Thursday, March 25
THE UNITED STATES and South Vietnam are preparing to junk not only the entire Laotian operation, but also back-up bases in South Vietnam, a Pentagon source revealed Wednesday. Military sources said that within a short time the northwestern corner of South Vietnam from which the Laotian invasion was mounted, probably will be completely abandoned by American and South Vietnamese forces. South Vietnamese combat troops are expected to be returned to permanent bases near Saigon.

Friday, March 26
THE GOVERNMENT PRO- NOUNCED the United States supersonic transport (SST) program "dead as a doornail," and the State Department acknowledged Thursday that a Japanese trading company had expressed interest in buying America's SST assets.

THE NATIONAL BANK of DETROIT announced Thursday it will cut interest rates on its passbook savings account from four-and-a-half to four percent effective April 1. The move by NBD was the first such action among Michigan banks in the wake of a general nationwide reduction in interest rates.

Saturday, March 27
PRESIDENT NIXON was reported Friday to be considering issuing an order to control wages and prices in the construction industry. Secretary of Labor James D. Hodgson said he had recommended an executive order to impose such controls, which would be enforced largely by the threat of withholding federal contracts after unions and management refused to agree to voluntary restraints.

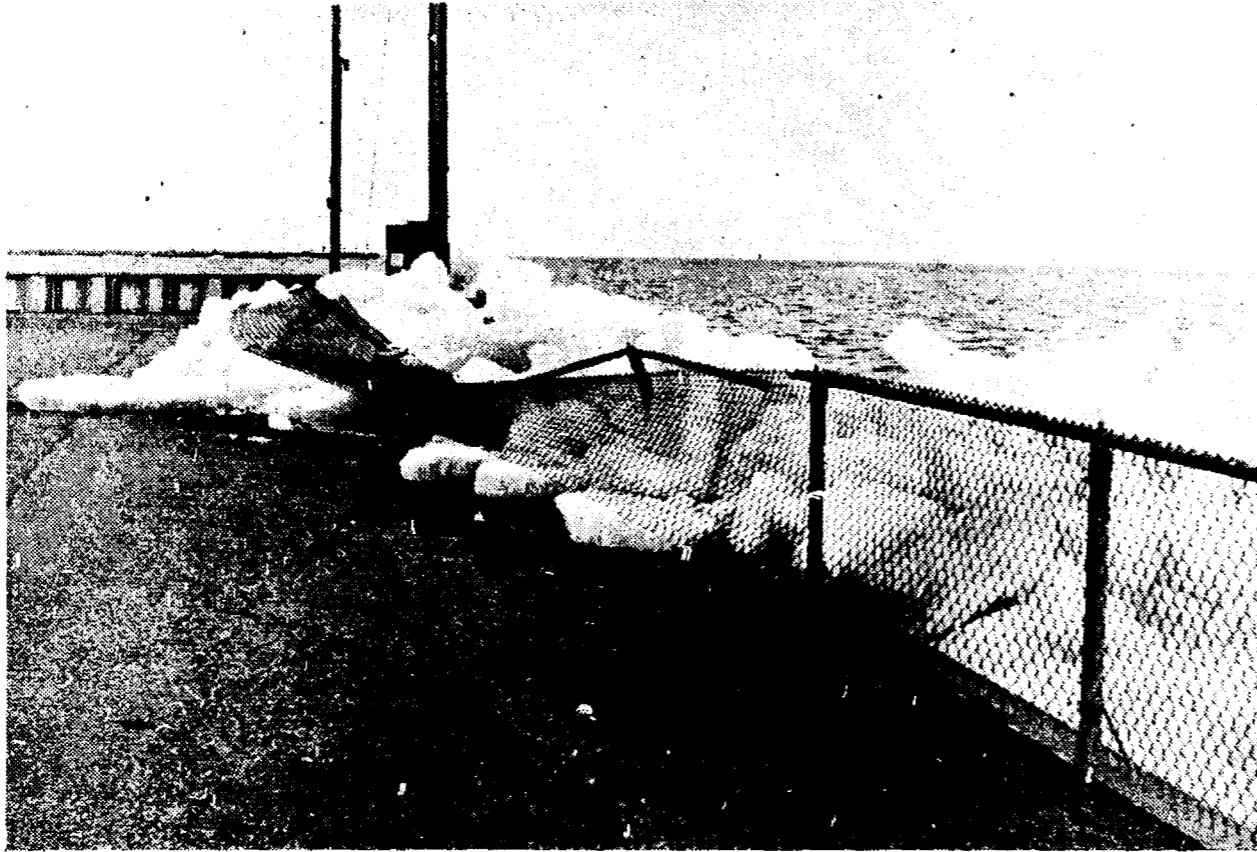

MAYOR ROMAN GRIBBS told Police Commissioner John F. Nichols late Friday to double immediately the number of men assigned to the Central Narcotics Unit, since the city has been faced with more than a fourfold increase in narcotics arrests during the first two months of 1971.

Sunday, March 28
EAST PAKISTAN'S ragtag rebel army fought for its life Saturday, facing superior West Pakistan troops backed by tanks, artillery and jet bombers. An Indian news agency report said that an estimated 10,000 East Pakistanis had been killed in less than two days of civil war. Each side claimed to have the upper hand. Radio Free Bengal claimed at nightfall Saturday that the East Pakistani separatist government, the "Bangla Desh," controlled most parts of the province. An official Pakistani federal government report said its army was in complete control.

Monday, March 29
WEST PAKISTAN'S ARMY took full control Sunday of Dacca, the East Pakistani capital where Sheikh Mujibur Rahman mounted a rebellion last week. Fighting that lasted two nights and a day is believed to have taken the lives of 5,000 to 7,000 persons in the area. This was an estimate of some American newsmen who left East Pakistan on Sunday. Censorship prevented them from filing stories from East Pakistan. Reports from sources in India continued to claim 10,000 or more dead.

Tuesday, March 30
LIEUTENANT WILLIAM L. CALLEY, JR. was found guilty Monday of the premeditated murder of at least 22 Vietnamese civilians at My Lai, and was led away to await sentencing, possibly to death. Calley, his face flushed, snapped a weak salute when he heard the verdict, but did not break down. He was the first U.S. soldier convicted in the March 16, 1968, massacre in which, according to varying estimates between 102 and 310 persons were slaughtered.

Canada Sends Spring Greetings

Strong winds from Canada forced ice floes some four feet high and 24 feet long across Lake St. Clair and up against the front pier wall at Norbert T. Neff Memorial Park breaking some 25 to 30 feet of fencing on Friday, March 19. Bob Kuhn,

City of Grosse Pointe Parks and Recreation Supervisor, and his assistant Jim Smith spent hours breaking up the ice. A number of the brace poles were completely broken. The City Department of Parks is currently in the process of replacing them.

War Memorial's Campaign For Funds Is Started

All Residents Urged to Contribute to Enable Center to Continue Serving Entire Community With Activities for All

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association opens its annual Family Participation Campaign to raise funds today. It will continue officially to Memorial Day, although gifts to the association are most welcome at any time of the year. It is hoped that when the traditional ceremonies are held at the Center on Memorial Day it can be announced that the drive has successfully reached its goal.

The War Memorial Center needs help from all Pointe residents. The Center receives no taxes or United Foundation funds. The beautiful buildings and grounds were outright gifts to Grosse Pointe. The Center covers the expenses of its activities even with many free programs and fees for services held at a level citizens can afford. But it must have support for the quarter of its budget needed to maintain this splendid civic asset which cost Grosse Pointers nothing.

Last year, 5,400 contributed $91,400 to the Association. The same amount, (no more in spite of rising costs), is needed this year.

Unique Facility
The Memorial Center is a unique facility. Its use attests its importance to Pointers. In 1970 they repeatedly came to the Center in over 2,000 groups. Alger House and Fries Auditorium together with their lake shore gardens and grounds comprise a center for educational, cultural and social activity at the community level not equalled anywhere.

The Center's board of directors, who volunteer their services, list 10 good reasons to support the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

- (1) Wholesome family recreation and entertainment—travels with ethnic meals, plays, nationally known personalities, car and hobby shows, revues.
- (2) Youth programs—Children's Theater; supervised social activities; training in art, ballet, foreign language, guitar, etc.; council for civic and community participation under adult guidance.
- (3) Free loan of hospital equipment—wheel chairs, crutches, walkers, beds, commodes, etc.; free loan of blood in emergency.
- (4) Accommodation for activities of hundreds of community organizations—charitable agencies, service clubs, professional associations, special interest groups, civic committees.
- (5) Senior Citizens activities—perhaps the largest and most active groups in the country, operate at the War Memorial.
- (6) Cultural enrichment—concerts, theater, lectures and exhibits of higher order are scheduled year round.
- (7) Study opportunities—art, dance, language, foods, dramatics, investments, and credit courses at University level.
- (8) Special interest groups—Cinema League, chamber music, bridge, gardening, Par-

Not Yet Ruled On
In the lawsuit, which has not yet been ruled on, the city claims there is not enough emergency parking space for special events at the high school. During normal school hours, the existing parking facilities have been adequate for seniors driving to school. But during some special events the city has found traffic problems created by the lack of parking space.

In a compromising effort, the board has plans on allowing for an emergency, undeveloped parking lot between the drive running east and the existing tennis courts on Morningside.

As far as the rest of the property is concerned, plans are still up in the air as to the immediate priority needs of

Four Seats To Be Filled On April 5

4 Incumbents Opposed by Two Newcomers; Polls Open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday

By Pepper Whitelaw
Four spots on The Farms Council will be up for grabs at the city's regular election on Monday, April 5. Incumbents running for re-election include William G. Butler, present mayor; James H. Dingeman, mayor pro-tem; Robert T. Herdegen, Jr. and Rust Muirhead. Newcomers in the council race are W. James Mast and Reynold W. Semmler, Jr.

The top three vote-getters will serve four year terms and the next runner-up a two year term. The mayor's seat is filled by election by the council.

William Butler has been a member of the council since 1955 and served as its mayor since 1966. He attended Detroit University School, was graduated from Phillips An-rover Academy in 1930, and from Yale College in 1934. He was graduated from Harvard Law School in 1937 with an LL.B. degree. He has been associated with the law firm of Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone since 1937 and is presently a partner.

Served in Air Force
He served in the United States Air Force as a Second Lieutenant and Major from 1942 through 1946. His post community efforts include Farms Little League, Babe Ruth League, and Cub Scouting. He is presently a member of the Farms Boat Club and the Grosse Pointe Symphony Society. He is a trustee, (and former chairman), of Merrill Palmer Institute, Metropolitan Society for the Blind, Detroit Historical Society and Elmwood Cemetery. Mr. Butler is also a member of the Michigan Historical Society, Circumnavigators Club, Detroit, Michigan and American Bar Associations. He is married and has three children.

Seeks Second Term
James H. Dingeman, who is running for a second full-term as Farms councilman, is group vice-president, Legal and Corporate Planning Affairs, and secretary for Parke Davis and Company, and a member of that pharmaceutical firm's board of directors. He is also vice-president of Warner-Lambert Company, of which Parke-Davis is a subsidiary.

Money Vanishes From HS Annex

Richard W. Kay of 689 Rivard boulevard, informed Farms police on Monday, March 22, that someone had entered the office of the Grosse Pointe South High School Annex, over the weekend, and took a large sum of money that was in an envelope.

Kay, director of the Annex, said that several women employees arrived at the office and discovered that the key would not work in the office door. The key would turn in the lock, it was said, but it would not slip the bolt. A man from the Maintenance Department was called, and he removed the bolt and adjusted the lock to open the door.

As employees were preparing for the day's work, one woman found the envelope containing the money, approximately $800 gone from the office. A search for the envelope was futile.

The office was closed Friday night, March 19, and the money placed in the envelope because it was too late to deposit the sum in the bank, Kay said. The money was from receipts from the swimming class, Driver Traffic School, petty cash, etc., it was revealed.

Kay said that similar thefts had occurred in the Annex three times over a 15-month period.

Blame Blaze At Florist's On Arsonist

Considerable Damage Done to Office and Two Vehicles at Paselk's On-The-Hill

Farms police are investigating the possibility of arson in a two-alarm fire that damaged the building of Paselk Florist, Incorporated, the firm's truck and a station wagon, on Friday, March 26. The fire swept through the office at the rear of the edifice.

Farms firefighters and equipment responded to an alarm at 6:50 p.m., and at the same time, City firemen were dispatched immediately under Mutual Fire Aid. As the firemen were battling the blaze, the gasoline tank of the delivery truck exploded, spattering gasoline on a fire truck and two firemen, but with no apparent damage to the equipment or harm to the men, it was disclosed.

Farms Fire Chief Michael Beupre said that the blaze originated at the rear of the truck, then spread to a station wagon alongside and to the wall of the building, and finally penetrated into the rear office.

An official report revealed that there was extensive damage to the office and equipment, the vehicles, and to the rear of the building.

Farms Det. Sgt. George Van Nem said that it is believed that the fire was started by an arsonist, and the matter is being thoroughly investigated.

The amount of damage will not be known until insurance investigators complete their report.

Lobsinger Hears Sentence For Disturbance in Church

Wayne County Circuit Judge John M. Wise sentenced Donald Lobsinger, ultra-right-wing Breakthrough leader, to two years probation on Wednesday, March 24, fined him $75, assessed him $350 court costs, and ordered him to undergo psychiatric evaluation.

First Aid Course Taken By City Police Officers To Meet State Regulation

Additional Equipment Also Being Purchased; Was First Department in Country to Have Stretchers for Hospital Runs

By Pepper Whitelaw
All the City of Grosse Pointe police officers have completed the American Red Cross Multi-Media First Aid Course, complying with the rules and regulations recently imposed by the state requiring all personnel involved in hospital runs to train and receive updated first aid certificates.

The City police all have had previous first aid training. The course was taught by Farms Sergeant Babe Parsons, certified multiple first aid Red Cross instructor.

The eight-hour course included training in such emergency treatments as splinting of fractures, newest treatments for burn victims, mouth to mouth resuscitation, treatment of poison victims, bandaging of wounds, intensive training on the vital pressure points and how to bandage these areas to stop the bleeding.

Leader in Country
The City of Grosse Pointe has had stretcher equipment to convey accident victims to the hospitals in their vehicles for over 35 years. In fact, this was the first police force in the country to have such equipment.

Chief Teetaert told the NEWS that the new state law will require some additional equipment which the City anticipates purchasing in the near future.

City police over the years have handled many emergency hospital runs with dispatch and efficiency. In the year 1967, they handled some 133 cases; in 1968, 129 cases;

North High's Campus Plan Under Study

Driveway and Extra Parking Space for Special Events Considered; Other Ideas Probed

Woods residents may be wondering what will become of the property on the northeast section of the North High campus. The property, part of the old Vanderbush estate, remains the topic of discussion among the North students and the Board of Education regarding usage.

Plans have been implemented, however, toward the laying of a driveway stretching from the vicinity of the North Theater Arts building east to Morningside drive. Also, the board has had to make adjustments to allow for an extra parking area along Morningside because of a lawsuit instituted by the city of Grosse Pointe Woods about a year ago requiring an extra parking lot on the property.

Not Yet Ruled On
In the lawsuit, which has not yet been ruled on, the city claims there is not enough emergency parking space for special events at the high school. During normal school hours, the existing parking facilities have been adequate for seniors driving to school. But during some special events the city has found traffic problems created by the lack of parking space.

Kids Suspected Of Toting 'Pot'

Four St. Clair Shores juveniles were stopped Sunday, March 21, by Shores police with suspected marijuana in the car and one of them may be charged with possession, depending on the results of analysis.

One of the youths told police he received the "stuff" from a ninth grade student at South Lake High School and was to meet someone in front of the Roostertail nightclub in Detroit at 8 p.m. that evening to pass it on.

Shores Patrolman Bruce Darlington first began to tail the car as it was moving south on Lakeshore when he noticed there was no license plate light. When the driver turned right on Renaud, he stopped the car.

As Darlington approached the car, he noticed the person on the far right bend over as if trying to hide something by the door. The officer opened up the right hand door and noticed a small plastic container. Inside the container was the suspected drug. The policeman also reported the presence of a strong odor similar to that of burning marijuana.

The juveniles were all released to their parents pending investigation.

Wrecker Truck Reported Stolen

A 1970 Ford wrecker truck was reported missing from a gas service station by the station owner, Kenneth Gould of 5781 Lenox, Detroit.

Gould told Farms police that the truck was parked in his lot at the corner of Mack and Fisher at 11 p.m. on Monday, March 22, and when his day man, Robert Gardner of 224 Fisher, opened the station at 9:30 a.m. the following day, the wrecker was gone.

He did not give the value of the vehicle, but did disclose that it was recently purchased. The wrecker had no license plates and was not insured, he said.

Five-Year Sentence Given Man for Rape Attempts

A man accused of raping a St. Clair Shores woman and attempting to rape women from Roseville and Grosse Pointe Shores last September has recently been convicted on a charge by Shores police of assault with intent to do great bodily harm.

Gary Reaume, 25, of Windsor, Ont., is already due to spend five years in prison from a conviction obtained from St. Clair Shores of assault with intent to rape. Originally charged with rape and armed robbery, Reaume agreed to plead guilty to the lesser charge and was sentenced to five years.

Reaume, who faces sentencing from the Pointe conviction Friday, April 5, could be ordered to spend up to 10 years behind bars. He has yet to face a Roseville charge of assault with intent to rape. Each sentence obtained, however, will not run consecutively but concurrently. So Reaume will only spend the number of years in the largest sentence behind bars.

Reaume was first caught by Roseville police attempting rape one week after a rape and armed robbery was reported by a St. Clair Shores woman and the attempted rape of the resident from The Pointe.

The Pointe woman told police at the time that she had parked her car in the garage and, as she was walking to the side entrance of her home, Reaume grabbed her and (Continued on Page 2)

Farms Council Election

In 1968, Mr. Dingeman was with Federal-Mogul Corporation of Detroit for 25 years. He was graduated from the University of Detroit with a Ph.D. and earned his LL.B. in 1939. He was an investigation and claims attorney for U.S. Fidelity Company for a year before entering private law practice between 1940-43, when he joined Federal-Mogul. He is a member of the American Society of Corporate Secretaries, National Association of Manufacturers, Detroit and Michigan Bar Associations, Greater Detroit Chamber of Commerce, and the Pharmaceutical Manufacturers Association Law Section. Mr. Dingeman is a member of the Otsego Ski Club, Country Club of Detroit, Detroit Club and Detroit Athletic Club. He is married and has four children.

Life-Long Resident
 Rust Muirhead is a life-long resident of The Farms with the exception of a few years in San Francisco where he was an officer of the Pacific National Bank. He is vice-president and director of Heber Fuger, Wendin, Investment Counselors. He serves in the same capacity with the Great Lakes Fund. Mr. Muirhead is a trustee of University-Liggett School and a board member of the Grosse Pointe Club. He is also a member of the Economic Club and a director of Wisler Western Arms in Reno, Nev. He earned his BA degree at Trinity College, in Hartford, Conn., and attended the University of Virginia Law School. He and his wife Mercedes have three children.

W. James Mast has lived in The Farms for 28 years. He attended Kerby School, Brownell Junior High School and was graduated from Grosse Pointe High School in 1949. He received his BS degree from Massachusetts Institute of Technology in 1953 and his MS degree in 1954.

Mr. Mast was an engineer with Edward H. Meyer Construction Company, Neenah, Wis., from 1954 to 1956. In 1956 he became a partner with Walter H. Mast Company, custom home builders.

He is a registered professional engineer in both Michigan and Wisconsin and a member of Chi Epsilon, civil engineering honorary; Tau Beta Pi, engineering honorary; Sigma Xi, scientific research honorary; National Association of Home Builders and American Society of Civil Engineers.

His civic and community activities include serving in all offices of the MIT Club of Detroit, Regional Chairmanship of MIT Educational Council, membership in St. James Lutheran Church, vice-presidency of Grosse Pointe Citizens for Education, as well as board member and member of the Candidate Evaluation Committee. He was responsible for Kerby district for several Pointe school system millage and bond elections. He is a member of the Founders Society of the Detroit Institute of Arts and the Economic Club of Detroit. He is married to the former Martha Watkins and has five children in the Grosse Pointe Public School system.

Served in Army
 Reynold W. Semmler, Jr. is a lifetime resident of The Pointe and a product of the local public school system. He is an active alumnus of Kenyon College. In 1942 he enlisted in the United States Army and later served with the 95th Division as part of Patton's Third Army in Europe. He married the former Barbara Tait in 1947. They have four children.

Mr. Semmler is president of Semmler Investment Company which operates in the real estate and property management field. He is also executive vice-president and general manager of Semmler Corporation, a Midwest engineering and distribution network serving the building and construction industry.

Herdegen Not Reached
 Robert T. Herdegen, Jr. has been a member of The Farms Council since 1969. He was elected for a two-year term. He is the new assistant manager of the International Division of Sifco Industries, a steel forging firm. He was graduated from the University of Wisconsin, and is married and the father of three children. The NEWS was unable to reach Mr. Herdegen for further information.

Registered, qualified voters who expect to be absent from the city, or who are confined to home or hospital by illness or disability, are urged to apply for absent voters ballots at once. No application can be made after 2 p.m. Saturday, April 3. Application must be made prior to such time at the City offices. Polls will be open from 7 a.m. until 8 p.m. for the election Monday, April 5, at all seven precincts.

placed a knife to her throat. She was forced to the man's car before she wrenched herself loose and started screaming. Reaume made his escape an hour before the rape was reported in St. Clair Shores.

Reaume, identified in mug shots and a line-up, originally had been charged with assault with intent to commit murder by Shores police, which carries a penalty of 20 years in prison. The jury, composed of seven women and five men, however, declared him guilty of the lesser charge.

Shores police, although happy with a conviction, were disappointed in their frustrated efforts to gain a guilty verdict on a more serious charge and a maximum sentence.

"Here we've got a man who should be in prison for 20 years but so far he'll be out on the street again before five years are up," Shores Detective Sergeant Frank Mustazza said. With good behavior, Reaume could be released after only three years, nine months in jail. If a parole is obtained, he could be out sooner.

North Campus Under Study

According to a story written by Nancy Simon in North High's North Pointe, the school newspaper, student interest ranges from having a student park, patrolled by students, to a field hockey facility, to leaving the land wild for use by the Science Department for instructional purposes and environmental study.

High Honor Won By North Pointe

An All-American Honor rating was awarded North Pointe student newspaper at North High School, by the National Scholastic Press Association at the University of Minnesota in the 84th All American Critical Service. Approximately 1,600 school newspapers from throughout the United States were evaluated.

Newspapers published from September through December of 1970 were judged on coverage and content, writing and editing, editorial leadership, physical appearance and photography. Marks of Distinction for superior achievement may be awarded in each of the five categories and a paper must receive at least four such credits to be rated All American.

North Pointe received Mark of Distinction credit for superior accomplishment in Content and Coverage, Writing and Editing, Editorial Leadership, Physical Appearance, and Photography.

Ratings of First Class (excellent); Second Class (very good), and Third Class (good) are given on the basis of total numerical scores achieved in the five classifications.

"Competition for top ratings is tougher each year," Otto W. Quale, NSPA Executive Director, stated. "High school editors, writers and photographers of today grew up in a whole new world of mass communications and their newspapers reflect this sophistication. There is more in-depth reporting and significant editorial content than was apparent five years ago."

"It is a responsible press challenged by great insight to the problems and progress that are a part of their lives today," Quale added.

"North Pointe can take great pride in another semester of top notch service to readers. Coverage of school and community is thorough. Content is made up of wide variety of timely subjects from local elections to drugs," commented Mrs. Helen Ganzales, NSPA Judge.

Still more are Phillip Frame, circulation manager; David Versical, assistant circulation manager; Theresa Peters, exchange editor; Ken Wood and Debbie Masten, assistant exchange editors; Marianne Campo, Kathy Gules, Barbara Clayton, Michelle DeLand and Foster Peabody, special assignment reporters.

Driver Education Program Center Drive Taken by 19,000 Students

"I think we would all agree that today, driving is a very important activity of life," Dean R. Balcirak, Driver Education Coordinator for The Grosse Pointe Public School System, said.

Mr. Balcirak said that the driver education program in Grosse Pointe is a "big operation." Since 1956, it has been offered free of charge to over 19,000 students.

"Our biggest year was in 1969-70 with 1,650 students enrolled. To teach this large number of students, we offer a program on Saturday for parochial students, a summer program using 12 to 14 instructors teaching approximately 750 students, and both high schools instructing approximately 800 students during the school year," he commented. Driver education teachers travel approximately 16,000 miles per year with beginning drivers.

"The driver education program instituted locally 16 years ago, was designed to help students learn the proper skills to operate a car safely in our complex traffic society of today," Mr. Balcirak explained. "But of equal importance is the understanding of how attitudes, citizenship, and acceptance of responsibility are related to success in every day driving as well as living. To help our students learn about their responsibility and proper driving skills, it was felt that this could best be accomplished by taking a course in driver education that is a regular part of the school curriculum," he said.

Since 1956, Grosse Pointe's driver education cars have traveled a total of 1.4 million miles and in all that time have sustained only two street accidents, Mr. Balcirak reported. He said that last year the driver education cars traveled approximately 140,000 miles—providing each student the opportunity to drive 85 miles.

The Driver Education Coordinator said that to handle the job of teaching these large numbers of students how to drive, the public schools use a fleet of 20 cars, 14 of which are used on a range program shared jointly by both Grosse Pointe North and South High School. Three additional cars are used at each of the high schools for on-the-street-driving.

The public schools' driver education program could not exist without the donation of cars by many local dealers. Among those who have contributed are Wood Motors, Cook Ford, Frank Adams Lincoln-Mercury, Dick Shalla Chevrolet, Ted Ewald Chevrolet, Bob Saks Oldsmobile, and Jefferson Chevrolet.

Mr. Balcirak said that if more people had had formal driver training, the traffic picture would be much more pleasant than it is today.

"Traffic Safety experts find that as a whole, young drivers with a formal driver education program do a remarkably good job of driving under adverse driving conditions when compared to their length of driving experience," Mr. Balcirak stated.

Mr. Balcirak commented that the driver education program at Grosse Pointe High School has been a leader in curriculum development and has been recognized as one of the most outstanding in the state. Programs at both Grosse Pointe South and Grosse Pointe North were highly rated by the North Central Association evaluation team.

The school system receives partial reimbursement to operate the driver training program. Last year the state provided approximately $50,000, or $25 to $30 per student, with the local school system adding another $30.

Church Offering Free Lecture

What do spiritual values have to do with the fulfillment of human needs?

This is a question to be discussed at a public lecture on Friday, April 9, by Florence C. Southwell, C.S.B., of Miami.

"In this age of technological advance," the lecturer will state, "the world has great need for true moral values and for the riches of spiritual understanding. They alone can give and sustain moral values."

Speaking under the auspices of First Church of Christ Scientist, 282 Chalfonte avenue.

A native of South Bend, Ind., Mrs. Southwell attended Grosse Washington University in Washington, D.C. Prior to entering the ministry of Christian Science, she was assistant manager of a statewide business in Florida.

As William J. Croul, chairman of the 1971 Family Participation Campaign says, "There couldn't be more of a community center in every sense of the term than the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. This center, more than any other institution, brings together children and adults from all five Grosse Pointes. Keeping this institution alive and growing is made possible through your contribution to this annual Family Participation Campaign."

James D. Tracy, president of the Memorial Center's Board, emphasizes the need for a broad base of support for the Center. "All gifts regardless of size are truly needed and appreciated. We hope everyone will use the tax free remittance envelope sent them this week to give what they can. All gifts to Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center are income tax deductible. Act now. The funds are necessary to continue operations after July."

Self-made men have one fault—they are not self-contained.

This is a question to be discussed at a public lecture on Friday, April 9, by Florence C. Southwell, C.S.B., of Miami.

"In this age of technological advance," the lecturer will state, "the world has great need for true moral values and for the riches of spiritual understanding. They alone can give and sustain moral values."

Speaking under the auspices of First Church of Christ Scientist, 282 Chalfonte avenue.

A native of South Bend, Ind., Mrs. Southwell attended Grosse Washington University in Washington, D.C. Prior to entering the ministry of Christian Science, she was assistant manager of a statewide business in Florida.

As William J. Croul, chairman of the 1971 Family Participation Campaign says, "There couldn't be more of a community center in every sense of the term than the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. This center, more than any other institution, brings together children and adults from all five Grosse Pointes. Keeping this institution alive and growing is made possible through your contribution to this annual Family Participation Campaign."

James D. Tracy, president of the Memorial Center's Board, emphasizes the need for a broad base of support for the Center. "All gifts regardless of size are truly needed and appreciated. We hope everyone will use the tax free remittance envelope sent them this week to give what they can. All gifts to Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center are income tax deductible. Act now. The funds are necessary to continue operations after July."

Self-made men have one fault—they are not self-contained.

What do spiritual values have to do with the fulfillment of human needs?

SHS Orchestra Earns Honors

The Grosse Pointe South High School Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Russell D. Reed, received "straight firsts" Saturday, March 13, at the District Festival held in the Fine Arts Center of North High School. A sizable crowd was on hand for the concert performance and then followed the group to the sight-reading session.

The sight-reading adjudicator wrote at the top of the rating sheet: "Great to see an orchestra of this large enrollment with this large string section! I was pleased to see the large audience of parents, friends or relatives crowd into the sight-reading room. This indicates interest and support on the part of the community. Keep it up!"

Raymond Gerkowski, head of the Music Department in the Flint Public Schools, went on to say: "This is an excellent orchestra. It did many, many things very well such as the achievement of an excellent orchestra sound, very pleasing intonation, good balance, musical phrasing and steady tempo."

Lyman Bodman of Michigan State University wrote of the concert performance, "you and I know how fine this orchestra is." Other judges commented on the group's "excellent full orchestra sound" and its maturity.

Of the 32 grades awarded by the judges for tone, intonation, technique, rhythm, and interpretation the South Orchestra received only 4 B's with the other grades all A's.

The next performance of the orchestra will be at the Annual Easter Concert at the North Performing Arts Center Auditorium on March 30 at 8:00 p.m.

South High Request for Open Campus

(Continued from Page 1) ways a major problem brought to the fore when open campus was discussed. Students felt that if they could prove in the lunchroom that they could practice self control and peer control, this too could prove to be a plus factor for open campus. With the tremendous student interest in ecology today that matter of littering, which was so prevalent a decade ago, might no longer be one of such proportions.

Some Reservations
The discussions between students and adults also brought to light a few reservations some adults had regarding open campus. Mrs. Thompson pointed out one of the major problems was that of public relations. She said open campus is not popular with many parents or persons living in the vicinity of the school, or owning places of business which students are likely to frequent.

An additional consideration is that of the increased traffic flow in the area during the lunch periods if open campus were instituted and the danger to grade school children in the area on lunch hours. Here again, Mrs. Thompson said that she believes drivers today are much better drivers than their counterparts of 10 years ago through improved driver education courses in the high schools.

The Drug Problem
A new problem is with us in the '70s... that of drugs. Open campus could increase the presence on the periphery of the school of outsiders who could use this opportunity to sell drugs to students.

Principal Jerry Gerich raised the question of control of unauthorized persons in the school building if open campus were permitted. Singling out such persons would be much more difficult under these conditions.

The fact that considerable construction will be going on at South High School during the next few years also raises other problems. Since the school cafeteria is almost entirely self sustaining, open campus could create a difficult planning problem for cafeteria staff, and since they operate on a very tight budget could create other complications.

Another Idea Offered
Miss French said that she believes there must be reasons students are on or off campus. She suggested that teachers might in the future arrange off-campus assignments for students such as interviews with businessmen, merchants and city officials, using the community as a resource place and laboratory for students and at the same time giving the students a break from the daily routine classroom courses.

She added if the program began by getting youngsters off campus for purposeful endeavors, eventually the school schedule might ultimately provide more flexibility which could provide the students with the freedom they desire.

Jeff Montgomery said the meetings were very worthwhile because they gave the students the opportunity to ask questions on issues they weren't clear on, and gave the adults an opportunity to hear from students other than Student Association officers with whom they had not previously spoken.

Wants Trial Period
"We would like the Board to let us have a trial period of open campus. We feel that right now people who aren't sure if they want us to have it or not are basing their arguments on what might happen... let us try it and see what does happen," Jeff added.

He said that members are currently meeting in hopes of coming up with a workable plan for open campus which would be agreeable to all parties concerned.

Farms Submits Building Report

Residential and commercial construction in the Farms appears to be at a standstill during the first two months of 1971, and only nine permits for miscellaneous building, (additions, garages, etc.) have been applied for so far this year, according to a monthly report submitted by John A. DeFoc, director of Public Services.

The report also revealed that no permits for building of residences or shops had been applied for in January and February of 1970, and only nine permits for miscellaneous construction were granted.

During the first two months of 1971, and during the same period in 1970, no applications were received for buildings classified as non-assessable property. The total valuation of permits issued so far this year from January 1 through February 28, amounted to $115,960; and for the same period in 1970, the amount was $90,000. Last month, the six miscellaneous permits approved were for construction valued at a total of $107,000; and the three granted last year in February, were for property worth a total of $50,000.

Lobsinger

(Continued from Page 1) found Lobsinger guilty of the charge, a misdemeanor. The Breakthrough leader was sentenced to pay a fine of $150 and placed on probation for six months, by Judge Paterson, and Lobsinger appealed the conviction to Circuit Court. On February 10 of this year, Lobsinger was convicted again, this time by a Circuit Court jury, following a hearing before Judge Wise, who set sentencing date for March 24. On the sentencing date, Judge Wise's courtroom was filled with Lobsinger's followers, who heard the judge tell their leader that his political tactics "remind me of Nazism." This raised murmurs of disapproval by the court spectators, who were gaveled into silence by the judge, with the threat that the courtroom would be cleared if another outburst took place.

SHS Musicians Perform April 3

The Grosse Pointe South High School Symphony Band under the direction of Russel D. Reed will be one of two High School Bands from Michigan appearing Saturday, April 3, at the Spring Conference on Wind and Percussion Music at Western Michigan University.

Appearing with the Symphony Band will be the A Cappella Choir directed by Leonard L. Riccinto. They are performing at the conference by invitation from the music department of Western Michigan University located in Kalamazoo.

The conference is designed "to promote the performance, understanding and composition of quality wind and percussion music." Conductors, students, and interested persons are invited to all events of the conference free of charge.

The South Band will be performing works of three featured composers with the composers serving as guest conductors. The guest composers-conductors include Ramon Zupko, of Chicago Musical

College, who will conduct his "Ode and Jubilation."

Robert Washburn, professor of music at the State University College of New York, will guest conduct his "Partita." The final work performed by the South High School musicians will be "A Satirical Eulogy on the Death of a Late Famous General," by Robert Jager with text by Jonathan Swift. This work will combine the talents of the Band and A Cappella Choir. Mr. Jager is the director of the Concert Band at Old Dominion University in Norfolk, Va. The Band will also perform four other contemporary works.

The Grosse Pointe portion of the conference will be presented in the James W. Miller Auditorium starting at 1 p.m. The students will leave Grosse Pointe South High School at 7:30 a.m. and will remain at the conference for the remainder of the day and evening. The students have earned their own transportation monies for this trip.

Sportscapade . . . Anything, Anyone?

Whatever the sport, "Sportscapade," slated for Wednesday April 7, at the War Memorial, at 7:30 o'clock, will have it, . . . everything from sports equipment to sports attire. Happily anticipating the event are models (left to right) BILL BODEAU, CRAIG HENDERSON, MIKE WARD, KATHY BODEAU, FRANK McBRIDE, and JANE WARNER.

By Pepper Whitelaw

The Lions will be roaring at the War Memorial's "Sportscapade" night, Wednesday, April 7, at 7:30 o'clock. Ed Flanagan, Lions center, will present filmed highlights of the 1970-71 Lions' season.

"The Voice of the Lions," three-time winner of sportscaster of the year award and sports director for WJR, Bob Reynolds, will narrate the fashion and sports equipment show, (he promises to purr instead of roar for this bit) . . . and the Lions of fashion, our own Pointe Merchants, will feature equipment and attire for tennis, golf, swimming, biking, sailing, yachting and for just looking fashionable!

Get there early and see the displays in the foyers and ballroom of Fries Auditorium.

Color and practicality are the big thrust in sportswear and equipment this year, from shocking pinks to gay wild prints for both men and women's wear.

Highlight of the show will be the models . . . well-known Pointers all . . . Frank and Peggy McBride, Bill and Kathy Bodeau, Jane Warner, Crissie Powers, Lou Maxon, Kevin and Carl Sterr II, Mackey Metzen, Robert Giroux, Craig Henderson, Mike Day, Kipp Cody, Bess Hickey, Rex Clavoia, Bill and Sue Boydell, Larry Scott, Michelle Michaels, Joanne Dunec and Thom Bailey.

Local merchants, with their usual incite into fashion and fun, whose merchandise will be displayed include Hickey's Jacobsons, Picard - Norton, Grays, Sterrs, Thomas Hardware, Ray Senkowski's Tennis Shop, Grosse Pointe Ski Shop, Pointe Cyclery, Captain Ozones and Don McCubbins.

Don's suggesting that Pointers look ahead to spring by sporting some of his new wigs for both men and women.

Program covers for Sports- (Playboy Magazine (with John capade are being provided by Lake as the center-fold?)

Playboy is also providing a bunny to greet guests (just in time for the Easter season.)

Since cycling is on the upswing in The Pointe members of our cycling group, "Sunday Circus" will be interested in viewing the matching his and hers suburban cycles with children's seats and trailers or the ubiquitous unicycle for the loners. "Wandering Wheels" a most interesting group cycling film will be shown upstairs in the ballroom following the feature in the auditorium.

After the style show and film, Pointers can get pointers on tennis from such pros as Ray Senkowski, find out about the new three-speed boat winches from Warren Jones, and select and order clothes and equipment for the golf course, cruising, the tennis court, and the many summer and spring sport activities.

Obituaries

WALTER W. FULLER

Services for Walter W. Fuller, 72, 960 Trombley road, retired fraternal editor of the Detroit News were held on Saturday, March 27, in the Verheyden Funeral Home.

He died on Wednesday, March 24, in Ford Hospital after a long illness.

Mr. Fuller, who retired in 1948 after 44 years with The Detroit News, was director of public relations for the Inland Tool and Manufacturing Company at the time of his death.

Prior to joining Inland Tool and Manufacturing Company he was a staff writer for The Grosse Pointe News.

Probably no Detroit newspaperman became known personally to more of his readers than Mr. Fuller.

A longtime Mason and Shriner, he was elected illustrious potentate of Moslem Temple Shrine in 1953. Other honors to come his way were the presidency of the Detroit Kiwanis Club Number One in 1946 and selection as "Michigan Speaker of the Year" by the American Speakers Club in 1957. In addition, he received scores of plaques from veterans groups and service clubs.

For a number of years his Sunday column "I'm Telling You" was one of the most popular features in the Detroit News. One of his columns, "I Am An American," was reprinted in the Congressional Record in 1948.

A native of Richmond, Michigan, Mr. Fuller began his career as a reporter for the Richmond Review. Before joining the Detroit News, he worked on newspapers in Monroe, Saginaw and Flint.

In 1954, Richmond honored him by proclaiming "Walter Fuller Day." Thousands of Shriners converged on the town for a mammoth parade down Main Street.

As a Mason, Mr. Fuller received his 33rd degree in 1965 and was a life member of Damascus Commandery 42 Knights Templar, and of Palesline Chapter 159, F. & A.M. He received top honors from the Order of De Molay and York Rite Sovereign College of Masons.

In addition to his formal lodge and club affiliations, more than 30 clubs named him an honorary member.

He is survived by his wife, the former Helen Oakman; two daughters, Mrs. Richard Boudreau, of Inkster, and Mrs. Sanford Morse Jr. of Arlington, Va.; three sisters, Mrs. Louis Taylor, of La Grange, Ill.; Mrs. Joseph Fleury, of Hinsdale, Ill.; and Mrs. Harold LeGue, of Mount Clemens; a brother, Irving, of Detroit; and three granddaughters.

Memorial tributes may be made to Moslem Temple Association Crippled Children's Fund.

Interment was in Woodlawn Cemetery.

LOVELL T. ELSEY

Funeral services for Mr. Elsey, 63, of 422 Barclay road, were held on Saturday, March 27, in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church. He died on Thursday, March 25, in Harper Hospital.

Mr. Elsey was a partner in L. T. Elsey and Son Building Supplies Company. He was a member of the Lochmoor Golf and Country Club.

He is survived by his wife, Marian; a son, Lee; a stepson; two stepdaughters; a brother; a sister and 10 grandchildren. Interment was in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

ELIZABETH J. HIGGINS

Funeral services for Mrs. Higgins, 49, of 1375 Grayton road, were held on Saturday, March 13, in the Verheyden Funeral Home and from St. Clare Church. She died on Wednesday, March 10, in Bon Secours Hospital.

Mrs. Higgins is survived by her husband, James; four daughters, Mrs. Kathleen Petko, Mrs. Nancy Nadon, Anne and Jeanne; four sons, Thomas, Robert, John and William, and three grandchildren.

Interment was in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

NACOLA MORROW

Funeral services for Mrs. Morrow, 75, of 835 Cook road, will be held today, Thursday, April 1, in Landrum, S.C. She died on Sunday, March 28, in Deaconess Hospital.

Born in Ohio, Mrs. Morrow is survived by her husband B. T. Morrow, and a son, Paul, of Westchester, Pa. Interment will be in Landrum.

JOHN E. COULTER

Memorial services for Mr. Coulter, 83, of 214 Lothrop road, were held on Wednesday, March 24, in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. He died on Monday, March 22, in Bon Secours Hospital.

Born in Kansas, Mr. Coulter was president and owner of The Saturday Night Press, which publishes the Automotive News and other trade magazines.

He is survived by his wife, Elizabeth; two step-children, Mrs. Perry Williams, of Cleveland, O.; David Ballentine, of Birmingham; five step-grandchildren, and one brother.

Mr. Coulter was in state at the Verheyden Funeral Home. Private interment was in Port Huron.

Memorial tributes may be sent to the Michigan Humane Society.

EDWARD R. WOODSIDE

Funeral services for Mr. Woodside, 77, of 1258 Lakepointe avenue, were held on Friday, March 26, in the Verheyden Funeral Home. He died on Tuesday, March 23, in Bon Secours Hospital.

Born in Tennessee, Mr. Woodside is survived by his wife, Blanche; two sons, Ralph and Edward R., Jr., a daughter, Mrs. Blanche Moore; two sisters and 10 grandchildren. Interment was in White Chapel Cemetery.

JOHN E. BRENNAN

Funeral services for Mr. Brennan, 58, of 769 North Rosedale court, a former vice-president of Chrysler Corporation were held on Friday, March 26, in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church. He died on Tuesday, March 23, in Tri-County Hospital.

Mr. Brennan was employed with Chrysler until 1961 and had been general manager of the company's automotive body division. At the time of his death he was purchasing agent for Experi-Metal Inc., of Warren.

He is survived by his wife, Catherine; a son, Dennis R.; two daughters, Mrs. David Karlson and Mrs. David Richards; five grandchildren; a brother and a sister.

A rosary was said on Thursday, March 25, in the Verheyden Funeral Home.

Interment was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

BERYL Z. MENZIES

Services for Mrs. Menzies, 61, of 1100 Grayton road, were held on Saturday, March 27, in Barbour Chapel of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

She died on Wednesday, March 24, in St. John Hospital. She is survived by her husband, Ivor; three daughters, Mrs. Sally Wilbur, Mrs. Sue Ellen Sacks, and Mrs. Sandra Boman; two sisters; a brother and seven grandchildren.

Arrangements were handled by the Eppens Van Deweghe Funeral home.

Burial, in a private service, was held in Woodlawn Cemetery.

JULIE C. KENT

Funeral services for Julie C. Kent, age four, were held in Woodlawn Cemetery, on Thursday, March 25. She died on Wednesday, March 24, in Charles Mott Hospital, Ann Arbor.

She is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Michael Kent; a sister, Kathy; a brother, Brian; her grandmother, Mrs. George Schenck; her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Michael Kent, of Nottingham, England, and her great-grandmother Mrs. C. Harold Wills. She was also the granddaughter of the late George Schenck and the great-granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Schenck.

Memorial tributes may be sent to Pediatric Leukemia Research Fund, c/o Dr. Ruth Heyn, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor. Interment was in Woodlawn Cemetery.

ETHAN C. PREWITT

Memorial services for Mr. Prewitt, 68, of 216 Ridge road, were held on Thursday, March 25, at Jefferson Avenue Presbyterian Church. He died on Thursday, March 18, while vacationing in Boynton Beach, Fla.

A native of Crawfordsville, Ind., Mr. Prewitt was graduated from the University of Michigan Law School in 1927. He practiced law since then with the exception of a period in 1938 when he served as assistant attorney general of Michigan, and during World War II, when he served as director of the Detroit Office of Price Administration.

Mr. Prewitt was a member of the State Bar of Michigan, the American Bar Association and the Detroit Bar Association.

He is survived by his wife, Elizabeth; two sons, E. Christopher and James H.; and one grandchild. Memorial tributes may be sent to The Tribute Fund of Bethesda Memorial Hospital, Boynton Beach Fla. in memory of Mr. Prewitt, or to the charity of your choice. Cremation was in Florida.

DEALER VICTIMIZED

The manager of Pointe Dodge, 19291 Mack, reported Friday, March 26, to Woods police the theft of four wire wheel covers worth $120 and a stereo tape player worth $110 from one of the used cars in the lot. The car, burglarized overnight, had been locked.

Adios, Muchachas . . . Have Successful Trip

Happily brushing up on their Spanish are representatives of Grosse Pointe Senior Girl Scout Troop 385 pictured (left to right) MRS. WILLIAM COX, CAMILLE NICHOLS, SUE UNGER and DEBBY FISHER. The group will journey to Mexico April 9 through April 19. They will stay at the World Center for Girl Scouts and Girl Guides, Cuernavaca. During their stay they will meet with girls from five countries and conduct service projects for native children.

Before Cuernavaca, the girls with their adult advisors, will enjoy sightseeing in Mexico City. Apart from the excitement and pleasure to be derived from the experience, the group has a more meaningful purpose . . . to conduct special service projects with approximately 200 underprivileged children.

Among these activities will be the presentation by the girls of a puppet show which teaches the children proper care of their teeth. In preparing this show, the girls received Spanish language assistance from Guido V. Regellbrugge, a teacher at North High. Two hundred toothbrushes were donated by the Dental Hygienist Association. The performers gave a trial run of the show (in English), recently at the Berry School in Detroit's inner-city area.

The girls have also planned various crafts and play projects to use while working with the children. All the materials required will be packed and carried along with their luggage. They must also find space for one blanket each, which they intend to donate to the World Center.

During their three years' preparation, which began when the girls were in diflar basis to augment it.

Adults going along include Mrs. William Cox, Mrs. Donald Gilbert, and Mrs. Donald Unger. The happy wanderers are Laura Connolly, Gail Cox, Sandy Cox, Jeanne Dolson, history of Mexico and the Spanish language. They have had local Mexican-Americans speak to them concerning customs and manners of their native country.

The budget received a great deal of consideration and the troop has been selling bagels in Jacobson's foyer on a regu-ferent local Cadette troops, the scouts have studied the Debby Fisher, Dottie Gilbert, Colette Gilewicz, Janice Graham, Jane Hile, Colleen Kelly, Kathy Morrison, Camille Nichols, Deb Pastoria, Sue Perry, Amy Rogers, Marie Szymanski, Sue Unger and Janet Vanderpool.

Burglars Visit Woods Homes

Two Woods residents, recent victims of burglaries, were reported by Woods police. One breaking and entering occurred almost one month ago, but police were not made aware of it until Wednesday, March 24.

Michael Kuish, 2146 Hampton, told police that about one month ago he noticed one of the doors in his home open but did not think anything of it at the time, since he could find nothing missing.

On Wednesday, Kuish found missing one 35-mm movie camera worth approximately $350; an electric typewriter worth $325; two sets of tools, $22; a 10" electric saw, $92; an ice chest; three linen sheets; and a diamond ring valued at $300. The total value of the items was set at $1,142.

Also reporting a breaking and entering was Joseph Williams, 1892 Allard, Wednesday, March 24. After leaving the home at 7:30 a.m., Williams returned at 11 p.m. to find the front door of his house ajar and some things inside out of place.

Investigation proved a briefcase he kept stored in the closet had been searched as well as a china cabinet. Missing were a TV set, a radio, and a family heirloom ring.

MEAT LOVERS
Harold Expen, the manager of Farmer Jack's Supermarket, 20382 Mack, reported to Woods police Saturday, March 27, the theft of meat from the store. He said two men walked in the store, picked up two steaks and walked out. A short time later, another man, about 45 to 50 years old, escaped with six steaks in his arms. All the thieves were described as "husky."

Happiness is... The Happy Nest for Easter

Some things never change. The glory of Easter. The triumph of spring. The love that flowers bring.

This happy time of reawakening has been carefully captured in the FTD Happy Nest. A gift that's actually three gifts in one.

It's an arrangement of lasting, sweet spring flowers. A lift-out orchid corsage (optional at extra cost) especially for Easter Day. A happy, reusable wicker basket.

Order the Happy Nest for Easter. Just call or visit your FTD florist. He'll see that it's delivered almost anywhere in the U.S. or Canada. As crisp and as fresh as if you hand-carried it to the doorstep yourself.

Spread some happiness this Easter. Send an FTD Happy Nest.

Usually available without orchid corsage for less than

$1250*

Send it the FTD way.

Happiness is an orchid corsage. (Optional at extra cost.)

Thomas F. Rost, manager of the beautiful new Harris Funeral Home in Garden City, combines youth with the practical know-how and the wisdom that comes from being brought up in the Harris tradition. Tom's grandfather and great-grandfather were founders of the firm.

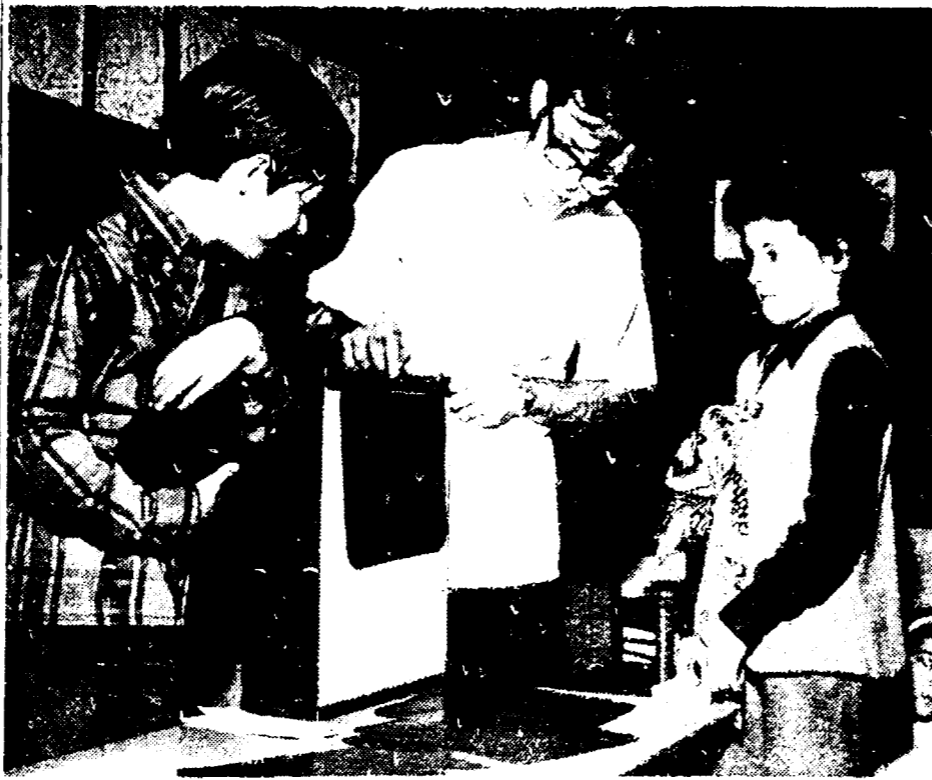

"I learned early," says Tom, "that funeral direction requires ability as well as a kind heart. People who experience a death in the family need more than understanding, they need someone they can rely upon to handle the many details. That's why we strive to be sympathetic professionals."

David Whitney is a Harris professional whose thoughtful service has been appreciated by thousands of people. David is manager of the superbly appointed Harris Funeral Home in Livonia.

Each of these top Harris directors reflects the helpful concern for people which has been a Harris hallmark for over half a century. There are five Harris Funeral Homes conveniently located to serve the metropolitan area.

So That's Where That Penny Went!

By Pepper Whitelaw

The talents of local parents are being utilized more and more throughout the Grosse Pointe Public School System. A classic example of this was the recent Occupation Education Day Program held in Mason Elementary School.

The program was conceived by Dr. James Reaume, Mason School PTA president. Volunteer parents with interesting occupations gave presentations describing their work.

PTA members arranged the student groupings. Students were separated in two groups; grades one through three, and grades four through five. The younger students attended three 15-minute sessions and the upper grade students attended three 20-minute sessions.

Speakers included attorney, Lawrence Zatkoff; air line hostess, Mrs. Gay Shields; engineer, Thomas Sullivan; nurses, Mrs. Margaret Studley and Mrs. Elaine Lugo; pastor, Gerald Blevins; private detective, Harold Lanstra; veterinarian, Dr. Reaume; and cartographer, Casimir Zaraneck.

All the speakers used visual aids in their presentations. All were impressed with the students' attentiveness and interest.

Principal William A. Mestadagh was delighted with the reaction of the staff and pupils and promised to present a similar activity, in cooperation with the PTA, next year.

As for the youngsters, they were enthusiastic. Here are some of their comments: "I liked the X-rays best, I want to go into veterinary medicine too... my brother started the course in college last year but it was too rough for him"

"Gee, I used to want to be a teacher but since you talked I want to be a stewardess"

"By your talk I think you're a very good vet"

"Mr. Private Detective I loved your show... it was terrific, especially those cameras... they were cool"

"Thank you for telling us about the 741 and 701 Jet, I am already practicing at home to be a stewardess by helping my mother with the meals (this from a first grade boy)"

"I like your X-rays and your show BUT did you ever get the penny out of the little dog?"

"Mr. Attorney thank you for coming to tell me how to solve my problems."

Perhaps one of the most touching comments was this one from a first grader, "I like the nurses because they help people and I like to help people cuz when I do I feel good inside."

HUBCAPS STOLEN

The manager of Sweeny's Flowers, 19841 Mack, called Woods police Saturday, March 27, to report the theft of four wheelcovers from the delivery van. The hubcaps were stolen sometime between 5:30 p.m. Friday and 8:30 that morning.

Benefit Dance Brings In $203

The fact that St. Paul High School is closing this year hasn't stopped the students from continuing their charitable works. They recently held a benefit dance featuring three outstanding bands, "Iron Horse Exchange," "Nobody's Children" and "Born Again," which drew quite a crowd of Grosse Pointe students and netted some $203 which they are contributing to Muscular Dystrophy.

The money will help purchase orthopedic equipment necessary for the life and comfort of young muscular dystrophy victims. Student Council president Paul Boehmer complimented his committee on the fine job in preparing for the dance.

Nab Teenagers In Stolen Auto

Malcolm Derrick Barron, 17, of 2482 West Grand boulevard, Detroit, was arraigned before Park Municipal Judge William E. Speer on Monday afternoon, March 22, on a warrant charging him with possession of stolen property.

Barron entered a plea of not guilty, and the judge set bond at $1,000, and ordered the youth released, after the bond was posted, until examination date scheduled for Wednesday, March 31.

Barron was seen at 2:02 a.m. on Sunday, March 21, traveling east on Mack avenue, by Park Police Sgt. Gordon Duncan, who called for assistance, after stopping the vehicle. The sergeant said Barron was driving and a 16-year-old boy was a passenger in the vehicle.

Duncan said that on spotting the car, he checked his "hot sheet", a list of reported stolen cars, which disclosed that the auto, a 1961 Buick sedan, had been reported as stolen to Detroit police on March 7. The theft report was made by the owner, Doris Moss of 3401 McDougall, Detroit.

Police Lt. Henry Coene said that a warrant charging Barron with possession of stolen property was approved by the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office.

Charges against the juvenile have been filed with Juvenile Court.

MANUFACTURERS BANK

"That's my bank"

One View From The Capitol

The problems to user and society brought about by abuse of drugs, including alcohol have steadily mounted until recently. In the past few years, drug abuse by young people has skyrocketed to alarming proportions.

Our community has reacted rationally and in a manner to be highly commended when it found heroin being used by hundreds of its young people. The now extensive programs of FLEC, the youth service division and programs for education of parents and students are having substantial impact. We have a long way to go and much is up to the parents to set the proper examples for their children, to keep open meaningful lines of communication and to seek help as soon as they suspect help may be needed.

Governor Milliken has presented to the Legislature a boldly conceived drug and alcohol abuse program.

Over 1,000 traffic deaths in Michigan last year involved alcohol, Milliken proposes, based on scientific evidence, to lower the blood alcohol percent constituting drunk driving. He proposes court liaison alcoholism programs and to increase rehabilitation efforts.

The Governor asks for $500,000 for drug education and $125,000 for anti-drug abuse mass media announcements. He is seeking to double drug rehabilitation efforts from $3 to $6 million, including $1 million for Marine Hospital. He also asks for over $3 million for mental health drug movies for centers such as Northeast Guidance Clinic.

Increased law enforcement will be sought to attempt to stem the flood of harmful drugs available. To revise the state marijuana laws, Milliken proposes, and I support penalties ranging from 5 years for major sales to 90 days for possession.

Our young people are sensitive and searching. The agony of drug abuse is a dead-end road. Their searching needs direction and purpose. We can all help.

Next week I will talk about the proposed change in the divorce law.

Park Judge Sits In Farms Court

Park Municipal Judge William E. Speer presided in the Farms Municipal Court on Wednesday, March 24, in the absence of Judge Robert Fytell, and set a trial date for one person accused of a traffic offense, dismissed cases against four others, passed sentence on eight, and signed bench warrants for the arrest of 12 people who failed to come to court in answer to summonses.

Howard C. Harwood of 6213 Gilman, Garden City, accused of ignoring a red traffic signal light entered a plea of not guilty to the charge. Judge Speer set April 28 as the date of trial.

John C. Crawley of 1160 Kensington, charged with ignoring a red traffic light, pled guilty, and was fined $15.

Lance J. Martel of 660 Seward, Detroit, pled not guilty to the charge of driving while his operator's license was suspended. The judge dismissed the case on a technicality.

Theophil Spezia of 860 South Renaud, accused of going through a stop street without coming to a stop, pled guilty, and was ordered to pay a fine of $5, and $5 in court costs.

Eric S. Quint of 1540 Hawthorne, pled not guilty to a charge of hot-rodding and was found guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of $15 and court costs of $5, and was placed on probation for one year.

Eugene J. Miszcak of 89 Willow Tree place, paid a fine of $10 after pleading guilty to ignoring a red traffic signal, and not guilty to a charge of driving while his license was suspended. Trial date for the latter will be April 28.

Douglas Chaney, manager of Kroger Supermarket, Mack and Moros, entered a plea of guilty to littering. He was charged with failing to place rubbish and other material in proper containers, causing refuse to be scattered throughout the area. Chaney was fined $10 and ordered to pay court costs of $5.

Dorothy Lafond of 467 University, pled not guilty to making an improper turn and was found not guilty and the case was dismissed.

Tanas P. Hayda of 18736 Radner, Utica, accused of driving while under the influence of liquor, was permitted to plead guilty to the lesser charge of driving while visibility was impaired. He was fined $150, and ordered to pay court costs of $25.

Lawrence Donnell of 1267 Balfour, pled guilty to being disorderly and to a charge of larceny. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $50, and $5 court costs, or serve 10 days in the Detroit House of Correction. He paid the fine and costs.

Jimmie Dan Dixon of 14269 Northlawn, Detroit, was found guilty of driving while under the influence of liquor. Judge Speer ordered him to pay a fine of $150 and court costs of $25, or serve 15 days in DeHoCo. He paid the fine and costs.

Lloyd E. Schultz of 33909 East Jefferson, charged with failure to stop, and Laurette M. Fabrick of 1418 Devonshire, accused of failure to yield the right of way, resulting in a collision, both pled not guilty and charges were dismissed.

April 1, 1971. The first Italian fast back out of Detroit is unveiled.

Alitalia Airlines flies direct to Italy six times weekly (and daily, starting May 7th). Our 747 service begins May 27th.

Today, Detroit is being introduced to a romantic new mode of travel to Italy.

On Alitalia, the food is Italian (Lobster Medaglione, Prime Filet alla Madeira...), the wine is Italian (Chianti, Bardolino, Verdicchio...), and the stewardesses are Italian (for variety, we include a few Germans, Swiss, Dutch...). But most importantly, the destinations are Italian.

Of course, Alitalia can fly you to many cities that aren't Italian (we're the world's sixth largest international airline.) But we're the only airline out of Detroit that flies you direct to Milan and Rome. So we can get you fast there, as well as fast back.

We'll be going to Italy six times weekly* (daily except Friday), and daily beginning May 7th. And our 747 service will begin May 27th.

Call your travel agent or Alitalia. We can't put you in the driver's seat, but we can get you some optional extras (like Venice, Florence, Naples...).

Come on down and take a spin around the neighborhood.

*Alitalia is providing cargo service to Italy also.

Unitarians Plan An Open House

An Open House is planned on Saturday, April 3, from 2:30 to 4:30 o'clock by the Religious Education Committee of the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church. During the first hour there will be a performance of Hans Christian Andersen's "The Snow Queen" presented by Barb Shilson's Magic Puppet Theater. Barb Shilson has been performing for nine years in the Pointe area. She received her degree in art education from Wayne State University, majored in art at Syracuse University, and studied sculpture at Arts and Crafts.

Puppeteers in the company are Marge Chester, Kay Barton, Sue Wenzel, Sue McFadden and Lorraine Whightman. John Wenzel is the groups musician and sound engineer. Last year the Magic Puppet Theater taped five puppet shows for Canadian television. This year they will travel to Minneapolis, Minn. to the regional Puppetry Competition.

"The Snow Queen" is its newest and most ambitious show. It has the largest and most unique stage of any of their productions. The center area is curved bay window fashion, and has three windows providing a total vicual experience. Show arrangements are under the direction of Mrs. Graham. Douglas Drake is assisting.

During the second hour, guests may visit the church school rooms and view a display on Religious Education created by Birnie-Vlasher.

Greeting the guests will be Religious Education Committee Chairman, Roger McCaig; Religious Education Director, Mrs. John C. Krato; committee members Mrs. Donald Berg, Mrs. Fred Birnie-Vlasher, Dr. Alan Canty and Mrs. Donald Young.

"The Earth Lovers Ecology Room" under the direction of Eric Olson and John Houston, will be open to accept bottles for recycling and to provide ecological literature.

Special guests for the afternoon will Sister Hilda Manson with children from Riverside Lutheran Church, Pastor L. Stier and Mrs. Rose Bell with children from United Neighbors. The public is invited to attend the program.

Heads Drive

DAVID D. WILLIAMS, senior vice-president and trust officer of the National Bank of Detroit, has been named general chairman of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra 1971 Maintenance Fund Campaign to raise $1-million in support of the orchestra.

Harry G. Bowles, who headed last year's campaign which raised a record $770,000 for the Symphony, will serve as co-chairman. He has just retired from Burroughs Corporation where he had been senior vice president of finance.

Both appointments were announced by Symphony president Robert B. Semple, of University place.

Williams, who is a native Detroit, and his wife, Elizabeth Hoppin Williams, live at 988 Lakeshore road. They have two children—Virginia, 23, and David, Jr. 21.

Williams received an A.B. degree in economics from Dartmouth College, studied further at Stonier Graduate School of Banking, and holds a chartered financial analyst certificate. He was awarded the Bronze Star for gallantry in action in 1944 while with the U. S. Army Engineers.

He joined the National Bank of Detroit as an investment analyst in the trust division in 1945.

Police Capture Lad with Drugs

A suspected narcotics violator was chased on foot down Sunningdale and arrested for carrying what appeared to be hashish by Woods police Friday, March 26. The man, stopped and arrested on a routine Detroit traffic warrant, bolted when police began to search him.

Thomas Collins, 22, of 281 Ridgmont, was spotted and paced by Patrolmen William Deslets and Patrick McMath driving north on Holiday over 35 mph. After pulling him over on Sunningdale, a check showed he was wanted in Detroit for an unpaid traffic ticket and the officers arrested him.

Searching Collins, Deslets found what looked like a hashish pipe when Collins suddenly bolted. Running along the Lochmoor golf course, Collins heaved something over the fence before being caught and handcuffed. While one of the officers retrieved the evidence, a further search of Collins showed he was carrying cigarette papers. Also, three suspected marijuana cigarette butts were found in the car ashtray.

A strip search of Collins at the station produced another plastic bag of the stuff while a preliminary investigation proved positive.

Collins was fingerprinted, photographed, and placed under a $500 bond.

Alitalia Starts Europe Service

Alitalia Airlines will fly to Europe direct from Detroit starting April 1, as announced by Ray Dominic, the District Sales Manager.

Alitalia, the Italian flag airline, with offices in the Book Building on Washington boulevard, has been offering travel and cargo service to Midwesterners since it opened its offices here in 1967. The company was awarded the right to fly from Detroit when bi-lateral negotiations were completed last year.

Mr. Dominic said the company will fly Douglas DC-8's six times a week, every day except Friday, April 1 through April 24, from Detroit Metropolitan Airport to Rome and Milan with a 45-minute stopover in Boston. From April 25 through the summer months the schedule will be daily with Boeing 747 jumbo jet equipment operating Thursday and Saturday.

Mr. Dominic stated that Rome-based Alitalia, one of the world's major international carriers, will offer the first international 747 jet service from Detroit and the first direct service to Milan. "Milan is Europe's fastest growing industrial center and one of the best connecting points for flights to Eastern Europe," he said.

The Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday flights as of April 1, will leave Detroit at 6 p.m. local time and arrive in Rome at 9:50 a.m. The Wednesday and Sunday flights will leave Detroit at 6 p.m., arrive in Milan 9:30 a.m. and Rome at 11 a.m.

D'you Know That?
by Paul Schweitzer

Anyone who believes that THIRTEEN is unlucky hasn't looked at his paper money lately. . . Do you know how many times number 13 is featured on a dollar bill?

On the back of the bill there's a Pyramid made up of 13 tiers. The words over it, "ANNUIT COEPTUS" have 13 letters. . . the middle of the bill the motto, "IN GOD WE TRUST" is composed of 12 letters over the word, "ONE" . . . There are 13 stars over the Bald Eagle's head. . . The eagle's right claw holds an olive branch with 13 leaves. The left claw clasps 13 arrows.

Why so many uses of the number 13? . . . Perhaps because it refers to the thirteen original states — considered lucky in American History.

South Students Win 19 Awards

By Tom Hallock
Fourteen South High School students captured 19 awards in the recent Detroit News Scholastic Writing Awards Contest. The highest award is the Gold Key captured by three students, Craig Doms and Ted Sweeney for journalism columns and Mary Hughes for a feature article.

The next highest awards, Honorable Mentions, went to Tom Hallock and Steve Grady for their news stories; Jim Van Wingerden for a journalism feature; Sue Lardner for a feature article; Pat Lock, 1970 graduate, for a feature story; Dave Dasef for an editorial and Linda Minnella for a journalism interview. Commendation awards went to Steve Grady for a feature article; Sue Lardner and Pat Lock for interviews; Kathy James for a feature story and Deni Martin for a critical review.

Winner of the most awards was Steve Weyhing, who garnered two honorable mentions for a sports article and column, and a commendation for an interview.

All of the winners in the senior division won awards for material which appeared in the Tower during the past year. All are present Tower staff members with the exception of Pat Lock.

The lone junior division winner was Joanne Foresman who captured a commendation for a sketch. Judges included Mrs. Dolores Minor, supervisor of senior high English for the Detroit Public School System and Lyle Kinsey, chairman of the English department of Hilbert Junior High.

Winning entries will be sent to New York where they will be judged in the National Scholastic Writing Awards Contests sponsored by Scholastic Magazine.

STEALS BROKEN MOTORCYCLE

Patrick Blake, 1266 Lochmoor, called Woods police Sunday, March 28, to report that someone had stolen his motorcycle within the last seven days. The 175-CC bike which had a broken handle bar and was undrivable, was stolen from a shed where it was stored.

They Snapped an Eight-Year Reign

LEEN WOODBURY, THERESA BLACK, BETH KLIBER DENISE SARK, GERRI KODAN, and KATHY CLAPP. Holding the trophies are JANET PERLIN and KATHY FRESARD. The Tunas dethroned St. Rita's, champions for eight consecutive years.

Home in Woods Gutted by Blaze

Flames swept through a Woods home Friday, March 19, totally destroying the back of the house and causing heat and smoke damage to all the contents.

Answering the call at the home of William C. Hancock, 2168 Hollywood, Woods firemen found flames and smoke spewing out of the rear and the side of the house before calling in for a second alarm. A Harper Woods detachment was called to the scene.

Shutting off the gas supply to the home and ordering the electrical power shut off, firemen concentrated on extinguishing the blaze in the lower section before turning their attention to the upstairs.

During the blaze, which Building Inspector Earl Wakeley said originated in the basement, possibly fed by gas, both the basement staircase and the stairway leading to the second story collapsed.

Before reporting the fire around 10 p.m., Hancock told police he had gone upstairs to watch TV about 8:30 that night. Without really recalling why, he said he went down to the basement later on and was met by flames shooting up the staircase.

He bolted out the side door of the house and ran around to the front to alert his wife and daughter, Randi, 17, that the house was on fire.

Randi told police that she saw the flames just as her father came to warn her. Her suspicions were aroused, she said, when she heard a noise of something heavy dropping in the basement. Wakeley said the noise may have been from the delayed ignition of the gas furnace in the basement.

Aside from the flame scorched pant leg of Mr. Hancock's, the trio escaped the blaze safely.

Four pieces of equipment were brought to the scene to combat the fire. No estimate of damage has yet been made.

Scouts Holding Fertilizer Sale

Boy Scout Troop 86, Lakeshore District, Grosse Pointe Park, announces its seventh annual spring fertilizer sale. Orders are being solicited from March 17 to April 1. Delivering will be made Saturday morning, April 3, by the scouts and their fathers.

All scouts in the troop have been assigned territories within an area bounded by Barrington to Three Mile drive and from Jefferson south to the lake. Anyone not solicited can obtain an order blank and a delivery by phoning scout fathers, Jim Mac Connachie, 823-4103, or Tom Ramm, 822-6297.

Troop 86 is one of the oldest Boy Scout troops in the Grosse Pointe area. It is sponsored by the Trombly School PTA. The fertilizer sale is an annual event to help pay for weekend camping expenses and scout equipment.

Report Articles Stolen from Car

Mr. and Mrs. Arman R. Simone, of 180 Stephens, on Thursday, March 25, reported several items missing from their automobile, believed to have been taken while the vehicle was parked in their garage.

The Simones said they first noticed the articles missing when they returned from a trip. They said their car was parked in the lot of the Detroit Metropolitan Airport from March 11 through March 21. However, they stated, the auto was locked during the entire time, and there was no evidence of tampering.

Mrs. Simone said she felt that the thefts occurred while the car was parked in the garage, since two bicycles had been stolen from that building recently.

Missing from the car was a stereo tape deck, which was mounted to the dashboard, and a box of stereo tapes. Taken from the trunk was a set of golf clubs and bag, belonging to Mr. Simone, and the spare tire and wheel.

The value of the loss was set at a total of $460, according to information recorded by Farms authorities.

Bruins Gain Big Victory

The Grosse Pointe Squirt Travel Team enjoyed a 4-1 victory Saturday, March 27, as they downed the powerful Mavericks Hockey Club, one of the two remaining teams that the Pointe Bruins had not beaten this season. The Mavericks were corralled from the start of the game as the but dropped behind again

Blue and White Bruins put in when Terry Hogan tallied on a quick opening goal on a Steve Olson slapshot. During the second period the Mavericks tied the score a set-up from Jeff Johnston and Mike Mallard. The Bruins really poured it on in the final period as Jeff Logan scored, assisted by Dave Carron and Steve Olson. Jeff Kyd backhanded the final goal on a pass play from Terry Hogan and Mike Mallard. Reserve goaler Rob Fredal guarded the nets for his best game of the season.

The Bruins now begin league playoffs at Winter Wonderland during the next three weeks to decide the championship of the Tri-County League.

Star of Sea Cager Champs

Our Lady Star of the Sea Tunas became the new Catholic girls high school basketball A-Division City Champions after defeating Detroit St. Rita 33-28, Sunday, March 21. The Tunas, in their first year in league competition, broke St. Rita's eight-year reign as City Champions.

The Tunas advanced to the playoffs after completing the regular season schedule with a 7-1 record. In the quarter-final game, Our Lady Star of the Sea defeated Waterford Our Lady of the Lakes 22-21; and in the semi-final game, Star of the Sea defeated St. Francis de Sales 36-31. In the St. Rita Championship game, Colleen Woodbury led the attack with 23 points.

The team line-up includes Cheryl Lynch, senior co-captain, first-string forward; Theresa Black, senior co-captain, first-string guard; Kathy Presard, senior, first-string guard; Denise Sark, a sophomore named to the A-Division All-City team; Colleen Woodbury, a freshman who led the team in scoring; Janet Perlin, junior forward; Kathy Clapp, senior guard; Geri Kodan, freshman guard; coaching the winning team was Miss Jan Herberston, a 1968 graduate of Our Lady Star of the Sea and Aquinas College in Grand Rapids. She deserves a big thanks for a fine coaching job and for leading the Tunas to their first basketball city championship.

Awards were handed out after the game with the Tunas accepting the 1971 Division Championship trophy and the A-Division Varsity City Championship trophy.

Neighborhood Club News

The Neighborhood Club Giant basketball title was won by the Pistons in a convincing 48-39 victory Saturday, March 27. The Hawks led in the first quarter 11-10 but the Pistons' press put them in front 24-20 at halftime. The Pistons out-scored the Hawks 15-12 and 9-7 in the final quarters.

Chris DeCosters' leadership with 22 points were big factors in the win. Jeff Thiede held Jim Paradee to 17 points in a fine defensive effort before he fouled out with three minutes left in the third quarter.

Dave Smaha and Tom Marantette put on an effective press when needed plus contributing 10 and 11 points respectively. Thiede hit three points and Tom Weigel added two points. Curt Pruett set crucial picks to spring De-Coster for four points when the Hawks came within three in the third quarter.

George Sikich, John Vanker, Russ Herndon, Doug Greenup and Max McKee all saw action for the winners.

Piston rebounders were De-Coster with 13, Smaha, 10, and Weigel, nine. Jim Paradee led the Hawks with 21 and Bill Innes had five. Thiede's man-to-man defense of Paradee and a strong zone backup forcing Paradee to shoot outside contributed much to the victory. The win was a real team effort.

Paradee led all scorers with a sizzling 30 point virtuoso performance to maintain his season's average. Bill Innes hit three, Drew Miller two, Greg Bassett, two and Dick Borland two points for the losers.

This game climaxed a season in which these teams exchanged wins and the Pistons were second to the Hawks in their division. The leagues high calibre of play bodes well for area ninth grade teams next year.

The American basketball division bested the Nationals 38-27 on North High's main court Saturday, March 27. The freshman coaches should have scouted this one. Most of these

Fine Tank Team At Star of Sea

The Our Lady Star of the Sea swim squad placed second in the over-all competition of the Catholic High School Athletic Association state and city meet held at Oakland University Sunday, February 28.

Star of the Sea won the title of first runner-up with a score of 42 points, behind Our Lady of Mercy's 103 1/2 points, and ahead of the St. Paul Mermaid's 39 1/2 points.

In the 50-yard freestyle, Gail Sattler placed fifth, while the 50-yard backstroke event saw Mary Wright place fifth. Carron Promack swam to fourth in the 100-yard individual medley and coming in second was the 100-yard freestyle relay of Theresa Black, Clare DeYonker, Janet Coleman and Carron Promack, with a time of 52.4. The 200-yard freestyle relay of Janet Coleman, Barbara Kosta, Clare DeYonker and Gail Sattler placed fifth, while the 100-yard medley relay of Cindy Carron, Theresa Black, Barbara Kosta and Jean Rutan came in a close third.

In the diving competition, Mary Wright turned in a fantastic performance for first place and the Catholic girls City Diving Championship. Coming in second was Jane Lynch and in fifth place was Cindy Carron. The people responsible for guiding the team are Head Coach Ed Rockett, Assistant Coach, Mrs. Ray Lynch and the swim team captain, Theresa Black.

follows are excellent candidates. The Americans were led by Jim Everett with 11 and Jim Marshall with 10 points. Rob Tamarelli had four, Mike Wase, three, Mark Isley, two, Tom Steen, two and Bill Crocker, two points. Team mates Gary Fenton, Jeff Gardner, Mark Bisanger, John Weksnar and Ted Werner played well.

Ted Werner was a factor in the fourth quarter press which provided the margin as the Americans out-scored their rivals 11-1 after trailing 15-11 at the half.

For the Nationals Jim Fisher had eight and Mark Johnson, five points. Other scorers were Jim Carroll with three, Jim Manning, three, Joe Clor, two, Mark Wickard, two, Pete Manos, two and Ed Tropp, two points. Team members Cliff Morehead, Doug Edwards, John Grennan and R. J. Paradee played well during their stint.

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

It's a "family affair," this Women's Auxiliary to Cottage Hospital spring dinner-dance.

It's a month away, to the day, set for Saturday, May 1, at the Little Club.

The invitation list is exclusive: Only Auxiliaries, members of the "family"—receive bids.

That's a kind of exclusivity no one can quarrel with.

Mrs. Lyle W. Korum, of Berkshire road, is dinner-dance chairman. Mrs. Edward A. Smith, Jr., is co-chairman.

In charge of decorations is Mrs. Sterling Graham, of publicity, Mrs. Richard J. Langs. Frank Sidney and his Orchestra will provide the dancing music.

Another Family Affair

Graduates of schools conducted by The Religious of the Sacred Heart throughout the world have always considered themselves members of One Grand Family.

And, every so often, that family likes to get together.

This year, Detroit is hosting the 18th biennial national conference of the Associated Alumnae of the Sacred Heart. Dates are April 22 through 25. Place is the Sheraton Cadillac.

Attending will be 350 to 400 delegates representing the 11,000-member group in the United States and Canada, including graduates of The Pointe's own Academy of the Sacred Heart.

Mrs. Alfred Jehle, of Lakeland avenue, is a conference co-chairman. Mrs. Daniel A. La Ferte, of Lincoln road, serves as program chairman.

Other Pointers on the conference planning committee are Mary Jo Clark, Mrs. Thad Joos, Mrs. C. S. Rejent, Jr., Mrs. Phillip Weiss, Mrs. Robert Mason, Mrs. Daniel Tindall and Mrs. Hans Gehrke.

Pruning The Portfolio

Speaking of spring house cleaning . . . there's some of a "different" sort taking place in The Pointe these days as friends of the Grosse Pointe Academy do a bit of personal stock portfolio pruning.

The pruned off shares are being gathered up and bundled together into a Big Prize Portfolio for Action Auction 1971, the Academy's annual spring fund-raiser.

It's planned for early next month, May 7. More about it later . . .

Plan Review Club Art Day

It will be a red letter day for members and guests of the Detroit Review Club interested in the arts and humanities Tuesday, April 13.

Mrs. Irma W. Webber, DRC art chairman, former art teacher and member of the Detroit Women Painters and Sculptors, has planned a tea and talk at the London Arts Gallery in the Fisher Building at 2 o'clock.

Mark McPherson, acting assistant to gallery director Eugene Schuster, will point out various paintings and prints in the current show illustrating the content, style, trend and meaning.

Mr. McPherson has studied the humanities at several universities and studied Art History under the famous professor Gombrich of London University. (Mr. Schuster also studied there).

Mr. McPherson is interested in romanticism and feels that this trend is being repeated today. At present, he is writing a novel — and will be giving a lecture on Byron at various universities in the near future.

Mrs. Marlon H. Cramer,

DRC president, will act as official hostess.

Pointers and East Siders who plan on attending include Mrs. Eugene Allen, Mrs. Charles F. Brundie, Miss Vera Brown, Mrs. Norman Burau, Mrs. C. D. Chapin, Mrs. Marvin C. Dahne, Mrs. George S. Fead, Mrs. Arthur Hurd, Mrs. Robert Harris, Jr., Mrs. Harold Kahl, Mrs. L. James Keller, Mrs. Clarence Koebe, Miss Margaret Lamont, Mrs. William J. Lehmann, Mrs. Dwight Nelson, Mrs. Otto Robert Neumann, Mrs. H. Lloyd Patterson, Mrs. Benjamin Springborn and Mrs. Aaron E. Wilcox.

Betrothed

Mr. and Mrs. Norvel B. Kyes, of Anita avenue, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, NORVA GAIL, to Bruce Harlin Saltman, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Edward Saltman, of Flint.

The bride-elect will be graduated from Central Michigan University in May. Her fiancé, a 1969 graduate of Grand Valley State College, will be receiving his Master of Arts degree from Central Michigan University. They plan a May 21 wedding in Mount Pleasant and will resume their education at Central Michigan in the fall.

Two Healthoramas Set For This Spring

Battery of Medical Tests Will Be Offered Tri-County Residents at Pair of Four-Day Events; One Planned For April, One For May

The United Foundation again will offer Wayne-Oakland-Macomb residents 20 free medical tests and educational exhibits, a service provided for more than 17,000 in the last three years. Plans for the two spring Healthoramas, each a four-day event, have been announced by Jacques Cousin, UF executive vice-president.

The first Healthorama will be held April 21 through 24 on grounds adjacent to Macomb County Health Department at Groesbeck Highway and Elizabeth road, Mount Clemens.

Another is scheduled for May 19 through 24 at Olympia in Grand River avenue Detroit.

Comprehensive health screening tests, made possible through the cooperation of voluntary and public health services, will be given 500 adults daily on a first-come first-served basis. The Healthoramas are sponsored by Women for the United Foundation (WUF) and the United Health Organization (UHO).

"We fully expect this year's Healthoramas to be as successful as those in the past," Mr. Cousin said.

"These screening tests meet a real public health service need amply demonstrated by the fact that so many have been willing to stand in line, sometimes for hours, to get them," he added.

He noted Healthorama ob-

Planning This Year's Healthoramas

jectives are four-fold: To familiarize tri-county residents with Torch Drive services and other community resources. To promote preventive medicine by encouraging regular health check-ups. To serve an educational function while providing free testing to help determine abnormalities. To provide a career incentive encouraging the young to consider vocations in medicine and related health fields.

Along with free screening tests Healthoramas offer on-the-spot counseling through a communications center staffed and equipped to make immediate referral to needed services. Children will be cared for in a special playground area. Mrs. Carl K. Rush is the 1971 Healthorama chairman. Her vice-chairmen are Mrs. William R. Keast, wife of the president of Wayne State University, and Mrs. Arthur Thompson. Coordinators will be UHO executive vice-president Edward W. Tuescher and Dr. William L. Simpson, of Wayne State University Medical School. Screening tests will be offered for anemia, blood pressure, cervical cancer, cholesterol, diabetes, kidney malfunction, glaucoma, hearing, height and weight, oral cavity and vision along with a chest X-ray which will be checked for symptoms of lung cancer, emphysema, enlarged heart tuberculosis.

When tests indicate the possibility of an illness or abnormality screening results will be mailed to the Healthorama participant's physician. Educational and scientific exhibits will include a display by NARCO on the effects of various drugs. Specialists and trained social workers will give information and counseling on problems related to drug and alcohol abuse. Participating agencies will exhibit more than 25 other displays. Joining the voluntary and public health services to stage the Healthoramas will be area volunteers, including Pointers, medical and paramedical personnel, hospitals, schools of nursing students and some 25 industries, unions, utilities and businesses.

Pointers MRS. HENRY M. KUHLMAN, (right), of Lochmoor boulevard, and MRS. R. ALEXANDER WRIGLEY, of Bishop road, met recently with DR. WILLIAM L. SIMPSON, of Wayne State University Medical School, to plan the 1971 Healthoramas. Mrs. Wrigley is president of Women for the United Foundation (WUF), which joins with the United Health Organization (UHO) to sponsor the events. Mrs. Kuhlman is president of the board of trustees for Detroit Orthopaedic Clinic, one of some 25 Torch Drive services participating in Healthorama. The first of the free health testing programs is scheduled April 21 through 24 in Mt. Clemens.

State Regent Will Speak To Elizabeth Cass DAR

The Elizabeth Cass Chapter, Daughters of The American Revolution, will meet at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Monday, April 5, at noon. Members are looking forward to their very special guest speaker, Mrs. Leslie O. Carlin, state regent, from Mount Pleasant. Mrs. Carlin will talk about the Michigan Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, and the State Conference, held at Grand Rapids March 17 through 19. She is most certain to speak on her special state project: Raising funds for St. Mary's School. This DAR-supported school is located in Springfield, S.D. It was founded primarily for the education of young Indian girls.

Young adults are a favorite topic for Mrs. Carlin. She and her husband, a professor at Central Michigan University, were for some time "house parents" at one of the men's dorms. They have been instrumental in organizing many student tours abroad.

Woman's Club Group To Meet

The Grosse Pointe Woman's Club Bridge Group holds its final party of the season in the Josephine Gregory Room of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Alger House next Wednesday, April 7, at noon. Bridge begins at 12:30 o'clock. Chairman Mrs. Stuart Micklethwaite, 886-6034, is accepting luncheon reservations through Sunday, April 4. Co-chairman is Mrs. Jack H. Merritt and committee members include Mrs. Harold Lee, Mrs. John Kelly and Mrs. Ralph F. Urso. Talk success—and success is bound to come your way.

Woods Garden Club To Meet

Members of the Grosse Pointe Woods Garden Club gather Tuesday, April 6, at 11:30 o'clock in the Westchester road home of Mrs. Carl Berndt whose co-hostesses will be Mrs. Elton Ireland and Mrs. John Sullivan. A program on Flowers of the Bible will follow the business session.

and full bishop sleeves ending in lace cuffs. A double Dior bow caught her elbow length silk illusion veil.

She carried a cascade of ivory roses and ivy.

Carrying wicker baskets filled with yellow daisy mums and greens with blue and green ribbon accents were Suzanne Henry, who served as her sister's honor maid, and bridesmaids Cynthia Henry and Mrs. Fredrick Schultz, of Charleston, S.C., two other sisters, and Shelley Beck.

Their multi-colored silk flower print frocks were Empire-waisted, styled with very full sleeves caught into tight cuffs and accented with green and blue grosgrain ribbon streamers.

Robert B. Cliff came from West Orange, N.J., to act as the bridegroom's best man. Ushering were Daniel Quirk, of Ypsilanti, Michael Frederick and Timothy Falls, of Union Lake.

Jewels trimmed the neckline of the bride's mother's deep pink silk shantung dress and coat ensemble. She pinned

Leslie Murray Wed In March

Leslie Ann Murray, daughter of former Hampton road residents Mr. and Mrs. Owen D. Murray, who now make their home in Lake Angelus, and Thomas William Tompkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Tompkins, of Paw Paw, were married Saturday, March 20, at St. Mary's-in-the-Hills Episcopal Church, Lake Orion.

A reception at the Sheraton Inn, Pontiac, followed the afternoon rites. The newlyweds vacationed in Jamaica and will reside in East Lansing.

The bride's ivory satin organza gown featured a lantern-sleeved bodice and court train of re-embroidered lace. Matching lace appliques accented her Cathedral veil and she carried white roses, white gladiolus petals and baby's-breath.

Lynn Murray served as her sister's honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Kris Jolovic and Sandy Moore.

Best man was John Harrison and Kim Fate and Charles Jolovic ushered.

Windmill Pointe Club Will Meet

Following a business meeting hosted by Mrs. Truman Schneider at her Grand Marais boulevard home next Wednesday, April 7, the Windmill Pointe Garden Club will take a field trip to the home of Mrs. David Bates in Birmingham.

Mrs. Bates will serve a luncheon made up entirely of herbs. She will then lecture on the art of cooking with herbs and instruct the Club on the growing of herbs.

Symphony Lists Six Conductors

Six world-famous conductors will make guest appearances with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra as part of the Symphony's 1971-72 Thursday/Saturday concert series.

Hans Schmidt-Issersted, Luciano Berio, Georg Semkow, Dean Dixon and Rafael Fruhbeck de Burgos will be seen on the Detroit podium for the first time, each to conduct a pair of performances.

Istvan Kertesz, who made his United States conducting debut with the Detroit Symphony 10 years ago, also will lead a pair of concerts.

Sixten Ehrling, music director and conductor of the Symphony, will conduct 13 weeks of the 22-week subscription season.

Pierre Hefu, the Symphony's associate conductor, will conduct during two weeks and Paul Freeman, conductor-in-residence, one week.

All of the concerts will be presented in Ford Auditorium between September 23, 1971, and April 22, 1972.

Hans Schmidt-Issersted, one of Germany's leading conductors, made his American debut with the Philadelphia Orchestra in 1961 and since then has conducted a host of orchestras in this country including those of Chicago, San Francisco, Los Angeles and Minnesota.

Prior to his Philadelphia appearance he had already established himself as a conductor of international stature. He has concertized in Europe, Australia, South America and Africa.

Schmidt-Issersted, a native of Berlin, was graduated from that city's Academy of Music with a Doctorate at the age of 23. His first experience on the podium came in directing opera.

He has been first conductor of the Hamburg Opera as well as director of the State Opera of Berlin.

In 1945 he formed his own orchestra, the NDR Symphony, and within a very short time built it into a leading ensemble with an extensive tour schedule. He has also served as chief conductor of the Stockholm Philharmonic.

Schmidt-Issersted will be the new season's first guest conductor, appearing with the Detroit Symphony November 11 and 13.

Luciano Berio, one of Italy's most gifted young composers, has become an increasingly prominent figure in shaping trends of contemporary music.

Berio, who received his musical training at the Conservatory of Milan, is at present on the faculty of the Juilliard School of Music. In 1955, at the age of 30, he began a "Studio di Fonologia" at the Italian Radio, where he and several other young composers worked on techniques of electronic music.

His compositions often incorporate other composers' music and he frequently "re-composes" a work after it has been performed.

Berio will conduct his "Sinfonia," which was premiered by the New York Philharmonic

Philadelphian, Los Angeles Philharmonic and Chicago Symphonies during the 1968-69 season. He has appeared with many other U.S. orchestras since then.

Last season he appeared for the first time with the orchestras of New York, Toronto, Montreal and Washington in addition to making return engagements in Los Angeles and Chicago. Fruhbeck de Burgos will lead the Detroit Symphony March 2 and 4.

Istvan Kertesz, director of the Cologne Opera, has captivated both symphonic and operatic audiences throughout the world.

He has conducted over 80 leading orchestras including the London Symphony, New Philharmonic, Vienna Philharmonic, Berlin Philharmonic, Concertgebouw of Amsterdam, Israel Philharmonic and many others. Since his American debut with the Detroit Symphony during the 1961-62 season he has guest-conducted most of this country's major orchestras including those of New York, Chicago, Cleveland, Philadelphia, Minnesota and Pittsburgh.

In 1957 he settled in Germany and the following year was appointed the general music director of Augsburg, a post created especially for him and in which he continued for five years. He was engaged by the Cologne Opera in 1954 and the following year led the first round-the-world tour with the London Symphony.

Kertesz will return to Detroit for a pair of concerts with the Detroit Symphony on March 16 and 18.

Sibyl's Centerpiece Wins Trophy

Al Berg and Rick Slike, students at the Sibyl Beauty School are pictured with Sibyl Gunn holding the trophy they won for the school with their table centerpiece design. The event was a Salute to Women Who Work Banquet at Cobo Hall, March 24. Winning isn't unusual at the school where the slogan "The Talented Ones" serves to remind students and customers the professional quality of work being accomplished. The public is welcome to view the charming centerpiece currently on display at the school, 16701 East Warren at Yorkshire.

with the Swingle Singers in 1968, at the Thursday/Saturday concert on November 18 and 20.

Georg Semkow is a Polish-born musician now engaged as permanent conductor of the Royal Opera in Copenhagen.

When he led the Boston Symphony Orchestra in his first American appearances in December, 1968, critics unanimously hailed him as an important addition to the musical scene in this country. He received his first training at the Cracow Conservatory of Music.

In 1950, as a result of a scholarship in Leningrad, he became assistant conductor to Eugene Mravinsky, leader of the Leningrad Philharmonic. Later he studied with Tulio Serafin in Rome and Bruno Walter in Vienna.

Semkow has been with the Royal Opera House in Copenhagen since 1966, an appointment which came after his tenure as permanent conductor of the National Opera in Krakow. He will make his first appearances with the Detroit Symphony December 9 and 10.

Dean Dixon, a native of New York's Harlem, has secured a prominent position in European musical circles.

He was trained at the Juilliard School, made his conducting debut in Town Hall, New York, in 1937 and founded the New York Chamber Orchestra the following year. Between 1941 and 1944 he guest-conducted Toscanini's NBC Symphony, the New York

Philharmonic, the Philadelphia Orchestra and the Boston Symphony.

He left the United States in 1949 to pursue a career in Europe. His rapid rise to success was demonstrated by the fact that he conducted nine European concerts in 1951. The next year he conducted 60. In 1961 he became conductor of the Frankfurt Radio Symphony, a post he retains today.

Dixon was musical director of the Gothenburg, (Sweden), Symphony from 1953 to 1960 and of the Sydney, (Australia) Symphony from 1964 to 1967. A concert he led with the New York Philharmonic in Central Park last summer drew an audience of 75,000 and marked his first American performance in 21 years.

He will conduct the Detroit Symphony December 16 and 18.

Rafael Fruhbeck de Burgos, Spain's leading conductor, is currently musical director of the National Orchestra of Madrid.

He has guest-conducted such orchestras as the London Symphony, New Philharmonic, Vienna Philharmonic, Paris Conservatory and Buenos Aires' Teatro Colon ensemble.

Fruhbeck de Burgos' first appointment in 1959 was as musical director of the Bilbao, (Spain), Symphony and three years later he was invited to hold the same position with the National Orchestra. His first performances with American orchestras were with the Philadelphia, Los Angeles Philharmonic and Chicago Symphonies during the 1968-69 season. He has appeared with many other U.S. orchestras since then.

July Bride

Planning to be married July 10 are LINDA JOY SHUMAKER and Frederic E. Becker, Jr., whose engagement has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Shumaker, of Huntington boulevard.

The bride-elect was graduated from Grosse Pointe South High School and Western Michigan University where she was assistant director of Davis Hall. She is presently teaching fifth grade in St. Clair Shores and working toward her Masters degree in Personnel and Guidance in Education.

She is co-founder and president of the Little Sisters of Sigma Pi and was the Detroit Jaycees' representative as Miss Detroit Junior Miss.

Her fiancé, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frederic E. Becker, of Radnor circle, is an Austin Catholic Prep. graduate, has completed service with the United States Naval Reserve and is presently a senior English major at the Detroit Institute of Technology, scheduled to be graduated in May.

He is a member of the Catholic Big Brothers of Detroit. At Austin he was Student Council secretary and column writer for the student newspaper.

St. Raymond Society Plans Aloha Card Party

St. Raymond Altar Society is planning a card party, "Spirit of Aloha," Sunday, April 18, at 7:30 o'clock in the Parish Hall.

Chairman of the event is Mrs. August Copeland, co-chairman Mrs. Ervin Baranski. A $1.75 donation includes refreshments and prizes. Mrs. Norvell Roach, 839-5419, is admission ticket chairman.

Pops Concerts Begin May 7

The Detroit Symphony Orchestra's 1971 Cabaret "Pops" Concerts will feature a host of musical personalities, welcoming back such noted celebrities as Arthur Fiedler and Richard Hayman and presenting to Cabaret "Pops" audiences for the first time pianists Peter Nero, Eugene Indjic and folksinger Odetta.

The 1971 Concerts will be presented on 10 evenings between May 7 and 22 at the Detroit Light Guard Armory in East Eight Mile road, Detroit, with all performances beginning at 8:30 o'clock. Seating will be at candlelit tables for four and light refreshments and cocktails may be purchased.

Arthur Fiedler, the noted pops maestro, will conduct the opening "Pops" performances on May 7 and 8. Featured soloist will be pianist Eugene Indjic who has more than 40 programs with the Boston Pops Orchestra to his credit. Indjic will be making his Detroit Symphony debut at these concerts.

Richard Hayman, who will be on the podium for his second Detroit "Pops" season, will conduct on eight evenings. Odetta, the widely acclaimed folksinger and recording artist, will make her Detroit Symphony debut on May 12 and 13.

The program will be entitled "America the Beautiful."

Hayman will conduct an orchestral program, "The Three B's: Bacharach, Bernstein and the Beatles," May 14 and 15 and jazz pianist Peter Nero will join Hayman and the Orchestra May 19 and 20 for a program titled "Broadway Beat."

The final "Pops" Concerts of the season will feature Hayman conducting "Magnificent Music from the Movies."

Tickets for the 1971 Cabaret "Pops" Concerts are available at Ford Auditorium Box Office 961-0700, and at all Hudson's, CA 3-5100, and Grinnell's, 961-5075, stores.

Tables for four are priced at $10, $14 and $18. Single tickets at $3, $4 and $5 will be available at the Light Guard Armory on the evenings of the performances.

Many Detroit organizations utilize the "Pops" in conjunction with their own fund-raising or entertainment programs.

More information on the Symphony's 1971 Cabaret "Pops" Concert series may be obtained at 961-0700.

Arthur Fielder, the 76-year-old maestro of Boston Pops fame, is visiting the Detroit Symphony Cabaret "Pops" for the fourth consecutive years.

Richard Hayman, composer, arranger and conductor, is the chief arranger for the Boston Pops Orchestra, a position he has held since 1951. He has worked closely with Arthur Fiedler over many years and is responsible for some of the most popular pops of the era, including the well-known arrangements of "I Want to Hold Your Hand" and other hits contained in some 30 Boston Pops albums.

He is also the composer of "Dansero," "No Strings Attached," "Tambourine," "Tango for the Two," "On the Streets of Seville," "Now is the Time" and dozens of other single hits.

Eugene Indjic, the 24-year-old pianist who will be making his Detroit debut under Fiedler's baton, is a veteran of more than 40 concerts with the Boston Pops Orchestra. He was first presented to a national television audience at the age of 11 when he appeared on "The Dave Garroway Show."

Odetta has over 15 albums to her credit. Her musical tastes run from work songs, Negro spirituals, blues and folk to children's songs and ballads.

She has performed around the world, most recently in Japan—her third visit to that country in four years.

Peter Nero has an impressive list of accomplishments to his credit. His pianistic abilities range from jazz and popular music to the classics. He has performed his concerto "Blue Fantasy" with some of the world's great orchestras and almost every major orchestra in the United States.

His more than 25 albums have made him a consistently successful recording artist.

NBD's four guideposts for better home financing.

Getting a mortgage to buy a home is serious business. It's only natural when you're making a down payment of several thousand dollars, and obligating yourself for years to come, to want assurance that you're acting in your own best interests. Here are four basic rules that will help.

1. Make certain that you won't incur a stiff penalty if you elect to prepay the principal. At NBD, we're known for our liberal prepayment policy. If you prepay your existing NBD mortgage through the sale of your home, then secure a new mortgage from us to finance another house, there's no penalty at all.
2. Know ahead of time what your closing costs will be. NBD gives you an estimate well in advance; and we're rarely off the mark, so you won't run into any unpleasant surprises.
3. Strike the best balance between the size of your monthly payments and the rate at which you build equity. NBD will help you weigh these factors with full consideration for your particular financial circumstances.
4. Before you assume a seller's mortgage, be sure you're aware of any restrictions on prepayments to principal, special insurance requirements and the implications of assuming another person's liabilities.

At your nearby NBD office, you can pick up a copy of our new booklet—20 pages of facts and figures every home buyer needs to know. The bank to see is NBD, National Bank of Detroit.

Meadow Brook To Host 'Pops'

For the second season in a row Meadow Brook Music Festival will be presenting an all-star series of symphony-pops concerts on Sunday evenings, eight concerts featuring the Detroit Symphony Orchestra and such international favorites as Arthur Fiedler, Carlos Montoya and The Royal Winnipeg Ballet.

"We've planned the symphony-pops concert to be complementary to the season's major symphony concerts," explains Festival Manager Sandor Kallai, "by scheduling world-famous artists who are first-rate musicians. The public response has been fantastic."

Opening the symphony-pops series Sunday, June 27, will be Chet Atkins. Known as "Mr. Guitar" he's a Nashville-born country music guitarist who has also put out recordings of classical music, performed at the White House and major music festivals and is regarded by critics as one of the most naturally gifted musicians of our time.

Following Atkins, on the Fourth of July, there will be a special "American Salute" program led by Skitch Henderson, composer-conductor, and featuring pianist Chi-fun Lee. Music by American composers highlighted by the works of George Gershwin has been selected by Henderson. Miss Lee, whose fame as a Gershwin interpreter is spreading, will perform Gershwin's Concerto in F.

Also on the special Fourth of July concert will be a performance of Morton Gould's symphonic overture "An American Salute."

The beloved conductor of the Boston Pops, Arthur Fiedler, makes a return appearance at Meadow Brook Sunday, July 11, to conduct the Detroit Symphony in one of his scintillating pops programs and to introduce to Festival audiences

Lawyers' Wives Are Real Doers

By Pepper Whitelaw

The Grosse Pointe Lawyers Wives once again will be making a donation to the Grosse Pointe Youth Service Division (YSD) this time with part of the proceeds of its "Cafe Boutique," slated for Wednesday, April 21. In 1970 the ladies contributed $1000 to YSD for mini-lab drug detection and equipment and supplies. The other half of the proceeds will go to neglected and dependent Children of Wayne County Juvenile Court.

Lutheran High Guild Plans Benefit Party

Lutheran High School East Guild ladies will present "Swing Into Spring" featuring fashions from Hudson's Budget Stores Wednesday evening, April 14, at 8 o'clock in St. Piter's Lutheran Church, Gratiot avenue near Nine Mile Road.

Since its inception in 1961 members of the Lawyers Wives have directed their donations and energies to youth-oriented programs. Such programs include scholarship funds at Wayne State University Law School, University of Detroit Law School and Detroit College of Law; and donations to the Probate Court Juvenile Division for Neglected and Dependent Children and our own YSD.

Among their many other activities, members help in planning community-wide programs for students of junior and senior high school ages during the national observance of Law Day; assist in staffing the young American pianist Sheldon Shkolnik.

Mr. Fiedler will be followed on July 18 by Mitch Miller The goateed Miller, famous as the man who brought back sing-alongs on his long-running television series, is also respected musician, one of the world's most distinguished oboists and a highly gifted orchestral conductor whose concerts are marked by instant public enthusiasm.

Skitch Henderson returns July 25, this time in the role of guest soloist as well as conductor. Afficionados have long known that Henderson, among his many other talents, is a superb pianist and Meadow Brook audiences will have the chance to hear Henderson do two of the things he does best.

Master of Spanish guitar Carlos Montoya guest stars at Meadow Brook August 1. Montoya, whose fiery and spell-binding Flamenco rhythms mean sell-out performances wherever he appears, will be accompanied by Detroit Symphony associate conductor Pierre Hetu.

The Music Man himself, Meredith Willson, will return to Meadow Brook for his second appearance on August 8. Willson, composer of Broadway musical hits "The Music Man," "The Unsinkable Molly Brown" and "Here's Love," was a popular radio personality long before he turned to writing scores for Broadway and films.

He is also a first-rate flutist who has appeared as soloist with many of the nation's symphany orchestras.

Climaxing the series will be an evening with The Royal Winnipeg Ballet August 15. This brilliant company continues to win international raves and to prove itself one of the world's foremost dance troupes.

The Sunday performances begin at 6:30 o'clock in the evening.

Delta Zeta State Day Scheduled Saturday

The annual Delta Zeta Sorority State Day will be held this year Saturday, April 3, at the Pantlind Hotel in Grand Rapids. Collegiate friends from Wayne State University and the University of Detroit along with officers and delegates from metropolitan Detroit alumnae chapters will be in attendance.

Registration begins at 8 o'clock Friday evening, April 2, and a luncheon concludes the program Saturday, April 3, at 3:30 o'clock. Silver awards will be presented to outstanding collegiate and alumnae chapters of Delta Zeta within the province of Michigan.

Theme for the meeting is "Tell It Like It Is." Leading workshops for the collegiates will be Detroit Alumnae president Mrs. Robert Fisk and Mrs. William Walter, a former president.

Mrs. Michael Frederick, Mrs. Donald Massey and Mrs. Lawrence Trevarrow, Province Collegiate directors and members of Metro Detroit Alumnae, will serve as chairmen of the Day.

Mrs. Florence Hood Minor, national secretary of Nevada, Iowa, is the National Council guest of honor. She will speak at the State Day morning session, then conduct an alumnae workshop.

All alumnae in the area are invited to attend and may call Mrs. Donald Larson, reservation chairman, at 474-4851 or write to Mrs. Larson at 23209 Haynes, Farmington, for any information.

Stern Featured With Symphony

Renowned violinist Isaac Stern will join Sixten Ehrling and the Detroit Symphony Orchestra for a pair of concerts this Thursday and Saturday, April 1 and 3, at 8:30 o'clock in Ford Auditorium. Stern will be featured in Brahms' Concerto for Violin and Orchestra in D major, Opus 77.

Ehrling, returning to the podium in Ford Auditorium after a month of guest engagements in Germany and Italy, will lead the orchestra in performances of Wagner's Prelude and Good Friday Spell from "Parsifal" and American composer Roy Harris' Symphony No. 3.

Stern, who last appeared with the Detroit Symphony in November, 1968, is one of the artists most in demand throughout the world. He plays more than 100 concerts each season and is one of this country's best-known musical ambassadors.

Born in Russia, he was brought to San Francisco by his parents when he was less than a year old.

He began his musical training by studying the piano, later switching to violin, and made his concert debut at the age of 15 with the San Francisco Symphony and its concertmaster Naoum Blinder in a performance of the Bach Double Violin Concerto. In 1937 he made his New York debut and within a few seasons was numbered among the handful of top violinists.

Stern had the distinction of being the first American artist to be invited to play in the Soviet Union following World War II.

In addition to his solo activities Stern together with pianist Eugene Istomin and cellist Leonard Rose makes up the Stern-Istomin-Rose Trio which in a few short years has become the country's most sought-after chamber ensemble.

Stern is also President of Carnegie Hall, having led the drive to save that historic building.

Tickets for these concerts are available at the Ford Auditorium Box Office, Hudson's and Grinnell's and are priced at $5.75, $5 and $4.50, (also $4 and $3.50 on Thursday).

Each girl was required to fill out a questionnaire pertaining to her service in school, church, community and at home. Further questions included those concerning her character, achievements and knowledge of America.

Cheryl was honored in February by the Elizabeth Cess Chapter in Grosse Pointe. She received a Good Citizen's Pin and a Certificate of Award along with nine other local area girls.

She was selected by the staff of Grosse Pointe North High as the senior girl best qualified for the award.

Cheryl is a National Merit Scholarship finalist, a debater and a cheerleader, a very active and all-around girl with a zest to become involved both in school activities and her community.

In tenth grade she was elected Class Representative.

North High Senior Chosen From Field of 502 Applicants to Represent Michigan in National Contest; Winner To Be Announced Later This Month

Cheryl Huckins, a senior at Grosse Pointe North High School, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Huckins, of Briarcliff drive, is the First Place winner in the annual Good Citizens contest sponsored by the State Society of The Daughters of The American Revolution.

The award, consisting of $150 in Government Bonds, was presented at the DAR State Conference held March 19 in Grand Rapids.

The Good Citizens luncheon was filled with excitement as 12 finalists and their parents waited patiently for the standings to be announced. To be a finalist was exciting enough, but to be chosen out of 502 applicants was almost earth shaking!

Each Good Citizen applicant had previously been selected by her respective school and sponsored by a local DAR chapter. The determining qualities were Dependability, Service, Leadership and Patriotism.

Last fall she organized a door-to-door campaign, selling Avon Products, to raise funds for ALSAC (Aiding Leukemia Stricken Children).

Some of her community activities include service as a volunteer at Cottage Hospital and Teaching Sunday School for five years. During the summer she can be found at the Grosse Pointe Woods Park teaching swimming and serving as a lifeguard.

Her college plans have not been completed as yet, but she's focused on either the University of Michigan or Wellesley.

The 80th Continental Congress, National Society, Daughters of The American Revolution, convenes in Washington, D.C., April 19 through 23.

Cheryl will compete with other state winners for a National Scholarship Award of $1,000 to the college of her choice and a sterling silver Paul Revere-type bowl.

Wayne Women Plan Art Tour

The Grosse Pointe Women of Wayne are planning an Afternoon of Art at the Detroit Institute of Arts Tuesday, April 27, at 12:15 o'clock.

Luncheon will be followed by an Ancient Tour of the museum's Permanent Collection featuring Treasures of Pre-Historic Man to the Great Ages of Rome.

A member of the Founders' Society Docent Committee will guide the tour at which guests are welcome.

Tickets are $3 each. Reservations must be made by Friday, April 2.

Further information may be obtained from vice-president and program director Mrs. Oliver Wright, of Balfour road, 886-5249.

Boyne Country Condominiums

Right in the heart of Mid-America's skiing, golf and recreation mecca—BOYNE COUNTRY. The Boynecondomium village is nestled at the foot of fabulous Boyne Mountain and overlooks world-renowned Boyne Mountain Lodge.

Boynestadt

Arlberg
As vast as the Austrian Alpine Ski country after which it is named, the Arlberg apartment building houses 12 apartments and is the largest of all buildings in the Boynestadt Condominium village complex.

Mont Blanc
Recalling memories of Europe's highest mountain, the "Mont Blanc" building sets in quiet majesty in the Boynestadt complex. The two-storied Mont Blanc building houses 4 apartments keyed to discriminating tastes and offers broad vistas of the entire area.

Jungfrau

4 seasons of recreation

Reminiscent of Switzerland's most dramatic and well-known mountain, the "Jungfrau" provides a towering accent to the Boynestadt village concept. The Jungfrau's five-storied reach assures a magnificent view of Boynestadt, Boyne Mountain, and surrounding terrain.

Skating at all the famous Boyne Country areas—Boyne Mountain, Boyne Highlands, Thunder Mountain, and Walloon Hills—from November through April.

Golf at the magnificent 18-hole championship mountain course, 9-hole par 3 course within walking distance from the village, plus a golf training camp for youngsters—and only a short drive away, the challenging 18-hole, Boyne Highlands course, (already one of the top ten in the nation), designed by Robert Trent Jones plus the 9-hole par 3 Highlands course—72 holes of golf.

Deer Lake Four-Seasons Beach Club to serve golfers, swimmers, boaters and fishermen whose beautiful white beach and private club house with dining and locker room facilities offers the ultimate in lakeside fun. The prime sandy beach, much of which shelves out at a gentle slope as far as 300 yards before youngsters can get chin-deep, is the lake's chief allure. Water is crystal-clear and, because the half-mile wide lake is nestled like a jewel in a bowl of hills, waves are never so high that a fisherman would become endangered by high winds. It also has a good lee shore, regardless of wind direction, for water skiing at any time of the day.

Deer Lake has long been noted as a bass and pike angling lake and abounds with bluegills, sunfish, and perch for the neophyte angler just learning to handle a fly rod. What's more, several small trout streams flow through the Deer Lake area just south of the lake and are readily accessible by good roads.

A fleet of rental boats and sailing craft will be available to guests—and a launching ramp will be provided for club members desiring to bring their own. A private road connects the Boyne County Four-Seasons Beach Club with Boynestadt just a mile away to the eastward.

Boynestadt is only minutes of easy access to a resort complex which offers you 10,000 acres of pleasure—skiing, golf, salmon and trout fishing, sailing, motorboating, deer and small game hunting, swimming, waterskiing, horseback riding, retirement living, investment opportunities—all in one recreational administrative organization

R.G. edgar & ASSOCIATES 63 Kercheval 886-6010 TWO FIRST OFFERINGS

BE THE FIRST to see this new one on the market at 21 S. Edgewood. You'll find this three bedroom ranch house just two doors off Lake Shore Drive in the Shores. The third bedroom is paneled, so could be utilized as a library if only two bedrooms are your desire. This one is offered at $57,500 and for rent at $450 per month. Open Sunday 2:30 to 5.

A PERFECT TWO bedroom single story house for the young family or couple which desires perfection in decor and a nice neighborhood. Hampton Road offers a host of much more expensive houses, but this little gem weighs in at $27,500.

OPEN ON SUNDAY 2:30 TO 5

SEEING IS believing, and this French country house at 300 Lincoln Road is even more spectacular inside than it appears from the curb. Not an overpowering house, this skillfully designed home has four family bedrooms each with its own bath. There are four small maids' rooms and a fifth bath also on the second floor. Kept in the peak of condition and ready for your move. 21 S. Edgewood, just off Lake Shore Drive. See our first offering.

APPOINTMENTS PLEASE

TOWNHOUSE LIVING is the coming mode of living so say so many of our trade publications. Years ago some intelligent real estate developers saw the need for well designed and constructed apartments in the Pointe. For years these townhouses were rented as luxury terraces. Recently they have been individually purchased as condominiums, and many previous tenants are now owners of these quality apartments. We would like to show you the finest example of townhouse living available in the Pointe today. The terrace has four bedrooms on the second floor which are serviced by two full baths. There are servants quarters on the third floor and the spacious main floor offers a library, lavatory and completely renovated kitchen. One monthly maintenance fee takes care of all the outside chores which come with conventional house living.

You've asked for it and now we have it for sale. It comes in a nicely wrapped package of contemporary design at 25 Moorland, in the Shores. Four bedrooms are not common in single story homes. Ours has them. A living room 35 feet long is a rarity. We've got it. A spacious kitchen so large we have put in two dishwashers, super-sized garage and 23 foot square area in a side yard for storage. All come with this one. Of course the house is completely air conditioned but for the fresh air lovers we have three large sliding glass doors which open to secluded patio area. The best feature of all is the price... $69,500.

HALL PLACE — Center Entrance Colonial. 3 bedrooms, rec room with fireplace. Excellent area.

Brimming With Fashion... is the millinery department at Walton-Pierce. Brims are framing fashionable faces. We admired a large brimmed black straw hat which is banded with black and coffee grosgrain. A red, white and blue straw is brimmed off the face with a graceful side-line. In spring there are always lovely little floral shapings and this year there's a shaped scarf hat. The millinery department will make to order hats and hatlets to complement a special costume or to suit a special occasion. Wedding veils and bridesmaids headdresses are very special indeed!

Exclusive... at Leon's is the fabulous French Permabel. It's the only permanent of its kind that's designed to condition the hair while giving body curl... and that's good news to those with problem hair or tinted or bleached hair. Call TU 4-8393 for an appointment.

Hot Colors... for hot pants at Michelle's Boutique, 17864 Mack Avenue. For parties choose brightly printed jersey hot pants with a slit over-skirt from a new collection of cocktail fashions. Michelle's is open Friday evenings.

A Miraculous Kitchen... at Mutschler Kitchens, 20227 Mack Avenue must be seen to be believed. Sub Zero has manufactured a compact kitchen which is only 39 inches wide but contains everything you need for easy cooking. There is a stainless steel sink with space for a garbage disposal, a 6.6 cubic foot refrigerator, a two burner electric range and a counter done in Formica walnut grain. A great addition to a recreation room... perfect for modernizing a cottage or an appreciated luxury in a husband's office.

In Martha's Closet... 373 Fisher Road, you'll find fashionable ensembles... dresses and jackets, dresses and coats starting at sixty-five dollars. They come in cottons, cotton blends, wool knits and polyester... navy and red, neutrals and great colors.

Those folks at Mr. Q... have a fabulous buy for you. Eight days in Miami Beach for $165.00, including jet air, seven nights in an efficiency apartment at the famed Twelve Caesars on the ocean. Round trip from Toronto starting June 6... don't delay, call 886-0500.

It's A Smart Idea... to make an appointment at Edward Nepi Parruchiere, 19463 Mack Avenue for a brand new haircut to help you meet Spring and carry you into summer. Mr. Nepi is now devoting all day Tuesday and Wednesday to hair styling only. He or one of his highly trained staff will shampoo, cut and blow dry your hair in a style that needs no setting or back combing. The secret, of course, is in the cutting. Call TUxedo 4-8858 for an appointment.

The Kaleidoscope... views a tinware sale. It's fifty percent off, jello, cake, and fish molds plus cream, milk cans, etceteras. All are decorative and practical... 16135 Mack at Bedford.

Gift Suggestions... from Hickey's... Bronzini neckwear makes an ideal Easter gift, other ideal gifts are a bottle of Isod cologne by Patou and Baker's Dozen handkerchiefs, thirteen for five dollars at 17140 Kercheval.

Arrived... at The Sphere, 19849 Mack Avenue, is a shipment of Westmoreland milk glass. See the beautiful copies of authentic pieces, along with Westmoreland glass animals in blues or greens. We love the wisest owl.

It's Posh... to be one of the beautiful people. Many of them are discovering the new hair cut, which is shaped to the head, requires no setting. You are in and out of the Posh Studios, 18700 Mack Avenue in thirty minutes. Not only is it... refree but it is fashionable because the pretty lift... lead is one of fashions favorites. And it will be... now that Spring is almost here. Be sure it is done by an expert stylist or you'll just have short hair and completely miss the new look. Call 886-1377.

Special... at the Notre Dame Pharmacy... you get a gift of 4711 Cream Foam Bath ($2.50 value) with your purchase of 4711 Eau de Cologne for four dollars. The Cream Soap regularly two seventy-five now two dollars. The 4711 Glycerine Soap... three bars for two fifty.

To Land A Warm and Charming Air... accent with pine decoratives from Wright's Gift and Lamp Shop, 18650 Mack Avenue. Among their new selections are different size mirrors with lovely pine frames, compotes, candleholders, spice racks, paper towel holders and bookends... to name a few of the lovely pine pieces.

Decorators... have used shag rugs as accents for years. Now they have come into the popular price range. At Ed Maliszewski Carpeting, 21435 Mack Avenue, they are available in many materials. Shag carpets have interesting textures and come in so many colors.

Achieve... that Grosse Pointe Hi-Fashion look by shopping for your wardrobe and accessories at Mr. Julian Fashion Boutique, 15114 Kercheval in the Park... VA 2-2815.

The Arrangement... you'll love it! It's a charming flower shop with the freshest blossoms plus a gift boutique which features prints, scented candles, decoupage, silk flowers. Drop by 341 Fisher Road or call 885-6222 for delivery anywhere in the city.

Saw Carol Sutter's Flower Prints... at the Arrangement on Fisher Road and what stunning gifts they'd make! For Easter, Birthdays, Thank-yous, or a gay little extra something for yourself. They'd be perfect for that elderly relative in a nursing home, too... and for the hospital patient with no space for boules and vases. Ideas worth looking into?

A mecca for beauty... The Grosse Pointe Coliseum has become a tradition among the beautiful ladies of our community. They throng to 20335 Mack and Eight Mile where beauty experts pamper you with facials, pedicures, manicures and glamorize you with flattering hair fashions.

Great news for travellers... Ridgley's Learnin' Tree at 18332 Mack Ave. is featuring a section devoted to travel. Special orders on any book promptly filled. Come browse, we're open every night and Sundays, too. P.S. Don't miss the autographing Party for Peter McWilliams, exciting poet, this Friday, April 2 at 8 p.m.

THE REVEREND ROLAND L. SCHAEIDIG, OF SAINT PAUL EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH

By Janet Mueller

Saint Paul Evangelical Lutheran Church is 100 years old this year. The Reverend Roland L. Schaedig is new. Not brand new: He was ordained in August, 1969, and came to Saint Paul the following month, as assistant to Pastor Charles W. Sandrock.

But this is The Reverend Schaedig's 23rd year at Saint Paul, The Reverend Schaedig's second. The Reverend Schaedig is new.

Twenty-three years... and two. St. Paul bridges the gap.

Organized September 20, 1871, the first St. Paul church building rose on the corner of Jos. Campau and Jay streets in Detroit. It was dedicated in 1872.

A parochial school, begun in 1873, continued until 1930 and in the latter 1800's, during the erid of Detroit's vigorous growth, St. Paul congregation established four missions: St. Luke, Christ, Good Hope and Martin Luther.

Time Brings Changes By 1945 the situation in the church's immediate area and the relocation of its people pointed toward a move to the east.

The Joseph Campau-Jay street property was sold. The congregation held worship services in a number of places, principally Jackson Intermediate School, Marlborough and Waveney, for the next five-and-a-half years.

During those five-and-a-half years, Pastor Sandrock came to St. Paul. Ground was broken for the present church building in the spring of 1949. It was dedicated July 2, 1950.

Ten years later, July 17, 1960, ground was broken for a new parish education building, dedicated in September, 1962.

So much for physical facts, a brief names-and-dates history.

How Church Has Grown Here's what St. Paul grew into, the church today, with some 910 communing members, including teens, about 1200 total membership, including baptized infants.

Three of its young men, sons of member families, are preparing for the ministry.

Another, graduated from Yale Divinity School last spring, serves as director of Focus Hope, the Detroit Inner City improvement program.

The congregation supports a missionary in Cameroon.

It's a seven-days-a-week church, with a secretary on duty in the office during regular business hours, a nursery school in session in the basement from 9 to 11 o'clock Monday through Friday mornings.

The Youth Room, complete with kitchenette, stereo and TV, pop machine, ping-pong and pool tables AND a fireplace, gets a pretty good workout.

The Bethany Room hosts Adult Classes, Women's Circle and Church Vestry meetings.

The Lounge, used mainly for special guests and wedding receptions, currently has a bulletin board First Hundred Years display and an exhibit of bibles and communion vessels used at St. Paul during those first hundred years.

Has Vacation School Summers, St. Paul sponsors a two-week vacation church school. Enrollment, 54 in 1969, rose to 106 last year.

"This turns out to be quite a neighborhood service project," The Reverend Schaedig notes, "for many of the children come from non-member families living in the immediate area."

Roland Schaedig, born near Rogers City, grew up in Ossineke, a small town outside Alpena.

His parents died when he was young. He was brought up by an uncle and aunt. The uncle built Ossineke's Prehistoric Zoo (how many of you, touring in Northern Michigan, have stopped to see that?), and Roland and his brothers worked there after school and during summer vacations, helping him.

Graduate of U-M Two years at Alpena Community College followed graduation from Alpena High. Then, after three years at the University of Michigan, armed with a Bachelor of Arts degree, the future Reverend Schaedig was off to Wartburg Theological Seminary in Dubuque, Iowa, for two more years of study followed by a year's leave of absence.

He spent that year in Germany, as an English tutor at a German Mission Seminary. Back in the States, he had a year of internship, (ministerial work in the field), with the Lutheran Campus Ministry at Iowa State before returning to Wartburg for his final year of study.

He received his Bachelor of Divinity degree in the spring of 1967 and spent three months as interim pastor at a church serving Elk Rapids and East Jordan before heading back to Germany for a year's Theological study, under Fulbright auspices, at Goettingen.

Was Social Worker Back again in the States, he put in a semester at New York Theological Seminary, concentrating in the area of Urban Ministries. The second half of that year he was a Social Worker for the New York City Department of Social Services. "I learned more in those five months than I could have in several years of academic work."

He returned to Ossineke to be ordained in his home church. A month later, he came to Grosse Pointe, to St. Paul.

Two weeks after he arrived a young lady, from Great Falls, Mont., by way of Concordia College, Moorhead, Minn., walked into the church. She, too, was new in the community. She'd come to teach at Parcels.

"We hired her as Junior Choir director,"

Engaged For Life Sally is engaged for life now. Last summer she became Mrs. Roland Schaedig.

So much for physical facts, a brief names-and-dates history.

Here's the man who lived that biography.

He's Northern Michigan pioneer stock, scion of families that came to clear and plant. His father had a third grade formal education, but Roland, B.A., B.D., Fulbright Scholar, is no Schaedig "sport." Two uncles, a brother and two cousins are all ministers.

Born into a bi-lingual family, he picked up a working knowledge of the German spoken at home. Later, at the University of Michigan, he majored in German.

Hunting has always been a favorite pastime, but he's "too far away" to do much of that now. He'll paddle a canoe into wilderness any time, anywhere.

At home in St. Clair avenue he enjoys "puttering," odd jobs, and "more and more I've been spending time working on the restoration of an old parlor reed organ."

Is Restoring Organ He's been at that about 18 months now, torn the organ down completely and is in the process of repairing it, piece by piece. The parts are all laid out in the basement, numbered and catalogued.

"I'll be finished, probably, by the end of the summer." And then? "I'll probably get another one."

He plays guitar "enough so that whenever I can strum along a little." Music's a delight he and Sally share; she's no longer teaching at Parcels but still tutors flute privately. "We love classical music—mainly baroque—and we have quite a few records."

He puts in a long working day.

A Typical Day Three morning hours in the office, handling mail, planning programs for adults or young people's groups... calls on shut-ins and/or hospital visits in the early afternoon... back to the office to work on a sermon, go over a class plan... quit often something to do in the evening, too. A meeting at the church or in a member's home, a meeting with a group of other ministers... The typical clergyman's day, today.

Each day a new day. One hundred years of new days.

There's no One Big Thing, Saint Paul Evangelical Lutheran Church has planned as its Hundredth Anniversary Celebration. The whole year's a celebration, with guest speakers scheduled on various Sundays throughout the year.

The first, Dr. Norman Menter, former pastor of a Lutheran church in Detroit and former president of the Lutheran Church Michigan District, spoke March 7.

The Reverend Edmund Schleicher, from the Lutheran Home of Mercy, Williston, O., will speak in June, The Reverend David Preus, vice-president of the American Lutheran Church, at an Anniversary Banquet at the Gourmet House in October.

Choir Concert Planned The Chapel Choir from Capital University, Columbus, O., will appear in concert at Saint Paul May 2. The performance is a joint venture, sponsored by St. Paul and five other area Lutheran churches.

Saint Paul Sunday School gave a special presentation March 21. There's a Family Night planned for Friday, May 7, with the church teens promising special entertainment, and a Homecoming Service and Potluck Dinner set for September 12.

Another guest speaker, other events, are still in the pre-announcement planning stages.

The church is engaged in a Hundredth Anniversary Fund Drive.

One-fourth of funds raised as a Special Anniversary Gift will be used to purchase a new organ for Saint Paul. The organist has been using pencils to prop up stops on the old one.

The remaining three-fourths will be given away, to the Home of Mercy in Williston. There's a kitchen there that needs equipping...

Three-fourths for you, one-fourth for me...

Saint Paul Evangelical Lutheran Church is 100 "giving" years old this year.

Maybe it's the "giving" that keeps it such a strong, new church.

A two-piano concert... with talented Pointers Sara (Mrs. Ronald J.) Ladd of Grayton road, and Janet (Mrs. Thomas I.) Young of Loraine road, for the benefit of Detroit Waldorf School, will be given on Saturday, April 3, at 8 o'clock, in the school auditorium, 2555 Burns, Detroit...

The link by which... they came to know Waldorf School is an interesting one. It happened right here in The Pointe some two years ago. A group called "The Musicians" was formed... the first meeting was held in the Lincoln road home of James Gibson. The purpose of the organization was to keep music alive in the lives of former professionals and semi-professionals, who had taken other roads in life...

The group was composed... mostly of Pointers. The members were to perform for each other and with each other on a regular basis. Mr. Gibson, a successful and well-recognized architect, played the violin, piano and organ... among the top-calibre artists: was Janet Young...

Also present... was talented Dina Soresi, development coordinator of The Detroit Waldorf School, and former opera and concert singer. Since Waldorf School places great emphasis on artistic activities for children... Miss Soresi asked some of the musicians to perform for the children from time to time... Janet Young was one of the artists who readily responded to Miss Soresi's request... through Janet Young, Sara Ladd became interested in the school... and that's how it all began...

They give of their talents... both ladies along with another talented Pointer, Kirsten Deaver, recorder player, have given concerts for the students over the past years...

Detroit Waldorf School... one of 80 such schools in the world, is fully integrated, co-educational and non-denominational... its teaching is aimed at a balanced program of arts and sciences...

Artistic activities... are stressed such as clay modeling, painting, recorder playing and everything, (a form of movement which was originated by the founder of Waldorf Education, Dr. Rudolf Steiner)...

Teaching is imaginative... and artistic. According to the Waldorf method, education is art... two foreign languages and one musical instrument are taught from first grade through the seventh grade... in all phases of the educational process learning through the seventh grade... in all phases of the educational process learning through doing is emphasized.

There are two training... institutes for Waldorf teachers in the United States... one of them is in Garden City and offers a Masters degree... the other in Detroit is presently located on the upper floor of its own building. It is connected with Mercy College... Mercy offers credits and teacher certification for the completed course...

Adults can learn... the Waldorf way. Courses are offered for parents of the school and the general community in crafts, painting and the study of various developmental stages of growth in the children during their early years... Waldorf education is based on the understanding of these developmental stages...

It is a private... non-profit educational institution and includes a Day Care Center, consisting of nursery school and two kindergartens and grades one through seven, with an additional grade being added each year... plans eventually include a high school.

The Waldorf method... originated in Germany in 1919 and has spread throughout the world... the Waldorf theory of learning is founded on a progression of the child's intellectual consciousness, taking the path from action through emotion to intellect... (Sound great, doesn't it?)... for more information call Mrs. Eric Winter at 822-0300.

It's no wonder... Pointers such as Janet Young and Sara Ladd are interested in the school. Their benefit concert will be a mixture of classical and contemporary works and includes Bach's Sonata #3 in D Minor, Etudes en forme de Canon by Schumann, Mozart's Sonata in D, Pastoral by Stanley Bates and Mikrokosmos by Bartok...
