TWO MILLION SPECTATORS waiting for the arrival of Juan Domingo Peron were exposed to the bullets of gunmen who opened fire on the crowd. At least 13 persons have been reported dead and 250 wounded. Peron, who was to arrive at the Ezeiza International Airport near Buenos Aires, was diverted to a military air base several miles away. New Peronist president Hector J. Campora said the fighting was started by those "elements who are against our nation." The crowd had gathered to welcome Peron back to Argentina.

THE SUPREME COURT, in a 5-4 decision, set new obscenity standards Thursday which would give states more leeway to ban pornographic movies and publications. The new guidelines eliminated the substance of a 1966 ruling which said that material must be "utterly without redeeming social value" to be obscene. Chief Justice Warren E. Burger said in his opinion that juries in state courts may determine what is pornographic by the standards in their own communities, not on a "national standard."

THE THREE SKYLAB astronauts splashed down Friday, right on target in the Pacific Ocean, about 830 miles southwest of San Diego. Charles Conrad Jr., Dr. Joseph Kerwin and Paul Weitz were reported to be in good condition after having spent 28 days aboard the space laboratory. They completed about 80 percent of the planned scientific tests despite mechanical problems and established the record of time spent in space. They immediately went into a mobile medical laboratory aboard the rescue ship USS Ticonderoga for extensive examinations.

THE SUMMIT TALKS between President Nixon and Soviet leader Leonid Brezhnev ended on a successful note Saturday, in San Clemente. On Thursday they signed a pact to avoid nuclear war which included reducing nuclear arsenals in both countries. They also signed an agreement to increase air travel between the United States and Russia. Brezhnev spent part of Saturday taping a speech which will be shown on television today.

Monday, June 24
A NEW ORLEANS BAR FIRE claimed the lives of at least 29 persons Sunday night. The flash fire, which was brought under control just 16 minutes after the first alarm, completely gutted the second story cocktail lounge in the city's French quarter. Firemen were unable to reach many of the victims because of the intense heat and flames. The fire spread so quickly that many of the patrons were cut off from the fire escapes and many were forced to jump out of windows.

JOHN W. DEAN III, reading a 245-page statement Monday before the Senate Committee investigating the Watergate, charged that President Nixon took part in the Watergate cover-up by approving promises of executive clemency and cash payoffs for the convicted conspirators. However, Dean said he did not feel that Nixon knew of the seriousness of the scandal and the implications of his involvement. Dean went on to say that when the facts became known "I hope the President is forgiven." Dean was former counsel to the President and was fired at the end of April.

Drain Woods Pool Again In Effort to Stop Leaks

By Roger A. Waha

The swimming pool at The Woods Lake Front Park has been temporarily shut down while the contractor attempts to fill all holes and cracks caused from the lake level being above the pool level, reported Burl vonAllmen, assistant to the parks and recreation director, Monday afternoon, June 25.

"We have no idea how long the pool will be shut down," he said. "We are doing the best we can and want the job adequately done." Mr. vonAllmen hopes when work is complete it won't be necessary to close the pool at any time for the rest of the summer.

Besides filling in holes and cracks, workers are attempt-

Supreme Court Decision In Denver Schools Case May Affect Local Districts

Board of Education Attorney Douglas West Discusses Possible Implications at Monday School Board Meeting

The recent Supreme Court decision on Denver, concerning the desegregation of schools sheds a bit of light on the somewhat similar case in Detroit.

In the 7 to 1 Denver decision, written by Justice William J. Brennan Jr., the Supreme Court stated that if deliberate racial discrimination is practiced in some of the Denver schools, the entire school system is subject to federal court desegregation orders.

However, the Denver case failed to define the distinction between de-facto discrimination, by the fact, and de-jure discrimination, by law. Justice William H. Rehnquist cast the sole dissenting vote and Justice Byron R. White, who is from Colorado, did not participate.

Different from Detroit
The Denver case differs from the one in Detroit in that it involved a single school system while the Detroit case involves at least 52 districts besides Detroit.

What is significant in the case was Justice Lewis Powell's opinion. In a previous court decision in Richmond, Va., similar to the Detroit situation, Justice Powell abstained from voting since he was a member of the Richmond school board. Therefore, that decision gave little indication as to how the Supreme Court felt toward the Detroit case.

However, in the Denver decision, Powell indicated that he was not in favor of extensive busing to accomplish desegregation although he cited the evils of segregated

With the Fourth of July falling on Wednesday this year, the NEWS is asking the cooperation of its news sources and advertisers. The deadline for all copy next week will have to be Monday noon instead of Tuesday, so the paper can be made up at the print shop Monday night and go to press Tuesday.

Mr. vonAllmen also stated workers are sandbagging the Milk River side of the pool to prevent any water from entering the facility.

It has been a rough summer so far for parks and recreation personnel, and for residents, with an assortment of pool problems.

Besides the high lake level, personnel faced a situation where drains and the filter

Plan Music Festival at Memorial

Viennese Concert and Ball Will Open Three-Event Series on Tuesday, July 10

A delightful, light and popular Summer Music Festival is planned by the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association on successive Tuesday evenings in July. The opening occasion on Tuesday evening, July 10, at 8 o'clock in the Fries Ballroom will be a Viennese Concert and Ball with listening and dancing to the Johann Strauss Salon Orchestra with interludes of schrammel songs by Alexander and Maribel Sucek.

The Ballroom will be set up cabaret style. It will be a dressy but not a formal evening, with the accent on tuneful and lulling gaiety. Charles and Collette Bickel, directors of the Johann Strauss Salon Orchestra last year and formerly of Ann Arbor, are coming from their home in New Hampshire to play violin and cello. Allen Warner will come down especially for the evening from Interlochen, where he is on the teaching staff, to play flute and his father, Professor Robert Warner, Associate Dean of Music at the University of Michigan, will play first violin.

Opera Star

An evening of German lieder and dance will be the second offering in the summer series on Tuesday, July 17. It will feature a program of instrumental and choral ensembles together with folk dances under the direction of Rudi Reddig.

The final program of the series on Tuesday, July 24, will feature Grosse Pointe's own Toronto-born opera star, Roma Riddell, who will present scenes ranging from opera to musical comedy, accompanied by Lawrence Gore.

Season tickets for the Music Festival are $10. When purchased on a single evening basis, the Viennese Ball is $4.50 per person, the German Choir and Folk Dance is $3.50 and the Evening with Roma Riddell $3.50. Tickets are available in the Memorial's office open day and night except Sunday evening.

Outside Storage Ordinance Being Postponed Again

Woods Council, Citizens' Advisory Committee, Boat and Vehicle Owners Involved in Year-Long Study of Proposals

By Roger A. Waha

The Woods' proposed ordinance to prohibit the outside storage of boats, boat trailers, house trailers, mobile homes, vacation campers and other equipment for temporary or mobile living quarters within the city, remains under study by the citizens' advisory committee, chaired by Councilman George Freeman, and the Committee of the Whole, (the council in executive session).

At this point, a copy of the ordinance is currently being reviewed and studied by The Grosse Pointe Woods Boat Club. The club is scheduled to present an opinion letter as to its position on the measure to the C-W.

Study for Year
Before the ordinance comes before the council, the C-W will make a recommendation for action to the body. But when the measure will finally receive approval from the citizens' committee, receives a C-W recommendation and is placed on the council agenda, is difficult to say.

The ordinance already has been under study for about a year. When the measure first came before the council last summer, some 90 residents voiced their displeasure. The council unanimously referred the ordinance to the C-W for further study, and appointed the citizens' committee to make recommendations to the C-W with a report back to the council.

At the C-W meeting Monday, June 11, the solons unanimously approved a motion by Mr. Freeman that a copy of the letter from Walter Hage, citizens' committee member, and the proposed ordinance be sent to William Turnbill, past commodore of the Woods Boat Club, and to Commodore Maurice Dale-sandro of the Boat Club for their study.

Held Meeting
A citizens' committee meeting was held Wednesday, June 6, and Mr. Hage reported the committee passed his motion that the ordinance was objectionable. The vote, he said, was 3-1.

In a letter to the C-W, Mr. Hage suggested further exploration of the possibility of providing permanent municipal boat, trailer, et al, storage areas, (although he is not certain the committee feels this is "the proper and acceptable solution"). Mr. Freeman said this had been looked into during the past year, and it will be looked into further.

Mr. Hage also suggested the C-W begin study of a boat and trailer residential storage ordinance based upon health and safety considerations.

"I believe it was the view of the committee members that drafts of the proposed boat and trailer ordinance were based upon esthetic concerns and that such considerations were not properly an area for governmental control and regulation," said

Jefferson, Moross Road Being Fixed

Curb Replacement and Asphalt Resurfacing Program Costing County $470,669

By James J. Njaim

After a wait of five years, the Wayne County Road Commission will begin the repairing and resurfacing of Jefferson Avenue from Wayburn to Fisher roads, and the replacing of curbs along both sides of the avenue, from Somerset to Fisher. The Park Council was informed on Monday, June 25.

The WCRC accepted the low bid of the Detroit Asphalt and Construction company, which offered to do the work for a total of $363,388.30. The big figure is higher than that of last year, when the estimated cost was set at $330,000, because of the rise in the price of material and labor, it was revealed by Robert Larson, the Road Commission's Director of Transportation Programs.

To Start Immediately
City Manager Robert Slone informed the council that he and Herbert Heger, director of Public Service, met with Commission officials Monday morning to discuss the starting date for the Jefferson project. The date, they were told, will be either tomorrow, June 29, or Monday, July 2.

To conform to a new law passed by the State Legislature several months ago, Slone said, the WCRC will replace the present curbing on both sides of Jefferson, from Somerset to Fisher, with two-foot wide curbs.

The city manager said that the new law also requires that sidewalks, parallel with major thoroughfares, must be ramped-down, crossing side streets. However, wherever there are traffic lights, ramps must be two-way, one on the side street and one on the major road.

This, Slone pointed out, is for the convenience of those riding bicycles, and especially for persons who are confined to wheel chairs.

To Resurface Moross
Larson, in an interview with the NEWS, disclosed that the Road Commission will also resurface Moross road from Ridge to Mack avenue, which falls under the jurisdiction of the county. He explained that for some reason, lost in the records, Moross from Ridge to Lake Shore road, is not maintained by the county because it is under the jurisdiction of The Farms and therefore is a city street.

Vandals Enter Parcels School

Someone broke into Parcels School, 20600 Mack avenue, smashed some classroom windows and ransacked several offices before leaving. At this time, Woods police reported nothing has been found missing.

The custodian contacted police Tuesday morning, June 19, and at the scene Public Safety Officer Jack Treppa found where the science room's door window was shattered and a book shelf was pulled down. Nothing else appeared to be disturbed, police said.

Further investigation revealed the main office's door window broken, the principal's office ransacked and the assistant principal's office torn apart. A secretary's desk also appeared ransacked.

Two water extinguishers from the east wing were emptied onto the floor and walls in the hall. Meanwhile, two other extinguishers were emptied on the floor.

Police reported entry was gained by climbing above the entrance doors in the middle of the building, walking along the building's east side, (which is one story tall), and then breaking a lower right side window.

AAA Warns This Could Be Most Dangerous July 4th

This year's midweek July 4th holiday could well be the most dangerous of any in recent history with an estimated 3.2 million motorists expected to drive 282.5 million miles over the 30-hour period, according to Automobile Club of Michigan.

"Despite the shortness of this holiday, a combination of many motorists driving near home and others rushing to resort spots could cause traffic fatalities to soar this July 4th," said Fred Rehm, Auto Club general manager.

"The first danger—near-home driving—is confirmed by State Police statistics which show that roughly two out of every three fatal accidents over the last five years have occurred within 25 miles of the victims' homes," Mr. Rehm said.

He noted that the average motorist expected to drive only about 90 miles during the July 4th holiday, a potentially lethal situation could develop since many drivers tend to be more relaxed and less conscious of traffic safety when traveling in familiar surroundings.

"Secondly, we anticipate many motorists taking their families to a resort or camping area the weekend before the 4th and then returning to work that Monday and Tuesday," he explained. "Tuesday night they will set out to rejoin their families for the 4th, and possibly they

Paving of Jefferson, Moross to Begin This Week

A call to Farms City Manager Andrew Bremer, Jr., brought out the astonishing fact that Lake Shore road from Fisher to the divided highway, is also a section under city jurisdiction. How this came about, too, is a mystery.

William Sutherland, WCRC assistant planning engineer, said the Detroit Asphalt and Construction company will also do the work on Moross road. The cost of this project will amount to $107,281.20. It was not disclosed what the original estimate was.

The project from Wayburn to Cadieux in The Park will cost $241,883.40; and from Cadieux to Fisher in The City, $121,504.90.

The entire cost of the resurfacing of Jefferson and Moross, and the construction of new curbing comes to a total of $470,669.50, county officials revealed.

November 1 Target

Larson said that the Road Commission is shooting for a completion date of the entire program by November 1, if all goes according to schedule.

Sione informed the coun-

Official of both communities finally appealed to Wayne County Commission Erv Steiner, Jr., who represents The Pointe. Steiner bombarded the WCRC with letters and phone calls continuously, since early in 1971.

In 1972, the Road Commission disclosed that all it could do was to fill in the huge chuck holes and large cracks, but promised to give Jefferson top priority in its 1973 street repair and resurfacing program.

"We are very pleased that this improvement of Jefferson is about to begin," Mayor Matthew Patterson said. "It has been an eyesore for many years."

"When the construction of the new curbing and the resurfacing of the avenue is completed, it will be a definite asset to our city and to the City of Grosse Pointe. And, we are sure that the motorists will not mind the temporary inconvenience while this work is being done and that they will be just as happy as we are when the project is completed."

His remarks were echoed by the city solons and Sione.

SEMTA Refund Paid to Woods

It was money on the table for The Woods as the city received a check for $1,350 from SEMTA, (Southeastern Michigan Transportation Authority), representing the refund of the community's share of the billable deficit for February.

A letter from Larry E. Cremering, assistant general manager-comptroller, citing the payment was on the agenda of the regular council meeting Monday, June 18.

This refund is in accordance with The Woods' agreement with SEMTA which stipulates that monies received from the State relating to these deficits would be refunded when the dollars came in as part of the two-cent gasoline tax hike, (which became effective February 1).

In his letter, Mr. Cremering said the Authority expects to receive payment for the March deficit in August and at that time SEMTA will remit the billable deficit for that month to The Woods. This also will total $1,350.

The Authority has reported the five Pointes and St. Clair Shores, which approved the three-month extension agreement with SEMTA, (January 1 to March 31), would be refunded for the February and March deficits. However, the communities would be obligated to fund the January deficit.

Under the agreement, the communities paid a specific percentage of the $5,000 per month operating subsidy to the Authority. The Woods paid 27 percent, St. Clair Shores, 25, The Park, 20, The Farms, 16, The City, eight, and The Shores, four.

Denver School's Case

Mr. West mentioned that his office was filing a petition for Writ of Certiorari, a request to the Supreme Court to appeal. But since the Court has adjourned for the summer and does not convene until October, it is doubtful if any action will be taken on it until then.

Immense Importance

However, Mr. West said that "because of the immense importance of this case, both to the people of the Detroit metropolitan area and in terms of the new opportunity following the state-ment in Richmond, for the Supreme Court to be able to resolve the legal issues presented once and for all, we have every confidence that the Supreme Court will accept jurisdiction of our appeal."

Mr. West also cited an opinion issued on June 12 from the Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit. He stated the opinion of the nine judges virtually re-adopted the opinion of the original three judge panel of the Court of Appeals that was previously issued on December 8, 1972.

The substance of the Court ruling is to require some type of Metropolitan plan of desegregation. But the Court directed that Judge Stephen Roth re-open the question of which school districts will be included in the desegregation area.

The purpose of this is to give those suburban school districts who had not previously been made parties to the case a chance to participate in the preparation of the details of the desegregation plan.

Decision Predictable

Mr. West said that although he had hoped for a complete reversal of Judge Roth's decision, "the decision was predictable and not surprising in light of earlier actions by the judges of the Sixth Circuit Court."

He felt that the school system gained one definite advantage in that "now we have three very strong dissenting opinions to point to in support of our position. As a result, we are now in a much better posture for appeal to the Supreme Court than we were prior to the time we petitioned the Court of Appeals for rehearing."

Since the Court of Appeals opinion called for desegregation of Detroit Public Schools and would probably not exclude the Grosse Pointe schools, "it is absolutely essential that the United States Supreme Court take jurisdiction of our case at this time," Mr. West said.

"It is for this reason that the Grosse Pointe schools are filing a separate petition for Writ of Certiorari to "insure that every conceivable argument for the Supreme Court's accepting jurisdiction of the case, at this time is fully and adequately presented."

Park Prepares For Olympics

The Park's Annual Junior Olympics will be held Monday-Tuesday, July 9-10, at Windmill Pointe Park, according to Margaret Spindler and Ann Thomson, recreation coordinators.

The games, for Park residents between 10 and 15 years of age, will include softball throw; 50-yard dash; standing broad jump; running long jump; standing hop, step and jump; running hop, step, and jump; chin-ning, (boys only) and shuttle relay, (two boys, two girls).

Winners will be eligible to compete in the Detroit Metropolitan Youth Fitness Program.

Registration blanks for the Junior Olympics will be available at the Windmill Pointe Park gatehouse Sunday, July 1, through Friday, July 6. All applications must be returned by July 6 at 6 p.m.

Jim majored in Social Studies, taking six different courses and earning a straight A average.

Present at the award ceremonies were Howard Lawrence, chairman of the social studies department at South High, Jerry Gerich, principal of South High, Mr. Donahue, and Jim's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tompkins.

Ask any number of people for a definition of Short Hair, chances are you'll get a number of answers, because length is a relative factor that connotes different meanings to different individuals.

Even if we were able to define Short Hair to everyone's satisfaction, it would be secondary, because what really matters is not how long or short an individual's hair is, but how well groomed it is.

Marsha Bogdanski Wins High Praise from Jaycees

By Roger A. Waha
The Grosse Pointe Jaycees are very proud of Marsha Bogdanski, who represented the community as Miss Grosse Pointe at the 1973 Miss Michigan Scholarship Pageant Saturday, June 23, in Muskegon.

While Marsha wasn't selected as one of the finalists, the Jaycees had sound words of praise for her. "I want to thank Marsha for representing our community in the way she did. She was beautiful. We were proud to have her up there as she did a fantastic job. The whole community should be proud of her," said George Williamson, Miss GP Scholarship Pageant publicity director.

"Really Happy"
In the competition, Miss St. Clair Shores, Sherry Lee Agnello, was selected from 32 young ladies as Miss Michigan. She will represent the State in the upcoming Miss America Pageant.

"Marsha came in under circumstances which were not under her control. She was first runner-up in the first Miss GP Pageant last year," continued Mr. Williamson. "She represented the community in a very adult-like manner. She proved what Grosse Pointe is all about."

Those "circumstances" occurred last November when Marsha was crowned Miss Grosse Pointe after Susan Matzka relinquished her title because of marriage plans.

"I was really happy that everyone was pleased with me," Marsha said. "I felt in my soul I did the best job I could. I will do my best to help Karen (Gerbas) Garrett prepare for next year's Miss Michigan Pageant. I went in there blind, and I want Grosse Pointe to get a place."

Guides Horses To Big Wins

Seventeen-year-old Troy Maschmeyer guided his eight-year-old Trollop to a perfect performance in winning the $1,500 Open Jumper Stake at the 62nd annual Grosse Pointe Horse Show at the Hunt club Sunday, June 24.

In this stake, a horse competes on a specified course of eight jumping obstacles of varying heights and widths. The winner is based on the fastest time.

He also won first place in the Open Jumpers-Gamblers Choice Saturday, June 23, when he and Stoney Burke totaled 740 points in the event.

Mr. Maschmeyer will be a senior this fall at University-Liggett.

Karen, who attended the Muskegon event, was crowned Miss Grosse Pointe for 1973-74 Saturday, May 19, at North High. In fact, both Kathleen Jevons, first runner-up at the local pageant, and Karen Seagram, second runner-up, also attended the Miss Michigan affair, stated Mr. Williamson.

The cry of "We're comers!" was echoed at the "Muskegon microphone" by Gil Finger when he received an award for the best judges book, containing all information on the local pageant, Mr. Williamson said.

Stood Right Up
Marsha performed a lively Polish folk dance and song during her talent presentation. "Her ethnic dance was excellent," Mr. Williamson commented. Marsha, who made her own costume, had five stars around her head like a crown, with each star representing one of the Points, he added.

In reflecting upon the Miss Michigan Pageant Marsha stated, while citing the pressure, "I think there are some girls who are cut out for this type of thing. But I think I did a pretty good job and performed my talent presentation to the best of my ability." And she quickly added, "The girls were just great."

Then, with a gratifying directness, Marsha stated, "I got a few snickers at being Miss Grosse Pointe and I just stood up to them."

"The pageant was fiercely competitive. All the girls were so beautiful and talented," she said.

But for those who were not selected as finalists, it is still a disappointment. "I felt when I didn't make the top 10, I let the community down," Marsha said. Then she recalled what Terri Ann Cousino, Miss Michigan 1972, said when she wasn't selected in the "top 10" at the Miss America Pageant.

Miss Cousino said this was the best thing that happened. It wasn't the end of the world for it made her a better person.

Wonderful Experience
As for representing the community, Marsha said, "I enjoyed being Miss Grosse Pointe more than I enjoyed competing in the Miss Michigan Pageant. I felt pride in representing the community, and the Jaycees are a great group to work with."

"I met a lot of nice people," she continued. "It was a wonderful experience and I gained a lot from it," including a growing maturity.

Now, Marsha is looking forward to the Polish Ethnic Festival Friday-Sunday, August 10-12. You can bet she will dance, dance, dance, because for some 14 years she has been part of the Polish Dance School of the Polish Women's Alliance of America. And Marsha's pride in her background and love of art also are expressed in dance.

Jaycee representatives at the State pageant included Mr. Finger, his wife, Linda, Mr. and Mrs. Carter Billiu, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Chavis, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. William I. Stott, according to Mr. Williamson, who also attended.

As for next year's affair, Mr. Williamson stated, "I hope the community will come out and back Karen Garrett."

For a large local "rooting section" is a huge plus particularly when you're playing "in the other fella's park."

Valuable Art Items Missing

Two valuable works of art were reported missing from The Morse-Capponi Gallery, 88 Kercheval. The report was made to Farms authorities on June 20, following an inventory.

Howard Capponi of 17517 Maumee avenue, a co-owner of the gallery, said the paintings were last seen on June 1, and were with 28 others in a brown envelope in his office. He said the reason for the lateness of the disclosure was because the prints were not discovered until he took the inventory. The total value of the loss is $1,725, he added.

Both are lithographs, measuring 12 inches by 18 inches and unframed, it was said. The most valuable of the items was described as being a nude female model reclining in a three-quarter front position, worth $975; the second was of a human figure, draped in cloth, with a full back view, valued at $750.

Police were informed that the losses were insured.

You First

It's nice to have the money to treat your family to some of the more special things in life. Consider a "You First" regular passbook savings account that earns 5% annual interest paid and compounded quarterly to get those special things. There is no minimum amount required to open an account. And you may deposit or withdraw any amount whenever you like. And you earn 5% per year daily interest from the date of deposit to the date of withdrawal.

This equals an effective annual rate of 5.09%

Year to year you may want to save for bigger projects. Think "You First" and open a 5 1/2% Certificate Savings Account. Just deposit $1,000 or more for one year. Your Certificate Account will earn 5 1/2% annual interest paid and compounded quarterly from the day the funds are deposited.

That's an effective annual rate of 5.61%

Think "You First" as an investment saver, too. First Federal has a Certificate Account that will earn you a high 6% per year annual interest. With $5,000 or more you can open a Certificate Savings Account for 2, 3, 4, or 5 years. And your account will earn that 6% interest, from the date the funds are deposited, paid and compounded quarterly.

That yields an effective annual rate of 6.14%

AAA July 4th Warning Outside Storage Measure

(Continued from Page 1) will be less alert than they should be due to work fatigue and eagerness to reach their destination."

Mr. Rehm pointed out this dangerous after-work rush situation is considered by the Auto Club as a main reason why last year, when July 4th fell on a Tuesday, highway deaths reached a record 47 during the 102-hour holiday period.

"This year's holiday officially begins at 6 p.m. Tuesday, July 3, and ends midnight, Wednesday, July 4. Extremely heavy traffic volumes are not expected, as usual, over this holiday due to its short duration. Peak travel times will probably be in the morning and from late afternoon to early evening on Wednesday.

"Since many persons will probably be taking extra time off from work either before or after the 4th, we do not expect higher than normal traffic volumes over a 10-day period from Friday, June 29, to Sunday, July 8," Mr. Rehm said.

He emphasized that fears of possible gas shortages should not deter any motorists from traveling during the July 4th holiday.

Mr. Rehm added false alarm over gas shortages has been cited as a main cause behind an estimated 10 percent drop in tourism in the Upper Peninsula, as well as a five percent decrease in Mackinac Bridge crossings during the first two weeks in June.

"This is an unfortunate situation," he noted, "because of all the sections of the State, the Upper Peninsula is probably in the best shape fuel-wise. Many U.P. stations are operating with an excess of gasoline due to this summer's decline in tourism."

As over the Memorial Day weekend, the State's worst traffic trouble spot this July 4th will probably be on I-75 around Flint due to a 21-mile-long road-widening project.

GROWING WEED

The City Police received an anonymous phone call on Saturday, June 23, that a University place resident was growing marijuana on the roof of his house. Police Officer Richard Lanski talked to the subject who admitted to the growth. Officer Lanski confiscated 10 marijuana plants in two flower pots that were on top of the chimney of the house.

between the I-75-US-23 merging point and Birch Run.

While work in that area is suspended on weekends and will be stopped from 2 p.m. Tuesday, July 3, to Thursday morning, July 5, traffic at peak travel times is expected to slow down considerably around Flint because of the close proximity of construction equipment and ditches.

Shippers using the Zilwaukee Bridge, which carries I-75 over the Saginaw River near Saginaw, have agreed to curtail bridge use during peak travel times from Friday, June 29, to Sunday, July 8. Bridge openings will be eliminated on July 3 from 4 p.m. to 9 p.m. and from 3 p.m. to 10 p.m. on July 4.

As usual, the State Highway Department has ordered all road construction stopped throughout the State from 5 p.m. July 3 to the morning of July 5.

Blood Needed by Foundation

There is an urgent need for blood donors to put into effect a revolutionary treatment for patients suffering from leukemia and other serious blood diseases, and as fresh hope for some terminally ill cancer patients.

The treatment, known as leukopheresis, is the removal of just the white (infection-fighting) blood cells from a donor, and their transfusion into the bloodstream of a critically ill patient.

The blood transfusion is painless for both donor and patient. It does require more time than is normally required for a whole-blood donation, and there are stringent physical requirements that must be met by the donor for the complete safety of the patient receiving the transfusion.

Although the leukopheresis process itself, as well as the blood-testing of the donor, is performed at the Michigan Community Blood Center, 3456 Woodward avenue, Detroit, all potential donors must contact the Children's Leukemia Foundation, 17801 W. Seven Mile road, in person, by letter or telephone, for the necessary information. The telephone number is 534-5943. Individuals over 18, who are in good physical condition, should contact the Foundation as soon as possible.

The Children's Leukemia Foundation, which is the only

(Continued from Page 1) Mr. Hage in his letter. He felt present drafts of the measure were "so heavily based upon esthetic factors, they could not be redeemed but should be scrapped entirely."

Doesn't Agree
City Attorney George Catlin, who has been re-drafting the measure according to suggested changes, said, "I don't agree that it was totally based on esthetics. Some safety concerns were included."

While he partially felt esthetic concerns were considered, e.g., the use of a green belt type of screening regarding storage, Mr. Catlin also cited safety considerations, e.g., the equipment had to be kept locked, and storage of a boat by itself was not permitted, (it had to be on a trailer, for instance).

At the same time, the city attorney noted the fact other city ordinances have dealt in part with esthetics, e.g., building ordinance and zoning ordinance.

Mr. Hage felt the latest draft did not represent an improvement over earlier proposals or the best to date that the committee could evolve. "The latest draft in time merely represents another objectionable ordinance and not one approved by the citizens' committee as more acceptable than earlier drafts," he said.

Mr. Catlin said he has met several times with the citizens' committee and noted its "diverse" posture. Some members, he said, wanted no regulation, others wished total regulation while still others journeyed down the "middle of the road" wishing some regulation.

He noted the original draft emphasized total prohibition. This was ultimately altered to read under certain conditions. As changes were made, Mr. Catlin felt the committee had somewhat reversed itself.

For the time being, the "study period" continues as the C-W awaits the opinion of the Boat Club.

Above: Gillet Avenue in Waukegan, Illinois, as it appeared in the Summer of 1962.
Below: the same street seven years later, with its avenue of Elms wiped out by Dutch Elm Disease.

NOW ELMS CAN BE SAVED What they mean to you—In beauty . . .

If you have on your property a single American Elm, you have a specimen of what botanists have described as the most beautiful thing that grows in the Western Hemisphere. No other tree is comparable to this unique American species that rises to more majestic heights, with more gracefully architected branches than elms in any other part of the world.

It is an ornament to your home and property that adds unequalled dignity and charm. Its loss would leave a scar that would never completely heal. For your own enjoyment of their beauty, your elms merit the best care you can provide. But even more! — the elms that grace your home belong also to the nation — and to the future. You are the nation's custodian of part of a nation's heritage of beauty. And yours is the responsibility to protect and preserve it for the inspiration and enjoyment of generations to come.

In value . . .

The aesthetic value of a mature, majestic elm is beyond consideration of price. It can be measured only in terms of its loss. There is no replacement.

"How much is your home worth without its elms?" is a question few elm owners care even to consider. But it is certain that in terms of real estate, the value of an elm represents a large factor in the value of the home it shades. Where specimen elms have fallen to disease, the value of costly property has fallen with them.

Given the care that will safeguard them from Dutch elm disease, your elms have a life expectancy of three hundred years. Surely the inspiration and enjoyment they can afford you and your heirs, merit the cost of preservation.

However impressive are your public buildings, shops, schools, churches, if yours is a town where historic city landmarks and elegance to city streets, parks, public squares; these are your most precious monuments.

Not only for their aesthetic value but for their beneficial effect on the environment, your elms merit all the care you can provide. Their cooling shade actually reduces summer temperatures 15° to 25° and they help purify the air you breathe by utilizing carbon dioxide and liberating oxygen. As a factor in noise abatement, tree lined streets absorb a high percentage of sound reducing the nervous strain from mounting city traffic.

At last real hope for our elm trees — Benlate has been registered in Michigan for Dutch elm disease prevention and control. Benlate is a fungicide material, which when injected as part of our specialized elm care program, will in most cases prevent Dutch elm disease. Our men have completed the Benlate Injection Seminar, and we are so confident of our specialized elm care program that we will remove FREE of charge any trees that become infected with D.E.D. after our treatment.

Even elms that have been infected with D.E.D. can now be saved if caught in time. Surveillance is the key. Elms should be checked daily during June, July and August. At any sign of wilting or yellowing, which is called flagging, which appears in the crown of the tree; should any limb or series of limbs show any signs of wilting or yellowing of the leaves; call immediately for inspection and diagnosis. Call the same day. We have 24-hour answering service. We cannot guarantee curing an infected tree, but your chances of cure are about 60%.

Our preventive specialized elm care program is your best defense against losing your elm trees. Remember, if your elm tree becomes diseased after using our program, we will remove it FREE of charge, because we feel the program is that good.

Center Offers Concert Tours

Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association is making it easy and enjoyable for Pointers to go both to the series of classical concerts at Meadowbrook on Oakland University's Rochester campus and to the Pop series at Pine Knob.

The trips to the classical series at Meadowbrook with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra will be on Saturday evenings June 30-July 21. Patrons may park free in the Center's lot, board a chartered bus, bring their own cocktails and be furnished set-ups en route, be taken right through the Meadowbrook parking area to the concert gate, either enjoy their own picnic suppers on the grounds or be in plenty of time for the buffet on Trumbull Terrace and elect to sit either on the grounds or in the reserved pavillion seats for the concerts. On the way home, all may snooze and leave the driving to the chauffeur.

Saturday evening, June 30, Sixten Ehrling will conduct the Detroit Symphony Orchestra and Van Cliburn will be the guest soloist. On July 7, the guest artists will be James McCracken and Sarah Warfield. Andre Previn will appear with the Detroit Symphony as guest conductor on July 14 with pianist John Browning and on July 21 Sixten Ehrling will again conduct the Detroit Symphony Orchestra when the National Ballet performs.

General admission, free parking, chauffeured transportation and set-ups, plus grounds admission to four concerts are included for $25 for the series or $6.50 for a single evening. If one elects reserved seats in the pavillion, the cost of the same trips in series is $37 or $41 depending on location.

The trips to Pine Knob for the Pops Series will take place on Thursday, July 5 when Dionne Warwick and Henry Mancini will be featured; on Monday, July 16 when Burt Bachrach will star; Thursday, July 19, with stars Johnny Mathis and Michel Legrand; Thursday, July 26, with the fabulous "Carpenters"; Thursday, August 16 with Tom Jones.

Again guests will be able to park in the Center's lot and board busses to the concerts at 6 p.m. For this series, patrons may either bring their own picnic suppers or have a delicious box supper prepared for them by the Center's catering department.

The series including parking, transportation, supper and reserved lawn seating for the series of six is $50. If one brings his own picnic supper it is $42. A single evening with supper is $9.50 or $8 without the supper. One should reserve at the Center's office very soon for this pop series, for space at Pine Knob is going very fast.

Request Club To Screen Lot

A petition signed by 10 residents who live near the Lochmoor Club urging the preservation of their neighborhood's beauty was unanimously approved for sending to the club with The Woods Council's request that the club strongly comply with the citizens' wishes.

The action was taken at the regular meeting of the council Monday, June 18.

Specifically, the petition stresses "the planting of tall, dense evergreen foliage and attractive landscaping with a adequate maintenance to screen the additional parking area fronting on Sunningdale drive that has been proposed by the Lochmoor Club."

The club is planning on expanding its parking area by paving up to the existing fence which fronts Sunningdale.

Jaycees Make $3,300 Gift

The Grosse Pointe Jaycees recently surprised the local association for retarded children and its president, Henry Cope, at the association's recent annual meeting and banquet when Pieter van Horne, chairman of the Jelly Week project, presented a check for more than $3,300.

He announced because of the cooperative efforts of the two organizations, Grosse Pointe had the third highest sales record for any community in the entire State, selling more than 6,200 jars of jelly. Mr. van Horne said, "This record illustrates that which we have always known, namely the community of Grosse Pointe is comprised of a wonderful and generous group of people of whom we can be proud."

Mr. van Horne and his committee of John Ruh, John and Phyllis Brewster, James and Patsy Dinverno, Lois Pierce and Karen Eicher have pledged to make Jelly Week an annual event, and to help next year's committee surpass this year's record.

The Association for Retarded Children announced that the monies will be spent in various local programs including The Foundation for Exceptional Children, The Teen Club and The John Lee Program.

Citation Given Admiral Jacobi

At a recent banquet honoring Apollo 15 astronaut, Colonel Alfred Worden, and former POW Colonel Donald Odell, the Air Force Association presented a special citation to Rear Admiral (R.) Leon J. Jacobi, of Fisher road.

The citation was "in recognition of distinguished service to the nation and to the public understanding of air power through his many contributions to the Air Force Association."

Admiral Jacobi, a graduate of the N.S. Naval Academy, has served the Alumni Board as vice-president and trustee. Following six years of active duty in World War II, he reorganized the Detroit Naval Reserve and served as Brigade Commander. He commanded the Michigan Naval Force from 1947 until it was abolished in 1968. He is a past national president of Reserve Officers Association of the United States, a 70,000 member organization, and was president of many Naval Reserve Selection Boards. He also has served as chairman of the Council of National Defense Detroit, president of Detroit Council of Navy League, and commander of Military Order of World Wars.

Honor French Students at SH

Elizabeth Rohr, a senior at South High, is the recipient of a three-week trip to France this summer. Elizabeth won the trip, sponsored by the French Government, as a prize for attaining third place nationally in the Level Four-B, students with experience in a French-speaking country.

The coast-to-coast competition was sponsored by the American Association of Teachers of French. Her French sojourn will include visits in Paris, Dijon, and in the Loire Valley.

Two other students, both South High seniors, also placed well in the national contest. Katherine McLeod, who won 7th place nationally in Level 4-B (experience in French-speaking area), and Jane Burnham, who gained 10th place in Division 4-A (students without experience in French-speaking areas), received anthologies of French literature as their awards.

The three students who excelled in the national competition are currently enrolled in the classes of Francis J. Granger.

In addition, two Grosse Pointe students, both juniors at South High, were in a three-way tie for first place in a competition sponsored by the Detroit Chapter of the American Association of Teachers of French. They are each recipients of a book and a check, and have been students in Mr. Granger's classes in 1972-73.

Mr. Granger attributes the outstanding record of South High's students to the overall quality of instruction in the language program, as well as to the competence and ability of the students.

FOP Reelects Stephen Petrik

Woods Traffic Safety Officer Stephen Petrik was reelected Fourth District Director for Wayne and Monroe Counties at the State Fraternal Order of Police Convention Sunday-Tuesday, June 10-12, in Grand Rapids. His term is for one year. In "true family tradition," the officer's wife, Kathleen, was elected a State Trustee of the Ladies Auxiliary for the State of Michigan. Her term also is for one year.

Sentence Pair in Theft Case

Two Detroit men were sentenced to from one and one-half years to 10 years in Jackson Prison on charges of larceny from a person, Woods police reported. Donald Slezinski, 22, and Steven Vangorder, 21, were sentenced in Wayne County Circuit court Thursday, June 21. Both men pled guilty to the larceny charges at their circuit court arraignment Thursday, May 31. Slezinski and Vangorder were arrested after Woods public safety officers were flagged down by two East Detroit women at the Woods Theatre parking lot Monday, May 14. Lt. Roland Symons and Officer Kenneth Metcalf chased the men at speeds exceeding 80 m.p.h. before finally apprehending them on Warren, near Hereford.

At the time of their arrest, police found two foil packets of suspected narcotics on Slezinski and one foil packet on Vangorder. One of the two packets on Slezinski, along with Vangorder's, didn't reveal the presence of any controlled substances, according to a Regional Crime Detection Laboratory analysis.

However, the other packet on Slezinski contained the presence of heroin. Slezinski would not be charged with violation of the Controlled Substance Act because of the one and one-half to 10 year sentence he already received.

 plant were being clogged from the apparent washing of new concrete into the system. (One-third of the pool was recently resurfaced). But last week this situation had improved and the once murky water was swiftly clearing up.

Then, on Sunday evening, June 17, a storm with high northeast winds brought some water over the break-wall and into the pool. As a result, personnel had to drain the pool, clean out all the mud and give it a complete washdown.

Parks and Recreation Director Donald Hallman reported Friday, June 22, the situation at that time was "touch and go." Efforts were being made to stop lake seepage into the pool, with Mr. Hallman saying, "We would repair one spot, then another would start."

So the pool has to be drained again in an effort to eliminate all seepage.

DIABETES
 Is the failure of the pancreas to secrete insulin in sufficient quantity to take care of the glucose (sugar) in the normal diet.
 Generally there are three main types. 1. Functional (nerve deficient). 2. Pathological (tissue destruction "diseased"). 3. Undergrowth, (failure of the body to complete to its normal size).
 Causes are usually hereditary or congenital.
 The results with Zone Acupuncture Physiotherapy System (the world's most effective powerful system). 1. Functional the results are good. 2. Pathological the results are fair. 3. Undergrowth the results are poor, children the results are fair.
 Under the traditional system the results are poor or none. However under Zone Acupuncture Physiotherapy System it is a rare case that does not show some improvement. Under Zone Acupuncture Physiotherapy treatments many functional and pathological types respond so good that the intake of insulin is completely eliminated.
 We recall one case of a man 48 years old who was taking 110 units of U 80 (double strength) per day, who responded so good that he had to discontinue the intake of insulin after eight treatments in a period of one month.
 We wish to advise that Zone Acupuncture Physiotherapy is not available from your doctor or chiropractor, but is available by calling 886-4010 for more information or an appointment. ADV.

Honor George Bashara, Sr. For 50-Year Law Career

The Sheraton Cadillac Hotel was the scene of a recent tribute to George N. Bashara, Sr., of Balfour road, honoring his 50 years as a member of the State Bar of Michigan.

Following cocktails and dinner in the Hotel's Book Casino Room, master of ceremonies, the Honorable George N. Bashara, Jr., Judge of the State Court of Appeals, recounted his father's career as an orator, student, attorney and public servant.

Mr. Bashara, Sr., was born in Indiana but spent five of his early years in Lebanon. Returning to Grand Rapids at age eight, he spoke only Arabic, but by the time he graduated from high school at 16, he was the winner of the Michigan State Oratorical Contest.

He attended the Wharton School of Finance at the University of Pennsylvania, and the University of Michigan Law School. He was too young to take the Bar Examinations upon his graduation, but passed them with flying colors as soon as he turned 21.

Then followed a successful 50-year career in the practice of law, with a 15-year tenure as the Honorary Consul of the Republic of Lebanon. Active in politics and church, Mr. Bashara remains an active member of the State Bar of Michigan.

Among the jurists present offering tribute to Mr. Bashara were Chief Judge of the State Court of Appeals and Mrs. T. John Lesinski, Hon. and Mrs. James Montante, Hon. and Mrs. John Gillis, Hon. and Mrs. William C. Hague, Hon. and Mrs. Wade McCree, Hon. and Mrs. Irwin Burdick, Hon. and Mrs. Frank Szymanski, Hon. and Mrs. Benjamin Burdick and Hon. Geraldine Ford.

A citation was presented to Mr. Bashara, the legal counsel of the Associated Food Dealers for 35 years, by Edward Deeb and Allan Verbrugge of that organization. Michael Allie of the Masonic Order recounted Mr. Bashara's 50 years with the fraternal organization.

Former legal associates Manuel Zechman, Robert Harkess, George Mugerian, and Judge Hague were on hand, as were three of the secretaries who worked with Mr. Bashara for long periods of time: Mrs. Bud Molz, Mrs. William Hull and Mrs. George Hayes.

Representing the Order of the Eastern Star were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rouse, Mrs. Florence Ryckeman, Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne Courtney and Mr. and Mrs. James Knight.

A special tribute was paid to Mr. Bashara by the government of the Republic of Lebanon by emissary Consul-General Samir El Koury.

In addition to Mrs. Bashara, daughters and sons-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Samuel of Moran road, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Elfers of London, Ont., Canada, Mrs. Stephen Pleva, and Dr. and Mrs. Tobias George of Gwin, Mich., were present. Mrs. George N. Bashara Jr. and Robert and Laura Bashara rounded out the immediate family group.

Others in attendance were Mr. Bashara's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Michael A. Skaaf of Grand Rapids, and their children, Mrs. Joseph Ellis and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ellis of Grand Rapids, and Dr. and Mrs. Michael S. Skaaf of Saddle lane.

Special congratulations and tributes were read from Governor and Mrs. William Milliken, Congressman Lucien Nedzi, and Judge Creighton and Justice Mary Coleman.

Plant Garden At Monteith

Although it may not contain silver bells and cockle shells, the Monteith students' garden is growing well.

The fourth graders, under the guidance of teacher Margaret Watkins, planted the garden in May as part of an ecology project. It is located in the front of the school next to the playground fence.

The project began in April during Earth Week. Seeds of marigold, zinnias, sunflowers, and daisies were supplied by the Michigan State Conservation Department. The seeds were nursed into tiny sprouts in classroom window boxes before being transferred outdoors.

The children's gentle hands as well as spring rains and summer sun provided the necessary ingredients for plant growth. The garden is flourishing.

The students decided to care for the garden during the summer. So far they have stuck to the plan. There is not a weed in sight. Just flowers all in a row.

Weather Affects U-LS Carnival

Be it a backyard barbecue or a project the magnitude of the University-Liggett Carnival, weather is always a factor in any outdoor event.

This year heavy spring rains, with the greatest downpour during the three days directly preceding the carnival, held Friday and Saturday, June 8 and 9, caused a curtailment of some of its activity for the first time in its 24-year history.

The carnival is held annually to benefit the U-LS Scholarship Fund.

Following a week of steady downpour, U-LS Headmaster Raymond Robbins and Business Manager Tony Fruhauf met with Carnival Manager Robert Reid and Carnival Chairman Chuck Hicks at the site on the school's athletic field.

After an inspection of the water-soaked spongy grounds, the four decided that the Carnival's heaviest equipment should not be installed.

Despite some disappointment on the part of those involved—the community, the school and the Carnival management—the show did go on.

Indeed, the Carnival was blessed with sunny skies and most of the nearly 10,000 adults and children who came enjoyed the rides, food, games and declared it one of the best yet. And, according to Carnival Chairman Chuck Hicks, "Next year's carnival will be bigger and better than ever!"

"An idea that isn't dangerous is hardly worth calling an idea at all." —Oscar Wilde.

Trunk Looted By Car Thief

A St. Clair Shores resident whose auto was stolen from the St. John Hospital parking lot told Woods police, after his car was recovered, around $346 worth of equipment, mainly sports items, was taken from the trunk.

The man said his Ford Thunderbird was parked at 11:30 p.m. Saturday, June 16, and at 12:45 a.m. Sunday, June 17, he found it missing. A short while later, Detroit Auto Recovery contacted The Woods and said the recovered auto was at the 5th precinct. The car was discovered with its motor running, its ignition hot wired and its trunk lock punched.

The sports equipment included tennis rackets, baseball gloves, bowling balls and bowling shoes. A movie camera of unknown value also was taken.

Two inter-league games were played between National and American League teams Sunday, June 10.

The National League won both including a combined no-hit pitching effort by Dave Ferris and Mark Graff who banded together to lead the East Side Key and Bike Cardinals to a 6-5 win over the Sears Roebuck Tigers. Errors by both teams kept this game close until Brian Dooms blasted a game-winning triple to take it for the Cards.

By an identical score, the Fikany Real Estate Dodgers edged the Burger Chef White Sox in a game that saw Bob Kolar pick up his first pitching victory of the season. The Dodger offense was sparked by Jeff Chancey, Kyle Ground and a game-winning single by Dave Ehrlich. Bob Montgomery, Rick Ruffner and Dan Couvreur's hitting kept the White Sox in the game.

The first half of the National League season ended in a tie between the Cardinals and the Grosse Pointe Park Police Officers Association Giants which had to be played off Monday, June 11. Mark Graff, pitching for only the second time in his career, struck out six batters and gave up only two singles to wrap up the first half for the Cards in a close 2-1 game. Mark Verbiest, Dave Ferris and Tony Abraham got key hits off pitcher Rob Worrell who pitched well in a losing effort.

In the All-American League, the Ewald Chevrolet Royals defeated the Texas Rangers, 12-11, Wednesday, June 13. Mark Monaghan, striking out seven, got the win when Ken Miller drove in the deciding run with a clutch single. Bob Posada also tripled for the Royals.

GPSA Enjoys Busy Weekend

The Grosse Pointe Softball Association, (GPSA), completed another full schedule of games last weekend.

Art Van swept a doubleheader defeating the East Warren Binjers, 6-2, and Fontana Brothers, 7-0, Saturday, June 23. George Roberts went two-for-two in leading Carissimi to a 4-1 victory over Keg-A-Brew. Then Keg-A-Brew came back to shut out the Athletics 7-0. Meanwhile, Schaivis trounced Kessler Electric, 14-4.

On Sunday, June 24, John Clancy hit a timely two-run homer as the Marauders edged Schaivis in an extra inning game, 4-2. Fontana Brothers "stuck it" to the Athletics, 4-2. Carissimi handed a loss to Art Van, 12-10, while the Challengers shocked Keg-A-Brew, 6-2. The East Warren Binjers, led by the hard hitting, (three-for-four), and flawless fielding of shortstop Bruce Bendure, overwhelmed the Challengers, 12-7.

Big Inning Nets Police Victory

The Pointe police softball team had a whopping 10-run seventh inning to come from behind and defeat Warren Traffic, 23-17, Sunday, June 17. The win evens the Pointers record at 3-3 in Macomb-Oakland Police Softball League play.

After the Sunday, June 24, contest against the Macomb County Court, the club faces Sterling Traffic Sunday, July 8, at the L. W. Baumgartner Field, 15 Mile road near Schoenherr. This game is set for 10:15 a.m. on diamond one.

PO Offers Tips to Vacationers

With the vacation season coming up, Postmaster Edward L. Baker offered a number of timely suggestions to would-be vacationers who might be contemplating periods of absence from their homes.
Departing vacationers are urged to avoid having their mail boxes become over-stuffed during their absence — an open invitation to thieves. Arrange to have a neighbor or friend empty the mail box daily. Or, submit a written request to the local post office to hold up mail delivery for a period of up to 30 days.
For vacationers who will be away for a considerable time, a forward order placed with the post office is advised. For first-class mail, no additional postage is required. Use of ZIP Codes on picture post cards and other vacation-type mail is, of course, as helpful as on regular year-round mail. So is the care to make all addresses legible and accurate, a precaution particularly called for since much vacation mail is scribbled while riding in cars or airplanes.
Another helpful tip is to buy enough stamps in advance to avoid running out of postage when a post office is not near. Also, why not take along a supply of tourism postal cards for sending those "having wonderful time" greetings, and the new padded mailing bags, now available at most post offices, for mailing souvenirs and gifts?
If you mail rolls of film away for processing, either on your trip or when you return, a good way to insure against the loss of your irreplaceable pictures, is to attach a gummed sticker or a slip of paper directly to the roll of film repeating the address information you have on the outside wrapper or container. This way, if the roll somehow becomes separated from the outer container, delivery will still be accomplished.
If you can possibly avoid it, never mail cash. Send a check or money order, instead.
Finally, don't forget to cancel your request to forward or hold your mail as soon as you return from vacation.
Postmaster Baker said, "If these precautions are followed it will be helpful to us at the Post Office, but more important, vacationers will be less likely to have their otherwise happy vacation marred by a mail-related incident."

GP Sail Club Holds Regatta

A fleet of 209 boats participated in the Grosse Pointe Sail Club's 21st annual Regatta Saturday, June 23, on the Canadian side of Lake St. Clair. The light air at the start freshened to 30 m.p.h. and coupled with sunshine made this Regatta a great success.
Dr. Richard Gause's Redwing 30 "Et Cetera II" won in Class F and was overall winner in the I.O.R. classes. John Herr, Jr., a member of the Pointe Sail Club and winner of the recent Canadian Club race, kept up his winning streak by bringing in his boat "Chula" first in Class D.
"Sandpiper", skippered by Katy Wrock and her all-girl crew led the 15 Cal 25's across the winning line.
In the absence of Commodore C. Dale Nouse, Vice Commodore Bernard Van Antwerp and Rear Commodore Donald Boddy ably took the helm and, according to the club, furthered its reputation as "the sailingest" club of the Great Lakes.
In addition to their annual Regatta, the Sail Club organizes and directs a Tuesday night race series off Windmill Pointe Park, a favorite of sailors and spectators alike.

Dr. A. Rabbani New Unit Chief

Dr. Ali Rabbani, former Director of Nurseries and the Newborn Intensive Care Unit at St. John Hospital has had his duties expanded to include the entire pediatrics department. His new title is Chief of Pediatrics.
He replaces Dr. C. Don Steepe, who was Chief of Pediatrics since 1964, who has announced that he is resigning to devote more time to his private practice.
Dr. Rabbani was graduated from Teheran Medical School. He served his internship at Mount Carmel Hospital in Detroit and was a pediatric resident at Children's Hospital, where he received a fellowship for the study of children's respiratory diseases. He was also awarded another fellowship at Children's for the study of hematology.
Dr. Rabbani was a civilian pediatrician in the United States Air Force Hospital in Weisbaden, Germany. Upon his return to the States, he studied neonatology at the Hospital for Sick Children in Toronto.

Vandals Water Down Floors

An Edshire lane resident was awakened by the sound of running water around 2 a.m. Tuesday, June 19, and discovered someone had taken his garden hose and placed it in the mail chute, which leads to an entrance hall closet.
The resident told Woods Public Safety Officer Albert Abend the water ran all over the closet floor and seeped through to the basement, where about one foot of water swirled on the recreation room floor.
No noises were heard by the resident prior to the water. The water damaged oak flooring in the hall closet but the basement is tiled, police reported.

Attends Texas Scout Parley

Susan Garska, of Kercheval avenue, has been selected to participate in the Girl Scouts' Wider Opportunities summer travel program. She is attending the "Taste of Texas" event, June 14 to July 3, sponsored by the San Jacinto Girl Scout Council.
Susan, a member of Brownell Middle School Cadette Troop 1463 and the Girl Scouts of Metropolitan Detroit, was one of 100 Scouts selected from throughout the United States, Puerto Rico and three foreign countries to participate in this Houston-area event.
Activities planned for the girls include visits to the Astro dome, NASA Moon Base, a rodeo, oil fields and ranches. They will also have an opportunity to enjoy a Texas barbecue and will be given lessons in Indian and square dancing.
The girls will experience Texas hospitality by staying in the homes of local Girl Scouts for most of their visit. They will also spend several days in "Tent City" at the Triple T Ranch where they'll be primitive camping.
This summer, 16 Scouts from the Detroit Council were selected to attend Wider Opportunities events. In addition to Susan, Katie Wojtan, of Livonia will also attend the "Taste of Texas."
The 1973 Wider Opportunities program offers Scouts a choice of 34 different events in this country plus several international trips. The purpose of this program is to increase the girls' self-awareness and confidence through travel while providing educational and enjoyable experiences.

To Display Art At Vinegarden

Beginning this month, members of the Grosse Pointe Artists Association will be exhibiting paintings and graphics in the Gallery of the Vinegarden in Grosse Pointe Woods.
Edna Bakewicz, Bette Prudden, Pat Penoyar and Julia Ford comprise the first group of artists to show in the new wine and cheese shop at 21018 Mack Avenue near Roslyn.
Paul McCarthy, owner, invites anyone interested to come between the hours of 11 a.m. and 6:30 p.m. to view the 18 pieces of work, most of which are for sale.
Continuing with works by other Grosse Pointe Artists members, the selection will be changed monthly and will be selected in different categories. "It was Mrs. McCarthy's wish to have the work of local artists in our Gallery," said Mr. McCarthy. "We are looking forward to a variety of shows which we think people will be interested in seeing."

Faulty Lights Spell Trouble

Faulty lights on a trailer attached to a landscaping truck were the undoing of Orlando C. Binion of 15363 Tuller, Detroit, on Thursday, June 21. He was arrested by Farms police.
Cpl. Otto Glanert said that he had been cruising south on Provençal road, then turned west on Lake Shore, when he observed the truck and the trailer with defective tail lights.
The officer said when he stopped Binion and asked for his operator's license, Binion was unable to produce one. The man admitted that he had never acquired a valid Michigan license.
Binion was taken to the station where he was given a violation ticket for having defective lights, and another for driver's license never acquired.
Binion was released after posting a bond of $25, to appear in court on July 25.

Church Has New Minister

Dr. Roy R. Hutcheon, Minister of the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church, and the entire congregation are pleased to announce that their new associate minister will be Jay H. Cummings.

Mr. Cummings and his wife, Leslie, came to Grosse Pointe on Thursday, June 14, following his graduation from the Bangor Theological Seminary in Bangor, Me., where he received a Master of Divinity degree.

In addition to his studies, Mr. Cummings has been the student pastor at the Andover Congregational Church in Andover, Me., where he will be ordained following his graduation.

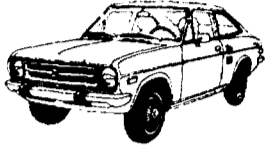

Mr. Cummings was born in Dallas, Texas, but has lived in Michigan most of his life. He graduated from Saranac High School in 1966 and received his Bachelor of Science degree from Michigan State University in 1970. The ministry is a tradition in the Cummings family. Mr. Cummings' grandfather was a Congregational minister as are his father and brother. His father's current pastorate is in Hudsonville, Michigan.

Mr. Cummings' wife, Leslie Ann, grew up in Ortonville, Michigan, near Flint. She graduated from Michigan State University with a teaching degree but worked as a librarian while her husband was at the seminary.

The church family feels fortunate in having this young minister and his wife join them.

Pops Concerts Begin July 1

The world premiere of Peter Nero's new composition for solo piano and orchestra on Sunday, July 1, will be just one of the exciting attractions of the 10th Anniversary Sunday Pops Series at Meadow Brook this summer.

The schedule for the popular Sunday Pops, which will run for eight weeks from July 1 through August 19 includes a performance by the National Ballet, an all-Gershwin evening featuring Andre Kostelanetz and Leonard Pennario, and a Spanish-inspired musical evening with Morton Gould and Carlos Montoya.

Conductor Sixten Ehrling will lead the Detroit Symphony Orchestra in the July 1 concert in which Peter Nero will premiere his new work, as yet untitled.

Peter Nero and his Trio will play in concert during the second half of the evening, in keeping with the more innovative programming of this season's Pops.

Arthur Fiedler, the venerable conductor of the Boston Pops, will appear again this season on Sunday, July 8, to conduct the Detroit Symphony in a program of celebrated pop favorites. His guest artist will be the young Latin American pianist Alegria Arce. The pianist, a native of Ecuador, will play a selection by Rachmaninoff to commemorate the centennial anniversary of his birth.

An all-Gershwin evening with Andre Kostelanetz and pianist Leonard Pennario is planned for Sunday, July 15. Revered conductor Kostelanetz, long associated with the New York Philharmonic, will direct the Detroit Symphony in highlights of Gershwin repertoire in a celebration of the 75th Anniversary of the American composer's birth. The pianist will be Pennario, last seen at the Meadow Brook Festival in 1964.

Mackinac Race Outing Planned

In the wake of last year's success, Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association is repeating its champagne send off of the Mackinac Race Fleet. On Saturday, July 21, Grosse Pointe race enthusiasts will board a charter bus at the Center, 32 Lake Shore road, at 7:30 a.m.

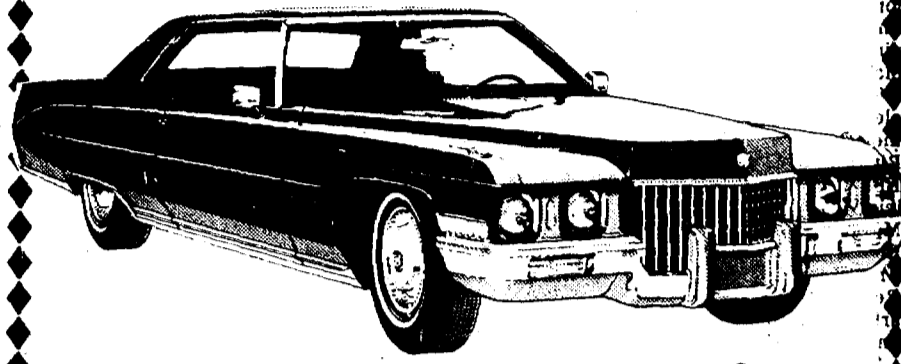

First stop will be at the Black River berthing area in Port Huron where the crowd will witness the crews readying their boats for the start and where they will give them a champagne toast as they leave the river to take their place on the starting line.

Then the bus will cross the Blue Water Bridge into Canada. Crossing the bridge affords a magnificent view of the fleet as the boats jockey into position for the start.

Prior to the starting gun, the group will gather on the Canadian shore of Lake Huron just north of Sarnia in beautiful Canatara Park where brunch, prepared by the Center's caterers and transported in heated containers, will be served. While enjoying this spread, one may watch the boats take off for the long race. The complete "Money is the sixth sense, without which the other five cannot be enjoyed."

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Kathy Duff

Whom do you call if you want help in your yard, a babysitter for your child, a magician for a birthday party, help painting or cleaning, or a boat washed? J.O.Y. has teens that can do any job you have.

In order to continue to improve the service that J.O.Y. provides, Mrs. Peggy Birgbauer, chairman of J.O.Y., has formed an Ad Hoc Committee to share ideas and information concerning teenage employment. Members of the Committee include Mrs. Jack Wood from the Grosse Pointe South Mother's Club, Mrs. Harvey Pickford from the Grosse Pointe North Parent's Club, Charles Hitch, coordinator of career counseling for the schools, and John Bruce, director of the Neighborhood Club.

Others are Mrs. Norman MacColl, Jr., from the Neighborhood Club Board of Trustees, Mrs. Charles Kinnaird from F.L.E.C., and Mrs. Richard Krost, the 1973-74 chairman of J.O.Y.

Student representatives include the editors of the North Pointe and the Tower, and student officers from both high schools.

J.O.Y. (Job Opportunities for Youth), was formerly the Neighborhood Club Teenage Placement Bureau. It is co-sponsored by the Junior League of Detroit, Inc., and the Neighborhood Club. The phones are manned by volunteers from 19 to 65, who are attempting to line up employers with the right teenagers for the job they want done. It is strictly a volunteer service for the Grosse Pointe communities.

The Neighborhood Club Teenage Placement Bureau originated in 1968 and is still located in the Neighborhood Club building at 17150 Waterloo.

Headed by Peggy Birgbauer from the Junior League, the 1972-73 was a new and innovative year. A teenager renamed the bureau, "J.O.Y." Job Opportunities for Youth. Junior League members went to the Grosse Pointe Public Schools to enlist teens interested in jobs and check their personal references. J.O.Y., with the addition of so many teens, found it necessary to be open Monday through Friday from 1 to 5 p.m.

Publicity took many forms this year with a logo for ads and posters distributed to the community by our young people. The Grosse Pointe War Memorial cooperated and gave J.O.Y. space in several monthly mailings, and the student publications from Grosse Pointe North and South High Schools also were good sources of publicity.

Diversity of talents was stressed with the teenagers. It was found they had many talents the community could use. Teens signed up for the various jobs: magician, photographer, seamstress, paper tote instructor, flute, guitar, oboe, trumpet, piano teacher.

Pointer of Interest

FREDERICK A. KAISER, OF CHRISTINE COURT

By Kathy Duff

One of the great myths on the American scene is that all suburbanites have forsaken the city, that all have moved out of the troubled urban areas and are content to live out their days amid golf courses and shopping centers.

That might be true for some suburbanites, but not for all suburbanites. And it is interesting to note that most Pointers of Interest, suggested to us as outstanding members of the community, are actively involved in the development of Detroit.

Pointer Frederick A. Kaiser admits that he cares about Detroit. He will even admit that he is a "sitting duck" whenever a committee is formed to revitalize an area of Detroit.

When Mayor Albert Cobb formed a committee for the Industrial and Commercial Development of Detroit after World War II, he called Mr. Kaiser. When the late Richard Webber headed the campaign to consolidate the medical facilities downtown, he called Mr. Kaiser.

It's a toss-up whether the Pointer is busier now, as a member of various Detroit civic committees, or when he was a vice-president of the Michigan Consolidated Gas Company before his retirement in 1963.

"I think all of us should have a rapport with the city of Detroit. The suburbs and the city are so closely interrelated, if it weren't for the city, there wouldn't be the suburbs. As a result, what is in the best interests of the city is in the best interests of the suburbs," Mr. Kaiser commented.

At present, the bulk of Mr. Kaiser's civic energies are absorbed in the establishment of the Detroit Medical Center, located in a 240-acre area bounded by Mack, Woodward, Warren and the Chrysler Freeway.

Business as usual... we welcome the reopening of Bijouterie Jewlery by Cueter. If you are looking for a special someone, stop in at 10860 Mack Avenue.

Take notice!... guess who is new? at the Edward Nepi Salon? It's the exciting arrival of Michael, Ron and Irene from the Posh Studio.

It's "PICNIC-TIME" at The Merry Mouse. During the month of July, I'm featuring Danish Swiss, Beef Summer Sausage, Kosher Dills (right out of the barrel, folks) and of course French Bread.

The new management... at WRIGHT'S GIFT AND LAMP SHOP, tells us that there's lots of new merchandise. Selections of walnut salad bowls and chess sets are among the new arrivals at WRIGHT'S.

Charles S. Mott Center for Human Growth and Development and a $1.2 million Children's Center to treat emotionally disturbed children.

In commenting on the effect the Center would have on the greater Detroit area, Mr. Kaiser said that patients would be sent from all parts of Michigan to receive the finest possible medical care.

He added: "However, the Center also provides for the education of new doctors through its association with the Wayne Medical School. A third function of the Center is to provide excellent research facilities, such as those in the Mott Center and the Michigan Cancer Foundation's Prentiss Cancer Center."

As with most people involved in the development of the Center, Mr. Kaiser cannot say enough about its excellence. It promises to give Detroit a new identity, above and beyond that already given by the automotive industry, the homicide rate and the Tigers.

Harbor Watcher The Medical Center is just one of the Pointer's interests. Another project vying for his time is the Detroit Port Development Corporation as Mr. Kaiser serves as president of its board of trustees.

"The port's located just beyond the Ambassador Bridge and has berths for up to seven large ships. Many different nations are represented by the ships that dock there."

"It's very interesting as this is the first year that Russian ships are allowed on the Great Lakes and we now have Russian ships docked at our port. Many Detroit goods are shipped to Russia, especially conveyor materials and machine tools."

In describing the port, Mr. Kaiser will discuss everything from the totally refrigerated building for the storage of shipped meats—there was that recent huge shipment of Polish hams from Poland—to the luxury of being served a meal aboard a freighter.

Old Detroiters Mr. Kaiser is a native Detroit; his family's house was located where the new Medical Center stands. He attended Detroit Central High School, then one of the three high schools in the entire city of Detroit.

As with many old Detroiters, his first important job was connected with the automotive industry. His first big promotion involved his moving to Portland, Ore., to help put the Pacific Northwest on wheels.

Logging was big business around Portland in 1923. However, it was becoming increasingly important to be able to transport logs inland. Before we came, and put to use our seven-ton chassies, they were using donkeys to move the logs. We motorized the entire area."

Later assignments took Mr. Kaiser to Los Angeles to service the nascent movie industry.

"In those days, the movie directors had to wait for sunny days to shoot the pictures and had to use giant tin foil reflecting boards to increase the natural light. Gradually, the directors realized the necessity of artificial lighting to be able to shoot on most days. In order to move the huge floodlights, we had to provide them with trucks."

BROCCOLI CASSEOLE

Contributed by Mrs. Richard H. Johnson and Mrs. Richard F. Kosko For The Memorial Church Cookbook, 'Gourmet Points'

- 6 pkgs. frozen chopped broccoli
1 can mushroom soup
3/4 cup evaporated milk
2 Kraft's garlic cheese rolls
1 small pkg. Velveeta
1/2 cup Pepperidge Farm dressing
Buttered crumbs (optional)

Cook broccoli and drain well. Melt together the cheeses, soup and milk. Combine with broccoli and dressing. Place in buttered casserole and top with crumbs. Bake 30 min. at 350 degrees. Serves 18.

Frozen chopped spinach can be substituted. The recipe can be halved for a smaller group and leftovers can be successfully frozen.

"Many of the shootings were on location. I saw Wallace Beery filmed in 'Casey at Bat.' Another famous star I saw was Pola Negri acting on location in Crater Lake, Ore. It was when she was having her mad love affair with Rudolph Valentino."

"And everything said about her temperament was true. On the set she was constantly complaining about the makeup man not doing a good job, about her not being able to be with Valentino..."

Radio Fan However, some of the romance of early Hollywood actually became a part of Mr. Kaiser's personal life. When he was on business in Los Angeles, upon returning to his hotel at night, he would always listen to a 15-minute radio program.

"The show was entitled 'Moonlight Madonna,' called that because the theme song for the program was that well-known song. I thought the vocalist, (she was a contralto), had truly an exceptional voice."

Several years later, one of his friends asked Mr. Kaiser to escort a visiting guest to a dinner dance. After the dinner dance, Mr. Kaiser's date was asked to play the piano and sing.

The song she played was the "Moonlight Madonna." The singer's Los Angeles agent never quite forgave Mr. Kaiser for marrying his client who then gave up her promising career. Angeline Wilson, whose stage name was Carol Lee, remained Mr. Kaiser's wife for 34 years until her death in 1972.

Business Career After Mr. Kaiser's return to Detroit, he was associated with the Hudson Motor Car Company and later the Detroit Michigan Stove Company. After the stove company merged with an eastern manufacturer, he resigned to become vice-president of the Michigan Consolidated Gas Company.

As far as recreation goes, Mr. Kaiser will enjoy a round of golf once or twice a week, schedule permitting. He is a former director and president of the Detroit Golf Club and a past director of the Detroit Athletic Club. Other associations include two chairmanships of Junior Achievement Week, the Adcraft Club, the Recess Club, and several charities such as the Michigan United Fund.

Yet Mr. Kaiser remains a sitting duck for civic projects. When the move began to save old Orchestra Hall from the demolition crews, he was one of the persons invited to hear the Detroit Symphony concertmaster Gordon Staples give a music concert.

"You can't believe how terrible the building looked. There were chandeliers lying on the floor. However, as we walked around the hall during the concert, the acoustics were as perfect as ever."

"And look what they have done. They have actually saved Orchestra Hall from demolition." That's obviously the feeling Mr. Kaiser has about Detroit, that if enough people care, Detroit can be in the front ranks of the nation's cities.
