THE FIRST BREAK in the story behind the bombing of the United States Capitol two months ago came Wednesday with the disclosure that a blond 19-year-old anti-war protest organizer, Leslie Bacon, has been arrested as a material witness and possible suspect. She reportedly was apprehended Monday night after FBI agents chased her to the roof of a house in northwest Washington. She was charged only with being a material witness to the March 1 blast.

PRESIDENT NIXON said Thursday that a residual force of United States troops would remain in South Vietnam indefinitely, "no matter how long it takes," if Hanoi refuses to release United States prisoners of war. At a televised news conference in the White House, Mr. Nixon said United States forces would also have to remain in South Vietnam until the Saigon government is capable of defending itself.

DWIGHT H. JOHNSON, Medal of Honor winner in 1968, was declared dead in the emergency room of Detroit General Hospital on the morning of Thursday, April 29, after he allegedly tried to kill a Detroit party store owner in what police called an "at-temperd armed robbery."

THE GOVERNMENT AN-NOUNCED strict nationwide clean-air standards Friday, April 30, acknowledging that the new standards could change commuters' habits and cause higher electric bills when they take effect in 1975. The New Environmental Protection Agency issued the standards under a 1970 law requiring that air pollution be curbed for the sake of the nation's health.

GENERAL MOTORS COR-PORATION executives insisted in an unusual two-hour meeting with reporters Saturday that the major reason they paid $20,000 for 106,000 outdated microfilm customer complaint files was to help the federal government in legal actions against the company. The officials said they did not want the files to fall into the hands of GM critic Ralph Nader only because they did not feel Nader had the manpower or the money to properly evaluate the 19 cardboard boxes of microfilm. GM bought the files on April 20 from two Wyandotte scrap dealers, Floyd Avery and Kenneth Simpson. The dealers told GM at the time that Nader offered $20,000 for the files, which was not true, and GM arrived hours later with a cashier's check.

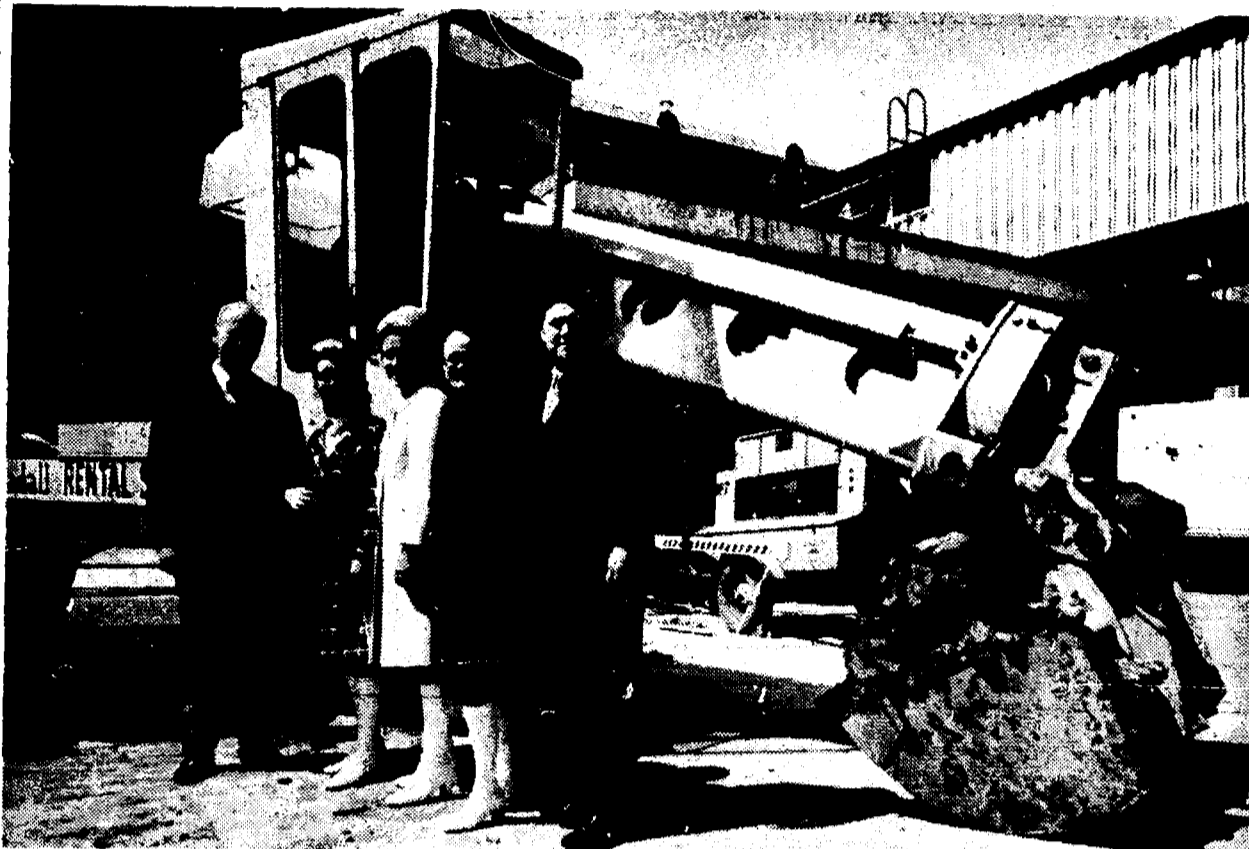

Monday, May 3

POLICE ROUTED up to 30,000 anti-war demonstrators from their riverside encampment in Washington early Sunday, but the protest leaders and many of the young people vowed to remain in the capital Monday and try to shut down the federal bureaucracy. To counter the threat, about 10,000 troops were moved to staging areas in the Washington vicinity. They included 2,000 Marines from Camp Lejeune, N. C. and 2,000 paratroopers from Fort Bragg, N. C. The soldiers, members of the 82nd Airborne Division, have special training in handling civil disorders.

Tuesday, May 4

ANTI-WAR DEMONSTRATORS filled the Washington streets with logs, nails, abandoned cars and their own bodies Monday, but police stopped them from crippling the government by firing tear gas and arresting a record 7,000 persons. Protest leader Rennie Davis and Dr. Benjamin Spock were among those arrested.

St. John Hospital To Have New Emergency Center

Participating in the ground breaking ceremonies for Saint John Hospital's new Emergency Center on Monday, May 3, were the Fontbonne Auxiliary leaders and Men's Guild leaders who directed efforts of hundreds of volunteers in raising almost $150,000 to assist in the construction of this new facility. They include, (left to right) WILLIAM B. McINTYRE, M.D., MRS. WALTER L. VAN GOETHEM, JR., MRS. ROLAND RINKE, MRS. VOLLRAD VON BERG and ROGER RINKE.

GP Artists' 33rd Exhibit Opens May 8

Display to Remain at War Memorial Center Through Memorial Day

The Grosse Pointe Artists' Association's 33rd Annual Exhibition opens Saturday, May 8, with a tea and reception for Association members, their friends and families from 2 to 5 p.m. at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center.

The exhibition will be open to the public following the reception until Memorial Day, May 31. Prizes will be awarded in oil, watercolor, pen and ink and drawing and sculpture by the judges who jury the show.

Included in awards will be Best of Show and Voted Most Popular by the visiting public. The Grosse Pointe Artists have a continuously rotating exhibit the year around in the foyer of the Center's Fries Auditorium. This may be viewed simultaneously with the Annual Exhibition. These paintings are available for sale or rental, (for information, inquire at the Center office).

September 11 is the date for the Annual Artists' Association Outdoor Festival, an invitational exhibit featuring many free-lance artists coming from all parts of the state as well as local artists. Included are members of the Detroit Women Painters and Sculptors, Palette and Brush Club, Birmingham Artists' Association, Grosse Pointe Artists Association and members of the faculty of Detroit Society of Arts and Crafts and Wayne State University.

Memorial Center Drive $20,000 Short Of Goal

Grosse Pointe War Memorial's 1971 Family Participation Campaign is still $20,000 short of the necessary $90,000 needed to maintain the Center's buildings and grounds during the next fiscal year beginning August 1.

Approximately 1,400 of the Memorial's regular givers have yet to be heard from and, of course, the Center hopes to pick up many new donors from new residents and the many additional Pointers who have this year become aware of the Center's services, programs and activities and have participated in them.

The last necessary monies are, of course, the most difficult to get in. To assist with this endeavor the Center's staff and volunteer workers

Park, City Petition County To List Jefferson Paving In 1971 Repair Programs

Avenue Is In Such Terrible Condition, Road Commission Is Asked to Resurface Thoroughfare From Wayburn to Fisher Without Delay

The condition of the Jefferson avenue pavement from Wayburn to Fisher roads has become such that the Park council has approved a resolution to be dispatched to the Wayne County Road Commission requesting the paving of the avenue be given top priority, according to information released by Park City Manager Robert Slone.

The park manager, with Grosse Pointe City Manager Thomas Kressbach, met with the Road Commission early in April to ask that the commission have the paving included in its 1971 program, in spite of the fact that the city officials had been informed that the project has not been contemplated for this year.

Last Paved In 1951
Slone stated that the last time Jefferson had been paved was in 1951, just 20 years ago, and now the avenue is in extreme need of repairs. As a compromise, the Commission promised to use machine strip patching which, it is said, is more effective than the cold patch method.

At a recent Park council meeting at which Ervin A. Steiner, Jr., Third District Commissioner and chairman of the County Public Works Committee, was in attendance, the condition of the avenue was brought to his attention, and Steiner promised to do all he could to try and have Jefferson repaved.

In part, in a letter addressed to Michael Berry, chairman of the Road Commission, Steiner stated the following:

"I am sure it was the cumulative opinion, (following a meeting of Slone and three officials of the Road Commission), that Jefferson avenue is in horrible condition and in dire need of repair. As I am sure you know, this county road is a main artery to all five Grosse Pointes. I know your engineers are more qualified in detailing it. I would like to bring before this honorable body's attention that Jefferson avenue was resurfaced over 20 years ago. I see by a letter that you are thinking of 1972. This is really putting it off a year when it should be done immediately."

Cost Is $250,000
Slone said the cost of paving Jefferson, from Wayburn to Fisher, would be approximately $250,000, of which the Park's share would be 40 percent, but he questioned this because the Farms and Shores did not contribute to the cost when Jefferson and Lake Shore road were paved recently.

Slone said he felt that the cost should be completely borne by the Road Commission, since the county receives all gas and weight taxes for the avenue, which is a county thoroughfare.

In 1951, the city manager said, the Park paid about $17,000 of the $130,000 it cost to pave Jefferson. He added that $105,000 is in the Park's Major Road Fund, but this is for maintenance of major city roads and that $35,000 of this fund is for proposed curb repair.

The city manager said that more than 14,000 lineal feet of curb is in need of repair or replacement and that the contract for this program has been awarded to the Vanopdenbosch Construction company, which offered to do the job at a low enough cost that it would not be advantageous to the city to take competitive bids. This firm has done such work for the city since 1968, he added.

It's Business As Usual For Woods

Council Handles Routine Matters at Regular Meeting Last Monday

By Greg Boyd

The City Council of Grosse Pointe Woods conducted routine business at their regular meeting of Monday, May 3. The local muscular dystrophy chapter of the Muscular Dystrophy Association of America asked the council to proclaim the period of May 15 to June 15 as Muscular Dystrophy Month in the Woods and requested permission to conduct the annual house-to-house march Tuesday, June 8 from 5 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Permission was granted in both cases but there was some discussion on the council regarding the 9 p.m. deadline. Councilmen Marvin Poutin and George Freeman voted against passage of the motion on the grounds that other worthwhile causes were only allowed to operate during daylight hours in the Woods.

With Councilmen William Heuteman and Benjamin Pinkos absent, the motion passed by a vote of 3-2.

School Board Sits at Parcels

A change in the location of the regular monthly meeting of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education was announced by Dr. Theos I. Anderson, Superintendent of Schools, on Monday.

The trustees' May meeting will be held in the auditorium of Parcels Middle School at 8 p.m. next Monday, May 10, instead of at South High School. Reason for the change is that the stage area at South will be used for library storage during the construction and renovation program.

Mrs. Joseph P. Thompson, president of the Board of Education, will chair the session. Superintendent Anderson will present his recommendations to the trustees for their action.

The next regular meeting of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, slated for June 14, has been advanced to June 7 because it conflicts with the trusteeship election and graduation exercises at North High School.

The June 7 meeting of the Board of Education will also be held at Parcels Middle School, beginning at 8 p.m.

Pointe Hospitals Provide Service Throughout Year

Cottage, Bon Secours and St. John Offer Special Programs and Facilities to Local Community; All Are Busy Places

By Pepper Whitelaw
The NEWS takes this opportunity, just prior to National Hospital Week, Sunday, May 9, through Saturday, May 15, to salute our local hospitals, St. John, Bon Secours and Cottage, for their contributions to the health and welfare of our citizenry.

James T. Farley, president of St. John Hospital, released the following statistics to the NEWS. During the past year, this 510-bed hospital with a staff of 1,800 has admitted some 19,572 patients. Some 4,410 babies were born there and some 48,874 persons were treated in the Emergency Center.

Sister Justine Cyr, president of Bon Secours, told the NEWS that the 164-bed hospital admitted some 7,697 persons. Some 1,278 babies were born there last year, and over 14,364 people used Bon Secours' emergency facility.

Ralph L. Wilgarde, administrator of Cottage Hospital, said there were some 5,286 admissions last year in the 115-bed hospital. Over 900 babies were born there and approximately 8,194 persons used the emergency facilities.

St. John Expanding
St. John's decision to expand emergency facilities has kept staff, Fontbonne Auxiliary and Mens' Guild members very busy of late. Ground was broken for a million dollar emergency facility addition last Monday, which when completed early in 1972, will triple the size of the present facility.

Emergency services were first initiated at Saint John Hospital in 1956 when the hospital's Emergency Room was opened. Designed to serve 10,000 emergency patients a year the Emergency Room had approximately 5,000 visits that first year.

Since that time the number of emergency visits has increased rapidly. In 1970, almost 50,000 patients visited the hospital's emergency facility, and some 60,000 patients are expected in 1971.

Can Serve 100,000
Based on this growth and a projected continuing expansion in emergency visits at a rate of 15 per cent per year, the new Emergency Center has a designed capacity to serve 100,000 emergency patients yearly.

The fully air-conditioned new center will be one of the largest and most modern emergency facilities in the state. Included will be 22 minor and major emergency examination and treatment stations—double the number presently available.

It will feature a cardiac emergency unit, a holding area where patients may be observed without being admitted to the hospital and greatly expanded supportive facilities.

Manned Round Clock

Two Elementary Principals Foresee Changes Next Fall

Two principals of elementary buildings in the Grosse Pointe public school district this week announced details of the impact of the defeat of the renewal of operational mileage on March 15 on their staff and pupils. Donald Bassett of Mair and John Rohrer of Ferry School informed parents of the impending curriculum changes via newsletters circulated to parents in each school community.

At the April meeting of the Board of Education, the trustees accepted the recommendations of Dr. Theos I. Anderson, Superintendent of Schools, to curtail 101 positions in the system for the coming year, (including 75 classroom teachers), because of lack of funds.

Toss Gasoline Bomb Inside Confessional

Two Males Seen Running from Church to Parked Car and Speeding Away on Wayburn

Park police are looking for two males suspected of arson, for questioning in the firebombing of St. Ambrose Roman Catholic Church, 15020 Hampton, between Maryland and Wayburn, shortly after midnight on Monday, May 3. Damage was estimated at approximately $1,000 by police and fire officials.

The two males were seen running from the Wayburn entrance of the church at 12:35 a.m. and getting into a white, or light yellow colored late model compact automobile parked in front of the church and speeding north on Wayburn.

Hears Explosion
A witness, whose attention was attracted by the sound of breaking glass and an explosion, saw the pair leaving the church building and getting into the car.

Two other witnesses, driving south on Wayburn, told authorities that a light colored car passed them at a high rate of speed. The vehicle contained two young males, they said.

The pair, who saw flames through the broken church window, drove to the Park police station and notified the desk officer, who in turn relayed the alarm to the Park Fire Department. The church building and rectory are located within the Park, and the school building and convent in Detroit.

Flames Extinguished
Park Assistant Fire Chief Philip Costa, who was called at his home when the alarm was sounded, said that when the Park firefighters arrived at St. Ambrose, Detroit firemen and equipment had already arrived and had stretched fire hose and knocked down the flames. Another citizen had called Detroit.

The Park firemen relieved the Detroit contingent, who were thanked for their prompt response to the alarm, Costa said.

The chief said that the fire was started in a confessional at the south side of the church building, and by Detroit's fast action the flames were confined to the cubicle.

Police officers at the scene said they could find no evidence of broken glass, although there was a 10-by-10-inch hole in the glass of the confessional window.

Search Reveals Clues
On this basis it is assumed that the arsonists entered the (Continued on Page 10)

NEWS to Raise Price of Paper

For a number of years the NEWS has been holding the line on the high cost of operations, but now it can no longer do so. Due to the increase in the price of newsprint, the costs of printing, etc., it is regretfully announced that effective with the June 3 issue, the price of a single copy will be raised from 10 cents to 15 cents, and the annual subscription rate from $5 to $6. The NEWS is just about the last newspaper to do this.

Beginning with the first issue in June, subscription rates to Wayne County and St. Clair Shores residents will be $6 per year, and the rate for six months will be $4.

The out-of-county rate will be $7 a year, and for six months, $5. A School Term subscription will also be $5.

In conjunction with this, the base rate of classified advertising and display advertising also has been forced up.

Due to postal regulations, all subscriptions must be paid in advance.

We sincerely hope that our readers and advertisers will understand and will continue their valued patronage.

Three Local Hospitals Serve Community

gene Cetnar, director of Emergency Services, explains: "Emergency care is no longer a hospital sideline, but a full major service. With the new facility we will be able to eliminate any waiting for service 90 percent of the time."

According to Mr. Farley, the new Emergency Center is another step toward meeting the health care needs of the community. "Emergency services," says Farley, "are an integral part of our overall patient care program. No longer are we classifying those we serve as inpatients, outpatients or emergency patients. Rather our concept is to offer a full range of health care services geared to the needs of the individual patient."

"In this manner," Farley concludes, "we can provide health care services to our community in the most effective and economical manner." Tragedies and Comedies St. John Emergency Center staff witnesses tragedies and comedies daily. . . . From the little girl who has stuffed a crayon up her nose for safe-keeping, accompanied by an irate mother, to the 17-year old boy whose mother found him unconscious on the bedroom floor from an overdose of heroin.

An endless stream of people moves in and out of emergency. No person is ever turned away.

All patients are examined by a fully-qualified licensed physician specializing in the practice of emergency medicine. Following the examination, a course of action is taken. A patient may be treated and released or admitted to the hospital.

Those with minor conditions not requiring immediate treatment are referred to their own family physicians a few may be transferred to another hospital having highly specialized services for their particular needs.

Home Can Be Dangerous
A significant percentage of emergency visits are the results of accidents and other types of injuries. A majority of these occur at home, such as falls, lacerations and burns. Auto accidents account for many other injuries as do industrial, school, sports injuries and animal bites.

Hospital statistics show that the worst month for accidents and other types of injuries is the month of June. February seems to be the safest month of the year.

The Sisters of Bon Secours have been caring for the sick in the Grosse Pointe area since 1909. Their first service was that of offering home care—visiting families in their homes to care for new mothers, children and the aged.

Personal Service Tradition
Their devotion to the idea of service to one's fellow man carried over in the hospital when it was constructed. Now the tradition of personal service is strong there. As one of the nurses said, "It isn't something which has to be taught. People who become part of the Bon Secours team pick up the idea from others around them."

The nurses who work there pride themselves in being able to actually perform nursing care for individuals rather than being simply administrators of a department—confined to paper work.

The personal service isn't limited to nurses or nurses aides. One older male patient was so impressed with the cheery greeting of the TV lady, a woman employed by a television concern to place rental sets in the hospital rooms, that he insisted his son let him pay her daily rather than by the week so that he would have reason to chat with her each day.

Where Are They Now?
Each department is responsible for the care of those persons while they are in that particular department, but there is a remarkable continuation of interest on the part of department personnel as their patients move into other departments.

It is not uncommon to see people from the Emergency Room up in one of the wards to see how a particular patient who was brought in through Emergency is now faring.

Like many hospitals, Bon Secours has a home care nursing supervisor whose duty is to see how patients are getting along at home after their hospital stay.

Obviously, the personal touch is deeply appreciated by people who have stayed in the hospital. The Sisters, nurses and other employees all receive notes and often little remembrances from patients and their families, who wish to express their gratitude that their mother wasn't just the patient in 204, but was a very special person.

Benjie Says "Thank You"
Treating someone as a very special person brought this unedited thank you to Nurse-Aide Rose Gehringer from a tonsillectomy patient, six-year-old Benjie: "You are the sweetest in the whole world and your hoisspel is nice to me. Rosie you are good. The hoisspel is good too. I love you because you are nice. I didn't titan (tighten) when I got my shot."

Cottage Hospital has been involved in community service and training for many years. Each spring it holds a Nurse Aide Training Course. The course was initiated six years ago as a four-week session but because of its popularity was expanded to six weeks. This year some 15 students attended these sessions.

Program Trains Students
In November of last year, the hospital, in cooperation with the Grosse Pointe School System's first Medical Co-op Program, offered an eight-week course to 14 senior girls who were interested in medical careers.

The program was so successful and there have been so many applicants for the next fall program that the hospital has agreed to conduct a summer program as well. Upon completion of the course girls receive Nurse-Aide certificates.

Another "first" occurred last year when some girls from Dominican High School, as part of their "experiment in education week," were allowed to observe the operations of various departments in the hospital.

Cottage has a continuous adult and junior volunteer program. Part of the adult volunteer training now includes heart-lung resuscitation. John McCree, Jr., chief inhalation therapist, and Mrs. Nancy Ruehlen, R.N., in-service coordinator, conduct this course for the Michigan Heart Association as certified instructors.

Junior Volunteers
The juniors' program provides some 60 young local girls of community with the opportunity to be of service in the hospital during summer vacation, while learning about careers in the medical fields. Cottage's Medical Explorer Post 565 was organized in May of 1968, for the specific purpose of providing young people of the community between the ages of 14 and 20 with an opportunity to explore possible vocations in the Medical Health field.

The program is run by the young people themselves with the guidance and coaching of an adult advisor. Part of the program includes hearing various professionals speak on their careers in the medical field.

Explorers can take an overview of any career they choose, or go into an in depth examination of a particular career, whichever best fits their needs.

Special Events
Members of the Post hold special events such as canoe trips, picnics, sports events, visitations to medical schools and drug equipment manufacturers. They participate in Detroit area Explorer events such as The Explorer Road Rally, Explorer Olympics and program planning conferences. They also participate in national Explorer events.

Last year, Cottage's Explorer Post was selected as one of the best 20 posts in the United States and participated in a Panel of Youth at Philmont, N.M.

This year's Post president will go to Washington, D.C., and participate in the National Post President's Conference.

Generally Exploring is a program for high school boys and girls aimed at the needs, desires and concerns of the next generation. It brings young people voluntarily in association with adults.

These adults are carefully selected and trained, and by example are positive forces in the lives of the young Explorers.

Cooperates In Project
Cottage Hospital is also one of six hospitals in Michigan cooperating in the Student American Medical Association project for Medical Education and Community Orientation (SAMA-MECO) sponsored by the State Medical Society and the Michigan Hospital Association, according to Administrator Wilgard.

Under the SAMA-MECO project, Randall Riggs, second-year medical student at Wayne State University, is spending the summer at Cottage observing all aspects of hospital operation and assisting in a non-clinical capacity in the emergency room.

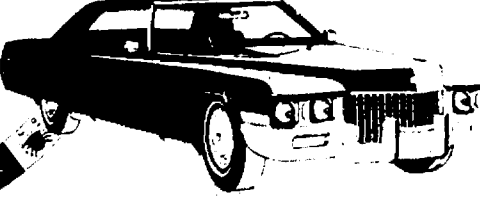

Mr. Riggs is the coordinator of the SAMA-MECO project for the Wayne State University Medical School. A native of Colorado Springs, Colo., he received a B.A. degree from the University of Washington, Seattle, before enrolling at Wayne State.

The purpose of the SAMA-MECO project is to develop a broader understanding of the field of health care services and to encourage future doctors to practice in small community hospitals, many of which now lack sufficient medical personnel.

The project was initiated in 1968 in Illinois. Administrative expenses are paid by a grant from the Sears-Roebuck Foundation. Student stipends and room and board are provided by the participating hospital. The Pointe communities with which makes a patient's stay at the hospital a more pleasant one. All three hospitals provide superior medical care, plus that added personal touch.

Woods Meeting

The annual drive seeks funds to support an all-out research attack against the muscle wasting disease and to provide clinic and patient services.

The volunteer chairman for the Woods is Mrs. Robert Spies, 2229 Stanhope. Those wishing to offer their time and services may call 399-8800.

In other action, the council voted to grant permission to Alger Post No. 995 to sell poppies in memory of war veterans in the Woods Thursday, May 27.

Resolutions Received

Also, two resolutions were received and placed on file by the council from the City of Lincoln Park. One offered support for a house bill which would allow home rule cities to establish a local officers compensation commission to set the salaries for locally elected officials. The second supported another bill which would provide state reimbursement for 25 percent of the cost of maintaining and operating a police department.

Two applicants were granted vendors licenses by the council. Joseph Wierzbicki, 740 Grand Marais, was issued a license to operate an ice cream truck in the Woods during the summer months. Also, Paul Della-Casa, 26491 Roberts, in Roseville was given a license to pick up newspapers at the curb side of homes in the Woods.

In final action, the city council authorized City Treasurer Helen L. Fox and Frederick G. Hornfisher, comptroller, to attend the annual meeting for the Municipal Finance Officers' Conference in New York City May 30 through June 3.

Swedish Night Next in Series

Scandinavian Holiday, next on the George Pierrot-selected Grosse Pointe Adventure Series at Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center, will feature on Thursday evening, May 20, (one evening only), the color travelogue "Swedish Scrapbook" personally narrated by Franklyn Carney.

Mr. Carney began traveling at the age of 14 when he hitchhiked by oxcart from British Honduras through El Salvador, Guatemala and Mexico.

By the time he was 27 he had worked his way through Medical School at Duke University by playing professional baseball. Two years later, after completing post-graduate work at Oxford and while at the University of Vienna, he was one of the victims of the German Blitzkrieg as it rolled into Austria.

He escaped by barge down the Danube, across the Black Sea to Istanbul and down to Cairo.

Breakfast in England, lunch in Russia and dinner in Italy was almost an everyday occurrence for Colonel Carney during World War II. As director of photography for the United States Air Force in Russia, he was first American combat pilot to land in that country.

After the war, as an authority on Russia, he became an advisor to the Armed Forces, lecturing on Russia throughout the United States and Europe.

Many more of Mr. Carney's adventures are recorded in his popular book "Love and Kisses," the novel of a bachelor's travels in Europe relating such breathtaking experiences as climbing the Matterhorn swimming the legendary Lorelei and fighting windmills with the ghost of Don Quixote in Spain. Also by Frank Carney is a recently published series of sketches on famous European landmarks, "Europe on a Pencil."

Mr. Carney has received many awards for his skill as a photographer, artist and writer. He is foremost in his field of documentary illustration and narration. His tremendous background is evident in his superb films.

Despite the Irish name of Carney, Frank is Swedish on his mother's side and he has skillfully photographed the land of his maternal heritage with a feeling and understanding that is a warm as Sweden's own midnight sun.

A pictorial study of Erik Norelius, founder of the Swedish Lutheran Church in America and Gustavus Adolphus College in Minnesota, opens the film. His original homestead and a meeting with his ancestors reveals Swedish life as it was, and is, in the rugged lumber and farm country to the north of Stockholm.

The quaint and beautifully costumed Halsinge-Hambon Dance Festival brings vivid color and excitement to this sequence of native customs.

Lapland and the life of the Lapps during the frigid winter above the Arctic Circle shows the Laplanders' battle to survive with their herds of reindeer.

During the winter skiing is the normal mode of transportation for most Swedes, but it also presents the greatest mass sporting event in the World. In the Vasa Ski Race over 8,000 participants race 50 miles.

Farming, lumbering, mining and manufacturing are the main occupations in Sweden and each is photographed in its locale with special emphasis on the people and the way it affects their environment.

Since 1840, the most typical souvenir in Sweden has been the Dalarna Horse. The large woodcarving factory for this multi-colored souvenir is visited before a search of the countryside for Sweden's stone carving relics which depict the culture of many centuries ago begins.

The trail of the Vikings along the coastline is explored. In Uppsala the grave of Dag Hammerschold is visited. Next is a peaceful voyage from Stockholm to Gotesborg on the famous Gota Canal with a stop at Vadstena for the raising of the traditional maypole.

The second half of "Swedish Scrapbook" opens with an aerial view of Stockholm and a spectacular sequence of the King of Sweden presenting the Nobel Prize Awards.

The pomp of regal Sweden is portrayed in the majestic

South Snags First Season Win After Several Losses

After beating Highland Park, 5-2, Thursday, April 29, the South High Devil nine should be riding on a mental high. The victory over the Parkers was the first Border-Cities League conquest of the season for the Devils, but the week wasn't all roses for the Devils, as they also dropped a contest to Wyandotte, 5-1. South's overall record stands at 5-3.

Head Coach George Dudch commented on the Devils' victory against the Parkers. "It should give them a large mental boost. They were a little down going into the Wyandotte game, and this win should get them going again. It was a very satisfying game."

Right-hander Bill Kendall went the distance for the Devils in his third start of the season. Kendall struck out 11 and gave up only three hits along the victory route. His record is now a strong 2-1.

Bill Eppinga staked the Devils to an early 2-0 lead in the fourth inning when he clubbed a two-run homer, his first of the season. Steve Kennel had singled before Eppinga's blast. Eppinga's efforts were short-lived, however, as the Parkers came on with an assault to tie the score in their half of the inning.

Kendall choked off all other Parker threats and sat back and relaxed as Tom Nique and a two-run double and Kennel knocked in Mark Sabier with an infield ground-out to cap the Devils' scoring.

South's bats produced seven hits altogether and five men were left stranded on base. In the field, two errors were committed, but they led to no Highland Park scoring.

Against Wyandotte, the Devils had trouble in the hitting department, collecting only four hits the entire afternoon. "It wasn't one of our better performances," Dudch reported.

The only South tally of the game came in the third inning when George Mubbar drove in Steve Kennel from third base with a single. After that brief uprising the Devils went into hibernation for the rest of the game.

Tom DuFour went the distance despite the lack of support he received. He was tagged with the loss and his record stands at 1-2.

The game scheduled April 29 against Lakeview had to be cancelled due to inclement weather and may be made up at a later date.

The Devils face another busy week as they play three games in five days, starting Monday, May 3 against Royal Oak. On Wednesday, May 5, they hosted cross-town rival Grosse Pointe North and today Fordson will be visiting South.

Resident Tells Of Car Theft

Karl W. Mantyla, 592 Notre Dame, called City police on Friday, April 23, to report the theft of his two-tone black and blue '68 Ford hardtop the previous evening.

Mr. Mantyla told officers he locked and parked his car across from his residence around 6:15 p.m. He discovered the theft at 9 a.m. on Friday morning.

Pitcher Hurls No-Hit Game

The Frisco Giants blanked the Tigers, 5-0, Sunday, May 2, in the Farms Babe Ruth League behind the brilliant no-hit pitching of David Costa.

Costa held the Tigers at bay for seven full innings, retiring 28 batters and striking out nine. Only one Tiger touched first base after drawing a walk in the fifth inning.

The ball game finished with other Giants giving solid support to the team effort. Matt Armbruster, who had just pitched a one-hitter for his team the day before, clubbed a solid double Sunday while Jay Weksnar cracked two hits and executed a picture play at shortstop to save the no-hitter for Costa. Also Rob Worrell and Tim Finan connected for singles.

Dodgers, Cards Clash in Opener

The Cardinals and Dodgers opened the Grosse Pointe City Little League season Saturday, May 1. Dodger pitcher John Cantwell, started in mid-season form by shutting out the Cards 6-0. Cantwell pitched a strong no hitter while striking out 10 Cards.

Cantwell's effort was backed up by errorless play from his teammates. The only Cardinal to reach base was catcher Trip Maghielse, who walked in the fifth inning. The starting and losing pitcher for the Cardinals was Doug Skip.

The Dodgers scored in the top of the first when lead-off batter Dave Evenden lined a single to right. Second baseman Rocky O'Hara, then drilled a ball to the fence in right for a double scoring Evenden. The Dodgers had a total of eight hits off starter Skip and his replacement, Tom Conway.

Dave Evenden had three singles, Rocky O'Hara, two doubles and singles hit were by Jeff Palms, John Cantwell and Tom Birk. The outstanding Card player was catcher Trip Maghielse who had two tough plays at the plate to stop Dodger runners from scoring and Trip also made two great catches on high pop ups. The Dodgers play the Cubs Friday, May 7.

Farms Little League Starts

All the Farms Major Little League teams swung into action Saturday, May 1, in the season baseball openers. The Yankees started off in strong style with a 6-2 win over the Red Sox. The big blow was a three run homer in the two inning by Bill Cody. Jim Hoski pitched a strong one-hitter, fanning nine and contributing a double to his cause. Randy Walworth and Rick Baker also had hits for the Yanks. The only Sox hit was a double by Keith Williams.

The Red Legs took a squeaker from the Tigers, 4-3, with Dan Couvier taking the win while whiffing 11 and slamming a homer on offense. Phil Hendrie had a triple for the winners. The Tiger hitters were Threm and Fruehauf with two-baggers.

The Pirates came on strong in the bottom of the sixth, scoring three times to down the Phillies 7-6. John Knipp was the big gun with two round-trippers and Tony Senagore ripped a double and took the win in relief. Rick Thomas went all the way for the losers, striking out 10 and getting a single and double with the bat. Kirk Purdy, Eric Grimes, John Leslie, Bryan Grimes and Jim Champion all had hits for the Phillies.

The final game of the day saw another close one with the Indians on top 2-1. The Indians scored in the top of the first on a walk to Chuck Dwyer and a double by Chick Taylor. The Giants came back in the fourth when Bob Neville walked, stole second and third and scored on a passed ball. The Indians went in front to stay in the fifth when Joe Gorski scored on a passed ball. It was a pitchers battle all the way with a total of 24 strikeouts by both teams. Joe Gorski took the win.

'Helpful' Police Scare Off Thief

An unknown car thief gave himself away to Shores police on the lookout for suspicious activity Sunday, April 25, when he bolted across Lakeshore drive after police attracted his attention.

The car, owned by a Detroit resident, had been parked on the corner of Woodland and Lakeshore when Shores Patrolmen Gary Mitchell and Daniel Healy noticed there was someone inside. As they drove their scout car behind the vehicle, the occupant got out.

Thinking the driver may have had car trouble, they honked the police car horn to attract his attention. The man suddenly ran across Lakeshore. As Mitchell began to take up the chase on foot, Healy immediately called for assistance. Answering the call were another car from the Shores and cars from the Farms and Woods.

In the meantime, Officer Mitchell found his way blocked by the heavy traffic on Lakeshore. Checking with security guards, the officers found that a man was seen running through one of the Lakeshore estate properties carrying a jacket. Further search for the fugitive proved fruitless.

Checking with Detroit police, Shores officers later found that the car that was left behind had been stolen recently.

The Grosse Pointe Park Swim Club placed third, and the Grosse Pointe Farms Club fourth in the eight-team Metro Winter League championships held Sunday, May 2, at Livonia Stevenson High School.

Clarenceville won the first place trophy while Crestwood finished second. Fifth through eighth places went to the host Livonia Spartans, Detroit Yacht Club, Jewish Community Center and Women's City Club, in that order.

The Clarenceville champions had two weeks' earlier in a dual meet at Parcels Middle School beaten the Farms Club by a score of 281-165 despite first places finishes by Farms' swimmers Patty Keck, Craig Barker, Andy MacFarlane, Brian Kolczich, Kathy Eldredge, Bob Heels, Cathy Crowley, Tony Montague, Jane Wittels and the relay team of Ann Chase, Carol Blake, Chris Simon and Chris Webb.

Officials at the championship meet remarked on the promising future of both Grosse Pointe teams after seeing the winning performances of Mickey and Megan Montagne, Toby and Todd Lindheim, Mike Gaitley and Therese Blake for the Park; Andy MacFarlane, Cathy Crowley and Bob Heels for the Farms.

The Park team is coached by Tim Kennary and the Farms team by Les Roddis and Bob Vamos.

Summer School Opens June 21

The Grosse Pointe Public School System will offer a six-week program of summer studies beginning on Monday, June 21. Dr. Theos I. Anderson's Superintendent, announced last Monday.

Dr. Anderson said that until regulations regarding tuition for summer program had been clarified recently by the State Department of Education, there was a possibility that Grosse Pointe might be forced to cancel its program.

As matters stand now, Dr. Anderson said that a program similar in scope to that offered last year will again be available. Details of the 1971 summer school, (including location of school centers and specific course offerings), will be made public as soon as they have been finalized.

Dr. Anderson said that he will ask the trustees to approve summer school tuition charges at the May meeting of the Board of Education. He indicated that, as in the past, the system will attempt to make the program self-supporting.

Acquire the saving habit — it takes lots of money to buy time.

by "seeding-in."

By far the easiest way to upgrade the kind of grass you have is to seed Scotts WINDSOR right into your present lawn. Windsor is the improved variety of Kentucky bluegrass. It won't transform your old lawn overnight, but given sunlight, moisture and time to develop, Windsor will produce a lasting lawn of rich green, sun-loving grass. It is available as pure Windsor and in blends containing 70% and 35% Windsor.

Are you ready to stop weeds when they arrive?

All it takes is Scotts PLUS-2. You spread it on your lawn any time after dandelions are in full bloom. It makes them, and most of the other common non-grass weeds, curl up and disappear — roots and all. PLUS-2 provides a full feeding of Turf Builder at the same time. Makes good grass fill in where the weeds were. All from an easy spreader application.

Azaleas and Rhododendrons

The Monthly newsletter of the Men's Garden Club of Grosse Pointe by Edmund J. Boell, Jr.

By Edmund J. Boell, Jr.
The azaleas are popular for indoors as well as an outdoor garden plant. The showy indoor varieties generally are not winter hardy, but are handsome and long-lasting as a gift plant. Rhododendrons are used less often as gift plants because of their size; They may be planted outdoors after flowering.

Nurserymen are anxious to popularize this group of plants and are developing new techniques for growing and propagating. Experiments and new culture methods will reduce the cost and result in lower price tags.

In our area the soil should be specially prepared. An acid soil is generally recommended. To obtain this, acid peat, sand and decomposed sawdust with an addition of Aluminum sulphate or sulphur can be mixed with the existing good soil, and should support a good growth.

The pH of the soil should be checked periodically and corrected when necessary. A pH of 5 is good. Some can stand a neutral soil.

Protection from strong summer and winter sun should be considered when selecting a site for planting. A north and east position near a dwelling is good. Cold winter winds can also be harmful.

Adequate drainage is a factor in success. The plants like a porous footing. The soil should be ventilated and not saturated with moisture. The modern raised garden beds are desirable sites.

Care should be given to the planting. Do not set too deep. Shallow planting is best, near or almost above the surface. Water plants carefully, particularly when buds begin to set in late July and August. Cultivation should be omitted; only the hand pulling of weeds is recommended.

Fertilize your plants lightly. Your extensive soil preparation will support them for a long time.

The curling of the leaves is natural, in winter. Some owners are depressed at seeing this odd, unsightly condition when the temperature nears zero.

Healthy condition will reduce winter injury. It is weak, run-down plants that are damaged by cold.

Rhododendron Varieties
Rosebay Rhododendron, R. maximum. Flowers July 1-10, lilac color. Long leaf, open growing, good for larger houses. Flowers are not impressive but the plants are very hardy. Cunningham's White is a hybrid of this species.

Carolina Rhododendron, R. carolinianum, has smaller leaves and blooms; profuse, dense foliage. There is a popular white hybrid of this species.

Catawba Rhododendron, R. catawbiense. This type is native in the South. There are many named hybrids. All have a lavender tinge. A white variety is a very good garden subject.

Plants sold as "hybrid seedlings" are not always winter hardy.)

Azaleas
Azaleas demand the same conditions as Rhododendrons if they are to thrive. There is little difference between the azaleas and Rhododendron botanically.

Azalea Varieties
Schlippenbachi, Royal Azalea, a delicate pink flowering plant. Very desirable.

Azalea mollis hybrids. Colors vary from yellow to orange. Easy to grow.

Kaempferi hybrids. This group embraces over 200 named varieties. A number of them are evergreen.

(Editor's addendum: There are about 250 species of Rhododendron, mostly in the north temperate zone. "One species is found in tropical Australia. The richness of species is in eastern Asia, from south China to the Himalayas and Japan. A second and lesser abundance is found in temperate North America, and a few species in the Arctic regions. There are four species in middle and southern Europe and five in the Caucasus." Drude, in Willis' Dictionary of flowering; Plants and Ferns.)

Nurserymen Vote on Best Trees

from "GARDEN POINTERS"

Persons attending the national Landscape Nurserymen's Association meeting last January "were asked to fill in lists of their selection of the ten best shade trees and ten best flowering trees in order of their importance. This did not necessarily mean that the trees selected were those which they sold in the highest number, but those trees which designers and landscapers prefer . . . to recommend . . .

"Fifty lists were turned in representing sixteen states and Canada . . . These lists were compiled and the results tabulated . . .

"Fourteen years ago at the 1956 NLNA meeting, this same survey was requested and . . . the preferred trees . . . listed. "The results of these two surveys are as follows:

1956—Shade Trees: (1) Pin Oak, (2) Sugar Maple, (3) Honeylocust, (4) Silver Maple, (5) Sweet Gum, (6) Norway Maple, (7) Red Maple, (8) Sycamore, (9) White Birch, (10) American Elm.

1970—Shade Trees: (1) Pin Oak, (2) Red Maple, (3) Honeylocust, (4) Sugar Maple, (5) Red-Scarlet Oak, (6) Linden, (7) Ash, (8) Norway Maple, (9) Sweet Gum, (10) White Birch.

1956—Flowering Trees: (1) Flowering Crab, (2) Redbud, (3) Magnolia, (4) Hawthorne, (5) Flowering Dogwood, (6) Flowering Cherry, (7) Flowering Plum, (8) Tree Lilac, (9) Amelanchier, (10) Mountain Ash.

1970—Flowering Trees: (1) Flowering Crab, (2) Flowering Dogwood, (3) Hawthorne, (4) Redbud, (5) Magnolia, (6) Flowering Plum, (8) Mountain Ash, (9) Bradford Pear, (10) Amelanchier.

"The jump of the Red Maples to second place and the appearance of the Lindens and Ash show the increase in interest caused by new varieties (with) more dependable characteristics . . .

"The disappearance of Silver Maple from the top 10 list seems to show the trend to (sturdier) trees."

The improved rating of Flowering Dogwood and Hawthorne "was probably due to (improved varieties) . . ."

—(From Illinois Nurserymen's Association Newsletter No. 22, July 1970 via American Horticulture)

Early use of nitrogen encourages growth and promotes strong green foliage. Potash provides the food for large plants and blooms.

Ammonium sulphate (21 per cent nitrogen) should be applied before pruning, approximately the first week in April, in amounts of two tablespoons per plant. It is advisable to apply liquid lime-sulphur at this same period to retard pests. Use manufacturer's quantities.

After pruning, approximately

Rock Music Kills Plants

From Garden Pointers As Reported by Editor Lynn Zwickey

Now a Denver woman has proved something lots of parents have suspected all along—rock music can be fatal. The Denver experiment, however, was done with plants, not parents.

In a series of experiments, Mrs. Dorothy Retallack has shown that just three hours of acid rock a day will shrivel young squash plants, flatten philodendron and crumple corn in less than a month.

Mrs. Retallack first started studying the effect of music on plants for a biology class. She grew ordinary garden and house plants in controlled environment chambers and introduced sound from a tape recorder into some of the chambers. All the plants were potted in the same soil and exposed to the same light, temperature and watering schedule.

The plants that were exposed to sessions of rock music first leaned away from the loudspeaker and then collapsed. Within three weeks, all of them had died.

The experiment didn't prove that silence is the best tonic for plants, however. Plants exposed to soft chamber music leaned toward the speaker and grew higher with sturdier roots than the plants which had grown in silence. (Take this with a little salt; it is from a column by Mary Bryson in the Des Moines Register, Aug. 8, 1970.)

Feed Your Roses by ANGELO TAVEGGIA

From "Garden Pointers," the Monthly Newsletter of the Men's Garden Club of Grosse Pointe

the second week in April, apply the following fertilizers individually (total quantities are given in lbs. for 300 roses):

75 lbs. Driconure (¼ lb. per plant).
50 lbs. Milorganite (1 cupful per plant).

60 lbs. Rose Food, 8-8-8 or 7-8-5 (1 cupful per plant).
10 lbs. NuGreen 45 per cent N (1 tablespoon per plant).

Around May 1 (or 10 days after pruning) apply liquid Rapidgro at the rate of 2 or 3 gallons per plant with a solution composed of 2 tablespoons per gallon of water. Apply directly to ground and not on foliage.

Epsom salts (10 lbs., 2 handfuls per plant) is applied after the leaves form. This provides magnesium, which gives good coloring to leaves and encourages basal breaks. "Cow tea" is applied during the summer; it is a solution of water and dehydrated cow manure. NuGreen can be applied to sick-looking plants (those with yellow leaves) at the rate of 1 tablespoon per plant (use care: its 45 per cent N is dangerous).

After June bloom, apply once each month, Milorganite, Driconure and Rose Food, in June, July and August. Do not apply any nitrogen fertilizer after August 15. Never apply fertilizers to the crown.

Each application of fertilizer should be followed with a heavy watering. Water should be applied every 2 days when there is no rain.

New rose plants should not be fertilized until 2 inches of new growth appears. Place 2 handfuls of superphosphate in the bottom of the hole when planting new roses. Fish oil requires 3 applications for results.

Plants, Green or Flowering Express Spirit of Season

Like an Easter bonnet, fresh green and flowering plants express the happy spirit of the season, bringing the promise of new vitality to the home.

Larger foliage plants, such as philodendron, ficus or schefflera, could flourish in the entrance hall. Set these tree-like plants directly on the floor, in red clay pots with matching saucers.

Smaller green plants—ferns, ivy or pothos—can adorn wall-mounted bookshelves or free-standing dividers. Lacy fronds and trailing leaves help break the monotony of rectangular shapes.

Dining areas, too, will welcome a reminder of spring. A clay-potted azalea could be the choice for a centerpiece—or tulips and hyacinths.

A tea wagon or other cart can be transformed into a lovely and portable island of spring color.

A grouping of flowering plants—chrysanthemums or cinerarias—surrounded by greenery makes a colorful display.

Mobile carts make practical plant stands since they can be moved easily to follow the sun.

Other plants might be staged on the steps of a small, brightly-painted ladder.

Plants, professionally grown and conditioned in porous red clay pots, are available at florists, nurseries, garden centers.

A Helping Hand to Grow Garden Chrysanthemums

by PAUL E. MACHUGA

Chrysanthemums will grow in almost any type of soil, however, the better the soil, the better the plant. Mums like a light soil. This is achieved by the use of large amounts of organic materials, such as Sphagnum Peat Moss, leaf mold and well decomposed barnyard manure. These ingredients have a two-fold purpose. Clay packed soils will be loosened and create better drainage, which is very essential to grow good mums. Sandy soils will have better water-holding retention with these additions. Soil should be tilled 8" to 12" deep in the Fall of the year preferably. Reworking the soil 4" to 6" in the Spring at planting time.

Mums must have good drainage, they will not tolerate accumulated pools of water. Wet feet from poor drainage will cause your mums to decay from lack of air around the root system. They will not survive the winter under these conditions.

Mums should be planted in full sun. Partial shade will not develop as good a Mum plant for bloom size and overall plant development as one grown in full sun. Planting time for chrysanthemums in the Greater Detroit area is when the danger of frost is past, about the last week of May or the first week of June.

A well rooted cutting will develop into a vigorous plant and be in full bloom within four months. The Chrysanthemum will set bud with the beginning of short days and nothing is gained by early planting, except a much taller plant. A good rooted cutting will do better planted in its permanent place in the garden, rather than being held in pots or grown indoors before planting time.

The Chrysanthemum is a vigorous grower, and should be spaced 18 inches apart at time of planting. Overcrowding will cause diseases, created by the lack of good air circulation.

Mums are shallow rooted plants, bury the peat pot, or break the edges down, being careful not to damage the root system, and plant in the soil, being sure that the pot is not exposed to the air. For plants that are not potted, plant about 1 1/2 inches deep. When planting, press soil firmly around each plant with your fingers, water and fertilize with a starter solution or a liquid fertilizer, this will help prevent root shock when transplanting. If plants show any sign of wilt, cover with clay pots, cardboard boxes, or supply partial shade until established. Do not use glass jars or tin cans. Excessive heat created by these containers will kill the plants. Plant in the late evening; with good watering, your plants will be turgid to withstand the following day of sunshine.

The safest way to achieve good growing conditions in your garden, is to know what is needed in your soil, or what you have in the soil already. Take a soil sample to your County Extension Agent or mail it, to have it analyzed. The nominal fee that you pay will be amply repaid in dollars spent for fertilizers that you put in the soil by guesswork. Over feeding mums can do as much harm as not enough plant food. Mums like a soil with a pH rating of 6.5 to 6. They are heavy feeders.

Before planting, incorporate in your soil for an area of 100 square feet—spread 5 lbs. of 5-10-5 garden fertilizer and 3 to 5 lbs. of Super Phosphate 0-20-0. Till into the soil only four to five inches deep. If you do not plant in a bedded area, use 1 teaspoon full of each around the plant. Do not touch plants with the fertilizer as you may cause plant burn. The above formula is recommended if you have not had your soil tested and analyzed. Water well after fertilizing and feed the 5-10-5 every thirty days until buds show color.

Liquid fertilizing is being used extensively by many gardeners. Liquid fertilizer applications should be applied as recommended by the manufacturer. Every two weeks is a good schedule for liquid feeding. Soak your soil thoroughly when watering and then let the soil dry. Mums like a lot of water, but the roots need air also. Never splash water on the soil when watering, because soil splashed on the underside of the leaves may cause the plant to become infected with a soil-borne disease.

Mulch is used to keep weeds down, water from splashing on plants, conserves water and keeps roots cool.

SPRAYING: Prevention is better than a cure. Spray every ten days to two weeks intervals and after each rainfall. Save time and labor when spraying by using insecticides and fungicides that are compatible. Following directions exactly as stated on your spray materials.

Systemic granules and sprays are being used by many gardeners for flowers. Granules spread on the soil and watered in at planting time, and liquid systemics for foliar spray through the foliage and stem. It is good for all chewing and sucking insects. Use with caution and care.

PINCHING: All plants must be pinched. The purpose, to control size and height of plant. When your plants become established in the garden, allow them to grow 6 to 7 leaves high and then pinch out or cut back at the fifth leaf. Repeat this process again on the laterals that appear and continue until the last day of June. Gardeners growing exhibition types will pinch only once or twice and then the stems must be staked because of height. All large flowering varieties, spiders and exhibition mums, must be staked. Tie the stem loosely to the stake.

To obtain maximum flower size for spiders and all exhibition mums, they must be disbudded. Disbudding means to remove all side buds except the top or terminal bud. When side buds reach 1/2 to 3/4 inches long remove by breaking the bud sideways, away from the leaf and stem.

WINTER CARE: After a killing frost cut your mum plants down to about 4" to 6" above the soil. When the ground is frozen to about 4 inches deep, cover the plants and surrounding area with marsh hay, evergreen boughs or other coarse materials that will allow free air circulation. The purpose of the mulch is to keep the ground frozen, without intermittent thawing until spring. Remove the covering in the spring, a little at a time, when plants begin to grow. Always check your mulch in the month of March for this area to see that it is not matted down and soggy from the thawing and rains. Pick up lightly for air circulation, but do not remove at this time. Do not use leaves, grass clippings or other materials because there is the danger of them packing down, suffocating and decaying your mums. Another most reliable way is to dig up your clump of mums after a killing frost, cut back and place in a cold frame. Be sure the coldframe is in a well drained area. Cover with sash or plastic until spring.

Strong and healthy plants will produce the best blooms. To achieve this, it is necessary to provide good soil, plant food, plenty of sun and moisture. It is also essential to have a good spray program throughout the growing season.

church through an unlocked door on the Wayburn side, and threw some type of fire-bomb into the confessional, then ran outside to their car.

The policemen searched the area outside the church building and found a glove which had a strong odor of gasoline on it. Several pieces of what appeared to be aluminum were found in the confessional. The evidence was given to Chief Costa, who said that the items have been released to Detroit's Arson Squad for analysis.

Costa said that there was a strong odor of petroleum in the confessional, which was easily detected after the flames were extinguished.

Anyone who might have any information concerning this arson is urged to contact either the Park Police Department, VAley 2-7400, or the Park Fire Department, VAley 2-6400. All information and the name of the informant will be kept strictly confidential.

Dispute Flares Over Bus Route

By Greg Boyd

If the finances of the Lake Shore Bus Lines are ever solved, Woods councilmen will have to face another problem raised by a dispute of residents in the Marter-Bryns area.

After having a petition submitted to them at a council meeting early in April from Bryns residents complaining about the buses traveling down their street, councilmen received another letter from a resident with property on Marter asking that the buses not be rerouted on Marter.

The discontent centers around the route followed by the buses which travel from Mack down Vernier to Marter, over to Bryns, and up Bryns back to Mack to complete the circle. The buses have been driving down that route for years and that fact was originally considered a good selling point for the homes along Bryns—until the city received a petition stating otherwise.

The petition stated that the buses seldom travel at speeds at or below 25 miles-per-hour, the legal speed, are noisy, emit repulsive and intoxicating exhausts and are usually void of passengers.

"We get less for the sale of our houses, which normally take longer to sell, and yet pay the same property taxes as comparable houses on surrounding streets without a busline." The petition went on to ask that the busline not be allowed to operate "on this strictly residential street, which is a side street and not a main thoroughfare." It was finally suggested that the buses be rerouted back down Marter to Vernier rather than turning towards Mack.

After this correspondence was submitted, the Woods council received another letter from Donald J. Parsons, who lives on the corner of Roslyn and Marter, stating that the "good neighbors on Bryns, in their desire to remove the buses from their street, only 'transfer the things which they find objectionable to another group of residents who already have their problems and a few more.'

Parsons expressed concern about the possibility of the buses traveling twice by the side of his home. "During the day," he wrote, "we have parades of buses, garbage trucks, utility trucks, earth movers and equipment and delivery vans intermixed with automobiles." He added that mothers also use Marter to drive their children to and from school.

"During the evening despite the efforts of our police department, we have considerable high speed noisy traffic, motorcycles and 'muscle cars.'" On weekends, he wrote, shoppers and those driving to the municipal park via Marter create an almost bumper-to-bumper situation.

Among the other complaints mentioned were that among the hundreds of children waiting, on his and neighboring lawns for the Kiwanis buses to the park, some "decimate trees, hedges and lawns while they wait."

"Most of us have complained as little as possible," he added, but "to propose an additional use of our streets as a 'super highway' bearing two-way bus schedules is ludicrous.

"Mack and Jefferson are intended for heavy traffic. Other communities have denied access to heavy vehicles on their streets to preserve the residential character of their areas. The 'mess of pottage' which the Woods receives to have Marter designated a county road is too high a price to pay for what we have surrendered."

Parsons suggested that part of the present financial problem of the bus line is that it has not changed its route and time schedule to comply with North High students going to and from school.

Right now, the students ride on a bus hired by them for that purpose.

Fire Prevention Check-Up Urged

Now that it is spring, whether it looks or feels like it or not, it is time for all residents to make a special effort to eliminate fire hazards in their homes, not only in the Farms, but in all the Pointes as well, as was declared by Farms Fire Capt. Warren C. Shultz.

Records show that many fires originate in trash and rubbish piles, and are responsible for a good number of the 50,000 fires which destroy or damage homes each year throughout the nation.

The captain, with the approval of Fire Chief Michael Beupre, presents a five-point program for Spring Clean-Up, which is guaranteed to remove most, if not all, of the common causes of fire in homes, as follows:

1. Clean out the stacks of newspapers and magazines, discarded clothing, mattresses, old furniture and lamp shades, draperies and what have you that you have accumulated over a period of time and stored in attics, basements and closets.
2. Do the same clean-up job in the home workshop. Get rid of shavings, scraps, oily rags and old paints.
3. Don't forget about the trash that has been piling up in the garage, and the dead grass and brush around and near the house.
4. Repair defective electrical cords and plugs, check all home appliances and call a competent electrician if they need attention.
5. Have the furnace, chimney and stove inspected and cleaned. Do this NOW instead of waiting until fall when you might be caught by the first cold snap.

"Our goal for Spring Clean-Up this year, and every year, is to make every home and business place in the Farms safe from fire, and I know I can speak for the other Pointe Fire Departments." Schultz said. "A fire department inspection of your home might uncover possible danger spots.

"Now is an excellent time to use the eyes and know-how of a trained fireman in looking for fire hazards. If you wish to have your home inspected, call your local fire station, and a time will be arranged at your convenience. The little time it takes to check over your premises could very well save you possible worry and grief later. It pays to play it safe."

The captain said the inspections are strictly voluntary. No fireman will enter a home without the householder's permission. An inspection is to the advantage of the residents, he added.

Fall School Changes

 full-time classroom teachers will have to be shifted to another building next year."

Principal Bassett added. "Perhaps the most damaging aspect of the reduction will be to program. At this moment we find it quite difficult to see how we will be able to continue with the programs presented in both kindergarten and in third grade. Class size plus the reduction of one-half kindergarten teacher will make further plans for what I considered an outstanding kindergarten program very doubtful. If you've had a child in our kindergarten program recently, I'm sure you know how our two kindergarten teachers must feel about this," Mr. Bassett wrote.

In a recent issue of the "Ferry School News," Principal Rohrer said that the reduction of three and one-half teaching stations will increase the number of children in some of the classrooms.

"The degree to which this might affect any given classroom will depend to some extent on the number of new children we might receive from St. Joan, St. Lucy, Star of the Sea or other non-public schools," Mr. Rohrer stated.

"There will also be a reduction in the Department of Pupil Personnel which will affect the services offered in remedial reading, speech, perceptual development, social and psychological services," he added.

Both Mr. Bassett and Mr. Rohrer indicated that reductions in expenditures for non-salary items will cut back purchasing supplies and materials in the instructional area. The repair or replacement of capital items will be strictly on an emergency basis only.

"There remains a possibility that further reductions may be necessitated by tenured teachers within buildings or further budgetary cuts at the state level," Mr. Rohrer said.

Ferry School also will sustain the reduction of position of assistant principal which, according to Mr. Rohrer, "will indirectly affect the children through the leadership given their teachers in planning and implementing the curriculum. This will also reduce drastically the counseling of parents, students and teachers currently provided."

Mr. Rohrer said that the school will also be forced to reduce the position of a general office worker.

Mr. Bassett's concluding statement in the April 30 issue of "Maire News" summarizes the situation not only at Maire and Ferry, but also throughout the school system. He wrote: "Perhaps the only silver lining I can give to parents is to again remind them that we still have an excellent staff who have demonstrated they are willing to donate large amounts of time and effort for the best possible educational program for your child. This I am sure they will continue to do."

Cadette Girl Scouts will attend four workshops on hair care, fashions, cosmetics and grooming. A fifth will provide information on a variety of Girl Scout events scheduled in other states, to which Cadettes may make application.

Cadettes may purchase tickets at $2.55 each by writing the Program secretary, GS-MD, 153 E. Elizabeth, Detroit, Michigan 48201, by Monday, May 10.

Members of the local Cadette planning committee are Caroline Allen, Pat Fellows and Ronna Jacobs.

Grosse Pointe and Harper Woods women actively involved in Girl Scouting will be honored at the annual "District Eleven Spring Luncheon" Wednesday, May 12, at 12:30 o'clock at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Guest speaker will be The Reverend David Eberhard of the Detroit Common Council.

Troop leaders of Neighborhood 112 will act as hostesses. Contributions of canned goods for Riverside Church will be accepted at the door.

church through an unlocked door on the Wayburn side, and threw some type of fire-bomb into the confessional, then ran outside to their car.

The policemen searched the area outside the church building and found a glove which had a strong odor of gasoline on it. Several pieces of what appeared to be aluminum were found in the confessional. The evidence was given to Chief Costa, who said that the items have been released to Detroit's Arson Squad for analysis.

Costa said that there was a strong odor of petroleum in the confessional, which was easily detected after the flames were extinguished.

Anyone who might have any information concerning this arson is urged to contact either the Park Police Department, VAlley 2-7400, or the Park Fire Department, VAlley 2-6400. All information and the name of the informant will be kept strictly confidential.

Dispute Flares Over Bus Route
By Greg Boyd

If the finances of the Lake Shore Bus Lines are ever solved, Woods councilmen will have to face another problem raised by a dispute of residents in the Marter-Bryns area.

After having a petition submitted to them at a council meeting early in April from Bryns residents complaining about the buses traveling down their street, councilmen received another letter from a resident with property on Marter asking that the buses not be rerouted on Marter.

The discontent centers around the route followed by the buses which travel from Mack down Vernier to Marter, over to Bryns, and up Bryns back to Mack to complete the circle. The buses have been driving down that route for years and that fact was originally considered a good selling point for the homes along Bryns—until the city received a petition stating otherwise.

The petition stated that the buses seldom travel at speeds at or below 25 miles-per-hour, the legal speed, are noisy, emit repulsive and intoxicating exhausts and are usually void of passengers.

"We get less for the sale of our houses, which normally take longer to sell, and yet pay the same property taxes as comparable houses on surrounding streets without a busline." The petition went on to ask that the busline not be allowed to operate "on this strictly residential street, which is a side street and not a main thoroughfare." It was finally suggested that the buses be rerouted back down Marter to Vernier rather than turning towards Mack.

After this correspondence was submitted, the Woods council received another letter from Donald J. Parsons, who lives on the corner of Roslyn and Marter, stating that the "good neighbors on Bryns, in their desire to remove the buses from their street," only "transfer the things which they find objectionable to another group of residents who already have their problems and a few more."

Parsons expressed concern about the possibility of the buses traveling twice by the side of his home. "During the day," he wrote, "we have parades of buses, garbage trucks, utility trucks, earth movers and equipment and delivery vans intermixed with automobiles." He added that mothers also use Marter to drive their children to and from school.

"During the evening despite the efforts of our police department, we have considerable high speed noisy traffic, motorcycles and 'muscle cars.'" On weekends, he wrote, shoppers and those driving to the municipal park via Marter create an almost bumper-to-bumper situation.

Among the other complaints mentioned were that among the hundreds of children waiting, on his and neighboring lawns for the Kiwanis buses to the park, some "decimate trees, hedges and lawns while they wait."

"Most of us have complained as little as possible," he added, but "to propose an additional use of our streets as a 'super highway' bearing two-way bus schedules is ludicrous."

"Mack and Jefferson are intended for heavy traffic. Other communities have denied access to heavy vehicles on their streets to preserve the residential character of their areas. The 'mess of pottage' which the Woods receives to have Marter designated a county road is too high a price to pay for what we have surrendered."

Parsons suggested that part of the present financial problem of the bus line is that it has not changed its route and time schedule to comply with North High students going to and from school.

Right now, the students ride on a bus hired by them for that purpose.

Fire Prevention Check-Up Urged

Now that it is spring, whether it locks or feels like it or not, it is time for all residents to make a special effort to eliminate fire hazards in their homes, not only in the Farms, but in all the Pointes as well, as was declared by Farms Fire Capt. Warren C. Shultz.

Records show that many fires originate in trash and rubbish piles, and are responsible for a good number of the 50,000 fires which destroy or damage homes each year throughout the nation.

The captain, with the approval of Fire Chief Michael Beaupre, presents a five-point program for Spring Clean-Up, which is guaranteed to remove most, if not all, of the common causes of fire in homes, as follows:

1. Clean out the stacks of newspapers and magazines, discarded clothing, mattresses, old furniture and lamp shades, draperies and what have you that you have accumulated over a period of time and stored in attics, basements and closets.
2. Do the same clean-up job in the home workshop. Get rid of shavings, scraps, oily rags and old paints.
3. Don't forget about the trash that has been piling up in the garage, and the dead grass and brush around and near the house.
4. Repair defective electrical cords and plugs, check all home appliances and call a competent electrician if they need attention.
5. Have the furnace, chimney and stove inspected and cleaned. Do this NOW instead of waiting until fall when you might be caught by the first cold snap.

"Our goal for Spring Clean-Up this year, and every year, is to make every home and business place in the Farms safe from fire, and I know I can speak for the other Pointe Fire Departments," Shultz said. "A fire department inspection of your home might uncover possible danger spots."

"Now is an excellent time to use the eyes and know-how of a trained fireman in looking for fire hazards. If you wish to have your home inspected, call your local fire station, and a time will be arranged at your convenience. The little time it takes to check over your premises could very well save you possible worry and grief later. It pays to play it safe."

The captain said the inspections are strictly voluntary. No fireman will enter a home without the householder's permission. An inspection is to the advantage of the residents, he added.

Fall School Changes

full-time classroom teachers will have to be shifted to another building next year."

Principal Bassett added.

"Perhaps the most damaging aspect of the reduction will be to program. At this moment we find it quite difficult to see how we will be able to continue with the programs presented in both kindergarten and in third grade. Class size plus the reduction of one-half kindergarten teacher will make further plans for what I considered an outstanding kindergarten program very doubtful. If you've had a child in our kindergarten program recently, I'm sure you know how our two kindergarten teachers must feel about this," Mr. Bassett wrote.

In a recent issue of the "Ferry School News," Principal Rohrer said that the reduction of three and one-half teaching stations will increase the number of children in some of the classrooms.

"The degree to which this might affect any given classroom will depend to some extent on the number of new children we might receive from St. Joan, St. Lucy, Star of the Sea or other non-public schools," Mr. Rohrer stated.

"There will also be a reduction in the Department of Pupil Personnel which will affect the services offered in remedial reading, speech, perceptual development, social and psychological services," he added.

Both Mr. Bassett and Mr. Rohrer indicated that reductions in expenditures for non-salary items will cut back purchasing supplies and materials in the instructional area. The repair or replacement of capital items will be strictly on an emergency basis only.

"There remains a possibility that further reductions may be necessitated by tenured teachers within buildings or further budgetary cuts at the state level," Mr. Rohrer said.

Ferry School also will sustain the reduction of position of assistant principal which, according to Mr. Rohrer, "will indirectly affect the children through the leadership given their teachers in planning and implementing the curriculum. This will also reduce drastically the counseling of parents, students and teachers currently provided."

Mr. Rohrer said that the school will also be forced to

Local Hospital Trains Scouts

For the fourth year in a row Bon Secours Hospital has given an Introduction to First Aid to the Girl Scouts of the Grosse Pointe District. The District covers the five Grosse Pointes and Harper Woods.
 Some 125 Cadette Girl Scouts attended the four weekly sessions held in the Hospital's Science Hall.
 This program offered by the hospital has proved to be a very effective way to start off girls 11, 12 and 13 years of age in awareness of First Aid and types of help available in emergencies.
 Mrs. J. Woelfel, Inservice Training director, arranged a series of lectures, slides and demonstrations covering basic first aid for bleeding, resuscitation, shock and poisoning.
 The girls also were instructed in splinting and bandaging and given a tour of the emergency room facilities.

Woods Police Attend Classes

By Greg Boyd
 In a continuing effort to keep well informed and in tune with the most recent developments in the broad field of law enforcement, altogether 17 of the Woods' public safety officers, including Captain Henry Marchand himself, are currently taking classes.
 The classes that have been taken by other officers and are being attended now relate to varied and yet interrelated subjects such as psychology, sociology, interviewing, evidence investigation, criminal law, patrol administration, and highway and traffic administration.
 Some of the classes, which are taken at Wayne State University, and Macomb and Wayne County Community Colleges, are paid for by the department itself in their effort to encourage the officers to expand their knowledge and experience. The department even sends its officers as far away as Chicago in its educational program.
 Officer James Davidson is currently in East Lansing taking a week's worth of classes at Michigan State University while John Kendall recently attended a seminar in drug abuse in Chicago and Officers Michael Ferrance and Thomas Podeszwik traveled to Flint for sessions in school liaison work to help them in their job as Youth Service Division officers.
 Others taking classes include Sergeants Thomas Kane and Bernard Kelly; Corporals Thomas Kerving, Gerald Kensora, and Peter Thomas; and Officers Ronald Hayden, Douglas Dosmas, Patrick Fagan, Arthur Gekiere, John Treppa, Bruce Marone, and John Albrecht. In addition to their seminars, Davidson and Podeszwik are attending Macomb College, and Kendall and Ferrance are working towards degrees from Wayne State.
 Patrolmen that have already earned degrees are Wayne Baum and Stuart Gerow, from Michigan State University, and veteran officer Donald Sun with a degree from the University of Detroit.
 Add those 17 to the number of those who have taken courses in the past and the result is a department in which almost every officer has made personal efforts to make his service increasingly valuable to the residents of Grosse Pointe Woods.

Dr. Archie Bidel and Dr. David Brian presented the program with the help of Mrs. D. Sialoff, Emergency Room supervisor. When the girls finish the test given the last day they have completed requirements for the Cadette First Aid Badge and part of the Emergency Preparedness Challenge Badge.
 Since these Girl Scouts are, or will soon be, of babysitting age they were each given a list of these Emergency phone numbers:
 Police and Fire Emergencies, Grosse Pointe Park, 822-7400; Grosse Pointe City, 886-3200; Grosse Pointe Farms, 885-2100; Grosse Pointe Shores, 886-2700; Grosse Pointe Woods, 886-2700; Harper Woods, 884-6400; St. Clair Shores, 776-2200.
 Poison Emergency numbers include Poison Control Centers at Children's Hospital, 494-5711; Kiefer Hospital, (TRinity 2-3334; and Sears Center, (Sears products only), 1-312-265-2195.
 The Drug Abuse Emergency number is FLEC's "Hot Line," 885-3510.
 Ambulances numbers are Michigan Ambulance, 372-0403; and Quick Ambulance, 886-5220.
 The numbers of local hospitals are Bon Secours, 884-0400; Cottage, 885-4500; and St. John, 881-8200.
 Every home should have these numbers readily available.

 The "A" Band will perform two works by Erickson, "Toccata for Band" and "Rhythm of the Winds."
 A unique feature of the "A" Band's performance will be the presentation of a musical satire by Laas, entitled "A Concert Digest." Nathan Judson, instrumental director at North High School, will act as narrator.
 The Band will round out the evening with Hall's ever-popular march, "Independencia," under the direction of Russell Reed, instrumental director at South High School.

Driver Faces
Many Charges

A high speed chase Saturday, May 1, ended with the successful apprehension of an East Detroit youth for reckless driving by Woods police. Altogether, the youth was slapped with four separate charges and $125 in bonds.

Joseph Ermalovich, 19, of 15525 Veronica, and his rider, John Volansky, 17, of 21255 Redmond, also in East Detroit, were first spotted and paced by Lieutenant Jack Patterson around 2:22 a.m. while driving on Anita at 40 miles-per-hour, Woods police report.

Ermalovich was reportedly seen going through five stop signs before turning north on Harper. Patterson turned on his scout car lights and reported Ermalovich disregarding his signal as he made a right turn on Vernier towards Mack, driving through a gas station to avoid the red light on the corner.

Taking up chase, Patterson, who said the youth was speeding his Austin-Healy at 75 mph, called an alert. Officers Stephen Petrik and Leroy Tobian immediately set up a road block to keep the youth from continuing down Vernier.

Seeing the second scout car parked at the corner of Mack and Vernier with all lights operating, the speeder swung his car south on Mack. At Mack and Van Antwerp, a third scout car, driven by Patrolmen Donald Schmalz and William Desilets signaled the sports car to stop with no results and joined Patterson in the pursuit.

Police said Ermalovich ran two red lights while driving at speeds in excess of 80 mph on Mack before attempting a right turn on Allard. The car slid into the curb and came to a stop.

When police saw beer in the car, both were charged as minors in possession of alcohol. Ermalovich was also charged with failure to stop on police signal, reckless driving, and driving with an expired license adding up to a $100 bond. In addition, Ermalovich was found to be wanted on a Detroit traffic warrant for having no car registration. Detroit police asked that he be held for them on a $25 bond.

Volansky paid a $25 bond for the "possession" charge.

Public Schools in Focus

By Dr. Theos I. Anderson, Superintendent of Schools

What is the status of legislation affecting future financial assistance to public education?

Last week I described the essentials of the so-called "Equal Quality Plan," a proposed distribution bill for state school aid for public elementary and secondary schools.

In theory at least, this approach provides local districts with a greater measure of control over education than some plans would provide. Under "The Equal Quality Plan," the Superintendent, the local staff determine the school Board of Education and the district's needs and convert these to numbers of professionals required to offer adequate service.

The staff weighting is computed by determining the sum of the factors for experience, training and length of work year for staff, with the product indicating the amount available to the local district for professional salaries. Other expenses are determined by multiplying a percentage factor by the professional salary allowance.

As of Monday, May 3, "The Equal Quality Plan" had not been completed by the Legislative Services Bureau, the bill-drafting and research office used by the Senators and Representatives.

The week before last I presented a summary of the proposals contained in Governor Billiken's April 12 message to the State Legislature on "Excellence in Education—Equity in Taxation." As of the same date no bills had been introduced that detail the Governor's plan for a changed method of financing public education.

Therefore, without the specific of the legislation designed to implement his message, it is virtually impossible to predict the impact on the local school system.

However one Lansing source outlining the financial impact of reducing property taxes for school operations makes these observations:

"Renters would probably pay more taxes in total, (if the higher income tax rate were substituted for property taxes), unless a credit scheme were introduced to offset the reduction in the taxes on property they rent."

"Senior citizens in general would pay less taxes in total, thereby reducing the strength of the argument for their homestead tax exemption in general, the argument for the veterans' tax exemption is also weakened. The reduction or removal of these exemptions would release revenue which could be used for other purposes."

These two exemptions presently cost the state about $36 million. In addition, consideration should be given to reducing or removal of the local tax credits presently in existence. The estimated cost of these credits is $100 million in fiscal year 1972-73."

If the non-residential portion of school operating property taxes were removed, the proposed two per cent value added tax would yield an equal return. "In addition, serious consideration must be given to a reduction of the corporate franchise tax. This tax both definitionally and administratively has caused many problems in Michigan. Reduction of this tax, (estimated to yield $132 million in fiscal 1971-72), would require the rate of the value-added tax to be increased."

With the July 1 beginning of the 1971-72 fiscal year fast approaching, what will happen? How much more financial cliff-hanging and uncertainty must the public schools endure?

That long-range financial planning, short-term financial planning, or virtually any kind of fiscal planning is made difficult, if not impossible, by the present confusion.

One View From The Capitol

By Representative William R. Bryant Jr.

In the opinion of many this legislative session is one of the slowest in recent years. I concur in that assessment. There have been less than 20 bills enacted this year with some 800 pending in House Committees at this time.

The state government is in bad fiscal shape and prospects for renewed health are not encouraging. I believe this has had a paralyzing effect on the legislature. The appropriations committees of both houses are rightly scrutinizing all proposed legislation for fiscal implications, and to date effectively blocking passage of new or expanded programs requiring state funding. In this effort, I support them and wish them well.

There are real problems in trying to reduce programs to meet estimated revenues. Of revenues earmarked by law about 98 percent for highways and education. In the general fund expenditures almost 95 percent goes for education, mental health, social services, corrections and state police. The balance of expenditures support the balance of state departments, programs and services.

Each of the major areas of expenditures are, as a practical matter, very difficult to reduce. This means that most of any reduction in expenditure would probably have to be accomplished in areas which constitute only a small percentage of the total state budget.

The task is to keep essential programs at an acceptable level and reduce or eliminate non-essential programs. It will be a grim task, but one absolutely necessary to assure every chance of avoiding or at least minimizing the need for additional sources of tax or other revenues.

Mark Law Day At Brownell

Law Day U.S.A. was observed last Friday, April 30, at Brownell Middle School. In keeping with the 1971 Law Day theme "Channel Change Through Law and Reason," six government dignitaries acted as resource speakers for seventh and eighth grade social studies classes.

The distinguished speakers included The Honorable Edward S. Piggins, Wayne County Circuit Court; The Honorable Douglas L. Paterson, Grosse Pointe Municipal Court; The Honorable William E. Speer, Grosse Pointe Park Municipal Court; The Honorable William G. Butler, Mayor, City of Grosse Pointe Farms; The Honorable John Felkens, United States District Court; and Chief Ferber, of the Grosse Pointe Farms Police Department.

Following a short presentation on the rights and responsibilities of all age groups under our governmental system, each speaker opened the group meetings for a lengthy question-and-answer period.

The thought-provoking discussion which followed did much to enrich the students' learning experiences. Several students commented that it had been a privilege to hear from this panel of legal experts. They hoped that similar programs would be repeated in the future.

Mrs. Douglas S. Paterson, of the Grosse Pointe Lawyers Wives, was responsible for coordinating the program with school personnel.

What Goes On at Your Library
 By Virginia Leonard

In your journey to our Central Library, do you ever pass right by one of our two Branches, (located at 15430 Kercheval and 20600 Mack), only to discover that perhaps the materials you wanted might have been found at either our Park or Woods Agency? Many times the books you ask for could be "out" at Central, but "in" at the other two libraries.

With this in mind, I will devote a column this week to our Park Branch, (to be followed by a similar one on the Woods Branch next week). This will give you a better idea of what our holdings are and what you may have been missing.

The staff at the Park Branch is composed of Miss Gerda Bielitz, Branch Librarian, and Mrs. Sue Neff, Children's Librarian; Mrs. Helen Anderson, Mrs. Mary Jane Burroughs and Mrs. Vera Dobbins (half-time) compose the clerical staff.

Their interests are varied, although they all seem to like to travel.

Miss Bielitz just finished a course in bibliography of science and technology from the University of Michigan, (an area in which she feels great strides forward are currently being made.)

Mrs. Neff, aside from her great rapport and interest in children, is an aficionada of sewing and crocheting.

Mrs. Anderson has a yen for ethnic food; Mrs. Burroughs loves youngsters and has two offspring who are both teachers; Mrs. Dobbins has a penchant for needlepoint.

I stopped in at the Park Branch a week ago to admire the light, airy, tidy library, appreciate Miss Bielitz's huge and flourishing flower box of petunias on her window sill, and look over the arrangement of her collection.

While I was there, Mrs. Neff was understandably busy as two classes from Defer arrived and left, after having had a story told to them. I was truly amazed at how orderly and quiet they were, and how well they listened, with obvious pleasure, to the stories that were being offered. Miss Bielitz told me that one day they had ten groups in for story-telling!

Their main exhibit case was most interesting and timely: It consisted of a large maroon rug, made by Mrs. Neff's mother, with a huge tiger in almost a leaping position. The colors were quite vivid, the tiger ferocious, and against this wonderful background were several books on baseball, including, of course, THE YEAR OF THE TIGER. (We would like to add, parenthetically, that our AV collection also contains this title.) With such a display, perhaps our Tiger will do just a bit better as the year goes on!

Aided by many tastefully lettered signs, one has little trouble finding his way around the fiction, non-fiction, mysteries, science fiction, reference collection and various categories in the Children's Room.

The Easy books in the Juvenile collection are color-coded, for the convenience of both the staff and patrons, and some of the categories in this room are: science fiction, animals (fiction only), sports and mysteries.

The AV collection is in immediate evidence, as well as the pamphlet file. If you haven't discovered the periodicals, just go to the back of the library where you will find them, plus the newspapers, on display. And, just as at Central, you will find back issues available.

Miss Bielitz has a most interesting and colorful art print hanging on the wall near the work room. It is entitled: "The Window" by Robert Delaunay, and the legend on the back tells us that Delaunay was a native-born Parisian, exposed to all styles of painting of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries; he was especially fascinated by light and color.

He was the first French painter to create totally non-objective painting and his forms seem almost abstract. Apollinaire found this particular painting so beautiful it inspired one of his most famous poems.

So there you are—an air conditioned, well-equipped, well-organized, well-run library; a Coronastat at your service, lots of books, pamphlets, periodicals for you to consult or take out; a card catalog to help you, as well as a warm, friendly staff at your service to help you when you need it.

We hope you will take advantage of this Branch, use it when you can, even telephone in when you need help. It is located in a wing of Pierce School, across the street from the Defer School. Who knows—it may be quite close to your home!

From Another Point of View

By Janet Mueller

Several hundred Questers, women from all over Michigan, check in at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Tuesday, May 18, for their State Spring Assembly, an annual event during Michigan Week.

Hostesses are the nine East Area Chapters—Fox Creek, Grand Marais, Grosse Pointe, Mah-Nah-Be-Zee, Pear Tree, Pettipointe, Ribbon Farms, Windmill Pointe and Canada's Windsor—of the more-than-one-thousand-member Michigan State Questers Organization, affiliated with the national Questers Antique Study and Historic Preservation Society.

The Grand Marais Chapter's Mrs. F. M. Tousley, of Hamilton court, and Mrs. W. T. Krebs, of Kenwood court, serve as chairman and co-chairman of the day, respectively.

Delegates will register at 9 in the morning, sip cups of coffee, then listen as John Lake, director of the War Memorial Center, details "The Legend of Alger House." A tour of Alger House and the Center's grounds will follow his talk.

Theme of the meeting is "American Samplers," and the local hostess Chapters plan to use plenty of them in their decorations and program motif. Post-luncheon guest speaker Holly Horton, curator of Special Exhibits at the Detroit Historical Museum, has chosen "Something About Samplers" as the title of her slide presentation.

There'll be a generous sampling of antique samplers on display, too . . . and the hostess Chapters are preparing a special antiques exhibit for their guests . . .

State President Mrs. William Paratore will preside over the events of this Heritage Day.

End GP Symphony Season Last Sunday

The final concert of the season for the Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra Sunday, May 2, brought a mixture of sadness and happiness for Symphony members and the audience.

On the sad side, the orchestra's founder and officer on its board for the past 18 years, Thomas Nester, who had planned as usual to play his violin in Sunday's program, died Tuesday, April 27.

Almost 20 years ago Tom Nester, by profession a real estate salesman, saw a need for a community orchestra.

He gathered together a small group of friends who began to practice, and in 1952 the first Grosse Pointe Symphony concert was presented at Pierce School, under sponsorship of the Grosse Pointe School System, with all five mayors of the Pointes in the audience.

Founder Tom Nester saw the Orchestra grow in membership to 65. The concerts moved from Pierce to Parcels School and finally, in November, 1969, the Orchestra was the first group to present a program in the lovely Performing Arts Center of Grosse Pointe North High School.

Before the beginning of the final Grosse Pointe Symphony concert of this season, Thomas V. LoCicero, long-time friend and colleague of Tom Nester on the board of the Grosse Pointe Symphony Society, spoke moving words and the Orchestra played a Bach air in tribute to friend and founder Tom Nester.

On a happier note, the member of the Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra surprised their concertmaster and his wife, Harry and Gisela Klein, of Detroit, with a brief reception before the concert, wishing them the best in their move to Philadelphia next fall. Mr. Klein will be joining the Philadelphia Orchestra.

Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Adriana Wallace, violinist and Orchestra representative to the board of the Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra Society, and Mrs. Forrest Browne, cellist and publicity chairman for the Orchestra.

Mr. Klein, a native of Royal Oak, joined the Detroit Symphony Orchestra as a second violinist at the age of 19. With interruptions for military service he has played seven years with the Detroit Symphony.

An outstanding concertmaster of the Grosse Pointe Symphony for the past two seasons, he commented to Orchestra members at the surprise reception: "I have found working with this Orchestra a most worthwhile and gratifying experience. But I thank you most of all for giving me a wife." He met Gisela, a Pointer and violinist with the Orchestra, at rehearsals last year.

Before the Kleins were married last May they were feted by the Grosse Pointe Symphony Society board and Orchestra friends at a buffet-reception at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Crossen in Tonnancour Place. Dr. Crossen is president of the board of the Symphony Society.

Though sorry to see the Kleins depart, Symphony members are, of course, happy for their success.

Sampling A Salad For Benefit Buffet

Testing a recipe for Kappa Kappa Gamma Detroit Alumnae Association's fifth annual Spring Salad Sampler benefit luncheon, planned for next Thursday, May 13, from 11:30 to 1 o'clock at the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church, Chalfonte avenue at Lothrop road, are general co-chairmen MRS. LEONARD WINZER, of Harvard road (left) and MRS. BENJAMIN GUINEY, of Kenmore drive. Party proceeds will assist KKG's philanthropy, the Detroit Rehabilitation Institute. Mrs. Gordon Tanner, 885-9174, is in charge of tickets, which are $2 each. Assistant chairmen are the Mesdames William Huetteman, Charles Monahan, Thomas Peters, Jack Powell, Richard Roland, Joseph Smith and Manfred Whittingham. Due to popular demand a new, enlarged cookbook, "A Key to Kappa Salads," containing over 100 salad recipes is being assembled by the Detroit group. A Kappa salad recipe is featured in this week's "Good Taste" column on the NEWS Feature Page.

Goodwill Juniors Meeting

The Probationary Class of 1970-71, congratulated during the luncheon meeting upon their completion of the required 75 hours of service and achievement of active Junior Group member status, includes Pointers Mrs. William A. Champion, Mrs. Harry H. Mellen and Mrs. Joseph H. Perry, III.

Others are Mrs. Don F. Carlson, Mrs. William E. Foster, Mrs. Julian Lee Gailey, Mrs. Russell I. Roberge, Jr., Mrs. Asa Sherwood, Jr., Mrs. Jerome G. Timlin and Mrs. Daniel Williamson.

The Junior Group has announced plans to stage its annual fall Antiques Market and Sale in Detroit's newest convention facility, the Sentinel Center in East Jefferson avenue.

The show, which has become a Detroit tradition over the past 23 years, is being moved from the Brush Street plant of Goodwill Industries—League for the Handicapped. Since the merger last year of Goodwill Industries and the League for the Handicapped a continuing employment training program has been established at the Brush Street plant, serving a greater variety of handicapped persons.

This program, along with the commercial contract work underway and the constant recycling of usable materials into the economy, has developed the Brush Street plant into a full-scale operation.

Since a disruption of this activity to accommodate the Antiques Market would be detrimental to the welfare of the handicapped persons involved, a re-location of the show was sought.

Working closely with Detroit Renaissance the 1971 Antiques Market and Sale chairmen and their advisory committee were able to fulfill their desire to remain in Detroit proper with complete accessibility to the major freeways flowing into downtown Detroit.

A brief business meeting, with Mrs. Edward Knoll turning over her gavel of office to Mrs. Robert Murphy, newly-elected president, will precede a talk by The Honorable George N. Bashara, Jr., Judge of Probate for Wayne County, on "Controlling Drugs through Education."

Judge Bashara was sworn in as Judge of Probate by Governor William G. Milliken June 17, 1969. At the age of 35 he is now the youngest county or state judge in the State of Michigan.

In January he was elected Presiding Judge by his judicial colleagues. Judge Bashara has long been active and interested in civic, charitable and religious affairs. He is a member of the Vestry and a Lay Assistant at St. Michael's Church.

In March of 1970 Judge Bashara instituted a project of educating Wayne County's junior high schoolers on the dangers and perils of the use of narcotic drugs. Through his unique program of showing the kids "what it's really like" he was able to bring the message to more than 80,000 youngsters by the end of 1970.

He hopes to expand his program to reach even more students in 1971.

The Episcopal Churchwomen have invited all members of the parish to this meeting. Hostesses will be St. Martha Guild, Mrs. Frank Barnes, chairman, and St. Cecelia Guild, Mrs. Robert Owen, chairman.

If those planning to attend would call the Parish Office, it would be appreciated.

D'you Know That?!

By Paul Schweitzer

Ever wonder why a country like Japan is referred to as FAR-EAST . . . Whereas from our continent it is located WEST?

It all started with Marco Polo, the first to trace and describe that land. Of course his was the standpoint of one European, not applicable to the rest of the world.

But his description influenced the whole world — Japan included! Marco Polo spoke of Japan as "a land of the far east—at the site of the rising sun." Curiously, Japan, not only considers itself an eastern nation, but features the symbol of the rising sun on its flag.

Pops Programs Open Tomorrow

The Detroit Symphony Orchestra will open its 1971 Cabaret Pops Concerts at the Light Guard Armory this Friday and Saturday, May 7 and 8, with guest conductor Arthur Fiedler and pianist Eugene Indjic. Concert time for this program, as well as all other Cabaret Pops programs is 8:30 o'clock.

The works to be featured at this first pair of concerts will include the Triumphant March from "Aida" by Verdi; the Overture di Ballo by Sullivan; the Meditation from "Thais" by Massenet with Symphony concertmaster Gordon Staples as violin soloist; the Piano Concerto No. 1 in E minor, Opus 11 by Chopin with Eugene Indjic as soloist; selections from "Company" by Sondheim; "The Fool on the Hill" by Lennon-McCartney; and "Up, Up and Away by Webb.

Arthur Fiedler, 75-year-old Boston Pops maestro, is visiting the Detroit Symphony Cabaret Pops for the fourth consecutive year.

Eugene Indjic, the 24-year-old pianist who will be making his Detroit debut under Fiedler's baton, is a veteran of more than 40 concerts with the Boston Pops Orchestra. He was first presented to a national television audience at the age of 11 when he appeared on "The Dave Garroway Show."

Tickets for the 1971 Cabaret Pops programs are available at Ford Auditorium Box Office, 961-0700, all Hudson's, CA 3-5100, and Grinnell's, 961-5075, stores. Tables for four are priced at $10, $14 and $18.

The Long and Sensuous Funky Cut

Bart Edmond Intercoiffure Salons Say, "It's the Cut that Counts."

Fashion Editor, Intercoiffure

"Your hair is shaped so evenly and it is left so flexible it can be combed into a totally new hair style without sitting under a hot hair dryer. With the Capilistro technique, there is no setting with rollers, no pins and very little and sometimes no back-combing."

"The new Funky and Shag cut can be given to any length of hair — to mini, midi, maxi, because it is graduated into more layers. Despite this the hair will retain an over all look of length and the length can be extended to 14 to 20 inches.

"It has been a long time since we saw so much enthusiasm. This fantastic haircut will give a whole new appreciation of what cutting mastery is all about. The youth are attracted to the new, long cut. They don't want their hair piled high on top of their head. They want it loose in casual styles."

Plan Picabia Exhibition at Art Institute

Francis Picabia, who thumbed his nose at the art establishment at the turn of the century, pioneering techniques and attitudes whose influence may still be seen among contemporary artists, will be the subject of a major retrospective exhibition at the Detroit Institute of Arts May 12 through June 27.

A continuing sensation among the avant-garde itself both before and after World War I, Picabia will be seen in 139 paintings, drawings, mixed media and related documents loaned by public museums and private collectors in Europe and the United States.

This Parisian of French and Spanish descent was an original abstractionist and joined with Marcel Duchamp in the Dada movement. He lived, with an audacious lifestyle that defied the conventional, from 1879 until 1953.

Works in the show organized by the Guggenheim Museum of New York City illustrate how he rocketed from Impressionism to Neo-Impressionism to Fauvism to Cubism and — ultimately — to Dadaism, the irreverent art that challenged the traditionalists into re-thinking the premises of all the arts.

The Art Institute exhibition is the first which displays the range of his production. Many of his inventions will seem familiar to students of both the early 1900's and the contemporary experimental galleries of today.

The "vocabulary" of Picabia's abstract psychological studies his humanized-machine aesthetic, his humor and social comment will be explored in several ways during the exhibition:

- William A. Mamfield, art historian who selected and organized the show, will give a public lecture on "Picabia: Painting, Poetry, Polemics and Personality." Sponsored by the Friends of Modern Art, the event is open to the public at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, May 12, in the museum lecture hall. Admission is $1.50, (students 60c), at the door.

- A wide presentation of commentary will run almost continuously in the Farnsworth Avenue entrance lobby.

- Free public tours of the exhibition will be conducted by Susanne F. Hilberry, of the museum's Education Department, each Tuesday, beginning May 18, at 1 o'clock and Thursday, beginning May 13, at 11 o'clock.

- There will be free screenings of "Entr'acte," a black

Set Sandcasting Day at Center

Creative fun for the entire family in the form of "Sandcasting" has been scheduled by the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center on its lakeside lawn Sunday afternoon, May 16, from 1:30 to 5:30 o'clock with the ballroom reserved in case of rain.

The program will be directed by an expert in creativity, Jackie Melissas, of Franklin, whose art classes for moms and tots have been so popular both at the War Memorial and at the Birmingham Community Center.

Sandcasting is for moms, pops and children—especially pre-school through nine-year-olds. Families are welcome to come any time they like, stay as long as they like and bring picnic lunches if they like.

All sandcasters are warned to wear casual clothes and must bring a five-pound bag of quick dry plaster per person, a plastic bucket or pail, one shoebox, one kitchen utensil for digging and an old towel and paper cup.

From a plastic wading pool filled with sand participants fill their shoeboxes with sand in which they make designs of their choosing and press shells or other interesting objects.

Plaster is then poured into the box and the young artists can enjoy their lunches while waiting for the mold to dry (it takes about an hour).

Registrations should be made in advance. Cost is $2.50 for parents and one child, $1 more for each additional family member.

ROGER S. VAN DER KAR, of Rivard boulevard, has been elected to a four-year term as director of the American Foundrymen's Society.

Dear Sir: Mr. Herrick's letter to the editor April 22nd was well-reasoned but ill-informed. (He was protesting the March 18th Grosse Pointe Human Relations Council ad headlined "Whitney Young Killed by C.I.A." followed by the explanation that this rumor was circulating in the black community.)

He first objects to the headline as a lie which was only explained in small print. He misses the point. The headline was an attention getter for the explanation and was obviously successful. He reasons that the Human Relations Council lacked time between Young's death and the ad's publication to discover black reaction. But Young died the week before the ad.

As for knowing what rumors are circulating among blacks, there are Grosse Pointers who work with and talk to blacks. I taught nine years in the inner city and watched the suspicions of young blacks and even black teachers grow as leaders important to blacks were assassinated.

The Michigan Chronicle, the black weekly paper, printed signed articles April 17th and 24th discussing the fearful possibility that the government could and would inter and kill all blacks in case of racial trouble. The writers based this possibility on government surveillance of black leaders, the refusal of the U.S. government to sign the U.N. ban on genocide, and Congressional inactivity in repealing the law which allowed the president to inter the Japanese citizens in W.W. II.

In my opinion, the unmentioned basis for this line of argument is fear.

I wish you were right, Mr. Herrick, that these facts were not true, but they are. More action is needed than the stilling of critical voices.

Yours truly, Franziska L. Greiling

Dear Mr. Edgar: Your editorial, "The Travel Mystique," on group travel bargains and charter flights is to be commended as many problems have occurred in the past which have hurt the travel industry as a whole.

Sylvia Porter recently wrote several well balanced columns on this subject in which she also pointed out the advantages of charter travel and how to be sure you are dealing with a reputable organization.

Interested travelers should be sure their group is "charter-worthy" in the eyes of the C.A.B., otherwise they risk the possibility of the flight being cancelled. In addition to this their group or organization should be financially sound and deposit, made on airfare should be kept in an escrow account. They also have to be a member of their organization (in the case of an affinity group) for at least six months - this is a C.A.B. requirement.

Most charter flights are handled by supplemental airlines. Contrary to the opinion of some, these are not the "non-scheds" such as the one you refer to which was involved with the football team tragedy. Travelers should be sure their airline is a government certificated air carrier. These supplemental airlines use only the latest jet equipment (Super DC-8/63's and 707's) and the planes receive the same maintenance and the pilots the same testing and supervision required by the F.A.A. of scheduled carriers.

The seating and meal service on these airlines is virtually identical to that found in economy class on the scheduled airlines.

Lower airfares do not result from eliminating any services that the traveler would normally receive. The scheduled carriers rates are set by IATA (International Air Transport Association) and reflect the efforts of European countries to protect their small airlines which otherwise could not compete. Supplemental airline fares are based on competition and full flights since they are not required to meet schedules with only a few passengers on board. Incidentally, the safest record of these carriers based on hours flown is at least as good as that of the scheduled carriers. To quote Sylvia Porter, "Most charter flights are safe, well-managed and compare quite favorably with regular scheduled airline flights" and "most charter tour operators are honest, re-day, May 5, at the Verheyden Funeral Home and from Grace United Church of Christ. She died on Monday, May 3, in her residence.

Born in Austria, Hungary, Mrs. Koch was the wife of the late Mathias. She is survived by a son, Edward; three brothers, Joseph, Michael and John Auer.

Funeral services for Mrs. Herbert, 78, of 1228 Bedford road, will be held today, Thursday, May 6 at 9:30 o'clock, in the Verheyden Funeral Home and at 10 o'clock, from St. Clare Church. She died on Monday, May 3 in Bon Secours Hospital.

A native Detroit, Mrs. Herbert is survived by her husband, John L. and a son, John L., Jr.

As a result of conversations with the Police Chiefs of the five Pointes and Harper Woods, members of the Youth Service Division have initiated a program of seminars for local police officers.

The first of these was recently conducted by Grosse Pointe North High School liaison officer Michael Ferrance in the City of Grosse Pointe Woods Council Chambers for some 71 officers.

The seminars were conducted in three-parts. The first dealt with the identification of drugs, arrests and procedures. Leading this discussion was a representative of the Federal Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs.

The second section dealt with the legality of search and seizure laws as updated, with a member of the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office leading the discussion.

The final phase of the seminar dealt with a practical exercise in search of persons and vehicles. Participating were YSD detectives, Jim Davidson and Thomas Podewzik; John Kendall, South High School liaison officer; two officers from the Grosse Pointe Woods Department of Public Safety, Douglas Dosmas and Steve Petrik; and Wayne State University students Jim Colby and Steve Trainer.

Mr. Ferrance told the NEWS that officers indicated they would like similar seminars in the near future. He added that of the 71 officers who attended, only two responded negatively to the seminars.

A free demonstration and pointers for all interested sailors and would-be sailors will be held at Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center this Saturday, May 8, at 10 a.m. in Fries Auditorium. People of all ages—men, women, boys and girls are invited.

The occasion will introduce Grosse Pointe War Memorial's new sailing instructors, Fred Detwiler and his assistant Lou Maxon, who plan a series of sailing instructions for novices, intermediate and experienced sailors interested in racing.

Actual sailing instruction begins May 11. There will be only one session on land at the War Memorial. After that, all classes take to the water using boats from Cooper's Marina: Columbia 21's and 28's, Morgan 25's and 28's, O'Day 15's and Widgeons.

Novice classes will be held Tuesday afternoons, May 11-June 15. Instruction will include rigging, departing and approaching the dock, basic points of running, reaching, tacking, jibing and Right of Way Rules.

Center to Hold Casino Rock

A special Casino Rock for senior high school students in grades 9 through 12 will be held Saturday, May 15, from 9 o'clock until midnight in the Crystal Ballroom of the War Memorial.

The cabaret-style party features the rock concert and dance music of the Guardian Angels, (formerly the Rationals), and spotlights the talents of Scott Morgan and The Silver Hawks, who have just completed a hit record.

There will be table games and silent flicks of W. C. Fields and Laurel and Hardy. Admission is $1.75 in advance. Identification must be shown both at the time of ticket purchase in the Center's office and at the door that evening.

Ferry School Wants Papers

The Ferry School PTA has decided to join the ecology movement by urging all residents to start saving newspapers, (not telephone books, magazines or old love letters), for a collection at Ferry on Saturday, June 5, from 9 until 4 o'clock in the school parking lot.

Residents are also asked to either tie the papers with sisal twine or put them in brown bags before bringing them to the school.

Anyone wishing to help with this project may do so by calling Mrs. Blair Moody, Jr., 886-2215, Mrs. Donald Stewart, 886-1139, or chairman Mrs. Michael Brady, 884-1150.

Pointers of Interest

MRS. FREDERICK J. LEPLEY, OF BLAIRMOOR COURT, AND MRS. JOHN GILMORE, OF RIVER ROAD

By Pepper Whitelaw

When hundreds of Pointe ladies spend from 1 o'clock to 5 o'clock Thursday, May 20, touring six outstanding area kitchens, little will they know the countless hours spent preparing for the day, or the countless prayers said for sunny weather by members of the Women's Auxiliary of Cottage Hospital.

The Auxiliary has held these tours since 1955. That was the year Mrs. Henry (Bonnie) Klein, then president, decided that there had to be another way to raise funds besides the usual fashion show luncheons.

Auxiliary members agreed, and the Kitchen Tour was born. Of course, that year most of the kitchens on the tour were those of Auxiliary members. The traditional Bake Sale, in conjunction with the Kitchen Tour, was held that year in Bonnie's home.

Very Popular The Kitchen Tour has become one of the most well-attended events in The Pointe. Over the years some of the most beautiful kitchens anywhere have been viewed by Pointers on this tour.

Many of the 360 Auxiliary members have been hard at work this year on committees headed by Mrs. Thomas Stevens, Mrs. Walter Bertschinger, Mrs. David N. Spierling, Mrs. Adam C. Cook, Mrs. Edward A. Smith, Jr., Mrs. Frank E. Taylor, Mrs. David F. Roller, Mrs. Richard J. Langs and, of course, general chairmen Nancy Lepley and Fran Gilmore, who viewed some 34 houses before selecting the six to be shown. Both agreed they would have liked to have included all kitchens they saw.

Houses on the tour include the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kruse, 38 South Deeplands, where the kitchen, "Provincial Splendor" features European charm with a modern American touch, cherry-finished fruitwood cabinets and an island range and grill. Special touches are the brass milking can and the antique French keybox.

Attractive And Practical The Howard Shaw's home, 28 Harbor Hill, has a kitchen that auxiliary ladies have dubbed "Light and Bright." It is both attractive and practical. It has a food preparation area, a planning desk, a bar and eating area. Corning Counter Savers, smokewood cupboards and beamed ceilings top off this charming kitchen.

The house of Colonel and Mrs. William Drennen, 106 Merrilweather road, features a kitchen called "After Five-His and Hers." It has rich red carpeting, smokewood-finished cabinets with brass hardware and interior lighting and walls of silver grass cloth wallpaper and brick. Mrs. Drennen particularly enjoys her micro-wave oven. Colonel Drennen's corner is complete with bar facilities and a charcoal rotisserie. "Colonial Charmer," the L-shaped kitchen of Frank Gmeiners, 393 McKinley avenue, features English Colony Oak cabinets with Sheffield finish, micro-wave and conventional ovens and a red brick tile floor. The unique shape of the kitchen provides extra work and storage areas. The 1301 Grayton road home of the James Thrashers has a kitchen called "Small and Striking." It has cherry-wood cabinets of Georgetown design and an eating counter with chair stools, all in shades of brown, white and black, plus a geometrically designed floor in the same shades.

Shreve's Reprise Mr. and Mrs. Keith Shreve's home, 646 Westchester road, has been labeled "The Second Time Around." This kitchen was on the tour in 1965 but has been enlarged and completely redecorated since. It features Alpine Oak cupboards with Colonnade pewter fixtures and a slate counter top which blends beautifully with the pewter. The white beamed ceiling adds a final touch of elegance.

Both Nancy and Fran are busy ladies . . . but then only busy, organized women would take on the chairmanship of such a tremendous project as the Kitchen Tour. They both are workers and enjoyers. "It's been fun," they echo.

Nancy is married to Dr. Frederick J. Lepley, Pointe ophthalmologist. They have four children: Anne, 13, who attends Parcells Middle School, Susan, 11, Fritz, 7, and Jeff, 5, all at Ferry Elementary School.

Both Nancy and Fran are Buckeyes. Nancy's from Cuyahoga Falls and Fran is from Columbus. Both are former members of Newcomers Club. Met In College Nancy met Fred while she was attending the Frances Payne Bolton School of Nursing of Western Reserve University in Cleveland, O. He was in Med School at Western Reserve University after graduation from Amhurst College.

After graduation from MED School Fred moved to Detroit to serve his internship and his residency at Ford Hospital. They were married in Cuyahoga Falls during Fred's internship. They lived near Ford Hospital until Fred completed his residency, and Nancy worked at Ford for two years on the Cardiology floor and in the Department of Nursing.

When Fred completed his residency he went into the Air Force Medical Corps as a captain and was stationed at March Air Force Base near Riverside, Calif.

The Lepleys spent two years there. "One of the most exciting parts of our stint at March was in 1960 when we had cocktails with General and Mamie Eisenhower. She was so friendly and he was as alert and vital as ever."

Their second child, Susan, was born in a ward at the Base hospital. "It was quite a change from the private room and all the extras I had when Anne was born," Nancy laughs.

To Pointe In '61 The Lepleys moved to The Pointe in 1961 and Fred established his practice at his present location on Mack avenue at Manchester.

"Fritz and Jeff were both born at Cottage . . . need I add that both of those stays were delightful experiences?"

Nancy's main interest in recent years has been Girl Scouting. She was recently Neighborhood Cookie chairman for the Girl Scouts at Ferry School. She's done other scout work too, such as working as a nurse at Day Camp and serving as a Brownie leader.

In her spare time she bowls in the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's women's league.

Currently most of her waking hours have been spent working on the Kitchen Tour. "We did get away during spring vacation to Gatlinburg. It was just the boost I needed before getting into the final details of the Tour."

Like To Go North Most of the Lepley's vacations, summer and winter, are spent in Fred's father's cottage in Menomaca Beach in the Petoskey-Harbor Springs area.

Fran's husband, John, is Division Production Control manager of Essex International. The Gilmores have two children: Mike, 21, a junior at Western Michigan University, majoring in Business Administration, and Nancy, 18, a student at North High School.

"She's a real gung-ho gal . . . a varsity cheerleader and a generally very enthusiastic young lady," Fran laughs, describing her daughter. It's not difficult to see where Nancy gets her enthusiasm.

Fran attended Ohio State University in Columbus. She vacationed during her college years at Elk Lane, Mich.—and John also vacationed there. They met in the summer of 1948 and were married that December.

Off To Florida They left immediately for Lakeland, Fla., where John was a student at Florida Southern College. They both worked summers at a resort at, where else? Elk Lake.

Mike was born in Lakeland. After John earned his Bachelor degree the Gilmores moved to North Canton, O., where John was a representative for Timkin Roller Bearing Company for eight years.

They moved to The Pointe in 1960, stayed for five years then moved once again . . . this time to Macomb, Ill. "For a while we traveled around like a couple of gypsies." About a year and a half later they returned to The Pointe and their present house in River road.

Fran spends a lot of her time at Cottage Hospital. She works there weekly on a volunteer basis and has for four years. She's also been on the board of the Auxiliary for three years.

Sews Own Designs In her spare time she designs and sews clothes for her daughter and herself.

The family enjoys boating and spends a good amount of summer time on Lake St. Clair or Elk Lake.

All Fran and Nancy are thinking about these days is the Kitchen Tour. "Be sure to say that tickets are only $2.50 each and may be purchased at any of the kitchens the day of the tour or by calling ticket chairman Mrs. Bertschinger at 884-2071. Proceeds from the Tour are used to purchase hospital equipment. "Everyone is invited for punch and cookies at the Nurses Residence in Ridge road and to visit our special Pantry corner, where homemade goodies of all kinds will be on sale.

"And oh, will you ask everyone to pray for good weather?"

who, where and whatnot

By Whoozit

Here's something . . . to do next Wednesday: Stop in at the Cottage Hospital Nurses' Residence in Ridge road between 3:30 and 4:30 o'clock, and take a look at a display of exhibits describing the work of each of the Hospital's 20 departments . . . The exhibits, prepared as an observance of National Hospital Week, May 9 through 15, will be judged by a panel of three—William G. Butler, Mayor of Grosse Pointe Farms, the NEWS' Pepper Whitelaw and the Grosse Pointe Camera Center's Milton Voelkens—with the department having the best display receiving a bronze plaque.

Here's something . . . we didn't do in last week's column, while we were handing out bouquets to all those Grosse Pointe South High School students who helped to make yesterday's South High Mothers' Club Scholarship Tea such a smashing success: We didn't offer a Very Special Bouquet to a Very Special "little sister," 11-year-old Katy Hanson . . . Katy's mother, Peg (Mrs. Bror) Hanson, handled the publicity for the tea while recuperating from major surgery, and without Katy's willing legs we at the NEWS would never have gotten Peg's releases half so promptly . . . So here, and now, we nominate Katy Hanson for Whoozit's Mother's Helper Bouquet of the Year Award . . .

Here's something . . . inadvertently "dropped" from this column a few weeks ago: A paragraph of names of additional workers chairing this year's University-Liggett June Carnival committees: School coordinator is Robert Page . . . James P. Danaher collected the prizes . . . In charge of the Alumni Booth are Mrs. John Bowers and Mrs. Robert Marantic . . . of Books and Records, Arthur Getz . . . of the Food Tent, Mr. and Mrs. John Hastings . . . of Finance, Joseph Jennings, Jr., and Arthur Dannecker . . . of Gates, John T. Hoag . . . of Money Collection, Joseph Cobane . . . of Publicity, Mrs. Charles V. Hicks and Mrs. Henry T. Ewald, Jr. . . . and of Security, Walter R. Howell, Jr.

Here's something . . . Mrs. Gerard R. Slattery, of Lakeshore road, was doing April 27: Turning the first shovel of earth for a very specialized addition to Children's Hospital, The James and Lynelle Holden Building for Children . . . Adjacent and connecting to the new Children's Hospital in the Detroit Medical Center, the Holden Building is scheduled for completion early in 1972 . . . It will receive all children with emergency and relating acute conditions . . . A grant of $900,000 from the trustees of the Holden Fund in memory of the late Pointe couple who greatly loved children makes the much-needed Building possible . . . Mrs. Slattery, president, and other members of Children's Board of Trustees hosted a reception for the Holden Fund trustees and other distinguished guests following the ground-breaking ceremony . . .

Here's something . . . we'll bet you didn't know: That there's a definite "Grosse Pointe" look to the 1971 Michigan State University lacrosse team . . . Juniors Doug Kalvelage and Paul Safran and freshman Forrest Williams are all Grosse Pointe High graduates . . . and junior Bob Juratovac may have attended Bishop Gallagher High—but he lives in The Pointe . . . Doug and Paul, both attackmen, have been carrying a lot of the Spartans' offensive thrust this season, (Doug leads State in scoring, with six goals and four assists) . . . while Forrest and Bob have seen service at reserve spots . . .

Here's something . . . we'll bet you didn't know either: That Bargain Counter East, the League of Catholic Women's resale shop in Mack avenue, gets a good percentage of Special Requests . . . for instance: "I'd like a second-hand wedding gown, please" . . . and more often than not manages to fill them . . . thanks to donors like the lady who filled the bill above with a bridal ensemble by none other than the designer of wedding costumes for Julie Nixon Eisenhower and the Johnson girls . . . Bargain Counter East happily accepts everything from ball gowns to safari pants . . . and will even pick up donations, (call Valley 2-3561 between 11 and 4 o'clock weekdays for this service) . . . All items are tax deductible, of course . . .

Here's something . . . we ought to add, while we're thinking of Bargain Counter East: It accepts second-hand household articles as gratefully as it does clothing . . .
