

MONDAY SCHOOL ELECTION DAY

HEADLINES

of the
WEEK
As Compiled by the
Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, March 4

WILLIAM T. PATRICK, JR., president of New Detroit Inc. for the past three years, has resigned. Lawrence Doss, 43, who has been the Board of Education's coordinator for school decentralization for the last year has been named his successor.

GENERAL MOTORS HEIR Stewart Mott, stung by a charge that he assumed a "buy-a-dove" attitude when he offered to back Hubert H. Humphrey's presidential campaign in 1968, claimed Wednesday that the same thing could be said of anyone who supported any anti-war candidate. Mott was criticized by Joseph A. Califano, Jr., general counsel for the Democratic National Committee, for offering Humphrey financial help from himself and a group of Eugene McCarthy supporters if Humphrey would assume a more anti-war stance on Vietnam.

Friday, March 5

PRESIDENT NIXON SAID Thursday night that the South Vietnamese operation in southern Laos has gone well and assured that American troop withdrawals from Vietnam can proceed on schedule or ahead of schedule. "This means our Vietnamization program is a success," Mr. Nixon said at a news conference from the White House.

THE TURKISH PEOPLES LIBERATION ARMY, which has threatened to kill four kidnaped U.S. airmen unless paid $400,000, said Thursday night that it would wait until Friday at 11 p.m. for the ransom.

Saturday, March 6

THE DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION rebuffed auto makers Friday and ordered automatic safety devices on all 1974 model cars to save front-seat occupants from serious injury in a head-on barrier crash at 30 miles an hour. The department's final ruling on so-called passive restraint systems rejected pleas from manufacturers for delays of up to two years. It also requires passive safety systems in 1976 models that prevent serious injury to all occupants, front and back, in any type of crash up to 30 miles an hour.

Sunday, March 7

SOUTH VIETNAMESE TROOPS struck a blow at enemy supply lines Saturday, seizing Sepone after heavy fighting around that hub of the Ho Chi Minh Trail in southern Laos, Saigon headquarters announced. With a big assist from U.S. bombers and gunships pounding the North Vietnamese inside Sepone before the ground thrust, the South Vietnamese drove the enemy into retreat, a spokesman said.

Monday, March 8

THE MIDDLE EAST ceasefire that began last August came to an end early Monday with Arab forces on combat footing but no sign that hostilities would be resumed at once. Hopes for an extension of the ceasefire were dashed just hours before the deadline when Egyptian President Anwar Sadat said in a broadcast to his nation that Egypt's armed forces no longer would be bound by its terms. Israel has expressed a willingness to extend it indefinitely.

Tuesday, March 9

JOE FRAZIER won a unanimous decision over Muhammad Ali Friday night in the "fight of the century" for the heavyweight championship of the world in Madison Square Garden before some 20,455 roaring fans. Frazier won cleanly on the cards of all three officials.

HAROLD LLOYD, whose portrayals of a bumbling, bespectacled youth in impossible situations made him one of the great comics of silent films and early talkies, died Monday at the age of 77.

School Board Nit-Picking Under Attack

Ways to Combat Alleged Vicious Allegations is Major Discussion at Meeting

By Pepper Whitelaw

Once again the issues of "attacks" on school administrators and censorship of printed information distributed to residents of the community by school officials, were major topics under discussion at the regular meeting of the Board of Education on Monday, March 8.

In a formal statement to the Board, president Barbara Thompson said:

"In a statement at the Board of Education meeting of February 8, the Administrators' Association repeated its request of July 30 that the Board of Education adopt new procedures to combat what they called the rising tide of vicious attack upon school personnel and the concerted effort to discredit school officials during that portion of meetings in which the public participates.

"In response to the July 30 letter from the Grosse Pointe Administrative Association, the Board of Education members conferred with central administrators and the attorney on the matter. The President of the Board had discussion with Roger McCaig and Robert Welch; the situation then in question has improved noticeably since that time.

"The administrators' statement of February 8 expressed (Continued on Page 4)

Woods Council Turns Down Primary Election Proposal

By Greg Boyd

After a short discussion at the regular meeting of the Woods City Council, Monday, February 22, a vote was passed to disallow primary elections in the Woods. The motion was passed unanimously except for the vote of councilman William Huetteman.

The primary election defeat followed an editorial by the NEWS recommending a primary after legislation was passed by the state legislature allowing Pointe municipalities to stage their election during the odd years and providing for

School Board Activity And Counseling Center Opens in Village; Seminars In Operation

FLEC Sponsors New Teen Center Which Provides Youth-Oriented Programs and Activities Planned by and for Teenagers

Center Point, a youth activity and counseling center for Pointe teenagers, is now in operation after long months of planning by members of the Family Life Education Council (FLEC) and interested teenagers.

The center, at the corner of Notre Dame and Kercheval, offers a "mixed bag" of activities for young people including evening seminars in art, photography and ecology led by Toni Truesdale, Tom Ballantyne and South High teacher, Gene Wigglesworth.

Future plans include cooking sessions, studies in comparative religions and arts and crafts workshops.

Teen-agers may also drop into the center to play chess or "rap" with their peers.

Also assisting at the center are South High graduate Ted Schmidt, of Hunt Club avenue, who is a 22-year-old Vietnam veteran, and Tom Dunbar, another teacher at South High School. Two adults are on the premises during center hours to assist the teen-agers whenever necessary.

Young people who have been instrumental in organizing the center include Ron Elwort, Eric Goble, Tom Kirby and Peggy Millenbach. More are Karen Nowak, Randy Richner, Marcy McDonald, Peter Byrd and Al Donnell.

One of the center's most successful offerings is the Tuesday, at 7:30 p.m., "Talk Sessions" between teen-agers and adults. These sessions are an outgrowth of the training sessions in which teen-agers and adults participated before the center opened and which continue as another means of communication between adults and teen-agers. The "staff" at a primary, unless the Pointe administrations decide otherwise.

The passage of the bill in effect permitted the Pointe councils of the Park, Farms, and Woods to lengthen their present terms of service from seven months to almost two years. The City was unaffected by this portion of the bill since its elections are already held during the odd years.

By allowing the possibility of combining the local elections with some state elections, the legislature provided the mechanism by which the Pointes (Continued on Page 6)

To Evaluate School Board Candidates

CFE Urging All Seeking Trustee Post to Contact One of Co-Chairman of Large Committee

Grosse Pointe Citizens for Education has completed organization of its 1971 Candidate Evaluation Committee, and urges potential candidates for the June School Board election who are interested in its support to get in touch with one of the co-chairmen.

Laurence Harwood, of Maunee avenue, may be reached at 881-4427, and Dr. Fred Whitehouse, of Blairmore court, at 884-1324.

Almost 90 persons have joined the Candidate Evaluation Committee, which was open to Grosse Pointe residents on payment of CFE dues. The concept of such a committee was originated by CFE shortly after its formation in 1968, to provide a forum where interested citizens could meet with the candidates and evaluate their qualifications.

The center is also open Monday through Thursday from 3 o'clock until 5 o'clock and for regularly scheduled evening seminars.

Center Point is another FLEC-sponsored, youth-oriented activity geared to help strengthen the family unit through programs of education, information and recreation.

Find Two Guilty Of Hitting Police

Two persons charged in separate cases of assaulting Detroit Police officers who had pursued them into the Park for traffic violations committed in Detroit, were sentenced to pay heavy fines and court costs by Park Municipal Judge William E. Speer on Wednesday, March 3.

Reggie Henderson of 11748 Mendota, Detroit, was arrested by Park police on January 22, on complaint of one Detroit patrolman and Troy Lee Adcock of 1300 Bedford, was arrested on February 3, on complaint of another policeman.

Henderson was found guilty of the charge against him and fined $100, and ordered to pay court costs of $25, or serve 30 days in jail. He paid his fine and costs.

Adcock was also found guilty of assaulting a police officer, and was fined $50, and ordered to pay court costs of $25. The alternative was 10 days in the Wayne County Jail. He paid the fine and costs.

Court's Extended Injunction Keeps Buses in Service

Order Forces LS Coach Lines to Remain in Operation Until March 31; Company Officials Announce Five Cent Rate Hike

The Lake Shore Coach Lines, Incorporated, will continue running, at least until March 31, under a court order signed by Wayne County Circuit Judge Thomas Roumell on Thursday, March 4. Shortly after, company officials announced that fares would be increased five cents, effective as of Monday, March 8.

Judge Roumell extended a temporary injunction, issued by Circuit Judge Joseph Sullivan at almost the last minute on Sunday, February 28, which restrained the firm from ending operations until March 4. The company had announced that it would terminate services to commuters in the Pointe and St. Clair Shores, the six communities it serves, after midnight February 28, because of heavy financial losses.

Roumell's decision followed a court hearing, and an hour-long conference with representatives of the Michigan Public Service Commission, the bus company, Detroit, the six Pointes and St. Clair Shores.

Time to Negotiate

When he announced the extension order, Judge Roumell said it was his hope that it would give the Lake Shore additional time to negotiate with the Public Service Commission on new rates, schedules and routes, which would allow it to operate at a profit and, it is hoped, give the bus line more time to bring 21 of its 46 buses up to the safety standards demanded by Detroit. Detroit refused to renew licenses on the 21 buses, which would permit them to operate on Detroit streets.

Lake Shore had petitioned the PSC for permission to go out of business. A public hearing on the petition scheduled for tomorrow, March 21, at 9:30 a.m. in Lansing has been postponed.

John M. Veale, attorney for the bus firm, said that when Judge Roumell extended the injunction, Lake Shore filed an application with PSC, asking for the rate hike.

The attorney said that the raise in fare was suggested by the six communities, but in his opinion, it is not the solution, noting that when the company raised fares 10 cents last summer, it lost $14,000.

Veale also remarked that the six communities had suggested that the lines discontinue services on Saturdays and Sundays, and after 8 p.m. on weekdays, which is being considered. But, he added, the firm has a labor contract that provides for hours to be worked, therefore, "we can't just lay men off."

The city councils of the five Pointes and St. Clair Shores rejected any thought of either purchasing the bus lines and operating it as a jointly owned municipal system, or subsidizing, or loaning money to it.

At a meeting held on Monday, March 8, the Park council received and placed on file a letter from Veale, copies of which he said he had sent to all parties concerned, official- (Continued on Page 3)

West Wayburn Residents Ruled Citizens of GP Park

Residents living in borderline homes on the west side of Wayburn, between Jefferson and Mack avenues, can, if they wish, become citizens of the community of their choice, it was brought out at a Park council meeting held on Monday, March 8.

Park officials had sought a legal opinion from the Secretary of State's Office in Lansing, when 120 residents stormed a meeting held on February 18, to protest the assessment of city income tax levied against them by Detroit. Detroit claimed that because a greater percentage of their homes and property is located in Detroit, the people residing in these houses are considered as being Detroiters and there- (Continued on Page 3)

Voters Told Of Problems Being Faced

Superintendent Theos Anderson Outlines Complex Issues and Uncertainty of Future

Dr. Theos I. Anderson, Superintendent of The Grosse Public School System, said on Monday that timing, present and future state laws, impending legislation in Lansing, and local property assessment were all factors considered in setting the March 15 millage election.

"Although the issues are complex and the future is uncertain, the present situation is by no means beyond the comprehension of interested residents who will take the time to study thoughtfully," Dr. Anderson added.

Next Monday the Board of Education seeks authorization to RENEW the current 2.7 mill levy for 3 years. To solve unexpected problems in 1970-71 (textbooks, possible loss in state aid), the schools had to use non-recurring revenue (phase-out of severance pay, reduction of building and site emergency fund to a precariously low figure) to meet financial obligations. In the future, this will have to come from millage levies.

Would Mean More Cuts
If the 2.7 mill levy does not pass, the school system will be forced to make more drastic curtailments of goods and services than those outlined prior to the March 24, 1970 election.

The Board of Education also seeks authorization of a 1.8 mill levy for one year to 1. Provide funds for the basic increase in expenses of $285,000 outlined in the tentative budget developed on 1970-71 costs.

2. Provide money to enable the school system to meet the inroads of inflation in its non-salary expenses for 1971-72.

3. Attempt to compensate employes for continued inflation.

4. Provide for the increase in the student population resulting from closing of non-public schools known prior to setting the amount of the operating millage.

State Aid Reduced
Dr. Anderson said that the increase in the state equalized valuation of real estate in the district means a decrease of financial aid from the State of Michigan. If the current state aid formula is implemented as it is now written, the Pointe public schools will lose $1 million in state aid for 1971-72 which can only be recovered through a local property tax levy or through increased equivalent in assessed valuation.

The Superintendent added that if the reassessment of property had not occurred, the recommendation for the two ballot propositions would have had to be higher than they are. The rationale for the one-year levy is that perhaps the state aid and legislative situa- (Continued on Page 2)

Valuable Puppy Stolen by Teens

Three youths made off with a Yorkshire terrier puppy from a local pet store Saturday, March 6. The puppy is reportedly worth $250.

Adele Meyer, owner of This 'n That for Pets, 19443 Mack, called Woods police just after 5 p.m. to report that the three youths, two of them girls, opened the door of the dog cage and grabbed the pup before running out of the store and making their getaway in a navy blue car, possibly a Dodge Charger.

One of the girls was said to be tall, with black hair, and wearing a black three-quarter length coat with fake fur. The owner reported the other girl as having a medium build and long honey colored hair. The boy, described as 18 or 19 years old, had light brown hair and was wearing a light tan jacket.

At Monday night's meeting, a letter from James C. Chapman, elections specialist, was read to the council by City Clerk Nunzio Ortisi, which stated that as far as Michigan is concerned, the decision in which city to register is up to the householders. The letter reads as follows:
"We have checked the applicable laws and cases on the (Continued on Page 4)

The proverbial good fellow is a guy who has nothing and wants to share it with you. Have confidence in others—and you'll be rewarded by others having confidence in you.

School Election Monday

(Continued from Page 1) tions may have clarified themselves by then. Commenting on the election date, Dr. Anderson explained that to comply with Michigan law, the schools must dismiss contract employees whose services it cannot afford next year by mid-April, 30 days before the end of the school year. For this reason, the public has been asked to ballot on March 15 so the schools' staff will have time to plan adequately for 1971-72.

Public Act 100
Dr. Anderson said that staff and program curtailments would have to be considered if sub-section 6 of section 8b of Public Act 100 is not amended or if the millage fails. If the state-imposed limitation on per pupil revenue is not altered, the system will be forced to cut approximately 250 employees for 1971-72 because its revenues would be cut approximately $3 million. And if the two ballot propositions do not pass, the schools would have to curtail the staff and program to the extent of $2 million for the coming year.

If Public Act 100 is not amended and the limitation holds (or if the proposed operational millage fails) the Board of Education will have to answer a number of difficult questions and to assign priorities to its proposed expenditures. The possibilities closely parallel those studied before the 1970 curtailments.

Some of the Questions
For example: Shall class size be increased at all levels of instruction—kindergarten through senior high school? Shall the students' school day be shortened to meet only the minimum standards set by the State of Michigan? Shall the elementary and middle school special subjects as music, art, physical education, and practical arts be further curtailed?

Shall the program offerings in the senior high schools consist only of courses needed for graduation and to comply with the rules of the North Central Association?

Shall further reductions be made in the supervisory and administrative staff?

Shall the closed campus noon hour be eliminated?

Shall the program of special education, (speech remedial reading, developmental kindergarten, psychological services) offered by the Department of Pupil Personnel be limited?

Shall additional professional and clerical positions be eliminated?

Shall extra-curricular activities be eliminated or further curtailed?

Should capital expenditures be reduced so that only minimal housekeeping activities are continued?

Shall instructional materials and supplies, reduced considerably in 1970-71, be further curtailed?

Shall personnel hiring practices be altered, (currently the schools seek the best person for a position), to hire only those teachers with the minimal training and experience.

Polling places in all school elections are the district's 10 public elementary schools which will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. on Monday, March 15. All qualified registered voters who are 21 years of age, (whether property owners or not), may ballot on both proposals. Applications for absentee ballots may be obtained from the Elections Office, 389 St. Clair Avenue, Grosse Pointe, Michigan 48230.

Battery Switch Youth's Undoing

An 18-year-old Park youth, who claimed a car battery he was carrying had been borrowed from another vehicle to start up his car, was arrested by Farms police and charged with larceny from a motor vehicle.

While on routine patrol on Sunday, February 28, according to Patrolmen Gerald Deburghraeve and Kenneth Pine, they observed Lawrence A. Donnell of 1287 Balfour, carrying a Shell trademark battery from a 1965 Pontiac, to a 1961 Thunderbird, registered to Robert A. Ayrault of 334 Kerby road.

Asked by Pine if the battery, or the T-bird belonged to him, the youth gave negative answers to both questions. He said he "borrowed" the battery from the Pontiac to start up the T-bird, which he was driving.

As the policemen were questioning Donnell, the owner of the Pontiac, James B. Blackburn, Jr., of 765 Lincoln road, arrived and the officers informed him that Donnell had taken the battery out of his car, whereupon, Blackburn said that the one in Donnell's possession was not his, that his was a Sears Allstate.

Deburghraeve went to the T-bird, and looked under the hood, which was still up, and found a high-voltage battery, bearing the Sears trademark, not securely fastened or connected. Blackburn identified the unit as belonging to him, and the officers informed Donnell he was under arrest for larceny.

Ayrault, owner of the Thunderbird, told police that he had given the car to Donnell to fix up and sell for him.

Gunmen Rob Jewelry Stop

Det. Sgt. George VanTiem and Det. Joseph Miller, who are in charge of investigating the case, said that while Pongraz and the woman were being bound, a man and woman entered the store, unaware of the robbery. They, names withheld, were ordered to the back room, and they, too, were secured to chairs.

A few minutes later, another couple, names also not given, with a small child, entered, and one bandit asked if he could be of service. The woman stated that she had ordered a watchband for her mother. The robber told her that the owner was not in, and requested that she return in about 20 minutes.

When the woman stated that this would be an inconvenience, the gunman asked them to enter the back room. As the man and wife and child walked forward, the bandit drew his gun and ordered them to the same room with Pongraz and the clerk. The robber took the man's wallet, from which he extracted $60 in currency, after which he tied the victim to a chair. The woman and child were taken to the second floor office, and ordered to remain there.

Van Tiem and Miller said that the other customer victim also lost $20 in cash from his wallet, to the bandits. The robbers used binder twine to tie up their victims, the detective said.

Must Take Inventory
The policemen said that the gunmen, both of whom were armed, scooped up watches, diamonds and other items of jewelry from the counters and from displays, before making good their escape from the store. Pongraz said he freed himself and the others, and then called police.

Pongraz told the officers that the holdup men took $30,678, in known valuation of items, and that this figure could amount to more, when an inventory is taken. There were several rings taken, the valuation of which will be determined after the inventory, the jeweler added.

Injunction Continued

(Continued from Page 1) ly notifying them of the service extension to March 31. The letter, read by City Clerk Nunzio Ortisi, revealed that it is the understanding of the lines' officials that the court expressed the opinion "that all parties during this period, not just Lake Shore, use it to explore any possible alternatives for continuing service."

The letter stated that Lake Shore has filed for the five-cent fare increase which went into effect Monday, March 8; has filed a request that schedules be adjusted to eliminate service on Sunday and after 8 p.m., which if approved means no buses will run on Sunday after March 7, or after 8 p.m. after March 10 (yesterday). Also, Veale stated, the company has requested that the Southeastern Michigan Transportation Authority (SEMTA) provide any assistance available in replacement of equipment.

"Lake Shore believes, however, that these are not long range solutions," Veale said. "It does not believe that it is required to operate at out-of-pocket losses without assistance from those concerned in maintaining service. Hence, you are placed on notice that reliance on these steps alone without reciprocal action by any party to assist Lake Shore would not be justified. "So that any other possible arrangements may be made with any other bus company, so people will continue to have bus service available, Lake Shore again advises that it will sell its equipment and transfer its Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity to any qualified purchaser, upon seven days notice. Inasmuch as all concerned recognize the emergency nature of this matter, any response of any party should be in the hands of Lake Shore no later than March 31, 1971."

On Tuesday, March 9, it was disclosed that the March 12 session in Lansing had been postponed at the request of the bus line officials.

Walter Schweikart, president of the bus company, and Veale, were reported to be out of town on business and could not be reached for comment.

However, Richard Raskey, Superintendent of Transportation of the Michigan Public Service Commission, contacted in Lansing, said that the postponement was granted at the request of the lines officials, to give them time to gather all financial figures and other data, for proper presentation.

Raskey said that no definite date had been set for the meeting, but it should be sometime during the early part of April. In the meantime, the buses should continue running.

New Apartment Scene of Blaze

A two-alarm fire broke out in the Jefferson Terrace Apartments, currently under construction at Jefferson and St. Clair, on Tuesday, March 2. City firemen received a call from one of the workmen at the site at 8:59 on that date.

City firemen responded immediately and requested a second alarm at 9:01 a.m. Harper Woods and Grosse Pointe Park firefighters joined City firemen in fighting the blaze which was concentrated between the outside walls and the plaster in the hallway of one of the unfinished apartments. The walls are constructed with fire retardant wood which prevented any serious damage to the structure.

Andrew Teetaert, City of Grosse Pointe Director of Police and Fire, told the NEWS that the quick response from mutual aid contributed greatly in confining the fire to the one apartment.

A tremendous amount of smoke necessitated breaking a number of windows in the complex to let the smoke out of the building. The windows were still nailed down.

One Park fireman, Clare M. Kloviski, 41, was injured when the black smoke impaired his vision and he fell into the elevator shaft from the first floor to the basement. He was rushed to Bon Secours Hospital for treatment of a dislocated shoulder and a cracked ankle. He will be off-duty for at least six weeks.

The origin of the fire was listed as "probable undetermined human cause," since the wiring in the area of the fire was not energized.

Youth Beaten Following Party

Woods police received a call Saturday, February 12, from City police saying that they had information that a 17-year-old Detroit youth was beaten up outside of a home in the Woods and had been admitted to Saratoga Hospital.

The parents of John Riske, of 14610 Houston, told Woods police that they had rushed John to the emergency room after he had come home that night with cuts and bruises. They said their son could give them no information because of his dazed condition.

When questioned, young Riske told police he was assaulted while he was sitting in a car in front of 1361 S. Oxford after he had attended a party. Refusing to file any complaint, he said a friend drove him home after several persons pulled him out of the car and beat him.

STATE EQUALIZED VALUATION and the STATE SCHOOL AID FORMULA

We may not like it, but this is how it works! As the state equalized valuation of property increases, state aid to schools decreases. (This is an equalization process built into the state aid formula).

As our school district's total state equalized valuation has increased, our school system has received more dollars from the taxpayers . . . during past years these dollars have been offset by losses in state aid and increased costs due to inflation.

Next year, for every new dollar received from local taxes as a result of reassessment, the state will take away a dollar in state aid. Approximately one million dollars will probably be involved in this exchange process.

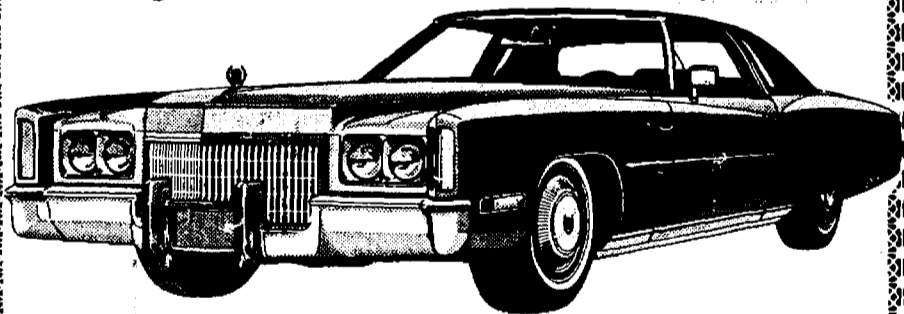

Another fact! If Grosse Pointe votes Yes on Propositions 1 & 2, but Public Act 100 is not amended, the voted millage cannot be included on your tax bill.

For more information on the March 15 election, attend the 8 p.m. meeting in the ballroom of the War Memorial tonight (Thursday, March 11) co-sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Association of Parent and Parent-Teacher Associations, the League of Women Voters and the War Memorial.

Board Under Attack

the point of view that the problem is no longer merely that of attacks by members of the general public but of unwarranted, groundless attacks by trustees on school personnel.
"The Administrative Association states that its members share with all of us support of the principles of accountability; the right of Board trustees to information about their school system is unquestioned by the Association, and hopefully by all concerned.
"It is recognized that these principles are not totally compatible with the Association's request that the Board adopt formal procedural rules to govern all public inquiry addressed to administrators.

"In one final attempt to forestall the necessity of strict procedural rules, your President makes the following urgent request of the trustees.
"Under light of our rules for the conduct of our business meetings we note the following in our by-laws: 'Each member of the Board shall be notified in writing . . . of all matters to be brought before the Board for its consideration at any annual, regular or special meeting'. Notice may be delivered 24 hours in advance, or posted 48 hours in advance of the meeting.
"Those trustees extend to administrators a measure of courtesy they guarantee to one another by this section of the by-laws, namely that prior notice be given administrators of subjects about which trustees wish to make inquiry.
"Since regular and special meetings of the Board serve for our own edification and also furnish information to our numerous visitors on these occasions, current, accurate and relatively complete response to our queries are extremely important.
"Your major public meetings are no longer held in the Administration Building, a fact which denies administrators quick access to their files.
"Therefore, I strongly urge trustees to extend prior notice of inquiry—no later than 10 a.m. on the day of the meetings—and preferably 48 hours in advance of such meeting.
"This prior notice may be oral and may be given directly to the administrator concerned, or to the Superintendent, or may be communicated to administrators through the President of the Board of Education.
"Let it be stated that I shall rule out of order any remarks questioning the integrity of an administrator or in cases where misfeasance or malfeasance is suggested, except in those cases where administration has been notified of the matter in ample time to prepare a response.
"Trustee Donald Semmler took exception to Mrs. Thompson's statement by saying, 'Each one of us was elected separately and each has the right of inquiry. All trustees who partake in this "gag rule" are violating the individual rights of board member. No trustee has the right to gag another member of the School Board, preventing him from performing his duties.
"Mr. Semmler then referred to a section of the school code which makes it a misdemeanor for any school official or school board member to neglect or refuse to perform any act required of him by the school code and insisted he would not be a party to what he termed a "gag rule," which he felt would be such a violation.
A discussion followed during which time Mrs. Thompson and treasurer Lee H. Allen, both indicated that they felt trustees should be able to ask any questions of administrators except in cases where the integrity of the administrators except in cases where the integrity of the administrator or teacher is questioned and then the accused should be allowed to be prepared to refute the accusation.

question of residence. While we can find no case on point we believe that where the house is entirely located within a city, the householder should register in that city. In cases where the boundary line runs through a portion of the house, it is up to the household to decide in which city he wishes to register."
City Manager Robert Stone, in a statement concurred in by the solons, said under this ruling, west-side Wayburn residents will continue to be recognized as residents of the Park, and therefore entitled to vote in the community and to receive park passes and other privileges.
However, it was pointed out, in the matter of Detroit's income tax levy, the Park is powerless; to intervene, that this must be a matter of concern between the residents and Detroit.
Several residents in the audience said that they will, through their attorneys, take the issue to court. In the meantime, they added, they will prepare a petition, with the advice of their lawyers, to be presented to the proper officials, for a change of the boundary lines, so that their property will be completely located in the Park.

Thank Petersen For Civics Talk

Closing the generation gap, Woods City Manager Chester Petersen donated his time recently in explaining the background and basic structure of city governments and the problems they face to the students at North High.
In a letter of gratitude to the administrator, North High's assistant principal, Robert D. Welch, said they "greatly appreciate the contribution of your time to our Civics Program."
"As you well know," the letter continued, "civics courses have long been faced with the difficult task of making governmental problems real to students. Our students are most appreciative of the fact that you did spend your time and energy in direct discussions with them at North High School."
Students from North High have also been recently attending the Woods City Council meetings to gain first-hand knowledge of the workings of municipal governments.

sed his displeasure with the recent edition of Education In Our Town and reiterated his request that he see all communications written by administrators for public consumption. He added that he objected to some of the statements made in the recent issue especially since it represents the school system and the Board of Education of which he is a part.
Trustee Sandberg also indicated his displeasure at having his name affixed to literature he had not seen before publication.
President Thompson explained that trustees names were on the publication as a matter of courtesy in the same manner in which they are printed on school concert and play programs.
Alfred R. Glancy, trustee, said he did not like the idea of having administrators clear any and all printed matter before publication.
President Thompson closed the discussion with the statement that if it be the will of the Board the matter would be placed on a future agenda.

Woods Primary Rejected

may be able to save money by eliminating an election during some years.

The combinations of school elections with city elections was also mentioned in the bill as part of the reason why cities may want to make the move to odd years.

In the editorial, it was urged by this writer that a primary procedure be passed in the Woods to allow what he considered to be a fairer representation of the residents during elections in which there is a long list of candidates. In the last major election of Woods councilmen, there were 10 men running for three seats, four more than twice the number of seats available. The result of not having a primary election was that those elected received a minority of the general vote.

At the council meeting, an ordinance was passed that provided simply for the nomination of prospective councilmen by petition. The passed ordinance in effect invalidates a primary election procedure which would have gone into effect if no action had been taken on the state legislation.

Right now, only two Pointes, the Woods and the City, remain without a primary, but the Woods has accepted that portion of the bill extending councilmen's terms for the supposed purpose of combining some state and school elections.

According to Ray MacArthur, the director of election of the school system, the school district's problems almost preclude involvement in the new election arrangement.

Among the reasons given, MacArthur states that although the school system is co-terminus with all the Pointe municipalities, the school district includes a portion of Harper Woods. This fractional arrangement prevents compliance, he says.

Also, he reports, even if this barrier did not exist, the schools sometimes must hold a series of elections that could not wait for a date. He said it is doubtful that the municipalities would want to saddle themselves with the burden of many additional elections under these circumstances.

Since the school system considers itself unable to participate, then, the only other advantage of the cities moving to the odd-year election would be the combining of their election with some non-partisan state elections.

After investigations, this reporter could find no specific state seats to be filled on the same ballot of local candidates.

According to Wayne County Elections Assistant Director Lawrence Verbiest it will take a constitutional amendment to decide which state offices will be voted on. He guessed that efforts will be made in the fall of 1972 to schedule state non-partisan elections for a year later which will coincide with the next Woods election more than two-and-a-half years from now. There will probably be nothing set up by this fall in time for election in the Park and Farms.

Representative Alfred A. Russell (D-Taylor), a major proponent of the bill, told the NEWS it was his intention to start the makings for a combination of all elections, state, county, judicial, and school board, on the same ballot at the same time to save money. He said also this would mean more active participation and less confusion among voters. As it stands, he reports he got about 60 percent of what he wanted.

Not only is the state election yet to be decided and the school system not participating, but the judicial offices have also been excepted.

What it all boils down to is that the effect of the Woods, Park and Farms, changing to the odd-year election procedure, which increases their length of service, has not particular advantage, at least within the foreseeable future, or until the drafters of the bill obtain what they consider to be the true intent of the measure.

After being questioned, it was revealed by city managers that they made no inquiries with the school board on behalf of the voting councilmen, or were asked to do so by any councilmen.

As far as the school system is concerned, MacArthur said no one contacted him about combining elections, although inquiries may have been made to someone else in the system.

One good point of the bill, installment of a primary, was defeated by the City and the Woods. The Park and the Farms already make use of a primary, while the Shores, being a village, is not affected.

City Manager Tom Kressbach said the solons decided not to institute a primary in view of the fact that the City has only 4,100 registered voters. With the cost of a primary going to $1,200, and City councilmen deciding it was small enough where a situation resulting in a long list of candidates would seldom arise, the primary was rejected.

But the Woods, largest of the Pointes, defeated the primary in the face of several residents asking for adoption and a letter from Representative William Bryant recommending a primary.

"It would appear to me that having primaries would generate greater interest in the community," the letter stated, "encourage the most qualified and best councilmen to keep their community fully advised of council actions and their part in such actions and encourage the most qualified candidates to run for council. Elections are expensive and this must be considered in your decision. I believe, however, that the best decision, to insure the most proper democratic process, is to adopt the primary method."

Councilman Huetteman, the only one asking for a primary, said at an earlier council meeting that in an election without a primary, a less qualified candidate may find himself elected because of a split vote between two other candidates.

At any rate, Woods residents could conceivably find themselves voting for 10 to 15, or even 20 candidates at the next city election almost three years from now.

Youths Charged With Vandalism

The manager of Blazo's restaurant, 19299 Mack, told Woods police he wants to file a complaint against two youths he said vandalized the men's room of the establishment Friday, March 5, around 11:30 p.m.

John Buccellato, 18, of Sterling Heights and Richard Tourangeau, 18, of Detroit, were pointed out to Woods police by James Carter, the manager, after police answered a call of vandalism in progress.

The two denied that they had done anything to the rest room, saying that Carter had only seen them walk into the room from the top of the stairs and could not have seen them cause any damage. The rest rooms are located on a lower level of the restaurant.

Carter, however, produced a witness that said he saw Tourangeau kick down a partition inside the bathroom.

When the restaurant was first built, the rest room area, out of sight of the employees, had become the target of vandals. Holes had been punched in the walls, doors were ripped off, and pay telephones were destroyed.

NOT IN TIME

Thomas Elliott, 2263 Stanhope, slowed down on Mack, but not soon enough. Woods Patrolman Douglas Dosmas spotted him Monday, March 1. Unable to pace his speed, Dosmas still stopped Elliott and arrested him on the strength of warrants from the Shores and Farms. Elliott was also proven to be driving on a suspended license. He was jailed when he could not put up the $100 bond.

Praise Received By YSD Officer

Officer John Kendall of the Youth Service Division recently received a letter of appreciation from a South High Social Studies teacher after he served as a guest speaker in one of the classes.

"I wish to extend to you for the civics teachers and ninth grade students . . . our profound thanks and appreciation for the services you afforded us . . .", wrote Carl Lord. "Your remarks concerning the Youth Bureau in general and the drug scene in particular illustrated your understanding of the problems confronting the youth of the community.

"There is no doubt that you were a credit to the communities that support your activity. I must also add that I have heard many kind remarks directed to you and the job you are doing. We hope you will honor pleas that we may make in the future for your services as a guest speaker."

Does the world make a stronger impact than the church? — are young people attracted more to what it says and how it says it? Can young people tell the Church anything about Christ?

You are invited and urged to bring your friends to an informal "rap session" at Grace United Church of Christ, Lake-

FLEC Launches Member Drive

Blizzard conditions did not stop Family Life Education Council (FLEC) from launching its first membership drive on Friday, February 12, with plenty of entertainment and information. Good music was provided by selected members of the South High School Band, and high school students led by Jeff Montgomery and Mary Squires were hosts and hostesses.

Judge George N. Bashara, Jr., chairman, hosted the "FLEC Today" show. Joe Garagiola of NBC "Today" show entertained the audience with his personal stories of the trials and tribulations of the baseball player whose job is always in jeopardy.

School liaison officers Mike Ferrence and John Kendall of the Youth Service Bureau outlined the role of the Bureau in meeting the needs of all the Pointes. After commenting on John Kendall's Brooks Brothers appearance Joe Garagiola inquired: "How can a Youth Service Bureau officer like you relate to the youth today?" Mr. Kendall responded: "By being honest. I dress and act the way I am and since mod clothes are not my style, I do not wear them. Mutual respect is the way to reach young people."

Judge Bashara dramatically related the tragic picture he sees in court, of youth involved with drugs, and told about his Friday Court visitors program for school children.

So many written questions were turned in that the information will have to be used for future programs. To the question "What is available to youth who have not found activities suitable to their needs?" Max L. Gardner, M.D., president of FLEC said: "FLEC is now planning a youth oriented program which will offer peer to peer counseling and a 'hot line' operated by youth at certain hours. Youth from all schools and sections of the Pointe will be working together to develop a program around the interests of youth. Adults who work well with younger individuals are being trained along with youth to participate in the program."

Dr. Gardner explained the need for community support for FLEC through memberships either individual or organizational. Privileges of membership include attendance without charge at programs directly sponsored by FLEC, (except clinical services), receipt of newsletter or other informational material put out by FLEC and an invitation to the annual meeting.

Civics Classes Hold Career Day

The North High School civics classes of Don Dungan and Ernie Hurst held a career day on Friday, March 5. As a culminating activity for a unit on career exploration, the two teachers invited parents of their students to talk about their careers and answer questions pertaining to their work and related occupations.

Parents who contributed their time and knowledge by acting as resource people were Mrs. Erna Adrian, Mrs. Donald Clogg, John Connors, Dr. Gilbert DiLoreto, Earl Eden, Richard Filippelli, Donald Johnson, Joseph James, Mrs. H. A. Kleinsmith, Russ Milne, Fred Minturn, Mrs. Marshall Moser, Mrs. Rose Moxley, Andrew Olis, Jonn Russell, Dr. Anthony Salvaggio, George Shamie, George Sheppard, Mrs. Arthur Vaughn, Mrs. Ed Wendt, and Chenoweth Watson.

Each class had three parent-speakers who after brief presentations served as a panel to discuss the world of work with their youthful audiences.

The occupations represented by the speakers included publishing, nursing, social work, dentistry, sales management, medicine, special education, secretarial work, engineering, merchandising, dental hygiene and restaurant work.

Although the North High Social Studies Department has made frequent and effective use of community resource people in the past, this is the first time involving parents to such an extent has been attempted.

Movie Council To Hear Expert

It has been reported that 65 per cent of the public use television newscasts as its major source of news! How responsible should the station be for what is shown? Is news slanted?

Paul Williams, public affairs manager for WWJ-TV, will provide an insight from an expert, at the monthly meeting of the Grosse Pointe Motion Picture and Television Council on Monday, March 15, at 1 o'clock at the Central Library.

Mr. Williams came to WWJ in 1939, broadcasting Tiger baseball with Ty Tyson. He later joined the news staff and will be remembered for his top-rated TV newscasts and special events. Mr. Williams has given up his regular newscasting to concentrate on public service responsibilities.

Appoint Hales SAC Historian

Staff Sergeant Gran M. Hales, Jr., 410th Bomb Wing historian here, has been named Strategic Air Command (SAC) Historian of the Year of 1970. He is the son of Mrs. Grant M. Hales of 540 Sunningdale drive. A resident of The Pointe since 1955, he was graduated from Grosse Pointe High School in 1963.

Sergeant Hales was selected from among 60 historians throughout the command. In the final judging he represented Second Air Force and competed against Sergeant Thomas J. Brucia, 43rd Strategic Wing, Andersen AFB, Guam, Eighth Air Force; and Airman First Class Berkeley F. Fuller, 319th Bomb Wing, Grand Forks AFB, ND. Fifteenth Air Force; who were named Best Historians in their numbered Air Forces.

Thefts Reported At League Shop

William F. Martin of 1013 Audubon, proprietor of The League Shop, 98 Kercheval, notified Farms police on Tuesday, March 2, that several items of value had been taken from his place of business.

Martin said that the first article, a small "Vantage" 8-D clock, valued at $45, was discovered missing on Friday, February 26. Since that date, he added, the following have been found to be missing, two alligator case magnifying glasses, worth $35 each; a pair of ceramic rabbits, white with green corn cob, valued at $15 the pair; a ceramic duck, small and yellow in color, valued at $6.

State Jaycees Take Resolution

Making it clear that they were opposed to the Michigan Legislature imposing arbitrary limitations on the amount of voted millage which a local school district may levy for operational purposes, the Michigan Jaycees, in convention this past weekend, voted to support legislative action, resolution or amendment to Section 886 of Public Act 100 to delete any restriction or limitation on the amount of voted operational millage which any school district may levy and collect.

The Michigan Jaycees are made up of over 9,000 young men between 21 and 35 with chapters in over 250 Michigan communities.

The Resolution was introduced by the Grosse Pointe Jaycees. In making the presentation to the Michigan Jaycees, John C. Prost, Pointe Jaycee Chairman of the Committee to amend Public Act 100, said, "Your action today will quite clearly point out to the Legislature and Senate that as young men with children in school we are concerned with making our own choice on how much we want to spend for education in our respective communities."

Prost also urged every Michigan Jaycee to write or call his Legislature and ask them to vote yes on House Bill 4194 which would amend the Act.

Anyone interested in learning more about the Grosse Pointe Jaycees may contact President Ken Roy, 499-0534.

D'you Know That? by Paul Schweitzer

Why is a "PIGGY BANK" in the shape of a pig?

Origin of the term, PIGGY BANK is traced back to 15th Century England. At that time, household items, such as pots and jars were made of earthenware. The type of clay used was called PYGG.

Then, as now, housewives saved coins into jars; which, because of the Pygg clay, were called Pygggy Banks.

Centuries later when a revival of Pygggy Banks came into being, English potters mistakenly produced Piggy Banks in the form of a "piggy."

In the Public Safety Department a mutual emergency fire aid pact with the city of Detroit was approved as was an agreement for the establishment, organization and operation of a Grosse Pointe Inter-Municipal Communities Youth Service Division.

The city paid its first year budget share of $9,140. New lockers were installed in the police squad room and the police LEIN machine was relocated and placed in a sound absorbing enclosure. The Parks and Recreation Department also made a number of improvements. The large pool and wading pool at Neff Park was re-mariceted at the cost of $12,247; a new heater for the large pool was installed at the cost of $5,181; the bike rack was relocated and that area fenced in; the interior of the bathroom was painted and the screen door replaced.

The opening in the former attendant booth at Neff Park entrance were closed with brick and sandstone and the concrete block wall painted up. A new drinking fountain was installed at Elworthy Field tennis courts and a replacement fountain placed in the Little League diamond, some 600 feet of perimeter fencing at Elworthy Field was relocated and painted with the Board of Education participating in the cost.

Robert Vens was promoted to water superintendent and building inspector. The water waste survey of water distribution system by Pitometer Associates was completed; a quarterly water billing system was established and new "self-read" customer cards designed.

Some 235 old water meters were replaced with new remote reading meters. (Currently 279 remote reading meters are in service or 14% of the City's total meter complement.) The position of a meter service man to help perform meter readings and meter replacement duties, was established. The meter shop was painted and the meter test facility refurbished. A fire hydrant flushing program was instituted and some 162 fire hydrants were painted. Fifteen water distribution system valves were replaced or repaired.

Woods Handles Light Agenda

At the regular meeting of the City Council of Grosse Pointe Woods Monday, March 1, the city solons received several letters and placed them all on file.

Received by the council were three letters from the City of Inkster presenting three separate resolutions. One concerned the federal revenue sharing plan with the state's municipalities urging support and passage on the plan as a supplement to, rather than a substitute for, the tax effort and major federal grants.

A second resolution petitions the state legislature to repeal Act 312 of 1969, an act requiring binding arbitration in disputes between a municipality and its fire and police departments, declaring it a "monstrous mistake." The resolution also asks that a fund be set up from which municipalities may draw to ease the pressure of awards from arbitrator decisions.

Finally, a resolution was received from Inkster indicating support for a joint effort from the Wayne County communities to seek elimination of the problems of non-returnable bottles.

The Woods council received a request and granted permission to North High students to hold a geranium sale during the daylight hours of Wednesday, March 17, and Friday, April 2. The sale will be on a door-to-door basis.

The Woods council received an invoice setting membership dues for the Michigan Municipal League at $1,400. The dues for membership in the league are based on a population of 21,804 in the Woods.

Before adjournment, the council received the monthly report of January from City Manager Chester Petersen.

Health Addicts Active in Woods

The Woods Department of Parks and Recreation likes to feel that its services are needed and its programs used. City Manager Chester Petersen's monthly report supplied the vote of approval from the residents. All programs showed a substantial boost over last year for the month of January.

Calling the increase in participation "astounding" over that of January, 1970, the report stated that enthusiasm over last year is running "high and steady."

The recorded attendance of participants in all the programs combined, including gym, swimming, rifle and pistol range, and ice skating for January of 1970 was listed as 24,527 while this year's reading is 27,282, an increase of 2,755 participants.

In the gym program the increase is 358 over the 3,450 physical fitness buffs who took part in the same program last year. The highest increases came from the boys program at Parcels Middle School and the men's program at Moatth.

The jump in activists in the competitive swimming program was particularly impressive. The increase of 102 swimmers over last year is a full 87 percent higher. Swimmers this January numbered 232 as compared to just 130 in 1970.

The rifle and pistol program had 666 sharpshooting enrollees for January as compared to 568 last year, an increase of 98.

Skaters enthusiasm ran high at the McCann rink this year with an increase of 2,092 over last year's total of 20,152. The Woods pays a yearly fee to University-Liggett School, the owners of the rink, to allow residents the chance to skate.

Burglars Strike McCann Rink

Detectives are busy in investigations involving three recent burglaries in the Woods, one of which was of the University-Liggett offices at the McCann Ice Rink.

Woods police were called Tuesday, February 23, by Pierre Decker, and an employe of U.L. when he discovered the rink offices had been broken into and ransacked.

Police say the culprit gained entry by breaking a glass door and crawling through. The culprit then rifled through two cash boxes, broke into the candy machine coin box, and tried to pry open the coffee machine.

Decker also found the culprit broke the glass door leading to the main office and pushed out a Plexiglas window.

Woods Detective Everett Plumb is checking out several suspects, including one arrested near the scene the night before for driving under the influence of liquor and with a suspended license.

The other two burglaries in the Woods included the home of Fred Meininger, 1697 Hampton, within a two hour period Thursday, February 25.

Marilyn Meininger told police she returned home to eat lunch that day around 11:30 p.m. when she found the back door ajar. Going into the house, she found it ransacked and called police. Missing were an AM-FM radio, worth $35; a drafting kit, worth $20; and an undetermined amount of cash and drawing bonds from a dresser drawer.

Marilyn's brother had left the home at 9:50 that morning.

Also reporting a burglary was Mrs. William Meldrum, 1516 Blairmoor, when she returned home Tuesday, February 23, just before 10 p.m. to find the inside garage door open.

She immediately called a neighbor call the police. Answering the call, police found that all the rooms in the home had been searched.

Among the items found missing were an unknown quantity of jewelry; a wristwatch; coin collection; a full length gray fur coat; a large blue suitcase; a red wool coat with a black mink collar; and one bottle of whiskey.

Questioning neighbors, detectives were told of suspicious activity about the time of the theft.

Austin Reveals Honor Students

The Honor's Convocation for the first semester was held at Austin Prep. on Feb. 15 to honor the students who reached a c a d e m i c excellence. Thomas E. Bailey, vice principal, introduced the program and the guest speaker, William Fitzgerald, Jr.

Mr. Fitzgerald, a graduate of Austin '60, and now an attorney and Democratic nominee for the House of Representatives, stressed the importance of these high school years as a period of total student involvement to assure the growth of the total personality.

Following the talk, Paul Nehra, president of the National Honor Society, inducted five new members. They are Larry Kraus, Thomas M. Mushro, Thomas Rabaut, Richard Turner and James Bonamy.

Fifteen students received their Scholastic Letters for having maintained a 3.5 average for three semesters. New Lettermen are Chris Blesh, Mark Carver, Jim Cnockaert, Bob Diehl, Steve Ducock, Mike Koenigbauer, Tim Mann, Tom Markowski, Bill Mayer, Tom O'Connor, Tom Rabaut, Dave Szymanski, Dick Turner, Phil Uchno and Tom Vaughn.

Mr. Bailey presented John VanTiem of the class of 1971 with his certificate for being a finalist in the National Merit Scholarship Testing. This award gives John a position of high rank in national standings with other high school students. Certificates of excellence were also awarded to Robert Diehl and Mike Sawicki who excelled on the Educational Developmental Testing. Honor roll certificates were then presented to 94 students for the first semester. Fifty-six students made the first honors with a 3.8 average while 38 students attained 3.5 average for second honors.

Public Schools in Focus

By Dr. Theos I. Anderson, Superintendent of Schools

State aid for 1970-71 for the Grosse Pointe Public School System was expected to be $1,878,000. As you are aware, it will be considerably less. For 1971-72 state aid has been estimated at $978,000.

The estimated increase in the valuation of real estate in Grosse Pointe will actually cost the school system $1 million in State aid revenue, which can only be recovered through a local property tax levy or increased equivalent in assessed valuation.

This loss of state aid as local property increases in value is one aspect of school finance that many people do not understand. Few understand that another factor over which the local Boards of Education exercise no control is in assessing the valuation of a school district's property tax base. The state equalized valuation is based on a law which mandates that a valuation figure shall equal half the current market value of a piece of real estate. County and municipal governments are bound by the law.

Local property valuations are subject to increase not only by action of the local municipalities' assessors, but also by an "equalization" process imposed by the State of Michigan. For example, if the state-wide average increases in sale prices of real estate exceed those in a local district, the State of Michigan has the right to apply a factor to the local valuation to bring it to par with the state average. For example, if the total valuation of real estate in a community is $25 million and the state estimates that this is low when compared to recent sale prices in the region, it may apply a conversion factor to the local valuation. Real estate is said to be on a "one-to-one" basis if the local and state valuations are the same.

As residents are well aware, under present state law, property assessment continues to play a vital role in the financing of the Grosse Pointe Public School System. But few people in the community may realize the relationship between property valuation and state aid.

The proposed operating budget of the Grosse Pointe Public School System for 1971-72 is based on three factors: (1) The state equalized valuation (SEV) of the property in the school district; (2) A mathematical formula to be passed by the legislature and approved by the Governor to determine the amount of state aid school districts will receive in 1971-72, and (3) A millage rate sufficient to raise revenues to meet expenses.

Although the exact formula by which the State of Michigan will allocate financial aid in 1971-72 has yet to be determined, all recent formulas have been based on student enrollment, a district's property valuation and provision for an automatic reduction in state aid as the state equalized valuation of local property increases.

This example shows how the present state aid formula would work in 1971-72: 1. Estimated enrollment; 13,347. 2. Gross allowance in state aid; $530,500. 3. Multiply enrollment by gross allowance $7,080,583. 4. Estimated state equalized valuation (SEV) $442,983,923. 5. Multiply SEV by deductible factor of .014, $6,201,775. 6. Subtract deductible factor (5) from gross allowance (3), $878,808.

* The figure represents what 14 mills would produce when applied against the estimated valuation of property. Step 6 demonstrates that as state equalized valuation of a district increases, its state aid automatically decreases.

One View From The Capitol

The Legislature is gradually getting into high gear and the volume of pending legislation, committee work, department reports, studies and constituent correspondence grows each day. I do not feel buried in paper yet, but at times there is a temptation to yell into the vastness of the Capitol dome for someone, somewhere, to stop the paper machine.

My belief in the great wisdom and practicality of democratic processes is being reinforced. The diversity of views, prejudices, background, expertise, philosophy and constituency of legislators results in a House membership as diversified as the population it was elected to serve. Almost no idea goes unchallenged. Almost no approach made without alternatives being offered.

Yet the weaknesses too are easy to see. All human beings being imperfect, there is imperfection in the group and therefore in the decision of that group. Men present issues and trust in the man can cause a loyalty sometimes misplaced.

Partisan loyalty is a problem at times. Complex technical issues are difficult because members lack expertise to judge alternatives. Issues essentially moral are decided only by agonizingly difficult, prolonged and emotional debate. Legislation primarily affecting a limited area or a limited number of legislators is endangered by lack of understanding of local problems, petty jealousies and prejudices or even punitive votes made to punish an area or a legislator for action extraneous to the issue at hand.

The job is big. I have much to learn. Being in Lansing five days a week is hard on me and my family. But as of now my feeling is one of pride, in you, and in your confidence in me.

Next week I will talk about phosphates and disposable bottles.

Very truly yours,

Schools Do Not Sponsor Trips

Spring vacation-sponsored trips have elicited the following statement from Dr. Theos I. Anderson, Superintendent of Schools: "The Grosse Pointe Public School System has been asked if it is sponsoring any vacation travel trips. The answer is NO. The two trips that have been questioned are:

1. A trip to Spain from April 10 to 18 that has Grosse Pointe North High School named as sponsor.

2. A trip for students of Grosse Pointe South High School's Senior Class to Bermuda during the spring vacation."

Dr. Anderson said that arrangements for these trips have absolutely no connection with the school system. "Since there may be some question as to responsibility involved, we are taking this opportunity to clarify our official position," the Superintendent concluded.

Don't make promises unless you expect to deliver the goods.

North Cagers Take District; Snuff South's Win Streak

By Steve Wehling

The South High Blue Devil cagers ended their 11-7 season to intra-city rival North 62-52 in the finals of the District Tournament.

Everything was working out fine for the Devils. They picked the easiest draw of the competing teams. Then tournament favorite Denby was knocked out of the tournament by Austin.

South had beaten its first two opponents, Bishop Gallagher 66-56 and Finney 76-56, quite easily. North had to inch out a victory from Austin 64-63 in order to reach the finals.

It looked like South just might bring home a district championship, but North had other ideas.

The game was tight throughout the first half, with the Norsemen coming out ahead 27-23. Early in the third quarter North went on an eight-point spree and jumped to a 35-25 lead. From there South never challenged.

Accurate foul shooting gave the Norsemen the win. The teams were even in field goals, but a 71 percent foul shooting average of 22 for 31 gave North the championship. South only hit 12 of 25 at the line or about 50 percent.

Another reason was North's

Gary Bennett. Although South's man-to-man defense contained his shooting, constant fouling gave Bennett 17 free throw attempts, of which he made 15. These accounted for about three-fourths of North's deciding free throw points.

In rebounding South led 38-29. P. G. Shirar was high rebounder for the Devils with 15. Dave Kennel helped out with 11 recoveries off the boards.

Bennett led North scoring with 23. Joe Puleo added 15 for the winners with Duane Johnson picking up 11.

High scorers for the Devils were Shirar and Kennel both with 16. John Denison, who fouled out in the third quarter, put in 10.

The Finney game on Thursday night was a pushover for the Devils. Mr. Chuck Hollay, South coach, commented, "We didn't play very well, but we weren't expecting much from the players. They had just played a game Monday and there was a tendency to look ahead past Finney."

Despite the poor level of play, Grosse Pointe did win, due mainly to superior height and rebounding.

Shirar also led the scorers by putting in 18. John Denison collected 13 and Dave Kennel had 10. Dwight Parker led the losers with 15. Mitchell Shelton added 14.

Against Bishop Gallagher on Monday night South played one of its better games of the year.

Dave Kennel led the scoring with 19 points. Pete Farmer added 16 and John Denison had 10. Bishop Gallagher was led by David Hosea with 22.

North Natators Set for Big One

Finishing the Bi-County League meet Friday and Saturday, March 5 and 6, at the top of the heap by more than 230 points, the Grosse Pointe North High swimmers are readying for the big time in the state finals the weekend of March 13.

The meet was marked by almost nothing but first and second place finishes for the Norsemen. Leading the pack with some of the more outstanding times were Mike Diamond with a 1:58.2 in the 200 yard Freestyle; Mark DuPuis with a 2:13.2 in the 200 yard Individual Medley; Tom Heholt and Gary Hoffman finishing one-two in the 50 yard Freestyle with 23.3 and 23.9 respective times; Diamond again, scoring a 4:13.5 in the 40 yard Freestyle; Brian Fink in the Backstroke with 58.8; DuPuis hitting a 1:04.5 in the 100 yard Breaststroke; Rob Engelhart and Tom Sherr finishing one-two in the 100 yard Butterfly with 56.9 and 101.2 respective times; Heholt and Hoffman again in the 100 Freestyle, finishing one-two with 51.4 and 52.8 respectively; and Fink, Craig Barker, Sherr, and Dominic Cusumano polishing off the 200 yard Medley Relay with a magnificent 1:49.2 time.

The next meet facing the North swimmers, the state finals, will be held in East Lansing. Qualifying for North were Gary Hoffman in the 50-yard Freestyle, Tom Heholt in the 50 and 100-yard Freestyle, and Mike Diamond in the 400-yard Freestyle.

Others were Brian Fink in the 100-yard Backstroke and Rob Engelhart in the 100-yard Butterfly. Swimming the Breaststroke will be Craig Barker, Mark DuPuis, and Keith Hallman.

"We should finish in the top five," head coach Tom Teetaert commented. "If all goes as planned we could finish third. Dearborn and Birmingham Groves are very tough this year."

Devil Tankers In Hard Battle

By Deal Martin

The Border Cities League swim meet Friday and Saturday, March 5 and 6, accomplished two things. First, it provided BCL swimming fans with some of the most exciting individual and team competition ever seen and, secondly, it proved there are TWO best teams in the BCL. Those two teams, Grosse Pointe South and Royal Oak Dondero, seemed to create the perfect competitive atmosphere for the meet.

From the start of the meet it became quite evident that the team with the most depth would win. South had the edge going into the finals as they qualified swimmers in 10 out of the 11 events, but it was Royal Oak Dondero at the finish by two points, 75-73.

"Cowboy Lou" Horowitz was one reason for the Oaks' supremacy over the other teams and Al Lynn was another reason. Both boys were double winners, as Horowitz finished first in the 100 and 200-yard freestyle events and Lynn finished first in the individual medley and the 100 backstroke.

But South blunted Dondero's attack with a powerful attack of their own that made the meet a fight to the finish. Brad Boarnet, zipped through the water in 23.4 seconds in the 50-yard freestyle to give the Devils their first of three first-place finishes. Bob Heels added the second first in the 100-yard butterfly, as he ran away from the field to win in 59.2 seconds.

The event, however, that came up with best results for South turned out to be the 400-yard freestyle. Mike Schroeder provided the Devils with their final first place finish, as he won easily. Teammate Jon Watts, who was rated as the fourth or fifth best swimmer in that event, provided the South tankers with four more points, as he rallied to finish third.

Mark Sisman of Monroe set the only record of the meet, as he won the diving competition with 383.2 points. His performance easily beat the record held by Dale DeShong of Fordson by 18 points.

The big surprise of the meet was the performance of the team from Monroe. Though Sisman set a new record, the squad which finished in a tie with South and Dondero for the BCL, failed to sustain a powerful attack and finished fifth.

Giant League Games Played

Jim Paradee, averaging 30 points per game, hit 32 in the Hawk's 38-32 basketball victory over the Pistons. Jeff Thiede held him to 15 in the first game won by the Pistons. Thiede again did the job but everyone on the Pistons took turns fouling Pardee, who made 16 of 19 at the line. The Pistons' seven point lead vanished as Pardee made two buckets and 14 foul shots in the last quarter. Also, Drew Miller had two and Bill Hines four in the win.

Chris DeCoster had 12, Tom Marantette, 11, Dave Smaha, eight, and Tom Wiegel, one for the losers.

The Celtics were hard pressed to win 30-29 over the Knicks. Jim Fisher had 10, Mark Wickard, five, Ed Tropp, seven, R. J. Paradee, four, and Jim Carroll, four, for the Celtics. The Celtic's ability to stand pressure will help them in the playoffs.

John Grennan had 10, Doug Edwards, six, Jim Manning, four, Wes Cytacki, three, Chris Bielski, two, and Steve Johnson, one point for the Knicks.

The division leading Bulls barely managed a 29-28 win over the Bucks. Mark Johnson played a fine all-around game and hit 13 points for the winners. Kurt Teck added three, Joe Clor, six, and Cliff Morehead, six to the total.

Jim Marshall led the Bulls with 15, Rob Burns, six, Bill Crocker, four, Tom Steen, two, and Rob Tamarelli, two, also scored. Rob Tamarelli's rebounding was a factor in the win.

Jim Everett with 16 and Mark Isley's 10 points led the Bullets to a 39-15 win over the 76'ers. Ted Werner's six, Jack Tocco's four and Mark Bissinger's three points completed the scoring. Mike Wade, five, Rick Pfeiffer, four, Dave Case, two, Gary Fenton, two, and Ralph Cross, two points were the 76'ers scorers.

Coaches beware — holding Paradee to 16 points from the field is not good enough if you foul him. Eighty-four percent from the line is hard to beat. Team defensive honors go to the Bullets who held down the 76'ers after their 43 points last week.

3 the Friars fell to Grosse Pointe North 64-63 in the last second of play.

The Austin swimming team completed a successful season by qualifying four men in the City Championship Meets. Tom Stanley and Jerry Addison (50 yard freestyle), Bob Frear (100 yard freestyle), and Pete Joos (400 yard freestyle) will all compete in the city finals. The 400 yard relay team were first in the city, and broke the Austin school record, but were disqualified on a very close call.

Narrative poetry was won by Moira Brophy of St. Paul while Ronald Schramm of Austin won non-original oratory.

Ted Possellus of Austin won in children's literature and Sheila Dunlevy from Cabrini took first in Shakespeare.

Religious Poetry was won by Greg Taylor of Catholic Central while Bible Reading was won by Mary Lou Zuelch of Dominican.

In the category of Serious Prose, Sue Curran won first while Karen Kosinski of Borgess won top award in Humorous Prose.

From Dominican, Denise Brisson took first in Dramatic Interpretation and Thomasenia Butler of St. Joseph Academy won first in Lyric Poetry.

The remaining events of the Student Directed One Acts at WWJ-TV on March 7 and the New York Theatre Convention from August 11-15.

The Austin Players presented their annual one act festival of student-directed shows on Sunday, February 14. The four one act plays were directed by Marilyn Opdyke, Ron Schramm, Ted Possellus and Dennis Bailey. The shows were judged and critiques were given. Tino Altese won the award of Best Actor while Mary Ann Arsensault won the award for Best Actress. The winning directing trophy went to Dennis Bailey. The shows then traveled to the Genesis One-Act Festival of Student Direction at WWJ on March 7. This competition saw 17 one-acts from Detroit schools in competition beginning at 12:30 and running until 10 p.m.

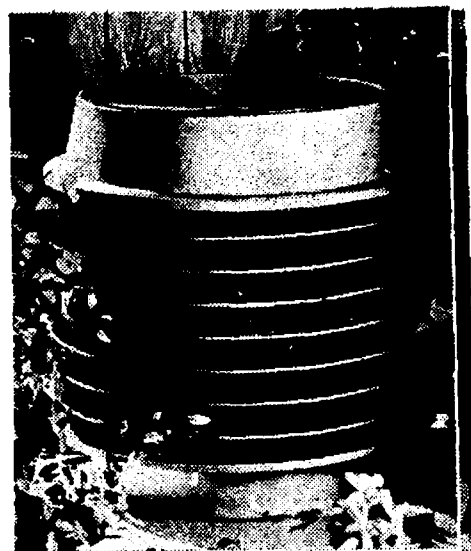

Speech activities at Austin take a major role during February. The Augustine Speech Festival is in full swing with each student in the school delivering an oral interpretation in his English class. Winners of these classes go on to compete for certificates and trophies with other classroom winners. The annual speech assembly for awards was March 8. This program is under the direction of the Austin English Department.

Austin's public speakers will continue to enter the Detroit Catholic Forensic League meets each month. Last month, Austin won the Sweepstakes Trophy for gaining the most winning places in that meet. Austin sent Ronald Schramm, John Knox, Mark McMahon, Tony Urbani, Wayne DeFour, Mike Rizzo, Dave Szymanski, Ken Cooper, Richard Berschback, Dave Catlin, Ted Possellus and a Multiple Reading group to the finals.

Austin's fine basketball team began play in the statewide tournament on March 1 at Grosse Pointe South gymnasium. Austin defeated a highly touted Denby team 82-76 in two overtimes. On March

Drunken Driver Has No License

Jimmie D. Dixon, of 14289 Northlawn, Detroit, was arrested by Farms police on Sunday, February 14, while driving on Lake Shore road, and charged with driving while under the influence of liquor and with never acquiring a valid Michigan operator's license.

Patrolmen John Kraiza and Philip Miglio said they were on routine patrol on Lake Shore when a broadcast from Park police was received, alerting all stations to be on the lookout for an intoxicated motorist seen traveling east on Jefferson, from Whittier.

The Farms policemen said they saw Dixon heading east on Lake Shore in an erratic manner, and attempted to pull him over to the curb at Newberry place. At Warner, the officers succeeded in stopping Dixon, and ordered him out of the car. He was barely able to stand, they said.

Dixon consented to a breathalyzer test. Two such tests were administered at the Woods station, and he failed both. He was returned to the Farms station where he was issued a violation ticket for driving while under the influence of liquor, and another for never having a license to drive.

Farms Municipal Judge Robert Pylett ordered Dixon released after the accused posted bond of $150 for the drunk driving charge, and $50 for the license offense. A hearing has been scheduled for March 24.

Non Residents In Woods Court

The Honorable Don J. Goodrow held court for the City of Grosse Pointe Woods Tuesday, March 2, hearing cases of which only 25 percent involved residents from the Pointe.

Russell Hall, 33341 Kentucky, Livonia, entered a guilty plea for speeding and was found guilty. He paid a fine of $30.

Also speeding were Emma Lovett, 9094 N. Martindale, Detroit; and Pieter Wijdenes, 23117 Edsel Ford, St. Clair Shores. Both were found guilty and ordered to pay a fine of $10 each. Lovett had paid not guilty.

Found guilty of speeding but paying $25 for the offense, Kenneth DeBoi, 12062 Sanford, Detroit, had entered a guilty plea.

For reckless driving, Gary Stocker, 213 Villa Lane, St. Clair Shores was fined $100 after the court found him guilty.

Barbara Moore, 25143 Dale, Roseville, was charged with driving with an expired operator's license. She pled guilty, was found guilty, and paid a fine of $10.

Four members of the Grosse Pointe St. Paul Boys' Swimming Team earned All-City recognition in the Catholic High School City Meet Saturday, March 7.

Seniors Paul Detloff and Mark Rometty, and sophomores John Trost and Brian Kolowich, swimming in the 200-yard medley relay, placed second, turning in a time of 1:53.8, bettered only by U of D High's time of 1:53.1.

In individual events Brian Kolowich placed fourth in the 100-yard backstroke with a time of 1:05.5 and Paul Detloff placed fourth in the 50-yard freestyle with a time of 25.5 seconds.

The accumulated score of 16 points gave the St. Paul tankers an over all finish of fifth in a field of 12 schools including such teams as Austin, Notre Dame, U of D and De La Salle.

The dual meet season for the Lakers was marked by a strong rebuilding program under the direction of Coach Robert C. Vamos, formerly the Freshman coach of the University of Cincinnati. Schools Need Our Help

Monday, March 15, will be a very important date in the history of Grosse Pointe public education. Qualified electors are being asked to approve two millage propositions to provide funds to operate the system during the next fiscal year.

Letters to the Editor

Gentlemen:

This letter is in opposition to the proposed additional millage to be voted on March 15-16, perhaps the Grosse Pointe News will not publish it.

In the three issues preceding the last millage election (that of December 7, in which a bond issue of $3.6 million for improvements to South High was approved 7,309 to 6,091), the News published three letters supporting the proposal and none opposing it.

Sometimes it almost seems that the News is prejudiced when it comes to the question of increasing the millage rate!

Be that as it may, I think it's about time the Grosse Pointe school system gets off the taxpayer's back! Here's why:

In March, 1970, after the voters had defeated two attempts in a little over four months to raise the school millage rate from 18.5 to (1) 27.7 and (2) 25.45, their resistance weakened to the point that they approved a total of 22.4 mills, 2.7 of which were to expire in December, 1970.

Then, just a little over 8 months later, came the December 7 bond issue referendum, and those voting (only 13,498 out of 40,500 registered voters) approved it — 7,309 to 6,091.

It was said by proponents of the bond issue that it will add about one more mill to the taxpayers' burden.

Total school millage increase from December, 1969, to December, 1970: 4.9 — and the pressure keeps mounting, for the beleaguered taxpayers are being asked to renew the 2.7 mill levy that expired in December for not one but three years AND part with an additional 1.8 mills for "extras."

increase and I daresay this is more like it.

But let's say the increase in assessed valuation will average 10 percent. Take, again, the owner of a home previously assessed at $20,000 — a more realistic example than the $10,000 figure used in the News. On top of the 134 additional school taxes he will be paying, his total annual property taxes will increase 10 percent — which will mean, on the average, around $115 more!

There comes a time when even good government costs too much and when the taxpayer finally decides the mark-ups have been too many and too big. I think we have arrived at this hour now in the Pointes.

JOHN DENLER
41 Ine Court

To The Editor: The property owners of the Grosse Pointe School District are again being asked to authorize an increase in millage.

At the same time, the property owners are having their assessed values increased on which the millage applies.

As a public service can you ascertain the total dollar amount of the increase in assessed value of all the property in all the Pointes in the district and the amount of the additional dollars the school system would receive from this source alone at the present millage?

The voters should know these facts before voting on the 15th so they can intelligently decide how to vote.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

Thousands of years ago, when I was in college and majoring in French, with emphasis on other Romance languages, I took a course in Italian from a most brilliant and whimsical professor, with a fine sense of humor, and before we knew it, we were translating P. G. Wodehouse into Italian!

One work came out recently which I still haven't read—NO NUDES IS GOOD NUDES, but I have just finished his latest, THE GIRL IN BLUE, and found that the old master has not lost his light touch.

In the first place he has created laughter, and that is hard to find in books these days. In the second place, he has created characters who have become household items.

Mr. MacInnes concludes his article by saying that Wodehouse is "not only a writer of consummate and hard-nurtured talent, but one who has conveyed to his readers that rarest of human emotions that any writer can, which is simply joy."

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

There'll be cries of "Author! Author!" when the curtain falls at The Players' Playhouse in East Jefferson avenue the weekend after this.

But it's not Edgar Lee Masters who's expected to come out and take a bow.

Yes, Mr. Masters' work will be represented on the March 19 and 20 double bill, third production of Fine Arts Society of Detroit's 1970-71 season: Ken Howard, of Rivard boulevard, is directing selections from the poet's "Spoon River Anthology."

The other author? None other than Howard Snyder, of Hillcrest road, who's directing his own one-act original musical comedy.

"U.S. PRIME" is the play's title, and the plot revolves around a senatorial mission crash-landed and stranded in Borneo, where a pompous senator, (William J. Dennes, of Fisher road), has his share of problems with:

1. A witch doctor.
2. A tribal chief who is most anxious to marry off his single, ugly daughter.

Miss Peters Speaks Vows In St. Paul's

Newlywed Vincent Peter Finns Are at Home in Pointe Area after Evening Rites and Vacation in Chicago

Saint Paul's-on-the-Lakeshore was the setting for the evening wedding of Theresa Marie Peters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent F. Peters, of Grosse Pointe boulevard, and Vincent Peter Finn, son of Mrs. Vincent P. Finn, of Courville street, Detroit, and the late Mr. Finn.

Officiating at the 6:30 o'clock rites Friday, January 29, was Father Leonard P. Wallace.

After a reception at Athena Hall the newlyweds left for a vacation in Chicago. They are making their home in the Pointe area.

For her marriage the former Miss Peters selected a full-skirted gown of Rose-pointe lace accented with hand-embroidered beading. A pearl and crystal crown caught her triple-tiered illusion veil and she carried an arrangement of white baby roses with stephanotis.

She was attended by honor maid Nancy Edwards whose deep purple bonded crepe frock featured lilac chiffon sleeves.

Bridesmaids, dressed identically, were Joanne Peters, the bride's sister, Maryellen Finn, the bridegroom's sister, and Mrs. Brent Peever, of Newport, N.C.

Each carried a white muff with purple-tinted carnations and heather.

Thomas Finn served as his brother's best man. In the usher corps were Thomas and James Peters, the bride's brothers, and Douglas Rohlman, of Palatine, Ill. Ring bearer was Mark Edwards.

The bride's mother selected a turquoise costume, beaded at neck and sleeves, for the double ring ceremony and the reception. Her corsage was fashioned of white baby roses. A corsage of white gardenias complimented the bridegroom's mother's blue ensemble.

Her fiancé attended the Alendale School for Boys and was graduated from Pittsford High School, Rochester. He has completed work for his Bachelor's degree in English at the University of Denver.

The engaged pair plan a vacation in the sun this month with her parents at the home they have taken for the season in Hobe Sound, Fla.

Back in their Woodland place home after an Antigua vacation are MR. and MRS. JOSEPH S. SHERER, JR.

Inside the Mothers Club

"Vote Yes March 15" was the theme of the Grosse Pointe South High School Mother's Club March executive board meeting. Barbara Thompson, president of the Board of Education, at the invitation of Mrs. George Crockatt, Mothers Club president, described the perplexing problems facing the Grosse Pointe School System.

Despite expectation of a larger enrollment, (130 applications have been received already from St. Paul students), cost-of-living salary increases and added maintenance costs due to inflation, and a Supreme Court decision requiring public schools to furnish textbooks, Grosse Pointe schools expect to be deprived of a million dollars in State Aid next year, according to Mrs. Thompson.

Adding to the schools' woes is a policy decision made last summer in Lansing to limit the expenditure per pupil to $945, as stated in Public Act 100.

The problem is further complicated by the State Teacher Tenure Law which requires the Board of Education to give 60 days' notification when cancelling contracts.

"The jobs of over 200 staff members, most of them teachers, cannot be funded next year unless Act 100 is amended by April 17," said Mrs. Thompson.

Mrs. D. G. Schneider, State Legislature representative, recommended that all concerned citizens write State Senator Gilbert Bursley, chairman sponsoring House Bill 4194-8R, (which amends Act 100), urging swift passage to meet the April 17 deadline.

Mrs. Thompson pointed out that a quick way to save money is to limit the number of courses high school students may take. The average number of course elections per student at South High is 5.6.

"This is a significant factor in the quality of education offered in our school system," said the Board president.

A booklet of background information on this special election has been prepared by Dr. Theos I. Anderson and his staff. Copies are available at the Board of Education offices in St. Clair avenue, at the Central Library and the Park and Parcels library branches.

Proceeds from Pointe Players' benefit performance of "Li'l Abner" and from the Pancake Supper, as reported by Mrs. Richard Speer and Mrs. Philip Dickinson, bring the balance in the Mothers' Club Scholarship Fund to $5,313.46, according to Mrs. Robert Batten, treasurer. This was good news to Mrs. H. Weston Burnett, Scholarship chairman, who so far has received 27 applications for the coming year. Deadline for applications is March 16, Mrs. Burnett notes.

Hopefully South High Mothers will support the scholarship benefit performance of Pointe Players' spring production "Up the Down Staircase" March 25 and 26.

One hundred and twenty-four contributions to the Alice Kelly McKee Scholarship Memorial Fund have been received as of March 1 according to Mrs. Robert Clarke who, as corresponding secretary, acknowledged gratitude in behalf of the Mothers Club.

North High's Parent Club is planning a Scholarship Benefit Dessert Thursday, March 18, featuring a fashion show by Walton-Pierce, according to Mrs. Thomas Dimond, general chairman. South High Mothers are welcome.

Delta Kappa Gammas Plan Birthday Fete

The Metropolitan Council of Delta Kappa Gamma Society will hold its annual birthday luncheon meeting Saturday, March 13, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Following luncheon members will have an opportunity to hear Martha W. Griffiths, Congress of the United States.

South High Mothers have scheduled their Spring Scholarship Tea May 5, according to Mrs. Donald Briggs, general chairman.

Mrs. Douglas Smith, Nominating Committee chairman, presented the following 1971-72 slate of Mothers Club officers to be elected at the annual luncheon May 26: president, Mrs. Charles Beltz; president-elect, Mrs. Albert Dickson, Jr.; vice-president, Mrs. James Cameron; and corresponding secretary, Mrs. John Caulkins. Mesdames Edward Hickey, Barry Cornwith, Kenneth Goerke and Clayton Purdy are members of Mrs. Smith's committee.

A final note: the second Candidate Evaluation Meeting, sponsored by Citizens for Education to hear Board of Education candidates present their views in depth, is scheduled for Sunday, March 21, at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.
