

PARK PUSHES FOR BOND ISSUE

HEADLINES of the WEEK As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, October 20
IN HIS FIRST MAJOR address of his six-nation tour of the Far East, in Wellington, New Zealand, President Johnson appealed to Hanoi to end the war in Vietnam and join the United States and "your brothers in Southeast Asia" in a war against disease, poverty and hunger. He asked them what could be gained in continuing a war that they cannot win. Upon conclusion of his speech, the President and his party went to Wellington Airport for a flight to Ohaake, where they transferred to Air Force One for the flight to Canberra, Australia.

Friday, October 21
THE DETROIT POLICE DEPARTMENT will launch a massive advertising campaign, with the aid of Campbell Ewald Co., who will handle the campaign free of charge, to attract qualified men to the police force. The campaign will primarily be directed at Negro prospects. Although there has been a 34 percent increase in the number of Negroes who joined the force since December 1963, there are still less than 200 Negro policemen on the 4,307-man force. The commissioner also pointed out that the loss of men due to retirement is another factor in the growing need for more qualified policemen.

Saturday, October 22
THE FEARS OF THE VILLAGERS of Aberfan, Wales, for many years, became a reality when a slag heap which in a half century had grown into an ugly mountain, crashed down, engulfing a school and burying almost 200 children. One hundred bodies have been recovered and it is feared that the death toll will reach 200. After digging through thousands of tons of slag, workers found three young survivors who were very badly hurt. Prime Minister Harold Wilson, who flew to the scene, said that words could not describe this tragedy.

Sunday, October 23
STATE SEN. BERNARD O'BRIEN was convicted of urging a Michigan State University co-ed to pose for nude photographs and engage in sexual relations. O'Brien vowed to "fight this case all the way to the end" with appeals. Lansing Township Justice George Hunter levied the maximum sentence of 90 days in jail and a $100 fine. He did say that 80 days of the sentence would be suspended on payment of the fine and court costs of $314.55. The sentence was held in abeyance while O'Brien appealed and minimal bond of $500 was set.

Monday, October 24
IN FOUR HOURS, some 155,000 children in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties were immunized against measles. So overwhelming was the response to this immunization that more vaccine had to be rushed from Lansing by state police and from drug suppliers by helicopter. The vaccine is aimed at only one type of measles virus, Rubella (German measles), nor does it prevent several other strains.

Tuesday, October 25
A TENTATIVE SETTLEMENT was reached on the Detroit garbage strike. Officials of Council 77 of the Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees will conduct a ratification vote. Officials are optimistic about ratification. Barring rejection, the regular crews should be back on their jobs this week. Under the terms of the settlement, William Mabry, a Lod-All operator employed by the city since October 3, will be granted a hearing on his firing and will be represented by Council 77 at the hearing. City public works commissioner, Robert Toohy said the city had been willing to grant this all along.

Given Citations For Meritorious Service

Harper Woods Patrolmen WARREN NEWTON (center) and EDWARD SMITH were recently presented citations by Farms Det. Sgt. GEORGE VAN TIEM (left), approved by the Farms Council and Farms Police Chief Jack F. Roh, for "extraordinary performance of duty on September 4." The officers were cited for their assistance in apprehending two suspicious persons at Harper and Eight Mile road, resulting in the clearing of a burglary, committed a few minutes earlier, and several attempted burglaries in the Farms. A safe, stolen in the breakin, was recovered.

Parcells Jr. High School Damaged By Vandals' Visit

Many Windows And Door Glasses Smashed; Oil Painting Of Charles Parcells Slashed And Frame Broken By Weekend Marauders

Vandals broke into the Parcells Junior High School over the weekend and caused considerable damage by smashing windows and office door glass and slushing an oil painting of the man in whose honor the school was named.

John Schultz of 1952 Anita, assistant engineer at the school, called police early Sunday morning October 23, when he discovered the wanton damage in several school rooms and offices. He told Patrolman Thomas Kerving that the damage was done sometime between 5:30 p.m. Saturday, October 22, and 8:29 a.m. on Sunday.

An oil painting of Charles A. Parcells, that had been hanging on a wall in a first floor hallway of the building, was found on the second floor, removed from its frame and slashed. The frame and glass in which the picture was contained, were smashed.

Vandal Injured
Schultz showed Kerving where a door window to the main office had been broken, and where apparently the vandal, or one of the vandals, had cut himself. There was blood on the floor.

The engineer said he checked the second floor and found evidence that entry into the school building was made through a window of Room 211, after the culprit broke the glass and reached inside to open it.

The Woods patrolman said that he checked with Schultz, and toured the building with the engineer and noted the following damage:

Room 221 — 18 by 30-inch window at the east side of the room broken, as well as a 24 by 36-inch glass on the door leading into the room; Room 219 — Books scattered about; table and chairs tipped over; metal and wooden cabinets opened, and the Parcells painting leaning against the wall.

Heel Prints on Door
Room 217 — Three heel prints on the glass of the door leading into the room, but glass not broken; window of a recessed display shelf broken. The glass measured 30 by 40 inches and is of the sliding type.

Room 213 — A metal flag pole, taken from the grounds

O'Brien Witness Not Our Waldron

Rep. Robert Waldron, Grosse Pointe's representative in the State Legislature, is not the Robert Waldron who was a witness in the morals case involving State Senator Bernard O'Brien, which ended in Lansing last Saturday.

That was Robert Leslie Waldron, a Democrat and sergeant-at-arms for the Legislature for the last two years. He testified that he was with the senator at the time the senator was charged with making indecent proposals to Marion Lukens.

The Pointe's Robert E. Waldron is a Republican and minority leader of the Legislature. He lives at 532 University place.

Accident Victims Reported Still in Serious Condition

Two women who were injured when their car was struck from behind, just as they were starting up on a green signal at Lake Shore and Vernier roads, are still in serious condition at Bon Secours Hospital, it was disclosed on Tuesday, October 25.

Injured on Saturday, October 15, were Mrs. Mary Ellen Heythaler, 56, of 24101 Harvard Shore, St. Clair Shores, the driver, who suffered a compound fracture of the left leg, a broken pelvis, two broken ankles and multiple facial injuries; and her sister, Mrs. Kathleen Estelle Lucy, 48, of 22043 Visnaw, also of St. Clair Shores, who also suffered multiple facial injuries, including a

Compromise Reached by Farms, Union

Charges Of Unfair Labor Practices Made Against Municipality Dropped By Local 522

Charges of unfair labor practices against the Farms were dropped by Farms Local 522, American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, AFL-CIO, on Monday, October 17, when an agreement was reached at a session with the State Labor Mediation Board.

The members of the local, comprised of employees of the Department of Public Works, Water Filtration Plant and Storm Sewer Pumping Station, filed a complaint with the Labor Board, accusing the city of failing to bargain in good faith, regarding wage increases and other issues.

James Brown, president of Local 522, and Norriar Kotch, on the negotiation team of the local, charged Farms officials with failing to hold bargaining sessions to iron out differences.

Would Cut Services
City Manager Andrew Bremer, Jr., said the members of the local sought to hold sessions during working hours, which would not be feasible because there are eight employees, out of 40 represented by the local, who are on the bargaining team. Allowing that many to take part in negotiations, during working time, would hamper services to residents of the community, he added.

Brown, employed by the DPW, and Kotch, who works at the Water Filtration Plant, said that the unfair labor charges were dropped when Farms city representatives agreed to a compromise at the Labor Board session.

The settlement, they said, is that the city will provide for collective bargaining sessions, to be held on a limited basis during the day shift, without loss of pay to the members of the bargaining committee.

Charges Dropped
Based on this agreement, Brown and Kotch said, Local 522 dropped its charges against the Farms, and it is hopeful that both parties "will now engage in fruitful negotiations resulting in an equitable settlement."

The Farms city manager released a statement made an official part of the Labor Mediation Board records, to clarify the city's side of the settlement. It reads as follows:

Ask Electors To Approve Needed Funds

Improvement At Two Municipal Parks, Including The Necessity of Two Pools, Cited

With less than two weeks remaining before the November 8 election, Park officials are going all out in their campaign to bring to the public attention the necessity of the million-dollar bond issue, for improvements at the city's two municipal parks, including the need for two swimming pools.

Residents have been sent, or will be sent, a report submitted by the Park Planning Commission, and a resolution approved by the Park council advocating the improvements, and urging the people to vote in favor of the bond issue.

The city officials have been notified by a group of residents who are opposed to the proposed bond issue, and are against the two-pool concept, that they will fight against the proposal. However, the officials announced that they will carry the fight to the people, and hope that a majority will favor the proposition.

Pool 35 Years Old
In a statement from Mayor Matthew Patterson, it was revealed that the pool at the Waterfront Park is 35 years old, and that a containing wall has kept out lake water. Too, he pointed out, raw lake water has been pumped into the pool, and sufficient chlorine has been used to control harmful bacteria.

"The time has come when we must replace our beach-type pool with a modern filtered swimming pool facility," the mayor said. "This is not a project that has been developed overnight. Our Plan commission has worked diligently on our proposed recreational improvements for more than two years.

Two Pools Needed
"At this hearing, it was also proposed that two pools be constructed; one replacing the ob-

All-Male Jury Convicts Driver

George J. Martin, 45, of 448 Roland road, who had demanded a trial by jury, was found guilty of reckless driving by a panel of six male jurors following a hearing in the Park Municipal Court on Wednesday, October 19. The jury took only 15 minutes to reach a verdict, after listening to evidence for two hours.

Martin was arrested on September 14 by Park Patrolmen Richard Warren and Carl Keurten and ticketed for reckless driving. Martin, the officers said, was speeding 50 miles an hour in a 25-mile zone, made wide right turns and ignored three stop streets.

Arrested before Park Municipal Judge C. Joseph Belanger, on the date of the arrest, Martin stood mute and demanded a trial by jury.

At the trial, he was defended by Edward Lawrence, municipal judge of Madison Heights. Park City Attorney Richard Rohr represented the people of the state.

After the jury rendered its verdict, Judge Belanger fined Martin $50 and ordered him to pay court costs of $25.

On Monday, October 24, Martin announced he would appeal the sentence. He posted $100 cash bond, pending a circuit court hearing.

In another reckless driving case, nonjury Ernest Kemp, 19, of 5575 Lakepointe, Detroit, pled guilty to the charge, and was found guilty and fined $50. Grace McCracken, court clerk, said that 12 persons failed to appear in court to answer for traffic violations, and warrants for their arrest were signed by the judge.

Elm Disease Battle Costly To Michigan

Free Press Story Quotes State Official's Praise Of Pointe's Program

State and local governments have spent $1,556,000 in their fight against the Dutch Elm Disease during 1965, according to a report received from a survey conducted by the Department of Botany and Plant Pathology, Michigan State University.

The survey revealed that the disease was first discovered in Detroit in 1950, and since has spread to 56 of Michigan 83 counties, and within a few years is expected to be statewide. The cost of the wounding battle against the blight for 1966 has not yet been totaled.

The brochure from MSU disclosed that during 1964, five and one-quarter million dollars were expended by the State and its communities, and three and one-half million dollars by private individuals in an effort to control the disease.

Spreading North
Only the southern half of the Lower Peninsula was included in the survey since losses north of this area have been minor, to date. All municipalities, with 500 or more population, 41 county road commissions and many other agencies which are fighting the disease were surveyed, it was stated.

The control program is cooperative in nature, MSU revealed, in that individual communities are responsible for spraying and sanitation, while the Michigan Department of (Continued on Page 6)

Parade, Grid Game, Dance To Feature Homecoming at Grosse Pointe High School

Annual Celebration Scheduled For Saturday; Queen To Be Announced During Half-Time Ceremonies at Devils', Tractors' Tilt

The Grosse Pointe High School homecoming will be celebrated on Saturday, October 29, as the Grosse Pointe Blue Devils tackle the Fordson Tractors. A 15-foot parade, the crowning of a queen and a dance will highlight the events of the day.

The parade will start at 12:30 p.m. from the City Park. It will proceed on Jefferson to Cadieux, then turn right on Kercheval to the High School.

Lynn Thompson, secretary of the Student Council and chairman of the parade committee, commented that "The floats are progressing better this year than they did last year. There is more effort being put forth, and we had an earlier start this year."

Will Judge
The floats are being judged on originality of idea, materials used, and how well constructed they are. Besides the senior, junior and sophomore floats, about 12 club floats will enter the club float competition. Among the clubs which are entering floats are: American Youth Hostels, Camera Club, Future Business Leaders, Future Nurses, Future Teachers, Hi-Y, Key Club, Red Cross, and Y-Teens.

The varsity and junior varsity cheerleaders will walk ahead of the parade. The G.P.H.S. marching band will join the parade at Kercheval and Cadieux.

Park Police Pistol Team Captures GP News Trophy

The Grosse Pointe Police Pistol Shoot, held at Mt. Clemens Police Range on Wednesday, October 19, ended with the Park Police Pistol Team gaining possession of the NEWS Trophy for one year—by five points.

The departmental team that retains possession of the trophy for three consecutive years, retires the award permanently. The trophy is the fifth donated by the NEWS.

The Woods retired the last trophy in 1965, but they still have a long way to go to beat the Farms, who retired three in a row.

City Offers Amendment To Charter

Employees Retirement System Board Seeks Approval Of Voters At Polls On November 8

The voters of the City of Grosse Pointe will cast their ballots on November 8 on a charter amendment to the City Employees Retirement System. This amendment was placed on the ballot by the City Council following a report and recommendation from the Retirement System Board of Trustees.

The Board of Trustees had carefully studied the proposed changes over the past two years prior to recommending them to the City Council.

The complete text of the charter amendment was published in last week's Grosse Pointe News. The proposed amendment would accomplish a number of improvements to the Retirement System. They can be briefly described as follows:

Provide 10 annual cost-of-living pension increases of 1 percent for general employees and 2 percent for policemen and firemen.

Retirees face a difficult problem when living expenses rise each year while their income remains fixed. The proposed escalator provision would help in meeting this problem by providing annual city pension increases for a 10-year period.

General employees, (who are eligible for social security coverage which Congress increases periodically); would receive a 1 percent city pension increase each year for 10 years following retirement.

Hat Check Girl Prey of Thieves

Lou Panquin, a familiar figure On-The-Hill, (she's the hat check girl at the Bronze Door), arrived home after work one evening last week to discover that thieves had "checked" out with most of her personal belongings.

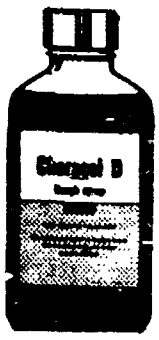

Her back window had been smashed in and thieves had taken all her clothes, three electric clocks, a hi-fi and all of her small appliances.

The hi-fi was later located by neighbor children completely smashed in a vacant lot. Lou was not covered by insurance.

Only the alumni can purchase tickets at the door for $2.50. G.P.H.S. students must buy their tickets in school prior to the dance.

Bad Accident

Lothrop, niece of the two injured women, said that her aunts were still in serious condition, and reported the doctors said they will have to remain in the hospital for many weeks.

According to a Shores police report, the women were waiting for the light to change at Lake Shore and Vernier, going north, at 12:27 a.m., when they were struck from behind by Stevens. Mrs. Ileythaler lost control of her vehicle, which jumped the curb opposite the municipal park and struck the pedestrian signal light. Both cars were not drivable, and had to be towed away.

According to witnesses, Stevens was driving at a high rate of speed, and was unable to stop before the collision.

He was placed under arrest by police officers and taken to the station, where he was advised of his rights. However, he admitted to having several beers in a Detroit bar, and said he was on his way home, when the accident occurred.

The vandals entered the office of Principal Vincent Peterson, dumping an ash tray and other objects on the floor. A fire hose rack in the hallway was also damaged, when the glass measuring 28 by 30 inches was smashed.

The amount of damage has not yet been determined, but investigation in the matter has been assigned to Woods Det. Sgt. Thomas Kane and Det. Gerald Kensora.

"The City of Grosse Pointe Farms reiterates its offer to consider the possibility of holding a negotiating session during the regular working day at such time as, in the opinion of the City, such session would appear to be likely to result in a settlement of the contract; provided, the services of the City Government can be, again in the City's opinion, fully rendered during such session; provided, however, that the City agrees to meet with the Union at 2:30 p.m., without loss of pay to committee members, not more than two times on dates mutually agreeable between the parties with the understanding that until the end of the regular working day bargaining committee members required to be at work to fully render City services will not participate in negotiations.

"Further meetings commencing at 2:30 p.m., without pay to the committee members, may be scheduled if the parties mutually agree to such meetings." Representing the Farms at the Labor Mediation Board hearing, besides Bremer, were City Clerk Peter Caputo, City Attorney George McKean and John O'Mears, an attorney hired by the city.

On the union team besides Brown and Kotch, were Richard Zweiback, special representative from the AFSCME, AFL-CIO; and William Webster, Local 522 committee member.

Park Pushes Bond Issue

solely pool at the Waterfront Park, and a similar facility be built at the Three Mile Drive Park, thereby equally dividing the recreational use of both parks, located in residential areas.

"The Three Mile Drive Park is comprised of 20 acres, and the Waterfront Park 9 1/2 acres. Today, the former is used by five percent of the residents, and the latter, by 95 percent. The construction of modern swimming pools at both parks, will not only equally utilize these properties, but it will also make the use of the pools easily programmed for residents of all ages."

The mayor also said that there are several points in the proposal as approved by the Plan Commission and the city council, and they are:

1. Two modern pools that citizens of all ages can, and want to use because many residents hesitate to use the present facility.

2. The average cost per family for the 100-day swimming season would be approximately 20 cents a day, which is a very nominal sum.

3. The construction of the pools and other improvements will enhance the property values of the entire city.

4. The on-street parking on the location of the Waterfront Park will be eliminated, as there will be adequate parking within the park boundaries. Too, adequate off-street parking will be constructed within the Three Mile Drive Park, so that no one will want to park on any of the surrounding streets.

5. Engineers are concentrating on landscaping and construction of sound barriers that will keep pool and other noises to a minimum. This will be done for the benefit of adjacent residential areas.

"It is my personal opinion," Mayor Patterson said, "that now is the time to make our proposed plans a reality, and I feel that this project is worthy of the people's careful consideration. On November 8, if the bond issue is approved, we hope to have our new swimming facilities completed and ready by June 1, 1967."

St. Paul High Yearbook Tops in National Surveys

Some of the chips still aren't in, but it appears that for the second straight year the Paulite yearbook at St. Paul High School, has scored major victories in every critical survey in the country.

In doubt only is the rating of Columbia Scholastic Press Association. Through the Columbia Press Convention is already history, the wire accounts of the Medalist winners is meager and inconclusive.

Top winners for the Medalist citation are chosen from among those books that place first in the critical rating. The only information that has filtered out, at the present time, is that the Paulite has placed first. Whether it is a first Medalist or not, only the detailed critical analysis will uncover.

National School Yearbook Association, however, gave the Paulite its highest award, A+, commenting: — "The thing that excited me was to read a book whose staff so obviously was aware of the beauty of the language and knew how to use words to communicate. In addition, the layout editors seemingly know how to use blocks of copy as one of the essential elements of a design. (Is it true that your staff reads a great deal?)"

In a spectacular reversal of its rating, the Catholic School Press Association upped the Paulite from First Honors to a Yearbook of Distinction. Clifford Helbert, CSFA director, explained the reversal in this fashion: — "Without a doubt, the 1966 Paulite deserves better than a First Honors rating. The critic who did the re-evaluation said, 'I wish I had been able to read this book. It is a far superior, much more adult and sophisticated piece of writing than any of the books I read. It should be a Yearbook of Distinction.' I agree."

Famed yearbook critic Lucille Kildow critiqued the Paulite for the National Scholastic Press Association. In adding the All-American gem to the Paulite crown and in giving the yearbook 255 points over and above the required points for top honors, Mrs. Kildow said:

— "I thoroughly enjoyed the '66 Paulite for it has many superior qualities. However, I feel impelled to select good writing as the strength that impressed me most."

The Paulite scored in two other critical services. One, the local Detroit Student Press Association originating at the University of Detroit, awarded the Paulite its Ignatius Commander, highest award this service offers, and called the Paulite a "terrific book."

Miss McGiffin, retired teacher and yearbook advisor who now acts as judge for several critical services, again critiqued the Paulite as part of her special in-service book analysis.

Miss McGiffin observed: — "Far and away the greatest triumph of the 1966 Paulite is its priceless copy. This judge ran out of adjectives to describe its superiority, had to keep writing "good," "excellent," over and over. To sum it all up, Paulite's copy is superb! . . . Best of all is the readable, interesting, factual specific body copy . . . Adding to the readability, that quality that won't let the reader skip a single copy block, is the delightful sparkle of humor, real humor, not adolescent silliness, not slapstick, but genuine adult humor that does not stop with the early teens!"

Co-editors of the 1966 Paulite were Tom Miller ('67) and Lillian Harris ('66). The advisor is Sister Marie Jude.

We improved our front seat to make you feel more comfortable about the people in the back seat.

Every two-door GM car this year comes with new front seat back latches. They automatically lock the seat back—so it can't fold forward until you want it to. And that's just the start of the safety features you'll find on the cars that carry our GM mark of excellence: the 1967 Chevrolets, Pontiacs, Oldsmobiles, Buicks and Cadillacs. There are also door locks designed to keep doors from being opened unintentionally. And extra padding on the instrument panel and seat backs, the added assurance of the GM-developed energy absorbing steering column and more. They all add up to something called safety—your safety. It's one of the things to look for in '67. And one of the things our mark means in '67. More than ever.

Runs into Street; Boy Hit by Truck

A six-year-old Farms boy suffered a compound fracture of the leg when he was hit by a panel truck at Lothrop and Chalfonte, on Monday, October 17.

The driver of the vehicle, Clay A. Matheny, 30, of 22922 Glenbrook, St. Clair Shores, called Farms police immediately after the accident.

Injured was Henry H. Hubbard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Hubbard III, of 407 Lothrop, who, the driver and witnesses said, darted out into the street and was knocked to the pavement. The truck wheels ran over the boy's leg.

Matheny said that he saw young Henry and two other boys standing on the sidewalk at Lothrop and Chalfonte. The boy ran out into the street and into the side of the truck. Matheny said he applied his brakes and tried to stop, but was unable to do so.

He said he stopped the vehicle and got out and saw the boy on the pavement, bleeding from the compound fracture, and removed him to the grass section between the curb and the sidewalk, and then after asking a woman motorist to watch the lad, Matheny said he went into the rectory of a nearby church and called police.

The woman, Mrs. Marian Monrad of 233 Beaupre, told police that she saw the three boys standing on the sidewalk as she drove by, but did not see the actual impact. She said she heard squealing tires, and heard a person yell, and in looking back she saw Matheny pick up the boy and place him on the grass. She went back to help, she said.

The two youngsters who were with the accident victim, verified Matheny's statement concerning what happened.

Mrs. Monrad, in a statement to police, said that Matheny was driving at normal speed and there was nothing to indicate that he was driving in a reckless or careless manner.

Matheny was released without charge after signing a written statement at the station.

Park Police Win Trophy

Woods — Sgt. Thomas Kane, and Patrolmen Martin Trombley, Donald Schmalz, Robert Lorenz and Bernard Kelly.

The shoot was the second in as many years that the Farms lost by only a few points. Last year, that team lost to the Woods by 13 marks. This is not too good for a team that had won nine consecutive annual matches, before buckling under to another team.

The annual event, between the Pointe Police Departments only, has stimulated interest in hand gun shooting in the area, with competition rising with each shoot. Many officers practice beyond that required by departmental regulations each month to improve their marksmanship.

In 1952, the Farms had the only available range, 50 feet, in the Pointe area. Now, all the Points have their own, with that at the Woods acknowledged as the best.

High shooter for the Wednesday event was Schmalz, who scored 270 out of a possible 300, with four bullseyes, and he was given custody of the George K. Cheatem Memorial Trophy for one year. This award is never retired, but goes to the high score each year.

Schmalz also took the trophies for high slow fire, 98, with three bullseyes, and the high timed fire, 98 points.

Van Tiem won the trophy for high rapid fire with his score of 87, and one bullseye.

Second place in slow fire went to Slusser for his 92 points with one bullseye; timed fire, McAllister, 30 points with two bullseyes, and rapid fire, MacEachern with 84 points and one bullseye.

Third place, slow fire, Lorenz with his 91 points and four bullseyes; timed fire, Van Tiem, 89 points and one bullseye; and Lorenz, again, in the rapid fire, with 80 points, no bullseyes.

Following the shoot, the participants retired to the Farms Boathouse at the Municipal Pier-Park, where a lunch was prepared and served by Farms Patrolman Francois Belanger, and the awards presented to the winners by Field, who originally started the shooting rivalry between the departments, and who was the chairman of refreshments.

By the time a man gets old enough to watch his step, he's too old to go anywhere.

Hospital Holds Fall Fire Drill

Cottage Hospital held its annual Fall fire prevention demonstration behind the "hospital on the hill" this week.

Roscoe Brown, chief engineer, demonstrated various types of fire extinguishers before groups of all the hospital's employees. Individual employees then took turns extinguishing small demonstration fires on the grounds.

A representative of a Detroit fire equipment supply firm stood by while a series of different types of fires were staged.

Commenting on the drill and demonstration, Ralph L. Wilgarde, administrator of Cottage said: — "While certainly not common, fires in hospitals are a reality we must always be prepared to handle, and our annual fire prevention program is a vital exercise for all employees. Maximum safety of patients and the community require not merely a vigilance but specific knowledge as well."

Employees are given fire prevention literature, and on the day of the actual demonstration, they saw a dramatic movie involving a hospital fire.

Mr. Wilgarde announced that a similar demonstration involving all hospital employees would be held this fall on the hospital's disaster program. It is expected that at that time a "mock" disaster would be held, and that members of the community would pose as "victims" being brought to the hospital en masse.

Children of Woods Church To Collect Unicef Funds

Around the Woods for Unicef... might well be the theme song for a determined band of Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church School young people on Friday night, October 28.

That's the night these Trick or Treaters with a mission will be collecting funds for Unicef. Both the 9:30 and 11 Junior departments from the Church School will participate.

Money collected goes to the to help children all over the world. This effort is part of an intensive nationwide campaign which will include special appeals by popular stars such as Julie Andrews, Andy Williams and Dan "Hoss Cartwright" Blocker.

Parents of 4th, 5th, or 6th graders in the Church School are asked to bring their youngsters, in costume, to the church by 6:30 the evening of Friday, October 28. Collecting, properly chaperoned, will take place in various neighborhoods of Grosse Pointe Woods. The activity has been cleared with City officials.

At 8 o'clock the young people will return to the church for games and refreshments. Prizes will be offered for the best and most original costumes. The party will end promptly at 9 p.m.

The cause is a worthy one where even pennies buy much good. For instance: 1c buys six large cups of milk; 10c, antibiotics to cure one child of trachoma; 25c, protects 20 children against tuberculosis; 50c, protects seven children from malaria for a whole year.

Residents are asked to help by welcoming the Unicef collectors in a generous manner. Members of the group may be identified by the official Unicef canisters they will carry.

The Rev. Harold W. Abram, Assistant Minister, and Mr. Walter A. Albrecht, Jr., Church School Superintendent, head up this work for Unicef.

Committees composed of both adults and teen-agers, are as follows: canvassing, Bruce Bockstanz and Thomas Clark, with Mark DeGaetano and Dale Johnson assisting; party activities, Mrs. Clifford Ashton and Mrs. Robert Knapp, with Linda Buck and Judy Meloy assisting; refreshments, Mrs. Mrs. Edward Chase and Mrs. George Goodheart, with Janice Nelson and Mary Gretchen Albrecht assisting; and publicity, Mrs. Malcolm Jolliff, with Kim Evans assisting.

WINDOWS MISSING

Mrs. George Shamo of 221 McMillan road, notified Farms police on Thursday, October 20, that when she went into her garage to get the storm windows for her house, she found them missing. She said nine were gone. The value is not known.

Austin to Stage Musical Review

Austin Prep School's musical review last year called "Take Time Out" was so eminently successful that Rev. John McLaughlin, O.S.A. the principal, has invited back its producer, Joe Hayes.

Mr. Hayes is a theatrical figure from the Broadway circuit with many years of experience in stage and television production. He currently works with large numbers of high school and college students in different cities, assisting them in putting on a professional type of Broadway review.

Mr. Hayes has chosen his cast this year and headed into rehearsals of a spectacular that will bring to the floor of the Austin gymnasium a total cast of 560 boys and girls.

The girls for the production were drawn from seven different schools in the area, St. Ambrose, Bishop Gallagher, Convent of the Sacred Heart, Our Lady Star of the Sea, St. Paul's on the Lake and Regina High School. All the boys in the cast are drawn from Austin and number 280 plus the addition of a sizeable crew of 60 stagehands.

The theme of the show entitled "It's the Most" is that of a round-the-world cruise with stops in Hawaii, the South Pacific, Paris, London, and other places. The two-act spectacular is comprised of a medley of seven or more numbers for each act, and will feature this year special lighting back-drop effects produced by the use of slide projectors casting images of the various stops on the tour.

These and other touches of Broadway professionalism will be ready for viewing on November 3-6. Tickets will be obtained from any Austin student through the school office, 19300 E. Warren avenue, or through any student involved in the production. The price of all tickets is $1.50.

Dad-Daughter Round-Up Scheduled At Marygrove

Colorful bandannas and 10-gallon hats will be "in" at Marygrove College Saturday, October 29, when more than 1,500 dads and daughters gather for their annual fall Round-Up. When the chuck wagon closes, the dads will be entertained in the Marygrove auditorium with a series of skits.

Climaxing the evening's festivities with a final fling, the proud papas have promised to prove to their daughters that the frug and monkey are tame compared to a rip-roaring square dance.

Clock-watchers never read success stories about themselves.

Elm Disease

During 1965, questionnaires were sent to 83 communities during the survey, with 76 returning reports, showing total expenditures as follows:

Breakdown of Costs
Spraying, $255,000; Sanitation, $1,172,000; other costs, $94,000. An estimate for the seven areas that did not submit a report, was set at $35,000, making the year's total $1,556,000.

In a story carried by the Detroit Free Press on Wednesday, October 16, by Stan Putnam, staff writer, it was described how the fight against the blight has been and is being carried on, by the communities in the Detroit Metropolitan Area.

Putnam stated in his story, that hope for a solution rises and falls, and that from Monroe to Grosse Pointe, and in Birmingham and Royal Oak, the only battle cry is: "Keep spraying and hoping."

The Free Press writer remarked on a statement made by Carl Dollhopf, regional assistant superintendent of the Department of Agriculture, in which Dollhopf is quoted as saying, in regards to the blight: "We are holding our own, and there is no want of research for a solution. The Grosse Pointes are an ideal example of how a good program works."

Putnam further quotes Dollhopf as saying that, of course, the type of program in each community depends on the circumstances.

Amendment

This proposal applies to employees retiring after June 30, 1966. It would cost an estimated $12,000 annually, based on present payrolls.

Remove residence requirement for board members.

The two employe representatives on the Retirement Board presently must live in the City. A large majority of the employes do not meet this requirement; therefore, many employes who are willing to serve on the Board are ineligible. The proposed amendment would alleviate this difficulty.

Provide that investments be made according to state investment act.

Recent State legislation has liberalized investment regulations for retirement systems. This legislation allows a portion of pension funds to be invested in securities with higher earnings.

Remove conditions discontinuing non-duty death pension upon remarriage.

Presently a widow receiving a pension following the non-duty death of her husband loses her pension if she remarries. The proposed amendment would eliminate this restriction upon widows.

Exclude employes working under 750 hours annually and limit military service credit to five years.

Employees who earn less than $400 annually are now excluded from the Retirement System. Experience shows that a dollar limitation becomes obsolete too quickly. Therefore, it is recommended that a 750-hour limitation be used instead. It has also been recommended that five years be established as a reasonable maximum service credit for compulsory military service periods.

Permit pension assignment for group life, hospital and medical service.

Many pensioners participate in some form of group insurance. It is, therefore, desirable and convenient to allow automatic premium deductions from pension checks. The proposed amendment authorizes these deductions when requested by a pensioner.

The Board of Trustees of the City Employee's Retirement System believes the proposed amendment would make significant and justifiable improvements to the Retirement System. The Board has unanimously endorsed the amendment and has urged City voters to give it their full support.

Children's Book Week Scheduled

The Grosse Pointe Public Library's Children's Department is prepared to observe National Children's Book Week, October 30-November 5. "Books Please" is the slogan for this special week's 48th year. Children's books for today's children will be promoted in each of the three libraries.

Mrs. Faith T. Murdoch, Director of School Libraries, Detroit Public Schools, will address school and public librarians, and all interested persons prior to Book Week. These individuals who have the responsibility of meeting children's and young people's book needs are invited to the Central Library on Wednesday, October 26, at 3:45 p.m.

Mrs. Murdoch, who received her Master of Library Science Degree from the University of Michigan, has had varied work experiences in the Detroit Public Schools. Her professional contributions include many on both the local and national level. She has served as chairman of the Detroit Children's Book Fair; moderator and program participant, Conference on School Library Service in the Great Cities, Washington, D.C., 1964; member, Newberry-Caldecott Committee, Children's Services Division, A.D.A.; chairman, Children's Services Division Pre-Conference, Cranbrook, 1965; chairman, Local Arrangements, American Association of School Librarians Conference, Detroit, 1965; program chairman, American Association of School Librarians N.E.A. Conference, Miami, Florida, 1966; second vice-president, American Association of School Librarians, 1966; charter member, Michigan Association of School Librarians.

Presently she is serving on the following committees: Library Service to the Disadvantaged, Children's Services Division, A.L.A.; Recruitment Committee, American Association of School Librarians; Implementation of Federal Programs, American Association of School Librarians.

Her memberships include such organizations as National Council of Teachers of English, Delta Kappa Gamma, and National Education Association, and she had contributed to professional library magazines.

You can count on it — men without enemies have no friends.

Memorial Center Offers Film of Orient

"Exotic Lands of the Orient" a color sound movie by Dr. Richard E. Peaz will be presented at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial on Monday, November 7, at 8 p.m.

This "Meet The Travellers" program is open to the Grosse Pointe public and guests free of charge. Hong Kong, Thailand, Singapore, India, and Egypt are included in this movie.

Hong Kong is the first stop in the travel itinerary. Hong Kong today consists of three areas, Hong Kong Island, Kowloon peninsula, and the New Territories farming district. In the main Kowloon shopping streets one sees stores with signs in Chinese characters selling wares from all over the world at bargain prices. The prices are the result of fierce competition, no customs duty, low wages, and low profit margins. A boat trip from the Kowloon public pier will allow the audience to view the floating city of 4000 junks near the China Sea. Guests will see lunch served at the famous Tai Pak floating restaurant at Aberdeen and take a ride in a Walla Walla water taxi.

On a visit to the Tiger Balm Gardens in Hong Kong one sees the bizarre and fantastic sculptures in the form of both legendary and fictional characters human and animal. Moving to the town of Kam Tin in the New Territories farming district the film will show a moat around old city walls.

Thailand is the next country visited. Bangkok, which means water flower village, is the capital. The exotic architecture adds a great deal to the charm of the country. Great spires are covered with pieces of multi-colored crockery.

The Temple of the Golden Buddha has a five and a half ton gold statue of Buddha. For 700 years this statue sat on a riverbank covered with a stucco cement. In 1955 the statue cracked. The gold idol was then discovered.

Bangkok's klongs are called the Venice of the far East. A motorized sampan will carry viewers on a market day trip to see all the activities. A visit is also made to a Thai silk factory where hand-made silk fabrics are woven in the ancient manner by young girls.

In Bangkok the Temple of the Dawn and the Royal palace grounds have to be seen to be believed. Everything is covered with pure gold leaf. The Demon stone gatekeepers around the palace are huge, fierce-looking fellows whose business is to keep the evil spirits away.

Singapore, the next stop, is an island 27 miles long and 14 miles wide. It is the fifth largest port in the world and has one of the finest harbors. The streets bubble with activities of the people who are 75 per cent Chinese.

The orchid section of the Singapore Botanical Gardens is filmed in magnificent color. The Tiger Balm Jade house contains one of the world's foremost collection of colorful jade statuary representing characters from ancient Chinese mythology.

From Singapore, the film moves to the fascinating Asian sub continent, India, and then on to Egypt for a full evening of travel entertainment.

Men Gardeners Make Awards

More than 100 members and guests attended the annual dinner of Men's Garden Club of Grosse Pointe, Thursday evening, Oct. 20, at Stouffers' Eastland. They heard an address on the Constitutional Convention of 1787 by William Gregory, of Gregory and Leonard, Detroit.

Annual awards were made to four members. The Harry G. Schorr Cup for the best garden was awarded to Hal Wick for 1966, the distinction this year being for a plot largely devoted to vegetables. The Vincent De Petris cup for the best garden chrysanthemums went to T. A. (Phil) DeMaire.

The club's own service award was won by A. Lynn Zwickey, editor of the monthly "Garden Pointers." Simon Schorer took the club's Horticultural award for garden achievements. Following the dinner some 35 floral pieces produced from members' gardens were distributed by lot among the women guests.

Three Slightly Hurt in Crash

Harvey Burr, 860 Shoreham avenue, was stopped in a left turn lane of Jefferson avenue waiting to turn onto Rivard on Friday, October 21, when his car was hit in the right rear by Hans Retra of 801 West Long Lake road, Bloomfield Hills.

Retra was issued a violation ticket by Officer Gerard DeBoever, for reckless driving.

Edward Myers of 28509 Ray avenue, St. Clair Shores was driving his Pontiac past the scene of the accident at about 45 to 50 mph when he swerved and lost control of his car and hit a tree. He received a ticket for reckless driving also. All three were taken to Bon Secours Hospital. They sustained minor injuries.

Democracy will be democracy only so long as public opinion is its guiding force.

Students Salute Msgr. McPhillips

By Ellen Kennedy
The traditional feastday celebration of Monsignor Frank J. McPhillips, pastor of St. Paul's on the Lake, was produced with a flair for the unexpected on October 4.

Students from both St. Paul's grade and high school gathered to entertain Msgr. McPhillips. Their teachers watched nervously from the wings shouting cues in stage whispers or sat in the audience, afraid to look. They needn't have been. The show was a rare blend of originality in form and fulfillment.

First graders were, of course, the show stoppers. They didn't need the rhymes Sister Sean Maureen and Sister Bridget Marie had so carefully prepared for the production; their candid expressions were worth far more. Under the direction of Mr. Eugene Person, the boys' choir presented a medley of songs from shows that included "Music Man." Their most original offering was a Swingle Singers-type rendition of a Mozart piece.

A unique animal chorus was presented by the senior students, directed by Sister Marie Dorothy. Sister's students in speech performed in a selection from James Thurber entitled "The Unicorn in the Garden."

The high school choral group under the direction of Sister Catherine Camille presented numbers that ranged from semi-classical to guitar-accompanied folk songs.

Forum to Hear Nedzi, Kennedy

Candidates for the 14th Congressional District, Democrat incumbent Lucien Nedzi and Republican William J. Kennedy will be guests at the Sunday evening Forum of the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church on October 30. National issues will be discussed.

Each candidate will speak on matters he considers of most importance in the campaign and on the national scene as well as answer questions raised by the audience. The meeting will begin at 8 o'clock and adjourn promptly at 9:30 for coffee and informal conversation. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Never refuse a good offer in the game of life—it may be the opportunity you seek.

Samuel J. Prete Fatally Stricken

By Joseph Stait
Services for prominent Grosse Pointe attorney Samuel J. Prete, founder of the Veterans of Strategic Services—the World War II cloak and dagger organization—were held Wednesday at the Sommers Funeral Home.

The noted lawyer-soldier-diplomat died in a Grosse Pointe Park city ambulance en route to Bon Secours Hospital after suffering a heart attack at his home, 807 Pemberton.

An American espionage agent for five years with the Office of Strategic Services (OSS), Mr. Prete formed the first official OSS veterans organization which retained him as its first commander in 1946.

In that same year he and Gen. William J. (Wild Bill) Donovan expanded the organization nationally with chapters throughout the United States. Donovan, a New York attorney, headed OSS operations during the second world war. Prete's Detroit post was awarded the organization's first charter as an honorary gesture for having founded the organization.

Mr. Prete was born June 27, 1907, in Casino, Italy, and was brought to this country as an infant by his parents. Because of his mastery of the Italian language and his legal background, he was enlisted in the spy network of the OSS.

After serving in the North African campaign, he was parachuted into Italy in advance of the Allied invasion. American headquarters of the Fifth Army was first to learn of Mussolini's surrender from Prete in 1943. He was on his way to Rome to seize Mussolini for the Allies, but arrived there moments after Col. Valerio had shot the dictator.

Following the war years, Mr. Prete dedicated himself to another kind of strategic crusade which he termed "accentuating the positive" among Americans of Italian descent.

As president of the Italian American Chamber of Commerce, he founded that organization's Distinguished Citizenship Award given annually to a person of Italian descent, distinguishing himself in American society.

Up to the time of his death, he spent much of his time quietly combating the links of the underworld mafia which, like his brother-in-law Detroit Chief of Detectives Vincent Piersante, earned him the reputation of protagonist against the underworld. His numerous efforts were rewarded often with many threats against his life.

A proud American of Italian descent, he would send hundreds of letters to Italian descendants urging their support to combat (Continued on Page 11)

Blue Devil Gridders Lose To Acorns of Royal Oak

By Dale Elchbauer

The Devils met Royal Oak Dondoro Friday night, played excellent ball, but were unable to score as they were defeated by the high-ranked Acorns 12-0.

Scoreless for better than one-half of the game, both teams ground out precious yardage, only to lose the ball continually to their opponent's defense.

In the first half, each team had the ball four times, each punted three times, and the only scoring threat came when the Devils came within seven yards of scoring before being stopped. An attempted field goal failed when the ball was fumbled, and the half ended at an impasse, with the score 0-0.

The third quarter continued as the previous two until late in the period when the Acorns battled their way to the Devil 47.

On the third down, the Acorn quarterback dropped back for a pass. Pursued by several Devil defenders, he was forced to drop back even farther, well into his own territory. Finally spotting his man, he fired the ball to his own receiver on the Devil 15, who had little trouble taking it in.

The extra point was blocked, and with 1:24 left in the third quarter, Royal Oak led 6-0.

Following the kickoff, the Devils began to move, but were halted when a short pass was intercepted on their own 43. The Acorns then fought down to the five in 10 plays before a sweep around the left end took it in with 7:50 left in the game. Again the Devil defensive team successfully blocked the extra point kick, and the score stood at 12-0.

Following the kickoff, the Devils lost the ball on a fumble at their own 42, stopped the Acorns on their 23, gave up the ball after four downs at their own 22, again stopped the Acorns, this time at their 17, and then lost the ball on an intercepted pass at their 45, at which point the game ended.

St. Lads Beats St. Paul Lakers

By Jim Brunson

The St. Paul Laker Football Team was defeated in the annual Homecoming game last Sunday by St. Ladislaus, 7-6.

There were no scores in the first quarter and the two teams exchanged punts several times as neither could sustain a drive.

The first play of the second quarter was a 69-yard pass from St. Paul quarterback Gordon Piche to Mark Smolenski for an apparent touchdown. But the play was called back for an illegal procedure penalty against the Lakers.

The Laker drive reached the 19-yard line before Phil Tomosyewski of St. Lads recovered a Laker fumble.

St. Ladislaus' quarterback Denis Tanona then marched his team up the field in seven plays with the score coming on an 8-yard run up the middle by half-back Mike Danielewicz. The extra point attempt was made good on a pass from Radyilowski to Paciorek.

On the following kickoff Rick Stevens took the ball on his own 39-yard line and went all the way down the left sideline to put 6 points on the scoreboard for St. Paul. Mark Smolenski rammed the middle on the extra point attempt but was stopped short. The halftime score was 7-6.

The only excitement in the second half came when St. Ladislaus, using halfback Mark Radyilowski on almost every play, drove from their own 44 to the St. Paul 3 before being stopped. A key play was made by St. Paul tackle Dan Sutherland when he knocked down Tanona's pass on the third down.

The Lakers took the ball but were unable to move on this and on a subsequent drive.

PARK BUYS JEEPS

At its meeting held on Monday, October 24, the Park council agreed to purchase two Jeeps from Doc's Motor Mart, Inc., for the total price of $3,604.56, the lowest of four bids submitted. The firm offered to give the city $634.88 each trade-in allowance for the Park's two 1959 Jeeps. The vehicles are used mostly in the winter time to plow snow from sidewalks.

GP Packers Win Two Tilts Again

By Jim Lynch

The Grosse Pointe Packers continued their winning ways again last Sunday, by downing the Roseville Chiefs in two of three games played at Kerby Field.

In the first game the Grosse Pointe Packers Freshman team romped over the Chiefs with an easy 14 to 7 win.

Kim Adler scored the Packers' first touchdown on a 40-yard run with the key block thrown by Richard Namish. Jeff Sieber made the P.A.T. Adler also scored the second touchdown, and Stieber converted the P.A.T. again.

Outstanding players in this game were Chris James, John O'Neal, Richard Brykalski, Pat Ryan, Gordon Steel, Keith Severson, Paul Kappaz, Terry Gates and Dave Krolik.

The Packers Junior Varsity swept aside the Roseville Chiefs Junior Varsity by winning 20 to 0, and still remaining undefeated this season.

Tom Ogle opened the scoring for the Packers with a 75-yard run and Ernie Ney scored the P.A.T. The Packers second touchdown was scored by John Mindelli and P.A.T. by Tom Towson. The final touchdown was scored by George Heidt, who intercepted a Roseville pass and scampered 25 yards to score.

The Junior Varsity victory was a fine team effort with Todd Hughes, Don Smolenski, David Kroll and Chris Lehmann turning in exceptional efforts.

The Packers Varsity, still looking for the first win of the season, lost another close game to the Roseville Varsity 7-0. The game was scoreless until the last five minutes of the fourth quarter when the Chiefs scored from the 1-yard line.

The Grosse Pointe Packers play their next game at St. Clair Shores on Sunday, October 30, against the Hornets.

Co-operation and common sense in human relations makes life worth living for everyone.

2 Farms Drivers Taken Off Road

The operators' licenses of two Farms motorists have been suspended, one for six months, and the other for a two-month period, it was disclosed in the latest report received from Secretary of State James M. Hare in Lansing.

Deprived of his driving privileges for six months was William J. Bingham III, of 76 Muskoka, who is forbidden to drive a motor vehicle from September 19, 1966 through March 19, 1967, because of an unsatisfactory driving record.

Also because of an unsatisfactory driving record, Richard F. Huvacre of 459 Belanger, was taken off the road from September 22 through November 21. Hare's report, dated September 30, disclosed that during that week, the drivers' licenses of 540 Michigan motorists were suspended, and those of 47 were revoked by his department.

Dodge Boosting Driver Education

Grosse Pointe High School's driver education department will receive three new 1967 Dodge Coronets from Riverview Dodge. These cars are among the more than 4,000 fully-equipped automobiles supplied by Dodge dealers at no cost to more than 2,000 high schools throughout the country.

Byron Nichols, General Manager, Dodge Division, called the dealer's participation in the safety program "one of the best investments ever made in highway safety."

"As more and more of our young people reach driving age, the all-out cooperation of the automobile industry and its dealers is needed to supply the growing need for Driver Education vehicles. We and our dealers believe that an improved and expanded program of driver education for high school students will greatly reduce their high accident rates. All evidence available indicates that a young driver will acquire better driving attitudes, better driving habits, and better driving skills if he learns to drive in new cars with a specially-qualified teacher in his high school," Nichols said.

The new Dodges will be special models fully-equipped with all standard safety features.

Member of the Alma College Campus Day Queen's Court is SUSANNE MITCHELL, a 1963 Grosse Pointe High School graduate, daughter of THE REVEREND and MRS. RICHARD W. MITCHELL, of McKinley place.

School to Host Benefit Concert

Grosse Pointe University School will be host to a benefit concert presented by the Detroit Alumnae Chapter of the Mu Phi Epsilon music sorority. The concert will be presented in the large auditorium at 8 p.m.; Friday, October 28.

Among the performing artists are: Alice Lungenhausen, harpichordist, recently returned from Europe; Fontaine Zipt, pianist, who will perform works by Villa-Lobos and by Detroit composer, Ruth Wiley; and a trio made up of Beverly Gartin, flutist; Ruth Kiser, pianist; and Judith Davis, violinist.

In addition to the instrumental part of the program, a special octette of regional artists will perform a variety of choral music.

Following the performance, an afterglow will be sponsored by members of the sorority in order to provide an opportunity for guests to meet the artists of the evening.

Navy to Honor HS Journalists

High school journalist James Couillard of 597 Heather lane, has been selected to represent Grosse Pointe High School for the sixth annual "Day-in-the-Navy" program to be held on November 4 and 5.

Sponsored by the Detroit Naval Reserve Public Affairs Unit and the Detroit and Dearborn Navy League organizations, the Navy weekend is held to give area youths a real taste of life in the naval service. Based on their first hand experience they will write stories on service opportunities for their school publications.

According to Commander Jay DeEulis, commanding officer of the Public Affairs Unit, about 60 young men will take part in the program which includes a ship ride aboard the USS Amherst, a taste of barracks life and Navy cooking at the Grosse Ile Naval Air Station, a flight aboard a Navy aircraft, career briefings and a press conference at which the reporters will question Navy, Marine and Selective Service representatives.

In previous years, DeEulis said, similar groups of high school journalists were guests of the Naval Reserve unit in programs which included the firing of dummy depth charges in Lake Erie from the USS Amherst, tours of a submarine berthed at Broadhead Naval Reserve Training Center and air-sea rescue demonstrations.

District Teens Form GOP Club

Teen Age Republicans on the east side aren't letting any grass grow under their feet during this campaign. They've organized a Teen-Age-Republican Citizens 14th District club and have elected Gary Klueck of 14440 Hazelridge as chairman.

Gary says that the "TAR-C 14" which holds meetings every other Monday at GOP Campaign Headquarters at 10711 Whittier already has 30 members campaigning for all Republican candidates on the east side.

Some members like vice chairman Marion Burman of 11420 Lakepointe are passing out literature at shopping centers and heavy traffic areas as well as doing door-to-door canvassing. Others like corresponding secretary Nancy Teague of 963 Hampton in Grosse Pointe Woods and recording secretary Lawrie Owens of 1041 Blairmoor Court, also in the Woods, are doing office work at the campaign headquarters.

Treasurer, membership and PR chairman is Bob Meola of 277 McMillan road in the Farms and board member at large is Barb Broman of 20400 Lennon in Harper Woods.

The group is also busily helping out at GOP meetings, planning a post-election party and organizing to assist at future party conventions.

Senior party advisors to the new group are Mrs. Karen Stebner of 14524 Evanston in Detroit, and David Cook of 1424 Lakepointe.

All east side teenagers are welcome to join the new club. For information call Bob Meola at TV 5-9416.

Family Movies Set for Nov. 4

The second program of the 1966-1967 Family Film Night Series will be presented Friday, November 4, at 6:30 and 7:30 o'clock in the Central Library Exhibition Room.

Family Film Nights are held on the first Friday night in each month, October through April. Families are urged to attend these showings as a group. Each program has been designed to include something of interest and enrichment for boys and girls as well as adults.

Because of the tremendous response to the October program the library is offering two showings thus alleviating crowding in the Exhibition Room.

The program for November 4, follows: SPARKY, THE COLT (10 min. color). The adventures of a wobbly little colt who learns to trot across the fields and finally makes friends with his little master.

CIRCUS DAY (21 min. color). A complete story of the circus showing the arrival of the circus train unloading at the station — the journey to the lot — the teamwork of putting up the Big Top. People through the midway and view the wonders of the side show.

LEGEND OF JOHNNY APPEASED (16 min. color). Johnny Appeased, legendary hero of the American frontier, who roamed the country helping pioneers by planting apple seeds for them and establishing orchards — a familiar figure in his ragged dress and happy ways, he wandered forty years in this work, endearing himself to the people. Adults, and children accompanied by adults are cordially invited. Come early for a good seat.

The new 1966-67 Audio Visual Catalog is ready, describing details of the new and expanded services available including the new 8mm film collection for audio-visual needs.

Vandals Are Imbeciles

The nauseating news of the vandalism perpetrated at Parcels Junior High School last weekend recalls that it was just such misguided maliciousness that gave birth to the annual community Halloween parties which are given for all the youth of the Pointe.

Back in 1939 the Halloween season was marked by an outbreak of destruction carried out by imbeciles who took this method of working off their excess energy. Many windows were broken in residences and stores, and many sites of new construction were illuminated by fires as new building material was consumed in flames started by the youngsters. The police and firemen were kept on the run and so great was the damage that a group of business and civic leaders got together to devise some method to insure against a repetition of such conduct. This party idea was spawned by fear and the desire to preserve property more than by any altruistic impulse to entertain the children.

In all the years since, many organizations, commercial concerns, individuals and the municipalities themselves, have contributed to the fund which makes these parties possible. Of course they serve a purpose other than to keep potential hellions occupied. The great majority of the Pointe's youth are law-abiding and completely worthy of anything we can do to help them be normal, responsible citizens. The celebrations staged in the four school buildings keep thousands off the street and undoubtedly cut the accident rate as well as the amount of senseless destruction.

There is no valid reason for vandalism anywhere, and certainly not in this most favored community. Where the finest facilities and programs are provided, it is incredible that anyone would choose instead, to pursue a course of stupid, vicious action. Yet, a great deal of this sort of thing goes on. We hope the police will redouble their efforts to see that such practices are brought to a complete halt. Prosecution of those caught should be pushed to the full extent of the law. And the parents of the culprits, (whose failures in the proper rearing of their children are so clearly reflected in these acts), should be required to make full financial restitution for the damage created.

Letters to the Editor

To The Editor: Now hear this! I'm mad. The mail is stacked up to the rafters and extra help is needed immediately, but Oh, No—don't give those poor underpaid mailmen a chance at the extra money. They have no rights—just walk through the rain, sleet, snow, and boiling heat. They fight off barking, snarling dogs, crabby people who insinuate they are holding out their checks on them, and carrying back to the Post Office the numerous packages and letters people hand to them, telling them to mail them, as they're too busy.

Oh yes, you can yell your heads off, the mail is slow. Well let's see you take junk mail up to door after door, wishing you could throw it in a garbage can, because people complain about putting it in their mail box. In the winter there is always, from the first snow on, a sore and bruised foot, ankle, knee, arm, hand or elbow from slipping on the icy shoveled sidewalks and steps, of which you are all guilty of not taking care of at one time or another.

Yes, these mailmen receive a take home pay of $100 a week or less, while many unskilled factory workers make at least $200 a week and they don't have to take this constant guff. The mailman is more than willing to work the overtime, to make more money to keep up with the food prices and clothing prices, for their families sakes. So let's clean up this Post Office mess in more ways than one.

A Mailman's Devoted Wife

Grosse Pointe High School graduate GEORGE ARDNER, son of MR. and MRS. EDWARD ARDNER, of Lochmoor boulevard, has enrolled as a freshman at the University of Tampa, Tampa, Fla.

Dear Sirs: I want to thank you for the article in your October 20 issue concerning the Grosse Pointe Halloween parties. However, the band that is playing in the high school cafeteria is not named the "Blues." The band is a Chicago-style blues band called "The Great Cosmic Expanding." It consists of organ, bass, drums, two guitars, and a singer who plays the harp (harmonica). Besides playing funky blues they play psychedelic and modern music. Cordially yours, Chuck Miller

Students See Story Ballets

"On the Magic Merry-Go-Round" was the theme for a series of story ballets presented to Detroit area students by a troupe of performers direct from New York City.

The October 18 performance was scheduled for its direct appeal to the "younger set," so the first and second grade pupils of St. Paul School attended this production.

Accompanied by their teachers, Sister Sean Martin and Miss Callan, second grade; Sister Sean Maureen and Sister Bridget Marie, first grade, and eight room mothers, the tiny troupe boarded a chartered bus and headed for the Detroit Institute of Arts, and a major cultural experience.

For further details, dramatization of reactions, amateur reproduction of ballet steps, even drawings of the performance, feel free to contact any one of the 153 theater goers from St. Paul's "younger set."

Member of the Michigan State University Homecoming Court is DEBORAH SOMES, MSU junior, of Duval road.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

"Wuns upon a tiem littl red hen lvd in a barn with her fiev chicks, a pig, a cat and a duck maed thaeir hoem in the saem barn." No, this is not a type-setter's nightmare, nor have I forgotten how to spell. I have approximated as closely as possible, on a typewriter, the opening few sentences of the well-known LITTLE RED HEN using the I.T.A.

What is the I.T.A.? Not a trade union. Not a New York subway. It stands for the Initial Teaching Alphabet (sometimes referred to as I/T/A) which has caused quite a revolution in the reading habits and ability of our small fry. This 44-letter transitional alphabet was the brain-child of Sir James Pitman, grandson of Sir Isaac Pitman, inventor of a well-known system of shorthand. It was introduced into the United States in 1963, after a spectacular success in England over a period of three years.

Today, over 500,000 children are being taught this method. By adding letters to take care of the phonetic irregularities of the traditional alphabet, it is claimed that this new method eases the way for children who, in beginning reading, need a consistent set of sound symbols. Sometime during the first grade, the children drop these added symbols one by one, and revert back to traditional orthography.

The first major demonstration of this new method in the United States started in the fall of 1963 in Bethlehem, Penn., under a Ford Foundation grant to Lehigh University. Readers and workbooks, written especially for this demonstration by Dr. Albert J. Mazurkiewicz, the project director, were introduced, using the new I/T/A alphabet. At the end of the first year of experimentation, students taught by this new method seemed to show distinct superiority in reading, spelling and comprehension. Librarians report that first grade I/T/A youngsters troop into libraries demanding books written on a higher level—possibly fourth or fifth grade.

In addition, I/T/A was also used with primary remedial students, adult illiterates, with deaf children, and with certain children in special education, such as the brain-damaged, retarded and emotionally disturbed.

We have seen special alphabets and simplified spelling used before. Melvil Dewey, originator of the Dewey decimal system, advocated such an innovation. Even more famous was George Bernard Shaw. He considered our present 26-letter Roman alphabet unsatisfactory because it could not express certain sounds in the English language without combining vowels or using digraphs. He felt that a "fit British alphabet" should be composed of no fewer than 40 letters, each capable of being written with one stroke, like a shorthand symbol.

Getting back to I/T/A. In the Grosse Pointe Public School System the prime mover behind this new method has been Helen Zissis who, last year, introduced this 44-letter alphabet in the first grade classroom at Ferry School. In an effort to aid this new phonemic method, the Grosse Pointe Public Library, this summer, purchased a number of I/T/A books to be used by the youngsters in this new reading program. Books such as C. H. Bishop's THE FIVE CHINESE BROTHERS, Polly Cameron's "I CAN'T" SAID THE ANT, Gene Darby's WHAT IS A FROG? Elizabeth Guilfoile's NOBODY LISTENS TO ANDREW, Seylie Joslin's WHAT DO YOU SAY, DEAR? Lois Lenski's PAPA SMALL, A. A. Milne's WINNIE-THE-POOH, H. A. Rey's CURIOUS GEORGE and Herman Schneider's HOW BIG IS BIG? I've given you the spelling in the regulation way. With the use of the I/T/A alphabet, you would get such combinations as: NOBODY LISTENS TW ANDRW, WHOT HAPPEND WHEN JACK AND DAESY TRIED TW FWL THE TWTH FAERIZ, and THE CUERIUS COU.

We hope that the children who are participating in this new reading method will come in and use our I/T/A books. We like to think we are instrumental in furthering a fine progressive step in education.

Know Your Schools

By J. Harold Husband, Acting Superintendent The Grosse Pointe Public School System

Readers of The Grosse Pointe News are reminded of the opportunity to have their questions on the community's public schools answered in this weekly column. Interested residents are urged to send their questions to the editor of this paper or to the Superintendent of Schools at 389 St. Clair Avenue. This week's query concerns the problems of staffing.

Question: I read a great deal about a shortage of teachers. Were there unfilled positions in The Grosse Pointe Public School System when school began in September?

ANSWER: When classes began on September 8 the school system had three unfilled positions. These included a psychologist, a fourth grade teacher, and a school librarian. At the present time all but the assignment as psychologist are filled. With the expansion of auxiliary services under Public Act 343, special education personnel is in short supply.

And, although the recruiting season does not begin in earnest for the 1967-1968 year until February, several positions have developed since school began. For example, unexpectedly large enrollments at the junior high level have created a demand for "helping teachers" in mathematics and science.

To fill the positions in question we seek the same qualifications required of all our teachers—a bachelor's degree, a teaching certificate valid for the assignment. Experienced teachers will be given preference for employment. However, in addition, to work as a "helping teacher" will require great flexibility and maturity because the duties of the position may range from regular classroom teaching to the sharing of various instructional responsibilities with other staff members. The person may also be required to work occasionally in departments other than the one to which he is regularly assigned.

Substitute teachers are needed currently in certain areas. We have enough people available to fill normal substitute needs in many areas of instruction, but there is a shortage of well-qualified men available for assignment in industrial arts, physical education, mathematics and science.

Anyone wishing to apply for the positions in question or one who wants more information on the professional staff is urged to contact Lawrence F. Kennedy, Assistant Superintendent-Professional Personnel.

EDGAR BILLUPS, of Cadieux road, organist at Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, is among seven guest artists scheduled to appear in Mode Locale's 1966-67 concert series at Mariners' Church in East Jefferson avenue, Detroit. Mr. Billups will perform March 12. The series opens this Sunday, October 30, at 8:15 o'clock, with a concert given by Central Methodist Church organist DR. FRED MARRIOTT.

From Another Pointe of View

Hurry, hurry, hurry! Today's the LAST DAY of the Planned Parenthood Christmas Mart, and we know you wouldn't want to miss THAT!

So run right down to Detroit's Veterans Memorial Building, spend the afternoon browsing and buying at 30 "visiting" specialty shops, stop for lunch at the "Top of the Mart."

And be sure to note the 1966 Mart's New Look, created by Mrs. J. Lawrence Buell, III, and Mrs. Samuel N. Irwin. Two large rooms, (one "The Red" and one "The Green"), as well as hallways are being used, and each shop has its own individual sign designed with its own "permanent" location in mind.

Mrs. Buell, incidentally, built individual dressing room for several shops, and worked with famous designer Peter Duenas to create a model for a huge tree of multi-colored plexiglass, which was to rotate with lights showing the name and location of each shop. It would have been fabulous . . . but the materials' cost alone, (Mrs. Buell was to have supplied the labor gratis), would have been prohibitive this year. Perhaps next year . . .

And while we're on the subject of Planned Parenthood . . . Mrs. John A. Herrmann, of Kenwood court, is just back from New York City and the annual meeting of Planned Parenthood-World Population.

She reports that Robert Kanzler, chairman of the Detroit Planned Parenthood League, has been elected to the National Board.

Mrs. Herrmann, herself elected to the Mideast Region Executive Committee, found every minute of the five-day session, including business meetings, workshops, symposiums and a large reception at the United Nations, fascinating, was especially intrigued by speakers McGeorge Bundy and Dr. Margaret Mead . . .

Garden Clubbers Keeping Busy

This week on Tuesday, October 25, members of the four Grosse Pointe Branches of Woman's National Farm and Garden Association journeyed to Bloomfield Hills for the fall meeting of the Michigan Division. The meeting, forums and luncheon were held at Kingsley Inn, with several hundred in attendance.

Next week on Wednesday, November 2, the annual IFYE benefit tea will be held at the Flint home of Mrs. Arthur Summerfield. Mr. Summerfield was Postmaster General during Eisenhower's Administration.

IFYE stands for International Farm Youth Exchange, a 4H club program of exchange between this country and those around the world, with 67 nations participating. In Michigan, some 400 farm families have been hosts to the foreign students.

As this benefit tea makes the program possible, the International aspect is stressed. The consultants here in Detroit will be guests of honor.

From Grosse Pointe many women will be driving Flintward. Among them are Mrs. Lynn McNaughton, honorary national president of the organization, and Mrs. Clarence E. Maguire, recent president of the 94-Branch Michigan Division.

She, with Mrs. Benjamin Young, Mrs. James B. Ogden and Mrs. Crawford Frost will join Mrs. James A. Lafer, president of the Grosse Pointe Branch, Mrs. Louis Blauman, president of the Grand Marais Branch, Miss W. W. Eliason, president of the Grosse Pointe Shores group, and Mrs. Frederick Slocum, of the Windmill Pointe Branch.

Last year, the tea was given at the home of Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson in Rochester. One thousand attended, (incidentally, Mrs. Wilson, having retired as national president, was made recently an honorary member of the Michigan Division).

The year before, Mrs. Harlan Hatcher opened her Ann Arbor home for the party.

New Musicians To Be Featured

The musical community of Grosse Pointe has a special interest in the 1966 Annual Artist Concert of the Music Study Club, to be held at the Scottish Rite Cathedral Sunday, November 27, at 8:30 o'clock.

As in past years, the young artists to be featured are those who are on the threshold of careers national in scope: Violinist Richard Luby, son of Dr. Robert Luby, Divisional Director of Health Education in the Detroit Public Schools, and Emanuel Ax, 17-year-old Polish-born pianist from New York.

The first, a pupil of Galamian, is in his third year at Curtis, and the second, a pupil of Mieczyslaw Munz, is on a full scholarship at Columbia and Juilliard.

Pointe U. of M. Club Sets Dinner Meeting

Speaker for the Thursday, November 3, annual dinner of the University of Michigan Club of Grosse Pointe will be Dr. Richard L. Cutler, U. of M. vice-president for Student Affairs.

His talk on the importance of quality education today is titled: "The Elite University and the Mass Society."

Scene of the 7 o'clock dinner will be the Fries Auditorium of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

"We are happy to welcome all Grosse Pointe area alumni and parents of students presently at the University to this dinner," says Albert J. Klick, newly-elected president of the local club. "Our speaker's close association with students affairs should provide graduates with an authentic picture of the campus scene today."

Dr. Cutler, who received his Masters and Doctors degrees in Psychology from the University of Michigan, was appointed to his present position two years ago, after wide experience as both a psychology professor and a practicing clinical psychologist. He has been consultant for both the Michigan Society for Mental Health and a comparable Society in Berkeley, Calif.

Other posts include Mental Health Consultant for the public schools of Ecorse and Livonia. He served as an officer of the Michigan Association for Emotionally Disturbed Children and is the current president of the Michigan Psychological Association.

"There are many exciting developments at the University of Michigan today," says Dr. Cutler. With 29,000 students on campus and 40 per cent of seniors returning for graduate study, he feels there is a tremendous challenge to the State and to the school to continue the traditionally high standard of quality education the University has maintained for nearly 150 years.

Dinner tickets may be obtained from chairman of the evening Miss Bernice Moore, 884-6689, President Klock or members of the Club's Board of Governors.

New Board members this year are Edward P. Barthel, Dr. Walter Bertschinger, Carol Penney, E. Richard Holtz, John W. MacKay, Frances Natushko, Margot Ness and Joseph Redfield.

GROSSE POINTE

REAL ESTATE

in the GROSSE POINTE and INDIAN VILLAGE AREAS

HUGH CHALMERS
TU 4-4140
Evenings, TU 2-2557

HAUNTINGLY charming, this pumpkin colored house comes appropriately on the market this week. Three bedrooms bedrooms and a large, extra first floor room for all your little hobgoblins. The new kitchen, huge dining room, and cozy living room collaborate beautifully to win you over... come see for yourself, we wouldn't soft soap you.

BEWITCHED you'll be when you treat your eyes to this new offering in the Shores. No tricks with this one, just a spacious ranch house with three large bedrooms and two and one-half baths. There are fireplaces in both the family and living rooms, and the kitchen has built-ins and plenty of eating area. The two-car garage opens into the family room, which is also accessible to the dining room and kitchen. We're ready to broom this one out at $55,000. If you let us make an appointment we're sure you'll be swept away.

ALSO IN our bag of goodies is a sweet colonial with three tremendous bedrooms and two baths up. The first floor surprises you with a large den which could serve as a fourth bedroom, because of the full bath just a step away. The large family room is complete with bar and fireplace, and so convenient to the modern kitchen. The house rests comfortably on a lot 200x120, and when we mention that the price has been reduced to $53,500, this might tip you over... and that's no rubbish.

BEHIND the mask of this freshly painted colonial you'll find an equally charming interior, which "goes" with almost any decor. Room sizes run from large to gigantic, and this includes the newly done over kitchen. Two extra rooms on the first floor, and four bedrooms upstairs. The master even has its own fireplace. The owner is preparing to move and hopes the house will likewise.

IN THE Farms is this "little house" with large rooms. The large living room with its natural fireplace leads to a well proportioned porch which is screened and covered. Only two bedrooms, but there are two bathrooms and a paneled den. All this is a convenient one story house.

FOUR FLOORS of comfortable living in this town house terrace located on Cranford lane. A basement room has been done over so well that it conveys the impression that you are in the family room. The large living room has a natural fireplace, and there is a separate dining room off the center hall. One bath serves the second floor and there is another bedroom and bath on the third floor. We should have mentioned that there is a lavatory on the first floor and that the kitchen has been updated.

IF YOUR'S IS the larger family which requires as many as six second floor bedrooms and three baths up, this could be the place. The vestibule opens into a large entrance hall from which lead the living room, dining room and large den. Plenty of space in the kitchen and a separate dining room for the kids. On Lincoln Road, just a skip to the high school and Fisher Road shopping.

NOT JUST ANOTHER three bedroom colonial with one and a half baths, but this one on Littlestone shows far better than most offered today. The lot is 45 by 154 and still affords good play area. Even with its two car garage. Two of the three bedrooms will take twin beds, the smallest is paneled so it could be used as a den or for sleeping.

who, where and whatnot

by ubouzit

Sometimes, you run across something . . . that makes you feel good all over. When "Kim" Kimbrough brought Iranian exchange student Hossein Gharahjanloo, a classmate at Northwestern Michigan University, home last year for spring vacation, his parents, the Richard M. Kimbroughs, were delighted by their delightful guest . . .

Hossein spent hours talking with the Kimbrough family and their friends, describing his own home, telling how he arrived in the United States able to speak only the most rudimentary English, how, after an orientation session at a Florida college, he determined to go to Northwestern Michigan because no other Iranians were enrolled there and he'd be literally FORCED to adapt himself to American life and language . . . Mrs. Kimbrough, knowing as a mother how anxious Hossein's parents must be for news of their son, wrote the Gharahjanloos, telling them how much she had enjoyed Hossein's visit, how well he was doing, what an excellent impression he was making in America . . . She received a reply, but it was difficult to decipher. Then, just a short while ago, she received a second letter from Iran, from Peace Corps Volunteer Barkley Moore. Reading it made us "feel good all over"—so we thought we'd share it with our readers:

Dear Mrs. Kimbrough:

I am an American Peace Corps Volunteer who has been serving in the Turkoman area of Iran for the past two years and am now beginning a second two-year term. Mr. and Mrs. Gharahjanloo received your kind letter in the latter part of March. Mr. Gharahjanloo asked the Chief of Police in Gonbad, (the political, economic and educational center of this area), to translate your letter and to reply in his behalf. But he is fearful that, perhaps, the Chief's English was not adequate and/or you had not received his letter. So he has asked me to write in his behalf.

He was so grateful for your writing, for your thoughtfulness — and especially appreciative of your kindness to his son and your taking him into your home last spring as one of your family. He is happy that his son is near good people and has such a good friend as your son Kim.

It is difficult to express — it would take pages if I wrote all they have said — their happiness in the kind things you wrote concerning their son. Hossein is the first boy ever to go from Minoodash to a foreign country to study — though a few boys are now overseas or in Europe from Gonbad, which is about 15 miles from here. So his parents and his ten brothers and sisters are very proud of him. Hossein's father is a rather wealthy man for this area, as you might have imagined from the fact that he is able to send his son to America. He has given land in this area to build three schools. The Iranian family is an extremely close-knit one, and this one is no exception. So all of them think very much of Hossein each day—so many miles away; indeed, a world away. So, they are very grateful to you and to everyone else who has been so kind to Hossein.

The father has said to me, "Please, Mr. Moore, write very sweetly. I do not know English to express what is in my heart. Write sweetly!" Every member of the family says to each of you in the Kimbrough household, including the woolly dog, "Salem aleikum" or "Peace be unto you," which is the Moslem greeting. Accompanying their greeting is their prayers. The father has just said that he was willing to see his son go so far from him only because of his belief in the greatness and the goodness of the American people—and his desire for his son to get a fine education and then to return to help his people as they struggle to become a progressive modern nation.

With the family's greeting, I send my own. Should you happen to come to Iran—and the Gharahjanloos would be highly honored to have you as guests—I'll take you back into the mountain villages near here on my horse! I go back nearly 20 miles horseback—about a six-hour journey—as we are building the first school for an area of about 40 villages. I was the first American ever to live in this area and I have gotten so busy that I have signed up for another two years, which doesn't happen too often. I was born in Detroit, and most of my family is there, though I was reared in Kentucky. I went home three months ago to be with my family and was in Detroit several days. I wish I had known of you at that time. Maybe I'll get back to the States and my final year of law school in two years . . .

So, now, you have an invitation to come to Iran and for a horseback ride! Are you taking the next plane?

Again—thank you from the Gharahjanloos.

Sincerely from the Gharahjanloo Family,
PCV Barkley Moore

Pointer of Interest

GEORGE N. MONRO, III, OF WOODLAND PLACE

By Janet Mueller

George Monro, III, makes a lot of notes. His desk at the main office of Manufacturers National Bank, (he's vice-president, Administration there); is dotted with small scraps of paper, reminders to call here, check there, see to this problem, attend to that one.

Lately, a goodly proportion of his notes, aside from business, have pertained to the 1966 United Foundation Torch Drive.

George is UF 1966 Advance Gifts committee chairman, one of UF general chairman Ben D. Mills' top-echelon co-chairmen.

The Advance Gifts committee is composed of 200 volunteers who have the job of soliciting special prospects, individuals, foundations and corporations, in advance of the general campaign. Its goal is $1,207,675—and Mr. Monro was VERY pleased to report, at an October 13 committee luncheon at the Sheraton Cadillac Hotel, just five days before the '66 UF campaign officially began, that 88.7 per cent of the Advance Gifts goal had been reached.

The current goal figure is 93.15 per cent.

Pleased With Increases

"This is a bit higher than we normally are at the end of the month, (October)," he notes, with obvious pleasure. "The increases so far have been great, and we're delighted, but we won't know until the end of December just how well we've done."

"Almost all our 'contact' work is completed, but in some cases we have to wait for donations. There are certain foundations, for example, which we know we can count on, but whose boards must formally approve our requests for funds; some of these foundation board meetings aren't scheduled until the end of November."

Thus the Advance Gifts committee, although its "pre-campaign" campaign begins a month before the 23-day Torch Drive proper, (its "official" dates this year were September 13 to October 13), actually continues its work during and well after the Drive itself.

George Monro started making and taking '66 UF campaign notes last spring. Since his first committee meeting March 22, the Drive has been "always in my mind—I wouldn't know how many actual 'hours' I've spent on it, but I do know that it takes TIME!"

Doesn't Begrudge Time

But it's time he doesn't begrudge. George, a dedicated and enthusiastic United Foundation supporter, claims, "No other city in the country does a better Torch Drive job; no other city presents such a highly organized campaign . . ."

George's UF Master Plan is contained in his orange '66 Torch Drive folder, bulging with notes, letters and lists, including a comprehensive chart of the Drive's High Command.

A "First Row" captain, directly under Mr. Mills, Mr. Monro has several "lieutenants" of his own, volunteer workers who reported directly to him, (he, in turn, consolidates their reports and presents the results of his consolidation to Mr. Mills—it all does sound rather like an actual battle campaign, doesn't it?)

George's Advanced Gift Men's Division co-chairmen are Ralph E. Hunt and Allan Shelden, III, whose five chief Division assistants are Gaylord W. Gillis, Jr., Malcolm S. Lowenstein, William M. Westman, Jack Zide and West H. Gallogly.

Also Women's Division Women's Division co-chairmen are Mrs. Walter B. Ford, II, and Mrs. Harry L. Jones, whose assistants are Mrs. Edwin O. Bodkin, Mrs. Eugene J. Arnefeld, Miss Mildred Peely and Mrs. George J. Huebner, Jr.

In charge of "Operation Thrust," responsible for special contacts, is William F. Steinberg.

By and large, all of these higher level volunteers have worked on prior Torch Drive campaigns. George Monro, himself, served as a Men's Team Advance Gifts Division chairman—and this year, he's in the unique position of serving UNDER one of his own Men's Team Division chairmen, Gay Gillis, personally soliciting donations on the East Side of town.

The Torch Drive is by no means Mr. Monro's only community service activity. He's a director of United Community Services and a member of the Detroit Board of Commerce's Aviation committee, which works with the city and the county to promote better aviation and airline services for people in the metropolitan area.

He's not a pilot, but he's "always" been interested in aviation, worked for Capitol Airlines before joining Manufacturers National Bank.

Serves War Memorial

He's just completed a three-year term as member of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association's Board of Directors. He served as War Memorial treasurer, still serves on Memorial's Investment committee, terms the Association a "tremendous organization, which does a wonderful job for the community."

Appointed to the Grosse Pointe City Council to fill the unexpired term of E. Llywd Ecclestone, Mr. Monro ran for—and was elected to—the council last fall.

A City councilman's "reward" lies in the knowledge that he is serving his community, (the City's councilmen serve without pay)—and in his own increased familiarity WITH his community.

Like most novice public officials, Mr. Monro was amazed to discover how much he DIDN'T know about the City in which he lives, admits "I'm still finding things out."

He thoroughly enjoys his work on the Council, wishes more residents would take an interest in local government, observes, rather wistfully, "Most people in Grosse Pointe just accept their City government. I know I didn't pay much attention until I got involved in it; I suppose 70 per cent of our residents don't even know where our meetings are held. We'd love to have more people attend our meetings . . ."

City Residents 10 Years

The Monros have lived in Grosse Pointe City, in Woodland Place, for more than 10 years. Before that, they lived in The Farms, in Touraine road.

Mrs. Monro is a native Detroit, the former Margaret Williams, daughter of Mrs. Wood Williams and sister of Mrs. Henry B. Joy, Jr. Mr. Monro, born in Pittsburgh, Pa., came to Detroit in 1938. He's been here ever since.

The Monros have three sons. George, IV, 26, is a banker like his father—but with the National Bank of Detroit, ("We don't trade secrets," George, III, grins).

Young George is an "occasional" artist, two of his paintings, done "very early in the game," decorate his father's Manufacturers National Bank office.

Steven W. Monro, 23, is married to the former Pamela Macpherson, daughter of the Monros' next-door neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. James Grant Macpherson, II. Steven and Pamela are the parents of the first Monro-Macpherson grandchild, James Grant Monro, just two-and-a-half months old.

Steven, with Great Lakes Steel, was recently transferred to Toledo, so young James Grant, removed from the immediate sphere of his dotting grandparents, will have to be content with off-and-on-spilling from visiting maternal and paternal relatives, (it may be off-and-on, but it promises to be frequent; after all, Toledo isn't THAT far away, and this is a FIRST grandchild . . .)

The youngest Monro, William L. 19, is a freshman at Hillsdale College.

Is Outdoor Man

In his leisure time, (after perusing a resume of Mr. Monro's business and community activities, one is inclined to exclaim, "WHAT leisure time!"), George is an "outdoor" man.

He likes to fish, or just to roam over Lake St. Clair in his outboard motor boat, "Manu-habit."

He loves hunting, especially duck hunting, gets out "as often as I can, not as often as I'd like," admits that the duck hunter's mystique is almost impossible for non-duck hunters to fathom:

"You wonder why you do it, but you do it . . . I was out just a few days ago: it was raining, windy, I was standing in the water—but I was getting ducks, so it was fun!"

He's interested in saving ducks, too, (how can you shoot a duck that isn't there?), and is Michigan treasurer and a national trustee of Ducks Unlimited, a nationwide organization which raises money for the conservation and improvement of duck breeding areas in Canada.

The Canadian Government provides land and supervisory personnel for the breeding areas; Ducks Unlimited supplies between $900,000 and $1,000,000 annually to finance the project.

She Won't Shoot

George has no "favorite" hunting grounds; he'll hunt anywhere. Peggy Monro is as fond of outdoor recreation as her husband, but "passes" when it comes to actual shooting.

"When she goes hunting with me, I handle the guns and she takes the pictures," George grins.

The Monros like to spend a few winter weeks in the Florida Keys, where the fishing is good and the living is easy. They usually make Marathon their vacation headquarters, sometimes "hop a ride" on a friend's cruiser, enjoy being right on the water.

Summers, they try to get away to the Western States, to Montana or Colorado, where they'll stop at Aspen for the fishing.

George has no desire to visit Aspen during the winter, to test his skill on the ski slopes: "I've taken a good look at those hills! I'm happy fishing!"

But, after a week or two, it's always time to come home again. George Monro, III, "on vacation," may not be making noises himself, but other people, back in Michigan, haven't stopped taking and leaving messages and memoranda for him; the notes still litter his desk.

Proof of a hectic schedule? Well . . . each note refers to something Mr. Monro considers important, and what Mr. Monro considers important, he enjoys doing . . . and, as he says, "Anything you enjoy doing can't possibly be hectic."

Noted Educator At Town Hall

C. Northcote Parkinson, noted educator and economist, will talk at Detroit Town Hall Wednesday, November 2. His subject: "Mrs. Parkinson's Law."

The 11 a.m. lecture in the Fisher Theatre will be followed by luncheon at the Detroit Athletic Club.

Parkinson's hilarious, but astute, analysis of the "laws" governing business operations in corporations and households have made him the darling of audiences in England as well as the United States.

"In-Laws and Out-Laws" explore corporate climbing through such methods as marrying the boss's daughter. Parkinson's Law explains how work expands to take care of the time and personnel available for its completion. "The Law and the Profits" discovers how expenses rise to meet (and even surpass) income.

Single tickets are available through the Detroit Town Hall office, 405 Fisher Building, or may be purchased at the theatre the day of performance. Seating for student groups may be arranged.

Plan Welcome Wagon Meeting

A talk on make-up will be featured at the next meeting of the Welcome Wagon Club of Grosse Pointe, Thursday, November 3, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Coffee and sandwiches will be served at 11 o'clock preceding the meeting. Any new resident who has received a Welcome Wagon hostess call is invited to attend.
