JEFFERSON PAVING PLAN SET

HEADLINES
WEEK
As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, April 19
WHITE HOUSE STAFF MEMBERS may be released from their positions in the wake of the Watergate investigation, according to Republican sources. It has been predicted that White House Chief of Staff H. R. Halde- man and White House counsel John W. Dean will resign. Both men have been linked to the June 17 attempted break-in and bugging of Democratic national headquarters. White House Press Secretary Ronald Ziegler did not state whether President Nixon had requested the resignations yet, although he did indicate on Tuesday that he might do so.

Friday, April 20
GASEOUS BUBBLING CRATERS, some shooting muddy water six feet high, raised the fear of a natural gas explosion in Williamsburg, Mich., near Traverse City. A nearby drilling operation was blamed for causing the escaping gas. Some 50 craters opened up in the area, ranging in size from a few inches to 25 feet wide and 15 feet deep. There have been no fires or explosions yet, but 24 families were forced to evacuate the area.

Saturday, April 21
FORMER ATTORNEY GENERAL JOHN MITCHELL denied charges that he had been involved in the Watergate affair. Mitchell said the plans to spy on the Democratic headquarters had been brought before him three times, but he had vetoed them each time. He also said he had met with officials from the Committee for the Re-Election of the President and the bugging ideas were discussed, but he did not approve of the suggestions. However, in a civil case last fall, Mitchell, then chairman of the re-election committee, swore he had heard nothing about the bugging plans.

Sunday, April 22
ISRAELI TROOPS and police have been posted at strategic points inside Jerusalem, guarding against possible Arab guerrilla attacks while pilgrims converge on the city to celebrate Easter Sunday. Pilgrims have gathered at the sites of Christ's crucifixion at Calvary and his burial in Holy Sepulchre. A two day period of sorrow that began with Good Friday will end with sunrise services in the hills around the city to celebrate Christ's resurrection.

Monday, April 23
WHITE HOUSE SOURCES indicate a major White House shake-up is imminent after a succession of developments in the Watergate case and an apparently bitter survival struggle among key presidential assistants. President Nixon has been conducting his own investigation to determine the extent of involvement of his aides in the spying and bugging of the Democratic headquarters and in attempts to cover it up. The sources feel the President will make an announcement in the next few days, probably dealing with resignations by a number of his key staff members.

Tuesday, April 24
THE USS FORCE, a 750-ton, 165-foot Navy minesweeper caught fire Monday and sank in the Philippine Sea. The crew of 65 along with five officers were all reported safe in lifeboats and rafts. The ship was en route from Subic Bay in the Philippines to its home port in Guam when it sank, 820 miles west of Guam. There was no word on what may have caused the fire. The Force, launched in June, 1953, and commissioned in 1955, was one of the 45 minesweepers built on the basis of mine warfare experience in the Korean War.

Donates His Time Towards 4-H Project

DENNIS FEDORUK, 19, of Cadieux road takes time off from his schedule at Arts and Crafts and the Camera Center on Kercheval to help SCOTT STEPHENS of Westchester road with his 4-H photography project. Dennis has donated his time and talent to photograph 4-H children and to show them the enlarging, developing and printing processes. Cynthia Brooks of Westchester is the 4-H leader who organized the project. A display of their work will be seen at Macomb Mall Friday-Sunday, May 4-6.

3 Hospitals To Celebrate Their Week

Bon Secours, Cottage and St. John Offer Tours, Speakers from May 6-12

The three hospitals serving the Grosse Pointe area will offer tours and speakers on health topics in celebration of National Hospital Week, Sunday, May 6, through Saturday, May 12.

Bon Secours, Cottage and St. John Hospitals are offering a joint program in support of this year's theme: "Your Hospital... A Caring Community, Your Health... Our Common Concern."

Nurses, technologists and therapists from the hospitals will be available to present talks on health topics at club and organizational meetings, and in schools.

Many Topics
A sample of topics include: when to use the emergency room; pollution and lung disease; balanced diet; hospital careers; death—a part of life; diagnosing heart disease; how to get the most from your health care dollar; impact of legislation on hospitals; how the hospital serves the community; the rewards of being a hospital volunteer; new developments in cancer therapy; reduction of infant mortality; and other subjects on request.

Peace Corps Volunteer Relates Experiences With South Americans

Elizabeth Skowron Is Currently a Nurse at Cottage Hospital; Spent Two Years in Colombia

By Holly Angell
For the young, wanderlust is an inevitable and almost incurable disease. The best medicine is, of course, travel. And a large prescription of an extended stint in some foreign land is perhaps the most effective remedy. For upon return the drug is still at work in the form of permanent memories and real living experiences.

Enter Elizabeth Skowron, one who took the cure. Presently she is a nurse at Cottage Hospital. Formerly she was a Peace Corps Volunteer in Colombia, South America.

Elizabeth speaks softly but her face and eyes illuminate when she talks about South America, her life there, her nursing experiences.

And it's infectious. Even if you had never contemplated going that far south before, thinking it a bit too exotic, Elizabeth will convince you that if Colombia isn't paradise, it's the next best thing.

Joins Peace Corps
Elizabeth is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Skowron of Trowley road. Her family lived in Delaware before they moved to the Pointe six years ago. Elizabeth received her secondary education in Delaware and moved onto Georgetown University in Washington, D.C. for her nursing degree. After a year of public health work in Washington, she decided she needed some practical nursing experience.

That's how she joined the Peace Corps and the Peace Corps joined her. The Corps is currently under the auspices of a program entitled Action which was formed in 1971 to incorporate all the volunteer services of the United States government.

After eight weeks of training in Escandedo, Calif., which included language and cultural briefings, Elizabeth was on her way. Usually training for Peace Corps volunteers lasts for three months but since she already had her skill, Elizabeth's was briefer.

Adaptability Is Key
She arrived in Colombia along with four other nurses. Elizabeth's destination was Barrancabermeja, certainly not a familiar world-wide hole for even the worldliest traveler. To bring it closer to home, Barrancabermeja is an oil refining town of about 120,000 located between the coast of Colombia and the capital of Bogota.

Elizabeth began work the day after she arrived. She was a supervisor in the 200-bed hospital in the city, acting as program educator and training in-coming nurses aides.

If there is a prerequisite for Peace Corps volunteers, it could be adaptability. And Elizabeth filled it perfectly. She seemed to thrive on the newness and strangeness of her environment.

She was not inclined to compare or condemn or long for life American. Her success came from such open-mindedness, beneficial both for those she worked with and for her own personal growth.

Center Drive Approaching Final Goal

Almost $83,000 of $100,000 Objective Has Been Contributed; 4,190 Families Respond

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial's 1973 Annual Family Participation Campaign has garnered, to date, $82,729.50 of the $100,000 goal set to balance the Center's budget before the extra $60,000 expenditure made necessary by installation of seawalls, dikes and pumps for flood control.

So far the Association, to maintain the Pointe's community and cultural Center, has received tax deductible gifts from 4,190 families.

The remaining families of The Pointe received follow up reminders this weekend with postage free remittance envelopes asking them to give whatever they can towards the maintenance of the Center. The Center takes none of their tax dollars and was given outright to the community. Its program and services are self supporting.

Extra Effort
As an additional effort to help meet the cost of flood control measures this year the opening performance of Grosse Pointe Theatre's musical "My Fair Lady" Tuesday, May 5, will be given for the benefit of the Memorial. On the tickets at $25 a pair, all but $4 per ticket may be taken as tax deduction.

Since all other performances of "My Fair Lady" are "sold out" the Center hopes as many citizens as possible will avail themselves of the gala opening night fun while contributing to the Center's benefit.

Alexander Wiener, campaign chairman, and the Center's Board of Directors, wish to thank the following donors whose gifts have recently been gratefully received:

YSD Reports Monthly, Quarterly Complaint Rise

A big jump in complaints was reported by the Youth Service Division, (YSD), for March, in comparison to February. Sixty-four complaints were processed in March as against 38 in February, while there was a rise of 10 complaints over March 1972.

The overall complaint total for 1973, (January-March), is 147, a jump of 24 over the same period last year.

Drug abuse was once again the leading complaint. In March, 25 such cases were processed, an increase of six over February. Overall, from January-March 1973, 64 such cases have been received, as against 37 for the same period last year.

Sixteen of the March drug cases involved marijuana, two involved synthetics and the remaining seven were classified as "all other." Thirty-five males, including 11 juveniles, plus five females, including four juveniles, were involved in these cases.

Larceny/theft incidents were the second leading complaint on the March report. They rose to 11, an increase of three over February. Twelve boys and three girls were involved in these complaints.

The third leading complaint was runaways/missings. Seven runaways involved four boys and three girls, while the missing report involved a male adult. Of the eight persons involved, three voluntarily returned home, four were arrested and released to their parents' custody. (Continued on Page 4)

Woods Solon Doing Nicely

Woods Councilman George S. Freeman, who had open heart surgery at the Cleveland, O., Clinic, is now back home and is reported "doing nicely" by his family.

Mr. Freeman, who was operated on earlier this month, returned home last week.

Shores Survey To Determine Flood Danger

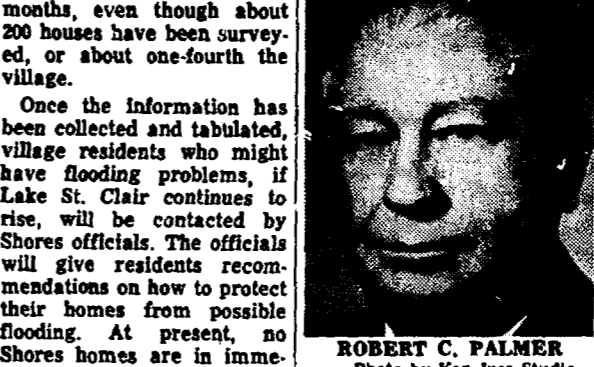

Village Employees Work Full Time Measuring Level Of Basements in Relation To Lake Level

The Shores has employed a two-man survey crew, Chris Mathews and Fred MacWhirter, to measure basement elevations and to secure additional information so that the village can predict the effect of the high lake level on the community.

The survey team has begun its project of calling at each residence within the small village, beginning at the south end. The project is expected to take several months, even though about 200 houses have been surveyed, or about one-fourth the village.

Once the information has been collected and tabulated, village residents who might have flooding problems, if Lake St. Clair continues to rise, will be contacted by Shores officials. The officials will give residents recommendations on how to protect their homes from possible flooding. At present, no Shores homes are in immediate danger of flooding.

Appointed

Shores resident Robert C. Palmer has been named to fill the unexpired term of Alfred R. Glancy, Jr. Village President Gerald C. Schroeder made the recommendation at the last meeting of The Shores Village Council; his recommendation was approved by all the trustees.

Under village charter requirements, Mr. Palmer's name will be entered in The Shores' election on Tuesday, May 15, even though Mr. Glancy's term ran for another year.

Three other councilmen will be running for reelection in May: Mayor Pro Tem Chester F. Ogden and Trustees Frank A. Colombo and Daniel R. Beck.

Other Shores residents who wish to be entered in the election next month must file with the village offices by 4 p.m. Monday, May 7.

B-E Suspect To Stand Trial

George H. Cramer, 23, 19901 Moross road, Detroit, was bound over for trial in the Wayne County Circuit Court on Wednesday, April 18 after he waived a preliminary examination before City Municipal Judge Douglas Paterson.

Cramer was arrested on Friday, April 13, in connection with the breaking and entering of Coins and Stamps, Inc., 17658 Mack avenue.

An examination date in Circuit Court has not been set.

OKAY LICENSE

The Woods Council at the regular meeting Monday, April 16, unanimously approved the granting of a food vendor's license to Marty Lapsalis, of Canterbury road. He is now permitted to conduct the retail sale of ice cream.

School Census Begins Throughout District May 1

The first school census in three years is slated to begin throughout the district Tuesday, May 1. It must be completed by the end of the month.

Because an annual school census is no longer required by law, school officials have indicated that another local head count may not be taken for several years. Therefore, they urge community cooperation so that the data will be as complete as possible.

The information will be useful in determining future enrollment projections.

Besides collecting the standard information provided by all local residents, a special census will again be made of all handicapped children. The census takers will not attempt to interview each

To Request Bids in June; Cost Hiked

Curb Repair, Resurfacing from Wayburn to Fisher to Begin After July 1; Expect Completion By Late October

When bids are taken in June for the paving of Jefferson avenue, the cost of the program this year is expected to be much higher than last year, according to Wayne County Road Commission officials. The higher cost is due to the fact that material and labor figures have gone up.

For almost two years, The Park and The City have been pleading with the Road Commission to repair curbs and to repair and resurface the avenue from Wayburn to Cadieux in The Park, and from Cadieux to Fisher in The City.

The condition of the thoroughfare was so deplorable that the Commission, last year, decided the best it could do was to patch the road by filling in the huge chuk holes and large cracks because, it was said, Jefferson was not on the road repairing schedule for 1972. Jefferson is a county road, and therefore under the jurisdiction of the Road Commission which is charged with its maintenance.

Receive Pleading

The WCRC decided to include Jefferson in its 1973 street repairing and resurfacing program after they were prodded by County Commissioner Erv Steiner, Jr., a Pointe resident, who bombarded the Road Commission with continuous letters and telephone calls.

Mr. Steiner requested that Road Commission officials inspect the condition of the avenue from Wayburn to Fisher, after they insisted that Jefferson was not on the 1972 program. After looking over the situation, the WCRC inspectors conceded the thoroughfare was in such a state that temporary repairs, at least, were needed. They promised to give Jefferson priority in the county's 1973 repaving.

On Tuesday, April 17, Park City Manager Robert Solon and Grosse Pointe City Manager Thomas Kressbach met with A. W. Swanson, assistant highway field engineer, and Armin J. Grossman, engineer of highways, both of the WCRC, in The Park Municipal Building, 15115 Jefferson.

Start in July

Gets His 'Kicks' On Lady's Car

An apparently testy motorcyclist booted a lady's auto after accusing her of "crowding him" Saturday, April 21.

The Woods resident told Public Safety Officer Charles Philip Hamel she was going south on Mack avenue and stopped at the Vernier road traffic signal. While resting in the middle lane, the cyclist pulled along side.

When the light changed, the woman said the cyclist pulled in front of her car, got off his vehicle, came over and told her not to crowd him. After the woman said she wasn't crowding him, the cyclist kicked her Volkswagen, causing a big dent in the front fender, police said.

Apparently satisfied with his display of temper, the cyclist got back on his vehicle and left west on Vernier.

He was described as a "big man," in his late 20's, between 6'2" to 6'4" tall, and wearing a black helmet and wire rim plain glasses. He also had a trimmed red beard.

Diplomats prolong an argument until it wears itself out.

Plan Jefferson Paving

(Continued from Page 1) sion will accept bids for the repairing of curbs and resurfacing of the avenue about the middle of June. Once the low bid is accepted, Mr. Slone and Mr. Kressbach were informed, work on Jef-

erson will begin. Last year, cost estimates of the program was given as $255,000 from Wayburn to Cadieux in The Park, and $114,000 from Cadieux to Fisher in The City.

However, the WCRC officials said, with the increase in the price of material and labor since the 1972 estimate, the cost will be considerably higher this year.

It was pointed out the entire job will be given to one contractor, and that work on the program should start sometime after July 1. If everything goes according to schedule, work should be completed by late October.

The firm awarded the contract will repair all curbs and, after repairing the avenue where necessary, will resurface Jefferson with asphalt, Mr. Slone and Mr. Kressbach were informed.

Swanson and Grossman also informed the city managers that bonds for the project have already been sold and funds are available, and that plans and specifications should be completed by next week.

Take Two Flags At Mr. Q Travel

Someone snatched two custom made flags from the top of Mr. Q Travel, 19517 Mack avenue, sometime between 6 p.m. Friday, April 20, and 8 a.m. Saturday, April 21.

Robert Quarters told Woods Public Safety Officer Charles Philip Hamel the flags, valued at $75 each, were five-by-seven-foot and red in color with white letters, "Mr. Q."

Shares Experiences in South America

(Continued from Page 1) was very much like a small town, open market and all, she explained. The water and electricity were not sufficient for the size of the population and there were days when she had to go without them. She did not seem to mind the inconveniences but accepted them as apart of her life.

However, the most frustrating for her was when she was in the shower with soapy hair and the water stopped. She learned quickly to keep a candle and bucket handy at all times.

Elizabeth lived within the confines of the hospital. This arrangement perhaps did not provide her with as much privacy as an apartment. However, it was safer since most Latin Americans have a stereotype image of the American girl as a high-living, rich divorcee.

Elizabeth also had to contend with 110 degree weather year round. Yet even this she accepted as a part of her life. But she said "It was really weird around Christmas, that really upset me." Nevertheless, when she returned, she found it difficult to get used to Michigan winters.

Her experiences in the hospital were certainly different than in a suburban community. There was rarely an empty bed in the hospital. "When people came in they were really sick because they didn't believe in coming in to a hospital."

"They journeyed from a 50 mile radius around the city and since there was poor transportation, sometimes they had to walk for three and four hours. "How some of them lived, I'll never know," she said. "They seemed to have a special strength."

Elizabeth had to deal with a great many machete and animal trap wounds. "In the mountainous area, there was a tendency for men to fight to prove their manliness. Also people fought over 30 pesos, about $1.50. But when you're poor and starving, that's a lot of money."

Many of the children who come to the hospital were suffering from malnutrition. The basic diet was rice and starchy fruits which were filling but provided no nutritional value. They rarely had meat or milk.

Talk About JFK
Elizabeth worked a 48-hour week, eight to 10 hours a day Monday through Saturday. "I never got used to working Saturday."

Elizabeth wasn't totally cut off from her roots. Through the Peace Corps she received the weekly Sunday "New York Times" as well as "Time" Magazine.

She also kept abreast of current events through Colombian newspapers, especially around election time. She found that the Colombians still talked about the late President John F. Kennedy, ironically enough, the man who started the Peace Corps and put Elizabeth in her position. They were still baffled by his death and could not understand why, in a civilized society such as the United States, he could have been killed.

After she finished her two year venture with the Peace Corps, Elizabeth's sister came down for a two month visit. Together they toured South America by land and by sea, by bus, train and boat.

Form of Flattery
South American men were very apt to follow her around for Elizabeth is fair haired and obviously not a native. But she said she got used to it. The men were not harmful and would go away if she ignored them.

If it happened here Elizabeth said she would be frightened and insulted. Yet in Colombia it was a part of life and actually a form of flattery.

In fact, she found, especially when she was touring with her sister, that the men though they were very young, and were inclined to be very over-protective and solicitous.

There are some amenities Elizabeth misses now that she is back in the states — the fruit especially. The variety was "10 times" as great as it is here and she could pick it off the trees.

She also found the people extremely friendly and hospitable. They were so sincere

Center Slates Workshop On Correctional Facilities

The Grosse Pointe Inter-Faith Center for Racial Justice will present a lecture-discussion workshop on "Michigan Correctional Facilities—What They Are Now, What They Could Be" throughout each Wednesday evening in May, starting May 2.

On May 2, the "Wayne County Jail" will be the topic. Speakers include Conrad Mallett, Wayne County Commissioner, and Allen Houseman, an attorney, (Wayne County Jail inmates' lawsuit).

"Juvenile Facilities in Wayne County" will be the May 9 session. Professor Hartford Smith, director, Community Extension Program, Wayne State University, and Professor Arthur Antisdet, from WSU's School of Social Work, will be featured. Professor Smith also is chairman of the Detroit Youth Board and was chairman of the Youth Parole and Review Board, 1971-72.

John Amberger, superintendent of the Detroit House of Correction, (DeHoCo), and Jeanette Boudreau, IHM, DeHoCo correctional matron, will appear on May 16. The session focuses upon "DeHoCo."

On May 23, Charles Anderson, deputy warden, Jackson Prison, and Lee Dell Walker, former Jackson inmate, will participate. The session will deal with "Michigan Correctional Facilities."

Then "Progressive Programs in Other Communities" will be featured on May 30, with speakers to be announced.

Each session begins at 7:30 p.m. The cost of the five-week course is $5, or $2 admission at the door. The program is offered in the cafeteria of St. Paul Catholic School, 170 Grosse Pointe boulevard.

Gun Wielder Gets Probation

Wayne County Circuit Court Judge Joseph G. Rashid accepted a plea of guilty to attempted felonious assault from David Almond, 20, of 1372 Devonshire, Wednesday, April 11, stemming from the youth's confrontation with Park police officers on January 25, where he reportedly threatened them with a loaded shotgun. Judge Rashid sentenced Almond to two years probation and ordered him to pay court costs of $580.

On the January date, five police officers responded to a call made by the young man's mother, in which the mother asked for assistance in calming her son, who was in possession of a loaded 12-gauge shotgun.

When the policemen entered the house, they were confronted by Almond, who was atop a kitchen landing with the weapon in his hands and the safety unlocked.

The officers spent 20 minutes trying to talk Almond into putting down the shotgun, but without success. When the youth was momentarily distracted, all five policemen rushed to the top of the stairs and by sheer weight of numbers disarmed him.

A warrant was asked by Park authorities, charging Almond with felonious assault, but the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office denied such a warrant in favor of one accusing Almond with attempted felonious assault.

At an examination held before Park Municipal Judge William E. Speer, on January 31, the judge, using his judicial prerogative, signed a felonious assault warrant, and remanded Almond to the County Jail in default of $20,000 bond until his trial in Circuit Court.

At his trial, Almond refused to plead guilty to the more serious charge, and Judge Rashid accepted a guilty plea to the attempted felonious assault.

Shores Passes Resolution Honoring Alfred Glancy

At the last regular meeting of The Shores Council, Tuesday, April 17, Village President Gerald C. Schroeder read the following resolution in commemoration of former councilman Alfred R. Glancy, Jr.

"Whereas Mr. Alfred R. Glancy, Jr., a resident of the Village of Grosse Pointe Shores for over 32 years passed away on Friday, April 6, 1973, and

"Whereas Mr. Glancy served the Village of Grosse Pointe Shores first as a member of its Planning Commission in the early 1950's during the years when the Master Plan for the community

GPCE Seeks New Members

Grosse Pointe Citizens for Education is conducting a membership drive spearheaded by Mr. and Mrs. Russell Peebles of Bedford road.

Any adult resident of the area served by the Grosse Pointe Public School System is eligible for membership upon payment of the $5 annual family dues.

Checks may be sent to Jean Johnson, P.O. Box 6872, Grosse Pointe, 48236, and must be received by Saturday, May 5, to enable participation on the Candidate Committee, one of the most important functions of GPCE.

In an effort to seek out and support the best possible Grosse Pointe Board of Education members, the Candidate Committee questions, evaluates, and recommends for endorsement potential candidates for School Board Trustees. Two trustees are to be elected in June.

The first meeting of the Candidate Committee will be Monday, May 7, at 7:30 p.m. at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, 16 Lake Shore road.

"Whereas in 1963 Mr. Glancy was first elected to serve as a Trustee of the Council of the Village, and following this original term of office was elected to four additional terms as Village Trustee, and

"Whereas Mr. Glancy brought to office his valuable and sagacious counsel, tempered with a rare sense of humor, especially in dealing with "people problems" in which his frank, impartial and honest character did much to further municipal goals, and

"Whereas as Chairman of the Council Harbor and Boatwell Committee he assumed the leadership and responsibility for construction of the improved Village Marina, making it an outstanding facility for our residents, and

"Whereas the loss of Mr. Glancy's incomparable attributes is felt not only by his Village, which he served so faithfully, but by the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, the Hill School, The Michigan State Fair, and many other public bodies, as well as by many corporations on which he gave freely of his talents by membership on their Boards of Directors, now

"Therefore he it resolved, that the Members of this Council go on record as expressing our deepest grief and sense of loss in the death of our colleague and friend, and

"Be it further resolved that this resolution be spread on the minutes of this meeting and that a copy be forwarded to his family."

The resolution was unanimously supported by the members of The Shores Council. Village Superintendent Thomas Jefferis plans to have a professional calligrapher inscribe the resolution.

To Study ESP, Metaphysics

The Society for the Exploration of Cosmic Consciousness, (S.E.C.C.), is presenting lectures and seminars in ESP, metaphysics, reincarnation and parapsychology Friday-Sunday, April 27-29, at the War Memorial, 32 Lake Shore road.

Astronaut Edgar D. Mitchell, founder of the Institute of Noetic Sciences, Palo Alto, Calif., lectures on psychic phenomena and reviews his ESP experiments during his Apollo mission. He will appear on the 27th at 3 p.m.

Speakers on the 28th and 29th include Dr. Richard Brooks, associate professor of Philosophy, Oakland University, Rochester, Mich., who's reportedly an authority on reincarnation and Indian philosophy; Dr. Helen Hadsell, of Dallas, Tex., who's noted for mental training exercises in developing ESP powers, and Jack Boland, minister, Unity of the Infinite Presence, Detroit, who will focus upon metaphysics.

Activities on the 28th span from 9 a.m. to 7:30 p.m., and on the 29th, from 1 to 7:30 p.m.

The complete lecture and seminar package is $20 in advance and $25 at the door. Tickets are available at the War Memorial from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., except Sundays; from Robert Harmount, 846 Lakepointe road, on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 2 to 4 p.m.; Mayflower Book Shop, 23136 North Woodward avenue, Ferndale, and Unity of the Infinite Presence, 14843 Coram, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. weekdays.

S.E.C.C. directors are Helen Blair and Mr. Harmount. For further information on the program, call 881-8653 or 881-7511.

Tax Benefits Available For Storm

Citizens May Still Deduct 1972 Losses; IRS Offers Publication on Disasters

President Richard M. Nixon's declaration that parts of Michigan are a disaster area as a result of the severe storm and flooding which occurred Friday-Saturday, March 16-17, makes special tax benefits available to disaster victims.

Taxpayers may elect to deduct their disaster losses on the 1972 Federal income tax returns instead of waiting until next year. Fiscal year taxpayers may also deduct their losses on their preceding year's return.

Claim Losses
Those who have already filed 1972 returns may still deduct their losses in that year.

Taxpayers in the following counties will be eligible for these benefits: Wayne, Bay, Berrien, Huron, Iosco, Macomb, Monroe, Saginaw, Sanilac, St. Clair and Tuscaloosa.

Individual calendar year taxpayers have until April 15, 1974, to claim this year's losses on amended 1972 returns.

Calendar year corporations have until March 15, 1974, to amend their 1972 returns and claim such losses. Fiscal year taxpayers have a similarly extended time period.

Individuals should file amended returns on Form 1040X. Corporations should use Form 1120X. Copies of forms and instructions for their use are available at local Internal Revenue Service offices.

Taxpayers suffering losses in the storm should prepare and retain records and information establishing the amount of their losses.

Nonbusiness casualty loss deductions are limited to the amount over $100 for each casualty.

Taxpayers filing claims should send the completed Form 1040X or 1120X to the Cincinnati Service Center, Cincinnati, O., 45298.

IRS Publication 547, "Tax Information on Disasters, Casualty Losses and Thefts," describes procedures for claiming casualty losses. For a free copy send a post card to the District Director, Internal Revenue Service, Federal Building, Detroit, 48221.

Warn Two Boys On Slingshots

Two 13-year-old boys treaded on dangerous ground Saturday, April 21, when they were discovered to have shot B-B's with slingshots.

While riding a bicycle at the rear of 545 Lochmoor, a resident told Woods Public Safety Officer Stuart Gerow a B-B hit his front fender. The complainant said he spotted two boys in a field at the dead-end of Colonial road.

Upon investigating the incident, the officer observed the youth with slingshots. When they became aware of the officer's presence, they attempted to conceal the slingshots at the base of a tree.

The boys said they were shooting at birds, and knowing this to be illegal, they attempted to hide the slingshots, police reported. When told of the B-B hitting the bike, both claimed to have only shot at birds but conceded a missed shot could have travelled to the complainant's yard.

Both were warned about the city ordinance prohibiting such activity, and were told about the careful and responsible use of any hunting weapon where such activity is legal.

ELECT POINTER

After the recent annual meeting of the Detroit Edison Company, the company board of directors elected John R. Hamann, 58, executive vice-president for operations, effective Tuesday, May 1. Mr. Hamann, a resident of The Pointe, is chairman of The City of Grosse Pointe Parking Authority and is a former councilman for The City.

Park Accident Injures Cyclist

An East Detroit motorcyclist suffered a broken leg and abrasions, when he was struck in the rear by an automobile, after stopping to make a turn from Jefferson avenue onto Audubon Saturday, April 21.

Injured was Craig A. Smith, of 20803 Virginia, who was traveling east on Jefferson at about 4:20 p.m. when he stopped his cycle to make a right turn onto Audubon. He was hit by a car driven by Mrs. Evelyn Y. Sylvain, of 1323 Audubon, who also was heading east.

Smith, who was thrown to the pavement by the impact, suffered a broken left leg and abrasions about the body. He was conveyed to Bon Secours Hospital by Park firefighters in the emergency ambulance.

Mrs. Sylvain, who was not injured, was issued a violation ticket for failing to stop within an assured clear distance and causing an injury accident. Her court date is scheduled for Wednesday, May 23.

Park Council Approves Larceny Law Changes

The Park Council gave its assent to City Attorney Richard Rohr's recommendations on proposed changes to the city's larceny code Monday, April 23.

The following amendments, which will become effective as of May 15, are:

Section 9.119—Receiving or Concealing Stolen Property: No person shall buy, receive, or aid in the concealment of any stolen, embezzled or converted money, goods or property knowing the same to have been stolen, embezzled or converted.

Section 9.120 — Presumptions: Any person being a dealer in or collector of any merchandise or personal property, or the agent, employee or representative of such dealer or collector who fails to make reasonable inquiry that the person selling or delivering any stolen, embezzled or converted property to him has a legal right to do so, shall be presumed to have brought or received such property knowing it to have been stolen, embezzled or converted. This presumption, may, however, be rebutted by proof.

Section 9.121—Conviction for Larceny Not Essential: In any prosecution for the offense of buying, receiving or aiding in the concealment of stolen, embezzled or converted money or other property it shall not be necessary to aver, not on the trial thereof, to prove that the person who stole, embezzled or converted such property has been convicted.

YSD Cases

Six applications for petition were filed with the Wayne County Juvenile Court, all were for males. Three were charged with violation of the Controlled Substance Act, one for home truancy, one for larceny and one for possession of a stolen vehicle.

Of the six, two already were on probation to the court. As a result, these current petitions were referred to the probation department. One application was authorized for court action, while no decision has been made to date on the other three.

The breakdown of total cases handled by the YSD for March shows: violation of the Controlled Substance Act, 25; larceny/theft, 11; runaways/missings, eight; burglary and vandalism, four each; other criminal contact, three; liquor laws and family trouble, two apiece, and auto theft, other assaults, stolen property laws, drunkenness, mischievous children complaints, one each.

To Fill Term

(Continued from Page 1) with Ingalls Iron Works in Birmingham, Ala. After joining the firm in 1934 as assistant superintendent, he was named president of the company in 1954. He also was named vice-president of Ingalls Ship Building Corporation in 1948.

A 1928 graduate of Cornell University with a degree in mechanical engineering, he is a past president of the American Institute of Steel Construction and the National Organization of Steel Fabricators.

Mr. Palmer has said that he will continue on the Planning Commission as council representative. In keeping with his role in the village planning, he has indicated a strong interest in the wise development of the remaining vacant land in The Shores.

Camera Club Meets May 1

Photo competition—prints and slides — will be the attraction at the Tuesday, May 1, meeting of the Grosse Pointe Camera Club. The gathering, held at the War Memorial, 32 Lake Shore road, begins at 8 p.m. Visitors and guests are welcome to view the entries, watch the judgments and learn from analysts' comments.

You can now get a loan from NBD when you can't get a loan anywhere else.

We at NBD want your loan business. To get it, we've come up with a way for you to get an NBD Installoan at those times when most banks are closed.

Early in the morning, on your way to work, for example. On your way home at night. As well as any time during the day.

What we've done is open a series of Instant

Loan Centers—separate loan centers inside our bank. We're open from 8:30 to 5 Monday through Thursday and 8:30 to 7:30 Fridays.

As you can see they're private, they're obviously convenient, and they're fast. Because we've staffed them with people who know that their job is to give you a loan.

When you want a loan, stop in at the Instant

Loan Center at the NBD bank near you. It's the most convenient place in town to get a loan. Especially when every other bank in town is closed.

Detective Ends Police Course

Farms Det. Earl L. Field completed a two-year course in Scientific Crime Detection in 18 months, and was awarded a diploma and has been recommended for membership in the International Association for Identification. The diploma award reception and proposed membership was revealed Monday, April 23.

The officer, a dedicated man, undertook the course at his own expense and on his own time, through the Institute of Applied Science, and was awarded eight college credits on completion of his studies.

The course consisted of the Study of Fingerprints; Police Photography; Firearms Identification; Principles of Criminal and Civil Investigation; Modus Operandi (Method of Operation), that is, the workings of a criminal who constantly uses the same method in committing crime; and Identification of Handwriting and Identification of Typewriting.

Acceptance as a member of the International Association of Identification will make him one among more than 7,000 officers boasting membership in the organization, the only one of its kind in the free world.

Field completed three courses in 1967 pertaining to police work. They are:

Homicide Investigation, under the auspices of the Wayne County Medical Examiner's Office; The FBI-Southeastern Michigan Chiefs of Police course in Criminal Investigation; and the FBI Advanced Latent Fingerprint Course.

He is a member of the Michigan Chapter of the International Association of Arson Investigators.

Field joined the Farms Police Department on October 1, 1950, and has worked with the Detective Bureau for the past three years.

Woods Budget Under Study

The proposed 1973-74 Woods Municipal budget was unanimously referred to the Finance Committee, for review and recommendations, by the council action taken at the regular meeting Monday, April 16.

City Administration Chester E. Peters told the council that the Finance Committee would have to complete their review on or before Saturday, May 5, so a public hearing can take place at the rescheduled regular council meeting Thursday, May 7.

Bicyclists Must Practice Safety 'Rules of Road'

It may be the concern over air pollution or perhaps the increased interest in health. Whatever the reason, bicycle sales have skyrocketed over the last three years. Bikes are everywhere!

Serious cyclists now include teenagers and adults, ranks once monopolized by children without a driver's license. And although bike riding is an enjoyable sport, bicycle safety is serious business.

It is the older members of the bicycle brigades that need to be made aware of the safety rules. Elementary school children are taught the rules during the safety inspection programs conducted by the Grosse Pointe Police departments.

Particularly important, notes Corporal Edmond Benthous of the City Police Department, is night riding. It is the adults that are the violators of the rules; the younger children are usually off the streets after dark.

An obvious necessity but one that is frequently ignored is that of lights on a bicycle during night cycling. Bikes must be equipped with a rear fender reflector as well as a front headlight.

A flashlight, which can be strapped to the leg, may also be used. Night riders should also wear light colored clothes, such as a white shirt, to make them more visible to motorists.

Cyclists must follow the same traffic rules as motorists. There are no safety exceptions. While riding, cyclists should stay on the right side of the street, close to the curb. They should move with traffic and watch for parked cars turning out or car doors opening suddenly.

Bikers must come to a dead stop at all stop signs, yield signs and red or amber traffic lights. In addition, they should stop at sidewalks, driveways and alleys when entering the street to make sure that the traffic is clear. Busy streets should be avoided whenever possible.

Pedestrians still have the right-of-way, even to cyclists. People on foot and other vehicles go first when they are to cross in front of a cyclist.

Cyclists should get off and walk their bikes across busy intersections, inside the white lines, even when they have the right of way.

Furthermore, they should signal with one arm, indicating which way they intend to turn in order to warn motorists. Otherwise, they must steer with both hands. And no fancy riding is allowed.

When riding in groups, bikers must travel single file with at least a full bike's length between each cyclist. They should not attempt to carry another person or a large package on their bikes to upset their balance. Nor should they hitch their bike onto another moving vehicle.

Cyclists are urged to register their bikes with their local police department and to get a license. This will facilitate recovery in case a bike is stolen.

Cyclists should check their bikes regularly to be certain they are in working order. Special attention should be given to brakes and tire pressure. Additional equipment such as a horn or bell, a rear view mirror and a carrier or basket would also help to make a safer vehicle. Drivers of bicycles are infinitely more vulnerable than those of cars. It is therefore a must for all cyclists, young and old alike, to adhere to the rules to insure safe, and thus pleasurable biking.

Academy Gives Opera April 29

On Sunday, April 29, Benjamin Britten's "Noye's Fludde" will be presented by The Grosse Pointe Academy in conjunction with The Friends of the Cathedral. Performances will be at 4 and 6:30 p.m. at St. Paul's Cathedral, 4900 Woodward at Hancock.

The opera is a musical setting of the Chester Miracle Play and is the story of Noah's Ark.

Noah is sung by Garthwood Taylor; Mrs. Roma Riddell sings the part of Noah's wife, and William Giles is the Voice of God. Noah's sons include John Abdenour, Richard Gordon, John and Stephen MacIntyre and Eric Steinhauer, Cathedral Choir Boys. Noah's sons' wives are Christine Deutsch, Mary Fisher, Abigale McKean, Carla Quarstrom, Lee Robinson and Deborah Wollard, students at the Grosse Pointe Academy.

Each child in the Lower School at the Academy has created his own mask and will portray an animal. Miss Rose Marie O'Connor's class at the Academy has composed the libretto.

Direction is under Mrs. Christer, director of music at the Academy. The entire production will be conducted by Elwyn Davies, organist and master of choristers, St. Paul Cathedral. Music is by the Cathedral Chamber Orchestra.

Tickets are a $2 donation for adults and $1 donation for children under 12.

MONOTONOUS

There are individuals who do not want to be so successful that it makes life a treadmill.

Set New Record In Soccer Game

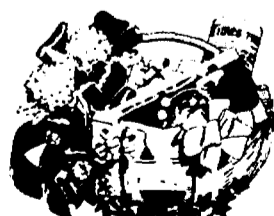

It's unofficially official. Six Grosse Pointe school children have broken the world record for the longest soccer match.

On Monday, April 23, Jim Kelly, Tim Moore, Tom Donahue, Tom Fitzsimmons, all of Bishop road, and Sarah Schriber and Mark Fikany, both of Grayton road, formed two soccer teams and played for three hours and 40 minutes. The final score was 41-38.

The previous record of three hours and 30 minutes, as established by the "Guinness Book of Records," was set in August 1962 in the Western Hemisphere club championship in Santos, Brazil.

These Pointers have put themselves on the map. The "Guinness Book of Records" certainly should be notified and up-dated.

Sears Robbed Of 3 Shotguns

A thief smashed a seven-by-12-foot plate glass window on the north side of the Sears Branch Store, Mack Avenue and Moross, at 2:50 a.m., entered the building, ripped open a shotgun cabinet and escaped with three weapons valued at a total of $478. The burglar dropped a fourth gun, damaging the stock, but left it behind when he fled.

A witness told Farms police he saw a black male, about 18- or 19-years-old, dressed in dark knit clothing and wearing a cap, climb out of the window with two or more shotguns in his arms. The youth fled south on Moross in a car, then west on Chalfonte and disappeared.

The witness told the authorities the vehicle, a 1963 black or dark blue Plymouth was parked on Moross, south of Mack, with its motor running. The culprit threw the weapons into the auto, jumped in and drove off at a high rate of speed. The witness was unable to obtain the license plate number. Officials of the store said the thief apparently knew what he was after, and that he went straight to the gun cabinet, which contained the four shotguns. Nothing else was reported missing.

Taken from the cabinet, store officials told police, were a 12-gauge automatic Model 300 rifle, valued at $190; a Ted Williams 20-gauge automatic Model 300, worth $143; and a Ted Williams 20-gauge Model 200, pump-type shotgun, valued at $145.

The gun that was dropped and broken also was a 12-gauge shotgun. Its value was not given.

State police authorities were notified of the theft.

School Board Meets April 30

The Grosse Pointe Board of Education will hold a special meeting at 8 p.m. Monday, April 30, in the Board Room of the schools' Administration Building, 389 St. Clair avenue. The main agenda item is accounts payable for the month. The meeting is open to the public.

CROSS TO BEAR
A man has to put up with a good deal in life — he also has to put up for a good deal more.

To Offer Free Entertainments

Three more free entertainments are being offered at the War Memorial as "Thank You's" for the participation of Pointers in the 1973 Fund Drive.

Black belt members of United Tae Kwan Do will present a demonstration of Korean Karate in the Crystal Ballroom Monday, April 30, at 8 p.m. They will chop cement blocks and bricks in two with their bare hands. They will sever boards with a kick. They will demonstrate the art of self defense utilizing the advantage of surprise and knowledge of where the body's concentrated strength lies, and an opponent's vulnerability.

On Tuesday, May 8, at 8 p.m., The Pointe's local Whitepoofs, the Grunyons, 12 personable young men, will give an evening of fun and singing in Fries Crystal Ballroom under the direction of Bill Gard of Dean Lane. The very informal concert will include college songs, oldies and newies by the Beatles and Bacharach. It should be a fine evening for families, singles, dates, couples and students.

Colonel Hampton Price will give a slide lecture on "Berlin" in Fries Auditorium Wednesday evening, May 23. In the '50's Colonel Price was with the U. S. Air Force in Germany working closely with German Air Force Headquarters. He devoted a great deal of his off duty time to improving German-American relations through talks and lectures.

Since returning to the States, Colonel Price has revisited Germany many times at the invitation of the German government and, in 1965, was presented with a replica of the Freedom Bell by Willy Brandt in gratitude for his friendship toward Berlin.

Since 1961, Colonel Price has given illustrated lectures on Germany almost weekly to civic, church, business, professional and university groups. For further information on these programs, call TU 1-7511.

Schools Set Concert May 5

The combined De La Salle Collegiate High School and Bishop Gallagher High School Symphonic Band and Wind Ensemble, under the direction of Donovan Rostek, presents their annual Spring Concert Saturday, May 5, at 8 p.m. at South Lake Auditorium, Nine Mile road and Mack avenue.

Highlights of the Symphonic Band include "Mars" by Gustav Holst and Mousorgsky's "Coronation Scene" from "Boris Gudunov." A Salute to America" will be presented by the Wind Ensemble with selections from Gould and Sousa.

Two Women Hurt in Crash

Two women were injured when their automobile was struck broadside and tipped over on its side Saturday, April 21, according to information released by Park authorities.

The information, disclosed by Lt. Gordon Duncan, revealed that Arnold P. Fuchs, Jr., of 68 Roslyn road, while driving north on Yorkshire road, failed to stop for the stop sign at Charlevoix. He ran into a car driven by Constance Atterbury of 309 Maple Ridge, Ann Arbor.

Police, who quickly arrived at the scene, assisted the woman and her passenger from the overturned vehicle. The passenger was identified as Karen Atterbury of Chanute Air Force Base, Illinois.

The Ann Arbor woman suffered possible back and head injuries, and the Illinois woman, who suffered bruises about the body, also complained of body pains. They were taken to Bon Secours Hospital where they were treated and released.

Fuchs was given a violation ticket for failing to stop at a stop sign. His court date has been scheduled for Wednesday, May 16.

"Diet pop, please?"

Who do you think you're fooling?

Ah, yes, how well a good swallow of sugar-free, conscience-free diet soda can wash down a mouthful of pizza, fries or cream pie . . . and seemingly wash away all those calories at the same time. Sort of like a magic elixir, right? Well, when your conscience finally rebels, though, you're ready to join the largest group of lame excuse makers around. Weight Watchers. At one time or another, we used every excuse in the book, and had the pounds to show for it. But now we've learned a whole new way of eating, and can share our problems, laugh at our frustrations, and lose weight in an atmosphere free of embarrassment. So why not join us? Call for the Weight Watchers class nearest you. You might find that losing weight is a treat in itself.

Woods Begins Spring Cleanup

Spring is a gloriously beautiful time because of Mother Nature's rebirth under the warming sun and a cool shower.

And it is also a time, as most housewives know, of "spring cleaning." However, housewives are not the only ones involved in this task. Take, for example, a recent report from Donald J. Hallmann, Woods director of parks and recreation.

He notes preparations for spring-time and summer-time activities got off to a good start in early March due to some favorable weather.

"All pieces of playground equipment throughout our several parks have been inspected, cleaned up, painted and repairs made where necessary. Leaves, broken limbs, debris, etc., which accumulated over the winter months have been extensively cleaned up," said Mr. Hallmann. However, some unfavorable weather caused additional debris which will be cleared away as soon as weather permits.

"All machinery used for the upkeep and care of the Lake Front Park grounds has been inspected, maintenance requirements filled and worn parts replaced."

The director stated other items attended to during March included the general cleaning of the bath house and filter plant, selection of many food suppliers for the concession stand and the review of numerous applications for summer-time employment, with some of the necessary hiring completed.

Waldorf School Plans Concert

The Detroit Waldorf School will present Mrs. Evelyne Scheyer, harpsichordist, at its annual benefit concert.

The program, entitled "Bach and His Contemporaries" will take place Saturday, May 12, at 7:30 p.m. in the Waldorf School Auditorium, 2555 Burns avenue, Detroit.

Mrs. Scheyer is a native of the Netherlands where she studied music in Amsterdam and in The Hague at the Royal Conservatory. In addition to her many recitals in Europe, she has performed throughout Michigan and in Canada, as soloist and with chamber music groups.

Tickets are $3.50 and $1.50 for students. For more information, phone the Waldorf School at 822-0300.

Around 25 Pointers attend the school, which has an enrollment of about 230.

Hockey Bruins Cap Fine Season with Tourney Win

The Grosse Pointe Bruins have proved themselves anything but "squirrels" on the hockey rink this season. The Bruins, Michigan State champions and Amateur Hockey Association tourney runners-up, have now won the Oakville, Ont., Invitational Tournament held the weekend of April 13-15. The team's final record stands at 99-10-6.

They were the only United States team entered in the tournament, which involved league winning teams from all over Ontario.

In their first pairing, the Bruins routed Kingston, Ont., 10-2. Mike Burkheiser scored the first goal, assisted by Allen Taber and Matt Costello. Mike Fredal posted the second with Greg Johnston and Rob Brykalski assisting. The third goal was an unassisted effort by Allen Taber.

Goal four was scored by Costello with Bill Seaver and Brykalski assisting. Then, Burkheiser scored again from Costello and Taber. Jim Morris scored a pretty goal on a fine pass play from Scott Seaver and John Davies. Scott added another with Davies and Bill Seaver assisting.

Fredal then netted two more goals to complete his "hat trick." The final goal was an unassisted one by Davies. Bill Williams reportedly played a fine game for the winners.

On Saturday, April 14, the Bruins played the Royal York Rangers, a team whom they haven't defeated all year. But this time the Bruins were masters, 4-1. Costello opened the Bruins' scoring on a power play, from Taber and Morris. Burkheiser then scored from Costello and Taber.

Davies scored from Burkheiser and Bill Seaver, while Burkheiser ended the scoring with Taber and Bill Seaver assisting. Jim Kennary reportedly played an outstanding game in keeping the Rangers off stride.

In the final championship game, the Bruins met an excellent Oakville team. Drew Mascarini was magnificent in goal for the Bruins who won on goals by Taber, Burkheiser and Costello. Bruins defenseman Randy Lewis, who was home ill, in addition to a broken finger sustained in the National Tournament, was missed in this competition.

Time Remains For Ball Tickets

Tomorrow, April 27, is the night!

And there's still time to purchase tickets for the Grosse Pointe Fraternal Order of Police Lodge 102 Associates' Big Bend Sound Ball at the Light Guard Armory, East Eight Mile road at Ryan, from 8:30 p.m. to 1 a.m.

Tickets at $5 a person, and $10 a couple, are available at all Pointe police stations and at the Harper Woods station. They may also be obtained from Walter Karal, ticket chairman, 881-7438; Joseph Miller, 881-9070, and Ben Trentacosta, 896-3578. If 10 come in a group, they can have a table reserved. Beer, ice, mix, chips and prizes are included.

Entertainment chairman Joe Vitale and his 17-piece orchestra will feature music from the '30's and '40's, and Frankie Rapp will be the master of ceremonies.

PWP Meeting Set for April 27

The Grosse Pointe Chapter of Parents Without Partners, (PWP), will have its general meeting at the War Memorial Friday, April 27.

There will be a social hour at 8 p.m., with the meeting starting at 9 p.m.

The speaker will be Mrs. Crews Houtz, a nationally known astrologer. She also is a minister and teacher. The subject of her talk is "Our Past — Our Present — Our Future." Guests are welcome.

SPORTS FANS!

BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW
Brought to you By TED EWALD

Here's one of those sports oddities that's hard to believe—but it's true... The horse that won the Kentucky Derby of 1933, Omaha, tip strangely enough, had never won a race previous to the Derby, and never won a race after that!

Ever wonder why the Kentucky Derby is called a "Derby"? Well, in 1780 in England, the Earl of Derby founded a famous horse race for 3-year olds at Epsom and it was called "Derby's Race at Epsom"... Later, it became, simply, the Epsom Derby, and when the folks in Louisville started their race in 1875, they borrowed the name and called it the Kentucky Derby.

Here's an oddity about horse racing you may not have known... Did you know that every thoroughbred race horse in the world must be able to trace its pedigree straight back to one of just 3 horses... Every thoroughbred that races anywhere today is descended directly from either Spartan, Turk, Darley Arabian or Godolphin Arabian... Those 3 horses, from the middle East, and known for their speed, were bred some 250 years ago to 3 English mares known for durability—and that was the start of the breed we know today as the thoroughbred.

I bet you didn't know that Ted Ewald Chevrolet founded in 1928 as Mack-Gratiot Chevrolet (on the corner of Mack & Gratiot) and now in its 45th year is the oldest Chevrolet Dealer in the Detroit area.

Doctor's Court Exam Delayed

The Park city attorney and the attorney for Dr. Edwin J. Hammer, 63, of 903 Berkshire, were ordered to prepare briefs following an examination hearing Wednesday, April 18. Park Municipal Judge William E. Speer reset the examination date for Wednesday, May 16, at which time the briefs are to be presented.

The doctor is charged in two warrants obtained by State police, each charging the physician with violating the Controlled Substance Act. The doctor remains free on bond of $1,000 on each count.

According to information released by Park authorities, Dr. Hammer was arrested Monday, March 26, following an investigation coordinated by State and Park police and agents of the Federal Narcotics Bureau, dating back to 1970.

Dr. Hammer, it is alleged, issued prescriptions for controlled drugs in amounts more than normally prescribed, and gave them to "patients" without benefit of examinations.

He is charged on two counts because he gave prescriptions to two agents when they asked for them.

The warrants charge Dr. Hammer with issuing, delivering and dispensing; and not acting in an ordinary course of professional medical practice.

According to an official police release, Dr. Hammer's activities were brought to their attention when suspicious pharmacists noted the large number of prescribed drugs on prescriptions on which the dates were left blank. They, then, informed police.

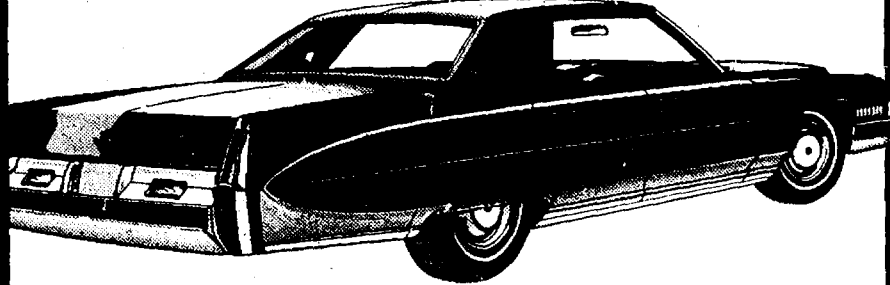

The warrants were obtained by the two State policemen to whom the prescriptions were issued. Each officer filed a separate complaint.

To Give Songs of Middle Ages

A combined A Cappella Choirs of Grosse Pointe South High and Ann Arbor Pioneer High Schools, the South High Symphony Orchestra, the Boys' Choir of Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, and soloists from the University of Michigan will present Carl Orff's "Carmina Burana" Friday, May 4, at 8 p.m. at South High School.

This rich collection of songs dates from the 12th and 13th centuries and expresses the thoughts of the goliards, (vagrant scholars, defrocked monks and other wanderers), of the Middle Ages.

The manuscripts, sung in Latin and German, deal with drinking, loving, fighting, and carousing in medieval society. Discovered at the ancient Bavarian monastery of Benedikt-beuren, the poems were published in 1847 and the music composed in 1935-36.

"Carmina Burana" is one of the most difficult choral works ever written, and this performance should be a real experience for performers and audience alike, according to the conductor, Leonard Riccinto.

The admission is $1 for adults and 50 cents for students. Tickets are available at the door and from any choir or orchestra member.

Woods Police Receive Commendatory Letters

The Woods Department of Public Safety received a number of commendatory letters during March including the following:

• From Detective Sergeant Joel Gorzen, Department of State Police, St. Clair. "While investigating the recovery of a stolen automobile on our complaint, I had the occasion to refer information to your department, initiating your investigation on the complaint."

"I was very impressed with the speedy response and the professional and intelligent investigation conducted by your department. The investigation resulted in the arrests of several persons involved in auto larcenies. "I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your men's assistance to my department and myself, and especially Detective Theodore Hinz of your Detective Bureau for his able assistance and courtesy afforded me."

• From a St. Clair Shores resident regarding a bicycle violation issued to her son by Public Safety Officer William Duster. "Thank you for being on the ball. I'm sure our boy will learn and remember by this mistake. "Guess he was on a scenic bike ride through your beautiful neighborhood on his new bike and just got a little carried away. We had a talk with him, and I'm sure it won't happen again. Thank you for being so nice in correcting him."

• Two letters from Sergeant R. D. Cory, Police-School Resource Bureau, Investigations Division; one each to Youth Service Division Agents Michael Ferrence and John Kendall.

To Agent Ferrence: "Just a little note to let you know how appreciative we are of the cordial hospitality that you provided us when we visited your department. My officers and myself benefited much from the information you were able to pass on to us and the expertise that you show in your field will obviously assist our officers in their programs."

To Agent Kendall regarding his presentation at Pierce Junior High School. "The hospitality you provided for us was greatly appreciated. If all the departments in the State had this type of rapport with each other, you could just imagine the progress we could make. It was interesting to see the excellent rapport you have with the school faculty and students."

• From Constance Frederick, of Torrey road, to Public Safety Director Henry Marchand regarding the recent Donkey ball game at North High School. "Please accept the warm thanks of the adult committee for Foreign Exchange for your help at our Donkey Basketball game. Everything went so well and the effort on the part of the police team was just great!

"I only wish all of the officers could have heard the comments of our foreign students, (56 in all), about the incredible sight of American police officers taking part in something like the basketball game with such a willingness and spirit. They were amazed and impressed. "Will you please convey our gratitude also to Steve Triner and Jim Colby for filling in so well to help us with our effort."

Judge Paterson Holds Court

City Municipal Judge Douglas Paterson held court on Tuesday, April 20. Four defendants were found guilty, one case was dismissed, one case taken under advisement and three warrants were signed.

Francis Kane, 1357 Lenox, Detroit, pled guilty to charges of careless driving and driving against traffic. She was found guilty on both counts and fined $125.

Lavon Hobson, 2968 Drexel, Detroit, stood mute to a charge of disorderly person. She was found guilty, put on six months probation and fined $100 or 30 days in DeHoCo (Detroit House of Correction).

James McNulty, 21301 Newcastle, Harper Woods, pled guilty and was found guilty of careless driving. The fine of $15 was suspended.

Road Quint, 1540 Hawthorne road, pled guilty and was found guilty of speeding. He was fined $25 or three days in DeHoCo and put on three months probation.

Bruce Davenport, 16930 Village lane, charged with careless driving, failed to appear in court. A warrant was signed for his arrest.

William Cotant, 27124 Neddell, Trenton, who was charged with speeding, failed to appear in court. A warrant was signed for his arrest.

Neil Johnson, 282 Hillcrest road, who was charged with driving with improper equipment and without a driver's license or registration, failed to appear in court. A warrant also was signed for his arrest.

Lawyers Wives to Give Awards on May 1

The Grosse Pointe Lawyers Wives, a branch of the Lawyers Wives of Michigan, will celebrate Law Day, Tuesday, May 1, by granting a citizens award to those Pointers whose contribution most aided the work of the Police Departments.

Nominees were received by Police Departments in the five Pointers from June 1, 1972, through April 15, 1973.

The awards were established to involve adults, as well as children, in the community by aiding the work of the police officers.

Judging this year's nominees were the Honorable Dorothy Comstock Riley, Wayne County Circuit Judge; Reverend Gene Locke, pastor of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, and Richard Kay, director of employee relations in the Grosse Pointe School System.

Chairmen of the award committee are Grosse Pointe Lawyers Wives members Mrs. William Killebrew and Mrs. Stephen Chorny.

Mrs. David H. Williams IV, president of the Grosse

Pointe Lawyers Wives, will present the awards to the winning nominees on May 1 at 8 p.m. at the Grosse Pointe Municipal building.

Following the presentation, refreshments will be served. The entire community is invited to attend the ceremonies.

Friends School Plans Art Night
The Friends School in Detroit is sponsoring an art benefit entitled "Nostalgia Night at Belle Isle Casino" on Saturday, May 5, from 8 to 12 p.m.

The benefit will provide an opportunity for patrons of the arts to view and purchase the works of 35 prominent Detroit artists.

The evening will also feature Howard Hanger's Jazz Combo providing musical entertainment.

Marshall Fredericks' "Boy on Bear" bronze statue will be given away as a door prize.

Ticket donation is $5. Ticket sales and sale commissions go to the support of the Friends School grant-in-aid program.

Mrs. Robert C. Hutchinson, of Grand Marais boulevard, is a member of the Steering Committee and may be reached at 499-3534 for ticket requests.

For more information, contact Dean Acheson at 962-1588.

Set Activities for Summer

Will the "Summer of '73" be remembered or forgotten? If you'd like to remember it as a time of growth and pleasure, the Neighborhood Club suggests you enroll in one of its activities.

For 3- and 4-year-olds there are morning play camps. Session I, (June 18-July 20), has openings in the Monday-Tuesday-Thursday classes. Session II, (July 23-Aug. 23), has openings in both the Monday-Wednesday and the Tuesday-Thursday morning classes.

The 5- and 6-year-old play camps have opening in the afternoon classes during both sessions. The fees are $30 for three day camps and $20 for two day camps.

A new approach to summer day camp for 7-12 year olds is being presented this year. Knowing how active this age group is the Club is offering a games camp Tuesday, Wednesday-Thursday mornings from 9-12 noon at Brownell Middle School. This camp will offer instruction and participation in a broad group of physical skills to both boys and girls.

Some of the activities offered are tumbling, gymnastics, trampolining, arts and crafts, floor hockey, softball, T-Ball, volleyball, newcomb, basketball, nature study and soccer. The fee is $30 for one child or $50 for a family.

Softball for boys will be offered on Monday-Wednesday afternoons for 9-12-year-old boys and on Tuesday-Thursday afternoons for 13-15-year-olds. Teams will be formed and games played until the end of July. The fee is $5.

Other activities available are sewing, softball for women, women's golf clinic, tennis clinic for men, tennis clinics for women and children, golf for teens, horseback riding, tumbling for beginners and girls' and women's exercise classes.

Contact the Neighborhood Club, 885-4800, for registration information. Act now because enrollments are limited, reports the club.

Peace Lutheran Sets China Talk

Martha Steehart, of Huntington road, president of the Evening Group of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League at Peace Lutheran Church, East Warren avenue at Balfour road, and Mrs. Jack Younke of Kenmore drive, Christian Growth chairman, have planned an "Evening in China" for the group at its Tuesday, May 1 meeting. Activities begin at 7:30 p.m.

The speakers will be Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bruss who spent a number of years teaching in Hong Kong. Mr. Bruss was formerly an English teacher and department head at Concordia Lutheran High School, Hong Kong, and Mrs. Bruss, who is a native of Australia, was a former missionary in deaf education in Hong Kong.

To Show Three Films Tonight

An ideal way to spend one evening during Easter vacation is to attend the Family Film Forum. Three color films will be shown Thursday, April 26, at the Central Library, 10 Kercheval avenue. Show time is 7:30 p.m. for the hour-long program.

"Aged Land" presents an insight into the modern Greek's personality in relation to his ancient heritage. Narrated in a poetic style, the film concentrates on the people in the farming and fishing villages, showing them at work and play.

"New York, New York," is a panoramic view of New York by Francis Thompson, who uses glowing abstract images to portray a typical day in this fascinating city.

"Riding the Waves" is an inviting picture of water skiing, swimming and sailing in the area of the Killarney Lakes, and Lake Winnipeg in Manitoba, Can.

This film series is co-sponsored by the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library and the Grosse Pointe Public Library. For additional information, ask at the circulation desk or call the Audio-Visual Department of the Central Library, TU 4-2200.

U-LS Hockey Team Tie Swiss

For the past two years, University-Liggett School families have enjoyed a skiing trip to St. Moritz, Switzerland, during the school's spring vacation.

This year, however, ice hockey was added to the vacation agenda. Eight members from the U-LS Pee Wee, Bantam and Varsity hockey teams, coached by U-LS parent Jack Hastings, played two games against the Swiss teams of St. Moritz and Davos, Switzerland. Mr. Hastings is the regular coach for the U-LS Pee Wee team.

The U-LS members, whose ages ranged from 10 to 15 years, had only six practices as a team, four prior to their departure Thursday, March 8, and two before the first contest. However, despite this disadvantage, the U-LS team managed to tie both games, 4-4 and 5-5. The games were held on the Olympic Ice Rink in St. Moritz.

U-LS Headmaster Raymond P. Robbins, who originated the spring European trips, expressed his hope something could develop to make the hockey exchange a reality for next year, too.

Before and after the games, ceremonies were held and members from both teams exchanged gifts. U-LS members presented the Swiss team members with trophies of the crossed flags of the two countries and mechanical pencils with the school's name on them. In return, they received a beautiful red, blue and gold Swiss banner.

Outside the ceremonies, the boys swapped jerseys and sticks as the Swiss are very enthusiastic about American hockey teams. Posters, autographed by one of the greatest hockey stars, Gordie Howe, and Red Wing patches also were sent to the Swiss team after the U-LS team arrived back in the States.

The students who participated in the games were Larry Buhl, David Hansen, Rick Fruehauf, Jon Wardwell, Tom Matthews, John and Tom Hastings and Kris Robbins.

Key-73 Sunday Set for May 6

At the Tuesday, April 3, general meeting of the Key-73 endeavor of Grosse Pointe, it was decided that Sunday, May 6, should be called "Key-73 Sunday."

The purpose of designating this date is to encourage members to bring a non-church family or lax member with them to worship.

In addition, all the churches of The Pointe are asked to use the hymn, "The Churches One Foundation," as part of their worship on the 6th to show their unity of feeling that Christ is the basis of the church.

The Key-73 endeavor will continue to hold general meetings on the first Tuesday of each month.

Co-Sponsors Repayment Bill

Fourteenth District Congressman Lucien N. Nedzi, (D., Mich.), has co-sponsored legislation calling upon the Treasury Department to begin making arrangements for the repayment of an estimated $46 billion in outstanding debts owed to the United States by foreign nations.

The first requirement of the legislation, H. Con. Res. 191, would be that the Treasury give Congress a detailed report on exactly how much money is owed. The report would be due within 90 days after passage of the resolution.

Once the Treasury supplies this information, it would be required to start making arrangements for repayment with those countries which owe money.

Of the estimated $46 billion, some $18 billion is owed from World War I. Congressman Lester Wolff, (D., N.Y.), the principal sponsor of the resolution, recently asserted France owes over $6 billion and Great Britain in excess of $8.5 billion from that war alone.

"The United States spends billions of dollars every year to help other countries," Congressman Nedzi said, "and now we are simply asking that nations we have loaned money to over the years to repay us."

Austin Players To Give Musical

The Austin Players will present the Broadway musical "Once Upon a Mattress" on Saturday, May 5, and Sunday, May 6, at 8 p.m. in the Pierce Middle School Auditorium, Kercheval avenue at Ballfour road.

The play first appeared on Broadway starring Carol Burnett and is based on the fairy tale "The Princess and the Pea." It is filled with music, magic and dance.

The Players, in their 15th season, are aided in the production by students from Our Lady Star of the Sea.

Tickets are $1.50 and may be purchased at the door. The public is invited to attend.

Slate Women's Rights Forum

A Legal Rights of Women Forum has been scheduled for Thursday, May 10, at 8 p.m. at the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church, 17150 Mauvee avenue.

The purpose of the gathering is to inform women of their legal rights under present legislation and under the proposed Equal Rights Amendment.

Attorney Dolores Tripp will head the meeting. Ms. Tripp is a graduate of the Wayne State University Law School and former legal counsel with the Michigan Civil Rights Commission.

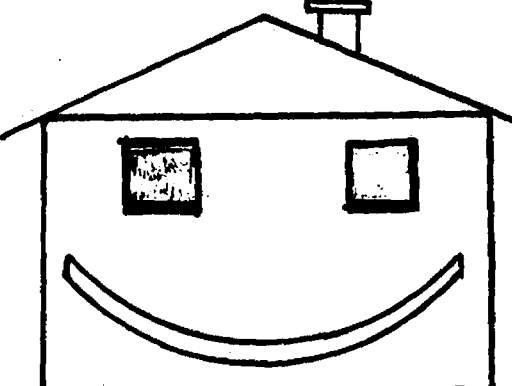

She is presently a hearing examiner for the State of Michigan and specializes in cases involving juveniles. In addition, she is the chairperson for the Legal Committee of the National Organization of Women (NOW).

Ms. Tripp will answer questions such as will the Equal Rights Amendment destroy the family, will it end protective legislation, will it require women to be drafted and does a woman's marital status affect her rights regarding credit, housing, employment and equal pay? Ms.

Tripp also will answer questions from the audience.

The forum is co-sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Branch of the American Association of University Women, the Grosse Pointe Inter-Faith Center for Racial Justice and the Grosse Pointe Chapter of the League of Women Voters. Women of all ages are urged to attend.

To Honor Many Pointers in Phi Beta Kappa May 3

Phi Beta Kappa Association of Detroit will honor 1,325 high school seniors from the Detroit area at their 25th annual presentation of certificates and honors convocation Thursday, May 3, at 7:30 p.m. in the Ford Auditorium. John J. Riccardo of Birmingham, president of Chrysler Corporation, will be the principal speaker. Mr. Riccardo is a Phi Beta Kappa with bachelor and master degrees from the University of Michigan. Clarence C. Freeman of Birmingham, vice-president of the scholastic honor society, will introduce Mr. Riccardo.

Mrs. Lawrence Smith of Birmingham, president of the Detroit Association of Phi Beta Kappa, will give the welcoming address. Sister Xaveria Barton of Marygrove College, treasurer, will present the certificates to the students. Closing remarks will be made by honors convocation secretary, Steven Taylor of Southfield.

During the past 25 years the Detroit Association of Phi Beta Kappa has given certificates to approximately 15,000 Detroit area high school students. When the honors convocation program began in 1948, 250 graduates from 19 Detroit high schools were honored.

This year 1,325 scholars from 105 public, private and parochial high schools in the metropolitan Detroit area will receive certificates in recognition of having achieved at least a 3.7 average during the 10th, 11th and 12th grades. They also maintained a good citizenship rating during the years.

The Detroit Association, with a current membership of 560, was founded 36 years ago and is open to anyone elected to Phi Beta Kappa. It is the only organization in United States to present certificate awards to high school seniors of a metropolitan area in recognition of high character and academic excellence.

Among the students from the Grosse Pointe area to be honored are: Austin: Mark Carver, Gary Catlin and Brian Craig.

Grosse Pointe South: Randolph Barker, Deborah Bowerman, Jane Burnham, Denise Carty, Martha Dasef, Robert Diehl, Don'a Gares, Suzanne Henke, Mary Hoerschmeyer, Cynthia Hoffman, Karen King, Deborah Lane, Cathy Lavins, Deborah Makos, Dorothy Malloy, Kevin Miller, Patricia Miller, Laura Neeme, Cynthia Rabaut, Elizabeth Rohr, Diane Swanson, James Tompkins, Jeffrey Wehmeyer and Therese Wilson.

Our Lady of the Sea students include Judy Grob, Christine Lamote and Monica Mofa. Nancy Glander from University-Liggett will be honored as well as Jeannine Timm of the Woods, a student at Lutheran East, and Barbara Day of the Park, a student at Dominican High School.

PROMOTED
Republic Automotive Parts, Inc., of St. Clair Shores announces the promotion of Frederic S. Kotcher, of Merriweather road, to corporate controller, according to Steven S. Gordon, president. Ferry Scouts 'Zip' in Derby Parents, sisters, brothers and well-wishers crammed the Ferry School gymnasium Wednesday, April 18, to watch Cub Scouts of Pack No. 34 compete in the annual Pinewood Derby.

Hand-crafted model cars raced down two four-lane tracks to the cheers of some 150 spectators. Race chairman Jim Gilligan, of Perrien place, opened the competition with 70 entries.

Each homemade model began as a block of pine. The wood was carved, sanded and sleekly styled into individual designs. Then it was painted, the axles polished and the wheels slicked for speed.

Timothy Bodendistel, of Roslyn road, was the grand champion of the Derby. Runners-up in the final heat were Jeffrey Mika, of Aline drive, and Daniel Wishart, of North Brys drive. And a special cup was awarded to David Simon for best appearance and design.

Winners in the Webelo group were Daniel Wishart, Rhys Roberts, and Chris McLeod. Jeffrey Mika, Jeffrey Belote and Russell Mann won top three honors in the Bear category. Wolf winners were Timothy Bodendistel, Matthew Wishart and Daniel Setchell.

Competition between the Den Chiefs, scout aides, produced the following winners: Harry Heliotis, Fred Metzler and Jens Mammen.

Former Michigan State tennis star and Junior Davis Cup player Jim Symington has been appointed the new professional at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club.

Mr. Symington will assume his post Tuesday, May 1, with responsibility for all aspects of the court program at what is now one of the largest private indoor and outdoor tennis complexes in the area.

He takes the place of Joe Felice, who has resigned to join a new tennis house under construction in Beverly Hills, Mich.

Mr. Symington, who will be 23 in September, has had national junior rankings since 1968, the year he first played on the Junior Davis Cup team. Since graduation from MSU, he has combined teaching at Lansing, Cranbrook and Square Lake clubs with graduate study toward a law degree.

To Preach Last Sermon Apr. 29

On Sunday, April 29, the Reverend A. H. A. Loeber, pastor of Messiah Lutheran Church, 14320 Kercheval avenue, southeast corner of Lakewood avenue, Detroit, will preach his "Farewell Sermon." The 83-year-old pastor is retiring after having served his congregation for over 60 and a half consecutive years — ever since his ordination and installation of Messiah Lutheran's Congregation on August 18, 1912, when he was 22 years old.

The "Farewell Sermon" will be preached at 10:15 a.m. and it will be followed by a hot buffet dinner limited by reservation immediately afterward in the church basement.

Messiah Congregation cordially invites members, former members, and their friends to honor Pastor Loeber with their attendance.

Notre Dame to Give Woody Allen Comedy

Notre Dame High School Footlighters will present Woody Allen's comedy "Don't Drink the Water" on two Saturdays, May 5 and 12, and two Sundays, May 6 and 13, at 8 p.m.

The production will be given in the Regina High School Auditorium, 20200 Kelly road, Harper Woods. Tickets, priced at $1.50 and $1 for students, are available at the door. The public is welcome.

One View From The Capitol
 By William R. Bryant, Jr.

The State School Aid bill has now passed the Senate and is in our House Education Committee. Passage in the House will be a very complicated, possibly lengthy process because there are many members proposing new formulae for aid. The only real question for the Grosse Pointe School System is—will they get zero dollars or will it take dollars away.

Types of Aid

There are two types of school aid, general membership and aid for categorical programs like special and vocational education. None of the formulae being considered will give our schools any general membership aid. Some, however, give categorical aid and some give it and then take it away again.

S.B. 110 is the bill being used as the vehicle for school aid. As of now, it guarantees a yield of $38 per pupil per mill up to 22 mills. When a mill raises $38 or more locally, no State aid is given. Grosse Pointe expects no aid under this formula.

But, S.B. 110, as it now reads, gives us some substantial categorical aid.

Two Formulae

There are basically two alternative formulae being pushed. One would drastically reduce all our available revenue, even local, and the other would take away our categorical aid.

The first is Representative George Montgomery's formula. It would wipe out all but 3.3 voted mills and eight non-voted mills, and the eight mills would go to the State.

We would get $750 per pupil plus categorical aid from the State and $125 per pupil locally raised "enrichment." The effect on our schools would be instant elimination of excellence. Representative Bob Crim is proposing another approach, which after three years would be a State aid formula of $1,050 per pupil minus revenue from all local millage. To the extent local millage raises more than $1,050 per pupil he would take away categorical aid. The effect on our schools if we maintained current millage would be to stop all forms of State aid. If we reduced millage, we would be limited in effect to $1,050 per pupil, about a 20 per cent cut in program. It is a confusing — and dangerous picture.

Slate Hearing On City Budget

The Grosse Pointe City Council approved the recommendation that a public hearing on the proposed 1973-1974 fiscal year budget be set for Tuesday, May 14, at 4 p.m. in the Council Chambers. This action was taken at the Monday, April 16, meeting of the council.

Due to flood prevention, administration and other priority projects, the budget is still in the process of preparation and reproduction. Copies will be available about a week before the public hearing. They also will be distributed to members of the City Council. Members will review it during the month of May so it may be adopted at the Monday, May 21, council meeting.

What Goes On at Your Library
 By Virginia Leonard

Let's go back again to mentioning some of the new books which we are adding to our collection. First, there is a new novel by Ethel Gordon, entitled THE CHAPTER ONE — a Gothic, romantic suspense novel. A country farm in the south of France and the running of an inn under mysterious circumstances give the story a fresh background. The central situation is unusual and the heroine interesting.

The author is a "cum laude" graduate from New York University. She and her husband have traveled extensively, and now live with their young son in Long Island Beach, Long Island. Ethel Gordon is currently at work on a new novel.

Are you tired of hearing of Ireland? We doubt it, as it has been in the news lately. The whole country always holds a romantic attraction, especially if the reader has a drop or two of Irish blood in him. We do have a new book on the subject: STATES OF IRELAND, by Connor Cruise O'Brien.

The author rejects romantic nationalism. What he really sees is the reality of suffering, and he cries out passionately for the reality of a simple human response to all the violence and suffering. He hopes people will listen to him, but he doubts, forlornly, that they will. He is, of course, asking a lot of the Irish — an acknowledgment that their history, their beliefs, their public thoughts about themselves are significantly wrong. Now, as an historian, he has made an outstanding contribution to the demythologizing of Irish history. It seems to me that we need a book like this.

Another new novel is June Goodfield's COURIER TO PEKING. It involves an international scientific meeting held in Peking during the summer of 1971 — a meeting which coincides with arrangements being made in Washington for a presidential assistant's visits to Mainland China. We have a series of unexpected incidents, compounded by intrigue and conspiracy and culminating in murder. This is a fast-moving thriller, and balances a delicate relationship between science and government. Like THE ANDROMEDA STRAIN, this is an exciting novel with an unmistakable ring of scientific authenticity.

The author, June Goodfield, has written several scientific works, has taught at Harvard and Wellesley College, and is currently a visiting professor at Michigan State University.

A very lovely book is VICTORIA ILLUSTRATED, 1857 and 1862. These are engravings from the original editions by S. T. Gill and N. Chevallier. The engravings are a graphic record of what is perhaps the most colorful period of Australian history — the gold rush. These golden years, from 1851 to 1862, represent faithfully an era. They are assembled in two volumes (here combined) and presented as VICTORIA ILLUSTRATED.

The first volume was illustrated by Gill, and his pictures are rich in social history. They depict, mainly, the men and women of the gold rush days and can be compared to the great English sketcher, Thomas Rowlandson. The second edition of this book appeared five years later, and it is known that Nicholas Chevallier did some of the illustrations. It is truly an interesting volume.

Since narcotics are a most timely topic, it is good to know that we can supply you with LICIT AND ILLICIT DRUGS, by E. M. Brecher. It is the Consumers Union report on narcotics, stimulants, depressants, inhalants, hallucinogens, and marijuana — including caffeine, nicotine and alcohol. This report originated five years ago in a growing conviction that the illicit drug scene in the United States was rapidly becoming intolerable. Some feel that it is the most comprehensive and definitive work ever written on the pharmacology, history and sociology of psychoactive, (mind-affecting) drugs in our society.

Another subject of great interest is represented by THE COMPLETE ECOLOGY FACT BOOK, edited by Philip Noble and John Deedy. In spite of today's wide-spread concern for ecology, the facts about the threats to the environment remain largely unknown and unavailable to the non-specialist, scattered throughout thousands of books, papers and official reports. The book brings together such hard-to-find information for the first time in a simple, comprehensive compilation of ecology statistics, gathered from the United Nations, United States government, private industry, foundations and individual sources, illustrated with 21 maps and 121 tables and figures.

This book should be a real treasure for those so deeply interested in our ecological problems.

The Wm. R. Hamilton Company is in its second century of service to Detroit area families.

This tradition has developed through several generations of funeral service and now extends well into its second century. In most instances, The Wm. R. Hamilton Co. has served the same family for years. In others, new families of the area have turned to Hamilton in time of need. All know or find that the prestige, tradition and quality of a funeral at Hamilton's costs no more.

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Kathy Duff

May must be the month for a night at the track. Two prestigious women's organizations, Sigma Gamma Association and the Assistance League for the Northeast Guidance Center, are actually going out to the Wolverine Harness Raceway at the beginning of May for a racy evening complete with round-trip booze buses and dinners in the track clubhouse.

The Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra decided to do it somewhat differently. They have invited their members and friends to a Kentucky Derby Dinner Dance on Saturday night, May 5, at the Detroit Golf Club. Its stated purpose is to thank all of the members of the Association for a year of hard work and to celebrate a successful year.

Carrying out the theme of a night at the track is an invitation so much like a racing form that some Detroit area bookies might receive strange calls as the Friday, April 27, reply date draws near.

The night of the party, the entrance of the Detroit Golf Club will be graced with a horseshoe of roses to get the evening off to a fast start. Tables will be named after winners of the Derby.

The evening starts with a cocktail hour at 6 o'clock, and dinner will be served at 8 o'clock. Music will be provided by the Austin-Moro Band, and informal dress is suggested.

Mrs. Don Stanitzke, of Merriweather road, is serving as general chairman; Mrs. John Burrows, of Westchester road, is acting as patrons chairman.

Pointers who have already placed their acceptances in the mail to show Saturday night include Dr. and Mrs. Kim Lie, Mr. and Mrs. John Fildew, and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Mebus.

Incidentally, for those of you who are wondering, the Junior Women's annual dance was named the Carnation Ball in past years.

Luncheon Launches Project Hope

More than 1,200 invitations are being written and sent this week to the supporters of the Women's Division of Project Hope for its upcoming annual fund-raiser, The Ports-O-Call Ball.

Mrs. Jerome P. Johannigman, of Canterbury road, entertained her committee yesterday, Wednesday, April 25, with a luncheon at the Lochmoor Club. However, there was a string attached, as the ladies wrote the 1,200 invitations that afternoon.

Pointe women who helped on the committee, who are probably suffering from writer's cramp today, include Mrs. Russell Bauer, Mrs. Frank Colombo, Mrs. Harvey Dixon, Mrs. Frank Germack, Mrs. Thomas Girardy, Mrs. Arthur Pfannenschmidt, Mrs. James Quello, Mrs. Herman Sattler and Mrs. George Simon.

The charity dinner-dance will be held on Thursday, May 31. Mrs. Robert Pastor, of Birmingham, is serving as General Chairman.

SISTER BARBARA HENDRICKS, daughter of MRS. MARGUERITE HENDRICKS, of Pemberton road, president of the Maryknoll Sisters community, is one of 155 Maryknoll Sisters celebrating their silver jubilee in 1973. Sister Barbara is currently a Detroit missionary who spent 17 years in Latin America. Founded in 1912, the Maryknoll Congregation is the first American missionary community of women to be established in the U.S. There are 1,128 sisters of whom there are 725 serving in Africa, Asia and Latin America, the largest contingent of American sister-missionaries from any one organization.

DR. ROBERT A. SONGE, of Carmel lane, and DR. DAVID P. CORBETT, of Moran road, were recently honored for their outstanding work in medicine and for their contribution to radiology by being named Fellows of their medical association, the American College of Radiology. Both doctors were cited at a convocation during the college's 50th annual meeting in San Francisco. DR. SONGE is a 1954 graduate of the University of Wisconsin School of Medicine, while DR. CORBETT is a 1956 graduate of the Wayne State University School of Medicine.

Named to the Academic Honors List of Ferris State College in Big Rapids, Mich., are KENNETH KERBER, of Westchester road; JEFFREY P. STEFFEN, of University place; and HIEDI A. WALKOWIAK, of Yorktown road. To receive the honor, students must earn at least a 3.25 grade point average out of a possible 4.0.

Judith's award includes round-trip air fare Detroit-to-Paris, six weeks residence in Paris and paid tuition for six weeks study at the Alliance Francaise Internationale School of French Language and Civilization.

the sergeant was selected for his leadership, exemplary conduct and duty performance. He serves with the USAF Orientation Group, a part of the Air Force Logistics Command which provides supplies and equipment for Air Force units. His wife, JANE, is the daughter of MRS. DONALD RINES, Sr., of Manor avenue.

DR. GEORGE C. FREDERICKSON, of Oxford road, won angling recognition in the Metropolitan Miami Fishing Tournament when he caught a 22-lb. kingfish in the light tackle division and a 45 lb. amberjack in the spin casting division. He will receive a citation for his catch. He also earned a Sportsmanship Award when he caught and released one amberjack and 16 barracuda. MRS. FREDERICKSON earned a Sportsmanship Award when she caught and released one blue fin tuna, six barracuda, and one jack. They were fishing out of Islamorada.

Members of Environmental Action Now (EAN), and Concern representative, MRS. TOM KILLEFER, of Provençal road, recently attended a seminar sponsored by the Macomb Daily Newspapers and Concern, Inc., a consumer education organization, in Mt. Clemens. Communication between environmentally concerned citizens, their elected officials and the newspaper media was the focus of the meeting. The agenda also included reports on State and County land use proposals and on the various community projects supported by volunteer groups throughout the area.

Among the six Wayne State University faculty members who will spend the summer studying the quality of life in metropolitan Detroit is DR. BRYAN THOMPSON, of Barrington road, an assistant professor of geography. They will analyze the job market, the quality of the environment, the ethnic populations among other factors which determine Detroit's character. Announcement of the project was made by DR. RONALD W. HAUGHTON, of Cloverly road, WSU vice-president for urban affairs.

The Detroit Women's Symphony presented the last concert of its 26th season on Friday, April 20, at 8:30 p.m. in the Rackham Memorial Auditorium. Highlighting the evening's program, which included works of Britten and Schubert, was a performance of Stravinski's L'Histoire du Soldat, the classic tale of a man who sells his soul to the devil. VIRGINIA CATANESE, of Brys drive, is president and manager of the Society whose concert was presented through the support of the Michigan Council for the Arts and the Music Performance Trust Funds.

Pledging Gamma Xi Chapter of Alpha Chi Omega Sorority at Western Michigan University, were CHRIS LARSEN, daughter of MR. and MRS. JOHN W. LARSEN, of Barrington road; KATIE PHILLIP, daughter of MR. and MRS. PHILIP J. PHILLIP, JR., of McKinley road; and JANET BIERMAN, daughter of MR. and MRS. RAYMOND B. BIERMAN, of Blairmore court.

University of Michigan senior, JOHN J. KELLY, JR., appeared in the Gilbert and Sullivan Society presentation of the operetta Princess Ida on Wednesday through Saturday, April 4 to 7. John, a 1969 graduate of South High School, will graduate this summer from the Residential College at the University as an intern in Hospital Administration. He will be employed by the Veterans Administration Hospital in Ann Arbor prior to entering graduate studies in the Department of Public Health.

Honored for scholastic excellence Wednesday, April 18, at Indiana University's Founder's Day program on the Bloomington campus was JANET S. CROSSEN, of Tonnancour place; KATHLEEN L. CROSSEN, also of Tonnancour place; and GAIL M. SATTLER, of Oxford road. Each of the students earned a grade point average above 3.5.

ALISON WEAR, the daughter of MR. and MRS. ALLAN WEAR, of Saddle lane, is a new member of the Delphi sorority. She is a freshman at Hope College, Holland, Mich.

Sigma Gamma Sets Night at the Track

Sigma Gamma Association will host An Evening at Wolverine Harness Raceway on Friday, May 4. The evening will begin at the Country Club polo field where guests will board buses headed for the race track.

Tickets are priced at $15 and include transportation, admission, cocktails and dinner at windowside tables where guests will view the races. The event is open to friends of Sigma Gamma, not only the membership, and reservations may be secured through Mrs. Gordon T. Ford, of Kercheval avenue.

Proceeds from the event are earmarked for the Research and Education Department of the Detroit Orthopaedic Clinic which is the main project of Sigma Gamma.

The women's association was founded in 1904 by a group of school girls who wanted to help in child welfare. Their objective became, and remains today, the therapy, education, social adjustment and clinical care of orthopaedically handicapped children.

The group originally funded the entire operation of the clinic before it became an agency of the United Foundation and United Community Services which now provide 80 percent of the operating funds.

The clinic's Research and Education Department remains funded by the Association. Its objectives are to work with the medical staff in evaluating surgical and medical procedures and to study existing methods of treatment and try to improve upon them for use in the clinic.

The results of all studies are prepared for publication in medical and technical journals. Reprints have been requested by institutions in 20 countries.

Last year's benefit at the race track netted a substantial donation to the Clinic, and Sigma Gamma members are looking forward to an equally good turnout this year.

The evening at Wolverine Harness Raceway is limited to 150 guests, so persons should send in their reservations immediately to Mrs. Ford, party chairman. Tickets, as well as set-ups, will be distributed on the bus.

Auxiliary to Host Dinner-Dance Fete

Saturday Night, May 12, Gala Affair is Named After Maia, the Roman Goddess for Spring And Growth

"All work and no play" is definitely not the motto for the Women's Auxiliary to Cottage Hospital. Although many of the ladies are deeply involved with the planning of the first major fund-raising event of the season, the Kitchen and Family Room Tour, another small band is now organizing a "just for fun" evening.

Under the co-chairmanship of Mrs. Warren Jollymore and Mrs. James St. Denis, plans are shaping up for the Annual Dinner Dance of the Women's Auxiliary to Cottage Hospital to be held Saturday, May 12, at the Grosse Pointe Club.

Cottage Hospital Board members, staff doctors, Auxiliaries and their husbands and wives will gather at seven o'clock for cocktails, with dinner at 8:30 p.m. Dancing to the music of the George Alfano orchestra will follow dinner and continue until one o'clock in the morning. Dress is optional.

Decorations chairman Mrs. Ramafis Fahim is dreaming up ways to carry out the party theme "Maia Bash." It should be quite a decorations scheme as Maia was the Roman goddess for spring and growth.

The annual affair continues to grow in popularity each year since it is one of the few occasions for these Cottage Hospital workers to hide uniforms, try to forget shop talk, and simply make new acquaintances and renew old ones. It also gives spouses a chance to see the faces behind the names they have been hearing.

Reservations for the gala evening are being taken by chairman Mrs. Virgil Goodman through Monday, May 7.

PAMELA J. RINI, daughter of MR. and MRS. JOHN V. RINI, of Robert John road, was among those recently honored at the 25th Honors Convocation at Eastern Michigan University. Mr. and Mrs. Rini recently attended the graduation ceremonies at Eastern when their son, RICHARD, received his Master's degree in Psychology.

Cottage Ladies Plan 'Maia Bash'

How can anyone look this happy facing the task of hand-addressing several hundred invitations? However, this was the scene at Elm-sleigh lane home of MRS. WARREN R. JOLLYMORE, (far left), on a recent sunny day as committee members of the "Maia Bash," the annual dinner dance sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary to Cottage Hospital, gathered for their day's work. Mrs. Jollymore, chairman of the event to be held Saturday, May 12 at the Grosse Pointe Club, is being assisted by, (left to right), MRS. VIRGIL P. GOODMAN, reservations chairman; MRS. JAMES ST. DENIS, dinner dance co-chairman; and MRS. RAMAFIS FAHIM, decorations chairman.

Louisa St. Clair DAR Schedules Full Meeting

At the regular meeting of Louisa St. Clair Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution to be held today, Thursday, April 26, at 10:30 a.m., in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, Pointers Mrs. Robert O. Artner; Mrs. Norman L. Parker, State corresponding secretary; Mrs. Cornelius G. Egan; Mrs. B. T. Weyhing III and Mrs. George C. Hofmeister will give an oral report on the 82nd Continental Congress of the National Society DAR held Sunday, April 15, to Friday, April 20 at Constitution Hall in Washington, D.C.

Mrs. Maxwell E. Hunt, regent, will discuss the accreditation given to the DAR Museum in Washington D.C. by the American Association of Museums. The adjoining DAR Memorial Continental Hall was also honored by being given a bronze plaque designating it an historic landmark. The plaque, accepted by the National Society of the DAR, was conferred by Dr. A. R. Mortensen of the National Park Service.

Mrs. Robert C. Palmer will give a lecture on "Over a Century of Quilts".

Others attending from the Pointe area included Mrs. Grant E. Evans, Mrs. Frederick W. Dettlinger, Jr., Mrs. George F. Ryeckman, and Mrs. Edgar A. Hahn.

U-LS to Exhibit Porcelain

Pointers will have the opportunity to see a replica of the world-famous seven-foot "Bird of Peace" Mute Swans porcelain, which President Nixon presented to Mao Tse Tung on his recent trip to China, when the sculptures will be exhibited without charge at a University-Liggett School public showing on Sunday, April 29.

At 2 p.m. on the University Campus, Mrs. Edward Boehm will present a lecture about the porcelains. Following the lecture and until 4 p.m., the public is invited to attend a reception and view the Boehm exhibit.

Since his beginning in 1951, Edward Marshall Boehm's porcelains have gained increasing renown. Three sculptures are exhibited in the Metropolitan Museum in New York. Queen Elizabeth owns several works, as does the Pope, and President Nixon has ten pieces.

Mr. Boehm began by creating what he knew best, farm animals, and in 1951, his wife set out to increase his reputation as a sculptor. By 1954, a Boehm sculpture, a Hereford bull, was presented to Mamie Eisenhower. Mr. Eisenhower was one of five presidents for whom Boehm sculptures were modeled.

In 1969, the year of her husband's death, Helen Boehm was invited to decorate the White House Oval Room with Boehm birds. President Nixon wanted a new peace bird, not a dove.

The final choice was the mute swan, noted for its serenity. Two years later the 250 pound "Bird of Peace" porcelain was completed. It became the gift which, on behalf of the American people, President Nixon presented to Mao Tse Tung during last February's visit. Thus, this magnificent example of an ancient art returned to its birthplace carrying new promise.

Porcelain was first produced by the Chinese more than 1000 years ago from a mixture of special clays which could be fired at very high temperatures and emerge in strong, delicate shapes.

The Chinese formula remained a secret until an 18th Century German potter solved the puzzle. Mr. Boehm threw himself into the study of this hard-cast porcelain and found his own 52-step process for porcelain.

In addition to her duties as chairman of Edward Marshall Boehm, Inc., Mrs. Boehm is a noted lecturer and a member of many civic organizations.

Over the last two years, the Boehm studio has completed two other pairs of the swans. The second pair is for the White House and the third is for exhibition in the United States.

University-Liggett School invites the public to come and hear the lecture and view the third pair of the "Bird of Peace" Mute Swans and other sculptures.

JAMES H. WAGNER, Eastern Michigan University senior, son of MR. and MRS. LAWRENCE A. WAGNER, of Newcastle road, has been awarded a $1,000 Jessie Dillman Music Scholarship. James, who is a pianist and composer, is also accompanist for the EMU Madrigal Singers who will tour England for the month of June. He will begin graduate study at Eastern next fall.

Mount Holyoke Grads to Meet

The annual meeting of the Mount Holyoke Club of Detroit will be held at 12 o'clock on Tuesday, May 1, at the University Club in Detroit.

As part of the nation-wide celebration of the 100 year anniversary of the college's alumni association, Detroit alumnae will honor all those who graduated prior to 1924 with a special ceremony and gift.

The program for the luncheon meeting is entitled "Mount Holyoke Goes to London" and will be presented by Mrs. William Ducker and Mrs. William Foster III.

Outgoing president, Mrs. Elisio Vieira, of Bloomfield Hills will chair the meeting and hand over her gavel to Mrs. John F. Mozena, of McKinley road, the newly-elected president.

Reservations for the luncheon can be made through Mrs. William Salot, of Muskota road.

Coast Guard Seaman Apprentice STUART L. LESLIE, son of MR. and MRS. R. L. LESLIE, of Fisher road, has graduated from basic training at the Coast Guard Training Center at Cape May, N. J. He is a 1965 graduate of Grosse Pointe High School.

A 'Salad Sampler' Planned on May 10

Proceeds from the Seventh Annual Salad Luncheon will be Given to the Detroit Rehabilitation Institute

Members of the Detroit Alumnae Association of Kappa Kappa Gamma are completing plans for their seventh annual Salad Sampler Luncheon to be held next Thursday, May 10.

Ruth Jennings, of Maryland road, representing the Kappa central group, and general co-chairmen, Mrs. James Stewart, of Canterbury road, and Mrs. Gregory Dangleis, of Moran road, recently visited the Detroit Rehabilitation Institute to see the Corning Counter Range in the Recreational therapy department.

The stove was one of the items purchased for the Institute with proceeds from last year's luncheon. It is used by patients who plan and prepare special meals and refreshments for themselves.

The geranium aprons to be worn by the ladies were made by the Kappa central group for the luncheon waitresses.

The May 10 benefit luncheon will be held at the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church, Chalfonte at Lothrop, from 11:30 to 1 o'clock. Mrs. John Nicholson, 884-0623, is in charge of tickets which are $2.50 each.

Other committee chairmen are Mesdames Leonard Winger, John McShane, Frank Penirian, Harry Sellars, Michael Marston, Richard Roland and John H. Smith.

Proceeds from the luncheon will again be used at the Rehabilitation Institute.

CHARLES R. PETERSON, JR., son of MR. and MRS. CHARLES PETERSON, of Berkshire road, a graduate of Grosse Pointe South High School, attained the Dean's Honor Roll during the winter quarter at Milwaukee School of Engineering in Wisconsin. He is enrolled in the mechanical engineering technological curriculum.

Salad 'Green' Goes to Charity

ORY DANGLEIS, of Moran road. Proceeds from the luncheon, which will be held at the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church, will be directed to the Detroit Rehabilitation Institute.

Wayne Women to Honor Pointer in May Meeting

Women of Wayne will celebrate their 40th anniversary by giving recognition to outstanding alumni women at the annual "Headliner" luncheon in the ballroom of the Sentinel Center on Saturday, May 5.

Headliner Award recipients are six alumnae prominent in news headlines during the past year. The list includes Pointer Lydia B. Lazurenko, Aerothermodynamics Engineer at the GM Technical Center.

Mrs. Lazurenko received a B.A. in Aeronautical Engineering in 1955 and an M.S. in Mechanical Engineering in 1972 from Wayne State University.

She is currently a member of the GM engineering staff working on development of turbine motors for passenger cars. Along with her husband, Serhij, and two children Olha and Stephen, she makes her home in South Renaud road.

Mrs. Lazurenko said that she finds her position working on turbine motors for passenger cars both challenging and rewarding.

Mrs. Carol Kot is chairman and tickets are available from Mrs. Shirley Caren, 778-8520, or from Alumni House on the Wayne State Campus.

Local Artists Offer Exhibit

The Progressive Artists Club will hold its 27th Annual Exhibit in the Verve Gallery, 11149 Morang, between Cadieux and Kelly, beginning Sunday, May 6, and continuing through Thursday, May 31.

There will be a punch reception to mark the opening on Sunday, May 6. The public is invited to the 2 to 5 o'clock reception where they may view the show and meet the artists.

Pointers displaying their works include Woods residents Helen Adams, Lloyd Chapman, Kasimira Kaiser, Doris MacCallum, Lucy Wells; Farms resident Hazel Erickson; Park resident, Margaret Joerin; and City residents, Astrid McGregor and Shirley McGregor.

Windmill Pointe Club To Elect '73 Officers

The Windmill Pointe Garden Club will hold its annual meeting in the home of Mrs. William G. Raven, of Clairview road, on Wednesday, May 2. Election of new officers is on the agenda.

A finalist in the Queen of the Kitchen Contest, sponsored by the Detroit Edison Company, was MRS. GEORGE KOPKE, of Roslyn road, who submitted and prepared her recipe of Jiffy Hamburg Stew. The contest was part of a salute to Women Who Work Week. Mrs. Kopke is employed by the J. L. Hudson Company.

St. John Lauds its Volunteers

An awards ceremony and dinner honoring over 110 volunteers of Saint John Hospital was held recently in Detroit.

Reverend Jack Boland, Minister of Unity of the Infinite Presence Church, gave the invocation. Sister Vernice McQuade, S.S.J., assistant administrator, welcomed volunteers and guests.

Mrs. Virginia Douglas, Director of Volunteer Services at Saint John commended the women for giving 64,845 hours of service to the hospital.

Dr. James J. Humes, vice president of Medical Affairs and Director of Laboratories at Saint John, a Pointer, assisted with the presentations.

Reverend Lawrence DuCharme, Saint John's Chaplain, closed the program with a tribute to the volunteers who have donated so much of their time and talents to the hospital.

Caps for 100 hours of service were presented to 34 Junior Volunteers. Gold Star Pins, for 200 to 300 hours of service were presented to 17 Juniors.

Three young people, Hilde Vernimmen, Gregg Owens and Joann Worosz, received awards for 500 hours.

Electric watches were presented to Miss Marie Ensten for 8,330 hours of service in the hospital's gift shop; Mrs. Marie Miller for her 9,359 hours in the pediatrics department, sewing room, gift shop and on the gift cart; and Mrs. Nicholas Jacoby for 8,667 hours of service on the gift cart and in the gift shop and pediatrics department. All three ladies are charter members of the volunteer program.

Honored as "Volunteer of the Year," was Mrs. Velma Barbeau for her work over the past two-and-a-half years in supervising and training volunteers for the Emergency Room and the Intensive Care Lounge at Saint John.

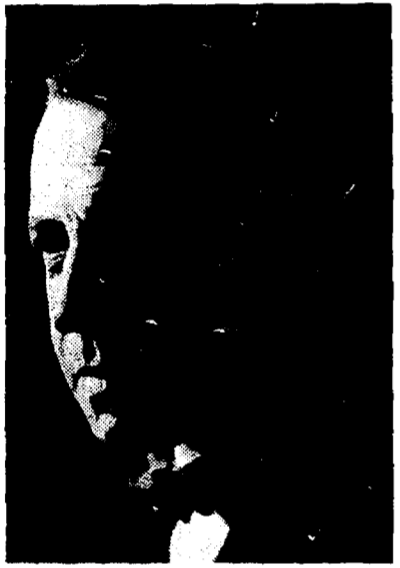

Others honored include Camille Kenney, 13,000 hours; Anne Elwart, 6,000 hours; Etlielmae Dalton, Ann Gutowski and Mary McDonald, 5,000 hours and Rose Dave, Marty Franklin, Lou Lyall and Elizabeth Reed, 4,000 hours.

Chris Williams and Frieda DeBeauclair were honored by receiving the City of Detroit's Volunteer Action Center of United Community Services Award . . . Volunteer of the Week.

Miss Williams and Mrs. DeBeauclair spend most of their week days creating crafts and games for the children in Saint John's Pediatric Playroom. Both ladies are experienced with youngsters as Miss Williams is a trained public school teacher and Mrs. DeBeauclair is a retired teacher.

Named a James B. Angell Scholar at the University of Michigan, Dearborn extension, is SHARON R. CILLETTE, of Edmondton drive. Also recognized for class honors were DEAN D. DI-BASIO, of Edmondton drive, and DAVID G. SANDERS, of Torrey road.

Alliance Francaise Gives Scholarship

Funds Raised through "Le Bal Francais" Held Last November by the Grosse Pointe Chapter

Seventeen-year-old Judith Czako, a senior at Grosse Pointe North High School, has been named the recipient of the Summer 1973 Paris Scholarship presented to an outstanding local student of French by the Alliance Francaise of Grosse Pointe.

Miss Czako, a native of Budapest, Hungary, was brought to the United States by her family in 1957 just after the Hungarian Revolution. They soon moved to the Detroit area and have lived in Grosse Pointe Woods for 11 years.

The Alliance Scholarship provides Judith with round-trip air fare Detroit-to-Paris, six weeks paid tuition at the Alliance Francaise Internationale School of French Language and Civilization, six weeks room and board with a French family, pocket money, plus planned day and weekend excursions into the French countryside.

Miss Czako is scheduled to leave July 1, 1973. At Grosse Pointe North High School, her French instructor is Mr. Guido Regelbrugge.

The competition for the Scholarship was open to high school juniors and seniors who are members of the Grosse Pointe Alliance, on either family or student memberships.

Twenty-two students participated and, on the basis of written work, five finalists were invited to the Tuesday, April 10, meeting of the Alliance Board of Directors for personal interviews. These included, in addition to Miss Czako, Jeanne Robinson of University-Liggett; James Fox of Grosse Pointe South; Anita Pennekamp and Eileen Murphy of Seaholm, Birmingham.

James Fox, named runner-up, was given a bronze medal, a book on Paris and a record album of French songs. The other finalists received medals and books. All participants in the competition will receive one-year free memberships in the Grosse Pointe Alliance.

Dr. Antoine Naboum, chairman of the Scholarship project, commented on the intelligence, character, good manners and good sportsmanship of all the contestants. "Their parents should be very proud of them," he said admiringly.

Dr. Naboum, who hails from Haiti, in his late teens received an Alliance Francaise medal for outstanding French scholarship in Port-au-Prince.

Grosse Pointe Alliance president Mrs. Charles Bachrach, who was born in France, has been an ardent promoter of the Paris Scholarship idea.

In addition to working with Dr. Naboum on plans for the award, she made the arrangements for the chief Scholarship funds-raising event "Le Bal Francais," which was held at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club in November.

Rod Rodgers Dancers To Give Benefit Show

The Rod Rodgers Dance Company of New York will present a major benefit performance at 8:30 p.m. at the Detroit Music Hall, 350 West Madison, on Friday, April 27.

Sponsored by the Detroit Metropolitan Dance Project, the Rodgers group will also hold an Open Rehearsal at 3 p.m. on Friday, especially for students.

Concert proceeds will benefit one of Detroit's newest cultural adventures—the Detroit Repertory Dance Theatre project. Funded in part by New Detroit, Inc., and the National Endowment for the Arts, the project will offer encouragement to talented young Detroiters and at the same time widen Detroit audience interest in contemporary dance.

Tickets for the benefit concert are available at the J. L. Hudson Co., the University of Detroit, and Wayne University. For further information about tickets or project activities call 224-1198 or 342-2389.

Mrs. David W. Pethick, of Grand Marais boulevard, is active in the project.

Deep South Wing of Art Institute

Volunteers at the Detroit Institute of Art have a way of keeping the volunteer doldrums at bay. Every spring, a trip is arranged to give the museum's top volunteers an opportunity to visit another city and see its museums and outstanding private collections.

This year, 50 volunteers who had each given a minimum of 50 hours to the Art Institute, paid a visit to Houston, Tex. There they toured the Houston Fine Arts Museum, the Contemporary Museum, and Bayou Bend, where Miss Ima Hogg's splendid collection of American antiques are on display in her former home which also features outstanding gardens.

A special host was Lawrence Marcus, of Newman-Marcus, who had the volunteers to tea after giving a private tour of his excellent collection of paintings and sculpture.

Our volunteers also visited the Rathko Chapel and the Favez Seraflin residence which is contemporary in design, yet decorated with a blend of antiques, modern paintings and sculpture, and contemporary furniture.

By the end of the tour, the ladies had no difficulty agreeing that Texas hospitality is all that it is said to be. Pointers who made the southern trek include Mrs. Harold Love, Mrs. Paul Egan, Mrs. George Cury, Mrs. Jack A. Tomkins, Mrs. Frank Kruse and Mrs. Robert N. Lunch.

Sale to Benefit Senior Center

It's that time of year when there are so many rummage sales that white elephants are an endangered species. The last call for cast-offs has been made by Mrs. Donald McPhail, of Touraine road, in preparation for the Annual Spring Rummage Sale for the Senior Center.

As the sale is slated for Friday, May 18, pointers have been asked to scout immediately their attics and basements for old clothes, jewelry, books, small pieces of furniture and usable small electrical appliances. To make arrangements for a tax deductible donation, persons should call WA 1-8238, Monday through Friday, between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

The Senior Center, in East Grand boulevard, Detroit, is a past Junior League Project. Mrs. Mark Ethridge, Jr., of Lincoln road, is currently serving as president of the board.

50th Anniversary Cited By Alpha Theta Sigma

The alumni chapter of Alpha Theta Sigma, first officially recognized sorority on Wayne State University's campus, will celebrate the group's 50th birthday at a dinner Wednesday evening, May 2, at the Lochmoor Club.

Mrs. Leonard Wiegmann, of Detroit, is chairwoman of the event and Mrs. Edmund Darling, of Harper Woods, is the mistress of ceremonies. Mrs. Darling is one of several charter members of the sorority who will be on hand.

Speakers for the event include WSU President George E. Gullen, Jr. At the dinner, the sorority will present President Gullen with a contribution to plant trees on a parcel of the boulevard strip of Anthony Wayne Drive.

Pointers who are members of the sorority include Mrs. Ervin La Rowe, of Canterbury road, and Mrs. Nathan B. Goodnow, of Handy road.

KIRK S. STANFIELD of Grosse Pointe Woods was among the 206 athletes honored by the Varsity "C" Club of Columbia University at its 52nd annual Awards Banquet on April 8. Kirk is a member of the heavyweight crew at the university.

Count Dracula Stalks Locally

A chilling adaptation of an enduring Gothic tale, "Count Dracula," will open at Meadow Brook Theatre on Thursday, April 26, at 8:30 p.m.

Based on the ancient and universal myths that vampires, creatures neither truly alive nor really dead, subsist on human blood, the Count Dracula legend has been the subject of drama and superstition since the 15th century.

Guest director John Ulmer, currently the Artistic Director of Stage/West in Springfield, Mass., returns to direct the Meadow Brook version of this tale of horror. Mr. Ulmer, acclaimed for his staging of "The Price" here last April and "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?" the previous season, staged the world premiere of "Count Dracula" at Stage/West last season with enormous success.

Broadway actor Eric Tavaris makes his Meadow Brook debut in the role of Count Dracula. He created the role of Count Dracula in the world premiere at Stage/West, and recently played it again with the Indiana Repertory Theatre in Indianapolis.

The demand for tickets has been so heavy that Meadow Brook Theatre has scheduled four extra performances.

A novel midnight performance of the spooky chiller will also be scheduled on May 11, if at least 300 courageous souls want to meet the Vampire King at the witching hour. Persons must call 377-3300 before April 27 to get on the midnight listing for May 11. All seats will be unreserved at $5 each; first come, first served.

Tickets may be purchased at Hudson's, Grinnell's, or by calling the Meadow Brook Box Office at 377-3300 which will also supply additional information on the performance schedule.

Meadow Brook Theatre, a regional professional theatre, is located on the campus of Oakland University.

Members of the Western Michigan University Wind Ensemble and University Band STEVE REED, VIRGINIA ZELENK and MARY AMBROSE were in concert Saturday, April 14, for the Fifth Annual Spring Conference on Wind and Percussion Music.

League Luncheon Today Aids Crippled Children

The Michigan League for Crippled Children will convene for its regular meeting at the Detroit Boat Club on Thursday, April 26. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 o'clock.

Katherine Jamison of "Fashions 220" will present a make up demonstration and offer suggestions on proper skin care.

Plans are underway for the June opening of Camp Grace Bentley in Port Huron. Applications for the camp will soon be mailed by Mrs. Stanley Carr, registration chairman.

Mrs. George C. Wedge, of Blairmoor court, serves as publicity chairman of the League.

Ballet West to Dance Here

The internationally-acclaimed Ballet West U.S.A. comes to the Masonic Auditorium for one performance, Friday, May 4 at 8:20 p.m.

Ballet West U.S.A. gained its international fame during a successful tour of the European continent in 1971. The company of 70 people and five tons of cargo arrived in Athens in July, 1971, and began what was to become one of the most successful tours of Europe of an American ballet company.

This was one of the youngest companies to ever begin an undertaking of this scope. The company started in 1963. Today, Ballet West U.S.A. is a company of international stature, and the recipient of a major grant from the Ford Foundation.

To be performed at the Masonic are "Serenade," choreographed by George Balanchine to Tchaikovsky's "Serenade for Strings;" "Puccini Variations;" "Paquita," a romantic dance for two by the company's artistic director William F. Christensen; and "Con Amore," to the music of Rossini.

Tickets for Ballet West U.S.A. are available at the Masonic Auditorium box office, Grinnell's and all J. L. Hudson ticket centers.

Engineers' Wives Plan Lunch Benefit

Fashion Show-Luncheon to be Held on Thursday, May 10, at the Lochmoor Club; Proceeds will Benefit Engineering Scholarships

The Society of Engineers' Wives, (SEW), will hold a fashion show-luncheon Thursday, May 10, at the Lochmoor Country Club. The show, entitled "Bloom-in' Fashions," will begin at noon and feature summer fashions from Himelbochs, with commentary by Mrs. Himelboch. Proceeds will go to the group's scholarship fund. The fund has been in operation since 1954. It has provided $14,850 for scholarships and hardship grants to engineering students of Wayne State University, University of Detroit, Lawrence Institute of Technology and Detroit Institute of Technology. Mrs. George B. Uicker, of Detroit, is chairman of the Scholarship Committee and fashion luncheon. Those serving on the committee from the Pointe area are: Mrs. Alton P. Donnell, Co-Chairman, of Balfour road; Mrs. Maurice N. Day, of Woods lane; Mrs. Laddy A. Rice, of Hawthorne road; Mrs. James S. Owens, of Radnor circle; Mrs. Laverne R. Bissell, of Stonehurst road; Mrs. Denis J. Bracken of Webber place; and Mrs. Anthony C. Fortunski, of Berkshire road. The women of SEW also take an active part in the annual Science and Engineering Fair of Metropolitan Detroit. This year they donated 407 hours of their time on clerical work preceding the fair, organizing the abstract entries of students, delivering Science Fair newspapers to the metropolitan area schools and registering 3,375 exhibits at the six area fairs and at Cobo Hall. (Continued from Page 15) JAMES CHARLES BRUNO, of McKinley road, has been appointed Honorary Consul in Detroit for the Central American country of El Salvador. The appointment by the President of El Salvador was announced on Monday, April 9, by the Foreign Minister. The country has had a history of friendly relations with the United States. It has long enjoyed a relatively stable internal government and good economic growth. El Salvador has been a leader in the development of the Central American Common Market which is similar to the European Common Market. American and other foreign firms have found it a hospitable and profitable location. Mr. Bruno practices law in Detroit with the firm of Elzman, Young & O'Rourke. He received his undergraduate degree at Georgetown University in assistance is also provided by the ladies at the Winners Exposition at Cobo Hall.

SEW was formed in 1930 as the women's auxiliary to the Detroit Engineering Society. When that group was reorganized into the present Engineering Society of Detroit (ESD), and moved into the Rackham Building, the women adopted their present name.

Luncheon ticket chairman is Mrs. Thomas N. McLaughlin, of Detroit. Tickets priced at $6.50 or information may be obtained by calling 535-9284.

Welcome Group Plans Brunch

Welcome Wagon of Grosse Pointe will meet for brunch at 11:30 o'clock at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial on Thursday, May 3. Lieutenant Gil Truax, commander of the Aviation Unit of the Detroit Police Department, will speak on "The Protection of the Community." Cards will follow.

The group has planned its Installation Luncheon, honoring the new board, on Thursday, May 17, at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

Any new residents of The Pointe are encouraged to come to the brunch. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Bud Day at 882-0536 or Mrs. Carl Georgi at 885-5624. John W. Harrison Wed in Port Huron

The First Congregational Church, Port Huron, Mich., was the setting for the wedding of Marsha Ann Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Hill, of Port Huron, and Dr. John W. Harrison, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. Wilfred Harrison, of Balfour road, on Saturday, April 14.

The four o'clock rites, at which Dr. Carl Martenson of Port Huron presided, were followed by a dinner reception at the St. Clair Inn, St. Clair, Mich.

The newlyweds are vacationing in Ocho Rios, Jamaica, and will be returning to Mt. Clemens to make their home.

The bride's gown of white floor-length frocks of sparkling pink jersey knit styled with halter necklines and chiffon sleeves. They carried arrangements of long-stemmed pink gladiolas.

They were Carol Ann Harrison who served as her sister-in-law's maid of honor, and bridesmaids Mrs. Carleton Sprinkle of Goodrich, Mich., the bride's sister; and Mrs. Robert MacAlpine of Lake Orion.

Serving as best man for the groom was John Barry of Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Ushers were Dr. Guy Garrett, of Milford, Mich., and Robert Hanzl, of Southfield.

The bride's mother wore a pale pink shantung dress with matching coat and a white orchid corsage.

The bridegroom's mother selected a Posn chiffon print dress in aqua and pink, complemented by a white orchid corsage.

Marocaine jersey was fashioned by Bianchi and trimmed with a diamond shape pearl medallion and chapel train.

The headpiece was made to match and trimmed with an identical pearl medallion.

She carried an arrangement of long-stemmed Easter lilies.

Her three attendants wore

Guild Has New Member

At the first meeting of the National Guild of Decoupeurs in Chicago MRS. ELLEN C. GRABKE, of South Brys drive, was accepted into the membership on the merit of a decoupage box she submitted. Mrs. Grabke's interest in art dates back to St. Mary's Academy in Monroe, Mich., where she studied art for several years. Three years of art followed at Meinzingers Foundation in Detroit. Her present skills in decoupage have been strengthened by working with Detroit-area decoupage teacher, Mrs. Judy Schulte, the past eight years. Membership in the Guild is open to any person who submits a decoupage box which meets the Guild's standards. For further information, Pointers should contact Mrs. James O. Hoyt, a founder and the first president of the Guild, of St. Paul avenue, at 884-9231.

U-LS Students to Give Musical

BUYING A SECURITY SYSTEM?

When you buy an apartment at

The Jefferson Apartments

Grosse Pointe's newest condominium

... you get not one, but a network of the most modern security systems to guard you, your home and your possessions.

A CLOSED TV MONITORING SYSTEM covers the entrance, outside parking areas and inside garage. The caller can be viewed from a selected channel on the owner's TV set in each apartment. The doorman and manager's office views the same areas.

THE ENTRY COMMUNICATIONS SYSTEM is a new system conceived and engineered by Michigan Bell Telephone Company. Using a touchtone panel telephone in the lobby, the caller dials the owner's apartment. This enables each party to have a private conversation. During the time the caller is in the entrance vestibule, he is under surveillance by the concealed TV camera.

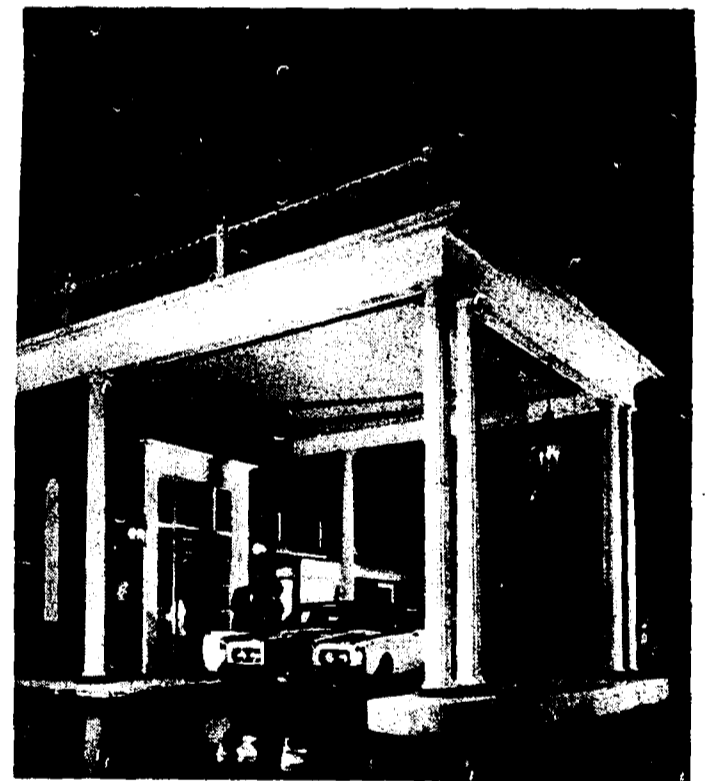

AN ON-GUARD ALERT SYSTEM features a control panel in the manager's apartment and the attendant's office. This notifies of any intrusion into any apartment when the occupants are away. The doorman or manager controls the system by activating the apartment's security supervision at the request of the owner.

THE FIRE PROTECTION ALERT SYSTEM gives added protection to all occupants of the building and will insure notification of each individual occupant of a fire in an unoccupied apartment.

Further elements of security are the uniformed doorman-attendant and resident caretakers.

Besides security, you also get really gracious living. Here is a typical spacious floor plan of an apartment home which features 9 foot ceilings, individual heating and cooling, top of the line G. E. kitchen with an icemaker and a washer-dryer. A wet bar is conveniently located for entertaining. Insulated walls, floors, plumbing and windows insure maximum quiet. Natural fireplaces, naturally.

There are three separate elevators and approximately a thousand square feet of private storage. Exterior maintenance, gardening and snow removal are arranged. The Jefferson Apartments is an adult community. Residents are home owners and enjoy tax deductions and the investment security of being a property owner and equity advantages.

Slate Tennis Evening for May 12

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association is taking over the new Austin Indoor Tennis Club Saturday, May 12, for a buffet and tennis evening. A continuous buffet will be served from 6 p.m. by the Center's cateress, Helen Blair. Set-ups will be provided for those wishing to bring their own liquid refreshments.
 The tennis games will be set up by Mary Lou Wood and Bob Warner. Twenty people may be on the courts at all times in 30-minute sets beginning at 6 p.m.
 The crowd must be limited to 50 and only 10 non-players will be permitted. When signing up, players should indicate ability on an A, B, C basis with A being expert, B, intermediary, and C, beginning players. Couples must play at the level of the better player of the two.
 The entire evening, set-ups, buffet and full evening use of the courts, is $8.50. Early sign up at the War Memorial's office will be appreciated.
 The only man who can retire comfortably is the one who can sell his experiences for half what they cost him.

Smith Named to Bank Post

J. Peter Smith, of Lakeland ave., has recently been appointed to the position of vice-president of the National Bank of Detroit's Trust Division. With the step to vice-president, he was also named Officer in Charge of the Grosse Pointe Trust Division Branch. Mr. Smith is a board member of Senior Center Inc.

and treasurer of the Meire School PTA. A graduate of Centre College of Kentucky and the National Graduate Trust School of Northwestern University, Mr. Smith joined NBD's Trust Department in 1961. He was promoted to Assistant Trust Officer in 1964 and appointed assistant vice-president in 1968.

SUNSET TORCH CONDOMINIUMS

The all-season complex is nestled on the site of an old apple orchard on the Eastern shore of Torch Lake, just North of the Clam River. Sunset Torch is only a few minutes' drive to Bellaire, and a few minutes more and you are in the golf and ski country of Shanty Creek and Schuss Mountain.

THE SUNSET TORCH INTERIOR
 Featuring a spacious winding staircase . . . with the warmth of wood panelling.
THREE BEDROOM TOWNHOUSE
 There is plenty of elbow-room . . . 2 1/2 baths . . . lots of closets . . . and yes, that's a patio off the kitchen.
TWO BEDROOM TOWNHOUSE
 Living areas are on the upper level to give maximum view of the lake . . . 2 1/2 baths . . . a balcony off the living room . . . and a patio off the master bedroom.

Enjoy all seasons at your Sunset Torch Condominium townhouse.
 Make a splash in beautiful Torch Lake. It's just a few steps from your door. Tennis courts, Shuffleboard, Sheltered Harbor. All are planned for the exclusive pleasure of Sunset Torch Residents.
 Play golf? Two challenging courses are nearby. And skiing, Schuss Mountain, Shanty Creek and Boyne Country are just a short scenic drive away. And snowmobiling. Miles and miles of trails in the heart of snow country. For shopping, Traverse City . . . the trading center of the north . . . is just a quick 30 miles away.
 And don't forget the beauty of those sunsets. A burst of color from across the lake and into your living room. That's what Sunset Torch is all about.
