Parents Boost Activities

(Continued from Page 1) Principals of both high schools, Jerry J. Gerich of South and Bruce Feighner of North, met with representatives of the parent clubs to work out the activity programs. Once each school settled on a recommended program, the program was returned to the parent clubs for review. The November 13 Board meeting gave the formal go-ahead.

It was pointed out at the meeting that the appropriation for each activity was not accurate to the dollar. Exact expenses are not known as the students will be polled to discover exact preferences as to activities.

Exceptional Programs
As mentioned by Board President William Huette-man, the programs are exceptional in the amount of money allotted to girls sports.

Representing the Parents Club of North High, President Charles Woodbury stressed that the club might have to have a fund-raising drive to reach the $8,000 mark set by the program.

In discussing the appropriations, Mr. Woodbury said that the parent club was most concerned that every North student benefit from the monies. For that reason, top priority was the school paper, North Pointe, which is distributed free to every student.

At the meeting, one sensitive spot in the two schools' relationship was brought up by a member of the North High Boosters Club who questioned why North and South always have to present nearly identical programs.

Request Sliced
Also subject of an editorial in South High's newspaper, The Tower, South originally asked to raise $11,000 toward extra-curricular activities. The request was denied as North planned to raise only $8,000.

Answering the complaints was the Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Theos I. Anderson, who remained firm in the school system's belief that "the two schools should keep programs comparable."

Dr. Anderson took time to clear up another policy decision often challenged by Pointe residents, that of refusal of money given to fund an activity for one year. The superintendent stressed that the system wanted to provide continuity in the programs, both academic and extra-curricular.

Question Salary
One section of the appropriations became an issue at the Monday night meeting, that of the $800 allotted for a program co-ordinator.

Several parents questioned spending so much for an organizer and not directing more of the money to actual activities.

When the Board passed the two $8,000 requests, the trustees asked to be given an explanation of the exact duties of the co-ordinator to prove that the $800 allotment was necessary.

The schools now have the green light to canvass the students to find out exactly what activities to organize. Most high school students should realize now that parents do come in handy sometimes.

Noise Pollution Ordinance

Sound measurement is primarily made in decibels, with the decibel level increasing as the sound becomes louder. The 85 decibel limit was reached via a consensus of published Federal and State standards, noted Mr. Catlin. He added that a level of pain can be reached around 105 to 110 decibels.

The ordinance defines decibel as a unit or level of sound energy which denotes the ratio between two sound qualities which are proportional to power as measured by a sound level meter.

At this time, The Woods has one decibel measuring instrument which cost $440, said City Administrator Chester E. Petersen, who described it as a "highly technical" one. He added the city hopes to purchase more economical meters for each Department of Public Safety scout car.

Ordinance Stipulations
As for the measurement of noise levels, the ordinance states such levels will be measured at a minimum of 20 feet from the noise source located within any public right-of-way. If the source is located on private property or public property, (excluding a right-of-way), it will be measured at a minimum of 15 feet from the property line on which the source is located.

Further stipulations in the ordinance note such prohibitions will not apply to an authorized emergency vehicle or to activities of a temporary duration permitted by law, and for which a license or permit has been granted by the city, including but not limited to parades and fireworks displays.

Temporary Permits
It also provides for temporary permits which may be applied for to the Director of Public Safety or his designated representative. (This is a permit for relief from the noise level designated in the ordinance on the basis of undue hardship).

An example is the activity, operation or noise source of temporary duration which cannot be done in a manner complying with the permitted noise emission levels.

The ordinance stipulates upon violation and conviction a fine not exceeding $500 and a jail sentence not exceeding 90 days, or both, in the Courts discretion.

While one man hurries to get ahead, ten scramble to catch up.

Storm Damages Pointe

(Continued from Page 1) WORKED so the group could present "Company" the following Wednesday evening. And the show DID go on.

Shores Village Superintendent Thomas K. Jefferis estimated the storm's direct damage at around $2,000. But realizing Lake St. Clair is slowing rising, Mr. Jefferis is looking ahead.

He hopes to make some attempt to build up the break-wall in the future, and not just to put back what the storm washed away. Two cracks in the dock, for example, had been there and he noted they're not getting any better.

Park Fences Damaged
Park City Manager Robert A. Stone reported the raging water knocked the cap off the sea wall at the foot of Grand Marais boulevard. Some park fences at the Three Mile Drive Park were knocked down. He added one Windmill Pointe resident suffered water damage in his basement.

City Manager Thomas Kressbach of The City estimated the storm's damage in the marina area between $1,000 and $2,000. "Some of it was due to the high water throughout the year but it was accentuated by the storm," he said, as the wooden docks received some damage from the high winds and crashing lake. Mr. Kressbach added that the public park property fared well during the storm.

He reported some deterioration of the sea wall at the foot of Lakeland but it's still holding up. However, Mr. Kressbach noted that this further beating means a serious look at the potential replacement of the wall. Some water poured over private seawalls, and the dock-walk connecting the H. R. Boyer property to their private island was destroyed.

At The Woods' Lakefront Park, two trees were blown down. One 50-foot pine was put back up, while a large maple, which was already dead, was removed.

Purse Grabbed From Woman

While looking in a store window on Mack avenue between Severn and Prestwick, a Farms resident had her purse stolen by white males Wednesday, November 8. The purse was recovered that same day minus $9 in cash, credit cards and other items.

Florence A. Flagler told Woods Public Safety Officer Stuart Gerow that she pursued the thieves until they entered a car on Mack and sped away.

She said Bob Malloy of St. Clair Shores found her purse at the intersection of 13 Mile road and Greater Mack. The purse was discovered almost two hours after the theft.

Woods police arrested three St. Clair Shores youths the past week and are seeking warrants on them.

Church Offers Morality Play

"With Thanksgiving," a Chancel play exploring human responses to contemporary problems and the dependence of people upon God and one another, will be presented at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Sunday, November 26, at both the 9:30 a.m. and 11:15 a.m. services.

The play, written and directed by playwright Rae Bambas, introduces its characters as they take part in the Liturgical structure of the service.

The cast, composed of church members, includes Mrs. William A. Boyce, Mrs. Donald H. Lescohier, Tod McConachie, Robert Maynard, Craig McConachie, Jeff Cornelius, Earl Kotts, Cindy Erlich, Mrs. John A. Leverenz and Douglas Kuhn. Mrs. Edwin G. Evenden is the producer.

Assistants to the director include Mrs. Wesley J. Wicks, Mrs. Cort Johns, Don Lescohier, Mrs. Earl Kotts, Mrs. Thomas Candler and Mrs. Sidney Probert.

The characters portray people in many of the situations and crises in which they try to cope, hopefully to find solutions and a greater understanding and renewed faith for the future. The eternal human problems of insecurity, bereavement, anxiety and illness, and the new problems of drug abuse and changing life-styles are all examined in the course of this sensitively presented modern Morality Play.

MARSHA BOGDANSKI, 19, was crowned the new Miss Grosse Pointe at the Hunt Club's Wives Appreciation Anniversary Dinner Thursday, November 16. The GP Jaycees, who sponsor the Miss Grosse Pointe Pageant, attended the crowning.

Susan Matzka relinquished her Miss Grosse Pointe title due to her pending marriage to Hal Harvey of Montana.

Miss Bogdanski, who wore a black and white floor length evening gown, will represent Grosse Pointe in the state pageant on June 23, 1973. She was graduated from Our Lady Star of the Sea School and is in her second year of college at Detroit's Society of Arts and Crafts.

Young ladies in The Pointe who are interested in competing in the GP Scholarship Pageant are urged to contact Thomas Andris at TU 6-2820. They must be between the ages of 18 and 28 and graduate from high school by September 1, 1973. And the ladies must be single.

The pageant will be held on May 19, 1973, at North High School.

GP City DPW Given Thanks

Cited for his contribution to the redevelopment of Elworthy Field was City DPW Superintendent Robert Vens at the Monday night, November 20, City Council meeting.

Mr. Vens is credited with doing the concrete work for the children's play area and passive park and supervising the day of the Plant-In, on a very rainy Saturday, October 21. The DPW head worked on the project seven weeks prior to the final one-day landscaping effort.

The resolution of appreciation commends City employees for constructing the play area improvements, helping reduce project costs and making possible the landscape and beautification program.

Mr. Vens was present at the meeting to accept the certificate, joined by Doug Collinson receiving another certificate on behalf of all the DPW workers who contributed time.

After the presentation, City Mayor John L. King said that the men could be excused if they did not care to sit through the council meeting.

"No, we want to see what's going on," Mr. Vens quipped as he sat down with Mr. Collinson amid a chuckle from trustees and residents alike.

A similar resolution commended the landscaping services who donated manpower and equipment. Timberlane Landscaping Company, Fleming Landscaping and Gene's Landscape Service were singled out.

Environmental Action Now, National Bank of Detroit and citizens volunteers were recognized in a third resolution.

League Offers Arctic Movies

The Cinema League presents "Arctic Adventure," photographed by Pointers Fern and Rip Zwickey, during its Thursday, December 7, program. Members and their friends will assemble in the War Memorial's Fries Auditorium at 8 p.m. for the showing.

This film will initially take the viewers to Alaska where they will visit Anchorage, Nome and Kotzebue. From there a flight was made to Iceland, an interesting island with geysers, hot springs and mud pots, which are very similar to those at Yellowstone National Park.

From Iceland it's on to Greenland where Arctic life is seen in its most fascinating form. The spectacular glaciers of the west coast of this country were visited in a small boat which wound its way up a scenic ford past huge icebergs.

The Zwickeyes then skip over to Norway for a cruise to Spitzbergen, the northernmost bit of land on earth, where the sun never sets during the month of August. They continue northward to within eight degrees of the North Pole and are able to view the pack ice which surrounds the axis.

The audience also will have a look at Finland along the Soviet border, a landscape with herds of reindeer tended by those interesting Laplanders in their colorful clothing.

Those who have seen other travel movies prepared and presented by the Zwickeyes will want to be on time to see this new one from another remote part of the world. The usual social hour will be held after the film with coffee, tea and cookies being served.

Foil Robbery

(Continued from Page 1) both were released when it was found they were not involved in the break-in. They gave no reason for trying to elude Daniels and the police officers.

The Daniels said that they left home on Friday, November 17, at 1:30 p.m. for the weekend, and returned on Sunday. As they were about to enter the rear door of the house, they saw the enclosed rear porch door open. They entered the house and found the door leading into the dining room ajar.

They told police that they discovered an audio-record changer, belonging to their son, on the dining room table, and other assorted stereo equipment on the dining room floor and on the back of the back porch. All the items were taken from their son's bedroom, the parents said.

Daniels and a neighbor wife went to the rear of the house, they saw a youth, about 17 years old, about five feet ten inches tall, thin build and wearing a three-quarter length coat, which appeared to have a fur-trimmed hood, and wearing dark pants. The surprised youth ran through the yard and leaped over the fence.

Daniels said a neighbor friend searched the area, and came upon the two youths whom they thought were involved in the break-in, and gave chase. While the chase was in progress, Cardella and Dewey came on the scene.

The thief entered the house by prying open the porch door and breaking the glass of the door leading into the dining room, police said.

If you must tell all you know be sure you know all you tell.

City Parking Hassle

(Continued from Page 1) ment upon the effect of the parking development on the character of the entire City. Mr. Rogers gave the project his blessing as he recognized a need for increased parking in the area. He stressed that every effort had been made by Jacobson's to retain the residential nature of the area by limiting access to the parking area to the present St. Clair entrance, and by providing a six-foot stockade fence.

In Bad Condition
Presently the lot is in a dilapidated condition with pools of water in the rutted terrain. Some residents have installed wire fences to delineate their property line and shield their lots from the weeds and debris collecting on the old VFW plot.

One fact the city planner emphasized was that the ribbon-like plot has few other possible uses as it is too narrow to accommodate a short lane of additional residences. Adding the final professional say on the matter was The City's traffic engineer consultant, Charles Michalski, who analyzed the parking needs of the area.

The traffic expert cited the recent development of the area, in particular the building of the National Bank of Detroit branch office, the McCourt building, Walton-Pierce's proposed relocation and Jacobson's expansion, and concluded that present parking was simply not sufficient.

Residents Opposed
The residents saw things differently.

"None of us are objecting to the development of that lot," one St. Clair resident began, "But the question we want to ask is when will there be enough parking spaces?"

Other residents echoed her concern as they voiced their fear of the expanding Village turning their property into urban fringe, devaluing the property values.

As could be expected, fiscal concern became paramount as Village retailers argued that adequate parking was critical for a commercial center. The owner of the Camera Center, Milton Volkens, pointed out that an entire residential area suffers when the associated commercial center goes downhill.

"And parking is the life-blood of a business district," Mr. Volkens concluded after reminding the residents of the clean and refined appearance of The Village.

The residents remained unsatisfied as they felt that the commercial concerns were taking precedence over the rights of property owners. If the parking area was approved, as it was at the close of the meeting, they would be bounded by a busy thoroughfare in the front of their lots and a developed parking area at their back lot line.

Another fact which entered the picture was that some of the residents had privately approached Jacobson's with an offer to sell their lots. City planner Mr. Rogers termed some of the asking prices "astronomical."

Other Complaints
Other complaints were directed at the present parking facilities as most residents said that the lots were rarely filled to capacity. They stated that a terrace development would be the best use of the area as far as the neighbors were concerned.

"My mother has lived in her Neff house for 50 years," Thomas Van Tiem said. "She moved to Grosse Pointe on account of its residential character, and now she finds herself surrounded by parking areas."

"It's the residents who are suffering and I question whether the priorities are getting mixed up," Mr. Van Tiem finished.

After an hour of residents' complaints, the Public Hearing was closed by City Mayor John L. King.

Unanimous Approval
Taking a roll call vote, all the councilmen voted in favor of rezoning the area to accommodate parking facilities, with the southern tip reserved for the building of a duplex on a 1,200 square foot lot.

The reasoning was that a developed parking area was the only practical use of the strip of land too narrow to accommodate residences. The residents, however, did not agree and left the meeting clearly expressing their disfavor with the councilmen.

ONE-WAY TRIP
Disagreeable days aren't subject to recall, so make the most of it when going is good.

Remember that little duties are lessons for larger ones.

Farms Fire

times, Chief Beaupre said. The two firemen found Mrs. Rodger in her bedroom at the northwest section of the house.

Candella and MacEachern broke the glass of a large window of the bedroom and handed the woman's body out to waiting firemen and policemen. Farms Patrolman John Kraiza applied heart massage but without success. Mrs. Rodger was placed on a stretcher and into a City ambulance and taken to the hospital, where doctors pronounced her dead on arrival.

Praises Firemen

"The men of my department and those from the City did a magnificent job in bringing the fire under control in such a short time," Chief Beaupre said. "Mrs. Rodger's body was removed from the house in 10 minutes after the arrival of the equipment and personnel of both departments. The firemen of both departments are to be commended for a job well done, especially Sgt. Candella and Fireman MacEachern, who went into the still burning house to attempt a rescue.

Two Suspects Arrested

Mr. Glancy suffered a fractured skull and finger and was severely beaten about the head and face.

All Loot Recovered
Sergeant Mustazza said all of the stolen property has been recovered. This includes a number of furs, plus a man's gold ring, a ladies ring and a set of cuff links. The furs were valued at around $30,000, police said.

The culprit apparently entered Mr. Glancy's bedroom sometime between 8:30 a.m. and 9 a.m. Mrs. Glancy had left the house around 8:15 a.m., police said, and two sons, Peter and David, didn't hear anything until the officers arrived. Mr. Glancy contacted police around 9:12 a.m. and was taken to Bon Secours Hospital before being ultimately transferred to Harper.

The specific method of entry remains under investigation.

Charge Driver With Drinking

A St. Clair Shores man was arrested and charged with driving under the influence of liquor early Saturday morning, November 11. While on routine patrol going north on Mack avenue, Woods Public Safety Officers Patrick McMath and Russell Allard spotted a vehicle driven by Irvin Curtis Miller go over the curb onto the island and back on the roadway. Miller then went over the curb on the opposite side. Upon being stopped at the GP Service Center, police said Miller appeared to have been drinking as his speech was slurred. He had a hard time standing and fell against the scout car, police stated. He was taken to the station and released after paying a $90 bond, pending his court date Wednesday, December 13.

Farms Residents to Get City Information Bulletin

A complete informative bulletin, which would require no changes for years to come, will be mailed to all homes in the Farms, and will be made available to new families who desire to take up residence in the city, the Farms council was informed by City Manager Andrew Bremer, Jr., on Monday, November 20. The pamphlet was prepared by Councilwoman Nancy Waugaman, with the aid of an interested citizen, who, Mrs. Waugaman said, was of great assistance in preparing the layout of the booklet. The city manager informed the council that the bulletin is sufficiently broad, in that the information contained in it, need not be changed for a good many years. This informative paper will be mailed out by the end of this week, or early next week, he added. Mrs. Waugaman, aided by the citizen, had worked on the informational booklet since it was authorized by the city council last June 19. It is attractively done with blue printing on a white background. The front cover has a street map of the Farms. The booklet outlines the divisions of city government, and includes information on the Police and Fire Departments, the Municipal Pier-Park and recreational facilities, trash collection, city regulations (ordinances), voter registration and elections, property assessment and taxes, Water Department and waters bills, municipal court data, zoning and land use, etc. Residents should keep their pamphlets in a place where it is easily accessible. They should read the bulletin thoroughly and familiarize themselves with its contents, and not discard them as just another item from the city, by tossing them into the waste basket. As written on the front cover, "it covers the information most frequently requested and is not intended to be a comprehensive encyclopedia of all the facts and figures you may want to know..." Citizens who have further questions or desire additional information, should contact the city office, 882-6600.

Restaurant Messed Up By Vandals

Spread Paint Throughout Building; Break Chandelier and Kick Out Front Door

Two white males made a nasty mess at Carmen's Pizzeria and Restaurant, 20745 Mack avenue, after the owner closed the building at 12 midnight. The vandalism, which included dumping white paint on the premises, was reported Wednesday, November 15. John Shelser told Woods Public Safety Officer Michael Giffert that after closing the restaurant, he went to the kitchen when he heard a loud noise at the front. Upon checking, he spotted the men running out and heading north on Mack. Hide in Restroom Further investigation revealed the vandals had apparently hidden in the men's restroom. They obtained a can of white paint which was in the restroom cabinet and spilled some on the floor. There also was a trail of paint leading from the restroom through the dining area, (on the carpet), and to the front. The men broke off a chandelier in the vestibule before escaping by kicking the front door and breaking the hinge, police said.

Tries to Leave Accident Scene

After ramming his car into a tree in front of 733 Rivard boulevard and blowing out both right tires, an 18-year-old Roseville youth tried to avoid the rap by walking away from his vehicle early Sunday morning, November 19. Unfortunately for the youth, Dean Mroz, 18781 Voiland, Roseville, a citizen contacted City Police Officers Dale van Dale and David Teolis arrived at the scene at 2:20 a.m. and were directed to the youth by the witness. Questioning the youth, the police noticed that his speech was slurred and that he had trouble maintaining his balance. The suspect was charged with driving while under the influence of alcohol at City police headquarters. After posting a $100 bond, Mroz was released pending his court date of Tuesday, December 12. His car was towed from where it was abandoned, in front of 830 Rivard, to a Mack avenue service station and held in lieu of a $20 towing charge. Besides the two right side tires blown, the '68 Chevrolet sustained damage to the left rear fender.

BIKE STOLEN Someone stole a boy's blue Schwinn bicycle from the Neighborhood Club Friday night, November 17. The youth's mother, Mrs. Robert G. Loomis, Jr., 553 University, called City police that night to report the theft. The bike is a 10-speed with a 26-inch frame.

Errant Driver Faces Hearing

Thomas G. Dwyer, 37, of 1865 Hollywood, is scheduled for an appearance before Farms Municipal Judge Robert Pytell on Wednesday, December 13. Dwyer, who is free on $1,000 personal bond, is charged with driving while drunk and speeding. According to the arresting officers, Patrolmen Gerald Deburghraeve and Donald Dewey, the motorist was observed traveling east on Mack avenue at a high rate of speed at 3:05 a.m., from Bournmouth to the Farms-Woods city limits. The policemen said they pursued Dwyer and paced him at 60 miles an hour and brought him to a stop at Lochmoor boulevard and ordered him out of his car. Deburghraeve and Dewey said they detected a strong odor of alcohol on the man's breath, and that he was loud and had trouble talking because of slurred speech. Dwyer was placed under arrest and taken to the Farms station. He refused a breathalyzer test. Later in the morning, Dwyer was arraigned for an examination before Judge Pytell, who set the trial date for December 13, and released Dwyer on personal bond until the hearing.

School Board Meets on November 27

The Grosse Pointe Board of Education will hold a special meeting to approve the monthly accounts payable at 8:00 p.m. on Monday, November 27, in the Board Room of the Administration Building, 389 St. Clair avenue. William F. Huetteman, president, will chair the meeting and Dr. Theos I. Anderson, Superintendent, will present recommendations for the trustees' action. Interested citizens are invited to attend.

Cottage, Local Residents To Air Parking Problems

Cottage Hospital representatives who attended the Farms council meeting on Monday, November 20, expressed the hospital's willingness to resolve the congested on-street parking problems around the facility. The representatives said the hospital wishes to maintain good relations with the residents of the area and is anxious to cooperate in alleviating the problem.

A petition bearing 90 signatures of residents living in the area of the hospital, was in the hands of the council. The petition asked the council to require Cottage Hospital to comply with its new building projection and with the city permits, ordinances and the general character of the neighborhood.

The petition further requested that the hospital "cease and desist from using the emergency entrance approaches and Kercheval avenue setback for V.I.P. parking . . . to further provide the full 230 off-street parking spaces as originally represented."

It appears that the major complaint of the residents living in Muir, Ridge, Lewiston and Mapleton roads, that employees of the hospital and visitors have monopolized the on-street parking to such an extent, that people living in these streets cannot find a place to park their own cars.

It was further brought out by the citizens, that hospital employees and visitors, not only utilize the parking in front of the residences, but also the congestion makes it extremely difficult for the residents who have driveways, to see and to back out because of the very narrow area created by the on-street parkers. As one resident put it, "I'd hate to be driving on Muir, for instance, if a fire truck should respond to an emergency on that street."

Ken Kahn of 143 Lewiston, who was spokesman for the residents, presented a series of 19 photographs, showing cars parked on the streets surrounding the hospital. He said that the autos parked on the avenue remain all day, and that the owners are employees of the hospital. He said that he and a group of the petitioners made a daily check and found that the same cars were parked on Kercheval and the nearby streets.

Kahn said that this is known as a fact, since the license plates of the vehicles are checked, and it is found that it is always the same people who park there.

Attorney Gordon Wood, who spoke for the hospital's Board of Directors, said that the hospital at the present time is developing a section of its parking lot at the corner of Muir and Ridge which should make available 14 more parking spaces. At the present time, the lot has space for 189 cars.

When queried by the residents, Wood said that three lots on Muir, across from the hospital, is owned by Cottage, but he said he did not know if the hospital intends to develop these lots for parking. If this should be the case, an additional 90 spaces would be made available.

Mayor William Butler pointed out that under an agreement signed by the city and the hospital on May 6, 1968, which allowed Cottage to add on a wing to its present facilities, the hospital was to provide one and one-half spaces for each bed, and one year from the completion of the wing, the city would have the right to review the agreement and demand that Cottage provide 270 car spaces, if this was necessary. The hospital had agreed to this number, it was pointed out.

The mayor, asked Kahn if he was willing to be the chairman of a residents' committee, to meet with three representatives of the hospital's Board of Directors. Kahn accepted and will pick two from his group to meet with Cottage's agents to iron out the problem. The city will also be represented at this meeting.

In the meantime, Police Chief Robert Ferber was directed by the council, at the request of the residents, to study the problem of cars parking too close to the corner of Muir and Ridge roads, thereby blocking a clear view of motorists traveling on these roads as they approach the intersection.

In regard to the three lots on Muir owned by Cottage, it was pointed out by the mayor that before these lots can be developed for parking, the council will have to make a study and rezone the plots for this purpose.

The council will be informed of the outcome of the session between the agents of the residents and the hospital at a meeting in December.

Drugs, Alcohol Lead to Chase

A high speed chase in the City of Grosse Pointe, The Park and Detroit led to the arrest of a 17-year-old Woods youth, Michael A. Juif, 1778 Newcastle, who admitted both to being high on drugs and under the influence of alcohol.

The chase began Thursday morning, November 16, at 1:55 a.m. when Juif passed City Officers Richard Clarke and David Teolis on Cadieux road. Juif was traveling south at 50 m.p.h. and crossing the center line as the scout car traveling north, veered to avoid a collision.

Making a U-turn, the scout car followed the fugitive vehicle as it sped down Cadieux, running the stop sign at the Maumee intersection and the red light as it turned right onto Jefferson from Cadieux. The speeding car ignored the scout car's siren and flashing light as it increased its speed to 70 m.p.h. on Jefferson. Juif ran both the Beaconsfield and Maryland red lights on Jefferson.

The next leg of the chase involved the streets of Alter, Hampton and Maryland as the vehicle hit speeds of 80 m.p.h., running stop signs at all the intersections. The chase climaxed on Maryland, between Mack and Warren, when the vehicle attained speeds of 100 m.p.h. according to the police report.

Once on Warren, Juif ran the red light at the Chalmers intersection, striking a vehicle northbound on Chalmers. Disregarding the accident, Juif continued on Warren even though the hood of his car had flipped up from the impact, making it impossible for Juif to see surrounding traffic.

Sergeant George Blair of The Park police department joined in the chase, and attempted to trap the fleeing car on Warren.

Making a frantic U-turn, Juif wheeled his car around and struck a car traveling west on Warren.

The chase finally ended by the mechanical failure of Juif's car which stalled in the middle of Warren avenue. City officers immediately arrested Juif and transported him to The City police station.

Police noted that the suspect's eyes were bloodshot, his speech slurred and that he had difficulty standing. Taken to The Woods police station for a breathalyzer test, the detector noted a small alcohol content in the suspect's system. Under investigation, Juif admitted to heavy drug usage that night.

The youth was released under $100 bond, pending his court appearance in The City Municipal Court.

Cold Facts

Winter weather is unpredictable. Depending on wind, temperature and moisture, snow density can vary from a fluffy layer containing about 80% air to a closely packed snow layer with as little as 30% air.

Snow which is 50% saturated with water weighs about 30 lbs. per cubic foot.

Rain does not readily melt snow, only makes it heavier and harder to handle. Rain at 40 degrees will melt only about 5% of the snow layer.

Based on the 1966-71 average of 39.8 inches of snow, a sixty-foot public sidewalk will get 33 cubic yards of snow which is approximately 6 1/2 truck loads.

A six-inch layer of moist new snow equals one inch of rain. Over an acre of ground this much snow weighs 113 tons.

A six-inch snow on the average Grosse Pointe driveway and front walk weighs from two to six tons.

Is it wise for you to do such strenuous work? In most cases, for less than you spend a day for cigarettes, you can be free from snow shoveling worries.

Snow removal is a full time business, not a part time job. We are ready to serve you twenty-four hours a day. We sweep while you sleep. We will be accepting only a limited number of customers, so order now to insure dependable service.

A Good Man To Know

The new 914S is even quicker and more responsive than the quick, responsive 914. Because the 914S has a fuel injected 2-liter mid-engine. A bigger engine that the Porsche engineers spent a year and a half developing.

But there's much more to the 914S than a bigger engine. To begin with, it has all the great features of the 914. Like rack-and-pinion steering, four-wheel disc brakes, a five-speed gear box and a built-in roll bar. There's also a fiber glass roof that you can take off and store in the rear trunk and still have room for luggage. And if you need more room, there's another trunk in the front.

914 S

Now, in addition to all of these features, the 914S has bigger forged alloy wheels, heavy duty radial tires and fog lights.

Between the seats there's a deluxe console, which includes a voltmeter and an oil pressure gauge. There's velour carpeting on the floor and a two-toned horn. And, of course, that brand new fuel-injected 2-liter mid-engine.

The Porsche 914S, a brilliantly engineered and beautifully designed car. A car very different from other cars. The Super Porsche.

Austin Prep School honored its championship golf team at a fall sports award banquet Monday, November 20.

A small but talented group of eight young men including captain Mark Promack, Gary Jones, Dave Thieman, Edwin Fisher, Greg Holland, Michael Michael, John Niedermaier and James Meath used their sweet swings for a 10-0 season.

The Varsity, (Promack, Jones, Fisher and Thieman), set a team record of 144 strokes, only five strokes over par at the Lochmoor Club. This foursome also won the Catholic Championship and were third in the State in spite of monsoon weather. Promack, the only four-year varsity player, was medalist eight matches in succession and carried a 36.9 average for the year, an individual school record. He also made All-City three years, All-State two years and was named All Metro by the Detroit News this year.

Jones and Fisher were each dual match medalist and Thieman tied for medalist once. Jones made All-City and All-State this year, missing All-American by one stroke. Fisher made All-City this year.

Cougars Split Four Games

The Frank Adam Lincoln-Mercury-sponsored Cougars started the week by losing 5-1 to the St. Clair Shores Open League team. The Cougars had previously defeated the club on St. Clair Shores' ice and this game evened up the series.

Then the Cougars lost a cliff-hanger, 3-2, in the last five seconds to the Warren Marathon Milers, who also play in the Michigan Open League.

The weekend found the Cougars back in their own Southeastern Michigan Hockey Association competition. However, the competition was somewhat lacking Saturday, November 18, as they defeated Madison Heights by the football-like score of 21-0. All that can be said of the mismatch is that the Cougars had 50 minutes of shooting practice. Hat tricks were chalked up by Chick Taylor, Jeff Kydd and Ben Amore.

On Sunday, November 19, the Cougars met the Flint entry in a tough league. They, in their own back and score saw-sawed goals elbowed with the Cou-43 vying out a hard-earned victory. Joe Seehee scored of goals, one unassisted and a tip-on of Steve Levick's hard shot. The other two goals were scored by Tom McHugh and Chick Taylor, who set each other up for their scores.

Approves Sale By Goodfellows

A Woods Lions Club request to sell Goodfellow Edition newspapers on city streets this year was unanimously approved by the Woods Council. The vote was 5-0 in action taken at the regular meeting Monday, November 20. (Both Mayor Kenneth McLeod and Councilman George S. Freeman were excused).

The one-day sale is set for Monday, December 11, from 7 a.m. to 12 noon, said Lions president John M. Easton. All sale proceeds will be exclusively devoted to the club's program of sight conservation, plus aid to the blind and urgent local charitable needs.

Jury Decides Driver Guilty

A jury of four men and two women deliberated for 15 minutes before returning a verdict of guilty in the case of Basilio Peters, 19, of St. Clair Shores, on Wednesday, November 15. The trial was held before Park Municipal Judge William E. Speer, who deferred sentence until December 6.

Peters was arrested recently on a charge of driving while his operator's license was suspended. At his examination, he entered a plea of not guilty and demanded a trial by jury.

Alfred Costello, 21, of Detroit, on the Wednesday court date, entered a plea of guilty to possession of a controlled substance, for which he was arrested on July 17. His trial had been postponed several times.

After accepting the plea, Judge Speer sentenced Costello to 19 days in the Detroit House of Correction.

Jay T. Baggot, 21, of The Ferns, pled not guilty and was found guilty of disorderly conduct. He was ordered to pay a fine and court costs of $125.

Hendrick Zuidwijk, 24, of The Park, entered a plea of guilty to driving while his ability was impaired, for which he paid a fine of $100 and $5 court costs. He also pled guilty to having no operator's license on his person and this cost him an additional fine and court costs of $25 and six months probation.

Child Illnesses Forum Planned

Pediatric Emergencies will be the subject of a public forum to be held at St. John Hospital at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, December 5.

The forum, which is free and open to the public, is designed to help parents and parents-to-be prevent medical emergencies and assist them in effectively dealing with these emergencies if they should occur. Among the information presented will be prevention of serious illness and accidents, recognition of symptoms, basic first aid measures, and how, when and where to obtain help.

The forum is presented by the St. John Hospital Guild and the hospital's medical staff as part of a community health education program at the hospital.

Appearing on the program will be C. Don Steepe, M.D., chief of pediatrics at St. John, who will discuss accidental injuries including burns, poisoning, lacerations and head injuries.

Also appearing on the program will be Thad H. Joos, a pediatrician. Dr. Joos will talk about allergic emergencies including asthma, insect bites and contact dermatitis.

The third panel member will be Ali Rabbani, M.D., neo-natologist and staff pediatrician at the hospital, who will discuss infant emergency program.

Following their presentations, panel members will answer questions from the audience.

William B. McIntyre, M.D., chairman of the hospital's Community Health Education Program, said, "Needless tragedies sometimes occur when parents do not take precautions to avoid childhood emergencies and are uninformed about what to do if they happen. We hope to help parents in our community avoid these tragedies by presenting this Pediatric Emergency Program for them."

Free tickets and further information may be obtained by calling St. John Hospital 881-8200, extension 460.

YSD Has Busy October; Receives 60 Complaints

October was a busy month for the Youth Service Division, (YSD). Sixty complaints were referred to and processed by the YSD, a jump of two complaints over the month of September.

As in September, Violation of the Controlled Substance Act, (VCSA), was the leading complaint received. Twenty-two such complaints were reported in October as compared to 25 in September. Of the 22 complaints, 16 were for marijuana, four for synthetic drugs, pills, and two for possession of drug paraphernalia such as hash pipes.

During October, four cases of drug overdose were reported. These youths were transported to hospitals and later released to parents.

Forty-two youths were in the VCSA complaints, including 33 boys and nine girls. Larcenies were the second leading complaint received during October. Ten complaints were reported, against six for September.

Five applications for petition were filed with the Wayne County Juvenile Court involving four boys and one girl. The girl was filed on for being a runaway from home, and this application was authorized for action by the court.

Three of the boys were filed on for breaking and entering/larceny. Of these, two were authorized for court action and one was placed on probation. The fourth boy was filed on for possession of stolen property; no action has been taken by the court to date.

A breakdown of the 60 total cases includes: VCSA, 22; larceny, 10; runaway or missing, seven, (including five runaways under 17 and one missing and not returned); vandalism, five; assaults, four; other criminal contacts, three; burglary, two, and one piece for robbery, arson, weapons laws violation, liquor laws, disorderly conduct, traffic and miscellaneous other.

Burglar Visits Farms Home

James L. Thomas of 381 Ridgmont, and his son, Louis, left home four hours apart on Friday, November 17, and during their absence a burglar broke into the house, according to information released by Farms authorities.

The father said that he left home at 8 a.m. and his son was gone at noon. The elder Thomas said when he returned home later in the afternoon, he discovered the front, side and rear doors open.

Thomas said that missing from his bedroom dresser drawer was $60 in currency, and taken from his son's bedroom was a silver wrist watch, value not known.

Also missing, Thomas said were two hand guns, one a Colt .38 caliber, six-shot blue steel revolver with a six-inch barrel, and a Smith and Wesson .38 blue steel, five shot revolver.

Investigating officers were unable to determine the point of entry, it was stated, since there were no signs that the doors or any windows had been forced.

Thomas said that as he was leaving home, he saw three teenagers loitering in the vicinity of his house.

St. John Plans Study Center

St. John Hospital Center for Health Education, planned to provide necessary facilities for a greatly expanded health information and education program, will be under construction in late spring of 1973.

Although the Center is primarily designed for continuing medical education and training of the hospital's medical staff, interns, residents and paramedical personnel, the concept of the center is unique in that provisions are being made for the development of a comprehensive community health education program using the new facilities.

In addition to classes, forums, lectures, and demonstrations presented by the hospital for members of the community, the Center's facilities will be made available to schools and organizations for health related programs and events.

The Center for Health Education will be located on the lower level of the new patient and professional service building situated in front of the present main hospital structure.

Included in the Center will be a 252 seat modern theater-type auditorium containing the latest in audio-visual teaching equipment. Adjacent to the auditorium will be dressing rooms for patients participating in medical education programs, a lobby, restrooms and a cloakroom.

Other Center facilities will include a greatly expanded health sciences library, a seminar room, six classrooms, two conference rooms and offices for medical education, in-service education and audio-visual departments. On the upper level of the addition will be a new main lobby with a drive up entrance. Other sections will include a visitors lounge, admitting offices, a restaurant and gift shop, the doctors' lounge, and office facilities for administration and nursing.

Relocation of offices and services into the new building will permit the conversion of vacated space into patient facilities. Among these will be the modification of the present lobby into a patient lounge and the conversion of the west side of the first floor to patient rooms, thus increasing the hospital's bed capacity by 34 beds.

With the completion of this addition, St. John Hospital will have taken yet another step in its development as a comprehensive community health care center.

All proceeds from the Fontbonne Auxiliary's 19th Annual White Christmas Ball, to be held Saturday, December 9, will be directed to the building program. Pointer Mrs. Richard R. Shalla is serving as general chairman.

ANTENNA BROKEN

A resident of 364 University place, Harvey Parke, called City police Friday morning, November 10, to report vandalism to his car. Sometime during the night, an unknown person snapped the antenna of his '69 Ford Galaxie. The car was parked in front of his house.

Never forget that death on the highways takes no vacation.

Get your husband a Toro Snow Pup for Christmas. It's good for him.

Heart. Nature gave everybody only one. It has its limits.

Spinal discs. When they slip—booming! That's trouble.

Back muscles. You've heard of "Oh, my aching back"? You know the problem.

Shovel not. Just put this 22-lb. Snow Pup against a drift and lean on it. Away the snow flies.

Hangs up like a shovel. It can be stored hanging from a hook in a garage. Yet it can clean a 50-foot driveway of 4-inch snow in about 15 minutes.

20 lbs. is what a shovelful of snow can weigh. Try flinging 50 shovelfuls some morning.

Squeegee-like paddles. They look a little funny, but they throw snow up to 15 feet!

The Toro® Snow Pup® snow thrower comes in two sizes: a 14-inch model for a suggested $124.95* retail price, and a 21-inch model for a suggested $139.95* retail price.

See the Snow Pup and other Toro snow throwers now in time for Christmas.

Officers Save Woman's Life

Three Shores Public Safety Officers saved the life of a Detroit woman when she was discovered with no vital life signs Friday, November 17, about 1:30 a.m. She was taken to Bon Secours Hospital where she received emergency treatment and was ultimately released.

Officers Dan Healy and Archie Grieve were hailed by a Detroit man while patrolling south on Lake Shore road. He told police the 22-year-old woman, a passenger in his car, had stopped breathing.

They immediately went to the aid of the woman, who showed no vital signs of life, (no evidence of heart circulation or lung function). The officers began to administer mouth-to-mouth resuscitation and implemented manual heart massage methods for about four minutes. At this time, she began to show mild indications of respiratory functions, police said.

Oxygen was administered to the woman, who was taken to Bon Secours by Officers Grieve and Gary Mitchell. While enroute, she again stopped breathing and mechanical resuscitation was administered by Officer Grieve with the woman again responding. Around 900 pounds of oxygen was dispensed during the incident, police reported.

The man told police she had been taking some unknown medication and had consumed a large quantity of alcoholic beverages the previous day. He added his friend collapsed suddenly while riding with him.

Puppy Love Proves Serious

It must be rough to be a dog and in love. Especially if the police are on your trail.

City police are currently on the look-out for a large white dog who has been hanging around a house on Roosevelt place.

The owner of the female dog finally had it when the amorous pooch, in his efforts to see his loved one, began to damage the window sills and screens. The resident contacted City police to complain, and the police promised to be on the lookout.

Gunman Robs Park Theater

A teenage bandit, armed with a nickel-plated revolver, held up the Esquire Theater Tuesday evening, November 14, and escaped on foot after demanding and receiving the day's receipts, according to information released by Lt. Gordon Duncan.

The gunman, said to be black and about 19-years-old, approached the ticket box office at 7:47 p.m. and asked for a ticket. The cashier opened the money drawer to make change, when the youth stuck a gun through the slot opening and demanded all the money in the drawer. The cashier told police that she gave the robber approximately $136 in currency.

The bandit grabbed the money and fled east on Jefferson and disappeared. A search of the area by Park, City and Detroit police officers, failed to locate the suspect.

The gunman was described as being five feet five inches tall; another witness claimed he was six feet.

The matter was referred to officers of the Detective Bureau for further investigation.

Legislative reform, a magic phrase which seldom means much in practice. Legislatures, whether state or the federal Congress do not enjoy very high esteem. Many if not most people view them with skepticism if not open disdain. Part of the reason is obvious, since no legislator is elected unanimously, so there are always constituents who disagree with their legislators on some or many issues. Another part in the general distrust of authority, particularly in the "dirty" field of politics and the helpless feeling people have they can't really effect what happens in legislatures, that no one listens. Some of this is pure human nature, some healthy distrust of power and some nebulous dissatisfaction with things in general. But another part of the problem has answers in that magic phrase, legislative reform. Congress, with its seniority system, its non-record votes cast by long roll calls or merely by standing in a group in the front of the chambers and its endless habit of putting off major legislation until the last possible moment, deserves much criticism. Congress is finally installing an electronic voting system. Many of the oldest, most senior members are retiring or were defeated this year. Things are looking up. The State Legislature, similarly, has problems. We don't have a seniority system and the State House was the first in the nation to have electronic voting but other problems persist. I now sit on a newly created Legislative Reform Committee of the House. In the ensuing weeks we will be collecting and developing ideas for reforms by rule, statute or constitutional amendment. Some of the ideas I will submit include barring out-of-state travel by Committees except by House Resolution, making it illegal for lobbyists to buy liquor for legislators, requiring reporting of and limiting lobbyist group campaign contributions, scheduling debate on major legislation, installing deadlines for action on bills by Committees and the House, limiting legislators to no more than 10 bills introduced in a year, holding "personal privilege" speeches to 3 minutes and assuring no recess or adjournment can be ordered by sham voice vote if a roll call is demanded. I invite your thoughts on how we could make the legislature more responsive and efficient.

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

This year there'll be a VIP at the Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra's Christmas Walk.

Santa will be in town. He's volunteered his help at Tom and Diane Schoenith's home in Devonshire road, where, for a small donation, a "walker" can reach into Santa's Gift Bag and come up with a present—some large, some small, a vial of perfume . . . or a TV set—all donated by metropolitan area businessmen.

Light refreshments will also be served at the Schoeniths' on Thursday, December 14, when the Walk is held in The Pointe.

It will already have been held in Birmingham, on Thursday, December 7, and many Pointers will have "walked" there, journeying out in private cars or—it's really The Best way to go—via Rudolph's Rig, the bus that leaves the Grosse Pointe War Memorial at 10:15 o'clock December 7 morning.

For $10, Rudolph's Rig riders get a Walk ticket, a box lunch, cold duck, hot coffee and a hostess to describe each home upon arrival.

These are tears.

One day back in 1960, we remember seeing three of them. But not since. Mostly nice big smiles are what we see around our place. On our stylists. On our shampooists. On everyone from our receptionist to our maid. And on our clients, too. Who very much approve the careful way we cut and color and condition and comb and—oh well, everything! If you'd like a very happy hairdresser who specializes in clients of the same, see us. The only place we believe in tears is at the movies.

Candlelight Rites For Suzanne Holtz

Home in Houston Awaits Newlywed David Mundhenk; Bride is Attended by her Sister; Bridegroom's Brother Serves as Best Man

At a small family ceremony Saturday, November 18, in Iroquois Avenue Christ Lutheran Church, Suzanne Carol Holtz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Holtz, Jr., of Audubon road, spoke her marriage vows to David Mundhenk.

The 6 o'clock candlelight rites at which The Reverend E. H. Hartman presided were followed by a reception at Georgian Inn.

The bride's organza gown featured Bishop sleeves, an Empire waist and a bodice trimmed with beaded Venice lace flowers.

Her triple-tiered elbow length illusion veil fell from a matching lace headpiece, and she carried a Colonial arrangement of white roses and red and navy baby's-brath.

She was attended by her sister, Joann Holtz Boruta, of Kalamazoo, in a long frock styled with a navy skirt and white bodice piped in red, white and blue.

Her Colonial bouquet was fashioned of red and white carnations and navy star-flowers.

Bill Mundhenk came from San Francisco to act as his brother's best man. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. William Mundhenk, of Glenview, Ill.

The bride's brother, Donald Holtz, of Endicott, N.Y., ushered, and sang the Lord's Prayer during the service.

The bride's mother selected a long costume featuring a navy chiffon skirt and long-sleeved, high-necked metallic bodice. She carried white roses accented with red and navy starflowers.

The bridegroom's parents were unable to attend the ceremony, as they were moving to San Diego that weekend.

The newlyweds are traveling to Houston, Tex., where the bridegroom has been living, and where they will make their home.

Invitations have been sent to members, friends, church and club groups to attend the 11:45 o'clock luncheon and program.

The invitation encloses a felt-like poinsettia on which the recipient may write her name and return it with a donation, a theme suggested by a poem written by Anne Campbell (Mrs. George W. Stark), secretary of the Association.

Mrs. B. F. Segner, of Westchester road, past-president, is chairman of the day. Mrs. A. Warren Brock, president emeritus, is chairman of the Special Projects committee.

Following a subscription luncheon for which no reservation is necessary, Mrs. R. S. Garpypie, past-president of the Detroit Story League and third vice-president of the Women's Association, will present a program, "The Story of a Holiday."

Plan Liturgical Dance Program November 25

The Concert Dance Company of Southern Illinois University, Edwardsville, will present a program of Liturgical Dance at Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, Sunday evening, November 25, at 8:30 o'clock.

Under the direction of Al Wiltz, the Company offers a unique experience in the diverse realms of dance movement. Its previous appearances include the American Dance Guild's national convention and Rockefeller Art Center.

The Concert Dance Company accepts as a problem-solving study in dance any space or stage limitation. It handles its own lighting and technical aspects/effects.

Its expression is one of exploration and discovery, of freedom through discipline—regardless of "prop" or space limitation.

Highly mobile and adaptable, the Company implements new techniques in dance, choreography and teaching as a means to experience the arts. Anything that works is used as an experiment to develop the individual dancer, to offer the best available program to present a lively expression in the performances of concert dance.

By example, the Concert Dance Company attempts to eliminate the familiar and snobbish attitude that one dance form is better than another, to show the value of differences, and to establish esoteric, modern thinking in the field of dance expression.

Mr. Wiltz defines the dance as "expression through movement, using the entire body and mind as the instrument; a discipline demanding the whole self."

There will be an admission charge of $2.50. Students will be admitted for $1. Further information may be obtained by contacting Edgar Billups, 885-4841.

Musicales Sets Bach Program

The scope and variety of the music of Johann Sebastian Bach will be suggested by the second morning concert of Tuesday Musicales of Detroit next week, November 28, at 10:30 o'clock in the Lecture Hall of the Detroit Institute of Arts.

Starting the program, Pointer Winifred Eliason will play a sonata for viola, accompanied on the piano by Sara Ladd, also a Pointer. Next, Pointer Janet Young will play a toccata on the piano.

Soprano Doris Pagel and contralto Joan Cooper will sing both solo and duet compositions from Bach cantatas, accompanied on the piano by Fontaine Laing.

The program concludes with a double violin concerto played by Pointe violinists

Betty Peterson and Ann Wallace, accompanied by pianist Sara Ladd.

The all-Bach program has been planned by Alice Ellison and Laurie Lindemulder, with Bernice Van Husen, general program chairman.

A brief semi-annual business meeting will precede the concert, according to Mrs. Charles Bryant, of Holiday road, president of Tuesday Musicales.

Philanthropic co-chairmen Mrs. D. D. Frankenstein and Mrs. Charles Bishop will report on the club's project to provide music in hospitals and nursing homes, announcing that two groups of members presented musical programs recently in the Arnold Home and Thompson Home.

Soprano Beverly Stief has worked with The Reverend Mr. Louis Gerhart, of North Congregational Church, Southfield, to present music with his weekly devotionals in nursing homes and hospitals in the area.

Women's Symphony Schedules Concert

A 7 o'clock subscription dinner at the St. Regis Hotel will precede the performance. Dinner tickets, at $12.50 per person, may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Arthur Knoff, LA 7-3135, Mrs. Patrick, Mrs. Cunniff or the Symphony Office.

From Another Pointe of View

They range from the traditional home of Dr. and Mrs. Roger Ajluni, with its indoor pool, (that's the kind of tradition we'd all like!), to designer Shirlee Cole's "new" Old English Tudor.

In The Pointe, Dr. Robert Dickenman, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Patrona, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Petz, the Schoeniths and Mrs. Anthony Vermeulen are opening their houses.

All gussied up and decorated for the holidays, of course: That's why it's called the Christmas Walk. Dr. Dickenman's home in Bishop road is a showcase for antiques and oriental rugs, AND a modern art collection.

The Patronas live in Lincoln road, in a 1917 New Orleans mansion designed by Louis Kemper, gracefully adapted for a young family.

Dr. and Mrs. Petz have filled their Fordcroft road residence with original art—and four boys.

The Schoeniths' gracious English Tudor will be a real Christmas Land, with trees in every room. There's a fabulous crystal chandelier in Mrs. Vermeulen's fabulous house in Lakeshore road, with its spectacular view of Lake St. Clair.

Head hostesses will be Mrs. Henry Domzalski, at Dr. Dickenman's; Mrs. Richard Weithas, at the Patronas'; Mrs. Thomas Mercier, at Dr. and Mrs. Petz's; Mrs. Philip Mebus, Jr., at the Schoeniths'; and Mrs. A. J. Ricca, at Mrs. Vermeulen's.

Pointers serving on the Christmas Walk committee include Mrs. Joseph Greiner and Mrs. Henry Roesch, general co-chairmen, Mrs. Richard Campbell, ticket chairman, and Mrs. Melvin Rousek, bus chairman.

Walk hours are 11 in the morning to 4 in the afternoon, both Thursdays. All proceeds go to the Detroit Symphony Orchestra Maintenance Fund.

Advance sale tickets, at $3 each for each Walk, may be obtained by calling 886-8932 or Ford Auditorium, 961-0700. Patron tickets are $10. Tickets also will be sold at the doors of the Walk houses Walk days, at $3.50 each.

One thing more. The Pointe may have Santa on December 14, but Birmingham-Bloomfield has its own December 7 Walk "special."

The Christmas Walk Boutique, 5060 Winlane drive, Birmingham, will offer a potpourri of delightful gifts, priced from $1 to $20, for Birmingham-Bloomfield "walkers."

Sale in The Pointe
Meanwhile, back in The Pointe December 7, there'll be another special sale going on.

Crafts International and Heirlooms, two booths scheduled for next fall's Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Fair, are giving Pointers a chance at an early look at their wares.

Crafts International, under the direction of Mrs. Ralph Blech and Mrs. William F. Watson, features items from missions around the world, many of them purchased by Church members during their travels.

Heirlooms, headed by Mrs. Chester M. Brown and Mrs. Joseph L. Henry, offers antiques and collectibles, including silver, china, pewter, crystal, small tables, lamps, clocks, campaign buttons, old jewelry and "Depression" glass.

Mrs. Brown, 331-3989, will be happy to arrange pick-up for any donations.

Padre Isles Development Offers Mecca for Investors

Looking for a spot in the sunshine away from the hordes of sight-seeing vacationers and teeny-boppers? Padre Isles, Texas, may just be the place you're looking for.

Located on the Texas Gulf Coast near Corpus Christi, the resort community is becoming known throughout America as a quiet place to retire or spend the remainder of your working years.

JERRY PLONSKI, general manager of Padre Sales in this area, calls the development a paradise for wise investors. He invited Dearborn area residents to call him to make arrangements to visit the southern spot.

"We will provide a free, three-day trip from Detroit to Padre Isles-including food lodging and transportation--for those who have purchased property in our development," Plonski said.

He noted that hundreds of Americans have already discovered the "formula for property investment" by purchasing land at Padre Isles. The keystone of the development, according to Padre Isles Investment Corp. President David Chamorro, is the philosophy that the resort community provides waterfront, sun and sand, an affluent society, leisure time and a longer span of life for its residents.

The attractive development is on an elongated island that stretches for 113 miles along the Texas Gulf Coast, reaching from Corpus Christi on the north down to the Mexican border. Much of the island itself is a national seashore. The resort area is served by nine hospitals, 175 churches, museums, theaters and libraries in nearby Corpus Christi. The temperature there ranges from 69.7 degrees (October through May) to 82.8 degrees (June through September).

PADRE ISLES is served by a school district which just completed an air-conditioned $500,000 high school in 1967 which is just ten minutes from the development. Colleges on the mainland serve higher education needs.

The toll-free John F. Kennedy Causeway links the island with Texas and provides a major source of transportation to the development. The Corpus Christi International Airport serves three major airlines and 350,000 passengers a year.

Padre Island, which includes the development and the national park land, was called by the Chicago Daily News as an "unspoiled beachcomer's haven." It noted that the area provides natural recreation facilities for those interested in surfing, hiking, shell collecting or bird-watching. Boating, fishing, water skiing, swimming and hunting are also in vogue at the Padre Isles, and the developers have arranged for plenty of activities to keep their customers happy and healthy.

Plonski, who said he is happy to talk with anyone about terms of purchasing property at the development, said he can be reached by writing him at room 210, 17520 W. Twelve Mile Road, Southfield, 48070. The phone number is 557-1530.

OFF TO TEXAS—Padre Isles is beckoning thousands of area residents, local developer Jerry Plonski readily admits. The resort community is located near Corpus Christi, Texas, an attractive isle in the Gulf of Mexico, Plonski adds, stressing that it will always be a quiet area for families to move to for retirement or for the completion of their working years. The Detroit office is located in Room 210 of the building at 17520 W. 12 Mile road, Southfield. Telephone 557-1530 for information. Adv.

Girls' Reports Trap Molester November 13

Two girls' reports of a man accosting from a car led City police to the suspect, a 22-year-old Detroit man. At 4:40 p.m. Monday, November 13, a City resident called the police and said that her daughter had been accosted on her way home from school. The 14-year-old girl described the man as a white man, in his late teens or early twenties, with a mustache and shoulder-length hair. She said that the man was driving a white compact car with a black top. Ten minutes later, at 4:50 p.m. Monday afternoon, a 13-year-old girl contacted City police and related a similar experience. It appears that both girls were walking home together and then separated near their respective homes. It was after the girls separated that each was accosted. City police traced the license number supplied by one of the girls and reached a Detroit man who admitted to the incidents. City Police Lieutenant Robert Van Tiem is handling the case.

Police Arrest Drugged Youth

A Park youth was arrested in the parking lot of Wrigley's Market, 17410 Mack avenue, Friday morning, December 17, at 3:10 a.m. The youth, who was on probation from Detroit Recorders Court, appeared in a drugged and incoherent state. In his possession were three Michigan driver's licenses and an unmarked brown plastic container of pills.

City Patrolman Edward Miller was on routine patrol when he saw the 22-year-old Park resident, Martin J. Vertregt, 1332 Wayburn, near the front door of the market. Entering the parking lot, the officer was informed by a Wrigley employe that the man appeared under the influence of drugs. Minutes later, Vertregt was attempting to open the passenger side of his car with a coat hanger. Questioned by the policeman, he had difficulty making sentences and his words were slurred. His eyes appeared glassy and he had trouble maintaining his balance, according to the police report.

Taken to City police headquarters, Vertregt was charged with disorderly person-narcotics. After posting a $40 bond, he was released pending his Tuesday, December 12, court date before City Municipal Judge Douglas Paterson. The suspect identified the pills as phenobarbital.

Fire Damages 2 Parked Cars

The Farms Fire Department was called when a fire started under the hood of an automobile parked in the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church lot on Sunday, November 19. The firefighters not only doused the flames in the burning car, but also put out a fire that ignited the exterior of a second car adjacent to it.

Farms Fire Chief Michael Beaupre said that firemen were called to the rear of the church when a leased car, parked in the lot by Mrs. Dorothy Irene West of 15530 Windmill Pointe drive, was reported afire.

On arrival, the firefighters found that the blaze, which appeared to have started in the engine block due to a power steering leakage, had had a good start. The flames were so intense they spread to another vehicle next to it, owned by Agnes Crown of 966 Hampton.

The fire chief said that the fire was doused in minutes, but damage to Mrs. West's auto, leased from Frank Adam of Kercheval avenue, was extensive.

Damage to the other woman's automobile was confined to the exterior, charring only the car's paint, the chief added. The amount of damage to both cars is not known.

MASKS OF TERROR
Three of the cinema's most shockingly famous unmasking scenes include Mary Philbin removing the mask from Lon Chaney's face in Rupert Julian's "The Phantom of the Opera" (1925); Phyllis Kirk revealing the disfigured face of Vincent Price in Andre de Toth's "House of Wax" (1953), and Patricia Owens whisking a black cloth from the face of Al Hedison in Kurt Neumann's "The Fly" (1958).

Test Dates Announced for U.S. Summer Jobs

Pointe youths who wish to secure a summer job in a Federal Agency should note the following Civil Service Commission test dates.

Candidates whose applications are received by November 24, 1972, will be tested on January 6, 1973; those whose applications are received by December 29,

1972, will be tested on February 10; and those whose applications are postmarked by January 26 will be tested on March 10. Applications postmarked after January 26 will not be accepted. Competition is stiff as 203,244 persons applied last summer for the 12,000 positions. Employment is offered to those persons receiving the highest scores on the Civil Service Exam.

Jobs as varied as forestry aid, nursing aides, computer analysis, postal clerks and carriers are included in the program. Complete instructions for filling and information on opportunities available are contained in C.S.C. Announcement No. 414, Summer Jobs in Federal Agencies, which may be obtained from Federal Job Information Centers, most college placement offices, or from the U.S. Civil Service Commission, Washington, D.C. 20415.
