HEADLINES of the WEEK As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, November 13

LT. WILLIAM L. CALLEY, JR., 26, Vietnam combat veteran is charged by the U.S. Army of deliberately murdering at least 109 Vietnamese civilians during a search-and-destroy mission in March, 1968, in Pinkville, a Vietcong stronghold. He has been charged with six specifications of mass murder, Calley and others associated with the incident describe it as "a case of carrying out orders." He is awaiting military determination of whether the evidence justifies a general court martial.

UNBEATEN REDFORD HIGH School was preparing for a showdown for the City League football championship when it was stripped of all its victories and honors Wednesday in an unprecedented eligibility ruling. Twenty-two Detroit public high school principals ordered the games forfeited because two Redford players had failed to report a change of address.

Friday, November 14
VIETNAM PROTESTORS bearing candles and the names of soldier dead filed quietly from Arlington Cemetery past the White House to the foot of the U.S. Capitol Thursday to start a 40-hour "March Against Death." The marchers, numbering in the thousands, passed single file and hand-in-hand along the route. There were no reports of trouble during the initial stages of the three-day anti-war showing in security-edged Washington.

Saturday, November 15
THE APOLLO 12 ASTRO-NAUTS rocketed toward the moon Friday night, undaunted by a frightening electrical malfunction during the blast-off into a storm at Cape Kennedy. Flight commander Charles H. Conrad and astronaut Alan L. Bean made a trip into the lunar-landing module to determine if it had suffered damage during the wild early moments of the flight and found everything in order.

Sunday, November 16
AN ENORMOUS THROG of up to 400,000 young, white, middle class youngsters flooded down historic Pennsylvania avenue and carpeted the Washington Monument grounds to express their outrage at the war in a massive peace festival held within sight of the White House Saturday. The march was generally peaceful and orderly.

MORE THAN HALFWAY to target, the Apollo 12 gave their spaceship a rocket kick ahead Saturday, surrendering a safety factor that guaranteed their return to earth if trouble bars them from the moon. Charles Conrad Jr., Richard F. Gordon, Jr., and Alan L. Bean fired their main rocket motor for 8.8 seconds at 6:15 p.m. The scene was beamed back to earth on color television.

Monday, November 17
THE REMNANTS of an anti-war army of protesters went sightseeing among the littered monuments of Washington Sunday and gave the capital back to its politicians, who praised the behavior of the vast, but by no means silent, majority of demonstrators.

Tuesday, November 18
AMERICA'S SECOND MOON-LANDING team rocketed into lunar orbit Monday night and jubilantly reported the Yankee Clipper spaceship "has arrived." The Apollo 12 crew, following a risky route, whipped behind the moon at 10:34 p.m. EST and fired a five-minute, 55.4 second rocket blast that lowered them into a 72 to 194-mile-orbit, one mile higher at its lowest point than planned.

HUBERT HUMPHREY, former Vice-President, accused the Nixon administration Monday of unleashing a "calculated, pre-meditated attack" on the right of dissent and free speech. It was Humphrey's harshest criticism to date of the Republican administration. He made the statements at a press conference during the opening session of the new "Democratic Policy Council," which he heads.

Honors End 'Year of the Blue Devil'

—Picture by John Ludwig

It was a week of awards at Grosse Pointe South High School and smack dab in the middle of the awards table stood the Grosse Pointe NEWS trophy, presented to the Blue Devils for their 7-6 triumph over Grosse Pointe North in the first intra-community football game between the two schools. Holding special plaques given to them for their fine job in leading the Blue Devil teams to a great season by the Dads' Club, South grid coaches, (from the left), DEB NOLAN, JON RICE, AL MOEBUS, GENE MATECUN, Head Coach RUSS HEPNER, JIM GARLOUGH, JIM COLBY and GEORGE DUDITCH, not only beam their contentment at having claimed the NEWS trophy, but also give a smile of relief that the long season has finally ended.

School Board To Pick New Election Date

Public Invited to Attend Special Meeting at 6:30 Next Monday Evening at 389 St. Clair

The Grosse Pointe Board of Education will hold a special meeting at 6:30 p.m. on Monday, November 24, in the Board Room of the school's administrative offices at 389 St. Clair avenue.

Purpose of the meeting is to set the amount and date of an election for operational millage. The trustees have to meet at 6:30 because of other commitments Monday evening.

Mrs. Paul G. Hykes, president of the Board, will preside, and Dr. Theos I. Anderson, Superintendent of Schools, will present his recommendation on the election.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

Men's Garden Club To Meet

The Men's Garden Club of Grosse Pointe will hold its next meeting this evening, Thursday, November 20, at 8 o'clock in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. There will be a panel discussion on Work for Winter. All men gardeners are invited.

Farms Police Seek Identity Of Motorist Who Hit Boy

Farms police are seeking the identity of a woman driver, who might, or might not have known that she struck a 10-year-old boy at Kercheval avenue and Muir road on Monday afternoon, November 17.

According to information given to police, the victim, Robert R. Striker of 99 Muir road, returning to school after lunch at home, was crossing Kercheval, walking alongside his bicycle, with the green light in his favor, and under the direction of a safety patrol boy, when he was struck by a late model, silver-gray car, possibly a Chevrolet, traveling north on Kercheval. The driver slowed for the red light and hit the boy, knocking him to the pavement and pinning him between the car and bike.

The safety patrol boy and another patroller at the intersection, who witness the mishap, said that there was a

County Supervisor Bryant, Health Director Pickett Tangle over Drug Program

Pointer Irked over Reaction of County Leader to proposals for Curbing Growing Use of Narcotics by Students

Last week the NEWS printed a drug education pilot program suggested by Dr. George Pickett, City-County Health Director, by Pointer William R. Bryant, Jr., of the Wayne County Board of Supervisors.

The proposal was a result of a meeting Mr. Bryant held with key Wayne County leaders, including William Lucas, under-sheriff; Frank R. Van Wulfen, sheriff's narcotic bureau; Howard Austin, Detroit police narcotics; Romaine E. Kious, City-County Health Department; Walter Kaiser, director of Federated Library System; and Jerry Lorence, NARCO representative.

All those in attendance agreed that the use of drugs of all types is rapidly increasing and invading lower age groups, and any program suggested must be factual, without any attempt to frighten, as well as be personally tailored to the audience.

Seminars Suggested

Subsequently Mr. Bryant proposed a pilot project which included creating drug education seminars for school personnel and drug education programs for specific grades in a school system. He carefully outlined what should be included in both these programs, and followed it with suggestions as to how this program should be handled.

This week he received Dr. Pickett's response to his suggestions. It follows in full.

Dear Mr. Bryant:

I have studied, discussed and reacted to your letter of September 26 concerning a drug education proposal for more than a month.

It is clear that a drug abuse control program is needed in Detroit and Wayne County. It is also clear that a strong educational program, focusing around the school system, must be included as a part of the overall program. Drug abuse, broadly construed to include alcoholism and possibly even cigarette smoking, is one of the more complicated disease control problems facing public health in the United States. There has been, and is and probably will continue to be an "endemic" problem of drug abuse throughout man's history. This I tend to categorize as a problem arising out of a basic psychopathology, influencing a small number of people. Detection, treatment and rehabilitation are all important components in a program to deal with this problem which is essentially a mental health program. But the drug abuse problem which has caused such public consternation these past few years is not related to any fundamental psychopathology either individual or social in nature. It is a manifestation of a real human need coupled with ignorance of drugs and a typical American risk taking behavior phenomenon. A few of these risk takers will be harmed by their experience and will need treatment, programs. The prevention of drug abuse in this "normal" segment of our population requires an effective health education program.

The Wayne County Health Department is, as you know, heavily involved in drug abuse control at the present time. We lack the resources to work effectively with the many community groups concerned. I feel that a specific education program for Wayne County at this time is somewhat premature. The Commission on Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice together with the Special Committee on Drug Dependence and Abuse will be putting their recommendations together in the

Park Sets Up Rubbish Law Procedures

Rules Must be Followed as Required Under Provisions of Old Ordinance Still in Force

Since the Park council rescinded the recently enacted ordinance which would require city residents to bag leaves and rubbish, the Park must revert back to an ordinance in force for many years. The NEWS has been asked to clarify the provisions of the present law, as a public service to the people of the Park.

City Manager Robert Stone said that the old ordinance does not clearly define various procedures that were included in the rescinded ordinance, but it does give him the authority to outline certain rules and regulations that are felt necessary for efficient rubbish collection.

The city manager said that from September 1 through December 31, leaves will be picked up with city vacuum-truck equipment, on regular days of rubbish pick ups. During the time of heavy leaf fall, every effort will be made to pick-up leaves as often as possible.

Cleanliness Is Goal

He said that every effort will be made to facilitate rubbish collection, so that the city will maintain as clean an appearance as possible, and still keep costs under control. The collection of rubbish is complicated and costly because the sanitary land-fill, now in use, is located at Twenty-one Mile road, just half a mile from I-94, in Chesterfield Township.

The land is operated by the Grosse Pointe-Clinton Refuse Disposal Authority, but is owned by the Township, which is permitting the use of the land for sanitary fill for from six to eight months, after which it will need the property for development as a recreation area.

Stone said that a round trip to the dump and back covers approximately 41 miles, which is not only costly, but time consuming.

To facilitate the collection of leaves, so as to clear them off the streets, the leaves are stockpiled at the Three Mile Drive Park, and then later disposed of, the city manager said.

Will Buy Third Loader
He said that the Park has two leaf-loading trucks at the present time, and that next year's budget will include funds

Residents Discuss Views on Outcome Of School Election

Voters with Opposing Attitudes Interviewed in Attempt to Find Out Why Electorate Defeated All Three Proposals on Ballot

By Pepper Whitelaw

Grosse Pointe voters turned down all three propositions at the November 11 Special School Election. Proposition No. 1 was to maintain the public schools' current educational program in the system's 10 elementary, three middle and two high schools.

Proposition #2 was to improve the schools' instructional program particularly by adding special instruction for both gifted children and children with learning difficulties.

Proposition #3 was for renovation of South High School.

The NEWS interviewed five local citizens with varied attitudes on the election. Their comments follow:

Mrs. George Maghielse, housewife, mother of four, three of whom are in Grosse Pointe Schools, and Millage Chairman for Maire School said:

Praise for Workers
"First of all, I cannot give enough praise for the time and energy spent by three people, Barbara Hoffman, Don Briggs and George Eddington, who had the responsibility of guiding the millage campaign for all of the schools. They made themselves always available to answer questions, solve problems, or be shoulders to lean on.

"In the response gathered by the 50 marvelous millage workers for Maire School it was certainly apparent that most Maire parents believed the millage proposals to be an honest and necessary appraisal of the school system's needs. I got the impressions that most parents were well informed and concerned. However the results of the election show that there is obviously a need to make more people concerned and knowledgeable about the schools. I do believe that Maire passed Proposal #1 by 22 votes on the basis of the strong support by the fathers late in the day. Even though we lost, it was an enjoyable experience for me because so many people became involved and worked so hard."

Dentist's Reaction
Louis J. De Perro, Jr. DDS, made the following statement: "I voted against the recent millage proposals due to the method of presentation of facts as they exist. I do not believe the school system is in that bad a condition for two reasons listed below:

1. "Student cost at the present time is $1,151.00 per student per year from the Kindergarten through the 12th grade. The proposals would increase the student cost another $279 which would then make our student cost $1,430 per year per student. I have four children in the school system and through the years the class size has averaged 30 per class, sometimes more. At the present $1,151 per student the class of 30 generates $34,600 per year. Allowing one and one-third teachers per class, (the one-third teacher is for 2 free preparation per-

Women Nabbed After Coat Theft from 'Hill' Store

Two Detroit women were arraigned for examination yesterday, November 19, before Farms Municipal Judge Robert Pytell, on charges of shoplifting. They had been in the Wayne County Jail, in default of $2,500 each, since the date of their arrest, Tuesday, November 11.

Farms Det. Joseph Miller said that the women, Barbara Nell Williams, 20, and her sister-in-law, Dorothy Jean Williams, 24, both of 908 Navahoe, are accused of taking an expensive fur coat from the Village Store, 88 Kercheval avenue, on the Tuesday date.

According to information released by Miller, a witness, name withheld, standing across the street from the Village Store, observed the pair getting out of a car, and enter the shop. A few minutes later, the girls emerged, with Barbara wearing the coat, valued at

Will Assist Cleaners, Cut Vandalism

Proposal for Special Permits Deleted from Ordinance Approved by Council Monday

By Phil Loranger

The Woods City Council on Monday, November 17, unanimously voted to adopt an ordinance regulating parking on residential streets in that community between the hours of 3 a.m. to 5 a.m., but vetoed a proposal for special parking permits, which had been part of the originally proposed ordinance.

"The Committee of the Whole had given the proposal a thorough going over prior to the regular Council meeting," said Chester Petersen, Woods city manager. "Although the Council members acknowledged that there would be some special circumstances, which will require study, they decided that the parking ban for the two morning hours would be in the best interests of the community."

See Two Benefits

Petersen pointed out that the ordinance is aimed at clearing the streets of vehicles during those hours when street cleaners and snow plows are in operation and that, in addition, the ordinance would reduce the amount of vandalism to parked cars in the Woods and enable police patrols to better observe their patrol routes.

A number of nearby communities have adopted such ordinances and police officials have reported a sharp reduction in the number of incidents of parked car vandalism.

A section of the ordinance which would have made it impossible for residents who found it difficult to park off the streets during the two-hour period, to obtain special annual permits for the sum of $10, was overruled by the Council.

Cite Apartment Problem
"The residents of the Vernier road apartments fall under the special consideration category," claimed Petersen. "There is already such a dearth of available parking spaces for them that they are now being forced to park on the street. The Council will give all such circumstances full consideration."

The ordinance will be published in its entirety in the NEWS and the final reading and adoption is slated for December 8. The ordinance will become effective 21 days from that date.

At the request of the residents of Hidden lane, the Council deferred action on the installation of a pedestrian gate on Hidden lane for North High students until December 15, to enable the Hidden Lane Homeowners Association to study the problem.

Double Irritant

The trespassing of students through a lot at the corner of Wedgewood drive and Hidden lane and the fact that they continually rip parts of a wooden fence away to make their crossing east to the high school, has become a growing source of irritation to both the homeowners and the students. The Council will take the matter under study, prior to the December 15 meeting.

Woods Residents Gain 'Ice Time'

Under an unique arrangement worked out between school officials at University-Liggett School and the Woods City Council, Woods residents will be able to enjoy ice skating for a 16-week period at the University School's McCann Skating Rink again this year.

"Residents will be able to skate each Wednesday evening, beginning the first week of December and lasting through mid-March," said Chester Petersen, Woods city manager. "The charge for an evening of exercise will only be 50 cents."

The Woods Council has reserved the ice rink on Wednesday evenings, between the hours of 7 to 10 o'clock, ever since it was opened. This year's rental will cost the city $1,600.

(Continued from Page 1) near future. I have reviewed some of the draft material and recognize it is a substantial step forward. It would seem imprudent to develop a local education effort in advance of the more thorough study which will have to come at a state level. It is imperative, however, that we begin to develop the effective collaborative approach to drug abuse that can take maximum advantage of the new curriculum and materials to be developed if the recommendations of the Commission are adopted. In addition to all of the school districts in Detroit and Wayne County, the United Community Services, the Health Department and a number of other established agencies, we are also dealing with the Detroit After-Care Program, the Lafayette Clinic, Detroit Teen Challenge, Synanon, Harper Hospital's Methadone Program, the Mayor's Committee for Rehabilitation of Narcotics Addicts, Narcotics Anonymous, and Analysis Anonymous in Detroit. There are also programs in Dearborn Heights, Grosse Pointe, Allen Park and many other areas of Wayne County. Some of the most active education work currently going on in the community is coming from the students and faculty of the School of Pharmacy at Wayne State University. I have discussed this activity with Dean Barr and he hopes to expand it over the course of the next school year. We would very much like to work closely with him in developing an effective program. As additional educational materials are developed and as curricula are established which have the support of the school systems, the health department should be in a position to place the resources listed above into an effective posture in order to get a job done.

The upshot of all this is that I am now inclined not to attempt to develop a specific educational program as a demonstration project for any one school district or group of children or parents, but feel that we need an additional staff person to work as a coordinator for an interagency council on drug abuse in Detroit and Wayne County. This person would be responsible for acting as the executive director of the group and for inventorying all presently available resources and how they are being utilized as well as for coordination of requests for service, advice and consultations from other groups in the community. This person would have the basic responsibility for the development of an effective drug abuse education program in Detroit and Wayne County but would be expected to work effectively with the Michigan Commission as the more studied approaches to the problem move forward. A single person, either a health educator, a social worker, a psychologist or even possibly a pharmacist, together with a secretary, working under the direction of Mr. Kious could do much to coordinate the existing efforts and help us to meet the challenge in Wayne County.

After receipt of Dr. Pickett's letter, Mr. Bryant penned the following response:

A time when action is needed you suggest further study. In a situation where no one is going to come up with a perfect, proven program you discourage a pilot project. At a time when there could be an immediate submission for Omnibus Crime Bill grant monies you advocate delay.

If the program proposal made by me is not the best proposal which can be or has been made, where is the better one? If there is none, when will there be one? What are you doing to come up with a better proposal? If it is not your responsibility then whose is it?

The time for action is NOW! We know there is an epidemic. How long do we study an epidemic before we try to cure it?

Please give a more responsible answer to the proposal than you have to date. I have indicated to you from the start, the proposal was not intended to be a fixed proposal but, rather, was intended to put a specific proposal on the table. If it is not the proper approach then I believe it is your responsibility to come up with a better program. I am no expert. If there is a better way then, by all means, let's do it the better way. I don't my program, I want a program, the best one possible. But I want it, we need it, NOW!

Picked to Head School Council

Mrs. Robert M. Peabody of Lochmoor boulevard, has been elected chairman of the Metropolitan Detroit Independent School Parents' Council. This advisory board was founded in May, 1969, to foster cooperation between independent schools in the Detroit Area.

"We wish to establish a channel of communication between independent schools so that we can share ideas and more fully utilize our talents. Initially, we hope to become more familiar with all of the independent schools in Greater Detroit; their goals, their philosophies, their structure," reports Mrs. Peabody.

Mrs. Peabody is a graduate of The Academy of the Sacred Heart, predecessor school to The Grosse Pointe Academy, and is currently recording secretary of the Alumni Association of The Academy of the Sacred Heart. She is second vice-president on the board of trustees of The Grosse Pointe Academy, and her daughter, Elizabeth, nine, is in the fourth class at the Academy.

Other schools represented on the council include: Liggett-University, Friends, Waldorf, Detroit Country Day, Cranbrook, Kingswood, Brookside, Bloomfield Country Day, Koeper City and Country, and Kingsbury.

Burglars Foiled By Store Owner

A television and service shop owner foiled an attempt by two men trying to steal a valuable console set from the window of his store, according to information released by Park authorities.

It was disclosed that Richard Ludwig, who has living quarters at the rear of his place at 35007 Kercheval, was working late on Monday, November 17, at the rear of his store, when at approximately 3:55 a.m., he heard the sound of breaking glass.

Ludwig told investigating officers that he ran to the front of the shop, and observed the front window broken and two men trying to lift a very heavy black and white television console, valued at $250, through the window. The would-be thieves appeared to be in their early thirties, he said.

When they saw him, Ludwig said, the pair dropped the set, and fled west on Kercheval, then north on Wayburn and disappeared.

When the robbers dropped the console, the owner said, they caused damage to it estimated at about $100. Replacement cost of the front plate window glass is estimated at between $300 and $400, it was said.

the ground at the rear of 84 Kercheval, and gave it to the policemen.

Miller said that at the station, Barbara, under questioning, admitted having on the coat, but claimed that she was returning to the store, when the witness shouted at her, and she ran.

The detective said that warrants charging the women with larceny from a building was approved by the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office.

On Monday, November 3, the Village Store was visited by an unknown person, after which a woman clerk discovered a fur coat, valued at $750, missing from the rack.

The garment was reported gone, when the clerk made a final check before closing the business for the day, at 5 p.m. She told police that the coat had been on the rack two hours earlier.

Park Rubbish Law Defined

for the purchase of a third machine.
Park residents are asked to adhere to the following rules, as provided under the ordinance and which will be enforced by the Police and Public Service Departments:

1. Containers, disposable and otherwise, may be placed at the curb in the afternoon prior to the collection day. However, all remaining containers MUST be removed by the morning following the collection day.

2. Rubbish containers may be of metal, plastic, cardboard boxes and plastic bags. Plastic bags are not required, but are encouraged as a disposable container, and will be on sale at the Municipal Building for the convenience of the residents. Rubbish within the containers must be compacted in such a manner so that it will not blow around the neighborhood, or be easily disturbed. Loose rubbish and material should be either piled or stacked in a neat manner. Broken furniture and other debris should be neatly stacked against the container.

Four Months of Leaves
4. Leaves will be picked up by leaf-loading machines during the months of September, October, November and December. In all other months, leaves and all other garden debris (grass clippings, etc.) will be handled as rubbish and MUST be in containers.

5. Short pieces of brush, not to exceed four feet in length, will be picked up on the regular rubbish day. Longer pieces of brush will be picked up by separate crews using the chipping machine. Brush is to be piled next to the curb in a neat, accessible manner. This does not include debris left from commercial landscaping companies.

6. Discarded appliances will be collected in the following manner. The resident will call the Public Service Department to make arrangements for special pick up by a private contractor.

And 7. Garbage will be collected separately and must be paid for in advance. All efforts should be made to reduce the number of special garbage pick ups as soon as possible.

Slone said that the cooperation of the residents is urgently requested. With the help of the citizens, the best possible service will be rendered, and costs kept to a minimum.

lods per day per teacher, we find the teacher cost uss up $16,500 of this $34,600. The $16,500 cost is computed on the $12,400 average annual teacher salary. The remaining $18,000, then, must be for administration, office personnel and maintenance and buildings. In my opinion there is inefficiency here.

2. "These proposals amounted to a 31 percent increase in local dollar cost from last year. At present our local dollar cost has increased 49.7 percent from the 1965 base accomplished by the equalization exercise and the approval of one millage referendum. The approval of the recent proposals would have increased our local dollar cost to 96.6 percent over the 1965 base.

"The above conclusions are drawn from the following data: $30,000=S.E.V. per student. $15,000,000=Grosse Pointe School Dist. Budget as published by The Detroit News. 13,000=student enrollment. $400,000,000=S.E.V. in school district."

Mother of Students
Mrs. F. Wallace Bissinger, of Hampton road, mother of three boys enrolled in the Grosse Pointe Public Schools, said:

"I am not a member of the Ferry School PTA Board. I have never belonged to Citizens for Education, Friends of the Grosse Pointe Schools, Committee for the Preservation of the Grosse Pointe Schools, School Board, Millage Study Committee, League of Women Voters, etc. I did not volunteer to be Ferry School Millage Chairman. I was asked and finally agreed to do the job when I realized that volunteers were not breaking down the doors in an effort to assume this unpopular responsibility. If you 'take' from a community you must also 'give' to it. I had some time, I have the interest in education and I can see the needs for supporting the Grosse Pointe Schools. With the dedicated efforts of five area chairmen, who did volunteer for their jobs, we involved 130 parents as block workers. My five area chairmen were: Mrs. Ralph Cross, Mrs. John Frakes, Mrs. Donald Stewart, Mrs. Henry Maskey, and Mrs. George Kypros.

"In May I met with each area chairman separately to explain what their block workers would be asked to do and to assist in recruiting people to act as block workers. On May 28 we had a meeting for block workers and Mrs. Hykes explained the expiring millage and discussed possible proposals. September 24 we held a block workers meeting with Barbara Thompson and Bill Adams explaining the proposals. On September 25 and 26 I went over the material separately with each area chairman to again explain material and procedure for block workers. On October 3 the Ferry School PTA Board, Area chairman and speakers for the coming PTA meeting met with Dr. Anderson to be sure they were thoroughly familiar with the proposals.

"At our Ferry School PTA meeting October 15 we asked four parents to speak on the importance of supporting this millage. Those parents were: Thomas Candler, John Kelsey, Charles VanDusen, and William Porter. On October 16, 17, and 20 John Rohrer, our principal, Howard Wright, our PTA president, and I met with block workers in each area to explain and discuss the campaign. On November 6 we held a publicized meeting for all interested citizens who wished to question, discuss, argue or hear more on the millage. Ray MacArthur was the staff person present to assist the presentation. Not one person appeared at that meeting.

"All along we met with polite disinterest. There were isolated cases of hostility but most often the problem was apathy. As long as things appear to be moving along in a relatively smooth fashion, why get involved because it will probably mean giving up recreation time to a cause that the other guy will take care of. Mr. Rohrer and Mr. Wright, gave great amounts of energy, thought and time in support of this millage. "Fortunately I can honestly say that we have many marvelous people living in our Ferry School District. We have many informed and interested people with a sense of humor, balance and understanding that are a delight to know and work with. People who take the time and make the effort to understand and realize why a "Yes" vote on the election was so important. I don't yet know how to reach the rest of our citizens but the needs we had on the November 11 election are still there and we must have our citizens understand."

Teacher's Views
Mrs. Ben Almany, of Broadstone road, former school teacher and housewife with a son in the Pointe School System furnished this information:—"I voted "No" on Proposition #1, (yes on Proposition 2# and Proposition #3), because I wished to protest the actions and attitudes taken by our recent School Board members. It is unfortunate that this route is the only one open to me.

"I have tried to find other ways. I attend almost all Board Meetings; I have worked on The Middle School Committee and am presently a member of The Health and Safety Education Curriculum Committee. I will continue to work for those things which I feel are contributing to better education.

"However, I will not perpetuate the present political controlled Board and some of their educational policies because I do not feel they are in the best interest of educating our children. While we still do have local control of our schools and can communicate with some of our Board Members and administrators they never seem to hear anyone who does not reinforce their own way of thinking. There are very few avenues left through which people may express their point of view . . . Millage and Bond Issues are two.

"At a recent Board Meeting one member said, 'I have had differences with the Board but a vote against the Millage is not the way to settle problems.

There are other ways.' "I would challenge all the Board Members to tell me how. Better yet, show me these avenues."

Take a taste drive

At the Woods, a test drive is a taste drive. When you get behind the wheel of a new Volkswagen or Mercedes-Benz, you know it's going to ride smoothly, effortlessly...because you already know the reputation of these fine imported automobiles for quality, engineering and craftsmanship. But what you feel when you first drive one is that flush of pride that goes with knowing that you're driving a "classic"...a car created to reflect your own good taste. And after you taste drive one, you'll never want to even test drive anything less.

nues to effective communications and settling of differences. "I am waiting to learn how to become more effective and maybe next time I won't have to vote No."

Attorney Speaks Out
John K. Grylls, attorney-at-law, who has three children in the Pointe School System and who spoke at the War Memorial on November 5, made the following observations to the NEWS:

"I believe that the Board of Education and the Administration do not convey the whole truth. It seems that with the help of the Citizens for Education, they believe they can steam-roller any proposition through. They think so meanly of the average Grosse Pointer that they utilize advertising promotions, scare tactics and half truths to sell their proposals.

"In fact, the truth is so convincing as to the needs of our school system and inadequate plant that even a diehard anti-board individual had to support the millage and bond issue.

"Let me illustrate some of the tactics used that affected the voting outcome:

1. False representations that the 50-member millage committee suggested the level of education program and millage requirement.
  2. Partially false representation as to suggestion for an "add-on three-fourths mills for improvements."
  3. False representation that the 50-member South High Study Committee suggested a 6.8 million dollar renovation and addition.
  4. Statements by the Millage Steering Committee that anyone known to be against the millage should not be contacted to vote.
  5. Generous propaganda barrage as to South High being (a) a fire trap (b) a health menace (c) a safety hazard.
  6. Distribution of anti-rumor literature in areas where there were no rumors. This is akin to literature passed out against other literature, etc.
- "In addition: Administration members acknowledged that they did not believe that the proposals would pass.

Timing of the election one week after City elections showing probable unconcern for election costs.

Timing of the election two days after tax bills were received by City residents.

But possibly more important . . .

The attitude of the Board of Trustees which continually alienates first the conservatives, then the liberals, then the teachers, then the students.

The Board must sooner or later take an understanding attitude toward the well meaning and deeply convinced citizens of this whole community regardless of political philosophy—social connections—individual peculiarity or economic means. They must repudiate the division of the community and the party's developing.

"The real question however; is what happens now.

"A good beginning would be for the Board to apologize to the citizenry for the manner of its campaign. I realize full well that no one on the Board feels the least bit responsible for the millage defeat, but an apology might at least show that they care about the constituency.

"Next, since the Bond proposal will require a six months delay, the time should be spent in developing an overall class housing plan including Elementary, Middle and High School classes plus a survey of the Private school facilities. Such a plan should make predictions of population growth, class size, and space needs for at least 20 years. The requirement for additional classes would then be graphically illustrated and a step-by-step building program could be developed.

"Next, all areas of operations including teacher, pupil-teacher, administrator ratios must be re-examined so that the most efficient cost versus education plan can be developed. The budget can then be determined from expected costs rather than from past budgets plus percentage increases. A new millage request will be forthcoming any way. A mere cut in percentage will only prove that the first millage rejection was justified.

"Further, the only campaign issue should be the quality of Grosse Pointe education versus the cost. There should be no talk of the Governor's proposals in regard to this millage election. Not that the Governor's proposals aren't of utmost importance, but because they are not germane to this year's election."

of Mayor William Butler, who is in Europe, favored the solicitation of suggestions, which will be given to the Mayor's Advisory Planning Committee for study and recommendations.

Farms residents are invited to write or phone, preferably write, any suggestions that they feel will help alleviate the controversy pertaining to the leaf problem. Letters would be more appropriate, since these can just be given to the Committee, whereas, conversation by phone would involve writing down the proposed solutions, which could be time consuming.

Mail all suggestions, or if you wish, take them in person, to the Municipal Building, 90 Kerby road. If you must phone, the number is TUxedo 5-6600.

Teens to Give Bard's Comedy

Grosse Pointe's newest teenage theater group, Pasture Creek Players are deep in rehearsal for Shakespeare's rollicking comedy of mistaken identity, "Comedy of Errors."

Performances will be held in Fries Auditorium, Wednesday, November 26, and Friday, November 28, at 8 o'clock. A special Saturday matinee, November 29, will be presented at 2 o'clock.

"Comedy of Errors," probably Shakespeare's first comedy, revolved about the plot of twins, separated at birth and attended by twin servants, who constantly are mistaken for one another until their lives, marriage, reputations, business, credit standings, and freedom are in jeopardy. The resolution of these difficulties is effected in the last act by a device as old as the theater itself "Deus Ex Machina" (literally God out of a machine) when the twins are reunited, their parents are reunited, and all ends in a celebration.

Shakespeare's play is based on Menaechni by the second century BC Roman playwright, Plautus, but Shakespeare added the extra set of twin servants and otherwise elaborated on the plot to create one of his most amusing and entertaining early plays.

Christopher Clayton, Merit Scholarship Finalist from North High School, plays Antipholus of Syracuse, Mike Metcalf, 16, of Vernier road, undertakes Antipholus of Ephesus. The twin Dromio's are played by brothers Bill and Jim Kaloger, of Linville avenue. Leonard Berlon, North High School senior, plays Solinus, Duke of Ephesus. Ruth Duzzie plays Emilia and Dan Davis plays Egeon. Lorie Brown of Notre Dame avenue, has the role of Adriana, Luciana, her sister is portrayed by Lynn Seeber, of Hampton road. Others in the cast include Jim Freeman, Bonnie Thomson, Bonnie Breidenbach, Judy Davis, Barry Kieren, Karen Van Buskirk and Sue Brown.

The play is under the direction of Larry Nathan Burns of The Park, who was producer and director of the Irish Hills Shakespeare Festival, 1962-64 where he staged about one third of the entire Shakespeare Canon in Michigan's only professional festival playhouse.

The young people in the acting company are making their own costumes and sets, composing and playing the incidental music and printing their own tickets, as well as manning the technical staff.

Scoring the Pointes

By Phil Loranger

The inventory of football gear has been taken; the helmets, cleats and shoulder pads have been stored away and the lime on the gridiron has been left to melt away under the winter snows.

Athletes of all sizes and ages must now turn to the warmth of gymnasiums to stay in shape and find their niche in a sport which is played on hardwood floors, foam rubber mats or in the chlorine filled water of pools.

Throughout the Pointe, basketball coaches are impressing upon their players the importance of ball control and accurate shooting, wrestling coaches are desperately looking for enough candidates to fill all 12 weight classes and swimming coaches are glued to their stop-watches, hoping to find an unknown Olympic-minded natator.

Similar to its extensive coverage of the 1969 football season at the six Pointe area high schools — Grosse Pointe South, University-Liggett, St. Paul Catholic, Grosse Pointe North, Austin and St. Ambrose — The NEWS will present game coverage of the basketball endeavors of the high schools and choose an All-Pointe cage team and Coach of the Year upon completion of the regular season schedules.

Although it is impossible to give as extensive coverage to the other winter sports, the NEWS will attempt to give them as much "ink" as possible.

Chuck Holiday, Grosse Pointe South's athletic director and head basketball coach for the past nine years, has a monumental task awaiting him this season because he has no letterman returning from his 1969 squad, which romped to the Border Cities League title on the strength of a 17 and one record.

"I've got a number of promising ball players and, if we can make normal progress up to the Christmas break, we should be all set," claimed Hollosy. "I'd compare us to this year's football team. If we stick together, we can go a long way."

The Blue Devils open their season on December 5, taking on a much-improved Dearborn team, in what promises to be a really tough schedule.

Call him the "Dean of Grosse Pointe basketball" — "The Miracle-Worker," or "Mister Basketball," but there is no way humanly possible to describe the coaching record of St. Paul's Ed Lauer, the head mentor of basketball at the lair of the Lakers for the past 31 years. In that span, Lauer's cagers have won just about every cage crown available, including two State titles, the City crown and a number of Catholic League championships and have been runners-up in the state too many times to remember. Ed doesn't even keep track anymore.

Each winter, the thunder of the St. Paul Lakers can be heard throughout the basketball realm in the state. Ironically, Lauer rarely has a tall team and he has few players from which to choose, but he gets the most from his cagers each season. In 1969, the Lakers compiled a record of 25 wins and just two losses.

Austin's Head Coach Frank "Chic" Chickowski begins his third season at the helm of the Friars' basketball machine, one which has launched them time and time again into the cage limelight.

Always a basketball powerhouse in the Catholic League's Central Division, the Friars swished their way to a 15 and five record last year and should be the "cream of the crop" in '70.

"I've got seven returning lettermen on this year's squad," said Chickowski. "Although we are smaller than usual, I've got to think we have something here."

The University School Knights will be "smaller, greener and facing a lot of problems," according to Head Coach and Athletic Director Bob Wood, who is entering his third season at the helm of the Knights cage quintet.

"We open up against always tough Capac, on Friday, December 5, and our schedule won't get any easier as we go along," claimed Wood. "We still have All-Stater Dale McCarthy in the lineup, but we'll need some help, if we hope to have a season anywhere as good as last year."

The 1969 edition of the Knights compiled a 14-7 record and went as far as the regional finals before their season ended.

St. Ambrose's Cavaliers, hoping to forget last year's dismal 2-12 record, probably won't have to wait too long. Harvey Heitman, who guided Nativity to the Catholic League finals last year, has returned to St. Ambrose, after a two-year absence, and the Cavaliers can look forward to a brighter future.

"We've got just about the whole squad returning," said Heitman. "The season gets underway against U of D High at their gymnasium and we'll have the boys ready."

Turning north, Ray Ritter, beginning his second year as the head coach of the Norsemen of Grosse Pointe North, can be expected to improve on the team's 1969 record of 6 and 10 in the Bi-County League.

"We, of course, have all the boys back from last year's squad and we'll open against Mt. Clemens on December 9," said Ritter. "It will take a lot of work, but I feel that we'll put a good team on the court each game."

Counting up the wins and losses of the 1969 Pointe-area grid squads, you find that the combined total was 25 wins and 25 losses. The Pointe cagers should turn things around a bit and the victory column hopefully will be top-heavy.

NEWS All-Pointe Gridders Led By Parker, Weiczorek

By Phil Loranger

Although the 1969 Pointe football season bowed out nearly two weeks ago and the players, coaches and Monday morning quarterbacks have settled back to browse until Kick-Off 1970, the NEWS has been hard at work reviewing the records of all six Pointe-area high school grid squads, looking for what it considers the "cream of the crop" among Pointe ballplayers.

After an intensive two weeks of analysis, the NEWS has made its final selections and it is time to read the roll of honor. In choosing the All-Pointe grid squads—a first and second team offensive unit and a first team only defensive lineup—the NEWS based its selections on its observations of the individual performances of each player and the evaluations of the coaches.

We now present the first-ever NEWS All-Pointe 1969 football team:

FIRST TEAM — OFFENSE

SECOND TEAM — OFFENSE
Ends: Chris Horvat, St. Ambrose; Jim Parker, Grosse Pointe South. Tackles: Gary Burke, University School; John Donnelly, Austin. Guards: Tom Agosta, St. Ambrose; Dennis Nally, St. Paul. Center: Bill Kennedy, Grosse Pointe South. Quarterback: Mark Kulek, University School. Backs: Joe Bonmarito, St. Ambrose; Bruce Jodar, Grosse Pointe North; Brett Benson, Grosse Pointe South; Lenny Rancilio, Austin.

FIRST TEAM — DEFENSE
Ends: Jim Parker, Grosse Pointe South; Doug Weiss, University School. Tackles: Chris Penoyar, Grosse Pointe South; George Bushnell, University School. Guards: Don Lennox, University School; Cameel Hanna, Austin. Linebackers: Rick Worrell, Grosse Pointe South; Mike Nally, St. Paul; Tom Agosta, St. Ambrose. Safeties: Tom Reghanti, Grosse Pointe South; Steve Schleicher, Grosse Pointe North; Marty Weiczorek, University School.

HONORABLE MENTION — OFFENSE
Linemen: Tex Shelton, Grosse Pointe North; Cameel Hanna, Austin; Chris Mills, St. Ambrose; Jim Perry, University School; Paul Repeck, St. Ambrose; John Gormley, Austin; Doug Reid, University School. Backs: Tom Bailey, Grosse Pointe South; Glen Hillger, Grosse Pointe North; Mickey Reese, Grosse Pointe North; Dick Rancilio, Austin; George Finkenstaedt, University School; Lenny MacEachern, St. Paul; Ron Mele, St. Ambrose.

HONORABLE MENTION — DEFENSE
Linemen: Jim Higgins, St. Ambrose; Spencer Akers, Austin; Paul Repeck, St. Ambrose; Jim Marshall, Grosse Pointe South; Lee Walker, Grosse Pointe North; Backs: Phil Gurbada, Grosse Pointe North; Jim Orlando, St. Ambrose; Chuck Shreve, University School; Dave Heritier, Grosse Pointe North; Terry Allard, St. Paul.

In making its selections for the 1969 season, the NEWS decided it would be the wisest choice to select four backs, in addition to the quarterback, because of the unusually large number of outstanding running backs in the area. We also selected three safeties on defense, instead of breaking the alienation down to safeties and halfbacks.

Jim Parker, of Grosse Pointe South, and Marty Weiczorek, of University School, share the honors as the NEWS Outstanding Players of the Year and have been selected as Co-Captains of the All-Pointe team.

Parker, a 6-foot-4, 190-pound senior, led the Blue Devils to a share of the Border Cities League crown with his alert defensive play and bruising offensive ability. Parker grabbed off 10 aeriats during the year, turning three of them into touchdowns, and was a brutal blocker.

Defensively, the giant mowed down enemy runners with 28 solo tackles and assisted on 22 others. He also knocked down eight passes and harassed the opposition season-long.

Weiczorek, a rail-thin, 135-pound junior, was pound-for-pound, the finest player in the Pointe in 1969. Gifted with good speed and a set of swivel hips, the "Little Rocket" was the area's finest "crackback" blocker, a mean tackler, and a deft receiver. Weiczorek scored eight TDs for the Knights and picked up more than 340 yards as a receiver. In addition, he smacked down 17 enemy ballcarriers on solo tackles and assisted on 26 others.

Although three coaches turned in excellent performances in molding high-caliber teams over the season, the NEWS gave the nod for Coach of the Year honors to University School's second year mentor, Tom Taber, who fashioned a five and three season with a group of athletes considered by most observers to be the smallest crop in the school's history.

Taber's Knights knocked off Indiana's number two offensive team, Laporte LaLumiere, by a count of 26-8; defeated Ohio powerhouse, Maumee; and demolished Columbus Academy, after being crushed by Indiana's Culver Military Academy. The loss to Culver would have demoralized most teams, but Taber's ability to pickup the spirits of his gridders and instill in them the will to excel marked him as a coach of unusual talent.

Taber taught his boys a great deal about football, but he also taught them a great deal about life and the value of never quitting and holding their heads tall. Because of his patient guidance and insight into the ways of youth, his boys will always "walk tall."

Special Concert Set for Sunday

Cellist Leonard Rose will be the featured soloist at a special concert in Ford Auditorium at 8:30 o'clock sponsored by the Sunday evening, November 23; at 8:30 o'clock sponsored by the Zionist organization of Detroit.

Israeli conductor Yuval Zaitouk will make his United States debut when he conducts the Detroit Symphony Orchestra at this, the 37th annual Balfour Concert. Currently he is conductor of the Royal Ballet in London.

The program Sunday evening will include Ben Haim's "Fanfare to Israel," Bernstein's Overture to "Candide" and the Mussorsky-Ravel "Pictures at an Exhibition."

Rose will play Bruch's "Kol Nidrei" and "Schelemo."

Periodic self-reflection prevents many a case of ego-itis.

D'you Know That?

by Paul Schweitzer

How does a FISH SWIM? —Many a fisherman seems to be in the dark on this question.

"Fins have nothing to do with it," say experts from the N.Y. Museum of Natural History. "De-finned fish get around as easily as if they had fins".

The power is generated by a swaying motion, starting at the sides of the body and flowing towards the tail. By showing the tail against the water, a forward thrust is set going; which enables the fish to glide through the water. . . . A maneuver similar to the way skaters propel themselves upon ice.

Forgotten Purse Found Sans Cash

Mrs. Ruth Gibson of 252 McKinley road, recovered her purse which she had forgotten on a bus, but the money that was in it was gone, according to information given to Farms police, on Tuesday, November 11.

Mrs. Gibson said that she boarded a Lake Shore Coach Line bus in Downtown Detroit and rode to Moran and Charlevoix, where she got off. She said that as the bus pulled away, she remembered she had left her purse on seat.

She walked home and informed her daughter of the incident, and the daughter followed the bus route in her car to Brys and Mack, where she hailed the bus driver.

When told of the forgotten purse, the driver spotted it on the floor, with the contents scattered about.

The daughter took the purse home, where the mother, on checking the contents, found $89 missing.

Woman Critically Hurt in Accident

An 85-year-old woman was reported to be in critical condition in Bon Secours Hospital, suffering from chest injuries and a broken ankle, received when her car crashed through the wall of a building at Beaconsfield and Jefferson, on Wednesday, November 12.

Injured was Mrs. Jane M. Simpson of 1052 Berkshire, who, Park authorities said, lost control of her vehicle as she was leaving a gas station after receiving service.

According to a police report, Mrs. Simpson's foot, it is believed, slipped off the brake pedal and struck the accelerator. Her auto shot forward, sideswiped another, owned by Lee Anna Purifoy of 3021 Belvidere, Detroit, being serviced at a gas pump, and sped across the driveway and across Beaconsfield and crashed through the wall of the Village Wine Shop, 15228 East Jefferson. Numerous wine and liquor bottles tumbled and smashed on the floor.

The force of the impact shoved the car engine back, and the steering wheel crushed the woman's chest. Her right leg was broken just above the ankle.

The total amount of damage to the building and the merchandise, is not known. Mrs. Simpson's car was a total loss.

Friendly Feline Finds Friends in NEWS Office

By Pepper Whitelaw We thought we saw a pussycat and we did! It all began when one of the many animal lovers at the NEWS, Joanne Eason, was in front of the office on Kercheval and came upon a beautiful gray cat trying desperately to cross the street. Joanne was afraid he would get hurt so she called to the cat and sure enough the loving, frightened tabby hopped right into her arms.

Into the NEWS office, Friend Cat and Joanne walked to a chorus of ohs and ahs. FC was warmly greeted by all and in a few moments was perfectly at home here. He sauntered into the stockroom and promptly snuggled down for a snooze. It wasn't long before FC took over the classified department... then the circulation department... then boldly and brazenly he took over the editor's office. (All of us agreed that it was the fastest promotion the paper had ever awarded).

The dark green sofa in the editor's office was just the perfect place for so regal an animal to wile away his time and while he did...

Back in the editor's office we lovingly call the editorial department, staffers are busy calling police departments to see whether any "Cat Lost" reports have been received... but to no avail.

Second Scene: Enter our editor, delighted with his roommate. After making him welcome, Mr. E. began to work, only to be interrupted by FC, a truly wise cat who knows an animal lover when he sees one, who hopped into his arms. After more petting and conversation FC nosed back to the circulation Department where our Head of Accounts scurried about finding food and drink for our guest. By five o'clock FC had won over the entire staff. Joanne found him a cozy nook to sleep in. We all left for the night, content to know that FC was warm and comfortable. Bright and early the next morning the staff came to work, as we opened the door FC purred and proceeded to fly out the door ready for his morning romp.

In the meantime back in the parking lot, one of the editorial staff barely missed wrecking her car in an attempt to save FC from traffic.

Panic hit the office. We had removed FC's collar for the night and now she looked like a stray. Worried and weary we got back to work but all of us accomplished very little until we heard a purring at the back door an hour later. Rushing to let him in we saw FC ready for more fun and games.

Once again calls to the police... once more no "Lost Cats" that fit FC's description. Since the entire staff's homes are like menageries, we were worried about where FC would spend the weekend. Then we remembered that one of our part-time staff members cat had just died... she's just the one! So we called her and sure enough she was delighted to take care of FC for the weekend.

Now we are all worrying about FC's owners' who must be frantic. We just want them to know we are tending FC until they pick her up... she's gray-furry, friendly and lovable. Just call the NEWS... they'll pick her up anytime.

And by the way we've had a ball with him and he had a great adventure!

Kids Express Thanksgiving Spirit in Their Own Ways

By Pepper Whitelaw
"I am thankful for school... friends... mie muthr... seem to be the most popular 'Thankful Fors' the children in Pat Nowak's first grade class in Initial Teaching Alphabet came up with... simple translation: school, friends, my mother. ITA is a phonemic system of learning to write by sound symbols. 'Trkys' (turkeys), 'bicks' (bicycles) and 'tois' (toys) placed a close second.

Defer's fifth graders in Susan Hammond's class, being a little more sophisticated, put their "Thankful Fors" in poetry form. Cindy Scala's poem is most thought provoking.

THANKSGIVING
Acorn squash is bright and yellow,
Turkeys gobble deep and mellow
Love is spread the way God made it.
You ain't got time to say you hate it.
We're on this world to love and cherish
But many times we see things perish,
I reckon love has been here long,
But many people use it wrong.
But for myself I love the tree
And all the things God lets me see,
I love the people on this earth
And I thank my mother, who gave me birth.
Karen Prosky's poem is chock full of good thoughts.

THANKS
God, thank you for the crops that grow
The safety and the guides we know
The sun and raindrops in the skies
And for the love that never dies.
Thank you for our country's might
And for the friendship here, so right,
Thank you for the helping hand
And for this world, I think it's grand.

Over at Mason School, second grader Chris Delling, a student in Audrey Burchett's class, came up with this gem... ah, yes, from the mouths of babes.

PILGRIMS AND INDIANS
A long time ago there was a feast with the pilgrims and Indians.

They called it Thanksgiving. They had meat to eat and pumpkin pie for a treat. They smoked the peace pipe and made friends with one another.
It would be good today, if there would be peace with all our brothers.
Stewart Sweet, fifth grader in Barbara Hood's class, offers this bit of Thanksgiving nostalgia.

THANKSGIVING
From far across the ocean,
The pilgrims traveled here,
For one man had a notion,
To find a new frontier.
Here they found the Indians,
Who taught them to grow corn.
There was a great rejoicing,
A giant feast was formed
That day was called Thanksgiving.
And it's still celebrated today.
We can't end this missive without giving some thought to the poor turkey who faces his demise on Thanksgiving. Marthat Peaume, another of Miss Hood's fifth graders, puts it quite succinctly in her offering entitled "Oh, I'm Ill."

Just 24 hours and I will be killed.
I can just see myself, Oh, I am ill!
I can see everyone squabbling over my legs. "I want it, I want it," everyone begs. Oh, I'm ill.
Just 24 hours, Oh, I'm ill!
Now if you can still eat that Thanksgiving turkey without feeling guilty, have a Happy Thanksgiving!

An old friend of the family can serve as your executor...

But your family could lose an old friend.

To assemble, inventory and protect assets, raise cash, take care of income and estate and inheritance taxes, and otherwise "settle" an estate of moderate value often takes two years. Sometimes longer.

Naming a friend or close relative to bear the burden is no kindness. He probably couldn't see the job through without neglecting his own business. His inexperience could only heighten your family's worries. And he'd face personal liability for costly oversights or errors.

In NBD's Trust Department you'll find every skill and facility needed to serve your estate and your beneficiaries well—together with an understanding that has earned Friend of the Family status for our trust officers on many occasions.

Talk over your choice of executor with your lawyer and with us. Write or phone Edgar B. Galloway, Vice President (965-6000, ext. 2912).

GP Park Police Nab Drug Users

Park police officers on Friday evening, November 14, made their first arrest under the new city Drug Ordinance, passed by the Park council on Monday, November 10.

At 7:40 p.m., Patrolmen Colin LaLonde and Edward Serwach were dispatched by radio to investigate a suspicious car and occupants reported in front of 864 Bishop lane.

The officers stated in their report that on arrival, they discovered two 16-year-old boys in the vehicle, and ordered the driver to roll down his window. The youth complied and the policeman said he smelled smoke, which strongly indicated marijuana. LaLonde spotted a piece of foil on the floor of the car, and ordered the teenagers out.

Both policemen searched the boys, and in the pocket of the driver, they found the front end of a smoker's pipe, covered with a punctured aluminum foil, which, it was said, is how it is adapted for smoking of marijuana. The boys were arrested for illegal possession of narcotics and taken to the station.

At the station, a further search brought out an envelope in the driver's wallet, which contained six pills, which, when chemically tested by Det. Robert Salfyrd, proved to be Amphetamine (speed pills).

The parents of both teenagers were notified of the arrests, and that their sons have been charged in Juvenile Court with illegal possession and use of narcotics.

Christ Church Advent Series

"Authority—freedom, order, or oppression" is the title of a series of advent programs to be held at Christ Church on the successive Tuesday evenings of December 2, 9, and 16.

Individual sessions will deal with "The community, authority, and the individual"; "Identity, and the individual"; "Indiv-". The sessions will begin with a dinner at the church beginning at 6:30, the individual programs beginning at 7:30, cost of the programs is $2.00 per evening, and reservations may be made by calling the church office at TU 5-4841.

Find Physician Dead in Car

The body of a Farms physician, Dr. Emery P. Kovach, was found in his locked car in a St. Clair county field near a sand pit off Michigan and Ravenswood on Wednesday, November 12. The cause of death was still undetermined at this writing.

Dr. Kovach, who lived at 263 Mount Vernon avenue and maintained offices at 9750 Chalmers, was reported missing Sunday, November 9 by his wife.

Services were held for Dr. Kovach, 62, at the Eppens Van Deweghe Funeral Home last Monday.

He was graduated from

Wayne State University and was a member of the American Medical Society, the Wayne County Medical Society and a member of the staff at Doctors' Hospital.

Dr. Kovach is survived by his wife, Gertrude; a son, Ronald Robison; two daughters, Mrs. Leslie Schmier and Mrs. Sidney Pittman; two sisters and a brother.

Burial was at Cadillac Memorial Gardens East.

Norsegirls Take Over Gridiron

By Pepper Whitelaw
Powder-puffs and football may sound like an unlikely combination but not when the junior and sophomore girls at North High School got together for their annual Powder Puff Football Game last Thursday. The girls, complete in football gear, played their makeup off. The juniors came up the victors by a score of 44-20.

Some 500 students filled the bleachers to watch the girls fight it out. All-male cheerleaders prodded the crowd on to glorious shouts of encouragement in between giggles that included among this motley group were Marty Schnurr, Phil Wenzell, Kevin Macaddino, Mark Mackstaller, Gary Rider, John Hayes, Tom Clem, Kirk Strang, Mike Day, Doug D'Agostino, Mike Rinke, Gary Hill, Tom Peek and Dan Hedges.

Herole (Sandy) Hudson was captain of the sophomore football team and Virtuoso (Kathy) Vermuelen, captain of the Juniors.

High scorer included Daredevil (Dawn) De Cook, voted the sophomores' most valuable player, who scored two touchdowns; Beth Craig, who scored a touchdown on a 40-yard run; Virtuoso Vermuelen and Magical (Sue) Macri, both of whom scored two TDs; Chugging (Karen) Chupa and Marvelous (Gwen) McPherson, who each scored one touchdown.

To our dear friends,

We would like to express our sincere and deep appreciation to all who have been so extremely helpful and kind to us at the time of our recent fire. Because of the efficient and prompt response of the courageous and dedicated men of the Grosse Pointes, Detroit, Harper Woods and St. Clair Shores fire departments, damage to our building was kept at a minimum.

Thanks to all of you, we have been able to continue uninterrupted operations with the cooperation of our neighboring funeral directors. Our staff are on call twenty four hours a day to serve you and the community, and we will be back conducting services in our own location by November 30.

We wish it were possible to seek out and thank each one of you individually, but we would no doubt overlook someone among you. We do especially appreciate the assistance and courtesies extended to us by all police departments, churches and clergy, neighbors, and the state and metropolitan Detroit funeral directors.

You may call us any hour of the day or night for the same courteous service you have come to expect from the entire staff of Chas. Verheyden, Inc.

County Supervisor Bryant Has Reorganization Ideas

Pointer William R. Bryant, Jr., member of the Wayne County Board of Supervisors, recently presented to Eugene Sikora, Chairman of the County Reorganization Committee, thoughts on County reorganization. Mr. Bryant indicated that the emphasis should be placed on greater efficiency of operation and clarification of executive authority.

The following are Mr. Bryant's suggestions:

1. Allow for election of a chief executive of County Government, elected for a four-year term coextensive with the term of Governor. He must be a County resident. He can enter race only by petition. Pay is to be $30,000 per year. Post is to be called "County Administrator."

The County Administrator shall have the power to veto any action of the Board, which veto may be overridden by a two-thirds vote of the Board. He shall have such administrative and policy-making jurisdiction as is presently in the Board of Commissioners. He shall also have direct responsibility for the Audit Department and power to appoint certain department heads.

Especially if we can't get legislation for election of a County Administrator, and in any event, until we get such legislation, we should create an office of County Administrator who should have general responsibility for proposing and carrying out Board policy, coordination of programs and should have veto power overridable by the same vote required in initial passage. This should be an exempt position appointed directly by the Board of Commissioners for a term coextensive with that of the Board or until a successor is named and he should be removable at any time by a vote of three quarters of the Board.

If neither of the above is accomplished there should be a large reduction in the number of Commissioners, to approximately seven.

2. Create a three-man Office of Legislative Liaison with a full time office in Lansing. Director of it should be an accountant or attorney and the two assistants would have responsibility for lobbying with the House and the Senate.

3. Combine offices of Register of Deeds and County Clerk into County Clerk.

4. Change of Board of Auditors to a department in 1974 by making next election for four years and next one for two years so in 1974 all three terms will expire. The County Administrator shall also be the director of all the Audit Department.

5. Change Road Commission to a department with an elected head to be called the Director of Transportation, elected for a four-year term. Or, in the alternative put the airport and parks in departments and leave the Road Commission as is, but for roads only.

6. Make the County of Wayne the sole employer for all County employees, including so-called "Road Commission" employees.

7. Make the Common Pleas Court a District Court with 13 judges, 8 elected at large and 5 elected by District, to have exclusive civil jurisdiction to $5,000 and concurrent to $10,000 plus traffic ordinance misdemeanor criminal jurisdiction. Salary should be $5,000 less than circuit court, payable by and housed and staffed by City of Detroit.

8. Do away with the separate Recorder's Court. Have 40 Circuit Court Judges payable by and housed and staffed by the County of Wayne. Rotate the criminal docket so each judge handles civil and criminal cases but only one type at a time for set periods of time.

9. Propagation of the District Courts, county-wide, to be paid by the County but housed by the local government and supportive staff paid by the local government.

10. Probation department of the Circuit Court to be paid by the State but housed by the County and supportive staff paid by the County.

11. The number of probation officers in both the District and Circuit Courts shall be not less than one officer for every 50 convictions in the average of the prior three years.

12. The State shall provide all Juvenile Court case-workers for neglect and abuse cases.

13. There shall be two Juvenile Court Judges in the County of Wayne.

14. The Civil Service Commission shall consist of three members, each serving staggered six-year terms. One to be from the personal management field to be appointed by the County Administrator with the advice and consent of the Board of Commissioners. The other two shall be appointed by the Board of Commissioners, one Democrat and one Republican, from a list of three nominated by the County Committees of the respective parties.

The Civil Service Commission shall be the bargaining representative for the County. The salary shall be $20,000 per year.

15. In general, with the exception of those listed below, all other Boards and Commissions would be abolishable at the discretion of the Board of Commissioners. Members of the Board of Commissioners could serve on any Board or Commission appointed by the Board of Commissioners except as listed below and providing their term shall expire when they cease to be a Commissioner. Certain Boards or Commissions such as the Board of Health, the Mental Health Services Board, the Economic Development Commission would remain in existence and members of the Board of Commissioners would be ineligible for appointment, Building authorities would remain, as is.

(Note: As concerns the matter of County Commissioners serving on Boards and Commissions it is my opinion that we can do this without further legislation, under M.S.A. Sect. 5.3 3(1), providing the person serves without further compensation.)

16. Combine the Planning Commission, and the Program Coordinator Office, under the Planning Commission.

17. Combine the Economic Development Commission and the Port Commission into the Economic Development Commission. Investigate possibility of combining various departments also, such as Hospital and Health Department.

18. Election of the Drain Commissioner, Sheriff, County Clerk and County Treasurer (and possibly the Prosecutor) should be abolished and made departments with the department heads appointed by the County Administrator with the advice and consent of the Board. The Board of Commissioners' representative on Drain Boards should be appointed by the Board from their membership, said member to receive $2,000.00 additional compensation per annum for such duties.

19. The County Administrator with the advice and consent of the Board of Commissioners would have power to fill any vacancy in any remaining elective county office other than the Circuit or Probate Court and would fill any vacancy in the office of County Administrator.

20. The Civil Division of the Prosecutor's Office should be separated and made a separate department. The head should be a civil service job to assure continuity and expertise.

21. The Mental Health Services Board should be made a County Board, appointed by the Board of Commissioners.

22. The State shall take over the Child Development Center.

23. Allow a jail outside the County seat.

24. Allow the County to give direct financial or other support to Community Colleges within the County.

25. All statutory provisions which generally treat the populous counties on a different basis or which result in discriminatory practices as to problems which are basically the responsibility of the State and which peculiarly in urban areas shall be eliminated, such as in the cases of probation officers, tuberculosis care, mental health care, aid of all varieties to the indigent, retardation, juvenile delinquency, neglect and abuse of juveniles, etc.

26. As concerns Home Rule, the statute should be revised to provide that both the Charter Commission and the Commission under Home Rule are to be elected on a non-partisan basis. Taxing power under Home Rule should not exceed seven mills without a vote of the people and ten mills with a vote. Beyond this there should be power to pass excise taxes by a vote of the people, to be earmarked for special purposes related to the thing to be taxed, such as: a tax on fluid waste for water pollution control; a tax on industrial gaseous and particle emission into the air, cigarettes, motor vehicles and private burning of materials for control of air pollution; a tax on gasoline for development and operation of mass transit; a tax on private planes and commercial and passenger planes traffic for airport development. I do not propose these taxes, only that the people be able to impose them if they so desire.

Further, all changes in Home Rule Act recommended by the Citizens Committee of 99 should be carefully considered.

27. Allowance of such excise taxes by vote of the people even without Home Rule.

Further, although many people say "we must examine our national priorities" it seems to me there is a much more basic question which needs answering, and "priorities" is only a part of that question.

The structure and the services of all levels of government need to be studied in great detail to determine (1) who is doing what and not doing what, an (2) who should be doing it.

Reelected Mayor, Council Members Seated in City

City Manager of Grosse Pointe, Thomas Kressbach, swore into office Mayor David Burgess, and Councilmen George D. Henry and George Monro, III, at the regular council meeting on Monday, November 17. Councilman John Hamann was out of town and will be officially sworn in after December 1.

The Council attended to many matters at Monday night's meeting. They accepted the recommendations of Mr. Kressbach regarding lighting in the City's parking lots and agreed to upgrade the lighting in the lot behind Kroger's and the lot on Kercheval place.

Based on an examination by the Detroit Edison Company, Mr. Kressbach proposed that the single 10,000 lumen incandescent light at the end of each lot be replaced with two 400 watt, 20,000 lumen mercury vapor lights on semi-ornamental poles with overhead service located in the center of each lot. This will substantially increase the amount of light in each lot. The increase in annual lighting cost for these improvements would be $240.

The Council also approved awarding a contract to Maraldo Asphalt Paving, Inc., with the cost of the project, $11,222, being charged to the Automobile Parking System.

It granted the bid for two station wagons with trade-ins to Lochmoor Chrysler-Plymouth, Inc. in the amount of $3,180.76.

Council members also voted a contract, in the form of a purchase order, to approve in the amount of $1880, purchase of a reconditioned Burroughs F 400 Accounting Machine from Wilson Business Machines, Inc.

Change Ideas

study, especially aimed at urban center services and programs, to determine the level or unit of government best suited to provide each service, and the best, most equitable method of financing that service or program. Such a study would, I am sure, fortify the position of most of us that there needs to be changes in what the County is expected to do and fund on their own.

Along with this, and a necessary part of determining who is and who should be doing what, there should be a study of the activities and funding of all private agency services. I believe there should be a new County department of Community Affairs, aided by a citizens' advisory committee, to study and give continuing attention, promotion, criticism and coordination to any and all social services engaged in by the private and public sector of the County. Such department would be a watchdog and a coordinator for all social services, not by having any actual control but by virtue of its official status and citizen advisory capability. This should be done by the County because there really is no other legal entity to which such a continuing task could reasonably be entrusted. I believe that the people of Wayne County need and deserve such intelligent, objective criticism, encouragement and coordination of both their tax dollar and gift monies, monies which are intended to provide community services of any kind. I request that these suggestions be given serious consideration and that I be allowed to appear before your committee concerning these and concerning proposals made by any other person, group or organization.

Gray Youth Fund Studies Request

By Phil Loranger

Already sponsoring and maintaining the activities of the Grosse Pointe City Babe Ruth League and the annual tennis tournament at the Neighborhood Club and responsible for the recent installation of a senior lounge at the Neighborhood Club and attractive tennis courts at the Farms Pier, the Board of Trustees of the Roland Gray Youth Fund has been asked to renovate and maintain the Neighborhood Club tennis courts.

The maintenance of these courts is currently shared by the City and the Board of Education as the result of an agreement in 1966 between the two, which was approved by the legal firm representing the Joy estate, which donated the land for recreational use to the Board of Education.

After reviewing the petition, signed by a number of tennis-minded Pointers, at the home of Frank Boyer, president of the Board of Trustees, the Board determined to take the request under consideration and issued the following statement to the NEWS:

"The Trustees of the Roland Gray Youth Fund to acknowledge the receipt of a petition, requesting the Fund to improve the tennis courts at the Neighborhood Club.

"Inasmuch as Mr. Gray, during his lifetime, was greatly interested in the activities of the Neighborhood Club, the Trustees received the petition sympathetically. Pending the obtainment of information on how the courts would be maintained in the future, the Trustees have decided to take the request under advisement."

Shep Norton, secretary of the Youth Fund, told the NEWS the trustees would look closely into the matter and attempt to arrive at an equitable and satisfactory solution.

The Fund, which was created in honor of Roland Gray for his services to the youth of the community, has doled out more than $25,000 in the past four years in those areas in which it felt it could best serve the youth of The Pointe.

Young Car Thief Caught by Police

A 15-year-old boy who stole a 1970 Barracuda from the Grosse Pointe Chrysler-Plymouth agency, 15401 East Jefferson, on Friday, November 14, was arrested by Detroit police the following day.

Park Det. Charles Petrie, who questioned the youth at the time of the arrest, said the boy confessed to stealing two other cars from the same firm, about a month ago, driving them around in the Pointe and Detroit, and then abandoning them. Both cars, 1969 models, have since been recovered.

Petrie said that under questioning, the juvenile confessed in the latest theft, that he entered the car agency building by breaking the glass of a rear window, reaching and unlocking the window latch.

The youngster said that he saw the Barracuda and found the key was in the ignition. He attempted to start the car and ran down the battery. He said he took a battery from another new model, and replaced the run-down one, and this time successfully started the auto.

He said he took off a set of license plates from another vehicle and put them on the new car, opened the garage door by pressing the control switch, and drove off.

While driving on Gratiot on Saturday, November 15, the young man was observed by police officers of Detroit's Conner Station, Fifteenth Precinct, and was stopped. He got out of the auto and attempted to escape on foot, but was captured after a brief chase.

Petrie said that Detroit police have filed charges against the boy with Juvenile Court authorities, charging him with possession of a stolen automobile.

'Block' Stores Sponsor 'Walk'

Grosse Pointers will have an opportunity to take their third annual "Christmas Walk Through The Block," (the area in Mack Avenue between Three Mile and Haverhill) on Sunday, November 30, from 10 o'clock until 5 o'clock.

The merchants in this area sponsor the walk in conjunction with charitable support to one of Detroit's Inner City churches.

The Block's gaslights will be bedecked with Christmas greens and red ribbons as 24 grade school children from The Holy Trinity Church carol during the afternoon from noon to 3 o'clock. The merchants in the stores present each of these children with gifts and make a special donation to the church in the true spirit of Christmas.

Of course, Santa will be there to welcome shoppers and talk with children about their special Christmas wishes. Women shoppers will receive favors and Santa will have a special token for each and every child.

All the stores in "The Block" are planning special window effects for the holiday season.

TIPS TO MOTORISTS

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN in accordance with the provisions of Act No. 207 of the Public Acts of the State of Michigan for the year of 1921, as amended, that a Public Hearing will be held at the Municipal Building, 20025 Mack Avenue, in the City of Grosse Pointe Woods, Wayne County, Michigan on Monday, the 8th day of December 1969 at 7:30 P.M. o'clock Eastern Standard Time upon the proposed amendment to Chapter 2A, Section 5.2A.1 and 5.2A.4 of Ordinance No. 88, the Zoning Ordinance, as amended, adopted on November 3, 1952, also known as Chapter 44 of "The Code of the City of Grosse Pointe Woods of 1953";

Said Proposed Amendment reading as follows:

PROPOSED ORDINANCE

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND CHAPTER 2A, Section 5.2A.1 and 5.2A.4 OF ORDINANCE NO. 88 OF THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE WOODS, entitled "AN ORDINANCE TO REGULATE AND RESTRICT THE LOCATION OF TRADES AND INDUSTRIES AND THE LOCATION OF BUILDINGS DESIGNED FOR SPECIFIED USES, TO REGULATE AND LIMIT THE HEIGHT AND BULK OF BUILDINGS HEREAFTER ERRECTED, TO REGULATE AND DETERMINE THE AREA OF YARDS, COURTS, AND OTHER OPEN SPACES, TO LIMIT AND RESTRICT THE MAXIMUM NUMBER OF FAMILIES WHICH MAY BE HOUSED IN DWELLINGS HEREAFTER ERRECTED OR ALTERED, AND FOR SAID PURPOSES DIVIDE THE CITY INTO DISTRICTS, TO PROVIDE A METHOD OF ADMINISTRATION AND TO PRESCRIBE THE PENALTIES FOR THE VIOLATION OF ITS PROVISIONS" adopted on November 3, 1952, also known as Chapter 44 of "The Code of the City of Grosse Pointe Woods of 1953," as amended,

THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE WOODS ORDAINS:

Section 1. That Chapter 2A, Section 5.2A.1 and 5.2A.4 of Ordinance No. 88 OF THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE WOODS, entitled "AN ORDINANCE TO REGULATE AND RESTRICT THE LOCATION OF TRADES AND INDUSTRIES AND THE LOCATION OF BUILDINGS DESIGNED FOR SPECIFIED USES, TO REGULATE AND LIMIT THE HEIGHT AND BULK OF BUILDINGS HEREAFTER ERRECTED, TO REGULATE AND DETERMINE THE AREA OF YARDS, COURTS, AND OTHER OPEN SPACES, TO LIMIT AND RESTRICT THE MAXIMUM NUMBER OF FAMILIES WHICH MAY BE HOUSED IN DWELLINGS HEREAFTER ERRECTED OR ALTERED, AND FOR SAID PURPOSES DIVIDE THE CITY INTO DISTRICTS, TO PROVIDE A METHOD OF ADMINISTRATION AND TO PRESCRIBE THE PENALTIES FOR THE VIOLATION OF ITS PROVISIONS" adopted on November 3, 1952, also known as Chapter 44 of "The Code of the City of Grosse Pointe Woods of 1953," as amended, BE AMENDED so as to provide as follows:

Section 5.2A.1 Boundaries of R-3 District R-3 District shall embrace the following described property:

A part of Private Claim 184, City of Grosse Pointe Woods, Wayne County, Michigan, more particularly described as: Beginning at a monument on the Wayne County-Macomb County Baseline at its intersection with the North line of Private Claim 184; thence S. 75° 02' 16" E., 256.64 feet; thence S. 11° 41' 27" W., 40.70 feet; thence N. 75° 02' 16" W., 300.15 feet; thence S. 14° 57' 44" W., 60.0 feet; thence S. 86° 04' 05" W., 127.31 feet; thence S. 03° 55' 55" E., 164.08 feet; thence N. 74° 59' 05" W., 755.64 feet to a point on the Wayne County-Macomb County baseline; thence N. 86° 04' 05" E., 913.37 feet to the point of beginning, excepting the Easterly 90 feet for highway purposes for Mack Avenue.

The division of Lot #1 and 2 of Plat of partition of Private Claim P.C. 249 Estate of Charles Vernier recorded in Liber 87 of Deeds, Page 517, Wayne County Records excepting that portion taken for widening of Vernier Road comprising 543.57 feet of Vernier Road frontage, said frontage starting at a point 279 feet East of the Northeast corner of Mack Avenue and Vernier Road; said property having a depth on the Easterly border of 312.70 feet and a depth of 318.27 feet on the Westerly border and 593.83 feet at the rear excepting that portion taken for widening of Vernier, City of Grosse Pointe Woods, Wayne County, Michigan.

The following described property heretofore within the R-3 District is hereby transferred to the "C" Commercial District:

A part of Private Claim 184, City of Grosse Pointe Woods, Wayne County, Michigan, more particularly described as: Beginning at a point distant South 75 degrees, 02 minutes 16 seconds East 256.64 feet and South 11 degrees 41 minutes 27 seconds West 40.07 feet from a monument on the Wayne County-Macomb County baseline at its intersection with the North line of Private Claim 184, thence North 75 degrees 02 minutes 16 seconds West 300.15 feet; thence South 14 degrees 57 minutes 44 seconds West 60 feet; thence South 86 degrees 04 minutes 05 seconds West 127.31 feet; thence South 03 degrees 55 minutes 55 seconds East 164.08 feet; thence South 74 degrees 59 minutes 05 seconds East 312.70 feet; thence North 11 degrees 41 minutes 27 seconds East 257.23 feet to the point of beginning, excepting the East 90 feet for highway purposes for Mack Avenue.

Section 5.2A.4 Lot Area Each and every lot or parcel of land in a R-3 District shall contain a minimum of one hundred fifty thousand (150,000) square feet of land area. In computing a minimum lot area in accordance with this section, contiguous land located beyond the city boundary may be included in such computation.

The Zoning Map shall be accordingly considered revised and amended so as to provide for the change of Districts as hereinbefore set forth.

Section 2. This Ordinance shall take effect twenty (20) days after its enactment.

LEONA D. LIDDLE City Clerk

PLEASE NOTE: The above proposed Ordinance provides for the rezoning to a Commercial District of the Mack Avenue frontage from Brys Drive north (Brys Woods) and further provides that the rear portion of such area will remain Zoned R-3 (multiple units).

PROPOSED ORDINANCE

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND ORDINANCE NO. 296 ENTITLED "AN ORDINANCE TO ADOPT TITLE VIII, CHAPTERS 2, 3, 4, 5 AND 6 OF THE MUNICIPAL CODE OF 1969 FOR THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE WOODS, MICHIGAN."

THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE WOODS ORDAINS:

Section 1. That Section 8-3-40 JUNK AUTOMOBILES of Ordinance No. 296 shall be amended to read as follows:
Section 8-3-40 JUNK AUTOMOBILES

The Officers of the Public Safety Department of this City shall take into custody all motor vehicles found abandoned on a street or highway or any other place, whether public or private. For the purposes of this section, a vehicle is deemed abandoned when it has remained on a public street or highway or other place open to travel by the public, for a period of 48 hours or more, without notification by the registered owner in writing to the Director of the Department of Public Safety of the reasons for leaving the vehicle in the public place. For the purposes of this section, a vehicle is deemed abandoned on private property when it has remained on the private property for a period of 48 hours or more, without the consent of the owner or lessee of the property, or for a period of 48 hours or more after consent has been revoked. The Department of Public Safety shall cause such abandoned motor vehicles to be towed to the automobile storage area designated by the Director of Public Safety. The last registered owner of said vehicle shall be sent a notice by mail to his last known address advising said owner that the vehicle is being held by the City and that upon the payment of the towing charges and the sum of two dollars ($2.00) per day for each day of storage, or part thereof, such vehicle will be released to such owner. Upon failure of the owner to take possession of such vehicle within 10 days from the date of such notice, the City may proceed to dispose of such vehicle in any manner provided by State Law.

Section 2. That Section 8-3-42 KNIVES, MINORS PROHIBITED FROM POSSESSING OR CARRYING of Ordinance No. 296 shall be amended to read as follows:

Section 8-3-42 KNIVES, MINORS PROHIBITED FROM POSSESSING OR CARRYING

It shall be unlawful for any minor under twenty-one (21) years of age to have in his possession or control, except within his own domicile, or carry or use in any manner, any knife, dagger, dirk, razor, stiletto or any other sharp edged or pointed instrument of weapon; provided, however, that such person shall not be in violation of this section if his possession of such knife dagger, dirk, razor, stiletto or any other sharp edged or pointed instrument is necessary for his employment, trade or occupation, or if he is engaged in or is proceeding to or returning from a place of hunting, trapping or fishing and, whenever required, is also carrying a currently valid license issued to him by the Michigan State Department of Natural Resources, or if such person is a duly enrolled member of the Boy Scouts of America or a similar organization or society and such possession is necessary to participate in the activities of such organization or society, or if said knife, dagger, dirk, razor, stiletto or any other sharp edged or pointed instrument is required under circumstances that tend to establish that its possession is for a lawful purpose not, however, to include self defense or amusement. Knives having a blade three (3) inches in length or less are exempt from the provisions of this section.

Section 3. That section 8-3-45 NARCOTICS AND DANGEROUS DRUGS of Ordinance No. 296 shall be amended to read as follows:

Section 8-3-45 NARCOTICS AND DANGEROUS DRUGS

(a) It shall be unlawful for any person to possess, sell, or offer for sale, distribute, administer, dispense, prescribe or give away opium or its common derivatives, heroin, codeine or morphine; or cocoa leaves or their common derivatives, cocaine or cannabis, commonly called marijuana; or barbituric acid or any of its salts; or d-lysergic acid diethylamide, peyote, mescaline and its salts, dimethylpyratamine, silocylin, or amphetamine and methamphetamine and their salts and derivatives; or any other derivative salt, compound, preparation or mixture of the narcotic drugs described in this ordinance except as provided in this ordinance.

(b) An apothecary, medical doctor, osteopathic physician, dentist, veterinarian, pharmacist, chiroprapist, or hospital may purchase, receive, possess, sell, distribute, prescribe, administer or dispense the narcotic drugs enumerated and described hereinbefore; provided, he or they shall have complied with all provisions as required by the United States Internal Revenue Code, as the same now exists or may be hereafter amended, and Act No. 343 of the Michigan Public Acts of 1937, and Act No. 204 of the Michigan Public Acts of 1943, as such Acts have been or shall hereafter be amended. Further, all narcotic drugs obtained pursuant to this section shall be kept in the original package or container in which they were received; provided, that this requirement shall not apply to any duly licensed medical doctor, osteopathic physician, dentist, veterinarian, or chiroprapist, or to any authorized person or persons acting directly under their supervision or control.

(c) No person shall at any time have or possess a hypodermic syringe or needle or any other instrument or implement adapted for the use of narcotic drugs by subcutaneous injection or intracutaneous injection or any other manner or method of introduction and which is possessed for that purpose, unless such possession is authorized by the certificate of a licensed medical doctor or osteopathic physician issued within the period of one year; provided, that the prohibition contained in this section shall not apply to licensed medical technicians, technologists, nurses, hospitals, clinical laboratories, medical doctors, osteopathic physicians, dentists, chiroprapists, veterinarians and pharmacists in the normal legal course of their respective business or profession, nor to persons suffering from diabetes, asthma or any other medical condition requiring self injection.

(d) It shall be unlawful for any person to sell, furnish, supply or give away any empty gelatin capsules or hypodermic syringe or needle or other instrument or implement adapted for the use of narcotic drugs by subcutaneous injection or intracutaneous injection or any other manner or method of introduction to any person known to be a non-medical habitual user of narcotic drugs. For the purposes of this section, a "non-medical habitual user of narcotic drugs" shall mean any person who uses narcotic drugs merely to satisfy a craving for such drugs and who does not have a legitimate medical need for narcotic drugs.

(e) Any fraud, deceit, misrepresentation, subterfuge, concealment of a material fact, or the use of a false name or the giving of a false address for the purpose of obtaining any narcotic drug or barbituric acid or any derivative, compound, preparation or mixture thereof, or hypodermic syringe or needle or other instrument or implement or empty gelatin capsules or false statement on any prescription blank shall be deemed a violation of this ordinance. No person who shall have obtained the possession of any narcotic drugs, hypodermic syringes, needles or other instruments or implements adapted for the use of such drugs or empty gelatin capsules shall use the same or permit or authorize their use for any purpose other than that specifically authorized in the prescription or order by means of which such possession was obtained.

(f) No person shall knowingly loiter about, frequent or live in any building, apartment, store, automobile, boat, bathhouse, or other place of any description whatsoever where narcotic drugs, hypodermic syringes, needles or other instruments or implements or empty gelatin capsules are sold, dispensed, furnished, given away, stored or kept illegally.

Section 4. That Section 8-4-5 DANGEROUS AND CONCEALED WEAPONS of Ordinance No. 296 shall be amended to read as follows:

Section 8-4-5 DANGEROUS AND CONCEALED WEAPONS

It shall be unlawful for any person, who is not an officer or deputy officer of the law, to carry on his person or in a concealed manner any pistol, knife with a blade in excess of three (3) inches in length, dirk, sling shot, knucks, mace, tear gas or any other weapon considered to be deadly, unless such is authorized by a permit issued by the Department of Public Safety or the State of Michigan or a political subdivision thereof.

Section 5. This Ordinance shall take emergency effect.

Public Schools in Focus

By Theos I. Anderson, Superintendent of GP Public Schools

What next for the public schools?

I have been asked this question many times since the November 11 defeat of the two propositions for operational millage and one for bonds to renovate South High School. Those asking the question express concern that I have been reluctant to issue a "statement" about the plight of public education. The question must be answered by the trustees you elected to make policy for the schools. When they do, the public will be informed.

My only "statement" at the moment is that quality education in this community is in jeopardy beyond June 30. With the defeat of Proposition #1, 70 percent of the operational budget for the 1970-71 year is gone. Although it was said many times during the campaign, perhaps there is need for a re-telling now: the schools are operating this year at a level of expenditure equal to 21.36 voted mills and the request on the ballot was for approval of 25.45 voted mills. This does not mean that the schools are operating on deficit financing this year. It means that reserve funds, which will be depleted by June 30, make up the difference.

The decision to request 25.45 mills was based upon the recommendation of the 50 member community-wide Millage Study Committee which urged a continuation of the current basic educational program at all levels. To do this in the face of rising costs of goods and services, increasing enrollments, and the need to pay competitive salaries requires more than the budget tax rate of 18.50 mills which has been in effect.

By June 30 all the schools' voted operational millage will expire, leaving the system with 8.90 mills allocated to the district from taxes paid to the county by local residents. Funds levied by this tax will provide the schools with 25 percent of their current income.

Although the need for passage of Propositions # 2 and #3 has been documented, let me state that in placing them before the electorate the Board of Education had the advice of the Millage Study Committee and the South High School Committee, 100 representative citizens. At some point in the future South High faces major renovation—and at increasing costs. It has been calculated that with construction costs rising at approximately 1 percent per month, a similar package would cost 12 percent more a year from now.

Obviously, many citizens are their public schools, and well concerned about the future of they should be.

Bruins Flatten Farmington, 8-2

The Grosse Pointe Bruins continued their domination of the Tri-County Hockey League with an 8 to 2 victory over the Farmington Flyers. In front of the fine defensive work of Steve Schiller, Kirk Purdy and Harry Jewett, Murray MacDonald turned in his second hat trick of the season to lead in the scoring.

Craig Maslak collected two goals and other tallies were countered by Terry Hogan, Kirk Purdy and Stan Jursek. Stan also picked up two assists as play maker.

Another great team effort enabled the Bruins to continue in their winning ways. The Bruins will be entering in the St. Clair Shores Turkey Tournament during the Thanksgiving holiday at Howe's Hockeyland.

Austin Players Doing Musical

The Austin Prep Players open their 12th season with the smash Broadway hit "Bye Bye Birdie" on Saturday, November 29, at 2 and 8 o'clock, and on Sunday, November 30, at 8 o'clock. The musical will be staged at Pierce Middle School.

Tickets are $1.25 and are available at the door or from any Austin student. Special group rates are available for the Saturday matinee by calling the school.

"Bye Bye Birdie" was first staged in New York in 1962 and was subsequently made into a movie. The story concerns "rock and roll" stars who capture the hearts of American teenagers.

Austin's production features the boys of Austin and the girls of Our Lady Star of the Sea. The cast includes Bruce Grubb; Posey Lundy, Jack Owens, Marilyn Opdyke, Tony Arnone, John Cirell, Pat Roney and Scott LaRose. Other cast members include Tino Altess, Marilyn Barresi, Mike Braun and Mary Janet Tocco.

Some 92 talents sing and dance through two acts of this delightful production.

The stage crew is headed by Derek Tate and Joel Bonamy under the direction of Patrick Chester. All nine sets were made in the Austin workshop. Dance and musical numbers have been staged by Dan Balingier and Rev. Lawrence Dore, O.S.A. Musical arrangements are under the direction of Dick Vestudo of Star of the Sea and John Knox, Paul Ventimiglia and Mark Raveshot of Austin. Thomas E. Bailey is the director-producer of the show.

Coaches Sought For N. C. League

The Neighborhood Club has sent out an urgent request for coaches and officials to help direct its fourth-grade (Collegiate) and the fifth and sixth-grade (Pro) winter basketball leagues, according to Pauline Masak, coordinator of the leagues.

"We prefer fathers and high school boys for both positions," said Pauline. "For the Pro Leagues we hope to find coaches who live in the area of Pierce School for the South Division and coaches handy to the area of Brownell School area for the North Division."

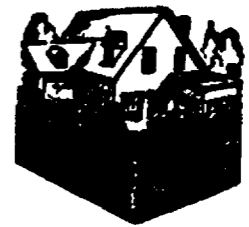

The seventh and eighth-grade Leagues are all ready filled, but officials are needed for both, according to Pauline.

Information on the Senior High Boys' League and the Mens' League, both of which will play on Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday evenings, depending on response, can be obtained by calling at the Neighborhood Club, at 885-4600.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Mr. Editor:

I have finished reading the South High Study Committee's report on conditions at Grosse Pointe South High School. I was absolutely amazed to learn that health and safety conditions are so bad at Grosse Pointe South High that it is almost too hazardous for our students to occupy the building.

The administrators and officials of the school building should be summarily discharged from their positions for allowing this multi-million dollar facility to deteriorate to this extent.

There has been a surplus of funds in the operating budget for the last several years and a surplus of $850,000.00 in the past year alone.

For the South High School Study Committee to state that the High School is a fire trap, that flammable materials are used, that unsafe and over-taxed wiring conditions exist, that the lighting is inadequate, that toxic materials are used in the shops and laboratories, is a clear indication that the officials responsible for the operation of this beautiful facility are certainly guilty of malfeasance and should be removed from their positions.

Yours truly,
 John J. Dyle

Dear Editor:
 Our Grosse Pointe Board of Education and the whole system are moving slowly, with fear and trembling in the area of sex education.

Not so our intrepid North High School! Anybody see the elucidating production of MAME recently presented by the Performing Arts Department???? "Strain at a gnat and swallow a camel."

Very truly yours,
 (Mrs.) Jack Albright
 21731 Eastbrook Ct.,
 Grosse Pointe Woods

To The Editor:
 As a student from Grosse Pointe South, I was extremely depressed to learn that none of the millage proposals passed the taxpayers' approval. Students are the ones who will suffer if the millage isn't raised from its present 18.45 mills, for several reasons.

First the faculty will have to be dropped by 30 some percent, which means even larger classes than there are presently. The curriculum will be sliced and many classes will have to be dropped, as well as eliminating publications and cutting the sports program.

Secondly, one of the main attractions to Grosse Pointe is the superior school system, which means higher property values in the community. Take away quality schools, and property values go down. Property values depend on quality education.

Thirdly, in this world of advanced technology, many students are flocking to colleges. Because so many students (80% from Grosse Pointe go on to college, they need a good education for a good college background.

And proposal three, which concerned the renovation of South High, is vital to students and parents especially now. Most of South High was built in 1928, and the 'B' Annex was built in 1915. The Annex is a fire trap as well as a safety and health hazard. All of South is a vast conglomeration of unsafe and antiquated facilities. The longer that the renovation is put off, the more it will cost. (The cost increases at a rate of 1 percent monthly.) And sooner or later a fire will demolish the Annex or something detrimental to the present buildings will take place, and we'll be forced to rebuild. So the reasonable thing to do is to renovate now, when the cost is at a minimum, because it needs to be done soon.

 GPHS Sophomore and
 TOWER

Dear Sir:
 As a Grosse Pointe resident I was very disappointed when the people of the Pointes rejected the School Millage and Bond Issue.

I am sure many of these people who voted against the issue were educated in the Pointe Schools and I wonder how they would have felt if people failed to supply the money needed when they were students.

One of the unfortunate things about the Pointe is that the residents wish to live in a highly respected affluent community; but when they are asked to spend a few dollars to maintain this respectability, they refuse.

It irritates me when the teachers in this community have to squabble and threaten to strike for an equitable wage.

The people of Grosse Pointe should be proud of the fine community in which we live and should take pride in seeing that the children have the finest facilities and receive the finest education in the United States.

Sincerely,
 James T. McCuish
 1005 Kensington
 Grosse Pointe Park,
 Michigan

Dear Mr. Edgar:
 Again the Grosse Pointe residents have rejected a tax proposal submitted by their duly elected board of education. The voters, this time even went so far as to reject overwhelmingly the closely studied recommendations of citizens committees.

I do not wish to address myself to any speculation as to why the three proposals failed. As long as we are required to vote taxes for schools we will have problems of adequate finance just as any other elected body, such as the Congress of the United States, would have financial problems were we to vote its funds every five years. I would, however, like to make a suggestion regarding the South High School problem.

In reviewing the total votes cast by elementary district it appears to me that the feeder schools for North High overwhelmingly turned down the South High bonding proposal. The #3 proposition would have carried had the feeder schools for South been permitted to decide this issue which effects only their children. If this election is any indication, the north end of the district will continue to reject a modernized school for the south end of the district.

Such being a possibility, let us reorganize our high schools. South High could become an all Pointe freshman-sophomore high school while North serves the junior-senior classes. It appears to me that this proposal has some obvious advantages:

1. Consolidation and unity of our school district once again.
2. An equal education for all Pointe children. The new North High would then serve all of our students and not just half.
3. Age levels of young people housed in each building would be closer, providing many obvious advantages.
4. More appropriate specialization of educational programs.
5. Non-duplication of many facilities at both buildings.

The major disadvantage, as I see it, is transportation. Rural districts in my home state of Iowa (where, by the way, boards of education have the authority to tax just as any other elected body) bus students to a central school from miles around. I suspect we could do the same.

Dear Editor:
 Since we arrived on The Alma College campus, we have felt wonderfully well equipped to meet the demands presented by this school. We know we have been well prepared as we all have graduated from a very fine high school and school system.

One can not even begin to imagine the disbelief when word reached the campus that all the millage proposals failed. We have previously heard excuses for not voting for the

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

With the stores bringing out their Christmas wares almost before the swimming season is over, I really don't think it's too early to mention some Yuletide books on various aspects of this season.

Whether its Christmas cookery, music, customs and legends, poetry and stories, plays and skits, decorations or gift making, our libraries have quite a bit of material that should be useful to you, whatever your problem or interest may be.

For example, in the area of the story and traditions behind the celebration of Christmas, we could suggest A BOOK OF CHRISTMAS by William Sansom. This is a handsome new book, purchased from the monies given us this year by the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library. Other authors and titles would be CHRISTMAS THE WORLD OVER by Daniel Foley; CHRISTMAS AND ITS CUSTOMS by Christina Hole, ALL ABOUT CHRISTMAS by Maymie Kyrthe, CHRISTMAS EVERYWHERE by Elizabeth Sechrist, Daniel Foley's THE CHRISTMAS TREE and CUSTOMS AROUND THE WORLD by Herbert Wernecke. Better Homes and Gardens has put out, fairly recently, a TREASURY OF CHRISTMAS IDEAS; AND A SELECTION OF FAVORITE STORIES, POEMS, AND CAROLS, and finally there is Franklin Watts' COMPLETE CHRISTMAS BOOK.

If holiday decorations seem to be a perennial problem, we would suggest that you browse through Susan Purdy's CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS FOR YOU TO MAKE, or Dorothy Waugh's A HANDBOOK OF CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS. Barbara Baer has written both THE CHRISTMAS MAKE-IT BOOK (1954) and THE NEW CHRISTMAS MAKE-IT BOOK (1960). Beth Hemingway's A SECOND TREASURY OF CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS might prove to be helpful, as well as Gratia Listait's NEW LOOK AT CHRISTMAS DECORATION and K.H. Seibel's THE JOYFUL CHRISTMAS CRAFT BOOK.

Let us not forget Christmas music! Carols and songs can be found in A BOOK OF CHRISTMAS CAROLS by Haig Sherkerjian, as well as A TREASURY OF CHRISTMAS SONGS AND CAROLS by Henry Simon. Then there is also the compilation by Franz Wasner of THE TRAPP FAMILY BOOK OF CHRISTMAS SONGS and STORIES OF THE CHRISTMAS CAROLS by Ernest Emurian. Herbert Wernecke seems to have done quite a bit of research on Yuletide materials, as we have three more of his titles CHRISTMAS SONGS and THEIR STORIES, CHRISTMAS STORIES FROM MANY LANDS, and TALES OF CHRISTMAS FROM NEAR AND FAR.

Our libraries have always boasted a large collection of cook books, so if we travel over to the 641 category we will not be disappointed, since there are some cook books that deal exclusively with Christmas food. Dosey's Mimi Sheraton's VIS-

IONS OF SUGARPLUMS sound inviting? And since everybody bakes cookies at this festive time we must not forget Virginia Pasley's THE CHRISTMAS COOKIE BOOK, or Dorothy Spicer's FEAST-DAY CAKES FROM MANY LANDS. Still another title is Zella Bou-tell's THE CHRISTMAS COOK-BOOK.

Most of these titles mentioned are in the adult collection, but some may be found in the children's room. I have made no attempt to make suggestions as far as fiction is concerned, both adult and juvenile, since a complete column could probably be written about all the many volumes that have been written over the years about our Yuletide season. Many of these, as you well know, have even become classics.

Nor have I included books in the religious field. The suggestions contained in this column have been more of a practical nature. It occurred to me that if I started this early with December 25 reminders, it would give you time to come in and look over the books before the more frenetic days of December descended upon you. And once Christmas shopping is in full swing, you just won't have any time.

Plan Educates Family, Guests

The Belgian American Friendship Association is sponsoring Au Pair Girl in America (Mother's Helper), a program designed to give young people from Europe an insight into the lives of American families.

Unlike other visitors to the United States, the mother's helper has the opportunity to penetrate, beyond the larger cities, into smaller communities by living and working in the American homes as a family member. Through an exchange of cultures, this young person brings to the entire family a deep educational experience which cannot be gained through study alone.

The mother's helper expects to improve her English and to become familiar with the American way of life. She will live as a member of the American family, receiving some pocket money.

The amount will be stipulated in advance and accepted by both the girl and the family, usually runs about 100 to 200 dollars per month. The girl can never be considered a servant. Interested parties should call Mrs. Aline DeSeranno, WA 3-3767.

Northeastern Women Meet November 24

Members of Northeastern Woman's Club will gather at noon next Monday, November 24, for a Thanksgiving breakfast and guest day program in the Calvin East United Presbyterian Church parlors.

The business meeting is scheduled for 1:30 o'clock. A Show and Tell session will follow.

What's New on THE HILL

By Sibyl

What's New On The Hill? Not the Grosse Pointe News. It moved into its own building under the elm in 1945. And as Bob Edgar told us, "It was an island with only eight other businesses on the block between Hall Place and McMillan." The News was established in 1940 with a circulation of 11,000. It was delivered by Western Union, newsboys and in emergencies by the editor. In 1944 it was mailed and had full paid circulation. Today, 14,900 subscribers wait for Thursday to read the Grosse Pointe News so as not to miss the Pointe. It is a much requested high school graduation gift for the out-of-town campus-bound. Grosse Pointe romance is reported faithfully in the engagement announcements and bridal portraits. The Pointer of Interest gets an encouraging pat on the back for efforts in behalf of the community. The Grosse Pointe News has recorded and reflected the growth of the Pointes. Loyal residents are usually loyal readers. And some lucky people, like Sibyl, even work there.

Gift Suggestions . . . from the League Shop . . . all under ten dollars! Give a handy note block, the handsome cover is decorated with English or Continental print scenes. Red, green or tortoise are the color choices. (Fifty-fifty). Glass pitchers range from one dollar (lemon juice) to four fifty for the two quart size. Lovely brass bowls under ten dollars, come in three sizes and shapes.

Memo from Margaret Rice . . . "By popular demand we have brought the Helga Collection to you at this time of the year rather than in January. The Collection consists of some holiday clothes but mostly resort and early spring. The reason is because so many of our customers travel and leave early. By the time they return, few things are available. I am doing everything I can to help you choose your early spring wardrobe and have it ready by the time you return from your cruise."

The Stocking Stuffer Boutique . . . at Young Clothes, 110 Kercheval is a popular place these days. Dash in for a good choice of those marvelous, unique "little gifts" (from twenty-five cents) you always collect for extra Christmas charming.

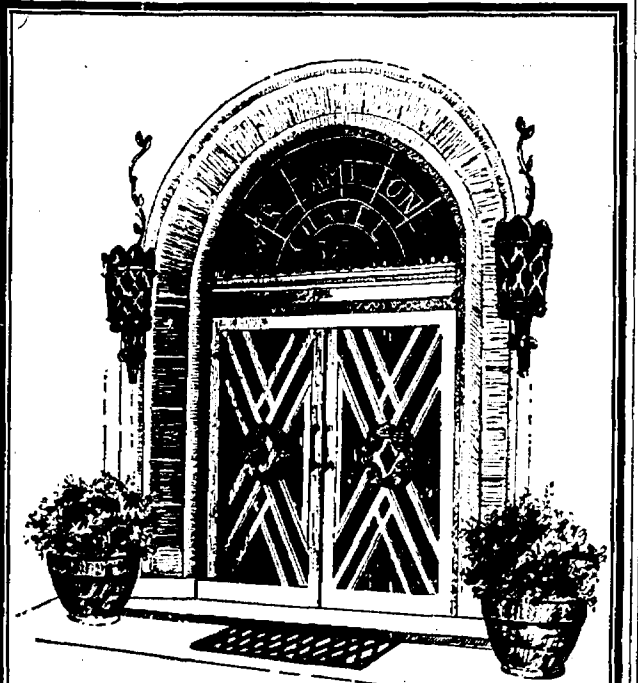

Taper Your Table . . . come Thanksgiving. Beautiful candles in fall colors are in multi-sizes and shapes at Virginia Williams, 79 Kercheval. Candle rings and pretty trim add to the festive look.

The Water World of Beauty . . . is Estee Lauder's Asuree bath line. At Trail Apothecary new goodies have been added, such as a beautiful gift container of bath salts (ten dollars). The Pick-up Bath is a package of four beauty bath items. (Twelve fifty). Explore the Water World of Beauty at 121 Kercheval.

Give A Game . . . for Christmas. At The Card Rack, 93 Kercheval, games of chance include roulette, the cage game and dice games. One gift set includes horse racing, roulette, checkers, chess and backgammon. All you need is lots of luck!

If . . . your leprechaun does not have a mushroom to his name, Bobby Vance has picked the perfect little pixie mushrooms, ranging in price from four dollars to fifteen dollars. They are from a collection of metal sculpture at the Grosse Pointe Studio, 119 Kercheval, where Sam Sottile has brought bouquets of metal mini flowers, weed flowers and blossoms on silver slender stems which move in the slightest breeze.

The Bronze Door . . . 123 Kercheval, is working hard to bring you the finest food and service. Reservations will be taken Monday through Thursday. However, guests must be seated by 7:30 p.m. on Friday and Saturday, due to limited seating capacity, the Bronze Door can only receive reservations for guests who'll be seated no later than seven. Guests arriving later, will be seated on a "walk-in" basis . . . 886-1932.

Mail Customers Told How To Curb Pornography Flow

"The alarming increase in the amount of sexually-offensive materials flooding the mails" prompted Postmaster Edward L. Baker today to remind mail customers that they can take steps to curb the flow of offensive advertisements into their homes under the provisions of the Pandering Advertisements Law that became effective in April 1968.

"Despite a vigorous promotional program and the wide distribution of informational materials," Baker noted, "many families apparently still are unaware they can have mailers legally forbidden from sending them such offensive materials and have their names removed from all of the firm's mailing lists. Consequently, the Post Office is expanding its efforts to inform the public of this law."

The Postmaster revealed that posters informing the public "You Can Prohibit Pandering Advertisers From Mailing To You" have been posted at all Detroit Post Office Stations. Also, informational leaflets, entitled "How You Can Curb Pandering Advertisements" have been made available for distribution at local post offices.

The leaflet explains how the law works and also contains a request form the customer can use in sending a complaint to his postmaster. Under the law, each addressee has the sole right to decide for himself whether an ad is offensive.

If a person receives an advertisement which is, in his opinion, "erotically arousing or sexually provocative," he should send the ad, its envelope and a proper notice to his postmaster with the words, "Request for Prohibitory Order," on the face of the envelope. The notice also may include the names of all children under 19 residing at the same address.

When the resident's request is received by the Post Office Department, a "Prohibitory Order" is sent to the mailer directing him to remove the complaining individual's name from all of his mailing lists. If the mailer fails to respect the order, the Postmaster asks the Attorney General to apply for a Federal Court order commanding compliance. Failure to observe the Court order may be punishable by a fine or imprisonment.

Nearly 275,000 Prohibitory Orders have been issued nationally by the Post Office since enactment of the Pandering Advertisements Act, 15,000 of these by the Detroit office alone.

Postmaster General Winton M. Blount recently announced the expansion of the Post Office Department's program for implementing the existing Pandering Advertisements Laws, and at the same time he renewed his support of the Administration's pending legislation to better protect the privacy of citizens who object to receiving offensive sex-oriented advertisements through the mail.

"It is obvious," Mr. Blount said, "that existing statutes are inadequate to cope with the problem and that additional legislation is required." The present law does not provide any method for preventing that first piece of unwelcome mail from being delivered and it requires the citizen to file a separate request with respect to each mailer sending him unwanted matter. The provisions of the proposed legislation would establish a procedure requiring all mailers of "sexually-oriented advertisements," as defined in the bill, to refrain from mailing that type of advertising to those who have advised the Post Office Department that they do not want to receive such materials. The Post Office Department would maintain lists of persons not desiring to receive sexually-oriented advertising, and these lists would be made available to mailers upon payment by the mailers of service charges designed to defray the cost of administering the program. Violators would be subject to as much as a $5,000 fine or 5-year prison term, or both, for a first offense and double that penalty for any subsequent conviction. Civil sanctions also would be provided as an alternative method of enforcing compliance.

The Postmaster General said the proposed bill would better serve the expressed needs of the public.

Associated with UCS as planning director since 1959, Mr. Newhouse will now head all of the organization's research activities.

Mr. Newhouse has been a professional in the social welfare field for three decades. After spending his earlier years in research with the Welfare Federation of Cleveland and with the Community Fund of Philadelphia, he became associate director of the Allen County Community Chest in Fort Wayne, Ind. Before joining UCS, he was executive secretary of the Council of Community Services in South Bend, Ind.

He received both his bachelor's degree and master's degree in Social Administration from Ohio State University.

Mr. Newhouse and his wife, a school teacher in the Grosse Pointe system, are the parents of three children. They make their home in Kerby road.

Joanne Thomas, 1763 Manchester and Hattie Harmon, 3408 Heidelberg, Detroit, were both charged with failure to yield the right of way resulting in accidents. Mrs. Thomas pled guilty and was found guilty and fined $50, sentence suspended. Mrs. Harmon stood mute and her case was dismissed, since complainant failed to appear.

Two persons were charged with drag racing. They were Joseph DeSantino, 628 Philip, Detroit, and Humphrey Abrington, 1163 Beaconsfield. Both stood mute and both were found guilty and fined $75 or 10 days in jail, four sessions in Driving School, no pleasure driving for 30 days and placed on three months probation to the court.

Edward Nosibitt, Jr., 550 East George, Hazel Park, appeared on two charges. The first, driving on a revoked license, was dismissed. To the second charge, the Drunken Motor Law, he stood mute and was found guilty. He was fined $75 or 30 days and placed on six months probation to the court. His license was suspended for 90 days.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bostick, (he's administrator of the Detroit Institute of Arts; she's associated with Wayne State University's Home Economics Department and the Federal Food and Drug Administration), presented a slide program, "An Adventure with the Great Art and Food of Italy," at the Monday evening, November 17, meeting of AMIT (American-Italian Professional and Business Women's) Club in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. Florence Mahullo Barnes introduced the speakers.

proposals; some voters in the new school district feel that they already have a fine school, and some older voters feel no personal attachment as all their children have passed the school age.

When will you shortsighted people realize that complacency and satisfaction have no place in an outstanding community? To continue to have a high scholastic rating, the school system has to continue to strive for excellence and without funds, even simple operating funds, the system will become stagnant. We're proud of Grosse Pointe and its teachers, and the preparation they've given us and we hope that others will benefit also.

Consider one other item. If these proposals fail again, both of Grosse Pointe's fine athletic and music departments will be cut out of the curriculum. These two departments are an example of the excellence of Grosse Pointe as seen by other communities.

We would ask all voters to consider others and offer them the chance to continue in a fine school system.

Sincerely yours,

To the Editor:

I wish to emphatically express my agreement with and approval of the Thursday night broadcast speech of Vice President Agnew. I, myself, was most resentful when, at the conclusion of the President's speech, a cynical-seeming Commentator had the gall to start telling me in his own words what I had just heard well said, and also telling me what it meant (in his opinion). This occurred on at least two stations.

Obviously, the commentary was too immediate for it to be intelligently spontaneous. Therefore, the Commentators had studied the speech in advance and determined what they thought people should think as a result. These comments were in very bad taste and completely unnecessary to anyone who had listened to the well-delivered and very sound talk. I turned off the set in order to avoid the insulting rebash.

I was further irritated this morning by Frank Blair on NBC who acknowledged that the public reaction appeared to be three to one in favor of Vice President Agnew, and who then chose to present a series of people, all of whom were from that 25 per cent against the speech. Where was objectivity? The Agnew case was illustrated right there.

I think it is high time that television, as well as the press, stops trying to down-grade Vice President Agnew. He is turning out to be a darsed sight more right than wrong!

Respectfully,

To the Editor:

I'm sure many teenagers have had the experience of going into stores, and had clerks ignore them in order to wait on adults. It's happened many times to me. I recall one day I had been waiting for someone to help me for quite a while. I went up to a clerk to inquire if she was waiting on anyone. She replied that she wasn't, and walked off to help somebody else.

In all fairness, I must say that most waiters/people are very pleasant, but then, many are not. People talk about the lack of respect kids have for their elders; maybe we'd give them more if we got some in return.

Cindy Kushman

Gentlemen:

During the last two weeks I have put 40 bags of leaves on my curb. Each time they have been slashed and distributed widely. Bags have been thrown in the street, in trees and on my neighbor's property. My house number sign has been stolen twice and defaced once this year. Curb reflectors belonging to someone else have been placed on what is supposed to serve as my lawn but which is chewed up from bicycles and trespassers. While the cost is not the most important factor, so far my leaf raking bill is about $60. This seems a little too much to stand in view of the 280 percent increase in taxes over the past 14 years.

The weekly collection of beer bottles, coke bottles, beer cans and whiskey bottle that lodge against my fence can be forgiven. If I were a teen ager I wouldn't want to take them home either.

Grosse Pointers should not have to go through so much trouble and effort just to put their trash out now-a-days.

Grosse Pointe:

Of course our children will be hurt the most and the soonest by the defeat of the operational millage proposal, but the entire community will be hurt in time. Then, unfortunately, it will be too late.

A good reputation takes a long time to establish, but it can vanish quickly. When we have lost our reputation as a community with exceptional schools, and the quality of life in Grosse Pointe settles toward mediocrity; when we no longer attract the most responsible citizens and no longer maintain the highest property values then we will all be hurt.

But then it will be done. Then only years of diligent hard work and money might re-establish a reputation for quality education it would have been so easy to maintain.

To the Editor:

Your 8-column headline in today's paper "VOTERS REJECT SCHOOL MILLAGE" should tell all who can read: 1—that we, the "silent majority" are fed up with ever-increasing taxes, which are already at fantastic heights and, 2—that, by the same token, this emphatic vote was one of "No Confidence" in the present school board who, with two individual exceptions, have screamed for weeks trying to influence a "yes" vote.

PTA at Defer Meets Tuesday

The Defer Elementary School PTA will meet on Tuesday, November 25, at 8 o'clock, in the gymnasium to hear a panel discussion on "The Future of Education in the Grosse Pointe Public Schools — Where Do We Go From Here?"

Panel members include Mrs. Barbara R. Thompson, legislative chairman of the Board of Education, William Adams, Board member and Certified Public Accountant, Superintendent of Schools, Theos I. Anderson and Dr. Joseph Spagnoli, Assistant Superintendent of Curriculum.

Dr. William Roux, PTA vice-president and president of Merrill-Palmer Institute, will moderate.

Each speaker will talk for five minutes after which there will be a 10-minute break to allow members of the audience to formulate questions. Members of the audience will be seated at tables and each table will submit questions.

Refreshments will be served throughout the course of the evening.

Center Books Crosby's Cats

Bob Crosby and his Bob Cat Band will be featured next on Grosse Pointe War Memorial's "Lighter Side of Life" series. The gala evening is Thursday, November 20.

Frank W. Donovan is opening his East Jefferson lakeside home for complimentary cocktails beginning at 5:30. Patrons are asked to park in the War Memorial lot from which they will be transported by charter bus shuttle service to and from the Donovan home.

Dinner will be served in the Center's Crystal Ballroom from 7:30. Following dinner, guests will adjourn to Fries Theatre to enjoy Crosby, his band and soloists in a show and concert.

After a brief break, the band will move into the ballroom for dancing at 10 o'clock. The famed "Crosby Bobcats" were formed in New York when 11 musicians asked George Robert (Bob) Crosby to be their leader. Within a few years, the group had hit the big time, playing swank supper clubs and night clubs and later appearing in many Hollywood films. Bob Crosby is now recognized as a leading master of ceremonies, singer, recording star and television personality.

Reservations for this great fun evening should be picked up at Grosse Pointe War Memorial's office as soon as possible. Only a limited number are still available. The charge of $12.50 includes complimentary cocktails at the Donovan home, bus service, dinner, concert and dance. One may also purchase tickets for show and dance only for just $5. Black tie is suggested but dress is optional.

The final "Lighter Side" offering, The Princeton Triangle Show on December 29, is also nearly sold out except for tickets reserved for Princeton alumni until November 15. Those interested in attending should reserve very soon.

Blues Take Lead In Hockey Loop

The Godin Tool and Die Blues, Grosse Pointe's entry in the Bantam Division of the Tri-County Hockey League, took over sole possession of first place last weekend with a 2 to 0 shutout over Farmington. This was the third victory for the Blues in league competition, with the only other league game ending in a 3 to 3 tie.

Of the four league games played to date, three of the victories were shutout performances with goalie Dave Versical turning in some tremendous performances in the net. Helping out with this great defensive effort are four stalwart defensemen led by veteran Tom McGraw with outstanding assistance from Clay Purdy, Dennis Godin and Doug Donald.

In the game against Farmington, Walt Albrecht fired home what proved to be the winner at the 8:56 mark in the first period as he swooped in to blast home the rebound from a shot taken by left-winger Hugh Peterson. It was Peterson who set up the play on a fine solo effort as he stick-handled in around the Farmington defenders and blasted a shot from the left side.

Following the goal by the Blues the Farmington team began carrying the play to Grosse Pointe and only some fabulous saves by Versical kept them off the scoreboard. However, midway through the second period the Blues scored what proved to be the insurance goal as Dennis Godin blocked a Farmington shot deep in the Blues' end. He fed a perfect pass to centerman Ben Jones who relayed it to Bryan Lane, who went in on goal alone. Then, with time to shoot, Bryan made no mistake as he picked out the upper right hand corner of the net and completely beat the Farmington net minder.

With their win over Farmington the Blues now have a one point lead in the league standings and they must win their remaining two games in the first round if they are to finish the round in first place. The winner of the first two rounds of league play is eligible to participate in the State playoffs in February.

As of this date the Blues have played 14 league and exhibition games and still remain undefeated. They have won nine of the 14 games played with five going into the tie column. Not only are the next two league games crucial ones for the Blues but they also have three big games coming up in the annual Turkey Tournament at Gordie Howe Hockeyland.

These are elimination games and once a team loses it is automatically out of the Tournament. The Blues' first game is at 9 p.m. on Thanksgiving Day and it is hoped that a large turnout of Grosse Pointe supporters will be on hand to lend their vocal support.

The line-up for the high flying Blues is as follows: Goal, Dave Versical; Defense, Tom McGraw, Clay Purdy, Dennis Godin and Doug Donald; Forwards, Dave Sickelsteel, Captain; Ben Jones, Alt. captain; Bryan Lane, Rick Linzell, Chip Lenahan, Fred Rozell, Hugh Peterson, Walt Albrecht, Dave Peters and Stu Cammett. Coaches, Doug Donald and Stew McLaren.

Ama Deus Circle Sets Card Evening Monday

The Daughters of Isabella, Ama Deus Circle 616, will hold a card party Monday evening, November 24, at 8 o'clock in Gabriel Richard Hall, East Warren avenue. Proceeds are to be presented to the Grosse Pointe Foundation For Exceptional Children. Admission donation is $1.50. Prices and refreshments will be featured.

The world isn't suffering for want of preaching—more practice is what it needs.

North High Parent's Club

The Executive Board of the Parents' Club of Grosse Pointe North High School met on Thursday, November 13, for its regular monthly session with president Mrs. Robert Ambrose officiating.

Mrs. Ambrose thanked Mrs. Jack Otto, chairman of the well attended Back-to-School night. She also thanked the members of the Board who worked on the school millage campaign.

Concerning the millage a resolution was passed that the Parents' Club request the School Board to resubmit the operating millage proposal to the electorate unchanged.

Mrs. Evelyn Westerville, assistant principal, reported that the girls of North High enjoyed the fashion show sponsored by the Valkyries, girl's honorary service club. Jacobson's provided clothes for the models and Marji Kunz commented on the show.

Mrs. Westerville also announced that there will be an Induction Ceremony on December 4 in the Performing Arts Theatre for those students invited to join the National Honor Society.

The activities' director of Grosse Pointe North, Donald Dungan, reminded Board members of the Powder Puff football game played on November 14, the 11th and 12th grade Parents' Meeting on December 2 and the Christmas Choral Concert.

Santa's Arrival Set for Nov. 28

Grosse Pointe children of all ages will welcome Santa Claus when he comes to Grosse Pointe Village on Friday, November 28, the day after Thanksgiving. Santa and his entourage will come down Cadieux avenue from Maumee to Kercheval, then proceed to the 1969 Santa Headquarters at Jacobson's, where he will meet all his friends.

Santa will arrive at his official headquarters at 10:30 a.m. and will continue to receive his visitors there until 5 p.m. on Friday. Through the subsequent weeks of the holiday season, he will be in the Jacobson children's department from 1:30 to 4:30 each afternoon.

The Detroit Edison calliope will be on hand to add to the festivities, and Santa will ride in a special car. Grosse Pointe homeowners queens and their courts will ride in the parade, and school bands, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts have been invited to take part.

Any civic groups, clubs, or other organizations interested in parade participation should contact William J. Merritt of Jacobson's Home Decorative Shop. Mr. Merritt is president of the Grosse Pointe Commerce and Civic Association in the Village, sponsor of the event.

Dean of Wayne To Speak Here

Dean Duncan Sells, Dean of Students of Wayne State University, will speak on "What's Happening on the College Campus Today?" on Tuesday, November 18 at 8 o'clock, in Parcels Middle School auditorium, sponsored by the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library.

Dean Sells will offer an overview and perspective of the campus scene. The troubled atmosphere and delicate balance on today's campuses make his address at this time of interest to all and in particular to those, or the parents of those, who are or will be attending college soon.

Future programs sponsored by the Friends include "The Moon Landings—Immediate and Future Benefits," The Book and the Computer: Friends or Deadly Enemies, and a program with Franklin McCamey, Director of the Seven Ponds Nature Center.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

Blame Juvenile In Car Accident

A 15-year-old Farms boy who took his father's car without permission on Saturday, November 15, and became involved in an accident at Lake Shore and Moran roads, was cited for a hearing in Juvenile Court, it was disclosed by Farms police.

According to the authorities, the juvenile is charged with driving a motor vehicle without ever acquiring a Michigan operator's license.

The boy told police that he and two of his friends were watching a televised football game at his home, when his parents left the house at about 3 p.m. At about this time, the three decided to go for a ride, and the 15-year-old took a set of keys from his father's dresser, which were for a second family car in the garage.

After driving about for about 10 minutes, the teenager said, he decided to travel to Lake Shore road, by way of Moran. He crossed the intersection at Moran and ran into the left side of a car driven by Mrs. Shirley Hefty of 911 Edgemont road, who was traveling east on Lake Shore.

Damage to both cars was estimated at a total of $800, a police report revealed. No one was injured, it was stated.

Purse Snatcher Foiled In City

The City of Grosse Pointe police received a report of an attempted purse snatching on Wednesday, November 13, from Beatrice Hitt, of Detroit.

Mrs. Hitt told officers that at 3:30 p.m. she was leaving Krogers, 16919 Kercheval, through the rear door. She headed for 17101 Kercheval and was walking through the parking lot at the rear of 17043 Kercheval when she was struck from behind and knocked to the ground. Her assailant attempted to pull her purse from her. He broke the strap of the handbag but Mrs. Hitt hung onto her purse and her assailant fled.

He headed north toward the Village Manor restaurant. Mrs. Hitt described her assailant as a white male, 6'2" tall, 180 pounds, about 18 years of age, with medium length brown hair, wearing a black leather jacket and blue jeans.

City police officers Dave Teolis and John Drummond checked the Village area. A suspect was picked up but later released.

Puppy Palace is coming.

We're coming to the Universal Mall and Northland Center.

We're coming November 22.

We're coming with a whole new kind of store.

Everything's different.

Our only business is puppies. Purebred puppies at that.

Our kennels are different. (They keep our puppies healthier.)

Our people are different. (They took courses at a special "Puppy School.")

Even our policies are different. (We might refuse to make a sale.)

Read why.

Probably the first difference you'll notice will be the kind of kennels we have. Their special design makes them stay spotlessly clean—even when the puppy inside acts like a puppy. So the puppy stays cleaner too. And healthier. But that's only the beginning.

43 different breeds

You'll notice an enormous variety of puppies. We'll normally be able to sell you any of 43 different breeds. All of them purebred. If any particular breed is not in stock at the moment, we can still get one for you fast. But fast.

And here's the biggest difference between Puppy Palace and pet stores. You can't simply point to any puppy in the store and expect us to ring up the register as if we were selling a can of soup.

When you buy a puppy, you're buying a new member of your family. So we think you should choose him very, very carefully. That's why we insist on this policy:

"We'll sell you the right puppy—or no puppy at all!"

We won't sell a puppy who sheds easily to a family with lots of nubby upholstery.

We won't sell an active, outdoor breed to families who live in small apartments. (Although we might make an exception if your apartment is close to a park.)

We won't sell a fragile, toy-sized puppy to a family with lots of hard-playing young children. Or a noisy breed to families with grouchy neighbors.

We won't let you make a mistake

By now you probably get the idea. It makes good business sense to sell you a puppy you'll be happy with. And it's bad business to ring up a sale if you'll hate us three days later.

So our specially trained puppy experts will ask some questions about your kids, your home, even your furniture. Then we'll help you pick the right puppy for your family. That's why we handle so many breeds in the first place.

7-day home trial.

Just to make absolutely sure you have the right puppy, we'll let you try him at home for seven days. You can find out whether he really fits in with your family. If you decide your puppy isn't perfect for you, we'll exchange him for a puppy of equal value.

And to make your new puppy easier on your pocketbook, we'll let you charge it if you have an appropriate credit card.

He'll live 10 years or we'll help pay

Every puppy we sell has undergone an extensive health program. (Those spotless cages are part of it. So is each puppy's vitamin-enriched diet.) Every puppy has his puppy shots. And we're so confident of our puppies that we make this promise:

Any puppy you buy from us will live at least 10 years—or we'll contribute to the cost of replacing him with a new puppy from our store.

A department store for dogs

We said our only business is puppies and we mean it. But puppies need a lot of help—now, and when they grow up. So Puppy Palace is also a complete department store for dogs.

We can supply you with our own vitamin formula to help keep your pet healthy. Or our own special shampoo that won't sting his eyes. Or our own special dry bath for cold weather. Or a leash. Or a collar. Or a chew toy. Or a puppy sweater.

Come in to our new Puppy Palace on Grand Opening Day. Bring the kids. They'll love it. And if you remember only one thing about us, remember this:

We'll sell you the right puppy—or no puppy at all. But with so many different breeds to choose from, the right puppy won't be very hard to find.

DBC Hosts Fall Party For Chief Executives

Adhering to a precedent established some years ago the Detroit Boat Club honored its new President and his lady and its retiring Commodore and his lady at an elaborate joint ball held Saturday night, November 8.

John O. Peters, of Cranford lane, is the new DBC chief executive. He was elected to the top Club post by members of the board of directors following their annual meeting Wednesday, November 5.

Fred J. Schroeder, a veteran DBC sailor, is the retiring Commodore. He joins the ranks of past DBC commodores of record dating back to 1899.

The party color scheme was red and white with an eight-foot octagonal Club burgee used as ceiling decoration against a deep blue background.

Red and White pompoms were arranged around this display of Club colors.

A red and white awning extended over the bandstand and red and white flowers decorated the tables. In the Club foyer a waterfall reflected the lighting.

Complimentary cocktails and hors d'oeuvres were served from 7 to 8 o'clock and a steak dinner complete with lobster bisque, princess salad and asparagus with hollandaise sauce at 8 o'clock.

Dancing followed from 9:30 to 1 to the music of Jack Rosevear's Orchestra.

Tess and Eugene Scherr, of Wedgewood drive, were co-chairmen.

Assisting them were Dorothy and Ted Feldman, of Bishop road, Jane and Larry Sweet, of Bishop road, Jane and Woody Warrick, of Stratford place, and Dorothy and Art Schmidt, of Lakecrest lane.

White Christmas Ball Date Is December 13

Setting for 16th Annual Holiday Party Sponsored by Saint John Hospital's Fontbonne Auxiliary Will Again Be Grosse Pointe Yacht Club

The Grosse Pointe Yacht Club will again be the site of the White Christmas Ball sponsored by the Fontbonne Auxiliary of Saint John Hospital. The 16th annual Ball, to be held Saturday, December 13, is under the general chairmanship of Mrs. Walter L. Van Goethem, Jr., of Pear Tree lane, assisted by Mrs. Roland Rinke, co-chairman, of Barclay road.

As in the past the party will benefit Saint John Hospital. This year proceeds will be used to support a major expansion of the Emergency Services Department at the Hospital.

Currently Saint John serves more than 50,000 persons a year in its emergency center—one of the most active emergency services in the state, ranking second only to Receiving Hospital in Detroit.

It is one of only a few hospitals in the Detroit area that maintains in its emergency center fulltime physicians specializing in emergency medicine on an around-the-clock basis.

The present facilities were initially designed to care for 10,000 emergencies per year. With the current number of emergencies combined with a 10 per cent average annual increase in the number of persons using Saint John's emergency center each year an immediate expansion has become imperative.

Construction of the expanded facility for which plans are now being finalized will take approximately 12 months. When completed 11,000 square feet of floor space will have been added to the emergency center more than doubling the space now assigned to this service.

A total of 22 emergency treatment stations together with the most modern facilities and equipment will be included in the new emergency center. The facilities are being designed for rapid conversion to substantially increase the hospital's capacity in case of a community disaster situation.

In keeping with Saint John's policy of providing quality care with the lowest possible cost a holding area is being included in the center.

This holding area will substantially reduce the hospital cost to a number of patients requiring extended observation as they can then be observed in the area without having to be admitted to the Hospital.

Assisting in the planning of the Ball are Mrs. Voltraud J. von Bevg, program chairman, Mrs. John Elias, in charge of patrons, Mrs. Charles Dawood, decorations, Mrs. Michael C. Burke, invitations, Mrs. Richard R. Shalla, reservations, Mrs. John H. Luzader, publicity, Mrs. J. Addison Bartush, favors, Mrs. Eugene L. Freitas, wine basket, Mrs. J. Earl Fraser, hostesses, and Mrs. Cletus J. Welling, menu.

Alpha Chi Omega's Work For December 3 Bazaar

The Epsilon Epsilon Eastside Evening Group of Alpha Chi Omega gathered yesterday evening, November 19, in the McMillan road home of Mrs. Thomas B. Woodruff to work for their Christmas Bazaar.

This year the pre-holiday sale's scheduled for Wednesday, December 3, at the Boar's Head Inn in Dearborn Heights.

Among those attending the workshop session at Mrs. Woodruff's were Mrs. Lyle A. Heavner, chairman of the project, Mrs. John C. Krato, Mrs. Walter Weed, Mrs. David Rent-schler, Mrs. Rudolph Armbruster, Mrs. D.J. Rasmussen and Mrs. Bruce D. Tock.

From Another Pointe of View

Symphony Orchestra is set for Friday, December 5, in Grosse Pointe.

And that's no problem for us localites: We just bundle into our own cars, warm-coated, high-booted, (there's something about these Christmas Walks that seems to ATTRACT snow), and set out, on familiar streets, to make our tour of seven holiday-decorated local residences.

The homes we'll see are those of Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. George N. Bashara, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Victor R. Breidenbach, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Healy, Mr. and Mrs. William Burton, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Reghanti and Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Roney.

But what about Chapter II of the 1969 Walk, the seven houses on display in Birmingham-Bloomfield the following Friday, December 12?

Face it: Even with maps we East Siders tend to get totally lost "way out there" once we've left the expressway. And that's why the Juniors came up with a marvelous idea of express busses carrying Birmingham-Bloomfielders to The Pointe December 5, Pointers to Birmingham-Bloomfield December 12.

Reservations are a must for this service. Mrs. John Ziegler, 293-9159, is handling them in our area. The $7.50 per passenger price includes transportation with stops at every home on the tour, a box lunch, a split of cold duck, a Christmas Walk ticket—and HOT coffee.

Pointe Christmas Walk busses December 12 will see the residences of the William Davidsons, the William G. Lerchens, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Leonard T. Lewis, the J. Rudolph Olivers, the William J. Pultes, Oliver T. Weidokal and Mr. and Mrs. R. Jamison Williams.

Back home again now for a minute: Mrs. James E. Long and Mrs. Richard L. Beadle are general chairmen of the Grosse Pointe Walk. Mrs. Charles Boyce, of Bedford road, is in charge of non-bus tickets which are $3 per day, $10 patroness.

Christmas Walk hours December 5 and December 12 are 11 to 4 o'clock.

Hunt Club President's Ball

This Saturday, November 22, is Grosse Pointe Hunt Club's most festive night of the year.

And probably the most colorful night of the year in all Grosse Pointe.

Oh, men ARE leaning a bit more toward the rococo when it comes to formal attire, shirts may be discreetly ruffled, cummerbunds brocaded, but it's hard to match those traditional hunting scarlets for sheer masculine sartorial drama.

A goodly number of the men at the annual President's Ball honoring Grosse Pointe Hunt Club's new president, Charles Bachrach, will wear their scarlets; others will come "black tie" and all the women's gowns will glitter... shimmer... shine...

The Clubhouse will sparkle too, with a display of modern art, "La Galerie Americaine," and guests will consume a meal that's itself a work of art: Crab Louis, veal a la Florentine, stuffed artichokes...

In the receiving line will be President and Mrs. Bachrach, Vice-President and Mrs. William C. Beardslee, Secretary and Mrs. Richard H. Childress, Treasurer and Mrs. Herbert Schollenberger and members of the Board of Directors and their wives.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kirlin and Dr. and Mrs. Renato Staricco are co-chairmen of the Ball assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Childress and Mr. and Mrs. John Sarvis.

ELLEN ERIKSON, daughter of MR. and MRS. E. E. ERIKSON, of North Oxford road, is among more than 300 freshmen who arrived at Colby Junior College, New London, N.H., recently to begin their studies.

Bullard-Leppala Betrothal Told

Plans for a December 20 wedding at Southfield's Emmanuel Lutheran Church are being made by Ruth Ann Joy Leppala and Willis C. Bullard, Jr., whose engagement has been announced by her mother, Mrs. Robert Leppala, of Southfield.

The bride-elect, who is also the daughter of the late Mr. Leppala, was graduated from Southfield High School and the University of Michigan and is presently studying for her Masters degree in Remedial Reading at the University of Michigan and working at Green Oak Center, a unit of the William J. Maxey Boys' Training School in Whitmore Lake.

Her fiance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis C. Bullard, of South Oxford road, is a graduate of Grosse Pointe High School and the University of Michigan where he was a member of Sphinx and Michigamua honoraries.

A former member of the Ann Arbor News' sports staff he is currently a student at Detroit College of Law.

Christ Church Rites For Miss Newcomb

Country Club Reception Follows Afternoon Ceremony at Which She Speaks Vows to J. B. Shoemaker, Jr., of Atlanta, Ga.

Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, was the setting for the Saturday, November 15, marriage of Jayne Lamont Newcomb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Jenness Newcomb, of Whittier road, and J. B. Shoemaker, Jr., of Atlanta, Ga.

A reception at the Country Club of Detroit followed the 4 o'clock rites at which The Reverend Franklin Bennett presided.

The bride's heirloom mantilla of Belgian Duchesse pillow lace was first worn by her great-grandmother for her presentation at the Court of St. James, later by her grandmother, the late Mrs. Carlton R. Mabley, and her mother at their weddings.

To complement the mantilla the former Miss Newcomb chose a classically simple gown of cameo ivory ribbed otonan fashioned with a stand-up collar and long sleeves accented at her shoulders and wrists with tiny buttons of matching material.

Her A line skirt ended in a Chapel length Watteau train and she carried a bouquet of Eucharis lilies and stephanotis. She was attended by honor maid Letitia Little, a lifelong friend, who wore an azalea pink silk-and-worsted frock styled with a side binding swirled into a chinoiserie motif defining her lifted waistline and carried an arrangement of Sweetheart roses, Elegance carnations and ivy.

The new Mrs. Shoemaker and Miss Little were presented to society at a joint debut brunch in 1964 and have recently been roommates in Atlanta.

Bridesmaids Mrs. Roger Shoemaker and Marcia Shoemaker, of Birmingham, Ala., the bridegroom's sister-in-law and sister, Mrs. Ralph Biddle, Jr., of Philadelphia, Pa., former Pointer Paula Roth, who now makes her home in Chicago, Ill., and Lucinda Mabley, of Grosse Ile, the bride's cousin, wore dresses of rose silk-and-worsted and carried sprays of Sweetheart roses, pink carnations and ivy. Their headpieces were blending triple bows. Roger Shoemaker served as his brother's best man. In the usher corps were Charles K. Newberry, Anthony Hardwick and John B. McGuinness, all of Atlanta, G. Reid Saunders, of Chamblee, Ga., and Frank H. Mabley, of Bloomfield Hills, and Peter Warren Booth, of Ann Arbor, the bride's cousins. Rhinestone buttons accented the jacket of the bride's mother's pin silk-and-wool ensemble. Her accessories were a deeper shade of pink. The newlyweds will make their home in Atlanta.

MRS. RUSSELL WELCHLI, of Provenal road, recently attended an alumnae conference at Goucher College, Towson, Md.

Fete Harringtons at DBC Gathering

Two Grosse Pointers, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Harrington, of East Jefferson avenue, are guests of honor today at a meeting of the Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra at the Detroit Boat Club.

Mr. Harrington, general manager of the Detroit Symphony, will retire soon and the Women's Association which has worked so closely with him over the years chose the Boat Club meeting to honor him and his lovely wife.

Pointers on the hostess committee for the day include Mrs. Winfield S. Jewell, Jr., Mrs. Andrew L. Malott, Mrs. Robert E. Thibodeau, Mrs. Bernard Whitley, Mrs. Daniel W. Goodenough and Mrs. Jerome H. Remick, Jr.

Program chairman Mrs. Robert Crossen, of North Renaud road, has invited the Symphony Wood Winds to entertain. This group includes Symphony players Arno Mariotti, Paul Schaller, Charles Sirard and Lyell Lindsey.

Mrs. Thomas V. LoCicero, of Three Mile drive, is president of the Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony.

Questers Group Meets Monday

Burglars who broke into the home of Mr. and Mrs. David J. Gannon, 1127 Bedford, opened all the doors of the house and left them that way when they escaped, Park police disclosed. The burglars entered the Gannon residence during the evening of Saturday, November 15, through the side door at the north end of the house, after breaking the glass and reaching in to unlatch the door. Police said that the thieves made a thorough search, giving a large part of their attention to the kitchen and the master bedroom, where the contents of drawers in both areas were dumped on the floor. Gannon said that he and his wife left home at 4:10 p.m. and returned at about 8:35 p.m., to discover all the doors of the house ajar. The thieves could have left by any of the exits, but it is believed that they left by the rear door to lessen detection.

Mrs. Lawrence Graham

Photo by Eddie McGrath, Jr. Exchanging marriage vows Saturday morning, November 15, in St. Ambrose Church were MARTHA ROSE BEATTIE, daughter of the Stanley Edward Beatties, of Pemberton road, and Mr. Graham, son of Mrs. J. Frank Graham, of Bloomfield, N.J., and the late Mr. Graham.

Graham-Beattie Rites Read In St. Ambrose

Monsignor Robert E. Moore, of Gardiner, N.Y., officiated at the Saturday, November 15, wedding of his niece, Martha Rose Beattie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Edward Beattie, of Pemberton road, and Lawrence Frank Graham.

He is the son of Mrs. J. Frank Graham, of Bloomfield, N.J., and the late Mr. Graham.

Setting for the 11 o'clock rites which were followed by a reception at the Detroit Yacht Club was St. Ambrose Church. The newlyweds are vacationing in New England and will make their home in Brooklyn, N.Y.

The bride wore her mother's marriage gown of candlelight satin re-fashioned with appliques of Rosepointe lace from her grandmother's wedding dress.

Her veil, worn by her mother and aunt, was a long mantilla edged and accented with more of her grandmother's lace and she carried an arrangement of stephanotis, yellow Sweetheart roses, baby's-breath and ivy centered with a white glainelia.

Her attendants in bone white frocks trimmed with lace and moss green velvet ribbon were Mary Ann Beattie who served as her sister's honor maid and bridesmaids Susan Graham, the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Vincent F. LoCicero, Mrs. Neil B. Hayes, Jr., of Columbus, Ga., Mary Lyndon, of McLean, Va., and Christine Spangler, of

Bryan, Ohio. They wore matching lace coronets in their hair and carried bouquets of mixed garden flowers. Jack A. Brizius, Jr., came from San Francisco, Calif., to act as the bridegroom's best man. Kevin M. Beattie, of New York, N.Y., the bride's brother, Frank C. Hamsher, of Kirkwood, Mo., David J. Alpert and Raymond J. Baxter, both of New York, Jack Tracksler, of Toms River, N.J., and Peter Swenson, of Bloomfield, N.J., seated the guests.

Turnbull Heads Rose Society

James Turnbull, III, of Barrington road, was re-elected president of the Grosse Pointe Rose Society at the group's annual dinner meeting in the Commodore's Room of the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club Wednesday, November 12.

Preceding the business session Mr. and Mrs. Mark C. Stevens honored the Rosarians with a social hour in their Moss road home.

Mrs. Stevens was aided by Mrs. Donald G. Ross, hospitality chairman of the organization. Those on Mrs. Ross's staff included the Mesdames E. O. Brady, S. M. Kazmarek, Harold Lee, George Moister and James Turnbull.

New vice-presidential posts will be filled by Forrest Geary, programming; Mr. Moister, publicity; and Mrs. Harlan Holt, membership.

Treasurer is Mrs. Elmore Frank who served in that position as an interim appointee when her husband and Mr. Geary were organizing the Society.

Ralph Urso is recording secretary and Mrs. Edward Howe corresponding secretary.

Newly-elected directors who will serve through 1970-71 are Mrs. Herbert Mainwaring, Andrew J. Larkins and Dr. Woodburn O. Ross. Directors who will complete their terms at the end of 1970 are Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. Brady and Mr. Frank.

As former Society presidents J. Arthur Shimmin, Official Rosarian, and Mrs. Lee also will be on the board.

Dinner Opens Exhibit By Artist-Craftsmen

Women's Committee of Founders Society Detroit Institute of Arts Entertains at Reception-Preview for Founders Members

The 21st Exhibition for Michigan Artist-Craftsmen opened with an awards dinner in the Rivera Court of the Detroit Institute of Arts Tuesday evening, November 18.

Mrs. Lester Gruber, of Jefferson avenue, Detroit, and Mrs. David W. Rust, of Fisher road, were in charge of dinner arrangements.

More than $2,100 in purchase prizes and awards was announced at the dinner. Guests included artists participating in the biennial juried show, their guests, jurors and museum officials.

From 8 to 10 o'clock that evening the Women's Committee of the Founders Society entertained at a reception-preview to which all Founders members and their friends were invited. Mrs. Rust and Mrs. J. Denton Anderson, of Bloomfield Hills, planned the reception.

The 139 objects in the Exhibition represent all craft media—ceramics, glass, textiles, metals, et cetera, and all are for sale.

The Michigan Artist-Craftsmen show in the museum's South Wing is open to the public without charge through Sunday, December 28.

Research Grant Offered By Alpha Delta Kappa

Alpha Delta Kappa international honorary sorority for women educators is accepting applications for its second $8,000 grant for research linking the arts and humanities to today's problems local President Dorothy K. Christian, of Barrington road, announced recently.

"Our first award was made to Emily Dennis of New York City," Mrs. Christian said. "She was very active in establishing MUSE, the nationally acclaimed storefront museum in the Bedford-Stuyvesant section of New York. She will use her grant to study how to move the vast resources of the nation's museums out to the people and develop teaching programs to complement the exhibits.

"The sorority is interested in helping another woman with an innovative research project. The second grant will also be for $8,000. The only guideline we have established is that the applicants must be women who have completed their Masters degree work.

"The successful second applicant will be chosen about the first of the 1971 year but applications must be completed and filed with our International Headquarters by July 15, 1970. Considerable time is needed to complete these forms to the best advantage." Mrs. Christian will forward any requests she gets for applications or interested women may write directly to Mrs. Jeanne Neal, 1615 West Ninety-Second, Kansas City, Mo., 64114 for applications and instructions.

MR. and MRS. CYRIL A. GROBBEL, JR., (BEVERLY CURRAN), of Three Mile drive, announce the birth of their eighth child, a daughter, ANASTASIA, ELENA, October 20. Paternal grandparents are MR. and MRS. CYRIL A. GROBBEL, of Whittier road.

Bliss-Michalski Rites Are Read

Herman Paul Bliss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sevrin Bliss, of St. Clair avenue, claimed Kathleen Michalski, daughter of the Theodore Michalskis, of Detroit, as his bride Saturday, November 15, at a 5:30 o'clock ceremony in St. Ambrose Church.

Following a reception at Roma Hall the newlyweds left for a Caribbean cruise. They will return to make their home in Grosse Pointe.

The bride's gown was fashioned of Italian lace and satin and she carried a cascade of white roses centered with a white orchid.

Victoria Michalski, who served as her sister's honor attendant, and bridesmaids Beverly Bliss, the bridegroom's sister, Linda Lundgren, his cousin, Cynthia Mahoney, the bride's cousin, and Kathleen D'Achille wore 18th century frocks of burgundy velvet.

James Bliss was his brother's best man. Ushering were Robert Hatch, James Baech, Lee Piemont and David Kanka, the bride's cousin.

Delores White was her cousin's flower girl and Clifford Bliss, the bridegroom's cousin, was ring bearer.

Kresge Concert Theme Is USA

Two of George Gershwin's most popular symphonic works and a guest appearance by pianist Jeffrey Siegel are part of a special "Americana" to be held in the Detroit Symphony Orchestra's popular-priced Kresge Concert Saturday, November 22.

Gershwin's "An American in Paris" and the Concerto in F (for piano and orchestra) will constitute the major share of the program.

Jeffrey Siegel, a young American whose collection of musical prizes includes both the Leventritt and Queen Elizabeth competition awards, will be featured in the Gershwin Concerto. Sixteen Ehrling will conduct the concert scheduled for 8:30 o'clock in Ford Auditorium.

In keeping with the American flavor of the evening Ehrling also will lead the Orchestra in a performance of Dvorak's "New World" Symphony which the famous Czech wrote while on an extended visit to the United States.

The Symphony's Kresge Concerts, featuring the full 101-member orchestra, major artists and a top admission price of $2.50, are made possible through a special grant from the Kresge Foundation.

Tickets at $1.50, $2 and $2.50 are now available at Ford Auditorium Box Office, all Hudson's and all Grinnell's stores.

Jeffrey Siegel was born into a musical family in Chicago and started his piano studies early. He was graduated from the Juilliard School earning the Roeder Prize for the most outstanding piano graduate.

Siegel has won first prize in several other American competitions: the Friday Morning Music Club Award, the Artists Advisory Council Award and the Rudolf Ganz Award and the Stillman Kelly Award of the National Federation of Music Clubs.

He has studied in London on a Fulbright Scholarship and performed abroad as well as extensively in his own country.

This is his second appearance with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. His first performance was June 7, 1966.

Inside the Mothers Club

At the November Executive Board meeting of the South High School Mothers' Club Mrs. Douglas Smith, president, commended officers and chairmen for their effective contributions to school functions this past month: Mrs. Frank Bromley's Social committee for help at Parent's Night, the Homecoming Dance and Back-to-School Night; treasurer Mrs. Bruce Reynolds' help with the Torch Drive; Mrs. J. Donald McLeod's planning for the Halloween Party; the Board Members' support the day of the tour of GPSHS, (organized by Mrs. Smith); and Mrs. Arthur Eisenbrey's preparation of tickets for the Pointe Players production of "George M" in November at the new Performing Arts Center at Grosse Pointe North High School.

Mrs. Smith particularly emphasized the good work being done by the four grade chairmen, Mrs. Richard Speer, Mrs. J. Ross Bush, Mrs. William Cox and Mrs. Robert Williams, in recruiting Home Room Mothers who have been faithfully calling parents to buy tickets for the Wednesday performance of the musical with proceeds to be added to the Scholarship Fund.

These Home Room Mothers play an important role in improving communication between home and school. During their direct telephone contracts selling tickets not only for the fall production but also for the Spring Benefit they relay important school information as well as listen to parent reactions to school policies and problems thereby creating a more intimate relationship between parents and the school staff.

1. During our meeting Mrs. Barbara Thompson, a member of the Board of Education, presented a thoughtful analysis of Governor Milliken's proposed School Reform Bill as it relates to the Grosse Pointe School System. Mrs. Thompson challenged not only those present but all citizens in the community to carefully study the provisions, then write to their senator and representative stating their approval of the proposals which correct problems as well as criticizing the clauses which jeopardize the excellence of our schools.

2. Miss Joan Schwartz, a member of the Committee for Exceptional Children, (a sub-committee of the PTA), described the program of special services offered in the Grosse Pointe School System; especially on the Elementary and Secondary level. Miss Schwartz invited the Mother's Club to send a representative to the Committee's Board meetings.

3. During American Education Week parents were invited to visit the school.

4. The Ninth Grade Mixer — with "The Zodiac" as the theme — was Friday, November 14, from 8 to 11 o'clock in the gymnasium, with chaperones provided by Mrs. Richard Speer, Ninth Grade chairman.

5. Circle December 5 on your calendar! It's the date of the annual Christmas Tea set for 3 o'clock in the gymnasium.

Mrs. Donald Spencer's general chairman. A program of Christmas music will be presented by the A Cappella Choir, the Choraleers and the Towerbelles, under the direction of Leonard Riccinto.

Opening her Vernier circle home for the November 18 meeting of Delta Omicron Chapter of Sigma Phi Gamma international sorority was BONNIE MEDURA. MRS. JAMES BURNS was chairman of the group's project: Making hospital tray favors for Thanksgiving.

Annual Y-Teen Sale Underway

Once a year, during the month of November, Y-Teens set up candy shops throughout the metropolitan area in theaters, schools, shopping centers, etcetera and approach their friends and neighbors for the sale of three kinds of candy. Actual sale dates this year are November 7 through December 6.

Handy for gifts and holiday needs the candy items may also be served as elegant sauces and used in other creative cooking applications.

This is not an advance order sale. Y-Teens offer immediate delivery of gourmet milk chocolate bars, minted chocolate creams called Tyroleans and Polly Doodles, caramel-pecan chocolate covered candies. Boxes are $1 and bars 50 cents each.

While much support is given by the Torch Drive to the Y-Teens an important factor in the Y-Teen program is the girls helping themselves. This candy sale is their only annual area-wide money-raising effort.

Proceeds from the sale make it possible for girls to attend leadership conferences, participate in social action projects and attend learning workshops related to their many YWCA activities.

Each teen group will be returned a percentage of its own sales as well as competing within each of the six Metropolitan YWCA branches for an additional $50. A plaque will be awarded the group selling the greatest dollar volume.

Village Bach Chorus Has Voice Vacancies

A few openings still exist for tenors and basses in the chorus of the Village Bach Festival, (formerly Bach at Cranbrook). The newly formed Village Bach Singers will perform at the Festival which will be held at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial May 1 and 2, 1970. Section leaders of the chorus will have the opportunity to understudy distinguished guest artists.

Qualified applicants may arrange for an audition by calling John Dovanas, Festival choral director, at 647-8870.

First Society Slates Fall Benefit Sunday

Pointers Serve on 17-Member Singles' Group Executive Committee Which Plans and Stages Invitational Parties

The First Society of Detroit has scheduled its fall benefit party for the Detroit Yacht Club this Sunday, November 23, with proceeds going to the Children's Leukemia Foundation of Michigan.

The all-singles group annually stages three benefits and turns the money over to a specific Detroit-area charitable organization.

The two previous parties this year have resulted in a $2,250 donation to the United Cerebral Palsy Association of Detroit and a $2,000 gift to the Michigan Kidney Foundation.

Sunday's proceeds will go toward the research efforts of the Foundation which is primarily dedicated to help in fields pertaining to leukemia, hemophilia and allied blood diseases.

Music for the invitational party will be provided by the House of Lords and the Upper Mack Cleaners.

First Society's benefits are planned and staged by a 17-member executive committee.

Committee members include: Tom Cusack, of Moran road, William Demorest of Webber place, Dolores Dowdall, of Cranford lane, Gail Kornmeier, of Vernier road, and Judy O'Keefe, of Lochmoor boulevard.

Mr. Gottfredson To Claim Bride

The engagement of Kathleen Mary Farkas and Lawrence Gottfredson, III, has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Farkas, of Bloomfield Hills.

The bride-elect was graduated from Birmingham's Wylie E. Groves High School and attended Stephens College, Columbia, Mo.

Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gottfredson, Jr., of Grosse Pointe boulevard, was graduated from The Gunnery School, Washington, Conn., attended Cornell University and was graduated from Northwood Institute, Midland.

A March 14 wedding is planned.

Mistakes are stumbling blocks on the highway of life — they give us a tumble, but we must get up and travel on.

Welcome New WUF Board Members

Pointers attending a recent orientation meeting for new board members of Women for the United Foundation (WUF) included, (from left), MRS. HUGH G. HARNESSE, of Lincoln road, MRS. R. ALEXANDER WRIGLEY, of Bishop road, MRS. JAMES A. HUMPHREYS, of Cadieux road, and MRS. WILLIAM Y. GARD, of Dean Jane. WUF is a 27,000-member volunteer organization working year-round on behalf of the United Foundation and its nearly 200 health and community services, all supported through the annual Torch Drive.

Ibex Continues To See And Do

Ibex members lunched recently at Little Harry's then traveled to Pewabic Pottery for a tour of that enchanted cottage tucked back off East Jefferson avenue.

Pewabic Pottery is the place where tiles were created, using a lost translucent glaze, for many of Detroit's historic landmarks including the Women's City Club, the Guardian Building, Scott's Fountain and St. Paul's Cathedral.

It is now an educational craft center operated by Michigan State University and is being brought back from virtual ruin to a living part of the community. The tour covered every inch of the pottery, even the attic where a wealth of old tiles awaits the appreciative.

Ibexers will sojourn next on Friday, November 21, to the Scarab Club for lunch. They'll observe a demonstration of portrait painting by one of their own talented members, Patricia Hill Burnett, and visit other artists' studios to view work in progress.

The Scarab Club is Detroit's oldest artists' club. A show is always hung in its gallery. (Pat, by the way, is the first woman to have a studio at the Scarab Club.)

Ibex members not only are interested in seeing what others do and have done in the arts but like to "do" themselves. Their next workshop class will be a sweet one.

Members will meet at Mrs. Jay Sarge's Touraine road home Friday, December 5, to try their hands at creating candy houses.

Teaching the group will be Jeanne Lackey who hopes to have her pupils' completed works ready in time for the holidays.

Windsor Castle DBE Meeting Set Today

Members of the Windsor Castle Chapter of the Daughters of the British Empire will gather today, November 20, in the Birmingham home of Mrs. Frank Hanson for their regular monthly meeting and luncheon.

Plans for a dinner and theater party in December will be finalized and details of a proposed Christmas and New Year's party discussed.

The group will not meet in December; they'll convene next in January, 1970.

Pointe members attending include regent Mrs. Jerome K. Bresser, of Audubon road; Mrs. Robert McBride, of Lincoln road; Mrs. Robert Haddock, of Vendome road; Mrs. Weston Jenkins, of Mount Vernon road, and Mrs. Brandon Rogers, of Moran road.

Don't take the problems of life too seriously—they're really never half as bad as you think they're going to be.

President's Preview Is Held At Hilberry

Pointe Understudies Members and Husbands Among Saturday Evening Audience; Mrs. Joseph Vance, Jr., is Women's Committee Chairman

Sponsors of the theatre at Wayne State University were guests of President and Mrs. William R. Keast and the Understudies women's committee last Saturday November 15, at the seventh annual President's Preview in the Hilberry Theatre.

The Preview, featuring Hilberry's graduate repertory company in Moliere's "The Bourgeois Gentleman," was performed especially for those who have contributed $100 or more to the Theatre's 1969-70 Fellowship Fund.

Special guests of President and Mrs. Keast were French Consul General and Mrs. Jacques Dircks-Dilly, British Consul General and Mrs. Edward I. R. MacGregor, German Consul General and Mrs. Georg von Pirch, Canadian Consul and Mrs. Ray Gravelle and Italian Consul Luigi Lauriola.

Over $23,000 has been collected so far by the Understudies, the 42 Detroit-area women who sponsor the Fund Drive and President's Preview. "Contributions are continuing to come in," reports Mrs. Joseph A. Vance Jr., of South Deeplands road, committee chairman, "and we expect to reach our $30,000 goal by the end of the drive."

The Fund supports fellowships for the Theatre's repertory company of 38 graduate students who have come from all parts of the country to pursue studies toward Masters or Doctors degrees and to participate in Hilberry's intensive rehearsal and performance program. The company presents intensive rehearsal and performance program. The company presents six productions in weekly repertory during the University's academic year.

Preceding the preview performance the Understudies were hostesses at a subscription dinner in the Rackham Memorial Building. Following the performance the cast joined guests at a champagne reception in the Theatre foyer.

Among Understudies and husbands present were Pointers Mr. and Mrs. Vance, Mr. and Mrs. Wilber M. Brucker, Jr. (he's a member of Wayne State's Board of Governors), Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Nichols and Mr. and Mrs. Emmet E. Tracy.

Other sponsors among the guests were Mrs. Clarence B. Hilberry, widow of the former Wayne State president for whom the Theatre is named, attending with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hilberry; and Pointers former Governor and Mrs. G. Mennen Williams, W. Hawkins Ferry, Mr. and Mrs. Gerard R. Slattery and Mrs. Walker Cislser.

"The Bourgeois Gentleman" officially opened to the public Wednesday November 19. Other productions in the 1969-70 repertory include Arthur Miller's "After the Fall" and Shakespeare's "Julius Caesar," now in performance. Shakespeare's "Macbeth," Rostand's "Cyrano de Bergerac" and a sixth play, to be announced, will be added after the first of the year.

Further information is available from the Theatre Box Office at Cass and Hancock, 577-2972.

Members of the 1970 Youth for Understanding Chorale are Grosse Pointe South High School students PHYLLIS GORE, GARY MORRISON and BARBARA WAGGETT. The group has begun practice sessions at Pioneer High School, Ann Arbor, in preparation for its seven-to-eight-week tour of Ecuador and Brazil next summer.

Funds Donated By First Society

The kidney transplant program at Receiving Branch of Detroit General Hospital—the largest of its kind in Detroit—has been given a $2,000 boost by the First Society of Detroit, a group of singles aged 21 to 35.

The money was raised last summer when the First Society held a benefit dance at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club. First Society President Larry P. Miller said this brings to $40,000 the amount raised for charitable purposes by the organization since 1963.

Working through the Michigan Kidney Foundation members of the First Society earmarked the $2,000 donation specifically for "the purchase and maintenance of an artificial kidney machine at the Receiving Branch of Detroit General Hospital."

Hospital Staff President Dr. Donald J. Birmingham expressed appreciation for the funds and said, "Since May, 1968, the kidney transplant team at Detroit General Hospital has performed 18 kidney transplant operations."

"In conjunction with the Wayne State University School of Medicine we are providing the very finest artificial kidney care for patients whose kidneys have been removed or are not functioning."

"Without weekly treatments on an artificial kidney machine these people would die. Many are awaiting kidney transplants. Persons wishing to make arrangements for kidney donations should contact Alfred Plotkin, Hospital administrator, Receiving Branch of Detroit General Hospital."

DR. and MRS. ALLEN SHELLEN, III, of Provincial road, were members of the committee for the inauguration of CHARLES DeCARLO as president of Sarah Lawrence College November 19.

To The Grosse Pointe Public:

Whether buying or selling real property, you need the services of a realtor.

In creating a real estate deal, Realtor supervision offers wide contacts between buyers and sellers, practical guidance on appraising and pricing of property, and the arranging of financial details.

Most important of all, the Realtor provides the skilled, informed third party needed to bring to agreement two minds whose interests are naturally divergent.

Detroit Garden Center Plans Holiday Preview

A Holiday Preview and tea under the direction of Mrs. Richard Gerathy is scheduled for next Monday, November 17, at 1 o'clock at the Detroit Garden Center in East Grand River avenue. Donation is $1. The public is invited to attend.

Center Forming Classes in Art

Two popular art classes will begin winter terms soon at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Monday evenings beginning December 1 and continuing through February 2, Ferenc Varga, internationally known sculptor, will conduct classes from 8 to 10 p.m. Students will work in clay, wax and plasticene and learn to make molds for casting in plaster or bronze. Fee for the ten week sessions is $40.

Mr. Varga's statue of Our Lady Star of the Sea in front of the Catholic Church by that name on Fairford is well known to most Pointers. Some of his other works include the 14-foot statues of the 12 apostles at the Fort Lincoln Memorial in Washington, D.C. done in white marble and 10-foot granite statues of various saints at the Queen of Heaven cemetery in Chicago, Ill.

A member of the National Sculpture Society of New York, Mr. Varga holds many awards, among them life membership in St. Stephen Science and Fine Arts Academy for Intellectuals and in the Academia Catholica Hungarica Scientia Artibusque Proveheadis from the Vatican in Rome.

Joe Maniscalco will begin a winter term of portrait painting instruction on Wednesday mornings beginning December 3 and continuing through February 18 with a two-week break during the holiday season.

Mr. Maniscalco is well known for his portraits of outstanding figures in the political, sports and social world. A member of Fine Arts Society and the Scars Club, Mr. Maniscalco was the winner of the New York Art Students League scholarship.

His classes at the Center will be offered from 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon. Fee for 10 lessons is $35. Advance enrollment is suggested for both the sculpture class and the portrait painting class.

'Other Side' Dances Slated

Two "Other Side" dances have been scheduled for November at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. The first will be a Junior Other Side for 7th and 8th grades only on Friday, November 21, in the Crystal Ballroom from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. Featured band will be the "Excels."

Ticket purchase is 75c in advance at the Center's office and $1 at the door. ID proving Grosse Pointe residency and attendance at Grosse Pointe schools is required. Parents are urged to make careful note of the time of the dance. Dances are well chaperoned and police protected. However, Center staff and chaperones would appreciate parents picking up their children promptly at 10:30.

For grades 9-12, there will be a special Thanksgiving Super Other Side on Saturday, November 29. Bands will be the "3rd Power" and "Frijid Pink". Refreshments are available. The dance is non date. Tickets are $2 in advance and $2.50 at the door. Advance purchase is suggested to avoid disappointment. Again, ID is required.

Center Offers New Art Term

Robert Rathbun, popular art teacher at Grosse Pointe High School North, will offer a new term of Basic Figure Drawing for Senior High School students at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

The classes will begin on Thursday, December 4, and continue through February 19 with a two-week break during the holidays. Meeting after school from 4 to 6 p.m. in the former playroom of Alger House, students learn the fundamentals of sketching and drawing from life models.

Mr. Rathbun is well known in art circles. His drawings have been exhibited at the Michigan State Fair and in the Grosse Pointe Artists Annual Exhibit where he was awarded second and third prize. He holds the Purchase Prize from the Michigan Education Art Association and the drawing which won this award hangs now in the MEA building in East Lansing.

Fee for the 10 two-hour sessions is $25, plus a small model fee. Advance enrollment is recommended.

PWP Sponsor Helpful Series

Family Life Services, in a 5-week series of group discussions sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Chapter of Parents Without Partners, Inc., are offering some much needed answers to problems wherein those who are presently unable to cope adequately with their difficulties can receive help from the staff and each other. On Friday night, October 24, at a meeting of PWP in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, Mr. Robert Flores, district director of Family Life Services, social worker and marriage counselor, spoke on "Ways of Solving Problems."

He explained that there are two types of problems, those we can do something about, and those, usually when another person is involved, where the solution is out of our hands. It is the type of problem that offers answers that Family Life Services is concerned with, he said, answers to our need to make constructive decisions in the vital aspects of our lives, those concerning relationships, vocation, sexuality, parenthood, financial matters and social activities. Since these are the areas wherein the single parent, particularly, must tackle completely unfamiliar difficulties, the assistance offered by the Family Life Services group is especially conducive to his requirements.

Many problems in life, Mr. Flores explained, arise because of faulty decisions that deny the fulfillment of our emotional needs. Family Life Services attempts to help individuals to become somewhat more rational in their outlook and able to perceive more adaptive ways of achieving self-fulfillment, without in any way attacking their defenses or trying to reconstruct their personalities. Since the members of the group have all had similar experiences, they can offer empathy, understanding and practical advice particularly to the single parent, who may feel hurt, lonely, or afraid to reenter the social world. Because involvement presents the possibility of being hurt again and certainly produces a state of vulnerability, Mr. Flores said, the parent who has recently lost a partner often finds an important problem in fear of new relationships, and is consequently enveloped in an empty and unfulfilled existence.

A second common problem is in relationships with children, Mr. Flores stated. When one parent is missing, children often are afraid to express their resentment of their loss to the absent one, for fear of driving him still further, so that the remaining parent has to bear the brunt of their anger and frustration. Family Life Services suggests ways of coping with these problems, and often these ways can come from other members of the group.

Another recurrent theme in the 5-week series of discussions, Mr. Flores said, is sexuality. He explained that often, in need for closeness with another, a troubled individual may get involved in a self-destructive affair that offers sex, but no emotional closeness, and results in a lowering of self-esteem, with feelings of guilt and inadequacy.

Through the respective points of view and practical advice offered by both men and women in the group, in the problem of financial matters, Mr. Flores explained, many single parents find invaluable assistance in solving difficulties in this area, and, at the same time in alleviating feelings of bitterness at the financial ravages of divorce.

The problem of vocation is helpfully discussed in the Family Life Services group, its director said. To illustrate, he mentioned the "mother martyr" single parent, who denies herself completely as a woman in order to cater to the demands of her children.

Mr. Flores commended groups like PWP in their value to those who need help in reentering social activities and solving the problems of dating.

In conclusion, Mr. Flores stated that the purpose of Family Life Services education is to help an individual to develop self-awareness and to perceive new avenues to a richer and fuller life through group experience.

The discussion series was begun October 28, 7:30 p.m., at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. The cost of the series of five weeks is $5.00.

Pointers Direct WSU Programs

Wayne State University's Board of Governors accepted 25 grants totaling $635,925 at its monthly meeting, Thursday, November 13, of which more than $100,000 will be used in programs directed by Pointers.

The United States Public Health Service provided $26,965 for research entitled "Cooperative Stroke - Hypertensive Study" under the direction of Dr. Raymond B. Bauer, of 1008 Buickingham, who is with WSU's School of Medicine, Department of Neurology. Dr. Yi-Chi M. Kong, of 1101

Torrey road, will direct a study of interrelationships of tolerance and immunity under a $20,310 grant. Dr. Kong is with the Department of Microbiology at the WSU School of Medicine.

The National Science Foundation gave two $27,200 grants to the College of Education. One is for research into the theory of blood flow under the direction of Dr. Kenneth A. Kline, of 1103 Balfour, and the other, the study of fluids with microstructure, is supervised by Dr. Stuart J. Allen, of 502 Lincoln road.

City of Grosse Pointe Park ORDINANCE NO. 42
AN ORDINANCE TO ADD CHAPTER 42A, CONTROL OF NARCOTICS AND DANGEROUS DRUGS, TO TITLE IX, POLICE REGULATIONS, OF THE CITY'S ORDINANCE CODE TO CONTROL THE POSSESSION AND USE OF NARCOTICS AND DANGEROUS DRUGS IN THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE PARK AND TO PROVIDE PENALTIES FOR THE VIOLATION OF THIS ORDINANCE.

THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE PARK ORDAINS:
Section 1. Title IX, Police Regulations, of the Grosse Pointe Park Ordinance Code is amended by adding thereto Chapter 42A entitled "Control of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs," the same to read in its entirety as follows:
CHAPTER 42A. CONTROL OF NARCOTICS AND DANGEROUS DRUGS.
Section 9.42 Except as expressly permitted in this Chapter, it shall be unlawful for any person to purchase, receive, possess, sell, offer for sale, distribute, administer, dispense, prescribe or give away opium or its common derivatives, heroin, cocaine or morphine; or coca leaves or their common derivatives cocaine or cannabis, commonly called marijuana; or barbituric acid or any of its salts; or d-lysergic acid diethylamide, peyote, mescaline and its salts, dimethyl-tryptamine, salicyl, or psilocybin; or amphetamine and methamphetamine and their salts and derivatives; or any other derivative salt, compound, preparation or mixture of the narcotic drugs described in this ordinance.

Section 9.43 An apothecary, medical doctor, osteopathic physician, dentist, veterinarian, chiroprapist, pharmacist, hospital or other person or entity duly authorized by state or Federal law may purchase, receive, possess, sell, distribute, prescribe, administer or dispense the narcotic drugs enumerated and described in Section 9.42 hereof; provided, he or they shall have complied with all provisions as required by the United States Internal Revenue Code, as the same now exists or may be hereafter amended, and Act No. 343 of the Michigan Public Acts of 1937, and Act No. 204 of the Michigan Public Acts of 1943, as such Acts have been or shall hereafter be amended. Further, all narcotic drugs obtained pursuant to this section shall be kept in the original package or container in which they were received; provided, that this requirement shall not apply to any duly licensed medical doctor, osteopathic physician, dentist, veterinarian, or chiroprapist, or to any authorized person or persons acting directly under their supervision or control.

Section 9.44 No person shall at any time have or possess a hypodermic syringe or needle or any other instrument or implement adapted for the use of narcotic drugs by subcutaneous injection or intracutaneous injection or any other manner or method of introduction and which is possessed for that purpose, unless such possession is authorized by the certificate of a licensed medical doctor or osteopathic physician issued within the period of one year; provided, that the prohibition contained in this section shall not apply to licensed medical technicians, technologists, nurses, hospitals, clinical laboratories, medical doctors, osteopathic physicians, dentists, chiroprapists, veterinarians and pharmacists in the normal legal course of their respective business or profession, nor to persons suffering from diabetes, asthma, or any other medical condition requiring self injection.

Section 9.45 It shall be unlawful for any person to sell, furnish, supply or give away any empty gelatin capsules or hypodermic syringe or needle or other instrument or implement adapted for the use of narcotic drugs by subcutaneous injection or intracutaneous injection or any other manner or method of introduction to any person known to be a nonmedical habitual user of narcotic drugs. For the purpose of this section, a "nonmedical habitual user of narcotic drugs" shall mean any person who uses narcotic drugs merely to satisfy a craving for such drugs and who does not have a legitimate medical need for narcotic drugs.

Section 9.46 Any fraud, deceit, misrepresentation, subterfuge, concealment, of a material fact, or the use of a false name or the giving of a false address for the purpose of obtaining any narcotic drug or barbituric acid or any derivative, compound, preparation or mixture thereof, or hypodermic syringe or needle or other instrument or implement or empty gelatin capsules or false statement on any prescription blank shall be deemed a violation of this ordinance. No person who shall have obtained the possession of any narcotic drugs, hypodermic syringes, needles or other instrument or implements adapted for the use of such drugs or empty gelatin capsules shall use the same or permit or authorize their use for any purpose other than that specifically authorized in the prescription or order by means of which such possession was obtained.

Section 9.47 No person shall knowingly loiter about, frequent or live in any building, apartment, store, automobile, boat, bathhouse, or other place of any description whatsoever where narcotic drugs, hypodermic syringes, needles or other instruments or implements or empty gelatin capsules are sold, dispensed, furnished, given away, stored or kept illegally.

Section 9.48 The provisions of this Chapter shall not apply to common carriers or warehousemen or their employees engaged in the lawful transportation or storage of drugs, syringes, needles or capsules or to public officers or employees while engaged in the performance of their official duties nor to temporary incidental possession on the part of employees or agents of persons lawfully entitled to possession.
Section 9.49 Any person, persons, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof, be sentenced to not more than 90 days in jail and/or to pay a fine of not exceeding One Hundred Dollars ($100).
Section 2. This ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency ordinance and immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety and shall take immediate effect.

29 SHOPPING DAYS TILL CHRISTMAS!

Let Purdy & Edgar help you with the proper selection from the shopping guide below. Many can promise delivery by Christmas and won't be much strain on the budget.

OPEN SUNDAY 2:30-5:00

1251 Yorkshire — Be among the first to inspect this NEW LISTING. It's a center entrance, English Colonial featuring a total of five bedrooms, two full baths, plus three half baths. Picture your family in it by Christmas, perhaps on a land contract. Priced in the forties.

1239 Yorkshire — Save steps on your shopping trip by stopping in here while you're in the neighborhood. Wait until you walk into the outstanding family room. You'll live it! For sleeping accommodations, there are four good sized bedrooms, and you'll appreciate the practical floor plan. About the same price as the neighbor's. It's been REDUCED.

12 Alger Place — Move on to the City, near the water for a look at a nearly-new Southern Colonial. Truly an elegant house in a desired location. The master bedroom has its own bath and dressing room, and you'll find three other bedrooms and two more bathrooms. The beautiful family room is waiting for you and the Christmas tree. A great present for a deserving family.

BY APPOINTMENT

THE FARMS is a nice place to live, and we call your attention to a FIRST ADVERTISED bungalow on Ridgemont. For your convenience there are two bedrooms on the first floor, with a third, LARGE bedroom upstairs. Reasonable taxes and a fine location.

SALÉ PRICED is how we'd describe this NEW OFFERING in Grosse Pointe City. Four bedrooms, two of which are king-size, and a generously proportioned kitchen, are but a few of the features to be found in this well-constructed home located on a very popular street.

JINGLE BELLS will ring in this enchanting Cape Cod, with four bedrooms in a house for an individual who resists re-working a house. No need for that here. You'll discover engaging decor, with a quality appearance throughout. The price tag reads a bit over forty thousand dollars.

A SLEIGH RIDE would be possible in the backyard of this five bedroom Contemporary in the Farms. Separate work and play areas designed with the stroke of an artisan. And, there's an unexpected bonus—a very appealing guest house built for year-round use.

IT'S VACANT and waiting for you on Crescent Lane. A newer, four bedroom colonial with a very attractive family room. A pleasant surprise can be found in the below-the-market price tag on this particular type house in Grosse Pointe Woods.

MOM WILL be in seventh heaven in the kitchen of this house on Kensington, and the entire family will enjoy the first-floor den AND sun room. On the second floor, it just might be possible for everyone to have his own bedroom. There are six, with three full baths.

DAD CAN see how his golfing buddies are doing at the Country Club merely by looking out the back window of this very special three bedroom ranch on Chalfonte. Numerous extra features have been incorporated into this outstanding home.

DISCRIMINATING BUYERS interested in a French colonial in the Shores should give this careful consideration. A grand residence with a library and Florida room, and circular stairs to the roomy second floor. The master bedroom has its own dressing room and bath, and there are five other family bedrooms plus four maids' rooms.

IF WE CAN help you with your shopping from the guide above, or any other Grosse Pointe properties, please call one of our personal shoppers for assistance.

Bob Cat Band At 'Lighter Side'
 Bob Crosby and his Bob Cat Band will be featured next on Grosse Pointe War Memorial's "Lighter Side of Life" series. The gala evening is Thursday, November 20.

Frank W. Donovan is opening his East Jefferson lake side home for complimentary cocktails beginning at 5:30. Patrons are asked to park in the War Memorial lot from which they will be transported by charter bus shuttle service to and from the Donovan home.

Dinner will be served in the Center's Crystal Ballroom from seven-thirty. Following dinner, guests will adjourn to Fries Theatre to enjoy Crosby, his band and soloists in a show and concert.

After a brief break, the band will move into the ballroom for dancing at ten o'clock. The famed "Crosby Bobcats" were formed in New York when eleven musicians asked George Robert (Bob) Crosby to be their leader. Within a few years, the group had hit the big time, playing swank supper clubs and night clubs and later appearing in many Hollywood films. Bob Crosby is now recognized as a leading master of ceremonies, singer, recording star and television personality.

Reservations for this great fun evening should be picked up at Grosse Pointe War Memorial's office as soon as possible. Only a limited number are still available. Included in the $12.50 are complimentary cocktails at the Donovan home, bus service, dinner, concert and dance. One may also purchase tickets for show and dance only for just $5. Black tie is suggested but dress is optional.

The final "Lighter Side" offering, the Princeton Triangle Show on December 28, is also nearly sold out. Those interested in attending should reserve very soon.

Famed Puppets To Appear Here
 Dick Heyers will bring his famous rug puppets from New York to Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Fries Auditorium under the auspices of the Theatre Division of the Detroit Institute of Art on Sunday afternoon, November 24, at 2 p.m. They children "Beauty and the Beast" will perform for Grosse Pointe.

Dick Heyers is one of the country's major puppeteers having represented the United States at Expo '67 where his shows played to audiences of delighted children from all over the world. In addition to being a puppeteer par excellence, Dick Heyers is a graduate engineer, pilot and flight instructor and owns five radio broadcasting franchises. The puppets are manipulated by rods instead of strings.

Tickets for this puppet show are $1.50 on a single basis or $1 if purchased by groups such as Brownies or Indian Guides. A minimum of 20 is required for group rates.

Going Places . . . before or after the holidays are the "just arrived" Arbe Italian hand knit fashions at Walton-Pierce. Cruise away in traditional red, white and blue! A navy and white knit is brightly brass buttoned. Red and blue stripes a white Arbe which features fashion's new low placed pockets. A jewel of knit in the group is turquoise with a touch of coral beading at the neck. Don't pack a suitcase without seeing the early cruise collection at Walton-Pierce which includes brand new swim ensembles or you'll miss the fashion boat.

Merry On Christmas Day . . . and happy on New Year's Eve . . . book your appointments at Leon, 17888 Mack Avenue, to be assured of the individual service and styling of their fine staff. Sip a cup of coffee, relax a bit, and because they are so efficient you'll be ready for an expert comb out with plenty of time for holiday fun, looking your loveliest . . . TUxedo 4-9393.

The Christmas Carol Mouse . . . a grey felt mouse holds a sheet of holiday music. He is just one of the whimsical decorations at Michelle's Boutique, 17864 Mack Avenue. Other delights are a pair of "elf slippers" (two dollars).

Your Thanksgiving Feast . . . will provoke contented sighs even from the cook. She prepared it in her new Mutschler Kitchen where things seem to go much easier. Perhaps it's because the well planned work areas have appliances ready and always within reach. Then again, it could be the custom coordinated decor is so pleasant.

In Martha's Closet . . . 373 Fisher Road, there's a glittering collection of party-going dresses . . . short and long. Catching lights and compliments are silver or gold brocades with tiny crystals. You can choose a cover-up long sleeve dress, a costume or a revealing bit of fashion.

Warmest Wishes . . . The Christmas gift with comfort and elegance combined! Give Mark Cross gloves. At Hickey's, 17140 Kercheval, you'll find a wonderful selection of imported gloves . . . fleece lined, cashmere lined, fur lined and unlined . . . gloves as only Mark Cross cuts them.

For The Lord of Your Manor . . . Valente's has a princely selection of cummerbunds and tie gits sets . . . also colored shirts with matching ties . . . conveniently, 17904 Mack Avenue, TUxedo 6-5330.

Le Pere Noel . . . will leave her favorite French fragrance beneath the tree. Be sure to find it at the Notre Dame Pharmacy where perfumes by Christian Dior, Borghese, Chanel, Nina Ricci, Millot, Guerlain, Caron, Lanvin and Carven abound.

Santa Knows . . . she wants one of those handy and handsome luggage racks from The Sphere, 19849 Mack. They come in white and gold, black or mahogany (twelve ninety-five). Because she's really practical at heart, she'll use one for her breakfast tray or bed spread when she is not packing for that winter cruise.

The Kaleidoscope . . . sees inflatable label pillows as entertaining accents for the family room. They cost one dollar twenty-five at 16135 Mack at Bedford.

Those Folks At Mr. Q . . . suggest you sail to Expo 70. Here's what the Matson line offers . . . The S.S. Lurline sets sail March 27 . . . 45 great days, 7 ports! Call Mr. Q for more information . . . TUxedo 6-0500.

Make-up Goes . . . hand in hand with the natural look in hair styles. The moist no make-up mystique is the thing! Gone are thick foundations and blood red lips or colorless pasty ones. New kissable lips will smile in soft shades of clear coral or cherry red emphasized by a colorless lip gloss by Borghese from Edward Neph, Farruchiere, 19463 Mack Avenue.

It's A Date . . . Sunday, November 23 . . . noon to six. See Kimberly's twelfth annual Christmas preview. It's sure to make visions of sugar plums and all the things which holiday dreams are made of . . . a reality. Refreshments.

In Orbit . . . keep your eye on oriental rugs . . . at Ed Maliszewski, 21435 Mack Avenue. Copies and contemporary translations of oriental patterns, using pleasing overall designs is the great trend in rooms with multiplied patterns.

Every Thursday . . . Westfield's feature family style chicken (all you can eat). The meal includes chicken with potatoes, vegetable, cole slaw, roll 'n butter . . . adults a dollar sixty-nine, children under ten, ninety-nine cents . . . 15506 Mack at Somerset.

It's Posh . . . to be one of the beautiful people. One of Grosse Pointe's most popular couples is Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Tapert. They lead a very active life. Dr. Tapert, who is past commodore of the Bayview Yacht Club and President of the Foundation of Exceptional Children, spends his rare leisure time pheasant hunting at Pelee Island. He is very often accompanied by his lovely wife. Mrs. Tapert must have a hair style which will take her anywhere on the spur of the moment . . . to an elegant dinner party, theatre or on a hunting trip. She wears her flaxen hair long and gently turned up at the end. For a special evening, she often adds a cluster of curls at the nape of the neck. She achieves the latest look in hair design at the Posh Studio, Inc. . . . The beauty salon Grosse Pointe's "in set" is talking about . . . 886-1377.

The Well Dressed Tree . . . is aglow with lights and trimmings from Bob Wyatt, Unlimited, 1835 Fleetwood corner of Mack Avenue. He will supply the tree, theme and decorations. He will also decorate it for you. You can visit his design studio and select your own decorations, door swags, wreaths and arrangements.

Hear The Squeals of Delight . . . when the children unwrap a Sea Horse Corral or an Ant Farm. These adventurous gifts are found at This 'n' That for Pets, 19443 Mack and cost two ninety-eight. They are packaged with a certificate. You send for the sea horses or the ants after the excitement of the holidays is over and the excitement of exploring a new world will begin . . . TUxedo 1-9007.

Shed Some Light . . . on holiday happenings with candles in a bright floral arrangement of fall colors . . . orange, brown, gold found at Wright's Gifts and Lamps, 18650 Mack Avenue. A bright idea for a perfect birthday present is a zodiac candle (three fifty).

JOHN MICHAEL POPLAWSKI, HEADMASTER OF GROSSE POINTE ACADEMY

By Pepper Whitelaw

St. Joan or Arc met me at the door and somehow it wasn't a surprise. It seemed perfectly logical since I was in a school founded by another French Saint Madeleine Sophie Barat. Formerly the Academy of the Sacred Heart, the school is now Grosse Pointe Academy. (I hastened to add it was Halloween and the school was alive with colorful costumes.)

The headmaster of the school, John Poplawski, 31, soft-spoken, charming and sincere, is the perfect choice to direct a school whose basic aims are to develop the whole child. For Mr. Poplawski is a whole man: A high school and college athlete, a husband, a father, an educator, and a child-lover.

John is a native Detroit and was completely educated in Michigan. He attended St. Mary's High School in Orchard Lake and St. Florian High School in Detroit.

He currently is a Lector at St. Paul's Church and an instructor in St. Paul's High School Confraternity of Christian Doctrine program. He and his wife, Connie, were married on Thanksgiving Day, 1959 in Our Lady Queen of Heaven Church. They have four children, all of whom attend the Academy. Lynne is nine years old, Lisa seven, Cary six and Jay five. The family lives right on campus and loves it.

Whole Family Swims In the summertime the whole family enjoys The Farms Pier where they may be seen swimming on almost any sunny warm day . . . Daddy is quite a swimmer, too.

Some of the summer is spent traveling around the United States from West to East Coast. John's parents, the John Adam Poplawski's, live in Detroit. John has a sister, Sue, who is a senior at Wayne State University majoring in Special Education; a sister, Joan who is married to Henry Kowalski, an associate professor at General Motors Institute, and who has three children. She was a pharmacist before her marriage.

Headmaster Poplawski has many plans for Grosse Pointe Academy and although a shy person by nature he is quite vociferous about those plans. "The basic aim of the school," stresses academic, physical and social development of each individual student.

"Here at the Academy we place strong emphasis on the academic . . . reading, writing and arithmetic. French is taught throughout the entire school, including the Montessori Pre-School, as are art, music and science.

Physical Education "We have a particularly good physical education program. The support he received from parents. During his career John has been president of the Michigan Independent Schools' Association, Director of the Lower School Evaluation Committee, Group Leader for the Independent Schools Association of Central States, Co-Director of Educational Workshops, Curriculum Co-Ordinator and Co-Director of Scholarship Committees.

Shophe, 17001 Kercheval . . . pistachio's . . . one twenty a pound . . . TUxedo 6-9009.

Greeting Guests . . . your pet wants to look his lovable best. Make an appointment for holiday grooming at the Pamper Parlor for Pets, 14902 Kercheval at Alter Road. Call 331-5514 . . . bookings are now being filled.

The Ships Came In . . . from Pakistan, India and Taiwan and a plane from Mexico with cargoes for The Four Winds. No wonder this fascinating shop, at 13800 East Eight Mile "runneth over" with unique merchandise and excellent values . . . DR 1-5666. Shop there now for that really different gift.

Santa Claus Is Coming To Town . . . with his busy schedule he has already called the Royal Coachman to pick him up at Metro (TUxedo 1-2000 or TUxedo 6-1322). He has made arrangements with the Royale Carriage, TUxedo 1-1111 to get him reliably to his appointed rounds.

"The Golden Butterfly" . . . has alighted on a collection of holiday dresses. This is the bright fashion boutique located within the Peter Morri Salon d'Elegance, 20902 Mack Avenue. We admired a black Satin after five dress with white satin pleated sleeves. (Seventy-five dollars). Another white and black satin dress is slender and sleeveless (seventy dollars) . . . 886-8530.

to The Pointe . . . we specialize in helping you make tomorrow's heirlooms today. A crevel design made to your special order will be put into a kit complete with yarn, material and instructions. Call 885-2720 or 882-2185 for an appointment.

"We offer a blend of gymnastics, sports and games. The coordination and self discipline developed through well-devised gymnastics are of definite value while team sports lead an esprit de corp.

"The school believes in sound mind and healthy body, but we are in the unique position of being able to offer yet another dimension to this age-long tradition . . . and satisfy another aim of the school . . . that is to develop a sensitive, willing and concerned Christian citizenry."

"We have found the best way to do this is through involvement . . . after all, learning is doing. Under the direction of Sister M. E. Pohl our Social Action Program, to which we devote one afternoon per week, is one to be proud of.

"It's great to watch a fifth grade class helping out at a Senior Center . . . Bringing smiles to the faces of lonesome oldsters . . . or to hear our eighth graders relate their experiences at a Grosse Pointe Nursery School . . . or to watch our seventh graders in rehearsal for a play they are planning to present at an inner city nursery school . . . or our sixth graders working on special campus projects.

Students Contribute "Students see how much they can contribute to the world around them and how much their contributions are needed and appreciated; consequently they gain a sense of accomplishment and responsibility that will hopefully become a life-long personal aim, an aim directed at making the world a better place for all."

John is particularly proud of his fine faculty consisting of 35 teachers, four of whom are religious teachers. The enrollment is up to 320 students.

As for the students' attitude . . . just watching them in their classes or walking through the halls reaffirms one's faith in the younger generation.

And the way they smile at their Headmaster indicates they feel as the class of 1963 at Detroit County Day School felt about him when they dedicated their school yearbook to him. "Mr. Poplawski," the dedication read, "has had a great deal of influence on a great many boys here.

"Whether coaching a team, conducting a class or just taking part in a friendly conversation in the hall he commands a great deal of respect from students and teachers alike. Whatever he undertakes, he does with solid devotion and dedication.

"One of the major aspects of his personality that the boys admire is the understanding he possesses for the students."

Christmas Tea For Fontbonne

The monthly meeting of the Fontbonne Auxiliary of Saint John Hospital will be held Wednesday, December 3, at 1:30 o'clock and the group's annual Christmas Tea is scheduled for 2 o'clock in Meeting Room A of the Hospital for all Fontbonne members and adult volunteers. ### APPLE DUMPLINGS

Contributed by Mrs. Paul G. Hykes From Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Cookbook "Gourmet Pointers"

- 3 cups flour
1 1/2 tsp. salt
1 cup shortening
Ice water
8 med. apples
8 tsp. sugar with cinnamon
1 Tbs. butter

SYRUP

- 1 1/2 cups sugar
3 cups water
3 Tbs. butter
1 tsp. cinnamon

Sift flour. Add shortening and salt. Add ice water. Roll out as for pie crust. Cut in eight squares, six inches across. Pare and core apples. Place apple in each square of crust. In cavity of apple put one teaspoon sugar—cinnamon and dot with butter. Wet edges of pastry, fold over apples, sealing well. Set apples two inches apart in large pan. Put in refrigerator to chill. Make syrup by putting sugar, cinnamon, water and butter in pan and boiling three minutes. Pour syrup around apples in pan and bake immediately, 475-500 degrees for five to seven minutes, then 375 degrees for 45 minutes. Serve warm if possible with cream. When serving cold, warm the cream or milk.

Featuring Winter Styles At GPYC

A Winter Fashionland parade of holiday clothes is being presented at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club today, Thursday, November 20, under the chairmanship of Mrs. James E. Fisher.

Mrs. Keith Shreve serves as co-chairman. Committee members include Mrs. Frederick Lepley, Mrs. William Lözelle, Mrs. George Maghielski, Mrs. Frank McBride, Mrs. James Powell, Mrs. Stuart Smith, Mrs. Robert Sutton, III, and Mrs. Sheldon Veil.

General chairman of all GPYC's women's activities is Mrs. William Schmidt.

Among those who'll be there are the Meedames Fred Heger, James Gagne, Roger Smith, Walter Van Goethem, Jr., and Robert Fraser.

Lady Of Loretto Circle Has Busy Week Ahead

The Daughters of Isabella Our Lady of Loretto Circle 937 Bowling League will hold its annual bowlers' games party Friday, November 21, at 8 o'clock in Eastland Auditorium. Chairman Mrs. Mathias Bischoff invites the public to attend. Proceeds will go to charity.

Ticket chairmen are Mrs. Edward Druzinski, PR 7-6213, and Mrs. George Zilli, PR 8-3779.

Mrs. George Clements, Circle chancellor, is readying plans for the annual Memorial Mass for deceased members Sunday, November 23, at 9:30 o'clock at St. Sylvester Church in Warren. Immediately following the service a breakfast will be served at the Leo XIII Knights of Columbus Council Hall in East Detroit.

Reservations are required and may be obtained by calling Mrs. Clements after 3:30 o'clock DR 1-0488.

The Circle will hold its business meeting next Wednesday evening, November 26, at 8 o'clock in the East Detroit Knights of Columbus.

Carl's Corner

The editors of the Grosse Pointe News say if I run the following comment it won't be good public relations for me—but I feel it has to be said: The area of Mack and 7 Mile is a disgrace. The parking lot is always full of paper and trash, and the gutters are usually full of cans and bottles. As a store owner in the Woods, I am ashamed and it does seem to me that it could be kept clean—incidentally, all along Mack Avenue we would not win first prize in a sanitation contest with rubbish strewn from one end to the other.

who, where and whatnot.

by whoozit

We always hope . . . the Grosse Pointe NEWS influences people, but we never thought of it as an actual, physical maker of friends . . . until Lou (Mrs. Aaron E.) Wilcox, of Loraine road, came back from the East with this story . . .

Seems a couple of months ago . . . the Wilcoxes' daughter, Pat Dieter, went to her Maplewood, N.J., mailbox to get her mail which, that day, included the NEWS . . . (Pointe-bred Pat's a regular subscriber, in Shorewood, Wis., Maplewood, N.J., wherever the Dieters live) . . . and she noted it (the NEWS) seemed a wee bit heavier than usual . . . and sure enough there were TWO Grosse Pointe NEWSes . . . one addressed to the Dieters and another to a couple who lived only a few blocks away . . .

So Pat decided to "play postman" . . . and walk over and deliver the paper in person . . . and now there is a nice friendship blossoming between the Dieters and Dorothy and Vincent Norako, who formerly lived in Grayton road! . . .

Now here's a bit more Chit Chat . . . from Lou . . . in residence in The Pointe after the Wilcoxes' annual autumn travels . . . (Fall, says astrologer Mrs. W., is one of her Lucky Times: "I have Libra ascendant and late September and most of October is Libra—ruled by Venus—so it's good for social activities") . . .

"For years" . . . she writes . . . "we have been traveling either to the East Coast or the West Coast in the fall . . . Last year we visited the West Coast, stopping over to see the John Dieters in Shorewood, Wis., then going on to visit friends near Laguna . . . but this year the East Coast won in a walk as the Dieters are all settled in Maplewood . . . so along with my sister Irene and her husband Coby Byl, of Grand Rapids, we headed east . . .

"Maplewood is just as beautiful . . . in the fall as in the late winter and they tell me the FOUR seasons really show their colors there . . . There was excitement in New York City where we entertained Tom Brigrance, the fashion designer . . . I met him several years ago when he appeared as a speaker at the Women's City Club and started out by saying "The two 'in' things today are fashion and astrology" . . . He wound up calling me from New York that same night to give me the time of his birth so I could set up his horoscope . . .

"We also had a chance . . . to visit with our dear friend Mary Margaret Regan, a former Detroit who has been in advertising, does free lance writing . . . but is now librarian in Business, (or is it Economic?), Research at the New York Public Library . . .

"The Dieters came into New York City . . . and visited US at our hotel suite, bringing along Patti and Bobby both of whom are used to motel accommodation when they travel . . . Little Bobby, finding a butler's pantry complete with stacked refrigerator, decided maybe he liked hotels better! . . .

"Anyway . . . it was a quick New York City thing with only one show and one talk at Sardi's, then back to Maplewood for some more talk . . . then goodbye to Manhattan . . . and up the Coast . . .

Another Detroit . . . a long-time friend who invited us to be her guest at the Wychmere Harbor Club at Harwich Port, Cape Cod, is Mrs. Norman Kennerston . . . who has one of the most attractive homes in the area . . . on Cottage lane its large picture window faces Nantucket Sound and weather permitting we would have loved to sit on her private beach . . . but the day after the Club party it rained so hard we decided to start moving again, to Boothbay Harbor, Me., and the White Mountains of New Hampshire where the sun was shining and the color was just starting to become extra special . . .

"After we got back home . . . with a few days' rest . . . we received another invitation to visit in Fairfax, Va., so we headed east again to see the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia . . .

"We were houseguests . . . of Ashby Taylor and Edith Beattie . . . the former owner of six acres of beautiful woods surrounding a very old southern home filled with priceless antiques . . . the Daniel C. Beatties drove and we all had a wonderful time . . . especially our Sky-line Drive trip to Culepepper County where 20 miles from the mountains you can sit in Edith's yard, (she has a big, rambling white house surrounded by holly, oak, spruce, maple and dogwood trees), and look out over a magnificent panorama . . . So close to Washington and yet so far! . . .

Okay, readers . . . We'll put an end to this Chit Chat of Lou's before you start actually drooling! . . . How's YOUR autumn been this year?
