HEADLINES of the WEEK As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, June 19
RIOTING AGAIN exploded early today at the University of Michigan campus in Ann Arbor. About 120 policemen, accompanied by police dogs, who swept the campus streets clear of protesting youths, were met with a hail of rocks and bottles. This was the second night of disorders in the university town. U-M President Robben Fleming said only 13 of those arrested were students at the university, which has about 33,000 students during a normal semester.

Friday, June 20
PRESIDENT NIXON held out the hope that all American ground combat troops will be out of Vietnam by the end of next year at a news conference on Thursday. The President said he hoped to be able to meet a schedule that would pull at least 100,000 United States troops out by the end of next year. The remaining combat forces, some 150,000 men, would be withdrawn during 1970 under the President's plan. This is a far higher and faster rate of withdrawal than Nixon or his administration has predicted to date.

Saturday, June 21
RAFAEL VIERA, 20-year-old New York City school teacher, entered the Detroit police homicide Bureau Friday to face charges of slaying a Detroit policeman March 29 outside New Bethel Church. Viera made no statement. He had been sought in the shooting of Patrolman Michael Czapski outside of the church at 8450 Linwood on the city's near northwest side after a convention of the militant New Republic of Africa.

Sunday, June 22
THE STUDENTS for a Democratic Society, holding a noisy convention in the Chicago Coliseum, have been involved in vicious ideological infighting between the Revolutionary Youth Movement and the Progressive Labor Party. Delegates appeared unable to obtain a working compromise. The convention was scheduled to end today.

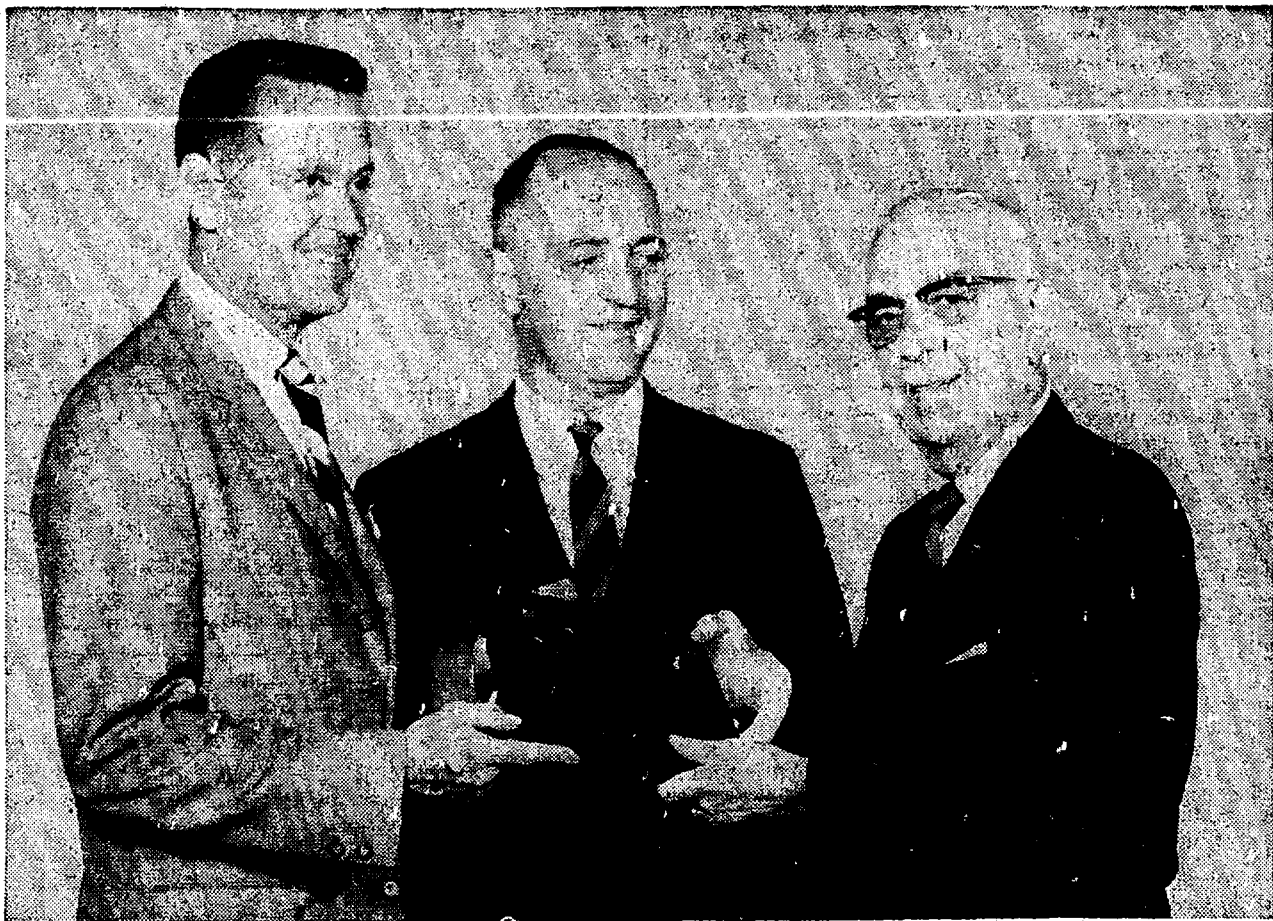

OFFICIALS IN CHARLESTON, S.C. clamped a lid on the racially tense city Saturday, imposing a dusk-to-dawn curfew and setting $50,000 bonds for the leaders of demonstrations that sparked a night of violence. Reverend Ralph Abernathy was jailed when he led an estimated 400 Negroes in an unauthorized march to support striking black hospital workers.

Monday, June 23
JUDY GARLAND, 47, famed entertainer, died in London, England, Sunday. A Scotland Yard spokesman ruled out foul play and said no suicide note was found in the two-story white house in London's Belgravia district, where the body was found shortly before noon by her fifth husband, Mickey Deans. An autopsy was ordered for Monday. One theory under investigation was an accidental overdose of medication.

ERNEST PAUL SIMS, a Nashville, Tenn., jail inmate, said Sunday that his confession of killing two girls in the Ann Arbor-Ypsilanti area was a hoax. The retraction ended 18 hours of national publicity for the good looking drifter who formerly worked in Ypsilanti. Michigan investigators still are up against a blank wall in their search for the killer of six young women slain in the area in less than two years.

Tuesday, June 24
A DC4 CARGO plane attempting to circle back to Miami International Airport with an engine fire crashed in a busy, building-lined street in Miami Monday, strewn flaming debris and wreckage along a four-block area. Ten people were killed including the four crew members and six people on the ground. Many other persons sustained minor injuries. Witnesses report the four-engine plane owned by Dominicana Air Lines, came down atop a three-story building about a half-mile northeast of the airport.

Judge Belanger Named Citizen of Year

Best Citizen Award Goes To Belanger

Park Municipal Judge Recipient of Annual Honor Bestowed by Pointe Rotary Club

Judge C. Joseph Belanger, of Westchester road, was named Citizen of the Year for 1969 by the Grosse Pointe Rotary Club and was presented with a commemorative plaque at the club's Monday meeting in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center.

Judge Belanger has served over 30 years on the bench and has been a Grosse Pointe resident for more than 32 years. A member of the Michigan Bar Association for 47 years and an attorney in Wayne County the same length of time, he has maintained offices in the Penobscot Building during that entire time. He celebrated his 71st birthday on March 21.

Holds Two Degrees
A Michigan native, Judge Belanger was graduated from the Detroit College of Law in 1922, and also has attended, on his own time, Northwestern University, as an arm of the American Bar Association, to keep abreast of the latest laws.

Opening Festival Concert To Have Exclusive Flavor

There will be an exclusive "playing" at the opening concert of the Grosse Pointe Music Festival on Tuesday, July 8, according to concert organizer Gordon Staples of the Detroit Symphony.

Top popular arranger, Richard Hayman, has released some of his exclusive original scores of popular tunes to be played in this concert debut of the Detroit Strings. The program will be offered in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Fries Auditorium in Lake Shore road.

Recognizing that this is a benefit for the Detroit Symphony and the first public appearance of the Detroit Strings, Hayman has offered orchestration that he previously reserved for his own exclusive use. The gesture reflects a high degree of respect for the De-

Obsolete Parking Meters To Be Replaced in Park; Repairs Proving Costly

Council Approves Program Calling for Purchase of 125 New Ones To Be Installed on Kercheval and Mack Avenues

The Park council, on Monday, June 23, debated the replacement of 262 obsolete parking meters throughout the city, and decided to begin the program by purchasing 125 up-to-date meters to be installed on Mack and Kercheval avenues.

The purchase of the meters was recommended by City Manager Robert Stone, at the suggestion of Director of Public Safety William Ellenburg, whose report disclosed that the Park has been losing meter revenue because of the obsolescence of the present gadgets, which have been in use since 1952.

The director's report disclosed a high increase in breakdown and repair time, which in turn has resulted in a decrease in revenue, which showed a drop from $15,606 in 1963-64 fiscal year to $14,250 in 1967-68.

Little or No Cost
He stated that the condition could be remedied by the replacement on a pay-as-you-go program. Increased revenue due to improved meter efficiency, resulting from the new instruments could accomplish the replacement program with little or no cost to the city, the director added.

He pointed out that meter repairs average six a day, and in the last three months, there were more than 100 major repairs (tear down and rebuild). During inclement weather, the repair statistics are higher, he said.

The council approved the purchase of 125 Duncan Parking Meters from the R. E. Reed

Company of East Lansing, at a cost of $50.50 each, to be paid for over a period of two years from revenue realized from the meters.

Parts Can Be Saved
Stone suggested that the best of the old meters be kept for replacement parts. He was requested to determine the time limitations to be set on the new meters and whether it would be feasible to allot time for a penny, nickel, dime, and/or a quarter, or any combination, and submit his study at the next council meeting to be held on July 14.

The city manager said that there will be plenty of time to submit the amount of cost and time limit to be set by the company, since it would take at least four weeks before the meters are delivered.

MOWER STOLEN
Betty Jane Nahat of 1008 Severn road, complained to Woods police on Thursday, June 19, that someone entered her unlocked garage and stole her 10-inch reel power mower, valued at $60.

City Building Tilt Ends in No Decision

Official Reply to Ecclestone Bid to Construct Condominiums Awaits Attorney's Ruling

The City of Grosse Pointe Council, on Monday, June 23, considered the zoning amendments requested by E. Llywd Ecclestone, Jr. and James T. Barnes, Jr., necessary to build a 36-unit complex of condominium apartments in five buildings fronting on East Jefferson between St. Clair and Neff and including the parcel of land formerly occupied by the O'Leary Cadillac Agency.

The complex would occupy a floor space area of between 2100 and 2400 square feet and be of Georgian Colonial design. It would include air conditioning, elevators, TV surveillance, a doorman and patio areas. Each unit would sell for approximately $70,000 to private owners and none would be available for rental purposes.

Mr. Ecclestone explained that the proposed complex meets all local codes with regard to setbacks, 50 feet from Jefferson, 30 to 35 feet from St. Clair and Neff.

Huber Voices Objection

Walter Huber, spokesman for the Citizens Advisory Committee, who opposed the development, pointed out that the City in the past had hired a planner, Scott Bagby, who at that time properly zoned the City and that his plan should be remembered as a good one. With the aid of graphs and charts Mr. Huber pointed out that 45.9 per cent of the citizens of the City of Grosse Pointe are middle aged or older and that the turnover of the homes will be more rapid than in younger areas.

John P. Frazer, a land developer himself, vociferously objected to the proposed development proposal and forecast the complete commercialization of the area if Ecclestone and Barnes were permitted to construct the complex. Mr. Frazer also hinted that the City has no assurance that the site would be developed as proposed.

With this Mr. Barnes said they would be willing to put in writing that the building would be built as proposed. Mr. Ecclestone then said because of the very fact Mr. Huber pointed out regarding the age of the citizens of the City, his complex would take care of housing for those citizens whose children

Six Boys Confess Stupid Vandalism; 30 Trees Destroyed

Caught by Police Following Many Complaints Registered by Property Owners; No Reason Given for Imbecilic Actions

Six teenage boys, three of them 16 years old, and three, 15 years old, were arrested by Woods police on Sunday, June 22, and charged with malicious destruction of property. The youths are accused of wantonly destroying, or damaging more than 30 trees on public and private property.

Officers investigating the number of complaints received from citizens, found that most of the trees were newly planted. While searching the areas for the boys responsible, the policemen came upon several damaged trees, which had not yet been reported. Residents called later, when they discovered the vandalism, not knowing that police had recorded the incidents.

David Sichelsteel of 551 Roslyn road, called police to disclose that a small tree in front of his house had been broken; Mario Santi of 21400 Van K., informed the authorities that the limbs of three trees between the curb and sidewalk, had been broken off.

Branches Broken Off
Robert Grippe of 525 Moorland complained of branches broken off of trees in front of his house; John F. Hansen of 2039 Hampton, reported a large limb broken from a tree in front of his place; Mary Bungard of 1181 Blairmoor, notified police that a tree, between the curb and sidewalk in front of her house had been pulled up by the roots, after which the vandals stripped off the branches and placed the tree and limbs in an open field next to her house.

William C. Krell of 548 Woods lane, reported one tree in front of his house had been broken off about half an inch from the ground, and another had its branches stripped off; Richard Huetter of 624 South Brys disclosed that several newly planted

Little League's Baseballs Stolen

City police received a radio run call on Friday, June 21, to the Neighborhood Club, reporting three boys were attempting to break into the utility shed.

On arrival officers observed the boys running south through the Neighborhood Club field. They pursued the youths but lost them on Notre Dame between Waterloo and Charlevoix. The officers checked the shed and found that an attempt had been made to enter the shed by removing the screws off the rear door.

Then next day, Sgt. Duncan MacEachern reported that when he was checking the Little League playfield he discovered that persons unknown had gained entry to the shed and removed some $70 worth of baseballs and the metal box that contained them.

Officers said the youths they pursued could not have been the thieves since the box containing the balls weighed over 25 lbs. and they fled much too rapidly.

City Council Turns Down Hospital Plan

Two Members Prevent Approval of Zoning Change to Permit Institution to Expand

Some 300 persons jammed Maire Elementary School gymnasium Monday, June 23, to hear the decision of the City of Grosse Pointe Council regarding the proposed expansion of Bon Secours Hospital.

Members of the audience were given the opportunity to speak out on the subject. Prominent in expressing opposition to the expansion were Walter G. Huber, spokesman for the Citizens Advisory Committee, who has spearheaded the drive against expansion throughout the long struggle, and John P. Frazer, well-known Pointe and Detroit land developer.

A member of the audience questioned hospital spokesmen regarding the availability of Marine Hospital at the foot of Alter road as a possible site for Bon Secours.

Bracken Explains

Dennis Bracken, a trustee of Bon Secours Hospital then read from a letter sent to the Council by hospital officials explaining why Marine hospital was totally unacceptable. Included among the reasons were that although the in-patient facility was closed on May 1, the outpatient clinic is to be continued for an indeterminate period; the procedure to acquire such property from the government is lengthy and involved; and other governmental agencies have prior claim to the facility. He said that the main hospital would not meet Michigan Department of Health Standards for a general community hospital nor would it pass present codes. The amount of renovation required would make demolition the only practical solution. He said the site of six acres of usable land is less than Bon Secours present site and although it is an attractive location the buildings stand on reclaimed land, actually on a small island with limited access.

Would Take Years

Mr. Bracken concluded with the statement that the notion that the facility could be immediately available for use is erroneous and described the procedure as follows; if and when the facility is vacated by the Public Health Service Hospital, which might take three or four years, the property is then declared "excess" by the PHS.

$60,000 Damage In Paddock Fire

Fire swept the home of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin H. Paddock, III, of 305 Lincoln road, on Thursday, June 19, causing an estimated $60,000 damage.

The fire is believed to have originated in the breakfast room. It quickly spread up the outside of the building, breaking windows on the second floor then spreading up the wall to the attic.

Fortunately the popping of glass awakened Mrs. Paddock, who was at home with her four children. She immediately awakened the youngsters, who range in age from 1½ to 8 years, and led them to safety. Mr. Paddock arrived home shortly after the fire started.

The City of Grosse Pointe Fire Department was on the scene with all apparatus at 1:10 a.m. On arrival they found flames coming from the kitchen windows on the drive way side of the building. A second alarm was sounded immediately, due to the rapid progress of the fire. Firefighters stretched two hose lines to the kitchen and entrance was made through the kitchen door.

The Farms firefighters then arrived and a third line was stretched through the front door to the attic and two other lines advanced from the rear of the house up to the attic.

Firemen ventilated the attic in an attempt to remove heat and smoke. All other exposures were covered and the fire was under control and salvage operations began at 3:30 a.m. The cause of the fire is still undetermined.

Woods Adopting Ordinance To Control Demonstrations

The City of Grosse Pointe Woods will publish a proposed ordinance to provide for the orderly regulation of public demonstrations, parades and picketing in that city.

The Council on Monday, June 16, concurred with the recommendation of the Committee-of-the-Whole to adopt the ordinance.

The ordinance will provide that a permit must be procured from the Director of Public Safety before any such demonstration takes place. The ordinance clearly defines "picketing" as carrying in a public place banners, signs, placards or symbols which are not attached to a person's body or which protrude more than an inch beyond the limits of a person's body.

"Parade" is defined as a deliberate movement in a public place, of persons in a group in such a manner as to pose a threat of interference with the flow of the vehicular or pedestrian traffic.

"Demonstration" is defined as a public display by a group in a public place in a deliberate attempt to attract attention or cause confusion, whether by sounds, movements of the body or by occupation of a public place for any length of time.

"Public Place" shall mean any open air place frequented or used by members of the public whether such place is publicly owned or not, and including, but not limited to public streets, sidewalks, school grounds church grounds, parking lots, parks, playgrounds and stores.

Application for the permit must be made no less than 24 have left home and who still wish to reside in the City.

Audience Participation
A general audience participation followed, most of those speaking opposed to the development. However, Mr. Ecclestone said that he and Mr. Barnes were attempting to use a low-keyed approach to the question and that he had not attempted in any way to get supporters of the project to attend the meeting. He added that if the Council wished to see people who were for the development in the audience, he could fill the entire room with them.

Councilman John L. King moved and John R. Hamann seconded the motion that the Council approve development as proposed of a 36-unit condominium project subject to the necessary rezoning from R 1 b (single family residential) to RT (residential terrace) and subject to Mr. Ecclestone and Mr. Barnes submitting a written agreement and performance bond in the amount of $250,000 to assure compliance in building the approved plans and to instruct the city attorney to prepare the necessary amendatory ordinance.

A roll call vote was called for by Mayor David E. Burgess. Councilman Henry voted no, Councilman Hamann voted yes, Councilman Hurley voted yes, Councilman King voted yes, Councilman Monroe voted yes, Councilman Reuther voted no and Mayor Burgess voted yes. The vote was 5-2 for the amendment.

Legal Technicality

However a legal technicality arose when at the beginning of the meeting Mr. Huber presented a petition with three names of adjacent property owners who opposed the development. A state statute provides that if 20 per cent or more of the adjacent property owners object to the development, a three-fourths vote of the Council is required, and in this case it would be six votes. The petition was referred to City attorney Richard E. Hinks for rechecking with the new signatures.

Unfortunately Mr. Hinks was unable to attend Monday night's meeting. He is currently on an official tour of duty with the military service. He is attending the Judge advocate General's school in Charlottesville, Va., and could not advise the Council on the legalities of the matter.

If the petition is considered valid a 6-1 vote will be necessary to affect the requested zoning amendments.

Bon Secours Bid for Expansion Denied

At that point the General Services Administration, through its Department of Surplus Property Utilization Determination, begin a procedure, lasting at least a year, to offer the facility to other agencies of the federal government. If no federal agencies wish to acquire the property it is declared "surplus" and is offered to agencies of the State of Michigan, Wayne County and the City of Detroit in that order. Then if none of these agencies wish the facility it is made available to other agencies. This procedure, according to Mr. Bracken, could take five to eight years.

Hospital Would Pay
Mr. Bracken also stated that at the recent Public Hearing some mention was made regarding the extra cost to the city for rubbish pick up and other services, he said the hospital did not believe these extra costs would develop with expansion, but that the hospital was willing to pay for any added costs if in fact they developed.

Others spoke both pro and con after which Mayor David E. Burgess recognized Councilman William L. Hurley.

It was then moved by Councilman Hurley, supported by Councilman John L. King, that the following resolution be adopted:

Resolved that the City Council approve the proposed development of the Sisters of Bon Secours Hospital as drawn by Giffels and Rosetti dated May 1, 1969, to erect additions to and modernization of Bon Secours Hospital on property bounded by Cadieux avenue, Maumee avenue, Notre Dame avenue and Caroline avenue, and provision of off-street parking facilities on property between Caroline avenue, East Jefferson avenue and the rear lot lines of property fronting on Cadieux avenue and Notre Dame avenue, and on which a public hearing was held on June 10, 1969, and be it further resolved that said approval is subject to the modifications set forth herein, and is further subject to necessary rezoning of said property from R-1B (residential single family) to R-T (residential terrace) described as land bounded by Cadieux road, the south right of way line of Caroline, Notre Dame and Maumee and from R-1B to P-1 (vehicular parking) for land more commonly known as property between a line parallel to and 165 feet north of the north right of way line of East Jefferson and the south right of way line of East Jefferson and the south right of way line of Caroline, and between the rear lot lines of property fronting on Cadieux and Notre Dame, and approval of amendments to the zoning ordinance as follows; the vehicular parking district is intended to permit the establishment of areas to be used for off-street vehicular parking of private cars, so as to serve land uses permitted in the R-T, RO-1 (offices), C-1 and C-2 (commercial) districts.

Would Protect Homes
This district is also designed to afford maximum protection to adjacent residential areas by providing landscaped setbacks, fences and well-designed parking lot facilities. It is also intended that this district act as a transitional area between land uses permitted in the R-T, RO-1 and C-1 and C-2 districts, and single family residential areas, thereby permitting private developers as well as public agencies to provide needed off-street parking.

The resolution also stated that no buildings other than a structure solely for the parking of passenger motor vehicles or for shelter of attendants shall be erected upon the premises and no such structure shall exceed 10 feet in height. Required yard space for any structure erected in a P-1 district, when adjacent to residentially-zoned property, shall not be less than the height of the structure along said lot line. (This requirement modified the hospital's original proposal which asked for a structure of 20 feet in height which would also contain mechanical equipment.)

The resolution further states that all parking districts shall be contiguous to a residential terrace district, residential office district, commercial districts and in all cases, lots which are used for parking shall be the adjacent successive lots from the residential terrace districts, residential office district and commercial districts and that they be subject to allow the reduction of site area for the hospital from 5 acres to 4.61 acres and increase maximum lot coverage from 35 per cent to conform with proposed site plan and subject to petitioner submitting a written agreement dedicating a park site on the north side of East Jefferson as shown on development plan prepared by the architects and subject to petitioner submitting a written agreement providing for the costs of required traffic signalizations, traffic engineering and road improvements being assumed by the hospital, and the annual payment to the City of mutually agreed to service charges. It was further resolved that the city attorney be instructed to prepare the necessary amendatory ordinance and necessary resolution for the Board of Zoning Appeals to effect the amendments and variances.

Michigan statutes require that when a zoning amendment is formally objected to by the owners of 20 per cent or more of the adjacent frontage, (in this case 49.4 per cent of the owners formally objected), a three-fourths vote of the council is required to pass said amendments or in the City Council's case, six of the seven councilmen.

Mayor David E. Burgess called for a roll call vote. Councilman John R. Hamann voted yes, George D. Henry voted yes, William L. Hurley, yes, John L. King, yes, George N. Monroe III voted no and Alfred R. Reuther, Jr. voted no. Five for the resolution and two opposed. So once again the hospital has lost its fight for expansion.

It was alleged that Griffin offered a 16-year-old boy $10 to lie for him on a Grosse Pointe Woods Municipal Court witness stand.

The 16-year-old told Assistant Prosecutor Larry Keenan after his testimony that he had lied to the police and that Griffin had asked him to do so.

The incident was said to have occurred on April 10, at Brys and Mack in the Woods when Griffin backed into the parked car of Joseph Dillon, 66 Mapleton.

Center Drive Goal Passed; Fewer Donors Give More

The 20th Anniversary Family Participation Campaign by the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association to raise $85,000, one-fourth of its budget for the fiscal year beginning August 1, has exceeded its goal and continues to receive donations.

As of Tuesday, June 24, donations totaled $97,189.43. It is interesting to note that, in exceeding its goal, the Campaign received donations from fewer families than last year. Approximately 125 more families participated in last year's drive than have so far contributed this year.

At the same time last year 5,371 had contributed $83,968.50. Total donors to date in this year's drive are 5,248.

THINK WINTER

Install Gas heat now, don't pay a thing for 6 months (except for the Gas you use).

Switch to natural Gas heat in summer? You bet. Your furnace is off. And so is the winter rush for installation. So when temperatures drop next fall you'll be ready. For all the good things that Gas heat gives.

You pay nothing for equipment or installation for 6 months. Then you start payments on your Gas bill, spreading them over 36 months if you like.

We'll even remove and refund the purchase price of any oil or coal that you have on hand. And haul away your old oil tank without charge.

Gas heat's nice to have around. It can cut your present heating bills up to one-third. It's clean. Dependable. Installs in an average of about 4 hours. Flexible, too. Gas air conditioning can be easily installed later.

Think winter. Call us or your local heating contractor. You couldn't pick a better time to do it.

Six Vandals

ed trees on his property had been uprooted; Mary Conti of 1007 Moorland, informed authorities that a young tree in her front yard had been broken. Emily Klatt of 642 Perrien place, complained that trees on her property had been uprooted; Mrs. William Carl of 961 Moorland, reported a small tree pulled out by the roots on her land.

Find Other Cases.

While searching the neighborhood for the suspects, policemen found trees torn up by the roots, or damaged, at the following locations: on Van K, in the front yard of No. 21280, three trees; No. 21400, two trees between the curb and sidewalk; No. 21420 and 21461, one tree in front of each.

Trees were uprooted at the following locations, 548 Woods lane; 525 Moorland, and at 684, 702, and 716 on that street; 541 Perrien place, and on the same street, at Nos. 572, 614, 642, 639, 673; 693 Briarcliff; 547 North Brys drive; 540 and 624 South Brys drive; and in front of 2079 Hampton.

Patrolman Albert Abend, while searching in the area of Van K and on Roslyn, was stopped by a teenage boy, who told of seeing a group of boys together, walking on Roslyn.

Trousers Green Stained

As the policeman approached the six boys, one of them dropped a pair of gloves, and all came to a stop when ordered by the officer. One youth had grass stains on his trousers, which aroused Abend's suspicions and he called for assistance. The boys were taken to the station for questioning and investigation.

The youths confessed to the senseless vandalism. Det. Martin Trombly, said that the matter is being investigated further, and indications are that charges of malicious destruction of property against all of the boys, will be filed with Juvenile Court authorities.

None of the teenagers gave any reason for their actions, it was said.

GPUS Theater Sets Program

For those of you who are inclined to partake of such mundane entertainment as the television set or the picture show on the evening June 26, and 30 and July 1 and 2, read no farther. However, if you are different and stimulating nature on these evenings, the University School Repertory Theater was dependent upon two factors. The first was a desire of many Grosse Pointe University School students, faculty and parents to exercise their growing interest in the modern theater. The second was to provide the community with an old medium of entertainment in a new form, which it is seriously lacking.

The University School Repertory Theater will produce five plays in all: "The Dumbwaiter" by Harold Pinter, "I'm Really Here" by Van Talle, "Escurical" by de Gherolde, "Krap's Last Tape" by Samuel Beckett, and "Mrs. Dally Has A Lover" by William Hanly. They are by no means "typical" high school plays of the conventional theater. They are instead the type of play one finds produced on college campuses and in off-Broadway theaters. These plays were not written merely to entertain the audience, but to make them feel and think as well.

The curtain will open at 8:30 each evening upon the stage of the Grosse Pointe University School auditorium at 1045 Cook road. Tickets are $2.00 and may be purchased from Mr. Sheridan, Dennis at Edward Nepi's, and Suzanne Tolleson 881-6065, and will also be available at the door.

Two to three plays of the company's repertory will be presented each evening. Some of the plays are short; some are longish. Some are mildly unusual; some are extremely different. Do they represent the Theater of the Absurd or the Theater of Life? It's for you to decide.

Police Seeking Key to Mystery

Woods police were denied a warrant against an 18-year-old youth alleged to have given unknown drugs to a 13-year-old boy, who was found in a semi-conscious condition in Brys drive on Sunday, June 22. The warrant was refused by the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office because of lack of information regarding the contents of the pills.

Det. Mark Trombley said that although the charges have been dropped against the 18-year-old, name withheld, he is conducting an investigation of the alleged theft of two bottles of liquor from Bob's Drugs in Mack avenue, by the 13-year-old boy, and the boy's 12-year-old friend, who was with him at the time, and who helped consume the alcoholic beverage.

The initial call to the scene where the boy was found was received from St. Clair Shores police, who disclosed that they had dispatched a fire department ambulance to the Brys drive location.

Woods Police Lt. Jack Patterson and Patrolman Douglas Dosmas arrived to find the boy alongside a log about 150 feet west of the sidewalk, near Mack, partially hidden by bushes. The boy was unable to respond to questions because of his condition, and was transported to St. John Hospital by St. Clair Shores firemen.

Two 14-year-old boys informed officers, who were searching the area for another boy, of the second boy who might be involved, and the youngster, 12-year-old, was picked up in the neighborhood and taken to the Woods station for questioning.

Under questioning by Trombley, the lad said that he and his companion went to the drug store, where the 13-year-old stole a bottle of whiskey, which they both drank. They then returned to the store and the older boy took a bottle of vodka.

The 18-year-old came into the picture when he was notified of the younger boys having the alcoholic beverages, and joined in the drinking, after which he admitted giving the 13-year-old three yellow and two brown pills. The older boy said that the pills had been prescribed by his family physician for an illness he had.

The youth was charged with illegal dispensing of drugs, but was released when a warrant was denied.

When able to talk, the 13-year-old told police that he and his younger friend were pedaling their bikes on Mack when four or five teenage boys chased them, and they fled into Brys Woods. He said he fell and the boys, jumped on him, and after hitting him several times, forced his mouth open and made him swallow several pills, and poured burning liquid into his mouth.

Trombley said that he is continuing his investigation in an attempt to arrive at the truth in the matter, and to determine if liquor had been stolen.

If it were possible to slide to success many a man would miss second base on the way.

Cost of Parking Goes Up and Up

If William J. Saile, 34, of 2081 Vernier road, had paid his overtime parking tickets within eight hours after he received each violation, it would have cost him only one dollar a ticket. Or he could have paid two dollars for each ticket after the time limit expired, or three dollars each, the very most, if he paid them after missing his days in court.

On Wednesday, June 18, Saile was hailed into Woods Municipal Court to answer for failing to obey a traffic signal device at Mack and Vernier on May 27. He was found guilty as charged, and fined $5 for this offense by Woods Judge Don J. Goodrow.

The name "Saile" rang a bell in the judge's memory, and he ordered a check of the records, and sure enough, Saile had a total of 28 violation tickets for overtime parking, issued over a period of about a year.

Before setting Saile free, the judge ordered the man to pay, not $29, not $58, not $87, but a total of $234, which included late penalties and court costs. This did not include the $5 fine for the latest offense.

from the locker use is to pay the cost of maintenance and to pay the salaries of the attendants, he said.

As far as the swimming schedule is concerned, it was disclosed, a number of people who had sought to go swimming after working hours, were denied the privilege, especially when they wanted to swim about 15 or 20 minutes before the pool is closed down.

This was denied by the city officials, who maintained that there is swimming from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily, and the only time people are turned away is during inclement weather, when the pool area is being cleared of swimmers.

The persons in the audience had other gripes, which they disclosed, and the council gave its assurance that the matters will be given consideration for possible solution.

Awaits Sentence On Drug Charge

Thomas Black, 17, of 879 Lochmoor boulevard, arrested last February 27, on a charge of illegal possession of and selling marijuana, entered a plea of guilty to possessing narcotics, and the matter was referred to the Wayne County Probation for a pre-sentence report by Circuit Judge George E. Bowles on Wednesday, June 18.

Judge Bowles continued the youth's bond of $10,000, and set sentencing date for July 19. Black was released until his re-appearance in court.

On the February date, Black was arrested at his garage-apartment after he sold 10 kilos of marijuana (about 23 pounds) to a "buyer," a police officer, which authorities said, if sold on the streets, would bring in between $10,000 and $20,000, depending on how it is "cut".

Black was under police surveillance for several months as a suspected seller of narcotics. Officers from the Woods, Park, Detroit and surrounding communities, and agents of the Federal Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs, participated in keeping an eye on the youth's activities, and in raiding his apartment.

Other suspect material, including possible hallucinogenic drugs, were confiscated from Black's home, following a search by police.

Church Trying An Experiment

For three Sundays this summer a different approach to Sunday morning church will be tried at The Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. The first one will be at 9 o'clock in Barbour Chapel on June 29.

This service is in addition to the regular service of worship at 10 a.m. and will feature an exploration into the meaning of worship itself. Worshippers may find that their participation is the key to an effective worship experience. On two other Sundays, July 13 and July 27, the features will be prayer and music respectively.

The purpose of the services will be to explore some varied forms of expression to be found in modes of worship that are both free and orderly.

A worship service is primarily a service of praise and prayer where God's people respond by demonstrating their gratitude for His grace (thanksgiving), realizing their common ministry with Christ (intercession), renewing their covenant with Him (dedication), and by recalling the mystery and majesty of a triune God (praise).

One objective will be the participation of all of the worshippers. This may be realized by a re-examination of both form and content which, though remaining biblically and doctrinally sound, will change in appearance.

Woman Beaten In Own Store

Park police are investigating an assault case that occurred at the Pointe Market, 15134 Mack avenue, in the late afternoon of Sunday, June 15.

A youth approximately 15 years of age, dressed in the dark blue clothes of a gas station attendant, entered the market three times, according to Mrs. Pauline Tulumello, owner of the store.

During the third appearance of the boy, Mrs. Tulumello, after turning her back, was struck over the head with a full bottle of a popular soft drink.

The boy, after beating the owner about the face, left the market without taking anything.

Mrs. Tulumello suffered contusions of the head.

Reports Vandals At Country Club

Donald Ross, greenskeeper at the Country Club of Detroit, 220 Country Club drive, reported to Farms police a case of vandalism that occurred between June 17 and 18.

Ross showed investigating officers where the vandals had taken a rake on the 11th green and torn up the top of it, in the process apparently breaking both the rake and the flag.

In the same vicinity, Ross showed where the copper line from a water fountain had been torn away and limbs ripped from a tree.

Valuable Antique Reported Stolen

Paul W. Cooley of West Hartford, Conn., antique dealer and owner of a shop in Simsbury, Conn., asked Woods police on Saturday, June 21, for assistance in trying to find a valuable antique taken from his display in Liggitt School, 850 Briarcliff.

Cooley said that he left the building at about 11:15 a.m. and returned at about 12:15 p.m., to discover a solid silver tankard missing from the display on a table in the middle of a room in the school.

The dealer said that the item which is insured, is seven inches high and about four inches in diameter, with a handle and cover. It was made in London in 1719 by Thomas Mason. He said he had a price tag of $3,800 on the tankard.

The matter was referred to officers of the Detective Bureau for investigation.

Speeder Caught Following Chase

City police answered a radio call to Stratford and Jefferson on Saturday, June 21. On arrival officers noted a number of persons gathered on the corner and in the parking area of the vacated O'Leary Cadillac site.

As officers entered the lot, a car, with a smashed left door, drove out of the lot at a high rate of speed without its head lights on. Witnesses told police that the driver had been driving erratically prior to turning into the O'Leary lot.

Officer Edward Miller pursued the car, which headed down Jefferson. The driver was driving over the center line at a high rate of speed still without lights and when he reached Jefferson and Cadieux he failed to stop for the red traffic signal. Officer Miller continued in pursuit and the driver finally pulled into a driveway at 1000 Bishop, where Miller arrested him. He was identified as Carmen Saratte, 16164 Stricker, East Detroit. He was handcuffed, advised of his rights and taken to the City station where he was booked under the drunk-and-drive law after refusing to submit to a breath test. Saratte was released on $100 bond pending his July court date.

Arrest Juveniles Following Thefts

The arrest of two 14-year-olds followed a breaking-and-entering at the home of John Gardella, 1254 Harvard, on Saturday, June 14.

The Gardella home was entered through a kitchen window broken by the two boys. Taken were $8, a tape recorder, two radios and three revolvers. Subsequently, Park Detectives Robert Saifryd and Charles Petrie received confidential information concerning two juveniles seen with revolvers. The two juveniles were arrested shortly thereafter and most of the items, including all three guns, were recovered.

Following the fine cooperation of the concerned parents of the two juveniles, seven additional burglaries were solved by investigating officers.

The juveniles are in the custody of their parents pending possible court action.

CITY

Wednesday, June 18, was a big day for the Senators as they bombarded the Astros 18 to 2. Stu Brown went all the way to pick up his second victory this year, with Tim Forrester, Todd Ralph and Clark Standish behind the plate.

Eric Olson was the star of the game with two home runs plus a walk. Eric also made an outstanding catch of a well-hit ball down the right field line with his arm outstretched and his back to the plate.

Dan Garenflo accounted for two triples, but was replaced in the sixth inning because of an injury when he slid into third base. Bill Harness ran for Dan and with Eric Olson was the only player to score three times.

Hemovich accounted for a single plus a homer. Tim Harley had a single and John Wade a triple. Jeff Clark had two singles.

The Astros exploded in the sixth inning with a triple and two doubles to erase Brown's bid for a shut-out.

The Phillies defeated the Giants 3 to 2 in a close contest at the Neighborhood Club Field on Wednesday, June 11. John Cantwell was the winning pitcher, allowing only two hits and striking out 15 Giants. Kevin Fitzgerald pitched for the Giants and Jim Campbell handled the catching duties.

The Phillies scored their first run in the first inning when Steve Green doubled and then stole third and home. The Giants went ahead in the third inning when Brad Murray walked and Mike Martinez hit a homerun on the right field line. The Phillies tied up the game in the bottom half of the third inning when Mark Cornillie was walked and scored on Richie Fetters' base hit, which was stretched into a triple due to mishaps by the Giants. The winning Phillies run was scored in the bottom of the sixth inning when Wally Hawes hit a single, stole second and scored on John Cantwell's double. The Phillies are now firmly entrenched in second place with a record of 6 victories and 3 losses.

John Dunaway pitched a no-hitter in leading the second-place Phillies to a 2 to 0 victory over the Yankees at the Neighborhood Club Field on Saturday, June 14. John Cantwell handled the catching chores for the Phillies. Mike Willard and Alex Jackson pitched for the Yankees and Dave Evenden was on the receiving end.

Dave Hein hit a single in the second inning for the Phillies. In the third inning Tom Quhat walked and then stole second and third. Peter Tobin batted in Gutbat on an infield hit and then scored himself as a result of Yankee mishaps. These two runs proved to be the winning runs.

In a wild and woolly game on June 18 that went into extra innings the Dodgers squeaked out an 8-7 win over the Cubs, with Todd Tobin driving in the winning run with a line drive single in the bottom of the seventh inning, after Don Crane had doubled home the tying run. With the Dodgers ahead 4 to 2, the Cubs scored four times in the fifth and once more in the sixth to take a two-run margin. Then the Dodgers scored two runs in the bottom of the sixth to tie the game. The Cubs went ahead again in the top of the seventh on a double by Don Chouinard and back came the determined Dodgers to win on a double by Don Crane and single by Todd Tobin after walks to Andy Hoping and Mike Menthen. Steve Coates, called on for the second time in one week to work as a reliever, won his second game in one week.

The first week of the second half got underway this week with three games on Sunday, June 15. In the first game, Harbour Nine Marina edged Valley Die Cast 2-0 in a very well-played game. For the winners, Mike Koch pitched excellent ball to get his first shutout and was aided by good fielding from Kevin Sun, who made a good catch to retire the side with the winning runs on base in the last inning. Dan Browning stole several bases to get in position to score the winning run. In other games, Ray Whyte picked up where they left off by downing Pioneer Furniture 11-7. Mike Cox went all the way for Whyte, giving up just six hits. Gacy Mushro had three hits and Mark Crane had three hits and drove in four runs.

On Monday, June 6, Munaco Markets defeated Valley Die Cast 20-0. The game was all Munaco's as they hit the Valley pitching at will. Bruce Bokram got the win for Munaco, giving up just three hits and had 5 hits, including a homer. In a game which has been protested, Harbour Nine led Atlas 15-14 after four innings of play. Atlas went into the fourth inning with an 11-run lead. In the third game, City Messenger busted Pioneer Furniture 15-4. Rick Walker pitched all the way for the win. Messenger had a big seven run fourth inning, highlighted by Mike Alkire's homerun with two on. Paul Pazgrat also had a home run and two hits, and Joe Oskin had three singles. Ron Dickerson had three singles and Chuck Meisinger had two for the losers.

On Wednesday, June 18, Munaco defeated Harbour Nine Marina 9-5. Louis Bruno relieved the starting pitcher in the second inning and held Harbour Nine at bay the rest of the way for the win. Harbour got off to a 5-3 lead but were overtaken as their pitchers started to tire. Ray Whyte gets his second win of the week by defeating City Messenger 7-1. Mark Crane pitched two-hit ball for the win. Rick Walker and Paul Pazgrat touched Crane for singles. Whyte scored five runs in the second inning as Rick Bartos had a single to drive in two runs. Tom Mushro also had a run-scoring single in the inning.

The final playoff game for the championship of the first half of the season was held Saturday morning, June 14, at Ghesquire Park, with the Red Barons defeating the Kiwanis team 7 to 4 in a close and exciting game. Jeff Lenz pitched for the Red Barons, picking up thirteen strikeouts. A beautiful catch by shortstop Don DeLaura sparked a double play and Bob McPherson aided the scoring with a triple and a double. Kiwanis' Steve Klann hit a double and a single along with fine fielding play by Bill Quinn.

On Sunday, June 15, Flame Furnace defeated the Red Barons 9 to 8, with pitcher Paul Nehra collecting the win. A seventh inning homerun with two men on base by Bob McPherson for the Barons was still not enough to catch the leading Flame team.

Monday, June 16, saw Palmer Moving down the Red Barons 8 to 4. Palmer's pitcher John Brush collected the win, and Fred Klingbeil did a fine job in the catching department for the Red Barons.

Palmer defeated Cox and Baker by a score of 5 to 4, with Steve Zaranek pitching a two-hitter. Sluggers for the winners were Fred Banks, Vito Ciarrino, Al Barbaglia and Chris Chamberlain. Dave Sleigh pitched a fine game for the Cox and Baker team.

Flame defeated Kiwanis 12 to 11 that day.

On Wednesday, June 18, Flame beat Cox and Baker. Kiwanis outscored Palmer 14 to 6, with Mark Klauer, the winning pitcher, collecting ten strikeouts.

Red defeated Boutin 18 to 9. Big hitters were winning pitcher Don DeLaura, Dennis Godin and Bob McPherson.

The Flame Furnace team has taken the early lead with the most wins in the second half of the season.

and Phil Wenzell received credit for the loss. Richard Bulck beat Rinke Cadillac 5 to 1 behind the three-hit pitching of Jim Bery. Tom Clem was Bulck's big hitter with a triple and a single. Losing pitcher Mike Fricke, Don Daher and Rick Capotosto had Cadillac's hits.

Two doubles and two home-runs by Dennis Menzo led Merollis to a 10-1 victory over Rinke Cadillac. Kevin Clinton had three hits, and Jim Allard had a triple and a single for Merollis. Tom Brennan also had a triple for the winners. Winning pitcher Joe Theis allowed only two hits to Mike Fricke and a single to Mark Wittmer. Losing pitcher Grek LeFevre had relief help from Rick Capotosto. In another Thursday game Wood beat Pontiac 10 to 8. Brad Biesenthal had a single and a triple, Craig Robinson had two hits, and Phil Simon had a hit to pace the Wood attack. Winning pitcher Brad Simon went the whole seven innings. Losing pitcher Larry Bauer had relief help from Roger Rosenbush. Jim Ney and Carl Munaco had two hits each and Mike Day had a homerun for Pontiac.

Larry Bauer's sacrifice bunt that knocked in two runs helped Pontiac hand Merollis their first defeat of the second half. Mark Zink pitched Pontiac to the 6 to 4 victory. Jim Ney had two hits and Ernie Ney had a key hit for the winners. Kevin Clinton suffered his first pitching defeat of the season. Rick Ballew had two hits and scored three runs for Merollis. Denis Menzo also had two hits and Jim Allard and Alan Janson each had a double for the losers. Four Dodge runs in the first inning were not enough as Rinke Cadillac defeated Dodge 7 to 5. Winning pitcher Bill Jenzen settled down after a shaky first inning to pitch a strong game. Kim Adler scored three runs and Rick Steiger, Don Daher, Greg LeFevre and Bill Jenzen were bitters for Cadillac. Phil Wenzell's double and single paced the Dodge attack. Ed Watko was the losing pitcher.

On Saturday the annual Manager-Coaches game was held and the Automotive League won the pitchers' duel 12 to 12. Manager Bob Kutscher started his pitching ace Dave Marsteller, who not only pitched well but had two hits. Also pitching for the winners were Jim Biesenthal, Bill David, Norrl Blohm and Jack Burns. Ron Frankland caught the whole game for the Automotive League. Jack Burns, Bill David and Ken Frankland had three hits each for the winners. Other hitters for the Automotive League were Bill Schleicher and Larry Bennett. All-American League manager Bob Breadon chose Bill Lenz, Nick Menzo and Don Alkire as his pitchers. Three hits each by Mark Blohm and Rick Zaranek and two hits each by John Reynolds and Terry Kasiborski were not enough to overcome early scoring by the Automotive League.

The first half championship was settled in a play-off game between Rinke Pontiac and Wood Motors. Pontiac, behind the three-hit pitching of Jim Ney, was the victor by a score of 6 to 4. Dave Belanger, with a three-run double and a single, was the big hitter for Pontiac. Roger Rosenbush and Ed Chase also had key hits for the winners. Brad Simon, with a double and a single, and Randy Villareal with a single had Woods only hits and were not enough to give losing pitcher Dick Co-chell the margin of victory.

Second half action continued on Tuesday as Merollis defeated Wood 5 to 2. Hitting by Dennis Menzo, Tom Otto and Steve Sleigh was the difference as Menzo was the winning pitcher. Losing pitcher Craig Robinson had a double for Wood. Jim Ney allowed only three hits and struck out 12 as Pontiac defeated Dodge 8 to 5. Jim Ney, Dave Belanger and Ed Chase had two hits each for Pontiac. Joe Baker, Phil Wenzell and Bob Arthur had the three Dodge two batters to set the stage for the White Sox two runs; however he settled down and allowed them nothing further. John Keogh and Ed Moran each had two hits, while Gary Stephenson contributed a two-run single.

On Monday, June 16, the Cleveland Indians erupted with an 11 to 0 shut-out over the New York Yankees. The Indians were superb as Eddy Moran pitched a one-hitter; he fanned 12, allowed only four base runners and topped it off with a single and a three-run homer. Tom Harwood also had two hits to go along with the excellent hitting of the entire Indians team.

The Tuesday evening contest between the Boston Red Sox and the Detroit Tigers ended in a 12 to 12 tie and featured walks and errors followed by hits on the part of both teams. This game will have to be replayed in its entirety at a later date.

On Wednesday, June 18, the Yankees came out on top with a thrilling 4 to 3 victory over the Tigers. Chris D'Hondt again pitched a magnificent two-hitter and fanned 13 for his fifth victory of the year. Greg Brecht's two-run triple in the fifth highlighted the Yankees offensive attack and tied the game at 3 to 3 to set the stage for their come-from-behind win.

Frank Kampher was the winning pitcher in Thursday's contest when the White Sox upset the Red Sox 7 to 1. Bob Heals of the Red Sox highlighted the hitting with his homerun. However, it was not sufficient to offset the White Sox hitting attack.

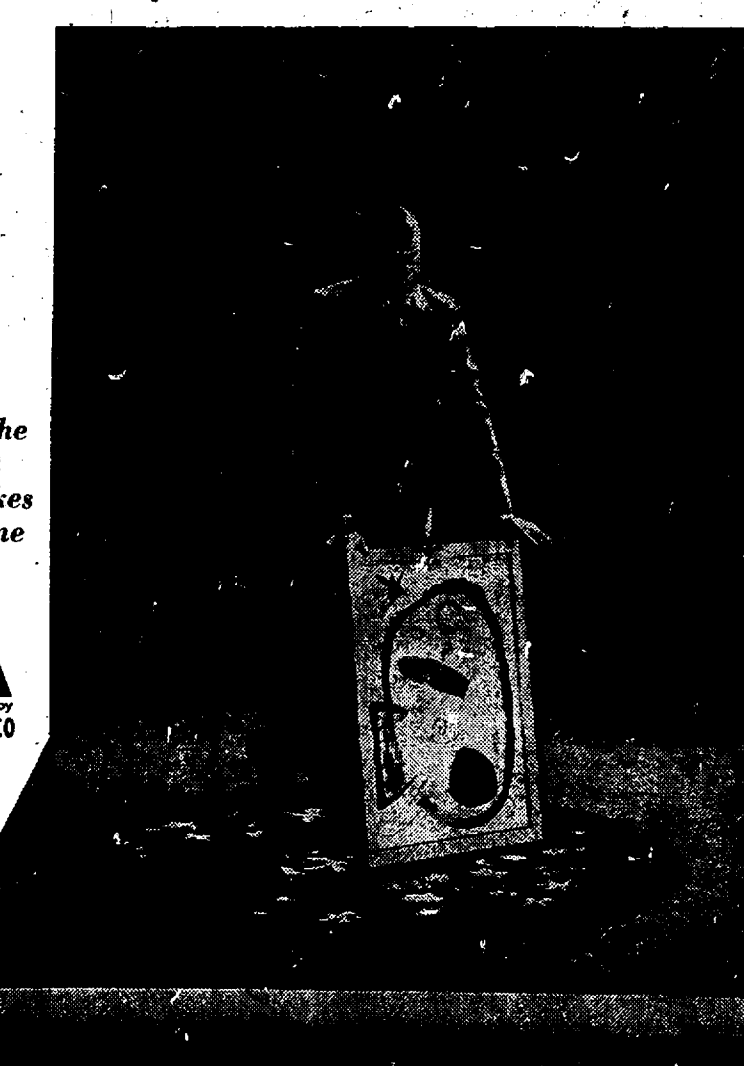

On Friday, June 20, the Cleveland Indians received a no-hit pitching performance from Jay Imesch, combined with a robust hitting attack to defeat the White Sox 13 to 2. Jay started slowly when he walked the first

The Marines and Army had a real thriller with the Marines coming out on top 8-7. All the hitting was done by Bill McCarthy and Don Kummer of Army, with two hits apiece. Don Gauthier pitched a good game for the Marines.

George Michael's triple led Wisconsin to a 13-10 victory over Hawaii. David Abbs came through with another strong pitching performance.

On June 21 Dick Thill and Bill Krausmann paced Purdue to a 17-6 victory over Michigan with one triple apiece. Chuck Benoit was the winning pitcher. Brian Helin was a one-man team for Michigan, belting out a homerun and triple.

Michigan also took it on the chin from Ohio State 14-10, with Tyler Tennent pitching a strong game for the victors.

On Monday, June 16, the Tigers beat the Giants 5-0. Tiger pitcher John Tuloch had a no-hitter until one out in the sixth inning, when Giant Kevin Fitzgerald beat out a single.

Not even the left-handed pitching of twins John and Kevin Fitzgerald could stop the Tiger attack as they scored two runs in the first inning on a single by Tuloch and a homerun by Jeb Shoemaker. The Tigers added the remaining three runs in the third on a walk to Larry Brooks, a single by Paul Kaufman, and walks to Matt Aaron, John Graham, and Mark Shubert, followed by a wild pitch. Tiger catcher or Dave Kaufmann added a single in the sixth but did not score.

On Saturday, June 21, the Tigers beat the Yankees 5-4 in the come-from-behind fashion patented by their namesakes.

At the beginning of the sixth inning, the Yankees led 4-1. Yankee pitcher Mike Willard had struck-out 15 Tiger batters while allowing only two hits and four walks, but the Tigers scored four times in that inning, when Lou Bricolas walked, and John Engel, Mike O'Hare and John Tuloch singled, followed by a triple by Tom Birk, to drive in the winning run.

The Yankees started the scoring in the first inning, with two runs on a walk to Gary Smith, a single by Willard, and a double by Al Jackson. The Yankees made it 4-0 in the second on consecutive walks to Will Hosler, George Conway, Gordon Lennox, John Doehrer, and Ed Vermet. Tiger pitcher Tom Birk then came in and "put out the fire."

The Tigers scored their first run in the fifth inning on a walk to Al Berger, a single by Jim Wascher, and a wild pitch.

On Monday, June 16, the Yankees continued their winning ways 6-4 over the Giants. Scott Solomon blasted a homer over the centerfield fence with Whit Boyd aboard. Tom Fuller was the winning pitcher and helped his own cause with a double. Dick Borland, with two doubles, and Tom McCubbin, with a double and a single, led to Giants' attack, though falling short.

Tuesday, the Indians, showing a come-from-behind spirit, won their third extra inning game, nosing out the Pirates 4-3. Dave Cass had a no-hitter going for five innings but weak-land 11-9. A last-inning rally by Portland fell short. Bowling did the pitching for Hawaii and also contributed a triple and a double. Leslie also had a triple and Hume a double. Rick Fellows had a double and Skip Slater went three-for-three in a losing cause.

With Art Wilkins striking out nine, Hollywood beat Seattle 10-2 Saturday and took undisputed possession of first place. Hollywood bunched its power in the third and fourth innings of the tightly fielded game. Bill Mecke spearheaded the attack with a two-run homer. Frank Willard and Art Wilkins had triples and Keith Lawrence, Hart Mecke and Tom Wilson added doubles to sew up the victory. Tom Chase, the losing pitcher, made a game effort in his own behalf with a home run and a double.

On June 14, in a previously unreported game, Sacramento defeated Seattle 6-3. Sacramento scored five runs in the first inning, and Andy Bentley held off two Seattle threats, striking out the batter with the bases loaded on two occasions. Laux had a homer and Doyle a double for the winners. For Seattle, Kearney had a triple and Ford a double.

On Monday, June 17, Portland beat Denver 4-1. Dave Webster won his fifth game in a row while striking out 12. Dan Hollerbach had a double for the winners and Fruehauf a double for the losers. Several close-plays at the plate highlighted the game.

Thursday, Hollywood took Sacramento 10-2. A close game till the fifth when Hollywood erupted for five runs on five hits, including successive doubles by Jim Font, Phil Johnson and Keith Lawrence. Dick Mitchell's homer in the sixth scored two runs. Mike Naimish pitched a one-hitter while striking out 13. Tom Lunden's 13 strikeouts and Mike Krausmann's backhanded stop at third were outstanding for Sacramento.

Saturday, in a high-scoring game, Hawaii outlasted Port-

Public Schools in Focus

What is the composition of the professional staff of the Grosse Pointe Public School System? This is a question that we are asked most often during the spring of the year, when our recruiting program goes into high gear.

Institutions of higher learning from as far afield as California, Maine, Texas and Florida have all provided the local public schools with professional staff members, according to our records for the 1967-68 year. However, although our staff members have been trained in 38 states, the District of Columbia, and Canada, 21 colleges and universities in the State of Michigan have recently provided us with the greatest number of teachers.

Wayne State University, for example, furnished us with 122 holders of BA degrees, 114 MAs, and 7 doctorates. Michigan State is responsible for 59 BA and 32 MA people, and Western Michigan University has prepared 55 BA and 13 MA staff members.

Fifty-two professional staff members received a BA from the University of Michigan and 92 received an MA. Eastern Michigan University has given us 37 BAs and 7 MAs. Sixteen other Michigan institutions of higher learning are responsible for 94 BA and 6 MA staff members.

Statistics compiled for 1967-68 show that the Middle West has provided us with the bulk of the remainder of our staff. For example, we have 33 BAs, 24 MAs and 2 doctorates from 18 colleges and universities in Illinois. Seventeen Ohio colleges and universities are responsible for 39 BAs, 14 MAs and one doctorate. Minnesota is represented by 13 BAs and 3 MAs from nine different campuses.

Twelve Wisconsin colleges and universities have provided the local public schools with 20 BA and 5 MA staff members and Indiana is responsible for 16 BAs and 3 MAs from 10 university and colleges.

Other well-represented states are New York (11 colleges provided 12 BAs and 13 MAs), Iowa (10 schools furnished 14 BAs and 10 MAs), Nebraska (5 colleges provided 12 BAs and 5 MAs), and Pennsylvania (9 colleges for 10 BAs and one MA).

We are of the opinion that the more of a staff "mix" we are able to attract to Grosse Pointe, the better the educational opportunity will be for the children entrusted to our care.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Sir:
 We hear a great deal these days about "Police Brutality." I wish to enter a protest against "Parent Brutality."

Hardly a night goes by that cars driven by youngsters (don't) pass my house at high rates of speed with their muffler cut-outs working to perfection. At times I find it difficult to sleep under these conditions. In the mornings I frequently find my lawn littered with beer cans. The parents of these youngsters are being brutal to me for having provided them with the cars they race, by allowing them out so late and by furnishing them with the funds to buy the beer.

Sincerely,
 George Beban

Dear Sir:
 After reading "Letters to the Editor" May 29, 1969, concerning Mr. Steinbacher's presentation, I wish to offer my conclusions of this meeting.

I assumed that the advanced S.I.E.C.U.S. type of "sex instruction" as revealed by Mr. Steinbacher does not exist in the Grosse Pointe school system. It was his (Mr. Steinbacher's) intention to warn us what could possibly happen if we are not constantly aware of the content of our "sex education" and "family life" programs.

What we must be very careful of, certainly, is that "sex education" does not become "sex instruction (techniques of sex)". Here is where the fine line of gray area comes into play. Those whose responsibility it is to hire teachers must be most meticulous. The teachers must be very prudent in their judgment on materials used. The school board must be most watchful and all parents must be aware of what is being taught to their children.

It is agreed that "sex education" is indeed very necessary beginning at 6th grade level. Everything I have learned, however, concerning "sex education" for children from infancy to 10 years old has stated clearly that children do not want long, detailed answers, and they are only confused and burdened if parents or teachers give them too much information too soon.

Since there seems to be so much disagreement among authoritative sources as to the proper age to begin this formal "sex education," what is the big rush!

There seems to be no clear, reasonable necessity to begin "sex education" in the elementary school (K-5th grade). The difficulty to ascertain how much "sex education and family life" can be taught each year from grades 6 through 12 without the material becoming instructional (techniques) or being too repetitious is a very serious question!

Perhaps Mr. Steinbacher deliberately employed sensationalism to emphasize this message. Let us be aware of what is happening in other school districts around the country and in our local area! We often learn by others' mistakes—we do not necessarily have to repeat their mistakes in order to learn!

Sincerely,
 (Mrs.) June Promack

Dear Sir:
 This is an open letter to the parents of that fine representative of American youth that inhabits Blazo's restaurant nightly. I would like, first of all, to congratulate you on a job poorly done. The way in which you have raised your children is a masterpiece of incompetence.

I speak of that portion of the crowd (on a given night, 90%) which delights itself in being crude, ill-mannered, crass, boorish and, in general, primitive. Ostensibly these are the future leaders of our country and our lives. I, for one, could wish no greater evil on an enemy than to have him look forward to the prospect of a world in which today's youth holds the reins of power.

I am told that all youth are not this way. That the vast majority are well-behaved, courteous, polite. Where, pray tell, are they all hiding? I doubt that they would find them all home studying. That, I fear, has become a lost art, as has thinking. A concept of thought, reason or logic, not to mention responsibility, is completely lost on these miscreants.

Why am I so irate? Well, on a recent weekend, while going into Blazo's, a group of five of them tried to provoke me into a fight by attempting to trip me. I kept my balance, ignored them, and walked away shaking my head. For this I became the recipient of a beer bottle (empty, of course) strategically placed under the tire of my car. Their ingenuity is remarkable, their sense of honor misconceived.

Who is to blame for this? Well, since they are obviously still little children, at least mentally so, culpability must lie with those who gave them their training, or lack of it. Yes, you, Mr. and Mrs. John Q. Grosse Pointe. You are the ones. You are supposedly the upper, middle and solid upper class. Yours are the children who have the best education. The best values. The best sense of responsibility. You have the most to offer; they, the most to receive. So what went wrong? While you sit there agast, with mouth hanging open, ask yourself this: Do you really know where your children were last night?

The odds are, you don't. Few parents do. Even fewer care less. One of the few problems that the freedom of a democracy imposes upon us is that one must put up with mental and moral incompetence, on both sides of the generation gap.

And lest you think that this is some crotchety old senior citizen flapping his jaws at the "younger generation," I am only twenty-two years old. A cynic, I'll grant you. But all of the above and the world about you is the reason why. Think about it before you have that next martini.

The "Manager" of the Phillies, and the "Coaches," behaved in a manner that would do honor to a 3-year-old in a severe tantrum.

These "men"—for no man is abusive and then refuses to identify himself—used words that I've never considered, accosted players, and generally bugged everyone. I'm certain that one coach feels very masculine now, for he demanded of one 9-year old: "Do your coaches teach you to play that way?" Too bad he didn't pick on some kid who'd answer back, like me.

This man has removed most of the joy, excitement and fun of a Little League pennant race. This is the worst—and only—case of "Immature Manager" that I've encountered in six years of Little League, as a player and coach.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

Guess I'll wait another week before writing a column on Central Library moves. The new Processing Department, on the second floor, is still letting the dust of moving settle; the old Processing Department is still "becoming" the Audio-visual center, so give us a bit more time to adjust, and then I'll give you a report.

In cleaning house in my office, preparatory to moving, I ran across a small booklet by John Tobbel, entitled PAPERBACK BOOKS, and subtitled: "A pocket history." This brochure is copyrighted 1964 and so, of course, could be updated, but history is history, and the background part is still valid. The author, at the time of writing, was chairman of the Department of Journalism at New York University, a former newspaper and magazine man, and a writer of numerous books. Also, if you've read the SAT-URDAY REVIEW, you've heard of him.

I think we've all been aware, for some time, of the paperback revolution during the past decade or so. Both of my sons, aged 24 and 19, own literally hundreds of paperbacks, and have used them copiously for both assigned and unassigned reading during their high school, college and graduate years. I envy them, and I suspect the rest of you middle-agers do too, as we didn't have this opportunity.

But paperbacks go back further than this era. "Karl Christoph Traugott Tauchnitz, a Leipzig printer and publisher, properly deserves credit for the first paperbacks, more or less as we know them. First issued in 1809, they were cheap reprints of classics, and well into this century their unadorned black-and-white covers were familiar to generations of European readers. . . . And as Tauchnitz was busy with this enterprise, the machines that would make paperbacks a mass industry were being invented."

Printing was coming more into an industrial era; paper now came from a machine; the mechanical typesetter was not far off in the future; electrotyping and stereotyping were emerging as new processes. In America, the low-priced book was introduced in 1829 by the Boston Society for the Diffusion of Knowledge, followed two years later by the American Library of Useful Knowledge. Between 1842-1845 there was a great publishing war on, which horrified the publishers of hardcover editions of certain books.

When lowering prices was no longer effective, flashy paper covers were placed on this new type of book, and the true paperback was born.

Finally, in 1845, the price of a paperback was stabilized at 25 and 50 cents, but soon the Civil War came on and this was an added stimulus to the industry as "dime novels" were read on battlefields, in hospitals and barracks. In 1873 the New York TRIBUNE began publishing its Tribune novels—for 10 cents.

Another wave of paperback publishing got its impetus from improvements in printing technology, and in 1875 the Chicago firm of Donnelly, Lloyd & Co. began to issue its Lakeside Library Series—again at 10 cents.

This turned out to be a landmark in American publishing and included French and English novels pirated from abroad, plus some American novels. Other rival lines sprang up; by 1877 there were 14 lines of this type. By 1879 this new revolution began to fade when hard-bound books were issued in a convenient format for 50 cents. And in 1891 an international copyright agreement was signed, thus ending a highly profitable piracy.

It was not until the Thirties that a new paperback revolution set in. The New American Library at this time started its Albatross Series, and in 1939 Pocket Books, Inc. was started. (Twenty-five years later it had published nearly 3,000 titles and had sold a total of one billion books. You might be interested in their first 10 titles—LOST HORIZON by James Hilton; WAKE UP AND LIVE by Dorothy Parker; FIVE GREAT TRAGEDIES by Shakespeare; TOPPER by Thorne Smith; THE MURDER OF ROGER ACKROYD by Agatha Christie; ENOUGH ROPE by Dorothy Parker; WUTHERING HEIGHTS by Emily Bronte; THE WAY OF ALL FLESH by Samuel Butler; THE BRIDGE OF SAN LUIS REY by Thornton Wilder, and BAMBÍ by Felix Salten—and all were successes.)

With the end of the war, paperback publishing rode the crest of the giant expansion which followed the end of hostilities, and by the time the Fabulous Fifties had come around, Americans were buying 280 million paperbacks a year. Some were good, some were bad; some were praised, some were censured, some were cheap, some were fine.

Today paperbacks are not just leisure reading, they are an increasingly powerful factor in the field of education. Competition has sharpened their attributes. Prices have gone up, but so have the prices of the hardcover books.

A pattern seems to be establishing itself. Important books, both fiction and non-fiction, are still appearing first in hardcover but are coming out about a year later in soft cover. Libraries are buying them, cataloging them, sometimes re-binding them. If you've been in our Grosse Pointe libraries recently you've seen our new racks of paperbacks. Let's face it—paperbacks are here to stay!

Miss Fisher Speaks Vows In St. Paul's

Cheryl Ann Fisher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas K. Fisher, of Lothrop road, and Rene John Coudert, son of Mrs. Victor R. Coudert, of Greenwich, Conn., and the late Mr. Coudert, were married Friday, June 20, in Saint Paul's-on-the-Lakeshore with Monsignor Frank J. McPhillips officiating at the early evening rites.

The bride wore an Empire gown of white imported organza fashioned with a high-necked bodice and fitted sleeves ending in triple-tiered flounces. Her A-line skirt fell into a detachable Cathedral train and her bodice and sleeves were trimmed with garlands of white Swiss floral applique.

Her silk illusion veil was caught by a small tiara laced with matching floral applique. She carried an antique ivory prayer book which belonged to the bridegroom's grandmother, covered with a spray of lilies-of-the-valley and phalaenopsis orchids.

Julie Ann Fisher was her sister's honor attendant. Bridesmaids included three of her cousins, Mrs. Kurt B. Lagerfeldt, Mrs. John Merikoski, of Madison, Wis., and Mrs. Nicholas Bodor; Mrs. John Slattery, of Connecticut, Mrs. Maiullo Greenwood, Mrs. Thomas Staats, Mary Ann Frenzel and Mrs. Peter Hurd.

Their dresses were fashioned of imported white Swiss floral embroidered batiste and their headpieces were matching batiste caps trimmed with yellow velvet. They carried nosegays of yellow and white daisies.

Best man was the bridegroom's brother, Victor R. Coudert, Jr., of Greenwich. Ushers were Warren Brown, of Hamilton, Bermuda, Peter T. Cooper and Walter Nichols, III, of Greenwich, Claude Kemper, of Huntington, L.I., Joseph W. Weed, of Larchmont, N.Y., Robert L. Hubler, Jr., of Toronto, Ont., Garland S. Ward, of Atlanta, Ga., Phil Ness, Jr., Thomas R. Schwerin, George Fooker and Dayton T. Carr, all of New York, the bridegroom's brother, Charles O. Coudert, from Dacca, East Pakistan, and the bride's brother, Thomas K. Fisher, Jr.

The bride's mother selected a dress and coat of re-embroidered yellow organza. She wore a postiche of twisted yellow organza loops in her hair.

The bridegroom's mother chose an aqua silk dress and coat and matching headbow. Both mothers pinned white cymbidium orchids to their purses.

Christ Church Rites For Carole Kincaid

Afternoon Ceremony at Which She is Wed to John Odd Wroldsen, Jr., Followed by Reception at Grosse Pointe Club

Married in Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, Saturday afternoon, June 21, were Carole Eltwyn Kincaid, daughter of Mrs. John Wendell Anderson, II, of East Jefferson avenue, and Col. Elmer Lincoln Kincaid, Jr., of Bronxville, N.Y., and John Odd Wroldsen, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Odd Wroldsen, of Sag Harbour, L.I., and Pompano Beach, Fla.

The bride's gown was fashioned of white silk organza and lace and featured a Cathedral train. Her tiered illusion veil was caught by a silk organza bow and she carried an old-fashioned bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

She was attended by honor matron Mrs. C. Geist Ely. Bridesmaids were Elizabeth Van Beuren Joy, Irene Leland, Carol Filasky, Joan Wroldsen, sister of the bridegroom, and Lindsay Anderson, step-cousin of the bride.

Their dresses, patterned after a 1900 daguerreotype, were of pale blue and white dotted Swiss. They wore pale blue bows with streamers ending in lilies-of-the-valley in their hair and carried small baskets filled with daisies and ivy.

Lieutenant (j.g.) Richard Wroldsen USN served as his brother's best man. The bride's stepbrothers, John Wendell Anderson, III, and Christopher William Anderson; and Charles Case, Joseph Barzantny, Michael Neville and Jerry Thornton ushered.

Mrs. Anderson chose an amber lace costume, designed by Royer of Acapulco, for her daughter's wedding. The bridegroom's mother selected a pink ensemble.

The bride is the granddaughter of the late Elmer Lincoln Kincaid, of Cadogan Square, London, England, and Geneva, Switzerland, who served as mayor of Mount Vernon, N.Y., before taking up residence in Europe. She is a descendant, on her maternal grandmother's side, of the first Vitez Raiczay de Raicz, who received his knighthood from the hands of St. Stephen, the first King of Hungary.

This is a quick change artist.

There you are. Little head of hair, simple, neat, all very nice—except when a really big evening rolls around. Then what do you do? If you're a clever girl, you let us work out a clever little postiche for you. It could be a winding of hair. (Like here.) Or cascading curls. Or a long African thing. Or anything that can be pinned on in two shakes and turn you into something fabulous. Like to have a quick-change artist in your life? Yes. Then see us. We love to make magic.

Lucie C. Lovell Honored At Tea

Mrs. Allan Sheldon's tea for her great-niece, Lucie Clark Lovell, daughter of Mrs. William Kennedy, of Metamora, and Malcolm R. Lovell, Jr., of Washington, who recently resigned as director of the Michigan Employment Security Commission to join the Urban Coalition, a private nationwide organization dedicated to solving the problems of today's cities, was a yellow and white springtime party.

Baskets of yellow daisies and roses decorated the Little Club, scene of the Thursday afternoon, June 19, festivities.

White daisies were embroidered on Lucie's dress and she carried a bouquet of daisies, her father's gift. Mrs. Sheldon received in a foliage green dress and Mrs. Kennedy in a paler green frock.

The silver tea service on the tea table was Lucie's great-grandmother's. Taking turns pouring there were the hostess' daughters-in-law, Mrs. Allan Sheldon, III, and Mrs. W. Warren Sheldon; a sister-in-law, Mrs. Jere Dykema, of Cambridge, Mass.; and the Mesdames Stephen Stackpole, Harold R. Boyer, Frederick M. Alger, Jr., J. Stewart Hudson, C. LIKE COLONIALS? Most People Do!

This one is especially nice. It is not only in superb condition but has the kind and amount of accommodations most in demand. It has, for instance, a fine paneled library, large family room (21.8x 19.10) with ledgerrock fireplace, recreation room, 4 bedrooms, 2 baths, a lavatory, and a filtered and heated swimming pool, 20x40. Also all carpet, draperies, washer-dryer and deep freeze go with the house. Nothing to do, just move in and the price is right.

MAY WE SHOW IT TO YOU?

3 GOOD RULES TO REMEMBER WHEN BUYING OR SELLING A HOME

1. Choose a Realtor (a member of the local Real Estate Board and the National Association of Real Estate Boards). Not all Real Estate Brokers are Realtors.
2. Make your choice only from those whom you feel are ethical and have the experience, contacts and past record of performance to develop a sale in the shortest time possible.
3. Consider Johnstone & Johnstone. A firm that has specialized in the sale of Grosse Pointe properties for 50 years. Six offices, (3 in Grosse Pointe)—70 full time professional sales people.

Sharon Ann Bartlett Wed in Saint Paul's

Speaks Vows to Marston Price at Saturday Service; Couple to Begin Training for Peace Corps Assignment in Brazilian Fishing Village

Sharon Ann Bartlett returned to Grosse Pointe for her Saturday, June 14, wedding to Marston Price. Setting for the afternoon rites was St. Paul's-on-the-Lakeshore.

A reception at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial followed the ceremony, at which The Reverend Leonard P. Wallace, of St. Paul's, and The Reverend Peter J. Lee, of St. John's Episcopal Church, Washington, D.C., presided.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Lynn M. Bartlett, who have been making their home in Washington where he is a Special Consultant to the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, of which he was formerly Assistant Secretary.

He was also Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense for Education and served as Superintendent of Public Instruction for the State of Michigan.

The bridegroom is the son of Hickman Price, Jr., of Washington and Newport, R. I., formerly of Ann Arbor, and the late Mrs. Price, who was Democratic National Committee woman from Michigan and vice-chairman of the Democratic National Committee during the Kennedy and Johnson Administrations.

Mr. Price, retired chairman of the Board of International Products Corporation, has served as an Assistant Secretary of Commerce.

For her wedding, the former Miss Bartlett selected a gown of ivory Alencon lace and peau de soie and a shoulder length veil of imported silk illusion falling from an Alencon lace headpiece. She carried yellow roses and ivy.

Honor maid Cherie Moore's frock was fashioned of yellow linen and ivory lace, as were the dresses of bridesmaids Deborah Gruberg, of Berkeley, Calif., Nora Weinerth, of New York City, Mrs. Lawrence Hahn, of Fort Bragg, N. C., formerly of Ann Arbor, Mrs. C. Wood Hays, of Seven Hills, O., a former roommate of the bride at the University of Michigan, and Mrs. Thomas Worfel, of Grand Rapids, formerly of East Lansing.

They carried baskets of yellow roses and lilies-of-the-valley. Lynn Bartlett, Jr., was best man for his brother-in-law. Ushers were John Abernethy, of Washington, D. C., Arden Jones, of Menlo Park, Calif., David Johnson, of Washington, D. C., Eric Spooner, of Rocky River, O., and James Wood, of Toledo, O.

Elizabeth Abernethy was a flower girl and Nicholas Taylor was ring bearer.

The bride's mother wore a dress of blue lace and pinned an orchid corsage to her purse.

Upon returning from a vacation abroad, the newlyweds will begin training in Washington for their Peace Corps assignment in a Brazilian village, where they will be working on the development of a fishing co-

Saint Paul's-on-the-Lakeshore was the setting for the Saturday, June 14, wedding of SHARON ANN BARTLETT, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Lynn M. Bartlett, who returned to Grosse Pointe from their home in Washington, D.C., making their headquarters at the Berkshire road home of Mrs. Bartlett's mother, Mrs. Josephine Kriser, prior to the ceremony, and Mr. Price, son of Hickman Price, Jr., of Washington and Newport, R.I., formerly of Ann Arbor, and the late Mrs. Price.

Miss McFadden Final June Deb

The Friday, June 20, tea given by Mrs. Stewart McFadden in her McMillan road home to honor daughter Laurie McFadden brought to an end this June's summer debutante season.

Laurie, carrying a nosegay of yellow rosebuds and white carnations, wore a yellow linen frock while her mother selected a green and white polka-dotted sheath. The deb's 13-year-old sister, Tish, was in pink.

An ecru lace cloth which belonged to Laurie's great-aunt, the late Mrs. Charles Hinchman, covered the tea table, set up in the McFadden's garden room where Laurie and her mother received their guests. A basket of white daisies was the table centerpiece.

Party guests included Laurie's grandmother, Mrs. Julius C. Peter, an aunt, Mrs. John H. Gardner, who came to the States from her home in Lima, Peru, to be present at the graduation of her son, Jay, from Brown University, and Mrs. Gardner's daughter, Laurie's cousin, Mrs. Charles W. Coates, of Saginaw.

Laurie is a University of Michigan student. She'll be working this summer as a receptionist at an advertising agency.

Don't let yearning replace endeavor in your way of life.

Among Eastern Michigan University's June 1969 graduates are GAIL DUNAWAY, of St. Clair avenue, FRANK FONTANA, of Fontana lane, MARY NIVISON, of Devonshire road, REGINA MICHAEL, of Wayburn road, ROBERT STEVENS, of Roslyn road, JANET KLEBA, of Grayton road, CHRISTINE NELSON, of Country Club lane, ANN NOLTING, of West Emory court, DOUGLAS JERGER, of Maple lane, and ROBERT GROSSHANS, of Stanhope avenue.

At a coffee last Tuesday in Mrs. William C. Osborn, Jr.'s Bishop road home the ladies planning next fall's Liggett School Lecture Series got together for the first time to discuss ticket-selling strategy.

But we don't think they'll have to be very "strategic" to sell tickets for the coming series—considering the fact that opening lecturer is Dr. Margaret Mead, about whom we'll say no more, (you know it all, we're sure) . . . and second lecturer is Dr. William B. Boyd, president of Central Michigan University; vice chancellor-Student Affairs, University of California, Berkeley, 1966 to 1968, (HE should have some interesting information on the current student situation—frankly, it baffles us) . . . and final lecturer is Dr. Robert J. Gaukler, whose special field is the psychoanalysis of adolescents.

Mrs. Osborn and Mrs. Russell Noble, of Lakeshore road, are general co-chairmen of the 1969 Series.

In charge of tickets, (they're $6 for all three lectures), is Mrs. Thomas Swantek who's enlisted a corps of 40 Liggett alumnae-mothers-friends selling assistants.

Mrs. Joseph J. Jennings is Liggett Lectures' social chairman and Mrs. Dwight Nelson and Mrs. Gerald Wetzel are in charge of mailing.

The lecturers will appear in Liggett's Kresge Auditorium at 10 o'clock in the morning Thursday, October 9, Thursday, October 30, and Tuesday, November 11.

A Memory Book For 'Mrs. Golf'

She helped plan the party herself, supervised the menu, double-checked the guest list, but Mrs. William L. McGiverin, of Rivard boulevard, had no idea SHE would be the Very Special Honoree at Tuesday evening's Detroit Women's District Golf Association Golden Anniversary Dinner at the Country Club of Detroit.

And the Memory Book containing letters from all over the country, messages and congratulations sent by everyone from the executive director of the United States Golf Association to Mrs. McGiverin's scores of personal friends, was a complete surprise!

So was the news she's to have her own memorial tree, gift of the WDGA, on the Country Club golf course . . . So was the pin the WDGA presented as its personal gift to its esteemed foundress . . . And so was the arrival of her sister, Mrs. Edwin Henry, of Chicago, at the party—Dorothy McGiverin had thought she'd talked Olive out of coming!

But it seems everyone wanted to be here in person to say "Thank you, We love you" to Michigan's "Mrs. Golf," one of the State's first women's golf champions and twice runner-up, member of the United States Golf Association Committee for 23 years, the lady who founded the Detroit Women's District Golf Association 50 years ago.

The WDGA now numbers some 300 members from 30 metropolitan Detroit clubs. And its 50th three-day Medal Play Tournament is taking place this week at the Country Club, Dorothy McGiverin's home course.

Another Busy June For Marie Louise

June is Marie Louise Anderson's Special Month so this June, as usual, Marie Louise has been using her Cranford lane home mostly as a "base," a place in which to catch her breath.

Miss Anderson's birthday is June 1 and her month began with a birthday dinner given in her honor at the Little Club. The birthday parties continued with a luncheon at the Golden Lion, one at the Pontchartrain, another dinner at the Boat Club and a luncheon at the Press Club.

Then of course Marie Louise was there at the Charles Parcells, Jr.'s around-the-world debut dance for their daughter Ann, at the Country Club, and Mrs. Allan Shelden's tea for her great-niece Lucie Lovell, at the Little Club.

AND THE GROSSE POINTE ROSE SOCIETY'S SHOW IS AN ANNUAL JUNE EVENT; MARIE LOUISE DOUBLES THERE AS AN EXHIBITOR AND HOSTESS

NO WONDER SHE'S HARDLY HOME LONG ENOUGH TO CATCH HER BREATH!

S.O.S. Books Needed!

Books of all sorts are urgently sought by members of the Grosse Pointe Branch of the American Association of University Women, preparing for their seventh annual Used Book Sale to be held next fall, October 1, 2 and 3, at the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church Annex in Maumee avenue.

Everything, fiction and non-fiction, old books, current best-sellers, textbooks, paperbacks, sheet music, children's books, records and games, is needed and welcome says general Sale chairman Mrs. Urban Borech, of Kercheval avenue, who adds this spurring-on thought for reluctant shelf-cleaners: "Every book donated is one less to dust!"

Collection is currently underway. Pick-ups may be arranged by calling Mrs. F. P. Colby, 882-1875, Mrs. Burkhard Schneider, 886-0468, or Mrs. D. B. Wehmer, 885-6071. Or books may be taken directly to collection points at 1590 Oxford road, 16935 Maumee avenue or 1330 Bishop road.

Pointe AAUW members helping Mrs. Borech with Sale preparations include the Messames Russell Sears, James Brown, Thaddeus Ketchum, John MacKay, Richard Edwards, Charles Stroand and William Beach.

The Used Book Sale's purpose is two-fold: To offer excellent reading to Pointers at greatly reduced prices and—most importantly—to increase the AAUW Fellowship Fund which aids college women seeking advanced degrees and/or engaged in research.

Miranda Herbert Honored At Tea

Making her bow to society at a lady tea given by her mother, Mrs. William Prescott Herbert, at the Herberts' St. Clair avenue home, and her grand-mother, Mrs. William H. Herbert, of Beverly road, Tuesday afternoon, June 17, was Miranda Carleton Herbert.

The deb who bowed on the same day as her mother, the former Mary Dickinson, 28 years before, wore a white pique frock and carried a bouquet of roses grown by her great-aunt Miss Harriet Dickinson, of Jackson.

More of Miss Dickinson's rose bouquets were featured throughout the Herbert home. Miranda attends Jackson College for Women in Medford, Mass., and plans some summer traveling.

Mrs. William H. Herbert entertained at a brunch honoring Miranda and another granddaughter, Deborah Carson, of Ottawa, at the Little Club the Sunday before Miranda's debut.

Co-hosts were the Ames Howlets, of Beverly road, Mrs. Herbert's son-in-law and daughter.

WENDY EWALD, daughter of MR. and MRS. HENRY T. EWALD, JR. of Moross road, was graduated from Abbot Academy, Andover, Mass., June 7. Wendy will attend Antioch College in the fall.

Pointer of Interest

MRS. MARK VALENTE, JR., OF WHITTIER ROAD

Living delights Marie Valente. She can't understand why anyone would choose to exist turned in upon himself, not concerned, not wanting to be concerned, with all the possibilities this world offers.

"People," believes Maria, "should get involved!" She doesn't just believe it.

A partial list of Maria's Ballerini Valente's involvements would include a community chairmanship for the March of Dimes Ball, a P.M.E. Missionaries benefit fashion show chairmanship, a Board membership for AMIT (American-Italian Professional and Business Women's) Club.

She served this April as chairman for the Fontbonne Auxiliary of St. John Hospital's Garden Party of Fashions, the sell-out benefit at the Country Club featuring Walton-Pierces' only spring showing of its current collection.

She's worked, too, for St. John's White Christmas Ball.

Many Other Interests She's an active member of the Assistance League to the North-eastern Wayne County Child Guidance Clinic, a member of the American Association of University Women, the Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, the Bon Secours Hospital Guild, the Whittier-Audubon Association, the Grosse Pointe Motion Picture and Television Council, Nazareth College Alumnae Association, St. Clare Parish's Archconfraternity . . .

She's a Cub Scout Den Mother.

She was born in Detroit but has lived in Grosse Pointe since she was a little girl, in Whittier road for 29 years.

Her parents live right down the street. Maria went to local schools: St. Clare, Pierce, Grosse Pointe High. After two years at Nazareth she transferred to Michigan State University where she earned her Bachelor of Arts in Secondary Education with majors in Spanish and Art.

She taught "very briefly" at Keego Harbor just outside of Pontiac, then at Harper Woods High School, then at Grosse Pointe High where her fellow faculty members included many of her own former teachers.

She Was Determined She has a Master of Arts from the University of Michigan in Guidance and Counseling—and, although it doesn't say so, in determination: Pregnant with her first son, she drove four nights a week to Ann Arbor in order to complete her degree credit hour requirements after teaching all day at Grosse Pointe High.

Mark Valente III, is 12 now, an excellent student and captain of St. Clare School's Safety Patrol, an altar boy and athletic buff, consumed body and soul with every sport the seasons bring.

He has three younger brothers: Dino, 9, also an excellent student—and the family's Little League-Cub Scout softball star; Richard, 8, who's "always smiling and will just talk your arm right off!"; and two-year-old J.B.

Dina and Richard, like Mark III, attend St. Clare School. J.B.'s formal name—by which he is NEVER called—is James Ballerini. "When we had our fourth boy—everybody was waiting for a girl—I said to Mark (Jr., Maria's husband), 'Wouldn't it be nice if we threw a Ballerini, my maiden name, in . . .?'"

"So we did . . . and when Mark's manager caught on to the initials, he said, 'Oh, J.B.—Junior Boss.' And he really is Junior Boss around here! We all just enjoy him."

Bug on Education Maria's a bit of a bug on education for women. Nothing irritates her more than a School Isn't That Important for Girls attitude.

"Who," she exclaims, "needs an education more than a mother? A daughter becomes the mother of men!"

"She helps direct them toward a profession . . . And her education makes her a more understanding marriage partner."

As usual, Maria practices what she preaches. "One thing I'm very proud of," she admits, "is the interiors I did for our stores (Valente's Men's Formal Wear). I've been very much complimented on them . . . I call the style Old American—I love to go furniture shopping, to antique stores, junk shops, pick out what I like and use it . . ."

Sometimes her business expeditions pay personal dividends. There's a wonderful big pedestal table in the Valente's family room.

"I'd always wanted a pedestal table," Maria explains, "and one day my husband, who was interested in opening a store in Utica, heard of a possible location and suggested we take a ride out to look it over."

They Buy a Farm "We got there—it was an old farm site—and I looked in a window of one of the buildings, and I saw the table, and as soon as I saw it I said, 'Buy the farm!'"

They did. It's now Valente's Utica headquarters. Maria's been her husband's working partner ever since he founded the business, in 1954, the year after they were married. She'd join him at their first store, located in Whittier road, Detroit, in the afternoon. She couldn't come earlier, she was teaching school all day.

trip across the Atlantic. And Maria was still saying to herself, "You're not really going, of course . . ."

They stayed in Italy three weeks, two weeks on the Adriatic, at Pescara, where Maria's mother's family lives, and a week in Rome, where Maria took the boys on "a whirlwind of tours," including trips to the Villa d'Este and Tivoli Gardens—the youngsters were enchanted with the night spectacle of 600 playing fountains—and to Castel Gandolfo, where they saw the Pope at his summer residence.

The Usual Crises There were, of course, the usual traveling-with-children crises. One young Valente, lost in the mountains, was quickly found again, crying but unharmed.

And Maria kept trying, unsuccessfully, to find the time to search for the crystal chandelier she'd always wanted for her dining room.

She has the chandelier now, although she never did have a chance to look for it herself. She came back from Italy chandelier-less. Then . . .

"One day I was talking with a dear friend who goes to Italy every summer to visit her husband's family, and I mentioned the one thing I regretted about my trip was not being able to go shopping for a chandelier, and my friend said she was going to take a run over for 10 days at Christmas, and she'd see if she could find one for me."

She did. Shipment took six months but the chandelier finally arrived, completely disassembled, in a wooden crate. Maria and another friend put it together lovingly, crystal by crystal. It makes a magnificent Valente dining room focal point.

Feared for Her Life Maria, who'd been to Italy before, describes her sojourn there with three active young boys as a "completely Different Experience." "I thought I'd never get back to the United States alive with those kids!" about sums up her attitude.

But she smiles as she speaks—you can tell she really enjoyed every minute of that "vacation."

But then: Maria enjoys everything she does. She enjoys her trips with her husband, to the West Indies, South America, Venezuela, Colombia, Hawaii "the February after August in Rome—I'm so lucky!"

She loves to do needlepoint. But she has yet to make herself a needlepoint purse: She gives them all away.

She'll happily, enthusiastically spend a day in the backyard with a neighbor, charring wood over an open fire, burning the edges of prints with candles, gluing the prints to the wood then staining the finished icons.

Annual Canning Binge Every fall she goes on a canning binge, taking a truckload of produce purchased at the Eastern Market and reducing it to rows and rows of jars containing everything from all-American bread-and-butter pickles to caponata, an Italian appetizer that's an all-day project, features eggplant, celery, mushrooms, tomatoes, green and red peppers "and other things"—and is about the most delicious mixture we've ever tasted. (Maria recommends it with Italian bread—we recommend it right out of the jar, any way at all.)

And it's all done with joy. Marie Ballerini Valente really believes "It's wonderful to do things for others."

She explains: "No matter what good you do for others, some good comes back to you every time. Why, my own father has used the St. John Hospital emergency equipment we (the Fontbonne Auxiliary) raised funds for!"

Amazing coincidence? Not really . . . We've noticed that those who are delighted by living are generally those living delights in.

RIPE OLIVE PARTY BURGERS

Contributed by Prudence Dorn From Ripe Olives from California

- 4 hard rolls
- 1/4 cup butter
- 1 tsp. dry mustard
- 1 1/2 cups canned pitted California ripe olives
- 1 lb. ground beef chuck
- 1 Tbsp. instant minced onion
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- Dash pepper
- 1/4 tsp. allspice
- 1/4 cup grated Parmesan cheese
- Lettuce
- Tomatoes
- Dill Pickle

Preheat broiler. Cut rolls in halves. Mix butter and dry mustard. Spread on 4 halves of rolls. Coarsely chop 3/4 cup ripe olives. Mix chopped olives with beef, onion, salt, pepper and allspice. Divide meat mixture in 4 equal parts; shape each a little larger than roll halves. Place foil on broiler rack, and put hamburgers about 3" from heat. Broil 7 to 10 minutes on one side. Place each meat patty, broiled side down, on buttered rolls. Sprinkle patties with cheese. Return to broiler and broil about 5 minutes longer or until meat is cooked as desired. Place lettuce, sliced tomatoes, sliced pickle and remaining whole olives on other roll halves. Serves 4.

Blissful Evening For The Blisses

Mr. and Mrs. C. Hascall Bliss, of Beverly road, arrived at the Little Club Wednesday evening, June 18, via a 1919 Nash driven by Louis A. Serpe, chauffeur for Mrs. Bliss' father, Charles W. Nash, president and Board chairman of the Nash automobile firm in the early part of the century, from 1920 until his death in 1948.

The ride in the antique car, arranged by American Motors President Roy Chapin, signalled the start of a "blissful" 50th wedding anniversary evening hosted by the Bliss' son, "Bill," and son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell J. Simon, (she's the former Betty Bliss), of Los Angeles, Calif.

Vincent Lopez and his Orchestra were there. Jack Qualey's orchestra signalled the anniversary couple's arrival at the dinner-dance with the strains of the Wedding March.

The Little Club's foyer was transformed into a replica of the entranceway of the Nash home in Kenosha, Wis., on the day of the Blisses' wedding there in 1919, complete with a duplicate of the original flower-filled wedding alcove.

Party guests included Douglas Bliss, who served as his brother's best man 50 years ago, Mrs. George Wheary, who was her aunt's flower girl, and Charles Nash Miller, the nephew who was ring bearer.

Our Lady Star of the Sea High School graduate MARY JO ANN CLAPP, daughter of MR. and MRS. WILLIAM H. CLAPP, of South Oxford road, has completed the Liberal Arts Secretarial Course at the Katherine Gibbs School in New York.

Some good comes back to you every time. Why, my own father has used the St. John Hospital emergency equipment we (the Fontbonne Auxiliary) raised funds for!"
