Thursday, September 25
SENATORS Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania and Robert P. Griffin of Michigan were elected to the positions of Senate Republican leader and assistant leader respectively yesterday. The elections of the two liberals came as a shock to conservative Republicans in the Senate. Griffin has been representing Michigan in the Senate for three years.

CLASSES RESUMED at Cooley High School Wednesday after the school was closed to avert the racial unrest occurring since last Friday. Small incidents have occurred since the reopening but school officials said fighting was not serious.

SENATOR CHARLES E. GOODELL, R-N.Y., has made a proposal called "Vietnam Disengagement Act" which would forbid spending of any funds to maintain troops in Vietnam after December 1, 1970. Goodell said the deadline in his proposal would put the necessary pressure on the South Vietnamese to take over the burden of the war, as President Nixon hopes.

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN students, protesting a plan to open a university-run bookstore, staged a sit-in Thursday night in the Literature, Science and Arts Building. University president Robben Fleming, attempted to talk with the students but was shouted down. After a meeting with Ann Arbor Mayor Robert Harris and Police Chief Walter Krasny Fleming decided to ask for court action.

Saturday, September 27
PRESIDENT NIXON SAID Friday he wants to end the Vietnam war in 1970. He added that any move by Congress to set a deadline on troop withdrawals would undercut his goal. He pleaded for "more public support" in order to convince the communists that they must negotiate.

THE GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCED Friday that elderly Medicare patients who go to hospitals next year will have to pay a larger share of their hospital bills. Robert M. Ball, Social Security Commissioner, said "The increase is a result of the long-term trend toward increasing hospital costs and also, results in part from the general inflation that has been taking place."

Sunday, September 28
THE CZECHOSLOVAK GOVERNMENT resigned Saturday in what appeared to be the first stage of a vast shake-up involving the ouster of Alexander Dubcek and many other progressives. Premier Oldrich Cernik, once an associate and lately a critic of Dubcek, was reconfirmed in his post and given the job of forming a new cabinet.

GOVERNOR MILLIKEN REVEALED Friday night that his six-member Education Reform Commission, will recommend a parochial subsidy amounting to $32 million in its first full year. The subsidy will be equal to two percent of the Michigan public school operation budget.

Monday, September 29
THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC parties led by Chancellor Kurt Georg Kiesinger won 46 percent of the vote, a slight margin, in Sunday's election in Bonn, Germany. The voting smashed the parliamentary ambitions of the neo-Nazi National Democratic Party.

Tuesday, September 30
THE ARMY DROPPED murder charges against six U. S. Green Berets in Vietnam because the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) would not let its agents testify at their trial. Army Secretary Stanley R. Resor ordered the action on grounds that the six Special Forces officers accused of killing alleged double agent Thai Khac Chuyen could not get a fair trial without CIA testimony.

Stupid Parker Gets Away With Murder

Most Pointe residents and city officials will be the first to admit that public parking is a real problem throughout the community, but few would so flagrantly disregard the parking laws as did the driver of this automobile. In a selfish attempt to save himself a few steps while on a shopping trip, he wantonly parked the vehicle smack in the middle of a "walk-through" space in the Farms parking lot in Kercheval-On-The-Hill, creating not only a traffic hazard, but also making it unpleasant for many shoppers, who had to push their shopping carts much farther before finding another "walk-through" to gain access to the other lane. Although witnesses to this senseless act called police, they claim that the vehicle was never ticketed and remained in the "walk-through" for more than one-half hour after the call was made.

PTA Council Gives Approval to Three Ballots Proposals

Propositions to Be Voted on at November 11 School Election Endorsed at Meeting Attended by 50 Representatives

The Grosse Pointe PTA Council delegates unanimously endorsed the three ballot propositions which the Board of Education will put to the electorate on Tuesday, November 11.

The first ballot proposition will permit the schools to maintain their current level of operation for the next two years. School officials reminded the delegates that all the voted operational millage expires in 1969.

The second proposition will provide for curriculum improvement and the third seeks permission to renovate South High.

Among the speakers were Mrs. Paul G. Hykes, president of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, who reviewed the study done by the trustees prior to the Board's official action, taken on September 8.

Guided by Reports
"Although the final decision rested with the seven elected trustees, we were guided by the reports filed by the Millage Study Committee and the South High Study Committee, two groups of 50 citizens each, who met from October until June, and who delved into all aspects of the school's operation," she said.

Mrs. Hykes said that the Millage Study Committee had recommended a continuation of the schools' present educational program, which will be financed by an operational millage of 25.45 over the next two years. A second ballot will permit residents to vote on 75 of a mill program improvements recommended by the representative Millage Study Committee.

Would Boost Capacity
The project will increase the student capacity of South High School by 600 to 700 students, Mr. Riha said. He added that the architects have adopted as a basic guide in the current study the report of the South High School Study Committee, which studied the school plant intensively from October through June.

Election in City Set for Nov. 4
City of Grosse Pointe voters will go to the polls on Tuesday, November 4, to elect a mayor and three councilmen. The mayor's tenure of office is two years and the councilmen's tenure, four years.

The terms of Mayor David E. Burgess, Councilmen John R. Hamann, George D. Henry and George N. Monroe, III, expire in November.

Nominating petitions, with no less than 20, or more than 40 names of registered, qualified voters, must be filed by noon on Saturday, October 11. There is a $5 filing fee. Petitions may be obtained at the City Clerk's office during business hours.

Pair Accused in Dope Case Face Circuit Court Trial
Two 21-year-old Pointers, accused of illegal possession and sale of narcotics, were bound over for trial in Wayne County Circuit Court by Park Municipal Judge William E. Speer on Wednesday, September 24.

Awaiting a hearing in Circuit Court, are James R. Sweet, of 1428 Somerset, and Ralph E. Watson, of 1180 North Oxford. Sweet was released on $2,000 bond, reduced from $5,000; and Watson's bond of $2,000 was continued, and he was also released. A trial date is pending.

William L. Sweet, 22, of 7142 Riverside, Marine City, brother of James Sweet, who was arrested in James' home on September 8 and originally charged with frequenting a place of illegal occupation, was found guilty of disorderly conduct and sentenced to six months probation by Judge Speer.

The disorderly conduct charge was recommended by City Attorney Richard Rohr. William promptly, through his attorney, announced he would appeal. He was released after posting a bond of $100, until a hearing date is set.

Senior Men Hold Election Of Officers

The annual meeting of the Grosse Pointe Senior Men's Club was held in the War Memorial on Tuesday, September 23, when the club celebrated its Tenth Anniversary.

Following yearly reports submitted by the several officers, the nominating committee headed by Ira Reindel, suggested a slate of candidates for officers and directors. Their recommendations were unanimously approved. They follow.

For two year terms as directors: — Erwin H. Foersterling, Sterling S. Rees, Lawrence J. Ruby and Dr. Floyd E. Straith. All of the newly elected Seniors assumed office October 1. The hold-over directors are: Hugh W. McTavish, Bernard H. Ronan, Herbert Schumann and Fay L. Seeley.

The retiring president, Forrest W. Maker, was presented with a silver bowl as a token of esteem from his associates. Mr. Manker, his retiring officers and directors were given a rising vote of thanks for their dedicated service and successful administration during the year.

President King has named chairmen of 18 committees who will direct the various Club activities during the ensuing fiscal year which began October 1.

The Senior Men's Club of Grosse Pointe, Inc., that now comprises 673 members, is the outgrowth of nine retired men who met on July 15, 1959, with John Lake, Executive Secretary of the War Memorial, to organize a club of retired business and professional men.

The group holds regular luncheon meetings at the Memorial Center on the second and fourth Tuesday each month.

Walker L. Cisler, Chairman of the Board, Detroit Edison Co., will talk before the Senior Men October 14 on the subject, "Energy, Earth and Space"; on October 14, Russell A. Swaney, president, Economic Club of Detroit and recently retired senior vice president of the Federal Reserve Bank, Detroit branch, will speak on "Manufactured Money."

Check Shows All Pointes Have Problem
Deliberate Destruction of Sidewalk Repairs Condoned and Participated in by Parents

In response to a NEWS story of last week, which reported senseless incidents of vandalism by youngsters in a number of Woods' sidewalk repair areas, city administrators of all five Pointes this week openly censured those persons who are responsible for such acts within their own communities.

"We can really sympathize with the Woods and their situation," said John DeFoe, Farms director of Public Service. "We've had our share of problems in sidewalk repairs, too." DeFoe pointed out that the Farms has nearly completed an extensive sidewalk patching project throughout the city and spent more than $9,000 in making the necessary repairs.

"We plan on keeping a close watch on these areas and exercise due process of law when it comes to prosecuting those individuals who choose to get their 'kicks' by wrecking our repairs," DeFoe said. "If necessary, we will increase our police patrols in those areas just to double check on the situation."

Although DeFoe claimed it would be difficult to try and top some of the flagrant incidents of sidewalk vandalism reported by Woods City Manager Chester Petersen, he said the Farms has experienced some equally absurd acts.

"We actually had a case where a young mother approached a cement patch with her child, made sure it was still wet and proceeded to hold her child's hand while the youngster wrote her name in the cement," DeFoe lamented. "I cannot understand the mental makeup of a person who would be brazen enough to do such a thing. It's senseless and just costs the taxpayers more money to repour the damaged area."

Thomas Kressbach, Grosse Pointe City administrator, told the NEWS that his community will not begin a new sidewalk repair project until the spring, but that the City has experienced a number of vandalistic acts on patch repairs in the past.

Cause Additional Expense
"We are not being 'picky' in this area," said Kressbach. "These acts place a totally needless burden and additional expenses on property owners and/or taxpayers. Not only does wrecking the cement require us to repair the damaged surfaces, but it also makes it necessary for us to increase our police surveillance of the areas during the time of repairs."

Kressbach pointed out that a recently-completed repair project on the sidewalks bordering the premises of the Neighborhood Club, which was financed by both the City and the Board of Education, was delayed by a number of incidents of vandalism, in which several patches were destroyed and a number of others damaged.

"Where it was possible, we smoothed over the wet cement areas, but we were forced to replace some others," he related. "Not only did we have to keep extra police officers and cars checking on the area, but also the contractors for the project had to stay around the repairs until late into the evening hours. In fact, they even enlisted the help of some neighborhood youngsters to help guard their work."

Accepted by Parents
Nunzio Ortisi, Park city clerk, claimed that these wanton acts of vandalism seem to be accepted by too many parents and that the number of such acts "tends to be rather depressing."

"I've personally witnessed youngsters on bikes riding through the freshly poured cement," he said. "I can't understand how parents can fail to teach their children that they must respect the rights and property of others. Perhaps people feel we are leveling too much criticism in this area but I really feel that parents

National Fire Prevention Week Fine Time to Listen To Advice from Experts

Spotlight Put on Five Pointe Departments; Cooperation of All Residents Necessary to Provide Best Possible Service

National Fire Prevention Week, (October 5 to 11), will call attention to the five Pointe fire departments for seven days this year, but, for the remaining 358 days, the well-trained members of these fire-fighting units will be largely ignored by the public until assistance is needed in a hurry.

Although members of the five Pointe firefighting agencies generally work out of the limelight, they are, perhaps, the busiest of our community officials.

"We have men on duty 24 hours a day and we generally average a 56-hour week," said Captain Robert J. Marshall, commander of the City's firefighters. "In addition to protecting the residents of our own community, we are also available to help out in any of the Pointe communities and Harper Woods."

Farms Separates Two
With the exception of the Farms, all the Pointes operate Public Safety Departments, wherein the departments fall under the command of one public safety director, who acts as both police and fire chief. The Woods and Shores each have a combined Police-Fire Department, in which policemen double as firemen.

The Farms has retained two separate departments, with Chief M. William Mason, a 33-year fire department veteran, heading the community's firefighting cadre.

All five Pointe agencies are long-time members of the Mutual Fire Fighting Aid Pact, which requires them to lend assistance to any member city upon request. Harper Woods is also a member of this pact.

Five Three-Man Shifts
"We have 15 men who work in five three-man shifts throughout the week," explained Marshall. "They operate our two trucks and our ambulance service. They train in their particular duties year-long."

Pointe firemen rate near the top of the chart when it comes to training. Although each department establishes its own training schedule, most of the "outside" training for all the firefighters is similar.

Members of the departments attend the classes at the University of Michigan's Extension Service Disaster Center in Ann Arbor and most spend a one-month period of service with the Detroit Fire Department. In addition, some are selected to attend various fire conferences and seminars and others

Death Takes Former Chief Jack F. Roh

Ex-Police Head in Farms Dies in Grand Rapids Exactly One Month After Resigning

Jack F. Roh, who quit as Farms police chief last month, died in St. Mary's Hospital in Grand Rapids on Friday, September 26, following a serious kidney ailment. His death came exactly one month after he resigned from the force on August 26. He was 40 years old, and lived at 1457 Morewood drive, SE.

Services for the former police head were held in the chapel of the Zaagman Funeral Home in Grand Rapids on Monday, September 29. Burial was in Grand Rapids. Four Farms police officers, two of whom acted as pallbearers, represented the Farms Police Department at the services.

Roh's death came as a shock to Farms Mayor William Butler and other city officials. The mayor and other city officials.

"I was shocked to hear of the death of Chief Roh. He was a good man and an excellent police chief, who had, in the three years he headed our Police Department, done so much to upgrade the efficiency of police personnel and law enforcement in our community."

Expresses Sympathy
"On behalf of myself, the members of the city council and the people of Grosse Pointe Farms, I offer our deepest sympathy to Chief Roh's entire family. We regretted he left our community, and we are saddened by his death."

City Manager Andrew Bremser, Jr., who attended the services for Roh, had this to say before he left for Grand Rapids:

"Jack Roh was an excellent police chief. I was shocked to hear that he had died, and I'm sure that many who knew him felt the same way. My sincerest sympathy goes to his wife Norrine, his children and to all his family."

Roh resigned in the Farms to enter into private practice involving plant security and investigation of fraudulent claims. He had formed his own agency in Grand Rapids, his home city, and had received his State license to operate prior to submitting his resignation in the Farms.

Con Artist Robs Woman of $1,650

A con artist operating in the City of Grosse Pointe on Thursday, September 25, walked off with $1,650 belonging to an elderly resident after telephoning her and identifying himself as an FBI agent working with local police on an embezzlement case.

He said she could help by withdrawing the money from her bank and turning it over to him. The woman met the thief at Maumee and Rivard and turned the entire sum over to him.

The con man then fled east on Maumee. He was described as a white middle aged male, of slight build and medium height, wearing dark glasses.

Police asked the NEWS to caution residents against this type of con artist. They said no police department asks this kind of cooperation from residents and indicated if any citizen is approached in this manner they should call their local police department immediately.

are able to receive advanced training at Michigan State University's Fire Inspectors' School in East Lansing.

"The U of M school includes basic, advanced and officers' training classes and is really a top-notch training center," claimed Marshall, who pointed out that National Fire Prevention Week was established as a result of the public concern for fire safety after the great Chicago fire, when Mrs. Murphy's cow gained fame by kicking over a lantern, setting fire to the Windy City.

"As part of this special week, we will conduct a city-wide, house-to-house fire inspection, starting Monday, October 6," said Marshall. "This is a public service to residents and we will only make recommendations. This is not a violation check."

Marshall also said that his department will once again conduct training classes in fire prevention and safety for the new personnel at Bon Secours Hospital. This is an annual training session.

Has Served 41 Years
Captain Henry DeClerck, a 41-year veteran of the Park Fire Department, who is presently the senior man among the community's firefighters, claims his department answers nearly 400 emergency calls annually.

"We have a 24-man department," pointed out DeClerck. "Our men receive much the same training as those in the City, but we also conduct 'on-the-job' training here."

The Park uses two, 2,000-gallon-per-minute pumper trucks and also operates with a 55-foot service truck, equipped with an aerial ladder.

"Although we are called often to render help to residents of the community, we don't mind working hard," he said. "If a resident has any suspicion that something is wrong, he should never hesitate in calling upon us."

Most Are Justifiable
DeClerck said his department does receive false alarm calls throughout the year, but that most are justifiable. Few malicious alarms are recorded, he said.

"I would advise residents to make sure they post their house numbers in such a manner that they are visible at all times," pointed out DeClerck. "This makes it a lot easier on us, if we are called to answer an alarm. In addition, I would like to request that residents make all possible efforts not to obstruct the fire hydrants located throughout the community. Now that winter is not far off, persons should remember not to pile snow around the hydrants because this can cause a serious delay in our firefighting activities."

Shores Director of Public Safety Thomas Cochill pointed out that his 20-man fire department includes eight trained members from the community's department of public works.

"Sgt. Don Jacobs is actually the man who heads our department and is responsible for training schedules and the general upkeep of the unit," said Cochill. "Don makes sure that the men receive at least two hours of inservice training each month."

Cochill, whose department has already responded to 20 fire calls to date this year, stressed common sense in the prevention of fires in homes.

"Residents have to practice fire safety in all areas, including their automobiles," he said. "Careless smoking and the senseless throwing of matches can lead to real trouble. We've had four serious auto fires in the past two years."

Ambulance Runs Free
Captain Henry Marchand, of the Woods Department of Public Safety, pointed out that his department made 263 ambulance runs last year, in addition to 197 fire runs.

"We make ambulance runs at no charge to the public," claimed Marchand. "All our men are trained in first aid and many are forced to make good use of this training throughout the year."

The Woods conducts a unique intra-department fire fighting school, as well as sending many of its public safety officers to various schools around the state.

The school is conducted in an abandoned pumping station, located at Marter and Hollywood roads, which has been outfitted with special equipment in order to help the department simulate actual fire-fighting conditions.

"The wood shingle roof enables us to practice our ladder techniques and we have constructed a second-story window setup to help us in life-saving and climbing operations," pointed out Marchand.

Although all members of the department are trained in fire-fighting techniques, a permanent group of seven men, (six engineers and one fire inspector), makes up the nucleus of the unit.

"Most of the homes in our community were built after World War II," Marchand related. "This means that they are a bit more modern than many of the homes in other communities and our problems are not quite as serious, but we still get an occasionally bad fire."

"If all our residents take extra care in the handling of any combustible material, and, if they practice a little caution in their homes, we can hold our troubles to a minimum," said Marchand. "All it takes to prevent fires is common sense."

Farms Fire Chief William Mason, noting that the chilly time of the year has already arrived, urged all residents of The Pointe to check their heating systems, making doubly sure that the blower motors on furnaces have been oiled.

"Most furnaces have been out of operation for the better part of the year and they could be out of repair," he said. "The winter usually brings a rash of fires because of heating problems."

The Farms has a 20-man fire fighting department, which utilizes a 1,000-gallon per minute pumper truck and an aerial ladder rig. The rescue units and ambulances also fall under the auspices of the fire department.

"I think I speak for all the Pointe firefighters, when I urge residents to use extreme care in their homes to help prevent fires and in asking them to call on the fire department at the first sign of trouble," said Mason.

The raid followed four months of surveillance of the flat and of James Sweet, after authorities received information that he allegedly was selling narcotics.

At the time of the raid, police were armed with a warrant for James' arrest only, but took Watson into custody when he made a sale to the agent.

Park Director of Public Safety William Ellenberg said that the raid dried up a major share of marijuana sales in the Pointe.

ACLU Begins Legal Action Against School Dress Code

By Pepper Whitelaw
Ernie Mazey, president of The American Civil Liberties Union announced at a press conference on Tuesday, September 30, that the ACLU has filed suit in U.S. District Court seeking a temporary restraining order and a preliminary and permanent injunction against the Grosse Pointe Board of Education and Superintendent Theos I. Anderson, both as an individual and as a school superintendent. The Pointe board was named in a suit involving a total of nine school districts and 13 students and their parents.

The Pointers, both students at Grosse Pointe South High School, are involved in the action. Peter Osetek and Thomas Fillion. It is alleged that Fillion was threatened with suspension if he failed to cut his hair according to the School Dress Code. Osetek was suspended September 9, for allegedly violating the section of the code dealing with sideburns. He has since been reinstated since having his sideburns trimmed.

According to Mr. Mazey the action was taken under the Ku Klux Klan Act of 1871 which makes it a federal offense to act under color of the law and deny constitutional rights to any citizen.

The NEWS spoke to Mrs. Jesse Osetek, 1204 Kensington road, Peter's mother, who said, "We feel the entire matter of dress is a family decision. After speaking with Dr. Anderson, who indicated that some parents cannot handle the situation at home. I can only feel sorry for those parents. Peter's sideburns, according to school authorities, were 1/4 to 1/2-inch too long."

Thomas's father, John A. Fillion, 1422 Kensington road, told the NEWS "I am obviously concerned about the suit because I signed it. I just don't understand how the school can concern itself with matters of this type which are not its proper concern but rather a personal and family matter. I really think the Board is trying to lock the door after the horse has been stolen. These hair and dress styles became standard among high school students in Grosse Pointe some time ago. The Board is trying to roll back history. If it felt this way, it should have thought about this action a couple of years ago, but to say now that these styles of hair and dress are distracting just doesn't make sense; the students are used to them.

The result of the ACLU request for action was not available at this writing.

Bad Combination Starts A Blaze

Cigaret lighters and six-year-olds are a bad combination. Witness the fire that resulted from this association Wednesday, September 24, at 17440 Maumee. On that date, City firemen answered with all apparatus to a multiple dwelling residence call to find one of the bedrooms on fire. Firemen entered the room and found it filled with flames and smoke. They used a bonster line to extinguish the flames.

The flames had started to burn the curtains, the bed mattress and the rear of the television set. The flames reached the ceiling. Paint in the room was all blistered and the window glass broken by the heat and flames.

Fortunately quick action by the firefighters contained the fire to the bedroom.

All burned articles were removed from the house and debris disposed of. The apartment was ventilated to rid it of smoke odor.

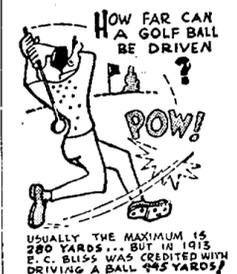

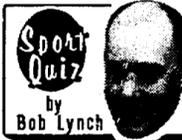

No estimate of the damage was available at this writing.

Teachers, School Officials Study Factfinder's Report

By Pepper Whitelaw
The agreement between the Grosse Pointe Education Association and the Board of Education entered into in 1966 and amended in both 1967 and 1968, expired June 30.

Since that time the Board's team of Richard Kay, director of community services and community services and chief negotiator, Lawrence Kennedy, assistant superintendent-personnel, William Mogk, principal of Pierce, and George Eddington, assistant to the superintendent, have been meeting with the Association's team of Willis Brown, past president, Alexander Essaiades, past vice-president, Maynard A. Leigh, vice-president, negotiations, Jean Palazzolo, vice-president of professional rights and responsibilities, David H. Basehore, president, and W. F. Hoover, negotiator.

While both parties have reached tentative agreements on a number of times, there are certain issues they could not agree upon, consequently factfinder, E. J. Forsythe was called in to analyze the situation.

Matters dealt with in the fact-finding report include salary schedules, longevity, summer school, salary differential for public librarians, holidays for public librarians, definition of retirement, the school calendar, planning time for elementary school teachers, class size and assignment of four consecutive classes.

Both negotiating teams are currently studying the factfinder's report. A meeting of the two teams was to be held on Wednesday, October 1, and results of that meeting were not available at this writing.

Mrs. Hilda Gach, 345 Fisher, reported to City police on Saturday, September 27, that the battery and air conditioner were removed from her car, which was parked at Neff and Mack during the last 10 days awaiting repairs.

Vandals Damage Stores on Mack

Farms police officers, on routine check of business places during the early morning of Wednesday, September 17, discovered vandals had damaged the exterior of several business places on Mack avenue.

Patrolman John Kraiza and Timothy Morrison, in an official report, stated that they were checking doors and property of the Mack commercial area, and found that persons or persons unknown had created damage to four establishments.

The policemen said they discovered that an unknown object was used to smash a 3x5-foot plate glass window at the front of Thomas Hardware, 18680 Mack, and also a 24x24-inch window at the rear of the building. Evidence showed that no entry into the place was attempted.

Two panes of frosted glass were smashed out at the side of the Upper Mack Cleaners, apparently by stones, the patrolmen stated. The place is located at 18500 Mack.

Twelve-inch black plastic letters were pulled off the Scott Shuprine Furniture Building, 18850 Mack. The letters spelled the name of the firm.

Sears' branch store, Mack and Moross, came in for a share of the vandals' senseless destruction.

Kraiza and Morrison said they discovered that the lighted sign, bearing the company's name, was smashed out, and a 4x5-foot rear plate glass window had been shattered by a tossed rock. The policemen found the rock at the scene.

PTA Approves Proposals

The preliminary report reveals that although the plant has been well-maintained through the years, much of it is in poor physical condition by today's standards.

"The plant as a whole is a hodgepodge of buildings and facilities with several additions and acquisitions made over the years without a master plan for long-range development," Mr. Riha commented.

Costs for the extensive renovation project, which includes replacing the Annex and the Quonset hut with new facilities, will be $6,850,000. School officials said that they had requested approval to sell bonds from the Municipal Finance Commission. On a 20-year basis the project would cost between a mill and a mill and a half.

Would Add New Space

Approximately 60,000 square feet of new space would house science, business, homemaking, music, special education, and other departments and facilities. The proposed improvements would enable the school to meet the State Fire Marshal's Code. The final report on the intensive two-month study will be revealed to the Board of Education and to the members of the South High School Committee at a meeting scheduled for October 16.

Ray MacArthur, Director of Business and Finance for The Grosse Pointe Public School System, gave a detailed presentation on the budget needs of the schools for the two year period beginning on July 1, 1970, the period covered by the proposed millage.

He projected the schools' budget through the next two years (1970-71 and 1971-72) to show the rationale used by the Board of Education in setting the amount of operational millage needed.

Now Draining Reserve

He said that although the schools are currently levying 18.50 mills for operation, because they are in the last year of a two-year financing program they are spending the equivalent of 21.36 mills, with the additional amount draining the schools' reserve built for this purpose. budget projections had been calculated to take any possible re-assessments of property into consideration.

Mr. MacArthur said that the reserve built for this purpose. budget projections had been calculated to take any possible re-assessments of property into consideration.

Other reports were made by Dr. Donald Briggs, co-chairman of the Millage Election Committee, by Mrs. Joseph P. Thompson, secretary of the Board of T. Swartz of the recently formed Council for Exceptional Children.

Mrs. Thompson, who also functions as the Board's Legislative Chairman, said that although new methods of financing may soon be forthcoming as a result of the recommendations of the Educational Reform Commission, it is doubtful that they will become operational until after the life of the schools' proposed millage. She said that the proposed changes in school financing might require amendments to the Constitution of the State of Michigan, a time-consuming two or three-year process.

Forsee No Increase

She said that a community with Grosse Pointe's property valuation could expect little more from the State in the form of financial aid than it is currently receiving. She said that the per pupil amount of State Aid declined in 1969-70 to $141.81 from $141.19 in 1968-69.

The meeting, chaired by President Thomas E. Candler, was attended by over 50 representatives of the PTA and related organizations in the school districts 10 elementary, three middle, and two senior high schools.

President Candler announced year will be held at 8 p.m. on that the second meeting of the Monday, November 24, in the second floor Exhibition Room of the Central Library. He said that the meeting would be devoted of a study of the recommendations of Governor Milliken's Educational Reform Commission.

War Memorial Association

"Further it is resolved and recorded that the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association appreciates his years of service on the Board of Directors, his continued support and guidance during the years of expansion to achieve an harmonious whole and his unstinted use of his extraordinary talents in the field of Fine Arts.

"Finally, the standards he set, we will endeavor to retain with the evidence of his good taste to guide us. We shall miss him as a friend but rejoice in the beautiful atmosphere he created for our War Memorial."

Both invocation and benediction for the dinner gathering were offered by the Rev. Arnold A. Fenton, Rector of Christ Church.

Guests were all presented with printed annual reports of the several committee chairmen of the Association. William Croul, treasurer, reviewed the settlement of Revenues and Expenses for the past fiscal year which reflected increased activity and showed the vital importance of the Family Participation Contributions in balancing the Center's Operating Fund. As of July 31, 1969, there was an audited excess of revenues over expenses of $13,342.03. However, this amount was completely consumed in repainting, repairs and redecoration during the two weeks the Center was closed in August.

Alger Sheldon, who was the Association's first President and is Chairman of the Memorial's Investment Committee, reviewed the security holdings of the Association which represent its only endowment. These monies represent special gifts from large donors and income from these wisely invested funds assist the Center's income greatly.

David W. Kendall, in his last President's Report, stated the Grosse Pointe War Memorial is more than a Center for entertainment; it is a strong source of social benefit and cultural enrichment in the community, expressing the ideals of Grosse Pointers and serving as a unique example in the country. He praised the Program Committee, Robert Warner, Chairman, for introducing University Credit Courses at the Center and a number of new classes from Sculpture to Creative Dramatics and for presenting many new forums on subjects ranging from Foreign Policy to Drug Abuse and Heart Disease. He specially urged all to attend the new "World Affairs Seminar" to begin October 15 featuring outstanding men from the State Department. He complimented the Center's staff on accommodating 228,653 persons in over 2000 groups last year paying special tribute to Irena Parthum, Office Manager and Mrs. David Richardson, Reservationist, for keeping procedures running so smoothly. From Senior Citizen to Youth, the Community was served and Mr. Kendall noted Warren Trafton's excellent contribution as Youth Advisor.

All this was possible, Mr. Kendall pointed out, only through the dedicated support of the Community, special donors such as the Ford family, the Sheldens, Joys, Algers, Finks, McNaughtons and many others and the volunteer efforts of Board and committee workers. He saluted his fellow officers and directors and warmly thanked them for their dedication.

A rising vote of thanks was given Mr. Kendall for his fine leadership and to the retiring Board for their excellent service.

Mrs. Hansel Dwight Wilson, Secretary of the Association, then presented the evening's program — an excellent film "Williamsburg, The Story of A Patriot," in cooperation with the National Society of Colonial Dames of America. Mrs. Wilson called attention to the fact that the Memorial would be sponsoring an educational tour to Williamsburg, Gettysburg and Winterthur in the spring. The showing of the film concluded the Association meeting.

VIOLATION ISSUED

Richard Gregory, 28, of Detroit, was issued a violation by City police on Saturday, September 27, for reckless driving with drinking involved. He was first observed traveling south on Cadieux from Mack in an erratic manner. He was stopped by officers and taken to the station where the violation was issued. He was released after posting $100 bond, pending a court date.

Stupid Vandalism Costly

should take a hard look at themselves and, if the shoe fits, wear it."

Although Ortisi claimed that contractors might have been able to lay the new cement at a time when youngsters were in school, he said it is a sad situation, when a community is forced to alter its schedule

just to avoid possible trouble. Shores Has Troubles

Shores Village Superintendent Thomas Jeffers lamented the situation throughout the Pointe and agreed with the other Pointe officials that the "situation is not good."

"These are crazy and idiotic acts of vandalism," he said. "We fall prey to these acts, but, because we have not undertaken any sidewalk repairs, we haven't experienced any problems in that area. If we did lay some new cement, we would have the same problems I'm sure."

"This is nonsense," he continued. "It is a constant battle to keep our heads above water in so many of those areas which involve vandalism."

"We spend money to make improvements and kids turn around and wreck our work," he claimed. "Why do kids stand on top of the Ski Hill and throw rocks through the windows of Vernier School? It's crazy."

Woods City Manager Chester Petersen expressed his gratitude for the NEWS story and also to those parents who read the article and asked what they could do.

"The number of senseless acts has diminished and some parents have called me and reported that their children accidentally walked or pedaled through fresh cement," said Petersen. "They have asked what they can do to rectify the situation."

"Let's hope that the attitude of many children and parents improves and that all Pointe communities obtain a lot more cooperation in all areas of public concern," he said.

Chief Roh Dies

was immediately sent by the department to the University of Louisville, where he was graduated from Southern Police Institute, receiving a degree in Police Administration.

In the years that he was with this department, he undertook many courses to better his professional knowledge.

He started by walking a beat in Grand Rapids' "ghetto area." He was later assigned to scout car duty, after which he was made sergeant and attached to the Special Investigation Burglary Squad. He earned 14 citations during the five years with this squad.

Following this, Roh was made commanding officer of the Rackets, Gambling and Vice Squad Bureau, and while its commander, was responsible for breaking a numbers racket that was grossing more than a million dollars a year.

Headed Academy
Shortly after, he was promoted to lieutenant, and placed in charge of the Grand Rapids Police Training Academy, and earned the distinction of training the first group of GR police recruits in the new school.

In August 1966, Roh resigned his Grand Rapids post and Bremer announced Roh's appointment as the Farms' new police chief, succeeding James Furton, who retired. On October 31, 1968, Roh took over command of the local force. The former chief and his family bought a home at 1502 Dorthen, which he sold after he submitted his resignation in the Farms.

On September 5, Roh became seriously ill and was hospitalized, and remained in the hospital until his death.

Besides his wife, Norrine E., he is survived by four sons, William, Jack, Jr., Robert and Tom; and his father, William Roh.

Fight Against Drug Abuse Attracts Many Volunteers

by Pepper Whitelaw

As a direct result of the story in the NEWS last week on the fight against drug abuse, in which Judge Robert Pytell, of the Farms, indicated his desire to see "Project misdeameantant" instituted in The Pointes, Judge Pytell received enough inquiries from interested citizens to arrange a meeting with John Amberger, of the Wayne County Probation Department Volunteer Program, at the War Memorial, on Thursday, October 16, at 8 o'clock.

PM is a program in which local citizens assist youthful offenders locally on a one-to-one basis for a year. The volunteer is the inspirational personality with whom the young probationer can identify and build a relationship based upon trust and confidence. The volunteer sponsor tries to understand, love, correct and inspire and in doing so often changes the offender's lawless behavior.

Statistics show that 85 percent of criminals who have committed felonies began first by committing misdemeanors. So it follows that if we can help the offenders at the misdemeanor level, the more serious crimes could be greatly reduced.

Some of the more frequent misdemeanors occurring locally, (other than bike thefts which top the list), are larcenies, sim-

Invite Parents To Star of Sea

Parents of Our Lady Star of the Sea Grade School will have an opportunity on Tuesday, October 7, to visit the classrooms of their children and hear the teachers present a brief sketch of their goals, their plans for accomplishing these goals, show classroom facilities, and explain what is expected of the students in cooperation and study habits.

The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. with a closed-circuit TV presentation featuring the new Acting Principal, Ellis King, and the Assistant Principal, Patricia Liesik. The Parent-Teacher Guild President, Richard Mullaney, will introduce the new Executive Board.

Father Barton, Pastor, and Associate Pastor, Father Finnigan, will also speak on the TV portion of the program before the individual classroom presentations by the teachers. Time will be allowed for general questions and answers after the teachers' presentation. Individual parent-teacher conferences will be scheduled a few weeks later.

Good ideas seldom live long unless they are put to work.

City Buying 600 Parking Meters

The City of Grosse Pointe Council on Monday, September 22, unanimously approved the recommendation of City Manager Thomas Kressbach to purchase 600 parking meters from Duncan Industries, Inc., at a cost of $32,100, with payment spread over a three year period.

The capital budget for the Automobile Parking System makes provision for replacement of parking meters throughout the City beginning this fiscal year.

The City's present inventory of 807 meters are from 13 to 18 years old. They have a high rate of malfunction which results in poor parking customer relations, loss of revenue and excessive repair time and costs.

New meters, according to Mr. Kressbach, would more than pay for themselves over the long run. Funding for the meter replacement program is geared to revenue projections based on the revised parking rates.

City officials examined design features of a number of models of parking meters and reviewed the operating and maintenance experience of other cities with the various models. Based on this analysis together with the City's own experience with automatic meters, Mr. Kressbach recommended that the program be based on Duncan, Model 60 manual meter with patented seal coin collection.

The City will have the option of purchasing 200 additional meters three years following receipt of these meters, which is estimated at November, 1972, at the same unit price for which the original 600 meters were purchased.

Austin Has Two Semi-Finalists

Principal Rev. Albert Hillebrand has announced that two students at Austin Prep. School have been named semi-finalists in the 1969-70 National Merit Scholarship Program.

The students are George Shea and Michael DuCody. The 15,000 Semi-finalists appointed are among the nation's most intellectually talented high school seniors. They will compete for about 3,000 Merit Scholarships to be awarded in 1970.

The Semi-finalists were the highest scorers in their states on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (NMQST), which was given last February to some 750,000 students in 17,250 schools nationwide. They constitute less than 1 percent of the graduating secondary school seniors in the United States.

The Semi-finalists are representative of the country's most intellectually able young people, according to Edward C. Smith, president of the National Merit Scholarship Corp. (NMSC). "From this group will come many future leaders in business, industry, and the professions," he said.

"These students bring honor not only to themselves, but also to their families, their teachers, and their communities. The future success of these young people will, however, depend upon their ability to become productive at the high intellectual levels that they are capable of attaining."

There's always a vacancy for the man who has made good.

Officers Elected At Austin Prep

This week the Senior Class of Austin Catholic Prep School elected their class officers as well as the officers of the student senate. Serving as president of the Student Senate is Frank Leto. He will be aided by Gary Lombardi, vice-president, Mike Varty, secretary, and Terry Murphy, treasurer. These four students will conduct the business of the Student Senate's weekly meetings and the organization of the school's activities program. They will be joined by the officers of the various homeroom sections and Rev. Lawrence Dore, O.S.A., Vice-principal of Activities.

President Frank Leto has been most active at Austin for the past three years serving on the Dance Committee. Frank has also written for the school newspaper, served as treasurer of his homeroom section in the 10th grade, president of his homeroom in the 11th, served on the Junior Prom Committee and the Awards Dinner Committee. He is also a member of the Teen Club of St. Clare de Montefalco Parish.

Vice-president of the senate is Gary Lombardi. Gary's record of activities includes the following: the Austin Players, the Junior Float Committee, and the Ski Club. He has served as treasurer of his Freshman homeroom section, secretary of his Sophomore homeroom, and president of his Junior homeroom. Gary is a member of the Teen Club of Our Lady Queen of Peace Parish.

The secretary of the Student Senate is Mike Varty. A strong athlete, Mike has played varsity football for three years, is co-captain of the team this year, and played varsity basketball last year. He has been a member of the Glee Club for two years and a member of the Letterman's Club for three. He has served as secretary of his Freshman homeroom, vice-president of his Sophomore homeroom, and president of his Junior homeroom.

The position of treasurer is held by Terry Murphy. Terry's activities include participation in the Austin Players, Student-directed One Act Plays, Forensics Regional Competition, and the Austin Academy. He has served as president of his Freshman homeroom and vice-president of his Sophomore homeroom; last year he was president of the poster club. He is a member of the Teen Club of St. Isaac Jogues Parish.

President of the Poster Club for 1969-70 is Dennis Bailey.

This annual post is filled by a Junior.

St. Paul Seniors Hosts To Frosh

Seniors and freshmen of St. Paul High School met on Wednesday, October 1, for an informal get-together. The purpose of the meeting was to welcome the new freshmen and help them get acquainted with the upperclassmen.

Seniors taught the freshmen the "art of carnation making" which they will be able to utilize shortly when float construction begins for the Homecoming festivities.

Seniors Chris Birg, Barb Eldredge, Joan Hollerbach and Eileen Wright entertained the group with folk ballads.

DOG BITES WORKER
John Sisson, handyman for Richard Durant, 425 Lincoln, was bitten by the Durant dog, a two-year-old German Shepherd, on Saturday, December 27, as he entered the back yard. Sisson was taken to Bon Secours Hospital and treated for bites on his forearm. The dog was quarantined for 10 days.

D'you Know That?
by Paul Schweitzer

Some people will say a HOLE IN A DOUGHNUT is nothing — surrounded by flavor. But for those who delight in bits of Americana, it is an example of American ingenuity.

Originally the doughnut was a small blob of dough, the size of a nut—hence the name. It was fried in deep fat, but the middle always remained raw; at long odds with digestion.

"The answer to the problem of raw dough, would be to cut out the middle," thought Mr. Hanson Gregory, a New England ship-cook. Furthermore, a hole in the center would provide more frying surface for the rest of the dough!—Accordingly, he proceeded to cut out the center and the first doughnut with a hole in the middle came into being—in the year 1847.

Looking Over Hospital Expansion Plans

Pictured looking over the plans for Cottage Hospital's Expanded Services Addition are MRS. ARTHUR H. BUHL, JR. and ROBERT H. KANZLER, co-chairmen of Cottage's 50th Anniversary Development Fund, prior to groundbreaking ceremonies, Wednesday, September 24.

Mrs. Buhl announced today that gifts totaling nearly $14 million have been donated to The Cottage Hospital of Grosse Pointe for its Development Fund. Mrs. Buhl, an officer of the Board of Trustees, made the announcement at the groundbreaking ceremony for Cottage Hospital's Expanded Services Addition.

Mrs. Buhl said that the total cost of the Development Program is expected to be approximately $6 million. This includes not only the construction of the new Expanded Services Addition, but also renovation of the present building, expansion for existing departments and equipment for newly established services.

In her address to the Hospital family and representatives of the community, Mrs. Buhl noted the report of Ralph T. McElvenny, president of Michigan Consolidated Gas Company and treasurer of the fund. To date, more than $6,000,000 has been donated by the Hospital family, that is, the Employees, the Medical Staff and the Board of Trustees; approximately $500,000 has been donated by friends in the community.

According to Robert A. Waters, president of the Board of Trustees, the funds donated thus far, enabled Cottage to break ground on the needed Expanded Services Addition and provided the impetus for the second phase of the community campaign.

The total campaign goal of $3 1/2 million will help accomplish not only the addition of new services and facilities, but also the Hospital's substantial modernization and renovation program.

According to Ralph L. Wilgards, administrator, the expanded Cottage Hospital will include:

A Mental Health Unit, enthusiastically endorsed by area health organizations and the medical community. It will serve the needs that such a unit in a general hospital is best qualified to serve, that is, providing round-the-clock short-term care for emotionally disturbed patients as well as caring for those patients who would benefit from part-time hospitalization (go to work during the day, return to the hospital at night).

A Continuing Care Facility, a concept developed to relieve the crowded conditions in the acute-care units found in all hospitals. New departments of Physical Medicine, Intensive and Coronary Care.

Expansion of the Emergency Room, Surgical Suite, Radiology and Laboratory.

Distinguished guests at the groundbreaking ceremony included State Senator George S. Fitzgerald, who with State Representative Robert E. Waldron, jointly sponsored a State recognition of the 50th Anniversary of Cottage Hospital; and William G. Butler, mayor of the City of Grosse Pointe Farms.

To the recognition of the Hospital's 50th Anniversary, Mr. Waters added:

"In 1969 we celebrate both an ending and a beginning. During its first 50 years, Cottage

Chamber Music Workshop Set

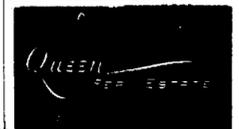

The Chamber Music Players of Grosse Pointe are planning a fall workshop meeting to be held in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial and Fries Auditorium on Sunday afternoon, October 5.

This is the time and the place where musicians of the Pointe area may enjoy a complete afternoon of experimentation in performance. Henry Pringham, past president of the group, is in charge of the event. It is hoped that many talented younger musicians will take advantage of this opportunity to join in ensemble playing.

Rehearsal for string orchestra will begin promptly at 1:30 in the banquet-ballroom. After a short coffee break at 3, smaller groups will form in the various rooms of both buildings. These groups will be changed at regular intervals so that participants in the workshop may play with several different ensembles during the afternoon.

Music marked "easy," "medium," and "difficult" will be available. Members and non-members alike are invited to join the fun. Don't forget your music stand.

Scoring the Pointes

By Phil Loranger

A senior quarterback, starting his first game as a signal-caller, sparked one of the area's most potent offenses on Sunday, September 28, as St. Ambrose Catholic High School routed Redford St. Mary's 36-6, sticking to the ground almost all the way.

Jim Orlando, a 128-pound dynamo, was pressed into action for the game when starting quarterback Mark Sopoliga sustained a knee injury. The versatile Orlando completed four of six aeriels in the contest and made sizeable gains through the St. Mary's line, while directing Coach Joe D'Angelo's pro-type offense.

"I'm amazed at just how well Orlando played on offense," said D'Angelo. "Not only did he play heads up ball as a quarterback, but he was the outstanding defensive back throughout the contest, breaking up pass after pass."

Two Runs Pay Off
St. Ambrose, gaining its second win of the year, received scores from Joe Bommarito on runs of six and 12 yards and on two bull-dozing smashes of four and 10 yards by Paul Hayner. Ron Mele also tallied for the Cavaliers on an eight-yard burst up the middle. St. Ambrose takes on league-leading Shrine this weekend in the Cavaliers' annual homecoming game at Grosse Pointe South Field.

Stress will be laid on defense this week at University-Liggett School's grid practices, as Coach Tom Taber attempts to patch up the holes in the Knights' line, which was ripped repeatedly in their loss to Indiana powerhouse, Culver on Saturday, September 27. Culver backs churned at will through the gaping holes in the Knights' front wall, while pounding out a 61-24 victory over the outmanned Pointers.

Good on Offense
"We moved the ball well offensively," claimed Taber. "But there was no stopping Culver on defense. Don Lenox played a great game at middle linebacker for us, but he received little help."

Offensively, Quarterback Mark Kulek and running backs Dale McCarthy, Marty Weizcorek and George Finkenstaedt continued to play well, as they combined to grind out nearly 150 yards on the ground. Kulek, whose aeriels accounted for 110 yards via the airways, tossed scoring passes to McCarthy for two touchdowns and blasted eight yards off-tackle himself to gather another six points for the Knights.

Although University-Liggett trailed by 28-8 at the half, Taber said he felt they were still in the game, if the team could adjust defensively.

Hope for Better
"The tide turned in the second half, when one of their backs gathered in a punt and scampered 80 yards to score without one of our boys laying a hand on him," said Taber. "We meet Columbus Academy this Saturday and I think we'll play a much better ball game all the way around."

For the second straight week, the Grim Reaper of football fortunes visited the St. Paul Lakers late in the game, killing any chances for a victory or a tie minutes before the final gun.

With less than two minutes to play on Sunday, September 28, the St. Alphonsus quarterback faded back to pass and the Lakers' linemen swarmed in. Just as it appeared he would be dumped for a loss, he let fly an aerial which an un-guarded end caught all alone in the end zone, dropping St. Paul to its second consecutive 6-0 defeat.

Nally on Bench
Although the Lakers were without the services of their outstanding star, Mike Nally, who sat out the game because doctors found a blood clot near his ribs early in the week, the Lakers outplayed their Detroit opponents throughout the long afternoon, but couldn't out-score them.

Coach George Sahadi's grid-ders moved inside the St. Alphonsus 15-yard line at least five times in the contest, but fumbles and interceptions thwarted any chances of scoring. Kevin Kiley, a 105-pound signal-caller, continued to confuse the opponents throughout the game, but the big play was missing. The Lakers will be out to gain their first victory of the young season this Sunday, when they take on St. Ladislau in an away game.

Two Straight for South
The Blue Devils of Grosse Pointe South High, improving with each weekly battle, stung previously undefeated Highland Park last weekend by a count of 18-12, making it two straight victories for Coach Russ Hepper's grid-ders.

Junior quarterback Tom Bailey, connecting on an amazing eight out of 10 tosses, hit Mark Saber with a 43-yard scoring bomb and flipped an aerial to Jim Parker for another Blue Devil score. Brett Benson, a really damaging runner, blasted eight yards through the Parkers' line to rack up another six points for the Pointers.

All of Highland Park's points were collected in the final four minutes of the contest, as Coach Hepper emptied his bench and fielded the third and fourth-string unit.

Had Balanced Attack
"Assistant coach Al Moebus, who maintains our statistics, pointed out that we really had a balanced attack all the way in this one," said Hepper. "We gained 152 yards on the ground and picked up another 138 through the air."

Scoring The Pointes

 "We take on Royal Oak Dondero this weekend at home and that is going to be a tough ballgame," claimed Hepler, who had nothing but praise for the Highland Park team and its fans. "It seems that most of the crowds at our games have been really outstanding in their conduct."

Perhaps, that's why South, rated low on the pole in the pre-season predictions, has rebounded to become one of the Pointe's fine teams.

North High Defeated Grosse Pointe North hit another snag in its campaign to win the Bi-County League title,
 when it fell to L'Anse Creuse 13-6, after outplaying their opponents throughout the game.

 "Our biggest problem is that we play great ball for 46 minutes but let up for two minutes somewhere along the line and get hurt," claimed Coach Jim Krucki. "This past weekend we allowed L'Anse Creuse to score twice on runs of 64 and 32
 yards and slapped them down
 the rest of the way."

Churning their way to 280 total yards on offense, the Norse-men picked up their sole tally
 when Steve Schleicher bolted over from two yards out. Lee Walker and Brian Webster, two of the area's best defensive ends, played some of the finest defensive football seen in the league against L'Anse Creuse and sophomore signal-caller Steve Puleo, starting his first game at the helm of the Norse-men offense, connected on five of eight tosses for 135 yards in a losing cause.

"We meet Clintondale next week," sighed Coach Krucki.
 "They have won 12 straight games and are leading the league. It will be a tough one."

Austin Drops One

It was a case of playing catch-up football with not enough time to do it for Coach
 Larry Rancillio's Austin High Friars, as they dropped a tough 18-14 battle to the re-vivid DeLaSalle Pilots on Saturday, September 27.

Trailing 18-0, the Friars struck back for scores on a 45-yard blast by Paul Misiewicz, who shook off two tacklers at the line of scrimmage, and a two-yard plunge by John Yacobelli.

"Once again we got beat on thrown balls," said Rancillio.
 "They hit us with a 70-yard bomb and took away one of our screen passes and returned it 85 yards for a score. I thought Misiewicz and Spencer Akers played a fine ballgame

 for us all day."
 Austin meets U of D High this weekend in one of its toughest matches of the year.

News Selects Stars of Week

Taking a hard look at the individual performances of two highly-talented Pointe gridders and liking what it saw, the NEWS last week chose St.
 Paul High School's Mike Nally
 as its Offensive Star of the Week and Grosse Pointe South's Rick Worrell as the Defensive Star of the Week.

Nally, a bruising junior runner, picked up 134 yards in 20 carries in St. Paul's 6-0 loss to undefeated Salesian. Making most of his own holes in an amazing demonstration of "second effort" running, Nally continually bulled his way for yardage, dragging the Salesian defenders along on his back.
 The piston-legged runner earned the praises of both his own coach, George Sabadi, and Salesian's Miles Currie.

Worrell, a 5-foot-10, 175-pound hunk of granite, who moves with the speed of a flanker, turned in one of the most spectacular defensive games in the past few years for Coach Russ Hepler's Blue Devils, collecting 13 unassisted tackles in South's win over Livonia-Churchill. Those who saw the defensive specialist at work, knew early in the game that it was going to be Worrell's day, when he made the first three tackles of the contest all by himself. Playing from the middle linebacker spot in Hepler's 6-3 defense, Worrell roamed at will along the line from end to end, frustrating Livonia runners and guaranteeing that they would wake up with bruises the next morning.

For the football action on the weekend of September 26-28, the NEWS singled out the individual performances of St. Ambrose defensive back, Jim Orlando, and Tom Bailey, Grosse Pointe South signal-caller, selecting them as Defensive and Offensive Stars of the week.

Orlando, who also doubled as the starting quarterback for the Cavaliers in their 38-8 rout of Redford St. Mary, knocked down five passes in the contest and stopped the opponent's All-City end from receiving a single toss.
 Although he weighs in at under 130 pounds, the versatile Orlando hits with the impact of a cannonball and is one good reason the Cavaliers are in the thick of the race for the Catholic League title.

Bailey, a junior signal-caller,
 who spent last year calling the plays for the junior varsity squad, connected on eight of 10
 aeriels in South's 18-12 victory over previously-unbeaten Highland Park, picking up two touchdowns along the way. Bailey has now hit on an almost unbelievable 17 of 21 passes for five touchdowns this season for Russ Hepler's highly-underrated Blue Devils.

The NEWS salutes and congratulates these four fine athletes on their selection as Stars of the Week.

Lions Gridders Beaten in Three

The Grosse Pointe Lions Little League Football teams ran into a buzz-saw in their first encounters of the season, when the freshmen, junior varsity and varsity teams all fell before the attacks of the St. Clair Shores Black Knights.

The freshmen fell short of victory by a count of 21-8, as Bill Anderson scored the lone touchdown on a 12-yard run.
 Harold McLean, Bobby Utter and Dan Schwarz also played fine games for the frosh.

On the junior varsity level,
 the Shorians struck hard and fast to chop down the Pointers by a 33-6 score in a game in which the Lions managed to score only on their last set of downs.

Mike O'Sullivan lugged the ball 43 yards after a brilliant fake, for the lone tally. Brian Myers, Mark Monaghan, John Linne and Bobby Gough shone on defense for the Pointers and Dick Borland and Bob Conlan contributed to the offensive effort.

The varsity started off fast,
 but slowed down both offensively and defensively in the latter stages of the ball game and fell 21-0 to the Knights.

Tom Marantette played a fine game as the number one signal caller, but his receivers had problems hanging onto his accurate aeriels, dropping at least three passes when they were wide open.

Steve Peterson, Tom Steen, Myles Wilson, Pat Crandall and Jeff Gardner played good offensive ball, while defensively, Kevin MacConnachie, Barry Quinn, Rene Vandenberg and Mike Barlow stood out.

MATTER OF CHOICE
 You can't work and worry at the same time—so leave the worrying until tomorrow.

PARK OKAYS PURCHASE
 On Monday, September 22,
 the Park council, during its regular meeting, approved the purchase of a new billing machine for the Accounting Department, to replace a 13-year-old obsolete machine presently in use. The solons accepted the low bid of the Burroughs Company, which offered to sell the machine for $9,345.

ROBERT H. TANNAHILL
Philanthropist Robert Hudson Tannahill, who gave millions of dollars worth of art treasures to the people of Detroit, died on Thursday, September 25, at Ford Hospital at the age of 76. He suffered a heart attack and stroke on Tuesday. Mr. Tannahill contributed more works to the public art museum than any other man in history.

A new wing was dedicated to him this year. The wing houses a collection of American art, one of his special interests.

President of the Founders Society of The Detroit Institute of Arts, William M. Day, who is also president of Michigan Bell Telephone Company, said that Mr. Tannahill's death was a great loss both to Detroit and the Art Institute.

Mr. Tannahill, a shy, retiring man, had been in poor health for several years. He was born in Detroit on April 21, 1893, and was educated in Detroit schools and at Harvard University.

His mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Tannahill, a collector of American art, is credited with interesting him in the arts. She was a sister of J. L. Hudson, founder of the department store, and of Mrs. William Clay, mother of Mrs. Edsel Ford.

Mr. Tannahill's private collection of art is said to be the finest in the Detroit area.

His other interests included bridge, the theater, sports and travel. Paris was his favorite city abroad. While traveling he always kept a sharp eye out for art works to buy for the museum.

Willis F. Woods, director of the Art Institute, said, "A proper word of tribute to Bob Tannahill is 'fondness'; he meant a lot to us personally beyond his obvious scholarship and taste and generosity."

Mr. Tannahill, a member of the advisory committee of the Arts Commission and a trustee of the Founders Society, was also a valuable working member of the institute's curators staff. He was honorary Curator of American Art.

When Mr. Tannahill resigned from the presidency of the Arts Commission for reasons of health, a citation commended his "unfailing taste, deep knowledge of art history and uncompromising standards."

The museum was closed on Monday, September 29, in mourning. Mr. Tannahill, who lived at 22 Lee Gate, had no immediate survivors.

Memorial tributes may be made to the Art Institute. Interment was in Woodlawn Cemetery.

VIRGINIA YERGER ROBB
Funeral services for Mrs. Robb, 74, 504 Neff road, will be held today, Thursday, September 2, at 10 o'clock, in Christ Church Grosse Pointe. She died on Tuesday, September 30, in Harper Hospital.

Born in Tennessee, Mrs. Robb was the wife of the late Dr. James Milton Robb. She was a member of The Detroit Institute of Arts, The Founders' Society, The Friends of The Detroit Public Library, Harper Hospital Auxiliary, Christ Church, The DAC and The Grosse Pointe Club. She was past president of The Visiting Nurses Association and past secretary of The Michigan Chapter of National Cathedral Association.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. William E. Baubie, Mrs. Virginia Y. Robb; two sons, James M. Jr. and David. Memorial tributes may be sent to National Cathedral Association, Washington, D.C.

Interment was in Woodlawn Cemetery.

ROBERT J. DONOVAN
Funeral services for Mr. Donovan, 70, of 1019 Somerset road, were held on Monday, September 29, in the Verheyden Funeral Home and from St. Ambrose Church. Bible services were held on Sunday, September 28. He died on Friday, September 26, in Belmont Nursing Home.

Mr. Donovan is survived by his wife, Teresa; a son, Larry; a daughter, Mary Ellen; his mother, Mrs. Mary Donovan; three brothers, Bishop John A.,

Harold and Edward; two sisters, Mrs. H. J. Kelly; Mrs. James C. McCarroll, and eight grandchildren.

Interment was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

MABEL ELLIS

Funeral services for Mrs. Ellis, 82, of 1991 Huntington road, were held on Wednesday, October 1, in the A. and H. Peters Funeral Home. She died on Monday, September 29, in Belmont Nursing Home.

She was the wife of the late Fred and is survived by two nieces, Mrs. Ruth Shumaker and Mrs. Elizabeth Swartzloff, and four grandnieces.

Interment was in Woodlawn Cemetery.

Set Great Books Junior Program

The Junior Great Books Program is scheduled to begin another season of reading pleasure for Grosse Pointe children. Working with the Department of Community Services, the leaders of the Junior Great Books Program have announced a meeting at 10 a.m. on Monday, October 20 at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, where interested adults are invited to hear an address given by Lola H. Worley.

Mrs. Worley will present the program and materials used in the program with the intent of bringing a clear understanding of what benefits are available to youngsters and how adults may become involved as discussion leaders.

Junior Great Books is a unique and successful program of liberal education designed especially for elementary and secondary school students. Its purpose is to develop the ability of youngsters to think reflectively and critically about basic ideas through reading and group discussion of the writings of mankind's wisest and most discerning authors.

Developed by the Great Books Foundation as an extension of its program for adults and college students, the Junior Program is regarded by educators as a powerful supplement to the youngster's formal education. It has the enthusiastic support and approval of parents and students throughout the United States. In 1967 about 100,000 students were participating in more than 6,000 groups.

Interested parents are encouraged by local school officials to attend this meeting at the War Memorial.

North Harriers Still Undeclared

Grosse Pointe North High School's varsity and junior varsity cross-country squads continued to dominate the Bi-County league through their first five encounters of the season, piling up an impressive record of victories and moving closer to the league title.

Coach Tom Gaurke's varsity harriers won their latest three encounters, walking away with victories over South Lake, 15-47; Grosse Pointe South, 15-50; and Lakeview, 15-47. The JV's matched the varsity's record by winning their three meets with the same opponents, defeating them all by perfect 15-50 scores.

The North harriers have captured the first six places in all five meets in running up one of the most impressive records in the state. Led by State Two-Mile Champion, Rick Schott, Rick Montauk, Ralph Hoffman, Bill Rider, Dan Janick and Bill Hammer have finished in that order against each dismayed opponent. Mitch Kamlay has usually pulled down the seventh slot for North.

Schott, who has set and reset the school's home course record twice this season, established a new mark for the South Lake course, when he zipped across the hills in 9:46. His clocking in 10:15 is the current home mark.

The team traveled to the Holly Invitational last week, where the runners placed third in the 23-team Class A meet.

Cinema League To Meet Oct. 9

British Overseas Airways Corporation will present two travelogues at the Thursday, October 9, 8 o'clock meeting of the Grosse Pointe Cinema League in the War Memorial's Fries Auditorium. The program is open to the public and is free of charge.

Adult Education Classes Slated

Adult Education classes are scheduled to begin for hundreds of active Grosse Pointers during the next two weeks. Public school buildings will be open once again to provide evening classes in a variety of subjects and activities that range from foreign languages to the arts and crafts; from music and dance to a wide selection of homemaking activities. The Department of Community Services, of the Grosse Pointe Public Schools has announced that reservations for classes should be made as quickly as possible by calling 885-3808 or 885-0271.

Mr. Richard Kay, Director, indicates, "We hope that interested adults will not be disappointed because they wait until the last moment when classes are filled and we cannot accommodate them. There is such a wealth of enjoyable activity available, both academic and non-academic, and we hope that interested people will take advantage of these outstanding opportunities and give us a call to inquire."

Some of the highlights of this fall include:

Dancing: Ballroom and Latin American dance will be taught by the talented Rick Dove at the Kerby School on Tuesday evenings. This is a "fun" class for couples who may consider themselves beginners with two left feet, or for those whose dancing enjoyment leads to wanting more of the most current and up-to-date dance steps. The fee for this twelve week course is $20.00 per couple.

Foreign Language classes in French, Spanish, German and Italian will begin for students at both beginning and experienced levels.

Planning a trip abroad need not be the only motivating force that prompts the many adults whose bilingual skills are developed in such classes. Instruction from experienced language teachers whose fluent foreign speech lends authority to their teaching has been a feature of the adult foreign language program. The fee for these classes is $12.00. Sixty cents per hour for such excellent instruction appears to be the bargain of our age. A call to the Department of Community Services (885-3808) will provide further information and produce a reservation in the proper class.

Millinery will be taught again by the talented Jennie Carradus on Wednesday mornings and Thursday evenings. Imagination and a styling consciousness are the rare ingredients that Mrs. Carradus brings to her classes after a career of millinery experiences with Walton Pierce and Saks Fifth Avenue. Literally hundreds of women have enjoyed this class over a full score of years in Grosse Pointe. The fee is $12.

Knitting in the adult education program promises to reach a renewed level of enthusiasm with the return to the scene of Ann McClenahan, Mrs. McClenahan, who is co-owner of the Yarncraft Shops in Grosse Pointe and Birmingham, was on the adult teaching staff for approximately twelve years and enjoyed an eager following of knitting students. As a designer and an importer, she brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to her classes that cannot be equalled elsewhere. Her ten week sessions are scheduled to begin Thursday evening, October 16. The fee is $12.00.

SPACE-AGE college education today seems to be finding a place to park.

Letters to the Editor

To The Editor:

I am writing this as a student of Grosse Pointe North High School, who walks to and from school every day. Recently the fence, in the dead-end of Wedgewood, was pulled apart by students, so that they could get to school easier and faster. I used the short cut myself, until workmen saw it torn down, and repaired it.

I think that a gate or entrance should be put through Wedgewood. If it was, many more people would walk, and there would be less traffic on Morningside, which would be safer for the students. Also, on rainy days, and bitter cold days we could get to school and home again much faster.

I don't see how residents of Hidden Lane can be so stubborn as to fight having an entrance through Wedgewood. The fence is just going to keep getting knocked down again, each time it is repaired.

They tell us that no gate or entrance can be put there because it is not our property and the residents of Hidden Lane don't want one there. Well, I think it's about time someone did something about these people and the fence at Wedgewood. After all, Wedgewood does not belong to them either, and Wedgewood continues right into school property. So why shouldn't a gate be put there without it being up to the residents of Hidden Lane? It really shouldn't be so influenced by them, when it isn't their property either.

—Claudia Schultz—GPW

Dear Sir: This letter is directed to all the parents of children in the Grosse Pointes, but especially to the parents of a boy, who until September 14, rode a 20" green Huffy bike, and who now rides a 26" Schwinn 10-speed Varsity.

Can you imagine the anguish of our son, when he found this green Huffy in our driveway and his nine-day-old, gold-color Varsity gone? What has happened to the rule of respecting other people's property? Are the parents of our community turning their backs, hoping that the problems of stealing will just disappear? Father, Mother, question your children when they bring home something which does not belong to them.

To the parents of the boy now riding our son's bike — your child's bike is at the Farms police station — unclaimed. Yes, your son will receive a lecture from the police, he will be scared and you will be sad, but wouldn't you rather have him lectured now than in jail later. For surely, if you condone his stealing now, he will steal again and end up in jail later.

To all parents — Watch your children. Only with your help can they grow to be honest adults.

Mrs. Marvin E. Hartz 249 Kenwood Court

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

We call your attention to a course offered by the Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Public School System — one particular one that is especially meaningful to us as the instructor is Robert M. Orr, our own Director. This will be his twenty-first class since 1959; the course, as I'm sure you all know, is: BOOKS AMERICA IS READING — AND WHY. It is a course designed for the busy person who cannot keep up with today's Best Sellers or any popular books that are being currently discussed. There will be eight classes in all, each devoted to a thorough review of a book, followed by a lively discussion of other pertinent books, ideas and related problems.

This course will start on October 2. The first book to be considered will be THE ANDROMEDA STRAIN by Michael Crichton. This (a Book-of-the-Month Club selection) is a timely, well-written and suspenseful novel on the return of an American space ship with deadly germs threatening the safety of the world. It is also high on the Best Seller list.

The second book review class, on October 9, will be AN UNFINISHED WOMAN by Lillian Hellman. Here we are treated to the famous playwright's "unfinished" memoir of the people, events and work which have made up her life to date. This is also on the Best Seller list.

On October 16 a novel, THE GODFATHER, by Mario Puzo, will be the topic under consideration. This ten year odyssey of a New York Mafia dynasty is timely, popular and number 2 on the Best Seller list.

Although it has been on the Best Seller list for over 26 weeks, JENNIE, by Ralph G. Martin is still being widely read and discussed. For this reason Mr. Orr has put it on his list and it will be reviewed on October 23. As you probably know, Jennie was the beautiful and spirited American mother of Winston Churchill; she was certainly one of the most colorful women of the Victorian era and early 20th century. This is only volume I of Mr. Martin's fascinating biography and leaves Jennie at the age of 39, a widow, and still beautiful. Volume II certainly should be worth waiting for as Jennie went on to marry twice more! On October 30 the choice is MR. BRIDGE by Evan Connell, Jr. I've read this one myself so I can testify to the fact that it is a convincing, sympathetic story of a Midwest husband, father and businessman of the 1930's and 1940's who is unable to cross the generation gap. It is a worthy companion to MRS. BRIDGE, which the author wrote in 1959. (Those who have read Mrs. Bridge tell me it is equally as good).

Number 2 on the non-fiction Best Seller list is Gay Talese's THE KINGDOM AND THE POWER. This is a fascinating study of the NEW YORK TIMES over the last seven decades, unauthorized, but authoritative. This book will be reviewed on November 6.

We are paying our respects to a local author this time around. THEM by Joyce Carol Oates will be reviewed on November 13. This book was only published on September 26 so it has not been reviewed too much as yet. VIRGINIA KIRKUS calls it "a novel of devastating power about the inhabitants of Detroit's fringe-poverty white ghetto." Being an aficionada of all of Joyce Carol Oates' works, I'm looking forward to reading it myself.

And finally, we have THE THREE DAUGHTERS OF MADAME LIANG by Pearl Buck. This is a present day novel about the owner of an elegant Shanghai restaurant and her three daughters, educated in America, and forced to return to China. This is also a Book-of-the-Month Club selection.

There they are — eight good selections, in my opinion, with diversity of subject matter, approach, weight and intensity. We hope you will want to join this group which will meet weekly at 8 p.m. in the Exhibition Room at the Central Library. If enough people register, there will also be a class on the same dates, at 1 p.m.

What's New on THE HILL

By Sibyl

Double C . . . in our alphabetical tour of the Hill stands for Catherine Champion, who heads Cnampion Real Estate, which has been on the Hill for fifteen years. You can window shop for a house at 102 Kercheval via all the pictures or drop in for a cup of coffee and a chat. All this makes the real estate business on the Hill kind of homey.

Seeking Sony . . . portable color TV sets? End your search at the Mermaid. They have them in stock along with desk radios and brand new product ideas from Sony.

Hamlin's Has . . . the much awaited shipment of Sell's Liver Pate. Serve it as a savory sandwich or as delicious hors d'oeuvres. Stock your pantry shelf now. Sell's sells out fast! . . . 89 Kercheval . . . TUxedo 5-8400.

Potpourri In Porcelain . . . is doubly pleasant. At the League Shop, Italian perforated porcelain in shell shapes, a bowed egg, an oriental elegant, a bouquet or an adorable lamb on a bed of violets hold potpourri sachet to scent the air and please the eye.

It's Here . . . at Picard-Norton, 92 Kercheval, their stock of fall outerwear from Zero King for the sportsman and the stadium quarterback. Prices start at forty-five dollars.

An Interview With Margaret Rice . . . "The mere mention of the word hemline seems to be sending us all into a panic. I have tried to reassure our customers, skirts will remain short. The fashion direction from Paris, showing all lengths, is no longer important. There is no fashion dictation at to which length we are to wear. The Paris reports of all lengths is proof positive that there is no longer an authority powerful enough to dictate one fashion length. The American woman will not fall under the spell of a Dior dictatorship as she did before. She will not give up her fashion freedom or have a new length forced upon her just for the sake of a change. American designers know that. And while all lengths are being shown to stimulate business, the fashion length for a good long time to come is going to be your very own choice."

The Young Fashion Story . . . at Young Clothes, 110 Kercheval, features pantsuits, slacks with long tunics or vests and skirts in plaids or solids to round out a school or play wardrobe. Tops and skirts for school days coordinate with pants and tops for weekends.

Gifts Galore . . . at Touch of Elegance in the Colonial Federal Building are being gathered by look-ahead holiday shoppers. Favorites from Austria are the little oval or round trays and cigarette cups, hand-painted over enameled copper. Attractive ways to frame a friend are either in soft velvet or sharp turquoise. The gold finish paper weight clock is a handy and handsome men's gift.

Fragrance Find . . . A gift package by Caron is specially priced at Trail Apothecary, 121 Kercheval. When you buy the cologne spray, you get a dusting powder bonus box. The set is six dollars. The scent selection is Belloggia, Fleurs de Rocaille and Nuit de Noel, which reminds us these would make scent-sible Christmas put-away-presents.

Christmas Has Arrived . . . at Virginia Williams, 79 Kercheval, in the form of little sequined and beaded felt horses, doves, owls and other decorative birds. They are colorful, sparkling and make gay stocking gifts, package trim and tree ornaments. Prices are a dollar fifty and two dollars.

Hard To Get . . . men's gift? Get it at Gray's Racquet and Sport Shop, 106 Kercheval. Brand new gift ideas, games and sports equipment makes shopping for him easy.

Musical Tables . . . are playing Lara's Theme from "Dr. Zhivago" at The Card Rack, 93 Kercheval. These surprising, attractive, imported tables stand seventeen inches tall, have inlaid tops and will hold cards, pencils and score pads. Another surprise . . . the twenty-five dollar price tag . . . 886-8826.

The Bronze Door . . . 123 Kercheval, is working hard to bring you the finest food and service. Reservations will be taken Monday through Thursday. However, guests must be seated by 7:30 p.m. On Friday and Saturday, due to limited seating capacity, the Bronze Door can only receive reservations for guests who'll be seated no later than seven. Guests arriving later, will be seated on a "walk-in" basis . . . 886-1932.

Synanon Needs Help

Detroit has sustained many losses this past year of businesses and prestige. Now it is faced with the possibility of still another loss . . . the loss of Synanon.

Synanon has been in Detroit for three years. During that time its staff of former drug addicts has removed over 500 addicts from the streets of Detroit and as a result made Detroit safer for suburbanites who enjoy Detroit's facilities. But soon it faces bankruptcy if those of us in the more affluent suburbs don't reach into our pockets and lend a helping hand.

Unfortunately, Synanon has quietly and diligently gone about the business of rehabilitating addicts with little time for fanfare or fund raising campaigns. It exists by donations and the moderate income from Synanon Industries which sell promotional materials. Now it faces a crisis. The lease on Synanon's brick home, that houses these addicts, at 8344 East Jefferson, expires October 31. Some $40,000 is needed to pick up the option on the building. Synanon does not have $40,000.

It seems inconsistent, when all of us are complaining about crime on the streets and drug addiction, that we allow the demise of an organization which is fighting the battle on both fronts so successfully.

As Pointers AND Detroiters, we cannot allow this to happen. We have many service organizations and over 50,000 adult citizens in The Pointe, a small contribution from each adult and service organization could save Synanon. Let's Pointe the way toward saving Detroit Synanon by sending a check to The Synanon Foundation, 8344 East Jefferson. Do it now . . . tomorrow may be too late!

The opening program will feature Gilbert and Sullivan A La Carte, a group of five singer-actors who perform excerpts from such classics as "Yeoman of the Guard," "H. M. S. Pinafore," "The Pirates of Penzance" and "The Mikado."

The Kresge Concerts are presented in conjunction with a grant from The Kresge Foundation which permits the Detroit Symphony to offer tickets at popular prices. The most expensive ticket is $2.50. For the full series (five concerts) prices are $7.50, $10 and $12.50. Allan Lokos, producer and director of Gilbert and Sullivan A La Carte, has directed two contemporary plays for the New York State Council on the Arts: the old melodrama "Under the Gaslight" for Equity Library Theatre in New York and the off-Broadway production of "Sacco-Vanzetti."

Baritone Raymond Allen has participated in G&S productions for many years and recently appeared in the film version of "Finnigan's Wake."

Opera, concerts and musicals are all part of tenor James Wilson's repertoire. He also performs G&S roles with the Savoyards.

Mezzo-soprano Laurel Miller performs most often in opera and is a member of the Metropolitan Opera Studio.

Native Detroitier William Tost was a Bill Baird puppeteer and has been a mainstay in the New York Savoyards G&S performances.

Fifteen Different Nationality Booths, Ethnic Meals and Entertainment to be Featured at International Institute's Four-Day Folk Fair

Mrs. Milton B. Osgood of Windmill Pointe drive, is serving as chairman of the Old World Market of the International Institute, a Torch Drive Service. The Market opens at noon today at the Institute in East Kirby street, Detroit.

Continuing through Sunday, October 5, it is a showcase for entertainment, food, crafts and gifts prepared by Detroit ethnic groups.

About 15,000 persons are expected to attend the four-day folk fair, an annual event for a quarter of a century, originally viewed by various nationality groups as a way to raise funds so they could have their own building.

That goal was reached in 1951. Since then Market proceeds have been used for additional equipment, repairs and furnishings.

At this year's Market six different ethnic groups will serve meals and 15 will have nationality gift booths of handmade or imported items. Twenty-four ethnic acts, ranging from gospel singers to gypsy dancers to exponents of the Thai classical dance, have been booked.

Volunteers work for the Market too. Among them is Mrs. Frederick Schumann, of Harcourt road, finance chairman.

A group of Tau Beta Juniors including Martha Klingbeil, president, Michelle Nason, Ann Mason, Karon Fitzgerald, Mary Starrs, Debbie Mason, Elizabeth Starrs, Robin Wright, Kathy Cester, Nene Henkel, Melinda Meigs, Barbara Howard, Franjesa Cinelli and the Cinellis' exchange student member-of-the-family-for-a-year Souad Ben-said, Renee McDuffie, Jr., Diane Seeber, Nina McCabe, Shron Kelly, Julie McClure, Ann Aronson and Janet Keydel are fulfilling their community service obligation by helping at the Market.

Senior Tau Beta members working with the girls are Mrs. Richard A. Speer, president, Mrs. Henry T. Ewald, Mrs. John P. Worcester, Mrs. Wallace Harper and Cynthia S. Osgood, Senior advisor to the Grosse Pointe Juniors.

The Market begins at noon each day and runs until 10 in the evening Thursday, Friday and Saturday and until 9 o'clock Sunday.

Crafts exhibits from noon to 4:30 o'clock in the Hall of Nations daily will include gem polishing, glass blowing, spinning, weaving, Indian beadwork, egg decorating, Estonian wood burning, candle decorating and Armenian needlework.

In the evenings the Hall will be used for ethnic entertain-

Gamrath-Hanson Rites Revealed

Aurora, Ill.'s Westminster Presbyterian Church was the setting for the Saturday, September 20, wedding of Peggy Hanson, daughter of the Russell Hansons, of Aurora, and Gary Gamrath, son of Mrs. Elmer H. Gamrath, of Beaconsfield avenue, and the late Mr. Gamrath.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, selected a floor length gown of ivory peau de soie for the afternoon double ring rites. Re-embroidered Alencon lace accented her Empire bodice, wedding ring neckpiece and long tapered sleeves.

A Chapel train fell from her high Empire yoke and her silk illusion veil was secured by a fez of lace petals set with pearls. She carried a cascade of white roses, feather mums and ivy.

Honor matron Mrs. Edwin Dawson, of Cincinnati, O., sister of the bride, and bridesmaid Julie Kehe, of Arlington Heights, Ill., wore identical frocks fashioned with ivory peau de soie skirts and brown chiffon bodices.

Their headresses were matching ivory circles with puff veils. Each carried a basket filled with wheat sheaves, bronze and yellow mums and baby's-breath.

Thomas Gamrath came from Upland, Calif., to serve as his brother's best man. Groomsmen were John Wood, Brian Malec and Peter Hanson, the bride's brother.

A reception at the Cheshire Club, Prestbury, Ill., followed the 2:30 o'clock ceremony.

The newlyweds will make their home in Birmingham. The bridegroom, a graduate of Bowling Green University, received his Masters degree in Education Administration from Michigan State University. He is presently teaching in Bloomfield Hills.

MR. and MRS. F. F. STE TEKLUH have departed The Pointe for Tryon, N.C. Moving into the Stetekluh's house in Handy road are D. and Mrs. LELAND CARTER, who have been living in Middlesex boulevard.

John Gajewski Claims A Bride

Virginia Florence Warnecke and John Frederic Gajewski wrote the service for their Saturday, September 6, wedding in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

They vacationed on Mackinac Island following the 5 o'clock rites at which The Reverend Richard W. Mitchell presided and a reception in the Church Fellowship Hall and are now making their home in Princeton, N.J., where the bridegroom has entered Princeton Theological Seminary to study for the Presbyterian Ministry.

Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Aloysius Gregory Warnecke, of Kalida, O., and Mrs. Knox Gajewski, of Torrey road, and Dr. John E. Gajewski, of Leland House, Detroit.

A band of pearls and crystals edged with lace defined the waist of the bride's floor length ivory satin organza gown. Her cascade of white miniature carnations, stephanotis, white roses and ivy was centered with cymbidium orchids.

In floor length Empire frocks of apricot shantung were honor attendant Ruth Siefker of Kalida, and bridesmaids Suzanne Nancy and Judy Gajewski, sisters of the bridegroom, and Linda Vorhees.

Their round bouquets featured miniature peach carnations with accents of yellow carnations, fern and ivy.

Best man was Preston J. Maring, of Ann Arbor. Ushers were Richard K. Gajewski, the bridegroom's brother, James L. Nyman, Robert H. Fryor, of Richmond, Va., and James W. Myers.

The bride's mother wore a pink silk jacket dress while the bridegroom's mother selected a sleeveless emerald silk ensemble. Both mothers chose cymbidium orchid corsages.

Clever is the fellow who gives his worries a little time—time to settle themselves.

Wears Alencon Lace-Accented White Satin Skimmer Gown for Afternoon Ceremony at Which She is Wed to Peter Walter Moskaluk

A reception at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial followed the Saturday, September 27, wedding of Diane Elaine Hassig, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Walter Wesson Hassig, of Stephens road, and Peter Walter Moskaluk, son of the Peter Moskaluk, of East Detroit.

The Reverend George Kurz officiated at the 2 o'clock rites in St. James Church for which the bride selected a white satin skimmer gown styled with a Victorian collar and accented with re-embroidered Alencon lace.

Matching lace formed a center band on her train and her silk illusion veil, over which lace appliques were scattered, fell from a lace headband. She carried white roses, stephanotis and baby's-breath.

She was attended by her sister, Cynthia Hassig, who served as maid of honor and bridesmaids Penny Landers, of Ann Arbor, Carole Beers, of Troy, and Emily Moskaluk, the bridegroom's sister.

They wore moire frocks, the honor maid's, moss, the brides, maids' mint, accented at their necks and bodices with metallic braid.

Wreaths of ivy and miniature mums in yellow, gold and bronze shades were placed in their hair and they carried matching bouquets tied with bronze velvet ribbon.

John Kerszulis acted as the bridegroom's best man. In the usher corps were William Has-

Frank Creedman.

The bride's mother wore a pale blue and silver brocade coat and dress ensemble. She pinned a corsage of pink Sweetheart roses and bachelor buttons to her purse.

The bridegroom's mother selected an off-white and silver knit costume and a green orchid purse corsage.

The newlyweds, vacationing in Michigan's Upper Peninsula, will return to make their home in St. Clair Shores.

To Mr. and Mrs. House Hunter:

ANOTHER GOOD REASON WHY YOU NEED A GOOD BROKER — A SINGLE CONTACT TO COMPARE YOUR PARTICULAR REQUIREMENTS WITH AVAILABLE OFFERINGS

If you are in the early stages of searching for the right house, the Maxon Plan can save you time. An excellent advance idea of an offering can be conveyed by a photograph:—

coupled with a small, simplified floor plan:—

The Grosse Pointe Farms house pictured above is for sale at $43,900 including first floor and stair laid carpeting. The good taste you see on the exterior is also found throughout the interior, which we would like to show you. We think you'll like it.

THIS IS 57 MOROSS ROAD. OPEN SUNDAY 2:30-5:00

We're devious. So is the old Law of Indirection. Service first, money second brings more money than money first. We think we've demonstrated this law in the field of residential real estate.

Footnote to Home Owners—The Maxon Plan can save you too the inconvenience of inappropriate, unnecessary interior inspection. If your house is for sale we'd be glad to inspect it and suggest a price suitable to the current markets. We usually sell our listings quite promptly at market prices.

Catherine E. Johnson Wed In Saint Paul's

Newlywed Frederick Abel Lavery, II, are vacationing in Europe; University Club Reception Follows Rites

Catherine Ellen Johnson became the bride of Frederick Abel Lavery, II, Saturday, September 27, in St. Paul's-on-the-Lakeshore. The newlyweds are vacationing in Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Johnson, of University place, the bride's parents, entertained at a reception at the University Club following the 12:30 o'clock nuptials.

For her wedding at which The Reverend Vincent Welch officiated the new Mrs. Lavery chose an Empire gown of ivory silk organza featuring a scoop neckline and a bodice and short sleeves of rose-embroidered lace.

Her full detachable train was bordered and appliqued with matching lace. A small lace headpiece caught her elbow length illusion veil and she carried a cluster of stephanotis, white carnations and white starburst.

Dianne Mascia, of Short Hills, N.J., was honor maid. Susan and Mary Beth Johnson were their sister's bridesmaids.

Each wore an Empire gown of moss green silk fashioned with a high neckline and a bodice and long sleeves of beige lace. Their cluster bouquets of bronze pompoms and yellow daisy pompoms were accented with yellow and bronze Star-flowers.

The bridegroom, son of Fred A. Lavery, of Flint, and the late Mrs. Lavery, asked Donald L. Andrea, of Troy, to act as best man.

Ushers were Andrew R. Brodun, of Livonia, Charles Kiesel, of Stamford, Conn., Richard

Lewisohn, of New York City, and Lieutenant (j.g.) J. Russell Miller, of San Francisco, Calif.

An ice blue silk dress and jacket ensemble and a pink cymbidium orchid corsage were the bride's mother's choices for her daughter's wedding.

Out-of-town guests included Onorine Lavery, of Venice, Italy, the bridegroom's sister, and the bride's brother and sister-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Johnson, Jr., of Cheboygan.

A "ONE-OF-A-KIND" RANCH IN G.P. SHORES! Let's face it. Most ranch-style houses have as much appeal as a tool shop, right? So when an exciting Early-American ranch comes along, looking as though it was straight out of HOUSE AND HOME, and just a stones-throw from the Lake, it's great news for buyers looking for the convenience of a ranch. Besides good looks and a classic location, there's an "ultra-sharp" kitchen, and central air conditioning that's dust and pollen free, thanks to a Honeywell electronic air filtration system. And a big fat 5 1/2% mortgage too. Better call for your sneak preview today! Welcome Sun. 2:30-5 p.m.

Meeting Stated By Rose Society

In keeping with greater general interest in community beautification the Grosse Pointe Rose Society is asking that those who attend the Wednesday, October 8, meeting bring questions and problems when they assemble on the second floor of the Central Library at 7:45 o'clock.

Angelo Taveggia, an outstanding Detroit Rosarian, will discuss his own unusual success with various facets of growing roses with particular stress on Ball Rose Culture. Dr. Woodburn O. Ross, Rose Society vice-president, will head a panel for fielding answers to local situations.

Because this is the time of year many gardens are permitted to "go it on their own," the Society is making an effort to have maximum attendance from Pointers who are not members of the organization. To spread the word of their welcome the group is using advertising space in this issue of the Grosse Pointe News to urge all who are at all interested in any phases of gardening to come to the meeting.

Mrs. Donald G. Ross, hospitality chairman, has announced that, prior to the meeting, dessert and coffee will be served by the hostesses for the evening, Mrs. Edward Howe and Mrs. John Veech.

Center Ski Hi Opening Oct. 5

Ski Hi for teens sponsored by Grosse Pointe War Memorial has its opening get together in Pries Auditorium Sunday afternoon, October 5, at 2 p.m. All former members, prospective members and would-be skiers are cordially invited to attend.

The program is entirely free but all will be encouraged to join the Ski Hi Club which is just $3 a year.

At the October 5 Ski Opener, Ski Hiers will meet Hugo Bohm from Boyne Mt. Hugo is an internationally known skier and lecturer and a member of the USSA Ski Instructors Certification Board. He will give tips on skiing, demonstrate movements and show an instructional film on skiing.

Also the Grosse Pointe Ski Shop will display the latest in ski equipment and fashions modeled by our own teens.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. McBride, Jr., who chaperoned the Christmas Holiday trip to Vail, Colo., last year will be on hand to show slides of that trip and give details of this year's 10-day December-January trip to Vail in Colorado's Rocky Mountains. The War Memorial has been fortunate in obtaining again a block of rooms at Vail's fine Holiday Inn for December 26 to January 4 and Mr. and Mrs. McBride have consented to chaperone another ski trip there this coming holiday time.

Cost of $210 will cover jet transportation Detroit to Denver and return, charter bus transfers to Vail and back, and lodging for the 10 days. Meals, taxis and insurance will be additional. Just 37 places are available so reservations with deposit of $50 will be taken on a first come, first serve basis.

Those not able to make the Western Trip at Holiday time may sign up for a five-day trip to Boyne County, December 26-30. Cost of $45 includes chaperone, round trip bus transportation, daily bus shuttle from the lodge to and from Boyne Highlands, Nubs Nob, Thunder Mt. and Boyne Mt., lodging and meals. Taxis are up to the individual and special ski insurance covering injuries is mandatory.

The full schedule of day and weekend trips, ski instruction and special events will be given out at this gala Ski Hi opener. All skiers or prospective skiers in grades 9-12 of the public or private or parochial schools are urged to attend.

Boutique Given Zoning Variance

The Board of Zoning Appeals of the City of Grosse Pointe on Monday, September 22, granted Irene Moses, owner of Michelle's Boutique, 17864 Mack, permission to erect an 18 by 18 foot single story addition to the rear of the existing building and reduce the off-street parking requirements from seven spaces to two spaces.

A survey was conducted of the area in August and again last week which indicated that spaces in the area.

The Board voted 6-1, with Councilman John Hamman opposing.

Public Schools in Focus

By Dr. Theos. I. Anderson, Superintendent of Schools

With the schools facing a crucial election on November 11, citizens will undoubtedly wish to compare our district with others in the metropolitan area with regard to costs. Still others may wish to compare our costs to those of suburban districts across the country. Although we shall present such data in the next few weeks, we find that per pupil costs based on different means of taxation and with a state financial structure differing from ours, it must be taken with some reservation.

In spite of these qualifications, we find that the good suburban districts of New York, Chicago, and Los Angeles seem to value education more highly than we do—if per pupil expenditure is the main criterion.

Therefore, I have chosen some data from the latest publication of the Metropolitan Bureau of School Studies, dated March, 1949, containing the kind of local information that readers of this paper may find useful. (The Metropolitan Bureau of School Studies is composed of 55 public school systems and three universities in the metropolitan area.)

Considering the much-needed bonding proposal for South High School which will be put to the electorate on November 11, residents will be interested in learning how our school district ranks in bonded indebtedness in relation to the others in the area. Grosse Pointe, with 3.57 percent of debt of its state equalized valuation ranks 27th from the top. Birmingham, for example, ranks in 11th place. Livonia ranks in 4th place, and Oak Park is in first. Thus, we see that the financial indebtedness of Grosse Pointe is not the burden that it is in other suburban districts.

How does Grosse Pointe rank in the metropolitan area in terms of per pupil costs in various budget categories among the participating school districts? In instructional costs, for example, Grosse Pointe ranks 5th, outdistanced by Birmingham, Dearborn, Highland Park, Oak Park, and River Rouge.

In operational costs (heat, light, supplies) Grosse Pointe ranks 15th, outdistanced by Birmingham, Clintondale, Dearborn, Ecorse, Fittzgerald, Hamtramck, Harper Woods, Livonia, Northville, Oak Park, River Rouge, Riverview, Southfield, and Van Dyke.

What does the study reveal about the sources of revenue of the various districts? In 1967-68, for example, Grosse Pointe received 79.9 percent of its revenues from local sources, 19.71 percent from state sources, and 28 percent from federal sources. (Readers will recall that I have discussed the decline from state sources in recent columns.)

How does this compare with Birmingham for the same year? Birmingham received 69.70 percent from local taxes, 28.59 percent from the state, and 31 percent from federal sources. During the same year our neighbor Harper Woods, received 77.35 percent of the funds to run its public schools from local taxes, 21.30 percent from the state, and 1.49 percent from the federal government.

The study of comparisons is an interesting one which I shall pursue in future columns.

MRS. BILL O. BRINK, OF EDGEMERE ROAD

by Janet Mueller

Young Barry Brink and his wife Ann saw the possibilities. So, although the house in Brys drive needed a lot, they were prepared to give it a lot. They bought it. They hammered and sawed, painted and papered. They made shutters and re-made rooms.

And, for furniture, they turned — most naturally — to Goodwill Industries where they found the perfect pieces they personally antiques.

Goodwill's a Brink family thing.

Bill, Barry's father, served as president of the Goodwill Men's Board for four years.

Marjorie, Barry's mother, is a veteran member of the Junior Group of Goodwill Industries. She's the one who got Bill interested in Goodwill.

Margie joined the Juniors because friends who were members asked her to. It was, for her, one of the friendliest gestures any friends could have made.

Right off, Marjorie Brink loved Goodwill. It helped people. It made sense.

Founded in 1933

The Juniors are a volunteer group founded in 1933 "to assist the Goodwill Industries of Greater Detroit in every way within its means."

Primarily, almost exclusively, this means monetary assistance. Fund-raising is the Juniors' chief "means."

Their annual Antiques Market and Sale, staged in the Goodwill Industries' Plant, Brush street at East Grand boulevard, is their chief means' means.

The Juniors have raised and given to the Industries more than one-half million dollars in the past 36 years. Proceeds from Antiques Markets and other projects have been used for building repairs and equipment, tuition, medication, insurance, school tuitions, prosthetic devices, truck rentals, Christmas gifts, and rehabilitation services for mentally retarded and socially and physically handicapped employees.

Market Open Nov. 7

This year's Market opens Friday, November 7, with a 7 to 10 in the evening invitational preview and continues Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, November 8 through 11.

Hours Saturday through Monday are 11 to 9 o'clock. Tuesday the Market opens at 11 and closes for the year at 6 in the evening.

Admission donation is $1.50, (preview donation, with admission by advanced ticket only, is $12.50). At-the-door valet parking is available while the Market is in progress.

Marjorie Brink is chairman of dealers for the 1969 Market. It's the hardest, most time-consuming, most fascinating Goodwill Juniors' assignment she's ever attempted.

The easiest? "I was social chairman one year and planned the dance."

Cancelled by Hitler

Unfortunately those were the 1939 Olympics toward which he was training, the ones that were cancelled due to Hitler's rise to power.

So Bill Brink never did get to wear the United States colors in an Olympic competition. But he did see Margie.

The Brinks have been Pointers 28 years with time out for a West Texas interlude during the Korean War when Bill, a pilot in World War II, was called back to train new pilots.

Margie enjoyed that time "at home." And the children loved Texas.

The children are the aforementioned Barry, 25, now, and 22-year-old Dianne, who works for a stockbroker in New York where she shares an apartment with three former classmates.

Poodle for Company

Lilo, a white standard poodle, keeps Bill and Margie company at home. You know Lilo — she's the lady who drops by the Bronze Door Doggie Bar every nice afternoon for a quick pick-me-up in the middle of her constitutional.

Margie and Bill enjoy athletics. They golf. They bowl in a mixed league at the Country Club.

Bill jogs two miles every morning. He thinks it's a good idea for Margie too; last Mother's Day he gave her a sweat-suit. She thanked him for the thought although she couldn't resist pointing out she might have preferred diamonds.

yet. She's not anti-jogging. She just hasn't gotten around to it.

"I," says Margie, reviewing her most recent attempts at self-expression: "am a professional drop-out."

"I started taking decoupage with a group of friends — and I was terrible at it."

Project Unfinished

"Last year I took some needlepoint lessons. I completed the course but I still haven't finished my pillow. Everyone else has."

She's much happier, much more satisfied, working with people. She and Bill have been very active members of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

During Barry's years at Grosse Pointe (South), High School the Brinks opened their home to two American Field Service exchange students, boys from Argentina and Brazil.

"That," says Margie, "was a wonderful experience!"

She maintains her interest in AFS. She has served on the AFS Metropolitan Detroit Board.

She maintains her interest too in Planned Parenthood and in the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Fair though she hasn't "done" anything for them recently.

That chairmanship of dealers for the 1969 Junior Group of Goodwill Industries' 22nd Annual Antiques Market and Sale is a full-time, full-year job.

They Go for the Sun

She'll head for the sun with Bill at the drop of a hat.

Eight years ago, on their 29th wedding anniversary, the Brinks chartered a 100-foot schooner with a group of friends and spent 21 days island-hopping in the Caribbean. All the friends are still the best of friends.

Last year Margie and Bill journeyed with the Detroit Athletic Club Beavers to the Bahamas. They've been to Mexico several times, never to Europe: Margie'd like that trip "very soon."

But the Brink journey she considers most fascinating is Barry and Ann's cross-country jaunt this summer. The young Brinks traveled from California, where Barry was separated from the Army Reserves, to Michigan in their Volkswagen camper, camping out all the way.

The trip took a wonderful month.

Marjorie Brink's 1969 Antiques Market dealers' chairmanship has taken a wonderful year.

"It takes before you know it," Margie maintains.

Always Seek New Blood

"I've spent a lot of time going to other antiques shows, looking for new ideas, new dealers. We want to keep the dealers we have, the ones people keep coming back to see. But we're always looking for new blood too."

This year's Market will present 40 dealers from different parts of the country showing American, English, French and Oriental furniture, prints, silver, china, glass, pewter, guns, coins.

And of course there'll be Goodwill's own booth featuring antiques, semi-antiques and items of quality collected by the Industries during the year.

Back again this year will be last year's smash success: Vignettes, by the American Institute of Interior Designers demonstrating the use of antiques in decorating.

And there'll be the Country Store and the Pantry Shelf stocked by Juniors' members and friends with all sorts of homemade goodies: jams, jellies, pickles, relishes, sauces, fruitcakes.

Plan Many Exhibits

There'll be exhibits by Goodwill employees of caning, rush seating, woodworking, repair-

AVOCADO MOUSSE

Contributed by Mrs. Richard H. Webber

From "Gourmet Pointers," the 1969 Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Cookbook

- 1 Tb. gelatin
- 1/2 C. cold water
- 1/2 C. boiling water
- 2 1/2 C. mashed avocado (4-5 medium avocados)
- 3 Tb. parsley, minced fine
- 1 Tb. lemon juice
- 1/2 Tsp. onion juice
- 1 Tsp. Worcestershire sauce
- 1 Tsp. salt
- 1/2 C. whipping cream
- 1/2 C. mayonnaise
- Watercress

Soak the gelatin in cold water. Next dissolve it in the boiling water. Let it stand until cool. Mash the avocado with a silver work, adding the parsley, lemon and onion juices, Worcestershire sauce and salt. Whip the cream stiff, fold in the mayonnaise and add the dissolved gelatin. Combine this with the avocado mixture and pour into a quart mold rinsed out with cold water. Chill until firm.

Unmold the salad on a platter and surround with watercress. The mousse may be served with tomato quarters and sliced hard-cooked eggs or with fruits of your choice. A suggestion: Sections of orange and grapefruit and plump strawberries. Serves 6-8.

ing of furniture and contract work done for industries.

The Dining Room will be open from noon to 7 o'clock Saturday and Sunday, from 11:30 to 2:30 Monday and Tuesday with fashion shows scheduled at 11:45, 12:45 and 1:45 the latter two days.

No wonder the Market commands the services of two general chairmen.

Margie Brink, in charge of dealers, is one. Her opposite number is Mrs. Donald R. Borgeson, of Birmingham, in charge of committees.

Honorary chairmen are Michigan's Governor and Mrs. William G. Milliken and Mrs. Horace E. Dodge. You might draw your conclusions about the calibre of the show from the calibre of these sponsors.

Or you might just listen to Margie.

"I think we're going to have a very good show this year," she says.

Now that, from a lady who's spent 12 months sifting the possibilities, is endorsement enough for us.

This week's "Good Taste" . . . recipe is Something Special, the first we've tried from Grosse Pointe Memorial Church's just-published "Gourmet Pointers" . . . Actually, the whole cookbook is Something Special . . . Mrs. Thomas E. Groehm, chairman of the project, and her committee members deserve highest congratulations . . . And we'd like to offer our special kudos to the Art committee including Mrs. Edward F. Suits, chairman and creator of the front cover, and the Mesdames Lewis Davies, James M. Fisher, Watson I. Ford, John P. Fraser and Frank H. Parcells who designed those perfectly charming section divider pages . . . "Gourmet Pointers," compiled in conjunction with the 1969 Memorial Church Fair, will be available at the Fair November 6 . . . Copies are $3 each . . . We'll be running sample Good Taste "teaser" recipes from the book now through Fair Day, just to whet your appetites for the whole "Gourmet Pointers" menu . . .

Cookbook fanciers . . . are advised to keep an eye out as well for "No Second Fiddle," a collection of recipes culled from the files of 50 Michigan celebrities plus 300 members of the Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra . . . Publication date for the Symphony Juniors' book is October 30 but copies at $5.95 each plus 25c for postage handling may be ordered in advance by writing No Second Fiddle, P.O. Box 6862, Grosse Pointe, Michigan 48236 . . . The "art" on this book is exciting too, (more about that in a later column), and we'll be running some No Second Fiddle Good Taste "teasers" in November . . . This project benefits the Symphony's Maintenance Fund . . .

Speaking of benefit projects . . . a Christmas card with three young carollers wishing you Faith, Joy and Peace in the Happy Holiday Season arrived in the mail this morning . . . It's this year's Children's Hospital of Michigan card with all proceeds from its sale earmarked for the purchase of equipment for the new Children's Hospital in Downtown Detroit's Medical Center . . . Lynn (Mrs. J. E.) Ziegenfuss, of Country Club drive, TUxedo-1-5546, is 1969 general chairman of Children's Hospital Christmas cards . . .

How about a project . . . that benefits YOU, personally? . . . Also in this morning's mail was a note from Rae (Mrs. James) Webers, of Lakepointe avenue, a "Pointer of Interest" last June . . . Rae, as you'll recall, is a big local booster of Hannan YMCA's programs — her "P.I." picture, in a bathing suit, was proof positive that those programs really make you look as well as feel great! — and she writes that Hannan Y is inviting ladies to participate in its women's gym-and-swim sessions . . . Gym-and-swim meets each Tuesday and Thursday from 9:30 to 11 in the morning and 7 to 8:30 in the evening at the Y in East Jefferson avenue . . . The gym session consists of exercises to keep participants in shape plus optional workouts on the trampoline, an indoor running track and handball courts . . . After exercising the women are invited to the swimming pool . . . Hours for women's swim have been extended this fall: Now women can swim from noon to 1 o'clock and 6:30 to 7:30 o'clock weekdays, (these hours, formerly for men only, are now coed) . . . The Hannan Branch also offers a Friday evening family gym-and-swim with the gymnasium open from 7 to 8, the pool from 8 to 9 . . . and Saturday swimming instruction for children, ages 5 through 7 from 1:30 to 2:15, ages 3 through 5 from 2:15 to 3 o'clock . . . Ray Faunce at the Y, Valley 2-7200, is the man to call for further information . . .

A bit of background . . . on Barbara Walters, first lecturer in the Bon Secours Hospital Assistance League-sponsored 1969-70 Celebrity Series, appearing next Thursday morning at the Esquire Theatre . . . As "Today" TV Show's hostess she's "on camera" more than any other woman on television . . . She's the daughter of Latin Quarter founder Lou Walters and a Sarah Lawrence College graduate . . . She began her television career writing and reporting behind the scenes . . . Her roster of world-famous "interviewees" includes India's Prime Minister Indira Gandhi, the late President Eisenhower and Mrs. Eisenhower . . . Her "Today" travels have taken her to England, Greece, Paris, India and Southeast Asia with Jacqueline Kennedy . . .

A bit of background . . . on Dr. Margaret Mead, first lecturer in the 1969 Liggett School Lecture Series, appearing next Thursday morning, (her lecture's at 10, Mrs. Walters' is at 11), in Liggett's Kresge Auditorium . . . She's curator of Ethnology, American Museum of Natural History and adjunct professor of Anthropology, Columbia University . . . Her "Coming of Age in Samoa" is a landmark in the development of modern anthropological studies . . . If there's a question-and-answer period following the lecture, ask her about her views on Trial Marriages . . .
