtracked into Brighton for breakfast. It was 9:30 a.m. when they got off.

Badge, their joint opinion was: "It depends on the kind of person you are; some could make it — some couldn't." Larry summed it up by stating decisively: "I wouldn't make that trip again just for fun!"

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

So much is going on all around the town in the next few weeks we get positively breathless just thinking about our crowded social calendar!

There's the not-to-be-missed annual Donation Tea, sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary to Cottage Hospital, for which Mrs. Arthur H. Buhl, Jr., has graciously offered to open her Provencal road home next Thursday, from 2 until 5 o'clock.

Greeting guests at the door with Mrs. Buhl will be Auxiliary president, Mrs. Clifford B. Loranger and Tea chairman Mrs. Adam C. Cook.

Members of the Hospital's Board of Trustees will preside at the tea table, and past presidents of the Auxiliary, present executive officers and guild chairmen, including the Mesdames Henry R. Klein, David C. Lowe, Peden A. Meikle, Ralph E. Quinones, Harold E. Cross, Clinton R. Amluxen, Albert W. Ley, Hazel B. Shaw, Clarence J. Williams, Herbert Sott, Arnold Davidson, Howard N. Maynard, William J. Nixon, Russell O. Harkness and George Grenzke, will act as hostesses.

Trustee Board members are Mrs. Nelson Holland, Mrs. Richard P. Joy, Jr., Mrs. Sidney H. Morgan, Mrs. Andrew W. Barr, Mrs. Elliott H. Phillips, Mrs. Roy M. Tolleson, Jr., Mrs. H. Gordon Wood, Mrs. John L. Booth, Mrs. George R. Fink and Mrs. Carl B. Grawn.

Christmas Carnival Pre-Sales

Then we're making a point to catch at least ONE of the two Christ Child Society Grosse Pointe Mobile-Rama Christmas Carnival pre-sales.

The first is tomorrow, from 10 o'clock in the morning until 4 in the afternoon, at the Lincoln road home of Mrs. John Tulloch.

All the Big Carnival booths will have representative displays at Mrs. Tulloch's where the hospitality chairman will be Mrs. David Turner, assisted by Mrs. Daniel Goodnow, Mrs. John Ryan, Mrs. John Burke, Mrs. Charles Schmid and Mrs. Leon LaRocque.

The White Elephant Booth is having a pre-sale all its own, on Tuesday, between 10 and 4 o'clock, at the Lothrop road home of Mrs. A. J. Tocco.

Co-chairman of this sale is Mrs. Robert Verhelle. Committee members include Mrs. Frederick Van Assche, Mrs. John R. Wagner, Mrs. James M. Kennary, Jr., Mrs. George F. Clark and Mrs. Anthony Zaccari.

Incidentally, actual Carnival date is November 9; place is, as always, Cobo Hall in Downtown Detroit. Mrs. Harold G. Crisman is general chairman, assisted by co-

Suzanne Wardwell Marries Mr. Moore

Newlyweds Vacationing in East Before Bridegroom Reports to Navy Officers Training School in Newport, R.I.

Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, was the setting for the Saturday afternoon wedding of Suzanne Taylor Wardwell and Ralph Patterson Moore, II.

A reception at the Country Club of Detroit followed the 4 o'clock ceremony.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Otis Wardwell, II, of Kercheval avenue, wore a fitted gown of candlelight slipper satin, fashioned with a front panel trimmed with seed pearls and crystals.

Her family heirloom Rosepointe lace Cathedral length veil fell from a seed pearl headpiece. Her flowers were baby orchids.

Her six attendants wore gowns of seafoam green tulle, styled with puffed sleeves and Empire waistlines, trimmed with pink velvet ribbon and pink and green ribbon hats.

They carried old-fashioned nosegays of pink carnations, sweetheart roses and lily-of-the-valley.

Mrs. George Adams Haggerty served as her sister's usher.

After a reception in the East the newlyweds will vacation in Newport, R.I., before the bridegroom reports to the Navy Officers Training School in Newport, R.I.

Evening Ceremony For Miss McLellan

Speaks Vows To Robert Charles Waldeck In St Paul's On The Lakeshore; Couple Will Live In Harper Woods

Cheryl Ann McLellan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. McLellan, Jr., of Rivard boulevard, chose a Princess gown of white silk linen, styled with a scoop neckline and Chapel train, for her Friday evening, September 2, wedding to Robert Charles Waldeck.

Swiss lace bordered her elbow length sleeves, train, hem and mantilla veil. She carried a nosegay of white roses.

Officiating at the 8 o'clock rites in St. Paul's on the Lakeshore was Father Edward Crowley, of Windsor, Ont.

In floor length raspberry linen frocks were the attendants, Gail Elaine McLellan, who served as her sister's maid of honor, and bridesmaids Kathleen M. Disser, Cheryl Lyon, Judy Waldeck, Mrs. Gregory Obloy and Adrienne Clair, of Bay Shore, N.Y.

Their flowers were nosegays of roses and striped carnations.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Waldeck of Lennon road, asked Allen Lang to act as best man. Ushering were Robert Morrison, William Waldeck, John J. McLellan, III, Ronald G. Harper, Jon Cook, John Kotcher and Kenneth N. Garner.

For her daughter's marriage and the reception at the Gourmet House following the rites, Mrs. McLellan chose a floor length gown of pink silk crepe.

The bridegroom's mother's floor length dress was also fashioned of silk crepe, in a beige shade, and featured a beaded bodice.

The newlyweds, vacationing in Northern Michigan and Florida, plan to make their home in Eastland Village, Harper Woods, while both pursue graduate studies at Wayne State University.

Lasher-Gagnon Rites Are Read

After a vacation on Mackinac Island, following their July 16 wedding in Holy Family Church, Saginaw, Mr. and Mrs. Jan Ingvor Lasher are making their home in Detroit.

Mrs. Lasher is the former Carolyn Marie Gagnon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo N. Gagnon, of Saginaw. Her husband is the son of the George F. Lashers, of Newcastle road.

The 12 o'clock rites, at which The Reverend Father Charles L. Ganley presided, were followed by a reception in the Crystal and Garden Ballrooms of the Bancroft Hotel.

The bride's honor attendants, Judy Ecarus and Barbara Federspiel, wore floor length gowns, fashioned with white crepe skirts and aqua and turquoise chiffon over taffeta bodices, with matching rose headpieces.

Dressed identically were bridesmaids Sharon Piekard and Sandra Gagnon, the bride's nieces, Judy Phillips and Lynn Lasher, the bridegroom's sister. They carried yellow Fuji mums and camellia leaves, accented with turquoise plume feathers.

Mary Ann Lasher, another sister of the bridegroom, was flower girl.

The bride's white peau gown was accented with pearl and crystal-beaded Alencon lace, and her illusion veil fell from a pearl-set gold heirloom Swedish crown. She carried gardenias, yellow Sweetheart roses and camellia leaves.

Best man was Larry Wilson, and ushers were Jerry Brewer, John Gempel, Roland Sauer, David Bergman and William Taylor.

The mother of the bride wore a deep rose-pink lace dress and matching jacket, while the bridegroom's mother chose an aqua green silk organza dress and coat ensemble. Both mothers chose gardenia corsages.

Mrs. Robert Waldeck

At a Friday evening, September 2, ceremony in St. Paul's on the Lakeshore, CHERYL ANN McLELLAN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. McLellan, Jr., of Rivard boulevard, became the bride of Mr. Waldeck, son of the Frank Waldecks, of Lennon road.

Mrs. James P. Edwards

Married September 1, in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, to Mr. Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Edwards, of Bennington road, Bloomfield Hills, was CARYN LOUISE ERICKSON, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Erickson, of Audubon road.

Edwards-Erickson Vows Exchanged

From Sweden came the traditional gold crown, worn for centuries by Swedish brides, which caught Caryn Louise Erickson's shoulder length illusion wedding veil.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Erickson, of Audubon road, spoke her marriage vows to James Phelps Edwards at a September 1 candlelight ceremony, in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

The Reverend Ben L. Tallman officiated at the 6 o'clock double ring rites.

The bride wore a white silk gown, featuring a bodice and front skirt panels of white lace and a white silk train. She carried a cascade of white archids.

Martha Snyder was honor attendant, and bridesmaids were Carol Quinn, Anna Harrison, Paula Wybrandt and Claire Berthele.

The honor attendant's floor length Empire sheath was fashioned of white and blue crepe. The bridesmaids wore two-toned blue crepe frocks. Their headpieces were matching blue silk net veils, held by blue silk organza blossoms, and they carried Colonial bouquets of blue-tipped carnations.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Edwards, of Bennington road, Bloomfield Hills, was given in marriage by her brother.

Martha Collier Weds Mr. Cook

Martha Jean Collier and John Cameron Cook were married Saturday, September 10, in the Barbour Chapel of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. The Reverend Ben L. Tallman officiated at the ceremony.

Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. John Carruthers Cook, of East Jefferson avenue. Maid of honor was Jean Cook, sister of the bridegroom. John Lee Thompson was best man, and John Blair and Henry Taylor seated the guests.

Party to Fete New Teachers

Not only all the new single school teachers in the Grosse Pointe public schools but those beginning teaching at Liggett, Grosse Pointe University school, and the new lay teachers at St. Joan of Arc as well will be feted this Friday evening, September 16, by the Grosse Pointe Assembly, a group of young single business and professional people sponsored by the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

The honored guests will first be entertained at cocktails at the well known bachelor establishment Shangri-la beginning at 7:30. After getting acquainted with their hosts and a large committee of welcome they will join the rest of the assembly for a dance in the Crystal Ballroom and Gardens of Grosse Pointe War Memorial, 32 Lake Shore. The Terrace and bowling green as well as the formal gardens will be lighted and the newcomers will be shown through them.

and the old Alger Mansion as well as the new Fries building.

Both straight ballroom dancing and rock 'n' roll will be featured for the group's enjoyment and light refreshments will be served near midnight.

The new teachers will be invited to participate in the assembly's functions this fall and winter beginning with a theater party and supper dance opening night of Grosse Pointe Theatre's season which begins with "You Can't Take It With You."

There will be a Tailgate party to Ann Arbor for the "Little Brown Jug" homecoming game with Minnesota.

At Christmas, a party will be given for handicapped young people with a private party for assembly hosts following and as the winter begins a skating party is planned at the Farms pier.

A 'Guest Privilege' At Georgian East... The Atmosphere of An Exclusive Club

Architecturally, Georgian East is an authentic Georgian structure that excites the admiration of experts and passersby alike. Its furnishings recreate the 18th Century—America's age of gracious living. Its spacious and elegant lounges, libraries and music room encourage the maintenance of a varied and satisfying social life. The food it serves is excellent—so good, in fact, that our guest-patients often invite their friends to share it . . . Together, these things create the atmosphere of an exclusive club. This is the atmosphere in which the patients at Georgian East live. With professional care of the highest quality and the most modern equipment available, these things constitute Georgian East's very long list of "guest privileges." This blending of art and science, of beauty and skill enables us to provide the geriatric patient, the convalescent, the chronically ill with the kind of care that meets only one standard—the best. We welcome visitors. Please phone, or just stop by when you are in the neighborhood.

Shirley Thayer MacKenzie Chooses Lace-Accented Ivory Organza over Silk Peau Gown for Afternoon Rites

Vacationing in Northern Michigan after their Saturday afternoon wedding, in Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, are Mr. and Mrs. Jon Harry Paulsens.

They plan to make their home in Big Rapids while Mr. Paulsens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald G. Paulsen, of Kalamazoo, continues his studies at Ferris State College.

The bride, the former Shirley Thayer MacKenzie, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edward P. MacKenzie, of University place, chose an ivory organza over silk peau wedding gown, styled with an Empire bodice accented with Alencon lace appliques and a modified A line skirt.

Her train, which fell from her waist, ended in a deep band of re-embroidered Alencon lace. A cap, made from a lace collar which belonged to her maternal great-grandmother, secured her waist illusion veil.

She carried a cascade of stephanotis and ivy, centered with cymbidium orchids.

Mimi MacKenzie served as her sister's honor attendant, and bridesmaids were Lydia Leacock, Ann Engel, Barbara Wengel and Judith Paulsen, the bridegroom's sister.

Their floor length frocks of willow green and honeydew melon tissue taffeta were fashioned with lace bodices. They wore matching floor length coats and carried rubrum lilies and ivy cascades.

Best man was Darrell Paulsen, of Kalamazoo. Ushering were Michael McCarthy, of Saginaw, Thomas Bower, of Marine City, Robert Oudsema, of Kalamazoo, and Edward MacKenzie, Jr., brother of the bride.

For the 3 o'clock rites, at which the Rev. Richard Knight officiated, and the reception in her home and garden following the wedding, Mrs. MacKenzie, the bride's mother, chose a deep rose silk shantung dress and coat ensemble.

The bridegroom's mother wore a costume of pale green raw silk, with matching accessories. Both mothers chose Amazon lily corsages.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Reid Johnson, of La Jolla, Calif., the bride's maternal grandmother, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace S. MacKenzie, of Boynton Beach, Fla., (Mr. MacKenzie is the bride's paternal grandfather), Judge and Mrs. James Cullen, of Baltimore, (Mrs. Cullen is the bride's great-aunt), and Mr. and Mrs. Braith Davis, also of Baltimore.

From Kalamazoo came the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Manfred Martin, and Mr. Martin, the bridegroom's aunt, Mrs. Donald C. Rice, and Mr. Rice, and the bridegroom's great-aunt, Mrs. LeVerne Lemke.

Married to Mr. Paulsen Saturday afternoon, in Christ Church, was SHIRLEY THAYER MacKENZIE, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edward P. MacKenzie, of University place. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald G. Paulsen, of Kalamazoo.

Plan Welcome Wagon Meeting

Welcome Wagon Club of Grosse Pointe will start off a new year of activities with a coffee meeting to be held Thursday morning, September 22, at 11 o'clock in the War Memorial. Bridge and canasta will follow.

Newcomers to the community, who have been called upon by a Welcome Wagon hostess, are invited to attend the meeting. Those desiring further information or needing transportation may contact the hospitality chairman, Mrs. John Meloy, TU 6-5378.

Flights in the bridge marathon are being arranged by Mrs. John H. Retterer, and vacancies exist both in the husband and wife division and the afternoon session. Anyone interested in participating can make arrangements by calling Mrs. Retterer at VA 1-3914.

Current and prospective member are reminded that dues must be paid to Mrs. John A. Haine, of Bishop road, membership chairman, by September 30 in order to be listed in the yearbook. Checks may be mailed to her at any time prior to that date or given to her at the next meeting.

Reservations for the coffee should be made with either Mrs. J. J. Schneider, TU 6-4992, or Mrs. Noel W. Fry, VA 3-4405, by the preceding Monday evening.

Betrothed

Mr. and Mrs. John Cudia, of Beaupre avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, JUDITH ANN, to Robert W. Helms, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Helms, of Lakeland avenue.

The bride-elect attended Michigan State University where she affiliated with the Alpha Phi sorority, and will begin her junior year at Wayne State University.

Her fiance attended Albion College and will also begin his junior year, this fall, at Wayne State University.

The couple plan a summer wedding.

Miss Flintermann Wed To John Fink

Bride's Attendants are her Two Sisters, Barbara and Mary Flintermann, and Bridegroom's Sister, Ann Fink

The Lakeshore road home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Revere Flintermann was the setting Saturday for the garden wedding of their daughter, Charlotte Flintermann, and John Morley Fink, and the reception following the rites.

Presiding at the afternoon ceremony was Dr. Harry Meserve, of the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church.

The bride's white silk serge gown was fashioned with an Empire bodice, featuring pearl and crystal beading at her Sabrina neckline and elbow length sleeves.

She wore her floor length veil of Princess lace mantilla style, and carried a bouquet of Eucharis lilies, stephanotis and ivy.

She was attended by her sisters, Barbara Flintermann, who served as maid of honor, and Mary Flintermann, and by the bridegroom's sister, Ann Fink.

The honor attendant and bridesmaids were dressed alike in floor length, sleeveless frocks of aqua cotton, styled with Empire bodices.

Their hair were of matching velvet, with darker aqua ribbons cascading down their backs. They carried arrangements of miniature Fuji chrysanthemums and ivy.

Serving as his brother's best man was Peter R. Fink. They are the sons of Mrs. George R. Fink, of Tonnacour place, and the late Mr. Fink.

Ushering were the bride's brothers, Andrew C. Flintermann and Donald R. Flintermann, and the bridegroom's brother-in-law, W. Merritt Jones.

Mrs. Flintermann chose a sheath of pale green alaskine with a hat of matching green and pale pink satin, for her daughter's wedding and the reception.

Mrs. Fink, the bridegroom's mother, wore an aqua and green cotton brocade dress and jacket, and a small hat of aqua and green velvet.

The newlyweds will make their home in New York City when they return from a vacation in Greece, Turkey and Italy.

Newlyweds John R. Doneths Vacation In Colorado; Are Currently Making Their Home In Allen Road, St. Clair Shores

Back teaching at Grosse Pointe High School are Mr. and Mrs. John R. Doneth, who were married August 20, in Sacred Heart Church, Imlay City.

The bride is the former Laura M. Jakobowski, of Vernier road, daughter of Mrs. Joseph J. Jakobowski, of Imlay City, and the late Mr. Jakobowski.

Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernor Doneth, of Big Rapids.

A reception at American Legion Hall, Lapeer, followed the noon rites, at which Father Donald Worthy officiated.

A white organza sheath gown, styled with a natural-waisted bodice featuring a bateau neckline and long sleeves, ending in wrist points, and a bouffant overskirt ending in a Chapel train, was the former Miss Jakobowski's wedding choice.

Alencon lace motifs, trimmed with seed pearls and crystals, accented her bodice and skirt.

A pearl-trimmed white organza rosebud cluster headpiece held her illusion bubble veil, and she carried a cascade of white orchids and carnations.

In Empire frocks, featuring bodices of moss green georgette crepe and white georgette crepe skirts, were maid of honor Dorothy Selinger and bridesmaids Mrs. James Montgomery, a former college roommate of the bride, and Mrs. Joseph Engemann, the bridegroom's sister.

The honor attendant carried a spray of green carnations. The bridesmaids carried yellow carnation sprays.

Best man was Norman J. Bennett, of Grand Rapids. Ushering were Thomas W. Jakobowski, of Royal Oak, the bride's brother, and Joseph Engemann, of Kalamazoo.

The bride's sister, Gloria Jakobowski, presided at the Guest Register.

The bride's mother wore a beige brocade sheath, while the bridegroom's mother chose a two-piece aqua ensemble. Both mothers chose corsages of yellow Sweetheart roses.

The newlyweds vacationed in Denver, Colo. They are making their home in Allen road, St. Clair Shores.

Sharon Queeney Wed In Illinois

Sharon Ann Queeney, daughter of Mrs. Roy Tuchbreiter, of Chicago, Ill., and Palm Beach, Fla., and the late J. Rex Queeney, of Grosse Pointe, and Stephen Babcock Brown, son of Mrs. Robert M. Gamble, Jr., of Washington, D.C., and the late Donald Winchester Brown, Jr., of Cooperstown, N.Y., were married Saturday afternoon, September 10, in St. Chrysostom's Episcopal Church, Chicago.

The Reverend Canon Peter A. Carroll, of St. Paul's Cathedral, Detroit, assisted by The Reverend Mr. George Price, of St. Chrysostom's, officiated at the ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of candlelight ivory re-embroidered Princess Alencon lace, hand-appliqued to English tulle.

She wore her French illusion Cathedral length veil, bordered with matching Alencon lace, mantilla style, and carried a Rosepointe lace handkerchief fashioned from the wedding veil worn by her maternal great-grandmother, Mme. Helene Marie le Baron Brautgame, of Alsace-Lorraine, France, beneath a round bouquet of lilies and lilies-of-the-valley, edged with ivy.

Matron of honor was Mrs. William C. Kunt, Jr., of Chicago, and maid of honor was Elizabeth Lindsay Allen, of New York, N.Y.

Bridesmaids were Mary Adams Sampson and Susan

Lennox, both of Chicago; the bridegroom's sisters, Mrs. Michel Rapoport, of Philadelphia, Pa., and Mrs. James Kent Wil-ling, III, of Devon, Pa.; Janet Simpson, of Longmeadow, Mass.; Karen Murray and Lindamur Murray, both of Colonia, N.J.; Frances Gable, of Palm Beach; Sherry Bluck, of Louisville, Ky.; and Mrs. John Michael Damgard, II, of Dwight, Ill.

They wore identical floor length gowns of pale moss green silk organza, with pale pink velvet sashes defining their Empire waistlines, and open-crowned picture hats of bias moss green silk organza, accented with pale pink velvet streamers.

Flower girls Barbara and Caroline Fast wore floor length gowns of ruffle-tiered pale pink silk organza, with pink velvet sashes defining their Empire bodices, and wreaths of pink Sweetheart roses in their hair. They carried baskets of pink and white rose petals.

The senior honor attendants carried round bouquets of deep pink roses, centered with pale pink lily-of-the-valley and edged with ivy, and the bridesmaids carried arrangements of ivy-edged pale pink roses.

Gilbert C. Greenway, Jr., of Washington, D.C., served as the bridegroom's best man.

In the usher corps were Jay Bragden, of Washington, D.C.; Fargo Thompson and Michel Rapoport, of Philadelphia, Pa.; James M. Lyon and Philip G. Jackson, of New York, N.Y.; David J. Kepner, Jr., of Quogue, Long Island; James Kent Wil-ling, III, of Devon, Pa.; Henry F. Sears, II, of Charlottesville, Va.; R. Park Palmer, of Hamilton, Mass.; James S. Corbett, of Tulsa, Okla.; and Conway Wilson-Young, of London, England.

The mother of the bride wore a champagne silk chiffon ensemble, while the bridegroom's mother chose a coat-dress of ice-green silk.

A reception at the Detroit Boat Club followed the Saturday afternoon (September 3, wedding of Carol Ann Pickup, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Pickup, of Chalfonte avenue, and James Louis Boyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Boyer, of Pontiac.

Officiating at the 2:30 o'clock rites in Grosse Pointe Congregational Church was The Reverend John W. Estes.

Chantilly lace bordered the sleeves and bell skirt of the bride's white silk organza gown, which featured a full Chapel train. Her elbow length illusion veil fell from a crown of lace appliques, trimmed with seed pearls, and she carried a Colonial arrangement of white roses, stephanotis and phalaenopsis orchids.

She was attended by Suzanne Deming, who served as maid of honor, and bridesmaids Doreen Theuerkorn, Elizabeth Knust, of Mount Clemens, Mrs. David Hall, of Ann Arbor, and Mrs. Gerald Toshalis, of Grand Rapids.

Their Empire-waisted frocks were fashioned of two-toned gold chiffon. They carried Colonial bouquets of yellow daisy mums, the maid of honor's accented with Golden Garnet roses.

David Hall was the bridegroom's best man. In the usher corps were Joseph Groome and William Walters, both of Pontiac, Robert Pickering, of Ann Arbor, and Robert Pickup, the bride's brother.

Mrs. Pickup, the bride's mother, wore a mint green chiffon costume, while Mrs. Boyer, mother of the bridegroom, chose an ice blue brocade ensemble. Both mothers' corsages were fashioned of white Sweetheart roses.

The newlyweds, touring Northern Michigan, Canada, Vermont, New Hampshire, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania, plan to make their home in Cleveland, O.

St. Clare de Montefalco Church is Setting for Evening Rites; Newlyweds to Make Home in Beaconsfield Avenue

A gown of white satin, accented with lace appliques and styled with a Chapel train, was Donna Marie Bloink's choice for the Friday evening ceremony at which she became the bride of Floyd Paul Patterson.

Her fingertip illusion veil fell from a lace headpiece, and she carried a cascade of white roses, cymbidium orchids and stephanotis. Officiating at the 7 o'clock rites in St. Clare de Montefalco Church, was The Reverend Albert Kolch.

The new Mrs. Patterson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin J. Bloink, of Kensington road. Her husband is the son of the Paul F. Pattersons, of Detroit.

Jeanne Marie Bloink, who served as her sister's honor attendant, wore a floor length frock fashioned with an Empire bodice of spruce green brocade and a pale yellow crepe skirt.

Bridesmaids, in gowns with gold brocade bodices and pale yellow crepe skirts, were Veronica Maire Bloink, another sister of the bride, Beverly Morgan, Elizabeth Patterson, the bridegroom's sister, and Mrs. Douglas Norris.

They carried cascade bouquets of gold and rust mums and birds of paradise.

Best man was the bride's brother, Robert Paul Bloink, and ushering were John Leonard Bloink, another brother of the bride, Carl E. Patterson, the bridegroom's brother, and Patrick Harrison. Flower girls Pamela Bloink, sister of the bride, and Jeanette Bloink, the bride's cousin, were dressed in floor length frocks with gold brocade bodices and pale yellow crepe skirts, and carried baskets filled with gold and rust mums and yellow daisies.

Robert Patterson was ring bearer.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception at Gourmet House following the ceremony, Mrs. Bloink chose a gold and green tapestry print gown, with a matching velvet jacket.

The bridegroom's mother wore a gown of peacock chiffon. Both mothers chose cymbidium orchid corsages.

The newlyweds, vacationing in Canada, will return to make their home in Beaconsfield avenue.

Young Episcopal Ladies To Meet

The Young Episcopal Women of Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, are starting off their new season Tuesday, September 20, at 9:30 o'clock, with coffee and doughnuts followed by a brief meeting and work on projects for their sensational new "Serendipity Booth" for the Christ Church Fair.

Smith-Willmore Vows Spoken

Married Friday evening, September 9, at the McKinley place home of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Francis E. Brossy, III, were Mrs. Barbara Smith Willmore, of St. Claire avenue, and Donald Francis Smith, I, of Asbury Park.

The new Mrs. Smith is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Chester Smith, of Southern Pines, N. C., formerly of Grosse Pointe. Her husband is the son of the Donald F. Smiths, of Detroit.

Mrs. Brossy served as her sister's attendant, and William Austin Murray, of Birmingham, acted as the bridegroom's best man.

For the ceremony, the bride chose an ice-aqua brocade dress and coat ensemble. She carried an arrangement of miniature Fuji mums in autumn shades.

The newlyweds will cruise on the Great Lakes for a fortnight. When they return, to make their home in Grosse Pointe, the Brossys will entertain at a reception in their honor.

Coming from out-of-town for the party will be the new Mrs. Smith's sister, Marion Leigh Smith, of California, just returned from a summer tour of Europe; and Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Little, the bridegroom's sister and brother-in-law, of Warrensville Heights, O.

Faculty Wives Plan Reception

The Grosse Pointe Faculty Wives will meet for their annual fall reception in the Crystal Ballroom of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial at 8 o'clock Monday evening, September 19.

One of the highlights of the program will be the introduction of Mrs. John Barnes, of Plymouth, hostess for the first Faculty Wives meeting ever held.

In addition to helping start this group years ago, she has the pleasure of knowing that the local Barnes Elementary school was named after her husband.

Also to be honored are all past presidents and honorary members of Faculty Wives. A few members to the area will be introduced by their big sisters for the year.

Following the business meeting, co-chairmen Mrs. Jack Harrigan and Mrs. Harlan Minor have planned an informal fashion show.

Modeling fall and winter fashions from the J. C. Penney Company will be Mrs. John Wargelin, Mrs. James Webers, Mrs. Robert Shover, Mrs. James Ireton, Mrs. Thomas Gauerke, Mrs. James Curlett and Mrs. John Thompson.

Three of the members' daughters will help preside at the tea table: Cynthia Webers, daughter of Mrs. James Webers, Cherill Gale, daughter of Mrs. Richard Gale and Susan Yerkes, daughter of Mrs. Donald Yerkes. Special activities of Faculty Wives for the coming year will be announced by various chairmen. Mrs. John Wargelin and Mrs. Gilbert Gray are in charge of the Bridge-Pinochle group, which will meet the second Monday of each month at 7:30 o'clock at Brownell Junior High.

Mrs. John Thompson and Mrs. Stanley Smith are heading the Homemaking group that meets the third Monday of each month at different members' homes.

Mrs. Donald Keith and Mrs. James Pitterington are planning the Christmas party, given annually for members' children. Fun Night for wives and husbands will be organized by Mrs. James Ireton and Mrs. Joe Spagnoli.

Plans for the spring luncheon are in the hands of Mrs. Maynard Leigh and Mrs. Russell Reed.

Officers for the 1966-67 year are Mrs. Richard Gale, president; Mrs. James Lewis, vice president; Mrs. William Mest-

Bermuda Vacation for Newlywed Mr. and Mrs. John Charles Guillaumin; Reception at Whittier Follows Ceremony

Planning to make their home in Houghton, while the bridegroom completes studies for his Masters degree, are the newlywed Mr. and Mrs. John Charles Guillaumin, currently vacationing in Bermuda.

They were married Saturday morning, at a 10 o'clock ceremony in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church.

Guillaumin's pink. The bride's mother chose an orchid, the bridegroom's mother a gardenia corsage.

Busy Schedule For Newcomers

Officiating at the rites, which were followed by a reception at The Whittier Hotel, was the Reverend William R. Palmer.

The bride, the former Susan Elaine Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Middleton Clark, of South Renaud road, wore a gown of milk-white peau de soie, designed with a scoop neckline, elbow length sleeves and belted skirt, ending in a full Chapel train.

Appliques of re-embroidered Alencon lace, trimmed with seed pearls and crystals, were scattered over her bodice and skirt.

A small cap of matching lace and peau de soie held her bouffant veil of imported illusion, and she carried a bouquet of ivy-accented stephanotis, centered with a white orchid.

Strawberry linen floor length gowns, with matching headbows and shoulder length veils, were worn by her attendants, who carried arrangements of pink candy-stripe carnations.

Elaine Anne Domzalski is maid of honor, and bridesmaids were the bridegroom's three sisters, Jean Elizabeth, Sue Evelyn and Mary Ann Guillaumin, and the bride's sister, Mrs. John Paul Boni.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jules Edward Guillaumin, of Yorkshire road, asked his fraternity brother, Gary Lee Humphreys, of New York City, to act as best man.

Ushering were two other fraternity brothers, John Harold Sigwart and Thomas Henry Brodine, both of Prospect Heights, Ill. John Paul Boni and Thomas Paul Garvey, the bridegroom's cousin.

The mothers of the bride and bridegroom wore pure silk jacket dresses, Mrs. Clark's in a turquoise shade and Mrs.

Susan Carol Maynard Chooses Silk Organza Gown with Chantilly Lace Bodice for Afternoon Wedding Ceremony

A home in Detroit awaits Mr. and Mrs. Richard Orson Willard, who exchanged marriage vows Saturday at an afternoon ceremony in Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, upon their return from a Mexican vacation.

The bride, the former Susan Carol Maynard, daughter of Mrs. Harold A. Maynard, of Ida lane, and the late Mr. Maynard, was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Thomas Giesey, of Boulder, Colo.

She wore a silk organza gown, fashioned with an Empire bodice of Chantilly lace and a full train. Her illusion veil fell from an organza and lace headpiece, and she carried an arrangement of white roses, miniature carnations and stephanotis.

Serving as her sister's matron of honor was Mrs. Thomas Giesey. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Jack Blum, Mrs. Dale Ashcraft, Marilyn Harbison and Ruth Copeland.

They wore sleeveless Empire frocks of moss green chiffon over taffeta, with small bolero jackets, and matching moss green Dior headbows. Their flowers were bronzegold miniature mums.

Center Holding Venetian Night

When guests gather on the lakeside terrace of 32 Lake Shore for aperitifs at 7 o'clock this Saturday evening, September 17, they will find themselves in a perfect setting for a Venetian night.

Across the bowling green and gardens will be the grandest of grand canals - Lake St. Clair.

In the Crystal Ballroom will await a delicious Italian feast beginning with antipasta de Melone e Prosciutto, continuing with Cannelloni Caruso and introducing for the main course Mignone Ala Regina Vittoria (veal deliciously stuffed with ham and cheese and topped with mushrooms) accompanied by Melangana alla Fiorentina and green salad. The meal will be climaxed with a delicious Italian candied pastry with chocolate and coffee.

After dinner guests may pause to view a small display of Italian items on their way down to Fries Theater where they will be entertained by Robert Zajac, tenor and Jane Kretsch, soprano, accompanied by Mme. Perralta in a group of lovely Italian songs reminiscent of the gondoliers and Neopolitan street singers.

Then to complete the evening, enchanting films of Venice and Italy will be shown. The whole evening is offered for a $4 reservation including tax and service but paid reservations must be in the center's office no later than Friday morning, September 16.

D. P. Stoddard Claims Bride

The First Presbyterian Church, of Hutchinson, Kans., was the setting for the Saturday evening, September 3, wedding of Susan Jayn Sorem, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Nelson Sorem, of Hutchinson, to Douglas P. Stoddard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Stoddard, of University place.

The Reverend Alan J. Sorem of Johnstown, N. Y., brother of the bride, and the Reverend James Brock, of Hutchinson, officiated at the 7 o'clock double ring service.

Duchess Stoddard, sister of the bridegroom, and Ronald Blakey, of Milwaukee, Wis., were honor attendants. Bridesmaids were Shirley Johnson, of Shawnee Mission, Kans., Roberta Banyard, Kathryn Hofer and Bobette Kramer, all of Hutchinson.

Groomsman were Steve Van Soyae, of Peoria, Ill., Guy Davis, of Prairie Village, Kans., Dennis Mouring, of Clearwater, Kans., and George Johnston, of Hutchinson, all fraternity brothers of the bridegroom.

Jeffery Sorem, of San Antonio, and also a nephew of the bride, was ring bearer. Flower girl was Kim Goldsmith, of Hutchinson.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a lace-accented sleeveless floor length, semi-fitted coat dress of candlelight silk faced peau de soie fashioned with a long sleeved mantle coat. Her fingertip length veil of candlelight illusion was held in place by an organza rose with petals of Alencon lace covered with tiny seed pearls.

She carried a cascade of white roses and ivy. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Floor length gowns of beige with avocado green chiffon Empire bodices were worn by the attendants. The slim beige crepe skirt had a train of crepe and chiffon held by a self fabric bow. Their hats were of avocado green illusion held by a cluster of rosettes with pearl spirals.

They carried bronze pumpkin and hutterscotch chrysanthemums. The flower girl's dress was of the same avocado green, and she carried a gold basket filled with bronze mums.

Mrs. J. Nelson Sorem chose a cocoa beige and silver brocade sheath dress with three-quarter length sleeves, with matching accessories. Mrs. Paul H. Stoddard, the bridegroom's mother, chose a beige and gold lame suit with gold lame accessories. Both mothers wore white orchids.

The rehearsal dinner was given Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Stoddard for members of the wedding party and out of town guests, at the Prairie Dunes Country Club.

Following a wedding trip to New Orleans, Mr. and Mrs. Stoddard will be at home in Lawrence, Kans., where both attend the University of Kansas.

Sharon Ann Barker Wed To Mr. Ervin

Reception in Garden Of Bride's Parents' Sunningdale Drive Home Follows August 27 Rites; Pair Will Live in Colorado

Sharon Ann Barker and Edward Michael Ervin exchanged marriage vows August 27, at a 1 o'clock ceremony in Our Lady of the Sea Church, during which The Reverend Walter Ford presided.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul LeRoy Barker, who entertained at a reception in the garden of their Sunningdale drive home following the rites, wore an ivory peau d'ange gown, fashioned with an Empire waistline, short, lace-trimmed Kabuki sleeves and a semi-sheath skirt banded above the hemline with re-embroidered Alencon lace.

Her illusion veil, falling the full length of her Cathedral train, was secured by a headpiece of crushed peau de soie, and she carried a cascade of ivory roses and ivy.

She was attended by her sister, Nancy Ann Barker, who served as maid of honor, and bridesmaids Lisa Ervin, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. James Lyons, Jackie White, of Lemon, Colo., and Maffy Hartman, of Boulder, Colo.

Their Kabuki-sleeved floor length gowns of buttercup yellow linen featured Empire waistlines, banded in lace which cascaded to their hemlines. Velvet ribbons accented their lace-trimmed headpieces. They carried baskets, trimmed with yellow velvet ribbon, filled with yellow daisy mums, coral geraniums and ivy.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gilpin Ervin, Jr., of Denver, Colo., asked James L. Haggerty, of Syracuse, N.Y., to act as best man. Ushers were Paul P. Barker, H. brother of the bride, William Swanson, Jr., of Holden, Mass., Nick Ervin, the bridegroom's brother, and Kirk Lens, of Boulder, Colo.

Mrs. Barker, mother of the bride, wore a short-sleeved street length dress of meadow green chiffon, styled with a tucked detail at her hemline, and a matching tucked chiffon hat.

The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Ervin, chose a vivid pink silk dress and matching jacket, and a hat of silk roses. Both mothers pinned orchids to their handbags.

The newlyweds are making their home in Boulder, Colo.

THE FATAL MARRIAGE

A Lion was so grateful to a little Mouse for setting him free from a hunter's trap that he told the Mouse to choose anything in the world that he wanted.

The Mouse was so ambitious that he said he wanted the Lion's daughter to be his wife.

The Lion knew that this was a very stupid choice, but a promise was a promise; so he sent his daughter, a big Lioness, to marry the Mouse.

She became so excited when she saw her husband-to-be that she accidentally stepped on him and that was the end of the Mouse.

The Moral . . .

What we think we want is not always the best thing for us!

Garden Clubs Exhibit Planned At Warren's

District One Director Mrs. Robert C. Palmer, Of Lakeshore Road, Is Chairman Of Annual Show; Many Pointers Helping

Unusual in concept and different from the 11 other exhibits staged by members of District One of the Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan, under the auspices of Charles W. Warren and Company in its Detroit galleries in Washington Boulevard, "Form and Fashion," the 1966 theme, will offer visitors a definite change of pace when the exhibition opens Wednesday, September 21, to continue through the 23rd.

Beamed to reflect the newness and beauty achieved in the re-appointed Warren shops, Mrs. John F. Hering, coordinator of the show for Warren's, says that garden clubbers have "dared to be different" in the creation of table settings and accompanying floral adornments. Hours are from 9:30 to 5 o'clock daily.

From the first floor marble-topped exhibition table with its arresting contemporary treatment to be viewed as the visitor enters, to the elaborate dinner setting, "Affluence—in the English Style," in the Tiffany Room, the neoteric look will add flavor to the scene.

Marshall Fredericks' arresting silver over bronze statue of Don Quixote on the exhibition table will be complemented by

Miss Holtzman Will Be Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Holtzman, of Hunt Club drive are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Judith Ann, to Gerald A. Dillon, son of Mrs. Michael Dillon, of Grayton road, and the late Mr. Dillon. Miss Holtzman is a graduate of Grosse Pointe High School.

A May wedding is planned.

out the galleries: from "Time is Measured Form" in the lower level, interpreted in tables for teatime tete-a-tete, or a small supper party and the elegance of "Dinner at Eight," to the small, secluded bridal registry, discussion spot for intimate future plans, giving promise of nuptials to come in the desk arrangement of a silver marriage cup, brimming with posies, and flanked by a lacy, heart-shaped bonbon dish filled with tiny bags of rice.

There'll be something to please every taste in table and floral arrangement, all manner of things from the very modern to contemporary or traditional. And holiday ideas galore—for "Christmas is Always in Fashion."

All garden club members in District One have been invited to participate in some phase of the exhibit and have been especially invited to the opening day reception, where they'll find the reception table dressed in royal blue by their director, Mrs. Robert C. Palmer, of Lakeshore road, who is also chairman of the show.

They will find that she, too, has "dared to be different" in creating a center piece for the event. Focal point will be a large block of native salt as a base for an oval silver bowl, filled with an arrangement of white roses, accented in blue, to launch the 12th annual exhibit of District One.

Grosse Pointe Garden Clubbers, who will act as hostesses or exhibitors at the Warren garden show, include Mrs. Palmer, Mrs. Benson Ford, Mrs. Frederick J. Schumann, Mrs. William H. Denler, Mrs. Hansel Dwight Wilson, Mrs. George B. Hefferen, Mrs. William P. Black and Mrs. Watson Beach.

Others are Mrs. John F. Hering, coordinator for Warren's; Mrs. Longear Palmer, Mrs. Roland R. Postel, Mrs. Donald Miller, Mrs. Elmore W. Frank, Mrs. Windsor S. Davies, Mrs. Emil Leidich, Mrs. Harold B. Tyree, Mrs. Clarence Kramer, Mrs. Edward L. Weber, Mrs. Byron B. Phillips, Mrs. Raymond Hodgson, Mrs. F. F. Stetokuh, Mrs. Kenneth Patton, Mrs. Clarence Treadwell, Mrs. Joseph V. Carr and Mrs. Pierre V. Heftler.

More are Mrs. Edson Morrison, Mrs. Robert Smythe, Mrs. Murray L. MacDonald, Mrs. Agnes Crow, Mrs. Allen Whittingham, Mrs. Stuart Davidson, Mrs. Fred Kaess, Mrs. John Marshall, Mrs. John Birch and Mrs. William Klenk.

Still other Pointers are Mrs. Arthur C. Beaumont, Mrs. C. G. Browne, Mrs. Robert Conder, Mrs. Monte Edelen, Mrs. Paul G. Hykes, Mrs. L. Gaylord Hubert, Mrs. Horace E. McKnight, Mrs. Frederick L. Colby, Mrs. Elmer A. Clark, Mrs. C. Leslie Mitchell, Mrs. Eugene P. Hawkins, Mrs. Valentine Guenther, Mrs. Joseph B. Hester, Mrs. Abram Vanderzee, Mrs. Philip K. Coe, Mrs. K. W. Cunningham, Mrs. M. Rivard Klippel, Mrs. Foster Winter and Mrs. Walter J. Guler.

Collector's Punch Bowl Party

We're taking our admission ticket—"a treasure you can part with," according to the invitations—to Mrs. John B. Ford, Jr.'s East Jefferson avenue home Wednesday afternoon, September 28.

And we'll be staying to sample some of Mrs. Alexander L. Wiener's famous punch at this Christ Church Fair Collector's Corner Punch Bowl Party.

A friend of ours, who discovered a "part-able" treasure too large to carry, tipped us off on the what-to-do-if-your-treasure-is-larger-than-a-breadbox procedure: Simply drop it off ahead of time at the Woodland place home of Collector's Corner co-chairman, (with Mrs. John N. Lord), Mrs. Emory Moran Ford, (she'll welcome it, and you, with open arms).

And by-the-way . . . We understand from CC chairman, Mrs. George N. Monro, III, that contributors with TWO or more treasures are entitled to an extra cherry in their punch glasses!

Another "Happening" At Mrs. Ford's

We'd like to nominate Mrs. John B. Ford, Jr., for the Busy Lady of the Month award: Not only is she hosting the Punch Bowl Party, but she'll open her home next Tuesday afternoon, at 9 o'clock, for a Garden Club of Michigan business meeting.

There's to be a very special "happening" when all the business is safely out of the way—H. Lynn Pierson will show movies of his African Safari.

Tea For Consul's Wives

The St. Lawrence Seaway Chapter of the Daughters of the British Empire in Michigan will honor eight wives of British and Canadian Consuls stationed in Detroit at a tea next Monday, in the Lakeland avenue home of Lady Easton, wife of the British Consul General.

Present will be national DBE president Mrs. William Chisolm, national vice-president Mrs. Arthur Hillegas and Mrs. Robert Cording, president of the State Board of Michigan.

Tea committee members include Mrs. Fred Cousins, chairman, Lady Easton, and the Mesdames Louis Blau-man, Harry Breitenback, Clifford Cardwell, David Gardner, Louis Lotgering, Eric Melmer, A. M. Menninger, Paul Preuthun, Russell Skitch, Robert McBride, J. K. Bresser and Weston Jenkins.

Pouring will be Mrs. Hillegas, Mrs. Vernon Johnson, Mrs. F. W. Evans, Mrs. Skitch, Mrs. Dennis Lees and Mrs. R. E. Tucker.

A Model Afternoon

Young Pointers Jon Hugh Ryall, Sharon Harness, Nancy Johnson and Rex Clavola, Jr., will be "model" children this afternoon, as they display fashions before members of the Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, gathered for their first meeting of the season, plus a luncheon and fashion show, at Oakland Hills Country Club.

The boys and girls are children of Association members. Pointers modeling in the "senior division" include Mrs. John Fife, Mrs. Frank McBride and Mrs. Donald Stanitzke.

Spring Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Milne Hay, of Barrington road, announce the engagement of their daughter, MARY SUE, to Clarence Edward Bradley, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Bradley, of Lakepointe avenue. A spring wedding is planned.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of West Bloomfield High School and attended Michigan State University. Her fiancé is a graduate of Grosse Pointe High School and attended Ferris State and Detroit Institute of Technology.

Husband-Wife Class Offered

Because of the interest expressed by many husbands in the work their wives are doing in decoupage, a class is being offered for husband and wife teams this year.

Sponsored by the Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Public School System, the class will be conducted by Mrs. Louise Hoyt. Interested residents are urged to call TU 5-3808 or TU 5-0271. Registration is limited. Fee is $25 per couple.

Other classes in decoupage will be offered beginning in October, with a choice of morning, afternoon and evening classes available. Registration fee for the eight-week course is $13.00. All classes are limited in enrollment to fourteen members.

Following the fall classes, winter and spring registrations will be accepted to allow students to continue in the study of this fascinating art.

Mrs. Hoyt, one of the few recognized instructors of decoupage, will continue to instruct these classes for Community Services. Her talent for teaching and her own enthusiasm in pursuing this art has served to acquaint hundreds of students with the satisfaction and enjoyment of following decoupage as a hobby.

Planning Scholarship Affair

Busy making plans for the Grosse Pointe Women's Club annual scholarship luncheon, card party, bake sale and flea market, to be held this year October 5, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center, are MRS. JOHN J. SCHEIDT, NEIDER, (left), of Belanger road, Ways and Means chairman for the affair, and Mrs. WOTAN'S Club president, MRS. JOHN J. KELLY, of Oxford road.

Miss McDougal Bows At Home

Presented to society Friday, September 9, at a reception in her Rathbone place home, was this fall's only debutante, Thayer McDougal, daughter of Leslie P. McDougal, of Rathbone place, and Mrs. Edward Hastings, of Boston, Mass.

Thayer and Mr. and Mrs. McDougal received guests in front of their living room fireplace. The deb wore a sleeveless sheath of cyclamen pink brocade and carried a bouquet of deep pink miniature carnations. A jeweled collar accented Mrs. McDougal's sheath of lime green peau de sole.

Joan Benner, of Allentown, Pa., Thayer's Pine Manor Junior College roommate, was a special guest at the party.

Following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Warren Scripps entertained the debutante set at a Little Club dinner dance honoring Lawrie Kimbrough, daughter of the Richard M. Kimbroughs, who was presented to society in June.

Don't worry about appearances—your friends accept you, and the world doesn't care.

Avery Kimerly Is August Bride

In the Chapel of Hood College, Frederick, Md., August 13, Avery Lynn Kimerly, daughter of Mrs. Justin Lewis Giltner, of Renaud road and Leland, Mich., and the late Harvey Luke Kimerly, was married to James Benner Burns, son of Mrs. Margaret B. Burns, of Selvingrove, Pa., and the late James Anderson Burns, of Oneida, Ky.

A reception at the Arlington, Va., home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne James followed the ceremony, at which The Reverend Paul Mehl, chaplain of Hood College, officiated.

Mr. James served as the bridegroom's best man. The bride was attended by Mrs. Joseph Marcello, of Washington, D.C.

The new Mrs. Burns is a graduate of Grosse Pointe University School and Hood College. Her husband is a graduate of Princeton University.
