"The rainfall has been slightly above the normal amount so far this year and, even on those weekends when we had no rain, the skies were usually cloudy," she said.

Carl Commerson, one of the crew at the Grosse Pointe Farms Water Filtration plant, which keeps rainfall records for all of the Pointe as a favor for the Federal government, pointed out that The Pointe recorded double the normal amount of rain in July and slightly more rain than usual in June.

"More than eight inches of rain fell on the Pointe in July and nearly five inches of rain hit us in June," said Commerson. "Relieve it or not, we received only .47 of an inch of rain on Saturday, August 9, of this year, but you would have thought it was a regular deluge."

Fred Paxton, who has tended the gate at the Park's municipal park for the past 15 years, claims the rain has affected attendance figures very little this year.

"We have averaged about 4,000 persons per day," he said. "More swimmers have participated in the use of the pool this year and we have had more boaters, too."

"However, I have noticed that the number of picnickers has fallen off and I think you can attribute that to the excessive amount of rain," he claimed.

City Park Superintendent Robert Kuhn claimed he has noticed no unusual drop in attendance figures this year, although he is also down on the weather.

"I think the high humidity has made residents brave the rains just to get a chance to escape the heat," related Kuhn. "We are still averaging about 2,400 persons per day, but we won't know whether our attendance has been up or down for sure until we compile the final figures just prior to the fall season."

Spokesmen for the Woods' municipal park looked to the skies and said, "There is no doubt that the forbidding weather has really cut into attendance this year."

The Woods officials noted that, although the number of hot, humid days has been the same as last year, the rains came more often this year and residents forsook the park for other entertainment.

Don Messing, park director for the Shores, claimed that the Rains of 1969 dropped attendance figures well below those of 1968, but that this year's attendance still outdistanced that of 1967.

"Attendance dropped by more than 4,000 persons this July as compared to July 1968 and we ran about 1,100 persons below the normal June figures this year," he noted. "People just can't enjoy the park, when it is damp and humid."

Whalen to Head Campaign Unit

Grosse Pointe Kenneth J. Whalen, president, Michigan Bell Telephone Co., will serve as a group chairman of the major commerce unit of the 1969 Torch Drive.

Whalen, who lives in 187 Stephens road, will direct campaign solicitations among utilities, insurance companies, stock brokers and other segments of the financial community.

His appointment was announced by another Grosse Pointe resident, John S. Pingel, president, Ross Roy Inc., advertising agency.

"I am extremely pleased Mr. Whalen has accepted this vital important Torch Drive assignment," Pingel said.

"He is an outstanding community leader with genuine concern and proven ability."

Whalen was vice president-operations of the New York Telephone Co. before coming to Detroit last November to head Michigan Bell.

He is a member of the board of trustees of Union College, Schenectady, N.Y., where he was graduated in 1949, and serves on the advisory council of Pace College, New York City. He also is a member of the board of directors of Detroit Bank & Trust Co.

Nearly 200 health and community services in the Wayne-Macomb-Oakland area will benefit from the 21st annual United Foundation campaign scheduled October 14 through November 6.

carded an 88 for his 18-hole outing.

In desperation and seeking solace, I called Chick Rutan, the golfing pro at Lochmoor.

"Tell me, Chick," I begged. "Tell me it isn't true. Every duffer in the world, except me, can't be scoring aces."

There was a pause. "As a matter of fact, three other golfers besides Dr. Rove picked up aces last week," came Rutan's reply. Club members John Gibson and Art Stringari managed their shots with little effort.

"Gibson aced the 167-yard eighth hole with a five iron and Stringari used a six iron to ace the 160-yard 16th," related Rutan, while tears welled in my eyes. "Stringari's shot was a thing of beauty."

Although I didn't want to hear about it, Rutan told how Stringari laced his shot to the left of the terraced green. The ball slowly rolled downhill and came to rest at the edge of the cup. Just when it appeared that the ball had stopped dead, it backed into the hole.

"We also had another fellow, a guest of the club from Des Moines, Iowa, who aced the 16th, but I imagine you don't want to hear about that one," said Rutan. He was right.

Parking Privilege Plan Worked Out by Park, Bank

By Phil Loranger

An unusual arrangement for parking privileges was worked out between the Park City Council and representatives of the Michigan Bank on Monday, August 11, at the Council's regular meeting.

Michigan Bank, which has attempted twice in the past year to gain more parking spaces for customers at the facility, located on the corner of Barrington and Jefferson, was granted a parking permit for eight more stalls on a 20-foot wide strip of land, running from an alley off Barrington to the rear of the bank, after a heated public hearing attended by a small but vocal group of local residents.

Although the bank was granted permission to construct a parking area by a unanimous vote of the Council, it will be required to maintain a four-foot high masonry wall bordering the parking strip and keep the landscaping of the bushes in front of the wall in good repair.

The Council also made it a requirement that the bank keep the exterior of a bank-owned home in the rear of the bank in good repair and keep the grounds of the home well landscaped.

The condition of the parking lot and the current state of disrepair to the exterior of the home were the major items of discontent to local residents, who feared that the bank, if granted the right to a new parking area, would allow the 'eyesore' conditions to continue.

"Although I feel the homeowners have a right to be more than disenchanted with the present conditions surrounding the bank property, I personally feel that it would be beneficial for the bank and the community to grant permission for the construction of a parking area," Mayor Pro Tem Robert J. Hutton told the members of the Council, prior to the approving vote.

Director of Public Safety William Ellenburg said his department did not oppose the parking lot request and felt that it might enhance the looks of the corner area.

In granting its approval for the new lot, the Council expressed its belief that its action would solve the problems of the bank and still protect the rights of local residents.

In other Council business, Mayor Douglas L. Patterson was selected as the Park's official delegate to the Michigan Municipal League's annual meeting of representatives September 9-12, in Grand Rapids.

City Manager Robert Stone was chosen as an alternate to the meeting in case an unexpected event made it impossible for Mayor Patterson to attend.

TO AUDIT TORCH DRIVE
A Grosse Pointe Farms resident, Norman A. Bolz, partner in charge of the Detroit and Birmingham offices of Lybrand, Ross Brothers and Montgomery, international accounting firm, has been named chairman for audit of the 1969 Torch Drive. His appointment was announced by the campaign general chairman, William S. Blakeslee, also of Grosse Pointe.

It was also decided by the Council that the Shepard Marine Construction Company, a Mount Clemens firm which has been repairing piers and catwalks at the community's municipal park since last winter, will be released from a portion of its contract in order to allow bids to be taken for a caulking specialist to complete some of the catwalk work.

Both the Park and Shepard Construction feel this will guarantee better repair work on the catwalks.

College Plea

County Community College, for the following reasons: no cost outline was available to the board; the board did not know if there is a real need for this type of "night" education in our community; that they felt granting the usage would curtail the activities of North's students and that until a written contract was available no intelligent vote could be made.

Donald Thurber, representing Wayne County Community College and a Grosse Pointe resident for 40 years, attempted to clarify the questions in the mind of those present. He stressed that the college has no plan to locate the complete junior college in Grosse Pointe and indicated that such a site was probably not even available. He indicated that the college would be more than willing to work out a written contract with the school board's limitations and specifications immediately. He explained that most junior colleges begin by using local high school facilities. Mr. Thurber stressed that the college was not "looking for a free ride," but would be more than willing to cover expenses they incur.

Huetteman Objects
William Huetteman, councilman of the City of Grosse Pointe Woods voiced the following objections to the project: this particular site was surrounded by some 80 to 90% residential homes; the board is not presently fulfilling its original agreement with the city by having only 446 parking spaces when originally they promised 500 in compliance with the city ordinance; that the plat usage plan; originally presented, did not include expanded uses; and that the addition of 200 students could create a parking and police problem.

Dr. Carl R. Von Gruenigen, member of the Board of Directors of the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Schools, read the group's position on the subject. He said the group was opposed to such usage of North facilities for the following reasons: with locally mounting problems of teenage delinquency and vandalism it is not wise to magnify or complicate the immediate problems exist at North; it might develop the same chaos found on college campuses throughout the state; many avenues of discussion have not been sufficiently pursued to form an adequate crystallization of policy; opening the school to outside groups would constitute a great threat to this desirable and long established right of local control of facilities. (He added that one of the purposes of Friends of the Grosse Pointe Schools was to maintain autonomy of the Grosse Pointe School System. Other members of the audience were allowed to express their attitude on the college.

Near the close of the discussion members of the audience began shaking fists, shouting recall and generally disrupting the meeting. President Hykes had to call for order to proceed with other business.

Take a taste drive

At the Woods, a test drive is a taste drive. When you get behind the wheel of a new Volkswagen, BMW or Mercedes-Benz, you know it's going to ride smoothly, effortlessly...because you already know the reputation of these fine imported automobiles for quality, engineering and craftsmanship. But what you feel when you first drive one is that flush of pride that goes with knowing that you're driving a "classic"...a car created to reflect your own good taste. And after you taste drive one, you'll never want to even test drive anything less.

Pleads for Stolen Statue

haul it away, according to Shores police, who are still investigating the strange disappearance. They theorize that the statue was removed from its resting place between midnight and 5 a.m. on August 3.

"I am offering a suitable reward for the recovery of the statue or for information leading to the recovery," said William McDonnell. "The statue would net little on the market because it is stolen property, but it has great value to me and my wife.

"If it was taken by vandals or pranksters, I hope they will return it in good shape," he continued. "Certainly, taking the statue as a prank might be understood, but failure to return it could never be forgiven. I hope whoever took it will read the NEWS and have a change of heart."

McDonnell, who designed the sculpture in Italy, was born in Detroit in 1936 and studied commercial art and architecture at the University of Detroit from 1953-55.

He also studied under Jean Charlot, at the University of Notre Dame in 1955-56 and assisted the renowned Ivan Mestrovic at Notre Dame from 1956 through 1959.

After obtaining his Bachelor of Fine Arts and Master of Fine Arts degrees from Notre Dame in 1959, he attended the Academy of Fine Arts in Florence in 1961 and was artist-in-residence at the Positano Art Workshop in 1962.

Various pieces of his works are scattered in collections throughout the world and are displayed in shopping centers and malls in the United States.

The NEWS joins the McDonnells in their appeal to the person or persons, who removed the statue, to return it in its original condition. Mr. McDonnell's offer of an award appears in this edition of the NEWS, in the Classified Ad section.

Pingel Accepts Torch Drive Job

Grosse Pointe John S. Pingel, president, Ross Roy, Inc., advertising agency, will head the major commerce unit of the 1969 Torch Drive.

His appointment was announced by John J. Nevin, of Birmingham, chairman of the six Torch Drive chapter units which annually raise more than 90 percent of the United Foundation campaign total.

On naming Pingel, Nevin, who is vice president of marketing for Ford Motor Co., said:

"We are most fortunate Mr. Pingel has accepted this important campaign post.

"He is a dedicated, talented community leader whose experience and initiative will be most valuable."

Nevin said the campaign unit which Pingel will head raised more than $5 million of the $28.3 million reported in the 1968 Torch Drive.

The 21st annual UF campaign will be held Oct. 14 through Nov. 6 to provide operating funds for nearly 200 health and community services.

A native of Mt. Clemens, Pingel earned letters in track, basketball and football as a high school student and went on to become an All-American halfback at Michigan State University.

He received the Spartan Award for "best combination of athletic and academic excellence" while at Michigan State.

After serving for five years with the U.S. Army, attaining the rank of lieutenant colonel and earning the Bronze Star and Purple Heart, he joined Brooke, Smith, French & Dorrance, advertising agency.

He was elected vice president of the firm in 1955 and became executive vice president when the agency merged with Ross Roy Inc. in 1960. He was named president in 1964.

Pingel received the Distinguished Alumni Award presented by Michigan State University in 1965; the Silver Beaver Award, highest honor for volunteer leaders given by the Boy Scouts, in 1967.

Also, the Man and Boy Award, given annually by the Boys' Clubs of Metropolitan Detroit, in 1968, the year he was elected to the National Football Foundation's Hall of Fame, the top honor for a former college football player.

The newly named Torch Drive chairman is a past president of the Adcraft Club of Detroit, a director-at-large of the American Association of Advertising Agencies, and chairman of the Committee of the Board on Work with Students and Educators.

He is a vice-president of the Detroit Area Council, Boy Scouts of America, and of the Institute for Economic Education, and chairman of the Detroit Register and Vote Committee.

Pingel is a trustee of New Detroit, Grosse Pointe University School, Oakland University Foundation and Alma College as well as trustee emeritus of Michigan State University.

He currently serves on the boards of directors of Greater Metropolitan Detroit Project HOPE, Greater Michigan Foundation, Boys Republic and the Michigan State Chamber of Commerce.

Indecent Actions Frighten Child

Grosse Pointe Woods Police received a report of indecent exposure Wednesday, July 23, from a 14-year-old girl, who was victimized as she walked toward her home.

The youngster told police that she was walking east on South Renaud at about 10:00 p.m., when she observed a dark-colored Camaro approach her and park across the street.

The driver of the vehicle, a young man in his late 20s, emerged from the car and began to walk towards her. He was clad only in a coat and a pair of bathing trunks, according to the girl.

After asking the youngster some directions, he suddenly pulled his trunks down to a point below his knees and made a lewd comment. The frightened girl ran towards her home, while the offender escaped by speeding away in his automobile.

Summer Science Session Helps Students, Teacher

By Pepper Whitelaw
Verifying the beliefs of modern educators that enrichment programs are tremendously valuable to both students and teachers, Tom Neil, Brownell School science teacher, has completed a highly successful six-week summer session of science enrichment classes.

He taught two one-hour classes to fourth, fifth and sixth graders and one two-hour class to seventh, eighth and ninth graders.
The two-hour session in Comparative Anatomy dealt with the study of singled-celled animals and progressed through higher forms. Students had the opportunity to dissect frogs and fetal pigs, listen to lectures and view films. They were so enthusiastic over their lab work they began bringing in "specimens" of their own . . . including fish heads from the local fish market.

The one-hour sessions were spent helping students become adept at using the microscope and stereoscope. They studied tissue specimens and one-celled animals under the microscope and even learned how to make their own slides.

Mr. Neil said when these youngsters first came to class some of them couldn't even focus a microscope . . . when they left, after completing the session, they were handling the microscopes at high power like professionals.

Mr. Neil planned the courses himself. He stressed how delighted he was to be given the opportunity to work with individual students in such a stimulating group setting. "The small classes and the fact that the students in this type of setting are so highly self-motivated made these sessions rewarding to both students and the teacher," Mr. Neil said. (In fact, he is already looking forward to next year's summer sessions!)

Tom Neil is one of the new breed of teachers . . . young, athletic, vital. Gone are the days when the science prof looked like one of his own dissecting specimens . . . the new teacher relates to the students . . . communicates with the students . . . and as a result ends up teaching them a whole of a lot more than they have ever been taught. We're willing to bet that Tom Neil could convince even the most squeamish student to dissect a fetal pig and enjoy it!

Offers Advice On Hay Fever

Are you among the many who rush to drugstore counters in August to see what is new this year for hay fever sufferers?

E. Osborne Coates, M.D., of Shelden road, president of the TB and Health Society today urged sufferers of respiratory allergies such as hay fever to take a different approach this year.

"Relief may be as near as your telephone," Dr. Coates advised. Watery, itchy eyes and runny noses are some of the uncomfortable symptoms of respiratory allergies and can often be relieved upon consultation with a physician. In some cases the respiratory allergy may even be cleared up.

Dr. Coates said there are some general recommendations that your TB and Health Society urges you to consider. They are:

- Consult your doctor and get his help in identifying what causes your hay fever, then follow his advice.

- If you can, get away from the substance that causes your reaction. Air conditioning and air purification may help you work, rest and sleep.

- Use antihistamines sparingly and only upon your doctor's advice. Don't try to self-medicate.
- If your doctor thinks injections will help, start them well before the hay fever season and stick to them without skipping. Your doctor can also be of some help after the symptoms start.

- Don't get discouraged if you get rid of one sensitivity only to find you have developed another one.
- Be sure to let your doctor know if you think a complication—such as an advanced nose or throat infection—has developed.

It is also important that hay fever sufferers maintain good general health. Here are several tips that are important: avoid getting upset—some hay fever attacks are set off by emotional tension; avoid or reduce the consumption of alcoholic beverages, as they tend to dilate the blood vessels as poisons do; avoid smoking; avoid drastic changes in temperature; and avoid spicy foods, powdered soaps and liquid or powder insecticides. Hay fever suffers should also use caution when swimming in chlorinated pools, or painting or gardening. Dr. Coates also pointed out that the TB and Health Society has more information on respiratory allergies available. Write to the Society at 153 East Elizabeth, Detroit, Michigan 48201.

Morton Graduates At Redondo School

Private Gregg D. Morton, 18, son of Mrs. Joan M. Hood, 3115 McMillan road, was graduated from the Redondo School at Ft. Carson, Colo., June 27.

The newly organized Redondo School received its name, which is a combination of reconnaissance, commando and doubtbooy, from General William C. Westmoreland, Army Chief of Staff.

The school is a condensed three weeks of training centered on Vietnam tactics and will service all of the Fifth U.S. Army area.

Students receive training in patrolling, movement by helicopter, explosives, survival, mountain climbing, and how to call in air and artillery strikes.

A machine gunner in Company B, 2nd Battalion, 133rd Infantry, 69th Infantry Brigade at the fort, Pvt. Morton entered the army in March 1968, completed basic training at Ft. Knox, Ky., and was last stationed at Ft. Bragg, N.C. His father, Dean F. Morton, lives in Lincoln Park.

It may be true that the world owes you a living, but it's up to you to prove the claim. The golden rule is something one half of the people think the other half should observe. Luck is the end result—it's the crossroad where planning and opportunity meet. Make it a habit—worry about the future only after it becomes a part of the past.

Scoring The Pointes
By Phil Loranger

Although it seems a long way from August to September for those Pointers who are just getting acclimated to their summer sports programs, a hardy bunch of young athletes throughout the community have been engaged in a summer-long conditioning program, aimed at building muscles and skills for the fast-approaching high school football season.

For most Pointe high schools, the official varsity football season begins in late August with the issuance of equipment and rugged two-a-day practice sessions. Foot will meet ball in the kickoff of the first scheduled games in the second week of September.

Airborne footballs have been more in evidence recently on practice fields throughout the Pointe, as leather-muscled youngsters begin to work up their enthusiasm for the gridiron game, which has been smoldering inside of them for the better part of the hot summer.

Although in-depth coverage of the teams, coaches and personnel, with a look towards the objectives of the coming season, will be covered in future NEWS articles, this week the NEWS gives an early appraisal on the football squads at Grosse Pointe High School South, Grosse Pointe University School and St. Paul High School.

GPHSS Athletic Director Chuck Hollosy pointed out that hopeful members of the school's gridiron squad have been meeting informally in recent weeks and conducting physical conditioning drills.

"Although the boys may have a lot of hard work cut out for them this year," we hope to improve on our record of last year," said Hollosy. "Our biggest problem is the fact that our squad will be a little 'thin' in experienced personnel."

GPHSS ran up a six won-two lost record over the 1968 season, dropping games to Ann Arbor and Royal Oak Dundero. They open the 1969 season with Ann Arbor on September 12. The outcome of this game could set the pace for the entire eight-game schedule.

Head Football Coach Russ Hepner, who will be starting his second year at the helm, claims that his squad will have only five lettermen returning.

"This will be the first time that juniors will have the chance to play regularly at the varsity level," said Hepner. "We're young and inexperienced and our junior varsity, which won only one of six games last year, will be the nucleus of our 1969 varsity squad."

"Many of the fellows are working out regularly over at the field and we would like to invite any member of the community over to take part in physical drills," he said. "This is good for all ages."

GPUS Athletic Director Bob Woods said members of the school's team have also been attempting to work out their "kinks" prior to the start of regular practice sessions.

"I'm optimistic about the team this year, but I want to add that we will be playing our toughest schedule in memory." Among those rivals which keep Bob awake nights is powerhouse Culver Military Academy from Culver, Indiana.

"They are an all-male school and more than 400 of their boys report for football practice each fall," Bob winced. "That number represents four times the number of our entire school enrollment. I guess that would bother just about anybody."

GPUS Head Coach Tom Taber, whose squad rolled to a five won-three lost record last season, is also worried about the back-breaking schedule.

"We could have a fine outfit," said Taber. "Everything depends on the team attitude. It's still too early to tell what that attitude will be."

"One comforting thought is the fact that we won our last four games in a row in 1968, shutting out three of those opponents."

Taber said he thinks his team could go all the way this year, if they can get by the first three ball games in good shape.

GPUS opens its season on September 12, by taking on Southern Thumb League power, Almont, at home.

Ed Lauer, athletic director at St. Paul High School for the past 31 years, thinks his school's gridiron representatives will be "small but tough."

"With any luck, we should be able to improve on last year's five won-two-lost-one tied record," said Ed. "Head Coach George Sahadi plans on working the boys hard this fall and getting them into good football condition by the time we open the season against St. David's High, on September 14, at Grosse Pointe High South's field."

"The boys have been conscientiously keeping themselves in shape during the summer months," he added. "Right now, I'd have to say our biggest challenge will come from St. Clement's High in Centerline. They're always tough on us."

Next week, the NEWS will talk with Ed Wernet at Grosse Pointe High North and Coach Larry Rancilio at Austin. The dark football futures outlined so far by the Pointe coaches make the bleak forecasts made famous by Notre Dame's Frank Leahy look quite mild.

"I'm embarrassed to have to field such a poor quality team," Leahy would tell sportswriters before the start of another football season. "Why, I'll be amazed if they can even score a touchdown."

Inevitably, Leahy's Irishmen would roll over their opponents with crushing exactness as they battled their way to another national title.

We predict some of the same for our Grosse Pointe grid-ders.

People who profit by mistakes have really made none.

Park's Splash Bash Success

By Karen Ulmer
Grosse Pointe Park's First Annual Splash Bash was a dripping success, if judged by the participation and enthusiasm of Park residents who joined the fun at Windmill Pointe Park's new pool on Sunday, August 3.

The "Bash," as it was affectionately nicknamed by the Park lifeguards, consisted of games, races, and prizes for all ages.

Highlights of the event were the goldfish chase and the penny scramble. Contestants were rewarded for their efforts by being able to keep any goldfish and pennies recovered in the pool. Goldfish chasers even received a bonus: paper cups to carry the fish home, donated as prizes by Hank's Hamburger Haven.

New owners of goldfish are Charleen Friend, Chip Gauthier, Terry Kolar, Mickey Montagne, Pete Osetek, Dave Ruth and John Schwarz.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Montagne received the loving cup award for their superior performance in the parents' three-armed (hand-holding) race.

Winner of a rubber air mattress in the kickboard race was Eric Rodin. Theresa Blake won a punch ball and a rubber ball after her smashing defeat of all opposition in the balloon race.

Bob Czechowicz was awarded a diving face mask following a valiant struggle to complete the blindfold race, and Mickey Montagne received a cookbook as was appropriate for a winner of a cookie eating race.

Bob Fitzgibbons walked away with a bag of oranges won in the orange race, and Chris Gauthier, defending champion of the spoon-and-egg race, has a giant egg (watermelon) to show for his efforts.

Mary O'Donnell won a bag of candy kisses in the mystery race, and Yvonne Thomas received a bottle of suntan lotion as a booby prize in that event. But no one really lost in THAT race; after all, the girls had to kiss a male lifeguard in order to complete the race!

AS4 Hugh R. Wanke Wins Bronze Star

Army Specialist Four Hugh R. Wanke Jr., 22, whose parents live at 1224 Devonshire road, received the Bronze Star Medal July 10 near Nha Trang, Vietnam.

Spec. Wanke was presented the award for meritorious service in ground operations against hostile forces in Vietnam.

At the time of presentation, he was a light vehicle driver in the 21st Signal Group's Headquarters Detachment.

The specialist entered the Army in January 1968, completed basic training at Ft. Knox, Ky., and arrived in Vietnam in June 1968.

Schools Submit Progress Report

Mrs. Mary Hykes, president of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, closed the regular meeting on Monday, August 11, with a progress report of the board's activities. It is reprinted in full below.

"This evening you heard us authorize the Linn Smith Architectural Firm to draw up a master plan for South High. Within 60 days we expect to have specific plans which we can translate into an action program.

"During the past two months the Trustees of the Board of Education have spent many hours in studying and discussing the recommendations of the three school study committees: Millage, Middle School and South High. We have spent even more hours in the study of this year's budget approved tonight and also in projected budgets up through 1972.

"We are all aware, I am sure, that the Governor makes recommendations to the state legislature in October. We are fairly certain that there will be no financial help for Grosse Pointe. The Trustees are anxiously awaiting results of this report.

Salary negotiations among our own employ groups are still being negotiated for the coming year. Results this year will naturally affect the budget for 1970 and 1971.

Even though we are most anxious to announce definite plans for the millage election, all of these items impede the decision making process at the local level.

However, at the September 8 meeting, the Board expects to take action on setting the DATE and the AMOUNT for the funds that we will need for our program requirements.

Circuit Court Judge's Stolen Car Recovered

A traffic arrest by Woods police on Wednesday, August 6, resulted in the recovery of a stolen car belonging to a Wayne County Circuit Court Judge.

While on patrol shortly before 5 p.m., Patrolman James Davidson observed a vehicle cutting in and out of heavy traffic on Mack avenue near Moross road. The vehicle was clocked at speeds over 60 miles per hour.

After turning east on Moross, the driver of the vehicle was pursued by Davidson for a short distance. The officer attempted to pull the driver over to the side of the road by using the patrol car's blue light and siren, but the driver would slow down, pull to the curb and then proceed to again speed up and pull away.

After several repetitions of this maneuver, Officer Davidson ordered him to pull over and stop over the loudspeaker system of the police vehicle. The man refused, but was finally brought to a halt on Williams and Moross.

The driver of the vehicle, Robert A. Ralston, of 8314 Milner, Detroit, was placed under arrest, when he was unable to produce a driver's license or registration.

At the time of his arrest, Ralston appeared to be in a dazed condition, according to Davidson.

Ralston claimed the automobile belonged to an uncle, but a further check of the car's glove compartment revealed that the car was registered to Judge Nathan Kaufman, of 17533 Freeland, Detroit.

After handcuffing Ralston, Davidson requested the assistance of Farms police and Patrolmen Donald Dewey and Gordon Evans, of the Farms police, arrived to bring in the vehicle, while Davidson escorted Ralston to the station.

The suspect was placed in a cell, while a call was placed by police to the Kaufman residence.

Although Kaufman was not at home at the time of the call, he contacted Woods police a short time later and reported that his car had been stolen from a parking lot at Congress and Randolph in Detroit.

After being informed of his rights, Ralston said he had been drinking and that he was "crazy." He was confined to a cell while awaiting an examination date.

Tuesday, August 12
MORE THAN 100 ALLIED BASES across South Vietnam were shelled by enemy gunners today in the heaviest attacks in more than two months. This new offensive could mean that the enemy is preparing for an autumn campaign, a military spokesman said.

A VIOLENT WIND and rain storm that hit the Wisconsin state fair, collapsed tents and downed power lines injuring at least 134 people. Most of the injuries, none serious, occurred when three large tents along the fair's main mall fell. The storm tore through West Allis, a Milwaukee suburb around 3:30 p.m. Monday.

FILCHES PHONES
Mrs. Benjamin Jeffries reported to city police on Monday, July 28, the theft of eight intercom telephones from the building area on the new Fisher Mews site, on Fisher road, sometime between 7:30 p.m. Saturday, July 26, and Monday, July 28.

St. Paul Football Practice Slated

St. Paul High School's football team will begin practice at Kerby Field on Monday, August 25. Players will pick up their equipment on Saturday, August 16, at 11 a.m. in the school gym. Medical examinations will be given at this time and every player has to be examined by a physician before he begins football practice as required by state law. Mouth-guards are another requirement the state demands and this may be done by calling Dr. Koerber at TUxedo 4-5000 for an appointment to be fitted for a custom mouthpiece. There is no charge for either the physical or the mouth guard. George Sahadi is the head coach, moving up from the line coaching position, and Greg Pilarski is the new offensive line coach. Charles Wincer is the new defensive backfield coach. John Garvin will be the new coach for the seventh and eighth graders who will begin practice on Wednesday, August 20, at 5:30 p.m.

The first league game is against St. David's at Grosse Pointe South Field on September 14 at 2:30 p.m. New teams to be met for the first time will be Salesian, St. Hedwig, and St. Alphonsus. In all there will be an eight game schedule. The returning lettermen from last year's squad are Captain Terry Allard, Dennis Nally, Len MacEachin, Bob Evancho, Gordie Piche, Gary Greiner, Bob Knott, Mike Nally, Mike McShane and Greg Martin.

Other Side of The Picture

What kind of a picture does the word teenager conjure up? A girl with long, straight hair, pale lips, pierced ears, short skirts? A boy with long hair, tight jeans, no socks and love beads?

Maybe so... but then as I recall, (in the olden days when I was a girl), teenager meant loafers without heels, long long baggy sweaters, frizzy hair, dark lipstick and jeans.

The styles may have changed but adults' reactions have not. We still say, "What's happening to our children today? They don't appreciate. They don't accomplish anything. They don't look clean. And the music they listen to—Simon and Garfunkel, The Beatles, The Jefferson Airplane." Have we forgotten when we swooned over Frank Sinatra and raced after the moon with Vaughn Monroe?

I can remember vividly my mother's disapproval and bewilderment at my teenage antics, but somehow through it all, most of my friends grew up to be intelligent, mature, normal adults... So will our current crop of teenagers!

But, if you are still a skeptic let me point with pride to some of our local teens.

Recently the South High Mothers' Club held their annual meeting. Those present had the opportunity to see for themselves the kind of children we're raising. It was a delightful sight to behold.

Musical entertainment was provided by Leonard Riccinto's Choraleers, and Towerbelles. Their music brought tears of pride to the eyes of those in the audience... sensitive music, presented by sensitive youngsters, trained by a sensitive talent teacher. How can you beat that combination?

A fashion show displaying the talents of students from the Homemaking classes of Constance Kinner and Sybil Jaeger followed the musical presentation. Everything from gay, colorful bell bottoms and sun suits to tailored coat and dress ensembles were modeled by pert, young gals. Their work was enough to make any woman envious of this young talent.

The exhibits from the Industrial Arts Department would put some of the fine Grand Rapids furniture to shame. Instructor Eugene Wolonick's metal work students and Leslie Reame's Woodworking students displayed pieces that any home would be proud to contain. Such things as wrought iron coffee tables, book ends in cast aluminum, salad sets, cigaret lighters, patio chairs, lamps... and nine-piece dining room sets like the one created by Brian Klovski, of Wayburn avenue. (Brian also made a grandfather clock and drop leaf mahogany table.)

Among the wood projects were sewing chests, clocks of all types, (grandfather, grandmother, and mantel), dining room tables and an early American, antique, pine hutch created by Perry Fravetone, of Lakepointe avenue, that had the ladies oo-ing and ah-ing. Perry also had a grandfather clock and chest of drawers on display. He hopes to go into creative cabinet making upon graduation.

The Fine Arts Department presented work of students in Mrs. Lorraine Christy's Art Exploration classes, Mrs. Julia Meighan's Applied Life Drawing Classes, Marjorie Stocker's Creative Crafts classes, Arline McFeater's Advanced Design and Graphic Communications classes and Jack Summers' Drawing and Painting classes. The works were imaginative, colorful and bursting with talent.

NOW after hearing all this, what comes to mind when you hear teenager? How about trying, alive, talented, creative and intelligent?

Teeth have been successfully transplanted at the University of Michigan. Two bicuspids from a teenage girl were transplanted to her younger brother.

One cigarette destroys 25mg of vitamin C in the body. Alcohol also affects vitamin C.

Each year, about 4,000 Americans are blinded by glaucoma that could have been controlled through early detection and treatment.

If heart disease could be eliminated as a cause of death, there would be a six year increase in life expectancy for the average white male under sixty.

Antibiotics now clear up mastoiditis, which one required surgery and often resulted in hearing loss.

Public Schools in Focus

I wish to provide supplementary background material on the request for classroom facilities at North High by the Wayne County Community College by summarizing a decade of county-wide activity leading up to this event.

- 1. The Michigan Legislative study of 1958 recommended the location of 2 3-proposed new community colleges. 2. The Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters prepared an exhaustive study in 1964 on the growth of the community college movement. The forward states: "Believing that the community college is daily becoming more important, the Michigan legislature has authorized the Wayne County Intermediate School District to make studies to determine which areas could join together to support a community college. Preliminary findings show that part of Detroit, Harper Woods and Grosse Pointe would have enough potential students to make a community college for this area feasible..."

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:—We have been receiving complaints from Grosse Pointe residents that a man phones them representing himself as Welcome Wagon, for information on birth of babies and newcomers into the area. Welcome Wagon representatives are women, who live in the community. The good name of Welcome Wagon is a valuable asset built up by our efforts over 41 years of service to the community. We will take all appropriate steps to insure that it remains unspoiled by irresponsible people. Anyone further annoyed with such calls may phone WO 1-7750, with name and address of persons misrepresenting Welcome Wagon. L. Hutschenreuther 20831 Vernier Rd. Harper Woods, Mich.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

"To work in a firm or institution that has a well stocked special library, organized and directed by a wise and alert librarian, is a rich and fruitful experience."

"The organization that wants facts and information instead of guesses and opinions finds the well-organized library the most efficient research tool and the greatest economy in time and effort. It contributes to the three processes basic to civilization; the discovery of knowledge, the conservation of knowledge, and the transmission of knowledge."

These are the opening paragraphs of the May issue of THE ROYAL BANK OF CANADA MONTHLY LETTER in an article entitled, "Putting Knowledge to Work." In reading the entire piece, I felt that many of the points made were equally applicable to a public library such as ours. Here are some of the most salient ones.

I was greatly cheered by one professional's contention that a capable librarian with a telephone, several almanacs, year-books and a dictionary and daily newspaper would be of more benefit to a company, (or in our case, our patrons), than a book collection of thousands of volumes with no one to direct their use.

Thus, by inference, the trained librarian is not only useful but vital to the success of any library. It would be futile and frustrating to turn loose in a well-stocked library any person who was not used to seeing more than small groups of books together. He would be too overwhelmed by the riches at his command to make the best use of them. Thus, the professional becomes the liaison officer between the inquirer and the source of information.

How many people, continues this article, realize the diversity of the librarian's activities? He has an intensive knowledge of his own collection; he knows how to trace materials; how to obtain materials from many and varied sources. He has an alert mind, an interest in the world, an interest in his work. He has patience, intuition, imagination and an orderly manner of thought. He is not a man in an ivory tower. He's interested in people, events, organizations.

24 percent of all college students attend two-year colleges, and the figure is 25 percent for the nation.

What's New on THE HILL

Plan Aheaders... and last-minute types are equally happy shopping on the Hill. Newsy merchandise and friendly service are conveniently available. In gathering material for the column we were reminded how many farsseeing Pointers have completed back-to-school wardrobes for the family and have started Christmas ordering of personalized presents. We also noted how easily a down-to-the-deadline gift was selected, beautifully wrapped and delivered on time.

Order... monogrammed place cards now for Christmas presents. This is a thoughtful, personal gift, and useful, too. One lady we know ordered eight boxes in the Top Shop at the League Shop. One hundred attractive cards cost four-ninety-five. There are many styles and a pallet of colors from which to choose.

It's Collection Time... at special once-a-year prices. Caron's eau de cologne in Fleurs de Rocaille, Muguet and Bellodgia, regularly ten dollars are now six seventy-five. Nuit de Noel and Pois de Senteur, regularly eleven dollars are now eight dollars. Narcisse Noir, regularly six dollars is now four seventy-five. Tabac Blond regularly seven twenty-five is now six dollars. Gather a bouquet of fragrances and save at Trail Apothecary, 121 Kercheval.

Memo From Margaret Rice... Set aside Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday... August 18, 19 or 20. Come to see the famous Helga of California Collection. It will be modeled informally from 10:30 till 4:30. We hope you will join us.

Knowledgeable Knits... by Florence Eiseman for back-to-school have just arrived at Young Clothes, 116 Kercheval. You'll love the new styles in checks, houndstooth and solid colors... slacks, tops, dresses and jumpers all in the distinctive Eiseman manner.

Needlepointers Attention... the Mermaid has a Queen Anne mahogany footstool with muslin just waiting for you to cover in your own needlepoint design. It is fifty dollars.

Antique-ing... at Denier, 77 Kercheval, we admired an antique book rack with a small drawer made of mellow wood. It would be a handsome accent piece for a man's desk or a library table.

Pongracz Jewelers... 91 Kercheval, has been advised by Towle Manufacturing Company, Silver-smiths, that Old Master and El Grandee flatware patterns will go on special sale, August 24. Start planning to take advantage of this now... TUXedo 1-8400.

Season Hopping... at Virginia Williams, 79 Kercheval, is a matter of decoratives. In the new shipment of candle holders and rings we previewed Thanksgiving and Christmas... lots of every day pretties, too, at mini-prices.

"Modern Bidding Systems in Bridge"... Win Malchie tells us is a new lucid account of all modern systems and conventions including Acol, The Two Club System, Goren, Standard American and Kaplan Scheinwald. The book is compiled by J. C. H. Fox and available at the Card Rack, 93 Kercheval... 886-8826.

Campus-Bound Trunks... will include Sport Tempo coordinates from Angels, 115 Kercheval. Style-wise, short pleated skirts, tunics, jumpers and tops go together in your own fashion mix. There's also an excellent selection of knits. Ensembles start at seventy-five dollars.

Frame A Friend... or a favorite scene in a versatile lucite frame. At the League Shop, there's a new selection of block horizontal or thin vertical frames from small to large. The picture slides in and does not have to fit. As a matter of fact, a border of lucite shows off your photo beautifully. Prices start at two-fifty.

Reservations... can be made for dinner at the Bronze Door up to 7:30, but because of the seating capacity at 123 Kercheval, tables can't be held after that. We all know how annoying it is to be waiting for a table and to see several vacant ones with reserve signs on them... 886-1932.

From Another Pointe of View

The Detroit Yacht Club's annual midsummer Venetian Nights are this weekend, with festivities scheduled to begin tomorrow when the youngsters gather at the Club for their very own Children's Festival.

There'll be merry-go-rounds, live pony rides, fun, games and ice cream throughout the afternoon and, in the evening, the Slightly Older Sets, (ages 16 to 21), will dance outdoors in DYC's Starlite Circle under a canopy of thousands of tiny Italian lights.

Two bands will play for the Juniors: The Rationals and the Enrodminas.

Saturday's for adults and starts off with DYC's 43rd annual Fleet Review at 1 o'clock.

This Water Parade of gaily-bedecked craft cruises down the Detroit river to come abreast of Fleet Captain John Uznis' yacht, the "Evelyn U," where Commodore Ken Gonsolus, Vice Commodore William Cohan and Rear Commodore Joseph Bellardi salute as the cannon is fired.

Among others scheduled to be aboard the "Evelyn U" are Dr. and Mrs. Douglas Wake, the Karl Konzelmanns, the John Uznises, Jr., George Uznis and his fiancée Mary Ann Wake, the Howard Collins and the Charles Webbers.

After the Fleet Review Commodore Gonsolus will present prizes to the best-decorated floats.

In the evening Italian lights and Venetian lanterns will cast a soft glow over party-goers dancing in Starlite Circle to Eddie Santini's rhythms, dining to the music of Phil Gerard and his Venetian Pipers, enjoying Joe Kardos' Dixieland Sound near the pool, centered for the evening with a fountain and an island "garden."

Here and there you may see Mr. and Mrs. David Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Vintzel, Cynthia Gonsolus, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kubas, Mr. and Mrs. William Eastman, Commodore and Mrs. Thomas Tompkins, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cherhan, Dr. and Mrs. George M. D'you Know That?
BY PAUL SCHWEITZER

Ever wonder why a Ship is ALWAYS REFERRED TO AS SHE? . . . Could it be, it's "because She always has men — on the lookout!" . . .

But there's more to Ships' names than you'd realize. Did you know that all U.S. Navy vessels are named in accordance to a resolution of Congress passed in 1819?

Now, this is the custom: Battleships are named after States . . . Cruisers, after cities . . . Destroyers, after known people . . . Submarines have fish names . . . Minesweepers, birds . . . Oilers, rivers . . . Ocean-tugs are named after Indian tribes and Cargo-ships after stars.

Speaking of names, our own name, SCHWEITZER, is largely a matter of reputation . . . ## Parties Planned by DBC Women

A slight smattering of work mixed in with a lot of summertime leisure produces the kind of August the Women's Committee of the Detroit Boat Club likes best.

Two big dates glitter in its future calendar—the first an end-of-summer highlight and the second a brilliant prelude to autumn.

Mrs. Robert S. Gay will head the second annual Dock Daze fete on Wednesday, Aug. 20. It's scheduled to start with cocktails at noon around the club pool and then spill out into deck parties aboard cruisers drawn up at the docks.

A floating salad luncheon will be served to party guests, all of whom seem to be saving their favorite Lilly's as the uniform of the day.

Co-hosting with Mrs. Gay is Mrs. Dan Abbey. Committee members include Mrs. Donald Henkelman, Mrs. Eugene Dawber, Mrs. Emil Heinrich, Mrs. Warren Oakley, Mrs. Kenneth Locke, Mrs. Don W. Miller, Mrs. Stanley Smith, Mrs. Robert Hodge, Mrs. Richard Shannon, Mrs. Milton Weed, Mrs. James Owen and Mrs. J. Ross Bush. Mrs. Bush is the over-all head of the Club's Women's Committee this year.

Color many of these same women your favorite volunteer shade, because they are simultaneously involved in the gigantic September fashion show extravaganza set for Wednesday, September 17, titled "Temptations Past, Present and Future."

Mrs. Miller of Lakecrest lane, is power-steering this one and some of the Dock Dazers helping are Mrs. Locke, Mrs. Henkelman, Mrs. Dawber, Mrs. Shannon, Mrs. Abbey, Mrs. Weed and Mrs. Bush.

Others on the committee are Mrs. Robert H. Kennedy, co-chairman; Mrs. Ernest Ray, Mrs. William J. Kirby, Mrs. George L. Derr, Mrs. Dan M. Carne, Mrs. John R. Barlow, Mrs. Jesse C. Hurley, Mrs. John O. Peters, Mrs. Arthur H. Engstrom, Mrs. Herbert E. Cook and Mrs. John C. Cook.

Each Tuesday morning throughout the summer the women have been gathering at

Mrs. Miller's home for workshop sessions at which table centerpieces for the party have been taking shape.

To celebrate getting the job done, Mrs. Kennedy whisked the whole group up to her Har- sen's Island summer home last Tuesday, August 12, for a breeze swept lawn luncheon.

One of the more fascinating tasks the party planners have taken upon themselves is closet-leuthing for treasurers harking back to the 20's and 30's that are expected to be woven into the fashion show by commentator Mary Morgan of CKLW. Fresh-off-the-drawing-board costumes depicting present day favorites will be swept onto the runway by B. Siegel Company.

Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Kennedy, however are keeping the "Temptations Future" segment a moon-shrouded mystery.

DOG BITE

Martin Terrien, 686 Neff, reported to City police on Thursday, July 31, that he was bitten in the stomach by a male beagle owned by Nell Selander, 546 Neff, on that date. Terrien was treated at Bon Secours Hospital and released. The dog was quarantined for 10 days.

Married Saturday, August 9, in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church were NANCY ANNE IVANSO and Mr. Green. She is the daughter of the Eugene V. Ivansos, of Lakepointe avenue. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Green, of Charlotte, N.C.

Frederick K. Cody, Mrs. William Bavinger and Mrs. Robert J. Mason among its Board members. How can you help? Well, St. Peter Claver could use more equipment, second-hand golf clubs, baseball bats, things like that . . . If you have any you think might be useful, give Mrs. Lynch a call at TUxedo 2-3918.

A New Chapter Begins

Nature provided a perfect setting for the garden party and reception attended by numerous friends of the Durell S. Richardses at their home in Westchester road a few weeks ago, marking the 50th anniversary of Mr. Richards' association with the investment firm of Charles A. Parcels and Company.

The host, Slogan Contest winner in the Grosse Pointe Beautification Council's Anti-Litter Campaign, is currently working on a book which will review intimately some of his observations and experiences covering "Five Decades in Detroit."

It should be a fascinating story for the author is a fascinating man: A 1913 Yale graduate who deliberately projected himself penniless into the harvest fields of North Dakota where "before the wheat was ripe for treshing he had worked on the roads for $1 a day until the blisters hung down like string from each hand" . . . who patrolled the Mexican border in 1916-17 and served in World War I before locating in Michigan . . . who, with Bill Stout, Parker Van Zandt and others was active in 1927 in the establishment of Scenic Airways at the Grand Canyon in Arizona, (this dramatic pioneering venture was an early casualty of the Great Depression, but its record is a thriller!)

He's always written. His attic, he says, is cluttered with old manuscripts of adventure, philosophy, market observations and drama, "interspersed with much poetry of doubtful or uncertain quality." Somehow, we doubt that "doubtful."

Fete Bride-Elect Carol Ruthven

Pre-nuptial parties for Carol Jean Ruthven, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Robert N. Ruthven, of Newberry place, ended yesterday with a luncheon given at the Detroit Athletic Club by Mrs. J. Lee Barrett.

Carol and Mark Roy Bendure, son of the Howard Bendures, of Detroit, will exchange marriage vows in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church this Saturday, August 16.

June festivities honoring the bride-elect included a dinner given by Mrs. Robert Miles and Mrs. Joseph Perry at the Perry home in Lewiston road, a luncheon given by Mrs. Thomas Groehn, of Lochmoor boulevard, and a shower given by Mrs. Richard Reins, of Newberry place.

Also in June, Carol and Elsie Caulkins, now Mrs. Samuel Wadley Childs, were feted at a tea by Newberry neighbors Mrs. O. R. Aronson and Mrs. Homer Swander.

Entertaining August 2 at a dinner and shower in Carol's honor was Mrs. Raoul Hubel, of Detroit.

Parties Honor Mary Einfeldt

Pre-nuptial parties for bride-elect Mary Einfeldt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence B. Einfeldt, of Stephens road, began with a luncheon and "Round the Clock" shower given by Cheryl Burns in her Holiday road home.

Cheryl is an Alpha Gamma Delta sorority sister of the bride's at the University of Michigan and will be a bridesmaid in the August 16 wedding of Mary to Frederick Erwin Haass in Christ Church.

Mrs. John Allmand, of Newberry place, godmother of the bridegroom, entertained July 27 at a couples' shower and dinner party.

Honoring the bride at a miscellaneous shower and luncheon on August 2 in her Deeplands court will be Mrs. Leo Vaught. Mrs. Karl Bahr has planned a garden and dinner party for the couple in her home on Beacon Hill August 8.

The bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Haass, of Stephens road, will give the rehearsal dinner at the Little Club August 15 and the Einfeldts will entertain at a reception following the ceremony at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.
