

School Negotiations Continue

Continued from Page 1) wide lead over all Michigan school districts and over most all in the Mid-West. In 1972-73 our M.A. maximum exceeded the closest competitor by more than $250. Our B.A. maximum was even more in the lead, offering approximately $780 more than the second place district. "Our average salary per teacher in 1972-73 was $16,960 and our median was $17,655. Recent newspaper articles have cited the Detroit teachers were averaging $13,295 or $3,700 less than our teachers. Other districts undoubtedly have higher averages than Detroit, but we know of none which approach our average or that will in 1973-74.

"We recognize 11 separate levels of training for salary purposes. Most districts have four or perhaps five. This results in several hundred of our teachers receiving $226 for each 10 hours of training above a degree.

Thus, some are paid as much as $450 or $675 more than they would be paid in other districts. We do this because of long-standing conviction that a staff that is encouraged to improve their competencies, knowledge, and skills results in a better educational opportunity for our children. However, we feel that we have been paying and will be paying, with the improvements on the table, at a level not seriously challenged by any other district.

"Let me point out some hard facts. Looking at the top 10 districts which have already settled for 1973-74, we have made an analysis of what a teacher at maximum will have earned from September, 1971 through June 1974, a three-year period encompassing the freeze in each of the districts. The amounts I recite do not reflect the increased earnings our extra levels of training provide for 40 per cent of our staff.

"Considering the M.A. maximum, a Grosse Pointe teacher paid according to our proposal for 1973-74 will have earned $51,940 over the three year period. The closest competitor, Grosse Ile, will have paid $51,798 or $142 less than Grosse Pointe. While not a monumental sum, it does illustrate that our proposal continues our number one standing in this rationale despite the fact that Grosse Ile has agreed to an $18,000 M.A. maximum.

"The third place district, Dearborn, lags by $144 in this study. All the rest lag by anywhere from $1,065 to $2,040 over the three-year period. Clearly, our current offer taken together with our 1972-73 salary levels makes the Board's proposal eminently fair and equitable.

"Similar data relative to three-year earnings for bachelor degree personnel shows a load of $1,032 over the number two district and as much as $3,980 over the lowest in the 10 districts studied.

"Some may quibble over the list of districts included in our study. Suffice it to say that among the 10 are those districts which have given us the stiffest competition over the last eight years.

"Future settlements may produce other districts with M.A. maximums better than some on our list. However, we have reviewed this aspect and are confident that there are no dark horses who may emerge from the pack to measurably change the order at the finish line.

"I must emphasize one extremely important point. We have a highly trained and highly experienced staff. Approximately 80 per cent of them receive the maximum salaries we list. Our competitors, by and large, are more likely to have 20 to 30 per cent of their staff at maximum which makes their actual cost significantly less than our. The average salary I cited earlier for Grosse Pointe teachers as compared to averages elsewhere illustrates this fact dramatically.

"In conclusion, let me say that the Board and the Association are reasonably close regarding salary and fringe benefits for 1973-74. Both parties are exploring a multiple year contract and it is on the second or the second and third years that we are rather far apart.

"We do appreciate the fact that our teachers reported for duty on time and have gone about getting this school year off to a normal start. I trust that nothing will happen to change the situation and that we can go on to a productive year for pupils with a contented staff as well as with an electorate who will see our program and tax bills in proper balance."

Carl Lord, president of the Grosse Pointe Education Association also spoke at the Board meeting. Mr. Lord mentioned that negotiations have been going on since November, 1972 and issues of importance still remain on the table at this time.

Mr. Lord said that the teachers will not stand for further deterioration at the bargaining table. "First you (the Board) requested mediation and now it's factfinding," Mr. Lord stated.

"There are many in my bargaining unit who believe these requests are nothing more than delays in bringing about an equitable contract settlement for the board, community and its educators."

Mr. Lord felt that nothing of importance was resolved at the last negotiation session and was in fact, "a step backward."

Mr. Lord said alternatives had been offered yet the Board asked for factfinding. He felt the factfinding was a ploy to delay, which would only lower the morale of the professional staff.

Mr. Lord said that the reason for the high average in Grosse Pointe is that 367 out of 571 teachers in Grosse Pointe are at maximum salary. This is about 63 per cent of the staff.

He also mentioned that Grosse Pointe was able to be competitive for the best teachers because of the salaries it paid. But this competitive edge may be lost.

Mr. Lord further contended that the consumer price index has risen at a rate of 5.9 per cent from April 1972 through April 1973; Grosse Pointe contracts have included the index in the past.

Mr. Lord urged the Board members to be present at the bargaining session on Tuesday. He felt there were no issues on the table that could not be settled at that meeting and believed equity could be reached.

Damage Slight at House Fire

Farms and City firefighters fought a blaze at the home of Mrs. Ann Gladstone, 125 Meadow lane, and brought it under control in exactly two minutes, and a few minutes later the flames were extinguished with only a minimal damage to the roof, where the fire was confined. There was considerable smoke damage, but only to the attic, according to information released by Farms Fire Chief Michael Beaupre.

The chief said the fire was started by a painter who attempted to remove paint from the wooden shingle roof with a blow torch. Mrs. Gladstone, who was home alone at the time, called the Fire Department immediately when she saw the painter attempting to douse the flames with a garden hose.

Chief Beaupre said that the woman's prompt call and the fast response by the seven Farms and three City firefighters and equipment, prevented the fire from spreading and causing worse damage.

The blow torch ignited the shingles, and the flames ate through the roof and between joists of the attic ceiling. The chief said that fire-fighting personnel first used the painter's ladder to get to the roof and remove some of the shingles and chop a hole through the house top, then used a fire truck ladder to reach the blaze with regular fire hose. The smoke did not penetrate into the house proper, but was confined to the attic.

"This is what we call a 'good stop,'" Chief Beaupre said. "If the call had been received a few minutes later, there could have been extensive damage to the building because of the wooden shingles, which were very dry."

"Our firefighters, and those from the City, did such an excellent job they were complimented by Mrs. Gladstone. I want to also give credit to the great job the men did at this fire and express my appreciation to the personnel from the City Fire Department for their help."

The chief said he could not estimate the damage to the house, but did state that the damage was very minimal.

The firefighters were at the scene for at least an hour to make sure that no stray sparks were present, and to clear away the smoke from the attic.

Kids' Problems Parley Subject

If parents would only stop to think, childhood for their sons and daughters can always be a richly meaningful time, a good time. Too often, childhood is a time of tension, frustration, resentment and anger.

A conference for parents about the young child dealing with the everyday problems of normal children in a direct and simple manner, and featuring specific solutions, will be sponsored by the Northeast Guidance Center, the community mental health organization serving Grosse Pointe, East Detroit and Harper Woods.

The conference is scheduled for Saturday, October 6, at Austin High School, 18300 East Warren, Detroit. Registration forms can be picked up at the NEGC building, 17000 East Warren at Cadieux. Conference fee is $1.50 per person, or $2 per couple.

For further information contact Dr. Annette Rickel, conference director, at 886-3566, extension 27.

The Assistance League to the Northeast Guidance Center is distributing registration forms containing information about the conference to nursery schools, kindergartens and elementary schools in the NEGC catchment area.

Woods Hearing to Focus Upon Marter Road Station

By Roger A. Waha
Remember the issue of the Marter Road Pumping Station in The Woods and what should, or could, happen to it, or the land on which it is located?

The disposition of the station was the subject of City Engineer Larry Pate's verbal report to the council at the regular meeting Monday, September 10. Mr. Pate told the solons he would not recommend the use of the station property for residential home development.

So the council unanimously set Monday, October 1, as the date for an informal public hearing so nearby citizens could give their opinions on "what to do" about the property. Acting Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos reported the council's earlier consensus was to take down the structure but no specific action has been taken as yet, pending the public hearing.

Mr. Pate said "There would be more problems in building a structure on the property than leaving it alone." A main reason for this is the presence of a circular wetwell which the city engineer estimated was in excess of 20 feet deep and around 30-35 feet in diameter.

"I question the desirability of building a home over the wetwell," he added. The "settlement" problem would play a major role in this respect.

The last time this subject was before the council, (at the regular meeting March 5), resident opposition quashed the Environmental Action Now, (EAN), and National Bank of Detroit proposal for renovation of the structure and use of the station.

At that meeting, the council received a letter and a petition bearing 225 signatures expressing opposition to the use of the station by EAN or "any other organization or group." The communication said, "We oppose any non-residential occupancy of this property," but also emphasized "This letter should not be construed as an attempt to block renovation of the area."

Besides those who wanted residential development, other citizens apparently wished to see the station preserved and kept as a park, while still others would like to have tennis courts on the land. The pro and con of what should be, or shouldn't be done with the property will be the focus of attention at the public hearing.

When asked at the September 10 meeting what was meant by an "informal" hearing, City Administrator Chester E. Petersen replied that "informal" means the hearing isn't a requirement, but it was "in the best interest of the city to have it" because of the interest generated on the property's disposition.

Farms Firemen Get Pay Raise

On Monday, September 10, the Farms council, at a meeting postponed from September 3, Labor Day, sanctioned a pay agreement ratified by the members of the Grosse Pointe Farms Fire Fighters Association. The agreement was concluded after several weeks of negotiations.

City Manager Andrew Bremer, Jr., said that he was informed earlier in the day, that the GPFPPA had ratified the pay raises on Tuesday, September 4.

Under the terms of the agreement, the city manager said, during the fiscal year of 1973-74, regular firefighter personnel, after 42 months of service, will receive a maximum annual salary of $13,300, and holiday pay will be hiked from $125 to $325, if the firemen work on the holidays.

In addition, Bremer informed the council, the city agreed to pay the annual premium of $28.80, formerly paid by departmental personnel, on a $10,000 life insurance policy. This means that the full cost of the annual premium will be borne by the city.

During the 1974-75 fiscal year, the salary of a fireman with a maximum of 42 months or more of employment will be raised to $14,100 a year, and pay in lieu of holidays will be upped from $325 to $400.

Under the terms of the agreement, Bremer added further, a sergeant's pay will be 6 1/4 percent more than a regular firefighter; a lieutenant's pay will be 12 1/2 percent higher; and that of the captain, 18 1/4 percent.

The city manager said that no agreement has been reached on pay increase negotiations with the Grosse Pointe Farms Police Officers Association (GPFPOA) and this may have to go into arbitration.

'NUTS TO YOU'

The Woods Council unanimously granted permission to the Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club to conduct a peanut sale drive on city streets Friday-Saturday, September 21-22. The action was taken at the regular meeting Monday, September 10, and specified the sale be conducted during daylight hours. At the same time, the solons unanimously proclaimed both days as "National Kids' Day."

Co-operation and common sense in human relations makes life worth living for everyone.

Still No 1973-74 Contract for Grosse Pointe Educators

WHAT ARE THE FACTS?

1. Grosse Pointe educators returned to the classroom on Tuesday, September 4, without a new master agreement.
2. The Grosse Pointe Board of Education requested mediation in late August because they believed the two teams were at an impasse, although the Association contends its position was flexible.
3. The Grosse Pointe Board of Education has stated that the 1972-73 master agreement is no longer in effect. The board therefore, refuses to pay the increments to teachers due them because of their advanced academic preparation and years of teaching experience.
4. The Grosse Pointe Board of Education requested fact-finding on September 6, although the GPEA contends that fact-finding is nothing more than additional delay which can only result in the lowering of teacher morale.
5. We believe this community that respects education will provide equity for its teachers.

Ferry Scouts Set Round-Up

Cub Scout Pack 34, sponsored by Ferry School, will host its annual Round-Up on Thursday, September 20, at 7:30 p.m. in the school gymnasium, 748 Roslyn road.

Parents of boys between eight and ten years are invited to attend with their

Middle School Programs

(Continued from Page 1) teacher can become more of a diagnoser, prescriber and academic counselor. A classroom of 30 students can be guided into smaller groups for more individual purpose and instruction.

Other options for learning besides the classroom will include the library, the Media Center, and the Counseling Center. Hopefully there will be sufficient options that everyone can be in an area where he is the most productive.

Each school will provide an opportunity for seventh graders to explore more than one foreign language in 10-week classes. All seventh grade students will also have instruction in both industrial arts and homemaking rather than the traditional method of homemaking for girls and industrial arts for boys.

Environmental education will be given greater emphasis this year in the middle schools. At Parcels, for example, both seventh and eighth graders may elect a course in Environment Education culminating with an optional one week outdoor camping experience at Camp Cavell, Lexington, Mich. Mini-courses will be offered

Keep Suspect At Hospital

The story in the September 6 edition of the NEWS which reported where a 22-year-old Detroit man, while driving on Mack avenue, pointed a revolver at two Woods public safety officers after attempting to hit their scout cars, noted the suspect was from Detroit. This was incorrect.

One of the police reports listed the man as residing in Detroit; however, further information revealed he lives in The City of Grosse Pointe.

The incident occurred late Wednesday morning, August 29, and climaxed in his apprehension when police set up a roadblock in front of The Woods Municipal Building, 20025 Mack.

On August 29, John Sloan, Wayne County Assistant Prosecutor, approved a 48-hour protective custody commitment at Wayne County General Hospital for the suspect, police said.

Then on Friday, August 31, Assistant Prosecutor Caroline Floresca recommended a warrant for his arrest on two counts: felonious assault with a dangerous weapon and dangerous weapon in a motor vehicle. That same day Detective Everett Plumb contacted Wayne County General and was told by a doctor the man would not be released before a period of six weeks to three months.

The warrant was then filed pending the defendant's release, at which time he will be picked up and arraigned on the warrant.

The sarcastic remark you left unsaid will never haunt you.

Woods Police End Bar Beat

While Woods public safety officers ended their overtime work in the area of the Lockwood Lounge, 20934 Mack avenue, Sunday, September 9, Public Safety Director Henry Marchand made it clear the area will still receive a "lot of attention."

Officers have been working there since Thursday evening, August 23, in an effort to curb noise and nuisance conditions as reported to The Woods Council by Hampton road residents.

The solons unanimously approved the closing of the Hampton road municipal lot at 11 p.m. plus the taking of whatever steps were necessary on the part of the Public Safety Department to correct the situation.

This included having two officers work overtime for a minimum of two weeks at the bar from around 10:30 p.m. to 2:30 a.m.

Director Marchand stressed, "If the problem hasn't cleared up, I will reassign beats down there until it has cleared up."

At this time, he said it is hard to say if the situation has improved, or if it has, by how much. "We won't know this until after the detail has been suspended. Hopefully, it has improved." The director added he feels the presence of the officers has been a "great deterrent."

Since the intensified patrols, officers have made several arrests in the immediate area of the lounge. In fact, two youths were nabbed the first night of beat duty on tumultuous conduct charges.

Other arrests included a youth who was nabbed early Friday morning, August 31, and charged with unnecessary noise and hitch-hiking after being ejected from the lounge, and two youths who were arrested early Saturday morning, September 1, and charged with tumultuous conduct-fighting.

Dr. Roger McNeill Takes Seat on Park's Council

Dr. Roger R. McNeill of 15525 Windmill Pointe drive, was administered the oath of office as a Grosse Pointe Park councilman by City Clerk Nunzio Ortesi on Monday, September 10.

Dr. McNeill was appointed to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Councilman O. J. Williams, Jr., who served less than two years of a four-year term to which he was elected on November 2, 1971. Williams quit his post because of a promotion by his insurance firm, which required that he and his family move to San Francisco.

Dr. McNeill, a resident of the Park since 1957, is married to the former Marcy Bauer of Riverside and Pasadena, Calif. They are the parents of two grown children.

The doctor is a physician and surgeon, with his office located on the Hill. He is on the staff of both Bon Secours and Cottage Hospitals.

After taking the oath of office, Dr. McNeill was welcomed to his city post by Mayor Matthew Patterson and by other members of the council. The mayor expressed confidence that the doctor in his new capacity will be a credit and asset to the community.

Regarding the immediate appointment of a candidate for the vacant post, and wondered if the citizens of the Park should not have a say in picking a nominee for the job.

Mayor Patterson, and Councilman Warren Couger who submitted Dr. McNeill's name for the appointment, said that this was not a spur of the moment thing. They said that it was known for a month that Williams was going to resign his post and was moving from the Park.

At the request of the mayor, City Attorney cited a section of the Park City Charter which gives the council the authority to fill a vacancy in their ranks on the resignation or death of a fellow member. The solon have up to 60 days in which to make an appointment, after which, a special election must be held to select a new councilman by the city at large.

This appeared to satisfy Mrs. Kuhn, but Renee B. Rogers of Cadieux, asked the council point blank if they ever considered appointing a woman to a councilmanic post in the event of a vacancy, and if they favored a woman as a member of the council. She also asked if there had ever been a woman who had served on the Park city council.

The council members appeared startled by the first question, but said they had no objections if a woman served. As to the second question, she was informed no woman had ever served as a member of the city body.

In the audience was Camille S. Peterson, who hopes to be elected the first woman solon in the history of the Park. She is campaigning to upset any one of the three incumbents, Councilmen Douglas Graham, Warren Douglas Graham, Warren Couger and George Verdonck, seeking re-election on November 8.

Phase I Group To Hear Manos

Detroit News columnist Charley Manos will be the speaker at the first fall meeting of Phase I, a group open to all single people between the ages of 20 and 40.

The meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m., Sunday, September 16, at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. A social hour will follow the program.

An excursion to the Shakespearean Festival at Stratford, Ontario, is also planned by Phase I for the weekend of September 21-23.

Phase I meets every Sunday night at Memorial Church. Further information may be obtained by contacting Gust Jahnke at 882-5330.

LIFE'S LIKE THAT

In the game of life, kindness and common sense are too often found to be in the discard, or lost in the shuffle.

Following the end of council business, Mayor Patterson asked for questions or comments from the audience.

Rae Kuhn of Harvard road, asked for the reason for the prompt action of the solons in appointing a new member to the council so soon after a vacancy occurred. The doctor, who was nominated for the appointment at the Park's last meeting, August 27, over the objections of Councilman Douglas Graham, who suggested that other names be submitted for nominations and study. He said that there might be other civic minded citizens interested in serving the community and these should be given a chance for the post.

Mrs. Kuhn said that she favored Graham's point of view in the matter and requested an explanation re-

NOTICE OF HEARING ON A CONSERVATION PROGRAM INVOLVING GAS RATE SCHEDULES

On August 21, 1973, Michigan Consolidated Gas Company applied to the Michigan Public Service Commission for approval of a program for the conservation of natural gas by means of promoting insulation of residences heated by natural gas. (Case No. U-440.)

The application states that large numbers of the Company's residential space heating customers reside in older houses which do not have insulation meeting current standards established by the Federal Housing Administration. A study by the Company indicates that installation of 6 inches of ceiling insulation in a typical two-story, uninsulated house built in Detroit prior to 1940 would reduce the quantity of natural gas used for heating by about 17 percent; and that addition of 4 1/2 inches of ceiling insulation in a typical two-story house built in the Detroit area after 1940 with 1 1/2 inches of ceiling insulation would reduce the quantity of natural gas used for heating by about 10 percent.

The application states that in view of the critical current shortage of natural gas and other forms of energy in Michigan and throughout the country, conservation of natural gas used for residential space heating is in the public interest and in the interest of Michigan Consolidated's customers.

The program which Michigan Consolidated proposes for promoting insulation would include a major effort to communicate to the public the need for conservation of natural gas and the contribution which home insulation can make to that goal. The Company would employ advertising in press, radio, and television together with direct mail to customers and use of its outdoor signs and the message boards carried by its vehicles. It would prepare brochures and make them available through its offices and through insulation contractors.

The Company would urge homeowners to install insulation themselves or to hire a contractor to do so. The Company would also offer, on a non-profit basis to the Company, to arrange for the installation, in residential premises owned by any qualified residential space heating customer, of ceiling insulation meeting the most recent FIA standard. A residential space heating customer would qualify for the program if he is not in arrears in payment of his gas bill. Where the Company thus arranged for installation, it would finance up to 80 percent of the cost of the insulation over a period of up to 36 months, at an interest rate of 1 percent per month on unpaid balance. The Company would not itself sell insulation or install insulation, but would subcontract the work to dealers and contractors.

The application asks the Michigan Public Service Commission pursuant to Section 43 of 1969 PA 306 (MCLA 21:263) to issue its ruling declaring that the proposed program is a utility function within the scope of the service rendered by Michigan Consolidated as a public utility; and that the cost thereof is a proper charge to utility cost of service, to be reflected in rates hereafter prescribed for Michigan Consolidated. The application further asks the Commission pursuant to Section 7 of 1919 PA 419 (MCLA 460.57) to approve amendments to the Company's Schedule of Rules, Regulations and Rates for Gas Service (MPSC No. 3). Under the proposed amendments payments owed the Company for installation of insulation would become part of the charge for residential space heating gas service rendered to the insulated premises; and the cost of such installation, if not paid for by the residential space heating customer who contracted for the work, would be charged to successor customers at the insulated premises at the rate of $5 per month.

A public hearing will be held at 1:30 p.m., on September 24, 1973, and continue on September 25, 1973, commencing at 9:30 a.m., if necessary, in the offices of the Commission, Law Building, Lansing, Michigan 48913, for the purpose of determining whether the rulings and approvals sought should be granted. Any interested parties may attend the hearing and participate subject to the provisions of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. Copies of the application may be obtained from the Secretary of the Commission, Law Building, Lansing, Michigan 48913, or from the Secretary of Michigan Consolidated Gas Company, One Woodward Avenue, Detroit, Michigan 48226.

This Notice is published by order of the Michigan Public Service Commission, which has directed the Company to publish notice of this proceeding in all newspapers of general circulation published within its service area, 10 days or more prior to date of hearing.

noted the term of his opponent in the mayoral race, Councilman Benjamin W. Pinkos, expires in November 1973. Hence, according to the City Charter provision, it wasn't necessary for Mr. Pinkos to resign, (as his term of office expires with the election).

"Fight Harder" Mr. Boutin, who said he and his family had been through much anxiety over this, felt the situation was "really ridiculous." "Why should I resign and not sit for the balance of my term while another sits?" he said.

He also questioned the tenor of the letter from the Attorney General's office. Mr. Boutin took issue with this part of the letter from Assistant Attorney General Terrence P. Grady:

"By separate letter, the party (Mr. Boutin), whose personal circumstances has given rise to this question, has taken the liberty of writing us and expressing his position on the question, including his reading of the applicable Charter provisions and his views on the equities involved. However, for the purposes of this opinion, we presume the validity of the Charter provision."

To this Mr. Boutin replied, "The whole thing in a nutshell is that they're castigating someone who is a layman and not an attorney." He said the tenor of the letter would "make me fight that much harder."

No Inequity

The news contacted Mr. Pinkos for his viewpoint on this matter. He mentioned the "staggered elections" for councilmen and noted, "In the event of an election, the originators of the Charter determined it was better for the city to hold three terms over," (as new members would not be exposed to city problems).

Continuing, he stated, "What occurred is that Mr. Boutin had two more years left in his term. He had to resign if he wanted to run for mayor."

"I don't think there's any inequity whatsoever according to the City Charter. It's up to the people to amend the Charter. We must follow the provisions of the Charter. If I disagreed with the Charter, I would ask that it be amended. The Attorney General's office did uphold the equity of the Charter," stressed Mr. Pinkos.

He said the Mayor is elected for a two-year term. "This year our Mayor, (Kenneth McLeod), died in February," and an interim mayor wasn't appointed.

"Obviously, he (Mr. Boutin) has had all the exposure necessary if this is what he wants," stated Mr. Pinkos. (Mr. Boutin was Mayor Pro Tem for a about seven months). In this respect, Mr. Pinkos said he will "serve for four meetings at most" as Acting Mayor until the election.

Named to Post

At the meeting, the council recessed for a short time to explore the possibilities of appointing an Acting Mayor or Mayor Pro Tem. Mr. Petersen reported the City Charter noted an Acting Mayor could be appointed in absence of the Mayor or Mayor Pro Tem.

Councilman Kenneth W. Boerner moved that Councilman George S. Freeman be appointed as Mr. Freeman is not running for any elective office. Then, Councilman Conrad A. Naegel moved that Mr. Pinkos be appointed Acting Mayor.

In the ensuing votes, with Mr. Freeman and Mr. Pinkos, respectively, being excused from voting, the tabulation showed two votes for Mr. Pinkos, (Mr. Naegel and Councilman Rodger A. Graef), and one vote for Mr. Freeman, (Mr. Boerner).

The council, then, approved Mr. Boutin's letter of resignation being made part of the agenda, received and placed it on file and then accepted it "with regret."

"Bitter About It"

Mr. Boerner said he was sorry to see the resignation happen and emphasized he was "bitter about it." But because the Attorney General's office gave its opinion, he said he would vote for it whether he liked it or not.

Meanwhile, Mr. Naegel stated, "It's too bad we have to operate under these procedures which originated many years ago, (regarding the City Charter section). Marv has been a tremendous asset to the city for many years. This is a terrible blow to the city."

Then, the solons believed and placed on file Mr. Petersen's memo giving the text of the letter dictated over the phone from the Attorney General's office. The original letter had not been received at that time.

Both mayoral candidates said they have been on the council for 15 years, with Mr. Pinkos stating he has chaired "just about every committee" during that time.

I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW

Brought to you by TED EWALD

Did you know there was once a major football game in which the score — and even the winner — were changed 48 hours after the game was over... It happened in 1940... Cornell beat Dartmouth 7-3... But on the Monday after the Saturday game, officials of both schools looked at movies of the game and realized Cornell had scored its touchdown on an illegal down... Even though Cornell had an unbeaten season going, they said they would give up the touchdown, and thereby give up the victory... The result was officially changed and it was declared reversed in record books from Cornell 7, Dartmouth 3 to Dartmouth 3, Cornell 0.

Do you know who the all time top ten pass receivers are in pro football based on a number of receptions? No. 1. Don Maynard (632). No. 2. Ray Berry (631). No. 3. Lance Taylor (567). No. 4. The man zoomed down Mack and drove onto an island at Mack and Brys off onto the pavement and then back into the roadway.

Corporal Thomas Kerving and Officer Richard Preitz joined the lieutenant in chasing the suspect north on Mack to 10 Mile road, west on 10 Mile to Harper, north on Harper to 12 Mile road, east on 12 Mile to Greater Mack, north to Arcadia, east on Arcadia to his residence. During the pursuit, the man's vehicle reached speeds in excess of 90 m.p.h., police said.

After reaching the residence, the suspect crashed into a fence in the front yard and appeared to enter the house.

St. Clair Shores police were notified and requested to come to the scene so the home's interior could be checked. The suspect's 18-year-old wife gave permission for the check, which proved negative.

Some two hours later St. Clair Shores police reported they had the man in custody. He was arrested inside his home after apparently hiding in the upstairs portion of the residence.

Police later said the man was apprehended when he returned to the home and was not hiding in the building as first presumed.

Detroit police were then notified the suspect had been apprehended.

 Karen Marie Bell, the 17-year-old, Donald Robert Ruen of The Woods, Mark Willats Cruittenden of Sylvan Lake and lounge owner Harold Palms are scheduled to appear in court on their respective charges Wednesday, October 17.

at a table drinking beer. When asked for some identification, Miss Bell presented a voter registration certificate, birth certificate and a social security card, and added she didn't drive.
 Police reported since she didn't appear to be 21, the officers decided to investigate further. When asked for other identification, she told them she didn't have any, and she said she was using her sister's wallet. A home telephone number she gave police proved incorrect.
 When she attempted to drink from a beer glass, the officers took it from her. And when asked again for further identification, she was unable to produce any.
 Mr. Palms told police she had showed him proof of her age as being 21 and added he didn't serve her. He stated Ruen had got a pitcher of beer.
 Both Ruen and Cruittenden decided to leave with Miss Bell and walked along with the officers. When it was determined she was in the company of both men, and that one of them had purchased beer, they were informed that they would be charged with furnishing beer to a minor.
 After further discussion, Miss Bell told police her real name and age. Her parents were then contacted and she was released to her father.
 A LEIN check on Ruen and Cruittenden revealed the following warrants: Ruen had a Woods warrant for hitchhiking and posted a $10 bond to appear in court Wednesday, September 19; meanwhile, Cruittenden was picked up by Detroit police Tuesday, September 4, on their charge of violation of probation, and they will place a "hold" on him for the Waterford Police Department on a contempt or perjury charge, Woods police said.

Public Safety Department Auxiliaries Do Fine Job in Woods

weapons during the performance of their duty, auxiliary officers have all been qualified for the emergency use of long weapons, such as a shotgun, and some are qualified for the emergency use of revolvers," said Lieutenant Patterson.

Two primary training exercises the auxiliary officers must know is the knowledge of mass prisoner arrest procedures including fingerprinting, mugging, use of initial interview forms and the search and transportation of prisoners, plus traffic and pedestrian control and supervision.

Aid Firefighters
On the firefighting side, auxiliary personnel assist public safety officers in the operation of fire equipment, including such areas as hose handling and fire attack, proficiency in the use of ladders, use of emergency breathing equipment, plus the general knowledge and function of all equipment stored aboard trucks. "Their function at the fire scene is to assist firefighting crews in any endeavor they can," said the lieutenant.

city), better budgeting ability to have one auxiliary trained in both functions of the department," stressed Lieutenant Patterson.

Each auxiliary officer is equipped with a complete police and fire uniform, plus foul weather gear. The lieutenant said each man receives the following benefits from the city: $150 annual pay, coverage under workman's compensation and coverage under an on-the-job death and disability program.

Public Safety Buys
Presently, 25 is the maximum number of auxiliary officers permitted. However, Lieutenant Patterson said if any man is interested, an application may be obtained from him. "We like to have them be Woods residents or live close to the city. Applicants should not be over 50, and must be in good physical condition."

But don't get your hopes up for the lieutenant stated. "We usually are full and have very little turnover." But... there's always a chance. "If someone doesn't make the grade, we boot him out," he added.

Lieutenant Patterson called the auxiliary officers, who work between 3,500 - 3,750 hours a year, "damned, fine citizens, public safety buffs who are doing their thing. They are glad to work with the public safety officers and be of service to the community. It's a labor of love for these people. Some have even bought additional equipment themselves with money they received from the city."

"Super Citizens"
There are a doctor, lawyer, manufacturing representative, self employed printer, professional photographer, retired Army officer and business executives, among others, who are auxiliary officers. Their professions vary but when they don their uniform, they become unified in working towards one objective: to assist their "colleagues" in serving Woods residents.

These "super citizens" include Captain James Marl, Sergeant Allan Pearsal and from Squad "A," Sergeant Warren Brush, Earl Kern, John Nash, Joseph Duster, James Snyder, Daniel Colley and George Kopke. In Squad "B" are Sergeant Ross Richardson, Gene Wallace, Robert Rodger, William Wilson, Jon Struthers, Gerry Billups, Lee Corless and Anthony Buccina. Squad "C" officers include Sergeant Max Umbarger, James Billups, Ken Turner, Sid Sinclair, Robert Leech, Robert Hetchler, Robert Cooper and John Collins.

Woods Studies Bond Proposals

A special council meeting was called in The Woods Monday, August 27, to consider a proposed resolution authorizing the placement of two propositions on the November 6 election ballot for borrowing sums up to $650,000 and $185,000, respectively, and issuing general obligation bonds of the city for the purpose of acquiring, constructing and/or reconstructing recreational facilities.

After discussion on the two propositions, it appeared the council's general consensus that the placement of the items on the ballot would be premature at this time, but that such propositions warranted the solons' serious consideration.

A motion by Councilman George S. Freeman, who requested the special meeting, to refer both proposals to the Committee of the Whole for further review and study with a report back to the council, was unanimously approved.

Mr. Freeman's motion, that City Administrator Chester E. Petersen be authorized to solicit recommendations or proposals for needed pool improvements and/or new pool construction from two or more engineering firms specializing in swimming pools, also was unanimously approved.

One proposition requested the authorization of the electorate to issue general obligation bonds in the amount of $650,000 for the construction and/or reconstruction of the Lake Front Park swimming pool. The other requested the authorization of voters to issue general obligation bonds in the amount of $185,000 for the construction of eight new tennis courts at Lake Front Park.

Subject: Automobile Operating Expenses

A few facts of automobile operating costs were recently brought to my attention, and I thought you might like to share in the Good News.

Recently, AAA tested operating costs of Standard, Intermediate and Compact size cars in the Chicago area. The Standard size car was equipped with an 8 cylinder engine, radio, automatic transmission, power steering and power brakes. The Intermediate car was equipped the same as the Standard size car and the Compact car was equipped with radio and automatic transmission. The Chicago area driving pattern ranges from 50-80% stop and go driving.

Results of the test were as follows:

Car Size	Cost Per Mile
Standard	5.25 cents per mile
Intermediate	4.95 cents per mile
Compact	4.20 cents per mile

The test costs were computed over 10,000 miles and included costs for gasoline, oil, maintenance and tires.

This means that the difference between operating expenses of full size cars, Intermediate cars and Compacts over an average driver's yearly travel, is minimal and is summarized below.

Standard Car @ 5.25/mile X 10M miles:	$525.00
Intermediate Car @ 4.95/mile X 10M miles:	$495.00
Compact Car @ 4.15/mile X 10M miles:	$420.00

Wouldn't most of your Full Size owners pay $105.00 per year or 28¢ a day for the luxury, comfort and added safety of a Full Size over a Compact? I think so — I know I would.

I believe your sales force should be familiar with these statistics in order to properly advise potential customers of these costs.

Other costs, such as depreciation, insurance, license and registration fees were also calculated; but because they vary so greatly between states and even cities, they are not pertinent to operating cost comparisons. The important thing to remember is that the relative costs between cars will not vary by area.

We have seven different carlines to sell and must support all lines. I believe the above data will help you and your sales force during the period of public apprehension on fuel costs.

Youths Named in Warrants

In the store robbery, the three used a set of license plates stolen from a parked car in the City. The theft had been reported to City authorities.

Lt. Randolph called Det. Field after it was established that the car plates were registered to D'Hondt's father. The lieutenant asked Field to place a surveillance on the D'Hondt residence in the event that young D'Hondt should come home.

Field, who on searching the vehicle, found the sawed-off shotgun, a .30 caliber Winchester, a realistic plastic pistol, the stocking masks, a roll of black tape, a watch timer and the set of stolen plates, which the owner reported missing on August 27.

Changed Car Plates
 Following A&P robbery, the youths changed the plates using those registered to the car, which was in the name of Frank D'Hondt of the McMillan address. Possibly on the spur of the moment, it was said, the three decided to rob a bank and chose the one on West Eight Mile.

Field sent out an all-points radio broadcast to area enforcement agencies to be on the lookout for a dark green, white-striped Ford Torino two-door, a nd dispatched Farms Cpl. Otto Glanert to the D'Hondt house on a stake-out.

Field called the Detroit Hold-Up Bureau informing them of the youth's arrest. The following Detroit officers responded to the call: Lts. Lawrence Kelly and Henry Bone, Sgts. Davies and Harner, Walter Nailey and Rudolph Olszewski. The car, all the evidence and D'Hondt were transferred to the Jefferson Station, Fifth Precinct.

At 10 a.m., with D'Hondt behind the wheel, Stevenson, armed with the shotgun, and Kemp, with the handgun, their faces covered with stocking masks, raced to the bank entrance just as an employee was opening the door to start the day's business.

On arrival at the D'Hondt residence, Glanert observed the car in the driveway, and the front door standing open, and a maid working in the house. The corporal called for back up assistance.

Field said that D'Hondt voluntarily made a statement in which he implicated Stevenson and Kemp.

Paroled in July
 The detective said that Stevenson had been paroled from prison on July 17, after serving 15 months of a 5-7 year sentence. The parole was to have expired on February 23, 1974.

The startled employee, seeing the black-jacketed and stocking-masked armed duo running toward the bank building, quickly locked the door and dropped to the floor, calling to others in the place to set off the alarm.

Glanert said that he could not wait for help to arrive because D'Hondt, who had quickly discarded his jacket and other clothing and was clad in only gym shorts and tennis shoes, was standing behind the door and saw the officer in the scout car.

Stevenson was sent to prison for arson, breaking and entering of a dwelling, six counts of armed robbery, which took place in the Farms, Detroit and in Macomb County, and unlawfully driving away an automobile.

Some of the crimes were committed in The Shores, Woods and Roseville, but the conviction for which Stevenson was given his prison term was based on evidence procured by Field on armed robbery in the Farms.

Seeing this, Stevenson and Kemp raced back to the waiting car which sped away, but not before the alert employee jotted down the license plate number and a description of the auto, which was given to Detroit police who arrived at the scene.

Handles Job Alone
 Drawing his service revolver, Glanert rushed into the house and ordered D'Hondt to place his hands against the wall, just as City officers, Det. Lt. Robert Van Tiem and Cpl. George Brackx arrived to assist in taking the youth to the Farms station.

Detroit authorities had high praise for Field, Glanert, Van Tiem and Brackx for their actions which resulted in the apprehension of D'Hondt.

School Busing Issue

Continued from Page 1) or by law segregated, that the schools could not be integrated within the city because of the heavy black population, and it would be legal to order a cross-district busing plan.

The Court consents to hear the case, a brief will be filed at a later date stressing the errors in Judge Roth's decision.

However, the court did send the case back for further testimony from the suburban districts. The districts would be allowed to argue what type of desegregation plan they wanted, but not the concept of the plan itself.

The petition states that the Detroit busing plan is in conflict with other Court decisions and "involves issues of great importance not only to Grosse Pointe and its residents, but to the entire school district in the United States . . . and sanctions the denial of fundamental due process of law to every school district which become part of such a desegregation plan implemented on the authority of this case."

The Grosse Pointe petition has three main argumental thrusts to emphasize its national importance. The first is that Detroit schools can be constitutionally desegregated within the city limits.

The Court never gives a reason why it does not accept a case. The justices may reject the Detroit case because they do not think it is timely and want to wait until a full busing plan is ordered by Judge Roth.

In addition, the suburban school districts should not be included in plans to desegregate Detroit schools until it had been shown that the suburban districts themselves were guilty of constitutional discriminatory acts.

Or the Court may uphold the decision of the Court of Appeals for the Metropolitan plan. If this occurred then "we would have lost," Mr. West said.

And finally, the school systems were not granted due process of law regarding Judge Roth's desegregation decision.

Norsemen Look Forward To Successful Season

By Len Singer
North High's head football coach, Jim Krucki feels this year's team may be better than last year's. That should be good news for Norsemen fans, since the team won eight games last season and lost only one.

The Norsemen will be in the Bi-County league again this year, and Coach Krucki says many teams are in a re-building process.

"Lakeshore and Lakeview will probably be the toughest in the division, but most of the other teams have lost a lot of people," he said.

"We have a chance to be better than last year, or at least as good. While the other teams are re-building, we have the personnel to be good."

Eighteen letterman, 10 of whom were starters last year, are returning this season.

Offense Experienced
The offense is the most experienced unit with six starters returning from last season, as well as four other players with varsity experience. John Puleo, an all-league defensive back last season, will be the starting quarterback.

Bind Suspect over to WCCC

A 25-year-old Detroit man was bound over to Wayne County Circuit Court for arraignment set for Thursday, September 20, after his examination on a carrying a concealed weapon charge before Woods Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis Wednesday, September 5.

Roger Allan Ellison is currently out on $2,500 bond, two sureties, according to police, after his bond was reduced from $10,000, two sureties.

Ellison and James Morang, 30, of Ferndale were arrested Friday evening, August 31, after police spotted them driving along Mack avenue in an erratic manner. While pursuing the pair, police said Ellison threw a wine bottle, which shattered in the street, towards the scout car.

After stopping the pair at Mack and Lancaster, police found the following articles on Ellison: one stiletto knife, nine and one-half inches long; one straight razor, 10 inches long, and one .22 caliber "Rohm" pistol with six live rounds of ammunition. Ellison also is charged with changing lanes without signaling and with the throwing of missiles. His Woods court date on these charges is scheduled for Wednesday, September 19.

Meanwhile, Morang is charged with changing lanes without signaling and failure to change the address on his driver's license. His court date also is scheduled for the 19th.

All Get To Play
Coach Krucki emphasized that his team likes to get as many players into a game as possible.

"We have 38 players on the varsity roster," Coach Krucki explained, "and I hope to get most of them into every game."

"We have only one guy that plays both offense and defense, and the players that don't start are on the punt and kickoff teams."

"On our junior varsity team we also play a lot of kids. All the players are trained at two positions, one offense and one defense. They start at one spot and maybe later in the game get to switch to the other. This way when they get to the varsity they are experienced and can be placed wherever they will help us most."

Win Them All
The only team to beat the Norsemen last year were South High's Blue Devils. The game against South is the last one each season each year, and Coach Krucki is looking forward to it.

"This is a good time to have the game, at the end of the season, because the players look forward to it," he said.

"Last year South beat us, and it ruined our perfect

To Expand TM Fall Activities

With nearly 400 meditators in The Pointe and the number increasing every month, the sphere of activities for the International Meditation Society will be expanded this fall.

As in the past, courses in Transcendental Meditation, (T. M.), will be offered each month at the War Memorial. TM is a simple, easy technique bringing deep rest to the body and increased alertness to the mind, and therefore eliminating stress and tension from the system.

At the War Memorial, introductory lectures will be given on three Thursdays: September 13, October 4 and October 18. There will be a meeting at 1:30 and 8 p.m. on each of these days. The schedules for the subsequent TM courses will be announced at these meetings.

A new activity in the Pointes, the study of intelligence itself, is to be offered this fall. The Science of Creative Intelligence, (SCI), a 33 lesson, videotape course, meeting twice a week, explores the origin, nature, range, development and application of creative intelligence in the individual and society.

The SCI course is open to meditators and non-meditators. A special introductory meeting showing a color videotape will be held Wednesday, September 26, at 7:30 p.m. Andree Leonard, a Pointe TM teacher, and Robert Perkins, a professor at Wayne Community College, will conduct the course.

For further information on upcoming activities may call Lev and Andree Leonard at 882-7211.

record. But we beat them pretty good the two years before.

"This is a good rivalry, but in some respects it's the same as every other games. We like to win them all."

The Norsemen will open their season at home, Saturday, September 15, against Port Huron Northern.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Sir:
 What I want is to share my thoughts with the community regarding, not the problems of the kids on drugs, but the problems of the kids not on drugs in our South High School.

I feel fortunate that our daughter falls in this category, but she is supremely unhappy going to a school where a bad situation dominates. "Shooting up" in the restrooms is commonplace... everyone is under suspicion... the choosing of friends is a difficult project, etc. This makes high school something to get over with as quickly as possible, making it unpleasant and making one defensive.

Can't we get rid of the offenders? Can't we make it so difficult for drug and dope pushers that the kids don't think it's a smart thing to do? I believe we should stop coddling anyone who chooses to "blow their minds" and should not afflict the "straight" kids with the results.

I've even considered a pin or badge of some kind for any student not on drugs, just so they would know with whom they could associate. The pin or badge would also make it an elite group, desirable to join.

It's time we said, "For using drugs, you get nothing; for not using them, you get very special attention." We spend so much time, effort, and money on kids who won't accept our help, and the good ones suffer, and must work that much harder to prove they're on the straight and narrow. I think our efforts should be concentrated on them, and let the parents of the "users" do the job the schools have tried unsuccessfully to do.

I, and many others, will work happily to clear our schools of bad influences. They don't deserve any special consideration. Let's rather encourage those who are trying to progress with good intentions and successful careers.

Because of my daughter, you can understand that I may not sign this, but I do hope it will be printed.

One Concerned Parent

Dear Sir:
 Having just returned from the Grosse Pointe Education Association meeting, I feel compelled to write this letter. As far as I can discern, it seems that the GPEA and the Board of Education have agreed to a policy that can only cause a deterioration in the quality of education in our schools. Both sides have tentatively agreed that any staff reduction should be made on purely a seniority basis.

Let's consider a hypothetical situation: suppose there is one less biology position available for the next year. Of the two lowest men in seniority, one has a PHD and 6 years experience; the other has only a minor in biology and 7 years. According to this agreement, the man with the PhD will be released. I ask one question: Is this the quality education that the people of Grosse Pointe intend to support by their tax dollar? As a Community of professionals we must support an educational system that is truly professional.

Sincerely,
 Walter H. Mackey

St. Paul Offers Free Lunches

St. Paul School Cafeteria announced on Monday, September 10, a free price meal policy for students of St. Paul School who are unable to pay.

A letter has been sent to all parents showing the adopted family size and income scale which will enable the school officials to determine the eligibility of those applying for this program.

Families falling within these scales or those suffering from unusual circumstances or hardships are urged to apply for free meals for their children. They may do so by filling in the application forms sent home in a letter to parents. Additional copies are available at the school office.

Applications may be submitted any time during the school year. The form itself is simple to complete and requests information needed to determine economic need based on the income and number of persons in the family, number of children attending school or preschool, and any unusual circumstances or hardships which affect the family's ability to pay for school meals.

The information provided on the application will be confidential and will be used only for the purpose of determining eligibility. In order to safeguard their identity, children eligible for a free meal will be treated in the same manner as full paying students.

Further assurance is given that children eligible for a free meal shall not be required to work for their meal, or be required to do anything which would single them out as charity students.

Under the provisions of the policy the cafeteria manager will review applications and determine eligibility. Parents will be notified of the decision within five days after the application has been submitted.

Under the Government Program and with the help of commodities and subsidies provided, St. Paul school cafeteria serves a balanced meal each day. Parents are urged to have their children participate since it is to their benefit to eat well-balanced meals each day.

Would Benefit City Employees

The City Council, at a special meeting on Wednesday, September 5, approved a proposed charter amendment to the retirement system that would increase benefits and options available to City employees upon retirement.

The amendment would give the City a retirement system comparable to three of the four other Grosse Pointes.

It will be submitted to Attorney General Frank Kelley for approval and will be put on the ballot for the November 6 general election.

tenths of one percent thereafter.

A non-covered City worker would receive an increase retirement allowance of final average compensation for each year of credited service graded to four tenths of one percent.

The amendment would also remove the post-retirement increase provision. In addition, old employees could elect the present benefits instead of the new benefits. Those employed after December 1, 1973, would come under the new system.

The new participatory retirement system had been recommended by the Board of Trustees of the City Employees Retirement System and reviewed by the actuary board.

EAN Director Tim Lozen Well Educated Optimist

By Holly Angell
 Tim Lozen is an aware young man. And he brings to his position as the new part time director of Environmental Action Now, this keen awareness together with a sound educational background and practical experience.

Tim has only been on the job at the new EAN Headquarters in Roslyn road for two days. Much of this time has been occupied with cleaning out and organizing the EAN building, located on the Ferry School playground.

But despite his brief tenure, there already are warm and welcoming signs in the building. A placard on one of the windows states "EAN Student New Ecology Center. We hope you'll join us." There are bird charts on the blackboard ledges and posters on the bulletin board, all hints of activity to come.

Tim, a resident of Port Huron, graduated from Alma College in 1968 with a degree in biology and a general science education. He spent a year teaching biology outside Grand Rapids and three years teaching general science at the Fort Gratiot Intermediate School.

He then went back to the University of Michigan where he just recently received his Masters degree in Environmental Education.

The Environmental Education department at Michigan is under the direction of Bill Stapp, whom Tim describes as "just fantastic. He does more things than 10 people could ever do." The program originated in 1969 and grew out of the Outdoor Education department.

The department enrolls about 30 pupils and focuses around three educational themes: the instructional division, the media and communication division and the advocacy division.

Tim took classes in social change and instruction but most of his program was made up of independent study courses and workshops. During the year at Michigan he went to over 30 schools to put on presentations.

Asked why he returned to school in environmental education, Tim said "I have always been interested in what happens to the world. I'm also a bit altruistic. I had become frustrated in teaching; I knew what I wanted to do and was unable to do it.

Although Tim is new to the job, he does have some definite ideas for community environmental programs. He thinks programs should be developed to teach the basic facts about the environment and to develop a positive attitude toward the earth.

In addition, he wants to work closely with the existing educational institutions. He also feels there should be more projects such as weekends and trips to nature centers.

As to Grosse Pointe's specific environmental problem, Tim feels it's perhaps a question of lifestyle, with far too much consuming and use of resources.

Tim firmly believes in the spaceship earth concept of the world, that the earth is a contained unit with a limited amount of resources for the inhabitants to use. "It is the most basic of all truths. If there is only one thing that comes to the root of the whole environmental problem, it is the spaceship earth idea."

Tim is a positive and optimistic believer in taking small steps to improve environmental quality. "If you don't work on the small levels, what's the point of doing anything," he stated.

Tim believes that environmental education must begin with school children. They should be taught that they can bring changes and have control over their environment. In addition, they should also experience the following through of a project.

Environmental education for adults includes providing information and facts as well as making them aware of the political and social avenues to follow in dealing with environmental problems.

In his experience, Tim has found young students extremely eager to clean up the environment. But they do need direction and reinforcement in environmental learning.

Tim feels that older students have been affected by the prophets of doom. The students, if they had their way, would close down all factories and industries which are pollutants.

However, Tim said, that they don't understand the economic, social or political realities of this type of solution and therefore, must be instructed and made aware of the consequences.

Tim does believe that if population and pollution are not controlled there will be disastrous results. However, he feels that change will come about, whether it be through environmental controls or economic realities.

"I'm enough of an optimist to believe things will change. But it depends if they will change through a disaster such as higher prices or starvation or through better planning and controls."

Thus Tim sees one of his roles as preparing people for the changing times. This means developing programs and systems now such as mass transit instead of a last minute stop gap.

Tim envisions the role of an EAN as a spearhead organization, as one combining resources and assisting other people and organizations to undertake projects.

Tim sees his job in this plan as providing ideas for projects, getting people interested and enthusiastic and giving assistance to help carry through.

EAN is quite an unusual environmental organization not only because it now has its headquarters but also because of its educational thrust. EAN works within the school, initiating classes and programs for both students and teachers.

Tim will help further this educational emphasis as well as initiate new projects. And with his imagination, optimism and direction, the new director of EAN promises to be an effective and motivating force in the community.

DRTA to Give Driving Course

The Defensive Driving Course will be offered again this fall by the Detroit Retired Teachers Association, (DRTA). The instructors are Clara Sinclair, George and Mary Schulz and Virginia Ramsey.

The course is sponsored by the National Safety Council to promote greater highway safety. Experienced drivers benefit by being alerted to changing driving patterns of the modern roads and new traffic regulations. Drivers acquire an awareness of driving defensively against other dangerous and careless drivers.

There will be four two-hour sessions at Calvin East United Presbyterian Church, 6125 Cadieux Road, September 18, 20, 25 and 27 from 10 a.m. until 12 noon. There is a charge of $1 for National Retired Teacher Association members to cover the cost of materials.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Virginia Leonard

I was saddened to read in the newspaper, over the weekend, that John Ronald Reuel Tolkien had died. He was better known as J. R. R. Tolkien, and with such a long and formidable name, one can see why! He was born in South Africa but taken to England when a small child. This famous author of LORD OF THE RINGS was a scholar in his own right, assistant on the Oxford English Dictionary, Professor of English, Professor of Language and Literature at the University of Leeds, England, among other pedagogical tasks. There is a fat paragraph of his scholarly abilities which I shan't quote—I've only dropped a few to show you some of his qualifications.

One wonders how did THE LORD OF THE RINGS AND THE HOBBIT come out of his head? His best loved creatures were the Hobbits, the "dumpy, dogged Hobbit folk in the RINGS novels, given to overeating and underachievement, fond of family trees and flat of foot." Their heroic struggle against Sauron, lord of the magic rings, catapulted Tolkien into the public eye where he was to remain an unwilling cult hero. His works were translated into 14 languages.

Tolkien's trilogy consists of the cover title, THE LORD OF THE RINGS—VOLUME I: THE FELLOWSHIP OF THE RING; volume II: THE TWO TOWERS; volume III: THE RETURN OF THE KING.

About thirty years ago a Middle English scholar began writing tales about Hobbits, elves, dragons and other creatures. For many years most of his colleagues knew nothing of these activities. The stories were, at first, a philosophical game; the invention of languages, Tolkien felt, was the foundation. Tolkien said: "The 'stories' were made rather to provide a world for the languages than the reverse. I should have preferred to write them in 'Elvish'."

Tolkien not only invented languages with their own alphabets and rules, but a world that existed prior to our own—Middle-Earth, a region that has its basis in rural England and in Norse and Germanic mythologies. He peopled this world with special species, explaining at length their genealogies. Along with C. S. Lewis and Charles Williams he revived the romance.

His trilogy, THE LORD OF THE RINGS, recounts the adventures of an ordinary and even unwilling Hobbit named Frodo, who, with his party, embarks on a journey to destroy the Ring of Power and becomes involved "in cosmic struggles on whose outcome depends the welfare of the creative universe." Edmund Fuller reports that "the sheer creative feat of bringing a new creature into the realm of fairy story is almost too much for some to accept."

There has been some criticism of Tolkien's works.

These critics refer to "bad verse," flat characterizations, the scarcity of women, and the lack of any real conflict among the characters, but for the most part he has only supporters and admirers. Richard Hughes believes that nothing of its kind has ever been written.

In our country the worship of Tolkien has become something of a cult. There is a Tolkien Society (including the name of W. H. Auden). Buttons read "Frodo Lives." This great surge of interest here in Tolkien has never been fully explained, except to say that he offers an escape from the real and provides enough material for months of study and conversation.

Tolkien himself feels that he offers the reader Recovery, Escape and Consolation. Recovery he calls the "regaining of a clear view." Tolkien's fondness for the form developed early in life. He writes that while he was still quite young he "desired dragons with a profound desire. Of course, I in my timid body did not wish to have them in the neighborhood, intruding into my relatively safe world... But the world that contained even the imagination of Faunair was richer and more beautiful, at whatever cost, according to..."

Fantasy, according to our author, is "the making or glimpsing of Other Worlds." He feels it is not a lower but a higher form of Art. Tolkien says he spends his days "working like hell." THE LORD OF THE RINGS, which he typed with two fingers took 14 years to complete. Neither the trilogy nor THE HOBBIT was written for children, as many believe. "That's all sob stuff," says Tolkien. "If you're a youngish man and you don't want to be made fun of you say you are writing for children... THE HOBBIT was written in what I should now regard as bad style, as if one were talking to children. There's nothing my children loathed more. They taught me a lesson."

Tolkien modestly says that he is not a storyteller, but he would enjoy recording some of his work. His trilogy has been translated into nine languages. Donald Swann has put six of the verses to music, one to be sung in Elvish! Our author was working on a new book when he died—to be called SILMARILLION. To avoid adulation Tolkien fled Oxford. In 1959 he moved to a country hideout known only to his immediate family and a few friends. He was working on SILMARILLION (which he called a "prequel" to his trilogy) when he died. The world has lost a fine author.

I might mention that the Grosse Pointe Memorial Libraries have the following titles by Tolkien: THE HOBBIT, FARMER GILES OF HAM, the RING trilogy, SMITH OF WOOTON MAJOR, and TWO TOWERS.

WOMEN'S PAGES

From Another Pointe of View

By Janet Mueller

Hundreds of dedicated gardeners are whispering, "Grow!" "Bloom!" "Blossom!" to their pet plants this week. A little encouragement, 'tis said, never hurts, and if you feel a bit of a fool, who's to hear?

Reason for this epidemic of plant psychology is the Annual Horticulture-Bonsai Show, co-sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Garden Center and the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

It's set for next Thursday, ("Hurry up now: I said GROW!" at the War Memorial, from 2 until 5 o'clock. Entries, limited to 10 horticultural specimens, vegetables and fruits as well as flowers, must be placed between 9 and 11 in the morning.

This year, Garden Center President Mrs. Edward R. Harrigan has asked the Pointe Garden Club, Grosse Pointe Park Garden Club and Grosse Pointe Shores Garden Club to assist in the many details connected with a successful show.

Pointe, Park and Shores Club-ers Mrs. Philip Goold, Mrs. Robert Massie and Mrs. Alfred T. Wilson deserve gold stars for their efforts, Mrs. Harrigan says. So do we.

We'd vote gold stars, too, to Mrs. Monte Edelen, Mrs. Livingstone Howard and Mrs. Harley G. Higbie, whose efforts will result in one long, glorious Crystal Ballroom wall banked with exquisite Bonsai plants. It's worth a Show Day trip to the Center to see these beauties alone.

In the Flower Department, directions go: No spray residue, no insect damage, clean foliage and ESPECIALLY clean pots.

Foliage plants must be in bloom. ("Didn't you hear me: I said GROW!") Flowers should have some of their own foliage. Roses should be not more than half open.

Vegetable/fruit enthusiasts are limited to three apples in number, five beans and five tomatoes, six cherry tomatoes, one large eggplant and one large squash.

To assist the Pointe, Park and Shores Clubs in putting on an unusually good show, veterans like Mrs. Hansel D. Wilson, Mrs. Byron Phillips and Mrs. Herbert Schmitz, with Mrs. C. Bayard Johnson, are keeping themselves available for consultation/hard work.

More gold stars for them, of course.

20's to Roar For SS HOPE

PRO-HOPE-ITION, a recreation of the era of flappers, bootleggers and Keystone Cops, will be staged this Sunday, September 16, on the grounds of the Ranger Estate overlooking Lake St. Clair.

It's the annual garden party sponsored by the HOPE Ship League, each year with a different theme, every year with traditional gusto and imagination.

Among this year's highlights will be a 1920's Review, during which, according to chairman Rita Flaherty, Keystone Cops will "pull a raid" and carry unsuspecting guests off to jail. On the premises, of course.

There'll be a barbershop quartet, a Dixieland Band and a combo, chili dogs and the appropriate 1920's liquid refreshments. There'll be an old-fashioned photography booth, games and prizes.

It's all open to the public, from 2 to 6 o'clock. Larry and Gigi Marco, of Fairford road, are in charge of entertainment, Lee and Kathleen Terrill, of Berkshire road, of reservations.

Other Pointe committee heads are Henry Gildner, Jr., Ron and Marilyn O'Bryan, Tom Gallagher, Wayne and Delores Bolden, John and Deanna Stephens, Bill and Judie Beach and Roger and Judie Bailey.

Among the committee members are Carol Roller, of Roslyn road, and Colleen Burcar, of Three Mile drive.

This is a telephone.

It's also how to make yourself feel positively reborn. All you do is lift the receiver, dial the number directly below and say I'd like to make an appointment for a new me. Which, this spring, could involve any number of pretty things. Like deciding to be a redhead for once in your life. Or wearing curls again. Or going from short to shorter. If you've been toying with a change and hesitating and toying and hesitating — c'mon. Spring is here and we're just a ting-a-ling away.

Miss Cusumano Wed At St. Lucy's

Speaks Vows to Raymond Perry Neuman at Afternoon Ceremony; Chicago Home is Awaiting Pair

Saint Lucy's Church was setting for the wedding of Frances Ann Cusumano and Raymond Perry Neuman Saturday, September 8. Father Leo Priemer presided at the 3 o'clock rites, which were followed by a reception at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cusumano, of Hampton road, wore an Empire gown of candlelight satin. Appliques of re-embroidered Alencon lace accented her bodice and sleeves. Matching lace formed panels in her skirt and edged her circular train.

Her re-embroidered Alencon lace and illusion mantilla fell from a lace cap, and she carried a velvet-tied garden bouquet fashioned of tiny white and ivory fresh and dried flowers, ivy and baby's-breath.

Honor maid Natalie Jakucyn, of Chicago, and bridesmaids Flora, Theresa and Maria Cusumano, the bride's sisters, wore frocks of lemon yellow and lime green voile. The hems of their full, gathered skirts ended in flounces, and ruffles accented their high necklines. Their bolero jackets were removable. Their hand-tied arrangements of shaded white and yellow garden flowers were highlighted with tiny daisies and tied with lime velvet.

The bridegroom, son of Mrs. Frederick Neuman, of Pembroke, Ont., and the late Mr. Neuman, asked Thomas Calabretta, of Syracuse, N.Y., to act as best man. In the usher corps were Dominic Cusumano, the bride's brother, Garry Neuman, of Kitchener, Ont., the bridegroom's brother, and William Malouf.

The mother of the bride wore a pale pink chiffon dress and sheer jacket ensemble, the bridegroom's mother a beaded fuchsia-gown. Both mothers selected ivory cymbidium orchid corsages.

The newlyweds, vacationing on Mackinac Island, will make their home in Chicago.

Enthusiasm is really the only kind of fuel that will keep the fires of ambition burning.

Gala to Start Alliance Year

The Grosse Pointe Alliance Francaise opens its fourth season this Sunday, September 16, with a garden party gala at the Washington road home of Mrs. Garfield Tourney, new program chairman.

The festivity, scheduled for 5 to 7 o'clock, will feature wine, punch, hors d'oeuvres and a serenade of French songs by Grosse Pointe high school students.

New members of the Alliance's board of directors for 1973-74 will be on hand to greet the guests.

They include officers Kim Nuyen, president; Elmo Joseph, first vice-president; Dr. Antoine Nahoum, second vice-president; Edward Marande, treasurer, and Mrs. George Mikhail, secretary.

Other directors are Mrs. Robert Sillery, Marjorie Paquette, school chairman, Pierre Palmentier and William Black.

In addition to Mrs. Tourney and Miss Paquette, committee chairmen for the year include Mrs. Anthony Vermeulen, membership; Mrs. Charles Bachrach, travel; Mrs. Joseph Marshall, English publicity; and Rene Robert, French publicity.

The Grosse Pointe Alliance in the past three years has become a rallying point for localites who are studying French or speak the language fluently and for those who wish to learn more about the culture and customs of France, as well as for residents of the area born in France or in French-speaking countries. Each season a balanced program of lectures, luncheons, movies, and social musical occasions is planned.

In addition to the opening gala, several events are already scheduled for 1973-74, including, on Friday evening, October 26, at the War Memorial, a French lecture by M. Patrick Verhoeven on "Promenade, a Versailles Sur Les Pas de Marie Antoinette." An "Afternoon of Art" at the Detroit Institute of Arts, luncheon followed by a gallery tour conducted in French by Alliance member Mrs. Frank Kruse is set for Tuesday, November 13, and on Friday evening, December 7, "Soiree Musicale" will feature a program of French art songs and music from the Baroque period.

Later in December, a Christmas party is planned for students of French in high schools affiliated with the Grosse Pointe Alliance.

MR. and MRS. STEVE S. ZGURIS, of Muir road, attended the 25th International Achievement Conference sponsored by Field Enterprises Educational Corporation, publishers of The World Book Encyclopedia, in Houston, Tex., September 5 through 7.

friends who may have been a little lax in making reservations to HURRY UP . . .

Or they're going to be disappointed. "We're looking forward," says Vi Lemhagen, public relations chairman for Bon Secours Hospital Assistance League, annual Series sponsor, "to a lively year, opening with Olivia de Havilland on October 11.

"And we just got the scoop from chairman Betty Ireland that Lynda Bird Johnson Robb will make her very first public speaking appearance at our Series February 14, replacing the originally scheduled speaker."

As replacements go, you've got to admit that's not bad.

The Quiet Committee

They never get—and never want—much publicity. They don't hold auctions, balls, tennis or golf tournaments.

But it's a matter of record that last year's United Foundation Torch Drive Advance Gifts committee made 109 percent of its goal, raised more than a million dollars, (and that's JUST last year), going on quietly, asking for contributions from individuals, families and foundations on a person-to-person basis.

Current Advance Gifts chairman John B. Ford, III, and Mrs. Ford entertained committee members, among them Mrs. Lawrence D. Buhl, Jr., and Jack Cudlip, two more Pointers involved in the top echelon of the Advance Gifts campaign.

Partying at the Ford's Lake Shore road home was interrupted just long enough for a 20-minute training session. Since the impetus is there, there wouldn't have been much point in going on, and on, about the training.

Exchanging vows in an evening ceremony at Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, on Friday, July 20, were LINDA KAY HOMEIER, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. G. A. Custer Homeier, of Lakepointe avenue, and Lawrence George Cotter, of Grayton road. Mr. Cotter is the son of the George L. Cotters, of Detroit.

Miss Homeier Wed In Christ Church

After a Vacation in Toronto and Mackinac Island, Couple Will Be at Home in Grayton Road

Christ Church Grosse Pointe was the setting for the evening ceremony on Friday, July 20 in which Linda Kay Homeier, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. G. A. Custer Homeier, of Lakepointe avenue, became the bride of Lawrence George Cotter, of Grayton road. Mr. Cotter is the son of the George L. Cotters, of Detroit.

For the 7 o'clock rites, which were officiated by the Reverend Arnold A. Fenton, the bride chose a gown of cameo ivory lace organza combined with Cluny lace. Lace insertion and tucking accented the empire bodice that was designed with a high neckline and long sheer bishop sleeves.

A little lace cap held the bride's formal length veil of illusion outlined with matching lace. The former Miss Homeier carried a Victorian nosegay of baby's breath, stephanotis, and yellow and ivory sweetheart roses.

Mrs. Michael Tarkowski, of Berkeley, Cal., was the matron of honor. Gwendolyn Wilner, of Nottingham road, Gail Connor, of Lincoln road, and Theresa Ruelle, a cousin of the bridegroom, of Drayton Plains, Mich., served as bridesmaids.

The attendants wore floor length dresses of lemon yellow tons, white mums, pink carnations, yellow and pink sweetheart roses, and baby's breath.

James Ellison, of Detroit, acted as best man. In the usher corps were brother of the bridegroom, James Cotter, of Laguna Beach, Cal.; Ronald Messner, of Detroit; and Robert Remington, of Sterling Heights.

The mother of the bride chose a floor length, sleeveless dress of pale cornflower blue chiffon, fashioned with a flowing back panel of the same material. The bridegroom's mother selected a floor length, turquoise crepe dress featuring long chiffon sleeves and an empire waist. Both mothers wore white orchids.

Out of town guests included the bride's sister and family, the Robert Andersons, of Portland Oregon. The maternal grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Anna Sandstrom, of Newberry, Mich., also attended.

Following a reception at the Hillcrest Country Club, the couple left for a trip to Toronto and Mackinac Island. The new Mr. and Mrs. Cotter will make their home in Grayton road.

Her triple-tiered French illusion veil fell from a lace-trimmed Camelot cap, and she carried a Williamsburg

Meadow Brook Sets Season

A colorful season of eight plays ranging from musical comedy to Greek tragedy will be mounted on the Meadow Brook stage this year, including works by Tennessee Williams, Agatha Christie, Carson McCullers and William Shakespeare.

In announcing the roster of plays for 1973-74 Terence Kilburn, Meadow Brook's artistic director, said, "This season marks several steps forward in the projected life of the Meadow Brook Theatre. We are presenting the Detroit premier of a London comedy hit, 'How The Other Half Loves,' and for the first time at Meadow Brook we are staging one of the world's truly great Greek tragedies, 'Oedipus Rex,' in the premier performance of a new adaptation.

"The 1973-74 season also marks the return of a Shakespearean production, after an absence of four years, and by popular demand we are offering the first murder mystery ever seen on our stage."

Meadow Brook's eighth season opens in October with Carson McCullers' prize-winning 'Member of the Wedding,' a heartwarming comedy portraying a crucial summer in the life of an adolescent girl, rich in humor and poignancy.

'A Streetcar Named Desire' will be staged in November as a tribute to Tennessee Williams on the 25th anniversary of his unrivaled masterpiece.

The holiday production is the Detroit premier of a British hit, 'How The Other Half Loves' by Alan Ayckbourn, an imaginative tongue-in-cheek comedy of errors which enjoyed a hilarious run in London for over two years.

Sophocles' 'Oedipus Rex' will be brought to the Meadow Brook stage in January in a new adaptation by Charles Nolte, familiar to Detroit theatergoers for his outstanding directorial achievements. This towering tragedy of man against himself is one of the chief glories of the ancient and modern theatre, undiminished in power through the ages.

A deliberate change of pace is offered in February with the staging of Edgar Lee Masters' 'Spoon River' adapted by Charles Aidman. Shakespeare's delightful romantic comedy 'As You Like It' will be presented in March, and Agatha Christie's 'Ten Little Indians' in April.

'I Do! I Do!' by Tom Jones and Harvey Schmidt will conclude the season. An enchanting musical based on Jan De Hartogs comedy 'The Four Poster,' it features music and lyrics by the brilliant collaborators of 'The Fantasticks.'

Negotiations are underway to bring some exciting new names to the Meadow Brook stage, as well as to bring back some of the outstanding actors who saw last season break box office records for both attendance and sales.

The Ball, Detroit's oldest fund-raising social event, is sponsored by the Women's Committee affiliate of the American Lung Association of Southeastern Michigan, (formerly the TB and Health Society).

It is traditionally the opening social event of the fall season, and provides funds for research and health education for the local Christmas Seal agency. Each year, a "Cinderella" who has recovered from tuberculosis is selected to rule the festivities.

City Policemen Continue School

In the pursuit of continuing education, City police officers are going back to school.

Officers Edward Miller Jr. and David Teolis will be attending Macomb County Community College in Police Administration. Officer Richard Clarke will be at Wayne County Community College, also in Police Administration.

Officers Teolis and Clarke have been attending school part-time for four years and will receive their degrees this year.

In addition, Corporal Edmond Benthuyts and Corporal George Brackx will be taking, as in the past, non-credit courses at Macomb in accident investigation and other police work.

Slated on the school schedule for December is a class at Macomb in LEIN (Law Enforcement Information Network) operations. City corporals, sergeants as well as police secretary Chris Wilson, will be attending this course, which emphasizes new developments, and updates operation intricacies in LEIN procedures.

Vacationing on borrowed money is a poor way to relax.

City Accepts Bid for Bonds

Grosse Pointe City accepted a bid for its $975,000 Automobile Parking System Improvement and Refunding Revenue Bonds, at a special meeting on Wednesday, September 5. The City Council received three bids for the sale of the bonds. The Council accepted the bid of First of Michigan Corporation, Kenower, MacArthur Division, American Securities Corporation.

First of Michigan submitted the lowest bid with a 5.8661 net interest rate and a $771,763.88 net interest cost to the City.

John Nuveen and Company of Chicago, Ill. along with Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner and Smith, Inc. submitted a bid with a net interest rate of 6.5006 percent. Manly Bennett MacDonald and Company, along with Paine Weber, Jackson and Curtis submitted a bid with a net interest rate of 5.96356 percent.

The proceeds from the sale of the bonds will be used to finance the parking structure to be built behind Jacobson's in the Village. The revenue from the parking system will pay the annual interest costs and eventually pay off the bonds.

What it all boils down to is the parking structure is paid for by the people who use it.

This type of bond is known as a Municipal Revenue Bond. The interest received by investors who own these bonds is free from federal and state income tax.

The interest rates and maturation dates vary. The schedule is as follows: 1975-1982, 7 percent; 1983, 6.55 percent; 1984-1988, 5.75 percent; 1989, 5.80 percent; 1990 to 1991, 5.85 percent; 1992 to 1993, 5.875 percent; and 1994, 5 percent.

The firm of Kronk and Tocco of Oak Park will begin construction on the parking structure within the week.

Police Chiefs Attend Parley

Three Pointe law enforcement officials attended the FBI Retraining Conference Monday-Wednesday, September 10-12, at Higgins Lake.

Shores Public Safety Director Joseph Vitale, Woods Public Safety Director Henry Marchand and City Police Chief Andrew Teetaert participated in this refresher course. Only graduates of The FBI National Academy were invited.

Conference topics included incendiary and bomb devices, a session on pornography, a speaker on labor-management relations and law enforcement, and fire arms training.

Success in this life depends much on habits and appearances.

Cinema League Features San Francisco, Florida

Pierre and Elfrida Palmentier will present their latest film, "Let's Cruise from San Francisco to Florida!" at the Thursday, September 27, meeting of the Grosse Pointe Cinema League.

This all new, 16mm color motion picture will be shown at 8 p.m. in the War Auditorium of the War Memorial. The film, photographed by Mr. Palmentier and narrated by Mrs. Palmentier, is open to the public. There is no admission charge.

In May, the Palmentiers flew to San Francisco and spent five days photographing this enchanting Pacific city. A visit to Golden Gate Park and Union Square are featured, and there are scenes of two of the newest attractions in this city of cable cars and steep hills.

The Cannery, a revitalized 1906 fruit packing plant is shown, with its old brick walls now housing ultra modern shops and restaurants. It competes with nearby Fishermen's Wharf as a favorite gathering place for young and old.

Chirardell Square, one time woolen factory turning out Civil War Uniforms and later a chocolate factory, is one of the most pleasurable spots in San Francisco. Of all the stores, galleries and theaters to be found here, the most popular and nostalgic is an old-fashioned ice cream parlor where a limited amount of chocolate is still made as it was many years ago.

There are glimpses of a black fashion shows and some of the delightful roving young street musicians who play everything from Bach to Bongo drums.

Chinatown at night and a boat trip to Sausalito are photographed before the Palmentiers board their cruise ship, the new T. S. "Hamburg," which takes them from the Pacific Ocean to the Atlantic and leaves them off at Port Everglades, Fla., 15 days later.

The transit of the Panama Canal is recorded from its first Miraflores Locks until the ship docks at Cristobal later that night.

There are views of the historic South American city of Cartagena, Colombia, and highlights photographed in Jamaica feature Montego Bay with its new shopping area, Doctor's Cove Beach, and some of the people and gardens of this West Indian island before the ship docks at Port Everglades.

The Palmentiers were two of the founders of the Grosse Pointe Cinema League, which has been presenting film showings free of charge to the Grosse Pointe public since its inception 19 years ago. They also served as second and third presidents. In addition to their programs, one of the activities planned for the coming season is the making of another community film as a club project.

New officers of the organization include the following: president, H. Thompson Stock; vice-president and program chairman, Mrs. Marshall E. Collins; second vice-president and associate program chairman, George Leggett, Jr.; secretary, Miss Mary Zeock; treasurer, Mrs. Pierre Palmentier; members-at-large, Gerald R. Pearsall and Mr. and Mrs. George A. Coury, and historian and publicity chairman, Mrs. Jan Nyboer.

Set Series of Seminars At GP Memorial Church

The Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, 16 Lake Shore road, is featuring a series of Sunday Seminars beginning September 23, from 10:30-11:20 a.m.

They include "Crucial Issues in Education," "Explorations into The New Testament," "Keep on Growing Discussions with Virgil Jones

Schools Facing Several Issues

The opening day of school was commented upon at the Board of Education meeting on Monday evening, September 10.

Dr. Theos Anderson, School Superintendent, stated that the opening went smoothly with all the teachers in their classrooms despite continuing negotiations. Major emphasis was placed on enrollment, class size, and the construction work at South High.

At present, the total enrollment stands at 11,598, which is 734 less than last year at the same time. However, the drop was expected.

The high school enrollment dropped 200; until last year enrollment had been the same or increased. Last year, the total enrollment dropped 1,180. The final count for this year is not yet official.

The large class sizes, primarily in the elementary schools, caused great concern. Nine of the 10 elementary schools are involved in this problem. In the kindergarten through third grades, there are 34 sections which need to be cut to the 28-student limit.

Seven sections in grades four through six have classes of over 33, one in particular having 38. Some are at the breaking point right now, but the Board is waiting for final enrollment in those cases.

With extra available teaching staff members, relief will be given where needed. Critical areas, such as reading and social studies, will have class sizes cut, but the extra-curriculars may remain at the larger class sizes.

In spite of the construction at South High, the new classrooms were occupied as scheduled; their completion date was September 10. On the other hand, there is still no air conditioning, Wicking Library is still not usable and the remodeling is still not completed.

Offer Expanded Swim Program

The Grosse Pointe Swim Club and the Department of Community Services are co-sponsoring A.A.U. activities again this year, and have developed a greatly expanded program.

In addition to the swimming practices and participation in swimming meets scheduled in the past, programs for diving, high school swimmers, and adults are being offered.

The adult swims are under the auspices of the A.A.U. Masters Program and will consist of workouts two evenings a week under the direction of a coach. A person must be 25 or older to qualify for participation in the program. This program isn't just for adults interested in competitive swimming, but also for natators who like to stay fit.

All programs begin the week of Monday, September 17. For further information, or to enroll in any of the programs, call the department at 885-3808 or 885-0271.

$80,000 Thief Gets Probation

Thomas E. Doyle, 23, of 14786 Novara, Detroit, was sentenced to three years probation in Wayne Circuit Court, for the $80,000 burglary of the home of Dr. Robert C. Dickenman, 1014 Bishop, last November 17, it was disclosed by Park Lt. Gordon Duncan on Monday, September 10.

Doyle was tried and sentenced on Tuesday, September 4, the lieutenant said. The convicted burglar is still being held by Federal authorities on $10,000 bond for bank robbery, which could be a factor in the probation sentence, Duncan said. Doyle faces trial in the hold-up of a Warren bank.

Another possibility that Doyle was given probation in the Park case, Duncan said, is that 90 percent of the loot, including Dr. Dickenman's 1972 Corvette, had been recovered. Approximately $8,000 of the valuables taken from the doctor's residence, were recovered from friends of Doyle, who purchased items from him without knowing that they had been stolen.

Doyle was arrested last May by Park Det. Sgt. James LaPratt, who after six months of investigation, with the aid of FBI agents, uncovered evidence that pointed to Doyle as a suspect.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation entered the case because of the possibility that some of the stolen goods might be transported over state lines.

Taken from Dr. Dickenman's home, were original oil paintings and ink sketches by famous artists, oriental rugs, stereo equipment and clothing.

The doctor, a pathologist at Cottage Hospital, had just returned home from a visit to Rome, and interrupted the looting of his house while it was in progress. A valuable painting was left at the curb as Doyle and another suspect fled in the doctor's car. The second man was arrested and released after questioning because of insufficient evidence linking him to the crime.

Men slacken their speed when bad habits begin to ride them.

Club Has Many Fall Activities

The Neighborhood Club, 17150 Waterloo, is off to another year of serving Grosse Pointe and other area communities this fall.

Ever since Labor Day, phones have been constantly ringing and customers have been at the counter to register for activities. All age groups are involved, and the club urges families and friends to join up. There is now a family membership for $20.

There are varied activities for younger children. Basic motor skills is designed for youngsters with muscular coordination, and or perceptual problems. Kiddie gym class introduces youngsters to grade school physical education classes. The tiny tumblers class prepares children for tumbling and gymnastics, (classes are held at Grosse Pointe North High School on Saturday mornings).

The teens have numerous activities: basketball for boys and girls, judo, floor hockey, horseback riding and tumbling and gymnastics, (which is held at North High).

Adults also may participate in fall activities with the Neighborhood Club. New programs for the women are volleyball and bowling leagues. The volleyball league will be held at North High on Wednesday nights.

The club suggest getting a team together for some fun nights of volleyball this fall. Bowling will "roll" at the East Warren Lanes bowling alley on Wednesday mornings.

All classes are still open for the fall program. You may either register by mail or in person. For further information call 885-4600.

Major emphasis was placed on enrollment, class size, and the construction work at South High. At present, the total enrollment stands at 11,598, which is 734 less than last year at the same time. However, the drop was expected. The high school enrollment dropped 200; until last year enrollment had been the same or increased. Last year, the total enrollment dropped 1,180. The final count for this year is not yet official. The large class sizes, primarily in the elementary schools, caused great concern. Nine of the 10 elementary schools are involved in this problem. In the kindergarten through third grades, there are 34 sections which need to be cut to the 28-student limit. Seven sections in grades four through six have classes of over 33, one in particular having 38. Some are at the breaking point right now, but the Board is waiting for final enrollment in those cases. With extra available teaching staff members, relief will be given where needed. Critical areas, such as reading and social studies, will have class sizes cut, but the extra-curriculars may remain at the larger class sizes. In spite of the construction at South High, the new classrooms were occupied as scheduled; their completion date was September 10. On the other hand, there is still no air conditioning, Wicking Library is still not usable and the remodeling is still not completed. The punch list, minor contract items undone, is to be completed, and will be finished within 30 days. An added incentive for the contractors to complete their job is the $150,000 of contract money which is being withheld until that time.

Another Beautiful Tea

Traditionally, the Michigan Division Woman's National Farm and Garden Association's IFYE (International Farm Youth Exchange) tea is held in a breathtaking setting.

There were, for instance, years when members enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson at Meadowbrook Hall... and of Mrs. Standish Backus, at her magnificent home here in The Pointe... and of Mrs. Alfred Glancy, Jr., whose Lake Shore road estate is passing, splitting, even now.

Estates and mansions go, homes change hands, take on new lives, but the IFYE Tea continues, and continues to find beautiful settings for itself.

This fall, Mrs. Frederick Knorr will be IFYE Tea hostess, atop her wooded, flower-filled hill in Bloomfield Hills, on Thursday, September 27.

Among Pointers crossing town for the party will be Mrs. Lynn McNaughton, WNF&GA honorary president, the Mesdames Clarence Wagnier, Benjamin Young, Crawford Frost, Donald Flintermann, Thomas Hammond, Henry Wallstrom, Frederick Hillger and Waldo Fellows, and Miss Marie Louise Anderson.

Pointe Book Club to Meet

Members of the Pointe Book Club will open their fall season at the Trombley road residence of Mrs. Gordon B. Myers at noon Monday, September 17, with a luncheon. Serving as co-hostesses are Mrs. Edward Freimuth and Mrs. John Marshall.

Mrs. Watson Ford will review Erma Bombeck's "Just Wait Until You Have Children of Your Own."

Mid-Century Begins Programs Tuesday

Mid-Century Toastmistress Club has scheduled Parliamentary Procedure and Protocol as the primary topic for discussion at its first 1973-74 meeting, to be held Tuesday, September 18, at 9:30 o'clock at the First-Lutheran Church of Detroit in Cadeux road. All club or prospective club officers and their friends are welcome.

Further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Florence Nolte, 881-0582.

Carl's Corner

Our suspicions were confirmed after traveling over 6,000 miles in 17 states. Michigan has absolutely the worst highway system we have ever seen. Heavy traffic jams, accidents, poor highway surfaces, no right turns on red signals, no left turns with green arrows at busy intersections, narrow expressways; no rapid transit system. For the motor capital of the world we rate "Zero" on an up to date highway system. For the tax money we spend on our highway department, we sure "ain't gitten" our money's worth.
