(Continued from Page 1) senior girl who has given the most unselfish and consistent service to the school, was awarded to Marie Valk.

The service cup, presented to the senior boy who has given the most unselfish and consistent service to the school, went to Richard Adair.

The bandmaster's cup, which goes to the senior girl who has displayed the most outstanding school spirit and leadership, was this year won by Kathleen Gordon.

Finally, the class of 44 cup presented to the senior boy who likewise displayed the most outstanding school spirit and leadership, was awarded to Meredith Jackson.

Each year the president of the Board of Trustees, acting on behalf of the school constituency, honors members of the faculty who are retiring or who have given long service to the school.

The awarding of 47 diplomas followed the commencement address in his talk Mr. Riddleberger spoke to three broad areas. First, he touched on some of the forces of the past and present which affect students generally.

Mr. Woberspoon also recognized the 25 years of service of Earl Kimber, the chairman of the History Department in the Upper School, and the 25 years of service of Samuel Beeler, the director of the school's industrial arts department.

Mr. Woberspoon then introduced Mr. Riddleberger, who delivered the commencement address in his talk Mr. Riddleberger spoke to three broad areas. First, he touched on some of the forces of the past and present which affect students generally.

Hospital Pleas Studied

(Continued from Page 1) the legalities that arise from this continuing debate." Mr. Bagby then spoke. He advised that the separation plans be halted now because if permitted they would have a serious long range, disastrous impact on the entire character of the Grosse Pointe communities.

Mr. Huber followed Mr. Bagby's comments with the statement that if the City's zoning laws were amended to accommodate the hospital it would be just the beginning of amendments that the City would face.

Following his remarks, Mr. Kessler introduced a pictorial essay, "View Point" that CAC had prepared to illustrate the hazards of allowing the expansion here in colored slides, set to music, the committee stressed through light and sound the shattering of the suburban dream by commercialism.

Mr. Huber then suggested to hospital authorities that they consider purchasing the old United States Public Health Service Marine Hospital at 14700 Riverdale, at the foot of Alter road, which is located two and a quarter miles from Bon Secours, and which is being closed June 29 of this year.

Mr. Huber concluded his presentation with a statement made by Mr. Kessler at the last Public Hearing, which made two "take a hard look at what you are inflicting upon yourselves and the community and the foothill struggle and look for areas where you may flourish and live in order to meet your obligations to mankind."

The second was an appeal to the City Council, "now stand up and say that the quality of life in this community will be enhanced and improved, and the physical environment of our City will be aggressively developed through the enforcement of this and future ordinances which will prevent blight and decay. Ordinances such as these merely say what you cannot do, not what you can do."

Mr. Mullen then introduced Robert J. Maurer, administrator of Bon Secours, who outlined the need for an expansion program. He stressed that the hospital was operating at 98 per cent occupancy and pointed out that this means only two beds are available to handle the unexpected. He went on to say that good hospital practices suggest having 38-22 beds available for emergency use.

He added that lack of beds was not the only problem. He said a good hospital should have more room for ancillary services. He said the hospital is totally lacking in such areas as inhalation therapy, physical therapy, radiologist and electrocardiogram staff.

Mr. Huber said "the committee is tired of this never ending attack on the City's laws and the community." After carefully studying the new plans and proposed changes in the zoning ordinances we do not see a single constructive change in the proposals.

Model Plane Enthusiasts Stay Grounded in Woods

Donald J. Hallman, Director of Parks and Recreation for the City of Grosse Pointe Woods, presented the results of his exhaustive search for an area within the city for young model airplane enthusiasts to pursue their hobby, to the Woods Council on Monday, June 16.

He expressed regret over not having been able to find a safe and suitable location in the Woods for this particular activity.

His report included a memo from Public Safety Director, Donald B. Coats which recommended that any area designated for flying planes be adequately fenced in to protect all spectators, and that sufficient signs be posted listing rules and regulations. He also specified that only those persons actually flying planes be permitted within the fenced area.

Mr. Hallman also contacted Kenneth D. Crane, safety engineer, who indicated that the flying of model airplanes was hazardous to the general public and required proper policing by responsible adults along with adequate safety guards. Mr. Crane suggested that the following measures be instituted: a circular snow fence with a minimum radius of 125 feet, restricting the operator to within a ten-foot radius, so indicated by a proper marker, and the installation of a sign at the entrance reading "area not to be used without adult supervision."

Mr. Hallman then contacted seven principals of Woods schools requesting the use of their playgrounds. All seven principals indicated that because of the heavy use of the playground, the noise factor and limited space, none of them could grant permission for this kind of usage.

Subsequently Mr. Hallman made the following statement, "Considering the outlook of school authorities, the recommendations by Director Coats and Mr. Crane and the inability to secure a safe site, it is my belief, at this time, that the City Ordinance pertaining to model airplane flying should not be changed to permit flying in the Woods. I make this recommendation for the mutual protection and safety of both the flying enthusiasts and those who frequent our public properties."

"If any interested party can secure a suitable and safe location for this activity in line with

Girl Dies in House Blaze

While the girl was being carried out of the burning building, other firemen searched the house from top to bottom, and found the dead girl's brother at the east end of the basement, unconscious and across an upset card table, and carried him outside and rushed him to the hospital.

Miss Everitt told Selby that she called the Reynolds home, after turning in the alarm, and "Johnny" picked up the receiver, but did not utter a word. She said she heard him coughing, apparently from the smoke, then she heard the phone drop.

At Summer Cottage
Mr. Reynolds and his wife, Elizabeth, and two of his children, Robert, 16, and Kathryn, 14, had left Friday evening for the family's summer cottage in Caseville. Susan was to have joined them on Saturday.

There are two other brothers, Michael, who is married, and Gregory, who is in military service. The children's mother, Lorraine, died in 1967. Mr. Reynolds married the present Mrs. Reynolds last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds were notified of the tragedy and returned home immediately.

John is a former star football and baseball player at Grosse

Pointe High School South and now attends the Detroit Institute of Technology.

Susan, who graduated from South was a junior at Eastern Michigan University.

Damage to the interior of the first floor of the Reynolds home was heavy, firemen said, but there was hardly any damage to the second floor. The total amount of damage will have to await the determination of insurance adjusters, it was said.

Funeral services for Miss Reynolds, 20, of 881 S. Oxford road, were held on Tuesday, June 17, in the Verheyden Funeral Home and from Our Lady Star of the Sea Church.

She is also survived by her grandmother, Mrs. Elmer Reynolds and her grandfather, Aloysius Cadieux.

Interment was in St. Paul's Cemetery.

He was awarded the medal during ceremonies at the Naval Hospital, Oakland, Calif.

Commander Robins received the award for heroic achievement in connection with operations against the enemy. The Bronze Star is the nation's 15th highest combat award.

Woods Regulates Rubbish Disposal

A new ordinance which will regulate the disposal of rubbish in the city of Grosse Pointe Woods was discussed by Council members on Monday, June 16. The Council agreed to have the ordinance published by title. It is slated to become effective September 1.

The major difference in the new proposed ordinance and the present ordinance is that the use of disposable plastic rubbish bags will be made mandatory. The bags must be properly tied and of two-mil strength and be capable of serving as a liner for a standard 20 gallon rubbish container.

Items that cannot be placed in the disposal rubbish bag because of their odd shape and size should be placed along side the rubbish bags for collection and disposal on the regular collection day. All cardboard boxes which cannot be ripped up, torn up or cut up and placed in a disposable rubbish bag must be completely flattened or knocked down, cut to lengths not exceeding four feet and placed with the bags in a manner so they will not be blown around the area.

The ordinance also provides that no rubbish be placed out for collection before 6 p.m. on the day preceding the regular collection day and by 7 a.m. on the regularly scheduled day.

When a holiday occurs on a week day, the rubbish pickup shall be delayed one day for the area whose normal pickup occurs after the holiday.

The new ordinance specifies that all brush (trees, limbs, shrubs and bushes, etc.) will be collected and disposed of on a regular once-a-week basis as a municipal service provided by the city, and that it shall not contain an individual tree, shrub, bush cuttings, trimmings, or limbs exceeding three inches in diameter and not exceeding 50 pounds in weight.

Petersen Attends World Congress

The City of Grosse Pointe Woods is mighty proud of its City Administrator, Chester E. Petersen. Mr. Petersen has been selected as an official delegate, representing the International City Managers Association, to attend the World Congress of Cities in Vienna, Austria.

He is the only City Administrator in the state of Michigan selected for this honor and one of six in the entire United States.

The group will work out of Vienna. They plan a goodwill and study tour of 10 countries including Austria, Hungary, Yugoslavia, Italy, England, Ireland, the Netherlands and Czechoslovakia. They will be greeted at formal receptions by the various heads of government in this country.

Mr. Petersen and his wife left Tuesday, June 17. They will fly on 11 different airlines during their tour. They are scheduled to return in four weeks.

Banquet Planned to Honor Retiring Judge Belanger

Friends of Park Municipal Judge C. Joseph Belanger, dean of the Pointe judiciary, have prepared plans for a farewell banquet honoring the judge who will retire from his post on July 3, after serving the community for the past 30 years.

The affair has been set for Wednesday, July 9, at 6:30 p.m., at Mt. Maron's Hall, 14470 Kercheval at St. Jean, Detroit. The cost is six dollars a person, which will include cocktails, dinner and a retirement gift to be presented to the popular judge, whose friends and associates are saddened by the fact that "hizzonor" is leaving his municipal bench after all these years.

Invitations to the banquet have been mailed to Judge Belanger's many admirers, and it is conceivable that there are a large number who might have been omitted from the list. If this is so, then let this be an invitation to them, if they wish to participate in paying tribute to this public servant.

Anyone wishing to take part in the affair, should make out a check payable to Mrs. Jeanne Mentor, Committee Treasurer, in the amount covering the number of persons planning to attend. Reservations should be made no later than July 1, and should be mailed to Mrs. Mentor at 15115 East Jefferson Avenue, Grosse Pointe Park, Michigan 48230, address of the Park's Municipal Building.

On the banquet committee besides Mrs. Mentor, are City Manager Robert A. Slone, Director of Public Safety William P. Ellenburg, Police Capt. Gerard Kestlelout, Fire Lt. Philip Costa, Det. Sgt. James LaPratt, Police Sgt. George Blair, and Mrs. Grace McCracken, the city's court clerk for many years.

Judge Belanger, an attorney since 1922, will continue his law practice after leaving his judicial post. He was prevented from seeking re-election in April, by a State law which makes it mandatory that judges retire from their judicial jobs on reaching 70 years of age.

Judge Belanger was a Grosse Pointe Township justice of the peace from 1939 through 1950. During this period he also served as a member of the Township Board, and as a member of the Township Board of Health.

When the Village of Grosse Pointe Park incorporated as a city in December 1950, Judge Belanger was elected its first municipal judge. He was returned to office by the electors in 1953, and has served since, being returned to office by a substantial majority vote at each succeeding election.

He served as vice chairman of the Federal Selective Service System Board No. 57, which covered the Pointe, during World War II. He served on the Charter Revision Committee appointed by Mayor Karl Goddard in 1942, and in 1950, was elected a member of the Park's Charter Commission.

For years, annually and on his own time, he attended a Traffic Court Conference at Northwestern University in Evanston, Ill., after which he submitted a report of the conference activities to the mayor and city council. In 1957, he received the American Bar Association Traffic Award, one of his prized possessions.

Judge Belanger has been lauded for both his firmness and leniency in meting out justice in his court, and not once has he shown favoritism to anyone appearing before him.

During his years of service to the community, he has contributed his utmost, and has cooperated with city administrative officials at all times. Not once in the years he has sat on the bench has his handling of court matters, or his judicial conduct, been criticized.

Succeeding Judge Belanger will be William E. Speer, who was elected to a four-year term by Park voters on April 7. Under the Park City Charter, a judge is elected in April and begins his term on the July 4 following the election.

NEW LIFE FOR AN OLDER, "TYPICAL" HOUSE

Shown here is a house much like millions built early in the twentieth century. As the real estate upon which many of them were built increases in value, families are finding it makes sense to plan extensive remodeling.

The kitchen, (above) was completely up-rooted and relocated from the back of the house to a central location. Closable pass-through above an extra wide, wood-grain laminated plastic counter makes this work space function as a part of, or separate from the adjoining family room. Storage cabinets and work counters line three walls of this 13 1/2 x 9-foot, no-traffic kitchen. A new deck is just steps away.

The old living room at the front of the house unceremoniously received all incoming traffic. A shift in entry location changed this space into a no-traffic library (above). Elaborate carvings and moldings rescued from a salvage operation distinguish the two walls of built-in bookshelf-storage units. Woodwork finish is a glazed, antiqued blue; the refinished floors are stained oak.

A KING-SIZE DECK DESIGNED FOR OUTDOOR ENTERTAINING

Addition of this deck was a part of the remodeling project. The owners moved the garage shown at left in the photograph (above) from the back lot line ahead to align with the front of the house. The resulting "L" shape made a perfect spot for a semi-private deck.

Because they liked to entertain large groups of friends, they designed a deck that would extend around nearly two sides of the house. Short columns raise it to the same level as the home's first floor.

Sliding glass doors give access directly from the kitchen and from two sides of the family room for free and easy circulation.

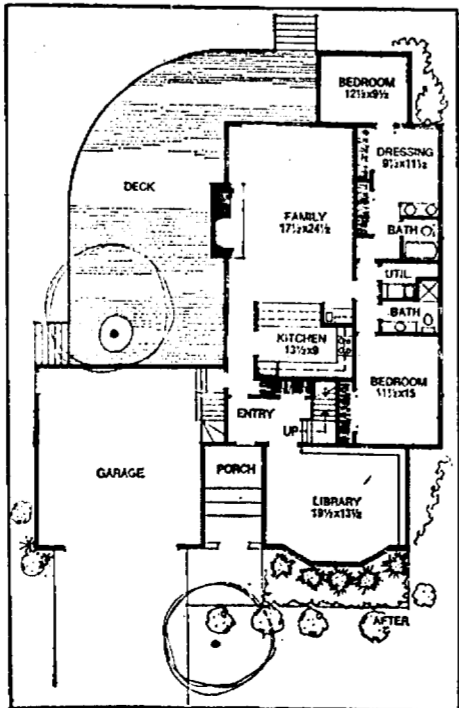

A non-bearing wall between the home's original kitchen and dining room was removed to create this 17 1/2 x 24 1/2-foot family room (above). The room is finished with white acoustic ceiling divided by massive beams, walnut-paneled walls, stained-oak floors, and a combination fireplace and built-in barbecue of reclaimed brick.

Sliding glass doors at right work with similar units off the kitchen to provide free access to a large patio-deck built just outside the two areas.

The plan drawings at left and right show the extensive changes that went on inside the home's original walls, as well as outside.

MYI To Present Local Concert

The 1969 Musical Youth International (MYI) Band and Choir will present their last local concert here before departing on their good will tour to Japan and Western United States.

The performance of these 100 talented youthful musicians will be Wednesday evening, June 25, at 7:30 o'clock at Parcels Middle School Auditorium, corner of Mac and Vernier road.

The MYI Band and Choir are comprised of high school students from the Great Lakes area. These students auditioned for positions in the groups in October 1968, and have been rehearsing and presenting concerts since December 1968.

The 1963 MYI Band is directed by Russell D. Reed, director of instrumental music at Grosse Pointe South High School. The choir is under the direction of Raymond B. Voorhees, chairman of the music department in the Fenton Area Schools.

There are eight local students from the Grosse Pointe High Schools traveling with the group this summer. They are: Robyn Ankney, flute; Marty McMahon, oboe; Haydee Wallace, clarinet; Diane Kummerfeld, bassoon; Steve Reed, trumpet; Peter Pettit, Mary Ambrose, trombones; and, Mark Thomas, tenor.

MYI is affiliated with the federal government's People to People program which was founded by President Dwight D. Eisenhower, and seeks to promote good will, international friendship and understanding between nations. The People to People program promotes sister city relationships between cities of the United States and foreign countries. Recently the city council of Grosse Pointe Farms passed a resolution to become a sister city with Imazu, Japan. MYI will visit Imazu this summer and will present the city officials with United States and Michigan flags which have flown over the state capitol in Lansing.

This summer's tour of MYI will begin at Metropolitan Airport on June 28 when the group leaves for Seattle. On July 1, the group travels to Tokyo. After spending three weeks in eight different Japanese cities, MYI will fly back to Seattle, then bus back through the states giving concerts in Montana, Yellowstone National Park, South Dakota, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Indiana, and present their final concert Sunday in Hill Auditorium in Ann Arbor.

Sex Education Meeting Held

Nearly 60 persons representing almost every community sector attended a meeting of the sub-committee on sex education of the Grosse Pointe Family Life Education Council on Wednesday, June 11, at the War Memorial.

The purpose of the meeting, to which education and religious leaders were invited, was to supply information on the status of sex education programs in the United States to persons concerned with their administration and role in Grosse Pointe Schools.

A secondary purpose of the meeting, according to Richard W. Kay, chairman of the sub-committee, was to provide an opportunity for interested and concerned persons to "air their views as well as ask questions that may be bothering them due to the current widespread publicity on the subject."

"The meeting was generally amicable," according to Dr. Calier Worrell, FLEC president, "in spite of the fact that a number of divergent views were obviously represented."

Following some brief opening remarks by Dr. Worrell, a short address by Mr. Kay on a number of "myths" currently being circulated by extremist groups which he said are aimed at discrediting individuals in sex education programs, as well as undermining programs in general, preceded informal exchange of views in separate discussion groups.

Dr. Worrell said that the unexpected large attendance at the meeting indicated that the "community is taking a good hard look at the future of sex education here but that the reaction was calm, reasonable and favorable. I was encouraged by both the turnout and the number of expressions of support for the efforts of FLEC."

Hold Rose Show Friday, Saturday

The recent cold weather was viewed with some delight by most of the members of the Grosse Pointe Rose Society. It held up the flowering of the first blooms of summer just long enough to ensure a magnificent display for their annual Rose Show.

The Show will be held in the Hospitality House of the Michigan Consolidated Gas Company, 16906 Kercheval in Grosse Pointe this coming Friday and Saturday, June 20 and 21. The doors are open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Refreshments will be served.

The Grosse Pointe Rose Society has no fewer than three accredited Consulting Rosarians in its ranks. These gentlemen, Messrs. Art Shimmin, Elmore Frank, and Sherman Willson have been recognized by the American Rose Society as experts in the field of rose culture and the development of new roses.

A magnificent show is expected as local gardens are now heavy with the first blooms of summer. Grosse Pointers and those in the area are invited to see the roses, gossip about them, ask questions and enjoy refreshments at Hospitality House.

GPUS Theater Has Big Plans

The University School Repertory Theater will present five plays on June 24, 25, 26, and 30, and July 1 and 2. The performances will be at 8:30 p.m. in the Grosse Pointe University School auditorium, 1045 Cook road.

The five modern plays to be presented are: "Escorial", "The Dumbwaiter", "Mrs. Dally Has a Lover", "Crapp's Last Tape", and "I'm Really Here".

Repertory summer theater in Grosse Pointe is the brainchild of Rip Odell. Rip, a graduate of the Grosse Pointe University School who is currently a student at Denison University, felt that there was both a lack of cultural opportunities as well as a lack of things for students to do in Grosse Pointe during the summer months. To fill both needs, the University School Repertory Theater was born.

The plays are being produced, directed, and performed by a number of students and graduates of the Grosse Pointe University School, advised by several members of the school's faculty. Lisa Bowers, who will attend Smith College in the fall, is the executive producer, instrumental in much of the details behind the project.

John Hoag, Marie Valk and John Booth are responsible for the direction of "Escorial". Joe Pehrson is directing "I'm Really Here". Included in the cast of both plays is Meredith Jackson, who was recently chosen as Speaker for the Senior Class at the University School graduation ceremonies this year. Other members of the casts of these two plays are: Hadley Mack, Cathy Zimmerman, Kathy Gordon and Janet Bachrach.

Bee Friedberg has been instrumental in the planning of the Repertory Theater, which began early in the school year. Bee both directs and plays Mrs. Dally in "Mrs. Dally Has a Lover". Her costar in the play is George Bushnell. Bee will attend Swarthmore College this fall, while George will be a senior at the University School.

Although primarily a student venture, the University School Repertory Theater is indebted to its faculty advisors for its very existence. They are: Tom Walker, Bill Prescott, Mrs. Susan Hughes, and Fred Woodhams.

Admission to each of the six performances is $2. Tickets will be available before each performance. Advance ticket information may be obtained from Suzanne Tolleson, TU 1-6065, or Chris Zukowski, TU 1-6666.

According to an official police report, the damage was recorded on Sunday, June 15. It is believed that the vandals committed the deeds over the weekend.

Patrolman Albert Abend, dispatched to the scene, said that he found parts pulled from the various vehicles and placed atop the hoods of the cars.

Two 1969 Fords had the ignition wires removed, as well as oil cleaners, oil filter caps, and oil and transmission sticks. Two 1969 Plymouths, two 1969 Chevrolets, and a 1969 Oldsmobile station wagon had spark plug wires disconnected and pulled out.

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

Okay, we've HAD IT with dank Saturdays and damp, dismal Sundays—we DEMAND a Good Weekend this time around!

And we're not the only one who's insisting on a respite from the Saturday-Sunday deluges . . .

Hunt Club Horse Show

This is Horse Show time at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club. Now a nice, sunny day is about the best thing we could wish for a horse show, (rain's of course the worst: Comes the rain, comes the mud; comes the mud-and-rain, comes that extraordinarily pungent Horse Show-on-a-Wet Day smell . . .)

The Show began yesterday and will continue through Sunday at the Hunt Club grounds in Cook road. It is, as always, open to everyone, with an admission of $1 for adults, 50c for children.

Saturday's the Big Night at the Clubhouse, with exhibitors in formal riding attire dotting the crowd gathered at the Annual Horse Show Dinner Dance. Moonlight-and-Roses is this year's party theme. Martin Trombly will provide the music.

Chairmen of 1969 dinner dance festivities are Mr. and Mrs. Philip Mebus and Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Deola.

Liggett Antiques Show

This is Antiques Show time at Liggett School. Now an antique show is an indoor affair, but browsers and buyers much prefer to stroll from their cars to the door of exhibition headquarters. It beats running between the raindrops.

And an umbrella at an antiques show IS rather like a bull in a china shop.

The Liggett Show, rated by dealers and collectors one of the best in the country, opened last evening at the School in Briarcliff drive with a cocktail and dinner preview party masterminded by The Mesdames Ferdinand Cinelli, Horace C. Ford, Wilfred Livermore and Nelson Robertson.

Sponsored by parents and alumnae with all proceeds benefitting Liggett's Endowment Fund, it continues through Saturday. Tickets are $2. Everyone's welcome.

Mrs. Edsel B. Ford and Mrs. Benson Ford are honorary co-chairmen. General chairman is Mrs. Harold L. Frank.

Flowery Debut For Anne Fisher

And Anne's Victorian gown of white lace was the perfect counterpart to the mod decorations. The debutante attends Marymount College, Arlington, Va. She'll be a member of Hudson's Downtown Store's College Board this summer.

Duchesse Lace Appliques Accent Bride's Silk Organza Gown; Attendants' Frocks Fashioned of Pink Dotted Swiss

Following their Friday evening, June 13, wedding in Saint Paul's-on-the-Lakeshore and a reception at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, the newlywed Paul Russell Frerers left the Yacht Club lawn by helicopter for Metropolitan Airport, from where they departed for the Bahamas the next morning.

Mrs. Frerer is the former Susan Ann Sanders, daughter of Mrs. Edwin Frederick Sanders, of Stephens road, and the late Mr. Sanders.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul G. Frerer, of Nicolet place, Detroit.

For the 6 o'clock rites, at which Monsignor Frank McPhillips officiated, the former Miss Sanders selected a gown of ivory silk organza accented with Duchesse lace appliques.

An organza semi-belt defined her natural waist and matching lace edged her Cathedral train and illusion mantilla, which was dotted with occasional lace clusters. She carried an arrangement of Sweetheart roses, baby's-breath and stephanotis.

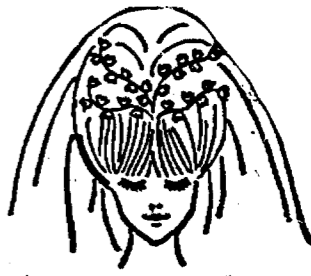

In pink dotted Swiss frocks, their Empire waists defined by bands of embroidered organza, where Anne Sanders, who served as her sister's honor attendant, and bridesmaids Fredericka Cody, Margaret Cody, Virginia Ives and Catherine McIntyre.

Pink satin ribbon outlining their necklines fell from back bows into long streamers. Their flowers were pink and white Sweetheart roses and baby's-breath.

The bridegroom asked Stephen Yost to act as best man. Seating the guests were David Hulme, William Demorest, Charles Cawley and Bruce Frerer, of Mercer Island, Wash., brother of the bridegroom.

The bride's mother wore a pale blue chiffon gown accented with brilliants, while the bridegroom's mother selected an apricot brocade gown with a matching coat. Both mothers pinned gardenias to their handbags.

This is a bride.

See her pretty hair-do. It's her very special once-in-a-lifetime hair-do. In the front, long pretty bangs. In the back, a veil falling over an intricate postiche. And in-between, lilies-of-the-valley. We worked all this out. We made the postiche. And we came to the house on the day of the wedding to comb and arrange and place each little flower—for her and her bridesmaids as well. If you'd like the same special care on your special day, do call us. We love being the hairdresser of the bride.

Braille Course Grads Honored

Receiving certificates were Mrs. George Steyer, Mrs. Donald Kalen, Mrs. Robert Moore, Mrs. Harold Vaughn, Mrs. James Vaughn, Mrs. Mildred Goodwin and Mrs. K. L. Chapin.

Fifty-three members and guests were present at the luncheon. The party was arranged by Mrs. Gerald Fitzgerald assisted by Mrs. Donald Morgan, Mrs. Frank Trampusch, Mrs. Earl Drew, Mrs. Connie Kalitta and Miss Eva Carabell.

Included among the guests was Miss Harriet Helms of the Grosse Pointe Library Staff. As president of the Grosse Pointe Soroptimist Club, she has on the club's behalf contributed generously to the financial support of the Braille Volunteers.

The guest speaker was Margaret Smith, director of Communications of the Rehabilitation Institute. As a blind child Miss Smith learned to read Braille at the age of five.

During a recent tour of Europe she arranged to have Braille books made available to her at the American Embassies along her route. She stressed in her speech that despite other forms of communication for the blind, hand-transcribed Braille will always be in demand.

She further explained her use of Braille books in the work she does teaching blind college students and adults at the Institute.

Miss Smith, a native Detroit, is a graduate of Marygrove College and received her Master's degree from Marquette University.

The Braille Volunteers, although organized just a year ago, have already transcribed 65 volumes (5,000 pages) of Braille including textbooks, diet sheets, national zip codes and instruction manuals as well as reading books for pleasure for children and adults.

They are currently busy transcribing four textbooks for a high school student.

The present Braille class members working on their manuscripts for the Library of Congress recently visited the Marquette School to observe and learn the techniques employed in teaching blind children.

The course in Braille Transcription will begin again in September at the War Memorial Center. Further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. John McNamara at TU 1-9566.

CYNTHIA J. MAJOR, daughter of MR. and MRS. HARRY MAJOR, of South Highie place, was recently elected Queen of Greek Week at Northwood Institute, where she is a member of Sigma Phi Nu sorority.

THEY'VE ARRIVED

DEAR PAT,

If this is Tuesday it must be Seventh Ave. It's one big, 24 hour extravaganza—a million bit players taking their places for the mob scenes that begin early in the morning—the cameo personalities begin making their appearances about 10 a.m. What a cast this is!

MORT SCHRADER did a walk-on from his car to the 530 building (Holy mackerel, Andy—he's the best looking thing since Valentino) THE SIDNEYS (Lunt and Fontaine of the garment industry) cast a bit of stardust in the elevator of the 498 hi-rise—Later in the P.M. I caught that incredible talent Ole Borden, Rembrandt breaking bread at the 500 Club with a bevy of reporters. One luminary after another—it's an incredible atmosphere. I wouldn't want the world to know this but I had to be restrained from asking N. N. for his autograph. How can anyone be aware of the uncomfortable chairs (I always feel like I'm in a push, front and center at the Pantages) or the crowded elevators (when you might rub noses with RUDI). And, frankly, I can't bemoan the impossible cab situation since the day I shared one uptown with SAMUEL ROBERT (he was not wearing leather) I guess I'm not terribly dedicated or necessarily in love with this business but after ten years I'm still too enthralled having a whale of a fun time with it. Let it last—I couldn't care less about the seamy side of it. I would rather anticipate the thrill and excitement of viewing brand, new lines presented by the know people and making selections for the people we've come to know.

The fall presentations are inevitably the most sensational (I'll be waxing just as vocal for the holiday showings) I'll begin penning some scintillating critiques the very morning I simmer down from this case of rag fever.

Best Love
JO

Janette Marie Godin Says Vows June 14

Newlywed Christopher Mark Fischers Are Vacationing in Nassau; Will Return to Make Home in Wisconsin

An Empire gown of white organza styled with a front panel of tucked organza edged in Venise lace flowers was Janette Marie Godin's choice for the Saturday, June 14, ceremony at which she became the bride of Christopher Mark Fischer.

Matching lace and organza trimming formed the cuffs of her Bishop sleeves and edged her detachable Chapel train.

Her double-tiered Cathedral length silk illusion veil was lace-edged, and she carried a Victorian bouquet of white rosebuds and lilies-of-the-valley.

Following the 11:30 o'clock rites in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church, at which The Reverend Thomas J. Finnigan presided, the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Arthur Godin, of Lochmoor boulevard, entertained at a reception in the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

Honor attendant Anne Maire Decker and bridesmaids Margo Cody and Ellen, Katherine and Laura Fischer, sisters of the bridegroom, wore floor length frocks of shrimp-colored voile, vertically striped with tiny white flowers and sashed in white organza.

Their wide-brimmed sun hats were fashioned of white organza, and they carried garden bouquets of white, shrimp and yellow field flowers.

Thomas Fischer served as his brother's best man. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Norman J. Fischer, of Fox Point, Wis.

Ushering were James and Kenneth Godin, brothers of the bride, and two other brothers of the bridegroom, John Fischer, of Philadelphia, Pa., and Robert Fischer, of Chicago, Ill.

Mrs. Godin selected a mint green silk dress and jacket ensemble for her daughter's wedding and the reception. Mrs. Fischer, the bridegroom's mother, wore a dress and matching coat of ice aqua silk worsted.

The newlyweds will return from a Nassau vacation to make their home in Fox Point.

Fete Bride-Elect Elsie Caulkins

Parties for bride-elect Elsie Caulkins, daughter of Mrs. McMillan Caulkins, of Newberry place, and Edward Burns, Jr., of East Jefferson avenue, Detroit, are scheduled every day beginning this Saturday, June 21, through Thursday, June 26, when Elsie will speak her marriage vows to Samuel Wadley Childs at a 5 o'clock ceremony in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mrs. James Thrall Soby, of New Canaan, Conn., and Thomas Southworth Childs, of Farmington, Conn.

Mrs. Earl Heenan, Jr., and Anne Tracy Heenan have already given an afternoon tea and kitchen and recipe shower.

Saturday's parties include the luncheon and personal shower to be given at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club by Mrs. Nicholas Forstmann, of Washington, D.C., the former Stephanie Peoples, who'll be one of Miss Caulkins' attendants, and the cocktail party to be hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Ingersoll Lewis, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. William Jerome Croul at the Lewis' home in Lewiston road.

A Sunday picnic is planned by Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord Gillis, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Jon Huffman Winchester Clark, both to be members of the wedding party, (he will usher, she is matron of honor), are entertaining at a Monday cocktail party.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Goodenough and bridesmaid Elizabeth Goodenough will give a Tuesday dinner for members of the wedding party and out-of-town guests.

The bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Taylor Bodman and Mr. and Mrs. William Charles McMillan, will entertain the wedding party and out-of-town guests at luncheon the day of the wedding.

The evening preceding the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Soby and Mr. Childs, the prospective bridegroom's father, will give the Rehearsal Dinner at the Little Club. Seated at white tables decorated with yellow roses and delphiniums will be the bridal party and in-town and out-of-town relatives and friends.

Music will be by Phil Skillman.

Elsie plans to wear a specially designed gown fashioned by Maria Dixon from a pale blue and gold sari brought from Hong Kong by her aunt, Mrs. Bodman.

Her mother has selected an ivory peau de soie ensemble accented with crystal beading and her sister, Mrs. Clark, will wear silver-beaded white crepe evening pajamas.

Following the wedding reception at the Country Club of Detroit, the bride's father has invited the wedding party and out-of-town guests to gather for supper at his apartment.

MR. and MRS. PAUL A. VANHULL, of Akron, O., announce the birth of a son, BRADLEY CHARLES, June 8. Mrs. VanHull is the former JANET OHLY, daughter of MR. and MRS. CHARLES W. ## Robinson-Schmidt Rites Read June 14

Evening Rites Are Followed by Reception at Georgian Inn; Newlyweds Will Be at Home in Saginaw Next Week

Diane Schmidt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schmidt, of Kenmore drive, and Gerald William Robinson, II, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Robinson, of Saginaw, exchanged marriage vows Saturday, June 14, in Peace Lutheran Church.

For the 6:30 o'clock rites, the bride selected a gown of white mousseline de soie over taffeta with accents of rose-patterned Chantilly lace frosted with seed pearls.

A seed pearl-edged lace and organza fleurette caught her tiered silk illusion veil. She carried a cascade of white roses, carnations and ivy.

Her attendants, in sissy shirtwaist dresses fashioned with white lace bodices styled with ruffled necklines and long sleeves, floor length A line skirts of pale green peau and avocado green satin belts, were honor maid Marty Howe, of Alma, and bridesmaids Nora Roberson, also of Alma, Kathy Steyer and Connie Robinson, the bridegroom's sister.

Their headpieces were avocado satin bows and they carried baskets filled with yellow daisies and miniature white carnations.

Serving as his brother's best man was Robert Robinson. In the usher corps were Donald Baxter, the bride's cousin, John Emerick, of Saginaw, and Robert Cummings, of Marietta, N.Y. Mark Grimes was ring bearer.

The mother of the bride wore a shocking pink silk worsted dress fashioned with a stand-up crystal beaded collar. The bridegroom's mother chose a coat and dress ensemble of turquoise silk and wool worsted. Both mothers selected cymbidium orchid corsages.

They will be at home in Saginaw after June 21.

MR. and MRS. JOHN R. NICHOLSON, of St. Clair Shores, announce the birth of twins, JOHN RUTHAUFF NICHOLSON, JR., and ANNE MERITT NICHOLSON, June 5. Mrs. Nicholson is the former SUZANNE PHILLIPS, daughter of MR. and MRS. BYRON B. PHILLIPS, of Sheldon road. Paternal grandparents are the GEORGE A. NICHOLSONS, JR., of Cadieux road.

Ten Debutantes Bow Together

Psychedelic banners in "electric" colors, shades of fuchsia and green, royal blue and shocking pink, yellow and orange, each bearing the magic number 10 written as a Roman numeral, keyed the decor at the Country Club Saturday evening, June 14, as 10 local debutantes made their bows together to society.

The girls, their parents, out-of-town guests and ushers distinguished by ank medallions (the ank is the sacred Egyptian "life" symbol), dined en masse at the Club before the party.

Each of the debts wore a white dress and each carried a Flemish nosegay.

The girls are Mary Edith Candler, daughter of the J. Nell Candler; Rebecca Coates, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edward of Coates; Louisa Bowen, daughter of the Lem Bowns; Caroline Killefer, daughter of the Tom Killefers; Lisa Finkenstaedt, daughter of the William P. Finkenstaeds; Jane Lord, daughter of the Herbert Lords; Florence Ledyard, daughter of the William Hendrie Ledyards; Elizabeth Wood, daughter of the H. Gordon Woods; Louise Wright, daughter of the Charles Wrights, III, and Susan Jane Sorge, daughter of the Jay Sorges.

The Sorges entertained Friday evening, June 13, at a reception for Susan Jane in their Touraine road home.

Among those receiving degrees at the University of Cincinnati's June 15 commencement ceremonies was FREDERICK HENRY STEINHEISER, JR., of McKinley avenue.

Mrs. Gerald Robinson, II

Photo by Collingwood Studio. Married Saturday evening, June 14, in Peace Lutheran Church were DIANE SCHMIDT and Mr. Robinson. She is the daughter of the Walter Schmidts, of Kenmore drive. The bridegroom's parents are the Gerald Robinsons, of Saginaw.
