MILK RIVER THREATENING

HEADLINES of the WEEK

As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, February 15
THE U.S. AND NORTH VIETNAM announced the formation of a "joint economic commission" yesterday in a communique released simultaneously in Hanoi and Washington. The commission will help direct U.S. dollars that will be used to rebuild North Vietnam. Strong opposition from both parties in Congress is expected. No dollar figures were mentioned in the communique, which was released after Henry Kissinger's three-day visit to Hanoi, but a year ago President Nixon pledged up to 2.5 billion for the reconstruction of North Vietnam.

Friday, February 16
THE NATIONAL ACADEMY OF SCIENCE reversed an earlier statement of a year ago and said that it now believes auto companies have the technology to meet 1975 anti-pollution standards, but not 1976 standards. In their report to Congress, the academy criticized auto companies for not experimenting with new types of engines to come up to standards set by the 1970 Clean Air Act. They also suggested, however, that the entire question of auto pollutant hazards should be re-examined. New court-ordered hearings on delaying the implementation of the 1970 act are scheduled for mid-March.

Saturday, February 17
193 PRISONERS OF WAR have been airlifted to freedom as the first stage of the release of P.O.W.'s ended today. The last 20 men landed at Alameda naval air station and were met by a crowd of 300. As the men disembarked, they shook hands with two generals, saluted a Marine honor guard, and walked by a contingent of 25 Sea Scouts. The spokesman for the group, Navy Captain Harry T. Jenkins, Jr., told the crowd, "Our patience sometimes faltered, but our faith in God and country never did."

CHARLES STEWART MOTT, auto pioneer, financier and philanthropist, died at the age of 97 at St. Joseph's Hospital in Flint. One of the richest men in America, Mr. Mott preferred to be known for his philanthropy, not for his wealth. He began his working career as a soda pop bottler and went on to help General Motors become the largest industrial corporation in the world. His Mott Foundation contributed vast sums of money to schools, hospitals, and other institutions, especially in his adopted city of Flint.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 19
GOVERNOR MILLIKEN called an emergency meeting of his staff, State Police, and representatives of non-union labor groups yesterday in an effort to end violence at the state construction sites. He decried the vandalism and burning that took place at a Roscommon construction site Saturday, calling it "guerrilla warfare." At this site, 150 trade unionists protested against non-union labor by burning down tool sheds and tearing trailers. Two state troopers were injured in the melee.

Tuesday, February 20
A SOVIET AIRLINER with 99 persons aboard, crashed and burned at Prague Airport, Czechoslovakia, killing 77 of the passengers and scattering wreckage near a busy highway. Vladimir Volodin, the airport manager for Aeroflot, said the plane crashed just inside the airport perimeter, narrowly missing a busy highway skirting the airfield. U.S. officials in Moscow said there were no Americans aboard the Tupolev 154, a tri-engine plane capable of carrying 158 persons.

Modern Dance Goes Ecological

Blood Drive Being Held At Center

Hope to Collect 200 Pints Today; Double Unit Bloodmobile Sent by Red Cross

Grosse Pointe War Memorial's annual Blood Collection in cooperation with Grosse Pointe Community Blood Council and the American Red Cross takes place today, Thursday, February 22. The double unit Bloodmobile will be set up in the Ballroom of Fries Auditorium from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. The goal is 200 pints.

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Community Blood Bank maintained by the Center for free loan to any citizen in case of emergency is very low and it is hoped as many as can will contribute to it, but this is also a convenient opportunity for volunteers to contribute to any other blood bank of which they are a member or contributor for any individual or particular cause.

Walk-ins are welcome. Even if you have not made an appointment you will be processed quickly. Rides to the Center can be arranged if needed and baby sitters are provided.

Anyone 18 to 60 can contribute blood. It is a very real and personal way to help.

Summer Camp in Montana Offers Ecology, Design, Intercultural Learning

Area Teenagers And Indians Work Together on Environmental Projects; U-LS Science Teacher Heads Program

This is not your usual summer camp. The bugle doesn't wake you at 6 a.m. for exercises and a cold water swim. There are no uniforms of blue shorts and starched white blouses nor are there regimented activities and schedules.

This is a camp with a specific purpose and a definite theme.

Its name: Rocky Mountain Environmental Field Center, (RMEFC), or more aptly, the Field Center.

Its purpose: According to William Hindle, science teacher at University-Liggett School and director of the Field Center, it is to provide "an intercultural learning experience for Indians and non-Indians."

Important Part

Its theme: The land. Emphasis is placed on the natural environment since it is such an important part of Indian heritage. Furthermore, ecological study goes hand in hand with land study. And ecology is fast becoming a major part of all our concerns.

The setting of the Field Center is ideal to carry out both theme and purpose. Located in northwest Montana, between Glacier National Park and a Blackfeet Indian Reservation, the area is practically untouched and thus particularly beautiful. The Field Center is held from July 1 to mid-August for boys and girls, ages 13-19. It is a non-profit organization, relying heavily on volunteer staff members and gifts of funds and equipment.

Field Center Key

The key of the Field Center is active investigation with emphasis placed on the individual, the individual's responsibility to himself and others. "The Center provides an environment where the students have an access to learning and can ask for help when they want it," says Mr. Hindle.

When help is needed, there are staff members, both Anglo and Indian, and volunteers to provide the necessary assistance. In addition, there are the agencies in the nearby National Parks, staffed by men well versed in soil, land, game and forest conservation.

Besides delving into land lore, students also may take a design course. Here they are instructed and partake in the building of a geodesic dome. The faculty has determined that this is the most functional structure for the area, and it does not aesthetically pollute the environment. The dome, when completed, also is used as living quarters.

Participants of the program can get one year of science credit for the projects they undertake. The Field Center also contacted 92 colleges and universities. Out of the 67 that responded, 66 supported the program and 62 would grant admission-credit and/or advance placement for successful completion of courses offered by the Center.

Sharing Experience

For area teenagers, the Field Center provides not only an opportunity to participate in environmental, design and ecological projects, but also to learn firsthand about another culture, by forming friendships and by working together.

The Indians, too, are able to experience another culture.

Applications Invited for Woods Post

Interim Municipal Judge Needed to Fill Vacancy Caused by Goodrow Resignation

The Woods Council has appointed a three-man committee to screen applicants for the position of interim municipal judge, according to City Administrator Chester E. Petersen. The period is from April 1 through the November elections.

Municipal Judge Don J. Goodrow retires April 1 after 26 years of service to the community. While his term doesn't expire until 1975, a judge will be elected for a two-year period in November to fill his unexpired term.

Any Woods resident who wishes to serve the community in this position should forward his resume and other pertinent information to the City Council, City of Grosse Pointe Woods, 20025 Mack avenue, zip code 48236, attention: City Administrator's office.

$150 Monthly Pay

The selected applicant will receive $150 per month in accordance with the City Charter, added Mr. Petersen.

The three-man committee includes Councilmen Benjamin W. Pinkos, Kenneth W. Boerner and Conrad A. Naegel.

Judge Goodrow, 65, the only municipal judge the city has ever had, was first elected to public office in 1947, and in 1949, as Justice of the Peace. When The Woods became a city in 1950, he was elected municipal judge. He retained this position during the 1954, 1958, 1962, 1966 and 1970 elections.

GP City Notified Of Eligibility for Flood Insurance

Survey and Drawing of Seawall Elevations Made by Engineers along with Various Lake Level Projections

The City of Grosse Pointe has received notification that its application for eligibility under the National Flood Insurance Program has been approved. George Bernstein, Federal Insurance Administrator, advised the City that effective February 16, local property and casualty agents could begin selling HUD national flood insurance in the City of Grosse Pointe.

Insurance at federally subsidized rates may be purchased from local property and casualty agents and brokers for all existing structures in amounts up to $17,500 for single family houses and up to $30,000 for all other residential and non-residential structures.

Rates Vary

On structures, rates range from 25 to 60 cents per $100 of insurance, depending on their value. Contents may be insured up to $5,000 with rates ranging from 35 to 45 cents per $100 of insurance on residential contents and 75 cents per $100 of insurance on contents on nonresidential properties.

Insurance policies will be effective immediately as issued during the first 30 days of the insurance became available. Insurance purchased after the first 30 days of community eligibility will become effective after a 15-day waiting period.

Besides providing coverage against loss, the Federal flood insurance program helps promote sound flood plan management and land use control. Mr. Bernstein explained that "in becoming eligible for flood insurance, communities must adopt land use and control measures, which vary according to the characteristics and specific flood threat of the individual community. These measures are generally designed to guide future development away from flood hazard areas and set construction standards such as minimum foundation and floor elevations."

Army Help Requested

The City Council, in a special meeting of February 5, adopted a resolution requesting U. S. Army Corps of Engineers assistance in flood preparation and flood righting if needed under "Operation Foresight."

City Manager Thomas Kressbach said the City Engineers have completed a survey and drawing of all public and private seawall elevations in The City. The drawing shows a profile of the seawall and various lake level projections based on information from the Corps of Engineers. It also shows the ground level at the house for all properties abutting the Lake. Any interested home owner may review this drawing at The City Offices.

City officials indicated the following general observations:

Drain Group Meet to Air Big Problem

Seek Bids for Additional Steel Piling to Prevent Feared Heavy Damage in Spring

By Roger A. Waha

The continued high water in the Milk River is causing concern in The Woods. This problem received attention at a meeting of the Milk River Drain Commission Board Tuesday, February 13, in which numerous city officials from The Woods and other areas were in attendance.

In a Department of Parks and Recreation report, Director Don Hallman said usually when the ice breaks up in the spring, it piles up and causes extensive damage to the docking facilities. He noted, "It appears that the unusually high water will no doubt greatly add to the possibility of even more extensive damage next spring."

At the Drainage Board meeting, a discussion was held on advertising for a sheet piling contract necessary to safeguard the Milk River Drain outlet. And a report was given by Pate, Hirm and Bogue, Inc., on the necessity of further storm water sanitary improvements to the Milk River Pumping Station and the Milk River Drain to comply with Federal and State water quality orders.

Woods representatives at the meeting included City Administrator Chester E. Petersen and Councilmen Benjamin W. Pinkos, Marvin R. Boutin, George S. Freeman, Conrad A. Naegel, Kenneth W. Boerner and Rodger A. Graef. Mr. Petersen said Harper Woods City Manager Joseph Dorsky and Macomb County representatives also were present.

Sheet Piling Bids

The Drainage Board authorized Pate, Hirm and Bogue to advertise for bids for the installation of 500 lineal feet of sheet piling on the Milk River, north of the Jefferson street bridge, to protect and curtail the erosion of soil on the embankment of the Milk River channel," said Mr. Petersen.

He added another meeting will be held at the Milk River Pumping Station Wednesday, March 14, where the sheet piling bids will be taken. He hopes installation can begin this winter or in early spring.

Mr. Petersen states The Woods has installed around $195,000 worth of sheet piling, totalling 2,000 lineal feet. He said another 800 lineal feet is needed for further protection, all within the boat docking area.

"Additional Measures"

As for the installation of this 800 lineal feet, Mr. Petersen said the Milk River Drain Commission advised the city it was its responsibility because the boat docks were there. The Woods, he reiterated, has already installed 2,000 lineal feet, and Mr. Petersen felt the Drain Commission had some responsibility on this.

"It may be additional measures will have to be taken," he said. "We'll have to work out something with the Milk River Drain Commission to at least participate." This matter probably will receive some attention at the March 14 meeting, too. Mr. Petersen added, "Councilman Pinkos has been spearheading the drive with the Milk River Drain Commission."

Pate, Hirm and Bogue also reported on sanitary improvements at the February 13 meeting. They discussed a proposal to further eliminate any pollution of Lake St. Clair by any spillovers of the Milk River. Action on this depends upon the outcome of other proposed water pollution control measures in neighboring suburban com-

Focus Upon Revamping Of Mansion

Consultant Firm Studying Farms Zoning Ordinance Changes Which Could Deter Sale and Development of Rose Terrace

A petition was filed in Wayne County Probate Court on Friday, February 16, by the executors of the estate of the late Anna Thomson Dodge, for the sale of the palatial mansion and estate, Rose Terrace, to the Superior Lake Enterprises for $850,000.

Rose Terrace occupies 9.7 acres at 12 Lake Shore road, and was constructed by the auto magnate Horace E. Dodge in 1934 at a cost of $4 million. Mrs. Dodge the last occupant of the edifice, listed as an historical site in official records, died in 1970 at the age of 103.

Superior Lake Enterprises is a real estate firm comprised of Pointe realtors, C. Calvin Purdy, George G. Jerome and Paul H. Twohey, who have conditionally agreed to buy the property contingent on The Farms Council's overhauling its Zoning Ordinance which would bring it up to present day standards. It was pointed out that the study of, and proposed amendment to the Zoning Ordinance, is not being done specifically because of the Dodge property.

Study Zoning Laws

The firm of Villcan, Lehman and Associates, Incorporated, has been commissioned by The Farms Council to study and to make recommendations on the zoning laws, according to information released by City Manager Andrew Bremer, Jr.

The city manager said that Superior Lake Enterprises has given notice by letter to the city solons of its intention, if the zoning amendments are favorable, that it will preserve the 75-room

Rose Terrace Development Under Study in The Farms

(Continued from Page 1) French chateau with a minimum of remodeling, with the interior being converted into 11 condominium units. Also, there will be separate structures housing 23 townhouse units and 22 additional one-story units constructed on the grounds.

The executors of the estate of the late Mrs. Dodge, widow of the auto pioneer, stated they had agreed to sell the entire property, including Rose Terrace, for $650,000, on condition that a minimum of work will be done to alter the interior of the chateau. The agreement also stipulates that Superior Lake Enterprises' partners, if they buy the property, must receive all necessary permits and zoning approval for their plans.

On Monday, February 5, the proposed buyers of the estate submitted a letter to the city council announcing their intentions concerning the development of the estate, provided the zoning amendments are approved. The sale of the land, it was disclosed, will depend on whether or not the amendments are favorable.

When the council was first informed of the planned sale, Mayor William Butler made it known that the city has never approved condominiums, and that under the present law, the land would have to be rezoned before the complex can be approved.

Mr. Bremer said that Villi-can, Lehman and Associates, Incorporated, city planning consultants, have been authorized by the council to study and make recommendations for the overhauling of the present Zoning Ordinance for the entire city, not just for Rose Terrace, which is only a part of the community. The study will take about four months to complete, and by the middle of April, after the council has reviewed the study and recommendations of the firm, the proposed amendments will be opened to a public hearing.

The city manager said that if all goes according to schedule, the firm's study should be completed in about two months from now, although the maximum period of time allowed is four months.

"The present Zoning Ordinance is many years old," Mr. Bremer said, "and a number of segments of the present law are not clear or variable to today's standards. That is why the planning consultant firm has been authorized to make a study of the ordinance and make recommendations to bring it up to date. The study has nothing to do with Rose Terrace," he said.

Mr. Purdy, one of the partners in the Superior Lake Enterprises, said he is hopeful that the study will include amendments that will permit development of the proposed complex on the Dodge Estate. He said that his firm has not filed any applications for permits for the development of this particular piece of property. All that has been done so far, he said, was that his firm presented a letter to The Farms Council announcing the intention of developing the estate if the permits are granted, and if the council approves.

"All we have done, so far, is to give the city council a letter, announcing our intention regarding the proposed construction of the units. We are trying to work closely with the city administration on this matter."

"If the proposed amendments to the Zoning Ordinance are adopted, following the public hearing, when it is called, and our application for permits for the development of the complex is approved, we will go ahead. If the permits are denied, we contemplate no further action, legal or otherwise, although we hope the council will look with favor on the project."

If everything goes in favor of the real estate firm, the proposed condominiums will be built and expected to be priced at prices of up to $100,000 each, it was said.

Milk River

In his report, Mr. Hallman said the land along the banks of the Milk River where the city has no steel sheeting have "greatly eroded away so that we no longer can provide safe and ready access to the docks in these areas without extensive work."

Continuing he said, "The condition of the banks is such that they pose a threat and danger to our residents seeking to use the docking facilities. We're especially concerned for the safety of younger children who are attracted to the areas since the possibility of a serious accident taking place does exist."

Mr. Hallman told the NEWS he was concerned about the erosion and the overall safety factors involved, and added he doesn't know how fast the Drain Commission will work on the situation. He also said, in his report, the lighting system is presently endangered in that the erosion is beginning to undermine poles and wiring. "In addition, several areas of our roadway are within one and a half to two feet from the eroded banks."

Mr. Hallman added the situation had not altered much from the time the report was written in December.

Insurance

(Continued from Page 1) tions can be made: (1) Seawall elevations vary throughout The City. The projected 1973 still water lake level will reach the top of the seawall in a limited number of locations; (2) During high water levels, with high on-shore winds and wave action, water or waves will break over seawalls in several locations resulting in water and possible erosion on the front lawns of many residences abutting the lake; (3) In a few locations this water could possibly cause some flooding of homes through basement windows, doors or other openings.

Advice Given Owners In these cases the home owner should evaluate his own situation and take whatever preventative action he deems appropriate. This could include increasing the height of his permanent seawall; permanently filling in particularly low windows, doors or other openings, or constructing a sandbag dike across his lawn near his house or around any endangered openings.

The City has 3,000 sand bags presently on order with the Corps of Engineers. Arrangements are being made to stockpile sand in the Neff Park parking lot. It is anticipated the bags and sand will be available this week. The City is planning to place a 12 to 18 inch sandbag dike at the foot of Neff Park. Although wave action is diminished by the park marina, this diking will serve as a potential safety measure in protecting the swimming and wading pools.

School Crossing Guards 'Women of All Seasons'

By Nancy Roth
Some snow-glazed morning as you drive to work, cursing the Michigan winter, try not to growl at the crossing guards stationed at the busy intersections. A little courtesy from you might make their day.

In The Woods there are 13 regular crossing guards and six alternates. All are women and for all of them it is a full-time job.

Clara Schultz has been a crossing guard since 1955, two years after the program's inception. She began when she answered a newspaper ad.

In that time she has gazed up more than once during a winter at icicles hanging from her uniform cap.

All-Purpose Woman
She has become as lithe as a matador in dodging the gliding fenders of heavy-lidded drivers.

She has learned to remain calm when a turning driver splatters her with mud.

She has bundled up, soothed and mothered hundreds of school children, and has doled out milk money from her own pocket more times than she can remember.

She has served as a human directory of addresses, places and miscellaneous information for inquiring motorists in distress.

And as with the other crossing guards, this occurs four times a day at 8:15 and 11:25 a.m. and at 12:20 and 3:25 p.m.

One can hardly argue when she says, "You have to love children. It gets in your blood."

Cites AAA Awards
Mrs. Schultz and the other crossing guards must be doing something right. When Patrolman Stephen Petrik, Officer of the Traffic Safety Division, and supervisor for The Woods' crossing guards, looks at the city's safety awards, he says, "You can credit the girls with most of them."

The Woods has won several awards of "excellence" from the American Automobile Association for traffic and pedestrian safety in cities its size. More remarkable than that, however, are the city's awards of 1966 and 1970 in which The Woods won the A.A.A.'s "Grand Award," for the nation's best safety record.

This is all the more remarkable when one considers that The Woods has the greatest number of school children in all The Pointes and some of the busiest intersections.

Mrs. Schultz commends Patrolman Petrik for his friendly and helpful supervision and concern, and all the other officers who patrol around the schools at dismissal time.

She and Patrolman Petrik also credit the schools, who train the guard boys, and the boys themselves for the excellent job they do in assisting at the intersections.

Busy Intersection
Mrs. Schultz's intersection is at Vernier road and Mack avenue. She shares this intersection with two other crossing guards, Peg Craig and Helen Lumetta. It is one of the busiest intersections in all The Pointes. Around 29,000 cars go down Mack alone within a 24-hour period.

In the 18 years Mrs. Schultz has worked as a crossing guard she has seen the traffic and the number of children increase enormously.

"I used to know the names of all the children, now I just know the faces," she says.

Most of the children know her name, however, and sometimes when she is in the supermarket a chorus of youngsters will call out her name.

Once in a while children who have since grown up come and walk with her again.

She smiles as she tells how each year brings a new group of energetic school children to her corner.

Calming Influence
Part of her job, then, is to calm anxious young mothers and convince them their children will be well taken care of on their way to school. She provides a friendly and warm face for those children who find the first school days a frightening experience.

With her own child, her second son, she found that being a crossing guard "got him to go to school."

Mrs. Schultz is quick to say most of the children are "good children." The few who are unruly are usually contained by a "stern" word or two and by the explanation that they are "endangering the lives of other children, too."

On a Friday, many of the kids shout, "T.G.I.F.!", "Thank goodness it's Friday!"

Mrs. Schultz says that her rewards in being a crossing guard stem from "love of children and civic pride."

She wishes that some of that civic pride could rub off on some of the drivers she must contend with.

"I hate to say it but the women are the worst drivers. They can't make up their minds and keep creeping up."

"Give Us A Chance"
She wishes that drivers would "give us a chance," by not "disregarding the cross walks."

Many a morning a driver will come by with a windshield that is not completely wiped off.

This fall, in her first really close call, she was struck by a motorist and spun around a little. Fortunately, her only injury was to her foot.

She would like to tell all drivers to "be a little more courteous. Don't be so anxious to beat that light."

At the close of a typical day, a horde of school children descend upon the Mack and Vernier intersection and are greeted by a smiling Mrs. Schultz and her fellow crossing guards.

One boy is carrying a frog, another has a whistle which he is fond of blowing and a freckle-faced child is clutching a mass of papers on the verge of flying everywhere.

"I am so proud of you," Mrs. Schultz says as she shepherds them across again.

Woods Cites 'Grocers Week'

The Woods Council unanimously authorized Mayor Kenneth R. McLeod or Mayor Pro-tem Marvin R. Boutin to sign a proclamation declaring "Grocers Week in Michigan," February 18-24.

This action was taken at the regular meeting of the council on Monday, February 12.

Governor William Milliken had earlier proclaimed "Grocers Week" on behalf of the state. It is the eighth annual such week in Michigan.

The authorization by the Woods Council came at the request of the Associated Food Dealers of Michigan who represent over 2,300 independent food retailers and local Michigan chains.

Horses Stolen For Firewood

Mrs. John Huntington, 347 St. Clair, reported to City police on Wednesday, February 14 that an unknown person had stolen two dark green saw horses from the parking area behind Walton Pierce. They belonged to the store. Their value was not stated.

City Officer Dale van Dale recalled there was a similar incident about two years ago. Again, the victims were saw horses. The police, in this case, found the culprit chopping up the saw horses in her basement to use as firewood.

Friends may be fickle, but last as long as your money does.

For both it's a sharing experience.

There are further benefits for the Indian students. The Field Center wants to provide them with a happy summer experience. Life on the reservation is difficult for most of them. The average annual income for a family is $2,700.

As a result, very few of them have the opportunity to leave the area, and more often than not, drop out of school before they reach the secondary level. Thus, chances for them for improving their knowledge are slim.

There are over 11,000 Indians living on the reservation, an area about the size of Connecticut. Over half the Indian population in the United States lives in the urban areas, mostly ghettos. Around 7,000 live in the Detroit area alone.

For most of the young members of the tribes, both urban and rural, there are no summer programs.

Offer Chamber Music Feb. 25

Another afternoon of chamber music will be presented by the Grosse Pointe Chamber Music Players Sunday, February 25, in the War Memorial at 3 p.m.

Alex Robinson and Ray Barnes, violins, Robert Miller, viola, and Robert Koenig, cello, open the program with Mozart's Quartet in E flat, K. 458. This quartet, known as "The Hunt," is the fourth of a series of six that Mozart dedicated to Haydn.

A second string quartet, whose members are Winifred Reel and Ray Barnes, violins, Jean Gregory, viola, and Donald Gregory, cello, will be heard in two works: Prokofiev's Overture on Hebrew Themes, Op. 34, which they will play with James Upstill, clarinet, and Fontaine Laing, piano, plus Dohnanyi's Piano Quintet in C minor, Op. 1, with Mrs. Laing.

Dvorak's Zigeuner Melodien (Gypsy Songs), including the famous "Songs My Mother Taught Me," will be sung by Cynthia Blough, mezzo soprano, accompanied by Kay Engel, piano.

Although these musical Sundays are primarily by and for chamber musicians, everyone is welcome to enjoy the music. Non-members pay 75 cents at the door.

A social hour with refreshments will round out the afternoon.

Mrs. Frank Zocharski is this season's program chairman. Alex Robinson is chairman of Sunday's program.

In addition to being taped for television, the winners will be entered in the State Festival in Muskegon in March.

Scheduled for tonight are "Strange War" presented by Dramatic Theatre, Detroit, and "I Never Sang for My Father" given by Theatre Guild of Livonia-Redford.

On Friday, February 23, "Space in Between," D-Sace Theatre, Detroit; "Secret Ingredient," Grosse Pointe Theatre; and "Spirit and J. T. Davis," Peddy's Players, Detroit, will be shown.

The presentations for Saturday, February 24 are "Fried Chicken Pride," Rapa House, Detroit; "The Long Wait," St. Clair Shores Players; and "The First Day," Satori Theatre.

The Center prefers that the Indian students attend for two summers. As stated in the Field Center's project summary "This will allow for follow-up study during the intervening academic year. Also, at the end of the second summer, the student will have a better understanding of himself and his goals. At the same time, the Field Center faculty, in proposing a student for a non-Indian school, will have the opportunity to evaluate how the individual interacts with non-Indian students."

The Field Center offers Indian and non-Indian students a challenging, unique and exciting learning experience. But most importantly, it is learning through doing and sharing.

Fire Figures Are Explored

In last week's story on the drop of total alarms and actual fires in The Woods, an "astounding" fact was pointed out but the mathematical information indicated didn't go far enough in emphasizing this fact.

Eight cooking fires were reported in 1972. The city has 6,368 homes and in each home, one may figure, three meals a day are prepared. This gives an estimated 19,104 opportunities a day in using a stove. Last week's story "figuratively speaking" stopped here.

However, when the 19,104 figure is multiplied by 365 days, an overall, estimated yearly total of 6,972,960 meals using a stove take place. And on this point, Department of Public Safety Captain Henry Marchand exclaimed, "The mothers have got to be on the ball!" regarding the eight blazes.

Postpone Exam Of Gun Toter

The examination of a 22-year-old Woods man on charges of carrying a concealed weapon with unlawful intent and carrying a dangerous weapon in a motor vehicle has been postponed from the Wednesday, February 14, date.

Robert Francis Daniell of Vernier road was arrested by Woods police earlier this month after an alleged threat report. Police found a Winchester pump, 16-gauge shotgun in his auto after the arrest. The safety was reportedly in the "off" position and the gun contained some shells.

Life's but a brief lesson—and school's out before we know it.

Nab Shoplifter Stealing Radio

A Detroit woman was arrested by Farms police recently and charged in a warrant with shoplifting. She tried to escape from the Sears branch store, Mack and Moross, with a radio-tape player valued at $55.

The woman, Lavergie Dupere, alias Lavergie Mackie, alias Deborah Smith, of 606 West Philadelphia, Detroit, was apprehended by store employees and held for the authorities.

Patrolman Donald Dewey, who was dispatched to the store and who took the woman into custody, said she gave her name as Deborah Smith.

Det. Sgt. George Van Tiem said the woman's address was correct, but a check of records showed her true name to be Lavergie Dupere. She had served three short terms in the Detroit House of Correction for offenses committed in Detroit, the sergeant said.

The woman was seen taking the radio-tape player from the appliance department, by the store manager, John Wurmlinger, who witnessed her heading for the side door, without stopping at the cashier to pay for the item. Also witnessing the theft was Andrew W. Hoegarth, manager of the stereo and radio section.

Wurmlinger, unable to run because of health reasons, yelled to the woman to stop, and when she continued on, he shouted to two store employees, David O. Williamson and Thomas G. Williams to stop her.

Williamson and Williams took up pursuit. Williamson said as he emerged out the door, he found the stolen item alongside a small row of hedges at the west side of the building.

In the meantime, Williams went out the rear door and caught the woman in the parking lot at the rear, before she could get into a car. The accused shoplifter was escorted back into the store and police were called.

Sgt. Van Tiem said that the woman was released after posting a cash bond of $50, and was arraigned for a preliminary hearing on Wednesday, February 14.

She failed to appear for her hearing and Judge Robert Pytell ordered her bond forfeited and signed a bench warrant for her arrest.

An alert was sent out on the Law Enforcement Information Network, (LEIN), to all law enforcement agencies to be on the lookout for her and if apprehended to hold her for Farms authorities.

Pointe Teams Hockey Hosts

The Grosse Pointe Hockey Association, GPHA, hosts a return clash in the Third Invitational Hockey Tournament with Longbranch Minor Hockey Association teams from Toronto, Ont., the weekend of February 24-25.

Five Pointe teams traveled to Toronto the weekend of January 27-28 for the first match-ups in this annual tourney. At that time, Pointe clubs finished at 4-5-1 after a 10-game schedule. The Mite All-Stars accounted for two wins by dumping the Redwing Paperweights, 4-2, and 5-1, while the Pee Wee Spitfires took back-to-back 5-0 wins over the Atoms.

The Austin rink will be the scene of the return games. Pointe teams are the same except for the Pee Wees. In order to make fairer match-ups, the GPHA will enter its Pee Wee All-Star house team and Pee Wee "B" team, it is reported.

On Saturday, February 24, five games will be played. The Squirt Hawks face the Minor Atoms, (eight to 10-year-olds), at noon; the Juvenile East Siders play the Redwing Juveniles, (18-20-year-olds), at 1 p.m.; the Mite All-Stars face the Redwing Paperweights, (six-eight-year-olds), at 4 p.m.; the Pee Wee All-Stars play the Atoms, (10-12-year-olds), at 5 p.m., and the Bantam Blues face the Redwing Bantams, (12-14-year-olds), at 6 p.m.

Then Sunday, February 25, the Mites play at 9 a.m., the Squirts, 10 a.m., the Pee Wees, ("B" team for the Pointe), 11 a.m., the Juveniles, noon, and the Bantams, 1 p.m.

Everyone is invited to attend the games. There is no admission charge.

Shores Officers Seek Degrees

Two Shores Public Safety Officers are currently in the midst of a course towards a degree in Police Administration.

Sergeant Charles Wenrich and Corporal Chester Painter are taking a police management course during the winter quarter at Wayne State University.

Life's mystery will always be how anything so scarce came to be called common sense.

Thieves Beat Gas Tax Hike

Individuals can certainly be very petty at times, as indicated by a report made to Farms police regarding the theft of a car tank full of gas on Sunday, February 18.

The authorities received a report from Stephen McFarland of 22458 Lakecrest, St. Clair Shores, who was working at the Standard Station at Mack and Moross.

McFarland said that a 1968 or 1969 blue Ford, occupied by three males, pulled up to a gasoline pump, and the driver ordered a fill-up. McFarland said he inserted the pump nozzle, turned it on and left for only a short while.

In the meantime, the tank filled, tripping the pump nozzle automatically, shutting off the fuel flow.

One of the occupants of the vehicle, McFarland said, got out of the car, pulled out the nozzle, replaced the tank cap and hung up the hose. He then got back into the automobile, and the driver drove off, without paying for the gas, the cost of which totaled about $6.

McFarland said that the car disappeared east on Mack. He said he could not get the license plate number because the rear plate was covered with a blue cloth.

U-LS Exchange Student Loses Paraguay Summer

By Martha Hood

Seventeen-year-old Daniel Burt is leading a double life. He is a foreign exchange student from Paraguay, living with the William Eliases of Detroit and attending University-Liggett School with the Eliases' son, Mark, who is a senior at U-L.S.

Daniel has forfeited his summer vacation in order to come to the States as the seasons south of the equator are opposite those of the U.S. and their school year is adjusted accordingly.

In Paraguay, Daniel would be either working at a summer job or relaxing at a poolside and basking in sunshine and summer breezes. This summer, however, despite the rigors of Michigan weather, he preferred to make his second trip to the U.S. He paid his first visit to this country seven years ago.

In Paraguay, Daniel has attended American schools and prefers them to the Spanish. He explains, "The Spanish schools offer no electives. They're harder and not as interesting." Daniel's older brother has the same preference for American schools. He is presently attending college in Florida.

Since he has attended American schools, Daniel does not encounter the usual language problem. In the classroom, he studied English for eight years. He made many American friends at school and they helped him practice his English outside the classroom.

Daniel's school life and friends also helped him adjust to the American way of life. Just as any American teenager, the hamburger is his favorite food, with the hot dog running a close second.

When Daniel returns home, he will complete his high school education before entering college. Because of the reversed school year in Paraguay, he has six months of high school remaining. In college, Daniel is thinking of majoring in engineering. If he becomes an engineer, he plans to work in his own country.

Daniel has completely adjusted to American life, customs, schools and language.

Pleads Guilty on 3 Charges

A 19-year-old Roseville youth pled guilty and was found guilty on three charges before Woods Municipal Judge Don J. Goodrow Wednesday, February 14.

Francis Michael Maranzano, on a driving on a suspended license charge, was fined $150 and had a jail sentence suspended; on an improper backing charge, he was fined $10, and on a violation of the controlled substance act charge, Maranzano was fined $25.

He was arrested in The Woods by Public Safety Officer Wayne Baum and Detroit officers after an automobile chase Saturday, January 13.

First Annual Inter-Club Pin Tournament Slated

The Lochmoor club is currently preparing for its first annual Inter-Club Invitational Bowling Tournament.

It is scheduled for Saturday, March 24, at Fred Wolf's Eastland Bowl at 3 p.m. The field includes six-team contingents from the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, Lochmoor, Detroit Yacht Club and Gowanie Golf Club.

The top three mens' and ladies' teams from each club will compete in three-game round robin competition on a total pin basis, for both men and ladies. Handicaps will be used from the respective club averages.

Lochmoor's Ken Adler is the tournament director, while Skip Baer of the GPYC, Bogdan Baynert of Lochmoor, Earl Salomon of the DYC and Jack Mendelsohn of Gowanie are the respective chairmen of their clubs.

The winning club will receive the suspicious Lochmoor Inter-Club trophy, which, it is hoped, will be the start of annual bowling competition between these clubs. It is also planned that other clubs will be invited to compete in future years.

Following the bowling activity, all keggers will return to the Lochmoor Club for dinner, dancing and presentations to the winners.

Mr. Adler reports it will still be around two weeks before the teams are finalized.

YSD Reports Busy January

Forty-five complaints were received by the Youth Service Division, (YSD), during January 1973, an increase of six incidents over December 1972, and a jump of 10 over January 1972.

Drug abuse was the leading complaint last month, with 20 such cases being reported. Thirteen were for use of marijuana, five for use of synthetic narcotics, and one each for possession of narcotics paraphernalia and possible sale of narcotics.

Twenty-eight males and six females were involved in these cases, with 23 being 17 years or older.

Larceny was the second leading complaint, with six cases reported and one for possession of stolen property.

Three runaway complaints also were processed, two for boys and one for a girl.

Four applications for petition were filed with the Wayne County Juvenile Court. Two were for boys on a breaking and entering a dwelling charge; one boy for habitual runaway, and one girl for habitual family trouble.

One case was referred back to the YSD for its counseling program, while another was authorized for court action. No report on the other two cases has been received at this time.

The January breakdown of total cases shows controlled substance violations, 20; larceny, six; other criminal contacts, three; runaways, three; other assaults, two; vandalism, two; telephone offenses, two; family trouble, two; neighbor trouble, burglary, arson, stolen property laws and child molesting, one each.

This action was taken at the regular meeting of the council on Monday, February 12.

The sale of the magazine will take place in the Woods on Saturday, March 31, and Saturday, April 7, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Proceeds from the sale will go to the Salvation Army rehabilitation program.

Faulty Wiring Cause of Fire

A short in the wiring inside the wall is believed to have been the cause of a fire that did minimal damage to the kitchen of the home of the Edward Lysen family, 1250 Three Mile drive.

Park Fire Chief Phillip Costa said that the blaze was confined to a small section of the kitchen and damage was done to the door casing, the door and one side of the cupboard.

The chief credited the prompt call by the house owner and the fast response by firefighters with keeping the damage to a minimum. The flames were put out within about five minutes, he added.

The chief said that the faulty wiring was located inside the wall near the door leading into the breakfast nook.

State Boating Big Business

Boating in Michigan is big business involving almost half of the state's population and expenditures during 1972 that totaled an estimated $11,838,288, according to the Michigan Marine and Snowmobile Dealers Association.

Of the total, $486,907,720 was spent on boats, engines, safety equipment, docking, launching, storage, fuel, maintenance and repairs, apparel, and food, lodging and transportation, while an additional $24,930,568 went to the state in the form of taxes, licenses and fees.

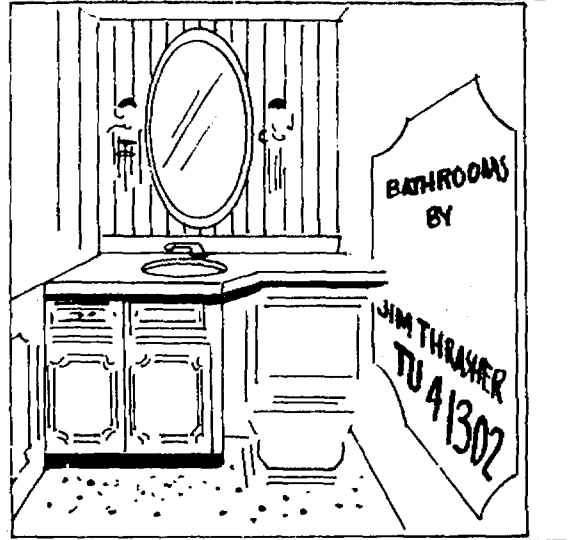

The economic survey, the first conducted by the association whose 250-members account for some 80 percent of marine and accessory sales in the state, is based on "actual and estimated figures" supplied by MMSDA members, the Michigan Department of Natural Resources, the Michigan Secretary of State's office, the Michigan Tourist Council, and the National Association of Engine and Boat Manufacturers, according to Donald Stewart, Executive Director of the association.

During 1972, an estimated 3.9 million persons in Michigan participated in recreational boating by using one of the 782,850 recreational boats available in the state more than once or twice during the year. A breakdown of recreational boats in the state, according to the survey, shows that there are: 483,700 outboards, 204,000 row boats, 59,500 inboards and 58,650 sail boats.

Five Arrested in School Car

Farms police have been receiving reports that a person or persons unknown have been using the Driver Education cars parked in the lot of Grosse Pointe South High School, when school session has ceased for the day and at night. All departmental personnel were alerted to keep an eye on the lot.

On Saturday, February 17, Cpl. Ronald Wooten and Patrolman Gerald Deburghgraeve were on their way to the station at 11:56 p.m. to report for the midnight shift, when they received a radio broadcast from Sgt. Arnold Parsons, who was on desk duty, that a car had been taken from the lot.

Wooten and Deburghgraeve, were also alerted that the vehicle was parked on Fisher, between Grosse Pointe boulevard and Kercheval avenue. The officers drove to the area, saw the auto and waited, in the event someone should try to drive the car away.

Within a few minutes, the policemen witnessed three boys and two girls, enter the automobile and drive away. The corporal and patrolman gave chase, going north on Fisher.

The car was forced to the curb, and the driver, identified as Jerome Rom Gomey, 17, of 906 Washington, was placed under arrest. Also taken into custody were Gomey's companions, all juveniles. The five were taken to the station where they were questioned. The juveniles were released to their parents pending further action.

Gomey was charged with unlawfully driving away and using an automobile. He was also charged with driving a motor vehicle without having an operator's license on his person, for which he was issued a violation ticket.

The youth was released on $100 bond on the unlawful driving charge and a court hearing is scheduled for March 14.

Selfridge Field Host to Cubs

Cub Scout Pack No. 61 from St. Paul's School enjoyed an interesting visit to Selfridge Air National Guard Base Saturday, February 17. Around 33 cubs and 10 fathers participated in the outing.

At Selfridge, the group was welcomed by Major Robert Elvidge, United States Air Force Reserve, a resident of The Farms, and by Captain Herbert J. Meadowcroft, United States Air Force Reserve, who lives in New Baltimore, Mich.

The cubs then enjoyed a movie summarizing the mission of the 403 Tactical Air Lift Wing which uses the C130A aircraft to move men and equipment all over the world.

After seeing a demonstration of the capabilities of the Air Force's weather monitoring and forecasting unit, the group "put away" a hearty lunch at the Officers Open Mess.

Following lunch, they were taken to one of the huge hangars on the flight line where two C130A aircraft were parked. Air Force personnel took the visitors through the planes and many excited scouts had the thrill of being a pilot, if only for a few minutes.

Then everyone was escorted through the Air Traffic Control Unit where they discovered a strange world of glowing radar sets and radio communications between the ground controllers and the various aircraft operating in the area.

Marshall Downs is cub master.

Take Paintings In School Theft

The Woods Department of Public Safety received further information on missing items taken from the University-Liggett School, 850 Briarcliff drive, sometime during the weekend of February 3-4. The culprits had earlier taken an American flag, valued at $65, and a fire extinguisher.

Numerous items were snatched from the woodshop and art rooms. From the woodshop room, a Craftsman radial saw key, two wooden bowls and a laminated, hard-wood cutting board were removed.

The thieves apparently had an interest in aesthetics as they took two paintings, plus three clay fettling knives, from the art room, and a painting from the school lobby.

A canvas painting of a hippopotamus done by a student, and an abstract, chalk, ink, acrylic painting in brown, gold and grey tones done by a teacher were removed from the art room.

Meanwhile, the lobby painting, called "Fireworks," was a serigraph, i.e., a color print made by pressing pigments through a silk screen with a drawing done in ink on the background. It is orange-red in color, has a pressed paper frame and measures approximately two-by-three-foot.

IF YOU HAVE A NAGGING WIFE AND 2 KIDS WHO SKI (OR WANT TO)

Say you've got a (nagging) wife and 2 kids. Wife nags you into a family ski week. Right? So, you call the friendly airline: "Only $536.50 round-trip to the Rockies - Coach from Detroit ($450.84 from Chicago)," says the proud bird at the other end.

"Cheap enough," think you. Until you get out the old slide rule.

That $500 odd dollars includes just plane fare to the foothills (Denver) of the Rockies!

Now, there's five days of parking the car at the airport. Not cheap. Still worse, the car you'll have to rent at the airport to get to the skiing.

Then there's lodging, lifts, meals, lessons, etc. that totals the trip out to about $1,500.

IN CONTRAST A "TOTAL 5-DAY FAMILY SKI WEEK" AT BOYNE IS $495!

Bernard Takes Six First Places

Ray Bernard, the Grosse Pointe Swim Club's 14-year-old swimming sensation, captured six first places in the Glass City Invitational Meet at Toledo, O., the weekend of February 17-18. He was the outstanding swimmer in the meet, winning every event in which he swam.

His winning times were 24.3 in the 50-yard free; 1:03.5 in the 100-yard butterfly; 1:02.8 in the 100-yard backstroke; 1:01.9 in the 100-yard open men's backstroke, and 54.9 in the 100-yard free. He finished his string of victories with a 2:18.4 in the 200-yard individual medley.

Bernard's six victories may be the first time this has been accomplished in the 25 years the meet has been held. It is the oldest consecutive meet in AAU history in the United States.

Pam Hallman took a second place in the 100-yard butterfly (woman's open), with a time of 1:06.1. She also garnered sixth in the 200-yard freestyle at 2:14.1, took a fifth in the 200-yard IM at 2:31.4. Frances Shook won the 50-yard breaststroke (38.5), the fastest time posted by a State 10-year-old this year.

South Cagers Toppled Twice

By Mark Emery

South's Varsity will go in to next week's game at Monroe with an average below .500. This mark's the first time this year the Devil's are in this situation.

The club dropped two games last week. The Devil's lost to Fordson, 73-59, and to Utica Stevenson, 46-45.

South had hopes of an upset and came close to beating a highly regarded Fordson squad. But Fordson was hot early in the fourth quarter as they mounted 21 points

Man Strikes Police Officer

A Detroit man will appear in The Woods Municipal Court Wednesday, March 21, on charges of battery to a police officer and interfering with The Public Safety Department stemming from an incident Saturday, February 17.

While on patrol along Mack avenue, Public Safety Officer Jack Treppa spotted a Chevy van in a "No Parking Zone" with its engine running. As he began to write the violation, Amore came to the scout car whereupon the officer advised him to have a seat in the van.

Police said Amore uttered obscenities to the officer and ultimately reached through the open window, grabbed the completed ticket and struck Officer Treppa in the face.

Upon starting for the van, Amore was told he was under arrest for assaulting an officer. He reportedly resisted the officer's attempts to arrest him and assistance was called.

Officer Douglas Dosmas arrived and Amore, police said, would not allow the handcuffs to be placed on him, as he thrashed around. He was then forcibly handcuffed and transported to the station. Amore posted a $100 bond on the "battery" charge and was released.

Sergeant Bernard Kelly said, in his report, a man stopped and stated he observed Officer Treppa "acting as a gentleman and that the arrested subject was giving the officer 'unnecessary trouble.'"

Woods Police Nab Speedster

A high-speed police chase in The Woods resulted in the arrest of a Mt. Clemens man Sunday, February 18. Woodrow Wendell Goodman, Jr., 23, was charged with reckless driving, (endangering life, limb and property).

While on patrol on south-bound Mack avenue, Public Safety Officer Frederick Lovelace spotted Goodman driving at a high rate of speed in the opposite direction. With the overhead lights flashing and siren blaring, the officer gave chase as the pursued accelerated to speeds in excess of 85 m.p.h.

Police said Goodman was weaving in and out of traffic causing one vehicle to go onto the island at Mack and Blossom lane, while two others were forced to the curb during the chase.

Goodman was released after an AAA card was accepted in lieu of $150 cash bond. He is scheduled to appear in court Wednesday, March 21.

We are proud to announce that we have been selected to transform THE OLD BIRCHWOOD FARM ESTATE overlooking Lake Michigan and near the Boyne Highlands ski complex at HARBOR SPRINGS, MICHIGAN into one of America's most important all-seasons residential/resort leisure colonies.

In the entire United States there is no more desirable a locale than the Harbor Springs/Bayview/Petoskey/Charlevoix area of Michigan. For nearly a century some of America's most prestigious families have enjoyed lives of leisure in this superb setting—and still do. For decades no major new full-facility leisure colony could be created here, despite an enormous demand, because of the unavailability of a suitable parcel of land. Now, through the passing of the old Birchwood Farm estate into our hands through private transaction, this situation is changed—temporarily at least, until the supply of land is spoken for.

In this day and age, it's indeed difficult to believe that an area to escape to like Harbor Springs could still exist—or that a project like Birchwood Farm Estate could ever come into being. And what is Birchwood Farm Estate? It's a full-facility community where the most desirable modern aspects of luxurious leisure living are added to the most sought-after heritages of a peaceful American past. Where young families can introduce to those who are older a life-style which makes winter, informality and friendliness as irresistible as summer, courtliness and reserve. Where interesting and appealing individuals can share common sports and social interests; where there is peace of mind and security in feeling confident that almost certainly will nothing more tempting appear on the horizon; where it is genuinely possible to enjoy a second life of leisure away from the crowds and tensions of workaday metropolitan areas without sacrificing one whit the comforts, conveniences and luxuries we have all come to take for granted. Harbor Springs is located directly on Little Traverse Bay, an inlet some 10 miles long and 5 miles wide—actually, a huge, sheltered open cove of Lake Michigan.

you find some of America's finest championship golf courses and country clubs, such as Waukegoning, Harbor Point and Boyne Highlands. It's at Harbor Springs that boating—both motor and sail—achieve their ultimate on the Great Lakes. And it is at Harbor Springs that internationally-reported social events invariably seem to occur. Birchwood Farm Estate is some 1,700 acres in size. It is situated three miles from the center of Harbor Springs, west on Route M-131, on a high bluff with majestic views sweeping far out on Lake Michigan. The property goes back inland for some 1 1/2 miles. The fully-treed rolling terrain in fact extends to within 5 miles of the slopes and other superior attractions of Boyne Highlands. (All roads are private incidentally, and the community has its own 24-hour-a-day Security Police Patrol). Our pledge to uphold every standard of the area—with an added stipulation To turn this farmland to its highest and best use, we were selected over a number of other interested parties—after giving our pledge that every standard appropriate to the area would be observed in creating a leisure community of the first rank of excellence and importance. If past experience is a guide, a goodly percentage of people will own this leisure-oriented land purely for investment purposes, feeling it will be in ever-decreasing supply at the same time as demand will be increasing with apparent inevitability. (What's more, another notable percentage of families will be acquiring land now for possible building later on. The advantage to doing so at this time of course is their firm conviction that this land will never again be priced at these introductory-phase levels. And, naturally, never again will the initial selection of prime locations be available. Indeed, land later on may not be available at all.)

BIRCHWOOD FARM ESTATE. A remarkable new full-facility, all seasons leisure colony of some 1,700 acres in size situated atop the bluffs overlooking Lake Michigan, three miles west of Harbor Springs center on M-131. HARBOR SPRINGS, MICHIGAN. An Invitation to see: Birchwood Farm Estate as our overnight guests, without cost, obligation or duress of any sort. BACK ACHES

Full 90 pct. of BACK ACHES are from internal organ irritation by referred or reflexed pain. It is the nerve functional breakdown of the internal organs, which are the result of the improper living and eating habits.

BACK ACHES usually respond (it is a rare case that does not respond) to ZONE THERAPY (compression massage of the terminal nerve endings) PHYSIO THERAPY (diathermy, sinusoidal and galvanic current, ultra sonic and manipulation) REFLEXOLOGY METHODS (pressure on terminal nerve endings) (ACUPUNCTURE without needles) ACUPUNCTURE with needles coming soon.

BACK ACHES are usually eliminated in one to ten treatments. The above treatments are nature's natural GOD'S methods, they are inexpensive, there is no danger, no damage, no side effects, they have no equal and no comparison. The time of each visit is about two hours. This system of treatments is available by calling 886-4010 for an appointment or more information.

Remember BACK PAIN is a symptom of a condition, (nature's warning that something is wrong, that nature has reached it's tolerance point). And when not taken care of with the proper and most effective treatments, other serious conditions could develop.

We wish to advise that the above system is not available from your doctor or chiropractor.

Roses Subject Of New Class

"All About Roses" is the subject of a brand new class offering at Grosse Pointe War Memorial with none other than Forest Geary, former Director of Community Services for G.P. Board of Education, in charge.

Mr. Geary is not asking one cent for his lectures. There is just a modest $5 charge for the series to cover janitorial and set up fees and materials. The lectures will be on Monday nights, 7:30 to 9 p.m., March 5-March 26.

Pointers may find the position of Rosarian unusual for Mr. Geary, since many citizens picture him as former coach and athletic director at Grosse Pointe High School. But Forrest Geary, since his retirement has developed his professional hobby, "Roses" into the immediate past president of both the Detroit and Grosse Pointe Rose Societies, as well as being the immediate past president of the Men's Garden Club. He is the consulting Rosarian for the Great Lakes District of the American Rose Society and one of the 10 members of the National Committee of Consulting Rosarians, appointed by the American Rose Society, which has over 16,000 members. He is qualified as an American Rose Society judge and has exhibited roses at local, state and national shows—winning trophies at all levels.

Mr. Geary was a featured speaker at the National Rose Society convention in Dallas in April 1972 and again in Pittsburgh in September 1972. He has appeared in horticultural programs on TV and has personally grown over 350 varieties of roses—many still not available to the general public.

North Defeats Two Opponents

By Phil Guastella

Grosse Pointe North remains in second place in the Bi-County League with only two games to go. Not even a pair of victories could move them closer to first place Lake Shore.

North plays at Clintondale and hosts Lakeview, while the Shorians host Fraser and then travel to L'Anse Creuse for their final encounter.

The club took an early lead against South Lake and hung on for a 68-59 victory at home Friday, February 16.

Kevin Kiley was North's top scorer tallying 19 points. John Puleo added 14 points and Ron Zenn 10 points.

Bill Senn topped all scorers as he had 20 for the Cavaliers.

"Kevin Clinton played a fine game for North," stated coach Ray Ritter. "He went to the offensive boards well, and that's when he picked up eight of his 10 rebounds."

Gerry Humes also played a strong board game hauling in nine missed shots. Gerry played a physical game as he and South Lake's center kept battling for position; and from the statistics it is safe to say Humes came out the better of the two.

North also played host to East Detroit Tuesday, February 13, and came away with an 81-52 slaughter.

This game marked the return of North's number one player, Zenn, Zenn, seeing limited action, appeared somewhat rusty, but scored eight points. Dave Chapman paced the Norsemen attack with 16 points and Kevin Kiley added 11.

"John Puleo played an outstanding game for us," said coach Ritter. "In addition to his scoring he led all rebounders with 12. Jeff Humes also played a fine game. This is exactly what we have been needing, scoring punch from the forwards. We are getting it now and it takes a little pressure off our guards."

Doug Ulmer saw plenty of playing time and contributed highly to the win. "I am very pleased with Doug's performance. When Gerry got into foul trouble early in the game Doug went in and did a marvelous job," said coach Ritter.

Clinton also received plaudits from the coach. "Kevin has regained his shooting touch. He has been playing good all year and now that his shot is where it should be, he'll be even tougher." Leading the East Detroit attack was Dave Campbell with 18 points.

Mason's PTA Meets Feb. 27

"Approaching the Middle School" will be the topic of the Mason School P.T.A. meeting Tuesday, February 27, at 7:30 p.m.

The program will begin with room visitation, at which time parents have an opportunity to visit classrooms and talk with teachers.

Following this will be the general meeting, which will feature Marietta Lamb, case worker for Catholic Social Services in Detroit, and Dr. Lorna Middendorf, Assistant Professor of Psychology at Oakland University.

Miss Lamb will speak about atypical behavior patterns in the transition from elementary to middle school. In her work, she is primarily concerned with adolescent problems.

Dr. Middendorf will discuss typical forms of behavior in this transitional stage. She received her doctorate in developmental psychology from Rutgers University and is active in the Headstart and Follow Through programs.

A question and answer period will follow the speakers' comments.

P.T.A. vice-president Robert Bierley, of Country Club avenue, is in charge of the evening's program. Dr. Theodore Binkowski, of Hampton avenue, president of the Mason P.T.A., will conduct a brief business meeting preceding the scheduled talks.

'Other Side' Date Shifted

Grosse Pointe War Memorial is trying another "Junior Other Side" on an experimental basis Saturday night, March 3, 7:30 to 10:30 o'clock. The date has been moved from Friday, March 2, so as not to conflict with Parcels Fun Night.

The band will be the "Good Humor". Pop will be available throughout the evening. Admission is $1 by tickets purchased in advance and 25c more if purchased at the door. Identification will be thoroughly checked both at time of ticket purchase and when coming to the dance.

The affair is strictly for Grosse Pointe students in grades 7 and 8 only. Anyone without proper I.D. will not be admitted and anyone falsifying I.D. will be turned over to the police on duty and the youth service officers. They will be black balled from future War Memorial events. The Center also reserves the right to refuse admission to anyone felt to be prejudicial to the party.

The Junior Other Side will be chaperoned by parents and War Memorial staff. More parents are always needed and welcome. Uniformed armed Grosse Pointe Farms police will be on duty on the grounds. Doors will not be open until 7:15. Students may not leave until 10:15 unless parents come to the door of the ballroom for them.

Parents MUST pick up their children by 10:45 at the latest after which time the Center property will be cleared by the police and the Center will not be responsible for the young people after then.

The Grosse Pointe Interfaith Center for Racial Justice will hold a benefit high school dance to raise funds for its work in the community.

It will take place Sunday, February 25, at 8 p.m. at St. Peter's Gym in Harper Woods, (Vernier road between Eastland and the I-94 expressway). The featured band is "Julia" and the donation is $2.

The purpose of the center is to identify and deal with social and racial injustice as it exists within the individuals and institutions of the community. There are extensive educational and action-oriented groups within the center which work together to realize that purpose.

For further information, call 881-9019.

Woods Cites Antiques Week March 5-11 declared the week of March 5-11 as Grosse Pointe Antiques Week.

Sixth Graders' Locale Pending

The placement of sixth grade students was discussed by the Board of Education at its meeting on Monday, February 12.

It was recommended that all sixth graders remain in their respective elementary schools during the 1973-1974 school year. Previously, some of the students had been placed in the middle school. Pierce currently has 135 sixth graders, Brownell, 169 and Parcels none.

The final action on this recommendation will be taken at the February 26 special meeting of the Board.

What Goes On at Your Library
 By Virginia Leonard

I was delighted to find there is a new fascinating literary-biographical portrait out on James Thurber, THE CLOCKS OF COLUMBUS by Charles S. Holmes. The author's credentials are good: he is a professor of English at Pomona College in Claremont Calif., but is an Ohioan, as was Thurber. His field is American literature.

Reading this book was like taking a walk down memory lane, as far as Thurber's works, both written and pictorial, are concerned. I am a terrific Thurber buff, and I lost my heart long ago to his dogs (cartoons) as well as to his many other neofamous drawings. As for his writings, who hasn't read THE SECRET LIFE OF WALTER MITTY, THE MALE ANIMAL, or THE NIGHT THE BED FELL? Once you become a follower of Thurber, you annually read the stories that are your favorites, and they never lose their zest.

The author starts out with Thurber's boyhood days in Columbus, then his university days, his stint in Paris, and his world as a newspaperman in Columbus. So many of his anecdotes revolve around family crises and pseudo-crises, and show us Thurber exploring what was to become his own very special material and manner—the world of domestic chaos and uproar, drawn from the everyday life of his own family.

Then, more newspaper experience in Paris and New York, a marriage (which was doomed to failure after some years and the birth of a daughter), getting to know famous people such as Dorothy Parker, Ross, E. B. White and Elliot Paul. And finally, one goal reached, he became a writer for the NEW YORKER.

The publication of IS SEX NECESSARY? in 1929 brought Thurber and White their first national recognition, and their first taste of the financial rewards of popular authorship. At this time there was a great wave of sex-and-psychology books, and they thought it would be a great trend to parody. The special target of most of the chapters of this book is the Victorian sentimentality about womanhood, sex and marriage. To me, one of the biggest points to make is a constantly recurring theme about Thurber's men and women. (And I'm sure by now Women's Libbers have made use of it!) I quote from White's description of the men and women in Thurber's drawings: "These 'Thurber men' have come to be recognized as a distinct type in the world of art; they are frustrated, fugitive beings; at times they seem vaguely striving to get out of something without being seen (a room, a situation, a state of mind), at other times they are merely perplexed and too humble, or weak, to move. The women, you will notice, are quite different: temperamentally they are much better adjusted to their surroundings than are the men, and mentally they are much less capable of making themselves uncomfortable." IS SEX NECESSARY? is a notable advance in Thurber's development as a humorist, and is his first significant treatment of his great subject, the battle of the sexes.

The next two books: THE SEAL IN THE BEDROOM and MY LIFE AND HARD TIMES would show him taking full possession of the imaginative territory. (Certainly you must remember the cartoon from which the first book takes its name?) One British critic remarked: "Inside every Little Nell there lurks a Lady Macbeth." And such are Thurber's females. Many people feel that MY LIFE AND HARD TIMES was Thurber's masterpiece in his early career. It was a special sort of autobiography, part fact, part fantasy. So we can think of this as "Columbus remembered."

Strict biography is hardly touched in this book, but certain sequential basic events are mentioned. In 1935 Thurber remarried—this time for good. The girl's name was Helen Wismer, a calm, intelligent, practical, well-organized girl. She was exactly what he needed. She saw him through all of his vicissitudes, including his final total blindness, (he had been partially blind during most of his life.) This sightlessness, when it came, drove him inward into the world of fantasy and backward into the world of childhood imagination.

I must not omit the fact that in 1957 the American Library Association gave Thurber its Liberty and Justice Award for FURTHER FABLES FOR OUR TIME.

I'd like to quote from T. S. Elliot as to Thurber's humor. "It is a form of humor which is also a way of saying something serious. There is a criticism of life at the bottom of it. It is serious and even somber. Unlike so much humor, it is not merely a criticism of manners—that is, of the superficial aspects of society at a given moment—but something more profound. His writings and also his illustrations are capable of surviving the immediate environment and time out of which they spring. To some extent, they will be a document of the age they belong to."

Only two more points to clear up. We must point out that as Thurber grew older and could no longer see, his humor turned somewhat to satire. This is understandable if you read this book or know anything about the man.

Second and final point. Where did Holmes get the title for this book? From E. B. White's obituary. (Thurber died in 1961 from a stroke followed by pneumonia). "Ohio was never far from his (Thurber's) thoughts, and when he received a medal from his home state in 1953, he wrote:—'The clocks that strike in my dreams are often the clocks of Columbus.'"

One View From The Capitol
 By William R. Bryant, Jr.

The Governor has made his latest pronouncement on education finance, the state Supreme Court has agreed to rehear its recent school finance case and the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals has now reheard the Detroit desegregation case. None of this is calculated to ease the minds of anyone and is all more than a bit disorienting.

The education finance message by the Governor and the explanation made at the advance briefing I attended talk of a supposedly new idea, "yield equalizing," that is guaranteeing each district a high dollar per pupil yield from each mill levied by them. This brought the response from one of my colleagues "yeah, it used to be called the Spencer-Ryan plan and it was the law until Milliken got it repealed."

So, the approach the Governor is proposing is not new, but that doesn't make it bad.

Other questions remain. Does the Governor now oppose going the route of any constitutional amendment? Does his proposal for Detroit, to force it to levy a school district income tax or property tax without a vote of the people stand any chance of success? Can Detroit borrow enough money to finish the school year even if it did levy such a tax?

Also, what about the school finance law suit? Milliken is a Plaintiff in that suit now scheduled for rehearing. Yet Milliken is now proposing an approach to school aid which many say may not be held legal by our state Supreme Court. I happen to think it would be legal, but I am told that Justice Williams has told one reporter already that he has "grave doubts" as to constitutionality.

Within the next week or so, I will be introducing a school aid bill and a proposed constitutional amendment. If you have any specific ideas on either approach, please let me know as soon as possible. We need all the good ideas we can get.

Letters to the Editor

An open letter to the Grosse Pointes:

On behalf of the Foundation for Exceptional Children, we wish to thank the entire community for your wonderful interest in our Christmas card sales this year. We have had a banner year not only in total sales but in total donations. Special thanks must be given to local businesses for selling and exhibiting our cards for us and to the Library for displaying our cards. Without help from such interested parties, our sales certainly would not have been so impressive.

Because the Foundation is in Grosse Pointe and serves Grosse Pointe and neighboring areas, it is important that the community be aware of us and support our existence. You have certainly proven your support this year. Please continue to remember us.

Sincerely,
 Martha Martin,
 Cynthia Brohaska,
 Christmas card chairmen.

Gentlemen:
 Our family would like the residents of the Grosse Pointe communities to know how fortunate we are to have a place like Cottage Hospital in our midst.

I have never known such good and dedicated people.

I also would like the residents of Grosse Pointe Woods to know what a wonderful Police Department we have.

Twice this year it was necessary to have the service of the ambulance in an emergency. They were here immediately and were kind, courteous and efficient.

Thank you, all you lovely people.

The board of trustees of the Detroit Orthopaedic Clinic honored one of the Clinic's most faithful supporters Tuesday, presenting an award for 25 years' volunteer service to Mrs. Edward D. Spalding, of South Edgewood drive.

Honored, too, at the trustees' 53rd annual meeting was Mrs. Betty Gudith, a member of the Clinic's staff, recipient of an award for 20 years' service.

A Torch Drive Agency, founded and sponsored by Sigma Gamma Association, the Clinic provides diagnosis and treatment for children and young adults with orthopaedic conditions.

Mrs. Gerard C. Mooney, at Washington road, is current board president, installed at Tuesday's meeting. First, second and third vice-presidents respectively, are Mrs. Macon C. Trabue, Mrs. Alfred R. Glancy, III, and Mrs. Daniel L. Garan.

Other 1973 officers are Mrs. Harold G. Bay, Jr., recording secretary, Mrs. George E. Brand, Jr., corresponding secretary, Mrs. Jeremiah V. Jenks, assistant secretary, Mrs. George G. Black, treasurer, and Mrs. Lawrence D. Buhl, Jr., assistant treasurer.

Newly-elected to the board are David M. Hamilton, Mrs. Howard Robinson, Jr., Richard Smart and Mrs. J. Waldo Stewart.

A particularly challenging opportunity for college graduates was presented at the meeting: Dorothy Peters, the Clinic's acting consultant on Speech and Language, urgently needs volunteer assistance half a day a week.

Volunteers would be trained as examiners for tests to be given in an innovative, scientific program to determine the innate ability of the two-to-seven-year-old handicapped child.

Any college graduate with time to give is urged to contact Mrs. Peters at the Clinic, TEmple 2-1100, for details.

To Make March Merry

Here's an idea for a merry March 21: Why not spend the evening, (it's a Wednesday, and that's always a good day to have something planned for—makes the first part of the week go faster, and after Wednesday it's almost time for the weekend), enjoying the Grosse Pointe Theatre's production of "Forty Carats" AND, at the same time, supporting the work of the Foundation for Exceptional Children?

These are little miracles.

Otherwise known as conditioners. They give body and bounce and life and lustre to hair that hasn't all the body and bounce and life and lustre it needs. The only thing we would point out is this: different heads need different conditioners. We tell you if you need one and if so, which one. And each time you come in we double check the situation. Like to buy a little miracle? We sell them, most reasonably.

Miss Ulmer Says Vows February 17

Newlywed Gary Kent Rowleys are Skiing in Germany and Austria; Will Return to Make their Home in Rochester

Victoria Ann Ulmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob S. Ulmer, of Ida lane west, and Gary Kent Rowley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rowley, of Oxford, exchanged marriage vows Saturday, February 17, at a double ring ceremony in Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church.

The 5 o'clock candle-light rites at which The Reverend John Olert, Jr., presided were followed by a reception in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Crystal Ballroom.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory silk, featuring a re-embroidered Alencon lace bodice, and a Chapel length silk illusion veil, falling from a matching lace headpiece.

Her ball-shaped bouquet was fashioned of stephanotis, roses and baby's-breath. In ruby velvet frocks, styled with high collars edged in self-ruching and long skirts ending in flounces, topped with long-sleeved jackets, were honor maid Ann Humes and bridesmaids Linda Martin, Ellen Roelofs, a former Pointer who now makes her home in Mansfield, O., and Valerie Tweedie.

They carried cascades of pink carnations, garnet roses and baby's-breath.

Flower girl Gretchen Rowley, the bridegroom's niece, in a miniature version of the senior attendants' dresses, carried a basket filled with the roses, carnations and baby's-breath.

Paul Pellerito To Take Bride

At a recent dinner party, Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Zanini, of Rochester, announced the engagement of their daughter, Andrea Helen, to Paul S. Pellerito, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Pellerito, of Paget court.

The bride-elect is a Journalism major at Wayne State University, affiliated with Alpha Delta Pi sorority. Her fiancé, a senior Psychology major at Wayne, is a member of Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity.

They plan an August wedding, at Our Lady Star of the Sea Church.

The bride's brother, Charles Ulmer, and the bridegroom's brothers, Roger, Richard and David Rowley, seated the guests.

The mother of the bride wore a long gown of cafe au lait silk-and-wool worsted, long-sleeved and featuring a center panel appliqued in coffee silk organza tiger lilies and leaves accented with transparent sequins.

The bridegroom's mother selected an Empire-waisted, floor length gown of pink chiffon, styled with a jeweled girdle and long sleeves banded in jewels.

Both mothers pinned orchids to their matching handbags.

After a skiing vacation in Garmisch-Partenkirchen, Germany, and St. Anton, Austria, the newlyweds will make their home in Rochester.

Out-of-state guests included Julian F. Ulmer, of Pottsville, Pa., the bride's grandfather, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Lombard, of Pacific Palisades, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred G. Paves, of Annapolis, Md.

unity through fellowship, study and cooperative action.

The World Day of Prayer is their most widely-attended celebration.

The small group of women who originated this Day of Prayer in 1887 believed firmly that the mission work for which they were responsible needed their support in prayer as well as in giving.

Funds received are used for new projects, including the training of American Indians in significant skills, helping women in the Caribbean islands learn about nutrition and how to secure jobs, opening child care centers in Mississippi, organizing a department of Asian Studies in the International Christian University in Japan, and completing a five-year project to publish 100 new titles of children's books in five languages.

Chairman for World Day of Prayer in the Grosse Pointe and Harper Woods area is Mrs. Charles Wright, III, of Memorial Church. Co-chairman is Mrs. Mark Ethridge, of Christ Church.

Participating in the service will be Mrs. Joe Craig, of Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian, Mrs. James Humphreys, of Christ Church, Mrs. Patrick Jewell, of Grosse Pointe United Methodist, Mrs. George P. Ceccato Leads Two Concerts

Principal conductor-designate Aldo Ceccato returns to the Detroit Symphony Orchestra to conduct the music of two Italian and two Russian composers in a second pair of concerts this season tonight, February 22, and Saturday, February 24, at 8:30 o'clock in Ford Auditorium.

Guest artist will be pianist Israel Margalit, appearing with the Orchestra as soloist in Prokofiev's Piano Concerto No. 3.

Ceccato also will conduct the 1919 version of Stravinsky's "Firebird" Suite, Verdi's Overture to "La Forza del destino" and the Orchestra's debut performance of "Partita for Orchestra" by Goffredo Petrassi.

The 69-year-old Petrassi, a contemporary of Ceccato's late father-in-law, world-renowned conductor Victor de Cabata, composed his neo-classic Partita in 1932.

Since his introduction to Detroit concertgoers in December, Aldo Ceccato has made additional debuts with the Atlanta and Dallas Symphony Orchestras.

Before the end of this season, he will also make debuts conducting the Cincinnati Symphony, New Orleans Philharmonic and San Francisco Symphony, plus return visits to the Orchestras of Los Angeles and New York.

Effective September, 1973, he will take over as principal conductor of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

Europe's music capitals, she made her American debut in 1970 with the New York Philharmonic, with her husband Lorin Maazel on the podium.

She has been praised particularly for her interpretations of the great virtuoso works of the 19th and 20th centuries.

Tickets for this week's concerts are available at $7, $8, and $5 and $4.50, ($4 and $3.50 also on Thursday), at the Ford Auditorium Box Office, 961-0700, and Hudson's and Grinnell's ticket offices.

A limited number of tickets for students and senior citizens are on sale for $1.75 at Ford Auditorium Box Office, beginning at 7:45 o'clock concert nights.

February Focus

Have you seen the exhibit of Early Americana in the Grosse Pointe Central Library?

Mounted on a patchwork quilt of unusual design are a "sad iron," (it was placed directly on the hot lid of a coal or wood stove, and heated), an ash rake, a nutmeg grater with its little tin pocket for the whole nutmeg, a toaster, a number of iron figurines made by the Pennsylvania Dutch as toys for their children, stove lid lifters and various other items familiar to our forefathers in their daily lives.

The display, created by the Elizabeth Cass Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution to commemorate February as American History Month, is on your right as you enter the Library from the parking lot.

Organ Concert Set At St. Joan of Arc Church

The second annual Saint Joan of Arc organ concert will be presented at the Church Tuesday, February 27, at 8 o'clock.

This year's guest artist is Kameel D'Hooghe, organist at the Abbey Church of Grimbergen, Belgium, professor of Organ, Lemmens Institute, Louvain, and at the Conservatory of Maastricht, Holland, and director of the Royal Conservatory of Brussels.

Ample parking is available on the church grounds. There is no charge for guests, although donations to cover the cost of the concert will be accepted on a voluntary basis.

Further information may be obtained by calling 773-2284.

The St. Joan of Arc pipe organ, built by Casavant Freres in 1965, is one of the most prominent organs in the Detroit area. The three-manual, 49-rank instrument, is built in the balcony of the church.

Because all the pipes are exposed, (with the exception of the swell which is enclosed and under expression), the speech of the organ is very clear and precise.

The unusual character of the instrument resides in the fact that one division, called Ruckpositiv, is built in the rail of the balcony, and contains very distinctive and beautiful stops.

The organ was designed with the cooperation of the architect at the time the church was built, to insure perfect acoustics and provide a proper volume of sound in accordance with the capacity of the church.

The specifications of the organ have been designed to play Baroque as well as romantic and contemporary music.

Its flexibility is a delight for the performing artist, and a source of inspiration for the listener.

Cougars Skate To Three Wins

The Frank Adam Pee Wee Cougars went into state tournament play with two recent wins.

The first was a 13-0 rout of the Clark Oilers. The Cougars dominated play, keeping the puck in the Clark end for the whole game. Steve Levick, Ben Amore and Chick Taylor led the scoring parade.

Then the next state game saw the Cougars defeat Madison Heights #1, 5-0. The goal scoring was spread between Joe Seehee, Jeff Kydd, Tom McHugh, Kevin McMahon and Ben Amore. Defenseman Ken Versichelo was credited with four assists.

Next the team became complacent with these wins, coach Tom Kydd scheduled a game with the tough Tri-County League Lincoln Met-A Hawks, who won 7-2. The Cougars couldn't get untracked until the third period when Kydd scored, assisted by Amore and Joe Seehee.

The second Cougar goal was by Amore, assisted by Dave Seagram and Kydd.

The Cougars then returned to league play and crushed Clark Oilers 11-0. The highlight was a three-goal "hat trick" by defenseman Joe Brykalski. George Hogan scored twice.

The Cougars enter the district finals of the state tournament meeting University-Liggett Saturday, February 24, in Royal Oak.

Star Hoopsters Suffer 1st Loss

Our Lady Star of the Sea High School cagers suffered their first regular-season loss in league play Sunday, February 18, but managed to cling to a share of first place in the tough CYO Northeast AA Girls' League.

Detroit Servite, rebounding from a seven-point deficit late in the game, staged a furious rally to sew-up a 34-24 victory over Star of the Sea and move into a league-leading tie with the local quintet. Both teams now boast 7-1 records in league play.

Despite the loss, Star of the Sea is assured of a playoff berth in the Division tournament which starts Saturday, March 3. Tournament pairings have yet to be announced.

"The competition in our league is at an all-time high and any team is capable of beating any other on any given Sunday," claimed Margaret Spindler, head coach of the Star team. "We have placed emphasis on team play rather than individual effort and it has been paying dividends."

Senior center Denise Sark, the team's leading scorer with an 11-point per game average, and Diane Bingham, a senior forward averaging eight points per game, seem odds-on choices to make the CYO All-City team. Junior guard Coleen Woodbury, the team's playmaker, who averages just under six points a game, also is a candidate for the All-City Team, it is reported.

Star of the Sea hosts St. Florian High of Detroit, in its next outing coming Sunday, February 25.

GP Blues Win Three, Tie One

The Grosse Pointe Blues Bantam Division hockey team enjoyed the past week with three wins and one tie under coach Wayne Austin.

On Thursday, February 8, the Blues tied Livonia, 1-1. Defenseman Allen Jones netted the Blues' goal.

The following evening the Blues defeated the Junior Leafs at Fraser, 4-1. The Blues' scorers were center Pat Fox, defenseman Tom Stewart and forwards Brian Carron and Terry Lucas.

Goalie Peter Wenzell worked hard and earned a shutout as the Blues captured a 4-0 victory at the Grosse Pointe Community Rink Saturday, February 10. Forward Mike Sandmar opened the scoring against the Earborn team.

Then the second goal came from the stick of Pat Fox. Center Rick Fruehauf lit the red light for goal number three. The final goal came when Carron fired in the puck.

The Blues journeyed to Ann Arbor Sunday, February 11, and defeated the Ann Arbor Midgets, 4-1. Right-winger Peter Poirer opened the scoring with the Blues' first two goals. Mark Seski then re-joined the scoring ranks after being out of action for many weeks due to a leg injury. Captain Lott ended the game's scoring with a slap shot.

With 10 of the Blues' players scoring goals in the past four games, it appears some exciting games are in store for the fans of Grosse Pointe's "A" travel team for 13- and 14-year olds.

Car Damaged While Parked

Keith Jason, 451 Malborough, reported to City police that his 1963 Mercury had been damaged while he was attending a party at the residence of Richard Moore, 880 Lakeland, on Saturday, February 17.

The rear window had been broken from the inside by a wood chisel taken from the glove compartment. The gear shift also was bent, making it impossible for Mr. Jason to drive the car.

Mr. Moore told police that he had turned away several boys during the evening. The car was parked on Lakeland.

U-L's Hockey Team in Third

In Michigan Metro High School Hockey League action through Monday, February 12, University-Liggett holds third place in Third Division standings. The club stands 5-6-0 for 10 points, seven points behind B. H. Lahser and 10 points behind first place Country Day, at 10-0-0.

U-L's Dave Peters, with 13 goals and eight assists for 21 points, stands fourth in Third Division top-10 scoring. Teammate Hank Finkenstaedt is in ninth place with nine goals and three assists for 12 points.

Bruins Take Hockey Title

The Grosse Pointe Squirt Travel Team won the District Three Regional title Saturday, February 17, by blanking the Warren Hustlers, 4-0. By virtue of their victory the Bruins go on to represent Grosse Pointe in the State Finals at the Grosse Pointe Community Rink March 9-10-11.

They have represented the Pointe in this age group to far greater heights than ever before in the Grosse Pointe Hockey Association. Their record is 69-6-3. They hold a fine 1.35 goals against average, which is attributed to excellent goal tending and defense, with one of the defensemen, Robert Brykalski reportedly being aggressive and a good checker.

Life's big problem lies not in having good intentions — living up to them is the hard part.

Pointer of Interest

MRS. G. SAM ZILLY, OF MERRIWEATHER ROAD

By Janet Mueller

She was abroad, circumnavigating the Mediterranean with Sam and another couple, wandering by car whenever/wherever their fancy took them, when the letter reached her. Would Bernice, due to return to The States in June, be willing to take on the presidency of the Detroit Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women in July?

The DACCW is a 300,000-member organization.

It includes women from six counties: Wayne, Oakland, Macomb, St. Clair, Lapeer and Monroe.

Running it, serving as its president, is rather like running a small country.

Bernice Zilly said "Yes, of course."

"No," when it comes to a challenge, a responsibility, is not her style.

Nor is it her identical twin sister's style. Lucille B. Eken went back to school to take one course, because she wanted to know what her husband was talking about.

She liked it so well, she went on . . . and on . . . and eventually passed the bar, and became a practicing attorney, and wound up with a responsible position with the Office of Economic Opportunity.

Bernice Zilly chose volunteer service as her route to a useful, rewarding life.

She Followed Him

Mrs. Eken still lives in Illinois, in Aurora, not far from Chicago. Bernice and Sam met at the University of Illinois. Then: "He came here, and I followed him."

They built their home in Merriweather road in 1938. They don't intend ever to leave it.

Bernice earned her Master of Arts degree at Wayne State University. She taught at Detroit's Northeastern and Southeastern High Schools, loved it, but decided to stop when her second child was on the way.

That child, Barbara, taught sixth grade at Ferry School before her own babies wrote lines to mama's formal academic career.

Barbara is Mrs. Henry J. (Chick) Heck now. The babies are Sarah, 22 months, and Rebecca (Becky), four months.

The Hecks live in Hollywood avenue, and Bernice and Sam are "having a ball with the baby-sitting."

They have four grandsons too, John, Peter, Paul and Luke Zilly, aged 11 to three, children of son Tom, an attorney living in Seattle.

Bernice and Sam keep in close touch with the West Coast Zilly contingent.

Home Health Care Products . . . are increasingly important for all of use today. Facing rising hospital costs and convalescent homes filled to capacity, more and more of us face caring for patients at home. We can service all your needs, prescriptions, medications, walkers, wheelchairs, hospital dressings, incontinence pads, catheters. We have them all. We will charge and deliver. Let us help you. It's a difficult job . . . A. J. Meyer, Inc., 16361 Mack Avenue.

Last Three Days . . . to take advantage of the Germaine Montel Beauty offer from Jacobson's. Not one, but two super samples from The Beautiful World of Germaine Montel are yours with any purchase from the Montel line.

SALDI! SALDI! SALDI! . . . that's Italian for clearance!! Dresses, sportswear, entire winter stock half price to make room for spring and summer collections, arriving daily, domestic and imported. 20902 Mack Ave., 884-8663, La Strega Boutique.

Hair Cellar . . . a new department at Edwards on Mack. They do the latest in hair cuts for the young set, blow combing, hot comb sets. Quick service on long hair. They have a new system for hair straightening on a temporary basis with the new Sebastian irons. You won't believe how they can take care of the frizzes. Also hair curving by Sebastian. Beautiful. Hair Cellar . . . at Edwards, 21427 Mack Avenue between Vernier and 9 Mile Road, 773-8440.

the first they'd seen, and that was April—had fallen during the night, decided it was so beautiful and so peaceful there they might as well hole up for a while . . . and did, for five days.

One Bad Experience Only once did they have a nasty experience. In Algiers, their car was ransacked, everything they'd left inside, including exposed film, taken while they overnights in a hotel.

But the car was still there, and they were still there, and no use trying over split and no use crying on, and went on laughing, and enjoying themselves.

They sailed home in June, on the Queen Elizabeth II.

In July, Bernice Zilly became president of the Detroit Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women, with Sam's full approval. They had talked it over in Europe, and decided, in typical Zilly fashion, "Somebody has to do it."

Sam knew Bernice would do it well.

He knew the importance of work for the community. He'd been very involved with Boy Scouts, himself, over the years.

He knew Bernice would always manage to make it home in time for dinner.

He knew she could be happy with her knitting just so long.

"I love to play bridge," Bernice explains, "but it's not enough . . . There's so much to be done in this world. You have to contribute something."

After Barbara's birth, she eased gradually out of teaching. She conducted night school classes at Grosse Pointe High for a few years.

AAUW Past President

She's a past-president of the Detroit Branch of the American Association of University Women. She resigned from Detroit AAUW when other obligations became too pressing, when she no longer felt she could give the time to it she ought to give.

She wouldn't be a "hanging-on" member, a do-nothing name-lender.

It's not her style. After AAUW, she became very active in the Women's City Club Civic Affairs Committee, and, when Detroit approached her, asking if she'd be willing to start a Keep Detroit Beautiful Committee, she said "Yes," of course.

That was in 1955. She served as KDB's president for three years, and is still working with it.

She was a member of the Downtown YWCA board for three years. (Martha Kiely, "Pointer of Interest" just a few months ago, a woman for whom Bernice has the highest respect, was a fellow board member.)

Active in Politics Republican politics are a continuing interest. Bernice has represented her district on the GOP State Central Committee for the past six years. She's a past-president of the Women's Republican Club of Grosse Pointe.

Grosse Pointe South High School graduate MIKE SCHROEDER is among Wayne State University's outstanding freshman swimmers. He was the team's lone performer to turn in double victory efforts in the January 26 and 27 sweep of Waterloo, (85-28), and Western Ontario, (78-35), winning the 50-yard and 100-yard freestyle events each night to key the Tartar efforts.

CATHY LOUISE ENGLERT, daughter of the HORST E. ENGLERTS, of South Renaud road, received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Valparaiso University, where she majored in Home Economics, in December.

She maintains membership on the Red Cross board of directors, and has held many Red Cross offices, including chairmanship of the Red Cross Speakers Bureau.

Currently, she's Red Cross deputy chairman of volunteers.

She still spends one day at the Red Cross office every week.

Add to that three days per week at the Council of Catholic Women office, an every-morning stand-up stint at the piano at home, opening mail—she likes to pile it on the back of the piano and open it, standing: It's "her place" . . . and there's not much time left over for bridge!

But Bernice Zilly is doing what she likes to do.

She's always gravitated toward big things, all-city things. "You meet so many different, interesting people. They become your friends, and they stay your friends forever."

Has 300 Leaders

The DACCW is certainly big: Its Directory of chairmen and sub-chairmen, "women who run the works," newly-issued this year, lists almost 300 names.

DACCW programs and concerns are multiple and multifaceted, ranging from migrant workers to international relief work in cooperation with United States Catholic Charities.

An Archdiocesan-wide Blood Program assuring complete blood coverage for every Catholic is being implemented through the DACCW. Bernice Zilly, with her Red Cross background, is naturally delighted with this.

The Catholic Women are currently cooperating with the National Council of Jewish Women, Detroit, in a study of Juvenile Detention procedures in the Detroit area. This is an example of the cooperative inter-faith action Bernice is committed to.

She believes, too, in dialogue within the Christian church. The president of the Detroit Council of Lutheran Women was a recent speaker at a DACCW board meeting.

Has Many Purposes

The DACCW sees its role as one of service, communication and information, as both a resource and an implementation facility. It operates through six commissions: Church Communities, Family Affairs, Community Affairs, International Affairs, Organization Services and Public Affairs.

"We're stressing," Bernice emphasizes, "that we are NOT in competition with Parish Councils. Many of them have the same names as our commissions, because the names are drawn from the same document, Vatican II's Decree on the Apostolate of the Laity."

But where the Parish Councils are concerned with practical matters, grass roots applications, the DACCW commissions focus on broad principles and Archdiocese-wide applications.

tion of 1972 coins produced at the Philadelphia and Denver Mints and the San Francisco Assay Office. The Assayers have been meeting each year in Philadelphia since 1792, when the first Commission convened to count, weigh and assay a representative sample of the nation's coinage, reporting its findings to the President.

Everything's much the same now as it was then. Commission members are appointed by the President and report to him. They come from all walks of life and all parts of the country. Mr. Palmientier was Michigan's only 1973 representative.

This year, they ranged in age from 24 to 75. Each year, they share a common interest in coins of all times and all nations. They serve without remuneration.

They gathered in all-day session Valentine's Day, February 14, following the ancient "Trial of the Pyx," a ceremony begun in England in the 13th Century to discourage counterfeiting and bolster public confidence in all coins of the realm by requiring that they be struck in compliance with specific standards.

Satisfied at the end of the day that the nation's coinage had been well and truly struck, the Commissioners were entitled to enjoy themselves at a gala dinner at Philadelphia's Union League Club.

Elfrieda Palmientier joined her husband there, at the invitation of Mrs. Mary Brooks, Mint director, who presented each Commission member with a special medal.

Only one medal is struck for each member, after which the die is destroyed.

Ex officio members serving on this year's Commission and receiving medals included The Honorable Joseph S. Lord, III, Chief Justice, United States District Court, Eastern District of Pennsylvania, The Honorable William B. Camp, Comptroller of the Currency, Washington, D. C., and The Honorable Paul J. Maguire, Assayer, United States Assay Office, New York City.

colleges), are members of the DACCW.

Think of the Units as cities, under the DACCW state.

The DACCW is itself a unit of the National Council of Catholic Women, the National Council a unit of the World Union.

DACCW state to National Council country to World Union UN.

Like a Governor

Think of Bernice Zilly as a governor, chief administrator of a commonwealth, her 300,000 citizens' representative to the larger government.

Think of the things a governor does . . .

"I have to set up the organizational structure, and then supervise its operation," Bernice explains. As chief executive, she's the person on whom responsibility for her state ultimately devolves. She's living proof that women DO make good executives.

Her state runs.

She's the epitome of the concerned, liberated woman, a firm believer in women's rights, a "person" in her own right. She's against sex discrimination.

She's also against the Equal Rights Amendment.

"I'm not a Women's Libber when it comes to that amendment. I think it takes necessary protection away."

"I really believe women have a place in this world—and it's NOT second place to men—but I'm opposed to that amendment!"

Trust Bernice Zilly to state her mind, plainly, once her mind's made up.

Equivocation, like avoidance of responsibility, is not her style.

Carl's Corner

All we read are crime and crime statistics, but this week it struck home at Studio Camera. With 30 employees we had the families of 3 as the victims of violent crimes in a 4-day period. Yet we ask, "What can we do?" Regardless of statistics and I'm sure the ancillary effects of narcotics and other crime causative factors are behind the spiraling crime rate in our suburban areas. If you want this situation corrected, then bear in mind the Legislators YOU elect, make the laws. The judges YOU elect try the cases and set the sentences. Your tax money pays the police department and your local elections select the men who hire your police force. In other words the solution is our responsibility—not some vague entity we call "government."
