

NO GPHS HALF-DAY SESSIONS

HEADLINES of the WEEK As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, October 6
GRAND JUROR GEORGE E. BOWLES was given access to the Piggins Grand Jury records by a unanimous vote of the State Supreme Court. There was no dissent to the two-paragraph order. Justice Eugene F. Black filed a memo of agreement saying that he would authorize Bowles to "utilize all such records in the same manner and to the same extent as Piggins might lawfully have done, had he continued to act as grand juror." Piggins' records were also made available by the Court to the state "for its lawful use thereof in prosecutions and other proceedings . . ."

Friday, October 7
A COLLISION OF TWO ocean-going freighters occurred in the St. Clair River in the narrow channel about one-fourth of a mile south of St. Clair Thursday night. While a fire raged out of control in her hold, 19 crewmen were evacuated from one of the vessels. There were no injuries and the second ship was allowed to proceed down river. The night was clear and no fog was reported.

Saturday, October 8
THE WAYNE COUNTY grand jury brought its attention to land purchases for a $14.5 million urban renewal project on Detroit's near east side. W. Joseph Starrs, urban renewal coordinator, and Edward W. Prendeville, assistant coordinator, appeared before Grand Juror George E. Bowles to explain Housing Commission operations. Bowles also obtained records of the 190-acre Elmwood Rehabilitation Project No. 2 from the city treasurer and the commission. Speculation was that the grand juror had received complaints that the purchase prices were too high or too low. Housing Director Robert D. Knox said he "can't see any way, shape or form that there has been anything going on."

Sunday, October 9
FOR THE FIRST TIME in decades, following three months of effort by a national firm of public accountants, The Wayne County Friend of the Court is sending child support payments on a one-day basis. A backlog no longer exists. Since September routine payments from husbands to wives are processed overnight.

Monday, October 10
THE BALTIMORE ORIOLES won their 4th consecutive game on Sunday to take the World Series in a clean sweep. Dave McNally pitched the 1-0 shut-out. A homerun by Frank Robinson in the fourth inning was the only scoring action in the game. The Orioles pitched 33 shut-out innings, breaking the 61-year-old record of 28 scoreless innings of the Giant in 1905.

HURRICANE INEZ, ONE of the longest-lived hurricanes in history, (15 days) has started a long curve from deep in the Gulf of Mexico toward Brownsville, Tex. During the night it turned west toward Tampico, Mex., and then shifted, after pausing briefly in the Gulf, then headed northwest again. Inez has caused 300 deaths through the Caribbean, the Florida Straits and the Gulf. The weather bureau predicted 5- to 8-foot tides in the Brownsville-Port Isabel area. A 6-foot tide would isolate Port Isabel. Three- to six-foot tides were anticipated as far north as Corpus Christi.

Tuesday, October 11
AT AN INTERNATIONAL space conference on Monday, October 10, it was disclosed that two unmanned U.S. spacecraft bumped each other in orbit 18 months ago. This is the first and only collision in space, as far as anyone knows. The odds against such an occurrence were estimated at better than one million to one. American space engineers reported that these two Naval Research Laboratory communications satellites with long antenna-like booms drifted together and crossed booms like fences crossing foils. They soon separated, undamaged and are still operating.

A Last, Long Lingering Look at Summer

Incredible as it seems, by this time next month we MAY have snow! . . . So, while we can, we thought we'd take one last, long lingering look at summer, reflect on the beauty of our community during warm days, when Lake St. Clair sparkles under a high, blue sky, (sigh!). We know we should be looking ahead, to brittle, sparkling winter afternoons, skating parties and roaring indoor fires, but somehow, in this season when the turned leaves begin to fall, we tend to turn nostalgic, remembering June, July, August, early September. Take one last, long lingering look backward with us . . .

Police Arrest Two Suspects In Burglaries

Two Park patrolmen, assisting City police officers in a burglary alarm run, arrested a suspect in a car about 100 feet from the scene of the break-in. In the suspect's car, police found cancelled checks reported to have been taken from a Woods gas station about an hour earlier.

On Monday, October 10, City police received a phone call from Gerard Jacques, a private watchman at Jim Causley Pontiac, Inc., 17677 Mack avenue, stating that a burglary was in progress at Joe's Tire Service, Rivard and Mack.

City Cpl. Donald Fritz, dispatched to the scene, discovered that a window in the overhead door of the station had been broken, and the place entered and ransacked. He found that the drawers had been removed from the cash register.

Found In Car
Park Patrolmen Robert Cory and Andrew Meeker, sent by their radio dispatcher to assist City police, found a 1966 Ford Mustang parked about 100 feet from the service station. In the vehicle, laying flat on the front seat, was George Rogers, 18, of 7003 Milton, Detroit, who was placed under arrest.

In the automobile, the Park officers said, they found 46 cancelled checks, reported to have (Continued on Page 4)

Police Residents Organize Open Housing Committee; State Aims, Purposes

Seventy-five Grosse Pointers have started to organize a committee to work for open housing. At a meeting Monday evening, October 3, held at the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church annex, the group adopted a statement of aims and purposes and heard reports of the work done during the summer by a steering committee.

The meeting was addressed by James Rose, Housing Director of the Michigan Civil Rights Commission. Mr. Rose described fair housing organizations now at work in more than 200 communities in various parts of the United States.

John J. Fortener, of Nottingham road, Grosse Pointe Park, and Mrs. Andrew W. L. Brown, of Bedford road, Grosse Pointe Park, are the temporary co-chairmen of the new Grosse Pointe Committee for Open Housing.

Inspired By Clergymen
Fortener and Mrs. Brown said it was an independent organization open to all Grosse Pointe residents who wish to implement Grosse Pointe clergymen's assertion that "every person has the moral as well as the legal right to purchase or rent a home anywhere without limitations based on race, color, religion or national origin." Last March, 26 Grosse Pointe clergymen issued a statement calling for non-discrimination in housing.

Fortener and Mrs. Brown added, "We are responding to the ministers' suggestion that the churches and their members lead the way for open housing. So far, members of eight Grosse Pointe churches have participated in our discussions. We are undertaking a program of membership activities which will implement our aims and purposes."

Aims and Purposes
The following Statement of Aims and Purposes was adopted by the Grosse Pointe Committee for Open Housing at its October 3 meeting:

1. To make it possible for persons who wish to shop for homes in Grosse Pointe to do so freely, without any restrictions by reason of religion, race, color or national origin. We favor free and open access to house purchase or rental on the moral and legal grounds of equal justice for all. We also believe that our community will benefit from a greater diversity of population, especially as our children gain the opportunity to know persons of other races or beliefs. Therefore, we will work together:

Cottage Cares For Baby Boy Left By Mom

Farms police are seeking the identity of a woman who left Cottage Hospital on Sunday, October 9, a few hours after giving birth to a baby boy, abandoning the infant to the care of hospital personnel. When it became apparent that the mother was gone, police were called.

Det. Sgt. George Van Tiem and Det. Joseph Miller said that there are no clues to the mother, who entered the hospital at 6 a.m., and gave birth to a five-pound seven-ounce boy.

Mrs. Barbara Cehula, afternoon supervisor, told the detectives that the last time the mother was actually seen was at 8:30 p.m., but that is was not until about 7:45 p.m. that it was felt that the woman had disappeared.

Gives False Names
Mrs. Cehula said that the woman registered in as Ann Mitchell, 24, of 4429 Devonshire, Detroit, and gave the name James A. Mitchell as that of her husband, who she said was employed by the Interstate Trucking Company of Detroit.

The woman had been under the care of a doctor on the staff of Cottage Hospital, and had made three visits for check-ups at the doctor's office. The doctor, who said he was not sure of the mother's name or address, delivered the baby.

Van Tiem and Miller said they went to the trucking firm, seeking the husband, and were informed that there was no such person employed by the company. A further check revealed that all information given to hospital admission officials is fictitious, the policemen said.

Baby Fine
The mother was described as being about five feet seven inches tall, thin, with brown hair, dressed in a green duster with white stripes and wearing brown loafers.

Farms Presents Citations to Two Officers, Civilian

Awards Made In Recognition of Meritorious Services Rendered to Police Department On Separate Occasions

Two Harper Woods policemen and a woman employed at the Sears branch store, Mack and Moross, were cited by Farms city and police officials on Tuesday, October 11, for meritorious deeds in assisting Farms police.

This marked the first time that the Farms made out-city presentations and it is hoped it will not be the last, Police Chief Jack F. Roh said.

Det. Joseph Miller personally presented a citation, a framed letter from Chief Roh, to Mrs. Kay Lesley, of 2955 Philip street, Detroit, who on September 3 voluntarily cared for children of two families following an accidental shooting of three-year-old Gail Zingas.

The tot was fatally wounded when a bullet from a gun fired by her 10-year-old cousin entered her left eye and lodged in her brain.

Dies In Hospital
Gail, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Zingas of St. Clair Shores, died in St. John Hospital, in spite of doctors' efforts to save her life.

The gun from which the fatal bullet was fired was found under the mat of the car owned by the dead girl's father, and was thought to be a toy by the cousin as he pulled the trigger.

Det. Sgt. George Van Tiem, in the presence of Harper Woods Police Chief Allen Miglio and other members of the department and city officials, presented citations to Harper Woods Patrolmen Edward Smith and Warren Newton, for their assistance in apprehending two suspects in the September 4 burglary of the Vernon Davis home, 61 Country Club drive.

Farms Mayor William Butler and Chief Roh designated Miller and Van Tiem to represent them in handing out the citations. The two officials were unable to make the presentations because of pressing business elsewhere.

Letter From Chief
In the framed letter to Mrs. Lesley, who manages the refreshment concession at Sears, and signed personally by Chief Roh, the chief stated:

"I would like to take this opportunity to express my personal appreciation and the appreciation of the City of Grosse Pointe Farms for the assistance you rendered members of this department on the afternoon of September 23, 1966.

"After three-year-old Gail Zingas was accidentally shot while sitting in a car parked in the Moross and Mack lot, you can well understand the confusion that followed. Your citizen cooperation in coming forth to care for the Theopoulos and Zingas children while their father went to the hospital, is commendable.

"During these troubled times, far more citizens should come to the assistance of their police; however throughout the entire nation, this is not the case. I am happy to know that we have a citizen such as you working within our city. May I say, if we had more citizens such as you, we could complete our (Continued on Page 3)

Begins At Noon
The drive officially begins at noon Tuesday when 600 key volunteers will gather in the Grand Ballroom of the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel, campaign headquarters.

Clarinetist Paul Schaller Debuts With Symphony

Paul Schaller, clarinetist, will make his first appearance with the Grosse Pointe Symphony, at the Symphony's first concert of the season, Sunday afternoon, October 16, at 3:30 o'clock, at Parcels School Auditorium.

To Continue Class Pattern In District

Present Elementary, Junior And Senior High School Structure to Remain Unchanged Through 1967-68

At Monday's meeting of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education the school trustees made the decision to maintain the existing pattern of organization throughout the school district until the opening of Grosse Pointe High School North, scheduled for the beginning of the 1968-1969 year.

The five board members in attendance approved unanimously the recommendation of J. Harold Husband, Acting Superintendent of Schools. The meeting, held from 7:30 p.m. to 9:05 p.m., was chaired by Dr. Frank H. Parcels, president.

No Dual Sessions
The decision, reached at the regular October meeting, has ended speculation that the present high school would be operated on dual sessions beginning with the 1967-1968 year and that the proposed K-5-3-4 plan would be put into operation prior to the opening of Grosse Pointe High School North.

Had the new plan gone into effect, it would have meant that next year all the public elementary schools would house kindergarten through grade five, the three junior high buildings would contain grades six, seven and eight, and the present high school would contain grades nine through 12 in two daily sessions.

The major decision, one affecting 4,100 children attending the public schools, was reached after months of study. Monday's action means that the implementation of the K-5-3-4 plan will be postponed until the opening of Grosse Pointe High School North.

Can House 3,200
School officials indicate that although it will not be a desirable situation, Grosse Pointe High School can accommodate 3,200 students in grades 10-12. This will be done by using as teaching stations many of the areas now utilized as study halls and auxiliary areas.

A dual high school with one grades 8-12 would have had one section of 2,600 students and a section of 1,500 students. The school of 2,600 would have kept all seniors as a single group. Each of the two proposed school "days" would have been decreased to five-hour sessions and the time limitation would have had a serious effect on the instructional program.

The first session in a dual high school would have begun at 7:30 a.m. with dismissal at 12:30 p.m. The second session would have begun at approximately 1 p.m. and would have (Continued on Page 2)

Leaf Burning Hurts Asphalt

Residents of Grosse Pointe Farms who live on the following streets are being asked not to burn leaves on the newly applied asphalt paving:

Mt. Vernon — Moran to Charlevoix, Lothrop — Grosse Pointe boulevard to Ridge, Lewiston — Grosse Pointe boulevard to Charlevoix, Mapleton — Grosse Pointe boulevard to Kercheval, McKinley Place — Lakeshore to Grosse Pointe boulevard, Muir — Grosse Pointe boulevard to McMillan, Ridge — Moran to Kerby, Madison — Moran to Chalfonte and Kercheval Parking Lot.

The heat generated by this burning causes premature failure of the asphaltic material used in the paving mix and considerably shortens the life of the paving, according to John A. DeFoe, Farms Public Service Director, who asks that leaves be burned only on the concrete driveway approach or in metal trash burners.

"The City is rightly proud of its newly paved streets and we know the homeowners feel the same way; therefore, it is important that the above restrictions be complied with if the streets are to remain in good condition for years to come," DeFoe said.

Park, City Councils Deny One-Way Cadieux Request

A petition from residents living in Cadieux road to have their thoroughfare made a one-way street was denied by both the Park and City councils. The Park turned down the request at its regular meeting held on Monday, October 10; the City, at its meeting held last month. The petition was circulated by residents living on the City-side of Cadieux, and copies presented to both the Park and City councils for possible action. The petitioners had asked for a six-month trial on the one-way situation.

Stone said that the matter had been studied thoroughly, traffic counts taken, and the street width checked. Cadieux is a major road, he stated, with a considerable traffic flow. If the traffic pattern were changed to one-way, Harvard road, which is only 20 feet wide, would bear the brunt of re-routed traffic, which it cannot do.

DOG BITES MAN
Harry K. Warner, of 733 Lorraine road, was treated for dog bite wounds on his hands and wrist on Monday, October 3, at Bon Secours Hospital. The owner of the dog, Pete Shuert, of 739 Lorraine, was asked to keep the dog, an English cocker, under observation at home for 10 days.

VANDALS AT WORK

Mrs. John C. Dougherty of rear storm door. It is believed 752 Notre Dame reported to that the incident occurred be- the City police on Thursday, Sep- tember 28, that vandals had broken her lower window and

No GPHS Half Days

The cost of operating a dual high school of 4,100 students over the cost of a single high school of 3,150-3,200 students is significant. School authorities said that it would have approxi- mated $400,000. Although the question of a dual high school vs. a single high school was not decided on the basis of money alone, it was an important fac- tor in the thinking of the Board of Education. School officials with an obligation to show that the education of the boys and girls of the community would be significantly increased by spending an additional $400,000 did not believe that it could be justified in this manner.

Additional Background At Monday's meeting school trustees and members of the administration presented addi- tional background to their deci- sion to continue the existing K-6-3-3 plan of organization through the 1967-1968 school year.

They cited an improved teach- er-pupil ratio at the elementary level over last year. Recognizing that the early educational years are critical ones for the child, the Board of Education has de- creased the class averages in grades one and two to 25.4. With the exception of three sec- ond grade classes, and one first grade class, all sections in the grades one and two have fewer than 30 pupils.

The most serious housing problem faces the public schools in the junior high schools. All are presently filled to capacity. The recommendation that all sixth grade students be housed in the proposed "middle school," moving the ninth graders to a dual high school and replacing them with the sixth grade pupils, would not have alleviated the junior high school enrollment problem.

The junior high school prin- cipals indicate that the 7-8-9 program can be maintained for 1967-68. Through schedule modifi- cations in various special areas of instruction the teacher-pupil ratio will not be increased sig- nificantly.

Difficult Adjustment School officials said that the ninth graders, in a difficult pe- riod of personal growth and transition, would have found ad- justment in a dual high school arrangement more difficult. Furthermore, in 1968-69, as tenth graders, half of these stu- dents would have had to make another transition to Grose Pointe High School North. Post- ponement of the shift in or- ganization will provide addi- tional time for the development of a firm rationale for the "middle school."

At the dual senior high school the sharing of instructional ma- terials and equipment by two staffs would have created prob- lems in use and repair. A total enrollment of 4,100 students at Grose Pointe High School would have decreased consid- erably the time each student could use the Library-Instruc- tional Materials Center.

Maintenance problems in a dual high school would also have increased sharply. Work schedules, time for repairs and replacement of equipment would have become complicated. Stor- age of materials for a school of 4,100 students would become a greater problem than it is pres- ently in an already over-taxed building.

Other Problems Student management control problems would have increased with a dual high school. Traffic control in the middle of the day, large groups of students arriving and leaving school at the same time would have created diffi- culties.

Staff problems in sharing fa- cilities, equipment, furniture and classrooms would also have been created in a dual high school.

The single high school concept will permit a more thorough de- velopment of educational ideas as agreed to with the Grose Pointe Association, local bar- gaining agent, in its recent nego- tiations with the Board of Edu- cation. The present educational program and continued develop- ment of newer programs can be better facilitated in a single high school, school authorities state.

Board members and adminis- trators agreed that the situation at Grose Pointe High School is not drastic enough to warrant a change for one year. Operat- ing a dual high school for one year would have been confus- ing as well as disruptive. School officials said that it would be difficult to perceive any educa- tional gains from dual use of the high school for a period of only one year.

Two five-hour school days would have increased the sched- uling problems for both staff and students. The five-hour school day does not meet mini- mum accreditation standards for Michigan or the North Central Association. The North Central Association would have cited the school system for failing to meet minimum standards with a five-hour day.

The student activity program would have had to be seriously curtailed and in some instances, eliminated during a two-session day. The arranging of time schedules for all staff members, teaching and non-teaching, would be difficult in a dual ses- sion day. Staff work space in a dual high school would not have been available.

HW Police Chief Expresses Thank

Police Chief of Harper Woods, Allen M. Miglio in a letter read before the Woods Council on Monday, October 3, expressed his sincere thanks and gratitude to the Woods Director of Public Safety, Allen Andrews, Sgt. Thomas Kane, Patrolmen, Lee Cochill, Bruce Marone and Donald Schmalz, for their assistance on the night of September 17, that resulted in the apprehension of three adult male felons, who had pistol whipped a woman and committed an armed robbery.

He cited this as an outstand- ing example of the cooperation between the two Police Depart- ments, and also stated that it reflected the high calibre of men comprising the Woods force.

Torch Drive Quotas

W. Anderson Jr., president of Bundy Tubing Co.

Also present for the kickoff will be Detroit's mayor, Jerome P. Cavanagh, Miss America of 1967 and Jules Bergman, space and science editor of the ABC-TV network.

The UF's 54-foot torch, raised in the Civic Center at the foot of Woodward avenue, will be lighted the evening preceding the kickoff.

Lighting Ceremonies

Gathering for the lighting ceremonies with Mills and Anderson will be Torchlighter Joel Schaaf and "Miss Torch," 21-year-old Dusty Watkins, of Dearborn Heights.

The first of 10 report lunches scheduled during the 23-day campaign will be held in the Sheraton-Cadillac on Oct. 25.

Residential Day, set for October 31, will honor women volunteers who give their time to conducting door-to-door solicitations. The Sugar Bowl Trophy will be awarded the area reporting the highest percentage of quota.

Presentation of the Town Crier Award will highlight the November 1 report luncheon. This trophy is given annually to the community business area reporting the highest percentage of quota.

Campaign finale will be the Victory Dinner in the Sheraton-Cadillac on November 10, closing day for the drive.

Thieves Steal Car Polisher

Two male Negroes escaped from a Woods gas station owner on Tuesday, October 4, after taking an expensive electric polisher. The chase led through city streets before the thieves made good their getaway.

According to information released by Woods police, Carl Gruber, owner of the Grosse Pointe Service Center, 19770 Mack, was in the station office when he heard a shout from an employee, Eddie Castekow, 47, of 12885 Freud, Detroit. Castekow pointed out a man running from the rear wash rack with the polisher under his arm.

Gruber jumped into his car and gave chase. Gruber told police that he saw the man enter a car, waiting at Dorthen, with another man behind the wheel. The other car sped away.

The station owner said he pursued the fleeing car at about 70 miles an hour, and at Mack and Lamoo pulled up alongside the escaping culprits and attempted to force them to the curb. The chase led through Pointe and Detroit streets, to Warren and Neff in Detroit, where the thieves turned onto eastbound Neff and disappeared.

Gruber said that the polisher was about a week old, and is valued at $72.

Observe Car

At 2:55 a.m., on September 4, Chief Roh remarked in his letter, Smith and Newton observed a suspicious car parked at Eight Mile road and Harper.

The police officers questioned the occupants of the car. Due to fine field interrogation, both persons in the car were eventually placed under arrest and the Davis safe recovered. The apprehension of the pair not only cleared the Davis burglary, Chief Roh stated, but also other burglary attempts in the Farms.

"It is only through such cooperation as displayed by these officers," the chief said in the letter, "and other members of your department, (Harper Woods), that we will be able to win in our battle with crime."

Boy Puts Out Basement Fire

Woods public safety officers had praise for a 12-year-old boy who put out a fire in the basement of his home with a garden hose. The fire was out when fire fighters arrived.

The lint in a dryer in the basement of the home of Beatrice Van Vliet, 1923 Lennon, caught fire, and the small blaze spread to the rafters overhead. The fire was discovered by Mrs. Van Vliet, who rushed to call the Woods Public Safety Department.

While the woman was phoning in the alarm, her son, Steven, ran outside, attached the garden hose to the outside faucet, and turned on the water, smashed the basement window, and played the water on the fire.

When the fire fighters arrived, it was disclosed in a departmental fire report, the boy had extinguished the fire, except for a burning curtain which was taken care of by firemen.

The area around the dryer was badly scorched, but it might have been a lot worse, if it had not been for Steven, the public safety officers said. The firemen left the scene after airing the smoke out of the basement.

Vandals Strike At New Home

Vandals damaged a new home at Rivard boulevard and Kercheval avenue on October 9.

A report made to City Police Officers Richard Tanski and William Plumb by Nick Leto, of 3917 Harvard, revealed that the new home had six broken windows, two lead shower pans and 15 screens damaged, and that some sheets of plywood were stolen from the premises.

Wayne State University's football team will play a nine-game schedule in 1967.

Cadieux

bound, and both police chiefs believe that this would cause traffic volume and speed to increase during the rush evening hours.

The existing traffic pattern, it was stated, shows that Cadieux serves as a feeder to I-94 Expressway, and also as a feeder for neighborhood traffic to the Kercheval business district.

If the road were made one-way, it would become necessary to make an adjacent street one-way in the opposite direction. The closest streets, Harvard and Loraine, are not suitable, because Harvard is too narrow and Loraine is not a through street. Other adjacent streets in the City, Notre Dame and St. Clair, are not suitable because they are farther away and have sharp intersecting angles with Mack avenue.

"The creation of one-way pairs would also lead to certain traffic confusion in the Kercheval area," Stone disclosed.

"Persons going to parking lots, or circling the block for street parking, would often find themselves confronted with a street going opposite to their desired direction and would, therefore, have to travel an additional block to the next two-way street," the city manager added.

A study of traffic accidents on Cadieux shows that it is not too high, and also shows that accidents at intersections are slightly higher than in mid-block. Even though the potential conflict from turning movements on two-way streets is greater than that for one-way streets, it does not appear that two-way traffic on the road has led to excessive accidents, Stone stated.

The city manager revealed that the City residents' petition had been denied by the City council, and recommended that the Park council also deny the Park petitioners' request, and that a copy of the study be sent to these people.

The council formerly denied the petition, and ordered that a copy of the request be sent to the 19 signers living on the Park side of Cadieux, who had asked that the road's traffic pattern be changed.

World's Largest Auto Show Slated

The automobile capital of the world will have the largest auto show in the world this year.

The 51st annual Detroit Auto Show will cover the entire main floor of Cobo Hall—exhibit halls A, B, and C—as it has in the past. This year, exhibit hall D, on the lower level, has been added, making the show the world's largest in floor area with 400,000 square feet for exhibits.

Dates for the annual extravaganza are Saturday, November 26, through Sunday, December 4. Show manager Boyce Tope expects attendance to top 250,000. Last year's 211,806 was the top crowd figure in the last 10 years.

Stars of the show will be the new 1967 models from the U.S. manufacturers plus many import makes.

In addition to the shiny, sleek cars, there will be cutaway exhibits, engineering displays, revolving turntables, special show cars, beautiful models (girl models, that is) to tell the crowds all about their favorite models (car models, that is).

In exhibit hall D recreational vehicles will be on display. With the rising interest in camping and other outdoor activities, officials expect this exhibit to be one of the most popular in the show.

Professional stage entertainment is planned this year, with two shows daily and three on weekend days. They will be free to Auto Show visitors.

There's more to the show than glamour and bright lights, though. One of the major purposes of all Detroit Auto Shows is to give the person who's in the market for a new car a chance to look at all the models and make his choice.

"We want this to be a family affair," says Tope. "Dad can look over the engineering features while Mom and the kids inspect the styling and pick out the colors and accessories: And they can all get a good look at the safety features which are being built into today's new cars."

American makes which will be on display include Cadillac, Lincoln, Mercury, Dodge, Buick, Rambler, Plymouth, Pontiac, Ford, Chrysler, Imperial, Chevrolet, and Oldsmobile.

Burglaries

been taken from the Mack-Prestwick Service Station, 19419 Mack, owned by Fred Less, of 20834 Sunningdale, St. Clair Shores.

Woods Patrolmen Steven Petrik and Charles Hamel, while on patrol, discovered a broken window at this station; and investigated. At about this time, City police broadcast a message informing Woods authorities that a burglary suspect had been arrested, and that the cancelled checks from the Woods gas station were found in the person's possession.

Only Checks Missing
Less was called to the service station, and all that he could find missing were the checks, Woods police said.

Woods Det. Sgt. Thomas Kane, with City Det. Lt. Robert Van Tiem, questioned Rogers, after informing him of his rights, that he need not make a statement unless an attorney was present.

Rogers told the detectives that he wanted to talk, and implicated another youth, Thomas Modrzejewski, 17, of 8707 Sherwood, Detroit, who, Rogers said, committed the actual breaking and entering of both gas stations.

City authorities called Detroit police and requested a stake-out at the home of the second youth. When Modrzejewski arrived home at 4 a.m., he was taken into custody by Detroit clude Toyota, Renault, Opel, Fiat, Volkswagen, Datsun, Triumph, Simca, Saab, Mercedes, English Ford, Jaguar, MG, Austin, Austin-Healy, Morris, and Rolls Royce.

Show hours will be noon to 11 p.m. daily. Admission will be $1.25 for adults, 50 cents for children 12 and under.

Committee for the show, which is sponsored by the Detroit Auto Dealers Association, includes Harry Tenyson, chairman; Douglas Dalgleish, Richard Green, Neal Mason, Roger Rinke, Arnold Feuerman and Lawrence Falvey.

Arrested Monday
Rogers and Modrzejewski were arraigned before City Municipal Judge Malcolm Sutherland on Monday on warrants charging them with breaking and entering in the night time. The pair entered pleas of innocent and the judge set Wednesday, October 19, as the date for examination. Rogers and Modrzejewski were released after posting bond of $1,000 each. Kane said that his department has compiled its complaint with that of the City for the purpose of prosecution.

Pointe Fire Chiefs Urge Elimination of Fire Hazards

The week of October 9-15 has been proclaimed as Fire Prevention Week by Governor George Romney, and the Pointe fire chiefs are urging the residents of their respective communities to make this one of the safest, if not the safest, of the year.

The heads of the five Pointe Departments are William Graul, Park; Albert Yakin, City; M. William Mason, Farms; Director of Public Safety Allen Andrews, Woods; and Director of Public Safety Thomas Cochill, Shores. The latter two are integrated police and fire departments.

The chiefs point out that Fire Prevention Week, which is proclaimed annually by the Governor of Michigan, is merely to call the citizens' attention to the danger to life and property of fire. They urge that every week be regarded as Fire Prevention Week.

It was disclosed that the toll of life and property lost by fire has been sharply curtailed in communities where fire prevention programs have been conducted.

One of the surest ways to prevent fires, the chiefs stated, is for residents to check their homes for fire hazards and remove these causes of fire.

It was revealed that the respective departments are conducting a house-to-house inspection for fire hazards during the week. This is strictly an inspection, and fire department personnel are instructed not to enter any homes where residents do not want their houses checked.

If fire hazards are found in homes inspected, it was said, no violation tickets will be given, only advice on how to eliminate the hazards.

Residents who are not home when a fireman comes to visit, or are misled by the inspector, can call their respective departments and request an inspection. This is a public service that would be gladly rendered, the chiefs said, and at no monetary cost to the residents.

Pamphlets are being distributed to schools, homes and stores, urging fire safety.

Remember, the chiefs said, fire causes millions of dollars of damage each year, and every 45 minutes someone loses his life by fire.

Be safe by thinking safe, and if you have any doubts regarding possible hazards, call your fire department and ask for an inspection, or advice. It is better to ask about a supposed hazard, and have it checked out, than to let it go and be sorry when it is too late, the five chiefs said.

Political Activity Is Forum Topic

"Local Parties and Political Action" will be the topic of the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church's Adult Forum Sunday, October 16, starting at 8 p.m.

Present will be Richard Durant, Republican chairman of the 14th Congressional District; Jack Dodge, his Democratic counterpart; Mrs. Barbara Hoffmann, Republican chairman of the 14th District Campaign committee; and Ted Pankowski, former U.A.W. Coordinator in the 12th and 14th Congressional Districts.

As the topic and participants might indicate, the focus of the discussion will be the functions of parties and allied groups during an election year.

Each member of the panel will speak upon those aspects of his political involvement which he deems most important to communicate to the public. The audience may ask questions.

This Forum is the third in a series of five meetings on candidates and issues which are being held prior to November's election. Wayne County Circuit Court Candidates will be present Wednesday evening, October 26.

The 14th Congressional District Candidates Netzi and Kennedy are expected Sunday evening, October 30.

All of these meetings will be held at the church in Maumee avenue. The public is cordially invited. There is no admission charge.

Groups Plan Music Series

The Women's and Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra have announced plans for a series of programs called the "Symphony Kaleidoscope."

The first will be held Friday, October 14, at 10 o'clock in the Detroit Institute of Arts. Dr. David Di Chiera will discuss "The Artist's View of Music" and interview Eileen Farrell, the well-known Metropolitan Opera star. Miss Farrell is making a guest appearance with the Detroit Symphony this week.

Mrs. Milton B. Basson and Mrs. Herbert Zurbadt are co-chairmen of the series.

Austin School Plans Review

The Rev. John McLaughlin, O.S.A., principal of Austin High School, has announced that the school will present a musical review, "It's The Most," on November 6, in the school's gymnasium.

This is the second year that Austin has undertaken such a production. As was last year's successful "Take Time Out," this year's show will be under the direction of Joe Hayes, who has had experience on the Broadway stage and in television. He currently works with large numbers of high school and college students throughout the country in putting on a professional-type review.

The cast for this year's production, a "round-the-world cruise, is made up of 560 boys and girls, drawn from eight different high schools in the area. They are Austin, St. Ambrose, Bishop Gallagher, Convent of the Sacred Heart, Our Lady Star of the Sea, St. Paul's and Regina High School.

Tickets may be obtained from the school office or through any student who is taking part in the production. Admission is stock options, too...*

Does that make Sally an heiress?

If you define "wealth" as meaning a plump portfolio of blue chips or a bottomless bank account, today's rising business executive does not qualify.

Outgo comes too close to income for him to put aside that kind of money.

What he does have going for him are those stock options...pension or profit-sharing benefits...deferred compensation agreements.

Plus personal and group life insurance.

And a modest list of securities.

All of which can add up to a lot of future dollars but—lacking a unified plan for their conservation—a chancy sort of inheritance.

To meet this need—with a modern Executive Trust—our trust officers work closely and imaginatively with businessmen, their attorneys and other advisers.

We'd be pleased to work with you on behalf of your heirs and heiresses. Write or phone Edgar B. Galloway, Vice President (965-6000, ext. 2182).

Time Factor In Pupil Safety

Parents, who without a valid reason send their children to school late, are depriving them of the protection of the school crossing guards and safety patrol boys, it was pointed out by Woods Patrolman Jack Patterson, school safety officer, recently.

The guards and the boys are at their respective posts to see that the school children cross streets safely, to and from school, and they are at their posts only at certain times.

The children who are slow in walking, or are detained at home for no excusable reason are deprived of the protection they need.

Members of the crossing guard and patrol are performing an invaluable service to the community, and through their efforts and sacrifices have increasingly added to student pedestrian safety, Patterson said.

The school safety officer said that it is impossible to count the number of lives that have been saved, and injuries averted through the work of the guards and patrol boys, in the Woods and in the other Pointes and other communities. There are no words to describe the wonderful job they are doing, he added.

"I strongly urge all parents to make an effort to see that their children are ready and on their way to school during the time that the school crossing guards and safety patrol boys are on duty," Patterson said. "There are many dangers, other than traffic, that are prevalent when a child walks alone.

A child who leaves home on time not only has the protection of those responsible for his safety to and from school, but there is safety in numbers, against sex perverts or others who might do harm in one way or another," the officer said. "Parents should inform their children that they should be in school by a certain time, if the children customarily walk to school, and that they should be home at a certain time, unless they have permission to visit friends. If they do visit, make sure that the children

Service Is Held For Boat Victim

The Coast Guard's attempts to locate Thomas B. Beard, 45, of 1772 Prestwick road, who was lost off a boat in Lake St. Clair on Saturday, October 1, have been successful. The victim's body was recovered on Sunday, October 9.

The accident occurred when the boat was encountering 30-mile-an-hour winds and waves nearly four feet high. Beard was aboard a 25-foot sailboat which was participating in the annual North Channel race sponsored by the Bayview Yacht Club.

His family consists of his wife, Lois, two sons, Thomas and David, and two daughters, Nancy and Cathleen.

Beard was president of BHJ Associates, Inc., and a native Detroit. He was a graduate of Michigan State University and a Navy veteran of World War II. He was a member of the Acraft Club.

Memorial services were held at Christ the King Lutheran Church on Saturday, October 8.

Schedule Talent Try-Outs Oct. 15

Talented performers are sought for Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Song and Guitar "Happening," to be presented Thanksgiving weekend.

Try-outs will be held this Saturday, October 15, from 10 o'clock till noon in Fries Auditorium. Director of the show and talent scout is Alex Sucek, the Center's guitar teacher.

Young people from junior high school through college age are urged to try out, as well as any adult troubadors. Single acts and group acts will be considered. They may be singing or instrumental acts or a combination of same as long as they have musical merit and appeal. Those selected will be made a part of the cast and receive a small honorarium. Both amateurs and professionals are desired.

Farms Submits Building Report

A total of 95 permits of all types for building constructions valued at a total of $1,613,000, have been issued by the Farms Building Department from January 1 through September 30, according to a monthly report released by John A. DeFoe, public service director.

DeFoe also revealed that this compares to a total of 87 permits for buildings valued at a total of $1,348,300, granted during the same period last year.

The comparisons do not include the three permits approved for non-assessable edifices valued at a total of $278,000 since the beginning of this year, nor the one non-assessable permit given last year for a building valued at $170,138.

Last month, DeFoe stated in his report, his department granted two permits for residential buildings, one valued at $51,000, and the other, $42,000. No permits were applied for commercial construction. Seven permits for miscellaneous building, worth $14,500, were granted.

This compares to three residential permits, valued at $225,000 and all miscellaneous permits, worth $53,550, approved in September 1965.

No commercial construction permits were issued during September 1965. From January 1 through September 30, 1966, the Farms Building Department okayed 18 residential construction permits for homes valued at a total of $997,500; one for a $325,000 commercial establishment; and 76 miscellaneous permits, valued at a total of $291,100.

During the same period in 1965, the department approved 19 residential permits for homes worth a total of $1,071,000; one commercial, valued at $45,000; and 67 miscellaneous, with the valuation totaled at $232,300.

The $51,000 home is under construction at 211 Lothrop road and the $42,000 residence is at 43 Deming lane.

DeFoe noted that a permit issued on March 4, 1966, for a $55,000 residence at 217 Lakeshore road has been cancelled, but gave no explanation.

Educators Pay Visit to Austin

A visitation was made to Austin Catholic High School, 18300 E. Warren Ave., by the Augustinian Educational Board of the Midwest. The board of visitors consists of a group of priest-educators who are themselves involved in the administration of schools.

At the head of the board is the superior of the Augustinian Fathers of the Midwest, the Very Rev. Francis J. Cavanaugh, O.S.A., who was prior of Austin from 1959 until his election as provincial in 1962.

Accompanying Fr. Cavanaugh were: Rev. Daniel J. Hartigan, O.S.A., principal of Mendel High School, Chicago, Rev. James Sinnott, O.S.A., of St. Augustine Academy, St. Louis, Missouri, Rev. John Gavin, O.S.A., of St. Augustine Seminary, Holland, Michigan, and Rev. Walter McNicholas, O.S.A., Vocation Director for the Augustinian Fathers.

Back To School For Pierce P-TA

Parents of students attending Pierce Junior High School will occupy their children's desks during the evening of October 19, when they attend the annual P-TA Back-to-School Night. Beginning with homeroom at 7:30 o'clock, parents will follow a regular school schedule of six "classes," in which the teachers will explain the purposes, goals and requirements of each course.

Refreshments will be served in the cafeteria both during the evening and at the completion of the "school day." The Hospitality committee, composed of Mrs. Don Prittie, Mrs. George Louth and Mrs. Albert McKay, will provide refreshments at this and all other P-TA programs this year. Current officers of the Pierce P-TA are Dr. Henry Domzalski, president; George Henry, vice-president; Mrs. William Withe-rell, secretary; Peter Brett, treasurer; and Delbert Schneider and Mrs. W. James Moore, representatives to the Grosse Pointe P-TA Council.

Dr. Domzalski recently announced the other committees serving this year. They are Mothers' Health Education Council, Mrs. Alton Donnell, Mrs. LaVerne Biasell, Mrs. Bertram Watson and Mrs. Carl Mueller; Student Insurance, Mrs. Charles Brown; Teen-Hi, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Larrabee and Mr. and Mrs. James Mc-

Greedy; Girl Scout Activities, Mrs. C. J. Deegs; Homeroom Mothers and Membership, Mrs. Henry Domzalski and Mrs. Raymond K. Kowicz and Motion Picture-TV Council, Mrs. Noel Fry and Mrs. Maurice Decloro. This year's official P-TA season began October 5, when the 60 homeroom mothers held their first meeting in the school library and met the faculty at a tea following the meeting.

Geese Starting Annual Show at Jack Miner's

KINGSVILLE, Ontario—The migrating geese are at the Jack Miner Sanctuary in sufficient numbers to provide a spectacle for any who care to visit. This was the word from Manley Miner, son of the late founder, who now runs the sanctuary. He said the peak migration will occur during the last 10 days in October and the first three weeks in November. There is no admission charge, but the sanctuary is closed Sunday. However, a good view of the geese can be had from the road when the sanctuary is closed. The best viewing time is between 3:30 and 4:30 p.m. when the birds put on their evening flight.

To Open World Adventure Series

Wide-screen color movies of "Enchanted Hawaii" will be shown by Ralph Franklin, California world traveler, to open the World Adventure Series 1966-67 program at the Detroit Institute of Arts on October 30. All shows take place at 8:30 o'clock on consecutive Sunday afternoons.

Franklin will install a special 30-foot screen and stereophonic sound. His new pictures present Honolulu, Waikiki Beach, Pearl Harbor and other Oahu highlights. He then shows holiday attractions of other islands of the group, including Hawaii, Kauai, Lanai, Molokai, Nihoa and Kahoolawe.

More than two dozen countries, on every continent and ocean, will be shown by famed travelers and explorers in person. Pictured among other will be Alaska, Mexico, Canada, Ireland, Russia, South Seas, Germany, and many more. Stan Midgley, hilarious "Mark Twain with a camera," spent the summer updating his six shows on National parks and holiday spots of the West. Don Cooper, the laugh-a-minute Alaska lumberjack, brings an all-new show on Western Canada, the British Columbia Coast, Alaska.

The Grosse Pointe World Adventure Series opens Wednesday night at 8, November 2, with Thayer Soule's "South Seas Holiday." The eight Wednesday evening Grosse Pointe shows take place at Parcels auditorium, Mack at Vernier Road.

For a free illustrated folder describing all coming shows, write World Adventure Series, Detroit Institute of Arts, Detroit, Mich. 48202, or telephone the Series at the Institute, TE 2-7676, afternoons except Mondays.

Inside The Mothers' Club

The regular meeting of the executive board of the Grosse Pointe High School Mothers' Club was held in Cleminson Hall on October 3. Twenty-four members were present.

Gerry Gerich, faculty advisor, reported on the high enrollment, 2,946 pupils, and told of the various ways extra space for class rooms has been created.

Guest speaker, Harold Husband, Acting Superintendent of Schools, discussed the plans for coping with a projected enrollment for 1967-68 of more than 3,100 pupils. The new high school will not be ready for occupancy until 1968. Until that time over-crowding of existing facilities will be a tremendous problem. Double sessions have been suggested but it is hoped additional space can be found so these will not be necessary.

Mr. Husband expressed the hope that communications will be kept open and stressed the efforts of the Board of Education to keep the public informed on school matters. President Mrs. Perry TeWalt reported on the many meetings she had attended during the past month in connection with her Mother's Club duties, and pointed out the function of the board as a liaison group among teachers, parents and students.

Vice-President Mrs. Walter Griffith reported that 17 students have received the first half of their scholarship grants, amounting to $2,800. Thirteen girls and four boys were scholarship winners and are attending six different Michigan universities.

Corresponding Secretary Mrs. George Thom, Jr., announced that 12 mothers had prepared 1,000 letters regarding 10th Grade Parents Night, and that 3,000 newsletters had been mailed.

Mrs. Benson McClure, faculty representative, reported that the High School Teachers' Club had established a fund to buy a painting for the Industrial Arts Building as a memorial for George Harding who died during the summer. James Selmo, injured in a serious automobile accident during the summer, will be returning to his teaching duties soon. Mrs. McClure explained that although seniors may leave school at 2 p.m., a study hall period will be scheduled for those who wish to remain until the close of the sixth hour.

Membership chairman Mrs. Michael Madarasz reported 616 members have paid their Mothers' Club dues. Mrs. John Fralick, Neighborhood Groups chairman, asked that group dues be paid by December 1.

Mrs. Ben Hubbard, in charge of obtaining bus chaperones, reported that six buses went to the football game in Ann Arbor, and five to the Monroe game. All students must go and return on the same bus or they will not be permitted to use this facility.

Mrs. Robert Wiegand, Hall-ween chairman, reported that planning meetings have been held and committees formed. The students have requested "live" bands for entertainment this year.

Shores Officers Have Busy Time

Shores public safety officers and volunteer firemen made four fire runs within 24 hours on Friday, September 30, and Saturday, October 1, according to official records.

Fire fighters and equipment were dispatched to the home of Mrs. Theodore Whittlesey, 914 Lake Shore road, when burning leaves ignited a wooden fence on the property. The blaze was extinguished and all returned to the station. This occurred at 8:19 p.m. on Friday.

At 9:42 p.m., the same day, an alarm was received from Mrs. Nina Volis of 30-Fontana lane, who stated she smelled something burning in her kitchen.

Fire fighters found a transformer in the kitchen light had shorted and was smoldering. It was disconnected.

On Saturday, at 12:49 p.m., Mrs. Eileen Meier of 520 Sheldon called in an alarm. It was found that an ice making machine in the kitchen had shorted and had started to smolder. Firemen disconnected this apparatus and returned to the station.

About two hours later, Kathy

Sr. High Teen Dances Slated

The Neighborhood Club is advising all ninth grade students that they will not be permitted to attend the Friday Night dances at St. Paul's Lutheran Church. These dances are for Senior High students in the tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades only. Cooperation of all students in the ninth grade in observing this ruling will be greatly appreciated by the Neighborhood Club.

High society gets some people out of their orbit and allows many to be lost in space.

Disser of 75 Fairford road, babysitting for the Ross Roys, at their home, 511 Sheldon, phoned in that she smelled smoke in the house.

An intensive search of the house by the public safety officers disclosed that the television set in the den had shorted, and this emitted the burning smell. The set was disconnected, and the men returned to the peace and quiet of the station.

CITY OF Grosse Pointe Farms SUMMARY OF MINUTES OCTOBER 3, 1966 The meeting was called to order at 8:00 p.m. Present on roll call: Mayor William G. Butler, Councilmen William G. Kirby, Henry E. Bodman, II, Richard C. Hudson, Mark C. Stevens and Benjamin S. Warren, Jr. Absent: Councilman James H. Dingeman. Mayor William G. Butler presided. Councilman Dingeman was excused from attending the meeting. The minutes of the regular meeting of September 19, 1966, were approved with corrections. The minutes of the Zoning Board of Appeals meeting held on September 19, 1966, were approved as submitted. A resolution of intent was adopted to adopt amendments to the Articles of Incorporation of the Grosse Pointe-Clinton Refuse Disposal Authority which provide for the increase of membership, authorizes the Authority to enter into a contract with a private contractor for construction of an incinerator and authorizes the Authority to issue revenue bonds to finance the capital cost of the incinerator. Further, the City is to enter into a contract with the Authority for disposal of all its refuse and garbage through incineration. Effective July 1, 1966, water purchased by the City of Grosse Pointe will be $.927, the estimated redetermined rate as shown in the report from Ernst & Ernst relative to water pumping and filtration costs. The Dutch Elm Disease Report for the year 1966 was received and ordered filed. Approval was given to pay Ajax Asphalt Paving Co. for work completed under the City Asphalt Recapping Program in the amount of $46,433.32. As requested by the City Manager, conformation was given to the change order No. 2 for additional work on the Public Works Garage. The request of the residents on Winthrop Place for installation of gas-fired lights rather than conventional electric lights on the street was referred to the Police Chief to ascertain whether, from a safety standpoint, gas lights would provide adequate lighting. In accordance with Council direction, the Chief of Police submitted a report relative to traffic complaints on Grosse Pointe Boulevard. On proper motion made, supported and carried, the meeting adjourned at 9:20 P.M. WM. G. BUTLER MAYOR PETER CAPUTO CITY CLERK Published in the Grosse Pointe News, issue of Oct. 13, 1966

Marine Second Lieutenant James B. Conklin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Barron T. Conklin, of 735 Barrington road, was awarded the Vietnamese Cross of Gallantry with Palm for combat action while a member of the Third Battalion, Fourth Marine Regiment, Third Marine Division on Operation Hastings.

Operation Hastings was a multi-battalion operation which took place within two miles of the Demilitarized Zone against the North Vietnamese 324th Division.

His unit accounted for more than 300 of the nearly 900 enemy killed during the 18-day operation.

His battalion's primary mission is to meet and capture or destroy the enemy by weapons fire, maneuver, or shock action.

Local Libraries Set Story Hours

The fall series of school age story hours has begun in all three Grosse Pointe Public Libraries. Traditional folk tales, a part of every child's heritage, are told by trained and experienced children's librarians. The programs are planned especially for children in grades one through four.

The schedule is as follows: Central Library, 10 Kercheval Avenue, Tuesday, 4 p.m. Woods Branch Library, 20600 Mack Avenue, Wednesday, 4 p.m. Park Branch Library, 15430 Kercheval Avenue, Tuesday, 3:45 p.m.

Symphony Has Open Rehearsal

The first of four Detroit Symphony Orchestra open rehearsals this season was held Wednesday, October 5, at 2 o'clock in Ford Auditorium. Sixteen Ehrling conducted and pianist Malcolm Frager was soloist.

The Orchestra prepared its program for Thursday and Saturday evenings, October 6 and 8.

Subsequent open rehearsals will be given on December 28, February 8 and April 5.

General admission is $1.50 each rehearsal or $5 for the series of four. Tickets may be ordered by mail or obtained at Ford Auditorium Box Office (961-0700).

Proceeds will benefit the orchestra musicians' supplemental pension fund.

Kaleidoscope Of "Types" Frequents Used Book Sale

By Pepper Whitelaw
 What's more fun than a sale? What's more fun than books? Well, a combination of all three is an experience that should not be denied anyone!

A book sale! I embarked on just such an adventure last week... to my everlasting delight. Besides an armload of books for the entire family, I enjoyed "people watching." The many types... the whole kaleidoscope moved before my eyes.

The intellectual, pouring over textbooks and classics, his glasses propped precariously on his nose, rubbing elbows with the bargain hunter, who never reads at all but just can't resist a sale, (he selects all the books with covers that match his room decor).

Then the bored matron, who is looking for some exciting romantic novels, but is a bit embarrassed about being seen with them. She has brought her own bag to the sale so she can hide her selections — only to be revealed at the VERY PUBLIC check-out counter!

Then the all-man man, who just adores his science fiction. Anything with a space ship, a robot or a weird monster on its cover is promptly tucked under his arm. (awaiting transferral to his spaceship, no doubt).

Then there is always the person who feels certain that there is something good "hidden" in the boxes underneath the tables; she stoops in the middle of the only "through" aisle... making passage a regular obstacle course. She is as smug as you please because she feels sure she has uncovered a rare item indeed, (an Ellery Queen mystery).

 The compulsive reader is a real experience to watch at a book sale, not unlike a child in a candy shop. His eyes glisten, his face beams and he needs a moment to compose himself before he forages avidly into the mountain of treats that await him. His only problem is that he drives a Volkswagen and he has no idea how he will fit all of his selections into the car.
 The acrobats involved in this jaunt cannot be passed over lightly. You must go prepared for book! To some of you future book sale shoppers, I believe a few suggestions are in order:
 First off, wear your "running shoes," (boating shoes are perfect). These are easy to move in and help keep your feet firmly planted. (no chance of slipping). Wear a blouse or shirt that is at least two sizes too big... all the more "movement room." Absolutely no long necklaces please, more than one fair madam was "hung up" by these. The new short skirts are definitely out for this expedition; modesty forbids them!

Once you have your proper clothes selected, raid your sugar bowl of all its pin money. Get an early start. Park very close to the place of sale... and then you're off to one of the most rewarding and fun-filled sessions you've ever had!
 To say nothing of all the many wonderful hours of enjoyment you will have at home with your "finds."

Pointer Heads '66 UF Team

A. M. Entenman Jr., 811 Bedford, has been named team chairman in the Building and Transportation Unit of the 1966 Torch Drive.

Robert F. Hastings, director of traffic, Ford Motor Co. and chairman of the Building Trades Group, announced the appointment.

Entenman will be responsible for the architects and engineers team, the iron metal erectors team, the concrete products team, the Michigan equipment dealers team, the master insulators team and the cement companies team.

These teams will solicit Torch Drive funds from the companies and employes in the construction industry who fall under their categories.

This year the Torch Drive will be held from October 18 through November 10 and will seek a goal of $24.95 million for the operating budgets of nearly 200 health and community service agencies.

Entenman, who is vice president of Giffels and Rosetti, Inc., received his B.S.C.E. degree from Cornell and did graduate

He is a registered, professional engineer in the State of Michigan, Wisconsin and the Province of Ontario, Canada. He holds memberships in the Michigan Society of Professional Engineers and the National Society of Engineers.

Maj. R. L. Youngblood at Command College

Major Robert L. Youngblood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jean Youngblood, 1253 Cadieux road, is attending the 10-month regular course at the Army Command and General Staff College, Ft. Leavenworth, Kan.

During the course, scheduled to end June 4, 1967, he is among 704 U.S. and Allied officers being prepared for duty as commander's and general staff officers in divisions or logistical commands. They receive instruction in the function of the general staff at corps and Army levels.

Maj. Youngblood was last stationed at Ft. Devens, Mass. He has received two awards of the Army Commendation Medal. His wife, Marion, is with him at Ft. Leavenworth.

University School News

This past summer eight faculty members broadened their academic and athletic interests through summer study programs.

Henry Klein, Science Department chairman, received a grant from the National Science Foundation for chemical research at Wayne State University under Dr. R. B. Hahn. He studied analytical chemistry with particular emphasis on inorganic ion exchange materials.

Peter Miller of the History Department attended a National Defense Education Act civics institute at Wayne on the problems of war and peace. These problems included such areas as international law, conflict resolution, and disarmament. The emphasis at this institute was an inquiry on the inductive method of teaching. Mr. Miller reports: "excellent program (my most enjoyable academic experience ever) with much relevance to the twentieth century portion of my junior and senior U.S. History courses."

Six faculty members received Study and Travel Grants from the school to aid them toward furthering and broadening their particular interests.

Mrs. Joan Burchett worked toward her doctorate in Education by studying English and history at the University of Hawaii in Honolulu. She also traveled extensively on Hawaii and Oahu.

Charge Motorist As Drunk Driver

Officers Richard Clark and Richard Lanski arrest motorist, Horace S. Allard of 488 Notre Dame, under the Drunk Motor Law on Friday, September 30.

The officers observed a car, a 1965 Plymouth, going east on Mack avenue at St. Clair and driving over the sidewalk. The car then backed up and continued east on Mack avenue.

The officers apprehended the driver and took him to the station. A ticket was issued. He was released on $50 cash bond, pending a court date.

At Michigan State University, Thomas Walker along with Rusty Heenan, a student, attended a wrestling and coaches clinic.

Edward Mott took a French doctoral seminar on Victor Hugo's poetry and a course on the works of Jean Jacques Rousseau. At Wayne State University, Max Gail studied economics, and at Middlebury, Kathleen Kehoe worked further toward her M.A. in French.

In the Lower School Arlene Blackman completed the requirements for an M.A. in Elementary Education at the University of Michigan.

Jane Savery is now in her 21st year teaching physical education to the girls of the school. This past summer she traveled extensively with the help of a Study and Travel Grant through Germany, Austria and Italy and studied the physical education programs of schools in those countries.

Blue Devil Gridders Beat Wyandotte Bears 27-13

By Dale Eichbauer

Grosse Pointe evened its Border Cities League record last Saturday at 1-1 as the Devils defeated the Bears of Wyandotte Roosevelt 27-13. The game, plagued with penalties, fumbles, and pass interceptions, was a tough contest which went right down to the final seconds.

The scoring began early with Wyandotte the first to post a touchdown. After the opening kickoff to the Devils was fumbled, the Bears gained control of the ball on the GP 39.

On successive drives over the tackles, the Bears forged their way to the 8:05 still left in the first quarter, the Bears took the ball on a dive over the left tackle. An attempt at running the extra point in failed and the Bears led 6-0.

On the kickoff, the ball was taken to the Devil 33, but the Devils were unable to move the ball and were forced to punt. The ball went to the Bear 33 but was fumbled there and recovered by linebacker Tom Webster on the Bear 40.

A Devil drive, highlighted by a dive by Jon Starky of 10 yards and a pass to Ray Brown of 17 yards, took the ball down to the Bear 3. With Rick Gonzalez taking the ball in over tackle and Balser's kick good, the Devils took a 7-6 lead with 3:14 left in the first quarter.

The only other scoring of the first half came near the end of the half. After being pushed back to their own 7, the Bears were forced to punt, giving the Devils the ball on the Bear 33. Passes of 8 and 13 yards to Starky sparked a drive to the 8, from which quarterback Rob Zink passed to Brown for the Devil's second score.

A successful extra point kick gave the Devils a 14-6 lead with 0:11 left in the half. The Devils reported the Bear performance of the opening was 27-13, the Devils over kickoff by recovering the second half kickoff and drove to the goal line. The kick was deep to the Bear 5 and returned to the 30 where it was fumbled and recovered by the Devils at the 28.

Passes good for 6 yards to Starky and 15 yards to Gonzalez and a dive by Gonzalez of 6 more yards took the ball to the Bear 3, from which he scored on a dive over the right guard. The extra point kick was blocked and the Devils increased their lead to 20-6 with 10:11 left in the third period.

The second Wyandotte touchdown came when the Bears intercepted a pass at their own 46, gained 9 and 4 yards over the tackles, moved to the Devil 25 on a personal foul penalty, and passed 19 yards to the 4. A dive over the right guard with 7:33 left in the game took the ball in. Again the Bears elected to run over, however, because of a penalty, and a swing around the left end was good, making the score 20-13.

The final Devil scoring drive came with little time left in the game. After Webster intercepted a Bear pass at the Wyandotte 31, the Devils bounded their way down to the 1, but were unable to score on a swing and were pushed back to the 5 with only 0:07 left, drive to the 8, from which quarterback Rob Zink passed to Brown for the Devil's second score.

With only one play left, Zink rolled out to the left and kick gave the Devils a 14-6 lead with 0:11 left in the half. The Devils reported the Bear performance of the opening was 27-13, the Devils over kickoff by recovering the second half kickoff and drove to the goal line. The kick was deep to the Bear 5 and returned to the 30 where it was fumbled and recovered by the Devils at the 28.

Passes good for 6 yards to Starky and 15 yards to Gonzalez and a dive by Gonzalez of 6 more yards took the ball to the Bear 3, from which he scored on a dive over the right guard. The extra point kick was blocked and the Devils increased their lead to 20-6 with 10:11 left in the third period.

The second Wyandotte touchdown came when the Bears intercepted a pass at their own 46, gained 9 and 4 yards over the tackles, moved to the Devil 25 on a personal foul penalty, and passed 19 yards to the 4. A dive over the right guard with 7:33 left in the game took the ball in. Again the Bears elected to run over, however, because of a penalty, and a swing around the left end was good, making the score 20-13.

The final Devil scoring drive came with little time left in the game. After Webster intercepted a Bear pass at the Wyandotte 31, the Devils bounded their way down to the 1, but were unable to score on a swing and were pushed back to the 5 with only 0:07 left, drive to the 8, from which quarterback Rob Zink passed to Brown for the Devil's second score.

Tigers Claw GP Packers

By Jim Lynch

The Grosse Pointe Packers journeyed to Southgate last Sunday to tangle with the Southgate Tigers. The Packers were clawed by the Tigers, winning one game and losing two games.

In the first game the Grosse Pointe Packers Freshmen lost to the Tigers by the score of 12-7. The Packers' only score came on a three-yard run by Mark Carleson and point after TD by Kim Adler. Outstanding players were John Quinn, Richard Brykalski, Robert Kaiser and Dave Robert.

The Grosse Pointe Packers Junior Varsity continued its winning ways by defeating the Tigers 7-0 after a slow start in the first half.

The Packers Varsity finished a long afternoon losing to the Southgate Varsity, 7-0 in a defensive battle of two strong teams. The entire varsity squad played a hard, bruising game led by Tom Clem, Gerry Egnatios, Frank Queenan and Dave Constantine.

The Grosse Pointe Packers' next game will be an away-game played against Highland Park on Saturday afternoon, October 15. The first game will start at 1 p.m.

St. Paul Lakers Shut Out St. Clement Crusaders 6-0

By Dave Fromm

The Lakers of St. Paul shut out the Crusaders of St. Clement 6-0 Sunday as the Lakers entertained the visitors at the Grosse Pointe High field. St. Paul won the toss of the coin and chose to receive.

Laker Rick Fromm received Tom Vigneau's kick, running 15 yards to the St Paul 30. However, the play was nullified by a 5-yard penalty against St. Clement. Vigneau re-kicked, this time to Mark Smolenski who returned the ball to the St. Paul 29-yard line.

The Lakers gained 12 more yards moving the ball to their own 41 where Bernard Przybycki recovered a Laker fumble. However, St. Paul regained possession on another fumble recovered by Dan Sutherland.

Smolenski gained 15 yards and a first down for the Lakers on a pass play moving the ball to the St. Clement 43. Bill Gough and Bob Hoernschmeyer were up the middle for respective gains of 5 and 2 yards, but a 15-yard penalty for holding the ball put the ball back on the Laker 48. Stevens then returned the ball to the St. Clement 39-yard line on a pass from Smolenski.

The Crusaders took over on their own 33 on a fumble recovery made by John Ranieri. Long gains by Joe Kamago, Phil Schneeman and Al Scargall moved the ball downfield to the St. Paul 13-yard line where the team was forced to give it up on downs.

In the second quarter Smolenski moved the ball to the St. Paul 19 and Gough drove 4 yards up the middle for a first down. Pat Corcoran then made a spectacular 54-yard run to the St. Clement 23 on a

Smolenski drove 3 yards to the 20 and Stevens gained 6 more around the left end. Smolenski was in the middle for another first while Hoernschmeyer traveled 4 yards to the 10 and Gough 1 yard to the 9. On the third down with 5 to go, Corcoran dashed into the end zone for the score on a pitch-out around the right end, giving St. Paul the lead 6-0. The extra attempt failed.

A free ball marked the end of the half as Smolenski fell back to the St. Clement 28 and fumbled in an attempt to pass. In the third period Gough kicked-off for St. Paul to Biff Bousson who ran 5 yards to the St. Clement 30. This quarter left both teams scoreless as each inched its way across the field.

The last quarter was highlighted by a beautiful 45-yard punt by Rick Stevens into the end zone for a touchdown. The last few moments of play were marked by many Crusader pass plays and an attempt to slow the clock in an effort to score. Their strategy failed, however, giving the Lakers their second victory of the season and St. Clement their first defeat.

Wayne State University freshman fullback Jeff Cetlinski tied a school mark by punting eight times against Washington U. this season.

Know Your Schools

By J. HAROLD HUSBAND Acting Superintendent of Schools The Grosse Pointe Public School System

The extent of participation in teacher preparation programs has evoked two questions during the past week. Any citizen wishing more information or a fuller explanation than is permitted below is urged to contact Dr. H. Leroy Selmeier, Assistant Superintendent-Instruction, at TUxedo 5-2000. To what extent does the Grosse Pointe Public School System participate in programs of teacher education? For many years we have accepted a limited number of well-qualified student teachers who are completing the requirements for their provisional certificates. We are pleased to participate for several reasons. First, we feel that we have a professional obligation to assist in the preparation of desperately-needed teachers at all levels. Second, we have an opportunity to observe closely teacher candidates who might possibly fill vacancies in our schools.

teachers in our Grosse Pointe schools during the opening week of the year as a part of their college's pre-student teaching program. The asterisks (*) identify the local elementary schools which are currently a part of the field experience approach to teacher training. Here a group of university students visit the school once a week for half a term with their activities organized by the building principal. What is the role of the supervising teacher? The supervising teacher voluntarily assumes the responsibility for directing the work of the student teacher. He receives no additional remuneration from the school system for his added work. Even though the student teacher may be in a class for a college quarter or a portion of the semester, the regular classroom teacher has the full responsibility for the conduct of the class.

In recent years, as the colleges and universities have modified and extended their teacher education programs, the role played by The Grosse Pointe Public School System has changed. For example, we cooperate by permitting education students to observe classes much in advance of their student teaching assignments. Such an opportunity does much to enhance a college student's concept of education. Eighteen college students are currently doing student teaching in the schools and with the grade or department as indicated on the following chart. At other times other elementary buildings are involved. Plus (+) signs indicate that a student from that institution observed and worked with

In accepting the role of "master teacher" the public school staff member assumes the all-important task of guiding the novice's first instructional presentations, he serves as demonstration teacher, he guides the student teacher in the preparation of plans and instructional materials. In short, the "master teacher" sets the tone for the student teacher's professional life. The supervising teacher often takes the opportunity to work with individuals or with small groups, while the student teacher carries on other phases of activities. At the discretion of the supervising teacher, and as the student teacher demonstrates his capabilities, he is often permitted the opportunity for independent work.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

If you are interested in a fine, succinct, new book on American history, specifically relating to the pioneer period, you will want to read PIONEER AMERICA, by John R. Alden, considered by some to be one of the best one-volume studies of the period covering the beginning of colonization through the Civil War. Mr. Alden, a Michiganander, and now the James B. Duke Professor of History at Duke University, has many published works on American history to his credit. He was chosen to write this particular volume because he is considered an expert in his field. It is one in a series entitled "The History of Human Society" edited by J. H. Plumb—a series universal in coverage, and attempting to provide a picture of man's social life. Its aim is twofold: to bring a full understanding of the societies described and to illustrate the growth of man's control over the physical universe. It will also attempt to prove that the condition of man now is superior to what it was. In his introduction, Mr. Alden states that he is glad he was asked to write this volume because it gave him a chance to address readers outside academic halls. He feels that the development of American society from the pioneer period through the Civil War is an entity all in itself, and that while it did not become stagnant or utterly different after the middle of the nineteenth century, it did alter quite remarkably after 1865. For this reason, another volume would be necessary to treat the subsequent developments in American history. Mr. Alden carries the thread of history forward, beginning with the American Indians, and ending in a final, summarizing chapter, with the current nuclear age. He does not burden the reader with too many dates, events, character portrayals. He gives us just enough political history to keep the story straight. Our national, historical heroes are shown in their true light, not up too high on the pedestal, but with very human traits. If it is possible to abstract any trends from such a straightforward recital of historical events and evaluations, I would say that two seem to thrust themselves forward. First of all, the author constantly underlines our debt to the English—for one government, customs, language, churches, schools and economic order. Secondly Mr. Alden, from the first mention of the introduction of Negro slaves into the colonies, starts a consistent weaving of this theme, which will culminate in the Civil War. He feels, (although many historians cite differences in climate, economics, ancestry, and social structure), that the main cause of this War was slavery. He devotes, almost unnecessarily, a complete chapter to what he calls "The Peculiar South." Here, he explodes much of the romanticism of this part of the country, emphasizing the existence of what later became known as "poor, white trash." Mr. Alden has given us quite a direct appraisal of a very familiar story, and has done it well. He shows us the American people—who they were, how they lived, and what they believed; he speaks with authority. This should be an excellent reference book for students and armchair historians. While we are discussing American history, it might be appropriate to mention another current, provocative title: THE LIFE OF THE MIND IN AMERICA, by Perry Miller. This book also, coincidentally, covers the period from the Revolution to the Civil War. It was awarded, posthumously, the Pulitzer Prize for history in 1966. Arthur Schlesinger considered Miller the great intellectual historian of our generation, and feels that this book is indeed his legacy and monument. I have only dipped into it, myself, but if you want a penetrating light on the intellectual foundations of this nation, I would recommend this book to you. It will remain a permanent contribution to American letters. DR. ALFRED H. WHITTAKER, of East Jefferson avenue, recently participated in a cornerstone capping ceremony at the site of the University Center Building, the new home for student activities and religious affairs on the Wayne State University campus.

From Another Pointe of View

By Margaret Burns

One of the most pleasant and relaxing ways to spend a fall afternoon will come our way this weekend. That's when the Grosse Pointe Garden Center's 1966 Tour of Houses is scheduled to take place.

On Saturday and Sunday, October 15 and 16, from 1 to 5 o'clock, members and friends of the Center are invited to visit seven of the distinguished homes in Grosse Pointe. The Tour, after 15 years, is a well-established tradition. Did you know, as a matter of fact, that the Center's House Tour was the very first one in the whole Detroit area?

But back to this year's event . . . the houses to be featured offer a variety of styles and periods. There will be the 100-year-old home of Mr. and Mrs. William House in Rivard boulevard. Small but enchanting, this house has been completely restored.

Mrs. Charles A. Dean, Jr.'s Lewiston road home is Italian in design and shows the influence of the Tuscan villas. Tour guests will enjoy the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Taylor VanZile, II, in Cloverly road, which features a mansard roof (named after the French architect Mansarde) and a color scheme throughout the house of blue, green and white.

The Bavarian influence in Grosse Pointe will be seen when the Tour stops at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Hester in Fair Acres drive. This house was inspired by "Amalienburg" which was built in 1734 by Austrian Imperial Archduke Karl Albrecht for his wife Marie Amalie, who loved sports. The original house was built as a hunting lodge and the Hesters' home highlights the hunting theme and sporting festivities.

The Raymond Whytes' beautiful new Georgian home in Lakeshore road is designed around an octagonal stair well and affords a magnificent view of Lake St. Clair. Visitors will also be able to admire Mrs. Whyte's rare collection of crystal obelisks and vari-colored antique opaline pieces.

As the Tour continues down Lakeshore drive, guests will stop off at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Brynes Cudlip which is located on land which was once one of the early French farms. One of the original French pear trees shades a corner of the house. Built in 1914, the exterior is Southern Colonial in flavor while the interior features mostly 18th Century French, Italian and English furnishings with Chinese accessories.

And last, but certainly not least, is the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank F. Sladen, Jr., the Liggett School's Headmaster's residence. Built in Briarcliff drive, it is an adaptation of the famous George Wythe house in restored Williamsburg, Va. The house and garden were given to the Liggett School by Ernest Kanzler in memory of Josephine Clay Kanzler. It is an excellent example of the use of less formal furniture in a formal house with an interesting collection of old pewter to be admired.

Heading the planning and arranging of this gracious and beautiful House Tour are co-chairmen Mrs. James B. Ogden and Mrs. Otis U. Walker.

Other committee members are Mrs. Hansel D. Wilson, brochure editor; Mrs. John Veech, flower arrangements; Mrs. John Mulford and Mrs. Harold Bailey, hostesses; Mrs. Willard Worcester, house procurement; Marie Louise Anderson and Christine

Miss Gremel Says Vows On Saturday

Becomes Bride Of James Russell Matzke At Candlelight Ceremony; Wears Grandmother's Heirloom Pearl Necklace

Wearing a gown of rose ivory satin, styled with an Empire bodice, a line skirt and detachable train, accented with seed pearls and crystals scattered on Alencon lace motifs, Terri Lou Gremel spoke her marriage vows to James Russell Matzke Saturday.

Her three-tiered illusion veil fell from a pearl-trimmed headbow, and she wore her grandmother's heirloom pearl necklace. Her flowers were white tea roses and ivy.

The Reverend Walter Geffert officiated at the candlelight rites, in Christ the King Lutheran Church. A reception at The Carousal followed the 6 o'clock ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert G. Gremel, of Blairmoor court. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold P. Matzke, of Grosse Pointe court.

Susan Monterosso served as her cousin's honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Beth Haberkorn, of Ft. Wayne, Ind., Kay Van Doren, of Adrian, Janice Jones and Marsha Vanover. Cynthia Stevens was junior bridesmaid, and Lori Jo Stevens was flower girl, both Stevens' girls are cousins of the bride.

They wore identical frocks, fashioned with floor length skirts of pale gold crepe and Empire bodices of gold velvet, and carried cascades of gold and copper mums.

Acting as best man was Kirk Gremel, brother of the bride. Ushering were Ronald Bleckmann, Robert Vernier, Ray Dallman, Richard Baker and Bruce Matzke, the bridegroom's brother.

The mother of the bride wore a floor length dress and matching jacket of moss green satin, while the bridegroom's mother chose a dress and jacket of beige brocade. Both mothers chose cymbidium orchid corsages.

The newlyweds, vacationing in Quebec, will make their home in Detroit.

Old World Market Slated Next Month

Four-Day Festival of Nations To Be Held At International Institute; Wares From Many Lands Offered

International Institute's traditional Old World Market will bring a whole new world of ideas for visitors to savor when the Market is staged at the Institute in East Kirby Street, Detroit, a Torch Drive agency, for four days beginning Thursday, November 17, and continuing through Sunday, November 20.

The "World at Your Door," the 1966 theme, will take visitors on a veritable magic carpet to every continent on earth and will provide a wealth of gift ideas for the holidays to come as well as an adventure in the sampling of international foods, served cafeteria style all day.

Hours are from 12 Noon to 10 in the evening daily, except on Sunday when doors close at 9 in the evening. Market chairman Mrs. George R. Snider and her vice chairman Mrs. Morton W. Adler promise many delightful activities to interest all ages, plus the addition of the "children's" shop where those of tender years with limited allowances may choose gifts to fit slender pocketbooks.

The pantry shop will take on a new look, too, under guidance of the Laurence A. Russells, a team of Mr. and Mrs. volunteers, who have already spent many weeks in selecting stock to tempt the eye as well as the palate.

A baker's dozen booths, dressed with flowers and shrubbery native to the country represented, will blossom on the three levels of the Institute to reflect the artistic ways of other cultures.

There will be goods from Italy, Romania, France, Greece and India, carvings from South America and Africa, dolls from all over the world and gaily colored Mexican wares along with bright little remembrances from Scandinavia.

From Latvia beautiful pieces of amber may be purchased, and there'll be many other interesting items from Estonia, the Orient and mementos made by American Indians.

Of particular interest will be the primitive stone carvings of Eskimos from the Baffin Bay area of Canada, which created so much comment at last year's Market, and the replicas of artifacts found in the burial mounds of Indians, who lived centuries ago, created by the sculptor's hand of Ivan Gundrum, of Florida.

Niches in the Hall of Nations will be brightly caparisoned with exhibits of native costumes of more than 40 countries and flowers indigenous to the regions will serve as a background for many new demonstrations conducted in the Hall.

As always, the Market serves to enable the foreign born to regale visitors with outstanding examples of Old World culture and reflects the Institute's role in the community as Detroit's helping hand to people who come from other lands.

Organize P-TA Guild At St. Joan Of Arc

A Parent-Teacher Guild has been organized at St. Joan of Arc School in St. Clair Shores. This association will be affiliated with the Archdiocesan School Office, and will provide a communication between school and home. Its membership will include parents of children attending St. Joan of Arc, teaching faculty and any members of the parish interested in education.

Newly-appointed officers are president Martin Tepatti, president-elect Tom Sullivan, secretary Mrs. Philip Van Hollebeke and treasurer William Heck. The first meeting will be held as soon as the remodeling of the school auditorium is completed.

Need Leaders For Program

A training program for leaders in the Junior Books series will begin in mid-January of next year. The course will be held once a week for eight weeks from 1 to 3 o'clock, on a day to be announced later.

The purpose of the course is to train women in leading young school children in appreciating and enjoying the Junior Great Books. It will be conducted by a professional sent from the Great Books Foundation, which also sponsors the Adult Great Books Discussion Groups.

After completing the course, leaders will be assigned to a school desiring a Junior Great Books course. They will meet once every three weeks following school hours. Leaders taking the course next January will not be assigned until September of that year.

The deadline for registration is November 15. For further information or to enroll, contact Mrs. F. M. Tousley at TU 5-0268, Mrs. A. J. Fincham at TU 4-4535 or Mrs. Daniel Peck at TU 1-0322.

Miss Shannon Wed To John D. Moran, Jr.

Home In Warren Awaits Newlyweds Upon Their Return From Mexican Vacation; Peau d'Ange Lace Accents Bride's Gown

Setting for the Saturday evening wedding of Beverly Jean Shannon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Shannon, of Lochmoor boulevard, and John Darby Moran, Jr., was Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church.

A reception at Lochmoor Club followed the 6:30 o'clock rites, at which The Reverend Paul Winchester officiated.

The bride chose a gown of ivory silk-faced peau de soie, fashioned with a controlled A line skirt and detachable Chapel train. Peau d'ange lace embroidered with seed pearls and crystals formed her sleeves and accented her Empire bodice, skirt and train.

Her bouffant veil of imported silk illusion fell from an ivory peau de soie Dior bow, trimmed with a cluster of lace motifs. She carried a cascade of stephanotis, white roses and ivy.

Her attendants wore floor length frocks of emerald green chiffon over pale blue crepe, styled with square necklines and long sleeves. Bias bands of satin circled their Empire waistlines, and they carried cascades of yellow Sweetheart roses and ivy.

Serving as her sisters' matron of honor was Mrs. Roger Callahan. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Moran, Mrs. William Swink, Ann Warren and Mrs. Paul Rand, the latter three Alpha Phi sorority sisters of the bride.

Robert Moran acted as best man for his brother. They are the sons of Mrs. J. D. Moran, of Lakeshore lane, and the late Mr. Moran.

Ushering were Ronald Harper, Charles E. Shannon, Jr., brother of the bride, Vincent E. Butterly, Jr., and Michael MacDonald.

Mrs. Shannon chose for her daughter's wedding and the reception, a floor length gown of lime green raw silk, trimmed with crystal beading. The bridegroom's mother wore a beaded-accented floor length gown of beige raw silk. Both mothers pinned cymbidium orchids to their purses.

When they return from a vacation in Acapulco, Mexico, the newlyweds will make their home in Regency Park Apartments, Warren.

The Office of the Commandant, Howe Military School, Howe, Indiana, has announced the promotion of WILLIAM KIM SIGSWORTH, son of Mr. and Mrs. WILLIAMS H. SIGSWORTH, JR., of Doyle Place East, to second lieutenant. Cadet Sigsworth is Platoon Leader, Co. F and is in the seventh grade.

New York Is Scene Of Emmons Rites

Charles Emmons Weds Lydia Hamza In New York's Presbyterian Church; Couple Plan To Continue Their Studies At Columbia University

Lydia Hamza, daughter of the Reverend Andrew Hamza, of New York City and Denville, N. J., and Mrs. Karolyn Horvath, of Budapest, Hungary, was married Sunday, October 9, to Charles Frederick Emmons in New York's Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church. Mr. Emmons is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hunter Emmons, Jr., of Radnor Circle.

The ceremony, which took place at 2 o'clock, was performed by Dr. David H. C. Read.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father who is Church administrator of the Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church and minister of the First Magyar Presbyterian Church. Her full-length veil of white illusion fell from a wreath of orange blossoms over an Empire dress of white brocade.

She carried a cascade of white phalaenopsis orchids and carnations.

Dressed in a short gold brocade Empire gown with a

A reception in the Parish hall followed the ceremony.

The former Miss Hamza was born in Kecskmet, Hungary, and was graduated from the Szilagi Erzsabet Gymnasium in Budapest and attended the University of Agriculture there. She is currently studying architecture at Columbia University.

Mr. Emmons is the great grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Kyle Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Oren Scotten. He is also the grandson of the late Harold Hunter Emmons who was Police Commissioner of Detroit. A former Grosse Pointe University School student, he attended Middlebury College and is presently studying at Columbia University.

Mrs. Horvath, the bride's mother, came from Budapest to attend her daughter's wedding. Guests from Michigan included Mr. and Mrs. Harold H. Emmons, III, of Lansing and Mrs. Henry L'Homme dieu Fuesel, of Nottingham road.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Emmons plan to make their home in New York City.

Members of Wayne State University's freshman Law School class include RALPH J. HEIKKINEN, of Pear Tree lane, and THOMAS W. WAALKES, of Beaconfield avenue.

Pointe Writers At Conference

Forty-three professional writers will conduct Round Tables at the fifth annual Writers' Conference to be held from 8:30 to 4:30 o'clock Saturday, October 15, at Oakland University, Rochester.

The Conference, co-sponsored by the Detroit Women Writers and the Division of Continuing Education at Oakland, will bring together over 400 men and women interested in the craftsmanship of creative writing. Every aspect of writing will be dealt with: poetry, articles, short stories, drama, books, (adult and juvenile), editors and markets.

"Writing for the Modern Teen" is the subject chosen by Mrs. Edward Wunsch, at McKinley place, for her afternoon Found Table. Mrs. Wunsch is the author of two teen novels, "Flying Skis" and "Passport to Russia," selected by the Child Study Association of America for their Best Books of 1966 book list.

Mrs. William Gillette, who recently moved from Grosse Pointe to Birmingham, will discuss "Fiction in the Religious Market." Mrs. Gillette has sold her short stories widely, placing 12 short fiction pieces last year.

Other Pointers who as members of the Detroit Women Writers will be attending or assisting with the Conference include Mrs. Frank Boyer, Mrs. Chester Sparks, Mrs. Robert Sucek and Mrs. DeHull Travis.

For further information, write "Continuing Education" at Oakland University, Rochester, or phone 338-7211, Ext. 2176. The fee of $10 includes registration, tuition and luncheon.

Local Alpha Phi Chapter Has Plans For Autumn

The Detroit-Grosse Pointe chapter of Alpha sorority met for a pot-luck dinner September 13 at the home of Mrs. Carl Allison, of Roslyn road.

Mrs. James Mast, the District Alumnae chairman, reported on the national convention which took place in Tucson, Ariz. last June. As of that time, Alpha Phi International had given over $1,000,000 to cardiac aid, its philanthropy.

Mrs. Samuel Ulmer, the president, then outlined plans for the coming year. Grosse Pointe members were hostesses to other Alpha Phi alumnae chapters in the area at an annual joint dinner held at the Golden Lion on October 11.

Making Christmas decorations will be demonstrated by Mrs. Richard Gerathy the evening of November 10, at the Community House in St. Clair Shores.

This event was so well received last year that it is being repeated and chapter members will be bringing interested guests. Any new members in the area are urged to contact Mrs. Ulmer, 884-5632.

Planning Today's Party

Election Held By Senior Men

At their 7th annual meeting, the Senior Men's Club of Grosse Pointe elected new officers and four new directors. Elected for one year terms were: Thomas O'Keefe, president; Dale Hodges, first vice-president; Forrest Manker, second vice-president; Herbert Hobart, treasurer.

William Morse continues as secretary for another year, as do directors Norris Macdonald, William Osband, Walter Retzlaff and Archie Ritchie.

The four new directors elected for two year terms are Elden Baumgarten M.D., Thomas A. Boyd, Hal Klemm and J. Edward Schutte.

They meet the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month to hear outstanding speakers and to have luncheon. The club boasts of a membership of 585 and is still growing.

The Senior Men's Club has been a valuable addition to the local community and under the regime of Torsten Peters, past president, has been exceptionally active in community affairs.

Party Planned By Barat Club

The Barat club of Detroit will sponsor a dessert and bridge party night on Monday, October 17. It will be held at the Hospitality Center in Kercheval avenue from 7:15 until 11 o'clock.

About Other Gardeners

While we're on the subject of gardens and homes, members of the Garden Club of Michigan have an interesting and unusual meeting planned for next Tuesday, October 18. At 9:15 o'clock they will leave for Hidden Lake Gardens, Tipton, Mich., where they will not only undertake to do a little business but hear a talk by their host for the day Dr. Fred W. Freeman.
After a basket lunch at 12 o'clock, the gardeners will tour the Hidden Gardens. Reservations may be made by contacting Mrs. Earl Heenan, Jr., and if there are questions about transportation, members may call Fran W. Sheldon at 885-4466.

Dartmouth Grads To Gather

Dartmouth alumni will gather tomorrow night, October 14, to celebrate their alma mater's smashing football victory last weekend. Win or lose, though, we're sure they'd still gather at 6 o'clock to enjoy a free dinner at the Stroh House, 2001 Rivard, Detroit, since those present will have a radio hook-up with Hanover for first hand information on the latest news from the college.
The grads are so sure all is well that they are inviting guests to join them for the evening. Later on the group will move over to Monte's Rathskeller to see movies of Dartmouth's 1965 football team. And good luck on Saturday boys!

Speaking of Education

The local alumni association of The Phillips Exeter Academy will honor the academy's Dean Robert W. Kesler and its Director of Admissions and Scholars Charles M. Rice at a dinner to be held in the University Club Tuesday, October 18. The dinner is open to friends and guests as well as to alumni and parents of Exeter students.
A reception will begin at 6 o'clock and will be followed by a 7 o'clock dinner. Dinner for the gentlemen is $5.50 but for ladies it's only $2.75, (a nice way of including a little pulchritudo in what could be otherwise an all male affair!) Reservations may be made by calling Mark Ethridge, Jr., at 222-6584.

Romanian Night Slated At Center

"Saturday Night in Romania" sounds romantic and far out, but it is being made possible this weekend by the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association together with a group of Pointers who claim Romania as the land of their ancestors.
This group includes, under the chairmanship of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Sfat, of Belanger road, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Charo, of Canterbury road, Mr. and Mrs. John Cushman, of Huntington boulevard; Mr. and Mrs. John Mercea, of Dorthen avenue; Mr. and Mrs. John Metes, of Weber place, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hoison, of Woods lane, Mr. and Mrs. John Lazar, of Fairway lane, Mr. and Mrs. John Tatu, of Robert John road, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Popovich, of Kercheval avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Leinfest, of Crescent lane.
Guests arriving at the Center's Crystal Ballroom at 7 o'clock Saturday, October 15, will be greeted by mannequins dressed in native Romanian costume. Then they will visit a boutique where Romanian needlework and crafts will be featured.
At dinner guests will dine first on unusual canapes—here alone, (white cavari), patlagele vinete tocate, (chopped egg plant), peste marinat, (marinated fish), branza ciobanasa, (shepherd cheese), and patlagele rosii feli si patrunjel, (tomato and parsley).
The entire will be sarmale de varza cu smantana si mamaliga, (stuffed cabbage with sour cream and spoon bread). The main dish will consist of cotelete de porpane, cartofi populari Romanesc and ordei cotei, which in English is pork Romanian country style with sliced potatoes and baked pickled peppers. Desert will be a cheese square and apple roll with homemade stretched pastry.
Following dinner, patrons will be entertained by native Romanian songs, dances and instrumental selections and will enjoy color films of this land made famous by its former Queen Marie on her journey through the states some years ago.
Reservations will still be accepted at the Center's office if paid today. The cost is just $4 for dinner and the evening's entertainment (tax and service included).

Style Show Set At NYC Oct. 18

A style show, "Fashion Forecast" has been planned for Detroit Yacht Club ladies and their guests at the bridge luncheon on October 18, featuring elegant cocktail and formal costumes in an around-the-clock showing.
Mrs. George Sherman is the party hostess and has the assistance of co-chairmen Mrs. Thomas Pearsall and Mrs. Robert Winkler.
Mrs. Sherman's guests will include her mother, Mrs. Paul Swearinger, Mrs. Chester Carpenter, Mrs. Howard Cook, Mrs. David Reed and Mrs. Robert Snow.
More than 500 are expected for the fete. Among those with table reservations are Mrs. George W. Levette, Mrs. Dunca James, Mrs. Charles Gauss, Mrs. John Parker, Mrs. Alex Mathieson, Mrs. Carl Habermas, Mrs. Robert Filter, Mrs. Dwight Glover, and Mrs. Edward Chapman.

Fort Pontchartrain DAR To Meet Tomorrow

Fort Pontchartrain Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will hold its first fall luncheon and meeting at the Women's City Club Friday, October 14. Luncheon will be served at 12 o'clock noon.
There will be a Board meeting at 10:30 o'clock, with regent Mrs. Milton E. Hopkins presiding.
The new officers for the 1966-67 year are Mrs. Hopkins, regent; Mrs. Orvis Linn Henke, first vice regent; Mrs. William Garrett, second vice regent; Mrs. Carl S. Boyle, chaplain; Mrs. Herbert F. Buehler, assistant chaplain; Mrs. Marie J. Churchill, recording secretary; Mrs. Floyd F. Smith, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Bruce K. Reynolds, treasurer; Mrs. Colin T. Bain, financial secretary; Mrs. George D. Hebb, registrar; Mrs. Gilbert K. Pulliam, historian; and Mrs. William E. Shoemaker, librarian.
Directors are Mrs. George Killeen, Mrs. William M. Perrett and Mrs. Adrian V. Roof.
Special appointments include Mrs. Neil A. Cameron, official genealogist; Mrs. Merrill F. Cross, honorary chaplain; and Mrs. Leo P. Richardson, parliamentarian.
Attending from the Pointe area will be Mrs. Harry E. Barnard, Mrs. H. Sarcorn Brown, Jr., Mrs. Albert E. Cooney, Mrs. John M. Jackson, Mrs. Leonard L. Jensen, Mrs. Cletus M. Laux, Mrs. Carl D. Macpherson, Mrs. Henry G. McCabe, Mrs. Perrett, Mrs. Robert Hale Peterson, Mrs. C. Edward Putnam, Mrs. Reynolds, Mrs. Roof, Mrs. Shoemaker, Mrs. Floyd F. Smith and Mrs. John P. Thomas.

Taxis Teens Set To Rake Leaves

A leaf raking party is planned this Sunday for Taxis. It is scheduled for 2 o'clock. All members are requested to bring their own rakes.
The members will rake lawns of shut-ins of the Memorial Church congregation who are unable to do their own. (Mother Nature has cooperated nicely and there are plenty of leaves to go around).
Anyone with a rake who is willing to help is invited to meet in the Church parking lot at 2 o'clock. After raking, refreshments will be served at the Church. There will be no evening meeting.

Fort Pontchartrain DAR Committee Meets Friday

The Service committee of Fort Pontchartrain Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, held its first fall meeting at the Village Manor Friday, October 7.
Luncheon, planned for 12 o'clock noon, was followed by a short business meeting conducted by Mrs. Max W. Ammer, chairman of the Service committee, and an afternoon of bridge. Guest of honor was Mrs. Milton E. Hopkins, regent.
Hostesses for the afternoon included Mrs. William M. Perrett, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Harry E. Barnard, Mrs. H. Sanborn Brown, Jr., Mrs. Cletus M. Laux, Mrs. Carl D. Macpherson, Mrs. Robert Hale Peterson, and Mrs. Edward A. Wilcox.
The new officers for 1966-1967 are Mrs. Ammer, chairman; Mrs. Leo P. Richardson, recording secretary; Mrs. Colin T. Bain, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Adrian V. Roof, Treasurer.

who, where and whatnot

by whoozi

Our heartiest congratulations . . . to Dr. Paul E. Mawhinney, former director of the Grosse Pointe Public Schools' Department of Pupil Personnel, who has just won the top award—$1,000—in the National Teachers' Writing Contest, sponsored by the National Education Association. Dr. Mawhinney, currently chairman of the Department of Education and Psychology at Southeast Missouri State College, spent 10 years with The Pointe Schools, serving as administrative assistant to the superintendent from 1955 through 1957, then as Pupil Personnel director from 1957 through 1965. His winning entry was a short story entitled "The Shoes."

And more hearty congratulations . . . to Erwin H. (Pete) Foersterling, Jr., son of the senior Foersterlings, of Hidden Lane, presently associate professor of Fine Arts and Department head at MacMurray College, Jacksonville, Ill., (he's been teaching there for the past 12 years), who's had TWO paintings selected for the Fifth Biennial National Religious Art Exhibition, which opened October 7 at Cranbrook Academy of Art galleries. Only 200 items from more than 4,500 entries were chosen for showing . . . Pete, a graduate of Grosse Pointe High School, received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Michigan State University, his Master of Fine Arts from the State University of Iowa, where he also instructed, studied in Italy and France . . . He's had canvases and prints in two Michigan State Artists Shows at the Detroit Institute of Arts, exhibited in the Missouri State Show, St. Louis, various other shows plus two television programs on an Illinois network, recently had a one-man show in Springfield.

Does the name . . . "Mole Hole" intrigue you? It's a Petoskey gift shop, one of 30 out-of-town specialty stores scheduled to participate in the October 25 through 27 Planned Parenthood Christmas Mart at Veterans Memorial Building in Downtown Detroit.

It seems to us . . . that grandmothers are getting more "with it" all the time. Can you imagine a turn-of-the-century grandma sitting down and writing her grandson an off-to-Boot-Camp letter, in VERSE, like recently composed for Richard W. (Rick) Tyrrell, son of the Donald Tyrrells, of Roslyn road, who departed September 13 for the U.S. Marine base in San Diego, Calif., (we only wish we could reproduce Grandma Sullivan's line drawings as well as her lines):

Dear Rick,
It's a loving task to write a letter,
But when there's news it's always better.
As that's what Ashmore always lacks,
Imagination I must tax.
The subject "Weather" is a bore.
It's always there—just less or more.
It's either grand, or else there's rain,
The thought of which gives you a pain.
Can't write of girls or love and kissing,
In Boot Camp they are sadly missing.
Instead of saying "Hi" to her,
You concentrate on saying "Sir."
In place of Nancy's pretty grin,
A sergeant hollers, "Tuck it in!"
No Mom to say "No television!"
Or "Homework first, it's your decision."
No "fridge" to raid for evening snack.
You study how to tote a pack.
No Dad to say "You cut the grass."
But just salutes to all the "Brass."
No Tommy there, with all your scraps,
But just some drills on "Booby Traps."
Nor baby-sit with Carrie Lynn,
Instead a barracks to stay in.
No riding Honda for a while
Instead of which you'll hike a mile.
No Cadillac to take a spin,
But just a cot to smuggle in.
The gun with which you hunt deer
Is now a RIFLE—get that clear!
They took your clothes (also your hair)
And did their bit to strip you bare,
But cheer up, Rick, it's NOT forever,
Though furlough time now seems like never.
So grit your teeth, and grin and bear it,
That uniform—be PROUD to wear it.
You'll work and slave, and all the rest,
But when you're through, you're in the best.
It is an honor plainly seen.
To be a proud U.S. MARINE.
All the best for you always,
Your loving Grandma

Engineers Wives' Society Hears Talk On Pakistan

The Society of Engineers' Wives held its opening meeting of the season October 12 at the Detroit Engineering Society in the Rackham Building.

Mrs. Karl Anderson, wife of a Wayne University professor, spoke on Pakistan, where she lived for two years while her husband, who was on a Ford grant, establishing a new college. She appeared in native costume and used slides to illustrate her talk.

Following the talk by Mrs. Anderson, tea was served to the guests. Mrs. Harold G. Knoff, of Barrington road, is president of the organization.

Pointer of Interest

MRS. T. B. STEADMAN, OF DEVONSHIRE ROAD

By Janet Mueller

Three-fourths of the way through this interview, Jeanne Steadman suddenly broke off in mid-sentence. "You know, I CAN listen as well as talk," she smiled. "I thoroughly enjoy listening to people . . ."

And people enjoy listening to Jeanne. She's a delightful conversationalist, quick to catch the reactions of her listener, responsive to the small signs—the flick of an eyelid, the shift of a shoulder—that indicate a sudden upsurge of interest or the first twinge of boredom.

Jeanne seldom has to worry about the latter response. She's more likely to inspire such an upsurge of interest that her listener simply won't let her stop talking!

This is especially true if one gets Jeanne going on the subject of Parent Education Associates, a group of lay (non-professional) people willing to devote time for training in principles of both child growth and development and group process, and to give time for subsequent group leadership.

Not Authorities

PEA members do not profess to be authorities, nor do they pretend to offer therapeutic service.

They work primarily with parents who are essentially healthy, but who are also interested in doing the best job possible as parents in the light of current knowledge and available sources of help.

Parent Education Associates is a state-wide organization, sponsored by the Education Section of the Michigan Department of Mental Health. There is a State Council, composed of each of the 27 communities in which there are PEA groups. Jeanne, member of Grosse Pointe PEA for seven years, is still as enthusiastic about the program as she was when she first became involved in it—perhaps even more so; she feels groups that present and emphasize the POSITIVE aspects of Mental Health are vitally important.

Positively Healthy

"Positively healthy" is a good descriptive phrase to apply to the Steadman family; Jeanne, her husband, Ted, sales manager for Lever Brothers Soap, ("Notice how CLEAN we all are!"), and their two sons, Bill, almost 17, an 11th grader at Grosse Pointe High School, and Ted, 13, in the eighth grade at Pierce Junior High, are delightfully "normal." They laugh a lot together.

Even Trixie, the family dog, is a well-adjusted member of society who, obedient to her training, refuses to set foot in any of the carpeted rooms of the Steadman house.

The Steadmans have lived in The Pointe, in their present home, for 15 years, and Jeanne admits she frankly loves the community, wouldn't want to live anywhere else "except Florida, where my husband would like to retire eventually. "Actually, I'd rather live here than in Florida, but I won't let Ted move south without me!"

In the early years of their marriage, they were movers "by choice, not inclination," as Ted experienced a series of business transfers.

Jeanne wasn't raised in a traveling family. Her mother and father still live in the house they bought 40 years ago, on an acre of ground near Manlius, in upstate New York, "where they REALLY have snow."

Standard Joke

Manlius, Jeanne points out, is noted for its boys' school. "Now I'll have to tell you my standard joke: I wanted to go to the boys' school, but I couldn't pass the physical!" Jeanne, her three sisters and brother, learned to ice skate on the creek running behind their house, swam there in the summer, generally enjoyed a wonderful childhood.

Jeanne met Ted, a mid-Westerner, youngest of nine children, when they were both working in Syracuse, married him "so he could take me along on his expense account" just before he was transferred to Minneapolis.

After a year in Minneapolis, Ted was transferred to Detroit. After another year, another transfer took the family to Chicago.

Lived In Chicago

The Steadmans lived in an apartment on Chicago's Near North Side for almost five years. Jeanne loved the Windy City but, by the end of her stay there, was considering a move to suburbia: "A third floor apartment back porch is really not a suitable playground for a lively youngster."

Then Ted was transferred back to Detroit, and the family took up residence in Devonshire road.

Despite this series of early-marriage moves, Jeanne and Ted Steadman maintained "root" habits. They'll soon be taking their 20th November vacation in Florida, (while they're away, Jeanne's mother and father come from Manlius for a vacation of their own, a "getting-to-know-you" visit with Bill and young Ted).

Jeanne's parents had a small plant nursery, and their daughter grew up with dirt under her fingernails. She still loves gardening, is especially proud of her 21 different varieties of African violets, some of which require almost daily care.

She and her husband are fond of bicycle riding, and music is a family affair, with mother and young Ted both adept at the organ. (In the Steadman house, it's mother who plays the popular selections; Ted who likes serious, Church-type pieces).

Bill, who has a complete set of drums, really enjoys pounding away to the accompaniment of records, a radio, or friends who just "drop over with other instruments." Like most 17-year-olds, his energy and enthusiasm are boundless; his drums are located in the basement recreation room, just below the kitchen.

Floor Shakes

"When he REALLY starts to play, the kitchen floor shakes—and so does mother!" Jeanne observes, rather ruefully.

"He's also crazy about cars, but what 17-year-old isn't?" she adds. "His favorite sentence is, 'Can I have the car tonight?' He's always got to be doing something, going full blast. But that, too, seems to be typical of the age: If you're not quivering all over, you're not 'with it.'"

Young Ted is the businessman of the junior branch of the family, with his own paper route. Both boys are at an age where they have their own interests, their own friends, when Jeanne's six-year investment as a Sunday School teacher at Grosse Pointe Methodist Church, three years as a member of the Defer P-TA Council and two terms as a Den Mother have begun to pay dividends in increased time for herself.

She spends a considerable portion of this "increased time for herself" on PEA, admits she gradually became disinvolved from other projects to devote more hours to Parent Education Associates.

She became interested in PEA while serving on the Defer P-TA Council. The Defer principal asked her to attend a PEA meeting, report on it . . . "and I was trapped."

Grosse Pointe PEA was organized 11 years ago, at Monteth School. Esther L. Middlewood, chief of the Education Section, Michigan Mental Health Department, came down from Lansing for the first meetings, (a representative from Miss Middlewood's office still arrives from Lansing once each month to assist the local PEA group).

Normal Phases

Basically, PEA is concerned with all normal phases of child and family development, with the problems parents face in common in raising their children in today's world, with the influences, (advertising, social attitudes of the community, newspaper and magazine articles, for example), which are currently acting upon the child and the family.

PEA is a three-year program, after which participants join an Alumnae Group, whose members design a learning experience to fit their own interests and needs and, serving as discussion leaders, present programs for other groups, especially Nursery Schools and P-TAs.

But they never attempt to TELL a parent what he ought to do. They simply present materials, leaving the groups before which they speak to draw their own conclusions.

The first-year PEA program is devoted to orientation through informal discussion of principles of child growth and development, and in relating these principles to one's own experiences, leading to increased self-understanding.

The second-year program is a deepening and expansion of the first-year program, and the third year is one of practice and evaluation, during which the group takes over responsibility for its own leadership.

New Group

A Parent Education Associates first-year group has just been formed in Grosse Pointe, and will meet the first Thursday of each month at Grosse Pointe Congregational Church.

The advanced group, to which Jeanne Steadman belongs, meets regularly at St. Michael's Episcopal Church. (PEA is non-sectarian, but local churches have been extremely cooperative in providing meeting rooms). Membership in the local PEA organization is not limited to Grosse Pointe residents.

Jeanne served several years as Grosse Pointe PEA community chairman. (Mrs. A. P. Donnell is the current community chairman) and designed the local PEA stationary.

Currently, she's program chairman, a job she describes as "basically, coordinating the work of all the groups." She's constantly combing magazines for articles and pictures to use in her presentations, ("It's amazing how few pictures you can find of families doing things TOGETHER!")

She emphasizes that PEA is not just an organization of local amateurs "flying blind;" the guidance and assistance it receives from Lansing is supplemented by its local sponsor, the Neighborhood Club, which provides a professional resource person, Mrs. Andrew (Sally) Brown, for the first-year group.

Simply Parents

But she also emphasizes that PEA is not an organization of professionals. Participants in the informal discussion groups, on all levels, are simply parents, people who are concerned about their children, who want to do the best possible job of raising them.

The problems they discuss are "normal" problems—jealousy between brothers and sisters, allowances, leading a child toward self-discipline, communication between various members of the family, suburban living—and Jeanne believes that one of the greatest benefits of PEA is "finding you're not the only person who has ever faced a particular problem . . . somehow, people feel better when they discover they're not alone."

Of course, PEA doesn't pretend to SOLVE problems. It simply attempts to help parents who are anxious to find their own solutions.

Which, when you think of it, is quite enough . . .
