SIX ARAB COMMANDOS spurned an offer by Aristotle Onassis to serve as hostage Wednesday and released 53 passengers aboard a hijacked plane only after the Greek government agreed to their demands to free seven Arab prisoners. The Olympic Airways Boeing 727 then flew to Cairo where the hijackers, five young men and a grenade-wielding blond, surrendered to Egyptian authorities. The plane returned to Athens Thursday. Five Americans were reported among the passengers when it was hijacked just outside Beirut, Lebanon.

THE ARTIFICIAL SWEETENER saccharin is safe, a panel of government science advisers reported Wednesday. But they recommended additional studies on its possible link to cancer and other diseases. "On the basis of available information, the present and projected usage of saccharin in the United States does not pose a hazard," said an eight-man study group of the National Academy of Science-National Research Council.

THE FBI HAS CONCLUDED that the slaying of four Kent State University students by members of the Ohio National Guard was "not necessary and not in order," the Akron, Ohio Beacon Journal reported yesterday. The Justice Department has advised Ohio officials that six guardsmen could be criminally charged, the Beacon Journal said.

THE BUDD COMPANY said Friday it will shut down permanently its Detroit gray iron foundry and production of passenger car brake drums and hubs. The closing by June, 1971, will lay off 800 management and hourly workers. Budd now employs 4,200 workers at the Detroit plant at 12141 Charlevoix.

A CONDITIONAL ISRAELI acceptance of the U.S. peace plan for the Mid-east was worked out Saturday night at a meeting between Premier Golda Meir and 14 cabinet members of her ruling party, authoritative Israeli political sources said. Israel will demand that a cease-fire provision of the plan be backed by guarantees that Egypt does not exploit it to beef up Suez Canal air and ground defenses, including installation of new Russian-made surface-to-air missiles, the sources said.

GEORGE W. ROMNEY appeared in the Detroit area Sunday and summoned 39 suburban mayors to a Monday night meeting to counter reports that the Nixon administration is trying to force faster integration in the suburbs. Romney, the secretary of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), was reacting to a controversy touched off last week by stories in the Detroit News which alleged that HUD had chosen the suburb of Warren as an opening wedge for an aggressive new fair housing policy toward the nation's suburbs.

ISRAEL POSTPONED a decision Sunday on the U.S. plan for peace in the Middle East, but Syria and Iraq turned it down, creating a serious split in Arab ranks. The Jordanian cabinet reluctantly accepted the plan Sunday night after a stormy daylong meeting that indicated it would have reservations. This left Egypt as the only Arab country to accept the American proposal without conditions, confronting President Gamel Abdel Nasser with the greatest internal crisis in the Arab world since the 1967 Middle East war.

A FREE ROCK MUSIC festival at the Grant Park band shell near downtown Chicago erupted into gunfire and rock-throwing between policemen and young people. At least three young people were shot when police moved in after a group described as "hippies, brothers and Chinamen" took over the stage.

Their Presentation's Opening Scheduled for Tonight

Precipitation Over Normal During July

Average Rainfall is About 3.5 Inches; Last Year Skies Poured 8.37 Inches On Pointes

The normal rainfall during the month of July averages about 3.5 inches, according to information released by Wendell Baker, superintendent of the Farms Water Filtration Plant. From July 1 through July 25, records showed that a total of 4.02 inches fell in the area.

During the month of July, 1969, Baker said, the rainfall was nearly triple the normal number of inches, the total being 8.37.

Since the U.S. official weather gauge maintained at the Shores municipal building was installed only two months ago, there are no official records showing the rainfall in that section up to the time of the installation.

In the July 16 issue of the NEWS, it was disclosed that the total precipitation from July 1 through July 13, recorded by the Farms was 2.22 inches.

Picking up from that date, it was revealed that on July 14, 22 of an inch fell on the area. On July 15, it was .47 of an inch; July 19, it was 1.7 of an inch; July 20, the fall was .67 of an inch; July 21, a mere .02 of an inch; and July 25, the rain that came down measured .25 of an inch, for a total precipitation of 4.02 inches to that date.

Up to date records of the rainfall since July 13, were not available from the Shores, although it was disclosed that the downpour on Saturday, July 25, measured .5 of an inch.

Summer Speech Program Helps Youngsters Getting Ready for Kindergarten

Children Having Language Difficulties Benefited by Correction Course; Pupils and Teachers Have Fun in Class

By Pepper Whitelaw

Fun and education go hand-in-hand in the Grosse Pointe Public School System's Summer Speech and Language Program. The program is geared to youngsters who are having language difficulties and are about to enter kindergarten in the fall.

Coordinating the program is 23-year-old John Whelan, Chairman of Speech Correction for the school system. John was graduated from Clarion State College in Pennsylvania and earned his MA degree from Wayne State University. He is currently working on his doctorate.

His staff includes youthful and talented teachers and therapists, Claire Wilcoxan, Patricia Gorman, Barbara Theophelis, Joyce Flowers, Ann Speicher and George Valenta, plus three college student aides, all of whom have as much fun teaching and working with youngsters as the youngsters have in learning.

Happy faces welcome each new learning experience because the learning experience is presented creatively and enjoyably.

Use Games To Teach

This reporter observed one class session in which the teacher and therapist held paper plates with pictures of foods affixed. The object of the "game" was for the youngsters to ask for one of their favorite foods in complete sentences including the magic words "please" and "thank you." If the youngsters did so they were given the plate; however, if they did not, they were given a plate of dog food. (This usually set the whole group laughing amiably). The child with the most plates at the end of the game is the happy, "well-fed" winner.

The purpose of these sessions, which meet for two hours daily for a six week period, is to help youngsters develop language and speech specifics. The tools are many and varied and include games, puppets, nursery rhyme, songs, dramatizations, interpretations, visual and audio aids.

Prior to admission youngsters are given hearing, speech and language and psychological tests by the school system. (Often speech problems are caused by ear, nose and throat problems which limit the youngsters' reception to language.)

Helps Improve Image
Youngsters in this program are learning to learn, NOT learning to fail. One of the chief aims of the course is to provide youngsters with a good self image which will result in better self expression. Youngsters are taught how and when to talk, participation and basic skills.

Because classes are small, (limited to 15) both teachers and therapists are able to give youngsters a great deal of individual attention.

The program, like all special education programs in the school system, receives financial reimbursement from the state.

Parents of children in the program are kept informed of classroom activities via a

Police Push Efforts to Find Rapist

List of Suspects Narrowed; Warnings Issued to Parents and Children of Existing Dangers

The investigation into the abduction and rape on Wednesday, June 17, of a six-year old Woods girl continued this week as detectives from the Woods and St. Clair Shores redoubled their efforts to find the youngster's attacker.

Close on the heels of the bizarre crime, came a warning this week from Pointe police officials, concerned for the safety of all Pointe children, reminding parents and children alike of the dangers involved in communicating with strangers.

"These sick or evil persons are around," said Woods Director of Public Safety Donald B. Coates. "Parents must continually remind their children never to approach a stranger nor accept anything from one. Acceptance of a 'gift' is the first step towards real trouble."

Ignore All Strangers
The same warning was put forth by Joseph Vitale, Shores police chief, who urged that youngsters totally ignore all strangers as the first step towards prevention of a sex crime.

"A child's best bet is to ignore such a person," said Vitale. "If the man becomes aggressive, the youngster should then attempt to gain a place of safety. Most abductors work in secluded or temporarily secluded places. They hate crowds. If a child is threatened, he or she should seek the help of anybody. They should draw attention to themselves and yell for help as loud as they can."

"They should move quickly and even run up to landscapers or other workmen who happen to be in the area," he claimed.

Police pointed out that crimes of violence are on the upswing throughout the country. Those persons who choose to ignore fact that safety precautions must be taken at all times are blinding themselves and could be heading for trouble.

"If children stop and talk with strangers, they are inviting trouble," said Park Director of Public Safety Gerard Keate-fover. "They must be warned never to accept cash, rides, candy or anything else from an unknown man or woman."

Should Make Report
If they encounter such a person, they should report the incident to the first adult they know, preferably a teacher, a parent or the police.

"Most parents do teach their children the proper steps to take to avoid confrontations

Weather Controls Water Filtration, Plant's Pumpage

Hot, Dry Spells and Rainfall Determine Amount of Gallons Consumed; Total Used During 1969 Recorded at 1,053,340,000 Gallons

The length of hot, dry spells and the amount of precipitation that falls are big factors in determining how much water is used by the citizens of the Farms and City, it was disclosed by Wendell Baker, superintendent of the Farms Water Filtration Plant, 29 Moross road.

During the entire year of 1969, more than a billion gallons of water was pumped to users in the two communities. Using figures to illustrate more effectively the total gallons pumped were 1,053,340,000, which may not be much compared to larger cities, such as Detroit, but it is an impressive amount for an area the size of the Farms and City.

The pumpage for 1970 could easily exceed that of last year, if hot and dry spells, and lack of rainfall, are experienced, such as that between June 4 through June 11 of this year. During this period, pumps at the plant were kept busy supplying a total of 42.79 million gallons. Total pumpage for all of last month was 123.20 million gallons.

By contrast, Baker pointed out, during June 1969, the longest dry spell lasted only three days, from June 25 through June 27, which had no effect on the consumption of water. Total number of gallons pumped for the month amounted to 87.77 million gallons.

During June 1969, the highest number of gallons pumped in one day was 4.00 million on the 28th; the lowest, 2.47 million, on the 15th.

Last month, the one-day high was 6.93 million gallons on the 11th; the lowest was set at 2.64 million gallons on the 27th.

From July 1 through July 22 of last year, the number of gallons used by consumers was 76.20 million. The high day was the 16th, which saw 6.30 million gallons pumped; the lowest amount used was 2.30 million gallons, and this occurred on the 20th.

By comparison, from July 1 through July 22 this year, total gallons pumped were recorded at 65.89 million. July 1 saw the highest number of gallons consumed, 4.91 million. On July 4, a total of 2.63 million gallons passed through the mains.

From January 1 through June 30 of 1969, Baker disclosed, Farms and City residents used a total of 452.98 million gallons of water, whereas, during the first six months of this year, it was 485.95 million gallons.

THEFT NOT SO SWEET

A juvenile shoplifter, who attempted to leave the A and P store at 17120 Kercheval with a six-pack of candy bars tucked inside his shirt, was assisted in his attempt by fellow manager, Robert Zynda. The youth was taken to the City Station and released to his parents.

Window Smashing Vandals Sought by Farms Police

Three men, or youths, driving through the streets in the Farms, are believed to be responsible for the smashing of several car and home windows, it was disclosed by Farms authorities. The incidents took place on Thursday, July 23.

The following persons called police to disclose damages to their property:

Myra B. Tibbault of 3196 Williamsburg, St. Clair Shores, reported that while her automobile was parked in front of 88 Touraine, the windshield of her 1969 Plymouth was smashed.

Edgar F. Trambly, Jr., of 440 Barclay, disclosed that a rock measuring 3 by 3 feet was tossed through the 6 by 3-foot plate glass window at the front of his house. Jane Tibbits of 461 Lexington, reported a stone tossed through a 3 by 6-

Schools Bid All Residents To Meeting

Superintendent Anderson Stresses Importance of August 10 Session on Proposed Budget

Dr. Theos I. Anderson, Superintendent of Grosse Pointe Public School System, has issued a community-wide invitation to attend the August 10 meeting of the Board of Education.

The public hearing on the schools' proposed budget for 1970-71 will be held at 8 p.m. in the auditorium of North High School, 707 Vernier road.

Dr. Anderson has issued personal invitations to the leaders of 75 community organizations to attend. The text of the letter mailed Tuesday to various presidents and municipal officials follows:

"It is my pleasure to extend to leaders of community organizations a personal invitation to attend the public hearing on the operating budget of the Grosse Pointe Public School System, (including the public libraries), for 1970-71. The meeting will be held at 8 p.m. on Monday, August 10, in the auditorium of Grosse Pointe North High School, 707 Vernier Road, Grosse Pointe Woods. The meeting is an important one that all thoughtful Grosse Pointers will want to attend. For in addition to a discussion of the district's proposed revenues (including the ever-changing State-Aid formula) and expenditures, I also plan to review the educational goals of our schools for the coming year.

"I cannot stress the importance of the presence of those who wish to become well-informed about proposed plans for the operation of the schools and libraries. However, if you (or any of the members of your organization) are unable to attend because of vacation conflicts, I am available to discuss all phases of the school system's operation with you during scheduled meetings of your group in the near future.

"I hope that you will find it possible to attend the August 10 public hearing and/or accept my offer of attending a meeting of your organization to discuss this very important matter."

City, Employees Agree on Wages

City of Grosse Pointe Manager Thomas Kressbach has announced that wage settlements have been reached between the City and employees of the Department of Public Works. The council approved the agreement on Monday, July 20.

The settlement covers two years and provides for a 38 cent per hour increase from July 1, 1970 through June 30, 1971 and an additional 30 cents per hour, July 1, 1971 through June 30, 1972.

In addition the settlement provides for fringe benefit improvements which include increase in the life insurance benefits schedule from $4,000 to $8,000; two additional vacation days for employees with six to 15 years of service; three additional vacation days for those with 15 years or more service; one additional paid holiday; increase in the maximum sick bank accumulation to 120 days and approved hospital insurance benefits to keep abreast of increased hospital costs.

The city employ 17 men in the Department of Public Works.

Appointments Get Service Into Motion

Michael Ferrence and John Kendall Named as Liaison Officers Replacing Trombley

By Pepper Whitelaw
The much-talked about Youth Service Division has been set into motion with the appointment of Michael Ferrence and John Kendall as school liaison officers.

Chester Petersen, City Manager of Grosse Pointe Woods and Coordinator of the Youth Service Division, told the NEWS that the division will be operable prior to August 1. He said he was optimistic about the service the YSD will perform for the community and its youth and confident that through this total community effort the division can effectively fight drug abuse.

He said, "The formation of the YSD is one of the most progressive joint actions by the five Pointes in the last 10 years." He also dispelled the myth that we are locally over the hump with the drug abuse problem and added, "We are finding a continued increase in drug usage in the Pointe communities."

To Fight Delinquency
The goal of the YSD is to prevent delinquency among Pointe youth through the development of programs which will provide them with a more positive attitude toward society and the law.

Ferrence, who will be North High School's liaison officer has been with the Woods Department of Public Safety for two years. He worked during that time with Marty Trombley, who was initially slated for the post prior to his resignation from the department and acceptance of a post with the Grand Traverse Bay Sheriff's Department.

Mr. Petersen indicated that the delay in making the appointments was created by the unexpected resignation of Trombley, around whom this post was created, and the difficulty in finding suitable, qualified men.

The appointments of Ferrence and Kendall were made after a careful scrutiny of all applicants by outstanding police psychologist Allan Canty, Woods Public Safety Director Donald Coates, Captain Henry Marcland and Mr. Petersen.

Continues Education
Ferrence is 23 years old and recently received his certificate in law enforcement from Macomb County Community College. He is continuing his education and is working for an associate degree in police administration with majors in sociology and psychology.

Kendall is 27 years old and has been a member of the Park Police Department for three-and-a-half years. He was graduated from Southeastern High School. He has had college training at Macomb Community College and is presently enrolled at Wayne State University studying police administration. He has earned 114 hours toward his degree. His special interest is psychology and sociology. He is married. His wife is a teacher. (Continued on Page 2)

Park Zoning Board Okays Parking Lot Construction

At a public hearing held on Monday, July 27, the Park Council, sitting as a Zoning Board of Appeals, granted Ted Ewald Chevrolet, 15175 East Jefferson avenue, the right to obtain a permit to construct a 30-car parking lot enclosed by a four-foot face brick wall.

The wall will be set back 10 feet from the existing lot line and will run along Lakepointe and will be continuous from the northerly corner of the new lot to the present driveway. The vacant 10 feet will be completely landscaped and maintained to enhance the area.

In order to utilize the full capacity of the proposed lot, a house located at 1023 Lakepointe will be razed. The building, now occupied, is owned by Ewald.

Ewald, who was present at the hearing, as were a number of area residents affected by the change, pledged that the lot would be used for street parking of customers' and personnel cars. He said no new cars will be stored on the lot.

City Manager Robert Stone disclosed that the lot must be licensed annually, and if it is not properly maintained, or if any section of the city ordinance governing parking lots are violated, the license can be revoked, or at the end of the year, renewal will be denied.

The interested residents present at the hearing, surprisingly, voiced no objections, when told that the lot will have a brick wall, and the 10-foot space will

Be Sure to Vote On Tues., Aug. 4

The NEWS urges all qualified voters to go to the polls on Tuesday, August 4, to cast their ballots in the General Primary Election.

Candidates for the offices of United States Senator, Representative in Congress, Governor, State Senator, State Representative, County Commission and Township supervisor, clerk, treasurer, trustee and two constables will be on the ballot.

Proposition "A" on the ballot authorizes the levying of one mill for the operation of the Wayne County Community College.

Polls will be open from 7 a.m. until 8 p.m.

 To Get More Training
 Both men have been assigned to in-service training programs with Bloomfield Township and the Michigan State Police, who are currently offering this type of training to interested law enforcement agencies in the community. They will also receive special training at Federal Narcotics School and in counseling.

 Working with the two liaison officers will be Thomas Podewick of the Woods Department of Public Safety who has worked with Trombly at North. He is 33 years old and has been a member of the Woods Public Safety Department for six years. He was with the Detroit Police Department for four years. He has three children and is currently continuing his academic training.

James Davison, 30, will be Kendall's investigating officer at South High School. He too is continuing his academic training. He has been a member of the Woods Public Safety Department for nearly seven years. He is married and has one child.

Claire Tobianski, 25, who has been clerk-dispatcher at the Woods for four years, has been appointed clerk-secretary of the division.

Facilities Revamped

Mr. Petersen said that with the housing of the YSD in the Woods Public Safety Department they have had to completely revamp their facilities. He told the NEWS that they are currently equipping the division. Laboratory equipment is currently being purchased with funds donated to the division by the Grosse Pointe Lawyers Wives.

Mr. Petersen added that the donation from the children on Saddle Lane has paid for the purchase of an electric typewriter for the division. Since much more equipment is necessary the NEWS suggests that local organizations consider making donations to the YSD by contacting Mr. Petersen at TU-exdo 4-6800.

Mr. Petersen predicted that ultimately the division will have its own full-time director, and added that he is hopeful that a female sociologist can be added to the staff. He said, "As we grow and expand the need to employ the services of a qualified woman on the staff will undoubtedly become a necessity."

 with strangers, but a constant reminder is a good practice," he said. "Youngsters must be on their guard at all times and in all places."

City Police Corporal Edmond Benthuy's pointed out that his department has pamphlets available to children and parents, which outline the dangers of talking to strangers and the appropriate action to take in the case of an emergency. He also noted that the City conducts a regular school program aimed at making children aware of the dangers involved with meeting with strangers.

Narrow Suspect List

Woods Detective Gerald Kensora this week claimed that police have narrowed the list of suspects in the Woods abduction-rape case and that the Woods-St. Clair Shores police task force assigned to the crime is intensifying its investigation.

The child was abducted shortly after the finish of classes at Ferry School, in Morningside drive, by a heavy-set, unkempt-looking, young man, driving a dark-colored, small automobile.

She was forced into the rear seat of the vehicle by the man, who drove her to the Jefferson Beach Marina, in St. Clair Shores. There he raped her in a dry-docked boat, leaving her lying on the deck as he drove off from the scene.

been renamed to a top post on the Torch Drive advance gifts committee.

He was reappointed vice chairman for men's groups, the post held in the 1969 United Foundation campaign, by Advance Gifts Chairman Robert H. Kanzler, also of Grosse Pointe.

Kanzler said Thurber will begin immediately to organize men's teams to solicit early Torch Drive contributions from select individuals and foundations.

Advance gifts are sought prior to the official opening of the United Foundation campaign, set this year to begin October 13.

The 22nd annual UF drive will continue through November 5 to raise operating funds for nearly 200 health and community services.

"We are fortunate Mr. Thurber again has accepted this Torch Drive," Kanzler said.

"He has played a major role in the committee's past successes and was responsible for helping bring in $1,124,798 or 103.3 percent of our quota last year," he added.

The goal for this year's Torch Drive will be announced early in September after the UF board of directors reviews recommendations of the goal and allocations committee, now conducting hearings to ascertain the agencies' minimal needs.

Thurber attended Williams College and is active in its alumni association.

He is a trustee of the Rehabilitation Institute and the Michigan Heart Association, both Torch Drive services.

Calls from Pointers who claim to know the origin of the mysterious parrot, which has been inhabiting a square-block area in the Farms for the past few weeks and about which the NEWS last week carried a story, continue to be answered by NEWS staffers, as the search for its true owner goes on.

For several weeks, residents of an area bounded by Lakeshore, Moross, Lakeview and Mary, had been mystified by the rasy, cad of an unknown noise-maker. The mystery ended last week when one resident discovered the parrot, sitting well-camouflaged in the branches of a high tree.

A search tree was made known in the NEWS story, concerned Pointers, some claiming the annoying bird, have been offering "tips" on its origin.

"The parrot obviously was the pet of a sailor aboard a foreign vessel passing through Lake St. Clair," said one caller. "It probably just got sick of sea duty and flew off one day, taking up residence in the Farms."

Another caller claimed to have lost a bird, closely resembling the noisy parrot, within the past few weeks. She listened to a description of the parrot and decided to "check it out and call back later."

Perhaps the best lead in the search for the rightful owner of the elusive parrot was received from a resident of the Woods.

"I'm not sure, but that parrot looks and acts like the very one, which escaped from the shoulder of my daughter, Beverly, about two months ago," said William Busse, of 551 Ballantyne. "I had previously warned her not to take the parrot outside because it had a tendency to seek a freer life. We had been through this type of incident before."

"On the day of its escape, she was feeding it from her hand, when the bird suddenly flew off and disappeared into the high trees," he claimed. "He was never seen again. I know she misses her pet, but she never expected to hear about it again."

Busse has color pictures of the bird and expects to visit the homeowner who identified the noise-making culprit in an attempt to seek more knowledge about the parrot.

"I know the parrot is quite difficult to spot because his coloring helps him blend into the natural setting of trees," said Busse. "I don't know how the parrot has been able to survive this long, because they usually don't eat wild food or rodents."

"I'm sure the birds and squirrels won't bother him—he can take care of himself—but the matter of stalking cats is something about which to be concerned," he pointed out. "Even if I find out the bird is mine, I don't know how I'll ever coax him to come to me."

Vandalism

previous evening, someone smashed the windshield of his car which was parked between the curb and sidewalk on Charlevoix, adjacent to his house.

Also on Friday, Francis Weskel of 365 Hillcrest, informed Farms authorities, that a two-inch stone was tossed at the front of his house. The stone struck a white shutter next to the front window, breaking several slats.

Police said that several citizens reported seeing three persons in a 1966 or 1965 Ford Galaxie, driving up and down the streets of the city. The authorities believe that the car occupants are responsible for the vandalism.

The necessities of life seem less important than the luxuries.

D'you Know That?!

"YANKEE DOODLE" is the song that BECAME A WEAPON during the American Revolution.

It was an old Italian tune, to which a British Officer had written verses to make fun of the ill-equipped Americans.

"Yankee Doodle came to town... Riding on a pony... Stuck a feather in his hat... and called it macaroni..."

But the Americans adopted the song and played it everywhere. And the British were hounded by their very own song... Defeated, while marching in retreat, they were to endure once more—a final strain of "Yankee Doodle."

Don't let reality problems hound you to defeat. Let our qualified agents handle all details. We'll be glad to assist or discuss with you, all your needs. SCHWEITZER REAL ESTATE, 21300 Mack Ave. PHONE: 886-4200 or 886-1270 • 18530 Mack Ave.

10 Cases Heard In Farms Court

Lorraine Urso appeared before Farms Municipal Judge Robert Pytell on Wednesday, July 22, on behalf of James G. Urso of 22051 Ten Mile road, St. Clair Shores, who was charged with two watercraft violations.

James was found guilty of having no fire extinguisher on his boat, for which he paid a fine of $20; and guilty of not having sufficient life-preservers on the craft, for which he paid another $25 fine.

Lawrence E. Kolowicz of 15279 Rossini, Detroit, accused of operating a motor vehicle while his license was revoked, was found guilty and sentenced to three days in the Detroit House of Correction and to pay a fine of $30, or serve an additional two days. He paid the fine.

Terrence W. Kelly of 152 Kerby road, entered a plea of not guilty to three counts of law violation, operating a motorcycle without having license; operating the cycle on the sidewalk, and having no license plates for the vehicle. Judge Pytell is taking the matter under advisement.

Richard T. Kelly of 152 Kerby, charged with being a disorderly person, pled not guilty. He was found guilty and the judge deferred sentence until August 26.

Michael Ryan of 5974 Bishop road, Detroit, was released and the charge or reckless driving of which he was accused, was dismissed. There were no witnesses to testify.

Ronald B. Downie of 1110 Stafford, Detroit, ticketed for improper lane usage, pled not guilty and a trial date on the charge is scheduled for August 26.

George Martin of 484 Roland road, pled not guilty to going through a red light and was found guilty and fined $15.

Clayton B. Pinkos of 1924 Broadstone, pled guilty to drag racing, after which he was ordered to pay of $25. He was placed on probation for a period of six months.

James L. Zade of 1923 Broadstone, also charged with drag racing, entered a plea of not guilty and was found guilty and fined $50, and put on probation for six months.

Michael E. Harrison, of 11110 East Jefferson, Detroit, accused as a minor in possession of alcoholic beverages was found guilty and sentenced to seven days in the Wayne County Jail.

On completion of the hearings, Judge Pytell signed four bench warrants for the arrest of as many persons who failed to appear before him in answer to summonses.

Roy Chapin, III Receives Honor

Roy Chapin, III, vice-president and general manager of John's Island in Indian River Shores, will join a group of distinguished citizens serving as advisors to a new Laboratory of Estuarine Research created by the University of Miami.

Mr. Chapin, 30, was asked to serve by F. G. Walton Smith, Dean of the University of Miami School of Marine and Atmospheric Sciences. Mr. Chapin will be one of a group of distinguished citizens advising the University's Laboratory of Estuarine Research which will conduct studies leading to the protection of our coastal environment. According to Dean Smith, "This activity will make a strong contribution to Florida, the southeastern United States and other regions in the efforts to reverse the trends of degradation of the vital part of our environment represented by estuaries and other coastal zones."

As a member of the Advisory Board Mr. Chapin's first task will be to assist in the examination of a statement describing the structure and aims of the new Laboratory. He said in accepting the appointment, "I am honored by your kind invitation to serve on the board and hereby accept it with great pleasure. We at John's Island are acutely concerned with environmental considerations not only within the scope of our own land development project but also in the State of Florida. I trust that I will be able to make a meaningful contribution to your Board and look forward to participating actively."

Mr. Chapin, a native of Grosse Pointe and son of the board chairman of American Motors, studied at Hotchkiss School and Brown University. He worked in New York for the Morgan Guaranty Bank and in Boston for Information Sciences, Inc., before moving to Florida.

He is directing the development of John's Island, a 3,500-acre private resort community just north of Vero Beach, for E. Llywd Ecclestone, long a Pointe resident and a former councilman of the City of Grosse Pointe.

Mr. Ecclestone also developed the famous Lost Tree Village and Club at North Palm Beach, Fla., where the family now makes its home.

Mr. Chapin is married to the former Jane Ecclestone and they have three children.

Never mind what the world owes you—it is your ability to collect that really counts.

The fellow who takes his own time often robs another of his.

Money sometime buys popularity, but the market fluctuates.

Don't let Romney BOSS your city, your vote

ELECT HUBER FOR Senator

Government in this country is supposed to operate with the consent of the governed. That means all government... Washington included.

We don't want and can't have edicts from Washington bosses, telling you that local laws--including zoning laws--don't mean anything.

If the bosses had their way, you wouldn't have a choice in the primary race for the U.S. Senate. Thanks to Robert Huber, you do have a choice. Huber is the GOP candidate with experience. Let him speak out for you. You be the judge.

Compare Experience Before You Vote ...

Years of Experience	Robert Huber	Lenore Romney
City Gov't. Mayor	6 yrs.	None
County Gov't. Supervisor	4 yrs.	None
State Gov't. Senator	6 yrs.	None
Business Experience	20 yrs.	?

WC₃ "THE COUNTY IS OUR CAMPUS"

Paid for by Huber for U.S. Senator Committee, Lola Nair, Treas., P.O. Box 8127, Harper Station, Detroit, Mich. 48213

This high style, luxurious 88" sofa was originally custom-made for a $100,000 home. It's covered with 13 yards of magnificent $27-a-yard white, gray and beige cotton-rayon cut velvet and has 1" tinted plexiglass ends. It was made by fine craftsmen of a leading contemporary furniture manufacturer. But because it was slightly nicked in transit, it ended up in one of our warehouse stores* at only $575, just a fraction of its original price.

* You probably won't find it in either of our warehouse stores, for by now, a crafty shopper who keeps her eye on our ads and our stores, no doubt has beaten you to it. But both our Warren and Madison Warehouse Stores have many other such items for you who know value, quality and fashion. Come see!

Choral Group To Give Concert

The 1970 Summer Choral Workshop sponsored by the Department of Community Services of the Board of Education, under the direction of Herman Clein, choral director of North High School, will present a "Summer Evening of Songs", on Thursday, August 6, at 2 o'clock, in the auditorium of North High School. Admission is free.

The program will offer such numbers as "Theme and Variations on When the Saints Go Marching In," choral selections from "Student Prince," "Showboat" and "Hair."

HUD Assists Local Interns

Saint John Hospital has been notified by the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) that under its college housing program a subsidized loan application has been approved to purchase apartments to house the hospital's intern and resident staff.

The apartment buildings being acquired by the hospital are located in Harper Woods within three blocks of the hospital and consist of 48 separate units. These apartments will be made available to the doctors and their families who are appointed to the eighteen intern positions and thirty-five residencies in various medical specialties available at Saint John Hospital for the continuing medical education of young physicians.

Because of their close proximity to the hospital, physicians housed in these units can be called on for almost immediate aid in the case of community disaster or other serious need for prompt medical care.

The intern and resident program at Saint John is approved by the Council on Medical Education of the American Medical Association and the hospital has recently been granted membership in the Council of Teaching Hospitals of the American Association of Teaching Colleges.

The availability of pleasant housing at moderate cost near the hospital will assist Saint John Hospital in attracting the finest physicians possible to assist in the provision of medical services and participate in the medical education program.

BBs BREAK WINDOW Richard Giacomo of 4602 Somerset, Detroit, manager of the Sears Branch Store, Mack and Moross, called Farms police on Thursday, July 23, to complain that an unknown person, or persons, fired five BB pellets through a 10 by 16-foot plate glass window at the north side of the building, causing the glass to crack in the middle. Damage was set at $150.

Cottage Hospital Host to Student

Cottage Hospital is one of six hospitals in Michigan cooperating in the Student American Medical Association project for Medical Education and Community Orientation (SAMA-MECO) sponsored by the State Medical Society and the Michigan Hospital Association, according to Cottage Administrator Ralph L. Wilgarde.

Under the SAMA-MECO project, Randall Riggs, second-year medical student at Wayne State University, is spending the summer at Cottage observing all aspects of hospital operation and assisting in a non-clinical capacity in the emergency room, Mr. Wilgarde said.

Mr. Riggs is the coordinator of the SAMA-MECO project for the Wayne State University Medical School. A native of Colorado Springs, Colo., he received a B.A. degree from the University of Washington, Seattle, before enrolling at Wayne State.

The purpose of the SAMA-MECO project is to develop a broader understanding of the field of health care services and to encourage future doctors to practice in small community hospitals, many of which now lack sufficient medical personnel, Mr. Wilgarde said.

The project was initiated in 1968 in Illinois. Administrative expenses are paid by a grant from the Sears-Roebuck Foundation. Student stipends and room and board are provided by the participating hospital.

In addition to Cottage Hospital, other hospitals in the state which have accepted Wayne State University medical students for the summer are the Emma L. Bixby Hospital in Adrian, Holland City Hospital, Holland, Leelanau Memorial Hospital, Northport, Pipp Community Hospital, Plainwell, and Hutzel Hospital, Detroit.

Raymond Unks, director of The Interfaith Center for Racial Justice, will be the guest speaker at the Sunday, August 2, 10:30 o'clock service at Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church. Mr. Unks will explain what The Interfaith Center for Racial Justice is and what it does. Mr. Alan Canty will preside.

Farms Regatta Great Success

Rainy, humid weather didn't keep Farms residents from enjoying the Farms Boat Club's 18th Annual Regatta held at the Farms Pier last Saturday and Sunday.

Saturday began with the always popular boat races. In Class A-Outboard Division, John DeVos won the Skip Forcer first place trophy in his 15 foot Chrysler Charger. Mike Allor placed first in Class B-Outboard Division in his G. W. Invader; Jim Allor captured first place in the Class C-Outboard Division.

Lou Sendelbach in Sea Ray won the Commodore Famularo Trophy in the Inboard Class A Division.

George Gerow's 34-foot "Tartan" took the first place Commodore Delsener Trophy for sail boats.

Prizes in inboard boat decorating went to Lou Sendelbach for his "Emerald City Ferry To Oz" which won first prize money of $25. Joe Maurer for "Majo" placed second and won $15 and the Delsener Family's "Age of Aquarius" garnered third place and won $10.

In the Outboard Class, Jim Allor's "Hawaiian Punch Lime" captured first place money, $25; Mike Allor's "Go Hawaiian," second, winning $15, and Pat Famularo's "Noah's Ark" captured third place and $10.

In the Sail Fish Division Peter Lauxes' "Delta Queen," won first place and $25; Kitty Craft's "Old Glory" won second for $15 and David Crea's, "Good Ship Lollipop" placed third and won $10.

Some 15 winners were announced in the decorated bicycle competition. The top five winners were Charles, Larry and Ken Fromm, Ted Williams, Hugh O'Connor, Tom Wilson and Diane Crea.

A yearly highlight of the Regatta is the naming of Grosse Pointe Farms Junior Miss. This year's winner was Jayne Malooly, a student at Bishop Gallagher High School. She was awarded $150 in scholarship money. Laura Maria Lizza was runner-up and was awarded $75. Shannon Darragh was given the outstanding talent award of $50 for her artistry at the sewing machine.

Other contestants, all of whom were awarded $25, included Christine Lock, Melinda Leone, Beth Laux, Diane Stauder and Patricia Edwards.

All the girls were presented with other remembrances of the evening.

DRIVER ARRESTED

Francis J. Szarzynski of 120 West Montcalm, Detroit, was arrested by Woods police on Saturday, July 25, while driving south on Mack avenue. The arresting officer saw the man behind the wheel and was aware that Szarzynski's operator's license had been revoked. The man was released on $100 bond pending a court hearing.

Pistol Carrier Arrested in Bar

George Spencer, 49, of 22820 Gary, St. Clair Shores, was arrested on Saturday, July 25, by a Park police officer, who observed a pistol under Spencer's shirt.

The arresting officer, Patrolman Richard Wedding, who was off duty and in civilian clothes, said that he was in Moors Pete Bar, 15019 East Jefferson, when Spencer entered and sat at a booth.

Wedding said that as Spencer sat down, the pistol, a Walther .32 caliber automatic was exposed. The officer approached the man's booth, identified himself as a policeman and asked Spencer if he had a concealed weapons permit. When the bar patron could not show a permit, he was arrested and taken to the station. The weapon was confiscated.

Park Det. Charles Patrie said that the case is pending a warrant recommendation from the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office.

Jewelry, Guns Stolen in City

Jeannette Duffield, 525 Rivard, called City Police on Friday, July 24, to report the theft from her residence of a number of items. Mrs. Duffield told police the theft occurred sometime after July 9.

Missing were one Browning 22 caliber, 10 shot Nomad pistol, valued at $50; a gold Waltham calendar watch valued at $100; a gold, chain link, Grand Prix, self-winding watch valued at $65 and a Klein watch with a silver band valued at $30.

Until Sony Color TV... Better Color was just a promise.

Sony simplified its TV system and got better color. They call it Trinitron.® Sony invented its color TV as it was meant to be: all colors are shot through one big color gun.

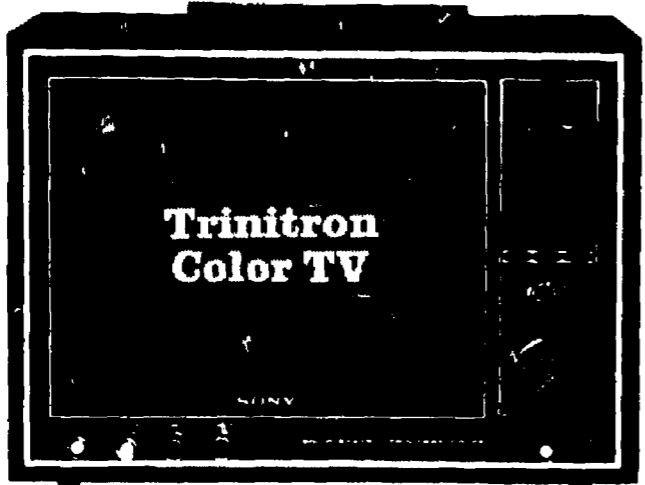

The Trinitron® system has a bigger lens, too. Twice as large as other TV's. With the larger lens you get a sharper, brighter picture.

There are many other features too:

Automatic color control; integrated contrast-color control; pictures stay crisp and brilliant at all points on the screen; all solid state circuitry for greater reliability; contemporary wood cabinet styling.

Come in and watch the Trinitron System with 12" diagonal screen deliver a sharper, brighter, and a better color picture.

SONY.

Stop waiting for better Color TV. It's here!

Center Offers Concert Aug. 6

The Grosse Pointe Summer Chorus at Grosse Pointe War Memorial has chosen Thursday, August 6, at 8:15 p.m. for its Annual Concert. Special guest artists "The U of D Titans" will join the chorus for this event. They will sing their arrangements of popular folk music assisted by Gerard Sheehon on the drums.

Richard Johns, director of the Summer Chorus, will lead the group in light, easy to listen to and like tunes such as "Tally Ho", "May Day Carol", "The Dear Old Woman", "The Inch Worm", "Takes Two", "Black Hair", "Early One Morning" and a medley of hits from the musical "The Fantasticks".

There's a finale featuring the hymn "God of Our Fathers" with four hand piano accompaniment by Lois Johns and Betty Dethmers.

This pleasant summer entertainment will be presented in the Center's Crystal Ballroom overlooking Lake St. Clair. Admission is $1 for adults, 50c for students.

Unitarians Plan To Have Drama

The Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church will be the setting for the American Friends Service Committee's presentation of "Earth Song," an original drama by Paul and Martha Boesing, on Friday, July 31, at 7:30 o'clock.

The play's theme deals with youth versus The Establishment, crisis in America, overpopulation, the alienation of man from man, and man from earth, and the rebuilding and changes needed. Music for the production is played on guitars, recorders and drums.

In this experimental theater piece, members of the cast will serve as ushers. The production will take place within the audience.

Donations will be accepted at the performance.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

A new book has just appeared on the scene, edited by one of our Grosse Pointers, Mr. Russell H. Lucas. The title: OUTSTANDING AMERICAN STATESMEN. In the preface Mr. Lucas tells us that the papers in this series deal with four of the greatest American statesmen of the twentieth century and have been written by four outstanding authorities on these particular statesmen.

The first is entitled "Theodore Roosevelt" and is written by William H. Harbaugh, professor at the University of Virginia, and an author of a full-length biography of Theodore Roosevelt, as well as the editor of a volume of selections from 41 volumes of Roosevelt's works, letters, and addresses.

The second is entitled: "Woodrow Wilson and American Traditions", written by Arthur S. Link. Professor Link of Princeton University is the author of five volumes (eventually there will be eight) of the biography of Woodrow Wilson, and is also the editor of a 40-volume edition of this President's works, papers and letters.

The third section, by Frank Freidel, is "Franklin Roosevelt: The Quest for Security." This Professor of Harvard University, is the author of three volumes, thus far, of a definitive nine-volume biography of this colorful President. The fourth volume will be published in 1970.

And, finally, the fourth part is called: "Dwight D. Eisenhower—the Training and the Tasks", and is written by Alfred D. Chandler, Jr. This latter Professor is Chairman of the Department of History at The Johns Hopkins University, and is also the editor of a 12-volume edition of General Eisenhower's personal letters and papers. The first four volumes will probably be published in 1970.

The papers contained in this slim volume were originally lectures arranged by the Society of Mayflower Descendants in Michigan, to be delivered at consecutive annual meetings of the Society from November 1965 to November 1968, and were delivered during the terms of office of Mr. Lucas, Past Governor, and Senator Gilbert E. Bursley, Present Governor of the Society.

Let us now examine these lectures. William Harbaugh opens his essay as follows: "One reason, I suspect, we are assembled here tonight is that we accept Santayana's dictum: 'Those who do not remember the past are condemned to repeat it.' More specifically, we seek—in the manner of all men in all ages, wisdom, guidance, and inspiration from the writings and deeds of one of our great men. A large order in any circumstance, this is an almost impossible order in Theodore Roosevelt's. For he remains in death as he was in life—an extraordinarily, almost uniquely controversial man. There is hardly more agreement today than there was forty-nine years ago when he died on the real nature of his character, the quality of his presidential administration, and his influence upon his times." So he has been portrayed as a perennial adolescent, a crypto fascist, a sheer opportunist; as a sophisticated conservative, a moderate liberal or a dedicated reformer. But no one can say that Teddy Roosevelt was not a most dominating and dominant figure who left his impact on our history, and the author has done a good job in drawing us a living sketch of him.

Now let me quote from Arthur Link. "In thinking about what I should say tonight, I have been somewhat overcome by the awesome dimensions of my task. It would be difficult to comment adequately upon Wilson's contribution to our domestic political traditions. But Woodrow Wilson was not content with one important career. He had three careers in addition to his career in domestic politics—as an historian and political scientist, as a teacher and university president, and most important, as a diplomatist and builder of an organized international community." Here again we have a well-written discussion of Wilson tradition of morality in politics and policies, of Presidential leadership, and of government in the service of the people, and finally, of idealism in foreign policy.

In Roosevelt's quest for security, Freidel has this to say: "The years Roosevelt dominated were a time of extreme insecurity—the age of the great depression and the global war. It was a time of tragedy in which he provided positive leadership as the spokesman for a better America and a better world. Although a quarter of a century has now elapsed, yet this era is still of vital significance to use in 1967."

Alfred D. Chandler, Jr. apologizes, in dealing with Dwight D. Eisenhower, that he has come upon his subject much more recently than the other three historians. "I started on my task of editing Eisenhower's private papers only a little over two years ago, so it would be presumptuous of me to attempt an analysis of the attitudes and ideas of President Eisenhower in the same way that Professor Link did here last year with those of President Wilson." But Professor Chandler does a most interesting and admirable job of dealing with Dwight D. Eisenhower and really did not need to denigrate his efforts.

To deal with this book in more detail would detract from its reading, and I imagine that many history and political science buffs will want to read the book for themselves.

What's New on THE HILL...

By Pat Rousseau

Here We Go Again... with the alphabetical sketches of shops and services which make Kercheval-On-the-Hill a block of distinction. A... is for Frank Adam, Inc., Lincoln-Mercury, 130 Kercheval. We can speak from personal experience, having bought a Cougar there. Our salesman made the buying experience a very pleasant one. When our Cougar needed a trip to the service department for some adjustment, we received courteous attention and got our favorite transportation back (actually a half hour before it was promised). It is very important for people on-the-go to have convenience and service. Specially for a woman, there's nothing like a care-free car.

Touch Me... is the name of a genetic pacifier at The League Shop. Once you see it you'll hardly be able to keep your hands off this plastic square or circle which changes color and pattern as you touch it. Closed Saturdays thru September 5.

Magnificent Menagerie... has arrived from Taiwan... fish, birds, camels, and elephant and a peace dove... all in luxurious colors and all carefully stitched felt, satin and sequins. Find them at Virginia Williams, 79 Kercheval, one fifty and two dollars. They are adorable and perfect for decorating packages, children's rooms and Christmas trees.

Antique-ing... at Denler, 77 Kercheval, we admired the new and unusual collection of antiques which has just arrived. There is a beautiful mahogany eighteenth century English make-up table, antique rigging lights and a pair of ostrich eggs mounted on antique bases. We are mentioning a few "finds." Come, see for yourself.

At The Mermaid... there is something new in luggage racks. Bamboo patterned mahogany is very handsome and handy... twenty dollars.

Opening With Fall... Touch of Elegance will be re-opening August 3. Make a date to see fall's new dresses and ensembles for daytime, the latest pant costumes and great all weather coats at the Touch of Elegance in the Colonial Federal Building.

For The Hostess... you are, or are visiting, there is a new shipment of Romanoff Iranian fresh Beluga caviar at Hamlin's, 89 Kercheval. If you are going to the cottage, there's a cold-pac in which to carry it... TUXedo 5-8400.

Oh! The Luxury... of your favorite fragrances in soap. You are sure to find it beautifully packaged at Trail Apothecary, 121 Kercheval. Among the many famous names Dior (all scents), Arpege, comes in guest size or bath size. Then there is Nettie Rosenstein, Estee Lauder, Savon Madame Rochas, Cabochard, Roger & Gallet. Not to forget the men, there's a wide range of their favorites including St. John's Bay soap from the Virgin Islands.

The Slightest... wisp of air will set graceful table mobiles in motion. At The League Shop, we admired a good sized mobile of delicately balanced plastic leaves. A smaller one was of delicate birds, clearly colored blue.

No Hustle, No Bustle... at Mr. Dan's Beauty Salon, 100 Kercheval. You just relax and enjoy the pampering you receive. One of the secrets to the serenity of his salon is that Mr. Dan spaces his appointments to eliminate delays so you're in and out on time. Call 885-2788 for an appointment.

You Don't Need... an occasion to enjoy dinner at the Bronze Door, 123 Kercheval. Just call 886-1931 for a reservation to relax and dine in an elegant atmosphere. While you're enjoying the superb cuisine, you'll love the lilting melodies by harpist, Harvey Griffen.

Tuesday's Election Important

Next Tuesday, August 4, Pointers will go to the polls to vote in the General Primary Election. The NEWS urges Pointers to cast their ballots for Bill Bryant, 32-year-old attorney who is seeking the Republican nomination for State Representative in the First District.

Mr. Bryant is well known for his efforts as a member of the Wayne County Board of Supervisors where he worked hard for reforms and fiscal integrity. He is chairman of a committee overseeing the County's widely acclaimed pollution control agency and on the TB Society's Air Pollution Committee and has launched them on a new environmental education program.

Mr. Bryant has been one of the outstanding state figures in the fight against drug abuse. He is a director of NARCO and has been instrumental in getting local groups to augment treatment programs, has lectured on drugs to both young people and adults and has submitted comprehensive education and rehabilitation proposals to schools and local groups. It was through his efforts that the County launched a teacher education program and set drug activity as a top priority for Omnibus Crime programs. Bill Bryant is a concerned citizen willing to devote his time and talents to public service. The NEWS recommends that we give him this opportunity.

Tuesday's election is important. It is the duty of every qualified elector to get to the polls and cast his vote. A light turnout could have disastrous results for the best qualified candidates, due to the number of aspirants to office in a primary. Those who have no hope of winning, siphon off votes from those who have earned the right to be nominated.

Public Schools in Focus

By Dr. Theos. J. Anderson
 Superintendent of Public Schools

Left in limbo as the 75th Michigan Legislature recessed prior to July 4 are two proposals which are certain to reappear and which, if enacted, may affect not only the quality of local public education, but also the pocketbooks of the residents of our school district. I am referring, of course, to the proposed legislation for a graduated state income tax and to the school property tax limit.

An article in the Detroit Free Press on June 27 said: "One of the constitutional amendments would allow the state to levy a graduated income tax, and the other would allow it to levy a state-wide property tax of up to 16 mills. This millage would replace nearly all local school taxes and be used to finance the state's public schools."

Because I fear that relatively few citizens really understand the intricacies of current school finance formulas, (let alone those that are proposed, then seem to drop from public view), I think that, taken at face value, the proposed amendments seem to promise the beleaguered taxpayer a simple, workable solution to a perplexing problem confronting not only citizens of Michigan, but also of every state throughout the nation today. To the unsophisticated, there is an implication that all residents of the state may well experience some kind of tax "relief" from the arrangement and that public education would be served in the long run.

If the statement I have quoted also implies that with passage of the amendments a district like Grosse Pointe could maintain its own educational STATUS QUO—reasonable teacher pupil ratios, attractive salaries, a program of instructional improvements, and an adequate preventive maintenance program—there is a need for clarification. There is little point in trying to give readers the hypothetical "specifics" of the bills and the virtually endless listing of various amendments that have appeared and been discarded—only to come to the surface again in some modified form, or to try to guess what "new" approach may be added.

However, it is safe to say that under any plan that has been advanced to date, by and large, residents of Grosse Pointe will pay more for public education than they have paid in the past—yet they may well enjoy a diminished quality of program on the local level. They will be paying, to improve educational opportunity for all children across the state. (It is conceivable that some plan to be advanced may well provide for adequate local option to tax, but in the face of paying a graduated income tax, I wonder whether residents would approve.)

According to the papers the next scheduled work day for the total body of legislators in Lansing is August 6, when the two constitutional amendments may again spring to life. These resolutions aimed at shifting the school finance burden from local government to the state must be acted upon by September 6 to be placed on the November ballot. Therefore, the month of August may well be a critical period in the determination of long-range educational finance both throughout Michigan as well as in our own district.

Make no mistake about this—although passage of the proposals may well bring "property tax relief" to SOME citizens of Michigan and improved educational opportunity to SOME youngsters, virtually any plan likely to be advanced will NOT benefit a community with relatively high tax base of residential or industrial real estate or for communities whose residents have incomes comparable to those of many in Grosse Pointe.

over Wayne County. Classes have been scheduled for late afternoon and evening, when rooms are not being used by the regular students. This makes for more complete use of expensive community facilities that would otherwise sit idle. Grosse Pointe businessmen can appreciate the efficiency and economy involved in this arrangement.

The students who enroll in these classes near home appreciate the opportunity to get an education. They will use what they learn to become better members of the community in which they live—better citizens and better workers. The way to build a community people want to live in is to offer hope that through hard work and sustained effort each person can improve his own condition.

Let us get behind the college that offers this hope to all the people of our community, the larger community of Wayne County which holds more of our economic and cultural lives than does Grosse Pointe by itself. We need WC3. We can't afford to let it down. Vote August 4 for Proposition A and the "Measly Mill" for our own community college.

Harold Jinks,
 835 Lakepointe

Gentlemen:—

Not that the world will come to an end, but I would like to rectify an error made by you in your otherwise good report of the controversy surrounding the attempt by the City of Grosse Pointe to have the Cadieux Cottage torn down and the effort by Dr. Whittaker, its owner, to preserve it.

You state that the City Council had received a letter bearing upon the cottage's antiquity from the "State Historical Society." Actually, the letter was from the Michigan Historical Commission, of which I am a member.

The Commission is a part of the Michigan Department of State, and among other things, publishes the magazine, Michigan History, is responsible for preservation of all governmental records of permanent historical value, and maintains the State Historical Museum in Lansing. The historical site marking program is also maintained by it and the Commission works with and assists the Michigan Historical Society and local historical societies. The Michigan Historical Society, as well as its local counterparts are private

Attends Parley in New Mexico

Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Chancey of 746 Grand Marais recently returned from Cimarron, N.M., where Mr. Chancey attended a National Explorer Conference.

They were accompanied by their children—John, Jeffrey and Gregory, who also took part in the Scout Mountain program.

As vice chairman of Explorer sales and training for the Boy Scouts' Detroit Area Council, the largest council in the United States, Mr. Chancey is active in organizing and directing new special and general interest Explorer posts and Explorer ships.

These groups provide members with exposure to vocations such as engineering, law, medicine, manufacturing, business administration and various trades.

The general interest groups also offer participation in sports car rallies and other outdoor activities.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

It was gratifying to read in the NEWS that our School Board voted to support the Wayne County Community College request for local financial support in the August 4 election. It was disappointing to note that our new board member, Mr. Semmler, was not able to think of Grosse Pointe in terms of our larger community relationships; but he is young and able to grow.

Wayne County Community College is likewise young and should be permitted to grow. Starting "on a shoestring" from the Michigan legislature WC3 enrolled nearly 9,000 when it began operations with little publicity less than a year ago, a truly amazing success! About 200 Grosse Pointe Citizens enrolled for classes offered at North High—with a 50 percent increase the second semester. Some Grosse Pointe residents may have gone to the nearby Denby Center. Prior to this, the closest opportunity for such low tuition, near-to-home classes was up in Macomb County.

Those taking advantage of the new educational opportunity ranged in age from 17 to 70. They included new high school graduates without the money to live away from home or pay high tuition, employed people wishing to up-grade their job skills, unemployed people trying to qualify for available jobs, and all kinds of people with intellectual and artistic interests they now had a chance to develop.

Wayne County Community College really comes to the people where they are, with classes in 26 locations, (mostly local high school buildings), all Whatever they do, August's bound to be an anti-climax.

The "they" we're referring to are young Pointers Paul Sikorski, Richard Cochell, Fred Parcels, Fred Beyer and Mary Ambrose, and Frank Krager, whose parents' home in Harper Woods, (Hunt Club drive), is "just around the border," all members of Musical Youth International which arrived in London Sunday morning, June 28.

MYI, with Paul (Richard, the two Freds, Mary and Frank, has been on the go ever since.

And what a go!

Let's pick up the young Americans on that first morning in England when, after a brief bus tour of London, they stop at a restaurant in the Westminster area for their first taste of English cuisine.

Shower Given For Bride-Elect

Mary Ann Person, who will speak her marriage vows Friday evening, July 31, to Richard Kramer DeMers in Saint Paul's-on-the-Lakeshore was honored at a party in her parent's Ridge road home.

Mrs. John Avery, who will be a member of the bridal party was hostess at the miscellaneous shower. Guests included the other attendants, Loretta Baker, Rosalie Person and Martha Person, and friends of the bride-elect.

Mary Ann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Person. Her husband-to-be is the son of David M. DeMers, of Hawthorne road, and the late Mrs. DeMers.

Among donors to the Alumni Fund of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology is THOMAS F. MORROW, of Vendome road.

Slate Clambake At GP Hunt Club

Grosse Pointe Hunt Clubbers and their guests will be happy as clams at the authentic New England Clambake scheduled for tomorrow evening, Friday, July 31, at the Cook Road Club.

Weather permitting festivities will be outdoors around the patio and pool and clothes will be warm-weather casual in type.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kirilin are party chairmen with a big assist from the Kenneth I. Macleods and the George G. Blacks.

Lobsters and clams are being flown in from West Newton, Mass., and of course there'll be corn-on-the-cob, Boston baked beans and a host of other palate-teasers.

Music is to be provided by "Mother's Boys," a six-man ensemble featured for four years at the National Ragtime Festival in St. Louis, Mo.

The group's ragtime jazz-blues repertoire has gained its local renown through appearances at the Country Club, Jim's Garage, the Players' Playhouse and the Pontchartrain Hotel. It has also played for three years at Gov. Milliken's birthday party celebrations.

The John H. Doyles, Edwin N. Peabody and Mark A. Belaires have made reservations for large groups of friends.

Others who plan to attend are the Herbert Schollenbergers, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Henkel, Jr., Jacques J. Bajer, Dr. Renat J. Staricco, Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Schmitt, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Sarvis, the Thomas L. Marantettes, the Marantettes, the Michael C. Webbs, Mr. and Mrs. James T. Bowling and Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Curl, Jr.

Boulder Campus University of Colorado students named to the President's Honor List include JOHN S. FOUNTAIN, of Kerby road, CHRISTINE McNAUGHTON, of Edgemont Park, and KURT F. SCHMITT, of Beaupre avenue.

Mrs. Herbert R. Hofmann

Exchanging wedding vows in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Saturday, July 25, were DIANE ELAINE WERTHMANN, daughter of the Norman J. Werthmanns, of Woodland Shore drive, and Mr. Hofmann, son of Mrs. Arnold E. Hofmann, of East Jefferson avenue, and the late Mr. Hofmann.

Diane E. Werthmann Says Vows July 25

Wearing linen and Venice Lace Empire Gown for Afternoon Service at Which She Becomes Bride of Herbert Randall Hofmann

Planning to make their home in St. Clair Shores are Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Randall Hofmann who were married Saturday afternoon, July 25, in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. Dr. Ray H. Kiely officiated at the rites which were followed by a reception at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club.

Mrs. Hofmann is the former Diane Elaine Werthmann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman J. Werthmann, of Woodland Shore drive.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Arnold E. Hofmann, of East Jefferson avenue, and the late Mr. Hofmann.

The bride wore an Empire gown of linen and Venice lace. Her elbow length illusion veil fell from a band of matching lace daisies and she carried a bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis.

Her attendant Debra Werthmann and bridesmaids Jennifer Somes, Susan Schaupter and Linda Schwartz wore pant outfits with overskirts in shades of pink and carried pink carnations with ivy accents.

Best man was Richard Granger, Richard Gridley, Thomas McKenney and David Holley seated the guests.

Mrs. Werthmann selected a yellow chiffon and lace dress for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Hofmann, the bridegroom's mother, chose a dress of green silk and lace.

RAMON LAWRENCE, of South Brys drive, cello, and KENDALL BARKEN, of Kerby court, double bass, are students in the 118-member World Youth Symphony at the National Music Camp, the orchestra that is to accompany Pianist Van Cliburn in his benefit concert at Interlochen, Saturday, August 1. Dr. George C. Wilson will conduct. Cliburn, rounding out a decade of appearances there, will play the Liszt Concerto No. 2 in A Major and Rachmaninoff's Rhapsody on a Theme by Paganini. Another sellout of the 4,000 seat Kresge Auditorium is expected.

Arizona Awaits Allen Dunhams

Mrs. Lynne Jenkins, of Mount Vernon avenue, and Allen Brad-dock Dunham, of Fisher road, were married Saturday afternoon, July 25, in Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, and will be making their home in Scottsdale, Ariz.

A reception at the Detroit Racquet Club followed the 4 o'clock rites.

Globe Girdlers Planning Party

The Michigan Chapter of the International Circumnavigators Club will hold its annual summer party at the Grosse Ile riverfront estate of one of its members, Dr. Roy H. Roberts, this Sunday, August 2.

Mark C. Stevens, of Moross road, is Chapter president. Other Pointers among the officers and directors are John C. Ray, J. Lawrence Buell, Jr., James T. Fitzpatrick and Frank G. Welton, Jr.

Theme of the party this year is "Journey to the Nineties," a figurative trip "back to the good old days before the advent of hippies, yuppies, kooks, pollution and income taxation, when the Police Gazette and Gibson Girls were men's chief preoccupation."

Among party highlights will be music and entertainment by the Pete Baltrus orchestra, barbershop quartets, a buffet banquet and quizzes. Many members with their wives and guests are expected to arrive by boats for which special docking arrangements have been made.

Festivities begin at 3 o'clock with a cocktail reception.

After completing the move into their new Trombley road home the EDWARD JOHN WASNERS are spending two weeks in Southampton with Mrs. Wasner's brother and sister-in-law, the F. SHELDON WILSIES, of Caro.

R. E. Milligan, III Weds in East

A reception at the George Washington Country Club, Audubon, Pa., followed the Saturday, July 25, wedding of Robert Earle Milligan, III, and Nancy Eleanor Ferguson.

She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Sawyer, of Valley Forge, Pa. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Milligan, Jr., of Lakeland avenue.

Linda Leslie, of Pittsburgh, Pa., attended the bride as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Jean Schnell, of Wayne, Pa., and Betsy Milligan, the bridegroom's sister.

Best man was Robert E. Peterson. Richard Crawford, of Atlanta, Ga., Ronald Berli and Peter Ahrens, of New York, ushered.

After a Puerto Rico vacation the newlyweds will make their home in Grosse Pointe, in Littlestone road.

Today is when we build a lot of tomorrows out of yesterdays.

Doll Club Groups Meet in Detroit

During the first week in August, beginning next Monday, August 3, and continuing through Sunday, August 9, Detroit will host the annual convention of the United Federation of Doll Clubs, Inc., and two groups affiliated with it: The National Institute of American Doll Artists (NIADA) and the National Old Lacers.

Among those displaying dolls in the NIADA Exhibit will be Mrs. Dann Linsdeau, of Brys drive, recording secretary for the Detroit Doll Collectors Club, third largest in the Federation and the convention's host club this year.

The three groups usually hold concurrent meetings as many of their interests overlap. The 1970 sessions will take place at the Detroit Hilton Hotel, with some activities and exhibits scheduled for the Cultural Center.

The largest group is the 3,000-member Federation. These people are collectors of antique dolls primarily although some are interested in dolls by modern artists and unusual dolls from around the world.

In connection with the convention members of the Detroit Club have loaned dolls from their collections for a special exhibit, "Dolls Through The Ages," to be displayed in Strom Hall at the Detroit Public Library during August. The dolls are all sizes and shapes, fashioned of all sorts of materials. Many are antiques, including early woodens, papier-maches by Kreiner, German bisques by Gestner, Heubach and Simon Halbig and French bisques by Jumeau, Bru and Steiner.

There are fine examples of china dolls popular in the 19th century plus unusual dolls of tin, rubber, rawhide and celluloid along with dolls of modern composition. There are dolls dressed in ethnic costumes, play dolls, fashion dolls and portrait dolls.

A special talk "The Evolution of Dolls" will be given by Hazel Snider, of Chicago, this Monday, August 3, at 2 o'clock in the Library's Friends' Auditorium. The talk, like the exhibit, is open to the public.

Another special exhibit, also free and open to the public, featuring dolls fashioned by member artists of the National Institute of American Doll Artists has been installed at the Children's Museum where it will continue through August.

There are 35 NIADA members, all of whom have attained a very high level of excellence in designing and making original dolls, working in many media: Bisque, wax, papier-mache, carved wood, latex formula — even needle-sculpturing on cloth.

Twenty-eight of the NIADA members, (two men, the rest women), are represented in this exhibit. Their dolls, loaned by local collectors and by the artists themselves, include a beautiful wedding party as well as a mud-pie party, Pilgrims, French peasants and Gibson girls, sleepy babies and portrait dolls such as Queen Elizabeth, Caroline and John Kennedy, Tecumseh and Charlie Chaplin.

The Eighth Annual NIADA Exhibition of Dolls on which artists are currently working will be held in the Explorers' Room of the Detroit Public Library next Thursday, August 6, from 2 until 5 o'clock. The public is invited and there will be opportunities to meet some of the doll artists.

The National Old Lacers whose 400 members include those who study the background of old lace, those who collect it and those who teach the art of making it or are learning the art of making it, is the brainchild of four members of the United Federation of Doll Clubs who conceived the idea of a special organization for lovers of old lace just previous to the Federation's fourth annual meeting in 1953.

Interest grew, a meeting was held to form a group and ap-

Quartet Of Encores For 'Sound Of Music'

By popular demand the Grosse Pointe Children's Theatre has scheduled a quartet of encores for "The Sound of Music," featuring, (left to right), SUSAN KAPPAZ, SUSAN BRAMMER, CINDY REYNOLDS, MIKE KEEGAN, MOIRA BROPHY and CRAIG MCCONACHIE as "the children" and PENNY MASOURIS as "Maria." Performances in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Fries Auditorium include two matinees, at 2 o'clock Wednesday, August 12, and Friday, August 14, with tickets priced at $1.25 for children and $2.50 for adults; an evening benefit for Father Patrick Peyton C.S.C. including an Afterglow on Thursday, August 13, at 8 o'clock, for which donation is $5; and another evening show Saturday, August 15, at 8 o'clock, with $1.50 child and $2.50 adult admission. Tickets are available at the War Memorial, TUXedo 1-7511. Group rate information may be obtained at TUXedo 5-6219 or TUXedo 6-0044.

Knights Of Charity Planning To Begin

Ladies Meet Next Week to Organize Women's Committee for Annual Award Dinner to Be Presented At Raleigh House November 7 This Year

Mrs. Kenneth Frankford will host a tea at Oakland Hills County Club next Wednesday afternoon, August 5, to organize the Women's Committee for the Knights of Charity Award Dinner to be held Saturday, November 7, at Raleigh House.

A prime goal of the gathering will be to stimulate interest in the establishing of a permanent Women's Auxiliary, of interfaith membership, to take over many responsibilities for the annual gala benefit.

Assisting Mrs. Frankford in the hostess duties will be Mrs. Jerry T. Flanigan, Miss Annette DeLorenzo, Mrs. Aloysius F. Power and Mrs. Joseph B. Slatkin, all of whom served on the 1969 committee. Mrs. Frankford is serving her second year as chairman.

Pouring tea will be Mrs. Thomas V. LoCicero, Three Mile drive, Mrs. Walter W. Fisher, Mrs. Ronald H. Pepin, Mrs. John H. Ganschow, Mrs. Douglas A. Schubot, Mrs. Roy H. Edwards and Mrs. G. Alfred Ingram.

Invited to attend are women who have served on previous committees, including Mrs. Walker L. Cisler, Mrs. Anthony Mrs. Charles Hagler, Mrs.

Sidney E. Chapin, Mrs. C. E. Frazer Clark, Jr., Mrs. William D. Rex, Mrs. Lee Hills, Mrs. Jules Schubot, Mrs. Florence Sisman, Mrs. James M. Roche, Mrs. Anthony Maiullo, Mrs. John F. Noonan, Mrs. William M. Packer, Jr., Mrs. James H. Quello, Mrs. Paul Zuckerman and Mrs. Stuart W. Frankford.

The Knights of Charity Award Dinner was begun in 1954 as an interfaith venture to raise funds for Maryglade College, Meaphis, Mich., where young men are trained for volunteer work in religious, educational, medical and social fields in the world's underdeveloped countries.

Each year awards are made at the dinner to men whose charitable and humanitarian contributions to the community are held to be outstanding.

PLANNED MOVES

Don't be backward about going forward, but be sure to know which direction you are going.

point a nominating committee prior to the Federation's 1954 convention, and the Old Lacers have continued to hold annual meetings as guests of the Doll Clubs ever since.

Some of the Old Lacers' lace is used in making authentic doll costumes.

Besides the exhibits and programs already mentioned, the International Institute is featuring ethnic dolls in its Hall of Nations until the end of September and a one-man show of NIADA Pat Robinson's dolls is on display at the Detroit Historical Museum.

Non-members may register to attend the entire convention for a fee of $8.50. There is no charge for attending the exhibits and special events at the Cultural Center.

Do not waste time explaining your mistakes—show others how you profited by them.

Parties Honor Sue Millenbach

Pre-nuptial festivities honoring Suzanne Mary Millenbach, daughter of the Mathew K. Millenbachs, of Three Mile drive, began in June a kitchen shower given by her future sisters-in-law, Kathleen and Julie Shock, at the Shock home in Three Mile drive.

Sue and Nicholas Anselm Shock, Jr., son of the senior Shocks, will exchange marriage vows this Saturday, August 1, in Saint Clare de Montefalco Church.

Entertaining in the bride-elect's honor later in June was Mrs. Leslie Ressegue, who gave a miscellaneous shower at her Three Mile drive home with its lovely garden.

Patricia (Mrs. George) Dorset, who'll be Sue's honor matron, was hostess at a surprise personal shower at her mother's home in Berkshire road early in July, and Mrs. William O'Donoghue and Mrs. Joseph Eichenlaub co-hosted a linen shower in Mrs. O'Donoghue's Bedford road home.

Entertaining at a moonlight cruise and supper party in mid-July aboard their houseboat the "Beverly Ann" were Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Grobbel, Jr. Guests included members of the wedding party and close friends of the couple.

The senior Shocks entertain tonight in their Three Mile drive home at the Rehearsal Dinner and the Millenbachs' garden will be the scene of the reception following the wedding Saturday.

Named to the Dean's List at Michigan Technological University is Pointer DAVID F. McLAUGHLIN, who achieved a straight-A 4.0 average for the Spring Quarter.

Carbone-Sipple Rites Are Read

At a late afternoon ceremony in The Church By The Side Of The Road, Rockton, Ill., Sunday, June 28, Barbara Frances Sipple and Dr. David Ole Carbone exchanged nuptial vows. The Reverend John Walker officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Austin Sipple, of Beloit, Wis., chose a wedding gown of white silk organza over blush taffeta fashioned with Chapel train, high neckline and bell sleeves. Venice lace appliques highlighted her bodice, train and the hemline of her A line skirt. Her veil of blush silk illusion was held in place by an arrangement of fresh flowers and she carried a white basket filled with pink carnations, white daisies and baby's-breath.

Mrs. Thomas Bartel, of Wilmette, Ill., was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were the bridegroom's sisters, Mrs. Louis Williams, of Chicago and Mrs. John Eros, of Madison, Wis.

They were gowned alike in brown organza embroidered with white flowers on them. Bishop sleeves and sashed and bordered with white grosgrain ribbon. Bows of matching ribbon formed their headpieces.

Each carried a white basket filled with pink and white daisies.

Acting as best man was James Cox, of Ithaca, N.Y. Seating the guests were Gary Gillis of Chicago and Thomas Bartel, of Wilmette.

The mother of the bride wore a pink and grey ensemble while the bridegroom's mother chose a patterned pink silk dress. Both wore white orchid corsages.

The bride is a graduate of the Medill School of Journalism, Northwestern University. Dr. Carbone, son of Dr. and Mrs. Louis Carbone, of Lakeland avenue, attended Eastern Michigan University and was graduated from Northwestern University North of Westbury.

Following a dinner reception at The Manor in Beloit the newlyweds left for a vacation at Aspen, Colo. They will report to Fort Carson, Colorado Springs, in August for Captain Carbone's tour of duty with the United States Army.

From Another Pointe of View

Then it's back on the buses for a four-hour trip through the English countryside to Stroud, Gloucester, MYI's first concert stop. In Stroud, as in other towns and villages on their tour, the MYI boys and girls live with local residents.

Musical Youth International's visit to Stroud lasts two days and includes an evening concert at Stroud High School for Girls and a trip to Berkley Castel, a magnificent structure dating back to Medieval times.

Then to Wales, traveling on narrow winding roads, so the MYI's, peering from their bus windows, get good views of tiny villages nestled in deep green rolling hills, houses, farms and castles much as they were hundreds of years ago.

MYI arrives in Brecon, Wales, June 30, and for the rest of that week, Brecon is home.

During the week MYI field trips include visits to the neighboring communities of Hereford and Abergavenny (or Wales, depending on whether one is English or Welsh), a huge 13th century Norman building which provides a three-second reverberation, is an especially rewarding experience.

Brecon, where three concerts are given, receives its American visitors with enthusiasm. The week's agenda there includes an official celebration of Saline Day, July 1, dinner parties, teas and a pleasant afternoon reception at the local country club.

Most Welsh speak English today but the MYI's find interesting remnants of the ancient Welsh dialect. Signs are printed in both languages, there are Welsh magazines . . . and, with a little prodding, many families are willing to let their young guests hear a bit of the Welsh tongue.

After Brecon MYI moves on. It's still moving, on a circuit that includes concerts in Haverforwest and Rhyll in Wales, Wolverhampton, Coventry, Huddersfield, Manchester Castleford, Teeside, Worthington, Worcester, Eastbourne and Cirlisde in England and Edinburgh, Scotland.

But time's running out now: A week from tomorrow, Friday, August 7, MYI departs London for Detroit. Saturday the boys and girls perform in Grafton, O., and Sunday, August 9, Musical Youth International gives its annual home concert at Ann Arbor's Hill Auditorium.

And then . . . Well, whatever Paul, Richard, the two Freds, Mary and Frank decide to do for an August encore, we can't help feeling that it's GOT to be somewhat of an anti-climax.

FOUR BOOKS FOR

Remember Patti Lee? The Melbourne W. Lees' daughter, who grew up in Hampton road, went to Grosse Pointe High, was married in Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church to Ronald Gauch and moved away—but comes back every year with her children, (there are three young Gauches now: Ten-year-old Sarah, Christine, nine, and John, two), to spend eight weeks at the Lees' summer home in Lexington?

Something wonderful's happening for Patti this summer.

The first of her four books for children ages four to seven, "My Old Tree," comes out this month under the aegis of Coward-McCann. It'll be followed next month by "A Secret House."

And next year there'll be two more, including "Grandpa and Mee" which draws its inspiration from the author's own childhood Lexington summers.

None of my books, Patti explains, "really has a story. They're more or less wishing up the most delicious things that you can think . . ."

Patti started as a journalist, working on the Louisville Courier-Journal and later on the LaGrange Citizen, LaGrange, Ill., where an interview with a children's writer started her thinking.

Newspapers, she reasoned, aren't a particularly good field for a young woman with a growing family. To newspapers, you give a good part of your life.

But writing for children's something you can do when and as you have the time, in bits and pieces . . .

When the Gauches who've moved about a good deal since their marriage, settled in Westchester County, (they've since moved to Basking Ridge, N.J.), Patti "sort of squeaked into" Jean Fritz' Children's Writers' Workshop whose 15 participants between them had published over 50 children's books.

And she went to work, trying out her stories on her own children. The young Gauches are source material as well as critics.

"Doing this sort of thing, (writing for children)," Patti notes, "involves taking my children's experiences, as I observe them, and adding my own, as I remember them."

She's in the middle of her most difficult, most

Slate Tannahill Tribute Concert

A treat for music lovers and a tribute to late museum benefactor Robert Hudson Tannahill, who cherished both performing and visual arts, will be offered Friday afternoon, August 7, at 3:30 o'clock when the Village Chamber Players present a free concert in the Detroit Institute of Arts Lecture Hall.

The eight musicians who are members of the Detroit Symphony have programmed Mozart's Eine Kleine Nachtmusik in G Major, KV 525 and Beethoven's Septet in E flat major, Opus 20 for the hour-long event to which the public is invited.

Frank Preuss is music director and Raymond Benner, originator of the Bach Festival at Christ Church, Cranbrook, artistic director of the Village Chamber Players. Mrs. Edith J. Freeman, the museum's honorary curator of music, arranged the event.

Members of the group are Frank Preuss and Harold Klein, violins; LeRoy Renstermacher, viola; Marchy Schweickhardt, cello; Raymond Benner, bass;

Brian Schweickhardt, clarinet; Charles Sirard, bassoon; and Edward Sauve, French horn.

The special exhibition of "A Collector's Treasure: The Tannahill Bequest" will continue in the museum's South Wing through Sunday, August 16. It is open to the public without charge Tuesday through Sunday from 9:30 to 5:30 o'clock.

JAMES D. FARLEY, husband of the former MARY KAY TRACY, daughter of MR. and MRS. EMMET T. TRACY, of Provençal road, has been elected to serve on the National Planning Board of Morality in Media. The Farleys and their four children live in Connecticut.

Navy Lieutenant Commander ARTHUR E. KRZEMINSKI, Dental Corps, husband of the former PATRICIA A. BEAUREGARD, of Wayburn road, has completed Endodontics and been graduated from Naval Dental School at the National Navy Medical Center, Bethesda, Md.

ambitious project to date: An historical biography. But there are dividends as well as difficulties inherent in this work-in-progress—the Gauches have thoroughly enjoyed Patti's research expeditions to Concord, N.H., Fort Ticonderoga . . .

Who says you can't have your cake and eat it, Betty Friedan?

Center Extends Bridge Games

Contrary to original scheduling, the popularity of duplicate bridge games at Grosse Pointe War Memorial has indicated that the games be continued into August until the Center is closed for refurbishing.

Mrs. Marvin Bourget is the director of the games on Tuesday evenings through August 11 and on Saturday evenings through August 15 with Mrs. Philip Gibbs directing the Monday afternoon games through August 10. They will not be ended in July as announced on the Center's card.

Individuals, couples or foursomes are welcome to the duplicate games. Evening games convene at 7:30 and the Monday games at 12:30. The boards are played for approximately three and one-half hours. Prizes as well as masterpoints are awarded. The entry fee is $1.50. Complimentary coffee is served throughout.

Mrs. Bourget meets with those new to duplicate at 7 o'clock to give them instruction and assistance. Both men and women are welcome to the evening games.

Life consists mainly of what we haven't done, and what we are going to do tomorrow.

Three Bedrooms and a Whole Lot More

We think this is a cut above most of the other three bedroom colonials you have probably seen in your travels to find that "first house." Inside you will find that this has been beautifully decorated, with new carpeting and a paint job which should last for years. There is a den which leads from the separate dining room and basement for junk and small children storage. We think it will be worth your while to look into this one. Come by Sunday afternoon between 2:30 and 5.

Miss Wagner Bride Of Kenneth Stepnitz

Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church Ceremony Followed by Reception at Royalty House; Pair to Live in Westland

Susan S. Wagner was married to Kenneth Stepnitz, Jr., at an evening ceremony Saturday, July 25, in Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church. Dr. John Olert, Jr., officiated at the rites which were followed by a reception at the Royalty House.

The new Mrs. Stepnitz is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David M. Crocker, of Hidden Lane. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Stepnitz, of Mount Clemens.

The bride wore a candlelight ivory silk organza gown featuring Blabop sleeves with large Alencon lace cuffs. Her Cathedral length mantilla veil was also bordered with Alencon lace. She carried a bouquet of roses and stephanotis.

Anne Wagner served as her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. LeRoy Kramer, III, of Grand Rapids, Mrs. Robert Lee Meyer, of Ypsilanti, Mrs. Gordon Smith, Karen Schram and Mary Strohmeyer, of East Lansing.

The attendants' gowns were Empire style with brown chiffon bodices and ivory silk skirts. They carried parasols with gold, green and orange carnations and wore headbands with matching flowers in their hair.

Joseph Howard, of Casper, Wyo., acted as best man. Gerald Miller, William Harvey, of Mount Clemens, Robert Harvey, of Chattanooga, Tenn., Jim Tibby, of Kalamazoo, and Peter Tazelaar, II, of Marshall, served as ushers.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Crocker selected an orange floral silk print longuette dress. Mrs. Stepnitz chose a lime green linen floor length gown with a beaded neckline. Both ladies chose green cymbidium orchid corsages.

Following a week's vacation in New England the newlyweds will make their home in Westland.

Out-of-town guests included Susan Lucht, of Kenmore, N.Y., Lorna Brown, of Winter Park, Fla., Nick Annaccario, of Dobbs Ferry, N.Y., Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Tazelaar, of Marshall, and Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Wittick, of Toronto, Canada.

Fund-Raising Time Now For Symphony

Women's Association Committee Hard At Work; New "Impresario" Membership Established for Individuals and Families

Mrs. Andrew L. Malott, of Oxford road, has invited members of the 1970-71 Orchestra Maintenance Fund Campaign committee of the Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony to a report meeting and coffee at her home Friday, August 7, at 1 o'clock.

Kick-off for the activity was a dessert-coffee held July 9 at the Bloomfield Hills home of Mrs. Lynn A. Townsend. At that time Mrs. Phillip R. Flanders, also of Bloomfield Hills, 1970-71 Maintenance Fund Campaign chairman for the Women's Association, outlined the plan-of-work for the 50-member committee.

The Detroit Symphony is many things to many people in southeastern Michigan: Superb music superbly played, an educational opportunity for youth, an enormous source of pride for the community . . . yes, we do have a cultural heart!

Because of rapidly rising costs over 36 percent of the Symphony's 1970-71 operating budget must be met by the generous support of individuals, companies and foundations. One million dollars has been set as the goal for this season's Maintenance Fund Campaign.

To broaden the base of support, to make it possible for more people — whether or not they attend the Ford Auditorium, Meadowbrook or Cabaret "Pops" concerts — to "do a little something for the orchestra," this year two new "Impresario" memberships have been established: $25 for individuals; $50 for families.

1970-71 contributors will be invited to the annual "thank you" concert, which is complimentary, will receive invitations to receptions with visiting guest artists and complimentary subscriptions to "Music and Artists" magazine.

Here is where those energetic and highly motivated members of the Women's Association, Ruth Flanders and her committee, enter the picture. They're not taking the summer off.

They're going to have their ears to the phones, their thumbs on the doorbells, their Maintenance Fund Campaign sales pitches at the ready to persuade friends, neighbors and selected contacts that a contribution to the orchestra, whether an "Impresario" membership or the gift of a lesser or greater amount, is money well invested in this community's cultural present and future.

The largest part of their task will be 12,000 follow-up phone calls to people who've already received Maintenance Fund letters from Symphony headquarters.

Pointers on the Women's Association Maintenance Fund Campaign committee include Mrs. Thomas V. LoCicero, Mrs. R. Alexander Wrigley, Mrs. Lyndle R. Martin, Mrs. Milton B. Osgood, Mrs. Carroll N. Traxler, Mrs. Andrew L. Malott, Mrs. Albert D. Law, Mrs. Bogdan Baynet, Mrs. Lester A. McIntosh, Mrs. Frank S. Perkin, Mrs. Sterling Richhart, Mrs. Roy W. Macdonald, Mrs. David Gamble, Mrs. Henry de Segur Lauve, Mrs. William H. Bundesen and Mrs. Joseph J. Marshall.

Other committee members are from Detroit, Dearborn, Grosse Ile, Warren, Southfield, Franklin, Royal Oak, Birmingham and Bloomfield.

Oberlin Alumni Fete Visitors

Some 39 youngsters from the Special Opportunities Program of Oberlin College were entertained by Grosse Pointers on their recent visit to Detroit.

These eighth grade boys and girls enjoyed the Detroit Zoo, toured Henry Ford Museum and the Rouge Plant and spent the night in the homes of local Oberlin alumni. The field trip was part of a six week enrichment program Oberlin College offers intellectually promising underprivileged children from Oberlin and nearby towns.

For the third year arrangements for the youngsters visit were made by Mrs. Leslie A. Sanders, of Hollywood road, president of the Detroit Oberlin Alumni Club. Mrs. Sanders was assisted by Frank Raphael, of Renaud road. Host families included Dr. and Mrs. Paul Dumke of Middlesex road, Mr. and Mrs. W. William Leitner of Muskoka, the Leroy Cowles of McKinley avenue, the Patrick Brophys of Washington road and Mr. and Mrs. Rex Clavolas, of Cloverly road.

Others included Mr. and Mrs. Louis Chabot and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gohle, of Rivard road, the William Coddingtons of Lincoln road, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wright, III of La Salle place, the Charles Van Dorens of Westchester road, the William Klingbeils of Hawthorne road, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Madarasz of Kenwood court, the Charles Stickfords of Fisher road and Dr. and Mrs. William Pierce Smith of Woodland Shores drive.

MRS. CHARLOTTE FORD NIARCHOS and daughter ELENA have left The Pointe after a visit with her father, HENRY FORD, II, in Lakeshore road, rendezvoused in California with her mother, MRS. DEANE JOHNSON, and are now in residence in Southampton, L.I., for the summer. Also summering in Southampton is the second Ford daughter MRS. GIANCARLO UZIELLI.

Goes-Wilcox Vows Exchanged July 25

Bands of Chantilly Lace Accent Bride's White Silk Organza Gown; Gold Braid Trims Attendants' Frocks of Candy Pink Saki Cloth

Grosse Pointe Memorial Church was the setting for the Saturday, July 25, wedding of Diana Beatrice Wilcox and Lyman John Goes, Jr. The 12:30 o'clock rites at which The Reverend Richard Mitchell presided were followed by a reception in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Crystal Ballroom.

The newlyweds, vacationing on Cape Cod, will return to Michigan to make their home in Kalamazoo.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. Beatrice Shurly Wilcox, who moved a short time ago from Roosevelt place to St. Clair Shores, and Edward A. Wilcox, of Ferndale, chose a gown of white silk organza accented with bands of Chantilly lace for the single ring ceremony.

The matching tuxedo and lace headpiece held her bouffant illusion veil and she carried a Colonial arrangement of white roses, pink Sweetheart roses, baby's-breath and ivy.

Honor matron Mrs. Matthew C. Quinn and bridesmaids Mrs. Peter J. Albertson and Susan M. Harrison, of Atlanta, Ga., wore Empire frocks of candy pink saki cloth, their sleeveless bodices and collars complimented by gold braid, and carried Colonial bouquets of Elegance carnations, pink Sweetheart roses and baby's breath.

Virginia and Sarah Heineman, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John DeFree, of Flint, were flower girls.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman J. Goes, of Saginaw, asked Thomas Wierman, of Kalamazoo, to act as best man. In the usher corps were Fred Martin, of Saginaw, Robert Sutton, Russell Wilcox, the bride's brother, and David Hackney, of Kalamazoo.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception Mrs. Wilcox selected a dress and coat contume of pale pink organdy. The bridegroom's mother wore a beige ribbon knit dress. Both mothers chose cymbidium orchid corsages.

Engaged

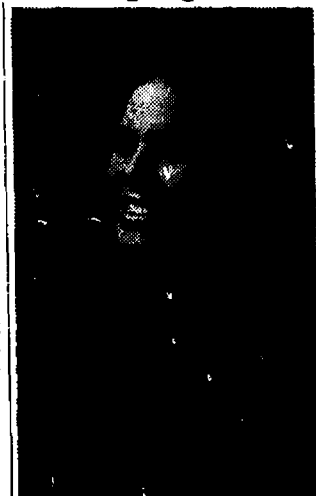

Photo by Bransby Studio. Mr. and Mrs. Earl R. Scott, of Ridgmont road, have announced the engagement of their daughter, NANCY LYNNE, to Frank Chase Wade, Jr., son of former Pointers Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Wade, who now reside in Manistique.

Nancy, a Grosse Pointe South High School graduate, will be attending Western Michigan University in the fall. Her fiancé is presently serving with the United States Army, stationed in Germany.

Schedule Junior GPYC Showboat

The Junior Committee of the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club presents its 11th annual Junior Showboat tomorrow evening, Friday, July 31. The dance will feature music by Wessel Fox and The Rumor, plus refreshments, for $4.50 per couple. Semi-formal dress will be the order of the evening at the 8:30 to midnight party. The number to call for reservation is 884-2500.

Over the July 4 weekend BRENDA C. STOUT, daughter of MRS. JOAN STOUT, of Fisher road, and CHARLES S. LONG, son of MRS. CHARLES S. LONG, of Vernier road, entertained out-of-town guests JANET KAY FLEISCHMANN of Ridgewood, N.J., and MICHAEL L. MILLS, of Lansing. The foursome took part in a sightseeing tour of Detroit and Windsor, a trip to Bob-Lo Island and a midnight gathering at the Long residence in honor of Charlie's birthday. All four are seniors at Hillsdale College.

Marine First Lieutenant DONALD A. BEAUFAIT, son of MR. and MRS. BERNARD BEAUFAIT of Oxford road, is now serving at the Marine Corps Air Station, Cherry Point, N.C.

Mrs. L. John Goes, Jr.

Photo by Bill Williams Studio. Married Saturday, July 25, in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church to Mr. Goes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman J. Goes, of Saginaw, was DIANA BEATRICE WILCOX, daughter of Mrs. Beatrice Shurly Wilcox, who moved a short time ago from Roosevelt place to St. Clair Shores, and Edward A. Wilcox, of Ferndale.

Mrs. Gary J. Cunningham

Knox Presbyterian Church was the setting for the Saturday, July 25, marriage of SHELIA J. RAPPAMAN, daughter of Mrs. William W. Rappman, of McKinley avenue, and the late Mr. Rappman, and Mr. Cunningham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce E. Cunningham, of Fisher road.

Miss Rappman Wed To Gary Cunningham

Vacation in Pocono Mountains, New York City And Canada Follows Saturday Wedding; Pair To Live In Ypsilanti

Exchanging marriage vows Saturday, July 25 at an evening ceremony in Knox Presbyterian Church were Shelia J. Rappman and Gary J. Cunningham. The Reverend Alfred Holman officiated at the service which was followed by a reception in the Church Hall.

Shelia is the daughter of Mrs. William W. Rappman, of McKinley avenue, and the late Mr. Rappman. Carl Flagg, the bride's grandfather, escorted her down the aisle. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce E. Cunningham, of Fisher road.

The bride wore a Satapeau A-line gown with Alencon lace accenting her bodice, Juliet neckline and Bishop sleeves. Her illusion veil fell from a jeweled flowered headpiece. She carried a cascade of phalaenopsis orchids, stephanotis and Sweetheart roses.

Wearing white-trimmed turquoise gowns featuring high necklines, short sleeves, and floor length trains were the bride's attendants. Matron of honor Mrs. George Straitor, sister of the bride, carried a nosegay of white daisies, turquoise carnations and yellow roses on streamers.

Bridesmaids Cindee Noll and Grace Fleming and flower girl Jennifer Cunningham carried white daisies and turquoise carnations. Lance Fleming acted a best man. Groomsmen were the bridegroom's brothers Brad and Keith Cunningham. Ushering were John Hurley and Robert Boik. William Rappman was ring bearer.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Rappman selected a turquoise wool and silk gown featuring short sleeves and accented with Alencon lace. Mrs. Cunningham chose a turquoise chiffon floor length dress with a jeweled waistline and long sleeves. Both ladies wore corsages of white roses and turquoise carnations.

The newlyweds are vacationing in the Pocono Mountains, New York City and Canada. They will return to live in Ypsilanti where they will continue their education at Eastern Michigan University.

Miss Hookanson Will Say Vows

Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. L. Hookanson, of Kensington road, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Kathryn, to Gil L. Turchin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris B. Turchin, of Linden, N.J.

The bride-elect was graduated from Grosse Pointe South High School and is attending the American University in Washington, D.C., majoring in International Studies. She was recently initiated into her local chapter of Mortar Board.

Her fiancé was graduated from the American University and the University of Madrid with a major in Spanish. He also attended the University of Maryland Graduate School and is currently with the Prudential Insurance Company in Falls Church, Va.

GORDON J. BIRGNAUER of Sundingdale drive may win the chance to do some driving at the famous Royal and Ancient Golf Course in St. Andrew's, Scotland as well as win $1,000 — as the result of having scored a hole-in-one recently at the Ponte Vedra Club in Florida. Birgnauer's ace was entered in the annual Rusty Nail Hole-In-One Sweepstakes, a national competition for golfers. The winner will be announced early next year.

STEPHEN E. RENAS of Torrey road, was listed on the Dean's List of academic achievement at Lake Superior State College for the spring term, 1970. Stephen compiled a 3.33 grade point average. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Renas.

Theater Group To Hold Benefit

Grosse Pointe Children's Theatre, a community Theatre sponsored by the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, will present "The Sound of Music" as a benefit for Father Patrick Peyton and his Family Rosary Crusade.

While there will be four productions, the special benefit for the Crusade will be held on Thursday, August 13, at 8 p.m., at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's William Fries Auditorium. Donation will be $5 per person, and will include a Champagne Afterglow.

All proceeds will be used to help Father Patrick Peyton in his missionary work to bring peace and unity to the world through family prayer. His Rosary Crusade started 28 years ago and it has carried him to every country in the world. He has spoken, face to face, with more people than any other man alive. His motto, "The Family That Prays Together Stays Together", has found its way into million of homes throughout the world.

Aside from this performance, there will be three other shows. There will be one other night performance on Saturday, August 15, at 8 p.m. Donation for this show will be $1.50 for children and $2.50 for adults. There will be two matinees on Wednesday, August 12, and Friday, August 14, at 2 p.m. Donation for this will be $1.25 for children and $2.50 for adults.

Tickets will be available at the Punch and Judy Toyland, and the Big Boy Restaurant, Harvard and Mack. They may also be obtained at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, 32 Lakeshore, TU 1-7511. Other phone

13—REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

4 BEDROOM — new — Harper Woods—Grosse Pointe school district. 2 1/2 baths, 2 car garage, family room. Call builder at VA 2-2590 weekdays for appointment.

WE WISH we had a dozen like the following five new listings to offer those of you who are interested in buying in the Pointe, but business has been brisk and often "first advertised" houses are sold before they appear in this column. You only have to pick up your phone to check if the following homes are still available.

THIS ONE is a rarity . . . that almost new colonial with four bedrooms and a large family room is coming on the market at a far lower price than it would cost to reproduce. Located on Saddle Lane, just a few blocks from Barnes, Star of the Sea and GPUS.

COMPLETELY SOLD out of town houses just a few months ago, we are now able to offer again one of these popular units on Rivard Blvd. Enjoy the luxury and convenience of terrace living in a "house" of your own, where an association will attend to exterior maintenance.

WE'LL PUT this five-bedroom center entrance colonial as our "best foot forward" to you who are seriously in need of such a house but must stay in the mid-forty thousand dollar range. You'll get a boat out of its convenient location on Whittier just off Kercheval. Don't be a loafer, jump into your track shoes, or this one will be long gone.

WE KNOW of no other five bedroom colonial which may be purchased with only $8,000 down. For you who require a house which is long on room but you are short on cash, this could be the perfect meld.

COMPLETELY redecorated not long ago this four bedroom house boasts three full second floor baths, two first floor fireplaces and a 33 foot long terrace which is screened and roofed. The basement party room has also been paneled and there is a large mortgage balance which can be assumed.

OPEN SUNDAY
2:30 TO 5

A FIRST TIME advertised ranch house at 208 Ridgmont will come on strong to you who are looking for two or three bedrooms all on one floor. There is a full basement and two car garage.

IF YOU demand charm and an extra first floor room in that three bedroom colonial which you are shopping for then stopping by at 410 Moran is a must. New carpeting and extremely good taste in decor puts this one above most of the other three bedroom colonials on the market today.

JUMP ACROSS Mack avenue to 3851 Bishop and see another three bedroom colonial with a large family room. This one also has a first floor lav and developed basement.

BY APPOINTMENT
WE'VE DEDUCED, when the price is reduced, there usually follows a sales boost. We refer specifically to the $36,000 market down tag on this large three bedroom colonial on McKinley avenue. The elbow room found in this one is very pleasant to encounter after squeezing through the competition.

MAY WE be a bit presumptuous in asking if you like to revel in the luxury of large rooms which have been masterfully decorated; to lounge in your large bedroom or its sitting alcove? Do you insist on the privacy of a screened terrace and the intimacy of a warmly paneled library? Must you have quarters for stay-in help or just the rooms which you know are there for visiting family and brood? If you can project yourself into this picture, then let us start the ball rolling by showing you this offering today.

Smart Girl's... are shopping for back to school wardrobes now. At Walton-Pierce and just in from Lanz is a colorful, floral braid-bound midi for dates. For days, there's a gray and paprika plaid coat and dress ensemble. A button down the front green knit midi jumper comes with a silk reptile shirt. The wet look in black is combined with the pretend look in leopard for a fabulous all weather coat. It is available alone or with black pants. Speaking of pant costumes, see the Walton-Pierce ad this week. It was really hard to pick fashions to write about from the Junior Size Collection because there are so many excellent choices, so nicely priced and because they go out of Walton-Pierce so fast!

Hair Direction... coming from the couture in Europe to a simple neat head. Hair is pulled back with a chignon... either pouffed or braided. Hair is also sleeked back and up with a little bun on top. In some cases, hair is cut in layers and swept back in an unbroken line. This is not too different from the looks we told you about after seeing the New York collections. There is an occasional page boy and an oriental look. Most of the new hair styles really emphasize the face and are planned to go with the new proportion in fashion. Now is the time to rehearse your new hairstyle and pick out a hairpiece and braids at Leon, 17888 Mack Avenue... TUzedo 4-9393.

The Ganche... has arrived at Michelle's Boutique. Choose a ganche pant in plaid, plain or gingham and team it with a blouse, fringed suede vest and fashion boots. All are at 17864 Mack Avenue. The ganche ranges from twenty-five dollars to one-hundred forty-five dollars.

The Dishwasher Of Your Dreams... is a reality at Mutschler Kitchens, 20227 Mack Avenue. It's the Kitchen Aid dishwasher with a soak cycle for dirty pots and pans. Don't dream of buying any new kitchen appliances or of redoing your old kitchen until you stop by Mutschler Kitchens.

In Martha's Closet... 373 Fisher Road, you will find one of the prettiest handiest accessories around. It is the silk, "pre-planned" fashion scarf in new fall prints, taupe colors plus blues and greens. If you are with the majority, you struggle to tie a scarf with flair. Struggle no more! These are designed with loops to help you create and hold the effect you want.

New Jewelry... for fall fashions has arrived at the Sphero, 18049 Mack Avenue. Important in the collection is the collar. Choose one of pearls or gold mesh or silver. Some collars are closed in the newest way with a buckle. There are also the fashion look in earrings and a few hand-picked avant jewelry pieces.

Best Sellers... for so many are the Notre Dame Pharmacy's own beauty products and grooming aids. Topping the list are their hand cream, hair spray, moisture lotion, bubble bath and an excellent deodorant-antiperspirant.

Those Folks At Mr. Q... have the real buy for Mexico lovers. All inclusive from Detroit, fifteen full days, jet air, hotels, sightseeing and much, much more is only three hundred sixteen dollars. Call 886-0500 and they will send more information to you in the mail.

"The face in your future will have no harsh black eye liner. Beiges and whites will be used as accents. Skin must be cared for because of the new see-through make-up," says Mrs. Nepi, who is showing the new way to a beautiful look at Edward Nepi, 19443 Mack Avenue. Call TUzedo 4-8554 for an appointment.

Sale!... A selection of lamps at Wright's Gift and Lamp Shop are marked twenty percent off. Others are tagged thirty to fifty percent off. There are also two tables full of great bargains in gift items. Hurry to 18650 Mack Avenue, for an early selection.

Wedding Plans... should include a bridal color portrait and wedding color candid by Eddie McGrath Jr. Don't be disappointed. Call 884-4280 now to reserve a future date. His studio is conveniently located at 16839 Kercheval.

Yes! He Can... Bob Wyatt can make your walls wonderful with a unique selection and grouping of wall decor. Bored with looking at the old four walls. Get going to Bob Wyatt, Unlimited... 1935 Fleetwood corner of Mack... 886-8019.

It's Posh... to be one of the beautiful people. Many of them are discovering the new hair cut, which is shaped to the head, requires no setting. You are in and out of the Posh Studios, 18700 Mack Avenue in thirty minutes. Not only is it carefree but it is fashionable because the pretty little head is one of fashion's favorites. And it will be more so come fall. Be sure it is done by an expert stylist or you'll just have short hair and completely miss the new look. Call 886-1377.

We're at it again... at LaBoutique Culinaire, 16650 East Warren at Yorkshire. Response to our summer gourmet lessons has been so great, we are offering a 1-day series commencing August 3 at 1:00 p.m. Call 886-3518.

Antiquing... set your course for Ports of Call, 23229 Mack Avenue where you'll find antiques for the whole house... beautiful desks, beds, tables and the much sought after Victorian sofa.

Summer-Treat... yourself and the youngsters to a Coney dog lunch with all the fixings at National Coney Island, 19019 Mack Avenue. Free favors for the children add to the fun.

Mr. Alfonso Knows... a natural looking, flattering hair color can do wonders for a woman. Let the staff of experienced stylists at Dante's, 19839 Mack Avenue find the most flattering shade for you. Call 886-3088 for an appointment.

Rickshaws... sent all the way from Hong Kong, authentic Ball dances, a Japanese tea ceremony, an exhibit of art from Mexico, Tibet, Nepal, Bali and China will delight and entertain you at The Four Winds, 13008 East Eight Mile Road. It will be open from 10:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. each day, including Sunday during International Week, August 8 through August 16. It's their tenth anniversary. Help them celebrate it.

Pointer of Interest

Irene Kearney of Touraine Road

By Julie Spencer

Many students come home from a semester at college with souvenirs—the usual posters, beer can ring chains, ticket stubs and brochures... but not many come with a sitar and two hookahs from India, a brass table, wine glasses, carvings and a drum from Africa, or javelins from Morocco.

Irene Kearney came home with these. And more. She spent 65 days of her spring semester 1970 at sea and 44 days in ports around the world between Los Angeles and New York City, including Honolulu; Kobe, Japan; Hong Kong, Bangkok, Thailand; Bombay, India; Cape Town, South Africa; Casablanca, Morocco, and Lisbon, Portugal.

Irene was one of 476 students enrolled in World Campus Afloat, Chapman College. The "main campus" is the Holland-America ocean liner S.S. Ryndam of Netherlands registry. Despite the Ryndam's turbine engines and stabilizer equipment "between Hawaii and Japan everybody was seasick."

The boat has been equipped with classrooms, library, science and oceanography laboratories, a theater, bookstore, student union and offices.

Classes met only while at sea, six days a week, which would be equivalent to a regular 16-week semester. Classes were much the same as on the land campus, (Chapman College's land campus in Orange, Cal., was founded in 1861 and is one of the oldest academic institutions in California), except the presentations of the materials were geared to take full advantage of the itinerary.

"Study habits on the boat were hard to get used to," Irene admitted, "but we had a lot to do—especially a lot of papers, and they were sometimes difficult because the library is somewhat limited."

"World Studies was a required class. That way we would know about each country we went to before we docked there." History, Geography, Social Problems and Social Change were several other courses Irene took.

Pre-Port Briefings
Before coming into each port there was a session of pre-port tips. These sessions were like briefings about the port city and were usually given by U. S. Embassy or Consulate personnel, or local professors or businessmen.

The longest time between ports was nine days between Lisbon and New York. For recreation on the boat while at sea there was a pool, volleyball, shows, movies, sensitivity groups, Yoga classes, a newspaper, "The Helm," and a literary magazine, "The Albatross."

At each port there was a City Orientation. These guided tours of time on different campuses, especially in Cape Town, South Africa, where Vietnam, the racial situations and campus disturbances were some of the main topics of conversation. "The university in Cape Town is large and they were always demonstrating, especially because of the racial policies there."

The most recurring thought was that had John F. Kennedy lived, he would have been a great inspiration to youth and many peoples around the world. Ideas throughout many parts of the world among the young people seem to be very similar.

All Seasoned Travelers
Travelling is nothing new to Irene, her parents Mr. and Mrs. James J. Kearney, or her nine brothers and sisters Kathy, Jimmy, Mary Beth, Sue, Larry, Tom, Pat, JoAnne and Ginny.

Mr. Kearney, of Kearney Travel Service, plans the itinerary for vacations the family takes in the Kearney Cruiser, (the family bus), like their recent trips to California and Florida.

During the same time Irene was traveling Mrs. Kearney (Katherine) and her mother, Mrs. George Kolowich, were visiting many of the same places, journeying to Hawaii, Fiji Islands, Australia, Singapore, India, Kenya, South Africa and Greece. Several times they were only a stop ahead of Irene.

Irene was graduated from St. Paul High School and except for the semester at Chapman College attends Loretto Heights in Colorado, where she will be a junior—if she doesn't get the bug to travel again too soon.

National Tennis Tournery Slated

Tennis fans will have a real bonus week August 17-23 when the Detroit News and the City of Detroit Department of Parks and Recreation sponsor the 44th annual National Public Parks Tennis Championships.

Two parks—Farwell and Palmer—will host the tournament, with finals held on Saturday and Sunday, August 22 and 23, at Wayne State University's new courts.

Classifications for the national tournament are as follows: men's singles and doubles; women's singles and doubles; mixed doubles; men's veteran (over 35) singles and doubles; seniors men's (over 45) singles and doubles; and women's senior (over 40) singles and doubles.

Application for the national tournament can be obtained by

FISH AND BANANAS IN WINE SAUCE

Contributed by Mrs. Joseph F. Dillon for Symphony Juniors Cookbook "No Second Fiddle"

- 2 packages (one pound each) frozen haddock, sole or any white fish
- 2 cups milk
- 3 tablespoons butter
- 4 tablespoons flour
- 3/4 cup white wine or dry vermouth
- 4 bananas
- 3/4 cup grated natural cheese salt and pepper to taste

Defrost fish and place in a shallow pan. Cover with milk and simmer over low heat five to ten minutes, until the fish will just flake when tested with a fork. Drain fish, reserving milk. Melt butter in pan over medium heat, mix in flour to form roux and gradually add the reserved milk. Stir constantly until sauce thickens; add wine or vermouth and salt and pepper. Remove skin from the fish and place half the fillets in a shallow over-proof dish. Peel the bananas and slice in quarters lengthwise; place half the bananas over the fish. Repeat with remaining fish and bananas, finishing with wine sauce. Sprinkle with grated cheese and broil until golden brown, about four minutes. Serve with a tossed salad, melba toast and butter. Serves four to six people.

Woods Natators Twice Winners

The overall swimming picture in The Pointe to date this year has been one of good, hard competition and, in almost every case, races have been decided by tenths of a second and meets by single points.

The two meets in which Woods swimmers have participated this season prove the point. Their meet against the City was extremely close in each event.

In the first race of the day, Steve Makos, of the City, and Tom Shook, of the Woods, were both timed in identical 19.1 clockings. That race set the tone, but the Woods eventually came out on top of the long side of the scoring ledger.

Triple winners for the Woods were Brian Fink, Kristin Queen, Paul Brown, Chris Babcock and Mandy Study.

Lori Chamberlain, Mark Stevens, Bob Hart, Julie Eugenio, Shawn Lakin, Nancy Nixon, Bob Engelhart, Denise Koenig and Colleen Schleecheer each captured two victories.

Other first place winners included Bob Hanson, Paul Johnson, Deb Jevons, Margaret Shook, Shari Thorton, Carol Johnson, John Quinn, Tom Shook, Steve Peters, Ed Brink and Deb Masten.

Greg Hull turned in a sensational 35.3 timing in the 50-meter breaststroke.

The Woods natators next took on the forces of the Shores, where the final tally of 220-219 in favor of the Woods showed just how keen competition is in The Pointe.

The meet was not decided until the final event of the day—the girls 200-meter freestyle relay, where Kristin Queen, Jan Rush, Chris Babcock and Nancy Nixon turned in a near-record breaking performance to put the Woods in the win column.

Let's continue... our quick look backwards at some of the first of this Summer Season's newlyweds, Grosse Pointe's 1970 June brides and bridegrooms... Having ended last week's column with the ones who chose to camp out on their wedding trips, we'll start this week's with some who opted for a bit more comfort...

Bermuda... was the destination of the former Linda Smiley Whittaker and Michael Duane Spezia following their June 27 wedding in Saint Paul's-on-the-Lakeshore... while Mr. and Mrs. George L. Duditch (Susan Gaye Hinsby), also married June 27 but in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, chose a post-nuptial island vacation too—in Hawaii...

Heading south... to Florida, were the Michael Larry O'Connors (Susan Mary Wiefeman) who spoke their vows June 20 in Saint Clare de Montefalco Church and who vacationed in Pompano Beach... and another June 20 couple, the Robert Louis Duleys (Claudia Jo Ladendorf), scene of whose wedding was Our Lady Star of the Sea Church, who traveled to Fort Lauderdale—and managed a visit to New Orleans as well...

Crossing the Atlantic... after their marriage June 27 in Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church were Mr. and Mrs. David Conrad Dethmers... Mrs. Dethmers is the former Betty Jane Shewan, the Church organist, and the Dethmers' itinerary included a stop in Scotland to visit her grandmother...

The H. Richard Waltons... were married the end of May, the 26th, so technically we probably shouldn't be including them in this collection of June nuptial reminiscences, but we can't resist—their wedding was unique... First of all, its setting: The former Carol Sue Dancy, daughter of the Richard H. Dancys, of Bedford road, spoke her marriage vows in the Church of Saint Mary Aldermanbury, the Winston Churchill Memorial in Fulton, Mo... Then, their wedding trip: Right now they're in India, summering with the bridegroom's parents, and having crossed the Pacific they'll return to the United States through Europe to make their home eventually in St. Louis...

Heading north... were the Ralph K. Chamberlains (Lysbeth Tuttle), wed June 27 in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, and the James William Groves (Dianne Mary Caramagno), married June 27 too, in St. Philomena Church... The Chamberlains vacationed in the Muskoka Lakes Region of Canada, the Groves at Traverse City...

Another north-bound pair... the Carl E. Halls, Jr. (Wendy Ann Seaton), wed June 13 in Jefferson Avenue Presbyterian Church, chose Maine as their wedding trip destination... and another south-bound pair, the Richard John Schneiders (Linda Rae Black) married June 6 in First English Evangelical Lutheran Church, preceded the Spezias on Bermuda...

Missouri's Lake of the Ozarks... welcomed the Philip William Sloans (Mary Ann Brigulio) after their June 20 wedding... The bridegroom's cousin, The Reverend George B. Cronin, officiated at the rites in Our Lady Queen of Peace Church...

And The Reverend Paul Schaedig... brother of The Reverend Roland Schaedig, assistant pastor at St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church here in Grosse Pointe, was one of the officiating clergymen at the latter's wedding in Fargo, N.D., June 20 to Sally George Margaret Wright—who happens to be director of Youth Choirs at St. Paul's...

Especially invited... to the June 27 wedding of Deanna Francos Daniels and John Henry Stephens in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church were the members of the bride's Grade One class at University-Liggett School... Small Christine Caulkins Ford, one of the Grade One-ers, was flower girl, and two of her classmates, Angela Jacobell and Catherine Caan, carried the communion wafers to the altar...

Constance Marie Galanos... and her bridegroom Kenneth Edmund Szymczak wore the traditional Stefana crowns connected by a ribbon wound three times around the altar during their June 20 wedding in Assumption Greek Orthodox Church... The traditional Greek wedding service is a beautiful ceremony...

Nothing's nicer... provided the weather cooperates, than an at-home reception... The Kenneth F. Bergmann's Merriweather road residence was the setting for one following the June 13 wedding of their daughter Lynn Karen Bergmann and Steven Mark Entine in Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church... and Dr. and Mrs. Ernst Frederick Lang entertained at their Lthrop road home following the June 6 wedding in Grosse Pointe Congregational Church of daughter Elizabeth Ann Lang and Richard John Dehncke...

And once again... we've run out of space before we've run out of brides and bridegrooms... we can't very well make this a summer-long column project... so, this being THE END, we offer all Grosse Pointe's June newlyweds, the ones we've mentioned and the ones we haven't, best wish and congratulations.

Appointed a member of the Cottage Hospital Board of Trustees and named to the Hospital's Long Range Planning Committee is W. MERRITT JONES, JR., who with his wife, the former ELISE FINK, and their children, 12-year-old PETER, CHRISTOPHER, eight, and JEFFREY, seven, resides in University place. Mr. Jones, a member of the Country Club of Detroit and the University Club, also serves as a member of the University-Liggett School Board of Trustees. His appointment to the Cottage Board was announced by its president, ROBERT A. WATERS.
