THE NEW YORK TIMES resumed publication Wednesday night of its series of articles based on the 1967-68 Pentagon study of U.S. involvement in Vietnam, which was commissioned by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara. The series had been halted after the publication of three articles, on June 13, 14, and 15, by court action initiated by the federal government. The Nixon administration contended that some of the documents on which the study was based were secret and that their publication would be a breach of national security.

THE VIETNAMESE COMMUNISTS announced Thursday that they were ready to free all U.S. prisoners of war step by step by the end of 1971 if all U.S. troops are gone from Vietnam by then. The United States promised to study the plan, which on the surface looked like the first promising communist initiative in the Paris peace talks since they began more than three years ago.

THE MICHIGAN SENATE passed Thursday a 38 percent increase in the state income tax, which would raise the present 2.6 percent tax on individuals to 3.6 percent effective August. The senate action came on a 22 to 16 vote. The measure was sent to the House, where fairly prompt action is expected. A corresponding 38 percent increase in the state income tax on business and financial institutions was part of the bill passed by the Senate.

A TINY HOLE in a wall of the Soyuz II spaceship caused the deaths of the three Soviet cosmonauts, Western communist sources reported Friday night. The ashes of the three were entombed in the Kremlin Wall earlier Friday after a solemn funeral. According to the communist source, the small hole in the Soyuz landing cabin was the result of slight damage when the cabin separated from the Soyuz orbital compartment.

VICE-PRESIDENT NGUYEN CAO KY said Saturday he sees no obstacles on the South Vietnamese side to the new communist peace proposal that all U.S. troops be withdrawn from the country by the end of this year. Ky's statement came as Henry A. Kissinger, President Nixon's national security adviser, met with top U.S. officials to reportedly map plans for speeding American troop pullouts as part of a major review of Indochina policy.

GROUNDING BY ARGENTINA'S REFUSAL to cooperate with an airplane hijacker, Robert Lee Jackson walked off the Braniff International jetliner he had held for nearly two days and surrendered quietly Sunday to police in Buenos Aires. His female companion had given herself up several hours earlier. Jackson's 43-hour hop-skip-and-jump escapade from Texas to the Argentine capitol ended in his failure to obtain the political asylum he wanted in Algeria. Jackson is a U.S. Navy deserter.

MIKHAIL KRASNOV, a Soviet eye surgeon, has reportedly restored the sight of a man whose eyes were burned by chemicals. The surgeon fabricated a new right eye for the man from the rear half of his left eye. The Tass news agency said Monday. The Moscow surgeon performed the delicate and complicated operation with the aid of computers and special machines for making minute stitches in the eye tissue.

Kiwanis Club Being Big Help in Struggle to Get Kidney Machine by Crocker Coupons

By Greg Boyd
They keep counting. They keep collecting. Ten thousand here forty-five thousand there. Only about 350 thousand to go. They've already amassed more than 250,000.

The items that are being collected by a kind hearted, self-starting Woods resident and by the Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club are Betty Crocker coupons. And they're not for mixmasters. They're for a life-saving kidney machine being used by Farms fireman, Lucien Sney.

Altogether, a total of 600,000 coupons are needed to "pay for" the kidney machine that Mr. Sney uses on a weekly basis. About 250,000 have been collected so far, but there is a dark cloud looming ever-larger on the horizon. General Mills, the company redeeming the coupons, has decided to discontinue the offer to exchange kidney machines for coupons on January 1, 1972. That means more than half the number of coupons are needed in the remaining six months of 1971.

Learn of Dilemma
Mrs. Elton Ireland, 1505 Hampton, first became aware of the Sneys need for coupons early in January while she was collecting them through supermarkets for a friend's daughter. Mrs. Ireland had set up collection boxes in various neighborhoods.

War Memorial's History One Of Local Dedication To Cultural Pursuits

The Center Is "The Living Room" of The Grosse Pointes Situated on One of The Most Scenic Coastlines in The State of Michigan

The five Pointes make the War Memorial a gem of unparalleled value. Its beautiful setting on the shores of Lake St. Clair make it a wonderful showcase for the artistic, educational and cultural endeavors that occur there daily.

Just how did The Pointes acquire, without cost and free of debt, headquarters such as these, conservatively estimated as being worth some $2,000,000 in today's market?

In a sense it was by accident. In another sense, it was the culmination of years of dedicated effort on the part of a small group of Pointers who wanted to improve the community with a center of culture and learning.

The original idea was to establish a central library which would serve as a perpetual memorial to the veterans of World War II. In the early 40's, this small group of Pointers organized to form the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Library Fund. A fund raising campaign was initiated and by 1948 some $187,945 was raised.

How did Alger House come into the picture? For some years the Alger Family had permitted the use of the house at 32 Lake Shore road, to the Detroit Institute of Arts as a Grosse Pointe Branch. But Detroit authorities made no real effort to promote its use by other organizations.

Members of the Library Fund Committee felt that much greater use could be made of the facility if it was handled by local residents. They spoke with the Grosse Pointe Board of Education to see if the site could be used as a central library site. The board determined it was unsuitable for a central library.

The group then decided to broaden its horizons and seek acquisition of Alger House as a War Memorial Center, which would serve as a lasting tribute to the men who fought in World War II AND as a continuing center for educational, cultural and charitable purposes, which would enrich community life.

The Alger Family, in April of 1949, deeded the house and grounds to the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Library Fund and in May of 1949, the organization changed its name to the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association.

The monies originally raised for establishing a central library, with permission of the donors, was transferred from the Library Fund to the War Memorial Association to form a nucleus of endowment for the War Memorial Center.

The committee, with headquarters and a substantial amount of money in hand, was ready to provide a permanent and distinguished display of an Honor Roll, promote the arts and provide facilities for classes, exhibitions, musical events, theatricals and discussion groups. It has continued to provide and expand these services through the years.

Since its opening in 1949, its usage has increased yearly. In its first full year of operation some 50,000 persons used the center. Last year 232,358 persons used it. When the center first opened there was a staff of seven full-time employees. Today there are 25.

Since its inception, the center has been able to be 75 percent self-supporting. Monies received from program activities, services supplied, dividends and interest from investments make this possible. The balance of operational monies is raised through the center's Annual Family Participation Campaign.

Rotary Club OI Program Ready to Go

Residents Can Go to Their Local Police Stations and Borrow Identification Tools

By Pepper Whitelaw
Operation Identification (OI) is all set to go. The program, initiated by the Grosse Pointe Rotary Club, is one in which residents borrow from their local police departments etching tools with which to mark their valuables. The electric hand engravers, donated by Grosse Pointe Rotary, are available now!

OI is directed at cutting down thefts and burglaries in the area. It is a system by which your Michigan driver's license number is etched in inconspicuous spots on such items as business machines, appliances, battery charger, binoculars, cameras, check protectors, fishing equipment, golf clubs, guns, jewelry, lawn mowers, musical instruments, photographic projectors and enlargers, power tools, radios, record players, hand tools.

Vandals Damage Motorcycle, Cars

Vicious vandals have been plaguing the 341 Lakeland residence of the B. S. Whitneys. Mrs. Whitney called City police on Thursday, July 1, to report that persons unknown had entered the garage and cut cables on a '70 Triumph 650 motorcycle, belonging to Alexander Gage, 587 University. Just one hour after Mr. Gage had repaired the damage, according to Mrs. Whitney, she returned to the garage to find two more cables cut and the seat of the cycle slashed.

The vandals also left their marks on two other vehicles, the seat of a '65 Mustang, belonging to Ruth B. Smith, had been slashed and obscenities written in dust on the trunk lid. A third vehicle, a '70 Mustang, which was parked in the circular drive, also fell prey to the vandals. The seat and trunk were slashed several times and the windshield wipers bent and twisted off. Then on Saturday, July 3, vandals once again returned to the Whitney residence. This time they slashed the front and rear seats of a '70 Pontiac, removed some clothing from the car and threw the items on the ground. Police are investigating.

Water Pumpage Record Shattered By Farms Station

Hot Weather and Three-Month Dry Spell Combine Unusually High Demand; 10.2 Million Gallons Used in 24 Hour Period

The Farms Water Filtration Plant, 29 Moross road, pumped an all time record of 10.2 million gallons of water for any 24-hour period, from midnight to midnight, on Monday, June 28, according to information released by Wendell Baker, Superintendent of the Water Department. The previous high was 9.14 million gallons back in June 14, 1959.

Baker said that the record pumpage was due to the high temperature, which was recorded at 102 degrees, and the abnormally low rainfall through April, May and June. He said that only one inch of rain was recorded for the month of April, during which month the normal rainfall is about 3.5 inches. Because of the coolness of the weather, water consumption in the Farm and City, the latter the Farms' only customer, was 7.19 million gallons.

May June Also Dry
During the entire month of May, the rainfall was only 1.89 inches. Normally, Mother Nature would let fall 2.75 inches. Water pumpage jumped to 134.07 million gallons, as consumers slaked their thirsts and watered their lawns. Last month, too, the rainfall was below normal. It was 1.78 inches, whereas, for June, according to records, 2.50 inches of rain should have soaked the earth.

The Filtration Plant records showed that a total of 156.01 million gallons of water, including the one-day all time record, was used in June. The lowest number of gallons pumped last month was 2.85 million gallons, and that was on June 8.

Baker said that another all time record was set for a three-hour period, from 6:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m., on June 28, when pumps reached the maximum pumping rate of 15.1 million gallons. This means, he pointed out, that if the pumps had been working all during the 24-hour period, at the maximum rate of the three hours, that is the number of gallons that would have been used by the consumers.

Same old Equipment
The superintendent said that all this water is being pumped to consumers by the same equipment that was installed when the plant was first put into operation in 1930. Good maintenance and constant checking have kept the pumps in A-One condition, and not a single piece of equipment has ever been replaced. There are three in-take pumps which bring in the raw water from Lake St. Clair, and four finish, or filtration pumps, which sends the millions of gallons daily through the water mains for consumption to homes, commercial buildings and institutions.

To give better service, and also to be ready for any emergency, a fifth finish pump is now being installed in the plant, which will add another 5 million gallons a day, to the already 16.5 million capacity that can be reached, if needed, making the maximum pumpage (Continued on Page 2)

City, Farms, Park Asking For Action

Councils Petition for Resurfacing of Jefferson, Moross and Lake Shore Road

The Wayne County Road Commission apparently is too far behind, or does not have the funds, as it claims, to pave Jefferson avenue, from Wayburn to Fisher road, as petitioned by the Park and City Councils last May. Jefferson, which is under the County's jurisdiction, is in an extreme state of disrepair.

Ervin A. Steiner, Jr., County Commissioner, Third District, and chairman of the County Public Works Committee, has been making every effort to induce the Road Commission to resurface Jefferson.

More recently, Steiner received a resolution from the Farms Council, petitioning his assistance in having the Road Commission resurface Moross road and Lake Shore, stating that residents living along these thoroughfares, and motorists, have asked for relief noting that these streets are in such deplorable condition, that they require immediate attention. The condition of Moross is such, it is said, that residents are suffering real structural damage as a result of the intense vibrations caused by vehicles passing over the broken and pitted pavement.

Suffering from Noise
Also, it was disclosed, the Moross road residents are experiencing a very high level of noise transmission from the flow of traffic due to the state of disrepair of the road.

Steiner stated, in a letter dated July 2, that as of that date, he had received no word from Mitchell Zolik of the Road Commission, and Michael Berry, Commission chairman, on whether or not any action will be taken on the paving petitions.

At a recent Park council meeting, City Manager Robert Slone informed the members of the council that the paving of Jefferson would cost $250,000, and that the county estimated that the Park's share should be set at 40 percent. Since Jefferson is a county thoroughfare, the entire cost should be borne by the county, which receives the State gasoline and weight taxes for that purpose, Slone explained.

They Didn't Share
The city manager pointed out that when Lake Shore road, also under county jurisdiction, was paved, the Farms and Shores did not pay a cent. The Farms council had asked Steiner to plead on the city's behalf to have Moross and Lake Shore, Moross in particular, placed on the Road Commission's 1971 road repair program.

In his letter to Steiner, Farms Mayor William Butler stated in part:

"The increasing number and frequency of complaints from our residents, along with our concern for the unsafe and hazardous condition of Moross road, have prompted us to again ask for your further assistance in securing adequate repair to Moross road, to restore it to a safe and acceptable condition, which we believe can be accomplished only by resurfacing, and not by means of patch repairs which are quickly dispersed by the flow of traffic, and are, therefore, inadequate."

Steiner said that he had approached Zolik and Berry and had asked them to do everything in their power to include the resurfacing of Jefferson. (Continued on Page 2)

Correction!

In last week's issue of the NEWS it was erroneously advertised that the City of Grosse Pointe Council meeting in July had been adjourned until Monday evening, July 12. It should have read, The City of Grosse Pointe Woods Council meeting in July was adjourned until Monday evening, July 12.

Pointe Music Festival Opens Tuesday, July 13

The "Bach to Boats" season of the Grosse Pointe Music Festival opens next Tuesday, July 13, at the War Memorial with a lavish presentation of music of J. S. Bach. True to the versatility of the great Baroque composer, the program offers a liberal variety of the many musical forms Bach employed, from concerto and cantata to Chaconne and suite.

Featured artists for this concert are 18 string and wind players of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra who perform under the title "The Musical Offering." Musical Coordinator of the group is Jerome Rosen, associate concertmaster of the symphony. Mr. Rosen will appear as soloist to open the concert with Bach's E major violin concerto. Both as soloist and organizer, Jerry Rosen has outstanding credentials. His eight appearances as a member of the Pablo Casals Festival Orchestra and his additional skills as keyboard artist and conductor are only high lights.

Joining the ensemble as a special soloist will be the brilliant young Detroit soprano Caroline Grimes. A member and soloist with the Kenneth Jewell Chorale, Miss Grimes is a lyric coloratura whose performances have won enthusiastic audience response in New York as well as her home city of Detroit. She will sing the moving Cantata Number 51 with the ensemble. (Continued on Page 2)

Since its inception, the center has been able to be 75 percent self-supporting. Monies received from program activities, services supplied, dividends and interest from investments make this possible. The balance of operational monies is raised through the center's Annual Family Participation Campaign.

In 1961, the center was the recipient of a gift in excess of half-a-million-dollars from the estate of the late William H. Fries, who long lived in McKinley place, just off Lake Shore. His generosity made possible in large measure the building of an addition to Alger House in December of 1962. This provided the center (Continued on Page 4)

Edison to Spend $1,500,000 To Better Pointe Service

The Detroit Edison Company issued the following news release on Tuesday, July 6:

Early Monday evening, June 28, during a severe heat wave, a circuit breaker in Detroit Edison's Vernier Substation at 1945 Vernier road, Grosse Pointe Woods, failed and caused extensive fire damage, estimated at $150,000, to a large power transformer and other facilities in the station. Electric service was interrupted to about 15,000 residents of Grosse Pointe Shores, Grosse Pointe Woods and Harper Woods for periods ranging from two and a half hours to about 12 hours.

The fire was extinguished in about an hour by the Grosse Pointe Woods Fire Department and minutes after the blaze was out 45 Detroit Edison crewmen began the difficult and painstaking task of restoring service.

On the site directing the restoration was W. A. Sinclair, General Superintendent of the company's Electrical System Department. By 9:12 p.m., just two and one half hours after the fire broke out, 45 percent of the customers affected were again being supplied with electric power. However, to restore service to the remaining customers it was necessary to connect the de-energized circuits to powerlines being fed from other substations in adjoining areas. All customers were being supplied power by 8:38 a.m. the following morning. (Continued on Page 4)

The Kiwanis Club has sent 150,000 coupons to Ann Arbor, home of the Michigan Kidney Foundation, and is preparing another 90,000 for shipment. Incidentally, Mrs. Ireland has accumulated over 37,000 coupons through her own efforts to add to the 15,000 or so coupons the Sneps have gathered.

Kindergarten Series Slated

The complexities of entering kindergarten and how we can prepare ourselves and our children for this new experience will be the focus of the next Family Life and Personal Growth Series Lecture-Discussion, slated for Tuesday, July 15, at 8 o'clock at the Northeast Guidance Center, 17000 East Warren. William J. Rowell, Ph.D., Clinical Child Psychologist at the Center, will lead this lecture-discussion. Please call the Center at 886-3566, Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., to make reservations as space is limited.

Rev. A. Olden To Preach Here

The Rev. Aidan Olden, Canon of St. Patrick's National Cathedral, Dublin, Ireland will conduct the morning worship on Sunday, July 10, at 10 a.m. at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. As a participant in the British-American Preacher's Exchange, he will preach in other pulpits of the USA this summer. Canon Olden's greatest interest is in the field of communications. He is a regular broadcaster for the Church of Ireland on the National Television Network. He and his wife, Eithne, will spend a week in the Grosse Pointe area.

Ecology Group Expands Work

Earth Lovers, an ecologically-minded group of young people, has been in operation for several months now and its interest in the project of collecting non-returnables hasn't subsided. In fact, it has increased to the point where it is expanding its operations. Earth Lovers is now accepting cans to be recycled in addition to the glass non-returnables. The group asks that any cans to be turned in should be rinsed, flattened and have their labels removed. They say that any type of can will be accepted as long as the three steps are followed. The group would also like to remind Pointers that the glass bottles should be rinsed and all metal caps and rings should be removed. Also, it would help if the glass is assorted by color. Spokesman for the group, Jon Houston, said that the project is becoming increasingly successful. Last week, 30 barrels of bottles were collected, more than ever before. After the week's collection is made, the bottles are taken to a glass recycling center at the Michigan State fairgrounds. Earth Lovers does not expect to have a shipment of cans ready to be sent out for some time. Cans will only be sent out after a ton is collected. To reach that goal, 20,000 cans must be accumulated. Bottles and cans will be accepted Saturdays, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Unitarian Church Annex, behind the church, on the corner of Maumee and Neff.

Car Owner Finds Ignoring Notices Is Very Costly

It does not pay to ignore notices to pay a total of $114 in accumulated overtime parking fines, or fail to respond to a letter about an alleged abandoned car, or to ignore a letter from police authorities, or one from the Secretary of State's Office in Lansing, or ignore a summons to appear in court. One will find himself in plenty of trouble.

This is what happened to Otto Greiner of 1378 Nottingham road, according to information released by Park Police Chief Gerard Kesteloot.

Residents living in the 900 block of Balfour complained to Park authorities on May 24, that a car had been parked in front of No. 937 for several days. Under a Uniform Traffic Code of the Park Ordinance, any vehicle left in the same spot for a period of 48 hours, is considered as being abandoned.

Police went to the Balfour number and checked out the automobile, a 1964 Rambler four-door sedan, and marked the tire and pavement with chalk. Forty-eight hours later, officers returned to the scene and found that the owner, which a check of license registration showed to be Greiner, had failed to move the vehicle a single inch. The car was towed to the pound behind the Park Municipal Building, 15115 East Jefferson.

Chief Kesteloot said that on May 26, he dispatched a letter to Greiner informing him that he could have his car back after paying a $10 impounding fee. Greiner failed to respond, so the chief sent a letter to Lansing on June 1.

On June 8, Greiner received a letter from the Secretary of State, in which the owner was given until July 23, the final date of redemption of the vehicle, provided he paid his accumulated fines and the impounding fee, plus, storage fees. If the owner does not do this, the local authorities can dispose of the car as they see fit. Greiner ignored this letter.

On June 16, at the request of the police, Park Municipal Judge William E. Speer issued a warrant against Greiner, charging him with abandoning a motor vehicle on a city street. A subpoena was handed to the car owner to appear in court on June 23, and he failed to show up. The judge ordered that a bond of $100 be made a requirement of the warrant.

On June 24, Greiner called Kesteloot to inquire what he must do to regain possession of his automobile, and was told that first he must post the $100 bond, or be subject to arrest, and to pay the $10 towing fee, plus the $5 for the abandoned car violation ticket, and, by this time, the $27 storage fee, which was assessed at one dollar a day, beginning five days after the car was impounded.

Greiner came to the station to post the bond and to pay the required amount of money to get back his car.

His troubles were not over, however. He was informed that he must appear in court to answer for the over time parking tickets, which were long past due.

Bank Official Thwarts Holdup

Farms Det. Sgt. George Van Tiem, while on routine patrol east on Chalfonte, near Kerby, intercepted a police radio broadcast by Harper Woods police of a holdup in progress at the Bank of the Commonwealth, Moross and Harper, Detroit, at 1:34 p.m. on Thursday, July 1. A citizen apparently called Harper Woods authorities, possibly thinking the bank was located in that city.

Van Tiem was the first to arrive at the bank, followed by Harper Woods Det. Lt. William Kohler and other officers of his department.

On entering the bank building, the policemen were informed by a woman teller, that the bandit and Assistant Manager Robert Martin were locked in the vault.

The vault was opened and the policemen stood ready with service revolvers drawn, but the guns were not needed. The bandit was doctored. He had a lump on his head and his face and clothing were covered with blood. The lump was apparently inflicted by Martin, but with what instrument was not disclosed.

The alleged bandit, identified as James Duncan Puller, 111, 33, of 1615 Rockhill drive, Charlottesville, Va., admitted that he attempted to get money from the assistant manager by telling him that his "loved ones" were in danger and being held hostage, and that he had several friends waiting for him outside in a car, parked in a nearby supermarket lot.

Van Tiem placed the man under arrest for armed robbery (later, it was found Puller was not armed), and Kohler read him his rights.

Detroit police arrived at the scene, and Puller was released to Sgt. Gerard Francescutti, for further investigation and questioning.

On June 8, Greiner received a letter from the Secretary of State, in which the owner was given until July 23, the final date of redemption of the vehicle, provided he paid his accumulated fines and the impounding fee, plus, storage fees. If the owner does not do this, the local authorities can dispose of the car as they see fit. Greiner ignored this letter.

On June 16, at the request of the police, Park Municipal Judge William E. Speer issued a warrant against Greiner, charging him with abandoning

Students Enjoy Trip to Toledo

Some 150 fifth and sixth grade Safety Patrol boys and Service Squad girls of Monteith School, accompanied by 11 members of the staff, recently made a trip to Toledo, O. The annual trip, sponsored by the Monteith P.T.O., is made alternately to Lansing, Mich. and Toledo.

Each year the students of Monteith look forward to the trip which is in recognition of their service to the school. The trip to Ohio was particularly interesting for them since they visited the outstanding Toledo Institute of Arts in the morning and the Toledo Zoo in the afternoon.

John Hammel, principal, who made the trip with the children, commended them for their excellent behavior.

Monteith held its annual Honors Assembly just before school closing, when certificate of service were awarded to Safety Patrol and Service Squad members, new officers were announced and additional awards were given for achievement in physical fitness.

This year awards were given to sixth grade students who had outstanding achievements in the Monteith Science Fair. Miss Diane Mack and Miss Jean Palazolo, sixth grade teachers, had over 60 individual science exhibits which were prepared independently by the children after being given guidelines earlier in the year. Several outstanding exhibits explained the dangers of smoking.

Dodge Estate Items Bought

The Detroit Institute of Arts did not come away empty-handed against international competition in London auction of items from the late Anna Thomson Dodge.

Four scenes of country life by 18th century French master Honoré Fragonard were purchased by the Founders Society Detroit Institute of Arts for $252,000, a little more than a fourth of the $1,000,000 cash given to the philanthropy by Mrs. Dodge.

The four oil paintings—about five feet high and three feet wide—will be displayed in the museum's re-creation of the 18th century French music room from Mrs. Dodge's fabled mansion, Rose Terrace.

The Detroit Institute of Arts plans to reconstruct the room, whose elegant furnishings were also part of Mrs. Dodge's bequest to the museum, at the Horace E. Dodge Memorial Gallery. The premiere of the music room will coincide with the museum's North Wing opening celebration in late October.

All told, Art Institute representatives attending the four-day Christie's auction bid successfully on seven works, including the four Fragonard paintings. Museum director Willis F. Woods, assistant director Frederick Cummings, Arts Commission president Lee Hills and two conservators directed the spending of $336,300 for the art which will be donated by the Founders to the City of Detroit.

Other items purchased from the Dodge auction for the city-owned museum are a pair of silver gilt wine coolers commissioned in 1804 by Napoleon for Josephine; a pair of Louis XVI torcheres nearly five feet

LIFE'S LIKE THAT

They say truth is stranger than fiction—and it's surprising how many people refuse to associate with strangers.

RICH AND POOR

(Third in a series.)

"Almost all the New Village (suburban) children quickly rejected the idea that the children were Americans. 'You can tell by looking at them... No white children in our country would look like these three.'"

These comments point up one of the most surprising—and appalling—gaps in suburban children's knowledge about differences among people. The children knew almost nothing about persons less well off than themselves. Moreover, their attitude toward the less fortunate was almost insufferably patronizing—a response that was not surprising in view of the great emphasis placed on material wealth, as in most suburbs.

It is, of course, possible that the children's attitude is changing with the current "war on poverty." But such a shift would also presuppose a changed climate in the home or the school—neither of which, at the time of our study, was doing much to fill in the blanks in the children's knowledge."

from the short-changed children of suburbia.

Bus Service Plan Rejected

(Continued from Page 1) pervise the day-to-day operations of the line and handle accounting and fiscal control. $60,000 Budget The program includes rehabilitation of existing buses and a budget of $60,000 for the rehabilitation, plus a yet-to-be negotiated price for the purchase of the company's assets. The plans also include acquisition of additional vehicles to replace those being rehabilitated and those more deteriorated buses.

Mr. Morrill said that SEMTA had hoped to capitalize on improved efficiency in operation and maintenance and the institution of a marketing program in an effort to rebuild some of the lost patronage of Lakeshore Lines.

SEMTA has asked the six communities involved to contribute the needed capital for the acquisition and rehabilitation of the buses. The cost to the communities would total $78,000. (This is one-third of the total cost). The federal government would pick up the other two-thirds. This sum would be distributed proportionately among the communities. SEMTA also asked the cities to commit a figure of $5,000 per month in the event that the Lakeshore Coach Line Division of SEMTA would experience an operational deficit. This figure too would be split proportionately among the six communities.

Cost Per Municipality
The breakdown per municipality would be 25 percent from St. Clair Shores; 19.6 from The Park; 8.5 from The City; 15.7 from The Farms; 3.7 from The Shores and 27.5 from The Woods.

Both City manager Thomas Kressbach and Farms manager Andrew Bremer told the NEWS that SEMTA's proposal seemed the only realistic proposal at this time to continue bus service after July 31.

A plan by which employees of the line would purchase the bus company as an employee corporation was investigated but apparently dismissed as not being feasible.

The City of Grosse Pointe

Council recently made an informal statement favoring SEMTA's proposal, stipulating however that it wanted a more detailed description of the type and degree of management and control SEMTA would bring to bear and with the request that an advisory committee be established to investigate and discuss rates and routes with the SEMTA staff. The advisory committee would be composed of representatives from participating communities.

Approved by Farms
The Farms Council, on June 28, approved the SEMTA proposal if all six communities participate and if SEMTA would agree that at such time as it acquires other bus companies within its jurisdiction, and funds, the purchase of such facilities from sources other than the communities to be served, that the five Pointes and St. Clair Shores be refunded their initial capital contribution. The council further authorized Mr. Bremer to carry on further negotiations with SEMTA and the other cities.

The Park Council is still considering the proposal and is expected to vote on it at its July 12 session.

The Shores passed a resolution approving participation if all six cities participated and if SEMTA would provide proper management of the line.

The St. Clair Shores Council on Tuesday, July 6, also voted to participate.

What happens now that the City of Grosse Pointe Woods has refused to participate? It appears that it's a whole new ball game, since other communities which have indicated interest in the program all prefaced their support by indicating that all six communities must participate.

No Charge Involved

A resident may borrow the tool for a period of a few hours up to three days by merely going into his police department and asking for free use of the tool. He is also given a sticker to put on his window or door stating that all items of value on the premises have been marked for ready identification by law enforcement agencies.

The OI home owner also fills out an "Owner's Form" on which he lists all items of value. One copy of this form is retained at the local police station and the other is given to the home owner.

All local police chiefs are delighted with OI and indicated that with this system when law enforcement officers find stolen items, or items suspected to have been stolen, they can locate the name and address of the owner within minutes by sending the driver's license number to Lansing on the Law Enforcement Intelligence Network (LEIN) machine.

John A. McCartney, Rotarian who initiated the idea locally, stated that since the initial story on the etching tools appeared in the NEWS May 20, police stations and Rotarians have been swamped with requests.

Edison to Spend $1,500,000

Although electric service was restored, the inconvenience was not over for many of the customers. Low voltage was experienced in some areas because of the need for combining circuits, some of them heavily loaded, in order to restore service to all customers as soon as possible.

Some customers in the area experienced an additional loss of electric power on June 30 and July 1 when on four separate occasions, a cable failed or overheated wires burned down while attempting to carry the additional load temporarily transferred from Vernier Substation. Edison crews worked around the clock until all service was restored to normal at 4:33 a.m. on Friday, July 2.

Customers in the vicinity of Mack and Cadieux also experienced loss of electric power at 10:08 p.m. on June 28 when two cables failed at Edison's Denver Substation. In this case, there was no damage to the substation and Edison crews were able to restore service by 3:53 a.m. on June 29 by transferring the load to the standby cable provided for such an emergency.

The unfortunate circumstances of the equipment failure and fire at Vernier Substation, occurring at the precise time of an all-time maximum load on the Edison system, was the cause of the abnormally long service interruption. Detroit Edison believes that with its present facilities, barring unforeseen equipment failures, area residents will not experience a similar interruption of service this summer even though temperatures may again become unusually high.

However, to insure that Edi-

A great deal of the success of the center can be attributed to its first full time director, John Lake, who came to the center in the fall of 1952. Mr. Lake is proud of the War Memorial. His goal is to make it a serious civic center in which local residents from

Woods Safety Department Receives Grateful Letters

The Grosse Pointe Woods Public Safety Department recently received several letters of gratitude from residents, some of which concerned some fairly unusual circumstances and two after punitive action was taken. One letter concerned a fire in a resident's TV set. "I would feel very remiss if I did not write to thank you for your courtesy and aid during the fire in my set earlier this year," the letter noted. "I was in complete panic and just gave you my home number, neglecting to give you the name of the street. Considering my flub, the promptness in which you came to my home and handled the situation is thoroughly appreciated, and I extend my thanks to you again," the letter concluded.

Answering the fire alarm were Sergeant Bernard Kelly, Corporal Robert Seibell, and Public Safety Officers Douglas Dosmas, William Desilets, James Fowler, LeRoy Tobian, Patrick McMath, Donald Sun and Paul Thcombe. Another letter was written after a resident's daughter received her first traffic citation. The parent was not at all displeased with her daughter's misfortune. "We were happy that our daughter informed us about the ticket before we received the letter from the Court Clerk," the letter stated. "We were also tickled, charmed and delighted that she finally received one. "This alone has made her slow down plus the fact that she doesn't want to part with another $10 for something of this nature. We were also happy that the policeman who stopped her treated her so nice. She has the responsibility of paying this fine and I'm sure she'll take care of it."

Officer William Lentz can be credited for extending his courtesy. Another resident who received a traffic violation wrote that she "would like to say that the arresting officer," (Corporal Peter Thomas, in this case), "under the circumstances, could not have been any nicer than he was. A sincere thank you." The officers also respond to tragedy-stricken residents who often respond back. "While nothing could have helped I will never have to wonder if help coming sooner could have made a difference," one letter stated concerning an incident in which Lieutenant Allan Seiby, and Officers Wayne Baum, John Albrecht and Patrick McMath were called to action. "Their politeness, promptness and efficiency were most commendable and very superb. May God bless them," wrote another resident, referring to Corporal Thomas Kerving, and Officers James Fowler, William Desilets and Auxiliary Officer Robert Rodgers. On a light note, one resident wrote that she had lost her wallet on Mack avenue and Meter Maid Dorothy Graff found and returned it. "For this act of kindness I am most gratified," she concluded "and I would like to express my appreciation."

Park Schedules Sports Contests

Grosse Pointe Park's junior residents will have a chance to swing into a flurry of activity during the month of July. Within the next few weeks, the Park will sponsor the Annual Tennis Tournament, the Annual Junior Olympics, and finally, the Annual Fishing Rodeo. Monday, July 12, marks the beginning of the Park's Annual Tennis Tournament. The tournament will be held on the Windmill Pointe Park tennis courts, and is open only to residents of the Park. Adult events include men's singles, women's singles, men's doubles, women's doubles, and mixed doubles. Adult matches will be held in the evenings, and participants may compete in all three divisions. Boys' and girls' divisions include singles for 12 and under; 14 and under; 16 and under; and 18 and under; and doubles for 14 and under, an 18 and under. Contestants may not play in more than two singles and one double event. Entry forms may be obtained at the gatehouse at Windmill Pointe Park and must be returned no later than July 11 at 6 p.m. The entry fee is 50 cents per person per event which will be used to furnish trophies for first place winners. Balls for all matches will be furnished by the tournament committee, whose membership includes Chris Schneider and Jim Colby, recreation coordinators. The Park's Annual Junior Olympics will be held July 15 and 16, Thursday and Friday, at Windmill Pointe Park, according to Chris Schneider and Jim Colby, recreation coordinators. The games, to be held for Park residents between 10 and 15 years of age, will include such events as softball throw, 50-yard dash, standing broad jump, running long jump, standing hop, step, and jump, running hop, step and jump, and chinling for boys only. The winners will be eligible to compete in the Detroit Metropolitan Youth Fitness Program to be held July 29, 1971 at Lower Huron Metropolitan Park. Registration blanks for the Park's Junior Olympics will be available at the Windmill Pointe Park gatehouse. The deadline for registration is July 14 at 4 p.m. The Park's Annual Fishing Rodeo will be held Saturday, July 24, from 8 to 1 a.m. The Rodeo is open to children between the ages of five and 16 inclusive, who are residents of the City of Grosse Pointe Park. All contestants will receive a prize. Grand prizes will be awarded for the biggest fish caught by a boy, the biggest fish caught by a girl, and also for the most fish caught. Contestants must be registered to participate. Entry forms may be obtained at the gatehouse at Windmill Pointe Park. All entrants in the Fishing Rodeo must furnish their own equipment and bait. Youngsters under 10 years of age must be accompanied by an adult during the Rodeo.

Will Mechanize North Bleachers

The Grosse Pointe Board of Education on Monday, June 28, approved the mechanization of the bleachers in the North High School gymnasium at a cost not to exceed $15,430. President Barbara R. Thompson, treasurer Lee Allen, secretary William Adams, trustees Alfred Glancy, Jr. and Donald Semmler voting yes, and vice-president Arnold Fuchs and trustee Calvin Sandberg abstaining. The mechanization of the bleachers was part of the original specifications of the school but was later deleted when bids on the high school came in higher than anticipated. Mr. Zenn told the NEWS that monies spent for the mechanization were part of the voted millage for the high school and cannot by law be used anywhere but on the original site. He added that currently it takes eight men almost two hours to pull out the bleachers and is quite costly per man hour. He said mechanization should pay for itself within a year. Small talk is often a smoke screen for a scarcity of ideas.

Judge Don Goodrow Hears 19 Cases in Woods Court

Municipal Judge Don J. Goodrow presided over court for the City of Grosse Pointe Woods Tuesday, June 29, hearing a total of 19 cases. Less than a third were Pointers.

Samuel Bordato, 1968 Prestwick, facing charges of speeding, fleeing a police officer and reckless driving. He entered guilty pleas on all three charges and was found guilty on all three. The court ordered a total of $100 in fines and suspended his driver's license for one year.

David Brady, 1437 Harvard, was charged with disobeying a traffic control device and driving on a suspended license. After entering a plea of not guilty, he was found guilty on both charges, given a total of $135 in fines and sentenced to three days in the Wayne County Jail.

James Comins, Jr., 1965 Vernier, stood mute to a charge of indecent exposure and a not guilty plea was entered for him. The court found him guilty and placed him on probation for one full year with the last 60 days in the Wayne County Jail if the probation is violated. Also, costs were assessed in the amount of $100.

Paul Grubbs, 16410, Bordon, Fraser, told the court he was not guilty of the charge of making harassing phone calls. He was found guilty and costs of $20 were assessed. The court also demanded a peace bond of $100, posted for one full year.

The court found Robert Nash, 548 Beniteau, Detroit, guilty of larceny of a private home after he had entered a guilty plea. He was sentenced to five days in the Wayne County Jail.

Two were found guilty of being minors in possession of alcoholic beverages. Both Gregory Cipa, 19185 Eastwood, Harper Woods; and Andrew Mihalke, 11600 Beaconsfield, Detroit, entered pleas of not guilty. Both were found guilty, however, and each was fined $25.

Approve School Fix-Up Projects

At a special meeting of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education on Monday, June 28, members unanimously approved summer maintenance projects recommended by Ben Zenn, director of administrative services, at a number of schools.

Paint projects will be undertaken at Barnes, Defer, Kerby, Ferry, Mair, Mason, Monteith, Poupart, Richard, Trombly, Monteith and Zenn.

City and service trucks will be replaced or repaired at Defer, Kerby, Monteith and Poupart.

New asphalt will be laid at Pierce, Barnes and Parcels' playground. Parking lots at Brownell, North, Mason and Defer will have asphalt repairs, as will the play area at Barnes.

Poupart's water tank and Parcels' boiler will be replaced. Several schools will have major roofing repairs including Trombly, Brownell, Mason, Monteith, Poupart, Barnes, Richard and South High. The chimney at Parcels will be repaired.

Total cost of the maintenance projects is $34,111. Mr. Zenn said the amount being spent this year for maintenance projects is about 35 percent less than in previous years.

According to Mr. Zenn all work will be completed by September 1.

MR. INDOOR COMFORT

Let's Talk About Nuts And Bolts

by ROBERT A. "Doc" WILLIAMS

Your home is a modern work of art. If it could be portrayed on a large canvas by an artist capable of showing all of its parts and construction in one panoramic view, you would be amazed at its complexities.

And so it is with a central air conditioning system. No matter how you look at it, it's still made up of many parts and devices that when assembled should work together for your comfort. These are the so-called "nuts and bolts" of an air conditioning system.

Like a new car, however, the basic design has been there for years; it's the improvements and refinements that will make one "brand name" of equipment stand out above the others. We believe this is true of all Carrier central air conditioning systems.

The basic units of an air conditioning system contain many devices and "hidden assets". With Carrier equipment, the cooling coil unit, the condensing unit, and the distribution system are the basic equipment. More important, however, is how these basic units are designed and manufactured. You might compare them to the quality of the engine, transmission, and driving mechanism of your car.

Carrier "nuts and bolts" are tops in the industry, with refinements and technology "built-in" to assure long life and outstanding performance. Carrier engineers have specified materials and components that far exceed minimum requirements to build the most efficient, dependable, and trouble-free air conditioning equipment possible.

Nuts and bolts do make up an air conditioning system; not so much the number, but the quality of their design. In a minute part is carefully manufactured as in all Carrier equipment, the complete air conditioning system offers years of comfort.

The distributing system is the problem. The fitting of Carrier Equipment to the network of ducts, registers, and returns that permit conditioned air to circulate throughout your home is the task of our engineering and installation staffs. These men are experts in the "custom fitting" so necessary for a quality installation.

Because each home is different in the application of basic equipment, this can be the most important part of an installation. The best equipment won't work unless installed properly; and that's why our staffs look forward to the task of making you comfortable. The many satisfied Williams customers in Grosse Pointe are testimonial for how well they do perform their work.

If you are interested in central air conditioning for your home, give us a call for a Free Engineering survey of your needs. There's no obligation, and you'll find quality the biggest "bargain" you can buy.

For a FREE SURVEY of your home, or information about Carrier central air conditioning, call "Doc" Williams at Williams Refrigeration & Heating at TU 6-4848 — 14711 Harper Ave.

Park Officer Warren Paid Honor by State FOP Lodge

The State Lodge of Michigan, Fraternal Order of Police, held its 32nd annual convention in Lansing recently, during which representatives of the FOP Lodges throughout the State elected new officers for the year.

Representing Lodge No. 102, comprised of police officers of the Pointe and Harper Woods, were Woods Patrolman Stephen Petrik, Jr., Lodge president; Farms Patrolman Philip Miglio, treasurer; YSD Liaison Officer John Kendall, secretary; and Farms Patrolmen Thomas Kelly and Earl Field, and Woods Patrolman Donald Sun, delegates.

Petrik was elected District Representative of FOP District Four (Wayne County), which election was enthusiastically received by his local colleagues because it greatly enhanced the role of Lodge 102 in the State organization.

The highlight of the convention was the presentation of a plaque at a banquet dinner, and a $200 U.S. Savings Bond to Park Patrolman Richard Warren, who was selected as Policeman of the Year, for his outstanding act of heroism, when he fatally wounded a bank bandit in a gun battle last September 17, and saved the life of his partner, Patrolman William Furtaw, who was felled when he was hit by one of the bandit's bullets. Warren was picked from a field of 20 candidates from throughout Michigan, by a committee of the State Lodge.

On hand to witness the presentation, besides Lodge 102 representatives and delegates, were Warren's wife, Jane, Park Police Department heads, Chief Gerard Kesteloot and Lt. Henry Coonce, Patrolmen Furtaw, and Park Patrolmen Collin Lalonde and Rodney Wedding.

The presentation was made on Monday, June 13, after which the entire State FOP convention delegates and their guests gave Warren a standing ovation that lasted for several minutes.

The following day, both Warren and Furtaw were asked to recount, on the floor of the convention, what had happened on the September 17 date. When they had finished, the entire convention rose to its feet and gave both officers a tremendous ovation.

It appears that the proudest person watching the presentation of the plaque and bond, was Mrs. Warren.

HEADS ACCOUNTANTS

At the annual meeting of The Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants at Boyne Falls, Mich. on June 28, Albert P. Teetzel, Grosse Pointe Farms, was elected president for the coming year. By virtue of this position, Mr. Teetzel becomes a member of the American Institute of CPA's Council, the governing body of that organization. Through the Michigan (State) Association is completely autonomous, it works very closely with the American Institute of CPAs which governs the profession nationally.

Obituaries

CHRISTINA MUIR VAN HUSAN NEWBERRY

Funeral services for Mrs. Newberry, 77, one of the grande dames of Detroit society, and widow of Phelps Newberry, were held on Tuesday, July 6, in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. She died on Saturday, July 3, in her 251 Cloverly road residence, "Cloverdown." She had remained active in the Detroit social scene until her death.

Mrs. Newberry, a third generation Detroit, served on many civic projects. She was a "Grey Lady" volunteer for the American Red Cross in both world wars.

She was a member of the Garden Club of Michigan, Junior League of Detroit, Sigma Gamma Association and the Society of Arts and Crafts. She also devoted much time to Grosse Pointe Memorial Church and previously headed the Needle Guild of American in Detroit.

Her 1916 wedding to Phelps Newberry marked the joining of two of Detroit's most distinguished families, the Van Husans and Newberrys.

The Van Husans were pioneers in railroads and merchandising while the Newberrys were active in Michigan lumbering.

Mrs. Newberry's father-in-law, Truman Newberry, was Secretary of the Navy under Theodore Roosevelt and later was a United States senator.

Her husband died in 1949. He was a longtime civic leader.

She is survived by her sons, Phelps Jr., of Philadelphia; Truman H., of Stratford, Pa.; a daughter, Mrs. James D. Darling II, of Villanova, Pa.; and 10 grandchildren.

Arrangements were handled by the William R. Hamilton Company. Interment was in Elmwood Cemetery.

Memorial tributes may be sent to The Tribute Fund of United Foundation, 607 Shelby street, Detroit, Mich., 48226.

MARTHA W. BECKER

Funeral services for Mrs. Becker, 1314 Wayburn road, were held on Sunday, July 4, in the Verheyden Funeral Home. She died on Friday, July 2, in St. Mary's Nursing Home, at the age of 93.

A native Detroit, Mrs. Becker is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Alma Larson; a sister, Mrs. Emma Hafele; three grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Interment was in Evergreen Cemetery.

JACK WARREN STEPHENSON

A memorial service for Mr. Stephenson, 50, of 475 Fisher road, was held on Friday, July 2, in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. He died suddenly on Tuesday, June 29.

Mr. Stephenson was sales manager of the automotive division of the Columbus Coated Fabric Company.

He was a varsity football tackle for three years at Ohio State University, winning All-American recognition in 1941. He played in the 1942 College All-Star Game in Chicago.

Mr. Stephenson served as a Navy Lieutenant in the Pacific

A Cabaret Party is slated for Friday, July 9, at the War Memorial. Highlights of the evening will be a talent show featuring AFS students and the Alumni Choir of Grosse Pointe South High School singing international songs.

A meeting and panel discussion with members of The Inner City Business Improvement Forum will be held on Saturday, at Christ Church Grosse Pointe, followed by an informal tour of the area.

The students will travel to Meadowbrook on Sunday, for a picnic lunch and Arthur Fiedler Pops Concert.

Cranbrook in Bloomfield Hills will be the site of conferences and orientation sessions on Monday, July 12.

That evening, a Bob-Lo cruise, complete with a fireboat display and a visit to the mallboat to collect student letters, is planned.

A final get-together at Cranbrook on Tuesday, marks the end of the AFS students' year-long stay in the United States.

The purpose of this End-of-Stay visit in The Pointe is to broaden students' perspectives by bringing them in contact with other foreign students with whom they can share their American experiences and help provide a transition period cushioning the break from their American foster parents.

AFS International Scholarships conduct world-wide scholarship programs for 16 to 18 year old students in 64 countries. By encouraging participants to examine their own attitudes while gaining insights into the feelings and aspirations of others, AFS seeks to promote understanding between people throughout the world.

More than 50,000 scholarship recipients from 80 countries have had the opportunity to experience family and school life in other lands for over 25 years. A non-profit, non-political organization AFS originated during World War I as a volunteer ambulance service.

Scouts Receive Drama Badges

Members of Junior Girl Scout Troop 820 of Maire School rehearsed for three months for their play, "The King's Creampuffs," which they recently presented to students, parents and friends.

Members of the cast included Sara Fischer, Mary Day, Cynthia Ryan, Sue Leverniz, Kim Grow and Laurie Miller.

More were Anne Derhammer, Jeanne Cox, Judy Carlson, Erin Kelly, Carolyn Reisig, Sally Russell, Carolyn Traum, Jo Ellen Spada, Pat Wade and Jackie Cox.

Other troop members worked on scenery, costumes and properties. They were Barbara Carlon, Beth Chapin, Nancy Rousseau, Julie Draper, Amy Derhammer, Cynthia Dillon, Lori Palms, Jill Voigt, Carol Cazabon, Vicki Lodge, Mary Ann Linclau and Julia Derhammer.

Troop leaders Mrs. Donald Unger and Mrs. John Leverniz had excellent assistance from the scouts' mothers.

The purpose of the play was to fulfill the last requirement of the "Troop Dramatics" badge, which was awarded to each girl at the Maire Scouts' Father-Daughter Banquet held recently in Fries Auditorium.

Park Wins Big In Shores Meet

Grosse Pointe Shores held its third annual Shores relay Saturday, June 26. A very fine Grosse Pointe Park swimming team finished with eight firsts in the 13 event meet.

The order of finishes in the meet: first, the Park, 150 points; second, the Shores, 136 points; third, the Woods, 82 points; fourth, the City, 76 points; and fifth, the Farms and St. Clair Shores with 62 points each.

In the 200 yard medley relay event for boys, 12 and under, the Woods' Peter Koenig, Jim Shook, Shawn Lakin and John Ewardt won the race with a 2:54.1 time.

In the same event for girls 12 and under, the Shores' Vic Vorhees, Sue Sattler, Ann Hoffman, and Kim Purdy won with a 2:49.0 time.

The Shores also won in the 200 yard medley relay event for boys 14 and under while swimming a 2:16.1 time. The winners were Kirk Barker, Hank Kuhlman, Chuck Riddle, and Mark Craig.

Girls, 15 to 17 years old, from the Park won the same event, swimming a 2:29.4 time. The Park girls are Mickey Montagne, Carmel Schwarz, Augie Reeves, and Star Hessburg.

There were eight different classifications for the 200 yard free relay event. Winning the boys 10 and under division with a 2:38.7 time were Park swimmers John Hessburg, Tom Gaitley, Jim McCarthy, and Steve Soderberg.

The Park again came out on top in the girls' 10 and under division with Laura McCarthy, Debbie King, Cynthia Davidson, and Laurie Disantis swimming a 2:50.5 time.

Boys from the Shores swam a 2:26.4 time to win the 12 and under division. They were Gord Haigh, John Dimond, Ken Murray, and Matt Brady.

The girls' 12 and under division was won by Park tankers Laura Mower, Mary Achwarz, Kelly Doelle and Karen Czekowicz. The best time was 2:36.3.

The Park took the lead again in the 13 and 14 year old boys' category with Mike Gaitley, Steve Mower, Bob Czekowicz and Brian Moulton coming up with a 2:03.6 time.

In the girls' 13 and 14 year old division, Park swimmers Jane Gaitley, Marsha Maurer, Star Hessburg and Becky Smith led the field with a 2:12.2 time.

Shores 15 to 17 year old boys won their division in the 200 free relay, recording a magnificent 1:50.3 time. The leaders were Mike Dimond, Rich Russell, Sam Trupiano, and Dominic Cusumano.

In the final 200 free event, the girls' 15 to 17 division, Park swimmers were again in the lead with Carmel Schwarz, Mary O'Donnell, Mary Mower and Ann Crowley swimming a 2:12.9 time.

The final event of the afternoon was the crescendo relay in which eight swimmers sprint 25 yards, 50 yards, 75 yards, two 100-yard races, 75 yards, 50 yards, and 25 yards. After dominating the 200 yard relays, the Park swimmers again led the field, swimming the entire 500 yards in 5:39. The winning tankers in that event were Laura McCarthy, Megan Montagne, Mary O'Donnell, Mick Montagne, Bob Czekowicz, Chip Gauthier, Tom Hessburg, and John Hessburg.

St. John Opens New Care Unit

Saint John Hospital's new Intensive Care Unit was officially opened with the ribbon cutting by Sister Verence McQuade, superior general of the Sisters of Saint Joseph on Friday, June 18, at dedication ceremonies. Assisting in the ribbon cutting were Mrs. Roland M. Rinke and Mrs. Cyril Kruger, together with Mrs. Mark Valente, Jr., C. Bradword Lundy, James Auito, M.D., James T. Farley and James J. Humes, M.D.

The new unit, which will receive its first patients the following week, is one of the largest and most technologically advanced such units in Michigan. It contains a full range for up to thirteen patients. From a central nursing station all patients can be monitored both visually and electronically.

It replaces the hospital's first Intensive Care Unit which has been housed in temporary quarters since 1966. It will increase the hospital's intensive care bed capacity by more than 60 percent. In addition to this unit, the hospital has two other intensive care units, the 10-bed Coronary Care Unit, opened in 1968, and the 12-bed Neo-Natal Intensive Care Unit opened in 1970.

Intensive care units are highly specialized facilities offering constant observation and care to patients who can benefit from this level of care. Patients are those with severe

Also members may compete in the play-offs with winners from other center tournaments to be held in Port Huron. The purpose is not only just to win in that tourney but to gain ranking and qualification to the United States National Tournament held in Kalamazoo later this summer.

The Grosse Pointe tourney, encompassing four age brackets, included 150 participants playing at different area courts.

The results in the 18 and under bracket include: singles boys: Mark Thomson defeated Tom Van LoKeren, 5-7, 6-2, 6-3. Girls: Julie McClure defeated Lynn Donnell, 6-2, 7-5.

Boys doubles: Matt Vanderkloot and Jim Whims defeated Mark Thomson and Mike Thomson, 6-4, 6-2.

In the 16 and under bracket for boys singles, Kevin McNulty defeated Jim Whims, 7-5, 6-1. Girls: Barbara Quenville defeated Cathy Mascarini, 6-3, 7-5.

Boys doubles: Kevin McNulty and Chuck Caulkins defeated Henry Kuchta and Jeff Schatzberg, 6-1, 6-3.

In the 14 and under bracket, boys singles Ken Thomas defeated Brian Murray, 6-1, 6-0. Girls: Debbie Mascarini defeated Barbara Seldin, 6-1, 6-0.

Boys doubles: Jim Everett and Jim Manning defeated Bill Ford and Larry Buhl, 8-6, 6-2. Girls doubles: Debbie Mascarini and Barbara Seldin defeated Julie Sutherland and Sheila Peck, 6-2, 6-0.

In the 12 and under boys singles Joe Murray defeated Harry Jewett, 2-6, 6-4, 6-4. Girls: Kris Fulgenzi defeated Kathy Krichstein, 6-3, 6-1.

In the Michigan Jaycee Tournament in Jackson June 26 and 27, Grosse Pointe's Matt Vanderkloot and Jim Whims were defeated in the boys' 18 and under doubles event by Muskegon's Dave Emig and Jeff Balgooyen, 4-6, 6-2, 6-2.

In the girls' 18 and under division, Julie McClure and Ginger Horne defeated Lynn Donald and Carole Mascarini, 1-6, 6-0, 7-5. All four are Pointers.

Kevin McNulty, from The Pointe, was defeated by Kalamazoo's Greg Hodgman, 2-6, 6-1, 7-5, in the boys' 16 and under event. The boys' 16 and under doubles saw Kevin McNulty and Chuck Caulkins, Grosse Pointe, lose to Glenn Johnson and Rick French of Port Huron, 6-4, 4-6, 6-2.

Finally, in the girls' 16 and under doubles event, Sherry and Judy Acker, of Kalamazoo, defeated Grosse Pointe's Barbara Quenville and Cheryl Madsen, 6-0, 6-1.

Monday, in the final week of the regular season, the Red Sox bested the Tigers, 6-2. Keith Williams took the win, with Dave Flood, Dave Edmunds and Craig Williams working in relief because of the extreme heat. For the Sox, Dave Edmunds had two hits including a double and drove in three runs. For the Tigers Steve Threme collected a double and triple.

Tuesday, the Pirates roughed up the Phillies 8-1, with Kurt Studing getting his third straight win. The attack was led by John Knipp's home run off the roof of the recreation building, and Jay Williams first of the season. Tony Senogore had a double and single to aid the Pirate cause.

The same day the Indians beat the Red Legs, 8-7 on a four-bagger by John Case. Dan Couvreur accounted for two of those hits for the Reds with two home runs and a total of four RBI's. John Case had a double and single for his own cause. Four other Indians contributed two hits, namely Joe Vier, Tim Murtagh, John Hasse and Jim Font. Chick Taylor had three hits, two singles and a double.

Wednesday, it was the Indians again, this time blanking the Pirates 12-0. Joe Vier scattered five hits, whiffed 10, to get the win. Herb Hagermoser and Joe Vier paced the attack with a trio of safeties apiece. Jim Font and Chuck Dwyer, playing in their last game added a pair of hits each.

Thursday, the Red Sox downed the Giants, 7-3 with Keith Williams taking the win with relief help from Craig Williams. For the winners Keith Williams had two doubles and Dave Edmunds two hits. For the Giants Bob Neville had two hits with Ken Stockwell getting a double. Jeff Oetting turned in a spectacular game ending play, spearing a line drive down the third base line.

Also Thursday, the Phillies and the Yankees played to a 10-10 tie in extra innings called on account of darkness. For the Yankees, Bob Schmitt had three hits including two homers, Bill Cody had two hits including a home run as did Randy Walworth. For the Phillies Kirk Purdy had three hits, Bill Gaff, two, and Rick Thomas, two, including a home run.

Saturday, July 3, in a well played defensive game the American League representatives, Tigers, Yankees, Indians, Red Sox, plus the Phillies, defeated the National League, Reds, Pirates and Giants, in the 12 year old Senior Game.

Hitters for the winners were Mike Lizza with two, Keith Williams, Dave Moore, Bill Gaff with a homer and Brian Grimes one each. Other extra base hits besides Gaff's homer, were doubles by Jay Williams and Dave Moore. For the losers the hitters were Bob Neville, Dan Couvreur, Darrell Graham, Kevin Burns, Dave Bastianelli and Jay Williams with one each.

Sharing the pitching for the American League were Joe Goraki, winning pitcher, Rick Thomas, Keith Williams, Bill Cody, Bob Schmidt and Jamie Champion. For the losers mound duties were divided between Dan Couvreur, Bob Neville, Art Wilkins, Kurt Studing, Tony Senogore and Chris Block.

National League manager, and league president, Chris Cotzias' devious methods to pull the game out in the final inning was thwarted by the alertness of the winning American coaching staff.

The Braves, champions of the National League, continued their winning ways by defeating the Giants in the final game of the season for both teams. The Giants led for most of the game as a result of a tremendous grand slam home run off the bat of Dave Costa. However, the Braves fought back in the last inning to pull the victory out.

The winning pitcher for the Braves was Dave Smaha. The Braves finished the second round with 10 wins and no losses and a winning streak of 13 games.

The second round in the American League ended in a deadlock with the Yankees and the Indians having identical records of eight wins and two losses. As a result of this tie a playoff was necessary to determine the winner of the second round.

The tiebreaker was won by the Indians as Bruce Wheeler bested Kevin Lane in a pitchers' duel. The final score was 3 to 2 with the game being

Public Schools in Focus

By Theos I. Anderson, Superintendent of Schools

With the end of the year upon us, it is appropriate to reflect upon the events of the last 12 months. The tragedy of the year is the curtailment of staff and program for 1971-72 necessitated by the March 15 millage defeat. And although countless other serious problems presented themselves, the year was also marked by major successes: Student achievement continues to be high and the long overdue renovation of South High School moves closer to reality. Did our school system meet the goals for 1970-71 set for it at the public hearing on the budget?

I can honestly state that definite progress has been made in each of the 25 goals enumerated for concentrated attention.

For example, we have attempted to devise improved programs of communication with the various publics in our community and to encourage more dialogue about the schools and their programs. We have continued to encourage and to coordinate effective curriculum development at the building-departmental level. And we have continued to search for more effective methods of combating the substance abuse problem.

We have expanded research and development activities by conducting in-service workshops for staff, by providing guidance in the implementation and interpretation of educational assessment programs encouraged at the state and national levels, and we have done additional study into the causes of local social problems. We have developed plans for the implementation of new curricula outlined in staff-written papers in the second phase of the Professional Study Committee.

In addition, we have continued to identify, to employ, and to keep the best possible staff. We have sought to devise better techniques and instruments to be used in the evaluation of the staff. And we have worked with the staff to determine whether there are more efficient means to organize the teaching faculty for instructional purposes.

We have also studied the current allocation of personnel in all departments and schools. We initiated a diagnostic screening clinic for all four-year olds in the district to identify those with special educational needs. And we offered a new program of education for those four-year olds identified as having a potential learning disability.

We sought a permanent, more central location for the program for the trainable retarded. We have continued to cooperate with the staff and community agents to seek solutions to the drug problem.

We have continued to study the data processing operation. We developed a proposal for the improvement of the South High plant that was supported by the trustees and approved by the total community.

We reviewed and refined budget practices regarding expenditures in various accounts and we continued our sound business and financial practices and examined them critically. We encouraged and emphasized the need for additional economies in system-wide procedures.

We assisted legislators and other educators in seeking solutions to the growing number of serious financial problems faced by public education. We continued to utilize school facilities for all Grosse Pointe citizens through a wide program of recreational, educational, and cultural activities.

We maintained and improved current programs in Adult Education and after-school swimming. We laid groundwork for negotiations for 1971-72 year.

We continued to meet the day-to-day public library needs of the community with an emphasis on developing and maintaining a lifelong habit of using available services. We attempted to provide for the specialized demands of the steadily-increasing use of the library facilities by stay-at-home college students. Continued to work closely with community groups.

The staff is now formulating goals for local education for the 1971-72 year.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

Last night I had an experience which bears repeating for the good of all. Two friends and I were returning by car from the Woods Theater around 10 o'clock. After I dropped my friends at their homes, I passed 10 to 15 bicyclists of all ages, traveling both with and against traffic. Of those 10 to 15, only one had a light on the front of his bike. It probably would not have bothered me had I not almost turned into one of these dark-clothed cyclists traveling without a light.

I wish to offer a plea to all those who enjoy cycling on a summer evening. For your own safety, please carry a light on the front of your bike. A bike light is ideal but if you do not have one, a flashlight should be fastened to the handlebars.

Before someone is killed because a nighttime motorist does not see a passing cyclist shrouded by darkness, all nighttime bike riders should get a working front light and use it.

Sincerely,
 Miranda C. Herbert
 St. Clair Avenue

To The Editor:

I recently attended a Farms Little League game between the Pirates and the Yankees, which the Yankees won. Through the course of this game, there were many close plays the umpire had to call, and most were in favor of the Yankees. Meanwhile, the less-qualified eyes of Pirates' fans saw most of these plays differently, in favor of the Pirates.

I'm not commending the umpire, as there were calls that I questioned too. Instead, I would like to ask the parents of the Pirates to accept their sons' loss as a loss and not to pardon it as an act of malice by the umpire.

Sincerely,
 Geoff Simonds
 221 Moran Rd.

To The Editor:

At a time when most news concerning youth is of a negative nature, it is with great pleasure that this letter is written to commend a group of young Grosse Pointers who gave their time, knowledge, and enthusiasm to manage, coach, and keep score for the Farms AAA Hollywood team, Bob (manager), Jim, Mike, and Tom Gotfredson, coaches; John Hays, Dave Peacock, and Lee Danaher, score keeper, deserve public commendation for the outstanding job done.

The courteous sportsmanlike attitude and sense of fair play they manifested and thus instilled in their team are the positive kinds of images and leadership needed not only for the younger generation but for the older as well. (Some adult managers and coaches would do well to follow this lead!)

The many young friends and family of the aforementioned people who came to lend support were an added positive influence on the team as was the "esprit" of the entire Gotfredson family.

Therefore, we, the parents of the Hollywood players wish to say THANK YOU, Bob, Jim, Mike, Tom, Dave, John, and Lee, and we hope that by means of this letter in the Student Tutors Prove Helpful

This year students from Grosse Pointe High School North and South were involved in a new volunteer tutorial program in several elementary schools and at Pierce Middle School. Under the guidance of Mrs. Louise TeWalt, Volunteer Coordinator for the Neighborhood Club, the students were assigned as a group to Maire, Richard, Barnes, Pierce, and Poupard schools.

The high school students were recruited last fall to help youngsters requiring assistance in math and reading. Elementary school teachers recommended pupils, with the permission of the child and parents (and after orientation and teachers' guidance) the high school students were assigned to a school near their home, and the program started. Children were assigned on a "one to one" basis, "big sister" and "big brother," (as some of the students call their tutors).

Most of the tutorial programs were conducted after school for one or two afternoons a week. Richard School had a few Seniors from South High who began their duties at 2 p.m., following dismissal.

News you will realize how very much you are appreciated by us as well as our children. We hope, too, that others will join us in commending such positive efforts of youth.

What Goes On at Your Library
 By Virginia Leonard

Beginning July 1, we shall be losing two of our top-flight professional assistants at the Central Library—one who has resigned and one who is retiring.

Central patrons will certainly know who these ladies are—Mrs. Robert McCoy (known as "Jane" to all of us), and Mrs. Harold K. Daniels (whom we all call "Ruth"). They both have been functioning at our Central public service main desk (as well as other places), and have undoubtedly helped many of you to find a certain book, answered a reference question, or been useful to you in some other library way.

Mrs. McCoy attended Library School at the University of Buffalo (now known as the University of New York State at Buffalo-SUNY). She and her husband came into our area about five years ago, she worked for us as a substitute for a short period of time, and then, three years ago, became a full-time professional substitute. Previous experience?

She had worked as a librarian in Montclair, New Jersey, and before that in the Buffalo Public Library and University of Buffalo Library. Jane's husband, Bob, is taking an early retirement from the Fairmont Foods Company (where he has worked for 39 years!), and soon the two of them will be off for Florida—on the Gulf Coast near Clearwater. Currently they seem to be deeply involved in selling their house, some of their excess furniture, belongings, etc. but once that is all over with they look forward to gracious but active living, with much golf and bowling included in the schedule. Jane tells me they are contemplating the purchase of bicycles also, and I'm sure swimming will be in the picture too.

Their younger son, just graduated from the University of Alabama, will be soon going South also, and there is an elder son, his wife and grandchildren (2) in Pittsburgh who are already talking of visiting the McCoy's at Christmas time. (My guess is that with two youngsters to be considered, they will be visiting Florida sooner than December!)

The McCoy's older son is in the investment business, having graduated from Harvard and Harvard Business School.

It's really like rubbing salt in the wounds, but our other departing professional assistant, Mrs. Daniels, will be retiring to Florida also. A fellow Illini of Mr. Orr's, Ruth received her library degree from the University of Illinois (on a fellowship), having been recruited by a librarian from the State of Oklahoma (Ruth's home stamping grounds).

Her first professional position? The East Cleveland Public Library, where she was a general assistant, and very soon a Branch Librarian. (Ah, good old East Cleveland where I grew up as a child, and where our family used this same library! Yes I know, it's a small world.)

Next move—Painesville, O., where Ruth worked as a consultant in several Lake County Libraries, and later helped organize the Geauga County Library. When her husband, Dan, went back to Cleveland in the early forties, Ruth, of course, went right along, and was involved with the Cuyahoga County Library again. In 1964, the Daniels were transferred to Detroit and Ruth, ever eager to be useful as a librarian, worked for two years in the Royal Oak Public Library.

In 1966, Mrs. Daniels decided she wanted to work part-time, so she contacted Mr. Orr, worked two weeks part time, and then became a full time professional assistant in the Grosse Pointe Public Library.

What are Ruth's current ambitions and plans? First she wants to sell her house, (she and Jane McCoy have just finished running a most successful garage sale.) Then, on to Florida, near Englewood, where she will be in charge of a retirement project, started by her husband many years ago. With this land development project, plus all the other wonderful distractions of Florida, we privately feel that she will be just as busy down South as she has been up North!

We certainly wish Jane McCoy and Ruth Daniels well (and furiously envy them.) I sometimes think idly of starting a Grosse Pointe Public Library safari, (I'm sure these ladies will have loads of extra room), where those of us left up North could spend our holidays and vacations. We would stagger our visits, of course! Seriously, we shall certainly miss Jane and Ruth, but we wish them well, and will think of them often. Since these two positions, due to millage defeats, will not be replaced, we shall have to work that much harder to fill their shoes, if fill them we could. Bon voyage, girls!

The program at Pierce Middle School revolved around requests for high school students to assist with certain subjects where a sixth or seventh grader encountered problems in a class.

In evaluation sessions held recently, everyone seemed pleased with the program: Young students showed improvement; high school students were more than enthusiastic with their role as "assistants" and appreciated the warm reception they received from the school staff, parents and the children.

In addition to assisting Richard, Maire, and Pierce, South High students helped as study hall assistants at the Protestant Children's home and served at Christian Day School. The North High School students, who had been assisting at Barnes, also initiated a program at Poupard.

In addition to the Tutorial Program, volunteers from both schools worked at the Central and Woods branches of the public libraries, a division of the schools.

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

There was a wedding at Mr. and Mrs. Walter Buhl Ford, II's Provencal road home this June—well, actually, the wedding was in Christ Church, but the RECEPTION following daughter Josephine Clay Ford's marriage to John William Ingle, Jr. was at home . . . still, Dodie Ford, honorary chairman with Mrs. Lynn A. Townsend of Tennis and Crumpets, Inc., 1971, found time in the midst of all her mother-of-the-bride activities to sign some 400 T&C patron letters. They went in the mail several weeks ago.

Invitations to participate in the Tennis and Crumpets tournament benefitting Children's Hospital of Michigan, scheduled for the weekend of September 11 and 12 with finals to be played the following week-end, will be posted July 15.

Another Huron City Summer

Carolyn Hubbard and Russell Lucas left East Jefferson avenue in mid-June, taking a quick swing through the East, stopping at Yale, where Russ rendezvoused with his 55th reunion class, and spending few days with Carolyn's sister, Mrs. Barton Hemingway, in Watertown, Conn.

And now it's time for another Huron City Summer . . .

Fourth of July weekend, for the 18th consecutive year, Carolyn's beloved "Pioneer Huron City" at the top of Michigan's thumb opened its museums to the public. They will remain open through Labor Day.

In all there are seven museum buildings, with 10 exhibits. One is a brick museum, containing books, furnishings and mementos of the life of William Lyon Phelps. One is Mrs. Helen Joy Lee's very extensive, very beautiful travel museum.

"The others," explains Carolyn, "are the original buildings of my Grandfather Hubbard's lumbering town, dating from about 1850 when he came to Michigan."

Hutzel League Plans Project

The Volunteer League of Hutzel Hospital will sponsor a fund-raising luncheon and bridge tournament at the handsome estate of the late Mrs. A.D. Wilkinson in Lakeshore road at noon Tuesday, July 20.

Mrs. Warren S. Wilkinson, of East Jefferson avenue, president of the League and organizer of the bridge tournament, said arrangements have been made to accommodate 100 players at 25 tables.

Mr. Wilkinson, an amateur bridge expert, will direct the tournament. Prizes will include imported foods, wine and perfume, and cocktails and lunch will be served in the garden, with the tournament staged indoors.

Funds raised by the League have been donated to Hutzel to buy a heart catheterization laboratory and supportive equipment, an artificial kidney machine, a cobalt therapy unit, a special surgical table, 100 electrically-controlled beds, nursery equipment, and audi-visual nurse call system, and furniture for a chapel and a patient lounge.

Funds also have been raised for renovation of Hutzel's emergency room.

The League donates time to the Hospital through a variety of activities such as operating gift and coffee shops and a lending library part and staffing the information desk and out-patient services.

During the summer the League is augmented by teen aged "candy strippers" who wait on tables in the coffee shop, distribute mail to patients and help by performing small personal favors for the patients.

League members serving on the Bridge Tournament committee include Sally Van de Yentert, Ginny Chauvin, past-president, Dorothy Hunt, Lucille Watson, Libby Reeves and Nina Dahling.

In Saint Paul's-on-the-Lakeshore Saturday, July 3, MARGARET MARY COUZENS became Mrs. Crandall's bride. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Couzens, Jr., of Lothrop road. The William H. Crandalls, of Beaconsfield avenue, are the bridegroom's parents.

Miss Couzens Says Vows In St. Paul's

Papal Blessing Is Bestowed Upon Michael William Crandalls, Who Are Vacationing in Canada After Their Saturday Wedding

Saint Paul's-on-the-Lakeshore was the setting for the Saturday, July 3, wedding of Margaret Mary Couzens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Couzens, Jr., of Lothrop road, and Michael William Crandall, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Crandall, of Beaconsfield avenue.

The Right Reverend Monsignor Frank J. McPhillips celebrated the nuptial mass at which Theodore H. Mecke, Jr., served as lector and William Ulrich Couzens, the bride's brother, John Manning Couzens, the bride's youngest brother, Patrick Crandall, the bridegroom's brother and Hart Mecke as acolytes.

A Papal Blessing was bestowed upon the couple who left, following a reception at the bride's parents' home, for a vacation in Canada. They will return to reside in Detroit.

For the 12:30 o'clock ceremony the former Miss Couzens selected a gown of white dotted swiss, floor length and fashioned with long, full sleeves and a high neckline trimmed with buttercup yellow daisies.

Her gathered skirt was accented with a yellow waistline ribbon and her picture hat was woven with satin. She carried phalaenopsis orchids and ivy.

Daisies of white Venice lace were scattered over the Empire bodices of her two attendants' sleeveless frocks of buttercup yellow linen. They wore small daisies in their hair and carried wicker baskets filled with white daisies and ivy.

Honor maid was Katherine Ayrault. Mary Carol Couzens served as her sister's bridesmaid.

Best man was Paul Louisell. Frank Couzens, III, the bride's brother, Joseph McFawn and David and Charles Crandall, the bridegroom's brothers, ushered.

A ruffie accented the portrait neckline of the blue, aqua and purple floral organza dress Mrs. Couzens chose for her daughter's wedding. She pinned white carnations to her purse.

The bridegroom's mother selected an Empire-waisted costume of pale pink silk knit and a corsage of pink carnations.

Enjoying a recent weekend cruise to Nassau were HAROLD and ARLENE CONNELL, of McMillan road.

Garden Council Officers Meet

The Executive committee of the Grosse Pointe Garden Club Council met June 30 in the Kercheval avenue home of its newly elected president Mrs. Urban W. Boresch.

The Council is made up of delegates from all regularly-organized Garden Clubs within the Grosse Pointe area and is a medium through which the various clubs may cooperate in better service to the community.

Others members serving as Council officers and committee chairmen for the coming year are Mrs. Norman J. Summers, vice-president, Mrs. George F. Ryckman, recording secretary, Mrs. Henry C. Hollister, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Henry Ledyard, treasurer.

Civic Improvement committee chairman is Mrs. James Gram, Jr., publicity chairman Mrs. Pierre Palmentier and conservation chairman Miss Christine Edwards.

To Get Cottage Its Dishwasher

Embroidered pillowcases, crocheted handkerchiefs, and homemade strawberry jam are playing a role in the purchase of a modern dishwasher for the new kitchen in the Dietary Department of Cottage Hospital.

The 34 Department employees are selling each other these items—along with other things they have made, including cosmetic bag sets and floral centerpieces.

Proceeds from their June sale — $32.10 — were turned over to Cottage Administrator Ralph L. Wilgarde with a note, "For the dishwasher, from the Dietary Gang."

Their personal interest in the new kitchen goes beyond

N. McNaughton, Peter B. Johnstone, elected a few months ago, Alfred R. Glancy, Jr., Gilbert B. Pingree, James L. Schroth, Frederick L. Colby, Jr., and Mrs. Frank S. Perkin.

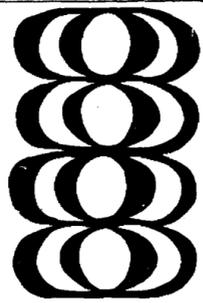

More are Berrien C. Eaton, George D. Hatie, John O. Peters, Mrs. George R. Fink, Eugene W. Lewis, III, and Mrs. Oliver Dewey Marcks.

Among honorary board members are Pointers Mrs. Wilson W. Mills and Mrs. George M. Slocum.

Women Assist Symphony Fund

Several Pointers were guests at a dinner at the Detroit Athletic Club Tuesday evening, July 6, heralding the start of the Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony's participation in the Orchestra's 1971 Maintenance Fund Campaign.

Mrs. Phillip R. Flanders of Bloomfield Hills, for the second year in a row, is Symphony Maintenance Fund Campaign chairman for the Women's Association. Her vice-chairmen are Mrs. John T. McMullen, of Detroit, (individual gifts), and Mrs. Gene A. White, of Birmingham and Orchard Lake, (small businesses and manufacturers).

Present at the DAC dinner were Pointer Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Semple, (he's president of the Detroit Symphony), Mr. and Mrs. David D. Williams, (he is chairman of the Symphony's 1971 Maintenance Fund Campaign), Mr. and Mrs. R. Alexander Wrigley, (she's Women's Association president), and Mr. and Mrs. Wesley DeLacy, (he's on the Symphony staff).

Other Pointers on the guest list were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas V. LoCicero, Mrs. C. Dale Barrett, Mr. and Mrs. Bogdan Baynert, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Bundesen, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Kazmarek and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Schoenheit. The aforementioned women are serving as divisional chairmen.

The Maintenance Fund Campaign gives each person in the community a chance to contribute, according to his pocketbook, to the support of one of the area's greatest cultural ornaments, the Detroit Symphony. No gift is too small—or too large.

Those contributing $25 or more become Symphony "Impresarios," with special privileges.

Mrs. John T. McMullen will gather her workers, including many localities, for a tea and briefing session at the Bishop road home of the R. Alexander Wrigleys later in July.

Mrs. Philip H. Power

At a ceremony in the woods near her family's cabin at the Huron Mountain Club Monday, July 5, SARAH HUTCHINS GODDARD and Mr. Power were married. She is the daughter of the Wendell C. Goddards, of Provençal road. He is the son of the Eugene Barnum Powers, of Ann Arbor.

Dr. John Doelle Weds in West

Dr. John Charles Doelle, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Doelle, of Berkshire road, claimed Linda Gail Hood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Henry Hood, of Vancouver, Wash., as his bride Saturday, June 12, in Vancouver's Trinity Lutheran Church.

The former Miss Hood, graduated as a nurse from Pacific Lutheran College, Tacoma, Wash., chose a lacy-voiced white gown for her wedding and carried a bouquet of white daisies.

She was attended by Mrs. Ralph McKenzie, of Seattle, Wash., in a yellow silk frock, carrying yellow daisies.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Duke University and the University of Michigan Medical School, asked Dr. David Kinser, of Seattle, to act as best man.

Dr. Peter Grotuss, of Tacoma, and Bryan Doelle, the bridegroom's brother, ushered.

After a reception at the Inn at the Quay the newlyweds left for a vacation along the Oregon coast. They are making their home in Tacoma where the bridegroom is serving a residency at Madigan General Hospital.

Miss Goddard Wed To Philip H. Power

Setting for Ceremony is Woods Near Goddard Family Cabin at the Huron Mountain Club; Her Nephews Are Ring Bearers

Sarah Hutchins Goddard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell C. Goddard, of Provençal road, and Philip Harwick Power, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Barnum Power, of Ann Arbor, exchanged marriage vows Monday, July 5.

Officiating at the ceremony in the woods near the Goddard family cabin at the Huron Mountain Club was the Reverend Frank Pitt, minister emeritus of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

The bride's long Swiss organza gown featured pink and green flowers embroidered on a white background. Her attendants' frocks were short, fashioned of cotton lace over pale green silk.

Mrs. Michael Whiteman was her sister's matron of honor and Mary McDonald Dykema, a cousin, was maid of honor. Two nephews of the bride, Jonathan Ross Russel Goddard and William Morrison Goddard, aged six and five respectively, were ring bearers. They wore white sailor suits, William's first worn by the bride's cousin, Jere Dykema, at the wedding of the bride's parents in 1931.

Flower girl Eloise Bingham Goddard, aged three, carried a basket of greens.

Allan Stillwagon, a classmate of the bridegroom at the University of Michigan, was best man. Ushering were Dr. Peter Eckstein and Dr. Peter M. Dawson, two other University of Michigan classmates, David M. Logan and David M. D. Mills, classmates of the bridegroom at University College, Oxford, Russel H. Goddard and Wendell H. Goddard, brothers of the bride, and her brother-in-law Michael Whiteman.

The bride received her Bachelor of Arts degree from Vassar College, where she was president of the College Government Association, and her Master of Arts from New York University.

Before her marriage she was executive director of the United States United Nations New York City Host Country Advisory Committee, a policy-making body chaired by Major

Terry A. Krutz Claims Bride

Terry Arnold Krutz, son of Mrs. Fred Krutz, of Ridgemont road, and the late Mr. Krutz, claimed Linda Kathryn Bodis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bodis, of Detroit, as his bride Friday, July 2.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony in Grosse Pointe United Methodist Church was the Reverend Perry A. Thomas.

For the 7 o'clock rites the bride selected a Victorian style ankle length gown of ivory crepe. Fresh flowers in her hair matched the flowers in her traditional bridal bouquet.

Debbie Bodis was her sister's honor maid and Mike Mathers served as the bridegroom's best man.

After a dinner reception at Schiavi's the couple left for a brief wedding trip. They are returning to reside in Courtville avenue, Detroit.

New York Governor Nelson A. Rockefeller and assistant to the secretary of the Associate Alumnae of Vassar College.

After being graduated Phi Beta Kappa from the University of Michigan, where he was a member of the Student Government Council and editorial director of The Michigan Daily, the student newspaper, the bridegroom took a Master of Arts degree from England's Oxford University, where he was a Marshall Scholar at University College.

He is publisher of Observer Newspapers, Inc., a group of Michigan suburban papers. Previously he served as administrative assistant to U.S. Representative Paul H. Todd, Jr., of Kalamazoo, as a member of the Chicago Daily News Foreign Service and as city editor of The Fairbanks Daily News-Miner in Alaska.

New Bryn Afon Season Starts

Metropolitan Airport was alive with the voices of happy girls as this year's group of young Pointers boarded their plane for the flight to Camp Bryn Afon in Rhinelander, Wis.

Among those who have elected to spend their summer in the cool northwoods are Libby Candler, Carol Chicoine, Karen Coulter, Katie Higbie, Ann Hoffman, Kris Hoffman, Deborah Holley, Jennifer Hudson, Julie Johnson, Leslie McKay, Eula McKee, Pamela MacKinnon, Lisa Reichert, Cory Robertson, Tracy Sales, Jane Thurber and Tracy Whitts.

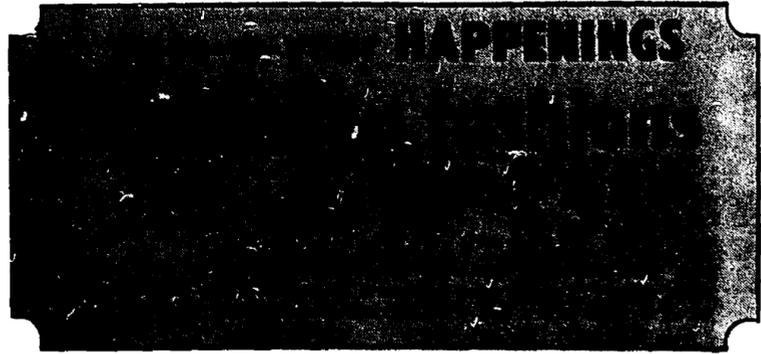

The campers were chaperoned from Detroit by Paget Humphreys, who will be a tennis counselor at CBA this summer. Pointers on hand to meet the campers' plane included camp directors Joan and Brad Aarons, assistant director Emily Baker, who is Dean of Girls at University-Liggett School, riding counselor and former camper Robin Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wright, III, camp secretary Mary Funk and Charles W. Casgrain, III.

Charlie Casgrain is the son of former camper Merrill Canfield Casgrain, who attended Bryn Afon during her Liggett School days.

Joining their friends on July 22 for the 54-year-old camp's second half-session will be Ann Carey, Jacqueline Gushee, Sara Hendric and Edith Thurber.

How would you like to see yourself in Mademoiselle Magazine?

Perhaps you will—if you're one of the girls 18 to 25 years old who will be selected for a complete make-over by the Mademoiselle experts from New York. Mademoiselle will bring a hair stylist, make-up artist, and a fashion editor to re-do you and a fashion photographer to photograph you for possible appearance in the December 1971 issue. They will all be at Hudson's Downtown, August 5 and 6; at Oakland, August 7; at Flint, August 8. If you'd like to be considered for a make-over, complete the coupon below, attach a recent photo of yourself and send to: Hudson's; Special Events; 9th floor; 1206 Woodward Avenue; Detroit, Michigan 48226. Do it today! All entries must be received by July 18. Entries will be forwarded to Mademoiselle for pre-selection. Hudson's will notify you if you have been chosen. Don't worry if you're not, though, because girls will be selected from the audience, too.

Whether you're chosen or not—come anyway, watch the fun and learn a few beauty tricks to try on your own.

Miss Lininger Bride Of George L. Joyce

Noon Rites in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church Are Followed by Reception at War Memorial's Fries Crystal Ballroom

In an A line gown of ivory organza and Alencon lace re-embroidered with seed pearls, carrying a Venetian bouquet of white roses, stephanotis, baby's-breath and ivy, Linda Clare Lininger spoke her marriage vows to George Leo Joyce Saturday, June 28.

Her gown was styled with a detachable train, Empire waist, scoop neck and cap sleeves. Her headpiece, of matching lace, seeds pearls and satin ribbon, caught an illusion veil.

Our Lady Star of the Sea Church was setting for the noon ceremony which was followed by a reception in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Fries Crystal Ballroom, after which the newlyweds left for a vacation at Black Water Falls, W. Va.

They will be making their home in St. Clair Shores.

The new Mrs. Joyce, who has been residing with the C. A. Larsen family in Lochmoor boulevard, is the daughter of Mrs. Clare Holland Lininger of Garden Grove, Calif., and John William Lininger of Tustin, Calif., both of whom flew to The Pointe for the wedding.

She was attended by bridesmaid Linda Larsen and bridesmaids Marsha Van Horn and Judy Steiner, whose apple green chiffon frocks were lace-trimmed.

They carried Colonial bouquets of yellow carnations, baby's-breath, lime green and yellow strawflowers and ivy.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Joyce, of Parkersburg, W. Va., asked Ed Mooney to act as best man and Al Baumgart and Marty O'Neill to usher.

Organist was his cousin, John Rockne Guinn, and Carole Kluska, a sorority sister of the bride, was soloist.

A pale blue chiffon dress and a corsage of white roses and carnations was Mrs. Lininger's choice for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Joyce, the bridegroom's mother, wore an aqua silk costume and chose a corsage of white roses and carnations.

Out-of-town guests included the bride's aunt, Kathleen Sherman, of Boston, Mass., and the bridegroom's brothers-in-law and sisters, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Duval, of Glenshaw, Pa. and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Brally, of Boca Raton, Fla., with their four children, Joyce, Donna, John and David.

Mrs. George L. Joyce

LINDA CLARE LININGER, of Lochmoor boulevard, and Mr. Joyce, son of the George L. Joyces, of Parkersburg, W. Va., were married Saturday, June 28, in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Clare Holland Lininger, of Garden Grove, Calif., and John William Lininger, of Tustin, Calif.

Mrs. William Seyfert

Exchanging marriage vows in Martha-Mary Chapel, Greenfield Village, Saturday, July 3, were SUSAN LYNN SMITH and Mr. Seyfert. Her parents, the Cornelius Smiths, moved recently from Fisher road to Seminole, Fla. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Seyfert, of Lebanon, Pa.

Candace Shick Is June Bride

Candace Ann Shick, daughter of former Pointers Mr. and Mrs. D. Leslie Shick, who now make their home in Ann Arbor, was married Saturday, June 19, in Ann Arbor's West Side Methodist Church to James Carl McDanold, son of the O. E. McDanolds, of Dearborn Heights.

The bride was attended by honor maid Susan McCarthy and bridesmaid Adrian Brändle, of Lansing. Gerald Gillikin served as best man. Ushers were Thomas Fales and Randall Shick, the bride's brother. Following the rites at which Dr. Milton Bank officiated the Shicks entertained at a reception in the garden of their Ann Arbor home.

Susan Lynn Smith Says Vows July 3

Susan Lynn Smith, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Smith, moved recently from Fisher road to Seminole, Fla., was married Saturday, July 3, in Greenfield Village's Martha-Mary Chapel to William Joseph Seyfert, son of the George Seyferts, of Lebanon, Pa.

The 4:30 o'clock rites at which The Reverend Ben Tallman presided were followed by a reception at Botsford Inn.

The newlyweds, vacationing in the Bahamas, will return to make their home in Center Line.

Venetian lace accented the bride's ivory peau de soie gown and her illusion veil fell from a matching cap. She carried cymbidium orchids on her mother's bible.

Honor maid Linda Stowe and bridesmaids Mrs. William Stewart and Marie Stocking wore white cotton frocks featuring satin panels edged with sprays of blue flowers and olive green leaves and Venetian lace threaded with cornflower blue ribbon.

They carried white carnation and blue strawflower bouquets and wore matching strawflowers in their hair. Acting as best man was Allen Neil Smith, the bride's brother. James Celentin and Karl Rubel ushered.

Mr. Famularo Takes A Bride

Claiming Kathryn Ann Pittenger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip E. Pittenger, of Almost, as his bride Saturday, June 19, in Saint Paul's on-the-Lakeshore was Vincent Joseph Famularo, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Famularo, of Kerby road.

A reception at the VFW Hall in Inlay City was held in the evening following the 12:30 o'clock rites at which The Reverend Leonard P. Wallace presided.

The bride's white organza gown featured a long train and a Juliet cap caught her illusion veil. She carried white carnations accented with red roses.

Mrs. Curt Knepper was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Christina Famularo, the bridegroom's sister, Sue Ann Borland, Barbara Holanski and Rosemary Fays.

They wore floor length paisley print culotte costumes with navy blue bodices.

Patrick Famularo acted as his brother's best man. In the usher corps were Neil Pittenger, Steve Blumley, Robert Lehner and David Allor.

The bride's mother wore a blue knit dress with a corsage of white and red roses. The bridegroom's mother selected a yellow chiffon frock.

After a vacation at the Famularo summer home in Bell-sire, Mich., the newlyweds will be residing in Almont.

August Bride

Plans for an August 29 wedding are being made by SANDRA EVELYN SCHMOKL and Douglas Charles Reid, whose engagement has been announced by her mother, Mrs. Charles Schmoke, of Hidden lane.

The bride-elect is also the daughter of the late Mr. Schmokl. The prospective bridegroom is the son of the Charles S. Reids, of St. Clair Shores.

Named to the Spring Term Wittenberg University Dean's List is BARBARA BEYSTER, daughter of the JAMES BEYSTERS, of Barrington road.

Engaged

Photo by Arthur D. Vincent. Mr. and Mrs. Heywood J. Knighton, of Lakepointe avenue, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, ANNA MARIE, to Robert A. Newman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Newman, of Cleveland Heights, O.

Miss Knighton is a granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Russell A. Dossin, of Grosse Pointe, and of Mr. and Mrs. Abbott Book Knighton, of Orange, Va.

She was graduated from Valparaiso University where she majored in Home Economics, completed a year's Dietetic Internship at the Indiana University Medical Center, Indianapolis, and has earned a Master of Arts degree in Nutrition Education from Indiana University. She is currently chief dietitian at Pontiac General Hospital.

Her fiancé was graduated from Randolph Macon College, Ashland, Va., with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science. He also received a graduate degree in Management from the American Management Association's Management Internship Program, Saranac Lake, N.Y. He is a ledger accountant for the Scott Paper Company in Detroit.

An October wedding is planned at St. Paul Evangelical Lutheran Church.

Cadet MARK EUGENE GIRARDIN, son of MR. and MRS. SIDNEY N. GIRARDIN, of Hillcrest road, has been promoted to the rank of sergeant within the Corps of Cadets at The Citadel for the 1971-72 academic year. A junior next fall, he's majoring in History and enrolled in the Air Force ROTC program. He served as historian-public relations officer of The Citadel Chapter of Alpha Phi Omega last year.

PAT SCHILL, daughter of the EARL SCHILLS, of York-shire road, leaves Saturday, July 10, for Ireland and will spend the next six months traveling through Europe.

D'you Know That?!

Did you ever hear of the mysterious lights called, "WILL O' THE WISP?"

There's never been a satisfactory explanation for the eerie lights seen flickering over marshes and cemeteries at night.

Some experts say they're produced from the disintegration of dead plants. Some believe they may be insects glowing in the dark, like fireflies. . . others claim they're spontaneous ignition of marsh gases. . . But no one knows for sure. Like anything else uncertain, they're the subject of many superstitions.

To Wed In Late July

Photo by J. S. De Forest. Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bowerman, of Buckingham road, have announced the engagement of their daughter, SUZANNE, to Peter Heenan Durant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Durant, of Lincoln road. The bride-elect, a graduate of Grosse Pointe South High School, received her Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Michigan. Her fiancé, a graduate of University-Liggett School, received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Wabash College, Crawfordsville, Ind. A late July wedding is planned so that the prospective bride may join her future husband who is serving in the United States Army and will be stationed in Germany.

Miss McEvoy Speaks Vows

Bernadine McEvoy, daughter of former Painters Mrs. Bernadine Templeton, of Ivy, Va., and John K. McEvoy, of Darien, Ga., and William Joseph Reitmeyer, son of the William David Reitmeyers, of Cadillac, were married Saturday, June 12, in St. John's Student Parish, East Lansing.

A reception at the Country House in East Lansing followed the 11:45 o'clock ceremony for which the bride selected a white peau de sole gown featuring long, full organza sleeves and accented with lace inserts outlined by seed pearls.

Her illusion veil fell from a small satin and pearl cap. She was attended by Pamela Alice Rish, of Willowick, O. Graham Kelly, of Treasure Island, Fla., served as the bridegroom's best man.

Ushering were Seth Warner McEvoy and Richard Reitmeyer, brothers of the bride and bridegroom, Bruce Buchanan, David Reis and Bernard Long.

The newlyweds vacationed in Onokama, Mich., and will make their home in East Lansing.

Poland:

Did you know that Detroit has more people of Polish descent than Warsaw does? And in what other major city could you find three kinds of Perogi in the snottier supermarkets?

Germany:

Detroit has its own German language newspaper, it's own German park, and enough great German restaurants to keep Nuremberg happy. Prosit!

India:

The exotic east is on exotic Second Avenue. Detroit's own authentic Indian restaurant (don't order the hot curry, believe me!) opened just a few months ago.

Belgium:

Pigeon races, tiny pool tables and political brouhaha daily mark Detroit's Belgian hotbed over on Cadieux on the far east side.

Scotland:

Except for the St. Andrew's Club, Scotland is hard to find in Detroit. It does surface once a year in earnest with the Scottish games on Bob Lo. Note: Don't call a Scot, scotch. It would be like calling a Yank, bourbon.

Finland:

Though there's no definite Finnish Settlement in Detroit, there are a lot of Finnish families. A name that ends in "i" is a tipoff. Gee. Maybe some of your best friends are Finns.

Canada:

Accept no substitutes. Visit the real thing. And if you think Windsor is just Detroit with a different view, you're really missing something. Go find out what.

England:

Ever seen a horse show? Ever had Les Gruber's steak and kidney pie? Or have you ever gone to Windsor for some authentic English fish and chips? Or maybe go watch a tennis match. Don't play, whatever you do. Just watch.

Turkey:

A dim shop. Pierced brass. Acrid tobacco. You've found Turkey in Detroit. You've got to hunt. But half the fun is getting there.

France:

Detroit is probably one of the few places in the world where you can hear two kinds of French. The modern Continental French, and the older, more guttural Colonial French as she is spoke in Canada. Our French restaurants are no slouch, either.

The Philippines:

Another hard-to-find corner. It's provided upper crust Detroit with some of the most gracious waiters around—and a few upper crusts, itself.

Mexico:

Did you know that east-siders have their own authentic Mexican restaurant? It's right near the Belle Isle Bridge (or the MacArthur Bridge, if you're a purist). And it's got all the delicious stuff from guacamole to 2X.

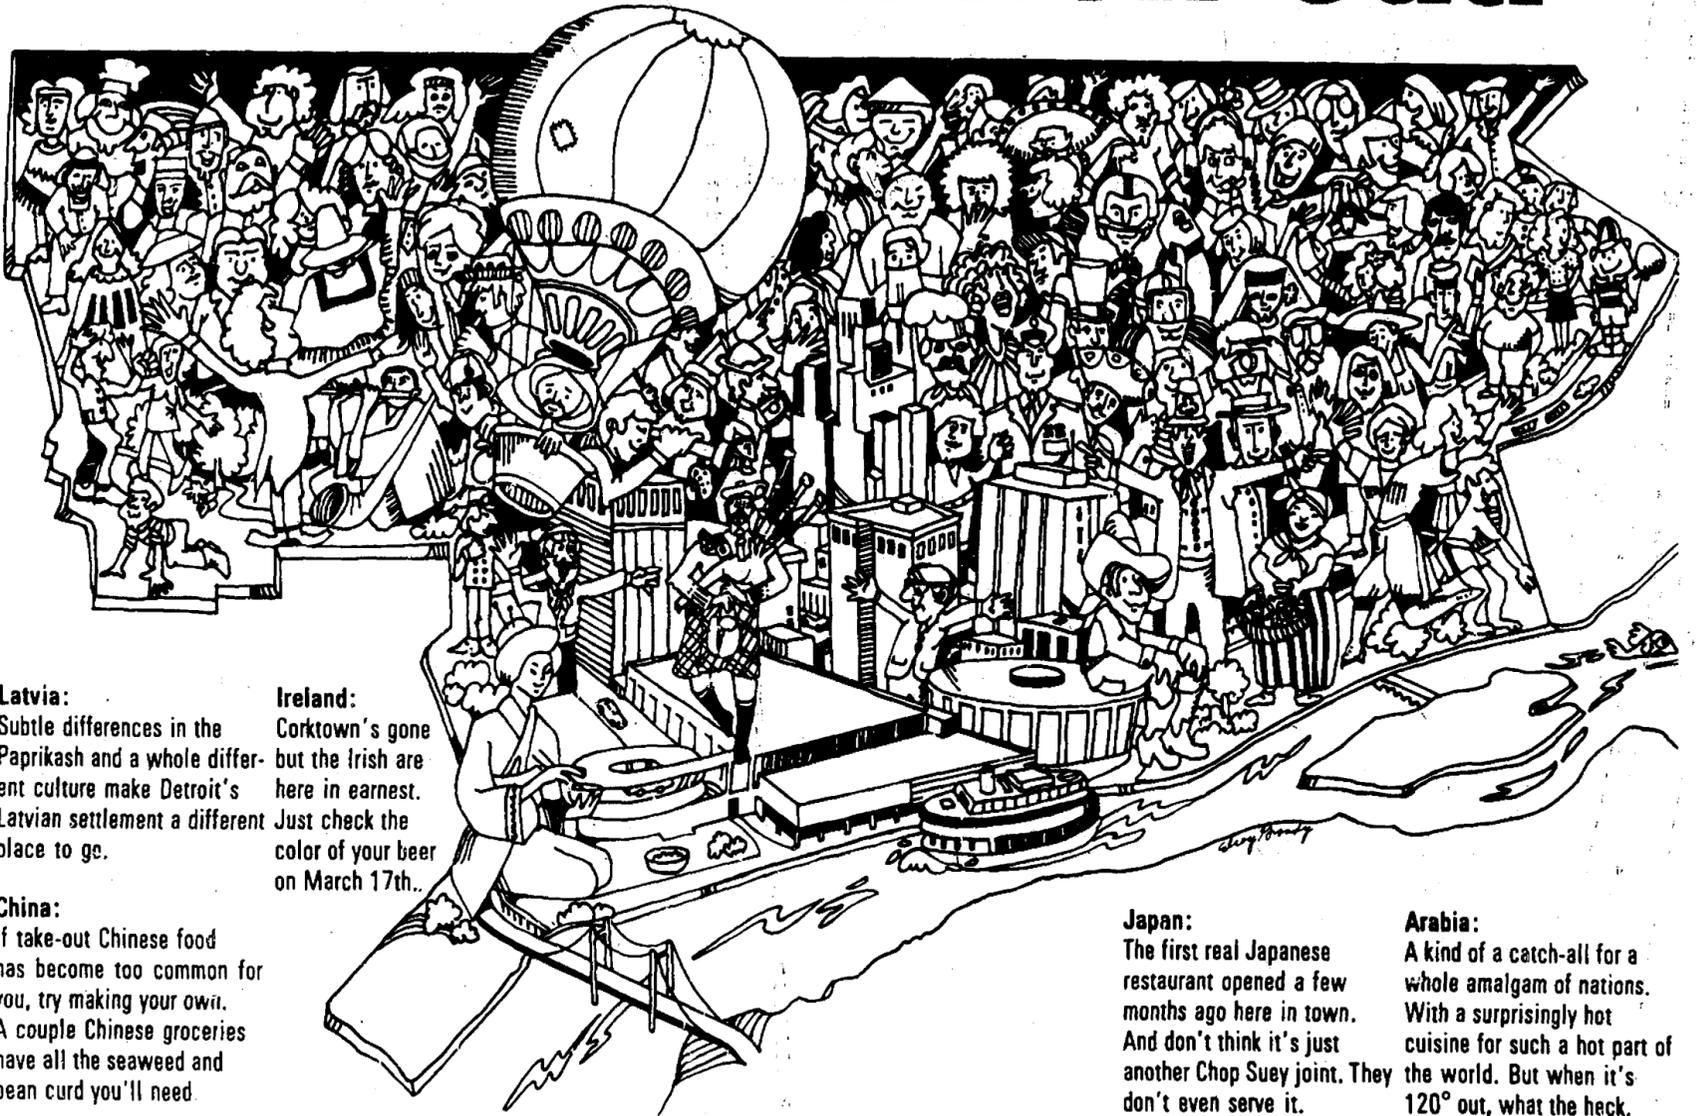

Italy:

If you've never gotten past the pizza-pasta part of Italian cuisine, do your tummy a favor. Go to any of Detroit's really excellent Italian restaurants (they come in all price ranges) and try some Osso Bucco Veal Parmagan, Chicken Cacciatore or any one of a hundred other yummy things.

Greece:

Monroe street. Nuf' said.

Detroit: It's the world with all the distance taken out.

Latvia:

Subtle differences in the Paprikash and a whole different culture make Detroit's Latvian settlement a different place to go.

China:

If take-out Chinese food has become too common for you, try making your own. A couple Chinese groceries have all the seaweed and bean curd you'll need.

Ireland:

Corktown's gone but the Irish are here in earnest. Just check the color of your beer on March 17th.

Japan:

The first real Japanese restaurant opened a few months ago here in town. And don't think it's just another Chop Suey joint. They don't even serve it.

Arabia:

A kind of a catch-all for a whole amalgam of nations. With a surprisingly hot cuisine for such a hot part of the world. But when it's 120° out, what the heck.

Did you know that there are over 45 different, distinct national settlements in Detroit? Over 45. So the next time you're looking for something to do, try different, exotic Detroit. Where else can you see the world by car.

13-REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

NEWCASTLE - Brick ranch, 3 bedrooms, fireplace, large kitchen, 1 1/2 baths, finished basement, cedar closet, patio, garage, near schools, shopping. 884-4174.
OPEN SUNDAY 2:30 to 5
AT 390 LINCOLN RD. you'll ramble about in the luxury of gigantic rooms with six natural fireplaces, and full tile baths for each bedroom. The entire house has recently been "redone" by one of the Pointe's best known decorators. Outside painting of the house and carriage house is being completed this week. There is a new driveway with plenty of parking. So drive or walk over Sunday and see how new an older house can be. BY APPOINTMENT
IT IS QUITE possibly the charm of a deadend street which leads to the lake, or perhaps the eye appeal of a center entrance colonial with a New Orleans grill balustrade across the front which should attract your attention to this first offering. The house is a large, four bedroom, with a family room 26 feet long. A first floor utility room serves as laundry, mud room, access to the attached garage and receiver of wet bathing suits from those fresh from the heated swimming pool. Why not take the plunge and call us for the unveiling.
THIS ONE could be the one that made the waiting worthwhile. In a top location in the Farms we are showing a brick center hall colonial with five bedrooms and three baths in the second floor. The third has two more bedrooms and another bath. Plenty of yard, even large enough for a pool. Decorated so beautifully that after calling us your next call will be your mover.
TOWNHOUSE living offers the advantage of minimum exterior maintenance, security of close neighbors and proximity to public transportation and shopping areas. Combined with these features we will show you a terrace with spacious rooms throughout, which include four bedrooms on the second floor and two more on the third. Off the entrance foyer is a small library and that important first floor lavatory. Both kitchen and butler's pantry have been updated and the spacious living room has a natural fireplace.
AN ENGLISH MANOR house sits majestically on Lakeland Avenue in the first block off Jefferson. If five master bedrooms are not sufficient, we can show you three more on the third floor and a complete apartment over the attached three-car garage.
661 WASHINGTON ROAD is the location of this six-bedroom colonial with a plan that includes four bedrooms on the second floor and two more on the third. The center hall splits the first floor with living room and den on one side, and dining room and kitchen on the other. The lot is over 200 feet deep and the price . . . not so steep, $53,500.
WOULD YOU believe we have an answer to everyone's prayer . . . A newer Colonial in the Farms on a tree lined street. This beautiful house has plenty of room for a mid-family. There are five bedrooms and three baths, all on the second floor. The first floor has spacious rooms including a family room and a library, both with fireplaces, and a card room. As an extra feature there is a first floor utility room. Easy walking distance to shopping area and schools. Call us today for an appointment.
THE ALWAYS POPULAR Lincoln Road is the setting for this brick house with four bedrooms and three and one half baths. The first floor plan includes a den just off the wide center hall, a large living room, separate dining room and completely new combination family room and kitchen. At a price less than $50,000 this one should sell pronto.
GRACIOUS SOUTHERN COLONIAL on quiet, ever popular Sunningdale. Two main floor bedrooms plus a huge dormitory up. Fireplaces and baths aplenty, and a low, low price to leave plenty of change in your decorating budget after you've added your personal touches. R. G. EDGAR & ASSOCIATES 63 Kercheval 886-6010

Videotape Helps Sell Real Estate

Mrs. Schweitzer, Schweitzer Real Estate, Inc., has scored two national firsts. She has announced the installation of six videotape recorders and closed circuit color television equipment in each of her branch offices. This equipment will afford the salesmen an opportunity to review on a daily basis, real estate selling fundamentals on nineteen, one hour color videotapes. This quarter of a million dollar sales training program was developed by the Ray Smith Institute of San Francisco.

Mrs. Schweitzer explained, "Every sales and service problem encountered by salesmen in their daily operation is covered in a most thorough and dramatic manner in this nineteen hour program. The closed circuit video equipment makes it possible for a salesman to dial his problem any time of day or night and instantaneously receive the correct answer and procedure that will help him to render better service to his clients."

The second dramatic innovation is the announcement of the video preview listing service. Now, for the first time a man and wife can preview the available listings in the areas surrounding the six Schweitzer Real Estate Offices, prior to inspecting the house of their choice.

Mrs. Schweitzer said, "We feel that the primary function of our firm is to serve the public. For many years I have searched for a feasible plan that would enable the prospective home buyer to reduce the miles and miles of travelling, as well as the laborious effort of inspecting numerous properties, in order to find a suitable home. Now, with the addition of a complete video and television department, Schweitzer Real Estate will be televising pictures of the exteriors and interiors of our many listings and presenting them in our offices, where the prospective buyers may preview the houses prior to inspecting them in person. Families moving to the Macomb or Wayne County areas will appreciate the new and modern service. Our video cameras will show these out-of-town buyers the various residential areas, shopping centers, recreational facilities, major highways, schools and churches."

Mrs. Schweitzer also announced the new location of the company's executive offices, closing office and mortgage company now located at 18780 Mack avenue, Grosse Pointe Farms. In addition to the company's six residential offices, Mrs. Schweitzer has also opened a new commercial, investment and industrial division located at 21300 Mack avenue, under the management of Egon Boesler, 886-8877.

Local Trio Attending Lutheran Convention

The Reverend David G. Ludwig, associate pastor of Peace Lutheran Church, East Warren Avenue at Balfour road, together with Arnold Bathje, principal of Peace Lutheran Day School, and John W. Korff, of Mt. Calvary Lutheran Church, Chalmers Avenue at Seymour, are in Milwaukee as delegates to the July 9 through 16 International Convention of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod.

They represent the eight Lutheran congregations of the East Side Circuit comprised of Bethany, Charity, Mt. Calvary, Our Savior, Peace, Resurrection, Trinity and Riverside.

These congregations have a total membership of 7,700 communicants, including many Pointers, served by 43 pastors for whom the Reverend Ludwig is the pastoral delegate.

Three of the congregations maintain Christian Day Schools served by 25 teachers, for whom Mr. Bathje is the teacher delegate. Mr. Korff is the lay delegate for the Circuit.

gan from Hartford, Conn., structures representative of the Michigan lumbering days from 1850 to 1900."

During this period (1850-1900) two big forest fires destroyed much of the timber in the area. It's said that parts of three counties were burning at the same time in each fire.

"Nevertheless," Carolyn notes, "Langdon Hubbard re-built his town after each fire. He built and re-built two houses on the same site: The present "Seven Gables," (Carolyn's family's vacation home now, as it was at the turn of the century), is the third house built on the site."

In the first house Amanda Lester Hubbard, Langdon's wife, lived with him and their three children: Frank Hubbard, Carolyn's father, Annabel, later Mrs. William Lyon Phelps, and Richard. Amanda died at 26, leaving the children aged five, three and six months.

"Soon after that," Carolyn continues, "Grandfather sent the children back to Hartford to be brought up by his three sisters. There they met Bill Phelps—the same age as my father, Frank—and they all grew up to be life-long friends."

Langdon Hubbard's descendants in Pioneer Huron City are members of the Centennial Farmers. "The Edison Company," Carolyn explains, "gives a plaque to each family which has lived on the same land for 100 years or more. We've been there for 120. "Only my father and grandfather lived in Huron City year around, but I, my children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren have spent our summers there for 50 years."

Carolyn's small great-grandsons are the sixth generation to have lived on Langdon's land.

"Of the seven buildings," Carolyn notes, "only the William Lyon Phelps museum was built by us, in 1950. In the second room of this building are the murals painted by Mrs. Phelps, (nee Annabel Hubbard), to commemorate the lumbering in her father's time."

The museum was copied from a small, very old town hall in Connecticut where many meetings of "The Arts and Letters," of which Professor Phelps was a member, were held. Carolyn's aunt Julia Lockwood, of Pasadena, Calif., added two rooms to hold furniture and antiques belonging to her family, Carolyn's mother's family, which pioneered in the area at the same time as the Hubbards.

The other six structures—an old store, a church, an inn, an old carriage house and "life-saving station" and two old red barns moved recently from the nearby farm—are Langdon Hubbard lumbering originals. The buildings were put in shape, roofs and basements et al repaired and strengthened, by the William Lyon Phelps Foundation, started in 1942 by Carolyn's first husband, the late Charles Parcells, Sr.

Carolyn has restored them one by one over a period of years, adding manikins to the furnished rooms "to make them seem more real." Mrs. Richard Webber gave her first manikin in 1950: It's now "Amanda Lester Hubbard," standing by the log cabin fireplace with her three children.

This year, with the new highway completed, Pioneer Huron City is only a little more than two hours' drive from The Pointe. "Every summer Sunday," Carolyn recalls, "when my uncle and aunt vacationed in Huron City from Yale, Professor Phelps preached in my Grandfather's old church.

"His audiences were very large, some people coming from a great distance to hear him. He called the church "the visible church in an invisible town'."

Nowadays, with more and more visitors descending upon Pioneer Huron City from July 1 through Labor Day, it's not nearly so invisible.

"April in Paris" . . . was all the song promised it would be to Priscilla Collyer, Jeannette Rice, Stephanie Gerganoff, Carol Cod, Ann Curtis, Mary Beavais, student teacher, Katerina Lauri and chaperone, Mrs. Dorothy Newhouse of Brownell Middle School . . . all of whom are still reminiscing about their spring, school sponsored trip to the City of Lights . . .

They arrived full of enthusiasm . . . at Bourget Airport early in the morning . . . scurried to their hotel then went on a well-guided tour of Paris . . . Notre Dame . . . The Eiffel Tower . . . Arc de Triomphe . . . Place de la Concorde . . . the Madeleine . . . AND the Opera . . . that was Friday . . .

The next morning . . . it was off to Versailles . . . that afternoon to Le Marche Aux Puces (Flea Market) . . . THEN as a special treat for birthday girl Stephanie Gerganoff . . . coupes, (rich fancy French sundaes), for the entire group . . .

Paques or Easter Sunday . . . the girls were delighted to find clothes and poisons in their rooms (provided by Mrs. Newhouse) . . . clothes are bells . . . the tradition is that the bells in the churches of Paris fly to Rome to be blessed on Good Friday and are sounded on their return Easter morning . . . poisons are fish . . . the Christian symbol . . . so instead of chocolate bunnies French youngsters are treated to chocolate clothes and poisons . . . the girls brought an American Easter Basket to give Mrs. Newhouse . . . she was delighted AND surprised . . .

Easter Service at Notre Dame . . . where the girls were enchanted with the service and the haunting music of the organ . . . then on to see the beautiful stain glass of Sainte Chapel close by . . . a stop at the Marche Aux Oiseaux (the Bird Market) on the Ile de la Cite . . . a walk around a tiny park behind Notre Dame . . . over a little bridge . . . to the Bouquinistes (stalls) and some browsing . . . crossing the Pont Neuf . . . then Voila . . . a major discovery . . . Place Dauphine site of the tiny Rose de France restaurant that Mrs. Newhouse remembered from times past . . . she promptly made dinner reservations there for the following evening . . .

"Les Illuminations" . . . or Paris' buildings alight at night . . . was a special thrill for the entourage . . . a trip to the Louvre . . . a visit to Bois de Vincennes of course a visit to Paris wouldn't be complete without park, pond and zoo . . . just the perfect opportunity to see French families at play . . . the little boys resplendent in their handknits . . . knickers and shorts and little hats . . . a stop for some movie taking . . . then crunching some of the Parisians' favorite treats, Gaufrettes (thin, crisp waffles) . . .

A ride on the Metro . . . to Place des Vosges . . . to Place de la Bastille . . . a lovely afternoon trip to Fontainebleau, about 35 miles from Paris . . . viewing the lovely countryside . . . stopping on the way to investigate the tiny town of Barbizon . . .

A visit to Chartres Cathedral . . . just 60 miles outside of Paris . . . with its magnificent architecture and beautiful stain glass windows . . . stopping at two chateaux . . . then one more trip to the Louvre . . . viewing the important masterpieces . . .

On the last day . . . some students went to see the Impressionist paintings in Jeu de Paume . . . at the end of Tuileries Gardens . . . others did just a wee bit more shopping . . . then a final evening together . . . a performance of Guignol (Punch and Judy Puppet Show) . . . which Mrs. Newhouse filmed to bring back to show her French students at Brownell . . .

Then saying a sad farewell to Paris . . . and home . . . full of memories . . . improved French and souvenirs . . . BUT Mrs. Newhouse relived her entire trip through her French students . . . she showed them the Guignol film . . . talked of French customs and the sights of Paris . . . and helped them create French projects . . . and what projects they turned out to be . . .

Three Balsa wood creations . . . two of the Eiffel Tower by Charles Van Becelaere and Steve Martin . . . an Arch de Triomphe by Charles and Lucander . . . a needle-point of all the countries surrounding Paris by Christine Donath . . . a gaily painted, wooden puzzle with all the provinces on top and all the major cities and rivers beneath each puzzle piece, created by Jim Klimchuck . . .

Three miniature recreations . . . of the Metro by Paul L'Heureux, Ray Spitzley and Paul Nuyen . . . an electrical quiz on the French provinces by Dean Face . . . yes traveling is educational when you have a teacher like Mrs. Newhouse . . .
