Thursday, April 13
THE CHINESE DELEGATION of 14 table tennis players and 18 Chinese newsmen and interpreters arrived in Detroit at 11:45 a.m. Wednesday on a Pan Am 707 jetliner renamed "Jet Clipper Friendship" in honor of the trip. As the Chinese stepped out of the plane, they were greeted by officials and members of the American table tennis team, headed by Graham Steenhoven of Detroit, who visited China last year. Also on hand to greet the visitors were the People's Republic of China delegation to the United Nations and President Nixon's special consultant John Scali.

THE FBI ARRESTED a middle-echelon United Mine Workers official Wednesday on federal conspiracy charges in the 1969 slaying of Joseph A. (Jock) Yablonski and his wife and daughter. William J. Prater, 52, of LaFollette, Tenn., was arrested in Lake City, Tenn., after a federal grand jury in Pittsburgh indicted him on charges of conspiring to interfere with the right of a union member, conspiring to obstruct justice and conspiring to interfere with an investigation. Prater's bond was set at $200,000.

PRESIDENT NIXON began a three-day visit to Canada Thursday night by emphasizing that the United States respects Canadian nationalism, an issue which has recently caused a rift between the two countries. Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau welcomed in Ottawa the Presidential delegation which included Mrs. Nixon, presidential adviser Henry Kissinger and Secretary of State William P. Rogers. It is President Nixon's only official visit to any country between his recent trip to mainland China and the upcoming Soviet Union visit.

JUDGE STEPHEN J. ROTH ORDERED the State Department of Education Friday to prepare within two weeks a complete study of school bus transportation in the Detroit area. The judge merely took "under advisement" a request by the NAACP that the Detroit Board of Education be ordered to purchase immediately 350 buses, the number of the buses necessary for a metropolitan desegregation plan. A bus company official has said in court that Friday, April 14, was the last day an order for 350 buses could be placed for fall delivery.

The 12-day flight includes a stay of over three days in the unexplored central lunar highlands, a region of peaks towering 18,000 feet above the flat "sea" where American astronauts first walked on the dusty lunar surface.

AREAS OF HANOI AND HAIPHONG were in flames Sunday, as hundreds of U.S. bombers attacked deep in North Vietnam and caused heavy damage, it was reported by the U.S. Command. A Soviet freighter was reported hit at Haiphong, the seaport funnel for North Vietnamese war material from abroad, and three Soviet-built Mig 21 jets were shot down near Hanoi. The South Vietnamese command in Saigon reported successes at the same time in the ground war around An Loc, the provincial capital under siege 60 miles north of Saigon.

Symphony Concert Set For Sunday

Mischa Kottler Will Be Guest Soloist in North High Arts Center at 3:30 p.m.

The Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra will present pianist Mischa Kottler as their guest soloist in the Sunday, April 23, concert.

As the pianist member of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, Mr. Kottler was presented as the orchestra's distinguished soloist in many major concerts this year.

While he was music director of Detroit's radio station WWJ, he organized both a symphonic orchestra which broadcast weekly programs and a chamber music group carried regularly by the NBC network.

Mr. Kottler is currently professor of music at Wayne State University.

Sunday's program will include Schubert's "Overture to Zauberharfe," Strauss' "Don Juan" and the Rimsky-Korsakov "Capriccio Espagnol."

Rachmaninoff's "Concerto No. 2 in C minor for Piano" will feature the guest artist.

The concert, presented at the Performing Arts Center of North High School, will begin at 3:30 p.m.

A reception for Mr. Kottler will follow. Tickets are $2.50 for adults and $1 for students, and may be purchased on the day of the concert.

Cyclist Rams Scout Car To Terminate Wild Chase

Farms Patrolman Gerald Deburghgraeve was on routine patrol Wednesday afternoon, April 12, when he picked up a broadcast from the Park police attempting to halt a fleeing pink Harley Davidson motorcycle.

The report said that the motorcycle was traveling east on Jefferson after turning from Cadieux.

In order to block the motorcycle, Patrolman Deburghgraeve, in Farms scout car #35, headed west on Kercheval and then south on Fisher, after hearing that the motorcycle had turned onto Fisher from Jefferson.

The Farms policeman set up a road block on Fisher, approximately 70 feet south of Grosse Pointe boulevard, and switched on his scout

Woods Okays Resolution Opposing Proposed Bill On State Building Code

Michigan Municipal League Director Points Out It Would Provide Veto Power Over Local Law Provisions

By Roger A. Waha
Woods Councilman Marvin R. Boutin proposed a resolution against House Bill 5252, the State Building Code, at the regular meeting Monday, April 17. The council unanimously concurred in his action.

Mr. Boutin felt that the council should object to this particular bill. "If we don't object we will lose our local autonomy," he said. "We have a darn good building code as it is." Mr. Boutin added that it was beyond his comprehension that it could possibly be loosened up at the state level.

Rapped By League

In a letter to the council Robert E. Fryer, director, Michigan Municipal League, noted that the Senate State Affairs Committee "in a surprise move" recently reported out this bill to the floor of the Senate with recommendation that it pass.

School Board Meets April 24

The Grosse Pointe Board of Education will hold a special meeting at 8 p.m. on Monday, April 24, in the Board Room of the schools' Administration Building, 389 St. Clair avenue.

Major agenda item is approval of accounts payable for the month. Interested citizens are invited to attend.

Center Hits $62,125 in Fund Drive

Total of 3,481 Donors Have Contributed to Campaign; $95,000 Is Amount Needed

Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center's 1972 Annual Family Participation Campaign has received $62,125.50 to date from 3,481 family donors. The goal necessary to balance the '72-'73 budget is $95,000.

The Center's volunteer board of directors headed by Frank P. McBride, Jr., with treasurer Alexander L. Wiener chairing the membership drive is very grateful for the participation to date; but they realize that the last third of the Family Participation monies are the most difficult to get.

To this end, the Center's staff is sending out follow-up letters this weekend to Grosse Pointe families who have not yet been heard from. Many Pointers have been out of town and the original letter of appeal may easily have been lost in the accumulation of mail.

Board Is Confident

Now with income tax out of the way and most people returning from winter sojourns, the Center's Board is

Woods Planning To Plant Trees, Repair Concrete

Bids Accepted for Fixing Streets, Walks, Curbs; Buying 600 Trees of Varied Species for Community-Wide Program

The Woods Council at the regular meeting Monday, April 3, unanimously concurred in the recommendation of City Administrator Chester E. Petersen on various items including the awarding of a contract for concrete street, sidewalk and curb repair for the construction year of 1972 to J. J. Barney, Inc., 5720 E. Davison, Detroit, and to approve the quotation for the purchase of trees of Viaene Nursery Sales, 21807 Mack Avenue, St. Clair Shores.

Five items regarding street repair work were bid upon: removal, repair or replacing concrete street sections per square foot; concrete curb recapping per lineal foot; complete concrete curb per lineal foot; concrete sidewalk, four inches thick, per square foot; and concrete sidewalk or driveway approach per square foot. Mr. Petersen said that the repair work won't technically begin until July 1.

Quotation Is $23,000
The quotation of Viaene Nursery Sales totaled $23,000 for the purchase of 600 varied trees out of the Municipal Improvement Fund. Mr. Petersen is scheduled to proceed with a community-wide tree planting program by offering the trees for resale to Woods property owners. The trees will be planted on the street boulevards by the Department of Public Works. The city will guarantee tree purchase and planting for a one year period.

Mr. Petersen noted that the trees are being sold as part of a Municipal Tree Planting Program and will range in diameter from two to two and a half inches. In the past, smaller trees were sold, e.g., one to one and a half inches, and they suffered vandalism at the hands of youngsters.

Variety of Trees

The trees include the following varieties: red maple, crimson, sunburst, scarlet, golden, flame, chanticleer, mazzard. All trees not sold will be utilized by the city, added Mr. Petersen.

All bids for the purchase of a street sweeper and two rubbish compaction trucks were unanimously rejected by the council on Mr. Petersen's recommendation. This matter will be referred to the Committee of the Whole for further study, pending alternate recommendations by Mr. Petersen.

HORSING AROUND

Dog Warden David McQueen of the Woods Department of Public Safety received a call Thursday, April 13, from a groom at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club, 655 Cook road. The groom said a horse was loose and he didn't know where it went. Upon Mr. McQueen's arrival, the horse was back in the corral and no assistance was needed.

Board Says 67 Teachers Face Layoff

Situation Could Change If Voters Approve Millage Increase at School Election

By Kathy Duff

"The way they are lined up, you would think they were waiting to get into 'Clockwork Orange,'" a Pointe resident quipped at the Thursday night, April 13, special meeting of the Board of Education.

Concerned residents, students and teachers packed the small board room at 389 St. Clair and spilled out into the hallway to hear the reasons behind the proposed layoff of 67 teachers employed in the Pointe school system.

Dr. Theos. I. Anderson, Superintendent of Schools, explained Thursday night's action as the outgrowth of action taken at a March regular meeting of the School Board.

Uncertain Revenues

In that meeting, it was determined that due to uncertain revenues for the 1972-1973 school year, the board would have to propose a reduced program for the coming year. Included in the proposed program reduction would be the layoff of many teachers currently employed in the Pointe school system.

It was recommended in March that the board develop two educational programs. One program, which assumed passage of a millage proposal before classes begin in fall 1972, would be essentially the continuation of the program the Pointe school system presently has. A second educational program would embody possible cuts in the school program in anticipation of a possible $1 million deficit in operating funds for the 1972-1973 school year.

It was this second program that the board was considering in Thursday night's meeting, prompted by a clause in the teachers' labor contract.

Not Linked To Schools In Election

Voters Given Chance to Support Them Without Dependence on Millage Approval

By Kathy Duff

Taking a "sink or swim" position, the Board of Education decided at the Thursday night, April 13, special meeting to let Pointe residents determine whether or not Pointe libraries will be open next fall.

The voters will decide on this issue when they go to the polls in an upcoming millage election. The funding of the Pointe system of public libraries will be contained in a separate millage proposal.

Dr. Theos. I. Anderson, superintendent of schools, said that placing the library funding on the ballot would "determine whether the citizens want to continue the library system."

Supported by Friends

The Board of Education's move was supported by the Friends of the Library, according to Board President William J. Adams. Friends of the Library is a private citizens group with over 2,500 members who are interested in the welfare of the Pointe public libraries.

The action the board took in the Thursday night meeting was to terminate employment on September 15, 1972, of the nine librarians currently employed by the School System.

These nine librarians staff the three Pointe libraries: Central Library, 10 Kercheval avenue; the Woods Branch, 20600 Mack avenue; and the Park Branch, 15430 Kercheval avenue.

67 Jobs in Jeopardy

The librarians were among the 67 professionals employed by the school system whose jobs are in jeopardy due to insufficient school revenue.

Currently, the Pointe library system is funded by the school system and has been in place for 43 years.

In Thursday night's meeting, Dr. Anderson stressed the significance of separating library funding from the regular school budget.

Trustee Lee Allen pointed out how most school systems do not average in the cost of sending each child to school. In the Pointe, he noted, the estimated cost of sending each child to school absorbs library costs.

Moreover, when the Pointe school system received state aid for school students, part of the state aid is used to fund the libraries.

Costs $40 Per Pupil
With the Pointe's present system of libraries, the cost per student to operate the libraries is tabulated at $40, according to Dr. Anderson.

The resolution passed in Thursday night's meeting contains three clauses.

First, that the library professional assistants will be hired by the school system on a temporary basis from July 1, 1972, to September 15, 1972, unless "unforeseen circumstances should occur." Secondly, that the library professional assistants may be terminated as of September 15, 1972, because of continued insufficient operating revenue.

Thirdly, that the temporary employment will commence only if an agreement is reached between the school system and the Grosse Pointe Education Association (GPEA) waiving further advance notice requirements in the event of future termination of the library professional assistants.

Resolution Passed
Cleveland Thurber, Jr., president of the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library group, had submitted to the School Board trustees and the Superintendent of Schools a resolution in support of a separate millage

Park Council Petitioned To Take Stand on Taxes

By Roger A. Waha

A resident of Maryland avenue appeared before the Park Council at the regular meeting Monday, April 10, with a petition for tax reform bearing 150 signatures. The substance of the petition was that the people of Michigan vote on any property tax increase in the future. He said the petition serves more as a survey to be submitted to the legislature.

The resident expressed his concern about the state "arbitrarily" coming through with tax increases, that some residents in his area have received a raise in assessments and "inflated prices." He expressed a fear that with the proposed would reassess property once more.

Councilman Robert J. Huton made it clear, however, that no property tax goes to the state; instead, it goes to the city, county and school board. It also was noted at the meeting that, as of now, there's an approximately $180,000 smaller tax roll in the Park due to the new assessments. Herbert L. Heger, director of public service, mentioned that around 30-40 percent of the residents who came to the Board of Review had lower assessments.

The resident hoped that the council would support the property owners by petitioning the State Legislature for wish to retain the schools' present level of education in a millage election.

The school system employed 750 professionals in the 1969-1970 school year. Next fall, unless the additional revenue is secured through state aid, millage proposals or other sources, the staff will be cut to 600 teachers and administrators. The proposed cuts means a loss of 150 teachers, librarians, nurses, administrators and specialists. A total of 44.1 positions are being abolished because of a reduction of program, according to a printed list distributed by the school administration.
Nine professionals were

He emphasized that the school board had reached a legal agreement with the teachers union and if the board could not insure a teacher of a job come September, they would have to notify the teacher of possible dismissal.

"This is not a give-up-all situation," Mr. Heutteman commented as he stressed the fact that the residents, and not the school board, would make the final decision on the reductions of staff and school programs.
Even if it was not a "give-up-all" situation, it certainly looked that way Thursday night as the trustees voted unanimously to send notices to 67 teachers the following day, Friday, April 14. Trustee Alfred Glancy Jr. was absent from the meeting.

President Is Bitter
"I was warned that there was going to be an overkill, but this is criminal," the president of the Grosse Pointe Education Association (GPEA), Rita Carey, blurted out when the discussion was enlarged to include comments from the audience.

She then cited the cruelty of sending so many teachers termination notices when many might be rehired in late spring, summer or fall. She also pointed out the absence of cuts among administrators, secretaries, and maintenance personnel.
"Teachers are more important than cafeteria services, workshops and exquisitely kept buildings," Miss Carey shot out as she pushed for an early millage election to insure some of the laid-off teachers a job next September.

Anderson Answers
As soon as the audience quieted down after an outburst of clapping in support of Miss Carey's defiant stand, Superintendent Anderson attempted to counter the charges.
He first emphasized that there would be reductions in administrative, secretarial and plant personnel; however, the school board could notify these persons at a later date since they were not protected by a contract with a 60-day-notice clause.

In order to emphasize the gravity of the school's financial plight, he discussed the present situation of projected state aid.
The Pointe schools are predicting some $80 per student in state aid for the 1972-1973 school year. However, that figure is $25 less than they are currently receiving, and $25 more than any formula currently being discussed in the state legislature.

Election Discussed
Miss Carey's remarks sparked a discussion of when to hold the necessary millage election.

This question has been the focus of many recent board meetings, and has caused members of the school board to join one of two different camps.

The majority of the trustees favor a September millage election, for they believe several issues critical to passage of a millage proposal will be then clear. The most emotional issue which will be resolved, at least for the 1972-1973 year, is busing; however, school administrators also will have a clearer picture of state aid at the time of a September millage election.

Other trustees, such as Lee Allen, favor an earlier millage date to give the school board the opportunity to plan the 1972-1973 school budget at an earlier date. An early millage election would also decide if the laid-off teachers could be rehired immediately.

Based on Experience
The four board members who favor the September

Members of the audience were mainly concerned over the possible reduction of extracurricular activities. Superintendent Anderson was not able to give them any direct answers to their queries of which activities would be cut; he only reiterated the problem of uncertain school revenue for the coming school year.
One resident asked the possibility of residents volunteering to conduct extracurricular activities.

Suggests Substituting
One student, a tall blond-haired girl who was obviously concerned over the possible elimination of varsity sports, suggested hopefully "Why not put back varsity football, basketball and track, and take out a psychologist?"

The audience chuckled over this suggestion. However, that is about all Pointe residents can do until, first, the state aid picture becomes clearer, and, secondly, they have the opportunity to vote on whether they

Slate Hearing On City Budget

A Public Hearing on the proposed 1971-72 City of Grosse Pointe budget will be held on Monday, May 8, at 4 o'clock in Council Chambers.

City Manager Thomas Kressbach said that due to wage negotiations and other priority projects the proposed budget is still in the process of preparation and reproduction. He added that the budget will be completed within the next few weeks and subsequently distributed to the Council for study.

Two Park Firefighters Promoted to Sergeant

By Roger A. Waha

Two Park firefighters "sizzled" their way through promotional examinations and were advanced to sergeant Monday, April 17. Andrew Benoit, 62, and Joseph Block, 36, passed their written and oral exams for sergeant sponsored by the Michigan Municipal League, said Chief Phillip Costa.

The written exam was given Monday, March 20, while the oral exam, conducted by fire chiefs from the Wayne and Birmingham Fire Departments, was presented Thursday, March 30. Both men received a clean bill of health during their physicals Wednesday, April 12.

Sergeant Benoit, a 36-year veteran of the Park Fire Department, made the passing score of 70 on the written exam and 78.5 on the oral. His overall average, including seniority rights, was 90.25. Meanwhile, Sergeant Block, a 12-year veteran, scored 84 on the written test and 85 on the oral, making his overall average, with seniority, total 96.

Nine men took the test for sergeant and one for lieutenant, said Chief Costa. Four firefighters out of nine passed their written and oral exams. However, openings for sergeant are currently filled, added the Chief, so the other two will have to wait for a future opening.

Sergeants Benoit and Block have received numerous certificates for attending various training courses while members of the Park Fire Department.

Some of Sergeant Benoit's certificates include: Firemanship Training Course, Macomb County Firefighters Association, April 1971; Fire Inspectors Conference, Michigan State University, September 1965, 1968 and 1969; Firemanship Training Course, Macomb County Fireman's Association, co-sponsored by the Greater De-

Stores Report On Bad Checks

The Farms police were contacted twice over a four-day period by Farms merchants reporting bad checks. The checks were cashed at a Mack drugstore and a Hill supermarket.

The owner of Rand Drugstore, Michael Randazzo, called Farms police Tuesday, March 21, to report the return of a check marked "account closed." The check was cashed on Friday, March 10, at the drugstore located at 18404 Mack.

The $10 check was from the personal account of Donald Donaldson, 4890 Canyon, Detroit. The blue check was issued by Detroit Bank and Trust.

The second report came on Friday, March 24, when Fred Wolski, manager of Salem Square Supermarket, reported the return of two checks written by Harold Stone, 671 Westchester.

The checks, written in the first week of March, were made out for $18 and $27. Farms detectives are in charge of the investigation.

Tools Missing

Edward A. Elissa, 485 Bournmouth, went to the Farms police station on Monday, March 20, to report the loss of tools valued at $220. He reported that the trunk lock of his '72 Dodge had been punched out by some unknown person, and the tools removed. He noticed the theft at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, March 15, after his car had been parked in his driveway.

Six to Face Court Trials

Two youths charged with the breaking and entering of an occupied dwelling with intent to commit larceny and four men charged with breaking and entering of an occupied dwelling, all waived examination before Woods Municipal Judge Don C. Goodrow Wednesday, April 5, and have been bound over to Wayne County Circuit Court for trial.

The youths, Robert Elias Wucelich, 19373 Beaconsfield, Harper Woods, and Michael David Velardo, 19221 Woodland, Harper Woods, are charged with the Tuesday, March 28 burglary of a residence at 660 Moorland drive. Their trial date in Circuit Court is scheduled for Thursday, April 20. Bond for both defendants was continued in the amount of $5,000 cash or two sureties.

The four men, allegedly involved in the breaking and entry of a residence in S. Renaud road, are Franklin Burchfield, 13124 Kercheval, Detroit; David Donald Cole, 1253 Engle, Detroit; Charles Maylen Coots, 701 Lemay, Detroit, and Edward Paul Cote, 13123 Kercheval, Detroit.

They were bound over for trial at the next session of Circuit Court. Bond in the amount of $2,000 was continued on each defendant. They are reported to have been taken to Wayne County Jail in default of bond.

Three other men appeared before Judge Goodrow April 5 for an examination on the charge of breaking and entering an automobile with intent to commit larceny over a $5 value. The alleged incident occurred on March 30.

The three men are Viktor Kazlauskas, 5215 Elmer, Detroit; Anthony Gene Kazlauskas, 5215 Elmer, Detroit and Roland Kenske, 5660 Lumley, Detroit. They are believed to have removed a tire and a doctor's bag from a parked car in N. Renaud and placed it in their vehicle before being stopped by Woods police on Torrey road.

Because one of the defendants was without legal representation, the examination for all three defendants was adjourned to Wednesday, April 12, according to a police report.

St. John Plans Alcohol Forum

"Alcoholism—a Treatable Disease" is the subject of a public forum to be held at Saint John Hospital on Monday, May 8, at 7:30 p.m.

The forum is one of a series of community health education lectures sponsored by the Saint John Hospital Guild as part of the expanding community health services of the hospital.

Speaking at the forum will be Dr. Gordon Bell, internationally-known authority on alcoholism and president of the Donwood Institute in Toronto, Ont.

Dr. Bell has been engaged in the treatment of alcoholism and drug abuse since 1946. He serves as a lecturer and is a consultant to many organizations in the United States and Canada and is the author of the recent book, "Escape from Addiction."

During the first part of the forum, Dr. Bell will describe the nature of alcoholism and the effects on the individual, his family and the community. Highlighted will be a discussion of the various methods of treatment and what family members and the community can do to help the alcoholic overcome his illness. Dr. Bell will then answer questions from the audience.

According to the National Council on Alcoholism, although heroin and other hard drug abuse have received greater attention recently, in terms of economic and social loss alcoholism far outweighs all other forms of chemical abuse. Fortunately, with medicine, government and industry increasingly viewing alcoholism as an illness, the facilities for the successful treatment of this major health problem are rapidly increasing.

A Saint John Hospital spokesman stated that "while relatively few patients are admitted to Saint John for acute alcoholism, many are treated for injuries and illness attributed to alcoholism."

Persons who are interested in the problem of alcoholism and what can be done about it are invited to this free forum. Call Saint John Hospital, 881-8200, ext. 474, to obtain further information.

Cyclist Rams Scout Car

the Park police car by driving on the extreme west of Fisher road, the scout car driven by Park Patrolman Timothy Mink, veered to the west, trapping the motorcycle.

The motorcycle, traveling an estimated 50 m.p.h. struck the front grill of the Park scout car, ejecting the cyclist who flew over the hood of the car and landed on the front lawn at 569 Fisher.

Before being stopped by the Ridge road block, the cyclist had managed to elude a second road block set up on Fisher, south of Kercheval, by City police.

The entire chase took place around 3:35 p.m., the time South High School lets out and there is heavy pedestrian and vehicle traffic.

The cyclist, who was identified as Keith G. Impullitti, 20, of 14824 Maple Ridge, Detroit, was taken to Bon Secours Hospital by City police. At Bon Secours, he was briefly treated for a fractured knee before being transferred to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital where his doctor is a member of the staff.

The victim's knee suffered severe injury; one City policeman remarked that the victim was lucky he didn't lose his leg. Impullitti was wearing a helmet at the time of the accident and did not sustain any head injuries.

Impullitti was charged with failure to stop upon police signal by Farms police and faces a court date of Wednesday, May 10. In The Park, he was charged with fleeing a uniformed scout car, while in The City he was charged with reckless driving.

It is not Impullitti's first

The system that moves the Cadillac Eldorado also moves the Audi 100LS. But we had it first.

Virtually every car in the world moves by a system known as rear-wheel drive. Which means the rear wheels pull the car.

The Audi (and, of course, the Eldorado) moves by a system known as front-wheel drive. Which means the front wheels pull the car.

This gives you two distinct advantages:

One, it lets you corner surer. Even on the meanest, most terrifying curve.

And two, it gives you better traction on any kind of surface: rain, snow, mud, even ice.

Besides the Cadillac Eldorado, the Audi has some of the best features of six other great automobiles.

1. The Audi has the same type of steering system as the Ferrari 512 racing car.

2. The Audi has independent front suspension like the Porsche 917 racing car.

3. It's got the same amount of trunk space as the Lincoln Continental.

4. It's got the same headroom and legroom as the Rolls-Royce Silver Shadow.

5. Its interior bears a remarkable resemblance to that of the Mercedes-Benz 280SE.

6. You get the same kind of expert service with an Audi as you do with a Volkswagen. Because a Porsche Audi dealer is part of the VW organization.

Wins Honors At Festival

Grosse Pointe South High School students participated in the State Solo and Ensemble Festival, Saturday, March 25, at Northwestern High School, in Flint. There were 26 first division winners, seven second division winners and one third division winner. The South students earned the largest number of first division ratings of all the schools in Wayne County.

The Michigan School Band and Orchestra Association, which sponsors the festival, originated in 1958. The proficiency sections of the State Solo and Ensemble Festival offer a further challenge to the high school instrumentalist. The three sections (I, II and III) are usually completed in the 10th, 11th and 12th grades, respectively. Completion of Proficiency III by a 12th grade student represents the highest level of individual accomplishment in the Solo and Ensemble Festival.

Those receiving first division ratings in Proficiency III were: Liz Gregory, flute; Mary Ann Kozlowski, flute; Virginia Zeleznik, clarinet; and Fred Parcels, trombone.

First division rating in Proficiency II went to Fenia Weiller, violin; Cathy Lavins, violin; Kevin Miller, viola; Connie Hintzen, viola; Chris Klein, cello; Steve Eliason, cello; Randy Barker, piano; Joanne Foresman, piccolo; Debby Makos, flute; Denise Dupuis, flute; Susan Weaver, bassoon and Tony Buffa, cornet.

Those receiving first division rating in Proficiency I included Pam Cain, cello; Jeanette Rice, flute; Claudia Landis, clarinet and Sue Wightman. Freshman solos capturing first division ratings were Chuck Austerberry, trumpet and Leonard Swanson, tuba.

Ensembles winning first division ratings were Fenia Weiller, Cathy Lavins, Kevin Miller and Steve Eliason, for string quartet; George Skaff, Chris Klein, Pamela Cain and Jill Harvey, cello quartet; Debbie Pool, Becky Hewens, flute duet; Virginia Zeleznik and Paul Woodhouse, clarinet duet.

Farms Grants Loop's Request

By Kathy Duff
The Farms council has approved Babe Ruth League's request for increased playing time on Kerby Field. The league uses the 90-foot baseball diamond.

Gerald Thiede, president of the league, was present at the meeting Monday, April 3, to lend support to his request. His group had asked for the use of the field weekdays from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m.; Saturdays, 8 a.m. to 7 p.m.; and Sundays, 12 noon to 7 p.m. The Babe Ruth season runs from Wednesday, April 1, through Thursday, July 20.

Mr. Thiede explained that a 20 percent expanded enrollment of the league and recent construction at South High School necessitated the increased hours on Kerby Field.

Last year, 51 Babe Ruth games were scheduled for Kerby Field, this year there are 80 games. The same holds true for Elworthy Field, located on the corner of Neff and Charlevoix roads, as 53 games were scheduled in 1971 in contrast to 65 in 1972. The loss of one diamond at South High School, tied up for both the 1972 and the 1973 seasons, creates a shortage in baseball facilities.

"Keep in mind our practice time has been cut," Mr. Thiede informed the council. He also mentioned the scheduling of games on Sunday for the first time.

In expressing how the Babe Ruth League was willing to co-operate with The Farms, the representative promised that the league would keep in touch with Farms Director of Public Service, John Defoe, and would provide him with a schedule and a list of the board of directors.

After his presentation, the councilmen had some problems to pose concerning the increased hours.

"The question is if we are depriving other kids from using the field," Councilman James Mast offered.

"I hate to set a precedent for increasing hours, if the league keeps expanding," Councilman E. Rust Muirhead added.

Mr. Thiede assured the council that the league had exhausted every other possibility to relieve the burden on Kerby and Elworthy Fields, but that no other solution could be found. He also reminded the council that the Babe Ruth League was composed of Pointe youths.

Farms Mayor William Butler, in recognizing the merit of the organization, suggested that The Farms approve the request for only one year.

Two councilmen seconded his sentiments. Councilman Mast again voiced his concern over residents being inconvenienced by not being able to play; and Councilman Muirhead said, "We will take a long, hard look next year."

Permission was granted by an unanimous vote of the council.

"What we are essentially asking for is co-operation, in the play-off games and in the league's World Series. Babe Ruth is a very worthwhile organization," Mayor Butler concluded.

1962 HS Class Plans Reunion

The Grosse Pointe High School class of 1962 is currently planning their tenth reunion to be held Saturday night, May 13.

It sounds much like a 1960's dance, as the $10 ticket includes dinner, band, beer and set-ups. The evening is scheduled to begin at 6:30 p.m.

The class members have been asked to contact Jon B. Gandelot or Mrs. Phillip Schade, the former Dorothy Gillis, for further information.

Canada's Cup Being Eyed By Llwyd Ecclestone, Jr.

Llwyd (cq) Ecclestone, Jr. has charted a course which he hopes will end up with him bringing the Canada's Cup to Detroit.

Ecclestone, for years one of the Detroit area's top sailors, has his sights set on challenging the Royal Canadian Yacht Club of Toronto's representative for the Cup on Lake Ontario.

The first race of the series is scheduled for September 10.

The first step toward the Cup was the arrival of Ecclestone's new 39-foot sloop Dynamite in Marblehead, Mass., on April 9.

Designed by Ted Hood, of Marblehead, and built by Frans Maas Jachtwerf, of Breskens, Holland, Dynamite will remain at Marblehead for testing until the middle of May when Ecclestone will have the boat shipped to Detroit.

Ecclestone decided a year ago he wanted to try and capture the Canada's Cup. "You always decide those things in a moment of excitement or enthusiasm," Ecclestone admitted. "You think later about the expense and commitment involved. "This is a one-time opportunity to win a national cup that hasn't been in the States in a long time and never in Detroit. I want to challenge. We have a good nucleus—a good crew and a fine boat. We have a good chance of winning the Canada's Cup."

Ecclestone was impressed with Dynamite the moment he saw the white-hulled boat.

"It looks like it shouldn't be a boat," Ecclestone said. "It looks like it should be an airplane. Dynamite looks like it could fly."

Ecclestone and various members of his 14-man crew will spend the next month putting the final touches on Dynamite before she is shipped by truck to Detroit.

Beginning July 5 Dynamite will compete in trials on Lake St. Clair against other boats from Bayview Yacht Club, which Ecclestone has belonged to since 1954. He must come out on top in those races to qualify for trials at Rochester, N. Y., starting August 15.

The winner at Rochester competes against the Canadians for the Canada's Cup.

Ecclestone has an excellent sailing background. He started sailing in 1954, and is a veteran of the Mackinac races. Last season his boat Bikini was named "Boat of the Year" by the Cruising Club of Detroit. Ecclestone is a post commodore of the organization.

Most of the time Dynamite is in Marblehead. Ecclestone will "tune" the boat and race it in practice match races to familiarize his crew and himself with the boat.

"We want to tune Dynamite as fine as possible," Ecclestone said. "We have to get her ready to sail, and make any changes we have to. They can be made at Marblehead."

Dynamite has a 31.8-foot waterline. Her mast above the deck is 53 1/2 feet. She has a 18 1/2-foot foretriangle, a 19 1/2-foot spinnaker pole and a 15-foot boom. Dynamite weighs 17,000 pounds.

Dynamite is scheduled to be christened at Bayview May 18. Preliminary observation trials begin June 11 followed by final Bayview trials, the races at Rochester and then the final challenge for the Canada's Cup.

Burglars Enter 2 Mack Shops

On routine patrol early Thursday morning, April 13, Farms policemen discovered that two Mack avenue shops had been burglarized during the night.

At 6 a.m., Farms policemen Eugene Boylan and Philip Miglio noticed a six foot by three foot window broken in the front of Briggs Pharmacy, 18544 Mack.

Investigating the breakage, they found a flat stone inside the store which had been used to break the window. They immediately contacted the owner of the pharmacy, Theodore Briggs, who later reported $150 in cash missing from the cash register.

The Briggs pharmacy was the scene of a robbery less than two weeks ago, when a man armed with a blue steel revolver entered the store at 7:30 p.m. and demanded the money in the cash register. There were $25 dollars in the register. No one was hurt during the robbery.

Less than an hour later, Farms policemen Philip Miglio and Clarence Reichling were on patrol and noticed the front door of Artona Barber Shop, 18416 Mack, standing open.

It soon became apparent that a burglar had broken a 27 inch by 27 inch window in the front door and had then broken a 24 inch by 24 inch window in the inner front door thus gaining entry to the shop.

In this break-in, the Farms detectives have some clues to go on, since the burglar cut himself in attempting to enter the store. Blood was found on the broken glass, the door knob and the cash register. Moreover, two pieces of blue cloth were found, one just inside the outer door and a second piece in the glass of the outer door.

Kerby School Having Social

There's going to be a "Super Social" at Kerby School, 285 Kerby road, Saturday, April 22, which features something for everyone.

The youngsters can sample hot dogs, pop, super sundaes and cones, plus attend the game rooms, cartoon carnival, cake walk or see the Great Tapoc, magician. Meanwhile, the adults can browse through the White Elephants, clothing articles and baked goods.

Doors open at 10 a.m. with the social ending at 3 p.m. Kerby youngsters will be most grateful for your support.

The owner of Artona Barber Shop, Louis Codispoli, was notified at 6:15 a.m. Surveying his shop, he reported the loss of a 19 inch Zenith black and white television set, $10 in change from the cash register, and $2 in bills from a box next to the register.

The investigation of both burglaries is in the hands of the Farms detectives.

Social Studies at North Stimulating Experience

By Pepper Whitelaw
 Social Studies as taught at North High School constitute living study. It's study in action. Gone are the days when students sat glued to their books reading and memorizing.
 Today they have the opportunity to hear, see and question persons involved in the activities they study. To date some 88 resource speakers have addressed classes in Civics, U. S. Government, Economics, Psychology, Sociology and American History at North.
 They discussed federal, state and local government, civil rights, the labor movement, the stock market, banking, taxation, the courts, crime, socialism, racism, women's lib, the age of majority, the family and the American Indian.
 Speakers are usually invited to appear near the end of the major study units as part of the culminating activities. Generally they appear alone although sometimes two or more speak during the same period in order to give two points of view or further information on the topic being discussed.

 If the subject under examination is controversial, the teacher arranges to have both points of view presented during the same unit. This program enables North's social studies teachers to use team teaching methods which combine two or more classes for one presentation.
 John H. Corbin, head of North High's Social Studies Department, said he was pleased with the success of this program and has appreciated the encouragement and support given it by the school administration.
 Ernest J. Hurst, civics and economics teacher, said teachers found outside speakers extremely helpful in giving students a greater depth and understanding of the many units of study.
 A large percentage of the speakers who have appeared at North this year live in The Pointe area.
 The students' reaction to this kind of learning is, "We want more of the same!"

Offer Students New Program

A new program designed to help students in The Grosse Pointe Public School System become more knowledgeable about current issues and events has just been launched, according to Roger McCaig, Curriculum Associate in the Department of Instruction.

Beginning the week of April 17, each elementary and middle school is scheduled each week to have one-day access to a 10-minute news program produced by Grosse Pointe children and recorded on video tape.

Each program will deal with local, state, national, and international issues and news events, with the content and format to be determined by the producing class and teacher.

"Other objectives of the program are to give teachers a springboard for current events, to help each teacher and each building plan a systematic format for a really current current events program, and to give students experiences in research, and in organizing and presenting ideas," Mr. McCaig said.

Teachers who have volunteered for the project include sixth grade instructors David R. King of Barnes and Robert Graham of Defer. Fifth grade teachers are Mrs. Leone Bennett, George Goodwin, and Mrs. Jean Snell, of Maire, Mrs. Mercedes Jacobs of Mason, and Mrs. Mary Owens of Richard.

Elementary Resource Teachers in the various buildings will help the teachers do the videotaping. Sources consulted for the 10-minute tapes include regular television and radio news-casts, newspapers and magazines. The presentation format may vary from a long discussion of an important single issue to a series of 30-second spots. Plans will be made at each building for all fourth, fifth and sixth graders to view the tape. Viewing will be optional for other students at the discretion of teachers and the principal.

The evaluation and research aspects of the project have not been neglected, according to Mr. McCaig. "Prior to the first viewing of a videotape, an assessment of student knowledge about current events will be made. A reassessment will be made after a five-week program. The assessment instrument will be developed and issued by the Department of Instruction," he concluded.

Burglar Takes Plenty of Loot

A breaking and entering in The Woods Wednesday, April 12, resulted in the reported loss of furniture and various electrical equipment valued around $1,247.

Officer Wayne Baum received a report from a Hampton road resident that someone entered the building by reaching through the window opening in the front door, (glass wasn't present in the window), and unlocking the door. The opening was reportedly covered by a piece of dark paper over which a bamboo shutter had been nailed.

The items taken include a 10-foot powder blue velvet couch valued at $500; a five-foot love seat matching the couch at $200; a three-foot contemporary lamp at $45; a three and a half-foot brass lamp at $60; a Westinghouse steam iron at $20; a Sunbeam steam iron at $15.

More items are two Craftsman tool boxes with miscellaneous mechanics tools, one at $50, the other, $40; a Panasonic AM-FM stereo record player with hidden turntable at $200; a one-foot long rectangular black light at $15; a souvenir machete, black, at $2, and a black and white nine inch Panasonic television set at $100.

election to fund the libraries. In the resolution, Mr. Thurner also announced the formation of a long-range planning committee to conduct a study in depth as to how public library service can best be provided in the future.

It was noted in the resolution that library service has already been drastically reduced, and that "any further reduction will permanently damage the Grosse Pointe Public Library as a viable institution."

To Support Millage

The resolution stated: "This Board of Directors respectfully requests and urges that the Grosse Pointe Board of Education provide a separate ballot for any public library funds that may be included in the coming election, so that the voters will have the opportunity to indicate their support of public library service."

The Friends also pledged their support in passing the millage election.

Youths Face Drug Charge

Two 20-year-old youths have been charged with possession of narcotics and are awaiting their court date of Wednesday, April 19.

The pair were apprehended by Farms patrolmen Gerald Deburghgraeve and Thomas Kelly early Tuesday morning, March 28. The policemen were on routine patrol, traveling east on Mack avenue, when they noticed a white '62 Chevrolet containing three youths.

The vehicle turned into Mack avenue from Kerby, traveled east on Mack, turned left and traveled west on Mack, and finally turned right into Newcastle road. The police stopped the car at Mack and Newcastle for making improper turns and failing to signal.

As Patrolman Deburghgraeve was questioning the driver, Joseph H. Tavery, 20, 863 University, he detected a strong odor of marijuana. Patrolman Kelly, who was standing on the passenger side of the car, also detected the odor.

The three youths were asked to exit the car. As the driver exited, according to the police report, he had difficulty walking and the pupils of his eyes were dilated. Searching the car, the police found no trace of drugs, however a small tin-foil packet containing a white powdery substance was found near the suspects.

Later at the Farm police station, a plastic bag containing suspected marijuana and a hashish-type pipe were found in the coat pocket of one of the youths.

The Farms police charged the driver, Joseph Tavery, and the passenger, Stephen M. Regal, 20, 21610 Newcastle, Harper Woods, with violation of the Farms narcotics ordinance. The driver also was issued a traffic violation for failure to signal a left turn.

The third youth, an 18-year-old girl from Utica, was released after the Farms police determined that she was hitch-hiking on Mack and was picked up less than 10 minutes before the arrest.

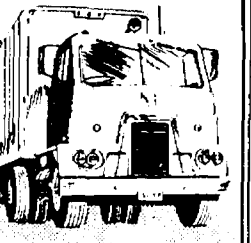

Give Suspect Sobering Time

A resident of Manor avenue called Farms police Friday night, March 24, to report a suspicious man wandering in the area. Last seen, the man was walking north on Manor between houses.

The Farms police located the man on the porch of 463 Manor. Upon questioning, the suspect gave conflicting reasons for being in the area, had trouble speaking and walking, and smelled of intoxicants. Police confirmed his story of recently drinking in a bar on Mack avenue.

The suspect, who was 38 years old and a resident of Detroit, was taken to the Farms police station.

Public Schools in Focus

By Dr. Theos I. Anderson,
Superintendent of Schools

Events are moving rapidly in the Detroit schools desegregation case. So rapidly, in fact, that what follows may be very much out of date by the time you read it. Nevertheless, I believe that all Grosse Pointers should have as complete an understanding as possible of this issue.

On March 28 Judge Roth issued a ruling stating that any plan of desegregation limited solely to the geographical boundaries of the City of Detroit would not be constitutionally adequate for the purpose of desegregating the Detroit school system. In reaching this conclusion, Judge Roth is reported to have relied heavily on the opinion issued in the somewhat similar case in Richmond, Virginia.

Therefore, it is no longer a question whether or not suburban districts will be involved; now it is a question of the kind of a metropolitan plan that Judge Roth will seek to have implemented.

During recent weeks Judge Roth has been holding hearings on proposed metropolitan plans of desegregation. Our attorney has been attempting to emphasize what he believes to be the general legal impropriety of a metropolitan plan of desegregation and also the practical impossibility of implementing any kind of metropolitan plan by September of 1972.

If and when Judge Roth issues a final order directing the implementation of a metropolitan desegregation plan, it is possible to seek a stay of execution. If he does not concur in this request, it is possible to request a stay from the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals. If that court does not permit it, it is possible to go directly to the United States Supreme Court.

"It is our very frank opinion that this particular Detroit desegregation case is probably one of the most important and far-reaching in the entire area of school desegregation since Brown vs. the Topeka Board of Education case in 1954," Douglas West, attorney for the Board of Education, said recently.

On the Washington scene, the Higher Education Act, the bill containing the essence of the Broomfield amendment, (no new busing until July, 1973), is still in the Joint House and Senate Conference Committee. Although the Committee is now meeting on a regular basis, no information is forthcoming. When the deliberations conclude, $650 will be known as a "conference report" and will be returned to both the House and Senate for approval or rejection. It must pass or fail in the Congress as it has been reworked by the Conference Committee, no amendments are possible on the floor. If it passes, it goes to the President for his signature. Since the Higher Education Act is over 700 pages in length, it probably will not be out of Committee for another month.

President Nixon proposed two bills following his late

March "fireside chat" on busing. (1) The Student Transportation Moratorium Act of 1972 is on the calendar of the Senate Judiciary Committee, but will not be acted on until after the ITT hearings, which may end by Friday, April 21. We have been advised by Senator Griffin's office to contact the Chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee to urge that the ITT hearings be concluded as rapidly as possible so that the STMA can be scheduled for a hearing. Write immediately to: Senator James O. Eastland, Chairman, Senate Judiciary Committee, Washington, D.C. 20510. (2) The Equal Educational Opportunity Act of 1972 which is currently the subject of hearings in the Education Subcommittee of the Labor and Public Welfare Committee. We understand that this contains nothing specifically, (or overtly), related to busing.

An aide contacted in Senator Griffin's office reports that the Senator received 9,000 letters against cross-district busing during the month of March, with 200 for it. During the week of March 31, the Griffin office received 1500 letters favoring the Nixon proposals, with 100 letters against them. Senator Griffin's staff say he knows how people in Michigan feel about forced cross-district busing.

Shores Police Testing Cars

By Roger A. Waha

The Shores Department of Public Safety is currently experimenting with an intermediate size police car with the possibility of changing the entire fleet over from the standard size, if the smaller size proves out.

One intermediate size car, a 1972 Torino, was delivered Monday, April 3, to the department and police have reportedly found this auto more maneuverable than the standard size model. West Coast studies have found the smaller size car more maneuverable in traffic, and that it actually outperforms the larger size vehicle, according to the department.

The new Torino isn't colored black either, but blue. The department reports that this conforms with the recommendation of the President's Commission on Crime and Disorders to get away from the black color.

Whether the whole fleet changes over is up to the men who use the equipment. Each officer is scheduled to turn in his own evaluation sheet on the intermediate size car in six months. Then the final decision will be made.

The department conducted a factfinding study on the different size cars before obtaining the Torino. One shortcoming, however, to the intermediate is that many police officers are generally big men and the intermediate, in comparison to the standard size vehicle, does lack room.

Sabres Finish Great Season

The Grosse Pointe Sabres Bantam Hockey team completed their season Saturday, April 1, by downing the Livonia Travellers 4-2. Rick Fabbri climaxed a fantastic season by scoring his 80th goal with 1:15 left in the game. The win climaxed a string of games, which dated back to mid-January, which saw the Sabres lose only six out of their last 43 games. The team's overall record ended at 57 wins, 35 losses, and 13 ties.

It was a frustrating but successful year for the team, which ended up second best in everything. They finished second in their league standings, losing out to Fraser on the last day of the season.

The Sabres were also runners-up to Trenton in the Silver Stick Tournament and runners-up to St. Clair Shores in the District Playdowns. The season was finished up by yet another disappointment—a loss to Fraser in the final game of the playoffs.

Fabbri was the leading scorer on the team with 80 goals. He also led in points with 136, winning goals with 17, and tying goals with five. Jeff Butcher led in assists with 65 and Paul Marshall led in penalty minutes with 256.

The team's awards dinner was held Sunday, April 9. Each member of the team received a trophy which read "Bantam-one-Travel Team," a distinction the team gained on February 3 by beating the G.P. Blues, 3-0, thus becoming the top Bantam team in the Grosse Pointe area.

Individual trophies were also presented. Brian Carron received the Unsung Hero Award and Marshall, the Aggressive Player Award. The team's Three Star Awards went to Fabbri (first), John Batten (second), and Butcher (third).

The most coveted award, the Most Valuable Player Trophy, went to goaltender Brad Mitseff. He ended the season with a 1.85 goals against average and 22 shut-outs. Mitseff had a great season and played superbly in every crucial game. The final award went to Mr. Peter S. Logan who was named "Mr. Sabre."

At the party the Suburban League's All-Stars, including four Sabres, were announced: Mitseff and Fabbri on the first team, and Butcher and Batten on the second squad.

Hats off to the members of the Sabres team who did such a fine job in representing their city throughout the past season. They include forwards Butcher, Fabbri, Russ Green, Pat Fox, Peter Logan, Carron, John Lange, Larry Buhl, and Bill Bellomo; defencemen Batten, Marshall, Rick Fruehauf, and Tom Michaels; goalie Mitseff; manager and coach Mike Merritt, and assistant coaches Jim Rini and Peter S. Logan.

GP Seals Dump Dearborn To Win Bantam Ice Title

The Seals, one of three Grosse Pointe entries in the South-East Michigan Hockey League, won the third and final round of the league's playoffs Friday, March 31, as they upset favored Dearborn Heights, 5-3, in the new Warren arena.

As far as the Seals were concerned it was by far their best performance of the season as they kept on the attack for much of the game, keeping their opponent off the score sheet until midway in the second and final period.

Dearborn was coming off a 6-1 trouncing of Pontiac to qualify for the finals while the Seals edged the Grosse Pointe Chiefs, 2-1, the night before in Royal Oak. In that game, Jeff Lubeck and Dave Smith scored for the Seals.

It was Don Rentz who opened the scoring against Dearborn as he fired home a shot which beat the Heights goalie cleanly. Mike Andary, assisted. From this point on it was all the Seals in first period action.

Bill Gilbride scored the Seals' second goal as he poked the puck by the startled Heights netminder after Andary set up the play. Then Larry Smith cashed in on a pretty play in front of the Dearborn net as he tipped in Rentz's shot.

Even with this three goal lead the Seals continued to press. They were soon rewarded as Bob Schomer blasted home a point shot, with less than two minutes remaining in the first period. Rentz assisted on the marker.

Midway through the final period Dearborn broke the ice, scoring three times. Seals goalie Gordie Kirouac had made several spectacular saves earlier, and if it wasn't for his brilliant netminding, the outcome might have been different.

When it appeared certain that Dearborn would tie the score, Ehrlich, the team captain, broke into the Dearborn end and fed a perfect pass to Lubeck, who screamed a shot past the Heights goalie.

This final goal came with only 41 seconds remaining and, even though Dearborn pulled their goalie, there was no further scoring by either team. With this victory, the Seals became the South-East Michigan Hockey League Bantam champions for the 1971-72 season.

The season has been an exciting one for the Seals as they finished in second place during the regular season in the six-team league. Ironically enough, the team that edged them out for season honors was Dearborn Heights.

Leading point getters during the season and in playoff competition include Lubeck with 16 goals, 13 assists for 29 points; Dave Smith, 15-12 for 29; Gilbride, 10-12 for 22, and Ehrlich, 11-11 for 22.

Ehrlich, Dave Smith, Gilbride and Lubeck scored the three-goal "hat trick" in league games for the Seals. Netminder Kirouac in 28

Nine GP Girls Win in Water

Nine Grosse Pointe girls competed and won awards in the Girls A.A.U. Swimming Age Group Championships of Michigan. The meet, which drew the finest swimmers in Michigan, was held the weekend of April 8-9 at Oakland University. More than 500 swimmers and 30 swim teams participated in the aquatic action.

Representing the Grosse Pointe Park Swim Club were Marsha Maurer, Star Hessburg, and Mickey and Megan Montagne. Miss Maurer, competing in the 15-17 age group, placed fifth in the 100-yard breaststroke event and qualified for the finals of the 200-yard breaststroke event, but was disqualified.

Miss Hessburg, also swimming in the 15-17 age group, placed sixth in the 200-yard breaststroke event. Megan Montagne, swimming in the 11-12 age group, placed in four events, taking a second in the 200-yard freestyle, a third in the 100-yard freestyle, a fourth in the 50-yard freestyle, and a fifth in the 100-yard butterfly event.

Megan's sister, Mickey, representing the 13-14 age group, was a triple winner, taking the 100-yard and 200-yard backstroke events. She also won the 50-yard freestyle and placed second in the 100-yard freestyle event. Park swimmers are coached by Tim Kennary.

Representing the Detroit Yacht Club were Pointers Carra Sheridan, Betsy Brieden, Lauri Ott, and Joanne Pelleritto.

These four girls placed fifth in the 15-17 200-yard medley relay. Placing in individual events for the D.Y.C. were Miss Ott with two sixth-place finishes in the 500-yard freestyle and the 200-yard individual medley and Miss Brieden with a fourth-place finish in the 100-yard breaststroke event. The D.Y.C. girls are coached by Jeff Longstreth.

Representing the Grosse Pointe Swim Club was Frances Shook, who competed in the 9-10 age group. She placed second in both the 50- and 100-yard breaststroke events and is coached by Roy Pouliot.

games allowed 60 goals for a 2.14 average.

SOS Captures Championship

Star of the Sea's eighth graders captured the Catholic Youth Organization (CYO) City Basketball Cham-

ampionship recently by overpowering SS. Peter and Paul 60-44. The Sailors utilized a fast-break offense and a pressing defense to exhaust the slower west side team. As a result the Jets normally hot-shooting quintet went cold, as they were forced into many costly errors. Star of the Sea led at half-time 29-21, and continued to outdistance SS. Peter and Paul throughout the second half.

Doug Koepsell had an outstanding game, picking up 28 points and 17 rebounds. Phil Humes ended his season with 17 points and 13 rebounds. Mike Smith tallied 8 points and 10 rebounds before fouling out. The victory left Star of the Sea with an unblemished record of 25 wins and no defeats. The Sailors also won the Austin Thanksgiving Tournament, The Bishop Gallagher Christmas Tournament, and the Notre Dame Christmas Tournament. This record is complemented by an undefeated football season with most of the boys having competed in both sports.

Here's an oddity. Almost everything important that ever happened in the life of Thomas Jefferson had the figure "3" in it somewhere. Jefferson was the 3rd U.S. President. He was born April 13, 1743. He was the 3rd child born in his family. He died at age 83. And, perhaps his major achievement was writing the Declaration of Independence, which he wrote at the age of 33! And, here's another interesting fact . . . times change and now more and more people are using carpeting for every room of the home. For instance: kitchen carpeting adds to the charm of any kitchen decor. Why not consider it . . . we'd like to help you make your selection.

What Goes On at Your Library
 By Virginia Leonard

Guest Columnist: William T. Peters
PUBLIC LIBRARIES . . . WHO NEEDS THEM?

"One obligation resting upon every public institution in a democracy is that of standing ready at all times to render an account of itself to the people and to show cause why they should continue to support it. No institution is so lordly that its right to existence is beyond challenge, and none, except perhaps public monuments, can rightfully claim present consideration on the basis of past distinction." Gerald W. Johnson wrote these words in 1956 in the preface of a monograph entitled "Public Library Service."

Why should the public library exist at all? This is the first, basic question in the minds of taxpayers, and it is reasonable to answer it from their standpoint, not from that of library workers.

Libraries are service organizations and their product is service.

Whether you're in school or out of school, young or old, married or single, your library serves you.

Whether you own a house or rent an apartment, are employer or unemployed, male or female, your library serves you.

Whether you have a Ph.D. or are a high school drop-out, are rich or poor, Democrat or Republican or Independent, your library serves you.

Whether you read books or listen to records, look at films or attend lectures, build furniture or sing in a chorus, your library serves you.

Yes, your public library serves you, whoever you are or whatever you are. It can even help you determine WHO YOU ARE.

A first obligation of a public library is to serve ALL THE PEOPLE. This is also an obligation, but it is also a great challenge. How do you go about providing service to 70,000 potential patrons? Potential, because not all of the 70,000 use the library, although all are recipients, either directly or indirectly of its services.

The Grosse Pointe Public Library was organized in 1929 as an activity of the Grosse Pointe Public School System and became a part of its program of continuing education.

Today, as never before, continuing education is a very necessary part of the full life. And continuing education is not limited to adults; even the schoolboy coming to the library with nothing but better grades in mind, discovers incidentally the fascination of books that have nothing to do with his homework. That arouses in him the hunger, latent in all normal minds, for the extension of knowledge and experience that books can give, and from that moment he is on the way to becoming an educated man.

It has often been said that we are all prisoners, if not of stone walls and iron bars, yet of our own limitations.

The late Dr. Robert Lindner compared the individual life to a triangle shut in by three walls that set limits to what we can accomplish. One wall is our common mortality; it is rigid and immovable, for death comes to all men. The second is our native capacity, physical and mental; it is not quite so unyielding, for capacity can be developed to some extent. The third is our wall of our ignorance and ineptitude; but this one has doors that can be unlocked.

We are restricted to our own length of days and to our own energy, but not to our own knowledge and skill; the accumulated wisdom of the race is available to anyone who can read a book.

The key to this broader world is the possession of books, and parenthetically we should add audio-visual materials, but if the door stands wide open there is no need of a key. It is the business of the public librarian to keep the door open and to see that no stumbling-block lies in the way of those who would enter.

Access to the truth must in a democracy be easy and rapid for anyone who seeks it. For the overwhelming majority, the quickest and easiest access to the world's best thought is through the public library. To maintain this source of information open to all and unpolluted by any self-seeking interest is a task important beyond all computation, not to ourselves alone but to all people.

Our public library is a public institution, which means that responsibility for its existence is dual. Its operation is in the hands of public servants who are specialists; its support is in the hands of public taxpayers.

This week we are celebrating National Library Week, a week set apart to honor all the libraries of our country. This year's theme is "Books Bring People Together." Visit your public library, determine for yourself if it is worthy of your support—you, after all, have the final say.

Worldwide Representation

On The Subject of Movies

The Production Code and Rating Administration of the Motion Picture Association of America, which rates a completed film as to its suitability for various age groups, currently gives four classifications: "G," general audiences, all ages admitted; "PG," parental guidance suggested, some material may not be suitable for pre-teenagers; "R," restricted, persons under 17 years aren't admitted unless accompanied by a parent or adult guardian, and "X," no one under 17 admitted, (the age limit may vary in different parts of the United States).

Three of The Pointes have recently taken action at regular council meetings to discourage "X" rated films from the community. The Farms was the first to do so Monday, March 6; then The Woods Monday, March 20, and finally The Park Monday, March 27.

The Park adopted the wording of The Farms' resolution: that the council "is in principle strongly opposed to the public showing in this City, of motion pictures which are generally rated 'X' under current rating standards of the industry." The Woods' resolution, on the other hand, indicated the council's "strong opposition to the showing of motion pictures which are generally rated 'X' under current rating standards of the industry, in this or any other city." What The Woods has to say about "any other city" showing "X" rated films is superfluous.

Despite the good intentions of the respective councils, their resolutions hint at censorship and its ominous effects—restriction and restraint. The motivation for these resolutions is obviously the recent outcry from various groups against Stanley Kubrick's "A Clockwork Orange," which is still doing well at the Woods II Theatre.

The Farms, Woods and Park Councils are undoubtedly concerned about the moral fiber and the physical and mental well-being of The Pointe Community. And many residents are probably disturbed over the current portrayal of sex and violence on the screen. But I question the means to the end with the resolutions.

First, the idea of discouraging all "X" rated films from the community is absurd. Granted there are many so-called "skin flick" pictures that the serious moviegoer wouldn't give the time of day, and which are made for no other reason than to garner the swiftest amount of money in the shortest amount of time. But there also are "X" rated films, such as Kubrick's "Clockwork" and John Schlesinger's "Midnight Cowboy," which are made by intelligent, thoughtful directors. They utilize the medium to present an artistic vision of man in his world. Whether we like and/or approve of a director's approach and treatment of his material is mainly a question of aesthetic judgment. But he should have the complete freedom to express his viewpoint and the prospective viewer should have the complete freedom to see his film.

Secondly, what, then, is to stop the ball from rolling over "R" rated films? I should guess that there are some "R" rated films which viewers might find more "shocking" (in a general sense), than an "X" rated film regarding sex and/or violence, (which, of course, should and MUST be considered in the context of a film). In fact, it's possible that some viewers may think an "R" film should, from their perspective, be rated "X" and vice versa. For example, Sam Peckinpah's two brilliant films, "The Wild Bunch" and "The Straw Dogs," both rated "R," have created more "screams" than the "X" rated "Midnight Cowboy."

There has been, in fact, some displeasure regarding the MPAA's ratings. The National Council of Churches and the Catholic Office for Motion Pictures jointly declared in June 1971 that they would no longer support the Production Code and Rating Administration because of their alleged laxness of its application.

The best way to avoid "X" rated films, or any other film showing in the community, is simply not to see it. If you wish to skip a film just because it's "X" rated wherever it may be showing, and you happen to miss a picture by a Kubrick or a Schlesinger, that's your loss. But it's presumptuous to strongly discourage someone else who may want to see a certain film, "X" rated or otherwise, in a specific area. If that adult wishes to see the picture, so be it. It's HIS choice, HIS money and HIS right to do so.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Sir:—
 In response to Mrs. Steen's letter of April 6, 1972, may I offer the following comments.

Grosse Pointe has an excellent school system, and I have been very appreciative and supportive of it. However, I believe Mrs. Steen is taking an optimistic viewpoint at this time. Our wonderful educational opportunities here may no longer be available to our children—not because of a millage defeat, but because Judge may so decide. His prerogative of manipulating our children as pawns in a game will also deprive us of the right to continue the neighborhood school concept.

Furthermore, the trend is to eliminate property taxes, along with our right to vote for millage based on our property assessment, and to substitute state income taxes to finance schools with the right of the state to impose rates.

I believe the "no" votes in surrounding communities reflect the fact that the taxpayers are saying "no" to the above-mentioned trend and to the situation in the courts.

I would be more than willing to support our local educational system—it would be to the advantage of my children. However, is it logical to refuse to vote in higher school millage if our children may be denied attendance to our local schools?

Is this viewpoint pessimistic or realistic? I would love to be completely wrong!!!!!! Could we hear some other viewpoints?

Sincerely,
 Vera Black

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By JANET MUELLER

The Women's Auxiliary to Cottage Hospital presents its Kitchen Tour and Pantry Sale Thursday, May 18, this year, and, as usual, the Cottage ladies have arranged an absolutely smashing afternoon line-up.

You could start touring in the Woods, where a two-for-one parking stop in South Renaud road brings you to the yellow and orange Mediterranean Fiesta kitchen of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ciesielski AND the Symphony in Blue kitchen of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tocco, built around a set of blue and white dishes Mrs. Tocco fell in love with at the Sign of the Mermaid two years ago.

You could start at the other end of town, in the Park, at the Portuguese Country kitchen of Mr. and Mrs. James Waterston, of Devonshire road, done in tones of brown and gray, black and white, with flooring of brick tile, herringbone in design and very unusual.

In between there's the Serious Cook's kitchen at the Cloverly road home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lambrecht, Jr., with its green and red wallpaper and unique liquor cabinet, built into the counter. That brick floor, incidentally, was set in place, piece by piece, by Mr. Lambrecht.

And there's the Old World Charm kitchen of Mr. and Mrs. W. Merritt Jones, Jr., of University place, with its unusual pieces from England and France.

AND there's Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Hadley's From Old to New on a Warm Spring Day kitchen, in Yorkshire road, with its chosen-by-the-children mod wallpaper. This is a "before and after" kitchen, and the Hadleys have kept pictures to remind them of the "before."

You'll want—of course!—to allow time for a look-in at Cottage's Nurses' Residence in Ridge road, where the Pantry Sale will be in progress all through Tour hours, from 1 to 5 o'clock.

Tickets are $2.50 each and are available from ticket chairman Mrs. Frank Olkowski, 884-5832, right now. They may be purchased the day of the Tour at any of the homes on the Tour, or at the Nurses' Residence.

One Cello Missing

The dulcet tones of the cello often heard emanating from the Paul Eliason home in Balfour road have been slightly muted lately, for Mrs. Eliason (Mary) has loaned one of her instruments to Art Gohle, who is directing Fine Arts Society members in "The Absence Of A Cello," to be presented tomorrow and Saturday evenings, April 21 and 22, at The Players Playhouse in East Jefferson avenue.

Benefit Aids Tumor Clinic

The Women's Auxiliary of Children's Hospital of Michigan is pleased to announce that its Morning of Music was a resounding success, with an April 5 Open Rehearsal of the Detroit Symphony featuring guest artist Gina Bachauer well received. Not only was the beautiful music enjoyed by a large number of people: the money that it brought in topped a set goal of $10,000—and there's money still to be turned in! This assures that Children's Hospital's Tumor Clinic will be able to operate throughout the coming year.

So are the things that come out of our bottles. Our shampoos are clean as country air. Our conditioners smell like pink chiffon if pink chiffon could smell. Our setting lotions have little traces of wood violets and jonquils and such. All of which means we care almost as much about how your hair smells and feels as we do about how it looks. If you care about things like this too, see us. You'll not only have prettier hair, it'll never smell good-er.

Let's Make America Beautiful Again!

Once upon a time there was a beautiful country. Clean and clear with sparkling streams, majestic trees, bright blue skies, happy people. America was beautiful from sea to shining sea. Then times changed. People became careless. They threw their bottles and cans and trash anywhere and everywhere. Streams were clogged. Beaches became unusable. The mighty forests were ruthlessly destroyed. The people became ashamed but no one knew what to do.

But now DRAPER'S FINE FURNITURE has a plan! Yes, everybody talks about ecology these days... but YOU and WE are going to do something about it! We are offering you a ready-to-plant tree seedling AT NO CHARGE! All we ask is your promise to plant the tree as your contribution to a more beautiful America. Remember, a tree not only beautifies your home and increases its value, but it also creates natural air conditioning, builds a buffer against noise, and acts as a filter to help control dust and pollution. And it's yours FREE -- right here!

We'd also like to remind you that this is the time of the year for home beautification too. And you're coming just to the right place for that! We'll show you dozens of colorful ways to liven up your decor and bring the warmth and fresh feeling of Spring into your home. And since we've got to make room for the new stock coming in every day, we've dozens of special values to offer -- which we are highlighting with a tag that says "A BEAUTIFUL BUY!" These are all offered on a first-come-first-served basis, as are the trees, so we suggest you come in soon. It's really a double opportunity -- the chance to add beauty outdoors -- and indoors too -- right in your own home...and RIGHT NOW!

Sincerely,
Howard Draper
President

Star Of Sea Rites For Miss Thieman

Reception at Lochmoor Club Follows Evening Ceremony at Which She Is Wed to John Kent Fristoe

Our Lady Star of the Sea Church was the scene of the wedding of Christine Marie Thieman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thieman, of Woods lane, and John Kent Fristoe Friday evening, April 7. A reception at Lochmoor Club followed the 6:30 o'clock rites.

For the ceremony, at which Father Joseph Hartman O.S.A. presided, the bride chose a gown of ivory satin appliqued with Alencon lace at her fitted bodice and organza-ruffled hemline.

Matching lace edged her floor-length silk illusion veil and she carried a bouquet of butterfly white roses, stephanotis, ivy and baby's-breath sprayed in her favorite color, lavender.

In lilac voile flounce-hemmed frocks, their bodices accented with mint, pink and lilac embroidery, were honor attendant Sharon Kopitsky and bridesmaids Mary Lou Reeber, Barbara Monahan, Jo Gustafson and Coleen McIntyre, of Peebles, Ohio.

They wore wide-brimmed lilac picture hats and carried poppouri bouquets of spring flowers.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fristoe, of Peebles, asked Jerry Edwards, of Peebles, to act as best man. Guests were seated by Joseph Thieman, the bride's brother; Mike Molnar, her cousin, and Burrell McCoy and Mark McIntyre, of Peebles.

Flower girl was Susan Kopitsky. Mark Fristoe, the bridegroom's nephew, of Peebles, was ring bearer.

A floor-length pink crepe gown fashioned with long, chiffon Bishop sleeves was Mrs. Thieman's choice for her daughter's wedding. She pinned white orchids to her purse.

The bridegroom's mother chose a silver and white ensemble, with a white orchid corsage pinned to her purse.

The newlyweds will make their home in Peebles upon their return from a vacation in northern Michigan.

Among the out-of-town guests were the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Phoebe Fristoe, and his brothers and sisters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Fristoe and Mr. and Mrs. James Fristoe, all of Peebles.

Mayan ruins in Guatemala were a highlight of the Caribbean cruise recently enjoyed by the HENRY S. LEDYARDS, of Lewiston road.

The Agisymba Is Remembered

The new 75-cent stamp issue from the island of Grenada, in the West Indies, is one of the most beautiful we've ever seen, depicting a yacht, sun catching its sails, in the blue waters of the Caribbean with Grenada's green mountains beyond and there's a story behind it of particular interest to Pointers, for the yacht is the Agisymba, the Cal-36 in which the late John Hutchinson and his wife, Nancy, cruised from California to Europe and back.

The Hutchinsons are, as you know, an old Pointe family, (John's sister is Mrs. William D. Laurie, Jr., the former Thayer Hutchinson, of Merriweather road), although Nancy makes her home in Newport Beach, Calif., now.

The stamp is patterned after a Bruce Lynn photo of Agisymba, taken off Grenada during her return passage, and was submitted by Bill Stevens of Stevens Yachts, Grenada. It came as a complete surprise, and great thrill, to Nancy, who couldn't have asked for a more perfect memento of that perfect voyage.

Bird Lovers Take Note

The Grosse Pointe Garden Center has scheduled its second Green Thumb lecture in the Garden Center Room of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. It's planned for next Wednesday morning, April 26, at 10 o'clock and will feature Mrs. Herbert A. Dyer's advice on Planting in the Garden to Attract the Birds.

Mrs. Dyer, invited to speak by Mrs. David C. Lowe, is an avid gardener, a Wellesley College graduate whose mother organized one of the first garden clubs in the United States.

The informal Green Thumb talks are open to all Garden Center members and their gardening friends.

and participate in their various communities. They learn about themselves and the people of the United States.

They observe our government, its successes and its failures. No longer can they judge all Americans by the movies, or by tourists.

Under AFS programs in the past 25 years, about 80,000 teenagers from 80 countries have built bridges of understanding. In the future many of these students will hold responsible positions. The impact of their experiences must be exhibited.

In the past 19 years, Michigan homes have been opened to 1,090 AFS'ers during their stay in the USA. Thousands more have hosted other AFS'ers for short periods of time, during bus trips and weekends.

"AFS on STAGE" is sponsored by the Detroit Metropolitan Board of AFS. Proceeds will provide funds for AFS international scholarships and activities for AFS'ers in Michigan.

Tickets, at $7 each, may be obtained from any AFS Chapter at local high schools hosting a student or from the government in action, to ticket chairman, 534-4185.

The Detroit Metropolitan Board has raised over $55,000 for scholarships since its first AFS Festival in 1961. This year the board has planned and financed tours to Lansing to see Michigan's

AAUW Reports On Delinquents

Copies of "Juvenile Delinquency in Michigan: A Call to Action," the report on a state-wide study initiated by the Michigan Division of the American Association of University Women, have been received by the Grosse Pointe Branch, reports Mrs. Richard Edin, local president.

This call to action stems from findings of a year's study of state and county detention facilities for juveniles, the juvenile justice system and its programs for youth in trouble throughout the state.

Forty of the state's 61 AAUW branches, including the Grosse Pointe Branch, shared in that survey at the county level, and forms were sent directly to judges and law enforcement officers in areas where no AAUW branch is located.

The report from Grosse Pointe, written by Mrs. Roger Marshall, is based on a lengthy interview with Probate Judge James H. Lincoln conducted by Mrs. Marshall and Mrs. Robert Hatcher.

Serving on the Division Ad Hoc committee from the Grosse Pointe Branch was Mrs. William Kirby, Michigan Division Legislative Program chairman.

The Michigan Division is supporting broad community programs for the prevention of delinquency and rehabilitation of delinquents. Since prevention is related to education and training, AAUW recommends state-supported school counseling be instituted in the early years of elementary school, and that all schools should develop concrete alternatives to expelling disruptive students.

Other recommendations include making separate facilities available for non-delinquent children; giving probation judges the right to waive child labor laws for those who are trained; more money for state and local programs; a cross-county data bank on delinquent children to be located in the Office of Youth Services; community follow-up on youngsters from state training schools; in-service training senting the Grosse Pointe Branch of AAUW. Representatives of other branches from all over Wayne County were present. A decision was made to form an AAUW Advisory and Action committee to pursue implementation of the county recommendations made in the statewide report.

ESCAPE
 to our all-year leisure community near Grand Bend on Lake Huron

How do you refresh yourself from the noise, the traffic, the office and the pressure? The hectic vacation helps, of course, but perhaps you need a weekend retreat you can enjoy all seasons of the year.

Take a day-trip this weekend to see Southcott Pines, the leisure community on Lake Huron. No concrete stilts. No traffic tangles. No flower pots. No manicured lawns. Just trees — white pine, black cherry, red oak, staghorn sumac, green ash, pfitzer juniper — each reflecting the unusual ecology of sand dune vegetation.

You'll find some modest but interesting leisure homes for sale. And you can look at a variety of building lots, all large enough to preserve the natural atmosphere. Winding roads and a private gate, all part of the retreat.

Sun Beach, Pines Park and the Aux Saubles River are among the facilities shared by all property owners in Southcott Pines. You're close to Grand Bend harbour for sail and power boating, and to Oakwood Golf Course, Pinery Provincial Park, Rock Glen and Parkhill Conservation Areas, and to Pineridge Chalet for winter snowmobiling.

If it appeals, you can choose a lot for $6,000. With piped water, paved roads, underground electricity and telephone services. You get a lot light free. And we'll point out the building restrictions.

If you can't come this weekend, write for our brochure "Be part of a legend".

Flower girl was Leigh Bandemer, the bride's sister. Jeffrey Jensen served as the bridegroom's best man. Ushers were Thomas Sanger, Walter Dossin, Michael Boyer, the bridegroom's brother, and Kenneth Bandemer, the bride's cousin.

The mother of the bride wore a long, off-white skirt with a matching blouse and vest, the bridegroom's mother a raspberry linen dress and jacket ensemble with a matching silk scarf.

BYC Promises Tropical Time

No matter what the weatherman has dreamed up for Detroit on Saturday, April 29, it will be all sunshine, coral reefs and flowers at the Detroit Yacht Club, which launches its summer season with an exciting tropical party, Paradise of the Pacific.

According to Ed Joswick, the Club's entertainment chairman, the upstairs dining room will be covered into a Mai Tai Lounge, where exotic drinks for sipping and an Hawaiian trio for listening and dancing will be featured.

A fabulous Polynesian buffet beginning at 8:30 o'clock will offer such Island-inspired goodies as pineapple boats stuffed with fresh fruits, Luau roast suckling pig, Diamond Heat sweet-and-sour chicken, garlic and honey spare ribs, Oahu pine-applied chicken, baked salmon, Molokai fried rice, Maui Tai sweet potatoes, Maui glazed bananas and a Royal Hawaiian dessert.

The decorating committee plans to turn the Club's ballroom into a state of beauty rivaling the 50th state itself. Mr. Joswick even has promised to bring in his own private collection of artifacts purchased from the recently closed Mauna Loa restaurant to lend authenticity.

Entertainment will include a Polynesian floor show featuring the Polynesian girls from the Hawaiian Village, plus popular Jack Qualey and his orchestra. The show will be emceed by Eva McKeon and will end with the Polynesian girls coaxing the women party-goers to participate in a performance of "Tiny Bubbles."

Miss Bologna Wed To Damian D. Toto

Evening Rites Are Followed by Reception at Gourmet House; Newlyweds Vacation in Hawaii, Will Live in Ohio

In a lantern-sleeved ivory satin gown accented with lace appliques matching the lace that edged her long illusion veil, Michaeleen Bologna became the bride of Damian D. Toto Saturday, April 8. She carried white roses and baby's-breath.

Detroit's Holy Family Church was the setting for the early evening rites, which were followed by a reception at the Gourmet House.

Denise Bologna served as her sister's honor attendant. They are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bologna, of Washington road. Bridesmaids were Connie Spisak, Denise Cici and Yvonne DeMatteis.

Pink tulle-trimmed the bodices of their Empire-waisted frocks, fashioned of blue chiffon over taffeta, and they carried arrangements of pink Sweetheart roses, white and blue daisies and baby's-breath, matching the baby's-breath in their hair.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel J. Toto, of Niles, O., asked Peter I. Toto

Austin Begins Fiesta April 21

It's fiesta time at Austin Catholic Prep School as students, alumni, and friends of the school prepare for the Fiesta Mexicana to be held on school grounds this weekend, Friday, April 21, through Sunday, April 23.

To publicize the event, the Austin Mothers Club sponsored a poster contest. Seventeen students from Lawrence Salliotte's art class submitted posters, and four winners were selected.

Mr. Salliotte set the contest rules and gave his students instruction in poster art and lettering.

Judging of the poster contest was done by the Fiesta decorating committee, the Reverend Robert Gardella, Fiesta coordinator, and Mr. Salliotte.

The prize-winning poster, created by student Larry Fox, is familiar to most Pointe residents as it has been displayed throughout the community to publicize the event. Second prize went to Tony Pazarena; third prize to Tom Rabaut; and Greg Nisspolo was the recipient of fourth place honorable mention.

The festival will feature many new and innovative games, and Austin supporters promise fun for every age group. Proceeds from the event go towards scholarships.

There was the year Shirley served as chairman of the Spirit of Detroit Association's Antiques Show Preview at the Light Guard Armory.

That's a Very Big Thing, as far as Lee and Shirley Schoenith are concerned. The Schoeniths have three sons. "The Academy," observes Shirley, "teaches a boy to be an individual in his own right."

Basically, Action Auction-raised funds are used to keep the Academy running. For nine years Lee drove the Schoenith "Gale" boats. Racing took him all over the country and up to the White House for coffee and doughnuts with President Eisenhower. He loved it — still does — and he left it, as an active driver, at the end of the 1958 season, while he'd never been in a really bad smashup, when he'd won everything there was to win.

Shirley breathed a sigh of relief. "I never objected," she notes, "because, after all, I had met him at a boat race. But when he said he might retire, I was delighted!"

For Lee, it was a simple case of the Three B's, Business, Babies and Back, equalling the Big O, Out. The Roostertail had opened, and he was working extremely long hours. Shirley was pregnant again. And Lee's back — he'd never been in a really bad smashup, but powerboat racing is full of bounces — had begun to bother him.

"You've got to have a good mental frame to race," he explains. Given the Three B's, he considered his mental frame not quite good enough. So he retired as a driver, self. Lee and Shirley can't say enough good things about North High. Its facilities, staff and attitude, the fact that such a relatively large school can provide so much personal attention, have thoroughly impressed them.

Mark, 13, is in the seventh grade at the Academy.

Jay, 11, is a sixth grader at Our Lady Star of the Sea, and his mother and father have no plans to move him. Star of the Sea suits Jay. It's his school. Lee and Shirley Schoenith recognize their sons as individuals, with individual requirements and satisfactions.

They are, nonetheless, a closely knit family. Everybody bowls and boats, plays golf and tennis, and mother and father take the boys skiing. Mini-bikes are the young Schoeniths' current craze. They're mostly interested in speed, which figures: From the day they were born, they were indoctrinated in speed, in racing.

"It's hard for me to yell at them too much," says Lee, national hydroplane racing champion in 1953, '54 and '55, listed in the sport's Hall of Fame, "because it, (speeding, racing), is what I've done all my life."

For nine years Lee drove the Schoenith "Gale" boats. Racing took him all over the country and up to the White House for coffee and doughnuts with President Eisenhower. He loved it — still does — and he left it, as an active driver, at the end of the 1958 season, while he'd never been in a really bad smashup, when he'd won everything there was to win.

but he's never retired from the sport. For 11 years, he was powerboating's unlimited racing commissioner for the country, (similar to Pete Rozelle's position in baseball), and he helped to turn the sport professional. He still serves on racing committees, still attends meetings, and Schoenith boats still race, but under sponsorship of other corporations: Smirnoff Vodka, Atlas Van Lines...

"We're the owners, designers and builders. We have complete control of management. We decide who drives, where and when."

Joe, a natural mechanic, (his first words weren't "mama," or "papa," but "Plug it in!"), has inherited his father's fascination for powerboat racing. Joe's gone west with the boat crew, to Idaho and Washington, as a working crew member.

Some day, perhaps, Joe's trophies will join his father's collection, displayed, in part in the billiard room of the Schoeniths' "Lower Level" in Lakeshore road. That Lower Level—you COULDN'T call it a basement!—includes a subterranean garden terrace and a still-shaping-up movie theater viewing room.

The Schoeniths are proud of their house. It's their own project, totally, top to bottom. They were their own architects, their own decorators. "We have nobody we can yell at for anything we don't like here," Lee says. Smiling, Beauce, after all, they have nothing to yell at anybody about: There is a perfect party house, a place where 125 people can gather for a buffet dinner, and not feel crowded...

And a perfect family house, where boys (and parents) can flop on beanbag chairs, and a dog, Gussie, a seven-year-old Schnauzer, and a cat, 10-month-old Herschel Bernardi, and an assortment of nameless fish can live happily together...

And an absolutely great Christmas House! Lee Schoenith is, frankly, a Christmas nut. He begins to look forward to decorating for the holidays when the first autumn leaf begins to turn. Shirley doesn't even attempt to stop him. She's a Christmas nut too. So, as soon as they can think up a good enough excuse to put it up, up goes the giant tree in their rotunda foyer, underneath a dome whose colored lights can be mixed and/or matched to suit any mood, and up go the "little" trees, all over the house. The lighting effects all over the house are equal to those in the rotunda, as everyone who wandered, bedazzled, through it on a recent Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra Christmas Walk can testify.

It took exactly one month less than a year to build. "We broke ground on December 15, 1969, and moved in November 15, 1969."

That was the year Lee and Shirley Schoenith didn't do anything. Much. Now they're back to their old tricks, with Action Auction '72 their big upcoming project, one they're excited about, in a big way, because they're excited about the Grosse Pointe Academy, in a big way.

anything. Much. Now they're back to their old tricks, with Action Auction '72 their big upcoming project, one they're excited about, in a big way, because they're excited about the Grosse Pointe Academy, in a big way.

"We have been so impressed by the way pupils (at the Academy) regard their teachers as friends. We have been so impressed by the amount of individual attention each student receives."

The student-teacher ratio at the 388-pupil Academy is nine to one. It is integrated. The school maintains affiliation with the Sacred Heart nuns, and 65 percent of its students are Catholic.

The Schoeniths are impressed, too, by the courtesy and support of local businessmen. As Action Auction's acquisitions chairman last year, Lee and Shirley were astounded at the generous, enthusiastic response to their request for donations.

Parent enthusiasm also impresses them. "Since we started working on Action Auction, I have never had a refusal from anyone I've asked to help," Shirley observes. "The Academy is, after all, only three years old, but everyone involved with it is so committed to it, so sure that there SHOULD be a school like this... so determined that the beautiful buildings, and grounds, should be preserved..."

"I think," adds Lee, "that keeping this school open is good for the whole community." With three sons in three schools, the Schoeniths are qualified to express their belief that Diversity in Education is a Good Thing.

It's been a Good Thing for them. They want to see it, as a Good Thing, continue.
