

JUVENILE BURGLARS ARRESTED

HEADLINES of the WEEK As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, July 15

A WALK OUT of some half-million telephone workers on Wednesday, July 14, coupled with the June 1 strike of an estimated 17,000 Western Union employees could broaden into a nationwide communications shutdown before the end of the month. Repair services and installations were halted because of the contract dispute between the workers and the Bell System. Minor delays in reaching an operator were also reported.

THE SENATE VOTED Wednesday to uphold President Nixon's veto of a $2 billion crash program of public works projects even though Democrats said it showed his indifference to the plight of 5.5 million jobless Americans—"a silent mass of misery." The Senate was five votes shy of overriding the veto.

A "DIPLOMATIC ILLNESS" covered up presidential adviser, Henry Kissinger's, secret mission to Peking last week to help pave the way for Nixon's trip to Communist China next year. Kissinger dropped out of sight in the midst of his 11-day round the world tour to fly to the Chinese capital where no other high U.S. official has been since 1949 when Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist forces were ousted by Mao Tse-tung.

Saturday, July 17

PRESIDENT NIXON probably will make his unprecedented trip to the People's Republic of China sometime early next year, a White House official disclosed Friday. He said he did not expect diplomatic relations to be established with China before the President's visit, but he left open the possibility that this would be done during the visit as a gesture of the new relationship between the two countries. Officials also indicated that Chinese Premier Chou En-lai would probably visit the United States in return, but no date was specified.

Sunday, July 18

APOLLO 15's ASTRONAUTS will set out next week on the longest most ambitious, best-equipped and potentially most rewarding moon expedition yet undertaken. The 12-day, seven-hour flight of Colonel David R. Scott, 39; Major Alfred M. Worden, 39; and Lieutenant Colonel James B. Irwin, 41, also will be the most expensive manned space mission in U. S. History. It is costing $445 million. Launch is slated for 8:34 a.m. Detroit time, Monday, July 28.

Monday, July 19

PRESIDENTIAL Assistant Henry A. Kissinger, who slipped secretly into Peking in a silk-curtained limousine July 9, said Sunday an ill-prepared U. S.-China summit session could be a disaster. A meeting between the chiefs of state of the two giant powers has been set for sometime before May. The man who sealed the final arrangements for a meeting between President Nixon and Premier Chou En-lai said both sides have to be assured they can come out of a conference with something. Detailed preliminary work is already underway.

Tuesday, July 20

UNION LEADERS representing 500,000 telephone repairmen, installers and operators tentatively agreed Monday to a new contract and ordered the workers to end their nation-wide strike at midnight Tuesday. Joseph A. Beltracchi, president of the Communications Workers of America (CWA), said the three-year pact would cost the Bell Telephone System four billion in union members ratify it in a secret mail ballot. Estimates of the increase ranged from 31 percent to 33.5 percent.

Rodger Graef New Woods Councilman

Unanimously Appointed to Fill Vacancy Created by Resignation of
William Huetteman

By unanimous vote of the City Council of Grosse Pointe at the regular meeting of Monday, July 19, Planning Commissioner Rodger Graef was appointed to fill the unexpired term of former councilman William F. Huetteman.

Mr. Graef, of Roslyn road, has served on the Planning Commission since 1961. Previous to his appointment to the commission, he had served on several citizens committees.

He is a past president of the Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club, a member of the K of C in Harper Woods, and an active St. Joan of Arc parishioner.

An insurance executive and building contractor, Mr. Graef and his wife, Kate, have four children, Dwight, 23, Brian, 21, a Vietnam veteran, Catherine, 18, a student at Northern Michigan University in Marquette, and Mark, 16, a student at North High School. The Graefs have been residents of Grosse Pointe Woods for 20 years.

Assuming his duties beginning August 2, Mr. Graef's council term will expire in November, 1975.

Library Director Explains Fees for Non-Residents

Several phone calls were received by this newspaper on the story covering the July 6 Board of Education meeting, with special reference to the increase of non-resident fees for Public Library use from $5 to $10 annually.

Robert Warner, Board of Education trustee, raised the question as to whether residents were paying more for public library service than non-residents.

Contacted by this newspaper this week, Robert Orr, Director of Public Libraries, discussed this matter in depth. He pointed out that, traditionally, most public libraries have held public non-resident fees because the few non-resident cards are taken out by people who shop in the community and maintain close ties. In the case of Grosse Pointe, he says there are now 130 non-resident cards in use, at a charge of five dollars, held

Woods Council Opposing State Legislative Bills; Studying Park Pass Law

Proposed That Property Owners Not Living in City Must Pay at Least $25 Per Year for Right to Use Lakefront Recreation Site

In official action Monday, July 12, at the regular meeting of the City Council of Grosse Pointe Woods, the council voted to oppose three separate state legislative bills now pending in Lansing, and referred a separate city ordinance proposal to the committee-of-the-whole for further study.

The city proposal refers to a change in a presently existing ordinance which would require those not living in the city, but still retaining property, to pay at least $25 per year for access to the lake front park.

The present ordinance allows those non-residents to pay their respective share of the property tax, no matter how small the sum, and still receive a park pass, but without guest privileges. There are instances on record in which one non-resident paid only 22 cents to the city to receive his pass.

A family may be termed a "resident" if any one person sleeps within the boundaries of the City of Grosse Pointe Woods. A person living on land, part of which is may be in the city, may still be a non-resident if a sleeping area is not inside the city limits.

With the new ordinance, a non-resident must pay at least $25 even if his property tax is less, if he wants to receive park passes for himself and his family.

In other action, the council voted to oppose a legislative

School Millage To Be Discussed

At a special meeting set for 8 p.m. Monday, July 26, the trustees of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education will discuss the amount of operating millage to be sought in the September 13 election.

Next Monday's meeting will be held in the Board Room of the schools' Administration Building, 389 St. Clair avenue. William J. Adams, president of the Board of Education, will chair the session. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Woods Store Held Up by Armed Man

Bandit Fires Pistol as Victim
Empties Cash Register;
Robber Claims
His Child Is Ill

The Woods Delicatessen, 21016 Mack, became the target of an armed robber Sunday, July 18, as a lone bandit made off with approximately $325 in cash. During the hold-up, the robber fired his gun.

Mrs. Thomas Tong was held at gunpoint as she was ordered to empty the cash register and place the money into a bank cash bag produced by the gunman.

She told Woods police that the man had been lingering inside the store after first entering through the front door, apparently waiting for customers to leave. As Mrs. Tong approached the man, he suddenly produced a small snub-nosed revolver announcing, "This is a hold-up. I'm not fooling."

Expresses Regret
"I hate to do this but I have a sick child," he said, as he forced her to the cash register.

Putting on a pair of black leather driving gloves, the bandit gave the victim the bank bag and ordered her to fill it. As Mrs. Tong was reaching into the register, she suddenly heard a shot fired.

The gunman had fired the gun straight down, shooting through a stack of brown paper bags jutting out from the edge of the counter, beneath the register.

Takes Tong's Cash
The man then told Thomas Tong to give him the money in his wallet before ordering the front door secured. Taken to the rear of the store, the Tong was told to wait for 10 minutes.

Mrs. Tong called Woods police as her husband watched the culprit walking down the alley toward Roslyn. The robber is described as a white male, 23 to 25 years old, 5-feet, 10 inches tall, weighing 175 pounds, having a pencil mustache, medium length, brown wavy hair, medium length sideburns, and wearing a black leather jacket.

BIKE TAKEN
Gary Hughes, 19789 Wedgewood, reported to Woods police Thursday, July 15, that his $150 Schwinn Varsity bicycle was taken while it was parked at the Mack-Seven shopping center. A light, speedometer, and racing handle bars were mounted on the bike.

GP Park Council, SEMATA Reach Bus Line Accord

Solons Approve Resolution for Purchase of Lake Shore by Authority; A Federal Grant Will Be Asked Under 1964 Government Act

The Park council and officials of The Southeastern Michigan Transportation Authority (SEMATA) met in the Park Municipal Building, 15115 East Jefferson, on Thursday, July 15, to iron out the proposed agreement whereby the Authority would purchase and take over the operation of Lake Shore Coach Lines, Incorporated. The Park was the last city to give its approval.

The council discussed the proposed agreement with SEMATA representatives Don Edmondson and Dan Morrow, for more than an hour. Five of the seven-member council, (two were absent because of business reasons), questioned the Authority officials, on the matter of the management's salary, and other subjects pertaining to the proposed take-over. Following the session, the apparently satisfied solons unanimously supported SEMATA's intention to buy the line.

Pass Resolution
The council members present approved a resolution, with no strings attached, to accept the agreement as presented. The City, Farms, Woods, Shores and St. Clair Shores, the other five communities serviced by the line, okayed the agreement, but each stipulated its own conditions under which the proposal would be accepted.

Accepting the agreement without reservations, were Mayor Matthew Patterson, and Councilmen Robert Hutton, Douglas Graham, William Luedders and George Verdonck. Absent were Councilmen Charles Bowerman and Warren Couger.

Park City Manager Robert Slone, who was also present at the session, said that the council approved the proposal as presented, without any reservations attached because the solons were in accord with the spirit of the proposal, for the simple reason that the council had full and complete confidence in SEMATA and its officials.

Subject To Review
Of course, he pointed out, the full context of the agreement is subject to review by the six communities being serviced by Lake Shore.

"These cities, which of course includes the Park, as a whole, are in need of a public transportation system, not (Continued on Page 4)

Hospital Reports Typewriter Theft

City police received a report on Monday, July 19, from the director of buildings and grounds at Bon Secours Hospital, Joseph Calabio, on the theft of a $700 gray electric IBM typewriter sometime over the weekend. The office was locked by Doris Heath, director of personnel service at 5:30 p.m. on Friday and the machine was there at that time. When the secretary went into the office on Monday the typewriter was missing.

Farms Police Switching To Radar Speed Control

The Farms Police Department will soon exchange its outmoded electric speed timer, for an up-to-date radar control system, to be purchased from a Kansas firm which manufactures the best such system currently on the market. The Farms council on Monday, July 19, approved the purchase of this equipment, which will cost $1,742.50.

The solons approved the acquiring of the radar on recommendation of Police Chief Robert Ferber, who told the council that the equipment is badly needed. The old electric speed timer, it was pointed out, has been in use for more than 20 years, and has deteriorated to such an extent that it is no longer usable. The chief pointed out that

City Council Names Two To Fill Seats

Resignation of John R. Hamann and Death of Mayor David Burgess Create Vacancies

The City of Grosse Pointe Council on Monday, July 19, accepted with regret the resignation of Councilman John R. Hamann, who has served on the Council for four-and-a-half years.

Mr. Hamann has been the Council's representative to the Grosse Pointe Clinton Refuse Disposal Authority since 1967.

Members passed a formal resolution commending Councilman Hamann's work on the Council. Mr. Hamann said that increased job responsibilities made it necessary for him to tender his resignation.

Council members appointed Robert L. Nugent to fill Mr. Hamann's term of office which expires in November of 1973.

Mr. Nugent is unmarried and lives with his widowed mother in Washington road. He is general superintendent of maintenance for The Detroit Edison Company.

Is Mechanical Engineer
Mr. Nugent attended the University of Michigan for a year then went on to earn his BME at Cornell University in February of 1948. He earned his MBA in February of 1963 from the University of Michigan.

He was an electronic technician's mate in the U.S. Navy during World War II, assigned to a submarine tender in the Pacific.

His professional affiliations include the American Society of Mechanical Engineers and the Engineering Society of Detroit. He is registered with the state of Michigan as a professional mechanical engineer.

Lorenzo D. Browning, 57, of Lakeland avenue, was appointed to fill the vacancy created by the death of Mayor David E. Burgess and the subsequent selection of Councilman John L. King as mayor. His term of office expires in November of 1971.

Born in Knoxville, Tenn., Mr. Browning is married and has seven children. He attended schools in both Tennessee and Michigan.

Try to Sell Stolen Radio To Officer

Apprehension Solves 3
Break-ins in Park; Most of Loot Recovered
and Returned

Two 11-year-old boys were taken into custody by Park police on Saturday, July 17, when one lad tried to sell a stolen radio set to a police officer. An investigation solved at least three break-ins by the youngsters, and the recovery of some of the loot.

The story was released by Det. Sgt. James LaPratt, to whom one of the boys tried to sell an expensive radio. When approached, the officer expressed a desire to own one and the lad took him to his house where, after questioning, the juvenile confessed to stealing the set and other items from homes in the Park. He implicated another boy, who was also taken into custody.

The parents of both boys were present at the station, when LaPratt questioned them on their illegal activities. The sergeant said that he informed the parents that charges have been filed against their offsprings with Juvenile Court authorities.

Suspicion Aroused
According to information released by Lt. Henry Connee, a witness observed two young lads walking on the driveway alongside a home which police said was the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Parent, 1383 Bedford. The pair went to the rear of the house, and were gone for some time. The witness became suspicious and went to the rear of the house and discovered the back door ajar.

Opening the door wider and entering the house, the witness heard noises on the second floor, and called out, demanding to know who was in the building. The young pair ran down the stairs and passed the witness, who got a good glimpse of them, and gave an accurate description to police, who were called immediately.

LaPratt, who was helping in the scouting of the neighborhood, at about 2 p.m., was driving by Kercheval and Balfour, in his own car, when he observed two youngsters on bicycles. The sergeant said that he knew one of the juveniles, but this lad apparently did not recognize him, at least, not at that time. This boy fit the description of one of the boys who was in the Parent residence.

Big Tree Branch Hits Moving Car

Four persons were injured Thursday, July 16, when part of a huge elm tree, damaged by winds several days before, suddenly collapsed onto a car traveling south on Lake Shore drive around 4:30 p.m.

Escaping with minor injuries were the driver, Edwin Doebler, 652 St. Jean, Detroit; and passengers, Dristin Messico, 885 Manistique, Detroit; Alice Majachrazak, 22624 Avon, St. Clair Shores; and Gladys Doebler, 652 St. Jean, Detroit.

The tree limb, almost two feet in diameter and bringing several large branches with it, crushed almost the entire roof of the car and completely smashed the front windshield. The breaking point on the main part of the elm is about 25 feet off the ground.

Shores Patrolman Ronald Forth, seeing the accident, immediately called an ambulance, a wrecker, and extra help. With the help of two unidentified citizens, Corporal Chester Painter and Forth managed to free all four occupants from the smashed car. The passengers were taken to Bon Secours Hospital with minor injuries.

Traffic was rerouted until a wrecker removed the rest of the branches still attached to the tree, and the car, a 1967 Chevrolet, was towed to a service station.

Catch Pre-Teen Burglars

ter. Do you want to buy a radio?"
LaPratt stopped and talked to the boys, (the other was not involved), and questioned him as to the quality and price of the object for sale.
The youngster offering the sale, told the policeman that the radio was the property of another boy, and that his friend wanted to sell the radio, to raise money to buy a larger set. He said it was a beautiful, portable Panasonic, three-band radio.

LaPratt followed the boy to his, (the boy's) house, where the radio was displayed to the officer. The father of the lad claimed his son did not own the radio, that he was under the impression that it belonged to his son's friend. The detective obtained the name and address of this friend.

Both Fathers Fooled
LaPratt said he went to the home of the second boy, whose father gave the same story, except that he had been told that the radio was the property of the other youngster.
The sergeant then went to the Parent residence, where the two juveniles had been seen, and were informed by the home owners that a radio was missing from their home. The item was the only thing missing, they said.

While talking with this boy's parents, who cooperated fully, the parents stated that their son had, or claimed he had been to a recent sale and bought a Sony, portable television set. LaPratt, with the help of the lad's parents, questioned the boy, who confessed that he had taken the radio from 1383 Bedford, and implicated his companion.
The youngsters also admitted breaking into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Brouillard, 1439 Bedford, and said that most of the loot was stored in the garage of the other boy's home.

LaPratt said that he and the boy and his parents went to the second lad's residence, and this juvenile was seen running from the side of the house, but the sergeant apprehended him before he could get away.
In the rafters of the garage, LaPratt said, he found the television set, a small radio tape cassette recorder, which one of the boys confessed that he alone had stolen from the home of Dr. John Britt, 1455 Devonshire.
Also found among the rafters was a movie projector, and other items, all of which have since been returned to their owners.

As LaPratt put it, the moral of the story is, "Be careful to whom you try to sell 'hot' property, or you are sure to get burned."
He said the parents of both lads cooperated fully in getting their children to confess to the break-ins, and in the recovery of all stolen goods.

Boat Accident Causes Death
A business trip in Michigan ended up in death for 32-year-old former Pointer, Allen Francis McCauley, of Fullerton, Cal., on Wednesday, July 14, around 10:30 a.m., Mr. McCauley and a friend, Ronald Knight, of Marine City, were in a raft underneath Mr. McCauley's boat, which they were working on. The cruiser was suspended over the water from two slings. One of the slings gave way and the boat fell on top of both men, pinning Mr. McCauley between the boat and the raft and knocking Mr. Knight into the water.
Marine City police told the NEWS that a witness, Melvin Kuecken, of Marine City, pulled Mr. Knight from the water but was unable to free Mr. McCauley. Mr. Kuecken called Marine City firemen who responded immediately. They raised the boat and freed Mr. McCauley, who was pronounced dead at the scene by Marine City Coroner, Lanson C. Cobb.
Mr. McCauley is survived by his wife, Paula; a son, Allan Scott; two daughters, Lisa Louise and Julie; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis W. McCauley; and a sister, Mrs. Paul Hostetter. Funeral services were held on Friday, July 16, from the Arnold O. Mathews Funeral Home. Interment was in Woodlawn Cemetery.

Non-Resident Library Fees

this cost as providing one yardstick to measure library use.

He points out there is no way to determine an exact figure as to library use. For example, a substantial percentage of those coming to the three public libraries to read and make use of reference and reader's advisory services do not hold library cards and it is impractical to check this; over 800 residents attended film programs in the Central Library during the past year; according to information provided by residents who borrowed 22,000 films, more than 800,000 residents viewed the films; over 17,000 boys and girls participated in organized activities of the Children's Department; the three children's librarians visited 93 classes; 7,500 children from public and non-public schools in 300 classes visited the three public libraries for story hours and library instruction; Mr. Orr and the librarians gave speeches, book reviews and book talks to more than 40 local groups, and 10,000 residents attended 573 meetings at the Central Library.

The above represents a very broad community involvement and use of public library services, and there is every reason to believe that a large percentage have never bothered to take out a library card.

In a survey conducted this week of the area public libraries, Mr. Orr found the following non-resident fees in effect: Birmingham, no non-resident cards; Bloomfield, $15; Royal Oak, $15; Detroit, $10; Wyandotte, $19; St. Clair Shores, $5; Hamtramck, $3; Harper Woods, no charge for county residents.

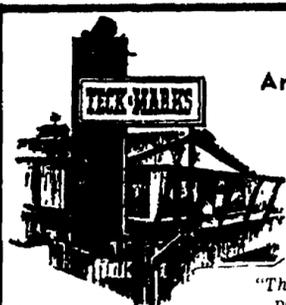

In summary, Mr. Orr reports he recommended last January that the Board of Education, the official public library board, consider a $21 non-resident fee, based on a per capita resident cost of $7, with each such card in effect a family card, averaging three per family. It was the feeling of the Board, based on fees charged by neighboring libraries, that this was excessive.

MOWER STOLEN
Edgar M. Gregory of 57 Handy place, notified Farms police that someone entered his garage sometime between July 7 and July 15, and stole his 2 1/2-inch rotary power mower, valued at $150.

REPORTS MOWER THEFT
Louis Zimmerman of 17 Stephens road, reported the larceny of a power reel lawn mower from his garage, sometime Saturday, July 17, or Sunday, July 18. He said the mower is valued at $130.

Thus Mr. Orr's recommendation in June of a $10 fee which doubled that previously charged. He feels that the increased fee will substantially reduce non-resident borrowers.

MR. INDOOR COMFORT

Strain on Heart Reduced by Central Air Conditioning

by ROBERT A. "Doc" WILLIAMS

There are many reasons other than comfort for buying a Carrier central air conditioning system. Surveys show that quite a few families buy air conditioning because of its contributions to health, for instance. Carrier central air conditioning can be a great aid for the heart's work in pumping blood throughout the body. Under heated conditions, the human body's rate of sweating is increased and a great amount of blood can reach the surface of the body.

This means that the body's heart rate is increased as the temperature and humidity rise, and the heart must work harder at pumping the blood to the surface to account for the loss in body heat. The heart works harder to increase blood flow to the skin for cooling by radiation, and the entire body's systems are drained of vitality. Fatigue rapidly appears, and exhaustion is possible under very hot conditions.

The only way to compensate for high temperature and humidity is with an effective central air conditioning system. It's well known that air conditioning can control temperature and humidity to such an extent that the strain on the heart is reduced.

Hospital tests conducted in New Orleans during the heat of summer showed that the hearts of cardiac patients in wards without air conditioning worked 50% harder than those patients in air conditioned wards. From a medical standpoint, air conditioning can be of great benefit to the heart patient or invalid because of the reduced strain and because he will sleep more soundly, longer, and more restfully.

If you or anyone in your family suffers from a heart condition, a Carrier central system installed by Williams will be a great contribution for health. And, it won't just be used during the hottest days; for there are many spring days when relief from high humidity is needed. A Carrier central system will effectively dehumidify your home and relieve strain.

Why not investigate how inexpensive a Carrier system for your home can be? Carrier offers the highest quality equipment, and we at Williams offer a guaranteed engineered installation.

Call TU 6-4848 for a free survey of your home today. There's absolutely no obligation.

For a FREE SURVEY of your home, or information about Carrier central air conditioning, call "Doc" Williams at Williams Refrigeration & Heating at TU 6-4848 - 14711 Harper Ave.

Farms Regatta This Weekend

The Grosse Pointe Farms Regatta will be held Friday, July 23 through Sunday, July 25. One of the highlights of this annual event will be the Grosse Pointe Farms Junior Miss Pageant slated for Saturday evening at 8:30 p.m. at the Farms Pier Park.

The Regatta also features boat races and children's events on Saturday and a parade and fleet review of decorated boats on Sunday. In addition to a teen-age dance Friday night there will be adult dancing on Saturday night.

The Regatta Committee is comprised of Farms Mayor William G. Butler, parade marshal; Commodore G. Judge Paterson Clears Docket

The City of Grosse Pointe Municipal Court convened on Tuesday, July 13, with Judge Douglas L. Paterson presiding. The following cases were heard:

Gary Little, 438 Moran, was charged with failure to stop at a stop street, causing an accident. He pled guilty, was found guilty, and made to pay costs of $7.50.

Elden Half, 1269 Millards, Royal Oak, was charged with failure to yield the right of way resulting in an accident. He pled guilty, was found guilty and fined $15.

Thomas Duttis, 22923 Alger, St. Clair Shores, was charged with careless driving resulting in an accident. He stood mute and was found guilty, and fined $35 plus costs.

Peter Serafino, 6329 University, Detroit, was charged as a disorderly person violating the city check ordinance. He pled guilty, was found guilty, fined $75, and made to make restitution.

Thor Peebles, 782 Westchester, was charged with careless driving resulting in an accident. He pled guilty and was found guilty. He was fined $50, plus costs and placed on probation. He was also charged with not having a driver's license on his person to which he pled guilty. He was found guilty and fined $10.

Sam Greco, 1633 Bewick, Detroit, was charged with being a disorderly person and assault. He stood mute, and was found guilty, and fined $50.

Thomas Martin, 3553 Harvard, Detroit, was charged as a disorderly person. He stood mute, was found guilty and fined $25 plus costs.

James Zade, 1023 Broadstone, was charged with improper parking. He pled guilty, was fined $5 plus costs. He was also charged as a disorderly person to which he pled not guilty. He was found guilty and fined $25 on this charge.

Judge Paterson heard the case of Donald Morris, 1311 Ashland, Detroit, on Thursday, July 15. He was charged with speeding 50 mph in a 30 mph zone. He pled guilty, was found guilty, and fined $25 plus costs. He was also charged with driving on a revoked license to which he pled guilty. He was found guilty and fined $100, sentenced to five days in jail and put on six months probation.

GARAGE LARCENY
JoAnne Wilson, 19018 Edshire, called Woods police Tuesday, July 13, to report the theft of a beige Lawn Boy lawnmower and a Black and Decker electric lawn edger from her garage. Total loss of the theft was estimated at $90.

Man Accused in Jewelry Store Hold-Up Awaits Trial

Roland LePage, 23, of 13160 West Outer drive, Detroit, accused in the March 6 armed robbery of Pongraz Jewellers, 91 Kercheval avenue, was bound over for trial in Circuit Court on Wednesday, July 14, by City Municipal Judge Douglas Paterson, presiding in Farms court in the absence of Judge Robert Pylell. LePage continued his plea of not guilty.

The accused man was remanded to the Wayne County Jail in default of $10,000 bond, which was continued by the court.

LePage was arrested at his home by Detroit police, with another suspect, name withheld pending further investigation, on July 10, and identified in a lineup at Detroit Police Headquarters, as one of the pair that held-up the Farms jewelry shop.

No identification could be made of the second man, regarding the Pongraz robbery, but he was positively identified in the showup as one of the gunmen who robbed a Birmingham jewelry store, earlier in the day on March 6. The Pongraz incident took place late in the afternoon. One of the persons identifying the second man was a Birmingham police officer.

On the date of the hold-up, two men entered the Pongraz store, on the pretext of one man wishing to purchase a ring for his mother. The men pulled guns and forced Theodore J. Pongraz of 151 Muir road, and a woman clerk to a rear room where both were tied to chairs.

While the hold-up was in progress, two couples, one with a small child, entered the store, and all were ordered to the back room. One couple and the father of the child were also tied up, and the mother and child were SEMTA is planning a meeting with representatives of the five Pointes and St. Clair Shores, to iron out the differences in the resolutions passed by the respective councils.

Asked for $78,000

Last month, SEMTA asked the six communities to contribute $78,000 of the $234,000 needed to take over the company, recondition old buses and buy new ones and to lease the Lake Shore terminal. Also, to finance the purchase and reconditioning of DSR buses. In addition, SEMTA is requesting a subsidization of $15,000 per quarter, in the event the service operates in the red.

However, Park officials said they have enough confidence in SEMTA to feel that subsidization will not be necessary, although the Park is willing to contribute to keep the lines in operation.

Edmondson said that SEMTA is now ready to approach Walter Schweikart, president of Lake Shore Coach Lines, Incorporated, to make an option contract to buy the company.

See No Trouble

Schweikart had said that the lines would discontinue services on July 31, but Edmondson expressed confidence that the lines will continue to run until the actual purchase is concluded.

Edmondson said that SEMTA plans to apply for a $150,000 Federal grant, under the Urban Mass Transportation Act of 1964.

He estimated that the lines would make a profit of $50,000 annually, after a year of operation.

The line has been breaking even, it was claimed, since May, when Lake Shore put in to effect a series of economics, including a raise in fares, elimination of services after 8 p.m. week days and complete elimination of services on Sundays.

Woods Offers Cooperation To Group Fighting Drugs

The Jefferson-Chalmers-Grosse Pointe Citizens Against Drug Abuse received the following communication from Chester Petersen, Wood administrator and coordinator of the Grosse Pointe Youth Service Division, pledging YSD's support and cooperation. "We wish to advise that this city as well as all of the other Grosse Pointe communities and the Grosse Pointe Board of Education share a similar concern. As you may be well aware, the City of Grosse Pointe Woods has in itself been a leader and very active for several years prior to the current drug abuse epidemic. This city is also the recognized founder of the Grosse Pointe Youth Services Division and is presently the managing municipality of same with myself serving as the coordinator of the program. "The Grosse Pointe Youth Services Division has been functioning for almost a year and it has received community-wide acclaim for its efforts in fighting abuse of drugs among our young people and it is credited with the effective decline in the use of heroin among the youth of our communities.

"Utilizing the resources of a $100,000 budget, the YSD has a complement of five full time and three part time staff members. Our staff members, who are largely police officers, work directly in all of the schools located in the Grosse Pointe area: public, parochial and private.

"The Grosse Pointe Youth Services Division has always maintained a position of open willingness to cooperate and to provide assistance for all of our citizens and insofar as possible, with those of our neighboring communities. As you recall Officer John Kendall, of our division, met with one of your Action Committees to discuss how we could work together with your group and to further explore effective ways of cooperation in the combatting of drug abuse on two recent occasions.

"We would, however, have to point out that our specialized Youth Services Division is tax supported by the residents of the Grosse Pointe area, and that other area residents outside of Grosse Pointe will have to be subject to the same additional taxes if they expect to incorporate a more comprehensive and broader program throughout the eastern section of the entire Detroit metropolitan area.

"It further appears from your letter that your group has a concern about the relationship of the Youth Services Division with the City of Detroit. We are well aware of the fact that most all narcotics and dangerous drugs come into our area through the City of Detroit. We, therefore, have a common concern that the wholesale and retail drug outlets in the City of Detroit must be put out of business. In the past, the Youth Services Division and our Department of Public Safety have cooperated and assisted the City of Detroit, the Wayne County Sheriff's Department and the State Police in the surveillance and raiding of known places selling or distributing unlawful drugs within the Detroit area. "The Grosse Pointe Youth Services Division and this City's Department of Public Safety stand in constant readiness to assist the City of Detroit and any other neighboring cities in a common effort to stifle the activities of those persons engaged in the sale and/or distribution of drugs. The Youth Services Division has made contact, both at the precinct and headquarters level, with the Detroit Police Department in an effort to enhance, encourage and activate a greater law enforcement attack on drug abuse, and we shall continue in these efforts. We also intend to cooperate with any citizens' groups, such as yours, that are engaged in meaningful and productive efforts to assist the police, not only in the combatting of drug abuse, but in an effort to restore law and order, security and health, among our youth and the communities themselves. To this goal we dedicate our efforts! "Please feel free to either contact this office or that of the Youth Services Division, both of which are located at 20025 Mack avenue in Grosse Pointe Woods, or by phone at 886-2908 at any time, and I am certain that the officers of the Grosse Pointe Youth Services Division will be in contact with your organization in the near future to further explore with you this mutual concern and problem."

A TOAST TO MAYOR KING

Recently a City of Grosse Pointe resident accompanied by several black guests was denied entry to that city's waterfront park.

The inevitable result was disbelief, shame and anger on the part of Grosse Pointe residents anxious to erase this suburb's "white ghetto" image by building a more open society.

Mayor King has made a written apology. He also clearly stated his City's policy of admitting any person of whatever race, creed or religion as long as he holds a park pass or is a guest of a resident. Mayor King's forthright action is refreshing.

The future of Grosse Pointe depends on leadership willing to recognize that brotherhood—and not exclusionism—should be our suburb's mark of distinction.

Arrest of Youths Climaxes Disturbance, Speed Chase

Two youths in a car created a disturbance at the Mack-Moross gas service station at 10:30 p.m. on Monday, July 12, but were gone when Farms police arrived. Shortly after midnight, the pair returned on a motorcycle, and one youth assaulted a station employee.

According to information released by Farms authorities, the youths were arrested following a high speed chase as the youths sought to elude arrest while on their motorcycle. The chase ended when one youth, David J. Griffin, 17, of 490 Bournemout, lost control of the two-wheeler, after avoiding a Woods police blockade at Mack and Torrey, hitting the front bumper of the pursuing Farms car and was knocked to the pavement.

The Farms officers, Patrolmen Timothy Morrison and Johannes Winter, stated in their report that Griffin and the cycle skidded on the pavement in front of 1150 Torrey road, when the cyclist lost control, jumped the curb and ran over the lawn back onto the street, hitting the police vehicle.

The owner of the two-wheeler, George H. Matsos, 18, of 19652 Blossom lane, Harper Woods, the second youth, got off the cycle near Allard, where he was arrested on a charge of disorderly assault, in the disturbance and hitting of the gas station employee.

Following the collision with the police vehicle and the spill to the pavement, Griffin was conveyed to St. John Hospital by Woods police ambulance for treatment of bruises and abrasions, then returned to the Woods station where he was issued a violation ticket for failure to stop on police signal and another for reckless driving, after which he was released to Farms authorities.

At the Farms station, Griffin was given a violation ticket for reckless driving, and Matsos was given one for disorderly assault. Each posted bond of $100, and are scheduled to appear in the Farms Municipal Court on Wednesday, July 28, for a hearing.

Morrison and Winter stated the following, which occurred prior to the chase and the arrests:

They were dispatched to the gas station when a call was received at 10:30 p.m., of two unruly youths creating a disturbance. An employee told the officers that the youths, Griffin and Matsos, had pulled into the station and refused to leave, becoming abusive and using profane language.

Another employee approached and told the pair to leave, whereupon, Matsos struck this attendant in the left arm with a metal pole. The youths returned to their car. Just before entering the vehicle, Matsos grabbed a squeegee from a water pail and tossed it at a group of employees, but missed. Griffin and Matsos then took off in the car at high speed.

At 12:30 a.m., on July 13,

Griffin and Matsos returned, this time on Matsos' motorcycle, with Griffin driving. Matsos climbed the fence east of the gas station grounds, and approached the worker whom he had hit earlier, commenting "What are you going to do now, smart guy?"

The attendant said that Matsos was carrying a bat, but it appeared to be the flexible type, not solid. The youth struck the man several times on the left thigh and arm. The man struck back with an oil can. Matsos jumped over the fence and climbed onto the cycle behind Griffin.

Morrison and Winter were on the way to the service station, after a person called about the second disturbance, and when they arrived, the officers were informed what had taken place and that the youthful pair were heading east on Mack avenue.

The policemen took up pursuit, siren and flasher on, and pulled up alongside the pair and ordered them to the curb. Ignoring the signal, Griffin pulled away, cutting to the left, and attempted a left turn onto Allard. However, because of the high speed, he missed the turn, went over the curb of the center island, and back onto Mack, traveling east in the westbound lane.

The Farms policemen pulled alongside and forced the cycle to the curb. When Griffin slowed down, Matsos jumped off, and Griffin immediately took off again, crossing the island and heading east in the eastbound lane.

The chase was put on the police radio and Woods police blocked Mack, at Torrey, with a scout car.

Griffin attempted to turn south onto Torrey, but because of the high speed, he failed to turn onto the street itself. Instead his cycle struck the curb, crossed a lawn, and further seeking to elude the Farms officers, drove at high speed on the sidewalk, still heading south.

Morrison and Winter said that Griffin continued his speed on the sidewalk, crossing seven intersections, and in front of 1150 Torrey, the youth lost control at a curve in the sidewalk, crossed the lawn, entered the street and struck the front bumper of the scout car. The two-wheeler and its rider fell to the pavement and skidded to the far curbing.

The policemen said that when they assisted Griffin to his feet, they found a pellet-type pistol near him, but whether he had it on his person is not known. The matter is still under investigation. The weapon was confiscated.

Church To Show Smuggled Film

The Grosse Pointe Inter-Faith Center for Racial Justice will be presenting the film, "The End of the Dialogue," for area residents on Friday, July 23, at 8 o'clock, at Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church, 17150 Maumee avenue.

This is a powerful documentary filmed secretly by five black members of the banned Africanist Congress and smuggled out of the country for showing in Europe and America.

It is unique in that it views apartheid through the eyes of the victims for whom it was intended and upon whom it was inflicted.

A discussion will follow the film and will focus on the role of the 300 to 400 American corporations which presently operate in South Africa.

Admission is one dollar per person, or two dollars per family. Everyone is welcome. For further information call 881-9019.

'Dope Pads' Pose Problem On Fringe of Grosse Pointe

By Pepper Whitehaw

A great deal of newspaper has been recently devoted to "dope pads" in the Detroit area. Have you as a Pointer felt that since these houses are located in Detroit they in no way affect you? If your answer is "yes," you are dead wrong!

Authorities say there are "dope pads" in the Jefferson-Chalmers area bordering the Pointe. There more affluent Pointe youth can congregate to purchase and use illegal drugs, particularly heroin. These "pads" are run by suppliers, who often own two or more such establishments. They locate them in apartments or flats and outfit them with couches and drug paraphernalia. A man is stationed at the door to check each and every person who is admitted.

Each pad has a manager who gets a percentage of the house take. The operation is conducted very much like a hotel but once beyond those doors the similarity ends... for inside you see heroin users in varying stages of euphoria... you see teenagers getting "fixes"... you see all the equipment necessary with which to "shoot" life away.

But to the supplier it is a cold, productive business venture. He takes advantage of the lower rent area and overburdened police force to locate near the moneyed drug users and capitalize on the suburban market. (This is a familiar pattern all over the country.)

A committee to fight this kind of activity and promote more cooperation between Detroit and Pointe police, The Jefferson-Chalmers Grosse Pointe Citizens To Fight Drug Abuse, has recently been organized.

The birth of the organization goes back a few months when Mrs. David Pethek, of Grand Marais boulevard, and Mrs. Frederick Greiling, of Lincoln road, were appointed to a program committee of the American Association of University Women planning a drug update. The study revealed that one factor which must be faced and handled in the drug picture was the existence of "dope pads" on the borders of different communities.

The only feasible solution to this border situation seemed to be the formation of an organization of interested citizens from the Jefferson-Chalmers Grosse Pointe area, who would work together to promote joint efforts by police and citizens, so early in June such a committee was established.

To date over 20 organizations from the Jefferson-Chalmers Grosse Pointe area have sent representatives to the meetings to discuss these mutual problems. Mrs. Greiling told the NEWS that the group's program is one of education AND action. Educational meetings where members hear discussions on pharmacology, law enforcement, the courts and funding of action groups are planned.

Among those organizations participating are the Detroit and Grosse Pointe Jaycees, Grosse Pointe Family Life Education Council, St. Ambrose, Grosse Pointe Human Relations Council, Inter-Faith Center, NARCO, Crisis Workers from Project Headline, Southeastern Ecumenical Parish, Mariborough Block Club, Guyton PTA, Kercheval Civilian Patrol and Riverside Civilian Patrol.

All local city councils and police departments have been notified of the group's concern and urged to ignore the boundary line and respond to both communities' needs by working out a definite and immediate plan of cooperation.

Police authorities told the NEWS that they are often asked why these "drug pads" are permitted to continue in operation when their existence is known by so many. They explained that police are not permitted to enter a dwelling where they suspect drug traffic unless they have a warrant based on an affidavit attesting to the fact that drugs were purchased there. Police have tried to solve the problem by introducing plainclothes officers into these houses but often this is not possible.

Another stumbling block is the mobility of these houses. Many of them are here today—gone tomorrow type operations.

In the past, the problem has been compounded by the lack of sufficient police officers in these neighboring Detroit precincts, who specifically handle narcotics. Recently that problem has been alleviated by the addition of narcotics units to each Detroit precinct instead of having to send all narcotics information to the main station.

The interest and efforts of such organizations as this Jefferson-Chalmers-Grosse Pointe Citizens Against Drug Abuse can assist police in the exposure of these "dope pads."

One such group, which has sent representatives to the Jefferson-Chalmers-Grosse Pointe meetings, has recently developed a plan where persons with information on the location and activities of "dope pads" can write anonymously. The Civilian Patrol then gathers the information and forwards it to the police. Anyone with information of this nature should write immediately to Riverside Civilian Patrol, P.O. Box 3213, Detroit, 48214.

The Jefferson Chalmers Grosse Pointe Citizens Against Drug Abuse believe that a joint program of action would benefit both those citizens of the Jefferson Chalmers area and the Pointes.

It would benefit Detroit families by preventing youth from the more affluent suburbs from congregating in their neighborhoods dealing in drugs, creating problems of noise and vandalism and generally creating an unhealthy social atmosphere in which to raise their children.

GPT Presents Annual Awards

More than 200 Grosse Pointe theatre members and their guests gathered in the Detroit Athletic Club Saturday, July 10, as the group staged its 15th annual awards presentation.

Following dinner in the DAC's main dining room 24 technical acting, and special awards were given. The evening's master of ceremonies was Clarke Scholes, of East Emory court.

When the presentations were completed, the GPT's 1971-72 season of plays was announced by incoming president Walter Maher, of Whittier road. The four shows being offered next season are "Auntie Mame" (comedy), "A Case of Libel" (courtroom drama), "Born Yesterday" (another comedy), and the great musical that will soon become Broadway's all-time musical box office champion, "Fiddler on the Roof."

Nine Pointers were among those receiving awards, including Mrs. Robert Binder, of Whittier road, who was chosen Best Director for her work on "Gypsy."

Winning acting awards were Jack Petz, of University place, Best Non-Featured actor, for "A Man For All Seasons"; Agnes Gaggini, of Beaconsfield road, Best Featured Actress, for "Gypsy" and Gail Lungershausen, of Berkshire road, Best Supporting Actress, for "Breath of Spring."

Pointers winning technical awards were Barbara Horn, of Lakeland avenue, for her work on properties in "Gypsy"; Charles Chrisman, of Anita road, whose sound and lighting work on "Gypsy" won two awards, and Mrs. Jac Purdon, of Village lane, for makeup on "A Man For All Seasons."

A special award, which is sometimes presented to a member making outstanding contributions to Grosse Pointe Theatre, was presented to Harry Stult, of Muir road.

Other award winners were Mrs. Kathryn Bake, set dressing, "Breath of Spring"; Dale Pegg, sound co-chairman, "Gypsy"; Juan Horrox and Ruth Mayhall, "Gypsy" costumes, Mike Mikos scenic artist, "A Man For All Seasons"; John Guadagnoli and Chancey Miller tied for Best Stage Manager, for "A Man For All Seasons" and "Gypsy" respectively; Michele Karl, producer, "Gypsy"; James Sawyer and Mary Lou Britton, the two Worker of the Year awards and James Sawyer, technical director, "A Man For All Seasons."

Mary Herrinton, non-featured actress, "A Man For All Seasons."

Music Festival Continues With Concert on July 27

The Grosse Pointe Music Festival continues Tuesday, July 27, with its second concert in the air-conditioned Fries Auditorium of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center at 32 Lake Shore Road. Performing will be the Saint Clair Quartet. This musical team of four prominent Detroit Symphony members, although active less than two years, has already gained a wide reputation as one of the country's finest string quartets.

There is, of course, a popular impression that chamber music, and string quartets in particular, are pretty esoteric. Yet any alert observer can find excitement and intrigue in the performance of a fine quartet. Not only is string quartet music one of the keystones of the classics, it also lays bare artistic personality. More than any other combination, the quartet has a dynamic interplay and interdependence of players' personalities. In addition to being virtuosos, they must have trust and humility that enables them to join in a group personality. And they need tact to resolve conflicting musical views.

Volumes have been written about such problems as whether the first violinist is truly the leader and director, or whether a string quartet can be a completely democratic organization in artistic matters. Great quartets have claimed success both ways, though the solution must often be a combination of these extremes.

In the Saint Clair Quartet, its first violinist, Jerome Rosen, is Associate Concertmaster of the Detroit Symphony and a musician of formidable credentials. He consequently exerts leadership in important ways.

Born and raised in Detroit, Jerry Rosen began to study violin at the age of 5 and eventually took his Artist's Diploma at the Curtis Institute, plus a Bachelor of Music from the Cleveland Institute of Music. His violin teachers included Ivan Galamian, Josef Gingold, and Rafael Druian. He was also apprentice conductor of the Cleveland Orchestra for three years, and a student of composition.

His three companions are quick to acknowledge his skill at pinpointing the artistic problems in each piece of music and leading the group to inspiring solutions. With four sensitive personalities, where interaction can be fiery, this alone involves diplomacy and artistic integrity of a high order.

Second violinist is Haim Shtrum. A native of Israel, he graduated from the Juilliard School of Music where he studied with Dorothy DeLay and Louis Persinger. For three years he was 2nd violinist of the University of Delaware String Quartet.

Violist is Philip Porbe, a graduate of the University of Southern California and a former student of William Primrose and Vera Barstow. He was a member of the Cincinnati Symphony before coming to Detroit.

Although cellist John Thurman is listed last by tradition, his towering intensity and verve are sure to be potent forces in the collective personality. Newest of the four to the Detroit Symphony, Mr. Thurman is a graduate of Juilliard and former student of Bernard Greenhouse and Janos Starker. He too was a member of the University of Delaware String Quartet.

Their program for July 27 is a spectrum of quartet literature. It opens with Haydn, father of the symphony, who perfected many of his musical ideas in his string quartets. The work is Haydn's quartet in D major, named "The Famous Largo" for its songlike middle movement. The brief, but startling and inconoclastic 6th quartet of Bela Bartok, dated 1939, will follow. Its rhythms and pervasive sadness recalls the composer's continual use of native Hungarian musical ideas. As a finale, the program moves to the romantic period with one of the most lavishly tuneful and sonorous works—the C major quartet by Antonin Dvorak.

The concert begins at 8:30 p.m. and parking is free on the War Memorial parking lot. For tickets and information on this concert, and on the Festival's presentation of the full Detroit Symphony Orchestra on August 6, please contact the War Memorial at 32 Lake Shore Road, phone: TUXedo 1-7511.

Interior Dept. Job for Bodman

Richard Stockwell Bodman, 33, confirmed by the Senate July 14, 1971 to be the new Assistant Secretary of the Interior for Management and Budget.

Bodman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Bodman, of Lake Shore road.

He is a former partner in the firm of Touche, Ross and Company of San Francisco and Honolulu, a management consulting firm.

Bodman is a graduate of Princeton, Univ. (Engineering) and has an M.S. degree in Industrial Management from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

The new position of Assistant Secretary for Management and Budget calls for direction operations involving about 73,000 employees of the Interior Department, which has installations in all 50 States.

Secretary of the Interior Rogers C. B. Morton, commenting on the Senate confirmation of Bodman to the job, said:

"The combination of a new post of Assistant Secretary for Management and Budget and an incumbent like Dick Bodman—a young and talented administrator and financial manager—spells a new beginning in the running of the 122-year old Department of the Interior. Because Interior's responsibilities are increasing, and because we want the most mileage from our appropriations, we must give the talents within the Department the best chance to be used. This is the mission Bodman will have."

Speeding Cyclist Hits Patrol Car

A motorcyclist, fleeing a police officer early Tuesday morning, July 13, was injured when he collided with a Farms patrol car after riding across several front lawns on Torrey.

David Griffin, 18, of 490 Bournemouth, was taken to St. John Hospital, treated and released. He was charged with fleeing a police officer and reckless driving and the bond was set at $100.

Farms Patrolman Timothy Morrison first took up the chase after Griffin and a passenger, George Matsos, 17, of 19652 Blossom when he received a call reporting trouble at the Standard Oil Station at Mack and Moross.

Arriving at the station, Morrison and Officer Johannes Winter were told by the station attendants that the motorcyclists had already left, traveling North on Mack.

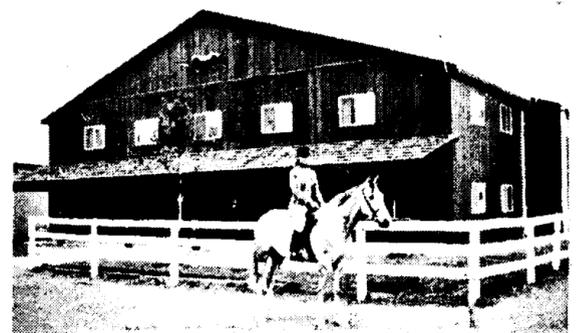

Finally catching up to the riders, Morrison turned on the car's siren and lights and ordered Griffin to pull over. Instead, Griffin tried to turn left onto Allard, traveling too fast to make the turn. Griffin found himself steering North in the southbound lane on Mack.

The patrol car finally managed to force Griffin to the curb where he stopped and Matsos got off the bike. Making another attempt to escape, Griffin suddenly took off again, jumping the island, and driving towards Torrey.

Griffin found his way on Mack blocked by a another patrol car and was forced to turn right onto Torrey. In hot pursuit, Morrison followed Griffin as the fugitive sped down Torrey on the sidewalk.

About an eighth of a mile from Mack, Griffin drove across several lawns in an effort to make the wide turn to the left and eventually jumped off the curb back into the street. The patrol car, meanwhile, had been keeping pace and collided with the speeder in front of 1151 Torrey.

Medi-car.

We haven't put in piped-in music and potted palms to help lull you into buying a new car.

But we have put in a special diagnostic system to help keep your car running like new long after you buy it.

The VV-diagnosis System: Medi-car.

When you buy a new Volkswagen, you get a series of 4 free check-ups where we use our diagnostic equipment to check out just about everything that can affect your car's health.

Our equipment can see things no human eyes can. So it can actually spot problems before they can become real problems.

Take the electrical console above. It's like an electrocardiograph.

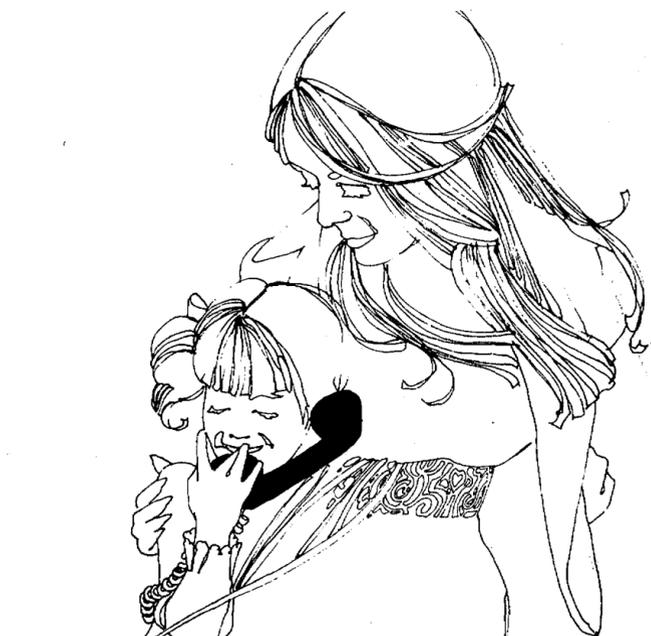

In seconds, it can tell us if the resistance in your spark plug wiring is too high, or if the dwell angle of your contact points is too large.

Unchecked, either of these could cut gas mileage and engine life.

But the main point is: While our Medi-car equipment would spot these problems before any damage is done, during a normal check-up no mechanic alive could.

Volkswagen Medi-car: It's a whole new way of life.

Burglars Visit Brownell School

A burglar, or burglars broke into the Brownell Middle School, 260 Chalonte, and stole a cash register from the cafeteria, sometime on July 17 or 18, Farms police were informed.

Officers sent to the school said that entry was gained by breaking a 38-by-28-inch window at the south side of the building, near the cafeteria. The break-in was reported by Casmer Andrzejewski, assistant engineer, who told investigating officers that he arrived at the school at 7:30 a.m. on Sunday, July 18, and discovered the window broken, and a cash register on the ledge near the window. The register had been taken from the cafeteria, he said, and left on the ledge. A second cash register, however, was missing from the building. There was no money in either register, the engineer said.

Pointers Donate Heaps of Glass

Bottles and cans are pouring in at a collection center established by Earth Lovers, a group of Grosse Pointe teenagers working out of the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church. The volume of refuse turned in at the center between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. doubled Saturday, July 17.

"I would never imagine that we could get so much glass in one day unless I saw it," Jon Houston, member of the all-volunteer group said. "We weren't quite prepared for it either. We had an average-sized truck, but it just wasn't big enough. The people kept coming and coming and coming."

"Around 3:30 p.m. we had to start turning people away," Mike Martin, another Earth Lover, said. "We just couldn't take any more glass, and we're all sorry about that. But we'll have a bigger truck next week, that's for sure!"

This coming Saturday, Earth Lovers will be able to handle any and all glass that people bring in between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. only.

Glass bottles must be rinsed out and aluminum rings removed. Cans should be flattened, and labels and ends removed. Also, large quantities of glass should be sorted according to color. The center is located in the Unitarian Church Annex, behind the Church, on the corner of Mawee and Neff.

Center Plans Yacht Cruise

Grosse Pointe War Memorial has planned for its patrons a mid summer moonlight yacht cruise on Lake St. Clair aboard the Royal Canadian Coast Guard-approved chartered Yacht "Papoose". The date is Saturday, August 7, 6:30 p.m. to 12 midnight.

Individual guests and parties will be picked up at Grosse Pointe War Memorial where they may park their cars free of charge and be transported by charter bus through the tunnel to Windsor, Ontario where they will board the yacht at the foot of Ouellette avenue.

On board they will find set-ups and cocktails available and they will be served a delicious box supper prepared by the War Memorial's own excellent cateress, Helen Blair.

The party will be taken for a four-hour cruise on the lake. The yacht has a covered open top deck as well as the main deck and stereo music is played throughout the ship.

At the conclusion of the cruise, the charter bus will whisk everyone back to the states and their cars waiting at 32 Lake Shore. Cost over-riding charter bus transportation to and from Canada, supper with cocktails available and the moonlight cruise on the lake is $10.50.

WOODS PARTICIPATION

Grosse Pointe Woods received an invitation at a recent council meeting from the City of Harper Woods to participate in a parade on September 18, celebrating the 20th anniversary of Harper Woods. The mayor or mayor pro-tem will represent the city in the festivities.

Shores Police Force Changes

One patrolman will be leaving and a new one will be joining the Grosse Pointe Shores Police Department, Shores Chief Joseph Vitale announced.

Patrolman Ronald Forth, a four-and-one-half year veteran of the Shores staff, will join the Dade County Police Department near Miami, Fla. Forth was born and raised in Florida and will be going back to his home state to enjoy the climate.

He says he has enjoyed working with the Shores officers and is sure his experiences at the Shores Department will "help immensely in the future." Chief Vitale referred to him as an energetic young officer.

Michael Kenyon, the new patrolman, is coming to the Shores after earning a BS degree in Physical Education from Western Michigan University and a two-year associate degree in Police Administration from Lansing Community College.

Kenyon, 23, and married, was born in Lansing and is a 1966 graduate of Haslett High School in Haslett, Mich. During his time there, he was awarded four varsity letters in athletics.

After his formal education, Kenyon used his teaching certificate to teach at Eastland Elementary school in Roseville.

As required by state law, Kenyon will spend at least 256 hours working at the department headquarters before going out in the field. In addition, he will attend the Metropolitan Police Academy for eight weeks beginning July 26. His father-in-law, Lieutenant Ignacious Backman, is a police officer in the Farms.

Install Gas air conditioning.

Be a cool customer. Choose Gas air conditioning. Why Gas? Operating costs are about half as much as electricity. And because a Gas system has fewer moving parts, it lasts longer. Requires less repairs. Also, Gas air conditioning customers are entitled to a special low rate on all the Gas they use, all summer long. There are other advantages, too. Less dust, humidity, pollen. And with full-house air conditioning, your windows and doors stay closed. Just call your air conditioning contractor or Michigan Consolidated Gas Company. And remember. There's more than enough Gas for all your home requirements.

Adopt Radar

In making his recommendation, the chief pointed out, he conferred with Bruce Butler, communications director and radio technician for the Pointe-Harper Woods Emergency Radio System. Butler spoke highly of the system.

The chief said that the Shores Public Safety Department has been using the Kustom Radar System for the past nine months and is very impressed with its performance. Too, the Woods is in the process of purchasing two new such units. The system is highly recommended by local and Wayne County police administrators, he added.

In a statement to the council, Chief Ferber had this to say:

"To prepare the community for the use of radar by our department, as well as a means by which to control speed and hopefully reduce accidents and injuries, I have proposed to erect signs stating 'Radar Enforcement' at entrances to the community and in high complaint areas. In addition, our scout cars will be marked 'Radar Enforcement'."

"I am totally convinced that the 'Proper Use of Radar' is nning August 2 Mr. Graef's and injuries can be reduced and the only means by which violators may be apprehended in many high complaint areas."

Delivery of the radar unit will be in about 10 days from the time the order is received, he said.

OVER 30 YEARS EXPERIENCE

SHEP Helping Young People

The Sacred Heart Enrichment Program, (SHEP), began six years ago to help bridge the gap between young people of the suburban and inner city cultures through a learning experience. SHEP was created in the summer of 1966 by the Religious of the Sacred Heart in Grosse Pointe to provide intensive learning experience for children from a variety of socio-economic, racial, religious and cultural backgrounds.

Under the direction of Sister Annette Zippel, SHEP began this year's session on June 28 and will continue through August 6. Some 250 fifth through eighth grade girls from 36 public and parochial schools in Detroit are participating in the program. The six-week session is designed to help motivate under-achievers.

SHEP also attempts to help instill an awareness in the students of their dignity and potential.

Religious and lay professionals from city and suburban schools, including teachers, reading consultants, counselors, social workers, teachers aids, students and parents have volunteered their services for the program. The directors of SHEP are five Religious of the Sacred Heart who were formerly on faculty of the Academy of the Sacred Heart before its closing in 1968.

SHEP will use the school facilities of the Grosse Pointe Academy at 171 Lake Shore, every Monday through Thursday from 8:30 a.m. until 4 p.m. Field trips will be held on Fridays.

The SHEP schedule includes a special studies program in journalism, development, math and reading, creative writing, dance and dramatics, special music, Spanish, French, current events, movement class and mythology.

A varied hour with invited speakers, entertainers, film study, choral music, flower arrangement or personality development is also part of the program. Art, sewing, tennis, dramatics, music or special tutoring classes complete the schedule.

An open house will be held at the Academy on Sunday, August 1, from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. followed by a program of dance, music, art and drama. A fashion show by the sewing classes will conclude the program.

All interested persons are welcome to attend the open house. SHEP is sponsored through tax deductible donations. Contributions of a scholarship, at $200, will provide food, transportation, program, supplies and field trips for one girl not only during the summer program but for the on-going activities of the year.

Checks should be made payable to SHEP and sent to: Sister Annette Zippel, 171 Lake Shore road, Grosse Pointe 48236.

Farms, City Set All-Star Tourney

Both the Grosse Pointe Farms and the Grosse Pointe City Little League All-Stars will be taking part in the 1971 Williamsport International All-Star Tournament.

With the finals ending in Williamsport, Pa., the first games for the Pointers will be on Friday, July 23, and Saturday, July 24. The City will play Friday at 5:30 p.m. at George Elworthy Field while the Farms' baseballers will start their tournament Saturday at 4 p.m. at Kerby Field.

The boys representing the Farms are Bob Neville, Art Wilkins, Joe Gorski, Jay Williams, John Knipp, Keith Williams, Rick Thomas, Bill Cody, Bob Schmitt, Grant Pische, Durrell Graham, Dan Couvreur, Phil Hendrie and Mike Lizza. The alternates are Rick Baker, Kirk Purdy and John Hasse. John Case, is the manager of the All Stars with Wendell Baker as coach.

"These boys and their teammates have given us excellent entertainment over the season with a fine calibre of baseball," Julian Thomas, publicity director said, with this season being the greatest in our history. It is hoped that many fans will turn out to cheer on our All-Stars.

For Grosse Pointe City, this marks the first time the Little League has participated in the world-wide competition to determine the International Little League Championship team.

The City All-Stars, managed by Art Fetters with George Maghielse coaching, will meet Shelby-Utica American All-Stars, managed by Bill Nunn, with Gene Strube coaching.

The Grosse Pointe City team was picked from the four City teams by their managers and coaches. They are Bill Anderson, John Beebe, Pete Beveridge, Tim Birk, Scott Coles, Larry Coughlin, Dave Evenden, Kevin Fitzgerald, Tim Lane, Tom Lott, George Maghielse, Bob Montgomery, Jeff Palms, and Doug Skipp.

Everyone is invited to watch these first round games with what should prove to be some of the best Little League baseball of the year. Come out and support your team.

Perfect Weather For Sail Races

Fifty-five boats took off under a clear sky on Tuesday night, July 13, in the Grosse Pointe Sail Club races. The wind was variable and switched from north-northwest to west-northwest with gusts going from 20 to 35 miles per hour, which made it a real sailor's delight.

Favored by the strong breeze the first boat made it around the course in 37 minutes. Out of the 55 boats which entered the race seven were not registered, 11 were disqualified for being too far out in the channel and only three did not finish.

The results are: START ONE: CULPURNIA, John Fleck; COLUMBIA II, Frank Krembel Jr.; and DE-GUELLO, William E. Cross Jr.

START TWO: SHAMROCK, Guy Ireland; CHIQUITA, Joe Archer; and CHAO, Vern Kors.

START THREE: ARIEL, Jim Kemp; BLUE CHIP, Bill Henley; and SOMA, Daniel Hazebrook.

START FOUR: LUFT-CHEN, G. Ertman; RED WING, Bob Fisk; and POON, Douglas Jones, Jr.

CLEANED OUT
Mrs. Ayers Morison, 938 Three Mile drive, called City police on Monday, July 12, to report persons unknown had entered her locked car, which was parked in the rear of 17145 Kercheval, and removed 11 men's shirts that she was planning to take to the laundry.

HELMET HEISTED
City police received a report from Julius Deraedt, 2101 Vernier, on Wednesday, July 7, stating that while his Honda cycle was parked at 454 Rivard between 9 p.m. and 9:30 p.m., persons unknown had removed his Endro orange helmet with black stripes from the handlebars. The helmet was valued at $22.

'Old' Pointe Athlete Walks To Possible Olympic Berth

Most athletic careers end in high school or college. Creeping fat, livelihood schedules, television, and inconvenience set in. Some stay relatively trim and fit by engaging in a non-team sport that is not too strenuous and not nearly as much a strain as track or long distance swimming. Others prefer the rough road.

Bill Walker, 1333 Beaconsfield, is 34 years old and can walk 30 miles faster than most people can run, of those few who can be found who are capable of running OR walking that distance.

Being true to his name, Walker is an amateur and champion competitive walker and has been chosen to be one of the 16 participants to take a three-week training course under strict training conditions at the University of Colorado, in Boulder, Colo.

The camp is set up for those chosen by the Olympic Training Committee to train for a possible spot in the 1972 Olympics. Of the 16 participants, eight will be walking 50 kilometers, or 31.1 miles, and eight will be specializing in the 12 mile walk.

A year from this September, Walker may be one of the three Americans sent to Munich, Germany to represent, the United States in the 50 kilometer walk. Three others will be picked to compete in the 20 kilometer event, but Bill says he prefers to compete in the longer race.

What does a person have to do to attain such proficiency in such an unusual sport? First there's interest. Bill's came when he unexpectedly finished very well with almost no training in a Belle Isle race back in 1968. After the race, he figured he should give the sport some serious consideration. His interest and success in the sport eventually over shadowed his competency in rowing for the Detroit Boat Club. As a team member he had helped the club attain an American Championship during his rowing years.

Since then he's been seriously competitive as a strider and winning races to prove it. Sponsored by the Motor City Striders, Bill helped the club win the senior 30 kilometer walk championship in the American Athletic Union. In 1968, he won the McMasters race in Chicago. In 1969, he walked his way to the Junior National AAU Championship. He has also picked up first places in Ohio, Iowa and New Jersey in recent years.

Just this month, Bill competed in the Blue Water Marathon, a grueling 26-mile RUN from Mt. Clemens to Marysville, Mich. While everyone else was running, Bill was walking.

"I can walk as fast as the slow runners can run, so I thought I'd sign up," Bill explains.

Anyone can see why. Bill does all his walking out on Windmill Pointe drive for up to three hours during every weekday, and up to four hours on the weekends. Being in shape means covering 25 miles on the road. It also means walking over 30 miles in something under five hours. Bill also trains by lifting weights and riding a bicycle when he's not walking.

Now he finds himself in Boulder, Colo. as one of the best amateur striders in the country. The training camp will separate the men from the Public Schools in Focus

By Dr. Theos I. Anderson, Superintendent of Schools
 Since April 12, when Governor Milliken sent his special message "Excellence in Education—Equity in Taxation" to the State Legislature, some residents of the school district have expressed concern that a "new" proposal for funding education was in the offing. This reaction, from even a few people, surprises me, since virtually no single topic has received wider coverage in the metropolitan papers or in national magazines than today's crisis in educational funding. In the past two years I have devoted no fewer than 13 "Public Schools in Focus" columns to this recurring record. Let us examine the record.

December 20, 1968
 I discussed the state aid distribution formulas for 1969-70 advanced by the Michigan Association of School Administrators, the Michigan Department of Education, and that contained in the so-called "Spencer proposal." It was Representative Spencer's plan to "shift the financial burden from the local property tax to an income tax and state general fund to provide a method enabling a low-value district to provide a high-value educational program."

February 10, 1969
 Column financed a discussion of $141.17 per child in general state aid, a proposal advanced by the Governor that would have netted Grosse Pointe an increase of $130,000 when we faced a possible budget increase of $1 million.

July 27, 1970
 I referred to the possibility of a graduated state income tax and a limitation on property tax for school purposes. August 11, 1970
 The column contained the entire state aid formula with the notation that state aid this year had declined to 12.3 per cent of the system's anticipated operating revenue for the year.

November 3, 1970
 I wrote: "The November 3 General Election is over and it is time for the residents of this entire school district to begin to work together to repeal or amend subsection 6 of section 8b of Public Act 100 which Governor Milliken approved on July 20."

December 8, 1970
 "Slowly but surely, responsible citizens of Grosse Pointe are awakening to loss of local control of public education inherent in a portion of the state aid bill, Public Act 100 of 1970," is a quotation from a statement written by Mrs. D. G. Schneider, a concerned citizen, and transmitted to educators and school trustees across the State of Michigan. December 18, 1970
 "As public education in Michigan drifts closer and closer to regional and state control, (as opposed to local control), it is obvious that those who will be affected by this growing trend — students, parents, educators, trustees, and the public-at-large — will have to shift their philosophical gears to accommodate the sweeping changes that appear on the horizon." I also urged citizens to make their opinions felt in Lansing.

December 28, 1970
 I listed as six major challenges of the 1971 year the erosion of local control of education, employee negotiations, financing, the renovation of South High School, the impact of far-reaching legal decisions on our system, and increased student activism. Note that local control was at the top of the list.

March 16, 1971
 I discussed the state-inspired "uncertainties" that were partly responsible for defeat of the March 15 millage election.

March 27, 1971
 I commended Mrs. John A. Nelson and the Grosse Pointe Study and Action Committee for the group's efforts in the amendment of Public Act 100 and urged formation of permanent community-wide legislative group for future battles.

March 30, 1971
 I commented upon Governor Milliken's pre-campaign statement regarding the unacceptability of limitations on per pupil revenues. And I stated: "As I have attempted to indicate on many previous occasions in the past, Public Act 100 is just part of a larger picture. Currently we are studying the possible local impact of a state-inspired proposal recommending a new plan for local and regional reorganization. The net effect of all of this would be a lessening of local control and an increase in state control. But this can hardly be classified as 'news.' Readers realize that I have urged Grosse Pointers concerned about the drift from local public education to make an effort to attend the series of public hearings being held this spring by the Michigan Department of Education to discuss the tentative publication, 'The Common Goals of Michigan Education.'"

April 2, 1971
 I commented on the memorandum from Dr. John W. Porter, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, to the State Board of Education regarding the regionalization of Department of Education activities — which could only result in a further loss of "local control."

April 15, 1971
 As we pondered the possible local impact of the Governor's statement, I commented that what public education needs is a long-range fiscal program that will garner bipartisan support.

Is this a recurring theme — or merely broken record? How many Grosse Pointe residents have taken the time to contact a legislator?

What Goes On at Your Library
 By Virginia Leonard

How about some new books — recent acquisitions — at the library to spark up your summer reading?

Do you remember HOW TO BECOME A BISHOP WITHOUT BEING RELIGIOUS by Charles Merrill Smith? If so, you will want to read his new THE PEARLY GATES SYNDICATE: OR, HOW TO SELL REAL ESTATE IN HEAVEN. Once again we have this author's spirit of mischievous innocence, for here we have a history of the Church with a new twist — the "Christian Corporation" stacked up against General Motors! I can't believe that all this will shock you and certainly should give you a chuckle or two.

Zoe Oldenbourg has a hefty new novel out, THE HEIRS OF THE KINGDOM. With the background setting of the Middle Ages, Mrs. Oldenbourg tells the dramatic tale of what it was like to be a part of the great mass of the poor who joined the long and arduous trek to Jerusalem on the First Crusade. Her poor people are incredibly human, and this is an epic tale spread upon a vast canvas.

On March 6, 1970, Diana Oughton died with two young men in the basement of a Greenwich Village townhouse occupied by the Weathermen. She was killed by a nail-studded bomb, possibly of her own making. This story is told by Thomas Powers in DIANA: THE MAKING OF A TERRORIST. Here was a girl from a small mid-western town. Her family was prosperous and she seemed to enjoy an untroubled childhood. She had been interested later in doing social work for the poor, but felt frustrated and soon her concern and disappointment turned to despair. Thus she was drawn slowly toward radical politics and eventually to violence.

How about a good novel? Then try SAVANNAH PURCHASE by Jane Aiken Hodge. Here is depicted the elegance, splendor and gentility of the South in the early 19th century, with a story that combines romance, intrigue and suspense. From the blurb, it sounds both historical and gothic.

You've undoubtedly read about ROSE by Gail Cameron — the biography of Rose Fitzgerald Kennedy. Here is the first full-length intimate portrait of one of America's most remarkable women, the matriarch of the Kennedy family. Many have read widely of Rose Kennedy and admired this indomitable woman — now you can read all about her.

Plotted and set against the glamorous background of diplomatic circles in Washington and New York and on exotic Barbados, you will want to read THE TAMARIND SEED by Evelyn Anthony, a dramatic story of a beautiful woman who falls in love with a Russian and finds herself trapped in a web of suspicion, violence and international espionage. If you like Evelyn Anthony we think you will like her latest contribution also.

If Ireland is your bag, we would recommend Emily Han's FRACTURED EMERALD: IRELAND. Here you will see the Irish, tough, ill-used, witty and tragic, but almost unique. Here you will also encounter great figures from Ireland's past: St. Patrick, Sean O'Neill, Oliver Cromwell to name a few. The author has an almost contagious love for this country and its people, and she shows its many facets to us — religious, social, economic and political.

Walter Cronkite has been described by TIME magazine as "the single most convincing and authoritative figure in TV news." Probably no broadcast newsman has been seen by more people, covered more major stories, reported on such a variety of subjects as has this CBS Correspondent. For this reason EYE ON THE WORLD by Cronkite should be exciting and enjoyable reading. Here he combines two media — utilizing the immediacy of on-the-scene reporting with the opportunity for reflection offered by the permanence of print. We do recommend it.

Are you a pretty poor handyman or handywoman? So many of us are that we all welcome THE COMPLETE BOOK OF PITFALLS by Derek Williamson. The subtitle reads: "A victim's guide to repairs, maintenance, and repairing the maintenance." Plumbing problems, electrical wiring headaches, how to (and not to) remove wallpaper, "dividing" rooms, etc. are all discussed with practicality and humor. The blurb suggests that this book is "for everyone who has ever lifted a hammer and wondered why."

We've run out of space and we do have more books to recommend. Do come in and browse in our "new books" section — you may find others that will interest you during these hot summer days.

To The Editor:
 It seems at this time that there are widespread bike thefts in the Grosse Pointe area. It is a shame that a bike placed on private property is considered fair game by some. It is in this vein that I would like to address this letter, to the group of "laughing" teenagers who on Sunday night, the 11th of July, stole two, almost new five-speed bikes, each costing over $100, from the backyard patio of a home on Prestwick in Grosse Pointe Woods.
 May you each some day lose something that you value, and know the anguish that you have caused two 13-year-old boys.

Letters to the Editor

To The Editor:
 Backyard pools are beautiful and fun for your family and friends, but can be a curse for those neighbors around them. Kids of all ages enjoying a swim together is a wonderful sound, if it's within reason! It's the people who begin their cocktail and dinner parties at 7 p.m. and then decide that everyone present must go for a swim at 12:30-1:00 a.m. that bothers the neighbors. These parties often last until 2-2:30 a.m. and that's pretty late for those people who have small children trying to sleep. These unthinking, selfish people are usually so sloshed that they shouldn't go near the water in the first place, but they are just the ones that suggest races, skinny dips, etc. Do these partygoers not realize how sound carries, especially at night, and that we don't ALL have air conditioning to drown out the sound. We must keep our windows closed, and you know how hot it has been this summer!

May I suggest:
 1) The pool installation companies give a booklet to every new pool owner on pool etiquette. Our lots here in Grosse Pointe, for the most part, are very close together and not conducive to midnight entertaining of this sort.
 2) The cities adopt a printed code of conduct for all pool owners. They tell you to call the Police with your complaint and they will send a scout car around to warn the offenders to quiet down. It seems to us that the police have their hands full of much more serious offenses to take care of, why burden them with something that people should have sense enough to do themselves. We don't always want to call the police ourselves as we must live near them afterwards. I must add here that this does not happen every weekend or with any regularity, but occasionally is often enough.

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

It's a "Why Didn't Anybody Ever Think of That BEFORE?" kind of project.

Everybody's excited about it. Everybody's delighted about it. We're talking—of course!—about "Making The Scene," the cultural events calendar that tells-at-a-glance what's happening, today, in the metropolitan Detroit area.

For instance: Don't plan ANYTHING for December 9, (that's a Thursday), this year.

Eight Big Things are already listed on the calendar for December 9, 1971, including the Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra's Christmas Walk in Grosse Pointe.

"Making The Scene" is the Symphony Juniors' new big project this year, and it's Marianne (Mrs. Charles) Endicott's baby. Marianne, of Blairmoor court, is the Juniors' president.

"Cincinnati had done it," she says, explaining where Making The Scene's idea came from, "and I'd read about it. And then, last year, one of the girls from our, (The Detroit Symphony Juniors'), board moved down there (to Cincinnati) . . ."

Project HOPE Party Success

The day was mid-way between balmy and brisk, the breezes blew pleasantly off Lake St. Clair and the 400 or so friends of Project HOPE who gathered lakeside on the Ranger property in East Jefferson avenue Sunday for a Mexican Fiesta sponsored by the Hope Ship League had an absolutely smashing good time! No one, of course, had a better time than Betty Wodtke, of Mack avenue. She's the lady who received word at the end of the party that she'll be flying off to Mexico, courtesy of Aeronaves de Mexico, in the very near future. That's a delightful way to wind up a delightful day.

These are tears.

One day back in 1960, we remember seeing three of them. But not since! Mostly nice big smiles are what we see around our place. On our stylists. On our shampooists. On everyone from our receptionist to our maid. And on our clients, too. Who very much approve the careful way we cut and color and condition and comb and—oh well, everything! If you'd like a very happy hairdresser who specializes in clients of the same, see us. The only place we believe in tears is at the movies.

Miss Roshak Says Vows On July 17

Becomes Bride of Milan Michael Bucko at Evening Service; Home in Detroit Awaits Pair, Who Are Vacationing on Cape Cod

Marygrove College's Chapel was the setting Saturday, July 17, for the wedding of Barbara Lynne Roshak, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Roshak, of Van K drive, and Milan Michael Bucko, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Bucko, of Middlesex boulevard.

After a reception at Raleigh House following the early evening rites the newlyweds left for a vacation on Cape Cod. They will return to reside in Detroit.

A gown of ivory silk organza over taffeta, fashioned with a Mandarin neck, bishop sleeves and an A line skirt and featuring a bodice and front panel of re-embroidered Alencon lace studded with clusters of seed pearls, was the former Miss Roshak's choice for the 6 o'clock ceremony.

Matching lace appliques accented her detachable Chapel train and a lace and pearl headpiece held her Cathedral length silk illusion veil. She carried a cascade of white roses, yellow Sweetheart roses, lilies-of-the-valley and baby's-breath.

Mrs. Herbert M. Gesner came from New York to serve as her sister's honor matron. Honor maid was Janice Bulgarelli and bridesmaids were Cheryl Milbrand and Ellen Bucko, the bridegroom's sisters.

Woven ivory cotton lace defined the Empire waists and formed bibs on the high-necked bodices of their Victorian style brown voile frocks. Each carried a Colonial arrangement of yellow Sweetheart roses, yellow daisies, baby's breath and trailing ivy.

Will Wed

Planning a September 17 wedding at St. Philip Neri Church are GLORIA ANN DEBETS and Daniel J. Reghi, whose engagement has been announced by her mother, Mrs. Agnes Debets, of Wayburn road.

The bride-elect, a St. Ambrose High School graduate, is also the daughter of the late Alphonse J. Debets. Her fiancé is the son of Mrs. Elizabeth Reghi Mahon, of Luzerne, Mich.

New Museum Wing to Open

Four days of public events celebrating the opening of the North Wing of the Detroit Institute of Arts Thursday, October 21, through Sunday, October 24, have been announced by museum director Willis F. Woods.

Chairmen of committees now being formed to stage the multitude of activities have also been named.

With the opening of the $7,500,000 North Wing, companion to the South Wing dedicated in 1966, the building expansion program of the Art Institute will be completed. The new North galleries, featuring late 19th Century French, contemporary and Oriental art, will increase museum exhibition space to 101 galleries.

Any citizen who wishes to attend any of the special events may subscribe. Total activities include not only free tours of the new facilities but souvenirs of the celebration. Dinners, dancing, a special concert and youth theater programs will be announced soon.

Honorary chairmen of dedication events are Mrs. Edsel B. Ford, of Lakeshore road, Mrs. Alvan Macauley, Jr., of Kenwood road, and Mrs. Barnett Malbin, of Birmingham. Special events chairman is Mrs. Henry Ford, II, of Lakeshore road, assisted by co-chairman Mrs. Lee Hills, of Detroit.

Other committees headed by Pointers include Protocol, Mrs. Allan Sheldon; Patrons Dinner, Mrs. Ralph T. McElvenny; Public Lectures, W. T. Hawkins Ferry; Dedication Luncheon, Ralph T. McElvenny, co-chairman; Commemorative Publication, Robert H. Kanzler; Publicity, William D. Laurie, Jr.; and Invitations, Mrs. Harold O. Love.

Ex-officio committee members are Pointer William M. Day, chairman of the Founders Society board of trustees, Willis F. Woods, director, Detroit Institute of Arts, and Frederick Cummings, assistant director, Detroit Institute of Arts.

Straight A students at Michigan Technological University during the spring quarter were senior Chemical Engineering major DAVID F. McLAUGHLIN, son of the DONALD L. McLAUGHLINS, of Manor avenue, and junior Mechanical Engineering major JAMES R. SIPS, son of the EDWARD J. SIPS, of Van Antwerp road.

Ellsworth Stay Weds In East

Ellsworth James Stay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth M. Stay, of North Oxford road, claimed Martha Denise Donnelly, daughter of the Edward H. Donnellys, of Waltham, Mass., as his bride Saturday, June 19.

Officiating at the ceremony during a nuptial mass in Our Lady of Victory Chapel, Centerville, Cape Cod, was the Reverend Harold Kirley S. J. The bride wore a gown of organza accented with Alencon lace. Her chapel length illusion veil fell from a flowered lace demi-cap and she carried her mother's satin-covered prayer book with roses and stephanotis.

Matron of honor was Mrs. James F. McKenna, Jr., the bride's sister, of Westport. Bridesmaids were Joan Kerwin and Barbara Morico, of New York City.

The bridegroom asked Michael D. Murray, of St. Clair Shores, to serve as best man. Ushering were the bride's brother, E. Owen Donnelly, of Pittsburgh, and Corbin Pease Elliott.

After a reception at the Popponesset Inn, West Falmouth, Mass., the newlyweds vacationed at Martha's Vineyard. They will reside in Flint while the bridegroom continues his Medical School studies at Michigan State University. The bride is currently teaching at the Michigan School for the Deaf.

Showers Honor Daneen Smith

Beginning in May, pre-nuptial parties were held for Daneen Mara Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Albert Smith, Jr., of Beaupre avenue. Daneen will become the bride of John Robert Sweeton, of Birmingham, on Friday, July 23, in St. Paul's-on-the-Lake-shore.

A kitchen shower was given in Miss Smith's honor by Mrs. Walter Fosdick, of Detroit, on May 15 and on May 20, the bride-elect's roommates and Alpha Xi Delta sorority sisters at Eastern Michigan University, Nancy Emory and Connie Snow, gave a party for Daneen's college friends at Nancy's home in Ann Arbor.

Miscellaneous showers were given on June 5 by the Smith's neighbor, Mrs. Andrew Mihalik, of Beaupre avenue, and on June 19 by Mrs. Edna Moeller, of Neff road.

Another miscellaneous party was given by Mr. Sweeton's three aunts, Mrs. William Smith, Mrs. Howard Srock and Mrs. George Gehling, all of Birmingham.

The rehearsal dinner this evening will be held at the Kingsley Inn in Birmingham.

Arnold Home Auxiliary Opens New Gift Shop

The Arnold Home Auxiliary opened its Gift Shop last Thursday, July 15, with a simple ceremony attended by Auxiliaries who will work there.

The shop's purpose is that of service to the residents of the Home, and an effort is being made to make available to them items which they need and to offer them the pleasure of shopping in person.

Among items carried are greeting cards, stationery, sundries, jewelry, cosmetics, inexpensive plants and floral arrangements. Other merchandise will be added as demand indicates.

It is hoped the shop will specialize in articles especially designed and suitable for the older man or woman, and also items of interest to staff members.

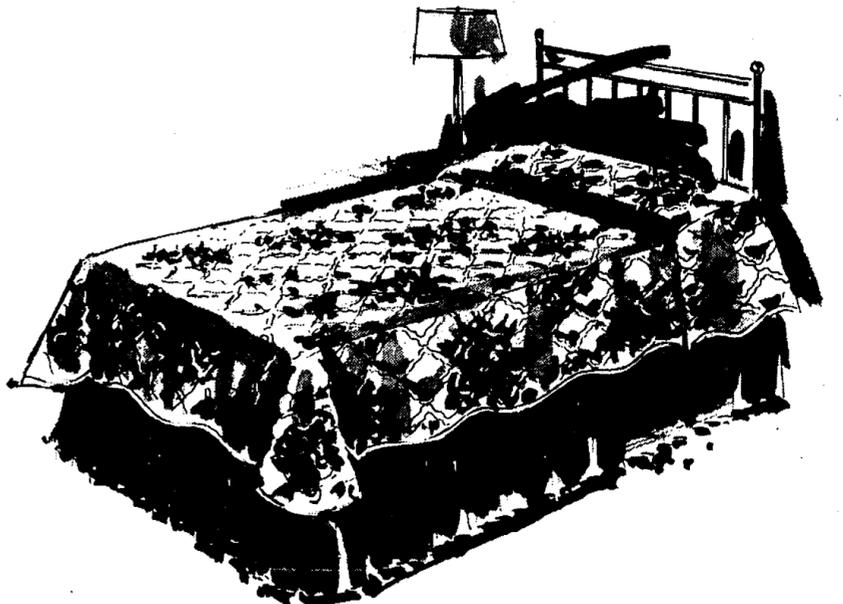

The shop is staffed by volunteer members of the Auxiliary. All proceeds are designated for the benefit of Home residents.

The public is invited to visit the shop Monday through Saturday between 11 and 4 o'clock.

Awards and Debuts Evening Scheduled

Fall Dinner Presentation at Raleigh House Will Benefit Mount Carmel Mercy Hospital and Medical Center

A new debutante season which will reflect a racial, social and economic cross-section of metropolitan Detroit will be launched in September as a way to raise money for Mount Carmel Mercy Hospital and Medical Center.

The Executive Cabinet Annual Award Dinner and Debutante Presentation was announced at a breakfast at the Detroit Athletic Club hosted by general chairman John Z. DeLo-rean.

Frank D. Stella will serve as vice-chairman of the event. The September 21 party will be held at the Raleigh House in Southfield. Proceeds from the $100-per-person tickets for cocktails, dinner and the presentation will be utilized in the estimated $25 million building and remodeling campaign at the Hospital and Medical Center over the next 10 years.

Debutantes to be presented will be selected for their volunteer activities, dedication to the community and upon recommendation of someone outside their own families.

A committee under the direction of Mrs. Bernard L. Dzik will make the final selection of the girls entering their senior year of high school from applications which may be obtained from the Hospital.

Also featured at the dinner will be the Executive Cabinet presentation of the Sword of Mercy Award and the Lady of Mercy Award to men and women who have contributed significantly to the world about them.

The names of six nationally-recognized persons to be honored will be announced later by the Cabinet, a group of local citizens actively involved in the sale of tables for the dinner.

Joining in the planning for the event that is expected to draw 1,200 persons are Mrs. James Quello, of Berkshire road, chairman of arrangements; Mrs. Thomas Girardy, Mrs. Edward N. Cole, Mrs. Troy Maschmeyer, John R. Mulroy and Mrs. Edward S. Pierson.

Professor HARRIET H. WERLEY, of Hollywood avenue, is director of Wayne State University's College of Nursing Center for Nursing Research, which recently received a grant of $105,000 from the United States Public Health Service to study attitudes of professionals towards family planning.

Society News Gathered from All the Pointes

Rites in St. Paul's For Mary E. Leone

Tour of California Follows Afternoon Wedding of John Joseph Cantwells; Mother's Antique Wedding Gown Chosen by Bride

St. Paul's-on-the-Lakeshore was the setting for the Saturday, July 17, wedding of Mary Elizabeth Leone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Gerard Leone, of Mapleton road, and Lt. John Joseph Cantwell, son of the Peter Cantwells, of Southgate.

The 12:30 o'clock rites at which the bride's cousin, Father Christopher Mercier, presided were followed by a reception at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, after which the newlyweds left for a tour of California and the West Coast.

They will make their home in Cheyenne, Wyo., where the bridegroom is stationed with the United States Air Force.

Seed pearl embroidery around the yoke and down the raglan sleeves accented the bride's antique satin wedding dress once worn by her mother. A cap of Rosepointe lace held her illusion veil, covering the train of her dress.

She carried a bouquet of phalaenopsis orchids, ivy and stephanotis.

Carrying old-fashioned bouquets of multicolored flowers and wearing matching floral wreaths in their hair were the honor attendant Denise Leone, the bride's sister, and bridesmaids Melinda, Cynthia, Joan and Alicia Leone, also sisters of the bride, and Mary Ellen Cantwell, sister of the bridegroom.

Wendy Klenk served as flower girl.

Their antique white water taffeta gowns had Empire waistslines and miniature trains.

Charles Orr, the bridegroom's Sigma Tau fraternity brother, served as best man. Ushers were the bridegroom's brothers, James, Donald, Peter and Joseph Cantwell, and the bride's brother, Tom Leone.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Leone chose a blue china silk gown covered with multicolored flowers and fashioned with a scalloped hem.

The bridegroom's mother selected a mint green crepe frock with an overlay of lace and bell-shaped lace sleeves.

Russo-Etowski Rites Revealed

Ann Etowski, daughter of the Earl Etowskis, of Sandusky, O., became the bride of John Russo, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Russo, of Broadstone road, Saturday, June 26, in St. Ann's Church, Sandusky.

Venice lace trimmed the Empire bodice, neckline and sleeves of her white organza gown and her controlled bell skirt was banded with matching lace, as were her Camelot headpiece and floor length illusion veil.

Pink satin ribbon tied her bouquet of pink daisies and stephanotis circled with baby's-breath.

She was attended by Christine Schomig, Julie Etowski, Jane Crimmons, of Port Huron, and Mrs. Jack Etowski, of Cleveland, whose Gibson Girl frocks featured white voile bodices, full sleeves trimmed with daisy lace and pink flocked organza skirts.

They wore daisy-lace-banded organza ruffles in their hair and carried nosegays of white and pink daisies and baby's-breath, tied with pink satin ribbon.

Year-and-a-half-old Elizabeth Etowski, in pink and white dotted Swiss, was her aunt's flower girl.

Jon Schomig, James Russo, Jr., Jack Etowski and Tony Catania attended the bridegroom.

The rites were followed by a reception at Sandusky's Holiday Inn. The newlyweds vacationed in North Carolina and will make their home in Warren where the bride, a Marygrove College graduate, is a teacher in the Warren Public School System.

The bridegroom was graduated from Grosse Pointe South High School and Eastern Michigan University.

A Grand Gift From Louisa St. Clair DAR

Fete Bride-Elect Ann M. Nolting

Pre-nuptial parties began in May for Ann Marie Nolting, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Wilfred S. Nolting, of West Emory court. She will become Mrs. W. Daniel Steiner this Saturday, July 24, in First English Evangelical Lutheran Church.

A party was given May 15 for Mrs. Nolting's friends by Mrs. Robert Hutton, of Devonshire road, Mrs. Carl Hassel, of Roland court, and Mrs. John Reid Brown and Mrs. Walter Neeb, both of Chalfonte avenue.

At the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club on June 12 a round-the-clock shower was given by Sidonie Dossin and her mother, Mrs. Ernest J. Dossin, of Oxford road, Coleen Bunting, of Harrow, Ont., and Darlene Laskowski, of Detroit. The Misses Bunting and Laskowski taught with Miss Nolting at Pennow Elementary School in Warren.

A linen shower was given on June 13 by Ann Marie's former roommate at Eastern Michigan University, Jo Ann Radakovic, of Wyandotte, and on July 1 the bride-elect's future mother-in-law, Mrs. Wayne Steiner, of Bellaire, gave a luncheon for her friends at Torch Lake where the Noltings have a summer home. Mrs. William Forgrave and her daughter, Joan, also of Bellaire, gave a linen shower for Miss Nolting on July 8.

The rehearsal dinner will be held at Stouffer's Restaurant tomorrow, Friday, July 23, followed by a party given by the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George Peash, of Berkeley, and by Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kroman, of Detroit.

On the day of the wedding the bride's sister and matron of honor, Mrs. Phillip Hood, of St. Clair Shores, will hold a luncheon in her home for the bride's attendants and parents of the bride and bridegroom.

David H. Arndt Claims A Bride

Exchanging marriage vows Saturday, July 17, before The Reverend Soterious Gouvellis in St. George Greek Orthodox Church, Bloomfield Hills, were Katherine A. Polydoros, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Lange, of Waterford Township, and David H. Arndt, son of John H. Arndt, of Barrington road, and the late Mrs. Arndt.

The bride chose a floor length gown featuring an Empire bodice studded with peau d'ange lace and pearls. Lace and pearl appliques accented her organza over taffeta skirt and Cathedral train, and her shoulder length veil fell from a beaded headpiece.

She carried a Victorian bouquet of pink and white Sweetheart roses, stephanotis and baby's-breath.

Mary Agan, of Millington, Mich., was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Nancy Drakos, the bride's cousin, Nancy Huff, Nancy Boshaw and Kathy O'Connell. Melissa Drakos, another cousin of the bride, served as flower girl.

Thomas Arndt, the bridegroom's brother, and Tony Drakos, bride's cousin, acted as best men. John Entenman, Robert Amano, Larry Brill, of Dayton, O., and Kevin Lange seated the guests, and ring bearers were Warren Widger and Steven Drakos.

The new Mrs. Arndt, a 1970 Hurley School of Nursing graduate, and her husband, graduated this year from General Motors Institute, where he affiliated with Phi Gamma Delta fraternity, will make their home in Warren.

Camp Fire Girls Plan Camp Wathana Summer

Camp Fire Girls throughout the city are hauling their sleeping bags off shelves, testing anti-mosquito sprays, shining up mess kits and sewing on name tags.

This flurry of activity is one of the heralds of summertime, and most important for most Camp Fire Girls—camp time.

Camp Wathana, the Detroit Area Council of Camp Fire Girls resident camp near Holly, has begun its summer season.

Many Inner City girls who have never had a camping experience will be joining Camp Fire Girls (ages six through 16), to make friends with each other and with the out-of-doors.

Camp Fire Girls have always stressed an awareness and appreciation of the out-of-doors, therefore it is not unusual to see the campers spending two days and nights in an authentic Woodland Indian dome-shaped dwelling, (Waginoan in the Chippeway language), practicing primitive campcraft and Indian cooking.

Swimming, diving, canoeing, archery and learning erosion control, tree pruning and wildlife management are among the activities for campers.

A new feature at Camp Wathana is bike hiking. The girls take short bicycle trips on back trails in and around the camp in preparation for a two-day overnight on bikes.

Camp Wathana's 10-day summer sessions will continue through August 19.

Set Krol-Frame Rites In August

Mr. and Mrs. William Frame, of Benjamin drive, St. Clair Shores, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Kathleen Sue, to Anthony J. Krol, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Krol, of Dorthen road. They plan an August 13 wedding.

The bride-elect was graduated from McCluer High School St. Louis, Mo., and presently works for a Detroit advertising agency. Her fiancé, graduated in 1968 from Grosse Pointe South High School, is associated with Garrity Dodge in Hamtramck.

Rueger-Hermes Vows Spoken

Margaret Mary Hermes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hermes, of Oak Lawn, Ill., and C. Fredrick Rueger, son of Dr. and Mrs. Carlisle Rueger, of McKinley avenue, exchanged marriage vows Saturday, July 3, in St. Gerald's Church, Oak Lawn.

The Reverend Emmett Cashman, of St. Paul, Minn., uncle of the bride, officiated.

For the ceremony the bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of white silk chiffon over taffeta. Her bodice, high neckline and long full sleeves were re-embroidered with appliques of Alencon lace.

She wore a full length mantilla of Brussels lace over a satin camelot cap and carried a bouquet of white daisies, lilies-of-the-valley and baby's-breath.

Honor attendant Marcelle Kelley, of San Francisco, and bridesmaid Mrs. John Bodengroom, wore matching dresses of silk chiffon over taffeta featuring rainbow-colored skirts and white bodices with high necklines and long full sleeves. Their waists were banded in green satin. They wore stitched horsehair hats banded in fuschia nylon net and carried bouquets of green daisies.

Marjorie Bodenmiller, niece of the bridegroom, was junior bridesmaid in white lace over pink taffeta, a pink satin bow with flowered streamers in her hair. She carried a miniature daisy bouquet.

Best man was John Hyde, of Port Washington, Wis. In the usher corps were Captain David Ellis, of Alexandria, Va.

David Robinson, of New Vienna, O., William Lang, of Warren, William Bohnen, of Downers Grove, Ill., and Dr. Julien Archie, of New York.

The bride's mother wore a long-sleeved rose chiffon dress and pinned pink Sweetheart roses to her purse. The bridegroom's mother selected a coat and dress ensemble of white lace and green chiffon and wore a green orchid.

A dinner reception at Beverly House followed the ceremony. After a vacation in Harbor Springs the newlyweds will make their home in Ann Arbor where the bridegroom is associated with the accounting firm of Iermer, Johnson and Hoffman.

GINA SPAGNOLI, of Roslyn road, appeared in the first production of the Drama Department at the National Music Camp, Interlochen, performing the role of Lizzy in "Philadelphia, Here I Come."

Carol Louise Riddle Wed To Mr. Peters

Pair Race in Michigan District Lightning Sailing Championships Before and After their Marriage Saturday Evening

Exchanging marriage vows in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Saturday evening, July 17, were Carol Louise Riddle, daughter of the Dean K. Riddles, of Hillcrest road, and David Owen Peters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl J. Peters, of Adrian.

The candlelight ceremony, written by the bride and bridegroom, took place during the Michigan District Lightning Sailing Championships, held at Crescent Sail Yacht Club.

The bride and bridegroom raced on Thursday and Friday—the bride had a replacement Saturday—and again in the final race on Sunday morning, following the wedding.

The rings used during the double ring rites were designed by the bridegroom.

The Reverend Richard Mitchell and the Reverend Walter MacDonald, of Ann Arbor, a former instructor of the bride, officiated at the 7:30 o'clock service which was followed by a reception in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Crystal Ballroom.

The bride designed her lace-trimmed silk organza gown and silk illusion veil, trimmed with matching lace. She carried white daisies and baby's-breath.

Honor maid Nancy Chase wore a navy and white pique frock with a ruffled U neckline. The bride designed the white-accented navy blue linen dresses worn by her sisters, bridesmaids Janis and Nancy Riddle.

They carried baby's-breath and red and blue baby carnations.

Best man was R. Garrett Demarest, of Holland. In the usher corps were the bridegroom's brothers, Kenneth Peters, of Ann Arbor, and Richard Peters, of Toledo, and the bride's brother, David Riddle. Danny Riddle, another brother, was junior usher.

Mrs. Riddle chose a floral silk print dress and jacket for her daughter's wedding. Her corsage was fashioned of white rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother selected a mint green slipper satin sheath with a bolero jacket and a corsage of phalaenopsis.

The newlyweds will vacation in Finland and Scandinavia and make their home in Ann Arbor.

Following their evening wedding Wednesday, July 21, in Grosse Pointe Congregational Church, KATHLEEN ANDREA ARNOLD, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley E. Arnold, of Three Mile drive, and Mr. Smith, son of the John L. Smiths, of Macon, Ga., will make their home in Claxton, Ga.

Lawrence B. Smith Rites Wednesday

Claiming Kathleen Andrea Arnold, daughter of the Dudley E. Arnolds, of Three Mile drive, as his bride was Lawrence Buren Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Smith, of Macon, on Wednesday, July 21.

The Reverend Stephen L. Sterner officiated at the evening ceremony in Grosse Pointe Congregational Church which was followed by a reception at the Church.

The newlyweds plan to make their home in Claxton, Ga., where the bride will continue her studies at Georgia Southern College. Mr. Smith received his Bachelor of Science in Education degree from the college.

The former Miss Arnold chose an ivory organza gown trimmed with peau d'ange lace and accented with a pale pink velvet ribbon. Her matching illusion veil fell from her headpiece trimmed with pink flowers.

She carried a bouquet of pink and white daisies. Frances Tichenor was the maid of honor and the bride's cousin, Beatrice Grech-Cumbo, was flower girl. They wore high-waisted sleeveless frocks of pink voile and carried small pink and white nosegays.

The bridegroom's brother, Steve Smith, was the best man. Mrs. Arnold chose a short-sleeved dress of turquoise silk shantung for her daughter's wedding. She wore a white orchid.

The bridegroom's mother selected a short beige lace dress with long sleeves. She also wore a white orchid.

MARTHA BRAND, of Kensington road, graduated last month from Wellesley College, was named a Wellesley Scholar for high academic achievement.

D'Agostino-Tunney Nuptials Celebrated

Father Daniel C. Complo officiated in Our Lady Queen of Peace Church at the wedding of Colleen Tunney and Philip D'Agostino Friday evening, July 16.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Emmett Tunney, of Prestwick road. Mr. D'Agostino is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Louis D'Agostino, of Roseville.

A reception and dinner at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Fries Crystal Ballroom followed the ceremony. After a four-week tour through the Canadian provinces of Quebec and Ontario, the newlyweds will reside in Grosse Pointe Woods.

The former Miss Tunney chose an Empire style white lace over taffeta gown with long lace sleeves and a high lace-ruffled neckline. A coronet of beaded pearls held her illusion veil and she carried a cascade of white roses, baby's-breath and ivy.

Attendants were the bride's cousin, Mrs. William Lambert, matron of honor, Mrs. Franklin Arthmire, the bridegroom's sister, and flower girl Patricia Tunney.

Mrs. Lambert and Mrs. Arthmire's frocks were of mint green chiffon over taffeta with attached shoulder trains. They carried cascades of yellow roses and ivy.

The flower girl wore a floor-length dress of pastel yellow chiffon over taffeta with daisy trimming around her neck and bodice. She carried a basket of blue and white daisies centered with white roses.

Dominic D'Agostino, the bridegroom's brother, was best man. Ushers were Stephen E. Tunney, the bride's brother who was also the lector for the ceremony, Anthony D'Agostino and Lawrence A. Tunney.

The bride's mother chose a pale beige chiffon dress with a sequined top, long sleeves and full skirt for her daughter's wedding. She wore a red rose corsage.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Edward Tunney, of Ottawa, Ont., Mr. and Mrs. James Brennan, of Windsor, Sister Evelyn Tunney, of Edmonton, Alberta, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown, of Ottawa, Mr. and Mrs. Rosario Masse, of Ottawa, Royal Canadian Mounted Police Sgt. and Mrs. E. A. Kuhn, of Saskatchewan, and Mrs. Maurice Th'ebeault, of Ottawa.

Invite Pointers On Garden Tour

The Greater Detroit Chrysanthemum Society invites Pointers to participate in a mid-summer garden tour this Sunday, July 25.

Mr. and Mrs. John Redinger's garden in Wellington crescent, Mount Clemens, (turn left off Gratiot just before the Clinton River Bridge), will be open at 1 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. William Collins, of Weideman street, Mount Clemens, (Just behind the Regional Shopping Center off 15 Mile road), will show their garden at 2 and Mrs. Fred Gasko, of Toepfer street, East Detroit, (halfway between Eight and Nine Mile roads, Gratiot avenue and Kelly road), will open her garden at 3 in the afternoon.

The public is cordially invited to visit these gardens, free of charge, and Tourers may like to round out the day by viewing the chrysanthemum plants planted and tended by Society members, in the center median of Gratiot avenue at Nine Mile road in East Detroit and on Belle Isle at the foot of Central drive, facing the Scott Fountain.

Mrs. John J. Cantwell

MARY ELIZABETH LEONE, daughter of the A. Gerard Leones, of Mapleton road, and Lt. Cantwell were wed in St. Paul's-on-the-Lakeshore Saturday, July 17. Lt. Cantwell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Cantwell, of Southgate.

Charles Wright To Take Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Morley Boyd, of Saginaw, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Jennifer Bradford, to Charles Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wright, III, of La Salle place.

The bride-elect attended Denison University, Granville, O., and received her Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Michigan. A member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority, she now teaches at Grovers School, Marblehead, Mass.

Her fiancé, a graduate of University-Liggett School, received his Bachelor Arts degree in Religion from Trinity College, Hartford, Conn., and

FIRST OFFERINGS AN ENGLISH MANOR

DEADEND STREETS with a natural arch of mature trees have always aroused the interest of those looking for a house in a quiet, out of the way setting. Many have a penchant for white colonials with attached garages and large family rooms and two full second floor baths. We've come up with one in the Farms which meets all these qualifications and priced it at $44,500.

CENTRAL AIR conditioning is standard equipment in this single floor listing which features a combination living room and family room which are over 46 feet long. The three bedrooms are serviced by two baths and a lavatory in the full basement. By far the best neighborhood buy at $32,900. You name your terms.

APPOINTMENTS PLEASE

A FAST MOVE on your part will place you and the family in this southern colonial in time to take advantage of the lake form swimming pool which dominates the backyard. If four well proportioned bedrooms meet your requirements and you're looking for a large informal family room, then this one is a must to check more closely. You may forget that this one has a full basement because the first floor utility room makes that trip unnecessary. The trip down this deadend street leading to the lake makes it all worthwhile.

ON MERRIWEATHER Road appears a four bedroom affair with two additional rooms over the attached garage. A library and large covered and screened terrace combine beautifully with the separate dining room and large living room, and we'll bring it all together for $67,000.

ON RIDGE ROAD at the top of the hill sits this comfortable colonial with five bedrooms, three baths on the second floor. The third floor is finished with maids rooms and another bath. From the large center foyer access is provided to the library, and dining room, all of which have French doors which lead to slate terraces.

VACANT LOT in Grosse Pointe Park on Tromby. Zoned for two-family dwelling. $12,500. VACANT LOT between 65-75 Roslyn Road, Grosse Pointe Shores. $18,000.

OUR THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK:

With sales prices firming up and interest rates creeping higher, but with a good selection of desirable, fairly priced homes available, you can buy now or wait... and end up paying more while purchasing less.

In the desirable home good buy category. We'd like to recommend the following: OPEN SUNDAY 2-5 P.M.

ON A spacious lot off Windmill Pointe Drive. This Photogenic Colonial awaits your approval. Excellent storage and a modern kitchen with built-ins blend with three big bedrooms and a bath and a half highlight this enticing package. 883 Lakepointe 37,900

COULD we interest you in a well-decorated, centrally air-conditioned ranch in an exceptionally attractive area of St. Clair Shores, just across from the Grosse Pointe Woods Park? This beautifully maintained desirable neighborhood seldom sees a for sale sign — and ours will be no exception — May we suggest an immediate appointment? 23324 Norcrest 33,900

CAPE COD best describes the architecture of this charming home... and a pleasant surprise describes what you'll find inside. Two bedrooms and bath on the first plus a dormitory-sized bedroom and bath on the second, handling the sleeping arrangements of a bigger family nicely. Other poultry extras include porch, two car garage and a close-to-the-Park location. Do yourself a favor — see this one for sure! 579 Barrington 36,900

The more Marianne Endicott heard about — thought about—read about a cultural events calendar, the more it seemed to her a perfect project for the Detroit Symphony Juniors.

The more it seemed to her: Here is something Detroit NEEDS . . .

And when SHE began to talk about it, the reaction was unanimous: "Why didn't anybody ever think of that BEFORE?"

So the Detroit Symphony Juniors adopted Making The Scene as their new big project for 1971-72, and started working, collecting photographs—the Juniors INSIST on combining beauty with practicality; they won't even publish a cookbook, ("No Second Fiddle"), that's not a visual work of art as well as a collection of culinary masterpieces—and contacting organizations for information on prospective schedules.

The organizations responded. Making The Scene began to take shape. About this time next month, in mid-August, it will be "out."

It's a 16-month calendar, covering the period from September 1, 1971, through December, 1972.

There's a key at the beginning, identifying common abbreviations used throughout. DSO, for example, stands for Detroit Symphony Orchestra. DIA for Detroit Institute of Arts. DTH for Detroit Town Hall.

It lists the big charity balls, the Women's Committee of the Tuberculosis and Health Society's "Cinderella," the Fontbonne Auxiliary of St. John Hospital's "White Christmas," the Hope Ball, the Northeast Guidance Center's Crystal Ball . . .

And sports events, complete schedules for the Lions, Tigers, Pistons, Red Wings . . .

And major privately-sponsored events, the Junior League's Fashionscope, the Lundi Gras . . .

And City of Detroit Ethnic Festivals, and Meadow Brook concerts, and, (as far as they're known), theater engagement dates . . . and the telephone numbers and addresses of every listed organization, places where further information may be obtained.

There's a section at the end called "Places To Go and Things To Do." Joanie Chamberlin, of Lewiston road, masterminded that, collecting a group of fun-for-the-whole-family "field trips," everything from ice cream factory tours to sailing times of the Bob-Lo Boat.

Other Pointe members of the Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony who've helped in the creation of this first Making The Scene are Nancy Renick, general layout chairman, Ann Warren, Lee Miller, Sylvia Kuroop, Ginger Schrom, Sue Rockwell, Sue Rudy, Sue Davis, Jeannie McCubrey and Phyllis Snow.

The calendars will sell for just $2 each, (all proceeds to the Detroit Symphony, naturally), and may be ordered in advance from Ann (Mrs. Melvin) Rousek, 886-5756.

Marianne Endicott, who's been in on the project since the beginning—it is, as we said before, her baby—has been using her dummy calendar copy right along, as it filled up, to plan her own life-in-advance. "We'll have," she says, "to get downtown early January 29. That's our Symphony Souvenir Program and Afterglow Night—and it's also the night the Boat Show opens at Cobo Hall. The parking problem will be terrific . . ."

Now THAT'S the sort of practical application based on available information this world needs!

Why didn't anyone ever think of anything like Making The Scene before?

Museum Given Dodge Bequest

A bequest of priceless 18th century art was formally accepted recently by the Arts Commission for the Detroit Institute of Arts.

The late Anna Thomson Dodge willed the contents of her Grosse Pointe mansion's music room to the museum in memory of her late husband, Horace E. Dodge.

At the same time, museum director Willis F. Woods announced a gallery has been set aside in the South Wing for a re-creation of the Rose Terrace music room.

The complete installation will be known as the Horace E. Dodge Memorial Collection, and the museum hopes to have it ready for its first public showing in late October.

Paintings, antique furniture, tapestries and porcelain comprise this treasure, the most valuable gift of decorative arts ever presented to the municipally-owned museum, along with a $1,000,000 fund.

The Dodge gift is especially rich in Louis XVI furniture. Dr. Frederick Cummings, assistant director who is cataloging and installing the collection, cited a superb example of French cabinet-making: An exquisite jewel cabinet of fruitwood, faced with flowered Sevres porcelain, mounted in ornolu, that is attributed to master designer Martin Carlin.

It was for many generations a possession of the Russian Imperial family.

Other "incredibly important" objects in the bequest pointed out by Dr. Cummings include:

• A suite of six chairs designed by George Jacob and covered in Beauvais tapestry designs by Henri Salember.

• A mahogany and ormolu commode formerly in the French royal collection at Fontainebleau and a rosewood and ormolu writing table, both signed by Jean-Henri Riesener, greatest French cabinet-maker of his century.

• A Beauvais tapestry panel, "Psyche Displaying Her Treasures," after a design by Francois Boucher.

• Two aristocratic full-length portraits by Thomas Gainsborough—"Anne, Duchess of Hamilton" and "The Honorable Richard Savage de Nassau Zuylenstein"—and two smaller portraits by Sir Joshua Reynolds and John Hoppner.

These and other objects sought out for Mrs. Dodge by the legendary dealer, Lord Joseph Duveen, will undergo a period of necessary restoration before being placed on exhibition in the museum.

Also included in the South Wing replica of Rose Terrace's music room will be the rosewood piano that once belonged to the children of King George III, the French harp inlaid with gold and silver and four gilded, mirrored cabinets displaying their wealth of 50 pieces of Royal Sevres porcelain.

With public exhibition of the Dodge bequest, Dr. Cummings said, "We will be able to present to museum visitors a new dimension of French art, thanks to Mrs. Dodge."

Mrs. Dodge died last June at the age of 103 at Rose Terrace, the mansion overlooking Lake St. Clair which she built between 1830 and 1834.

Horace E. Dodge, her late husband and co-founder with his brother John of the Dodge Motor Company, died in 1920 51 years ago.

Teens To Dance At Farms Pier

The Grosse Pointe Farms Boat Club will hold a dance exclusively for Farms teenagers on Friday, July 23, at 8 o'clock, at the Farms Pier, as part of the Annual Regatta celebration.

Music will be provided by "The Barons". Admission is free.

Make trouble for others, and there'll be plenty left for you.

Short on the Pointe

Among 17 students who performed in a recent recital presented by the Music Department at Lake Forest College, Lake Forest, Ill., was WILLIAM L. CAMPBELL, son of the H. M. CAMPBELLS, III, of Kenwood road. An American Civilization major and active member of the LFC Choir, dent Bank, cited for maintaining participation in the Modrigrig Singers, a smaller ensemble, he played for bass, "Der Lindenbaum," by Franz Schubert. He'll be a senior at Lake Forest this fall.

Their children will fête MR. and MRS. E. HASELHUBH on their 65th wedding anniversary with a buffet supper for family and friends this Sunday, July 25. The Haselhuhns, who have lived in West Emory court for the past 21 years, are native Detroiters and lifelong member of Bethany Lutheran Church, where a reception will be held in their honor after Sunday services. They have four children, nine grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. Mrs. Haselhubh is 87 years old, Mr. Haselhubh 89, and he is still affiliated with the Haselhubh Printing Company in Detroit.

PAUL SHRILLA, son of MR. and MRS. MICHAEL J. SHRILLA, of Roslyn road, a junior honor student at Michigan State University, left for London, England, July 11 to participate in a seven-week summer school program in the Humanities at the Bedford Campus of the University of London at Regent Park. He will gain eight hours of college credit and intends to travel in Europe before returning home in September to resume classes at MSU, where he will be resident assistant at Holden Hall. His brother JIM, graduated from Oakland University in 1970, will enter Wayne State University School of Medicine in the fall.

Among the 100 excited members of Musical Youth International who took part in the traditional July 6 Memorial parade in Fredericia, Denmark, was ROBERT AMBROSE, of Roslyn road. After the parade the young musicians gave a concert, televised all over Denmark, in the city park. A concert in Copenhagen's Tivoli Garden and visits to Viking archaeological sites were also on their Denmark agenda.

MARY ANN IGNA, daughter of DR. and MRS. ELI J. IGNA, of Lakeland avenue, has been named to the Dean's List of the Woman's College of Duke University for the 1970-71 year. Mary Ann, a senior Art History major, is the immediate past-president of Phi Mu sorority, now a member of the Pan-Hellenic Board. She has been Bassett House secretary for the past two years.

Named to the Alma College Spring Term Honors List are sophomore JOHN D. CERNEY, son of the TRUMAN C E R N E Y S, of Lakeshore road; juniors LYNN CODDINGTON, of Lincoln road, and straight-A student WILLIAM B. HARRISON, son of the JACK B. HARRISONS, of Lincoln road; senior SHERYL L. ROBERTSON, daughter of the GORDON A. ROBERTSONS, of Hampton road; and June graduate CHRISTINA HAWKINS, daughter of MR. and MRS. VICTOR HAWKINS, of Balfour road.

LESLIE GRAINGE WRIGLEY, JR., son of MR. and MRS. LESLIE G. WRIGLEY, of Hillcrest road, has been appointed a member of the Volunteer Enrollment Team for Chapman College's World Campus Afloat Program. A student during the Spring 1971 study voyage of the world's only shipboard college, he is available at 886-6163 to tell of experiences and show a 20-minute color film, "Semester at Sea," to student, community, civic and social groups, and also has available literature which describes itineraries, courses, the ship itself, in-port projects, student activities, admission requirements, costs and financial aids available for upcoming voyages. On land, in the States, he's an Economics student at Duke University.

Spending the month of July in The Pointe, staying with their father and step-mother, MR. and MRS. BRUCE P. BRACKEN, of Rivard boulevard, are BARBARA LYNN, DENIS JAMES, II, and PA-MELA WALACE BRACKEN, whose grandparents are MR. and MRS. DENIS J. BRACKEN, of Webber place, and MR. and MRS. ROBERT E. WALLACE, of Bedford road. After their visit here the trio will return to their home in Greater Cincinnati before heading on to the East Coast, where they will complete their summer.

MR. and MRS. ANTHONY MORREL, of Mount Vernon, N. Y., announce the birth June 25 of their second daughter, ANNE DEVOY, and great-grandmother MRS. LESLIE F. RUWE, of Touraine road, hastened East to pick up 15-month-old "big sister" ALEX-ANDRA SCRIPPS MORRELL and bring her back to The Pointe for a visit while mother and the new "little sister" were in the hospital. Mrs. Morrel is the former ANNE SCRIPPS, daughter of MR. and MRS. JAMES E. SCRIPPS, III, of Loudonville, N. Y. Mrs. Ruwe and MRS. FREDERICK M. ALGER, JR., of Lakeland avenue, will say hello to tiny Anne during their mid-summer stay in Machatan, where they're headquartered at the St. Regis.

The GEORGE REINDELS, III, of Lincoln road, were happy to welcome her father, DANIEL H. BUELL, up from his home in Winter Park, Fla., for a summer session of re-creating old acquaintances. MR. and MRS. A. INGER-SOLL LEWIS, JR., entertained last Thursday at cocktails in their Lewiston road home in honor of Mr. Buell, who's been house guest of the CARL J. THEOBALDS, of Indian Village.

Here from Cairo, Ga., for a visit with her parents, DR. and MRS. CLIFFORD LOR-ANGER, of Lakeshore road, is MRS. FONDREN L. SINGLETARY, JR., who brought along daughter LORI DUTTMAN—and Belle, a small gray poodle who crept into the car a few seconds before Bonnie and Lori set off from Cairo and didn't make her presence known until some 80 miles later, when it was too late to turn back. A trip to Toronto to visit the CLIFFORD LOR-ANGERS, JR., and their family is on the visitors' agenda.

The 1971 Wayne State University baseball team set a school record with 18 victories.

FENDER SKIRT STOLEN

Calvin Graus, 1162 Bishop, called City Police on Friday, July 16, to report the theft of the rear fender skirt of his car on that date. Mr. Graus told officers that his wife parked the car at 16919 Kercheval, at 5 p.m., to do some shopping, when she returned she discovered the theft.

YOUNG THIEF

Wednesday, June 23, Woods police received a call from the store detective at J. C. Penney's, 19251 Mack, reporting that he was holding a 14-year-old youth who was seen taking a jewelry pin and walking out with it. The Youth Service Division has taken over the case.

Fittings For Fall... at Waiton-Pierce? We've already had some because of the arrival of the French schoolgirl coat in light camel, the one-piece black velvet and white satin jumper style cocktail dress and a tan and red paisley breeze-light wool shirtwaist dress. These are the classics which reflect the highest fashion look for fall. We also admired the Dior hand knit in beautiful beige tones. The hand knit look is another great favorite. A quilted all weather coat in blue denim comes from France... The reason we're starting fittings now is because we are sure of the look and come fall we have many exciting things on our schedule to do... in fashion.

Classic Fashion... classic hair styles... this combination will be fall. But there are lots of previews now. Dashing along Congress Street to keep a lunch-com date, we followed admiring glances to a very soft, non-teased hair style with ends curled a bit and glints of copper. This beauty wore new make-up and classically elegant dress. She stole the scene from her mini sisters. Condition your hair at Leon's for this non-teased casual classic look. It won't come off without it. Fashion favors the red head and if you are not one have the expert at Leon add burnish and fire-lights. TU 4-9393... 17888 Mack Avenue.

Keep Your Eye On... the Leon Boutique. Marylou Bloch cosmetics along with a complimentary make-up consultation is really worth looking into. Lots of eye-opening accessories and gift items are also brightening the scene... 17888 Mack Avenue, TU 4-9393.

Cool Fashion... in cool fabrics. The hot pant ensemble and a one-piece hot pant look in a new transitional group has arrived at Michelle's Boutique, 17864 Mack Avenue. Priced from twenty-five to thirty dollars. Michelle's is open Friday nights until 8:00 p.m.

Beauty Treatment... for your kitchen begins with Mutschler skill and design. Even planting arrangements are built into the plan. The finish of the cabinet is baked on for lasting quality. The decorator tile is color co-ordinated and hand fired. See samples at 20227 Mack Avenue.

In Martha's Closet... 373 Fisher Road, you'll find a new collection of that wonderful, washable printed polyester. Included are long entertaining fashions for the hostess, hot pants, dresses, and dress and jacket ensembles. There are bright combinations and city prints (black with white and camel) which are so travel-wise. Prices start at thirty-five dollars.

Those Folks At Mr. Q... have knowledge of a two-week London Psychic Scene Vacation... visiting with psychics, clairvoyants, mediums, such as Ena Twigg, Harry Edwards, Dr. Thomas Maughan. The complete package is $829 including jet, hotel and seance. Call 886-0500 for the spooky details.

In New York... while shopping in a Fifth Avenue store we admired carry-alls in hi-fashion colors, in denim and in black and white. Wouldn't you know all of them are right here in Grosse Pointe at the Notre Dame Pharmacy. They are featured in the Celebrity line which is so nicely priced.

A Perfect Haircut... is the basis of a perfect hair style. At Edward Nepl Parruchiere, 19463 Mack Avenue, you'll find both, Edward's flawless technique in hair cutting is well known and you'll be delighted to know that each of his stylists is trained intensively by him.

Attention Collectors... There are just six Wedgewood blue and white Jasper Christmas '71 plates at The Sphere. In this limited edition the scene is Piccadilly Circus. The price is thirty dollars. Hurry to 19848 Mack Avenue.

It's Posh... to be one of the beautiful people. Many of them have discovered the new hair cut which is shaped to the head and requires no setting. You are in and out of the Posh Studio, 18700 Mack Avenue in thirty minutes. Not only is it carefree but it is fashionable because the pretty little head is one of fashion's favorites. It will be more so now that summer is here. Be sure it is done by an expert stylist or you'll just have hair and completely missed the new look. Call 886-1377.

Hand-made Candles... from Mexico in vivid colors, interesting textures and shapes have arrived at 16237 Mack and Three Mile Drive. Prices start at four dollars.

Don't Pull The Carpet... out from under your decorating plans! Start at the bottom because the right carpet can make or break the scene. At Ed Maliszewski, 21435 Mack Avenue, you'll find stylish shaggs, perfectly beautiful orientals from accent rugs for the foyer to room size. There's such a wide range of decorator-color wall to wall carpets, interesting kitchen carpeting and carpeting for the porch or patio.

The Kaleidoscope... sees you enjoying summer and its fragrances especially Strawberry Cologne. It's four dollars at 16135 Mack at Bedford.

The Summer Lamp Sale... is continuing until the end of July. Wright's Gift and Lamp, 18850 Mack. All lamps are marked twenty percent off and a few are marked fifty percent off.

You'll find... That Meaningful Touch at 985 Washington off Mack in a delicious cocoa brown setting accented with a stained glass door and filled with gifts and decoratives.

Discover... Tinted Moisture Lotion for perfection under make-up... soft green cuts a florid complexion, mauve adds pink, apricot adds a glow. Find it in the Sheer Series five dollars at the Merle Norman Cosmetic Studio, 18129 Mack on the Block. Try before you buy. TU 1-7570.

JANICE LEE WEDGE, OF BLAIRMOOR COURT

By Janet Mueller

Some days are just plain great. That's how it was the day Janice Lee Wedge received her diploma from Osborn High School, graduating as a member of the National Honor Society. She received it in a special ceremony June 15, at her home, from Osborn Principal Robert J. Brownell.

It was a great graduation. Besides Principal Brownell, Robert Hawksley, head of the Honor Society at Osborn, was there, with Mrs. Hawksley, a teacher in the Grosse Pointe Schools.

And there were others from Osborn, and, from Leland School, the Principal, and Janice's beloved homebound teacher Mrs. Sally Bartz, with her daughter, and her current homebound teacher Mrs. Helen Lynn.

And there were others, friends, Janice's "favorite people," including Ruth Marsteller, Marion Curran, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Valade, brother Jack Wedge, a Grosse Pointe High School graduate working now for Chrysler, grandmother Ann Wedge.

And of course, Dr. and Mrs. George C. Wedge were right up front when their daughter received her diploma.

And OF COURSE Adiean Long, Janice's "other mother" was there.

Card from President Nixon sent a card of congratulations. So did Governor and Mrs. William Milliken—the Governor and Janice share the same birthday—and there was a message from Roman Gribbs, Mayor of Detroit, and one from Grosse Pointe Woods Mayor Kenneth McLeod.

The cards of congratulations, taped to the window overlooking the backyard beside Janice's day bed, were so many there was hardly a crack left through which she could see out.

Janice didn't mind. The cards themselves made a lovely view.

Janice Lee Wedge was born at Henry Ford Hospital on Sunday, March 26, 1950, at 10:55 in the morning. Four days after birth, she suffered brain damage due to incompatibility between her blood and her mother's, commonly known as the R.H. Negative Blood Factor.

Thank God then for Dr. John Johnston, who diagnosed her condition immediately as quadriplegia athetoid (Cerebral Palsy), and who told her parents: "Never expect anything more than she can do—and never take anything less!"

Dr. Johnston guided Janice, and her parents, through her infancy, her babyhood. At two-and-a-half, young Miss Wedge began her academic career, entering Detroit Orthopaedic Nursery School.

Under protest! The first day of school she cried, a heart-breaking, rending cry: How CAN you do this to me? The second day of school she cried, an outraged defiant cry: How DARE you do this to me!

From then on, there were no more tears. Detroit Orthopaedic Nursery School was a joyous and working experience under the careful teaching of Mrs. Moody. Miss Ruth Anderson is one person Janice will never forget, for, with infinite love, assignments under her direction. Janice has had three brain operations, an abdominal operation for a cyst, a laminectomy and a condotomy. In the past five years she has spent about a total of one year at Harper Hospital under the expert care of Dr. James Gotham. She has been confined to bed for over three years in constant pain. She had a headache for over two years, and now has back pain.

A bed is as wide as the person inside it. Crazy About Sports Through television, Janice keeps abreast of sports. She loves baseball, football, basketball, golf... all kinds of athletic contests. Her special heroes are Al Kaline and the Minnesota Vikings' Wally Hilgenberg. She went to school with Wally's sister-in-law.

She's "hooked" on the soaps and hates to miss one of her afternoon "doctor stories." Her favorite movie is "The Robe"—she'll watch it every time it's shown—and she looks forward too to showings of "King of Kings" and "The Story of Ruth."

Janice joined St. Mark's Methodist Church when she was 11. Her faith in God is great, and she loves everyone she meets. Bob Goulet Responds Her favorite show business personality is Robert Goulet. A few years back, she typed out a five-line fan letter to Mr. Goulet. Those five lines were a two-hour project for Janice, but worth it: When you really like someone, you want them to know you do.

Janice never expected a personal phone call from Mr. Goulet, followed by a signed picture and a note thanking her for her note, and adding, "Keep praying for me." He sent a note congratulating her on her graduation too.

Friends drop by, and Janice is always glad to see them. She thoroughly enjoys company. She would just love to see Al Kaline standing in the doorway someday... Every morning Jacques II, a bouncing bundle of furry black poodle, jumps on Janice's bed and wakes her up by pulling her hair. Jacques and Janice have a special game. If the window to the backyard by her day bed is open, he'll jump up on her stomach, jump out through the window, race around to the backdoor, race in, jump up, and do it all over again!

This March Janice celebrated her 21st birthday, and voted for the first time in the Grosse Pointe School Election on June 14, using an absentee ballot.

And this June she got her high school diploma. She earned it. Able to take only two courses per semester, she compromised on quantity but not quality. Her last two exams were in Psychology and Economics. She scored 98 on one, 94 on the other.

Sciences are her favorite subjects. English is her least favorite, although her mother, remembering the stories Janice used to dictate when she was a little girl, thinks she should be a writer.

Janice, the girl who didn't faint at her first cut-up frog, thinks otherwise. School is her "favorite thing." She intends to keep on studying. Mrs. Bartz had spies out, hunting up a good correspondence college course. Now it's on to the University of Michigan Extension Service for further education.

And Janice Lee Wedge intends something else. As soon as she promised herself, as I get that high school diploma out of the way, I am going to work on getting into an electric wheelchair. Not just "work on"... I am going to GET INTO an electric wheelchair!

That'll be another just plain great day.

CRAB SUPPER SANDWICH

Contributed by Mrs. Elmer Whitlam for The Congregational Kitchen Cook Book

- 1 can crabmeat, drained
- 1 cup chopped celery
- 1/2 teaspoon curry powder
- 1 can cream mushroom soup
- 3/4 cup milk
- 3 eggs, slightly beaten
- 8 slices white bread spread with butter

Combine crabmeat, celery, and curry powder. Blend together soup, milk, and eggs. Place four slices of buttered bread, buttered side up, in greased eight-inch square baking dish. Spread crab mixture evenly over bread. Cut remaining bread in quarters diagonally and arrange buttered side down over crab, to cover completely. Pour soup mixture evenly over bread and bake at 375 degrees for about one hour. Let stand five minutes. Cut into squares and serve immediately. Serves four.

One of the nice things about Grosse Pointe is the old fashioned courtesy you get in our small independent shops—for example after losing 20 pounds, I needed some tailoring done for a rush trip—I called Ed Hickey at 10 a.m. and by 1:00 I had my clothes for a 2:30 plane trip. Can you imagine asking a department store for service like that!

Here's how... some lucky (deservedly so), young Pointers are spending their summer vacation: Preparing for the 12th Boy Scout World Jamboree, to be held this year in the foothills of Mount Fuji near Osaka, Japan... Lakeshore District Scouts and Explorers Richard Belanger, from Troop 74, Dan Davis, from Troop 39, Gary Marowske, from Post 451, Anthony Buffa, from Troop 147, Gary Lechner, from Troop 699, Daniel Magdowski, from Troop 436, Brad White, from Troop 479, and Josef Wiegol, Jr., from Troop 436, join the Detroit Area Council, Boy Scouts of America, Jamboree contingent at Metropolitan Airport July 31 and jet off across the Pacific... After the Jamboree, they'll spend a week touring Japan and return to Detroit August 19... Rick Schott, of Oxford road, is going along too, on special Council assignment as part of the Commissary Service Troop...

Speaking of Japan... It was one of the stops on the United States Motorsports Team's recent swing through the Far East, presenting a series of safety seminars and driving exhibitions at American bases... The Team, a group of Detroiters led by Al Eckstrand, of Roslyn road, an attorney and former United States driving champion, presented its program, featuring motion pictures and static displays, on drill fields and in motor pools where the servicemen had an opportunity to drive 1971 Detroit model cars... Al conceived the project, an original and exciting concept for assisting the Department of Defense in its efforts to curb on and off-base traffic accidents, four years ago, and made his first globe-girdling tour in 1970... The Team's on the other side of the world now, on a European circuit that began in England late last month...

Here's how... some more lucky, (deservedly so), young Pointers spent the first part of their summer vacation: Dashing around Alaska, covering 8,000 miles in three weeks... Fourteen-year old Mark Fairless, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Fairless, of North Brys drive, and John Kelsey, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kelsey, II, also of North Brys drive, 13-year-old Paul Groesbeck, son of the John Groesbecks of Country Club drive, and 15-year-old John McCoy, son of the Kenneth McCoy's, of Buckingham road, left June 25 with Edward J. Kuhn, four of 21 participants in Mr. Kuhn's 15th Annual Alaska Trip for Boys... Each young man earned at least one-third of the cost of his trip through his own efforts... That's Mr. Kuhn's "condition for coming along"—he believes boys should learn to save for things that are worthwhile in life...

From the top of the world... to below the equator: Here's Steve Maun, graduated in 1968 from Grosse Pointe South High School, son of the Mark E. Mauns who recently said good-bye to Dean lane and are settled now in Spring City, Tenn... Steve's found a perfect way to spend the summer... One of 90 Smith College and Princeton University singers on a six-week tour of South America, he's performing in Colombia... at the Aula Magna of the National University of Venezuela... at the Colegio Santa Ursula and the Cathedral de Lima, Peru... in Chile's Festival of University Choruses... in Argentina, where United States Ambassador and Mrs. John Davis Lodge are giving a reception at their Buenos Aires residence in the Smith-Princeton group's honor... and in Brazil... And everywhere, the singers are staying as guests in private homes...

Speaking of singers... and travel: Wayne State University's Men's Glee Club arrived in Llangollen, Wales, recently, to defend its first-place title at the International Musical Eisteddfod... The WSU group captured first place in the men's choir competition there in July, 1968, scoring the highest point total in the history of the competition... George Curran, of Brys drive, and Cary Steinmetz, of Newcastle road, are singing along with the Glee Club this summer, traveling on with it from Wales into England, for concerts at St. Martin-in-the-Fields Church at Trafalgar Square, London, at Trinity College Chapel, Cambridge, and the Nottingham Festival... then crossing over to the Continent to sing in Germany, where there'll be a special concert and reception for students in WSU's Junior Year in Munich Program... in Austria, where the Wayne Staters' performance in Salzburg is sponsored by the Deutsch-Amerikanisches Institute in Neupfarrkirche and where they'll appear, too, at the Ossiach Festival... and in Switzerland... It's the WSU Glee Club's fourth European tour...

DEBORAH LEE RATUS-NIK of Roslyn road, a Humanities major at Purdue University, has been named to Purdue's Distinguished Student Bank, cited for maintaining a B-plus average during the spring semester.
