HEADLINES of the WEEK

Thursday, March 16
HUD SECRETARY GEORGE ROMNEY announced Wednesday government curbs to end speculative profits on FHA home mortgages. He said the federal government will no longer allow the Federal Housing Administration (FHA) to insure any home mortgage for more than the last purchase price, plus repair costs, for home owners who have lived in the house less than two years. Detroit-area speculators will also be limited to a 20 percent profit, including overhead, on FHA sales. Recent HUD programs could cost the government $300 million in Detroit and $2.5 billion across the nation.

TAKING A STAND against school busing, President Nixon urged Congress Thursday night to halt all new pupil-busing orders and proposed to spend $2.5 billion to upgrade poor-neighborhood schools. Mr. Nixon also ordered the Justice Department to intervene in certain cases where "lower courts have gone beyond the Supreme Court's requirements in ordering busing." The $2.5 billion in federal aid would be directed to the rural and inner-city districts whose schools are below suburban standards.

Saturday, March 18
ITT LOBBYIST DITA BEARD said Friday in a written statement that the controversial memo introduced into Senate Judiciary Committee hearings by columnist Jack Anderson "is a forgery, and not mine." The memo, which Anderson swore under oath that Mrs. Beard had admitted writing, linked an ITT anti-trust settlement and a purported $400,000 ITT offer to underwrite costs of the 1972 Republican National Convention. Mrs. Beard issued the statement from a Denver, Colorado hospital where she is being treated for a heart condition.

Sunday, March 19
PRICE COMMISSION CHAIRMAN C. JACKSON GRAYSON JR. promised Friday to act on food prices if their recent sharp rise continues. He also criticized Agriculture Secretary Earl Butz for applauding higher farm prices, and Butz replied that the impact of raw agricultural prices on consumer prices is small. The Labor Department's Wholesale Price Index shows a 4.1 percent increase in consumer foods for the three-month period ending in February.

Monday, March 20
A NATIONAL HOUSING CONFERENCE in Chicago Sunday unanimously approved a resolution calling on HUD to disclose "the extent and specific instances of fraud" in federal housing programs in Detroit. The resolution, presented by a coalition of Detroit neighborhood action groups, charged HUD secretary George Romney and Detroit regional director William Whitebeck with "attempting to spread the blame for the (housing) scandal to the poor." The conference was called to rally support for reform of federal housing programs, which have resulted in 6,300 reclaimed FHA-financed homes in Detroit alone.

Tuesday, March 21
IN TERROR-RIDDEN BELFAST, a 100-pound bomb planted in a delivery truck killed six persons Monday and sent flames down a downtown street crowded with shoppers. An additional 146 persons were injured, some victims were seriously maimed. The explosion which went off outside a Protestant newspaper office, was the second major terrorist explosion in central Belfast this month and the worst carnage of the year in Northern Ireland.

Once Again Rotary Steps Forward To Help

Rotary Club Gives $7,000 To Playfield

Elworthy Field Development Gets Big Boost from Service Organization

The Grosse Pointe Rotary Club is the first civic organization to contribute to the Elworthy Field Trust Fund. Last Monday evening, March 20, at the City's regular council meeting, John A. MacCartney, president of the Grosse Pointe Rotary Foundation, and Dr. Max L. Gardner, president of Rotary Club, presented a check for $7,000 for the development of the children's play and tot lot facilities at Elworthy Field.

Dr. Gardner said Grosse Pointe Rotary felt that the Elworthy Field Improvement Program was a community project and that Rotary wanted to be a part of it. Mayor John L. King expressed the pleasure and deep gratitude of the city council and the Committee for Improvement of Elworthy Field for the generous contribution.

Mr. MacCartney told the council that the Foundation supports community projects through proceeds from its annual Antiques Show, which will be held this year at the War Memorial from April 28 through April 30.

Mayor King said he will issue a proclamation in recognition of the Antiques Show and work of Grosse Pointe Rotary Club in the community. Contributions received to date for the Elworthy Field Trust Fund total $37,402.

Three Hospitals to Hold Joint Meeting of Staffs

The medical staffs of Bon Secours, Cottage and Saint John Hospitals have scheduled their first joint meeting Tuesday evening, April 11, at the War Memorial. Up to 400 physicians from the staffs of the three hospitals are expected to attend. This meeting, it is hoped, will provide a base to build a framework of mutual understanding for closer cooperation and coordination of medical care for the community in the future. Speaking at the meeting will be Dr. Sidney Adler, president of the Michigan State Medical Society, and Dr. Myron Wegman, dean of the School of Public Health at the University of Michigan and president of the

St. John Hospital Opens New Emergency Center; Facility Costs $1,200,000

Fully Air-Conditioned Unit Is One of the State's Largest and Most Modern; 100,000 Annual Capacity

After almost four years of planning and development, the new Emergency Center at Saint John Hospital was opened on Friday morning, March 17. The opening was marked by a brief dedication ceremony, following the blessing by hospital chaplain, Father Lawrence DuCharme.

James T. Farley, speaking for the Board of Trustees, expressed thanks to the employees and all those who, through their contributions and support, helped to make the Emergency Center a reality.

With the cutting of a Kelly green ribbon, in honor of St. Patrick's Day, by Sister Irene Waldman SSI, president of the Sisters of Saint Joseph, the Center was officially opened. The remainder of the day was devoted to an open house for employees, volunteers, and friends of the hospital.

Need Was Indicated
The Emergency Center expansion was initiated when it was determined that the rapid growth in emergency visits exceeded the capacity of the current facility.

As hospital emergency services have developed and public confidence increased, an ever-increasing number of persons are now coming to hospital emergency rooms when faced with the need for immediate medical care.

Emergency services at Saint John started back in 1956 when the Emergency Room was first opened. Designed to serve 10,000 emergency patients a year, the Emergency Room had approximately 5,000 visits that first year. The figure has since skyrocketed with each successive year of operation.

Burglar Visits Shop on 'Hill'

Farms Patrolman Gerald Deburghgraeve was making a routine check of Kercheval avenue stores early Wednesday morning, March 1, when he discovered the front door of Stroh's Ice Cream Parlour standing ajar.

Investigating the situation, he realized that a thief had used glass cutters to break a 14 by 9 inch window pane allowing the thief to reach inside and open the door. One of the owners of the store at 74 Kercheval, Michael Van Lokeren, was contacted. After checking the store, he determined that nothing had been stolen or damaged other than a cash drawer containing $190. The money was in a black plastic tray.

The burglary occurred between 3 a.m. and 5 a.m. Wednesday morning.

Bulletin Board in NEWS Window Magnet for Passers-By of Several Generations

By Pepper Whitelaw
People are funny... or the passing parade... or my goodness, how grown up can five-year-olds be... any of these phrases could have applied this past week as we of the editorial staff sat watching a grand parade of window gawkers viewing "The Pointe's Own Rockettes," dancing members of The Fine Arts Society's musical revue, "Round Washington Square," which appeared on last week's society pages.

As is our custom, the glossy photographs which appeared in the previous week's paper were pinned proudly to the bulletin board in the front window of the NEWS. Usually the pictures are of brides, engaged gals, club women or educators. The usual response is gentle and subtle appreciation.

But this past week was different. It began about 10:14 a.m., on Thursday. That's about four-and-a-half minutes after the pictures were posted, and concluded well after 5 o'clock.

First, a very sophisticated, middle-aged businessman was hustling by... but ah... stopped abruptly... then spent a good five minutes staring and smiling alternately into the window.

He was followed in rapid succession by a quartet of teenagers, whose comments ranged from "dig that,"... to totally untranslatable compliments... to a quintet of middle schoolers, who were hurrying by on their 10-speeds only to come to screeching stops, dead center. Their eyes and sighs were unbelievable.

But perhaps the most captivating group of all was four small fry anywhere between five and seven years of age. Their appreciation of feminine pulchritude was expressed between licks and slurps of strawberry ice cream.

Anyway all of us in the editorial department enjoyed the company. And we're sure the gals from Fine Arts will enjoy the compliments!

Jacobson's Site Plan for Building Gets City's Okay

One More Hurdle Overcome Toward Fulfillment of Store's Proposal for Expansion and Alteration of Present Structure

By Pepper Whitelaw
One more hurdle has been overcome in the construction of the proposed Jacobson's expansion in the Village. Last Monday evening the City of Grosse Pointe Council approved the site plan for the proposed store expansion and related parking structure.

The studies, made by two experts, Brandon Rogers, city planner, of Parking, Rogers and Associates, and Reid, Cool and Michalski traffic engineers, asked for in a previous council meeting have since been completed. The Council and administrative staff studied and reviewed the proposed site plan and found them to be essentially in compliance with the City code requirements.

Wait Further Study
The approval given to the proposed parking structure is contingent on additional traffic engineering studies as to methods of ingress and egress, compliance with code requirements for a partial side yard requirement variance and further analysis and study of the financial feasibility.

It is anticipated, according to Mayor John L. King, that the monies used for the parking facilities would be financed through parking revenues and not from general taxes.

The proposed expansion plan includes an addition of some 30,000 square feet of floor space, a basement and two levels. There will be an arcade on the Notre Dame side of the structure. (Jacobson's has acquired three properties to the west which front on Kercheval and Notre Dame, all three of which will be demolished). The existing building will also be altered into Georgian Colonial styling. The center of the building will be lower than the sides and the facade made less pretentious.

To House 300 Cars
The ramp or vertical parking would house approximately 300 cars. (Currently it accommodates 114). Jacobson's architect Art Schmidt indicated at a previous meeting that the parking structure may be likened to a "carriage house" similar to the carriage house behind the (Continued on Page 2)

AMEND ORDINANCE
The City of Grosse Pointe Council on Monday, March 20, amended its zoning ordinance concerning parking structures in the district in back of Jacobson's, limited by the story height limitation for restricted offices to two-and-a-half stories in the stores in Fisher road, Mack avenue and The Village Shopping area, and the corner lot side yard requirements in those areas. (A complete outline of the amendments to the ordinance is published on page 29 in this week's issue of the NEWS).

Only 80 Property Owners Appeal City Assessments

By Pepper Whitelaw
The City of Grosse Pointe is winding up its appeals on new reassessment of properties this week. No further appointments will be taken. Of the 2,200 properties in The City, only 80 property owners have filed appeals before the Board of Review. According to City Assessor Dennis Foran, three appeals have been granted to date and several are currently under further study. He said the general increase in valuation is somewhere around seven percent, which is pretty much the pattern throughout Wayne County and particularly in The Pointe area. He added that in five of the last 11 years The City has reduced its tax rate.

David Schulte Is Sentenced

David L. Schulte, 21, 888 Harcourt, who was involved in the November burglary of the Joseph A. Schoenith Lake Shore residence has been sentenced to from five to 10 years in prison for possession of burglary tools.

Schulte appeared before Judge Richard H. Maher, Tuesday, March 14, and pled guilty to the charge.

Schulte was originally charged with breaking and entry, larceny over $100, and conspiracy to injure or destroy a safe.

Two others involved, Michael N. Sankovich, 20, 135 Muir road, and Candace Ball, 22, 5852 Conner, Detroit, will face sentencing on April 17. Both were originally charged with conspiracy to injure or destroy a safe and larceny over $100.

Sankovich was allowed to plead guilty to the reduced charge of attempted conspiracy to injure a safe, which is punishable by a maximum of five years in prison. Miss Ball pled guilty to the larceny count which carries a maximum of two-and-a-half years in prison. Schulte is now in the custody of The Michigan Correction Commission. Judge Maher has recommended that he be permitted to enter one of the Commission's Training Units, located throughout the state which teaches inmates various trades. Judge Maher also recommended that Schulte have psychiatric treatment.

Finally, in the event of a community disaster, the Emergency Center is designed so its capacity could be almost doubled to treat large numbers of casualties, should the need ever arise.

The Emergency Center currently has 61 employees together with five full-time staff physicians, who are backed up by the house staff, specialists on the medical staff, and more than 25 volunteers. This team, through training and experience, can provide optimum care at all times for the emergency patient.

Further Support Further supporting the Emergency Center are the full facilities and staff of the hospital. Laboratory and x-ray facilities are available around the clock immediately adjacent to the Center, together with other supportive services, including respiratory therapy, EKG and EEG. When major surgery is required, the surgical suites can be reached by elevator from the Center.

In addition to hospital operating revenue, funds for the new center were raised from the fund raising activities of the hospital's Fontbonne Auxiliary and the Men's Guild, and from the generous donations of countless numbers of friends and supporters in the community.

With the opening of the new Emergency Center, Saint John Hospital has again expanded its comprehensive health care services to meet the medical needs of the community.

Jacobson's Bronze Door

There would be open parking on the roof, a landscaped sideyard and an encircling brick wall. J. Russell Fowler, president of Jacobson's, indicated at an earlier council meeting that the delivery truck entrance would be an enclosed truck well and added that unsightly trash cans will be eliminated since the expansion proposal calls for the use of an internal compactor.

Colonial brick will be used throughout the addition, the upper windows of the stores will be full and wide, the roof partially pitched and the lower windows covered with copper hoods.

The current financial feasibility study which will ultimately decide the financing of the parking ramp will be the final hurdle in the proposed expansion.

Scouts Taught On Ice Safety

Because of recent ice tragedies on Lake St. Clair, ice safety was the subject of the March meeting of Ferry School's Cub Pack 34.

Sergeant Fred Reiman, a water safety expert with the Wayne County Sheriff's Department, provided the boys and their parents with rules for gauging the safety of ice; for ice skating over deep water; and for survival in case of ice breakage.

Sergeant Reiman said that traveling on ice always involves a certain amount of risk, particularly snow-covered ice. Snow insulates the ice from the cold, making it difficult to ascertain its thickness.

Ice four inches thick is safe for general use; ice two inches thick may safely hold one person; but one-inch ice is totally unsafe, according to Sergeant Reiman.

Skaters should skate on supervised ice, and should never skate alone or in large groups.

They should carry with them or have close at hand a pole and rope line. They should also carry "ice hauls," which are poles with two handles and 16 nails. This equipment can be used by a skater who has fallen through the ice to pull himself across thin ice to safety.

Most important for the skater who has fallen through the ice while alone is to remain calm. Time should not be wasted in an attempt to remove clothing, which does provide some initial buoyancy. Instead, the skater should extend his arms and kick. The body will then rise, and the skater can slide onto the ice.

"Once the hips are over the ice," Sergeant Reiman advised, "roll away from the hole." Ice hauls then should be used to pull a skater to a safe area.

If a person is attempting to rescue someone who has fallen through, he should lie flat on the ice and extend his arms to the endangered person. A pole or rope would be better, and the skater in the water should kick while being pulled onto the ice.

In conclusion, Sergeant Reiman warned that knowing what to do in such cases is extremely important. A man, he said, can only survive three minutes in icy water.

(Continued from Page 1) Restaurant Associates that Mr. Seymour had failed to meet business commitments, leaving them free to enter a purchase agreement with the Kercheval Investment Corporation.

Still Interested Attorney William A. Gentz, representing Mr. Seymour, pointed out to the councilmen that his client was still interested in owning the restaurant and that he protested the Kercheval Investment Group's recent action.

The attorney hinted that there had been some clandestine agreements between Restaurant Associates and the investment group. He said that there was evidence of "hidden ownership" and that the Kercheval Investment Corporation had already been "operating the restaurant in an illegal manner."

After Mr. Seymour's attorney had concluded his remarks, Councilman E. Rust Muirhead turned towards the representative of the State Liquor Commission and asked, "Does your recommendation for the transfer of ownership to the investment group still stand?"

The commissioner indicated that he still approved the transfer.

Confuses Council The Farms Council, at this point of the discussion, appeared a bit confused as to what action they should take, or what judgment they should make on conflicting legal testimonies.

Councilman James Mast, speaking for the council's background on the issue, said that it had been his understanding that Mr. Seymour had failed to keep business appointments, forfeiting his option to own the Bronze Door.

In an attempt to determine the Farms Council's role in the issue, Councilwoman Nancy Waugaman asked Farms City Attorney George McKean "What are we passing judgment on tonight; isn't it to approve or disapprove a recommendation of the police department for transfer of ownership?"

Raises Question "Are we able to approve a liquor license, and then if the investment group loses in court, our approval will be automatically negated?" Mrs. Waugaman asked.

Attorney McKean assured the council that their approval was subject to the outcome of any lawsuit by the involved parties.

The Farms council, realizing that any ownership question would be settled in civil court uninfluenced by the action Monday night, voted unanimously to approve the transfer of ownership to the Kercheval Investment Corporation.

The councilmen based their approval on Farms Police Chief Ferber's recommendation for the transfer.

Would Be Unfair "It would do harm to the investment group's business image if we deny them the transfer of ownership," commented Councilman Mark Stevens as he moved to approve the transfer.

"And if Mr. Seymour wins his lawsuit, I would offer another motion for transfer of ownership to Mr. Seymour," the councilman commented.

So the Kercheval Investment Corporation is recognized by the council as the proud owner of the Bronze Door restaurant at 123 Kercheval avenue.

City Appeals

He said that the adjustments based on sales in the city will eliminate the many inequities which have arisen with the use of factors provided by the state and county to achieve equalization. He said the medium priced homes, those in the $25,000 to $40,000 bracket tend to show more substantial increases.

Vandals Cost Florist $250

Ronald Serra, owner of Kimberly Flowers, 20311 Mack, called the Woods police on Wednesday, March 1, to report vandalism damage to the store's front window.

Mr. Serra said that sometime within the last 24 hours someone had shot two holes in one of the five by eight foot front plate glass windows. The window is one-fourth inch thick and valued at $250. Upon investigation, the Woods police determined that the vandal or vandals had used a pellet gun.

Farms Drops Parking Plan

The Farms is not going to meter the "Free Lot" located behind the municipal parking lot of the Kercheval On-the-Hill business district, it was announced by Farms City Manager Andrew Bremmer at the regular meeting of the Farms council, on Monday night, March 20.

The city manager promised to have details of a new parking plan, aimed at reducing the shortage of all-day parking in The Hills area, at the next meeting of the Farms council on Monday, April 3.

Previously The Farms had voted to authorize Mr. Bremmer to contact the owners of the lot, The Grosse Pointe School System, to request permission to install parking meters in that area. It was hoped that by metering the lot, more spaces would be available to Hill employees.

The Free Lot, which has spaces for about 80 cars, is used by Hill employees for long-term parking. However, the lot is also used by a few Hill merchants to park their delivery vans, by some persons parking their cars and taking the bus downtown to work, and by one Hill concern parking up to 12 unsold dealership cars in the lot.

Try it—the most profitable criticism is self-criticism.

Woods Plans Resolution Against 'X' Rated Films

By Roger A. Waha

Following in the footsteps of The Farms, the Woods Council is planning a similar resolution opposing generally "X" rated films. This action for the pending resolution was unanimously passed by the council at the regular meeting Monday, March 20.

The Farms passed a resolution at the regular meeting Monday, March 6, which said that the council "is in principle strongly opposed to the public showing in this City, of motion pictures which are generally rated 'X' under current rating standards of the industry."

Councilman Marvin R. Boutin suggested that the Woods council follow suit even though City Attorney Catlin advised "we can't do anything about it." At the Woods regular meeting Thursday, February 24, Mr. Catlin noted that it was impossible for The Woods to ban all X-rated movies, as they had adult bookstores, because the X-rating is given for different reasons and it would be a prejudgment and unlawful for The Woods to ban completely X-rated movies, (as reported in the March 2 edition of the NEWS).

The edition also noted that Mr. Catlin cited the recent verdict of the Supreme Court case of Roth vs. United States when the court decided for a movie to be judged obscene, its dominant theme must be sex, it must be offensive, and the film must be "utterly without redeeming social value."

Councilman Rodger A. Graef suggested that the Woods resolution, when approved, should be sent to area theaters, to other cities, and to Peter B. Clark, publisher of The Detroit News. The News in the Sunday edition, March 19, ran a front page editorial regarding its refusal to publish ads and publicity on X-rated films and other unrated pictures which the News feels are of "a pornographic nature."

Four anti-X pic letters also were received, plus a communication from the National Association of Theater Owners of Michigan, Inc., brought to the meeting by a resident. Councilman Graef commented upon a publication which, he said, indicated that two theaters in Ohio were closed for showing X-rated films. All these communications were unanimously approved for Committee of the Whole consideration.

In the same vein, Councilman George S. Freeman asked Mr. Catlin if The Woods has any ordinance on the books requiring theaters to check the ages of its patrons. Mr. Catlin said the city has no such ordinance. He added it's not required under city ordinance or state law. Mr. Freeman then suggested the council consider such an ordinance at its Committee of the Whole meeting.

It's easy to stop crabgrass before it starts by spreading Scott's combination product, HALTS PLUS For Established Lawns. One application forms an invisible barrier that will stop crabgrass as it sprouts, so the ugly stuff can't get started this year. It full-feeds your lawn at the same time, making good grass grow greener and sturdier. If you're planning on seeding this spring, use HALTS PLUS For New Seedings instead. The price is the same.

Seek Purchase Of Hockeyland

The Grosse Pointe Community Rink Steering Committee has announced that it is entering negotiations to purchase Gordie Howe Hockeyland, located in Harper avenue in St. Clair Shores.

The rink project at Austin Catholic Prep School, in so far as the Grosse Pointe Hockey Association and its steering committee was concerned, regrettably had to be abandoned because of the growing initial cost on new building construction. With the funds obtained to date, about $60,000 through the "Raise the Rink" campaign, an additional $60,000 is needed to arrange purchase of Hockeyland.

Center Drive Begins

(Continued from Page 1) a community center in every sense of the term than the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. This center, more than any other institution, brings together children and adults from all five Grosse Pointe communities. Keeping this institution alive and growing is made possible only through contributions to this annual 'Family Participation Campaign' says Alexander Wigger, chairman of this year's drive and treasurer of the Board of Directors. The Center uses no tax monies or United Foundation funds. It is three fourths self supporting even with many free programs and fees for classes and services held at a level all citizens can afford, but the last one-fourth of the budget, $95,000, to maintain this civic asset which cost Grosse Pointers nothing, must come from generous voluntary support from as many Grosse Pointe families as possible. The target date is Memorial Day, May 29.

Gift to Community
Alger House and Fries Auditorium together with the beautiful lakeside grounds and gardens were outright gifts to the Grosse Pointes. The Memorial Center is a unique facility which few communities can match. Its use attests its importance to Grosse Pointers. In 1971 they repeatedly came to the Center in a total of nearly 235,000 people in over 2,000 groups. The Center's volunteer Board of Directors feels that a family gift in whatever size possible is a worthwhile community investment to maintain this uniquely beautiful civic asset and its programs and services. All donations, large or small, are gratefully appreciated and they are income tax deductible.

This week all Pointers should receive a combination solicitation letter and postage free remittance envelope together with a brochure illustrating and explaining the works of the Memorial. Reasons for giving are listed as follows:

1. WHOLESALE FAMILY RECREATION AND ENTERTAINMENT — Travelogues with ethnic meals, plays, nationally known personalities, car and hobby shows, revues.
2. YOUTH PROGRAMS—Children's Theatre; supervised social activities; training in art, ballet, foreign language, guitar, etc.; council for civic and community participation; under adult guidance.
3. FREE LOAN OF HOSPITAL EQUIPMENT—Wheel chairs, crutches, walkers, beds, commodes, etc.; free loan of blood in emergency.
4. ACCOMMODATIONS FOR ACTIVITIES OF HUNDREDS OF COMMUNITY ORGANIZATIONS—Charitable agencies, service clubs, professional associations, special interest groups, civic committees.

GROSSE POINTE EDUCATION TO BE FURTHER CRIPPLED?

Students, parents, and teachers will suffer the results of a $886,000 budget cut for the next school year.

- Loss of 30-60 teachers (Classes are overcrowded this year!)
- Closing of the Public Library or a severely curtailed program
- Loss of all extracurricular activities
- Curtailed course offerings at the high and middle schools
- Loss of Driver Education in the school program

Do you remember the SLASHING OF 96 TEACHING POSITIONS last April? By September a few teachers had been rehired, but only 615 teachers—instead of 689—faced a larger number of students than the year before. Now the board of education has announced that $886,000 must be pared from an already reduced budget.

Do you remember the ELEMENTARY FRENCH PROGRAM (FLES)? It was cut back grade by grade until now it is offered only to eighth graders every other day. Now the high school language program is also in jeopardy.

Do you remember the ELEMENTARY ART PROGRAM we once had? It has been eliminated. What next?

Do you remember the ELEMENTARY MUSIC PROGRAM? After the erosion of the last two years, the release of a single staff member will force the doubling or tripling the remaining music classes. Students will suffer at all levels.

Do you remember the former VARSITY ATHLETIC PROGRAM? First it was put on a self-supporting basis except for coaches' salaries. After several sports were scheduled to be cut this year, only the Parent Club Walkathon kept them in existence. Now all Varsity, Junior Varsity, and Intramural sports are threatened with extinction.

Do you remember what else happened to PHYSICAL EDUCATION? At the middle schools, one female P.E. teacher in each building supervises gym for all the girls in the building. With more P.E. staff cuts made at both high schools, next year's physical education requirements will be cut in half. Our boys and girls are the losers.

Do you remember the drastic reductions in PUPIL PERSONNEL SERVICES. SCHOOL NURSES are gone; REMEDIAL READING was reduced by 11%; SCHOOL SOCIAL WORK over 11%; SCHOOL PSYCHOLOGISTS approximately 13%; SPEECH CORRECTIONS 11%. How much more can they be cut and still function as a needed service to our children?

Do you remember when a COUNSELOR had time to schedule individual students, to provide guidance in solving problems? A counselor has curtailed services this year since each has 400 students. How will he handle 50-100 more?

Do you remember the outstanding performances of the BANDS, the ORCHESTRAS, the CHOIRS, THEATRE NORTH POINTE PLAYERS, and other groups? Keep the memories. All of these and all the clubs and all the EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES will probably be things of the past.

Do you remember when CLASS SIZE was small enough that a teacher could individualize to fit the needs of each child? Class size at the secondary level is averaging around 30. What will happen next year?

We Grosse Pointe teachers know our professional responsibilities to Grosse Pointe children. We know the results of the past cuts. We can foresee the disaster of 30-60 more teachers being released. When needs, interests, and enthusiasms of children and their teachers are thwarted, education moves from quality to mediocrity.

WHAT CAN YOU DO?

2. If you are tired of paying taxes but still believe in quality education in Grosse Pointe
 - call board members and insist on millage now before the damage is done.
 - explain to your neighbors what these proposed cuts really do to Grosse Pointe children.
3. If you feel taxes are too high and that a reasonable austerity program is necessary . . .
 - call your schools to find out how students are being scheduled and what losses are foreseen.
 - call board members and insist that the instructional program not be cut.
1. Help your neighbors get the facts straight.
 - When property valuation goes up, state aid goes down.
 - When enrollment goes down, state-aid goes down.
 - Property values go down when quality education is threatened.
 - City governments, not school boards, reassess property values.
 - Proposed cuts in educational programs are not a scare tactic but a reality without a millage increase.
 - No state legislation has been adopted to fund education for 1972-1973.
 - Inter district bussing will not affect the Grosse Pointe Schools in the 1972-1973 school year.
 - Teachers have a two year contract which provides only cost-of-living increases in 1972-1973. Quality education can not be had in cut-rate prices.
4. If you need more information . . .
 - talk to students, teachers and administrators.
 - call the Grosse Pointe Education Association at 777-4732.

Farms Loses $143 Tarpaulin

Harold Wedyke, an employee of the Farms, contacted the Farms police Monday morning, March 13, to report the loss of a black nylon tarpaulin from the city garage in Chalfonte at Kerby road.

The employee said that the tarpaulin had been folded and placed on a rack on the front of a city-owned trailer. The trailer was parked in the northeast corner of the parking lot, and was left outside over the weekend. The trailer was left outside as the tractor which moves it was broken down, according to Mr. Wedyke.

The tarpaulin is 35 by 10 feet, has 30 rubber tie-downs, and is valued at $143. It was last seen at 3:30 p.m. Friday afternoon.

Break Windows At New House

Vandalism to a new house under construction in Stillmeadow lane resulted in $300 damage to windows.

Sergeant Stanley Otulowski of the Shores Department of Public Safety received a report from Ed Russell, Jr., 75 Stonehurst road, Thursday, March 16.

Sometime after 5 p.m. Wednesday, March 15, some unknown person broke two thermo pane windows at the front of the house. The damage was apparently done with stones thrown from the street.

It was also noted that youngsters have been getting into the house through the garage door opening which is boarded up with plywood. No damage was reported inside.

The police have scheduled closer watches on the house after 5 p.m. when the workmen leave.

South's Band Is Rated Tops

The Grosse Pointe South High School Symphony Band, directed by Russ Reed, once again displayed its standard of excellence at the District Band Festival held at North High School on March 11, 1972. The Band received first division ratings from all of the adjudicators. The four adjudicators each praised the band for its musical performance. A total of 32 letter grades were given, with 31 A's and one B awarded for all aspects of the performance. The band is rated on the basis of its tone, intonation, rhythm, technique, interpretation, general spirit, selection, stage deportment, and over-all performance.

Stanley Bauman, one of the judges wrote, "A very challenging piece of music (Menotti's OVERTURE AND CACCIA). Your playing shows very careful preparation, both individually and as a band! You are to be commended for a fine performance."

Jack Bittle from Sturgis, Mich., wrote, "Very musical and exciting performance! Not much to comment on other than to say—keep doing what you are doing. It is obvious that you enjoy working seriously on fine music. You can be proud of this performance today."

Manley Fay said the strong points of the performance included spirit, basic musicianship, tone quality, style and proficiency of the entire groups.

In the sight-reading portion of the festival, Glenn Smith of the University of Michigan wrote, "I was impressed with your overall reading skill and musicianship. As I recall, yours was the most outstanding playing so far today. Congratulations to you all! You certainly have an outstanding band, in my opinion."

Thirteen bands from South-eastern Michigan performed at North on Saturday. Two other bands also received "straight" first division ratings: Grosse Pointe North, directed by Nate Judson, and Taylor Center, directed by Ed Rima.

The band will perform in the State Band Festival in the Flint area on April 29.

Store Victim Of Bad Check

Clifford Ashton, owner of the Punch & Judy Toy Store in 97 Kercheval, called Farms police on Friday, March 17, to report the return of a bad check.

The personal check totaled $50 and was returned by the National Bank of Detroit marked "Account Closed." It was from the personal account of James S. McLeod, 36042 Little Mack, Mt. Clemens.

Farms Detective Sergeant George Van Tiem handled the investigation. He learned from a store clerk that the check was accepted on Thursday, March 2, to cover the purchase of a $42 cradle set. The clerk had given eight dollars in change to the customer wearing a Boy Scouts of America uniform.

The Farms detective then contacted the McLeod residence and learned that the suspect was already in jail for cashing bad checks in Macomb County.

After contacting Macomb County officials, the Farms police department asked a hold be placed on the suspect, who is literally accused of "robbing the cradle," until Macomb County finishes its prosecution.

$50 STOLEN IN B-E The Park Police Department was contacted Tuesday, March 7, by Celina Houltkier, 1447 Balfour, regarding a breaking and entering. Fifty dollars in cash, plus miscellaneous jewelry of unknown value, was reported taken.

Park to Receive Flag Pole from GP Sail Club

By Roger A. Waha "Old Glory" soon will be flying at the southeast corner of the breakwater at Windmill Point Park.

For the Park Council at the regular meeting Monday, March 13, unanimously approved a gift of a 30-foot tapered aluminum flag pole from the Grosse Pointe Sail Club. "We hope to have it up by the time the boating season starts," (April 15), said City Manager Robert A. Slone.

Plans are for the flag to fly 24 hours a day, which means that at night it will have to be specifically illuminated, probably by spotlights. Mr. Slone said that storm warning flags also are planned for display which should be a boon for boaters regarding the weather.

John Stevens, architect, said the pole will be anodized aluminum, "the best pole you can buy." He stated it would never need painting, and that it would be a "real asset" at its location.

In a letter to the council, C. Jay Deeds, past commodore, said, "For many years the Grosse Pointe Sail Club has been permitted to enjoy the facilities of the Windmill Point Park and the kind cooperation of the City Council has always been greatly appreciated by the club."

Mr. Deeds noted that the flag pole "would we feel be an attractive addition to the Park, with our national flag flying at all times. During the period of our Tuesday night races we would hoist our signals to the yardarm." It will cost the Sail Club $500 for the pole and the mechanics involved. The city would pay around $100 for the installation, i.e., to put it in a sleeve and lead it in, according to Mr. Slone.

Mayor Matthew C. Patterson commented, "I don't think there are enough flags flying around the area." With the new pole and American flag, that situation will be happily altered.

One View From The Capitol

By William R. Bryant, Jr.

Legislators have just received copies of some preliminary analysis of 1970 census data. There are some interesting facts concerning the Grosse Pointes. In general, the area's reputation as a stable, upper-middle class residential community is borne out.

The "typical" resident of the Grosse Pointes is 36.1 years old, white, married, living in a family-owned home valued at $38,839 and a family unit of 3.53 persons headed by a husband and wife.

Total population of the Grosse Pointes is 58,843, with women outnumbering men, 30,846 to 27,997. The women are older, too, their median age being 37.7 years to 33.9 for the men.

The family unit, which is said to be becoming passe' in today's society, shows no signs of weakening in the Grosse Pointes. Of 15,428 families, 13,885 are headed by a husband and wife. Less than five percent of persons 14 and older are currently divorced or separated.

The size of the average family in the Grosse Pointes is remarkably consistent. The highest is 3.71 persons in Grosse Pointe Park and the lowest is 3.40 in Grosse Pointe Farms.

Home ownership is a barometer of community stability. There are 18,580 housing units in the Grosse Pointes and 15,553 are occupied by their owners. Single family dwellings outnumber multiple family units by about the same margin.

Multiple Family Dwelling Plan Defeated in Woods

By Roger A. Waha
The Woods council by a 4-3 vote defeated the request of Coe and Asselin Company, 18120 Mack avenue, to construct a multiple family development on property situated at the northeast corner of Vernier road and Moross side drive. The action wrapped up the two and one-half hour public hearing which was on the agenda at the regular meeting Monday, March 20.

Nixing the development were Councilman George S. Freeman, Councilman Benjamin W. Pinkos, Councilman Conrad A. Naegel and Mayor Kenneth R. McLeod. Voting for the construction were Councilman Marvin R. Boutin, Councilman Kenneth W. Boerner and Councilman Rodger A. Graef.

Included in the consideration for the development were amendments to two sections of zoning ordinance number 88. One aspect was the rezoning of the property from R-1, (single dwelling units), to R-3, (multiple family residential development). Tied in with this was changing the zoning ordinance requirement from 150,000 square feet of land area to 85,000 square feet. These two issues were combined as one regarding the proposed ordinance when put to council vote.

A third factor also was involved: that the builder meet requirements that his particular project would be desirable for the city and would not injure the surrounding neighborhood. But with the "nays" edging the "yeas" on the rezoning vote, the development was immediately doomed.

Builder Webb H. Coe said that his proposed development wasn't "a cheap, crackerbox project. It's a good project." His plans which were worked on since April 1 of last year, include 18 townhouses with two bedrooms and baths, a two-car garage, living room, dining room and kitchen, among other extras. He said they would sell in a price range of around $50,000, mentioned the fact of retiree interest and that his units would enhance area properties.

A petition of around 60-70 signatures supporting the project was presented by Mr. Coe to City Attorney George Catlin. Mr. Coe said he interviewed residents in the immediate area, e.g., Vernier road, Anita avenue and Hidden lane, who gave their support to the development. He emphasized that his project, unlike single homes, wouldn't contribute to traffic congestion in the area.

But while Mr. Coe had a few supporters at the hearing, the majority of residents were against the project. J. P. McCarthy, 1160 Vernier, said he felt that the rezoning to R-3 would lead to a zoning change of vacant property east or west of this particular site.

But shortly the topic drifted away from the specifics at hand and a brief but loud exchange ensued between the resident and Mayor McLeod. It seemed that Mr. McCarthy was upset about city services, among other items, and took the opportunity to tell the council this.

At one moment, the discussion reached a boiling point and Mr. Boerner angrily made reference to a letter written by Mr. McCarthy to the council, (in which he mentioned his displeasure with his recent increase in assessment and city services), and urged that it be passed among the people. Certain aspects of the letter regarding semantics are not worthy of mention.

Rex T. Otley, 596 Hawthorne road, wanted to know the consensus of the Committee of the Whole regarding the pros and cons of the proposed rezoning and if it would be in the public interest. In the ensuing exchange between Mr. Otley, Mayor McLeod, Mr. Boutin and Mr. Boerner, the resident felt his question wasn't sufficiently answered and sat down.

But Mr. Pinkos then stressed the fact that at the Committee of the Whole meetings the council doesn't agree on every issue, and that there's nothing "predetermined" before a public hearing. That's why a public hearing is held, he said. He stated he wants to hear the people's views at the hearing, pro and con, regarding the proposed development. Mr. Pinkos added that the developer would still have the right to a public hearing even if the council was opposed to a particular project.

Other residents were then given the floor and stated their views. A cross-section of their opinions against the development includes:

Douglas B. Munro, 705 Anita, stressed the fine residential location and was concerned at the ultimate disappearance of the private residential area with the growth of multiple family units, condominiums, etc.

Robert A. Hammer, 577 Heather Lane, was concerned over the traffic problem and the possibility of further congestion with a multiple dwelling project, regarding the youngsters in his area.

Nathan B. Driggers, 682 Anita, said he bought his home because it was in a single family residential area and didn't want the congestion which he felt multiple dwelling units would bring. He also expressed concern over "spot zoning" which he defined as a small area taken out of a neighborhood and given a definite zoning classification.

Lawrence Black, 528 Vernier, stated that his work deals with the "quality of life," and said the land in question "is worth a lot vacant." He stressed that we

Shoots Driver On Lakeshore

One man was arrested Tuesday, March 21, by the Shores Department of Public Safety during a shooting incident on Lakeshore road.

Based on evidence from Shores police, a warrant for assault with intent to murder was issued by the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office against Edward Thomas Geha, 800 Canterbury road.

The incident occurred at 3:30 a.m. when Geha, driving a 1971 Cadillac El Dorado, and Steven Hoover Maynard, 1061 S. Renaud road, driving a 1966 Corvette were going south on Lakeshore. Both autos stopped for the signal light at Vernier road, with Maynard in the right lane and Geha in the left lane beside him.

At that time, Geha shot at Maynard, who suffered a neck wound. It's not known whether the wound was from the gunshot or from flying glass, said Chief Joseph Vitale. Shores patrolman Harry Hamilton, in a scout car stopped behind Maynard, immediately made the arrest.

Chief Vitale had high praise for his patrolman. He said, "I think officer Hamilton displayed a lot of courage in facing a man with a gun and telling him to drop it."

Geha was arraigned on March 21 and is out on $5,000 bond.

Tennis Clinic Request Heard

By Pepper Whitelaw
Tennis anyone? The way applications for participation in the Neighborhood Club's tennis clinic have been pouring in, it looks as though it's tennis everyone.

John Bruce, director of the Neighborhood Club, who was present at the Monday, March 20, meeting of the Grosse Pointe City Council, requested that the Council allow the club to conduct its annual tennis clinic this summer on four of the six tennis courts at Elworthy Field.

The club conducted the clinic at Elworthy Field through 1969. For the past two years the clinic has been held at both South and North High Schools.

The club proposes to hold the clinic from June 26

through July 28, Monday through Friday, from 8 a.m. until 12 p.m.

Mayor John L. King indicated to Mr. Bruce at Monday evening's meeting that he wanted to be sure that City residents had time on the courts since the courts were after all located in the City. He then asked if the club had asked any of the other Pointes for use of their courts.

Mr. Bruce said that both the Park and Woods were approached but because of the difficulties which arise from the need to have park permits to enter the areas where the courts are located, neither city would grant permission.

The council approved Mr. Bruce's request contingent on any future building which will occur at the field during the improvement of Elworthy Field.

through July 28, Monday through Friday, from 8 a.m. until 12 p.m.

The biggest waste in time is time wasted getting started.

WHEEL COVERS MISSING
Lawrence W. Hoefflein, of Harper Woods, contacted the Farms police on Monday, March 13, to report the theft of two simulated magnesium 14-inch wheel covers. The driver had parked his '70 Ford in the parking lot behind 18950 Mack, in the fourth lane from Moross, about 50 feet from the south wall. His vehicle was left unattended from noon until 5:45 p.m. Mr. Hoefflein values the wheel covers at $50.

Backs Program to Plant Trees

In an effort to help improve and protect the ecology of nearby national forests, Fred Meldrum of Viane Nursery, 17750 Rock, announced plans to team up with Greenfield, manufacturer of lawn and garden products and the U.S. Forest Service in their "Plant-A-Tree" program.

Mr. Meldrum said that he's expecting a lot of people to participate, since all they do is pick up a free tree-planting request form from any participating Greenfield dealer, fill it out and mail the form to Greenfield. (No purchase of any sort is required).

Greenfield then, in an arrangement with the U. S. Forest Service, will have a seedling tree planted for each request received. The seedling tree is paid for by Greenfield. The U. S. Forest Service selects and plants the tree in a nearby national forest and the participant receives a certificate signed by the Regional Forester and a Greenfield corporate officer, certifying that the tree-planting request has been granted.

When asked what happens to the tree, Mr. Meldrum said that it becomes a part of a national "working" forest dedicated to provide outdoor recreation, wildlife food and shelter, natural sound barriers, soil and water preservation, oxygen, and wood products for future generations.

Another aspect of this "Plant-A-Tree" program as pointed out by Mr. Meldrum is the person sending in the request form may request that the tree be planted in the name of someone he or she loves. And this person's name will be included on the certificate.

Poor Parking Proves Costly

The Farms police have been on the alert in the past few weeks for a black and tan '69 Pontiac with Illinois plates which had earned the distinction of having 10 overdue parking violations.

Farms patrolman Gerald Deburghgraeve was on routine patrol Thursday morning, March 16, when he spotted the vehicle parked, as could be expected, in a space with an expired meter in front of 80 Kercheval.

The Farms policeman was in the process of ordering the car towed when the owner of the vehicle Margaret M. Goorskey, 719 Fisher, returned. She admitted that it was her car and that she was guilty of the overdue parking violations. She showed the patrolman the stack of 10 parking tickets filed in the car's glove compartment.

Patrolman Deburghgraeve asked the woman to accompany him to the Farms police station. There she paid $55 for the 10 overdue tickets, plus the parking ticket issued that morning by Patrolman Deburghgraeve.

The Farms police also confiscated the vehicle's license plates since the plates were expired and the woman was now a Michigan resident.

What this country needs is more men who think it takes push instead of pull to get ahead.

38,000 DEFECTIVE DRIVERS AND THEIR PASSENGERS WILL BE CALLED BACK THIS YEAR.

We bellyache how unsafe our cars are. How they're like coffins on wheels. How in the past four years, more than 150,000 of us have been killed in them.

And yet, without adding one more ounce of padding to the dash, one more steel brace to the doors, one additional safety feature of any kind, 149,990 of us could have lived.

The power was in our hands. Not in somebody else's.

If we had used our hands to wrap a seat belt around our lap, and to draw a shoulder harness across our body, that would have done it. These drivers and their passengers might have lived.

Because the really staggering statistic is this: in a study of 28,000 fatal accidents, only two deaths occurred where the occupants were wearing seat belts and shoulder harnesses. Only two and both of these deaths occurred when vehicle was traveling over 60 m.p.h.

For sure, it's painful to place the blame for a fatal accident on someone we've loved and lost. It's much easier to assume the car was unsafe. Or somehow defective. But that's not what the statistics tell us. They say that 149,990 times out of 150,000, a driver and his passengers failed to fasten their seat belts and shoulder harnesses.

And that was the defect that killed them.

Park Retaining Towing Charge

The Park Council at the regular meeting Monday, March 13, voted 6-1 not to increase the $15 towing fee for abandoned vehicles which are hauled away at city expense. Handling costs are $10, while a parking fine for abandoned cars runs $5.

While the city receives $10 from auto owners, $7.50 is paid to towing companies for their services under city direction. And the towing isn't limited only to abandoned cars. It also covers autos wrecked in accidents and vehicles parked too long at a meter.

City Manager Robert A. Stone said abandoned cars are sold for $8. "If we can't get eight bucks then we do have a problem." And some of the problem has to do with storage space. The Park doesn't have that much extra space to keep abandoned autos. Police Chief Gerard Kesteloot said around 30-35 cars were impounded last year.

Councilman Charles S. Tompkins, who voted against the motion, said the person who leaves his car should be charged a "reasonable amount" for the trouble of towing it. "The police don't get enough for their services."

Haas Enthralls U-L Students

Karl Haas, internationally known host of the daily broadcasts "Adventures in Good Music," has become a byword at University-Liggett School since he held a series of lecture recitals there recently.

The students found there was no generation gap with Mr. Haas and that his high degree of education gave him a perspective on all aspects of life that fascinated them. The intermissions at the lecture recitals turned into informal seminars. There were so many questions raised that intermission just wasn't long enough to cover them. University-Liggett School's headmaster, Raymond P. Robbins and the students appealed to Mr. Haas to plan a return visit for a continuation of their discussions. Mr. Haas generously agreed, adding with a nod to Craig Leon, U-L 10th grade pianist: "Perhaps we'll be able to play together sometime." Craig was thrilled.

By the time Mr. Haas returned to the school, Wednesday, March 15, Craig had rehearsed his favorite piece for two pianos, Mozart's Sonata in D Major, so well, that even though the student seminar had taken up all of Mr. Haas' available time that day, he could not resist playing all three movements of the Sonata with Craig while students and faculty gathered around the two pianists, spellbound.

Photographic Goods Stolen

Over $500 in photographic equipment was stolen from a parked van at Grosse Pointe High School last week.

Officer Jack Treppa of the Woods Police Department received a report from a young woman Friday, March 17, who said she parked her van on Wednesday, March 15, at 8 a.m. in the parking lot. At 3:15 p.m. when she returned she noticed that the passenger side door was unlocked, (it had been previously locked).

She later discovered that a black leather camera case, valued at $5 was missing from the front seat. The case contained a Canon 75 camera, model number seven, with a .095 attached lens, valued at around $500. Two rolls of color film, around $5 in value, and two packages of flash bulbs, around $2.50 in value, were also in the case.

Officer Ralph Moore Convalescing

Officer Ralph Moore of the Park Police Department, who grabbed 11-year-old Sharron Feola from the path of an oncoming car Thursday, March 2, and was then struck by the auto, is "progressing very well," said Chief Gerard Kesteloot.

The officer, who mentioned last week that he had some pain around the neck and shoulder areas, according to the Chief, is recovering at home. At this time, Chief Kesteloot stated that he doesn't know when officer Moore will be back on the job.

Police Arrest 'Lost' Driver

Two Farms policemen were on routine patrol on Monday evening, March 13, when they noticed a '68 Camaro travelling in an erratic manner.

The vehicle first turned off Moran road into the driveway of the Grosse Pointe Academy, and then proceeded to drive down a dead end lane. The police stopped the dark green car, and, upon questioning, the driver appeared to be lost.

When asked for identification, the driver, Charles L. Timmerman, 18052 Pelkey, did not have a driving license on his person. He was not able to provide the officers with any identification.

After checking with the LEIN listings which record past arrests, the Farms police discovered that their suspect was wanted by East Detroit for a past traffic warrant. The Farms police also issued a violation for driving without a license. Timmerman was released on bonds totaling $45.

Judge Paterson Clears Docket

The City of Grosse Pointe Municipal Court convened on Tuesday, March 14, with Judge Douglas L. Paterson presiding. Six cases were heard.

Thomas Patterson, 107 Handy, was charged with driving on an expired operator's license. He pled guilty, was found guilty, fined $75 and costs. Patterson was also charged with traveling 40 mph in a 25 mph zone. He pled not guilty, was found guilty and fined $10.

Leo Klonia, 9321 Brockton, Detroit, was charged under the drunken motor law. He pled guilty to the reduced charge of driving while his ability was impaired. He was found guilty, fined $100, $50 in costs, and placed on six months probation.

Helen Czanstke, 17672 Springer, East Detroit, was charged as a disorderly person. She was unable to appear. Her case was dismissed.

Pandora Buterakos, 4827 Courville, Detroit, was charged under the stop law, resulting in an accident. Her case was dismissed since there was no complaining witness.

Robert Declerco, 1143 Buckingham, was charged with going through a red light. He pled not guilty, was found guilty, and his sentence suspended.

Michael Vogel was charged with speeding 50 mph in a 35 mph zone and driving on a revoked operator's license. He pled guilty to both charges and was found guilty on both. He was fined $50 or 10 days on the first charge, and $100, $25 costs and three days in jail on the second charge.

Charge Driver On Five Counts

Woods patrolman Douglas Dosmas was on routine patrol Wednesday night, March 1, when he noticed a car driving south on Mack avenue without its headlights turned on. The car proceeded to turn left without using its turn signal.

Officer Dosmas stopped the white '64 Oldsmobile at Mack and Littlestone road. Checking through the LEIN machine which records past arrests, he discovered that the driver, Tom T. Morris, 9314 Miller, Detroit, was wanted on three traffic warrants in Detroit and was driving with a suspended license.

The driver was taken to the Woods police station where he was charged with two traffic violations: driving without headlights at night and driving with a suspended license. Bond was set at $50 by Detroit and $100 by the Woods. His court date in the Woods municipal court is Wednesday, April 12.

Two Shoplifters Caught on Hill

The manager of the Salem Square market, Fred Wolski, has been successful in apprehending two young shoplifters in the last few weeks.

A 15-year-old Pointe youth tried to steal a carton of Kool cigarettes on Wednesday afternoon, March 15, from the food market located at 107 Kercheval avenue. Mr. Wolski noticed the youth as he placed the carton in a white paper bag at 3:55 p.m. and then left the store without attempting to pay for the merchandise.

The manager apprehended the youth outside the store and held him until the arrival of the Farms police.

The previous shoplifting incident occurred on Wednesday, March 1, at 2:55 p.m. when two Pointe youths entered the store, took a carton of Newport cigarettes from the shelf, and left without paying.

Mr. Wolski pursued the young shoplifters, and when one of the 15-year-old youths realized they were being followed, he threw the cigarettes onto the roof of the supermarket.

The manager was able to catch one of the shoplifters 20 feet from the market's entrance. The suspect was turned over to the Farms police.

Pointers Again Head Festival

Robert M. Surdam, of Provençal road, chairman of the board of the National Bank of Detroit, has been re-elected president of the International Freedom Festival, Inc., at the organization's annual meeting.

This year's Festival marks the 14th anniversary of the event, held annually during the last week in June and the first week of July. Organized in 1958 to jointly celebrate Canada's Dominion Day (July 1), and America's Independence Day, (July 4), the Freedom Festival draws participants from both sides of the border, focusing world attention on the peaceful co-existence and friendship between the United States and Canada. The Festival's official dates this year are June 30 through July 4.

Appointed general chairman by Mayor Roman Gribbs to organize and direct the 1972 Festival is Peter W. Stroh, of Cloverly road, president of the Stroh Brewery Company, Detroit. Serving with Mr. Stroh as co-chairmen are Dr. Dewey F. Barich, president of the Detroit Institute of Technology and Detroit Common Councilman Ernest Browne.

Announcing the appointment of Mr. Stroh, Mayor Gribbs said he is "extremely pleased and honored these outstanding men will serve as a leadership team for this year's Freedom Festival. I know that, under their direction, the success of our program is assured and the Festival will continue to be an exciting and enjoyable event for the citizens of Detroit and Windsor."

In other action, the Freedom Festival's board of directors re-elected Secretary of State Richard H. Austin, vice-president, McCord Corporation president E. Paul Casey, of Rathbone place, vice-president, National Bank of Detroit senior vice-president William G. McClintock, treasurer, and John H. Bock of Michigan Consolidated Gas Company, secretary.

Surdam has served in executive positions with the United Foundation, the Greater Detroit Chamber of Commerce, the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, Harper Hospital and many other community organizations. In addition to his duties at the National Bank of Detroit, Surdam is a director of the International Bank of Detroit and serves on the board of directors of Parke, Davis & Company.

Stroh is a member of the board of directors of the National Bank of Detroit, Michigan Mutual Liability Company and Greater Detroit Chamber of Commerce. He is also a trustee of Children's Hospital, Detroit Medical Center Development Corporation and the Founders Society, Detroit Institute of Arts.

In outlining plans for the coming year to the Festival directors, Stroh said: "An array of parades, fireworks displays, concerts, art exhibits, athletic events, street fairs and other activities slated to be held this year in our two international neighboring communities should make the 1972 Freedom Festival the finest in the 14-year history of the organization. I hope that all of our citizens will come down to our respective civic centers to enjoy the activities and the atmosphere of international fellowship during Festival Week."

Public Schools in Focus

By Dr. Theos I. Anderson, Superintendent of Schools

As I have indicated recently, the principle of using the property tax as the basis for funding public education is under attack not only in Michigan, (via the lawsuit instituted by Governor Milliken and Attorney General Kelly), but also across the country.

We learned last week that four couples who are parents of children in the Bettendorf, Iowa, school district and members of the Iowa Property Taxpayers Association are seeking to change that state's method of financing public education. They have asked the United States District Court to throw out the current system of financing public education.

The lawsuit contends that reliance on property taxes to operate schools in Iowa results in an inferior education for children in school districts with relatively low property values.

The action asks the United States District Court to rule that the present method of finance is "void and without force or effect." It seeks to give the Legislature and other state officials time to restructure finance so that all children receive the same quality of education.

With similar suits being instituted daily throughout the nation, it is not a surprise to learn that the United States Commissioner of Education, Dr. Sidney P. Marland, has said that the Nixon Administration should consider plans to equalize spending by the states for the nation's public schools.

President Nixon has indicated that he favors plans to eliminate disparities in expenditures within the states. There has also been some discussion and publicity about eliminating disparities among the states. The current widely-circulated classic example of disparity is New York's $1500 per pupil expenditure compared to Alabama's $500.

Dr. Marland, who has said that he feels certain the issue of interstate disparities will have to be settled, also said that he favors a plan to increase the federal share of public school costs from the present 8 percent to between 30 and 40 percent.

Recently Congressman Bill Ford, along with 50 other sponsors, proposed legislation that would raise federal funding of public education to 20 percent (on the state average of student costs).

Letters to the Editor

Dear Mr. Editor: I was spending the day at the home of the kind lady, (called a breeder), who helped me into this world. I was there for my regular pre-show grooming. When we finished she was tired and I was beautiful.

She sat on the couch and picked up The Grosse Pointe News which had arrived in the morning mail. After she digested it all she dropped it on the floor and curled up on the couch.

Ah-ha, she's asleep! My chance to get up there next to her for a quick 40 winks. As I jumped forward my feet hit the newspaper on the floor. I looked down and a title caught my eye. "Many Pointe Dogs Strut Stuff in Gigantic Show."

I read the article excitedly, searching out my name. However, to my amazement I didn't see it. Perhaps in my excitement I overlooked it. I read it again. No! It wasn't there! My ego was deflated.

Here I am, a beautiful Bedlington bitch with 14 points, lacking only two points for a championship and I was overlooked in the newspaper. My parents both champions were born and raised in Grosse Pointe and me, too. I knew my owners Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chapman, of Fisher road, would be disappointed.

My spirits sank to a new low. What would I say to "pappa," (Mr. Chapman), who recently was a "Pointer of Interest" himself? In my horror, I grabbed the paper and threw it around the room, ripping and tearing at it. The noise woke my friend. She scolded me, so in my defense I told her how I felt. She's writing this for me now as I have not been endowed with that quality. I hope you will please not overlook me again.

Grey's Lady Abigail, Bedlington Terrier (Breeder—Donna M. Marrs)

P. S. This bitch not only was shown at Cobo Hall but she won the points. At Saginaw and Flint this past weekend, "Abby" took the point in Bedlingtons both days!

Dear Sir: A most disturbing story appeared in The Grosse Pointe News of March 16. A South High student was reported to be taking photographs near the high school.

"Since the student did not have permission to photograph Farms policemen, officer Miglio confiscated the film."

This is the sort of incident which is regularly reported from countries behind the Iron Curtain and is, I believe,

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

GUEST COLUMNIST: Louise Leeson

Marco Polo was the first traveler to describe accurately the life of the Chinese people. When accused of exaggeration he said "I have not told half of what I saw." All later travelers to China have tried to describe that other half, including our latest trippers from the United States. Through the news media we have learned what we can expect to know at present about the latest singular trip to Peking. Time may give us a synthesis of this venture.

The holdings on China in the Grosse Pointe Public Library are considerable. While we wait for the threatened flood of stuffed Pandas, Mao buttons, blue cotton suits, fake Chiniserie, and so on, we may browse through the subject headings on China, which include reading on many facets of Chinese history, social, cultural or political.

Ah, yes! We do have the little red book: QUOTATIONS FROM CHAIRMAN MAO TSE-TUNG. Certainly the age, history and immensity of the Orient seem to bring out the quotes in one who is not a Chinese scholar, but will try to describe just a few titles, thickly peppered with quotation marks.

One of the newer books in our collection is A NEW LOOK AT RED CHINA, which is a quantity of material processed and put in manuscript by the Book Division of U. S. News & World Report. In this book are discussed the elements which brought about this change on both sides of the Pacific. Included is the text of a broadcast by Communist China on July 17, 1971, two days after the announcement of the invitation to President Nixon to visit Peking.

One hopeful quote says "... while Peking faithfully recites the catechisms of communism and dutifully attacks American 'imperialism,' it does not allow these verbal exercises to interfere with the practical business of coming to some arrangement with the United States." The appendices include Highlights of China Debate in U. S. Senate Hearings, and major events in China's history.

UNDERSTANDING CHINA, by John H. M. Lindbeck is a report to the Ford Foundation, being a survey and analysis of Chinese studies. An appendix lists some institutions in which Chinese is taught.

The first woman reporter on an American newspaper ever to go behind the Bamboo Curtain was Lisa Hobbs. Her book I SAW RED CHINA was published in 1966. Miss Hobbs, because of her Australian birth and passport, was able to enter China with an Australian group tour. Her motto seemed to be "One must search for what is a human characteristic and what is a characteristic of the system."

CHINA'S CULTURAL LEGACY AND COMMUNISM, edited by Ralph C. Crozier, and published in 1970 is a comprehensive work on many aspects of Chinese life, from various sources.

The reportage on President Nixon's trip reminds us of the immutability of some human behavior. Owen and Eleanor Lattimore wrote SILKS, SPICES, AND EMPIRE. We read "... the oldest surviving Chinese writing on 'the oracle bones' of about 1300 B.C. lists names of tribes whom the Chinese evidently considered 'not Chinese' ... in the names of the people they disliked or despised the Chinese often included the sign for 'dog' or 'insect'." On the opening of the Silk Road merchants traded from one country to the next, and so on to Rome. "Presents of Chinese luxuries were the most valuable gifts in negotiating alliances." This book deals with problems in balancing past and present, history and archaeology, language and literature, the performing arts, and other aspects.

CHINA: THE ROOTS OF MADNESS was conceived as a television documentary and presented to the American public in January, 1967, and was written and narrated by Theodore H. White. The world has changed mightily since that date. Political attitudes, and emphasis on the roles of China and the United States in the world, are changing. The book, however, has much of interest, including a capsule history of China, interesting photographs, and a good bibliography.

One hopes that Hans Koningsberger's prediction in LOVE AND HATE IN CHINA will prove false: "Peking is soon going to be a big city like any other ... its strangeness should be enjoyed while they last, because one day it will be as sophisticated, incoherent, slick and hard as New York."

INTERESTING FACTS

Strangely enough, the U.S. flag is actually older than the flag of either Great Britain or France — even though Great Britain and France are much older countries than the U.S.

The U.S. flag was adopted in 1777, but the present French flag dates only from 1789, the year of the French Revolution.

The current flag of Great Britain was not adopted until 1801 when Ireland's cross of St. Patrick was added to England's cross of St. George and Scotland's cross of St. Andrew to form its present design.

And, here's another interesting fact ... times change and now more and more people are using carpeting for every room of the home. For instance: kitchen carpeting adds to the charm of any kitchen decor. Why not consider it ... we'd like to help you make your selection.

The Grosse Pointe Branch of the American Association of University Women (AAUW) held its annual meeting last Thursday, March 16, at the Detroit Yacht Club . . . and a very special meeting it was!

Three very special ladies and the hardworking crew of the 1971 Used Book Sale were honored by having $3,500 in grants named in their honor.

An American Fellowship Grant in the amount of $2,000 honored the Used Book Sale workers. Mrs. Arthur T. Bersey, fellowship chairman, in announcing this grant, said, "Without the devotion, hard work and astute business management of these workers, under the chairmanship of Mrs. John Moran, none of the awards would have been possible." (Money for these fellowships comes from profits realized by the Used Book Sale and one dollar from each of the 350 members' dues).

A grant honoring Mrs. Edgar B. Cooper (Buena Haye Cooper) was announced in the amount of $500. It was an American gift. Mrs. Cooper joined the Grosse Pointe Branch of AAUW in 1952. She earned her AB degree in history and English from Vassar. After graduation she taught school in Puerto Rico. Among her many activities in the branch she was honored for her work with the legislative committee, international relations committee, book group, telephone committee, social arrangements group, book sales committee and choral group.

GPDT Debuts Palm Sunday

The Grosse Pointe Dance Theatre will make its debut Palm Sunday, March 26.

The troupe will be performing the Easter Story to the music of Bartok and Ligeti, the fearful night in the Garden of Gethsemane, the agonizing scene at Calvary and the celebration of the Resurrection.

Father David Evans of Grace Church in Mount Clemens will host the group at the 9 a.m. and 11 a.m. services. That evening, at 5 o'clock, St. Columbans' Church in Birmingham will host the troupe.

The young dancers performing include Elizabeth Buffa, Valerie Bulgarelli, Elizabeth Ehrling, Kathy Fortener, Margaret France, John Genette, Sr. Lucille Hamacek, Maureen Hogan and Neal Hopkins, Sr. More are Joy Kowalski, Patti Kurkowski, Sue and Ken Marko, Donna Marshall, Mary Anne Miller, Denise Renaud, June Siltman, and Linda Fentner. All are residents of the Pointe, St. Clair Shores, East Detroit, and Warren.

The performing group was formed in January of 1972 to give qualified dancers an opportunity to exhibit their art and to supply to the east-side community the expansion of cultural experiences.

Director of the Grosse Pointe Dance Theatre, Denise Szykula said, "The dedication of these young dancers is evident in their sacrifices of social life. Attending classes twice a week for a young person can certainly put a damper on other activities."

Miss Szykula and Mrs. David (Jennifer) Pethick, assistant director, both choreograph and teach for the performing members. Miss Szykula and Mrs. Pethick are members of the Festival Dancers company of the Jewish Community Center where Miss Szykula is also assistant dance coordinator.

NHS Musicians Doing Requiem

The Concert Choir and the Symphony Orchestra of Grosse Pointe North High School will perform the famous and beautiful, but most difficult, Brahms' German Requiem. The Concert Choir under the direction of Herman A. Clein and the Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Nathan C. Judson will present this work in the original German language on Thursday evening, March 23, at 8 o'clock, in the Performing Arts Auditorium of North High School. Admission is free.

The Requiem is scored for choir, orchestra, soprano and baritone solos. The Soloists are soprano, Robin Mazer, of Manchester avenue; baritone, Robert Ambrose, of Roslyn road, and baritone, Michael Fazio, of Lakeshore road. These students are all seniors at North High School.

The Brahms' Requiem, which is not often heard, let alone by a High School choir and orchestra, is not the traditional Mass for the dead, but is an unliturgical Mass to give hope and confidence to the living. The public is invited and most welcome to attend this performance.

with the schools and Grosse Pointe Congregational Church, where she was a Sunday school teacher and chairman of the deaconess board. She's also served on the boards of the League of Women Voters, the Detroit AAUW, the Detroit YWCA and the Girls' Protective League. She served as president of GPL and is presently a member of its board.

The Ruth Emily Crone Suits $500 American gift honored Mrs. Edward F. Suits who joined the Grosse Pointe Branch of AAUW in 1953. She received her BA degree from Southwest Missouri State College and did graduate work in art at Washington University, Columbia University and Has Hoffman School of Painting in Cape Cod.

She's taught art in Wyoming, Missouri and Detroit, (The White Orthopedic School). Mrs. Suits has served as arts chairman, which includes creative writing, music play writing, music, studio arts and decorations. When the branch took on the Education Foundation money raising project, it was Mrs. Suits who took on the chairmanship. She also directed the puppetry workshop and has presented her original script, "Golden Bird" before various groups. She's currently branch historian.

Her creative and artistic talents are in great demand in the community. She's a member of the Committee of 100 for The Detroit Symphony, The Symphony Women's Association, Theatre Arts, Questers and Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

An International Gift for $500 was named after Emily Knox Beardslee (Mrs. A. A. Beardslee), who joined the Grosse Pointe Branch of AAUW in 1961. She was formerly a member of the Detroit Branch. She taught school for 36 years, 17 of them in Lake Shore schools in St. Clair Shores. Mrs. Beardslee has served as chairman of the book group, branch treasurer and by-laws chairman.

She's attended four national AAUW conventions . . . many regional workshops and state meetings. She is president of Psi Chapter of Alpha Delta Kappa, an honorary teachers' fraternity. She's been active in school affairs in her church, Grosse Pointe Memorial.

AAUW's Fellowship Program is the oldest non-university program in the United States . . . the second oldest International Program and the largest exclusively for women. It's a one-of-a-kind program to advance education and the status of women . . . AND has been in existence long before Women's Lib.

The first award was presented to a Vassar graduate in 1888, who received $350 to study English at the University of Michigan. Even though qualifications are high, educational value of the project and financial need are chief considerations for making an award.

Out of over 1,000 applications, some 120 fellows are honored . . . International Grants ranged between $2,500 and $5,000 each . . . then branches can contribute $500 to honor local members with a named gift as the Grosse Pointe Chapter did last week. Congratulations to those honored . . . we're all mighty proud of you!

Pointe Braille Club Names Officers

The Grosse Pointe Braille Club held its March meeting in the Hampton road home of Mrs. Kenneth Coleman.

The nominating committee composed of Mrs. W. A. Huegli of LaVon road, chairman; Mrs. Elmo Joseph, Neff road; and Miss Helen Domzalski, Landsdowne avenue, presented the new slate of officers for the coming year.

They include Mrs. W. A. McClellan, president; Mrs. Fred Olmsted, vice-president; Miss Helen Domzalski, secretary, and Mrs. Walter Wesley, treasurer. The slate was unanimously approved.

The incoming president has appointed the following ladies to chair the club's committees: Mrs. Huegli, bindery; Mrs. Sidney Partington, membership and Mrs. John Huetteman, Jr., publicity.

The program report to the Library of Congress covers the past five years braille work donated by the members of the Club. It consists of 144 titles of literary works, 23 titles of textbooks, four titles of mathematics, among others. A total of 165 separate titles in 363 volumes of 22,530 pages of braille.

The Club's membership now includes a male, the husband of one of last year's students who, with his wife, successfully completed the braille course. She passed along the lessons she had learned earlier in the day to him when they arrived home in the evening. He, as well as all the students in last year's class, have been certified by the Library of Congress.

Their success has inspired another couple to take the braille course. The course for this year is nearing completion, however, the club offers a new course each October in the Fisher road Branch of the Public Library under the tutelage of Mrs. Lawson Potter. Interested applicants for next year's class may apply for admission by calling 886-3226.

A reception and luncheon at Lochmoor Club followed the 1 o'clock double ring ceremony for which the bride chose a gown of off-white moire accented with handmade silk flowers at her short sleeves and hem.

Matching flowers edged her Chapel train and her Cathedral length silk illusion veil fell from a silk flower wreath.

She was attended by her sister, Beth Zens, as maid of honor and bridesmaids Patsie Turner, Mary Lou Terrian, of East Lansing, and Cindy Kessler, the bridegroom's sister.

Their frocks were fashioned of yellow chiffon with moss green accents. They wore baby's-breath in their hair and carried small Austrian bouquets.

Best man was Steven Ahern, of Cuyahoga Falls. Ushers were Tim Bunch, also of Cuyahoga Falls, William Howell, Jr., of Kent, O., David Balog, of Plymouth, and Harvey E. Zens, III, of Aspen, Colo., the bride's brother.

The James R. Profetas

CHRISTINE ELIZABETH STEYER, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur F. Steyer, of Shoreham road, and Mr. Profeta, son of Mrs. James Profeta, of St. Clair Shores, and the late Mr. Profeta, were married Friday evening, February 11, in St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

Miss Steyer Says Vows in St. Paul's

Christine Elizabeth Steyer and James Ronald Profeta exchanged wedding vows on Friday, February 11, in St. Paul's Lutheran Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur F. Steyer, of Shoreham road. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. James Profeta, of St. Clair Shores, and the late Mr. Profeta.

The Reverend Charles M. Sandrock and The Reverend Father Joseph Paul Ingrao presided over the 6:30 o'clock rites. Father Ingrao, cousin of the bridegroom, flew in from Pewaukee, Wis., to assist in the ceremony. A reception and dinner at Ingrao's Hall, in East Detroit, followed the rites.

The bride designed and made her gown of silk worsted, trimmed with satin and lace and accented with pearl and rhinestone flowers. The lace at the hem of her gown was taken from the wedding gown of her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Ferdinand Martin. Her illusion mantilla veil, trimmed in lace, fell from a satin bow. She wore a gold cross worn by her mother-in-law on her wedding day. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and red roses, draped with pearls worn by her aunt, Mrs. Robert E. Fox, on her wedding day.

Her honor maid, Pamela Jean Conner, of Scottsdale, Ariz., and bridesmaids, Dorothy Dratschmidt, Sharon Profeta, sister of the bridegroom and Lorraine Berce, wore matching full-length red velvet skirts, white lace blouses and red satin cummerbunds. Miss Conner carried a bouquet of white mums accented with red carnations and red and white lace. The bridesmaids carried red mums accented with white carnations and white lace.

John Profeta, twin brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. Serving in the usher corps were Benjamin Ancona, cousin of the bridegroom, Wayne Steyer, brother of the bride, and Donald Thurman.

The mother of the bride selected a floor length pink faulle gown with tapered sleeves for her daughter's wedding. The bridegroom's mother selected a floor length gown of beaded pink peau de sole. Both carried complimentary orchids. The bride's 86-year-old, paternal grandmother, Mrs. Fred Steyer, wore a floor length gown of blue silk.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Fox, II, of Columbus, O., cousins of the bride; Mrs. Harry Wheeler, of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., aunt of the bridegroom; and the Everett Adams family, of Welland, Ontario, cousins of the groom. Special guests were members of the bride's fifth grade class from Fairlane Elementary School in St. Clair Shores.

The newlyweds are making their home in Sterling Heights, following a skiing vacation to Belair, Mich.

Inside The Mothers' Club

The actions resulting from a letter sent to the Board of Education by the Executive Board of the Mothers Club were reported on by Mothers Club President Mrs. Charles Beltz at the March 6 meeting.

The letter concerned the safety and fire hazards of the temporary breezeway at Grosse Pointe South High, and led to an inspection of the passageway in question by the Building Committee of the Board of Education. Action was then taken to fill in the open space under the structure with sand, to remove exit signs from locked doors, to indicate existing exits with red lettering and arrows, to open a walkway from the breezeway to the gymnasium entrance via the teacher's parking lot and assign hall monitors to the passageway to eliminate student smoking.

The problem of a minimal number of exits still exist, since doors leading to the construction area must be kept locked to prevent accidents. However, assurance has been given that the adjacent area now designated for 18-year-old smokers will be eliminated or move by the time Easter vacation is over. The principals of both Grosse Pointe North and South High are in favor of an open campus for 18-year-olds. This would make a smoking "compound" unnecessary.

Mrs. Donald Briggs, vice-president, reported that 59 applications for Mothers Club scholarships have been picked up. She has purchased thirty Thesauri, which will be presented to the top five percent, scholastically, of the graduating classes.

Pre-enrollment Plans

Mrs. Benson McClure, faculty representative, explained that although the financial situation is still not clear, there are further developments in pre-enrollment plans. All students except seniors will be meeting in designated homerooms for two 45-minute periods. During the first session, a curriculum guide will be given to each student to take home. At the second meeting, they will receive a list of available subjects, and will circle the course they wish to take. Possibly their preference as to teachers, hours of the day and subjects will be given consideration as well at the final enrollment which will take place in May.

Many methods of saving money have been considered by the school system, and one possibility is limiting the students to five academic subjects.

Mrs. McClure reported that students and faculty collected an amazing amount of canned goods, clothes, baby food and $115 in cash the previous week for West Virginia flood victims.

The report of membership chairman, Mrs. Donald McCubrey brought good news. Five new members and a few extra donations have put the Mothers Club budget

"over the top" for the year.

Pointe Players Production Play ticket chairman Mrs. Richard Speer announced that telephone calls were made to sell tickets for "A Man Called Peter," presented by the Pointe Players last week at the Performing Arts Center. Those purchased from Mothers Clubs for their special evening will benefit both the scholarship and extra-curricular funds.

Mrs. Hugh Harness, social co-chairman, upon the request of the board continued the tradition of holding a pizza party for the cast of The Pointe Players after the Thursday evening performance.

According to chairman Mrs. J. Alfred Grow, plans for the Spring Benefit on Wednesday, April 26, at Grosse Pointe North, are coming along well. Style show models are making appointments for fittings.

Curriculum Committee Meeting

Mrs. James Connolly, a member of the curriculum advisory committee, reported on the February 19 meeting, which was presided over by Jerry Gerich and Miss Frances French. The topics discussed included broadening of college-oriented curriculum to include expansion of pre-vocational courses, insuring that course content is related to the objectives of the teacher and student, selection of teachers by students when registering in the spring for the fall semester and limiting the number of program changes in the fall to only the most unusual circumstances. Implications of an open campus based on "variability scheduling," commitment of members to study the curriculum guide and suggest possible modifications and/or additions at the next meeting and focusing the attention of the parents' group toward activities were also discussed.

Post Graduation Party

Mrs. Thomas Maurer, twelfth grade chairman, announced that the committee for the post-graduation party is hard at work. Both Fries and Alger House have been rented for the evening. In order to cut costs, the Mothers Club will cater the food, and money donations will be solicited from parents of seniors. Letters to parents will explain the reason for the party and ask their cooperation in not having competing private parties. Invitations, which are being designed by a senior girl, will also be mailed. The ticket price this year has been lowered to $1.50, in order to attract as many seniors as possible. Mrs. Brian Breidan, entertainment chairman, is working with mothers and seniors, while Mrs. Frank Bromley concentrated on decorations.

Nominations Approved

As chairman of the nominating committee, Mrs. George Crockatt presented the following slate to fill offices being vacated for 1972-73: president-elect, Mrs. Richard Speer; treasurer, Mrs. James Williams; recording-secretary, Mrs. Bruce Carey. The slate was unanimously approved. Motion Picture and TV Council representative, Mrs. David Coolidge presented a statement for the board's consideration presenting the council's position in attempting to have an X-rated film, "Clockwork Orange," banned from being shown at the Woods Theater. A discussion followed, in which it was pointed out that the movie industry is now rating its

Suburban Living in the Golden Triangle

HOWELL TOWN & COUNTRY, INC. OFFER INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Howell Town and Country, Inc. has contributed more to the phenomenal growth throughout the "Golden Triangle" than any other real estate firm.

The Golden Triangle, is a mythical triangle, an advertising slogan encompassing the formation of a triangle from Lansing to Ann Arbor to Flint and back to Lansing. This area has experienced the greatest growth rate of any county in the state as of the last federal census, and is continuing to grow. In 1971 Howell Town & Country, Inc. closed over thirteen million dollars in real estate sales. January 1972 has been the most successful January in the history of the company almost equalling any January and February combined of any previous year.

Much of the success of this corporation can directly be attributed to the fact that they are involved in total housing, this includes custom homes, mobile homes, modular homes, and apartment complexes. This was not accidental it was the result of three young visionaries, Roscoe Eager, Ralph Naus and Bob Fritch, who back in 1959 combined their ideas, talents, and resources to form a combination real estate and insurance company. Now Howell Town & Country, Inc. Services not only Livingston County but contiguous areas such as Fenton, Highland, Brighton, South Lyons, Pinckney, and Williamston with ten sales offices and eighty highly trained sales personnel, with memberships in state, county, and national boards of realtors. They maintain 700 to 1,000 listings at all times of every housing category.

In their spiralling growth, they now have set up and organized fourteen separate corporations, all compatible to the parent organization. There are also three separate building companies, one specializing in custom home building, one in United States Steel homes and the third in modular home specialization. They also have their own mobile home sales and service, theirs was the first mobile home subdivision in this area, which has been highly successful. There is another mobile home subdivision under construction more elaborate than the first, with underground utilities, sewers, large recreation areas which will eventually house 500 families, one hundred families have moved in within the last two years.

The opportunities for continuing growth appear to be even greater.

At present they have commitments for two subdivisions, one with Lake Front, and Lake Privilege Lots, approximately sixty of these to be developed in 1972. The other parcel includes fifty to sixty lots that are residential airfield sites. These are high and scenic sites where 50% of them will have runway frontage, so residents can house their own planes in their own garages and taxi right out onto the air strip, these are to be developed in 1972. Development costs are exorbitant, street costs, surveying, the platting costs as well as the legal costs take large sums of money. The investment companies are restricted as to the number of stock sales that are made each year. It is a company policy to offer at the end of each fiscal year to the existing stock holders, additional stock, experience has shown they have used up half of what the available stock sales were so there are openings for additional investors. There are two other holding companies that were originally set up for third party financing which can now operate similar to the Golden Triangle Investment Company which creates more openings for investors. Howell Town & Country, Inc. has offices located throughout the Golden Triangle.

Youths Facing Serious Charge

Four youths out on bond, including one from the Woods, are scheduled for a preliminary examination Thursday, March 23, in the 72nd district court, St. Clair County, according to Woods detective Theodore Hinz. The youths were allegedly involved in the stripping of a 1969 Corvette.

The Woods youth is Brian Michael Barney, 18, 1571 Yorktown road, who was arrested by police Sunday, March 12. On that day, the State Police notified Woods police that they had located a stripped Corvette and had traced the vehicle back to a rented garage where they had made an arrest. At that time, a Detroit youth was arrested.

Woods police were requested to arrest the youth living in their city and recover what stolen property was evident.

Detroit police also were notified of the subjects living in their area.

Officer Jack Treppa was instructed to arrest the youth. Barney was working on his van in his front drive upon officer Treppa's arrival. A wide sports type tire and wheel were observed on the front seat of the van.

Upon opening the van's rear door, two roof panels of the Corvette were discovered. After being taken to the station upon his arrest for possession of stolen property, Barney said there were another tire and wheel in his basement of his home.

Woods police confiscated numerous items including one tire, four hubcaps, four chrome hubcap rims, a speedometer, part of a black vinyl dashboard, the roof panels, a steering wheel and a battery.

Doubly Decorated for Service in Vietnam

CAPTAIN NORMAN R. STOCKER, 26, of Somerset road, Air Liaison Officer with the First Air and Naval Gunfire Liaison Company was recently presented with the Distinguished Flying Cross for his action in the Republic of Vietnam June 1, 1970. COLONEL EDMUND G. DERNING,

Commanding Officer of the Recruit Training Regiment, made the presentation. In addition, Captain Stocker was awarded the Navy Commendation Medal with Combat V for meritorious service in the Republic of Vietnam.

On the evening of June 1, 1970, Captain Stocker, (then a first lieutenant), was launched as a copilot aboard a CH-46 transport helicopter which was assigned the medical evacuation of several Marine casualties who had been wounded by enemy mines.

"Arriving over the designated location, he observed that when the tall elephant grass was parted by the downdraft from the rotor blades, the entire field was literally seeded with enemy mines. Unwilling to risk additional casualties by allowing any member of the crew to walk about the area, the pilot conceived an imaginative plan," the citation reads.

One of his men was lowered on a mechanical hoist to the site of each casualty and each wounded man was picked up. When darkness fell over the area, it was necessary to use exterior lights to aid the crew and the pilot in the pickup of the casualties. "By doing, he thus became a vulnerable target for automatic weapons and rocket-propelled grenade fire which enemy soldiers delivered at his aircraft from several positions," the citation notes.

Currently serving aboard the depot as Air Liaison officer with the 1st Anglico, Captain Stocker entered the Marine Corps in June 1967 upon graduation from Columbia College, Columbia University, New York City. At Columbia, he participated in the Naval Reserve Officer Training Program and later attended the Basic School at Quantico, Va.

As a former newspaper carrier for the Detroit News, Captain Stocker won two $500 college scholarships as a participant in two consecutive sponsored scholarship contests. He was also a member of the National Rifle Association for eight years.

Captain Stocker is the son of Mrs. Verna M. Stocker of 1302 Somerset road, and a graduate of St. Anthony High School in Detroit.

Pointe Hockey Bruins Take Tourney

The Grosse Pointe Bruins were victorious in the Chicago Minor Hawks Invitational Tournament at Lake Forest College, Lake Forest, Ill., the weekend of March 11-12.

Six teams participated in the tourney including Strathroy, Ont., Jay Cees; Hamilton, Ont., Saints; Chicago Minor Hawks; Northbrook, Ill., Blues; Wilmette, Ill., All Stars; and the winning Bruins.

The Bruins captured the first game Saturday morning, March 11, defeating the Strathroy Jay Cees, 10-0. Joe Sehee scored the first goal, assisted by Matt Rossetti and goalie Rob Fredal. Neighborhood Club News

After over 300 games, thousands of baskets and hundreds of fouls the Neighborhood Club basketball league bounced to a conclusion on Super-Saturday.

The championship and all star games for the fourth grade Collegiate League, the fifth and sixth grade Pro League, and the seventh, eighth, and ninth grade Giant League were played before more than 1,000 spectators at Brownell Middle School.

The excitement of these games was best demonstrated in the Collegiate League championship. L.S.U. and Purdue were tied 10-10 at the end of regulation time. In the overtime period George Posada of L.S.U. and Jim Keith of Purdue scored their only points of the game to keep the score tied. Then with 11 seconds left little Gary Kinder converted a free throw to wrap it up for the North Division Purdue team. Ed Fish of L.S.U. was high scorer for the game with nine points.

The Collegiate League All-Star contest featured 11 points by Gary Kinder to lead the North to an 18-8 victory over the South. Jim Gorzalski also had five for the North and Tim McCormick led the South with three points.

The high scoring Warriors won the Pro League championship by defeating the previously undefeated Pistons 25-22. The balanced scoring of the Warriors' Jim Parson, Rudy Vanden Brouck, John Hartman and Mike Ladd provided the Warriors' scoring punch. The Pistons were led by Bob Zaranek's 12 and Steve Arthur's eight points.

The Pro League All-Star contest was won by the North 29-10 over the South. Brian Barry was the star of stars with his seven-point total. He was backed up by Pat Kally's six and Griff Park's six. The South was led by John Hartman's five points.

The Giant League championship was captured by Boston, 36-30 over Portland. The balanced attack of the Celtic scoring machine out-gunned Barry Quinn's 16 for Portland. For the Celtics Mark Wickard, Jeff Cardwell, Bill Ventimiglia, R. J. Paradee, Jule Dionne, Kurt Tech and Nich Manzella all scored. In the All-Star game the North downed South 33-28 as Keith Nicholoff's 12 and John Grennan's 10 led the Victors. South's Bryan Cammett led all scorers with 14 points.

Scot Smith, GP South, won the Ricky Russo Memorial Trophy.

ALONG WITH THE SEASON, Edgar & Associates "Springs" on the market as a first offering that bright yellow house on Rivard near Jefferson. Inside are two bedrooms, one with a sitting room, a large remodeled bathroom, kitchen with built-ins and that all important first floor den. French doors to the gigantic screened and covered porch give the owner an extra room six months of the year.

OPEN SUNDAY AFTERNOON 2:30 UNTIL 5

A GREAT STARTER HOUSE is three bedroom bungalow with two bedrooms on the first floor and a knotty pine bedroom upstairs. Listed at $33,900, where new financing will probably put your monthly payments lower than your present rent. Take a swing by 1249 Brys Sunday.

PAMPERED OVER by its particular owner, and looks every inch a prima donna. This French house with its Mansard roof boasts four bedrooms and three full baths on the second floor. A library and family room handsomely complement the formal living and dining rooms. Air conditioned and in mint condition, so come by for an audition at 325 Lakeland Avenue, near Jefferson.

375 WASHINGTON ROAD looks so good from the curb you just know it is also a knockout inside. The large vestibule enters into a long and wide center hall with flanking dining and living rooms on either side. A paneled library with pegged floors enter from the living room and the spacious terrace is gained from both the living room and center hall. Upstairs are four bedrooms, with private baths.

A HOT ITEM during the past few years and we'll venture that this kind of house will be just as attractive a package to sell in the Spring of '72. The town house condominium is no longer a new thing in the Pointe. Our four bedroom offering is near Rivard at Jefferson, just a step to everything. Priced to move at $48,000.

CONTEMPORARY LIVING at its finest. Could it be that at last the market offers you that house that architecturally speaks for itself and defies the rigid, traditional lines of most of the Pointe's housing? This house is tucked away in the Woods but close to both private and public schools. There are two baths on the main floor and either two or three bedrooms depending on owner's preference. This is a one-of-a-kind offering which must be seen to be appreciated.

Pointe Counter Points

By Pat Rousseau

It's Spring . . . and Promtime is here, especially at Walton-Pierce. Lots of wispy, romantic creations that are certain to capture a young man's fancy . . . One favorite was a delicate sleeveless sprigged gown. Pale red rosebuds and tiny ivy green leaves offset the white background. The bodice is pleated and framed with a soft ruffled collar trimmed with a perky kelly green ribbon. For that special event, we have that special dress.

One by One . . . that's how Dura Lashes are applied at Leon. By popular request, Leon has added this beauty service. Miss Jamie, who is trained by the manufacturer and who taught at a well-known modeling school, will place these individual lashes on your lashes in any length or thickness becoming. The colors are brown and black. They last eight weeks with a bit of care, they can last longer. You can sleep, swim, shower, sauna with them. Because they are placed directly on your lashes and not on the lid, the look is natural with or without makeup. Miss Jamie applies them by appointment, privately in a booth. For more information, call her or drop by 17888 Mack Avenue . . . TU 4-9393.

More Than Meets The Eye . . . Of course, the Jefferson Apartments are elegant, set in a beautiful atmosphere, with handsome lobby and hallways. From an architectural and construction viewpoint, the values are not always obvious but are designed into these high quality condominiums to protect the individual owner and his property, to stand up under appraisal and to increase in value. For example, the maximum insulation insures a quiet atmosphere, an individual thermal environment for heating and cooling. It also offers fire protection. The latter is implemented by an alarm system. When you visit the brand new model apartment at 17115 East Jefferson between St. Clair and Neff Road, be sure to ask about the quality construction features that do not meet the eye. The model is open 12 to 5 every day except Wednesday. 882-7708 or 886-4880 Michigan Condominium Corporation.

Why . . . are Scotsman ice cubes so clear, solid, pure? Because they are made a special way. In the Scotsman ice cube maker the operation is completely automatic. There's no need to fill trays with tap water. Fresh water is sprayed into round cube cups and frozen upside down. The impurities drain away. The Scotsman provides up to eighteen pounds of pure round ice cubes a day and can be beautifully integrated into any home or office decorating plan. See the Scotsman at Mutschler Kitchens, 20227 Mack Avenue . . . TU 4-3700.

Taking the blouse to the ankle . . . Michelle's Boutique 17864 Mack Avenue is willing to go to any length to bring you the classic shirt dress. Now ankle length framed with easy slits on both sides and wonderfully washable. Will look good now with a boot or later with a sandal. $30 to $32. Michelle's is open Friday evening until eight. And don't forget the Boutique Fashion Show every Wednesday 11:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. at the King's Table in the First National Building.

In Martha's Closet . . . 373 Fisher Rd. you'll find a darling new flatty . . . Nautical white trimmed with a red band and bow or spritely white with navy. How about those new Travel Needles, already threaded ready for travel or gift giving.

Those folks at Mr. Q . . . say there's still some Easter sun and fun vacations available for quick confirmations . . . Call 886-0500.

to Edward Nepri's for reconditioning by professionals to Edward Nepri's for reconditioning by professionals for all your needs . . . hair, skin or nails. If you're tired of seeing your hair in the condition that turns you off, feel free to come in and talk to our trichologist from Redken Laboratories . . . 1946 Mack Avenue, TU 4-8858.

Bar Supplies Unlimited . . . glasses, ice buckets, and miscellaneous in a gala array of colors and patterns are now in at Notre Dame Pharmacy. Be sure to be able to set 'em up for Spring.

The Kaleidoscope . . . focuses in on the Orient with the new Kabuchi aprons, hot pads and pillow cases they just received. They are imprinted with such provincial proverbs as "I spent 4 years in College for this"? Available in assorted drip dry fabrics and savings from $1.29 to $4.50 at . . . 16135 Mack Avenue.

Don't Wait . . . for the ground to thaw, plant your own mini indoor garden "GREEN THINGS". The Spire 19849 Mack has wild strawberries, tomatoes, herbs and more prepotting waiting for a little T.L.C. only $2.

It's Posh—Michael says. "The success of any coiffure depends on the cut. It must be done by a skilled professional. It takes quite a long time but be patient for once it's done you'll be a liberated woman. Liberated from nightly settings, rollers, teasing and best of all hair spray. If you have a good hair cut it can defy weather and wind, so see one of the talented stylists at the Posh Studio and loss that head! It'll naturally fall back in line. 886-1377 for an appointment."

Put Color . . . in your Wednesdays. Plan lunch at the Golden Lion with friends and see all those bright gay cruise and spring fashions from Martha's Closet.

It's a Known Fact . . . area rugs are in. At Ed Maliszewski, 21435 Mack Avenue, there's a complete collection of them . . . in both traditional reproductions and contemporary designs. The color range is wide and the price will fit your pocketbook. Call 776-5510 for an appointment.

Put A Little Light On The Subject . . . with a small or medium size lamp that's just come in on a new shipment. Looking for ash trays? We now have a large selection. Wright's Gifts and Lamps, 18650 Mack Avenue.

FRANCIS W. ROBINSON OF KERCHEVAL AVENUE

By Roger A. Waha

Retirement seems to be only a technical point for Francis W. Robinson, 376 Kercheval Avenue, who is just as busy as ever at the Detroit Institute of Arts. Mr. Robinson retired January 31 after 32 years at the Institute but confesses he's been back at the museum "almost every day" since then. "It's been my life all these years." And that it has.

For Mr. Robinson, who describes himself as the "old man" at the museum, was curator of European Art from 1935-47, curator of Ancient and Medieval Art, 1947-68, and curator of Medieval Art from 1968 to his retirement, (the Ancient and Medieval Art departments were divided in 1968). He also was the interim curator of the Alger House Branch Museum of the Institute in 1947 (the Alger House is now the GP Memorial).

Time for Hobbies Even though Mr. Robinson is busy at the museum, he does have more time to pursue his many interests including genealogical research (family ancestry), arms and armor and silver and silversmiths.

He stresses the fun of genealogical research by talking with people, observing various pieces, e.g., silver, which have been passed down through generations, and exploring source books. And when all the information is gathered, it's put together just "like a puzzle."

Mr. Robinson was asked about the steps in tracing a family's history. "You interview relatives first and take notes on what they say," he said. However, he noted

A Tisket a Tasket . . . Mr. Mole will fill your Easter Basket. He'll even supply you with one for $1.75. He has lots of little toys, hair ribbons, silk flowers, and dolls to bring Sunday morning smiles. The Mole Hole, Mack at Three Mile.

The perfect, personal INVESTMENT . . . for that new, fresh, younger look of Springtime: "Fashion Two Twenty's" lovely NEW orchid "Glamour Case!" A complete step by step instruction for personal beauty care and for glamour techniques goes WITH the Case, for only $39.95! Call 886-0252 for your personal appointment.

CHINOISERIE . . . the new, new, newest look in upholstery, draperies and bedspreads has arrived at Calico Corners. These dark background chinese prints are doing great things for perking up decors . . . bolts of gorgeous dress fabrics, flame stitch from abroad. Oscar DeLaRenta prints and arrays of cotton prints and tie silks are something to see at 25008 Little Mack at 10 Mile.

Pick up . . . a pretty mixed bouquet at a special $2.95 price from the Arrangement . . . 341 Fisher Road. 885-6222.

Armor" exhibition included shields, parts of horse armor and a horse and rider loaned by the Metropolitan Museum. Mr. Robinson, in fact, wrote a booklet called "A Selection from the William Randolph Hearst Collection of Armor and Arms in the Detroit Institute of Arts" in 1954.

The Flemish Exhibit Mr. Robinson called the Flemish exhibition one of his most "stimulating." This exhibition was organized by the City of Detroit and the city of Bruges in Belgium and was presented in 1960. Preparations for the exhibition and its catalogue took several years of negotiations and in the years 1959-60, he made four trips to Belgium.

In Detroit the exhibition was called "Masterpieces of Flemish Art: Van Eyck to Bosch." The Detroit catalogue was prepared in French and was translated by Mr. Robinson and others, not to mention being written in part and wholly proof read by him.

For his work on this exhibition and the good relations which it engendered between Belgium and the United States, Mr. Robinson received the decoration of Knight of the Order of the Crown of Belgium in March 1961 "I enjoyed working on this exhibition which had a tremendous response among scholars and museum visitors," he said. Smiling, he added that he likes to think of himself as an "adopted Belgian."

Proud of Expansion Mr. Robinson is proud of the fact that he has been part of the museum's expansion, particularly regarding the libraries. "When I came to the museum, there were very few books on arms and armor. Now, we have a good collection," he noted. The same holds true for books on coins and on silver.

And speaking of books, Mr. Robinson said he has around 4,500 in his collection. He has about 150 volumes each on arms and armor and silver, American and European. "Some of the books are dreadfully expensive and quite rare," he said.

His other interests include the history of both Michigan and Detroit, the American Indian, and books on history, biography and the arts. Mr. Robinson also has a great interest in the theatre and puppetry as a form of theatre. He has on various occasions, since the Department of Theatre Arts was organized at the Art Institute, filled in as interim curator and supervisor of the Theatre Arts Department.

Had Other Projects Besides his favorite exhibitions on Arms and Armor and Flemish Art, Mr. Robinson also has been involved with "Treasures from the Tomb of Tutankhamun," "Small Bronzes of the Ancient World," "Masterpieces of Chinese Ceramics" and "Etruscan and Italian Art."

When did Mr. Robinson first become bitten by the "art bug?" "I grew up in a scholastic environment and was interested in the history of my locality," he said. He was born in Lakeville, Conn., and his father, James Johnson Robinson, was a teacher of Latin at Hotchkiss School. While at Hotchkiss, he grew up with plaster casts of famous Greek and Roman sculptures and photos and postcards of ancient monuments and sites. His father was also interested in arts and architecture.

Princeton Graduate He received his B.A. in 1929 from Princeton and his M.F.A. in 1933. Mr. Robinson said Princeton had a fine department of art and architecture and his interest began to focus upon museum work there. He graduated with high honors and then went to Harvard for an "important year" (1931-32).

The Harvard graduate school offered a training course in museum work under Paul J. Sachs, which Mr. Robinson noted was "invaluable for anyone going into museum work. Year after year Mr. Sachs was turning out budding curators and directors."

"Mr. Sachs was sharp at detecting good museum material. People would ask him to recommend curators and he would scratch his head, and his secretary would scratch her head," he said. But Mr. Sachs did recommend Mr. Robinson, who got his first job as curator at the Cincinnati Art Museum in 1933.

Some Travel Ahead With so many active years in the arts, how could Mr. Robinson completely retire? While he admits he has more leisure time now for his interests, he also hopes to do some traveling in the near future. He may possibly go to the Mediterranean, and the American Association of Museums is having its annual convention in Mexico City this June.

Mr. Robinson married Margaret Trowbridge, widow of the late Albert H. Trowbridge on May 26, 1971. His home is one of the oldest houses in Grosse Pointe (ca 1820.) And while he's lived in The Pointe for only a year, he likes the area very much. In years past, he lived near the Art Institute.

And no doubt Mr. Robinson will use some of his leisure time to spend with his family which includes five stepchildren.

DOROTHY CHRISTIAN, of Barrington road, a retired librarian of the Grosse Pointe School System and a long-time resident of The Pointe, has received the distinction of being listed in "Who's Who of American Women." She is also a member of the Alpha Delta Kappa honorary sorority of educators.

who, where and whatnot

Spring has arrived. Just a reminder in case the auspicious date has gone unnoticed. With it comes more time in the out-of-doors . . . biking . . . hiking . . . planting . . . renewing our acquaintance with nature. Awakening to songs of the birds, who have returned to us after a long silent winter.

Thought this would be a good time to hear the words of some youngsters from Brownell Middle School on just what taking these pleasures for granted could mean to all of us . . .

Laurie Hanger says,
One day I went for a hike
And saw some things I did not like.
The sky was black;
The water was brown.
It really made me frown.
The sounds were loud.
There was a big crowd
I got so sick;
Not a flower to pick.
So back home I went.
Where the rest of the day was spent.
I went outside the next day,
And looked around for any change.
Still the flowers were dead,
And still my eyes were red.
I thought no one cared.
And I was really scared.

Eileen Mecha poses some questions . . .
What is clean water?
What is fresh air?
What are plants and animals?
What are natural resources?
What is unlitlered land?
What is earth?
The future world may never know.
What are YOU doing so they will?

Henry Roesch's Earth should set us all to thinking and DOING . . .
Earth—No deposit, No return.
Earth—The place we were born.
Pollution stricken people are everywhere.
Our ancestors used all the clean air.
Don't blame it on the other guy;
It was you and I.
All the busses and the planes,
Cars, boats and the trains.
You just sit there all night.
Why don't you get up and fight?
Remember: Earth—No deposit, No return.
Earth—The place we were born.

Let's go into spring with the words of these young people echoing in our ears. Let's enjoy spring, but not take it for granted . . . by caring for the earth and air around us . . . by doing our part . . . plantings trees and flowers . . . eliminating litter . . . turning our bottles in for recycling . . .

Boy am I getting sick and tired of travel ads that say in big letters ACAPULCO (or wherever) $259 and in little tiny print at the bottom of the ad, "plus $25 for taxes & services."
Darn it, if its $284 say so and don't beat about the ad.
