Scoring the Pointes By Phil Loranger

EDITOR'S NOTE: The St. Paul Catholic High School Lakers this week won another league championship and North and South High Schools met in a classic battle at North. The results of these cage acitvities are covered in separate articles, appearing in this section of the NEWS.

The Austin Friars, long an established basketball power throughout the state, are on the move again and the members of the Catholic League's Central Division are beginning to feel the pinch.

Share Second Place Coach Frank Chickowski's cagers have fashioned an 8-4 record in the league, good enough to hoist them into a second-place the with Brother Rice and giving them the opportunity to make the league playoffs in mid-February.

Austin has two league games remaining on its tough schedule-Notre Dame High tomorrow night and league-leading Catholic Central next week. Since the playoffs consist of matching the first two teams in each division, the Friars must win against Notre Dame if they hope to get a shot at taking all the marbles.

With all five starters hitting 27 points, 15.5 rebounds and in double figures for the fourth time in the last five games, the time of his injury. As much as Friars tore Brother Rice apart his scoring punch, the team on Friday, January 30, by a misses his leadership and calmcount of 75-68. This marked the second time this season that Austin has stopped Rice.

everybody is starting to shoot," said Chickowski, who has seen his team come on strong in the season's second half. "Earlier shots, taking some of the sting this year, we were getting scoring from just one or two boys in the line-up, but the team seems to have jelled and gained a lot of confidence."

Frank Latona led Austin's when it got shot down by Dearscoring parade with 22 points, born Divine Child by a count of followed by Dick Rancilio, with 54 to 41, but it wasn't the fault 18; Ron Denowitz, with 15, and of Paul Hayner. Rick Woodbury and Jim Ney, Sportsmanlike Move "The Lutheran West coach began flooding the court with reserves after he saw his team build up a 20-point lead in the second quarter," said Wood.

"It was a gallant gesture and a sportsmanlike move, but we almost stole the game from him." What is the matter with the Knights is what's the matter with McCarthy. The grapplers failed to even come close to a victory during their first five years of existence, but finally broke the long winless drought last year against Cranbrook. The results of their early matches this season indicated that another fiveyear disaster plan might have to be implemented, but no!

Picking up six victories, three of which were pins, the Knights smashed arch-rival Ohio Maumee by the score of 24-19, not only gathering an important win but also getting a measure of revenge by beating a team to which they were not supposed to be able to hold a candle.

"I'm really proud of the boys," said Head Coach Pete Nicholas, a former Wayne State University wrestling star. "We all felt that we could win and we did. It's got to be the most satisfying day of my coaching

Sophomore Craig Bock started the Knights on their way to victory by gaining a 2-1 decision in the 118-pound class and 130-pound Steve Weiczorek picked up a pin in his match. Chuck Gardella, a surprise starter in the 137-pound category, pulled an even bigger surprise by pinning his oppon-ent in 60 seconds flat. Co-captain Doug Weiss, one of the finest wrestlers in the state, gained a 2-0 win in the 165-pound bracket and 175-pounder, co-captain Don Lennox, pinned his man in the last period. Heavyweight Jim Solomon, a heavy underdog to his Maumee opponent, who boasted a 10-1 record, sealed the upset win by taking a 6-3 decision. den.

Illinois Rites

The wedding of Susan Day Farwell and Edward Randolph Houston Saturday, January 91. in First Presbyterian Church, Lake Forest, Ill., brought many Pointers to the neighboring state.

Susan's mother, Mrs. Francis C. Farwell, II, of Lake Forest, is the former Jean Campbell. daughter of Mrs. Douglas

Campbell, of Rathbone place, who arrived several days before the rites and entertained at a luncheon for members of the inimediate family the day of the wedding.

Also from Grosse Pointe came the Harry Campbells and their three sons, the Douglas Campbells, Jr., and their three boys, the James Howe Campbells and their trio of children, two girls and a boy, the Theodore Mc-Graws and the Earl Heenans, Jr., and their daughter Tracy. Mr. Houston is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Harrison Houston, of Cos Cob, Conn.

Place is the Raleigh House. General chairman is Mrs. E. Bud Wittus. Mrs. Hervert V. Book and Mrs. William R. Bauer are in charge of contributions, with Mrs. Edward I. Nicholas handling reservations.

Tickets are $25 per couple, obtainable at MA 6-1791. Black tie's optional, (we're predicting lots of "opts"). Mrs. Horace Dodge is honorary chairman of everything.

Oh . . . and if you're REALLY INTERESTED in bidding on the Metamorphis Bach and Rock Group, we suppose we ought to tell you that you don't get them PERMANENTLY—just the use of their services for one evening party.

Fashions For St. John

Now how about that April 30 date? This is a party you may have been to before, the Fontbonne Auxiliary of St. John Hospital's annual spring fashion show lunch-

If you HAVE been before, we're sure you'll be going again. Everybody does.

It's the kind of an afternoon the Fontboune ladies are famous for.

Cherchez la Mode's the title of this year's show, with fashions and models provided by Saks Fifth Avenue, an exhibit of gems and jewelry by Sidney Krandall and Sons.

It will be presented at the Gourmet House in St. Clair Shores with Mrs. Mark C. Stevens serving as honorary chairman, Mrs. John Milton White as general chairman, Mrs. David L. Thomas as reservations chairman.

It will benefit the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit at St. John, a special nursery for newborn high-risk infants designed to reduce infant mortality and increase the number of mentally intelligent intact survivors. How's THAT for A Good Cause?

Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper

Back now to February, the month at hand, and an-other traditional local event: The Shrove Tuesday Pan-cake Supper prepared and served by the Young Episcopal Women of Christ Church.

It's set for next (Shrove) Tuesday, February 10, in the Christ Church Undercroft.

Children's movies will be shown after dinner and tickets at $1 per person may be purchased at the door. Mrs. Allan Ledyard's the lady-in-charge.

Meanwhile, Out On The Slopes Still in February, and it looks like we'll have a good ski month here in Michigan . . . Which brings us, albeit in rather a roundabout fashion, to our next bit of news: Did you know that Dr. G. Richard Jones, of Stephens road, and Keith Mahoney, of Chalfonte ave-nue, recently completed their training and passed the test required to join the National Ski Patrol System? Now you do.

Word's come to us, courtesy of Nancy Mahoney. that Dr. Jones is a basic patrolman and will serve with the Nub's Nob Ski Patrol for a year before he's eligible to become a senior patrolman.

Keith, a junior patrolman, automatically becomes a basic patrolman when he turns 18. He too is patrol-ling at Nub's Nob as are several other Pointers: Robert Bokram, of Muskoka road, William Bokram, of Birch lane, Jack Siekman, of Vendome court, and Jerry and Nancy Mahoney.

And when Dr. Ross Hume, of Kenwood road, fulfills his apprenticeship later this year there'll be eight Pointers on the Nub's Nob Ski Patrol.

Justice Brennan To Speak Here

ture series of the Women's Republican Club of Grosse Pointe on Lincoln's Birthday next Thursday, February .12. His talk will follow a 12:30 o'clock luncheon at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Justice Brennan has been mentioned recently as a candidate on the Republican ticket to oppose Senator Philip Hart. He has declined candidacy but Republican party and won. Alhas not revealed his future plans.

It has been thought he might retain his position as Michigan's top justice, or he might seek another position in Republican to discuss his future plans at politics.

Justice Brennan began his political career as a candidate the public. for the United States Congress from Michigan's 15th district. His bid failed.

He then ran for Common' Pleas Judge in the city of Detroit. His campaign publicity won national attention when he stopped traffic on one of Detroit's expressways. Traffic was backed up for five miles as Brennan and his aides marched policy-it's the safest.

Pointe Counter Points

By Pat Rousseau

This Is It! . . . The end of the Walton-Pierce sale. Fashions have been re-marked with low tempting tags to make room for all the new shipments. However, these are not "old" styles. Many of them were harbingers of "looks" to come which are just catching on now. For example, on sale . . . is a light weight navy wool ensemble. The jacket is sleeveless to show the long sleeves of a fresh white and navy polka dot silk blouse. This look could not be newer. It was the rage in the spring market in New York. We are featuring the latest in-terpretations of the sleeveless coat with long sleeved blouses and dresses February 10th in a spring style show for 700 very fashion conscious women. When you shop a Walton-Pierce sale, expect to find "advanced" fashions.

Gone With The Wind . . . is the windswept look of long hair. At least that's the word from Paris. In the couture showings hair has been "brushed up and back for the moment and the mood which is frankly roman-tic." Hairdos are also short and wavy. Long straight hair is out. "The Domned" head is one of the newest looks. As you know, this film is having an impact on hair styles as well as fashions. The place to experiment with one of these new hair styles is at Leon, 17888 Mack Avenue . . . TUxedo 4-9393.

Fashion Horoscope . . . spring is in your future. Plan ahead for that rainy day. Be prepared with the newest "wet look" trench coat. Be bold, choose red. There's also white, navy or red with navy. To add variety to your fashion life, this "wet look" comes in a jacket, three-quarter length and regular . from fifty to seventy dollars at Michelle's Boutique, 17864 Mack. Avenue.

Our "Good Taste" recipe . . . this week is Some-thing Special: Audrey Beatty's own Apple Nut Cake, the one you read about two weeks ago in Mel Beatty's "Pointer of Interest" interview . . . And here's a hint from its creator, something to make it even MORE special. "I usually," says Audrey, "sprinkle a little xxxx sugar on top." With or without the extra sugar, it's delicious!—and easy! . . .

Remember back around the first of the year . . when we devoted this column to a nostalgic review of what was happening in Grosse Pointe a decade ago? . . . Among the "happenings" we mentioned were the prep-arations involved in Mary Kay Tracy's, (she's the daughter of the Emmet E. Tracys, of Provencal road), February 27, 1960, wedding to James Duncan Farley . . . and lo and behold! Here's a note in today's mail from Mary Kay Tracy Farley, all the way from Pheasant lane, Greenwich, Conn., saying Thank You Very Much for the Mention and bringing us up to date on the Farley Family, for whom the '60's were anything but dull!

"We've lived" . . . reports Mary Kay, "in eight homes-for more than six months, at least-in three countries, tackled three languages, had four offspring English and then, if I pass, I . . . It's been a great fun, always-something-new, 'how won't take it (English) any do we decorate this home?' time . . . Tell Mary Bruce, (in the same issue we revealed how Mrs. B. faced—and

They couldn't have picked a better man! . . . We mean, of course, Harry J. Chancey, of Grand Marais boulevard, whose appointment as Explorer' vice-chairman for the Detroit Area Council of the Boy Scouts of America was announced recently by Scout Executive Joseph H. Brinton . . . Mr. Chancey, active in the Boy Scout movement for 14 years, has held a number of volunteer positions. Under his direction as District Commissioner during the past two years the Lakeshore District, (that's ours), achieved the highest level of performance in its history . . . Now he'll be responsible for Explorer activity in Detroit and its Eastern, Western and Northern suburbs . . .

"This key volunteer position" . . . Mr. Brinton ex-plains, "involves recruiting, training and supervising other volunteers in helping develop a sense of responsi-bility toward citizenship on the part of young adults and satisfying the needs that accompany their growth"... The volunteer staff will also be called on to develop program sthat are "relevant to the times and flexible enough to remain current"... According to Mr. Chan-cey, who notes that the formation of new Explorer units in both general interest and specialty fields-Engineering, Health Service, Natural Science, Space and Physics, Psychology or Advertising, for example-has created a need for a greater number of volunteers, recruiting will begin immediately . . . "Our task," he says, "is to find men of outstanding character and dedication who will, through their service, affect the lives of thousands of young adults-one of our most important assets" . . . *
