Thursday, February 22
ISRAELI WARPLANES shot down a Libyan Boeing 727 airliner Wednesday, killing 74 of the 83 persons aboard, after the plane strayed over the occupied Sinai Peninsula. A Tel Aviv military spokesman said that the Libyan plane refused orders to land, while the Egyptian Civil Aviation Minister Ahmed Housh said the warplanes attacked without warning the shooting of the airliner followed a raid by Israeli commandos deep into Lebanon to hit what Israel said were two Arab guerrilla camps. The two attacks will make more difficult upcoming Middle East peace talks.

Friday, February 23
LIMITED DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS between the United States and China were established Thursday as Henry A. Kissinger announced the opening of liaison offices in each nation's capital and the arranging of a vast expansion of trade, scientific, cultural and journalistic contacts between the two countries. As a further gesture of goodwill, Premier Chou En-Lai said that two captured American pilots, downed over Chinese territory, would be released in the next two weeks. It will be the first time since the communists seized power in 1949 that China and the U.S. have established a formal working contact.

Saturday, February 24
ABORTIONS WERE DECLARED LEGAL in Michigan Friday by Attorney General Frank J. Kelly. His decision came after recent rulings by the U.S. Supreme Court and by a three-judge federal panel in Detroit declaring unconstitutional Michigan's 127-year-old anti-abortion law. At present, there are no laws governing abortion procedures, but most hospitals are expected to follow recently circulated 43-page guidelines issued by the Michigan Department of Public Health.

Sunday, February 25
ONLY ONE STRESS SUSPECT in the December shootings of six officers remained at large Saturday after Atlanta police positively identified the body of a man killed there as 23-year-old John Percy Boyd of Detroit. Percy died Friday night in a gun battle on the northwest side of Atlanta. The other STRESS suspect, Hayward Brown, 18, was arrested January 12 following a police chase in the Wayne State University area. He is now held in Wayne County Jail on charges of first-degree murder.

Monday, February 26
STALLING A POW LIST Monday, for the second day in a row, was North Vietnam which did not give the United States a list of American prisoners scheduled for release this week. No official reason was given, but the communist side was embittered by rock-throwing, banner-waving, and rowdy mobs of South Vietnamese who attacked North Vietnamese compounds in the northern cities of Hue and Danang on Sunday. Eleven North Vietnamese were reported injured.

Tuesday, February 27
WAGE INCREASES were again limited by the federal government as the Nixon administration, claiming support from labor and management, set the 5.5 percent limit Monday. The announcement contradicted weekend reports from labor sources that the administration had agreed to relax its wage standards and make allowances for rising good prices. The new wage guidelines are essentially those of Phase Two.

Copper Etchings Recall Pointe's Historic Past

A Year in The Life of City Police

Decrease in Burglaries, Larcenies and Assaults; Slight Rise in Minor Offenses Shown

By Holly Angell
The life of Grosse Pointe City can be read in its 1972 Police Report. It details the actions and activities of the past year and includes not only accepted duties of the policemen but also innumerable small acts of kindness.

Perhaps the most noteworthy aspect of the report was the absence of criminal homicides, forcible rapes, accident fatalities and pedestrian injuries.

The total of known offenses reported was 266, a difference of 92 from last year's figure of 358. The total for 1970 was 411.

Assaults declined from 14 in 1971 to seven in 1972. There was also a decrease in burglaries, including attempts, from 40 in 1971 to 28 in 1972.

The report indicated a sizable decrease in larcenies under $50. 121 were recorded in 1972, 250 in 1971 and 300 in 1970. There were seven automobile thefts, showing a slight decrease from 1971's figure of nine.

City Police Chief Andrew Teelaert cites "good police work" as the main reason for the lower figures this year.

YSD Handles 85 Cases In Counseling Program

The Youth Service Division, (YSD), handled 85 cases as part of its counseling program last year. Sixty-one males received counseling along with 24 females. Meanwhile, the total number of youths counseled in 1971 was 76, (from January 12 to December 12).

Fifty-three total terminations, (cases closed), were reported last year involving 37 males and 16 females. The total number of open cases, (counseling in progress), reached 32 and included 25 males and seven females.

The age breakdown for males shows, of the 61 counseled, 20 youths were 15-years-old, 19 were 16-years-old and 13 were 14-years-old.

G. P. Rotary Presents 18th Yearly Antiques Show March 9 Thru 11 at Center

Exhibits from 28 Cities in 13 States to Fill War Memorial; Proceeds Aid Rotarian Civic Projects

Grosse Pointe Rotary's 18th Annual Antiques Show-Sale in the War Memorial Center, 32 Lake Shore, Friday, March 9 through Saturday, March 11, will offer a wider selection of choice antiques and collectibles than ever before, according to Frank J. Sladen, Jr., president, and the show's co-chairmen, John A. MacCartney and William J. Peters.

Several of the show's exhibitors, leading antiques dealers from 28 cities in 13 states, will be exhibiting here for the first time. Many have spent the winter in buying trips, both abroad and in the states, to add to their stock for the show.

Many Antiques
Fine furniture, rare antique jewelry, Oriental rugs, bronzes, jade, ivory, snuff bottles, figurines, lithographs, prints, primitives, tools, porcelain, dried flower arrangements and art glass are among the antiques, historic memorabilia, and collector's items to be found in the show.

Everything displayed is for sale, and the price range as well as the variety of selection assures something to fit every taste and every budget. Food service on the premises and free parking on the grounds add to the antique show's customer services.

Proceeds of the show help Rotary support its many civic, educational, and benevolent projects.

Assisting the two co-chairmen and heading the committees for this year's show are Mr. Frank J. Sladen, Jr., Minert N. Thompson, Jr., program chairman; Stephen A. Balogh and William B. Williams, tickets; George E. Measel, publicity; Donald E. Gilbert, treasurer; Robert M. Orr, sponsors; Mark Valente, preview party; Robert A. Kehrer, club participation; John E. Hannan, Rotary antique booth; and John F. Mozena, prizes.

Public Invited
The public is invited; tickets are $1.50 at the door or $1 in advance sale from Rotarians. Children under six years of age will be admitted free.

A Champagne Preview on Thursday evening, March 8, will serve as a kickoff to the three-day benefit antiques show.

Recent Rotary Club contributions include $10,000 to the Family Life Education Council (FLEC) in association with Center Point, and $7,000 to the Elworthy Field Trust Fund.

Other Rotarian contributions are directed to scholarships, scout troops, public health, the Children's Home of Detroit and a program for retarded children.

Sentence Man In Bar Hold-up

A 23-year-old Detroit man was sentenced to from five to 15 years in Jackson Prison on a charge of assault with intent to commit unarmed robbery.

Gerald Emanuel Wright appeared before Wayne County Circuit Court Judge George T. Martin Tuesday, February 20, for sentencing. Wright had previously pled guilty to the charge Monday, January 29.

Wright held up the Lochmoor Lounge, 20934 Mack avenue, on November 23. He was arrested by Detroit officers, armed with a description supplied by Woods police, shortly after the robbery.

Ask Helpers To Sandbag City Park

Assistance and material will also be available for residents with lakefront property who have not already taken preventative measures. Concerned homeowners may review an official survey of seawall elevations and lake level projections at the City offices, 17147 Maumee.

To combat the threat of rising waters in Lake St. Clair, volunteers will gather at Norbert Neff Memorial Park this Saturday, March 3, to participate in "Operation Foresight." Using materials provided by the U.S. Corps of Engineers and under the supervision of the City DPW staff, it is hoped that enough sandbags will be filled and stacked to provide adequate protection along the lakefront for the City park.

Assistance and material will also be available for residents with lakefront property who have not already taken preventative measures. Concerned homeowners may review an official survey of seawall elevations and lake level projections at the City offices, 17147 Maumee.

Environmental Action Now (EAN) is working with City Manager Tom Kressbach to contact local ecology groups, Scout troops and civic-minded individuals to help with this project. Volunteers are asked to report to the City park, Jefferson at University place, promptly at 10:00 a.m. with warm clothing and gloves. Refreshments, rest room facilities and a "warm up" room will be available.

Interested volunteers are asked to call Nettie Duffield, EAN president, at 894-9461.

The park is in no immediate danger, but preventative measures were recommended by the city manager.

At present, Three Mile Park, in The Park, is in the most danger of flooding due to its low elevation. A dike is being built to protect the Three Mile property, while 6,000 sandbags, sand and dirt are on stand-by at the Windmill Pointe Park.

Farms and Woods authorities have not implemented any plans to protect their park against possible lake flooding. However, a daily watch is kept of conditions.

The Shores recently approved a plan of installing granite slabs along 800 feet of seawall, on top of the present steel seawall. Village Superintendent, Thomas K. Jeffers, emphasized that the construction was of a permanent nature, and not a temporary emergency measure.

Correction!

The Thursday, February 22, issue of the NEWS contained an error in the reporting of a recent Farms Municipal Court docket.

Michael F. Carrato, 20870 Fleetwood, Harper Woods, was charged with speeding 45 m.p.h. in a 35 m.p.h. zone, and not in a 30 m.p.h. zone as originally reported. The defendant pled "guilty" to the charge, and not "not guilty" as the paper originally reported. For the offense, Judge Robert H. Pytel fined Carrato $50.

Discuss Millage Requests At 8 p.m. Meeting Tonight

Residents may hear citizens and trustees of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education discuss the issues of the March 29 millage election at an open meeting tonight, Thursday, March 1, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. in the library of Alger House.

Speakers at Thursday's meeting will be Mrs. Michael Marrs, co-chairman of the "Citizens' Millage Committee"; William D. Dahling, chairman of Citizens for the Library Council; Mrs. Edward C. Hanpeter, secretary of the Board; and Muir B. Snow III, trustee and Board of Education Millage Chairman.

GP City Council Denies Nursing Home Expansion

Proposed Plans Violate Building Ordinances; Plans Initiated to Meet State Regulations

By Holly Angell
The tug-of-war between building codes and proposed expansion is on again. At its Tuesday, February 20, meeting, The City Council rejected the plan for enlargement of the Grosse Pointe Nursing Home.

The history of the home is an interesting one. The structure was built over 125 years ago as a resort hotel. It later became Grosse Pointe Hospital, a maternity hospital for area residents. Finally, 28 years ago it achieved its present status as the Grosse Pointe Nursing Home.

The council's rejection was based primarily on the variances that would need to be granted to enable expansion. The structure, as it stands now, is classified in the City Code as a non-conforming building with a non-conforming use.

The nursing home is a commercial building in a partially residential area. Furthermore, its present site of 0.2 acres is less than the five acres required for nursing homes and the front and side yards are insufficient in size. In addition, the off-street parking of approximately four spaces is less than the 15 required for a 45-bed nursing home.

It has been the council's policy to let non-conforming structures remain; as in the case of the home, they were in existence before the City Code was put into effect. The council has remained firm in its decision against expansion of such structures.

Ernest Levin, legal representative for the home, presented the proposal to the council. The plan includes making certain renovations in the building and constructing a two story addition of approximately 43 feet by 32 feet, 8 inches on the rear of the building. There would be no increase in bed capacity.

The addition would increase the present lot coverage from 32 percent to 48 percent. This exceeds the maximum lot coverage of 25 percent.

The reason for the alteration is to meet state regulations.

G. P. Woods Mayor Dies On Feb. 24

Kenneth R. McLeod Served His City for 19 Years As Councilman and Mayor

A mourning crepe hung over the doors of The Woods Municipal Building as the city lost its most prominent citizen and a loyal friend.

Mayor Kenneth R. McLeod died Saturday, February 24, at St. John Hospital. He was 72-years-old.

He served his city for 19 years in the office of councilman from 1954-1962, and as mayor from 1962 until his death. City offices were closed from 10 a.m. to 12 noon Tuesday, February 27, in observance of the funeral.

Fine Gentleman
"I've never had the privilege of working with a mayor with which I had such a good relationship," said City Administrator Chester E. Petersen. "He served this community for 19 years and he was always conscientious in thinking about the needs of the community and what was best for it. He voted his convictions as he saw them."

"I've never been associated with a finer gentleman," he added.

The family requested the following serve as official pallbearers: Mr. Petersen, Woods Councilmen George S. Freeman, Rodger A. Graef, Conrad A. Naegel, Mayor Pro-Tem Marvin R. Boutin and Planning Commission chairman Phil Patanis. Honorary pallbearers reportedly were Park Mayor Mathew C. Patterson, Farms Mayor William Butler, City Mayor John King, Shores Village President Gerald C. Schroeder and Woods Municipal Judge Don J. Goodrow.

League Director Funeral services for Mayor McLeod, of Wicks lane, were held on February 27 in the A. H. Peters Funeral Home. Born in Ontario, Canada, Mayor McLeod is survived by his wife, Lois; two sons, Donald and Douglas; four

Postpone Trials For 2 Suspects

Wayne County Circuit Court trial dates for two Detroit men charged with the beating of Alfred Glancy, Jr., and the burglary of his Lake Shore road home on November 12, have been postponed until March.

Stephen Boak, assistant prosecuting attorney, said the dates were postponed because of Mr. Glancy's readmittance to Harper Hospital. The hospital reports he is in fair condition as of Tuesday morning, February 27.

Henry Reed, 27, is now scheduled for trial on Monday, March 19, while Edward Williams, 22, is scheduled for Tuesday, March 27.

The men are charged with assault with intent to commit murder, armed robbery and the breaking and entering of an occupied dwelling.

Shores Detective Sergeant Frank Mustazza and a team of Detroit police officers arrested the suspects on November 17 at the Chrysler Mack Plant, 11631 Mack avenue, Detroit.

Four Plans Approved At Meeting

School and Library Millage Separate; Request Renewals and Increases

By Holly Angell
With little ado, the Grosse Pointe School Board at its Monday, February 26, meeting, approved four millage recommendations to appear on the ballot Thursday, March 29.

Pointe residents will vote on the following proposals: a 20.9 renewal millage for one year, a 1.12 renewal millage for the public libraries for three years, a .6 mill additional levy for program improvement for one year, and a .14 mill levy for improvement of library services for one year.

Assistant Superintendent-Personnel, Lawrence F. Kennedy, present at the meeting in the absence of Superintendent Theo Anderson, said the propositions represented considerable study by the board members and administrators.

Student Numbers
Board President William F. Huettman stated the millage amount takes into consideration the decreased number of students. Enrollment declined over 1,000 students last year and will be down approximately 700 the coming year. This is due mostly to the decline in the birth rate.

He went on to say that the school system will not receive any state aid for the 1973-74 school year and will lose over $100,000 in taxes. Therefore, the renewal of the school millage would merely maintain the program of last year.

The 20.9 renewal is to re-instate the expiring millages of 19.7 and 1.2. The 19.7 mills was put into effect three years ago; the 1.2 mills received approval last September.

The 1.12 millage is to replace the expiring library millage that also was voted upon last September.

Four Programs
The approval of the additional .6 mills would benefit four programs. The first of these would be to employ the equivalent of 2.4 counselors plus six teachers for middle school enrichment and remediation. It would add four high school staff members including two vocational counselors and two as reading and writing consultants. Counselors at the schools are now carrying class loads.

The additional levy also would enable the employment of the equivalent of six teachers for the elementary schools which would include three remedial teachers plus three additional teachers to correct imbalance in enrollment.

City Police Report Shows Crime Drop

(Continued from Page 1) year. Although he would like to see crime eliminated altogether, Chief Teetaert was well satisfied with the 1972 year and felt that the policemen were doing a good job.

A few of the figures rose from 1971 but were not substantial. Classified under known offenses were robberies, of which there were six, and larcenies, over $50-listed at 92, an increase of 55 from 1971.

The department arrested 139 adults, up five from 1971 and 124 juveniles, up two.

The total number of accidents was 192 with 76 persons injured. The police also made 157 hospital runs.

10,141 violations were issued which included 8,614 meter violations, 607 moving and 719 parking.

Another outstanding aspect of the report was the special details and assistances provided by the police. This is a fascinating array, encompassing three cat bikes, 950 homes watched, 558 grocery carts impounded, one bicycle inspection, four Goodfellow baskets delivered, three safety talks to children, 11 opossum, (and one owl), complaints, one pigeon drop attempt, 75 building checks and one arrival of Santa Claus.

In addition, the police are to be credited for over 376 extra hours worked. Furthermore, a number of them participated in seminars offered in the area.

As a final achievement, on December 11, 1972, eight members of the department sold a total of $1,324.07 in papers for the Goodfellow fund, and again won highest in sales in the Grosse Pointe area.

Extended Services

The .14 mill increase for the libraries would help strengthen book inventories as well as make provisions for replacement of equipment.

Furthermore, the services for the libraries would be extended, resulting in longer hours including a Saturday opening at The Woods branch.

Mr. Huettman explained the reason behind the separate ballots for the schools and library. "The library is not subject to the same kind of questions that confront the school system. The board felt it would be healthy to give them a three-year base so they would be able to make long range plans."

Deadline Near For Pageant

The deadline is near for young ladies who wish to compete in The Grosse Pointe Scholarship Pageant, sponsored by the Jaycees.

Entry blanks, which must be mailed by Saturday, March 10, are currently available at the "J" Shop, Jacobson's "In-The-Village," and in the main offices at North and South High Schools.

All entries should be sent to Tom Andris, 715 Blairmoor court, Grosse Pointe 48236.

The Jaycees report each participant must be between the ages of 18 and 28, a high school graduate as of next September 1, and single.

Among the items the winner will receive is a $500 academic scholarship to the school of her choice from the Jaycees.

Millage Amounts Set

Finally, it would provide a $15,000 increase for instructional supplies and $12,565 to finance current high school activities and athletic and intramural programs.

During the current school year parent clubs at the high schools are contributing $18,000 to finance these activities.

Police Arrest Imbued Driver

A Mt. Clemens man, traveling at a high rate of speed, was pursued by Woods police and charged with driving under the influence of liquor, (DUIL), early Thursday morning, February 22.

While on patrol on Vernier road, Public Safety Officer Robert Kwiatkowski spotted a vehicle, driven by Richard Butler Quello, turn from Mack avenue onto eastbound Vernier. In turning, the auto drove upon the island, before speeding onward.

Police said the vehicle was paced at 70 m.p.h. in a 35-mile zone. It also failed to stop for a red light at Vernier and Marter road.

The auto turned left on Marter and was then paced at 65 m.p.h. in a 25-mile zone. Quello reportedly crossed the center line several times.

After he was stopped at Marter and Roslyn road, police reported Quello's walk was staggered and his speech slurred, and he had a strong odor of alcohol on his breath.

Officer Kwiatkowski discovered Quello's auto had damage to its right side and its undercarriage. He also saw parts of a bush imbedded in the grill. The damage, police noted, appeared fresh.

As it turned out, over an hour later Public Safety Officer Patrick Fagan found where a vehicle had driven through the rear yards at 19756 and 19786 East Ida Lane causing damage to several small Evergreen trees and knocking down a 10-foot section of cyclone fence. The yards are located at the intersection of Chalfonte avenue and Cook road.

Having knowledge an arrest was made earlier for DUIL, with the vehicle involved having been in a recent accident, Officer Fagan asked Quello about the incident. He admitted causing the damage, police said.

Quello was released after posting $100 bond and is scheduled to appear in court Wednesday, March 28.

(Continued from Page 1) funds available. Although we cannot raise the schools to their previous level immediately, the millage will, however, give us the opportunity to reverse the negative trends of last year."

Grosse Pointe Education Association president Rita Cary issued a statement on Tuesday, February 27, following the Board's decision. She was "saddened by the lack of leadership on the part of the Board of Education," for not requesting higher millage figures.

Ms. Cary went on to say that "We will lose $513,000 in state aid. It would take 1.1 mills to replace that money. 1.1 mills along with a projected loss of 700 students could almost return Grosse Pointe to its former status of offering true quality education."

"The community should be appalled that so little effort is being made on behalf of our student population. Our kids deserve so much and are receiving so very little."

Mayor Dies

Mayor McLeod was a retired vice-president of the Bank of the Commonwealth, Detroit. He was immediate past director of the Michigan Municipal League and past president of the Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club and the Detroit Curling Club. He was a member of the Georgian Masonic Lodge. Mayor McLeod also was a member of Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church and the Grosse Pointe Senior Men's Club.

Interment was in Forest Lawn Cemetery.

85 Cases

In the breakdown of the length of counseling periods, the largest total, i.e., 28 individuals, male and female, was six months. Ten persons received counseling for periods of two months and four months. Only two participated in the program for one month while six were counseled for one year.

G.P. Nursing Home Expansion Denied

(Continued from Page 1) tions and addition is to meet the safety and health standards set up by the State of Michigan. The administrators of the home felt that the only way to achieve the goal, without reducing bed capacity, was to expand.

The state regulations include an increase to 20 square feet for each patient for living and dining. To meet this, the home would need an additional 900 square feet. The increase in size would necessitate interior renovations such as wider corridors, an elevator, sinks in each room, more bathrooms and utility and soil rooms on each floor.

Failure to meet the regulations by 1975 might result in the closing of the home, reducing the size or changing the status to a home for the aged.

City Mayor John L. King voiced the entire council's sympathy for the dilemma since "we all have parents." But he did not feel that the building variances could be granted.

Furthermore, an addition to the structure would compound fire prevention problems. The age of the building makes for a potential threat as does the limited access on either side. A sprinkler system was installed 11 years ago to combat these problems.

A handful of residents attended the meeting and voiced their opinions. Those living near the home were against the expansion plan.

On the other hand, volunteer workers and those who had relatives in the home emphasized the good care the residents received as well as the pleasant atmosphere. Since it is the only home in the area, they felt it was an essential part of the community. They stressed that it is home to many residents and to be threatened with a move would be an upsetting experience. Finally, they felt that parking would not be a problem since the existing spaces are rarely filled.

The home does not provide skilled nursing services. Its staff members include a registered nurse, a licensed practical nurse as well as nurses aids and, of course, a great many volunteers from the community.

Joseph Mash, executive director of the home, stated later in the week that he is trying to find common ground with the council. He also is in contact with Brandon Rogers, city planner, to discuss alternate routes. The director is thinking in terms of internally altering the present structure and adding a sun deck to provide dining and recreation space. It could reduce the bed capacity, raising residents' expenses.

Mr. Mash stated that his goal is to be of service to the residents. In regard to meeting the state regulations, he said, "As long as we show direction, we can stay as we are."

City Elm Trees to Be Sprayed

It's Dutch Elm disease prevention time again, and Grosse Pointe City is taking the initial steps in its prevention program.
At a meeting Tuesday, February 20, the City Council approved a contract in the form of a purchase order to be issued to Shock Brothers, Inc., Tree Service for the 1973 Dutch Elm Disease Control program.

This program includes the application of a dormant methoxychlor spray for approximately 2,284 elm trees located on City rights-of-way and parks. It also includes two Dutch Elm surveys conducted during the summer. As part of the defense against Dutch Elm Disease, The City also requires property owners to spray private elm trees. The prices quoted by Shock Brothers are as follows: City Elm Trees, $3 per tree, Private Elm Trees, $7 per tree, and two Dutch Elm Surveys, $12 per man hour with boom truck.

The quoted price of City elm trees of $3 compares with last year's price of $2.75. Based on this price, The City's program would cost an estimated $7,412.

The quoted price of $7 per tree to spray privately owned elm trees compares with last year's price of $6.25 per tree. This price is available to any owner who desires to employ Shock Brothers services for the application of dormant spray to private elm trees.

Comparison with price quotations in other municipalities shows the cost for spraying City elm trees to be comparable with prices in adjacent cities.

U-L Talent Show Set for March 2

For the third straight year, the University-Liggett Middle School will be presenting their annual Talent Show at 2:42 p.m., Friday, March 2, in the Liggett Campus Main Auditorium.

Fifteen acts from grades six, seven and eight were picked to participate in this year's show by the Talent Show's coordinators, Mrs. Nora Kelly, music teacher, Dwayne Bondy, drama coach, and student council head Tom Keydel. However, none of the acts received assistance from either Mrs. Kelly or Mr. Bondy. The students were responsible for their entire act, including musical accompaniment, dialogue, sets and lighting.

Featured among the 15 acts are rock groups, piano soloists, dance groups and dramatic and comedy acts, including a "Yo-yo Comedy." The students will be judging these acts in addition to putting them together. Two student council representatives from each grade and Tom Keydel make up a seven-member majority of the judges. Mr. Bondy, Mrs. Kelly and Middle School Head Jim Wright will complete the judging panel.

Prizes will be awarded to those acts winning first, second and third places. The prizes are certificates to an ice cream parlor.

U-L's Lower School students will be in for a dramatic treat when Mr. Bondy's seventh grade drama class presents a half-hour one-act dramatization about Tom Sawyer. The play will take place Wednesday, March 7, on the University Campus.

Woods Police Aid Little Girl

A four and a half year old Bloomfield girl received a helping hand from Woods Public Safety Officers while at a North Renaud residence Tuesday, February 20.

The girl had her leg caught in a children's schoolroom desk and, upon his arrival, Officer Ronald Hayden discovered her right knee was jammed between the seat and the back of the desk.

It was discovered the desk could not be dismantled without applying pressure to the child's leg. So Officer Douglas Dosmas brought a saw-saw to the scene and the seat portion was sawed in half freeing the girl's knee.

Police said other than the restriction of the circulation of blood, her knee didn't appear to be injured.

Police Record Missing Items

Farms police are investigating a report of several missing valuable items taken from the estate of the late J. Henry Smith, Sr., 492 Bournemouth. The value of the articles was set at $460.

According to an official police report, J. Henry Smith, Jr., of 1311 Harvard, went to the home of his parent, who died recently, and discovered the items gone.

Missing, Smith told the authorities, were the following: A brass mantel clock on a marble base, 15 inches high, and two candelabras, (which match the clock) valued at $100; a sterling silver water pitcher, worth $70; a sterling silver teapot, valued at $50; a 15-inch high bronze statue of a clown set on a bronze base, valued at $75; a 12-inch high bronze love bird on a marble base, valued at $75.

Also, two sterling silver, 10-inch platters, worth $60; and a 12-inch plate platter, valued at $30.

Officers dispatched to the scene said there was no sign of forced entry. Indications are that whoever helped himself to the articles knew exactly what he was looking for.

Officers of the Detective Bureau are continuing the investigation.

DONATION OKAYED

The Park Council on Monday, February 12, approved the appropriation of $750 for the use of the Babe Ruth Baseball League. This amounts to $150 more than in 1972. Don Armbruster, League president, informed the solons that the contributions would be a big help, since $0,000 will be needed this year. The League has reached one-third of its fund raising goal, to date, he said.

U-L Finishes 3rd in Ice Play

Michigan Metro High School Hockey League final standings show that University-Liggett finished in third place in Third Division play.

With a 7-7-5 mark for 14 points, U-L came in behind second place B. H. Labser, (11-3-1, 23 points), and first place Country Day, (13-0-0, 28 points).

Meanwhile, in top 10 Third Division scoring, U-L's Dave Peters finished fourth with 17 goals and 11 assists for 28 points. Hank Finkenshaed, also from U-L, netted 14 goals and had four assists for 18 points. He finished in 11th for seventh in the scoring race.

Fireman Has Long Stretch Recovering from Injuries

By James J. Njain

It has been a long "six weeks" for a Park firefighter injured while helping City firemen battle a blaze at the Jefferson Terrace Apart- ments then under construc- tion. As of tomorrow, March 2, he will have finished two years of convalescing confine- ment.

Clare Klovski, 43, of 13124 Carol, Warren, was more seriously injured than first as- sumed when he fell 20 feet down an elevator shaft, from the second floor of the apart- ment. Dense, black smoke filled the building and after smashing windows to let out the smoke, he returned to help fight the flames. Be- cause of obscured vision, he made a wrong turn and plunged down the shaft.

Klovski suffered a broken collar bone and a fractured ankle, and was taken to Bon Secours Hospital and placed in a body cast. The cast was removed a month later, after he had been sent home.

While recuperating at home he complained of a back pain and was returned to the hos- pital, where x-rays revealed that a vertebra of the spine was fractured, a result of the plunge down the shaft.

An operation was required to remove the disc, and Klov- ski was again placed in a cast from his shoulder to his waist to keep him immobile until the operation healed.

When the second cast was finally removed after several weeks, and it appeared that the fireman was recovering nicely, he complained of still further back pains. X-rays taken at Bon Secours Hospi- tal showed that a second spinal disc was also badly fractured and further surgery was needed.

The operation was success- ful, in that this vertebra, about three discs below the first one taken out, was re- moved. Klovski was placed in a third cast. And as the weeks went by, he was re- stricted to his home, unable to move comfortably under the heavy plaster sheath.

When the time came to take this cast off, it was a big relief, yet within days, he complained of more back pains. This time, his body, from above his waist down to one leg was encased in another cast. The latter was removed on February 17.

The fireman must still be careful of his movements. Although he is able to walk about the house, he will need lots of rest before he is fully recovered and returned to duty.

On March 2, 1971, City fire- men had responded to a fire at one of the unfinished apart- ment complexes. When un- able to contain the flames, they called in a second alarm which the Park and Harper Woods Fire Departments an- swered. Under the Mutual Fire Aid Pact. Because of the density of the smoke, firemen had to wear masks while bat- tling the flames. The fire was kept inside the walls.

To help alleviate the smoke congestion it was necessary to smash several windows. It was following this, that Klov- ski, when returning to pick up his fire hose, made the wrong turn and plunged down the elevator shaft.

Klovski, who was appointed to the fire department on August 10, 1955, is married to the former Beverly Deiss of Detroit. They are the par- ents of Brian, 22, who is mar- ried and lives in St. Clair Shores, and Darlene, 20, who lives at home and is a stu- dent at Macomb County Com- munity College.

Fire Chief Phillip Costa

said that he strongly hopes that Klovski will recover and return to work soon.

"Klovski is a good man and an excellent fireman," the chief said. "We all miss him at the station, and hope it will not be too long before he returns to duty. Of course, his return will depend on what his doctor says about his physical condition. I know he is just as anxious to return to work, as we are to have him on the job again.

"He has not been replaced and his job is still open, pend- ing a favorable report after a physical examination, since a firefighter's job is a stren- uous one. He is still a mem- ber of the department, receiv- ing full pay, since he was injured in the line of duty. We are looking forward to the day when he comes back."

Police Told Of Harassing

After a Hawthorne road resident contacted The Woods Department of Public Safety Wednesday, February 21, a 59-year-old Detroit woman, the complainant, told police of two harassing experiences.

She said on two occasions, the latest being Tuesday, February 6, as she was walk- ing to the bus on Mack ave- nue, a group of teenagers yelled abusively at her.

They told her to get back to her own neighborhood, and not to return. Both incidents occurred between 4 and 4:30 p.m. and the youths were usually walking west on Hawthorne, police said.

The complainant happens to be black.

NAMED TO AAA POST

Inflation Hits Cost of Ticket

The inflation problem can be infuriating, especially when the cost of a traffic violation ticket leads to fur- ther costs over a year later. But the incident below is no ordinary situation . . .

Dorothy Jane James, 32, of Detroit, was issued a ticket by Woods police in Septem- ber 1971. She paid a $20 fine in December 1971. All well and good . . . well not quite.

Woods police said her check bounced because of non-sufficient funds, and in the ensuing 14 months two letters were sent to her on the check without any "pro- gress."

Then the department re- ceived information from De- troit police Thursday, Feb- ruary 8, she had been pick- ed up on a traffic stop. A LEIN check was made re- valling The Woods' bench warrant.

Detective Everett Plumb ultimately transported her to the station from the Wayne County Jail, and Woods Mu- nicipal Judge Dan J. Good- row fined her $20 to cover the cost of the non-sufficient funds check issued on the original violation, plus $50 court cost or 60 days in the Detroit House of Correction, (DeHoCo). She decided to pay the fine, making the total "price hike," $70.

Center Having Bavarian Night

"Bavaria - The Best of Southern Germany" will be personally presented by George Pierrot's guest, Clay Francisco, Monday and Tuesday nights, March 5 and 6, in Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Fries Auditorium as part of the Grosse Pointe Adventure Series.

The travelogue will be preceded by a meal of tempting and filling German and alpine dishes prepared by the Center's excellent cateress, Helen Blair. The entire evening, dinner and show is offered for $7.50, with dinner being served at 7 o'clock. Those wishing to come to the 8:15 show only, may do so for $2.50.

Bavaria is the Germany of song and legend where medieval villages nestle in majestic Alps and where there is a treasure house of the baroque and rococo. It is the Germany of edelweiss and lederhosen, where the people are friendly, warm and hard working.

Mr. Francisco's film begins in Munich, Bavaria's capital. Munich combines the old with the new. It's a gay city of sidewalk cafes and artists. It contains a glorious restored State Opera House, sentimental churches such as Old Peter, outdoor markets and beer gardens, a splendid palace, Nymphenburg and a marvelous coach museum.

Then the film moves to Selb to witness the manufacture of the famed Rosenthal porcelain and to the restored city of old Nuremberg with its walls and beautiful fountain and then to the still more perfect medieval city of Rothenburg, with its romantic towers and turrets and 500-year-old houses.

The second part of the film is Alpine, taking the viewer to Berchtesgaden and Hitler's Eagles' Nest, to Mittenwald where famous violins are made, to Oberammergau, famous for its passion play and wood carving, to Linderoth with its ornate castle and hunting lodge created for "Mad King" Ludwig, to Garmisch-Partenkirchen and a cable car ride to the 10,000 foot summit of Zugspitze, to picturesque Lake Badersee and finally to the climax of all Bavarian trips, the full madness of Munich's "Oktoberfest."

Meditators Offer Lecture Exploring TM's Methods

By Lewis S. Leonard
TM Instructor

An introductory lecture on Transcendental Meditation, open to the public, will be held at the War Memorial on Thursday, March 8, at both 1:30 and 8 p.m. It illustrates the far reaching practical benefits of Transcendental Meditation for the responsible maintainers of society.

This will be done in part with a presentation of the scientific research on Transcendental Meditation completed at Harvard Medical School, Stanford Research Institute and at other institutions in the United States.

Transcendental Meditation as a community resource — A vision of possibilities. Progress is the creative growth of a society. The basis of progress in society is the development of the individual and if the community is to be progressive on all levels, the growth of the individual must be systematic and on a continuing basis. Progressive individual growth

Police Accuse Errant Driver

A Detroit motorist was arrested by Farms police early Thursday morning, February 22, and charged with four counts of traffic violation, including driving while under the influence of liquor.

Patrolmen Gerald Deburgh-graev and Philip Miglio said they were on routine patrol at 2:46 a.m. when they saw Douglas B. Stokel, 38, of 1131 Chalmers, driving west on Mack avenue without any headlights. The officers stopped the man at the Mack-Newcastle intersection, and asked him for his operator's license and car registration, both of which Stokel was unable to produce.

The policemen said when they requested Stokel to step out of his automobile, they detected a strong odor of alcohol when he opened the car door, and reported he had extreme difficulty in getting out and standing on his feet. Stokel asked for a breathalyzer test.

Stokel was taken to The Farms station where he changed his mind regarding the test. He was issued a violation ticket for driving while intoxicated, another for driving without lights, and one ticket each for having no driver's license or car registration on his person.

Later, he was released after posting a bond of $150. His court date is scheduled for Wednesday, April 25.

One Act Plays Win Honors

Austin Catholic Prep School recently participated in the annual competition of student-directed one act plays.

Best director award went to Maureen Wegner, of Star of the Sea High School, who directed the drama "Balcony Scene." Runners up for direction were Austin students Kevin Keller with "Charlie Brown" and Joe Vermilion with "Bench 18."

Best actor award went to J. L. Peseski who played the lead in "Balcony Scene." Jane Lynch who played in "Charlie Brown" won the best actress award. Runner-up acting awards also went to Wayne DeFour and Mike Fikany.

Two of the plays, "Bench 18" and "Charlie Brown," were presented Sunday, February 25, at the WWJ-TV festival of student-directed one acts, featuring productions from the entire Detroit area.

Faces Sentence In Motel Death

Pointe resident George Hoffman, 60, was found guilty on Wednesday, February 14, of "reckless discharge of a firearm" in an incident September 6, 1972, which resulted in the death of a motel clerk. He was searching for his runaway granddaughter at the motel where she had been found several times.

Hoffman, a hardware salesman, will be sentenced May 7 by Recorder's Court Judge John R. Murphy, who rendered the guilty verdict. Hoffman has no previous record.

Judge Murphy did not render a guilty of manslaughter verdict because he did not feel there was sufficient evidence. Hoffman testified that the killing of the clerk was accidental.

He said that he shot the clerk, 74-year-old Frank Schneider, when his pistol accidentally discharged as they argued in the lobby of the Ball Hall Hotel, 10410 E. Jefferson.

Schneider's death was the third in a series of tragic events involving the Pointe family.

The granddaughter, 15-year-old Lynne Klein, was a repeated runaway from her Farms home. She is now in a private girls' school.

Her father, Stanley Klein, 37, killed a young woman acquaintance last August in her Dearborn Heights apartment. He then committed suicide in a rest area men's room off U.S.-23.

Pole Vaulter Scales Height
 From Backyard to MSU

By David C. Wible
 It was a few short years ago when Pointer Tom Wilson would practice pole vaulting in his backyard with an old aluminum pipe. Now he is Michigan State University's top pole vaulter.

Wilson, 20, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Wilson, 60 Shoreham road.

He started his successful career as a pole vaulter in the backyard of his Lochmoor boulevard home in The Woods when he was in elementary school. He used a bamboo pole and jumped into a homemade sand pit which he dug.

When Wilson's brother broke his arm using the bamboo pole, his father brought home an aluminum pipe from the shop in which he worked.

Presented New Pole
 Wilson used the piece of pipe and he worked hard. Hard enough to win the Grosse Pointe Junior High Triple Meet held between Pierce, Parcels and Brownell Schools. It was Wilson's first victory with a pole in his hand and he was only in the eighth grade.

His hard work and success was rewarded when his father bought him a fiberglass vaulting pole. He had a bit of trouble getting used to a bona fide pole and he only placed second in a ninth grade triple meet.

Under head coach Tom Gauerke at North High, Wilson won three letters pole vaulting, but his real thrill came as a senior when he won his specialty at the Mansfield Relays in Ohio. The Mansfield event brought the top high schools from the midwest to compete and Wilson came away the winner with a vault of 14 feet, his highest ever.

Class Vaulter
 Last year when Wilson decided to go to MSU, he was uncertain about his future as a Big Ten pole vaulter, but he persisted, overcame an ankle injury and in his freshman year, just missed getting a letter.

This year Wilson is a sophomore at MSU and, in his first four indoor track meets this season, he is establishing himself as a class Big Ten pole vaulter. In every meet he has cleared a personal high of 14 feet, six inches and has placed well up in the standings.

On Saturday, February 17, Wilson won the MSU-University of Michigan dual meet held in Ann Arbor with a vault of 14 feet, six inches.

In other meets held this season, against some of the top track colleges in the country, Wilson has placed fifth, (Spartan Relays in East Lansing), sixth, (Western Michigan Relays in Kalamazoo), and fifth, (Michigan Relays in Ann Arbor).

Higher Goals
 His first place finish on February 17 has given him a considerable boost in confidence and he is now shooting for 15 feet, plus a place in the Big Ten indoor meet in Lafayette, Ind., later this month.

Wilson's academic credentials are running in close contention with his track performances. He is currently studying chemistry and is carrying a solid 3.0 average.

After 12 years of pole vaulting he still admits, "It's pretty scary. I just have to get mad and forget that I'm going 14 feet in the air, upside down."

He may be scared, but he's shooting for even greater heights. "This outdoor season I'm shooting for 15 feet, six inches and if I reach 16 feet that will be something else," said Wilson.

Chosen Number One
 As for any long range goals, he said, "I don't have any. I just like to take things a day at a time, and I try to improve a little bit each practice."

Wilson has improved. Improved enough to be chosen by MSU's head track coach, Fran Dittrich, as his number one pole vaulter.

Tom Wilson has come a long way from his bamboo pole in the backyard of his Lochmoor home, but if the past is any indication of the future, he may soon be the Big Ten's finest pole vaulter.

REFRIGERATOR SHORTS
 Mrs. Howard Girardin, 31 Fisher road, called City firemen to her house after she detected the odor of burning wires recently. City firemen discovered that a small refrigerator motor had shorted out, resulting in the burnt smell. Mrs. Girardin was advised to call a serviceman after the firemen decided there was no immediate fire danger.

Judge Paterson
 Hears 8 Cases

City Municipal Judge Douglas Paterson heard eight cases in court on Tuesday, February 13. Six persons were fined, one case was delayed until a further date and one fine was suspended.

James Probert, 447 Rivard, stood mute to a charge of disorderly person. He was found guilty, fined $25 and put on one month probation.

Blanche Lachepille, 24283 Flower, East Detroit, was charged with an accident caused by improper backing. She pled not guilty, was found guilty and fined $15. The sentence was suspended.

Norman Montanbault, 22409 Violet, St. Clair Shores, pled guilty and was found guilty of careless driving. He paid a $50 fine.

Catherine Sullivan, 12570 Laing, Detroit, was charged with a careless driving accident. She stood mute but was found guilty and paid a $15 fine.

James Robertson, 1313 Hawthorne, stood mute but was found guilty of a charge of disorderly person. He paid a fine of $25.

James Mitchell, 13416 Terry, Detroit, stood mute but was found guilty of careless driving. His fine was $50.

Raymond Valasis, 713 Trembley, stood mute but was found guilty of driving left of center. He paid a fine of $15.

Norman Meyers, 438 Fisher, stood mute to a charge of disorderly person. His court date was adjusted to February 27.

IN MEMORIAM

A man of outstanding energy, judgment, devotion and warmth, Dun C. McCullagh died suddenly on January 21, 1973. With tireless enthusiasm, he had pursued a business career that not only achieved numerous records, but also provided others with an opportunity for their own success.

Born in Cadillac, Michigan, McCullagh moved to Lansing where he engaged in several enterprises that concluded with his purchasing a Lincoln-Mercury franchise, which subsequently became the largest such franchise in the United States. In 1949, he relocated to Detroit with a Chevrolet dealership, where he set an unprecedented mark of 10,000 cars and trucks sold from a single location.

His judgment assisted him in these efforts, and it also allowed him to see the potential in leasing cars, trucks and machinery of various types. So, in 1958, he sold the Chevrolet dealership to devote full attention to the leasing business he had begun in 1952.

Throughout his successes, McCullagh was mild and humble; in his setbacks, he was resolute. A jovial man, he smiled easily and often. Well-met and cordial, he respected competence, frankness, and a will to make the necessary effort.

His devotion to friends and family was one of profound and unselfish loyalty. Reserving for them his warmest smiles, he saw in the business world the challenge of success and a means for inspiring others. He taught confidence and the self-imposed demands of excellence by example, believing that without knowledge and discipline one could not have confidence, and that without confidence one could not succeed in any realm of life.

His passing is untimely for all, and most especially for those close to him. The business world has lost one of its great generals, and the people of Michigan a living legend.

Pierrot Marks Important Date

George Pierrot, pioneer in the television travel-adventure field, celebrated his 20th consecutive year on WWJ-TV, Detroit, Tuesday, February 20. After starting his television career on WXYZ-TV in 1948, Pierrot joined WWJ-TV, Channel 4, in 1953, where he has been ever since. His presentations have consistently been among the Motor City's most popular shows. This popularity is reflected by the number of hours devoted to his Channel 4 programs each week. Monday through Friday afternoons, "George Pierrot Presents" is televised 5:00 to 6:00; Saturday evening from 7:00 to 7:30. "The George Pierrot Show" is shown on Sunday evenings from 7:00 to 7:30. Pierrot has accumulated countless citations for his efforts in promoting world travel and harmony. In 1972 he received both the Gold Medal Award — highest honor bestowed by the Republic of Austria — and the Order of Merit — third-highest award given by the Federal Republic of Germany (West Germany).

In 1971 he was honored by the Michigan State Senate, which in a special resolution paid "unanimous tribute" to Pierrot for his "valuable contributions . . . to the people of Michigan through his television programs." Also in 1971, Pierrot was honored at a formal banquet by Detroit's Foreign Consular Corps, which represents 27 nations and 600 million people. The award citation concluded by wondering " . . . how much the cause of peace and international understanding would have been served if there were a George Pierrot in every country of the world?"

Pierrot's success as a television personality stems from his extensive, in-depth knowledge of world travel and his low-key program format, which features outstanding travel lecturers narrating their own films. Pierrot himself has twice circumnavigated the globe and visited 105 countries and island groups. He is a member of New York's Explorers Club, the Adventurers Club, the Overseas Press Club and a past president of the International Circumnavigators Club.

Pierrot also serves as managing director of the World Adventure Series, illustrated travel course at the Detroit Institute of Arts, which he founded in 1933.

Club Hoopsters Start Touney

Two teams managed perfect records through regular season play in the Neighborhood Club Men's "Over the Hill" Basketball League. The league now enters a double elimination post-season tournament which will decide the league champion.

Keystone Metal ripped through the Wednesday night division for a 7-0 record. Keystone was led by 6'7" Tom Loury and guard Tom Woodruff, both averaging 17 points per game. Coaching was supplied by Joe "Pusher" Dansbury who kept his aging ball players on their toes. Old Grosse Pointe High fans will remember Tom Woodruff as the star of its fine 1957-58 ball clubs. Larco's record in the

Thursday night division also was unblemished at 7-0. Larco's has a finely balanced club with six players averaging around 10 points per game. They are led by ex-Detroit Piston Bob Quick and former University of Michigan captain, Dennis Bankey, with able tutelage from Wally "Smooth Talkin'" Allemeersch. Larco's and Keystone Metal are reportedly favored to capture the Neighborhood Club championship.

However, stiff competition will come from Wayne State Alums led by Ian Smith and Gerry "Hair Do" Coury. Fikany Realty with Mike Kingsley and Bob Kohler, and the Bengals led by former Austin All-Stater, John Parker. Tournament games are played Wednesday and Thursday nights starting at 7:45 p.m. at Brownell Middle School. Action began February 28 and continues to the championship game Thursday, March 22. Spectators are welcome at no charge. Regular season standings in the Wednesday Division show Keystone Metal, 7-0; Reds, 6-1; Jail, 5-2; Vikings, 4-3; Bummer Road, 3-4; Red Flags, 2-5; Schulte, 1-6; and Hutzel Hospital, 0-7.

Blues Schedule 'Skate-A-Thon'

The Grosse Pointe Blues, the communities' Bantam Division hockey travel team is going to wage a "Skate-A-Thon" in an attempt to raise money for travelling to historic Quebec City, Canada, for a weekend hockey tournament. The "Skate-A-Thon" will be held at 1 p.m. Sunday, March 4, at the Grosse Pointe Community Rink at Ausin High School. There is no admission charge but friends and fans of these 13- and 14-year-olds back their own favorites by donating for each lap the boy skates. Everyone is invited.

They split their two contests with the Long Branch, Ont. bantam team participating in the Grosse Pointe Invitational Tournament held at Austin on Saturday and Sunday, February 24 and 25.

The Blues were defeated in the first encounter on Saturday by a 3-2 score. The Blues' goals were scored by forwards Mike Sandmair and Kirk Purdy with assists to Peter Poirier, Brian Carron and Pat Fox. Poirier was selected as the Blues' Most Valuable Player for the game. A plaque was awarded to him by Edmund Brady, Jr., president of the Grosse Pointe Hockey Association.

On Sunday, the Blues finally beat the tough Long Branch team, 2-1. Grosse Pointe's two goals were netted by defencemen Tom Stewart and Allan Jones. Stewart also got an assist point, as did forwards Purdy and Fox. The game's Most Valuable Player award went to Center Pat Fox and the presentation was again made by Mr. Brady.

Burglar Visits Home in Park

A burglar, or burglars, broke the glass of the rear door of the home of the Oscar Metrys, 1305 Ralfour, to enter the house. The incident occurred between 2:30 a.m. on Saturday, February 24, and 8:15 a.m. on Sunday. Park police said that the report of the break-in was made by Mr. Metry, who discovered missing a .380 caliber Hungarian pistol. The matter is being investigated by officers of the Detective Bureau.

Pointe Tankers Win Medals

Star Swimmers Nudge Victory

Our Lady Star of the Sea High School swim team nearly pulled the swimming upset of the past five years last week, but fell four points short.

Although unseeded in the Girls' High School Catholic League swimming finals held in the pool of Oakland University, the local natators came on strong under the guidance of Head Coach Ed Rockett to compile 35 points, good enough for a third-place finish.

The point total left them four points behind second-place finisher Dominican High, which boasts a total enrollment nearly three times larger than that of Star of the Sea.

Personal Champion Mercy High again captured the League title.

A second-place finish would have represented a major upset for the Star swimmers.

In individual performances by Star team members, Cindy Carron grabbed the diving title in a fantastic display of both required and elective dives, while Mary Fraser took a fourth.

Laurie Rinke splashed home second in the 50 and 100-meter breaststroke, Patty Bryce captured fourth spot in the 50-meter free-style, and Diane Simon also managed to take a fourth in the 50-meter butterfly.

Clare DeYonker, Diane Cheffins, Laurie Rinke and Carry Gallagher teamed up to place fifth in the medley relay.

a tie for the Bi-County League Championship were greatly enhanced thanks to a 75-74 win over L'Anse Creuse and a 79-42 onslaught of Clintondale. The Norsemen and Shorians are tied for the lead with identical 9 and 2 records with one game remaining.

Lakeview travels to Lake Shore to end its season, while North plays host to "could be spoilers" L'Anse Creuse. Both of these games take place Friday, March 2.

In North's victory over the Dragons, a well balanced scoring attack, a beautiful display of teamwork and an aggressive defense did the trick.

Gerry Humes scored North's first 10 points of the game as North ran off to an 18-12 first quarter lead. Kevin Kiley and Ron Zenn accounted for the other North points of the quarter, scoring four points each.

The second quarter belonged to Doug Ulmer. Ulmer came into the game for Humes, who got into foul trouble, scored six quick points, and pulled down a number of rebounds. Kiley, Zenn and Jeff Humes each chipped in with four points as North stretched their lead to 40-22 at halftime.

Zenn twisted and turned his way for nine points and John Puleo hit on three 20-foot jumpers for six points as North's lead jumped to 63-35 after three stanzas.

Coach Ray Ritter cleared the bench in the final period, but no one told Clintondale. Behind seven points from Bob Keppeler and four from Bob Beyer, North outscored the Dragons 16-7 for the final margin.

"We played an all around good game," said the Coach. "I was very pleased by the performance by Doug Ulmer. He had 10 points and 10 rebounds and combined with Gerry they had 24 points and 20 rebounds. This kind of strength is extremely necessary to win."

Zenn took scoring honors with 17 points. Gerry Humes had 14 and Kiley joined Ulmer with 10 points.

North set season highs with 68 rebounds and 35 assists. The assist total typifies the effort the Norsemen were putting into this game.

Cottage Plans To Aid Students

Cottage Hospital and area physicians will be participating this summer in a special program planned to introduce medical students to health care in local communities.

Coordinated by the Michigan State Medical Society, the program is designed to complement students' academic studies and to encourage their interest in practicing medicine in Michigan communities.

Walter F. Kujawski, MD, will direct the educational program at Cottage.

The program, formally called the Student American Medical Association Project for Medical Education and Community Orientation, now is in its fourth year in Michigan. Sponsors, along with the state medical society, are the Michigan Academy of Family Physicians and the Michigan Hospital Association.

More than 100 medical students from Wayne State University, Michigan State University and the University of Michigan are expected to take part in the 1973 program.

The students will spend eight to 10 summer weeks in educational programs supervised by physicians. They also will be introduced to activities in community hospitals. Last year, 92 students completed successful programs in 56 hospitals.

Woods to Apply For Flood Aid

Woods City Manager Chester Petersen has received word that The Woods may qualify for federally subsidized flood insurance. Some question was raised as to The Woods' eligibility as it is an inland community.

In order to forward an application to Washington D.C. for final certification, The Woods Council must adopt two resolutions at the Monday night, March 5, meeting. The Woods is the only remaining Pointe community not certified for the HUD-sponsored insurance.

Two Motorists Given 20 Days

Two Detroit motorists, accused in separate charges, were sentenced to the Detroit House of Correction, (DeHoCo), by Park Municipal Judge William E. Speer Wednesday, February 21.

Michael J. Harmon, 19, of 654 Manistique, accused of speeding 50 miles an hour in a 25-mile zone and driving without ever acquiring a valid Michigan operator's license, pled guilty to both counts. He was arrested Tuesday, February 20.

On the speeding charge, he was fined $45 or five days in DeHoCo, and on the no license charge, his sentence was $100 and five days. If unable to pay the fines, the judge ruled Harmon would have to serve a total of 20 days in jail.

The second person sentenced was James Hogsett, 25, of 5219 Lakeview, who was arrested Monday, February 21. He pled guilty to driving while under the influence of liquor, and operating a motor vehicle while his license was revoked.

On the drunk driving charge, Hogsett was ordered to pay a fine of $175, or serve five days in jail, and on the second, he was fined $150 and sentenced to five days. Unable to pay the fines, he was sentenced to 20 days in jail.

BURSITIS AND ARTHRITIS

It seems that the average layman has been misinformed about bursitis, and thinks he has bursitis when he has arthritis, these two conditions are completely different except both are associated with pain in the joints. Bursitis is the inflammation of a bursa, and is usually caused by an injury. In this condition there is usually no pain except when one starts to use the joint, and the more one uses the joint the more severe the pain becomes. Rest and diathermy usually heals the bursa in a few treatments.

Arthritis is the inflammation of the articulation of a joint, caused by the gathering of uric, toxic and calcium deposits, which in turn is caused by the failure of the kidneys and the digestive tract, which in turn is caused by poor mastication and the wrong foods. To correct and to alleviate this condition one must correct his bad eating habits and the wrong foods, and with the aid of Zone, Physiotherapy, Acupuncture and exercise wonderful results may be obtained.

The above system is rarely used by your doctor or chiropractor, but can be obtained by calling 886-4010 for more information or an appointment.

Pointers Play Active Part In St. Peter's Boys Home

A home for emotionally disturbed adolescents, St. Peter's Home for Boys, will soon have a new learning center made possible by the support of Pointe resident Mrs. S. Pinkney Tuck. Mrs. Tuck, of Country Club drive, recently donated funds for the center's construction and first year's operation.
The staff of the boys' home located on Joy road in Detroit, believes it is the first learning center of its type to be operated at a home for troubled youths.
A second Pointe resident, Gordon T. Ford, of Kercheval avenue, chairman of the home's board of trustees, said, "Mrs. Tuck has been a great friend of St. Peter's Home for many years. She has made frequent generous contributions, including the funds to build and furnish our chapel. We are very thankful for her continuing support."
St. Peter's Home is a residential treatment center sponsored by the Episcopal Church for boys with emotional or behavioral problems that prevent them from living with their parents. The boys attend public schools in the area or the state-operated Hawthorn Center in Northville.

Director of the home, Robert W. Wright, said the learning center, to be housed in a new modular building, will permit the home to offer supplemental education to all of its 25 boys, and possibly in the future, to provide tutoring to other youngsters in the neighborhood.
The staff member at St. Peter's who will direct the learning center, Thomas Buescher, has conducted a one-year pilot project for 23 boys using a recreation room at the home.
"About 75 percent of the boys at St. Peter's are under-achievers in school, especially in mathematics, English and reading," Mr. Buescher said.
The pilot learning center project was set up to cope with these learning difficulties and to help teenagers with school behavior problems. During the pilot study the number of failing grades in school was reduced by 50 percent.
The learning center's approach to education will be a modification of the "Madison School Plan" developed by Dr. Frank M. Hewitt at the Neuropsychiatric Institute of the University of California in Los Angeles. St. Peter's Home is believed to be the first children's home in the country to implement the plan for residential treatment.

In essence, the Madison plan provides a structured, planned teaching program that supplements and sometimes replaces regular school classes, and emphasizes the student's strengths rather than his weaknesses, Mr. Buescher explained.
The boys' home accepts boys of all faiths and races. It is licensed by the State of Michigan and is financed through private donations and fees paid by city, county and state agencies. Donations provide about 55 percent of the annual budget.

St. Paul's Holds Science Fair

St. Paul students in grades four through eight revived an old tradition and held a school science fair the weekend of February 24-25. The last one was held in 1971.
Science teachers Leo Caripidis, Judi Giles, Gail Clark, and David Wick directed the participating students.
Miss M. Schwenk and Mr. H. Klein, teachers at St. Clare of Montefalco, Ernest Stylogiou, an electro-chemist from the Ford Motor Company and the science teachers of St. Paul's judged the completed projects.

The winners from the fourth grade were: First place, Joe VanAuker; second, Tom Kennedy; and third, Sharon Ruwart.
Fifth grade: First place, Paul Smith; second, Meg Korte; and third, Kathy Connell.

North Natators Defeat South

By Keith McAslan

The swimmers of Grosse Pointe North dunked arch-rivals Grosse Pointe South 63 to 33 February 10.
Going into the meet, the two leading rivals were senior John Watts of South and North's junior Scott Veil. It was a closely contested battle all the way, but Watts whipped Veil in the 200-yard freestyle. The fired-up Veil came back to decisively take the 400-yard freestyle.
North's swim coach Tom Teetaert remarked, "John swam a perfect race in the 200 to beat Scott, but Scott swam a good strategic race in the 400. It was exciting to watch, for both swimmers were stroke for stroke in both races."
Against South, the Norseman captured all but three first places.
The 200-yard medley relay team of Hank Kuhlman, Gary Hoffman, Mark Craig and Chuck Riddle all teamed up to take the number one spot, while the 400-yard freestyle relay team of Hoffman, Veil, Kuhlman and Thom Nilseman finished another Norseman first.

Other North tankers who took individual wins were Tom Filgo in the 100-yard freestyle, Eric Van Hee in the individual medley, Tom Hellstrom in the diving competition, Mark Craig in the butterfly and Chuck Riddle in the breaststroke.
"Tom Hellstrom set a new North Varsity record in diving," commented Coach Teetaert. "This had to be for us. I hope we can keep improving and do well in the State Championship March 16 and 17."

Those selected will enter their project at one of six participating high schools, Thursday-Sunday, March 15-18. Mott High School in Warren is the site for St. Paul students. Winners selected from these entries will display at Cobo Hall March 29-April 2.
Over 250 students participated in St. Paul's fair. Mr. Giles, the fair coordinator felt the fair was an important endeavor for all grades for it "gave students the opportunity to deal graphically and experimentally with scientific concepts."

Wins Highest Scouting Rank

The highest rank in scouting was presented to Dean Face recently at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, 16 Lake Shore road. Face, a 10th grader at South High School became the third Eagle Scout presently active in Troop 96.

His proud parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Face, describe him as a good student, earning a "B" plus average with high interest in science and math. This interest is probably a carryover from a microscope Face purchased, and a science lab he had built with his dad's help.

The Grosse Pointe Neighborhood Club bicycle touring club takes much of his time when he is not on scout campouts or camping with his family. This, with an interest in music and a workout on the badminton court two evenings a week, make a well rounded eagle scout, it is reported.

Cougars Skate To Three Wins

The Frank Adam Lincoln-Mercury Peewee Cougars warmed up for continuing state tournament play with a recent 2-2 exhibition game against the Northwest Detroit Huer Plumbing team. After two periods during which Cougars shots hit the posts and missed open nets, the Huer Plumber's held a 2-0 lead. The third period saw two tying goals knocked in by right winger Tom McHugh.

Then the Cougars sewed up the District championship with a 4-3 overtime victory over the Warren Rangers Saturday, February 24. Steve Levick scored the first goal from the face off assisted by McHugh and Kevin McMahon. The next two goals were scored by McHugh, assisted by Levick and McMahon. At the three minute period of the second overtime Ben Amore scored the clincher.

On Sunday, February 25, the Cougars took on Long Branch Ontario's Atoms. The Cougars outplayed the Canadians by a wide margin but had to be satisfied with a 2-2 tie. Goals were by Joe Brykalski and McHugh. Amore was picked as the player of the game.

Finishing a three game weekend the Cougars outclassed the Madison Heights No. 1 team, 9-3. McMahon, Dave Seagram and Amore scored two goals apiece. The Cougars will now enter state final play at Jackson in two weeks.

BUYING A SECURITY SYSTEM?

When you buy an apartment at The Jefferson Apartments Grosse Pointe's newest condominium... you get not one, but a network of the most modern security systems to guard you, your home and your possessions.

A CLOSED TV MONITORING SYSTEM covers the entrance, outside parking areas and inside garage. The caller can be viewed from a selected channel on the owner's TV set in each apartment. The doorman and manager's office views the same areas.

THE ENTRY COMMUNICATIONS SYSTEM is a new system conceived and engineered by Michigan Bell Telephone Company. Using a touchtone panel telephone in the lobby, the caller dials the owner's apartment. This enables each party to have a private conversation. During the time the caller is in the entrance vestibule, he is under surveillance by the concealed TV camera.

AN ON-GUARD ALERT SYSTEM features a control panel in the manager's apartment and the attendant's office. This notifies of any intrusion into any apartment when the occupants are away. The doorman or manager controls the system by activating the apartment's security supervision at the request of the owner.

THE FIRE PROTECTION ALERT SYSTEM gives added protection to all occupants of the building and will insure notification of each individual occupant of a fire in an unoccupied apartment.

Further elements of security are the uniformed doorman-attendant and resident caretakers.

Besides security, you also get really gracious living. Here is a typical spacious floor plan of an apartment home which features 9 foot ceilings, individual heating and cooling, top of the line G. E. kitchen with an icemaker and a washer-dryer. A wet bar is conveniently located for entertaining. Insulated walls, floors, plumbing and windows insure maximum quiet. Natural fireplaces, naturally.

There are three separate elevators and approximately a thousand square feet of private storage. Exterior maintenance, gardening and snow removal are arranged. The Jefferson Apartments is an adult community. Residents are home owners and enjoy tax deductions and the investment security of being a property owner and equity advantages.

One View From The Capitol

By William R. Bryant, Jr.

Should local school districts have the option to raise a part of their local revenue by a local income tax?

It is this question which is the most major, unanswered question for the state school aid bill for the next school year and beyond that.

The school aid bill backed by Governor William Milliken is S.B. 110. The State Senate is acting on this bill now. As the proposal read late last year it contained an option for all school districts to have up to a one percent local income tax on individuals and corporations.

Have Option Available
 As S.B. 110 now reads, that option would be available for Detroit schools only, but there are many legislators, including myself, who feel the option should be available to more or all districts.

My own proposal to amend S.B. 110 would grant the income tax option to all school districts. Part of the reason is merely to provide local option, the other major reason is to increase the chances S.B. 110 will be judged constitutional by our state Supreme Court.

My proposal would have the state consider a one percent income tax as equal to 8.5 mills of property tax. So, a 0.1 percent income tax would be a "mill equivalent" of 0.65 mills, and the dollar yield would be guaranteed by the state as if it were millage.

If a district has operating millage plus income tax "mill equivalents" totaling less than 22, the local school board could levy an income tax up to one percent to bring the mills plus millage equivalents number up to 22.

Referendum Right
 For districts over 22, there would be a right of referendum on an income tax and any income tax adoption would have to be a vote of the electorate. Thus, for the Grosse Pointe district and most of the districts in the state, no income tax could be adopted except by vote of the residents.

For low millage, often low expenditure districts, however, if the people don't like and won't vote property tax, the school board could assure a higher program level by adopting an income tax.

My proposals also include guaranteeing the dollar yield of school millage for building and debt retirement, a state-local sharing of cost and product of local research, and state aid for programs for academically talented students.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

The National Trust for Historic Preservation was chartered in 1949 by the Congress of the United States to be the only national private organization with the responsibility of encouraging public participation in the preservation of districts, structures, sites, buildings, and objects significant in American history and culture.

As one of two Michigan Advisors to The National Trust, I am pleased to offer a few thoughts on the current status of Rose Terrace. I do so in the interest of encouraging the kind of informed public concern for significant buildings which is the basic purpose of The National Trust.

There is no doubt at all that for nearly 40 years Rose Terrace has been one of the treasures of Grosse Pointe. W. Hawkins Ferry, in his book, "The Buildings of Detroit," calls Rose Terrace "Grosse Pointe's most regal residence" and speaks of its "monumental splendor." Nor has national recognition of its beauty been lacking. It is the only Grosse Pointe building to be listed on the National Register of Historic Places, maintained by the Department of the Interior for those buildings of such significance that they are truly part of the American heritage. It would be well for Grosse Pointers to understand that Rose Terrace has been singled out by national authorities for unusual recognition as a building of the highest merit.

A building does not always have to be old to be historic. Rose Terrace was already historic on the day it was completed. Late in time it was magnificently crowned an era that had already passed, an age that encouraged the building of palatial residences, an age that had really ended in 1914, 20 years before Rose Terrace. As the last of its splendid kind to be built or ever to be built in America, its fate under the changed conditions of today is worthy of the careful thought its uniqueness demands.

European countries have been quicker than we to recognize the need for new approaches to the preservation of historic structures. In literally thousands of cases the choice has been made to convert or adapt such buildings, sympathetically and aesthetically, to an economic use that would preserve them. It is a common practice that only the exterior is left unchanged, since that is all that is seen of most buildings, and the interior sensitively altered to a new use. As much as we may cling to sentiment, we must admit to ourselves that the day is over when Rose Terrace can be maintained, furnished, staffed, and occupied as a single private residence. Is there no new life, then, for Rose Terrace, no recycling, as it were? Are the swinging ball and the sticks of dynamite the best we can think of? Are we prepared to answer the nationwide criticism that will follow? Or are we ready to admit, as the Europeans do, that to save it is to change it?

Under different circumstances Rose Terrace might have been a museum, with its incomparable furnishings and collections intact. Yet even that form of preservation would have required changes — the changes made necessary for the handling of crowds of visitors. Whether the community would have found such a use compatible is uncertain. There surely would have been problems.

It is beyond the scope of these comments to pass judgment on a proposed new zoning ordinance or the plans of possible developers of Rose Terrace. I only wish to remind Grosse Pointers that Rose Terrace is unique, a nationally-acclaimed treasure located in our midst. Unique steps may well have to be taken to save it, steps that, because Rose Terrace is a special case, need not create a precedent for other situations where the same historic considerations clearly do not apply. Among the steps open to us is the sensitive and responsible adaptation of Rose Terrace to prolong indefinitely its life. Our ability to be imaginative about solutions and to achieve a fine balance between the old and the new — and not to fear doing so — will be a real test of the maturity of our generation.

Sincerely yours,
 Donald M. D. Thurber
 Michigan Advisor,

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

Have you ever thought how it would feel if you didn't have a library to turn to in certain moments of need? This could mean either communication by telephone, or a comfortable building to use to solve your problems.

Yes, we know that one can buy books, or borrow them from friends. The advent of the paper-back has made it possible to obtain more books than other generations. But there are always a certain number of books that you can't afford to buy — and maybe your friends don't own them either.

The "World Almanac" answers many, many questions, but not all of them. Sooner or later you will be stumped, and then the library, and only the library, can help you out.

What of newspaper and periodical coverage? One learns a lot from both, but you can't subscribe to all of them, nor are you always in a position to run out and buy the magazine or newspaper that happens to contain an article you have heard about but haven't read. But your library, if you have one, should be of great help in the area. (Don't count on your friends for they can't afford to buy all of the publications either!)

A rainy day comes along, or you're home with the flu, or a broken leg, you can't stir out of your house and you want a certain book. Perhaps it is an old favorite that you used to have. You ask your loved one "where is it?" Either the dog chewed it up long ago, it was thrown away by mistake, or it's just plain lost. Or maybe you lent it to a friend. If you have a library close by they might have it, and would hold it until you can figure out a way to send someone for it.

You certainly can't duplicate the "how-to-do-it" books that all libraries have. You may have to make a costume for one of your children for the school play, (tomorrow?), and need a book for suggestions and patterns. Your mouth is watering for some new dish; you can't find the recipe in any of your cookbooks, but it is possible that your library, with its many cookbooks, may contain precisely the piece de resistance that you need so desperately.

There are many television shows that have authors as guests, eager to tell you all about their new books. If your library is closer than the bookstore then you may get what you want. But if you don't have a library nearby, then you may be out of luck since your bookstore (if, indeed, you have one conveniently located) may be sold out.

You are a sports buff. Whether it is chess, tennis, baseball, football, or what have-you, rules do change, and you may hit a hot argument any time over some rule, needing a book to help you out. Can you afford to buy it? No? Then, without a library and its resources you can argue endlessly. New sports appear on the horizon, and it may behoove you to read up on them; snowmobiling would be an example of this.

Have you ever spent an evening with a group wrangling over a quotation? You are sure your version is the right one, but so is your opponent! Think of the time you could save if someone could look this up for you, solve the dilemma, and put an end to the discussion, leaving you time to move on to other interesting subjects.

Then there is the social contact of the library. Think of what you may be missing. If you have a library, you have friends. You get to know the librarians and they get to know you and what you like or don't care for. You may even meet some of your old friends while browsing or looking up answers to questions. Too bad if you don't have this sort of outlet.

Perhaps you have children. You can read to them, buy them books, tell them stories. Then, again, perhaps you are too busy to give them the time they really need. With a library at hand there are pre-school activities, story hours and a myriad of children's books to be looked at and read.

I suspect I could think of more items that would make you feel underprivileged if you had no access whatsoever to a library, but I believe I'll let you think of some of your own.

FASH/BASH III, the celebrity fashion auction and dance benefitting the Detroit Institute of Arts Theatre, will expand again this year when it's staged in Cobo Hall's Riverview Ballroom Monday, March 26, from 6:30 until 11:30 o'clock.

Celebrities not only will let the latest fashions be bought off their backs for sweet charity, but some of the city's best-known politicians and sports figures, disc jockeys and columnists will be among party-goers stirring up action on the runway.

Chairman Tom Schoenith, of Devonshire road, describes FASH/BASH III as "fun and anti-blahs." "March is usually an awful month," says Tom. "We're going to cheer on the 'celebs' and dance up a profit!"

The Ballroom overlooking the Detroit River will be filled with gigantic balloons, some three feet in diameter.

Free light food will be served, and—an extra feature this year—music for dancing will be supplied until nearly midnight by the 21-piece Brookside Jazz Ensemble, led by Craig Strain.

Auctioneer will be Lawrence DuMouchell. Hughes-Hatcher-Suffrin is contributing fashions and decorations to the cause.

FASH/BASH III is sponsored by the Junior Council of the museum's Founders Society, to help Youtheatre schedule more live theatricals for Inner City pupils. The general public, particularly the town's Young Set, is invited.

Tickets are available now, at a contribution of $6.25 per person, at the Art Institute ticket office, 832-2730.

Pointers serving as committee chairmen include Judith Baldwin, in charge of fashions, and Mrs. Michael G. Van Lokeren, publicity.

Detroit Youtheatre, incidentally, is the largest professional children's theatre in the United States, presenting live Broadway musicals, plays and puppet shows for children who are bussed to performances twice daily in the museum's auditorium. Smaller, more versatile shows travel out to the schools themselves.

The same shows are open to the public as part of the Art Institute's "Something Every Saturday" program.

These are tears.

One day back in 1960 we remember seeing three of them. But not since. A silly nice big smiles are what we see around our place. On our stylists. On our shampooists. On everyone from our receptionist to our maid. And on our clients, too. Who very much approve the careful way we cut and color and condition and comb and—oh well, everything! If you'd like a very happy hairdresser who specializes in clients of the same, see us. The only place we believe in tears is at the movies.

Truhans Enjoy Visiting Days

There was a real Valentine's Day celebration at the Aline drive home of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Truhan when daughter Cyndy and her husband, Steve Garvey, flew into town for a visit.

The Garveys had been in the Dominican Republic, in Santo Domingo, while Steve played winter baseball with the Lacey Ball Club following his regular season as third baseman with the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Now they're renewing acquaintance with friends and former students at Grosse Pointe South High School, before it's time for Steve to report to the Dodgers Spring Training Camp at Vero Beach, Fla.

Both were student teaching in the Physical Education Department at South prior to receiving degrees from Michigan State University and getting married in October, 1971.

The Lacey Ball Club won the League championship this year, then went on to play in the Caribbean Series in Venezuela, sweeping that championship with a 5-1 victory.

Steve had a very good regular season with Lacey, batting .330. He finished the Caribbean Series with a .393 batting average.

The Garveys travelled to the Bahamas to attend the Players Association Meeting. (Steve is the Dodgers ball-players' representative), and thoroughly enjoyed their season in the sun, but were delighted to find snow in Michigan; Steve jogs (slogs?) through it every morning to keep in shape, while Cyndy rustles up his favorite breakfast.

Other recent visitors at the Truhan home were Captain and Mrs. Stephen Mark Truhan and their son Ken Stef, here from Fort Bragg, N.C., where Captain Truhan, who returned from Vietnam last October after a full tour of duty as a United States Army Advisor in the highlands of Ben Het, is now assigned to the 42nd Civil Affairs Company.

Cyndy Garvey and Chris Truhan were on hand to say hello to their brother, sister-in-law and nephew. John Truhan, of Detroit, was there, too, to welcome home his grandson and great-grandson, making four generations of Truhan men under one roof.

In Vietnam, Captain Truhan earned many citations, including the Purple Heart. At Fort Bragg, he helps surrounding communities set up Civil Defense Programs to cope with any emergencies, including natural disasters.

He was among a group of military and civilian experts who recently spent three weeks evaluating the McMinnville-Warren County Civil Defense Unit in Tennessee.

Named to the Bucknell University First Semester Dean's List is junior STEPHANIE SMITH, of Lincoln road.

Jane Johnson Wed To Robert Vieweg

Grosse Pointe Memorial Church was setting for the afternoon wedding of Jane Edith Johnson, daughter of the George Wolfe Johnsons, of Berkshire road, and Robert Arthur Vieweg Saturday, February 24.

The 4 o'clock rites, at which The Reverend Eugene Locke presided, were followed by a reception at the University Club.

The newlyweds are vacationing in the Caribbean, on St. Croix and the Dominican Republic, and will be returning to Detroit to make their home.

The bride's gown, of ivory satin faille, was fashioned with a Mandarin neck, Empire waist and a line skirt ending in a full Chapel train. Clusters of tiny pearls studded her peau d'ange lace bodice and Juliet sleeves, and matching lace hemmed her skirt.

More lace bordered her

Cathedral mantilla. She carried an arrangement of white roses, gardenias and ivy.

Her six attendants wore floor length frocks of royal taffeta, styled with white satin collars and cuffs, and carried cascades of blue hydrangea, white narcissus and ivy.

They were Mrs. Robert R. Johnson, who served as her sister-in-law's honored matron, and bridesmaids Jayne Lamont Newcomb, Sally Ross, Patricia Roney, Mrs. David Malund and Mrs. Timothy McCarthy, of Grand Rapids.

The bridegroom, son of Dr. and Mrs. Hermann Vieweg, of Lincoln road, asked his cousin, Professor John McNulty, of Berkeley, Calif., to act as best man. Ushers were Dr. Victor Vieweg, of Coronado, Calif., another cousin, the bride's brothers, Robert Johnson, of Ridgewood, N.J., and Richard Johnson, James Crawford and Daniel Carpenter, of Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

The bride's mother wore a long rose knot gown and pinned pink camellias to her purse. The bridegroom's mother selected a floor length gown of pale blue knit and a white orchid corsage.

When the newlyweds left for the south, the bride was wearing a blue and white double knit suit, with navy accessories.

Out-of-town guests included the William Hasselbergers and Dwight Hasselbergers of Syracuse, N.Y., the John Hasselbergers and Phyllis Hasselberger, of Lake Hiawatha, N.J., the Walter Wielers, of Cold Spring Harbor, N.Y., Mrs. L. Roy Johnson, of West Orange, N.J., the Cameron Biebers, of Lewisburg, Pa., Kenneth Failor, of Washington, D.C., Mrs. Robert McNulty, of Buffalo, N.Y., and Rolf Selbach, of Frankfurt, West Germany.

Feature Work Of P.D.Q. Bach

Musical mayhem is about to be committed at Ford Auditorium! Professor Peter Schickele will pay a demand return visit to the Detroit Symphony Orchestra Sunday, March 25, at 3:30 o'clock. The performance benefits the Symphony's Pension and Maintenance Funds.

Noted for enlightening the world with long-undiscovered works of "P. D. Q. Bach, circa 1807-1742," Professor Schickele promises two musical revelations.

He will present his own "Unbegun" Symphony and "New Horizons in Music Appreciation," a personal treatment of Beethoven's Fifth Symphony.

Also included on the program are "Schlepte in E flat" and the "Concerto for Piano versus Orchestra," works credited to the last of Johann Sebastian's 20-odd children, the mythical P.D.Q. Bach.

In a day when there's much talk of serious music, a P.D.Q. Bach concert pokes fun at old traditions. The audience hears and recognizes some traditional music — but with the strangest twists imaginable!

Pierre Hetu will be on the podium when the fun breaks loose.

Peter Schickele is, in fact, a talented composer-performer, whose musical background includes Swarthmore and the Juilliard School of Music.

He has delighted audiences everywhere since his free-wheeling P.D.Q. Bach musical spoof was introduced to a New York audience in 1965.

Tickets, priced at $7, $4.50 and $2.50, are available now at the Ford Auditorium Box Office, 961-0700, all Hudson's and all Grinnell's ticket offices.

DR. KAMRAN S. MOGHISSI, of Moorland drive, recently addressed a medical seminar at Hutzel Hospital, speaking on treatments offering hope to a majority of couples troubled by infertility.

Recreation Fee Hurts Program

The attendance figures for Woods recreational programs shows a "drastic drop" in participation, with the exception of the Wednesday evening skating activity at the McCann rink, noted Parks and Recreation Director Don Hallman in a recent report.

Mr. Hallman attributed the "unusual lack of participation" to primarily the decision to charge each participant 50 cents. "It is quite apparent that many youngsters will not or cannot take advantage of our programs while the 50 cent charge remains," he said in the report.

The NEWS contacted Mr. Hallman and asked if the charge will be changed. "I wish it would be changed," he said, "so we can get children to stop watching some TV and come back to the program."

Due to the lack of participation the winter program has been consolidated, notes the report. The following activities will continue until the end of this month, he said: Friday evening, girls' gym, (Ferry School); Tuesday evening, boys' gym, (Ferry School); Tuesday evening, hunter safety and marksmanship classes only, (these are self-supporting — there will be no open shooting Tuesday evening); Thursday evening, open shooting, (Public Safety Building); and Saturday day-time, open shooting, (Public Safety Building).

In addition, the Wednesday evening skating at McCann will continue to be offered. Skating also is provided at all other parks where rinks are maintained, according to the report.

The popularity of the McCann skating is reflected in the December, 1972 figure in which 1,058 individuals took part.

Star of Sea Cagers Win Big

Stung by their first league defeat of the season last week, the cagers of Our Lady Star of the Sea High School Saturday, February 24, took out their revenge on the Detroit St. Florian squad in rolling to a 31-23 victory, and a share of the league title.

The victory gave the local quintet the title of co-champions in the Northeast AA Division of the Catholic Youth Organization's Girl Basketball League. Star of the Sea tied for the crown with Detroit Servite High School. Both teams ended with season records of 8-1. Star of the Sea's only league defeat came at the hands of Servite last week.

Playing before the season's largest crowd, Star, early in the contest, took control of both boards and was never in trouble throughout the contest. All-City nominee Denise Sark led the Star cagers with 15 points and 19 rebounds. Guard Colleen Woodbury pumped in 10 points and quarterbacked the team's steady court game.

Star of the Sea has qualified for the CYO Playoffs which get underway next weekend. Pairings for the annual playoffs soon will be announced.

Austin Names Honor Society

Austin held its winter Honors Convocation Friday, February 23. The moderator of the National Honor Society, Thomas Bailey, vice-principal of Studies, introduced the guest speaker, Dr. Raymond Pleck, of Marygrove College. The following new members were inducted into the Austin National Honor Society: Ray Barth, Michael Colella, Patrick Connell, David J. Frear, Michael Freitas, Charles Kasunic, Joel Stone and Lantel Spatafore.

A student must maintain a 3.5 average for three semesters in order to be eligible for the Honors Society. Austin's finalist for the 1973 National Merit Scholarship is Gary Catlin.

Austin has three students who were nominated for the Phi Beta Kappa awards: Mark Carver, Catlin and Brian Craig.

Pointers Do Well in Meet

Sisters Mickey and Megan Montagne placed in seven individual events to lead the Grosse Pointe Swim Club to a fourth place finish in a weekend meet. It was held in Ann Arbor and drew more than 400 swimmers representing more than 40 teams from Michigan and Canada the weekend of February 24-25.

Mickey won four first places in the 50-yard free, (25.89); 200-yard breast, (2:41.0); 200 I.M., (2:21.2), and the 200-yard free, (2:07.5) Megan placed fourth in the 200-yard free, (2:11.8); fifth in both the 50-yard free, (27.2), and the 200-yard back, (2:31.0). Both girls swam in the 13-14 age group.

Ray Bernard and Debbie King, also members of the club, placed in individual events. Ray placed first in both the 50-yard free, (24.1), and the 200-yard back, (2:13.3); second in the 100-yard fly, (1:00.6), and fifth in the 200-yard free, (2:07.3). Debbie placed second in the 100-yard back, (1:15.2). Ray swam in the 13-14 age group while Debbie represented the 11-12 age group.

Pointer Sparks WSU Fencers

Wayne State University's sabre unit has been the strongest part of the team this year in a 13-0 start and part of the team's success can be traced to second-year fencer Mike Duika.

The Grosse Pointe South products, only 16-5 last year while spotted in meets as the team's fourth man in sabre, has posted an outstanding 31-8 mark as the team's number three man in the weapon.

That record plus an 11-1 mark in the Penn State Open where he was runner up to teammate and 1972 All-American Steve Danosi gives him an overall 42-9 record.

On many teams, that might be better than most number one men. However, Danosi is 35-4 in dual meets and 62-4 overall junior Will Smith is 36-3 in dual meet fare and 47-9 in the entire campaign.

'Outdoorama' Opens March 2

"Outdoorama" a new type of show for people interested in sports, boats, campers, travel and other outdoor equipment and services, will make its debut Friday, March 2, at 6 p.m. at the Detroit Artillery Armory, West Eight Mile near Northland.

It also is expected to attract a large segment of the public interested in conservation, a better environment and other phases of ecology, according to Paul J. Leach, executive director of the Michigan United Conservation Clubs, a non-profit organization of 135,000 members which is sponsoring the unique show.

The show will continue through Sunday, March 11. Advance tickets at a savings of 50 cents are on sale at Metropolitan area Hudson's and Sears and from MUCC members. Regular admission is $2 for adults, children 12 and under free when with adults.

ADDS UP Truth and gossip have something in common—one is true, and the other is true to life.

Man Accused By State Police

Leslie G. Wrigley, 60, of 258 Hillcrest, was arrested at his home by Farms police Friday, February 23, and held for the Michigan State Police of White Pigeon Post, St. Joseph, Mich.

The State authorities asked Farms police to pick up Wrigley on a felony warrant, accusing him of uttering and publishing, i.e., for passing a check in St. Joseph, in the amount of $5,000.

No details on the alleged passing of the check, or if anything had been purchased for that sum was made known by State authorities, it was revealed by Farms Detective Sergeant George Van Tiem.

Five policemen from The Farms, Corporal Otto Glanert, Patrolmen Timothy Morrison, Gerald Deburghgraeve, Thomas Kelly and Johannes Winter, went to the residence to take Wrigley into custody.

The accused man was held in the local cell until troopers from the White Pigeon Post arrived with the warrant for his arrest.

MRS. JOHN MARTENS, OF MANCHESTER BOULEVARD

By Janet Mueller

At the Foundation, she's known as "Miss Dorothy," but she's very much a Mrs. She's been one for almost 27 years, and they've been good years. Dorothy Martens revels in the role of wife, and the role of mother, and the role of "Miss Dorothy."

It all makes for a full, satisfying, useful life. The Foundation is the Foundation for Exceptional Children, Inc., headquartered at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, and "Miss Dorothy" is there every weekday, from 11 to 3 o'clock, on-the-job as Foundation secretary.

She's on-the-job sometimes in Manchester boulevard, too. "I do my bookkeeping at home."

More Than Part-Time It's a bit more than a part-time job. "Miss Dorothy" averages between 25 and 30 hours a week on Foundation business, not counting attendance at evening Parents' meetings and special programs.

It's a bit more than a job. Mrs. Martens is very much a family woman, for the Martens are very much a "family" family.

Dorothy and John, an estate manager, have five children. Mary, married to Robert Abramson, lives in Rathbone place. Bob Abramson, married before, has a six-year-old daughter. John Martens and his wife Barbara, who live in Berkeley, are parents of eight-month-old Kimberley.

"Is it special to be a grandmother?"

Suzanne and her husband, Craig VanderWagen, are living in Sacramento, Calif. Jay, 19 next week, graduated last year from Grosse Pointe South High School, is working for a steel company, and 14-year-old Steven is a student at Brownell.

Roots Are Here The family's roots are here: Both Dorothy and John were raised on the East Side of Detroit.

Weekend and summer headquarters for the whole clan is a trailer at Lake Chemung, near Brighton.

"We were a camping family for 15 years. Now we've gone to a trailer. We like the out-of-doors. There's no grass to cut, and it's a little freer living."

The Foundation closes for August, and Dorothy and Steven spend most of that month at the trailer, welcoming any member of the family who happens to drop by.

Most every member of the family DOES drop by.

Lives Intertwine "We all seem to get in-

Short and to The Pointe

MR. and MRS. THOMAS B. STEVENS, of Muir road, announce the birth of their second child, BRIN ELIZABETH, February 4. Mrs. Stevens is the former KRISTEN JOHNS, daughter of PROFESSOR and MRS. MALCOLM JOHNS, of Rivard boulevard. Paternal grandfather is MARK C. STEVENS, of Moross road, who has recently been appointed Honorary Vice Consul for Thailand.

Among trustees elected at the Founders Society Detroit Institute of Arts' recent annual meeting is THEODORE H. MECKE, JR., of Cloverly road. WILLIAM M. DAY, of Winthrop place, was re-elected board chairman, and MRS. GAYLORD W. GILLIS, JR., of Merriweather road, was re-elected vice president. Pointer FRANK A. MORGAN continues as Founders' manager.

MR. and MRS. JOHN GRECH, of West Bloomfield announce the birth of their second son, JUSTEN EDWARD, February 17. Mrs. Grech is the former MIMI MACKENZIE, daughter of DR. and MRS. EDWARD P. MACKENZIE, who moved a few weeks ago from University place to Metamora. Paternal grandmother is MRS. CHARLES GRECH, of Los Angeles, Calif.

MAE HURSHBURGER presented a group of her Pointe piano voice students, including KIM HADAM, DENNIS DENTEL, BETH JEFFREY, DEBBIE MONREAL, PATTY OLSEN, DAWN HOHL, CARI GAUERKE, CHRIS GARASCIA, MICHELLE CYR, DAWN OTTONI, KATHY HADAM, NANCY NOECKER, LAURIE BURNS and JOANNE CLOS, in a recital Sunday, February 25, at her St. Clair Shores home. Refreshments followed the program.

"Miss Dorothy" loves her job.

"Our parents," she notes, "are extremely active. About one-fourth of the Foundation's income comes from parents' activities. They've had card parties, rummage and bake sales... this year, they're sponsoring an extra Grosse Pointe Theatre performance of "Forty Carats."

"Their main fund-raising activity is selling Christmas cards, and it's amazing: Each year, the mothers seem to do better than before."

Another one-fourth of one-third of the Foundation's expenses is met by tuitions. Support comes too from community organizations, like Rotary, which has given the Foundation a station wagon, the Jaycees and the Optimists, and there are Memorials, which Dorothy handles, and in the last two years, community-wide mailings.

Mailings Help "They (the mailings) have helped us tremendously. The response has been terrific."

The Foundation has a staff of 12, including the station wagon driver, a co-op student and a Speech Therapist, added just this year, plus a cadre of nine adult volunteers who give as much time as they can, some a half-day, some a whole day per week.

One of the volunteers is a 77-year-old woman, who never had any children of her own. "She is our inspiration."

Another volunteer is a midget. The children love her, because she's just their height!

Teenage volunteers, boys and girls, come from local public, private and parochial schools, and many Girl Scout troops donate their services to work individually with the Foundation children, who are delighted by new faces. They love an audience, and it's good for them — it teaches them not to be shy.

Counting the Foundation's summer program and high school Child Development classes, (the teachers send their students over one day per week, as part of their course work), between 150 and 200 volunteers assist the Foundation each year.

Teens Are Wonderful "If anyone," says Dorothy Martens, "doubts the future of the country, they should see these teens in action!" Forty-five children, aged two to 19, are currently enrolled in the Foundation's program. Average age is about five, down in the past

From Another Pointe of View

Music at the Church in Maumee avenue covers an unusually broad range. The choir is currently working on folk music... and on Carl Orff's "Carmina Burana"... and on Beethoven's "Choral Fantasy."

The Gallimaufry, however, is strictly a "just for the fun of it" extra-curricular affair, featuring familiar songs by soloists and groups, with backup by guitars, banjos and piano, loosely held together by a comic thread.

Carol has arranged much of the music and written most of the continuity, with the help of members of the choir.

Tomorrow's Gallimaufry is the fourth in a series begun five years ago.

The Unitarian Choir expands about 50 percent for these programs, swelled by members of other choirs attracted by the prospect of an evening of sheer pleasure.

Invariably, these choir-sponsored evenings draw the largest attendance of any Unitarian Church function. The fun begins with a potluck gourmet dinner, and is climaxed by the show.

It's GPUC "Gallimaufry"—and all are welcome.

Project HOPE Luncheon

Dr. William B. Walsh, founder and national president of Project HOPE, is flying directly to Detroit from the SS HOPE ship in Maceio, Brazil, to report to the Men's and Women's Divisions of Project HOPE here at a luncheon meeting in the Sheraton-Cadillac Monday, March 12.

Dr. Walsh, author of "A Ship Called Hope," "Yanqui, Come Back!" and "Mission to Ceylon," was once a heart specialist in private practice. He is presently both president and medical director of Project HOPE and clinical professor of Internal Medicine at Georgetown University.

With him aboard the ship in Maceio has been Vice President Spiro Agnew's daughter, who is spending 10 months as a HOPE volunteer, learning the fundamentals of nursing.

few years because of the increase in Special Education and Trainable programs in the regular schools.

"We are NOT a school. We don't teach academics as such." Ideally, the Foundation's recreational and socialization activities will equip children for participation in Special Education or Trainable programs.

The Foundation sponsors a Teen Club too, and "Miss Dorothy" assists director Claudia Gamble in planning movies and dances and pizza parties and trips to Pistons' games.

The Teen Club meets every other Friday night. Five years ago, there were 15 participants. Today, there are 50.

Memorial Church continues to be strongly supportive, providing facilities for Foundation classes and evening meetings. The Foundation pays for the use of the rooms, of course. "But we couldn't possibly get a building of our own for what we pay the Church," Dorothy harkens says. Proudly.

May Knit For Fair She's a Memorial Church member, thinks it's great that her Church opens its doors to so many worthy groups, and hopes to get a chance to "do a little knitting for the Fair."

Each year, as grand finale to the Foundation summer session, Miss Hall takes all the children off to Camp Rotary, near Washington, Mich., for a four-day vacation.

"That," says Mrs. Martens, "is a maneuver!"

The Foundation takes over the whole camp. Each child is accompanied by his own volunteer, who pays to go along. The Foundation has never had to go looking for pay-their-own-way volunteers.

"My husband and I went up to visit them," Dorothy recalls, "and you wouldn't believe how happy they are. And how they eat!"

Christmas In July

"The ranger there is marvelous. Every year, they have Christmas in July, and he plays Santa."

It's not just the children who are impressed. "I hadn't believed in Santa Claus for years," says one of the teen volunteers, "but when that man walked up the path, bells jingling, sack over his back—I believed!" That's what it's all about. "Miss Dorothy" loves her job.

Carl's Corner

Last Saturday we were picketed by the "East Side Women for Peace," a splinter faction of the New York based "Clergy and Laymen for Peace." They picketed us because we sell Honeywell products whom they allege make anti-personnel weapons. About 1% of our inventory is Honeywell Products; about 2% of Honeywell's total business is in photographic products.

The Grosse Pointe Woods Police said they could do nothing to stop this picketing and neither could the courts. Holy Cats, what's this country coming to when a bunch of people can disrupt your business on the busiest selling day of the week and cost you hundreds of dollars in lost sales for the reasons they have outlined, and we have no recourse under the laws of our land to stop them. They blocked our doors, handed out leaflets, chanted slogans and generally made problems for our business. Their panel truck bore slogans, saying, "Abolish Stress," etc.

Conclusion: Maybe a well-organized national campaign may hire paid picketers for any cause and we must suffer a business loss in silence. NTS!
