TWO HIJACKERS and a passenger were killed in a shoot-out between the hijackers and FBI agents aboard a seized airliner in San Francisco. The FBI identified the air pirates as Dimitrov Alexev, 28, of Hayward, Cal.; and Michael D. Azmanoff, also 28, no known address. The pair were killed by the government agents who had sneaked aboard the plane, and the passenger was killed by gun fire from one of the hijackers' gun. Two other passengers, including veteran movie and television actor, Victor Sen Yung, 56, who plays the cook in the "Bonanza" series, were wounded. Alexev and Azmanoff sought to hijack the aircraft, a 737 jetliner, to Russia, with $800,000 ransom.

Friday, July 7
FOR THE SECOND TIME in as many days, The Pacific Southwest Airlines was hit by hijacking. A gunman held 57 persons aboard a 727 jetliner yesterday, forced the pilot to land in San Diego, Cal., collected $455,000 ransom and took off with only the crew and two hostages. The passengers were permitted to leave the plane, while two volunteers, including a California Highway trooper in plainclothes, remained aboard as hostages. The officer was armed with a revolver, unknown to the hijacker. The air drama began in the skies over Northern California in the evening. The sky pirate did not say where he wanted to be flown, but did state he needed the money "for two organizations in the Middle East crisis."

Saturday, July 8
OFFICIALS of the Soviet Union have made up their minds that they will not permit Hanoi to disrupt relations between the USSR and Communist China, according to a White House source. Citing President Nixon's recent visits to Peking and Moscow, the source said that the three major powers had too much at stake to allow deterioration in their improved relationships. The source said, further, that Hanoi has lost the backing of not only Russia and Red China, but also the rest of the world because of North Vietnam's invasion of South Vietnam by conventional warfare, with all of its military divisions.

Sunday, July 9
PRESIDENT NIXON'S chief diplomatic strategist, Dr. Henry A. Kissinger, believes that Hanoi is ready to talk peace. He said that it appears that North Vietnam would take a new and more reasonable approach to ending the Vietnam war. He said that he expects Le Duc Tho and Xuan Thuy, Hanoi's two top negotiators, to be in Paris on Thursday for talks and left open the possibility that he would go to the French capital to take part in secret negotiations. Kissinger said his chief deputy, Maj. Gen. Alexander Haig, during a fact finding trip to South Vietnam, had found that the Communist offensive has reached its peak and that North Vietnam does not appear to have the capability to launch another massive attack.

Blaze Guts E-Z Market On Sunday

Five Departments Help Confine Fire to Store; Two Firemen Suffer Injuries

A five-alarm fire of unknown origin completely gutted the Shop E-Z Supermarket, 15022-24 Mack avenue, on Sunday, July 9. Firemen from four Pointes and Detroit battled flames for more than an hour before bringing it under control, according to information released by Park Asst. Fire Chief Dave Taylor. Taylor said that an unknown person pulled an alarm from a Detroit firebox, and Detroit firemen and equipment responded. An alarm was sounded at the Park fire station at the same time and Park fire fighters were the first to arrive at the scene. Firefighters from Detroit remained to help, since the Pointes have a reciprocal agreement with that city. As the fire got out of control, a third, fourth and fifth alarm were sent out, which brought personnel and equipment from the City, Farms and Woods. All told, 40 firefighters and 10 pieces of equipment were at the scene battling the flames.

Battle Plans Being Laid By Anti-Busing Groups; Big Meeting Held Monday

Three Local Organizations Solicit Residents' Cooperation; 20,000 Signatures Sought for Petitions

Anti-busing groups are cropping up all over the Pointes. Within the past week the NEWS has spoken with organizers of three local anti-busing groups: Leon Sehoyan, Kenneth Roy and Mrs. Bernard Chaisson. The largest is Mr. Sehoyan's "Bust Bussing" group which met last Monday to discuss further organizational plans. Among those present were many community leaders including Mrs. Michael Grow, Mrs. Frank Charbonneau, Mrs. Reginald Harnett, Mrs. Robert Hammer, Dave Ohlert and Mrs. Vito Saracino. The group's main thrust will be a drive to secure some 20,000 signatures on petitions which will state unequivocally that the underlined will not, under any circumstances, permit their children to be bussed. The committee believes that securing such a petition will give more clout to their stand. They said they would face jail terms rather than submit to this unconstitutional and unfair procedure. The organization is represented by legal counsel James A. Tainielian, who is currently preparing the petition. Those in attendance were a real cross-section of Pointes, natives, new residents

Woods Law Bans Junk Vehicles

Inoperable Cars and Trucks in Outside Storage Target of New City Ordinance

An ordinance to prohibit the outside storage of non-licensed or inoperable automobiles, panel trucks or pick-up trucks within The Woods was unanimously approved by the council at the regular meeting Monday, July 3. The vote was 6-0 with Councilman Kenneth W. Boerner absent. Known as Ordinance No. 334, it becomes effective Monday, July 24. The ordinance's design, as noted by City Attorney George Catlin, is to move inoperable vehicles left in an abandoned condition, and which haven't been moved for a number of years, from private property. City Administrator Chester E. Petersen cited a case where a resident left an auto on blocks for a long period of time in his efforts to restore it. Neighbors, he said, ultimately complained about the unsightly condition. Amend Ordinance "Inoperable automobile, panel truck or pick-up truck," according to the ordinance, means any motor vehicle which is "temporarily or permanently incapable of being moved under its own

Yearly Meeting, Elections Held By School Board

William Huetteman New President; Superintendent Theos Anderson's Contract Renewed For 1973-74 School Year

The Board of Education held its annual meeting on Monday, July 10, in North High School Auditorium. The three-hour session resulted in the election of new officers for the 72-73 school year, reappointment of the attorneys for the school board, Hill, Lewis, Goodrich and Tait, appointment of new members to the Building Committee for South High School, renewal of Superintendent Theos I. Anderson's contract and an open discussion of the busing issue.

New board officers include William F. Huetteman, president; Alfred R. Glancy, Jr., vice-president; William J. Adams, treasurer, and Joan Hanpeter, secretary.

Mr. Glancy, chairman of the committee, requested the president to appoint new members to the building committee since Barbara Thompson and Lee Allen, former members, were no longer on the board, and since some rather pressing matters regarding construction at South High School have arisen. Mr. Huetteman appointed Robert Warner and Joan Hanpeter to the committee.

Two Recesses Taken After two recesses, during which time board members discussed the details of Superintendent Anderson's contract, the board voted (six yeases and one abstention by Donald Semmler), to renew Dr. Anderson's contract for the '73-'74 school year.

The major audience discussion involved Judge Roth's cross-bussing order. During the discussion board attorney Douglas West explained that a consolidated motion by Grosse Pointe, Southfield and the 40 school districts represented by William J. Saxon through Region Nine of the Administrators' Association had been filed. The legal process requires the matter be first presented to Judge Roth. Mr. West said, if, as anticipated, Judge Roth denies the motion, the request for stay will be filed with the U.S. Court of Appeals in Cincinnati.

Basis of Request He said the request for stay is based on all the various general arguments for equitable stay proceeded with the addition of the Broomfield Amendment. He added that the Attorney General could not include the Broomfield Amendment, which prohibits integration plans from being implemented while an appeal is pending, because it did not become effective until July 1. Members of the audience were vehement in their busing attitudes. The majority of those present were opposed to busing their youngsters and indicated they would simply refuse to do so.

Door Left Unlocked The Farms police interviewed the owner and learned that a rear door giving access to the basement room, was left unlocked. A clock radio sharing an electrical socket with the stereo equipment was stopped at 9:20 p.m. that night after the youths left the room. The case took an unusual turn when two friends of Thomas informed police that they left the Lewiston house and hitched a ride in a yellow VW van.

Inside the van, according to their report, they spotted their friend's stereo equipment and told the unknown driver that they recognized it.

The driver immediately pulled a knife and held up the two youths, robbing one of $10, before discharging them at Kercheval and St. (Continued on Page 4)

Four Labor Agreements Given Okay

Every Employee Will Receive Increased Pay and Expanded Benefits This Year

By Kathy Duff
After a month of bargaining sessions, the city of Grosse Pointe Farms and its employes have reached agreement on labor contracts for the 1972-1973 fiscal year.

The Farms had to reckon with four separate labor associations: the Police Officers Association composed of Farms patrolmen; the Police Command Officers Association composed of the corporals, sergeants and lieutenants; the Fire Department Officers; and the Department of Public Works employes, Local 522, Council 23.

The four contracts became effective Saturday, July 1, and will extend to June 30, 1973.

Pay Benefits Hiked Each Farms employe will receive increased pay and expanded benefits for his services in this year. Provisions in the new contracts cover everything from improved health insurance coverage to additional bonus pay for holiday working and longevity.

Farms City Manager Andrew Bremer Jr. commended the professional and business-like attitude which prevailed during the bargaining sessions between The Farms and representatives of the various associations. He noted that the sessions prompted "meaningful discussions" between The Farms administration and its employes.

The Farms patrolmen, represented by The Farms Police Officers Association, will receive salary increases in keeping with Phase II guidelines. Last year, the patrolmen were paid between $10,000 and $12,000 for their law enforcement services. This year, each officer's salary has been raised by $660. Pensions have been adjusted to reflect the increased salaries.

Possible Controversy A possible controversial provision of the officers' contract is the shift in residence requirements. Previously, a patrolman had to live in The Pointes, Harper Woods, St. Clair Shores or East Detroit. City officials, under increasing pressure from the patrolmen, expanded the boundary to include areas such as Sterling Heights, Warren, Hamtramck and Armada. Three days of bereavement (Continued on Page 2)

Three Trapped in Park Fire Saved by Firemen

By James J. Njalm
A fire of unknown origin that gutted the living room of the lower flat occupied by Mrs. Janet Herrick and her two small children on Monday, July 3, is under investigation by the Park Fire Department, according to information released by Fire Chief Phillip Costa. Eight persons, including three trapped on a small porch of the upper flat, were in the building when the fire started. Chief Costa said that the three trapped on the porch were overcome by smoke inhalation, and were given oxygen at the scene after being brought down, and taken to Bon Secours Hospital for further treatment. Treated were Randy Hopkins, 20, and Janet Hopkins, 18, both of 1078 Wayburn, the upstairs flat, and Carole Johnson, 18, of 1481 Wayburn, who was visiting them. Also taken to the hospital for possible smoke inhalation were Mrs. Herrick, 28, and her two children, Lyle, 6, and Beth, who's two-years-old, Paul Price of 6464 West Fort, Detroit, visiting in the lower flat, and William Brown of 15027 East Jefferson, also a visitor who suffered minor burns on both arms. Since none of the persons were ambulance cases, the fire chief said, all of the victims were transported to a hospital by police vehicles. All were treated and released. Chief Costa said that Park firemen responded to the (Continued on Page 2)

Ordinance to Ban Outside Boat Storage Under Fire

By Roger A. Waha
A potent case of "resident power" helped send the proposed ordinance to prohibit the outside storage of boats, boat trailers, house trailers, mobile homes, vacation campers and other equipment for temporary or mobile living quarters within The Woods on a course of further study. For the Woods council unanimously approved a motion referring the ordinance to the Committee of the Whole for further study, and the appointment of a citizens' committee to make recommendations to the C-W, with a report back to the council. The vote was 6-0, with Councilman Kenneth W. Boerner absent. The action was taken at the regular meeting Monday, July 3.

Around 90 residents filled the chambers to express their displeasure with the ordinance. Many of the people owned boats, boat trailers and other recreational vehicles. The council also received eight letters from concerned residents prior to the start of the meeting. Commodore William Turnbull of the Woods Boat Club said the club isn't opposed to a regulatory ordinance concerning recreational vehicles but they're opposed to an "all-encompassing type of ordinance" such as this. Mr. Turnbull felt the ordinance as written should be studied further, suggested a study committee which could come up with an ordinance to regulate "gross violations" and hoped the city could find (Continued on Page 4)

Vandals Visit Ferry School

Three windows were smashed at Ferry School, 748 Roslyn road, apparently by two youths who left on bicycles. The vandalism occurred Tuesday, July 4. Officer Frederick Lovelace of the Woods Department of Public Safety received a report from a North Brys resident who said he observed two white males, approximately 15-years-old at the rear of Ferry. The resident told police that one of the youths kicked in a lower window. Both were last seen riding blue bicycles east on Roslyn from Ferry. A check of the school revealed two 8"x12" broken windows on the building's north side, and one 8"x12" window on the west side.

School Funds Get Boost

Some $142,000 in school taxes that the City of Grosse Pointe Farms somehow "overlooked" until it closed out its books for the fiscal year, has resulted in turning the financial picture of the school district into a more hopeful one. At the annual meeting of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education on Monday, July 10, Director of Finance Ray MacArthur said that instead of the $75,000 deficit anticipated, the school system will end in the black. Mr. MacArthur told the NEWS that even though this extra money has been received the school system will still need to borrow the $475,000 to get through the summer months. He added, "This money from The Farms was a tax receipt we had not anticipated receiving because we didn't know what percentage our total current collection might be." Due to a change in tax collection procedures through the county the school system estimated that all current tax collections had been received by the middle of May.

Saved by Park Firemen

Firemen found the Hopkins and Miss Johnson trapped on a small porch, where they had gone when they were unable to escape by either the front or rear stairs because of the heavy smoke and intense heat. The trio had no way to get down from the porch and firemen had to extend a ladder to bring them down.

The chief said that the heat was so intense that it melted the window glass of the rooms of the Herrick residence, and the heavy smoke penetrated into the upper flat, overcoming the three there. Those on the first floor were able to escape to the outside.

The firemen of both departments battled the flames for 29 minutes before bringing it under control and putting it out, but not before the fire gutted the entire living room and destroyed its contents, Chief Costa said.

"It is fortunate that the fire occurred during the day (5:31 p.m.) instead of during the night, or it could have resulted in tragedy," the chief said. "The smoke and heat was such that any one trapped either upstairs, or downstairs, might not have had an opportunity to escape."

Farms Settles Four Contracts

Other provisions of the new contract cover grievance procedure, the officers' civil rights, and department records.

Grievances must be filed by the patrolmen with the Association Executive Board within seven days of the incident. If the Executive Board decides to process the grievance, it must file a copy of the grievance with the appropriate city official within 30 days.

The contract also contains the new provisions that any disciplinary action, against a patrolman, more than three years old will not be considered in connection with any contemplated disciplinary action. After three years, all records of disciplinary action except documents forming part of the permanent official files will be removed from the files.

The Farms is also responsible for repairing or replacing any patrolman's lost or damaged personal property sacrificed in the line of duty. (Maximum is $50 payment compensation.)

Good Cooperation
The president of the Farms Police Officer's Association, Patrolman John Farley, shared the city manager's conviction that the bargaining sessions promoted a spirit of cooperation between the two groups. He added that the patrolmen were satisfied with the contract, especially in regard to the expanded residence allowances.

The Command Officers Association agreement reflected many of the provisions of the patrolmen's association. Each time the patrolmen win a pay increase, the command officers' salaries are increased on a percent scale according to rank. The two corporals receive approximately six and a quarter percent more pay than the patrolmen; the five sergeants, 12 and a half percent; and the lieutenant, a 22 percent increase.

Like the patrolmen, the command officers were given an increase in uniform/clothing allowances and Master Medical Benefits in addition to the previous hospital insurance.

Life Insurance Paid
The Farms will fund completely the command officers' life insurance policies and will pay up to $150 for off duty training (up from $100 last year). Lieutenants now receive $50 in lieu of hourly training pay.

In contrast to the patrolmen, the command officers have agreed to keep the present residence requirement which demands that they live in The Pointe, Harper Woods, East Detroit or St. Clair Shores.

Farms firemen also enjoy increased pay for their services this year.

Last year, a firefighter who received $11,700 now receives $12,360. The hike in pay scale is reflected up the firemen's ladder of command, as the three sergeants make $13,133 this year, in contrast to $12,431 last year. The two lieutenants now receive $13,905 and the captain's salary is set at $14,678.

Probing Cause Of Car Fires

Park police are investigating circumstances surrounding several car fires, three of which, according to Park Assistant Fire Chief Dave Taylor, appeared to have been fire-bombed.

The first report of such a fire was received on May 30 by Mrs. Mildred Spruce of 1520 East Jefferson, Detroit. The interior of her vehicle was damaged. Park firefighters put out the flames.

On the same day, firemen were dispatched to the rear of the 15000 block of Jefferson, where they put out a fire that caused minor damage to the inside of an auto owned by Toin Carver of 5272 Conner, Detroit.

On Saturday, July 8, the Park firefighters doused flames that badly damaged the interior of an automobile owned by Elizabeth Ryan of 15200 East Jefferson. The vehicle was parked in front of her home.

Taylor said that on Saturday, at 2:03 a.m., firemen were awakened by a pounding on the door of the engine house, and on opening the door, found a 1967 Pontiac engulfed in flames. The fire was put out in minutes, but not before the interior was completely destroyed. The vehicle is owned by John F. Ryan of Stafford, Detroit.

Insurance Plan Rule Clarified

A resolution on hospitalization insurance for retired city employees was unanimously approved by the Woods Council at the regular meeting Monday, July 3. The vote was 6-0 with Councilman Kenneth W. Boerner absent.

The city originally adopted a resolution in November, 1970, providing hospital-medical-surgical insurance for all employees, and their spouses, who retired on or after November 26, 1970.

In an effort to clearly define the city's obligation, the new resolution notes that such insurance coverage for a spouse shall be voided if the spouse is separated, legally divorced and/or remarries.

City Attorney George Catlin said the purpose is to forestall potential problems regarding future interpretation of the resolution. "The proposed resolution more clearly spells out the council's intention," he stated. City Administrator Chester E. Petersen said two employees currently receive such insurance.

Stock Brokers Buy Building

Kim Q. Nuyen, president of Snow-Nuyen-Kurtz & Co. (SNK), a stock brokerage house, has announced the purchase of an 8,500 square foot office building, effective July 1, 1972.

Located on the corner of Mack and Cadieux, the building, (formerly known as the Beauty Counselors Building), will house the entire SNK staff and equipment, and according to Nuyen, "will provide the flexibility we need in order to plan for future growth."

SNK was founded in 1969 by Nuyen, Muir B. Snow, and Dr. Hyman Kurtz. In an earlier interview, Nuyen said, "We entered the brokerage business at the worst possible time, but by keeping our overhead down to a minimum, we were able to survive."

From its inception, SNK, established its offices in Detroit, at Kelly road. "During the past year," Nuyen continued, "we realized a need for larger facilities to meet our immediate business obligations, and felt that since a move was necessitated, it would be advisable to seek facilities which would easily accommodate future expansion. The building we acquired meets these requirements."

In addition to housing the staff and the equipment of SNK, the new building will serve as the operations base for Investment Capital Growth, Inc., of which SNK is a wholly owned subsidiary.

Appointed

Andrew W. Dahl has been appointed to the newly-created position of Director of Planning at Saint John Hospital.

In announcing the appointment, hospital president James T. Farley stated that Dahl will be responsible for charting the future organizational development of the hospital. "With rapid changes now occurring in the health care delivery system," said Farley, "we have created this position to insure that the hospital will be able to effectively plan its future services for the community."

Dahl will soon be receiving his Doctor of Science degree in public health administration from Johns Hopkins University School of Hygiene and Public Health with emphasis on health planning and managerial aspects of health services delivery. He holds a masters degree in public administration from the Sloan Institute of Hospital Administration of Cornell University and a B.S. degree from Clark University.

His experience includes service as a special consultant to the Department of Health, Education and Welfare in comprehensive health planning and to the State of Maryland in health services planning and development. Previously, Dahl served as a hospital administrative resident with responsibilities in cost analysis, planning and construction, departmental management, and medical staff organization.

A native of Worcester, Mass., Dahl is married and the father of two daughters.

Farms Drops Metering Plan

Residents of Mack avenue in The Farms recently proved that you can fight city hall, and win!

A letter signed by 35 residents of Mack avenue between Roland road and the north Farms limits was submitted to Farms offices in protest of the installation of parking meters in front of their houses. The residents heard that The Farms had included the expense in the recently passed 1972-1973 budget.

At the last Farms Council meeting there was a resident who had signed the letter. He stated, in no uncertain terms, "We would rather look at parked cars than those parking meters 24 hours a day, seven days a week, including holidays." He reminded council members that the area is zoned residential, even though the city and county owns the property next to the curb.

However, it was not necessary for the trustees to vote on the matter as Farms City Manager Andrew Bremer said that the city would drop the plan of metering the strip.

Since it is near a commercial area, the city felt that cars parked for long periods of time in front of the houses might prove a nuisance for the residents.

SCHOOL DAMAGED

A resident of Kerby road, out walking his dog, noticed on Thursday morning, July 6, damage to the Kerby Elementary School. The panel under a window on the northwest corner of the school was partly pushed in, possibly kicked in by some unknown vandal. Farms police do not think the school was entered.

Quiz Doctors On Heartworm

Several Pointe dog owners have recently asked NEWS reporters if there is a heartworm epidemic in the area. The NEWS contacted several Pointe veterinarians to discuss whether the canine disease is on the increase.

One doctor explained that the disease is transmitted by mosquitoes. The insect bites a dog carrying heartworm larvae. The larvae incubate inside the mosquito for a few days and, if the insect bites another dog, the second dog also contracts the disease.

If heartworm is not arrested in an early stage, the larvae invade the dog's heart and death results. Heartworms can grow up to lengths of 12 inches.

The first doctor contacted believed that heartworm was on the increase in the area and across the entire state of Michigan.

He attributed the increase to the number of dogs taken with families vacationing in the south where the disease could be contracted.

Another veterinarian, however, said that he felt the disease was decreasing in the area. He recalled how 30 years ago there were a "tremendous" number of cases of heartworm here. He attributed it to the poor drainage systems in The Woods and St. Clair Shores, resulting in optimum conditions for mosquito breeding.

The doctor added that the drainage systems in the area are now improved and no longer pose a threat. However, places with poor drainage such as Harbor Springs, Saginaw and Bay City areas still present heartworm dangers.

He also wished to discount the belief that mosquitoes only breed in areas noted for warm, humid climates. He said that heartworm is widespread in Alaska where mosquitoes make the area unbearable two months of the year.

The best prevention against heartworm, as any doctor will emphasize, is regular check-ups. Heartworm may be detected through blood tests before the symptoms become visible and treated by a series of arsenic-like intravenous injections. If the dog has not contracted the disease, the animal may be given preventative medicine.

The Invisible Government

That's what Wayne County's government has often been called, even though Wayne is the country's third largest county and the Wayne County Commission has direct control over approximately 7,500 employees and a budget of $234 million.

It's odd that a government so big should be so invisible. O. J. Williams doesn't think it should be. That's why he's a candidate for Wayne County Commissioner, District 1, in the August 8th Republican primary.

O. J. Williams wants to make county government visible. And responsive to the collective views of Wayne county voters. His accounting background, fifteen years' successful business management experience, and his experience as councilman for the city of Grosse Pointe Park uniquely qualify him for the job.

The system that moves the Cadillac Eldorado also moves the Audi 100LS. But we had it first.

Virtually every car in the world moves by a system known as rear-wheel drive. Which means the rear wheels push the car.

The Audi (and, of course, the Eldorado) moves by a system known as front-wheel drive. Which means the front wheels pull the car.

This gives you two distinct advantages: One, it lets you corner surer. Even on the meanest, most terrifying curve.

And two, it gives you better traction on any kind of surface: rain, snow, mud, even ice.

Besides the Cadillac Eldorado, the Audi has some of the best features of six other great automobiles.

1. The Audi has the same type of steering system as the Ferrari 512 racing car.
2. The Audi has independent front suspension like the Aston Martin.

3. It's got the same amount of trunk space as the Lincoln Continental Mark IV.
4. It's got just about the same headroom and legroom as the Rolls-Royce Silver Shadow.
5. Its interior bears a remarkable resemblance to that of the Mercedes-Benz 280SE.
6. You get the same kind of expert service with an Audi as you do with a Volkswagen. Because a Porsche Audi dealer is part of the VW organization.

The Audi.
It's a lot of cars for the money.

Boat Storage

(Continued from Page 1) a storage area for such equipment. City Administrator Chester E. Petersen said that it's up to the council whether storage facilities will be made available for residents. He said his office proposed such a facility for consideration in the past, one similar to an off-street parking lot. But at that time, he stated, the council tabled action on the proposal.

As for the citizens' committee, Mr. Petersen said it would include a boat club member. Other members may include a recreational vehicle member, a council representative, a planning commission member and a citizen-at-large. But the committee make-up isn't as yet final.

In providing some background on the ordinance City Attorney George Callin said that the matter had been under study by the Committee of the Whole for six to eight months. He noted that there has been an increased amount of outside storage of such equipment in the city, and some residents have complained.

"The language of the zoning ordinance does not clearly prohibit this type of storage so when a public safety officer receives a complaint, he goes to the individual who has the equipment and asks him to remove it. A few people don't cooperate with a public safety officer," he said.

"A few residents in a particular neighborhood are unhappy," he continued, "and some neighbor friction develops. An individual can be taken to court to order the equipment removed but this is a cumbersome process," he added.

Mr. Callin said the ordinance was out for discussion to determine whether this type of approach is a solution to these problems. "It may or may not be," he said. It wasn't, at least to the residents who were heard. No one spoke for the ordinance but a show of hands against it looked like wheat blowing in an Iowa field.

Resident Jack Thorpe received "resident applause" after speaking against the ordinance. He cited the importance of recreational vehicles in the lives of American families, and various court decisions reportedly against similar ordinances, e.g., a Florida circuit judge who ruled unconstitutional a Pompano Beach city ordinance banning the parking of recreational vehicles in that city.

In a letter to the council, a resident said "nail the guy that's being a nuisance, who stores junk (boat, cars, trailers, etc.) in his yard for years on end, but don't penalize the guy who seasonally engages in these activities . . . Why not zero in on the problem rather than shotgun the whole community."

That seemed to be the feeling of most residents at the meeting.

Vehicles

The ordinance originally read for a 30-day period but this was amended at the meeting. Councilman Benjamin W. Pinkos felt the ordinance, as previously worded, restricted licensed autos. He expressed concern that if a car user was away for over 30 days he would be penalized.

Mr. Pinkos addressed himself to a licensed car which is temporarily not used for 30 or 60 days. He questioned, "How can the city object to a licensed operable vehicle that's not used for 30 days?"

He objected to part of the previous definition of "inoperable automobile" which read: "... any motor vehicle which has not been moved for a period of 30 consecutive days, whether or not such vehicle has the capability of being moved under its own power."

$500 or 90 Days
 On and after the ordinance's effective date it will be unlawful for the registered owner of such a vehicle, or for any owner or tenant of any real property within the city, to allow or to permit the outside storage of such a vehicle upon his property.

The penalty for violation is a maximum of $500 or 90 days in jail, or both, in the court's discretion.

Sunday Fire

Taylor said that as the Park firemen arrived and began to stretch hoses, the intense heat blew out the front windows of the market, and black smoke and flames billowed out of the building, owned by John Hakim of 1238 Lochmoor Boulevard. Hakim had purchased the building and business last November.

Two Detroit firemen were injured while battling the flames. Capt. R. Trombley suffered a gash on the hand and was taken to St. John Hospital, where 10 stitches were required to close the wound. He was relieved of duty. The second fireman was treated at the hospital for minor injuries and returned to help fight the fire.

Confined to Market

The flames were confined to the supermarket, and did not spread to adjoining businesses and residences, although a number of people living in adjacent homes, were forced to flee because of the heavy smoke. They returned when the smoke was cleared from the area.

Firefighters and equipment remained for three hours at the scene after the flames were extinguished. The Park firemen returned to their station at 9:26 p.m. The fire is under investigation by the Fire Marshal's Office of the Michigan State Police and by the Park Police Department.

There was no one in the building, which was locked and closed when the fire started.

Hakim said he had some insurance on the property and its contents, but did not know if it would be enough to repair the damage. He said that if possible, he would rebuild and restock the store and start over again.

Chief Kesteloot Due to Retire

By James J. Njalm
 Park Police Chief Gerard Kesteloot announced on Monday, July 10, that his application for retirement has been accepted and that he will officially retire on Monday, July 31. He has been with the department slightly more than 30 years.

The chief, who said he had submitted his application for retirement about two months ago, was appointed to the force as a probationary patrolman on June 3, 1942.

He was assigned to the Detective Bureau Division in 1948, and remained there until his promotion to uniform sergeant on December 27, 1949. On June 21, 1957, he was elevated to the rank of lieutenant in the Uniform Division.

On October 7, 1968, he was made captain, succeeding Capt. Arnold Hough, who died unexpectedly following a very brief illness.

On March 15, 1970, he was promoted to his present rank of chief, following the resignation of William P. Ellenburg, who was Director of Public Safety, a post created by the Park council under an ordinance, which in effect made Ellenburg chief of both the Police and Fire Departments.

After nearly two years as public safety director, Ellenburg resigned to become chief of police with the Cleveland Police Department, a post he was forced to resign after two weeks, when it was alleged he had been involved in a scandal while he was a senior inspector with the Detroit Police Department.

City Manager Robert Stone said that he deeply regrets that Chief Kesteloot is leaving the department, and that he was an excellent police officer and a credit to the department. He will be deeply missed, the city manager added.

The chief is married to the former Elsie Pareyt of Mt. Clemens. They have two children, Arthur C., of Harper Woods; and Mrs. Thomas (Dorothy) Hayosh of Bloomfield Hills. The Chief and Mrs. Kesteloot are grandparents of four children.

The chief said that he has no particular plans when he leaves the force, except that he will take things easy and perhaps do some traveling.

Police Probe

The two hold-up victims gave police a good description of the car, a repainted yellow VW van, and the driver, a white male, 29, with long dark hair and wearing glasses. They could not furnish a license number.

These are the facts given to Farms detective Earl

Field. Missing are a Thoreno Turntable valued at $350 and an Electra Voice Amplifier and FM receiver priced at $200. Thomas Ray is the stepson of John C. Emery, 221 Lewisston road.

North Senior Presents Survey at Symposium

By Phil Frame

Steve Shepard, a senior at North high school, is a person who strives for the highest level of personal achievement. Most recently Steve has completed a 30-page study on this community's attitude toward the population problem.

He conducted a survey to answer two basic questions: "How aware is the community of the population problem. To what degree is the community willing to do something about it?"

"I decided to keep the survey as simple as possible, to promote more honest replies and to help encourage the residents to fill them out. I put a heading at the top and followed it with a brief paragraph explaining the project and stating that all questions were optional," said Steve.

Also included in the survey were questions requesting information on the student or resident, to make the survey more meaningful.

The remainder of the survey consisted of nine "yes" or "no" questions that dealt with the two basic questions. Three of the questions had to do with how aware the community is of the population problem. Five other questions were inserted to find out to what degree the community is willing to do something about the problem. One of the questions was used as a control to test the reliability of the survey. That question was "Do you know what the letters SWS stand for?" SWS are Steve's initials.

The 250 student survey forms were circulated through North's Social Sciences Department to all sociology and psychology classes. The 250 resident forms were distributed from a display at a local shopping center on a typical Saturday.

Immediately after collecting and tabulating the surveys, Steve began writing the survey. Steve presented a summary of the survey in February at the Wayne State Science and Humanities Symposium. His paper was one of only 12 papers presented.

The results of the survey were the discovery that the community is willing to do a lot for the population problem, but are not well educated about it.

When asked how long the survey actually took him to complete Steve replied, "I started the study in October. The distributing, collecting, and tabulation of the survey, along with the actual writing of the paper itself, was my main activity for most of the winter." "It took approximately 40-man hours just to tabulate the replies."

In his analysis Steve mentions that if it were assumed that everybody answered the survey truthfully, then he is pleased to be such a popular personality in the community, his initials being recognized by maybe 7,000 residents of the Grosse Pointe area (Since there are somewhat more than 100,000 residents of Grosse Pointe, then about 7,000 claim to recognize his initials, using the six percent figure that answered yes on the control question).

Steve is very pleased with the results because there are few inconsistencies in the figures.

The results of the survey are both promising and discouraging," he says. "The large percentage of people who believe there is a problem is a good sign. The number of people who show a willingness to do something about it is also encouraging. However, the survey definitely shows that the community does not understand the problem and that they are not very well educated about the problem."

"Legislation will not be passed until public opinion is aroused, and public opinion will not be aroused until the public is much better informed. Organizations such as Zero Population Growth must continue to demonstrate the seriousness of the problem, the need for food in many over-populated countries, the relation between population and other problems, such as pollution, and the need for better birth control methods to make population control more effective. Only then will we make serious strides forward in solving the world's population problem."

'Decor' Item Proves Deadly

A resident of Lothrop road, Mrs. John Schrader, appeared at The Farms police station Friday morning, July 7, with what she believed to be an antique gun. Her family had found the gun in northern Michigan over the weekend, and decided to bring it home as a decorator piece.

At the station, Farms Corporal Ronald Wooten identified the gun as a sawed-off shotgun, commonly used by criminals believing that shotgun bullets cannot be traced. The guns are sawed off to aid concealment, according to Corporal Wooten.

In questioning Mrs. Schrader, the police officer discovered that the gun was found by her daughter and a friend on Tuesday, July 4, in a wooded area behind Sleeper State Park near Indian or Hootnany Hill.

Moreover, Mrs. Schrader's son, John, tried the gun in the backyard of 275 Lothrop and the gun was loaded and went off.

Since the area around Indian Hill is used by motorcycle gangs, The Farms police gave the gun to the Michigan State Police Crime Lab in Warren for criminal analysis.

Last summer Lester Gladhand was accused of being antisocial.

Now he has a Gas grill.

Lester's really a warmhearted fellow, but whenever the Gladhands had friends over for a barbecue, Lester was busy. Busy with the briquets. Busy with the starter fluid. Busy helping the fire going. Busy trying to keep clean. Just too busy to be social.

Now Lester has a Gas grill. He lifts the cover and lights the grill. And he becomes the life of the party.

Since you're going to cook anyway, why not cook the fun way—on an outdoor Gas grill. And enjoy the party!

gested that if busing is inevitable, plans and preparations should be made to instruct students, teachers and the community, so that procedure could be implemented calmly and sanely.

Admits Frustration
William Candler said he was as frustrated as the rest of the community regarding the busing issue and suggested two avenues of approach, the filing of a citizens' suit, or class action by the board, questioning whether monies appropriated for education could be used for the purchase of buses.

Other alternatives suggested by members of the audience included absolute refusal to bus youngsters, the establishment of Freedom Schools, sending their youngsters to Pointe Schools and forcing the administration to take some sort of action to remove them, voluntary busing, insistence that the buses be equipped with seat belts which would automatically stop the bus when a passenger doesn't have his belt properly secured.

The board reiterated that it was doing all that is legally possible to prevent the implementation of Judge Roth's busing order.

$150 CAR FIRE

The Farms firemen rushed to 479 Kerby road, Saturday morning, July 1, on the report of a car fire. They found that the front seat of a '69 Pontiac, belonging to Mary Dwyer, 1988 Garfield, was badly damaged. A burning cigaret was the probable cause of the fire.

Anti-Busing Groups Formed

by calling Mrs. Grow, 885-7765; Mr. Ohlert, 885-7995; Mrs. Charbonneau, 884-5385.

Once the signatures are obtained the petitions will be sent to state legislators, the school board and local city councils.

The group is planning an all-community meeting within the next 30 days to further organize the Pointe's anti-busing movement.

Another Group
Mr. Roy, who attended a recent School Board meeting expressing concern over Judge Roth's decision, is spearheading an anti-busing movement in The Park. Mr. Roy told the NEWS: "As a parent of a second grader at Troumbly, I am extremely concerned with the possibility of my child being involved in a court ordered busing program in September 1972."

"The Grosse Pointe Board of Education while supporting legal action to prevent busing has provided no shelter from this possibility. In fact, its inability to take a strong stand against forced busing or to seek the community's viewpoint in a public meeting on the issue has prompted me to contact neighbors and friends to ask their position on the possibility of their children being bused."

"If all legal appeals and motions for a stay of action fail, I would like a legal means means of avoiding the court ordered busing. One possibility might be independent schools; or perhaps private tutors for small groups of children. In the past weeks, many of the parents who I have spoken with share this viewpoint. I am sure that there are many, many more throughout the community."

"It must be stated, however, that any action taken to evade a busing order must be done in a legal, rational, well organized manner. And it should be understood that many sacrifices will have to be made, both financial and time-wise. Other parents who share these viewpoints can become involved by calling my home at 499-0534."

Still Another Group
Spearheading a group of concerned parents is Mrs. Chaisson who has been canvassing the neighborhood and telephoning neighbors in an attempt to find a peaceful, rational approach in which to fight court ordered busing. Mrs. Chaisson said any mothers interested in helping her in her anti-busing movement may contact her at 886-9656.

A local elected official, Marvin Boutin, Woods Councilman and Mayor Pro Tem, voiced his attitude on the busing controversy.

"I attended a Tri-County Mayors' Conference at Oak Park Community Center on Thursday, June 29, which was called by Livonia's Mayor Edward McNamara. Some 58 Metropolitan Detroit Suburban mayors were requested to attend to discuss possible ways and means of combating any cross-district busing order for our school children by Judge Roth.

"I was surprised and disappointed as I looked around the assembly hall in search of others from Grosse Pointe, to find none present. I know that other city officials from The Pointe are as concerned as I am that the neighborhood school concept is in danger and that our property values, enhanced in part by a high grade educational system, could suddenly be jeopardized. Could it be that apathy runs rampant among Pointe officials? Do they believe that Judge Roth's edict for cross-district busing will never be upheld? Do they have a wait and see attitude? Will they wave their magic wands and make it all go away?"

"I am happy that I attended this conference because here was a group of mayors who fought to get an anti-busing resolution adopted a couple of weeks ago in New Orleans at the National Conference of Mayors Convention and had lost the committee vote by a huge margin. This information came as no surprise to me as we had a like battle under similar circumstances at the National League of Cities Convention last November and lost by a vote of 28 to three of the committee."

"I believe the Tri-County Mayors should coordinate their efforts with their city councils on this issue which is so important to their constituencies."

"I also feel that the National League of Cities and National Conference of Mayors is playing with a stacked deck since the big city politicians and bureaucrats control both organizations to the detriment of the suburban cities, villages and townships. I suggested that it might not be too far fetched to consider forming a national league of suburban communities to bring forth a consolidated effort to protect our children's civil rights. This suggestion was met with favorable reaction."

"At the June meeting a committee of seven mayors was appointed to sit with their respective legal minds to study how best to proceed to effectuate a plan that can justify intervention in the Roth case and one that Roth will not be able to reject, if that is possible. They are to report back to the Tri-County Mayors' Conference on July 20 in Warren with their recommendations. They then discussed, amended and adopted a resolution against cross-district busing which I readily signed as Mayor Pro Tem of the City of Grosse Pointe Woods."

"I strongly urge all of The Pointe's concerned citizens and their elected officials to get involved before it's too late. The do-gooders never rest . . . neither should we."

"At the June 29 meeting I heard that the comparatively small city of Riverview had held an advisory referendum vote on the busing issue. The results? Over 1,600 opposed busing and only 28 favored busing. I wonder how this same type of advisory vote would fare in The Pointe? Who knows unless we try?"

(And the Woods Council is trying. At a recent meeting of the Committee-of-the-Whole Mr. Boutin moved and Councilman George Freeman supported, that the Council request the Grosse Pointe Public School System to call a meeting on or before July 17, to determine if they will include on the ballot on September 7, an advisory referendum for the voters of the City of Grosse Pointe Woods to determine the feeling on cross-district busing of students. The motion was approved unanimously.)

The NEWS also spoke with Mayor Matthew Patterson, who was unable to attend the June 29 session. Mr. Patterson said he spoke with the head of the organization and indicated to him that he, as the mayor of Grosse Pointe Park, would support any anti-busing stand taken by the assembled mayors.

Boat's Radio, Sounder Stolen

Three items totalling approximately $520 in value were taken from a 42-foot Trojan boat in the municipally owned Osius Park sometime between 9 p.m. Friday, June 30, and 8 a.m. Saturday, July 1.

Officer Robert Bensinger of the Shores Department of Public Safety was told by the owner, a Ballantyne road resident, that a ship-to-shore radio valued at $350, a depth sounder at $150 and a small tool kit with miscellaneous tools at $20 were stolen.

The resident said the boat's rear portion was left open due to gas fumes, and a guard checked the craft every half hour during the night. The guard told police that when he made a check before leaving in the morning, everything appeared in order.

Trial on Drug Charge Delayed

Dennis Bruner, 18, of Rural Rte. No. 1 Harrow Ont., arraigned before Park Municipal Judge William E. Speer on a warrant charging him with illegal possession of Peyote buttons, waived examination on the charge on Wednesday, July 5. He was bound over for trial at the next session of Circuit Court.

Judge Speer postponed a hearing on a second charge against the youth, possession of marijuana, until August 9. Bruner was to have been tried on July 5 for this offense under a local ordinance which makes possession of the weed a misdemeanor.

A cash bond of $2,500 on the marijuana possession, and a $1,000 personal bond on the second offense, was continued by the court.

Bruner and a 14-year-old boy were arrested by two Park detectives and a detective from the Grosse Pointe Youth Bureau Division, on June 5, when the officers, acting on a tip, observed the pair retrieve 45 pounds of Peyote buttons from a parked car in the 1400 block of Nottingham.

While being searched at the Park station, the policemen found a small packet of marijuana on Bruner's person. He was charged and held for possession of the weed, and the juvenile was released to his parents pending further investigation of his part in the matter.

The Peyote, which comes from cacti with the name, was analyzed by the Michigan State Police, and conclusive proof showed that the stuff was actually Peyote, from which the hallucinogenic drug mescaline is manufactured.

Life is truly a tug-of-war between income and expense.

Parking Lot Plea Studied

A request to use a small strip of city property in The Woods for parking was unanimously referred to the Committee of the Whole for further study with a report back to the council.

The action was taken at the regular council meeting Monday, July 3. The vote was 6-0 with Councilman Kenneth W. Boerner absent.

On behalf of Dr. Francis Blake, 20039 Mack avenue, Dallas R. Kitchen, president of the Dallas R. Kitchen Building Company, said the doctor wishes to use the strip of property on the southerly lot line at 20039 Mack.

The city has shrubbery planted along this property line. Mr. Kitchen wishes to extend the parking lot to the shrubbery line which, he said, will provide additional width for patients on entering and exiting the lot.

However, before reaching a final decision, the council wished to study the matter further regarding "ramifications," any proposed agreements and site plans of the parking layout.

Woods Okays Hearing July 17

A public hearing was unanimously approved by the Woods Council for Monday, July 17, at 7:30 p.m., on the request of Charles D. Sudro, 19919 Doyle Place west, for permission to erect a six-foot high stockade fence in accordance with the provisions of the city's fence ordinance.

Mr. Sudro reportedly wishes to build an 86-foot fence and gate on the easterly side of the property. The council's action was taken at the regular meeting Monday, July 3.

Vandalize Cars at North High

Five driver training instruction cars at North High School's Vernier lot were vandalized sometime between 7 p.m. Friday, June 30, and 7 a.m. Monday, July 3.

Driver education instructor Gil Gray, of Brys drive, told officer John DeLora of the Woods Department of Public Safety that a 1972 Dodge had its upholstery slashed, antenna ripped off, mirrors broken and obnoxious scratches onto the outside paint.

Outside mirrors were smashed on another 1972 Dodge, 1972 Torino and 1972 Valiant. A 1972 Volkswagen had its engine beaten so many of its parts were unusable. Engine wires were reportedly torn out.

Reaffirm SDM License Denial

At the request of the Michigan Liquor Control Commission, The Woods Council unanimously reaffirmed its recent action to deny the application of Borman's Inc. for a new SDM license at Farmer Jack Super Market, 20382 Mack avenue. This action was taken at the regular meeting Monday, July 3. The vote was 6-0 with Councilman Kenneth W. Boerner absent.

The reason for the SDM denial, which was part of the passed motion, is there are other SDM licenses in close proximity. The commission will be notified of the council's explanation.

It's reported that while the recommendation of a local legislative body is not a statutory requirement on SDM licenses, the commission, (as a matter of policy), asks for their recommendation on these licenses.

In a letter to the council, Roger J. Rosendale, director, licensing, and enforcement division, said, "The Courts have ruled that the Liquor Control Commission must base its decision on a finding of fact, therefore, it is necessary that you forward an explanation as to the reason for the council decision."

Hold-Up Gets Pair $249 Cash

Two men held up Little Caesar's Pizzeria, 19767 Mack avenue, and took approximately $249 in cash. The robbery occurred Sunday, July 9.

Sergeant Bernard Kelly of the Woods Department of Public Safety received a report from an employee, who said one man ordered a pizza and then asked for a dollar in change. When the employee went to the cash register, the man brought out a small black gun from beneath his jacket.

The thief took the money, put it into an orange Little Caesar's carry out bag, and along with his companion, exited through the front door.

One was described as a white male, 18-19 years, about six feet tall, of medium build, with blond hair and buck teeth, slurred speech, tan complexion and a broken out face. He was wearing a ragged blue jean jacket and was armed with a small calibre, black gun. He reportedly did all of the talking.

The second man also was a white male, 18-19 years, around six feet tall, of medium build, with blond hair.

Center Offers Sunset Cruise

Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association is planning another delightful evening for its patrons on Saturday, July 22 when they will take guests by charter bus across the river to Dieppe Gardens in Windsor, Canada to board the Royal Canadian Coast Guard approved yacht "Papoose." As soon as the boat sails cocktails will be available, served by Marios of Windsor and box suppers prepared by the Center's own fine cateress, Miss Blair, will be enjoyed as the sun reflects from the tall buildings of Detroit's skyline.

There will be a four-hour cruise up to Lake St. Clair and back down the river to Grosse Ile. The "Papoose" has two decks, one glass enclosed, carpeted and furnished with chairs and tables. This is where the bar is located. There is an open afterdeck and the topdeck is awning covered and open to the breezes or protected by curtains as temperature dictates. From chairs on the topdeck one can enjoy fine marine views and the breeze. Music is piped throughout the ship.

On return to Windsor the charter bus will meet guests and return them to Grosse Pointe shortly after midnight. Transportation to and from Canada, supper and cruise are included for $11.50. Reservations by individual, couple or party should be made at the Centers office soon.

"Raku," the Japanese ceramic technique, will be featured in a special program this Sunday, at Michigan State University's Pewabic Pottery in East Jefferson avenue, and among students you'll see there if you happen to drop by some time during the afternoon are The Pointe's own Julia Trowbridge, Alice Hartwick, Mrs. C. M. Rieveschl, Dr. and Mrs. Douglas Sargent, Lorine Moran, Michelle Biglin . . .

They're all Pewabic aficionados.

Some other Pointe Pewabic students, past and present, are Sue Auch, Margaret Keeney, George Potter, Mildred Pottle, Bernice Carmichael . . .

They're all Pewabic aficionados.

Pewabic aficionado-ism, in fact, is a Pointe tradition. Both of the Pottery's founders, Mary Chase Stratton and Horace Caulkins, had homes in The Pointe, (the Ayers Morrisons maintain the Stratton home in Three Mile drive as if it were a museum), and Henry Caulkins, who gave the Pottery to MSU, is, of course, a Pointer.

There are at least several hundred Pointe homes and buildings which have Pewabic tile and pottery on and in them.

Lillian Pear, of the Park, is the Pottery's Art Historian, and is writing a book on Pewabic and its founders. William Strawbridge, Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Stalker and Mrs. Hartwick, Pointers all, have made special contributions to the Pottery, for which their names are honored with ceramic plaques in the foyer.

A stop-in at the historic facility, a look-in at Sunday's Raku demonstrations, to be held in the courtyard from noon to 6 o'clock, a drop-in at the special one-day Kiln Room Sale of ceramic works created by students and others using this Continuing Education Service restoration and teaching project, is guaranteed to turn even the most casual visitor into a Pewabic aficionado.

The Kiln Room Sale, which features some Raku products, is in addition to the Pottery's Student Exhibit and Sale and the Pewabic Tile Sale, both of

DRC Looking Ahead to Fall

Guests at the luncheon included her vice-chairman, Mrs. John Kelly, and Mrs. Charles Brundle, Mrs. Wayne Garrett, Mrs. N. Conner

Gunn, Mrs. Charles U. Hauer, Mrs. William Johnson, Mrs. Robert Kales, Mrs. Robert King, Mrs. Dwight Nelson, Jr., Mrs. Henrietta Rogers, Mrs. Llewellyn Shippe, Mrs. Frank Scott Perkin, Mrs. Louis Thurmon, Mrs. Tom Walworth and Mrs. Aaron E. Wilcox.

The hardest secret to keep is your opinion to yourself.

This is a was-brown.

But no more. Now it's a cool, beautiful blonde that looks as though it came right out of the land of the midnight sun. Actually it didn't. Actually it came out of one of our little miracle-making bottles. And it only took a couple of hours. And it didn't cost much at all. And it did more for the girl that did it than a month of beauty sleep. If you're a brown that would like to be a was-brown too, see us. And be an is-blonde. Or an is-anything-your-little-head desires.

Married

VERONICA KILLEEN, daughter of Mrs. Jeremiah Killeen, of Radnor circle, was married to Dr. Charles Pelzer, of Saginaw, at an evening ceremony Friday, July 7, in St. Anselm Church, Dearborn.

The Reverend William X. Kienzle officiated at the rites. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, John Killeen. Students from Fordson High School in Dearborn, where the bride teaches, sang in French, Latin and English.

The former Miss Killeen wore a long-sleeved candlelight satin gown, featuring a bodice of re-embroidered Alencon lace. Matching lace trimmed her sleeves and the band which held her short veil. She carried a white orchid, surrounded by white roses.

Eileen O'Leary was her sister's honor attendant. Dressed in blue, she carried white roses. Small roses were scattered in her hair.

Best man was Dr. Sherman Randerson, from the University of Wisconsin. Seating the guests was Paul Kelly, brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

The mother of the bride wore a pink gown. Her corsage combined an orchid with pink roses.

The newlyweds left to vacation in Stockholm, Copenhagen, Paris, Madrid and Lisbon, after a dinner reception at the Chambertin restaurant.

Dr. Pelzer received his Bachelors degree from the University of Detroit and his Doctorate from the Medical School of the University of Michigan, where he specialized in Human Genetics.

In addition to teaching at Saginaw Valley College, Dr. Pelzer is a genetic consultant for the Chemed Corporation. He is also active in the training of counselors for the Sickle Cell program in Saginaw.

The bride, graduated from Marygrove College, earned her Masters degree in French at Wayne State University. Later she studied at the Sorbonne in Paris and at the University of Toulouse, Lille and Poitiers in France. She is co-author of a two volume programmed text for beginning French university students.

Catherine Wood Champion Selects Lace-Trimmed Gown of White Organza Over Taffeta for her Afternoon Wedding

A home in East Lansing awaits Mr. and Mrs. John Robert Dillaman, married Saturday, July 8, in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, whose wedding trip destination was Lido Beach, Fla.

Mrs. Dillaman, the former Catherine Wood Champion, daughter of Mrs. William Julius Champion, Jr., of Beverly road, and the late Mr. Champion, was escorted to the altar by her brother, Robert Wood Champion.

A reception at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club followed the 4:30 o'clock rites, at which Dr. Ray H. Kiely presided.

Venice lace accented the fitted bodice, lantern sleeves and high neckline of the bride's white organza over taffeta gown, styled with a flared skirt and detachable train. Blue satin ribbon defined her waist.

Her short silk illusion veil fell from a Camelot cap, trimmed with matching lace, and baby blue starflowers accented her bouquet of phalaenopsis orchids, stephanotis and ivy.

In blue crepe frocks fashioned with puckered bodices, short puff sleeves and high necklines, floral embroidered ribbon circling their waists, were Anne Elizabeth Cham-beck, Alan Barber, Kevin Killebrew and William Champion, III, and James Champion, the bride's brothers.

Mrs. Champion chose a floor length gown of pale to bright pink flowered chiffon, with wrist-length sleeves for her daughter's wedding.

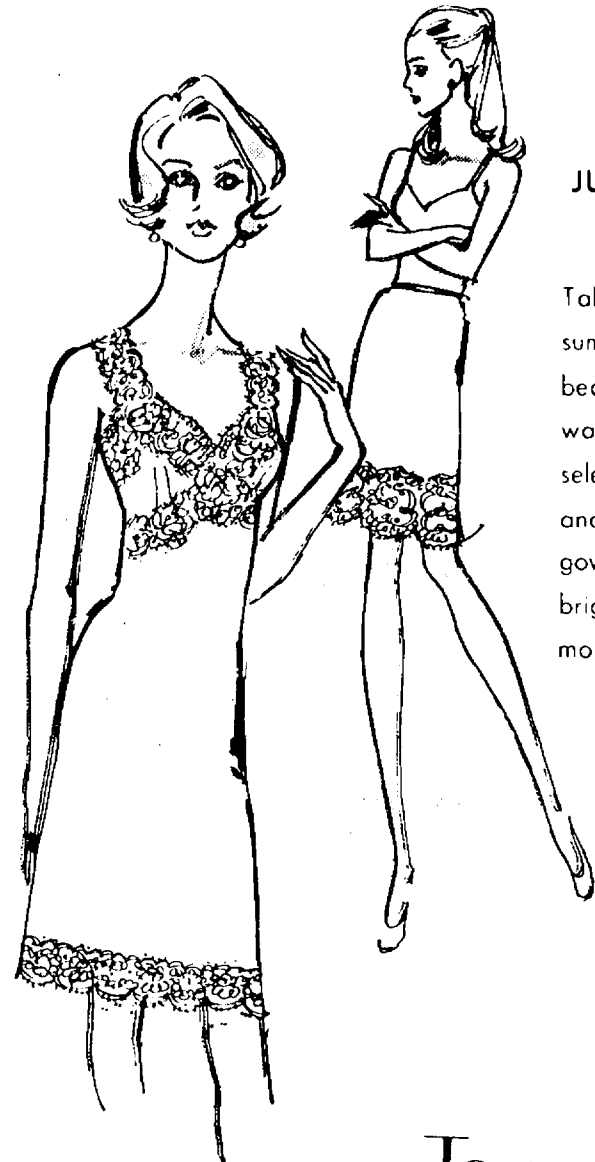

Both mothers pinned gardenias to their purses.

Mrs. Logan Wood, the bride's grandmother, wore a street length coat and dress ensemble of pale blue lace, with a pink orchid pinned to her bodice.

About Raku itself: It's believed to have originated in the 16th century, to meet the needs of the Japanese tea masters, who used the resulting bowls in an almost religious ceremony of tea drinking and quiet contemplation of things which are beautiful.

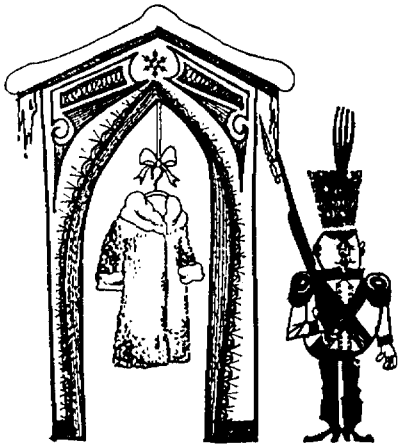

Its name is derived from a Chinese character meaning enjoyment, pleasure, contentment, ease . . . It has been described as a technique, a specialized product, a state of mind, even a religious experience.

It places emphasis upon the beauty of the accidental and spontaneous, asymmetry, the value of and appreciation for nature undominated or controlled by man.

Quote by Paul Soldner, first American potter to work with Raku: "In the spirit of Raku; make no demands. Expect nothing, follow no absolute plan. Be secure in change. Learn to accept another solution. Prefer to gamble on your intuition." Makes it all come clear, doesn't it? Well . . .

Saint Paul's-on-the-Lakeshore was the setting for the nuptial mass Saturday, June 17, at which Linda Marie Hollerbach, daughter of the Raymond Hollerbachs, of Washington road, spoke her marriage vows to Peter Donald Haller.

He is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hugh Haller, of Hamilton court, and has been making his home with the Robert Taylors, of Grosse Pointe boulevard.

For the 11 o'clock double ring rites at which Father James Cronk presided, the bride chose a white silk organza gown, sleeveless, trimmed with daisy appliques and blue satin ribbon, and featuring an A-line skirt and Chapel train. Daisy appliques were scattered over her Cathedral length illusion veil, which fell from a lace and ribbon Juliet cap, and she carried a cascade of white roses, mums, daisies and stephanotis.

Lisa Hollerbach was her twin sister's honor maid. Bridesmaids were Sue Hollerbach another sister, Jane Wood, Carol Nutter, Deborah Spitzley and Robyn Semmler.

Handicapped Kids to Cruise

More than 500 youngsters from Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties will participate in the Handicapped Children's 10th Annual Boat Cruise, sailing down the Detroit River next Tuesday, July 18.

The Metropolitan Society for Crippled Children and Adults has sent out invitations throughout the tri-county area. The Cruise is sponsored each year by members of the Automotive Boosters Club B-19, an organization of automotive representatives.

Some 100-plus privately owned cruisers have been lined up again this year for the event, originally planned for boys and girls from the Metropolitan Society's annual Day Camp. Now the Cruise has grown proportionately to care for many more children.

The youngsters will be transported by chartered buses to Kean's Boat Harbor at the foot of Meadowbrook. There, they'll be kept busy and entertained by a host of Moslem Shrine clowns and

THE BRUSH PERM...
BECAUSE WE CARE ABOUT THE HEALTH OF YOUR HAIR

There's nothing more important to us than the health of your hair. Glossy, well-styled hair is a walking recommendation for our salon. That's why our stylists concentrate on total hair care.

The Brush Perm fits perfectly into this philosophy. It adds just enough body for style support. No frizzies—just soft curls and waves.

First we cut your hair. Then the Brush Perm. The special added ingredient is the style cut we give you after the perm. Then you brush it into shape.

Many years ago it seemed like a contradiction to couple a permanent wave with healthy hair. However in this age of advanced technology a permanent is generally safe on all types of hair. The lotions and conditioners that have been developed recently make even tinted and bleached hair perm-protected. Straight or thin hair will look thicker and curlier. Come in and consult with our hair specialists. They'll recommend the lotions that are right for you. With the Brush-Perm, it's Cut, Set, Brush & Go!

Larkins-Richardson Rites Read July 8

Home in Denver Awaits Newlyweds, Who Exchanged Marriage Vows in Saint Clare de Montefalco Church

A Victorian gown, fashioned of sheer white peau de soie, lace-trimmed and featuring a train and long sleeves, was Julie Richardson's choice for her Saturday, July 8, wedding to Lawrence Alfred Larkins.

Her floor length illusion veil fell from a matching bandeau, and she carried an arrangement of orchids and ivy. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David A. Richardson, of Kensington road. The bridegroom is the son of Mr.

and Mrs. Norman F. Larkins, of Denver, Colo. The 1 o'clock rites in Saint Clare de Montefalco Church, at which Father John R. McLaughlin presided, were followed by a reception at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club. The newlyweds plan to vacation in San Francisco.

They are making their home in Denver.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Dean Conley, of Fairfax, Va., as matron of honor, and bridesmaids Rachel Redlin and Mrs. James Seibert, of Midland, in floor length frocks of cotton floral print, halter style, with matching jackets, and wide-brimmed yellow sun hats.

Each carried a single yellow Fuji mum, trimmed with baby's-breath and trailing ivy.

Norman E. Larkins came from Longmont, Colo., to act as his brother's best man.

Ushering were Rodger Stewart, of Denver, and David Richardson, Jr., the bride's brother, of Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Richardson chose a formal length gown of blue, yellow and green floral-printed silk, with a matching jacket, and a matching corsage for her daughter's wedding. Lace trimmed the bridegroom's mother's long, pastel pink gown. Her corsage was a small orchid.

The bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. V. Lydia Watson, came from Denver for the ceremony.

From Another Point of View

The cowboy hat was Priscilla's "luxury" Yankee touch. Not necessary—but kind of fun!

The daughter of the Donald R. Spencers, of Trombley road, will spend the month of August with the Dai family, (besides Meltem, there's a younger "brother" and "sister"), at their Mediterranean seaside cottage, about 200 miles from Gazientep, awaiting the beginning of the school year and becoming more familiar with the language and customs of Turkey.

Priscilla, in the busy weeks between graduation from South High and departure for the Middle East, found time for copious correspondence with her new family, (Mr. Dai, although a qualified attorney, now heads a firm manufacturing vegetable cooking oil), and for studying the Turkish language with a tutor from Wayne State University.

In fact, the entire Spencer clan became involved in research on Turkey, younger brothers Bill and Peter offering such practical suggestions as: "Don't worry about that 50-pound baggage limit. Just take along some bed sheets to wrap up in . . ."

Typical brothers! But the fact that Priscilla will be wearing a uniform to school in Turkey, AND the fact that the pretty green winter coat has copious pockets, helped ease the luggage allowance problem.

For the past several weeks, the Spencer home has been fantastically busy. Daughter Julie was married June 17 to Robert Peterson, and they left, after an at-home reception, for a summer of studies in England.

Bill, 15, who recently received his Eagle Scout Award, has just gone off to the Philmont Scout Ranch in Cimarron, N.M.

In the midst of it all, however, mother Betty managed to maintain her good humor and efficiency, even surprising her family with an occasional "Turkish delight" dinner delicacy discovered in one of the local mid-Eastern markets.

are enough life preservers to assure safety for everyone.

To further insure safety, two boats are especially equipped to handle cases of patients requiring medication during the trip. Doctors and nurses go along to cope with emergencies, and on all the boats passengers are supervised by staff members and adult volunteers from the Metropolitan Society Therapy Center.

The United States Coast Guard and the Detroit Police

Harbor Patrol will be in front and behind the flotilla. Senior Red Cross life guards will be spaced among the boats to care for any emergency.

born Marianne Trombley her parents living on the corner of Lincoln and St. Paul. Chuck, in real estate is a native Pointer, too.

Their children, Kitty, 13 this May, and eight-year-old Elizabeth, both students at University-Liggett, are born-Pointers like their parents.

An Adopted Member Fifth member of the Endicott menage, basset Claude Humphrey Von Kitanjon, ("Humphrey" when he's good, "CLAUDE Humphrey" when he's bad), is adopted.

Would Kitty and Elizabeth Endicott like to take Humphrey, to take care of him? Wouldn't they just!

The Endicotts have planned a casual summer, lots of swimming at the park interspersed with short trips: To Greenfield Village, Cedar Point, the Detroit Zoo, within reason, geographically and time-wise, points of interest.

A Dream Trip It was a perfectly marvelous trip, going and coming and in between. They went on every single Disneyland ride, (Elizabeth particularly remembers the one where they shrink you to the size of a molecule), and went away happy.

Workshops Continue Melody Mart workshops are continuing through the summer, in Birmingham-Bloomfield and The Pointe, where a group of Juniors has been meeting Mondays at St. James Lutheran Church.

There'll be a Baked Goods and a Celebrity Booth, and the Juniors will be selling their own beautiful Christmas cards, designed by Ann Miller, of Barrington road, Judie Beach, of Rivard

Big Tapestry Project Marianne's brought out her needle, unfolded her tapestry again. This tapestry is a giant project, a Mazaitov reproduction of an 18th century painting, figures in a landscape, with a castle in the background, and a sea of green lawn, a sea of sky . . .

Officially, it's Marianne's "second" needlepoint project. "I did one needlepoint purse, and then I started this," she laughs.

Since starting "this," she's taken time out for other, short-term needlepoint work, returning to the tapestry "in spurts." (Makes sense, for that sky-sea, that lawn-sea, could be appalling, on an "I HAVE to get it done before I go on to anything else" basis — unless, perchance, one's husband had just left on a Crusade, one's castle ran-itself, and one had to keep oneself occupied until his return, in two or three years, from the Holy Land.)

Kitty and Elizabeth are both plying their needles this summer, too, the former working on Winnie-the-Pooh, the latter on a lion.

Has Other Activities Marianne's a member of Ithex, the Founders Society Detroit Institute of Arts, the

HOPE Heading West

The HOPE Ship League turned West this year for the theme of its annual summer lawn party, a "Roundup" on the Ranger property of the Dodge Estate, adjacent to Rose Terrace, overlooking Lake St. Clair, and MRS. CHARLES COL-LINSON, (right), is all dressed up in Western costume to point up the fact that Project HOPE maintains domestic land bases in Ganado, Ariz., and Laredo, Tex.

Method in Location Melody Mart will be presented in the Social Room at Ford Auditorium. There's method in this location: Get the people down to Ford Auditorium, show them how easy it is to get down, show them the Auditorium's facilities, and they'll be more inclined to come down for a concert, or two, or a whole season's concerts.

Popular with Public Popular with the public were the Juniors-sponsored Open Rehearsal Lectures at Ford Auditorium, surprise money-makers, ("We made over $3,000 for the Pension Fund") despite special rates, for senior citizens and students. This series was designed not to raise funds but to acquaint the general public with the Orchestra.

Each Juniors' president, each year, has her own "special project." Marianne's, last year, was Making the Scene, the Juniors' calendar of coming events all over the metropolitan Detroit area.

She didn't join the Juniors with the idea of becoming president. Who does? Who, considering the amount of work and time involved, would? "You find yourself chairman of something," she explains, "and then you run for the board, and the first year you're a member of the standing committee, and then you move up . . ."

Perhaps, if the Juniors are lucky, they'll find another Marianne Endicott in their newest New Member Class.

Living things have priority with Marianne Endicott.

So the gold-leaving could wait. The harpsichord is static. It can be finished anytime. The Symphony's alive.
