Future Salaries
 In the final discussion of the evening, the trustees heard Mr. Kennedy discuss the possible future trend of teachers' salaries. He indicated that Grosse Pointe has not had a particularly outstanding record in the past, as evidenced by the recent need for a re-examination of the master contract which resulted in improved salaries for 630 teachers at an additional cost of $220,000 for the 1967-1968 year.

He indicated that the Board is trying to get an idea of the salary adjustments needed to keep the local schools competitive in 1968 and also into 1969. Mr. Kennedy said that one joint meeting between the bargainners for the trustees and the GPEA had already been held and that the Board hopes for a consensus before Christmas so that the amount of operating millage for a late winter election can be determined.

Study Conducted
 In the data he presented, Mr. Kennedy said that a recent salary study was conducted among school districts in the Lansing area to see whether waiting to settle a contract immediately before the school year opens pays off in terms of increased salaries.

Of the 22 districts polled, five had gone on strike. Average raise of the 22 for the BA maximum was $961 compared to Grosse Pointe's improvement of $895. Among the 22 districts in the study, one had granted a $2,500 raise at the MA level, with an average for the group of $1,109 at the MA maximum. Grosse Pointe teachers in the same category received an $870 increase, from $10,830 to $11,700.

In his concluding remarks Mr. Kennedy said, "Locally, reason has prevailed, relatively speaking. Up to this point we have been spared the turmoil, strikes, and uncertainty that have been a feature of school opening in many districts. And, to this point at least, we have managed to accomplish this without excessive salary raises."

 cept, all elementary and junior high boundaries would remain the same. He added that school boundary lines are always subject to change depending upon population shifts.

All Architects Respond
 In his report on architects, Dr. Joe Spagnoli, Assistant Superintendent - Administrative Services, said that 18 leading Detroit area architectural firms had been contacted to submit their dossiers and that all 18 had responded. Dr. Spagnoli indicated that he had talked to representatives of 12 of the firms and that he had reviewed all the printed materials received to date. He said that on the basis of the interviews and the materials submitted, five architects will be invited to make presentations to the Board of Education.

There is a need for architectural services because of the proposed expansion of the Central Library and the proposal to construct branches in the Park and Woods. Plans will also have to be drawn for the renovation of portions of South High, including facilities for music, and for additions to three of the elementary buildings. The trustees are expected to go to the public with a bond issue for the library program, a building and site levy for the schools' capitalization plans, and for operating millage to meet the increased costs of goods and services some time late in the winter.

Police Chief Jack F. Roh, when asked to make a survey of the problem by the mayor, told the council and people present, that a study already has been made of the matter. Also at the meeting, ready with parents suggested, would be for the city to hire a school crossing guard, or have a safety patrol boy on duty at the crossing.

They contended that something must be done to assure the safety of the school children, especially during the time vehicular traffic is heavy. They also pointed out that another safety hazard exists, in that when buses stop to pick up or unload passengers, which include students of Brownell Junior High School, many motorists tend to drive around the coaches, ignoring the fact that there might be someone waiting to cross the street, just ahead of the bus.

Custer Homeier, principal of Kerby School, said that there are 51 children, ranging from kindergarten to sixth grade pupils, from the bounded area, who attend his school.

He said that he, too, is concerned about the safety of these students, but not to the extent of trusting an 11-year-old, or 12-year-old safety patrol boy, to supervise crossings. A child of that age is not able to cope with a situation where extremely heavy traffic is involved. He would have to be "addle-headed to place such a responsibility on a boy of that age," he added.

Mayor Butler said that this was the first time that he had heard of the problem, but the normal procedure in a matter of this nature, is that a request be made for a study of the situation, and recommendations made.

Police Chief Jack F. Roh, when asked to make a survey of the problem by the mayor, told the council and people present, that a study already has been made of the matter. Also at the meeting, ready with

The truth about House Bill 2035.

(The Fair Housing Act of 1967)

Probably the most controversial and misunderstood bill of the year, the Fair Housing Act, is now with the House Committee on Civil Rights. It will be voted on soon. And it is important for you to advise your Representative of your feeling on this vital issue. Here, to help you make a thoughtful decision, are answers to the most asked questions on this bill:

Q. Isn't fair housing really forced housing?

A. No. Nobody can force you to sell or rent your property against your will. If you have not offered your house for sale or rent, nobody has any right to demand that you sell or rent to anybody. The only requirement of fair housing laws is that persons who decide to sell or rent and who publicly offer housing for sale or rent must then deal with those who respond to their offers without regard to the prospective buyer's religious affiliation, nationality, or the color of his skin.

Q. Suppose a prospective buyer or tenant is engaged in a disreputable occupation. Or suppose I know he wants to turn my single-family home into a rooming house. Or suppose he simply can't afford my asking price. Must I sell or rent to someone like that?

A. No. You may reject any prospective buyer or tenant for these and many other reasons, but not religion, race, color, or national origin.

Q. But what about MY rights? Shouldn't I have the right to dispose of my property in any way I see fit?

A. Yes, within limits. Property rights are not so absolute as some people have been led to believe. Zoning laws restrict the uses to which you can put your property. Building, health, and safety require that you construct and maintain your property in accordance with legal standards. The public interest has always placed some limitations on your property rights. Actually, fair housing laws limit far less than zoning, health, and safety regulations, which affect the use of your property every day you own it. A fair housing law would affect your property only after you make known your intention to cease to own or occupy it.

Q. What about my neighbors? If I sold my house to Negroes, the neighborhood would change, and my neighbors' property values would go down.

A. Property values are not related to race, but to supply and demand. Values decline, for example, if there is a sudden increase in the number of houses for sale in a given area, because greater supply usually means lower prices. This could happen if your neighbors were to panic and leave the neighborhood all at once. So property values are really up to your neighbors themselves. Actually, scientific surveys show that property values are much more likely to increase than decline in integrated neighborhoods. A fair housing law, prohibiting "blockbusting" tactics by real estate agents who promote panic selling, would help stabilize property values.

Q. But Negroes don't know how to keep up their property.

A. Not true. In cities across Michigan and the rest of the nation there are many racially mixed and predominantly Negro neighborhoods where anyone would be proud to live. Even though the homes in these neighborhoods are, on the average, many years older than the homes many whites occupy, they are well kept up. Homeowners, of all races, as distinguished from tenants, have a vested interest in maintaining their own property and neighborhoods. Second, fair housing legislation does not lead to mass movements of minority groups into all-white neighborhoods. Neighborhoods change because of the limited supply of housing available to Negroes. A fair housing law would relieve pressure on specific neighborhoods by making the whole housing market available.

Q. Then why do so many Negroes live in slums?

A. Because so many Negroes are poor. Hardly any new housing is being built within the means of the poor of both races. They have little choice other than taking apartments or houses in the oldest sections of our cities. In relation to their income, they frequently pay exorbitant rent for accommodations that are often unfit for human habitation. But these are not the people who can afford to move into your neighborhood. Most Negroes who have moved into all-white areas have incomes equal to or higher than their new neighbors.

Q. Why do Negroes want to move into white neighborhoods anyway?

A. Negroes don't want to move into white neighborhoods, as such. They want the same things their white counterparts want when they look for homes. Things like the right number of bedrooms, the right sized lot, a good school for their children, a place not too far from their jobs, and so forth. Many Negroes can afford good housing anywhere, but because they encounter or anticipate hostility and discrimination, they are forced to take second choice. Many Negroes would choose to live in predominantly Negro neighborhoods but they want the right to choose.

Q. Why do professional real estate men always oppose fair housing legislation?

A. Not all do. Many real estate brokers and builders have feared they would lose business if such laws were passed. But this has not happened in the states and cities where fair housing laws are in effect. People continue to avail themselves of the services of real estate agents just as much as they did before the laws were passed. Kalamazoo and Ann Arbor fair housing ordinances have the support of the local boards of realtors. In Jackson, two members of the Board of Realtors were leaders in a campaign to pass such an ordinance. Across the state there are many real estate brokers and builders who publicly support fair housing laws, and many more who privately believe such laws are needed to resolve the question.

Q. Besides civil rights organizations, who's in favor of fair housing for Michigan?

A. The New Detroit Committee, backed by many powerful business and labor representatives, proposed and urged HB 2035 be introduced; the leaders of all four major religious faiths—Protestant, Jewish, Eastern Orthodox, and Catholic; the governing bodies of organized labor; the conventions of both major political parties; the Michigan Association of Chiefs of Police; the Michigan Chamber of Commerce; hundreds of statewide and local professional, civic, and community organizations, including PTA's, Y's, many League of Women Voters units; many thousands of individuals—many of whom are your friends and neighbors—who simply want to see justice done.

... This is a moral issue as old as the scriptures and as clear as the American Constitution. The time has come for the nation to fulfill its promise. The fires of frustration and discord are burning in every city where legal remedies are not at hand. The moral crisis can not be quieted by token talk or moves; it can not be left to demonstrations in the streets. //

President John F. Kennedy,
Speech June 13, 1963.

// Do we say to the Negro that, even though you come up to every standard we've preached over the centuries, we still want to deny you the privilege of competing on the open market for housing simply because of the pigment of your skin? That is it in a nutshell. The bill is not forced housing. One can't be forced to sell his house as he can be forced to sell to the government. The bill does not restrict the use of the home as the government restricts its use. Bill 2035 is only saying we cannot use color as the sole basis for denying a prospective purchaser. If we expect Negroes to be in favor of the American dream and to fight for the American dream, then it is hardly fair for us to deny them participation in the American dream. //

Robert E. Waldron,
Speaker,
House of Representatives
State of Michigan

// People who oppose change usually do so because of fear. As far as open housing is concerned, they should be reminded of several things: (1) We should trust the Constitution and the great charters of our country. Open housing is nothing more than the application to present circumstances of justice and equality. (2) In recent years every racial reform has been resisted, from equality in public accommodations to integration in big league baseball. Now we look back with pride on all of these reforms and know they were right. (3) Our fears should be focused on what will happen if we do not pass such a law: The country will probably polarize; violence will increase as radicals take leadership; and people will lose confidence in a nation that does not practice what it preaches. //

The Rt. Rev. Richard S. Emrich,
Episcopal Bishop of Michigan.

These goals were recommended by the MAS in a comprehensive 123-page report that says of Seven Ponds Nature Center: "The land is close to ideal for a nature center, possessing a delightful, harmonious blending of diversified natural habitats."

GP Park to Expand Marina Facilities at Waterfront

The Park's Waterfront Park land area will be increased by approximately one and one-half acres when the old marina, located at the southwest section of the park, is filled with excavation earth, it was disclosed by Park City Manager Robert Slone on Friday, December 1.

Henry C. Huvaere and Sons, Incorporated, of the Pointe, was awarded the contract to do the work, when it offered $400, payable to the city treasury, for the opportunity to dump freeway excavations to fill the marina, and to grade the area.

Slone said that the marina had been in existence since 1930, and during that time, was deemed part of the Waterfront Park and its recreational area. However, now that it is to be filled in, a permit must be obtained from the Michigan Conservation Department, for which talks are in progress now.

City Attorney Richard Rohr has been authorized by the Park council to request a permit for the fill-in, and to negotiate the purchase of the submerged land, encompassed by the old marina from the State, under the Submerged Land Act. The price will be determined by the State.

The city manager said that work is in progress on the new marina area engineering plans, that will include usurping of the 35 boat wells lost through the filling of the old marina.

The area extends out into Lake St. Clair, immediately south of the swimming pool. A number of boat wells were constructed here, in 1960, and several more in 1963, Slone said.

Present plans call for including the spaces lost from the old marina, plus 65 more, making an over-all total of about 150 spaces, it was said. It is hoped that this facility, including a causewalk so constructed so as to reduce wave action, will be completed by the time the 1968 boating season opens in the spring.

Slone pointed out that the construction of the new marina and causewalk will be paid for strictly from revenues realized from the rental of boat wells, and that this project is entirely

GP Park's Tree Trimming Program Cost Set at $9,269

Shock Brothers, a tree and landscaping firm, will labor through the winter months, trimming approximately 760 trees throughout the city. It was disclosed by Park City Manager Robert Sloan on Friday, December 1. The program, which will cost the city $9,269, is expected to get underway in about two weeks.

The tree trimming locations were listed as, south of Jefferson: 40 on Nottingham, from Jefferson to Hally; 45 on Grand Marais, from Jefferson to Essex; and 61 on Windmill Pointe drive, from Lakepointe to Harcourt, excluding Balfour to Berkshire.

Xmas Carnival Opening Dec. 9

The City of Detroit's Sixth annual Christmas Carnival will open 9 a.m. Saturday, December 9 at Cobo Hall.

Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh said he expects the Carnival's six-year attendance figure to go over the two-million mark this year.

The holiday show will be open daily December 9 through Tuesday, December 26, from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. with two exceptions. The Carnival will not be open on Christmas Day and it will close at 6 p.m. on Christmas Eve.

Last year, nearly 330,000 persons visited this collection of colorful displays and children's participation activities.

Halls A and B of Detroit's multi-million dollar convention facility will be transformed into a fairyland setting by lighted trees and arrangements of snow drifts, giant lollipops and toys.

In the center of the show will be the Department of Parks and Recreation's spectacular arrangement of lighted trees, fountains which shoot up 20-foot sprays of colored water and four winter scene displays with animated figures.

Christmas Carnival will also offer live entertainment including (Oopsy, the Clown) clown and puppet shows.

The chief attraction of the show will be Santa Claus who will talk to each child who visits him in Santa's Castle. Children will receive free candy and a comic book.

Young visitors to the Carnival also will want to call Santa's workshop and talk with one of the elves at one of the show's most popular displays.

Other features of the Carnival will be the snowman slide, model train, fire engine, circus, Santa's animal land, the toy shop and the beautiful and inspirational Nativity Scene.

While youngsters enjoy a number of "climb-on" tot lot toys, parents can relax nearby at a comfortable refreshment stand and watch their children play.

Parks and Recreation will offer instruction in making holiday decorations for the home from evergreen boughs and trim.

Christmas Carnival provides the perfect setting for picture-taking. Carnival officials advise photographers to come equipped with battery-powered lights for movie cameras or flash units for still cameras.

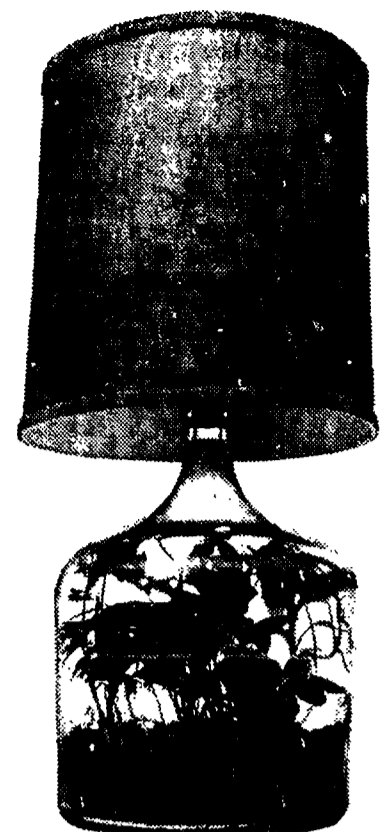

Some displays may be photographed with available light, but many require artificial lighting.

LOSES RING

Nancy Eaton of 31505 Waltham, Detroit, informed Farms police on Tuesday, November 28, that while she was attending a wedding at the Country Club of Detroit four days earlier, she set down a multi-diamond platinum ring in the lady's powder room, and forgot it. When she returned to look for it, she said, it was gone. The ring, set with 33 small diamonds, and a large one in the center, is valued at $2,000. Any one having knowledge of the item, can call Farms police at TUxedo 5-2100.

Holiday Welcome Mat Out Here Today

 This 40-room English Georgian style home in Vendome road, begun in 1927 by Hiram Walker's son, purchased and completed by Wendell W. Anderson, Sr., currently owned by the George Simons, (their 10 children do a good job of "filling up" the mansion's rooms), is just one of seven Pointe houses open today for the annual Christmas Walk sponsored by the Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. Among the unique and interesting features of this particular house is the library, its fine panelling assembled by Belgian workmen at a local lumber yard. There are NO SEAMS in this library, and it was installed in the house as one piece. Tickets for the Walk may be purchased at the Simons' or any other home on the tour. Hours are 1 to 5 o'clock.

Help Requested By Post Office

Postmaster Edward L. Baker reminded Detroit area residents today that the Post Office is quickly approaching its Christmas rush period, and all indications point to a record of mail this year.
 "To move this avalanche of mail successfully," Baker said, "the cooperation of the mailing public is necessary. Early mailing and the use of ZIP Code are essential."
 The Postmaster recommended the use of first class postage for the most efficient service in mailing Christmas greeting cards. Cards paid at the 5 cents per ounce first class rate will be forwarded if the addressee has moved, or will be returned to the sender when undeliverable, if there is a return address. Unsealed cards paid at the 4 cents third class rate will not be forwarded or returned if undeliverable as addressed.
 The Post Office recommends that all mail be addressed on one side only, showing the return address complete with ZIP Code number in the upper left corner.

A Christmas Appeal Made For Patients in Sanitorium

The NEWS is happy to comply with the request made in the following communication. Because of the newspaper strike, I am taking this means to make my annual Christmas appeal to the public on behalf of the hundreds of men and women tuberculosis patients at Maybury Sanatorium and Herman Kiefer Hospital.

I am never reluctant to make the appeal though, because many of the patients at both hospitals are lonely, elderly and, in many instances, forsaken by friends and relatives. These patients especially, look to persons they never see as their "family."

We know from years of observation the joy and gratitude these patients feel during the Christmas season when the gifts from total strangers are distributed.

Feelings of despair among the lonely and elderly, many of them so ill with tuberculosis that they are bedridden, are not conducive to recovery. But, the knowledge that someone, even a total stranger, may be thinking of them, turns depression into joy.

Aged and ill without friends or relatives are without question the loneliest people in the world at Christmas time. Some of our patients have been institutionalized for years and some would have no place to go even if they experienced complete recovery.

Patients who despair do not respond to treatment in the same manner a happy patient does.

Welcome gifts from the outside can be shaving supplies (excluding after shave lotions containing alcohol), soaps, toothpaste and tooth brushes, white T-shirts and shorts, white cotton socks, robes and pajamas. (Because everything must be laundered frequently, woolen articles are not suitable.) Bedroom slippers in adult sizes are especially needed. Candy, books, stationery, postage stamps, games, cards and puzzles are most welcome. No neckties, no handkerchiefs, no cigars, please.

Street apparel, particularly sport shirts and caps, are suitable gifts for many male patients at Maybury who have reached the point, where their tuberculosis is no longer infectious but who still need continued care. These patients often are permitted to make short trips into town.

Christmas parties are being planned at both the Sanatorium and at Herman Kiefer Hospital during the week preceding Christmas. So nurses can determine the right gift for each man or woman, we ask that gifts be wrapped attractively with a tag on the outside stating the contents and size where needed. We would also like the giver's name and address on a separate tag so we may say thank you.

Mail packages to the Tuberculosis and Health Society, 153 East Elizabeth, Detroit 48201. Or, leave them at the Society offices, Room 221, or at the information booth in the lobby of the Red Cross Building at the above address. The lobby is open 24 hours a day. Be sure to mark packages "TB CHRISTMAS PROJECT."

Additional information can be obtained by contacting Mrs. Susan Macinski, Project Coordinator at WO 1-2849.

In the past, my appeals assured gifts for everyone at both hospitals and provided a real bright spot not only among the patients but in the busy lives of doctors, nurses and aides who distributed the gifts.

Those who have taken time out of their busy Christmas season schedules must feel a great warmth and fellowship through their remembrance to the forgotten and lonely.

Thank you very much.
Sincerely,
(Signed) W. L. Howard, M.D.
Superintendent, Maybury Sanatorium

Farms Intent to Join COG Given Temporary Setback

The Farms' intention to join the Southeastern Michigan Council of Governments was handed a temporary set-back on Monday, December 4, when a group of citizens presented the city council with a petition bearing 300 names, demanding that the city refrain from becoming a member of the organization, until more is known about it.

A spokesman for the citizens, Mrs. Ann D. Heenan of 54 Touraine, informed the council that the petition bore 300 names, and that if necessary, another 300, or more names can be obtained.

The residents asked the council to make a further study of the matter before arriving at a decision to join the SEMCG. They said they are afraid that by joining, the Farms will lose its independence.

Mayor William Butler and the members of the council, with their wives, were invited to attend a meeting tonight, December 7, at the home of Mrs. James A. Wilson, 703 Lochmoor boulevard, to hear State Sen. Robert J. Huber (R), who currently has a bill before the State Legislature, proposing amendments to the formation of the Council of Governments.

At present, it was said, the bill is still before the House, and there seems no chance that it will get out.

The spokesman said that councilmen from the Woods and Shores have also been extended an invitation to attend tonight's meeting, and some have revealed they are interested.

Mayor Butler and several council colleagues said they were very much interested in hearing Huber, and will accept the invitation.

The Farms council, which favored becoming a member of SEMCG, had intended to formally apply for membership in the organization, pending action by the State Legislature.

QUESTION:

"Where can I get the highest interest on bank savings in Detroit?"

ANSWER:

At Michigan Bank. We pay 5% interest on time savings over $1,000.00. Since this interest is compounded daily and paid four times a year, you earn the highest interest in dollars and cents at Michigan Bank. Interest is paid every three months by adding to your time deposit passbook, credit to your regular savings passbook or by check, sent to your home.

THIS IS THE HIGHEST RATE THAT FEDERAL LAW WILL ALLOW ANY BANK TO PAY (except on certificates of $100,000 or more) AND IT'S AVAILABLE RIGHT NOW!

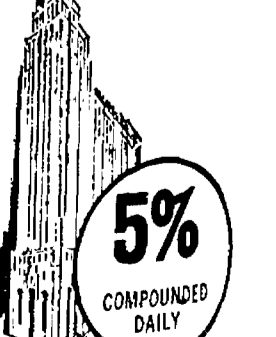

ACT NOW! Compare the interest you are now receiving on your savings at other financial institutions. Bring in your passbook and in a few short minutes you will be earning 5% compounded daily and paid quarterly with the safety and peace of mind that only a bank can provide! Automatically renewed at every 90-day maturity unless you or the Bank have given notice that the time savings certificate will not be renewed.

Paul's Luth. Concert Sunday

The choir of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Charles Sandberg, pastor, will usher in the Christmas season with a concert of choral music on Sunday, December 10, at 7 p.m. The church is located at 17101 Kercheval.

In addition to traditional Christmas songs from Handel's "Messiah," the choir will sing medieval seasonal compositions accompanied by brass quartet and strings. Members of the brass quartet are: trumpets, Paul Simons and Dave Jennings; French horn, Scott Sayres; and trombone, Peter Petit. All are members of the Grosse Pointe High School Band. Violinists are Edward Vabolis, Bette Petterson and Wanda Hoefler of St. Paul's Church.

Other highlights of the program are the appearance of Alfred Cain, bass soloist, who will perform "Why Do The Nations So Furiously Rage" from "The Messiah," and a performance by the choir of Anton Bruckner's "Virga Jesse Florentina." Helen Koepplin, church organist, will play organ selections including "Nativity Mithrae" by Taylor. Director of the program is Don Drago.

There is no admission charge and the entire community is cordially invited to begin the Christmas season by attending the concert. Following the concert, a reception sponsored by the St. Paul's Couples Club under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. John Case, will be held in the church. All are welcome.

Tree of Lights Heralds Yule

This is the beginning of a busy Christmas season for The Salvation Army in Detroit. At noon on Friday, November 24, the first bulb was turned on at the Army's TREE OF LIGHTS.

The tree is located at Campus Martius, (Woodward and Gratiot) and the lighting ceremony will signify the first donations received for the Annual Christmas Fund. The Standard Federal Savings & Loan Association is sponsoring the TREE OF LIGHTS kick-off.

The Parks and Recreation Department has put up a beautiful tree and placed colored bulbs on it. Every $100 received will turn on one of the colored lights to white until the entire goal of 600 lights shine all over the tree.

Mayor Jerome Cavanagh will assist. Prominent members of the Detroit Tigers will also be at the TREE OF LIGHTS.

The goal this year is $80,000 to make it a happier Christmas for over 40,000 individuals in the Detroit area. Such things as Golden Agers' parties, meals for homeless men, parties for youngsters, thousands of dinners to families and many other thoughtful services are planned for Christmas.

Drivers who guess they can make it often never have another guess coming.

Daring Burglar Has $3,600 Haul

A daring thief drove off with a truck belonging to Fontana Brothers on Wednesday, November 29, which was parked in front of the Kresge Store at 17101 Kercheval.

He made off with $1,600 in cash and about $2,000 worth of candy and cigarets.

Fontana Brothers service vending machines. The driver had stopped at Kresge's at 4:52 p.m. to service a machine, and while he was in the store the thief made off with the truck.

The truck was a '66 Econoline van equipped with a safe and vending machine merchandise.

The truck was later found by Detroit Police at Palmer and Concord. All the doors had been pried open and the truck was stripped of its contents.

EXTEND SYMPATHY

The Farms council, on Monday, December 4, approved that a resolution of sympathy be prepared and presented to the family of the late Fire Capt. Raymond Snay, who retired from the Fire Department in June, and who died on November 26.

Mortality Table Outlived By 96-Year-Old Pointer

Robert Shiell has received a check for the maturity value of his policy.

Mr. Shiell was born in Detroit and lived there until 1932 when he moved to Windmill Pointe drive, where he still resides. He started as a messenger boy for Bradstreet (now Dun & Bradstreet) in 1885, was in the hardware business for 20 years, and then with Parker-Webb meat packers for 15. He joined Charles A. Parcels & Co. 40 years ago, and continues to go to his office in the Penobscot Building every day.

He has been a director of several firms, including the First National Bank. He is the oldest depositor of the Detroit Bank & Trust Company, and is the oldest member of the D.A.C., proudly carrying a gold 50-year membership card. He is active and alert. His sight and hearing are better than those of most men 20 years younger.

At least we should be mighty thankful that we don't get all the government we pay for.

Christmas Seal Campaign Starts

The 1967 Christmas Seal campaign in Wayne County is off to a flying start.

Jack A. Tompkins and Judi Kuneman, co-chairman of the drive here, reported that $141,688 of the $425,000 goal was reached in the third week of the Campaign which began on Nov. 14 and continues through December.

Tompkins is vice-president of American Airlines while Miss Kuneman, 18-year-old recovered tuberculosis patient, is Michigan's Christmas Seal chairman. Detroit Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh meanwhile, proclaimed the week of December 3 through December 9, as Christmas Seal Week.

"Christmas Seals are a holiday tradition," Cavanagh said, "and they are also one of our greatest allies in the battle against disease. It's everybody's fight and I urge all of our citizens to contribute to the Christmas Seal Campaign and to use Seals

PTA at Mason Meeting Dec. 7

A Christmas program highlights Mason School's second PTA meeting tonight, December 7, at Parcels Junior High School Auditorium at 7:30 o'clock.

Under the direction of Mrs. Janet Riccinto, Mason's music teacher, the children in grades one, three and five have planned a delightful evening of musical entertainment.

Entitled "Christmas Caroling Through Mason," the children will sing a variety of musical selections including seasonal, traditional and humorous songs.

Beginning with a processional, the children will assemble in various groups against a backdrop of scenery prepared by the fifth grade students. A total of 230 children will participate in this program.

A short business meeting precedes the program and a social hour follows in the gymnasium. Refreshments will be served.

Advertising Men Merge Agencies

Two Detroit advertising men who have known each other for 15 years—each of who heads an advertising and public relations company bearing his name—will consolidate their operations in a merger, effective December 1, 1967.

The new agency will be named Baker/Smith, Inc., and will have offices in downtown Detroit at 1750 Buhl Building.

In making the announcement, Baker said that he and Smith have, in effect, been operating their companies as a single agency for nine months. Considered unique in the business, the trial merger arrangement has given the principals ample opportunity to test the consolidation before actually making it official. The long engagement should make for a happy, successful marriage, Baker added.

Baker's agency serves national, regional and local clients in diversified fields including savings and loan, investment service, insurance, restaurants, drugs, machine tools and a television station.

Among Smith's clients are a tire manufacturer and firms in the automotive after-market. The merged agency will have a total of 32 clients with gross billings of $2,500,000 with fees adjusted.

Baker graduated from the University of Missouri School of Journalism in 1948. After graduating from college, he joined the Zimmer, Keller and Calvert advertising agency, Detroit, and later served with two other Detroit agencies. Prior to joining William Denman in February, 1950, he was a copywriter and account executive for the Tandy advertising agency.

From 1951 through 1963 he was executive vice-president of Denman & Baker, Inc. and started E. W. Baker, Inc. on January 6, 1964.

He is a member of the Ad-craft Club of Detroit, is a deacon in St. James Lutheran Church, is active in Lakeshore District Boy Scouts of America, and is president of the P.T.A. at Brownell Junior High School in Grosse Pointe Farms. He lives at 321 Belanger, Grosse Pointe Farms.

Smith is a graduate of the College of William & Mary. He obtained his early advertising experience at Sullivan, Stauffer, Colwell & Bayles advertising agency, New York, where he moved up from the mailroom to radio and television production.

His subsequent agency positions include radio and television producer, Maxon Company, New York; and director of radio and television at Brooke, Smith, French and Dorrance, Inc., Detroit. For three years he was director of advertising and promotion for WJBK-TV, the Storer-owned CBS outlet for Detroit.

Smith lives at 81 Colonial road, Grosse Pointe Shores. He is on the board of directors of the Michigan Kidney Foundation and is a member of the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club.

VARIANCE GRANTED

The Farms council, sitting in as a Zoning Board of Appeals, on Monday, December 4, granted a variance to James B. Lewis of 265 Williams to allow him to enclose his rear porch, and to replace an aluminum ceiling with a conventional roof. Extending the building, by enclosing the porch, requires the approval of the Board of Appeals, under a section of the Zoning Ordinance.

St. James Church Concert Sunday

A Candlelight Christmas Concert is being presented by the choirs of St. James Lutheran Church, McMillan and Kercheval, on Sunday, December 10, at 5 o'clock, under the direction of Carl Munzel, choirmaster.

Carols from many different lands including several unfamiliar to most Americans, will tell the meaning of this joyous season as it is proclaimed around the world.

"Mexican Christmas Carol", the Mongolian folk carol "Sing Ye Birds", a Filipino plantation song "Nature Carol", and the Slovak song "Come to the Manger", also the well known "Oh, How Joyfully" from Sicily, will be included in the festive program.

Children will particularly enjoy such songs as "Carol of the Drums", which is a favorite Czech song; "Lullaby" a Korean folk carol, "Willie, Take Your Drum", of Burgundian origin; and the familiar "Come Hither Ye Children", from Germany.

Traditional high point of the concert will be the joyful interpretation of the "Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's "Messiah". A new composition by Katherine Davis, "To Shepherds Fast Asleep", will also be featured.

Mrs. Robert Schmitz, a former choir director of St. James, will be guest organist for the concert.

All those in attendance are invited to a coffee hour immediately following the conclusion of the concert in the Green Room.

Six nice ways to put heat on the wife and kiddies.

1 2 3 4 5 6

Which of these electric heat systems would be best for your family? Let an Edison-approved electric heat contractor tell you. Without obligation, he'll survey your home and give you a carefully figured estimate of electric heat operating cost.

- 1. Radiant ceiling or wall panels. In these panels, modern electricity heats glass, ceramic, or metal elements mounted in or on walls or ceilings.
- 2. Fan-forced units are mounted between studs or on walls. A low-velocity fan blows air across thermostatically controlled electric heat elements.
- 3. Baseboard heating units, at outside walls and under windows, provide warm air up walls and uniform heat throughout the room.
- 4. Floor drop-in units take the chill from in front of floor-to-ceiling window walls, sliding glass door walls, open stairwells and the inner side of exterior doors.
- 5. Radiant ceiling cable is unique. Only visible part is a thermostat. Heat cable is embedded in plaster. Ceiling can be decorated as you wish.
- 6. An electric furnace looks much like an ordinary furnace, but without a flame. Air is forced over electric heating coils and through ducts to warm cleanly, evenly. Electric hydronic types circulate hot water instead of air for radiant heat.

Pointe Motorists Taken Off Road

A number of Pointe motorists were listed in the latest weekly report from the Secretary of State's Office in Lansing, dated November 17, as having had their driver's licenses temporarily suspended or revoked for various reasons.

It is possible that a few of the drivers have had their driving privileges restored since the report was submitted. However, because of a lack of such a listing, the following were disclosed as being among the several hundreds throughout the State who have been taken off the road: Licenses revoked because of an unsatisfactory driving record and failing to appear for examination: Danny M. Humphries of 1468 Wayburn, October 10; Richard F. Huvare of 439 Belanger, October 12; Michael D. MacMechan of 536 St. Clair, October 30; John R. Anderson of 1316 Wayburn, November 6; and David W. Schervish of 240 Fisher, November 8.

Unable to operate a motor vehicle because of an unsatisfactory driving record and for failing to change the address on his license, is Gerald S. Dallman of 110 Hall place, October 28, revoked.

The following have had their operators' licenses revoked because of unsatisfactory driving records: Henry H. Mattil of 419 Lothrop road, October 23; and Dwight M. Monroe of 15431 Windmill Pointe drive, November 3.

Unable to drive because of unsatisfied judgments under the Michigan Financial Responsibility Law, are: Christopher J. Mulle of 41 Woodland Shores drive, October 23; Caroline M. Golden of 139 Muir road, October 25; and William M. O'Brien of 1804 Broadstone, (involving an accident).

Under temporary suspension because of unsatisfactory driving records, are: Marion Katherine Hochbein of 86 Willow Tree place, from October 17, 1967 to April 16, 1968; Gregory M. Kemp of 76 Webber place, from October 19, to December 12, 1967; and Arthur B. Renny of 938 Roslyn road, from October 24, 1967 to January 21, 1968.

PTA at Kerby Meets Dec. 11

The Kerby Parent-Teacher Association will hold its second meeting of the school year on Monday evening, December 11. Due to the nature of the meeting, only kindergarten, second, fourth, and sixth grade classrooms will be open for parent-teacher visitation.

Under the direction of Mendel Lucatsky, Kerby music teacher, all children in the first, third, and fifth grades, together with the Kerby Chorus, will present a program entitled "Everywhere Christmas." This presentation will include many familiar Christmas carols.

Immediately after the program, a social hour will be held in the gymnasium. Mrs. James Teetzel and Mrs. Stanley Thorwaldsen, Social Committee co-chairmen, have appointed Mrs. Louis Troglia to arrange the table decorations.

Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Edward Boss, Mrs. Robert Chapelle, Mrs. Robert Garey, Mrs. James Ireton, Mrs. Thomas Kydd, Mrs. William Laitner, Mrs. Thatcher Rea and Mrs. Don Stanitzke.

Center Offers Yoga Classes

Yoga classes begin at Grosse Pointe War Memorial Wednesday evening, December 13, at 8 o'clock. Taught by S.R.F. trained instructors Mr. and Mrs. George O. Johnston, Jr., the term is eight weeks long. The fee is $20.

Those taking Yoga are asked to register if possible in advance and report for class wearing loose, casual clothing. Exercise mats or carpet samples are used too.

Yoga training teaches one to relax and tone mind, body and basic organs by adhering to and practicing certain exercises and basic attitudes. Philosophy is secondary to the poses and positions which, when achieved, put mind and muscles at peace. Music is used as an accompaniment and breath control is important along with sound.

Museum Offers Lecture, Exhibit

The opening of the Henry Ford Museum Christmas Exhibit and an Antiques Lecture are scheduled for December 8 in Henry Ford Museum at Greenfield Village in Dearborn, Michigan.

The exhibit, "Toys and Dolls" will remain in the special display area of the Museum through December 31. Featuring playthings from the 18th century through the early 20th century, the exhibit provides an interesting and enchanting view of childhood Christmas gifts of the past. Highlighted in the exhibit is a group of more than 100 dolls recently added to the Museum's collection, and an operating electric train of the 1920s.

In addition to the opening of the Christmas exhibit, Frank L. Horton, Director of Research, Old Salem, Inc., will deliver the second in the current series of Antiques Lectures in the Henry Ford Museum Theater at 8:30 p.m.

Mr. Horton will present an illustrated talk about "The Museum of Early Southern Decorative Arts" at Old Salem, N.C. An authority on architecture, Mr. Horton has been supervising the restoration of twenty 18th-century buildings at Old Salem since the early 1950s.

Information on the Antiques Lecture Series and the Christmas Exhibit may be obtained by calling the Henry Ford Museum, 271-1620.

Unusual College Sends Recruiter

Students at Grosse Pointe University School and Grosse Pointe High School will have an opportunity to hear about one of the most unusual colleges in the United States from Edward M. Godschalk of St. John's College in their schools on Monday, December 11.

Mr. Godschalk describes the non-sectarian college as "a genuine alternative in American education. We have completely abandoned the lecture system."

"St. John's is a talking college; and the students do most of the talking. They talk about the books most worth talking about: Plato, Freud, St. Paul, Shakespeare, Marx, Dostoevski.

"Our students must study a great deal," warns Mr. Godschalk. "But at St. John's, studying is fun. The curriculum is all required, but it is designed to make college a joyful, exciting experience."

St. John's is a coeducational, non-denominational liberal arts college which was founded in Annapolis, Maryland, in 1696. The same curriculum is offered at the historic Annapolis campus and at the new western campus which was opened in Santa Fe, New Mexico, in 1964.

Two Negro males entered Kroger's Market at 16919 Kercheval on Tuesday, November 28, and escaped with $500 in cash and checks.

The pair entered the store at 6:57 p.m. They purchased a bag of apples and then walked over to an unattended register.

They released the catch on the register, removed the $500 and ran out the front door heading north on Noire Dame to the parking lot at the rear of the store. They hopped into a '64 Impala and fled west to Cadieux.

The men were described as both being about 20 years of age, slim and about 5'5" in height. One of the men wore a black hat and a white checked top coat.

Fifty years old? Why...you haven't changed at all.

But your circumstances have changed. And perhaps your life insurance should, too. Because now your children have grown up. Retirement is closer. And you may even have money left over at the end of each month. Now is the time to adjust your life insurance to your changed circumstances.

What about a lifetime income for your wife? Three out of five wives outlive their husbands.

What about estate taxes? With today's inflated values you probably have a bigger taxable estate than you think. Retirement savings may be subject to death taxes, too.

And your retirement? Retirement years can be most satisfying, if you have enough income.

The Man from Manufacturers will show you how life insurance can supply the answers. For example, it can insure a comfortable retirement. It can supply immediate cash after death to pay estate taxes. And it can provide your wife a comfortable life. You may not have changed. Your circumstances have. Shouldn't you review your life insurance with the Man from Manufacturers Life?

Eight such services were held Sunday, December 3, throughout suburban Detroit, under the encouragement of the Archdiocese of Detroit and the Metropolitan Detroit Council of Churches. The intent of the services has been to "give people who believe in man's God-given dignity a chance to demonstrate that belief in a practical and specific issue: the right of all men to acquire property without discrimination."

There will be suggestions for follow-up action so that those attending may communicate with their state legislators before final action on the Fair Housing bills now pending.

Participants in Sunday afternoon's service include Rev. James J. Sheehan, Archdiocese of Detroit, who will be the guest preacher; Rev. Gary R. Gruber, Grosse Pointe Memorial Church; Rev. Dale Ihrie, Grosse Pointe Baptist Church; Rev. Robert J. Rokusek, St. Ambrose Roman Catholic Church; Mrs. Frank W. Wylie, concerned lay person; and Rev. R. Larry Hawkins, Grace United Church of Christ. Other clergymen in the area have been invited to participate in the processional. The public is invited to attend.

Tickets will be available at the door for a donation of $5.00 per person. Lee and Arnold Weetzer will provide entertainment with their popular banjo and piano music.

As usual a large turnout of prominent democrats in the area is expected.

Enchanting Dolls Feature Exhibit

An enchanting Christmas exhibit, "Toys and Dolls," opens tomorrow (Dec. 8) in the special display area of Henry Ford Museum at Greenfield Village. It will continue daily, except Christmas, through the holiday season.

"Toys and Dolls" includes playthings from the 18th through the early 20th century, highlighted by a group of more than 100 dolls recently acquired by the Museum.

In this collection are figures that resemble famed people in American history—Betsy Ross, Mrs. Herbert Hoover, Charlie Chaplin and Shirley Temple—plus several antique American and European dolls. Some older dolls wear original dresses, while others are attired in period costumes to give today's youngsters an idea of what people wore in earlier generations.

Dolls from the Museum's own Toy Shop, plus numerous early wood and metal toys, are included in the display. An electric train of the 1920s is set to operate at scheduled times for visitors to watch.

On December 15, the traditional "Christmas at Greenfield Village" opens with several of the historic homes decorated as their original owners would have done them at Christmas time. They represent outstanding examples of period decorations used during various eras of America's past.

Rounding out the holiday program, the Greenfield Village Players will offer a live production of "Cinderella" on the stage of the Henry Ford Museum Theater, beginning Dec. 22, with a 7:30 performance. This production, always a delight to children, is being produced this year to appeal to the entire family. Performances are at 7:30 each evening, with the exception of the 24th, when there will be no evening performance.

All Chiefs And No Indians

Those people pulling together the United States Ski Team Benefit Ball, scheduled Friday evening, December 15, at the Latin Quarter, might be described as an "All-Chief, No-Indian" group. No one person is concerned simply with decorations, another with hostesses: Each belongs to the central Ball committee, and gives of time and energy and where he/she can, like the ladies pictured above, (left to right), MRS. DE-

CON CHAPIN, MRS. ROBERT GAMBLE, MRS. ALFRED FISHER, JR., and MRS. F. SIBLEY MOORE, part of a group that spent a whole day recently preparing and addressing ONE THOUSAND invitations. If you haven't received yours yet, and would like information on tickets or reservations, we refer you to the first few paragraphs of this week's "From Another Pointe of View," where, we hope, you'll find answers to all your questions.

Pointe Theatre Holds Anniversary Evening

Lochmoor Club was the scene last Friday evening of the Grosse Pointe Theatre's 20th Anniversary Celebration. The gala dance and buffet supper was one of the major social events of the group's anniversary observance.

While the decor was festive in the tradition of the coming holiday season, the mood was nostalgic for many GPT members.

Since its incorporation in 1948, the theatre group has presented more than 75 major plays and countless cameo and workshop productions for the entertainment of local audiences and community organizations.

Although a large part of the current membership is new within the last five years, there are at least a few who can recall the early struggles when the group operated on little if any budget, presenting plays in various schools and auditoriums. Few of those early dedicated members could have predicted the tremendous growth and success the group has seen in recent years.

Among veteran members who attended Friday night's dance were Mr. and Mrs. Mark Reeve, of Kenmore drive. Mrs. Reeve, (the former Phyllis Cardoze), joined the GPT in 1949 to perform in its second major production, "Claudia." She met her husband when he became a member shortly after.

The Richard Roneys remember their first season as 1950 or '51. Both Dick and Barbara have been active members ever since. Barbara has served many times on the Board of Directors, including two years as president from 1954 to 1956. Her role as the Communist agent, Many, in this season's opener, "The Great Sebastians," is another in a long list of GPT credits.

Other still active members from early years are Mr. and Mrs. Dean Erskine, of Marks court, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Koebel, of Hampton road, who joined at the start of the 1951-52 season and have been mainstays of nearly every season since.

Coordinator of Friday evening's festivities was vice-president and social chairman Larry Marco, of East Emory court

Through long hours of telephoning and letter writing, Larry managed to contact many of the past officers and active members who have drifted to far corners of the country. Among those contacted were all the past-presidents of 20 years, including the founder, Russel Werneken, who now lives in Phoenix, Ariz.

Good wishes and congratulatory messages came from many people who were too far away to attend.

A display of scrapbooks and mementos of the group's past activities was provided by GPT historian Mrs. Robert Yeager, of Yorkshire road.

Although records of some of the early years are sketchy, there were photos and clippings of such highlights as the 1960 production of "Death of a Salesman," which gained artistic recognition for the GPT when it was cited as "Best Production" in the first Detroit-Windsor Theatre Council Festival.

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

As we said last week, AND the week before the beginning of the Big Ball Season, (perhaps should start off next week's column "Tis the Ball of the Big Ball Season . . ." — just for a moment) . . . and the Ball we'll be telling you about promises to be not the biggest, but the most party of them all . . .

It's a United States Ski Team Benefit Ball, (now know proceeds are going to the worthy organization that American skiers could be interested in), scheduled to begin at 7:30 o'clock Friday evening, December 15.

"Place" is the Latin Quarter in East Grand Boulevard, Detroit. Tickets for the dinner-dance are per couple. Recommended dress is black tie.

Eddie Santini's orchestra will play for dancing, a special musical dinner show is planned for pre-dance entertainment.

Ball co-chairmen Mrs. Livingstone Howard and Ledyard Mitchell are handling details.

Mrs. Howard and Mrs. Mitchell, aided by their legions of dedicated skiers, hope to make a significant in the national goal of $400,000 required by United States Ski Association to build a strong, base of racers, from the junior level right on up to top Olympic qualifiers.

Would like to help? And you're not averse to having a wonderful time into the bargain? Further information and tickets may be obtained by writing to the United States Ski Team Benefit Ball, Box Grosse Pointe Farms, Michigan 48236, or calling 556-1561.

Would like to help, but you broke your leg your time out on the slopes this year, and you really feel like dancing? (Fact is, you're a little bitter: don't even feel like watching OTHER people dance.)

Contributions to the United States Ski Team from any amount will be most gratefully accepted, and may be mailed to the same address as above.

Christmas Ball
Mr. and Mrs. Kennard Jones have chosen the festive title, "Christmas Treasure Chest," as the theme for Fine Arts Society's Christmas Ball, to be held Saturday, December 16, at the Grosse Pointe Club.

As chairmen of this year's annual event, the Jones are having a series of work-and-fun partying sessions in their Buckingham road home.

Make Ready For A Christmas Tea

Surrounded by holiday greenery, MRS. ROSS J. BUSH, (left), and MRS. J. C. HURLEY are definitely "in the mood" for the annual Christmas Tea presented by the Grosse Pointe Chamber Singers will give a program of Christmas music during the afternoon.

Thanksgiving weekend in Chicago proved a double celebration for the SIDNEY H. MORGAN, of Lakeland avenue, for they were on hand to greet the twin boys born November 25 to their son and daughter-in-law, MR. and MRS. ROBERT W. MORGAN, (Eleanor Dye, of Dayton, O.). DOUGLAS and ROBERT will join two-year-old BLYTHE in the Morgan nursery—and, as grandmothers are wont to do, Mrs. Sidney Morgan stayed on in Chicago for several days as emergency baby-sitter.

Have Big Plans For New Group

"The Group", a club for young Grosse Pointers and their friends in their twenties, meets for the first time this Sunday, December 10, at Grosse Pointe War Memorial, 32 Lakeshore road.

Strictly informal, "The Group" will meet around the fire in the reception room of Alger House. There will be a big pot of fondue with French bread and coffee—all for free.

Purposes of "The Group" are 1) to have inexpensive group skiing with their own lodge up north; 2) to have car rallies with parties at the end of the route; 3) to have beginning flying, gliding, and sky diving lessons by qualified instructors with planes and gliders available later on; 4) to have silent flicks and wild bands; 5) to have spring and summer water skiing, sailing and weekend trips; and 6) to spend three inexpensive weeks in Tahiti with Club Med. terrance.

Pictures of the lodge up north will be shown and movies of the club in Tahiti. Woody Coche, his son Chris and Playboy bunny Marilyn Sidwell who are all licensed flying instructors will be on hand. Chris has his own gliding outfit out at Big Beaver too.

Everyone who lives, works, or grew up in Grosse Pointe is invited and asked to bring their friends. The Group is to be strictly fluid and is open to professional people, collegians, young business and professional people and very young marrieds.

Center Planning French Evening

France is more than Paris and the Riviera, is the contention of Art Wilson, who will present in person his color travelogue by that title on the George Pierrot-selected Grosse Pointe Adventure Series at Fries Auditorium Monday evening, December 13, at 8:15.

The show will be preceded by a dinner of French gourmet specialties served in the Christmas decorated Crystal Ballroom at 7 o'clock. Dinner and show are offered for $4.50 (tax and service included). Show only is $1.50.

Included in the travelogue will be searching for truffles, the calauques (the French fjords), the making of French bread and seldom-filmed interiors of famous landmarks.

City life will be shown in the Gallerie's Lafayette Department Store, the Paris metro and the modern architecture springing up. The theater and ballet will be shown as well as the ancient art of weaving tapestries.

Homes, schools and market places will be viewed to get the real feel of the people of France.

Stephanie Peoples Is November Bride

Holy Trinity Church, Georgetown, was the setting for the Wednesday, November 22, wedding of Stephanie Wesley Peoples, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley John Peoples, of Washington road, and Nicholas Curt Forstmann.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Jesse Sammis, of Greenwich, Conn., and the late Julius Forstmann.

A reception at the Mayflower Hotel, Washington, D.C., followed the 11:30 o'clock rites, after which the newlyweds left for a vacation in Jamaica.

They are making their home in Georgetown. For her marriage, the former Miss Peoples chose a double peau de soie gown, trimmed at the neckline, sleeves and bodice with seed pearls.

Her fingertip tulle veil fell from an Alencon lace cap, and she carried an arrangement of white roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

In floor length frocks of chartrouse silk were Angela Peoples, who served as her sister's honor attendant, and bridesmaid Elisa Forstmann, sister of the bridegroom.

Their naline caps featured green velvet bows, and they carried yellow roses.

Theodore Forstmann, of New York City, acted as his brother's best man. Ushering were two other brothers of the bridegroom, Anthony Forstmann, of New York, and John Forstmann, of Sumner, Md.

The bride's mother wore a coat and dress ensemble of brown and winter white wool and a white mink hat. The bridegroom's mother selected a costume of shocking pink wool and a mink pillbox hat.

Lincoln-Tilley Rites Are Read

Suzy Tilley, daughter of Mrs. Wright Tilley, of Lakeland avenue, and George Cook Tilley, of Detroit, was married to William Taylor Lincoln Saturday, November 25, at a 4 o'clock ceremony in St. John's Episcopal Church, Detroit.

Officiating at the rites was the Reverend Thomas F. Frisby.

Only immediate families and a few close friends of the couple attended the wedding reception at the home of the bride's mother following the service.

For her marriage, the former Miss Tilley chose a street length dress of citron yellow wool gabardine, styled with an Empire bodice and A line skirt, and a matching velvet Dior headband. She carried a small stephanotis and ivy bouquet.

She was attended by Carol Porter, of Ann Arbor, who wore an A line skimmer of lime green wool and carried an arrangement of miniature yellow carnations and ivy.

The bridegroom's brother, Edgar Bingham Lincoln III, of Grand Rapids, was best man. They are the sons of the Edgar Bingham Lincolns, of Marshall, who entertained the wedding party at a luncheon at the Detroit Club preceding the wedding.

The newlyweds plan to make their home in Muir road.

Among out-of-town guests were the bridegroom's sister, Mary Lincoln, of Fairfield, Conn., the bride's brother, Jefferson Wright Tilley, who flew in from Claremont, Calif., where he is attending college, the bride's aunt, Mrs. Samuel Schneider and Colby Schneider, of Ann Arbor, Mr. Timothy O'Rourke, of Akron, O., and William Woodruff Perrett, of Miami, Fla.

Former Pointers Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Clark Tilley, the bride's uncle and aunt, flew to Detroit from their home in Puerto Rico for the occasion, and the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Robert J. Stewart, came from Delray Beach, Fla.

The Thomas Tilleys and Mrs. Stewart arrived in time for a family Thanksgiving celebration at Mrs. Schneider's home in Ann Arbor.

The bride was graduated from Grosse Pointe University School and the University of Michigan, and has been teaching in Romulus Community Schools and pursuing graduate studies for the past year.

The bridegroom also was graduated from the University of Michigan, where he affiliated with Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity, and is currently enrolled in the Wayne State University Law School.

AAUW Program Grants Offered

Women over 35 who are interested in continuing their education to pursue college faculty level positions may apply now for grants from the College Faculty Program sponsored by the American Association of University Women, it was announced here this week.

This program, which has been carried on in Michigan for the past two years, is designed to assist mature women to continue with advanced education and at the same time to help alleviate a growing and serious shortage of instructors at the college level, according to Mrs. David Howell, chairman of the program for the Grosse Pointe Branch of AAUW.

Specifically, College Faculty Program grants are open to women 35 or over who hold Bachelor's degrees, wish to become candidates for their Masters' degrees, and plan a college faculty level career. Anyone interested may call Mrs. Howell at TO 1-5027 for further details.

Deadline for applications to the program is February 1. Grants consist of tuition, fees, and a personal stipend, depending on demonstrated need, ranging from $600 to $2,000.

Mrs. James A. Durkin, of Severn road, was one of nine Michigan women awarded grants last year. Mrs. Durkin is presently pursuing her field of Home Economics at Wayne State University and hopes eventually to translate her teaching and research into practical writing in the field of child behavior.

Financial support for the College Faculty Program comes from various AAUW branches throughout the state and from gifts by both individuals and foundations.

Among those contributing this year are the Chrysler Corporation, The Campbell Ewald Foundation, the Sears Roebuck Foundation and the Civir Fund of Kalamazoo.

Charles J. Debel, 47, of 24725 Star alley, St. Clair Shores, personally reported to Farms police on Wednesday, November 29, that while his car was parked on Kercheval, an unknown person switched the front blue colored wheel with a perfectly good tire, with a white wheel with a bad tire. The wheels matched, and both are from the same model vehicle, a 1966 Olds station wagon.

'Understudies' Get Ready To Act

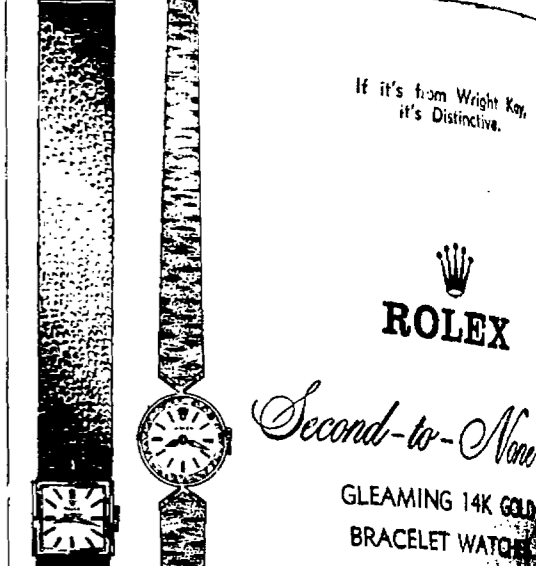

MRS. JOSEPH A. VANCE, JR., (center), of South Deeplands road, new chairman of the "Understudies," a group of Detroit area women who work to support Wayne State University's Hilberry Classic Theater, discusses plans for the Theater's upcoming season with WSU PRESIDENT and MRS. WILLIAM R. KEAST. The Understudies' major project each year is the President's Preview, a benefit opening night performance through which the committee raises fellowship funds for the graduate students who act in the company. This year's Preview, scheduled in January, will be a performance of Georges Feydeau's "A Flea in Her Ear." In addition to the Preview, the Understudies this year are sponsoring a program service for women's clubs. Understudies will take a color film about the theater to club meetings to help widen interest in the Hilberry company. They are also planning a women's club matinee on February 28 at the WSU's McGregor Memorial Conference theater, to be preceded by a luncheon at Center.

Salute To Symphony Fashionscope Ladies

Cocktail Party Honors Women Working For Benefit Style Show Scheduled February 27 And 28 At Hudson's Downtown

Mrs. Harvey O. Dixon, Jr., general chairman for the 1968 Fashionscope, annual benefit fashion show presented by the Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra at Hudson's Downtown, saluted both her committee chairmen and their patient, understanding husbands at a cocktail party at the Dixon home on Sunday afternoon, December 3. Mr. Dixon was host for the affair.

Among Pointers who attended with their spouses were Mrs. Murray Young, reservations chairman; Mrs. George P. Johnson, Jr., hostesses; and Mrs. Ray W. MacDonald, tea chairman.

More were Mrs. Thomas H. McMahon, patroness chairman; Mrs. William J. Collins, bus committee; Mrs. Joseph J. Marshall, publicity; Mrs. Arnold W. Lungershausen, Women's Association president; and Joseph W. Louisell, who is giving the Fashionscope kick-off party in her Three Mile drive home on January 9.

Others invited to the Dixon "do" were Mrs. Harold K. Daniels, Mrs. John H. Ortman and William S. Schindler, of the J. L. Hudson Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Winter, (she's general ticket chairman), came in from Birmingham and Mr. and Mrs. Edward I. Nicholas from Bloomfield Hills.

Fashionscope 1968 is scheduled for February 27 and 28. The earlier-than-usual dates will be welcome news to those who "always go away in March" and consequently have been forced to miss this glamorous Symphony benefit.

Center to Give Party for Kids

Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association will present special Christmas program for children Sunday afternoon, December 17. It is a combined production of the Center's Youth and the Theater Division of the Detroit Institute of Arts.

At 2 p.m. and 3 p.m. the Art Center Puppeteers will present "The Tale of the Woodstock" in his production of "Cinderella." This show as presented by the major puppeteers of the United States. It is featured in this year's festival and was presented at "Expo 67." Creative original, the show is colorful and at 4 o'clock, the War Memorial schedule of events for the month has been cancelled.

To Aid St. John Christmas Ball

St. John Hospital's Fontbonne Auxiliary is easily one of the most imaginative, energetic and productive hospital auxiliaries in the country. Its list of events and activities ranges from sponsorship of horse shows and ice productions to maintenance of Hospital Gift Shop and, at Christmas time each year, the White Christmas Ball.

Judging from the success of the past 13 White Christmas Balls, Mrs. Charles J. Burke, general chairman, Mrs. Michael C. Burke, general co-chairman, and their various committee assistants are convinced that even though the party "tab" has been doubled, from $50 to $100 a ticket, this year's Ball has everything going for it.

The Auxiliaries hope to raise $50,000 for the Hospital's new eight-bed Coronary Care Unit.

According to medical literature, approximately 30 per cent of patients with coronary attacks can be saved if they are cared for promptly in a modern Coronary Care Unit, and there has been nothing half-hearted about the ladies of Fontbonne taking full advantage of these odds in their promotion of the 14th White Christmas Ball, to be held at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club this Saturday evening, December 9.

In And About Detroit Music Club To Meet

The annual Christmas meeting for the In and About Detroit Music Educators Club will be held this year on Saturday, December 9, at 12 noon in the Ballroom at the Detroit Veterans Memorial Building. The program will include a String Quartet from Ford High School, Detroit, directed by Helen Kartesz, and from Andover High School in Bloomfield Hills a group called "The Jills" under the direction of Clarence Luchtman, featuring vocal selections accented by Swiss Bells.

The traditional Christmas sing will be under the direction of Mrs. Ollie McFarland, of the Detroit Public Schools. The audience will join in some selected choral music as well as some of the familiar Christmas carols.

Slate Christmas Tea At Memorial Church

Mrs. J. C. Hurley and Mrs. Ross J. Bush are co-chairmen of Traditional Holiday Gathering For Women's Association Members.

The Grosse Pointe Chamber Singers, under the direction of William Y. Gard, will present a program of Christmas music at the annual Christmas tea given by the Women's Association of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

This year, the holiday party is scheduled Tuesday, December 12, at 1:30 o'clock, in the Church Fellowship Hall.

Tea general co-chairmen are Mrs. J. C. Hurley and Mrs. Ross J. Bush.

The Chamber Singers were founded in 1958, with Dr. Donald Simmons as conductor. The group consists of 16 amateur capella singers who have performed at Oakland University, in Fries Auditorium and over the Wayne State University Radio Station.

SEW Goes to Theater

The Society of Engineers' Wives dispensed with their regular December luncheon meeting in order to enjoy an afternoon at the theater Wednesday, December 6. Many of the group gathered for luncheon at the Mauna Loa before going over to the Fisher Theater to see "How To Be a Jewish Mother."

In fact, this remarkable group of Auxiliaries can hardly be accused of being half-hearted about any of their projects during the past 20 years of their existence at St. John. The 20th Anniversary Brochure of Fontbonne reveals that the ladies have raised and donated to the Hospital over $600,000.

Current president of Fontbonne Auxiliary is Mrs. John H. Madison, honorary chairman of the 1967 White Christmas Ball is Frederick K. Cody.

Serving on the Ball publicity committee, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Leo A. Marx, are Mrs. Theodore W. Berendsohn, co-chairman, Mrs. Charles Da-wood and Mrs. Phillip Marco.

Program chairman are co-chairman are Mrs. Walter B. Fisher and Mrs. A. Joseph Hoski, respectively.

Their committee members include the Mesdames Paul D. Bagwell, Dominic Vendittelli, Frederick Kolowicz, James F. Lyone, Thomas W. Baumgarten, James Kennary, Jr., William Bristol, William A. Ternes, Joseph Schoenith and Roland Rinke.

More are Mrs. Frank Couzens, Jr., Mrs. Leo Fitzpatrick, Jr., Mrs. Joseph A. Maillo, Mrs. Vernon P. Johnson, Mrs. Benjamin F. Haddad, Mrs. Robert M. Fraser, Mrs. David T. Marantette and Mrs. John P. Ottaway.

Mrs. William Carroll is in charge of favors, and serving on the invitations committee are Mrs. James N. Motschall, chairman, Mrs. Robert C. Wakely, co-chairman, and the Mesdames Clifford D. Benson, Eugene L. Freitas, William P. Clark, Frank Colombo and James E. Coyle.

Reservations chairman and co-chairman, Mrs. James C. Danforth, Jr., and Mrs. Bradford Lundy, Jr., are being assisted by Mrs. Richard Shalla and Mrs. Walter L. Van Goethem, Jr.

Mrs. Claude A. Greiner is in charge of decorations. Her co-chairman is Mrs. William Beckenhauer.

Serving on their committee are the Mesdames Chilton Drysdale, Raymond M. Whyte, William Singworth, Jr., Raymond J. Kokowicz, William J. Lilly, Louis Palombit, Paul Rizzo and Anthony Shemansky.

Mrs. Roger Rinke is hostess-chairman, assisted by co-chairman Mrs. C. Don Steepe.

Their committee members include Mrs. William F. Baker, Mrs. John L. Drummy, Mrs. Thomas K. Fisher, Mrs. Robert C. Thumann, Jr., Mrs. John M.
