Center Reception Sunday

for Exceptional Children, the Community Services, Neighborhood Club, Grosse Pointe Public Libraries, the Commerce and Civic Association, Health Education Council, P.T.A. Council, Council of Better Literature for Youth, Girl and Boy Scouts, Community Chorus, Motion Picture and TV Council, and the Grosse Pointe Symphony.

The churches too will be represented—Episcopal, Lutheran, Evangelical, Christian Scientist, Baptist, Congregationalist, Presbyterian, Methodist, Unitarian and Catholic.

The mayors and city governments of the five Grosse Pointes will be on hand to greet newcomers as will the Center's Board of Directors and their wives and the heads of all the Center's groups including Ballet, Ballroom Dancing, Cancer workers, Service Guild for Children's Hospital, Braille Transcription, Youth Council, Ski Clubs (adult and teen), Art Classes, Yoga, Karate, Astrology, Guitar, Children's Theatre and Art, Safe Boating, Flight Training, First Aid and Travel Club.

No family recently arrived in Grosse Pointe should miss the opportunity. Invitations went to all families brought to the attention of the Center, but there are many more newcomers whom the Center urges to look upon this article as an invitation.

This is a chance to get in on the ground floor of Grosse Pointe, to familiarize oneself with the wealth of opportunities offered, make friends and become a real part of one of America's finest suburbs. There will be baby sitters, guides, good refreshments and smiles and smiles and ready handshakes everywhere. It's a real community effort and pleasure.

Methadone Clinic Success

average age of 19.5 years and an average addiction span of 16 months as compared with an 18.9 years average age and a 12-month addiction period for the September group.

"We begin methadone withdrawal as soon as possible with each patient," Dr. Schooff said. "Those in treatment receive methadone under close medical supervision on a seven day-a-week basis," he added. "The patient's urine is checked regularly for the presence of heroin, morphine, quinine, and other drugs. We have a probationary system operating and it is brought to bear on the patient whose urine continues positive for drugs or whose attendance is irregular," Dr. Schooff said. "Either can lead to being placed on probation, and further problems can result in dismissal. Only forty youngsters have found it necessary to withdraw from the program since its beginning and with each departure, a new patient was admitted to maintain the group quota," he added.

Is Unique Program
"The FLEC program is unique," Dr. Schooff claims, "for the intensity of the therapy offered patients and parents." Patients meet twice weekly for group psychotherapy with Mr. Stanczak. The parents meet once a week for group counseling with Dr. Schooff.

"Other programs," Dr. Schooff said, "have tended to emphasize auxiliary services such as vocational rehabilitation and recreation without giving sufficient attention to the underlying causes of addiction which group psychotherapy attempts to treat." He termed the results of the FLEC program as "promising for the young addict." He expressed hope it might become a model for other communities mounting an attack on the drug epidemic now sweeping the country.

Parents Also Pleased
"Our parents certainly have indicated awareness of an improvement in their children," he said, "and both the patients and parents have expressed considerable satisfaction with the program."

He pointed to the results of urine tests as proof the use of heroin has diminished considerably among the patients. "In July, 60 percent were positive for narcotics among the first group but only 13 percent were positive in November. The percentage for the second group in September was 63. The second group had dropped to 23 percent positive for drugs after only two months."

Dr. Schooff said that most in the group have given up their daily heroin-seeking activities and have begun to return to schools, jobs, and more normal family lives. "The program is aimed," he said, "at helping each patient become totally independent of heroin while moving away from dependence on family care."

Half Now Employed
"Of the addicted youngsters treated to date, most have completed the 11th grade and all had tried unsuccessfully to quit the habit independently. Five of each group is presently employed."

Dr. Schooff and Mr. Stanczak both praised Bon Secours Hospital and Sister Justine, its administrator, for help in developing and operating the drug treatment program. "It would be totally impossible to run the clinic without facilities and personnel such as Bon Secours has made available," Dr. Schooff said.

"Certainly Sister Rita Mae, 3 to 11 p.m. nursing supervisor, played a vital role in starting this program," he continued. "Her awareness of the severity of the problems related to drug abuse came from cases in the hospital emergency room. She was concerned that no follow-up treatment facilities were available. With the help and approval of Sister Justine, she has developed a volunteer program in which volunteer nurses and their husbands participate."

"The nurses," Dr. Schooff said, "give their time to dispense medication, and their husbands supervise the collection of urine samples to insure their validity." He said that the hospital pharmacist Leonard Trozak, also volunteers services to prepare methadone daily. Mr. Stanczak noted that this cooperation on the part of the hospital personnel has resulted in a most positive relationship with the patients, and has been an important factor in their overall improvement.

Is Self-Supporting
The FLEC Clinic program has operated on a self-supporting basis with parents paying weekly fees, which cover basic costs of the project. "The personnel, space and services provided by the hospital along with the assistance of the volunteers has made it possible for FLEC to keep costs to parents at a minimal level," Dr. Schooff said.

Family Life Education Council was founded in 1968 by concerned Grosse Pointe residents to strengthen the family unit through community oriented programs. It became a part of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education in 1969, a substantial grant by the Rotary Club of Grosse Pointe made it possible to become an independent agency and begin to provide services to curb drug abuse. Drug abuse programs continue to be its main thrust because of the unmet needs in this area.

FLEC is led by an actively participating board of directors. Dr. Caller Worrell, first president of FLEC, assisted by founding board member Mrs. Perry TeWalt, spearheaded the organizing of the withdrawal clinic at Bon Secours. FLEC's board of directors was recently expanded to 30 and includes broad representation of the Pointes and Harper Woods.

Besides the withdrawal clinic, FLEC currently participates in drug education programs, provides speakers and operates a 24 hour drug information referral answering service, 885-3510. Its first office recently opened at 19535 Mack, in the Woods. A local membership drive for community support is planned in the near future to enable FLEC to expand its drug abuse programs.

Camera Club Meets Tuesday

The Grosse Pointe Camera Club will meet on Tuesday, January 19, at 8 o'clock, at the War Memorial.

There will be competition in monochrome and color slides. Visitors are welcomed.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT

Eugene Dettloff, a Michigan Bell Telephone installer reported to City police that while he was on call at 306 Roosevelt Thursday, January 7, he discovered one youth standing by the rear of his truck while another was inside. When both saw they were discovered, they ran while one dropped an upper part of a pay phone as he jumped a fence.

WINDOWS BROKEN

Mrs. Ray Day, 340 Lakeland, called City police to report someone had broken windows in her home, Monday, January 4. An inspection revealed that the windows may have been broken by shots from a BB gun.

MISREPRESENTATION
Every man has a right to his own opinions, but he has no right to juggle the facts.

Educators Complimented
By Inter-Faith Center

During the regular meeting of the Board of Education on Monday, January 11, William Butler, member of the Board of Directors of The Grosse Pointe Inter-Faith Center for Racial Justice, asked that the following statement be read into the record.

"I will recognize that citizens seldom take the time and effort to compliment a governmental body on a particular action, decision or policy. In this case, however, I want to extend to the Grosse Pointe Board of Education my compliments and the compliments of the Grosse Pointe Inter-Faith Center for Racial Justice for your constructive efforts to obtain representatives of minority groups to serve on your faculty.

"We are all interested in furnishing for our students not only quality education but a broad and significant educational experience; and in today's society this objective requires at least some exposure to the cultures and contributions of the minority groups. I understand that in recognition of this broad approach to education, you have incorporated in your program an affirmative and constructive policy toward racial problems and that you are aggressively seeking minority teachers. I merely want you to know that in taking this position we applaud you and pledge our support."

Following Mr. Butler's statement Tom Dimond, president of the Grosse Pointe Human Relations Council, Jeff Montgomery, president of South High's Student Association, and Stan Smith, president of the Grosse Pointe Education Association made supportive statements.

In response to these statements, Lawrence Kennedy, assistant superintendent of personnel, said that the school system policy has always been one which actively seeks representation from all racial and ethnic groups and one which seeks teachers who have the highest possible qualifications.

The NEWS asked Mr. Kennedy to explain the process involved in hiring teachers. He explained that the search has two major thrusts. One is the college campus for the newly graduated teacher, the other is the search for experienced teachers.

He said the system circulates literature and lists vacancies to approximately 300 colleges and universities which are carefully selected from several thousands of institutions of higher learning. Fully accredited schools whose graduates have been selected and trained in highly respected programs. He added that recruiting teams visit approximately 75 college campuses each winter and spring, interviewing and evaluating applicants.

Mr. Kennedy said the ultimate responsibility for employing teachers is shared by the Board of Education, which must approve all contracts and the superintendent of schools, whose "recommendation to employ" is required by state law. He said that due to the volume of work entailed in recruiting, screening, seeking references and making final choices, the superintendent has delegated these responsibilities to him, as assistant superintendent of personnel. He told the NEWS that he in turn works closely with a team of administrators composed primarily of building principals and department directors to carry on this important work.

It is then his responsibility to notify colleges and other recommended teacher placement agencies of prospective and existing vacancies and to inform them of the qualifications sought in persons who they might recommend for consideration.

He added that as assistant superintendent it is also his responsibility to visit colleges and interview teacher candidates. If then he is convinced that adequate numbers of qualified candidates are available for the given position he, under the supervision of the superintendent, offers employment to the person who in his opinion is most qualified for the post.

Mr. Kennedy said that the Grosse Pointe Public School system is committed to the philosophy and policy of employing the best possible professional staff available.

TROUBLE BREWING

Mark Noble, 947 Lakeshore, stopped by Woods police for driving with no white light to the rear, was released with a warning when a check on his driving status was delayed. Several minutes later, police received word that Noble's license had been revoked since November 11 because of a bad driving record and his failure to appear. Further action by the Woods police is pending.

Stealing Clothes

A shoplifter, stopped at J. C. Penny's, 19251 Mack, Tuesday, January 5, by a sharp-eyed guard for exiting the store with a suit, coat, and a pair of pants without paying for them, proved to have other items of clothing in her car.

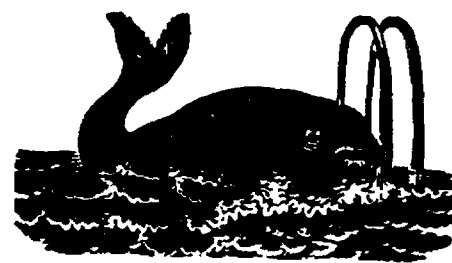

Henrietta Stephens, 5916 St. Clair, in Detroit was stopped by the guard after he saw her walk over to the men's department and place the suit, worth $88, and a sportcoat and pants, worth $60, under her coat and walk out the east entrance.

The guard followed her and questioned her outside for the proof of purchase. Woods police were called when she could show no receipt.

While police were transporting her car to the station, they noticed clothes from Penny's worth over $40 laying on the rear seat with no receipt and no boxes or bags. All the clothes were held at the station for evidence. Because Stephens had her five-year-old son with her, she was released immediately after being given a trial date.

Elections

ber. Prior to the bill, the primary was set for February while the general election took place in April.

Retention of the council seats and mayoralty in the Farms, if the council decides to accept the new legislation Monday, January 18, will also be extended seven months. Farms residents would vote for four councilmen in November, 1971, rather than April of the same year.

The three top vote-getters would then retain their seats for four years from January 1, 1972, while the next highest candidate elected would remain on the council two years. After each election in the Farms, the councilmen themselves appoint the city's mayor.

Farms Alone On This

The Farms is the only city in The Pointe which allows its council to appoint the mayor. All other residents choose their mayor directly by general election.

The City and the Shores are the only two Pointes that may not be affected by the new bill. In the City, the regular election is already scheduled for November, 1971, and the councilmen will serve for four years on staggered terms as they have in the past. The legislation does not apply to villages, depending on the Shores.

Part of the bill also requires that a primary be held if the number of candidates is more than twice the number of seats available on the council. Therefore, if any more than two candidates run for any particular seats, the bill calls for a primary election.

Cities Have Option

The cities, however, are also given the option of rejecting a primary election by a vote of the council by April 1 of this year. Thus, each municipality is given the chance to continue its policy of election procedure. The Woods and the City ordinarily hold no primary while the Park and Farms do use a primary election method.

Another stipulation in the act provides the mechanism to authorize the cities and school board to enter into an agreement whereby the school elections may be held on the odd year cycle in conjunction with the city elections.

The bill does not affect the election of judges and other judicial officers.

equipment now available will encourage them to become future producers, directors, scenario writers and actors.

Working Together

The Grosse Pointe Motion Picture and TV Council, whose members represent the schools and churches of the area, are working closely with schools and libraries in an effort to foster selectivity and discrimination in study and entertainment.

On Monday evening, January 18, at 7:30 p.m., students, teachers and parents will be introduced to the Kodak Film Festival, through a special Council program. Students from middle and upper schools, junior and senior high schools, are invited to enter their own films in the Festival for next year. Prizes and scholarships are awarded in two divisions—one for 12- to 15-year-olds, and one for 16- to 19-year-olds, in 8mm and 16mm.

To Be Held in Church

The Film Festival program on January 18 will be held in the auditorium of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, 16 Lakeshore, at 7:30 p.m., free of charge. Winning films from the last festival entries will be shown as a thrilling example of the creativity of youth across the country. Lawrence Silverman, professor at Wayne State University, will present the films, and will acquaint the audience with the necessary information in order to enter the Film Festival.

For further information, Mrs. Edward Kliber, president of the Motion Picture and TV Council, may be contacted at 885-0537.

The only person who can deny you another chance is yourself.

safety, and in turn slipped and fell into the lake.

Another son, eight, and a daughter, five, stood by frightened and helpless, as their father and brother were in the lake. The father said he pulled himself onto solid ice and aided his older boy to safety.

The man said he and his son were too wet and shivering in the bitter cold to notice, or even to think that any one had seen them fall through the ice. All four ran to the family car parked on Tonawacour and drove straight home, none the worse for the dip.

When he read the story in the NEWS, he promptly called the Farms station, to clear the mystery of the supposed disappearance of himself and his children, and to express his regrets for the trouble that was caused as a result.

"We are very happy that no one had drowned in the lake," Farms Police Chief Robert Ferber said. "We were extremely concerned, when it was reported that four persons had been seen on the lake ice and then mysteriously disappeared. We feared these people had come

Power Squadron Class to Start

The Grosse Pointe Power Squadron will hold its Spring Piloting class at Grosse Pointe North High School in Vernier road. The first class begins on Monday, January 25, at 7:30 p.m. in room 312.

The course is tuition free and approved and taught by members of the Grosse Pointe Power Squadron, who are trained and experienced in teaching safe boating. The men contribute their time and skill to promote safety afloat as a community service.

The course is open to adults and young adults. Necessary reference materials will be on sale at a nominal cost during the first three Monday night sessions.

Those attending the class are asked to enter the school from Vernier road on Grosse Pointe North drive, not from the Morning side drive entrance.

NAB SUNDAY DRUNK

Shores police arrested Leon Hood, 5800 Radnor, in Detroit, for driving under the influence of liquor Sunday, January 10, at 3:40 p.m. Police reported that Hood was traveling at 50 mph on Lake Shore drive while he was weaving and cutting through traffic. Officers, using siren and lights, saw Hood hit a "no fishing" sign, apparently rupturing his fuel line, before stopping him. Hood was held on $100 bond.

Power Squadron Class to Start

The Grosse Pointe Power Squadron will hold its Spring Piloting class at Grosse Pointe North High School in Vernier road. The first class begins on Monday, January 25, at 7:30 p.m. in room 312.

The course is tuition free and approved and taught by members of the Grosse Pointe Power Squadron, who are trained and experienced in teaching safe boating. The men contribute their time and skill to promote safety afloat as a community service.

The course is open to adults and young adults. Necessary reference materials will be on sale at a nominal cost during the first three Monday night sessions.

Those attending the class are asked to enter the school from Vernier road on Grosse Pointe North drive, not from the Morning side drive entrance.

NAB SUNDAY DRUNK

Shores police arrested Leon Hood, 5800 Radnor, in Detroit, for driving under the influence of liquor Sunday, January 10, at 3:40 p.m. Police reported that Hood was traveling at 50 mph on Lake Shore drive while he was weaving and cutting through traffic. Officers, using siren and lights, saw Hood hit a "no fishing" sign, apparently rupturing his fuel line, before stopping him. Hood was held on $100 bond.

People who take the time to live have found the secret of success.

The interest you're receiving probably isn't enough.

This time of year is a moment of truth in the savings business. The people who have been holding your money sit down and figure how much interest your savings have earned. And they pay it to you—the maximum amount they're allowed to under the law. While it is their best, is it enough? Chances are you are probably happy to collect whatever interest you do receive, but the sad thing is this: while you are saving money, you may have been losing money.

WE PAY MORE.

If you put that money in a First Federal savings account, you might collect a lot more interest. Because First Federal Savings of Detroit pays a higher rate of interest on regular and certificate passbook accounts than many financial institutions in this area.

IT'S YOUR MONEY.

If you are happy with the interest rate you now receive, there's not much we can do. But if you would like to earn more money for your money, there's plenty we can do. You can start things moving by phoning or stopping at any of our offices. We'll help you select the type of savings plan (see chart at right) that's best for you. Then all you have to do is hand us your present passbook and we'll transfer your money (plus whatever interest is due you) to a First Federal account. In a few days you'll have your First Federal passbook and you'll soon be collecting the kind of interest that you've been missing.

YOU'RE NOT ALONE.

There are 215,000 savers (we're Michigan's largest savings institution) who want what you want. They want to save, they want to earn the highest possible interest and they want to have their money in a safe place.

That's why they came to us

FIGURES DON'T LIE.

Check the chart and you'll see that we pay the highest interest rate anywhere in Michigan on regular passbook and certificate passbook savings. They're all paid and compounded quarterly. And your savings account is insured up to $20,000 by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation.

If you are one of the people who don't get paid enough interest, there is something you can do about it. And we would like to help.

Take a good look at this chart and compare it with your present plan...

CERTIFICATE ACCOUNT	CERTIFICATE ACCOUNT	CERTIFICATE ACCOUNT	REGULAR ACCOUNT
$5,000	$1,000	$1,000	No
Minimum	Minimum	Minimum	Minimum
6%	5 3/4%	5 1/4%	5%

'Civilisation' Art Series Starts at Center Jan. 24

"Civilisation," Sir Kenneth Clark's masterly view of the ideas of the last 1600 years in the history of Western man, contained in a series of 13 50-minute color films, is coming to Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Pries Auditorium Sunday afternoons, January 24-March 21, from 3 to 5 p.m.

Commentary will accompany one film on alternate weeks with two films being presented each Sunday of the weeks in between. Commentary will be presented by Marvin Felheim, Ph.D., literary and culture critic for the University of Michigan, and by Thomas Tentler, Ph.D., historian at U of M.

The Civilisation series is presented in Grosse Pointe by the University Center for Adult Education through the permission of the Detroit Institute of Arts and the cooperation of Time-Life Films.

Lord Clark's "personal views" of civilization properly command attention and enthusiasm. Kenneth Clark has held so many important positions in British art and cultural life that he has been called its Minister of Culture. He was educated at Winchester and Trinity College, Oxford. After working for two years with Bernard Berenson in Florence, he became Keeper of the Department of Fine Art at the Ashmolean Museum, Oxford, and later, Director of the National Gallery in London and Surveyor of the King's Pictures.

He served as Slade Professor of Fine Art at Oxford in the late Forties and again in the early Sixties. From 1953 to 1960, he was chairman of the Arts Council of Great Britain; and for three of those years he was also chairman of the Independent Television Authority.

He is, perhaps, best known as the author of many important scholarly books and essays, including "The Great Gothic Revival", "Landscape into Art", "Piero della Francesca", "Leonardo da Vinci," and "Raphael and the Italian Renaissance". Recently, he was elevated to a life peerage and bears the title of Lord Clark of Saltwood.

But one of his greatest popular and critical successes is this British Broadcasting Corporation-produced series, "Civilisation", an enterprise he referred to as his "autobiography".

Reservations for this important "Civilisation" series should be either made at or mailed to the Center as soon as possible. Individual enrollment is $18 plus a $2 registration fee. Additional members of the family may enroll for the nine afternoon series for $9 plus the registration fee. Checks should be made payable to the University Center for Adult Education.

Burglars Enter Homes in Park

Two Park homes were reported burglarized on Thursday, January 7, according to information released by Police Det. Charles Petrie.

The first report received was from Adrian DeWiendt of 1052 Audubon, who disclosed that his residence was forcibly entered between January 5 and January 7, while he and his family were out of town. The second disclosure was made by the Arthur Bryants of 856 Barrington, whose arrival home apparently frightened the thief, or thieves, from the premises.

The thieves gained entrance into the DeWiendt home by breaking the front door glass and reaching in and unlocking the door.

Petrie said that the burglars made an extensive search of the house, and stole several pieces of furs, jewelry and miscellaneous items, the values of which were not determined. The burglars left the house through the front door, undetected.

At the Bryant home, investigating officers said that entry was gained by pushing out the glass of the front door. The search for valuables was confined to the first and second floors of the building.

Petrie said that Mr. Bryant came home to find the front door open, and ran to a neighbor's house to call police.

When the officers responded, they found several television sets, tape recorders and a stereo piled near the front door, ready to be taken out. Either the burglars had a change of heart, or they were frightened away when the family came home, it was said.

DOG RETURNED

City police received a report of a stray dog in back of 880 Notre Dame on Sunday, December 27. Officers picked up the animal and notified its owner, a Lakeland resident.

Driver Hits Pole Avoiding Walker

A 16-year-old driver swerved to avoid hitting a pedestrian at Kercheval and Moran, on Friday, January 8, and lost control of his vehicle and slammed into an Edison pole.

According to a police report, Daniel J. Groat of 1365 Whittier, was driving his mother's station wagon north on Moran and stopped for the stop sign at Kercheval. When the teen attempted a right turn onto Kercheval, a young man darted in front of the car, crossing the avenue.

Young Groat spun the steering wheel to avoid hitting the pedestrian. His vehicle jumped the curb and ran into the pole.

Lochmoor Club's 'Mickey' Being Honored at Dinner

Lochmoor Club president Sam Nichol, club members and staff will honor Michael J. O'Lichney, better known as "Mickey," at a stag dinner on Thursday evening, January 14. Mr. O'Lichney is retiring as locker room superintendent after 48 years of service at Lochmoor. O'Lichney has served under 12 managers and in three clubhouse structures since he went to work for Lochmoor Club 48 years ago.

During those years he has seen many changes. In the old days, there was no sprinkling system and no fence. "We were out in the country then," Mickey says, "and we didn't need a fence. Occasionally someone would come in and play a few holes on the outer fringes of the course in the eveing, but there was little trespassing and the fence was not a necessity until later years when homes were built closer to the course.

Mickey remembers an early nickname for the club was "Crackmoor," because of the large fissures which sometimes appeared in the heavy clay soil. "Today it has been built up to become one of the finest courses anywhere in the state," says O'Lichney.

He saw the era of the floater ball, a larger ball than the golf ball of today, and one that actually floated on water. "All the members could retrieve the ball then," he says, "and the pro shop didn't do as much business in new golf balls."

Spikes in shoes were unheard of at first; everyone wore crepe rubber soles. Knickerbockers were the order of the day for men on the links. And no one had seen steel shafted clubs—everything was wood. In fact, when the steel shafts were introduced, there was considerable controversy over their advisability.

The original Lochmoor clubhouse, he recalls, was a farm house with a wing attached here, a porch added on there. It burned to the ground in February, 1924, leaving only the two fireplace chimneys standing to mark the spot. It was replaced with a new clubhouse which was dedicated in public ceremonies on November 11, 1924. The opening of the new clubhouse was a highlight of the social year.

The 1924 structure was finally torn down in 1968 to make way for the present clubhouse facility which opened in December, 1969.

In the 20's, 30 to 35 players on the course was a normal crowd; 55 to 60 constituted a big weekend. Mickey knew them all, both members and guests, and recalls some of the names that have made golf history—some of the all time greats like Bobby Jones, Tommy Armour, and Walter Hagen, all of whom played the Lochmoor course.

Walter Hagen played there at least once a month with Art Alders, a Lochmoor member.

Mickey cherishes the memory of Charlie Hilgendorf, Lochmoor pro for 25 years, who died in 1947. "He was a fine man," says O'Lichney, "beloved by the membership and the employees alike. His course record of 82 still stands."

"Another fine golfer of that era was Hilgendorf's assistant, Clarence Gamber, nicknamed 'Slam Gam.' He was the longest golf ball hitter in the U.S. and was written up by Believe-It-Or-Not Ripley."

Mickey saw the members play the course to determine which applicants of the 1900-name waiting list would be admitted to the club. That was in 1928-29 when Lochmoor had 100 members.

"I've enjoyed my years of working for Lochmoor and with the hundreds and hundreds of fine gentlemen who have come and gone here during the past 48 years," says Mickey.

William J. Lancaster was the first Lochmoor manager O'Lichney worked for. Peter Behr, the present manager, is the 12th, and Mickey wishes him a tenure as long and as pleasant as his own years at Lochmoor have been.

RE-APPOINTED
Accepting the recommendation of Mayor Matthew Patterson, the Park council on Monday, January 11, approved the re-appointment of Herbert Schumann of 1434 Balfour, to his third three-year term on the Board of Review. Other members of the Board are: Earl R. Perkins of 760 Grand Marais; and Charles W. Gauss of 817 Whittier.

School Board Meeting

read "If bidders could fulfill the following specifications or their equivalent."
Allen Has Criticism
Following statements from practically every Board member on this issue and further statements on accounting procedures, Lee Allen, treasurer, indicated to the Board and audience that he did not question the right of board members to ask questions on accounting procedures or bidding procedures but he deplored the presentation of questions on these issues in such a manner that would lead the community to question the honesty and integrity of members of the administration.

Following this discussion President Thompson recessed the Board, while members discussed approval of the renovation contract for the renovation of South High School. Recess was called at 11:05 p.m. and the Board reconvened in public session at 12:38 p.m. At that time, the Board approved the architect's contract with Linn Smith, Des Moines, Adams, Inc. for professional services for the renovation of South High subject to the approval of the architects to the changes in wording made by the Board.

Unfortunately, the major part of Monday night's meeting was another classic example of the waste of valuable time and talent of school administrators.

Blue Devils Retain First Place; Bomb Wyandotte

By Steve Weyhing
By crushing winless Wyandotte, 78-57, Friday, January 8, the South Blue Devils remained in a tie for first place with Royal Oak Dondoro in the Bi-County League. Both schools have 3-0 records while Dondoro beat a powerful Highland Park team, 66-50, the same night. South must now face Highland Park Friday, January 15.
The Parkers are not especially big, but they're fast and have an excellent defense. In one game they held Fordson to 35 points. Highland Park, with 2-1 record, holds third place in the league with Monroe placing fourth while Fordson and Wyandotte are tied for

St. Paul Cagers Beat Roseville

By Paul Boehmer
The St. Paul Lakers, led by great defense and intimidating size, defeated Roseville Sacred Heart by the score of 67-39. This was the third straight victory for Coach Ed Lauer's team after they got off to one of their most disappointing starts in recent memory.
With 6-foot 10-inch junior Gary Canu sealing up the center, the Lakers held Sacred Heart to only 14 field goals for the entire game. On offense, Canu and 6-foot 4-inch senior Joe Albee proved effective sparks as their rebounding and sharp inside shooting broke the game wide open.
Despite the score, the game wasn't a complete runaway. The Lakers led by only five points at the half, and two of those points were provided by an astounding last second desperation shot by senior Pat Koepsal. The second half was a different story, however, as the Lakers poured on the steam and outscored their opponents 19-4. This output was spurred not only by Canu and Albee but by the outside shooting of Koepsal and senior Ed Moran.
The fourth quarter found the bench emptied as the Laker second team continued to build the lead the first team had provided. The game ended with 11 of the 13 members of the team scoring. Joe Albee's 20 points and Gary Canu's 16 were good for game scoring honors, but Canu also grabbed 11 rebounds and, with his amazing reach, blocked eight shots.
This victory raised the Laker's league record to four wins and three losses and left Sacred Heart with a two and five record.

Eagles Capture First in League

The Grosse Pointe Eagles continue to hold down first place in the six-team Fraser Hockey League. They are three points ahead of their nearest rival, winning seven and losing only one.
The teams only loss came at the hands of the Fraser North Stars, losing by a score of 3-2 with only 46 seconds left. Since then, the Eagles have beaten the Grosse Pointe Rangers, 1-0, Thursday, December 10; the Fraser Hawks, 2-1, Wednesday, December 30; and the Fraser Blues, 1-0, on Wednesday, January 6.
In both the Ranger and Blues games, the winning goal was scored by Todd Tobin, assisted by Mark Santi, the team's leading scorer. In the win over the Hawks, it was Steve Sicklesteel's blazing slap-shot from the point that won the game.
The backbone of the team, this year, has been the goal-tending which has allowed only nine goals in eight games. Eric Franz shut-out the Rangers and played just as superbly in the Hawks' game. Brad Mitseff held the team in the game when they defeated the Blues, 1-0.
Supplying much of the team's spirit this season has been the roughness and leadership of Rusty Green.

Winter Concert At South High

The Bands and Orchestra of South High School will appear in their annual Winter Concert on Wednesday evening, January 20, at 8 o'clock. The concert will be performed at Parcels Middle School Auditorium and will be highlighted by a performance of several major musical compositions seldom performed by high school students.
The Symphony Orchestra's portion of the program will include a performance of J. S. Bach's BRANDBURG CONCERTO NO. 5 with flute, violin, and piano in the solo roles. Deborah Fisher, Nancy Homfield, and Kendall Barker are all seniors at South High School, and all are National Merit Scholarship Semifinalist winners. Each of the featured soloists has a strong background in music, having attended summer music camps, studied privately with outstanding teachers, and performed with a number of top ensembles.
The orchestra will also perform the first movement of the FRANCK SYMPHONY IN D MINOR.
The Concert Band will fill the middle portion of the program swinging; out with ALLA BAROCCO a folk rock set for the modern concert band.
The Symphony Band will close the concert with five varied selections ranging from traditional band music to some of the newest arrangements. The groups are under the direction of Russell D. Reed.
Tickets will be available at the door or in advance from band and orchestra members. Adults $1.00, students 50c.
"The program has great appeal to both young and old. I believe the groups are ready to present one of the best Winter Concerts ever," Reed said.

Celtics, Pistons, Hawks, Bulls Win

In Neighborhood Club Giant League play, Saturday, January 7, the well balanced offense and exceptional defense of the Celtics was just too much for the Bucks. The half time score of 13 to 11 indicates just how hot the Celtics were in the second half.
The final score, 37 to 14, was in part due to Mark Johnson of the Bucks getting into foul trouble in the third quarter. Mark had nine points for the losers. Jim Carroll had 11 and Jim Fisher 10 for the Celtics. Mark Wickard and Pete Manos played fine games while Scott Smith helped on the boards.
The Bulls beat the Knicks 16 to five in a hard fought game. Jim Marshall, Rob Burns, and Bill Crocker were scorers for the Bulls. Doug Edwards and Chris Bielski played well for the Knicks.
The Bullets found the hot hands too late in the fourth quarter in their 32-26 loss to the Pistons. Jim Everett, Ted Werner, and Mark Bissinger, were late scorers. John Weiknar had 5 points early. It was not enough. Christ DeCoster had 12, Jeff Thiede, eight, Dave Smaha, five, and Tom Marantette, five for the Pistons. Getting inside for the short ones and control of the boards paid big dividends for the taller Pistons.
The balanced scoring of the 76'ers was not enough to offset Jim Paradee's 20 points for the Hawks. Bill Hines added four and helped with the rebounding. Ralph Cross and Gary Fenton had seven each and Jeff Gardner, five, in the 32 to 24 loss.
Jim Paradee's scoring and his domination of both boards was the outstanding individual performance of the day. Team honors must go to the smooth functioning Celtics.

Lochmoor Club's 'Mickey' Being Honored at Dinner

Lochmoor Club president Sam Nichol, club members and staff will honor Michael J. O'Lichney, better known as 'Mickey,' at a stag dinner on Thursday evening, January 14.

O'Lichney is retiring as locker room superintendent after 48 years of service at Lochmoor.

O'Lichney has served under 12 managers and in three clubhouse structures since he went to work for Lochmoor Club 48 years ago.

During those years he has seen many changes. In the old days, there was no sprinkling system and no fence.

"We were out in the country then," Mickey says. "and we didn't need a fence. Occasionally someone would come in and play a few holes on the outer fringes of the course in the evening, but there was little trespassing and the fence was not a necessity until later years when homes were built closer to the course."

Mickey remembers an early nickname for the club was "Crackmoor," because of the large fissures which sometimes appeared in the heavy clay soil.

He saw the era of the floater ball, a larger ball than the golf ball of today, and one that actually floated on water.

"All the members could retrieve the ball then," he says, "and the pro shop didn't do as much business in new golf balls."

Spikes in shoes were unheard of at first; everyone wore crepe rubber soles. Knickerbockers were the order of the day for men on the links. And no one had seen steel shafted clubs—everything was wood. In fact, when the steel shafts were introduced, there was considerable controversy over their advisability.

The original Lochmoor clubhouse, he recalls, was a farm house with a wing attached here, a porch added on there. It burned to the ground in February, 1924, leaving only the two fireplace chimneys standing to mark the spot. It was replaced with a new clubhouse which was dedicated in public ceremonies on November 11, 1924.

The 1924 structure was finally torn down in 1968 to make way for the present clubhouse facility which opened in December, 1969.

In the 20's, 30 to 35 players on the course was a normal crowd; 55 to 60 constituted a big weekend. Mickey knew them all, both members and guests, and recalls some of the names that have made golf history—some of the all time greats like Bobby Jones, Tommy Armour, and Walter Hagen, all of whom played the Lochmoor course.

Walter Hagen played there at least once a month with Art Alders, a Lochmoor member.

Mickey cherishes the memory of Charlie Hilgendorf, Lochmoor pro for 25 years, who died in 1947. "He was a fine man," says O'Lichney, "beloved by the membership and the employees alike. His course record of 82 still stands."

"Another fine golfer of that era was Hilgendorf's assistant Clarence Gamber, nicknamed 'Slam Gam.' He was the best golf ball hitter in the U.S. and was written up by Believe-It-Or-Not Ripley."

Mickey saw the members play the course to determine which applicants of the 190-name waiting list would be admitted to the club. That was in 1928-29 when Lochmoor had 100 members.

"I've enjoyed my years of working for Lochmoor and with the hundreds and hundreds of fine gentlemen who have come and gone here during the past 48 years," says Mickey.

William J. Lancaster was the first Lochmoor manager O'Lichney worked for. Peter Beltr, the present manager, is the 12th, and Mickey wishes him a tenure as long and as pleasant as his own years at Lochmoor have been.

Speeder, Police Collide in Chase

A 14-year-old youth, driving in the small hours of the morning of Wednesday, December 30, collided with two Shores police cars while traveling at speeds of 70 and 80 miles-per-hour down Lake Shore drive before being stopped and issued three traffic violations.

The youth, an East Detroit resident, was driving a car registered to his father. The father had reported the car stolen to the East Detroit police.

Shores police spotted the boy driving east on Vernier before turning south on Lake Shore. When police first signaled the youth to pull over, the boy waited until one officer exited the car before speeding off.

In an effort to get away, the speeder turned down several streets in the Shores—St. Clair Shores area, jumped the median on Lake Shore at least twice, and damaged part of the right side and the entire left side of one patrol car while the front right fender of another was damaged during the chase.

Collisions occurred when police tried to force the boy to pull over to the side of the road. In an attempt to contain the speeder, a second Shores car was dispatched and a St. Clair Shores police car, happening on the scene, offered its services. The boy was finally stopped when he was effectively boxed in with a police car on each side and one in the rear.

At the station the youth was issued tickets for never having acquired a license, insufficient lights on the car, and reckless driving. He was also issued a ticket by the St. Clair Shores police.

RE-APPOINTED

Accepting the recommendation of Mayor Matthew Patterson, the Park council on Monday, January 11, approved the reappointment of Herbert Schumann of 1434 Balfour, to his third three-year term on the Board of Review. Other members of the Board are: Earl R. Perkins of 760 Grand Marais; and Charles W. Gauss of 817 Whit-

School Board Meeting

Allen Has Criticism

Following statements from practically every Board member on this issue and further statements on accounting procedures, Lee Allen, treasurer, indicated to the Board and audience that he did not question the right of board members to ask questions on accounting procedures or bidding procedures but he deplored the presentation of questions on these issues in such a manner that would lead the community to question the honesty and integrity of members of the administration.

Following this discussion President Thompson recessed the Board, while members discussed approval of the architect contract for the renovation of South High School. Recess was called at 11:05 p.m. and the Board reconvened in public session at 12:38 p.m. At that time, the Board approved the architect's contract with Linn Smith, Demiene, Adams, Inc. for professional services for the renovation of South High subject to the approval of the architects to the changes in wording made by the Board.

Unfortunately, the major part of Monday night's meeting was another classic example of the waste of valuable time and talent of school administrators.

Blue Devils Retain First Place; Bomb Wyandotte

By Steve Weyhing

By crushing winless Wyandotte, 78-57, Friday, January 8, the South Blue Devils remained in a tie for first place with Royal Oak Dundero in the Bi-County League. Both schools have 3-0 records while Dundero beat a powerful Highland Park team, 66-50, the same night. South must now face Highland Park Friday, January 15.

The Parkers are not especially big, but they're fast and have an excellent defense. In one game they held Fordson to 35 points. Highland Park, with 2-1 record, holds third place in the league with Monroe placing fourth while Fordson and Wyandotte are tied for

By Paul Boehmer

The St. Paul Lakers, led by great defense and intimidating size, defeated Roseville Sacred Heart by the score of 67-39. This was the third straight victory for Coach Ed Lauer's team after they got off to one of their most disappointing starts in recent memory.

With 6-foot 10-inch junior Gary Canu sealing up the center, the Lakers held Sacred Heart to only 14 field goals for the entire game. On offense, Canu and 6-foot 4-inch senior Joe Albee proved effective sparks as their rebounding and sharp inside shooting broke the game wide open.

Despite the score, the game wasn't a complete runaway. The Lakers led by only five points at the half, and two of those points were provided by an astounding last second desperation shot by senior Pat Koepsal. The second half was a different story, however, as the Lakers poured on the steam and outscored their opponents 19-4. This outburst was spurred not only by Canu and Albee but by the outside shooting of Koepsal and senior Ed Moran.

The fourth quarter found the bench emptied as the Laker second team continued to build the lead the first team had provided. The game ended with 11 of the 13 members of the team scoring. Joe Albee's 20 points and Gary Canu's 16 were good for game scoring honors, but Canu also grabbed 11 rebounds and, with his amazing reach, blocked eight shots.

This victory raised the Laker's league record to four wins and three losses and left Sacred Heart with a two and five record.

Winter Concert At South High

The Bands and Orchestra of South High School will appear in their annual Winter Concert on Wednesday evening, January 20, at 8 o'clock. The concert will be performed at Parcels Middle School Auditorium and will be highlighted by a performance of several major musical compositions seldom performed by high school students.

The Symphony Orchestra's portion of the program will include a performance of J. S. Bach's BRANDENBURG CONCERTO NO. 5 with flute, violin, and piano in the solo roles. Deborah Fisher, Nancy Homfield, and Kendall Barker are all seniors at South High School, and all are National Merit Scholarship Semifinalist winners. Each of the featured soloists has a strong background in music, having attended summer music camps, studied privately with outstanding teachers, and performed with a number of top ensembles.

The orchestra will also perform the first movement of the Franck SYMPHONY IN D MINOR.

The Concert Band will fill the middle portion of the program swinging out with ALLA BAROCCO a folk rock set for the modern concert band.

The Symphony Band will close the concert with five varied selections ranging from traditional band music to some of the newest arrangements. The groups are under the direction of Russell D. Reed.

Tickets will be available at the door or in advance from band and orchestra members. Adults $1.00, students 50c.

"The program has great appeal to both young and old. I believe the groups are ready to present one of the best Winter Concerts ever," Reed said.

BOWLERS' BOWLER

Mary "Bo" Williams, of 859 Nottingham, bowled a 288 game Tuesday, January 6 at the Thunderbowl Ladies Majors in Lincoln Park.

The teams only loss came at the hands of the Fraser North Stars, losing by a score of 3-2 with only 46 seconds left. Since then the Eagles have beaten the Grosse Pointe Rangers, 1-0, Thursday, December 10; the Fraser Hawks, 2-1, Wednesday, December 30; and the Fraser Blues, 1-0, on Wednesday, January 6.

In both the Ranger and Blues games, the winning goal was scored by Todd Tobin, assisted by Mark Santl, the team's leading scorer. In the win over the Hawks, it was Stever Sicklesteel's blazing slap-shot from the point that won the game.

The backbone of the team, this year, has been the goal-tending which has allowed only nine goals in eight games. Eric Franz shut-out the Rangers and played just as superbly in the Hawks' game. Brad Mitseff held the team in the game when they defeated the Blues, 1-0.

Supplying much of the team's spirit this season has been the roughness and leadership of Rusty Green.

D'you Know That?

Talk about labor-saving devices — the CUCKOO BIRD must have 'em all beat!
Rather than build her own nest, the Cuckoo hen lays eggs in other birds' nests. The rightful owners, thus deceived into accepting her eggs as their own, assume the task of hatching and rearing her chicks.
She glides over an unguarded nest, settles upon it, and lays an egg. Then, lest the returning host gets wise to the ruse, she picks up one of her host's eggs with her bill, and flies off with it — leaving the nest with the same egg count.

GP Park Judge Kept Very Busy
Park Municipal Judge William E. Speer had his busiest month of the year, and one of the biggest since he took office. During December, he heard a total of 149 cases, involving charges against persons accused of violating traffic and city ordinances and state laws.
The number of cases heard by the judge would have been higher, but 48 persons failed to appear in court in answer to summonses. Bench warrants were signed for their arrests.
Of the number that did show up, 73 were found guilty as charged and paid fines; six were sentenced to jail; nine were given suspended sentences; and one person, found guilty of possession of narcotic paraphernalia, has appealed his sentence.
In other matters, five persons had their operators' licenses suspended by the court, five persons were placed on probation; nine were found not guilty; three matters were dismissed because of lack of complainants; 23 notices were sent to Lansing, where licenses will be suspended by the Secretary of State's Office; and two persons were referred to the SOS for re-examination.
During December, Judge Speer heard one case regarding a violation of a state statute, of which the accused was found guilty; and in another state matter, one person was found guilty and placed on probation for one year, during which period restitution of damages must be made.

Bruins Winners In Ice Tourney

By Thomas Kydd
The Grosse Pointe Squirt Travel Team roared into the new year by winning the Holiday Hockey Tournament at Fraser Hockeyland and skated off with the first regular season tournament trophy to be won by a Grosse Pointe Association team.

Fresh from tournament action in London, Ontario over the Christmas weekend, the Bruins took on Livonia's Travel Team New Year's Day in the first round and skated off 4-1 winners. Jeff Logan turned the "Hat Trick" on three goals, two assisted by Dave Carron and added the fourth goal with Logan assisting.

Saturday, January 2, the semi-final game saw the Bruins take on the Warren Rebels. Dave Carron's goal, assisted by Steve Olson and Don Orlando, gave the Bruins the lead which was never given up despite the scrappiness of the Rebel skaters. The Carron-Logan combination clicked two more times with each assisting the other's goals as the Bruins shutout the opponents 3-0 and goalie Cab Morris added another to his growing list of perfect games. Close checking by the defensive trio of Mike Mallard, John Hastings and Steve Olson held the Rebels at bay allowing them only six shots on goal.

Sunday afternoon the Squirts handcuffed the Mutual Supply Giants of St. Clair Shores by a score of 4-1. Jeff Kydd opened the scoring for the Bruins by backhanding a passout from Jeff Johnston. Dave Carron lit the goal light two more times on assists from Steve Olson and assisted Jeff Logan on another goal.

During the same weekend the Bruins took time out from Tournament play to win a Tri-County League game Saturday morning, January 2, by mauling the Sabers Hockey Club by a 14-0 score.

Little Grid Loop Holds Elections

The 1971 Grosse Pointe Little League Football slate has been set at the December meeting of the Board of Directors. The following executive operating officers were elected:

President, Dr. Donald McLean; first vice-president, Harry Chancey; second vice-president, Mike Raymond; secretary, John Wade; treasurer, Dr. Thomas Neumann; athletic director, Warren Anderson; league representatives, Magruder Jones and Donald Armbruster.

The Grosse Pointe Little League gridlers include boys from both the Park and the City. Age eligibility ranges from 9 through 12. Approximately 200 boys participate in this football program which is financed primarily by an annual candy sale. Registration this year is planned to take place in the spring and notices will be issued at a future date giving full particulars.

The little gridlers participate in seven games played both at home and away. All practice sessions and home games take place at George Elworthy Field.

Women Will Learn To Administer CPR

Harper Hospital Auxiliary Sponsors Special Class; Pre-Registrants Include Many Prominent Pointers

Some of Detroit's great ladies and social leaders, members and guests of the Women's Auxiliary of Harper Hospital, are planning to learn Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation (CPR), a life-saving technique for victims of sudden heart stoppage.

The class, which includes lectures, an instructional movie and practice in the performance of heart massage and mouth-to-mouth breathing on manikins, is scheduled for 1:30 o'clock Monday, January 18, in the Fourth Floor Morris Auditorium of the Hospital's Murphy Building.

It is one of a series offered by the Michigan Heart Association which provides equipment and a certified teacher for organizations and clubs. The manikins have gauges which indicate when CPR is being properly applied.

Mrs. Robert Gerisch, of Bloomfield Hills, president, and Mrs. Earl Merritt, of Lincoln road, program chairman of the Auxiliary, both wives of staff physicians at the Hospital, expect 75 women at the class.

Women already registered include Mrs. Richard Webber, Mrs. Boyd Stockmeyer, Mrs. Emmett McNamara, Mrs. Alfred Glancy, Jr., Mrs. Ray Eppert, Mrs. Joseph B. Schlotman, Mrs. Robert Semple, Mrs. Frank Voorheis, Mrs. George Cartmill, wife of the president of Harper Hospital, Mrs. William Baldwin, Mrs. Gordon Scott, Mrs. Vincent Gallant and Mrs. Charles Dalgleish.

Mrs. Gerisch's husband, a well-known heart specialist, and George A. West, a Harper inhalation therapist, will teach the class.

"I had to get my husband to give the lectures because the other doctors I asked referred me back to him," explains Mrs. Gerisch.

"I think every person working in a hospital should be aware of CPR if only for personal emergencies," she added. "And it is amazing how many people, including those working in hospitals, don't know about it."

"At my mother's funeral nine years ago, my 65-year-old aunt had a heart stoppage during services. She would have died if my husband had not been there and applied CPR to her and brought her back."

"And some years ago the president of the Harper Hospital Auxiliary, representing Harper at a banquet of the Michigan Association of Hospital Auxiliaries, collapsed and would have died if we had not cleared her airway, which is the first step in CPR."

Dr. Harold E. DePree, president of the Association, a Michigan United Fund agency, explains that CPR must be taught, because if improperly applied it is useless.

"A heart stoppage will cause fatal brain damage within a very few minutes. CPR circulates enough oxygenated blood throughout the body to delay brain damage until the victim can be taken to a hospital equipped to restart the heart."

"But to do this, the hands must be properly placed over the heart and enough mouth-to-mouth breathing pressure must be administered. A most important act is clearing the throat so the air can reach the lungs."

Among the causes of sudden heart stoppage are electrocution, drowning, overdoses of drugs and heart attacks.

CPR practice is usually done on the floor, which gives the "victim" a firm foundation.

Olympia Books Tennis Classic

Defeated by his countryman, Rod Laver at Madison Square Garden on January 2, Ken Rosewall will appear at Olympia on Saturday, January 23 at 7 p.m. to go up against one of the survivors of the January 21 match in New York.

It is assured that Rosewall, Arthur Ashe and Detroit challenger Tom Okker will be on hand in Detroit when the first doubleheader of this multi-city grind will be presented. The Tennis Champions Classic will be going to seven cities coast-to-coast and at $10,000 per match this has to be the most financially rewarding tournament in the long history of tennis.

This is a winner-take-all, five-set, sudden death deal with the winner getting $10,000 and the loser a handshake and polite applause. It will be a "Classic" in the true sense of that much over-worked word, with the world's best battling it out and putting their skill on the line for the chance to go on to the semi-finals and finals with increasing purses at stake.

Since the total amount involved is $210,000 there is bound to be a certain psychological effect on the individual players, but it is a tribute to their professionalism that they are able to take each game in stride and come up with their best.

Tickets for this doubleheader are priced at $7, $5 and $3. They are on sale at Gray's Sport Shop at 106 Kercheval.

Tennis Players Bid to Meeting

A group exploring the possibility of providing an outlet for those interested in tennis to engage in sanctioned tournaments around Detroit and the state will be meeting Tuesday, January 19, at 8 p.m. at the Neighborhood Club to discuss problems involved in organizing and financing.

The group first started meeting several months ago when tennis enthusiasts expressed an interest in forming an organization operating during the summer months in which young tennis aspirants may compete for awards with other players their age from other cities.

The group, headed by Ray Senkowiak, extended an open invitation to all those interested to attend.

Children's Dance Classes Set At Unitarian Church

Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church, in Jaume avenue is the place where Pointers can register their children for a dance class led by Jennifer Pethick. Mrs. Pethick, a fellow Pointer, is a professional dancer who practices her craft in the metropolitan area.

She is a veteran teacher of the dance to children and adults and has conducted other classes at the Church.

Registration date is tomorrow, Friday, January 15, in the Annex of the Unitarian Church behind the main building.

Ages 10 to 14 may register at 4:15; six to nine at 5 o'clock. Cost of 10 lessons is $30.

School Fight

Bryant, successor to Robert E. Waldron, is expected to re-introduce the December 9 Waldron resolution which was referred to the House Education Committee during the last session. Mr. Bryant had drafted the original resolution which would permit the schools a 5 percent revenue increase in 1971-72 over 1970-71, if the public approves millage.

Restricts Spending

As it is currently written (and interpreted by many officials), subsection 6 of section 8 b sets a $945 per pupil total revenue figure from local income tax, local property tax, and general state aid. Excluded from this figure are allowances for transportation and special education. In Grosse Pointe this amounts to approximately $20 per pupil.

"Although Public Act 100 contains a provision for a local income tax to support public education, no legislation was passed giving Boards of Education the power to enact one," Dr. Anderson explained. "Our current estimates indicate that the loss of $200 per pupil in revenue would necessitate a reduction of approximately 220 employees."

By state law, those on contract must be given notice by April 17, 60 days prior to the end of the school year," Dr. Anderson said. "Therefore, immediate action is necessary," he added.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Sir: The original of the enclosed copy of a letter to the Council of the City of Grosse Pointe was mailed to them today, and I would earnestly request that the copy of this letter be published in the next issue of The Grosse Pointe News.

I was recently invited by the Fine Arts Theatre group to play my recorder (a wooden, flute-like instrument) at one of their productions at the end of this month. I had not yet definitely accepted, but I was pleased to have been invited.

As a matter of fact, I rather feel that The Grosse Pointe News should make a complete investigation and determine how much has been spent up to this date in this particular litigation.

This type of prehistoric thinking has undermined our whole society and may well destroy us. I could not help but wonder if a black person might be invited if the musicians remained backstage.

Thanking you, I am, Frank A. Seaver

Only two words - "No Negroes" - and they imply so much. Lord help us.

To the Honorable Members of the City Council of the City of Grosse Pointe, 17147 Maumee Grosse Pointe, Michigan 48230 Gentlemen:

In the December 31 "Public Schools in Focus" column by Dr. Theos Anderson, a small error occurred. The word "not" was omitted from a sentence stating: "the teaching profession across the nation seems more than ever united in its conviction that its members will subsidize the educational process through acceptance of inferior working conditions and salaries."

You have probably spent more than $20,000 to prevent the expansion of Bon Secours Hospital and we are entitled to an accounting of these expenses, and you are at this stage a three-time loser, twice in the Circuit Court, and once in the Court of Appeals.

I am positive the community would not desire this of their educators. They can rightfully expect their professional teachers to put forth the best possible educational program, but without inferior working conditions and salaries.

Once again you are faced with a decision as to what should be done. Why not for once accept the fact that as a legislative body your powers are limited by the Constitution of the State, and that you owe a duty to other taxpayers in this City to wisely conserve their funds.

Regardless of a person's vocation, we each share the load of taxes and dollar subsidies to presently finance the existing educational process.

If once again this small group endeavor to force you to spend another $10,000 or more on fruitless litigation just to delay the expansion of the hospital, let it be published in The Grosse Pointe News immediately how much is to be spent for this purpose and the opinion of the City Attorney as to the likelihood of reversing this recent decision of the Court. At least educating the Junior High Schoolers of Wayne County on the dangers and perils of the use of narcotic drugs. Through his unique program of showing the kids "what it's really like," he has brought the message to more than 70,000 youngsters during the year of 1970.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard
As usual, at the beginning of each year, various book reviewers like to pick the dozen or so "best books" of the past year. I have checked the listings of one of the Detroit Sunday papers, TIME magazine, and the NEW YORK TIMES Book Review Section and have come up with the following entries.

It would seem only fair to start off with several titles that were included on all three lists. In the fiction category, Eudora Welty's LOSING BATTLES won triple votes. It is an exuberant comedy of a family gathering in northeast Mississippi during the parched 1930's. It is probably Miss Welty's most ambitious work — farcical, joyous, humane and touching.

Another of this genre is John Updike's BECH: A BOOK. Here we have a satire of a composite Jewish novelist who is on a cultural-exchange mission behind the Iron Curtain. Updike delivers a spoof of the government-intellectual complex.
The only non-fiction book for the triple crown is Albert Speer's INSIDE THE THIRD REICH. This is a memoir of a Hitler intimate who did not question the philosophy and acts of Nazism until its world was collapsing, and this, of course, arouses an ambivalence in the reader. The author seems to have known Hitler the private man: the pettiness of his daily life, the grotesque intrigues of his associates. This may very well turn out to be the most important single source of personal information on Hitler that we will see.

Now, let us examine those books which received two votes. The first (fiction) is Joan Didion's PLAY IT AS IT LAYS (now on our library). It is a short, grim but powerful tale of a young actress teetering on the edge of sanity as she breaks with the world of evil.
Another title in this grouping is James MacGregor Burns' ROOSEVELT: SOLDIER OF FREEDOM, and is the concluding volume of a biography of this famous man. Here we have a scholarly dramatization of F.D.R.'s leadership in World War II. The Roosevelt that this author portrays is a political genius who dominates an array of violently partisan opponents as he organizes an unprecedented war effort.

And finally, ONE HUNDRED YEARS OF SOLITUDE by Gabriel Garcia Marquez. This is a teasing chronicle of one family which may or may not represent all of South America.
In the field of education there is Charles Silberman's CRISIS IN THE CLASSROOM: THE MAKING OF AMERICAN EDUCATION, which is certainly a fine example of responsible journalistic inquiry that documents the failure of almost every American school. Rather than a conspiracy against children, Silberman finds a rigid mindlessness in teachers, administrators and parents, all intent on order and discipline.

What's New on THE HILL...

By Pat Rousseau
Ed Pongracz retired last year after celebrating his 40th anniversary in business. His son, Ted, is now president of Pongracz Jewelers. Ted Pongracz, who is a certified gemologist, told us he intends to carry on the tradition of all the services of appraisal, expert watch and jewelry repair and will have the same fine lines of jewelry and silverware. The shop originally was in the Village and moved to 91 Kercheval on the Hill 19 years ago.

Etched With Spring... are the new French china patterns by Ceralene. Brides-to-be will surely want to see them at the Mermaid, 75 Kercheval. P.S. Check the sale again. Don't miss something very special that may have just been added.

Timely Specials... for winter weary skin at Trail Apothecary, 121 Kercheval, are Nettie Rosenstein's specially priced skin freshener, moisturizing lotion for hand and body and hand cream. The seven fifty value in each is now three fifty.

Hamlin's Has... the complete line of imported Knorr Swiss soups. They're delicious. Try leek and potato, pea, chicken or other favorites... thirty-nine cents a packet at 89 Kercheval. TU 5-8400.

January Specials... at The League Shop, 98 Kercheval, feature selective items in furniture, lamps, kitchen ware, gifts, decoratives and top shop items.

The Picard-Norton Semi-Annual Sale... is in full swing. It's a wonderful opportunity to snap up top quality men's fashions at low bargain prices.

Thoughtful Tuck-in... a beautiful handkerchief sent with your Valentine greeting card... find a lovely selection at Virginia Williams, 79 Kercheval. Choose an all-white embroidered linen handkerchief or white with colorful little birds or flowers or an interesting hand blocked print. Prices start at a dollar twenty-five.

Favorite Features... of the Jefferson Avenue Apartments are numerous. As a matter of fact, we have mentioned a dozen or more so far and we like to add there is a covered garage with convenient automatic garage door openers. These luxurious apartments will be completed soon. Many have already been spoken for, but there are still ideal apartments available. Call 882-7708 for more information or stop in to see the beautiful model apartment decorated by Eleanor Schneider, A.I.D. The model is located at East Jefferson on Neff Road.

Brighten Your Life... every Wednesday during lunch at The Bronze Door... 123 Kercheval, when Martha's Closet presents a fashion show featuring wear-now fashions, sunny styles for resort and previews the spring. Call 886-1932 for reservations.

Probate Court Honors Bashara

The Honorable George N. Bashara, Jr. has been elected Presiding Judge of the Wayne County Probate Bench for the year 1971. Judge George N. Bashara, Jr., was sworn in as Judge of Probate for Wayne County, Michigan, by Governor William G. Milliken on June 17, 1969, and re-elected in November, 1970. Born in Detroit, Judge Bashara attended Grosse Pointe public schools and graduated from the University of Michigan in 1956 and the Detroit College of Law in 1960. The Judge is married and the father of a son and daughter. Judge Bashara began the practice of law in 1960. In 1963, Governor Romney appointed him a member of the Michigan Employment Security Appeal Board, and in 1965, he was promoted to the chairmanship of that board, a position he held until his appointment to the Probate Bench. In March of 1970, Judge Bashara instituted a program of educating the Junior High Schoolers of Wayne County on the dangers and perils of the use of narcotic drugs.

Mid-Century Will Hear Judge Paterson Tuesday

Members of the Mid-Century Toastmistress Club are looking forward to their next meeting with guest speaker The Honorable Douglas Paterson who holds court at Grosse Pointe City and at Recorder's Court in Detroit. Judge Paterson will speak on Court Procedure.

Visitors are welcome at the meeting at Cannon Recreation Center, Gullford street, Detroit, next Tuesday, January 19, at 9:30 in the morning. Further information may be obtained by calling VA 2-8867 or 293-7449. The unique training program of Toastmistress Clubs is geared to give confidence and poise to women who, for one reason or another, are called upon to preside at meetings or speak extemporaneously. Each branch Toastmistress Club is limited to a membership of 30 so each member has ample opportunity to learn parliamentary procedure, voice control, presence, speech making and in general how to compose herself with dignity and sureness when "on her feet."

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

Know what's preoccupying Mrs. Harold H. Emmons, of Radnor circle, right now?

U.T.B.U.
How about Robert McKenna? . . . Anita Mikos, of Cranford lane? . . . Dr. and Mrs. Richard Anslow, of Kenwood court? . . . Imogene Little, of St. Paul avenue? . . . Mrs. Jack Rosch, of Grand Marais boulevard? . . . Ken Howard, of Rivard boulevard? . . . Mrs. Milton Volkens, of Meadow lane? . . . Maryanne Klein, of Touraine road? . . . Same thing.

U.T.B.U.

Well, for heaven's sake! WHAT IS U.T.B.U.???

It's IBEX' comedy play, first in many seasons, and it's to be presented Friday, February 19, and Saturday, February 20, at 8:30 o'clock in Fries Auditorium, with proceeds going to FLEC, Grosse Pointe's Family Life Education Council, an independent non-profit organization working to strengthen the family unit through community-oriented programs of information, education and counseling dealing with social issues such as narcotics, alcohol use, parent-child relationships and mental health.

All those preoccupied people mentioned above are appearing in it.

We mentioned Mrs. Emmons first because she's the female lead.

Parts were assigned after a casting session, involving IBEX members, husbands and friends, over at the Ted Ewalds' home in Moross road.

Tickets are on sale now, at $3 (general admission), $5 (patron) and $25 (sponsor). You can get them, (we advise early reservations: Cast quality alone assures an early sell-out), at TUxedo 4-5525.

Yes . . . But WHAT IS U.T.B.U.??? What does it mean?

The initials stand for "Unhealthy To Be Unpleasant"

And that's all we're going to tell you.

For now.

Lt. Alfred Fisher, III Weds In St. Louis

Claims Barbara Lee Muckerman as His Bride at Saturday Evening Service; Pair Now Vacationing in Virgin Islands

Lieutenant Alfred Joseph Fisher, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Fisher, Jr., of Lakeshore road, claimed Barbara Lee Muckerman, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Richard I. C. Muckerman, of St. Louis, Mo., as his bride Saturday, January 9, at an evening ceremony in St. Louis' Our Lady of the Pillar Church.

A reception at Old Warson Country Club, St. Louis, followed the 7 o'clock rites at which The Reverend Bernard A. Kramer, S.M., presided.

The newlyweds are vacationing in the Virgin Islands and will live in Fayetteville, N.C., while he is stationed at Fort Bragg.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory peau de sole gown featuring a bodice of re-embroidered Alencon lace and a full Court train. Her Cathedral length mantilla was fashioned of matching lace and she carried white Denon and white Moth orchids.

Diane H. Muckerman, in a hot pink chiffon frock styled with a sleeveless Empire bodice and straight skirt and back panels of loose chiffon, carrying fuschia azalea blossoms and gardenias was her sister's honor attendant.

Bridesmaids were the bridegroom's sisters Mrs. F. Chrysler, Jr., and Christine F. Fisher, Mary M. Cawley, of Chevy Chase, Md., Deborah J. Donegan, of St. Louis, and Deborah M. Simpson, of Los Angeles, Calif.

They wore fuschia chiffon and carried pale pink azaleas and gardenias.

her mother, the former MARY ELIZABETH SEPIC, daughter of the MERKO M. SEPIC, of Barclay road. Grandmother Sepic too was christened in the gown. Paternal grandparents are the PETER J. LaFLEURS, of South Edgewood drive.

GEORGE S. ROOT, son of MR. and MRS. GEORGE R.

Flower girl Margo C. Muckerman, another sister of the bride, was dressed in the old-fashioned, full-skirted frock and pantaloons of white organdy trimmed with lace and eyelet embroidery first worn in her mother's wedding, and worn in all the family weddings since.

Narrow pink ribbons were woven through the beading at her collar, waistline, sleeves and pantaloons.

Matching ribbon accented her bonnet and she carried a white basket filled with pale-to-deep-pink roses and rose petals.

The bridegroom asked William R. Chapin to act as his best man. Ushering were Michael R. Fisher, the bridegroom's brother, Jack F. Chrysler, Richard C. Muckerman, II, brother of the bride, Miguel Dela Campa and Francis Fabrizio, of Washington, D.C., Thomas' Farrell, Jr., of Drexel Hill, Pa., Edsel B. Ford, II, Edward D. Green, of Palm Beach, Fla., James F. McDonald III, and Lance Olson.

The bride's mother chose a floor length gown of blue and gold lame brocade, the bridegroom's mother a costume of lime-to-deep green chiffon with long Renaissance sleeves.

ROOT, of Lochmoor boulevard, has been awarded the Bachelor of International Management degree at Thunderbird Graduate School of International Management, Glendale, Ariz. He's a graduate of Michigan State University, where he majored in Labor and Industrial Relations.

Mellen-Woolley Rites Revealed

Vacationing in California, where they will make their home in Mountain View, are Mr. and Mrs. W. Andrew Mellen who were married Friday evening, January 8, at St. Gerard's Catholic Church, Detroit.

For the 7:30 o'clock rites the bride, the former Bonnie Jane Woolley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur V. Woolley, of Detroit, chose a gown of lace-appliqued marquisette with a long, lace-trimmed veil.

She was attended by her sister, Cynthia Woolley, as maid of honor and bridesmaids Laurie Woolley, another sister, and Peggy Mellen, the bridegroom's sister, whose floor length frocks featured long-sleeved marquisette bodices and dark olive green velvet skirts.

Thomas M. Mellen was his brother's best man. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Mellen, of Balfour road.

Michael McKenzie and Gary Willis ushered.

The bride's mother wore a street length aqua silk ensemble, the bridegroom's mother a mink-collared blue brocade costume suit.

Cymbrie Grace Pratt Wed In December

Speaks Vows to Chester Marvin Trepczynski, Jr., at Afternoon Ceremony in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church; Pair Vacation in Florida Keys

Bagpiper Dale Brown piped Cymbrie Grace Pratt and her bridesmaids down the aisle of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, to the tunes of traditional Scots airs including "Highland Wedding," "Skye Boat Song" and "Westing Home," Saturday, December 19, when Miss Pratt, daughter of the Edwin S. Pratts, of Neff road, became the bride of Chester Marvin Trepczynski, Jr.

After the 3:30 o'clock ceremony Mr. Brown piped guests into the reception in the Church's Fellowship Hall, where plates hand-painted by the bride's maternal grandmother were featured on the main table covered by her paternal grandmother's cut embroidered cloth.

For the service at which The Reverend Mitchell presided, the former Miss Pratt chose an ivory satin Princess gown with a front lace panel. Ribbons cascaded from her crown of white mums to her hem and she carried white poinsettias.

Oberlin College student Terry Anne Pratt, who was her sister's honor attendant, and bridesmaids Elaine Wanda Trepczynski, the bridegroom's sister, and Ellen Chapman, of River Forest, Ill., cousin of the bride, also carried white poinsettias.

Their Princess frocks were fashioned of royal blue satin and velvet streamers cascaded from their mum crowns to their hems.

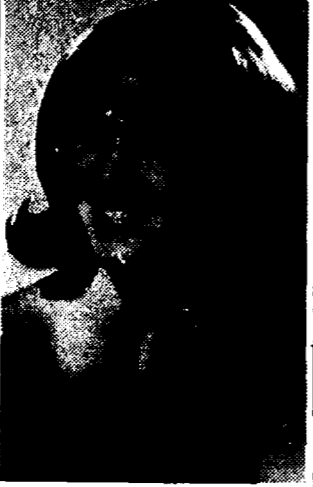

John Vincent Trepczynski was his brother's best man. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Marvin Trepczynski, of Detroit.

James Boylan and Norman Nanninger seated the guests.

The bride's mother chose a pink crepe costume and a white orchid corsage, the bridegroom's mother a brown velvet ensemble with a corsage of brown mums and gold roses.

The newlyweds have returned from a vacation in the Florida Keys and are making their home in the Wayne State University area while he completes work on his Ph.D. and she on her Masters degree, both in the field of Anthropology.

Ambassador Feted By Swedish Council

Many Pointers Attend Party at Trombley Road Home of Sixteen Ehrlings After Detroit Symphony's Saturday Performance

Members of Detroit-Swedish Council honored the Ambassador of Sweden Hubert de Besche and Mrs. de Besche at a reception immediately following the regular Saturday night concert of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. The Trombley road home of Mr. and Mrs. Sixteen Ehrling was the reception scene.

Prior to the concert Mr. and Mrs. Marvin R. Anderson, of Deeplands road, and Mrs. and Mrs. Ernest A. Jones hosted a dinner at the DAC for Ambassador and Mrs. de Besche (although, running late, they could not make the club).

Present were Consul General and Mrs. Bo Jarntstedt, of Chicago, Mrs. Sixteen Ehrling, (he was conducting, therefore not at the dinner), Mrs. Gunnar Karlstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Nelson, Jr., Consul and Mrs. Edward Johansson and Mr. and Mrs. Nils R. Johanson who recently moved to Lake court from their home in New York. The Nils R. Johansons, (she is the former Josephine Alger), are personal friends of Ambassador and Mrs. de Besche.

Members of the Swedish Community honored Maestro Ehrling with a gift in the form of money for the Symphony. The Ambassador presented to Mr. Ehrling a leatherbound book containing 779 names of those who had made the contribution possible.

Among Pointers at the reception were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Semple, Mr. and Mrs. Arvid Lundell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Koebel, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Nelson, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Hadley, Mrs. George J. Baer, Mrs. Carl B. Parsons and her son John T. Parsons, of Traverse City, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cassman, Mr. and Mrs. Nils F. Johanson and Mr. and Mrs. John B. Olson.

At a luncheon Sunday at the Sheraton Cadillac the Ambassador spoke before some 300 people, then presented to the Mayor of Detroit Roman Gribbs, to Marvin R. Anderson, president of Detroit-Swedish Council, and to Ernest A. Jones, chairman of Saturday's events, the Order of Vasa on behalf of His Majesty the King of Sweden for the outstanding contributions they have made to further relations between U.S.A. and Sweden.

For this luncheon John B. Olson was honorary chairman and Oscar A. Lundin introduced the Ambassador.

Talbert To Talk To GOP Women

Bob Talbert, popular newspaper columnist and comic strip author, will address the Thursday, January 21, meeting of the Women's Republican Club of Grosse Pointe. His talk follows a 12:30 o'clock luncheon at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

It is expected that Mr. Talbert's talk will be titled "Where Have All The Heroes Gone?" but with Talbert, one never knows.

His talks, like his columns, cover many subjects. The title of his talk is the same as the record for which he wrote the words.

Mr. Talbert was born in South Carolina in 1936. After graduating from the University of South Carolina he began his newspaper career at the State Newspaper in Columbia, S.C.

He covered just about every position on that paper, and was awarded first prize in every category from sports to feature writing. The South Carolina Press Association made the awards.

He came to Detroit and joined the Detroit Free Press staff in 1968. He has already been nominated for two Ernie Pyle newspaper awards.

Mr. Talbert is married to the former Beryl Block. They have two children, a son, Jason, and a daughter, Dafna. (Talbert says one of them is adopted but he forgets which one).

Reservations to hear Talbert and/or attend the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. Bryan Melvin, 881-1482, or Mrs. Frank Welsher, 881-7897.

Plan Pettipointe Quester Meeting

The Pettipointe Chapter of Questers will hold a Wednesday, January 20, meeting at the home of Mrs. Jean Cornille on University place. Guest speaker Mrs. Peter Chandler will discuss "Historical Staffordshire".

Grosse Pointe South High School teacher JAMES HERACLES KALOGER, of Linville road, has received his Ph.D. from the University of Michigan with a well-researched close-to-home dissertation topic: "Characteristics of Grosse Pointe High School Students in Advanced Placement Programs." Dr. Kaloger earned his Bachelors and Masters degrees at Boston University.

May Bride

KATHRYN LOUISE KOTOWSKI and Keith Wayne Foucher, whose engagement has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard J. Kotowski, of Devonshire road, are planning a May wedding.

The bride-elect and her fiancé, son of the Raymond Fouchers, of Wayburn road, are both seniors at Western Michigan University.

Pointer EDWARD J. SHELTON began freshman studies at the University of Montana last fall.

Gary W. Johns To Claim Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sermilas, of Detroit, announced the engagement of their daughter, Katherine, to Gary W. Johns, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald F. Johns, of Brys drive, on Christmas Eve.

The bride-elect and her fiancé, both Western Michigan University graduates, plan a February 12 wedding.

To Hold Alpha Xi Delta Alumnae Meeting Jan. 18

Grosse Pointe Alumnae of Alpha Xi Delta will meet Monday evening, January 18, in the home of Mrs. John Kirlin in Provincial road. Assisting Mrs. Kirlin as hostesses will be Mrs. James Brown and Mrs. Marion Saille. Theme of the meeting is Fraternity Education.

Faculty Wives Gather Monday

Grosse Pointe Faculty Wives welcome Mrs. Jack Leithausser, reviewing "Bears in My Kitchen" by Margaret Merrill this Monday, January 18. The evening begins with dessert at 7:30 o'clock.

The fellow with pull is sure to get ahead—unless he pulls in the wrong direction.

the Grosse Pointe Central Library next Thursday morning, January 21.

Suitcase in hand, of course.

No... He's NOT planning to spend the night, (that's a double negative, we know, but we're sure you get the meaning; besides, it READS more forcefully than "Yes... He's not planning to spend the night.")

Mr. Snyder's suitcase contains, not pajamas, toothbrush and a clean shirt, but his famous who-needs-litter? machine—a reconvered garbage grinder and vacuum cleaner that chews up bottles, reducing them to sand.

It's not exactly HIS machine. He borrowed it from the Owens-Illinois Glass Company, (it's valued at $250), to prove his point: The need for tighter controls on throwaway bottles that litter highways, vacant lots and private lawns.

Representative Snyder's bill requiring anyone selling carbonated beverages or beer to redeem returnable deposit bottles of the same brands passed the House last year but was buried in Senate Committee.

He plans to reintroduce it this year.

The Beautification Council meeting starts at 9:30 in the morning. Shortly thereafter Mr. Snyder opens his suitcase, and the chewing and spewing demonstration will begin...

Pointe Symphony Women

Members of the Grosse Pointe Symphony Women's Committee gather at the Country Club next Thursday for their annual luncheon meeting, beginning with an 11 o'clock business session and featuring a post-luncheon program by Helene Nordstrom and Elinor Lorentzen, playing music for four hands on one piano.

Program chairman Mrs. Robert L. Kaiser arranged for the guest artists' appearance. Hostesses will be the Mesdames Jerome Bennon, L. Gaylor Hulbert, Clarence A. Kramer, Ernest P. Lamb and Earl G. Meyer. Mrs. Edward Fromm, of Seminole avenue, Detroit, WA 5-9009, is accepting luncheon reservations at $5 per person through Monday. Guests are welcome.

An Especially Interesting Speaker

Former State Senator Lorraine Beebe will speak before a joint meeting of Christ Church's Episcopal Churchwomen and Young Episcopal Churchwomen next Tuesday, January 19, at 10:30 in the morning in the Church Undercroft, discussing subjects concerning women, with particular emphasis on abortion.

She'll conduct a question-and answer session after her talk and will be available for informal discussion at the luncheon following the meeting.

Theatre Arts Curtain Going Up

The Players' Playhouse curtain rises tomorrow afternoon on a program of three one-act plays presented by Theatre Arts Club of Detroit. Appearing in "Two Women and a Telephone," directed by Mrs. Murray Young are Mrs. James B. Doll and Mrs. Imogene Little.

The Mesdames Bernard Whitley, David Kludt, Milton Volkens, Eldon Baumgarten, Joseph Mengden and Mayne Glock trod the boards in "Gloria Mundi," directed by Mrs. Arnold Combrick-Graham and Mrs. R. Sidney Sinclair, and Mrs. James B. Steep, Mrs. Wilfred Harrison and Mrs. Charles Hicks comprise the cast of "The Purple Door Knob," directed by Mrs. Russel McLaughlin. Producers are Mrs. William Evans and Mrs. Joseph Jennings.

Cory O'Donnell Will Take Bride

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Moyer, of Columbus, O., have announced the engagement of their daughter Marianne to Cory J. O'Donnell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael P. O'Donnell, former Pointers who now make their home in Cincinnati, O., and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Hickey, of Edgemont Park.

Both the bride-elect and her fiancé are students at Ohio State University.

Slate Welcome Wagon Meeting

The Welcome Wagon Club of Grosse Pointe and Harper Woods will hold a special luncheon honoring its past presidents next Thursday, January 21. Hostesses will be current board members.

Past presidents to be honored include Mrs. Richard S. Smith, Mrs. John Heamon, Mrs. Robert Prince, Mrs. Darwin Tuttle, Mrs. Ben F. Stormes, Mrs. John Hoskins and Mrs. H. W. Burnett.

Other honored guests will be Mary Rose Palczynski and Michelle L. Willson, recipients of the Welcome Wagon Club's 1970-71 nursing scholarships.

Scheduled for noon, the luncheon will be served buffet style in the lower-level Undercroft of Christ Episcopal Church in Grosse Pointe boulevard. Ample parking is available in the lot directly behind the main Church building.

All members and guests are welcome and are urged to make their reservations early. Any new resident of Grosse Pointe or Harper Woods who has been called upon by Welcome Wagon International is invited to make a reservation.

Accepting reservations through Monday, January 18, are Mrs. Harry Parker, 885-1824, and Mrs. J. E. Blackburn, 884-2428. The cost is $2.50, payable at the luncheon.

The last Welcome Wagon meeting was held in Alger House of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial January 7. Forty-seven members and guests were present for brunch, bridge and a travelogue program on Hawaii and the South Pacific. Guests were Mrs. Harold K. Knoff and Mrs. Richard Maxwell. Mrs. Gilbert Gove became a new member.

Hostesses were the Mesdames Walter Stern, Frederick Beck, Jack E. Brown, George Cameron and Jerry Kranz. Bridge hostess was Mrs. Edward L. Minch.

Wayne State University History Professor GOLDWIN SMITH, of Hall place, will direct WSU's 21st annual Leo M. Franklin Memorial Lectures in Human Relations.

While in New York over the holidays MR. and MRS. R. J. FORESMAN and their daughter JOANNE, of Wellington place, attended the International Debutante Ball at the Waldorf as guests of Texas financier IRA G. CORN, JR., whose daughter LAURA was among the young ladies presented.

MR. and MRS. W. E. ALVERSON, of Fowlerville, announce the birth of their first child, AMY REBECCA, December 31. Mrs. Alverson is the former BECKY SCHWARTZ, daughter of MR. and MRS. JAMES C. SCHWARTZ, of Kensington road. Paternal grandparents are the WILLARD ALVERSONS, of Clayton.

AAUW To Hear Talk On Endangered Man

Reservations for Next Thursday's General Meeting Must Be In By Tuesday Evening; Study Groups Gather in Members' Homes

Boyce Rensberger, special science writer for the Detroit Free Press, will address members and guests of the Grosse Pointe Branch of the American Association of University Women next Thursday, January 21, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center. His topic will be "Is Man an Endangered Species?"

An expert in the field of science writing, Mr. Rensberger received his Masters degree from the University of Syracuse where he was awarded a fellowship for Mental Health Education and Science Writers.

He was associated with the Connecticut State Health Department prior to joining the Free Press staff four years ago.

Reservations for the meeting should be called in by Tuesday evening, January 19, to either Mrs. James Brown, 886-7682, or Mrs. Edward Suits, 884-2431.

German folk songs is the theme of AAUW's Folk Music Study Group which meets at the home of Mrs. Leo P. Hardwick in University place Monday, January 18, at 1 o'clock. There will be guitar accompaniment to the songs. Mrs. Joseph A. Cook is in charge of the meeting.

AAUW's Writers' Workshop meets Wednesday, January 20, at 12:45 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Robert Picirelli in Fairway drive.

The Folk Guitar Group will meet for lessons at the home of Mrs. Edward Grenard, of Somerset road, Monday, January 25, at 8 in the evening.

"Down All These Days" and "My Left Foot" by Christy Brown, Ireland's spectacular new writer, will be discussed by Mrs. Burke W. Arehart at a meeting of the Contemporary Literature Study Group. Mrs. Arehart will be hostess at her home in Hamilton court Tuesday, January 26, at 7:45 o'clock. Her co-hostess will be Mrs. Vincent Leonard and Mrs. Alfred Taylor.
