HEADLINES of the WEEK As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, February 6
PRESIDENT NIXON announced immediate removal Wednesday of all postmaster and rural mail-carrier appointments from political patronage, abolishing a system that has existed since the first postmaster general, Benjamin Franklin. Mr. Nixon made the announcement jointly at the White House with Postmaster General Winton M. Blount. Blount said that when future vacancies occur for postmaster-ships or rural carrier jobs, "the best qualified candidate will be appointed, regardless of politics."

PRESIDENT NIXON took a major step toward improving Soviet-American relations Wednesday by asking the Senate to approve a treaty banning the spread of nuclear weapons.

Friday, February 7
THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT announced Thursday that it has suspended work on the $6 billion Sentinel anti-ballistic missile (ABM) system while it reviews all "major weapons systems."

PRESIDENT NIXON announced Thursday he will leave February 23 for a five-nation tour of western Europe intended to revitalize the Atlantic alliance and explore the prospects for a summit meeting with Soviet leaders. The eight-day trip will end on March 2 with a conference with United States negotiators at the Paris peace talks and with a visit to Pope Paul VI in the Vatican.

Saturday, February 8
GENERAL MOTORS CORPORATION Friday branded as "misleading, often irrelevant and one-sided" a Federal Trade Commission staff report on auto warranties. The GM statement was presented at the FTC hearings which resumed Friday in Washington. Chrysler Corporation made similar charges in a 42-page reply to the FTC report of November 18, last month.

Sunday, February 9
AN UNDERWATER OIL well finally was capped Saturday after it caused extensive damage to beaches and harbors for a 30-mile stretch in and around Santa Barbara, Cal. Spokesmen for the federal government and Union Oil Company of California said the 21,000-gallons-a-day flow from the undersea well six miles offshore finally was controlled late Friday and plugged with cement Saturday morning.

Monday, February 10
THE HEAVIEST SNOWSTORM in two years turned the New York metropolitan area into a winterland of misery Sunday. Huge snow drifts blocked highways and airports. Wet snow snapped overhead power lines. There were no deaths or serious injuries but police report a rash of minor road accidents. The Weather Bureau reported a snowfall of up to 16 inches, with up to 13 inches in other parts of New York state and Connecticut.

COMMUNIST EAST GERMANY announced Sunday a sweeping ban that bars travel to and from Berlin by West Germany parliament and state legislature members due to elect a new federal president March 5. President Nixon is scheduled to visit West Berlin February 27 and could find himself faced with a growing crisis.

Tuesday, February 11
THE WORST SNOWSTORM in eight years left the Northeast a winter no-man's land Monday. Schools, airports, railroads, highways, financial and commodity markets were closed and only a few essential businesses operated. The death toll is mounting steadily. The near-blizzard dumped 15 inches on New York City in 28 hours and smothered parts of Maine with 24 inches before moving out to sea Monday morning.

More Than 200 Pointe Kids Being Opposed by 100 from Ridgeway, Ontario

The Grosse Pointe Hockey Association has completed the final arrangements for the annual Hockey Tournament to be held at McCann Rink this Saturday and Sunday. This tournament will be the largest one ever undertaken by the Association in its 10-year history and will involve over 200 youngsters.

This year, Ridgeway, Ontario, will be furnishing the opposition and it has entered seven teams comprising over 100 players to vie for the many individual and team honors. Since this tournament will be a two-day affair, the players from Ridgeway will be overnight guests of Grosse Pointe youngsters who are on the teams that Ridgeway will be playing.

There will be three games played on Saturday evening and the remaining ones will be held on Sunday morning beginning at 8 and running through noon.

Pointe Pupils Being Shown The Evils of Drug Addiction

By James Njaim
The deadly tentacles of drug addiction, acquired through the use of narcotics of all forms, touch practically every community in the nation, and are being fought by every law enforcement agency, Federal, State and on the local level. Those who are so naive as to believe that illegal drug usage is not going on in the Pointe, have only to talk to officers of each of the five Pointe Police Departments, who have broken up a number of "pot" parties within their jurisdiction, and who have done their share in confiscating marijuana, and other drugs at these parties and from individuals arrested. Illegal drug usage and addiction in the past few years has become one of the most serious

Public Education Finance In Pointe Subject of Talk By School Business Head

Ray MacArthur Discusses Budget Operation with School Board; Functions and Limitations of System Explained

Ray MacArthur, Director of Business and Finance, discussed "Financing Public Education in Grosse Pointe Today," at the Monday, February 3, meeting of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education. An especially interesting part of his presentation was his explanation of the budget operation. He said "Our budget operation is a planned financing and spending program, with the cooperative effort of the entire staff, to obtain the best materials and services available in support of the educational program."

Catch Shoplifter Possessing Drug

City police received a call on Saturday, February 8, from Earl Paton, an employee of the A and P Store, 17120 Kercheval, reporting he was holding a juvenile shoplifter.

On arrival officers found a boy had attempted to leave the store with a package of cupcake valued at 79 cents. He had no money on his person. He was advised of his rights then searched. Found on his person was one capsule containing white powder that the youth told officers was marijuana, a hallucinatory drug. He said he purchased the capsule for $4.50 from another youth. Police are investigating.

Emergency Blood Drive February 20

Red Cross Sending Double Unit; Hope to Get 300 Pints to Refill Empty Bank

An emergency blood collection will take place at the War Memorial Center on Thursday, February 20. The American Red Cross is sending a double unit which will be set up in the Center's Crystal Ballroom to receive donors from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Detroit's coffers are empty and so is the Grosse Pointe Community Blood Bank maintained by the War Memorial for free loan to Grosse Pointers in case of emergency. The goal of this blood bank is to obtain 300 pints. Appointment cards are available through churches in the Grosse Pointe area and are at the War Memorial where one can make an appointment by calling TU 1-7511. Appointments help greatly in scheduling donors so there is a minimum of waiting.

Few Not Eligible
Any adult can give up to age 60 except those with a history of hepatitis or blood disease or women who are pregnant. Teenagers 18 and over can give with parents permission. This is an urgently needed gift which nearly everyone can give without cost or harm to himself.

Library Director's Pleas Heeded by School Board

The matter of improvements at the Grosse Pointe Public Libraries as recommended by the Director of Public Libraries, Robert M. Orr, and his staff on Monday, January 13, which were tabled in order to give the members of the Board of Education an opportunity to study the situation and recommendations, was approved by board members on Monday, February 10, in a voting marathon that finally ended in a 5-2 vote in favor of approving Mr. Orr's recommendations. Mr. Orr suggested that the present book stacks at the Central Library be moved from the second floor stack rooms to the first floor Main Reading Room, in order to get all of the library's book collection on open shelves where they would be ac-

Ambassador First Speaker in Forum Series at Center

Hon. Bunchana Athakor Giving Opening Lecture at War Memorial Auditorium at 8:15 p.m. on Tuesday, February 18

The first speaker in the Fries Forum series will be the Honorable Bunchana Athakor, Ambassador of Thailand to the United States. The first program in the four part series being co-sponsored by the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association and the Detroit Area Council on World Affairs will be held at the War Memorial on February 18, beginning at 8:15 in Fries Auditorium.

Ambassador Athakor will address the Forum on the subject "A Long Range View of Asia." He has a remarkably varied background with an M.A. from Indiana University, a diploma in economic development from Oxford University, in addition to being a graduate of the National Defense College of Thailand.

Has Wide Experience
In Thailand, Ambassador Athakor was Deputy Minister of National Development and Director-General of the Department of Technical and Economic Cooperation from 1963 to 1967 before being named Ambassador to the United States. He has participated on numerous other governmental bodies in Thailand. Three times the Ambassador led the Thai Delegation to meetings of the Economic Commission for Asia and the Pacific at the United Nations.

The Ambassador, because of his governmental positions, was very active in drawing up the First National Economic Development Plan for Thailand. He was also most active in land development and in initiating manpower planning in Thailand.

Mark Stevens, Thai consul in Detroit, will introduce the Ambassador to the Fries Forum with Frank P. McBride, Jr. moderating questions and comments following the Ambassador's message.

Other Programs Booked
Future programs in the series will be held on Tuesday, February 25; Tuesday, March 4; and Monday, March 10, all in the Fries Auditorium of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

On February 25 Professor William E. Griffith who presently in both Professor of Political Science at Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Professor of Soviet Diplomacy at the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy of Tufts University, will come from Boston to speak on the subject "Europe and East-West Relations."

Professor Griffith was the Political Advisor to Radio Free Europe from 1951-1958. He is the author of many books on Communism and on relations between members of the Communist bloc. Sir James Easton, President of the Detroit Area Council on World Affairs and former British Consul General, and Russell Barnes, former Detroit News analyst, will join Professor Griffith at the conclusion of his talk for a panel discussion.

Peace Corps Director

Both Cities Will Ballot In Primaries

Council Seats, Judgeship, Fair Housing Issues in Farms; Park to Pick Judge Candidates

Farms electors will go to the polls on Monday, February 17, in a primary election to pick eight candidates who will vie for four council seats at a regular election to be held on April 7.

Two incumbents and seven newcomers are competing for the council posts, with one certainly facing defeat. The Farms voters will also cast ballots for a municipal judge, sought by the present judge, Robert Pytel, who two years ago was elected to fill the unexpired term of Grant Armstrong, who resigned. Pytel is unopposed.

Also on the ballot will be an advisory vote, in which the people will be asked as to whether or not the city council shall enact a local Fair Housing Ordinance, which would prohibit, at the local level, discrimination against anyone because of race, color, creed, national origin, age or sex, who wants to buy or rent a home in the Farms.

Candidates' Views
So that the Farms electors may know for whom they are voting, the following is a thumbnail sketch of the hopeful candidates, and their views on the subject of the fall leaf burning, and possible solutions. It appears that the city is the only Pointe that has no ordinance banning leaf burning, or equipment to gather and dispose of leaves. These are the candidates:

Richard C. Hudson, 54, of 430 Roland road, incumbent, who is completing his four-year term, and asking for a return to the council, has been a resident of the Farms since June 1955, and is an engineer. He received his degree in engineering from Tufts University, Boston, Mass., and presently is chief estimating engineer for the Albert Kahn Associated Architects and Engineers, Incorporated.

He is married to the former Marjorie Dill of Detroit. They are the parents of Rick, 17, and Sandra, 14, both students at Grosse Pointe North High School. Hudson said that he takes his councilmanic responsibilities seriously, and hopes that he will be returned as a councilman so that he can continue work for the betterment of the community.

Qualities Stand
He said that he is in favor of providing any services necessary, if it will benefit the citizens, and if there are funds to provide the services. In the matter of the leaves, he favored banning leaf burning, and the purchase of equipment to gather the leaves, if this is what the people want, and if there is money for this purpose. The voters elect the members of the council, and it is the duty of the council to try to satisfy the city as a whole.

Another incumbent, Mark C. Stevens, 67, of 280 Moross road, is also seeking a second term. He has been with the council for four years. He was born in Detroit and has lived in the Farms since 1933.

He is a graduate of Detroit's Old Central High School, now Wayne State University. He graduated magna cum laude from both Harvard and Trinity College in Cambridge, Mass.

His wife, the former Betsy Dossan, died about four years ago. There are three children, Mrs. Betty Ann Sutton of the Woods; Mark Stevens, Jr., 32, of Miami, Fla.; and Navy Lt. (j.g.) Thomas B. Stevens, who is stationed at a submarine base in Key West, Fla.

For Burning Ban
"I feel that we should enact an ordinance to ban leaf burning, and if there are funds available, to purchase equipment to pick up leaves. There are many people in the community who suffer an asthmatic condition, and they should be considered by being given relief. I'll be pushing for a solution, if rejected, before" (Continued on Page 6)

Rape Suspect Hangs Self In Park Jail

Commits Suicide About 10 Minutes Before He Was to Be Taken into Custody by Detroit Police

A 22-year-old Detroit Negro, arrested by Park police at the request of Detroit authorities as a suspect in the rape of two and possibly three women, hung himself in the Park's Local cell Monday night, February 10, approximately 10 minutes before Detroit policemen arrived to take him into custody.

Pronounced dead on arrival at Bon Secours Hospital was Audley Joseph Badgett of 984 Navaho, who, according to information released by Capt. Gerard Kesteloot, was found hanging from a flat metal bar of the cell. He had hung cord lace from one of his high top boots, it was said.

Badgett was cut down and firemen attempted to revive him with oxygen, but without success.

Crowd Storms Building
Shortly after the youth's death was made known, a large crowd of Negroes stormed the Park Municipal Building housing the police station, 15115 Jefferson, accusing police of brutality, and calling them murderers and other names. The crowd picketed the building and threatened to burn it down, and to burn the city.

Shores Police Chief Thomas Cochill, this month's coordinator of Mutual Police Aid for the Pointe and Harper Woods, placed all his personnel on the alert and on standby for emergencies. Farms Police Chief Jack F. Roh did the same regarding his department.

All Park police officers off-duty were ordered to report for emergency duty, Capt. Kesteloot said. A group from the crowd storming the municipal building went to the hospital where they demanded Badgett's body be released to them. They were refused.

Group Attacks Officers
Tuesday morning, February 11, Sgt. Thomas Martin, night platoon commander, and Patrolman William Furtaw went to the Wayne County Medical Examiner's Office to testify at (Continued on Page 4) tion by the Board of Education is a responsibility of the Superintendent.

The budget is developed under the guidance and in consultation with the Superintendent. It is based upon educational needs and trends, thus resulting in a "performance budget."

General direction and supervision of budget planning and development are handled by an Administrative Budget Committee.

II. Presentation and Adoption: Prior to the first of June, copies of the recommended budget, as prepared and reviewed by the Superintendent, are submitted to individual members of the board. After the Board has completed its study and review, the budget is considered in an open meeting of the Board.

If there are no further changes or recommendations the budget is then adopted by the Board and becomes the legal instrument for guiding our financial activities for the coming year.

III. Administration: Subsequent to the adoption of the budget by the Board, the various taxing units are properly notified and the information contained in the budget is entered into our accounting records.

Each Administrator is advised of the amount of funds that have been appropriated for each function. On this basis, requisitions are prepared. They are reviewed by the respective Administrators to reach building.

If the request is reasonable and is in accordance with the planned program, it is approved and forwarded to the Purchasing Department.

IV. Appraisal: It will be recognized that there is a continuous appraisal being made from the time of adoption of the budget through to the final audit.

The monthly budget reports to the schools and the monthly finance and budget reports to the Board afford excellent opportunities for appraisal.

We believe that an informal mid-year review by the Board, the Superintendent, and the Directors would prove useful and informative.

The annual audit report provides an excellent summary, not only of the budget operation, but the over all financial operation of the system.

Investment Procedures: Our Board of Education has maintained a policy of investing surplus funds, and other funds for which there are no immediate requirements.

Since 1950, we have been investing proceeds of Bond Sales from our Building and Site Fund. These investments have been made during periods when the funds were not required for payment on construction contracts.

In 1955 the State revised its School Code which made it possible to also apply investment practices to General Operating funds.

Evils of Drug Addiction

their command, at least two departments, the Park and the Woods, are trying to hit this illegal drug trade, through lectures and visual education. They are taking the matter directly to the various Pointe schools, with frank talks on the evils of addiction, and arranging to have displays shown to the students.

In the Park, the team undertaking this work is comprised of Det. Sgt. James LaPratt and Det. Charles Petrie; and in the Woods, it's Det. Martin Trombly. Their assignments are cleared through their respective superiors, Park Director of Public Safety William Ellenburg, and until a new director of public safety is appointed in the Woods, Capt. Donald Coats.

These officers are too busy talking to students to handle speaker-lecture assignments to clubs and other civic organizations, and have had to refuse many requests for talks on the subject. At any rate, everything must be cleared by their superiors, who note that the detectives are doing a tremendous service to the people of the community.

On Friday, February 7, LaPratt and Petrie gave a lecture, and showed a display case containing various drugs and drug addiction equipment, such as needles, etc., confiscated from persons arrested and accused of illegal possession or use of the equipment and drugs. Their "talk and show" was given to the pupils of Trombly School.

"We feel that we can successfully reach the minds of children, and explain to them the horrors of drug addiction," LaPratt and Petrie said. "Children are more impressed and keep in mind things they are shown and taught."

"We hope to reach every young pupil in the schools, and explain every aspect of this matter, which suddenly seemed to mushroom throughout the country, and which, today, is ruining countless lives, and in many cases, causing death," the detectives said.

"We and every other police officer, want the young people, and anyone else, to know facts that are facts, and not garner information from the street corners where they are not given the true concepts of what drug usage and addiction can do to them. We want to bring home the truth to these future citizens, and not have them pick up inaccurate information under a 'buddy-buddy system.'"

LaPratt said that a seminar under the sponsorship of the Grosse Pointe Fraternal Order of Police, Lodge 102, will soon be started for Pointe and Harper Woods police officers, with himself as chairman. The seminar will place each policeman in a better position to help cope with the ever-mounting dope menace.

LaPratt pointed out that many, many persons have been led into a life of drug addiction, that is, using heroin and other major drugs, through the initial use of marijuana.

"Marijuana is the first step, and don't let anyone try to tell you different," the detective said. "I am appalled at some of these doctors and men of science, blessed with intelligence and reasoning powers, who claim that there is no harm in smoking, or using marijuana. All I can say to their so-called theories is 'phooey,'" he stressed.

"It has been proven, time and time again, through scientific police laboratory tests, crime statistics, investigations and every means that the law has at its command, that serious drug addicts had their start by using marijuana. Too, it has been proven, so many times, that most of the serious crimes committed today, are committed by drug addicts who resort to violence to obtain money to feed their habit."

He pointed to a pamphlet being circulated "Drug Abuse: The Empty Life," in which it was disclosed that in New York alone, to pick a large city, addicts must raise from $500,000 to $700,000 a day to support their habit. To do so, it is stated, many turn to such crimes as robbery, shoplifting, burglary, forgery, and prostitution.

It is reported in the pamphlet, that, although less severe, the picture is comparable in Chicago, Los Angeles, Detroit and other major cities.

LaPratt said that young people are vulnerable, and are usually introduced to drugs by friends, not by "pushers." It is hard to refuse a favor or a dare from a friend, and even harder to be the only holdout in a group.

Pointing to the pamphlet, the detective showed that the abuser deprived of drugs suffers greatly, but that the worst part of this, is whether "high" or looking for his next kick, the user has lost control of his life. He has given up the power to decide and to act—the very things that make him human.

It is not known at what point the user loses control, but the worst mistake is to assume you can stop once you start, LaPratt said. There is no single drug (Continued on Page 5)

Library Director's Plea

(Continued from Page 1) able the department to have all its activities housed in one unit and keep those non-book materials beyond the Charging Desk where they can be charged out with more efficiency.

The improvements also included the installation of wash-room facilities on the second floor. Estimated cost of these changes is around $5,000.

The discussion at last Monday night's meeting, led by Calvin Sandberg and Arnold Fuchs centered around tabling the matter once again until further studies could be made.

Vice-president Calvin Sandberg made a lengthy report based on two tours he had made of the Central Library and discussions he had with other board members and "other professionals whose backgrounds qualify them to make pertinent comment."

Among the problems Mr. Sandberg mentioned in his report were that the relocation of the Processing Department, upon the recommendation of the staff that uses it, is not really getting professional advice. He indicated architects should be hired to review the situation and make their recommendations. He stressed the fact that 20 steps up and down for members of the processing department staff was difficult and inefficient, even calculating to the minute time and money wasted in transit. He also indicated his concern regarding the safety of relocating the processing department upstairs where the windows are small and the only exit is a stairway.

Mr. Orr pointed out to Mr. Sandberg that the Fire Chief had assured him that there was no reason to be concerned and that it was perfectly safe.

Mr. Sandberg asked that the recommendations be tabled, Mr. Fuchs seconded the motion and it was defeated by a 5-2 vote with all other board members voting no.

Mr. Sandberg then recommended that the present recommendations and motion be amended to include a further study, which he indicated would preclude making any of these changes until recommendations from an architect were received. Once again a vote was taken and defeated by a 5-2 vote.

Mr. Fuchs spent considerable time discussing having the processing of the books done by two outside firms. Mr. Orr was familiar with both firms. He indicated that processing locally more efficiently suited the needs of the community.

Dr. Joseph Spagnoli assistant superintendent-instruction informed Mr. Fuchs of the fact that North High School's books were processed by one of these firms and that the service was quite slow.

Mr. Fuchs indicated that he too wished to further research the situation and would like the motion to approve tabled.

After much more discussion the vote was finally taken and Mr. Orr's recommendations were approved.

All board members indicated that these changes were not the answer to the library problem but until the electorate sees fit to vote the money for extensive improvements needed, they serve as good interim measures.

Clothing Stolen At Penney Store

Frank Galda, manager of the J. C. Penney store at 19251 Mack avenue, reported to Woods police a robbery that apparently occurred between Saturday night, February 8, and Sunday morning, February 9.

The loss in clothing is believed to be extensive, but the exact amount cannot be determined until an inventory is taken.

George Young of 788 Hawthorne road reported to Woods police that sometime early on the morning of Saturday, February 8, a person or persons dumped approximately 50 pounds of what looked like white flour on his porch, bushes and lawn.

Detroit police broke up the assault and arrested six persons who took part in the attack. Martin was unharmed, but Furtaw was struck on the head with a heavy shoe, suffering a gash. He was taken to Detroit General Hospital (Receiving) where several stitches were required to close the wound.

Capt. Kesteloot said that Barget was arrested by Patrolman Gary Mitchell at Wayburn and St. Paul, on the basis of a description given by Detroit police, who asked all law agencies to be on the lookout for the suspect. The arrest was made at 9:15 p.m.

Belongings Taken

The captain said that Badgett's personal belongings were taken from him for safekeeping, including his trouser belt. The man was only in the cell about 10 minutes before Detroit officers arrived to take him into custody for investigation and questioning, it was stated.

Kesteloot said that Badgett removed his face from the boot, tied it to the bar and around his neck, and jumped from the cell cot, and was strangled.

Another group of blacks came to the station Tuesday morning, the captain said, but not to create a disturbance. He said that they merely sought information on what had happened.

An investigation in the matter is still being continued, it was said, but in the meantime, all departments have been placed on the alert until further notice for any emergency that might develop.

Giacalone Faces Bribery Charge

Alleged Mafia leader Anthony Giacalone, of 701 Balfour road, was charged Tuesday, February 4, with operating a Pontiac gambling place and bribing police officers.

The charge stemmed from information received by self-styled Mafia moneymen, Peter Lazaros, who is still under police guard.

Judge James R. Stelt of Pontiac issued warrants for Giacalone and Louis "Rip" Koury, his alleged associate, at the request of Oakland County Prosecutor Thomas Plunkett and Lt. Chris Swartzendruber, Detroit area intelligence chief of State Police.

Giacalone is sought on the double charge of conspiracy to bribe Pontiac officers and gambling conspiracy.

Lazaros was named as co-conspirator (not defendant) and is expected to be the major witness against both Giacalone and Koury.

State and Pontiac police raided the old Civic Seaway and Social Club in Pontiac in June of 1968. Both men are charged with operating a barbut gambling game there, from March to October, 1965.

At the time of the raid some 29 persons were arrested. Captain Raymond E. Meggill, of the Pontiac police testified in June, 1966, at the trial of the reputed operators of the club, that they had paid him a total of $2,050 in bribes to protect the club under the code name of "Mickey." Police said that Giacalone, Koury and Lazaros were not known by police to be connected with the management of the club at that time.

fire, $1,700. The report submitted by the Farms Fire Department showed that a total of 149 alarms were answered, of which 16 were false.

The total loss during the year was set at $78,945, of which dwellings accounted for $59,006; contents in the homes accounted for $19,249; and auto fires added $690.

The Woods Department of Public Safety recorded a response to 182 alarms, of which 90 were to home fires. The total fire loss in the Woods during 1968, amounted to $84,893. There were no fire damages to commercial buildings.

Pointe Drivers Taken Off Road

Six residents of the Pointe were deprived of their driving privileges by the Secretary of State's Office in Lansing, according to the latest report received from Secretary of State James M. Hare, dated January 23. Five of those penalized are forbidden to drive for a period of three months, and the sixth had his operator's license taken from him under the provisions of the Financial Responsibility Law.

Three of the motorists had their licenses suspended for a period of three months under the Implied Consent Law, which calls for an automatic 90-day suspension when a driver refuses to take a breathalyzer test when arrested on a charge of driving while under the influence of liquor. Deprived of the right to drive for this reason, were:

William S. Faber of 1037 Kensington road, forbidden to drive from December 21, 1968 through March 20, 1969; Donald Lee Butt of 1240 Wayburn avenue, from December 11 through March 10; and Edward M. McElligott of 855 Hampton road, from December 19 through March 18.

Two motorists had their licenses suspended because of unsatisfactory driving records. They are: Kenneth C. Kozowicz of 2110 Vernier road, from December 23 through March 23; and Paul C. Vandekerckhove of 2217 Hollywood, from December 20 through March 18.

Banned from the road as of January 9 under terms of the Financial Responsibility Law is William Morrison, Jr., of 1427 Lakepointe, because of a motor vehicle accident. His license was taken from him under the Claims Fund section of the law, since he had no insurance, and this will not be returned until all claims have been settled. As of the latest report, it was not disclosed if the matter had been cleared.

abuser alive, or dead, who did not at one time or another assert that he would not get hooked, that it cannot happen to him. The list of names of persons enslaved by drugs, is almost endless, and growing every day.

In the City, Police Chief Andrew Teetaert said that the illegal use of drugs has increased in his community, and that his department will continue to crack down on this practice, and arrests will be made when necessary.

All police officers of his department have been instructed to be extra alert and to investigate any unusual gathering of persons on the streets, or any where else, in an all-out effort to stamp out this crime.

"Arrests will be made, if and when necessary, within the scope of the law," Chief Teetaert said. "I ask all parents, and other citizens in our community to cooperate with our department, if they should note that their children are in possession of illegal drugs, or under the influence of drugs. We will investigate the matter thoroughly."

Farms Voters Going to Polls Next Monday

(Continued from Page 1) This coming fall season, Stevens said. Mrs. William J. (Nancy) Waugaman of 344 Ridge road, is the wife of a patent attorney. They are the parents of three boys, Douglas, 10, and Billy, 6, both pupils at Kerby School and Ricky, who is two years old. The family has lived in the Farms since 1960. Mrs. Waugaman, who if elected, will be the first woman to serve on the Farms council in the city's history, is a 1953 graduate of Cornell University, and is a member of many civic organizations in which she is very active. She is the first woman to ever be appointed to the Farms Mayor's Advisory and Planning Commission, and is a member of the Farms Recreation Committee, which is studying how best to utilize recreational facilities of the city, and how to improve present facilities. Attends Most Meetings Mrs. Waugaman, who rarely misses attending a council meeting as an interested citizen, has this to say about leaf burning: "Leaf burning is hazardous to the health and safety of our community and appropriate steps should be taken to prohibit burning of leaves and provide for their disposal. Too, burning contributes to air pollution and burning on streets damages asphalt surfaces, therefore a solution must be found, which would be economical and efficient, responsive to the preference of the residents." Fred W. Gerow, 49, 423 Cloverly, was born in Detroit, and has lived in the Pointe most of his life. He is an inactive Army reservist, holding the rank of major, and has been employed as an engineer by the United States Army Tank Automotive Command, Warren, for the past 20 years. He is the deputy director of the Mobility System of the Tank Arsenal. He is married to the former Edythe Day of Bay City, Mich., and they are the parents of Fred W., 24, of Detroit; Mrs. Jeanne G. Pomroy, 22, of Royal Oak; and Lynn K., 19, who lives at home with her parents. Wants Burning Banned He said that he favors the purchase of equipment to pick up leaves, and the enactment of an ordinance to prohibit the burning of leaves. He said that he is in accord with all steps that would minimize or eliminate air pollution, and water pollution, too, for that matter. He is a 1938 graduate of Grosse Pointe South High School, and is presently attending Wayne State University, from where he is expecting to get a law degree when he graduates. Warren J. Delp, 51, of 191 Lohrop, is a native of Detroit, and has lived in the Farms for 12 years. He is married to the former Irene Hornick of Buffalo, N.Y. They are the parents of Gary, 23, who is attending Michigan State University; LaRoy, 27, an insurance agent; and Ronald, 28, who works for Chrysler Corporation. Delp is a captain of the Farms Auxiliary Police Reserve, under Police Chief Jack F. Roh, and is a design engineer for Chevrolet's Highland Park plant. He is president of the Designing Engineers Credit Union. Doesn't Burn His "I do not burn my leaves in the fall," Delp said about the issue, "but I would like to see this problem eliminated once and for all. If money is available to buy equipment, this should be done. If I am elected, I will work toward that end, and also I will work for the good of the people and for the good of the community, in all other matters." Francis J. Weskel, 43, of 365 Hillcrest, has been a resident of the Farms for nearly five years, and is interested in serving the people of the community. He is a teacher at the Grosse Pointe South High School, and is working toward a doctorate in Education from Wayne State University. He received his bachelor's degree from the University of Michigan, and has 110 hours accumulated toward his doctor's degree in education. He is married to the former Mary Ann Purgaric of Detroit. They are the parents of four children, Clarice Ann, 12, a student at Brownell Middle School; Francis John, Jr., 10; and Jacqueline Marie, 7, both Kerby School pupils; and two-year-old Geri Lynne. "At some time or other in his life, a man decides that the reason for his existence is to work for the betterment of mankind," Weskel stated. My decision was to devote all my time and energy to making this a better world to live in. "I am deeply appreciative of the Farms, the community in which I live, and would like to serve the people of this city as their representative on the council. If elected, I will work toward the elimination of the air pollution, which polls our community during the fall season. I am for an ordinance, or any purchase of equipment that will be instrumental in eliminating this problem. Would Rent Sweeper "I am in favor of leasing, or obtaining the loan of leaf sweepers, rather than spending of cash for outright purchase, if the needed funds are not immediately available." Robert T. Herdegen, Jr., 49, of 167 Meriweather, is vice-president of sales for the Dominican Forge company, Windsor. He was born in New York and has lived in the Pointe since 1928. He is married to the former Mary Leigh Porter of Madison, Wis. They are the parents of Martha, 24, of St. Clair Shores; Ruth, 21, a recent graduate of Wesleyan College, Ohio; and Robert III, 17, a junior at Grosse Pointe South High School. He is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin, from where he earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Engineering. Prior to entering college, he attended preparatory school in Toronto, and attended Grosse Pointe South High School. Would Ban Burning "As a citizen, I am in favor of banning the burning of leaves within the city limits," Herdegen said. "I am in favor of using every means to get equipment to dispose of leaves. If I am elected to the council, I will strive to serve the people to the best of my ability, and that I will work to alleviate air pollution." James S. Aller, 41, of 81 Mapleton, an unsuccessful candidate at the last election, is trying again. He is a bachelor and lives at home with his widowed mother, Mrs. Lawrence Allor. He is the nephew of the late Joseph Snay, former Grosse Pointe Farms Village president, and a councilman for many years. He is a veteran of World War II, serving with the United States Army in the South Pacific. He was one of six brothers in service at one time during the great conflict. Landscape Gardener He is a graduate of St. Paul High School, Michigan School of Trades, Aberdeen Proving Ground Ordnance School and the American Landscape School. He has served the Pointe as a landscape gardener for more than 22 years. (Continued on Page 7)

We, the undersigned residents of Grosse Pointe are proud of our community. We believe Grosse Pointers are fair minded and respect the rights of others. It is for this reason that we have paid for this ad in support of fair housing in Grosse Pointe. We believe that it is natural for a community of this character to demonstrate its willingness to pass an ordinance which we consider morally and ethically right.

Therefore, we urge other Grosse Pointers who share our concern to join with us. You may do so by asking us to add your name to this roster of those residents who support Fair Housing, or by volunteering whatever support you can give.

If you are proud of Grosse Pointe take a minute to fill out the coupon below. And add your name to the list. (As you can see we have left space for it.)

The cars for people who believe that style never goes out of style.

When the conversation turns to cars, a Cadillac owner is seldom asked the model and year of the one he drives. The fact that he drives the car of cars is sufficient. For a Cadillac, regardless of its year, is the most universally desired of all motor cars.

This is because the beauty, craftsmanship, luxury and performance inherent in a Cadillac never go out of style. A case in point is the 1966 model shown above. Its Turbo Hydra-matic transmission, variable-ratio power steering and other refinements have only recently become available on some lesser cars.

A great many late-model, previously-owned Cadillacs also have a Tilt and Telescope steering wheel and Automatic Climate Control. For a richly rewarding investment in motoring pleasure, see your authorized Cadillac dealer's attractive selection of new and previously-owned Cadillacs today.

Looking for a Humidifier? Here's Why It's a Good Idea to Buy from Williams!

by ROBERT A. "Doc" WILLIAMS

We can think of quite a few reasons why many homeowners are interested in purchasing a humidifier for their family. Surely the health factor in itself is important at this time of year. Change of weather like we've had in the past week is often conducive to colds and respiratory infection. Dry air inside your home caused by the artificial heating process can help bacteria along. When the mucous membranes in the nose and throat are moist they are a natural preventive barrier against bacteria; but not so when dry air makes them parched. With a humidifier, however, moisture is supplied in an adequate amount to keep these membranes moist, thereby helping to prevent infection. Chances are if you are looking for a humidifier, you know this plus the fact that proper humidity also helps to preserve your furnishings, plants, rugs, and drapes and prevent annoying static electricity. But, you're probably wondering why you're probably wondering why you should buy a humidifier from Williams Refrigeration and Heating Co., but we have some good reasons. First, we feature the carrier humidifier, known in the industry as one of the best available. The carrier has more than enough capacity to give your home adequate moisture controls 24 hours a day. It has a huff-midistat to allow you to control the amount of moisture needed right in your living quarters. A drain to carry away mineral deposits naturally found in water that can cause dust in the air and clogging is provided. And, it is installed easily on your furnace system. Second, Williams is probably the most experienced dealer in this area in forced humidification. We have installed thousands of carrier humidifiers in the Detroit area over the past years; most probably one in your neighborhood. Our installation and engineering crews know how to give your home just the right size and how to custom fit the carrier to your needs. These same crews are also experienced in installing the carrier furnace if you're in need of a new furnace system. And, you can't go wrong with carrier known for its quality performance, long life, and lower fuel bills. And, 10, 20, and 25 years warranties are available in a size and style we can custom design for your home. Why not call 372-5500 today for a free survey of your home for the carrier furnace or more information on the carrier humidifier. 7 Candidates Seek Election To Judgeship

Primary Will Narrow Field to Two in Race to Succeed Retiring Judge C. Joseph Belanger

Park voters will go to the polls on Monday, February 17, in a primary election for Municipal Judge. Of the seven candidates, the two receiving the most votes will compose the ballot in the regular election on April 7.

Incumbent Judge Joseph C. Belanger will not seek re-election because of a state law prohibiting any elected judge who has reached the age of 70 from running again. In 1950, when the Village of Grosse Pointe incorporated as a city, Judge Belanger was elected the first Municipal Judge. He was re-elected in 1953 and has served the Park since that time.

State Qualifications
 The News asked each of the candidates to state why he was seeking the office of Park Municipal Judge. Their replies follow:

Philip A. Gillis, 43, is relying heavily on his 20 years of legal experience, with an emphasis on court work at the trial and appellate level, to attract Park voters. He is interested, if elected, in "studying the probation situation in the Park" and in establishing new administrative court procedures for a more equitable judicial system. Gillis lives with his wife and five children at 1238 Kensington.

Philip J. Mabarak, 43, has lived in the Park since 1942. Stating that "Grosse Pointe Park is a good place to live," Mabarak sees the judgeship as offering an "opportunity to contribute my services as a member of the legal profession to the Park." Mabarak lives at 1160 Maryland with his wife and three children.

John F. Potvin is seeking the office so that he can help to "preserve the good law enforcement and the good court procedures handed down by Judge Belanger and preserve the good esteem in which the court is held." Potvin, 32, is a bachelor and lives at 1012 Bedford.

Myer Rubin, 64, thinks that a judge should be available at all times and not just once a week. He would like to establish educational seminars where parents and teenagers could come together to discuss the many problems facing the youth of today, where he could "do something instead of talking about doing something." He also stated his concern for "safe and sane driving in the Park." Rubin, a practicing attorney for 36 years in all Michigan courts, lives at 15501 E. Jefferson with his wife and son.

Carl Schweikart, 66, lives at 1018 Bedford. With a background that includes being a former assistant prosecutor and a trial lawyer in all Michigan courts, he feels well qualified to handle the various problems faced by a municipal judge. Schweikart feels he can best serve the community because he has his "hand on the pulse of feeling of Grosse Pointe."

A pessimist is an optimist who wanted what he didn't get and got what he didn't want.

 "If elected councilman," Alor said, "I will work toward a solution to rid the community of the pall of smoke that is caused each fall season by leaf burning. I favor an ordinance to ban burning, and favor the purchase of a sweeper to gather and dispose of leaves. There is too much air pollution now, and the smoke of burning leaves certainly does not aid the problem."

John P. Cushman, 50, 352 Ridgeman, was born in Sullivan County, Ind. He studied pre-law and obtained his law degree from the University of Detroit. He is married to the former Patricia Carpenter, whose father, Chester, was a Grosse

William Speer, 49, lives at 1408 Kensington with his wife and five children. He is running for the judgeship because "I want to participate in the restoration of law and order, that is, the respect for law and order. I can best contribute to doing this as Municipal Judge."

Wilfred Steiner, who refused to give his age, has practiced general and trial law for 30 years. He stated that he was interested in equal and equitable justice for all.

Pointe City councilman for many years. They are the parents of Anne, 25, a teacher in St. Clair Shores; Suzanne, 20, a graduate of Northwood Institute at Midland; and Linda, 18, presently attending Mercy College.

Cushman is an attorney for the Wayne County Road Commission, and has been the Commission's general counsel since 1961.

"I love the smell of burning leaves, myself," Cushman said, "but burning is becoming a serious problem and must be done away with when and if funds are available for the purchase of equipment for this purpose."

He is married to the former Patricia Carpenter, whose father, Chester, was a Grosse

I am in favor of an ordinance abolishing the burning of leaves, and will work for this if elected councilman."

Citizens for Education Presenting Panel Feb. 26

Grosse Pointe Citizens For Education, aware that the major political issue of the year in Michigan concerns the allocation of state funds for education, is presenting a panel which represents a wide spectrum of opinion and experience in this field, on Wednesday, February 26, at 8 o'clock, at Pierce Middle School.

Members of the panel include Robert Waldron, state representative, First District; Dr. Theos Anderson, superintendent, Grosse Pointe Public Schools; Frank Sladen, head-superintendent, Detroit Public Schools; Frank Sladen, headmaster of Liggett School; and John A. Marcon, former School Board member, Archdiocese of Detroit. The panel members will "Focus on Finance" and discuss "What are the issues in allocating state education funds?"

They will answer such questions as: Is there enough state money for education? Where does it go? What does the new legislation propose? Should the state further aid private and parochial schools? What is meant by equalization?

GPCE Chairman of the Board of Directors, Hugh Harness will moderate. A question and answer period will follow.

The goals and objectives of the Grosse Pointe Citizens For Education are two-fold. The first is to provide a continuous forum for study and discussion of the goals of public education in the Grosse Pointe Public School system, and after thorough study, discussion and evaluation, take a position on matters of importance as the facts dictate, and to endorse candidates with the highest qualifications for the school board elections and to actively work to insure their election.

Any adult person interested in becoming a member may do so if he is a resident of the Grosse Pointe Public School system and contributes $5 or more to the Organization. Membership runs from the date of contribution until October 31, 1969. A husband or wife are both entitled to membership if either meets the above mentioned requirements.

Membership entitles a member to study and discuss school problems and issues and to make recommendations with respect thereto. It gives him the right to vote on organization policy with respect to major school issues and candidates prior to endorsement by the organization.

Scouts Attend Awards Dinner

The annual Blue and Gold Dinner of Monteth School Cub Scout Pack 85 was held Tuesday evening, February 4, in the Congregational Church at 240 Chalfonte. Pack chairman Bill Clow presided over a meeting attended by 140 Scouts and parents.

The program and table decorations, made by the boys, reflected a "Moon Shot" theme.

Mrs. Carolyn Dalley and the Den Mothers directed songs and skits. Special certificates of recognition were presented to Dr. James Greer, Cubmaster, and to other adult leaders. The new Webelos leader, Gene Gardner, was introduced.

Advancement chairman, George Gerow, presented awards to eight boys. Philip Winchester, Dave Greenspan, Tim Mucclante, Marty Howe and Eddie Fleck received the Wolf Badge. The Bear Badge went to Tim Bantine. Silver and gold arrow points were earned by Eddie Fleck, Russ Housley and Doug Lewis.

As Pack 85 is projected into 1969, it is agreed that "all systems are go."

Boy Shoplifter Repeats Offense

Robert Zynka, assistant manager of the A and P Store, 17120 Kercheval, called City police on Wednesday, February 5, to report he was holding a juvenile shoplifter.

On arrival officers found the youth had taken a 79 cent package of Ding Dongs. The same youth had been apprehended August 1, 1966, for larceny in the same store.

The boy's father was notified. The youth was made to pay for the pastries, reprimanded and released.

POLICE NAB SHOPLIFTER

An 11-year-old boy was picked up by City police on Saturday, February 8, after an employe of the Cunningham Drug Store, 16941 Kercheval, reported the youth had taken a bottle of Four Aces and party picks from the store. He was stopped by David Monteth, assistant manager, as he was leaving the store with the stolen items on his person. He was taken to the City station. His parents were notified. He was released to them.

Students Raise Funds for FEC

The Grosse Pointe South High School Foreign Exchange Club will receive a check for over $200 this week thanks to the unselfish efforts of a group of inventive teenagers with lots of talent. George Kappaz and Dennis Wickline wrote, produced, and directed "Now Is The Time For

All Good Men To Come To The Aid Of Their Country," an entertaining show with a laugh-in theme, that was presented in Fries Auditorium last Sunday. George and Dennis headed the cast which consisted of Larry Crane, Lori Heglin, Theo Kanney, Barb Gilstorf, Penny Mawouras, Aline Saverino, Leslie Queenan, Beth Seder, Bill Savage, Kathy Stewart, John Damberg and Jim Knapp.

In this tire-squealing, torque-out world, is there a place for an automobile that can stop heroically? Mercedes-Benz thinks so.

At a traffic light, a number of sleek, snarling domestic cars can blast ahead of the sedate Mercedes-Benz 250 pictured at right.

So be it, say Mercedes-Benz engineers. So be it, say Mercedes-Benz 250 owners.

A question of emphasis

It's not that the Mercedes-Benz engineers don't know how to build a potent motor car.

Their 6.3 Mercedes-Benz 300SEL, for example, recently praised by Road and Track as "merely the greatest sedan in the world," is the fastest series production sedan ever made.

But that exuberant machine is intended for the autobahns, and other wide open spaces, where high speed driving is relatively safe. And it sells to a rather rarefied clientele at a rather rarefied $14,410*.

For their bread-and-butter models in the $4,500 to $10,000 range—cars for everyday people in everyday traffic—Mercedes-Benz engineers take a much more pragmatic view. Stubbornly refusing to sacrifice driver's pocketbook to his libido, they insist on striking a sane balance between engine size and fuel economy.

Result: the new 250 is endowed with a 6-cylinder, overhead-cam, 7-main-bearing gem of a powerplant. If can hurtle this 3,000 pound Mercedes-Benz along indefinitely at the highest posted speeds in America—with energy in reserve. Yet fuel consumption rivals that of the lowliest domestic compacts.

The hot-rodder who torques out in front of a Mercedes-Benz 250 scores a Pyrrhic victory indeed.

Turnabout

The owner of a Mercedes-Benz 250, on the other hand, can confidently challenge the driver of any domestic sedan to a stoplight duel—at stopping.

The blunt fact is that not one domestic sedan, regardless of price, comes with 4-wheel disc brakes. But every Mercedes-Benz, regardless of price—like 200-mph Grand Prix racing cars—comes with a massive disc brake at every wheel.

Why do experts rate discs superior to conventional drum brakes?

Because, in a variety of situations—in rainy weather driving when brakes may get wet, in downhill driving with continual braking, even in one smoking panic stop after another at extreme speeds—disc brakes are far better able to dissipate heat and moisture, and thus to resist fading or lock-up, the most common types of brake failure.

Mercedes-Benz engineers believe that the brakes should be the most powerful part of any car. In a Mercedes-Benz, they are.

One-upmanship

As you might expect, the Mercedes-Benz 250 also handles and corners better than all domestic sedans—even the newest 1969 "dreamboats" to roll off the assembly line.

Scrapping the solid rear axle system of conventional cars, the 250 uses an all-independent suspension, plus anti-sway bars front and rear. The result is leech-like roadability—even on rutted and potholed gravel lanes.

There is no sloppy play in the steering, either. You are blessed with the "feel" of the road. When you turn the wheel, the car reacts instantly. Suddenly, you are a more confident driver.

Many cars are designed to win admiration for their owners. Mercedes-

Benz cars are designed to win admiration from their owners. Quite a distinction.

The pinnacle of safety

Of all the world's motor cars, concluded Car and Driver magazine after roadtesting the new 250, the current Mercedes-Benz line "represents the present pinnacle in safe car engineering."

This sober judgment is based in part on the remarkable responsiveness of the 250, its almost uncanny ability to evade blundering motorists. But it reflects, too, the extraordinary measures Mercedes-Benz engineers have taken to provide protective packaging for passengers if the worst happens—measures that go beyond the letter of U.S. safety regulations.

The 250's entire passenger compartment is built as a sturdy "safety zone." Doors are designed to stay shut on impact. The front and rear sections of the car are engineered to crumple in a violent crash at a controlled rate, absorbing shock and reducing the threat of serious injury.

"My car was wrecked," reported a Mercedes-Benz owner after a serious head-on collision, "but thanks to Mercedes-Benz safety engineering, I escaped with my life."

Flat-out in comfort

The 250 is as habitable as it is roadworthy and safe.

Probing with stethoscopes, engineers tracked down and winnowed out irksome harmonic vibrations in the bodywork and drive train. "There is as little inside noise at 100 mph as at a standstill," observed a journalist after test runs on a racing circuit.

Slip into the seat of a 250. It reclines—fared catnaps. Check the rear shelf. Carpeted. Nudge the door closed. A satisfying "ka-chunk."

Born to last

Your 250 is built with uncompromising care to make it a durable investment, too. It is not bolted into being, like an ordinary car, but solidified by thousands of welds. After 50,000 miles or so, you may begin to wonder if it will ever rattle.

The 250 comes with 4-wheel disc brakes. No domestic sedan does. Something to stop and think about.

More than four coats and 44 pounds of paint and primer rust protection are lavished on each car at the factory. The insides of the hubcaps are coated.

Even the lines are designed for durability. Mercedes-Benz scorns planned obsolescence, and deliberately gives all its motor cars the same classic look, free of faddish touches that can readily betray age—and erode your investment.

(Sidelight: While this similarity between Mercedes-Benz models and vintages is a boon to the owner of a 250, it may be a hazard to some drivers. Consider the traffic-light dragster who gushes his engine at a "250"—only to writhe in the ignominy of having taunted a 6.3 Mercedes-Benz 300SEL instead.)

If you think the 250 sounds like an unconventional car, you're right. It is. Definitely so. Mercedes-Benz does not build conventional cars—and never will.

24-page brochure

For more details on the 250, a $5,208* investment, mail the coupon for a colorful 24-page brochure. Better yet, drop by the showroom and arrange to test the car. Driving is believing.

Other models to ponder:

280SE Sedan—the most roadworthy car you can buy in the luxury class, fuel-injection engine, $6,461*.

280SL Roadster—a sports car for grown-ups, combines soul-stirring performance with comfort, $6,802*.

220 Diesel—the only diesel Mercedes-Benz makes, gives small-car economy in a big, safe sedan that may well endure for decades, $4,692*.

600 Grand Mercedes—the ultimate motor car, $23,580*.

Cinema League Meets Tonight

The Grosse Pointe Cinema League will present a varied program of slides in the Alger House of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial tonight, February 13, at 8 o'clock. The program is open to the public and free of charge.

Harold Hammond will present several small groups of slides, each group centering around a particular topic. He will touch on composition, mood, and feeling and artistic groups.

Edwin McLean will show slides of Western England, taken during his recent four months' camping trip through Europe. Emphasis will be on the back roads and the byways of Cornwall, Dartmoor and many small villages.

John McCaughey, originally from Colorado, will show slides on his favorite spot. He will feature scenery around Colorado Springs and southwest to the San Juan area.

Money and Cuff Links Stolen

Woods police are investigating a theft from the Protestant Children's Home at 900 Cook road.

Richard Lawson, who lives in the Barnard Center Building at the Home, reported on Wednesday, February 5, that his living quarters had been broken into and some items taken.

Lawson discovered his briefcase, containing $65, lying on his bed. It had been ransacked and the money stolen. A combination chest-of-drawers and desk had also been searched, but nothing was missing. A pair of black cuff links, valued at $25, were also taken.

The discovery of a paper clip just inside the door led police to theorize that the thief picked the lock to gain entry to the room. On the bed near an open window the window screen was found, apparently removed so that the open window would give the thief an alternate escape route.

Woods Detective Donald Sabel is continuing the investigation.

An honest opinion may have its place, but it has disrupted many a friendship.

Drowns Trying To Save Child

Ann Fink, 27-year old daughter of prominent Pointer Mrs. George R. Fink, 65 Tonnancour place, drowned on Monday, February 3, near Orlando, Fla., while attempting to save the life of a four-year-old boy.

Miss Fink had accompanied her Florida hostess, Mrs. David Wilson, and Mrs. Wilson's small son on a boat ride on an inland lake near Orlando.

The boy fell out of the boat and Mrs. Wilson jumped in after him. Miss Fink also dived in to help, but both she and the four-year-old were drowned.

The body of the boy was recovered by Mrs. Wilson. Miss Fink's body was recovered Saturday night.

Miss Fink was graduated from Grosse Pointe University School and Bradford Junior College. She made her debut at the Country Club of Detroit in June, 1960. She had recently been living in Chicago.

Her father, the late George R. Fink, was president and organizer of the National Steel Corporation and its Detroit subsidiary the Great Lakes Steel Corporation.

Memorial services for Mrs. Fink were held at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

In addition to her mother, the former Elise Larking Morley, she is survived by two brothers, John M. of New York City and Peter R. Fink, of Stephen road; and two sisters, Mrs. Charles Gorey of Stephens road, and Mrs. W. Merritt Jones, Jr., of Kenwood court.

Graveside services were held on Wednesday, February 12, in Woodlawn Cemetery.

Memorial tributes may be sent to Children's Hospital of Michigan or the Protestant Children's Home of Detroit.

Hockey Tourney Set for Weekend

During the Sunday morning activities the GPUS Field House will be open and refreshments will be served for all the players and the out-of-town parents and their guests.

It is expected that an extremely large number of adults, both parents and hockey fans, will journey from Ridgetown for this tournament and the Grosse Pointe Hockey Association is urging its members to encourage as many Pointe residents as possible to stop by the rink and witness the action.

There is no admission charge, and it is hoped that local hockey enthusiasts will demonstrate their support of youth hockey in Grosse Pointe by attending. It is certain that many fans who have not seen the local teams in action will be amazed at the caliber of hockey that is played by Pointe teams.

The following schedule outlines the entire program for the Tournament.

Saturday February 15 —
5 p.m. — G. P. Squirt All Stars vs. Ridgetown Squirt All Stars.
6 p.m. — G. P. Pee Wee All Stars vs. Ridgetown Pee Wee All Stars.
7 p.m. — G. P. Bantam Beltemp vs. Ridgetown Bantam All Stars.
Sunday, February 16 —
8 a.m. — G. P. Squirt Travel vs. Ridgetown Squirt Travel Team.
9 a.m. — G. P. Pee Wee Travel vs. Ridgetown Pee Wee Travel Team.
10 a.m. — G. P. Bantam Hawks vs. Ridgetown Bantam Travel Team.
11 a.m. — G. P. Midgets vs. Ridgetown Midgets.

All tournament games will be played at McCann Rink in Cook road.

Blue Devils Cagers Keep Record Clean; Beat Parkers

The Grosse Pointe Blue Devils shook off a first half scoring lapse last Friday evening and rolled to their eleventh straight win by defeating Highland Park, 61-51, in a game which may determine the Border Cities League championship.

With four league games now remaining for both clubs, the Devils must win at least three while the Parkers must sweep the rest of their schedule, which includes another game with Grosse Pointe, and meetings with tough Wyandotte and Fordson.

This Friday night the Devils will travel to Royal Oak to face an Acorn team that Devil Coach Chuck Hollosy calls, "A better ball club than they appear to be." Although they have won just one game this year, they have had some bad breaks—as exhibited in their one-point setback to Highland Park.

On Saturday, Grosse Pointe will host East Detroit in a non-league game.

Coach Fears Letdown
The Devils defeated both Royal Oak and East Detroit earlier in the year, and although they are not overly strong teams, Coach Hollosy feels that they can be tough if his players don't get themselves up for the game. He has warned them of a letdown and told them not to look ahead to Fordson and Highland Park, the big games they will play the following weekend.

"We have to play them one at a time," Mr. Hollosy commented.

A capacity crowd, estimated at close to 3,300 and the first sellout for a regular season game in seven years, looked on last Friday as the Devils exploded in the second half to win their game with the Parkers.

Defensive Battles
The first two periods of the game were defensive battles as both teams suffered from turnovers and cold shooting. The Devils, picked as 15-point favorites by the Detroit Free Press last week, failed to get anything generated and tallied only 19 points. The Devil defense, however, held the Parkers to just 23 points during that span and when the third quarter started, Grosse Pointe was prepared to break the game open.

The Devils shifted from a zone to a man-to-man defense in

Fathers, Sons Tangle on Ice

By Anita Carbone

The echo of laughter and shouts of encouragement that surrounded McCann Rink on Sunday, February 2, were strong evidence of the good time being had by all at the first annual Father and Son hockey game in the Pee Wee Division! It was hard to tell who enjoyed the game the most, fathers, sons or spectators.

We had a very large turnout of fans and also in the number of fathers who came "dressed to play the game" and felt they could handle the hard playing and checking the boys were ready to give.

Although the fathers won the game 4-2 there was a lot of complaining on their part about "unfair" refereeing! Referee Wilson Henderson had to warn the fathers frequently and was on the verge of giving a "Bench Penalty" to one of them when his eloquent plea apparently touched the "soft heart" of Referee Henderson and he withdrew the call.

Penalties were given however, to Ed Brady, (Fathers), and Peter Costello, (Sons), for fighting on the ice.

Jim Howard scored two of the goals for the Fathers and Doug Bidigare was given a penalty shot on the net when he was illegally checked by an opposing player. The referee and linesmen are to be commended on their composure during this game which at times seemed to border on "mass confusion!" Refreshments were served after the game and a film was shown of the 1966 Stanley Cup Finals between the Detroit Red Wings and the Montreal Canadiens.

Laker Cagers Have Eyes Riveted on Perfect Season

The St. Paul Lakers basketball team racked up their 11th and 12th victories last Tuesday and Friday, and are still headed for a perfect season. In the Catholic League First Division St. Paul ranks first in the East with 12-0, DePorres leads in the West with 11-0, Holy Redeemer leads in the Double-A with 12-1, and in the Central, Brother Rice is first with an 11-1 record. St. Paul entered Tuesday's game against St. Ladislaus with first place in the East already sewed-up, and intent on remaining undefeated. The game was close for part of the first half, but the Lakers broke loose in the second half for a 70-49 victory.

Leaders in the scouring for St. Paul were Mike Corcoran and Tim Bigham, who netted 18 and 17 points respectively. The entire second term was

Norsemen Lose, Then Win In Two Basketball Games

By John Edwards, '71
The South Lake Cavaliers defeated the Grosse Pointe Norsemen by a score of 68 to 61 on Friday, February 7. Except for the first quarter, the Norsemen put on a respectable showing.

South Lake roared off with 11 straight points to begin the game and continued to be hot as they took a 22 to 8 lead in the second period. Grosse Pointe started to come alive in the second period as they battled back from as much as a 22 point deficit, closing the gap to 12 points at the half, 38 to 28.

Grosse Pointe lost ground in the third quarter as South Lake pulled away to a 16-point lead at the end of the period, 57 to 41, even though the play of both teams was fairly even.

Grosse Pointe put on a valiant effort during the final quarter but it wasn't enough. They continuously cut the lead during the period until there was a four-point difference with 3:45 to go. The Cavaliers, however, expanded their lead, North couldn't come back, and South Lake won 68 to 61.

Gary Bennett took scoring honors for the game with 24 points and was followed by Rick DiCicco with 15. South Lake was led by Ray Gates with 22 points followed by Tom Panico with 11 and Werner Koehler netting 10.

The Norsemen were more fortunate against Clintondale as they whipped the Dragons in a tight game, 56 to 50.

It was a close game as neither team led by more than 8 points in the first 3 periods. Clintondale had a 13 to 12 lead going into the second quarter, but Grosse Pointe pulled away slightly in the beginning of the period to 3, and 5-point leads.

Clintondale came back and tied the score and kept it deadlocked until the last minute of play when Grosse Pointe took a 4-point lead at the end of the half, 28 to 24.

The Norsemen kept the lead for half the third quarter when the Dragons came back to seize it from Grosse Pointe. North had a slight scoring drought during a 2-minute span, but with hot shooting by Gary Bennett, Grosse Pointe took the lead and widened it at the end of the period to 43 to 38.

The lead was kept by Grosse Pointe all during the fourth quarter, although Clintondale almost pulled out the game in the final minute when they had two opportunities to tie the score but failed on both attempts.

Gary Bennett led the Norsemen in scoring with 23 points and his teammate Gary Tersch netted 12. Jerome Fernandez led the Dragons with 14 points and Dan Robinson and Scott Bitters each collected 11 points.

Hockey Squirts Have Full Week

By Dr. T. W. Kelly
This past week the Squirts Hockey players were most active with games on Tuesday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Five games were played and the boys got lots of ice time.

Tuesday evening the Wolves and Comets played to a 1 to 1 tie. Rob Danaher scored for the Comets, the assist going to John Marcus. Howie Eaton of the Wolves tied it with a goal on a nice pass play from Rob Stockwell and Brian Willette.

Friday evening the Jets lost to the League leaders, the Pros, 1 to 0. Jim Hirschfield scored unassisted in the opening minutes of the game and the one goal stood up for the win. The Jets second line of Bob Barker, Kevin Moore and Dan Lynch skated well with no luck as the Pro defenses of Dunc Campbell, Rick Spedding, Sewell Mackey and Gordie Frost were hot.

Saturday morning there were two games. The Comets won over the Jets in the first game 2 to 0. It was a tight game except for Rob Danaher who scored twice on breakaways. Goalie Morris of the Comets again excelled in the nets. Danny Clark was a standout for the Jets; Jeff Logan and Mark Frazer played well.

The Wolves got their first win of the season by dropping the Pros 2 to 1 in the second game. This game was the best of the season and brought cheers from many parents and friends in attendance.

The Wolves scored first on a goal by Terry Hogan assisted by Jeff Kydd. The Pros tied it on Stan Jurek's goal assisted by Clune Walsh. In the second period Howie Eaton got the winning goal, assisted by Gary Koch. Wolves players Dale Ewart, Earl Black and Brian McCourt played well as did Harry Jewett and Gardner Frost of the Pros.

Sunday the Comets outscored the Wolves 3 to 2 to take the league lead. Rob Danaher scored twice and Fred MacGregor got another on an assist by Peter Smith for the Comets. Terry Hogan was a two-goal scorer for the Wolves. Dale Ewart and Jeff Kydd assisted on Hogan's second goal.

With the season near halfway the standings are:

Team	G	W	L	T	Pts.
Comets	8	5	1	2	12
Pros	7	4	1	2	10
Wolves	8	1	4	3	5
Jets	7	1	5	1	3

Next games are on Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 15 and 16. A special All-Star Squirts game will be held at 4:30 at the McCann Rink against a team from Ridgetown, Ontario. Other division games will follow Saturday evening and Sunday morning.

Come out and see great hockey from our Grosse Pointe boys. Saturday evening, February 15, the Squirts travel team, the Bruins, will play St. Clair Shores Squirts for the District Championship of the Michigan State Hockey Championship at Gordie Howe's Rink.

The Grosse Pointe South Freshmen basketball team played a powerful Highland Park squad at home on Tuesday, February 4, and were beaten by a score of 69-38. The smaller South team fought hard but was unable to overcome the taller Parker team. Center Ron Urell led the South team in scoring with 9 points.

Coach Dan Cole's team bounced back with a solid victory over Port Huron, 66-52. The game was played in Port Huron on Friday, February 7. The South squad was never behind. High scoring guards John O'Hare and Vito Tocco again led the team in scoring with 18 and 16 points respectively. Forward Bruce Molton followed with 11 points. Big Ron Urell controlled both backboards and was a big factor in the victory.

Pee Wees Blast Allen Parkers

Mr. & Mrs. Jesse C. Ostok Support PHILIP A. GILLIS for Municipal Judge Grosse Pointe Park

The Hydro-Pierce Pee Wees, Grosse Pointe's Pee Wee entry in the Tri-County Hockey League, began the third round of league play with a very impressive 7 to 0 win over Allen Park last Saturday night at Winter Wonderland Arena.

Recording his third shut-out of the season was goalie John Batten, who was called upon to make 15 saves. Assisting Batten was a very strong defensive unit led by Doug Donald along with Bryan Cammett, Hank Kuhlman and team Captain Tom McCubbin.

Right behind McCubbin in the scoring parade was right winger Len Olson who slammed home three goals to record his first hat trick of the season. Fred Rozell leads the team in this category as he has already accounted for three hat tricks in league play.

Also playing a very strong offensive game was Jeff Welsher who picked up two goals and two assists to add to his very impressive season total. Rounding out the scoring in the game was Randy Christofferson who out-bustled two Allen Park

Bantam Hawks Defeat Fraser

The Grosse Pointe Bantam Hawks hockey team upset the heavily favored Fraser Flyers in the first game of the District Three State Playoffs Tuesday night, February 4, at Gordie Howe Hockeyland, by a 3 to 1 score.

The Hawks, who lost their first league game to these same Flyers by a 5 to 1 margin, started fast and kept Fraser off balance from organizing a sustained attack.

Goalie Dave Versical again turned in a tremendous performance; however his defensive unit of Tom McGraw, Clay Purdy, Dennis Godin and Hank Finkenstaedt supplied all the assistance he needed as they turned aside rush after rush by the Flyers. In addition, the defense was responsible for blocking many hard slap shots that were right on target and could have caused Versical a great deal of trouble.

The game was scoreless after the first period. At 3:45 of the second period Marty Griffin banged home a loose puck in front of the Flyers' net for the Hawks' first score. Drawing assists on the goal were Walt Albrecht and Jay Henderson.

Then, at 11:45 of the same period Fraser scored on a goal by Dan Nowicki with Bob Peters and Gary MacCormick picking up the assists. At the end of the second period the score remained tied at 1 to 1.

The third period had just begun when team Captain Dave Sickelsteel scored the Hawks' second goal as the play was set up perfectly by Dave's wingmen defensemen and rammmed home a rebound on an excellent play set up by Curtice Mink and Stu Cammett.

Other Travel Team players picking up assists in the game were Bryan Cammett, Chad Morris and Stu Cammett, who also drew an assist on Len Olson's first goal as he set him up perfectly on a picture play.

Chip Lenahan and Dave Johnson, who drew the assists. Grosse Pointe's third goal, which put the game out of reach as far as the Flyers were concerned, was scored on a pretty play by defenseman Tom McGraw with Ben Jones and Marty Griffin being credited with the assists.

Five penalties were called in the game with the Flyers picking up four of them. This in itself had a bearing on the outcome of the game since the Flyers were forced to kill off four power plays by the Hawks. Coaches Doug Donald and Stew McLaren along with Manager Walter Albrecht were extremely pleased with the hustle and teamwork of the Hawks and all agreed that it was their finest game of the season.

Gift to The Pointe

Attention has been called to a misunderstanding concerning a delightful event which was staged last Friday evening in the War Memorial Center. "Japanese Adventure" was jointly presented by the Grosse Pointe Garden Center and the War Memorial Association.

A capacity turnout enjoyed a lavish Japanese dinner in the Crystal Ballroom before descending to the Fries Auditorium Theater to hear a lecture and witness a remarkable demonstration by the star of the program. Kaneji Domoto, distinguished landscape architect, came from his new Rochelle, N.Y., home to speak on "The Ancient Art of Bonsai" and show his audience how it is practiced.

The victims of Mr. Domoto's practice session were a pair of potted yews, (purchased that day from a local nursery . . . good thinking . . .) and an azalea plant belonging to a Garden Center member. Prattling constantly, he explained why he was alternately whacking off great hunks of greenery and roots, then, employing the delicacy of a surgeon, snipping off portions to produce gems of this art of dwarfing plants and keeping them diminutively lovely for endless years.

Mr. Domoto is an actor as well as an artist. He is a graduate architect who was apprenticed to the great Frank Lloyd Wright. His love of nature and care for growing things, imbued and nurtured by his father, wooed him away from creating buildings into the gifted vocation of giving them beautiful settings. Like many of the rocks he loves and uses in his work, he is a conglomerate. But his attributes are know-how, humor and sensitivity, all charmingly employed.

Enough for a most entertaining and enlightening evening and back to the misunderstanding. Some of the members of the Garden Center were disturbed to discover that many in the audience looked upon the program as a fund-raising project. This is perhaps a natural, but completely erroneous assumption.

The only income of this organization which makes so many contributions to the community, is derived from dues paid by the members, and the annual promotion of the Garden Tour. Money received from these sources is used to provide a Gift to The Pointe, which is exactly what last Friday evening's presentation of Mr. Domoto was. The price of the admission tickets covered only the War Memorial's dinner charge . . . and that was a great bargain when compared with the price of a comparable gastronomic offering at any of our better restaurants. The speaker's fee and all expenses were paid out of the Garden Center coffers, and its members worked long hours and contributed amazing talents to make the event a memorable one.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:
 I would like to call to the attention of the Grosse Pointe taxpayer Public Act No. 316 of Michigan Public Acts of 1968 effective in November of 1968 which in effect increased permissive bonding from 2% to 5%; in other words, our Board of Education is empowered by state law to issue bonds for building and site up to 5% of total evaluation of taxable property within the school district without voter approval. Current property evaluation within the district amounts to $379,676,741 and 5% of this amounts to roughly $18,983,000. Current floated bonds amount to $13,575,000. Added to this figure are tax anticipation notes outstanding at various times of the year ranging from 3.7 million dollars to 4.2 million dollars. Between now and March 15, 1969, therefore, the Board has the ability to issue further bonds in the amount of $1,673,837 for building and site without permission of the voters.

My purpose in bringing this to your attention now is because our Grosse Pointe Board of Education has been looking over the Sacred Heart Academy (which recently announced its closing) as a potential 4th Middle School. Were this purchase to become a reality, there is no doubt much renovation will be necessary. I am concerned about this on a number of counts. Firstly, there seems to be some doubt about enrollment projections. The parochial school situation remains a big question mark. A number of parochial bills have been introduced into the state legislature. Should any of them pass, we could find ourselves paying via state aid to help keep the parochial schools open; and at the same time paying on bonds which purchased property to take care of a massive influx of parochial students which might never materialize. Further, the fact that the Board is even remotely considering such a purchase at this time before the final reports of the Middle School Committee are in makes one wonder if the Middle School Committee is not a farce, because after all it was their charge to determine among other things enrollment projections, how to best implement the middle school concept (by additions to present facilities, a new fourth middle school, or whatever.) It seems the Board may have already made up their minds about these questions. I am further concerned about a huge millage package which will be coming up in the near future (all the millage will run out at once.) When citizens are showing a reluctance to pass millages even for operational budgets, I feel that now is not the time to invest in property without voter approval. I think we have to put a priority on our spending. Let's make sure we'll have enough money to run the facilities we have and be able to have sufficient funds available to negotiate a contract with our teachers this summer. Otherwise, we may find ourselves with buildings galore but no teachers. Buying property at this time without voter approval could be the straw that broke the camel's back when it comes to securing the badly needed millage.

Sincerely,

To the Editor:
 The recent issue of the Grosse Pointe News carried a story regarding the submission of a fair-housing ordinance to the electorate of Grosse Pointe Farms. The story indicated that I had voted against such procedure. This is an extremely important matter to our community and I wish to correct this impression since I did in fact vote in favor of submitting the question to the voters. As the News' reporter knows, at each of our last two meetings at which this matter was discussed I expressed my opinion:—to wit—that I (1) favor the principle of fair-housing and would recommend adoption of a resolution either by our Council or the citizenry express-

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

We are now in the midst of celebrating Negro History Week, and our Central Library has a display of books honoring the occasion. Almost a year ago I compiled an unannotated bibliography entitled—THE AMERICAN NEGRO—PAST AND PRESENT which has been found quite useful in our community. I think, at the time, what amazed me most was the number of titles which existed which our libraries owned. The bibliography, which excludes all juvenile works, is single-spaced and runs nine pages, the final page referring to pamphlets and audio-visual materials. A year later, just think how many more titles we probably have added to our collection which would make this bibliography that much longer. This is only an indication of how important the plight of the Negro has become—so much is constantly being written about him. When you add the huge number of newspaper and magazine articles that have appeared over the years, the literature of the Negro becomes quite vast.

We hope you have been alerted already to this important Week, have come in and looked over our materials, and have also been impressed by the wealth of material that exists, in printed form, on the American Negro. . . . In the January 26 issue of the NEW YORK TIMES BOOK REVIEW, we were interested to read an article by Donald Hall entitled "Four Kinds of Reading."

First of all, the author debunks the idea that the mere act of reading is tantamount to being cultured, learned, richly idle, holding a certain status. Reading, he says, for the most part is "no more cultural or intellectual or imaginative than shooting pool. . . ." Then he breaks down the different kinds of reading.

Reading for information is the first type. This is the way we read newspapers, textbooks, directions for putting a toy together, or learning a trade. This is where a rapid-reading course comes in handy, for the reader skips the page, ignoring all that is irrelevant such as turns of phrase, imagery or rhythm. He picks up facts—and only those facts that he wants.

In considering literature, reading takes on entirely different overtones. In fact, Mr. Hall

What's New On The Hill? . . . Not the Kercheval On-the-Hill Association, we assure you! This group of merchants and professional people have been working many, many years, giving time and money to improve Kercheval from Hall Place to McMillan. We think it shows. By the cooperation and contributions of the following members, Kercheval On-the-Hill has become a block of distinction: Frank Adam Inc., Bronze Door, Champion Real Estate, Colonial Federal Savings, William Denler & Co., Francesco Beauty Salon, John S. Practice Makes Perfect . . . but you have to know what you're doing or instead of practicing perfection in make-up, you're repeating mistakes. One of the very best little folders we've seen is at Trail Apothecary, 121 Kercheval. It's called "Face Design Eye Makeup" by Elizabeth Arden. It has excellent diagrams for eye-brows and eye-shading. Know your face and keep your eye on the diagram. Ladies who have had their make-up designed by famous stylists in New York have their own visual charts as reminders.

Authentic Art Treasure . . . is a bronze door just inside 123 Kercheval (The Bronze Door). There are lots of artistic things going for this well-known restaurant . . . gourmet specialties and good music by Carroll Lee. Reservations please . . . 888-1932.

It is a most impressive and elegant collection by master tailors. Select from stock or your custom choice . . . delivered in time for spring. Represented also in this collection are this season's popular pants suits.

Skier's Snack . . . in the Swiss tradition is Swiss Knight cheese fondue. It's delicious and ready in five minutes. Costs a dollar sixty-nine. Pick it up at Hamlin's and take it along when you go north. TUXedo 5-8400.

In The Top Shop . . . at The League Shop, 98 Kercheval, we spied a colorful display of new photo albums, telephone and address registers. Their brilliant covers include paisley, floral and psychedelic patterns . . . plastic treated. Prices start at two dollars.

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

Visions of cakes and candles, flowers and favors are dancing through the heads of Detroit Boat Club's Women's Committee members, for, come next Wednesday, they plan to salute the Club's 130th anniversary with a "Something to Crow About" party.

(That meeting in E.A. Brush's office back in February, 1839, when eight local gentlemen started the Boat Club rolling certainly kindled a long line of celebrations — and we're delighted to note they seem to improve each year!)

Mrs. Earl G. Meyer, of Tonnancour place, and her party committee are polishing up details for this year's gathering, letting the word out that this time the honoree will be GIVING presents instead of receiving them: Part of the party decor consists of brilliantly wrapped and tied totes full of gift surprises for each luncheon guest.

Even the table centerpieces, colorful crowing ceramic roosters, will disappear from their places during the afternoon.

During the pre-luncheon cocktail pour, a mammoth birthday cake will be cut by Mrs. Roy E. DeHart, of Harvard road, whose place in Boat Club history is forever (Continued on Page 21)

Becomes Bride of Daniel James Henry, Jr.; Religious of the Academy of the Sacred Heart in Lakeshore Road Sing at Service

St. Paul's-on-the-Lakeshore was the setting for the Friday evening, February 7, concelebrated candlelight Mass at which Mary Jean Dossin, daughter of Donald Joseph Dossin, of Lothrop road, and the late Mrs. Dossin, spoke her marriage vows to Daniel James Henry, Jr.

The music for the 6:30 o'clock service, followed by a reception and dinner at the Detroit Athletic Club, was sung by Religious from the Academy of the Sacred Heart in Lakeshore road, where the bride attended school.

For her wedding, the former Miss Dossin selected a floor length Empire gown of white satin, fashioned with a collar and cuffs of white mink. Her silk illusion veil fell from a matching bow headpiece, and she carried an arrangement of Eucharis lilies and stephanotis.

In avocado green velvet frocks, carrying large Colonial bouquets of spring flowers, were Cathleen Dossin, who served as her sister's honor attendant, and bridesmaids Lucy Henry and Mary Henry, sisters of the bridegroom.

Patricia Dossin, another sister of the bride, was flower girl. David Henry came from Buffalo, Wyo., to act as his brother's best man. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel James Henry, of Birmingham.

In the usher corps were E. Mariner Libby and Donald Dossin, Jr., and Christopher Dossin, brothers of the bride.

For her son's wedding and the reception, Mrs. Henry chose a bead-accented champagne silk cocktail suit.

The newlyweds, vacationing in Montreal, will return to make their home in Lakeshore Village.

League Of Catholic Women Will Meet

Annual Luncheon-Business Session Being Held Today; Pointe Parish Directors Are Among Participants

"Women Helping Women" is the theme of the annual meeting and luncheon of the League of Catholic Women being held today, Thursday, February 13, at the League building in Parsons street, Detroit. Mrs. William P. Brennan, president, will preside at both business and luncheon sessions.

In addition to the Advisory and Executive Boards, Parish directors from 192 local parishes have been invited as a kick-off event for the League's 1969 Membership Campaign opening March 1. On the efforts of these women depends the support for the League's many agencies serving the Inner City.

On this note, The Honorable Jerome P. Cavanaugh, Mayor of Detroit, will open the program telling how vital these agencies' services are to the problems facing the community today. He will be introduced by Mrs. C. Bradford Lundy, Jr., executive vice-president of the League.

Featured on the program will be a report on Barst House, the League's agency for disturbed adolescent girls. Miss Mildred Peely, vice-president in charge of Barst House, and Miss Blen Torres, director, will speak.

For services to older girls and young women, the League sponsors the Sancta Maria Homes program of Father Richard Ward. This is a rehabilitation endeavor for girls who have been apprehended on the streets and released from the City Jail to Father Ward's custody. He and the Sancta Director, Sister Renalda, will present a film story of their work.

Other members of the Board who have special assignments for the day include Miss Charlotte Dey, vice-president in charge of membership, and Mrs. Fred E. Reichel, campaign plans and instructions with the Parish directors at the 10:30 o'clock meeting.

Members of the Central Committee are Mrs. S. J. Paver and Mrs. Thomas Kiley, West Side co-chairmen; Mrs. Albert Combeta and Mrs. F. M. VanDoorne, East Side co-chairmen; and Mrs. E. A. Viale, Mrs. Edmund Rafalski, Mrs. William Burkhardt, Mrs. Joseph Gaynor, Mrs. George McNeal and Mrs. Thomas H. Kelley, suburban co chairmen.

For the annual meeting, Mrs. Emmet E. Tracy is in charge of reception and Mrs. A. D. Freydl is chairman for luncheon arrangements.

League Members acting as Parish Directors in the Grosse Pointe area are Mrs. Philip Meathe, of Grosse Pointe boulevard, Mrs. Fred Fugar, of Cadieux road, Mrs. Charles Reichling, of Oxford road, Mrs. William Nolan, of Nottingham road, Mrs. Joseph A. Barakey, of Moross road, and Mrs. Vincent Goeddeke, of Nottingham road.

Paul G. Wilmot acted as his brother's best man. Ushers were Steve Noble, George Biddlecome and Tom Keene, all of Elkhart.

The bride's mother wore a floor length gown of pink silk, trimmed with jeweled braid.

The bridegroom's mother selected a sequin-accented ice blue crepe ensemble. Both mothers chose orchid corsages. The newlyweds are making their home in Roseville.

This is yesterday.

Once upon a time, there was a hair-do known as the bouffant and it was very chic and lots of famous ladies wore it and the only trouble is that lots of ladies still wear it and it isn't at all chic anymore. Today's hair is far more natural. And softer. And prettier. Even curly. It may be teased, but it doesn't announce it. If you'd like a new very-today do, see us. We can make it happen. Tomorrow.

Pointer Is Honored With 'Heart Of Gold'

Mrs. Charles E. Kelly Cited as One of Metropolitan Detroit's Outstanding Volunteers; Awards Luncheon Held Tuesday

Service to the military as an American Red Cross volunteer brought recognition this week to Grosse Pointe Mrs. Charles E. Kelly, of Cadieux road. She was among 12 Metropolitan Detroit women saluted at the second annual "Heart of Gold" luncheon Tuesday, February 11, in Cobo Hall.

Mrs. Kelly was presented the gold heart-shaped charm bearing a "Spirit of Detroit" emblem and signifying outstanding community services.

More than 1,200 women from throughout Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties gathered for the awards luncheon staged by the year-old Volunteer Award Council. Formed to provide community-wide recognition for noteworthy service, the Award Council includes representatives of 41 leading organizations working with Women for the United Foundation (WUF).

Guest speaker was Abigail Van Buren, whose syndicated column appears in more than 500 newspapers. Her appearance was arranged through the courtesy of Ford Motor Company, which decorated the Cobo Hall ballrooms with eight-foot-high valentines, gold hearts and fresh jonquils.

Mrs. Semon E. Knudsen, of Birmingham, wife of Ford's president, was luncheon chairman.

Presenting the awards was her vice-chairman, Pointer Mrs. Joseph L. Hudson Jr., wife of the president of the J. L. Hudson Company.

Speakers Jacques Cousin, United Foundation executive vice president, and Hans Gehrke Jr., president, Central Business District Association, paid tribute to all Detroit women volunteers who work without pay in community agencies and organizations.

A Grosse Pointer, Mr. Gehrke is board chairman and chief executive officer of First Federal Savings and Loan Association.

Entertainment included Ford's "Going Thing" Group and luncheon music by Eddie Krupa's All-Girl Strings.

The volunteers receiving the "Heart of Gold" awards were chosen by a panel of community leaders for best symbolizing the many who give their time and talents to community betterment. The winners were screened from 137 nominations submitted by agencies, organizations and individuals in the three-county area.

Serving on the panel of judges were Richard H. Austin, Mrs. Geraldine Bledsoe, Robert F. Bowers, Don F. DeGroot, Norman Ellis, William H. Frank, Edgar A. Guest, Jr., Dr. Richard Hertz, F. C. Matthaei, Jr., Mrs. Dorothy Magee, Laurena Pringle, Harry Salsinger and Federal Judge Thomas Thornton.

As a volunteer with the Southeastern Michigan Chapter, American Red Cross, Mrs. Kelly works in this country's second largest examining station. An average of 10,000 men are served monthly.

Her duties include providing coffee and cookies as well as comfort kits to men entering military service. More importantly, she talks with enlistees and inductees, and also listens

In 1962 at the request of the military, she organized and initiated an induction program at the Navy Recruitment Headquarters in the Federal Building and at Fort Wayne, where all operations are now centered.

Last year, she refurbished two large rooms at the Fort Wayne Center for Inductees. She made draperies, collected ping-pong and pool tables, chairs and sofas. Card tables were purchased through books of savings stamps collected from friends and acquaintances.

As a USO volunteer, she also directed the making, distribution and installation of 1,500 pairs of draperies for barracks and mess halls.

Mrs. Kelly currently is co-chairman of the USO Anti-Aircraft Artillery Committee, secretary of the executive committee and a member of the integration committee. She has been a USO member since 1952 and a Board member for 13 years.

1969 Michigan Social Register in the Mails

Following a custom established several years ago of dedicating each new edition to some worthy cause, the 1969 Michigan Social Register, now in the mails, is dedicated to the Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. Here is the dedicatory message:

This volume is dedicated to those praiseworthy women who comprise the Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra on the occasion of their FORTIETH YEAR of unremitting effort. During those years, these devoted women have raised well over HALF A MILLION DOLLARS, a sum which has been important in promoting the best interests of, and supporting this fine orchestra. It is indeed a privilege to pay tribute to this great example of WOMANPOWER!

Virginia F. Searcy, of the Garden Court, is rounding out her eleventh year as editor. During this time she has brought the book up to a high state of accuracy, her principal concern regarding it. Traditionally, the book has avoided the use of numerals, symbols, abbreviations which the editor says, "makes books which use them look like secret codes of some kind. All data supplied by listees is spelled out in full. Hence the book has acquired an enviable reputation for the large amount of accurate information it contains."

Continuing, she said: "founders of the Michigan Social Register launched it in an earlier day in response to a definite demand for 'something better'. They dedicated on a blue cover because another book, published locally, had been appearing since its inception with a brown cover. 'Actually, the term 'blue book' appears in the dictionary and therefore anyone may use it. And use of a blue cover does not guarantee accuracy or authenticity. Only a dedicated, full-time editor—one who is always available by phone or by appointment—can do that.

"Editors of directories around the country use various colors. A Washington, D.C. editor calls her book 'the green book'. A California book appears with a gray cover, about the color of Los Angeles smog. "Shown by listees residing in California, Arizona, Florida, etc., to their friends, the book elicits comments such as this: 'It is a most beautiful book and so easy to use. No cross-referencing.'"

Plan Woman's Club Presidents' Program

Past-Presidents and Chief Executives of Federated Women's Clubs to be Guests of Honor; Tea. Theme is Red, White and Blue

Presidents' Day at the Grosse Pointe Woman's Club is next Wednesday, February 19. Members and their guests will gather at 1 o'clock in the Crystal Ballroom of the Fries Auditorium at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

This is the day the Grosse Pointe Woman's Club honors presidents of other Federated Women's Clubs, the Senior Ladies of Grosse Pointe and the Clubs' own past presidents.

A very special program, "Vignettes of Famous People," for this very special day will be given by Dr. and Mrs. Wilson B. Paul.

Dr. Paul, director of the Lecture-Concert Series at Michigan State University, came to MSU in 1947 as Head of the Department of Speech.

Under his leadership, the Department's doctoral program was developed and one of the outstanding television programs in the United States came into being.

Dr. Paul received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Taylor University, his M.A. and Ph.D. from the State University of Iowa, did graduate work at Northwestern University and the University of Michigan and studied professional theatre in the East.

Before coming to Michigan State, he was professor of Speech at the University of Denver where his responsibilities varied from directorship of the Intercollegiate Debate Program to the development of a Basic Communication course which gained a national reputation.

At present he is responsible for bringing internationally famous lecturers, concert artists, orchestras, ballets, operas and drama to the MSU campus.

Mrs. Paul received her Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Music degrees from Taylor University, her Master of Music from the University of Michigan and did graduate work in music at Northwestern University.

She taught music in the public schools of Indiana, Michigan and Wisconsin, at Iowa State Teachers College and the University of Denver.

Mrs. Paul has directed choral organizations as well as a regular schedule of radio broadcasts.

She has been writing for publication ever since her college days. Her children's stories, articles and poems have appeared in many nationally circulated magazines and newspapers, including the New York Times which carried an extensive story on her jewelry collection.

Collaborating with her sister, Esther Mary Fuller, she has written anthems and books of children's songs. Her most recent work, "Songs of Travel in Many Lands," has been distributed by Trans World Air-assured: It was she, with the help of Mrs. Albert M. Mackey, who decided in 1941 that it was high time the women of the Club had a voice in party-planning. Thus was born the Women's Committee.

Mrs. J. Ross Bush, of Pemberton road, present Women's Committee chairman, will introduce as honor guests all the other women who have headed the Committee in the intervening 28 years.

Except for four who have moved away, the list is studded with Pointers, including the Mesdames Theodore L. Sedwick, Frank J. Wilton, Taylor H. Seeber, John Brabson, John O. MacFarlane, Edward D. Maire, A. John Cutting, Jesse C. Hurley, Winfield S. Jewell, Jr., Daniel M. Carne, Paul E. Hamman and Edward R. Harrigan.

Others are Mrs. Milton R. Weed, Mrs. Don W. Miller; Mrs. James M. Surbrook, Mrs. Perry TeWalt, Mrs. Milton E. Osgood, Mrs. Leland W. Foster, Mrs. Arthur O. A. Schmidt and last year's chairman Mrs. Sheldon L. Drinnan.

After all the ceremonial toasting and reminiscing, there'll be time for bridge; for the first time, this year's Committee has decided upon "Friendship Tables" so that women who come singly, or in twos or threes, will be assured of matching up with others for cards.

Popping up with festive ideas at each party-planning session are Mrs. Meyer's battery of aides: Mrs. Bush, Mrs. George Nicholson, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. C.G. Browne, Mrs. Harold Davis, Mrs. Clinton Hardy, Mrs. Fred Flom, Mrs. Harrigan, Mrs. Robert Kennedy, Mrs. Kenneth Locke, Mrs. Harry W. Mellen, Mrs. John Pittwood, Mrs. Mel Stander, Mrs. Cecil Shuert, Mrs. Joseph Wright, Mrs. Milton B. Osgood and Mrs. Dan Abbey.

Meanwhile, Over At GPYC . . .

Grosse Pointe Yacht Club Commodore and Mrs. O. James Gagne leave Saturday for Florida, to spend the rest of February and all of March aboard their yacht "Imperial V," cruising southern waters, but before they go they'll welcome a group of "lively" guests to the Club Friday evening.

This is the seventh year that the Chicago Yacht Club has been bowling in competition with the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club for the Commodore J. Earl Fraser trophy, and this year it's GPYC's turn to host the Windy City contingent.

They arrive tomorrow, in time for cocktails in GPYC's Commodore's Room. Then on Saturday morning the GPYC ladies will bowl against the CYC ladies, with the gentlemen concluding the tournament in the afternoon.

The winning Club takes the trophy, whose history, though short, is colorful: One year, it was destroyed by fire in Chicago and had to be replaced by the CYC bowlers. Last year, when GPYC bowled in Chicago, the Chicago keglers captured the prize. GPYC's teams hope to regain it this year.

But win or lose, all contestants are looking forward to a "fun" time Saturday night, when the Chicago Yacht Club visitors will be guests of honor at GPYC's St. Valentine's Ball, a "Luv In" with all the Great Lovers of History attending.

Chairmen of the party are Louise and Don LaFond. Their committee members include their daughter and son-in-law, Cynthia and Larry Kelly, Jeanette and John DeHayes, (John was last year's Commodore), Adelaide Mueller, Kay and Bob Thomas, Ruth and Ham Kotcher, Barbara and Dick Wiggins, Jr., Judy and Mike Tusa, Alma and Earl Fraser, (he's the Trophy Fraser), Bonnie and Larry Regan, Nancy and Robert Rahm, Christy and Pete Walton, Elaine and Tom Burke and Margarite and Joe Kaiser. General chairmen are Wilma and Chilton Drysdale.

There'll be a brunch at the Club Sunday morning to bid the guests from Chicago adieu.

13—REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

OFF FOR FLORIDA, Cuba, or points south? Well, our man in Havana strongly suggests you see this brand new offering of Purdy & Edgar's before someone hi-jacks it away. Located on one of the prettiest streets in the Farms, this English manor house is just a few steps to Hill Shopping, bus lines and both private and parochial schools. There are four family suites with bath, rooms, and two maids rooms over the three car garage. The third floor has been fitted out with playroom, living room and bedroom; the perfect arrangement for the boy or boys. Better see this one before you fly off for destinations unknown.

BEST EXAMPLE of a farm colonial offered in the Pointe today. This meticulously maintained beauty comes completely carpeted and its air of charm is certain to put you in a buying condition. Within are four enormous bedrooms with three full bathrooms all upstairs. There is a fireplace in the family room and also in the living room. The kitchen looks like it was ready to be photographed by one of the decorator magazines. This one is all prepared and ready to serve. All that has to be added is your furniture.

YOU CAN'T HELP but be impressed as your car rolls to a stop on the circular drive in front of this larger Southern Colonial. From the vestibule you'll step into the large foyer with its focal point the sweeping spiral staircase. The second floor has three master bedrooms, with two smaller bedrooms over an attached garage.

THIS IS the kind of "con-job" in which you might not mind being "taken." We're speaking of our condominium offering which serves up a lot of living for very little money. There are three bedrooms and two baths on the second floor and two more bedrooms and a third bath on the third floor.

ON A DEADEND street which leads to the lake, we are offering this four bedroom house which has been completely rebuilt, using many old beams and paneling from one of the Pointe's great Lake Shore mansions which was razed for a subdivision.

FOR YOU WHO want to own an income property, we have one of the few remaining lots in the Pointe which is zoned for two family dwelling. Live in one unit and let your tenant make the payments which will amortize your investment.

Rotary Club Contest

Teri Albrecht, a sophomore at Grosse Pointe South High School, is this week's winner in the Grosse Pointe Rotary Club contest Youth Forum. She was awarded $25 for her winning entry on "Common Courtesy" which follows.

There are always two sides to every controversy. This particular controversy is between teenagers and storeowners. If a teenager goes into a store and stands around and has to wait for ages for service, the storeowners are at fault. Usually a teenager has to wait at the end of a long line, and when it is his turn, the waitress or lady at the counter suddenly starts to take the business of all the adults, even when they never waited for her service longer than a few minutes. This is very unfair. A teenager's money is as good as an adult's, and usually he spends more. I have observed this to occur on a number of occasions.

Another gripe of most teens is when salesladies are leery of offering their assistance when teens are shopping. Just because parents are not accompanying them does not mean their intent is not to buy. Saleswomen should remember that several teens receive their own monthly clothing allowances from parents, and do their own shopping.

But the other viewpoint the viewpoint of the store keepers is quite understandable. Several hundreds of dollars in valuable merchandise is shoplifted every year. And statistics show that the greater percentage of shoplifters are between the ages of 14 and 18. This is not to say that shopowners have a right to point at every teenager that walks into their store, and think him a potential thief. But at least it makes it reasonably clear why store personnel behave as they do.

Maybe the title, "Common Courtesy" is wrong. To be cordial and helping is fast becoming the "uncommon" thing to do. I believe if you stop a minute before you leave those clothes in the dressing room, or wait on that adult instead of the teenager that had waited patiently, (whichever the case may be), and think, "Now how does the other person feel?", we could all make the day a little brighter.

who, where and whatnot

by whoozit

Why is it . . . that "surprises" (pleasant ones, that is) make us feel so good? . . . The "Happy New Year" card arrived late: Mailed from France January 1, addressed to Mrs. Pepper Whitelaw, Grosse Pointe News, Grosse Pointe (Detroit), Michigan USA, it finally made it to our offices recently . . . I don't know anyone in France," said Mrs. Whitelaw, staring at the outside of the envelope, (why is it that we always puzzle over unexpected mail from the OUTSIDE first; why don't we just hurry up and open it and put ourselves out of our misery?) . . . Mrs. Whitelaw was wrong, of course; she DOES know someone in France, three someones in fact, a trio of handsome young French students whose impromptu hitch-hiking itinerary in the United States last summer brought them to Grosse Pointe and, ultimately, to Mrs. W. who, fascinated by their American Odyssey, told their story in a NEWS article . . . And now the card, "from three French students who remember your charming welcome and especially your kindness . . . Summer '68 was full of joy and happiness; everywhere we went in the United States, a lot of friends like you we met . . ." Mrs. Whitelaw read these words, and smiled, and kept on smiling all day . . . Ah, France! —there's STILL something about you . . .

"Oh," we said . . . "that's NICE," admiring the hand-painted purse Mrs. Ralph E. Glahn, of Maison road, was carrying last week . . . One side pictures "The Hill," the other "The Village," her initials are on top . . . "It's not new," Mrs. Glahn explained, "I've had it a few years; I just love it . . ." We looked closer, and suddenly the fact that times ARE changing—fast!—hit us full in the face: We were looking at a Village where Kopp's stood next to Ryan's Shoe Store, with Mondry Cleaners on the other side . . . And that was NOT so very long ago . . .

We've always felt . . . part of the reason for the Generation Gap is simple semantics: The same words, the same directions, mean different things to members of different age groups . . . and the younger the child, the more literally he "takes" words and directions . . . To illustrate: Two small friends of ours, sisters aged four and two, were spending an afternoon last week in the care of a baby-sitter. The younger one was, for once, angelic; the older had decided this would be her day to "bug" the baby-sitter and, after an hour or two of constant "bugging," the baby-sitter struck back . . . "Look," she said, "I've taken all I can, I WANT NO MORE OF THIS! Why don't you go into the family room and follow your sister's example?" . . . The four-year-old stared, turned and vanished into the family room . . . After 10 minutes or so of unaccompanied quiet, the baby-sitter began to worry: "Maybe I went too far?" . . . So she stuck her head around a corner, looked into the family room—and witnessed a silent two-little-girl procession; pace, pace, pace, two-year-old first, four-year-old second, down the length of the room, turn around and back again . . . "Julie!" the baby sitter said, addressing the four-year-old, "What are you doing?" . . . "I'm following Cindy's example," the four-year-old answered, and pace, pace, pace, up and down the room she and her sister went . . .

HELP!! HELP!! ANYONE! WILL YOU? . . . This, we had to admit as we shuffled through a sheaf of press releases that had accumulated on our desk during lunch hour, is a crowd-grabber approach. So we read on . . . "The Grosse Pointe Woman's Club-sponsored Unit to assist the American Red Cross needs HELP. Mrs. Walter Hallenbeck says, 'If you can read, write or walk, you're NEEDED! The shelves at the Blood Bank are empty and that means that LOTS of help is needed! This Unit works on Thursdays so if you can spare a little time or a lot, do call Mrs. Hallenbeck at 884-4658 or Mrs. Austin Wheatley at 884-3197. They are waiting to hear from YOU!!'"

We'd like to welcome officially to Grosse Pointe . . . Manuel-Jose Eguiguren, a Chilean teenager who's joining the Charles A. Barlow family, of Stephens road, for the next few weeks . . . The Santiago high school student is being sponsored by the Young Christian Students group at St. Paul School . . . An incoming "ambassador" in the Experiment in International Living Program, which sends young people, ages 16 through 30, to live with families in different countries on the theory that only when people get to know people can greater understanding between nations be created, he will give slide lectures and discussions on his visit here when he returns home . . . Ambassadors are specially picked Experimenters whose visits are completely paid for by groups in their home countries and in The States . . . Manuel-Jose wrote the Barlows that he was "interested in meeting Americans and learning about American culture," adding that he especially wanted to see the American Way of Life through a family . . . He has been president of his Santiago high school class for the last two years and is also political leader of a youth section of the Partido Nacional . . . The son of a landowner, he's interested in politics, debating and sports . . . He belongs to polo, hunting and golf clubs and plays the guitar . . . He arrived in Detroit January 17 . . . We're delighted he's here . . .

MRS. J. HOWARD KAY, OF GRAND MARAIS BOULEVARD, (LEFT), AND MRS. JOHN A. FORMELLA, OF CANTERBURY ROAD.

They have 12 children, two dogs, three cats and one party between them. In children, (a half-dozen each), dogs, (one per household), and party, (the Assistance League to the Northeastern Wayne County Child Guidance Clinic-sponsored February 22 Crystal Ball, of which they're co-chairmen), they're equally divided. Clare Kay has a monopoly on the cats.

Dorie Formella doesn't mind; she doesn't think her six-child, one-pet family is in any way deprived.

Dorie and her husband, a lawyer by education and specialist in estate planning who owns a life insurance agency, moved to The Pointe six years ago, arriving the week before Christmas.

They came here from Milwaukee. They're both native Wisconsinites: He went to Marquette University, she to Layton Art School for a year before leaving to be married.

March Is Cake Month
Their six children, five with March birthdays, (the Formellas eat a lot of cake in March!), are John, who will be 20, a student at Albion College; Susan, who will be 17, at Grosse Pointe North High School; Mary Kay, who will be 12, Janie, who will be eight, and Michael, who will be seven, all at Ferry School; and Patrick, who is two and at home.

Their dog is Mimi, "the Poor Man's Poodle," tiny, beige, generally a bit bedraggled and very well loved.

Dorie, who doubled as an apprentice fashion designer while she was attending art school, used to do quite a lot of personal sewing and designing, making many of her own clothes.

She's tried decoupage, too, (with her art background she was bound to find it appealing), but her current pastimes tend to the athletic: Playing golf, skiing . . .

She loves travel, anytime, anywhere, spur-of-the-moment or planned-far-in-advance. This is fortunate: Her husband's work takes him all over the country and he likes Dorie to go along with him.

Business and Pleasure
"We usually combine business with pleasure," she says. "We've traveled all over the United States with the children, as a family."

"Last year, my husband and I took our first 'vacation' vacation—no business, no children. We went to Acapulco. It was delightful!"

"Some of the other places we visited last year were Bermuda, Caberfe . . . In a few weeks we're going to Arizona for a meeting, then coming back, picking up the children, and two days later we're all driving to Florida."

Dorie worked for the Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra — "But never in any important job" — and the Assistance League to the Northeastern Wayne County Child Guidance Clinic.

This latter group claims most of her community service time. "When we first moved here," she recalls, "a neighbor, Thea (Mrs. Donald A.) Blomquist, got me interested in the Assistance League. It was just being formed."

In From The Start
"I was in on the organization years, when we were working to put the League together, give it form, shape, purpose. I've served on the Assistance League Board, as vice-president two years ago . . ."

Clare Kay's a relatively new Assistance League member. "I'm a member of the Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters, in charge of the LWV's Study of Michigan Courts as they Relate to Children and Juveniles," she explains.

we have an obligation to care for children," she believes.

"Our (IYW) Study of Michigan Courts as they relate to Children and Juveniles led to the Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters' current project: A Study of Juvenile Offenders in Grosse Pointe."

"We're doing that now, contacting churches, schools, police, community agencies, trying to determine what our problems are and what help is available here. This Study leads inevitably to the Clinic . . ."

The Northeastern Wayne County Child Guidance Clinic provides diagnosis and therapy for children with emotional and behavioral problems. It functions, too, as an Emergency Emotional First Aid Center, a place to which families caught in a sudden emotional crisis can turn.

Affects Whole Family
"Whenever a crisis happens, it happens to a whole family, not just to one member of a family," Clare explains.

Part of the Clinic's purpose is preventive: It seeks to get to families when their problems are still small, to solve these problems or at least control them.

"The basic unit of society is still, after all, the family," Clare and Dorie maintain. "Strengthen the family, keep it strong, and you strengthen the whole of society."

The Assistance League to the Northeastern Wayne County Child Guidance Clinic was formed in 1965 to further the interests of the Clinic through financial support and public awareness of its function and service in the community.

To accomplish this, the League stages several fund-raising events each year. Last February marked the innovation of an elegant evening in the Assistance League calendar: The League's Valentine Ball. It was a great success—and because of this success, because of the party's evident appeal, it was decided that the Ball should become an annual affair.

Changed Name of Ball
To make the February date more flexible, the 1969 Ball chairmen suggested that a more appropriate name be adopted. After some deliberation, the Ball committee selected the name. The February party is now traditionally established as the Crystal Ball.

It's a black tie Ball, at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, beginning with subscription cocktails and continuing through dinner and dancing well past midnight to the music of Hank Warren and Eddie Santini.

It's a "fun" party, fun to plan ("Any committee is only as good as the people who work on it," say 1969 Crystal Ball co-chairmen Dorie Formella and Clare Kay. We have marvelous people!), and fun to attend.

But it's not FOR fun. Need Worthy Goal
"If the goal weren't worthy, if we didn't believe in the purpose of our project, to help the Clinic, we wouldn't spend hours on the telephone, hours at our 'lonely' lists," Dorie explains. "It just wouldn't be worth the trouble."

But it IS worth the trouble. "I know this sounds corny," Clare says, "but I really DO think children are everything: The promise of tomorrow, the purpose of our lives, all those trite phrases — I really think they're true . . ."

"And I also think that living is difficult, and that people need help . . ."

Those are pretty solid thoughts.

A get-together that combines pleasure and serious purpose is on the Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters' agenda for the immediate future.

Legueros will gather in the home of Mrs. Bruce Miller in University place on Wednesday, February 19, at 1 o'clock for "Chowmein and Consensus," a meeting that promises fun, information on China, (a brief refresher course by the LWV's Foreign Policy Committee on what's and who's who in that mysterious and mammoth republic), and headway toward the formation of a local viewpoint on the China puzzle.

After a long study, the League is now ready for consensus on U.S.-China Relations. The February 19 luncheon should be a giant step in that direction. Mrs. Robert C. Everett and Mrs. Charles James Stierford will be in charge.

The United Nations want Israel to return all the conquered lands. Fine! Now if they can get Russia to return Yugoslavia, Hungary, East Germany, etc., wouldn't that be nice? Of course it could get kinda sticky if the American Indians got in the act.
