Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, March 9

CONCERNED TWA OFFICIALS sent $2,000,000 to Atlanta Tuesday night, attempting to negotiate with an extortionist who had planted at least two highly sophisticated plastic explosives on TWA planes. Two near catastrophes have been averted since TWA received a warning phone call Tuesday morning, directing officials to TWA's Los Angeles Flight 7, where a bomb was found in the cockpit. A second bomb ripped through an empty TWA jet in Las Vegas Wednesday, causing several million dollars in damages.

Friday, March 10

A STRESS ATTACK in a northwest Detroit apartment early Thursday morning began as three STRESS officers shouted "Police" through an open apartment door and opened fire, resulting in the death of one Wayne County sheriff's deputy and the wounding of three other deputies. The six men in the apartment swear that all the gunshots were fired by the STRESS officers, but Police Commissioner John F. Nichols has evidence to prove that the deputies did fire their weapons. An intensive investigation was ordered.

Saturday, March 11

FORMER FHA APPRAISER Samuel T. Antonelli was indicted Friday on nine counts of arson by Wayne County Prosecutor William Cahalan. He was charged with arranging the arson burning in December of three properties he owned in Detroit, located on St. Jean, Twelfth Street and Rivard. Each of the houses was insured for at least $10,000. Antonelli, who had hoped to make a fortune as a FHA speculator, was released on $10,000 bond pending his arraignment March 17.

Sunday, March 12

THE UNITED STATES and CHINA have agreed to establish diplomatic contacts in Paris to carry out the trade, travel, and cultural exchange agreements reached during President Nixon's journey to Peking. The White House has announced. Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said that the ambassador to France, Arthur K. Watson, and veteran Chinese Ambassador Huang Chen will meet soon to begin discussions in Paris which has been established "as a contact point."

Monday, March 13

THE NATIONAL BLACK POLITICAL convention adopted a somewhat radical manifesto Sunday and created a permanent National Black Political Assembly while most of the 254-member Michigan delegation walked out in angry protest. The manifesto, called a black political agenda, included demands for reparations payments of "land, capital, and cash" to blacks and a minimum of 66 black representatives and 15 black senators in Congress in proportion to the nation's black population. All but a few of the Michigan blacks left the convention floor.

Tuesday, March 14

HERMAN J. GLASS was fired Monday as commissioner of Detroit General Hospital by the hospital's board of trustees. They voted 9-7 in a secret ballot to fire Glass because of an investigation which showed that he lived in Southfield in violation of the Detroit city charter, had abused a gas line credit card issued to him by the city and falsified his educational background to be eligible for the commissioner's post. The ousted commissioner's salary was $32,200 a year.

South High Renovation On Schedule

Progress Report to Board of Education Indicates Project Is Progressing Well

Ben Zenn, the school system's director of administrative services, presented a progress report on the South High School Renovation Project at the regular meeting of the Board of Education on Monday, March 13.

Mr. Zenn said that because of the favorable weather the general contractor is about 30 days ahead of the Critical Path Method (CPM) schedule on the east wing around the library. He is presently on schedule in terms of the CPM for work on the west addition.

The CPM of scheduling, utilized for this project, is used by the contractor to phase his operation in meeting completion dates, according to Mr. Zenn.

Completion Dates

For the present, the schedule calls for completion of various portions of the project at different times. The stairwell renovation in the main building should be completed September 1, 1972; the west addition, north corridor, and north portion of the main building renovation, should be finished by January 1, 1973; the east addition around the library, July 23, 1973.

Park Okays Amendments To Four City Ordinances; Police Power Broadened

Effectiveness of Enforcement Increased Without Having to Depend on Action by County Prosecutor

By Roger A. Waha
The Park Council at the regular meeting Monday, March 13, unanimously passed amendments to four city ordinances to bring the ordinances up to date in accordance with recent changes in state law. The ordinances become effective Saturday, April 1.

City Manager Robert A. Stone and City Attorney Richard D. Rohr reported on the amendments to the larceny, minors, concealed weapons, and narcotics and dangerous drugs ordinances.

With the amendments to the larceny and concealed weapons ordinances, Mr. Rohr noted it would broaden local police capabilities. Both are based on state law. However, The Park didn't have ordinances covering these subjects before, as they were state offenses, he said.

New the effectiveness of Park police enforcement would be increased without having to depend on the county prosecutor as had been done in the past. Under The Park's ordinance, warrants could be obtained from Municipal Judge William Speer.

Sees No Added Burden
When queried on the possible growing burden of court cases in the city regarding the larceny ordinance, Police Chief Gerard Kesteloot said that there would be no burden on the court as there aren't many larceny cases.

The larceny ordinance focuses upon larceny by conversion or embezzlement; larceny of rented motor vehicles, trailers, or other property; larceny by false personation; larceny from libraries; larceny of growing cultivated trees or other plants; larceny by fraudulent procurement of food, etc., and evidence of intent.

As for the "control of pistols and dangerous weapons" ordinance, it includes the meaning of "pistol," centers upon prohibited activity such as the possession of knives, pistols and stilettoes, with specific stipulations.

Farms Plans To Brighten City Streets

Follows Other Four Pointes in Changing to Mercury Vapor Street Lighting

By Kathy Duff
The Farms Council, following the guiding light of the other four Pointes, voted in the Monday night, March 6, regular council meeting to convert the majority of the city's street lights from incandescent lights to mercury vapor lights.

The council passed the measure on the recommendation of Farms City Assessor-Comptroller Carrol Lock, who assured the council that The Farms would get much better lighting with little increase in cost to the taxpayers.

800 Lights Involved
Affected are 800 street lights of 6,000 lumen strength, (lumens are the measure of light intensity), which will be increased to the equivalent of 7,000 lumens by the conversion. These street lights are the ones found on the Farms residential streets.

The lights along Lake Shore drive, currently totaling 15,000 lumens per light, will be increased to the equivalent of 20,000 lumens by the conversion. Approximately 52 street lights will be affected.

The Farms Council agreed with the city administration in not changing the city's 58 street lights currently of 10,000 lumen strength.

There are only two intensities of mercury vapor light now available, either 7,000 lumens or 20,000 lumens.

The Farms administration felt that an increase of the 10,000 lumen street lights which are located along Grosse Pointe boulevard near South High School, and in some commercial districts would provide more light than necessary.

Walkways Unchanged

There are also six 2,500 lumen lights, located along various walkways in The Farms, which the Farms Council voted not to change.

The mercury vapor light has been cited for not burning or dimming as quickly as the incandescent light. The Detroit Edison company has also assured the municipalities that the new mercury vapor lights would be the "deluxe white type" not marked by the bluish tint

Woods Residents Angry over New Tax Assessments

Jam Council Chambers at Special Meeting Called to Take Pressure Off Board of Review; Lasts Three Hours

By Roger A. Waha
In an attempt to "head 'em off at the pass," according to Mayor Pro Tem Marvin R. Boutin, a special Woods council meeting was swiftly called Thursday, March 9, to discuss the reassessment of all property within the city.

With the council chambers crammed with wall-to-wall residents, (who had received their new reassessment valuations), the meeting was set to take the pressure off the Board of Review which met Tuesday, March 14, and is set to meet Tuesday, March 28, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the council room.

The purpose of the Board of Review is to hear any complaints or appeals on the real and personal property assessment valuations for the 1972 city tax roll. And from the looks of matters Thursday evening, with over 200 residents present, Assessor-Comptroller Frederick G. Hornfisher and his staff will be very busy.

Plan To Lower Rate
Mr. Boutin made it plain that it's the intent of the council to lower the city's tax rate as much as possible in order to compensate for any increased tax dollars required to be paid because of the increase in the state equalized valuation as is mandated by the state constitution.

However, he also made it clear that the council has jurisdiction over city taxes only. Other governmental units such as the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, Wayne County and the Milk River Drain Commission set tax rates for their own operations.

A booklet prepared by the city, "A Report to the Resident Stockholders," shows that 20 cents of a taxpayer's dollar goes to the Woods. The GP School District receives 59 cents; Wayne County, 13 cents; and the Milk River Drain Commission eight cents. It also reports that the "average cost to the city's more than 6,300 homeowners for city services exclusive of utilities is $198.11 per year. This is slightly over $16.51 per month, or just 54 cents per day."

What Upsets Them
The residents were upset over the new assessments, that their property may not be worth what the assessment reflects, what the government is going to do with all the money, and the possibility of inequity in the assessments.

Mr. Boutin told the residents that taxes aren't based upon the assessments. "The tax levy is based upon the equalized value of the entire community by the number of dollars we need to operate the city government for the entire year," he said. At this time, the annual operating

Dr. Anderson Predicts Big Reductions

Many Problems Make Preparation of Program for 1972-73 Year Most Difficult

By Pepper Whitelaw
We now have the answers to inquiries made to the NEWS last week by high school parents regarding possible scheduling limitations at the high schools next year.

At the regular meeting of the Board of Education on Monday, March 13, Superintendent Theos I. Anderson asked the board to grant the administration permission to plan a reduced program for the 72-73 school year.

In an Educational Planning Statement, Dr. Anderson said that the administration was in the process of planning the 72-73 school year again facing many problems.

Two Major Issues

Two major issues discussed repeatedly of late throughout the state have been those of school financing and busing. According to Dr. Anderson neither of these issues will be resolved in time to affect the coming school year. He said that the total responsibility for school financing in the 72-73 school year will be up to local school districts.

He said that at this time it is predicted that there will be some 29.5 million dollars in increased state equalized valuation, a range of increase from zero to 15.9 percent but that the municipalities' overall average will be somewhere around 6.75 percent.

The schools are predicting some $80 per student in state aid, $25 less than they are currently receiving and some $25 more than any formula currently being discussed by the state.

See Fewer Students

An enrollment decrease of 200 students is anticipated. He said that contracted increases for salaries of teachers, maintenance help, secretarial staff and administrators will be honored.

He added that if the present program were maintained some 1.96 mills increase in revenue would be needed.

"I recommend we are authorized to plan a program for the next year within the framework of the current revenues which will mean reducing the current educational program and library services. Within this reduced program we must give any personnel affected some lead time to find employment. Then, if at a later date, the board or administration finds our cuts were too severe, we can reinstate them if the additional revenues are available."

Open Fireplace Cause of Blaze

A recreation room fire at the residence of Frederick Bodan of E. Ballantyne was quenched by Woods Department of Public Safety firefighters Monday, March 13. There were no injuries in the blaze.

The fire, which was reported at 12:50 a.m., was brought under control and extinguished with a booster line and a one and one-half inch line.

Investigation showed that the fire started in a couch and extended to the plywood panel walls. In the west wall is a fireplace and it was found that the fireplace screen was left open.

The fire was burning until about midnight and Mrs. Bodan said she had not pulled the screen upon leaving the room. It apparently began when a spark from the fire place ignited the couch, which totally burned up.

However, the blaze didn't extend beyond the recreation room because the ceiling was plastered, room partitions were made of concrete block covered by paneling and the door had been shut.

War Memorial Offering Week of Free Programs

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association is inviting all members of the community to enjoy six free programs during Grosse Pointe War Memorial Week, Sunday, March 26, through Saturday, April 2. Free tickets for all events should be picked up in the Center's office in advance if possible so that crowds will not exceed capacity.

Easter-egg decorating, the art of "pysanky," will be directed by Wenen of the Ukrainian Division of the International Institute on Sunday, March 26, in the Center's Crystal Ballroom in two sessions, one at 2 p.m. and another at 3:30. While there is no charge for instruction, materials consisting of stylus, dyes, bees wax, patterns, etc., cost 75 cents.

budget isn't prepared for the fiscal year 1972-73, (beginning July 1). The budget must be completed around mid-May.

But it's expected that while the Woods will take in more this year, it will also spend more. City Administrator Chester E. Petersen cited three items that will probably take up most of any new monies for 1972-73: (1) the rate increase that Detroit Edison received for street lighting; (2) the cost of building an incinerator for rubbish with the other Pointes, Harper Woods, Clinton Township and Mt. Clemens; and (3) the fact that all labor contracts expire June 30, 1972.

Rate Among Lowest

Mr. Petersen added, "Per capita, our tax rate is one of the lowest in the entire state of Michigan. Your city, through the wise judgment of the council, is certainly providing services for each dollar paid to it."

At the meeting some resi-

Big Reductions Predicted

Dr. Anderson then outlined the projected reductions. They include limiting high school courses to five units instead of an unlimited number of units, reducing the length of the school day in the middle schools and almost completely eliminating extra curricular activities including sports.

The reduction could also mean changing the local graduation requirements so that only one year instead of two years of physical education is required and taking the driver trainer program out of the regular school day and offering it on a no-credit basis.

He said the new plans will undoubtedly mean major changes in the financing of the library program.

Approve Request

The board unanimously approved Dr. Anderson's request.

Following his statement board members expressed their attitudes on the timing of a millage election. The board appears to be split four to three on a possible millage date. President William J. Adams, secretary Barbara R. Thompson and Lee Allen favor an early millage date. Among the reasons for their attitudes are that more orderly planning is possible with an earlier date; if staff must be reduced through program reductions it should be a community, not a board decision; and personnel that may be dismissed should be given time to find other employment.

Alfred R. Glancy, Jr., vice-president, William Heuteman, Donald J. Semmler and Robert D. Warner favor a later millage date, preferably in September. They felt that more information would be available to present the voters with at that time and that the public has indicated in the past that they need more information and fewer "ifs" when being asked for more money.

Hear Audience Views

Members of the audience then expressed their views. Andrea Reader, once again voiced her disapproval on the administrators' salary and insurance increases.

Thomas Candler said he believed a September millage election was too late and

Slight Rise Last Year

In 1971 the assessed valuation was slightly increased to avoid having Wayne County add a factor to the total assessed valuation. But, according to sales data, assessment values were not kept proportionately high and the city has to assess accordingly.

In 1968, 1969, and 1970 there were no increases in assessments outside of correcting inequities, said Mr. Hornfisher. He felt it may be better for this assessment now and then hold the assessed valuation during the next two years as had been done previously.

If reassessments didn't take place this year an equalizing factor would have been imposed on city assessments to bring the community to the 50 percent level. "We were at 40 percent last year, 10 percent below the 50 percent level. That's a 10 percent savings in the pocket," stated Mr. Hornfisher. He added that the factor would have meant a 20 percent increase for residents even if he "didn't lift a pencil."

Mr. Hornfisher in arriving at the assessments went over property values in the city by each individual subdivision reassessing in accordance with sales figures. His basis was 1971 sales by areas and subdivisions.

Set by County Board

In answer to a question, "Who establishes the assessments for the overall community?" Mr. Hornfisher replied, "Wayne County has an equalization board which comes up with a factor for each city for the year. The state certifies the equalization factor for each city in Wayne County. The state can rechange a factor if it feels the factor isn't right."

City Attorney George Catlin raised a question before answering it himself. "What do I or you do with the notice called 'change in property assessment?'" He said to multiply the 1972 assessed valuation figure by two. If the final figure represents the market value of your property, the assessment is correct. "The assessors' job is arriving at the cash value on a piece of property that has not been sold recently. If our assessor doesn't do it, Wayne County will," he said. Mr. Catlin added that if you have an overstated evaluation after multiplying by two, the 1972 assessed valuation is out of line.

What Should Be Done

What should a resident do if he feels his assessment is incorrect? Mr. Catlin said: (1) see Mr. Hornfisher; (2) if you are still not satisfied, you "must go to the Board of Review. You will not be heard before the tax commission or the courts if you don't go to the Board of Review."

"The Board of Review has the legal right to adjust the value of your property. You must convince the board that your assessment is out of line. If the board agrees, your assessment will be reduced." He added, however, that a resident's assessment also could be increased, too.

(3) If you are dissatisfied with the Board of Review, you can appeal to the state tax commission.

Takes Rap at Schools

During the course of the evening, one resident, seemingly concerned with the amount of tax dollars going to the school board, said she was against the school board administrators and teachers getting raises. "With the taxes we're paying, our kids should be taking gold plated textbooks," she exclaimed. "You tighten your belt in tough times, but do they?" she questioned.

The meeting, which began at 7:30 p.m., was adjourned around 10:30 p.m. A few of the residents trickled out shortly after 9 p.m. but many of them stayed to the finish. Mr. Boutin's statement, shortly before the meeting ended, just about sums it all up: "We've had a pretty good go here tonight, haven't we?"

Thief Prepares For Tea Party

A $190 pewter tea service was shoplifted from the Wright's Gift Shop, 18650 Mack, on Saturday, March 4.

Bernard Melorum, an employe of the shop, contacted the Farms police to report the larceny. The theft was noticed at 3:15 p.m., and the tea service was last seen at 9 a.m. that morning.

The Metawa service consisted of a tray, coffee pot, tea pot, creamer, and sugar bowl.

The investigation was turned over to the Farms detective bureau.

GAS STOLEN

The owner of Dale's Standard Station, 21110 Mack called Woods police on Tuesday, February 28, to report a gas theft. Dale McKee recalled a white '62 Mercury pulling into the station at 7:40 p.m. that night. The contained three white males in their 20's, all having beards. The driver purchased $6.80 worth of gas, and then left without paying. Woods police have few leads to go on, since the license number of the car was not noted.

Many Pointe Dogs Strut Stuff in Gigantic Show

By Roger A. Waha
Over 3,400 representatives of "man's best friend" filled Cobo Hall for the 54th annual all-breed Detroit Kennel Club Dog Show and obedience trial Sunday, March 12.

Numerous Pointers and their pooches participated in the bench show, helping make it a "woofers'" delight. The Kennel Club catalog reports that there were 3,843 entries representing 113 different breeds for the occasion. Twenty-four rings were used for judging.

This show is one of the major ones on the dog circuit. Exhibitors from across the country brought their purebreds in the hopes of winning best of breed, best of group and the ultimate, best of show. In fact, this year's show featured exhibitors from California, Florida, Arizona, Texas, Virginia, Maine, and Toronto and Winnipeg, Canada, among other locations.

As in past shows the tension and excitement fills the huge hall as exhibitors carefully prepare their dogs for the big moment. Owners and handlers move tentatively through the large crowd to and from their benches, to the grooming areas and to the rings.

The show is a strain on both exhibitors and their four-footed friends. As one exhibitor gently combs the luxurious fur of her Afghan Hound, another judiciously trims the hair of her poodle. The "howls of distress" of a Siberian Husky and a Saluki reinforce the sweat on the exhibitors' brows. Meanwhile, the Akita sits with a pensively worried look at the activity around him, while a Newfoundland owner puts towels over her dogs cages in the hopes of providing them with an isolated noose.

The essence of necessary compatibility becomes apparent as four cages, (two on top and two on the bottom), fill a small area in a grooming location. A Basset hound and a husky or Keeshonden rest on top of the cages housing an Irish Wolfhound and his neighbor, a St. Bernard.

And in an area all to themselves, which indicates that St. Patrick's Day is so close by, Irish Wolfhounds and Irish Setters stare at one another from their respective benches.

If one, for a moment, becomes so involved in the action around him, he receives a sobering reminder of caution afoot when the call for a clean-up man rings through the P.A. system. But this is a small price to pay for a dog lover when so much grace and beauty is around him.

The show features familiar and popular breeds such as the cocker spaniel, labrador retriever, beagle and chihuahua but the variety of little

Farms Approves Transfer Of Lease to Hill Market

By Kathy Duff
The Farms Council was able to solve a mystery which has been puzzling many Pointe residents, in the Monday night, March 6, regular council meeting.

The mystery was exactly who owns the supermarket located at 107 Kercheval. For years it was the neighborhood Wrigley's and then Pointe residents found themselves shopping at the Four Seasons food market. At last count, residents were writing their checks to Salem Square food market.

The mystery was cleared in the council meeting, since the new owner of the supermarket had to ask the Farms Council for a lease transfer. The pedestrian queueway located between the food store and the NEWS offices.

Allied Supermarkets, Inc., had originally entered the lease agreement with The Farms on March 15, 1960, when the company planned a store-wide renovation. Wrigley's converted the area to a covered walkway by the installation of air conditioning equipment over the passage. The store also added entrance and exit doors off the corridor.

Barney Kaczynski, the new owner of the supermarket, was present at the council meeting. Before the issue of lease transfer was discussed, he found that he had to answer several questions posed by the councilmen.

In response to their queries, he said that the store, Salem Square, Inc., was now a completely independent enterprise. Mr. Kaczynski said that he had been with Allied Supermarkets, Inc., the former owners of the market, for 21 years, and recently left the company to buy the store at 107 Kercheval.

When asked about the brief stay of the Four Seasons market, he said that that name is still owned by Allied Supermarkets, Inc.

He also wished to counter the rumor that all the previous employees had been transferred to other stores. "Only three employees left, and they left because of their seniority which made it advantageous to stay with Wrigley's," the new owner commented. He added that sev-

Police Arrest Sleeping Man

Woods police were dispatched to 1954 Littlestone on Monday morning, February 27, on a report of a man sleeping in his car at the given address.

Arriving at the scene, the police found a blue '65 Buick with a man inside, Johnnie L. Green, 1267 Glover, Detroit.

Upon awakening, Green appeared confused and unsure of his location. Police checked the LEIN listings, and found that he was wanted by Detroit for a traffic warrant.

The suspect was taken to the Woods station, and Detroit authorities were notified.

STOLEN PLATE FOUND

Farms Patrolman Philip Miglio was on routine patrol Monday, March 6, when he spotted a '70 dealer plate on the ground off Mack avenue. He checked the LEIN listings and found out that the plate had been listed as stolen from George Wilson, 576 Woodland. Mr. Wilson was contacted by the Farms police, and he said that he would pick up the plate.

"ELEMENTARY, SIR"
 Sherlock Holmes, the literary character, has always been regarded as an observant person. Well, The Park's Sherlock Holmes, 1009 Beaconsfield Avenue, followed in the steps of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's figure Wednesday, February 16. He spotted a burning flair in the alley along side his residence and contacted the Park Police Department. Some boys apparently ignited the flare which did no damage.

Assessment Pamphlet

 Woods got upped 15.9 percent. We at the board of education had nothing to do with this. That is the assessor's job and he is an employe of the city of Grosse Pointe Woods.

"You must remember that while city resources are on the increase, school resources are diminishing. When assessed valuation goes up, our state-aid goes down.

Untrue Implication
 "To imply, (once again referring to the pamphlet), that we realize $684,000 from the increase is simply not true. Of the total increase in assessment The Woods is shouldering, (this year), $573,000 and all of the other Pointers, $272,000.

Mr. Heutteman then went on to say that it is almost impossible with the kind of information provided by the Woods to draw any fair and honest conclusions. "If anyone in the audience has any questions I am more than willing to answer them. You know where you can find me. I will only add that it is indeed unfortunate that one unit of local government did not try to ascertain all of the facts before presenting this kind of information to its citizens."

Suggests Appealing
 Board secretary Barbara R. Thompson said that the state was trying to get as close to 50 percent of the market value and if residents felt they could not sell for twice the amount of the assessment, they should investigate appeal procedures.

Following the meeting this reporter spoke with Ray MacArthur, director of finance for the school system and asked for a breakdown of preliminary estimated revenues for the 1972-73 school year, which was referred to during the meeting.

Broader Coverage
 Mr. MacArthur said that the school system anticipates increased revenue from the following sources: $703,472 current taxes, $65,000 from delinquent taxes, $1,600 in interest from delinquent taxes, $600 from penal fines for libraries, $83,265 from special education, $1,000 other state aid, totaling $854,937.

Other Reductions
 Reductions in other revenues present the following minus figures: $154,000 cash balance, $7,950 special projects fund, $550,220 state school aid, $54,000 federal aid, which comes to a total of $766,170. Simple subtraction comes up with a net increase in revenues to the schools in the 1972-73 school year in the amount of $88,767.

Although at the beginning of the session it appeared as though the board was facing a hostile audience as the meeting progressed the tenor changed. In fact, in a surprise move the audience applauded Mr. Heutteman's statements.

Although residents voiced objections the discussion which followed was reasonable and contained.

Rescues Girl

 served a vehicle driven by Foster Joseph Braun, 927 Lakepointe Avenue, traveling east in the curb lane. He appeared to continue on past traffic without stopping, said Lieutenant Coonce. "The officer saw the girl and the car at the same time," noted Lieutenant Coonce. Officer Moore ran into the car's path, grabbed the girl and protected her with his body. A departmental citation is being considered for the officer, added the Lieutenant.

Braun was issued a violation for careless driving and is scheduled to appear in court Wednesday, April 26.

Amendments

 and a section on penalties for violation.

Definition of Pistol
 A "pistol" is defined as "any firearm, loaded or unloaded, 30 inches or less in length, or any firearm, loaded or unloaded, which by its construction and appearance, conceals it as a firearm."

On the minors ordinance Mr. Rohr said, as amended, it will be brought into line with the state law which reduced the age of majority to 18-years-old. It had previously been 21-years-old.

This ordinance deals with "theater attendance prohibited," restrictions on those under 18 regarding the purchase of alcoholic beverages and other stipulations; the furnishing of minors with liquor, ("no person shall sell, furnish, give or deliver any alcoholic liquor to any person under the age of eighteen years") and a section on "Age Information."

Broader Coverage
 With the amendment to the narcotics and dangerous drug ordinance, Mr. Rohr noted that the previous ordinance has been improved upon by providing the city with broader coverage in these areas. He added that the police would have a "more effective tool" in dealing with the problems of narcotics paraphernalia.

The ordinance stipulates a penalty of not more than 30 days in jail or a fine of not more than $100 or both in the court's discretion regarding the use of marijuana.

However, the penalty is stiffer for anyone who violates this chapter, i.e., control of narcotics and dangerous drugs, other than by means of the use of marijuana. The penalty is — not more than 90 days in jail or a fine of not more than $500 or both.

Woods Mayor Praises Clerk

It's been somewhat of a custom for Woods Mayor Kenneth R. McLeod to make references to various students attending the regular council meetings. But an introduction of one student at the Monday, March 6, meeting led to praise for the student's mother.

Mayor McLeod made reference to Mike Pastor, who's attending the University of Michigan, studying pre-law and majoring in political science.

He mentioned he was the son of Woods deputy city clerk, Ella Pastor, and the mayor said to Mike, "We don't know what we would do without your mother. She is invaluable to us."

It's too late to stop and think after an accident happens.

Students Rewrite Lincoln's Address to Rap New Math

By Pepper Whitelaw

Would you believe a classroom of Abraham Lincolns? How about a classroom full of Max Bierbermans (he's the father of the new math)?

Leone E. Bennett, fifth grade teacher at Marie Elementary School, may have just that. After memorizing the Gettysburg Address and learning many new math concepts, the students used the system we parents are more familiar with . . . putting two and two together . . . and came up with The Math Address.

"Four math books and seven pages ago our teachers brought forth in this classroom, a new math book conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all math books are created equal.

"Now we are engaged in a great math test, testing whether that class, or any class so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure.

Woods Wraps Up Lighting

"The last portion of any street in Grosse Pointe Woods that does not have proper street lighting," according to City Administrator Chester E. Petersen, will soon be newly "glowing."

At the regular meeting Monday, March 6, the council unanimously passed a resolution requesting the installation of ornamental street lights on the north side of Vernier road between Westwood drive and the east city limits, and for the removal of the overhead utility wires and poles from the street right-of-way.

The council previously delayed authorization of ornamental street lighting because of uncompleted and anticipated additional street construction in the above area.

Now that the construction work is virtually completed, the area is "in need of adequate illumination in order to protect the safety and general welfare of the community," according to the resolution. So the Detroit Edison Company can proceed to "virtually complete" the city's 10-year street lighting installation and modernization program.

Edison and the Michigan Bell Telephone Company were asked to clear the right-of-way of "utility poles, wires, cables and other appurtenances" by relocating them to the utility easement, (between Anita avenue and Vernier road), or to cause the wires and cables to be placed underground in the area.

Church Offers Lenten Music

A special Lenten Music service will be presented by the Chancel Choir of the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church Sunday morning, March 19, in the sanctuary.

Three selected anthems make up the first part of the program and feature themes particularly appropriate to this season. The second part of the program is devoted to the Cesar Franck Mass in A. A guest cellist and a guest harpist are featured along with the choir and vocal soloists in the Franck Mass.

Richard Johns is the director of the choir. The organist and accompanist is Mrs. Betty Dethmers.

Miss Patricia Terry, the guest harpist, holds a Master's Degree in Music from the University of Michigan. She teaches music in the Detroit Public Schools at the Pattengill School. She also gives private lessons on the harp and has done program work on Channel 66.

Steve Eliason, guest cellist, holds first chair at Grosse Pointe South High School, second chair in the Detroit Symphony Youth Orchestra and first chair in the Youth for Understanding String Ensemble. He is now studying with members of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

Vocal soloists in the program are Ann West, soprano; Margaret Johnson, soprano; Howard Laurence, tenor; Earl Nelson, baritone, and Richard Johns, tenor.

Young Students Thank Firemen

Members of the Park Fire Department received a special and decorative "thank you" from the two groups of youngsters who toured the department Wednesday and Thursday, March 8-9.

The moppets, all from Faith Nursery, Faith Lutheran Church, Detroit, sent the firemen a large rectangular white poster with colored handprints from some of the children in blue, red and purple. Under each handprint was the student's printed name.

A note on the poster, which is proudly hung on the wall, reads: "Thank you for letting us visit your fire department."

The youngsters had a tour of the fire station and equipment and a demonstration of firemen sliding down the shiny poles which, it was reported they thoroughly enjoyed.

It's memories of success and failure that guide many along the difficult path of the future.

South High Renovation

(Continued from Page 1) 1973; east portion of the main building and major site improvements, September 10, 1973, and the main electrical changeover, the summer of 1973.

The contractor is allowed and encouraged to change his operational schedule from that suggested by the CPM as long as it results in completing the work on or before the dates listed above. Mr. Zenn said, "since the project is still in an early stage of development, considerable energy is currently under-way scheduling materials, checking assemblies for compliance, and checking systems scheduled for later delivery."

On the last Thursday of the month, job meetings are held to assess progress, review problem areas, and resolve issues pertaining to the total project. These monthly meetings are chaired by the school system's architectural representative, Jim Giachino, who also coordinates the CPM scheduling. Others present are the general contractor, the two major sub-contractors, clerk-of-the-works, Gordon Wheaton; the CPM consultant, Ed Colbert; and the owner's representatives.

As a follow-up to the job-meetings, oral and written progress reports are presented to the Board of Education Building Committee, consisting of Alfred Glancy, Jr., chairman, and trustees Mrs. Joseph Thompson and Lee Allen. The Building Committee also meet monthly to review the progress report, check constructive certificates, and review any outstanding bulletins that may need to be issued. In general, they discuss concerns related to the project.

One such concern was described by Mr. Zenn. The building committee recently received a letter received from Mrs. Charles R. Beltz, president of South High Mothers Club. In Mrs. Beltz's letter she stated a concern for the fire safety in and around the temporary corridor.

Mr. Zenn said following Mrs. Beltz's letter, the space under the corridor had been packed with dirt, a walkway will be maintained leading from the breezeway's double doors directly across the gymnasium entrance, red lettering and arrows have been placed on the ceiling of the breezeway indicating all exits and parking in and around the corridor on the gymnasium side has been limited to driver training cars only during the school day.

The administrators involved will also give serious consideration to finding a more suitable location for the smoking area with the advent of warm spring weather.

Mr. Zenn added, it is our intent to carefully monitor the project's progress and on a monthly basis present a report that will make the community aware of the status of the construction taking place at South High High School.

Men's Garden Club to Meet

Members and guests of the Men's Garden Club of Grosse Pointe will meet this evening, Thursday, March 16 at 8 o'clock, at the Grosse Pointe Central Library.

They will hear Gurdon Dennis, district horticultural extension agent (ornamentals) for Michigan State University, discuss diseases and pests of ornamental shrubs.

Mr. Dennis has served as a park ranger for the Michigan Department of Natural Resources and as district forestry and park supervisor for Detroit's Department of Parks and Recreation.

His duties include advisory services and educational programs in radio, television, magazines and newspapers. He has served as secretary-treasurer of the Michigan Forestry and Park Association, as president of the Michigan Horticultural Society and the Michigan Orchid Society. He is currently honorary vice-president of the American Orchid Society.

Mr. Dennis received a distinguished service award from the Metropolitan Detroit Landscape Association in 1968 and the President's Award from the Michigan Association of County Agricultural Agents in 1970.

Visiting gardeners are always welcome to these meetings.

New Lights

Under presently approved street lighting rates The Farms' annual payment to the Detroit Edison Company for lights is $98,000. Mr. Lock has stated that The Farms lighting bill will stay approximately the same with the lighting conversion, unless Detroit Edison changes the rate structure.

By voting the conversion in the March 6 meeting, the council members saved The Farms a $5 per light conversion charge which was to be instituted by the Detroit Edison Company after March 15.

It's not what you do, but how, that makes life a success.

A free Rock Concert for high school students will be offered on Thursday evening, March 30, from 8:30-11:30. This is the night the public schools get out for Spring Vacation. The featured band will be "The Comstock Lode". Students who do not pick up their free tickets in advance will have to pay 50 cents at the door.

A children's matinee will be offered Saturday afternoon, April 2, at 2 o'clock. Excerpts from "Annie Get Your Gun" will be presented by the Center's Children's Theatre under the direction of Mrs. Sydney Reynolds and scenes from Mother Goose, a delightful fairy tale adapted for ballet, will be presented by the Center's Dance Troupe under the direction of Miss Mary Ellen Cooper.

It is hoped as many Pointers, youth and adult, as possible will avail themselves of the free tickets to these programs and look into the unlimited cultural, social and entertainment activities available every day of the year to Grosse Pointers at the Center.

Woods Grants Three Permits

An opening day Little League parade, a horse show and an Easter magazine sale have received permission from the Woods council to take place. Each request was unanimously passed at the regular meeting Monday, March 6.

The opening day ceremonies for the Grosse Pointe Woods-Shores Little League program is Sunday, May 7, and chairman Gregg Pischea requested permission for the parade to begin at the parking lot of Manufacturers National Bank at Mack avenue and Lochmoor boulevard and to end at Ghesquiere Park. The festivities begin at 1 p.m.

From baseball to horses as the 61st Grosse Pointe Hunt Club horse show is set for June 21-25 on Club grounds. Kenneth F. Hahn, secretary, requested approval to park cars adjacent to the property along Cook road and over the sidewalk. The area will be supervised with the Club assuming full responsibility for any sidewalk damage. All activities are scheduled to be coordinated with the Department of Public Safety.

The annual Easter sale of War Cry Magazine will be on two Saturdays, March 25 and April 1, between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. Major Kenneth R. Stange of the Salvation Army said the proceeds will be used in the Army's rehabilitation programs. All three requests were by letter.

OVEN FIRE

The Woods fire department was summoned to the Michael Moukalian residence, 1729 Huntington, to douse an oven fire on Friday, February 24. Mr. Moukalian reported that the fire started in a self-cleaning oven by someone leaving a banana in the oven and forgetting to remove it. He contacted the Woods fire department when the oven started smoking. The fire extinguished itself.

Farms Approves Sewer Monitor

By Kathy Duff
The Farms council has authorized the Detroit Metro Water Department to install certain monitoring and telemetering facilities at five sewer overflow points in Lake St. Clair.

Moran, and Moross. During periods of heavy rainfall, untreated stormwater overflow is released into the lake to prevent flooding of the residential area.

Untreated sewerage is released when the amount of water in the sewer system becomes too great to be handled by the pumps.

Recently the Metro Water Department has been improving and expanding its sewer monitoring and remote control system.

"We don't know how frequently the outlets are used to handle stormwater overflow. The administration thinks that it is rather infrequent."

Mr. Lock then advised the council to vote authorization of the monitoring devices, so that both The Farms and the Metro Water Department could become more knowledgeable of the situation.

Woods Police Calm Upset GI

A 26-year-old St. Clair Shores man, recently returned from active duty in South Vietnam, was charged with "tumultuous conduct" for his actions in the Woods police station Thursday night, March 2.

He had been taken to the Woods police station by officer Donald Schmaltz after being issued a traffic violation for running a red light. Patrolman Schmaltz realized that the man was upset and in no condition to drive at the time of the arrest.

At the station, the Woods policemen encouraged the subject to call someone to pick him up. He accepted change for a $1 bill to call his wife, and then asked what was the fine for running a red light.

When he was told to contact the Woods Violation Bureau the next morning for information on the fine, he became upset and said, "The pigs never kill anybody, I killed more people in Vietnam than you could ever imagine."

The Woods police managed to calm the man, and he used the pay phone and then left the station.

Mirutes later, he reentered the station and demanded to know where his car was. When he was again informed of his condition, he began to pound the desk with his fists and shouted that he had driven a "Trac" in Vietnam and that he could drive anything.

All changes are not progress—a great many are mistakes.

Burglars Steal Jewelry, Coins

Numerous items of jewelry, including watches and cuff links, were stolen from the Anthony Jossens' residence, 657 Birch Lane, during a breaking and entering Tuesday, March 7.

Officer Donald Schmaltz of the Woods Police Department received a report from Mrs. Frieda Jossens and her children, Arthur and Marianne. The officer was met by the children who had arrived home from school and discovered the breaking and entering.

The culprits entered through the front door by breaking the lock and proceeded to ransack the bedrooms, dining room, kitchen and family room.

Mrs. Jossens reported various items missing, including the following jewelry of unknown value: a pair of silver, single white pearl cuff links and tie tac; a set of black pearl evening studs and cuff links; a silver cigarette lighter with a silver half-dollar bronzed to the case; a man's gold band, (one-half inch), ring with three seed pearls and two chipped diamonds, circa 1915.

Other items are a man's gold, black cameo ring, size seven and one-quarter, with an inscription; a man's gold Hamilton 21-jewel wrist watch with gold expandable strap with gold leather strap (the original black leather strap also was taken); a woman's Bulova gold watch, (one-half inch square face), with rhinestone expandable gold strap, (three rhinestones are missing from the strap), and one natural brown stone necklace with earrings.

Eagle Scout

RICHARD SPANGLER has been introduced into the ranks of an Eagle Scout. Richard began his scouting activities four years ago and passed through the stages of scout activities which were climaxed in the presentation of the Eagle Award on Tuesday evening, January 21.

Richard performed all the requirements for 23 merit badges. Of these, 11 were required for this high achievement and 12 were electives. Richard earned the last of these over the Christmas holidays.

Richard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall V. Noecker, who live in Handy road. He is one of eight children and the middle of five boys. His older brothers have also been active in the scouting movement and Marshall was graduated from Dartmouth College in Hanover, N.H., and his brother William is a graduate of Cornell University at Ithaca, N.Y.

In special activities, Richard has attended the Detroit Area Council at the Charles Howell Summer Camp in Brighton, Mich., for the past three summers. In addition, last summer, he was a member of the Philmont Expedition and spent two weeks in the mountains at Cimarron, N.M. Also in the summer of 1971, Richard was selected as a Councilor in Training at Charles Howell Boy Scout Camp in Brighton.

This summer Richard has signed up for the canoe trip at the Region 7 Camp Base in Wisconsin during the early part of July. Then he will return to Charles Howell Summer Camp as a Councilor in Training. Richard plans to attend the National Boy Scout Jamboree in Pennsylvania. In addition, both summers will be spent at the Michigan Outing for Richard's home troop.

Richard's Boy Scout leader has been Gerr'd Webster and the assistant scout master has been George Lewis. Both of these men live in Grosse Pointe and have been active in the scouting program for many years. All of Richard's work was done in Troop 74, Detroit Area Council and meets at the Richard School.

Mite Stars Beat "Family;" Seals Are Tops in League

In their first annual Family Tournament, the Mites' All Stars handily dumped a team composed of their fathers, mothers, brothers, and sister, by a score of 6-3 in recent action. A goal scored by the referees at the end of the third period was not officially counted.

The family team scored the first goal on a breakaway by Dave Treder in the first

Hope to Form Swim League

The three-year-old Grosse Pointe Swim Club is presently working on the formation of a swimming league with five of the stronger teams in Michigan to bring some of the best swimming competition to the area.

Around 140 swimmers participate, including nine who were on the Michigan amateur aquatic list of outstanding swimmers: Tom Heholt, Tom Filgo, Mary Loa Goyette, Tom Matthews, Laura Novak, Carol Pillsbury, Joy Promack, Sue Reinhard and Dave Wyborski.

The club, which practices at Grosse Pointe North High School, has been awarded the Girl's Junior Olympic short-course championship, one of the largest meets in Michigan. Approximately 500 swimmers are expected to participate in the April 15-16 action at the North pool.

Club coaches include Roy Pouliot and Tom Teetaert, plus two student aides. Don Brown is the club president. For further information on the club and the meet, contact Mr. Brown at 884-5870.

period. He was extremely "unassisted." The goal was followed by a two minute penalty to referee Keith McEaslin for not paying attention. The Mites rallied to score two goals before the period ended.

The second period was considerably shortened by the amount of time it took Bud Mallard to assist family team goalie Jack Luzadre to the other end of the ice. However, the Mites still managed to squeeze in three goals. At the end of the period, family team member Jim Farquhar was discovered crouched in the net behind the opponent's goalie waving a white flag. This overture was ignored and the game continued.

In the final period, a bouncing puck caused great consternation to all players. When it was discovered that the puck was made of rubber, it was immediately thrown out of the game. In spite of heavy penalties (Len Smith, two minutes for speeding, and Farquhar, two minutes for tacking), the family team scored two goals before the game ended.

Fine sportsmanship was displayed in the locker room after the game as both teams shared pizza, cake, pop and coffee.

In first league standings, the Seals captured top spot with a 12-3-3 record for 27 points. Then came the Flyers, 11-4-3, 25 points; Hawks, 11-5-2, 24 points; Kings, 9-4-3, 22 points; Stars, 6-10-2, 14 points; Bruins, 6-11-1, 13 points and the Leafs, 0-18-0, no points.

The Mites are currently in the midst of playoff action which continues through Wednesday, March 22. The James Costello Trophy is awarded to the winning team. Individual trophies will be awarded to first place and runner-up team members.

Nab Juveniles In Auto Chase

An auto chase in The Park led to the arrest of two juveniles who were driving a stolen car, Saturday, March 11.

Officer Richard Wedding observed a speeding vehicle on Mack avenue and gave chase. The car attempted to elude the officer and went south on Balfour road through several stop signs. However, the driver lost control near 1245 Balfour and struck a parked car. The youths then left on foot and were pursued by officer Wedding and other patrolmen.

Ultimately, the two were apprehended and one was reported to be a 14-year-old and the other, 15. The auto, a 1964 Dodge Dart, was apparently stolen Friday, March 10, in Detroit. The case was referred to the Grosse Pointe Youth Services Bureau.

Other patrolmen assisting officer Wedding include officers Norman Gangola, Larry Rice and Howard Carl.

Head of Police Proud of Pair

Donald B. Coats, director of the Woods Department of Public Safety, is "very proud" of two of his men who have recently completed courses with high marks.

Detective Theodore Hinz finished "number one" in a class of 24 after a three-week course in investigative techniques at the Oakland Police Academy. His final average was 95.95 in the course, which featured heavy classroom and reading assignments. Mr. Coats said the course is a "demanding" one and "requires considerable homework."

Mr. Coats stated he received a letter from Ralph Moxley, director, Oakland Police Academy, complimenting Detective Hinz on his performance.

Officer Frederick Lovelace completed a seven-week basic training course conducted by the Metropolitan Police Academy of Michigan, and finished fourth in a class of 64. He attained an average score of 96.4 for the curriculum. Graduation day was Wednesday, March 8, and now officer Lovelace is "on the job."

Detective Hinz has been a member of the Woods Department of Public Safety for eight years, with three years in the detective bureau. Officer Lovelace, a Denby High School graduate, is currently a senior at Wayne State University and will graduate in June. He's majoring in police administration, and was appointed to the department January 24.

Sabre Bantams Have Big Week

The Grosse Pointe Sabres Bantam hockey team, who have only lost three of their last 26 games, just completed an undefeated week of play.

Action began Sunday, February 27, when the Sabres met a power-packed team from Toronto, Ont.—the Royal York Rangers—and came from behind to earn a 2-2 tie. Grosse Pointe goals were scored by Jeff Butcher and Rick Fabbri. Goalie Brad Mitseff was spectacular for the Sabres, who were outplayed for much of the game.

The Sabres faced the Warren Bonnie Bakers in the first game of their league play-offs Tuesday, February 29. Playing one of their best all around games of the season, the Sabres dumped the Bakers, 5-0. Butcher put the red light on twice, while John Batten, Russ Green and Fabbri netted a goal apiece. Fabbri's was his 60th of the season. Mitseff was superb in goal and gained his 20th shutout of the season.

Once again the Sabres had to come from behind to tie the Livonia Travellers, 3-3, Thursday, March 2. Fabbri was the hero as he netted the tying marker with one second left in the game. Paul Marshall and Butcher scored the other Grosse Pointe goals.

The Downriver Saints of the Tri-County League were edged by the Sabres, 2-1, Saturday, March 4. Only a late power play goal spoiled Mitseff's shutout bid. As of this game his goals against average stood at 1.95. Sabres goals were scored by Batten and Green.

A week of no losses ended Sunday, March 5, when the Sabres nipped the Southfield Braves, 3-2. Fabbri led the charge with two goals, while Brian Carron scored the other marker.

Two Precinct Shift in Woods

An ordinance to "revise, establish, and describe the boundaries of the election precincts" in the Woods received final Council adoption at the regular meeting Monday, March 6. The ordinance was previously approved by the council at the regular meeting Thursday, February 24.

Two voting precincts have been realigned under the revision: precincts seven and 11. A state statute requires that no more than 1,400 registered voters be in in any one precinct, said City Administrator Chester E. Petersen.

As of March 1, precinct seven was approaching the limit with 1,385 voters. Meanwhile, precinct 11 had only 860 voters. So the shift was made to equalize the voting populations. Now precinct seven will have 1,180 voters and precinct 11 will jump to 1,065. The revision, which will take effect May 17, will be ready for the August primary.

The voting location for precinct seven is the Perry School, 748 Roslyn road, while the voting place for precinct 11 is the Parcels Middle School, 20600 Mack avenue.

Youths Admit Entering School

Farms patrolman Gerald Deburghraeve was dispatched to South High School at 5:30 p.m. Sunday, February 20, to investigate a breaking and entry in progress.

At the school, he was met by Richard Barshaw, a custodian, who said that four youths had entered the school gym through an open window on the west side of the gym. Access to the window was from the roof of the school, according to Mr. Barshaw.

The policeman and custodian attempted to trap the four suspects, but the youths managed to escape through the south exit of the gym when they heard the metal barriers opening in the corridor leading to the gym.

Patrolling the area, Patrolman Deburghraeve, with the assistance of Farms policemen Alfred Martin and Guy Lyford, spotted four youths in the area of Grosse Pointe boulevard and Pine court who matched the custodian's description.

Upon questioning, they admitted that they had been in the gym.

The youths, who were 12 and 13 years old, were later released to the custody of their parents. No violations were issued since only a 15-foot piece of rope was missing from the South High Gym.

Friendship is the only cement that will hold nations together.

FIRE CHIEF A HIT

The Park's new Fire Chief, Phillip M. Costa, made an auspicious debut at his first council meeting since becoming chief when Henry DeClerk retired in February. One item on the agenda at the regular meeting Monday, March 13, was the fire department's annual report and Councilman Robert J. Hutton told Chief Costa it's a "very good first report."

And Mayor Matthew C. Patterson commended the Fire Department for its work in 1971, and also the report.

Public Schools in Focus

By Dr. Theos I. Anderson, Superintendent of Schools

There is a strong possibility that voters will be asked to help decide whether Michigan should institute a state lottery at the May 16 Presidential Primary Election. Although the funds would probably not be specifically earmarked for education, it appears that most of the revenues generated would be used in the proposed full state funding of elementary and secondary education.

Will a lottery proposal pass?

Tabulation of a poll conducted among his constituents in November by State Senator George Fitzgerald tends to indicate that it would. Results of the poll, shown in percentages for the Grosse Pointe portion of his district, as well as for the Senator's total area follow.

In order to raise money for state programs it has been suggested we legalize some form of gambling. Do you favor:

District	Yes	No
Grosse Pointe	61	39
Wide Pointes	84	16
Dog racing	61	39
State Lottery	84	16
Bingo	73	27
Off-track betting	67	33

Along with Michigan, at least 9 other states appear to be on the verge of attempting to raise funds via the lottery method: California, Delaware, Illinois, Kentucky, Maryland, Ohio, Oregon, Rhode Island and Virginia.

The lottery, already in operation in several states,

To The Editor:
 I have always felt that our three community hospitals should have a closer affiliation. Many of the physicians on the staffs are already on more than one of the three staffs.

Therefore, I am writing in commendation of the joint meeting of the three staffs to be held next month at the War Memorial. I think it is a wonderful step in the right direction.

Yours sincerely,
 Clifford Loranger, M.D.

 Perhaps you may be interested in an unusual cat story.

Last March we got a small kitten. She lived with us at 11711 Duchess until August 1 when we moved to 1008 Kensington. For several reasons, we decided to look for a new home for Misty.

Around September 1, I asked an acquaintance if she knew of someone who would give the cat a good home. She had

What Goes On at Your Library
 By Virginia Leonard

Guest Columnist: Sue Neff

Have you read RASCAL by Sterling North? Aply subtitled A MEMOIR OF A BETTER ERA, this book which takes place in 1918 is a warm family story about a boy and his pet raccoon. A half-built canoe in the living room and wire screening around the Christmas tree to keep Rascal away from its decorations add to the charm of a book about a boy growing up.

Irene Hunt has written two excellent books about young people and the world: Motherless Julie goes UP A ROAD SLOWLY from ages seven to 17 during which time she lives with her school-teacher Aunt Cordelia and learns much about human relationships and life while gaining maturity. This moving portrayal of adolescence may recall for you as it did for me those sensitive and sometimes painful years.

ACROSS FIVE APRILS concerns the ninth to thirteenth years of Jethro Creighton who tells of the Civil War as seen through his eyes. A family divided and the futility of war are major themes in this book.

THE ENDLESS STEPPE by Hautzig is another book covering a span of five years. In this autobiography, Esther tells of her life as a Jewish prisoner of the Russians in Siberia. Love and loyalty among the members of the family bind them together, but constant hard labor, freezing weather, and other suffering.

A similar book for young people but also meaningful to adults is THE DIARY OF A YOUNG GIRL, by Anne Frank. This thirteen-year-old Jewish girl writes in her "kitty" her innermost thoughts about herself and of her family's hiding from the Nazis during World War II. This poignant book is worth rereading.

Perhaps you have realized by now that these are all books in the Children's section of the library. I hope this won't keep you from reading them. So many adults throw up their hands in horror at the thought of reading a so-called "children's book" that I often wish our books were interspersed, so they wouldn't know the difference.

Two outstanding children's stories that you should read if you have not already done so are CHARLOTTE'S WEB and WINNIE THE POOH. Charlotte saves the life of Wilbur, a silly pig, in a unique story of friendship, hilarity, and compassion. Pooh and Christopher Robin are just two of the delightful characters in a book of adventures and fantasy for all ages. Adults with more background see these books differently than do the children. But these two have something for everyone. That is why they have become classics.

Readers today are asking for happy books to help them forget all the world's problems. I often recommend THE PUSHCART WAR by Jean Merrill, a satire set in 1976 when the pushcart vendors wage a pea-pin shooter war against the New York City truckers, resulting, of course, in chaos on the streets.

My most favorite "light hearted" book is TWENTY ONE BALLOONS by William Pene DuBois in which Professor Sherman flies off in search of adventure and lands on Krakatoa, full of volcanoes, diamonds, strange people, and the Moroccan House of Marvel, (which is a housewife's delight!) This imaginative and delightful book won the award in 1948 for the best children's book of the year. Don't miss it!

Incidentally, the easiest and quickest way to get a quick-over-all view of a subject is a children's book. Our graphic books can introduce you to places you plan to visit and when you return can enjoy again the many illustrations, saying of course "Hey, we were there!"

Knitting, crocheting, and macrame books in the children's section are good too if you are a beginner. Last week, for example, a lady taking the crocheting course at the War Memorial needed help and our CHILD'S BOOK OF CROCHET gave very easy diagrams and told her exactly what she needed to know.

The Golden Nature guides on trees, flowers, seashells, and stars are perfect "take alongs" whether on a vacation or in your own backyard. I wouldn't be without them.

If you want to "bone-up" on your weak points, children's books are the place to begin. I knew nothing about the stock market when I received one share of Rollins, Inc. for (Rollins is my maiden name). I read Friedlander's STOCKMARKET ABC'S as an introductory and soon could understand my annual reports and generally what what was going on. And, by the way, Rollins has done very well if you're looking for a good company in which to invest.

So, my fellow adults — please don't close your minds to children's literature. It's refreshing. Read some of my suggestions. I promise you enjoyment and satisfaction.

Easter planning for the Delta Delta Delta Alumnae meant devoting their recent meeting, in the Bournemouth circle home of Mrs. Sam Minella, to making Easter favors for the children of the Mongoloid Child Achievement Foundation, their special philanthropic interest.

The Tri Deltas recently distributed over 100 canisters in area stores in an effort to help these youngsters. Mrs. Keith Manglos, of Oldbrook lane, opened her home this past week to the Chinese cooking artistry of Pointer, Mrs. Neville Pack, who demonstrated how to cook wonton soup, egg rolls, sweet and sour pork and steak kew. She even provided ladies with the recipes. Proceeds from this activity will also be used to assist the foundation. If you're interested in helping the Tri Deltas help these youngsters, contact Mrs. Dennis East, 881-7595. It could help make these youngsters' Easter the happiest ever!

The Designer . . . who designed Mrs. Nixon's much photographed, now famous red wool coat, she wore to China, now has another fashionable traveler. We had it sketched for the Walton-Pierce ad on the first page of Society of this issue. It is a great choice for continent hopping and about town. Made of soft, light-weight wool, it is completely reversible. We love the white side out. Try it both ways and see the smart new spring coat collection which includes all-weather travelers.

One By One . . . that's how Dura Lashes are applied at Leon. By popular request, Leon has added this beauty service. Miss Jamie, who is trained by the manufacturer and who taught at a well-known modeling school, will place these individual lashes on your lashes in any length or thickness becoming. The colors are brown and black. They last eight weeks with a bit of care. They can last longer. You can sleep, swim, shower, sauna with them. Because they are placed directly on your lashes and not on the lid, the look is natural with or without make-up. Miss Jamie applies them by appointment, privately in a booth. For more information, call her or drop by 17888 Mack Avenue . . . TU 4-9393.

They can arrange your mortgage at the low advantageous current rates and have a trade-in program on your present home. Open every day from 12:00 to 5:00 except Wednesday. Entrance on Neff or St. Clair.

Why . . . are Scotsman ice cubes so clear, solid, pure? Because they are made a special way. In the Scotsman ice cube maker the operation is completely automatic. The Scotsman provides up to eighteen pounds of pure round ice cubes a day and can be beautifully integrated into any home or office decorating plan. THOMAS W. KRESSBACH Manager of the City of Grosse Pointe

By Pepper Whitelaw

Thomas W. Kressbach fits perfectly the role of a city manager. He's knowledgeable, efficient, organized, patient, thorough, and attuned to community needs. He works a 50-hour week, under normal conditions, (but it's the frequency of those abnormal conditions that are often a lesser manager's nemesis).

Like that Fourth of July during dinner when The Pointes were hit by a deluge of rain and local basements were flooded . . . Tom went scurrying over to the pumping station to investigate. Or that evening of his birthday party . . . yes, you guessed it . . . another bad rain storm AND another trip to the same pumping station.

Has Understanding Wife "But, city managers expect this, it's part of the nature of the profession," says Tom. "Of course, if they're lucky, they have a wife like I do, who understands that as a city official my first duty is to the City and its residents."

Tom's wife, Ellie, earned her BA degree from Eastern Michigan University and her Masters from the University of Michigan. She taught school six years prior to her marriage. "Now she's too busy taking care of Lisa, a second grader at Kerby School, and Julie, three, to find much time for anything else."

Tom and Ellie are both from Monroe, Mich. Tom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred K. Kressbach, of Brandon, Fla. His father is a retired buyer for the Consolidated Paper Company. "We control assistant and as an engineering officer. (Even at that time Tom was displaying his leadership ability. As head of engineering department he had 25 men assigned to his supervision).

He earned his Masters degree at U of M in political science and served an internship with the Michigan Chapter of the International Managers' Association. He was deeply involved in the publication of a 51-page study, "The Michigan City Manager in Budgetary Proceedings."

"That experience has proven invaluable to me," Tom adds. Upon earning his MA, Tom took a position as research assistant for the Michigan Municipal League. "I did basic research for the special committees set up by the League which made recommendations on a constitutional revision during the Michigan Constitutional Convention."

Takes Saginaw Post "In April of 1962, I went to Saginaw as an administrative assistant. I was there four years and left as assistant to the city manager. In a city the size of Saginaw (some 100,000) I did everything from serving as acting city manager when the city manager was out of town, to working on policy and program development, to reviewing departmental budget requests, developing the budget and participating in employee salary and wage negotiations.

Tom's work was so highly thought of in Saginaw that he was named Man-of-the-Year by the Jaycees there. He came to the City of Grosse Pointe directly from Saginaw and has been busy ever since. Although the City is the second smallest of the Pointes, (population about 7,000), many of the major buildings and Pointe activities are located there such as the Neighborhood Club, Elworthy Field, Bon Secours Hospital and Center Point.

Enjoy A Resurgence The City, more than any of the other Pointes, has had resurgence of building and modernization in the past few years. Cases in point are the expansion of Bon Secours Hospital, the Jefferson Avenue Condominiums, the National Bank of Detroit Building, The McCourt Building, the proposed Jacobson expansion, and the change over to Colonial styling throughout The Village area. Naturally with projects of this size come equally big problems and the City Council and Tom have been deeply involved in all these changes.

Major Programs Since his arrival in The Pointe, Tom has instituted many major programs. Five such key programs are the annual tree planting, trimming and maintenance program. ("It's been great to see how the merchants in-the-Village and on Fisher road have cooperated in beautifying their areas through flower and tree plantings," says Tom); the renovation of the 168 boat wells at the marina converting wood to steel pilings, redesigning the wells, improving the water and electrical facilities; continuing the improvement of Norbert Neff Park through tree and flower planting, and remarketing and heating the swimming pool; the curb replacement and resurfacing program, in which one major area is resurfaced each year, (he is currently working on a 10 to 12-year program); and the maintenance and cleaning of all the City's sanitary sewers on an annual basis and the flushing out of trouble spots.

Gardening Is Hobby Tom's interest in tree

SHEP . . . the Sacred Heart Enrichment Program begins its seventh year. Seven years of sharing . . . learning . . . living. Seven years of learning experiences which have resulted in a better understanding of the world they live in for hundreds of young girls.

The program was created in the summer of 1966 by the Religious of the Sacred Heart in Grosse Pointe as an education service involving the total community. SHEP provides an intensive, dynamic learning experience for girls from various socio-economic, racial, religious and cultural backgrounds. The facilities of The Grosse Pointe Academy will be used again this summer for the program which continues under the direction of the religious of the Sacred Heart and its dynamic director Sister Annette Zippie.

SHEP is in session June 26 through August 6. But girls in grades five through eight, representing 40 public and parochial schools in the Detroit area and its suburbs participate in monthly happenings throughout the year . . . some 200 of them . . . most of whom continue in the program for three years.

Currently Mrs. James Gregory, of Blairmoor court, Mrs. Gerald O'Berski of Chalfonte avenue, Mrs. Elizabeth Greer, of Detroit, are helping Sister Zippie plan the April 8 Happening . . . an Easter Egg Hunt on the Academy grounds.

The six-week summer sessions, to which the girls are bussed, are designed to increase awareness in all of the students of their dignity and potential . . . to encourage the sharing and acceptance of one another's gifts . . . to motivate under-achievers and provide additional tools for self motivation for the average and high achievers . . .

SHEP operates on the bridge concept . . . serving as a link between young people from different cultures in a common, creative learning experience. Through student assistants SHEP represents the total community so its thrust is the young being taught and encouraged by the older rather than white suburbia giving to the black inner city.

Girls in the program are referred by their public and parochial schools in the inner city. Currently ministers in The Pointe area are being contacted for referrals to the program in an effort to expand SHEP's scope.

The volunteer faculty helping with the program comes from the city and suburbs and is made up of certified teachers, parents, social workers, reading consultants, counselors and teachers' aides. If you have a particular talent, be it sewing, crafts, cooking . . . volunteer to help with this program by contacting Sister Zippie at 331-8323 . . . or if your time is at a premium send a donation to Sister Zippie, 409 Lenox, Detroit, 48215 . . . it's tax deductible!

And look what your donation can do . . . one scholarship at $200 provides food, transportation, program supplies and field trips for one girl not only during the summer program but for the ongoing activities throughout the year.

fortunate to work in a city like Grosse Pointe that has interested, active citizens and a council and mayor that are dedicated and supportive . . . but then our entire city staff is dedicated and supportive!"

MR. and MRS. JOHN B. SHERIDAN, of Perryburg, O., announce the birth of a son, PHILIP EMIL, on March 9. MRS. SHERIDAN is the former CAROL VOSSLER, daughter of DR. and MRS. VOSSLER, of Neff road. Paternal grandparents are MR. and MRS. RICHARD P. SHERIDAN, of Vernier road.

To Offer Free Cancer Tests

The J. L. Hudson Company in conjunction with the Michigan Cancer Foundation will provide free Pap tests at Hudson's Downtown Detroit store March 20 through 24. All interested women should call the Michigan Cancer Foundation at 833-0710 for an appointment. A Pap smear test can detect cancer in the very early and highly curable stages. All adult women are urged to have this simple examination annually.

Smith College Club members and their guests will hear Miss Joan Afferia, Associate Professor of History at the college, speak on "Discontent in the Soviet Union" on Friday, March 24, at the Scarab Club in Detroit. Preceding the talk there will be a guided tour of the new North Wing of the Detroit Institute of Arts and a luncheon at 12 noon also at the Scarab Club. Taking reservations for the day's activities is Mrs. A. W. GALLUP, of Oxford road.

While there are many, many good things about Grosse Pointe one of the very best is our Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center and one of the best things from that is Director John Lakes' idea of community trips. John has worked very hard to organize these good will trips to foreign lands. When you think of 3 or 4 plane loads of Grosse Pointers, 150 to 200 each, traveling together for a week, there must be a fine rapport built up and people getting to know each other better—the Lord knows we can use more of this. So, thank you John Lake.
